

"CAN I BE YOUR FRIEND?"

Delilah asked Rose if she could be her friend. Delilah was a witch. She had been living in this pack for many years. But she had trust issues. Yet after meeting with Rose, she felt something strange about Rose. She felt familiar with Rose. Rose was a good girl and she needed help. That was what she thought. Delilah wanted to help her.

"Sure." Rose smiled and replied. She knew Delilah was not a bad witch. Otherwise, she had known about her wolf, and she could spread her secret to anyone. But she didn't.

"Thanks Rose for trusting me. I will be your good friend."

"I know that. Now let's work on this project, otherwise, we will fail in this subject." Rose said. Delilah nodded and chuckled.

They worked for hours.

Meanwhile, Arvan's friends were watching Arvan. He was sitting beside Lina but his eyes were on Rose. He was watching Rose and Delilah very carefully. 'What is she doing with a witch?'

"Babe, where are you looking?"

"Nowhere. What happened to your hand?" He saw a bandage on Lina's hand.

"It's nothing, Babe. I was just cutting an apple and mistakenly cut my finger."

"Next time be careful." Arvan said.

"How sweet of you! You care for me a lot. You love me so much. I love you too, Babe. " She said 'I love you too' a little loud to grab the whole cafe's attention and hugged Arvan.

Arvan was talking with her but when she hugged him he saw Rose turn to look at them. He hugged Lina back immediately.

But Rose didn't give a reaction to them. She had a blank face. And Arvan didn't like that. 'Why doesn't she have any reaction? Does she get rid of the rejection and move on?'

He didn't know why but he suddenly started to feel strange towards Rose. He didn't want to go and help her last night. But after dropping Lina home, he drove back to the club just to see if Rose was safe or not.

He didn't like it when he saw how Mark was looking at her lovingly. He didn't like that Mark guy supported her with his arm and went to his car. He got angry and pulled her into his arms. He didn't know why he told him that she was coming with him. He didn't know why he helped her when she was about to fall last night.

Everything was really confusing for him. He could not understand why he was feeling confused about a stranger girl.

"Why are you silent, Liam?" Jack asked.

"Nothing."

"Are you upset with Lina for what she did today?"

Henry asked.

Liam glared at Lina but didn't say anything.

Some time ago everyone was talking happily, Liam had almost forgotten about last night's fight. But when Lina came, she started to behave rudely again. As if she was already their Luna. She didn't greet Rita. She even mocked her as a jealous wolf who could not get an Alpha.

Rita got angry after that and left the table. Liam didn't leave. He was just restraining his anger towards her. He didn't know how long he could control it. He wanted to see what Arvan would do. But his best friend didn't say anything to his lovely girlfriend.

"What did I do today? Why are you into me? I am not your enemy but your future Luna. I didn't even talk with you and your mate." Lina said while rolling her eyes.

"Lina. You have to know how to give respect to your Pack's official beta. Liam is the second commander in our pack. You can not be rude to him or his mate."

Jack warned her.

"What is the second command? I only know how to respect the first command and that is my boyfriend. I will be the Luna of this pack so I don't have to think about giving respect to any of you."

Vector was watching quietly. He didn't say anything until now.

"Listen girl, maybe our Alpha likes you a lot, maybe he loves you but doesn't expect us to listen to all of your bullshit because of it. Maybe you will be our Luna. But that doesn't mean we have to be in your shoes." Vector growled.

How dare she insult their beta and their friend?

"Stop everyone." Arvan looked at them. He was listening to everything.

"Lina, apologize to Liam."

"No Arvan. I won't. Why would I if I did nothing wrong? I didn't even say anything wrong."

"Lina, I am telling you last time. Apologize to my beta otherwise-" Arvan said angrily. He was feeling irritated with Lina's behavior.

Liam stopped him and said,

"It's okay, Arvan. You didn't have to tell her to apologize. I don't want this type of apology. She insulted me and my mate, she even insulted my rank.

I will see where her destiny will take her with her this arrogance"

Liam was infuriated and he wanted to kill her, but because of Arvan he could not. He said again,

"Let me tell you one thing, Alpha Arvan,

BECAUSE OF THIS GIRL, YOU REJECTED YOUR MATE, RIGHT? YOU WILL REGRET EVERYTHING VERY SOON."

Chapter 22 Because Of Alpha Arvan

"Let me tell you one thing, Alpha Arvan,

BECAUSE OF THIS GIRL, YOU REJECTED YOUR MATE, RIGHT? YOU WILL REGRET EVERYTHING VERY SOON."

Arvan was surprised by Liam's sudden statement. Before he could reply, Liam left the cafe.

"Arvan, I agree with him." Vector said and followed Liam.

"I don't know anything about mate bond. But one thing I can say is that Luna will not just be your mate but also be our pack's head. You have to think about it very carefully before deciding anything." Henry said.

Jack nodded to Henry and they both left.

Arvan was in deep thought. Why suddenly all of his friends started to support his rejected mate?

"Arvan, I didn't do anyth-"

"Shut the fuck up!" Arvan grabbed her hand and left the cafe.

He let go of her hand when they were out of the cafe. He warned her,

"Just because I didn't say anything to you in front of them, that doesn't mean you can insult them. I didn't say that time because I would make you my luna. I don't want to humiliate you in front of them. But you dare to insult Liam!" Arvan grabbed her arms and tightened his grip.

"Ahh! Arvan. You are hurting me."

"Listen to me very carefully, Lina. I am not your rejected mate who will take your every action happily. Next time if you dare to talk with my friends like that again, you better know what I can do with you."

"S-Sorry Arvan. Please leave my hands. I won't talk with them like that ever again." She started to cry and continued,

"And I will apologize to Rita too. Please, Arvan, forgive me."

Arvan glared at her and left her arms. He patted her cheeks.

"You better know your place in my life, babe."

Lina was scared and nodded her head.

In the cafe,

Rose was working with Delilah on their project. She heard 'I love you too' and turned her head to Arvan's table. She saw Lina hugging Arvan and he hugged her back.

'So they are exchanging 'love you' to each other and hugging each other! Such a lovely couple!' Rose thought sarcastically. She didn't show any emotion on her face. She turned her attention back to her work again.

Sometime later she saw Arvan and Lina leaving the cafe hand in hand. 'Why am I seeing all these things today? I should avoid looking at them.'

After a few minutes, they were done with their projects. "Let's go back to our class." Delilah said.

"Yeah, let's go."

Rose and Delilah left the cafe. They were going to their class when they saw Arvan and Lina on the corner side of the hall room.

The hall room was not gathering like before. This was the time for classes, so all the students went to their classes now.

Rose saw Arvan was patting, more like caressing Lina's cheek. She even heard him calling her 'Babe'.

When she was about to pass them, Lina saw her and hugged Arvan and said,

"I am sorry, Babe. I know you love me. I should love you back properly. I am not like your rejected mate. You know that I am the perfect one for you. That's why you love me a lot."

Rose felt pain in her heart. All her pain of heart broken came back and she was feeling numb.

"Are you okay, Rose?" Delilah said.

Arvan was dumbfounded by Lina's sudden hug and words. He smelled a witch but when he turned back he saw there was no one.

"What happened, Arvan?"

"Nothing. And don't talk about my rejected mate again."

Lina nodded her head and didn't say anything. She smirked inside and thought, 'It's good that I got to know about it when his friends were talking about it. It's a relief that their mate bond is broken. That is why he could not smell Rose's wolf just now. Otherwise, he would understand my plan.'

Rose left the hall with Delilah and went outside. "What happened, Rose?"

"Nothing. I think I can't attend another class today."

"Are you feeling unwell?" Delilah asked.

"I am feeling restless suddenly." She was taking deep breaths. She didn't know why it still affected her. Why did she still feel upset whenever she saw her mate who rejected her and his girlfriend, together?

'Moon Goddess, why am I the only one who is feeling this? Why are you punishing me like this? I told you I would be happy without a mate. Just give me back my wolf. But do you not want to give her back to me but make me feel this painful and heart broken feeling? Why Moon Goddess, why?? Did I do something wrong? Why are you so angry with me? Why can't you just let me be happy just one time?'

"Rose, you are shaking. What is happening to you? Please tell me. I can help you." Delilah was worried about her.

"No one can help me, Delilah. I am going home now. I will meet you tomorrow, bye." Rose smiled sadly and said.

When she was about to go she heard Delilah,

"ROSE, IS IT BECAUSE OF ALPHA ARVAN?"

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

"ROSE, IS IT BECAUSE OF ALPHA ARVAN?"

Rose stopped her steps and turned to Delilah. She shook her head and left.

Delilah understood that it was because of Alpha Arvan. She noticed that first day when she met Rose. The way she looked at him. But the confusing fact was that Arvan was always staring at her and Delilah noticed that too.

'If she loves him only, then why was Arvan glancing at her all the time today? There is something that I can't understand. But I don't want to intervene in her personal matters. I hope she will be okay.'

On the road, Rose was crying. She made her understand last night that she had to stay away from Arvan. But what happened today? Felt heart broken again? Why???

She took a cab and left for home. She was crying so hard that she could not wait for the bus.

'He told me that night, I am a weak creature. I am nothing for him. He told me last night, I am vicious. I also took it. But today? Did he tell his girlfriend about me these types of things? He could tell her that he loved her that's why he rejected me. But no. He has to humiliate me in front of his girlfriend, in front of everyone. What a shame, Rose! You are good for nothing. That is why he is doing this. He is making your life hell. Wow.'

"Are you okay, Madam?" The cab driver asked. He noticed her crying from the start from the rear mirror.

"No, I am okay."

"Don't cry. Sometimes the Lord takes the exam of our patience and watches how much we can tolerate. Then he gives us rewards. So don't cry and wait for fate. If you are not a bad person, the Lord will not upset you."

Rose was listening to him. The driver gave her inspiration that nobody could give her. She was upset but after hearing that she nodded and thanked him. He motivated her.

How a stranger motivated her just like an angel who came to her and gave her hope to wait for something good.

Rose reached home. She gave the money to the driver and thanked him again.

When she entered her home, she saw her mom was at home.

"Mom?"

"Rose? Why did you come home early today?"

"Nothing mom, I was not feeling well."

"What happened to you?? Tell me, dear. Are you not feeling okay? Should we go to the pack hospital?"

"NO MOM."

She shouted immediately because of the name of pack hospital.

The pack doctor told her mom that she should meet him and he would do some inquiries. So she didn't want to go there. He would understand about her wolf instantly.

"Why are you shouting?"

"N-Nothing mom. I am just not feeling okay. I am sorry, mom. I think I am not sober yet from last night's drink. So I should sleep."

"Okay, go to your room and take a rest."

"Yeah, mom. But tell me one thing."

"What?"

"Why are you at home now? Is everything okay in your office?"

"Yes yes, everything is okay. I took a leave."

"Why mom? Are you not feeling okay?"

"I am totally fine. But tomorrow night I have to work overtime. That's why I took a leave today."

"Oh, okay, mom. Take a rest then."

Rose went to her room. She changed her clothes and thought about everything.

"Rosalie, I miss you so much. I don't know what I should do or not do without you. I wish you would have been here with me. How can I tell everyone that I have lost you? How can I live my whole life without you?"

In the afternoon, Alice called Rose.

"Why did you leave suddenly?"

"I was not feeling well, Alice."

"What happened, Rossy? Delilah told me after my class that you had left and you were shaking! What the hell is going on???"

"Nothing happened."

"You are now keeping a secret from your best friend, huh?"

"It is not like that, Alice."

"Then what is it like? I don't want to pressure up but what happened to you, tell me, I am worried like hell."

"Actually, I saw Arvan and Lina today."

"We always see them. Today we saw them in the cafe, right? Everything was fine then. Did something happen after I went to class? Did that bastard say something to you? Or that bitch? Tell me, Rossy. I will kill them!"

Rose chuckled. She found Alice cute. Alice knew she could not kill the Alpha, but still, she said those in her anger.

"I saw them outside of the cafe, in the hall room. They were hugging each other."

"What??? They were eating each other's mouths? That whore shameless couple!!"

Rose laughed after hearing her.

"Not eating each other's mouths. I said, hugging each other, Alice."

"He dared to make you jealous?"

"No Alice. That was not what made me upset. I heard Lina. She was hugging him and saying that he knew she was perfect and I was not so that was why he rejected me and chose her."

"That hoe! And what did that rascal reply to his girlfriend?? I will tell Delilah to make some magic potion and make him impotent."

Rose giggled. 'She is saying that to make me laugh.'

"Wait a minute, when did you and Delilah talk so much that you can now tell her to make potions?"
Rose asked.

"From today. But one thing I realized is that she is not that bad."

"Not that bad? Don't say that. She is a good girl."

"Better than your best friend?"

"You jealous girl."

Alice laughed and said,

"She was upset about you. She was waiting for me outside of my class just to inform me about you. I felt bad for overreacting that day with her."

"It's okay, you can talk with her tomorrow."

"Hmm, but one thing, Rossy."

"What?"

"SHE IS A WITCH. SHE HAS MAGICAL POWER WHICH WE DON'T HAVE. AND WITCHES CAN DO

MANY UNEXPECTED THINGS WE HAVE NEVER IMAGINED."

Chapter 24 The Place In My Dream

The next day, Rose reached university. She was feeling well today. She slept well last night. She went to her classroom and sat in her seat. The teacher had not come yet. So she was watching out from the window.

"Rossy." Rose turned her head and saw Alice had come. Alice sat in her seat and asked, "Today you are early, what happened? Did you not sleep last night?"

Alice smiled at her. "I slept well last night. I fell asleep early. Then when I woke up, I saw it was early in the morning.

"It's good that you slept well."

Rose and Alice were talking when they saw Delilah entering their class. Rose raised her hand and called her.

"Delilah."

Delilah looked at her and smiled. She went to them and asked Rose, "Hi, Rose. How are you feeling today?"

"I am fine, Delilah. Thank you for informing Alice about me yesterday."

Delilah shook her hand. "No, it's fine."

"You can sit here." Alice told Delilah while signaling her to the seat in front of their seats. Delilah looked at Rose and Rose nodded at her. Delilah sat there but she was amazed at Alice's sudden behavior.

"Thank you Delilah for yesterday." Alice thanked Delilah.

Delilah shook her head. "No, that was my responsibility as a friend."

Rose smiled at them and said, "Now both of you, do a friendship handshake. You two are friends with each other."

Alice and Delilah laughed at her. Alice turned her head to Rose. "What are we? five? Friendship handshake? Seriously Rossy?"

"Oh, come on, Alice. Are you both friends now?" Rose asked.

Alice nodded her head and Delilah smiled.

"Good." Rose said.

They were talking about the projects and Taylor joined them too.

"By the way, Rose"

Rose looked at Taylor. "Yes?"

Taylor asked her carefully. " I forgot to ask you yesterday."

Rose asked, "About what?"

"What were you doing with Alpha Arvan on my birthday night?"

"WHAT?"

Alice shouted. Rose was taken aback to hear his question.

"What do you mean, Taylor?" Alice asked Taylor.

"Yeah, Rose was with Alpha Arvan that night, or I can say late night."

"Late night? Rossy, I thought Mark dropped you home quickly but he didn't?" Alice asked Rose.

Rose was silent. She was thinking about how she could explain everything when she didn't even know what had happened apparently because she was drunk. But the next day all she could remember clearly was his insults and how he dropped her home.

"Taylor, tell me everything now." Alice said.

"Actually, I came out of the club because I needed to take a call. But I saw Alpha Arvan and Rose talking with each other so closely. I called her. Then I talked with them. Rose didn't look very drunk that time. I asked them where they were going. Alpha Arvan told me Rose was going with him."

After hearing Taylor, both Alice and Delilah looked at Rose as if they wanted to hear her side of the story.

"I was drunk so Mark told me she would drop me. I was about to go with him when Arvan came and told me that he will drop me because he is the head Alpha and all. He didn't want any unmated she wolf to get any harm so he dropped me at my home. That's it." Rose explained and sighed.

"And why didn't you tell me that yesterday?" Alice raised a brow and asked Rose.

"Actually I forgot about that. It is not important for me to talk about any stranger." Rose said.

"Stranger?" Taylor asked. "He is our head Alpha, Rose. Not any strangers. And you two didn't look like strangers that night."

"Oh shut up, Taylor. If my Rossy said, he is a stranger to her, then he is. You don't have to give lectures for that." Taylor shut his mouth and nodded his head. Anyway, who could win against Alice in talk?

After a few minutes, the Professor came to their class and they gave their attention to the class.

After their classes, they went to the cafe and sat at their usual table. It was exactly in the middle of the cafe.

Rose ordered their food at the counter and went to Alice and Delilah. Then she sat on her seat. "Alice and Rose, I want to ask you something." Delilah said.

Alice and Rose nodded their heads.

"We are now friends, right?"

"Yes, we are, Delilah." Alice replied.

"Then can I invite you to my home?" Delilah asked them happily.

"Home?" Rose asked.

"Yeah, I only live with my grandmother, I told you."

"Yes." Rose nodded.

"So there is no one in my home except me and her. I want you both to meet with her today."

"Today?" Rose was surprised.

"Yes, today." Delilah nodded.

"I would love to go with you, dear. But I have to go home early today. I have guests in my house. I will go some other day." Alice apologized.

"It's okay, I understand. And you Rose?" Delilah smiled at Alice and turned to Rose with her hopeful eyes.

"Sure. If you want me to meet your grandmother then why not." Alice grinned.

Seeing that Rose agreed to go with her, Delilah was happy.

"You know what? Here I have no friends. My grandma asked me every day about my friends and all the time, I lied to her that I have a lot of friends and all. She always told me to take them home and she would cook for them. Oh! Let me tell you, my grandmother is a very good cook." Delilah was cheerful when she was talking about her Grandmother, Alice and Rose smiled at her when they saw how happily Delilah was talking about her grandmother.

After finishing all the classes, Alice said goodbyes to Rose and Delilah and then drove her car home.

Meanwhile, Rose and Delilah set off to go to Delilah's home.

Rose saw they were going inside the forest. She frowned and asked, "Delilah, where are we going?"

Delilah smiled at her and replied, "Don't be afraid. I am not hijacking you. My home is in the middle of the forest."

"What?"

"Yes. Let's go now." Delilah said.

Rose nodded and started to walk ahead in the forest.

After some time, they went close to a hut in the middle of the forest.

That was when it hit Rose's mind and she got goosebumps. She thought,

'THIS IS THE PLACE I SAW IN MY DREAM.'

Chapter 25 Helo To Get Back Your Wolf

'THIS IS THE PLACE I SAW IN MY DREAM.'

Rose was confused. She could not believe this type of place even existed. Because she just saw this place in her dreams. How could it be possible that she could dream of any unknown place?

"What happened, Rose?" Delilah asked Rose.

"Nothing. This is your home? You live here?" Rose asked her.

Delilah thought Rose was feeling uncomfortable because Delilah took her to a poor place like a hut.

"Yes, I am sorry if you feel comfortable. We are not that rich actually. My grandma and I live here. I told you about my parents' death, right? So after that, we are living here."

Rose understood that Delilah mistook her.

"No no, Delilah. I didn't mean that. I am just talking about this place. You live here, in the middle of the forest? Don't you feel scared?"

"You are a werewolf, Rose. And you are talking about Fear?"

"No, I mean. You are not a werewolf like us. And your grandma is old. So what about her? When you leave her every day, doesn't she feel unsafe here?" Rose asked while looking at the hut.

"No, she is very strong. She is one of the strongest high ranked witches. She is not afraid of anything. She even helped some werewolves in the last war. She has her own powers, so there is no need. But feeling lonely? Yes, she felt lonely sometimes. Let's go and meet with her. She will be happy to see you." Delilah cheered.

"Yeah, let's go."

Rose and Delilah were moving close to the hut. Rose was feeling distressed. She had a flashback in her mind about her dream.

Flashback

She suddenly felt dark everywhere. Someone was calling her while crying.

"Rose."

"Rosalie?"

"Rose, please save me, Rose."

"Rosalie, where are you???"

Rose was running into the dark forest. She could not recognize the forest. As if she never came here.

"Where are you? Why can't I find you, Rosalie?"

"You are very close, Rose."

She saw her legs were bleeding. She couldn't get up from there. She saw the old hut. The door was opened and smoke and lights were coming out from there.

"Get up, Rose." She heard a voice. She could not identify the voice. It was a female voice she had never heard before.

"Who are you?"

"Come here. Your fate, your destiny is waiting here for you."

The voice was so alluring but so deep. It was fascinating.

"What do you mean?"

"Come here and find everything."

Rose tried to get up. She felt pain but she still got up and proceeded to the hut.

She was almost there. She was almost close to the hut. When the light from the hut caught her eyes, she closed her eyes and opened her eyes again.

But this time she was in her room. She felt shocked. She was sweating.

Back to present

Rose thought about her dream and sighed. Everything was bewildering her.

"Rose, why are you standing there? Come." She heard Delilah.

Rose nodded to her and went to the hut. She went inside the hut with Delilah. She saw the hut was made of bamboo inside. There was a small bed of two, a kitchen side, a door maybe for a bathroom, a small couch, a closet, and a small desk with a small shelf.

Rose could not believe her eyes. In this generation where they use mobile phones, laptops, and the internet, Delilah lived in a place where there were no networks.

"Maybe grandma is outside. Let's sit here, grandma will come soon." Delilah said and Rose nodded.

They sat on the small couch and talked for a few minute.

Then Rose saw an old woman enter the hut. She looked very old. Her skin was fair and clean. Her white hair was shiny and her eyes were green.

Rose stood up immediately and greeted her. "Hello, grandma."

The old woman looked at her and frowned at her. Rose could not understand why she did not reply to her greetings.

The old woman turned her face to Delilah and asked her, "Who is she?"

Rose thought that was rude.

"Grandma, she is my friend. You wanted to meet some of my friends, right? She is my close friend."

Rose smiled awkwardly at them.

The old woman cleared her frown and looked surprised.

"She is your friend?"

"Yes, grandma."

The old woman came near Rose. Rose was feeling uncomfortable. The old woman said to her, "I am so sorry, dear. I didn't know that you were my granddaughter's friend."

"It's okay, grandma." The old woman smiled at her. "Sit here. I will make some tea for you." Rose nodded to her.

When the old woman went to the kitchen side she started to make tea. Rose looked at Delilah and whispered to her. "I am feeling nervous in front of grandma." Delilah laughed at her. "Don't be. She is not friendly with strangers. But you are my friend, so you don't have to worry." Rose nodded her head.

After making three cups of tea, the old woman came to them and gave them two cups. She sat with Rose and Delilah.

Rose was thinking before sipping the cup of tea. She did not have her wolf anymore, so she could not smell any danger, but she believed Delilah was a good girl, so she sipped the tea.

"You are beautiful, my child. But why are you looking so pale?" The old woman asked Rose.

Rose looked at her and could not answer her. What could she answer her?

The old woman sipped her tea and asked Rose,

"Where is your wolf?"

Rose was shocked. 'She can also feel that like Delilah? Or did Delilah tell her about me?' Rose thought.

Rose glanced at Delilah and Delilah nodded at her as if she was telling her to answer her grandma.

"Grandma, it's nothing. I think I should go back to my home. It's noon. My mom will be at home right now."

Rose stood up and went to the small door of the hut when she heard the old woman.

"I CAN HELP YOU TO GET BACK YOUR WOLF."

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 26 Friday Night

"I CAN HELP YOU TO GET BACK YOUR WOLF."

Rose stopped there. She was stunned by her words. 'Help me to get back my wolf?' She turned around and looked at the old woman. "Grandma, What did you just say?"

The old woman stood up and Delilah also stood up. "Rose, don't get angry with me. I convinced grandma to help you. She is a very powerful witch, she can help you."

Rose was upset with Delilah. She never thought Delilah had taken her here for this and she even told her grandma about her secret.

The old woman moved toward to Rose and told her,

"Child, you are very young. You had to suffer from losing your wolf. But let me tell you. She has not gone away from you. She is inside you, hidden somewhere. She had to bear the consequences of rejection."

Rose's eyes widened as she asked the old woman,

"H-How do you know about the re-rejection?"

The old woman smiled at her and patted her head.

"Dear, I know many things. I am old, not just in my age, but with my experiences also."

Rose was staring at her, shocked and silent.

"Don't be stressed. If you want to go home, then I will not stop you. You can go home and think about it. If you come to me for help then come tonight. We will start at midnight, which will be Friday night, and Friday night is very important for us. I will prepare everything for you."

Rose gazed at the old woman, she glanced at Delilah and said, "Delilah, I am going home."

Delilah called her and said, "Let me come with you, what if you lose your way?"

Rose shook her head and said, "No, I memorized the way so I won't lose the path."

Then Rose left the hut.

She started to walk ahead, then she began to run. After some time, she came to the main road and took a cab to go home.

When she came back home, she went straight to her room. She lied to the old woman that her mom was at home. Her mom told her she had a lot of work at the office. She had to work over time tonight. So she would not come back today.

Rose thought about what happened today the whole day. She didn't believe Delilah's grandma at first. Because any random woman telling her about her past and talking about her helps to get back her wolf. It was not a joke.

But then she remembered her dreams. How she dreamt about the hut on the same route, the same place. How could that be possible? She even heard Rosalie's voice. Nevertheless there was another voice of a woman. But that was not Delilah's grandma's voice that Rose was sure about. Then who was she?

Rose wanted to talk to Rosalie, wanted to feel her again.

"What should I do, Rosalie?"

"Will you come back to me? Is it even possible?"

Then Rose talked to her mother. Her mother told her that she could not come back home tonight, which Rose already knew. She told Rose to stay safe and always locked the door. Rose told her she would do that.

After all the thinking, Rose decided to go to the hut tonight. She told herself, "I don't have Rosalie now. How can she hurt me? I am now a human without my wolf. How can she harm me more? If she can really help, then it will be a win for me. I can have my Rosalie back."

Thank you, Moon Goddess, you are helping me. I hope you won't upset me again and give me back my wolf."

When it was 8 pm, Rose got ready. She wanted to call Delilah. But then she remembered Delilah lived in a place where she could not get any phone connection.

'Then why does Delilah use a phone? Oh yes. She needs to do assignments and she spent most of her time at university.'

Rose shook her head and went out of her home. She locked the main door carefully and took a cab to go to the forest side.

The cab stopped at the side of the forest. She got out of the car and went near the forest when she saw Delilah. Rose was surprised after seeing her.

"Delilah! What are you doing here?"

Delilah came to her and smiled at her. She hugged Rose and said, "Grandma told me to receive you, she told me that you will come for sure."

Then Delilah moved back from the hug. Rose looked at Delilah. "How did she know that?"

"Rose, I told you she has many powers. When I felt that you did not have your wolf, I told my grandma that day about you. She said she can help you. So I convinced her. She told me to take you with me. Believe me, she can help you, my friend. A Witch can do many things you have never imagined."

Rose thought about what Alice told her on the phone,

"Rosy, a witch can do many things which we have never imagined."

Rose shook her head from her thoughts and told Delilah, "Let's go."

Rose and Delilah went to the hut. Rose felt the same feeling that she felt in her dream.

Rose entered the hut and saw there was some fire on wood in both corners inside the hut. 'Wow, I am feeling like I have come a thousand years back, no electricity and all.'

Delilah moved toward Rose and whispered to her, "I lied to you."

"About what?"

"That I live with my grandma. I told you so that you can come here. I live in our dormitory. But I come here every Friday to live with grandma."

"Why Friday?" Rose frowned.

"Because Friday night is a very pure night. In this night all the Witches become very powerful." The old woman had already told Rose about that.

The old woman suddenly entered the hut.

Seeing her all of a sudden, Rose was stunned. "I went outside to collect some more wood." The old woman told her.

Rose nodded to her and asked, "What do I have to do now to get back my wolf?"

The old woman gave her a white long dress. It was just a simple one piece that could hide her full body.

"Take this and dress up. Come back here and sit down there. We will start at midnight." She said.

"But midnight is still a long time away. " Rose said.

"Don't worry. We can sit here. Everything will turn on automatically when twelve o'clock strikes. We don't have to worry about that."

Chapter 27 Witchcraft

When midnight approached, Rose got nervous and saw candles lit all around. She could see everything clearly. Delilah was there sitting beside Rose.

Rose grabbed her hand tightly. "What is happening, Delilah?" Delilah patted Rose's hand. "Don't worry. It's just the beginning. From now on, listen to grandma. We will try our best."

"Rose, child, come and sit here." The old woman asked Rose to sit in the center of the room.

Rose moved there and sat where she was told to sit. Rose looked like a child who knew nothing about those things. She was wearing the white dress that she was told to wear.

She saw the old woman take some powder and it was a white powder. The old woman spread the powder around the center where Rose was sitting and made a circle with it.

"Delilah, come here and sit with me." The old woman said.

Delilah came and sat on the right side outside of the circle. The old woman rose from there and stood up. She went outside and took a big black steel pot filled with water. She put down the bowl in front of Rose.

Rose was curious about what was in the water.

"Don't look at the water. Just close your eyes. From now on, don't open your eyes, child." The old woman told Rose. Rose nodded and closed her eyes.

The old woman sat on her left side. Then she also closed her eyes and Delilah closed her eyes too.

Both of them started to chant some spells and immediately all the candles in the room blew out.

Suddenly, a fire lit in the circle where Rose was sitting inside.

Rose could feel the sudden heat she was afraid of. She was a werewolf, not a witch. She didn't know anything about which craft. She was feeling uncomfortable with all the spells Delilah and her grandma were chanting.

Delilah was casting spells and she was trying her best to back her friend's wolf. She promised Rose that she would help her and now was the time to prove herself as a good friend.

The old woman was casting spells like it was so natural for her. She was old but it looked like daily work for her.

Delilah and her grandma were chanting when they heard wolves howling. Rose was stunned. 'What is happening?' She could hear crows. She could hear the sounds of air. Every sound was growing slowly. She wanted to open her eyes.

Delilah's grandma frowned her brows but her eyes were closed. She warned, "Don't open your eyes, Rose."

Rose nodded her head, she thought the old woman could see her.

Suddenly, she could not hear anything. Everything stopped. "Open your eyes, Rose." The old woman told her.

Rose slowly opened her eyes and was scared. Around her all over was only fire. She could not see anything except fire.

"Wh-Where are you grandma? Delilah? I can not see you."

"Rose, just look at the water, child. But remember, don't touch the water."

Rose nervously nodded her head and moved to the black water bowl. She came close to it and slowly looked into it. However, what she saw she could not believe.

"ROSALIE!!!"

Rose screamed loudly. She started to cry. "Rosalie? What are you doing there, Rosalie? You don't know how much I miss you, Rosalie. Please come back to me. Without you, I am nothing, Rosalie."

She could see her. The white fur with blue eyes looked at her in the same position as she was looking at it. It was looking like her own reflection in the water.

Rose could not control herself and touched the water. Immediately her palm burned. "AAAAAHHH MY HAND!!!"

Rose screamed in pain.

"I told you not to touch the water. Why didn't you listen to me, Rose?" The old woman scolded her.

"Rose, are you okay?" Delilah asked worriedly.

"Delilah, tell grandma that I am sorry to doubt her from the first. You are right. My wolf is not dead." Rose touched her right hand and whimpered.

"Now don't talk and go to sit where you were sitting a moment ago." The old woman told her.

Rose immediately moved back and sat where she was sitting a few minutes ago.

"Close your eyes again."

Rose closed her eyes.

This time the old woman took a knife and cut her palm and went to the fire. She spelled it a lot of times but the fire did not stop flaming.

"Delilah, start casting your spells. I can not stop the fire alone. We don't have the power of fire."

Delilah and her grandma started to chant again. After ten minutes, the fire stopped and all the candles lit up again.

Delilah's grandma took her palm, which was bleeding, and went to the bowl. She poured a few drops of her blood into the water of the bowl. Then she told Delilah to do the same. Rose's eyes were still closed. She didn't know what was happening.

Delilah cut her palm and murmured, " It's painful, Grandma."

"It's okay Delilah, we are witches. Just think that you are experiencing one of the toughest witch crafts tonight." Delilah nodded to her.

Delilah also poured her blood into the water of the bowl. It looked like black water as if someone mixed black color in the water.

They sat beside the pot and started to chant again.

Rose felt that the storm was raging around her, everything was turning upside down in the air. Even the heat of the fire started again.

"Come here, Rose." The old woman said.

Rose opened her eyes and saw that this time two of them were sitting in front of her, beside the big black bowl.

"H-How did you two come inside?" Rose saw fire around her; she could not believe that they came there inside, crossing the fire.

"It is not time to talk about these. Come here and take the knife, Rose." The old woman said. Rose could see the old woman's green eyes in the light of the fire.

She looked at Delilah and hers were the same.

Rose took the knife and asked,

"Now what do I have to do with this knife?"

Rose was holding up the knife. It was full of blood.

The old woman then replied,

"CUT YOUR PALM DEEP AND POUR A FEW DROPS OF YOUR BLOOD ON THE WATER."

Chapter 28 Heal So Fast

Rose was shocked when she heard what Delilah's grandma said.

"Cut my palm?" She asked confusingly.

"Yes, Rose. Please do it fast. We don't have much time." Delilah told her.

Rose slowly lifted the knife up and looked at it. The knife was smeared with blood. Her hand was shaking when she took the knife close to her left hand.

"No. Not your left hand. You have to cut your right palm." The old woman said.

Rose took the knife in her left hand and put it close to her right palm. She slowly cut her palm. She was shaking and the knife didn't cut deep.

"Cut deep. You have to pour a lot of drops." The old woman instructed her.

Rose closed her eyes and thought, 'For Rosalie, I can do anything.' Then she took a deep breath and cut her palm deep. She felt pain in her palm but she fisted it and poured a few drops of her blood."

"Now dip your hand in the pot and close your eyes. Don't open your eyes or pull out your hand before I tell you to do that."

Rose dipped her right hand in the water of the big black pot and closed her eyes.

Delilah and her grandma started to chant their spells again. This time Rose could feel the storm and it was destroying everything. She could feel the storm inside her. She was feeling numb. She felt a quick pain in her palm. And it started to increase more and more.

"AAAHHH! M-My hand! Grandma." She screamed.

"Don't pull out your hand or open your eyes, no matter what." Delilah and her grandma said together, as if it was also another spell.

Rose could feel the pain coming inside her through her hand. She felt pain in her heart. She was suffering the pain again that she felt the night of her birthday. The pain of rejection.

Rose felt like everything was pushing her to pull out the hand and open her eyes. The whole hut was upside down. She could feel that even if her eyes were closed.

But Rose tried her best. Tears rolled from her closing eyes nonchalantly. She put her left hand on her heart and clutched her white dress. She was feeling unbearable pain. This much pain she could not realize even existed. Yet she didn't open her eyes. Her hand was trembling in the water. It was hot when she touched it the first time, but this time it was cold. The temperature of the room was high but the water was cold enough to numb her hand.

Meanwhile, Delilah was struggling to spell and sat down straight. She almost fainted. Her nose was bleeding. But she didn't stop.

After some time, Rose felt everything had stopped.

She could not feel anything around her anymore. Everything was silent. She wanted to see what happened.

However, she felt a pang in her chest. She felt severe pain. She started to have breathing problems. She could not breathe. She fainted while her hand was still in the water.

The hut became dark when everything stopped.

But after Rose fainted, all the candles lit up again.

The old woman looked tired. She glanced at the black water pot. The water was not black anymore. It became clear water. She sighed in relief.

"Delilah took her to the bed and let her rest. She felt a lot of pain tonight."

Delilah managed to take Rose to their small double bed. She laid her down and put the quilt over her.

When Delilah turned. Her grandma gasped. "My dear, Your nose. Come here. I am giving you a potion. Drink it and take some rest. You did hard work tonight. I am proud of you."

Delilah chugged down the potion. She took that after every new experiment. It was like medicine for witches.

In the morning,

Rose woke up with a sore throat and pain all over her body. She sat up and looked around. No one was there in the hut.

She was about to stand up when Delilah entered the hut. "Rose, finally you wake up."

"Delilah, how long have I been sleeping?"

"What do you mean?" Delilah frowned at her.

"I woke up after three days when my mate rejected me. I felt the same when you and grandma did that witchcraft even though I felt more pain. Tell me how many days later I woke up? What about my mom? Did you contact her? There is no connection, right? She must be searching me." Rose panicked when she thought about her mom.

"Don't panic, Rose. You did not sleep for a long time. We did all those crafts last night. You just woke up late in the morning. That is it." Delilah said.

"Really?" Rose asked with her sore throat.

"Yes. And you are totally okay now." Delilah's grandma entered and replied to her.

"What do you mean, Grandma?" Rose asked with confusion.

"Grandma means we succeeded last night." Delilah said.

"You, You mean Rosalie is back to me?? Are you telling me the truth, Delilah?" Rose was crying happily.

Delilah smiled at Rose and hugged her. "Don't cry, my friend. I am not lying to you. Your wolf is back."

Rose closed her eyes and more tears rolled down from her eyes.

"I can't believe I can have her back. I had lost my every hope." Rose sobbed.

Rose looked at Delilah's Grandma. She went to her and hugged her like a child. "Thank you, grandma. I don't have my grandma but you really filled her place."

She patted her hair and said, "No worries, child. From today, I am your grandma too. You can come to me for any help. I will always be there for you."

Rose nodded at grandma.

"Now go and get fresh. I will make a cup of tea for you." Grandma said.

Rose freshened up and wore what she wore last night before changing into a white dress.

She glanced at the white dress. It had blood stains.

She went back to Delilah and her grandma.

They sat on the couch. "Grandma, when will she be back?" Rose was talking about her wolf.

"Don't worry, she will talk with you soon. Give her some time." Grandma assured her and Rose nodded.

"Here. Drink this ginger honey tea. It is good for the throat."

Rose was about to take the cup from Grandma.

However, Grandma didn't give her the cup, but she took her right palm and asked her,

"HOW CAN YOUR PALM BE SO CLEAR? HOW DID YOUR DEEP WOUND HEAL SO FAST?"

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 29 A Wolf Is Following Her

"HOW CAN YOUR PALM BE SO CLEAR? HOW DID YOUR DEEP WOUND HEAL SO FAST?"

Rose looked at her palm, it was healed indeed. "I-I don't know grandma." She replied.

Grandma stared at her palm for a few seconds, then she released her hand. She took the cup of tea and gave it to Rose. Rose took the cup and asked, "Grandma, is there any problem with my palm?"

Grandma shook her head and smiled, "No dear. It's not a problem. It's a good thing that you healed fast. Now drink your tea otherwise it will get cold."

Rose nodded and drank the tea.

Rose talked with Delilah for some time. She didn't want to go to their university today. "Tomorrow is the weekend. I don't want to go to our university today." Rose said to Delilah.

"You are right. I don't want either. It's late already and I am tired too. Let's go there after the weekend." Delilah said.

Alice nodded at her and sent a message to Alice that she would not come to university today.

Grandma told Rose to have lunch with them. Rose said okay.

After having lunch, Rose left the hut. Delilah went with her to the main road. Rose looked at Delilah. "Thanks, Delilah. I doubted you. But what you did for me is unplayable. I can't pay your debts in my whole life."

Delilah hugged her. "Don't worry. Just be my friend. You are my first friend whom I trust so much and tried to help. I was lonely because I am a witch but you accepted my friendship. Thank you. And I am happy to help you." Delilah said.

Rose smiled at her and told her that they would meet the day after tomorrow.

When Rose reached her home, she saw her mother had come already.

"Mom"

"Today you came from your university early. You always come home at least one hour later."

"Come on, I was not at university."

Selena frowned at her. "What do you mean, Rose? Where were you?"

"I was at my friend's house last night."

"Alice?"

"No mom."

"Then what friend? Mark?" Selena asked.

"No mom! What are you saying? I was at Delilah's home. She is one of my good friends. It was a girls' night."

"Then why didn't you tell me?"

"Mom, I thought you would worry about me. I don't want to disturb you."

"Okay. But next time tell me before going anywhere."

"Okay, mom."

"Did you have your lunch?"

"Yes, mom. Delilah's grandmother is a great cook. She didn't let me leave without having lunch."

Selena smiled at her daughter. Rose was looking happy today. She liked her daughter's happy face.

Rose went to her room and spent all day thinking about last night. She was waiting for her wolf to talk with her.

That night when Rose fell asleep, she had another dream. It was the same dream she had seen before. This time she entered the hut. She went to a circle and sat there without anyone's direction.

Though in her dream her eyes were closed, Rose could see everything that happened around her. The fire around her. Suddenly, a woman wearing a long black cloth appeared in front of her.

Rose could see herself in her dream. The woman told her something.

"Child, you wanted your wolf back when you knew it was against your law. You wanted to break your law and yearned back your wolf."

Rose didn't open her eyes and said,

"I didn't break any law, it was the Alpha who broke it. I told him to consider our bond but he rejected me knowing everything."

"I know everything, dear. You and your wolf had to bear so much pain and consequences on behalf of others' mistakes. So, this time, the Moon Goddess gives you power for your patience."

"Power? And who are you?"

"I am Caroline Olsen. The highest ranked witch who has the power of versatility."

"Can I open my eyes?"

"No, you can't see me. However, you have two of my powers. You will get to know about it. But try to use it properly. "

"What are you saying?"

"Just remember one thing: use your heart, not your brain. Your fate will reverse everything for you. It will reverse your pain and suffering for the one who gave all of this to you. But you have to be strong until your heart conveys something."

Rose was confused in her dream. She wanted herself to open her eyes and look at the woman.

But when she opened her eyes she was in her bed.

Rose immediately sat up on the bed. "What is happening to me? What was that woman saying? Powers? What powers were she talking about?"

She could not understand anything. She was sweating. "I am in a mess. What should I do?"

Rose put both of her palms on her face. She was confused about everything. But suddenly she heard a voice which made her shocked.

"Rose"

"Rosalie. Where were you, Rosalie? I thought I had lost you."

"I was inside you, Rose." Rosalie replied.

"I am so happy, Rosalie. I can't believe you are back to me. I thought you were gone. I lost every hope to live."

"Rose."

"Yes, Rosalie."

"Let's go for a run." Rosalie requested.

Rose understood that her wolf needed to be free. So she agreed with her wolf.

Rose silently went out of her home. She didn't disturb her mom. She went to the forest and let her wolf take over her.

Rose shifted into her wolf form. With the white fur and blue eyes, anybody could say how beautiful the wolf was. But she never shifted in front of anyone except her mom. Her mom didn't let her shift in front of anyone because she was an unmated Omega. It would be dangerous for her.

The white wolf started to run into the dark forest. The wolf felt alive again. She was caged inside for days.

Rose was feeling refreshed when the air touched her wolf's fur.

Suddenly, a loud growling was heard.

The white wolf got scared and began to run fast. She started going back to where she was coming from.

But crunching hit her ears. She understood maybe a wolf was following her. She ran fast and came close to the house then shifted back to where she put her clothes before shifting.

Rose wore her clothes while huffing. She immediately went inside her home and closed the door. She sighed and ran to her room.

She thought it was a rogue who followed her. So she felt relaxed that she didn't get caught by any rogue.

During the weekend, Rose was at her home and didn't go anywhere. She was tired for some reason. She guessed that it was because of witchcraft.

She talked with Delilah and thanked her again. She talked with Alice and told her about everything. Alice was very happy for her.

The next morning, Rose woke up early. She got ready to go to university. She went downstairs and saw her mom had already made breakfast for her.

"Mom." She went to her and kissed her cheek.

"Every day you go to university without having your breakfast. So today I woke up early for you. How did you wake up early today? Did the sun rise from the west today?" Selena asked.

Rose laughed at her mom's words. "Mom. Don't tease me. I am happy today."

"I am glad that you are happy." Selena smiled.

Rose grinned at her and sat on a chair then had her breakfast.

Rose said goodbye to her mom and went to take a bus at the bus stand. She took a bus and sat on a seat. She was delighted today because from today her life would be the same as before. No more worries, no more tensions, only a relaxing life.

Rose arrived at university and entered her university.

She searched for Alice and Delilah. Then she messaged them that she had arrived. Alice told her that she was there so she was coming to her. And Delilah said she was coming to university soon.

Alice went to Rose and hugged her. "I missed you. I almost didn't see you for half a week. "

"I was so tired that I could not meet you outside."
Rose replied.

"It's okay. But I am happy for you, Rossy." Alice said.

"It's all because of Delilah and her grandma. They are good people."

"Yes, you are right." Alice said and nodded.

"Yes. You go to the class and I am coming."

"Where are you going, Rossy?"

"I forgot to take out my books from my locker." Rose replied.

"Oh okay. Come soon." Alice said.

Rose nodded at her and then left from there.

She went to her locker and opened it. She took out her schedule and took out her book as the schedule.

She saw the entrance and the hallway were empty. Every student went to their class. It was class time.

Rose fixed all the books and locked her locker.

She started to walk to her class. But suddenly a hand pulled her and she bumped into a hard chest.

She heard a deep voice whisper in her left ear.

"MATE?"

Chapter 30 Her Scent Has Changed

Arvan came to the university early today. He was not looking okay. He didn't sleep properly last night. He went for a run last night. But he smelled something strange. He followed the smell and saw a beautiful white wolf. He could not control RV, so he followed the white wolf from afar and growled. But the wolf got scared and started to run away. RV followed her but lost the way to find her. She was fast. How could a wolf be that much faster than him?

Arvan thought about last night and shook his head. He came out of his car after parking it. He called Liam, who was angry with him. Arvan sighed. He didn't want to fight with his best friend, but the situation every time turned into that and they ended up fighting.

Liam received the call.

"Hello."

"Where are you?" Arvan asked.

"I am on the way to University." Liam replied.

"Okay, come fast. I am at the University."

"Okay, I am coming." Liam said while driving.

Arvan cut the call and entered the University.

He went to the cafe and sat there. He checked his phone and started working.

He was the head Alpha. He had so much work to do. People thought that he was a young man and a university student so he was living a great chilling life. But that was not true because he had to do so much work daily. At this age, he had to work and study together. But again, he was the True Blood Alpha. He had the power of strength more than any other werewolf. So he could manage everything together.

He worked for some time. He saw Liam entering the cafe with Rita. They came to him. They sat at the table. "You came early today." Liam said.

"Yeah." Arvan replied.

Rita didn't look at Arvan, and tried to ignore him. Arvan noticed it.

"I apologize for Lina's behavior." Arvan told her.

Rita was shocked. She could not believe her ears. Alpha Arvan was apologizing to her. Nice.

"No, it's okay, Arvan. You don't have to apologize for others."

Arvan shook his head. "No, I told her to behave. She said she will. So I hope everything will not be uncomfortable like before."

Rita didn't say anything, just listened to him.

When it was time for the first class. They stood up and walked out of the cafe.

But Arvan stopped his steps. He felt the same smell that he felt last night. He almost stopped breathing. He frowned and looked around him.

Liam and Rita looked at each other when they saw Arvan stop walking. "What happened?" Liam asked.

Arvan shook his head and said, "Nothing. You two go to the class. I will join you soon." Then he left from there. Liam and Rita were confused. Then they headed to their class to attend.

Arvan was searching the whole university for the owner of the scent. It was an alluring and addictive scent that started to affect him.

Arvan followed the smell and went to the locker room. He saw someone leaving. He frowned. RV was growling inside and started to chant, "Mate. Mate. Mate."

Arvan went to the girl and pulled her to him. He confusingly whispered into her ear,

"Mate?"

The owner of the scent turned around and looked at him. Then he saw her face. His eyes widened.

Rose looked at the person who pulled her. It was Alpha Arvan.

'What mate? Does he still think I am his mate after the horrible rejection? No, I can not let this man come close to me again. I have to avoid him and I will.'

Rose thought.

Rose looked down at Arvan's hand. He didn't leave her hand after pulling her. Rose snatched her hand back and said,

"Excuse me?"

Then she didn't wait for Arvan's reply and walked out from there. She went to her class. She was late because of Arvan. She entered the class room and said sorry to the professor. Likewise, she went to her seat, which was beside Alice.

"Why did you come late?" Alice whispered.

"Because The Alpha Arvan bumped into me today." Rose replied and fakely smiled at Alice.

Meanwhile, Arvan was shocked when he looked at Rose. He could not reply to her when she turned around and left. He was very confused.

'I rejected her, how can she still be my mate? I don't understand what is going on. Why does she smell different? Was it her? Was she the one I saw last night?'

All the questions came to his mind and he got furious.

He went to his class and opened the class's door. Everyone was stunned and the professor got angry. But when he saw it was the head Alpha, he shut his mouth. Everyone was scared when they saw Arvan was not in a good mood. Rita and Liam looked at each other confusingly.

Arvan went to his seat and sat down there. The professor started his lecture again. Arvan didn't give any attention to the class, all he thought about was Rose.

After classes, Rose, Alice, and Delilah went to the cafe.

They sat and talked about how Rose got back her wolf and how Rosalie was now okay. They were pleased now. Alice thanked Delilah for her help.

"Thank you, Delilah, you helped Rose. Otherwise, we don't know what will happen to her."

"No, it's okay you two are now my friends. I can help my friends. There is nothing to be thankful about."

They chatted for some time and left for their home. Delilah went to the dorm. She lived there in the dormitory and went to her grandma on the weekend.

Arvan went back to the pack house after all the classes. He was distracted all the day.

At night, he called Liam into his office room. Liam came to his office. He told Liam everything.

"What are you saying?" Liam was shocked as well.

"I am telling you the truth. I am confused too."

"But you said you didn't feel her smell at all after rejection, but suddenly how can you smell her scent again?" Liam asked.

"No. Her scent, that is the main trouble. It is not the same scent as before my rejection. Before, her scent was different. How different she smelled before but now it is totally unique. I can not explain it to you. It is addictive. I could not control myself and pulled her today. If I knew it was her, I wouldn't do that."

Liam sighed. " Stop controlling yourself, Arvan. Let everything happen what destiny decides for you. You broke the rule and didn't listen to me. No, I don't know what to do."

"Just go and find out what is happening. I don't care how you will do that. I rejected her, but still, my wolf called her my mate. Why??" Arvan said angrily.

"Okay. I will try to find out. Don't worry." Liam replied.

The next morning, Arvan went to the university early again. This time he willingly went there early.

Lina came to the University today. She came and sat beside Arvan.

"Arvan, I was sick yesterday. That is why I could not come to our university. But why didn't you call me for once?" Lina asked with an upset look.

"I was busy yesterday." Arvan said without looking at her.

"Are you still angry with me?" Lina asked and went close to him.

Arvan looked at her and replied, "Don't forget to apologize to Liam and Rita. I don't want any bullshit again."

Lina nodded at him. "Yes, Yes. I will." Then she hugged Arvan.

Arvan hugged her back. This woman was an Alpha female. She had a mate but she refused her mate for him. Everyone thought that he had no mate, so she broke the mate bond with that man and stayed with him. That was why Lina had a place in his heart. He could not hurt her.

Arvan glanced at Lina but when he looked up, he saw Rose. She saw them but didn't react and left the cafe.

Arvan pushed Lina and stood up immediately. "What happened, Arvan?" Lina asked.

"I have something to do. I am leaving." Then he left the cafe and followed Rose.

Rose came to grab breakfast because her mom went to her work early today.

When Rose was about to go for an order in the cafe she saw Arvan and Lina sitting and hugging each other. She didn't want it to affect herself, so she didn't order and left the cafe.

Someone grabbed her hand and started to pull the opposite side of her way. She looked at the person and saw it was Arvan.

"What are you doing?" She shouted at him.

Arvan didn't reply.

"Leave my hand." Rose said coldly.

Arvan took her to a quiet place. It was the place behind their university.

Arvan left her hand and looked at her.

"What?" Rose asked.

"I will ask you some questions, I want clear answers."
Arvan said coldly.

"What question?"

"How did your scent suddenly change? Did something happen to your wolf? That is why the smell has changed?" Arvan asked.

"That is none of your business." Rose replied.

"Don't forget that I am the head Alph-"

Rose didn't let him complete his sentence and said,

"Yes, you are the head Alpha but I am not bound to answer you about my personal life.

BECAUSE NOW, YOU ARE NOBODY TO ME,
ARVAN BLACK."
