

I Can Enter The Game

Chapter 15: Adopting the Black Dog! Manager Chen Is Going All Out! 1

Anxiety, uneasiness, and fear... The black dog dodged in a sorry state, its eyes filled with helplessness.

Suddenly, it discovered a familiar smell. When it saw Qin Lin return, its eyes seemed to have a hint of color.

It barked at Qin Lin and rushed toward him anxiously.

This also gave the city enforcement officers a chance. They wrapped a net around the black dog's head and pulled the rope, binding its neck tightly.

"Woof!" The black dog's eyes revealed fear as it barked at Qin Lin in panic. There was anticipation and desire in its eyes.

A city enforcement officer came forward with a cage. The few of them worked together to lock the black dog in.

The black dog continued to bark at Qin Lin. It only let out a disappointed whimper when the cage door closed. Its entire body seemed to have lost its strength as it drooped its head and lay down.

It seemed to have given up. Its eyes seemed to have lost their color, but there was a hint of anticipation in the corner of its eyes as it inadvertently stared in Qin Lin's direction.

Qin Lin accurately felt its gaze. That gaze made him sigh helplessly and walk toward the city enforcement officers.

He had been used to seeing this black dog every day recently. Furthermore, it was not like he could not raise a dog now.

The black dog seemed to have noticed Qin Lin's actions and suddenly stood up again. Anticipation returned to its eyes.

Qin Lin walked to the city enforcement officer in the lead. "Captain Liu, this black dog is fated with me. Can you let it go? I'll adopt it."

2

As he spoke, he secretly stuffed the Chinese cigarette that Manager Chen had given him into the city enforcement car.

"It's Boss Qin!" Captain Liu often came to the market to do things. He probably knew all the shop owners here.

Looking at the Chinese cigarette, he said to Qin Lin calmly, "Boss Qin, since you've said so, we're not heartless. However, if you want to adopt it, you should bring it for a vaccine and a checkup. At the same time, you can get a dog certificate. They're very strict now, so don't make things difficult for us."

Qin Lin nodded and promised, "Don't worry, Captain Liu. I'll bring it to get a vaccine later and get the dog certificate done as soon as possible!"

Captain Liu then nodded at the other city enforcement officers. Actually, he could also see that this dog was a little different, so he treated it as a favor.

When Qin Lin and a city enforcement officer arrived at the cage, the black dog seemed to have realized something. It whined at him and spun anxiously in the cage.

The moment the cage opened, it rushed out as quickly as possible and arrived at Qin Lin's feet. It rubbed its head against his leg crazily.

Qin Lin felt the black dog's emotions and squatted down to pat its head to comfort it.

"Woof!" The black dog's barking became high and excited.

Captain Liu quickly left with his men. When Qin Lin saw that he was free, he planned to bring the black dog for a vaccine and drive away the insects. Adopting a stray dog was the prerequisite, and it had to be done.

There was a pet shop not far from the market. Qin Lin called out to the black dog, and it followed closely.

When he arrived at the pet shop, the boss was a slovenly man with a stubble. He was carefully grooming a pet dog.

This scene was a little funny.

A man who did not care much about his image had cleaned up a dog beautifully.

6

“We have a guest!” The man saw Qin Lin and greeted him.

Qin Lin smiled and said, “Boss, help me check this dog and clean it up. Give it a vaccine and drive away the bugs.”

When the man saw the black dog, he was immediately interested. “This is a stray dog, right?”

Qin Lin nodded and said, “It has been staying here for a while. I’m going to adopt it!”

The man was a little surprised. “Brother, you’re very lucky. The stray dog choosing its master means that it has intelligence, and it also means that you give it a strong sense of security. It also wants a warm home. Obviously, you didn’t disappoint it..”

3

As soon as the man spoke, he seemed to be unable to stop talking. However, his hands did not stop. He pulled the black dog in to check. Then, he took a shower, expelled insects, and shot the vaccine skillfully.

This process took more than an hour. The black dog, who had taken a shower, had completely changed. It was full of energy. Its fur was no longer gray and sticky. It had become lustrous and was quite good-looking.

The boss said in surprise, “Brother, this is a princess. It has already been sterilized. It should have been a pet in the past, but for some reason, it was abandoned.”

2

“The breed is a black wolfhound. It’s also the smartest and most loyal dog. Treat it well. It won’t let you down.”

1

“It’s not easy for a stray dog to choose another master. When you accept it, you’ll be the only one in its entire world.”

“A woman will leave you and hurt you. It won’t. Besides, it’s easy to satisfy. As long as you pour your feelings into it, it won’t leave you. It won’t be as difficult to fill as a woman...”

5

“...” Qin Lin opened his mouth. In the beginning, he still felt that the boss was talking about a dog. Later on, he felt that the boss was not only talking about a dog, but he was also a man with a story.

As the boss spoke, he sighed silently and said to Qin Lin, “200 yuan for a shower, 50 yuan for an insect repellent, 100 yuan for a vaccine, and 50 yuan for a checkup. A total of 400 yuan!”

When Qin Lin heard this price, he could not help but sigh. It was f*cking expensive.

1

Perhaps he understood why this boss would use so much effort to tidy up the dog so nicely. It was all money.

The boss asked, “Do you want another dog leash? It’s strict now. It’s best to bring a dog leash with you when you go out! Also, bring two bags of dog food back.”

Qin Lin nodded and said, “Then give me another dog leash and two packets of dog food.”

The boss took out a dog chain and two packets of dog food from the counter and handed them to Qin Lin. He said, “50 yuan for the dog chains, 300 yuan for the dog food, it’s a total of 750 yuan.”

Qin Lin now knew why there were so many stray dogs in Youcheng County. He had spent 750 yuan just like that.

The average salary in Youcheng County was only 3,000 to 4,000 yuan. It would definitely be a lot of pressure to raise a pet. Therefore, he could not raise a dog on a whim, or it would harm others and himself.

After paying, Qin Lin picked up the dog leash and wanted to put it on for the black dog. Unexpectedly, the black dog took the initiative to lean its head in front of him and was extremely cooperative.

When the boss saw this, he sighed with emotion. “This dog is really smart. With some training, it might even become an internet celebrity. Unfortunately, it chose you as its master.”

2

When the black dog walked out of the pet shop, it was clearly more energetic and valiant because it knew that it had a home again.

Next, Qin Lin led the black dog to the district committee. To get a dog certificate, the district committee had to sign it and keep a record. In addition, he had to get his own ID information. Finally, he had to go to the police station to register his dog.

Since he had decided to adopt the black dog, no matter if it was for himself or the dog, he had to do it.

However, these were also very cumbersome and troublesome. In the evening, the strawberries and okra in the game were ripe again.

He could only continue with the certificate tomorrow. Then, he returned to the shop and picked the strawberries and okra in the game first. He obtained 5 catties of Quality 2 okra.

After planting the new seed, he placed the black dog in the shop and went to the warehouse to move everything out of the game.

After sending this batch to the RT-Mart, there were a total of 610 catties of strawberries and 3,110 catties of okra today.

This time, Manager Chen came down personally again.

“President Qin, are you done?” Manager Chen asked with a smile. He took the initiative to take the list and sign it for him, appearing very enthusiastic.

Qin Lin naturally knew the other party’s motive. He smiled and went to the back of the three-wheeler to take out a bag and handed it to Manager Chen. “Manager Chen, there are five catties of specially cultivated okra here. I spent a lot of effort to get some from another person.”

He did not take out all the 10 catties of Quality 2 gumbo. The more anxious Manager Chen was, the more he wanted to keep him in suspense.

2

Manager Chen took the five catties of Quality 2 gumbo with a happy expression. He pulled Qin Lin to the side and whispered, “President Qin, I’ve troubled you this time. Can you put in more effort in the future? As long as you can help me get some every day, I’ll give it to you according to the invoice price.”

This meant that he did not want the commission anymore.

It seemed like Manager Chen had invested a lot for s*x.

Therefore, when Qin Lin left, he settled a little more and paid by invoice.

Strawberries were priced at 32 yuan, 610 catties at 19,520 yuan, okra at 6.5 yuan, and 3,110 catties at 20,215 yuan. Coupled with Manager Chen's 5 catties of Quality 2 gumbo at 2,000 yuan, he earned a total of 39,735 yuan a day. His daily income was almost 40,000 yuan.

His bank balance officially exceeded 300,000 yuan, reaching 318,482 yuan.

1

When he returned to the market, Qin Lin opened the shutter door. The black dog barked and ran to his feet to welcome him.

"Let's go. I'll bring you home." Qin Lin took two bags of dog food and walked out with the dog leash.

"Woof!" The black dog seemed to understand and was a little excited.

When he arrived at the electric car, he was feeling vexed about how to get the dog to cooperate with him and get into the car when he saw the dog suddenly stand at the electric car's step. Its legs were upright, and its front legs were placed on the front of the car. It did not forget to whine at him as if it was reminding him to hurry up.

Qin Lin had seen a certain short video previously. Some dogs seemed to have become spirits. He thought that the video was man-made, but now, he believed that some dogs had really become spirits.

Riding on the electric scooter, Qin Lin brought this new member of the family home.

1

"Woof, woof!"

When Qin Lin arrived at his house and opened the door with the key, the black dog barked even more happily.

"Xiao Lin, why did you bring a dog back?" Lin Fen looked at the black dog that had entered and asked curiously.

"Mom, it's a long story..." Qin Lin told her about the black dog. "So, I adopted it now."

When Lin Fen heard Qin Lin's words, she squatted down and touched the black dog's head. The black dog cooperated and reached out its head, even licking Lin Fen's palm.

“How smart!” Lin Fen could not help but praise. She then said to Qin Lin, “Xiao Lin, then raise it well. As the saying goes, pigs bring poverty, and dogs bring Wang Cai. This dog might be for our God of Wang Cai. By the way, what’s its name?”

2

“Name? I don’t know yet!” Qin Lin also felt that he had adopted this dog and should give it a name. He said, “Since you’re here to give me Wang Cai, then call it Wang Cai!”

3

“Then let’s call it Wang Cai!” Lin Fen smiled and called it, “Wang Cai!”

When the black dog heard Lin Fen call it, it was clearly a little stunned. However, this dog was smart. It seemed to have realized that she was calling it and immediately barked in response.

After dinner, Qin Lin found a pot and poured dog food for Wang Cai. Lin Fen also found a paper box and opened it for Wang Cai to sleep in. The house was small, so this was the only way.

When he returned to his room, Qin Lin saw that the grass in the game had grown again and cleaned it up. Then, he chatted with Zhao Moqing on WeChat and told her about Wang Cai.

The next day, Qin Lin woke up and looked at the game in his mind immediately. He put away the ripe strawberries and okra and planted new seeds.

When he opened the door, he saw that Wang Cai was already squatting outside his door. When it saw him, it whimpered and ran over to rub his leg.

“It woke up early in the morning and squatted at your door, but it’s very sensible. It didn’t even bark.” Lin Fen came out with porridge and praised Wang Cai.

Qin Lin smiled and touched Wang Cai’s head.

This dog was really good at stirring up trouble.

After eating two bowls of porridge, Qin Lin greeted his mother and prepared to go to the warehouse to retrieve the goods.

“Woof, woof!”

Wang Cai whimpered and ran out the door. It even bit the dog chain and reached out to his hand, as if it was telling him not to leave it behind.

Qin Lin originally wanted to leave the dog at home, but when he saw this, he could only hold the dog leash and bring it out.

He rode the scooter to the market and changed into a three-wheeled truck. He placed Wang Cai in the truck and headed to the warehouse.

As soon as he arrived at the warehouse and locked the door, he entered the game with a thought and disappeared.

“Woof!” Wang Cai looked at the place where he had disappeared and stood up. He ran over suddenly and turned around anxiously and frantically, using his legs to pull at the ground where he had disappeared.

When Qin Lin came out with a basket of strawberries, the dog took two steps back in shock. Seeing that Qin Lin was about to pounce on him excitedly, Qin Lin had already put down the basket and disappeared again.

2

After two or three times, the dog seemed to be stunned.

3

After taking out this batch of strawberries and okra from the game and moving them into the car, Qin Lin brought the dog to the RT-Mart to deliver the goods.

Two hours had passed since he finished his work.

...

After lunch, Zhao Moqing came over. Last night, she had talked about the dog on WeChat and specially came over to see Wang Cai.

Qin Lin went forward to welcome her immediately and hugged her to kiss her.

When Wang Cai saw this scene, it seemed to understand something. It felt like it had to show some affection, so it ran to Zhao Moqing’s feet and rubbed against her leg.

“Qin Lin, is it Wang Cai?” Zhao Moqing squatted down in surprise and hugged the dog’s neck.

Wang Cai whined at Zhao Moqing, acting cute to curry favor.

Zhao Moqing looked at the dog and could not help but take out her phone to take a selfie with it.

Wang Cai actually grinned and leaned forward, as if it was cooperating with Zhao Moqing.

3

What surprised Zhao Moqing even more was that the dog could cooperate with her in a few poses. This made her smile like a flower. "Qin Lin, Wang Cai is so smart. I like it too much."

Qin Lin looked at this scene in surprise.

1

Dogs definitely would not know this, unless someone had often asked it to cooperate with photos in the past.

This dog should really be intelligent. It seemed to know how to please the people around him, from his mother to Zhao Moqing.

Zhao Moqing teased Wang Cai for a while and instructed Qin Lin to take good care of it before leaving for work.

Clearly, she had also fallen for this dog in a short time.

Qin Lin lay down on the recliner and controlled the game character to walk around the game map to see if any game missions had been triggered.

However, the mission was not triggered. When the game character returned to the ranch, he suddenly saw a person and a conversation appear in front of him.

Was this the plot?

Qin Lin immediately controlled the game character to talk to the other party with his mind. Only then did he know that this person was called Zach, the receiver of the game.

4

Zach: Because the fruits and vegetables sold by the game characters promote the economy of Ore Town, I hope you will work harder.

Zach also sent a fishing rod and a bag of bait, telling him that he could fish by the river. There were many wild fish markets in the river that was very popular.

1

In the game, after Zach left, Qin Lin also realized that there was an additional fishing rod and a bag of bait in the game character's toolbox.

This was a new function!

Qin Lin knew where the river was and immediately controlled his game character to go to the river across the pasture.

He took the bait and threw out the fish hook. Then, he waited.

After a while, he received a game notification. A fish had taken the bait. He immediately controlled the game character to pull the hook. A moment later, a fish was pulled up.

He controlled the game character to untie the fish and send it to the storage room. He received a notification:

[You have caught a wild bass (Quality 2)!]

Qin Lin knew about the wild bass. It was considered very famous for its nourishment. For example, his mother was weak, but the bass was very nutritious. Not only could it replenish protein, but it was also effective for strengthening the spleen, moisturizing, and blood circulation.

He often bought bass to nourish his mother's body, and ordinary wild bass could be sold for 30 yuan per catty.

However, what surprised Qin Lin was that this random wild bass was of Quality 2?

During this period of time, he also understood that normal things had no quality. Quality 1 was already one level higher than normal things. Quality 2 was equivalent to two levels higher, and they all had +2 attributes.

The things produced in the game were at least Quality 1.

He immediately entered the small toilet in the shop and entered the game.

1

Other than the facilities for storing fruits and vegetables, there were also a few pools in the game storage room. Clearly, they were used to store water. At this moment, one of the pools was already filled with water, and a fish was swimming in it.

Qin Lin picked up the net beside him and saw the notes.

[Wild bass: Quality 2 (10 catties)]

[Remarks: This is a pure wild bass. It's a big fish. There's no pollution from the game.

Rich protein +2, easy to digest and absorb +2, healthy spleen moistness +2, active blood circulation +2, appetizer +2, delicacy +2, delicious meat +2, taste +2.]

This series of +2 made Qin Lin happy. This could be used to nourish his mother.

Furthermore, this one had grown to a magical 10 catties.

It took at least three years for a bass to grow more than five catties, and it took even longer for a wild bass. Wild bass above ten catties was almost rare. Because of environmental pollution and manual hunting, two or three catties on the market were considered big. The common ones were even less than one catty.

He had seen a news article about a wild fishing competition. An 11.5 catty wild bass king was sold for more than 200 yuan per catty.

He had caught 10 catties of pure wild bass, and it was even of Quality 2. It was a really big fish that others could not buy even if they had money.

1

The game was awesome!

Qin Lin was a little excited to catch such a big fish.

He exited the game and controlled his character to fish by the river again. Not long after, another fish took the bait.

[You have caught a wild bass (Quality 1)!]
