Chapter 45

She Gets Into the Old Man’s Car

Henry picked ten good-looking dresses to show on the big screen.

With just a glance, Paige saw a few problems. “For the first one, the lace is and can be removed. The second dress should be changed into a short skirt, and the V-neck be replaced with a round collar The third dress can be changed to this.

Paige casually sketched on the paper, and then a prettier dress with flowers, which was suitable for summer, came into view.

“There is the fourth.

After Paige finished commenting on the ten dresses, everyone was shocked. Obviously, they were shocked by her professionalism.

They originally thought that the person sent by the headquarters was unreliable and did not take this girl seriously at all. They did not expect that she could point out the problems with just a few words.

She was professional and knew more than them.

Otherwise, how could she find the problems in such a short time and give a better plan?

“Ms. Tate, it won’t help no matter how good our design is, as some of our colleagues are not good enough.

We are very helpless!

The atmosphere in the company is always bad. Even if you are not assimilated, others will exclude you!

“We are lacking in manpower and professional knowledge. It is useless for the headquarters to keep us, but it is also a pity to abandon us. We are also in a dilemma.”

Many people spoke out and pointed out the problem.

“Before I came to the company, I asked around Paige’s eyes swept over everyone. “Our company sets product design, development, production, and sales as one. We also take some external orders, such as helping other factories to process products. At present, in addition to clothes, shoes, and bags, there are also male and female accessories, such as square scarves, sunglasses, and other products.

“One year has passed, but the company saw no development. There must be something wrong with this.

“I walked around the company just now. Some machines are too old to keep up with the times. Let the people. of the purchasing department get new ones in three days, including machines for cutting cloth, sewing, printing patterns, stitching, automatic packaging, etc. I will make a detailed list.”

When everyone heard this, they were a little excited! They had wanted to replace these instruments for a long. time

The company will have two directions of development One is that our company must have some masterwork, and the other is to maintain the current development of the company. We still need to take some external orders.

“The management staff will be greatly adjusted. Everyone, be *prepared.

“If someone is unwilling to cooperate with colleagues or can’t accept the change in work, you can submit your resignation to the HR department in advance.

“If you have any questions later, come to my office and look for me at any time. Let’s call it a day”

Paige stood up. She was exuding a strong and cool aura.

Many people looked behind her back and faintly felt that the company was going to change. They saw hope for the company.

There would be great changes.

When Paige returned to the office, her mobile phone vibrated. “Samuel?”

“Paige, I have come to Chicago. Do you have time to have lunch with me at noon?”

A hearty laugh came from the phone, “Even if you don’t have time, you have to squeeze out the time! Guess what day it is today.”

“Your birthday?”

Paige did not expect that she would be so busy that she forgot his birthday! She did not prepare a gift!

“You little girl, at least you are not completely upsetting me! You still remember my birthday! Then let’s meet at Chilakey

Restaurant at noon. It’s still the box you like, and I will pick you up.

“OK, I will send you the location.”

“OK.”

After hanging up the phone, Paige sent her location to Samuel Plath and checked her bag. Today, she did not bring anything of value with her She remembered the production department of the company. There seemed to be a few machines that could be used.

At this time, Henry, the head of the design department, and the designer Mariela were at the production department to see how the latest designs were made.

They were talking when they saw Paige appear

“I will use the machine. You can do your work.”

She asked her assistant Deon to bring a lot of fabric. Some didn’t have the right color, and some materials were not suitable. She could only constantly change the style. After fiddling for a while in the production department, she finally made several sets of clothes and then left in a hurry.

Henry and Mariela looked at each other in shock. They could not believe that Paige had made several sets of clothes in such a short time. The whole process was smooth. There was no mistake at all!

The key point was that Paige could change the style according to the situation. There was not even a model draft, and the clothes she made were especially beautiful.

However, Paige did it too quickly. Even though they stood beside her, they couldn’t see it clearly.

Who on earth was this Paige?

She was so powerful.

After Parge finished the birthday present, she received a Line message from Martin.

“Where do you work?”

Seeing that Paige did not reply, he sent another message after a while. “Are you used to it on the first day?”

After thinking for a while, he added, “Have you been bullied?”

Paige sent a location, and Martin saw that it was a small clothing company under the Lusk family.

She has only been back for two days, and she has already taken over the company? Isn’t that too fast?

“Are you tired?” Martin could not bear to see her get so tired.

“I’m not tired. It’s very easy. I was not bullied.” Paige replied to all of the questions.

“Let’s have lunch together.”

“Not today. I have an appointment with someone else.”

“Male?”

“Yes.”

Martin looked at her reply, and the jealous and unhappy feeling in his heart spread again.

“Which restaurant is it? I’ll send you there.”

Paige replied “no need” and picked up the report sent by Deon. She did not reply anymore.

At noon.

When Paige received a call from Samuel, she knew that Samuel had arrived downstairs. She picked up her baseball bag and got into his car

“Mr. Stowe, should we follow?” Rhys did not expect Paige would take over the company so quickly after Paige’s family acknowledged her. He also did not expect that Paige would reject Martin’s lunch invitation and get in someone else’s car!

This license plate number looked very unfamiliar. It should not be someone in the upper-class circle of Chicago. The background of the person in the car was unknown.

However, since Martin had to follow him personally, it must be a man!

“What follow? We are just looking for a place to have lunch,” Martin said in a disapproving tone.

“Sure.” Rhys thought, you are the boss, and you are right. Is the restaurant you are heading to the place Ms. Tate is going to?

You just don’t want to admit it.

At this time, in the car, when the old man saw Paige, his tone was somewhat excited. “You get more beautiful! It is too difficult to see you now!”

Samuel knew that if not for his birthday, Paige would definitely not have the time to see him.

“How is your grandmother now?”

Paige told him the general situation, only to see that Samuel had tears in his eyes, “With you taking care of her, and Todd also in Chicago, I am relieved.

Samuel was in love with Cassie back then, but he was born poor Cassie’s family looked down on him and disagreed with their relationship.

In the end, Samuel could only watch when his beloved woman was forced to marry a small local rich family member – the Tate family. He worked hard and made a name for himself in the business field, and finally managed to make business abroad and gain a foothold abroad.

Later, he felt that his career had been successful. He returned to the small z-list city to find Cassie and gave her a ring, promising that no matter what request she made with this ring, he would satisfy it!
