

I Can Enter The Game

Chapter 31: It's Really Just a Small Price! 1

Qin Lin looked at Chen Dabei, who had brought people forward to help, and instructed, "Pour these fish into the fish pond."

The villa originally had a fishing project. It was rented to tourists to fish with a fishing rod. After the fish were weighed, the tourists would kill them themselves. They would either steam them or barbecue them.

Anyone who could come to the villa to play was also a form of fun.

However, when he auctioned to this farm, there was no longer a fish in the fish pond. Therefore, he had to replenish the fish in the fish pond. He had to move a few more fish. Furthermore, this wild fish was also a selling point.

Other than fishing, tourists could naturally buy fish directly from the hall and cook them themselves. This had to be arranged separately.

However, those who came to the farmhouse to play, regardless of whether they knew how to fish or not, would usually rent a fishing pole to experience it. It was also very likely that they could not catch a single fish.

Chen Dabei did not say anything else and immediately climbed into the car. Then, he personally instructed two security guards to carry the buckets out of the car.

"What a big fish," a security guard exclaimed. He had clearly seen a big item.

"This one is more than 30 pounds, right? There's more than one!" The other security guard was also surprised.

Master Lin, who was wearing a chef's suit, was attracted. He went to the bucket and looked at it in surprise. "Boss, are these fish wild?"

"Master Lin, you have good taste," Qin Lin said with a smile.

"Impressive, impressive." Master Lin knew his stuff and exclaimed, "There are so many wild fish. They're not small, especially this big fish. I'm afraid each one is worth more than 2,000 yuan. Furthermore, you might not be able to buy them even if you have the money. Boss, you paid a lot to get these fish, right?"

"I did pay a small price!" Qin Lin said with a smile.

Wasn't it a small price? Fishing in the game took some time, and moving out of the game took some time. It was just a small price.

"I knew it. You can't buy this fish without paying a price!" Master Lin thought that he had guessed correctly. He had a smile on his face and suggested, "Boss, put these big fish in the pool in the hall. Such big wild fish can attract people just by looking at them."

"Okay!" Qin Lin nodded. When the time came, he would move some big goods over and place them in the fish pond.

However, he planned to strictly control the number of this big shot.

There were only a few of such large goods in the market every year. It was not suitable to take out too many. Furthermore, the price was not something an ordinary person could afford.

Other than eating for himself, it would be more dignified to serve others another one.

After handing two large buckets of wild fish to Chen Dabei and Master Lin, he called Gao Yaoyao over.

"Boss, what can I do for you?" Gao Yaoyao jogged over.

Qin Lin instructed, "I'll get someone to shoot the promotional video for the triangular plum blossom sea tomorrow. Dress up nicely and cooperate with the filming of a set of promotional videos and photos. I'll give you 2,000 yuan."

After the triangular plum blossom sea was built, if he wanted to let people know and attract them, he had to let people know about this sea of flowers first. It was inevitable to take promotional videos and promotional photos. He had to print promotional photos.

Of course, this model was also indispensable.

Gao Yaoyao was a pure girl with passable looks. With her in mind, he naturally did not waste time looking for someone.

"Thank you, Boss!" Gao Yaoyao immediately agreed sweetly when she heard that.

Then, Qin Lin walked toward the triangular plum blossom sea.

From the hall, a specially made stone road led to the sea of flowers.

The entrance to the sea of flowers was a ticket booth. Ordinary sea of flowers tickets were around 30 to 70 yuan. He directly set it as 100 yuan.

To his sea of flowers, this price was not expensive, but to attract people, it could not be too expensive. As long as there were people, the accompanying profit plan could be arranged. For example, he could produce and sell the game crops.

The periphery of the sea of flowers was arranged neatly into a flower wall with dense triangular plum trees, preventing anyone from entering. They could only enter from the ticket office.

The 30-acre sea of flowers was a little spectacular. Just the dense ordinary triangular plums on the outside made this trip worthwhile. The deeper they went, the more pleasing it was to the eyes when they reached the triangular plum area produced by the game.

On the other hand, the Quality 3 seven-colored, symbiotic, ornamental triangular plums planted had the attributes of gorgeous +2, ornamental +2, and attractive +2.

In particular, the three stalks stood out from the crowd. They were more than 4 meters tall Quality 3 triangular plums. They were gorgeous +3, ornamental +3, attractive +3, photogenic +3, and ecological harmony +3.

This sea of flowers was definitely shocking. One could not tear their eyes away from it.

Qin Lin knew very well that as the creator of this sea of flowers, he would be shocked to see these flowers every day, let alone tourists.

When he arrived at the center, Qin Lin stopped. He saw butterflies dancing around the Quality 3 triangular plums. There were a few squirrels scurrying in the trees.

In the surroundings of the Quality 3 triangular plums, there was an ecological harmony +3 attribute. These squirrels were not afraid of people.

Qin Lin reached out to touch a squirrel that had landed on the fence. It did not run.

He took out a few pine nuts and placed them on the ground. The squirrels immediately jumped down and hugged the pine nuts.

He deliberately left one in his hand. As if they knew, the squirrels kept staring at his hand.

Qin Lin smiled and put down the last pine nut. A squirrel immediately went forward and hugged it. Then, they scurried up the tree and hid the pine nut.

During this period of time, he had gotten Gao Yaoyao to deliver some pine nuts to these squirrels every day. They were also used to it. At night, they would take all the pine nuts they had harvested and rush into the forest. Then, they would appear on time the next day.

These butterflies and squirrels, as well as the pleasant bird cries, would add characteristics to the sea of flowers.

The next day.

After sending Qiu Kui to RT-Mart, Qin Lin headed to Qin Ren's advertising and planning studio.

Qin Ren was one of the partners. He had shares in the studio and was also a photographer. His skills were not bad.

He naturally wanted to invite Qin Ren, his childhood friend, to take a set of promotional videos and photos.

Since he was going to hire someone anyway, he might as well let his childhood friend earn the money.

When Qin Lin came in, other than Qin Ren, there were a few others. Qin Ren's fiancée, Liao Li, and another woman he had seen at Qin Ren's house were also there.

"Lin Zi, why are you here?" When Qin Ren saw Qin Lin, he greeted him enthusiastically.

"Da Ren, I want to invite you to take a set of videos and photos." Qin Lin smiled and explained his intentions. "Come with me to the venue first. I'll place an order then?"

The 30-acre triangular plum blossom sea had a lot of promotional videos and photos. A team would definitely have to be deployed for ground filming, aviation filming, post-production, and so on.

He had asked online. His publicity video and photos cost tens of thousands.

"What order?" Qin Ren placed his hand on Qin Lin's shoulder unhappily. "It doesn't take much time to help you take a fruit shop video and photo. Do you treat me as your brother?"

With that, Qin Ren did not forget to say to the others, "I'm going out with my brother, Qin Lin."

This was also considered an explanation to the other partners. It was not considered a private job, but it was considered helping a brother. Everyone had a situation.

"Lin Zi, let's go!" Qin Ren called.

Qin Lin smiled. Qin Ren was doing this out of goodwill and not letting him spend money. He had helped him take a photo of the fruit shop once, but this time, his promotional video and photos were really not something Qin Ren could handle alone.

Liao Li and her cousin, Chu Na, watched this scene. Liao Li had no objections. What she liked was her fiancé's loyalty.

Chu Na had a lot of objections. "Liao Li, you have to talk about Qin Ren. You can't be too loyal. Others will get used to it. Was that Qin Lin from last time? I thought he was a good person previously, but now, it's obvious that he doesn't know the ways of the world. When Qin Ren said that he didn't want money, he didn't stand on ceremony at all?"

"Let's go shopping!" Liao Li clearly did not agree with her cousin, but she did not want to argue with her.

Qin Lin and Qin Ren left the planning studio and rode on an electric scooter. Qin Ren sat in the backseat before starting the car and driving out.

Soon, Qin Ren realized that something was wrong. "Lin Zi, if we're not going to the fruit and vegetable market street, why are we walking out of the city? Where are we going?"

"You'll know when we get there," Qin Lin said with a smile.

Chapter 32: A Woman Who Likes Herself! 1

Soon.

The small electric car arrived at the entrance of Qinglin Villa.

"Isn't this Fuhai Villa? Why did it change its name?" Qin Ren was puzzled. He had been here with Qin Lin in the past. At that time, they had not graduated from university and had come to spend their summer vacation.

When Qin Lin's small electric car stopped in front of the hall, Gao Yaoyao, who was gorgeously dressed, went forward. "Boss!"

"Lin Zi, this girl is not bad... Wait, Boss?" Qin Ren was habitually paying attention to the beautiful girl when he suddenly reacted. "Lin Zi, you're the boss of this villa? No wonder it's called Qinlin Villa."

"Da Ren, let's go. Look at the filming location. Also, this girl is called Gao Yaoyao. She's acting as the model today," Qin Lin called out and brought Qin Ren into the triangular sea of flowers.

"Damn!" Qin Ren was shocked when he saw the sea of flowers in front of him. "Lin Zi, did you do this?"

“Yes! I just finished it.” Qin Lin nodded.

“Lin Zi, you’re awesome!” Qin Ren directly exclaimed.

He knew the situation of this brother’s family very well. It was obvious how shocked he was when he suddenly did this.

How much did this sea of flowers cost?

However, he did not ask further. It would change if he probed further. After all, everyone had fortuitous encounters. Perhaps his brother had won the lottery or someone had invested.

Qin Lin smiled and said, “Da Ren, I just want to invite your studio to take a set of promotional videos and photos for this sea of flowers.”

“Ah...” Qin Ren instantly felt bitter when he heard this. “I can’t do this alone!”

Qin Lin naturally knew and smiled. “I’ll place an order for your studio. Remember to give me a discount!”

“Not only will I give you a discount, but I’ll also give you the best service. Remember to give me a five-star rating.” Qin Ren did not waste any time. He took his phone and called back.

He really could not do this alone. He also knew that Qin Lin was taking care of his business, so he definitely had to do it well.

Qin Lin saw Gao Yaoyao smiling foolishly at her phone behind him. He asked curiously, “Why are you smiling so happily?”

When Gao Yaoyao heard Qin Lin’s words, she came back to her senses and asked, “Boss, I registered the trademark of the meat pie in Youcheng County. Then can I eat the meat pie at the shops in Youcheng County without paying? They used my trademark.”

Qin Lin asked in surprise, “Er! What are you thinking about? Aren’t you afraid of being beaten up?”

Gao Yaoyao shrunk her head and said, “Am I joking? I just saw a video. Someone registered the trademark of a meat pie and sued hundreds of meat pie shops in the country, asking for 99,800 yuan each.”

1

“What?” Qin Lin revealed an incredulous expression.

How much money would he earn if he won? In the blink of an eye, it would be tens of millions. It was even easier than his business.

It was not scary to be a hooligan, but it was even scarier if it was a cultured hooligan.

He had the urge to register the Youcheng County meat pie trademark and register all the noodles and pig head meat at the city pass!

However, this was just a thought. He would really be beaten up. Furthermore, the officials would definitely handle it. Perhaps someone would have to pay the legal price. Otherwise, the people in society would follow suit. It would be strange if it was not chaotic.

After Qin Ren called, three partners from the studio quickly arrived.

When the three of them arrived at the villa and saw the triangular sea of plum blossoms, they were also very surprised.

He originally thought that Qin Ren was just helping his brother out privately. Unexpectedly, the other party's brother was so awesome and gave him a big deal.

Why didn't they have such brothers?

However, after helping Qin Lin film the triangular sea of plum blossoms, Qin Ren and his partner was even more shocked.

If one were to say that this sea of flowers gave off a fascinating beauty from the outer area, then entering it and reaching the middle was even more unbelievable.

Especially when they arrived at the central area, with the cooperation of the model at the villa, they realized that the videos and photos were actually poetic. The scene was so beautiful that it seemed to be art.

A partner said in surprise, "Qin Ren, not bad. I feel like your filming skills have improved. You're already acting like a master."

"It's because this place is too beautiful." Qin Ren was also smiling. It was the first time he had taken such a perfect promotional video and photo.

Especially the three most beautiful triangular plums. The videos and photos that came out were not inferior to those top masters.

Naturally, he did not know that this was because these triangular plums had game attributes.

The three triangular plums had +3 attributes.

“Lin Zi, we’ll work overtime tonight to help you get the promotional video and advertisement photos. You can use them tomorrow,” Qin Ren promised Qin Lin when he left.

2

When he returned to the studio, Qin Ren said to his partners, “Everyone, work overtime tonight. Don’t embarrass me in front of my brothers.”

The others smiled and agreed.

Actually, they were not stupid. When they were filming, they had a feeling that the triangular sea of plum blossoms was going to be popular. Then, the promotional video and advertisement photos they took were also publicity for themselves. It had to be perfect.

In the evening.

Liao Li brought her cousin Chu Na over again. When she arrived behind her fiancé, she could not help but be surprised when she saw the video he had edited. “Hubby, where did you take this? It’s so beautiful!”

Even Chu Na asked curiously, “Is there such a beautiful place in our Youcheng County?”

If the video alone was so stunning, how beautiful would it be at the scene?

When Qin Ren saw his fiancée ask, he said proudly, “Xiao Li, let me tell you. Qin Lin hid very well. He built a villa and built this triangular plum blossom sea. Those triangular plums don’t look like ordinary quality. The 30 acres should be at least a few million yuan. This kid can do it.”

Her words were filled with surprise and joy for her brother, making Liao Li feel incredulous.

1

She knew her fiancé’s family situation.

However, Chu Na felt that something was wrong.

Did she make a mistake?

Liao Li did not disturb her fiancé’s work and pulled her cousin to the side to play by herself.

Chu Na said anxiously, "Li Li, send me Qin Lin's WeChat!"

Liao Li said playfully, "Cousin, didn't you say you were joking last time?"

Chu Na did not care. "I didn't know his conditions. As a woman, who doesn't want to find someone with good conditions?"

Liao Li was helpless and could only send Qin Lin's WeChat profile to her cousin.

1

Chu Na immediately added him on WeChat.

On the other hand, Qin Lin quickly received a WeChat friend request with a notification. "I'm Liao Li's cousin, can we be friends?"

This made him frown. Why did Liao Li's cousin add him for no reason?

He opened her profile and saw that although the photo was seriously photoshopped, he could still vaguely tell that it was the girl beside Liao Li.

It was just that she looked too different in the photo.

However, he also understood something. After all, she had not added him on WeChat during their two meetings. Why did she suddenly add him?

After having Moqing, unless there were special circumstances, he would never add a woman on WeChat. This was his respect for Zhao Moqing, so he decisively wanted to reject her. However, when he thought about it, she was Liao Li's cousin, so he still replied tactfully, "I'm sorry. My wife doesn't allow me to add someone of the opposite sex!"

On the other end, Liao Li's cousin was stunned. "Li Li, why didn't you say that Qin Lin is married?"

"???" Liao Li was stunned. Qin Ren would definitely know that Qin Lin was married. They were not married at all.

However, she also understood that Qin Lin had guessed her cousin's motive and rejected her tactfully. She could not help but shake her head and did not remind her cousin.

Her cousin was just a little country bumpkin without her feet on the ground. She had photoshopped a picture of herself to beautify herself and thought that she was a catch when men she was not familiar with praised her.

1

She was already a leftover woman. She still wanted to find a young, handsome, and rich man, but a young, handsome, and rich man did not like her at all.
