

CAN'T LET YOU GO, MATE

Chapter 31 Now It's Your Time

"Yes, you are the head Alpha but I am not bound to answer you about my personal life.

BECAUSE NOW, YOU ARE NOBODY TO ME, ARVAN BLACK."

Arvan was stunned by Rose's sudden courage. He got furious with her attitude. He glared at her. He observed her. She was looking beautiful today as if her beauty was blooming. Arvan scolded himself inside. He could not think like that. She was his rejected mate.

Rose saw Arvan was glaring at her and did not say anything. So she slightly pushed him and walked out of the place.

Arvan was looking at her back. "This is the second time you dared to turn your back to me, Rose Lee." Arvan said with his gritted teeth.

"It was your fault, Arvan." RV said.

Arvan frowned. His wolf never supported him when he rejected Rose. His wolf wanted his fated mate only.

"No, it's not. What I did was needed. She doesn't deserve us. Can't you just see how she behaves towards me? Such a mannerless woman!"

"Then how would she behave when you rejected her knowingly? You knew she had to bear the consequences but you didn't show any mercy to our mate." RV scolded him.

"She is not our mate anymore." Arvan reminded him.

"No, She is our mate. I can feel our bond. It is affecting you too. Can't you see?"

"I have to know about all the things that are happening." Arvan said and left the university.

He didn't inform anyone where he was going. He drove the car and stopped in front of an old house.

He parked his car on the side of the road. He got out of his car and went to the house. He knocked on the door.

The door was opened by an old man. His hair was white but his skin was rough. He looked old but didn't look powerless.

"Alpha?" The old man was shocked when he saw who had come to his house.

"Elias."

"Please, Alpha, come inside." Elias said.

Arvan entered his house. It was not a big but a cozy house. Arvan went to the couch and sat there.

Elias went to the kitchen and made a cup of coffee for him.

He came out of the kitchen and gave Arvan a cup of coffee.

Arvan looked at the cup and said, "I only drink double espresso."

Elias said, "My apology Alpha. I will come with an espresso."

Arvan stopped him. "No need for that. Just sit here. I came here to talk with you."

Elias nodded and sat on the opposite couch where Arvan was sitting.

Arvan looked at Elias. He was the pack's ancient advisor. He had the power to solve the hidden problems. He told Arvan's father that Arvan would be one of the powerful Alpha in the future. Indeed, he became the powerful Alpha.

"Tell me, how can I help you?" Elias said.

"I rejected my mate." Arvan said with a blank face.

Elias immediately stood up. "WHAT???"

Arvan glared at him. He instantly sat down again. No matter how old he was, in front of a true blood Alpha, he was nothing.

"Please continue." He said.

Arvan continued, " I rejected her because she doesn't fit for me or my wolf. She is a weak Omega. How can she rule my pack with me? How can I give the power to an Omega? She can not even fight with any Beta or Alpha females. Then why would I accept her?"

Elias was listening to him carefully.

"I thought after rejection everything would be over between us. And I felt that way too. I could not even smell her as her head Alpha, I don't know why. But after some time, I again started to smell her scent. This time her smell is very different from before. It is not the same anymore." Arvan explained.

He told Elias about his confusion. "I thought she is not my mate anymore. But yesterday my wolf called her my mate. He is continuously telling me that she is still my mate. What is happening? But one more thing, she didn't look the same. Her beauty is changing too. She didn't react to me as my mate. It looks like only my wolf is after her wolf."

Elias thought for some time and said, "How can I help you with this matter, Alpha?"

"I don't know, but just tell me what is happening to me. And why is she changing? Why am I still feeling the bond?" Arvan asked.

"How can I tell you why she is changing? But I can tell you about your problem." Elias said.

Arvan nodded at him.

"Alpha, you told me at first that you rejected your mate. But who told you that your rejection was successful?" Elias asked.

Arvan frowned at him. "What do you mean?"

Elias smiled at him. "Your rejection was not valid from the very first. The law is that if any Alpha rejects his mate, his mate will have to bear the consequences. Do you know what consequences the mate has to bear?"

Arvan was silent.

Elias continued. "She has to lose her wolf. Her wolf stopped every bond with her and hid inside her forever. Day by day the wolf will be weak and one day the wolf will go away from her."

Arvan was startled. He remembered how Rose was unconscious for three days in his pack house.

"But she didn't lose her wolf. Otherwise, how can I smell her?" Arvan said.

Elias nodded at him. "Maybe she is strong enough to bear the consequences and fight back. But it is not possible that she didn't feel anything. She has to survive unbearable pain for you."

Arvan was quietly listening to him.

"You rejected your mate and she bore the consequences. But fortunately, she fought back and her wolf is okay. So now it's your time."

"What do you mean?"

"Now it's your time to bear the consequences."

Arvan raised one eyebrow. "What consequences?"

"She will not feel the mate bond from now because of your rejection. But she didn't reject you so you will still feel the bond. However, this time the bond will be stronger for you to resist." Elias explained.

"What if she rejects me?" Arvan asked.

Elias shook his head. "Alpha, you are very strong and powerful. Your wolf is a part and parcel of your life. We werewolves are nothing without our wolves. Living without our wolf is like living dead."

Arvan sighed. "What are you trying to say?"

"If she rejects you, you will lose your wolf forever. You have no other option than to accept her."

Arvan stared at him. "Are you serious?"

"Yes, Alpha. It is your fate. It is her fate to be your Luna. Nobody can change it. You have to accept her until it's too late."

Arvan didn't say anything for a long time. He left Elias's house.

He got into his car and started his car. He was driving while thinking about what Elias had told him.

"I can't believe my life would be in a mess like this. I have to do something."

Arvan drove the car and it stopped in front of Rose's house. He looked at the house for some time. It was late at night. 'What if her mother doesn't like it?

I am the Alpha of this pack, I can do anything.' He said to himself. Then he got out of his car and went to Rose's house.

He knocked on the door. Selena Lee opened the door.

"Mrs. Lee." Arvan greeted her.

Selena's eyes widened. "Alpha! Please come inside."

Arvan nodded and entered the house.

He unknowingly wanted to smell Rose. But he could not smell her scent.

Selena told him to sit and she made a double espresso for him. Arvan smiled at her. "You know me really well."

Selena told him last time that her mother told her about his coffee.

Arvan took a sip and asked her. "Is everything okay?"

Selena nodded. "Yes, everything is okay now."

Arvan frowned, "Now?"

"Yeah. After Rose's birthday incident, she was silent. Day by day she was lost. She still didn't tell me what happened to her that night. I was worried about her."

"Don't worry, everything will be fine." Arvan consoled her.

"Everything is going normal now. She looks happy nowadays. Maybe it's because of Mark." Selena said and smiled.

"Mark?" Arvan frowned.

Selena nodded her head. "Mark is Alice's cousin. He is Rose's friend too. When Rose was abroad, they became friends. I think Mark likes Rose."

Arvan was sipping his espresso but paused when he heard that.

"Like?"

"Yeah, Mark likes Rose. I know that. Alice told me once when Rose was abroad. Alice said to me that Mark would express his feelings but at that time, Rose's father was alive. So I didn't tell Rose anything about Mark but told her not to accept anyone's proposal. Her father would not like it.

But now her father is not with us. There is no man who can protect her. She needs a loyal man who will love her and protect her. So, as a mother, I want her to settle in her life with someone." Selena said and sighed.

Arvan was looking at his espresso. "What about her mate?"

"Alpha, I think her mate rejected her, that was why her condition was like that before. I know my daughter. She didn't tell me anything because she didn't want me to worry about her."

Arvan nodded at her and continued to drink espresso.

"Where is your daughter?" He asked.

"She is out with her friends. But she will be back soon. Let me prepare dinner. Please have dinner with us today." Selena tried to convince him.

Arvan agreed with her, then she went to the kitchen.

Suddenly, he heard sounds from outside. When the bell rang in the house. Selena was about to open the door when Arvan stopped her,

"I will open the door, you can go to the kitchen to prepare dinner." Selena nodded and went back to the kitchen.

Arvan opened the door and saw Rose and the man named Mark laughing and talking with each other. He recognized the boy who had taken Rose into the club at Taylor's birthday party.

Rose told Mark,

"DON'T WORRY MARK. I WILL BE YOUR DATE AT THE PARTY."

Chapter 32 Can Only Be Happy With Mate

"DON'T WORRY MARK. I WILL BE YOUR DATE AT THE PARTY."

Rose looked and smiled at Mark. She turned to her house's main door but her smile froze. She frowned.

'What is he doing in my house? Maybe he came here to talk with mom about pack related matters.'

Rose ignored Arvan and went inside her house. She didn't even greet him.

Arvan got angry. Just then he looked at Mark. He glared at him. Mark was feeling nervous in front of the head Alpha. He didn't understand why the head Alpha always came between him and Rose.

Rose looked behind and saw Arvan didn't let Mark enter her house.

"Mark, please come. What are you doing outside?"
Rose said.

Mark lowered his head and entered the house. Arvan looked mad.

Selena saw Mark had come.

"Hello, Mrs. Lee." Mark greeted.

"Hello, Mark. How are you?"

"I am fine. How is your health?"

"Yeah, totally okay. Now come and have dinner with us. Did you eat from outside?"

"We ate two hours ago. So yeah, hungry mom. Let's go." Rose said and went with Mark to the table and sat beside each other.

Selena went to Arvan and told him to come and sit on the head chair.

"But mom, that is dad's chair." Rose showed objection.

"It's okay, my child. If your father was here, he would have done the same. The Alpha's respect is the main priority for us. He is the head of all our families in our pack."

Rose nodded. She didn't want to argue about anything.

Arvan went to the table and sat on the head chair. He sat in the head chair in his pack house too, though his father was still alive. It was a rule of manners that showed the head Alpha's respect. A Head Alpha not only supported his pack, but every family of the pack depended on him.

Selena moved dishes and served to Arvan. Then she sat on a chair with them.

Everyone was silently eating.

Mark passed the dish of white pasta to Rose.

"You like creamy pasta, right?"

Rose smiled at him. "You still remember that?"

"Of course, I remember. How can I forget that incident?" Mark laughed.

"What incident?" Selena asked.

"Mrs. Lee, your daughter is very childish. Once we went to have dinner when we were abroad. She was late, so I called her and asked what I should order for her. She told me to order a white creamy pasta. I ordered pasta. When she arrived, she waited for the food to be served. When the waiter came with our food she looked at the pasta and frowned. The waiter forgot about the pasta flavor and came with naga pasta.

She scolded the waiter and explained to the young man for five minutes about the difference between naga pasta and white pasta."

Rose put her palm on her face. "I was so silly."

Mark patted her head. "It's okay, silly girl."

Selena laughed at them. She was happy that Mark was a caring guy and cared for her daughter.

Arvan was watching everything. Nobody could tell what he was thinking or feeling. He glared at Mark and asked, "How many days have you here, Mark Harrison?"

Mark stopped eating and looked at Arvan.

"I am here for some more days, Alpha. But I am planning for something and if I succeed, I will live here forever." Mark said while looking at Rose.

Rose was eating and listening to them.

"Hope you will succeed, Mark." Selena said.

"Thanks, Mrs. Lee." Mark said.

Arvan frowned at him. 'Why the hell is he always with my mate? He was with her at the club and now he has come with her to her house!'

Arvan paused. Did he just call Rose his mate? Arvan shook his head and continued to eat.

After dinner, Mark said goodbye to Selena.

"Come again. You helped Rose with her studies and took care of her a lot. Thanks for taking care of her."

Mark smiled. "She is my very close friend. I must take care of her."

Selena nodded. Mark turned to Arvan. "I am leaving, Alpha. It was nice to meet you again." Arvan looked at him and nodded.

Mark left the house and Rose went to see him off to the entrance. Arvan and Selena looked at them. They looked like they were talking about something.

'They talked so much. They just come from outside together. Now they have another thing to talk about?' Arvan thought.

"Mark is a good boy, right?" Selena asked Arvan.

Arvan turned his head to Selena. "Why?"

"I think Mark is a nice guy. He never thinks about Rose's rank. They have been friends for a long time. I think he knows her better. Otherwise, why is Rose so happy after he comes back? I just hope Rose will accept him soon." Selena said.

Arvan turned his head to Rose and Mark again. He was glaring at them from inside the house. He could see how Mark looked at her.

"Mrs. Lee, don't you think a mate bond is stronger than another bond like friendship?" Arvan asked.

Selena also looked back at them. "Yes, you are right. But his mate rejected her. So-

"What if you are wrong? What if their mate bond is still there? Then what?"

Selena slowly turned her head to Arvan. "What do you mean, Alpha?"

"I think she is mature enough to take her decisions, so don't try to force her to make anything."

Before Selena could reply, she saw Mark driving away and Rose coming back. So she stopped talking. She didn't want her daughter to listen to all of this and get hurt about anything.

Rose came back and saw Arvan there standing beside her mom. Rose said, "Mom, I am very tired. I am going to my room. Goodnight."

She didn't say anything to Arvan and went to her room without looking at him. When she entered her room she was confused. 'Why is this man following me? He was asking me about my private matters. And now he has come to my home? But Why? Just when I thought everything was okay, now he started to create problems. Why??' Rose punched one of her pillows as if it was Arvan and said, "Arvan Black, stay away from me and my mom."

Then Rose went to the bathroom to get fresh. She changed her clothes into a night dress. She knocked over on the bed and fell asleep.

Meanwhile, Arvan looked upstairs at the door of Rose's room. He heard, "I apologize on behalf of her again, Alpha. She is a child. Please forgive her. She didn't try to disrespect you, she is just naive." Selena apologized to him.

Arvan nodded at her. "It's okay.

"But let me tell you one thing, Mrs. Lee."

Selena nodded to him. "Yes, Alpha?"

"SHE CAN ONLY BE HAPPY WITH HER MATE."

Chapter 33 Power Of Healing

"SHE CAN ONLY BE HAPPY WITH HER MATE."

Selena was confused when she heard Arvan's words. But then she thought Arvan believed in fated mates because he was an Alpha, so she didn't reply but just nodded her head.

Arvan left Rose's house. He got in his car and started to drive. He went there today because he thought he could talk with Rose about all the things he heard from the ancient advisor. But Rose turned her back to him again. She didn't let him talk and went to her room.

That Mark guy was always with Rose. That made Arvan angry. He went back to the pack house.

He called Liam to his office and told him about what Elias, the ancient advisor, told him.

"You mean you can't reject her anymore? She is your permanent mate?" Liam asked with a smile.

Arvan glared at him. "Why are you so happy, dude? Can't you see I am in a mess right now? I don't like that woman. I don't have any idea what happened to her and what the consequences I have now to bear."

"No, it's your punishment. And you like her now but can't understand it."

"Now you are talking like Elias. Are you sure you are my best friend? Because looking at your behavior, I don't think so."

"I am telling you, Arvan. Just give your heart a chance. She is a good girl."

"She is not an eighteen years old teenager. Why are you continuously calling her a girl? She passed her twenty years." Arvan said.

"Oh please, she is younger than you."

"Did you just call me old?"

"Of course. Just imagine what she is thinking. She thinks it was good that her old mate rejected her otherwise she had to mate with an old man."

"Don't forget you are the same age as me."

"Yeah, then I am old too." Liam said and laughed.

"Don't be so happy. I don't like her. I will try to ignore her. Hope it will work."

"It won't work, Arvan. You have tried this before."

"Now I have to do something else."

"What if she rejects you?" Liam asked.

"I don't know anything, Liam. Why is this happening to me?" Arvan said anxiously.

"Don't worry, everything will be fine, Arvan."

"I won't let her reject me, but at the same time, I don't want to get close to her. I don't like her. For this mate bond, I don't want to forcefully like anyone." Arvan said to Liam.

Liam shook his head. His friend was something else. Liam didn't understand how Arvan managed everything in the pack but he could not even manage his personal life now.

The next morning, Rose went to the University. Alice, Delilah, and She went to the cafe after classes. She told them that Arvan had come to her home last night. Delilah understood the first day that maybe Arvan was Rose's mate. Now they were friends, so no secret.

"Why did that bastard go to your home? I will punch him." Alice said.

"It's okay, maybe he came to talk with my mom. I didn't give him any attention. I went directly to my room when Mark left." Rose said.

"Who is Mark, Rose?" Delilah asked.

"Mark is Alice's cousin. He is one of my good friends." Rose replied.

Rose looked at Alice who was munching nachos and asked, "By the way, Alice. Mark told me about his cousin's birthday. He invited me and I agreed to go with him. Are you going there?"

"No, Rossy." Alice replied.

"But why? I thought it was your cousin too. So I agreed to go there with him." Rose said.

"Actually, the cousin he was talking about is his paternal cousin. I am his maternal cousin. So I don't talk with his other cousins." Alice explained.

Rose was upset. "But I agreed with him. What would I do without you there? I don't know any of them. I will feel bored and lonely."

"Don't worry, he will always be with you. Otherwise, I will give him a good beat." Alice said.

Hearing her words, Delilah laughed. "You are so funny, Alice."

"No, I am not funny Delilah, I am serious." Alice said while making her face serious. Rose laughed at her face. Then the three of them laughed together. It was a good moment for them.

Suddenly, Rose felt strange. She was happy but she was feeling somehow an unknown emotion. She ignored her feelings and kept talking with her two best friends.

At noon, Rose left University and was going to her home. She waited for a bus at the bus stand but there were no buses there.

So she started to walk to the second bus stand. When she came close to the bus stand, she saw a bus was leaving from there after taking passengers.

Rose started to run to catch the bus but she bumped into a passerby. She fell down and whizzed. The passerby didn't help her but went ahead.

Rose was sitting on the ground. She tried to stand up but she hissed when she felt pain in her knee. She looked at her knees and saw her left knee was scratched. She looked at her right palm and saw it was also scratched and it was bleeding.

She touched her right palm with her left because she was feeling pain. But when she caressed her right palm, she saw her palm was healed in the blink of an eye.

Rose was shocked. She could not believe her eyes. "How is that possible? How can I heal by just pressing my palm on it?"

She stood up and looked around her. There was no one beside her. She felt relaxed that no one had watched it. Otherwise, it would not be good.

She went to her home by cab. She didn't want to waste her mother's money just to use it on a cab when she could go anywhere by bus at a low price. But today her legs were in pain. So it's okay for today.

Alice went to her home and she saw there was no one. Her mom did not come back from her office.

Rose went to her room and lied down on the bed without changing her clothes.

After some time, she sat and asked Rosalie,

"Rosalie, how can I heal so fast? I can run fast too."

"You are powerful, Rose."

"No, I am not. How can you say that when there are people who get rejected because they are not a high ranking wolf?"

Rose said to her wolf.

"Rose, do you forget about the woman in your dream?" Rosalie asked.

"No."

"What did she say to you?"

"About our rejection and some power I got-" Rose stopped when she realized what Rosalie was trying to remind her. "You mean power?"

"Yes. You are powerful now, Rose."

Rose could not believe that she had got some serious power. However Grandma and Delilah said they didn't have the power to heal so fast.

But then Rose remembered what the woman said.

"The Moon Goddess is repaying you for your pain and patience."

Rose was happy. She could not believe what to feel.

Does she have the healing power? 'Am I a witch now?" Rose asked herself. But Rosalie replied, "The woman told you that it was your gift from the Moon Goddess for your patience. So you are not a witch but you have gained the power of Witches." Rose nodded her head. "Unbelievable."

She put her hand on her left knee and caressed it then saw it had gone.

"Rosalie, this is unimaginable. I am a normal Omega who has gained the power of a Witch!"

Meanwhile, in the pack house,

Arvan called for a pack meeting.

"Prepare everything for the ball. We have to make the best arrangements, like every year. We can not disappoint our guests.

"What about the invitations?" A pack member asked.

"Send an invitation to each and every Alpha. We want everyone to enjoy our ball. Who has never been invited here, invite them this year." Arvan said while leaning back in his seat.

"What about our rival packs, Alpha?" Another one asked.

Arvan looked at him. The person thought Alpha Arvan had got angry, so he lowered his head.

"When I said each and every Alpha, I meant everyone." Arvan said. Everyone nodded their heads.

Liam looked at Arvan and asked, "What about the Alpha of the Blue Moon pack? Do you want him to come here too?"

Everyone looked at Arvan to see his expression. The Blue Moon pack was the main rival pack of the Crismon Red pack.

Arvan turned his head to Liam who was sitting beside him. Arvan thought that before. The Alpha had never come once in their pack after Lina rejected him. Now they were rejected mates and there were no laws for Alphas like his pack. So Arvan thought it was okay if he came here. It was not like Lina would want to go back with him. And even if Lina wanted to go with him, Arvan would think about it again.

He looked at everyone's expressions and nodded his head.

"INVITE THE ALPHA OF THE BLUE MOON PACK TOO."

Chapter 34 Mark's Proposal

Today was Mark's cousin's birthday. So Rose wore a nice dress and put on some make up. She went to university. Mark told her he would come and pick her up from her university. Rose agreed with him.

Rose rarely used makeup, and sometimes Alice took her to some parties. That time Alice put her face on with great make up. But rather than that, Rose didn't wear make up.

Today she took a foundation to set her face. She used mascara and natural pink lipstick. She was looking good naturally.

She went to the university. She was late. She came to the class and saw an angry professor.

She knocked on the door. The professor looked at her. "How can I help you, Madam?" He asked sarcastically.

"I am so sorry, Sir. I promise I won't be late again." Rose requested him.

The professor was angry but he controlled his anger and said, "Next time if you come to my class late again, I will give you detention."

Rose nodded at him. "Yes, yes sir. I will remember that."

"Now go and take your seat." The professor said.

"Yes sir." Rose went to her seat and sat there.

She whispered to Alice, "What happened to him, today?"

"Who knows? Maybe he got beaten by his wife." Alice said while smirking.

Delilah, who was sitting beside Taylor in front of their seats, restrained herself from laughing.

After all the classes, Rose went to the entrance with Alice and Delilah. She saw Mark was there in his car.

At the same time, Arvan came to the entrance area with his friends. He was talking about the ball arrangements with them.

When he saw Rose and her friends were there, he stopped. He saw Rose was looking at someone. He turned his head and saw it was Mark. Mark went to Rose and her friends then started to talk with them. Arvan didn't like it. But he told himself, 'It's none of my business. I need to stay away from her. That's it.'

Arvan looked away from them.

Rose introduced Delilah to Mark. "This is Mark, my friend. Mark, this is Delilah, my friend."

They shook hands. Mark frowned.

Alice spoke out,

"Yeah bro, she is a witch. Do you have any problems? Stop frowning now."

Immediately, Mark stopped frowning and said, "No no Delilah, don't listen to her. It's just I thought you were a werewolf too, but suddenly we shook hands and I smelled you." Mark tried to explain to Delilah.

"Yeah, it is totally okay." Delilah said.

"Rose, let's go then?" Mark asked.

"Yeah let's go." Rose replied and said bye to her friends.

Rose got into Mark's car and Mark drove the car away.

Arvan looked at the car until it disappeared from his sight. He looked away from the road and continued to talk with his friends.

Rose and Mark were going to Mark's cousin's house. He threw the party in the afternoon.

"I thought I was late to pick you up. Did you wait for me long?" Mark asked Rose while driving.

"No, Mark. You came just in time. I didn't have to wait." Rose replied.

"That's a relief."

"Even if you came late, I would chat with Alice and Delilah." Rose said.

"By the way, Rose."

"Yes?"

"Are you okay with Delilah? I mean we werewolves don't get along with witches. You know they are all not good people, right?"

"I know, but not all the people are bad. Some are good too. Delilah is one of them. I am blessed to have Delilah and Alice as my friends."

Mark nodded and didn't ask anything more.

After some time of driving, Mark parked his car in front of a house. Music could be heard outside.

Rose looked at the house. 'Nice house.' Rose thought.

They got out of the car. They entered the house.

There were so many young men and women drinking and dancing. The house was decorated in club style for the party.

" Let's go." Mark said. Rose nodded.

Both of them went inside. A man in his late twenties came and hugged Mark. "Bro, I am happy that you have come to my party."

"Happy birthday, Ian." Mark said and hugged him back.

Ian looked at Rose and Rose smiled at him and wished him. "Happy Birthday." Ian smiled back and looked at Mark. "You came with your girlfriend! I am happier now."

Rose wanted to make it clear that she was not Mark's girlfriend, but before that one of Ian's friends came and he went to meet him.

Rose sighed and Mark said sorry to her.

"It's okay. He just misunderstood."

They went to the bar side and Mark ordered drinks for them.

"I won't drink beer today." Rose said.

Mark raised his eyebrows. "Then you want to drink something strong?"

"No no. I mean I don't want to drink alcohol. I almost lost my sanity last time." Rose replied.

"Last time I wanted to drop you home, but Alpha Arvan came to us and said that he would drop you. Can I ask why?" Mark asked.

"I don't know anything about him. He is just an arrogant man. He told me that he didn't want any unmated Omega to be in danger so he wanted to help me." Rose said.

"He was in your home also the night I went to meet your mom."

"He came to meet my mom. Maybe he needed something to discuss with her. I don't know." Rose replied.

Mark nodded to her. "You should stay away from him. I heard he is very rude to girls. And he loves his girlfriend a lot."

Rose was looking around but paused when she heard Mark. She turned her head to him. "Wait a minute. Do you think I like him or fall for him? So that you are saying all of this to me?" Rose laughed at him.

"No, it's just he is the head Alpha you know. Nobody can offend him." Mark said while scratching his neck.

Rose looked back in front of her and said, "Life taught me many things, one of the main things was not to fall for anyone without knowing their real personality."

Mark was confused. "What?"

Rose shook her head. "Nothing. Let's enjoy the party."

It was night time, Mark and Rose enjoyed the party. Ian didn't let them go before dinner. They agreed and had their dinner together.

Mark told Rose that he wanted to say something to Rose. They went upstairs to the rooftop.

Rose could see a nice view from the rooftop.

"Yes Mark, you wanted to say something." She asked him.

Mark nodded and stood beside her in front of the railing and looked at the view.

"What is your future plan, Rose?" Mark asked.

"Ummm. I wanted to leave the pack soon but then I decided to stay because of mom. I will settle here now. I will find a reliable job after graduation." Rose replied to Mark.

Mark nodded. "What about love life?"

Rose turned her head to Mark. "Love life?"

"Yeah. What about your love life? Do you have a boyfriend?"

"No, I don't have any yet." Rose said and laughed.

Mark was relaxed after hearing that.

Then Mark turned around and took Rose's hand from him.

Rose was stunned by Mark's sudden action. "What happened?" She asked.

"Rose, I am relieved that you don't have a boyfriend. I have wanted to tell you about my feelings for a long time. But I could not get any chance to tell you."

Rose was stunned.

"I know this is so sudden for you. But I can not control my feelings more, Rose. I want you to be with me always and forever. If you want to stay here, I will stay here with you."

"What are you saying, Mark?"

"Rose, I like you." Mark said while smiling at her.

Rose was looking at him with wide eyes.

Mark was his close friend. But she never thought of him like that. She did not like him romantically. They spent time with each other abroad. But he never told her or hinted at her about that. Last time when Arvan said he wanted her to go with him though Mark stopped her but then he let her go with Arvan. So Rose never thought that he liked her or anything. About today she thought Alice would come too but then she heard from Alice that she would not come.

"Mark." Rose said in a lower voice.

"I know you don't feel the same for me. But at least give me a chance to prove myself to you, Rose."

Rose slowly took her hands back. "Mark, I am sorry but I thought we are good friends."

"Yes we are, but we can try, right? You don't have anyone nor do I have any."

Rose sighed. She could understand what Mark was feeling because she had been in his place a few days ago. But she didn't want to give him any false hope. If it were anyone else, Rose would think about it, but it was her friend. She didn't like him more than as a friend.

"I can't, Mark." Rose said and turned to leave.

"But why??" Mark asked.

Rose wanted to give him a good excuse so that his heart would not break like hers.

"BECAUSE I HAVE ALREADY FOUND MY MATE."

Chapter 35 Shopping For Ballparty

It had been two weeks since Mark told Rose about his feelings. That day Rose didn't tell him who her mate was or she got rejected by her mate.

Mark told her that it was okay, he could not force her to like him back. Mark told her that they would be friends forever and it would not affect their friendship. Mark left the pack and went abroad after that day.

In those two weeks, Arvan never tried to talk with Rose or cross her path again. She also didn't want to do anything with him. So they were living like strangers.

Rose was sleeping when she heard her phone ringtone. She searched for her phone on the desk beside her bed without opening her eyes.

She found her phone and then put it over her ear.

"Hello"

"Rosyyyyy."

Alice shouted from the other side of the phone.

Rose immediately woke up and sat up.

"What happened, Alice???"

"Get ready. I am coming to pick you up."

"Why? Where are we going?" Rose asked.

"We are going shopping."

"Why?"

"Do you forget what tomorrow is?" Alice asked.

Rose scratched her head and rubbed her eyes. Then she realized, "Oh shit! Tomorrow is the ball."

"Exactly. We should go to the best shopping mall and buy what looks good on us."

"I don't feel like going today, Alice. I want to sleep more."

"No honey, wake up. Don't go to sleep again. This is your first ball as an adult. Do you know how many Alpha will come tomorrow? Who knows if some of them will approach you?" Alice said.

"Stop dreaming, Alice. Let me sleep."

"Noooo. Get out of your bed and get ready. I am coming in twenty minutes."

"Hmm."

Rose was about to sleep again but heard another shout. "Don't sleep."

Rose sighed and said, "Okay." Then she cut the call and got off the bed.

She got ready and went downstairs. She saw her mom was watching TV. "Mom, I am going with Alice."

"Yeah, Alice informed me about that." Rose was amazed. 'Is she my best friend or my mom's?'

"Buy the best dress for yourself. Don't worry about the price. Your mom has a good job, she can afford a nice dress for you." Selena let out.

Rose smiled at her and nodded. "Okay, mom."

Alice came to pick her up. She got into the car and said, "You are so fast."

"No. I came at the right time." Rose laughed.

They reached the shopping mall. They enjoyed their shopping. Alice told her to buy a beautiful black gown. It was tight from the upper part but fluffy from the waist area. "Buy it, you will look like a Princess, Rossy."

"No, it will grab attention. I don't want that." Rose said.

"So what? You have the right to be loved. If someone likes you there and you liked him back, then you both can make a couple, don't you know?" Alice winked at her.

Rose shook her head and was about to leave the store when she heard Alice. "Pack this one."

Rose turned and saw Alice was buying the dress. Alice looked at her. "Your mom sent me money today, she told me to buy you the best dress. She knew that her daughter would not buy any dresses for money. She knew you were the biggest cheater. So she sent me money directly." Alice said.

Rose's jaw dropped. "You two are really something else. Sometimes I think you are her real daughter, I just mistakenly became her daughter."

Alice laughed at her. "She loves me more than you. I told you."

Then they bought another dress. That was for Alice. Alice bought a blue mermaid gown for herself.

They went to the best restaurant in the shopping mall.

When they entered the restaurant, they saw Lina sitting with Rita.

Rita saw Alice and Rose. She stood up and said, "Hi Ross. Hi Alice. How are you?"

"We are fine. What about you?" Alice said with a smile. Alice liked Rita; everyone knew that because Rita was the inspiration for all the female wolves in their pack. She was a strong and powerful Alpha female.

"I am also fine. Lina and I came here for tomorrow. Are you here for tomorrow too?" Rita asked.

Rita and Lina were patched up again. After Arvan talked to both of them, they behaved well with each other because nobody could offend Alpha Arvan. His words were like laws.

Alice nodded at her. Rose glanced at Lina. She was busy with her phone.

"Come. Sit with us." Rita said.

Alice was about to agree but she looked at Lina and then at Rose. Rose was silent.

Alice then tried to decline Rita but Rita spoke,

"Don't worry, Lina doesn't have any problem. Right, Lina?"

Lina raised her head from her phone and looked up at them. She nodded at them.

"Yeah sure."

Alice and Rose sat opposite them and ordered for them.

"Actually, I was busy chatting with Arvan. He is too romantic nowadays." Lina said to Rose.

Alice rolled her eyes. Rose was quietly looking at Lina.

Rita felt the tension and said, "Did you two buy your dresses?"

"Yes, we will." Alice replied.

"That's good. Hope you two will look gorgeous in your dresses. We also bought our dresses."

"Yes, I will be the Luna soon. So I need to look my best, you know." Lina spoke out.

Rose didn't react at all. She didn't care anymore. No matter what, she had to be indifferent. That was it.

After having some talk, Alice and Rose left the restaurant and the shopping mall.

Alice dropped her at her home. She entered her room and heard her mom talking with someone.

She went to the living room and saw her mom talking on her phone.

"Yes, I will send her, Rivana. Don't worry." Her mom said.

Rose understood her mom was talking with the former Luna. She was her mom's good friend. Rose liked them and the way they arranged a birthday party for her. It was great.

"No, she is not at home. But she will soon."

"Yes, yes. I will come too."

Then her mom hung up the call and turned around.

"When did you come, Rose?" Selena asked.

"When you were talking on your phone."

"Yeah, Rivana just called. She told me to send you early. But I told her you would take time because I would come late from the office."

Rose nodded. Selena then said, "If you want to go with your friends, then you can go earlier, honey."

"No mom, I will go with you."

"I will only attend the dinner with them. I will be with Micheal and Rivana before that. You will go to the ball party and enjoy it, okay?"

"Okay, mom."

Rose went back to her room. After some time she called Delilah. "Delilah, why didn't you come with us today?"

"Sorry Rose. I can not come with you two shopping. I have to spend time with grandma, you know, right? It is the weekend. So I came here to meet with her."

"I can understand. Is Grandma okay? How is she? Is her health okay?" Rose asked.

"Yes. She is fine. She asked about you. I told her you are okay now."

"It is because of both of you two that I am okay now. Otherwise, it would be impossible."

"That is only because of the Moon Goddess. By the way, I asked grandma about the healing power. She told me she doesn't have the power. Only high ranked witches have the power of healing by palm."

"Do you think I am a witch now? Rosalie told me it was a gift from the Moon Goddess."

"Your wolf is right. You are not a witch. Hybrids are different. But you get the power of witches." Delilah explained.

"Will you not come tomorrow?" Rose asked.

"Yes, I will come."

"That's my girl." Rose said.

They talked for some time and then hung up.

Alice changed her clothes and thought about the ball party. She had never attended any ball party before. Everyone said it was really amazing.

Rose said to herself,

"HOPE EVERYTHING WILL BE OKAY TOMORROW."

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Rose was getting ready for the ball party. Today was the ball. She was nervous. But she told herself to get ready for herself. She wanted to look her best. Her mom spent so much money on just one dress. She wanted to graduate soon and started to earn money so that her mom could take a rest at home.

Rose put makeup on her face. She tried to put on gorgeous make up. Then she looked at her dress. She wore the dress carefully. She set her hair. She straightened her hair from the upper side and curled her hair on the lower side. Then she combed her hair and sprayed on it.

She put on the black high heels.

She looked at herself in the mirror. She looked good. She was happy about her appearance. She never wore anything like that before. How could she? She was out of the pack and never attended parties like balls.

She took her bag which was wholly decorated with white stones. She took her phone too. Then she went downstairs.

Selena was also ready, she was waiting for her daughter. When she heard knocking sounds from the stairs, she turned her head to look at her daughter. But her jaw dropped. She immediately stood up.

"Mom, am I looking okay?" Rose asked.

"You are so beautiful, my child." Selena said. Her eyes got teary.

Rose came to her and hugged her. "Mom, why are you crying?"

"If your dad could see you like this, he would be very happy. His daughter has become such a beautiful woman." Selena said.

Rose also got emotional. She also missed her dad.

"Dad is watching us, mom. And he is happy."

Selena nodded and wiped her tears. "Now, let's go. "

Selena and Rose took a cab. Rose called Delilah,

"Where are you?"

"I am coming, I'm on the way." Delilah replied.

"Okay."

"Where is Alice?"

"She said she would be there." Rose said.

"Okay."

Rose hung up and looked at her mom. "Why don't you attend the ball party with us?"

Selena laughed at her. "I have attended many ball parties in my life with your father. I am old now. The party is for young people. We will chit-chat in another hall, you can all enjoy it in the party hall." Selena said.

"No, you are not old. My mom can't get old. Never." Rose said while hugging her mom.

Selena caressed her daughter's hair and thought, 'I only want you to set up with someone good. I thought Mark liked you but he also went back abroad. I don't know if your mate really rejected you or not. But I hope a good man will come into your life soon and change your life totally.'

When they reached the party hall, they got out of the car. Rose saw that Delilah was waiting for her.

"Delilah" Rose called to her.

Delilah looked at Rose and went to her. "I was waiting for you. Hello Auntie." Delilah said to Rose and looked at Selena.

"Hello Dear." Selena replied.

"Mom, she is Delilah. I told you about her." Rose said.

Selena nodded and said, "You are a pretty girl."

"Thank you, Auntie." Delilah smiled at Selena.

"You two go to the ball room. I will go to the hall room beside the ball room. Rivana is waiting for me. There are many people there. You all enjoy your party, we will enjoy our party." Selena said.

Rose and Delilah nodded at her. Selena went to the hall beside the ball room and the two friends entered the ball room.

The ball room was so big. It was a huge hall room. So many people went there but it still looked so big and huge. It was decorated with flowers on the railings. There was a bar around the corner. Everyone was enjoying themselves while dancing and drinking. The difference between the normal party and the ball party was that women came there in nice long beautiful dresses while men were in suits. It was mainly about the dance. The dancing part is the real fact of the ball. The ball dance.

Rose looked around and tried to find Alice.

"There she is." Delilah said while waving at Alice.

Alice came to them and hugged Delilah.

Rose smiled at them. They were getting along nicely with each other. Alice slowly and dramatically turned to Rose.

"Oh, my God! Who are you?" Alice asked Rose.

"Shut up and stop teasing me." Rose said and Delilah laughed.

"Oh my god! It's really my best friend, Rossy." Alice said and hugged her tightly.

"You finally recognize me." Rose played along with her.

Alice smiled at her. "You are looking very beautiful, Rosy."

"Thanks Alice." Rose replied.

Then they heard all the people start to gossip about who was coming.

"Alpha Arvan is coming." Someone let out.

"Yes, he is coming with his Luna." A woman said. Rose remembered her. She was one of Lina's friends.

Rose saw Liam and Rita entering the ball room. Rita was looking gorgeous as always and Liam was handsome too.

Then Rose's eyes fell on the next couple who entered the ball room. She felt tugged in her heart.

It was Alpha Arvan and Lina who was his girlfriend and his soon to be Luna.

Arvan wore a black tuxedo. He looked like a prince. Beside him was Lina. Lina wore a white gown. She wore white most of the time. Maybe it was her favorite color. She looked stunning in her white gown.

'They look good with each other. Maybe they are made for each other, that's why.' Rose thought.

Everyone was looking at them in awe. Rose looked away from them and continued to talk with her friends.

"Rossy, don't look at that bastard." Alice said.

"Sssh, someone will hear us." Rose said.

"So what? I don't care about anyone." Alice replied.

"Don't worry, she is with us. Today she will only enjoy the party." Delilah said. Alice nodded.

Rose chuckled.

Meanwhile,

Arvan was very busy today. He was about to get there when Lina convinced him to go with her as her partner because they were a couple. Arvan agreed with her and they went there together.

When Arvan entered the ball room. Everyone was looking at him. He went inside with Lina. He was talking with some Alphas who came here for the ball party.

Arvan smelled the scent that shook his sanity all the time he smelled it. His mate's scent. Rose's scent. His eyes looked around and found her in a corner. She was talking with her friends.

Rose looked very beautiful. She wore a black gown. She was looking like the most gorgeous woman at the ball party.

Arvan eyed her from head to toe. She never wore any dress like that before. He had never seen her in this look before. 'When did she become so beautiful?'

"Arvan" Lina called him. She saw where he was looking at and she got angry.

Arvan came out of his thoughts and looked at Lina. "What?"

"Arvan, my parents have come today. Let's meet them. They are in the hall beside our ball room." Lina said excitedly.

"I will meet them after the party."

Lina was upset and Arvan noticed that.

"Don't worry, I will meet them when we go to have our dinner together. I have to be here now. All the Alpha has come here because of my invitation, I can't leave the party."

Lina understood and nodded at him. "Love you so much, Arvan." Lina hugged him and looked at Rose.

Rose glanced at them and immediately averted her gaze.

Vector came to Alice. "Hi."

"Where were you? I was looking for you." Alice asked.

"I saw you were with the Taylor guy." Vector said.

"Yeah, Taylor is better than you." Alice teased him.

"Hello, girls." He said to Rose and Delilah.

"Hi." They replied.

"Do you mind If I borrow your friend from you for some time?" Vector asked.

Rose and Delilah shook their heads.

"I don't want to." Alice said.

"Oh come on. It's a ball party. You have a chance to dance with the Theta of Crismon Red Pack." Vector said, and pulled Alice with him.

Rose chuckled at them. 'He really loves her.'

A young handsome man came and asked Delilah for a dance. Delilah looked at Rose.

Rose nodded at her. "Go and have fun. I am here, don't worry."

Delilah went to dance with the man. He was the Alpha of another pack.

Everybody's eyes were on Rose. But nobody dared to approach her because they saw how Alpha Arvan was looking at the woman from time to time.

Suddenly, Rose saw a man with another four men entering the ball room. He looked like a powerful man. Maybe another pack's head Alpha who came with his four officials. Everyone was silent when they saw him. He is very charming. Black hair, a black and white tuxedo, and a handsome face.

Women were looking at him with amazement. Some were talking about something but Rose could not hear it.

She looked at the man and thought,

'WHO IS HE?'

Chapter 37 I Can Pursue You

Everyone was looking at the young handsome man.

Delta Henry and Gamma Jack went to receive the man and shook their hands with him and his men.

"Alpha Blaze, please come. " Henry said and let them inside.

Lina was shocked to look at the man. She could not understand how she should react. She ignored him and looked away.

Arvan looked at Blaze. He was amazed that Lina rejected this man. She came to him and chose him. Not bad.

The young man was none other than Blaze Viotto. The head Alpha of the Blue Moon Pack. He was very handsome, not more handsome than Alpha Arvan. But he never tried to reject his mate. A few years ago, he was soon to be Alpha that time, he found his mate. His mate was beautiful, but when she realized he was her mate, she rejected him and told him that she had someone who was the most powerful Alpha than anyone else. She wanted to be that Alpha's Luna, not his.

Blaze was a very calm man but he could see through people. He was not a True blood Alpha but he was one of the strongest Alpha overall. It was not like everyone was True blood, but all the pack was ruled by Alphas. After that rejection, he became the head Alpha of the Blue Moon pack. Nobody had seen any woman with him after his rejection incident. But people said that he was searching for a chosen mate.

Blaze made his way to Arvan. They shook hands.
"Welcome to my pack, Alpha Blaze." Arvan said.

"Nice pack, Alpha Arvan." Blaze said and his eyes fell on the woman beside Arvan.

Arvan saw that and grabbed Lina's waist and smirked.

"Hope you will enjoy the ball party." Arvan said and called Liam.

Liam came to them. "Alpha Blaze, how are you?"
Liam shook hands with Blaze.

"Good. How are you?" He asked back.

"I am fine. We are glad that you have come here."
Liam said.

Blaze nodded at him. He turned to his officials who were talking with Henry and Jack. Blaze was about to turn around when his eyes fell on a woman in a gorgeous black gown. His eyes frowned at her.

Rose was sitting on the bar side. She saw the man going to talk with Arvan. She saw how Arvan shook his hand with the man and then put his hand on Lina's waist. He pulled Lina by her waist and smirked as if he was proud of his girlfriend and his future Luna.

Rose sighed and shook her head. Then she looked away and continued to drink and pulled out her phone from her bag and watched the newsfeed on social media.

Meanwhile, Blaze excused Arvan and went to the bar side. He sat there and ordered a drink. He was an elegant man. Every woman was looking at two men at the ball party. If the first one was Arvan black, then the second one was him, Blaze Viotto.

"Sir, your drink." The waiter said while slightly pushing his glass toward him. Blaze nodded at him and took the glass.

He was drinking and looking around. The Crismon Red pack was his rival pack. He never came here before, but today he came because he thought rivalry was not good with Arvan Black.

Arvan took away his mate; he could take away something else from him. He was very smart when it came to the master plan. But when he got here he noticed that Arvan had come here with Lina. That meant he was really going to make that woman his Luna. The way he pulled Lina by her waist and showed his possessiveness towards her, it proved that he liked her a lot.

Blaze shook his head while drinking.

Suddenly, his eyes fell on the woman again. It was the woman in the black dress he had looked at before.

Blaze looked at her carefully. He was observing her. She was beautiful. The black dress suited her pure skin. It was not showing her many body parts. The dress did not have a low neck and its collar was not lower to show her cleavage. It was a sleeveless dress but not a backless dress like what his ex mate wore today.

'Who is she? She looks very gorgeous without showing more skin.' Blaze thought. He was observing her and gulping his drink.

Liam noticed Blaze and went to Arvan. Arvan was talking with some Alphas when he heard Liam.

"Dude, your Lina's ex mate is after your ex mate." Liam whispered and laughed. Lina stood beside Arvan. So she could hear clearly what Liam whispered.

Arvan frowned at Liam and looked at the side where Blaze was sitting. He saw Blaze was looking at Rose. Rose was busy waving and making a thumbs up to her witch friend who was dancing with a man and wasn't aware of anything or she was doing this knowingly. Who knows?

Arvan looked coldly at Liam and said, "I don't care."

Arvan remembered what Elias told him about the consequences. He remembered about that every day. But he was Arvan Black. He didn't care about it, did not believe in it either. If he believed, he wouldn't reject her at first. That two weeks he told himself that everything would be okay if he stayed away from Rose. So he should not care about anything.

Some Alphas looked at Arvan and said, "Everyone is dancing but the Alpha of the Crismon Red pack has not danced yet, please Alpha fascinate us by dancing with your soon to be Luna."

Arvan didn't like to dance. But other people started to cheer for him, so he took Lina's hand and went to the place where everyone was dancing. There was no stage in the ball room. It was a ball party, and dancing was the main arrangement there. So people were dancing in the middle of the hall.

Arvan started to dance with Lina. Lina was blushing, she was happy when Arvan took her to dance. She looked up at Arvan happily but saw that he was not looking at her but somewhere else. She looked at the side where Arvan was looking. Her eyes were glowing, it was Rose. His boyfriend was looking at his ex mate.

Rose was drinking soft drinks that the waiters offered here and there to every guest. She didn't move from her place. She knew no one there except her friends.

She saw Arvan and Lina were dancing. From where she was sitting, she could see them clearly. They were very close, his one hand on Lina's waist and another one attached to her hand. He was very handsome and nobody could compare his look. He was like a King who was dancing with his Queen.

Rose was sipping her drink and looking at her phone when she saw black leather shoes come in front of her. She looked up from her phone and her jaw dropped.

Blaze smiled at Rose and asked, "Are you busy?"

Rose immediately regulated herself. "No."

Blaze nodded and moved beside her. He sat beside her seat and ordered another drink.

Rose was nervous. A man came to her and sat beside her. Of course, she would be nervous.

"Are you from this pack?" Blaze asked while sipping on his drink.

Rose twirled her seat to him and looked at him. She nodded at him. "Yes. And you are?" She asked him.

Blaze smiled at him. Was this woman really naive or did she act naive? She didn't know who he was? At least now every woman knew who he was.

"I am a guest. I am not from this pack actually." Blaze said.

Rose knew that he was not from this pack but she didn't ask more about his pack.

When Blaze saw that she was silent he told her, "You are very beautiful, Rose."

Rose was looking in front of her. But when she heard her name from his mouth her eyes widened. She turned her to him. "H-How do you know my name?"

Blaze looked at her face in detail. She was a pure beauty. Fair skin, glowing cheeks, beautiful eyes, and her silky black-brown hair. She put make up on her face but didn't cake her face with make up like other women.

"When I feel interested in anything, no matter what, I always find my way for it."

When Lina rejected him, he never tried to convince her. Because he never interested in her. But when he liked something, he always did his best to achieve it. He was a hard working man after all.

He smirked at Rose.

Rose started to blush when she heard his words.

'Interested in me? Really? Are his eyes okay? Maybe this man is crazy. Otherwise, why would he come here and sit beside me? I was here for more than half an hour alone, nobody came to me but this guy.'

"What is your name?" She asked.

"You can call me, Blaze." He smiled.

Rose nodded and glanced at Alice and Delilah. They were having fun while dancing.

"Umm, I don't have a partner, will you dance with me?" Blaze asked and offered his hand to her.

Rose glimpsed at his hand and then at him.

"Please don't say no to me. They said if the first woman you asked for a ball dance rejected you then you would stay single for the whole year." Blaze said and blinked.

Hearing that, Rose could not control her laugh. "Nice joke." Then she put her right hand over his palm. He grabbed it. They stood up and went to the dance floor.

Arvan and Lina were dancing just beside them. Rose didn't look at them and started dancing with Blaze.

She put her left hand on his shoulder and her right hand on his hand. Blaze's one hand was on her waist and the other one was with her right hand.

They were dancing merrily. Blaze was a nice man. He was talking about her pack, which was really beautiful and how he always wanted to come but did not get time to come. They were talking and softly laughing while dancing.

Arvan looked at them and got angry. He was observing them for the last few minutes. How Blaze went to Rose and they started to talk, how they came here to dance together.

While dancing, every couple got close to each other and people came close like a rose closing its petals.

Arvan was very near to them. He could clearly listen to them while dancing.

"Rose, do you have any mate?" Blaze asked.

Arvan was feeling nervous for the first time. He didn't realize that he felt hope inside.

"No." He heard Rose's reply and frowned.

But what Blaze told her after then, made him furious.

"LOOKS LIKE I CAN PURSUE YOU WITHOUT ANY PROBLEM THEN."

Chapter 38 Chosen Mate

"LOOKS LIKE I CAN PURSUE YOU WITHOUT ANY PROBLEM THEN."

Arvan felt uneasy in his heart when he heard what Blaze told Rose.

Rose was shocked when she heard that. She looked up at Blaze. Rose thought he was kidding with her. But Blaze was very calm, there was no emotion on his face. He looked down at her. "What? Do you think I am not capable for you?" He raised one eyebrow.

Rose was silently dancing with him without answering. Suddenly, she heard a voice from beside her.

"Aahh Arvan, you are hurting me." Lina said and took out her hand from Arvan's hold. Arvan was glaring at Blaze and Rose dancing and talking. He heard what Blaze told Rose and Rose didn't deny him. That was making him angrier. He tightened his fists but unknowingly he clenched Lina's hand. "I need a drink." Arvan said to Lina and left the dance floor. He went to the bar and ordered a whiskey. The waiter saw the head Alpha wanted a drink, so he took ice cubes and put them on whiskey and gave it to him.

Arvan gulped his whisky and looked at the couple who were dancing on the floor. He frowned at Rose and stared at her.

Rose saw Arvan and Lina leaving the dance floor. She looked at Blaze. She saw Blaze was already looking at her. "You didn't answer me." Blaze said to her.

"Did you ask me something?" Rose asked.

Blaze smirked at her. "You mean, I can pursue you without your permission?"

Rose blushed. She didn't know why this handsome stranger wanted to pursue her or even dance with her.

Rose averted her gaze from Blaze and looked around. Her eyes fell on Arvan. He was staring at her. She felt her breath almost stop. Arvan was looking at her furiously.

Rose was looking at him. She wanted him to break the eye contact. But he didn't break it.

Blaze was not a kid, he noticed everything that was happening around him. He was confused but didn't show it on his face.

"I think you are interested in someone else already." Blaze said while pulling Rose close to him. Rose broke the eye contact with Arvan and looked at Blaze.

"No"

"What no?" Blaze asked.

"I mean I am not interested in anyone." Rose said. She thought Blaze saw her looking at Arvan.

"Nice." Then Blaze twirled her around and again pulled her close.

"You won't get anything if you chase me." Rose said.

"You have everything that I need in a woman." Blaze said.

"You look more beautiful when you blush." Blaze whispered in her ear.

Rose closed her eyes and tried to concentrate on what he was saying.

After the song ended, Rose excused herself and went back to her seat. Delilah and Alice were already sitting and drinking.

"Our queen of beauty, come come." Alice said.

Rose sat on a seat and grabbed an apple juice. "No drink today?" Alice asked. "You know I don't drink, Alice. That night I was upset so I drank a lot. But I could get the alcohol, all thanks to the moon goddess." Rose said and Delilah laughed at her.

"By the way, who was the handsome man?" Delilah asked.

"I don't know. He told me his name. Blaze Viotto." Rose replied.

"Oh, my bestie, didn't even know who he was, and went dancing with him?" Alice smirked.

"He was not bad. He was a funny guy." Rose laughed.

"Are you serious? He is the most serious man after our bastard Alpha." Alice said.

"I don't think so. But he is kind of flirty."

"What?" Alice stood up.

"Don't be dramatic, my drama queen." Rose said.

"Did he flirt with you, Rossy?" Alice asked.

"He just said he wanted to pursue me."

Alice's eyes widened.

"What happened?" Rose asked.

"Do you want to know who he is?" Alice asked.

"Who is he? He told me he is an Alpha. And the way four officials are with him, I guess he is a head Alpha of any pack." Rose replied.

"Yes, you are right. He is a head Alpha."

"I told you." Rose replied and sipped her drink.

"He is the head Alpha of the Blue Moon pack." Rose spilled her drink after hearing Alice's words.

Delilah gave a tissue to Rose.

Rose took it and looked at Alice in horror.

"He is from where?"

"Blue Moon Pack." Alice replied.

"He is our rival pack's head Alpha!!!!" Rose panicked.

Alice nodded at her. "Now tell us clearly what he said to you."

"I have already told you what he said to me. But is he the ex mate of Lina??" Rose asked.

"Yes." Alice nodded.

"I heard he is searching for a perfect woman for him to be his chosen mate." Delilah said. She heard it at their university. Some girls were gossiping about Blaze.

"Ch-Chosen mate?" Rose was confused.

"I think he likes you. I heard he never got along with any woman after Lina rejected him." Alice said.

Rose glanced at Blaze who was talking with his officials.

"How could Lina reject this handsome man for a jerk, huh!" Alice scolded Lina.

Rose shook her head. "Maybe he was just kidding or teasing me, guys. Just relax. An Alpha can't accept me."

"You are not a normal Omega anymore, Rose." Delilah said and Alice nodded.

"But he doesn't know about my abilities." Rose said.

"That is the good thing, Rossy." Alice said.

Alice wanted her friend to move on and live her life happily. She thought Mark would propose to her but Mark suddenly went back abroad. But she wanted her best friend to move on from her ex mate who would make his Luna another woman in front of her.

"I think Blaze is the best choice, Rossy. Just agree with him and give it a shot. You can teach a lesson to that rascal too. As fate turns, Lina rejected her ex mate but she still looked at him." Alice said and laughed.

Delilah and Rose turned their heads to where Lina was. Lina was looking at Blaze while Blaze was drinking and talking with the other Alphas.

Rose shook her head. "No, I don't want to be twisted with this. I am happy being single. Thank you." Rose said and happily sipped her drink.

After the ball party, everyone started to eat dinner while every head Alpha and their officials went to the hall beside the ball room.

Alice and her friends also could go there because Alice's father was the former gamma. So her family was one of the official families.

She entered the hall and searched for her mom. She found her. "Mom" She called her.

Selena was talking with Rivana when she saw Rose. Rose and her friends went to Selena. Alice hugged Selena and talked with her for some time.

"Kids, let's go to the table for dinner." Rivana said.

Rose and her friends got to sit at the main table of the night. It was decorated with flowers and wonderful cutlery. They sat on the seats. Most of the Alpha came and sat there with their officials.

Arvan sat on the head chair and Lina sat on the right side of him. While Micheal, the former Alpha, sat on the left side of his son. Rita sat beside Lina and beside Rita, Liam sat.

Arvan looked at Lina's parents and greeted them. After a few minutes, lastly, Blaze joined the table with his officials. Rose and her friends looked at him. Rose looked away.

Everyone was silent looking at him. They could feel the tension between Arvan and Blaze. Both were the head Alpha of rival packs. Not only that, but the soon to be mate of Alpha Arvan was Alpha Blaze's mate once. She rejected her mate and came to Alpha Arvan. The atmosphere was cold.

Alpha Micheal looked at Blaze and said, "You are a big man now. I saw you once when you were a kid. Now you are a handsome and eligible young man. I am happy to see you like this son."

Blaze looked at Micheal and smiled at him. "Nice to meet you too, Alpha Micheal."

"Are you okay here? If you need anything, just ask for it without hesitation." Micheal said while lessening the current situation at the table. Blaze nodded at him.

The maids started to serve the dishes. Everyone started to eat.

Lina's father asked Arvan, "Son, you are very successful now. All you need is a Luna. When will you accept a Luna for you? Have you thought about it yet?"

Lina's father was an Alpha too. So he had connections in the pack. When he asked the question, many Alphas asked, "Yes, Alpha. When will we get invitations for your wedding ceremony?"

Arvan paused when he heard those questions. He raised his head. His sharp eyes were looking at each of them who asked him questions. Everyone felt cold in their hearts. Here was the actual Alpha Arvan. The most aggressive Alpha they had ever seen. At that time, he was well mannered with them because it was a party that arranged by him. But when anyone crossed the line, he would forget that they were guests there.

Arvan's eyes fell on Rose, who was eating without any care. Arvan said angrily, "Very soon. When I decide anything, everyone will get to know about it." He looked back at his food.

"When will we hear about yours, Alpha Blaze? Everyone is saying that you are searching for your chosen mate." Liam asked Blaze and glanced at Arvan who was eating.

Arvan looked at Blaze as if he was waiting for his answer too.

Blaze looked at Rose and said,

"I THINK I HAVE FINALLY FOUND MY CHOSEN MATE HERE."

Chapter 39 Don't Make Me Hate You More

"I THINK I HAVE FINALLY FOUND MY CHOSEN MATE HERE."

Arvan tightened his hold on his fork and knife. He was cutting steak but when he heard what Blaze answered, he lost his mind.

He looked at Blaze. "We are very grateful that you have come here to enjoy the ball party with us. But you can not just take anyone from my pack." Arvan said coldly.

Blaze smiled at him and said, "Who told you I would take a random girl? She is a perfect woman for me. I will pursue her, cherish her, and then I will mark her." Blaze glanced at Rose.

Everyone was watching Blaze and saw who he was talking about.

Rose was eating without care but when she heard about 'pursue' she stopped eating and looked at Blaze.

Blaze was staring at her. She immediately looked away. She could feel two men's gaze at her. Blaze and Arvan both were looking at her.

Lina was angry when she saw that Blaze was looking at Rose. 'How could his choice be so low? He is my ex mate, his choice should be good like mine. Is he doing this to get back at me?' Lina thought.

"What if she has a mate?" Arvan asked angrily.

"She said to me that she does not have any mate."
Blaze immediately replied.

Arvan glared at Rose. 'She wanted all of this. This woman!'

Liam looked at Arvan and his mind linked with him. "Control buddy, you don't like Rose. You have your chosen mate Lina." Liam said. He looked at his mate Rita and said in their mate link, 'Let Arvan feel his mistake. Otherwise, he will lose himself.' Rita nodded.

Everyone looked at Arvan and Blaze back and forth. Micheal then said, " Everyone, please continue to eat your dinner."

After finishing dinner everyone started to leave. They came to Arvan shaking their hands and took their leave.

Blaze went to Micheal. "Alpha Micheal, I think it's late now. I have to go back to my pack. It will take two hours from here."

Alpha Micheal nodded at him. "Please come back again, Alpha Blaze. It was nice to meet you."

"Sure." Blaze said and went to Arvan.

Arvan was talking with Lina about what her father said. "Did you tell him to say that in front of everyone?"

"No Arvan, I didn't say anything. But he is my father.

He is worried about me, for my life. So that was why he chose a perfect time to ask that." Lina smiled at Arvan.

"Oh, so it was your perfect time to talk about my personal life in front of all the Alphas?" Arvan glared at her.

Blaze heard about it all and smirked. "Upps looks like I came here at the wrong time."

Lina was silently looking at him. But he didn't give a glance at her.

"No, you can say what you want to say." Arvan said.

"Well, I am leaving, Alpha Arvan. It was nice meeting you. I never thought I would ever come here in your pack. You know, because of some negative people, your pack is outraged outside. Otherwise, the man who is a true blood Alpha, no body can beat his power." Blaze said.

Arvan didn't say anything about it. He ignored the fact.
"Hope you enjoyed it here."

They shook their hands and Blaze walked out of the hall.

Outside, Delilah and Alice were walking with Rose.

When they saw Blaze, he was outside. Alice poked Rose and said, "Your prince charming is coming to you." Alice said.

Rose and Delilah looked at Blaze who was coming towards them.

"Can I borrow your friend for a few minutes?" Blaze asked Alice and Delilah.

Rose hesitated and was about to make an excuse, but Alice replied, "Sure sure. Why not? Aunt Selena is waiting for us. Rose, you talk with Alpha Blaze then come inside, okay? We are going inside."

"But-" Before she could say anything, Alice pulled Delilah with her and went inside.

Blaze looked at Rose. "Let's walk for some time."

Rose nodded and they started to walk.

"Tell me something about you, Rose." Blaze said.

"Actually we are strangers. How can I talk about myself?" Rose asked.

"Then let's be friends." Blaze said.

"What's so hurried? We just met."

"Oh darling, you forgot that, I am not your pack's Alpha. I came from another pack. I have to go back to my people, so of course, I have to hurry."

Rose was blushing when she heard he called her darling.

"Now tell me."

"I want to be very clear with you. I am a simple Omega. I found my mate but he rejected me because he thinks I am not good enough for him."

"How dare he?" Blaze snarled.

"It's okay. It was his choice. He has his own life and girlfriend."

"What if I say I have no one either and my mate rejected me just like your mate rejected you? Will you agree to be with me?"

"How can you say all of this so easily? We don't even know each other for more than two hours."

"Do you think if I make someone my Luna, I will take time to get to know her when she is another pack's member and I stay in a different pack?"

Rose understood what he wanted to say. He tried to say that he didn't have much time.

"You don't have to."

"No, if you want that, I will do it for you." Blaze said.

A car's light fell on Rose's eyes. She saw they were on the road side beside the forest. She did not realize that they had come here while talking.

A man came out of the car and opened the passenger door. "Blaze, let's go. We don't have time. We have to reach the pack soon. It's urgent."

Blaze nodded at them and turned to Rose. He went close to her and Rose immediately stepped back.

"Just wait for me. I will come back for you."

Then Blaze got into the car, the man closed the door, and went to sit in the front passenger seat. Blaze rolled down the glass of the window and waved at Rose.

Rose thought it was disrespectful if she would not wave back. So she smiled and waved at him. The car drove away.

Rose smiled at Blaze. 'He is a man in a hurry. I know he needs a Luna, that's why he is saying this.' Rose shook her head and turned around.

But when she turned around she saw the man she didn't want to see. Alpha Arvan Black.

Arvan came outside to smoke but saw them walking and talking with each other. He saw how Rose smiled and waved at Blaze. His blood boiled. He did not know why, but he did not like all of this.

Rose glanced at Arvan and started to walk. She tried to pass him but he grabbed her hand and pulled her towards him.

He took her with him to the forest and let go of her hand.

"Why did you bring me here?" Rose asked angrily.

"HOW SHAMELESS YOU ARE, ROSE LEE!"

Rose was shocked. Arvan yelled at her angrily. But what did she do?

"Excuse me?"

"You don't have any shame, right? You were openly flirting with that Blaze Viotto in front of the whole pack."

Rose looked at him coldly. "If you think I am shameless, then I am. Are you happy now? Now let me go then." Rose tried to go but was again pulled by Arvan.

"Do you have any self respect? How cheap you are! "

"I don't care about your remarks, okay?" Rose tried to prevent herself.

But she could not control herself more when she heard his next sentence.

"You know what? He will not accept you. He will just leave you after using you and your body. You can't give him anything except your body, which is also terrible. Do you know why? Because you are just a filthy Omega."

Tears gathered in her eyes. She raised her hand and slapped his left cheek hard.

Arvan never thought this little Omega had this much strength in her hand. The slap was very hard. He touched his cheek and it was painful.

He got furious and grabbed her arms tightly. He looked at her. "You dared to slap me??"

Till now, nobody dared to slap him, not even touch him. But this woman dared to do that.

His grip was tightened but when he looked into her eyes. He felt agony in his heart. Tears were dropping from her eyes and she looked at him angrily.

"You said I am shameless, right?? You are the actual shameless, not me. You rejected me without any care, never came to ask me how I was bearing all the things. You never cared for your mate, never cared for your mate bond. You only cared about yourself and your girlfriend. Even now, you are reacting like this because Blaze is your girlfriend's ex mate.

Otherwise, why would you care about me? You never did. You will feel insulted if any pack member goes with him, only because he is your girlfriend's mate. I understand how you are. You only care about your prestige and nothing else."

Arvan felt discomfort in his heart for the first time. He didn't know why he was feeling like that. He saw this woman's tears when he rejected her but he didn't feel anything at that time, but today, why were her tears making him feel like that?

"Rose why are you cry-" Arvan was talking when Rose pushed him with all her strength.

Arvan didn't stop her this time because he was feeling uneasy with all of this.

Rose was leaving him but before she left, she turned her head and said,

"I'M TIRED. DON'T MAKE ME HATE YOU MORE, ARVAN."

Chapter 40 Meeting Grandma

"I'M TIRED. DON'T MAKE ME HATE YOU MORE, ARVAN."

Rose left from there. Arvan was looking at her back. He was feeling uncomfortable in his heart. He clenched his heart.

'What is wrong with me? Why did I feel sad when I saw her tears as if I forgot all of my anger? Why??'

He pulled his hair with anger and punched a tree. He could not control his rage and shifted. He went for a long run. He was growling while thinking about Rose.

Meanwhile,

Rose took a cab and went back home. She sent messages to Alice, Delilah and her mom that she went back home because she was not feeling good.

Alice called her after getting the message. Rose was sitting on her bed. She changed her clothes and saw Alice's name on her phone's screen. She received the call.

"Alice."

"Why didn't you come back to the hall? I would go with you if you were not feeling well, Rossy."

"I am okay. I am just sleepy."

"Has anything happened? Did Alpha Blaze say something or do something?" Alice asked in a lower tone.

"No, Alice. He didn't do anything. I will tell you what happened. But now all I want is to sleep. Sorry that I had to leave without saying you two bye."

"It's okay, Rose. We will go back together. Alice told me she will drop me." Delilah said. That meant the phone was on a loud speaker. Alice really cared about Delilah. Thinking about that Rose smiled.

"Okay Rossy, now go to sleep. We will talk tomorrow."

"Good night, both of you. Please tell my mom to come home safely."

"I will drop her too." Alice assured Rose. Alice had a car so she would drop Delilah and Selena off.

"Thanks, Alice."

"Shut up and go to sleep now."

Rose chuckled and hung up the phone. She lied down on the bed. She was thinking about what happened today. Arvan again tried to insult her without any reason. Was she a joke to him? Every time he humiliated her. Now she stopped looking at him, but still, he found every scope to disgrace her. Rose fell asleep while thinking about everything.

The next morning, Rose woke up and got ready. She went downstairs and saw her mom was in the kitchen room.

"Mom"

She went to her mom and hugged her from behind.

"Why didn't you come back to the hall last night?"
Selena asked her.

"I was not feeling well, that was why I came back soon." Rose replied.

Selena didn't ask for more and served the breakfast.

"Now let's eat, otherwise most of the time you go to the university without having breakfast."

"What should I do? They schedule everything as if we are still school kids." Rose said while chewing her food.

After eating, Rose kissed her mom's forehead. "Mom, I am going. I will come back late today."

"Why?" Selena asked.

"I will go to meet with Selena's grandma."

"Her grandmother is alive? You never told me that."

"I forgot to tell you. Now I'm leaving mom or I will be late." Rose said and started to run.

"Stay safe and see before walking. Don't run like a child." Selena shouted behind her.

Rose took a bus and sat on a seat. Today she had to go to Delilah's grandma. She wanted to ask about her dream and her newly found power.

The bus arrived at the university. Rose got off the bus and started to walk. When she was passing a group of friends, she saw Rita, Vector, and Liam.

Rose didn't want to talk with them. So she avoided them and started to walk ahead.

"Rose."

Rose heard someone calling her.

Rose turned around and saw it was Liam who was calling her.

"Yes, Liam?"

"I am sorry to disturb you. But do you know where Arvan is?"

Rose looked at him confusingly. "How would I know that?"

"I saw him taking you to the forest last night. So I thought you knew something." Liam said. He looked tense.

"No, I don't know anything about him. Yes, he took me to the forest, but it was just to insult me. That's it."

Rose replied and turned around. She didn't care where he was. She didn't need to worry.

Rose met with Alice and Delilah. She told them what Blaze told her last night. But she didn't tell them about Arvan. She didn't want to talk about him.

After classes, Rose told Delilah that today she wanted to meet grandma. Delilah agreed happily. "Let's go. I will go to meet grandma too." Alice said.

Delilah was delighted to hear that.

Three of them went to the forest and reached the hut.

Alice was surprised when she saw the hut in the middle of the forest. "I have never thought about it. A hut in the middle of the forest!!!"

"Yeah, my grandma lives here. She likes to live in nature and the forest side gives her a good environment to experiment with her spells," Delilah said.

"Wow. Let's go." Alice said cheerfully.

They went to the hut. Rose saw grandma cooking in her small kitchen.

"This is fascinating. It is a small but comfortable place." Alice remarked in the hut.

Grandma turned around and saw them.

"Grandma, Rose said she wanted to meet you. And she is my friend Alice." Delilah said and introduced Alice to her.

Grandma smiled at Rose. "You came here after a while. Please sit down while I am cooking lunch. First, eat, then we talk." Rose nodded at her.

Grandma looked at Alice and then looked back at the pan on the stove.

"Your birthday is coming. Your mate is also waiting. Waiting for your acceptance." Grandma spoke out.

Alice's eyes widened. "How do you know that my birthday is coming?" Her birthday was two weeks away.

"Just a guess." Grandma said and smiled at her.

"I told you she told me about my wolf and rejection just looking at me." Rose reminded Alice.

They sat on the couch and Grandma cooked food. She served the dishes to the small table in front of the couch.

They quietly ate their food.

'Grandma is a really good cook. Delilah was right.'
Alice thought.

"Grandma, all the dishes were delicious." Alice praised her.

"Thanks, honey." Grandma smiled at her.

After helping to clean the dishes, Alice and Rose went back to the couch. "Grandma, you told me about mate. What was that?"

"I told you that you would find him soon."

"You said he is waiting for me?".

"Yes, he knows that you are his mate. But he is waiting for your birthday. When you get to know about him, he will accept you without any hesitation."

Everyone's jaws dropped.

"Wow." Delilah said in amazement. Alice blushed to hear grandma.

"Alice is blushing?!!!" Delilah said. Rose chuckled at Alice.

"You all shut up. Grandma, tell us about Rossy." Alice said to grandma.

"What is your situation, dear?" Grandma asked Rose.

"I am feeling strange, grandma."

Rose told grandma about what happened the day when she fell and got hurt but she could heal herself just with her palm caressing.

Then she told her about her dream.

"I saw the woman in black clothes. But grandma I could not see her face." Rose said.

"She is our pack's royal witch." Grandma let out.

"Royal witch??"

Rose was shocked. 'Didn't werewolves and witches contact each other rarely. Then how could a witch be officially royal?' Rose thought.

"Yes, our former Alpha made her our royal witch but after getting old she went somewhere. Nobody knows where she went but she is alive. So we are not worried." Grandma explained to them.

"I don't know what is happening to me." Rose sighed.

"Everything is going well with you. You will get your happiness soon. Someone will want to sacrifice something enormous for you, he will try to win you, but when he loses his heart in front of you he will not survive."

Rose frowned. "Grandma, can you please tell me clearly?"

"Dear, I have the power of eyesight of the future and past. But I can not tell anymore. It's not in my hands. It's up to you what path you will choose." Grandma smiled at them.

Rose thought about Grandma's proclamation.

'Is it even possible that somebody will want to lose something for me? Who? Is it Alpha Blaze?'

Rose was perplexed about everything. The more she wanted to know about that, the more she was getting into a mind maze.

"DON'T PRESSURE YOUR BRAIN ROSE, YOU WILL FIND OUT EVERYTHING, VERY SOON."
