Ceo's Mysterious Fiancee by Piper Dunlap

Chapter 519

Chapter 519 Counterplot

The phones of the two groups rang at the same time, and Martin's men saw that the caller was not Rhys, but Martin, so they immediately picked it up in fright.

Paige called Nate. When Nate heard the exclusive ringtone, he thought it was something wrong there, and immediately answered it.

Paige said, "Those are my fiancé's men."

As soon as Paige finished speaking, she heard Martin say to Nate from the other side of the phone, "Stop it, those are my fiancée's friends."

The two groups of people were stunned and looked at each other with the same unbelievable expressions.

"Withdraw," Martin only said one word and seven or eight of his subordinates obeyed his order to leave immediately.

And Paige asked with great interest, "You ran to my door, kidnapped my servant, and beat my Lamont, who was named, was at a loss and didn't know what happened.

"Lamont is your elder brother?" Nate felt like receiving a head—on blow, looking at the luxurious building in front of him unbelievably. He was startled, and asked, "Is this your house?"

Paige said, "Yes."

Nate asked again, "Is Lamont really your third brother?",

Paige said again, "Yes."

"Then do you know where he went?" Nate didn't expect fate to be so wonderful. He said, "Before Aaryn died, she had a last wish."

Aaryn was Yana's nickname.

After hearing what Nate said, Paige looked at Lamont opposite, and repeated deliberately, "You mean, Yana's last wish is to take a last look at Lamont before dying? Just want a video of him, and don't want to bother him? Just look at him in this way?"

When Lamont heard this, he sadly looked at the girl on the sofa and felt moved.

Nate said, "That's right, Lamont is your brother. Do you have his latest video? Send one to me, or show it directly to Aaryn." He thought, "If I had known that Lamont is Paige's brother, I wouldn't have had to fly back here on a plane for more than ten hours. It's all my fault. I should investigate it clearly, but it's not too late now. Paige is beside Aaryn, and she can show her the video at any time."

Paige asked, "Lamont's latest video? Yes, I'll send it to you later."

After taking a short video, Paige sent it over. "I just took it."

Nate opened it and saw that his sister Aaryn was lying on the sofa next to Lamont. He thought,

She thought, "She is very close to Lamont now."

"What's going on?"

Paige said succinctly, "People from the Ghost Alliance found Yana's hiding place. We broke through the siege and came to the

"70% to 80%," Paige said lazily.

He was overjoyed and was dazed by the huge surprise. He didn't expect Paige to be so powerful...

Lamont on the side also looked at his sister in disbelief. He thought, "Paige can save Yana? She is 70% to 80% sure?"

Nate thought in shock, "70% to 80%!"

But at this time, Bonnie waited for Paige's reply for a long time. She saw another group of people leaving in a hurry and was worried that Nate would pose a threat to Lamont if he stayed...

Bonnie thought, "The point is, Nate is anxious and worried for a while and overjoyed for a while, looking like a psychopath..."

She picked up a long clothesline pole in the garden, walked lightly to the back of Nate, and hit him hard.

Although Nate was overwhelmed by the huge surprise, when he noticed the movement behind

"I…I will fight with you!" Bonnie couldn't snatch back the pole in Nate's hand, feeling anxious and angry.

"Did Bonnie personally come forward to teach Nate a lesson?"

"I'm Paige's friend," Nate explained while holding the pole.

"What Paige? There is no one named Paige... Let go..." Bonnie stomped on Nate's foot hard again.

Nate retracted his feet painfully, and Bonnie hurriedly grabbed the long pole and was about to hit him.

Paige said, "Bonnie."

Paige's voice came from the other side of the phone, and Bonnie's movement froze. She asked,

"How, how come there is Ms. Paige's voice on your phone? Oh, no! We don't have Ms. Paige here...

Don't cheat me with the synthesized voice!"

"Paige, say something..." Nate hastily switched on the speakerphone.

Paige said, "Bonnie, Nate is my friend. I forgot to tell you when you sent the video just now."

At that time, Paige just wanted Nate to stop as soon as possible, so as not to hurt the innocent, and she didn't have time to reply front of her. She thought, "How could Ms. Paige have such a friend? And he is a man..."

Paige said to Bonnie, "It's okay, you go into the room first."

"Then I'll go in first." Bonnie took the long pole from Nate, but her suspicion towards him still didn't ease a bit. She always felt

Paige said, "When the time and place are determined, I will send it to you later."

Nate replied, "OK."

Paige explained, "I just found out that last night. I heard from Nate that they met a few years ago, but they didn't let the organization know."

"It's no wonder Yana is able to hide under the monitor of the organization for so long. It is because of her brother's help…"

Martin asked Paige in front of him, "You said just now that you have an idea to deal with those people? What is it?" Paige smiled and said, "When the Ghost Alliance receives the news that we are returning to Paige smiled, "That's right. I will arrange some people first tonight."

He thought, "Did they forget something? Although I am here, it seems that I do not participate in it at all..."

Martin said, "I will let my people fully cooperate with you."

Lamont was silent on the side.
