

CEO's Mysterious Fiancee

Chapter 578 We're Family

"I heard from Mike that you like drinking tea. Since you have no time to eat with us, how about having a few cups of tea?" Carl asked gently. Seeing that he was sincerely thanking her, Paige finally said, "Alright."

A smile appeared on Carl's face. He took Paige to the garden and asked someone to serve the best tea and snacks.

Mike was accompanying them and solemnly thanked Paige.

At this time, the door of the villa slowly opened, and eight servants trotted to greet the guests.

Paige looked in the direction and saw a black car parked outside the door. The driver opened the door. A man and woman got out of the car.

"It's my elder sister and her husband."

Carl sent someone to pick them up at the hotel in the morning, and they finally arrived.

If they knew that their mother's disease could be cured, they would be happy!

Carl revealed a smile and deliberately kept Paige guessing. "When you see my sister later, you will definitely be surprised."

After all, they looked so similar.

"I'll go greet them first. Please wait for a moment." Carl stood up, straightened his suit, and walked towards the gate.

Mike also stood up and said, "Ms. Paige, I'll also go greet them and will be back soon."

"Okay, go ahead." Paige nodded. Seeing them walk away, she took out her phone and replied to Martin's message.

Danica was led into the villa by eight servants and accidentally saw a girl sitting at the table and playing with her mobile phone in the garden.

Because of the distance, she didn't see the girl's face, but she couldn't help but be happy and asked the servant in front of her, "Is that my brother's girlfriend? Which family is she from?"

The servant was not clear either. "She came with Dr. William this morning.

It's said that she's Dr. William's teacher."

"She looks quite young... And she's a teacher now?" Donald laughed. "Now we don't have to worry about Carl's marriage anymore."

He finally brought his girlfriend home!

"In the past, I had five sons at home and a younger brother abroad... I need to worry about all of their marriage. Now I finally don't have to worry." Danica couldn't hide the smile on her face. "Mike's teacher must also be a major in medicine. That's great, just like Paige..."

"Danica, Donald." Carl came before them. He first hugged Danica, then Donald. They seemed to have a good relationship.

Mike also greeted them with a smile.

"Mike, thank you for your hard work recently," Danica said a few polite words to him, then took Carl's arm and whispered. "Tell me the truth. Who is the girl sitting over there? Is she the one you mentioned before?"

When Carl heard this, he could guess what Danica had misunderstood, but he smiled and deliberately did not reveal anything. "You will know once you follow me to take a look."

Danica would be very surprised to see that Paige looked so similar to her!

"I'll tell Danica later that Mother's illness can be cured because this girl is a miracle doctor. She must have a wonderful expression on her face," Carl thought in his heart.

"Come on, take me to have a look." Danica had wanted to see the girl as Carl's senior, but the closer she got to the girl, the more she felt that the girl's figure was inexplicably familiar.

At this time, Paige picked up a call.

Donald saw her back and couldn't help saying, "I suddenly feel that her figure is quite similar to Paige."

"You think so too?" Danica was surprised. "I was also thinking that her dressing style was similar to Paige's."

"Paige?" Carl was puzzled.

After Paige finished speaking, she turned around. Danica and Donald widened their eyes in disbelief.

When Carl saw the expressions of Danica and Donald, he smiled faintly and wanted to introduce them.

Unexpectedly, Danica blurted out in surprise, "Paige, why are you here?"

"Mom?" Paige was also a little surprised. She then looked at Donald, whose face was also full of surprise. "Dad? Why are you here?"

"What did you just call them?" Now it was Carl's turn to be stunned. When did Danica and Donald have such a daughter?

Mike's eyes widened. "What's going on?"

"Mike asked me to come to treat his friend's mother. I happened to be nearby, so I came over." After explaining, Paige looked at her parents, who were in shock. "How about you?"

"Are you talking about his mother?" Danica pointed to Carl next to her. Paige nodded her head in confusion.

"He is your uncle! His mother is also my mom, your Grandma!"

Hearing what Danica said, both Paige and Carl were surprised. Uncle? Grandma?

"Isn't there too much information?" Carl was stunned and thought.

When did he have a niece??

And she has been a grown-up.

What the hell was going on?

"What a coincidence. We're family..." Donald came to his senses and said, "Sit down and tell me what's going on."

Danica gave a brief account of the big fire in the hospital. Paige was taken away by the Tate family, and Patricia was not their biological daughter...

Besides feeling shocked, Carl finally understood why he felt so familiar with Paige for no reason the first time he saw her...

Subconsciously, he felt that there was something going on between her and Danica, and he even wanted to investigate her...

"Because you are always abroad and busy. Mom's illness makes you stressed. I am afraid that if you tell Mom, it will stimulate her and make her illness serious..."

Therefore, Danica decided to keep it a secret for a while until her mother's condition improved.

At that time, Paige had just reunited with her family, and she didn't want to announce her identity to her neighbors for the time being. On the one hand, she was afraid that too many people would come and disturb Paige. On the other hand, she hoped that she could spend more time with Donald and Paige. Besides, both her mother and Donald's mother were in poor health at that time, so she was afraid of them being stimulated...

"Then how did you and Paige get to know each other? Did Mike introduce her to you, or?" Danica asked Carl.

Carl honestly said, "I've seen her in the restaurant before and felt that she looked like you so much. I saw her on the cruise last night. Not only did she save me, but she also helped me detoxify."

When Danica heard about the thrilling scene last night, her heart beat faster. "You were hunted down last night? Who did it? How dare someone be so lawless in your territory?"

"Fortunately, I met Paige. She helped me calculate the time when they put the drugs so that I could find the mole soon."

When Paige heard this, she realized that it was a mole who had done it last night.

She was also grateful. "Carl also helped me and Anna out. And he sent me a very precious medicinal material, Heart Piercing Crow.
