Chapter 507 Half Human and Half Ghost

"And Yana, you traitor. Come back with me and kneel to the elders to admit your mistakes!"

"No way," Paige and Yana said in unison. They looked at each other in surprise. Unexpectedly they had a tacit understanding.

"It just so happens that I haven't loosened my muscles for a long time..."

After being slapped by Paige, Yana felt a lot more relaxed because the poison in her body was forced out.

Yana rubbed her wrists and was about to do battle.

The lead masked man sneered coldly, "The organization has set up a net outside. Today you two can't escape! If you know what's good for you, surrender now."

Paige said with great interest, "Show your abilities."

"That's a lot of nonsense," said Yana and Paige together, sneering. Their beauty was tinged with a trace of coldness.

Take that." Yana flashed to the front like a flash of lightning.

Paige didn't expect that after Yana expelled a little poison from her body, her speed was much faster than before, and so were her moves. Also, her moves were more flexible than before.

Wave after wave of people poured in from the door, popping up.

Paige also firmly gained the upper hand. These dozens of minions were easy for her.

Meanwhile, a hail of bullets hit them.

Paige overturned the table and pushed the table in front of Yana to protect her from danger.

Yana picked up the knife dropped by someone else on the ground, and threw it right behind Paige, hitting the person who was about to attack Paige.

The masked man in the lead exuded a terrifying aura when seeing them cooperating so tacitly.

These two crimes were enough to sentence Yana to death!

Both of them were protecting each other in their way.

It seemed that Elder Kipling guessed right. Paige was trained as one of the forces against the organization by Yana in private!

Not only did Yana train Paige in private, but Yana also colluded with the Flame Gang and harmed her people.

Now he would see if other people in the organization dared to protect Yana!

Yana was kind of puzzled. What?

At this time, Paige looked at Yana with pursed lips. "Where's the thing?"

Suddenly, she remembered, took out a small medicine bottle from her pocket, and asked suspiciously, "Is this what you mean?"

Paige raised her eyebrows as if to say yes.

Seven Step Down Powder?!

Yana immediately threw the medicine bottle over, and Paige easily caught it. It took Paige less than two seconds to pour Seven Step Down Powder into another bottle of medicine with one hand.

completely powerless. The leading man in the mask held his breath at once, but the fine powder was still inhaled into his lungs.

Paige sprinkled the gray powder over the other people. Before everyone knew what happened, they fell one after another,

After a few seconds, he felt weak and unable to exert himself....

It turned out to be so powerful.

What was this?

How ungrateful she was.

Thinking of this, the masked man's anger burned even more. He found that Yana went too far!

The organization had carefully cultivated her for so many years, but they never expected to raise such a Scourge!

Could it be that Yana and this girl were researching some drugs in private to specially deal with the organization?

"It's called One Step Down Powder." Paige gave it an impromptu name. Curling her lips, she looked at the dozens of defeated men in front of her, who were lying one by one. It seemed that the strength of this organization was not good enough.

How did Paige make it?

Yana didn't expect her to be so powerful. Paige only mixed two medicines, which had such a great effect....

The masked man, who was completely weak, rapidly pressed the button on the watch. And soon, a group of men of sacrifice appeared at the door.

They seemed to have come from the underworld, each with a strong chill on their bodies. And the cold wind coming in from the window made people feel shuddering.

and said softly, "You go first." She would cover Paige.

Yana saw this group of people, a cool gleam in her eyes. Knowing that she was likely to die here today, Yana glanced at Paige

Yana was able to have today's skills, which was because she had been fighting with these strange people again and again since making them look like abnormal people. Even their faces were dark blue.

Paige raised her eyebrows. "Finally here are some useful?"

The "him" naturally referred to Lamont.

The organization had dispatched this group of people, indicating that the Flame Gang would be found soon.

"We must take him away." Yana took the lead in attacking one of the men of sacrifice. "Now is the time."

Because these people were indestructible, it was difficult to use a knife to cut their skin. The toxins in their bodies were intricate,

However, her strength and moves hit No. 1107 like she was tickling him... No. 1107 was unafraid, standing like a statue, motionless.

It was not safe for Lamont to stay here. He must return to his country, the sooner the better.

After Yana hit seven or eight moves, he quickly punched. With just one punch, Yana took a few steps back, clutching her stomach in pain.

Paige realized that the other party was not simple, and asked in a low voice, "What are their backgrounds?" "In recent years, they have been injected with various drugs..." Yana replied with pain, "They have long since become nondescript, half-human and half-ghost. They don't recognize their relatives..."

But what Paige didn't expect was that another group came outside the door....

"Is there any weakness?" Paige asked again. "I've fought with them all these years, but so far, I haven't found out yet."

"Paige, find a way to leave." Yana reluctantly straightened her thin body again, and whispered, "I'll deal with them for a while, and Paige immediately supported Yana. She saw very clearly just now that No. 1107's punching speed was indeed faster than the you help me take him away." Paige looked at the crowd of people. "I can't leave."

Weren't they just dozens of half-human and half-ghost monsters?

Yana also knew that there was little hope, but what if there was a chance that she could sneak away? "I won't leave you alone," Paige said again, "I can't explain to Lamont and Nate if something happened to you."

Paige was speechless, looking at the thirty or so eerie people in front of her, and suddenly felt great pressure.

"Electric baton is useless to them..."

Paige pulled out a slender stick from the bag on her back, which was one meter long.
