Equal

DAMON

It was a few days since everything had gone down . Me and Liam were in Nina's room , that had been cleared out . We hadn't found anything more from her room , which was so damn clean you could smell it . The room had been emptied , giving her stuff to her grandmother if she wanted them . She refused and said to get rid of them , although I knew that was more her respect towards the pack because she was devastated at her granddaughter's truth and death .

To think she was living here with so much hatred in her life ... I walked over to the window . It looked out towards the training grounds , and I wondered how much time she spent here watching us , or Liam . Even in such a place , behind such an innocent mask , there was a killer , burning from within with hatred and vengeance ...

There are all types of masks that those around us wear ; masked by our fake smiles and passive expressions , the lies hidden inside , the pain we hide to pretend we are normal ... the jealousy , the bitterness , the sadness ... We all wear them ... I did too . Lately though , I've talked about how I felt . Maybe it took Liam marking Raven to make me snap , but it worked . It had been a turning point that perhaps I needed , I just wished it hadn't been something so horrible as that to finally make me step up.

Liam crouched down by the skirting board and I glanced over at him . " What is it ? " He stood up again , holding a small photograph . " Who would have thought that piece of scum had a child ... " " I know ... " I said , glancing at the picture for a moment . " If only she actually asked someone the truth , rather than just wrap herself up in lies and her assumptions . " I've assumed stuff , so I can see it happening . " He said , sighing as he opened his hand , his aura surging around it .

I watched in shock as the photograph began to shrivel up as if it was burned by the blue flame – like aura . " Whoa ... " He gave me a small smile . " I guess I have some similarities to Kiara . " How did you hone it on just your hand .. He shrugged , dropping the burned paper to the ground . " I've always been more in control than Kia , besides , she carries the Asheton power whilst I think I'm definitely more Deimos . " " You are the Deimos prince .

" I said , crossing my arms . " I don't like that title ; I think I've used titles enough to last me a fucking lifetime . " He said , sighing as he crushed the remnants of the picture beneath his boot . " You are an incredible Beta Damon ... One who has stepped up to the job the moment your father passed away , but I know if I just say I don't think of you as anything less than me , it's worth nothing .

So ... I want to show you something . " He jerked his head towards the door and I raised an eyebrow as we both left the room and packhouse , heading towards the north side of the pack into the trees . It was nice to see the children playing around the pack again . " Is this like a surprise set up in the middle of a forest , where you are going to confess your undying love ? " I joked . " Not exactly . " He smirked , as he headed towards the river . I frowned as he crossed the bridge and kept walking .

" Ok , are you planning on killing me in the middle of nowhere ? " I asked . " Definitely not . " He replied as we walked through the trees , not stopping for a good ten minutes until he suddenly slowed down . I raised an eyebrow , looking around , we were on pack grounds that were only really used for running , " What are we looking at ?

" I said , glancing around . " We are looking at the future home of the Blue Moon Pack . " He said . I frowned ; this was Blood Moon territory www . " Are you changing the pack name ? " I asked , looking around . This location was big , but I'm sure our current location was larger . Why would he move this way ? He chuckled . " No , The Blue Moon is going to be the Blood Moon's sub pack , led by its own Alpha ... Alpha Damon Nicholson , my brother .

" Liam said quietly , my eyes snapped up to his . His words resonated in my head and I was shocked to see the glitter of emotions in his eyes . My heart raced as I stared at him . There was no guilt in his eyes , simply sadness and sincerity . " I wish I could keep being selfish and keep you by my side forever , to have you as my Beta , but you are worth far more ... and the pack's growing too large . To start with , it was two packs combined .

With what happened , it's clear a pack of this size is far too great to be run by one Alpha and so I thought who more fitting than you ... You have always been loyal to me , come whatever , but I don't want you bound by my side when you are worth so much more ... So ... this is going to be our sub pack . We will break the far wall and you will take two – fifths of the territory , I've discussed with Dad about buying the land around to the west , so we can spread both packs over more ground .

You can start planning what you want and how you want the pack arranged . Once we decide how we split the pack , with the members approval of course , we will get two – fifths of the pack moved here under your command . " It was too much to take in , me as an Alpha ? I never ... considered that ... I ran my hand through my hair , staring at the land .

The vision of a packhouse and how I'd set it out already filled my mind . I looked at Liam , who was watching me with a small smile on his face . I knew he probably knew it was hard for me to see them together , but I also knew he was doing this for me and not to get rid of me . He made mistakes , but it was like everyone kept telling me that I was more than I felt , Liam included ...

I had always been second to him , and here he was giving me the rank of Alpha , telling me we were equal ... brothers ... We made mistakes , we hurt each other .. But was one woman enough to destroy it all ? I knew the answer to that ... No , and I knew with time ; things would get better . " I don't know what to say ...

" You don't need to say anything , maybe this way the packhouse rooms can have their own bathrooms . Do you know there's one pack member who has anonymously left a long essay explaining why the packhouse needed renovating ... Damn it was long ... " " Robyn , guaranteed , only she would take the time to write an essay to argue her point ...

" He chuckled . " When I saw how neat and professional the letter was , I had a feeling it might be her . " " That's Robyn for you . I guess I have a lot of work to do then . " And something to keep my mind busy , perfect . " Yeah , you do . " Liam said , " So tell me , Alpha Damon , what's the first step ? " " Getting an assessment and some building plans in place , man , you know I hate paperwork . Wait , as Alpha , that means a shit – tonne of paperwork .

" Yeah , it does , but I'm here to help you each step of the way . If you don't like the legal work , I can help with that . " He said shrugging . " Thanks ... But who will you have as Beta then ? " I asked , frowning . Damn that was my title ... Liam shrugged , " I was thinking Zack , and then maybe make Robyn as Delta ? The girl's smart , unless you want her ... " He said , now sounding awkward as if he just realised what he had said . " Shit , I didn't mean to take ... Forget me .

" I smiled at that . " Didn't mean to take all my women ? " I joked . " Well , me and Robyn are over , Raven was never really mine , I think I realise that now . But she's still my friend so ... you ain't taking anyone from me . Robyn is a good option , I guess that means I'll have to choose a Beta and Delta too ...

" Yeah , we could do an assessment and see what everyone's stats are . " Liam said as we both began walking along , taking in the terrain as we discussed this . I nodded . " That's an idea . " I said , giving him a genuine smile . " Thanks , Liam . " " No need to thank me . " He replied smiling . The Liam I knew . " Race you to the bridge ? " I suggested . " Game on ! " He said , readying himself . " Oh , and one more thing , don't let me win . " I said , making his dazzling blue eyes widen in shock .

" You ... " " Yeah , I knew ... You let me win , Liam , all those times ... " I said quietly . He looked up at the shining sun and smiled . " Actually Damon ... I don't need to let you win , because , with everything we've been through , it shows as a person , you are the true winner . " His words were sincere , and this time I didn't deny them or shake them off .

' You are so much more ... ' Those words echoed in my mind as I looked at Liam .
O " We both are . " I said , " Go ! " We broke into a run and although I said to him not to let me win ... It was ok to play dirty , right ? I elbowed him hard , barrelling past him as he stumbled , both of us laughing as we ran towards the bridge . I was right , things were definitely going to get better.

RAVEN

" Liam , be careful ! " I shouted in alarm as he almost knocked over the tub of paint that stood on the ladder .. " Oops , that was close ... " He said . I looked at him in his ripped jeans and shirtless state , with splashes of paint all over him ... He was making my stomach knot . Goddess ... I wanted him ... I had just come off my period and after the scare from weeks ago , I was now on contraception , which I was taking religiously !

But getting my period also meant I had gone without sex for a few days , and I craved it . " Like the view , love ? " He asked , running his fingers through his hair . " Oh , I'm definitely loving the view ...

" I countered licking my lips as I climbed down from the ladder and walked over to him . We had decided to get Grandma Amy's place completely renovated before we moved in here , until of course we have pups and then we'd need more space , but for now , we were both happy to wait and just enjoy each other's company with some privacy .

The place was completely changed ; we had got the walls re – plastered , the floors and ceilings were completely new . However , we had kept some of the furniture in the lounge , simply sanding them down and repainting them . The place was looking great ; the kitchen now has black worktops with dark grey units , a black cooker , fridge and other electrical items .

A touch of purple and teal decorated the kitchen . The living area floor was now changed to grey floorboards and grey walls , with purple and teal décor . The sofa was grandma Amy's but we had covered it with a throw , and bought two armchairs which were now sat in front of the huge TV . The small table was also painted in black , with a runner down the middle , but we had replaced the chairs .

The shelves were re – organised and many now held crystals , candles , books , comics and games for Liam’s PlayStation , along with some ornaments . The bathroom was something we had to completely re – do , decorating it in shades of dark browns and black , adding a warm touch to it . I jumped into Liam’s arms , locking my legs around his waist , his arms tight around me as he peppered my neck with kisses , making me sigh in pleasure .

We had just finished painting the small corners that were left , so we were now officially finished ! ” So , what’s the plan for tonight ? ” Liam asked , his fingers grazing up the side of my bare waist , making me sigh . ” Tonight ... I’m thinking although we got shopping in , I don’t want to cook tonight . I mean it would be you who would be cooking ... How about you go get some pizza ? I really want a veg one . ” I pouted , batting my lids . I wanted him gone so I could dress up in some kinky lingerie I had brought online . Oh , this was going to be fun .  ” Sure , love , I’ll do that . ”

He glanced around the room in approval , before kissing me passionately . Once he put me down , he went into the bedroom to grab a shirt and his wallet . We had pretty much unpacked everything , a few boxes were stacked to the side but apart from that , we were done . I had visited my parent’s house one last time and taken anything I wanted . There wasn’t much , just a few photographs of me , some old toys from the attic and a few items of my grandmothers .

When we had finally told Aunty Angela about everything she had been shocked and had come down for a week . She was the one who packed Mom and Dad’s stuff and had it donated to the human shelter . Nobody wanted their hand – me – downs . Liam was planning to destroy the house , but he had asked me first . To be honest , I needed it gone , the place had too many dark memories attached to it . When I had found out about The Blue Moon Pack , I had been happy for Damon , , and for him and Liam mending their bond .

It was nice to see them tease each other and discuss stuff like they once used to . They had already started working on the blueprints for the new buildings and everything was going smoothly . The splitting of the pack was being discussed too , everyone was given a say and were not compelled to move .

Yet luckily everyone was co – c -operating perfectly and we were working on who would shift to where . We were going to be sub packs , meaning we were still one in a way yet under two leaderships . I knew they were going to smash it . When Rayhan had called Liam , he had joked that Liam was worried that the Black Storm was getting ahead and wanted to expand his own pack . Many of the young adults were excited for new rooms at the Blue Moon packhouse with en – suite bathrooms , whilst the packhouse here would be renovated as well . There was a lot to do but we were moving at a good steady pace , we would get there .

The Blood Moon had come and gone . Although deep down i wished Damon was given someone , I knew he didn't really have hope and second chance mates were so rare people didn't really go to mating balls to find them . All the single werewolves of age had gone to the mating ball being hosted at Kiara's pack but there was someone else who refused to go as well , Robyn . She said she had exams , but I knew there was more to it – I don't think she was ready to move on so soon . I entered our bedroom , one that Liam allowed me to decorate completely by myself , saying the only thing in here he wanted to see was me !

So , I had grey walls with one feature wall of black and silver . The curtains and bedding were black , and the décor was deep red ; from the pillows , to the throw at the edge of the bed , to the light shade . It was a dark room ; cosy , sexy and romantic . Sitting in front of my vanity table , I began putting more makeup on , applying a deep maroon lipstick and adding some more highlighter before putting on the strappy black bandage lingerie , one that had a slit along the thong .

I pinned my fringe back in a small quiff and loosely curled the bottom before I grabbed some of my strappy thigh – high heels . Putting them on , I looked around and began to set up some candles . Today was our first official night here , we had crashed on the sofa several times over the past few weeks , but this was our first night since the house was properly completed .

I think we did need to make it memorable ... I took out the basket of fresh rose petals I had cut from the garden earlier and spread them over the bed . Before sprinkling some over the black carpet from the door to the bed . Satisfied with how the room looked , I quickly grabbed my nightgown and put it on , then returned to the open lounge . Taking some drinks from the kitchen and plates , I placed them on the table , putting some music on the TV and draping a blanket over my legs to hide my heels . There , now we can at least eat first !

I heard the lock in the door and turned as Liam stepped inside , my eyes widening when I saw he wasn't alone ... " Aunty ! Uncle ! " I exclaimed , my heart thudding , " We were out with Azura , she wanted to see the house when we saw Liam . I hope you don't mind us popping over . " Aunty Red said , looking around before giving me a small smile .

" No ! Not at all ... " I said . They wanted to see the house , the house ! Goddess ... Liam placed the pizzas down then I saw his gaze fall over my gown and linger on my cleavage , before he looked into my eyes . ' You look fucking gorgeous ... ' He murmured through the link , taking my chin and kissing me hard . I wanted to get up , but I refused to , knowing my heels and nightgown might just give a lot more away ! Goddess , what do I do ?

I kissed him back before moving away . " I eat pizza Waven ? " Azura asked me , her eyes staring at the large boxes . " Of course ! Come sit down here . " I said , relieved that I didn't need to get up . " I love pizza . " She stated , brushing her black hair from in front of her face . " Liam " Wash your hands first pumpkin . ordered her . " } " Why Wiyam ? I wash my hands before . ' Azura asked innocently whilst pouting . " Yeah still , wash your hands .

" Liam persisted making Elijah smirk . " You're such a clean freak . " " I don't trust kid's hands ... or adults at that ... " Liam remarked frowning . Aunty Red raised an eyebrow as Azura skipped over to her to get her hands washed . " I don't even want to know what goes through that mind of yours . " She said , smiling slightly before looking around . " I love what you've done with the place , , Raven you have good taste . " } " Thanks . " I replied smiling proudly . " Is everything done now ? " Uncle El asked popping his head into the bathroom . " Nice tiles . " " Yeah all done , take a look .

" Liam motioned towards the two bedrooms . Oh no , oh no ... " That's the spare room now , didn't really feel like taking Grandma Amy's room as ours . " Liam added as Aunty Red opened the door . ' Liam ... ' I mumbled through the link . He glanced at me , as Azura bit into her pizza watching us with interest . ' Our room ... uh not in there , I uh ... ' I felt so flustered . Liam looked at me concerned and confused , but at the same time , he opened the door to our bedroom , his parents standing right there as he pushed it wide open for them , his eyes on me as he raised his eyebrows questioningly . Goddess ! Kill me now !

I watched with a burning face as Aunty Red and Uncle El stared into the bedroom , whilst Liam was staring at me confused . Goddess this man may have brains when it came to other stuff but he was so clueless at times ! Aunty Red chuckled , turning with a vixen like smile on her face . " Nice décor ... " Uncle El remarked smirking . My face was burning , humiliation seeping into me as Liam finally glanced into the room , his eyes widening before h e quickly slammed the door shut .

" So yeah uh , that's it , all done . " He mumbled , running his fingers through his hair . Auntie Red smirked , crossing her arms under her breasts . D " So , I think we came at a bad time . Really Elijah ... you shouldn't have just asked to come here ... Come on Azura , we should get going . " She said smoothly , despite the smirk that still lingered on her beautiful face . " I eat pizza Mama . " Azura protested . " Yeah , um , do you guys want to eat pizza ? " I asked lamely . Uncle El smirked .

" I think Liam would rather eat something else , so we should just get going , come on Azura . " He said cockily . " Uncle , it's not that funny , we all know how you and Auntie Red are . " I pouted unhappily as he smirked at me arrogantly . " Well , we never deny that . " He replied as Azura grabbed the packet of fries . " Thank you Wiyam , Waven , for the food . I come for sleepover tomorrow ! " She stated . " Of course . " I said , wishing my cheeks would return to normal .

" Actually , maybe next month . " Auntie Red said . " Let's let Liam and Raven christen the entire house first . " I pouted unhappily , my cheeks flushed darker as they went to the door and Auntie Red gave me a wink before she stepped out . Liam stood there completely silent until the door shut behind the trio . " That was uh ... interesting .

" He said , dropping onto the couch as I glared at him . " You are so clueless ! I was telling you ! " I complained . " You actually didn't say anything . " He said wrapping his arms around my frame and pulling me into his lap , along with the blanket . " I was trying . " I replied unhappily , grabbing a pizza slice and kicking off the blanket that was tangled around my legs .

" It was supposed to be a surprise . ' " " A surprise ... " He said huskily , his voice almost a growl . My eyes snapped to him , my heart thudding as I realised that when he had pulled me , my gown had tugged open , partially revealing what I was wearing underneath . His hand ran up my thigh , leaving a trail o f fiery sparks in its wake , his magnetic blue eyes shimmering with hunger .

Fuck ... " I think we can skip dinner and get straight to dessert . " His hand ran between my thighs that had clenched , getting closer to my hot core , sending off rivets of pleasure . I gasped when his finger rubbed against the slit in my thong . " Fuck , Love . " He whispered hoarsely and with one pull he yanked my gown off me , his blazing eyes trailing over my body like a predator ready to devour his prey ...

And I wanted to be that prey .

106. Little Minx LIAM I picked her up, slinging her over my shoulder and stroking her ass in that tiny thong. Damn... As the days went by, she had become more and more confident. She was normally a tease but, in the bedroom... Fuck she was a whole new level. She knew what she wanted and she wasn't afraid to ask for it. I kicked the bedroom door shut behind me before walking over to the bed. I tapped her ass lightly, dropping her onto the bed and making her bounce a little, my eyes going to her breasts in that sexy strappy bra that was teasing me way too fucking much... Her eyes stayed on me as she got on all fours, swinging her legs in those heels slowly as she wriggled her hips, making me swallow hard as I stared at her ass. "What's wrong, Alpha? Not going to join me?" She teased smirking as she stared at my hardened shaft in my jeans, before crawling towards me as I pulled my top off. "I fucking am." | growled as she began to unbuckle my belt, now kneeling on the bed, my eyes stuck on her breasts. Fuck... She pulled my pants down and I helped her, stripping them off, leaving me in my fitted boxers. Her hands gripped my hips as she kissed my dick over the thin fabric, making me groan before her tongue pressed against the base of my naval making sparks fucking rage through me. Her eyes were locked with mine as she traced it up between my abs, making me suck my stomach in, pleasure coursing through me and my dick throbbing. I reached down, squeezing her ass as she finally reached my chest, flicking my left nipple and her nail scraping the right one. "Hey, little minx." I whispered, tangling my hand into her hair and pressing my lips against hers in a bruising kiss that sent my world into a storm of emotions. The sweet taste of her mouth made me slip my tongue past those plush lips, caressing her tongue with my own, my arm snaking around her waist and yanking her against me. She moaned softly, her hand raking down my back, the other wrapped around my neck as we kissed each other hungrily. latest chapters only infobagh.com I sat down on the bed pulling her on top of me, grabbing her breasts and squeezing them a sl attacked her lips once more. She gyrated her hips against me, her hot core rubbing against my cock. Fuck. | squeezed her ass cheeks with both hands before tugging at her thong, making her whimper in pleasure, my hand sliding between her ass cheeks before I reached the small slit in her panties making her cry out when I slipped my fingers into her, her slick hot folds making me hiss in approval. "You're so fucking hot, love." I growled, kissing her neck hard. She whimpered, her hand twisting into my hair before she nibbled on my ear. I lifted her off my lap. pushing her down onto the bed and yanking her bra down and letting her boobs spill out. I grabbed them a si kissed her lips, then trailing hungry passionate kisses down her taut stomach before I spread her legs. Damn... The way she looked...

I bent down, running my tongue along the slit and making her cry out in pleasure. I pushed the underwear aside completely ready to go down on her, but before I realised what was happening, she had her legs around my neck flipping me onto my back, her hand tangling into my hair as she straddled my face. It took my all not to come right fucking there at her hot as hell move. 'Fuck love, you're a sexy little doll.' I growled, plunging my tongue into her, she cried out in pleasure as she rolled her hips against my mouth. "Fuck..." She moaned. I looked up at her, if I could I'd love to stay here forever... Just seeing her moaning in pleasure, the way she was grinding against me, her hand tangled in my hair and the delicious, sweet taste of her juice on my lips Heaven... She was my heaven. "That's it, Liam..." She whined, cupping her breasts as I sped up, alternating between eating her out and playing with her clit She was getting closer, I could feel her orgasm building. Her cries and moans of pleasure got louder." Fuck Liam, that's it, eat my pussy..." She whimpered. Her words became incoherent, the look of ecstasy on her face making me fucking crazy. Come for me, Love.' | squeezed her ass, palming it as she gasped, tensing as her orgasm tore through her body, making her cry out. Her entire body shuddered from her release, her sweet juices trickling into my mouth. latest chapters only infobagh.com Fuck did she taste good.

She slowly pulled away, still breathing hard. Her eyes met mine as she wiped her juices from my face with one hand. My heart thudded as I stared into her eyes, the passion, the love, and the hunger in them mirrored my own. She was all I needed... All I wanted... "That was fucking hot." I whispered, yanking her down and kissing her hard. 'Yes...' She whispered breathlessly through the bond. She kissed me back with passion and love wrapping around us in pure bliss before she moved back, going lower and yanking my boxers off. "Like me sucking your cock baby?" She asked winking at me as she stroked my hard shaft with her tiny hands that knew how to work magic. My gorgeous mate. I swore, as the sparks mixing with the pleasure made me throb, her tongue lapping up the beads of precum from my tip. "I sure fucking do, Love." I whispered in approval. She was so fucking good at this, and I won't deny I was curious to ask if she had done this- Fuck! 2 groaned as she wrapped her mouth around me, her hand fondling my balls as she began sucking me off. She had talent, fucking talent! | sat up slightly, resting on my elbows as I watched her bob her head on my dick, sucking and squeezing it as she took it all in. I grabbed her by the hair, holding it back so I could see her as she throat my dick. The pleasure... goddess... I groaned in satisfaction shoving my dick further. "Do you like that baby?" I asked huskily.

She nodded, moaning. "Well, you look fucking divine with those plush little lips wrapped around my dick." Her eyes flashed as she sped up and any other words left my mind, all I could think of was the pleasure. Fuck! | yanked her back just as I shot my load. Pleasure erupting inside me, spreading to every inch of my body, my entire body spasming with the rush from the orgasm and for a moment my mind was blank, save the pleasure she had just showered on me. I could feel her wrap her hand around my dick, stroking it and milking it for all its worth as I tried to fucking focus hearing the groans of pleasure fall from my lips. She licked my tip and I opened my eyes, admiring the way my cum coated her breasts and neck. Sitting up I pulled her against me, kissing her hard, as I unhooked her bra and tossed it aside. We kissed hungrily, our hands roaming the other's body. I would never get enough of her, my doll... | grabbed her neck, making her gasp, the other hand grabbing her ass as I rammed into her, making her cry out. Got to love my stamina. She groaned hornily as I stretched her out, taking a moment to adjust before she began riding me. I thrust into her harder and faster, meeting her every thrust with a more powerful one of my own. She moaned out in ecstasy as I slammed into her roughly, feeling her sides clench around me. I let my gaze travel over her; my hand around her neck, her bouncing breasts looked so fucking good and the way I was pounding into that tiny pussy of hers... I yanked her close, my lips crashing against hers in a bruising kiss. She gasped against me as I kissed her before lifting her off my dick. I delivered a sharp tap to her ass before turning her around, so her back was to me. She whimpered, grabbing my dick as she pushed it into herself, moaning as she did before she began riding me again. Her cries and moans of pleasure getting louder and her ass slapping against me. I reached around, playing with her breasts with one hand, whilst the other began rubbing her clit hard and fast. "Fuck Liam! Fuck... oh...oh..." She whined hornily, breathing heavily as I did my best not to come. I bit into her neck, sucking hard just as she came, making her sides clamp down on me triggering my own orgasm. I groaned, breathing hard. "Liam!" I didn't stop kissing her until she was a trembling mess in my arms... It was an hour later, we had just showered and gotten ready for bed. latest chapters only infobagh.com I had heated the pizza up and we had eaten because we were fucking ravenous.

Raven had just put something away in her wardrobe, pausing as she ran her fingers over the two-toned wrap dress that I had gotten for her for our first date. One that we hadn't actually gone on until a few weeks after everything had happened. She looked good in tiny fluffy shorts and a matching crop top. Her ass distracting me – I loved watching it move...

"I'm going to wear this at our housewarming dinner next month." She said, her eyes meeting mine. I nodded, remembering how gorgeous she looked in it. Then again this was Raven. She looked perfect in everything. She came over to the bed after shutting her wardrobe and climbed onto my lap, the tingles of the bond dancing across my skin. "You looked good in it." I remarked, remembering our little cinema and dinner trip. "Thanks, baby." She whispered, kissing my neck, and I twitched in my pants. "Keep going and we won't be sleeping." I groaned. She giggled. "Well, we need to sleep, I have training to head in the morning." She reminded me. "Although I'd prefer you just train with me here in the bedroom." I squeezed her ass. "Hmm, that would consist of how many rounds I can go?" She joked. "You're strong and I know you can go a long way." "I know I am." She said locking her arms around my neck and kissing my lips. "I love you, blue eyes." "I love you always." I replied, pulling her close and simply holding her tightly, feeling content...

107. Broken Hopes OVER TEN MONTHS LATER... RAVEN "Zuzu, careful my darling!" I exclaimed, grabbing her as she almost tumbled to the ground. "Waven, I'm a big girl now." She stated firmly. "Still, I don't need you getting hurt." I said, looking down at the stacks of supplies that had arrived. We were all over at the Blue Moon territory; the buildings were up and the furniture was partially in.

Things had been great, and we all knew how the pack was going to be divided. Originally Liam was going to take leadership again a month ago as he had proven himself, but he had refused his father saying he wanted Uncle El to make him and Damon Alphas together. It was perfect, this way it wasn't Liam giving him something, but two brothers taking their titles together. The official Alpha ceremony would take place in a few days time. 4 As for us three, we were doing great. The more weeks and months passed, the more we were back to how we used to be. latest chapters only infobagh.com Damon had to leave for six months for a shorter version of the Alpha training, but it was something Uncle El said he needed to do. I also think he wanted him to get a break away from the pack Uncle El kept Aunt Monica at their home until he returned, and she was doing so much better. She spent a lot of time around people. Channing, Taylor's brother, and she had become fast friends. She visited Uncle Aaron's grave often, now that she was in her senses. Damon would video call her daily, she was proud of him and what he had accomplished, saying Uncle Aaron would be too. 1 She was back at her own house now, yet she had a carer with her constantly and wasn't left alone. Although we were all positive soon, she wouldn't need even that. Damon came back a few months ago and was impressed at the amount of work that had been done in his absence with the new pack. Liam had put in a lot to get it done and I knew until now he was still trying to redeem himself – to both Damon and I – although we had both forgiven him. Zack was going to be Liam's new Beta, and although Liam had been set on having Robyn as his Delta, last week he suddenly announced she can't be his Delta but had no reason as to why. Well, that threw us back in a loop, but after thinking things through he settled on a young warrior, Bronson, who was twenty-four. Damon had chosen his Beta, who to Taylor's surprise was his brother, Channing. Although he wasn't able to fight, he was still a smart man and that move of Damon's alone made us all proud. Channing had lost the ability to walk and his mate, but with his new position, it gave him purpose, something that truly warmed us all. 1 Damon was going to be an amazing Alpha, I was sure of it. He had then chosen Rick, Robyn's brother as his Delta. Although I teased him it was due to favouritism, he had assured me it wasn't. He no longer looked away if I and Liam had a moment. He actually called us out before he left saying he was fed up with us walking on eggshells. Things were perfect and Kiara had FINALLY set a new wedding date!!! It was happening in three months time! The little ones would be eighteen months by then and probably walking, they were going to look so adorable in their little flower girl dresses! The delay had been long, yet it was time that their family had needed to heal.

"Raven take a break." Damon called, throwing me a bottle of water. I caught it, flashing him a smile. "Are we done for the day?" I asked, placing Azura carefully away from the boxes she was trying to climb dangerously. "I think we are." Liam said, his strong arms wrapping around me from behind, sending off those sparks that made me lightheaded and burying his head in my neck. I closed my eyes enjoying his hold, my core throbbing when his lips met my neck. "We are, I need food." latest chapters only infobagh.com Damon remarked, running his fingers through his hair. "I think we did good getting this much done before winter came."

"Yeah, I agree." Liam said looking at the huge packhouse. "So pizza and drinks at our place?" I suggested, as Taylor and Zack came over. "Yes!" Azura chimed in "That didn't include you, pumpkin." Liam remarked with a smirk. "I like the idea of that." Taylor added smiling. I looked up at Liam, he still needed to tell Robyn about his change of mind, something I was feeling really dreadful about "I'm going to invite Robyn” The group fell silent and Zack shook his head. “Liam you need to tell her, I swear I feel dreadful, and I don’t often care about others.” “Course you do, babe.” Taylor said kissing him. “I don’t.” Damon glanced at Liam. “You know she’s been working super hard, and since you told her about that rank, she’s put even more in... ” He murmured, crossing his arms and frowning slightly. I resisted a smile, I loved how he gave it to Liam as it was, well to all of us. “I know... and I don’t feel like letting her go... but I need to do it.” Liam sighed. We all remained silent, Liam’s intuitive skills had been enhanced since the curse had been broken and we all knew there must be a reason. “I’ll talk to her tonight.” 3 Night had fallen, we had just got the food, the movie was chosen, whilst Taylor and Zack had grabbed the drinks. “Really, this movie?” Damon asked, raising an eyebrow as he checked the movie I had put on and paused. “Yes, I love horror movies.” I really did! “Weird.” He shook his head and I stuck my tongue out. Liam came over, his phone in front of him as he spoke to a sobbing Azura.

“I don’t like you anymore, Wiyam, I don’t!” “I’m sorry pumpkin but today’s a big people day.” “Don’t call me punkin! I’m not your stupid punkin!” Her talking had improved over the last year but she still called us Wiyam and Waven. I had heard her say Liam once, so I think she just didn’t want to change it. She had also gotten a tad more feisty. I loved the girl. Liam promised her a sleepover tomorrow before ending the call. I felt bad for her, poor Zuzu. “Tay baby, grab me the plates?” I called out. “Sure girl, by the way, have I already told you I love the new hair?” He said, as he walked past to get the large plates from the top shelf... Yes, I couldn’t reach with my height. “Thank you, I like it but I’m not keeping it pink-tipped, I’m changing it for Kia’s wedding.” I explained. “I love that, coordinating with the dress. I’m coming with you when we go to check the fitting, ok?” I nodded happily “And you’ve let the bangs grow out.” Damon added, “You look older.” “The height doesn’t help.” Liam added, before they both smirked at each other. “That’s an insult! Hey, I assure you, I don’t look like a kid!” I glared at them both whilst taking the drinks to the coffee table. “I never said you did, I definitely know you’re not a kid Love.” Liam murmured, his eyes dipping to my body. My stomach knotted and Damon snickered. “Ok, guys we get the picture, flirt after the movie.” “Or during.” Zack suggested just as there was a light knock on the door and I knew it was Robyn. “You can’t flirt during a horror movie, I don’t even like horror movies.” Taylor pouted. “Don’t worry, I’ll keep you busy.” Zack added, pulling the door open. “Not at my place man!” Liam added, before we fell silent as Robyn stepped inside. ROBYN “Hey, I brought dessert.” I said, holding up the tray of Tres Lech cake that I’d made. I glanced at them all, my heart skipping a beat when my eyes met a certain blue pair. A year... We had split just over a year ago... but the feelings I had for him... they never left. I hate it but what do I do? Well, I avoided the blood moons for one, I’m not ready to meet my mate yet. I didn’t deserve him when I was hung up over another. “Aww thank you! latest chapters only infobagh.com You shouldn’t have!” Raven exclaimed, as she came over, taking the tray from me.

“I’d rather have the cake than beer.” Liam added, flashing me a smile despite a flash of guilt in his eyes. Why did he look guilty? I gave a small nod. I worked alongside the others for months, but since Damon had come back I suddenly felt awkward around them... Like he was meant to be here, not me. “Shall we get to the movie?” Damon suggested, turning around. “Yes, I guess...” Taylor said gulping.

“Why are you making him suffer?” I asked, his sad brown puppy dog eyes... I don’t feel sympathy often but Taylor was one person I did feel bad for. “I don’t think

I'm going to be fine." Taylor said. Damon took one armchair and I had to take the other since the two couples sat on the sofa. Great, now I was a mere twenty centimetres from him... I tried not to focus on his tempting scent but on the delicious smell of pizza instead... The movie was finished, so I offered to make hot drinks and cut the cake. Taylor was a drunk mess and was telling Raven how hard it was to watch that movie. She was apologising profusely whilst he was being very dramatic. Liam offered to help me, so here I was in the kitchen with him. "What is it?" I asked. I could sense that he wanted to speak to me from the few looks he had cast my way. "That obvious?" "Very." Liam sighed. "...I can't make you my Delta, Robyn." My heart skipped a beat, my stomach twisting. It felt like I had just been slapped. The excitement I had felt when he had first told me... I was ready to make my pack proud... It's cool. Things happen. Although I told myself that... there was also that little voice at the back of my head that whispered its doubts... Everything you ever have or want, is always taken away from you.. Don't go there, Robyn. I nodded, not even looking up from slicing the milk cake. "Yeah, that's fine." I replied. "I'm sorry, it's not on you, I just have this feeling that" "It's ok Liam, you don't need to explain it to me. I'm fine." And I will be, in a few days or weeks. I sighed inwardly, yeah, I'll be ok. "I'm sorry." Liam said quietly. "I just feel like there's more for you." "Sure, thank you." I said, giving a small polite smile. 2 I ain't got time for emotional drama I just... Crap, Rick was going to be so gutted. Oh well, at least the entire pack didn't know. I picked up the plated milk cake slices and walked off to the sitting area, feeling Liam's eyes boring into me... Zack was getting ready to leave but I held out a plate.

"At least try it, I'm sure he'll be ok asleep for a little while." I offered, glancing at Taylor who was hugging Raven but seemed to be fast asleep. He looked at me, and from the look in his eyes I realised they all knew, they all knew he was going to drop me. Shit I brushed my hands over my thighs after passing Damon the other plate and gave a small smile. "Well, it's late and I'm super tired. Thanks for the invite, Raven. I'm heading out." I replied. "Won't you have cake?" She asked. I shook my head, I wanted to puke as it was, I felt majorly queasy. "No, I'm stuffed. Night guys." I said looking around before grabbing my jacket, daring not to even look at Liam and Damon "Robyn... Night..." Raven murmured. "Goodnight." I said, forcing a final smile before I reached the door and left the warmth of the cottage. I'm sorry, Robyn.' Liam's voice came. 'It's cool. My lips trembled and I stared ahead. No, it was not cool, but I wasn't going to let anyone see my real feelings. I hugged my jacket to my chest, walking through the light drizzle of rain. Disappointment after disappointment... Was I that horrible? My eyes prickled and I bit my lip, my heart thumping loudly, the rustle of the leaves whipping in the wind and the distant sound of the woodland animals seemed to just get louder in my ears. I gasped when someone grabbed my arm, spinning me around. "Robyn." I stared up into Damon's soft blue eyes, concern clear in them. I glanced away not wanting him to see the unshed tears "Can I help you?" I said pulling out of his hold, his scent enveloping my senses. "He didn't want to give you up, but you know with his intuition, he sometimes gets feeling-" "Oh Damon, shut up." He blinked and I frowned at him. "Firstly, stop defending him. Secondly, I said it's fine. Now give me some space." "No." My heart clenched at that; he really had changed... The Damon I knew listened... "No?" "Yeah, I'm not giving you space. You're upset... Look, you once said to me that if I ever wanted to talk, you're there for me. Talk to me, just vent for once, Robyn." He said quietly, his deep voice like always affected me. "That was different." I countered irritated. Because you didn't love me.

"It's not. I care for you Robyn, let me be that confidant. Just let it out, I promise I won't tell Liam if you speak shit about him." He said, placing a hand on his heart. A confidant... Yeah... he probably doesn't realise that I still cared for him in a different way... Shit... if I walked off... he might realise. Defeated, I sighed, I wouldn't tell him everything but... "Yes, I'm upset, because I had actually thought I was capable of something and it had never been my intention to aim high." I said, crossing my arms as I turned my back on him. "He just took that away, and you all knew... You all knew he was going to; I would have preferred he just told me through the link or something." I finished bitterly, feeling the pain in my chest squeeze and the first dreaded tear trickle down my cheek. Yet, before I could wipe it away, Damon was in front of me brushing it away before he cupped my face. "You are worth so much more." He said softly, giving me a gentle warm smile that only hurt more. "I'm not." Unable to hold the tears back, I looked away, trying to will them away. "Because... if I was... / wouldn't have everything taken away from me." 2 I pulled away from his touch, I had already said far too much. His eyes were filled with sadness, but I didn't give him a chance to speak as I ran towards the packhouse, to my space where no one can bother me. Where no one can come and take something from me...

108. Passage Of The Alpha RAVEN Zack and Taylor had just left, so I was clearing up. I pursed my lips, glancing at Liam who had been silent since Robyn had left, deep in thought. "You could have handled that a little better... In the kitchen, really, Liam?" I asked frowning slightly. He'd said to me earlier that he'd tell her before she left, I didn't think he'd do it in here! I'd expected him to take it outside. My words seemed to snap him out of his thoughts, and he looked at me. "I'd kept my voice down. Only Damon heard. You and Zack were too busy with Taylor." "That's still not nice, Liam." 1 persisted softly, walking over to him. He smiled slightly, and that knowing look that I often saw in his eyes lately was there again. "It made Damon go after her. If I took it outside, she would have left alone." I raised an eyebrow questionably as Liam began washing the plates. "Are you playing cupid? Liam don't-" "I'm not... I'm just... I had to do it then. I needed Damon to go after her." He sighed and I felt my chest squeeze. I know what he meant; he often had these instincts to do or say something, and well, let's just say it saved someone from a broken arm once. Another time he had urged Aunt Red to go check on one of the she-wolves suddenly, she did, and she had found her in labour in her apartment and in need of an emergency C-section. Another time he had bluntly hurt Uncle El's feelings, pushing him, only for Uncle El to say he was fucking tired and then storm out. daily latest chapters only infobagh.com Yet the following day, Aunt Red had told us he talked about his losses; about Uncle Aaron, Alpha Raf, his father... his mother.... how he just felt tired. It had helped Uncle El, speaking about it had somewhat brought him the closure he needed. He promised Liam that once he handed the title to him, he would leave on a six-week holiday with Aunt Red and we promised we'd take care of Azura. If Liam had needed Damon to go after her, there had to be a reason, even if it made no sense or didn't feel right. I sighed as I began drying the dishes. "At least give me the heads up when you are going to do something random like that." I requested gently. "I'll try. When it overcomes me, I kind of go blank apart from having to do what I need to." He stared at the moon outside, "This coming Blood Moon is vital." He added quietly. I didn't question it, having a feeling there was more to those words. I stared at the moon, wondering what was to come. Please Goddess, let things stay peaceful. Something told me they would be, I just had a good feeling that things would continue to go perfectly well. A few days had passed, and the night of the Alpha ceremony had arrived. The last two days had been spent with those who would be leaving the pack, being removed from the pack, and some cutting ties with the pack, so it wasn't a complete burden on Uncle El doing the removing of the members. It was going well, yet we didn't want to delay. After tonight, Damon would initiate them under him. I was now dressed in a black, sequined, net mermaid cut gown, with a nude bodysuit beneath it. It had one feather puffy sleeve with a slit between my breasts. My hair was curled and left open, and my make up was smoky with deep pink lipstick. Kiara was finishing off the last touches.

Becoming Luna, the responsibility that came with it... I was ready for it. One thing was clear: When I came back to this pack, I'd thought I was ready to take everything on and be this fearless badass girl who knew what I wanted. I didn't. I had been confused, unable to move on from my doubts and just thinking the best way to deal with stuff was simply taking it in my stride. Everything that had happened, from the curse to the mate situation, it had been an eye-opener and a learning experience for us all. All three of us, we had made mistakes, but we had learned from them to get to where we are today. I felt like we were finally adults, ready to take the titles we were destined to hold. The day after our movie night, I had visited Robyn to check up on her. I was not going to be the Luna who stood by and let my Alpha do whatever. I would make sure everyone was doing ok, and if he had offended her, I would fix it. He had of course apologised too, I made him bake her a Victoria sponge cake and go say sorry! Liam's words still rang in my mind and I wondered... was Robyn going to somehow be Damon's second chance? I hoped so, because even when I left the pack, he was able to have a relationship with her, meaning he had felt strongly enough to override the guilt of the mate bond. I had faith in it happening! "Ready, Raven?" Aunty Red asked, popping her head in as the make-up artist finished off with some setting spray "Yeah, all done." I said, standing up. "Damn, you look beautiful." She said hugging me tightly. She looked breath-taking too, in a maroon dress with a slit down the side. "She looks like a goddess, doesn't she, Mom?" Kiara added, smiling at me proudly. She wore a deep plum purple gown herself and looked as beautiful as her mother. "Not like you two! But I think I'm a pass." I said, in approval. Aunty Red chuckled as we headed downstairs. "You really need to see what we all see, or at least Liam." She teased. "Yes, a beautiful little sexy doll." Kiara giggled. I pouted; she had heard Liam... I knew it! Liam... My heart began thundering as I realised what an important night this was going to be for us both. "You'll be fine; we all feel like this when our time comes." Kia said, giving my hand a gentle squeeze. I looked at our intertwined hands, just like long ago... but this time it wasn't me supporting her... it was her holding mine to support me. Our eyes met and I knew she had a similar thought. "Thank you for being an amazing friend and the best sister-in-law I could ever have hoped to have." She said, stopping at the bottom of the steps. Aunty Red walked away, giving us a moment as I looked at Kiara. "No matter where life takes us." I whispered. She nodded, and we hugged. Sisters. Forever. "Shall we do this?" She asked softly.

I nodded, my heart hammering as we stepped out into the clearing. Everything was decorated in ivory, with lights glittering above and all around. It was brighter than most of the ceremonies but I knew it was because of Kiara's eyes. I scanned the crowds as all eyes turned on me, my eyes landing on Liam standing there looking incredible in a black tux. His eyes were on me, burning brightly with love and approval, before he walked over to me, pulling me into his arms and kissing me deeply. I kissed him back, tightening my arms around his neck, savouring the taste of his mouth as I bit back a sigh with my core clenching. "You look beautiful, Love." He murmured, squeezing my ass. Yes, with the passing months he was no longer able to control himself in front of his parents, and I was shocked to admit that he was probably as bad as his father! 2 "Thanks." I said caressing his chest, my heart racing under his gaze. 'My Luna...' I blushed, biting my lip as I felt him throb against me. 'My Alpha.' I stepped away as Damon stepped closer and I smiled giving him a tight hug. daily latest chapters only infobagh.com He wrapped his arms around my shoulders, planting a kiss on the top of my head.

"You look great, so, ready to become the pintsize Luna?" "I'm not that small." I huffed. "You kinda are, Brat." Al's cold deep voice came. "Nice to see you too." I frowned. I looked at the king himself as his hand pulled Kiara against him, kissing her lips before he turned to me. "Be nice." Kiara scolded him lightly, her hand resting on his chest. I'm sure she used that line a lot! "I don't fucking do nice." Al replied coldly. 1 "Yeah, we know." Uncle El replied arrogantly, as he smirked at Alejandro; someone that I would say was now his friend... or at least more than just his soon to be son-in-law. "You're looking a little better since the last time I fucking saw you, but still getting old, Dad." Al smirked tauntingly, as Uncle El frowned at him. 1 "Do not call me that." He growled. "Make me fucking stop then." 2 Ah, ever the blunt king he was. Well, a few months ago I had asked him to race Liam... they had refused, however they had gone in for a match and well... Liam lost but it wasn't by much. Impressively the Deimos was almost as strong. He had even broken the king's nose in the process, not realising his own strength. I giggled and all eyes turned to me. 2 "What are you giggling about?" Damon asked curiously. "Al's broken nose." I whispered loudly, feeling his powerful aura and displeasure roll off him. Kia giggled and I flashed the glowering king a peace sign before excusing myself and pulling Liam along with me.

"Sorry, I got to go get a drink!" "Brat..." I heard the king mutter. 1 "Did you forget that he won that match?" "Only by a bit." I giggled. He had been shocked when he'd seen Liam's aura, and ended by saying; 'well he is Kiara's twin.' "You really do like to rile him up." Liam smirked shaking his head. "Maybe." I said, wrapping my arms around his neck and pulling him down. "And I like to do far more to you." "I fucking know." He replied huskily, his lips meeting mine in a passionate kiss once again...

109. Upon New Paths KIARA The evening had passed in merriment; with the hustle and bustle of children playing and laughing, adults teasing and chatting, and the warmth of a pleasant night hung in the air. It was now finally time for them to take their oaths. Mum and Dad were on the stage, with Liam, Raven and Damon now making their way onto the stage. Looking at them on either side of Raven... I wondered what if things had been different, Damon would have still been an Alpha... but it seemed he didn't need a mate to get that title, he was meant to be one... 'Can't stand the fucker.' Alejandro's voice came through the link. I raised an eyebrow. 'I thought you'd be over that by now, my sexy beast.' I questioned, caressing the back of his neck as I kissed his cheek. 'Once a fucker always a fucker, but I guess he deserves the title, he was a good Beta when Liam was on his training.' I smiled slightly and nodded. Yes, he was. I'm glad you see that.' I replied turning my attention back to the trio. 'Of course I do, Amore Mio, but that doesn't mean I have to fucking like him.' 2 He wrapped his arms around me and I leaned into him, life with Alejandro was perfect. I glanced over at the far side where the children were playing, with the omega's minding them and their own set of guards standing around. My little angels. He kissed my shoulder before we looked towards Dad who was now beginning on the oath. Damon would become Alpha first, as Dad would be handing him the honorary title of Alpha before Liam can take over from him. Dad looked a lot better, he like the rest of us was becoming accustomed with Rafael's passing. Gone but never ever forgotten. I placed my hand on top of Alejandro's, my heart racing as she kissed my neck. 2 'You ok? "Yes." I whispered, turning and kissing his lips. "I, Alpha Elijah Westwood, honour you, Damon Nicholson, with the title of Alpha of The Blue Moon pack, under the full moon and by Selene's blessings. Do you accept this position?" Dad asked, authority clear in his voice, his piercing eyes on Damon. "I, Damon Nicholson, accept the title of Alpha of The Blue Moon pack, giving my oath that it will always be united with the Blood Moon pack and to respect and honour this oath." Damon's reply came. "Do you vow to protect, serve, and lead the pack to the best of your abilities?" "I do." Both men sliced their hands before shaking hands and sealing the pact, I felt the shift of power slightly. Liam was actually sharing the Alpha power that he would have inherited from Dad with Damon, and I had to say I was proud of him. He had made mistakes, but he had redeemed himself. "I present to you, Alpha Damon of The Blue Moon Pack!" Dad said as he hugged Damon, and everyone clapped and cheered...

LIAM Damon turned and hugged me. I slapped his back, it was going to be hard... no longer able to link him anymore... "Phones, bro." Damon said as if guessing what was on my mind. I raised an eyebrow. "Yeah, phones." I agreed, he looked at me with his smile fading. "Thank you." "Don't." I shook my head, giving him a small smile, stepping back and allowing Raven to hug him. "Congratulations! I am going to still call you Damon." She stated, making Damon chuckle. "Of course, tiny Luna." He teased before we turned to Dad once more. "Ready?" He said to me. I nodded, this time... I won't fuck this up. Westwood, to be bound by oath to serve, protect and lead this pack from here onwards to the best of your capabilities." Dad said, his eyes met mine and I saw the confidence in them, one that had been slightly amiss the last time I took this oath. "1, Liam Westwood, accept the position of Alpha of The Blood Moon Pack, to honour, serve and protect this pack to the best of my abilities." Dad sliced his hand before passing me the knife. I cut a deep gash, shaking quickly as it healed incredibly fast. I felt the power of the Alpha title course through me, the murmur of the pack congratulating me through the link and the position of Alpha falling back into place. By the goddess herself, I promise to always protect my people. I looked down at my little bite-size Luna, knowing that the power of her title had shifted to her already. I took her hands, kissing her knuckles softly. "Do you, Raven Jacobs, accept the position of my Luna, to always stand by my side as my mate and Luna of the Blood Moon Pack?" I asked, my eyes staring into her unique ones. "I do." She replied softly. Everyone clapped and cheered, before Dad looked to the crowds. "I give to you, the Alpha and Luna of The Blood Moon Pack!" Everyone cheered and clapped. I scanned the crowd, seeing Kia and Alejandro...

Zack, Taylor, Auntie Monica, Robyn, Azura, Damon. Mom and Dad... I made it, with the help of all those around me. They brought me out of the darkness... I looked back down at my beautiful mate, my heart racing as I cupped her face, the sparks whispering along my skin. And of course, her "Long live the Deimos line!" Someone called out just as I pulled Raven close, kissing her passionately. Igniting a storm of never-ending love and need for the woman in my arms.

My world. My dream. My all. Mine. I pulled Raven away from the dance floor. It had been far too long and I wanted to go for a run. "Is it ok for the Alpha and Luna to leave?" She giggled, as we stripped our clothes when we reached the thickest of the woods, far away from the party. "Yeah, perfectly fine. I'm Alpha so my rules." I winked at her, my eyes on her sexy body. Under the moonlight, she was fucking glowing. My dick twitched and I shifted before I ended up pinning her against the tree right here, I knew for a fact that Alejandro would hear us. She shifted into her dark grey and black wolf, it was beautiful with her unique glowing eyes. She trotted over to me, nudging me with her snout. I was a lot bigger than her, with my light grey fur complimenting perfectly with hers... 'You are beautiful, regardless of what form you are in.' 'Thanks, you too!' She giggled as she ran off, and I fell into a run beside her. 'Beautiful?' I growled, nudging her playfully. 'Yes, or do you prefer pretty?' 'At least I'm not tiny.' I teased licking her. Her giggle came through the mind link as we kept running faster and faster away from the pack. 'Definitely not tiny.' Our eyes met, and I nuzzled against her. 'Besides... I may be tiny... but I'm strong!' She said before she pounced, knocking me off my feet. She was definitely fast and nimble, I chuckled as we went rolling down the slope, her on top of me. "See?" She remarked, staring down at me. 'Shift.' I commanded, my heart thudding... I fucking wanted her... Her eyes widened as she shifted back, breathing heavily. Just the way she looked... I shifted too, sitting up and wrapping my arms around a naked Raven. She bit her lip, realising my hard-on was rubbing against her. My eyes feasted on her smooth skin and I ran my hands down her breasts slowly. Her breath hitched when my fingers grazed her hardened buds. A work of art... "Perfection..." I growled. I grabbed her breast, biting down gently on her nipple and making her whimper in pleasure. The scent of her arousal clung to the air, a fragrance that I was fucking addicted to. "Out here?" She whispered, despite her nails scraping down my chest. "No one's around." I replied huskily, before I pulled her close. My lips crashed against hers hungrily and at the same time I entered her. She cried out, before she began bouncing on my lap as she rode me. I grabbed her hips, slamming her down onto my dick, fucking her hard and fast.

She vanked my hair, twisting her fingers into it as her lips met mine once more. Her chest pressed to mine as I fucked her, pleasure drowning me and I embraced it. We came simultaneously, our release throwing us off the edge into pure bliss, our moans of pleasure synching, the perfect music to my ears... "I love you." She whispered through the link, breathing hard. "I love you always." I replied, "you are my world." Under the moonlight I kissed her once more, letting my emotions flow through the bond. I could feel hers... her love... her happiness, her contentment...

110. Another Night Another Chance DAMON It had been a few weeks since I had become Alpha, and although we were now two packs, we were still all over the place as there was still some stuff left to set up in my pack. My pack... It still felt surreal to say that. It was the night of the Blood Moon, and we were all over at the Westwood's. Aunty and Uncle were leaving tomorrow for their six week holiday and would be back just before Kiara's wedding. A holiday Liam had really pushed them into agreeing to. Aunty Red had been a little worried about Azura, but with everyone reassuring them, they were doing this, and they really damn needed it. "Careful with the glasses, Zuzu." Raven was saying, looking at Azura who was balancing four glasses in her arms. She looked as beautiful as ever, yet there was no ache in my chest when I looked at her. It kind of felt weird that I ever had feelings for her. Yes, I still loved her, but definitely just as a friend. "Did she wash her hands?" Liam asked. "Wiyam, I don't pick my boogers anymore!" She frowned. "Still." | smiled, I'm sure by the time Uncle and Aunty returned, Liam was going to have her completely changed into a hygiene freak. "It's only glasses, Liam." Uncle El frowned at him. "I fear for Azura when you leave." Momma said, smiling slightly. "Don't worry, I'll take good care of her and spank Liam's butt if he is mean to her." Raven chimed in. "Or I'll spank yours." Liam shot back with a smirk and a wink at Raven. Momma and Aunty Red chuckled. "I'd say something, but I don't want to make him cringe." Aunty Red teased. "Zuzu already told us about Uncle El's kink, or is it yours? Remember at that dinner ages ago?" Raven giggled, making Momma and Aunty Red laugh, despite the light blush on their cheeks. | exchanged looks with Liam. We so didn't need to know that. As for Momma, she had done a complete turnaround. She was herself, and despite the pain in her eyes that often surfaced, she had been able to accept it. To be honest, I couldn't be thanked for it; Aunty Red, Robyn, Raven and Channing were the reason... Speaking of Channing, I saw him and Momma spending a lot of time together... 1 I saw how they texted, laughed, and even flirted... Although Mom was ten years his senior, if they were happy what more could I ask for? And when she had told me he would be joining us tonight... Well, that was all the confirmation I needed. 2 The door went and Momma looked up. "I'll get it." I saw Aunty Red smile and nod before she looked at me, I gave her a smile.

Things have changed over the last year, but for the better. She came over and wrapped her arms around me. "You are incredible." She said, kissing me on my cheek. 1 "Thank you aunty, so are you. It's thanks to you Mom got to where she is now." I replied quietly. "No, everyone contributed, but above all, it was her own strength and the fact that she had a son as amazing as you by her side." "If you two are done, shall we get to the dining room?" Uncle El remarked, a small frown on his face. | smiled, damn the man got jealous so fast. 1 I wrapped my arms around aunty tighter, "I don't want to let go." | teased, He shook his head, leaving the room as Aunty Red smirked *Typical Elijah." She said, letting go of me. We both picked up the last two trays, leaving the kitchen and entering the dining room. "Hey, Damon." Channing gave me a wave. "Hey," I replied, he was my Beta but he may just be my momma's boyfriend soon too... That was a tad awkward, but hey this entire room was an interesting bunch. "Sit down." Liam said to me, motioning to the seat next to him. I nodded, dropping down onto my seat. Yeah, things were back to normal between us and it felt great. We all began eating as everyone chatted and I turned to the window, staring at the moon. Tonight I felt a little restless whenever I glanced at it. "The food is amazing, Luna Scarlett." Channing complimented. "Thank you, but please call me Scarlett." Aunty Red said glancing at Azura who sat by Raven. I really wanted these two to have pups of their own, because as much as I'll enjoy being that cool uncle, I would also enjoy seeing Liam getting stressed out. "So, when are you having pups?" I asked quietly. "Let me enjoy a few years with my mate." He replied, glancing over at Azura. "Besides, we have Azura, she's enough." I smirked. "Ah, I can't wait for you to be a stressed-out dad." "Evil much." "I will enjoy your suffering." We smiled at each other, before returning to our food, Liam pulling Raven close and kissing her. My mind wandered into its own thoughts. Would I ever find someone to call my own? I did want someone by my side, but as much as a certain someone came to my mind, I knew she had a mate out there and I needed to get rid of any feelings as I did with Raven. Dinner was over and mom had said she would head home a little later, so I had left. With the passing of the night and the moon rising to its fullest in the sky, my restlessness was far too much for me to shake it off.

Liam and Raven had vanished for a bit during dinner, I swear those two were as bad as the previous Alpha couple... We all knew what they were probably doing but when Azura kept insisting to go find them, Aunty Scarlett tried to keep her occupied. All I could say was good luck to the two of them for the next six weeks. I myself decided to go for a walk, or maybe I'd go for a run if need be, I just needed this feeling to go away or I won't get any sleep at night. I entered the woods, walking into the thickest parts of it, away from both pack grounds and following the sound of the gushing river soothing me slightly. I was just going where my wolf was pushing me, he was far too on edge. Was everything ok? I walked further in, the moon almost masked by the thick trees above when I smelt it... A deep delicious tempting scent that made my heart pound, my eyes flashing brightly. My wolf's excitement grew within me. I didn't need to be told to know what this was... It rivalled Raven's up until we rejected one another. I broke into a run, the thundering of my heart loud in my ears and my feet barely hitting the ground as I sped up. It was then I saw a flash of movement, a wolf running in the trees, but... it was running away from me. No. Come back! ROBYN Another blood moon and I had stayed holed away in my room, until Mikayla, one of the girls, asked me if I could drop something off to her parents because she wasn't feeling great herself. She looked like death to be honest, so I had agreed. But it was when I had been heading back to the pack when the most intoxicating scent that I had ever smelt hit my nose, familiar yet so different... Spiced cinnamon, fresh rain, and something so tantalising that my stomach knotted. It was so intense that I couldn't even focus on pinpointing it. Mate. My mate was here. My heart thundered, fear consuming me, so I turned and ran as fast as I could. I wasn't ready. Goddess, I wasn't ready. Why now? I'm not ready for a mate. I'm still in love with someone else... I shifted, although my mind was screaming that my torn clothes would give away my identity, but I wasn't able to think The only thing I knew was to get away from it, all despite my wolf howling at me to stop. "Stop!" A voice growled and I skidded to a stop as someone jumped in front of me, his eyes blazing pale green. Our eyes met, the mate bond pulling taut between us, but it was who the man before me was that shook me to my core... My mate was... "Robyn?" He whispered hoarsely. I inched backwards, my heart thundering. How was this possible... How... My eyes stung and I frowned, if the Goddess was playing a joke on me

"Robyn... shift." He said softly, peeling his white tee from his chiselled body. He had gotten even bulkier lately... He stepped closer, his scent wrapping around me. My heart was thundering but I did as he said, his eyes locked with mine as he pulled his shirt over my head. His knuckles brushed my cheek and the strong current of sparks made my stomach flutter. My eyes met his, they were still pale green and I could hear his heart racing. "Why did you run?" He whispered, stepping closer. I stepped back, trying not to look at those gorgeous lips of his.

"Because ... I didn't want to find my mate." I said defiantly, staring into his eyes. His eyes returned to the powdery blue I love so much, despite his heart still beating fast. "Why not?" He asked softly, cupping my face, and those sparks that I dreamt of coursed through me, making me gasp. "Because..." Our eyes met and I knew he knew why. The guilt in his eyes spoke loud enough. "I told you I still cared for you... We had a connection, Robyn... Even though I had a mate, I was able to be with you in her absence." He whispered softly. "Surely that stands for something." I tensed, realising what he had just said. Even if I wasn't proud of it... he had been able to have a relationship with me, meaning there was something between us without this bond... I knew for me this was a dream come true, to be with the man that I love... but what did he want, what if he just... "What do you want to do?" I asked, trying to remain strong, despite how intense my emotions were right now. "To kiss you." He replied quietly, his gaze dipping to my lips and his eyes darkening. 1 My eyes widened, my stomach knotting at those words, and I licked my lips just before his were on mine. I gasped, my entire body tingling as my stomach somersaulted. The feel of his plush lips against mine, caressing my own, kissing me with a hunger that was a thousand times more intense than ever. His arms wrap around my waist, the other tangling into my hair and I couldn't help but wrap my arms around his neck, kissing him back. Was this really happening, or would a wake-up call tomorrow take it all away? He tensed, moving back, his hands going to my face as I realised there was already a stray tear trickling down my cheek. "Ryn..." 2 That name... Fuck, that name... "I don't trust this." I whispered, pulling away. "Tomorrow you might realise that I'm not who you want." I stepped back, shaking my head, about to run off when he grabbed my wrist and pulled me back into his arms. My back hit his chest and he wrapped his arms around me tightly. "Then, explain to me why more than a year on, you're the only woman I see as more than just a woman."
