Chapter 576 Give You A discount Next Time

"I'm already very grateful that you're willing to help. If you don't accept any money, both I and my friends will feel guilty..." Mike pleaded.

"Please accept more money so that we can feel better."

"Okay." Paige smiled and said, "I'll accept it."

She didn't say how much it was, but Mike felt relieved when he heard what she said. He felt that Mrs. Stowe could be saved!

Half an hour later, they arrived at the gate of a magnificent villa.

The villa consisted of more than a dozen buildings, including a blue lake, a vast grassland, and a beautiful swimming pool.

There was even a helipad.

Just standing in front of the gate, one could feel the grandeur and layout of this family.

The owner shouldn't be an ordinary rich man.

Since he could afford to live in such a villa, he must have a high status.

There were six servants who came to welcome her. They were all dressed in the same uniforms and trained in an orderly manner. They greeted her in unison with special respect and politeness.

Carl, who was enjoying coffee in the garden, heard that Mike had picked up his teacher. He got up and walked to the door, ready to welcome them.

The short-haired maid followed him. From a distance, he saw Paige with an outstanding temperament enter the villa.

Paige's hair was tied into a bun, and her beautiful facial features were very eye catching.

As soon as the short-haired girl saw Paige, she was extremely excited.

"Mr. Spike, the powerful America girl I'm talking about is her!"

Paige had only given Mrs. Stowe a few special medical tools, and saved her life.

She reminded Mrs. Stowe to take good care of herself because she was weak.

Paige told her that Kastase, Chilsville and Anlo Pill were of no help to the Mrs. Stowe's current condition and needed to be changed with other medicines.

"Mr. Spike, you found her?" The short-haired maid was overjoyed. "So, Mrs. Stowe can be saved!"

"You're saying that Mrs. Stowe had a sudden attack when the car accident happened and the America girl saved her?" Carl was a little surprised.

"Are you sure?"

"I'm extremely sure! It's her! She has such a beautiful face. So I remember her!" The short-haired maid followed Mr. Spike to Paige. She did not forget to wave happily and greet mischievously, "Hey, we meet again."

Paige had no impression of her. She searched her mind but couldn't remember who she was.

"I was calling for help on the side of the road when the bus hit our car. It was you who got out of the car and saved Mrs. Stowe. Do you remember?" The short haired maid smiled sincerely with expectation.

Paige remembered her.

At that time, she was so anxious.

No one was willing to help them.

She and the driver were standing on the side of the road, and shouted for help.

So, it turned out that Mrs. Stowe was Paige's patient now.

At that time, Paige had diagnosed Mrs. Stowe's illness. Because of the complexity of the illness, she needed a lot of medicine, so when the short-haired maid asked her how to use the medicine, she could not give specific instructions.

Mrs. Stowe needed to constantly adjust the prescription for her illness.

"I'm glad to see you again." Paige nodded at her as a response to her enthusiasm.

The short-haired maid was overjoyed. She didn't expect to see such a scene when they met again. She thought Paige was so gentle, polite, and adorable.

"Teacher, let me introduce. This is my good friend, Carl Spike." Mike happily introduced, "Carl, this is the very powerful teacher I told you about. People call her Skylar Benson."

Carl hadn't expected Paige to be Skylar Benson.

It was said that Skylar Benson was a miracle-working doctor who could bring the dead back to life.

Carl was very surprised. He did not expect that the powerful teacher that Mike talked about was her.

At such a young age, Paige was already a miracle-working doctor.

The short-haired maid didn't expect that it wasn't Mr. Spike who found her, but Dr. William.

It sounded like Paige had a powerful background.

No wonder Paige carried her special medical tools with her. It turned out that she was a miracle working doctor!

The maid thought Paige was beautiful and powerful.

If it weren't for the fact that Mr. Spike was more than 30 years old, she really wanted to get them together!

"We meet again." Carl's gaze softened, and his impression of this girl improved.

This time, Mike was stunned. He looked at Carl and then at Paige. He asked in surprise, "Have you met before?"

"Mr. Spike helped me and my friend out last night," Paige said concisely.

"Last night, you also saved me and helped me detoxify." Carl officially reached out his hand. "Thank you, Ms. Elliott."

"Ms. Elliott is my friend. You can just call me Paige." Paige did not expect to meet him again under such circumstances. She shook hands with him and said, "Thank you for your Heart Piercing Crow."

Now it was Carl who turned to be surprised. It turned out that she was not Anna Elliott, nor the member of the Elliott Group, so he had sent Heart Piercing Crow to the wrong place.

Gabrielle was also a little confused. He thought he didn't need to investigate Paige. He thought Paige looked a little similar to Mr. Spike's sister before, so he had thought that Mr. Elliott had taken the wrong daughter.

Carl asked with a smile, "So, is Paige your real name?"

"Yes."

"Very nice." Carl made a gesture and invited her to step forward. "I believe you already know about my mother's condition. Do you have any good ideas?"

At this time, Mike seemed to think of something and blurted out. "Oh, by the way, there was a kind of medicine at the domestic auction before. It is called Heart Relief Pill feted by many people. It is said that a very powerful pharmaceutical master made it with Heart Relief Grass, and it has a miraculous effect on treating heart diseases."

He said, "Many patients with heart disease who have been sentenced to death by the doctor are getting better after taking the Heart Relief Pill.

Mrs. Stowe doesn't only have heart disease. This medicine can only have a limited effect on her, so I plan to use it mixed with the medicine I newly researched. Let's see if it can help with her illness..."

"Oh." After listening to him, Paige said lightly, "That thing is useless to Mrs. Stowe."

"Why?" Mike asked in puzzlement.

Carl was also puzzled. "Last night, I also bought Heart-Soothing Powder."

"Oh, that was made by the leftover material of the Heart Relief Pill. It doesn't have any useful help to the illness. Mrs. Stowe's condition is a little complicated, which needs a lot of medicine."

As soon as she said that, the people around were stunned.

Mike's eyes widened in disbelief. "Are you Mr. Paige, the famous pharmaceutical guru?"

"Yes, it's me."

Mike held his breath. It turned out that he had bought the medicine made by his teacher last night...

Carl was surprised and had a whole new level of respect for this girl. At such a young age, she was both Skylar Benson and Mr. Paige. And she was also good at martial arts... She was so excellent.

"How much did you spend to buy it last night?" Paige asked indifferently.

Carl answered honestly, "3.2 million dollars for a Heart Relief Pill and 800 thousand dollars for a bottle of Heart-Soothing Powder..." "It's too expensive. I can give you a discount if you buy it from me."
