ullering and also to duve asay Paire as co*n as post the the new of them had from cassie and posted the information about Pape on the mifernst Finally, one day Paipes family called and say that they wannst te p*k berig

When assie learned of this matter she was greatly angry and sent to the hospital.

Lossie was not at home and Paige was successfully "driven" out of the Tate family

I don't know if cassie is old or confused. She is better to an outsider than her own granddaughter!"

Lindsey complained and couldn't help but worry, "Right now, I'm afraid that if Paige doesn't leave, she will have plans. for example, fighting with Abbigail for Davon..."

The conditions of the Elinor family were more than twice as good as the Tate family!

Davon was gentle and sensible. It could be seen that he cherished Abbigail very much and treated Abbigail very well...

Fortunately, Abbigail worked hard. Not only was she beautiful, but she was also very gentle, so she won Davon's heart!

"Tyrell, let's go find the attending doctor Colin and ask him to help us with the transfer procedure."

"That's all we can do."

Tyrell sighed.

"Let's go."

Paige followed behind Martin, holding a mobile phone in one hand and sending messages.

In the afternoon, she went to the auction and performed an operation for Killian. There were still many messages that had not been responded to in time.

At this time, someone pushed a wheelchair out of the corner and almost bumped into Paige.

Martin pulled her to his side. "Be careful."

Paige reacted and her face became hot again.

In the car, Martin saw that Paige was not in high spirits. He stopped the car halfway.

"Wait for me for a while."

He got out of the car and approached a dessert shop.

After a while, he came out with a few bags.

There were small cakes, bread, milk, juice, and other things, as well as some cute candy.

"They said little girls like these." He handed them to her.

Paige must be hungry after having operated on his grandfather for such a long time today.

Paige looked at the food in front of her and was about to say something when Martin approached her again. He opened a bottle of milk for her and inserted a straw.

Paige didn't know what to say

"I am not hungry."

Eat some

Martin handed over the milk.

Paige took it and drank a few mouthfuls. It was obviously pure milk, but she did not expect it would be a little sweet

On the other side.

"Dr Williamson, what do you mean by 'can't be approved"?"

Lindsey found Colin. As soon as she brought up transferring to another hospital, Colin's face turned cold.

"In this situation, it is best for Mrs. Tate to stay in Farwen Hospital."

"Is there no other better hospital?"

Tyrell couldn't help but ask.

"Farwen Hospital is the best hospital in the country."

"Yes, yes, yes. Everyone knows that, but..."

Before Tyrell could finish, Lindsey took a step forward and said, "Dr. Williamson, we have no other choice. If we don't transfer Cassie to another hospital, I am afraid that someone will pester her and affect her recovery....

Colin looked at her coldly. Was this person referring to Paige?

She simply didn't know what was good for Cassie.

How much had Paige done for the Tate family, and what had they done?

"If you really care about Mrs. Tate, how can you arrive now? The nurse called you at nine o'clock in the morning," Colin asked coldly.

"We, we just happened to have something to do..."

A few lad*es asked Lindsey to go to the spa, and Tyrell went to play golf with a few bosses...

In the evening, the nanny had already prepared food. They wanted to have dinner while it was hot!

After dinner, they rushed over.

"You have important matters to do, so you don't care about Mrs. Tate?"

Lindsey and Tyrell blushed at Colin's words. It was especially awkward for them.

"I can sign the transfer procedures, but I will say it first. The medical equipment and medical resources of other hospitals are far inferior to that of Farwen Hospital. Once Cassie leaves Farwen Hospital, she will d*e in less than a week. You have to be prepared."

When Tyrell heard this, his expression was not calm. "Then Dr. Williamson, is there any better way? For example, can Cassie leave the hospital and be safe?"

"Yes"

When Tyrell heard this, he was overjoyed. "Dr Williamson, please tell me.

"There is a medicine that can save Cassie's life."

"Please tell me. I will write it down."

Tyrell hurriedly took out a small notebook, took out a pen, and opened the pen.

nly the black market has it. This medicine costs 1.6 million dollars per pill, and it needs to be taken twice a month. If Mrs. Tate takes it for three months, you can send her over for surgery.

When Tyrell and Lindsey heard this, they looked at each other. How much? 16 million dollars? Then it would cost 9.6 million dollars in three months.

Was the medicine so expensive now?

"It's made from very rare medicinal herbs, so it's very rare."

Tyrell silently put away his small notebook and pen. "Then I won't transfer her to another hospital. I'll have to trouble Dr. Williamson to take care of her next..."

The reason why they saved Cassie was first that she had 30% of the shares, which was worth 50 million dollars. This pricy medicine would cost 20% of it, which was obviously not cost-effective.

Secondly, Cassie was biased. If she became muddle-headed in the future, she would give the shares to Paige...

They were determined to let Cassie make a will before she d*ed and leave all the shares to Abbigail.

This was why they wanted to save Cassie.

Paige used to help the Tate family get through crises because the company had Cassie's shares. Otherwise, she wouldn't care about Tyrell....

But the Tate family didn't know and thought that they were very powerful and could become the richest in Dolton...

Tyrell took out the bank card that was given to Paige just now and secretly stuffed it into the medical record in front of

Colin

This made Colin a bit more disgusted.

"Mr. Tate, are you trying to make me lose my job and go to jail?"

If the medical staff used their jobs to accept money privately, it was considered a bribe. If the amount of money was big, he needed to go to jail.

"Dr. Williamson, you misunderstood..." Tyrell hurriedly put on a smile and said carefully, "It's not to let you go against professional ethics. It's just a small gift. We know that you have worked hard during this period. You can take the money to buy some supplements...

"Yes, Dr. Williamson, just take it!"

"Take it away"

Colin did not even look at it and said coldly, "Someone told me about this and I will naturally take care. There is no need for you to do anything unnecessary. Go out."

"Dr. Williamson..."

Lindsey still wanted to say something, but Tyrell quickly took the bank card and smiled, pretending that nothing had happened. "Yes, yes, yes, we will go now. If Dr. Williamson needs anything later, feel free to tell me.."

If not for the sake of Paige, Colin would have already driven them out.
