Chapter 560

Chapter 560 A Princess Hug

Usually, Paige and Anna were not in the dormitory, so Leana became her best listener.

If anything happened, she would be the first to tell Leana.

"Then why did you study medicine?" Molly asked again.

"Because my mother passed away because of the ineffective rescue... I hope the fewer people who will suffer the sorrow of losing family members, the better... If I learn more skills, I can save more people, and there won't be more families becoming fragmented because of illness..."

"You're just like Paige. You're so broad-minded..." Molly admired her from the bottom of her heart. "I believe that you'll definitely become a very good doctor in the future!"

"You too. Let's work hard together." Bess encouraged her.

After taking a shower, Paige stood aside. Hearing their conversation, she suddenly remembered that during the physical training a long time ago, Bess looked absent-minded with red eyes...

At that time, would she be bullied? Would she hold back and not say anything?

If that was the case, her situation was a little similar to when she was in the Tate family...

Paige couldn't help but feel pity for her. She gently knocked on the glass door.

"Paige!" Bess smiled when she saw Paige. "Would you like to come to the hot spring?"

"Come on. It's so comfortable to soak in here. Let's have a chat!" It was rare for her to have such an opportunity, so Molly invited Paige.

"I'm done showering." She smiled.

"You can come over after washing up. We just finished talking about the secrets between us..."

Before Molly could finish, Paige smiled and said, "I heard it all."

At the same time, Molly was surprised and smiled again. "You've been standing there since just now? Now it's your turn to tell me. What's your family's job? What secrets can you share with us?"

Bess knew that Paige's identity was special and promptly changed the topic. "I think you're just gossiping about her relationship with Martin."

"Right, right, right. I want to know why you and Martin are together. Are you chasing him or him chasing you? Which of you fell for each other first?"

Molly couldn't suppress the curiosity in her heart. "A big shot like Martin actually appeared in our life... and so close to me! The point is, he's completely different from the rumors. He's so attentive and gentle to you."

Sitting by the hot spring pool, Paige smiled. "What are the rumors about him like?"

"I heard that he's very fierce and strict with his subordinates... It's not easy to talk to him..."

Bess added, "It must be Martin who fell for Paige first! With Paige's personality, how could she possibly go after him? Look at how clingy Martin is towards her, you can tell. Paige must be so outstanding that Martin couldn't help falling for her."

"How long have you been dating Martin? When will you meet his parents? If your relationship is stable, will you marry him in the future?" Molly couldn't help but ask again.

Marry him?

Paige hadn't thought that much, but if their relationship was stable, she replied, "Probably."

Hearing what Paige said, Molly smirked. "Paige, you're blushing. Have you never thought about getting married?"

"Really?" Paige touched her face and found that it was not hot at all. It was probably because of the hot spring.

"You're really blushing! You look so cute when you're blushing. If I had a phone by my side right now, I would definitely take a picture of it and sell it to Martin!"

"Molly, you're so mean." Bess splashed some water on her.

"When are you going to meet your parents?" Molly couldn't help but ask.

"They have met a long time ago, but let me make it clear first. They are secretly dating. When you go back, you must not tell anyone about this..." Bess warned.

"Don't worry, I won't tell anyone about Paige. I'm just curious about what it will be like to be in a relationship with the richest man. Will you go to a high-end restaurant for dinner? You can book the whole place easily, and have a romantic trip from time to time."

As Molly fantasized about it, Paige smiled and said, "More or less."

"Am I right?"

Just then, Paige's phone vibrated. She took it out and saw that it was a voice call from Leonel.

She was a little surprised because Leonel rarely looked for her.

As soon as she answered the phone, she heard the voice of Leonel coming from the other end. "Paige, I heard that something happened to Bess, so you went to save her. How is she now? Is she all right? I called her many times, but she didn't answer."

Hearing the anxiety in his tone, she instantly understood. She smiled and said, "She's right here. I'll get her to pick it up."

"Alright."

Paige handed the phone to Bess. Seeing that she had finished chatting with Leonel, she smiled and asked, "Are you dating?"

"No, no..." Bess hurriedly explained, "It was during the physical training that Blanca made me fall into the water. Leonel saved me. He added me on Line afterward, and we often chatted..."

"I heard that Leonel comes from a wealthy family... His family has a deep-rooted influence in Chicago... The point is that many girls in our school like him! He is handsome, tall, and cool. He is simply the prince charming in their dreams. When will you date him?" Molly gossiped again.

"He's not pursuing me..." Bess blushed instantly.

"He cares about you so much. You didn't answer the phone, and he even called Paige... It means that he cares about you very much. If he pursues you, will you be with him?"

"I..." Bess said truthfully, "I've never thought about it."

"Then think about it carefully now." Molly couldn't help but say, "You have to grasp such a good person firmly."

"After all, there weren't many rich and handsome people in the world who cared about you."

"Let's wait, let's wait and see..." Bess said, her face burning red.

Molly couldn't help but laugh and kick up a fuss. Paige also smiled. Seeing the Line message from Martin, she stood up and said, "I'm going out for a while. You guys take your time."

"It must be Mr. Stowe who is looking for... A person in love is so happy that someone is thinking about her all the time..." Molly sighed with emotion. "It makes me suddenly want to fall in love..."

Bess still felt her face burning. She remembered that in the past month, Leonel seemed to have sent her Line messages every day and asked her to hang out...

Would he like and care about her?

Meanwhile, as soon as Paige walked out of the presidential suite, Martin picked her up.

Before she could understand what was going on, she heard Martin say, "I was careless and didn't notice that your hands and feet were injured."

Remembering her calf and the small cuts on her arm, Paige smiled. "I guess I accidentally bumped into a rock when I was on the shore. I'm fine."
