

Campus Master 111-120

Chapter 111

“You!” Faced with this ‘naked humiliation’ from Chief Wang, Hu Tiejun’s face suddenly turned red, but he couldn’t say anything. Go to see the net . Because what the head of Wang said was the truth, his own hands are so good, is not the same was kicked out of the field unit, to now, also can only be condescendingly nestled in this barracks, take the role of a small platoon leader, and even only responsible for the military training of college students!

The head of the army seemed to be dissatisfied and continued, “To choose a captain, you must first of all have excellent quality and standard movements. This student I have chosen not only has a standard military posture, but also has a positive appearance, which is more than enough to take on the role of captain.”

Hu Tiejun took a few deep breaths before suppressing the anger in his heart, and he nodded heavily, “Yes!”

However, Du Shaofeng next to him was not happy, he muttered, “I really don’t see where this kid’s military posture is standard, so obvious favouritism, not afraid of people poking their backsides in!”

As a captain, he could often communicate with Hu Tiejun, and thus often spar with him. If he was not allowed to be the captain anymore, once the military training was over, unless Hu Tiejun came to him, he would rarely have the chance to be able to spar with Hu Tiejun again, which made him very dissatisfied.

“What did you say?!” The headmaster Wang’s face instantly sank as he turned his head and shouted angrily, “Since you have come to the barracks, you are soldiers and you must first obey orders, did your instructor not give you this?”

“Report, instructor Hu has taught it!” Du Shaofeng said loudly, “But I also know that Instructor Hu also said that as a captain, not only must you take the lead in completing your own training and set an example for everyone, you must also assist your instructor in training others, which requires a certain level of physical fitness, I don’t think Wang Xiaowu can take on this position!”

Hu Tiejun hurriedly glared at Du Shaofeng, this could not be said indiscriminately, now the head of Wang was obviously favouring Wang Xiaowu, if Du Shaofeng said this, it would definitely offend him.

In Hu Tiejun’s view, it didn’t matter if he was reprimanded, he was already like this anyway, as long as he didn’t violate military discipline, no one could kick him out of the army, right? But Du Shaofeng was different, he was here for military training, if the head of Wang wanted to fix him, there were countless means to make him unable to complete his training, then he wouldn’t even be able to get his graduation certificate.

Ji Feng, however, had a smile on his lips, Du Shaofeng’s character was indeed very likeable, straightforward, but not stupid. Obviously, Du Shaofeng said this, is trying to lead the head of Wang to the wrong path. Avoiding the obeying orders one, just talking about the physical quality alone, just this point is enough to compare Wang Xiaowu.

Sure enough, once he heard this, Chief Wang's face instantly sank, but Du Shaofeng was lofty and unafraid.

"Since you say so, that means that you must be good at fighting?" Chief Wang frowned and asked.

Du Shao Feng said loudly, "Report, I have never said that, only that my physical quality is a bit better than the average person, as for how good my body is, I am not in a position to evaluate it myself."

"Good!"

Chief Wang grunted, "In that case, then are you willing to take a test?"

"What kind of test?" Du Shaofeng asked.

"It's simple, this driver of mine also happens to be somewhat skilled, you can spar with him, if you win, you can continue to assume your captaincy and I will not stop you. However, if you lose, I will write the words 'disobedience' on your military training report, what do you think?" Headmaster Wang asked with a cold smile.

"I don't think so!" Du Shaofeng bristled, "Why should I compare myself to your driver? It's not like your driver can come and take on the role of our captain. Since we're picking the captain from among the students, I'll compare myself to the person you appoint!"

"You!"

Chief Wang was choked by Du Shaofeng's contradiction, but he could not say anything reasonable to refute Du Shaofeng, because what he said was reasonable.

"Obey orders!" The headman Wang shouted in shame and anger.

"Yes!" Du Shao Feng put his feet together and did a stand-up pose.

Only then did Captain Wang grunted and turned his head to Hu Tiejun, "Look at what kind of soldiers you're leading, how dare you talk back to the leader, it's simply not like that!"

Hu Tiejun did not say anything, because there was nothing to say about this matter, the right and wrong of the matter, we can see it at a glance, only that the head of Wang's high level, and is one of the leaders of this student military training, Hu Tiejun did not have the right to speak.

Du Shaofeng, however, frowned: "I was just reasoning with you, is this also called backbiting?"

He was not a soldier himself, so naturally he would not think that the head of Wang was the leader, if not for the university's rules that military training must be conducted, he would not even know the head of Wang, so Du Shaofeng naturally had nothing to be polite with him.

The headmaster Wang's face changed and sank as he listened, glaring coldly at Du Shaofeng: "This student, it looks like you have a lot of opinions about me!"

"As a leader, to act unfairly, of course I have an opinion!" Du Shao Feng said indifferently, "I can follow orders, and you can restrain my actions, but what else can you control what I am thinking?"

"Good! Very good!"

Chief Wang smiled back in anger, "In that case, I'll give you a chance to give your opinion. Still the same, fight my driver, if you win, this matter will be over, if you lose, roll up and leave now, contradict the leader, I can fire you now!"

"Wang leader restrain your anger!" When Hu Tiejun heard this, he immediately became anxious, if he expelled Du Shaofeng, then he would never be able to get his diploma.

Although United University was a credit-based university, there were some compulsory courses in it that had to be passed, otherwise, even if you took more credits, you would not be able to graduate.

So now there are quite a few students who are sophomores and juniors and are still following their freshman year in military training, in fact, they just didn't pass the initial freshman military training or didn't have time to participate because of other reasons.

Du Shaofeng was different, not only was he serious about his training, but he also had a straightforward personality, such a person was very much to the military's liking, if he was expelled, Hu Tiejun couldn't bear it anyhow.

"How about it, you can consider my opinion, of course, if you are afraid, you can also choose to roll your bunk and leave." Headmaster Wang said sarcastically, his heart was secretly angry, a student, how dare he contradict himself, it was simply not like that. What's more, he had come here this time to back up his nephew, last night his nephew had called himself and said that this Du Shaofeng had stolen his captaincy, now if he didn't teach him a lesson, it would really turn against him.

Ji Feng's eyebrows were furrowed tightly but he didn't say anything because he could see that things seemed a bit wrong.

"Headmaster Wang, isn't this something you should reconsider, after all, expelling a random student will cause a bad impact!" Hu Tiejun advised carefully with a bitter face, he really didn't want Du Shaofeng to be expelled.

"Unbridled!"

Headmaster Wang, however, snapped, "Hu Tiejun, what do you mean by that, what do you mean by casually expelling a student? Do you mean that I have casually expelled a student?"

"No, no!" Hu Tiejun hurriedly explained, "Headmaster Wang, what I mean is that Du Shaofeng is not a real soldier, he is somewhat ignorant of the rules, the responsibility for this lies with me, it is my fault for not teaching him well, please calm down!"

Looking at Hu Tiejun bitterly pleading with Captain Wang, a cold aura flashed in Du Shaofeng's eyes, his heart was secretly angry.

"This matter is not negotiable, this is the regiment's decision, this Du Shaofeng will either cut a deal with my driver, or, roll up and leave. I think I still have the right to expel a student!" Headmaster Wang snorted coldly and said indifferently, not even looking at Hu Tiejun, "Since you said you are also responsible, then you should also hand in an inspection up."

"Bullshit!"

Du Shaofeng could not hold back any longer and cursed angrily, "What kind of bullshit chief, not a big official position, but your official authority is still not small. Just because you have some power in your hands, you just bully others, thanks to the fact that you are still some kind of chief, I think you are not even qualified to be a squad leader."

"What are you saying?!" As if his tail had been stepped on, Captain Wang was instantly furious.

"Cut the crap, I promised you a fight with your driver, right here, everyone testifies, let's see how I slap you!" Du Shaofeng coldly snorted.

"Good!"

Chief Wang was instantly delighted, he didn't even mind Du Shaofeng's disrespect towards him, "That's what you said, in that case, let's start now"

With that, he waved to the driver in the jeep.

Chief Wang's driver was a young man of about thirty years old, with a sturdy figure that looked comparable to Du Shaofeng. More importantly, this man had a murderous aura that made even Ji Feng frown, and one look told him that this man was definitely very powerful.

Hu Tiejun's face instantly changed, he was aware of this driver of the headman Wang. It was said that this person, nicknamed Black Bear, was once a tough fighter in Jiangzhou's underground black boxing arena, and then somehow when he entered the army, he was discovered by Captain Wang as this talent, thus making him a driver.

Even if Du Shaofeng is more powerful, he is definitely not the opponent of an expert who has experienced the test of life and death black boxing, this time, Du Shaofeng is sure to lose ah.

Everyone didn't notice that Ji Feng's brow furrowed while secretly sending a text message. Afterwards, Ji Feng's body slowly leaned forward, surprisingly, without everyone noticing, he came to the first row.

At this time, everyone's attention was focused on Du Shaofeng and the driver in front of them, so naturally no one noticed Ji Feng. What's more, as a trained and qualified agent, the first thing is, not to attract attention, and for this, Ji Feng did a good job.

Feeling the tyrannical aura coming from that driver, Du Shaofeng's expression also gloomed, he knew that he might have met a real opponent today.

Chapter 112

"Hehehe, kid, I advise you to listen to the words of Headmaster Wang, be a good boy and pack your bunk and go home, otherwise, my men will show no mercy!"

Looking at the sturdy Du Shaofeng, the black bear stuck out his tongue and licked the corner of his mouth, a bloodthirsty expression appeared on his face, "Kid, don't make a pointless struggle, it won't do you any good, hehehe"

A cold smile appeared on Du Shaofeng's face as he said disdainfully, "There have been many people who have said this to me before, but the end result was that they were beaten by me to the point where they couldn't even recognize their mothers, you are not the first and definitely not the last. Go watch the net."

"Good, good! You're not the first person who dares to talk to me like that, Black Bear, but now you're the only one still standing nicely!"

Black Bear's face sank and he laughed gloomily twice, followed by slowly taking off his military T-shirt, immediately revealing muscles that seemed like lumps of iron, some students even secretly compared Black Bear's arms to their own legs. Some students even secretly compared Black Bear's arm to their own legs. They were shocked to find that one of Black Bear's arms was even thicker and stronger than their own legs.

The students in the squad couldn't help but secretly worry about Du Shaofeng. Although Du Shaofeng also looked strong, he was nowhere near as strong as the black bear, and looking at the black bear's bloodthirsty look, all of them couldn't help but feel awe in their hearts.

Ji Feng's brow likewise furrowed, he could tell that this black bear was definitely not an ordinary person, he had definitely killed someone. This was because he carried a killing aura that no one else had at all. This kind of killing aura, Ji Feng had once heard his instructor talk about it in the Super Agent Training System, only if he had killed someone would he possess it.

Of course, the killing aura on Black Bear was still far inferior to that of the instructor in the system, and Ji Feng now had a five-point chance of winning against the instructor. However, it was not Ji Feng who was now facing Black Bear, but Du Shaofeng.

Although Du Shaofeng grew up practising martial arts and was very formidable, in the face of the black bear who had once killed a man, Ji Feng was still worried about how many percent chance of victory he would actually have.

Next to them, Zhao Kai and Han Zhong likewise changed their faces as they snapped their heads back and looked at Ji Feng.

"Ji Feng, you know kung fu, come and judge, who exactly will win between Old Du and that guy and the two of them?" Zhao Kai asked in a low voice.

"Old Du's chances of winning aren't great!" Ji Feng frowned and said in a low voice.

Zhao Kai and Han Zhong's faces changed instantly, when Ji Feng said that the chances of winning were not great, then he would definitely not be wrong. This time, Old Du was in trouble.

"Let's see, let's stop the two of them now, that captaincy will just be given to Wang Xiaowu, it's not like it's a big deal. If you want to clean up Wang Xiaowu, you can do it whenever you want back at school later, there's no need to get to this point!" Zhao Kai calmly analyzed, "This is a military camp, not our territory, even if we have connections, we can't say anything. Besides, if Old Du loses this time, he will have to be removed from the military training."

Han Zhong also nodded immediately, "That's right, if you want to clean up Wang Xiaowu, you can do it anytime if you go back to school or leave the barracks. Although my family has some connections in Jiangzhou, they can't say the same thing in the barracks. If Old Du loses now in front of so many people, with his character he definitely won't be able to stay here and will leave of his own accord. When that happens, he won't be able to get his diploma."

Ji Feng nodded slightly, in fact, he was considering the same thing, except that, now that Headmaster Wang was obviously pressing people with his power, he couldn't accept it even if he wanted to.

"Kid, come and suffer death!" Black Bear sneered.

Du Shao Feng's face however calmed down instead, since he was going to fight, he had to put his mind at peace and get himself in the best shape, this was something he had been taught by his family since he was young, naturally he would not be provoked by Black Bear. .com

"Slow!"

Just as Du Shaofeng was regulating his breathing, a voice suddenly rang out from the squad, followed by Ji Feng, who had come to the front row at some point, suddenly taking two steps forward.

"Chief Wang, there's a saying that if you leave a line in the sand, you'll meet up later." Ji Feng smiled faintly and said, "Let me see, this student of mine will not need to compare with your driver, the position of captain, just listen to your arrangement, we have no objection, what do you think?"

"You ask me how it is, I say no!" Captain Wang snorted coldly, "To contradict the leader and disregard military discipline, this kind of person shouldn't stay in the barracks at all."

Ji Feng's face remained unchanged as he said indifferently, "That's what he said, but we're not soldiers. Moreover, there is one thing I don't understand, is it possible that your leaders allow the beating of students for the military training of college students? The two conditions you laid out are very problematic to me. If you contradict the leader, the most you can do is to write an inspection or apologize, and that's the top of the list. You've gone too far in handing out an expulsion from the barracks, haven't you?"

"And who are you?" Headmaster Wang's face turned pale as he asked in a deep voice. In fact, there was indeed a rule in the army that there was certainly no problem with reasonable training for university students, but university students were not soldiers and scolding was strictly forbidden to avoid bad influence.

The head of Wang's heart was secretly puzzled, these things were only stipulated within the army, how did this student know about it?

Although he knew that this student had a point, but the head of Wang did not want to let Du Shaofeng off so easily, when he was not here, that kid dared to steal his nephew's captaincy, and later contradicted himself with his words. Such a person, if he wasn't taught a lesson, how could the headmaster Wang not be able to dispel his anger.

"Since you have chosen to avoid war, then I will have to write a failing comment on Du Shaofeng's military training file." Headmaster Wang said indifferently.

Ji Feng's eyebrows furrowed, "Headmaster Wang, why do you have to be so desperate, you do hold a little power now, but why bother to make things difficult for a student? How about Headmaster Wang give me face and be magnanimous, even if you forgive Du Shaofeng, we will definitely listen to the instructions of Instructor Hu and Captain Wang Xiaowu in the military training, what do you think?"

Seeing Ji Feng taking the initiative to give in and repeatedly pleading, a smug smile flashed in Captain Wang's eyes.

Just then, Wang Xiaowu, who was next to him, suddenly stepped forward and said loudly, "Captain Wang, this Du Shaofeng and Ji Feng are in the same gang, so he naturally has to help Du Shaofeng speak. Du Shaofeng contradicted the leader, he can't be spared so easily!"

Ji Feng's face instantly just sank, and Du Shaofeng's eyes widened as he snorted coldly.

As soon as he heard that, Head Wang immediately knew what his nephew meant, he waved his hand and said, "There's no need to talk about this matter, it's still the same two conditions, either choose to be expelled or choose to cut a deal with my driver, your choice!"

"Is Headmaster Wang really bent on having his own way?" Ji Feng asked indifferently, but there was a hint of anger in his eyes, he was so pleading with himself, and he was going to get an inch?

"What do you mean by bent on having your own way?" Chief Wang's face sank, "What do you mean by that?!"

"It doesn't mean anything, it just means that I hope that Headmaster Wang can reconsider, don't make a reckless decision, it might be self-defeating!" Ji Feng said indifferently, his heart had already moved with anger, this Captain Wang, had already been put on his blacklist.

"Good! Very good!"

Chief Wang laughed in anger and pointed at Ji Feng: "Kid, if you say so, then don't blame me for doing justice. Du Shaofeng, which of the two paths do you choose? I'll only give you one minute to think about it, after that time, I'll expel you immediately!"

Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, "Headmaster Wang doesn't need to be so official, we agreed to cut a deal, but since it was Headmaster Wang that my classmate contradicted, there's no need to cut a deal with anyone else, if we want to cut a deal, it's only with you!"

"What did you say?" Headmaster Wang's face was instantly gloomy, asking him to spar with Du Shaofeng? He didn't think he would be a match for that big black man, moreover, there were experts here, so how could he take matters into his own hands?

"I said, if I want to spar, I'll spar with you, not anyone else!" Ji Feng said word for word.

"That's a joke!"

Headmaster Wang said disdainfully, "What kind of status am I that I would spar with you?"

"Since Headmaster Wang doesn't care about us cutting a sparring match and wants to find someone else instead, then naturally my classmates should also find someone else instead." Ji Feng said, "My classmate is also a person of status, so he can't possibly do it himself, so I'll take his place!"

"Ji Feng!"

Du Shaofeng was instantly anxious, "This is my own business, you all should stay out of it!"

He didn't want to drag his friend into this because of himself, this was definitely not something he, Du Shaofeng, did.

Ji Feng waved his hand and laughed, "Don't worry, you're a man of status, sparring with a driver, it's embarrassing to spread the word!"

"Kid, you seek death!" Black Bear was so insulted by Ji Feng that he roared in anger.

Ji Feng, however, didn't even look at him, he just stared at Chief Wang.

"Good, since you want to replace your classmate, that's naturally fine, still the same thing, as long as you can win, this matter will be written off and you will still continue training here. However, if you lose, then it will be the same as both of you losing, in which case I will have to expel both of you at the same time then!" Headmaster Wang said sinisterly.

"It's not just the two of them, it's me too!" Zhao Kai pushed his glasses and stood out.

"There's me too!" Han Zhong likewise stood up.

Ji Feng smiled faintly, "No problem, but if I win, I won't just continue training, my classmate will continue to be the captain, plus, you'll have to apologize!"

Captain Wang's face became even more gloomy, he wanted to eat Ji Feng in one bite. If there weren't so many people present, he would have taught Ji Feng a hard lesson.

"No problem!" Captain Wang said through clenched teeth, and after he finished speaking, he quickly walked over to Black Bear's side and whispered a few words about something.

A bloodthirsty look appeared on Black Bear's face at once, and he nodded hideously.

"Ji Feng, be careful, they must not have come up with any good ideas!" Zhao Kai said in a low voice.

"Don't worry." Ji Feng smiled. In his heart, however, he secretly nodded his head, regardless of whether Han Zhong and Zhao Kai's guts were big or small, at least at this critical moment, the two of them stood out without any rebellion, that was enough.

Of course, Ji Feng also knew that even if Han Zhong and Zhao Kai could not get their diplomas, it would definitely not affect their future lives, but the fact that they could stand up for themselves showed that they considered Du Shaofeng and themselves as friends.

"Kid, if you think you can't beat me, you two can go together!" Black Bear took two steps forward and came in front of Ji Feng, laughing heatedly.

Du Shaofeng snapped forward and sneered, "Where is the need for Ji Feng to step up in this matter, I can defeat you!"

He turned his head to Ji Feng and said, "Older brother, I'll go first, if I lose, you can come back!"

Chief Wang was confident in Black Bear and he said sinisterly from the side, "That's fine too, lest you two lose and still be unconvinced by then!"

Ji Feng frowned, but still nodded, "Old Du, be careful!"

Du Shaofeng laughed heatedly, "Don't worry, watch how I'll beat him up!"

Ji Feng took a few steps back, leaving the field to Du Shaofeng and Captain Wang. In fact, Ji Feng was trying to get Chief Wang to agree that once Du Shaofeng was defeated, he could still get on, and now that his aim had been achieved, he was much more relieved.

Du Shaofeng and Black Bear drew up their positions, and the others immediately looked on nervously, not knowing who would win between the two. But looking at Black Bear's sturdy body, most people mostly thought he had a better chance of winning.

"Drink!"

Du Shaofeng shouted and pounced on him, punching the black bear fiercely straight into his chest.

"Hey, that's a bit interesting!" Black Bear sneered as he simultaneously met it with a fist, and their fists instantly clashed together.

Bang!

Everyone felt a violent pain in their hands, as if their fists had been hit by Black Bear.

Looking at Du Shaofeng again, however, he only took two steps back and pounced again.

Ji Feng was watching from the side and secretly nodded his head, Du Shaofeng's strength was really good, he was barely able to fight the black bear evenly under hard contact.

While watching from the side, Chief Wang and Instructor Hu were simultaneously astonished. Du Shaofeng was able to fight against the black bear?

They were aware of Black Bear's strength, especially Captain Wang, who had personally seen Black Bear defeat a dozen soldiers with good hands at the same time and had killed people in the black boxing ring, but unexpectedly he was now forced to a draw by a student.

However, Ji Feng knew that this tie was actually only temporary. Du Shaofeng was not as experienced as Black Bear in actual combat, and once this fierceness had passed, he would gradually become no match for Black Bear.

Sure enough, after a few moves, Black Bear took control of the rhythm of the battle, and Du Shaofeng went from being proactive in attacking at the beginning to being passive in defence now.

"Roar!"

Du Shaofeng suddenly roared out, as if he was a wild beast in rage, causing the black bear, who was about to attack, to be suddenly stunned.

It was in the middle of the daze that Du Shaofeng seized the opportunity and unexpectedly punched the black bear in the small of his back, followed by a set of combinations that left the black bear no longer able to fight back and was instantly defeated.

Hoo!

Du Shaofeng's last punch stopped less than two centimetres away from the Black Bear's chest; if he had landed this round, the Black Bear would probably have been killed.

Ji Feng and Zhao Kai and the others had smiles on their faces at the same time. The outsiders were watching the action, but the insiders were watching the doorway. Perhaps the others just saw that Du Shaofeng had won, but Ji Feng knew that Du Shaofeng had learnt a lot through this actual battle.

"Phew!"

Du Shaofeng let out a long breath and stood up drenched in sweat, "Captain Wang, sorry, I won!"

Captain Wang's face was blue and he stared coldly at Du Shaofeng, not uttering any words for a long time.

And at this time, Ji Feng suddenly drank, "Old Du, be careful!"

Chapter 113

Just as Ji Feng shouted out, the black bear that was knocked down by Du Shao Feng, unexpectedly stood up silently, while attacking Du Shao Feng with a fierce punch. Go to see the net .

Neither Ji Feng nor Du Shaofeng expected that Black Bear would still fight back at this time, they both underestimated Black Bear's resilience. Imagine, in a black boxing ring, it's all or nothing, and victory is often a matter of holding on for that little bit longer. Even more so, there are black boxers who can even exhaust their opponents to death.

Neither Ji Feng nor Du Shaofeng had ever fought black boxing, so neither knew that the ferocity and tenacity of black boxers were, I'm afraid, incomparable to those in all other competitions. Because, other competitions may be about ranking, glory or money, but in black boxing, the competitors are competing for their lives!

In fact, what caused the current situation was, however, related to the experiences of both Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng. The moves that Ji Feng had learnt were all one-hit kung fu that would not give the opponent any chance to counter or recover, and would kill him at the moment of striking.

On the other hand, the martial arts that Du Shaofeng had learnt were more for the purpose of strengthening his body, not for competition, let alone for killing. It can be said that Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng are two extremes, one learns kung fu specifically for killing, while the other, learns kung fu for strengthening the body.

It was precisely for this reason that the black bear was given the opportunity to take advantage of the situation.

These words were complicated, but in reality, it was only a matter of a split second. In a flash, one could see that Black Bear's fist had already reached the side of Du Shaofeng's temple.

Having been alerted by Ji Feng, Du Shaofeng subconsciously lowered his head and turned sideways, dodging Black Bear's fist.

However, Black Bear was prepared after all, while Du Shaofeng dodged the first blow, Black Bear's second move also struck out, his foot, fiercely kicked Du Shaofeng in the back.

Bang!

Du Shaofeng was kicked forward and flew out, landing heavily on the ground.

However, at this time, Black Bear was still gaining momentum, surprisingly his body rushed forward, looking at his hideous and vicious appearance, he simply wanted Du Shao Feng's life!

"Stop!"

Ji Feng shouted angrily, but the black bear turned a deaf ear and charged straight towards Du Shaofeng. Everyone in the room was stunned by this extremely brief but shocking change, forgetting what they were even thinking, just watching dumbfounded as the black bear rushed towards the kicked Du Shaofeng.

"*!"

Ji Feng was furious, at this time it was already too late for him to attack the black bear, and Du Shaofeng was kicked away and landed just a short distance away from him, so he lashed out with his legs, his whole body was like a hungry tiger pouncing on him, and lightning-like he rushed to Du Shaofeng's side, grabbed him and took four or five steps backwards, staring coldly at the black bear that suddenly stopped. .com

"Cough" Du Shaofeng was kicked in the back and seemed to have shaken his internal organs, coughing uncontrollably.

Ji Feng held him up and handed him over to Zhao Kai and Han Zhong next to him, his icy gaze looked at Black Bear, "Just now he already kind of let you go, why do you still want to lay a poisonous hand on him?!"

Just now, if Du Shaofeng had not shown mercy, just that punch smashed into Black Bear's chest would have been enough to kill him. However, not only did Black Bear not know how to be grateful, he even took the opportunity to poison him, this was like a farmer and a snake!

"It's not like I asked him to show mercy. As long as I can still stand up, the cut is not over yet. Since it's not over, I can do whatever I want!" Black Bear laughed hideously, but a smug look flashed in his eyes, he knew that his kick had definitely injured Du Shaofeng's internal organs, and he would never be able to heal without a few months of recuperation.

The black bear couldn't help but smile, the head of Wang just explained that he wanted to give these two boys a good show, now he finally lived up to his promise, it seems that there is money to be made again!

Ji Feng fiercely turned his head and looked at Captain Wang, asking in a deep voice: "Captain Wang, what do you say about this matter? Is Black Bear's sneak attack on Du Shaofeng still not a loss?!"

He did not admit defeat and there was no referee to rule that Black Bear had lost, which meant that the sparring was not yet over. If you want to blame it, you can only blame Du Shaofeng for being arrogant and not putting his opponent in his eyes because he thinks he is somewhat skilled."

"Good, that's just great!" Ji Feng smiled coldly, "Since that's the case, then even if Du Shaofeng deserves to die, no one can be blamed. So, is it my turn next?"

“If you also want to end up like Du Shaofeng, of course you can!”

Chief Wang said, winked at Black Bear, took two quick steps to him, and said in a low voice, “This kid is very annoying, deal some hard blows later, but don’t cause any casualties!”

“Understood!” Black Bear said in a low voice.

Ji Feng didn’t pay any attention to what the two of them were actually saying, he took a big step to the open space, looked at Chief Wang and said, “According to what you said just now, if you want to rule that a party has lost, you have to make him unable to stand up, or admit defeat, or the referee will decide, is that right?”

“Hm!” Headmaster Wang made a nasal sound, not even bothering to talk to a student.

“Since there is no referee on the scene and everyone else is a spectator except the two people who are fighting, the item of having the referee determine the winner and loser can be cancelled!” Ji Feng held back the anger in his heart and said indifferently, “Then, there are only two possibilities left, one, one side is completely unable to stand up, and the other side, is to directly admit defeat, right?”

“Hmph, do you want to just admit defeat?” Headmaster Wang acknowledged the two possibilities.

“Admit defeat?” Ji Feng smiled faintly, “Not only will I not concede defeat, I won’t give you guys that chance either.”

Saying that, he took two steps forward, “Come on, I’d like to see how you guys can win!”

A cold light flashed in Black Bear’s eyes, after this moment’s rest, the damage that Du Shaofeng had inflicted on him was already insignificant, so he was completely confident that he could defeat Ji Feng in a very short period of time, and definitely make him hurt even more than Du Shaofeng.

“Kid, you asked for this!” Black Bear said hideously.

Ji Feng coldly glanced at him, causing Black Bear to be stunned. Because he saw that Ji Feng was looking at him as if he was looking at a dead man!

“Damn it!” Black Bear was instantly enraged, even if it was the King of Black Fists that he had once met in the black boxing ring, he had been able to get that appreciative look from him despite his defeat. In all these years, Black Bear had never been looked at like that before.

“Kid, today I will show you what kung fu is all about and what pain is all about!” Black Bear held back his anger and said in a cold voice.

“Such a coincidence?” Ji Feng smiled faintly, “That’s exactly what I want to tell you!”

“Cut the crap, let your horse come!” Black Bear roared.

“Hoo~~!”

As soon as Black Bear’s words fell, he saw Ji Feng’s body suddenly move, and immediately afterwards, he only felt a blur before his eyes, and found Ji Feng had arrived in front of him, and at the same time, his fist was actually right in front of his shoulder.

“Bang!” Ji Feng smashed his fist on Black Bear’s shoulder, instantly shattering his shoulder blade. At the same time, Ji Feng’s hand grabbed the black bear’s arm and shook it so violently that the arm suddenly drooped limply.

A punch that shattered the shoulder blade and dislocated the arm at the same time!

Intense pain instantly filled Black Bear’s limbs, and at the same time, a thought that made him feel fearful rose up in his mind – this kid, was definitely a fatalist.

At that moment, the murderous aura that erupted from Ji Feng’s body actually made Black Bear feel scared, which meant something that Black Bear knew only too well.

As his mind turned rapidly, Black Bear thought of admitting defeat. He knew that if he did not admit defeat, he would definitely end up in a miserable situation.

However, before Black Bear could say anything, Ji Feng moved his feet quickly and came to the other side of Black Bear, and he grabbed Black Bear’s other arm.

Bang!

As if by the same method, with one punch, he once again smashed the other shoulder blade and removed his other arm at the same time.

The black bear’s mouth opened wide to scream, but the pain caused his body to tremble, and in that instant, he couldn’t even scream out.

But Ji Feng did not have the slightest bit of pity, and the next moment, he saw him lunge forward again, while kicking out viciously with his left and right feet.

Bang! Bang!

“Ka-chow! Ka-chow!” With two sounds, both of Black Bear’s thighs were unexpectedly broken by Ji Feng’s kicks, and even, the more seriously injured left leg, the sore white bones were exposed, penetrating the muscles on the thighs.

Hoo!

Ji Feng snapped the black bear’s throat, with a faint smile on his face: “Now, do you admit defeat? Let me snap your neck as well?!”

The pain was so intense that Black Bear could no longer speak, his body was trembling violently, and his body was already soaked with cold sweat and blood, his whole body was like sieve chaff.

And at this moment, everyone present was stunned, how could they have thought that Ji Feng, a seemingly gentle student, had defeated that guy who was simply like a polar bear, and, moreover, with such cold tactics!

Headmaster Wang was even pale and his legs were trembling a little in fear, he couldn’t have known better how powerful the black bear was, yet he was hard-pressed to be beaten into this miserable state by Ji Feng.

So when Ji Feng’s gaze moved to him, he couldn’t even help but step back.

“Chief Wang, I should be winning now, right?” Seeing Chief Wang’s scared look, Ji Feng couldn’t help but despise it in his heart.

“Humph! Go!” Only then did Leader Wang react to the fact that he had been frightened by a student and his mind went blank, he instantly became furious with shame and left with a brush of his sleeves!

The political commissar, who had been following next to him, hurriedly lifted up Black Bear with Instructor Hu and ran towards the infirmary in the barracks.

All the remaining students were staring blankly at Ji Feng, with a little fear in their eyes, even.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but smile bitterly, he blamed himself for striking too hard, and now, well, I’m afraid that he has become a god of evil in the eyes of others.

However, soon, Ji Feng noticed something was wrong, these students, it seemed, all had a fervent admiration in their eyes?

Chapter 114

“Damn Ji Feng, I won’t let him go!”

In the barracks infirmary, the head of the military camp, Wang looked through the glass at Black Bear who was in surgery, his face was blue and he gritted his teeth, “A little student, how dare he beat up my driver into serious injury, damn him!”

Chief Wang was really annoyed, especially when the doctor saw the seriously injured Black Bear, he told Chief Wang straight away that even if Black Bear could recover, his kung fu would not be able to return to its previous level. Go to see the net .

Black Bear’s injuries were really frightening to the doctor, and the person who did it was just too ruthless.

Although the injuries to the black bear were all in the limbs, however, it was the injuries to these limbs that were so severe that the scapulae on both shoulders were almost completely shattered and even if they were reattached, they would never be able to perform strenuous movements again.

The injuries to the two thighs were even more serious, the bones had been cut off raw and even pierced through the muscles, exposing them in an extremely appalling manner.

From this, one could imagine how ruthless the person who did this was.

The moment he thought of this, Captain Wang’s heart was filled with hatred. He knew that he had used his privileges to get Black Bear from a black boxer to the army, not just because he appreciated Black Bear’s skills. Rather, it was because recently, the Southeast Military Region was going to conduct a big competition, in which apart from military skills and confrontation competitions, there were also individual competitions.

If Black Bear could achieve a good ranking in the competition, he, Wang Weijun, would definitely be credited with nurturing talents, and when the time came, as long as the top and bottom were well taken care of, he would be promoted.

But now, his hope was unexpectedly cut short by Ji Feng. Black Bear was even broken limbs and turned into this miserable appearance, just ask, how could Grand Master Wang Weijun Wang not hate?

“Hu Tiejun, when you go back, you immediately tell Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng both to pack their bunks and get lost!” Wang Weijun gritted his teeth and said.

“Headmaster Wang, you’re firing them?!” Hu Tiejun was stunned, hadn’t Wang Weijun said before that as long as Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng won, the previous matter would be written off, how come now he had gone back on his word?

“Expelled?!”

Grand Master Wang Weijun sneered and said hideously, “I’m not just going to expel them? Those two little brutes beat up my driver like this, not only will I expel them, I will also inform their school and strongly demand that they be expelled from school, or else I will have them court-martialed!”

“Ah!”

Hu Tiejun was immediately shocked, going to a military court, that meant something Hu Tiejun could not be clearer. If Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng were to be court-martialed, not to mention whether they could keep their academic records, I’m afraid they would have to spend time in prison in the future!

“Captain Wang, don’t be angry, Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng are both students, if you let them go to a military court, I’m afraid the school won’t agree, right?” Hu Tiejun said cautiously, “I think how about this, I’ll go and inform them now and tell them to leave the barracks within three days. After they leave the barracks, we will inform the school. Do you think that will work?”

“Then why don’t you go now!?” Headmaster Wang bellowed.

“Yes!”

Hu Tiejun bellowed and hurriedly headed out, but his heart was bitter: “Three days, this is the longest time I can buy for you, I hope you can get your connections to settle this matter within these three days, otherwise alas”

Hu Tiejun really can’t bear to watch two such excellent students being fixed by Wang Weijun, but his position is too low, his words simply don’t carry much weight, he can’t help Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng, he can only secretly sigh. .com

And at this time, on the barracks training ground, it was a different scene.

The reason is that Hu Tiejun left and did not give an order not to interrupt the training, so these students pretended not to know, sitting cross-legged on the ground, enjoying the rare rest time.

In fact, the majority of their eyes were focused on Ji Feng, who was already sitting back in the back left row.

You know, these students are now mostly at the age of bloodlust and have great fantasies about heroes and beautiful women, so how could they not be excited to see Ji Feng so powerful now?

Only Zhao Kai and Han Zhong were a little worried.

“Ji Feng, you’ve injured that black bear, that Headmaster Wang definitely won’t stop so easily, you have to be careful!” Zhao Kai said in a low voice, “If you really can’t, give up the position of captain to Wang Xiaowu, you can’t not bow down when you’re under the roof!”

Han Zhong nodded and continued, “Kai is right, there’s no shame in bowing down at this time. After all, even Black Bear is no match for you, that’s for all to see. It doesn’t really matter, the key issue is, that Wang is not a good person at first glance, if he gets on his mind, I’m afraid it will be very troublesome. There is a saying that if you are not afraid of a thief stealing, you are afraid of a thief thinking about you!”

Ji Feng was silent, although he knew that Zhao Kai and Han Zhong were saying these words for his own good, he had other thoughts.

Although this four-year university life, Ji Feng gave himself the top goal to integrate into life, but it doesn’t mean that he has to go against the grain, especially this kind of suffocating nuisance, he will not suffer.

“You guys don’t need to say anything, this matter is not Ji Feng’s fault, if that fellow surnamed Wang wants to look for trouble, let him come directly to me!” Du Shaofeng gritted his teeth and cursed, “Damn it, I hate this kind of person when I see him.”

“Old Du, your temper” Han Zhong laughed bitterly, Du Shaofeng’s character was too straightforward, this kind of character was really hard to eat in society, but seeing Du Shaofeng’s angry face, he couldn’t open his mouth to persuade him.

At this time, Ji Feng raised his head and smiled, “Don’t worry, this matter is not as serious as you guys think, it’s not just a mutual sparring match, if that guy didn’t sneak up on Du Shaofeng from behind and laid a vicious hand on him, I wouldn’t have injured him.”

“That’s true, but the guy surnamed Wang is not a good person at first glance, so how would he reason with you?” Zhao Kai shook his head and said, “Ji Feng, how about this, let’s talk to the counselor in advance and say hello to the school first, so that the one surnamed Wang doesn’t make a dirty trick behind his back, what do you think?”

Ji Feng shook his head, “There’s no need for that, let’s wait for instructor Hu to come back first and see what the situation is. If the one surnamed Wang really dares not keep his previous agreement, I will definitely make him regret it!”

These words he said in a firm and resounding manner.

Zhao Kai and Han Zhong instantly remembered Zhang Lei and were relieved. With such a friend who was so powerful in Jiangzhou, Ji Feng indeed had nothing to worry about. Thinking of this, Zhao Kai and Han

Zhong couldn't help but sigh with relief. There was already a certain amount of camaraderie between them and the four of them, Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng, so naturally they didn't want to just stand by and watch Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng being dealt with.

After another ten minutes, Hu Tiejun walked over quickly from afar.

"Alas, you!" Hu Tiejun looked at the bemused Ji Feng, he couldn't help but let out a long sigh and said in a low voice, "Ji Feng, you've caused trouble this time."

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows and asked, "How so?"

"Black Bear is Wang Weijun's driver and is usually most valued by Wang Weijun, you beat him up like this, how could Wang Weijun possibly let you off?" Hu Tiejun shook his head and sighed softly.

"Instructor Hu, did the surname Wang say how he was going to deal with us?" Du Shaofeng asked.

Hu Tiejun then said what Wang Weijun had said and shook his head and sighed, "These three days are the limit I can fight for, if it takes any longer, Wang Weijun will definitely not agree. Ji Feng, Du Shaofeng, the two of you, within these three days, try your best to arrange this matter with your connections, I will also help you find some connections to see if you can make Wang Weijun change his mind."

Knowing that Hu Tiejun had done his best, Ji Feng couldn't help but nod his head and say, "Instructor Hu, thanks a lot."

"Alas, there's no need to thank you, speaking of which, it's still my responsibility, if I hadn't let Du Shaofeng take up the role of captain, and instead appointed Wang Xiaowu directly, there wouldn't be all these things now."

Hu Tiejun couldn't help but shake his head and smile bitterly, "Speaking of which, this Black Bear used to reign in the black boxing ring and was highly valued by Wang Weijun, I shouldn't have let you guys fight him either."

Ji Feng, however, was moved in his heart and immediately asked, "Instructor Hu, you just said that Black Bear had fought in black boxing? Did he fight black boxing before he joined the army, or after?"

Hu Tiejun was stunned, not knowing why Ji Feng would suddenly ask this, "He was playing black boxing before he joined the army, and was said to be a famous figure in the underground black boxing scene in Jiangzhou. Then somehow, he joined the army and became Wang Weijun's driver."

Ji Feng gave a cold laugh at once, but his heart was happy. Originally, he was still thinking about how to fix Wang Weijun, but now he heard the news that Black Bear had fought in black boxing before, this was really a doze that sent him a pillow.

"Instructor Hu, thank you for helping to mediate from this." Ji Feng smiled and said, then turned away, took out his mobile phone and dialed a number.

After making the call, he turned around again and said, "Instructor Hu, where is that Wang Weijun now?"

“The infirmary You’re not going to go to him for a theory, are you?” Hu Tiejun was stunned, “That won’t do, you won’t help, and it will inflame the conflict even more, Ji Feng, you need to be more calm.”

Ji Feng shook his head with a smile and said, “How could I seek a theory from him, I don’t have any reason to talk to this kind of person.”

“Then you are looking for him for?” Hu Tiejun was confused.

Ji Feng laughed, “We’ll know when we go.”

The three people beside him, Du Shaofeng, however, guessed something from Ji Feng’s face and thought that Ji Feng must have found some kind of relationship to force Wang Weijun to stop pursuing this matter.

None of them had thought that what Ji Feng wanted was not that Wang Weijun would no longer pursue the matter.

“Ji Feng, we will also go with you!” Zhao Kai said.

“You guys will have to ask Instructor Hu to see if he will let you go!” Ji Feng said with a smile.

Hu Tiejun was a bit hesitant, not because he was afraid of taking responsibility, but because he was worried that if these bloodthirsty teenagers got impulsive, they would have to drag Zhao Kai and Han Zhong down again.

“Instructor Hu, don’t worry, we’ll just follow behind and definitely not make a sound easily.” Zhao Kai seemed to have seen Hu Tiejun’s worry and couldn’t help but say.

“Alright then, you guys will follow along, but remember your promise, don’t be impulsive.” Only then did Hu Tiejun nod his head.

“Ding” At this time, Ji Feng’s mobile phone suddenly rang, and he immediately walked to the side and picked up the phone.

A moment later, Ji Feng came back and smiled, “Alright, we can go find Wang Weijun now.”

Hu Tiejun was filled with a puzzled expression, but he could not ask more questions, so he could only lead Ji Feng and the others to rush to the infirmary.

When a few people arrived outside the infirmary, they were again taken aback.

Where was this infirmary, it was clearly a small hospital!

The entire four floors, during which doctors and nurses in white coats walked through them, looked very busy, such a scale, even in Mang Shi County, where Ji Feng’s hometown is located, I’m afraid only Mang Shi County People’s Hospital can compare.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but secretly nod his head, no wonder Black Bear could have his surgery here, this place had exactly the right conditions for it.

“Ee?”

Hu Tiejun, however, was startled and pointed to a jeep in the courtyard and said, "Why is there a leader here, Ji Feng, you few must be more sincere in admitting your mistakes later, this seems to be our division chief's car."

Ji Feng smiled faintly, "Don't worry, Instructor Hu, you've already helped us so much, you definitely won't make things difficult for you again."

Looking at Ji Feng's confident look, Hu Tiejun wanted to say something, but he wanted to stop.

At this moment, Wang Weijun and that fellow political commissar were carefully accompanying a middle-aged man outside the operating room, nodding and bowing, completely devoid of the kind of authority they had when facing Ji Feng and Hu Tiejun and the others before.

Just as he arrived at the corridor on the third floor, Hu Tiejun was instantly startled, and hurriedly ran over with quick steps, saluting, "Good day, Division Chief!"

The middle-aged man only nodded slightly in greeting, as if he had greeted Hu Tiejun.

"The people who cleaned up Wang Weijun are here!" When Ji Feng, who was walking behind, saw the middle-aged man, he turned his head and said to Du Shaofeng and the three of them, walked over quickly and deliberately said loudly, "Chief Wang, I've come to apologize to you!"

Leader Wang's face suddenly stiffened and he frowned, "Can't you see I'm talking with the leader? Let's talk about it later!"

"Chief Wang, if we talk later, we'll be kicked out of the barracks by you." Ji Feng said indifferently, "This must be the leader, right? It's just as well, let's talk things over in front of the leader."

The hatred of Captain Wang was suddenly born, if he let the division commander know what he had done, he would definitely not have any good consequences. He gave Ji Feng a fierce glare, the threat was unmistakable.

Ji Feng, however, just smiled faintly, not afraid at all.

"What's going on here?" The middle-aged man finally spoke, and Chief Wang's face instantly changed.

Chapter 115

As soon as the middle-aged man spoke, Wang Weijun's face suddenly changed, he glared at Ji Feng and said in a panic, "Report to the divisional commander, these two students disobeyed orders during military training, contradicted the leader, and dealt a vicious blow during the cut-throat, causing a soldier to still lie in the operating room. Go see the net."

"Is that so?" The middle-aged man's gaze looked at Ji Feng.

"Nonsense!" Before Ji Feng could speak, Du Shaofeng snorted angrily, pointed at Wang Weijun and said in a cold voice, "Wang Weijun, how dare you say that this matter is my fault and Ji Feng's? It was clearly you who misbehaved and favoured Wang Xiaowu, and tried to get your men to teach me a lesson when I was not convinced, and now you dare to turn black and white upside down, it's simply ridiculous."

“Unbridled, the division commander is here, where is it your turn to talk nonsense here?!” Wang Weijun’s face turned pale and he snorted coldly.

“Aren’t you similarly spouting nonsense?!” Ji Feng said disdainfully.

“You ……” Wang Weijun was furious, but he was blocked from saying anything.

“I think that what happened in the training ground before, the head of Wang will definitely not admit it, and I don’t want to hold on to this point, but there is one point that I am confused about, and I hope that the head of Wang can answer it.” Ji Feng stretched out his finger and pointed at the still busy operating theatre and asked in a cold voice, “That Black Bear was a black boxer before, why did he turn into the driver of Headmaster Wang? No wonder Headmaster Wang confidently asked us to spar with Black Bear before, how can a few students, facing a master born so down from the black boxing ring, win?”

Next to him, Zhao Kai sneered, “Unfortunately, ah, the head of Wang did not expect that we really won ……”

The two sang in unison, and that highly mocking tone made Captain Wang’s face was a blue and white, so wonderful, while in his heart, he was even more shocked and angry.

How could he have imagined that these boys would seize on the issue of Black Bear’s identity and not let go?

Just this one issue, if pursued from above, would be enough to make Chief Wang anxious, and it was even possible for him to be removed from his post.

And once Du Shaofeng and Instructor Hu and the others heard this, they all cried out in their hearts, “High! To point out the problem in a single stroke, with sharp words, this is not something that a twenty-year-old youth could say! That’s really high!”

As expected, once the middle-aged divisional commander heard Ji Feng’s words, his face immediately sank: “Wang Weijun, what they said, is it true?”

“Division chief, this, this ……” Wang Weijun couldn’t help but tremble in his body and wanted to speak, but he was unable to defend himself.

When the middle-aged division chief took a look at this situation, he instantly knew that what Ji Feng and the others were saying should be true.

He gave Wang Weijun a fierce glare and turned his head to the two guards behind him and said, “Immediately control Wang Weijun and unload his gun, while informing the political commissar and several other deputy divisional commanders to come here immediately for a meeting!”

It was over!

As soon as he heard the division commander’s words, Wang Weijun’s face instantly turned miserable white, and he gave a resentful and incomparable glance at Ji Feng’s few people, with a gaze so resentful that it almost seemed to pierce through Ji Feng’s few people’s bodies. .com

“No! It can’t be over like this!”

A strong resentment surged in Wang Weijun's heart, staring at Ji Feng with resentment, his whole body suddenly became agitated, fiercely pulled out the pistol on his waist and pointed at Ji Feng, "Little brute, if I go down, I'll drag you on my back too!"

"Unbridled!" The middle-aged division chief's face sank and he shouted angrily.

"That's right, haha, I'm being reckless, my Lord Divisional Commander, you forced this!" Wang Weijun laughed crazily and pointed his gun at several people, "Don't move, all of you, I'll kill anyone who dares to move!"

"Wang Weijun, don't force yourself onto a desperate path, drop your weapons immediately!" The middle-aged divisional commander reprimanded in a majestic manner, "Since you have made a mistake, you must be brave enough to take it on, look at what you look like now, a kidnapper? Do you look like a kidnapper or a madman?"

"I'm the one who's gone mad, haha, but you guys forced me to do it?" Wang Weijun roared, "Division chief, I know what I did, since you want to investigate Black Bear, then everything will be found out, the result is that I will definitely be court-martialed, this is definitely not the result I want!"

"Is the current result what you want?" Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head with a smile and asked sarcastically, "Holding the division commander and us hostage with a gun and then running out of the barracks? You think you can run out?"

"Little beast, shut up!" Wang Weijun shouted frantically, pulling over the political commissar next to him who was already so scared that his legs were weak, with his pistol against his head, "If I can't run out, I'll make you all die with me!"

Everyone tensed up, and the nurses and doctors in the corridor, seeing this scene, rushed back in fear, while some calmly called out emergency numbers.

"Wang Weijun, drop your gun now immediately and I promise you will be treated fairly, but if you want to escape, it's a no-brainer!" The middle-aged divisional commander, however, loomed large and stepped forward, "Put the gun down immediately, I don't want to shoot you down myself!"

"Stand still, if you take another half step forward, I will kill him!" Wang Weijun shouted as his gun was placed dead against the political commissar's head.

"Oh, it's really interesting, I really don't know how a person like you got to this point!" Ji Feng shook his head, seeing this scene, he couldn't help but laugh dumbly.

"Little brute, shut your mouth!" Seeing Ji Feng's mocking expression, Wang Weijun only felt a wave of anger rush straight to his head, and his entire person was almost completely furious.

"It's certainly okay for me to shut up." Ji Feng smiled faintly and pointed at the pistol in Wang Weijun's hand again, laughing, "Actually, I just want to tell you that the gun in your hand has no safety on and the bullets aren't in the hall!"

"Nonsense!"

Wang Weijun was instantly shocked and hurriedly looked down to check the pistol in his hand, but he didn't notice in the slightest that the distance between Ji Feng and him had already shortened to something like three or four meters.

Whew~~!

The moment Wang Weijun lowered his head, Ji Feng's figure suddenly surged, and everyone saw a blur before their eyes, and they saw that Ji Feng had already arrived in front of Wang Weijun.

Bang!

Ji Feng's fierce punch smashed into the head of Wang Weijun who had not yet reacted, Wang Weijun did not even react before he fell down in response to the sound and his pistol fell to the ground.

At that moment, the two guards of the division commander immediately one pulled the hijacked political commissar aside, while the other immediately drew out his belt and tied up the unconscious Wang Weijun, while picking up the pistol.

"How stupid!" Ji Feng shook his head and sighed.

"Too stupid." Du Shaofeng was also deeply impressed, "Even I, a person with a bad brain, knew that you must be lying to him, yet he still believed it!"

Wang Weijun, who had just woken up leisurely, happened to hear Ji Feng and Du Shaofeng's sentiments, and immediately stifled his frustration and fainted again.

"Division Chief, since things are clear, can we leave now?" Ji Feng asked.

The middle-aged divisional commander waved his hand and said, "Yes, but this matter has also dragged you guys into it, in order to show our apology, you can choose to leave the camp early, and the military training will likewise give you an excellent evaluation, what do you think?"

Several people froze at the same time.

Only after a moment did Du Shaofeng say, "No, I want to stay here and continue the military training."

He could not let go of Instructor Hu as a free chaperone, and since Wang Weijun could no longer afford to toss anything around, he was naturally still the captain.

Zhao Kai also nodded, "I'll continue my military training too, to strengthen my physique, a rare opportunity."

Han Zhong likewise chose to stay, after all, all the students were now in military training, if they left at this time, there would not be much to do.

Ji Feng laughed, "It seems that I'm the only one who chose to leave, huh, then we'll see you in a month!"

Several people joked and laughed, and left with Instructor Hu.

Returning to the camp, Ji Feng quickly packed his things, put back on his original clothes and walked towards the camp gate.

“Tick-!”

A jeep stopped beside Ji Feng, and when he turned his head to look, the one driving was one of the middle-aged divisional commander’s security guards.

“This student, our divisional commander ordered me to give you a lift!” The guard said.

Ji Feng smiled faintly, “Where is your division commander?”

“The division commander is in a meeting with other leaders, discussing ways to deal with Wang Weijun, and couldn’t spare the time, so he asked me to see you off!” The guard replied.

Ji Feng nodded and also opened the car door and sat on the passenger seat.

The guard started the car and looked at Ji Feng, who was calm, and secretly wondered in his heart, “I don’t know what relationship this young man has with the divisional commander, you know, the divisional commander has never sent a person and a student before!”

But he didn’t know that Ji Feng next to him was also secretly saying at this moment, “This division commander has made quite a thoughtful arrangement, it seems that he should be an old subordinate or an old comrade of Third Uncle!”

When he had clashed with Wang Weijun earlier, Ji Feng had called that division commander’s number, which was the number that Third Uncle Ji Zhenping had already given before.

Before Ji Zhenping returned to Yanjing, he had given Ji Feng several numbers, from the political world to the military to the business world, in every aspect, and that divisional commander’s number was one of them.

In fact, if not for the fact that there was no good way to deal with Wang Weijun, Ji Feng really did not want to use these numbers, after all, if he got used to using them, he could form a dependency, which was not what Ji Feng wanted.

However, after thinking about it, Ji Feng still sent a message to that divisional commander about the squad where Tong Lei and Zhang Lei were, asking that divisional commander to help take care of the two, or at least not to make them suffer too much.

It was already two hours later when he stepped onto the streets of Jiangzhou once again.

Looking at the bustling crowd on the street and the tall buildings, Ji Feng, who was standing at the bus stop, could not help but wave his fist, “One day, in this prosperous city, there will be a place for me, and those tall buildings will eventually have one that belongs to me!

After suppressing the great emotion in his chest, Ji Feng returned to his calm. The reason he chose to end his military training early was that he actually wanted to take advantage of this month to get familiar with the city as soon as possible, while looking for suitable business opportunities.

However, before that, there were still things like traveling gifts to be put back to school.

Just then, a refreshing fragrance reached Ji Feng’s nose, and immediately afterwards, his afterimage saw a delicate figure.

Chapter 116

Ji Feng couldn't help but turn his head to look and couldn't help but feel a moment of amazement. Go to see the net .

About four or five metres to his left, there stood a stunningly beautiful woman. This woman looked about twenty-six or twenty-seven years old, with a head of big wavy curly hair cascading down her back, a tall figure, and wearing purple high heels, she looked to be fully one meter seventy-five, not much shorter than Ji Feng.

What was most striking was that this woman was wearing a black Korean version top and a pair of pencil trousers underneath, the slightly tight trousers that completely outlined her moving curves and those long, slender thighs.

Even though the upper body was a Korean version of the dress, which was very loose, it could not hide her proud figure, especially the pair of proud breasts, which made people look sideways.

In fact, this woman was only dressed in the simplest of OL outfits, but it gave people a stunning feeling.

Ji Feng's gaze fell on her face again, and his heart fluttered even more.

This was definitely a face that was enough to move the heart, whether it was the delicate features or the pair of eyes that seemed to speak, it all gave people a thrilling feeling.

A superb beauty!

These four words immediately came to Ji Feng's mind, and he believed that if his nemesis Zhang Lei were here, he would have opened his mouth to say these words.

Indeed, this woman was enough to be called a superb beauty.

In Ji Feng's opinion, among the women he knew, I am afraid that only Xiao Yuxuan could be compared to her. It could be said that the two should be indistinguishable from each other, with the same stunning beauty and the same almost perfect figure.

Of course, if one had to differentiate, Ji Feng would have to admit that the woman in front of him would be even better. Not because this woman was more beautiful than Xiao Yuxuan, but her body carried a kind of mature charm that Xiao Yuxuan didn't even use.

That's right, it was a mature charm.

This kind of charm, and age does not have much to do with it, because at first glance, she and Xiao Yuxuan should be about the same age. However, somehow, Ji Feng was inclined to feel a different kind of charm from this woman.

Well Ji Feng thought hard about it and finally came up with a word: young woman!

That's right!

The actual sense is that Xiao Yuxuan is not married and is still untouched, and can only be considered an older girl.

But this woman in front of her was definitely a beautiful young woman, and that was the difference between her and Xiao Yuxuan.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are doing.

The first thing that happened was that the young woman turned her head around and gave Ji Feng a fierce glare with disgust in her eyes.

Ji Feng was stunned, who had he provoked?

After a second thought, he understood. I guess this woman felt that she was gawking at her and that's why she glared at herself with such disgust, right?

Thinking about this, Ji Feng was relieved and simply returned a smiling look before turning his head away and no longer looking at the woman. After all, it was rude to keep recklessly ogling people like that. What's more, one's behaviour had been noticed by others!

Looking at the time, it was almost five o'clock in the afternoon, a time when the rush hour from work had begun, and the number of vehicles on the road had obviously increased and had become congested. More than that, there were even more pedestrians, and within a short while, the bus stops were already full of people.

Because this is not quite the city centre, there are fewer buses here, and there is only one bus to do to get directly to the university city. Ji Feng looked at the stop sign and found that this bus was going to stop leaving at 5:30.

He couldn't help but frown, he didn't expect there to be so few buses here. You should know that the place where the university city is located is a high-tech economic development zone built in Jiangzhou only a few years ago, where there are a large number of high-tech enterprises, and some large multinational companies or well-known domestic companies have branches there or their headquarters are directly there.

Logically, the traffic problem must be the first thing to be solved, but now it seems that there is still a need for improvement.

However, on second thought, Ji Feng was dumbfounded. Although those companies were located in the development zone, it was said that most of those who worked there would rent houses near there, and as for the bosses or executives of those companies, they must have bought houses elsewhere.

But who has ever seen a boss taking a bus to work?

What's more, this place is in the middle of nowhere, although it is still very prosperous compared to a small county like Mang Shi County, but for Jiangzhou, it can only be considered a suburb.

It is also understandable that such places are not easily accessible.

Shaking his head slightly, Ji Feng sighed lightly: "If I had known, I would not have been polite to that driver and let him take me to the entrance of the school directly, so I would not have had to be like this now, unable to get a taxi. Alas, a public car, not using it for nothing."

Earlier, because he was worried that that divisional commander would need to use a car, Ji Feng didn't let the divisional commander's driver take him directly to the school, but instead got off here according to the map, which now seemed to be a completely wrong decision.

Not only was Ji Feng sighing, but the others who were waiting at the stop sign couldn't help but complain too.

In fact, it was also Ji Feng's bad luck that he didn't come early and didn't come late, but came here at this rush hour after work.

Jiangzhou was an economic centre, with tens of millions of people in the city, so one could imagine how many people would be on the road once the rush hour came.

It was almost half past five, but the bus that Ji Feng was waiting for had not yet come, and the traffic on the road was worryingly congested, while the number of people at the stop sign was growing.

"If I can't, I'll just run all the way back to school, big deal, I'll just consider it exercise!" Ji Feng said secretly, he finally had a personal experience of the buses in Jiangzhou.

No wonder it was often said that in Jiangzhou, the average time an ordinary white-collar worker spent on the road was an hour and a half if he took the bus to work, which was simply too horrible.

Ji Feng was not the only one who was anxious, others could not wait any longer and simply took a taxi.

However, where else could they get a taxi at this time, all the taxis that passed on the road were full, making those who wanted to take a taxi unable to help but stomp their feet in anger.

"Here it comes!"

At this moment, I don't know who shouted, everyone's eyes immediately looked, only to see a bus was driving slowly, that speed is probably not as fast as riding a bicycle.

"It's finally here!" Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and smile bitterly, and looked at the time, surprisingly it was almost six o'clock.

However, as soon as the bus stopped, Ji Feng was dumbfounded.

When the door of the bus opened, the people in the bus didn't even use to come down, the people underneath it all gathered around, frantically squeezing into the bus, fearing that they wouldn't be able to get on.

The chaotic scene made Ji Feng's mouth open wide and he didn't come back to his senses for half a day.

"This is a bit too crazy, right?!" Ji Feng couldn't help but mutter, "Why can't we just line up?"

If there was a queue, the speed of getting on the bus would be at least twice as fast as this, but on the contrary, all these people were scrambling to be the first to push their way up, making the scene chaotic.

“Perhaps, this is the characteristic!”

Ji Feng shook his head with a smile and followed the end of the crowd, waiting for everyone else to go up before he got on.

And at this time, he inadvertently saw that beautiful woman again. She had a hesitant look on her face, as if she was considering whether or not to get into the car.

In fact, Qin Shujie felt unlucky today.

She was supposed to meet with a client today to discuss business, but unexpectedly, the client changed his mind on the spur of the moment, causing her to make a trip for nothing.

As she was in a hurry to pick up her daughter from kindergarten, she called the 4S shop and asked them to tow the car away for repairs, then she went to the bus stop and prepared to take a taxi to hurry back.

However, what she didn't expect was that taxis were so difficult to get, and after standing here for almost an hour, she didn't get a single one. She was still here when her daughter was about to leave school, so she became anxious.

However, looking at the incomparably crowded bus in front of her, she really did not want to squeeze in with these people, but after looking at the time, she gritted her teeth and came to the end of the crowd.

An ethereal fragrance wafted into Ji Feng's nose once again, and he immediately knew that the one standing behind him must be the beautiful young woman from before who had come to his side. However, he did not turn around. God knew if he turned around, the other party would think he was a pervert.

Besides, Ji Feng didn't have to look at a beautiful woman, so he just shook his head and smiled, and when he saw that the people in front of him were finally almost crowded, he started to lift his legs and prepared to get on the bus.

Just at this time, a leg in pencil trousers stepped on the pedal at the door of the car at the same time, and Ji Feng and Qin Shujie squeezed together at the same time.

“You!” Qin Shujie was wearing high heels, which was already inconvenient, and as a result, when she was squeezed by Ji Feng, her body suddenly lurched and she was about to fall down.

Ji Feng was quick with his hands and grabbed Qin Shujie's arm, and a tender and slippery sensation immediately came over him. Ji Feng didn't have time to think about it, his other hand held her waist and held her upright.

“Shameless, let go!” Qin Shujie's body stiffened and she instantly snarled.

Ji Feng was stunned, how was he shameless for holding her up with good intentions?

He didn't know that by ogling the other party at the stop sign just now, he had already been defined as a pervert by Qin Shujie, and now that Qin Shujie had almost been squeezed, he instantly decided that it was Ji Feng's intention.

After skimming his mouth, Ji Feng honestly let go of his hand while taking a step back and waiting for the other party to go up first.

Qin Shujie fiercely glared at Ji Feng before getting into the car.

Doing a good deed and still being scolded, really Ji Feng shook his head with a bitter smile and followed him up.

At this time, another big man behind squeezed up, the car suddenly could no longer be crowded, the beautiful young woman stood next to the coin box, Ji Feng could only stand in the doorway, and the big man squeezed together.

The car was slowly moving, but Ji Feng couldn't help but frown. The big man next to him had a strong smell of sweat, and when he opened his mouth to breathe, the breath he exhaled was also very unpleasant.

I can't help it, bear with it!

Ji Feng could only shake his head and smile bitterly, who let this be the last bus, moreover, to take the bus, one must be mentally prepared to endure the crowdedness.

Leaning against the door, Ji Feng put his luggage at his feet and closed his eyes to recuperate.

However, after less than a few moments, Ji Feng suddenly felt a strong wind coming from in front of him. He opened his eyes suddenly and abruptly found that the beautiful young woman in front of him had turned back at some point and, moreover, she was slapping at herself.

"Holy shit!"

Ji Feng cursed and backed up violently, but found that he was already against the door and there was no way to retreat. He gritted his teeth and fiercely raised his hand to block.

"Slap!"

The beautiful young woman slapped Ji Feng's hand, and a hot pain immediately came from Ji Feng's hand, causing his eyes to immediately narrow and shoot out a harsh glare.

"Why did you hit me?!" Ji Feng asked in a cold voice.

"Shameless person, should be beaten!" The beautiful young woman was however, her pretty face was red with anger, and her beautiful eyes were full of anger as she glared at Ji Feng, as if she was looking at a ten evil villains.

"*!"

Ji Feng was instantly furious, he had repeatedly tolerated, but he had ended up in such a situation?

"This lady, please also say clearly, how exactly am I shameless?!" Ji Feng forced himself to hold back his anger and asked in a cold voice. No matter who else it was, being beaten and scolded for such a reason, there would definitely not be a good temper.

“You still don’t dare to admit what you yourself have done? A shameless person is shameless!” The beautiful young woman sneered, “If you dare to do shameless things again, I’ll call the police!”

“Damn it!” Ji Feng gritted his teeth, he had kept his eyes closed before and had no idea what was going on, so how was he shameless?

He was just about to speak when he saw that beautiful young woman humming with extreme contempt and turned around again, leaving a back to Ji Feng.

“Phew~~!”

Ji Feng took a deep breath and said, “We good men don’t fight with women, today count me unlucky, how come I met such a crazy bitch when I went out!”

He took a few deep breaths before suppressing his anger, but in his heart he was helpless, he couldn’t fight with a woman, right?

Shaking his head with a bitter smile, Ji Feng leaned against the door and closed his eyes again. Only this time he left an eye out and didn’t really close his eyes, but squinted slightly, and to outsiders it looked like he was almost dead shut.

The car continued to drive slowly, but Ji Feng kept an eye on all the movements around him, he wanted to see why that woman was beating him.

For a while at first, there was no movement, only the strong smell of sweat from the big man beside him filling the space around him, making it uncomfortable.

However, after a short while, Ji Feng’s eyes suddenly stared and he cursed in his heart, “Holy sh*t, that’s actually what happened!”

Chapter 117

Ji Feng finally knew why this beautiful young woman in front of him had suddenly hit herself. The reason is that he squinted and saw that the big man next to him, who smelled of sweat and had a foul mouth, was leaning forward slightly. Because the big man had a bag on his body all the time, plus the bus was rather crowded, so this leaning forward of his body just happened to block the view of all the others.

And at this time, one of the big man’s hands reached out from the inside of the bag and made a grabbing motion, landing straight on the beautiful young woman’s upturned buttocks in front of him, squeezing it hard, and then quickly withdrew his hand.

“Boy, what a master!” Ji Feng couldn’t help but give a secret praise, to be a pervert to achieve this level, this level, that is definitely not an ordinary expert, he couldn’t help but faintly glance at that big man, but saw a smug and enjoyable look on his face, looking incomparably comfortable.

A few black lines appeared on Ji Feng’s forehead, this big man was definitely a psychopath!

However, the next moment, the black lines on Ji Feng’s forehead turned into anger, and a thick anger rose in his heart.

It turned out that the beautiful young woman felt her sensitive parts being attacked again and turned back at once, but could not see the slightest difference, Ji Feng was sleeping with his eyes closed, while the big man made a shocked look and froze looking at the beautiful young woman.

The beautiful young woman's shy and angry gaze went back and forth between the faces of Ji Feng and the big man, and when her gaze landed on the big man's face, between that the big man looked at the beautiful young woman and pouted again in the direction where Ji Feng was.

"Shit!"

Ji Feng suddenly realized, no wonder the beautiful young woman had to hit herself for no reason before, the reason for the matter was actually because that big man had molested her and framed her for it!

"Damn it!" Ji Feng was furious and almost wanted to slap this shameless thing to death immediately. However, when he thought about it, he held back his anger.

This was because Ji Feng knew that even if he beat this lustful and shameless big man up now, he would not be able to clarify in front of the beautiful young woman, let alone prove his innocence.

He decided not to take any action and just wait and see what would happen.

This series of thoughts only flashed through Ji Feng's mind for an extremely short period of time. The next moment, the beautiful young woman's eyes, which were both shy and angry, glared at Ji Feng, looking like she was about to make a move.

At this time, Ji Feng had a bright idea and deliberately dozed off, sleepily rubbing his eyes, then pretending to sleep unconsciously once again.

When Ji Feng did so, the beautiful young woman gave a start, then gave an annoyed look at Ji Feng and the big man and cursed, "Shameless!"

Then, she turned her head away. .com

Because Ji Feng was pretending too much, it made the beautiful young woman instinctively think that Ji Feng was really sleeping and had no time to molest herself, while the big man was also acting like a moral man at this time, so the beautiful young woman could no longer say anything and could only leave it at that. Without evidence, you can't just beat people up again like last time!

Ji Feng gritted his teeth, people are not afraid of a woman, what else is a big man like himself afraid of?

Especially the slender legs wrapped under the pencil trousers, as well as the upturned and rounded buttocks, it is really impossible to take one's eyes off.

Just as Ji Feng continued to squint his eyes and comment on the beautiful young woman's back, he noticed that the big man next to him had extended his devilish hand again, going straight for the beautiful young woman's arse.

"Damn, you still dare to set me up, if I don't let you make a big fool of yourself this time, I really don't need to get involved!" Ji Feng cursed angrily in his heart, his eyes fixed on the big man's hand with a deadly gaze.

The moment that big man grabbed a handful of the beautiful young woman's arse and was about to quickly withdraw it, he suddenly felt a numbness in his ribs and his arm unexpectedly stiffened there, half of his body was unable to move.

"Phew~~!"

With uncontrollable anger, that beautiful young woman snapped her head around, but just in time to see that obscene and extremely lewd posture of the big man, and then looking at Ji Feng, still sleeping with his eyes closed, standing there swaying as if he might fall down at any moment.

In this instant, the beautiful young woman understood everything at once, and she shouted angrily, "Shameless person!"

Immediately afterwards, a fierce slap was slapped towards the big man's face, "Pa!"

Next to him, Ji Feng jerked his head up, pretending to be suddenly awakened, looked at the big man and then at the beautiful young woman, and was about to shout.

"Don't!"

But the beautiful young woman suddenly said in a low voice, "Don't make a sound!"

Ji Feng's wide mouth froze, then he resentfully shut it and gave the beautiful young woman a smiling look. In fact, he really wanted to give that beautiful young woman a hard time, because from the time he was falsely accused of being a pervert when he got into the car, to the time he almost received a slap from her, the relationship between the two of them had been very tense.

The two of them had a very tense relationship, and Ji Feng knew very well that if he opened his mouth and shouted out now, everyone would know that the big man had secretly molested her, and the beautiful young woman would not have the face to stay in the car anymore.

However, seeing the pleading gaze of the beautiful young woman, Ji Feng could no longer get angry and could only shake his head and stop talking.

The beautiful young woman looked at him apologetically, knowing that she had wronged him before, but wanting to say something to apologize, she didn't know how to speak for a while, and the scene just chilled out, with only the big man, half of whose body was paralyzed, sweating like a mallet and standing there.

"That sorry, I was wrong to blame you before, I hope you don't mind!" Seeing the still red back of Ji Feng's hand, the beautiful young woman finally apologized in a low voice.

Ji Feng looked at her with a smirk and did not say anything. But he also had to admit that this beautiful young woman's voice was, indeed, very nice to listen to. Her voice was not the crisp voice of Tong Lei, nor was it the pleasant chirping voice of Xiao Yuxuan that sounded like a nightingale, but a flirtatious voice that seemed to be embedded in her bones that made people's hearts pound.

Seeing Ji Feng's expression, the beautiful young woman suddenly blushed with shyness.

Ji Feng pointed at the big man next to her and said, "Now you should know who is really the shameless one, right?"

Since the bus was rather noisy, the two of them were not afraid of being overheard with their whispered conversation.

The beautiful young woman said in a low voice, "Yes, I know, I'm sorry for wrongly blaming you before."

Seeing that the beautiful young woman apologized twice in a row, Ji Feng's anger subsided, he was not a petty person, but he was just angry at being hit for no reason. What's more, when faced with the soft words of such a beautiful young woman, I'm afraid few people can be angry, right?

At this moment, Ji Feng couldn't help but be a little jealous of this beautiful young woman's husband, what kind of blessing did he cultivate in his last life to get such a wife in this life!

"Forget it, you are also a victim in this matter." Ji Feng waved his hand and let out a soft sigh in his heart, once he remembered that this woman in front of him was already someone else's wife, somehow, he had a feeling of loss in his heart.

He couldn't help but curse himself for being shameless, how had he become worse and worse now?

"I guess, I was not a good person in the first place, right? Perhaps it was because of the previous family conditions and the suppression of the external environment, which prevented him from liberating his nature at all, and now that he has finally come to the end of his days, his true nature has come out!" Ji Feng secretly said. Thinking of Tong Lei, who was still in military training, Ji Feng's heart could not help but surge with a touch of sweetness, and then looking at the beautiful young woman in front of him, those complicated thoughts in Ji Feng's heart were put aside, and what remained was simply appreciation.

"That, if I call the police, can you testify for me later?" The beautiful young woman suddenly asked.

Ji Feng was stunned and then nodded, but in his heart he was secretly praising that this beautiful young woman was not a weak person. He had heard before that there were many women who were molested but didn't dare to report to the police, either because they were afraid of losing face or fearing retaliation, thus condoning those criminals.

The beautiful young woman in front of him was obviously not one of them.

However, on second thought, the beautiful young woman shook her head and said in a low voice, "Forget it, I have to rush back to pick up my daughter, I don't have time to waste with this shameless person."

Ji Feng nodded indifferently, the other party was the one in question, she didn't even want to call the police, so naturally she wouldn't say anything more herself.

"Count yourself lucky this time!" The beautiful young woman glared at the big man who still had no half-hearted response and said indignantly.

That big man was lucky?

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, he didn't think so. When the big man tried to withdraw his hand just now, Ji Feng pointed his finger at the big man's rib cage, which was a numb point that could paralyze half of his body continuously if he was right. And with the force Ji Feng exerted, I'm afraid that the big man would have to spend the next half month in bed, even if he went to the hospital, it would be useless.

You know, this was the combat technique of the Gamma Galaxy, and there was certainly nothing one could do about it now.

“By the way, my name is Qin Shujie, thank you so much for today, and for misunderstanding you, I’m very sorry.” The beautiful young woman suddenly remembered something and hurriedly took out a business card from the bag she had with her and handed it to Ji Feng.

“My name is Ji Feng!”

Ji Feng smiled faintly and looked down, only to see that the business card read: Shu Yao Jewellery Company Limited, General Manager Qin Shujie.

Seeing this line, Ji Feng couldn’t help but be astonished. The boss of a jewellery company, I really couldn’t see that this beautiful young woman owned a jewellery company!

Ji Feng couldn’t help but think that a young woman so young owned a jewellery company, thinking that this young woman’s background was, I’m afraid, extremely uncomplicated.

Chapter 118

Although Ji Feng was a little surprised at Qin Shujie’s identity, he didn’t show it on his face and just smiled, “Ms. Qin is really something, owning a company at such a young age. Go see the net .”

The two people didn’t have much of a friendship in the first place, and it was their first time meeting, so after just a few casual words, Qin Shujie turned around and stood back up.

Ji Feng was naturally the kind of person who couldn’t leave when he saw a beautiful woman, and when the conversation between the two ended, he continued to sleep with his eyes closed, leaning against the glass of the car door. In fact, this time Ji Feng was really asleep. Sleeping standing up may seem a bit unbelievable to say, but Ji Feng was actually sleeping standing up.

The reason for this was that, in the Super Agent Training System, Ji Feng had received sleep training. For an agent, sufficient sleep was a prerequisite to ensure sufficient energy. Therefore, if one wanted to be a good agent, one had to learn that one could sleep peacefully under any circumstances, and that too in a deep sleep.

You know, a minute of deep sleep is worth an hour of subconscious sleep, a saying that Ji Feng learned from his instructor in the training system, so for him, maintaining abundant energy at all times had become a habit.

Of course, even in the process of sleeping, Ji Feng’s body still remained instinctively alert and on guard, which had become a subconscious action for him, an instinct of sorts.

The bus was still very noisy, but Ji Feng slept peacefully, however, it was the nasty big man next to him who suffered.

Being nudged in the ribs by Ji Feng had paralysed half of that big man's body, and after a few moments, not only was half of his body paralysed, but he even started to gradually lose consciousness. By now, that half of his body was completely unconscious, as if the whole man knew half of it.

This made him unable to speak, and it was as if his whole body had been cast in a stance, and he could not move at all. Because he had to use the other half of his body to hold on, otherwise he might fall to the ground at any moment.

He couldn't understand why his body had suddenly become like this, what was wrong with it?

However, no matter how anxious and fearful his heart was, the big man would never know that he had become like this because he had framed Ji Feng. If he had known that this innocent and gentle looking kid beside him was actually a bogeyman, he would not have framed Ji Feng, no matter what he said.

After sleeping for a while, Ji Feng's eyebrows suddenly furrowed, it turned out that the nasty big man next to him was paralyzed because half of his body was paralyzed, making his mouth unable to close at all, that saliva dripped down the corners of his mouth, wetting all the lapels on his chest, moreover, making the air around him filled with a strange and incomparable smell.

"For the time being, I'll let you cheapen this shameless guy for once!"

Ji Feng cursed in his heart, pretending to doze off, his finger moved slightly and nudged at the big man's body.

A moment later, that big man suddenly let out a miserable cry, "Ah!"

He then spun around in place, wiping the saliva from the corners of his mouth in a panic as he cursed angrily, "*, who the hell is that bastard to screw me?"

The carriage suddenly fell silent as everyone looked at the big man, and Ji Feng likewise looked at him with a puzzled expression.

When the big man took a look at the situation, he couldn't help but curse, "What the * are you all looking at? What's there to see!"

This big man was stout and his face was already somewhat fierce and vicious, and when he got angry at this moment, he suddenly looked a bit hideous.

Most of the people riding the bus were ordinary citizens, and no one would stand up for themselves because of this, so the crowd cursed this big man for his lack of quality in their hearts, but they also turned their heads back and pretended that they had not seen this rude guy.

Ji Feng, however, secretly sneered, still so arrogant now, it seems that he really can't just let him go.

That big man's body has not yet fully recovered, half of his body still feels a little uncomfortable, can't help but move around there, as if ants on a hot pot, watching Ji Feng can't help but secretly laugh.

Because the car was really already full, so the driver only opened the back door for a few stops in succession to let some of the car's passengers off, and only after half an hour did he sort of open the front door. .com

And at this time, that big man cursed and muttered a word of bad luck, and also got off from the front door.

A sinister smile suddenly appeared on Ji Feng's face as he touched his body and eventually found the business card that Qin Shujie had just given him from his pocket.

After taking a look at Qin Shujie, Ji Feng found that she had already taken advantage of the effort to get off behind her and walked to the back of the carriage. Ji Feng then quickly tore the business card into two pieces, just leaving the piece with the phone number, and the remaining piece, which he quickly balled up into a small paper ball, flicked it out violently at the big man who had already gotten out of the car.

"Bang!" The sound.

The moment the car door closed, the paper ball was flicked out of the car.

Ji Feng, through the car window, only saw that the big man had just reached the station sign, and before he could take a step up, he suddenly froze there, with a look of extreme fear on his face.

"Hehehe!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but snicker, this wasn't the first time he had done this kind of shady thing, but it was the first time he had done it with such gusto.

He could not afford to feel any better about this nasty big man, especially when the other party not only molested a woman in the car, but even framed this act on himself, which was simply unforgivable.

Ji Feng believed that with that blow just now, it would be enough to put that big man in bed for 20 days, and it would be absolutely useless to go to the hospital. Because this time was different from the one in the car, that time, Ji Feng had punctured the acupuncture points between the big man's ribs, while this time, he had used the technique of cutting off the veins, pinching the meridians in the big man's torso, which was even more powerful than puncturing the acupuncture points.

The first time I saw him, I was so upset with him that I was able to get him to do it.

However, Ji Feng did not know that at this moment he was considering whether it was appropriate for him to lay a heavy hand on the big man, while at the back of the carriage, a pair of beautiful eyes were staring deadly at him, with an uncontrollable anger in their eyes.

The owner of this pair of beautiful eyes was no other than Qin Shujie, who had some misunderstanding with Ji Feng before.

She stared deadly at Ji Feng's hand, and in his hand, he was holding a business card that had been torn into two halves. Although only one half of it was there, this half was enough for Qin Shujie to instantly recognise that it was definitely her own business card!

An uncontrollable anger surged in Qin Shujie's heart, he had torn his own business card?

As the boss of a jewellery company, not to mention her background, her looks and her own ability alone were enough to run the market, and no matter where she went, no one would dare to tear her business card.

No matter where she went, no one would dare to tear her business card. But now, a student-like kid had torn up her business card just like that!

The more Qin Shujie thought about it, the more furious she felt, and she couldn't even help but secretly wonder, did she just misunderstand him and let him hold such a grudge?

Shaking her head, Qin Shujie couldn't help but laugh again in her heart, what was she bothering with a student, she and he were not from the same world at all, she had to learn to control her mood and temper well

Qin Shujie consoled herself, and when she looked at Ji Feng again, she did not feel how annoying he was anymore, only that her gaze changed, it was as if she was looking at a complete stranger, as if she was walking down the street, her gaze sweeping aimlessly, occasionally seeing a person and just passing by, nothing happened, not even a half impression.

The current Ji Feng was such a person in Qin Shujie's eyes. Since the other party has already torn up his business card, the two sides will never have a half-hearted encounter from now on.

In Qin Shujie's mind, she had already marked Ji Feng as a 'stranger' and would always do so.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. After putting it in, Ji Feng solemnly smoothed out the wallet again before putting it back into his pocket.

Qin Shujie was stunned for a moment, she really couldn't understand how this little guy, who had just torn up his own business card, could put it away so solemnly again?

Qin Shujie could be sure that Ji Feng had not looked at himself during the whole process from tearing the business card to putting it away. This means that he did not notice the change in his expression, so why did he suddenly change again?

As a company boss, Qin Shujie immediately and instinctively speculated that there were only two possibilities for such a thing to happen.

The second possibility is that Ji Feng tore up the business card, but definitely not because he held a grudge against himself, but for other reasons.

For these two possibilities, Qin Shujie felt that the latter was more likely, which could be seen from Ji Feng's action of putting away the business card just now. Being able to control a jewellery company, Qin Shujie definitely did not lack an eye for people, and through Ji Feng's actions just now, Qin Shujie knew that Ji Feng should not be the kind of person who was petty.

"What an interesting little guy!" Qin Shujie couldn't help but shake her head and smile, and regardless of the reason why Ji Feng tore up the business card, since he had now put it away so solemnly again, Qin Shujie decided to forgive him.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

At this moment, Ji Feng did not know how many thoughts had flashed through Qin Shujie's mind because of this one action of his. Of course, even if Ji Feng knew about it, he would only shake his head and laugh at most, he didn't think he would have any dealings with this jewellery company's boss in the future.

What's more, by tearing up the business card, Ji Feng was actually taking revenge for Qin Shujie. Since he didn't have anything else on him to pop out, there was only a business card, and Ji Feng rightfully chose that. Otherwise, he couldn't just let him throw out his keys or wallet, right?

With this little episode, the carriage became a lot quieter, perhaps because the passengers were afraid of another madman like the one who had just appeared out of nowhere, or perhaps because the weather was too sultry to make people want to talk.

Ji Feng also simply opened all the windows next to him, and a wave of heat came over him, so he cursed and closed the windows again.

In fact, this kind of heat was nothing to Ji Feng, back in the Super Agent Training System, the intelligent brain used bio-current to simulate that kind of environment like a steam cage, which made Ji Feng suffer a lot, the current temperature could be compared to that time, it could be said that he was blowing cold air.

Twenty minutes or so later, the bus wobbled and slowly arrived at the university town, which was also the last stop of this bus.

As soon as the door opened, Ji Feng stepped down with his luggage and looked up to see that he was still about four or five stops away from his school. According to the rules of Jiangzhou, one stop is about one kilometre, and these four or five stops are nearly ten miles.

The four or five stops would be nearly ten miles. Looking at the baggage in his hand, although it was not a lot, walking ten miles in this hot summer, even Ji Feng, who had undergone all kinds of training, was a little bit bitter.

Ji Feng shook his head, it was better to take a taxi.

He went to the side of the stop sign, looked at the passing taxis and prepared to hail an empty one.

"Tic-tac-!"

Suddenly, a car whistle sounded next to him, followed by a bright pink Cadillac stopping at the curb next to the bus stop sign.

"Hey, Mr. Ji, where are you going, I'll give you a ride?" The rear window of the Cadillac came down, revealing a rather unexpected face of Ji Feng, but it was the Qin Shujie that he had met on the bus.

Seeing Qin Shujie, Ji Feng was a little surprised as he pointed at himself, "Ms. Qin, are you talking to me?"

Ji Feng's unexpected and stunned look made Qin Shujie couldn't help but reveal a smile as she nodded, "Of course I'm talking to you, I see that you seem to be waiting for a bus, do you want me to give you a ride?"

Ji Feng looked at the road, Qin Shujie laughed: "Don't think about it, it's the rush hour after work, it's very that to get a car here, and there's no bus here, come up!"

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

He directly pulled open the passenger door and sat on it, only to find that the person driving was a man in his thirties, who had a serious expression on his face and didn't even look at Ji Feng.

Ji Feng's heart gave a slight pause, but his face didn't show it, he just settled down well and put his luggage on his lap.

"Where are we going?" Qin Shujie, who was sitting at the back, asked.

"United University." Ji Feng replied with a smile.

"Old Wang, drive!" Qin Shujie said to the driver who was driving.

Ji Feng couldn't help but be a little surprised, this driver was only in his thirties and he was called Old King?

However, Ji Feng also saw that this Old Wang was definitely not Qin Shujie's husband, otherwise, Qin Shujie would have been sitting in the passenger seat, and would definitely not have acted in a businesslike manner and called the driver Old Wang.

I think that this should be the special driver! It was only at this point that Ji Feng's heart could be considered relieved, no wonder this driver had a serious look on his face, driving for the boss or for the leader, it was natural to be more serious.

"Mr. Ji turned out to be a senior student from Union University?" Qin Shujie asked from the back.

Ji Feng smiled and shook his head, "What senior student, Ms. Qin, you should not bury me, nowadays college students are worthless, many bosses who graduated from primary school have employees under their hands with graduate degrees or above."

Qin Shujie couldn't help but smile and said softly, "That's not exactly true, the really big bosses can all have extremely high academic qualifications, otherwise, it would be difficult for the company to grow and develop!"

Ji Feng nodded and didn't answer again. In fact, there was always an inexplicable pressure when he talked to this Qin Shujie. This pressure did not come from Qin Shujie's status, but from her beauty and flirtatiousness.

As a normal man, when Ji Feng heard Qin Shujie's soft words, he always wanted to involuntarily turn his head back to look at Qin Shujie's extremely charming face, but he knew that this was extremely rude, so he could only force himself to look straight ahead.

However, he was extremely strong mentally, and even if the fluctuations in his heart were as huge as they were, his face would never show half a difference.

It was because of this that Qin Shujie mistakenly thought that Ji Feng didn't like talking to himself very much, and she couldn't help but smile lightly and didn't say anything.

A student, who did not have much to do with her, had actually only offered to give Ji Feng a lift because she had misunderstood him on the bus before and was more or less apologetic.

Qin Shujie didn't like to owe people favors, so she found this opportunity to return it.

Moreover, the distance between United University and Qin Shujie's daughter's kindergarten was not far, so she could just as well go and pick up her daughter, so it was a two-for-one deal.

The car fell into silence for a while, Ji Feng just watched the scenery outside the car receding rapidly, he was actually a little lost in thought for a while.

Thinking about the old days, Ji Feng couldn't help but feel emotional, it was time to start looking for a job, he couldn't always drag on like this, the days had gone by too fast, in a flash, he had gone from being that wild child who had been looked upon with disdain, to this man with a profound background now. However, all these changes were only because of the recognition with his father.

Ji Feng did not want to rely on others, even his own father. He wanted to rely on his own strength and fight for his own world.

I can definitely do it! Ji Feng clenched his fist.

But Qin Shujie, who was sitting in the back row, accidentally saw Ji Feng's eyes burning with high fighting spirit through the rear view mirror of the car, and all of a sudden, Qin Shujie's heart strings were gently plucked.

She suddenly realised that this look seemed very much like her own at the time.

Chapter 119

Unintentionally seeing Ji Feng's eyes that were full of high fighting spirit, and his look that was so calm that it was almost unperturbed, Qin Shujie suddenly realized that she had really underestimated this young man before. Go to see the net —.7-K-o-m.

Perhaps from the very beginning when she met Ji Feng and saw his unbridled eyes sizing up her body, Qin Shujie concluded that this was a bad boy who hadn't learned his lesson as a child, and therefore had a slight prejudice against him.

Although the misunderstanding between the two sides was later resolved on the bus, after all, the fact that Ji Feng had recklessly ogled her like that before was a fact that could not be changed at all. Qin Shujie is in the business world and naturally does not trust a person that easily. Even if she feels guilty towards Ji Feng in her heart, she only wants to find an opportunity to compensate or repay him, in fact, she still has a certain amount of wariness in her heart.

Now, however, Qin Shujie's wariness had suddenly dropped quite a bit.

Regardless of this young man's character, at least, he had a high fighting spirit that would not give in to defeat, which is something that many young people are useless at.

At this time, when I looked at Ji Feng's face through the rear view mirror again, I found that he had slightly closed his eyes, as if he had fallen asleep. Qin Shujie suddenly remembered that just now on the bus, Ji Feng seemed to have the same expression, as if everything in the outside world had nothing to do with him, even if he was in the midst of a lively and noisy downtown, he could still sleep peacefully.

At that time on the bus, because of the misleading words of that nasty big man, she mistakenly thought that Ji Feng was pretending to sleep with his eyes closed like this, just a kind of cover-up, but now it seems that this is Ji Feng's composure to a certain extent, or rather, his mind is more mature and he looks at everything indifferently.

Thinking about this, Qin Shujie could not help but feel a touch of goodwill towards this young man. Of course, this good feeling was not a good feeling between a man and a woman, but rather a kind of appreciation that a senior would have when looking at a young junior.

Moreover, having this good feeling did not mean that Qin Shujie had completely dropped her guard. If she trusted someone that easily, she would not have owned her own company. In this battlefield-like mall, I am afraid that it would have been swallowed up long ago.

Ji Feng did not know that his unintentional look had fallen into Qin Shujie's eyes. And, it also stirred up a resonance in Qin Shujie's heart.

At this moment, he just quietly closed his eyes, actually just because, he was afraid that his gaze would involuntarily look towards Qin Shujie's body, afraid of making a fool of himself.

If Qin Shujie knew the truth, I wonder how she would feel.

Four or five stops were not really far, especially for a luxurious Cadillac. In just a few minutes' time, the car had arrived at the entrance of Union University. When Ji Feng saw the entrance of Union University from afar, he lifted his luggage and prepared to get out.

Just then, the driver Old Wang's mobile phone immediately rang, and he gestured at Ji Feng, indicating him not to get out of the car yet. Old Wang slowed the car down quite a bit, picked up the phone and his face immediately sank.

A moment later, Old Wang hung up the phone and said in a deep voice, "Mr. Qin, Miss is being bullied in the kindergarten, we'll rush there immediately."

Before the words even fell, Old Wang sped up the car, and Ji Feng didn't even have time to get out of the car.

The first thing you can do is to get out of the car.

Qin Shujie, however, was anxious and asked in a panic, "Old Wang, what is going on?"

She knew her driver well enough to know that he would never be in such a hurry under normal circumstances, not to mention the fact that the teacher could just educate the two children about the conflict between them in the kindergarten, so where was the need for such a panic?

When she thought about this, Qin Shujie immediately understood that things might be a bit troublesome. .com

Old Wang nodded and said in a deep voice: "The phone call just now was from the kindergarten teacher, it seems that the young lady and her classmate had a conflict, and as a result, that child's parents came over and did not relent, and seemed to have slapped the young lady."

As he spoke, the car picked up speed even faster, and Ji Feng could obviously feel a strong pushback.

"What?!"

When Qin Shujie heard that her daughter was beaten, she immediately lost her voice and exclaimed, "Old Wang, drive quickly and get to the kindergarten as fast as possible!"

The kindergarten was not far from the United University, in less than three minutes, several people arrived at the entrance of the kindergarten.

As soon as the car stopped, Qin Shujie hurriedly opened the door and got out and ran towards the kindergarten, not even bothering to say hello to Ji Feng.

"This gentleman, you wait in the car first." The driver, Old Wang, however, did not forget about Ji Feng, he said, and immediately got out of the car and followed behind Qin Shujie.

Everyone else had left, and it was a small child who had an accident, so naturally, it was no good for Ji Feng to stay in the car. He put his luggage on the seat, then opened the car door and walked down.

From a distance, Ji Feng could see that a group of people were gathered in the small playground of the kindergarten, mostly some parents with their children watching, and it was obvious that that was the centre of what had happened.

Ji Feng hesitated for a moment and quickly rushed over there as well.

"It doesn't matter who is here today, it's useless, you must give us an explanation, otherwise, don't blame me for tearing down this kindergarten of yours!" Ji Feng had just gotten close to the crowd when he heard a woman's shrill voice coming from inside, which made his scalp tingle. How could such a woman sound like a shrew?

Ji Feng moved his feet quickly and squeezed in without a trace, and the scene in front of him immediately made him frown, even a little disgusted.

He only saw Qin Shujie's driver, Lao Wang, standing in the middle, and behind him, Qin Shujie was pulling a little girl of about three years old with a heartfelt look on her face, caressing her little face with concern. On her tender face, the marks of two slaps could not be more obvious, completely covering both sides of her face.

Next to the little girl stood a woman with a very difficult face, who was probably in her twenties and looked like she had just graduated from university.

On the opposite side of Old Wang was a sturdy man with a thick gold chain around his neck and a gold ring on his hand, this man was probably in his thirties and had an arrogant expression on his face, glaring viciously at Old Wang.

Next to this man was a sultry woman leading a young boy of about three or four years old in her hand. What made Ji Feng feel a bit ridiculous was that the little boy's face actually also wore an arrogant expression, which was really similar to that man.

The situation at the scene was clear at a glance, and Ji Feng understood at a glance that it was the little boy and Qin Shujie's daughter who were in conflict, but the two slap marks on the little girl's face made Ji Feng's brow furrow.

"A few of you gentlemen and ladies, I think this matter should be forgotten, it's not good for the children if you argue here!" That kindergarten teacher couldn't help but say with a bitter face when he saw this scene.

Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly shake his head, at this glance, he knew that both sides were at least somewhat influential, it was strange that they were willing to stop like this.

Especially Qin Shujie, her daughter was beaten up, and from her heartbroken and nervous look, she could tell that she would never just let it go.

However, before Qin Shujie could say anything, the sultry woman opposite Old Wang shouted out.

Her shrill voice suddenly rang out, "Forget it? You're so sweet, our baby has never suffered such an indignity, we don't even spare him a single blow at home, now it's good, but he's been tickled by this little bastard, wanting to let it go like this, how can there be such a cheap thing under the sky?!"

"This" The female teacher was also in a difficult position, in fact, this matter was indeed a difficult one for her, after all, she had just graduated from university not long ago, where had she ever dealt with such a problem?

She had called the director of the kindergarten for more than ten minutes, but she had not come over yet.

"This stinking bitch still dares to defend here?" When that demonic woman saw that Qin Shujie didn't even pay attention to her words, she just squatted on the ground and took her daughter's little hand, gently stroking her daughter's face, she instantly became angry and shouted shrilly, "Bitch, that wild bastard daughter of yours tickled my son, come over and apologise immediately!"

"This lady, if you keep being so ungracious, don't blame me!" Old Wang sank his face when he saw the demonic woman repeatedly spouting out expletives.

"Hmph!"

The stout man next to that demure woman snorted coldly, "I'd like to see what you can do? What a big mouth!"

Old Wang's brow furrowed as he turned his head to look at Qin Shujie and found that she was still crouching on the ground soothing her daughter, so he could only put up with the anger for the time being. Only, his face was already very unkind.

Seeing that Old Wang had softened somewhat, the demonic woman suddenly became even more arrogant as she shouted, "I'm talking about you, that bitch, don't squat on the ground and pretend to be pitiful, hurry up and bring that little wild bastard of yours over to apologise to my son and pay for it!"

Ji Feng watched quietly from the side, without any expression on his face, nor did he say anything. However, if someone who was familiar with him was present, he would have seen at a glance that at this moment, Ji Feng's heart was already flooded with a monstrous rage.

Wild bastard!

Ji Feng was really familiar with this word, since he was a child, this word had always accompanied him, just to get rid of this name, Ji Feng did not know how many times he fought with others, until he grew up completely, only gradually no one said it.

Now, however, he heard this name once again, even though it was not said to him, yet it aroused the anger in his heart. The word "savage" was also regarded by him as the greatest shame of all.

He clenched his fists and held back from speaking, just to see how Qin Shujie would handle the matter. Although that little boy's parents seemed to be of some importance, Ji Feng was more willing to believe that Qin Shujie was definitely not worse than him.

Only when she stopped crying did Qin Shujie stand up and slowly turned around and took her daughter's hand to Old Wang's side, handing her daughter over to him to hold.

She herself looked at the little boy's parents with a cold gaze, and then turned her head to look at the teacher, asking calmly, "What is going on in this matter today?"

That teacher, under Qin Shujie's gaze, could not help but glance at the little boy before she said softly, "Yes, it's like this, because all the other children have parents to pick them up, only Qin Yunyao has no one to pick her up, so Zhou Xiaogang said something about Qin Yunyao being the child no one cares about."

Qin Shujie's eyes suddenly became even colder as she asked again, "And then what happened?"

"Then, then Qin Yunyao glared at Zhou Xiaogang, and as a result" that female teacher glanced at the parents of the little boy, Zhou Xiaogang, before saying with difficulty, "Then this lady scolded Qin Yunyao for being a that what. Qin Yunyao was so angry that she tickled Zhou Xiaogang, and then the lady slapped Qin Yunyao twice. It's my fault, Ms. Qin, I'm the one who didn't stop it, I'm really sorry."

Qin Shujie nodded and said, "I know you can't be blamed for this matter, you've done a good job."

That female teacher then let out a slight sigh of relief, and turned her head to look at Zhou Xiaogang's parents again, asking calmly, "Do you have anything to say about this matter?"

Although her tone was calm, anyone could tell that what lay beneath that calm tone was a volcanic rage that could erupt at any moment. Anyone else whose daughter had been scolded and beaten would never have swallowed this anger, let alone the boss of a jewellery company.

"Of course there is something to say, your daughter tickled my son, you have to apologize to my son along with your daughter, and also compensate my son for his spiritual loss!" The sultry woman said immediately.

The man, on the other hand, was shining in front of his eyes, staring at the matchlessly beautiful Qin Shujie with a greedy look in his eyes, that look, it almost felt like he could swallow Qin Shujie in one bite.

The parents around the school were suddenly talking, this woman was bullying people, the teacher's words were heard, the boy scolded others, his mother followed suit and hit the little girl, and now they wanted an apology and compensation, this is simply a bit too much.

But no one dared to say anything out loud, as the man was a bit of a handful and no one wanted to get into trouble.

So everyone just whispered and looked at Qin Shujie to see how she would react.

However, to everyone's surprise, Qin Shujie nodded blandly and said, "My daughter tickled your son, we should apologise and pay compensation, how much do you think?"

When the sultry woman heard this, she became energized and shouted, "At any rate, it should be 100,000, my son is very delicate, 100,000, not even a penny less!"

"Fine! One hundred thousand, I'll pay!" Qin Shujie immediately nodded her head and said to Old Wang next to her, "Old Wang, go to the car and bring my bag."

Although Old Wang did not understand, he immediately went as instructed.

Ji Feng watched quietly from the side, he knew that Qin Shujie would never give in so easily, she must have another deep meaning in doing so. It's just that the money hadn't been paid yet, so no one could see what Qin Shujie was really up to.

Chapter 120

Not long after, Old Wang came over with a leather bag and handed it to Qin Shujie. Go to see the net .

"You said for me to accompany 100,000 is that right?" Qin Shujie took the bag and asked indifferently.

"Of course, my son is so delicate, making you pay 100,000 is even less!" The sultry woman said disdainfully.

"Is 100,000 what you say it is?" Qin Shujie asked again.

"Nonsense, when I say 100,000, it's 100,000, not even a penny less!" The sultry woman coldly snorted.

"One hundred thousand dollars, no problem!"

Qin Shujie directly took out a cheque from her bag, wrote the amount of one hundred thousand and asked Old Wang to hand it to the demonic woman, "Here is a cash cheque for one hundred thousand, you can withdraw the money anytime."

Hiss~~~!

The onlookers next to him couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air, a hundred thousand dollars, not ten dollars, this amount of money could be a considerable amount for an average family, but they didn't expect this beautiful woman to give it out casually.

The woman took the cheque and instantly her face became even more smug, however, when she saw that her husband was looking greedily at Qin Shujie across the room, she was instantly angry, yet she could not conveniently scold her husband here and could only pour her fire on Qin Shujie's body.

"Pay up, you haven't apologised yet!" The sultry woman said through gritted teeth.

Qin Shujie nodded slightly at once, then squatted down and hugged her daughter, whispering, "Yao Yao, you scratched someone with your hands, apologise to them with your mother, got it?"

The little girl was very obedient, nodded and said, "Mummy, did I make you angry? Don't be angry, mommy, we apologize!"

The little girl said to Zhou Xiaogang, "Zhou Xiaogang, I'm sorry."

"I'm sorry!" Qin Shujie followed suit.

"Humph!"

The demonic woman hummed disdainfully, "Discipline your daughter in the future, otherwise, people will think that she has a life and no one to teach her."

After saying that, the sultry woman took her husband's arm and led her son Zhou Xiaogang with one hand, and was about to turn around and leave.

Just then, Qin Shujie's voice rang out, "Wait a minute!"

The sultry woman became impatient, "What, you still want to pay for it?"

Qin Shujie faintly shook her head and said, "Of course not. Just now, I apologized and paid for it because my daughter tickled your son, and if we talk about this matter alone, it was my daughter's fault, therefore, I did exactly what you said, apologize plus pay for it."

"So what, you deserve it, who let you raise an uneducated daughter!" The sultry woman said with disdain.

"Whether my daughter has an upbringing or not, no one needs to worry about that. .com" Qin Shujie's face remained very calm, yet her next words took everyone by surprise: "Since my daughter tickled your son, this matter has already been dealt with. Then, it's time to settle the score, your son scolded my daughter, as well as you slapped my daughter twice, at the same time, from the time I came here until now, you scolded my daughter three times for being a wild bastard, this is a score that we need to settle."

"So that's how it is!"

These words popped up in everyone's mind, while a sudden realization dawned on them. No wonder Qin Shujie had acted so weakly when she was clearly the reasonable party earlier, it turned out that she was waiting for that unreasonable couple here.

"What?" The demure woman was instantly enraged, "You still dare to settle accounts with me?"

"Of course I have to settle it." Qin Shujie said indifferently, "Your son scolded my daughter, he has to apologize, you slapped my daughter twice, I don't want more, one slap is one hundred million, these two slaps, that's two hundred million. You scolded my daughter three times, one sentence is likewise one hundred million, together, that's five hundred million in total. Also, there is an apology from you and your wife."

"Hiss~~~!"

Everyone couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air again, five hundred million, what kind of astronomical amount is that!

"What?!"

The sultry woman almost jumped up at once, pointing at Qin Shujie and cursing, "You bitch is crazy for money, right? Five hundred million, you wouldn't be able to make that much money even if you went to sell it for the rest of your life!"

"You insulted me again, now, I want you to compensate for one billion!" Qin Shujie said indifferently, but her tone was firm and unquestionable.

At this moment, not only was that demonic woman angry, even Zhou Xiaogang's father, who had been greedy for Qin Shujie's looks, was also suddenly furious, one billion, even if he was sold, he could not get it out.

What's more, even if he could take it out, he would never do so, this woman was clearly robbing him!

He hadn't thought about the fact that he had asked Qin Shujie to compensate for a hundred thousand dollars before when he was not in a position of reason, and that was no different from robbery.

"Old Wang, call and control them."

Qin Shujie said indifferently, then turned her head to look at Zhou Xiaogang's parents, "I don't have that much time to spend with you today, so I'll stop here for today. In addition, I would like to give you a word of advice, no matter who you are or what your origins are, if you do not compensate for one billion, then you will pay with your lives, I will do what I say!"

The faint words had a strong killing aura, causing everyone around to feel a chill. Everyone knew that this woman, who looked so beautiful, was furious because her daughter had been beaten.

It was just that her words were really a bit arrogant, one billion dollars, or two lives, I'm afraid that even the most powerful Ji family in Jiangzhou wouldn't dare to say that easily, right?

"Humph, who do you think you are?" The demure woman said disdainfully, not putting Qin Shujie's words in her eyes at all.

The man, however, was a little nervous, someone who could take out a hundred thousand dollars without even blinking an eye definitely had an unusual origin, he had to be cautious.

"This lady, are you going too far in doing this?" The man's face was gloomy, "Introduce yourself first, my name is Zhou Dayong, I am the department manager of Jian An Group, and I have a good relationship with Ji Shaolei, how about we just forget about this matter today?"

Ji Shaolei?

Ji Feng immediately frowned, this Ji Shaolei's name he had certainly heard of, is the second son of the second uncle, in the Jian'an Group as the old president, it is said that young and promising, very much valued by the family.

This Zhou Dayong was actually one of Ji Shaolei's people?

Ji Feng secretly snorted coldly in his heart, Ji Shaolei and Ji Shaoyun, what a bunch of people they have raised!

"Dayong, what are you talking about? The son was tickled by that wild bastard, and you actually let it go like that?" The sultry woman immediately clamoured.

Zhou Dayong, however, sensed that something was wrong, and he immediately yelled lowly, "Shut up!"

Qin Shujie, however, didn't say much to him at all, and just said indifferently, "If Ji Shaolei is willing to stand up for you, let him bring a billion dollars to me, and you tell him that my name is Qin Shujie. If he is not willing to stand up for you, then, by this time tomorrow, if I don't see the ten billion, you will be prepared to have someone collect your corpses!"

After saying that, Qin Shujie stopped speaking, however, her words truly shocked Zhou Dayong and the demonic woman, from Qin Shujie's words they could hear that Qin Shujie was not afraid of Ji Shaolei.

Zhou Dayong frowned and remembered someone in his mind and asked hesitantly, "You, you are the boss of Shu Yao Jewellery Company, Qin Shujie?!"

"It's me!" Qin Shujie said indifferently.

Zhou Dayong immediately laughed wildly, "Hahahaha Qin Shujie, so it's you, what a big mouth, I thought who was the one who didn't even put President Ji in his eyes, but turned out to be nothing but an abandoned woman. Qin Shujie, if what you just said was heard by Ji Shaolei, do you think you will end up well?"

Qin Shujie said indifferently, "Not very well. However, I am at least considered a figurehead in Jiangzhou, I am fully capable of taking your lives, still the same words, one billion dollars, or the lives of both of you, your choice."

"Aren't you afraid of retaliation from General Manager Ji?" Zhou Dayong's face was gloomy, he knew that today could not be a good day.

"For the sake of my daughter, I can spare this life, not to mention the revenge of others." Qin Shujie said firmly, and then, she said nothing more.

And at this time, a dozen cars suddenly stopped at the entrance of the kindergarten, followed by dozens of hans running from the cars towards the kindergarten.

"Brother Wang!" The leader of the group immediately came to Old Wang's side and asked with slight respect, "Who's looking for trouble here, Brother Wang, please give the order, I'll go and clean him up!"

"Bring me that child, and that woman too!" Old Wang grimaced and pointed at Zhou Xiaogang's mother and son across the room.

The one in the lead immediately waved his hand, and dozens of other men immediately rushed over, only to hear Zhou Dayong's miserable scream, followed by the demonic woman's fearful screams, and Zhou Xiaogang's cries.

Qin Shujie duly covered her daughter's eyes and held her to one side.

Zhou Xiaogang, mother and son, were caught.

With a wave of Old Wang's hand, those men were about to take them out of the kindergarten, mother and son.

"Wait a minute!" Zhou Dayong got up from the ground, by now his face was covered in blood and his eyes showed a look of extreme fear. He knew that Qin Shujie had gone mad and dared to do something like this openly. He had to know that although Qin Shujie was not a small person, she was still not comparable to Ji Shaolei at all.

Yet, this woman dared to do such a crazy thing, obviously she was going to fight for her life. In his heart, he couldn't help but secretly regret why he had angered the other party, it was a death wish!

"Wait a minute, I'll pay, Mr. Qin, can't I pay?" Zhou Dayong begged, "I'll call General Manager Ji here, I implore General Manager Qin to wait for a while can you?"

"Yes!" Qin Shujie said indifferently.

Zhou Dayong immediately shivered and dialed Ji Shaolei's number, "Mr. Ji, this is Zhou Dayong ah, there is something I want to talk to you about"

He told the whole story, not daring to hide anything, and finally, he was like a prisoner waiting for a verdict, waiting for Ji Shaolei's answer.

There was just a moment of silence on the phone, and a moment later, a voice rang out, "You give the phone to Qin Shujie."

Qin Shujie picked up the phone and said indifferently, "Mr. Ji, what are you going to do about it?"
