Ceo's Mysterious Fiancee by Piper Dunlap

Chapter 508

Chapter 508 Coming Back

Yana Jacob's words made Paige confused...

Paige wondered, "Are they really half-human and half-ghost monsters? Are they really not afraid of electricity?

Then how do they maintain their lives?

And how do they obey orders?

They should have some weaknesses.

But what are they?"

In the castle,

Lamont was excited after watching the video. He called Paige a thousand times, and it almost exhausted the battery of Paige's mobile phone, which was low before.

Paige didn't answer all the time, and it made Lamont agitated. He was afraid that something would happen to them. At the same time, he eagerly looked forward to their return.

The video he saw before was sent by Paige and was about Yana. In the video, Yana heard that he was "dead", and the disbelief and pain in her eyes were enough to prove that she still loved him.

Her love for him was deeper than he imagined.

Besides, when Yana heard that he was killed by others, her eyes were clearly full of anger and hate. Obviously she felt painfully pity for him.

Lamont didn't know that Yana cared so much about him!

In the video, Paige said that she could introduce another man to Yana, but Yana refused it disdainfully and said that no one could replace Lamont.

Lamont thought, "What a high praise!

Yana said that she didn't care and didn't need to find another man to replace him...

This means that she only wants him and needs him.

Yana was poisoned and exhausted at that time, but after misunderstanding that he was killed, she still tried her best to avenge him by herself..."

Lamont was so moved that the corners of his eyes were wet.

The pain, torture, anxiety, and self-doubt caused by the breakup in this year were all gone after he saw that video.

In order to force out the poison in Yana's body, Lamont knew that it was Paige who came up with such an idea, so that he could hear Yana's inner voice...

"How clever!" Lamont said in his mind, "My sister is a treasure!

I will definitely reward her well later!

But why didn't she answer the phone?"

Lamont dialed the number again.

He wondered, "Could it be that her cell phone was silent and she was sleeping, so she didn't know he called?

Or are they in danger? Paige is too busy to answer the phone?"

Thinking of this, Lamont felt more agitated, and he looked at the clock again. It was after five in the morning.

It was dark outside, and the storm was beating his heart, making him more and more uneasy.

He recalled that in the video Yana questioned Paige's identity, so he decided that he must introduce his treasured sister to Yana next time...

His beloved sister! A child of his father and mother!

Paige Lusk!

Tyler saw Lamont pacing back and forth in the living room, and advised, "Mr. Lamont, aren't you going to have a rest?"

"Did Paige contact you?" Lamont asked anxiously.

"No…"

Tyler said in his mind, "How will Boss contact them? After all, Boss doesn't need to report her whereabouts to them unless she has something to order them.....

"Do we have to wait until noon..." Lamont murmured.

Just now Lamont inquired from Martin that Paige would not be back until noon...

But after seeing Yana in the video and hearing her voice, he missed her very much.

He wished he could see Yana at once, and he couldn't wait to hold her in his arms.

"Do you know where she goes?" Lamont asked again.

Tyler shook his head and said truthfully, "Mr. Lamont, I really don't know..."

He supplemented the words in his mind, "Only Boss herself knows where she goes...

They are just subordinates, so they can't butt into her plan, and they dare not butt into it....

Jairo Black was an exception, he was always worried about Boss's plan and he even asked Martin for help last time...

In the end, Jairo's bonus was deducted by Boss."

Lamont was 100 anxious to rest, so he called Martin, "Martin, are you sleeping?"

Martin was easy to be woken up when asleep, so when he heard the phone ring, he quickly picked it up,

"Lamont? Is there something wrong?"

"You're sleeping?" Lamont felt sorry, "I'm really sorry to wake you up..."

Actually Martin didn't want to go to bed at first, but Paige had warned him, so he had to take two pills to help him fall asleep, and he couldn't fall asleep until he smelled the sachet given by Paige.

However, he was woken up twice by Lamont's phone....

Martin thought, "It was not his fault. If Paige sees his dark circles tomorrow, can she forgive him?"

"It's okay, Lamont, why haven't you slept yet?" Martin asked patiently. He loved Paige, so he also respected

Lamont from the bottom of his heart.

"Paige sent me a video just now. It was about Yana. She saw Yana and forced out the poison in Yana's body." Lamont said excitedly and happily, "And after that, I sent her countless messages and made countless phone calls, but she didn't answer."

"You're worried that Paige is in danger?" Martin knew what Lamont was thinking about at once.

"Yes. Paige would definitely reply to me as soon as she saw my messages or missed calls, but it has been more than an hour since my first message..."

For more than an hour, Lamont spent every minute in torment and anxiety.

He felt that he was riding a roller coaster.

"Don't worry. Paige said that she will be back at noon." Martin greatly trusted Paige. "She will definitely do what she promised, and she even will do it in advance."

Martin knew that Paige would never break her promise.

"But I'm still worried that they're really in danger..." Lamont kept feeling uneasy as if he was about to lose something.

His eyelids were twitching...

And the twitching caused more anxiety, and more worries.

'So you want me to investigate what was happening?"

In fact, Martin also wanted to make an investigation, but he knew that Paige didn't want him to do that.

However, if the investigation was suggested by Lamont, it would be different.

"If Paige blames you for not trusting her, tell her to call me, and I will explain," Lamont promised on the phone, "I will do what I say."

Lamont, there is no need," Martin said. He dreamed that Paige was in danger just now, and he was worried that that dream was true...

Martin sent someone to investigate where the two girls were right away.

The area was not that big, so it was not hard to find someone.

The rain outside gradually subsided, and the sky lightened up slightly. Lamont came to the garden of the castle and paced back and forth, looking out of the gate from time to time...

A car stopped at the gate. Lamont raised his eyes and saw that it was Martin who came.

Martin couldn't sleep either, so instead of waiting for news in Microvay Gang, he decided to come to the castle and accompany Lamont.

The two waited together in the garden.

Time passed, and finally someone shouted, "It's Boss! Boss is back!"

"What happened to Boss?"

"Boss! Boss!"

Everyone in the castle rushed towards Paige immediately.

In the distance, they saw a girl carrying another girl on her back, and walking step by step in the drizzle...

Two girls' bodies were stained red with blood, and it was hard to tell whose blood it was. A large patch of red looked shocking.

Martin and Lamont were terribly terrified when seeing this, and they immediately ran towards two girls.