

Chapter 532 The Best Candidate

Lucy reminded her again, “Mr. Berger is about to retire, and his connections after retirement will not be as powerful as they are now. And some hostile forces were eliminated by Ms. Paige... Now 30 to 40% of the forces have been involved in the current issue, and it is hard for them to fend for themselves. Another 30 to 40% of the forces can hardly take after themselves, and we don’t need to fear the remaining 10 to 20%... After retiring, Mr. Berger can live a peaceful life.”

Pamela thought, “I see.

Paige indirectly clears the obstacles for my father and protects his reputation.”

“So, Paige will be in danger?” After hearing this, the first thing Pamela did was to care about Paige.

After all, such a big event involved so many people, so how could Paige ensure that she would not be involved?

“No. I have to ask Dad and Mon to help Paige secretly so that she won’t have trouble.”

Pamela thought, “Paige is Nathan’s only younger sister, and he loves her the most.

What’s more, I like Paige very much...”

“Ms. Pamela, calm down. Mr. and Ms. Berger have their ideas.”

Lucy didn’t say whether George and Wendy would help or not, but Pamela knew what she meant.

Pamela felt a little relaxed.

The other side.

In a dark room, a secretary knocked on the door and came in. Feeling annoyed, he reported to the powerful man inside, “Sir, that old guy has already given up his old business, but now he gets powerful man inside, “Sir, tha involved. I don’t know how powerful that little girl is. Why do so many people support her...”

He thought, “She is just a seventeen or eighteen–year–old girl.

According to people in Triangle Area, she has excellent martial arts. And she has connections with Microvay Gang and Flame Gang.

At home, a few respected seniors protect her with all their connections, and several big families collaborate with her.

The Lusk family, Stowe family, Tucker family, etc...

Hernan, who is now in charge of the Lusk family, is very ruthless, and Martin of the Stowe family is powerful and terrifying.

It is said that Kaia Tucker wanted to make Paige her honorary daughter before, but the little girl refused her. Later, Kaia treats Paige as her niece and pampers her to the extreme...”

“Now that several families have taken action. It is very difficult for us to teach her a lesson...” The secretary felt embarrassed and added, “Especially at home...”

There were too many forces at home protecting this little girl.

In foreign countries, it was relatively easy.

“You mean, we can only see a seventeen or eighteen–year–old girl stir up trouble and ruin our future?”

The man’s voice was as calm as the weather before a storm, but the secretary could sense suffocation.

Beads of sweat appeared on the secretary’s forehead, and he said with a trembling voice, “I will find a way to hinder this little girl and make her pay the price!”

“Just...pay a little price?” The man seemed to be dissatisfied with it.

The secretary was terrified again and added, “I will kill her and destroy her body!”

“Don’t those people love and protect her?” The man came up with an idea, “Beat them one by one, and let me see who dares to help her later.”

The man thought, “Causing a bad effect on my career is not a big deal. But if you dare to harm my interests...”

“She is too young and naive... She thinks that the world is beautiful, and she cannot tolerate anything bad. She just sees a small part of evil in the world and eradicates it in a hurry, thinking that the world will be clean...”

The man laughed and shook his head constantly as if mocking the girl’s ignorance and innocence.

“Goodness is only a very small part of this world. There is much evil she doesn’t know. She mistakenly thinks that she can change the world by eradicating all evil... But she doesn’t know that she is killing herself.”

“That’s true!” the secretary hurriedly agreed, “She is too young. She thinks that she can do whatever she wants under others’ wings. But she has no idea how many people will be out into hell... Let reality teach them a lesson, and they will know who is in charge of the world!”

In the lab.

Paige separated eighty–one kinds of toxins from Yana’s blood. The toxicity was so strong that mice died as soon as they licked the blood. It didn’t even have time to take the antidote...

Paige just studied out several combinations of antidotes, and she didn’t know if they would help cure Yana. She could only analyze them systematically, then fuse these antidotes into the toxin, and let mice eat them.

After working for three days in a row, she finally got an achievement. After eating the poison. containing antitoxic pills, mice did not die immediately, nor did they suffer from pain or convulsions. Instead, they were alive and kicking as if nothing happened.....

She finally saw the hope.

Paige’s eyes became gentle. If the mice were healthy and full of vitality, it meant that antitoxic pills could detoxify Yana’s body...

Although she felt that things would not go so smoothly, Paige was relieved because at least she tried in the right way and her hard work of the past few days paid off.

Her phone vibrated at this moment. Seeing that Lamont called her, Paige answered the call quickly.

“Lamont, what’s up?”

“Paige, poison in Yana’s body works again. She suffers a lot like that day in the castle. Can she take the two pills you gave me?”

Paige had said before, unless it was necessary, Yana had better not take those pills.

Yana was very weak, so she may not be able to withstand their violent effects.

“Give her half a pill and see if there is anything wrong. If there is, call me.” Paige said.

“Well.”

Lamont gave Yana half a pill quickly.

After a while, Paige’s phone vibrated again. She thought that Lamont called her again, but she picked it up and saw that it was Cason.

“Honey, you’ve made a big stink. I feel like I’m watching big shows one after another. It’s so amazing.” Cason’s cheerful voice came from the phone.

Paige couldn’t help but curl her lips and asked, “So Cason calls to make fun of me?”

“Don’t say that. I’m so happy. My honey, you are young and promising, and you are brave enough to admit what you’ve done. How courageous you are... I did not train the wrong person. You are the best candidate to inherit my mantle.”

Paige thought, “Cason is talking about inheriting his mantle again.”

Paige hurriedly refused, “I’m very busy.”

“You are the best candidate in this world. Oh, by the way, when will you come to school? Those experiments haven’t been finished yet... And there will be a competition among top schools. Our university is already far behind. You are a champion with full marks. If you participate in the competition, bring me a trophy, and there will be more outstanding students applying to our university.”
