Chapter 82

"I-..." Tears welled up in Lauren's eyes as she choked on her words.

"You just want to go against our wishes! Since we look down on Alice, you decide to help her out. All because you wanted to show how special you are! Do you really think you're a heroine for doing that?"

Betty's pretty face was now twisted into one of hatred and anger. "Stop being stupid! Mr. Landon will never have feelings for you! Stop being delusional!"

"Ms. Betty, what are you doing?" Mrs. Rosie rushed into the room before pulling Lauren into a hug

The other Kousekeepers in Seaview Manor were used to such dramas. Besides, they'd rather stay away from the conflict. Mrs. Rosie was the only one who dared to defend Lauren.

"Get out, Mrs. Rosie! This is none of your business!" Betty snapped at her in frustration.

"I think you should be the one leaving this room!"

Mrs. Rosie comforted Lauren, who was trembling in fright. She eyed Betty up and down.

She warned, "If you leave this room right now, I'll pretend I never saw anything. Otherwise, I'll tell

Mr. Jasper how you bullied Ms. Lauren once he comes home!"

Betty shuddered at the thought before gritting her teeth angrily.

If Jasper were to find out how she truly acted in Seaview Manor, he would most likely tell Landon about it. After all, both of them were best friends. Betty would definitely have a hard time pursuing Landon if Jasper decided to sabotage her.

With that thought in mind, the woman decided to stop bullying Lauren. For now, at least.

Still, she felt that she didn't push Lauren around enough. Before Betty left the room, she snatched the teddy bear from Lauren's arms and chucked it from the window.

"Ah! My teddy bear!"

"Ugh, it's just junk!" Betty huffed coldly. She flipped her long curls before leaving the room casually.

Lauren bolted out of the manor hurriedly.

It just so happened that Jasper returned to Seaview Manor at that time. He was surprised to see his younger sister in a panic.

"Yes, Grandpa?"

"Why can't I call Alice at all?"

The older Newton got, the more childish he became. He sounded like he was about to break down in tears from the other end of the line.

"What's wrong with Alice? I can't seem to contact her at all lately! She doesn't even visit me now!

Does she not want to see me anymore? Jasper, you stupid brat! This is all your fault! If Alice doesn't care about me anymore, I'll disown you!"

"Grandpa, Alice still cares about you. Don't overthink it." Jasper pinched the spot between his brows while looking anxious.

"Then hurry up and contact Alice for me! I want to see my beloved granddaughter-in-law! Go find her, damn it!"
