Chapter 322 by Adolf Dunne

Chapter 322 The Ulterior Motive

Noticing Carson's gaze, Joey quietly put his phone into his pocket, and said with a wink, "I just came to Apliaria. I've heard from Mr. Smith that there are many interesting places in Apliaria."

Carson frowned slightly and looked at Joey, waiting for him to continue to say.

Joey smiled and said, "I heard that the Moon-like Ancient Road is very interesting. If you don't mind, after the meal, can I..."

"No, you can't." Before Joey finished his words, Carson refused him decisively.

Then why do you still ask?" Being refused so decisively, Joey couldn't help but roll his eyes, muttered and turned to look out of the window.

Carson smiled. 'Moon-like Ancient Road? It is just a path paved with a few blue stone bricks. And there are some people who sell interesting antiques on the roadside all year round. It is not interesting.' Carson was afraid that the real purpose Joey wanted to go to Moon-like Ancient Road was not to play, but to do other thing.

People in the Moon-like Ancient Road just needed to cross two roads before arriving the First Flowerence Hospital where Victor stayed, and it only took ten minutes.

As a matter of fact, from the moment when Joey suddenly wanted to go to the Salazar Group with him, Carson had more or less guessed what he wanted to do. It was a lie to go to the lab of the Salazar Group to see "Ultraman". It was also a lie to say that he was hungry and wanted to eat outside. It was true that Joey wanted to find an opportunity to go to the hospital.

Carson took Joey to a Western restaurant nearby to have lunch.

When the dinner was almost finished, Carson put down his fork and took a sip of water. He looked at Joey who stopped eating and asked, "Are you full?"

Joey looked at the steak left in front of him and said, "I'm full."

"If you are full, we just leave now. I'll drive you back to Sue Garden. A little later, Lukas will call to urge us." As he spoke, Carson raised his hand and gestured for the waiter to come here to account bill with his fingers bending slightly.

Joey looked at Carson and wanted to say something, but on second thought, he didn't say. He wiped his mouth and stood up. "I'm going to the bathroom."

At this moment, a waiter came over. Carson took out his phone and paid the bill. Before he could answer Joey, Joey had turned around and walked towards the bathroom.

Carson's eyes flashed. He took the bill from the waiter and thought about something.

At the same time, as soon as Joey entered the bathroom, he took out his mobile phone, opened the mobile navigation system and set the First Flowerence Hospital as his destination.

With Carson's attitude just now, if Joey said he wanted to go to the hospital, Carson would definitely not take him to there.

If Joey went back to the Sue Garden, it would be more difficult for him to come out. Besides, in addition to going to the hospital, he also wanted to find his mother

While thinking, Joey sat on the toilet, holding the phone with his little hand and typing on the screen with his thumb quickly. On the screen of the phone, there were all kinds of strange codes — Joey was Calculating the best way to go out of the bathroom and avoid being seen by Carson and the driver.

"Ding"!

A message popped up at the top of the screen.

It was from Dhruv. 'Mr. R, have you solved your problem? Do you need any help?'

Joey opened the message and replied, "R's settled. Thank you."

Soon, Dhruv replied, "You're welcome. it's my honor to help you. I hope I can have a chance to learn from you about my latest programming."

Joey replied, "There will be a chance."

After Joey replied, the codes on the screen stopped running. On the screen, a red line was drawn on the small map, which was the fastest way to get to the hospital and could let Joey avoid Carson and the driver.

After memorizing the route and turning off his phone, Joey put his phone into his pocket and pushed the door open.

As soon as he opened the door, he saw a people standing in front of the wash basin. His proud smile disappeared at once.

Chapter 323 Liar Has A Longer Nose

Joey quickly calmed himself down and smiled slightly. He walked from the toilet stall to the wash basin without saying a word and silently washing his hands.

“Little guy, you ran so fast that you disappeared in the blink of an eye. I almost thought you were going to run away.” The person who was leaning against the wash basin was no one else but Carson.

Joey had thought a lot, but he didn't expect that Carson would come to the bathroom to block him. Joey turned off the tap and took out some tissue. “I was in a hurry to urinate just now.”

“Really? I thought you wanted to sneak away when I was not noticing.” It seemed that Carson just echoed casually.

Joey crumpled the tissue into a ball. Hearing this, he subconsciously looked up at Carson, and then threw the tissue into the trash can, without saying anything.

Outside the western restaurant, Carson and Joey got into the car one after another.

As soon as Joey got in the car, he turned his head to look out of the window. When the moment he came out of the bathroom, he ignored Carson and became angry. He didn't know whether he was angry with himself or with Carson.

It was the first time that he had encountered something out of his plan. Since childhood, as long as he had a plan, everything would go as he wanted. But obviously, Carson made his plan fail again and again, which made hini more or less frustrated.

The frustration turned into anger, making Joey very uncomfortable.

As soon as Carson got on the car, he noticed that Joey was in a bad mood. His eyes flashed, then he called, “Little guy.”

"..... " Joey turned his back to Carson and said nothing.

"TSK, TSK. I wanted to say that it's not far from the Moon-like Ancient Road. Since you want to go there, I can take you there. Now it seems that you don't want to go there." Carson said with wry look in his eyes while observing Joey.

When Joey heard the word 'Moon-like Ancient Road', his ear moved obviously, but he still didn't turn around to answer.

After waiting for a while, Carson pretended to feel pity and sighed, "Well, we have to go back to Sue Garden." Then he said to the driver, "Let's go to the Sue Garden."

With his back to Carson, Joey bit his lips and wondered if Carson was setting a trap for him. "Okay." The driver answered and started the car slowly.

After thinking for a while, Joey recalled what Carson and Lukas had said this morning and the scene that Victor had protected him by holding him under his body.

"I want to go." Joey turned around and looked at Carson.

"What? What did you say?" Carson pretended not to hear it clearly, raised his eyebrows and asked.

..... " Joey glared at Carson, but soon his eyebrows relaxed and he said obediently, "I want to go to the Moon-like Ancient Road. "

"Oh, so you mean this." drawled Carson deliberately. Joey squinted at Carson with his big eyes.

Carson signaled the driver to stop the car at the side of the road. As soon as the car stopped, the driver got out of the car, leaving the two alone. As soon as Joey saw the driver get off the car, he realized that... Carson set a trap for him again.

Before Joey could think about what Carson was going to do, he heard Carson say, "It's okay that you go to the Moon-like Ancient Road, and you can also make other requests, but I have to ask you a few questions. If your answers make me satisfied, I'll take you there."

Joey reached out his hand to touch the door handle, trying to open the door. But when he touched it, he heard 'click' and the door was locked.

"The first question 2

"I haven't promised you whether I will answer your questions or not!" Joey's face darkened and he frowned.

"It doesn't matter. You can choose to keep silent. Anyway, when you went to the bathroom, I had told Lukas that I would take you back later, so I have plenty of time to wait for your answer in the car."

..... Mr. Newbie, haven't anyone told you that threatening a child is a very despicable behavior? "

"Yes, it is. But I don't mind."

Joey was angry, he stared at Carson for a long time. Then he pouted and said angrily, "What do you want to ask?"

"The first question, can you program?" Carson asked.

Joey was stunned for a moment, and he was not so angry. But he reacted quickly and did not make Carson notice any his unusual expression. He decisively replied, "No."

Carson squinted his eyes, which blurred the lachrymal mole at the corner of his eye. He looked at Joey up and down.

"Littleguy, you are a liar. Your nose will grow longer." Carson smiled, looked at Joey and said casually.
