

Ceo's Mysterious Fiancee by Piper Dunlap

Chapter 566

Chapter 566 Why Don't You Take Paige with You?

When Amily heard this, her face changed and she subconsciously tidied up her hair with her hand.

When Paige saw this, it confirmed what she said. It turned out that Amily was really wearing a wig, just like what she had found out.

There was no light on in the living room, only the light from the garden street lamps. It looked a little dim, which made people feel uneasy.

Amily didn't expect that Paige would investigate her, and it seemed that she knew something...

Amily wondered how could it be. What happened back then was so secretive. How did Paige know?

Or was Paige just testing her and didn't have any evidence?

"Come in. I know it's you."

Upon hearing Paige's voice, the people outside the door immediately held his breath and felt very uneasy.

Amily looked out in a panic. "Did Ms. Paige hear wrongly? There's no one outside."

"Do you think I won't know who you are if you don't come out? Dillon, you two have poor acting skills. Do you really think you can hide it from everyone in this family?"

Paige looked in their direction. "I don't have time to play the cat-and-mouse game with you. If Patricia wants to stay in this house, you'd better behave."

Anyway, she would stay here for at most three or four years. After getting married, it would be better if they didn't see each other.

"But if you continue to play tricks..."

"What tricks did we play?" Amily suddenly felt wronged. "Ms. Paige has no evidence. How could you speak like this?"

"Patricia has suddenly changed her attitude. Do you dare to say that it has nothing to do with you? She is doing well on her way to success. Why do you have to lead her astray? It doesn't matter if you lead her, but you even implicated innocent people."

"I..."

"You think too much, Ms. Paige. What happened back then was just a coincidence. If you don't believe me, you can check it out."

"Anyway, I'll tell you this. My patience is limited. This is my last warning." After saying that, Paige went straight upstairs.

Looking at her back, Amily suddenly felt a chill in her heart.

Why did she seem to know everything when she was only 17 or 18 years old...

The people hiding in the dark did not dare to show up. They were afraid of being caught, so they left in a hurry.

Amily clenched her fists and thought, "No, I can't wait any longer!"

On the other side.

Danica couldn't sleep well. She seemed to have heard a quarrel.

Then, a phone call woke her up. When she saw that it was from her mother, she answered it in a hurry.

"Mom, why do you have time to call me today?" Danica got out of bed, tiptoed to the balcony, and asked softly.

"Oh, Danica, it's so sunny today. I suddenly remembered that on the day you were born, it was also a sunny day... I couldn't help calling you. I heard from the servants that you were 12 hours earlier than me. Are you asleep now?"

"No, Donald and I haven't planned to sleep yet... Have you been feeling better recently?" Danica asked with concern.

"Yesterday, I saw your brother's eyes were red. I shouldn't be in a good condition... but they didn't tell me." The old woman on the phone smiled widely, as if she didn't care anymore. "A few days ago, I saw a girl who looked like you..."

At that time, her illness flared up and she couldn't take a closer look. When she woke up, she asked the servant and was told that a passer-by had saved her.

The girl looked exactly the same as Danica when she was young.

"Mom, are you missing me? Donald and I have been thinking about visiting you these past two days... Are you not in France anymore?" Danica asked worriedly.

"Yes, I moved to Liverpool again this month. It's said that there's a very good doctor who has saved a lot of people here... It's helpful to my illness. In fact, I'm not confident in my condition..."

After tossing and turning for a long time, the old woman was tired, and the light in her eyes went out.

"Mom, don't think so." Danica suddenly felt a little sad. "Tomorrow, I'll ask my brother. If the doctor can't do anything about it, we might as well let our family have a try."

"Is there anyone in our family who knows medicine?" The old lady was surprised and smiled. "Oh, you mean Lamont... How is he recently? Is he busy with work?"

"Mom, Lamont is a forensic examiner. What I mean is..." Danica wanted to say something but stopped on second thought. She was afraid that if she said it out loud, her mother's mood swings would be too big, and it would not be good for her illness. However, she couldn't help it. After all, Paige was really good at medicine. She had saved so many people. There must be a way!

"How about this? We'll set off for Liverpool tomorrow. When we arrive the day after tomorrow, I'll tell you in detail. You must be mentally prepared."

"What kind of doctor? So mysterious. You and Donald don't have to make a special trip here. Maybe I'll have to go to the next place in a few days..."

"No, we haven't seen you for a long time. You were in a coma before, and brother took you everywhere to see a doctor. Donald kept saying that he wanted to see you... That's settled. Let's go there tomorrow."

"Oh, Danica, you really don't have to come here."

When Danica heard this, tears welled up in her eyes.

She covered her mouth and did not dare to cry out loud. She had been holding back her emotions that were about to collapse.

At this time, Donald found that she was talking on the balcony, so he hurriedly took a nightgown and put it on her...

It was December, and the wind outside was blowing so hard that her face hurt.

Seeing that his wife was about to cry, Donald hurriedly stroked her back and helped her into the room.

"Mom, it's settled then. After lunch, go to the hotel. Donald and I will set off tomorrow and arrive the day after tomorrow. If I see that you're not in good spirits, I'll get even with my unfilial brother!"

Speaking of this, Danica did not forget to smile.

The old lady also laughed. "Okay, okay, okay. Then I'll wait for you... You kids are filial..."

After hanging up the phone, Danica hurriedly sent a Line message to ask her brother about her condition, and then did not forget to tell Donald about her mother's condition...

The situation didn't seem to be optimistic.

"Why don't we take Paige with us?" Donald suggested.

On the one hand, they could formally introduce them to each other, and on the other hand, Paige could help to diagnose at the scene.

"I just don't know if Paige has time... I'll ask her tomorrow.
