her death, there will be more than six million life insurance in our hands, draw it down, one or two million a year, do you think it's worth it?"

"It's worth it!" Horiyah rubbed his hands in excitement, and said excitedly: "Then you have to look good on your mother, and you definitely can't let Jacob's family grab it!"

Noah nodded and said with a smile: "That's natural! More than six million won't be given to Jacob at that time!"

Horiyah hurriedly said, "Not only will I not give him more than six million pennies, when mother is dead, and we have to pay for funeral and the cemetery, Jacob will have to pay half!"

Noah subconsciously said: "The Lady Willson has cut off relations with him, can he pay the money?"

"Are you stupid?" Horiyah blurted out: "The Lady Willson broke off relations with him. It was verbal and does not have legal effect. When the Lady Willson dies, if Jacob is unwilling to pay the money, then let's go to court sued him! After all, before the law, he is still the son of Lady Willson, and he has the responsibility and obligation to pay half of the money!"

Noah instantly beamed his eyebrows and laughed: "Wife, you are right! By then, Jacob's half can't be discounted by a single point! It's my wife who is smart! Hahaha!"

Horiyah was also full of pride, and said with a grin: "Jacob and Elaine's two silly dumb hats, playing with us, how can they be our opponents!"

As soon as the voice fell, a little real estate agency girl in a small suit came over and asked politely, "Are you Mr. Willson and Mrs. Willson?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Noah nodded hurriedly and said, "You are the granddaughter of Premium Land Real Estate, right?"

"That's right." The little girl smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Willson and Mrs. Willson, I have already made an appointment with the owner of this villa. She is in the villa now. We can go directly to inspect the house."

"Okay." Noah said hurriedly: "Then go over and take a look."

While leading the way, the little girl said: "I will introduce you to this villa. The owner is an aunt. This time she wants to clear the property and immigrate to the United States. So the price is slightly cheaper than the market price!"

Upon hearing this, Noah and Horiyah couldn't help themselves.

It's cheap!

If this villa is suitable, the money saved after it is bought will be used to decorate and save money!

.....

On the other side, Elaine was playing mahjong with Shehlain and other players, and a pleasant doorbell suddenly rang from outside the door.

Shehlain said with an apologetic expression: "I'm sorry, it may be that the intermediary brought someone to see the house. I am unaccompanied and go and open the door."

After speaking, she stood up, walked to the hallway, and opened the door.

Seeing the agent who had previously commissioned the sale of the villa standing outside the door, and seeing her with a middle-aged man and woman behind her, Shehlain knew that this was a client who came to see the house, and smiled and said, "Please come in."

The agent Willson said: "Ms. Shehlain, let me introduce to you. This is Mr. Willson. The one next to him is his wife, Mrs. Willson. These two are the ones I communicated with you on the phone and are interested in buying this villa."

The middle-aged man smiled slightly, took a step forward, and said politely: "Hello, Ms. Shehlain, my name is Noah, I am glad to meet you."

The visitors were Noah and his wife Horiyah.

Chapter 526

Shehlain hurriedly smiled and said: "Oh, please come in quickly, please come in quickly, I haven't lived in this villa for many years, you can watch it!"

"Okay." Noah nodded, and after entering the door with Horiyah, he began to look at the layout and decoration of the villa.

The agent on the side, said with a smile: "Mr. Willson, the XiDollar villa area is the first villa area developed by our Aurous Hill. The supporting facilities are relatively complete, and access is controlled. It can fully guarantee your safety. The villa has an actual living area of 470 square meters, which fully meets your previous requirements..."

The reason why Noah bought the old villa was because it was a cheap one. A normal 470-square-meter villa cost at least 20 million in Aurous Hill, but the price of this villa is generally 134 million, and the price is still dozens. Ten thousand downsides.

So he asked Shehlain: "Ms. Shehlain, how much is your villa going to sell for?"

"I am going to the United States soon. This villa is in a hurry for sale, so the price will be relatively cheaper..."

Shehlain smiled slightly and said, "Well, if you two have intentions, a price of 12 million, what do you think?"

"What, are you stealing the money?" Horiyah couldn't believe it, she raised her voice, blurted out: "For such an old villa, you actually asked for twelve million?!"

Shehlain was not angry, and said with a smile: "In this community, most of the listings are above 13.5 million, and there are even more than 14 million. I quoted 12 million. In fact, It's already a very, very cost-effective reserve price."

Elaine was sitting in the entertainment hall of the villa. She heard the sound outside that was particularly familiar, and quietly glanced out, and suddenly saw Horiyah with a look of disgust.

And next to her is Noah, the eldest son of the Willson family.

Elaine didn't expect that these two people would actually be here. Combined with what Shehlain said just now, it is estimated that they are customers who want to buy Shehlain's old villa.

Isn't the Willson family going cold? Can they still afford a villa?

At this time, Horiyah said with an arrogant expression: "Ms. Shehlain, to be honest with you, only a fool would buy 12 million, and I heard that you are going to the United States soon. I don't think so. Give you a price of 8 million. You sell the house, and we can trade today! You can pack your bags and go to the United States tomorrow. The best of both worlds."

The main reason why Horiyah kept the price down was that the other party was anxious to sell. Since she was anxious to sell, she would definitely have to bargain to death so that she could make a fortune.

She felt that Shehlain was just going to the United States, not anxious enough, if someone in the family was dying and waiting for first aid! Maybe five or six million can be won!

However, Horiyah didn't know that Shehlain had money, and there were only a few houses alone, so she was not the one who lacked money at all. How could she ask Horiyah to cut the meat with a knife because she was in a hurry to sell her house?

Naturally, Shehlain knew that Horiyah was not at ease. She frowned and said with some disapproval: "Mrs. Willson, let's not hide it. Although my villa is a bit old, the price given to you is quite reasonable. In the market, you will definitely not find a lower price than mine. As for the price of 8 million you said, it is simply a fantasy!"

After speaking, Shehlain said again: "Since the two of you don't have this sincerity, then I don't think we need to continue talking."

Noah knew very well in his heart that a counter-offer of 8 million would be a bullshit. Saying 8 million for this house was a joke. As long as the owner hangs out 11 million, someone will eat it within half an hour, because the house is indeed very expensive. It's cheaper!

So he hurried to accompany with a smile and said: "Ms. Shehlain, don't be angry, my wife is not sensible, so she will talk nonsense."

Horiyah glared at Noah and said, "I'm not sensible? Who is in charge of the family, you forgot? I tell you, don't be a sh!t stick with this. I think this house will cost 8 million. Nothing!"

After finishing speaking, she tried her best to wink at Noah, which means, look at her, she specified that this woman can be taken down.

At this time, Elaine came over with a smile on her face and said cheerfully: "Oh, eldest brother and sister-in-law, eight million you want to buy a villa, are you two crazy?"

Chapter 527

Horiyah and Noah never dreamed that they would meet Elaine here!

The two of them didn't even understand why Elaine was in this villa?

Could it be that she and this Shehlain are friends?

Horiyah felt a little annoyed.

In fact, she had planned to do it at the beginning, first kill the price of 8 million, if the other party really disagrees, she can keep increasing, up to 9 million, and it is estimated that she can win it.

However, she did not expect Elaine to be here at this time!

Moreover, this Elaine is usually respectful to her. Why did she dare to mock her when she came up today? She has eaten the courage of the bear heart and leopard?

Elaine was bullied by Noah and Horiyah since she married into the Willson family. After being bullied for more than 20 years, she hated them for a long time.

And she also heard that the Willson family is going to be bankrupt now, so she had long wanted to find a chance to taunt the two, but she didn't expect God to be really eye-opening, and she would run into them here!

After Horiyah heard her sarcasm, her face was very ugly, and she asked: "Elaine, what do you mean by this?"

Elaine smiled and said, "Oh, sister-in-law, do you really not understand or fake? My friend's villa of more than 10 million, you only give 8 million, you are shameless? I know you are poor recently you are crazy, but can't come out to grab it!"

When she said this, she didn't conceal anything, nor did she want to conceal it, let alone what Noah felt in the heart.

Husband Jacob has no status in Willson's family. She has been held down by the couple for so many years, and she has long been suffocated.

Now that she has a chance to step on a foot, she naturally wants them to feel the bitterness that she has tasted over the years!

Horiyah's face was even more ugly, she glared at her, and said, "Okay, Elaine, I haven't seen you in a few days. You have become more skilled, right? I used to be like a mouse and a cat. Now you dare to do this. Talk to me?"

She was naturally angry too!

In the past, Elaine was inferior in front of her Willson family's sister-in-law, who was the only one who didn't dare to breathe.

But now, seeing that the Willson family was about to be finished, this Lady Willson immediately dared to jump out and run herself, what a villain!

When Elaine saw her mention the past, she immediately said arrogantly: "Oh, sister-in-law, you thought you are the Lady Willson, and wanted to press me everywhere? Don't look at how poor you are now. Pretending to me?"

She said, she said with contempt: "To tell you the truth, I have seen not pleasing to your eyes for a long time. Over the years, if the Lady Willson had been partial to you, your eldest daughter-in-law, how could I have swallowed my breath and praised your stink every day? Feet? A stinky lady who only knows how to kneel and lick old ladies. Now that the Willson family is down, what else do you want to pretend to be with me? I yuck! You can hurry up and take a pee and take your own virtues!"

Horiyah's angry face turned green.

In the entire Willson family, could it be that she was the only one kneeling and licking the Old Mrs. Willson?

When, Elaine, rushed to lick the Lady Willson, you did everything, but you worked harder than me. Everyone is the same thing. Are you embarrassed to say me? !

Chapter 528

Noah's face was pale, and he stepped forward and scolded: "Elaine, you are less damned in this villain, no matter how downright we are, we are better than you! You don't want to see what you have? Husband is a Rubbish, son-in-law also waste, the whole family is waste!"

Elaine's eyes were wide, and she said with disdain: "Oh! Big brother, big brother, my husband is really waste, but there is no way, the men of the Willson family are waste, don't you know this in your heart?"

"You..." Noah gritted his teeth.

Good you Elaine, I scolded your husband, your words brought me and my son in too?

At this time, Elaine did not give him a chance to continue speaking, but pinched her waist and said with a proud face: "But, don't you say that my son-in-law Charlie is Rubbish, my baby son-in-law, now he is amazing. Quite! Don't say anything else, it is because of my son-in-law we will be able to live in Tomson's big villa next month. Do you have it?"

In fact, Elaine can't really afford Charlie.

However, at this time, using Charlie to ridicule Noah was really just right!

When Noah heard this, his heart was really uncomfortable to death.

d*mn, that's right!

Charlie's Rubbish can actually flicker to a Tomson first-class villa, what about himself? Now he is going to buy this kind of second-hand villa with 20 years of age, the other one, here are ten on top!

Seeing Noah's ugly and uncomfortable expression, Elaine was happy, and almost danced a square dance in excitement.

She continued to attack Noah, sighing and saying, "Oh, before, I really thought Charlie was a rubbish, so I couldn't look down on him. At that time, I envied my eldest brother and sister-in-law! Your Wendy, she went to the White family's Young Mr. Gerald, isn't this just flying on a branch and becoming a phoenix?"

As she said, Elaine sighed and shook her hand with regret: "Hey, but who would have thought that Wendy would be dumped by Gerald! Tell me about this Gerald, really the sumbag among the sumbags! It's a big game! Wendy's belly swallowed. What was the reason?"

Horiyah and Noah looked at each other, and they were already annoyed to kill!

d*mn, this stinky lady dared to expose her shortness, it's damned!

At this moment, Elaine continued: "But, I still envy you. Although Gerald dumped Wendy, I heard that Wendy hired a son-in-law for my elder brother and sister-in-law! I heard that he is Fredmen, the chairman of Future Company Group, is much better than Gerald!"

Speaking of this, Elaine said with regret: "However, this Fredmen is good everywhere, just a little older, brother, Fredmen seems to be two or three years older than you, can I ask you, What is it like to hire a son-in-law who is older than you?"

Horiyah couldn't hear the irony in these words, her angry face was livid, and she shouted angrily: "Elaine! Shut up! Otherwise I will tear your mouth down!"

"Yo!" Elaine said disdainfully: "Sister-in-law, what I'm telling you is the truth, why don't you let me tell? You have a guilty conscience? You want to tear my mouth?"

Speaking of this, Elaine snorted coldly, and said, "I tell you Horiyah, don't think you have a son-in-law who is older than you, you just want to bully me! Don't think I don't know, Director Fredmen, he has already dumped your Wendy! Am I right?"

"Also, I heard that Fredmen still gave your Wendy to Barena from the Wei family? Oh, this Fredmen is really interesting. Wendy is a person, not a gift, not a puppy, so how can she be casual give away someone?"

"It looks like it's better than my precious son-in-law Charlie. Although it's a little bit useless, it's at least reliable and won't give up to our family."

Horiyah was ridiculed by Elaine, and she was going crazy!

She grinned and rushed to fight Elaine, hysterically cursing: "Elaine! I am fighting with you today!"

Chapter 529

When Elaine saw that Horiyah was about to come up and do something, she immediately jumped a step back and said coldly: "I tell you Horiyah, you can't offend me, you'd better not indulge me!"

Horiyah cursed with a stern face: "I can't afford to offend you, Lady Willson? If I don't tear your mouth today, I would change my name!"

Elaine snorted and said coldly, "My precious son-in-law Charlie, that's a very good fight! You forgot how he taught the Willson family's dog legs, and your rubbish son Harold? Kick your son up into the sky! You provoke me, believe it or not, I will call him over with a phone call and let him kill you two old turtles?"

As soon as these words came out, Horiyah trembled all over, like a deflated ball, all the rhetoric just now disappeared...

To be honest, Charlie really left a strong psychological shadow on her.

She couldn't understand why the Rubbish who could be bullied before suddenly became so capable of beating. He was a pervert when he struck up people!

Noah was also very afraid of Charlie, after all, he had watched Charlie do it with his own eyes at the beginning, and that guy almost did scare him to pee.

Elaine saw that the two of them were afraid to say anything, knowing that they were both afraid of him, and immediately sneered: "Oh, I really sympathize with you when, I say. The Willson family is over, Harold and Wendy have no objective, and Wendy is now in Aurous Hill, and that is also well-known to all. You will definitely be particularly sad in the future."

As she said, Elaine said with a serious face: "Don't blame me for not reminding you. Just don't buy a villa if you look like a bird. What kind of villa do you buy? There are mines at home? You might eat it any day. In the absence of a last meal, let me see, you should go to the suburbs to buy a cheap small house, and take the remaining money to do a small business."

Noah and Horiyah were so angry that they couldn't speak.

Elaine continued: "Right! I think you might as well open a mahjong hall! In this case, when Shehlain's villa is sold, I will take my sisters to your mahjong hall to support you, so that you will not starve to death. What do you think?"

Noah had a heart attack.

Horiyah on the side wanted to kill Elaine.

This is the first time they have seen Elaine so unsparingly sarcastic!

Even the most ruthless and ruthless sarcasm they have suffered in their entire lives!

What's even more hateful is that they can't talk back!

Why is this mouth back?

Eating, dressing, housing, use, daughter, son-in-law, everything is better than Elaine, this stinky lady!

Thinking of this, Noah and his wife were even more frustrated. They were so ashamed and angry that they wanted to dig a hole directly on the spot!

Elaine was in a mess at this time, and she even wanted to open her throat to sing a few more words, she can't remember how long she hasn't been so happy, she is simply repaying the previous hatred, even with the benefits!

Noah knew that he couldn't find his face today, so he said coldly, "Elaine, sooner or later you will pay for your arrogance of today!"

Elaine nodded and sighed, "Yes, big brother, I think the price will come soon. I will move to Tomson's big villa next month. The house is so big that I might be in it every day, I will be lost several times. How can I live in this house now? The house there is so big and tall, I'm afraid that I won't adapt to it..."

As she said, Elaine sighed again and said, "Hey, when we live in Tomson, we will be separated from eldest brother, and we will not see each other often in the future, so I can't listen to what the eldest brother and sister-in-law say often. These are the prices I have to pay for today!"

Noah felt that he was going to be blown up soon. In order to save his life, he gritted his teeth and stomped his feet and cursed: "d*mn, if you don't buy the house, let's go!"

Chapter 530

After speaking, he took Horiyah and went out.

The intermediary girl on the side greeted her in a very embarrassing manner. Although she despised the two customers after listening to Elaine's words, the customer is god after all.

When Shehlain saw the two gone, she couldn't help sighing: "Sister Elaine, your two relatives are too weird, do they think I am a fool? They wanted to buy my villa for eight million..."

Elaine smiled and said, "They are about to go bankrupt, and they have no money at all. They are just a bunch of poor people. Even if you promise them to sell for 8 million, they may not be able to pay!"

Shehlain nodded and said, "It's really disappointing. Let's ignore them and continue playing cards!"

.....

When Noah and his wife Horiyah left the villa, they scolded the people in the street, in unison!

The main reason why they didn't dare to scold in front of Elaine was because they were afraid of her son-in-law Charlie.

If they really get beaten, it will be a big loss.

The intermediary followed the two of them. After they had enough scolding, she cautiously asked, "Mr. and Mrs. Willson, are you two still looking for other houses?"

Horiyah's face was extremely ugly, she glared at her and cursed: "Look at your mother, get out!"

After speaking, she took Noah and walked out of the community.

The little girl was aggrieved in tears, but because of her weak temper, she didn't have the courage.

But when Horiyah went out, she wanted to get more and more angry, and couldn't help but say to Noah: "This Elaine, she doesn't know how to show off if she has two stinky money! Look at her virtuous attitude. She actually showed off that she was going to live in the Tomson first grade, and she panicked for us. Whose big villa is, does she have no idea? If Charlie's Rubbish goes out to deceive people, what can she do!"

Noah said with a cold face, agreeing: "This stinky girl is really too f*cking too much!"

As he said, he sighed and said helplessly: "However, we have nothing to do with her now. Whoever makes our Willson family fail soon, anyone or a dog can come over and step on..."

Horiyah couldn't help asking: "Then we still buy a house? If you don't, your mother wants you to give her 8 million!"

"Buy, of course we must buy it!" Noah said, "The house must be bought, but not now."

Horiyah hurriedly asked, "When will you buy it?"

Noah said: "Elaine, the stinky lady, has two money now. In my opinion, we might as well make a round for her."

"Do it? What game?" Horiyah was surprised.

Noah said with a sullen expression: "Doesn't she like gambling? Then let's make a bet. First use a little petty profit to lure her into the set, lure her to play the bigger the bet, and then let the experienced Old Master do something. Get all her money, hands and feet!"

Speaking of this, Noah sneered, and said: "It's best to let her mortgage Tomson's first-grade villa to us! In that case, we can turn over!"

Chapter 531

Elaine didn't know that Noah and Horiyah had already coveted her assets and the Tomson First-Class villa of her son-in-law Charlie.

She was in Shehlain's house, and she started to rub mahjong with her friends. She didn't go home until dinner time. The four old ladies ordered some KFC takeaways. One of them was holding a family bucket, eating chicken legs and rubbing mahjong. The one that rubs the mahjong is called shiny.

Charlie finished the meal and was eating with his wife and father-in-law. Claire couldn't help complaining when seeing his mother still not coming back, saying: "Dad, you also take care of my mother occasionally, don't keep her all day long to play!"

"Do I care about her?" Jacob snorted, and said, "I don't have the ability to do it. You have to do it. If I could do it to your mother, I won't be here today? Do you know why your grandma prefers your uncle, right? Do I need to tell you?"

Claire asked in surprise, "It's not because of my mother, right?"

"It's because of her!" Jacob sighed and said, "Your grandfather and your grandma didn't allow us to get married at the beginning. If your mother had you before she was unmarried, your grandfather wouldn't compromise. "

Charlie was surprised when he listened. He didn't expect the mother-in-law and the Old Master to run with the ball!

At this time, Jacob said to Claire again: "Actually, your grandma has never liked your mother, and it hasn't changed for more than 20 years."

"Why?" Claire asked puzzledly, "Is there any dissatisfaction, should we not let go of prejudices for more than 20 years?"

Jacob said: "Your grandma said that your mother is a shrew, and she thinks your mother's family is relatively poor."

Claire sighed in embarrassment and said, "It's not good to say, my grandma is not much better than my mother..."

"You're right." Jacob nodded and said, "I think the reason why your grandma doesn't like your mother is because she feels too much like herself..."

Claire rubbed her temples and murmured, "I think what you said makes sense..."

Charlie on the side did not speak, but in his heart he also agreed with Jacob's words.

The Old Mrs. Willson is the big devil, Elaine is the little devil, and the big devil will get old, so she will be afraid when she sees the little devil. She is afraid that one day she will grow old and the little devil will become the big devil, and then start oppressing her.

Therefore, this is also the fundamental reason why she has been pressing Elaine all the time.

The relationship between Chinese mother-in-law and daughter-in-law is very subtle, but in the final analysis, it is nothing more than one point: the mother-in-law wants to hold the daughter-in-law firmly, and the daughter-in-law desperately wants to get rid of the control of the mother-in-law.

Especially Mrs. Willson, a woman with a particularly strong desire for control, I am afraid that no one can stand it.

At this time, the TV that had been playing Aurous Hill News suddenly interrupted a piece of news.

The host said: "The following is an emergency news. A few days ago, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., Masao Kobayashi died in an accident in Tokyo. According to Japanese media, the cause of death was that his eldest son, Ichiro, gave him poison. It shows that Masao Kobayashi took a drug with a strong excitatory effect, which caused the heart to become overloaded and he died of a sudden heart attack."

Speaking of this, the host said: "Interpol has received news that Ichiro is currently hiding in Aurous Hill, and now the Kobayashi family is offering a reward of 3 billion yen to hunt down Ichiro, so a large number of Japanese killers and gang members have entered. In Aurous Hill, the police are actively hunting down these killers. The general public are requested to be vigilant and call the police immediately if they find suspicious persons!"

When Jacob heard this, he smacked his lips and said, "This Ichiro is really a beast. In order to inherit the family property, he will not let go of his own father!"

Charlie on the side laughed twice.

He wanted to cure his father's paralysis, so he was a filial son.

Chapter 532

It's a pity that this son was in his own hands, so this great filial son has now become a beast that everyone spurned.

After two days of fermentation, the death of Masao Kobayashi, the president of Japan's Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, has already aroused great concern in Japan.

Under the vigorous propaganda of Kobayashi's second son, Jiro, Ichiro became the chief culprit who poisoned his biological father and tried to occupy Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

The whole Japan scolded Ichiro, thinking that he was the most unfilial livestock in Japan..

At the same time, Jiro also increased the reward for killing Ichiro from 1 billion yen to 3 billion.

He now wants to quickly take the position of chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., so he must let his brother die quickly, and never let him return to Japan alive.

Jiro also knows very well that his elder brother never intended to kill his father, otherwise he would never be in China and would kill his father remotely. Then, if his father died, he could not take over immediately. Wouldn't it be a waste of money for him? ?

Therefore, he can also guess that the eldest brother is dying now.

After all, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical gave Charlie 10 billion, which is enough to see that Charlie was behind the whole incident.

However, the eldest brother has nothing to do with the wrongdoing. He is not wronged. He is the eldest son succeeding to the throne. What's the matter with himself?

If his second son wanted to counterattack, he had to suppress his eldest son.

Because of this, he couldn't wait to let his eldest brother die in Aurous Hill.

Because if Ichiro could never speak, his position would be more stable.

From his continuous increase in the bounty, it can also be seen that this person is now very eager to kill Ichiro as soon as possible.

So Charlie sent a WeChat to Orvel, asking him to contact Jiro, asking for one billion. If he puts out one billion, he will sell him Ichiro, and if he can't get it, he will escort Ichiro. Back to Tokyo to open a press conference to clarify the reason, and then openly compete with him for the successor of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Charlie's thinking is simple. If Jiro wants to be the chairman, he must cooperate with him. Otherwise, he will let Ichiro trouble him. If the brothers share Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, the loss will be far greater in Billions.

Without saying anything, Mr. Orvel immediately contacted Jiro and told him Charlie's request intact.

Jiro went crazy after hearing this.

Billion?

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has given Charlie 10 billion for the prescription of that poison!

The ten billion thing was given by Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. voluntarily at the beginning, and it was his father who was fooled by the other party.

When he think about it, it's d*mn irritating. My father spent 10 billion to buy a poison, and then he ate it himself to death and took his life.

If this transaction were to spread out, it would be the first unjust case in the ages.

Jiro felt that if Charlie wanted to be a person, he should just kill his eldest brother as a reward. He didn't expect this guy to speak up and ask him one billion? When did he open a bank?

Chapter 533

Jiro really hated Charlie crazy.

However, he didn't dare to offend Charlie 10,000 people.

Therefore, he could only bargain with Orvel.

The tone was very religious and said: "Mr. Orvel, can you convey to Mr. Charlie, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's account is only two to three billion, and many sales channels have not paid us back, and we still owe several billion bank loans are we are under great pressure now!"

Orvel said: "Mr. Charlie is always the same, so don't imagine that you can bargain with Mr. Charlie!"

Jiro begged: "Mr. Orvel, I'm really having a hard time now. If you don't want to do this, you can ask Mr. Charlie to delay me for two months. After two months, I will definitely give the money, but these two months During the time, he must not let my brother show up and speak up, let alone let him return to Japan!"

"Two months..." Orvel thought for a while, and said: "Wait a moment, I will ask Mr. Charlie."

After speaking, he immediately sent Charlie a WeChat, telling him Jiro's request for payment in two months.

Charlie was clearing the dining table. Seeing this WeChat message, he did not hesitate to reply: "Tell him, and then bargain with me, I will talk to his brother, and then I will send his brother back to Japan to grab the property. I ask his brother for 5 billion, and he would agree."

Ichiro is still hiding in the kennel of Orvel. He knows that there are countless people outside who want to kill him, so he is in panic all day long.

In his opinion, he might die one day. So, if Charlie gave him a chance to return to Japan to regain the property, then he would give Charlie the 80% property he robbed. There will be no hesitation.

What Orvel received from Charlie, and he immediately shared with Jiro: "Kobayashi, you are now bargaining with Mr. Charlie for one billion, but have you ever thought about it, if Mr. Charlie and your brother Ichiro had a good chat , Send him back to Japan to grab the property, Ichiro may promise to pay Mr. Charlie two billion or three billion in remuneration! By then, you will not lose a billion! As far as I know, you Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is a company with a market value of tens of billions!"

Upon hearing this, Jiro gritted his teeth and said without hesitation: "Mr. Orvel, please tell Mr. Charlie, I agree! I'll go raise money now!"

In fact, although there is not much money in the accounts of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Company, there are still a lot of deposits in the personal account of Jiro's father, Masao Kobayashi.

This money was supposed to be his father's inheritance, and the two brothers shared it together, but as long as his brother Ichiro died, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, as well as all the deposits, cash, antiques, and real estate left by his father, belong to him alone.

Therefore, he did not dare to delay any more. After only ten minutes, he transferred the money to Charlie's account, and at the same time called Orvel and said, "Mr. Orvel, the money has been transferred to Mr. Charlie's account. Please let Mr. Charlie check it, and by the way, please send my brother on the road as soon as possible after receiving the money. I hope he will die soon!"

Orvel agreed and said: "Mr. Charlie has always placed the most credibility, don't worry, as long as the money is received, your brother will be completely resolved and let him evaporate from the world."

After hanging up the phone, Orvel immediately sent a WeChat message to Charlie and asked: "Mr. Wade, have you received the money from Jiro?"

Charlie replied: "I have."

Chapter 534

Orvel hurriedly asked, "Do you want me to kill Ichiro now? Then take another video for Jiro to see?"

Charlie replied: "You hide Ichiro, then find someone who can do special effects, shoot a headshot of Ichiro's fake video and send it to Jiro to make sure he believes his brother is dead."

Orvel asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, are you trying to save Ichiro's life?"

Charlie said: "Yes, keeping Ichiro will be of great use in the future. Maybe someday I can get Kobayashi Pharmaceutical with him, and kill him for a billion. It's too cheap for Jiro."

Later, Charlie said again: "In addition, you don't think about morality in this matter. After all, we and the Japanese have no morality to talk about. On the contrary, the more miserable they can be, the better!"

"I understand!" Orvel hurriedly said: "Don't worry, I will arrange more manpower to protect Ichiro well!"

.....

At this moment, the Song family mansion.

The large family of the Song family was eating at the restaurant and discussed about Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Mr. Song Jimo, after seeing the news of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, he said: "I always have a feeling that this incident of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical seems to be related to Mr. Wade."

Warnia, who had just picked up a piece of broccoli, suddenly stopped, silently put the broccoli in a bowl, did not eat or speak.

On the side, her cousin Honor said: "Grandpa, I also feel this way. I heard that Masao Kobayashi of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals took a special medicine to cure the paralysis first, and then died suddenly. And I also heard that at the Aurous Hill traditional medicine Expo, Ichiro asked the genius doctor to have a prescription to treat hemiplegia. I speculate that the medicine that the genius doctor used to cure hemiplegia should be the medicine Charlie gave you."

Grandpa Song said immediately: "Honor, Mr. Wade's name is not something you can call directly!"

Honor hurriedly changed his words: "I'm sorry, Grandpa, I didn't react for a while. I think the medicine given to him should be the same as the medicine Mr. Wade gave you."

Seeing that he changed his tongue quickly and sincerely, Old Mr. Song nodded in approval and exclaimed: "I think so too. Tianqi's medical skills are indeed very good, but he hasn't come back to life and turn decadent into a miraculous point. Only Mr. Wade The magical medicine of China has this effect."

With that, Mr. Song couldn't help sighing again, and said: "The medicine given by Mr. Wade last time is indeed very effective. I was already a dying person before. After eating,

I just feel that my body is much stronger, but It may be that I was too ill before, and now although my life is not in danger, my body is still somewhat languid, I am still old..."

Honor hurriedly said: "Grandpa, or I will go to Mr. Wade again, ask him for a magical medicine, or buy a magical medicine for you! If you can take another magical medicine, believe in your physical condition. There will be great relief!"

Father Song hurriedly waved his hand and said, "It's impossible. Mr. Wade has given medicine to the Song family. We haven't paid him back this favor. If we venture to ask for medicine, it will appear that we are insatiable and greedy. Know yourself!"

Honor couldn't understand the respect that grandpa showed to Charlie.

Father Song regarded Charlie as a god for the same reason as Tianqi. Both of them were already old men in their twilight years. The more they knew the fate of heaven, the more they were afraid of the fate. To put it bluntly, they were afraid of death.

However, Honor is less than thirty this year. If you tell him that someone can make him live for another five years in the future, he may dismiss it at all, but for the Old Master in his twilight years, if someone can make him live for another five years , That is the true god in his eyes.

Warnia can more or less understand grandpa's psychological thoughts. After all, unlike Honor, she also has a magical medicine given by Charlie, and that magical medicine has been hidden in the car by her, except for herself and Charlie, no one knows.

With that medicine, Warnia felt an unprecedented peace of mind, because she knew that if anything happens to her, as long as the medicine was in her hands, she would have the chance to come back against the wind and survive.

This kind of opportunity, just tell others, no one thinks it's great, because they know that this kind of opportunity can't have anything to do with them.

Honor is the same.

He knows that Charlie's magical medicine is precious. If he can get one, he will definitely use it to cheat the Old Master, and then try to make the Old Master take a higher look at himself. Maybe in the future he can inherit more from the Song family assets, he will not keep the medicine in his hands like Warnia.

It is not that Warnia is not filial to her father. More often, she feels that this medicine represents Charlie's concern for her.

Charlie definitely hoped that she would keep this medicine in her hands. Therefore, deep down in her heart, she didn't want to disappoint Charlie's hope for herself, and she didn't want to use the things Charlie gave her to win grandpa's appreciation.

At this time, Old Master Song suddenly remembered something and blurted out: "By the way, Honor, Warnia, you two will go to the SanityLab Hospital together if there is nothing to do after dinner."

"SanityLab Hospital?!" Honor asked in amazement: "Grandpa, why are we going there? Is there anything wrong?"

Mr. Song said: "The younger generation of Suhang Wu family came to Aurous Hill. I heard that something happened to a junior in the family, so they rushed over."

As he said, the Old Master Song said again: "It is Regnar, the eldest son of the Wu family, who is the same as your father, but your father is not in Aurous Hill now. Take a look, after all, our relationship has always been good."

Honor nodded, and suddenly realized: "I remember, the kid on YouTube who was mad and robbed of sh!t some time ago seems to be a junior from the Wu family, right?"

"Oh, brother..." Warnia put down her chopsticks and said helplessly: "I'm still eating, why are you talking about those disgusting things..."

Honor smiled and said, "I'm sorry, but I'm quick."

Father Song also watched the video, and his expression suddenly became a little disgusting, so he put down his chopsticks and said, "I heard that the junior from the Wu family has been in the SanityLab Hospital for the past two days. Say hello to Regnar and tell him that your father is not in Aurous Hill, so he can't come to visit, so that he doesn't take offense, and by the way, he will also say hello to your father."

"OK grandpa." Honor nodded hastily.

The Suhang Wu Family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. It is more powerful than the Song family. The Song family can rank in the top five in Aurous Hill, but can't make it into the top three.

These top-notch big families are actually very close to each other. Generally, whoever arrives at their home court, the host will do their best to entertain and show their sincerity.

Chapter 536

Warnia asked at this moment: "Grandpa, do you want us to take any gifts?"

Mr. Song said: "In the past few years, someone gave me a piece of cold jade, which has the effect of calming and soothing. Take it to Regnar. Tell him it is for the sick junior in their family. The effect should be small, but it is better than nothing. "

Warnia nodded, and said, "Ok, Grandpa, I will."

At this time, Old Master Song stood up and said to Warnia, "Warnia, come with me."

"Ok,Grandpa." Warnia didn't know, so she hurriedly got up and followed her grandpa to his study.

In the study, Mr. Song tremblingly sat on a mahogany chair, and asked Warnia: "Warnia, let me ask you, how have you been with Mr. Wade recently?"

When Warnia heard this, her face instantly blushed, saying: "Grandpa, I...I...that..."

Grandpa Song smiled and said, "You kid, what is there to be embarrassed about? Just say anything!"

Warnia said embarrassingly: "Grandpa, Mr. Wade has been very busy recently. We have almost no chance to meet..."

Grandpa Song's expression was a little disappointed and said, "Warnia, you can't waste it like this! You are still young, but grandpa is about to die. You can wait, but grandpa can't wait for a few years..."

As he said, Mr. Song hurriedly said again: "Warnia, Grandpa said this not to kidnap you morally, nor to force you to have to do with Mr. Wade. The main reason is that Grandpa can also see that in your heart. You really like Mr. Wade, right?"

Warnia nodded lightly, her face flushed and hot.

She really became more and more enamoured of Charlie.

She likes a strong man like a man with ability. The stronger the man, the more attractive she feels.

Therefore, she was enamored with Charlie, there was really no suspense, it was inevitable.

Mr. Song sighed softly, and said, "The only pity is that Mr. Wade got married too early, but in modern society, everyone sees these things very lightly. For a man, second marriage is nothing, and third marriage is not even called. It's a matter, so you don't need to care about a man who has been married before. You don't need to care about who his first wife is. You just need to know that all you have to do is to keep a good man by your side forever, even if he has already been married. Ten times of marriage, as long as he can stay by your side, it's more important than anything."

Warnia nodded slightly and said piously: "Grandpa, I understand what you are saying. It's just that I can't chase Mr. Wade too tightly for fear that he will dislike me because of this, because I heard that Mr. Wade treats his wife very well."

"Yeah." Mr. Song said in agreement: "In this case, it's not wrong for you to fight steadily, step by step, and secretly go through it."

With that, Mr. Song suddenly remembered something and hurriedly said, "By the way, it will be my 80th birthday in a few days. Please invite Mr. Wade to come over to the birthday banquet when you turn around. It's just this opportunity to meet him. This increases the relationship."

Warnia hurriedly said, "Ok, Grandpa, I will."

"Yeah." Mr. Song nodded and said, "It's okay, it's not too early. You can go to SanityLab Hospital with Honor to see the junior of Wu's family first!"

Chapter 537

Soon, Honor drove Warnia out of the house and went straight to the suburban SanityLab Hospital.

At this moment, in the SanityLab Hospital, the nurse just fed Wu Qi who was crazy.

After feeding him, wiping his mouth, rinsing his mouth, and washing his stomach, Wu Qi can be considered as regaining consciousness, lying on the hospital bed with his hands and feet tied, his face is unlovable.

Several nurses resisted the nausea and walked from the inside of the intensive care unit to the family rest room outside with the filthy thing washed out of his stomach.

Wu Qi's father Regnar and his brother Roger sat on the sofa with no expressions.

After the nurse came out, she respectfully said to them: "Mr. Wu, the patient has regained consciousness."

Regnar asked coldly: "Is the stomach lavage finished?"

The nurse nodded and whispered: "It's finished!"

"Yeah." Regnar asked again: "The stuff you are feeding this time has been disinfected?"

The nurse hurriedly said: "It has been sterilized. We put it in a pressure cooker for high temperature and high pressure sterilization. Although the smell cannot be eliminated, it can be confirmed that there are no bacteria or viruses in it..."

Now, Wu Qi's iron rule of "supplements" every hour has remained the same.

Regnar didn't dare to stop him. After all, he would die after a minute. He was really afraid that something would happen to his son.

Therefore, he discussed with his medical experts and came up with a temporary solution, which is to put the "supplement" for Wu Qi in a pressure cooker for half an hour in advance, so that at least it won't be "infested" and make him sick.

This is the only buffer they can do at this stage.

Regnar glanced at a few nurses, waved his hand sullenly, and said, "Okay, you can go out. Remember to prepare the next meal in advance."

The nurse nodded and said, "Eight meals tonight have been prepared in advance, and each one will be autoclaved and sterilized in advance, and then placed at room temperature for the patient. You rest assured."

Regnar suddenly felt a strong nausea, waved his hand and said, "Okay, go now."

After the nurses went out, Roger whispered to Regnar: "Dad, it's not a problem that it's always like this! He eats sh!t every hour. If this spreads out, what would happen the Wu family's face? "

Regnar asked, "What should I do? You can't watch your brother die, right?"

Roger said hurriedly: "I didn't mean that. I wanted to say, or let's take Wu Qi back to Suzhou. It's not a way to stay here. Go back to our own home and use our own doctors and nurses. Be more assured than they are tight-lipped."

Regnar said: "It's okay to let your brother go back, we can't leave yet."

"Why?" Roger asked in surprise: "What else can we do here?"

Regnar said: "I suspect that your brother had this problem suddenly. It is definitely not accidental. There must be some clue behind that we haven't found out yet. So I plan to stay in Aurous Hill for a while and make a good investigation. You have to stay with me."

Roger nodded when he heard this, and said, "Okay, dad, I will stay with you."

Regnar hummed and said, "In this case, let our doctor go home with your brother first tomorrow morning."

After speaking, he stood up and said: "Lets go in and see your brother."

The father and son got up, pushed open the door of the ward inside, and a disgusting stench came over their faces.

Although the windows are open and the exhaust is open, the smell will really last for a while.

Chapter 538

Wu Qi was lying on the bed, with tears in his eyes and silently looking out the window. He smelled the strong smell when he breathed, and he already felt bored.

"Wu Qi."

Seeing him so decadent, Regnar gave a distressed cry.

Wu Qi didn't look back, still staring out the window, choked up and said: "Dad, you let me die. I have to do such a disgusting thing every hour, I really want to collapse..."

Regnar hurriedly stepped forward, shook his hand, and said, "Good son, you have to remember one sentence, it is never better to die than to live!"

Wu Qi burst into tears: "But, who can live worse than me? If I have to live like this in my life, then I really want to die now..."

Regnar felt distressed and said seriously: "Wu Qi, don't worry, no matter what method is used, Dad will heal you, Dad promises you!"

Wu Qi turned his head, looked at his father, and asked subconsciously: "Dad, is what you said is true?"

As he spoke, a stench hit Regnar's cheek.

Regnar's eyes reddened by the smell, he also shed two lines of tears. He could only resist the urge to vomit, nodded and said, "It's true, don't worry!"

After speaking, Regnar said again: "I will arrange for someone to take you back tomorrow. Dad will find the culprit in Aurous Hill, and then find a cure for you. After you go home, you can take care of your health at home and wait for Dad's Good news!"

Wu Qi felt a glimmer of hope and nodded excitedly.

Roger on the side could not help sighing and said, "Wu Qi, don't worry, if you let Brother find out who did this, Brother will kill him and give you revenge!"

Wu Qi nodded moved and said, "Thank you brother!"

At this time, the nurse knocked on the door and came in and said, "Mr. Wu, there is a Mr. Song and a Miss Song who want to see you."

"Mr. Song, Miss Song?" Regnar frowned slightly, and then suddenly realized: "It should be from the Song family, please let them in quickly."

After speaking, he hurriedly added: "Please go to the outside living room, don't bring them into the ward."

The nurse nodded and turned to leave.

Roger asked in surprise: "Dad, is someone from the Song family here?"

"It should be." Regnar said: "We have come to Aurous Hill this time. We haven't visited the Song family yet. Maybe the Song family has received the news, so that's why they came over."

Roger nodded, and suddenly thought of Warnia, the eldest of the Song family.

The last time he saw Warnia was three or four years ago, when she was already very beautiful.

At that time, he already had the idea of pursuing Warnia. After all, Warnia was not only beautiful, well-educated, and capable, but more importantly, the strength of the Song family was not weak, and it could be said that it was right in line with the Wu family.

However, he hadn't finished his studies at the time, so he didn't have time to pursue Warnia.

Later, when he returned to China, he was busy handling the business from his family, not to mention coming to Aurous Hill to pursue Warnia, so this matter was crushed by him.

Now, he heard that someone from the Song family had come, and his affection for Warnia suddenly rekindled!

He couldn't help but look forward to it in his heart. One of the two people who he hoped to meet now was Warnia!

Chapter 539

When the nurse brought Honor and Warnia into the outer hall of the ward, Regnar and Roger just came out.

Roger saw the slim, beautiful and unparalleled Warnia at a glance, and he was shocked for several seconds without regaining his senses.

Regnar was a little surprised when he saw Warnia.

He is Warnia's elder, so he didn't have much contact with Warnia. They have not seen each other for several years. He didn't expect this girl to look more beautiful and attractive, not much less than those big stars!

Honor at this moment respectfully said: "Hello, Uncle Wu, I am Honor of the Song family, and this is my cousin Warnia. Grandpa heard that you are in Aurous Hill, so he let us come and visit you."

After that, Honor said again: "My father is not in Aurous Hill for the time being, so he can't come to visit in person. Please forgive us."

Regnar hurriedly said: "Oh, Uncle Song is so polite! I was supposed to visit him, but something happened at home, so I never walked away. That is a bit rude of me!"

Although the Wu family and the Song family are very different in strength, they belong to the first-line family in the south of the Yangtze River. Therefore, no matter who comes to whose territory, these two families should actually visit.

If under normal circumstances, Regnar came to Aurous Hill, then the first thing to do is to visit the Song's house, and the two families move around to improve the relationship.

Therefore, he felt a little bit embarrassed.

The key is that his family's situation is indeed special. It is a shame to talk about this problem with youngest son Wu Qi.

So he said frankly: "Oh, this time I came to Aurous Hill, it was mainly because the boy had some physical and mental problems. So as soon as I came over, I stayed in the hospital and didn't go anywhere. Otherwise, I must visit Uncle Song for a while, and hope that Uncle Song will forgive me and don't blame me."

Warnia hurriedly said: "Uncle Wu, you don't need to be so polite. Grandpa knows that you have business to do, so there is no point to blame."

With that, Warnia took out a piece carved from cold jade and handed it to Regnar, and said solemnly: "Uncle Wu, this piece of cold jade is good for your son. It is said to have the effect of calming the mind. He asked me to give it to you. He hopes it will have an effect on the second son's condition."

Regnar hurriedly thanked: "Thank you Uncle Song so much!"

As he said, he was not polite, and reached out and took this cold jade.

Roger on the side kept watching Warnia silently, and then forcedly pretended to be calm and said: "Warnia, have we not seen each other for a long time?"

Warnia smiled slightly, nodded and said: "It seems that it has been three or four years, I don't remember it clearly."

Roger smiled and said: "Time flies so fast! Your changes are big enough. It seems that we will have to contact a lot in the future, otherwise we will not recognize each other if we accidentally encounter outside in two years!"

Warnia also said politely: "Yes, we haven't seen each other for so many years, everyone has changed a lot."

Regnar was keenly aware of Roger's abnormality. He could see that Roger seemed to be interested in Warnia.

At this moment, he suddenly felt in his mind that if he could really marry Warnia to the Wu family and let her be his daughter-in-law, it would be perfect!

There are also many large families in Aurous Hill, and many of them are of marriageable age, but the key problem is that most girls in large families are not very attractive.

Although some are good-looking, they have been spoiled since childhood, so they have a very poor temperament. There are really few who can be as smart as Warnia.

If the two families can marry, they will definitely join forces and have a strong stimulating effect on each other.

Chapter 540

If the two families can work together after the marriage, then the two families will even have a chance to lead the entire Aurous Hill.

Thinking of this, he deliberately smiled and asked Warnia: "Warnia is so beautiful and so good. I wonder if you are married?"

Warnia said hurriedly: "Uncle Wu, you are joking. If I get married, grandpa will definitely notify you to come for a wedding drink."

Regnar smiled and nodded, saying that this girl is clever and can speak.

So he asked again: "Then Warnia has a boyfriend now? If so, which young master are we look for?"

When Roger heard his father ask this question, he hurriedly raised his ears with concern, looking forward to Warnia's answer.

At this moment Warnia immediately thought of Charlie in her heart.

What if Charlie were not married? she should have already confessed to him.

Moreover, she is considered to be the better of the girls. She believes he would not refuse her. In that case, when someone asks her a question like this, she could proudly and shyly say that her boyfriend is Charlie... ..

Thinking of this, Warnia couldn't help sighing in her heart, and said: "Uncle Wu, I haven't found a boyfriend yet."

Both Ragnar and Roger breathed a sigh of relief.

Didn't find a boyfriend, that would be great!

A girl like Warnia really couldn't be found with a lantern. Since she is still single, his son has a great chance to chase her!

So he immediately said to Warnia: "By the way, Warnia, I hope you will tell Uncle Song when you go back. I have arranged a plane to take my second son home for treatment tomorrow. Roger and I will stay in Aurous Hill to find out. Specific clues, so tomorrow we will definitely come to visit."

Warnia didn't think much, nodded and said, "OK Uncle Wu, I'll tell Grandpa when I go back."

What Ragnar thought was that since he was going to stay in Aurous Hill for a while, he might as well take Roger and go to Song's house for a few days.

As the host of the Song family, arranging for a few days to stay with his son is normal. In this way, it can also create a chance for his son to have more contact with Warnia.

Ragnar even thought, this time he will find a suitable opportunity to talk about marriage with Mr. Song, presumably Mr. Song will not refuse.

After all, there is no family bigger in Aurous Hill than the Wu family, and Roger is the eldest son of the Wu family and the first heir of the younger generation. It is not an exaggeration to say that he is the fifth king of the first diamond in Aurous Hill.

As long as Mr. Song agrees, he will definitely help persuade Warnia. In this way, the marriage may be settled soon, and the two families will choose an early auspicious day together and the marriage can be done!

Regnar is not young anymore. He has been hoping to hold his grandson and see the continuation of Wu's incense with his own eyes, but he has never met a woman worthy of his son.

Just now, he caught Warnia at a glance, and felt that there was no better daughter-in-law than Warnia in this world!

However, he never dreamed that Warnia had already belonged to someone in some way.

Moreover, the man who made Warnia so enamored was the culprit who turned his second son into a sh!t-swallowing beast!

Chapter 541

Honor, who hadn't spoken for a long time, looked at him coldly and saw that the Wu family father and son were moved by his sister Warnia.

At this moment, there was a faint excitement in his heart.

If Warnia could marry the Wu family, that would be great for him!

At that time, Warnia will marry the Wu family as a young woman, naturally it is possible to compete with her for the Song family's property, and he will become the well-deserved heir of the Song family.

He was afraid that Warnia would get along with that Charlie.

He didn't know Charlie's true identity. He only knew that Charlie seemed to have some supernatural powers, and he really made his grandfather respect him.

If Warnia is really with Charlie, then there is no doubt that Charlie must join the Song family. At that time, he will be in trouble!

Warnia herself is his biggest rival for the family property. If she doesn't marry far away, she will always be his rival!

Moreover, grandpa respects Charlie very much, and dreams that he can enter the Song family. If Warnia really makes grandpa do what she wants, then grandpa will definitely pay more attention to her and Charlie.

At that time, Warnia and Charlie will be in the Song family together, so how can they still be in their early days?

Therefore, the last thing he wanted to see was that Warnia was really with Charlie!

Now that the Wu family has the intention of marrying, all they have to do is to find a way to persuade grandpa and Warnia to accept the Wu family and send Warnia out early!

Warnia didn't realize the intentions of the Wu family man. She and Honor had a polite conversation with the father and son. Seeing that it was not early, they left because of inconvenience.

Regnar and Roger kept sending them downstairs. Watching them get in the car and seeing the car go far away, Regnar sighed and said, "Warnia, this girl is a perfect girl!"

Roger on the side also nodded and said, "I didn't expect her to become more beautiful after a few years."

Regnar said seriously: "beauty is only the second thing, family background, education, and temperament are the most important."

As he said, he said again: "However, Warnia has no choice in these aspects. If you can marry her, it is really the best choice for you."

Roger smiled and said, "Dad, you can help me a lot with this matter. Warnia's parents have passed away, so you have to start with her grandfather."

Regnar smiled and said, "You can rest assured, Dad knows that, I believe that Mr. Song also hopes that Warnia can marry a good family, and our Wu family is the best choice."

After that, Regnar said again: "I think, if I tell Mr. Song about this matter, Mr. Song will definitely agree to immediately, and then start working for Warnia. If it goes well, within a month, we should be able to make the marriage agreement!"

"Okay!" Roger said excitedly, "I better have the wedding this year!"

At this moment, Roger had only Warnia in his mind. As for his poor brother, he had completely forgotten him.

When he returned to the ward, Wu Qi began to lose heart again.

The nurses are already busy, bringing in the "Special meal" that has been sterilized with high temperature, feeding Wu Qi to enjoy it first, and then using gastric lavage to wash out as much of the food as possible. .

Regnar went in and took a look, then walked out with a black face.

Roger didn't even enter, and sat on the sofa outside alone, looking at Warnia's WeChat Moments.

Before coming to Aurous Hill, he had not paid much attention to Warnia, who had not seen him in a few years.

However, seeing her just now has completely ignited his deep desire for Warnia.

Therefore, he wanted to browse all the photos of Warnia's circle of friends at the first time.

He carefully observed every picture in Warnia's circle of friends, and while looking at it, he sighed in his heart that she was a perfect girl, and he couldn't find the slightest fault.

So, he secretly vowed in his heart that he must get Warnia anyway!

.....

On the way back with Warnia and her elder brother Honor, Honor tentatively said to Warnia: "Warnia, I think Roger seems to be interesting in you!"

Warnia said flatly: "Oh."

"Oh?" Honor asked curiously: "Why are you so cold?"

"Otherwise?" Warnia said, "Is he interested in me? It has nothing to do with me. Do I have to be very excited?"

Honor asked: "Roger looks like a hero, so don't you have any interest in him at all?"

Warnia shook her head and said, "I have no feeling for him at all, and he is not even a friend in my eyes, at best he is a half acquaintance."

Honor hurriedly persuaded: "Are you stupid? How strong is the Wu family! The first family in the south of the Yangtze River, if you can come together with Roger, it will be the icing on the cake for the Song family!"

"I have no feeling for him." Warnia said seriously: "I won't be with a person who I don't feel towards, even if he is the richest man in the world."

Honor said in surprise: "You would really like that Charlie?!"

Warnia glanced at Honor, a little embarrassed to answer.

Honor sighed and said, "My good sister, are you stupid? Grandpa is so confused. If he asks you to chase Charlie, then you will really chase him? He is a husband. What about you? You are the most noble one among the girls in Aurous Hill. How can you be with such a man?"

Warnia somewhat evasively said: "Brother, don't worry about my business, I will take care of it myself."

"Hey!" Honor sighed pretentiously, and said: "I am the brother who watched you grow up. Brother sincerely hopes that you can marry a good man who is the right person, and is like you, who has never been married. If you really marry Charlie, a second-married man in the future, it will be a pity for you!"

Having said that, Honor further said: "What's more, this Charlie is still a live-in son-in-law, how can he be worthy of you?"

Warnia turned her face to look at Honor, and said seriously: "Brother, Mr. Wade is not as unbearable as you said, you just haven't seen the shining light on Mr. Wade."

Honor said disdainfully: "What can he do to shine? Doesn't he just get a medicine? I don't think it is great."

Warnia shook her head and said lightly, "Everyone has many faces. In the eyes of many people, Mr. Wade is a Rubbish and a son-in-law, but in my eyes, he is a real master. He is different!"

Honor curled his lips: "Don't you also think that he is a real dragon on earth? I really want to be laughed at by these four words! Real dragon on earth...I pooh!"

Warnia glanced at Honor, feeling that Honor's appearance at this time was like a mentally retarded.

However, Honor felt that it was time for Warnia and Grandpa to keep their eyes open to see Charlie's true colors.

Isn't Charlie known as the real dragon on earth? Then I figured out how to make Roger become super dragon, strip his skin, and shake his muscles!

Chapter 543

At the same time, Tianqi was staring at the Rejuvenation Pill given to him by Charlie in his Clinic.

He recalled what Charlie said to him, and Charlie told him that this medicine can make him ten years younger and extend his life by ten years.

Although he knew that Charlie had great magical powers, he still felt that such a medicinal effect was like a fantasy.

As the saying goes, there is a day when a flower blooms, and a person will never be a teenager.

Human beings can control everything in the world, but they can't control aging alone.

How many in this world, how can there be any elixir to rejuvenate people?

However, when he thought that the medicine was given by Mr. Wade, Tianqi was full of confidence in the medicine again.

He felt that Mr. Wade would never deceive him. Since he said so, then this medicine must have such a magical effect.

So, he made up his mind to take the medicine according to Charlie's instructions.

Tianqi carefully put the Rejuvenating Pill in his mouth. He thought this pill would be more difficult to eat, but he didn't expect that as soon as the pill was taken, it instantly turned into a sweetness and directly flowed into the abdomen.

Immediately afterwards, it was a magical moment that Tianqi would never forget.

He felt that his body was tightly wrapped up and down by a warm current, which was like a strange energy, working in every part of his body.

At first, he felt a little tightness on his face, then his scalp was itchy and numb, and then he felt all the joints become hot.

A few minutes later, Tianqi felt a feeling of rebirth.

It seems that the whole body has really returned to the way it was ten years ago!

He came to the mirror subconsciously, and when he glanced at it, he was shocked by himself in the mirror!

No wonder he felt tight on his face just now. It turned out that the wrinkled skin before was tightened a lot, so he looked a little younger at once!

What's even more amazing is that he was already full of silver hair, but he didn't expect that this full head of silver hair turned out to be more than half black!

The body that was already a little rickety can now stand up straight, and the joints that have been severely degraded have also been greatly improved.

Tianqi hurriedly got on his pulse, signaled his pulse, and then found that his whole person's breath and pulse had been greatly improved compared to before!

In other words, not only does he look younger, not only his bones are younger, but his internal organs, inside and out, are all young!

It's tantamount to suddenly returning from more than seventies to the state of sixties!

Tianqi was crazy!

If a person's life is a clockwork alarm clock, then the energy stored in the clockwork will continue to fade with the passage of time, until the moment when all the energy stored is exhausted, the alarm clock will also Stop completely.

And now, Tianqi's life alarm clock is equivalent to being used by Charlie with his God's hand to force back twice!

This also means that Tianqi's life alarm clock can go two more laps!

Isn't this a miracle? !

Chapter 544

If such an elixir is sold, let alone one billion, it means more than one billion. Those old and rich will all rush to buy...

When people are old, what is the use of making more money? If money can return to youth, those billionaires worth billions or tens of billions will definitely spend half or even most of their worth without hesitation to give themselves 10 or 20 years of life!

This is exactly how difficult it is for someone to buy an inch of time!

Tianqi was in tears of excitement at this moment!

Even crying!

He immediately took out his cell phone and sent a WeChat message to Charlie, saying, "Mr. Wade, your immortal medicine, Shi has already taken, thank you very much for your reward, Shi is willing to treat you with all his heart and mind, and will not give up!"

Charlie replied lightly: "It will be effective, but you must remember not to tell anyone other than Zhovia."

Refining such a rejuvenating pill requires three hundred years of premium purple ginseng, which is really precious.

He called for his granddaughter Zhovia who was grinding medicine next door. When Zhovia saw Tianqi, she was shocked and said: "Grandpa...what's wrong with you? Do you feel that you are suddenly younger! With me ten years ago when I was a few years old, I had exactly the same impression of you!"

Tianqi sighed with excitement, "It's all thanks to the elixir given by Mr. Wade! Mr. Wade said that I could be ten years younger and live ten years longer. I didn't expect it to have such a magical effect!"

Zhovia was also stunned, and blurted out: "Grandpa, how can this fairy medicine have such a magical effect? This is incredible!"

Tianqi tremblingly said: "I said earlier that Mr. Wade is a real dragon on earth, which is beyond our comprehension. I have lived such an old age. I never expected that the greatest opportunity in life was to meet Mr. Wade."

With that said, Tianqi hurriedly took out the small wooden box containing the pill from his close-fitting pocket.

In the wooden box, there is also a half pill.

This is the last time Charlie refined the pill that can treat body and nerve damage and strengthen the body.

The whole one was specially rewarded by Charlie after knowing that he refused to treat Fredmen.

Tianqi kept thinking that when he was old, he would take this one and a half pill with him at all times for emergencies.

However, today suddenly had such an opportunity, he prepared to give one of these pills to his granddaughter Zhovia.

So, Tianqi took out the pill and said: "Zhovia, this is the medicine that Mr. Wade previously rewarded at that moment. I originally wanted to keep it for myself..."

Speaking of this, Tianqi looked at Zhovia and said sincerely: "Zhovia, don't blame Grandpa for being selfish. After all, Grandpa is getting old, and the older people are afraid of death and don't want to leave you too early..."

Zhovia hurriedly said: "Grandpa, don't say such things, I never think you are selfish!"

Tianqi smiled slightly and said, "Actually, I understand in his heart that I am selfish."

With that said, Tianqi handed the pill to Zhovia, and said seriously: "Zhovia, Grandpa has received too much favor from Mr. Wade. I have a handful of old bones. It is a blessing that I have been able to have such an opportunity for several lifetimes. Therefore, Grandpa can't enjoy these blessings of Mr. Wade alone. Grandpa will give you this medicine. You can keep it next to your body in case you need it."

Zhovia hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Grandpa, you should keep this medicine, Zhovia don't!"

Tianqi said seriously: "Zhovia, listen to Grandpa's words and accept this medicine. Grandpa alone will not be blessed to endure such a great destiny. You should be helping Grandpa share the destiny."

After speaking, he sighed again: "Zhovia, from today, you must serve Mr. Wade well. Even if your grandpa dies in the future, you must continue to serve. This is not only to repay Mr. Wade's kindness, but also for yourself. Seek a greater good fortune!"

Chapter 545

Seeing that grandpa said sincerely, Zhovia hesitated and finally took the medicine.

Once upon a time, she had dreamed in her heart whether she could have such a miraculous medicine, but when she thought that her grandfather was older and needed more than herself, she didn't think about it anymore.

However, she never expected that Grandpa would actually give the medicine that Mr. Wade gave him to her!

Therefore, she was extremely excited after receiving this pill, and at the same time, the words her grandfather had ordered continued to echo in her mind.

Serve Mr. Wade for a lifetime?

She really want to, but she doesn't know, Mr. Wade will dislike her?

Tianqi saw her careful thoughts, smiled slightly, and said: "Zhovia, Mr. Wade is a person who values love and justice. As long as you treat him wholeheartedly and sincerely, he will treat you sincerely. Grandpa will never live forever. It's nothing more than a hundred years old. You are still young. If you can always stand by Mr. Wade and serve him, Mr. Wade will definitely not treat you badly in the future."

Zhovia nodded repeatedly and said, "Don't worry, grandpa, Zhovia knows!"

Tianqi sighed sincerely: "At the time Honor invited me to treat Mr. Song, my old wounds were not healed. I wanted you to oo there alone, but because I had friendship with Mr. Song back then, in case you treat him. It's not good for him, he may not be able to live for long, so he came here. I didn't expect that in this trip to Aurous Hill would meet the biggest noble person..."

.....

Tianqi stayed up all night with excitement.

Like him, there is also the Song family's father Song.

It's just that Mr. Song is not as lucky as Tianqi. After being rescued by Charlie and taking the magical medicine given by Charlie before, his body is indeed much better than when he was seriously ill, and his legs and feet are also much more flexible, but Because of the poor foundation, in fact, his physical fitness has not been greatly improved.

It happened that Aurous Hill had cooled down in the past two days, and Father Song felt that he was slightly cold and coughing all the time, so this night was almost as if he hadn't slept.

Early the next morning, Mr. Song got up from the bed dizzy.

Coughing and staying up all night, whether it is physical or mental state, it is not very good at this time.

When the Old Master left the room, Warnia and Honor had both gone out early. The two of them are now busy with part of the family business, and they leave early and return late every day.

So Father Song called the housekeeper Boyu, and asked him to drive him to Tianqi's Clinic. He planned to let Tianqi get two sets of medicine for him. If he could prescribe some prescriptions for warming the body, then It couldn't be better.

As soon as the Clinic opened the door in the morning, a Rolls Royce slowly stopped at the door. The top-notch luxury car immediately attracted the attention of many passing pedestrians.

Then, the elderly Song, supported by Boyu, walked out of the Rolls Royce.

Beside the two of them, there were four bodyguards closely following, all of whom were masters that the Song family could find.

Father Song took two steps, stopped and coughed twice, then took a step and walked again.

Uncle Boyu carefully supported him while helping the Old Master follow his back and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade since you are unwell, we should let you rest at home. I will ask the genius doctor Tianqi to see you."

"I can't make it." Old Song Song waved his hand and said, "Tianqi is arrogant, and he is also a well-known doctor in the country. How many big people want to ask him to please him, I have a minor illness, how can I let him come? ."

Boyu said, "Mr. Song you are about to celebrate your birthday. You are the birthday star. How can you do everything yourself."

Chapter 546

"It's okay." Mr. Song said lightly: "It just so happens, by the way, hand over an invitation to the genius doctor Tianqi, inviting him to come to the birthday party.

After that, he pointed to the gate of Clinic and said, "Take me in."

At this moment, Zhovia happened to be busy in the outer hall of the Clinic. She suddenly saw Mr. Song coming. She hurried forward and asked respectfully: "Master Song, why are you here? Is there any discomfort?"

Grandpa Song coughed, and said with a smile: "When people are old, this body is not as good as one day. The weather is getting colder recently. I have a little bit of cold. I came to your grandfather to asked him to catch some medicine for me."

Zhovia hurriedly said, "Hurry up take him inside. I will go to the inner hall and call Grandpa."

After speaking, Zhovia welcomed Mr. Song in, and after Mr. Song sat down, she went to the inner hall and called Tianqi.

Hearing that Mr. Song was coming, Tianqi hurriedly put down what he was holding and walked out quickly.

Tianqi always regarded Mr. Song as a great benefactor, and he was a little grateful to Old Song. After all, he knew Charlie because he was critically ill. He accepted Honor's invitation and came to see him.

If it weren't for this incident, he wouldn't have had the opportunity to know Charlie.

Therefore, deep down in his heart, he always remembered the love of Mr. Song.

At this moment, Tianqi had just walked out, and the moment Grandpa Song saw Tianqi face to face, he was shocked and speechless!

He never expected that Tianqi suddenly became so young!

Last time he met, Tianqi was clearly a standard Old Master in traditional medicine, with white beard and hair. But now, most of his white hair is black and shiny, and the age lines on his face are much lighter, and his shriveled figure is also full. He looks aware, his complexion was ruddy, and he was full of energy.

And now, Tianqi was originally in his seventies. Because of his good health regimen, he looks like he is seventy years old, but now it seems that Tianqi is also in his sixties!

In the eyes of Mr. Song, this is almost the same as rejuvenation!

He couldn't understand how Tianqi did it, so much younger at once?

"Look at him, and then look at me. I am 80 this year, only a few years old from Tianqi's age. However, because I was seriously ill, I have since recovered and stopped vomiting, and I look more old."

Compared with Tianqi, who is ten years younger now, the two are almost a generation apart!

The shocked Old Master Song couldn't sit still anymore. He stood up tremblingly, and asked in shock, "Brother Shi, how come I haven't seen you in a few days? Why are you so much different? Looking at you today, I feel you are younger than me. You're not over 20 years old! Have you found any extraordinary way to keep in good health?!"

Tianqi hurriedly arched his hands and said: "Brother Song, the reason why Shi has made this change is really because of a recent chance."

Hearing this, the Old Master Song was very envious. He now dreams of encountering the same chance as Tianqi.

Even if he let him spend his wealth, he is willing!

Therefore, he asked Boyu to retreat temporarily, only when he and Tianqi were left, he cautiously asked: "Brother Shi, I wonder if you can reveal, where did your chance come from?"

Tianqi said apologetically: "Brother Song, please forgive me, I promised, this matter can't be told!"

When the Old Master Song heard the words, his eyes flickered, and he blurted out: "The chance that the Old Master said, it is nothing but Mr. Wade?!"

Chapter 547

Mr. Song is not stupid, what good fortune can make a person more than ten years younger?

Only one person in Aurous Hill can do such a magical thing.

That person is Charlie, Mr. Charlie Wade!

Although Tianqi hasn't responded yet, Mr. Song is sure that Tianqi must have received the good fortune from Mr. Wade to become so young all of a sudden!

At this time, Tianqi was complicated.

Without the approval of Mr. Wade, he would definitely not dare to talk about the Rejuvenating Pill.

After all, Mr. Wade clearly reminded him yesterday not to tell others.

However, now that Mr. Song has guessed it by himself, it seems a bit difficult to do.

Seeing Mr. Song's face, he said awkwardly: "Brother Song, you guessed this by yourself. Don't tell Mr. Wade that it was me... Mr. Wade won't let me I tell anyone."

When Mr. Song heard this, he confirmed his guess in his heart.

The gift to Tianqi was indeed no one else, but the good grandson-in-law, Charlie, and Mr. Wade that he wanted to do!

Mr. Song was extremely envious about this matter.

Even, when the envy reached a certain level, he was already faintly jealous.

He didn't want to be like Tianqi, a person in his seventies, it seems that he is only sixty years old?

Why didn't he want his life to last ten years or more?

Once people reach middle-aged and old age, they will become more and more afraid of death at old age. This is human nature, and no one can avoid them.

The same is true for Mr. Song.

He has recovered from a serious illness, and there are still many minor problems in his body.

Although Charlie's last medicine pill can make him live for a few more years, but it only keeps him alive.

It is impossible for him to have a ten-year-old body like Tianqi.

Therefore, Mr. Song couldn't help sighing at this moment, and said, "I never thought that Mr. Wade could have such an ability!"

Tianqi also looked solemnly and said, "Mr. Wade has been transcended into the saint in the medical skills. In my life, I am afraid I only have worship..."

Father Song couldn't help sighing: "It would be great if Mr. Wade could give me such a fortune. I would like to give tens of billions of cash!"

Although that was the case, Song Grandpa knew very well in his heart that he couldn't directly ask Charlie to make such a request, otherwise, on the one hand, he might betray Tianqi, and on the other hand, he might betray Mr. Wade.

Therefore, such good fortune can only wait for a coincidence or when the time is ripe, no matter what it is, it must not be forced.

And the best time is to make Charlie his grandson-in-law!

If Warnia can marry Mr. Wade, how can he worry about such good luck?

It's a pity that Warnia and Charlie haven't made any definite progress yet, which makes Old Song a little worried.

It seems that they still have to find a way to bring these two young people together

Because he knew in his heart that once the Song family and Charlie had a deeper relationship, not only would it benefit, Warnia and the entire Song family would benefit for life!

Chapter 548

Just when Mr. Song made up his mind, Tianqi asked him: "Brother Song, what is the main cause of your discomfort today?"

Grandpa Song looked at Tianqi, put away his thoughts, and said, "Hey, brother Shi, look at me now, my body is worsening every day. I have recently fallen into the autumn and caught the cold when I didn't pay attention. I have to find you to treat me with some medicine."

Tianqi hurriedly said, "Then I will get your pulse first to see where the problem is."

Grandpa Song gave a hum and stretched out his hand.

Tianqi put his finger on the wrist of Mr. Song, checked his pulse, and looked at Mr. Song's other conditions, and he was relieved that he was only infected with the cold.

"It's really just the cold. I'll prescribe some medicines for you. You can take them. It will be better in three or two days."

"Thank you Brother Shi." Old Song nodded slightly, suddenly remembering something, and blurted out: "By the way, there is still something."

Father Song paused, and then said, "My 80th birthday will be in two days. We brothers have known each other for many years, so you must come."

While talking, Mr. Song handed a bronzing invitation to Tianqi.

Tianqi took it in his hand, and promised to Mr. Song, "Don't worry, Mr. Song, I will be there on time."

After speaking, Tianqi hurriedly asked Mr. Song to take the medicine, and then personally sent him out of the door and put him in the car.

.....

When Father Song returned to Song's house by car, Ragnar and Roger had just sent Wu Qi to the airport.

In order to prevent him from wanting to "supplement" on the plane, the nurse kept guarding him and waited for him to have the urge for "supplement" before sending him on the plane.

Wu Qi woke up from the chaos again, smelling his mouth full of stench, he looked at his father in pain, choked up and said: "Dad, there must be someone behind who harmed me. You must find the beast and avenge me. Ah! "

Ragnar nodded and solemnly said, "Don't worry, Wu Qi, Dad will find out whoever harmed you. He dares to treat you like this, and I must make him better than dead!"

After speaking, Regnar said again: "After you go home, don't show up, don't go out, and stay at home. I will find a world-renowned doctor to treat you, and I will cure your illness!"

Wu Qi choked and nodded again and again, and then reluctantly boarded the plane.

Wu's private plane took off from Aurous Hill Airport. Regnar and Roger have been watching the plane take off and disappear into the sky.

After that, Regnar looked back and said to Roger who was beside him: "Let's go to Song's house, and propose your marriage!"

Roger said excitedly: "Great dad! This matter should be settled sooner rather than later, we must finalize it as soon as possible!"

After that, Roger asked a little nervously: "Dad, you said the Song family shouldn't refuse this marriage, right?"

Regnar said confidently: "You are the eldest son of the Wu family. How many girls from big families line up for you to choose them. Although Warnia looks good, the strength of the Song family is much worse than ours. Father Song must be anxious to marry Warnia to you!"

"Really?" Roger said in surprise: "According to what you said, Elder Song will definitely agree?"

Regnar smiled indifferently, and said confidently: "Son, in Aurous Hill, which woman do you want to marry, it's not possible to marry yet! You can see Warnia. It is the luck of the Song family. In the final analysis, this matter is theirs. Keep your spirits high!"

As he said, he said with an arrogant look: "Believe it or not, when it comes to the Song family, when I mention this, Mr. Song will immediately agree?"

Roger immediately smiled and blurted out: "Dad, let's go over now!"

Regnar smiled slightly and said, "You are also the eldest son and grandson of the Wu family anyway. How come you are so uncomfortable when you meet Warnia, you have no prospects at all!"

After speaking, Regnar exhorted: "When we arrive at the Song family, you must put on a high attitude to let the Song family understand that marrying Warnia to you is a high level, understand?"

"understand!"

Chapter 549

At noon, Song's house.

Regnar and Roger carefully selected some gifts before the father and son rushed to the Song family.

Mr. Song already knew that they had come to Aurous Hill, and knew that their younger generation had encountered something, so he didn't expect that they would come to visit home so soon.

However, since the eldest son and eldest grandson of the Wu family are here, Father Song is naturally very polite and comes out to entertain the two in person.

Regnar and Roger sat in the guest seats, Song Old Master sat opposite, Boyu poured tea and water for everyone, and was very busy.

Regnar presented a lot of gifts, and then he put his hands together and smiled and said: "I haven't seen Uncle Song for a long time. I didn't expect Uncle Song to be so strong. It's really enviable!"

Father Song smiled slightly and said, "My body can't be said to be strong, at best, I have a little self-care ability, and I won't die for a while."

Regnar hurriedly said, "Uncle Song, you are really humble."

After speaking, he said: "Uncle Song, I heard that you were ill, but this time you look radiant, it seems that you are in good health?"

Old Master Song smiled bitterly and said: "At first I thought I was great, but today I suddenly realized that I am far from great."

Regnar was a little surprised when he heard it, and asked, "Uncle Song, how is that not great?"

Grandpa Song smiled slightly and sighed: "It's really good to return to the state of the body more than ten years overnight!"

When he said this, Mr. Song thought of Tianqi, who subverted his cognition today and shocked him extremely.

When he returned from the Clinic, he had never forgotten about it, even brooding about it.

Whenever he can meet such an opportunity, he will not let it go waste.

However, Regnar didn't know that he had gone through this, and thought he was joking when he said this, so he smiled and echoed: "As the saying goes, there is a day when flowers bloom again, and people will never be young again. Uncle Song, you want to be young. I have the same wish, but unfortunately, this is just a wish after all and it cannot be realized."

Mr. Song smiled indifferently and didn't say much.

Regnar felt that it was impossible to achieve it because he had never seen a real dragon like Mr. Wade in the world.

Therefore, there is no need to talk to him on this issue.

So Father Song asked him: "By the way, Regnar, with your second son, what's the situation now?"

Regnar sighed, and said: "It's still the same, all methods have been used, but there is still no progress. I have sent him back to Suzhou."

Speaking of this, Regnar said again: "The reason why Roger and I have not left is to find out why my second son became like this. I suspect that he was wronged, and it is very likely that he was sent to this condition deliberately. The strong psychological suggestion might even be related to the witchcraft of lowering the head in Southeast Asia. I wonder if Uncle Song knows, does Aurous Hill have any good hands in this method?"

Grandpa Song shook his head and said, "I have only heard of the witchcraft-like thing you said, but I have never seen it before, and I can't even determine whether it is true or not."

Regnar said earnestly: "These things are actually true, but they are all sidelines. Most people who use this method are small people, or desire to become rich or gather a crowd. People, like our big families, generally disdain to engage in such things."

Chapter 550

Mr. Song nodded and said: "Big families believe in Feng Shui fate and gossip of the Book of Changes. This is the essence passed down by our Chinese ancestors. As for the dregs in Southeast Asia, I really don't look at it admiringly. "

Regnar said: "From this point of view, there is really no clue. In this case, it may not be easy to find the man behind the scenes."

After that, Regnar clasped his fists and said, "Uncle Song, Roger and I are going to stay in Aurous Hill for a few more days. We will check for relevant clues. I don't know if Uncle Song is inconvenient to arrange for us to stay in your house for a few days?"

The Old Master Song smiled and said: "The Song and Wu family are also considered family friends. How can this little thing be polite? Since you are here, I will naturally do my best to be a landlord. Later I will let the servants to arrange things for you in the guest room, you just live in it."

The Song family's villa is just a mansion. There are more than a dozen rooms on the first floor, and there are as many as eight guest rooms in the house. It's so easy to arrange for the Wu family and his son to live temporarily.

When Regnar heard this, his eyebrows were instantly overjoyed, and he quickly thanked him: "Thank you Uncle Song!"

After speaking, Regnar brought Roger, who had been silent for a long time, to his side and said with a smile: "Uncle Song, I haven't officially introduced you to this man. This is my son, Roger, and the next generation heir to the Wu family in the future. ."

Roger hurriedly bowed respectfully and said, "Junior Roger, Nice to meet you Grandpa Song!"

Father Song smiled and nodded, and said, "The eldest son and grandson of the Wu family are indeed a talent!"

Regnar laughed and said, "Uncle Song, you are too polite. In fact, your grandchildren are all dragons and phoenixes!"

After that, he sighed: "Especially Warnia, I hadn't seen her for many years. When she visited the hospital yesterday, I hardly dared to recognize her! Now she has become more beautiful and mature."

Mr. Song said with a smile: "Warnia just looks mature and capable, but in fact she is still a little girl in her heart."

Regnar nodded, and deliberately asked, "Uncle Song, Warnia should be at the age of marriage. I wonder if you have found a good husband for her?"

Father Song suddenly thought of Charlie, but unfortunately, Charlie is still the son-in-law of the Willson family, the husband of Claire, and his granddaughter have not made substantial progress, so he can only say: "She is not too old, so she is not in a hurry."

Regnar hurriedly said: "Uncle Song, in fact, this matter should be anxious. Time flies quickly. If you don't worry about it this year or next year. You will find that it is too late the next year. Looking for, falling in love, running in, talking about marriage, getting married, conceiving in October, by the time you have a child, you may be almost 30 years old."

Grandpa Song nodded in agreement, and said, "What you said makes sense. I take it down. I'll talk to her and persuade her to plan early."

In fact, what Elder Song thought was that he would use this set of excuses to persuade Warnia to take the initiative to attack Charlie as soon as possible, and don't continue to consume more time.

However, Regnar thought that he had already laid the groundwork and he could go straight to the topic.

So he confidently said: "Uncle Song, I think Warnia and Roger are about the same age, they are both at the stage of marriage, and I think they can be regarded as good friends, Uncle Song, I wonder if you are interested in Our Wu family and want to strengthen the relations?"

After all, Regnar smiled and looked at Mr. Song, determined to win.

He felt that after listening to this, Mr. Song would definitely agree to him without hesitation.

Roger on the side also observed at Mr. Song nervously, expecting Mr. Song to agree.

However, no one thought that when Mr. Song heard this, he blurted out, "No!"

After finishing speaking, add another phrase: "Absolutely not!"

Chapter 551

"Absolutely not?!"

Regnar never dreamed that Mr. Song would refuse so simply.

It seems that the Old Master Song didn't even think about it, so he rejected him!

why? !

Why? !

Wu family is stronger than Song family. This son is the eldest grandson of the Wu family. To put it bluntly, he is the most outstanding young talent in Aurous Hill.

How many girls from big families even took the initiative to give in, in order to hook up with this son.

He likes Warnia, that is to give Song family face!

After all, it was Song family who climbed up using the Wu's!

There are ten thousand reasons to agree, but shouldn't have half the reason to refuse.

But they refused without hesitation, why?

Why do they look down on Wu's family so much?

So, he asked a little bit angrily: "Uncle Song, do you think our Roger is not worthy of your Warnia?"

The Old Master Song wanted to say something subconsciously, he didn't deserve!

What international joke are you making with me? Can Roger be compared with Mr. Wade?

In his eyes, this precious son, compared to Mr. Wade, is not even a single hair.

After all, this baby son has no ability to make the old man young even for a month.

But Mr. Wade can make him young for at least ten years!

Moreover, Mr. Wade has an extraordinary ability to reach the sky, how can a junior in Wu family think of that?

However, the Wu family is a family friend of the Song family after all, so Mr. Song can't speak too bluntly, otherwise it would be too hurtful to them.

So he said calmly: "Regnar, don't be too excited. This kind of thing is not my final say. As you know, freedom of love, freedom of marriage, and Warnia's matters are all up to her own decision. It's not easy to call the shots from my place in this time and age."

Regnar shook his head and said, "Uncle Song, don't you know what is going on in our family? In our family, no matter boys or girls, there is no such thing as freedom of love and freedom of marriage? You have to follow the family's arrangements? Uncle Song, if you agree, I believe Warnia will not disobey you."

Their kind of family has always paid attention to the right family and marriage.

He originally thought that as long as he asked Warnia to marry Roger, the Old Master Song would agree with joy. After all, the Wu family was still above the Song family in terms of strength, and Warnia would consider this a high climb.

And Warnia's age is also right, even passing the best marriage age.

Chapter 552

In these top big families, the girls are usually in their twenties, and their marriages are already scheduled.

Moreover, most of them are twenty-two or three years old and get married as soon as they graduate from college.

So Regnar hoped that Mr. Song could directly mention this matter to Warnia, and even directly ask her to accept the marriage.

Most girls in large families have the awareness of family arrangements for marriage. As long as the elders of the family make arrangements, the younger generations will naturally obey.

Father Song didn't expect that he declined Regnar, but Regnar retreated without knowing it was difficult.

So he could only chuckled and waved his hand: "Actually, to be honest, Warnia is still young and I haven't wanted to marry her yet. After all, her brother is not married yet."

Regnar blurted out, "Boys can wait more, but girls can't do it! Getting married when you are twenty-four or five years old is the best annualization. If you wait until you get married at thirty, your own value will be at a great discount!"

Mr. Song smiled faintly: "In front of people who really like her, twenty-four or five years old is no different from thirty, or even forty or fifty years old, but in front of people who don't like her, twenty-four or five years old, There may be a huge change from the age of twenty-six or seventeen. Therefore, I hope that my granddaughter can marry the former rather than the latter."

Roger hurriedly said: "Grandpa Song, if you are willing to marry Warnia to me, I will always treat her like my first love!"

Mr. Song nodded and said, "I believe you will, but it depends on Warnia's intentions, not that I can call the shots."

Regnar felt a little unhappy.

I have said so much, you always refuse, my son even made a promise, you are still rejecting, what do you mean? Looking down on my Wu family?

After a moment of silence, he said, "Uncle Song, I dare to ask, if you keep rejecting my kindness, is there a better candidate for the Song family than Roger?"

Father Song saw that the other party was pressing hard every step of the way. If he still did Tai Chi, the other party would definitely persevere. So he nodded and said seriously: "I don't want to hide it, I really have a good candidate in my heart."

After all, he added: "Warnia actually has a good candidate in her heart, and the two of us are optimistic about the same person."

When Roger heard this, he felt extremely disappointed. He finally met a woman who made him so tempted. He didn't expect that the other family would not look down upon him, and also revealed that she already has a lover!

Regnar also felt shocked, and there was a bit of anger that was hard to conceal in the eyes of Mr. Song.

dmn, this bad Old Master's eyesight is so dmn high that even our Wu family can't even look at him? He's going to heaven!

Thinking of this, he frowned and asked, "Uncle Song, since this person can make you look down on the Wu family, then he must be a child of the Eastcliff family?"

Grandpa Song shook his head and said, "No... the young man is just an ordinary person, not a member of any family at all. I even heard that he is an orphan and entered the orphanage at the age of eight."

When Regnar heard this, he suddenly became a little angry, and he blurted out: "Where is an orphan who doesn't even have parents than Roger, and where can you make Uncle Song look at him differently?"

Old Master Song laughed and said, "Sometimes people can't compare wealth, family, and background, and sometimes they have more abilities than others."

Regnar frowned and asked, "Uncle Song, do you think our family has no meaning?"

"Of course not." Old Master Song said with a smile: "I mean, people always have their own strengths and weaknesses. For example, Mr. Regnar is good everywhere, but he can't play basketball, and another person may be good, but in basketball very good, and a girl is attracted by the latter's basketball skills. This cannot be said that the latter is better than Roger, it can only be said that the latter is better an attraction for a girl."

At this time, Old Song's inner monologue was: "Regnar, where do you come from so much nonsense? You said so much. Not only did you become ignorant and forgot to retreat when you knew it was difficult, you even continued to chirp with me while licking your face. Do I have to make it clear to your face that your son is only a poop of sh!t in my eyes?"

Regnar was also quite depressed.

He thought he would come over and propose a marriage, Mr. Song would agree to it without hesitation, and immediately regarded his son as his grandson-in-law.

But he didn't expect that Old Master Song would reject his proposal time and time again!

This made Regnar feel a kind of humiliated.

Roger also frowned, and said with a slight dissatisfaction: "Grandpa Song, why don't you want sister Warnia to marry me? My Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. Even if it is placed in Eastcliff, how many Can dare to say that they are stronger than us?"

Grandpa Song glanced at him, smiled slightly, and said, "Young Mr. Wu is naturally a hero among the people. It's just that this emotional matter can barely be obtained."

For Mr. Song, the father and son had no self-knowledge, and they couldn't speak too much, so they could only rely on persuasion.

Roger snorted dully, feeling particularly upset.

I thought it was a matter of course, but it turned out to be more difficult than ancient learning.

Just when he was bored, Honor came back.

Seeing that the Mr. Wu and his son were meeting at home, Honor hurried forward and said very politely and politely: "Uncle Wu and Roger, how come you two are free to come home today?"

Regnar smiled at him slightly and said, "Honor, I just sent Wu Qi back to Suzhou this morning. I plan to stay in Aurous Hill with Roger these days to find out who did this to Wu Qi. So we came to visit your grandfather and plan to stay in your house for a few days."

After that, Regnar said again: "That's the honor, do you think, my son Roger, and your sister Warnia, if these two people get together, do they match well?"

When Honor heard this, he blurted out: "A good match! Of course a good match! Absolutely talented girl and a man! A match made in heaven!"

Regnar nodded in satisfaction, and said to Mr. Song: "Uncle Song, you have heard the words of Honor. I think this matter, even if you ask the entire Aurous Hill family, everyone will give the same answer as Honor. "

Mr. Song was a little embarrassed and did not answer for a while.

Here, Honor couldn't help but blurted out: "Grandpa, how good Roger and Warnia are, and that they are together, for our two families, it is also a strong union!"

Honor knew what grandpa was thinking and knew he wanted Warnia to be with Charlie.

However, this was unacceptable to Honor, so he was also eager to persuade his grandfather to agree to Wu's proposal.

Father Song did not expect that his own grandson would help outsiders to speak, and in turn persuade him!

Don't he know that he wants Warnia to be with Charlie?

Mr. Song knew in his heart that he knew it, and the reason for saying this was definitely because he didn't want to see Warnia and Charlie relationship develop.

Thinking of this, Mr. Song even felt dissatisfied with Honor.

The Old Master lived to this age, he was already a fine man, Honor was so careful that he could see through it all at once.

So he said lightly: "Honor, in your sister's business, it is not your turn to persuade me."

Honor felt a little in his heart, knowing that he had upset his grandfather, so he immediately closed his mouth with interest.

Uncle Boyu came in from the door at this time and said to Mr. Song: "Mr. Wade Missy is back and is parking the car."

Chapter 554

"OK." Father Song nodded lightly.

Regnar exchanged glances with Roger.

Roger could see the meaning in his father's eyes. He was encouraging him and asked him to directly mention this to Warnia.

After a while, Warnia stepped forward and saw Regnar and Roger. First she was taken aback, and then she also hurried forward with a polite greeting.

Regnar smiled and said to Warnia, "Warnia, I was talking about you with your grandpa."

Warnia asked in amazement: "Talk to me? I wonder what you and Grandpa are talking about me?"

Roger looked at Warnia at this time, and said with eager eyes: "Warnia, we have known each other since we were young, and we can be regarded as half childhood sweethearts, plus our two families are friends, so I think we can kiss the Song family. So I begged my father to come and propose marriage to Grandpa Song. Grandpa Song said he wanted to ask you what you want. I wonder if you would give me a chance?"

Warnia said embarrassingly: "Roger, we two haven't seen each other for a few years, so I say, is it a bit too sudden..."

Roger hurriedly said: "If you feel that this is too sudden, we can slowly cultivate relationships, starting with dating, how do you feel?"

Warnia glanced at her grandpa, then she shook her head apologetically and said, "I'm sorry, Roger, I already have someone I like..."

Roger was very depressed, but he continued to ask: "Warnia, I heard Grandpa Song say that you like an ordinary person, not a child of a big family. As the granddaughter of the Song family, you marry An ordinary person you will be laughed at!"

"No." Warnia said very seriously: "Marriage is a matter of love. Marrying someone else violates the essence of marriage."

After that, she also persuaded Roger: "Roger, you just said that we have known each other since childhood, and I also advise you not to choose a spouse and marriage for the benefit of the family. Most of these marriages are not long and unhappy. "

Roger felt even more depressed when he heard this.

"d*mn, I came here to marry you. Not only did you refuse me, you also advised me not to marry for the benefit of the family? Your Tai Chi is really amazing! Just use this trick to throw a thousand kilograms in fours, what a girl in her twenties!"

Regnar was also amazed at this time.

He really didn't expect that Warnia could not only refuse his son's courtship, but even use the short-term family marriage and unhappiness to block the road even more deadly. This is simply a double rejection of Roger!

The more surprised by Warnia's mind, the more Regnar hoped that Warnia could become his daughter-in-law.

If such a woman can become the daughter-in-law of the Wu family, then she will definitely be a good helper for his son!

At this moment, he had already made up his mind: He will win the Song family's granddaughter for his son!

Therefore, Regnar stepped forward to take a picture of Roger, who was a little depressed, and said with a smile: "You and Warnia are both young people. You really should advocate freedom of love and freedom of marriage, so you can't remember this kind of thing, anyway. You are young and have a lot of time, so don't worry for now."

When Mr. Song saw that Regnar was finally no longer aggressive, he was relieved, so he nodded, called Boyu, and ordered: "You should arrange Regnar and Roger in the guest room first. Don't be negligent. Tell the Chefs to prepare lunch quickly and entertain them both at noon."

Boyu quickly agreed and said to Regnar and Roger: "You two, please follow me to the guest room."

Regnar nodded, and said to the Song family: "See you in the restaurant."

After leaving, the two followed Boyu and went all the way to the guest room.

After entering the guest room and closing the door, Roger said anxiously: "Dad! Old Master Song is too despised?! He doesn't even look at me?!"

Regnar smiled indifferently, and said: "Don't panic, investigate first these days to see if Warnia really belongs to her heart, and if so, I will find out who is that man!"

Chapter 555

"Who is that?"

Hearing Regnar's words, Roger looked disdainful and said angrily: "Dad, among the young people in Aurous Hill, who dares to call himself god and holy in front of me? No matter who he is, in front of me, it can only be a rubbish! Even if it is a dragon in the sky, he can't hold it in front of me!"

As he said, his face sank, and he said: "This Old Master Song is really a little bit ignorant. Let Warnia marry me, is the honor of their family. This Song family is such a thing, how dare they underestimate me!"

Regnar said lightly: "Roger, don't forget that this is the Song family. Talking nonsense in the Song family, if it gets to the family's ears, do you still want to have room for mediation?"

When Roger heard this, he closed his mouth in shock.

Regnar sighed and said, "You, you are still too impatient to do things. If you encounter problems in the future, you must be more calm."

Roger said hurriedly: "Sorry Dad, I was too impulsive."

Regnar said: "Mr. Song has been shrewd throughout his life, otherwise he would not be able to make such a family business. Therefore, he should not make confused mistakes. If Warnia really likes a plain ordinary person, he will definitely not agree. Let alone support, so I suspect that the other party should be a little real."

A cold light flashed in Roger's eyes and said: "Dad, I have never heard of any amazing young person in Aurous Hill's family. Besides, in the whole Aurous Hill, they respect Wu family....."

Regnar thought for a while and said, "You also said that the Wu family is respected in the south of the Yangtze River, but looking at the whole country, we are still far behind."

Those really powerful hidden families are basically entrenched in Eastcliff, so I suspect, the sweetheart of Warnia mentioned by Mr. Song might be a descendant of one of the Eastcliff family."

Roger was anxious and asked quickly: "Dad, what do you mean?"

Regnar said coldly: "Tonight, I am going to host a banquet at Classic Mansion in Aurous Hill. I will summon some heads of other Aurous Hill families to come to see me. I believe they will be there after hearing my Wu family's name."

At this time, Boyu came and knocked on the door, and said outside the door: "Mr. Regnar, Mr. Roger, Mr. Song invites you to the dining room for lunch."

"Okay." Regnar replied and said: "Please tell Uncle Song, we will be there later!"

As he said, Regnar lowered his voice again and said to Roger: "I have two purposes for this banquet. First, let people from Aurous Hill families help us find clues about your brother. , Inquire about the man Warnia likes, find him and see who he is! If it is the offspring of a big family, we will find a way to save the way, if it is really an ordinary person, let him disappear from this world!"

Roger was overjoyed and quickly agreed, "Dad, I understand!"

.....

At this moment, Charlie had already prepared lunch, and he was eating with his wife Claire and his father-in-law.

During the meal, Jacob appeared extremely excited, with a smile full of expectation on his face, it seemed that there was something joyous.

Mother-in-law Elaine frowned, looked at Jacob, and questioned: "You bad Old Master, smiling so wretched, what are you doing wrong?"

"Why!" Jacob said hurriedly: "Our old classmates have made an appointment to go back to their alma mater for a gathering in the afternoon, and we will invite our former class teacher to come together.

Chapter 556

"Class reunion?" The mother-in-law said contemptuously: "Half of your body is almost into the soil, what kind of class reunion do you have? Haven't heard of it, the class reunion is where old lovers go for dates!"

"Don't talk nonsense!" Jacob blurted out: "We go to the party this time, all of them were male students, and none of the female students were invited."

"Really?" Elaine looked unbelieving.

Jacob hurriedly explained: "It's true, you don't know what happened in our class back then. There were only a few girls in total, and all of them have gone abroad. Now they are all abroad, so this gathering is all men."

"I don't believe it! You are not allowed to go!" Elaine blurted out: "You must be holding back to see your old friend! Don't think I don't know!"

Charlie was stunned. Hearing what his mother-in-law said, Jacob had some romantic stories before?

Jacob hurriedly said, "There isn't any good old friends, they are really male classmates!"

Elaine snorted disdainfully, ignoring Jacob, but her face was a bit ugly.

Jacob hurriedly said again: "It happened to be that Charlie can come with me in the afternoon. Our head teacher is now in a wheelchair. There is no elevator in the old building of the old campus. You have to find some young and strong to lift him to the fifth floor classroom. If you can't believe me, let Charlie come back and report to you. There is a female classmate present, I will come back and kneel on the washboard!"

Elaine said brutally: "Not allowed to go!"

Jacob was also a little angry, and blurted out, "They are old classmates who I haven't seen in decades. How can I release pigeons? Besides, our class teacher is more than 80 years old. I don't know how long he will live. I'll never see him again!"

Claire on the side also couldn't see it, and said, "Mom, just let Dad go. It's not easy to organize a class reunion at such an old age. Don't make people laugh by making him miss the appointment."

Elaine glared at her and said, "What do you know, your dad had hooked up with a fox in their class for a long time. If I hadn't taken him down with a little trick, your dad would have gotten together with that fox. Go, if that's the case, how can you be there?"

Charlie was surprised when she heard this. How could it sound like it was a third party from the mother-in-law, why did she act as if she was reasonable?

Jacob's face was also a little uncontrollable at this time, looking at Elaine, and said solemnly: "Don't talk to your children about old things!"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly said to Claire, "Claire, don't listen to your mother's nonsense. This Lady doesn't have a door on her mouth all the time, and she knows that she is arranging me..."

Claire looked embarrassed. She didn't want to know about the love triangles between her parents back then. So she said to Elaine: "Mom, you two will play mahjong one in the afternoon and the other will go to the class reunion. Isn't that right? You? Just let Dad go."

Jacob's eyes suddenly lit up and threatened: "If you don't let me go to the class reunion, then don't play mahjong yourself. We will observe each other at home, staring at each other!"

As soon as Elaine heard that Jacob would not let her play mahjong, she was anxious, and blurted out: "You Old Master, wouldn't letting me play mahjong delay my earning? Shehlain will go to the United States soon. I have to take advantage of it. She hasn't left yet, so I can play a few more games with her. I only need to play one game with her, let alone earn three or five thousand!"

After finishing speaking, she looked at Charlie and blurted out: "Charlie, you will go with your dad in the afternoon! If there is a girl at the class reunion, call me immediately, and I will rush over and show him his old face!"

Chapter 557

Jacob was frightened by Elaine's fierce words, and then he said stiffly: "I am not afraid of the shadow leaning!"

Elaine glared at him and said, "I'm too lazy to talk nonsense with you, all right, I'm going out to play mahjong."

After speaking, Elaine got up, stretched out her hand and said to Jacob, "Come on, give me your car key!"

Jacob said: "You play mahjong and drive there? I still need the car in the afternoon!"

Elaine gave him a white look and said contemptuously: "Why? Want to drive to your classmates to show off? I tell you, there are no doors! Hurry up, give me the car keys!"

Jacob was helpless, so he had to take out the car key and hand it to her, and said, "You drive carefully, don't smash it."

Elaine said fiercely: "You care about the old woman? Anxious, the old woman will drive you into the river! Let you burn the bag!"

Jacob wanted to die depressed, but Elaine felt a sigh of relief, put on his coat happily, and walked out the door vigorously.

After Elaine left, Jacob sighed helplessly, and said to Charlie: "Charlie, you followed me this afternoon, and it happened that some old classmates also brought young people to help."

"Okay, dad." Charlie was helpless, but he could only nod his head and agree.

Claire handed her car key to Jacob and said, "Dad, maybe you drive my car in the afternoon and I will take a taxi to the company."

"Forget it." Jacob waved his hand and said: "I am embarrassed to drive."

Claire was helpless, so she took the key back and said to Charlie, "Then you can take a taxi."

Charlie said, this old man is too vain, he dislikes Claire's 5 series and calls it a beggar version? Does he know, that car is actually the best BMW 760?

At this moment, Elaine had just walked downstairs and was about to drive away when he suddenly heard a familiar voice.

"Oh, brother and sister, wait a minute!"

Elaine looked up and found out that the person here was actually Noah's wife and sister-in-law, Horiyah.

She was a little surprised at once. In Shehlain's villa, she severely despised her and her husband. She was really addicted. She did not expect that she would find her own home.

So she asked, "Horiyah, why are you here?"

When she thought of squeezing Noah and Horiyah before, Elaine's mind showed the expressions of resentment of the couple at the time, and her heart was even more unspeakable.

Unlike before, Elaine had always worried that after the Willson family went bankrupt, her pension would not be settled, but now, the person who most hopes to see the Willson family go bankrupt is her.

Because she has found a greater source of pleasure, which is to mock Noah and Horiyah.

If the Willson family is completely bankrupt, then she can laugh at them both unscrupulously every day!

These two guys have been sarcastic about her for so many years, and in the future, they will even get back that with the profit!

Therefore, seeing Horiyah appearing in front of her at this time, Elaine was a little faintly happy!

She was thinking that she hadn't had enough addiction last time, but she didn't expect it? They brought themselves to her door!

Chapter 558

When Elaine asked, Horiyah said apologetically: "Oh, brother and sister, I came to see you today, but I actually want to say sorry to you..."

Then, she said with a look of shame: "When I was in the Willson family, I used to look down on people. Not only did I always give you a look, but also often said bad things about you in front of the Lady Willson. What I did is wrong, I have deeply reflected on my mistakes, so I came to you and wanted to apologize solemnly to you."

After speaking, her face was hot, gritted her teeth, and then bowed deeply to Elaine.

Elaine was a little surprised at once.

She thought this girl was here to provoke, but she unexpectedly bowed and apologized.

Her 30-meter-long sword was already ready to slash her severely. When she heard this, she suddenly didn't know what to do.

At this time, when Horiyah saw Elaine not speaking, she acted very well. She knelt on the ground while crying, and pleaded bitterly: "My dear brother and sister, do you blame the sister-in-law? The sister-in-law is really wrong. Now, in recent years, my sister-in-law hasn't figured out a truth. We are both wives and outsiders in Willson's family. We should be friends and sisters in the team and get along well together!"

After that, Horiyah slapped her face and cried: "My dear sister, your sister-in-law used to be really ignorant, please don't be familiar with sister-in-law. We will still be like sisters in the future. Can't we?"

Elaine was so excited!

OK!

The aloof Horiyah actually knelt down on her own, and desperately slapped herself, this looked really enough to relieve her hatred!

After all these years, when did Horiyah lower her head to her, and now, she finally feels the kind of refreshing feeling of stepping on the soles of others.

Horiyah looked at the complacency on her face, her heart burst into anger, but she sighed and said: "Sister, tell you something to your heart, I think I understand. You said that I have committed all kinds of sins for so many years. Regarding what you are for, isn't it all in the end? Now I regret it in my heart. If I have been impolite to you over the years, how can we make troubles between us to the point where we are today?"

As she said, she continued to say sincerely: "Thousands of mistakes are all made by Horiyah alone. Now I only hope that you can see love for so many years and forgive me for what I committed before."

Elaine was excited, but she said calmly: "Oh, sister-in-law, you can recognize your mistakes. It really impresses me. I thought you would never wake up in your life!"

Horiyah hurriedly laughed and said with a smile: "How could it happen? Sister-in-law has already lost her way!"

Elaine used to dream that her bullying sister-in-law could bow her head to herself, but after waiting for more than 20 years, she didn't get her wish. Unexpectedly, her dream would come true now.

Elaine couldn't help feeling proud, and said with a smile: "Since Sister-in-law, you have realized your mistakes, I am not the kind of grudge keeper. The previous things are over."

Horiyah hurriedly said, "Okay, okay, my younger siblings are really generous, after this, we will still be good sisters!"

However, she said so in her lips, but she cursed in her heart, this stinky lady, it really shines if you give you some sunshine!

After so many years of getting along, what kind of virtue this Elaine has, can she still know? Let me give her a few words first, she will float up, and then take care of you!

At this time, Elaine took out the BMW car key from her pocket and said with a smile: "Sister-in-law, since the misunderstanding between us is gone, I won't talk more with you. I am going to play cards!"

Horiyah didn't know how to invite her to play mahjong. When she heard this, she immediately stopped her, and she blurted out and asked, "Are you going to play mahjong?"

Elaine nodded: "Yes, what's the matter?"

Horiyah hurriedly said: "That's right! I have a sister who is very rich at home and likes to play mahjong, but her poker skills are not very good, but you also know that a rich lady like her doesn't care about money, mainly The picture is happy, so every time she lose tens of thousands, she doesn't blink."

Speaking of this, Horiyah cautiously said in a low voice: "It's just right. She told me that she would like to meet a few regular poker friends to play together every day. I wonder if you are interested? This will win you a little more money then!"

Chapter 559

When Elaine heard this, her eyes suddenly brightened!

She was so worried that after Shehlain left, she couldn't find advantage, but she didn't expect Horiyah to find a substitute immediately!

Moreover, it sounds like this fool has more money than Shehlain. Shehlain loses several thousand a day, and this fool loses tens of thousands a day!

She likes to play mahjong with people who are rich in their pockets and have poor card skills. It's like making a fortune!

If she cooperates with Horiyah from inside and outside, and everyone agrees on some small secret codes, it will definitely make a profit without losing it!

Thinking of this, she was overjoyed!

She is a person who is typically addicted to money. Seeing money is more intimate than seeing her parents!

Now that Horiyah said that, she couldn't help but feel itchy.

Seeing her heart move, Horiyah hurriedly said in a low voice: "I tell you, sister, when we are at the poker table, we will look at each other's gestures, we will touch our noses when we ask for bread; Just pursing our lips, when we two help each other, we will eat and touch each other, and they will definitely win without leaving!"

As soon as Elaine heard this, she immediately agreed happily, and hurriedly said: "Okay, Sister-in-law, you have said that, then let's play a few times with her to see!"

Horiyah smiled with joy and deliberately said: "Let me tell you, this person is rich and lives in the Tomson Villa. When do you think we will be there?"

Elaine said immediately: "I can do it now, come, and go in my BMW!"

Sitting in the car, Horiyah couldn't help but smile coldly in her heart as she looked at Elaine's impatient virtue.

In order to make the game for Elaine, she specially invited two old people, and also specially paid a high price, short-term rented a set of Tomson first-class endorsements, in order to win all of Elaine's net worth and let this b*tch with nothing!

Elaine didn't know that Horiyah was trying to pit her. Instead, she was thinking about it, and hurried to kill the legendary taker.

Just when Elaine and Horiyah rushed to Tomson, Charlie and his father-in-law also took a taxi to his alma mater, University.

Looking at the magnificent gate tower carved with white marble at the entrance, and the six characters of "National University" that were particularly chronological at the top of the gate tower, Charlie couldn't help being surprised.

Unexpectedly, this Old Master looks very useless, but he is still a famous university student?

Moreover, the famous college students of his era are much rarer than they are now...

Seeing Charlie's surprised gaze, Jacob snorted and said, "Why, do you think Dad doesn't look like someone who has gone to college?"

Charlie nodded honestly and said, "Dad, your temperament is really not like a college student..."

Jacob sighed, and said with pride: "I was also a man in the school back then, and my academic performance has always been among the best. If I didn't want to be too far away from home, I would go to Eastcliff University."

Charlie laughed and asked, "What happened later? You graduated from a prestigious university, why did you become a housewife at home?"

Charlie felt that it was really interesting that he, the old father-in-law, a dignified and famous college student, and the second young master of the Willson family, eventually turned into a useless man who was scolded by Elaine every day.

When Jacob heard this, his tone was stagnant, and he said nonchalantly: "Later...hey, don't mention it later, it was all d*mn bitter tears..."

While the two were chatting, a middle-aged man of the same age as Jacob walked out behind the gate. After seeing Jacob, the middle-aged man rushed over immediately.

"Jacob, I haven't seen you for many years. You can do it now. There are five people wearing six..."

Chapter 560

Jacob observed the man in front of him for a long time before he smiled and said, "Are you Zhouqi? We must have not seen each other for 30 years. You look like a big boss. You have made a fortune?"

Zhouqi shook his head and said, "I can't compare to you, Jacob. In the words popular among children nowadays, you were the rich second generation back then..."

The Willson family back then did have something.

At that time, Mr. Willson was in his prime, and he made a lot of money when he went to the sea for the first time in business, so Jacob was also very good at that time. His pocket money could not be less than half of his classmates combined.

It was precisely because of the money that Elaine from other classes took the spotlight.

At this time, Jacob heard others say that he was a rich second generation, and was about to be humble. He didn't expect that a middle-aged man and a young man came out at this time.

The middle-aged man approached him and suddenly snorted and said, "The second generation is also rich, that is, you are from a foreign country. I don't know his condition... I tell you, now The Willson family has been completely cold, and Jacob, our man of the year, has a hard time now..."

Jacob looked a little ugly, and said, "Panming, what are you talking about? I live my life, do I need you to tell me?"

Zhouqi hurriedly said, "You two are really the same. After so many years, how can you pinch as soon as you meet? When you were in college, you would pinch every day. You are all this age, and you still can't forget about robbing a girlfriend?"

Jacob snorted and said proudly: "What can I do with him? He is just my subordinate defeat. At that time, after people were with me, Panming was jealous and drank big drinks in the bedroom every day. , He cry when he drunk too much, he couldn't wait to strip me alive, hahahahaha."

At this time, a lot of middle-aged and elderly people came around. When everyone heard this, they all smiled and agreed: "Panming was really infatuated back then. He remember that during that time, he cried every day. His eyes were so swollen that he couldn't see it."

"Yeah, haha, at that time everyone said Panming was a love type!"

Charlie listened to the conversation with a few people, and couldn't help feeling surprised.

Unexpectedly, Jacob and this Panming are still rivals in love?

Does this Panming also like Elaine?

Can a fire pit like Elaine attract so many people to jump in?

Are these two people so blind?

When Panming heard so many people teasing about his own things in the past, he suddenly became angry again, and said coldly to Jacob, "Jacob, you are too irresponsible to talk. You said I am your defeated opponent? What a joke, you Where did you win? Has Han Meiqing come with you? Who doesn't know, Meiqing left the United States and dumped you!"

Meiqing?

Charlie heard this and finally understood that it was not Elaine that the two people grabbed back then...

The students around also laughed.

Someone patted Jacob on the shoulder and asked curiously: "By the way, Jacob, why did Meiqing break up with you back then?"

"Yes! Everyone has been curious about this matter for decades, what's the matter?"

Jacob did not expect that everyone would start to surround him and ask about the past that was unbearable, so he waved his hands with an awkward expression: "Oh, don't mention the past things..."

Charlie suddenly caught a bit of pain in Jacob's awkward expression.

Could it be that in the past between the old father-in-law and the mother-in-law, what is there?

Chapter 561

At this moment, Charlie couldn't help but whispered to the Old Master: "Dad, who is this Auntie Han Meiqing that everyone is talking about?"

Jacob gave him a blank look, and whispered, "Don't open the pot!"

Charlie shrugged and said nothing more.

But when Panming saw more and more people coming, he looked arrogant and introduced the young man around him, saying: "Everyone, let me introduce you. This is my son-in-law Jones Jian. In the Internet industry, he started his own company, and now the company will soon be listed on the Growth Enterprise Market."

"Is going to be listed?" Zhouqi couldn't help but exclaimed, "After listing, the company's market is worth hundreds of millions, right?"

"Hundreds of millions?" Panming curled his lips and blurted out: "Let's talk about starting with a billion! You don't want to think about how difficult it is to go public now. How can a company without certain strength pass so many rounds of review by the Securities Regulatory Commission? "

With that, Panming said with great pride: "I tell you that when my son-in-law's company goes public, the market value must be over 1 billion. The performance of their company has risen very fiercely over the past two years. If you are interested To make money, you must buy the stocks of their company at that time!"

Panming's son-in-law Jones Jian hurriedly said: "Dad, don't brag for me. I'm just an entrepreneur who has just achieved something. Your old classmates hide dragons and tigers. Which row of juniors like me is the top number!"

Jones Jian's modesty won the favor of many people at the scene.

An Old Master with silver hair sighed: "Oh, Panming, your son-in-law is really young and promising, and he is humble and low-key. He is a good son-in-law!"

"Of course!" Panming nodded proudly, then deliberately looked at Jacob and asked: "Jacob, what does your son-in-law do?"

"My son-in-law?" Jacob looked at Charlie and sighed in his heart. Although he wanted to brag about his son-in-law as a human being, but after thinking about it, he was afraid that he would be pierced and make bigger jokes, so he was embarrassed. Said: "My son-in-law does housework."

"Do housework?" Everyone laughed blankly.

They never dreamed that what Jacob said was such an answer.

Panming curled his lips and said, "Doing housework means that he doesn't have a job? I heard that Jacob is also idle at home, right? Would you like me to let my son-in-law arrange a job for you and your son-in-law? Jacob, your age It's a little older. It should be okay to look at the door. Your son-in-law is young and has experience in housework, so he can simply go to the staff canteen to cook for the staff. What do you think?"

The students around laughed out loud.

Charlie hasn't spoken. He has been ridiculed to numbness by people in recent years. He didn't know how many times he had gone through a battle stronger than this, so he didn't feel ashamed at all. Instead, he felt that Panming's set was a bit pediatric. .

But Jacob was really depressed, his face was very ugly, and he couldn't help cursing in his heart: This Panming is really slamming his nose. From the moment he met, he started all kinds of sarcasm. Isn't it that he didn't catch up with Meiqing? As for having trouble with him after so many years?

Seeing that he didn't make a difference, Panming deliberately sneered: "Hey, Jacob, I kindly introduce you to work, can you say something?"

After speaking, he looked at Charlie again, and said dissatisfied: "Young man, your father-in-law is too old and his brain is not good. You can be forgiven if you don't understand etiquette occasionally. Are you like him, don't understand basic etiquette?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Uncle, let's not tell you, you can hire me for work, but the salary is very high."

Chapter 562

"High?" Panming curled his lips: "Where is the high energy? I asked you to cook. I'm sorry not more than a four to five thousand a month?"

Jones Jian on the side deliberately pleased his father-in-law, and deliberately agreed: "Dad, since it is the son-in-law of your old classmate, then I must take care a little bit, so let me pay 10,000 a month!"

Charlie laughed and said, "I'm sorry, I don't want money to work for people."

Panming frowned: "You don't want money, what do you want?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Whoever hires me to do work has to marry his daughter to me. For example, my father-in-law, he wants to hire me home to work, so he married his baby daughter to me. Uncle Panming, if you want too Hire me to work, then you have to marry me your daughter too!"

Panming became angry immediately and cursed: "You kid really doesn't know how to praise! You are kindly rewarded with a bite of food, are you still playing this game with me here?"

Jones Jian was also full of anger. He looked at Charlie coldly and threatened: "Boy, my father-in-law has only one daughter, my wife. Please be careful when you speak, otherwise, I won't let you go around!"

Charlie smiled: "You two are really interesting. When did I ask you to give me a bite of food? Obviously you are licking your faces and want to hire me to work. You want to hire me. I said my request. Isn't it normal if you agree to give me work we discuss the conditions?"

Jones Jian annoyed: "Why did you make such a request? Aren't you just looking for something?"

Charlie said calmly: "You are wrong. I am not looking for trouble. I have always been on this condition. To tell you, I have been married to my wife for more than three years. For more than three years, I have just been doing housework and buying things for home. Sweeping the floor and cooking, this is my job, and the remuneration for my work is my wife. If you want to hire me to do things, naturally you have to follow the terms I ask for. You can give me what I want. If you can't afford it, just shut up. With such a simple truth, you two are almost at least 80 years old together. Don't you understand?"

"You..." Panming and Jones Jian his son-in-law were speechless.

Charlie was right.

He didn't take the initiative to ask these two people to offer the job, but the two people came up without licking their faces. Now that Charlie said the request, what makes them angry?

Seeing that the smell of gunpowder between the three of them was strong, other people hurried over to round the scene and said: "Oh, everyone is here for a party today. Happiness is better than anything else, so don't quarrel on this little thing."

Panming and Jones Jian suffered a dumb loss. Although they were very upset, they couldn't continue to talk.

After all, they are looking for things first, everyone can see that if they continue to hold Charlie, they will only look down on everyone.

Jacob on the side was so happy!

He really didn't expect that his son-in-law was so clever, he immediately blocked Panming and Jones Jian and couldn't help giving him a thumbs up.

Jones Jian looked at Charlie with a bit of resentment in his eyes.

He thought that he was also the boss of the company that was about to go public, and accompanied the old man to come over and pretend to be low-key, but he didn't expect that Charlie would put him in a position, and finally dig a hole for himself.

For him, this loss is too uncomfortable, he must find a way to get the place back!

Chapter 563

In order to get a little back, Jones Jian recalled that his father-in-law, Panming, had always used a woman named Meiqing to ridicule Jacob, so he pretended to be curious and asked: "Dad, what's the matter with that Meiqing Aunt? Huh? You always talk about her, which makes me quite curious..."

Panming glanced at Jacob and said with a smile: "In the words of your young people, Meiqing is our school's flower. Many boys in the school loved her. The boys who chased her would probably have to go around University twice. Not only once."

As he said, Panming deliberately raised his voice and said with a smile: "Finally, this school girl suddenly didn't know how he was blinded, and she was with Jacob. Don't you know that at the time Jacob was in love with the school girl, so he went out. You have to avoid others, for fear of being ambushed by other boys."

Jones Jian continued to ask: "What happened later?"

Panming glanced at Jacob, smiled happily, and said: "Later, Meiqing of course broke up with him, and went straight to the United States. She hasn't come back for so many years."

After that, Panming said to Jacob, "Oh, Jacob, do you know why you were dumped by Meiqing back then?"

Jacob snorted coldly and said angrily: "My business with her has nothing to do with you, so you don't need to worry about it."

Panming laughed and said, "Let me tell you. In fact, Meiqing was chased by too many boys at school, and she had been annoyed after chasing her, so she wanted to find a fake boyfriend to solve those flies once and for all. Looking around, and finally choosing you to be her fake boyfriend, only you were in the dark. People who have finished with you and want to go abroad will naturally dump you, hahahaha!"

Jacob blurted out angrily: "You don't talk nonsense here! I broke up with Meiqing because of..."

Speaking of this, Jacob couldn't talk anymore.

His expression changed rapidly from anger to regret, desolation and sadness. He lowered his head, sighed softly, and waved his hand: "Forget it, don't say it, it's boring."

"Don't!" Panming said aggressively: "Don't say half of the conversation, and tell everyone, why did you break up with Meiqing? Didn't she kick you when she ran out?"

"of course not!"

Panming said, "Then you just talk about it!"

Jacob gritted his teeth and said, "The matter between me and her is the matter of the two of us, and there is nothing to say about you."

"Cut." Panming curled his lips and said disdainfully: "I see, you have been tricked and embarrassed to admit!"

Jacob waved his hand: "Whatever you say, I'm too lazy to explain to you."

"You..." Panming didn't expect Jacob to have a truce, and suddenly felt that his iron fist had hit the cotton, which was really disappointing.

At this moment, other people also arrived one after another.

Soon, more than 20 middle-aged and elderly people gathered at the door.

And indeed, as Jacob said, the people who came to the party this time were all male classmates.

This kind of gathering of middle-aged and elderly classmates still seems to be very sincere. Everyone talked to each other, and Charlie saw that some people inside had red eyes.

When Zhouqi saw this before, he hurriedly said: "Old classmates, let's go in and talk, don't stand here."

Panming nodded and said: "Yes, let's go to our old classroom to talk. Teacher Li is in poor health. It will take a while for him to arrive. Let's go in first."

Chapter 564

The crowd just gathered to walk to the school. On the way, someone asked Zhouqi: "What did you talk about just now? See what you said is so hot."

Zhouqi laughed and said, "I'm talking about Meiqing. By the way, Meiqing won't come today?"

Someone laughed and said, "Don't even ask Jacob, why are you in a hurry?"

Zhouqi smiled and said: "I'm not asking for Jacob, Meiqing is Jacob's first love, and I didn't know that for so many years, Jacob has forgotten that she did not."

Panming sneered at the interface: "From the perspective of Jacob's current dire and hot days, he may not forget Meiqing in his life."

"Oh? What's the matter?" someone suddenly asked curiously.

Panming opened his mouth and said, "After entering the classroom, I will tell you more in detail."

Jacob said angrily: "Why do you have such a big mouth? No one thinks you are dumb if you don't speak."

Panming laughed twice and said: "But I just want to talk, can you control it?"

Walking into the classroom, everyone looked at the place they hadn't been in for many years, and recalled the good times in college for a while. Many people wept at that time.

Panming sat down in his seat, sighed with emotion, and said to the classmates: "It's not good to say it. At that time, Meiqing was looking for a shield to fall in love with Jacob. Once she graduated, she would just go straight to America."

After speaking, Panming said again: "I heard that Jacob's mother doesn't seem to like him, so he has done nothing in society these years. He finally gave birth to a beautiful girl, hoping to turn her over, who knows that he will be found again. He came to get a wasteful son-in-law. It is said that his son-in-law is an orphan who eats leftovers, so compared to most of our classmates, he is now a lot worse."

Hearing what he said, everyone gathered around him and asked curiously about the details.

Charlie also touched his nose, thinking that Panming really knew the situation of the Old Master. He even knew his orphan status and the things of eating leftovers at home. The resentment is indeed very deep!

At this moment, someone said with a look of surprise: "Why is Jacob so miserable now? In the past, Jacob was also the chairman of the student union and a famous top student in the school. Wouldn't it be such a mixed up?"

Jacob cursed angrily: "Panming, can you shut up?"

Jones Jian laughed and said, "Uncle Willson, don't care too much. Everyone is just being happy, no one will really take it to heart. You also try to be open-minded."

Jacob's expression was extremely ugly. What Jones Jian said was to base their happiness on his pain?

Panming looked at Jacob provocatively, then continued to smile and said to the students: "This is not the worst. Do you know what the worst is?"

"What is it?" everyone asked curiously.

Panming laughed and said, "The worst thing is that Jacob finally married a certain celebrity in our school! Guess who it is?"

Someone complained: "How can we guess this? Many of us have been developing in other places. Unlike you, you are in Aurous Hill and you know more gossip news."

"That's right, don't sell it off, tell us quickly, we are all curious!"

Panming didn't sell off anymore, and said with a smile: "The one who married him is the school's number one vixen, Elaine, who was famous back then!"

Chapter 565

Charlie really didn't expect that his mother-in-law Elaine would be classmates with the Old Master!

Even more unexpectedly, the mother-in-law has the reputation of the school's number one shrew!

To be honest, Elaine's quality is really not like someone who has studied in college.

To say that this person went to junior high school is a blasphemy against junior high school.

With her inferior quality and character, it is incredible to be admitted to university.

Charlie was not only surprised at this time.

All other old classmates of Jacob were also shocked.

No one thought that Jacob would be with Elaine!

Although Elaine was not in the same class as them, she was famous in school back then!

When she was in school, she was arrogant and unreasonable, and she was very immoral. She stole other people's things every other time. When she was caught, instead of admitting mistakes, she wanted to fight with others.

Once, Elaine's thermos broke and she was unwilling to spend money on a bottle, so she went to the tea furnace room and ordered one, but she didn't expect that the owner of the thermos was a boy from the northeast, five big and three thick.

The boy went to Elaine for a thermos, but Elaine pointed at his nose to scold him for half an hour.

In the end he couldn't help but slap Elaine. Elaine carried a bottle of water and chased him to burn him to death. The man in the northeast was chased for more than ten minutes, but she still burned his arm.

Not only that, Elaine even let out words, if the other party dared to yell at her, next time it will not be pouring water but sulfuric acid.

This time, the Northeast boy was terrified. Not only did she dare not pursue her sins of stealing the thermos and scalding herself, he even begged her to let her go.

Since then, Elaine became famous in the school.

Since then, no one in the school could provoke Elaine, even if she was a boy, she would beat and scold whenever she was dissatisfied. Many boys in the school could not raise their heads by her scolding.

Therefore, when they heard that Jacob and Elaine were married, everyone was stunned!

Someone looked at Jacob with sympathetic eyes and asked, "Jacob, I remember Elaine was really pursuing you back then, but you were so good at the time, how could you look at her?"

Jacob was very angry and said furiously: "Do you bother asking what these do?"

Panming was happy when he thought of it, and he explained happily: "You don't know about this, but I know it. Do you remember the gathering when we graduated from our senior year."

Someone echoed: "Remember, I remember that many people drank too much."

Panming smiled and said, "It was at that party that Elaine poured Jacob a pound of white money. Jacob was not good at that time. Everyone was still thinking about sending Jacob home, but Elaine said that no one would send him. , She can do it alone, in the end this girl carried Jacob to the guest house by herself..."

"Guesthouse?! d*mn it, isn't it?!"

Panming smiled and said: "You all left at the time. I was more curious about this, so I followed up and took a peek. Guess what happened?"

"You don't want to betray me, and finish it in one breath." Someone complained.

Panming laughed and said: "That was the time that Elaine put Jacob to sleep, and she won the bid. It didn't take long before she found out that she was pregnant. Because Meiqing also graduated, she flew directly to the United States. He had no choice but to marry Elaine, hahahahaha."

Chapter 566

Everyone laughed, no one thought that there was such an amazing inside story back then!

Although Charlie was not very good at evaluating this matter, he couldn't help but laugh inwardly.

Unexpectedly, the old father-in-law still has this kind of story. The mother-in-law has always been such a b*tch, and she was also drunk and in bed with the old father-in-law, so she has taken the initiative to do something with him. This is a devil!

The other classmates couldn't help feeling sympathy for Jacob, and all of them spoke to encourage and comfort him.

Panming looked at Jacob at this time, and said with a smile: "Don't rush to sympathize with Jacob. In fact, it is very miserable for Elaine to marry Jacob!"

Everyone asked puzzledly: "What is wrong with her? Isn't it more than enough for Jacob to compensate her?"

Panming sighed and said: "Hey, you don't know anything. Elaine, who was in the past, wanted to find a rich second generation, so she fell in love with Jacob. She felt that the Willson family was rich at the time. Mrs. Ko..."

Speaking of this, Panming changed the subject and laughed: "But who knows, Jacob would be so wasteful after graduation, he had no resources and no attention in the family, and the Willson family has also become more and more desolate. Elaine wanted to be a rich second generation, but unexpectedly ended up with a stinky silk!"

Jacob was very embarrassed and angry, his face flushed, and he held back for a long time before he said: "Panming, I don't need you to talk too much about me!"

Panming snorted coldly and said, "Jacob, who does not know about his family's affairs in Aurous Hill? If you don't let me talk, don't you have other ways to inquire?"

As he said, Panming said loudly:

"Originally, your Willson family still had some assets. Once you leave the house, you can still bluff someone with the name of the Willson family. Now the Willson family is cold. Elaine is a visitor to mahjong club every day, not doing business, this live-in son-in-law is still a waste living on leftovers at home, the whole family, now live on daughter alone? I don't know what your daughter did in her previous life. It's really heartbreaking to marry this kind of rubbish husband in a family like yours!"

Charlie couldn't help hearing this.

It doesn't matter to say that you can say that you can say that the old father-in-law and mother-in-law, but you can't say Claire.

Because she is his wife.

So he frowned and said, "Uncle Panming, you just need to live your own home. You don't need to worry about our family's affairs."

Panming said with a look of disdain: "What? As an old classmate, I still can't care about your family's situation?"

After all, he said with an arrogant face: "I just think it's worthless for Jacob's daughter!"

Panming got more excited as he talked, stood up and blurted out: "Look at me, a petrochemical company cadre at the department level, now I go to the unit every day to check in, and get a salary of 20,000 a month. I will be 65 years old in this year. After retiring, a monthly pension of more than 20,000, and 100% reimbursement for medical treatment and other things!"

"My wife is also a deputy section-level cadre employee of a petrochemical company, one hundred and fifty-six thousand a month, after that we both retire, the national pension will have to pay 40,000 a month!"

"Look at Jacob and Elaine again. Both are in their fifties and do not have a formal job. If they grow old in the future and don't even have a pension, wouldn't they become a social burden?"

Having said that, he pulled his son-in-law and said seriously: "Look at my son-in-law, the CEO of Aurous Hill Daz Technology Company, the company will soon be listed on the GEM! The company will have a profit of one or two billion in a year, even if putting it in the whole Aurous Hill, it can be regarded as the top group of people. Our family is thriving, and this is what we have lived!"

There were envious voices from everyone around, and they did not listen to Panming and Jones Jian.

Indeed, the economic foundation of their family is already very enviable among these old classmates.

Panming also enjoyed the awe and envy around him very much at this time. He looked at Jacob and Charlie with contempt and thought, "I have been looking forward to this face fight for so many years, and it really didn't disappoint me! I am so happy! Happily enmity."

However, he did not notice the playful smile at the corner of Charlie's mouth.

"The couple are both cadres of a petrochemical company? The son-in-law is the CEO of Aurous Hill Daz Technology Co., Ltd.? Okay, father-in-law doesn't know how to deal with you. Unexpectedly, you declared yourself destiny. Didn't you just hit your foot with the gun?"

Chapter 567

Now that Panming reported his family, Charlie sent Issac a WeChat along the way.

In WeChat, he asked Issac to help him investigate the personal information of the petrochemical company employee Panming and his wife. At the same time, he asked him to check the relevant situation of Aurous Hill Daz Technology Company.

When Issac was helping to inquire about information, Panming was accepting all the worship.

Most of these elderly people are now working within the system or in state-owned enterprises. Most of them are just ordinary workers. They have been working for a lifetime, and now they have only a few thousand in wages, which is more than enough.

However, Panming is already a section-level cadre employee of the petrochemical company, which makes them very envious.

The petrochemical company's original benefits are very good. The department-level cadres do not seem to be very high, but they are actually very rare. You can see from the salary. This level is already very popular, and everyone is out of it all at once.

What's more, their son-in-law, Jian, turned out to be the CEO of a company that is about to go public. This is really powerful. Listed companies are quite powerful, with a market value of several billions or even tens of billions, and Jones Jian is still so young. , Give him a few more years, wouldn't he be a super rich man?

Jacob also felt very hit.

Back then, this Panming was his defeated man. He desperately pursued Meiqing, but Meiqing didn't even look at him. On the contrary, Meiqing had a soft spot for him.

Now Panming is spreading rumors everywhere, saying that Meiqing only used him as a spare tire, which is nothing but bullsh*t!

Back then, he and Meiqing were in love with each other, and they had long been private for life. The most precious first time Meiqing give to him.

It's a pity that the shameless woman Elaine made a pitfall. She got drunk and had a relationship with him, and then went to Meiqing to show off. In the end, Meiqing was hit hard and decided to go abroad.

So speaking of it, today, he is completely harmed by Elaine.

Otherwise, he must have been married to Meiqing, and even the two of them were likely to go abroad to study together and then stay abroad!

When he thought of this, Jacob felt mixed, but more bitter.

It's so painful that he just wants to cry now, and he doesn't bother to be familiar with Panming.

Charlie received the WeChat from Issac at this time, and in just a few minutes, he had obtained the detailed information of Panming's family.

Panming, the deputy chief of the sales department of the petrochemical company, does have a bit of authority, earns a lot, and is greedy. It looks like he only earns 20,000 wages a month, but in fact he has long used his position to be greedy for thousands Million assets.

Some of the assets he embezzled were transferred abroad, some transferred to his daughter's name, and some were laundered by investing in Jones Jian's company.

As for Jones Jian, a few years ago, he was still a stinker who failed many times in his business. Knowing that Panming is a small leader with real power in the petrochemical company, he went after his daughter frantically, and then quickly enlarged his daughter's belly.

Immediately afterwards, Jones Jian married his daughter and asked him to support the business. Panming privately gave Jones Jian 30 million, and Jones Jian started the company.

Moreover, Jones Jian's Aurous Hill Daz Technology Company is basically a money laundering company for several black gambling shops on Aurous Hill Road.

They built an Internet crowdfunding app, and they called it free crowdfunding for sick patients. The result was that people on the road donated the black money in more than n accounts, and then aggregated them together, one million, one hundred donated to those fictitious "patients", so the company's book performance is also very beautiful.

Orvel has several underground black gambling shops in Aurous Hill, and a considerable part of the cash is laundered through the crowdfunding app of Aurous Hill Daz Technology Company.

After Charlie saw these messages, a gratified smile appeared on his face.

Panming, Jones Jian, let you have a while, waiting for you to have enough, waiting for you, there will be endless darkness!

Chapter 568

At this moment, someone outside shouted: "The teacher is here, hurry up and two young boys to help carry it."

Jacob finally breathed a sigh of relief, and said to Charlie: "Hurry up and help."

Charlie nodded.

Panming also said to Jones Jian, "You too, we are all old guys. We are not as good as your young ones, so we can't lift them anymore."

"OK." Jones Jian nodded, and walked out the door with Charlie.

When he went downstairs, Jones Jian's nose was upright, and he didn't bother to look at Charlie.

Charlie didn't bother to talk to him either, anyway, this grandson and his Aurous Hill Daz Technology Company were destined to be stunned today.

However, Charlie still want to find a suitable time to give him a fatal blow.

As the saying goes, extreme happiness produces sadness, and Jones Jian is not so happy yet.

When they got downstairs, they saw an 80-year-Old Master with all white hair sitting in a wheelchair and looking up at the old school building.

Next to him, there was a middle-aged man who saw Charlie came down and said with a smile: "It's really hard work for you. I've grown older, and I've grown older, so I really can't lift it. The teaching building of University is too old. There is not even an elevator installed. After I retired, he always wanted to come back to school to have a look, but my legs were inconvenient and couldn't go anywhere."

The Old Master smiled and said, "Even if you look at me and don't let me move, otherwise I can climb over."

The middle-aged man laughed and said, "Taught for a lifetime, haven't you been in school enough?"

The Old Master shook his head, and said in a righteous manner: "Teaching and educating people is a lifetime matter."

The middle-aged man smiled helplessly and said, "Okay, fulfill your wish today, and then teach your old students."

Charlie listened in awe. The attitude of these older generation of educators to education can almost be called faith.

A trace of disdain flashed across Jones Jian's face, but he didn't say anything, just said: "Let's go up quickly, everyone is waiting."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie and said: "Hey, come and help me!"

Charlie didn't bother to look at him, and said lightly: "I'll do it alone, lest I don't cooperate with a clumsy person like you, and then fall or touch the Old Master."

"Can you do it alone?" Jones Jian had an expression of disbelief.

Charlie ignored him, walked to the back of the wheelchair, shook his hands, directly lifted the entire wheelchair, and walked upstairs steadily.

Charlie's physical fitness is different from ordinary people. After making the rejuvenating pills a few days ago, he himself ate two pills, and his physical fitness has been greatly improved, let alone a man carrying an Old Master and a wheelchair. , Even if it is several times the weight, it is nothing to him.

Jones Jian's eyes were a little surprised, but he didn't need to lift him, it just saved a little effort, so he followed behind and said with a smile: "Oh, you have so much strength, you can go to the construction site to carry bricks and concrete! I have a friend who works on a construction site. Would you like me to introduce?"

Charlie looked at him, smiled and asked, "Do you want to go to the construction site to carry bricks and cement?"

Jones Jian contemptuously said: "I'm talking about you!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said happily: "Okay, you made the arrangements for yourself clearly! Then go to the construction site to carry cement for 20 years, what do you think?"

Chapter 569

Seeing that Charlie answered the wrong question, Jones Jian took a sip and said, "Is it interesting to pretend to be crazy and be stupid? It's exaggerating to ask you to carry cement!"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Okay, I see, I will arrange it for you."

Seeing that he was always talking in the mist, Jones Jian said disdainfully: "Neurotic!"

After speaking, he spoke again: "As someone who came here, I would advise you a few words, you are still young, and now you go out and find something serious to do, you may still succeed."

"Is it humble to carry cement? Not at all. Did you know that there is a singer named Adu? He was carrying cement at the construction site. Didn't people also carry fire?"

"And now him and YouTube are so popular, you can register for an account, and it's okay to post some cement-carrying videos on it, maybe it will be popular!"

Charlie smiled and said, "I have a YouTube account, do you want to follow me?"

Jones Jian asked contemptuously: "Oh, is your family chef still playing YouTube? What is your WeChat number? What's your name? Is it Aurous Hill's largest rag?"

Charlie smiled and said: "My mobile number is 786019911, my name is King Son-in-Law, and my avatar is a red dragon, do you want to follow and like it?"

"King son-in-law?" Jones Jian looked at Charlie contemptuously, and said, "Just you? Give the f*cking son-in-law? I said, can you have a face? If you are son-in-law, then I am not a son-in-law or any other thing. The royal son-in-law, the overlord son-in-law?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "You, you are a muddy son."

"Son-in-law? What do you mean?" Jones Jian frowned.

Charlie laughed: "The son-in-law who carries cement, don't you understand this?"

"Grass!" Jones Jian couldn't help spitting out: "You kid really doesn't know how to praise!"

Charlie ignored him, carrying the old teacher of the Old Master, walked a few steps quickly and came directly to the door of the classroom.

The Old Master patted Charlie's hand and said: "Young man, who can laugh at humiliation, not humble or overbearing, is a promising person at first glance."

After all, the Old Master turned his wheelchair and entered the classroom.

Jones Jian whispered: "You're so dim-eyed, you don't know where you can tell that he is good."

Charlie ignored him, anyway, he was not far from the fate he arranged for him.

At this time, with the arrival of the old teacher, there was already cheers in the classroom, and everyone kept greeting the Old Master.

The relationship between teachers and students in that era is not exaggerated to say that they are like father and son.

The Old Master looked at these middle-aged people who were over half a hundred years old and had a little gray hair. He couldn't help being very pleased and nodded repeatedly.

He has taught all his life, and it can be said that there are peaches and plums all over the world. Seeing these students, he feels no regrets in his life.

"Let the teacher give us another lesson." Someone moved emotionally.

Everyone expressed the same request.

The Old Master nodded, his eye circles a little red, sitting behind the podium, his fingers touched the already rough podium, and slowly said, "Hello, class."

"Hello teacher," everyone shouted in unison.

The Old Master nodded and said, "I am old and can't stand up, and I can't shout. The quality of lectures may not be as good as before, so I must say sorry to everyone first."

Chapter 570

Everyone hurriedly said with red eyes: "Teacher, don't you say that..."

The Old Master smiled slightly and said: "I have been here all my life, and I have witnessed your growth and the development of the country. I will not say anything else. I will give you words, peace and happiness. I have taught for a lifetime. , I am still poor and have no longevity, but I have ideals in my heart. I will live happily and contentedly in this life without regrets!"

Everyone applauded, especially Jacob. After hearing the teacher's words, he felt that the teacher was simply a beacon for guiding the way.

Although he didn't have much money, he tossed about antiques every day and realized his hobbies and pursuits, so he was also very happy.

Of course, there is still a source of pain in his life, and that source of pain is Elaine.

The Old Master was too old and lacked energy. He gave everyone an ancient Chinese lesson on stage. After that, he seemed a little panting, and everyone quickly helped him down.

Everyone is satisfied to hear the old teacher's lecture again, so I am extremely grateful to the Old Master.

Panming said at this time: "Since everyone's wish to attend the class is over, and it's rare to have a meeting today, then I will ask my son-in-law to arrange a place for everyone so that everyone can go together and relax."

After speaking, he turned to look at Jones Jian and asked: "By the way, Jones Jian, do you have any suitable places to recommend? Want the best place!"

Jones Jian nodded and said: "Recently, we opened a brilliant club in Aurous Hill. It is the property of the Song family, the largest family in Aurous Hill. It is currently the most luxurious leisure and entertainment venue in Aurous Hill. I happen to be a member there. We will go there soon. Let's have fun there, and I'm all inclusive for everyone's consumption today!"

Hearing that Jones Jian is a member of Brilliant Club, everyone was amazed!

This brilliant clubhouse is really extraordinary!

Everyone knows that this is the top and most upscale place in Aurous Hill. Those who can mix here are all great people.

In other words, if you can't mix with the upper class of Aurous Hill, you will never be eligible to be a member of the Brilliant Club.

The membership of this Brilliant Club is also an important reference for measuring a person's status.

Jones Jian was able to become a member of the Brilliant Club at a young age. This is indeed extraordinary!

Moreover, although everyone has heard of the Brilliant Club, apart from Jones Jian, none of these middle-aged and elderly people is a member of the Brilliant Club.

Let alone members of the Brilliant Club, none of these middle-aged and elderly people even have the opportunity to enter the Brilliant Club. No one has ever experienced what the top leisure club in Aurous Hill is like.

Now, thanks to Jones Jian's blessing, everyone has the opportunity to go to the brilliant club to see. Wouldn't it be too awesome to go in and take pictures and post to a circle of friends?

As a result, everyone was flattering Jones Jian again.

Jones Jian is naturally proud that the members of the Brilliant Club are the weapon he has used to force external appearances during the recent period, and he has tried repeatedly!

Whenever he declare that he is a member of the Brilliant Club, he can always get the respect and flattery of the surroundings, which makes him extremely useful.

However, his membership of this Brilliant Club is not actually his qualification, but he begged Orvel several times, and Orvel came forward to help him handle it.

Had it not been for the use of him when laundering gambling money, Orvel would not help him.

After all, in the eyes of Orvel, this kind of person is no different from Harley Zhou, who was a p2p deception at the beginning, and is just a dog who does things for him.

Always let the dog collect money everywhere, and give the dog two bones appropriately.

In this way, the dog will work harder!

Chapter 571

Soon, everyone took multiple cars and went to the brilliant club.

Although Jacob's teacher was very old, it was rare for everyone to gather once, and could not hold back everyone's kind invitation, so he decided to go with him.

Charlie and Jacob were sitting in a taxi together. The Old Master murmured angrily: "This Panming is really awkward. He has been chasing after me. I am really angry!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Dad, if you are unhappy, then let's just go home."

"No!" Jacob muttered: "I haven't been to the Brilliant Club, why should I not go to see the world!"

Charlie could only nod helplessly.

When the crowd came to the club, they gathered in the hall first.

In the hall, everyone was amazed at the luxury of the brilliant club.

The extremely luxurious decoration here has exceeded these middle-aged and elderly people's awareness of the entertainment club.

The Old Master, Jacob, was also surprised and admired again and again, holding his mobile phone to pat and that pat, and did not forget to post a circle of friends to show off.

Jones Jian proudly explained to everyone: "Uncles, this glorious clubhouse has 15 floors. The higher the floor, the higher the qualification requirements for membership. If the upper floors go up, if the power cannot reach a certain level, There is simply no way to go up. Even the most ordinary first level, it costs more than 100,000 to consume casually at a time, and ordinary people can't afford it."

Everyone was shocked one after another!

It costs at least more than 100,000 to come once?

An average family of three may not be able to make so much money in a year!

This kind of consumption is really not affordable for ordinary families.

Jones Jian took out his membership card in the eyes of everyone's admiration.

This card is silver in color, very beautifully made, and shining brightly. While handing the card to the front desk, he said to everyone: "Don't look at me, this is only a premium membership card, but the level in the membership card is not low. , There is an ordinary member below. I can go to the seventh floor of the clubhouse and below. This time I will take everyone directly to the seventh floor."

With that said, he added: "The minimum consumption on the seventh floor is 300,000, which is very luxurious!"

Panming turned his head at this time and proudly said to Jacob, "Jacob, you must have never been to such a high-end place? This time you have been exposed, and it also gives you an insight into the lifestyle of the upper class."

Jacob's face was green, and he said, "It's like someone who has never seen it before. I tell you, I'm also a person who has seen big scenes."

Panming ridiculed, "Hahaha, what big scenes have you seen? Have you been to the brilliant club? Have you spent time here?"

Jacob was speechless at once.

Even before the Willson family fell, he would not have the ability to come to such a place, not to mention that the Willson family is now bankrupt...

Therefore, Jacob can only admit counsel.

At this time, Jones Jian took the membership card, walked to the front desk, and said to the receptionist: "Prepare a seven-story box for me. All consumption counted on my card."

Chapter 572

The waiter looked sorry and said: "Sir, I'm so sorry. Today, our seven-floor boxes are all full. At present, in your membership card level, there is only level three? Would you like to go to the third floor for consumption?"

Jones Jian said angrily: "You let me go to the third floor? Can the third floor be worthy of my identity? If I go to the third floor, what will others think of me?"

The waiter apologized: "There is really no way right now, because the boxes on the fourth to seventh floors have been reserved in advance. You did not make a reservation in advance, so there is no way..."

Jones Jian said: "Since the seventh floor is gone, you can simply give me a free upgrade service and let me go to the eighth floor, or the eighth floor above. Is this always okay?"

"Sorry sir." The waiter said very seriously: "Our brilliant club membership card can only be downward compatible, never upward compatible, that is to say, if your premium membership card can only reach seven floors, then you can only Consumption within the first to seventh floors, you must not go to the eighth floor. This is a rigid rule of our club!"

Jones Jian frowned and said arrogantly: "Then I don't care, you have to move me out of the seventh floor for whatever you say, or give me a solution on the eighth floor!"

The waiter looked embarrassed and said: "Sir, the eighth floor can only be enjoyed by VIP and senior VIP members. Your level is not enough, and we have clear regulations here that no one can overstep the level to book a private room..."

"Regulations, rules your uncle! I now want a seven-story private room, you won't solve it for me? Is it God's rule that you don't have customers here?"

The waiter apologized and said: "Sir, this is really no way, unless you can find a friend with a higher-level membership card and ask him to help you book a box on the high floor."

"Right." The waiter said politely: "Because most of our members here are ordinary members and senior members, there is a shortage of boxes below the seventh floor, but there are vacant boxes on the eighth to fourteenth floors. If you can find a VIP member, you can set it up to the tenth floor. If it is a premium VIP, you can set it up to the fourteenth floor."

Jones Jian gritted his teeth and sneered: "Okay, you want me to find friends, right? Okay, to tell you the truth, I am very familiar with Mr. Orvel, but he is a VIP member who can go to the tenth floor. I can give Orvel make a phone call and asked him to open a box for me, but you have to think about it in advance and offend Orvel's fate!"

Charlie couldn't see from the side.

The little girl is the staff here. They do everything according to the rules of the club. Why is he threatening to do? He also threatened to let Orvel come forward. Isn't this just a fake tiger?

So Charlie walked up and said to him, "Mr. Jones, don't embarrass a little girl here. The third floor is not bad. Even the first floor is already very luxurious. There is no need to have the seventh floor or the seventh floor or above?"

Jones Jianbai glanced at him and said disdainfully: "For you, sitting in the lobby of the glorious club and drinking a glass of boiled water is already the greatest enjoyment, but for someone with an identity like me. Saying that going to any of the boxes below the seventh floor for consumption would insult me."

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said, "It's okay, don't care about it, anyway, this is the last time you have come to the brilliant club. You can almost get it. What kind of bicycle do you want?"

Jones Jian frowned and asked, "What do you mean?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Did you forget what I told you? You will carry cement on the construction site for 20 years. This is the last time you have come to the Glory Club. It would be nice to be able to consume it on the third floor today. You never have this chance in your life."

Jones Jian was furious and cursed, "Charlie, right? I'm so f*cking showing your face. If it wasn't for my father-in-law and your father-in-law to be classmates, you still be able to come to the brilliant club? Just like you, Without me carrying it, you don't even want to come in, you still have it installed with me now, right?"

Charlie smiled faintly and said, "Well, let me give you five minutes. If you don't make a decision, then I will make the decision for you."

Jones Jian sneered: "You make the decision for me? What are you? Today I will let you know what is the upper class!"

After all, he immediately took out his cell phone and made a call.

As soon as the call was made, Jones Jianqi changed into a flattering look and tone, and said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. Orvel, this is Jones Jian, I want to ask you for a favor..."

Chapter 573

Orvel was in Classic Mansion at this time.

Tonight, Regnar of the first family in the south of the Yangtze River has booked a diamond box in Classic Mansion to prepare a banquet for some family heads in Aurous Hill.

Orvel knew that the Wu family was even more powerful than the Song family, so he didn't dare to neglect, and personally supervised the chef preparing dishes in Classic Mansion.

While arranging food preparations, he received a call from Jones Jian, so he asked impatiently: "What's the matter, hurry up, I'm busy here."

In the eyes of Orvel, Jones Jian is just a dog. He has many such dogs, so he doesn't look down upon Jones Jian.

Jones Jian also knew that he couldn't afford the Mr. Orvel, so he said very humbly: "master Orvel, I'm in the brilliant club now. I want to ask you to help me with something."

Orvel asked, "What's the matter?"

Jones Jian said hurriedly: "I brought my Old Master to Brilliant Club, but the box on the seventh floor is full. My membership card is a premium membership card that you helped me get. I can't go to higher floors. Please help me to book an eight-story box, after all, you are a VIP member here, more honorable than me!"

Orvel said faintly: "It's another day, I have something to do in the hotel today, and I can't get out of it."

Jones Jian hurriedly pleaded: "Great Mr. Orvel, your Classic Mansion is not far from the brilliant club. It is estimated that you can get here in five minutes by car. Can you please come here with great effort? My father-in-law and his more than 20 classmates are Waiting here..."

As he said, Jones Jian pleaded again: "Great Mr. Orvel, please condescend to come over, otherwise I really won't be able to come to the stage today..."

Originally, Orvel didn't want to help Jones Jian book a box, but when he thought that Jones Jian was also a tool to help him wash his gambling money, sometimes he would also give him a little warmth, make him grateful.

In addition, Classic Mansion is indeed not far from the brilliant clubhouse, and it takes only ten minutes to come, so he agreed to come down and said: "Okay, then I will come there."

Jones Jian was suddenly excited, and blurted out: "That's really thank you, Mr. Orvel! I'm waiting for you in the lobby on the first floor!"

Afterwards, he hung up the phone and said arrogantly to the waiter: "Have you heard? Orvel will come over to help me open the box! You better be careful!"

The waiter was a little nervous, but still not humbled and said: "Sir, I'm sorry, we all do things in accordance with the rules of the club, even if you invite our Miss Song over, I have a clear conscience."

Jones Jian's expression was very ugly, and he blurted out: "Awesome, you, will you use Miss Song to crush me?"

The waiter said: "Don't dare, I just tell you the facts."

"Huh!" Jones Jian gave her a disgusted look, then turned around, and said to his father-in-law Panming and others: "Uncles, let's wait a moment, I invite our famous Orvel from Aurous Hill to come over. Help us open an eight-story box! The eighth floor is more luxurious than the seventh!"

The crowd was full of praise.

Many old men gave a thumbs up to Jones Jian, and they were already looking forward to the eighth floor of the brilliant club!

Charlie looked funny.

This Jones Jian, really didn't die fast enough!

Chapter 574

Call Mr. Orvel over? Isn't this looking for death by himself?

Originally wanted to make him happy and sorrowful, he first pretended to be forced in the glorious club, and then hit him to the bottom. Now it seems that this grandson himself has cut off the opportunity to pretend to be forced...

Jones Jian didn't know that he had already entered a countdown state. He was complimented by so many people. He walked up to Charlie and smiled arrogantly: "Charlie, you just offended me, so this The opportunity to go to the eighth floor of the Glory Club for the second time has nothing to do with you. You and your father-in-law can leave now."

Jacob looked ugly and said, "Hey, Jones Jian, are you not too much? Do you think I'm here to eat and drink with you? I'm here to meet with old classmates!"

Jones Jian curled his lips and said, "The party? Isn't the party at school over? It's the second one I have arranged. Do you want to follow it with a stern face?"

"Yes!" Panming snorted coldly, and said, "Jacob, weren't you arrogant before? You are the second generation of the famous rich at school. Since you are so capable, you can solve a box in the brilliant club by yourself! Coming with my son-in-law. What does it mean to drink?"

Other students didn't expect that Panming and his son-in-law would suddenly start attacking Jacob and Charlie, and saying such direct words in front of so many students felt a little wrong.

However, no one came out to speak for Jacob. After all, this was indeed the place arranged by the son-in-law of Panming. It was because of others' blessing to be able to come in. How dare to speak for Jacob at this time?

Jacob's expression was very ugly, and he blurted out, "Panming, you are too deceiving!"

"I'm bullying you?" Panming said disdainfully: "I just don't want to invite you to eat, drink and have fun, so why am I bullying you?"

Jacob said with a black face: "Okay! If that's the case, then I will pay it myself! How much money I spent today, counted out per capita, I will pay for the two shares of my son-in-law and me!"

Panming said contemptuously: "You think it's enough to just pay? This membership has a threshold too! If it weren't for my son-in-law's light, how could you get in? You can't even get in, you No one pays any money, okay!"

Jacob gritted his teeth and said, "Panming, you are too much!"

Panming nodded and said arrogantly: "I am too much, I did it deliberately, what's wrong? Who made you always chase me when you were in school? Who told you to be inferior to me now?"

As he said, Panming said again: "Look at you. You are in your fifties. You still have such a rag, no job, no social security. In the future, you will not even be able to get your pension. I think in a few more years, It is very possible to be reduced to a street beggar, and then our classmates will have to crowdfund to help you!"

Jacob trembled with anger, and said to Charlie, "If you don't have the same knowledge as this sl*t, let's go!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Dad, what's the hurry? The show hasn't been staged yet. It's never too late to leave after watching!"

Panming hummed: "Do you still want to watch a good show? I tell you, today it is absolutely impossible for the two of you to follow us on the eighth floor! If you know, please leave quickly, don't wait for the security to catch you!"

Charlie smiled and said: "The good show I'm talking about is not a part of the eighth floor. The good show I'm talking about is a classic ethical drama in which the son-in-law beats the Old Master. It is expected to be staged in two or three minutes!"

Panming was stunned, and then he pointed at Jacob and laughed: "Heard that Jacob? Even your Rubbish son-in-law can't look down on you anymore. He wants to beat you! Haha, I don't know how many old bones you can hold. Round beating, hahahaha!"

Jacob was also taken aback, looked at Charlie and asked, "Charlie, what do you mean?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't get me wrong, dad. The ethical drama I'm talking about is Jones Jian beating Panming. I suggest you prepare your mobile phone and shoot the video and post it on YouTube. There will be a lot of clicks!"

Chapter 575

When Panming heard this, he immediately became furious.

He looked at Charlie contemptuously, and said, "You are so funny. It is too late for my son-in-law to be filial to me. How could he hit me?"

After finishing talking, he pointed at Jones Jian again, and said proudly: "Tell you, my son-in-law, how many times stronger than your Rubbish! Do you know how filial my son-in-law is to me? Month just gave me pocket money, it is full 100,000! It's not that I look down on you, can you make 100,000 a year?"

Jones Jian also sneered: "Charlie, you are really self-defeating. Orvel will be here soon. If you don't go away, believe it or not I will let Orvel tear your mouth?"

"Are you going to make Mr. Orvel tear my mouth?!" Charlie looked at Jones Jian with a look of disbelief.

Jones Jian sneered and mocked: "Why? Don't you believe it? Do you know what I am related to Mr. Orvel?"

Charlie shook his head and asked curiously: "Then, what is your relationship with Mr. Orvel?"

"I'm a good brother of the master Orvel!" After Jones Jian finished speaking, he asked sharply: "You can call Mr. Orvel too? Want to be called Mr. Orvel!"

Charlie smiled and said: "When Mr. Orvel comes, you can ask him yourself, he calls him Mr. Orvel a brother, will he dare to agree?"

Jones Jian looked at Charlie in surprise, and then sneered: "You dare to be disrespectful to the master Orvel! You are done! When the Mr. Orvel comes, I will let him tear your mouth!"

While talking, Jones Jian saw Orvel stepping in at a glance.

The two younger brothers followed Orvel, walking with wind and strong momentum.

Jones Jian hurriedly waved to Mr. Orvel, and said excitedly: "Great Mr. Orvel I am here!"

After speaking, he sneered and said to Charlie: "Charlie, the master Orvel is here, you are dead!"

Because Charlie was facing the gate, Orvel didn't see him when he walked over, and Charlie did not look back.

When the Orvel came to the front, Jones Jian hurriedly said, "master Orvel, there is a stupid bird here who is disrespectful to you. He directly calls you Orvel!"

Orvel frowned and was about to behave in a prestige. Turning his head, he suddenly saw Charlie looking at him grimly. He was frightened and asked with a trembling voice, "Wade...Mr. Wade, Why are you here..."

Everyone on the scene was frightened when he said this.

what's the situation?

The fiercely famous Orvel is actually so respectful as Mr. Wade?

Charlie is so young, what kind of master can he be?

At this moment, Charlie looked at Mr. Orvel coldly, and asked sharply, "Mr. Orvel, is this your good brother? So majestic. Not only does he keep talking with me, he also says that you will tear me up. Tear my mouth!"

Orvel was shaking all over!

Who is Mr. Wade? Mr. Wade is more important than his own father! How could he get Mr. Wade's magical medicine if it weren't for Mr. Wade's appreciation?

Moreover, he licked Issac to death, and Issac ignored him. Now that he hugged Mr. Wade's thigh, Issac also began to deliberately support him. This is simply the rhythm to make himself take off!

Therefore, Mr. Wade is simply his second parent.

This Jones Jian is just his own dog! He even dared to bite his reborn parents. What the h*ll is this not looking for death?

So he turned his head, glared at Jones Jian, and asked in an extremely cold tone: "You dare to offend Mr. Wade?"

Jones Jian was shocked.

Chapter 576

They don't know exactly what the situation is now.

Why is Orvel giving Charlie face so much? Isn't he the son-in-law of his father-in-law's old classmate's home?

Father-in-law's old classmate is pauper, who serves as the son-in-law of pauper, which is simply the big golden rag pauper!

Why does Orvel attach so much importance to a big worthless rag? !

Just when he hadn't figured out the reason, Orvel had already slapped him severely!

"Snapped!"

Jones Jian's brain was dizzy, and his cheeks immediately swelled up.

"Great Mr. Orvel, why..."

Jones Jian shuddered in shock, and blurted out: "Great Mr. Orvel did I do something wrong?"

Orvel gritted his teeth and cursed: "You are just a dog. You dare to offend Mr. Wade. You are tired of living, right? Okay! I will drag you to my kennel today and chop up to feed the dogs!"

Jones Jian suddenly felt his brain explode, and he was paralyzed on the ground with fright.

As Orvel's dog leg, he naturally knew who Orvel was. There were already countless people who died at the hands of Orvel, and many of them were buried in the belly of those fighting dogs raised by Orvel!

After that, he knelt on the ground and said while kowtow: "Great Mr. Orvel, please forgive me, Great lord! I didn't mean it, I didn't know he was your friend..."

"Friend?" Orvel kicked his chest and said sharply: "Mr. Wade is the bright moon in my heart. I only have to look up. How can I be a friend of Mr. Wade!"

Orvel's words came from the bottom of his heart, and the others were even more shocked when they heard it. Where did Charlie come from? Can Orvel be respectful to this point?

Panming, who was next to him, was also trembling with fright. Seeing his son-in-law being beaten by Orvel, although he was distressed, he was more afraid!

At this time, Orvel said to the younger brother beside him: "Come on, get me this dog thing to the kennel!"

The two bodyguards immediately stepped forward to drag Jones Jian away.

Jones Jian was frightened and cried, turning to look at Charlie, kowtowing and crying: "Charlie, I blame myself for not knowing Your excellency. Since our old man is a classmate for many years, you just Let Mr. Orvel spare me once!"

Charlie smiled and said, "What's the matter? Now you know to ask for help? Didn't you just chase me away?"

While wiping his tears, Jones Jian choked up and said, "Mr. Charlie, I was really wrong. I am willing to be a cow and a horse for you, but forgive me this time!"

Speaking of this, Jones Jian said with a pale face: "Mr. Charlie, as long as you forgive me this time, I am willing to give you all the assets under my name!"

When Panming heard this, he blurted out subconsciously: "Jones Jian, are you crazy? There is still a lot of money in your assets that I gave you! And half of them belong to my daughter!"

"You don't die, shut up!"

Jones Jian's eyes were about to split, and he observed at Panming with gnashing teeth, and cursed: "The old immortal dog, are you f*cking blind? Can't see that my life is almost gone?!"

Panming didn't expect Jones Jian to scold him, and suddenly said angrily: "You...how do you talk to me?! Don't forget, I'm your father-in-law!"

"f*ck you off!" Jones Jian said bitterly: "If you hadn't asked me to help your old immortal pretender, how could I offend Mr. Charlie!"

After all, Jones Jian hurriedly looked at Charlie and complained with tears: "Mr. Wade, this is the old immortal. He has been telling me since yesterday that I must help him ridicule you and your father-in-law, and I will be blind. I offended you, so he is the culprit! It is him who should be chop up as the dog feeder!"

"you you....."

Panming was so angry that Jones Jian's fierce face made his chest rise and fall violently!

He never dreamed that the son-in-law that he had always admired and liked would suddenly become a vicious jackal! he wants to kill him now!

He tremblingly scolded: "Jones Jian, I am really blind, and I marry my daughter to you ungrateful thing!"

How can Jones Jian care that Panming is his father-in-law?

He is only afraid that Charlie and Orvel will really kill him! Then he really lost a lot!

If someone is really going to die today, it would rather be his father-in-law than himself!

Moreover, today's matter itself was caused by the Old Master. If he hadn't been asking him to trouble Jacob and his son-in-law Charlie, how could he have this end? !

So, he pointed at Panming and cursed: "Panming, you old dog! Today I offend Mr. Charlie and Orvel, completely because of your old dog's instruction! So it is fair for you to die. Why? Let me die for you?!"

"You bullsh*t!" Panming waved his hand hurriedly and said to Charlie: "Oh, Master Wade, don't believe this b@stard's nonsense. I didn't instruct him to target you and your father-in-law. It was his own opinion to find you. Don't let him fool you!"

Jones Jian cried and said, "Mr. Charlie, you must keep your eyes open! Think about it, I have no grievances and no grudges against you, why should I come to mock you for nothing? It's not like Panming, he has been jealous of your father-in-law who had soaked in his beloved woman. He couldn't let it go for so many years, so he was always thinking about revenge and hatred, so he asked me to help against you and your father-in-law. Now he is shamelessly trying to get rid of the relationship. You must not let it go. Pass him!"

Charlie nodded and said lightly: "Don't worry, the fate of this old dog will be miserable. The crime of taking advantage of his position and being greedy for so much money is enough for him to die in prison, I believe. He will be arrested if he does not leave tonight!"

When Panming heard these words, his heart shook, his legs softened, and he knelt on the ground with a thump, begging for mercy: "Master Wade, Master Wade, don't toss uncle. Uncle, this old bone wouldn't survive for many years. Can't I kneel down?"

Charlie ignored him, looked at Jones Jian, and asked faintly: "Do you want me to spare your life?"

Jones Jian hurriedly nodded his head like pounding garlic and blurted out: "I beg you, Mr. Charlie, to show mercy..."

Charlie said, "It's okay to spare your life, but as I said just now, we need to see an ethical drama where the son-in-law beats the Old Master, so you should know what to do?"

How could Jones Jian not understand Charlie's words.

At this time, he had long hated Panming, who was throwing the pot to him, so he didn't care that he was his father-in-law. He broke free of Orvel's bodyguard, rushed in front of Panming, and hit him in the face with a punch.

After all, Panming was too old. He slammed this fist and fell to the ground with an ouch.

On the one hand, Jones Jian had hatred in his heart, and on the other hand, he hoped that he could behave better, so that Charlie would reduce his anger a little bit, so there was no softness in his hands!

Not only did he have no mercy, but he also beat Panming to death.

Panming has a handful of old bones, which is Jones Jian's opponent. Jones Jian rides on him, presses on his head, and beats his old face like crazy, so painful that he just exchanges, no, no Stop begging for mercy.

But at this time, he begged Jones Jian for mercy, how would Jones Jian care about him?

So Jones Jian cursed: "You old dog, you have more to die, I f*cking beat you to death!"

Chapter 578

At the same time, he kept hitting his hands, knocking Panming unconscious, then waking up with two slaps and then hitting...

Panming's old classmates looked at each other dumbfounded, and no one dared to come up and stop, while Jacob was so excited that he could get revenge, making him excited!

Seeing that Panming was almost about to be beaten to death by Jones Jian, Charlie stopped and said: "If you do, don't beat people to death. I want him to spend the rest of his life in prison!"

Jones Jian hurriedly stopped. When he got up from Panming, he still did not forget to spit at him and cursed in disgust: "Old dog, you still want to harm me? If it wasn't for Mr. Charlie's kind heart, I would have to kill you today!"

After speaking, he knelt on the ground in a hurry, crawling on his knees all the way to Charlie, begging: "Mr. Charlie, are you satisfied with my performance just now? Can you spare my life? Please... .."

Charlie nodded and said, "It's okay to spare your life, but the death penalty can be avoided, and the living sin is hard to forgive!"

Jones Jian hurriedly asked: "Mr. Charlie, how can you forgive me?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Do you remember what I told you before? Let you be prepared to go to the construction site to carry cement for 20 years?"

Jones Jian collapsed suddenly, crying and said, "Mr. Charlie, I don't want to go to the construction site. I beg you to let me listen to you. Just forgive me this time. From now on I will be your dog. I will do what you ask me!"

Charlie nodded and said with a playful smile: "Okay."

Jones Jian excitedly said: "Thank you Mr. Charlie, thank you Mr. Charlie!"

Charlie smiled and said, "I haven't finished yet, don't thank me in such a hurry."

After speaking, he smiled and asked: "Aren't you going to be my son? You can do whatever I ask you to do? Then I will let you go to the construction site to carry cement. When will you carry it for 20 years? You are free!"

"Huh?!" Jones Jian almost collapsed...

At this time, Charlie said to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, find a construction site, tie him a dog chain, let him carry cement on the construction site every day, when will he carry it for 20 years, and then will he leave. If he dares to run away, just kill the dog and feed him to the dogs!"

Orvel immediately nodded and said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I have several construction sites in Aurous Hill, and I will definitely find him the most painful and tiring one."

"Good." Charlie said with satisfaction: "Let him work and reflect on it."

Jones Jian cried and said, "Mr. Charlie, twenty years are too long, please raise your hand and shorten it a bit, otherwise, my whole life will be over..."

Charlie said coldly: "Don't bargain with me. There were a father and son before, because they pretended to be too much. Now they have gone to Changbai Mountain to dig ginseng, and they must not leave Changbai Mountain for the rest of their lives. If you continue to bargain with me, I will Arrange for someone to take you there!"

Orvel also said coldly at this time: "Jones Jian, I persuade you to accept your fate. The two men who went to Changbai Mountain last time were driven by my younger brother. They drove for three days and three nights before reaching the foot of Changbai Mountain!"

"Moreover, it has just entered winter, and it's already freezing. It's over 20 degrees below zero outside, and seven or eight degrees below zero in the house. The two of you will freeze to death. Even the firewood on the kang must be brought from the mountain!"

"It is said that in seven to nine days, it will be more than minus 40 degrees outside, and you can directly freeze the pee into ice skewers. If you want to try, I will arrange it for you now!"

Jones Jianyi heard that he was scheduled to go to Changbai Mountain to dig ginseng for a lifetime. He was so frightened that he hurriedly cried and said, "Don't, Mr. Orvel, I accept my fate, I accept my fate! I'm going to the construction site to carry cement, not Changbai Mountain to dig ginseng!"

Chapter 579

Jones Jian has completely accepted his fate.

Compared to digging ginseng in the snow of Changbai Mountain for a lifetime, being able to carry cement at the construction site in Aurous Hill is already extremely easy.

At least, he can still live in the city, go home, and have a basic amateur life.

When he arrives at Changbai Mountain, it will completely be over for a lifetime.

Seeing that he had accepted his fate, Orvel snorted and said, "You are already lucky, otherwise, I will take you directly to my kennel to feed the dogs today!"

Jones Jian hurriedly nodded and said with gratitude: "Thank you Mr. Charlie for raising your hand... Thank you Mr. Orvel..."

Mr. Orvel directly opposed the people under him and said: "Go, take him to the construction site in Jintan County, let him eat and live with the workers on the construction site, and take two days off each month!"

"Yes, Mr. Orvel!" Mr. Orvel's two men immediately dragged Jones Jian out.

Orvel pointed at Panming, who was dying on the ground, and asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade, what about this old immortal?"

Charlie said lightly: "The police will come and arrest him soon."

As soon as the voice fell, a team of police rushed in and asked loudly, "Who is Panming?!"

Jacob hurriedly pointed to Panming who was lying on the ground, and said, "Comrade police, he is."

The police came to the front, compared the photos with them, and blurted out: "It's him, take him away!"

The man next to him asked, "Captain, this person has been injured and unconscious, what should we do?"

"Send to the hospital first." The team leader said: "After the first aid, he will be detained!"

Zhouqi, one of his old classmates, hurriedly asked: "Comrade police, what crime did Panming commit?"

The police rightfully said: "Panming is suspected of occupational occupation and illegal profits totaling more than 50 million!"

The crowd was in an uproar.

No one thought that Panming, as the leader of a petrochemical company, would have already received very high salaries, and he even used the convenience of his position to earn money for himself!

Panming, who was unconscious, was taken away by the police, and the old classmates sighed with emotion.

However, everyone looked at Charlie's eyes with unprecedented awe.

After all, Charlie put Panming and Jones Jian so miserable, his ability has exceeded everyone's understanding.

Jacob also felt that his face was too dignified. So many classmates came to compliment him, and he felt very refreshed.

However, some people sighed and said, "Oh, Jones Jian is gone. I'm afraid we won't have the finale in this second game. Why don't you just leave it?"

A bunch of people are a little lost.

Everyone wanted to come to see the glorious clubhouse, but they didn't expect it, they just entered the lobby of the glorious clubhouse, and didn't know what was inside.

At this time, Charlie said to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, how many floors can your card reach?"

"Ten floors." Orvel said hurriedly.

Charlie said: "You help me open a ten-story big box, let the old men have fun."

Orvel asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, don't you have a supreme..."

Charlie waved his hand, motioning for him to silence.

Chapter 580

In the entire glorious club, only issued a supreme card to him. Not only can he go to the highest 15th floor at any time, but all expenses are free.

He didn't want to let Jacob know that he had such a card.

Otherwise, with his temper, he would definitely pester him every day to bring him over, and he would even find a way to ask for his own card and bring his friends over to brag.

Therefore, it is better not to let them know.

Orvel immediately understood what Charlie meant, and quickly took out his membership card, handed it to the waiter, and said: "Prepare a large private room for me on the tenth floor. All the expenses will be paid by me."

The waiter respectfully accepted the membership card, and then smiled and said: "The 1008 on the 10th floor has been opened for you. You can pass by at any time. It has a large area and can accommodate 30 people."

Orvel nodded, and then respectfully said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, you can move up with the old men."

Charlie said to everyone: "Uncles, my friend has already booked a ten-story 1008 box for us. He has covered all the expenses today. Please follow the waiter now!"

Everyone did not expect that there would be another beacon of hope, and suddenly cheered.

Many people originally thought that they would be able to go up to the seventh floor of the Brilliant Club at most, but they did not expect to reach the tenth floor this time.

Jacob was also very happy, and said with a smile: "My son-in-law has the ability! Unlike Jones Jian, he knows how to put cowhide on his lips."

Everyone couldn't help but praise and compliment: "Oh, Charlie, you are really hidden gem! Jacob is really blessed to find such a son-in-law!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "You guys praise me too much. Actually, I don't have any abilities. I just know a few friends. Please hurry up and have fun!"

Jacob asked him: "Charlie, are you not coming up?"

Charlie said, "I'll talk to Mr. Orvel for a few words before going up. Dad, go up with your uncles first."

"Good." Jacob nodded, thanked Mr. Orvel, and then went upstairs with his old classmates.

Everyone went upstairs, Charlie asked Mr. Orvel: "How did you handle Ichiro's matter last time?"

Mr. Orvel hurriedly said: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I found the best computer special effects artist, and I also hired a prop artist from the film academy to make a fake video of the death of Ichiro, and sent it to Jiro. He has completely believed it now."

"Okay." Charlie smiled slightly, and said: "Raise Ichiro well and send him back to Japan to fight for the property, but he has to sign an agreement with me in advance. After the property is regained, he will pay 80%. ."

Mr. Orvel nodded repeatedly and said, "Okay Mr. Wade, I know, I will tell him clearly when I go back."

Charlie snorted and said, "You are doing well. Go back first. I will accompany my father-in-law upstairs."

"Okay." Mr. Orvel bowed respectfully, and said, "Mr. Wade, I'll go first. If you have anything, please tell me."

Charlie was waiting for the elevator to go up to the tenth floor. When the elevator came down, the door suddenly opened. What he didn't expect was that Warnia, who was very beautifully dressed, walked out of it.

Warnia is dressed very beautifully today, and her already beautiful and flawless face is slightly more delicate and charming.

She was wearing a black Chanel one-piece butt0ck skirt, which perfectly set off her slender and plump figure, as well as those white and tender legs that could not pick out any problems.

Coupled with her long hair carefully coiled behind her head, she looked very mature and perfect.

What surprised Charlie even more was that she exuded a very charming and very advanced scent, and the scent penetrated into the nostrils, making people feel that the pores all over her body were relaxed.

Seeing such amazing Warnia, Charlie was a little surprised, and Warnia was even more delighted!

Her heart was thinking about Charlie, but she didn't expect Charlie to be outside when the elevator door opened!

She hurriedly couldn't hide her happiness. Like a little girl of first love, she asked softly: "Mr. Wade, why are you here? Didn't let me know if you are here, so I could come and entertain you myself!"

Chapter 581

Charlie looked at Warnia and smiled slightly: "I just came with father-in-law to attend a classmate gathering. There is nothing to trouble you, so I didn't tell you."

Warnia hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, your father-in-law is here for a class reunion. You should have told me earlier. I would prepare it carefully so as not to leave any flaw him."

Charlie smiled and said: "There is no need to go into such a big trouble. It is a group of old men who come out to entertain and have some fun. It is too grand, I am afraid they will not adapt."

Charlie said again: "Besides, I never told my father-in-law that I have a good relationship with you. If you, the Song family eldest, come out to entertain him in person, I am afraid that he will be confused."

Warnia nodded hurriedly and said, "By the way, Mr. Wade, my grandfather will have a birthday banquet tomorrow at noon. Originally, I wanted to send you an invitation letter tonight. I happened to see you and I ask you for tomorrow. No time to participate? He has been talking about you for a long time and always wants you to visit him at home."

Charlie thought for a while, then nodded and said: "Tomorrow is no problem, I will come by then."

To Charlie, although the Song family is not a big family, it is also the largest family in Aurous Hill after all. Having a good relationship with them can save a lot of trouble.

What's more, he has a good impression of Warnia, and thinks this woman is very smart and promising, so he also appreciates this a little bit more.

Seeing Charlie's promise, Warnia hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, shall I pick you up tomorrow morning?"

Charlie declined: "No, Mr. Song's birthday banquet. You must have lot of work to do tomorrow. I can just come by myself when the time comes."

Warnia nodded, smiled sweetly, and said, "That's okay, Mr. Wade, you will come to me directly when you arrive tomorrow."

"It is Okay."

Warnia looked at the time and said apologetically: "Mr. Wade, then I won't bother you now. I just have to go back and prepare for the birthday banquet."

"Go." Charlie nodded, and after watching Warnia leave, he took the elevator to the tenth floor.

Ten floors, 1008 box.

The elders were surprised at the incomparable luxury here, and everyone held their mobile phones and snapped.

Even an underground emperor like Orvel can only reach the tenth floor at the highest level in the Brilliant Club. It can be seen that the people who can reach this floor are already very impressive.

Jacob, and his old classmates, naturally did not have this ability and status, so this time was an eye-opener.

Everyone was complimenting Charlie at this time, and someone said, "It's really covered by son-in-law Jacob, this kind of place is just as magnificent as a palace."

"Yes! I have lived for more than 50 years in this life, and I have never been to such a luxurious place. Jacob's son-in-law is really amazing."

Everyone kept flattering, making Jacob proud.

At the beginning, he was always targeted and ridiculed, but he did not expect that now he suddenly became the most watched and complimented one among his classmates, which gave his self-esteem a huge satisfaction.

.....

While Jacob and his classmates were enjoying the ultimate luxury on the tenth floor of the Brilliant Clubhouse, on the other side, Elaine and Horiyah had already come to the Tomson Villa area, and sat down with the rich woman Horiyah introduced for playing mahjong.

Sitting on the east side of the mahjong table, a middle-aged woman dressed up as Mrs. Kuo, while preparing an electric mahjong machine, smiled and asked Horiyah: "Horiyah, who is this sister?"

Chapter 582

Horiyah said: "Sister Lian, let me introduce to you. This is a poker friend I told you before. Her name is Elaine. Like you, she also likes playing mahjong and she has very good skills in cards. She has always been willing to bet and lose."

Elaine hurriedly said to this woman at this time: "Hello, sister Lian!"

Sister Lian nodded lightly and smiled: "It just so happens that I have been missing a permanent long-term poker friend. If you are interested, you can often come and play with me and with Horiyah in the future."

Elaine hurriedly said: "Oh, that's really great. To tell you the truth, I have a regular poker friend but she is going to the United States, I can't find a regular poker player to play cards!"

Sister Lian stretched out her hand and said to Elaine politely: "Hello Elaine, my name is Lian, welcome!"

Elaine shook hands with her quickly.

Lian said again: "Oh, you see, my villa is basically idle after it's installed, so I just used it as a venue for my sisters to play mahjong."

Elaine was envious, such a big villa, used to play mahjong, is really more luxurious than Shehlain's.

Immediately, she looked around the Tomson First-Class villa.

The decoration of this villa can be considered very luxurious, but it is not as big as the one Solmon White gave to Charlie.

The villa Solmon White gave to Charlie was the largest unit in the entire Tomson, and the Lian's set was the smallest in the Tomson villa.

But even the smallest units are already very large for most people.

So she asked Lian, "Sister Lian, how much did you spend on buying this villa?"

Lian was stunned, and then hurriedly said: "Hey, it didn't cost much, the total was about 80 million."

In fact, this villa is not Lian's at all, but a film and television company's property.

After the film and television company bought the villa, it renovated it and built it into an indoor shooting location. Some time ago, a TV series called New Love Apartment was completed here, but the TV series is still in post-production.

After the TV series was completed, the villa was just vacant. The next TV series will not start filming until one month, so it is temporarily rented out to recover the cost.

In order to set up a set for Elaine, Horiyah rented this villa for a price of 5,000 a day, and prepared to do a game here, to take Elaine's nothing, to report Elaine's insult on the day.

The best thing is to pit Charlie's villa over, so that he can turn himself over!

Elaine didn't know that all of this was a trap against her. She thought that she was lucky today and met a bully and could develop into a long-term cash machine.

So she looked at Lian with a flattering expression and said, "Oh, Sister Lian, let's play cards together. That's really suitable. Next month, our family will move into the Tomson Villa. My son-in-law's villa is at a05!"

Lian had long known that she had a villa in Tomson, if it weren't for this villa, she would not have come to cooperate with Horiyah and pit Elaine's savings.

This woman is in her fifties. She has been a croupier in Macau casinos for 30 years. She is definitely one of the best in the wave of poker, whether it's mahjong, Pai Gow, or Sieve. All, she can played superbly.

This time, Horiyah promised her that Horiyah would find the wrongdoer and kill the game. She would provide technical support, and the benefits would be divided between equally.

Therefore, Elaine thought that Lian was the cash machine, and Lian regarded her as a big fat pig, and was about to split her in half and split her into half with Horiyah!

Chapter 583

Everyone has their own ghosts, and can't wait to start this killing pan.

So Lian clapped her hands, greeted another woman, and said with a smile: "Come on, this is Nivia, who is also my old friend, but she is not very good at the game. Let's just start with the four of us! "

Elaine also said excitedly: "Okay, get started! To be honest, my hands are itchy!"

Lian smiled slightly and suggested, "Today is the first time I play mahjong with Elaine sister. Let's not play too much. Let's start with a thousand and cap it 64 times."

"what?"

Elaine was shocked in her heart and blurted out: "A thousand times, 64 times the cap, if this is a capped by Lian, a hand can be more than 60,000, do they usually play such a big one?"

Lian smiled and waved her hand and said, "Sister Elaine, is this still a big one? To be honest, this is the smallest one I have played. The other day when I was fighting with others, it was 3,000 or 5,000. Up, maybe even ten thousand."

Then, she pointed to Horiyah, who was sitting next to Elaine, and said: "The last time Horiyah played 5000 games with me, I lost more than 1 million in a short time, and Horiyah won 30 by herself. More than ten thousand, right?"

Horiyah hurriedly said: "Oh, Sister Lian, you are still too rich. I can't remember how much money I lost. Last time I lost more than two million. I won more than 50. Min won!"

The woman named Nivia smiled and said, "Oh, I won a little more than a hundred that day. For Sister Lian, isn't this drizzle?"

Lian smiled and said: "To be honest, this little money is really nothing. My husband made a few hundred million easily when he was young. It is nothing for me to lose thirty to fifty million in cards."

When Elaine heard these words, her heart was so excited.

This Lian is simply a super fool!

What's more, She have Horiyah to cooperate with her, and she will definitely win a big win at that time!

Therefore, Elaine immediately dispelled the doubts and worries she had just now, and said with a smile: "If sister Lian is okay, then let's get one thousand."

Lian nodded and smiled, and said, "Then I will start playing dice!"

"Okay!" Elaine rubbed her hands, already feeling a little excited.

After Lian played the dice, she immediately began to take the lead.

Soon, the four people have set the first card straight.

Elaine dealt with the card and was very excited!

It's really luck that can't stop it!

In this hand, She really want to have anything. There are only three sides on one side and 20,000 in one hand. These two cards are placed on one card, and she can draw immediately!

So Elaine was very excited, and began to look forward to drawing a card she lacked.

After being unable to touch the cards for a few laps, she thought of her agreement with Horiyah, so she sent her a code, asking for three.

Horiyah also immediately understood her intentions, and hurriedly gave her a three-shot.

"Three!"

"Oh, I'll eat!" Elaine was very happy, took the three in front of her, and played a card with a smile: "Eight tubes!"

After speaking, Elaine triumphantly said: "I have a draw!"

Lian asked in surprise, "No, sister, did you draw so soon?"

Elaine smiled and said, "Yes, the cards are pretty smooth!"

Lian nodded and said, "Then I hope I won't fire a gun."

After finishing speaking, she stretched out her hand and threw out a twenty thousand, and said, "Twenty thousand!"

Chapter 584

When Elaine saw her throw 20,000 out, she couldn't help but immediately pushed the card and shouted: "Haha, I'm d*mn! I have 20,000!"

"Oh!" Lian deliberately said annoyedly: "Why are my hands so unwilling, why did I play this card!"

Elaine hurriedly said: "Hey, Sister Lian, we have already said yes. If this card falls, you will die. You can't go back!"

Lian said, "Don't worry, Sister Elaine, I'm not that kind of person. You fired this gun. You will definitely not be short of money."

Horiyah also helped her and said, "Yes, Elaine, for Sister Lian, playing mahjong for a thousand is all small money! It's mainly for fun."

At this time, Lian had already handed over 24,000 to Elaine and said, "You are a twenty-four fan, right? A total of twenty-four thousand. You count."

Elaine was so excited that she took the money and counted it, then excitedly put it aside and continued to play mahjong with them.

Subsequently, Elaine's card luck was surprisingly good.

Basically any hand of cards is surprisingly good.

Coupled with Horiyah's help, Elaine almost always wins.

After three rounds of cards, Elaine lost a total of two rounds. The other rounds kept winning, and three rounds of Mahjong had won more than 300,000!

She used to play mahjong, and she won at most 10,000. How could she have seen so much money, and when she counted the money, she found that she had won more than 300,000, and her excited eyes were red!

At this time, when the cards were shuffled again, Horiyah couldn't help coughing slightly when the fire was almost over.

Lian, who was sitting at the poker table, changed her face a little, and knew immediately that it was time to close the net.

Feed the pigs, it's time to kill the pigs!

Immediately afterwards, Lian yawned and said, "Oh, it's so boring to play a thousand mahjong, I'm almost falling asleep, or let's play a little bigger, it will refresh me!"

Horiyah smiled and said, "I can do it!"

After speaking, she looked at Elaine and asked with a smile, "Elaine, what do you think?"

Elaine didn't know that she had fallen into a trap at this time. She felt that she had made more than 300,000 so easily. If she played a little bigger, she would make more than three million in a while!

She, who was in the mood, had no idea what to do if she lost.

So she was very excited and said: "Okay, then let's play bigger!"

Lian nodded, stretched her waist, and said lightly: "Then you can pay 10,000! It's boring to be too small."

After that, she added: "It doesn't matter if you guys are too big. I happen to have a neighbor who likes to play smaller mahjong. I can ask her to do it for me and I will go upstairs and sleep for a while."

"Ten thousand?" Elaine was stunned. Is this a bit too big?

It might be too scary to lose five or six hundred thousand with one hand.

At this time, Horiyah always winked at her, and said with a smile: "Ten thousand is okay, Elaine, you are so lucky, if you want to really play ten thousand, you won't say making five million today!"

As soon as she heard about five million, Elaine's sanity disappeared.

If she doesn't agree, Lian will probably ask her neighbor to come and help her fight, so how can she find a bully and make herself a few million?

So she nodded excitedly and said: "Okay! Then pay 10,000!"

"Ok!" Lian smiled slightly and said: "Come on, let's start! The money is too big, let's use mobile banking to transfer money, it is convenient."

The other three also agreed and said: "Okay, I'll pay 10,000!"

Chapter 585

After reaching a consensus, everyone began to draw cards again.

After Elaine drew all the cards, she flipped the cards she was holding up, and straightened out the cards, and suddenly screamed in excitement!

Her card turned out to be the best!

The so-called "Tian Ting" means that the cards have been drawn as soon as they are drawn!

What a lot of luck it takes to have such a good hand!

Moreover, the cards she won are very good. She has a pair of seven to eighty thousand, winning sixty thousand and ninety thousand.

Generally speaking, as long as ten thousand or ninety thousand are in the hands of others, if they don't hold right or go smoothly, they will definitely be played. That is to say, from now on, as long as someone beats one ninety thousand, you will be fooled!

Moreover, such a day draw can get the highest multiple by calling it directly!

Thinking of this, she was excited to buckle all the cards, and said excitedly: "I have a draw!"

Lian was surprised and said, "Sister Elaine, so amazing, you listened to it as soon as you came up?"

"Yes!" Elaine said with an unbearable smile: "I don't know what's wrong, I feel very lucky today!"

Lian nodded and said, "It seems that you are destined to win today."

After finishing talking, Lian, who was sitting on the bank, straightened out the cards and flipped up the four cards and said, "Concealed!"

Elaine was surprised and said, "Oh, sister Lian has a concealed bar when she starts the card. It's amazing!"

Lian smiled and said, "You didn't look at my other cards, it's so bad to die!"

Elaine reminded: "By the way, Sister Lian, if you draw, the concealed bar must be revealed!"

"Of course!" Lian nodded and said with a smile: "The draw will definitely show up for you, don't worry!"

Because Elaine has already called a draw, she can't switch to right now, and hit whatever she draws until she draws or someone fires a cannon.

But she didn't know, at this time, Lian's hidden card was 90,000!

There are four and sixty thousand, Horiyah and Nivia each have two.

Just as Elaine was anxiously catching and playing, Lian suddenly smiled and said, "Oh, I'm also drawing!"

After speaking, she turned over the four cards of her hidden one.

Elaine looked at these four cards and suddenly felt dizzy.

What a bad luck!

Lian actually concealed 90 thousand! No wonder she couldn't catch 90,000 in this long time, and no one shot 90,000!

Depressed, Elaine couldn't help but think to himself, although 90,000 are gone, but 60,000 hasn't come out yet, which means she still has a chance!

She wanted to send Horiyah a secret signal and ask her to give herself a 60,000.

However, if you think about it carefully, everyone's mahjong game is to win three by oneself and one by one. If you let Horiyah play a 60,000 shot, then Horiyah will not be able to give money. Isn't it a waste of money? Such a good hand?

So she decided to rely on herself or someone else to fire the gun instead of Horiyah.

If Horiyah fired a shot of 60,000 by herself, she would be embarrassed. Horiyah must give the money to her!

When it was Elaine's turn to draw the card, she felt like a million as soon as she started to touch it. She was suddenly excited, and when she lifted it up, she was suddenly disappointed.

It turned out to be 80,000.

Bad luck!

If she was a little bit smaller, just let grab grab 60,000, and you would feel it yourself!

In that case, a family of 640,000, that is nearly 2 million!

But Elaine was also comforting herself in her heart, 80,000 have come, will 60,000 be far away?

So, she beat out 80,000 casually, and said: "80,000!"

Chapter 586

"Huh!" Lian knocked down the card all at once, and said excitedly: "I heard five to eighty thousand, all of them, the door is clear, and there is a concealed card. The total is forty-eight, and forty-eight is 480,000. Sister Elaine, I'm sorry!"

Elaine is like an ice cellar!

A single shot can cost 480,000? !

I only won more than 300,000 in a long time, but I paid it all back, not to mention, I got another 100,000...

This is a hundred thousand!

Elaine felt extremely uncomfortable, and her whole mentality was a little broken.

Horiyah hurriedly persuaded her: "Oh, Elaine, there is no way to win all the time in card games. You have won so many hands. It doesn't matter if you lose, you are back again after winning!"

Lian also smiled and said, "Yes, it's just a handful of cards. We have to play a few laps today!"

Elaine is a little more comfortable now, but she is also suffocating in her heart, and must win back the lost money!

Immediately, she used mobile banking to give Lian 480,000, and the game continued.

However, in the next hand, Elaine collapsed even more.

Turned it over and saw what kind of broken cards are these!

Either one is missing or nine is broken, and there is also one missing. There is not even a pair of bobbins and slivers in one hand!

If you want to draw such a card, you have to play at least seven or eight cards to be possible...

She is going to collapse!

How to fight this? !

It's estimated that everyone is playing cards, and she hasn't made up two decks of cards yet!

And the other three people on the table were all excited, as if the cards were all good.

Horiyah was the first to draw.

Then Lian and Nivia.

Seeing that the three of them had all drawn, Elaine anxiously scratched her heart, fearing a shot, and secondly fearing that some of the three would touch themselves.

Seeing that his card is getting hopeless, Elaine is even more anxious.

At this time, she reached out and touched one, feeling that this card was 80% safe, so she threw the card out and said, "This! You shouldn't even want this card, right?"

Nivia next to her said excitedly: "Haha, I'm going crazy! she is right!"

Horiyah said with some embarrassment: "Hey, I'm crazy too!..."

Lian smiled and said at this time: "Oh, I'm too foolish, thirteen!"

Elaine looked at the cards of these three houses, and they all won hers!

This one hit her with one shot!

This is terrible...

With this hand alone, Elaine lost one hundred and eighty times, which is 1.8 million!

Elaine's whole person already felt the sky spinning.

what happened? Suddenly she lost two games in a row, and two games lost more than two million, which is too cruel!

Moreover, Elaine doesn't have much money now, and all the deposits in her hand add up to more than two million. After such a calculation, there is at most two to three million left...

Elaine wanted to cry without tears, but Nivia was already urging: "Sister Elaine, let's settle the bill first, so we can move on."

When she heard that she was going to check out, Elaine's expression was very ugly, one was 1.8 million, she couldn't be willing to give it!

The other three exchanged glances, or Horiyah came out to persuade her and said, "Elaine, it doesn't matter if you lose two. If you are lucky, you will win with two more. If you don't play now, you will lose. But you really can't come back!"

After that, she said again: "Last time we played cards together, Nivin also lost two or three million, and finally won two million with a four-year self-draw, followed by another three self-draw. It's another two million, and it will make a lot of money at once!"

Although Horiyah tried to stabilize Elaine's mentality, in fact Elaine's mentality at this time had collapsed!

To put it bluntly, she does have a set of mahjong, but the brand is really stinky. The biggest problem is not being able to lose, and all emotions are on her face.

For example, she would be excited for a long time if she slapped her a, but when her card happened to be stopped by someone else, she would grin and wait for her to be eaten alive.

She won three laps, and finally won more than 300,000, but she lost two big ones at once. Naturally, it was very uncomfortable. Not only did she win three hundred thousand and lost all, she also lost two hundred. In the early days, this really lost half of her life savings!

Elaine hasn't made much money in her life, and her husband has no skills, so it is very rare to save two million.

When she was buying p2p financial management, she almost lost a lot of money. Fortunately, Charlie came forward and asked for the profit.

Later, she even misrepresented her daughter's rent refund of more than 100,000, plus the little money that Jacob made by dumping antiques, and the total amount was two million.

As a result, in the two cards games, they were almost all lost...

Seeing that her face was green, Lian deliberately agitated her and said, "Sister Elaine, do you still want to play? You don't feel sorry for the money, right? Only more than two million, you can even afford Tomson's first product. The big villa, isn't this little pocket money for you?"

"Play! Why don't play!" Elaine's face twitched slightly, and said, "This little money is not a problem, mainly for fun, let's continue!"

"Just to be happy! Money doesn't count." The other two followed.

At this time, Elaine had no idea that the other three not only cooperated with each other, but also calculated her to death.

This automatic mahjong table, when shuffling the cards, you can directly shuffle the cards according to the predetermined plan.

Even throw the dice can be controlled!

In this way, Lian can distribute the cards she wants to everyone in accordance with her own requirements.

In the last hand, Elaine got the card, but the sixty thousand and ninety thousand were already divided by the other three people. Therefore, Elaine's card was already a dead end as long as the three of them didn't fire a gun. She can never win.

But Elaine doesn't know this.

After Elaine got the Tianting card, she was naturally confident. Although she didn't win in the end, she also felt that she just missed the goal.

It was this mentality that made her more impulsive to fight.

Next, Lian used her mobile phone to control the mahjong machine and gave Elaine a little water.

Elaine won two hands in a row, both hands were neat, but there is nothing to do, winning is just a sh!t.

Therefore, Elaine only won 100,000 in total with the two, which is a drop in the bucket compared to what she lost!

Elaine's mentality has become more unstable. Losing two can lose more than two million, and winning two can only win one hundred thousand. Is this too disgusting? Can't she let herself fight two big ones?

Thinking of this, she gritted her teeth, ready to smash to the end with these three people!

The game continues.

With this hand, Elaine has three east, three west, three south and two north, and the other two are two red.

Elaine was stunned when she saw this deck of cards.

Chapter 588

This deck of cards is Tianting again, winning the two.

More importantly, if you can get a north wind, it will be three in the south, east and north. This is a big four!

The big four can win the biggest number!

If you can touch a north wind, you can return two million!

Thinking of this, she shouted directly with excitement, and then began to feel the north wind.

She felt that whether it was, it might not be of much use to others, and ordinary people would definitely type it out after taking it, so even if she couldn't touch it, she could at least wait for others to fire it.

However, how did she know that this hand was already done.

The North Wind and Hongzhong that she needs are all in the hands of Nivia, that is to say, like the previous hand of the day, her hand is a dead end that can never be won!

Elaine waited hard for North Wind and Hongzhong. She waited for several rounds and didn't wait until after Lian drew a card, she knocked it down and said with a smile: "Oh, I'm drawing it myself again! This time it's in front of the gate. A total of forty-eight times, clear, all, and right!"

Nivia saw that she was touching six of them, and hurriedly said, "Oh, sister Lian, you are the last six. I have three in my hand! You are over the Moon!"

"Oh, it's really the Moon!"

Lian happily clapped her hands and said, "Then add eight times, fifty-six times for a family, or five hundred and sixty thousand."

Elaine felt dizzy!

Only two hundred thousand are left in her own bank card, and this one loses another five hundred and sixty thousand, how can she afford it!

Elaine couldn't help pulling Horiyah over, and asked in a low voice: "Sister-in-law, tell you the truth, I don't have much money, can you lend me a little?"

Horiyah cursed secretly in her heart that deserved it, but said in a pretentious manner: "Sister, I don't have this, you don't know the situation of the Willson family..."

Elaine hurriedly asked: "No, you and your eldest brother went to see the villa last time. Anyway, an old villa costs more than 10 million? Can you borrow hundreds of thousands?"

Horiyah sighed and said: "The money was all taken away by the dead Lady Willson to fill the hole in the Willson Group!"

Elaine said anxiously: "Then what should I do, I don't have enough money to give! If I can't continue to fight, what can I do to turn over!"

At this time, Lian said: "Sister Elaine, you don't have any money, are you? If you don't play, please settle this account quickly."

Elaine couldn't do it anxiously, and said with a smile: "How come I don't have money, but I didn't bring so much. Can I owe this account first? When the eight laps are finished, we will make the knot together."

She felt that she had to find a way to win the money back today. If she doesn't fight now, the more than two million will be lost forever!

She thought that Lian was so rich, and often lost millions at a time, she should not care about the money, she was very talkative, and she should be able to agree to her request.

Unexpectedly, Lian's face suddenly became cold, and she said sharply, "Sister Elaine, you can't do this! Playing mahjong is the result of every win or loss. How can there be any reason to owe it? It was given to you right away. Why do you want to go back on the bill now that you lose?"

Lian said again, "Besides, if you don't take out the money, you still have to play mahjong with us. Isn't that the empty glove white wolf? If you win, it's okay to say, if you lose, what will we do?"

Elaine's face flushed, and could not speak.

Lian looked at her and said with some contempt: "I heard Horiyah say that your card is good, so I am willing to play with you. If you are unwilling to pay to continue playing, please put these five One hundred and sixty thousand knots, this is the end of today, no more play!"

Chapter 589

Elaine has completely fallen into the pit now. She didn't realize that she was pitted. All she thought was about winning the money back.

Therefore, when Lian said that she would not play, Elaine immediately became excited, and blurted out: "How can I say that I don't want to play and stop playing? After saying that I will play eight laps, only three laps! "

Lian said helplessly: "Sister, it's not that I don't want to play with you, the point is that you have no money."

After that, Lian said again: "Let's take a step back. You settle the money first, and then we can always play a little bit smaller? I will accompany you if we play one thousand or one hundred. play!"

"One thousand? One hundred?" Elaine was anxious, and blurted out: "How can I do it! If I play such a small game, I can only win the ear of the monkey?"

Lian reluctantly said: "Then if you want to continue to play 10,000, you have to take out the money first, otherwise I won't play, and this is the end of today."

Horiyah hurriedly sang red face and said: "Sister Lian, Elaine really doesn't have so much money in her hands. We are all friends. You give accommodations..."

After speaking, she did not forget to wink at Lian.

Lian immediately understood, and said: "Well, from Horiyah's face, if you don't have cash, you can take other things of equal value as collateral."

As soon as these words came out, Elaine suddenly seemed to have grasped the last straw.

She hurriedly said: "The house I live in now is a three-bedroom house, which is worth a small two million. I will mortgage the house to you. Is this alright?"

"That's okay!" Lian said with a smile: "But you have to get the real estate certificate first, and then write me a mortgage contract."

Elaine blurted out: "Okay, you are waiting for me, I will go back to get the real estate certificate!"

After speaking, Elaine hurriedly got up and was about to leave.

Lian hurriedly stopped her and said, "Hey, don't worry, sister Elaine, you haven't given me the five hundred and sixty thousand just now."

Elaine looked at the balance of the mobile bank and found that it was only two hundred and sixty thousand, so she said: "Sister Lian, I only have two hundred and sixty thousand, I will transfer it to you, and the rest will wait until I take the room book. Deduct from the mortgaged money, this head office?"

"It's OK." Lian said, "Then you first write me an IOU for 300,000, and then you go, otherwise, if you don't return, who should I go for 300,000? Am I right?"

Elaine just wanted to take the room book and continue to fight with them until she turned over. So when she heard this, she nodded without hesitation and said, "Okay, I will pay you an IOU!"

Lian immediately brought paper and pen, Elaine wrote an IOU for 300,000 owed on it, and then pressed another fingerprint, and Lian let her go.

As soon as Elaine got out of Tomson's first product, she hurriedly drove home.

She calculated that her daughter must be busy in the company, and her husband and son-in-law must still be attending the class reunion. She hurriedly went back and took the room book before coming back. They would definitely not find it.

In this way, she can continue to fight with them until the turn over!

Soon, Elaine took the book from the house and returned to the villa.

After Lian got the house book, she immediately searched the second-hand house quotation of the same type in this community with her mobile phone, and found that the lowest quotation was only 1.8 million. The unit size is only 1.8 million, and the general bank mortgage only recognizes 90% of market value, so if she mortgage, she can only mortgage 1.62 million."

Elaine just wanted to continue playing cards quickly so that she could turn over, so she blurted out: "Then it will be mortgaged with 1.62 million. I owe 300,000, and you can just give me 1.32 million! Let's continue to fight, what do you think?"

Lian said, "That's okay, but we have to draw up a mortgage contract. If you lose or don't accept it, I will care who wants the money, right?"

Elaine said impatiently: "Then hurry up, sign early and continue early!"

Later, after she finished the contract with Lian and pressed her fingerprints, Lian transferred her 1.32 million back from the mobile bank.

But she didn't care at all, because she knew that the 1.32 million was transferred to Elaine's account and would come back soon.

Elaine secretly made up her mind at this time, this time, she must bring back all the profits!

Chapter 590

Then immediately put into the game.

But she never dreamed that she would have entered the 1.32 million in just half an hour!

Elaine had completely lost her eyes at this time. At the moment when all the money was lost, she was extremely unwilling to say: "Come, come, come again!"

Lian said: "Sister, you don't have any money anymore. Come again, if you lose again, what will you pay?"

"I....."

Elaine suddenly didn't know how to answer this question.

She is indeed exhausted.

All the savings in the family were entered, even the only house.

Now, she has nothing to mortgage.

However, with sharp eyes, Lian recognized the jade bracelet on her wrist and blurted out: "Oh, I think your bracelet is good!"

"Bracelet?" Elaine looked down at her wrist, and then remembered that she still has a valuable treasure!

This bracelet was a gift specially given by Qin Gang, the Patriarch of the Qin Family, to curry favor with her son-in-law, Charlie.

Charlie gave this bracelet to his daughter Claire. Claire stole it by her before she wore it, and later blatantly took it and refused to return it.

It was just a bracelet, Charlie didn't care, and Claire was too embarrassed to ask his mother for it, so this bracelet was always on her hand.

Elaine hurriedly took off the bracelet, handed it to Lian, and said with red eyes: "This bracelet, but the finest Laokeng jade, when I bought it for 5 million, you have to mortgage me 4 million, right?"

Lian took the bracelet, looked at it carefully, and was shocked.

This bracelet is indeed top-quality, old pit jade, and it also carries a variety of very good things, five million is not expensive.

However, she herself has been in the casino for many years, how to cheat people, how to take advantage of the fire, she is simply a connoisseur.

So she smiled, handed the bracelet back to Elaine, and said with a smile: "Sister Elaine, your bracelet is good, but to be honest, it's not worth five million, but at most hundreds of thousands."

"How is it possible!" Elaine blurted out: "This thing was bought for five million, and I have seen the receipt!"

"If you buy five million, you may not really be able to sell it for five million." Lian smiled disdainfully: "The jade business itself is extremely watery. If you are slaughtered, you will be slaughtered. You can never come again?"

After that, Lian said again: "Let's do it, for the sake of everyone's good relationship, I will mortgage you one million for this bracelet, which is the most. If you are willing, you can sign it. If you don't want it, forget it."

Elaine had long been gambling, and blurted out: "I am willing!"

Horiyah said at this time: "Oh, Elaine, or just forget it today. If you pledge one million for this bracelet, it is estimated that two or three will be gone. Why bother?"

When Lian heard this, she nodded and said, "She is right. One million is really not a big deal. Why don't we make an appointment another day?"

"No!" Elaine suddenly became anxious and blurted out: "You think I have no money, don't you? Tell you, my Lady Willson still has a villa, which is in Tomson first-grade a05, worth 130 million!"

Horiyah hurriedly said, "Oh, isn't that villa owned by Charlie? Can you use it as a mortgage?"

Elaine was anxious and blurted out: "Of course I can! Why not? He is my son-in-law. If he dares to refuse by then, I will show him his death!"

Chapter 591

Horiyah had known for a long time that the first-grade villa of Tomson was given to Charlie by Solmon White.

Therefore, if she wants to win this villa from Elaine, she has to push Elaine first.

Once Elaine is impatient, Charlie would definitely not be able to sit back and watch.

At that time, there will be a great opportunity to get the villa.

Therefore, Horiyah said to Elaine: "You have lost so much. I think it will be difficult for you to win it back after ten thousand. How about we raise the price? How about fifty thousand? Anyway, you have one. It's not a lot of money to cover the villa, but if you get lucky, you can win back all the money you lost in two games!"

Elaine has lost her mind now, and just wants to get all the money back quickly. Upon hearing this, she immediately nodded in agreement and blurted out: "Then it will cost fifty thousand!"

Lian said, "You don't have the real estate certificate for that villa?"

Elaine said, "It doesn't matter, that's my son-in-law's, and my son-in-law's is mine!"

Lian shook her head: "Without the real estate certificate, there is no way to mortgage too much money, because it is risky for me."

As she said, she stretched out five fingers and said, "Well, you sign an agreement for me. You mortgage the villa to me. I can lend you 50 million in total. Every time I give you 5 million, you lose everything. I'll give it to you again."

Elaine nodded, and said, "50 million is 50 million, and 50 million is enough for me to make money back!"

Lian smiled slightly and said, "That's it, after signing the agreement, let's continue!"

Elaine signed without hesitation, used Tomson's villa as a mortgage, and first borrowed 5 million from Lian.

As a result, she lost five million in only three rounds of mahjong for fifty thousand!

Lian smiled and said at this time: "Oh, don't worry, there are still 45 million, I will transfer you another 5 million!"

Then, he transferred the five million that she had just won to Elaine's mobile bank.

As a result, the second 5 million was lost again.

Elaine is about to collapse.

In the blink of an eye, more than two million deposits were lost and the house was gone. She mortgaged Charlie's Tomson First-Class Villa and lost a full ten million...

Gambling itself is a psychological black hole. Once one falls in, it is difficult to climb out, and it will gradually be swallowed by the black hole.

Many people are involved in gambling, and it is difficult for them to go ashore in their lifetime. The reason is that they cannot control the psychology and state of falling into it.

People like Elaine can't be immune.

She has completely gambled on red eye now, just thinking about continuing to bet, turning over anyway.

However, she is like a lamb waiting to be slaughtered in this carefully planned game, without any possibility of turning over.

Five million after another, came and lost.

Chapter 592

The five million is Elaine's over two million, plus the two million that Horiyah used as bait, repeatedly lent to Elaine and then wins back, lent to her and then wins back, an afternoon of effort, The 50 million mortgaged villas also lost.

Lian told Elaine, "Sister Elaine, I'm really sorry, you have lost all your 50 million."

Elaine was going crazy and blurted out: "My villa is worth more than one billion, you can't just give me fifty million! You give me another fifty million, and I pledge 100 million!"

"I'm sorry." Lian smiled slightly and said: "We have already written it in black and white. The total is fifty million. According to our agreement, you have three days to raise money. If you raise money, it will be five thousand. Ten thousand plus five million in interest, a total of 55 million, when you pay back the money, the villa will not be mortgaged to me, but if you can't take out 55 million, then I'm sorry, the villa is mine that's it."

Elaine blurted out: "No, that villa is not mine, it belongs to my son-in-law, it doesn't count as I said it!"

At this time, Elaine felt that she could not enter the villa in any way, because the villa belonged to Charlie. Once she asked Charlie for it, her daughter and husband would know that she lost so much money and lost the house. They all know about losing the villa.

So she hurriedly said to Lian: "Sister Lian, you have won me more than two million in cash and a house. Let me go for this house. You have won so much and you have already made a lot of money!"

Upon hearing this, Lian's face suddenly changed. She changed her face and said coldly, "Elaine, you can't afford to repay the bill, right? You really think Lian is a bully. If you don't pay the money, don't blame me for turning my face and denying people!"

Elaine hurriedly cried and said, "Sister Lian, do it well, the villa is really not mine, I really can't give it to you!"

Lian was indifferent, and said coldly: "I tell you, you don't tell me these useless nonsense, you must either pay the money or give me the villa, otherwise, I will let my nephew ask you to collect the debt!"

As he said, Lian said again: "My nephew is a fool. If you don't pay the money, be careful that he chops your hands off!"

Elaine cried bitterly and said: "You killed me, I can't get 55 million, sister Lian..."

As she said, she hurriedly begged Horiyah and said, "Sister-in-law, can you say something nice to me, isn't Sister Lian your friend? Sister Lian doesn't care about money? Let her let me go this time, please. can you....."

Horiyah said helplessly: "Sorry Elaine, I really can't help you with this, after all, you have lost too much money."

Although she said so, Horiyah's heart was so refreshing!

Haha!

Elaine, this stinky lady, let you show off your wealth in front of me, and dare to taunt me? Now you know the fate of offending me, right? Your savings, your house, and your son-in-law's villa are all mine!

From now on, you Elaine will have nothing!

When Elaine saw that it was useless to beg her, she hurriedly knelt in front of Lian, holding Lian's leg, and cried out: "Sister Lian, you are so rich, so don't push me to death, can you? I can't come up with so much money!"

Lian kicked her off in disgust, and said in disgust: "Don't follow me in this way. Why didn't you say to return a little when you won? Now that you have lost your money, let me save you a few. Ten million debts, where does your face come from?"

Elaine was kicked to the ground and hurriedly got up, crying and said, "Sister Lian, I really don't have so much money for you!"

Lian hugged her shoulders and said coldly: "Then let your son-in-law come over and transfer the villa to me!"

Elaine hurriedly said: "No, in that case, our whole family will know, my husband will divorce me..."

Lian looked at Elaine coldly at this time, and blurted out: "Elaine, do you want to pay the bill, do you? Okay, you wait, I will call my nephew now and ask him to come over, today you will not owe me Pay off the money, or give me the villa, I will immediately let him beat you into a half body!"

Chapter 593

At this moment, Lian revealed her true shape.

The killing plate has officially entered the final stage.

Elaine saw that Lian was completely a murderous expression at this time, how could there be the shadow of the former rich woman?

So she suddenly realized that she might have been cheated.

Looking at Horiyah again, she felt that something was wrong.

Why would she take the initiative to apologize to her today, and then take the initiative to invite herself to play mahjong?

Is it all related to her? !

And this Lian!

Doesn't she know how to play mahjong?

Why can she win so much money from her? !

Thinking of this, she suddenly realized that she was probably fooled!

She pointed at Horiyah furiously, and blurted out: "Horiyah, you shameless dog, you even colluded with others to set up a situation to cheat me!"

Horiyah was taken aback for a moment, and said unnaturally, "Elaine, what are you talking about? If you lose money, you say I cheated you? You didn't see that I still lost money today!"

Elaine scolded angrily: "You don't play with me here! You said you gave me a secret signal before, why didn't you give me a card?"

Horiyah said with a dodging expression: "What are you talking about? I don't understand at all. You should return the money to Sister Lian as soon as possible. Don't talk about these useless things with me!"

Lian also looked at Elaine coldly, and said, "Elaine, I tell you, hurry up to pay the money, or take out the villa, no more excuses!"

Elaine's vixen came up, and pushed the mahjong on the table to the ground, cursing: "You b@stards are ganging up to lie to me. I won't pay any money!"

Lian frowned, "No, right? Okay, wait, I'll call my nephew over!"

After speaking, Lian immediately took out her mobile phone and called.

When Elaine heard that her nephew was a gangster and wanted to call, she was anxious and shouted: "Don't don't! If you have something to discuss, sister Lian!"

Lian ignored her.

The phone was connected quickly, and she opened her mouth and said: "My nephew, someone owes me tens of millions. Come and ask for the money. Then I will buy you a BMW!"

As soon as this word came out, an angry voice came from the other end of the phone: "Huh? Ergu, anyone dare to owe you the money? I think she doesn't want to hang out in Aurous Hill, right? Where are you? Lead someone over immediately and see how I can clean her up!"

Lian hurriedly said: "Okay! I'm at Tomson first product c11, come on!"

After hanging up the phone, she looked at Elaine proudly, and said with a sneer: "My nephew is coming soon, I advise you to find a way to raise money quickly, or ask your son-in-law to transfer the villa to me, otherwise, wait for him to come. You are careful not to eat!"

At this moment, Elaine was deeply regretful, and she wished to slap herself several times.

Why is she so obsessed with money, she has to promise Horiyah to come over and play mahjong with this bunch of Kuo's ladies?

It's all right now, not to mention all of her net worth, she also mortgaged Charlie's villa!

If Charlie is unwilling to use his villa to pay off her debts, what can she do...

Thinking of this, Elaine felt desperate.

At this moment, there was a sudden rush of footsteps outside.

Afterwards, a burly man stepped into the door, behind him, followed by a dozen of his men, all of whom were five big and three thick, with a cold face, they were not good at first sight.

Chapter 594

As soon as he entered the door, the man made a calm face and asked in a cold voice: "f*ck, who dares not pay back the money they owe my second aunt?"

Lian pointed at Elaine immediately and said, "Ron, that's her!"

The visitor was her eldest nephew, Ron He.

Ron's icy gaze fell on Elaine, and said: "Okay, don't you still owe money? Do you know who I am? Don't you want to hang out in Aurous Hill?!"

Elaine was so scared that she trembled and said, "I...I really have no money..."

Lian said coldly: "Stop talking nonsense with me, take out the villa if you have no money, let's clean it up!"

Elaine collapsed and shouted: "I have no money! I have so much money! I don't have so much money if you kill me, you can't have it!"

Ron stepped forward, grabbed Elaine by the hair, and slapped her face severely.

With a snap, Elaine's cheeks and nosebleeds were all drawn out.

Elaine sat on the ground and yelled in embarrassment. Ron slapped her again and cursed: "d*mn, give me a haw, and I will tear your mouth!"

Elaine was shocked, and immediately closed her mouth, looking at Ron, not even daring to let out the atmosphere.

Ron kicked Elaine to the ground, stomped her face with his toes, and stomped her to the ground, and asked coldly: "I'll ask you again, why don't you pay the money?"

Elaine was beaten in severe pain, and she cried and wailed: "Sister Lian, for the sake of everyone and friends, please spare me this time!"

Lian frowned and said, "I have only met you this time. We are not friends. Besides, what kind of friend can forgive you 55 million in debt?"

Ron, who stepped Elaine under his feet, also threatened: "Old stuff, want to go wrong? Have you seen my brothers? I will let them take turns to wait for you, and then I will shoot a video. I think you should be right at your age. When it's like a wolf like a tiger, your husband is afraid it will be difficult to satisfy you, right? Let a dozen lads make you cool today!"

Elaine was frightened suddenly!

She pleaded bitterly: "Sister Lian, do you think this will work? I'll call my son-in-law and ask him to bring the house book from the villa. You can let me go..."

She could see clearly. The dozen or so people standing in front of her were all tattooed, and they were all fierce and evil.

This kind of person she can't afford!

If I carry on like this, I'm afraid I will be beaten to death, or forced to shoot that kind of video...

It seems that Charlie can only come to save himself!

Ron smiled coldly at this time and said: "You can call, but you won't let him call the police for you?"

"Absolutely not!" Elaine said hastily, "Can I fight in front of you?"

Ron said with a cold face: "Before you call, you should take off all your clothes and let me take a 360-degree video with no dead ends. If you dare to call the police in the future, or be careful, I will send the video online!"

Elaine was struck by lightning!

Want to make a video? !

I am in my 50s. Do these people want to make videos of me?

If this video goes out, do you want your old face?

Moreover, as long as you take this video yourself, it is basically equivalent to handing over your biggest handle to the other party.

With this as a threat, she is a doll at the mercy of others.

If you dare not repay the money, or call the police, the other party can publish this video and make her the laughing stock of Aurous Hill!

You can't shoot this video!

Chapter 595

When she thought of this, Elaine couldn't help but cry, a strong sense of humiliation, suddenly came to her heart.

She cried and pleaded: "Please don't make me a video, I will call my son-in-law honestly, fight in front of you, and fight now! Let him bring the house book now! One more word I will not speak nonsense!"

Ron didn't buy her account, and looked at her coldly: "My rules are like this, everything just in case, today's video, you have to shoot, if you don't, you have to shoot, there is no other option!"

If you take the initiative to take off your clothes, then we will all be in peace, but if you don't take the initiative to cooperate, then I can let my subordinates give you a hard bow!"

As he said, he looked at Elaine up and down, and said with an obscene smile: "Yes, I forgot to tell you, now Japanese people like to buy movies from China. A woman like you should fit the Japanese market well. Then I will sell the video to Japan, maybe you will become a celebrity!”

Elaine almost fainted in fright. Upon hearing this, she dared not bargain anymore, and immediately said with tears in humiliation: “Can I cooperate? I must cooperate...”

Ron nodded, kicked Elaine, and scolded, “Go in and take it off by yourself!”

Elaine was kicked and crawled to the next bedroom, lying on the bed, tearing off while taking off her clothes.

At the moment when she took off her clothes, Elaine burst into tears, and her whole body collapsed.

She only felt that all her face had been lost for this life.

Ron sneered and took out his phone, and said while filming: “Yes, I didn’t expect you Lady Willson to have a pretty figure!”

Elaine covered her face and cried, but there was no way to cry. Ron had no sympathy for her.

In fact, Lian had already arranged everything. When Lian was playing mahjong with Elaine, he brought his brothers and waited outside the villa area. He waited for a call from Lian, and then came in and used force to force Elaine to submission!

When the video was finished, Ron walked out with a tearful Elaine, and said coldly: “Okay, now call your family and ask them to come over and pay the money, otherwise, I will send the video to the group, let everyone open their eyes!”

Elaine nodded immediately and hurriedly said: “I’ll call my son-in-law...”

Although 10,000 people in her heart could not look down upon Charlie, at this time, only Charlie could save her.

Ron took her video without worrying about her playing tricks, and said lightly: “Hurry up and let him come, or you will die miserably!”

Elaine didn't dare to play tricks, and immediately took out her mobile phone and dialed Charlie.

Charlie was on the tenth floor of the Brilliant Club, watching Jacob drinking tea, eating snacks, singing, and chatting with a group of classmates, recalling the past, but felt that the feelings of these old men were quite enviable.

At this moment, he suddenly heard the phone ring, picked it up and found that it was his mother-in-law Elaine.

He couldn't help but be a little curious. The mother-in-law rarely took the initiative to call him unless she was cheated by father. For example, she was scammed by p2p and she had to get him over and shout slogans to collect debt.

He instinctively didn't want to answer Elaine's call, but after thinking about it carefully, it was Claire's mother after all. If he didn't answer her call, he might have to file a complaint with Claire.

So he walked out of box 1008, put on the phone, and asked, "Mom, are you okay?"

Elaine's anxious voice came over immediately: "Charlie, your mom lost some money playing mahjong, now I am not allowed to leave, you have to save me!"

"Uh..." Charlie got big for a while, so he said, "Mom, I don't have much money, just ten or twenty thousand, is that enough?"

Elaine didn't know how much Charlie had. Although Charlie had money, he didn't want to spend it on Elaine, so he deliberately pretended to be poor and said a number of ten to twenty thousand.

Chapter 596

Elaine blurted out at this moment: "Charlie, Mom doesn't want your money."

Ok?

Charlie was a little startled, what the h*ll? Don't want my money? When is the mother-in-law a person?

Surprised, Elaine almost vomited blood with anger in the next sentence.

Just listen to Elaine said: "Charlie, you just bring the villa paper that Solmon White gave you!"

"What?!" Charlie blurted out: "Mom, do you know how much the villa is worth? 130 million! Don't tell me, you can lose 100 million by playing mahjong with some old ladies in the mahjong hall! "

Elaine suddenly choked up and said, "I didn't reach 100 million, so I lost more than 60 million and owed another 55 million..."

After finishing speaking, Elaine blurted out: "My good son-in-law, you must bring it to save mom. If you don't save mom, mom will be dead this time!"

Charlie blurted out: "Mom, this villa is worth 130 million. You have to send the villa out for 55 million?"

Elaine was anxious and cried: "My good son-in-law, then you go find a way to get fifty-five million over here. If you can't get it, just bring the house book with you. Otherwise, Mom will die. At that time, you can only come with Claire to collect the corpse!"

Immediately afterwards, another man's voice came from the phone and said: "You are Elaine's son-in-law, right? Get over here with the house book, otherwise your mother-in-law can't get out of this villa today!"

Charlie frowned and asked, "Who are you?"

The other party immediately shouted: "You are not qualified to know who I am. You only need to know that your mother-in-law owes 55 million. If you don't give money, just wait to collect her body!"

Then the other party said: "Oh yes, just now your mother-in-law took off all her clothes and asked me to take a high-definition video. If you don't save her, after her death, this video will be spread throughout the city. !"

Charlie was on fire!

He doesn't care if you beat Elaine, scold Elaine, or even force Elaine, kill Elaine, and he might even thank them.

But if they shoot that kind of video for her, and want to spread it all over the city, it's d*mn hard to bear!

Because Charlie was worried that if his wife Claire saw such a video, wouldn't she be sad to death? !

She was such a kind girl who had spent all her private money to help her rescue Aunt Lena in the welfare home, and she even cried several times!

Even at the birthday banquet of Mrs. Willson, she also withstood the ridicule and pressure of the whole family for Aunt Lena, begging Mrs. Willson for him.

If her mother, Elaine, was killed, and that kind of video was still circulated everywhere after her death, it would be a fatal blow to her, and she might be immersed in great pain for her entire life!

He really doesn't care about Elaine's life or death, but he cares about Claire!

Over the years, Claire has always respected him as a guest, and the whole world despised him at that time.

Even, she continues to help and encourage him. With such kindness, it is too late to repay her. How can she be hurt again?

Thinking of this, he immediately said to the man: "Don't hurt my mother-in-law, isn't it just a villa? I will give it to you, you give me an address, and I will come with the house book now!"

Chapter 597

As soon as the other party heard this, he immediately said: "Tomson Villa C11, you bring your own house book, if you dare to call the police, I will kill your mother-in-law!"

Charlie gave a hum, and said lightly: "Okay, I'll bring it there."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie went back to the box and greeted Jacob, saying, "Dad, I have to go out beforehand. You continue to play. If you need anything, just tell the waiter, these will be recorded in Mr. Orvel account."

"Okay." Jacob nodded, patted Charlie on the shoulder, and said: "My dear son-in-law, thank you so much today. If it weren't for you, Dad would be ashamed today."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Dad, I only found out today. Actually, it has not been easy for you these years. Your son-in-law should also help you earn some face!"

Jacob was so moved that he nodded and sighed.

Charlie didn't tell him more, got up, and walked out.

Instead of going home to pick up the house book, he directly stopped a taxi and went straight to Tomson.

On the way, he called Mr. Orvel.

As soon as the phone call, Orvel asked respectfully: "Mr. Wade, what do you want?"

Charlie said: "Send someone to Tomson or come yourself. My mother-in-law has lost more than 60 million in mahjong games, and now she is detained. I think this is a bit wrong, and 80% of it has been set up. You come over with me to see what is going on."

After Orvel listened, he was furious!

d*mn, in Aurous Hill, there are some people who don't have eyesight, so they set up Mr. Wade's mother-in-law? !

Is this not f*cking looking for death? !

So he immediately said: "Mr. Wade, I will take someone over to join you and hack to death that b@stards!"

Soon, Charlie came to Tomson and found the villa where his mother-in-law was.

After knocking on the door and entering, he saw a dozen gangsters surrounding Elaine, who was disheveled in the living room. Elaine was slapped and her whole face was red and swollen. She looked very pitiful with disheveled hair.

In addition, there are two middle-aged women who Charlie doesn't know. Looking carefully, even Horiyah is here.

Charlie was taken aback for a moment. Why is this person here?

Horiyah saw Charlie with a slight guilty conscience, but soon calmed down a lot.

She felt that his mother-in-law did not lose money to her. She just watched the fun. What can he do to her?

At this moment, Elaine saw him coming, she burst into tears, and wailed: "Charlie, my good son-in-law, why are you here so late? Mom is so anxious to die for you!"

Charlie looked at the chicken-feathered mother-in-law, and asked: "Mom, playing mahjong, how can you lose more than 60 million?"

"How do I know that I am so unlucky!"

Elaine cried and said, "Your aunt asked me to play mahjong. I was thinking about playing and playing mahjong. Who knows that after a few laps with them, the more I lost, they force me to mortgage your Tomson First-Class villa to them. There was no way for me to escape..."

After speaking, Elaine said with an angry look: "I suspect that these people are deliberately ganging up to cheat my money!"

Charlie sneered and said: "Don't doubt it, they are just cheating you."

Lian blurted out at this time: "Hey, don't spit your mouth! We were in a voluntary Mahjong game. Who is to blame for your mother-in-law's bad luck?"

Ron on the side blurted out: "Second Aunt, what are you talking nonsense to him, I will tell him!"

After all, looking at Charlie, he said coldly: "Hurry up and call out the book, and then write a voluntary transfer statement, otherwise, you and your mother-in-law will not want to leave alive today!"

"Oh."

Charlie nodded faintly, and said, "I didn't bring the book."

When Elaine heard this, she was immediately anxious!

Her face changed, and her whole body became angry, and she blurted out: "Charlie, you want to kill me!? Didn't I tell you, let you bring the book to save me?! You don't have long ears?"

Charlie said calmly: "I'm sorry, I promised Claire that this house will be renovated next month, and I will take her to move in. I can't break my promise to her."

Elaine cursed: "Do you want Claire to bring me filial piety to live in that villa? If you don't take the villa out, I'll be dead!"

Charlie said lightly: "You can't die today."

Chapter 598

"It's up to you?!" Elaine was mad and scolded: "Have you not seen a dozen or so people? If you want to die, don't drag me down, OK!"

At this time, Ron observed at Charlie with bad eyes, smiled coldly, and asked: "Boy, let you not bring your housekeeper, dare to play with me? Believe it or not, you have to die here?"

Charlie said indifferently: "I only give you a chance to survive. You answer my questions well, and I will spare your life and listen carefully. Who arranged this game today?"

Ron laughed out loud: "It's d*mn interesting, you are alone on my site, and you dare to threaten me? You are so brave! Are you tired of life?"

Charlie smiled slightly and asked him: "Where is your site?"

Ron stomped his foot and said coldly: "This villa belongs to me!"

Charlie nodded and smiled and asked: "Then, do you know where is my territory?"

Ron asked contemptuously: "What? Do you want to cross the road with me? Okay, let's talk about it, which is your site?"

Charlie said calmly: "The entire Aurous Hill is my site!"

"Grass!" Ron scolded: "f*ck you? Aurous Hill is your place? You are the Mr. Orvel to eat dry food? I tell you, my eldest brother is the godson of the master Orvel. In Aurous Hill, no one provokes me. Can afford me!"

"Even if Mr. Orvel is here, he still has to kneel in front of me, what are you?"

Charlie snorted, stretched out a finger, and said to him: "Last chance, tell me honestly, who set up the game today?"

"You stupid..." Ron angrily: "Dare to be disrespectful to the master, I'll kill you!"

As soon as the voice fell, Ron felt that his right hand was suddenly grasped by a strong force!

Looking up, Charlie had firmly grasped his right wrist.

At this time, Charlie grinned and said: "Come on, I will give you a twelve rings."

Ron blurted out subconsciously: "What twelve sounds?!"

Charlie suddenly grabbed his right thumb and smashed it back slightly...

With a "click", the thumb snapped straight back!

Ron's finger was suddenly broken, and he shouted in pain.

Charlie smiled lightly at this time and said: "This is the first sound."

After all, grabbed his right index finger and broke again!

There was another "click".

Charlie smiled and said, "This is the second sound."

Ron's painful whole person was about to collapse, and his face was full of cold sweat. He hysterically yelled at the younger brothers behind him: "d*mn, hack him to death!"

As soon as the voice fell, Charlie broke the index finger of his right hand again...

"Crack!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Here, this is the third ring!"

"Ah, d*mn it hurts me to death... hack him to death!"

More than a dozen younger brothers have already drawn out their machetes at this moment and swarmed.

Charlie remained unchanged.

A dozen gangsters were just a few, in front of him, it was nothing.

So, he continued to break Ron's ring finger.

"Crack!"

Ron's fourth finger was broken!

At this moment, the dozen or so shining machetes were already hanging in front of Charlie!

Chapter 599

Ron's four fingers were broken continuously, and he almost passed out with pain.

However, he was overjoyed when he saw that his little brothers had already swung their swords in front of him!

Are you breaking my finger? Then I will let my brothers chop off your fingers!

Charlie didn't care about it, just a dozen gangsters, not enough.

When he was about to do it, an angry shout suddenly came from outside the door: "f*ck me, stop! Who dares to move Mr. Wade and hack to death on the spot!"

A dozen punks looked up and almost peed their pants without being scared!

Orvel!

It turned out to be Orvel, the underground emperor of Aurous Hill!

Why is he here? !

At this time, Mr. Orvel brought his most powerful subordinates, and the various guns of these subordinates were by no means comparable to ordinary punks.

After the men with guns came in, they immediately pointed their guns at the gangsters with knives, frightening them all to throw their knives on the ground.

One of the younger brothers was frightened and knelt on the ground with a thud, crying and said, "Great Mr. Orvel, please spare my life!"

When he knelt, everyone else knelt down.

They are nothing more than a bunch of low-level brothers. In front of Orvel, they are like ants, naturally scared to death.

Ron was also shocked.

What happened?

Why is the master Orvel here? !

At this time, Orvel walked quickly to Charlie and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, I'm sorry, I am late!"

Charlie waved his hand and said, "Let your people shut all these young people in the room first."

Mr. Orvel nodded immediately and asked the younger brothers to shut the group of people into the next room.

Afterwards, Charlie looked at Ron who was pale, and said with a smile: "I said that the twelve rings are good, and it is only four rings now, let's continue!"

Having said that, he directly broke Ron's little finger on his right hand...

"Crack..."

Ron called out painfully.

Mr. Orvel on the side said: "Mr. Wade, with this kind of little guy, you can't afford to waste time, so just hand it to me. I will take it to the kennel and let my dozen or so Tibetan mastiffs tear him directly! "

Ron was shocked and blurted out: "Great Mr. Orvel, Great Mr. Orvel, this is all a misunderstanding! I am Weiz's little brother!"

"Weiz?" Mr. Orvel frowned, "Are you with Weiz?"

Ron nodded repeatedly and cried and said, "Weiz is my elder brother, so counting down, I am also your disciple, master Orvel!"

Mr. Orvel observed at him closely and asked, "Do you know, whose disciple I am?"

Ron subconsciously said: "Great Mr. Orvel, you are the underground emperor of Aurous Hill, of course you are not anyone's disciples..."

Mr. Orvel slapped his face, pointed at Charlie, and said to him: "I am Mr. Wade's disciple!"

"what?!"

Disciple, not even the little brother.

The famous Orvel said that he was the disciple of this young man. In other words, he was extremely humble in front of this young man!

Ron was trembling with fright by this relationship chain!

What's going on?

The second aunt asked him to calculate Lady Willson, and asked that Lady Willson's son-in-law to ask for a villa. Didn't expect that the other party was Mr. Orvel's boss? !

Lian also frightened her legs and weakened. She observed at Horiyah pale, and asked in a low voice, "Who is it that you offend? You want to kill me?!"

Horiyah was also dumbfounded.

She knew that Charlie seemed to be fooling people with Feng Shui, but I didn't expect it to be so powerful!

Elaine was also a little dumbfounded at this time, deed, her son-in-law is really amazing! Fudge so many big people, there is no thunder yet? There are indeed two brushes...

Chapter 600

Ron was already trembling with fright. He said to Charlie bluntly, "Mr. Wade, I was wrong. I was fooled by my second aunt. She said that she wanted to pit your mother-in-law. She used me..."

Charlie slapped him directly, and slapped his face fiercely, and said coldly: "Before the twelve ringings are over, if you dare to say one more word, I will let Mr. Orvel split you into a hundreds. !"

Ron was frightened by Charlie's fierce gaze, and immediately closed his mouth.

Charlie looked at his right hand that had broken five fingers at this time, and said lightly: "The right hand is still almost loud, come, get ready."

After speaking, grab his wrist and make a violent force!

Click!

Ron's right wrist was completely broken!

Ron's painful legs softened and knelt on the ground with a puff.

He wanted to beg for mercy, but when he thought of what Charlie said just now, he dared not say another word.

However, this piercing pain has already caused him to collapse.

But Charlie said at this time: "Twelve bangs, this is just six bangs, and there are still six bangs."

After finishing speaking, he bent down and grabbed Ron's left hand.

Ron looked at Charlie with tears and dared not speak, he used pitiful eyes and panicked shaking his head to beg Charlie for mercy.

Charlie gave him a cruel smile.

Then, grabbing the thumb of his left hand, he said lightly: "Come on, the seventh ring!"

Ron trembled in pain!

Charlie didn't give him a chance to react, and continued: "Come on, the eighth ring!"

Ron was already in pain and was about to faint.

However, the ninth ring revived him.

Charlie at this time, in his eyes, is as terrible and cruel as the Shura of h*ll!

Charlie patted his face and smiled faintly: "There are four more rings, don't miss it."

Then, there was another click!

This disciplinary method of cutting meat with a blunt knife, even Orvel feels liver tremors!

"There are three more rings!"

Lian was already paralyzed by fear at this time.

She could vaguely realize that after her nephew had endured Charlie's twelve sounds, she would be the one who is unlucky next...

Horiyah wanted to slip away quickly, but was soon brought back by one of Mr. Orvel's younger brothers who pointed a gun to his head, and was kicked to the ground.

The black muzzle pointed at her forehead and frightened her to death.

At this time, Ron had already endured eleven rings.

At this time, his ten fingers on both hands were as soft as beans hanging from a vine, and none of his ten fingers could move.

Now he only has his left wrist to move.

Charlie said to him: "Come on, it's the last one!"

Ron was so painful that he couldn't kneel anymore, he could only let Charlie grab his left wrist and break his wrist directly!

Twelve rings!

Ron howled in pain.

He knew that he would be a useless person in the future, ten fingers and two wrists were all useless, what else could he do in the future? !

Continue to mix in the society?

Can he still hold a knife?

If he won't be hacked to death by the enemy, it's already burning incense, right?

Charlie squatted down at this time, looked at Ron, and said coldly: "You still have two legs and two feet, so if you don't answer my question well in the future, I will give you twelve more rings!"

Ron's face was pale as frost, and he said in despair: "No matter what questions you ask, I will answer them seriously!"

Charlie nodded, glanced at the trembling Horiyah and Lian, and said coldly: "You tell me clearly what was going on today here, dare to miss any details, don't ask for your two legs, start now!"

Chapter 601

When Ron heard this, he panicked and hurriedly pointed at Lian and said, "Mr. Wade, that's my second aunt. She called me yesterday and said that she was going to set up a bureau for a woman and set her up. Big money, let me come over and sing black face when the time comes, so I agreed..."

After speaking, Ron hurriedly said again: "Mr. Wade, I was really taken advantage of!"

Charlie glanced at Lian, and Lian was frightened.

Charlie pointed at her and beckoned: "You, come here."

Lian did not dare to neglect, and hurriedly crawled to the front, and said tremblingly: "Mr. Wade, a misunderstanding! I didn't know that Elaine is your mother-in-law, who gave me ten thousand courage, I dare not lie to her, right?"

After she finished speaking, she pointed to Horiyah and blurted out: "This stinky lady named Horiyah is hurting me! She said that her younger siblings are very rich and terrible, so she always wanted to teach her. Just ask me to make a round with her, wanting to win your mother-in-law's villa..."

Horiyah was also frightened and hurriedly said, "Charlie, this is a misunderstanding. I didn't want to lie to your mother-in-law. I was also deceived by this Lian. Lian seemed to behave badly in front of me all day long. I think it's true that I can't play, I want to bring your mother-in-law over to make a fortune, but I didn't expect it, but was cheated by her..."

When Elaine heard this, she scolded angrily: "Horiyah, you b*tch still want to lie to my money and villa?!"

Horiyah was clever, she stepped back and waved her hand: "Don't talk nonsense, I don't have one!"

Lian cursed coldly: "Do you dare to deny it? Okay, then I will show Mr. Wade to see our chat history!"

After speaking, she quickly took out her mobile phone, opened WeChat, and played a voice.

In the voice, Horiyah's voice came: "Sister Lian, I heard you have returned to Aurous Hill?"

Lian's voice followed: "Yes, I just came back two days ago."

Horiyah: "Sister Lian, you have been a croupier in Macau casinos for so many years. You must have a good job at the table, right?"

Lian: "I dare not dare, I can barely rank in the top five in Macau, but in Aurous Hill, I dare to say that there is no one I can't win."

Horiyah: "That's already amazing! Sister Lian, I have a way to make a fortune. I wonder if you are interested?"

Lian: "You probably introduce it."

Horiyah: "I have a younger sister, who is quite rich. The villa of Tomson's first-rate house is worth more than 100 million, and this stupid dog is addicted to gambling. Some are means. How about I call her over, you set up a round and win her a good deal?"

Lian: "A villa worth more than 100 million? Is it true?"

Horiyah: "It's true!"

Lian: "That's OK, but after it's done, I want 60%!"

Horiyah: "No problem! You will be six and I will be four!"

When the voice was played, Horiyah was already frightened. She hurriedly said to Charlie: "Charlie, I didn't mean it, I am your big aunt, we are all a family..."

Charlie looked at her and said lightly: "Let's talk about your business later."

After speaking, let someone drag her aside.

Afterwards, he looked at Lian, smiled and asked, "I heard that your thousand skills are very powerful?"

Lian hurriedly explained: "Mr. Wade, in fact, Thousand Skills are little tricks for cheating, and I only know a little bit of fur..."

Charlie nodded and asked, "How did you mainly cheat in this case today?"

Lian hurriedly explained: "This mahjong machine is customized. I can directly preset all the cards from the four companies in the computer in advance, and then start it with my mobile phone at any time. When the mahjong machine automatically shuffles the cards, Will follow my request, shuffle the cards, and then rise up."

After that, she further explained: "When the time comes, I will use the software to control the number of dice, and specify who will take which card. I will give your mother-in-law several cards from the sky, but they are all dead ends. It's a card that can't be won in a lifetime, plus Horiyah and Nivia cooperate with me, so I won't lose even more..."

After listening to her, Charlie nodded lightly and asked, "How many people have you harmed with this method?"

Lian hurriedly said: "Not much, not much...I don't usually do this kind of thing."

Charlie frowned and asked, "How many gamblers did you help the casino win in Macau? Among these gamblers, how many people went bankrupt, sold children and sold girls, or even died?"

Chapter 602

"This...this..." Lian was already sweating profusely.

Over the years, she has done a lot of such evil things, and I don't know how many people have gone bankrupt.

Gambling itself is an abyss that can swallow everything. Some people fall into it by themselves, and some people fall into it with their entire family.

However, Lian never cared about the life and death of these victims. She felt that this was her ability to eat. How could she win if others didn't lose?

Therefore, she has never felt guilty.

But Charlie could see through the heart of such a person at a glance.

Such people are the cruelest and most ruthless vampires in the world.

She lives by sucking other people's blood, so she doesn't care if others will die or how terrible they will die after being sucked up by herself.

Charlie naturally has no sympathy for this kind of person.

He looked at Lian playfully and said with a smile: "Let's do it, how about a few games with us?"

Lian was stunned, and asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, what are you going to play..."

Charlie said: "I don't know how to gamble. I don't know how to play poker, mahjong, or Pai Gow. I only know one kind, rock paper scissors."

Lian asked puzzledly: "Are you going to play rock-paper-scissors with me?"

Charlie nodded: "Yes, I will play rock-paper-scissors with you, a handful of ten million, what do you think?"

"This...this..." Lian said nervously, "Mr. Wade, I dare not play with you..."

Charlie said: "You have to play, and you have to play if you don't!"

Lian nodded in a panic: "That's OK...then listen to Mr. Wade..."

After speaking, she couldn't help asking: "Mr. Wade, how do we play?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't worry, I have to make a preparation before playing."

"Prepare for work?" Lian looked surprised.

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't you know the preparations? Just like you designed to cheat for my mother-in-law, I also want to give you a lot of money."

"Ah?!" Lian was even more puzzled...

Rock-paper-scissors, what can you do?

I've been a thousand years old for a lifetime, and I don't know how this thing has become a thousand people!

Is it deliberately a few seconds behind the opponent? If you are optimistic about what others will do, what can you do to restrain them?

Isn't this too low-level?

When she didn't know why, Charlie suddenly grabbed her right hand, straightened all her five fingers, and slammed it hard, click!

Five fingers broke at the same time!

Lian screamed in pain, but Charlie lifted her left hand, and also snapped off the five fingers of her left hand.

Now, Lian's fingers can no longer be controlled, and the ten fingers are only connected to the skin, and they hang naturally.

Charlie said indifferently: "With your hand, I assume that you make cloth by default. If you want to make a rock, you have to make a fist with five fingers. If you want to make scissors, you have to make a v. Do you understand?"

Lian cried and said, "Mr. Wade, all of my ten fingers are broken. I can't get out of rocks and scissors!"

Charlie said disdainfully: "Then I don't care, you can't get out, it has nothing to do with me, besides, when you give a lot of money to others, isn't it also a chance for the other party not to win? Let you taste it today. What do you mean by the way of the person, and the body of the person!"

Chapter 603

Lian collapsed.

Unexpectedly, Charlie looked harmless to humans and astupidls, and his methods were so ruthless!

He broke her ten fingers, and then played rock-paper-scissors with her. Now she can only produce cloth. Wouldn't he lose as many as he plays?

Charlie looked at Lian at this time and said blankly: "Come on, let's start."

With that, Charlie waved his hands while muttering in his mouth: "Scissors, rocks, cloth!"

As soon as the voice fell, he immediately gestured a scissors hand.

Lian couldn't control her fingers at all, so she could only look at Charlie with the eyes of a dead mother.

Charlie smiled slightly and said: "I produce scissors and you produce cloth. I won. You owe me ten million."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Come on, let's play the second one."

"Scissors, rock, cloth!"

"Oh, I won again, you owe me 20 million."

"Come on, the third one!"

"Scissors, rock, cloth!"

"You are really sincere, why do you always make money? You really can't do anything about it. You owe me thirty million."

Charlie amused himself, and soon won ten against Lian, accumulating 100 million.

So Charlie said to her: "Come on, settle the account."

Lian cried and said, "Mr. Wade, I don't have so much money..."

Charlie waved his hand: "Then I don't care, call your family, your daughter-in-law, your son-in-law and daughter-in-law, and your husband. Bring all the money in your family and all the real estate that can be mortgaged, one If one hundred million is less than one point, I will send you and all the people in your household register who are over 18 years old to work in the black coal mine to repay debts. A monthly salary of two thousand, when will it be enough for 100 million, and only then will you be free? ."

After speaking, he asked Mr. Orvel: "Do you know the man who operates the black coal kiln?"

"I know." Mr. Orvel blurted out: "I have a few buddies who committed something in Aurous Hill a few years ago, and later went to open coal mines in Jinx, and they can all be sent at any time!"

"Very good." Charlie nodded and said to Lian: "Come on, take the initiative to explain, how many people are there in your household registration?"

Lian was frightened and knelt on the ground and cried, "Mr. Wade, my son, and daughter are all high-achieving students who graduated from prestigious universities. They are now social pillars. You can't ruin their lives!"

Charlie sneered and said, "Okay, your own children are all graduates from famous universities? But what about the families you have killed? Can their children still eat? Can they survive? Let alone go to school. A prestigious university. When you ruined their lives, why didn't you consider them?"

Lian regrets and fears, and her face is particularly pale.

She did kill a lot of people, and countless people were ruined by her, but she never cared.

She wants to make money, as long as she makes money, nothing else matters.

So now the retribution is coming.

Charlie wants to send all the sons and daughters she has cultivated to the black coal mine to dig coal!

It is the best punishment for her to personally destroy her life's deceitful and abducted efforts!

Chapter 604

Lian was also frightened and cried and said, "Mr. Wade, I really knew it was wrong. If you ask for money, I can give you all of my money! I have been in Macau for many years, and I have saved some money. , I have a total of 20 million in my hand. I will give you all of this money. Please let my son and daughter go!"

With that, she immediately took out her mobile phone, opened the mobile banking, and showed the balance to Charlie.

There are more than 21 million in her personal account.

Charlie said indifferently: "You donate all of these two and one million to the official donation account of Project Hope!"

Having said that, he took out his mobile phone and found the official account of Project Hope, handed it to Lian, and said coldly: "Transfer now."

Lian hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, if I donate this money, you can let me go?"

Charlie sneered and said, "You still want to bargain with me?"

Lian was so frightened by Charlie that she hurriedly picked up her mobile phone and transferred all her money according to the donation account of Project Hope that Charlie found.

After all the transfers, she handed the phone to Charlie, crying, and said, "Mr. Wade, I have donated all the money, and the account balance is already zero. Can you let me go now?"

After Charlie confirmed that she had donated all the money, he said coldly: "Don't forget, you just owed me 100 million when you played rock-paper-scissors. You donated more than 20 million, and you still owe me many more"

Lian cried and said, "Mr. Wade, the more than 20 million just now was my wealth..."

Charlie nodded and said, "Didn't I tell you? Send all of your household registration to the black coal mine to dig coal for two thousand a month. When will you pay more than 70 million in gambling debt? Let you go when the time comes."

Lian collapsed and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, two thousand a month, only twenty-four thousand a year, and I can't make so much money to pay off her debts to death!"

Charlie asked her back: "Those people who have been ruined by your gang to go bankrupt and have a lot of debts, how did they repay their debts? Have you ever thought about it? If you know today, why bother?"

Having said that, Charlie asked Ron: "Please tell me honestly, who are your second aunts, who are your immediate family members?"

Ron hurriedly said: "She has a husband, a son, and a daughter. The son was married the year before. The daughter-in-law's family opened a black casino in Aurous Hill. Her daughter just got married last month and found a son-in-law to do it. Micro-loans specialize in young college students and have forced several college students to jump off the building."

Charlie nodded and said coldly: "Okay, Lian has given birth to two children, one is married to the daughter of the owner of Kaihei Casino, and the other is married for a small loan arranger. Your family is really a nest of snakes and rats.!"

After that, he immediately took out his phone and sent Issac a WeChat.

The content of the WeChat is: "There is a woman named Lian who has just returned from Macau in Aurous Hill. Please help me check her family and bring her husband, son, and daughter, daughter-in-law, all to Tomson c11."

Although Mr. Orvel was an underground emperor in Aurous Hill, it was only an underground world. If he was asked to directly tie up these people, he could tie them over with his ability, but the subsequent things might not be able to suppress them.

But Issac is different.

Issac is the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill. In Aurous Hill, even the Song family's Old Master, he must be polite when meeting him.

Therefore, Issac has almost nothing impossible to accomplish in Aurous Hill.

After receiving Charlie's order, Issac didn't have any delay and immediately sent people to investigate and search for Lian's family.

Lian was crying bitterly at this time, and knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Charlie, begging for forgiveness, her forehead was already bleeding and she didn't dare to stop.

But Charlie didn't sympathize with her at all.

She has caused so many people to bankrupt their families, and it is time for her to have a taste of bankruptcy!

However, now she can only taste the feeling of bankruptcy once, which is already very cheap for her!

Chapter 605

While Lian cried bitterly, Charlie asked Mr. Orvel's men to drag Horiyah in front of him.

Horiyah was already trembling with fright at this time, looked at Charlie, and wailed and said, "Charlie, I am your big aunt, you...you don't look at the face of the monk and look at the face of the Buddha, after all, you are Our son-in-law of the Willson family, isn't it? You just spared me this time, what do you think?"

Charlie laughed and said, "Don't talk to me about this useless thing. Let me talk about it first, how much money do you have now?"

Horiyah's heart tightened, and she blurted out: "I have no money...I really have no money!"

Charlie said coldly: "I give you an opportunity to take the initiative to explain, you must grasp it well, otherwise, Lian is your role model."

Horiyah shook her whole body. She was horrified, but she also kept her eyes on her mind. She hurriedly said, "I...I have five million. This is our family's wealth... "

Charlie nodded and said, "Okay, open your mobile banking and let me see the balance."

Horiyah panicked and said, "I...I don't have a mobile bank!"

"Really?" Charlie said coldly: "If you let me find mobile banking installed in your phone, be careful that I break your leg."

Horiyah shuddered in shock, and hurriedly said: "I will show you, I will show you..."

After speaking, she hurriedly took out her mobile phone and opened the mobile banking.

Seeing the balance, Horiyah panicked.

This card is more than 15 million.

This is the life savings of her and her husband, plus the money that Wendy got from Fredmen to be his lover!

It was not in her hands before, but in the hands of her husband Noah.

However, as soon as the Lady Willson was chasing for the money, Noah hurriedly transferred all the money to her.

She was planning to buy a house with the money.

But the last time she saw the house, she ran into Elaine and was mocked to death by Elaine.

So she dismissed the idea of buying a house, and planned to pit Elaine's money and villa first, and then when she had money, she would buy a set.

However, if Charlie knew that she had 15 million, then he would definitely not leave a penny for her...

Just when she didn't know what to do, Charlie grabbed the phone and looked at it intently, then frowned: "Didn't you say there are only five million?"

Horiyah cried and said, "Charlie, this is the savings of our family of four! The Willson family will be over soon, and the Lady Willson's villa will soon be taken away. We still expect to use the money to buy a house."

Then, she said pitifully, "Harold hasn't married yet, and Wendy hasn't married either. This is the last foundation of our family of four and the Lady Willson..."

Charlie snorted coldly: "What does it have to do with me? Don't say that I didn't give you a way out. You donate these 15 million now. I will spare your life for this matter today. Otherwise, I will let Mr. Orvel pick you directly later, you choose yourself!"

Horiyah glanced at the fierce Orvel, her heart was tense, and she said in fear: "I donate! I donate! Spare my life, and I will donate all the money!"

After that, she immediately used his mobile phone to transfer all her 15 million deposits to Project Hope.

Charlie was only satisfied and said, "Okay, since you are so acquainted, then spare your life."

Horiyah was completely relieved, crying, and asked, "Charlie, can you let me go?"

"Let you go?" Charlie shook his head, and said, "I just said that I would spare you not to die. You can leave without saying anything!"

Chapter 606

"Ah?!" Horiyah said in a panic: "I donated all my 15 million..."

"What about that?" Charlie said coldly, "You were the one who urged the chief to do this today. There is no reason to let Lian be punished by yourself, right?"

"Yes!" Lian blurted out angrily: "She is the real culprit!"

Charlie looked at Horiyah and said with a smile: "Your accomplices all say you are the culprit. Whatever you say you have to follow your old partner and go to the black coal mine to dig for coal and continue to contribute to the Hope Project."

After speaking, Charlie pointed to another woman named Nivia, and said: "And you, the three of you, go to the black coal kiln to work together to make atonement."

Nivia cried in fright, kowtow and said: "I was wronged, I was found by Lian to join in and play mahjong, i am not a culprit!"

Charlie said coldly: "Do you think I would believe you? Don't be silly, and I will spare the other people in your household registration book. Otherwise, you will be like Lian, the whole family will be neat and tidy. Start digging for coal!"

Nivia trembled violently when he heard this. Although he was terrified, he didn't dare to squeak a word.

Charlie immediately said to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, today these little gangsters, including Ron, are counted as one. They will all be sent to work in the black coal kiln, and they will be given the worst accommodation and food. A monthly salary of 2,000, open all year round!"

After that, he sternly said: "These people, who work hard and consciously work overtime, will be given a reasonable salary increase. Those who do not work hard or shirk work will be deducted appropriately. Anyway, each of them, When will they donate 300,000 to the Hope Project by work, and then only let them go!"

Two thousand a month, twenty-four thousand a year, to save 300,000, it takes more than ten years.

Even if it is three thousand a month, thirty six thousand a year, it will take more than eight or nine years to save 300 thousand.

Charlie felt that since this group of people were also part of this gambling game, they would naturally have to atone for those who were ruined by the gambling.

It is also necessary to atone for the children who have gone through all kinds of hardships because of their parents' gambling.

Letting them go to the black coal mine to dig for coal donations is the best punishment for them.

When Orvel heard this, he immediately said, "Okay Mr. Wade, I'll let someone arrange a bus for them!"

Charlie said: "The gang of gangsters inside, break one leg of each before getting into the car, so as to avoid the black coal kiln being disobedient and trying to escape."

Mr. Orvel said immediately: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will break one of their legs first. When they get there, they are tied up with iron chains when they work, eat, go to the bathroom, and even sleep. No one can run away!"

"Good." Charlie nodded with satisfaction.

Horiyah cried at this time and said, "Charlie, you can't let me dig coal for a lifetime...I still have my husband and children to take care of, and my mother-in-law to support..."

Charlie said indifferently: "This is simple, just like these people, when will you save 300,000 donations from work, and then will you regain your freedom?"

Horiyah suddenly collapsed and cried loudly, "Charlie, you can't be so cruel Charlie, you know, we are all a family!"

Charlie asked her back: "Why were you so cruel when you cheated my mother-in-law? Why didn't you think about it, we are a family?"

"Yes!"

Elaine, who had not spoken all the time, shouted angrily at this time: "Horiyah, you b*tch girl with no conscience, you still say you are a family with us?"

Horiyah knelt in front of her, crying and begging: "Sister, thousands of mistakes are all the fault of your sister-in-law, but I am still your sister-in-law after all, so please forgive me this time!"

Elaine kicked her to the ground and yelled: "You have pitted my more than two million deposits. It is not enough. You have to pit my house. It is not enough to pit my son-in-law's house. This is going to drive our family of four to death! Do you still have any conscience or humanity?"

Speaking of this, Elaine suddenly came back to her senses, slapped her thigh, and screamed: "Mom, my money!"

Chapter 607

Elaine just watched these people crying bitterly, and completely forgot that they had won more than two million cash!

Now she suddenly remembered, and blurted out to Charlie: "Hurry up and let them return the money to me! They also took my more than two million!"

The reason why Charlie asked them to donate all their money to Project Hope was to punish them on the one hand and to teach the mother-in-law a lesson.

Are you not greedy?

Are you a gambler?

Don't you think you can make a fortune by playing mahjong?

Now let you lose all your cash, and let you increase your memory!

So Charlie asked the two people pretentiously: "The money you won from my mother-in-law, quickly discuss how to pay it back!"

The two looked at each other, crying and said, "All our money was donated! Even the money we won against her just now has also been donated..."

Charlie turned to look at his mother-in-law, and said helplessly: "Mom, they have no money."

"What are you talking about?!" Elaine suddenly became mad, and rushed to grab Horiyah's hair with one hand and Lian's hair with the other, shaking her arms vigorously, and even pulled the heads of the two violently. Bumped together.

She cursed hysterically: "You two b@stards who have suffered thousands! Give me all my money quickly! Give me back!!!"

Both of them had a lot of hair torn off. They screamed in pain. Horiyah cried aggrievedly: "My sister, forgive me, my sister, all your money has gone to Lian. I haven't beaten you. One hundred thousand, and all of them have been donated..."

Elaine let go of Horiyah, tore at Lian's hair with both hands, and then freed her hands to beat and dig on her face, and soon scratched her face with blood.

"What's the last name, if you don't return the money to me today, I have to peel off the skin on your face! I will ruin your face!"

Lian was so painful that she didn't dare to fight back, she could only cry and begged: "Sister Elaine, Sister Elaine, please spare your life. I really have no money. All my money will be donated at your son-in-law's orders. Yes, that includes winning your money, how can I still have money for you now..."

Elaine was crazy, tearing her mouth and cursing: "I don't care! You pay me back! Give me all my money!"

Lian's mouth was soon torn and bleeding, and the pain made her cry.

Elaine was already crazy at this time. She just wanted to get her money back. All the money in the family was in her account, which was all deceived by this group of people.

Now they just took the house back, nothing else...

Thinking of this, she was even more furious, kicking Lian to the ground with one kick, and riding on her, she drew left and right with blows.

Lian screamed while struggling violently. At this moment, Elaine and Lian were stunned at the same time when they heard a sudden pop in the pocket of their jacket.

After a while, Elaine roared like crazy: "Bangle! My mother's bracelet! My mother's jade bracelet!"

She yelled like crazy, and reached out to Lian's pocket.

Immediately afterwards, she let out a painful ouch, and quickly pulled out her hand, her fingertips being cut and bleeding.

Even so, she took out a small broken jade bracelet from Lian's pocket...

Elaine looked at the broken bracelet and sat on the ground and cried!

Four or five million bracelets!

I am robbed!

The most valuable jewelry of this jadeite is a bracelet. A bracelet with such a good material can sell for four to five million, but once it is broken, you can only make some ring faces or small pendants, which are worthless and may not add up. Sell for two hundred thousand...

Chapter 608

Elaine has collapsed.

Two million gambling debts could not be collected, and four or five million bracelets were still broken. This is a terrible loss!

She immediately turned to look at Nivia, hysterically cursing: "You didn't donate! You pay me back! Give me all your money! Otherwise I will kill you! I will tear you up!"

Nivia knelt on the ground in fright, crying and begging: "Sister, I am a pauper. There is a total deposit of more than 60,000. If you want it, I will transfer it to you..."

Elaine went up and smoked her a few mouths, and said angrily: "I don't believe it! Open your mobile bank and let me see!"

Nivia cried and said, "I really have no money, eldest sister. I have an income of more than two thousand a month. If it weren't for the money, I wouldn't come here to harm people with the evil spirit Lian... ..."

With that said, she opened her mobile bank, which indeed only had 63,000 in it.

Elaine is about to collapse.

What is more than 60,000 for her? !

She has lost more than six million!

At this time, she couldn't help but look at Charlie, and yelled: "You are all to blame! You are all to blame! You Rubbish, you say! Why did you let them donate the money! Why didn't you let them give me the money?!"

Charlie frowned and said lightly: "Mom, I saved your life, this is the most important thing!"

"I pooh!" Elaine jumped angrily: "I don't want you to save my life! I want you to save my money! My money is gone, and I am alive! You give me the money! Give it back! !!"

Charlie looked at her coldly, not too lazy to be familiar with her.

He made her lose money and did it deliberately, in order to teach her a lesson.

Otherwise, next time she will still decide how much trouble will be caused.

It doesn't matter if she died on her own.

She will hurt Claire.

Orvel was also very dissatisfied with Elaine's performance, he instinctively felt wronged for Charlie.

What the f*ck is this mother-in-law? He save her life, is she still so sloppy?

Thinking of this, he shouted sharply: "I warn you, don't think that you are Mr. Wade's mother-in-law, you can be disrespectful to him! If it is too much, I will send you to the black coal kiln with them!"

Elaine was taken aback, her arrogance immediately went down a lot, and she said with an annoyance: "What does our family matter have to do with you?"

After finishing speaking, he pointed to Charlie and said, "Do you know that this guy is a big flicker? You are now being fooled around by him and serving him as a spearman. One day when you come back, you must be the first one. To hack him to death!"

No matter how angry, Orvel stretched out his hand and slapped her, and yelled, "If you dare to provoke my relationship with Mr. Wade, I will kill you!"

Elaine really didn't dare to be arrogant now.

She knew Orvel's methods, if she really annoyed him, how could she manage it?

So she could only take a few steps back, and honestly did not dare to speak any more.

At this time, Orvel came to Charlie, knelt on one knee, and said with a sad expression: "Mr. Wade, I am really wronged for you!"

After he finished speaking, he raised his voice a little, and blurted out: "Why do you want to be the son-in-law of this kind of shrew? Even if you and Mrs. Wade have a deep relationship, there is no need to keep this kind of mother-in-law in the world. , And she has disrespect you over and over again, I should have killed her long ago!"

Chapter 609

When Charlie heard this, he shook his head slightly, and said lightly: "Forget Mr. Orvel, there are some things to learn to accept."

Orvel looked at Elaine bitterly, while the latter was frightened.

At this time, Elaine didn't dare to raise the subject of money anymore, so she could only temporarily feel wronged and distressed in her heart.

At this moment, several cars were parked in the courtyard of the villa, and Issac personally walked in with five sturdy people who were tied up.

Each of these five people were full of fear. As soon as she entered the door and saw Lian, the young man blurted out and asked her: "Mom, what is going on?!"

Lian saw that her husband, son-in-law, daughter, and daughter-in-law were all arrested, and the ghost cried and howled suddenly.

"I'm sorry for you, I'm sorry for you, blame me... you have to suffer with me..."

A man in his fifties hurriedly asked: "Wife, what is going on?!"

Charlie looked at him and said coldly, "Do you know that your wife has been so harmful to others?"

"I...I don't know..." the man said dodgingly.

Charlie had a full view of his reaction and sneered: "Still talking to me? Your wife has been a croupier for decades. What kind of person she is? You don't know what it is!"

After all, he looked at the five people one by one, and then asked: "Which of you are Lian's son and daughter?"

A young man and young woman raised their hands timidly. They still don't know what happened.

Charlie looked at them and sneered: "I heard that you are all high-achieving students from prestigious universities, then do you know, where did your university money come from?"

The two looked at each other, neither dared to speak.

Lian's husband probably realized that something was wrong. It must be his wife who had been caught by someone. So he hurriedly said: "This gentleman, if my wife cheated while playing cards, then you can tell the truth. How much can I pay you?"

Lian cried and said, "Husband, our small 20 million has been donated, and the two million I won today have also been donated!"

"Donated it?!" Lian's husband asked in surprise: "Who did you donate to?"

Charlie said coldly: "Donated it to Project Hope!"

After all, he observed the family and sternly reprimanded: "You vampires who specialize in cheating, don't know how many people have been scammed and how many families have been ruined for so many years! But, you yourself are doing very well. The children have all gone to prestigious universities and become successful people. Don't you have to pay this debt?"

Everyone in Lian's family was frightened.

Charlie continued: "Today, I will send all your family to the black coal kiln in the west of Shanxi to dig coal for labor, and use your blood and sweat to redeem your sins for so many years!"

"Huh?!" all the young people suddenly collapsed.

A man shouted: "I am not from their family, I am just their son-in-law..."

Charlie nodded: "Son-in-law! I heard that you are doing microloans? Tell me, how many young people have you cheated?"

"me....."

Charlie snorted coldly: "From now on, I will listen to you one more nonsense, you don't have to go to the black coal kiln to dig for coal, I will dig a pit and bury you, 10 million years later, let you become coal!"

Another good-looking young woman cried and said, "I'm just their daughter-in-law, and I haven't done anything to hurt anybody!"

Charlie asked back: "I heard that your house runs a black casino?"

Chapter 610

The woman suddenly turned pale and blurted: "I...I haven't participated in casino operations, I just do financial work..."

"Financial work?" Charlie said indifferently: "Financial worker is also an accomplice, there is no need to be washed away, honestly follow to atonement, your family, really is a bunch of sc*m!"

Issac said at this time: "Mr. Wade, I know this woman. Her father's name is Jones Laosi. He runs a black casino nearby. Do you want me to take them all?"

Charlie said: "Check what you have done that hurts the world and reason. If the sin is unforgivable, just kill him."

The woman fell to the ground with fright.

Afterwards, three Toyota Coaster minibuses drove to Tomson. A dozen punks including Ron's legs were broken one by one, ready to be sent to the car.

Charlie said to Elaine at this time: "Mom, let's go."

Elaine's expression was very ugly, she pulled Charlie aside, and whispered: "They took that kind of video of me, you must help me find it out!"

"That kind of video?" Charlie frowned and asked, "What do you mean?"

Elaine said anxiously: "That's the kind of video! They told me to take off my clothes and shoot... You must find the video for me and delete it! Otherwise, in case the video streamed I won't live outside!"

Charlie was stunned for a moment, but didn't expect the mother-in-law to enjoy this treatment.

Shaking his head helplessly, he pulled the Ron over and asked in a cold voice, "Where is the video you made?"

Ron was so scared that he cried and cried, "Mr. Wade I'm confused for a while..."

Charlie said coldly: "Stop talking nonsense, say, where is the video?"

"In my phone!"

"Is it sent out?"

"No, no, absolutely not!"

Charlie nodded, took out the phone from his pocket, handed it to Elaine, and said, "Mom, you find the video and deleted it yourself."

Elaine hurriedly took the phone, found her video in the album, and deleted it completely.

Later, she still felt unsafe, so she just smashed the phone directly.

Afterwards, Elaine said bitterly: "I have to wait for them to get in the car before I leave!"

Charlie shrugged and said, "Okay, I'll let them hurry up, it's getting dark, and I have to go home to cook for Claire."

Seeing a group of people being escorted to three CMBs separately, Elaine was able to resolve her hatred and threw the car keys to Charlie and said, "You drive."

Charlie said goodbye to Issac and Mr. Orvel, drove into the Old Master's BMW, and then drove away from Tomson.

As soon as the car got out of Tomson's first-grade car, Elaine began to cry and said, "Today is really bad! Two million is lost, and only sixty thousand is back! and the jade bracelet... .."

The more Elaine thought about it, the more distressed, and the more she thought about it, the more uncomfortable she was. While crying, she looked at Charlie and scolded angrily: "It's all to blame for this Rubbish! Do you think you are so idle, let them donate money to Project Hope What are you doing?! Why don't you let them pay me all the money?!"

Charlie said indifferently: "Mom, if you take their money, after they disappear, the police will investigate all the details of their life and would get to you in no time. You can't wash it out even if you jump into the Yellow River. Then, Dad and Claire..."

As soon as Elaine heard this, she was shocked and blurted: "You must never tell your father and Claire about this. You hear me?!"

Chapter 611

Elaine also knew that if this incident were to be taken out, she would be regarded as gathering crowds to gamble. Once her husband and daughter knew that she was betting so much outside, they would be extremely angry.

In that way, she may not have a good life.

Although the money is gone now, those people are even more troubled. All of them have been sent to the black coal kiln to dig for coal. Every one of them doesn't even want to get away for more than ten or twenty years.

So in such a comparison, she is not too miserable.

However, the money and bracelet are gone, which is really distressing.

It's good to say that the bracelet is gone. Anyway, she took the fragments, and she can tell the family directly that the bracelet was broken.

But the money is a bit uncomfortable subject.

The family's money was in her own hands. Jacob doesn't have any money himself, and even the hundreds of thousands he earned from reselling antiques were in her own hands.

And she has lost all her family's savings. If this is known by her husband, he will be mad.

Elaine sighed in her heart, and felt very regretful about what happened today.

On the way back, Orvel called Charlie and said, "Mr. Wade, I personally put the convoy on the highway just now, and the convoy has already gone to Jinx. I should have gone there in person to explain you. It's a little better to get things done, but tonight Classic Mansion has something to do. Someone with a big background has booked the diamond box for a banquet, so I have to go over and take a look..."

Having said that, Mr. Orvel said again: "But don't worry, I will fly there tomorrow. It is estimated that their convoy will be there when I arrive in the afternoon."

Charlie gave a hum, and asked curiously, "There is a distinguished guest in Classic Mansion tonight? What is the way?"

Mr. Orvel hurriedly said, "Regnar and his son Roger from the Wu family in Aurous Hill."

Charlie frowned. It has been several days, but the people from Wu's family haven't left yet?

Do they stay in Aurous Hill, trying to find him out?

After all, Wu Qi's psychological suggestion that he must eat sh!t every hour was made by him.

It is estimated that the Wu family also realizes that there must be a hidden story behind this, so they want to find out.

But Charlie wasn't worried, the Wu family was not as powerful as the Wade family.

Besides, with their current strength, even if the Wade family's background is not moved out, the Wu family can't help themselves at all.

If the Wu family insists on pretending to be forceful, then they can't blame him for being rude.

So Charlie said to Orvel: "Okay, you can do your job first."

"OK, Mr. Wade!"

He hung up the phone and the car was almost home.

Elaine said to Charlie, "Bring the car over, and I will drive back by myself. You can go back, lest your father and Claire see us coming back together!"

Charlie nodded indifferently, pulled the car aside, and got out of the car.

Just right, you can also buy a la carte.

When shopping for vegetables, Charlie called the Old Master and asked him if the party in the brilliant club was over.

The Old Master told him that he had just returned home after the party, and he also thanked Charlie, because Charlie had earned him enough face today.

When Charlie went home after buying vegetables, Jacob was sitting in the living room, holding a cup of tea, humming a little song with a happy expression on his face.

Seeing Charlie's return, he immediately smiled and said: "Oh my good son-in-law, you are back!"

Chapter 612

Charlie smiled and called to his father, and then found that Claire and his mother-in-law Elaine were not in the living room, and asked, "Have Claire and Mom come back?"

"Claire didn't come back, your mother is back."

Jacob waved his hand and said, "Your mother went into the house as soon as she came back. She said she was uncomfortable, and she didn't know what happened. Maybe it was because she lost money playing mahjong and felt uncomfortable!"

Charlie nodded, and deliberately asked: "Do you want to go and see? Care about it?"

"I care about my bullsh*t." Jacob curled his lips and said: "She knows playing mahjong all day long, and she is so annoying. If she really loses, there are tens of thousands of people, let her feel uncomfortable. In two days, she knew it had converged!"

Charlie laughed dumbly.

Eight thousand?

You have to multiply by 8,000 on the basis of 8,000!

Today Elaine lost more than 60 million!

When Charlie remembered, he couldn't help sighing that his mother-in-law was really lacking in brains. Several old ladies played mahjong. She could lose more than 60 million. What kind of idiot must she make to make such a mistake?

.....

At this moment, the Willson family villa.

At this moment, Noah, like Jacob, was sitting comfortably in a recliner, sipping tea and humming a small song, waiting for Horiyah's triumphant return.

Noah and Jacob are worthy of being brothers, and the way they celebrate good things is almost the same.

Noah was playing with his mobile phone at this time, and looked at it repeatedly. Horiyah's WeChat was sent an hour ago, his mouth crooked.

It read on WeChat: "My husband, Elaine's savings of more than two million, the house of one or two million that she currently lives in, and her jade bracelet worth four to five million have all been lost to us! That set of Tomson's first-class villa worth 130 million has already been mortgaged to us, and Charlie will send the copy of the house soon! This time we are well rich!"

Noah figured it out. Even if she didn't mention the miscellaneous things, the villa alone could sell for at least 120 million after changing hands. By then, his family would be divided into 40%, and there would be nearly 50 million!

50 million, enough to earn!

At that time, if you add in cash, old house properties, and jade bracelets, you can get a few million more. By that time, more than 50 million will be harvested!

In addition, there are 15 million deposits in the family, which adds up to nearly 70 million!

Even if the Willson family fell, the money would be enough for him to be cool for a long time!

Noah even planned the use of the money.

First, eight million must be given to Mrs. Willson.

Because the Lady Willson urged the 8 million to death in the past two days, Noah said that the money was being redeemed by the fund manager and had to wait two days, and promised that it would be credited to the Willson Group account tomorrow.

His own plan was to wait for Horiyah to finish pitting Elaine before giving the Lady Willson 8 million and sending her away.

As for the remaining money, he decided to hold it tightly, and must not let the Lady Willson know. When the time comes, he will buy a villa first, and when the Willson family goes bankrupt, he will move there.

Thinking of this, Noah felt more happy, and couldn't help but sighed: "Elaine, this stinky lady, dare you to have a villa with yourself? Isn't it cool now? Really deserve it! This money is right. Think of it as paying for your own mental loss!"

For him, he didn't have any psychological burden at all for ruining Elaine's bankruptcy.

This kind of stinky lady just wants to cheat, so much more cheat, cheat, cheat to death!

The best thing is that once this stinky lady has money, she should think of something to cheat all her money and turn her into a long-term money bag!

Chapter 614

After receiving the mobile phone, Mrs. Willson called Horiyah again, but the other side still reminded her that it was turned off.

Old Mrs. Willson said in confusion: "What's the matter? Why is the phone turned off?"

Noah said, "Mom, isn't it normal for the phone to shut down automatically when it is out of power? Besides, it is not convenient to call her again and again when she is outside."

The Old Mrs. Willson threw the phone to him and said angrily: "Just keep trying until you get through!"

Noah was helpless, so he sat in a chair and kept hanging up and calling out.

It lasted more than half an hour, but the phone still prompted shut down.

Noah felt more and more in his heart that things didn't seem to be right...

It stands to reason that Horiyah went out to cheat money with Lian, not outdoors, but indoors. It should be very convenient to charge the phone.

Moreover, he also reminded her before that she should keep in touch at all times when the time comes, and if there is any accident, he can rescue her.

Therefore, it should not shut down.

What exactly is going on?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but sit up straight, his face became serious, and he said to himself: "This is not right..."

Old Mrs. Willson glanced at him and snorted coldly, "Don't act here, what the h*ll is going on!"

Noah suddenly felt a little irritable, and he felt a little uneasy.

So he opened his mouth and said to the Lady Willson: "Mom, don't make trouble with Horiyah. I can't contact Horiyah now. I will find someone else to see if anyone is with her."

After speaking, Noah dialed Lian again.

Like Horiyah's mobile phone, the receiver also indicates that it has been turned off.

Then, Noah dialed Ron and Nivia again, and the result was the same...

Is this not too weird? !

At this time, Noah's heart was completely confused!

He scratched his hair in a panic, the bad premonition in his heart became stronger and stronger.

Old Mrs. Willson saw his state, the more she looked at it, the less he was acting, and she realized that something really happened!

So she hurriedly asked, "What's going on with you? You tell mom the truth!"

Noah shook his head and said, "I don't know what's going on..."

The Old Mrs. Willson asked, "Then what do you look unsettled? Why can't Horiyah contact me yet? What are you hiding from me?"

Noah hesitated for a moment, sighed, and said, "Mom, let me tell you the truth. Actually, Horiyah set up a game for Elaine today, found a senior, and played mahjong with Elaine. The money in her hand and Charlie's villa were both cheated. In this way, when the bank seizes our villa, won't you be able to live in the Tomson first-class product you are thinking of?"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, her eyes lit up and she blurted out with excitement: "Is the villa now in your hands? When can I live in?"

Chapter 615

When the Old Mrs. Willson heard the words Tomson, her eyes straightened.

She has been greedy for Charlie's big villa, dreaming that she can live in it.

She even wanted to die there when she was old.

There are some superstitions and sayings in the folk, such as:

When you are dying, it is best not to die in the hospital, otherwise you will not find your way home.

For another example, you must wear a shroud before you die, otherwise there will be no clothes to wear there.

For example, if you live in a mansion before you die, you will be able to give birth to a wealthy family in your next life and enjoy the glory and wealth.

Therefore, Mrs. Willson also longed that she could live in a top luxury villa like Tomson until she died.

Last time, she directed Harold to rob the villa. As a result, several bodyguards of the Willson family were beaten into dogs, and Harold was beaten terribly alongside.

From then on, although the Lady Willson broke off the idea of grabbing, she still had a greedy heart.

When she heard that Noah and Horiyah were planning to trick that villa into their design, she was excited!

At this time, Harold and Wendy had just returned from outside, and when they entered the villa, they became excited when they heard this.

Harold walked to the front and asked: "Dad, you said that Mom is going to get to Charlie's villa? Did she succeed?"

Wendy was also very excited and asked, "Yes, Dad, did you succeed?"

Noah sighed at this time: "The last WeChat message she sent me said that she had deceived Elaine's cash, the house she lives in, and Charlie's Tomson first-class villa..."

Before Noah could say a word, Mrs. Willson was very excited and smiled: "This is really a great thing, it's really great! So, when the bank comes to seal up this villa, we will be able to move in. Tomson first product is gone from their hands! Hahaha, Elaine, that uncultivated poor ghost shrew, should be cheated! It is best to cheat her to bankrupt her family!"

Noah smiled bitterly: "Mom, even if things are done in the villa, we still have to share it with other people. If you want to keep this villa, it doesn't matter if you want to replenish it. But it doesn't matter. Now the key is Horiyah can't be found anymore! I can't get in touch with her now, and the few people who organized the game with her can't get in touch either. They are all lost!"

"Lost connection?" Old Mrs. Willson was stunned. After a while, she frowned and said: "Noah, wouldn't she run away with the money?"

"Run?" Noah blurted out: "Should not, right? Why is she running?"

Harold also said: "Grandma, Mom can't take the money away, don't worry!"

The Old Mrs. Willson shook her head and said, "Don't say such things now! The Willson family is no longer what it used to be, and Horiyah knows in her heart that it is impossible for the Willson family to return to its original glory. All the money is with her. If she doesn't want to live with you, wouldn't she take money and run away?"

Speaking of this, Mrs. Willson said solemnly: "If she has sold the villa she scammed and exchanged tens of millions of billions in cash, then she will have even more reason to run away. She can go abroad and you'll never find her again!"

Noah said, "Mom, Horiyah has been married to me for so many years. Although sometimes we quarrel and argue, our relationship is still very stable!"

Old Mrs. Willson said coldly: "That's because she has no money! She used to depend on us to live, now? You gave her all the savings, and she has the financial power and no longer need to rely on you!"

With that, Mrs. Willson said again: "Also! She lied got the Charlie's villa today, and her value skyrocketed several times. Now holding tens of millions of assets in her hand, you are not a husband in her eyes. ! It's dragging the oil bottle!"

Noah's expression froze.

Although he didn't want to admit that what Mrs. Willson said was the truth, he still vaguely realized some problems in his heart.

Chapter 616

If Horiyah really got tens of millions in hand, maybe she would really do something like this. After all, this woman and Elaine had a good relationship with each other, and they were both eye-catching and addicted to money.

Now, he, his son, his daughter, and even her own mother have all become oil bottles. Maybe she would really choose to roll all the money and leave!

Thinking of this, Noah's face was uncertain, and said, "I'll call Elaine and ask."

After speaking, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called Elaine.

This time, the call went through quickly.

When Noah heard the call connected, he said quickly: "Elaine, I am your eldest brother..."

When Elaine heard his voice, her teeth tickled with hatred!

This old dog! Horiyah had set up a trick to deceive her, he must know!

Moreover, maybe this old dog is making suggestions behind his back!

Thinking of the extremely heavy losses today, Elaine couldn't wait to greet Noah's 18th generation directly on the phone!

However, when she thought that Horiyah's dog had been sent to the black coal kiln, she could only suppress the anger in her heart and said disdainfully: "Noah, my husband and I have left the Willson family. Why are you calling me now?"

Noah was also annoyed when he heard this, but when he asked her to find out, he couldn't annoy her, so he could only ask angrily, "Elaine, can you count me wrong?"

Elaine snorted and said, "Let's talk about it, what can you do with me?"

Noah hurriedly asked: "Elaine, have you seen Horiyah today?"

Elaine immediately denied, "No, since I was in Shehlain's villa last time, I have never seen my sister-in-law again. What's wrong?"

"No?!" Noah cursed inwardly, didn't this stinky lady show that she was lying?

Today, Horiyah has been broadcasting to him live on WeChat, reporting to him downstairs at the house, reporting to him in her BMW car, and reporting to him when playing mahjong with her.

Even, she has reported to him how much money and things she won with her. She is telling him that she didn't see her?

Although Noah was very angry in his heart, he could only hold back his anger and said, "When Horiyah went out today, she said she was going to play mahjong with you. Have you really not seen her?"

Elaine felt a little guilty. After all, the three people who played mahjong with her today, even the same gang of gangsters, were sent to dig coal. If they let their family know that they are related to him, they might get revenge on him. If they call the police, she can't argue with it!

Therefore, she can only deny it to the end!

So she impatiently said to Noah: "You are really interesting, I have not seen her, can I not count it in my heart? I have never seen her before!"

Noah didn't care if he would be exposed, and said quickly, "Elaine, don't hang up. Tell me the truth, did you see her? Where did she go? In the afternoon, she sent me a WeChat message. Now, she said she played cards with you, and she also said that she won your son-in-law Charlie's villa at the first grade of Tomson. How could you never meet her?"

Elaine hurriedly said, "Noah, it's interesting for you to talk. When did my villa went to her? Besides, I said that I haven't seen Horiyah before! I'm not too late to bother. How could it be possible to play cards with her!"

Speaking of this, she also guessed in her heart that Noah must be behind the scenes.

So she gritted her teeth and said: "Noah, your wife, maybe she ran away or eloped with someone, deliberately playing mahjong with me as a pretense! I heard that she had packed one in KTV before. Tender ducks about the size of your sea dragon, the two of them kept saying they would save money and fly!"

Chapter 617

When Noah heard these words, he immediately yelled: "Elaine, you're not f*cking here!"

Elaine was also anxious, and blurted out: "Oh, don't you believe it? Okay, let me tell you, if you can find Horiyah, I will lose!"

Noah blurted out and asked, "What do you mean?"

Elaine scolded: "Try to figure out what you mean, I'm upset now, I don't bother to tell you!"

After speaking, Elaine immediately hung up the phone.

Listening to the busy tone on the phone, Noah almost dropped the phone with anger.

It was Harold who stopped him in time and blurted out: "Dad, don't be impulsive. The top priority now is to get Mom back first!"

Harold didn't know that his mother had been sent to the ditch of Jinx. With the Willson family's ability, it would be impossible to find her in this life.

At this time, Wendy on the side also persuaded: "Yes, Dad! What are you angry about! What did that stinky lady Elaine say?"

Noah said angrily: "Elaine said that your mother wrapped up a little white face and ran away with him!"

"Ah?!" Harold, Wendy and Old Mrs. Willson all looked shocked!

"Bring a little white face?!" Old Mrs. Willson shouted angrily: "Is this true?"

"I don't know, mother!" Noah was anxious and angry, blurting out: "Elaine said so on the phone, and said that Horiyah just verbally lied to me that she was setting up a situation for her and cheating her to lose money. She set me up, let me take it lightly, and then fight for time and opportunity to elope!"

Harold blurted out: "The dog spit out blood! How could my mother keep a little white face!"

Noah's expression was a little weird, and he said coldly, "Who can say this well? Now I think about it, your mother is indeed a bit suspicious in doing things!"

"What?" Harold and Wendy hurriedly asked, "Why is Mom suspicious?"

Noah said with a gloomy face: "Your grandma has been asking me to pay 8 million to the family. Your mother was not willing to pay, so she proposed to transfer the money to her first, and then I told your grandma that the money is being redeemed by the financial manager. That's why I transferred all the 15 million in my account to her!"

Old Mrs. Willson glared in anger, slapped Noah's face directly, and scolded angrily: "Didn't you tell me that you only have ten million?!"

Noah was in a rush just now, so he told the truth all at once. Now he was slapped in the face. He was aggrieved and angry. He blurted out, "Mom! Didn't you estimate that I had ten million? It wasn't me who said it!"

Old Mrs. Willson cursed: "Then why don't you tell me the truth?! I'm your mother! Why don't you give me an answer and tell me how much money you have?!"

Noah was speechless.

After all, it was indeed that he had concealed the amount of his own funds. There was no quibble about this.

Old Mrs. Willson was very angry, and said coldly: "I always thought you were different from your brother. I thought you were better than your brother. I thought you were better than your brother, and more insightful! But I didn't expect you. Even you dare to lie!"

With that said, Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth and said: "You now know what is smart but you were mistaken by smartness? You didn't tell your mother, but instead gave the money to your wife. Now it's fine. Now, we'll are done!"

Wendy bit her lip and said, "Grandma, my mother is not like that!"

Old Mrs. Willson sneered: "Isn't that kind of person? What about your mother? Where did she go? Why did she disappear at this time?"

After that, the Old Mrs. Willson asked aggressively: "Also, your mother kept saying that if you find someone to do the game, Elaine, why are all the people who did the game with her disappear? Only Elaine is fine? This proves that there is a lot of strangeness in this matter!"

Harold blurted out, "Could it be Elaine who did it? Could it be that she, in turn, cleaned up my mother and the other people who did the game for her?"

The Old Mrs. Willson said disgustedly: "Elaine? She is a btch, how can she have this kind of ability? Just your second uncle's idiot wife. She will be calculated by hers like a btch! Your mother's character, I won't comment on it, just smart The strength is ten times that of Elaine. If she really wants to play Elaine, then Elaine can only be played!"

Chapter 618

Noah's expression is uncertain, and he is also highly suspicious now that his wife ran away with the money!

Except for this explanation, nothing else can be explained!

Four people can't just disappear from the world, right?

When the world has evaporated, there should be some shadows and clues left?

Combined with Horiyah's 15 million cash in hand, he even felt that Horiyah might be sentenced to himself.

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said, "No, I have to go to Elaine and ask in person!"

The Old Mrs. Willson angrily hit Noah with a cane on the back and cursed: "Go and ask her the question, and then find me the stinky lady Horiyah! Even if you can't find her, you have to Get the 15 million back for me. If you can't find the money, don't do it! Just assume I never gave birth to you!"

Noah nodded and said, "Well, I'll go now!"

Old Mrs. Willson suddenly said, "Don't worry! I'll go with you!"

Noah collapsed and said, "Mom, what are you going to do! Don't make trouble with it!"

"I add chaos?!" Old Mrs. Willson scolded angrily: "You have lost all the money, and now you say I add chaos? I tell you, I must go this time! If you don't solve this matter for me, I I will live at Jacob's house from now on, and I will sever the mother-child relationship with you!"

Noah couldn't tell the hardship, so he nodded and said, "Oh, let's go together!"

The two of them were very anxious, they went out for a taxi, and went straight to Elaine's house.

Charlie and his father-in-law were sitting on the sofa watching TV, while the mother-in-law Elaine was alone in the room, wrapped her head in the bed and weeping, still distressing over two million cash and the broken jade bracelet .

At this time, suddenly there was a bang on the door.

Charlie stood up and opened the door, and found the Old Mrs. Willson and Noah standing at the door, frowning and asking, "What are you doing here?"

The Old Mrs. Willson was so angry when she saw Charlie, she cursed angrily: "You Rubbish, get out of my way and let Elaine come out!"

Charlie frowned and said coldly: "Lady Willson, our family has severed relationship with you, you are not welcome here!"

"What are you talking about?!" Old Mrs. Willson cursed angrily: "Who gave you the order? How dare you be disrespectful to me?!"

Charlie said coldly: "Do you think you were the former Patriarch of the Willson family? Wherever you go, you are a domineering spirit? Tell you, you are not welcome here, hurry up and leave!"

After speaking, Charlie had to close the door.

Jacob heard the movement at this time and ran over.

Seeing the two people at the door, he couldn't help frowning and asked: "What are you doing here?"

The Old Mrs. Willson coldly snorted, and asked with sheer majesty: "Jacob! Do you still see me as your mother in your eyes?"

Jacob was taken aback and said, "You want to sever the relationship with me. You should ask yourself if you have me as son in your eyes."

Mrs. Willson's expression was very ugly, and she blurted out: "Blood is thicker than water! I am your mother at all times!"

Jacob has been wronged by the Lady Willson for so many years. It is long enough. He said angrily: "When you are bored with me, you will cut off your relationship with me. Whenever you need me, it will always be my mother? I'm sorry, such a mother. I don't want either!"

After speaking, Jacob turned his head and went back to the room.

Charlie looked at Mrs. Willson and Noah, smiled slightly, and said, "You have heard what my father-in-law said, please go back!"

Chapter 619

Old Mrs. Willson did not expect that Jacob, who has always been cowardly, would have a temper in front of her!

She can't help but feel angry and hate!

For decades, she had been using her majesty to crush Jacob to death, and Jacob had never been able to resist, or even refuted.

Even if she drove him out of the Willson family, he was afraid to let go.

Unexpectedly, he dared to say this to her today!

Are the wings really hard? !

How dare to say that a mother like her, he doesn't want this kind of rebellious remarks!

It really turned him back!

Just when she was furious and wanted to attack on the spot, so as to protect her dignity and majesty.

Noah on the side had already put down his body and said to Charlie: "Charlie, we are not here to cause trouble today. I have something to find out from your mother-in-law Elaine. So, you can let her come out quickly. I am in a hurry. Ask her about things!"

Charlie naturally knew that Noah must have come to ask about Horiyah.

It is a pity that Noah could not have imagined that Horiyah and Lian's group had been secretly sent to Jinx. Therefore, to him, Horiyah must be like the world has evaporated.

So Charlie said to Noah: "If you have anything you can tell me, I will tell her."

Noah hurriedly said: "My wife is lost!"

Charlie pretended to be surprised and asked, "You lost wife? Why did you lose her?"

Noah was very upset at Charlie's verbal questioning, but still suppressed his temper, and said, "I just can't find her, so I can't get in touch anymore. Before she lost contact, she saw your mother-in-law last time, so I came to ask."

Charlie smiled and said, "This kind of thing can actually be understood without asking."

Noah blurted out and asked, "What do you mean?"

Charlie said: "I meant it is very simple, I just think your wife should have run away."

As he said, Charlie shook his fingers and said: "Look at you now, one has no money, two has no power, and three has no nobles to help. It seems that the Willson family will soon be bankrupt and liquidated, and your villa will go out of your hands. You have to take it away from the bank? Aunt has never suffered in her life, she can't live with you in low-rent housing, right?"

Noah gritted his teeth and said, "This matter has nothing to do with you. You'd better not talk too much!"

Jacob, Charlie's father-in-law, walked over at this time and said seriously: "Big Brother, I think Charlie's words are very reasonable. The Willson family is now a bottomless pit. If I'm a sister-in-law, I won't live with you anymore. After I have passed you, I will take away all your money and go out and start a new life!"

"You..." Noah didn't expect that, Jacob immediately poked the piece in his heart that he feared the most, and suddenly cursed angrily: "Jacob, don't guess my wife here! If it doesn't depend on you For my brother's sake, I've already taught you a lesson!"

As soon as Noah's voice fell, Charlie slapped his face directly, and he slapped his eyes with gold stars.

Before he came back to his senses, Charlie said coldly: "Noah, you dare to be so presumptuous at the door of my house, forgetting the fate of your son and the Willsons family?"

Noah was slapped in the face, and he was honest in an instant.

He knows, don't say what he wants now.

Chapter 620

Even if he was still the former Noah, Charlie couldn't help it.

This guy didn't know where he learned martial arts. Several bodyguards of the Willson family were beaten up by him, let alone himself?

Thinking of this, Noah held back the anger in his heart and said to Jacob, "Jacob, it was my fault just now. I apologize to you, but I should trouble you to call out your younger brother and sister. I want to ask her something."

Jacob was so refreshed at this time, he couldn't wait to hug his baby son-in-law Charlie and kiss him.

What a relief!

He was making Noah feel uncomfortable. He slapped him straight away. It was awesome!

Jacob felt very happy, and said to Noah, "Big brother, I ask you, did you and sister-in-law want to buy a villa two days ago?"

Noah asked subconsciously: "How did you know?"

Jacob blurted out: "Elaine told me that she was playing mahjong at her friend's house. She happened to see you and sister-in-law going to visit her friend's house, so she told me."

Noah nodded and said, "I did read it, but what does it have to do with today's affairs?"

As soon as he finished speaking, the Lady Willson on the side frowned and asked: "What's the matter? Do you want to buy a villa? Why don't I know?"

Noah was desperate.

Seeing Mrs. Willson's angry face, he could only patiently explain: "Mom, Horiyah and I are afraid that we will have no place to live after the villa is sealed, so we want to see if there is a suitable replacement in advance... .."

"You bullsh*t!" Mrs. Willson cursed angrily: "If you don't want to take this money out to help me in the emergency, my villa will be taken back! It's fine if you don't help me, and even go to see the villa behind my back ?!"

Noah's expression is extremely embarrassed, it seems that this matter will not be resolved...

Old Mrs. Willson was furious, she slapped him with her feet, and cursed: "You are not a dog with eyes! If you don't believe in your own mother, believe in an outsider! Now it's all right! Fifteen million hits. The water is drifting! You are trying to drive us all to death!"

When Jacob heard that his elder brother Noah turned out to be 15 million, he felt sore.

He has been following the Willson family for so many years, and continue to be more than 1 million. Later, he made some antiques and earned some more. His daughter gave him some more. The family barely had more than 2 million.

Unexpectedly, Noah would have 15 million himself!

Thinking of this, he said sourly: "No wonder elder brother! You must have put 15 million in sister-in-law's hands, right?"

Noah said with a sullen expression: "It has nothing to do with you!"

Jacob sighed and said, "Big Brother, you gave so much money to Sister-in-law, even if Sister-in-law doesn't want to cheat, those young men who dream every day and expect rich old aunts to save them will not let them go!"

Noah frowned and asked, "What do you mean by this?"

Jacob looked at him and said in surprise: "Do you usually use your mobile phone to access the Internet? There are many cases of this kind on the Internet! Some young men seduce rich old women like sister-in-law, and when the time comes, they say something to the old aunt Auntie, I don't want to work hard anymore. The rich old aunt immediately gives money to buy a car or the house, take him up, and even elope with him!"

Speaking of this, Jacob said regretfully: "Fifteen million! I don't know how many young men chase after sister-in-law to please her, I'm afraid that the sister-in-law will not be able to pick it!"

Chapter 621

Noah was trembling with anger!

Auntie, I don't want to work hard on such a stalk, he can occasionally see it on various headline consultations on his mobile phone.

At that time, he even had a crooked mind, thinking that in the future, if he has money and meets a young and beautiful girl, telling himself that uncle I don't want to work hard, then he can also send her an address directly and let her Just come to him...

Of course, this was only in the obsession that existed in his mind. He had never had the courage and the strength to make it a reality.

But now, when he heard Jacob talk about his wife like this, he didn't know what was going on, that kind of imagery suddenly became very strong!

He even thought of a scene of a young man sitting in his wife's arms and calling her aunt flatly...

Noah worked for a while, feeling that he didn't know how many green hats were on his head, and he was extremely angry.

At this moment, he was anxious and angry. He gritted his teeth and cursed: "Jacob, what qualifications do you have to laugh at my wife? Your wife is not a good thing! Fortunately, you have no money. If you have money, just like Elaine Good thing, she would have already been out with ten little white faces!"

At this moment, Jacob's bedroom door opened, and Elaine ran out angrily, pointing to Noah's nose and cursing: "Noah, your own wife ran away, why did you come to our house and dare to ridicule the Lady Willson? You don't see what you are!"

Seeing Elaine finally came out, Noah asked sharply: "Elaine! Have you seen Horiyah?!"

Elaine scolded: "I said I haven't seen her before, but I haven't seen her. Why are you with such nonsense? I tell you, Horiyah was out with a little white face, rolled money and ran away, do you believe it or not!"

Noah gritted his teeth and cursed: "You said she has a little white face, what evidence do you have?"

Elaine said coldly: "Your wife and money are missing, what evidence do you need? You don't want to find evidence by yourself? What are you looking for in my house?"

Noah was about to suffer from a heart attack, and Mrs. Willson said coldly from the side at this time: "Okay, let's go home! Don't be embarrassed here!"

Noah pointed at Elaine bitterly, and cursed: "Screw, you f*cking wait for me! Sooner or later I will clean you up!"

Elaine spit on him and said angrily: "You are so poor that you can't even afford to eat, and you want to clean me up? Sooner or later you will starve to death, you b@stard!"

After all, Elaine closed the door directly.

Noah exploded dryly, but he didn't dare to continue entanglement, for fear that Charlie would beat him up again in a rage, so he could only leave with the Lady Willson in a dingy manner.

At the gate of the community, the Old Mrs. Willson said to Noah with a dark face: "Give you three days and find Horiyah for me. If you can't find her, bring the money back to me. Otherwise, you don't need this house. I'm back!"

After speaking, the Lady Willson ran away angrily.

Noah almost collapsed.

The world is so big, where can he find Horiyah? !

It seems that the only way to go is to see Horiyah's family.

After scolding Noah away, Elaine's always extremely depressed mood was a little better.

Jacob didn't know what happened today. He thought that Horiyah really took the money and ran away. He gloated and said, "Haha, my eldest brother is really clever and confused for a while. He didn't even think that he would catch fire in the backyard. , he really laughed at me, hahahaha!"

Charlie glanced at Elaine, but she didn't expect this mother-in-law to be on the road. She denied seeing Horiyah with Noah's life and death. She had to blame Horiyah for having an affair and ran away with money, so she immediately took Noah to do it. His attention shifted to other places.

Elaine looked at Charlie bitterly, and couldn't wait to eat him raw!

Blamed this waste. Lian and Horiyah donated all the money she lost. Now that she has lost all the money in the family, she doesn't know how to hide it from Jacob!

Chapter 622

At this time, Jacob said happily: "By the way, my wife, give me 20,000, and I have a dinner tomorrow."

"A treat for dinner?" Elaine suddenly became nervous, and blurted out: "Dinner for 20,000?!"

Jacob couldn't help but said with joy: "I joined our Aurous Hill Calligraphy and Painting Association some time ago. Now there is a vacancy for a standing director in the association. I want to fight for it! So I want to invite the chairman and other executives. The directors have a meal together to bring the relationship closer."

After that, Jacob said with a smug look: "If I can take the position of executive director, then I will be a celebrity in the Aurous Hill antique circle in the future!"

Elaine hurriedly scolded: "Are you going crazy? A treat for dinner costs 20,000? You run the money printing machine at home? I tell you, I won't agree!"

Jacob hurriedly said: "Oh, my wife, don't you want to climb up too! As a standing director, I will have more opportunities to get in touch with antique calligraphy and painting in the future, and there will be more opportunities to pick up the leaks. You are not the skill I missed. Haven't you seen it before, I made hundreds of thousands in one hand!"

Elaine was very guilty and said, "That's not okay to spend 20,000 on a dinner party! Do you really think that the wind blows at home?"

Jacob said angrily: "I spent this money, and I will definitely earn it back in the future! The big deal, can I still borrow yours?"

Elaine said contemptuously: "Who doesn't know your level of stinking, even if you are a standing director, what can you do? I think you are about the same as Charlie a liar!"

Jacob was immediately anxious: "You Lady Willson, why do you look down on me so much?"

Elaine snorted: "I just look down on you, what's the matter? Tell you, you want money, no!"

After speaking, she turned around and went back to the room pretending to be angry.

Jacob was very depressed.

What the h*ll are you doing, stinky girl?

Don't give me 20,000?

I made a lot of money anyhow!

He was about to go to the room to find Elaine for the theory. Charlie hurriedly stopped him and said with a smile: "Dad, since Mom doesn't want to give you money, it's useless for you to chase after her."

Jacob said angrily, "But I have already greeted them, and I want to invite them to dinner! I only have one thousand in my pocket, which is not enough for a treat!"

As he said, Jacob said again: "Our president said, I have a great chance to be the standing director, and it depends on whether I can perform well!"

When Charlie heard this, his heart suddenly felt helpless.

father-in-law, who knows no antique calligraphy and painting, is exactly a half-blind among the blind. He has been cheated so many times and lost a lot of money. In the end, he made a fortune by cheating on Ervin Jones.

It is said that Ervin Jones now hides from him every day, does not answer his phone calls, does not answer his WeChat, and sees him in Antique Street, even if he doesn't want the stall, he will run away.

People like him are mixed in the Association of Calligraphy and Painting, which is just a way of filling the numbers.

However, Charlie naturally wouldn't say such things, so he said to Jacob: "Dad, I still have some private money. Let me transfer 20,000 to your WeChat."

When Jacob heard this, he immediately said with excitement: "Oh my good son-in-law! You really helped Dad a great favor!"

Charlie sighed, transferred 20,000 to him, and said, "Claire is coming back soon. I will cook."

Jacob received the money and hurriedly said flatteringly: "Good son-in-law, I'll help you wash rice!"

Chapter 623

While Charlie was busy cooking, Regnar and Roger, and his son also left the Willson family and drove to Classic Mansion.

Tonight, Regnar hosted a banquet in Classic Mansion and invited some of the most prestigious people in Aurous Hill. On the one hand, he wanted to find clues to the sudden change of his younger son Wu Qi, and on the other hand, to let the Wu family lay a little foundation in Aurous Hill.

Although the Wu family is the first family in Aurous Hill, it does not mean that they have sufficient control over the entire Aurous Hill.

The Wu family's base camp is in Suzhou, so they have extraordinary control in the Suzhou area, but Aurous Hill is the Song family's base camp, so the Wu family's influence in Aurous Hill is far worse than the Song family.

Originally, the major families in Aurous Hill each had their own spheres of influence, and everyone maintained such a tacit understanding and respect for each other, and no one would expand their strength within the sphere of influence of the other side.

Regnar didn't want to go deep in Aurous Hill, but the key is now that his eldest son Roger wants to marry Warnia from the Song family. In order to achieve this goal, Roger will stay in Aurous Hill for a long time in the future, so he prepared to fight with Aurous Hill families first. A greeting can also bring enough convenience to Roger in Aurous Hill in the future.

Roger has been a bit irritable for the past two days, first of all, because the last time Regnar and Mr. Song mentioned the marriage, Mr. Song directly refused, making Roger feel very shameless.

In addition, Roger is even more troubled by Warnia's attitude.

In the past few days that he and her father lived in Song's house, Warnia went out early and returned late every day!

In the past, he heard from Honor that Warnia used to eat breakfast at home before going out, and then went home early in the evening to accompany her father to dinner.

But now, Warnia doesn't even eat breakfast every day and drives away straight out of her room in the morning.

In the evening, after she had eaten outside, comes back very late, and goes directly back to the room, basically not giving Roger a chance to meet.

This made him depressed.

He really didn't expect Warnia to look down on him a little bit, unwilling to marry him, why is she acting like this?

In the car, Regnar also noticed that his son's condition was not right, so he said: "You, you have to be more patient in everything. For a girl like Warnia, the whole Aurous Hill may not be able to find the second one. If you want to get your hands on her, it must take some energy and think."

Roger was angry and said, "Dad, there is no other young man in Aurous Hill who is better than me, right? I can match her, why does she not know how to praise?"

Regnar said indifferently: "You don't understand, girls from big families are always more popular than boys from big families."

Then, he said: "A woman like Warnia, even among Eastcliff's first-class and top families, would want to marry her in, because she is not only beautiful and capable, but the family strength is not weak, both inside and outside. It's all very good. Not only does it save face when married, it can also play a very important role in the family, and even brings a generous dowry."

"However, if you want to marry a girl from a Eastcliff first-class family or a top-class family, it will be as difficult as the sky. It is difficult for them to look at you. This is because when they look at you, they don't just look at you, but It is the strength of the entire Wu family."

"In layman's terms, in the upper class, if a woman's comprehensive strength reaches 70 points, then she can marry a man with a comprehensive strength of 80 points; but a man whose comprehensive strength reaches 70 points is difficult to marry a comprehensive strength of 70 points woman."

Roger was a little angry, but blurted out: "Then what do you mean, I am looking for Warnia or am I climbing?"

Regnar said indifferently: "Although you may not like to listen to the truth, it is basically the same as this. Warnia will definitely find a better man than you, but it is difficult for you to find a better woman than Warnia."

Roger was stunned. At first he was a little unconvinced. After thinking about it, he felt that what Dad said was right.

Warnia is indeed the woman with the highest overall score he has ever met.

As for the daughters of those big families in Eastcliff, even if the family is richer than the Song family, it is difficult to have the appearance and temperament of Warnia.

Chapter 624

Moreover, even if they can value themselves, their family may not be able to value themselves.

Regnar sighed at this time and said, "The news from home is that your brother's condition is not very optimistic."

"What's wrong?" Roger hurriedly asked: "The situation has deteriorated again?"

"That's not true." Regnar said: "It's still the same as before. He has to eat every hour, but your brother's own emotions are a little broken. When it happened before, if he was not allowed to eat, he would commit suicide. Now it's for him to eat. After he finishes eating and regains consciousness, he wants to commit suicide. It feels too painful to live like this."

After speaking, he sighed, and he didn't know who Wu Qi' had provoked, and became what he is now.

Roger gritted his teeth and said, "If I were to catch the man who harmed my brother, I must let him die without a burial place!"

in fact.

Although Roger said so, what he desires most now is not to avenge or cure his younger brother, but to quickly take down Warnia.

As for the situation of his younger brother Wu Qi, he doesn't really care.

On the contrary, he felt that the way his brother was now, it was the best result for himself.

Because of this, he will lose an absolute competitor in the future.

Wu Qi is like this now. If he is not cured, he will never inherit any of the family's assets. The only end is to be locked up in the family in the snow and hidden in the family, giving him his life.

In this way, he has the opportunity to inherit the Wu family alone.

Regnar sighed again at this time and said, "You don't have to worry about your brother's affairs. I'll check this line, and you will pursue Warnia with all your strength. You must catch Warnia. Do you understand?"

Roger nodded hurriedly: "I understand Dad!"

Regnar gave a hum, and said: "Today I set up a bureau in Classic Mansion. Among the people I invited, there are the heads of the White family, the Qin family, the Liu family, the Zhao family, and the Kevin family. They have been in Aurous Hill for many years. Each has its own merits in family, strength, connections and resources."

"And Mr. Orvel, the owner of Classic Mansion, was also invited today. He is the boss of Aurous Hill's underground world. Although he can't get on the table, he has the most eyeliner. Most things in Aurous Hill can't escape his eyes, so you have to keep in touch with them today. It will be of great use to your pursuit of Warnia in the future."

Roger only knew about the White Family and the Qin Family, and knew that their Patriarchs were Solmon White and Qin Gang respectively. He knew their influence, but he didn't know much about the other families, so he asked: "Dad, except for the White Family and Qin Family, the rest What are the origins of the Liu family, Zhao family, and Kevin family?"

Regnar jokingly said: "The Zhao family and the Kevin family are ordinary real estate families. There is nothing too awesome about it, but this Liu family is a bit interesting. Their family is a financial company, and they are all illegal. Routine loans belong to the category of loan sharks. They have just risen in the past two years, and they have also raised a large number of gangsters who are collecting debts.

Roger was surprised and said: "Then he is of the same nature as Mr. Orvel?"

"The nature is similar." Regnar nodded and said: "But his strength is much worse than Mr. Orvel. Mr. Orvel has many younger brothers in Aurous Hill, dozens of times more than Liu Guang's collection team, so Liu Guang even hates Mr. Orvel. And dare not do anything to him."

"Liu Guang hates Mr. Orvel?" Roger asked in surprise, "Is there a contradiction between them?"

Regnar smiled and said, "The contradiction has increased. Liu Guang has an only child named Liu Ming. Some time ago, I didn't know how, he offend Mr. Orvel. He was knifed by Mr. Orvel and carved the two characters on his forehead."

"What word?"

"Poor hanging!"

Chapter 625

"f*ck!"

Roger exclaimed when he heard this, and blurted out: "Mr. Orvel actually used a knife to carve the words "Poor Hang" on the forehead of Liu Guang's only son? It is not an exaggeration to say that this is a deadly vengeance!"

"Yes." Regnar smiled slightly and said: "I guess that Liu Guang and his son wanted to kill Mr. Orvel in their dreams. Eat his meat!"

When Roger heard this, he couldn't help asking: "Dad, since you know that Liu Guang and Mr. Orvel have an antagonism, why do you invite this Liu Guang over to the dinner?"

Regnar smiled and said, "Don't you think Liu Guang is a good use object? A dog who wants to bite but dare not open his mouth. What he lacks most is a dog that can support him and let him open his mouth and bite with confidence. the host."

Roger said, "Dad if you want to take advantage of Liu Guang, why set the dinner in Classic Mansion? He and Mr. Orvel are like fire and water, isn't it difficult?"

Regnar looked at Roger with deep eyes and said, "Liu Guang and Mr. Orvel are both dogs. The only difference is that Liu Guang is a stray dog without an owner, while Mr. Orvel is a dog of the Song family."

Roger nodded and asked, "What then? Dad, what's the meaning of this?"

Regnar said: "If you want to marry Warnia in the future, you must have your own power in Aurous Hill. Now these Aurous Hill families are very polite to us, but they do not regard us as masters, but the Song family as masters. Therefore, We must develop our own forces in Aurous Hill."

After that, Regnar said again: "There are two kinds of forces, one is on the ground, the other is underground, and on the ground, these are the serious business families other than the Liu family and Mr. Orvel, and the underground. If we can't subdue Mr. Orvel, we must train a dog that can fight against Mr. Orvel. Therefore, Liu's family is the best choice."

Regnar looked at Roger and seriously warned: "If you want to inherit the Wu family in the future, you must be skilled in strategy. Why should I invite Liu Guang to dinner at Classic Mansion?"

"On the one hand, we want to make Liu Guang feel pleasantly surprised. He is a stray dog like one who has no owner. He finally has the opportunity to eat with a big man like me."

"On the other hand, I want to make Liu Guang feel humiliated. The humiliation is that a stray dog like him who has no owner can only swallow his anger when facing his mortal enemy Mr. Orvel. Only when he is humiliated will it be doubled. His desire for revenge! At that time, I will be merciful, give Liu Guang a chance, let him be my son, and give him a chance to revenge. He will definitely be grateful to me and go all out to deal with Orvel."

"If Mr. Orvel falls, then he is the underground emperor of Aurous Hill. Then, the underground world of Aurous Hill will be the power of our Wu family, understand?"

After listening to this, Roger suddenly realized!

He was excited and said: "Dad, this trick of you is really wonderful! In this case, Liu Guang will definitely treat you and our Wu family! We want to enter Aurous Hill in the future. Liu Guang is our vanguard and bridgehead!"

Regnar praised: "Yes, only in this way will Aurous Hill become the unbreakable hinterland of the Wu family in the future."

Roger admired his father's strategy in his heart, and sighed: "I don't know when I will have a tenth of you, father..."

Regnar smiled slightly and said: "Your current style of behavior is quite similar to that of mine. What you have to do now is to accumulate more, settle more, think more, and don't be impulsive in everything, you must slowly figure it out!"

Roger said, "Dad, I understand!"

"Yeah." Regnar nodded in satisfaction and said: "So if you return to Warnia, you must have enough patience, be steady, and let me get Warnia through like an eagle!"

Roger looked stunned, and immediately said respectfully: "Dad, I know! I will definitely not disappoint your expectations!"

When the voice fell to the ground, the car also arrived at the gate of Classic Mansion.

Chapter 626

Before the car stopped, Roger looked up and saw that outside the car window, a middle-aged man hurriedly greeted him, and through the car window, he respectfully saluted his father and himself.

Regnar nodded at him, and said to Roger, "This is the Liu Guang I was talking about."

Roger suddenly realized.

When the car stopped, Liu Guang hurriedly reached out to help Regnar open the car door, and said with a smile: "Liu Guang has met Mr. Regnar, Mr. Roger..."

Regnar gave a hum, and said lightly: "You came quite early."

Liu Guang hurriedly said: "I never expected you to invite me to a banquet, so I was afraid that I would be late."

Originally, Liu Guang was unwilling to come to Classic Mansion in his entire life.

Because Orvel not only engraved the word "poor hanging" on his son's head but also asked his son to come to Classic Mansion every Friday to find him for routine reports and ask him to check the forehead for any problems, saying that if the scar is shallow If you do, you have the will reengrave it.

This kind of humiliation made Liu Guang hate Orvel, so he was not willing to come to Orvel's site.

But this time it was really different.

He never dreamed that Regnar, a big figure in the Wu family, would take the initiative to call him, saying that he was going to set up a dinner party at Classic Mansion, and he was the object of the dinner.

This is Regnar of Aurous Hill First Family!

It can be said to be the thickest leg in the whole Aurous Hill!

Liu Guang was worried that he couldn't hold his thighs, and when he suddenly received Regnar's invitation, he was naturally 10,000 excited.

Moreover, Liu Guang is eager to be able to establish a relationship with the Wu family through this dinner, and it is best to become the dog of this family. In this way, he has the opportunity to seek revenge from Mr. Orvel!

Regnar nodded in satisfaction and said: "Liu Guang, your attitude is good, keep it up."

When Liu Guang heard this, he was trembling with excitement, and he quickly bowed to Regnar and said flatly: "Master, it is true that I have always admired the Wu family for a long time, and I have been fascinated by your reputation. If Wu's don't dislike it, can you give me a chance to be in the next saddle? I will do my best for you!"

Regnar glanced at him and felt that this guy was quite on the road.

However, he still had the intention to beat him first, so he said indifferently: "Being a dog for the Wu family, your Liu family is not qualified, but I think your attitude is pretty good. Recently I also need an errand runner in Aurous Hill. Do things for me and I will definitely not treat you badly in the future."

Liu Guang showed ecstasy and kept surrendering his hands, respectfully said: "Thank you, Mr. Regnar, I will do my best to be a cow and a horse for you!"

Regnar hummed, and said to him: "Okay, time is almost up, I guess Mr. Orvel is ready for the banquet, you can come in with me."

Hearing Mr. Regnar's words, Liu Guang showed a bit of resentment on his expression, but he still bowed respectfully and made a gesture of asking Regnar, and said humbly, "Mr. Orvel, please first!"

Chapter 627

Regnar was very satisfied with Liu Guang's attitude, nodded slightly, and walked into Classic Mansion.

In Classic Mansion, Mr. Orvel had already arranged people to prepare the dishes, and the other people who were invited to the banquet had already arrived early and had been waiting for a long time.

Whether it is Mr. Orvel, Qin Gang, and Solmon White, these three have the same attitude towards the Wu family father and son. That is not to flatter, but not offend.

That's why they accepted the invitation of the Wu family and their sons to come to this banquet.

In fact, everyone thinks very clearly, and they have summed up this matter together in private. Everyone's idea is to give the Wu family a face and be polite, but in fact, they still hope to follow Mr. Wade.

As for the others, they all rushed to hug Wu's thighs.

After all, the Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. For many small and medium-sized families, it is like a towering tree full of fruits. Every monkey hopes to be able to hang on this tree.

Therefore, seeing the Wu family father and son entering the diamond box, the people from the other families almost instantly got up to welcome them.

Among them, the Patriarch of the Zhao family took the lead in flattering and said: "Mr. Regnar, you are really a superb, young master Wu is also a talented person, and he deserves to be the largest family in the south of the Yangtze River. This style is different!"

The other Kevin Patriarch also nodded and echoed: "Yes! I haven't seen President Regnar in the report before, but today I saw the true face and found that the true person Wu is more outstanding than the report!"

Regnar gave a faint hum, his expression majestic, and he swept around.

The people sitting here are all famous and surnamed people in Aurous Hill. The Patriarchs of the Zhao family, the Kevin family, and the Liu family are always very respectful to them, and the meaning of flattering is particularly strong.

The three of Solmon White, Qin Gang, and Orvel had calm faces, indifferent expressions, and polite, but they were just ordinary courtesy, and they did not express heartfelt compliments to themselves.

Although Regnar didn't show anything, he still secretly felt unhappy with Solmon White.

Liu Guang followed Regnar like a grandson. As soon as he came in, he saw Orvel in the private room and immediately observed at him with extremely resentful eyes.

In his eyes, Orvel had already forged a feud with himself!

His precious son, being engraved with the word "poor hang" on his forehead, is simply one of the two biggest jokes in Aurous Hill this time.

Another joke is that Wu Qi, the second son of the Wu family, eats sh!t.

However, everyone was afraid of the strength and majesty of the Wu family, and only dared to laugh at this in private, but in contrast, the strength of the Liu family was very average, so the deeds of Liu Guang's son Liu Ming were widely spread in Aurous Hill. Is the chat capital of countless people after dinner.

Just the day before yesterday, Liu Guang was working outside. He occasionally heard two children about ten years old scolding, one scolded the other as a poor hanger, and the other immediately cursed: "Liu Ming is the real poor hanger, I am not!"

When Liu Guang heard this, he gave the kid a slap in the face. The kid who smoked fell to the ground without stopping. The other's father came to him to reason, and his driver and bodyguard slapped him on the ground. Hammered into the hospital.

However, there are too many people mocking Liu Ming in Aurous Hill. Where can they come?

What's more, many people cannot afford to offend Liu Guang at all.

This kind of humiliation gave Liu Guang a heart to kill. Had it not been for Orvel's strength to be much greater than himself, he would have brought his brothers over to chop Mr. Orvel into mashed flesh.

Therefore, when he saw Orvel at this time, he was naturally jealous when his enemies met, and fire burst out from his eyes.

Orvel didn't expect this guy to come, after all, Regnar just told him to set a table for banquets here, but he didn't say who the banquet was.

Chapter 628

However, Orvel didn't dare Liu Guang. Seeing Liu Guang's murderous look, he also looked at Liu Guang coldly, and then deliberately reached out and touched his forehead.

With this touch of his forehead, Liu Guang trembled with anger.

However, shaking, he really didn't dare to yell with Orvel at this time.

After all, Orvel is much stronger than himself, and Regnar also said that he is not qualified to be his dog, and he is still in the trial period.

Thinking of this, Liu Guang felt uncomfortable to death.

What kind of world? This is, be a dog for someone, and still have a d*mn trial period!

However, the probation period is the probation period, as long as it can be converted, then he will have the strength to fight Orvel!

As the saying goes, if you can't bear it, you will make a big plan.

This is called patience and humiliation.

As the owner of Classic Mansion and one of the guests at this banquet, Orvel naturally took the initiative to step forward and invited Regnar to sit at the main seat of today's table, while Roger sat on his right.

At this time, Regnar's left position is still empty, and many people are staring at this position and want to sit closer to Regnar.

But because Liu Guang had been with Regnar all the time, he made the quickest move. As soon as Regnar sat down on the main seat, he rushed to the front and sat down on the left-hand side of Regnar.

Several people continued to compliment Regnar, but Regnar didn't say much, sitting still with majesty.

After a few people took the initiative to say hello, Regnar said: "I invite everyone to come today, mainly because I want to get to know you. I first came to Aurous Hill, and I will inevitably have some things in Aurous Hill in the future. I need help from everyone."

Liu Guang was the first to stand up and smiled: "That's natural, Mr. Regnar, you can value our Liu family. It is the blessing of our Liu family. We look forward to everything in the Liu family's head."

He knew that what Regnar needed now was someone to take the lead, so he bravely took the lead and spoke first.

Regnar glanced at him, nodded approvingly, and said: "Liu Guang, you will do things well in the future, and I will have your benefits."

Liu Guang is indeed a little clever, knowing what he wants to hear right now.

"Thank you, Mr. Regnar, I will do my best to serve Mr. Regnar well."

The Zhao family and the Kevin family also hurriedly expressed their stance, and both of them were kneeling and licking, making it clear that they wanted to board the Wu family's ship.

Only Solmon White, Qin Gang, and Orvel looked at each other without saying anything.

They knew that Regnar wanted them to express their views.

If they expressed their position here today to help the Wu family, it would be tantamount to officially announcing complete refuge in Wu family.

However, the three of them just wanted to follow Charlie with all their heart, so they naturally couldn't express their opinions towards Regnar.

After all, in the eyes of these people, Charlie is the standard real dragon on earth. Compared with him, no matter how strong the Wu family is, he is also a mortal. Since he is a mortal, what right does he have to compare with Charlie?

Regnar glanced at the three of them and said, "The three, it seems that some of you are not willing to work for the Wu family?"

Chapter 629

Faced with Regnar's problem, Solmon White smiled faintly and said: "Mr. Regnar, it's true that we three have already been loyal to the end of the life. Therefore, if you want us to join the Wu family, forgive us, it is difficult to follow..."

Qin Gang touched his nose, and then said: "Mr. White's meaning is also my meaning."

Regnar looked at Mr. Orvel and asked, "Orvel, how about you?"

Mr. Orvel smiled and said: "I'm just a mess, I can't get on the stage, but I pay attention to the meaning of the word. The people I depend on now are very good to me, and I can't switch loyalties quickly."

Regnar frowned, he did not expect that the attitude of these three people would be so determined.

He thought that all three of them were swearing allegiance to the Song family, and he was still wondering, what benefits did the Song family give them to make them so loyal?

When Liu Guang heard what the three of them said, he stood up excitedly and pointed at the three of them and cursed: "You guys, don't be f*cking shameless, do you know what the Wu family represents? I want to make it for the Wu family outside. Dog people, many can line up two streets, Wu always remembered that you are not lucky, you are what you dare to refuse!"

At this time, Regnar reached out his hand to stop Liu Guang's questioning, and said lightly: "Everyone has aspirations, and Wu does not force it."

As he said, he said again: "However, even if you don't have allegiance to the Wu family, it's okay to help?"

Orvel said indifferently: "Mr. Regnar, please say, as long as you don't violate the principle, it is naturally possible."

Regnar nodded and said: "I came to Aurous Hill this time. There are two main things. The first thing is that my Wu family has some trouble. Surely everyone is aware of it?"

No one answered, but the embarrassing expression said it all.

Regnar also knows that the matter of the second son is too detrimental to the dignity of the Wu family, and has made the Wu family a laughing stock in the hearts of countless people, but the more so, the more he can't wait to find the culprit who killed the second son.

Therefore, he said with a cold face: "The first thing is to help me find the person who harmed my second son. I am not very familiar with the situation in Aurous Hill, so I have to rely on you for this matter. People pay more attention. If there is any news about this matter, please notify me in time. My Wu family will pay a lot of money. I personally promise that the reward will not be less than 100 million!"

One hundred million, just to find a clue, it can be seen that the Wu family's handwriting is indeed very big!

Liu Guang blurted out almost immediately: "Mr. Regnar, please rest assured, the Liu family must go all out!"

The Patriarch of the Zhao family and the Kevin family, unwilling to be left behind, expressed their opinions one after another.

Solmon White, Qin Gang, and Mr. Orvel still did not express their views.

Regnar was a little frustrated, and asked, "Three, don't you want to give Wu this little face?"

Qin Gang and Solmon White and Mr. Orvel looked at each other and said, "It's not that we don't give up to President Wu. Now that President Wu has spoken, we will do our best to help. It's just that the three of us have relatively solid personalities and don't like to talk about everything."

The other people who knelt and licked Regnar's expressions were a bit unsightly, but they couldn't say anything.

Regnar nodded lightly.

He already knows the attitudes of these three people. It's okay to help, but it's impossible to be a dog.

If it was Regnar's previous character, he would be mad at this time.

But today's situation is special. He thinks business matters most, so he gave Qin Gang and the three of them coldly and then continued: "This is the first thing, the second thing, and it has something to do with Warnia, the lady from Song Family."

"Song family?" Orvel frowned and said, "Mr. Regnar, Miss Song treats us very well. If you want to target Miss Song, I will never agree!"

Chapter 630

Regnar said indifferently: "I'm not asking you to deal with the Song family, but my son fell in love with Warnia and wanted to marry, but Warnia seems to not belong to him, so I want you to help me find the one Warnia likes. Man, find him, I will have a great reward!"

Solmon White and the others immediately looked at each other again.

If you want to say that Warnia already has someone she likes, then there can be no one else besides Mr. Wade...

However, it is naturally impossible for them to say Charlie's name.

Liu Guang asked diligently: "Mr. Regnar, do you want me to find this person and kill him?"

Regnar waved his hand and said, "We don't need your help for anything else in this matter. You just need to find this person for me. My Wu family will decide how to deal with it."

Everyone at the dinner table had their own thoughts.

This time the Wu family's treat, the two things turned out to be to find someone, and both were rewarded. If you can find a clue, you can also receive a generous reward.

Regnar said at this time: "Okay, there are so many things to ask everyone to help. Let's start eating now. I will offer you a drink first."

Everyone picked up their wine glasses and had a drink with Regnar.

At this time, Liu Guang pleased Regnar and said, "Mr. Regnar, I don't know how the second young master is now?"

Hearing his question, Regnar frowned instinctively.

Which pot are you really supposed to f*cking open?

However, since he wanted to collect a few dogs for his own use, of course he couldn't be too demanding on the dogs as soon as he came up, so he shook his head and said, "Nothing gets better, I have sent him back to Wu's house."

Liu Guang hurriedly said: "Mr. Orvel, I know that a genius doctor came to Aurous Hill recently. It is said that he is extremely skilled. He used to treat big figures in Eastcliff and Zhonghai! Why don't you see him for the second young master?"

"Oh?" Regnar put down his chopsticks and hurriedly asked, "Who is the genius doctor you are talking about? What is the name?"

Liu Guang hurriedly replied: "It is the well-known genius doctor Tianqi who is said to be much more skilled than the doctors in the National Medical Center."

Regnar was surprised and said: "The genius doctor Tianqi is in Aurous Hill?! How did I hear that he has been in Zhonghai!"

It is said that the Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, but that does not include Zhonghai. Zhonghai is a municipality with the best economic development in the country. Like Eastcliff, there are many great people living there.

It was said that Tianqi spent most of his time in Zhonghai, and occasionally went to Eastcliff to see the rich and powerful. Regnar naturally heard about it, but he did not expect that Tianqi would be in Aurous Hill. After all, Aurous Hill is only a second-tier city. Compared with Zhonghai, Eastcliff is far behind!

Liu Guang laughed, and hurriedly said, "I don't know why, the genius doctor Tianqi suddenly came to Aurous Hill, and opened a Clinic directly in Aurous Hill. Now that place is hot, many rich people are willing to spend millions in consultation fees!"

After speaking, Liu Guang said again: "I heard that a high-level paraplegia has been cured by God doctor Tianqi some time ago, and the whole world is shocked!"

"Really?!" Regnar was instantly ecstatic when he heard this!

Never imagined that Aurous Hill still has a genius doctor like Tianqi!

If you find him to help, the second son's problem may be saved!

Chapter 631

Regnar was very excited to learn that Tianqi was in Aurous Hill.

He has long heard that Tianqi's medical skills are superb, since he can cure even the impossible disease of high paraplegia, the strange disease of that second son, Wu Qi, must be no problem for him!

Thinking of this, he was in a good mood and said to Roger next to him: "Tomorrow morning, prepare a generous gift. Let's go to the Clinic to see Tianqi."

Roger nodded and said, "Okay Dad, I will prepare."

"Yeah." Regnar said with a rare smile on his face, and said with a relaxed face: "It is best to solve all the problems at once, cure your brother, find the culprit who hurt your brother, and then find Warnia's Sweetheart, I hope your brother can return to normal and participate in your wedding with Warnia as a normal person."

Roger hurriedly said: "Dad, don't worry, all your expectations will come true. When I get my wedding, let my brother be my best man!"

Regnar nodded with great relief, and sighed: "It really is the son of Regnar!"

Roger had a pious smile on his face, but he was a little upset in his heart.

When his brother was fine, he didn't think much about fighting for inheritance with his brother in the future. After all, his brother hadn't graduated from college, and he hadn't started contacting those businesses in the family.

But now that something happened to his brother, he suddenly realized that it was a great thing for him.

Therefore, he does not want his brother to return to normal.

But father, he couldn't disobey him, so he could only hope that Tianqi would not be able to cure his brother's strange disease.

At this time, several other people at the dinner table were constantly complimenting Regnar, and even took the initiative to stand up and humbly toast him.

Orvel, Solmon White, and Qin Gang all could see that the Wu family and his son wanted to find Mr. Wade. Once they realized that Warnia's sweetheart was Mr. Wade, they would soon take action on Mr. Wade.

Moreover, Orvel has been in the rivers and lakes for a long time, fighting and killing for decades. He has more eyes than ordinary people, and his sense of smell is much sharper than ordinary people.

Therefore, he carefully figured out the whole thing, and suddenly felt that the person who made Wu Qi have to eat sh!t every hour was Mr. Wade.

After all, this kind of unheard of mysterious things, apart from Mr. Wade, Orvel really couldn't think of anyone in Aurous Hill who could do it.

However, the only question that bothered him was why Mr. Wade had enmity with Wu Qi?

That kid Wu Qi is only in his early twenties this year, a few years younger than Mr. Wade.

Moreover, he is not a member of society, but a student of Aurous Hill University of Finance and Economics. He doesn't get along with Charlie at all, so the two shouldn't have the chance to get enemies...

Suddenly, Orvel thought of a clue.

He remembered that Aoxue, Qin Gang's daughter, seemed to be studying at Aurous Hill College of Finance and Economics!

Originally, he felt that there was no necessary connection between Mr. Wade and Wu Qi, but now, he found a possible connection between Mr. Wade and Wu Qi.

The bond of this connection is Aoxue.

Could it be because of Aoxue that Mr. Wade and Wu Qi had an intersection or even a contradiction?

Because, if there were no contradictions, Mr. Wade could not deliberately turn Wu Qi into an unheard-of sh!t swallowing beast.

In his impression, Mr. Wade is extremely low-key, and he never reveals anything!

Generally, if others don't have eyesight and provoked Mr. Wade's head, Mr. Wade will take action.

Therefore, if his own conjecture just now holds true, then Mr. Wade must have contradicted Wu Qi through Aoxue.

Chapter 632

Thinking of this, Mr. Orvel suddenly felt a little worried.

He could see that Regnar hated those who hurt Wu Qi deeply, and he was extremely angry with the man Warnia liked.

If these two things point to two people, both of them will undoubtedly die. At least in Regnar's eyes, they are both targets that must be killed.

If these two things point to the same person, then the Wu family is afraid that they will do everything they can to kill this person.

Therefore, he couldn't help worrying about Mr. Wade.

Although he knew that Mr. Wade was very strong, he was still a little worried in the face of a big family like the Wu family.

After the dinner, everyone sent Regnar and Roger to the downstairs of Classic Mansion. The dogs including Liu Guang had to accompany Regnar and Roger to the parking lot.

Orvel, Solmon White, and Qin Gang did not go with them, but after saying goodbye, they looked at each other and returned to Classic Mansion.

Back in Orvel's office, Qin Gang said with some worry: "Two, the Wu family seems to be trying to find Mr. Wade, and it's not good for Mr. Wade. What should we do?"

Solmon White sighed and said, "Ms. Warnia's thoughts on Mr. Wade are obvious to all, but only those of us know about it, and outsiders don't."

Orvel waved his hand and said: "If the Wu family really bothers to inquire, this kind of thing will not be able to hide it. Not only do we know this, but the people of the Song family also know. I have seen the details of Miss Warnia getting along with Mr. Wade. People will know sooner or later."

Orvel said with a stern face: "I am not only worried about this."

After speaking, Orvel asked Qin Gang: "Ms. Qin, Miss Aoxue, is studying at Aurous Hill College of Finance and Economics?"

"Yes." Qin Gang said with a smile: "Aurous Hill College of Finance and Economics is one of the best financial universities in China. Among them, the business management major is particularly powerful. I want her to study business management experience here so that she can help me better."

Orvel nodded and said, "Then you should know that the second son of the Wu family, Wu Qi, is also attending Aurous Hill School of Finance and Economics?"

"I know." Qin Gang nodded and asked, "What's wrong?"

Orvel said: "I now suspect that Wu Qi has become like this, thanks to Mr. Wade!"

"What?!" Qin Gang and Solmon White both looked shocked.

Qin Gang asked, "Why do you say that?"

Orvel said: "I think the greatest possibility is because of Miss Aoxue. If you want to confirm, Mr. Qing can call Ms. Aoxue and ask if she knows about Wu Qi."

Qin Gang's expression gradually became serious.

He thought for a moment, nodded and said: "I will call Aoxue now."

After speaking, he took out his mobile phone and called Aoxue immediately.

Aoxue was practicing fighting in villa at this time.

In the Qin's villa, there is a huge room, which is specially reserved for Aoxue as a gym and exercise room.

Aoxue has been obsessed with fighting Sanda since she was a child, and she must practice at home as long as she has time.

Since getting to know Charlie, Aoxue practiced harder and harder.

In her mind, she felt that Mr. Wade has such a strong strength, he would definitely not like a weak woman.

Therefore, she must work hard to improve her own strength, even if it is impossible to catch up with Mr. Wade, she can't make him look down upon herself!

Chapter 633

Aoxue sweated like rain, panting for breath.

Having completed several sets of actions she planned, she stopped and carefully observed herself in the mirror in front of the huge floor mirror.

One can say that Aoxue's figure is very good.

Due to regular exercises, her figure is somewhat muscular, with better and more perfect lines than ordinary girls.

At this time, she wore a crisp ponytail, a tight-fitting vest for practicing exercises, and a pair of hot pants that hugged her waist, hips, and legs. She looked really hot!

And when she admired her figure, what came to her mind was Charlie.

She felt ashamed when she thought of Charlie, and her pretty face flushed suddenly.

Dad has always asked her to find ways to get closer to Mr. Wade, but Mr. Wade usually sees the dragon without seeing the end, and even if she wants to find him, there is no suitable reason.

Last time she asked him for help to save her girlfriends, she did not expect that Mr. Wade not only helped her girlfriend relieve the other's psychological hints and thought control but also turned Wu Qi into the laughing stock of the whole country. This method simply made Aoxue worship him more.

She has always liked men with strong strength, and the kind of man who can completely conquer her body and mind, let herself love him, believe in him, obey him, and even listen to him. Charlie is the best candidate!

Just when she missed Charlie so much, her mobile phone rang on the ground.

The phone's ringtone disrupted her thoughts. She looked down and found that it was her father who was calling and hurriedly picked up the connection.

"dad!"

Qin Gang hummed, and said solemnly: "Aoxue, dad has something to ask you, you must answer truthfully!"

Aoxue didn't know why her father was so serious, so she hurriedly said: "Dad, ask, I will answer your questions truthfully."

Qin Gang asked, "You tell me the truth, did you ask Mr. Wade to deal with Wu Qi's affairs?!"

"Ah?!" Aoxue said flusteredly: "Dad, how did you know? Mr. Wade told you?"

Qin Gang was shocked!

It really is him!

This girl movie!

Why let Mr. Wade help her deal with the second son of the Wu family?

Isn't this causing trouble for Mr. Wade? !

Thinking of this, he blurted out and said: "b*stard! I asked you to go to the School of Finance and Economics to get educations, not to make trouble for Mr. Wade! Don't you know what Wu Qi's background is? Let Mr. Wade deal with it. Why did you do that?!"

Aoxue said aggrieved: "I don't know... I only know that Wu Qi's family is quite rich. I really don't know the details..."

After speaking, Aoxue said again: "Besides, I really didn't find Mr. Wade to deal with Wu Qi. It's just that Wu Qi used online tricks to control my good girlfriends, causing my girlfriend to commit suicide several times. , I had no choice but to go to Mr. Wade for help..."

"Moreover, I intended to ask Mr. Wade to help save my girlfriends. I didn't expect Mr. Wade to be very dissatisfied with Wu Qi, so he taught him a lesson, saying that he can't let him harm others!"

Chapter 634

"Hey!" Qin Gang sighed long, and said, "You have harmed Mr. Wade! Now the Wu family has found it! They are summoning all of Aurous Hill's clever families, and are inquiring about Mr. Wade!"

"Huh?" Aoxue panicked and blurted out: "Dad, shouldn't the Wu family be troubled with Mr. Wade?"

Qin Gang said, "The Wu family wants Mr. Wade's life!"

Aoxue cried anxiously all of a sudden, and said hurriedly, "Dad, this incident was caused by me. Can you tell the Wu family and just say that Wu Qi is my victim? I don't want to involve Mr. Wade because of me... .."

"Are you stupid?" Qin Gang sighed, "Which is such a reasonable person in the Wu family? Since Wu Qi went crazy through the hands of Mr. Wade, then the Wu family would definitely not let Mr. Wade go, if they knew it was you who found Mr. Wade, then they will only want to get rid of you and Mr. Wade!"

"What should I do then?" Aoxue cried and said, "Dad, I really didn't mean to cause trouble to Mr. Wade. Mr. Wade is not in danger, right?"

Qin Gang said: "The Wu family hasn't found out that it is Mr. Wade yet, but you have to make it clear to me, who knows about this?"

Aoxue said, "Only I and Mr. Wade know."

"Only you two?" Qin Gang asked puzzledly: "Where is your girlfriend? Doesn't she know?"

Aoxue said: "It's very strange that she didn't remember Mr. Wade at all. When she recalled this incident, she didn't remember the existence of Mr. Wade at all. She just remembered that she suddenly seemed to have an epiphany. She must live well and serve the society and contribute to it."

Qin Gang couldn't help sighing: "Mr. Wade's methods are really superb! Not only Wu Qi can't remember him afterwards, but girlfriend can't remember him as well."

Speaking of this, Qin Gang said again: "This way, I feel relieved, but you must remember not to talk about this to other people, do you understand?"

Aoxue hurriedly said, "Dad, I understand!"

"Yeah." Qin Gang exhorted, "In order to prevent trouble to Mr. Wade, you have taken it with you in school during this period of time. Don't contact Mr. Wade to avoid being discovered about this relationship. Do you understand? "

Aoxue felt a little disappointed and sad when she heard her father say not to let her contact Mr. Wade.

But then she thought about it. This is also to prevent causing trouble for Mr. Wade, so she agreed and said: "Dad, I know, don't worry, I will be obedient."

"Yeah." Qin Gang relieved his heart and said, "Okay, let's do this first, Dad is still okay."

After speaking, he hung up the phone.

As soon as the phone hung up, Solmon White hurriedly asked, "Old Qin, Wu Qi, is it really the work of Mr. Wade?"

Qin Gang nodded with a serious expression, then looked at Orvel, and said seriously: "Mr. Orvel, really you analyze it right!"

Orvel said, "Two, do we want to talk to Mr. Wade? Let him be prepared and also be prepared?"

"Of course!" Qin Gang hurriedly said, "Not only must we clarify these things, we also have to show our attitude, otherwise, if Mr. Wade knows that we are eating with Regnar, but it will also be even more troublesome if we misunderstand that we are standing in line with Regnar..."

As he said, Qin Gang sighed and said, "If I knew that the Wu family and his son wanted to deal with Mr. Wade and beat him to death, so I won't come to this dinner!"

"Yeah!" Orvel cursed, "I also think that the Wu family is also the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. Since I am hosting a banquet in my mansion, I must be considerate, but I never expected that this pair of dogs and sons wanted to deal with Mr. Wade. If I knew this earlier. I would rather offend the Wu family than let him host a banquet in my Classic Mansion, especially the diamond box that Mr. Wade sat in..."

Solmon White blurted out: "The three of us have had the chance of Mr. Wade. The magic medicine that Mr. Wade gave me is still stored next to my body. Therefore, the three of us must be dedicated to Mr. Wade's. The top priority now is to follow Wade. Orvel explained clearly, we must let Mr. Wade know our attitude!"

Qin Gang nodded and said, "Well, then, I will call Mr. Wade!"

Chapter 635

Charlie had just eaten dinner at this time and was in the kitchen packing the dishes. When Qin Gang called him, he pressed the answer and asked, "Ms. Qin?"

Qin Gang hurriedly replied: "Mr. Wade, there is something, I have discussed with President White and Mr. Orvel, and I think I want to report it to you."

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said: "If you have anything, just say it directly, don't be so polite with me."

Qin Gang hurriedly said: "Okay, Mr. Wade, then I'll just say it straight. Today, Regnar from the Wu family in Suzhou hosted a banquet for some local family leaders, including me, Solomon White, and Mr. Orvel. He ordered some things about us, we feel that these things are a little bit wrong, so we decided to report to you."

Hearing that it was a treat by the Wu family, Charlie asked, "Why did the Wu family look for you?"

Qin Gang explained: "Wu Qi of the Wu family had something wrong some time ago. The Wu family is looking for clues everywhere, trying to dig out the black hand behind the scenes. I called Aoxue just now, and she confessed to me. Now the Wu family is thinking to find you..."

Charlie smiled indifferently and said: "Wu Qi's things are indeed what I did. The main reason is that I couldn't tolerate that kid's behavior. It's okay to fall in love with girls, but it's unforgivable to play with others deliberately and even hurt others. So I taught him a little lesson, at least so that he can no longer hurt others in the future."

Qin Gang's expression instantly shrank.

Not surprised at what Charlie did, but surprised at Charlie's confession and directness.

It seems that in Charlie's eyes, turning the second son of the Wu family into a feces swallowing beast is no different from pinching an ant, and there is no need to worry about the consequences.

He couldn't help wondering, how confident is Mr. Wade? Even when facing the Wu family, he didn't care at all? !

In Aurous Hill, anyone who mentions the Wu family must be a little bit in awe, but Mr. Wade doesn't pay attention to the Wu family at all.

Qin Gang came back to his senses and quickly said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, all of us will be tight-lipped for you. If the Wu family really finds out that it is you and the trouble to find you, we will not agree!"

Charlie smiled and said: "You don't need to be so nervous. If they want to get revenge, just let them come. When will they be afraid of Charlie?"

Charlie said with a smile: "By the way, you can actually tell them directly that this is what I did. If he is unconvinced, let him come to me directly."

Qin Gang quickly said: "Mr. Wade, I know you definitely don't take Wu family in your eyes, but Wu family's status and strength in Aurous Hill are still very powerful. If you really become enemies with them, it will be very troublesome in the future."

After speaking, Qin Gang said again: "Mr. Wade, I still recommend you to keep a low profile in this matter. Don't let the Wu family find out. Otherwise, you will inevitably have trouble in the future."

Charlie smiled and said, "Ms. Qin, you are interesting, but you don't need to care too much about this. When the time comes, soldiers will come to cover the water and earth, let it go."

"Okay." Qin Gang hurriedly said again: "By the way, Mr. Wade, the Wu family had a treat today, there is actually one more thing."

Charlie asked, "What's the matter?"

Qin Gang said: "The Wu family seems to want to marry Roger, the young son of Regnar, to Ms. Warnia, but according to Regnar, Miss Song has publicly stated to him that she already has someone she likes, so the Wu family still wants us to find that person too....."

With that, Qin Gang asked tentatively: "Mr. Wade, Miss Song likes that person, isn't it you?"

Charlie paused slightly and said, "Don't talk nonsense about this kind of thing. I'm a married man. If this kind of thing is talked about nonsense and spread out, it will have a great impact on the reputation of other girls."

Qin Gang hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade forgive me, I will never say anything like this in the future!"

"Yeah." Charlie said lightly: "Okay, you three don't have to worry about me, do whatever you should do, don't take it too seriously, it's just a Wu family, but I can't help it."

Chapter 636

In fact, Charlie knew very well in his heart that Warnia must have some good feelings about him.

It's just that he didn't know how to deal with this kind of affection, so he just pretended to be dumb and froze, and talked about the other things later.

.....

The next day, Regnar got up early.

Because he was worried about looking for Tianqi to treat his second son Wu Qi, he didn't sleep well all night.

Wu Qi's current situation is relatively pessimistic, the problem of eating sh!t has not been alleviated, and his own emotions have gradually collapsed.

In other words, for such a long time, eating sh!t more than 20 times a day, he will collapse one day for sure.

What's more, Wu Qi himself had grown up spoiled, and this kind of thing was even more terrifying to him than death.

Therefore, Regnar hopes that he can be cured as soon as possible, so that he can return to normal, and at the same time, to kill the person who harmed him, not only for revenge, but also for the permanent trouble solving!

Because of this belief, Regnar didn't even care about having breakfast at the Song's house, so he greeted his son Roger when he went to bed, took a few Wu's bodyguards, and went directly to Clinic.

In the car, Regnar was full of excitement and expectation, but Roger felt a little bored.

He even hopes that his brother Wu Qi will always be like this and save himself a lot of trouble.

So he asked tentatively: "Dad, do you think that the doctor can really cure the younger brother?"

"I believe there is no problem." Regnar said indifferently: "If High paraplegia can be cured. I believe this problem with your brother is not a problem."

Roger nodded, feeling a little upset.

When the convoy arrived outside Clinic, the bodyguard opened the door for Regnar and his son.

As soon as Regnar got out of the car, he saw the entrance of the Clinic, a long line had already been queued.

He couldn't help sighing: "It seems that this genius doctor is really well-deserved."

An assistant came up and said respectfully: "Mr. Orvel, Tianqi only sees ten patients every day, and it is not in the order of the line, but according to the severity of the disease. It is said that some are ranked first. Tianqi feels that there is no problem. If you don't need to do it yourself, you won't be shown. Instead, it's recommended to go to other hospitals."

"Yeah." Regnar glanced at the long line again. Seeing that there are three teachers and nine ranks, he waved his hand in disgust and said to the bodyguard: "Take some cash from the trunk and give these people in line one thousand each. Make them go away."

The bodyguard nodded, immediately took some advanced from the trunk, came to the front of the team, and said loudly: "the Clinic is closed today. Those of you who are in line, one person comes to me to collect one thousand, and then you can leave. Come back another day!"

The crowd was suddenly dissatisfied, and someone shouted: "Why? Following the rules set by the genius, anyone has to queue for treatment!"

The leader of the bodyguard snorted coldly, and cursed: "I gave you thousands for nothing, are you still f*cking here?"

The man blurted out: "One thousand? My mother is seriously ill, and I took her all the way to ask the genius doctor for help. Do you count this thousand as a bullsh*t? How about I give you a thousand and you go away Is it OK?"

"Grass mud horse, don't give me your face!" The head of the bodyguard glared at him, and snorted coldly to the men next to him: "Beat that b@stard for me!"

Chapter 637

With an order, a few bodyguards from a family background rushed up and grabbed the man with a punch and kick.

There was a Lady in her seventies next to the man. Seeing that they were beating her son, she cried and cried: "I beg you to stop beating him, can't we leave?"

The head of the bodyguard scolded, "What the h*ll did you do? You don't know how to praise!"

After finishing speaking, he kicked the middle-aged man aside, took out another thousand, threw it on the man's face, and cursed: "Get out of here!"

The Lady cried and pulled her son up with great effort. The people around were very angry when they saw this scene. But seeing the other party in such a battle and driving so many luxury cars, they knew that the other party was not easy to provoke. Lord, so they can only swallow.

Several bodyguards walked over with money, and when they met, they gave one thousand, plus two words: "Get out!"

Some people took the money and ran away. Some people were a little bit stubborn and unwilling to ask for their money, but because they couldn't provoke them, they had to swallow their anger and leave.

At this time, a fellow of the people in the Clinic heard the noise outside and stepped out. Upon seeing this scene, he immediately asked: "What are you doing? Why are you beating?"

"Hit someone?" The head of the bodyguard frowned, and said: "We belong to the Wu family of Suzhou, Hangzhou, and we should teach you something that is not long-sighted."

After that, he looked around at the crowd again, and cursed: "Don't you hurry up? Is it itchy? Here today, if you don't treat other people, you're welcome to take care of me!"

The guy asked indignantly: "You are too much, right? Do you know our Clinic rules? You have to queue for medical treatment!"

Roger said coldly: "The rules for administering geniuses are made for these poor people, but not for our Wu family. In Aurous Hill, what our Wu family says is the rules! Today these people must get out because they are not worthy to appear with the Wu family in the same place!"

"You..." The guy was furious and blurted out: "Why don't you make sense at all? You are too domineering!"

Roger said coldly at this time: "Boy, dare to talk to the Wu family like this, you are you not afraid, or you are tired of living!"

The guy said neither humble nor overbearing: "the Clinic is a place where gods can heal people and save people. Everyone here must abide by the rules set by god doctors!"

"Tianqi?" Roger snorted, and said, "In front of the Wu family, the genius Shi must obey the rules of my Wu family. If you don't believe it, let the genius Shi come out by himself!"

In fact, Roger deliberately wanted to be arrogant and domineering, and it was best to make Tianqi resist the Wu family. In this case, Tianqi might refuse to treat his younger brother, or deliberately hide.

In short, what he wanted to do was to prevent his brother from being cured as much as possible.

Regnar hadn't spoken before, and when the bodyguard came out to drive people, he didn't speak either, because he felt that this was the Wu family's usual style of doing things.

When the Wu family goes out, they never allow ordinary people to be like them, let alone ordinary people with them.

Even if the Wu family goes out to visit a store, the bodyguard will definitely clear all the guests out of the store, allowing the Wu family to stroll around freely.

They have long been accustomed to enjoying this detached treatment, so even if they come to Tianqi to see a doctor, they don't want to be with these ordinary people.

However, Roger's attitude at this time, in Regnar's view, was a bit too rash.

He felt that Roger could target these ordinary people, but he should not target Tianqi.

Chapter 638

After all, Tianqi is no ordinary person.

This kind of genius doctor is very famous throughout the country, and he knows a lot of big people. I don't know how many big people ask him for diagnosis and treatment. Therefore, if you want to ask him to treat the younger son, you must be respectful.

However, he didn't realize that this was Roger's intentional act. He only felt that he might have become domineering and confiscated his temper for a while.

So he opened his mouth and said: "Roger, we are here to find a genius doctor to treat your brother, so we must not be rude!"

Roger said hurriedly: "I know Dad, I didn't control my temper just now, please forgive me."

Regnar waved his hand and said to the fellow at the Clinic: "Brother, please tell the genius doctor Tianqi, just say that Regnar from the Wu family has come to visit and wants to see him."

Although the young man was very dissatisfied with this group of people, he was glared at by the other's bodyguard leader and did not dare to say anything, so he ran back to inform Tianqi.

Tianqi quickly walked out with a cold face.

He glanced at Regnar and Roger in front of the door, then frowned and asked, "Two, you guys will drive all my patients away without my consent. You are too unreasonable, right?"

Regnar smiled slightly, and said, "Mr. Shi, I am Regnar from the Wu family, you must have heard of me."

Tianqi said with a cold face: "It is said that the Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. Only today I discovered that the Wu family really is so powerful!"

Regnar smiled and said, "Don't be angry genius doctor Tianqi, let's go in and talk?"

After speaking, Regnar stepped into the Clinic on his own, not treating himself as an outsider.

Tianqi was angry and snorted coldly, and said, "I'm sorry, the Wu family is so prestigious that Shi can't afford it, so we have nothing to talk about."

Regnar smiled slightly and said, "Why do you have to be a genius doctor for a group of poor people? You are a genius doctor recognized by upper-class society. Treating large families and big people is your greatest value. Treating these poor people cannot pay you what you deserve?"

Tianqi said earnestly: "I opened up this place to help the world, not to make money. I treat the poor, not only don't get a penny but sometimes give medicine and donate money. If it's just to make money, why should I have to settle in Aurous Hill?"

Regnar was taken aback for a moment. He didn't expect Tianqi to not make money?

He doesn't believe that someone does things not for money.

The only possibility is that the money is not enough!

So, he opened his mouth and said: "You have been working as a genius doctor. I have heard your name for a long time and know that you have no disease that can not be cured, so I came today to ask you to see my young son."

After that, he said again: "Let's do it, you close the store, I will arrange a special plane to take you to Suzhou, and I will give you 10 million when you visit. If it is cured, I will give you another 50 million!"

Tianqi waved his hand and said faintly: "Sorry, Shi only sits in Clinic for a doctor now. Except for old friends, anyone who wants to see Shi for a doctor must come to Clinic."

After that, Tianqi added: "In addition, when you come to Clinic to see a doctor, you must abide by my rules. I am disgusted with the behavior of driving away other guests like you, so I don't welcome you here!"

Chapter 639

Tianqi has met many big people, and some of them have a higher status than Regnar, but those big people are respectful to him.

It was the first time he had met someone like the Wu family, arguing in front of him.

Although the Wu family was the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, Tianqi was not afraid of them either, so he refused very simply.

Regnar frowned. He didn't expect this Tianqi to be so ignorant of admiration. He invited him to see his youngest son. He also promised a huge return. He didn't expect that he would refuse it!

Annoyed, Regnar said coldly: "Mr. Shi, I hope you can speak a little better, how famous and powerful the Wu family is, you don't need me to remind you?"

Tianqi snorted coldly and said arrogantly: "I have lived to this age, and my tone has always been like this. If you don't want to listen, you can go out."

"you....."

Regnar was furious in his heart!

Since arriving in Aurous Hill, he felt that the people in this place were a bit strange.

For some reason, there are thorns everywhere, and his Wu family's great reputation seems to be useless in this little city.

Yesterday's dinner was also the case. Solmon White, Qin Gang, and Mr. Orvel were all polite on the surface, and they didn't take their solicitation into consideration.

Now, this Tianqi dare to pretend to be forced by himself? Is it true that Regnar Wu's family in Aurous Hill is the Raptors above the rivers? !

Roger saw his father's eyes with anger, and immediately realized that the opportunity was coming, so he yelled: "Old Master, how do you talk to my dad?! Believe it or not, I smashed your hospital today. ?"

Regnar stopped Roger and said to Tianqi with a smile: "Don't be surprised by the genius doctor. My son is a young man. Young people have a bad temper and are easy to impulse."

After all, he suppressed the anger in his heart and said: "Mr. Shi the genius doctor, I came to you, just because we want you to go to Suzhou. Suzhou is not far away from Aurous Hill. The special plane can be there in one hour, as long as you run. This time, I will give you 10 million, what do you think?"

Tianqi shook his head and said lightly: "I can't cure your son, please go back."

"You..." Roger immediately said angrily: "You old thing, you don't even know what the disease is, so you can't cure it by yourself? Are you kidding with our Wu family?"

Regnar, who was on the side, looked gloomy, looked at Tianqi coldly, and asked, "doctor Tianqi, you seem to be targeting our Wu family?".

Tianqi gave them a cold look, and said, "You came here today and didn't abide by my rules and drove away from my patients. Are you not targeting me?"

Regnar said coldly: "I said, I only target the poor, they don't deserve to be under the same roof as Regnar!"

Tianqi sneered and said: "What a joke! All beings are equal, can you still manage other people under the same sky?"

Regnar said: "I can't manage things under the sky, but I can manage things under the eaves!"

After he finished speaking, he said sharply: "Tianqi, I will pay you face to visit you personally, and also prepared a generous gift for you. If you promise me, I will give you the money, and I will give you the generous gift, but if you don't Promise, that would make you an enemy of my Wu family!"

Tianqi said neither humble nor overbearing: "I said, I can't cure your son. If you have to be an enemy of me, then please be so. I will practice medicine for a certain life. Home, even if it's the Eastcliff Su family, or even the Wade family? The Old Master is nothing more than a life, just take it away!"

Regnar's expression is very ugly.

He didn't expect Tianqi to be so rigid.

He just drove away those paupers and stinky silks, he even choked with himself?

With Tianqi's attitude, Regnar really wanted to slap his old face. After all, when has he been targeted?

But thinking about it carefully, he still didn't dare to offend Tianqi.

Tianqi is a national expert in traditional medicine, the top traditional medicine doctor in the country. Don't know how many big people have been treated and taken care of by him. Even the big family and big people of Eastcliff have also benefited a lot. If he really beat him, it will not be a good thing for his own PR and reputation.

So, he could only endure the urge to do it first, snorted, and said: "Shi the genius doctor, you are also a benevolent generation of famous doctors, why are you so sloppy today, even my youngest son hasn't seen it, so just talk about the treatment. Not anymore?"

Having said that, he said again: "You can do nothing, but I want you to say this after you meet Wu Qi! So, to be a genius doctor, please take the initiative and take a trip to Regnar!"

Tianqi said coldly: "Regnar, what is the virtue of your little son, don't you know? Don't talk about you, even I, Old Master, have heard of his deeds. He has money and spoil young girls everywhere, and is particularly keen on brainwashing and controlling young girls' thoughts so that he is happy and proud of making young girls self-harm or even commit suicide. For such a person, even if Tianqi died, I would not give the treatment!"

Regnar was also furious at this time!

He thought in his heart, Mr. Shi, I have tolerated you for a long time, and you still toast not to eat or drink fine wine, you are looking for death!

Immediately, he said coldly: "Tianqi, you mean, you must go against our Wu family?"

Tianqi said indifferently: "What you want to see is your freedom, but no matter what you say, I won't treat your son! Please feel free to leave."

Regnar's eyes were cold and sharp, and he said, "It seems that my Wu family is not walking around in Aurous Hill.

After all, staring at Tianqi, he questioned: "Mr. Shi, have you ever thought about the consequences of offending Wu family?"

"Consequence? What is the consequence?" Tianqi sneered and said, "Could it be that the Wu family is still planning to kill Shi?"

Regnar's murderous intent was in his eyes. At this moment, he really moved to kill.

But he also knew very well that Tianqi was incapable of killing.

Kill him, if someone with high morals needs to ask him for medical treatment, then he will be in a big disaster.

After a moment of silence, Regnar said with a dark face: "I won't kill you, but if you don't put my Wu family in your eyes and spread it out, my Wu family will be ashamed! So I let you know what it means to offend the Aurous Hill First Family."

As soon as the voice fell, he immediately yelled at the bodyguard next to him: "Come here, give me his shop!!!"

Tianqi suddenly yelled and rebuked: "Regnar, dare you!"

Regnar snorted coldly and scolded angrily: "Mr. Shi, I know you know a lot of big people. If I really kill you, I might really have to weigh it, but if I smash your Clinic, I have What dare not?"

After speaking, Regnar screamed: "I tell you, in the future, Tianqi only has to dare to open a Clinic, and if you open one, I will destroy one. I want to see if anyone can help you out!"

Chapter 641

As soon as Regnar's words fell, his bodyguards immediately swarmed!

These practitioners kicked their feet on the medicine racks on all sides, knocked all the Chinese medicinal materials to the ground, and smashed all the medicine pots into a mess.

In the blink of an eye, the huge Clinic turned into a mess.

Tianqi's beard trembled, but he knew that he couldn't resist, so he could only watch them smash with cold eyes.

After a mess, the shop has been ruined and it is not what it looks like.

Regnar just snorted coldly and said, "Mr. Shi, I will give you three days to consider. Before you promise me, if your Clinic dares to reopen, I will smash it again until you agree. ! Do it for yourself..."

After that, he turned around and left with Roger and his bodyguard.

The young fellow of the Clinic, seeing the Clinic being smashed and smashed, cried and said to Tianqi: "Shi genius doctor, let's call the police!"

Tianqi waved his hand and said lightly: "No, Wu's hands and eyes are open to the sky, and that will not solve any problems."

The boy hurriedly asked: "What should I do?"

Tianqi said indifferently: "We will repair the Clinic together and reopen as soon as possible."

The boy said: "But the guy said just now, if you reopen, he will come to smash..."

Tianqi said indifferently: "I'm here. Is it because I am afraid he will hit the shop again, should I not open the Clinic? I have studied medicine for a whole life, and I will stop seeing people because of the fear that he will hit the shop?"

Seeing Tianqi's expression indifferent, the young man couldn't help sighing for the courage and courage of the old genius doctor, as well as his kindheartedness, healing and saving heart.

So he hurriedly asked: "Would you like to call Sister Zhovia so that she can come back as soon as possible? She is still waiting to pick you up to attend the birthday banquet of the Song family!"

Tianqi nodded, and then remembered that today is the birthday of Mr. Song!

A few days ago, when Mr. Song came to see him for treatment, he had already told about his 80th birthday and invited him to participate.

Yesterday, Zhovia drove to Zhonghai to prepare a birthday gift for Mr. Song. She was ready to come back this morning, and then pick him up and go to Song's house together.

At this moment, he suddenly thought that the Wu family and his son are said to live in the Song family now!

That being said, the Wu family father and son will definitely attend the birthday banquet at noon!

When he thought of this, Tianqi decided not to attend the birthday banquet. When the time comes, he will meet with the Wu family and his son. If he can't restrain himself from quarreling with them, he will add trouble to the old man's birthday star of Song.

Therefore, it is better not to go.

It just so happens that he has no intention of attending the birthday banquet now.

the Clinic was smashed, and all he was thinking about now was to quickly restore it.

Moreover, he knew that he couldn't let go of the Clinic in his heart, even if he forcibly let go of the Clinic's things and went to the birthday banquet of Song Old Master, he must have been absent-minded, and all his thoughts were still on the Clinic.

If Mr. Song sees any clues, it will be difficult to explain.

Therefore, after deliberation, he called the Old Master Song, excuses his health, and made up his mind with him, so this birthday banquet he will not go.

The Old Master Song cared for a while, and he was relieved when he heard that he was only slightly affected by the cold, but he couldn't force it, so he made an appointment with Tianqi and got together again in private.

At this time, the Wu family and his son were returning to the Song family from the Clinic by car.

Originally, Regnar's plan was to come over and tell Tianqi about the situation that Tianqi would definitely save the Wu family. Then he immediately prepared to go to Suzhou to treat his younger son Wu Qi. When that time, he would let the special plane take him there. The son first attended Father Song's birthday banquet, and then returned to Suzhou.

Unexpectedly, although the plan is beautiful, the reality is extremely cruel.

Tianqi directly rejected Regnar's invitation, not only that, but also said that his youngest son was on his own account, which made him angry.

Even when he got in the car, he still cursed and said, "Tianqi, an old dog, really doesn't know how to praise. If it weren't for worrying about getting into trouble, I really wanted his life!"

Roger on the side was very happy.

He was always worried that Tianqi could really cure his younger brother, but after he came here, Tianqi directly refused to treat his younger brother. As a result, he was completely missing a strong enemy on the path of inheriting the Wu family.

However, he was not good at expressing this emotion, so he whispered: "Dad, or just find a few killers, and come over and wipe the neck of this old thing one night!"

"No!" Regnar blurted out: "Although this old thing doesn't have much money, many big people owe favors to him, and even count on him to prolong their life. Killing him is tantamount to pronouncing the death of many big people in advance, and Wu family will become the target of public criticism!"

Roger nodded and said, "Follow what you just said, Dad, as long as he dares to open the Clinic in the future, we will smash it!"

Regnar said: "That's just a little intimidation to the old thing. It's best to force him to agree to see your brother."

Roger was a little nervous, and blurted out: "Dad, that old thing doesn't agree to it!"

Regnar said, "So I am going to ask Mr. Song to help me intercede."

Roger said hurriedly, "Dad, today is the birthday banquet of Mr. Song. It is not appropriate to say this, right?"

"You're right." Regnar nodded, and said: "Then talk about it tonight or tomorrow."

Then Regnar said to Roger: "Warnia, you have to hurry up, find ways to cultivate relationships, and get her to agree to the marriage as soon as possible."

Roger nodded and said, "Father, don't worry, I have instructed that Liu Guang to help me carefully prepare a gift. I will give it to her in a while. I believe she will like it."

Regnar hummed and said, "This woman is very capable. If we can marry her, it will be a great help to our Wu family. Then you will inherit the family business and have her as your wise helper. Your grandfather can rest assured."

Roger showed an expression of determination: "Dad, don't worry, I will marry Warnia home, she can only be my woman!"

While talking, the car has reached the door of Song's house.

Outside the main entrance of the villa area where the Song family is located, the lights have already been illuminated.

As the actual controller of the first family of Aurous Hill, Mr. Song can be regarded as a high authority, and his birthday banquet is naturally very grand.

Although it has not yet officially started, many guests have arrived after hearing the news and waited outside the gate of the villa area.

After all, the Song family is the first family in Aurous Hill, and there are so many small families attached to it.

Therefore, no one dare to neglect the birthday banquet of Mr. Song.

At this time, outside the door of the villa area, although Liu Ming's father Liu Guang was not invited, he had been waiting here for a long time.

Seeing that the Wu family's father and son's car came back, he immediately greeted them with an extremely exquisite gift box.

When the car window was lowered, Liu Guang immediately said to Roger flatteringly: "Mr. Roger, the gift you want me to prepare is ready. The masterpiece of the top Italian jewelry designer Mr. Fischer, you gave me a hundred millions. After spending it, it cost 98 million!"

Roger took the gift box in his hand and opened it. It was a beautifully shaped bracelet inlaid with dozens of pink natural diamonds, which was very valuable.

Regnar on the side asked, "Is this bracelet prepared for Warnia?"

"Yes." Roger said with a smile: "The bracelet she is wearing now looks very rubbish. It is estimated to be worth hundreds of thousands. Believe that, when you give this one, she will love it!"

Chapter 643

Seeing that his son had begun a clear offensive, Regnar nodded in satisfaction, and praised: "That's right, Roger, you have learned to observe the moves and have a definite target!"

Roger smiled and said: "Dad, I have been with you for so long, and I have learned a little bit from you, but compared to you, it is still far behind."

"No." Regnar said seriously: "You can observe that Warnia's bracelet is relatively old and worthless. This is already a big improvement. You can buy a better one to please her and prove that you are doing things now. Much more mature and stable, not bad, not bad! Very good!"

Roger was praised, and he was overjoyed. Seeing Liu Guang's pug's eyes were also a little bit satisfied. He smiled and said, "Liu Guang, this bracelet is really beautiful. You did this well. In the future, if you do things for me seriously, I will not treat you badly."

Liu Guang respectfully said: "Yes, Mr. Wu I will do my best for you!"

After all, he hurriedly handed over another two million check, saying: "Mr. Wade this is the remaining two million."

Seeing Liu Guang's sincere attitude, Roger said with satisfaction: "You can keep these two million."

Although Liu Guang didn't care about the two million, he also realized that this was the reward given to him by Young Mr. Orvel, so he nodded excitedly and said in gratitude, "Thank you Young Master!"

Regnar on the side looked at Liu Guang with a little bit of appreciation in his heart.

Unexpectedly, this Liu Guang not only has a sufficiently pious attitude, but also works more simply and neatly.

And he was the first dog to surrender after the Wu family came to Aurous Hill.

Therefore, Regnar felt that Liu Guang should also be given some real sweetness.

So he opened his mouth and said, "Liu Guang, did they invite you to the birthday banquet of Mr. Song today?"

Liu Guang smiled bitterly, and said: "Master, let's not hide it from you, how can I be invited by the Song family with my identity..."

In fact, many people, like Liu Guang, are not qualified to participate in the birthday banquet of Mr. Song, but they still dream of having the opportunity to participate.

This is because Mr. Song's birthday banquet invites all top figures in Aurous Hill. It is uniquely convenient to expand contacts here.

Regnar looked at Liu Guang, smiled slightly, and said: "You can't get in by yourself, but now you are a member of my Wu family, then I will take you in to meet the world, and let the people in Aurous Hill know that you are from the Wu family now."

Liu Guang showed ecstasy: "Thank you, Mr. Orvel, for giving me this opportunity. I will definitely do things for you and Master."

For him, the birthday banquet of the Song family was not something he was qualified to attend. Now Regnar is willing to take him in. This alone is enough to make him grateful.

At this time, Regnar said lightly: "Okay, let's get in the car, go in first."

Liu Guang hurriedly sat in the seat of the co-pilot respectfully, and followed the Wu family and his son into the house of the Song family villa.

The father and son's car had just stopped in the courtyard of the Song's villa. As soon as they got out of the car, they saw Warnia hurried out of the villa wearing an extremely dignified red dress.

Today's Warnia has just put on her makeup carefully, so she is more beautiful than usual.

Roger was stunned. It took a moment to come back to his senses. Seeing that Warnia had gotten into her car, he hurriedly pulled Warnia's car door and asked: "Warnia, where are you going?"

Warnia said blankly: "I'm going to pick up a distinguished guest!"

Roger said disdainfully: "What distinguished guest is worth Warnia to condescend to pick up in person?"

Warnia said lightly: "Of course it is the most important guest!"

After speaking, Warnia said in a convenient way: "Please let go of my car door, I am leaving."

Chapter 644

Roger felt a little sullen. He didn't expect that he and his father were in front of Warnia. Warnia even said that there are the most important guests. Who in Aurous Hill is more important than himself and his father?

In other words, in Aurous Hill, whose face can be greater than that of the Wu family? !

Although he was very upset, Roger said very gentlemanly: "By the way, Warnia, I specially prepared a gift for you, I don't know if you like it or not."

Warnia frowned and said, "Mr. Roger, you should take the gift back. I don't need anything. You don't have to spend so much. Besides, I can't just accept your gift."

Roger hurriedly took out the gift box Liu Guang gave him, and said seriously: "Warnia, what are you being so polite with me? I mainly saw that the string you wore was very old several times. I feel a little distressed for you. You are the dignified Miss Song, how can you wear such simple and crude jewelry.”

Speaking of this, Roger has already taken out the bracelet he bought and said: “Warnia, this bracelet is the work of Italian jewelry designer Fischer. This is the only one in the world, worth over 100 million. I bought it for you. Only such a bracelet can match your identity and temperament. The bunch of rubbish in your neck should have been thrown into the Rubbish can!”

Roger thought that all women in the world love jewelry, especially precious jewelry, so Warnia must not be an exception.

Therefore, the bracelet he bought at a high price will definitely touch Warnia’s heart.

However, he did not expect that Warnia’s face suddenly sank after listening to his words! Looking at Roger’s eyes, with unprecedented anger and disgust!

The bracelet on her wrist is really worthless, and it does look a little dirty and old.

but!

This bracelet is a relic left by her mother!

For so many years since her mother’s death, this bracelet has been worn on her hand and cared for, and it has an extraordinary meaning to her!

At the beginning, it was accidentally locked by the trapped dragon formation in Fengshui. she almost died in several car accidents and didn’t make her afraid, but lost this chain of bracelets, which made her extremely painful and inferior to death.

For this reason why she invited the fool master Lai from Hong Kong in order to change her fortune and then find this bracelet.

However, that time, she was almost killed by the fake Master!

If Charlie hadn’t penetrated his own experience at a glance, and helped her resolve the trapped dragon formation, she might have lost her life.

And the reason why this bracelet can be retrieved is completely thanks to Charlie!

If Charlie hadn't broken the trapped dragon formation, how could she have this luck to retrieve this bracelet?

This shows how important this bracelet is to her!

However, the bracelet that is so important to her and the bracelet that entrusts all her feelings and longings for her mother is turned out to be rubbish for Roger! He said that it should be thrown into the Rubbish can! This just made Warnia angry, almost exploding!

She pushed away the hand of Roger shaking the diamond bracelet, and said coldly, "Roger! This bracelet is a relic left by my mother. It is more precious than my life. Why do you insult it?!"

Roger was stunned.

dmn it! What the hll?

This broken bracelet turned out to be a relic left by Warnia's mother? !

Isn't this picking up a rock and hitting yourself in the foot? !

Just when Roger was extremely upset and didn't know how to remedy it, Warnia angrily closed the car door, kicked the accelerator, and drove away.

Roger stood on the spot dumbfounded, his expression was much uglier than his brother who eats sh!t every hour...

Chapter 645

At this moment, Roger wanted to die.

He never dreamed that the broken bracelet on Warnia's wrist turned out to be a relic left by her mother...

And he actually said that the relics her mother left for her was garbage...

This is really a catastrophe accidentally.

Warnia herself is not too cold to him, he originally wanted to rely on this bracelet to give himself a wave of points.

Unexpectedly, it turned out to be self-defeating trick and suddenly dropped a wave...

Now his score in Warnia's mind is already reduced to a negative score...

Regnar, who was not far away, was a little puzzled looking at his son's back on the spot.

Didn't he came here to give Warnia a gift just now?

Warnia would be very happy with such an expensive gift.

But why did Warnia just drive away?

With doubts in his heart, he walked forward directly, patted Roger on the shoulder, and asked, "How was the talking with Warnia?"

After that, seeing Roger still holding the bracelet in his hand, he asked in surprise, "Warnia took the gift?"

Roger said with a sad face, "Dad, the broken bracelet that Warnia was wearing was actually a relic left to her by her mother... I didn't know. She also said that the bracelet was quite rubbish and not worthy of her temperament..."

"f*ck..."

Regnar was also surprised.

Immediately, he sighed and said to Roger: "You should have thought that with Warnia's identity, it is impossible to wear such a shabby bracelet. Since she wears it, there must be something hidden! It's too careless.!"

Roger was about to cry, looked at his father, and said aggrieved: "Dad, you just praised me for my careful observation and purposefulness, and now I'm sloppy..."

Regnar's old face blushed, and he hurriedly adjusted after a while, and said seriously: "You have indeed begun to observe the details, but the observation is not detailed enough. This time, we must learn from the lesson and don't make such mistakes again in the future."

Roger sighed, "Well, I know Dad..."

After he finished speaking, he said again: "By the way, Warnia actually drove to pick up someones in person, and said that she was picking up some distinguished. Dad, what distinguished guests could make the Song family take so seriously?"

Regnar frowned: "I don't know about this, but as far as I know, among the guests invited by the Song family this time, besides us, there are some Aurous Hill partners and old friends from the world. There are no big people over here."

"That's weird." Roger muttered: "Did Warnia pick up her sweetheart?"

"I'm not good at this." Regnar asked: "You should pay more attention to see who she is coming back with."

"Ok."

.....

At this moment, Warnia was driving to Charlie's home.

Grandpa's birthday banquet, she should have helped at home, but she really missed Charlie, so she was thinking about picking him up personally, so that she and him could be alone on the road for a while.

If Charlie arrives at Song's house, when the guests are around, there will be no chance for her to speak privately with him.

Hearing that she went out to pick up Charlie, the Old Master Song naturally agreed without hesitation. Although Charlie is now married, he still regarded Charlie as the future son-in-law of the Song family.

On the way, Warnia took out her mobile phone and prepared to call Charlie.

Since today was the weekend, the family got up late, so Charlie prepared breakfast before ten o'clock and put it on the table.

Chapter 646

Claire came out of the bedroom, stretched his waist, and asked Charlie, "Are you busy today?"

Charlie said: "I am going to a friend's birthday banquet at noon."

After speaking, Charlie asked her: "Wife, are you okay?"

Claire nodded and said, "I want to buy something, but if you have things to do, I'll ask Elsa."

Charlie said: "I'm sorry, my wife, you go with Elsa first, and I will accompany you the next day."

Claire smiled slightly: "Well, OK."

The mother-in-law Elaine asked with a dark face: "Oh, Charlie, do you have a friend in Aurous Hill for a birthday? Are his young?"

Charlie nodded: "It's eighty."

Elaine sneered: "Are you now starting to use your silly set of things to deceive those old men who are about to fall into the ground? To deceive coffins?"

Charlie said lightly: "I haven't lied to anyone."

"Still pretending?" Elaine coldly snorted, "Are there not a few big figures in Aurous Hill who have been fooled by you? I tell you, I have already seen through your future. You are just like those quack masters from back then, waiting for your end. There are only two futures, either going to jail or being hunted down."

Elaine has been watching Charlie with very upset eyes recently. The core factor is that Charlie donated all the money she lost to Lian and Horiyah to Project Hope.

Now, her pockets are cleaner than her face. She has no money to renew the stored-value card in the beauty salon. She doesn't know how to explain it to her husband or daughter if they find it out.

In Elaine's eyes, Charlie was the culprit of all this!

Therefore, she was naturally 10,000 unhappy with him.

When Jacob heard that Elaine started targeting Charlie again, he hurriedly stood up and defended: "I say, why are you like this? What did Charlie do, the old running man? How good Charlie has been during this time."

"What a sh!t!" Elaine didn't know that when Jacob had a classmate gathering some time ago, he leaned on Charlie to pretend to be a force, and he was grateful for Charlie's gratitude.

Seeing her husband taking side of Charlie, she immediately cursed: "Jacob, don't be fooled by this guy, otherwise you don't know if you will be sold by him!"

Jacob was too lazy to talk to her. Instead, he handed his BMW car key to Charlie and said, "Charlie, Dad has reserved a box in Classic Mansion tonight, and I will have a meal with the leaders of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. Two cups, I can't drive, just take the car key and pick me up at Classic Mansion."

Charlie nodded, took the car key, and asked, "Dad, what time will I pick you up?"

Jacob said: "We have an appointment for dinner at seven o'clock. It will be over around 8:30 to 9:00, so you can come to Classic Mansion at 8:30."

"Okay."

As soon as Charlie agreed, Elaine got anxious and asked, "Jacob, are you going to treat guests at Classic Mansion? Where did you get the money?"

Jacob didn't dare to say that Charlie gave him the money, so he concealed: "Do you care about so much? Anyway, you don't need to spend your money!"

Elaine said angrily: "Going to the worst box in Classic Mansion will cost 20,000 to 30,000. You have the money to burn?"

Jacob said angrily: "I told you a long time ago, I want to compete with the executive director, what is a meal of twenty or thirty thousand? Besides, it won't cost you any money."

Elaine was furious and blurted out: "Twenty thousand is enough for me to go to the beauty salon to do several face and body treatments! You actually use the money to treat people for dinner?"

Jacob blurted out: "You go to the beauty salon and spend 10,000 to 20,000 a month, and I didn't stop you! There are more than two million at home with you, you spend yours, I spend mine, I ask you for money. No, you still care where I get the money and where I spend?"

Elaine was suddenly stopped by Jacob.

The two million people in the family are indeed in their own place, but now they have donated Project Hope!

I don't even have money to go to the beauty salon to get facials!

If 20,000 for food, how good would it be to make a face for yourself?

Chapter 647

Charlie saw Elaine's performance in his eyes and laughed in his heart.

He knew that Elaine was very short of money now. She used to spend all kinds of money lavishly, but now she was exhausted, and she must be very uncomfortable.

Now, Elaine must be even more depressed to see Jacob going to the Classic Mansion for a dinner.

Sure enough, Elaine blurted out to Jacob and said, "No! You give me the money you want to eat!"

"Why?" Jacob was anxious, and blurted out: "Elaine, I warn you not to go too far! The money is in your hands, so you don't need to give it to me, but now you still want to ask me?"

There was a ghost in Elaine's heart, and she stubbornly said: "You can't go to a cheaper place? Even if you eat 10,000, you can give me another 10,000!"

Jacob got annoyed and said, "With so much money in your own hands, what do you have to do with this ten thousands? Too much?"

Elaine said angrily: "I don't care. If you don't give me 10,000 today, I won't let you eat! If you can get out of this door today, you will lose Elaine!"

"You are crazy!" Jacob slapped his chopsticks on the table, and said angrily: "I warn you Elaine, don't go too far! I finally got the president and the others out, and the place was chosen to inform them. If you keep me from getting off the stage, I will never finish this with you!"

"No end, no end, who is afraid of whom?!"

Elaine was also anxious, she really wanted to ask for 10,000 from Jacob!

With this 10,000, she can at least renew the beauty card first, and in the afternoon she can go to make faces with a few old sisters.

In the morning, everyone in the group made an appointment to go to the beauty salon together in the afternoon, but she has no money in the card, so she could only decline with the excuse of something.

If Jacob gives the money, she could go and enjoy as usual!

Jacob was almost crying in anger. He stood up, glared at Elaine, and said indignantly: "Elaine, why are you such an excessive person? The money at home is usually given to you, and I made hundreds of thousands of money from antiques. I have given it to you, are you are still not satisfied? I tell you, don't push me too much!"

Elaine gritted her teeth and said, "Isn't it enough for ten thousand to eat a meal? Do you have to eat twenty thousand worth in one day? I just want to curb your habit of extravagance and waste! I can't help your arrogance!"

Jacob said with a red eye: "Think about it for yourself, I only have a some pocket money all year round? When have I been extravagant and wasteful? In my opinion, you are the one who is extravagant and wasteful? Look at your clothes and jewelry. You still buy it if you can't pile it up, it's endless!"

Elaine said angrily, "I have suffered so many grievances for marrying you. Are you unwilling to buy some clothes? Do you still have a conscience about it?"

As she said, Elaine's tears came just as she said, and she choked up: "Back when you let me get pregnant first without marriage, I suffered so much cold eyes and ridicule from others. After marrying you, how much humiliation from your mother, have you imagined? Now you even dislike me for buying more clothes, you're really blind!"

Jacob's desire to die is gone.

Back when she got pregnant when they were unmarried, she got him drunk and slept with him, okay?

If it weren't for her to use this method, how could Mr. Jacob's first love go down to the United States in anger?

She ruined his all life. He thought it was because of daughter's face, so he tolerated her. But now she doesn't even let him eat a meal. Isn't this too much? !

Thinking of this, Jacob shuddered and rebuked, "Elaine, what did you do back then, don't you know what you did? You still have the face to blame me?"

"What did I do? I was pregnant with your baby!" Elaine cried loudly: "I was a famous girl of the university back then! you made me drunk and ruined me!"

"You...you bullsh*t!"

Jacob was so embarrassed that he almost wanted to cry. For decades, he had been suffering in his heart. He didn't expect Elaine to even slap him down. How shameless is this woman? !

At this time, Claire was a little bit overwhelmed, and said, "Dad and Mom, would you stop arguing?"

Chapter 648

After finishing speaking, she said to Elaine again: "Mom, don't embarrass Dad. He doesn't spend much money. Now he wants to treat some guests, why do you have to confront him?"

Elaine said: "I still want to save some money for the family? Twenty thousand for a meal, is beyond our family means?"

After that, she glared at Jacob and said, "You have to give this money today, or you have to give it if even if you don't!"

Claire didn't know what Elaine thought.

So she opened her mouth and said: "Mom, don't embarrass Dad. Isn't it 10,000? I'll give it to you."

"Okay!" Elaine immediately said excitedly: "Then transfer it to me on WeChat!"

Claire nodded, took out her mobile phone, and transferred 10,000 to Elaine.

Elaine opened WeChat and clicked to receive the payment. After receiving the money, she grinned.

After that, she immediately said in a group of five: "Sisters, I'm going joning in the afternoon too!"

Someone in the group asked: "Hey, didn't you say something in the morning?"

Elaine hurriedly replied: "I was going to go shopping, but my leg hurts a bit. If I don't want to go, I should go to the beauty salon to do facials and relax!"

Claire sighed helplessly when seeing her mother's eyes open. She didn't know that her mother had already lost all the family's savings.

At this moment, Charlie's mobile phone on the desktop suddenly shook.

It was Warnia who called.

Charlie picked up the phone to answer and heard Warnia's gentle and pleasant voice: "Mr. Wade, I will be at your house in ten minutes. When will it be convenient for you?"

Charlie said: "Wait for a while. When the family finishes breakfast, I will come down after finishing the dishes."

"Well, then I am waiting for you at the gate of the community."

Warnia couldn't help feeling a little distressed when she heard Charlie's answer.

Mr. Wade is such a perfect man, he still needs to clean up the dishes at home? This is simply an insult to him!

She couldn't help thinking in her heart that if Mr. Wade was with her, she wouldn't let him do any housework!

After all, a man should go abroad to fight the world and be served meticulously by his wife when he returns home. How can he do housework at home?

On the one hand, she felt strongly worthless for Charlie, and on the other hand, she was eager to be the woman who served Charlie at home.

Charlie hung up the phone, and Claire said, "Charlie, is your friend here to pick you up?"

"Right." Charlie nodded, and said, "My friend's granddaughter, just came over to pick me up."

Claire hummed, without thinking about it, and said: "Then, you go and I will clean up the dishes and chopsticks. Don't let them wait too long."

Charlie hurriedly said: "It is okay wife, let her wait a while, I will leave after finishing packing."

Claire hurriedly pushed him, and said, "Oh, let me take it. If you have anything to go, don't keep them waiting long!"

Chapter 649

Seeing Claire's insistence, Charlie nodded and said, "That's OK, you have worked so hard, wife, I'll go now."

"Go." Claire replied and asked him: "Since you are going to a friend's birthday banquet, are you ready with gifts?"

Charlie snorted and said, "I'm ready."

Claire hurriedly asked, "What gift are you preparing? Don't be too petty and dissatisfying."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I have prepared a little something that I made by myself. It is polite and affectionate! My friend doesn't care about money, and I believe he will like it very much."

"That's good." Claire nodded and said with a smile: "If this is the case, then you go quickly!"

"Ok."

Charlie got up and put on an ordinary coat, said goodbye to Claire and his father-in-law, and went straight out of the house.

As soon as Charlie left, Elaine put down her mobile phone on her back, and said to Claire with a serious face: "Claire, why are you getting used to Charlie now! What's the use of his waste besides doing housework? I usually want him to do more housework. Is it not okay for you to even let him do the housework!"

Claire hurriedly said: "Mom, if Charlie has something to do, let him go. I will take care of things like cleaning up the bowls and chopsticks. I will do it later. It's no big deal."

Elaine blurted out: "That's not what I said! This man is just like raising a dog. If you restrict him from beginning to end, he will not dare to poop and pee at home, go to bed, or bite on furniture. , he will wag tail when he sees you."

As he said, Elaine said very solemnly: "But if you relax a little bit of discipline, it will not only push your nose to your face, maybe someday will bite you back! Look at your dad who asked me to discipline over the years. Is he not obedient?"

When Jacob heard this, his expression was so ugly, he cursed in his heart, d*mn it, you, the stinky lady, treat me like a dog?

However, Jacob also dared not say anything to her, and could only endure what he was upset about.

Claire glanced at her father sympathetically, and said helplessly: "Mom, I cleaned up the dishes and going out."

After speaking, she ignored Elaine, took the bowls and chopsticks into the kitchen.

Through the kitchen window of Claire's house just happened to be able to see the entrance of the community, so she was washing the dishes, while subconsciously looking out the window, she saw her husband Charlie, walking outside the door.

Charlie didn't know that his wife Claire was looking at him from the kitchen.

When he came outside the gate of the community, he saw a red Rolls Royce Phantom parked at the gate of the community.

Immediately afterwards, a woman with noble temperament, beautiful face and slender legs emerged from the car. This woman was the eldest lady of the Song family, Warnia.

Today Warnia is wearing a red customized dress, the whole person looks more beautiful, and it vividly sets off the temperament of the eldest daughter of the big family.

She dressed up today and said it was for grandpa's birthday celebration, but it was actually for Charlie.

After all, a woman is a person who pleases herself. This sentence has not changed since ancient times. She hopes that Charlie can pay attention to her beauty and care more about her.

Seeing Warnia, Charlie couldn't help but look up and down, and couldn't help being surprised.

This is not the first time Charlie has seen Warnia's beauty, but he still couldn't help but give a compliment and said, "Warnia, you are dressed beautifully today."

Warnia looked at Charlie affectionately, and when she heard this, she couldn't help but pounding like a deer, her face also showed the shame of a little woman.

She couldn't help holding the skirt, and turned slightly in front of Charlie, and said: "Do you really think my dress is beautiful?"

Charlie smiled faintly: "Of course it's very beautiful, very in line with your temperament."

Warnia became more embarrassed, and the roots of her ears became hotter.

Afterwards, Warnia bowed very respectfully, and at the same time said with some shame, "Thank you, Mr. Wade for your praise."

Chapter 650

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "You have worked so hard to pick me up."

Warnia hurriedly said: "Yes, it is our Song family's honor that you attend Grandpa's birthday banquet."

Having said that, Warnia hurriedly trot for two steps, took the initiative to open the door of the co-pilot, bowed slightly, made a gesture to Charlie, and blushed: "Mr. Wade, please get in the car."

Charlie nodded, and got into the car directly without being polite to Warnia.

If someone sees that the famous daughter of the Song family Ms. Warnia in Aurous Hill, taking the initiative to open the door to a young man, their jaws will drop.

However, Charlie felt that, no matter from which aspect, he deserved Warnia to open the door for him.

In terms of identity, he is the son of the Wade family, much stronger than her or even the entire Song family;

In terms of strength, he is Mr. Wade, even Warnia's grandfather must be respectful to him, so it is natural for Warnia to open a car door for himself.

Charlie didn't know, this scene happened to be seen clearly by Claire.

Claire had met Warnia. When her studio opened, Warnia specially came to congratulate him.

When she saw Warnia last time, Claire felt like she was inferior to her in everything.

In terms of family background, appearance, temperament, ability, and financial resources, she can't compare herself to her. It feels like she has met a stunning beauty who is stronger than her in every aspect. Claire feels a little embarrassed.

But she didn't expect that Warnia, who is famous throughout Aurous Hill, would be so respectful to her husband?

Not only did she drive to the door of her house to pick him up, even opened the door for him? Why is she so polite to her husband?

Thinking of this, Claire suddenly felt a little sour, and she turned out to be jealous!

A thought came into her heart: This Warnia, does she like Charlie?

However, the next moment, she felt that her idea was too absurd.

Who is Warnia!

She is the daughter of the Song family! Family assets exceed 100 billion.

Where's her husband? Just a vagrant.

Even if he had some mysterious skills in fortune-telling now, it was impossible to compare with the daughter of a big family, someone like Warnia.

However, since it is impossible for her to see her husband, why is she so polite to her husband?

Claire couldn't figure out this question, and was inexplicably irritable.

At this time, Warnia had started Rolls Royce and left with Charlie.

Claire looked at the luxury cars that were gradually going away, even more uncomfortable in her heart.

Is there really something unspeakable about the two of them?

She subconsciously took out her mobile phone, trying to call Charlie, but as soon as she took out the mobile phone, she hesitated again.

After much deliberation, she decided that after Charlie came back, she would find another opportunity to ask him carefully.

As for now, let's not be aggressive.

After all, it is a husband and wife, and she has to give him a minimum of trust and respect!

Chapter 651

In the car.

Warnia said to Charlie while driving, "Mr. Wade, Grandpa has been talking about you for several days, and I am afraid that you will not have time to attend his birthday banquet. After you arrive, I believe he will be very happy!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Since I have promised you, how can I break the appointment."

"Yeah!" Warnia nodded happily, and said: "The person Grandpa wants to see most today is probably you."

While speaking, Warnia sighed: "I don't know what's going on. Since my grandfather went to see the genius doctor Tianqi a few days ago, he has been talking about you and told me in private that this birthday banquet is his greatest wish, that you can be there."

Charlie was stunned, he even chuckles.

He knew why Mr. Song kept talking about him and wanted to see him.

He must have met Tianqi first and saw the magical effect of Tianqi taking Rejuvenating Pill, so he must be eager to hope that he can also give him one!

In fact, it is not only the temptation of the Old Master Song that is difficult to match the rejuvenating pill, all the elderly in this world, they are not equal to the huge attraction of the rejuvenating pill.

After he received the invitation, he did consider what gift he should prepare for Grandpa Song.

After much deliberation, he feels that people like Mr. Song don't care about money, so he might as well just give him a rejuvenation pill.

Rejuvenation pills are nothing magical to Charlie, and the most expensive cost is nothing more than a 300-year-old purple ginseng.

What's more, he helped Liang, the illegitimate son of the Wei family. In order to thank him, Liang gave him the family-renowned Thousand-Year Snow Ginseng. If the Thousand-Year Snow Ginseng is used for refining medicine, the effect is much better than Rejuvenating Pill. .

Therefore, giving Mr. Song a rejuvenation pill not only can sell Mr. Song a great favor, but also does not cost much to him. It can be said that it is multi-purpose.

At this time, Warnia said to Charlie again: "Mr. Wade, Grandpa invited a lot of your friends. You can have a good time with them later."

"Oh?" Charlie asked with a smile: "Who did you invite?"

Warnia said: "Doris, Vice Chairman of Emgrand Group, I heard that you have a good relationship with her?"

Charlie nodded: "It's not bad."

Warnia smiled slightly and said, "She will also come today."

After that, Warnia paused slightly, and then said: "As for the Patriarch of the White Family and Qin Family, naturally it goes without saying that they have always had a good relationship with you, right?"

Charlie smiled and said, "That's right."

Warnia said again: "Grandpa also invited Liang, the chairman of Wei's Pharmacy. I heard that you supported him?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Liang is an illegitimate child, and he has not been treated appropriately. In addition, his father and his half-brother offended me, so I picked him up."

Warnia pursed her mouth and said, "Mr. Wade, I heard that you asked Mr. Orvel to send the father and son to Changbai Mountain to dig ginseng?"

"Yes." Charlie said lightly: "Since he despises Changbai Mountain the most, then I will send him over to reflect on it."

Warnia smiled and said: "I heard that the two of them had a miserable life in Changbai Mountain. They had to dig ginseng to exchange for some food. Some time ago, the mountain was covered by heavy snow. The father and son couldn't get into the mountain or collect ginseng. So he ran to the villager's house and stole a chicken, but it made people unable to get up from the fight. The cat was chewing on the bark in the ruined house.”

Charlie asked curiously: “Why do you pay attention to these? Even I didn’t pay attention to the recent situation of the two of them.”

Warnia blushed and said with a little shame: “I just feel that they are both on their own account, so I want to know what kind of punishment they have been punished, and then I asked more about it.”

Charlie smiled and said, “Did you pay attention to the group of people who were sent to Jinx to dig coal?”

Warnia smiled and said, “Pay attention! They seem to be really miserable. They go to the coal kiln for 12 hours a day. The working environment is very bad, the work intensity is heavy, and they still don’t have enough food. I heard that there are more than a dozen people in the evening. They keep crying in the Chase shop...”

Chapter 652

Charlie smiled and said, “This is the price of harm.”

“Yeah!” Warnia nodded heavily, and said: “These people are all to blame.”

While talking, Warnia had already drove the car into the Song family villa.

In the courtyard of the villa, Solmon White, Qin Gang, Orvel, Liang, and Doris had been waiting here long ago. As soon as Charlie got out of the car, they immediately surrounded them.

Warnia stopped the car and said to Charlie: “Mr. Wade, take your seat, and I will open the door for you.”

Charlie said hurriedly: “Don’t be so polite, I can just go down by myself.”

Warnia said hurriedly: “No, no! Mr. Wade, you are today’s distinguished guest. I must do all the courtesy you deserve, or grandpa will definitely scold me!”

With that, she hurriedly pushed the door of the car, walked around the passenger door, and opened the door.

Charlie smiled helplessly, and then got out of the car.

He felt that Warnia was making a fuss and being too serious, but Warnia felt that these etiquettes were all essential. What made grandpa value Mr. Wade so much.

At the same time!

On the terrace on the second floor of the villa, Roger overlooked the courtyard, taking all the performance of Warnia and Charlie into his eyes.

Since Warnia drove out, he has been waiting here, hoping to wait for the distinguished guest whom Warnia talked.

He himself also hoped that the so-called distinguished guest that Warnia personally picked up would be an Old Master, preferably a female Old Master, so that the possibility of love rivals would be completely eliminated.

But unexpectedly, Warnia actually picked up a young man who was similar to her age!

Moreover, what surprised him even more was that Warnia would actually get off the car and open the door for the young man!

Roger couldn't help wondering how much Warnia had to pay attention to each other to condescend to personally open the door to a young man of the same age?

Could this be the man Warnia liked?

This is the best grandson-in-law that Mr. Song misses?

It looks like it must be him!

Thinking of this, Roger's face was extremely gloomy, and his heart was so angry!

He observed at Charlie closely, and looked up and down the strange man.

Although Charlie looked handsome, demeaned and chic, from the perspective of his clothes, he was an ordinary person who couldn't be more ordinary.

Roger estimated that Charlie's clothes and shoes totaled only a few thousand.

A few thousand is worth a pair of socks.

This kind of person looks like a stinky silk from a bad street. Why does Warnia take him so seriously? !

Moreover, seeing Warnia's twitchy and shy gesture like a little woman, you don't need to guess, she must be enamored with this rag!

Roger's fists were clenched, and the force was too strong, making the entire knuckles a little white!

Immediately, he felt that he had nowhere to vent his stomach, so he slammed his fist on the railing and snarled, "d*mn! Where's the smelly rag, you dare to steal a woman from me, are you really looking for death!"

Chapter 653

Some guests coming and going on the second floor suddenly cast doubtful glances, wondering why Roger and Regnar suddenly became angry.

Roger glanced at them coldly and said, "What are you looking at? Get out!"

Seeing that these guests all turned their heads and dared not look at this place anymore, Roger had a somber face and beckoned to Liu Guang not far away.

Liu Guang ran over and asked diligently: "Mr. Wu, what do you want?"

Roger pointed to Charlie, who was standing with Warnia in the yard, gritted his teeth and said: "You can check the identity of this kid for me. I want to see how sacred he is!"

Liu Guang glanced in the direction of Roger's finger, and this glance made him immediately cracked!

Isn't this Charlie? !

He knows this person when he turns into ashes!

The reason why his precious son Liu Ming was carved with a knife on his forehead by Orvel was because he offended Charlie!

Had it not been for Charlie, Mr. Orvel wouldn't have hurt his son!

Therefore, Mr. Orvel is just the murderer, and Charlie is the culprit!

His son's forehead was engraved with the words "poor hanging" and became Aurous Hill's laughing stock. When he thought of this, he wanted to swallow Charlie alive!

However, because he couldn't provoke Mr. Orvel, he could only swallow his anger and didn't even dare to let go!

Thinking of this, he immediately gritted his teeth and said: "Mr. Wu, this person is called Charlie!"

Roger asked in a cold voice, "What's the origin of this rag? he dare to move the woman I like, I think he is tired of life!"

Seeing that Roger was very upset with Charlie, Liu Guang suddenly became ecstatic! he immediately realized that his chance of revenge was here!

Therefore, Liu Guang immediately said to Roger: "Mr. Wu, this Charlie is the Rubbish son-in-law of the Willson family. As for the Willson family, it is just a garbage family on the verge of bankruptcy in Aurous Hill."

Roger's expression became more gloomy, frowning and asking: "Are you sure he is a son-in-law?"

Liu Guang said firmly, "Of course he is."

After that, he further explained: "His wife is called Claire, she is very beautiful, and she is the object of a crush on many people in Aurous Hill, but in the end she married this rubbish. After this rubbish was transferred to the Willson family, he washed clothes every day, cooks and sweeps the floor, he is basically a housewife. It is said that the poor are dying, and they are very concerned about this matter. Everyone in Aurous Hill knows about this matter!"

A trace of coldness and anger flashed in Roger's eyes.

Before, both he and his father suspected that Warnia's ideal person was most likely the son of Eastcliff's big family.

If that's the case, he really doesn't have much competitiveness.

But he never expected that all of Warnia's people would turn out to be live-in son-in-laws who are stubborn here?

A son-in-law! This proves that Charlie is already married!

Furthermore, he is not just waste, a rag, and he is still a husband!

If Warnia likes the children of the Eastcliff family, it can barely make sense.

However, she actually fell in love with a married man, this is simply ruining the three views!

Moreover, he slapped himself in the face!

After all, how can he say that he is the progeny of the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. The young master of the Wu family, who has nearly 200 billion in assets, can't even compare to a son-in-law in front of Warnia?

Chapter 654

Warnia was so enthusiastic and gentle towards him, but so cold and tough towards himself, this was an insult!

Roger felt the humiliation sincerely. He gritted his teeth at Liu Guang and said coldly: "Liu Guang, I will arrange a task for you. If you do it well, I will not treat you badly, but if you do not do it well, Don't come to see me in the future!"

Liu Guang's face was stunned, and he blurted out: "Despite Mr. Wu's orders, Liu Guang will do his best!"

Roger observed at Charlie in the courtyard, and said coldly: "After a while, you can think of a way. I want you to humiliate and teach Charlie severely in front of Warnia. I want you to do it in front of Warnia! It's best to let him get out of here with his tail in a dingy way!"

Liu Guang was extremely excited. Isn't this the f*cking opportunity for public revenge? !

Thinking of this, he blurted out excitedly: "Mr. Wu don't worry, I will go down and meet him soon!"

At this moment, Liu Guang was extremely excited.

He had investigated before that Charlie used some feng shui tricks to fool a bunch of big figures in Aurous Hill. Many people respected him as Mr. Wade. Orvel, White Family, Qin Family, and even Song Family all regarded Charlie as a guest. , Is an existence that Liu Guang simply can't afford.

However, Liu Guang feels that he can't afford to offend, but it doesn't mean that the Wu family can't offend him!

Since this Charlie offended the eldest son of the Wu family, isn't it a matter of minutes for the Wu family to kill him?

Now Young Master lets himself go to the front stand, not only a chance to revenge, but also a chance to please the beads!

Kill two birds with one stone, kill two birds with one stone indeed!

With Roger supporting him behind his back, coupled with new hatred and old hatred rushing into his heart, Liu Guang was completely boiling. He must bite Charlie as a piece of meat today, it is best to kill Charlie directly!

Therefore, Liu Guang immediately said to Roger: "Mr. Roger, I will go to meet him for a while!"

.....

At this moment, in the courtyard of the villa, when Solmon White, Qin Gang, Orvel, Liang, and Ms. Doris saw Charlie coming, they hurriedly gathered around and greeted him respectfully.

Solmon White, Qin Gang, Orvel and Liang all call Charlie Mr. Wade, while Doris calls Charlie Mr. Charlie.

In addition to a few of them, Qin Gang was also followed by a dignified and beautiful beauty. This beauty was particularly eye-catching in a light blue evening dress.

Charlie took a closer look at the woman, and was surprised to find that this dignified and mature beauty is Aoxue who usually wears sportswear, has a heroic look!

He couldn't help exclaiming: "Aoxue, I almost didn't recognize your dress today!"

Aoxue blushed as soon as she heard this.

She bit her lower lip lightly, and said embarrassedly: "Hello, Mr. Wade!"

Today, Aoxue came with her father to attend Father Song's birthday banquet, deliberately dressing herself up to be very mature, because after all, she was a few years younger than Charlie, and she was still in college, for fear that Charlie would really treat her as a younger sister. A more mature dress might still make Charlie's heart move.

Charlie smiled at her slightly, and said, "You too."

At this time, Liang hurriedly walked to the front, bowed deeply, and said, "Mr. Wade, I have been waiting for you to inspect the work at Wei's Pharmaceutical Company. I wonder when Mr. Wade will have time?"

Charlie waved his hand and said, "Wei's Pharmaceutical is yours. You can manage it carefully. There is no need for me to inspect the work."

Liang hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, everything I have today is yours. Therefore, everything of Wei's Pharmaceutical is also yours. If you have any needs in the future, just a word, Liang will definitely go through fire and water!"

Charlie nodded and smiled, and said, "Liang, you are great."

Liang bowed deeply again: "Mr. Wade, this is what Liang should do."

At this time, a sharp voice suddenly rang: "Oh, fcking, it's so fcking weird. A bunch of Aurous Hill people can be regarded as having heads and faces. They actually kneel around a rubbish hanging wire and lick them. Do you have eyes? Are you blind? Still don't like your mouth tasteless and want to lick your sh!t?"

Chapter 655

No one thought that as soon as Liu Guang jumped out, he dared to barge of mockery at everyone.

These words not only mocked Charlie, but also mocked those people who respect him.

At this time, Mr. Orvel almost burst into flames in his eyes. He glared at Liu Guang and cursed coldly: "You Liu Guang, are you *f*cking* looking for death? Do you want to be like your son, let me give it on his forehead? How many words did I engrave?!"

Charlie looked at Liu Guang with a grim expression, and suddenly realized.

It turns out this guy is Liu Ming's father.

Liu Ming, the rich second generation who was full of slogans, pretended to be coercive at the Champs Elysees Hot Springs, and then asked Mr. Orvel to engrave the words on his forehead.

Unexpectedly, his father dared to make trouble for him at Song's birthday banquet today.

Liu Guang observed at Mr. Orvel fiercely at this time, and said coldly: "Mr. Orvel, don't you *f*cking* pretend to be in front of me, do you think I'm really afraid of you?"

Having said that, he pointed at Charlie and said viciously: "I really don't understand, like you, the smelly rug that can only live by eating soft rice can also appear here! There are still people who have a mouthful. A compliment, what's the matter? Are you blind? Can't you see the essence of your smelly rug?"

Everyone was indignant for a while, and they wanted to do something to Liu Guang, but Charlie stopped them and said indifferently: "Everyone, today is the birthday of Mr. Song, there is no need to fight and make others laugh."

After speaking, Charlie smiled and said to Liu Guang again: "I was thinking about what kind of mental retardation can educate a son like Liu Ming. I saw you today and finally found the reason."

After a pause, Charlie said again: "Your son's fate is your role model, so I advise you to keep a low profile and don't be too awkward. The skin on your forehead is wrinkled. If I really want to use a knife to engrave, without you The son's forehead is so smooth."

"You..." Liu Guangqi's chest rose and fell sharply, pointing at Charlie and cursed: "Tell you your surname is Wade, don't say I didn't give you a chance to survive, as long as you kneel down right now and let me also engraved the words "poor hang" on your head, otherwise, I will kill you!"

Charlie said disdainfully: "Who gave you the confidence that made you think you could kill me?"

Liu Guang sneered and said, "You are only relying on Mr. Orvel, a rubbish b@stard, to dare to be so arrogant, but now I am standing behind the Wu family. Orvel is inferior as a dog in front of me. I can do it with a wave of my hand. Kill him, not to mention you Rubbish."

Mr. Orvel was furious. He rushed over to attack Liu Guang. Charlie stopped him and said with a smile: "Liu Guang, your master seems a bit unkind. It's okay to let dogs bite people, but you have to show up, right? Otherwise, what if the dog is killed by someone?"

Liu Guang sneered and said: "Wade, don't think I don't know what you are. It's nothing more than using those mysterious things to deceive people. These people are still in the dark, waiting for them to recover. If I do it for them, they won't spare you!"

After speaking, he looked at Warnia and said seriously: "Miss Song, you are a recognized strong woman in Aurous Hill. How come you were deceived by this kind of rubbish? And don't forget, this guy is already married, and he is a live-in son-in-law, you are too close to this kind of person, which will have a great impact on your reputation. In case everyone misunderstands, I think the first lady in Aurous Hill actually likes a married man, your reputation can't be saved!"

Warnia's expression suddenly became very ugly.

She really likes Charlie, and Charlie is indeed married, but what about it? She just like him. Is it wrong to like someone from the bottom of one's heart?

Besides, even if she is really wrong, does she need Liu Guang to make irresponsible remarks? !

However, Warnia knew in her heart that when Liu Guang said this, she couldn't get angry.

Because once she is angry, she is likely to be mistaken for anger.

So Warnia scolded, "Liu Guang, right? We didn't have you on the guest list. Who brought you in?"

Chapter 656

Liu Guang sneered, and said arrogantly: "Of course, Mr. Orvel from the Wu family brought me in! Let me tell you, I am from the Wu family now. As far as I know, you don't have the strength of anyone present. Can it be compared with the Wu family? Even if you all add up, it may not be comparable to the Wu family! Whoever dares to move me is tantamount to opposing the Wu family!"

After that, Liu Guang's face was full of triumph.

He knew that as long as he showed the Wu family card, no one would dare to do anything to him.

As he proudly patrolled the surroundings, he suddenly felt a black shadow flashing past, and then he slapped his face heavily!

Only this one slapped him in the face.

He staggered almost to the end, and he stood still and found that Charlie was the one who hit him.

Charlie looked at him with a smile at this time, and said lightly: "If you don't mention the Wu family, I won't be too lazy to beat you. Since you did, then I will give the Wu family this face!"

"You f*cking dare to hit me? You're looking for death!"

Liu Guang didn't expect that he would get a slap in the face when he reported the name of the Wu family. Although the f*ck was his own face, in fact, it was the Wu family's face!

This Charlie has nothing more than the ability to fool people, but don't forget, he offended, none but the Wu family, the first family in the south of the Yangtze River!

Charlie smiled slightly, raised his hand and slapped him again, and said with a smile: "You think you are the dog of the Wu family, so I dare not beat you? Tell you, I beat the dog of the Wu family! If you are not convinced, Go back and tell your master, let him come to me!"

In fact, Charlie had already understood very much in his heart.

Mr. Orvel and the others have called him before, and the Wu family is now looking for him everywhere.

He is not only the person who turned Wu Qi into a feces-swallowing beast, but also the person Warnia loves.

So, give the Wu family some time, and they will definitely find it.

Perhaps, the Wu family has already seen that Warnia like him.

Even the reason why Liu Guang dared to jump out now is probably because the Wu family is behind him.

In this case, he simply forced the Wu family out, and what's wrong with a dog like Liu Guang?

Liu Guang is really going crazy.

He clearly mentioned the name of Wu family didn't work well, and Charlie was afraid that he would die?

It is good! Since he want to die, then he will fulfill his wish!

As soon as Liu Guang thought of Roger, the second young master of the Wu family, he was watching from the terrace on the second floor, and he deliberately shouted, "Charlie, I have already told you clearly that I am from the Wu family, so you still dare to fight Me, do you still have Wu family in your eyes?!"

Charlie saw that he had been observing from the second-floor terrace of the villa with his peripheral light, and guessed that his master should be there.

So he sneered and said loudly, "What is the Wu family? A family that can raise Rubbish like you must be very Rubbish itself! It's just a bunch of Rubbish, and it deserves to appear in my eyes?"

Chapter 657

When Roger heard Charlie insult the Wu family like this, he became furious.

So he immediately turned around and went downstairs, ready to meet Charlie for a while.

At this moment, Warnia looked at Liu Guang, who was blushing and swollen by Charlie, and called the home bodyguard.

As soon as the bodyguard arrived, she pointed at Liu Guang and ordered: "Throw this man out for me! Dare to come in again and break his legs!"

"Yes! Miss!"

When the bodyguards heard this, they rushed to the front and held Liu Guang directly to throw him out of the Song family.

However, at this moment, a cold voice suddenly rang.

"I see who dares to throw him out!"

With his hands on his back, Roger walked down the stairs step by step, with indifference and anger on his face.

Originally, he asked Liu Guang to come over to trouble Charlie and prevent Charlie from coming off stage, in order to slap Charlie severely and make him lose face in front of Warnia.

Unexpectedly, this Charlie dared to be so arrogant. He didn't put the Wu family in his eyes at all. He slapped Liu Guang twice and slapped almost into a dead dog.

This is not the most important thing!

The most important thing is that this Charlie is so bold that he dared to call the Wu family rubbish!

It is simply intolerable, which is unbearable!

When the bodyguards saw Roger come down, they hesitated for a while. After all, he and his father also lived in the Song family for a few days, and the bodyguards had long known that they were the distinguished guests of the family.

Liu Guang suddenly showed excited eyes and blurted out: "Mr. Wu, you have to call the shots for me!"

Roger glanced at him annoyingly, cursing in his heart, useless dog stuff, no small things can't be done, what use is it of you!

Warnia also frowned at this time and asked: "Roger, what do you mean? What does this matter have to do with you?"

Roger said indifferently: "It's not interesting. Liu Guang is from our Wu family. He came with my dad and me. If you want to throw him out now, you just hit our Wu family in the face!"

Then he said to Charlie again: "And you, who gave you the courage to beat him, and dare to be disrespectful to my Wu family? Now you immediately kneel down and slap yourself, otherwise, don't blame me."

For him, although Liu Guang is just a dog, this dog can be beaten by himself, but he can't be beaten by others!

Otherwise, where would he put Roger's face? Where to put the face of Wu family?

Charlie looked at him and asked, "What? Is your Wu family very good?"

"Of course." Roger sneered very arrogantly: "The Wu family is the largest family in the south of the Yangtze River, and also a leader in the whole country. You dare to say that Wu family is rubbish?!"

Charlie smiled contemptuously, and looked up and down Roger, not to mention, this guy is indeed similar to Wu Qi, and he is indeed the brother of a compatriot.

However, before Charlie spoke, Warnia hurriedly stepped forward and blurted out: "Roger, this is Liu Guang's provocation first. Don't embarrass Mr. Wade!"

"Mr. Wade?" Roger was annoyed when he heard Warnia come out to protect Charlie, and blurted out: "He is just a Rubbish, dare to call him a master?"

Warnia stepped forward and said solemnly: "Roger, please pay attention to your own words! Mr. Wade is an idol in my mind, and I can't tolerate you shaming him!"

Roger didn't expect that the goddess Warnia was actually Charlie's stinky licking dog!

He couldn't help crying in resentment in his heart: "How can this guy be compare to me? I am the man you should kneel and lick! You are really blind!"

Chapter 658

Thinking of this, he said coldly: "Warnia, let me tell you, this kid surnamed Wade beat our Wu family's dog and scolded our Wu family. Even if Mr. Song came out to talk, I can't forgive that!"

After that, he immediately pointed to Liu Guang and shouted to Charlie: "Kneel down and kowtow to my son, then kneel down and kowtow three heads to me. I will not hold you accountable for this matter for now!"

Hearing this, Liu Guang was overjoyed!

Those two slaps just now weren't in vain, the eldest master has already begun to stand for him!

So Liu Guang covered his face and strode to Charlie, arrogantly cursing: "Have you heard? Why don't you kneel down?!"

Charlie snorted disdainfully, and suddenly stretched out his hand, grabbed Liu Guang's neck, and directly lifted him in place!

Roger was dumbfounded!

He didn't expect that Charlie could lift Liu Guang, one hundred fifty or sixty kilograms, with one hand, and his feet were suspended!

At this time, Liu Guang only felt that his neck was pinched by a strong force, and his feet were kicking randomly in the air, but the more he struggled, the more he couldn't breathe!

Charlie looked at Liu Guang and said coldly: "Do you dare to say one more word, I will write on your forehead, and I will also engrave the word "poor hang"!"

After that, he threw him to the ground.

Liu Guang slammed, his bones were about to break, but he was already shocked by Charlie's coldness, and he crawled to Roger's side, really afraid to say another word.

Seeing this, Warnia pointed to Liu Guang unceremoniously, and said to several bodyguards, "What are you still waiting for? I said, throw this guy out for me!"

As soon as the bodyguard heard this, he rushed forward and dragged Liu Guang up without saying a word.

Liu Guang hurriedly shouted: "Mr. Wu, Mr. Wu. Help me mister Wu!"

Roger clenched his fists tightly, this is simply humiliating him without any secret. He has never been insulted like this before!

The anger in his eyes couldn't be turned away, and he gritted his teeth and said to Warnia: "Do you know if this Charlie is a married man or a waste son-in-law, you actually want to drive me for him?"

Warnia said with a cold face: "Mr. Wade is a distinguished guest of the Song family, and one of the people I admire most. Let alone a dog in your family, even if you dare to continue to be disrespectful to Mr. Wade, I will do the same!"

Roger sullenly looked at Warnia, then at Charlie, sneered.

He was annoyed and observed at Charlie coldly and said, "Boy, you are crazy! If you feel that Warnia is covering you, you dare to be so arrogant in front of me, haven't you heard of the reputation of the Wu family and Regnar Wu?!"

Charlie smiled lightly and said, "I have indeed heard of the name of the Wu family."

Roger's expression was cold and contemptuous, and he said arrogantly: "I've heard of it. You call Wu family rubbish. If you don't kneel down and beg me for forgiveness, the Wu family will definitely not let you go! Even if the king of heaven covering you!"

Charlie smiled faintly and said: "The reason why I have heard of the Wu family is because a few days ago, there was an internet celebrity on YouTube who robbed Old Master's sh!t in the hospital toilet!"

"That guy is said to be Wu Qi, he seems to be your Wu family child? It seems that your Wu family child is really ruthless, so disgusting things, eating that thing!"

As soon as Charlie mentioned about his brother eating sh!t, Roger's expression suddenly became extremely ugly!

d*mn, this is really the biggest stain in the 100-year history of the Wu family!

At this time, Orvel was by the side, imitating a joke on the Internet, and said with an exaggerated expression: "f*ck! Ruthless!"

Everyone suddenly laughed.

At this time, Roger's expression was about to eat people!

Chapter 659

Roger was so angry that his fists clenched!

He observed at Charlie and said coldly: "Good boy, this is your own death. Don't blame me for not giving you a chance! My Wu family will never let you live until tomorrow!"

Before Charlie spoke, Warnia immediately shouted: "Roger, dare you!"

Roger said coldly: "What can I not dare?! Do you really think that Wu family can be slaughtered in Aurous Hill? I tell you! In Aurous Hill, everyone must bow to the Wu family!"

Warnia's face was cold, and she blurted out: "Roger, you are not welcome here, please go out!"

"Let me out?!" Roger widened his eyes, looked at Warnia, and said angrily: "You want to drive me out for this stinking silk?"

Warnia said firmly: "Yes! I'll say it again, please go out!"

At this time, Warnia's cousin Honor suddenly appeared, and he hurriedly stepped forward and persuaded: "Oh, Mr. Wu and Warnia, what are you two arguing about?"

Roger saw Honor coming, and hurriedly said: "Honor is just right for you, your sister, for the sake of a mere rag, she is kicking me out!"

Honor glanced at Charlie, somewhat embarrassed.

In fact, Honor was also very disdainful of Charlie in his heart, but he knew that his grandfather believed in him very much, and he valued and respected him, so he didn't dare to openly disrespect Charlie.

Seeing that Charlie and Roger seemed to be in conflict, he hurriedly smiled and said, "Oh, this is really flooding the Dragon King Temple, and the family doesn't know the other."

With that, he hurriedly said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, this is Roger Wu, the eldest son grandson of Regnar Wu family."

Immediately, he hurriedly explained to Roger: "Mr. Orvel, this is Mr. Wade, who once saved my grandfather's life."

Roger snorted coldly, and said, "What a sh!t master, I think he's just a liar! He hurt Wu family's dog and called my family garbage. Even if it is the king of heaven or Mr. Wade he's not here today. I will let him go!"

As soon as he finished speaking, before Roger left, Mr. Song and Regnar walked over from the villa.

When Mr. Song came over, he heard the quarrel happening here, he frowned and asked, "Warnia, Honor, what happened?"

Roger saw that Grandpa Song was coming, and hurriedly said, "Grandpa Song, you just came here, and Warnia actually drove my people out for this man! And this man said rude things about family, which is simply humiliating me. , Humiliate my entire Wu family! You must..."

Before Roger finished speaking, Old Song Song had already walked two steps quickly, stretched his hands towards Charlie, and said with all his respect: "Mr. Wade, you are here!"

Roger and Regnar on the side were stunned!

Why is the eighty-year-old Mr. Song so respectful to a young man who is very young and well dressed? !

At this moment, Charlie looked at Mr. Song and smiled slightly, and said, "Father, I don't think you are getting better, do you feel a little down these days?"

Mr. Song hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade is really a dragon and a phoenix among people. You can see the aging situation at a glance. It's not a secret. The weather changed a few days ago and I was somewhat infected with wind and cold. In addition, I was getting older, so I looked tired. ."

Charlie said, "Because your body's foundation is too weak, the medicine given to you last time is mainly used to treat the illnesses and hidden diseases that have accumulated in your body for many years, although it has cured all of your problems. But it didn't improve your physical fitness much."

Elder Song hurriedly said, "Even so, I am very grateful for Mr. Wade's life-saving grace. If it weren't for Mr. Wade's action, the Old Master would have already fallen into the soil, how could he still live to his birthday today!"

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said: "Today I prepared a birthday gift for you, I believe it will be helpful to your current situation."

When Grandpa Song heard this, his hands and feet trembled with excitement.

Birthday gift? Help the status quo?

Chapter 660

Could it be...

Could it be...

Could it be the rejuvenating pill that Tianqi had taken? !

In the past few days, Grandpa Song has dreamed of getting a chance. In dreams, he hoped that Charlie could give him a rejuvenation pill, and let himself feel the charm of going back in time, so that he could live a little more years, and help Song family. Longer and farther.

However, he lived to such an old age, he knew a truth: chances are hard to find!

He dared not go to Charlie for medicine, for fear that Charlie would be disgusted, so he could only wait patiently.

Waiting for the moment when the opportunity comes.

He originally thought that this opportunity would have to wait until the day when his granddaughter Warnia and Charlie made substantial progress.

However, listening to Charlie's words now, he felt that Charlie might really have prepared a rejuvenation pill for him as a birthday gift.

However, he was not sure, and he didn't dare to ask questions directly, so he could only put this great expectation in his heart first, bowed his hand to Charlie and said, "The Old Master thanks Mr. Wade!"

Regnar frowned, and hurriedly asked Roger next to him in a low voice: "What's the background of this kid?! Old Song actually respects him so much?!"

Roger gritted his posterior molars and blurted out: "Dad! This b@stard is the guest that Warnia personally picked up just now! Moreover, I think Warnia is very attached to him!"

"Oh?" Regnar frowned and said, "So that person we are looking for is him?"

Roger nodded hurriedly and said bitterly, "This kid is very arrogant. He beat Liu Guang just now, and Warnia made people throw Liu Guang out again!"

"What?!"

Regnar said angrily: "We brought in Liu Guang, which is equivalent to letting us openly clarify that Liu Guang is Wu's dog. This kid knows that it is our dog, so he dare to do it?!"

Roger said annoyed: "Dad, this kid not only beat Liu Guang, but also called our Wu family rubbish, but also openly ridiculed brother's affairs. I have the heart to kill him!"

When Regnar heard this, his heart was furious!

What he says now is also the second-generation heir of the Wu family, and will soon succeed the old father and become the head of the Wu family. However, in the small Aurous Hill, there are people who dare not give the Wu family face or even insult the Wu family. He could not accept it anyway!

So he immediately opened his mouth and said to Mr. Song: "Uncle Song, this person beat Liu Guang and insulted our Wu family. No matter how Liu Guang is the dog of our Wu family, the dignity of my Wu family cannot be trampled by anyone. For this matter, you must give me a reasonable explanation!"

When Mr. Song heard this, he already understood the ins and outs of the matter.

It must be Roger's short-sightedness, which caused Liu Guang to run into Mr. Wade.

Otherwise, how could Mr. Wade be an acquaintance of someone like Liu Guang?

However, the current problem is also very difficult.

One side is Mr. Wade, and the other is Wu Family. Of course, Mr. Wade must do all they can to maintain, but the Wu Family is the first in Aurous Hill in strength, which really offends them and is very detrimental to the Song Family...

However, when he thought of Rejuvenation Pill, Mr. Song immediately put the question behind him!

He sank his face and said sharply to Regnar: "Mr. Regnar, Mr. Wade saved the life of the Old Master! In the old house, no one is allowed to insult Mr. Wade!"

Chapter 661

In Father Song's heart, Charlie has always been the best candidate for the son-in-law of the Song family.

With his eighty years of life experience, he has already seen at a glance that Charlie is different!

In Aurous Hill, he was the first to think that this son is extremely powerful, comparable to a real dragon on earth!

In addition, he had already seen the effect of Rejuvenating Pill, and he was full of attachment to Charlie.

A good relationship with the Wu family is nothing more than a way to make the Song family more money.

However, although the Song family is not as rich as the Wu family, they are not short of money.

There is not much difference between more than 100 billion property and more than 200 billion property. Anyway, it is inexhaustible money.

For Mr. Song, money is no longer important, life and health are the most important!

Therefore, he dreamed that he could recruit Charlie into the Song family as his son-in-law. How could he tolerate others on the Song family's territory and ridicule him?

Regnar and Roger were also startled.

No one had expected that Regnar was so straightforward, that Old Master Song was still between Charlie and Wu's family, choosing the former!

Regnar felt hot on his face, and he hated Mr. Song to death. He couldn't help but secretly thought that this old immortal is really unskilled! In the presence of so many people, he can't get off the stage! What is the face of the future owner of this Wu family? !

Roger on the side was also very annoyed and frowned, "Grandpa Song, as far as I know, this Charlie is just a liar who looks at Feng Shui! Don't be fooled by this waste!"

Mr. Song's expression was very ugly.

He looked at Roger and said coldly: "The Old Master has lived for eighty years, and he thinks he has the eye to see people, and he doesn't need your guidance!"

When Regnar heard this, his face suddenly became cold, and he said: "Uncle Song is going to speak for this outsider?"

"Yes!" Mr. Song said decisively, "In the eyes of the Old Master, Mr. Wade is a real dragon on earth, billions of mortals, no one can compare to him in any aspect!"

The voice falls!

The atmosphere solidified instantly!

Regnar was extremely annoyed.

He loves face the most in his life, and now he is so run on by Mr. Song, his heart is naturally furious.

At this moment, he even wanted to walk away, and then completely break with the Song family!

The Wu family is more influential than the Song family. If the Wu family breaks openly with the Song family, the Song family will inevitably be impacted and the loss will be at least several billion.

However, he felt in his heart that if he just waved away like this, the matter of his son marrying Warnia, he was afraid that there would be no better chance in future at all!

Regnar has been fascinated by wealthy men for a lifetime, and he knows too much about the importance of a good wife to wealthy men.

If Roger marries the daughter of an ordinary person in the future, the other party will not bring him any help, and may even lower his goal and determination to fight;

If Roger marries a star in the entertainment industry in the future, then the other party must be like a vampire, desperately drawing blood from him, screaming outside, and that will only speed up the prodigal's downfall!

If Roger will marry the second generation of a very good-tempered straw bag rich in the future, he may also be dragged into the rank of a prodigal. In that case, even if there are hundreds of billions of wealth, it may not be enough for him to corrupt the status.

He has seen too many giants regretting their lives for their wives mistakes.

Therefore, he must let his son marry a wise helper who can give him and the future family a great help!

Chapter 662

It seems that no one is more suitable for this identity than Warnia!

Thinking of this, he was a little hesitant and reluctant.

The scene, with Regnar's gloomy silence, fell into a strange embarrassment.

Seeing this, Honor on the side secretly said badly.

If the Song family and the Wu family have cracks that are difficult to repair, or even turn against each other, it will undoubtedly be a big blow to the Song family!

More importantly, in this way, Warnia is even more unlikely to marry the Wu family!

If Warnia does not marry far away, her future paternal position will not be secure!

Even if the position of the Patriarch is secured, the assets of the Song Family will probably be divided by Warnia!

Therefore, he would never allow Warnia to stay in Song's house, let alone recruit Charlie!

Therefore, he hurriedly stood up and made a haha, persuading and saying: "Uncle Wu, Young Mr. Roger, today is my grandfather's birthday banquet. As the saying goes, the elder is the oldest, not to mention that he is still the big birthday star today. In any case, you can't get angry and hurt the harmony of our family."

What Honor said was undoubtedly giving both sides a chance to ease.

Although Regnar was very angry, he didn't want to be too stiff with the Song family. He just couldn't step down because of face.

Grandpa Song, in fact, really wanted to be able to have both fish and bear paws. If he must choose one of the two, he must choose Charlie. If he doesn't have to choose one of the two, then he must choose both.

Therefore, the appearance of Honor just catered to the expectations of the two people.

So Regnar took the lead and said: "The honor says that today is Uncle Song's 80th birthday celebration. In any case, it should not be disturbed by Uncle Song's birthday. What happened just now was that Wu was abrupt. Please forgive me, Uncle Song!"

Regnar's words not only gave himself a step, but also gave Mr. Song a step.

As a junior, he took the initiative to apologize on the grounds of his father's life. It was an act of respecting the elderly, so he did not lose face, and he also showed his respect and respect for the elder.

In his opinion, first use this step to ease his tit-for-tat confrontation with Mr. Song and stabilize Mr. Song.

As for this Charlie, he has the opportunity to clean up him, not for a while, after the birthday banquet is over, he has 10,000 ways to kill him!

Father Song's expression also eased a lot, and he nodded and said, "You can only make money if you are kind, and I don't want everyone to make trouble too unpleasant."

After speaking, he looked at Charlie and asked respectfully: "Mr. Wade, what do you think?"

Although Charlie was unhappy with the Wu family man and his sons, he didn't need Mr. Song to stand up for him. He prefers to repair this kind of addictive stuff.

Besides, today is indeed Elder Song's birthday banquet, and there is no need to entangle other guests at other people's birthday banquets.

Even if you want to fight, out of respect for Master Wade, you should fight outside.

So he said indifferently: "Mr. Song today, you are the biggest, what you say is what I accept."

Father Song hurriedly laughed and said, "Oh, a misunderstanding, it is best if it is resolved! Come on, everyone moves to the banquet hall, and the birthday banquet is about to begin!"

Roger on the side, still intensely unhappy and angry deep in his heart, looked at Charlie's eyes, almost bursting into flames.

But since the two elders had reached a consensus, he couldn't continue to hold Charlie, so he had to temporarily suppress the soaring anger in his heart.

At the same time, he observed at Charlie with cold eyes, gritted his teeth and swore: This waste, he is dead!

Chapter 663

Everyone moved to the banquet hall, and the birthday banquet was about to begin.

Song Old Master exchanged a few words with Charlie, and then took the lead.

Sitting next to him were his eldest son, third son, and fourth son.

Among the second-generation heirs of the Song family, Honor's father is the eldest son, Warnia's father is the second son, but Warnia's father died young, so only Warnia remains in this line.

As for the families of the third and fourth sons, because they are relatively young, their eldest children are in their teens and the youngest are only six or seven years old. They are all still in school, so there is no competitiveness in the next generation of heirs.

The rest of the guests also sat down one by one on the other tables.

Charlie naturally sat at a table with the Qin Family, White Family, Mr. Orvel and others.

The Wu family sat with another group of local families, and the Zhao family and Kevin family, who had kneeled and licked them before, surrounded them directly, constantly flattering them.

The entire table of delicacies, as well as old wines, is already on the table.

Charlie also sat down on the VIP table, Warnia could not sit with him, but the beautiful eyes were always on him, never shifting even for half a minute.

Sitting on Charlie's right hand was Aoxue, and sitting on his left hand was Solmon White.

As soon as Solmon White sat down, he whispered to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, Tomson's first-class villa has almost been renovated. When do you plan to move in?"

Charlie said, "I will move in after the decoration is completed."

He has already discussed with Claire and want to live in the villa as soon as the decoration is complete. Not only will the environment be much better, but more importantly, he can be isolated from his mother-in-law Elaine from the floor and avoid her interruption as much as possible.

Upon hearing this, Solmon White hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, do you want me to buy some furniture and appliances in advance? Then you and Madam Wade can move in with your bags."

Charlie thought for a while. Although Claire is not too extravagant and wasteful, she still has a high pursuit of life style and style. In addition to the decoration of a house, the most important thing is the purchase and placement of furniture. If he let Solmon White do the work, it would be easier, but Claire might not like it.

Therefore, it would be better for Claire to choose this kind of thing according to her own preferences.

So he said to Solmon White: "You don't bother to worry about furniture and home appliances. Then I will take my family to pick one. After all, everyone has different preferences."

Solmon White hurriedly said: "I also thought about it this way, so I didn't take the liberty of buying home appliances and furniture. However, I prepared a 10 million shopping card for you in advance, which can be used freely in all furniture and home appliances stores in Aurous Hill."

Charlie waved his hand and said with a smile: "That is so nice of you, but I won't charge this money, it's not appropriate."

Charlie was not short of money. The 10 billion that the Wade family gave was barely spent, and then he blackmailed more than 10 billion from Japan's Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Now more than 20 billion is lying in the bank card, he really doesn't know how to spend it.

This is not counting the net profit that the Emgrand Group keeps pouring in.

If the net profit is counted, it will be a larger sum.

Seeing Charlie's rejection of his kindness, Solmon White knew that Mr. Wade was definitely not short of the money, so he hurriedly said: "Then I will keep it for you first. If you need it, you can ask me at any time."

Charlie nodded lightly.

Chapter 664

At this time, he received a message from Warnia on WeChat: "Mr. Wade, don't worry about what happened just now. If the Song family is there, the Wu family will not be too presumptuous."

Charlie smiled slightly and replied: "Don't mind, it's just some clowns."

At this time, Regnar and his son were sitting in the VIP seats on the other side.

Roger looked at Warnia, then at Charlie, and saw that both of them were playing with their mobile phones. One put it down, the other picked it up, the other put it down, and the other one picked it up again. They were talking on WeChat.

He was even more angry at this time. Although he added Warnia's WeChat, this Warnia actually closed her circle of friends!

Even when they talk to her, she rarely responds.

But looking at the frequency of her chatting with Charlie now, it was really for fear of delaying a second, almost immediately picking it up for a second, and there was even a small woman's smile on her face.

He is also a person who has made countless girls, and it is natural to see that Warnia is indeed in love with Charlie now.

Thinking of this, he felt annoyed.

The anger just now ignited again.

So he whispered to Regnar beside him: "Dad, I must let this Charlie die! he must die tonight!"

Regnar looked at his hatred and shook his head and said, "Do you know the only thing you dissatisfied with?"

Roger shook his head slightly, expressing puzzlement.

Regnar looked at him, sighed and said: "The only thing you are dissatisfied with is that you act too hastily and can't distinguish the priorities."

After that, Regnar said to Roger: "Charlie is just an ordinary person with a little strength but no background. We can kill him at any time, not in a hurry. There is no need to just talk to Song because of him. Home is noisy, now the most important thing is to let you win Warnia!"

Roger is still a little unwilling, but can only give it up: "I know, then wait two days, I will let someone kill Charlie!"

Regnar said lightly: "Don't worry, although Charlie has no background, he has a lot of fans in Aurous Hill, not only the Qin family, the White family, and Mr. Orvel, but even the Song family supports him. This is for us. It's trouble."

Roger hurriedly asked: "What should I do?"

Regnar said: "If you want to kill, you must first plan the overall situation!"

With that said, Regnar explained: "Don't think Mr. Orvel is just a b@stard in the underground world, but he has many younger brothers. Once this kind of person erupts, he will gather thousands of younger brothers every minute. This is our biggest Hidden danger, if we kill Charlie, he in turn will fight us hard, we may not be able to escape Aurous Hill alive."

"Mr. Orvel?" Roger frowned and blurted out: "Well, let's kill Mr. Orvel first!"

Regnar nodded and said, "That's what I think. I'll catch Mr. Orvel by surprise. When he is taken lightly, I will kill him directly, and then help Liu Guang to take over and let Liu Guang succeed him and become Aurous Hill's underground King!"

After all, Regnar's expression flashed with sinister expression, and he said coldly, "By that time, we are equivalent to having a strong foundation of force in Aurous Hill! If you want to kill Charlie, or even even the Qin family and the White family. It's easy to kill everything you don't know how to promote at once!"

Roger was trembling with excitement, and blurted out: "Dad, when will Mr. Orvel be killed? I think this old dog is not pleasing to my eyes!"

Regnar said indifferently: "Don't worry, I will make people ready, and I will send Mr. Orvel to the west tonight!"

Chapter 665

At the thought of killing Mr. Orvel tonight, Roger became excited!

Dad is right, Mr. Orvel is equivalent to Charlie's firepower in Aurous Hill!

If you want to defeat Charlie smoothly, you must first remove his firepower point!

Moreover, just taking it off is not enough!

You have to turn this firepower point into your own firepower point!

In this way, this firepower point became the bridgehead for the Wu family to march into Aurous Hill in the future!

At that time, Charlie must pay the price of his life for the girl who insulted and made his own!

As for the Qin family and the White family, they have to pay the price for not kneeling and licking the Wu family!

At this time, Regnar looked at Roger and said lightly: "Calm down when things happen, and don't be overly excited."

Roger hurriedly put away the involuntary excitement on his face, and said, "Dad, I see!"

"Yeah." Regnar nodded, no longer taking Charlie's matter into his heart, but asked: "A birthday gift for Mr. Song, is it ready?"

Roger nodded and said: "It's ready. I've inquired that Mr. Song likes Thompson Yin and Thompson Bohu's calligraphy and painting the most. He collects a lot of them on weekdays, so I specially asked someone to get one from the collection at home overnight. Thompson Bohu's Moon Spring picture scroll is used as a birthday gift. This painting is worth at least two to three billion. I believe he will like it!"

Regnar gave a hum, his eyes also showed satisfaction.

Even if it is placed in the Wu family, the Yuequan scroll is a treasure among the treasures. With this painting as a stepping stone, it will open the door of the Song family and let the Old Master Song pay more attention to the Wu family, and even make him agree to the marriage between the two families.

The birthday banquet has officially begun at this time.

Mr. Song stepped onto the small stage built up to thank all the guests present and thank everyone for coming to his eighty-year-old birthday banquet.

After the speech, the birthday banquet came to the stage where everyone took turns to congratulate and present birthday gifts.

Two bodyguards in black suits brought up an imperial armchair, and assisted Mr. Song to sit down on the armchair.

Honor's father, third uncle, and fourth uncle got up first and lined up to the stage.

The three of them bowed their heads to the Old Master's birthday, and then offered birthday gifts one by one.

Boyu received the gift next to him, and at the same time used the microphone to report the gift and value of the other party.

This is also the tacit understanding and habit that the upper-class family has already formed.

"The eldest son, Tianming Song, gave a tropical island to the Maldives worth 500 million!"

As soon as these words came out, they were amazed in average!

As soon as he came up, Mr. Song has a tropical island. It seemed that Tianming Song was really magnificent!

This Tianming Song is Honor's father and Warnia's uncle.

Tianming Song said to Mr. Song at this moment: "Dad, I heard that you have been caught in the cold a few days ago, and your son bought a tropical island specially. If it gets cold later, you will go there to spend the winter!"

Mr. Song nodded very satisfied: "Okay, okay, Tianming, That is so nice of you!"

"The third son, Song Tiansheng, gave a set of Classical Villa in Sanya, worth 200 million!"

A middle-aged man who was much younger than Tianming Song hurriedly said: "Dad, your son didn't expect my eldest brother to give you an island so generously, this villa really pales in comparison!"

The Old Master Song smiled slightly: "It's fine when you have your heart. Don't worry too much."

"The fourth son, Song Tianen, give a luxury yacht worth 150 million!"

Another middle-aged man hurriedly said: "Dad, this yacht and the Sanya villa were bought together by my third brother and I. If you go to Sanya in the future, you can make a yacht voyage to relax."

After speaking, he hurriedly said complimentingly: "But we didn't expect that my eldest brother can gift you an island, and then you can drive the yacht to the Maldives!"

Mr. Song smiled and nodded, and said, "Well, winter is coming. As a family, we can go to the islands of Maldives to spend the winter!"

Chapter 666

After the three sons gave the presents, Warnia and Honor got up together and came to Mr. Song.

At the same time, the two knelt down in front of Mr. Song and took out the birthday gift at the same time.

Boyu reported to the side:

"The honor of the eldest grandson Song, I presented a pair of Laokeng ice-type jadeite ornaments, worth 80 million. He wishes the father a blessing in the East China Sea and a longevity than the gods."

"The eldest granddaughter Warnia, sent a pair of Ancient pictures, worth 70 million, she wishesh the father a longevity and great prosperity."

At this time, other guests also stepped forward one after another, giving gifts.

Although they are not as valuable as the gifts from the Song family themselves, they are all valuable gifts, basically between 10 million and 30 million.

At this time, Regnar and Roger stood up, Roger holding the gift, and Regnar came to Father Song together.

Roger gave Charlie a provocative look, his heart filled with contempt.

He is about to give away the priceless authentic Thompson Yin, which must be the most valuable gift among all the guests!

At that time, he will definitely be able to compare Charlie to let him know that there is a huge difference between him and himself!

Thinking of this, Roger was incomparably in his heart, holding the calligraphy and painting in his hand, and bowed to Mr. Song.

Afterwards, he walked up to Mr. Song and said with a smile: "Grandpa Song, this is a gift from me! I heard that you like Thompson Yin's calligraphy and painting. I let someone bring an authentic piece of Thompson Yin from Wu's house overnight. Hundreds of millions of Yuequan scrolls, I hope you like it."

Boyu immediately reported in a loud voice: "The eldest son of the Wu family gave a copy of Thompson Yin's original Yuequan picture scroll, worth over 100 million!"

As soon as this remark came out, the guests at the scene turned their eyes.

Thompson Yin's calligraphy and painting are not many in the market, and they belong to the kind that has a price but no market.

Any one of the most common paintings costs at least 30 to 40 million, and the tall ones will be overwhelming.

Once Thompson Yin's picture of Lushan waterfalls was sold abroad for 3.6 billion.

And this pair of Yuequan scrolls is also a rare treasure of Thompson Yin.

Five years ago, it was photographed by a mysterious rich man at a price of nearly 200 million. Since then, no one never heard any news about Yuequan scrolls.

Unexpectedly, this painting actually reached the Wu family.

It seems that the mysterious rich man who made the purchase should be the Wu family.

This painting was worth 200 million five years ago, and now it is sold for 300 million if it is sold for auction!

If you are lucky, four hundred million may not be impossible!

When Mr. Song heard this, his eyes lit up!

He really didn't expect that the Wu family's shots were so generous, but it was just a birthday gift, it turned out to be a Yuequan scroll worth three or four billion!

He likes Thompson Yin's calligraphy and painting, and everyone in Aurous Hill knows it. Naturally, it is impossible for the Wu family not to understand.

This time they took out Thompson Yin's Yuequan picture scroll, which can be said to be a standard one, regardless of cost.

So Father Song couldn't hide his excitement and said, "Mr. Wu has a heart! This painting has been fascinated for a long time, and I admire him very much. I didn't expect that Mr. Wu would be willing to give it to me. I am so grateful!"

Roger was very proud of hearing this.

Haha, you guessed it right! This Old Master is obsessed with Thompson Yin. When he saw this painting, his eyes couldn't get out!

However, he said calmly on the surface: "Grandpa Song, you don't have to be so polite, this is what the younger generation should do."

With that, he couldn't help but look at Charlie.

Charlie hasn't come out to give gifts yet, and now he has his most precious gift before him, he is afraid that he will definitely be compared with him!

So, he deliberately smiled at Charlie: "Brother Wade doesn't know what gift he prepared for Grandpa Song? Grandpa Song admires you so much, you shouldn't let him down, right?"

Chapter 667

In Roger's view, there is a picture of Thompson Yin's Moon Spring of his own here, and Charlie is a mere son-in-law. How can he be 'compare with himself? !

Therefore, he felt that this time, he was bound to crush Charlie, and become the one that surprised all the guests the most, and also the one who most delighted Mr. Song.

After all, in Roger's view, Charlie is just a live-in son-in-law and a wasteful rag. It is impossible for him to give any decent gifts.

Therefore, no matter what he sent, he couldn't compare with the Moon Spring picture scroll he sent!

So he deliberately sneered and said: "Grandpa Song, I heard that Mr. Wade has been in the feng shui mystery fraud circle all the year round. He must have deceived a lot of good things for so long. He must give you a gift worth hundreds of millions. Even billions of treasures?"

After that, Roger sneered at Charlie again: "The gift I gave is worth only three to four billion. I believe Mr. Wade's gift is definitely worth more than mine!"

When Mr. Song heard this, his brow furrowed and he became even more dissatisfied with Roger. His face became colder: "No matter what Mr. Wade gave to the Old Master, in the Old Master's eyes, it is a priceless treasure!"

Roger was a little surprised at once.

Mr. Song, what fascinating soup was poured by Charlie?

At this moment, Charlie was named by him and stood up with a smile on his face.

Everyone was staring at him, wondering what gift he would give.

However, he saw that his hands were empty, and he didn't look like he could hold a valuable gift.

Could it be that Charlie was going to play "Karate" for the Old Master Song? !

Even if he gives away a set of calligraphy and painting, the volume is absolutely impossible to put in the pocket!

But Charlie was empty-handed, which made most people think that he must have not prepared a gift.

Even if a gift is prepared, it is probably not worth any money, and it is definitely not as good as the picture scroll given by the young master of the Wu family.

Mr. Song himself had already raised his heart to his throat at this time.

His eyes kept looking at Charlie.

Seeing that Charlie was empty-handed, he was shaking with excitement!

What he was most afraid of was seeing Charlie holding a gift box, holding a scroll, or holding something else for himself.

Because he didn't want anything except Rejuvenation Pill!

The Yuequan scroll is really good. As an antique calligraphy and painting, it really caters to one's own preferences.

However, that is just a preference.

If a person is about to die, what's the use of putting all his favorite things in front of him?

At that time, he was rather willing to use all these things for a few days of life.

Therefore, Mr. Song is looking forward to Charlie being able to give himself a rejuvenating pill. He has been looking forward to it for a long time! It can even be said to be his greatest expectation in life now.

At this moment, Charlie paced unhurriedly in front of Old Master Song.

Without waiting for him to speak, Roger sneered: "Oh, I said Brother Wade, you are too petty, aren't you? Grandpa Song is celebrating his 80th birthday today. You came to the birthday banquet without giving anything and empty-handed?"

Charlie smiled slightly, and asked him, "Who told you that I won't bring anything?"

"What about the gift you have? Take it out!"

Roger said contemptuously: "Could it be that he bought a small souvenir that came in his pocket? I don't want to look at it. Which of these birthday gifts is not worth more than tens of millions?"

Chapter 668

Charlie looked at him, smiled contemptuously, and then took out a small wooden box from his pocket.

This small square box was bought by Charlie on the street stall. It cost five. The main reason for buying it was that the rejuvenating pill is a medicine, and it is not suitable for putting it in your pocket or wrapping it in toilet paper.

When Roger looked at the small wooden box, he immediately curled his lips and said, "Oh, let me go, what is this? You bought it at a stall for ten?"

Charlie smiled and said: "You are half right. It was indeed bought at a street stall, but it didn't cost ten, it only cost five."

Everyone was stunned by Charlie's words!

Charlie doesn't take Mr. Song seriously, right?

Father Song had his eighty birthday, he actually gave a five-Dollar wooden box?

Even if there is something in this wooden box, what valuable thing can it be?

Really valuable things cannot be packed in such broken boxes.

As a result, many people around booed.

Even Honor, covering his mouth, quietly let out a "cut".

Roger even grabbed Charlie's handle and said indignantly: "Charlie, do you still have Grandpa Song in your eyes?! Are you deliberately trying to find fault with this kind of garbage?"

Charlie ignored him, but opened the small wooden box, revealing the black and round rejuvenating pill inside, and said to the Old Master Song: "Mr. Song, this is the birthday gift I prepared for you! It was a coincidence, I got it by chance. I hope you like it."

The reason why he said he did it by chance is to avoid unnecessary trouble.

When Mr. Song saw this, his whole body was excited!

He just felt a surge of energy rushing over his head, and stood up in a moment of excitement.

As soon as Grandpa Song got up, his whole body was shaking violently. This was mainly because he was so excited that he didn't know what to do!

He dreamed that Mr. Wade could give him the same opportunity as Tianqi, but this opportunity was so precious that he only dared to think about it in his heart.

However, he never dreamed that the dream would come true at this moment!

Mr. Wade, really gave him a chance!

When he walked to Charlie tremblingly, all the guests were staring at him.

Those who are not familiar with Charlie, seeing the Old Master walking towards Charlie trembling, thought that the Old Master must be furious, maybe he had never suffered such humiliation in his life, and they would come up and give Charlie a slap in the face, and then drive him out directly.

Roger saw that in the box, it turned out to be just a dark, inconspicuous pill, and there was no magic at all.

So he couldn't help but mocked: "Charlie, Grandpa Song's 80th birthday, would you give such a broken pill? Isn't this the Dali pill you bought from the street? Ordinary people will eat it? Will be poisoned to death by your pill?!"

Charlie ignored him, and just explained to Mr. Song: "Mr. Song, this Rejuvenation Pill has the effects of prolonging life and improving physical fitness. After taking it, it will make people live at least ten years old, and life expectancy will be extended by at least ten years."

Hearing this, Roger couldn't help shaking his head and mocking: "Charlie, do you think Grandpa Song can be fooled by a liar like you? A bullshit Dali pills can make you ten years younger? What international joke is this? Think of so many high-end people of us as fools?"

Most of the guests who didn't know Charlie also nodded one after another.

Ten years younger? Who would believe it?

However, no one thought that at this moment, Old Master Song came to Charlie trembling, and knelt on the ground with a thump!

Everyone present saw this scene, instantly as if struck by lightning, there was an uproar in the hall!

Chapter 669

No one would have imagined that the eighty-year-old Mr. Song would actually kneel to Charlie!

It stands to reason that when a person lives to eighty years old, his parents and elders may have already been in the soil.

What's more, Father Song is still the head of the Song family!

The Song family is the largest family in Aurous Hill!

Their 80-year-old Patriarch actually kneeled for a young man in his twenties!

This makes everyone incredible!

Roger was also trapped.

What the h*ll? !

With a strong pill, Mr. Song would kneel?

You said it earlier!

A painting of Mr. Wu's three to four hundred billion, exchange it for Dali pills, enough for your 200th birthday!

And buddies don't beg you to kneel down on, just betroth Warnia to him!

At this time, the Song family also had different expressions.

Warnia's expression was filled with uncontrollable excitement and joy.

Her parents died early, and her grandfather raised her to adulthood. She has the deepest relationship with Mr. Song.

Moreover, she had heard from her grandfather long ago that the genius doctor Tianqi had the opportunity of rejuvenating pills, and she also knew that grandfather desperately wanted to be able to get such a chance.

For Warnia, she also hopes that grandpa can get this opportunity and live healthy for more than ten years.

However, the other Song family members do not think so.

Seeing this scene, the most depressed is Honor.

Elder Song is still alive, and he has not completely handed over power to his father. If his father cannot completely control the Song family, it will be difficult for him to become the sole heir of the Song family in the future.

Now, Father Song has not distributed the estate, so no one knows how much assets he intends to give to the family of these three sons after his death.

No one knew how much assets he would give to Warnia, a child without a father or mother.

If Honor's father can't get the entire Song family, it will be even more impossible for himself.

Therefore, he doesn't want the Old Master to extend his life for more than ten years.

At this moment, Old Master Song knelt in front of Charlie, with tears of excitement.

With a smile on his face, Charlie put the box containing the Rejuvenation Pill in his hand, and said lightly: "This medicine is extremely precious and has disappeared in the world, so I advise you to take it as soon as possible to avoid accidents."

Father Song took the wooden box and was extremely excited!

Immediately, he leaned down amidst everyone's stunned mouth, his forehead hit the ground directly!

With the palms of his hands facing up and the backs of his hands on the ground, he said piously:

"Thank you, Mr. Wade for giving this opportunity! Mr. Wade's kindness, Song has no retribution, and hereby swears to the Nine Heavens God that he will do his utmost to be loyal to Mr. Wade for the rest of his life!"

The scene was shocked!

If you hadn't seen it with your own eyes, who could believe that Elder Song would kneel and kowtow to a young man and say such pious words? !

The most incomprehensible is Roger!

Chapter 670

He felt that this old thing must be old and confused, or his brain was slapped, otherwise, how could he kowtow to Charlie? !

Mr. Song's seniority is the most present today. Even though the Wu family is stronger than the Song family, the assets his father can control are still less than Mr. Song, not to mention Mr. Song is still an elder.

Looking at other guests, although many of them are ordinary second-rate families, they are at least with net worth of over 100 million.

In the entire scene, there was only one real rag, and that rag was Charlie!

However, Mr. Song just knelt down for this smelly pauper and knocked his head.

Why?

Charlie is a bullsh*t?

Why did Mr. Song kowtow to Charlie so low?

In other words, the head is knocked, doesn't it mean that the granddaughter can also give it away? !

Thinking of this, Roger felt very depressed in his heart!

If Charlie's prestige is not extinguished, maybe Father Song would be willing to put Warnia on him as a junior!

So, he gritted his teeth and blurted out: "Grandpa Song! How can you believe this kind of stinky silk? His Dali pill was bought by a barefoot doctor on the side of the road. The box is five, and Dali pill may be the most unhealthy. It's only ten, you can't be fooled by him! Otherwise, it doesn't matter if you are deceived. If you eat badly, you will be in trouble!"

Father Song glared at Roger, and said coldly, "Mr. Wu, although you are a guest of my Song family, Mr. Wade is an old benefactor, and he has a life-saving and re-creation grace for the old. If you dare to show Mr. Wade again If you want to be presumptuous, don't blame the old man for being rude!"

Roger was anxious and blurted out: "Grandpa Song, are you always confused? You believe in such a liar?!"

Warnia stood up at this time and scolded angrily: "Roger! Please be careful when you speak! Don't be too presumptuous!"

Roger frowned and asked Warnia: "Grandpa Song is always confused, are you also confused? This kind of rubbish pill, besides deceiving the demented elderly, can it be useful? You also studied in the world's top university in the United States. A high-achieving student, do you believe the bullshit Charlie said?!"

"Of course I believe it!" Warnia said without hesitation: "I will never doubt what Mr. Wade said! It's you, if you deliberately target Mr. Wade and insinuate my grandpa, I'll let people drive you out!"

"You..." Roger was about to collapse.

What number is this?

A powerful pill, crippled you grandparent and grandchildren?

You give me this sh!t, I don't even bother to take a look!

Why do you still treat this thing as treasure?

If I f*cking give a pair of three or four billion, Mr. Song would say just thank you!

When someone gave him a strong pill, Mr. Song would kneel down for him?

d*mn, if you want to calculate by value, Mr. Song has to kneel for him!

He said indignantly: "Come here, let's let the people present judge, what is the value of this Dali Pill? Will it be more precious than the Moon Spring picture scroll I sent? Why is your Song family so polite to this rag? , Don't respect me at all?!"

Seeing that his son gave such an expensive gift, Regnar was even insulted. He really couldn't see it!

He stood up, snorted angrily, and said: "Uncle Song, although your Song family is the largest family in Aurous Hill, you can't wantonly insult my Wu family? Why can someone send a piece of rubbish? You humbly bow. My son gave the Yuequan picture scroll, but he still has to be treated indifferently by you?"

"Today, if you don't tell me why, then I can only think that your Song family deliberately targeted our Wu family!"

Father Song held the rejuvenating pill in his hand and shouted sternly: "Regnar, you are still the son of Wu's family, but you are blindfolded and sitting on the well! Do you really think this pill is rubbish? I tell you, if you know the effect of this pill , You will kneel in front of Mr. Wade and beg Mr. Wade to give you one!"

Regnar said coldly: "Me? What a joke! I'm less than 60 years old this year, do you think I'm as confused as you?!"

Charlie looked at Regnar with a resolute and somewhat sarcasm expression, smiled slightly, and said to Mr. Song: "Mr. Song, if someone can't talk about ice, insects that can't live in winter, won't believe that there is ice in the world. People who have experienced miracles will not believe that there is a God in this world."

Speaking of this, Charlie smiled playfully, and said calmly: "In this case, you might as well take this pill in public, so that these people can see the good fortune of this rejuvenation pill!"

Chapter 671

Grandpa Song himself couldn't wait for this rejuvenation pill, and when he held it in his hand, he wanted to take it down immediately.

After all, he had seen Tianqi after taking the medicine, and knew that this rejuvenation pill had a superb effect, so he did feel relieved when he held it in his hand, for fear of unexpected changes.

Only if you eat it, you can really feel safe!

Now that Charlie has also said it, Old Son Song naturally agreed in a hurry and said gratefully: "Mr. Wade, then I will take it now!"

After finishing speaking, the Old Master Song carefully took the Rejuvenation Pill in his hand, put it in his mouth with excitement, and swallowed it into his abdomen!

As soon as it entered the entrance, Mr. Song felt that the pill had turned into a stream of heat into his limbs and veins, and his whole body was warm, as if he had returned to his teenage years, and every cell was full of vitality.

Like Tianqi, every part of his body was nourished by medicine, and his whole body was glowing with the long-lost youth.

He was even surprised to find that the dark wounds and old problems he had left many years ago were gradually disappearing, and the wrinkles on his face had become lighter and tighter.

The scalp also feels itchy, and it seems that new hair is growing!

In the eyes of everyone, at this time Father Song had undergone an astonishing change!

Originally, Mr. Song's rickety body became straight, and his white hair was gradually turning black. Although not all turned black, a considerable part of it turned black.

The age lines on the face have also faded to an extent visible to the naked eye, and the spirit are completely different from before!

If Mr. Song looked like an Old Master in his eighties and dying, he now looks like he is in his sixties at most!

Moreover, the spirit of the Old Master Song has also become very good all of a sudden, the look in his eyes is a bit of a middle-aged person!

Originally, these people who dismissed the Rejuvenation Pill were already stunned by the deterioration of Old Master Song at this moment!

No one has seen such a miraculous sight, even Warnia was completely shocked by this sight!

The former rickety Old Master has now become a gray-haired middle-aged and Old Master. This reminds Warnia to think of the Old Master who embraced her in his arms when her father died ten years ago and told her not to be afraid, that everything still has him.

At that time, grandfather was only in his sixties, and he looked exactly the same as he is now.

In other words, Grandpa's life clock, because of this rejuvenation pill, has gone backwards!

His life span will be extended by more than ten years...

Does this mean that Grandpa can live to be a hundred years old in the future?

Warnia burst into tears of joy!

The other relatives of the Song family didn't really care about her. Her father passed away. They were grieving on the surface, but they were celebrating in their hearts. There was one less person in the inheritance competition with them.

Therefore, her only relative in the world is Father Song!

Of course she hopes that Mr. Song can live a long life!

When Mr. Song was dying, he once told her that the biggest regret was that he didn't see her married.

The Old Master said that Warnia had lost her parents since she was a child, and she was the most reassuring child and his favorite. Of course, it was also the child who was the most sincere and filial to him.

Therefore, he was particularly afraid that he would suddenly die, and Warnia did not marry and start a family.

In that case, she will become a lonely person.

Mr. Song hopes to watch her marry, and to marry a man who loves her, she loves, is reliable, stable, and is able to take care and protect her.

Only in that way can he die with confidence.

But now, Warnia knows that grandpa doesn't have to worry about not seeing her getting married.

He has extended his life span for at least more than ten years. Not only can he see her getting married, he can even see that she has children, and he can enjoy the family happiness of four generations under one roof!

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but look at Charlie.

Chapter 672

If she is to marry someone and have children, she only wants to marry Charlie alone.

But, will Charlie fall in love with her?

Will Charlie be willing to abandon his current marriage that is not true and be with her?

Thinking of this, Warnia was also a little worried.

At this time, the other people on the scene had already exploded!

They saw with their own eyes the earth-shaking changes that had taken place in Mr. Song, and they were all excited as if they had seen God!

"This... it's impossible... Why did Mr. Song become so young all at once?!"

"My God, this is the effect of Rejuvenation Pill?!"

"A medicine is a miracle, this is a magic medicine!"

"Mr. Wade is really a dragon on earth!"

"I...I also want a rejuvenation pill..."

"Me too...I am willing to buy even 10 million!"

"Ten million? What are you going to do with chicken feathers? I will buy it for 100 million!"

"f*ck, if Mr. Wade wants to sell, I will pay 200 million!"

The scene has been overwhelmed by awe!

If you don't see it with your own eyes, who can believe that there is really a rejuvenation in this world?

This kind of thing that can only be seen on TV, turned out to be really true!

The people present are all successful people, most of whom are in their 40s or 50s, or even older.

People of this age have already felt the cruelty and pain of the passing of time.

For men in their 50s and 60s, wrinkles have already crawled on their cheeks, and their physical fitness is much worse than when they were young. Backaches and lumbar muscle strain are inevitable.

As for hair loss, blessing, wake up, and the rapid degradation of that ability, it is also unspeakable pain for middle-aged and elderly men.

Which man in his 50s and 60s does not miss his happiness in his youth?

It's a pity that most men have physical and no financial resources when they are young, but when they are older, they become financial well and lack physical strength.

Want to coexist with financial strength, physical strength, and energy, except for the rich second generation like Regnar, how can anyone else have such an opportunity?

Many people are looking forward to the opposite s3x when they are young, but they don't look forward to the opposite s3x. When they are older and have a successful career, when countless young people of the opposite s3x surround themselves, they are already unable to do so.

Such middle-aged and elderly people do not expect to experience the coexistence of financial and physical strength, but can only hope to have a good baby in the next life.

Therefore, when they saw the miracle that happened to Mr. Song before their eyes, everyone's heart was extremely expectant and hot!

Even Regnar, who had been a rich second generation since he was a child, was looking forward to the changes in Mr. Song at this time!

He has experienced a young age with finance, physical strength and energy.

At that time, he was a playboy sought after by countless beauties. He had been among the tens of thousands of flowers without any leaves. He was really as cool as he was, no worse than the current national man.

However, that's just Regnar's glorious history. He used to urinate against the wind, and now he urinates with the wind.

The more so, the more he missed the brave and mighty, unrestrained, and unrestrained youth.

Therefore, when he looked at Charlie at this time, his previous anger and hatred were gone. Instead, he had a strong yearning and expectation...

So, he involuntarily walked up to Charlie, suddenly folded his fists, bowed slightly, and blurted out respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I didn't know if you have any remaining rejuvenation pills. If there are, please give me the next one. , I would like to pay 500 million in cash!"

Chapter 673

No one at the scene expected that Regnar, who was still scolding Charlie just now, and even pressured Mr. Song to give an explanation, would change so quickly.

Even Roger himself was stunned!

He blurted out subconsciously and asked: "Dad! Why are you so polite with such a live-in son-in-law? Don't forget, when he was outside, he called our house rubbish!"

Regnar blurted out, "b*stard! You shut up!"

There are some things Regnar could not say in front of so many people.

However, he was already roaring in his heart.

You b@stard, do you know a bullsh*t?

When you are young, in your twenties, and your body is at its peak, you can sing songs every night, drink swigs every day, go to bed at three o'clock, start at nine o'clock, and stay up all night, but It's not working anymore like that for him!

His current state is that a typical full man does not know that a hungry man is hungry!

He eats big fish and meat every day, and doesn't even understand why a person who hasn't eaten for three days would bend his waist for five buckets of rice.

That's because he has never tasted the feeling of hunger!

He doesn't know the feeling of being hungry that makes him flustered, swollen hair, weak limbs, and uneven breath. He will never realize the original intention of someone kneeling for a steamed bun!

For Regnar, although a person has not really reached old age, his body must be much worse than when he was young. He has money, status, and strength, but he has no youth. Therefore, he saw the changes of Mr. Song. It is so big, deep down in his heart, he has longed for it.

Saying five hundred million to buy one such magical medicine, even if it is five billion, he is still willing to buy it!

After Roger was scolded by his father, his expression became very ugly.

However, he did not dare to speak against his father again, because he knew Regnar's temper, if he said more, he would most likely be beaten in public!

When Roger was downcast and wanted to retreat, Regnar saw that Charlie had no response to his offer, and hurriedly scolded Roger, who was about to retreat, "b*stard thing, why don't you get out, and apologize to Mr. Wade?" !"

Roger's eyes were incomparably wrong, and he subconsciously said, "Dad, you let me apologize to him?!"

Regnar yelled coldly: "Yes! Come over and apologize to Mr. Wade, otherwise I can't spare you!"

Under the gaze of so many people, Roger was so demanded and reprimanded by his father, that he wanted to die deep in his heart.

Especially Warnia is also looking at him, and her eyes seem to be a bit ridiculous and playful...

This made Roger suffocate the fire!

At this moment, he really couldn't help it, and blurted out: "Dad! You just kill me, I can't apologize to this kind of smelly rug!"

After that, he turned and walked out.

Seeing this situation, Regnar suddenly became angry!

The biggest shortcoming of his own son is that he doesn't know how to deal in current affairs.

Even if you are a billionaire, sometimes you should lower your body, you must lower; if you want to kneel down, you must kneel down.

He had never seen the magic medicine of Rejuvenation Pill, and now he has seen it, he definitely cannot miss it!

If this is missed, it would be a pity for a lifetime!

In the face of such things, the dignity of the son is a bullsh*t? !

Just when he was about to stop Roger, Charlie, who had been silent for a while, smiled lightly and said, "Mr. Wu, since Mr. Wu is unhappy, don't make it difficult for others. As the saying goes, the twisted melon is not sweet, strong. The required apology is boring."

After that, he stopped paying attention to Regnar, and instead said to Mr. Song: "Mr. Song, Rejuvenation Pill can at least extend your life for more than ten years, and it will be easy to live to be a hundred years old. I hope you will have a birthday party for a hundred years. At that time, don't forget to invite me."

As soon as he heard this, Mr. Song was excited with tears in his eyes, knelt on the ground with a thud, and said piously: "I thank Mr. Wade for this reinvention! The kindness of Mr. Wade is unforgettable!"

Charlie smiled and nodded, and said faintly: "Don't just thank me, but also thank your good granddaughter Warnia. If it weren't for her, I wouldn't get to know your Song family, let alone take this precious one. The incomparable rejuvenation pill is given to you, so you must not treat her badly in the future!"

In a word, Warnia trembled all over!

She knew in her heart that Charlie was giving herself a gift!

A big gift that she can even inherit from the Song family!

Chapter 674

She looked at Charlie very gratefully, and the emotion in her heart for him was sublimated again!

She even felt that Charlie's kindness to her was enough to pay it back with her life!

When Honor heard this, his heart was very angry.

He blames!

He blamed Charlie for being nosy!

Blame him for renewing his life for Mr. Song!

Even blamed him for giving credit to Warnia!

However, he didn't dare to show the slightest bit of resentment in his heart, and could only be murderous in his heart.

At this time, Mr. Song nodded his head and said piously: "Old Song will remember Mr. Wade's instructions!"

After that, he leaned down again, kowtowed and thanked!

Father Song knelt down twice, and Charlie had a chance to stop him, but Charlie did not do so.

The reason for this is simple, because Charlie felt that he should kneel!

He gave him such a good fortune, so that his lifespan has increased sharply for more than ten years. This kind of good fortune is so great that he will kneel and knock himself twice, even if he will knock himself twice every day for the rest of his life!

Ordinary people believe in gods and pray three times and nine worships in front of the gods every day. Can the gods give him ten years of life?

Can't!

Gods can't, but he can!

Therefore, it is entirely natural to receive two kowtows from his Old Master Song!

Seeing this, the children of the Song family all came forward one after another, first of all, Tianming Song, the eldest son of Mr. Song, and his third and fourth brothers.

The three brothers came to the front and immediately knelt behind Mr. Song.

Tianming Song held up his arched hands and said loudly, "Thank you Mr. Wade for giving my father such an opportunity. Tianming Song, the son of Song patriarch, thanks you Mr. Wade!"

After finishing speaking, one head knocked on the ground, and he couldn't afford it for a long time!

His third and fourth brothers also learned the same way, and they all thanked as well!

Honor and Warnia also walked to the front and knelt behind them.

Honor was extremely resentful, but he still shouted with a pious face: "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for giving me such an opportunity. Song Honor, thanks you Mr. Wade!"

Warnia glanced at Charlie deeply, her eyes were quite complicated, with gratitude, admiration, and awe.

Immediately, she knelt on the ground and said in a very beautiful voice: "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for giving me such an opportunity. Warnia, the granddaughter of Song parents and granddaughter, thanks you Mr. Wade!"

The remaining little grandchildren and little granddaughters followed suit and knelt down and thanked him one by one.

Today, it's Mr. Song's 80th birthday!

Originally, he should be sitting in the main seat, accepting the worship and blessings of his descendants.

And now, all the descendants of Song, from the 80-year-old man himself to the seven or eight-year-old grandsons, all kneeling down, facing the indifferent Charlie, extremely grateful, kowtowing thier bodies and heads!

This scene stunned everyone on the scene!

This, but the first family of Aurous Hill!

Now, everyone in this whole family kneels and kowtows to Charlie!

However, no one at the scene felt that it was a shame for the whole family to bow down together.

On the contrary, they are very envious in their hearts! Even so jealous!

why?

Why did this great opportunity not fall on them? !

Chapter 675

Regnar developed a strong jealousy towards Mr. Song.

If he knew this medicine was so magical, even if he grabbed it, he had to get it in his hands!

It's a pity that he actually offended Charlie with eyeless eyes.

Before that, he wanted to kill Charlie so that his son could better pursue Warnia.

But after that, he just wanted to ask for a rejuvenation pill from Charlie.

As for who the son will marry in the future, this question is no longer so important in the face of Rejuvenating Pill.

So, he took advantage of the gap between the Song family's kneeling and rushed out of the Song family villa, preparing to bring back the resentful Roger.

Roger said angrily, "Dad, what are you asking me to do? Go and apologize to that waste?"

"Yes!" Regnar said sharply, "Apologize first. If apology doesn't work, then kneel down and apologize! If kneeling down and apologize doesn't work, just kowtow and apologize. In short, you must let him forgive!"

"Why?!" Roger suddenly exploded!

"Let me kowtow to him and apologize? Then you might as well kill me! Don't you see that Warnia likes him? If I knelt down and apologize to him again, then I will have no chance to pursue Warnia!"

Regnar said coldly: "Now, what matters is not whether you can marry Warnia, but whether I can get Charlie's Rejuvenation Pill!"

Roger blurted out: "Dad, you are still young, what do you want that stuff for?"

"Young?" Regnar laughed at himself and blurted out: "In any case, you must first get a rejuvenation pill from Charlie. Now, nothing is more important than this!"

Roger's eyes were about to split: "Dad! Have you forgotten our plan?! Kill Mr. Orvel today, and Charlie tomorrow! Are you just for a rejuvenating pill and you are not caring about anything?"

Regnar glared at him and said coldly: "Why don't you know anything about strategy? If Charlie is a mountain in front of us, then we must blow him up and flatten him, but now we find it in this mountain. After the treasure, can you still blast him to pieces and flatten him?!"

Roger asked subconsciously: "Dad, what do you mean..."

Regnar's expression flashed a bit sullenly, and he said coldly: "First hollow out the treasures in the mountain, and then blow the mountain to pieces, this is the choice that a wise man will make!"

Hearing this, Roger smiled and blurted out, "Dad, what do you mean, get the Rejuvenation Pill first, and then kill Charlie?!"

"Yes!" Regnar said coldly: "Didn't Charlie just say that? This Rejuvenation Pill was obtained by chance. Since he is willing to give Old Song one, it proves that he definitely has a surplus! Otherwise! If it is, whoever it is, it is impossible to give the only rejuvenation pill to outsiders!"

Speaking of this, Regnar snorted and said resolutely: "I guess Charlie has at least a few rejuvenation pills on him. If you can get it, you can protect my Wu family for a hundred years!"

Roger hurriedly asked: "Then after getting the Rejuvenation Pill, do you still have to get rid of Mr. Orvel and Charlie according to the original plan?"

"Of course!" Regnar said with a gloomy expression: "Not only them, I will get rid of all the people who stand by Charlie in Aurous Hill! Even Old Song even this nasty Old Master! d*mn, no wonder This old thing doesn't even give me the face. It turns out that he discovered that Charlie has such a great value!"

Roger asked tentatively: "Dad, do you want to do something with the Song family?"

Regnar nodded and looked around to make sure that there was no one. Then he said seriously: "First find a way to get the Rejuvenation Pill, and then kill Mr. Orvel and Charlie. Then, I will give the Song family a way to survive. Let them marry Warnia to you obediently. If they still don't know how to praise you, then they can't blame me for being rude!"

After that, Regnar said again: "However, before this, you must listen to my instructions, and you must not be arrogant anymore!"

Chapter 676

Roger immediately said excitedly: "Dad, I listen to you!"

Regnar nodded in satisfaction and said, "Come, come in and ask Charlie for medicine with me!"

"Ask for medicine?" Roger asked hurriedly, "How can I ask for it?"

"Kneel!" Regnar said indifferently, "The whole Song family knelt down, and we have to kneel too!"

"Kneel? Kneel to Charlie?!" Roger immediately jumped up and said excitedly: "Let me kneel to him?! Dad, you might as well kill me!"

Regnar frowned and observed at him: "What I just said, you should bullsh*t again now?"

Roger said with a sad face, "Dad, this is kneeling! When did I kneel down to anyone other than you and grandpa! Didn't you keep saying that men have gold under their knees?"

Regnar sneered: "When Han Xin was humiliated by his hips, if he was the same as you thought, then he wouldn't be able to be named God of War by future generations!"

After that, Regnar asked in turn: "What about kneeling if a big man can bend and stretch? Kneel first and then kill him, he is a true hero!"

When Roger heard this, he nodded, and said angrily: "Okay, I will listen to my dad..."

Regnar patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile: "Being able to bend is already a huge improvement!"

After all, he couldn't hide his excitement and said: "Come, follow me in!"

.....

In the banquet hall at this time, Charlie had helped Elder Song to get up.

As Father Song got up, the other Song family members also stood up.

Everyone's birthday gifts were also offered, so Charlie returned to his seat and let Old Master Song continue the birthday banquet.

Back at the dinner table, a group of people gathered around, all around Charlie, talking all kinds of pleading words in excitement.

Everyone came rushing to rejuvenate.

Some people have even started to bid for 300 million, 400 million, and even 500 million all the way.

Charlie said calmly, "Everyone, I got the Rejuvenation Pill by accident, but it's gone now."

Someone recognized Charlie, knowing that he was Mr. Wade who led Hong Kong master to death at the metaphysical conference, so they shouted: "Mr. Wade, you are the supreme of Nanguang, this spring pill, surely Did he refined it himself? Please show mercy and refine a batch for us old men. We are willing to offer the highest price!"

Charlie thought to himself, if people knew that he could regenerate the spring pill, he would not be at peace in this life, so he said lightly: "Even if I am the Supreme Master of Nanguang, there are some things that I can't do with my ability."

As Charlie said, he couldn't help showing a look of regret, saying: "According to my research, this rejuvenation pill is a product from a genius doctor and warlock in ancient times, and it is a pill that was refined for emperors and generals. This pill is extremely refined. Difficult, many medicines have even disappeared, and even the refining method has been lost. It is impossible to re-refining, but rest assured, if I have the ability to copy the rejuvenating pills in the future, I will definitely share it with you by then! "

When everyone heard this, it was worth giving up, and at the same time they hope that Charlie can really copy the Rejuvenation Pill.

Hearing this, Roger, who had just entered the door, heard this, and Roger hurriedly said to Regnar: "Dad, Charlie has no rejuvenation pills!"

"Nothing?" Regnar smiled contemptuously and said confidently: "I don't believe it!"

Chapter 677

Roger saw his father firmly believe that Charlie must still have a rejuvenation pill, so he looked at him and blurted out and asked, "Dad, are you really going to find him and beg for a rejuvenation pill?"

"Yes." Regnar nodded, and said: "You will come with me later, I will apologize to him for you, you kneel down and beg for forgiveness, and then I will tell him about it."

Roger's expression was a little depressed: "Dad, you mean I kneel down to admit his mistake, and then you sing red face in the middle?"

Regnar glanced at Roger sideways, and asked, "Do you have an opinion?"

Roger was startled by the look in his father's eyes, and hurriedly waved his hand and said, "No...I have no opinion!"

Regnar nodded in satisfaction and said: "I said, a man must be able to bend and stretch. If you kneel is useless, I will kneel as well. As long as I can get a rejuvenation pill, I can call him father. In this world Is there anything more important than life?"

"Okay..." Roger knew that his father had been completely hooked by the Rejuvenation Pill, and it was useless to say anything at this time.

When the father and son were walking back, Charlie sent everyone around him away.

The banquet was about to begin, but he looked around, only to find that the table he was sitting on was two places empty.

These two positions were prepared for Tianqi and his granddaughter Zhovia.

Charlie couldn't help but wonder.

Based on his understanding of Tianqi, Tianqi had a strong sense of time and kept his promises. He should not be so late.

Thinking of this, Charlie took out his mobile phone and called Tianqi.

Soon, the call was connected.

However, it was Zhovia who answered the phone.

"...Mr. Wade..."

Zhovia's voice was a bit nervous and aggrieved.

Charlie hurriedly asked: "Zhovia? Where's your grandfather? Why didn't you come to Mr. Song's birthday party?"

Zhovia sounded with an angry voice: "Wade...Mr. Wade, my grandfather's hospital was smashed! He is busy cleaning up, and may not be able to come to the birthday banquet because he is afraid that it will affect everyone's mood. I didn't tell you and Mr. Song..."

Charlie wondered, Tianqi was famous, why would anyone not open eyes and smash his shop?

So he hurriedly asked: "Who did it?"

Zhovia said: "They were the two fathers and sons of the Wu family in Suzhou. They wanted my grandpa to go to Suzhou to treat Wu Qi in their home. My grandfather felt that Wu Qi's actions were too despicable, so he didn't agree to see him. So they smashed the medical hall!"

Charlie looked cold!

It turned out to be the Wu family father and son? !

A bit of anger flashed in his heart, and then quickly asked: "You and Mr. Shi are not injured, are you?"

Zhovia hurriedly said: "No, I was not in the store at the time. When I came back, the store had been smashed, and the Wu family had already left, but Grandpa was fine, it was just the store they smashed. "

Charlie heard that the two of them were not injured, so he relaxed, and said with a cold face, "Zhovia, tell Tianqi, I will deal with this matter."

With that, Charlie hung up the phone, a cold wave appeared on his face.

Sure enough, the Wu family man and his son were arrogant, and they didn't know how to constrain when they came to Aurous Hill.

Chapter 678

Why did Tianqi want to set up a Clinic in Aurous Hill? Didn't they stay here just because they wanted to repay his kindness?

As a result, the Wu family father and son actually smashed his Clinic. With this breath, he couldn't swallow anything!

Unexpectedly, at this moment, Regnar returned with Roger.

Moreover, instead of bringing Roger back to his table, he took Roger directly and rushed to Charlie!

When he came to Charlie, Regnar immediately arched his hand and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, the dog had no eyes and no beads just now, and he offended you. Now I will bring him to apologize to you. I hope you will not remember the villain. Don't be familiar with him in that regard!"

Charlie just hung up the phone and was angry. Unexpectedly, Regnar took Roger to apologize. He knew that Regnar wanted to get the rejuvenate, so he made a plan and smiled calmly: "Mr. Regnar, use you and your son In other words, I'm just a live-in son-in-law and a Rubbish sling. Where can I be worthy of the apology of Mr. Regnar? For Mr. Regnar, I'm a Rubbish sling. You can scold or beat whenever you want?"

When Regnar heard this, he knew that Charlie didn't plan to just let it go.

So, he immediately shouted to Roger with a calm face: "b*stard thing! Don't you want to kneel down for Mr. Wade!"

As soon as this word came out, many people turned their attention here.

They questioned from the bottom of their hearts, would the Wu family really kneel down to Mr. Wade? !

Roger's angry scalp was numb, and his whole body was hot!

What he said was also the young master of the Wu family. In Aurous Hill, he was a super rich second generation. He asked him to kneel down for a Aurous Hill waste home son-in-law. If this spreads out, how will he see people in the future?

As he hesitated to see, Charlie suddenly glanced at his father next to him, and Roger was shocked. He was afraid that Regnar would be angry, so he could only bite his head, bent his legs and knelt on the ground angrily.

"Hey! Young Mr. Roger really kneeled!"

There was an uproar at the scene!

Roger's face was so hot that he wanted to die.

Regnar didn't speak after seeing him kneeling, and immediately shouted, "What are you doing in a daze? Don't apologize to Mr. Wade quickly!"

Roger could only say in an irritating voice: "Mr. Wade, I'm sorry, I was wrong, please forgive me!"

Charlie said calmly: "Apologizing without sincerity, in fact, it's better not to say it. This will save everyone's time and don't waste everyone's feelings."

When Regnar heard this, he suddenly understood that just letting his son kneel down was not enough to impress Charlie.

So he shouted angrily and said, "Don't kowtow to Mr. Wade and beg Mr. Wade for forgiveness!"

Roger clenched his teeth, leaned over and kowtowed, "Mr. Wade, please forgive my impulse, and I'm extremely sorry!"

Charlie smiled playfully and said, "Since you apologize so sincerely, then this incident has never happened."

Regnar finally breathed a sigh of relief and couldn't wait to blurt out: "Mr. Wade, I have something to ask for! I don't know if Mr. Wade can sell a rejuvenating pill, and would like to make a billion!"

The people present all exclaimed!

It was five hundred million just now, but now it has become one billion in the blink of an eye? Sure enough, the Wu family is rich. In the Wu family's eyes, one billion 800 million may be nothing at all.

Charlie smiled slightly at this time and said, "Mr. Regnar, you think too much. Don't say I don't have a rejuvenation pill now. Even if I have it, it's impossible to sell it for a billion. Even if I sell it for a billion, it's I will never sell it to you!"

Having said that, Charlie snorted coldly, and said: "I am a man who bears a lot of grudges. I clearly remember that you have been clamoring for me to be responsible for the beating of Liu Guang and you have to make me pay the price. Came to me for medicine, do you think I am a goldfish with only seven seconds of memory?"

Chapter 679

Hearing what Charlie said, Regnar felt tight.

Knowing that Charlie would not be so easy to give up, but he offered a sky-high price of one billion. He thought that he was looking at the face of money and would no longer take into account the contradiction just now.

But what he didn't expect was that this guy didn't pay attention to the sky-high price of one billion at all. Once he came up, he would go through the old account with himself.

If it is normal, no matter how big the business is, and encountering such a negotiating opponent, Regnar will also walk away.

But now, he really didn't dare to leave.

Because, deep in his heart, he was completely unable to resist the temptation of Rejuvenation Pill, as if he had been stunned by it, so that his mind was full of it and the effects of consuming it.

So he knelt down almost without hesitation, clasped his fists in his hands, and said to Charlie piously: "Mr. Wade, just now it was someone Wu who didn't know Your excellency. All colleagues in Aurous Hill respect you as a true dragon on earth. Please don't be familiar with me, a common man!"

Regnar speaks very well.

In order to prevent the opponent from stepping on himself, he deliberately lifted the opponent up high. At this time, most people couldn't care more about him.

However, Charlie was not just celebrating the festival with the Wu family and his son at this time, but more importantly, they actually smashed Tianqi's the Clinic.

With this tone, Charlie had to give it out, and he wouldn't be upset.

So Charlie looked at Regnar, smiled lightly, and said: "One billion is indeed quite sincere, but Mr. Regnar, your manners seem to be inferior to your son."

Regnar was taken aback for a moment, and instantly realized that Charlie didn't think he had knocked his head.

He didn't think that kowtow was a shame, after all, it was for rejuvenation!

Thinking of this, he didn't hesitate and bowed.

After kowtow, Regnar raised his head and said piously: "Mr. Wade, please give Wu a chance. As long as you are willing to sell a rejuvenating pill to Wu, Wu will immediately credit one billion in cash into your account! "

Charlie looked at him, smiled playfully, and said: "The rejuvenation pill is simple, in fact, you guessed it, I do still have the rejuvenation pill, but I keep it for myself, but since your price is right, then I can also consider selling it to you..."

As he said, Charlie reached into his pocket and slowly took out a small wooden box exactly the same as the one given to Mr. Song. After opening it, it was indeed a rejuvenating pill inside.

After the Rejuvenation Pill was taken out, Charlie stood up and said to everyone present: "Everyone, Rejuvenation Pill is very important. I just hid a private with you, and I hope you will forgive me. I will tell you all here. This Rejuvenation Pill, there is indeed one more, but this one was prepared for myself, and sincerely did not intend to sell it, but President Wu was sincere and quoted a high price, so I really have to consider it carefully. "

Although everyone was greedy for this rejuvenation pill, they were helpless.

After all, there are too few people who can come up with a billion in cash.

It is estimated that no more than five people were present.

Besides, who would dare to compete with Wu's family at this time?

For this medicine, Regnar, father and son, knelt on the ground to Charlie. If he bids at this time, he still hates him?

Regnar looked at this rejuvenating pill, smelling the fresh medicinal fragrance from the rejuvenating pill, and said with excitement: "Mr. Wade, as long as you are willing to sell it, one billion in cash will be paid immediately!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Don't worry, before we talk about Rejuvenating pill, there is one more thing that we haven't talked about clearly."

"Also?" Regnar frowned and asked, "What's the matter?"

Charlie's expression gradually became gloomy, and he asked in a cold voice, "I and Tianqi are also considered to be year-end friends. You father and son smashed Tianqi's the Clinic. How is this incident?"

When these words came out, Old Song could not help but frown, his face was gloomy, and he blurted out: "Regnar, the genius doctor Tianqi is an expert in Aurous Hill, who has saved the lives of unknown number of people, and he and the Old Master are also good friends. Why did you smash his hospital?!"

When Regnar heard this, his head was as big as a fight.

Unexpectedly, Tianqi and Charlie would still have a happy relationship? !

Chapter 680

This is really tricky!

He didn't know this relationship before! He just thought it was nothing more than a well-known old Chinese doctor. Since he couldn't beat him, he just smashed his shop and gave him a little pressure to force him to agree to see his young son.

But he didn't expect to cause trouble here.

However, he had to be eager to get the rejuvenate. At this time, his eyes rolled and he could only point to Roger beside him, and said indignantly, "Hey! This is my son, who is impulsive and ill-considered! I have no choice but to teach my son. !"

Roger's facial expression twitched.

He really didn't expect that he would instantly become his backer.

Although he was very angry, he did not dare to show his dissatisfaction.

Since he let him carry this pot, he can only grit his teeth!

So, he lowered his head and said: "I'm sorry, it was my impulse to smash the shop where the genius doctor was. Please forgive me, Mr. Wade!"

Regnar also hurriedly said to the side: "Mr. Wade can rest assured that all losses of the genius doctor will be compensated ten times!"

Charlie said lightly: "There are some things that can't be solved by losing money."

Regnar hurriedly asked, "How does Mr. Wade want to solve it?"

"Me?" Charlie looked at him and said with a smile: "My solution is very simple..."

With that, Charlie deliberately slowed down the rhythm a bit, and looked at Roger.

With eyes facing each other, Roger was a little flustered by the fierce air in Charlie's eyes.

While he was still speculating about what kind of solution Charlie would propose, Charlie suddenly shot, grabbed his right wrist, and then gently twisted...

Just hearing a click, Roger's right wrist was broken directly by Charlie!

"what!!!"

Roger screamed in pain, his complexion immediately turned red, then turned pale again...

"Ah...Broken! My hand is broken! Charlie, you are looking for death!"

Charlie directly threw away his severed hand and said coldly: "Since you smashed Tianqi's shop, then I will abolish your hand. This is called organ Exchange!"

Roger yelled in pain and shouted: "Dad, this rubbish broke my hand. I want to kill him! I want him to die!!!"

Regnar was also dumbfounded. He didn't expect that Charlie would directly act on his son, and the shot was so harsh that he would abolish one of his son's hands when he came up.

However, at this moment, he was still looking forward to that rejuvenation pill in his heart.

For him now, if Charlie is willing to sell him the Rejuvenation Pill and his son has his hand broken, he can still bear it. After he has taken the Rejuvenation Pill, he will find Charlie to settle the account!

So, with a black face, he opened his mouth and said: "Mr. Wade, my son has already paid the price for smashing the genius doctor's Clinic. Now you can sell me the rejuvenating pills, right?"

"Rejuvenation Pill..." Charlie took the Rejuvenation Pill out of the small wooden box and placed it in front of him several times.

At this time, Regnar looked at this rejuvenation pill, his eyes were about to shine!

However, he did not expect that Charlie suddenly smiled faintly at this time, and said jokingly, "Compared to your billions, I still think it's better to eat!"

After speaking, he stretched out his hand and put the Rejuvenating Pill in his mouth, chewed it twice, and swallowed it directly!

Chapter 681

Regnar was stunned as he watched Charlie swallow the rejuvenating pill, and suddenly became angry!

Only then did he realize that Charlie was playing with him from beginning to end!

He didn't mean to sell the Rejuvenation Pill to him, he just wanted to make father and son embarrassed in public!

And he actually naively thought that the one billion quotation had already touched him, and he only had to apologize to him, and he would agree to sell the rejuvenating pill to himself!

When he thought that he was being played so much by him, and that his son's hand had been abolished by him, Regnar was so angry that he almost went away!

He instantly stood up from the ground and shouted: "Charlie, If I not kill you, I will not be a man!"

Having said that, he immediately took out his cell phone and called his bodyguard.

His bodyguards are all masters, and they are all gods of war who have retreated from the army!

These people usually seem to be no different from ordinary people, but any one of them is a top killer!

It can be said that they are all top killers who have crawled out of the dead!

But Charlie looked calm at this moment, unmoved at all.

After a rejuvenation pill was in his stomach, he felt a heat wave rolling in his body. He had already taken five or six pills. Although it did not play a young role, it could improve the physical fitness a lot. So at this time, he was full of energy. , But there is nowhere to go, if the Wu family's bodyguard dared to pretend to be forced, he would just clean them up in one go!

However, he didn't expect that Old Master Song gave a cold snort and suddenly stood up and shouted angrily: "Regnar! Although your Wu family is big, my Song family is not muddled. I want to see if your Wu family has it. What a mighty prestige, dare to hurt my Song family distinguished guests in my house!"

Having said that, Mr. Song shouted: "Come here, surround the hall for me! Who dares to move Mr. Wade with a finger today and beat him to death!"

Regnar observed at Mr. Song, gritted his teeth and said angrily: "Uncle Song, he used us father and son as monkeys and abolished one of my son's hands. You still want to protect him?! Could it be that you, the Song family is openly against my Wu family?!"

Elder Song said coldly: "Mr. Wade is Song's benefactor and recreated Song's life. If you have to fight against Mr. Wade, you are against my Song family!"

"Good! Good! Good!"

Regnar gritted his teeth and said: "Your Song family is amazing! Don't put my Wu family in your eyes! Do you think this is in your territory, you can ride on my family's head and sh!t?!"

Mr. Song arrogantly said: "Song is magnanimous and can't do things like riding on someone else's head and sh!t, but if someone wants to target Song's benefactor on Song's site, I'm sorry! Don't care about him. Who is it, Song is never used to his problems!"

Mr. Song yelled, shocking everyone present!

In his lifetime, the Old Master himself has experienced countless waves and sands, he has seen all battles, and he has developed a kind of majesty without anger and prestige.

In addition, he has just eaten rejuvenating pills and is full of breath. The anger is really shocking!

Regnar was also a little distressed!

He came to Aurous Hill with only a few bodyguards with him.

Even though these bodyguards are masters, facing so many people in the Song family, there is definitely no chance of winning.

After all, this is the base camp of the Song family. There are dozens of bodyguards in front of the Song family. Who knows how many people are still hiding in the secret?

If you really want to fight, Regnar will definitely not please!

A few top bodyguards may be able to fight in and out, but he and his son are not as effective as they are, and they may be injured or even left by the Song family here.

Although the Wu family is powerful, they are all located in Suzhou, and now the distant water cannot save the nearby fire!

Thinking of this, Regnar could only decide to avoid his edge for the time being!

So, he sneered and said: "Uncle Song meant to tear his face with our Wu family? Ok! In this case, I will represent the Wu family and break with the Song family. From now on, the Song and Wu families are incompatible!"

Chapter 682

Seeing this, Honor on the side hurriedly stood up and blurted out: "Grandpa, our Song family has been with Wu family for many years, please think twice!"

Honor didn't want to see that he was killed, and the two families of Song and Wu completely broke off.

He also hopes to marry Warnia to the Wu family. If the two families break completely, it will never be possible!

Father Song glanced at Honor and said lightly: "There is nothing to think twice about, the Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, and our Song family can't afford it! The Song family has since broken off with the Wu family!"

Everyone present was dumbfounded.

Everyone could not imagine that a birthday banquet caused a complete break between the Wu family, and the Song family...

It seems that Aurous Hill is about to change in the future!

Regnar's sullen gaze flicked across Elder Song and Charlie, and said angrily: "What a Song family, what a master Wade, I, Regnar, remember you! Take a look! Roger, let's go!"

After that, Regnar helped Roger and walked away.

Charlie said lightly: "Do you think the matter is over?"

Regnar turned his head and asked with murderous aura, "What do you want?"

Charlie said: "I abolished your son's hand, only to teach him a lesson, but you have to make compensation for smashing Tianqi's shop!"

After all, Charlie said undoubtedly: "You will give you ten times the compensation to Tianqi within three days, and will apologize to Tianqi and beg for forgiveness. Otherwise, I will take Roger's another hand!"

When Regnar heard this, his eyes were cold and murderous!

He roared with his eyesight cracking: "Charlie! You are so majestic! Do you know the status of my Wu family in the south of the Yangtze River? If you provoke me, I will leave you dead without a place to bury die!"

Charlie sneered and said: "Don't be here to talk to me, your Wu family is not even the root hair in my eyes! I advise you to get out of Aurous Hill as soon as you pay for Tianqi, otherwise, you father and son two People are likely to run for your lives!"

“you.....”

Regnar really didn't expect Charlie to be so crazy!

He had the intention to kill Charlie now, but thinking of the old and immortal attitude of Mr. Song, he could only bear it temporarily unwillingly.

However, in his heart, Charlie is already a mortal person!

Only now, the time to kill him is not yet ripe.

After he goes back, he will make a good plan. If it is not enough, he will draw a group of masters from the Wu family to smooth out Charlie and Song family together!

Thinking of this, Regnar waved his hand fiercely and blurted out: “Roger, let's go!”

After that, he took Roger with his broken hand and left the Song family villa in embarrassment.

Honor looked at Regnar's leaving figure, then at Warnia and the young man who was more than ten years younger, gritted his teeth secretly, his eyes full of unwillingness.

For him, it was a heavy loss!

Suddenly, this old thing of grandpa has a life span of more than ten years, and Charlie counts Warnia's great credit, and grandpa also completely turned his face with the Wu family for Charlie...

If this continues, maybe one day Grandpa will suddenly announce that Warnia will be the heir to the next generation!

In that way, wouldn't he be empty out of the basket?

Regnar and Roger and his son left the Song's villa with incomparable resentment.

Roger clutched his severed hand and said with tears: "Dad! I said a long time ago not to beg the rag named Wade, you must not listen! Now my hands is broken, and you are still caught by him. Humiliated in public, we lost face!"

Regnar said with a black face: "Since the Wade is looking for death, don't blame me for being impolite! Don't worry, Dad will avenge you!"

Roger blurted out: "Then we will kill Charlie tonight!"

"No!" Regnar said coldly: "Or according to the original plan, kill Mr. Orvel first! Pull out the firepower of Mr. Orvel, whether it is killing Charlie or the Song family, it will be easy!"

Roger hurriedly asked, "Dad, what are your specific plans?"

Regnar said: "Heal your hands first, and we will discuss the rest in the long run!"

The two discussing, have already walked out of the Song family compound.

Liu Guang, who had been driven out before and had been waiting here, hurriedly covered his red and swollen face and greeted them quickly.

"Mr. Wu, Mr...." Liu Guang ran to the front, just about to ask them what happened to Charlie's waste? Did they avenge him?

However, he suddenly saw Roger's face pale, his left hand grasped the shrugged right wrist, and he snorted in his heart, and couldn't help feeling that something was wrong.

So Liu Guang hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wu, what's wrong with your hand?"

Roger snorted in pain, and cursed: "It's all Charlie Rubbish, he dare to abandon my hand in public. I must have him dead without a place to be buried!"

Originally, after Roger discovered that Charlie was the man Warnia liked, he wanted to use this birthday banquet to trample Charlie on his feet, so that Warnia could recognize reality, then change his mind and choose to be with him.

Unexpectedly, instead of stepping on Charlie's feet, he, together with his father, was fiercely teased by Charlie!

Just now, he and his father took turns to apologize to Charlie. This is simply the second shame after Wu's step-brother Wu Qi became a feces-swallowing beast!

And this b@stard, not only makes himself face lost in full view! He also broke his wrist!

After today, the entire Aurous Hill will remember that his grandfather of the first family in the south of the Yangtze River was slapped in public by the nameless pawn, Charlie, and became the laughing stock of everyone!

Liu Guang was shocked when he heard Roger's words!

He didn't expect that Charlie's Rubbish would even dare to beat Mr. Wu!

So, he couldn't help but provoke Roger and said, "Mr. Wu, Charlie dares to treat you like this, you must not let him go!"

Regnar said coldly: "Don't worry, this Charlie won't live long!"

With that, Regnar tell Liu Guang: "Liu Guang, you are a local and you are familiar with the local area. I will give you a task."

Liu Guang hurriedly said, "Mr. Wu, please give your orders!"

Regnar said: "You first take the young master to the best orthopedic hospital and heal the young master's hand. You must not make any mistakes!"

Liu Guang suddenly realized that Roger's hand was interrupted by Charlie, and said quickly, "Mr. Orvel, don't worry! I will take the young master to the best orthopedic hospital!"

Chapter 684

When Roger heard this, he couldn't help asking: "Dad, won't you go to the hospital with me?"

Regnar said, "I still have a lot of things to deal with today. Now that we have broken up with the Song family, we must find another place to stay. I plan to go to Shangri-La and book a presidential suite there. By the way, Visit Issac, the owner of Shangri-La. After you finish healing your hands, you will come to Shangri-La directly to find me. Then I will tell you about my plan in detail!"

"Go to visit Issac?" Roger said complainingly: "Dad, why do you want to visit him? Isn't he just a dog from the Eastcliff Wade family? More important than my broken hand?"

Regnar frowned and said: "What do you know? Although the Wu family dominates in the south of the Yangtze River, compared with the Wade family of Eastcliff, they are nothing more than a rich native. Wade family is the real top family!"

"That Issac, don't look at it as the Wade family's dog, but he is the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill, representing the face of the Wade family in Aurous Hill. He must visit in person. If he can open a breakthrough from him, maybe he can borrow the relationship with the Wade family."

For the Wu family, although it bears the name of the first family in the south of the Yangtze River on the bright side, and acts as a blessing in the entire south of the Yangtze River, it can be said to be different from the real top-level hidden family like the Wade family.

If he can take this opportunity to catch up with the Wade family, the entire Wu family will fly into the sky.

When Roger heard this, he no longer complained, and nodded and said, "I know Dad, then you go to Shangri-La first, and after I see the doctor and get a cast, I will come to you.

Regnar said to Roger: "Okay, you go to the hospital first, and I will notify you when I arrange it."

Roger said with a look of expectation, followed Liu Guang into the car and went to the hospital to treat his severed hand.

.....

After Roger and Liu Guang left, Regnar, accompanied by bodyguards and assistants, went to Shangri-La.

Along the way, he was thinking angrily about how to get rid of Charlie so that he could solve his hatred, and this Old Master Song who didn't know the current affairs.

Does he think that if he take a rejuvenating pill, he is a teenager, and can live longer than a teenager?

If he dare to talk to him like Regnar, then he will directly take away the Song family!

Soon, the convoy stopped outside the Shangri-La Hotel.

Regnar asked the accompanying bodyguard to take out his most precious tea from the car, and prepare it as a gift for Issac.

His big red robe was picked from the six remaining mother trees in Wuyi Mountain. It is of great value. The annual output is only a dozen kilograms, and the price of a kilogram can even be tens of millions.

Moreover, this is not something one can buy with money.

Because most of the limited output of this tea every year is directly supplied to Eastcliff, the rest, which can flow into the market, doesn't even have weight of two kilograms.

And Regnar's pot of tea, which weighs a full kilogram, was only obtained after he spent a lot of money, thought about it, and used adult affection.

Because Regnar treats this tea as a treasure, he takes it with him wherever he goes, and occasionally wants to drink it, then quietly soaks himself a gram or two.

Deciding to come to Shangri-La Hotel, he felt that he could not meet Issac empty-handed, so he planned to give this pot of it as a gift to gain a good impression of the other party.

As soon as he entered Shangri-La, Regnar stepped to the front desk and said to the lady at the front desk: "Hello, please inform you boss, and say that Regnar from Wu's family is here to see him!"

Shangri-La's front desk is by no means an ordinary front desk lady. She has long known all the dignitaries in Aurous Hill. She heard that it was the Wu family of Suzhou, and immediately took it seriously. She picked up the phone and called Issac's office directly.

"Mr. Issac, Mr. Regnar from the Wu family wants to see you!"

Chapter 685

Issac didn't know that Regnar and Charlie had conflicts.

Hearing that Regnar came to visit, he did not neglect. Although he was the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill, the other party was the eldest son of the first family in Aurous Hill after all. He took the initiative to visit him and respected him.

So, he hurriedly said to the front desk: "Just ask Mr. Regnar to come to my office."

The front desk did not dare to neglect, and quickly said to Regnar: "Hello, Mr. Regnar, our President Issac invites you to his office, please come with me."

Regnar nodded, followed the girl at the front desk, and took the president's exclusive elevator to Issac's office.

As far as Regnar is concerned, he is the son of Wu's family, and staying in a hotel in Aurous Hill is naturally the best.

It just so happens that the best hotel in Aurous Hill is Shangri-La, so coming by himself to visit Issac and deepen the relationship is also killing two birds with one stone.

Seeing Regnar coming in, Issac stood up with a smile, and took the initiative to reach out and shook Regnar's hand. He greeted him: "I heard that Mr. Regnar is active in Suzhou all the year round. Why did you suddenly come to Aurous Hill this time?"

Regnar sighed and said, "Hey, it's a long story. My youngest son Wu Qi doesn't know who has offended him. Something has happened. I came this time to find a solution."

Issac nodded. Of course he had heard about Wu Qi. He even watched the video on YouTube at the beginning. So when he remembered it suddenly, he felt a little nauseous and involuntarily retched.

With Issac's retching, Regnar's expression became extremely embarrassing.

He didn't know why Issac was retching. To be honest, he felt sick and uncomfortable when he thought of some clips of his younger son.

Therefore, Regnar could only change the subject and said, "Forget it, I came here today mainly to visit President Issac. I won't talk about these disappointments. I brought some gifts to President . I hope you like it."

After that, he immediately handed the pot of exclusive tea to Issac.

"President Issac, this is the Dahon tea from the mother tree of Wuyi Mountain. It is my personal treasure. It is not usually available. If you like tea, you will definitely like it."

Issac naturally knew how precious the mother tree red robe is, and quickly waved his hand: "How can this make the Wuyi Mountain mother tree tea less and less available in the market, and it is the collection of President Wu, how can I not love."

Regnar immediately said, "Mr. Issac, don't be polite. You are the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill and even in Aurous Hill. We in the Wu family have always looked forward to cooperating with the Wade family. In the future, we will have to count on you to match our Wu family."

When Issac heard the words, he waved his hand and said, "I'm just a servant of the Wade family, and I do everything within my scope. Mr. Regnar thank you for that."

Regnar said sincerely: "Mr Issac is too humble."

Seeing Regnar's sincere attitude, Issac said: "Since Mr. Regnar is so caring, then I'm not polite to you. I have a few bottles of collector-class Louis XIII here. I'll give you some bottles to taste. "

Regnar was flattered, and hurriedly said: "Oh, that's really great gift indeed. thank you Mr. Issac!"

Issac smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Regnar came here today, surely it's not just about bringing tea to Issac, right?"

Regnar nodded and said, "It's true that my eldest son, my eldest son, and a few bodyguards and assistants may live in Aurous Hill for a period of time, so I just thought that Shangri-La will make no trouble."

Issac laughed and said, "Welcome! Since Mr. Regnar is here, he is naturally a distinguished guest. I will ask the manager to arrange a presidential suite for you and your son. You can live as much as you like. It doesn't matter how long you stay."

Regnar hurriedly said gratefully: "Oh, thank you so much, President Issac!"

Issac smiled indifferently: "Mr. Regnar doesn't need to be so polite."

After speaking, he asked curiously: "By the way, where is Mr. Roger, your son? Why didn't he come with you?"

Chapter 686

Regnar was embarrassed to say that his son had his wrist broken, so he said, "He happened to have something wrong. I guess he won't come here until a while. When he comes, I will bring him to visit you!"

Issac nodded and said: "Otherwise, I will arrange for someone to take you back to the room to rest. When Roger comes back in the evening, we will have dinner together, and it will be my host who will pick you up."

Regnar was overjoyed, and said, "Then we will be there Mr. Issac."

He felt that he and Issac were just nodding acquaintances and knew each other before, but now that Issac accepts his gift after visiting, the relationship is a step closer.

And this is what Regnar desires most.

As the Eastcliff Wade family's spokesperson in Aurous Hill, Issac is a stepping stone. As long as he can maintain a good relationship with him, he will definitely be able to take this opportunity in the future to embrace the true towering tree of Wade family.

Moreover, Regnar also has his own careful thinking.

He felt that if the Wu family couldn't find someone who could treat Wu Qi, they could ask the Wade family to take action after they hugged Wade Family's thigh.

With the strength of the Wade Family, with a single order, countless capable people and strangers will be behind them.

And Issac didn't think much about it, after all, it was the first family in the south of the Yangtze River.

So, after he and Regnar exchanged greetings for a while, they were taken to the presidential suite to rest first.

After Regnar took a few bodyguards into the luxurious presidential suite, he called Roger and asked him to come and have a round with him.

At this time, Roger had finished plastering in the hospital. After receiving a call from Regnar, he took Liu Guang to Shangri-La.

Sitting in the car, Roger's expression was still very gloomy, his face full of depression.

Seeing this, Liu Guang quickly said: "Mr. Wu, the doctor has ordered that you have just put on a plaster. Don't get angry, otherwise it will affect the healing of your bones and cause sequelae."

Roger said angrily: "I will definitely not let go of that d*mn Charlie, I will chop off both his hands!"

Liu Guang was overjoyed. Roger was beaten and severed. He was the most excited one, because in this way, the Wu family would definitely not let Charlie go. The enmity engraved on his son's forehead would be avenged!

However, he said with great concern: "Mr. Wu, you must take care of your health. It is never too late to take revenge."

Roger sneered and said fiercely: "Wait and see, that Charlie will not be long."

Coming to Shangri-La, Roger took Liu Guang straight to the presidential suite where Regnar stayed.

After knocking on the door, the bodyguard opened the door from the inside.

Roger walked into the huge living room and said to Regnar sitting on the sofa, "Dad, I'm back."

Regnar gave a hum, and asked with concern: "How is your hand? What did the doctor say?"

Roger said with a dark face, "It's broken, the doctor put a plaster on it, I'm afraid it will take a few months to recuperate to get better."

Regnar nodded, and said, "You need to pay more attention recently, and don't leave any sequelae."

Roger blurted out: "Dad, it doesn't matter how my hand is, you can tell us how we are going to deal with Charlie?!"

Regnar sneered and said, "If you want to kill Charlie, kill Mr. Orvel first tonight!"

Chapter 687

Liu Guang heard Regnar say that he would kill Mr. Orvel first tonight, and his heart suddenly became excited!

He had long been expecting Mr. Orvel to die, but he did not expect to finally get his wish now!

Moreover, to kill Mr. Orvel, he will not only get revenge, but the Wu family will also take advantage of the trend to hold himself in the top position!

Wouldn't he be able to become the next underground emperor of Aurous Hill?

Thinking of this, he trembled with excitement.

Roger asked on the side: "Dad, Mr. Orvel has many younger brothers in Aurous Hill. Is it so easy to kill him?"

Regnar said lightly: "You have to figure out one thing, to kill Mr. Orvel, you don't have to kill all his little brothers first!"

"Dad, what do you mean?"

Regnar said coldly: "There are thousands of them, but he may not always be around him. We only need to know where he will be at a specific time, then find him there and kill him directly!"

Liu Guang hurriedly said, "I know! Mr. Orvel's whereabouts are uncertain during the day, but he usually stays in Classic Mansion at night, because his Classic Mansion is very famous in Aurous Hill, and many of his friends will go there to dine at night."

Regnar asked him: "How many security guards does Classic Mansion have?"

Liu Guang thought for a while and said, "For the security, there should be about ten, and the rest are waiters."

Regnar snorted coldly: "Ten security guards are not enough. My bodyguards are all masters in the army. For them ten is nothing?"

After all, he looked at a burly middle-aged man headed by his five bodyguards and asked: "Jones Zizhou, you have been with me for the longest time, the strongest, and the most efficient in doing things. I will let you take other People, go to Classic Mansion to kill Mr. Orvel tonight, whoever blocks you, kill whoever you want, can you do it?"

Jones Zizhou immediately clasped his fists and said, "Mr. Wu, don't worry, a dozen security guards are just ants in front of us. As for that Mr. Orvel, he will be kill like a dog!"

Regnar nodded in satisfaction, then looked at Liu Guang, and said: "Liu Guang, don't you have a bloody vengeance with Orvel? I now give you a chance to take revenge. You will take my person to Classic Mansion tonight, Get rid of Orvel! Get rid of him, my Wu family will come out to protect you, and hold you in one hand as the new underground emperor of Aurous Hill!"

When Liu Guang heard this, there was a deep hatred in his eyes, and his heart was already boiling!

What is the purpose of making a dog for the Wu family and working hard?

Isn't it just revenge and kill Orvel and Charlie?

Now, Regnar gave him a chance, a chance to become the underground emperor of Aurous Hill!

How can he refuse such a good thing? !

Moreover, he had long heard that the Wu family's bodyguards were all retired soldiers from the army.

If there are five such people, it is more than enough to go to Classic Mansion to kill Orvel!

Once Mr. Orvel dies, his little brother will immediately be headless!

At this time, there was Wu family backing up for themselves.

It is easy to become the new underground emperor of Aurous Hill!

From now on, with the Wu family's relationship, it is very likely that he will reach the pinnacle of his life!

.....

Chapter 688

At this moment, at the birthday banquet of Mr. Song, Charlie waited for the formal opening of the feast, and then offered Mr. Song a glass of wine, and he quickly went to Tianqi's Clinic to see the situation.

At the dinner table, Solmon White, Qin Gang, Aoxue, Mr. Orvel, Liang and even Doris looked at him with more respect than before.

The miraculous effect of Rejuvenation Pill is really impressive.

However, everyone was quite self-aware, and no one took the initiative to mention the Rejuvenation Pill with him.

Although Charlie still had twenty rejuvenating pills left, he was not ready to take them out as gifts.

Although Solmon White, Qin Gang and Mr. Orvel are all young, they are far from reaching old age.

Therefore, there is no need for them to take Rejuvenation Pill now.

If in the future they will still follow their karma and follow him steadily, he will definitely give them one at the right time.

At the dinner table, Charlie looked at Liang, who hadn't seen him for a few days, and asked him curiously: "How is Wei's Pharmaceuticals?"

Liang hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, the development of Wei's Pharmaceutical is normal. I am also organizing some old traditional medicine practitioners and pharmacists of Chinese patent medicine to explore and study our ancient Chinese prescriptions, and prepare to introduce some ancient traditional medicines as well."

Having said that, Liang said with some regret: "Our ancestors left so many good prescriptions. Now they are either lost or stolen by pharmaceutical companies in other countries. It is a shame, so I want to do everything. Explore the possibilities."

Charlie nodded and said approvingly: "This is a good idea. The good things our ancestors left behind have been taken away by Japanese and South Korean companies. If we don't pay attention anymore, then the Chinese ancestors left behind Fang, I'm afraid it will become the bragging capital of these small neighboring countries."

With that, Charlie suddenly thought of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical in Japan.

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical was cheated by himself for more than 10 billion. Now is the time when his vitality is severely injured, and he also left a hidden danger for Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Jiro, the second son of the Kobayashi family, thought that his elder brother was dead, but he couldn't think of it. Ichiro is still feeding and shoveling sh!t at Orvel's kennel.

If Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is in a state of failure, that's fine. If Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's head rises a bit, he can take Ichiro back to pick the peaches.

Thinking of this, he asked Liang: "How is the situation with Kobayashi Pharmaceutical in Japan?"

Liang said: "Kobayashi Pharmaceutical had a problem some time ago. It seems that it has lost a large amount of cash. Now it is a little bit difficult in capital turnover, but they are now thin and dead camels are bigger than horses, not to mention Kobayashi Pharmaceutical still has Many best-selling drugs, it should be restored within a short period of time."

Charlie snorted, already thinking about it.

When Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is relieved, he will send Ichiro back to Japan and help him run Jiro for whatever he said.

In that way, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is basically his own.

So he said to Liang, "If there is anything happening at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, please give me feedback in time."

"OK, Mr. Wade." Liang nodded piously, and said respectfully: "I will pay close attention to it."

Charlie asked again: "By the way, how are your father and your brother in Changbai Mountain?"

Liang smiled slightly and said: "The people I sent and the people from Orvel took turns to observe them. I heard that Changbai Mountain has cooled down recently and the mountain is covered by heavy snow. The two of them are in short supply and there are not enough ginseng harvesting products. This winter Maybe they can only live without food and clothing."

Charlie nodded and said, "It doesn't matter if they lack food or clothing, as long as they can't die."

Liang said immediately: "Mr. Wade can rest assured, although I hate them in my heart, but after all, there is blood relationship. In any case, I will save their lives and let them dig and regret in Changbai Mountain!"

Chapter 689

At this time, the energetic Elder Song, with a group of Song family children, came to toast Charlie.

A group of people followed Mr. Song and called Mr. Wade well.

Charlie got up slightly, picked up the wine glass, and said to Mr. Song: "Mr. Song don't have to be so polite, I respect you with this glass of wine, I wish you a better life than Nanshan."

After speaking, Charlie raised his head and drank the wine, and then said: "I am going to see the Clinic of Tianqi, and I will retire now."

Mr. Song sighed and said, "Oh, the Clinic of the genius doctor Tianqi was smashed. I should also go and take a look. It's just that there are so many guests on the scene, and I really can't get away..."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Mr. Song is born today, so naturally I want to share the joy with everyone. I have already called Zhovia to make sure that neither she nor Tianqi were injured. Don't worry."

Mr. Song hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, let Warnia go with you. After all, Warnia picked you up. It is not convenient for you to go from here."

Charlie did not refuse either, nodded and agreed, and then said to a few people present: "Everyone, eat and drink well, I will take a step first."

Everyone got up to see each other, but seeing Charlie instructed with gestures, they sat back one after another.

Charlie said to Mr. Orvel when he was leaving: "My father-in-law seems to be going to have a dinner in Classic Mansion tonight. If you go to Classic Mansion, please help him take care of it. If you don't, then help him with your people over there."

Mr. Orvel hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade don't worry, I usually stay in Classic Mansion at night. After your Old Master arrives, I will definitely make arrangements."

"Yeah." Charlie nodded and said: "Then you have to work so hard."

Mr. Orvel said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade, you are polite, this is what I should do!"

In Charlie's eyes, Jacob, the father-in-law, was a pretty good person, and after knowing his past things, Charlie did feel that he was actually pitiful, so he instinctively wanted to take care of him a little bit more.

After bidding farewell to everyone, Charlie stepped out of the Song family villa accompanied by Warnia.

Warnia took Charlie all the way to the front of her car and personally opened the passenger door for Charlie. After Charlie got in the car, she got in.

As soon as she got on, Warnia looked at Charlie gratefully and said sincerely: "Mr. Wade, thank you so much for today..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "You don't have to thank me. This chance of Rejuvenation Pill is given to your grandfather. It is enough for him to thank me."

Warnia hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, I thank you not only for this, but also because of what you said to Grandpa..."

Warnia was very grateful to Charlie, mainly because of what Charlie said to Mr. Song.

She lost her parents since she was a child. Although the material conditions in the Song family are very good, she rarely feels family affection, and she does not have the feeling of being taken care of and protected by others at all times.

However, Charlie would actually speak for her just now, and even put the credit for the relations. This is to help her establish her position in the Song family. To Warnia, it seems like Charlie's moment. Protecting her in general, filled her with a warm current that she had never experienced before.

It is not easy for her to live in the Song family alone.

Charlie looked at her, smiled slightly, and said, "I think you are the most suitable candidate to inherit the Song family from the third generation of the Song family. As for your cousin, to be honest, it feels like a strong foreigner, if the Song family is Handed over to him, it will definitely go downhill."

Chapter 690

Warnia hurriedly waved her hand: "Actually, my brother is quite good. I am not going to inherit the Song family in the future. I just hope that after my grandfather dies, I won't be swept out by them..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said seriously: "With me there, this kind of thing will not happen."

Warnia was so grateful that she rubbed her eyes and said, "Mr. Wade, I will take you to Clinic..."

After that, start the car and drove out of the villa.

In the Clinic at this time, Tianqi was taking Zhovia to clean up the medicine cabinet that was smashed by Wu's bodyguards.

Seeing Charlie and Warnia stepping forward, Tianqi hurried forward and said in surprise: "Mr. Wade, why are you here? And Miss Song, isn't your grandpa having his birthday?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I heard Zhovia say that Wu's family had come here to make trouble, so I'll take a look at the situation on your side. Is the loss great?"

Tianqi waved his hand and smiled calmly: "It's nothing more than the loss of some medicine cabinets and medicinal materials."

Charlie nodded and said, "I broke Roger's right hand as a small punishment. In addition, I told them that they must come and apologize within three days."

When Tianqi heard these words, he hurriedly said nervously: "Mr. Wade, you don't need to fight with the Wu family for the little things of old age! The Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. I'm afraid they will hold grudges and intentions of revenge....."

Charlie said calmly: "Don't worry, if the Wu family wants to retaliate, let them come, and I will tell them with the result that Aurous Hill is not Suzhou, and there is a price to pretend to be forced."

Zhovia looked admiringly and said, "Mr. Wade, thank you for helping me and grandpa out of this nasty breath. The father and son surnamed Wu are really too much, so I have to teach them a lesson and make them a little in awe!"

Tianqi looked at Zhovia and reprimanded: "What are you talking about? How many times have I told you, don't trouble Mr. Wade, why don't you understand?"

Zhovia nodded aggrievedly, not daring to say more.

Charlie said at this moment: "Senior Shi, it is true that the reason why the Wu family father and son came to trouble you, to a certain extent, also has something to do with me."

Tianqi, Zhovia, and Warnia were all a little surprised, and they didn't understand what Charlie meant.

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Everyone is not an outsider, so I'm telling the truth. The second son of the Wu family, Wu Qi, became like the one uploaded by YouTube because I added a psychological hint to him. ."

"Ah?!" All three people present were dumbfounded!

No one thought that the culprit behind Wu Qi, who became a feces-swallowing beast and famous all over the country, turned out to be made so by Charlie!

Zhovia subconsciously asked, "Mr. Wade, do you have any conflicts with that Wu Qi?"

Charlie said calmly: "I have no contradiction with him, just simply can't bear his attitude."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "This kid does not study well in college, always abuses female students, and even tries to induce Qin Gang's daughter's girlfriend to commit suicide. I could not tolerate it, so I gave him a lesson and let him do this. There is no way to abuse a girl in my life."

Zhovia immediately looked at him in admiration and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, you are really my idol! I have long heard that Wu Qi is not a good thing. He has become like this. I don't know how many people clapped and cheered! It turns out that it was Mr. Wade who walked the way for the sky!"

Warnia on the side could not help exclaiming: "Mr. Wade, the reason why Ragnar is still in Aurous Hill is to find the one who attacked Wu Qi. I didn't expect it to be you..."

Chapter 691

Just when Warnia, Zhovia and Tianqi were sighing about Wu Qi's affairs, Charlie's old father-in-law Jacob wore a suit and happily came out from home and took a taxi to Classic Mansion.

Because he was going to have a little wine in the evening, Jacob left the BMW car at home and gave the car key to Charlie so that Charlie could drive to Classic Mansion to pick him up.

Jacob has no other hobbies during the recent period. He just likes to study antiques, cultural relics and calligraphy and painting, so he joined the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

This dinner is also to be able to get a seat as a standing director of the association.

In order to show his respect for the leaders of the association, he deliberately took the 20,000 that Charlie transferred to him, and set a bronze box in Classic Mansion.

Although this is the worst box in Classic Mansion, it is much stronger than most other restaurants.

When Jacob arrived at Classic Mansion, Orvel was on his way.

The waiter didn't know Jacob, so he directly led Jacob to the bronze box he had reserved.

Seeing that the others hadn't arrived yet, Jacob was not impatient, and simply sat in his seat and patiently waited for everyone to arrive.

A few minutes later, the door of the box was pushed open, and a middle-aged man of his age stepped in.

After seeing Jacob, the middle-aged man walked forward, smiled and said, "Brother Willson, you came really early, when did you arrive?"

Jacob hurriedly said: "Brother Xuwen, I have been here for a while. Today, the chairman and the executive directors are honored to participate in this dinner of my group. I am really honored and excited, so I rushed over in advance and awaited your ride. ."

The middle-aged man who came here was named Xuwen, a standing director of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

He and Jacob had a pretty good relationship in peacetime. Both of them liked to throw up some antique calligraphy and painting, so they often found things together in the antique street, and they had a lot of friendship.

When he heard that Jacob wanted to compete for the position of executive director, he was the first to stand up and support Jacob.

Moreover, Jacob hosted a banquet for the leaders of the association today. The reason why they agreed to come over is largely because of Xuwen's face.

Seeing that Jacob was so polite, Xuwen laughed and said, "Brother Willson, you have a heart!"

Jacob hurriedly made a please gesture and said, "Brother Xuwen, please sit down!"

Xuwen was not in a hurry to sit down. Seeing that the others hadn't come, he reminded him in a low voice: "Brother Willson, you come to sit in this standing director's seat. I naturally have no objection, but other people in the association, not necessarily have the same opinion as mine!"

When Jacob heard this, he was a little worried, and asked quickly, "Brother Xuwen, you can tell me the details."

Xuwen sighed and said: "The position of executive director is often missed, and it is more authoritative when he speaks it out, so it has always been a fat man. Our executive director goes out to participate in an antique program. Give an appearance fee of tens of thousands, so many people are watching this position."

Speaking of this, Xuwen said again: "Let's take Sun Youcai as an example. During the recent period, I heard that he has been coping with the chairman and other executive directors, and he has given them gifts in private. According to the current situation, he will be your biggest competitor!"

Chapter 692

"Sun Youcai?" Jacob couldn't help but frowned, and said: "That's it, a man who burns a little money and doesn't know his surname?"

Xuwen nodded and said, "So, it is not enough for me to support you alone. When others come, you must try to win the support of several other executive directors and even the president, so that you can be in the internal voting, you defeat Sun Youcai and become the new executive director, do you understand?"

Jacob nodded hurriedly and said sincerely: "Brother Xuwen, what you said really made me inspire, thank you so much!"

Xuwen smiled slightly and said, "What are you being polite to me!"

As he said, he glanced at the time and said, "The president and others are coming soon. Let's wait at the door of the box. It seems more sincere."

Jacob nodded repeatedly, and did not dare to sit in his seat again. Together with Xuwen, he walked to the door of the box and stood still, waiting for the appearance of the leaders and directors of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

After a while, other members of the Calligraphy and Painting Association arrived one after another.

A spirited Old Master came to the door of the box, surrounded by the people around him, as if stars arched over the moon.

When Xuwen saw the Old Master, he immediately stepped forward and smiled and said, "President!"

Jacob also hurriedly followed and said respectfully: "Chairman Pei, you are here!"

President Pei nodded slightly, and pretended to complain: "Jacob, look at you, how did you make such a big scene? Didn't you say it, we pay attention to everything in a simple party, you are looking for a restaurant at random, and order an ordinary location of the lobby is just right, why do you need to book a box in Classic Mansion with extravagance?"

Although he said so, he even blamed Jacob for being too grand, but it was only polite on the surface, but he didn't think like that in his heart.

If Jacob really put the place where the guests had dinner in the lobby of another hotel, he would definitely turn around and leave, and would never have any contact with him in the future.

Jacob hurriedly said: "Everyone who came today is a leader. With the leader here, how dare I be negligent!"

As he said, he laughed and said, "Since everyone is here, let's get seated quickly."

Chairman Pei also nodded and said, "OK, everyone, sit down!"

At this moment, a middle-aged man who was following President Pei suddenly snorted and said: "Jacob, you are in Classic Mansion for a dinner, and you only book a bronze box with the worst grade. It is too disrespectful for the president and Other executive directors, right?"

Jacob saw the other party, his face suddenly became difficult to look, and said, "Sun Youcai, I invited everyone to dinner, but I didn't invite you. What are you doing with you licking your face? Besides, what private room I have ordered has nothing to do with you. It is not your turn to make irresponsible remarks here?"

The person in front of him is his biggest competitor, Sun Youcai, competing for the position of executive director.

Sun Youcai said contemptuously: "You can't say that. What is the status of President Pei, and what status are these executive directors?"

As he said, Sun Youcai snorted and said, "What is the purpose of your inviting everyone to eat today? Everyone knows well, isn't it just for the position of the executive director? However, you think you have ordered the most second bronze box. Can you let the president and the others support you? This is too insincere. This is obviously to fool everyone as if they have never seen the world before!"

After speaking, he looked at everyone and said with a smile on his face: "The mere bronze box is really not worthy of your identity! In order to show respect to the president and the executive directors, I specially booked a golden box upstairs. Why don't we just move to my place!"

Chapter 693

Hearing that Sun Youcai actually booked a golden box upstairs, everyone present was shocked!

You know, in the entire Aurous Hill, Classic Mansion is one of the top hotels.

Even some savvy figures in the upper class of Aurous Hill, who trust their relationships and spend a lot of money, can hardly be able to book a golden box.

Among the people present, even President Pei, who has the highest status, had no chance to enter the golden box for dinner, and they had never even seen how luxurious it was.

Now, Sun Youcai is going to entertain all the people present in the golden box, so that they have the opportunity to go in and see. This is really surprising and exciting!

In comparison, Jacob's small bronze box is completely rubbish that can't make it to the table.

At the thought of this, everyone felt a little disappointed in Jacob.

When they look at Sun Youcai, they have an indescribable appreciation.

President Pei was a little moved, but after all, he agreed to come to Jacob's dinner first, so it was not easy to make a decision directly, so he deliberately asked everyone for their opinions and said: "You have such a kind invitation, what do you mean?"

Someone couldn't help saying: "President, I haven't been to the Golden Box, just take this opportunity to learn more!"

"Yes, President! It's also good to go in and take a few photos and post to a circle of friends!"

President Pei saw that everyone seemed to want to go to the Golden Box, so he smiled and said, "Since everyone thinks so, let's go and see?"

"Yes, let's go!" Everyone agreed.

Sun Youcai was overjoyed and said with a big smile: "Everyone, please come upstairs."

Jacob on the side was depressed and broke!

Today, he was obviously the one who invited them to dinner, who would know that this would have killed a Sun Youcai halfway through!

This guy made a golden box, ran over and said a few words, and cut off the meal he had carefully prepared!

It cost 20,000 to order this meal. The key is that the money spent, not only did not play any role, but because of the appearance of Sun Youcai, he was looked down upon by everyone...

This made Jacob extremely annoyed, this time he really picked up a rock and hit his own foot.

When everyone was about to move upstairs, Sun Youcai looked at Jacob with a smug look, and said sarcastically, "Jacob, you old rag, you must have never seen how luxurious the golden box is, or you should come here too. Sit down?"

Upon hearing this, Jacob felt even more embarrassed and unbearable!

He blurted out angrily and retorted: "Sun Youcai, who do you say is the old pauper? Do you think I am someone who has never seen the world? I tell you, I have seen all the ten floors of the Brilliant Club, a golden box in Classic Mansion. That's it, how can you say it from your broken mouth, it's like better than the Jade Emperor's High Heaven Palace!"

Sun Youcai laughed and said, "Oh, I said Jacob, you really laughed at me. You have been to the brilliant club because of your poor virtue? You have also been to the tenth floor that can only be enjoyed by VIP members? Would you not Are you going to clean the house?"

Hearing Sun Youcai's ridicule, everyone couldn't help laughing.

Everyone has the same opinion as Sun Youcai. The bronze box of Classic Mansion can be ordered by ordinary people through gritted teeth, but the brilliant club is only for members.

If you want to become a member, you have very high requirements. If your qualifications, abilities, and financial resources are not up to standard, you will have no chance to get in and spend money.

Chapter 694

Therefore, among the people present today, not even one has been to the fifth floor of the brilliant club.

Even Sun Youcai himself had just made a member of the lowest level of the brilliant club.

When Jacob said that he had been on the tenth floor, everyone naturally didn't believe it.

Jacob didn't expect to tell the truth, but these people felt that he was bragging, so they said with a bit of annoyance, "My son-in-law arranged for me and some old classmates to go up. You don't believe me and I fell down!"

Sun Youcai laughed loudly: "I know that your son-in-law, Aurous Hill's first live-in son-in-law isn't he? I heard that he is a stinky silkworm who eats soft rice. He is not as good as you. Why does he take you to the brilliant club?"

Jacob snorted coldly, "Believe it or not."

Sun Youcai smiled and said: "If you really have this ability, why don't you invite the president to have fun in the brilliant club? Why do you have to book a low-grade bronze box in Classic Mansion?"

After speaking, he suddenly realized: "Oh, I understand, you have not put the president and other executive directors in your eyes! Do you think that their status is worthy of sitting in bronze? The poor box? Don't deserve to go to the brilliant club at all?"

When Sun Youcai spoke, Jacob, who was immediately blocked, couldn't argue.

This Sun Youcai is too bad and very clever. For a while, he seems to be wearing a high hat, but for a while, you can't get off the stage.

Therefore, no matter how angry Jacob was at this moment, he could not find any reason to refute Sun Youcai.

So, he could only say angrily: "I didn't mean that..."

Seeing that his combat power is so weak, Sun Youcai couldn't help wave his hand, and said, "Forget it, I don't bother to talk nonsense with you. With your patience, you also deserve to be a standing director? I really want you to be. Wouldn't it be laughable and generous in the future?"

After speaking, he turned to look at President Pei and the others, immediately put on a warm smile, and said: "President, let's go."

Sun Youcai set a golden box for everyone, which won the favor of many people present, and even a few standing directors who were originally in a neutral attitude gave him a kind smile.

Jacob stomped his feet with anger when he saw such a scene, but he was helpless.

Xuwen next to him grabbed him and whispered in his ear: "Brother Willson, you don't have to be discouraged. The current situation is just a dispute of spirit!"

As he said, he leaned in and said in a low voice, "In my opinion, you can't get angry. Instead, you have to go to the golden box, perform well in front of the president and the others, and make the final fight. If you give up now I am afraid that the position of the executive director will really fall into the hands of Sun Youcai."

Jacob suddenly woke up from his dream!

Yes indeed!

Even though he lost to Sun Youcai in the stage of the treat, it does not mean that the other party will be the final winner.

If I really let go today in a rage, that would be the real loss of all previous achievements and all losses!

So he thanked Xuwen and said, "Brother Xuwen, thank you for your reminder. I'm going to see what Sun Youcai can do!"

After that, he said to Sun Youcai: "Since you are so sincere, then I will go to the golden box with you to get insights."

Sun Youcai snorted disdainfully, and said: "Just say you are an old wire, and you still don't admit it! If you really missed this opportunity to meet me, I think you will go back tonight and wake up several times in the middle of the night. !"

Chapter 695

Jacob was so ridiculed by Sun Youcai, his face was naturally very uncontrollable.

However, he kept in mind Xuwen's reminder that the top priority is to fight for the position of standing director, not to get angry with Sun Youcai.

So, he resisted his anger, didn't speak, and went with everyone, following Sun Youcai, all the way to a golden box upstairs.

As soon as they entered the door, everyone was surprised and admired again and again by the luxurious decoration in the golden box.

A standing director spoke at this moment and said with a sigh: "Today we are all thanks to the talents, so that we can see the luxury of the golden box of Classic Mansion!"

Someone echoed: "Yes! Not long ago, a friend of mine who was worth tens of millions wanted to book this box. He went a lot of ways, but he couldn't make a decision. He could only regretfully choose the next best one. Silver box."

Upon hearing this, everyone was even more curious, and some people couldn't help but ask Sun Youcai: "Sun Youcai, how did you book the golden box? Did someone help or?"

Sun Youcai said with a proud face: "If I want to book a golden box. Where do I need help from others? To put it bluntly, this is what I do!"

After speaking, he explained to everyone: "To tell you the truth, I am a frequent visitor to Classic Mansion, I often eat here, and I am also a friend of Orvel, so the box below the diamond level, if I want, Classic The house will be open for me at any time!"

After listening, everyone present was amazed!

President Pei said incredulously: "You are talented, are you friends with our underground emperor Mr. Orvel in Aurous Hill?"

"Of course!"

Sun Youcai said triumphantly: "If I don't know him well, how can I have such a big face, so I can book the golden box easily?"

Although Sun Youcai said so, in fact, he knew Orvel, but Orvel didn't know him.

The reason why he was able to book this golden box was not because of Orvel's relationship at all, but because he spent a huge price far exceeding the original price of the golden box before he transferred it from others.

At this time, taking Orvel out to talk about the matter was just thinking that the fox would be pretending to be more prestigious in front of everyone.

However, no one would doubt the truth or falsehood of this statement. After all, they were in golden boxes all seated in, so everyone thought that Sun Youcai was telling the truth, and it was a compliment to Sun Youcai now.

At this moment, Sun Youcai was praised by everyone, and was even more proud. He looked at Jacob and sarcastically said: "Jacob, you didn't see the chairman and all the directors seated? Why are you so low on the price of eyesight, why don't you quickly Bring tea and pour water?"

Jacob looked ugly and blurted out, "Sun Youcai, what do you mean?"

Sun Youcai said contemptuously: "What can I mean? You don't look at it. Among these people, which status is not higher than you? You are an old rag. If you don't serve us tea, do you want us to serve you?"

Jacob's face was even more ugly, and he said angrily; "You said that my status is not as good as that of the chairman and other executive directors. I admit this, but what kind of status you have, don't you know it? Everyone is ordinary in the association. Members, what are you pretending to be with me here? You want me to serve you tea and water, dream about you!"

Xuwen next to him also said displeasedly: "Sun Youcai, is it a bit too much for you to speak like this?"

Sun Youcai laughed and said, "What's wrong with me? Who made Jacob's old rag too rubbish? If he can book a golden box, I can also serve him in turn. The problem is that he doesn't have this ability!"

After speaking, he looked at Jacob coldly and said, "Do you think I asked you to come to the Golden Box to let you eat and drink? To tell you the truth, for someone like you, let you serve tea. Pouring water is already giving you a lot of face, don't shame your face!"

Chapter 696

Jacob gritted his teeth angrily.

He had known that Sun Youcai was so vicious, biting him like a dog, and said nothing to ask for this boring.

.....

Just when Jacob was so speechless and uncomfortable.

Orvel's car just stopped at the gate of Classic Mansion.

The first thing after getting off the bus is to hurriedly ask the hotel manager who opened the door: "Is there someone named Jacob who has reserved our box today?"

"Yes, it's on Bronze No. 3." The hotel manager will carefully record the guests of the hotel every day, naturally knowing every guest who booked the box today.

Orvel nodded and hurriedly said, "Come, come to the bronze box No. 3 with me!"

When he was at the Song family banquet, Mr. Wade told him that his old man would come to his restaurant for dinner and let him take care of him.

How can he condescend to sit in the small bronze box? He has to go to the diamond box!

Orvel hurriedly came to the door of Bronze Box No. 3 and found that the door was open, but there was no one in the box.

He was taken aback for a moment and asked the waitress in the box: "I ask you, where is Mr. Willson who booked this box?!"

The waitress hurriedly said: "Great Mr. Orvel, Mr. Jacob was there before, but was invited to the golden box upstairs by other guests just now. He is in the golden box No. 2."

Orvel immediately said to the hotel manager: "Come, follow me!"

.....

At this time, in the golden box, Sun Youcai looked at Jacob coldly, and still sneered: "Jacob, at your level, I don't think you are even qualified to join the Calligraphy and Painting Association. Why are you embarrassed to compete for the executive director?"

Jacob said coldly: "You said I'm not eligible? I think you are not. Even if I'm not eligible anymore, I picked up a leak in the Antique Street. I bought it for thousands and sold it for hundreds of thousands, Have you?"

Sun Youcai said contemptuously: "You just blow it. Anyway, your mouth is on your face. You can blow it whatever you want. You can also say that you picked up a leak for thousands and sold for tens of millions. The problem is Who believes it?"

Jacob snorted and said, "If you believe it or not, go to the Antique Street and ask Ervin Jones, I picked up the omission and he took it!"

"Ervin Jones?" Sun Youcai frowned, and blurted out: "Ervin Jones is a famous profiteer on Antique Street. He is very treacherous. He is the darkest in the entire Antique Street. Can he spend hundreds of thousands on your things? Kill me. I do not believe!"

Jacob said contemptuously: "If you don't believe me, you can ask him tomorrow."

"Believe you a ghost." Sun Youcai said with a curled mouth: "I don't bother to talk nonsense with you, and don't see who I am. Is it worthy to eat with us? Pour everyone's wine quickly. , If you can't do this thing well, just get out of here! Don't be an eyesore here!"

Jacob trembled with anger, and was about to speak, when a voice suddenly rang out behind him: "What are you that dare to talk to Mr. Willson like this? You are too tired and crooked?"

Chapter 697

When everyone heard this voice, they looked out the door, and saw Orvel leading the hotel manager and stepping into the box.

Naturally, Sun Youcai knew Mr. Orvel. When he saw Mr. Orvel was here, he hurriedly stepped forward and said respectfully: "Mr. Orvel, why are you here in person..."

Unexpectedly, Orvel glanced at him coldly, and said: "Just now you called Mr. Willson the Old Master, was it you?"

Sun Youcai was stunned, what do you mean? Orvel knows Jacob? !

Thinking of this, he hurriedly explained: "Great Mr. Orvel, this is probably a misunderstanding. Both Jacob and I are members of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. We usually have a good relationship with each other. Occasionally ridicule is not a big deal!"

Orvel frowned, saw Jacob, and hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Willson, I didn't expect you to visit Classic Mansion today. Orvel's bad greetings, please forgive me!"

Everyone in the room was shocked to see such a scene!

Especially Sun Youcai, who was scared into a cold sweat at this moment, couldn't believe his eyes at all!

The underground emperor Orvel, who is famous throughout Aurous Hill, is actually so respectful to Jacob, the old rag?

Isn't this too f*cking bullshit? !

At this time, it was not only President Pei and others who were surprised.

Jacob was also taken aback and couldn't help asking, "Do you know me?"

Orvel explained with a humble face: "Last time in the brilliant club, when Mr. Wade ordered me to dispose of Panming and Weng's son-in-law, I was fortunate to see you."

Jacob asked again: "Mr. Wade that you said is my son-in-law Charlie?"

Orvel said solemnly: "Yes, it is Mr. Wade!"

Jacob suddenly realized!

Only then did he want to understand, as Orvel's lofty status, how could he condescend and be so respectful to himself, an ordinary person who has no money and power, and co-authored because of his son-in-law Charlie.

It seems that the son-in-law is a big flicker, and it also has the benefits of a big flicker, at least before he is free of thunder, he can follow him.

At this time, Orvel pointed to Sun Youcai and asked Jacob: "Mr. Willson, I just heard this person insult you. Do you want me to teach him a lesson?"

Sun Youcai paled with fright, and hurriedly said: "Jacob, Brother, we are members of an association, we are all brothers, you have to help me say something!"

"What can I say for you!" Jacob said with a look of emotion: "You have said it yourself, I am just an old silk, I only serve you with tea and water, so I can speak for you?"

Sun Youcai suddenly cried and said with a mournful face: "Oh my good brother, don't be familiar with me, I was just playing with you!"

Jacob chuckled: "Don't, an old pauper dare not be your good brother. It's better for us to draw a clear line at this time!"

Sun Youcai knew that Jacob still hated him, and he regretted it. He knew that Orvel was so respectful to him and killed him, so he didn't dare to pretend to be forceful!

Looking at Sun Youcai, Orvel said in a cold voice, "You are on my site, and you dare to be disrespect Mr. Willson. I don't know how to write the dead words?"

Sun Youcai's face was instantly pale, and his cowardly lips trembled and couldn't speak.

Chapter 698

Pointing at Sun Youcai, Orvel shouted to the men behind him: "Come on, pull this guy out and beat him fiercely, especially break his mouth for me."

When Sun Youcai heard this, he was so scared that he immediately knelt in front of Orvel and shouted: "Lord Orvel, I'm sorry, I didn't know Jacob was your distinguished guest! It was my fault, and I apologize to you. Forgive me, and spare me this time!"

He really didn't expect that Jacob's son-in-law would be such a bull, even the majestic underground emperor of Aurous Hill would become Jacob's licking dog!

Just as he wanted to beg for mercy anymore, some of Orvel's bodyguards immediately took a step forward, and slapped him!

Sun Youcai was instantly dizzy and dizzy, and then he was punched and kicked by a few strong bodyguards in front of him. He looked miserable.

Orvel looked at Sun Youcai coldly and said, "I ask you, why are you targeting Mr. Willson everywhere?"

Sun Youcai was full of blood, crying and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Orvel, I was just competing with Jacob for the standing director of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, so I couldn't stop talking... please forgive me..."

Orvel ignored him, but looked at the crowd in the private room and asked, "Who is the head of the Calligraphy and Painting Association?"

Chairman Pei hurriedly said: "Mr. Orvel, next is the chairman of the Calligraphy and Painting Association."

Orvel nodded, pointed at Sun Youcai, and said coldly: "I ask you, this kind of rubbish can also enter your painting and calligraphy association. How did you become the president? Can you do it? Can you give it to me? Let him out!"

President Pei shuddered in fright. He was very eager to survive, and he blurted out subconsciously: "I will resign tomorrow! At that time, Jacob must be elected as the president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association..."

When Jacob heard this, he hurriedly waved his hand and said, "I can't help President Pei, I'm not at the level of a president. I'm very satisfied to be a standing director..."

Chairman Pei hurriedly said: "Since Orvel thinks you can, then you must be able to!"

Jacob waved his hand again and again and said, "I'm not quite accomplished yet, I can't afford this position..."

At this time, Orvel looked at Chairman Pei and said, "Since you are the chairman, I will give you a suggestion."

After a pause, Orvel pointed to Sun Youcai and said, "First of all, remove this product permanently."

Chairman Pei blurted out: "It must be! I will remove him completely tomorrow!"

Orvel gave a hum, then pointed at Jacob, and said, "Mr. Willson has a very high level of knowledge in antique calligraphy and painting. Since he is humble and unwilling to be the chairman, you should give him the position of standing director. Do you understand? "

President Pei hurriedly promised: "Yes, yes! I will do as you ordered from the master Orvel!"

As he said, he changed his face and said to Sun Youcai: "Sun Youcai, I announce that from this moment on, you have been removed from the Aurous Hill Painting and Calligraphy Association! And you cannot join for life!"

Sun Youcai's heart is desperate!

To be honest, he himself does not have much ability to appraise treasures. The reason why he was able to join the Aurous Hill Local Painting and Calligraphy Association was because he had spent some money to get this place.

Usually he relied on the membership of the Calligraphy and Calligraphy Association to scam everywhere, thinking that being a standing director would be more convenient for him to defraud money, but he did not expect that he would be permanently removed because he offended Jacob!

However, he dared not express any dissatisfaction, after all, the coercion of Orvel was placed here, and he could not bear it anyway.

Just when he had accepted his fate, Orvel looked at him and said in a cold voice: "Don't you think you have a good identity? I will arrange a place for you that can best highlight your identity!"

With that, Orvel ordered his guard: "Carry him away, find the dirtiest pig farm, and let him live with the dirtiest old sow for a week. This week, he eats, drinks and sleeps. Stay with the old sow, what the pig eats is what he eats, where the pig sleeps where he sleeps, I want him to feel what is super VIP treatment!"

Chapter 699

Sun Youcai's complexion changed drastically, he was scared to death in an instant, and his heart was desperate!

Let him live and sleep with the old sow, but also eating pig food?

Too f*cking disgusting, right? !

Let's not talk about how dirty the environment in the pigsty is, just talk about the smell of the old sow, which is nasty and smelly. If you let yourself sleep with her, it will make you sick!

Besides, the pig food is full of leftovers. Due to the lack of air circulation and the sultry temperature, it will be rotten within a few hours. How can the body that has been pampered and maintained for many years be able to hold it? !

Moreover, he has to live with the old sow for a week. After a week he will no more be the same as he is now!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly begged Orvel, saying: "Great Mr. Orvel, please be merciful and forgive me. I don't want to sleep with the old sow, the place is too dirty, I can't stand it... .."

Orvel sneered and said: "Can't stand it, right? Okay, double the time, two weeks!"

Sun Youcai cried loudly.

Orvel warned: "Cry? Just add another week to cry!"

Jacob felt that Sun Youcai had been beaten up and there was no need to get him to live with the old sow for three weeks, so he said, "Or don't go to the pig farm. The place is really dirty. ."

Orvel nodded and said: "The pig farm is indeed quite dirty, and it is very smelly, so I never run a pig farm."

As he said, he suddenly remembered something and said excitedly: "By the way, I have a kennel in the suburbs, where there are expensive fighting dogs. Then you can chop him up and feed the dogs directly, saving worry and effort, and It is also very clean and hygienic, he will definitely like it!"

Upon hearing this, Sun Youcai was so frightened that he peed his pants, all over.

If you can live, who would be willing to die!

It's better to die than to live, isn't it just sleeping and eating with the old sow?

Admit it!

Therefore, he was extremely eager to survive, and immediately pleaded: "Great Mr. Orvel, let me go and live with the old sow!"

Orvel nodded in satisfaction and said: "Take him down, remember, you must find the dirtiest pig farm!"

Afterwards, a few strong men dragged away the bruised and swollen Sun Youcai, leaving behind a table of outrageous guests.

When President Pei and others saw such a scene, their old faces twitched, and they said that Sun Youcai was not ordinary miserable.

However, who can be blamed for this, he is responsible for everything. If he had a better attitude towards Jacob, how could he end up like this?

When Sun Youcai started the three-week customized luxury tour of the pigsty, Orvel respectfully said to Jacob: "Mr. Willson, the guy just peed on this ground. In order not to hinder you and others, please move Meals in the Diamond Box! All expenses today will be borne by Classic Mansion."

When these words came out, President Pei and the others were shocked!

What? Did they hear right?

The dignified Aurous Hill Underground Emperor, it doesn't matter if he is respectful to Jacob, now in order to cheat him, he actually opened the highest-standard diamond box in Classic Mansion to him? !

In the whole Aurous Hill, there are only a handful of people who are eligible to book the Diamond Box in Classic Mansion.

But now, Orvel is rushing to curry favor with Jacob, and without waiting for him to ask, he directly expresses that he wants to open the diamond box for him? And it's free!

If this is spread out, who would dare to believe it!

Chapter 700

Jacob was also a little surprised, hesitatingly said: "This...isn't it appropriate?"

Orvel said solemnly, "Mr. Willson, you are Mr. Wade's father-in-law. Of course it is most appropriate to go to the Diamond Box to dine!"

When Jacob heard him say this, he relaxed and said flatly, "Great Mr. Orvel, you are so polite."

Only then did Chairman Pei and others realize that Jacob turned out to be a better figure!

If you have a good relationship with others, you will definitely feel relieved in the future!

Afterwards, Orvel personally invited everyone to the Diamond Box.

President Pei and others followed Jacob in turn, their faces respectful, and they didn't dare to make any big claims.

Jacob saw all this in his eyes, and he couldn't help but close his mouth in joy.

Obviously, he's rushing to ask these people to eat, but now, these people are all in awe with him!

At this moment, Jacob felt that the son-in-law Charlie really gave him a face!

.....

When Jacob was invited by Orvel to go all the way to the luxurious diamond box, Liu Guang and his son and the five Wu family bodyguards headed by Jones Zizhou also came to the door of Classic Mansion.

Liu Guang's face was full of cold killing intent.

During this period of time, his son Liu Ming's forehead has been hanging with two big characters, living a life that is better than death.

Before today, he didn't dare to avenge his son because he couldn't provoke the two culprits, Charlie and Orvel.

Even the son was extremely humiliating. He came to Classic Mansion once a week to find Orvel and let Orvel check the lettering on his forehead.

This is a great shame to him and his son!

However, tonight, he wants Orvel to pay the debt!

And the reason why he brought his son here this time was precisely because tonight happened to be the day when his son came to order Mao this week. He was going to let his son use the opportunity of Willson Mao to come in and inquire about the situation of Orvel and Classic Mansion.

For example, where is Orvel and how many bodyguards he has.

If he can't figure it out and rush in, he may be taken by Orvel to escape.

So he said to Liu Ming, who was standing next to him, "Son, you will go in later, what it was like before, and what it is today! But you have to be careful and look at Orvel. Where is the specific location, how many of his subordinates are in Classic Mansion now, who knows all about him, and then come back to report to me, got it?"

Liu Ming gritted his teeth and nodded, and said bitterly: "I know Dad! Don't worry, I must figure it out!"

Liu Guang was pleased to pat his shoulder and said seriously: "Good son, Dad will avenge you tonight! Let Mr. Orvel pay you with his life!"

Liu Ming hurriedly asked, "Dad, besides Mr. Orvel, the one who humiliated me is Charlie! He must die too!"

"Don't worry!" Liu Guang said seriously: "Kill Orvel tonight. I am the new underground emperor of Aurous Hill. At that time, we will cooperate with the Wu family and directly kill that Charlie! let him follow Orvel be a companion with him!"

Liu Ming was suddenly very excited, and when he recalled the humiliation he suffered during the time and the beginning, tears burst into his eyes.

Immediately, he touched the scar carved on his forehead by Orvel, crying and said, "Dad! Can the words on my forehead be removed?"

Liu Guang said in a gloomy and vicious voice: "Good son, don't worry, when you kill these two damned guys, Dad will take you to Korea for the best cosmetic surgery and will definitely help you remove all the scars!"

Chapter 701

Before that, every time Liu Ming came to Classic Mansion to find Orvel with the word "Poor Hanging" on his forehead, his heart was extremely broken.

Every time he came over, he would be watched by the guests and waiters of Classic Mansion, which made him feel a kind of extreme humiliation.

However, today is different.

Today is the last time for Orvel to die. After tonight, Orvel will completely pass away in Aurous Hill! Instead, his father, Liu Guang will be the boss now!

At that time, his father will become the underground emperor of Aurous Hill!

At that time, people will respect him as "Mr. Liu Guang"!

"At that time, I will also remove the humiliating scar on my forehead, and I will always be free from the shadow of the word poor hanging."

At the thought of this, Liu Ming was almost excited.

At this time, after seeing his son in the car, Liu Guang hurriedly said respectfully to Jones Zizhou, the Wu family bodyguard, "Mr. Zizhou, everything will depend on you later!"

Jones Zizhou nodded coldly and said, "Don't worry, no one in Aurous Hill is an opponent of Jones Zizhou! This Mr. Orvel won't survive tonight!"

Liu Guang was extremely excited.

At this moment, he and his son have been looking forward to it for a long time.

.....

At this moment, Orvel directly invited Jacob and others to the Diamond Box of Classic Mansion.

He protected Jacob all the way, pointed to the noblest seat among them, and respectfully said: "Mr. Willson, please come to your seat."

Jacob was still a little uncomfortable. He looked at President Pei and said, "President Pei should be here!"

President Pei's heart was tense, and he hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Oh, Jacob, how dare I sit in the seat! You should come!"

If Jacob asked him to take a seat just now, he would have taken it without thinking.

After all, he is the president and the person in charge of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. It is normal to be here.

However, after seeing Orvel being so polite to Jacob, he suddenly felt a little timid. Fortunately, he didn't show up in front of Jacob like Sun Youcai. Otherwise, he would go to the pig farm to experience a special life with the old sow. Opportunity, he has his own.

When other people saw this scene, they hurriedly echoed: "Yes, Brother Willson, you must be the one to sit here, please hurry up!"

Jacob was still very proud of being touted in the clouds and mists, so he smiled: "Haha, since everyone is so enthusiastic, it is hard to be kind, I won't be polite to everyone!"

After he finished speaking, he sat on the main seat, and Xuwen and Chairman Pei sat on his left and right.

After Orvel waited for him to take his seat, he smiled and said, "Mr. Willson, please wait for a while. The food will be ready soon. You can use tea first."

While he was talking, a beautiful female manager walked into the box and came closer to Orvel's ear and said: "Mr. Orvel, that kid from the Liu family has come to see you."

After listening to that, he immediately became happy and said: "Well, today is the day when Mr. Willson became the standing director of the Painting and Calligraphy Association. Since this kid is here, call him into the box. To help Mr. Willson!"

The beautiful female manager got the order and bowed slightly and walked out of the diamond box.

When Jacob heard that, in addition to allowing himself to use the diamond box, Mr. Orvel also specially prepared a celebration program. He was flattered and said: "Mr. Orvel, you don't need to be so polite..."

Orvel waved his hand and said with a smile: "Haha, this is what I should do!"

After speaking, he played a dumb riddle and then said: "Mr. Willson, don't worry, the show I prepared for you is definitely the only one in Aurous Hill, and it has something to do with your son-in-law, Mr. Wade. I promise to make you shine!"

Upon hearing this, everyone was also interested, sitting in their respective positions, looking forward to it.

Chapter 702

After a while, the beautiful female manager turned back again, and this time, behind her, there was a young man who shrank and dared not look up.

Jacob and the others in the Calligraphy and Painting Association were immediately confused and said to their hearts, this kid is the show Mr. Orvel prepared?

This young man, there is nothing outstanding about him!

However, at this moment, when the young man in front of him walked into the box, without saying anything, he immediately bowed to Orvel and said respectfully and fearfully: "Uncle, I'm here to report to you. Please review it."

The person who came was Liu Ming.

On the same day, after mentioning the word "poor hanging" in the Champs Elysées Hot Springs, Orvel clearly told him that he would come to his front every other week to check it out in person.

In order to make sure this guy dare not do any scar removal repairs, let alone plastic surgery.

However, Orvel didn't know that he came here today not to make a point, but to make a stand.

From entering the door to now, Liu Ming has been counting the number of security guards silently.

After entering the box, he took a closer look at the people in the box.

Seeing that the box was full of old men, he was relieved.

Even if this Old Master is a friend of Mr. Orvel, he might not have any practical combat effectiveness. With a machete, he can knock them down.

At this time, Orvel said to Liu Ming: "Liu Ming, these are the leaders of our Aurous Hill Calligraphy and Painting Association. Since it is the Calligraphy and Painting Association, it is natural to have a lot of research and attainments in calligraphy. Lift up, let Mr. Willson and the others look at the human calligraphy on your forehead, and let everyone comment on it!"

Hearing this, Liu Ming's heart was instantly humiliated!

He wanted to turn around and leave, but he knew very well in his heart that his father was still waiting for him to go back and report the situation before bringing someone in.

Therefore, he must hold back now, and do a full set of acting!

Thinking of this, he could only grit his teeth, slowly raised his head, and showed his forehead to everyone present.

Although these old men are not young anymore, they are more or less presbyopic, but the words "poor hanging" on his forehead are really eye-catching! Everyone recognized it at a glance!

Chairman Pei said in surprise: "This...what's going on? This little gentleman, why should you engrave the word "poor hang" on his forehead?"

Orvel sneered and said: "This little brother usually has a bad mouth, and he likes to call others poor. He accidentally offended Mr. Wade and even called Mr. Wade Poor hanging. Since he likes to say these two words, then we engraved them on his forehead so that he will accompany these two characters for the rest of his life.

Jacob asked in surprise, "Is this lettering on his forehead because he offended my son-in-law?"

"Yes!" Orvel nodded and said, "Your son-in-law, Mr. Wade!"

President Pei said in surprise: "Oh, Jacob, why haven't you told us that you have such a powerful son-in-law!"

"Yeah!" Xuwen also sighed: "Jacob, what you hide is too deep, it's really low-key!"

Jacob laughed and said, "Oh, my son-in-law is very low-key, so I'm not too high-key!"

Everyone complimented.

Liu Ming looked at Jacob with a smug look and thought viciously, it turns out that this old thing is the b@stard father-in-law of Charlie!

It is going to be a jackpot today!

Today, he must take his life!

Think of it as asking d*mn son-in-law for some interest!

Chapter 703

After Liu Ming was ridiculed by the crowd, he was sent out by Orvel.

If he always goes out of Classic Mansion, he will definitely go home with his forehead.

But this time, instead of covering his forehead, he walked back to the parking lot with a murderous look and got into the car that Liu Guang and Jones Zizhou were in.

Liu Guang had been waiting here for a long time. When Liu Ming got in the car, he hurriedly asked: "Son, what's the situation inside?"

Liu Ming gritted his teeth and said: "There are more than 30 waiters and security guards, but more than half are women. The ones who are really a bit combative are twelve security guards."

Liu Guang turned his head to look at the middle-aged man who was next to him, and said worriedly: "Mr. Zizhou, are you sure with so many people? If you start working in a while, will you not suffer?"

Jones Zizhou sneered coldly and said, "Don't say that more than half of the 30-odd people are women. Even if they are all security guards, it is useless to us!"

Liu Guang immediately complimented: "Mr. Zizhou is really extraordinary! I admire it!"

Jones Zizhou nodded arrogantly, looked at Liu Ming again, and asked, "Where is Orvel now?"

Liu Ming blurted out: "Orvel is in the Diamond Box on the top floor!"

As he said, he said with a look of excitement: "Dad, Mr. Zizhou, I found a surprise in there!"

"Oh? What is it?" Liu Guang asked quickly.

Liu Mingyin smiled coldly, and said: "I found Charlie's wasteful Old Master in there, he is also eating here! And he was in the diamond box, Orvel was also there to wait on him, and we will go in for a while, do you want him? Kill them together?"

"Charlie's father-in-law?!" Liu Guang was overjoyed when he heard this, and said: "It's really easy! At Old Song's birthday banquet today, this Charlie beat me! Get him first today! Jacob pays some interest now!"

If he can kill Charlie's father-in-law, he will be able to avenge himself and his son. Secondly, Mr. Roger hates Charlie. If he kills his father-in-law, Mr. Roger will definitely treat him differently.

Thinking of this, he turned his head to look at Jones Zizhou, and said, "Mr. Zizhou, how Charlie treated Mr. Ragnar and the young master at the Song family birthday banquet.

You must have heard of it too. Since Charlie's wasteful Old Master is also there. Do you think we should get rid of him too?"

Jones Zizhou nodded and said: "Charlie insulted my master and young master. I naturally wish to cut him a thousand times. Since I meet his Old Master, I have no reason to spare him!"

Liu Guang nodded excitedly, and said, "Then let's go in together, and let them die today!"

...

The other side.

In the diamond box of Classic Mansion, a variety of dishes are served on the table, which can be described as a delicacy.

As the underground emperor of Aurous Hill, Orvel said with respect to Jacob at this moment: "Mr. Willson, I specially asked the back chef to prepare this table of special health-preserving dishes. I hope it will suit your appetite. These ingredients are the ones that the only top-class in Aurous Hill can buy, and it is natural and without any additives."

Jacob's saliva flowed down looking at the various delicacies in front of him.

Even before the Willson family went bankrupt, he had never been to such a top restaurant, let alone eaten such good things.

Sometimes, he dreams of experiencing the extravagant life of such a master. He can order a top-quality shark fin, a top-quality abalone, and steam an Australian lobster or king crab in the restaurant.

However, for so many years, he has never had such an opportunity. He has eaten the most expensive meal, which had the per capita is only two thousand. Today, he has already spared it, and he is ready to eat a meal of two or three hundred thousand per person.

Chapter 704

But Orvel's preparations today were truly extravagant. One serving of the best double-headed abalone cost 8,880. Jacob was dumbfounded.

Let alone black truffles, caviar, and other delicacies, it costs thousands for a casual serving.

This meal, if calculated according to the specifications, is already at least two to three million!

Jacob had never eaten such an expensive meal in his entire life. He was so excited and busy eating that he said to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, thank you so much for your great hospitality!"

Orvel smiled slightly, took out a business card of his own from his pocket, handed it to Jacob's hand, and said: "Mr. Willson, this is the next business card, please keep it! Next time you come to Classic Mansion again, Give me a call and I will immediately ask someone to pack out the diamond box and use it as you like."

After Jacob took the business card, he was filled with joy.

Other people in the Calligraphy and Painting Association were even more enthusiastic when they saw such a scene!

This Jacob is really amazing! The famous Orvel is like a grandson in front of him, and there is no such thing as a big boss.

Mr. Orvel not only served dishes and poured wine in the box himself, but even took the initiative to pour a glass of white wine. He came to Jacob's face and said respectfully: "Mr. Willson, I toast you a glass!"

Jacob immediately held up the wine glass flattered, touched Orvel, and then drank the wine in the glass.

After a glass of wine, he couldn't help sighing: "Oh, this wine is really delicious!"

Mr. Orvel smiled and said: "This is a 40-year-old Moutai, and you need a six-figure bottle for a kilogram. Mr. Willson will drink more if he likes it. I will let someone bring two more bottles later. !"

Jacob hurriedly thanked: "Oh, Mr. Orvel, I really don't know how to thank you! You are so kind!"

"I should be!" Orvel said piously: "Mr. Wade treats me as kind as a mountain, and you are Mr. Wade's father-in-law. I naturally have to treat you wholeheartedly to be worthy of Mr. Wade's kindness to me!"

Jacob couldn't help sighing, why did this Charlie fool? He's almost fooling Mr. Orvel into his dog legs!

Unexpectedly, this guy has no other abilities, but the ability to fool people is really amazing...

Others at the dinner table, seeing Jacob having such a face in front of Orvel, had long been willing to cater to him.

President Pei couldn't help holding up the wine glass and said with a smile on his face: "Oh, today I really want to thank Jacob for arranging such a show! The Old Master has lived all his life and has never eaten such a luxurious meal. My eye is opened!"

As he said, he said with a serious look: "In addition, today our Calligraphy and Painting Association has ushered in a new executive director. Come, come, let us all respect director Willson with a glass!"

Everyone was also very acquainted, and they picked up their wine glasses and said with a smile: "Director Willson, we respect you together!"

When Jacob heard that Chairman Pei took the lead in calling himself Director Willson, he was surprised and said: "Chairman Pei, am I elected?!"

"Of course!" Chairman Pei said with a smile: "Jacob, our standing director is none other than you!"

When Jacob heard this, he was immediately excited and said hurriedly, "Thank you, President Pei! Thank you, everyone! I will continue to work harder and make more contributions to our Calligraphy and Painting Association!"

Everyone also laughed flatteringly, and then they brought up their glasses together.

When he was about to have a drink, there was a loud bang, and the door of the box was kicked open!

Chapter 705

The people in the box were suddenly startled by the loud noise.

Everyone was too busy to watch and saw a burly middle-aged man walking into the box with a cold face.

And behind him, four middle-aged men with arrogant faces also stepped in.

These five people are Regnar's personal bodyguards.

Liu Guang and Liu Ming followed these men's a with arrogant faces, with a grin on their faces, very arrogant.

Mr. Orvel frowned when he saw Liu Guang and Liu Ming his son and said coldly: "You father and son are really courageous, dare you to bring someone to kick my Classic Mansion?"

Liu Ming snorted coldly and said, "Orvel, your death is imminent and will not delay your pretending? Tell you, you humiliated me dare not forget for a moment, today we are here to kill you!"

When these words came out, everyone's jaw dropped!

Did they hear him right?

There are people who are bold enough to want the life of Orvel?!

Mr. Orvel also sneered sarcastically at this time: "You want my life? Do you really think that Orvel is eating dry rice? Do you know how many younger brothers I have in Aurous Hill?"

Liu Guang said coldly at this moment: "I'm telling you Mr. Orvel, no matter how many little brothers you have are useless, and all of the more than ten security guards in your Classic Mansion have been abolished, and no one can save you now!"

As he said, he pointed to Jones Zizhou beside him, with a vicious expression on his face: "These are all masters of the Wu family. With them, you are hard to fly today, and you are definitely in a place to die! Mr. Wu gives you a chance. You kneel in front of him and lick his shoes clean. He will leave you a whole body. Otherwise, I will smash you into pieces today!"

When Orvel heard this, he couldn't help feeling a little nervous.

It seems that he was still negligent!

For so many years, his position in Aurous Hill has been so respected that he has long believed that there are still people in Aurous Hill who dared not to touch himself.

Therefore, he did not always carry dozens of bodyguards with him.

He always feels that a dozen security guards in Classic Mansion are good at protecting and to ensure his safety.

But no one thought that the Wu family would actually do something to him!

Moreover, the five bodyguards of the Wu family really looked extraordinary, at first glance they were masters of combat.

It seems that even if he brings twenty people here today, he may not be able to stop these five people!

At this time, Liu Ming pointed at Jacob and asked in a cold voice: "You are Charlie's, Old Master?!"

Jacob said in his heart: "You...what do you want to do?!"

"What do I want to do?" Liu Ming sneered, and said, "Charlie's Rubbish, not only humiliating me but also humiliate my father? He is lucky if he is not here today, otherwise, he would get killed here today!"

After speaking, Liu Ming looked at Jacob and said viciously: "However, since Charlie is not here today, then you, the Old Master, pay some interest for him!"

When Jacob heard this, his face paled in fright, and he asked in a panic: "What...what do you mean...what do you want to do?"

"What do I want to do?" Liu Ming gritted his teeth and said: "Of course I am going to kill you! Let your good son-in-law come to collect the body for you!"

Jacob was taken aback and immediately wanted to drill under the table.

At the dinner table, the other members of the Calligraphy and Painting Association also hid in the corner for fear of getting hurt.

Jones Zizhou said coldly at this time: "All those who have nothing to do with Mr. Orvel and Jacob, get out of here! Otherwise, I will kill them together!"

As soon as the voice fell, President Pei and the others ran out in a panic.

Jacob's friend Xuwen was at a loss. He wanted to escape, but seeing that Jacob's life was in danger here, he didn't want to abandon him for a while.

Chapter 706

Dave was trembling in fright at this time. Seeing that Xuwen was still hesitant, he hurriedly said: "Xuwen, leave quickly. If this group of people really do anything to you, I can't explain to your family!"

Jones Zizhou shouted coldly: "If you don't want to go, just stay."

Xuwen gritted his teeth and dared not delay any longer, and hurried out of the box.

Dave was desperate in his heart, but fortunately, Mr. Orvel was still in the box, so he prayed that Mr. Orvel could cope with the situation.

However, Mr. Orvel could do nothing at this time.

This group of people kicked open the door of the diamond box and made such a big movement. If there was no accident, their own people would have appeared long ago.

Up to now, no one has come over, which proves that these people have been ill-adjusted.

Liu Guang gritted his teeth and looked at Mr. Orvel, and said coldly: "Orvel, your death time is here!"

After speaking, he turned his head and said respectfully to Jones Zizhou: "Mr. Zizhou, please do it!"

Jones Zizhou nodded, took a step forward, and said, "Orvel, come forward and die!"

When Mr. Orvel was young, he was considered a half-practice. He did not accept his fate when he was young. Instead, he prepared a posture to deal with it. He said coldly: "If you want my fate, it depends on whether you have this ability. Now!"

Jones Zizhou sneered and said, "You are just an ant in my eyes!"

After all, he walked directly towards Orvel.

Orvel looked solemn but knew that he couldn't give in at this time, so he immediately punched Jones Zizhou.

Jones Zizhou sneered, only to punch lightly.

But when the two fists collided, Orvel only felt that his body was hit by a huge boulder, and with a puff, he felt a strong attack. He couldn't stand it, he immediately flew out and fell to the ground.

Orvel, who fell to the ground, suddenly changed his complexion. He couldn't believe that the strength of this man was so abnormal! It's crushing him!

Liu Ming saw this scene, his eyes lit up, and his heart was ecstatic!

And his father Liu Guang is even more excited!

The one who fell to the ground was the underground emperor of Wrestvel!

However, after tonight, his position will be replaced!

And he will become a dead body!

Thinking of this, Liu Guang immediately sneered: "Orvel, aren't you very arrogant? Now you know what there are outsiders and there is a heaven above you, right?"

After all, Liu Guang walked up to Orvel and gritted his teeth, and said: "Before killing you, I also want you to taste it. What is humiliation!"

Immediately, he hurriedly said to Jones Zizhou: "Mr. Zizhou, please help me to control him. I want to engrave the word "poor hang" on his forehead to avenge my son!"

Jones Zizhou said coldly: "I came to kill him today, not to ask you to engrave him. If you want to engrave, you can wait until I kill him!"

Liu Guang hurriedly said: "Mr. Zizhou, in that case, he won't be able to feel the pain of humiliation and death!"

Jones Zizhou glanced at him and said, "The surname over there is Xiao, you can engrave it whatever you want, I will kill him first!"

After all, Jones Zizhou pinched Orvel's neck with one hand, and lifted the volley with his feet hanging in the air!

Jones Zizhou only used a little force on his hand, and Mr. Orvel suddenly felt a sharp pain in his neck, completely out of breath, and it felt more painful than hanging himself. It seemed that his Adam's apple would be crushed vigorously!

At this moment, Mr. Orvel's face was full of black and purple, his heart had already realized that he would die today!

Chapter 707

As early as when Liu Guang rushed into the Diamond Box, Marven left home and drove the Old Master's BMW car to Tianxiang Mansion.

Originally, he was not prepared to go out so early.

But his mother-in-law Viola kept talking to him at home.

For a while, she disliked Dave as he went to a restaurant to be extravagant. She felt that 20,000 would be better for her to buy cosmetics, and by the way, she could go to the mahjong hall to rub a few circles with friends;

After a while, she disliked Marven for not going out to work and eat plain rice when he was idle at home;

Later, she said more and more vigorously. She insisted on introducing Marven to a job as a security guard in the parking lot. She also said that the salary of 3,000 a month would be paid to him.

Marven knew that Viola had run out of money recently, and her pocket was cleaner than her face, and she couldn't play outside, so she could only stay at home most of the time.

And as long as she is at home, she will be sulking and complaining constantly.

She was in a bad mood, and Marven was even more unpleasant.

It just so happened that tonight Dave and his wife Avella hadn't come home yet, so Viola kept chirping at him, really annoying Marven, so he went out early, even in the car. Sitting is much better than listening to her complaining at home.

Marven drove to Tianxiang Mansion and stopped at the door of Tianxiang Mansion. He didn't get up in a hurry.

He checked that the time was still early, and it was estimated that the Old Master would have to sit on it for a while, so he turned off the fire and sat in the car to listen to songs and pass the time.

According to the original plan, the plan was to wait for the Old Master to call himself after he had finished drinking and had enough food and drink and then went up to pick him up.

However, after waiting at the gate of Tianxiang Mansion for a while, Marven realized that something was wrong.

At the gate of Tianxiang Mansion, there have always been two security guards and two waitresses. The security guards are responsible for guarding and the waiter is responsible for welcoming guests.

But today, there is no one at the gate of Tianxiang Mansion.

Moreover, there was a sign at the door stating that the business was closed.

“what’s the situation?”

Marven thought to himself, did Mr. Orvel know that the Old Master is coming today, so he directly booked the venue for him?

Mr. Orvel is very insightful in handling things.

Thinking like this, he saw a lot of panicked old men at the gate of Tianxiang Mansion.

Marven was even more puzzled.

These old men all looked the same age as Dave, and each of them looked scared as if something had happened inside.

So Marven hurriedly got out of the car and stopped an Old Master to ask: “Uncle, what happened upstairs?”

It was Chairman Pei who was stopped.

He was still in shock, and he kept shaking and said, "They are killing upstairs!"

When Marven heard this, he snorted in his heart!

Murdered?!

What's the situation?

Could it be that something happened to Tianxiang Mansion?!

Thinking of this, he immediately rushed into Tianxiang Mansion.

Chapter 708

When he entered Tianxiang Mansion, he discovered that the waiter and security had fallen to the ground.

Marven stepped forward to investigate and found that all the waiters and security guards had passed out, and everyone had bruises on their necks, and it seemed that they had passed out with their hands.

"This is a master!" Marven couldn't help but pay attention, and immediately stepped upstairs!

At this time, Orvel was dying, his eyes turned white.

On the other side, Liu Guang and Liu Ming winked at each other seeing this.

Liu Ming took a dagger from his waist and looked at Dave who was trembling in the corner, and said coldly: "Since Mr. Orvel was dealt with by Jones, then they will let this Dave suffer double crime!"

After that, he said to his father Liu Guang: "Dad, you grab this old thing, and I will engrave the four characters "poor hang father-in-law" on his forehead!"

Liu Guang nodded, and said coldly: "Engrave! Must engrave! Be harder and engrave it on his skull!"

Dave's scared soul was not possessed, and he blurted out: "I have no grievances with you, why do you treat me like this?!"

"No grievances and no enmity?!" Liu Ming rushed to Dave with a vigorous step, slapped him directly and severely.

"You're not dead! Your son-in-law has humiliated me, dare you say that you have no grievances with me? I tell you, today I will not only engrave the four characters of hanging father-in-law on your forehead, I fcking want to Kill you! Let your dmn poor son-in-law comes and collects your body!"

Liu Ming's blade was extremely sharp, and Dave cried in fright as he watched the cold light refracted by the blade.

However, he had no other way. He could only blurt out to shout to Orvel: "Great Mr. Orvel, Orvel help!"

Orvel was on the verge of death at this time. His brain was about to lose consciousness due to a lack of oxygen. Suddenly he heard Dave's call for help. With the last bit of effort, he said: "Mr. Xiao, I'm sorry, it was Orvel who made you tired!"

Jones Zizhou said with a gloomy expression: "Orvel, you haven't died for so long, you old guy is a bit capable, but I advise you not to insist any more. If you continue to persist, you will only suffer more pain!"

Mr. Orvel's face was completely black and purple, but he still roared hoarsely: "I will never let you off if I am a ghost!"

"Oh?" Jones Zizhou sneered: "Then I will wait for you to turn into a ghost to find me tonight. Then, I will let you die again!"

Mr. Orvel smiled hard and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye will avenge me today! I will walk a little slower on Road and wait for you to come over!"

"Noisy!"

Jones Zizhou snorted coldly and said, "Mr. Ye in your mouth is nothing but rubbish in my eyes!"

After that, Jones Zizhou said again: "But you really have to go slower on Huangquan Road, because soon I will send Mr. Ye on the road. Then, on Huangquan Road, you two can go together!"

"Just rely on you?" Mr. Orvel sneered incomparably, "You don't know Mr. Ye's strength at all. In front of Mr. Ye, you are not even worthy of rubbish!"

"Looking for death!" Jones Zizhou looked cold, and said coldly: "Come on, if you have anything, go and talk to Lord!"

Immediately, he increased a bit of strength in his hand, and the breath of Mr. Orvel was immediately pinched. The last bit of backlight has been exhausted, and the lamp is about to run out.

Liu Ming laughed loudly at this moment: "Cool! Kill Mr. Orvel and Marven's father-in-law tonight, if you kill Marven tomorrow, I will get revenge!"

At this time, Liu Guang had already held down Dave's head and said to Liu Ming: "Son, hurry up and engrave! After the engraving, I will take a photo as a souvenir!"

"Good!" Liu Ming grinned, the tip of the knife already touching Dave's forehead.

At this time, Mr. Orvel's eyes were completely rolled up, and he almost died of breath.

At this moment, the door of the box was suddenly kicked directly by someone!

When Dave saw someone coming, he broke down and cried, and shouted loudly, "Marven, my good son-in-law, if you come one step later, you can only collect the body!"

Chapter 709

Marven's face was as cold as frost at this time!

He really didn't expect that Liu Guang and Liu Ming would dare to bring someone to kill Mr. Orvel and his own father-in-law!

At this moment, he was so angry that he had already moved to kill!

And Liu Guang and Liu Ming were too excited when they saw him coming!

After such a long time, how much ridicule and humiliation Liu Ming has been living a life worse than death?

And all this is thanks to Marven!

Right now, he finally got revenge!

And Liu Guang was slapped by Marven today, and he naturally hated him to the bone. Originally regretted that he could not take his life today, he did not expect that he would come to the door himself!

Immediately, Liu Guang said to Jones Zizhou: "Mr. Zizhou! This b@stard is Marven! Kill him!"

Liu Ming shouted from the side: "Mr. Zizhou, quickly kill this poor man!"

Marven frowned and said, "You let Mr. Orvel and my Old Master, I might consider spare you a dog life."

Liu Guang was furious, and blurted out, "Marven, what are you talking about rubbish? He wants to pretend to be forceful when he dies, so he really takes himself seriously? Do you know if Mr. Zizhou can take you every minute of Life!"

After speaking, he said coldly again: "I tell you, since you dare to appear here today, then don't think about being able to go out alive!"

Marven said disdainfully: "Do you think it's just a few rubbish people can kill me?"

Liu Guang looked at Marven coldly, and the villain said with a great ambition: "Marven, I know you are skilled, but the few behind me, but the great masters carefully cultivated by the Wu family, are all-powerful, how can you? If you can fight, you can't be their opponent! Believe it or not, Mr. Zizhou will hit you all over the floor with a single move. Can you survive or die?!"

Liu Ming hurriedly said: "Dad, what can I say to Marven this Rubbish, want me to say, just beat him into a Rubbish! I want him to kneel in front of me, kowtow to admit his mistake, and before Marven's death, I also have to engrave the word waste on his forehead, take it with my mobile phone, and post the video to the Internet so that the whole Wrestvel will know that Marven is a useless waste!"

Liu Guang laughed and said, "Okay! Just do what you said!"

Seeing Jones Zizhou pinching Mr. Orvel hard, Marven said coldly: "Let him go, what's coming at me!"

Jones Zizhou said with a look of contempt: "Let go of him? Boy, believe it or not, I can kill you with one hand! I will send you on the road with Mr. Orvel!"

Seeing his face full of confidence, Marven sneered: "This hand of yours doesn't belong to you anymore!"

After that, he rushed up immediately!

Jones Zizhou didn't expect Marven to rush towards him, and before letting go of Mr. Orvel with his right hand, he attacked Marven fiercely with his left hand!

Jones Zizhou was full of confidence at this time.

He felt that he was already strong and out of place. How could an ordinary person be his opponent?

Even if it is Mr. Orvel who has been fighting for half a lifetime, isn't it still done by one hand?

However, what he did not expect was that Marven flashed his attack in an instant, and then suddenly grabbed his arm and punched his shoulder!

This punch is beyond imagination!

Just listen to a click!

Jones Zizhou's left shoulder has all been shattered into dust!

The bones turned into powder in the flesh, this kind of pain is like thousands of bone spurs, constantly piercing the nerves and flesh, causing Jones Zizhou to grin in pain as if all his strength was emptied in an instant!

Immediately afterward, as soon as he loosened his right hand, Mr. Orvel slumped to the ground, and his whole body had no reaction.

Marven looked at him and could sense that he still had an extremely weak breath, and he was not dead, and he was relieved.

Since Mr. Orvel only had a trace of life left, Marven didn't worry about saving him immediately. Instead, he looked at the group of people in front of him and said coldly, "None of you want to leave today!"

Chapter 710

Jones Zizhou's left shoulder was shattered, and there was only a layer of skin and flesh on his left arm, completely out of control, he could only hang on one side, and his expression at this time was even more horrified!

He is the king of special forces! Very strong! Never encountered an opponent in the military!

If it weren't for the price offered by the Wu family, how could he be willing to be someone else's bodyguard and a thug with his strength and arrogance?

Jones Zizhou has never tasted defeat for so many years, but he did not expect that he was just a face-to-face with Marven, and his left arm was abolished. This Marven's strength is too strong, right?!

Marven looked at Jones Zizhou with a look of horror, and sneered, "What? Afraid now?"

Jones Zizhou looked terrified, took a step back subconsciously, and questioned: "Who are you? Why do you have such strength?"

Marven said lightly: "Who am I? I am the person you shouldn't mess with within your life!"

Jones Zizhou gritted his teeth and said to the four brothers around him: "Go together and kill him!"

The other four immediately rushed forward, and Jones Zizhou joined them with a stubborn arm!

The five immediately surrounded Marven with a murderous look!

However, their faces are extremely solemn!

Just now Marven did it, and even Jones Zizhou couldn't make an effective defense. It can be seen that the opponent's skill is much better than them!

Therefore, they can only hope that the five people can work together to beat Marven!

Marven smiled coldly at this time, and said indifferently: "The chickens and dog."

In the next moment, Marven was like lightning, and he fought fiercely with the five people in an instant!

However, Marven's speed, strength, and explosive power are much stronger than them!

Therefore, in front of him, these people have no power to parry!

There was only a crackling sound, mixed with the screams of a few people, constantly resounding through the box.

And these five people constantly feel that they are being hit hard!

Some suddenly got a punch in the chest, and several ribs broke!

Others, like Jones Zizhou, accidentally broke their arms and became one-armed heroes!

There was even worse. Marven smashed his chin with a punch, and there was a pile of bones and rotten flesh attached to his lower lip. It looked so miserable!

Jones Zizhou didn't find any good end either. He suffered heavy blows in the abdomen, and his whole person was like a dead dog, sitting on the ground unable to move!

At this time, he was completely frightened!

Before today, he had never thought that someone would be so strong that he could crush him with a gentle hand!

And now, after years of not encountering a rival, he finally understands the truth that there are mountains beyond the mountains and the heavens beyond the sky!

Marven's strength, for him, was already terrifying to the degree of abnormality! In front of him, he is the real ant!

And Liu Guang and his son, who were still arrogant, looked shocked when they saw such a scene!

Didn't they even dream that Jones Zizhou was beaten into a dead dog in front of them after a few encounters!

Not only him, but also his four subordinates have become four dead dogs who can only panic and pant!

Marven stepped heavily on Jones Zizhou's chest and broke many of his ribs.

He looked down at the terrified Jones Zizhou, watching the painful vomiting blood, coldly asked: "Come on, tell me, who is the real ant?!"

Chapter 711

Jones Zizhou was almost disabled at this time, and his whole body was in terrible pain, all courage and strength had been completely dissipated!

He looked at Charlie desperately, thinking of those weak who had been killed by himself.

Today, will he also follow the footsteps of those weak? Who were crushed and killed by master that he could not contend with? !

Thinking of this, Jones Zizhou was terrified!

His strength is indeed very strong, but it does not mean that he is not afraid of death.

In contrast.

The more he kills, the more he cherishes life.

He wants to live, he wants to live comfortably, live comfortably, and lively.

That's why he followed the Wu family and helped them to abuse.

The enemy of the Wu family, he came to kill, and after the killing, he could exchange huge wealth from the Wu family.

After the good days of the past few years, he feels that life is too good.

So, let him die now, he can't accept it anyway.

So, he cried and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, Wade, I did not know Your excellency. I don't know you have such a powerful strength. I only ask you to think that I am only doing things for the Wu family and obeying the orders of the Wu family. On the basis of this, spare my life!"

Charlie said coldly: "Just because you are working for the Wu family, I think you are even more hateful!"

With that, Charlie stepped on his right shoulder and completely abolished his entire right arm!

Jones Zizhou wailed and cried, but Charlie said in disgust: "Others have real grudges against me. They come to kill me. I understand, but I have no grudges against you. You came to kill me for money, you said, Are you not more hateful than my enemy?"

"Mr. Wade, sorry..."

Jones Zizhou didn't expect that he wanted to defend himself with a few words, but he didn't intend to make Charlie even more upset. Now his shoulders have been shattered. From now on, these two arms are just like the two sleeves. They can only be slumped and moved back and forth with the body. It is no different from the waste!

Charlie turned his face at this moment, looked at Liu Guang and his son who were frightened, and said coldly: "You two are very arrogant, do you even dare to fight my father-in-law?"

The two arrogant Liu Guang and his son were already scared and stupid!

You know, the five people who were abandoned by Charlie, although young, are also the bodyguards of the young master Roger, and they are very powerful.

But they never dreamed that this group of people would be so vulnerable, and they weren't even Charlie's enemy of one move? !

The thought of this made Liu Ming panicked.

He pressed the dagger tightly to Jacob's neck, and shouted in a trembling voice: "Charlie, you stop! Otherwise, I will kill your Old Master!"

Jacob was so frightened that he hurriedly shouted to Charlie: "Charlie, save me Charlie!"

At this moment, Liu Guang suddenly raised his arm and slapped Liu Ming severely.

Before Liu Ming came back to his senses, he stunned his face and asked, "Dad, why are you hitting me?!"

Liu Guang blurted out angrily: "You b@stard, dare to take a knife against Mr. Wade's Old Master's neck, are you looking for death?! Don't you hurry to kneel down for Mr. Wade!"

After scolding his son, Liu Guang turned around, knelt on the ground with a puff, and immediately cried with tears: "Mr. Wade, I was bewitched by the Wu family and his son. They let me kill Mr. Orvel and then held me to sit on Mr. Orvel's throne. They also said that they would kill you and speak out for his son. Please read it for the sake of my temporary confusion, forgive me!"

Liu Ming is a stunned young man, but Liu Guang is not.

He knew very well that the current situation had been completely pulled back by Charlie alone. If he was still fighting against Charlie at this time, it would really be a lantern in the toilet and death imminent!

Of course he really wants to sit in the position of Mr. Orvel, but he also needs his life to sit at that place! Therefore, at this time, the Wu family, the Aurous Hill first family, and the Aurous Hill underground emperor are nothing to him. He just wants to survive and survive well.

Otherwise, even if Charlie relented and allowed himself to survive, he would probably end up like Jones Zizhou.

Chapter 712

This Zizhou is already a useless person. He will not even have the ability to wipe his butt. Both shoulders have been completely shattered, and the flesh and tissues are also broken into mud. The first thing to do when he is brought to the hospital must be amputation of both arms.

He doesn't want to live a life that is worse than death!

At this time, Liu Ming wanted to understand that it's useless for him to pretend to be ruthless with Charlie. A man like Jones Zizhou beats Orvel's subordinates and cuts them like melons and vegetables. Under Charlie's hands, no What's the trick?

Even if he really used a knife against Jacob's throat, he was afraid that Charlie would be able to kill him on the premise of saving Jacob's life.

So, dad knows the current affairs!

Thinking of this, he also knelt down with a puff, crying and said, "Mr. Wade, I was wrong, please forgive me... My dad and I came over today because of the persecution by Young Mr. Orvel, otherwise You give me ten courage, and I dare not move your people..."

After speaking, he knelt on the ground, kowtowed his head again to apologize, cried bitterly, and broke down.

Charlie sneered and said: "It seems that your father and son have a strong desire to survive!"

Liu Guang hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, we are also astray and know how to return..."

Charlie snorted coldly: "You two kneel down for me! If you dare to move, I will screw off your dog heads!"

The father and son trembled all over, and both knelt on the ground not daring to move.

Charlie stepped to Mr. Orvel's side at this time and felt his pulse.

Although it was discovered just now that he still had a breath, he was indeed deprived of oxygen for too long, and his body had been seriously damaged and extremely weak.

Such a person seems to have suffered a severe brain injury. Although he has not died, he may not be able to wake up in three to five years, and it is even difficult to wake up for a lifetime.

Charlie couldn't bear to watch him become a living dead.

After all, in the eyes of Charlie, Mr. Orvel is a tough guy and loyal. Such a person is rare, and he can't just watch him become a useless person.

So Charlie blocked his vision with his body, and from an angle that no one could see, he took out a rejuvenating pill from his pocket and put it directly into Mr. Orvel's mouth.

Because it is a secret medicine refined by a lost ancient prescription, this medicine melts in the mouth and has great efficacy!

Therefore, the medicine quickly turned into a warm current and entered Mr. Orvel's internal organs.

Soon, Mr. Orvel woke up quietly from the state of dying.

Mr. Orvel was already in a deep coma, but suddenly he woke up, opened his eyes, saw Charlie right in front of him, and was speechless in surprise.

He knew that he was dying just now, but he didn't know why he was waking up suddenly now.

He couldn't help exclaiming: "Mr. Wade...what...what's going on? I...I'm not dead?"

Charlie nodded and said lightly: "You can't die as long as you are with me."

Mr. Orvel was very grateful and blurted out: "Mr. Wade thank you for this life-saving grace!"

After finishing speaking, he said guiltily: "I'm sorry Mr. Wade, because I let them hurt your father-in-law..."

Charlie waved his hand: "It's not your fault, besides, my father-in-law is not hurt."

Mr. Orvel breathed a sigh of relief at once, and the next moment, he felt a strong flow of heat in his body, which was swimming around his body.

This flow of heat not only healed his injury, but also made his body greatly improved and healthy.

He feels that his body has become more vigorous and younger than before!

Originally he had some presbyopia, but looking at Charlie at this moment, it became clearer and clearer!

He observed at Charlie dumbfounded, trembling with excitement, and asked in a trembling voice: "Mr. Wade, how come in my body...Could it be...rejuvenation... "

Chapter 713

Today at Father Song's birthday banquet, Orvel had seen the Rejuvenation Pill, and he also saw how magical it is.

However, he did not dare to hope that he could have such a chance.

Therefore, although he felt as if he had taken Rejuvenation Pill, this incident shocked him too much. Therefore, deep down in his heart, he was not sure whether he really took the Rejuvenation Pill.

Charlie smiled slightly and hurriedly gave him a silent look, and said lightly: "This is your chance, feel it well."

Mr. Orvel burst into tears at this moment!

He knew that what Mr. Wade meant was to give himself a chance!

He couldn't imagine that in the last second, he would almost die! And in the next second, not only did he not die, but he also got the great opportunity that Mr. Wade bestowed on him!

Rejuvenation pill!

The great opportunity that he didn't even dare to dream of, unexpectedly came so uninvited!

At this moment, Mr. Orvel's loyalty to Charlie was almost bursting!

He even felt that his life was given by Charlie. From now on, every second of his life would be for Mr. Wade.

Therefore, in the future, he will definitely devote himself to the saddle for Mr. Wade, because without Mr. Wade, he would already be a dead person!

Immediately afterwards, Mr. Orvel's body quickly recovered. He even stood up with a rush from the ground, then knelt in front of Charlie, and said, "Mr. Wade's life-saving grace! From today, my life, it belongs to Mr. Wade!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Get up!"

When Mr. Orvel heard the sound, he stood up.

Afterwards, he looked around and saw that the Liu family and his son were kneeling on the ground, not daring to move. Jones Zizhou and the five Wu family bodyguards had all become useless. He couldn't help but sigh that Mr. Wade's strength is truly unfathomable!

With so many people, they didn't even hurt Mr. Wade!

Immediately, he couldn't help asking, "Mr. Wade, what do you plan to do with these people? Do you kill them directly? Or..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Come on, let's go to the first trial and convict them!"

"Shengtang?" Mr. Orvel asked in surprise, "Mr. Wade, what do you mean?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It's the ancient prefect master who was promoted to trial."

Mr. Orvel nodded hurriedly, moved a chair over, and said with a smile: "Mr. Wade, please sit down, let's be promoted!"

Charlie laughed, sat down on the chair, pointed at Liu Guang, Liu Ming, and said coldly: "The criminals Liu Guang and Liu Ming, you two are dogs for the Wu family and you intend to kill me."

Liu Guang and Liu Ming were scared and bowed, crying, "Mr. Wade, be forgiving, Mr. Wade...We were forced to be helpless..."

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said generously: "Since you are also bewitched by others, then this official will save you from the death penalty!"

When the two heard this, they were so excited that they were about to cry.

But Charlie went on to say: "Capital sins can be avoided, and living sins are hard to forgive! If you two want to survive, it depends on your performance!"

Liu Guang and Liu Ming expressed their opinions one after another: "Mr. Wade, from now on, we father and son will serve you as cows and horses! Forever!"

Charlie waved his hand: "I don't want you two to saddle me up."

Chapter 714

After all, he said to Mr. Orvel, "Mr. Orvel, since this Liu Guang is already poor, what should his father be?"

Mr. Orvel thought for a while, and said, "If you want to hang on his dad...should he be called the father of poor hanging?"

Charlie nodded: "Yes! You are right, he's the father of the poor."

After speaking, Charlie looked at Liu Guang and asked with a smile, "Liu Guang, what do you think?"

Liu Guang hurriedly nodded his head like pounding garlic, and said flatly: "Mr. Orvel is right, I am the father of the poor!"

"Yeah." Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said to Mr. Orvel: "Look, since he said so by himself, then quickly prepare your calligraphy and give him a pair."

"Calligraphy?" Mr. Orvel was stunned, and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, what calligraphy? I'm not good at writing calligraphy..."

Charlie pointed to the word "Poor Hanging" on Liu Ming's head and asked Mr. Orvel: "Human calligraphy, have you forgotten?"

Mr. Orvel slapped his forehead suddenly, and said guiltily: "Oh, I'm sorry Mr. Wade, I am dumb, I didn't expect you to mean this!"

Liu Guang was frightened when he heard this!

The word "poor hanging" on son's forehead has already made him very painful. If he had the word "father of poor hanging" on his forehead, then he might as well die!

So he cried and said, "Mr. Wade, you see that I am too old, so please give me some face..."

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "I gave you a face, so I asked Mr. Orvel to carve your forehead. Otherwise, I would also engrave the words on both sides of your face. Your son will give you a pair, and you can make a money for the father and son!"

Liu Guang collapsed and cried, and yelled: "Mr. Wade, please forgive me. I am old and my skin is wrinkled. Mr. Orvel is not easy to get a knife!"

Mr. Orvel sneered: "Liu Guang, don't bother, my hand is very stable, even if your forehead is full of large folds, I can engrave the words for you!"

Jacob hurriedly blurted out and complained at this time: "Good son-in-law, this Liu Guang is not a d*mn thing. He was going to engrave the words "poor father-in-law" on my forehead, and he said that he should work harder to engrave it on my skull!"

Liu Guang shuddered, crying and said, "Mr. Willson, I was joking..."

"You let your mother's old mule bullsh*t!" Jacob shouted angrily: "Your son's knife hit my forehead just now. If it weren't for my son-in-law's arrival in time, I would have asked you to engrave it! "

Liu Guang hurriedly cried to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, I really made a little joke with your father-in-law, not sincere..."

Charlie said coldly: "I don't care if you are sincere or not, I will give you the choice now, either, you can let Mr. Orvel finish carving the characters without moving; or I will let Mr. Orvel take a knife and castrate your son, and yes Castrate in front of you! Choose your own choice!"

When Liu Ming heard this, he burst into tears and knelt in front of Liu Guang. He kept kowtow and cried: "Dad, dad...you can't let him castrate me, there will be no child... Our old Liu family can't endure..."

Liu Guang also passed out in pain.

What should he do? If he knew it was today, he would kill myself, and would not dare to provoke Orvel or Charlie to his father-in-law!

Now, Charlie put such a multiple-choice question in front of him, how should he choose?

Choose lettering? The wiseness of life is considered to be thrown into the pit.

However, if he don't choose engraving, his son's roots may be severed by Mr. Orvel. This is not just the root of the son alone, this is the root of the entire family...

Thinking of this, he shook his whole body, looked at Mr. Orvel, and choked in despair and pain: "Great Mr. Orvel, please show me some mercy when you engrave..."

Mr. Orvel sneered and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely engrave it on your skull!"

Chapter 715

Liu Guang frightened and cried out in despair. The moment Mr. Orvel's knife touched his forehead, he yelled in pain, and even struggled to hide.

Mr. Orvel slapped him directly, and said coldly, "Scream again, and I will cut your son's roots!"

Upon hearing this, Liu Guang didn't dare to move any more, he could only cry, gritted his teeth, and accepted Orvel's human flesh calligraphy.

Mr. Orvel hit the knife very hard, and soon carved four large characters on Liu Guang's forehead, the father of the poor hanging!

Liu Guang's entire forehead was already bloody, looking very miserable.

Liu Ming was also scared to death by the side, watching his father also get engraved and engraved four at a time. This feeling, this taste, is really uncomfortable.

After the words were carved, Liu Guang tremblingly cried and asked Charlie: "Mr. Wade, can you let us go?"

Charlie shook his head and said, "Do you think that living sin is just a little bit?"

After finishing talking, he said to Liu Ming: "Come on, hang on, give me your phone."

Liu Ming hurriedly took out his latest Apple phone and handed it to Charlie after unlocking it.

Charlie asked him: "Is there a video recorder?"

"Yes..." Liu Ming nodded quickly.

Charlie found YouTube, opened it, and said to him: "Come on, today your father and son record a cross talk on YouTube. If the recording is good, I will let you go. If the recording is not good, all legs and feet will be interrupted. ."

The father and son hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, we can do what you say. As long as you don't kill us, anything is fine..."

"Yeah." Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Come on, I will tell you both of your lines. You two have memorized them. You don't a mistake. Do you understand?"

The two of them nodded like garlic: "I understand, I understand!"

"Okay." Charlie sneered, asked the two of them to come to the front, and said the lines he designed for them.

When the words were finished, both father and son were shocked.

Liu Guang cried and said, "Mr. Wade, if we really want to say this, make a video and send it out, the Wu family will definitely kill us."

Liu Ming also said to the side: "Mr. Wade, you are killing our grandpa..."

Charlie said coldly: "What? The Wu family will kill you, but I won't?"

The two of them paled in shock.

Charlie said again: "Tell you, if you record this video honestly, you two will have at least one night to escape. As long as you escape from Aurous Hill, the Wu family may not be able to do anything to you. If you escape the country, You two can live a life in peace, but if you don't follow my instructions, then you will stay here tonight!"

Hearing this, Liu Guang hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, we have spent so many years in Aurous Hill. If we leave tonight, many assets will be left here!"

Charlie frowned: "What? Want to bargain? Forget it, don't record it, just hand it over!"

Liu Ming hurriedly persuaded his father, saying: "Dad! What life is more important! Let's go to Eastcliff first tonight, and then fly from Eastcliff to Malaysia tomorrow morning to uncle! We will also buy a small manor in Malaysia in the future. I won't come back in this life!"

Thinking of this, Liu Guang gritted his teeth and said, "Mr. Wade, let's shoot!"

Chapter 716

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said: "Come on, start quickly."

After speaking, he picked up the phone and pointed it at the man and his son.

The two men stood side by side, Liu Ming wiped away his tears, and said with a strong smile: "Hello everyone, I am a poor hanger, Liu Ming."

Liu Guang also hurriedly said: "I am Liu Guang, the father of the poor hanging."

The two men said at the same time: "Our father and son will tell you a cross talk today!"

Liu Ming continued: "Everyone must have seen these two characters on my forehead. The reason why I engraved the two characters on my forehead is mainly because I have always been arrogant and engraved these two characters on my forehead. It's just to remind everyone that I am poor."

Liu Guang also said: "I say that I am a hero, a hero, and I am a hero of my son. Since my son has carved the word "poor hanging" on his forehead, then I definitely can't hold back my son, so I had this on my forehead. "Father of Poor Hanging"."

Liu Ming said at this time: "When you see this, you will definitely ask, why are my dad and I so arrogant? This is mainly because we have a very good relationship with the Wu family!"

"Yes!" Liu Guang said next to him: "Everyone knows that the Wu family is rich, but the most powerful thing in the Wu family is not rich, but a son who likes to eat sh!t!"

Liu Ming answered, "Yes. Speaking of the son of the Wu family who eats sh!t, everyone must have watched the video on YouTube. This guy has to eat one meal an hour, and one bite will not work. He is in the hospital toilet. In order to eat something hot, he pulled the Old Master who was being relieved from the squat pit and grabbed the sh!t from the crowd. Do you think this is an ordinary person?"

Liu Guang echoed from the side: "According to you, this Wu family is really extraordinary!"

"Of course." Liu Ming nodded repeatedly and praised with a thumbs up: "So I still have to say that the Wu family is amazing, or else, the second young master of the Wu family, can he be so arrogant?"

Liu Guang asked curiously: "Hey, right, why haven't you heard the second young master of the Wu family recently?"

Liu Ming said: "I heard, he is living comfortably now! It's a royal treatment!"

"How do you say?" Liu Guang looked gossip.

Liu Ming said: "He is doing great now. He lives in the Wu family's mansion. It is said that there is need of 20 special pulls in a day, and he eats fresh."

Liu Guang asked in surprise: "So exciting? With more than 20 meals a day, can the Wu family's output be sufficient?"

Liu Ming said earnestly: "That's definitely not enough. Think about it, no matter how the Wu family can pull it, they can't stand up to occasional constipation or something."

"Ouch!" Liu Guang blurted out: "Then the second young master of the Wu family might be interrupted!"

After that, Liu Guang asked Liu Ming: "Dad, do you want to sign up, and go to the Wu's house in Suzhou for a few days, and give many warm meals for Mr. Wu?"

Liu Ming nodded repeatedly and smiled and said, "This is a good idea! If we go, the Old Master from the Wu family, that b@stard, and the b*tch Regnar, won't they be grateful and kowtow to us?"

When he said this, Liu Ming's heart trembled.

This is really going to offend the Wu family to death!

Liu Guang felt like jumping wildly in his heart, but he glanced at Charlie and could only bite the bullet and continued: "It's more than a kowtow! He'll probably grateful to kneel and lick with both of us. I heard that the Wu family likes it. Recognize us godfather everywhere, maybe when you get excited, you have to recognize me as a godfather or something."

"Old Master Wu likes to recognize his godfather?" Liu Ming asked in surprise: "Why do you have this habit?"

"Then who knows to go." Liu Guang shrugged and said, "I heard that the old immortal has already recognized more than 300 godfathers. It may be that the old immortal likes to be a son!"

Chapter 717

Liu Ming quickly took over Liu Guang's words and said: "Then if I go to the Wu family, will the Old Master from the Wu family also recognize me as a father?"

Liu Guang snapped his fingers: "Hey, don't tell me, I think it's very likely!"

Liu Ming hurriedly said, "Oh, dad, this is not okay! The Old Master calls us both fathers, so don't we two have a difference?"

Liu Guang thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "It makes sense, then I will let him recognize me as a godfather. Isn't it all right?"

Liu Ming hehe: "I think it works!"

Liu Guang said at this time: "In fact, this Wu family has a little special hobby. Not only Wu Qi likes to eat sh!t and Old Wu likes to recognize godfathers, but Regnar also has special hobbies."

"Really?" Liu Ming asked curiously, "What is Regnar's hobby? Could it be that he also likes to eat that stuff?"

"It's not." Liu Guang said, "I heard that when Regnar was young, he had a strong green hat plot."

Liu Ming asked curiously: "Dad, what does the green hat plot mean?"

Liu Guang said: "Hey, he just like to be cuckolded, and the more he wears, the cooler he is!"

Liu Ming exclaimed: "Is it so magical?"

"Of course!" Liu Guang laughed stiffly and said, "It is said that when Regnar was young, he had a particularly lofty dream."

Liu Ming hurriedly asked: "What dream?"

Liu Guang said: "He dream of wearing 10,000 green hats, but if lose one, he felt that life is not fulfilled enough!"

Liu Ming put his finger to the fortune and said, "Dad, wearing a green hat 365 days a year, Regnar will wear a green hat for 30 years! The key is that his wife can't stay idle all day long!"

Liu Guang smiled and said: "Look, you don't understand this. Who said that people wear one top a day? Sometimes people wear several tops a day, or even several tops at a time!"

When Liu Ming heard this, he immediately gave a thumbs up, and exclaimed, "Why don't you say that the Wu family is awesome! It's amazing!"

After that, Liu Ming asked again: "By the way, Dad, that Roger, does he have any special hobbies?"

"He?" Liu Guang laughed, and said, "The Wu family is the most powerful a!"

Liu Ming asked curiously: "What is it?"

Liu Guang said mysteriously: "Actually, this b@stard is a homos3xual!"

"Huh?" Liu Ming exclaimed, "Roger is gay?!"

"Yes!" Liu Guang blurted out: "He is not only gay, but also the kind of character who is f*cked by men inside! I tell you, don't watch him drag him to death all day long, in fact, he will change immediately after closing the door. Become a perverted fake lady! It is said that he likes to hang out with strong men most, and there are several at a time, very powerful!"

He said, "Do you know? There is a bodyguard named Jones Zizhou beside Regnar and Roger. This person is amazing! Back then, he was a super master who killed people without blinking. Later he took himself with to them. A few of brothers worked as bodyguards next to the Wu family's father and son, but this person is also a gay, who happens to be the type that Roger likes, so Roger and these five bodyguards stay together all day long, singing songs every night. So happy!"

"Oh my God!" Liu Ming exclaimed: "It turns out that the Wu family are all playing so exciting! I was really ignorant!"

Liu Guang smiled and said: "Let's put it this way, this Wu family, one of them counts as one, all of them are perverts among perverts, astupidls among astupidls!"

Chapter 718

Speaking of this, Liu Guang paused, and still mustered the courage to say: "But to tell you the truth, Regnar's wife is still very good. I think back then, she was also a famous beauty in the Suzhou area!"

Liu Ming hurriedly asked, "Is that the one who likes to cuckold Regnar, and even plans to wear 10,000?"

"Yes, that's her!" Liu Guang said with a look of fascination: "I really want to come with her once in my dreams! Let me also put a green hat on Regnar!"

Liu Ming said hurriedly, "Dad, I heard that she never refused to come. Would you like to take me too?"

Liu Guang smiled and said: "Okay, let's go now? It's not nine o'clock in the evening. I will drive, drive faster. We can reach Suzhou at 12 o'clock, just enough to make Regnar's wife Take good care of us!"

"come!" Liu Ming also hurriedly smiled: "Then let's set off now!"

At this time, Charlie pressed the button to stop the video and nodded in satisfaction: "Yes, not bad. It seems that you two have a talent for talking about cross talk. Okay, run away!"

Liu Guang was crying and asked, "Mr. Wade, are you sending this video?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded, and said, "I will send this to TikTok immediately. Once your cross talk is on TikTok, it is estimated that the whole network will become popular immediately!"

Liu Guang trembled in fright, and said, "Mr. Wade, can you post the video again later? If you do it now, the Wu family will come to chase us down soon..."

Charlie kicked Jones Zizhou, who was like a dead dog, and said to Liu Guang: "Look at you, what are you afraid of? The Wu family brought all these bodyguards. Now they are all lying here. What can you do? Afraid? Are you afraid that Regnar and Roger will chase down you two in person? I think they may not be as good as your two. If the four of you fight, they must be the ones who suffer."

Liu Guang thought about it, it seems that this is indeed the case.

No one is available in the Wu family in Aurous Hill. It takes time to transfer people from Suzhou. By then, he and his son will be gone.

Liu Ming said to Liu Guang, "Dad, let's go back and pack our things, and then drive to Eastcliff overnight and buy the earliest plane to fly to Malaysia tomorrow. If that's the case, the Wu family will definitely not be able to catch us!"

Liu Guang sighed and said: "This video of ours will offend the entire Wu family. I'm afraid they will chase us both around the world desperately with anger..."

Liu Ming shuddered, and said with some worry: "Dad, the Wu family shouldn't be too bad, right?"

"No?" Liu Guang sighed: "You don't know, Regnar loves his wife the most...We insulted his wife so much, I'm afraid..."

Charlie was too lazy to listen to the nonsense of the two of them here, and said lightly: "I'm going to upload the video right away. If you two of you want to run, run quickly. You can survive fast. Don't blame me if you run slow. Give you a chance to survive!"

Liu Guang recovered, and hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, we are leaving! We are leaving now!"

After finishing talking, he pulled Liu Ming and blurted out: "Come, go home and pack up, go to Eastcliff overnight!"

Liu Ming was also afraid of being chased by the Wu family, and hurriedly nodded.

Immediately afterwards, the father and son ran away nervously and embarrassedly.

Looking at the backs of the two of them, Mr. Orvel asked Charlie respectfully: "Mr. Wade, just let them go like this?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Don't worry, the two of them insulted the Wu family so much. The Wu family will definitely do their best to hunt them down. They may not be able to live long, even if they live long, they will be fearful for a lifetime."

Charlie said with a smile: "Moreover, they will never have the courage to return to China in their entire lives, and they may not dare to return to the country for burial if they die. Otherwise, the descendants of the Wu family will definitely dig out their ashes!"

Chapter 719

When the father and his son fled for their lives, Mr. Orvel suddenly felt that Mr. Wade's punishment was very interesting. Without having to do it himself, the two men could be in a state of panic all day long. It can be said to be the best punishment for both of them.

At this time, five bodyguards from Wu's family remained in the box.

Mr. Orvel asked, "Mr. Wade, how do you deal with these people? Do you think you killed them directly? Or..."

Charlie smacked his lips and said, "Think about this, do you have any good ideas?"

Looking at Jones Zizhou who was like a dead dog, Mr. Orvel was naturally very angry.

He had never thought before that the Wu family would actually kill him.

Today, thanks to Mr. Wade, he was able to take his life back.

Otherwise, he would have already died under Jones Zizhou's hands!

Therefore, Mr. Orvel's hatred of the Wu family at this moment has reached its peak in an instant.

He couldn't wait to slash the five people like Jones Zizhou.

So he hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, it's better to leave these five people to me!"

Charlie asked curiously: "What do you plan to do?"

Mr. Orvel said coldly: "Take them all to the kennel, and let my dogs eat them all in one month!"

After that, Mr. Orvel said again: "Tonight, let my dogs eat all the stuff in their crotch!"

When Jones Zizhou and other five people heard this, they all cried in shock!

These killers and powerful masters who usually kill people are now scared to death.

Jones Zizhou even cried out of breath, and pleaded bitterly: "Mr. Wade, Mr. Orvel, I really know that I was wrong! Please show mercy the two of you, and spare my life!"

The other four people also pleaded and cried.

Charlie looked at Orvel at this time, and smiled unpredictably: "They are just a few dogs of the Wu family. Killing them is meaningless. For the Wu family, it doesn't matter how many people die. Another interesting way."

Jones Zizhou and the other five people suddenly breathed a sigh of relief.

In any case, when Charlie said this, his fortunes were saved!

At this time, Orvel hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, what kind of way would you like to change?"

Charlie thought for a while and said, "Well, let's leave some calligraphy on their foreheads, let them go back, and show them to Regnar."

After speaking, he turned his head to look at the five people, and said in a cold voice: "Which of the five of you will be the first to come? I tell you, there is a discount for the first one. Increment by one word!"

Hearing this, Jones Zizhou thought of the tragic situation when Liu Guang was engraved with the words "Father of the Poor" just now, and he shook his heart, subconsciously wanting to continue begging for mercy.

However, one of them, knowing that he could not escape this time, suddenly shouted: "Me! I am the first to come!"

Then someone shouted: "I am the second!"

"My third!"

"Me, I am fourth!"

The four of them are almost like setting off firecrackers, occupying the first to fourth in one breath.

Jones Zizhou, who has not spoken all this time, is only the fifth one.

His expression was extremely depressed, and he almost wanted to commit suicide on the spot!

Chapter 720

The first person to engrave four characters;

The second person five words;

The third person engraved six characters;

The fourth person engraved seven characters;

I'm the fifth, don't I have to engrave eight characters? !

How can there be such a big place on the forehead!

Jones Zizhou suddenly cried, wiping his tears, and begged: "Mr. Wade, please forgive me this time. From now on, I will wait on you before and after. Everything, I will listen to your instructions and be your dog... .."

Charlie said calmly: "You are not qualified to be my dog, but if you continue to talk so much nonsense, I will let Mr. Orvel take you to the kennel and feed his dog! He will do what I say, if you don't believe it, try another sentence!"

Jones Zizhou suddenly closed his mouth in fright.

He was really afraid of Charlie!

Since Charlie said so, he doesn't care about letting a bullsh*t, for fear that Charlie will really kill him!

At this time, Mr. Orvel picked up the dagger from the ground, walked to the person who raised his hand first, and asked, "Mr. Wade, what is the first to carve?"

Charlie thought for a while and said, "You have to be concise and concise! How can you be concise and concise..."

After thinking for a moment, Charlie blurted out: "If you have it, just make Roger beep!"

The man was about to cry.

If the four characters Roger silly beep are engraved on one's forehead, the eldest master can't kill him alive? !

However, he didn't dare to refuse halfway at this time, because now he has no right to refuse. If he dares to say a word, he might irritate Charlie and be sent to the kennel to feed the dog!

"Okay." Mr. Orvel readily agreed, holding a dagger, and engraving four deep words on this person's face: "Roger silly beep".

The man's face was dripping with blood, and the four big characters on his face and forehead made the other four people feel chilling.

After carving, Mr. Orvel pulled out the second person who signed up and asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade, what about this person?"

Charlie thought about it and said with a smile: "This time it's five words, so let's engrave Wu Qi likes to eat sh!t."

Orvel nodded, and immediately carved his own human calligraphy on the second person's forehead.

At this time, Jones Zizhou found that the number of words really increased as he went on, so he hurriedly shouted: "Great Mr. Orvel! I'm the third, I'm the third! Don't grab anyone!"

Orvel gave a sneer and asked, "Where is your arrogant energy? Why is it like this now? What's the difference between it and a dog which eats food?"

Jones Zizhou hurriedly pleaded: "Great Mr. Orvel, you regard me as a dog, so please engrave it for me first!"

Charlie frowned, went up and kicked Jones Zizhou directly, and said coldly: "You guy are really unscrupulous. The four of them are little brothers who were born to die with you. You want to cheat them in the face of disaster?"

Jones Zizhou was kicked far away, crying and said, "Mr. Wade, I am a timid and fearful lord, so please be kind and let the master Orvel engrave it for me first..."

Charlie said coldly: "Stop the f*cking nonsense with me, you are the last! Beep more with me, and just engrave a list of teachers on your face!"

Mr. Orvel smiled and said: "Mr. Wade, the teacher's list is very long, I am afraid that on the face it will not be carved!"

As he said, Mr. Orvel recited and counted with his fingers, and said: "The first emperor has not started his own business but the middle way has collapsed. Today is three points, Zizhou is exhausted...Oh, this is almost full. The face is full..."

Charlie waved his hand indifferently, and said, "There is no engraving on his face and a neck, no neck is engraved, and his body. If it's a big deal, he will engrave all the places where love can be engraved on his body and let him see more often. Seeing the teacher's table and memorizing the teacher's table more often, it can be regarded as learning his loyalty and righteousness!"

Jones Zizhou was frightened immediately, and hurriedly cried and pleaded: "Mr. Wade! Mr. Wade, I was wrong. I dare not beep anymore. You are right. I am the last one! I won't say a word. Honestly waiting!"

Chapter 721

Jones Zizhou shut up, and Mr. Orvel pulled the third person who had volunteered before him, and asked Charlie: "Mr. Wade, what to engrave on his head?"

Charlie replied: "Roger is gay."

Mr. Orvel nodded and waved his big hand, six bloody big characters were engraved on the man's forehead in Chinese.

Immediately afterwards, it was the fourth.

Mr. Orvel said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, it's seven words this time."

"Yeah." Charlie thought for a while and said: "Then Regnar is incompetent."

Mr. Orvel couldn't help but laughed and said, "Mr. Wade, why is the bird incompetent? Shouldn't it be s3x?"

Charlie waved his hand: "s3x is a sensitive word. You can't use it indiscriminately. If you let the girls see it, they will blush."

Immediately afterwards, Mr. Orvel finished the calligraphy of the fourth person's body.

The last one left is Jones Zizhou.

Jones Zizhou looked at the blood on his four little brothers' heads and faces, and was frightened.

He is a very arrogant person. He has always been strong and unmatched, which gave him the best illusion in the world. The more he has this illusion, the more serious the burden of idols.

However, he really didn't dare to say a word of bullshit at this time, otherwise, he was really afraid that Charlie would let Orvel engrave on him as a teacher!

Not to mention carving out the teacher's table, even if it is a song, he can't stand it!

So he could only silently tremble and cry, waiting for the moment when his fame is destroyed.

At this moment, Jones Zizhou had only one wish in his heart, that is, Charlie must not let Mr. Orvel engrave too vulgar sentences for himself.

However, he did not understand Charlie.

The more this time, the more Charlie likes to be vulgar.

Holding a bloody knife, Mr. Orvel pointed to Jones Zizhou, who was pale, and asked, "Mr. Wade?"

Charlie thought for a while and said, "Isn't these eight characters? Be casual, close to the people, and grounded at that moment."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "In this way, I'll poop to Roger for him to eat."

Jones Zizhou felt ashamed when he heard these words.

Mr. Orvel hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, is it wrong? Wu Qi, not Roger, likes to eat sh!t."

Charlie waved his hand casually and said, "Oh, it's the same. Anyway, he wants to show Ragnar and Roger when he goes back. It's better to carve Roger."

"Come!" Mr. Orvel nodded immediately and said: "Then I will engrave him, a bit bigger and a bit deeper!"

Jones Zizhou looked at the bloody tip of the knife and cried, "Great Mr. Orvel, Great Mr. Orvel! I beg you to do one thing?"

Mr. Orvel said impatiently, "Why are you so much nonsense?"

Jones Zizhou cried and said, "Great Mr. Orvel, I just want you to change the knife. This knife has been carved from Liu Guang, and it has been carved by five people. It is not disinfected. It is easy to get sick. In case anyone has one. AIDS or something, isn't that going to lead to a cross infection..."

When Jones Zizhou said this, the other four people trembled with fright.

One of them blurted out and asked: "Are you three free of AIDS?!"

"No!" The other three shook their heads.

Chapter 722

But whether it is true or not, no one knows.

Orvel was also a little annoyed at this time, and slapped Jones Zizhou's face with a slap, and cursed: "Just your bullshit, if you don't believe it, I will give you a preface to the King of Teng?"

Jones Zizhou was drawn to observe at Venus. At this time, he really didn't dare to beep any more, so he could only cry while enduring Mr. Orvel's sharp blade.

He could feel the sensation of the tip of the knife cutting the skin on his forehead and touching the skull. The sharp pain made him almost faint, and the blood was constantly dripping from his forehead, even making him unable to open his eyes at all.

He had to regret and regret at this moment in his heart. He knew that today, no matter how much Regnar gave, he would not be able to kill Mr. Orvel...

Unfortunately, in this world, there is no regret medicine to take...

At this time, Regnar's five bodyguards all became human calligraphy works, and all five faces were terrible. Especially the last Jones Zizhou was carved with eight characters directly, and his forehead was not enough, so he borrowed the place of his face. , The whole face looked terrifying.

Moreover, the words engraved on their faces are all insults to the Wu family, and it is estimated that the Wu family will see their lungs explode.

Jones Zizhou cried and asked, "Mr. Wade, can you let us go?"

Charlie said: "Of course I can let it go, but in order to prevent you people from continuing to help the gang, I have to teach you a lesson!"

After all, Charlie grabbed the person in front of him, smashed his two arms with two punches, and with the remaining people did the same.

In the blink of an eye, all of these people's arms were scrapped.

In the future, wanting to be a bodyguard, a killer, and a thug is absolutely useless. No one will hire such a disabled person as a bodyguard.

Therefore, it is certainly impossible for them to continue to harm society in the future.

The five of them had been tortured at this time and looked uncomfortable, and it felt that even if they were caught in the temple of Yama, they would feel more comfortable than here.

Charlie is too human! His method of torture is simply unheard of...

At this time, Charlie stood up with satisfaction and said coldly: "You five, go back and bring words to Regnar and Roger. If they want to target me, just let them go, but if they dare to involve rest of the people around me, then I will make the entire Wu family an example!"

The five people struggled to get up with their legs and ran out of Classic Mansion in a very embarrassing manner.

After the five people fled, Mr. Orvel asked Charlie: "Mr. Wade, Liu Guang, Liu Ming's cross talk video, what are you going to do with it? Do you want to upload it on YouTube now?"

Charlie waved his hand and said with a smile: "Don't worry, wait a while, let Liu Guang and Liu Ming run for a while, or it will be seen by the Wu family as soon as I let go, and the Wu family will offer a reward. Their lives, then they may not survive tomorrow morning and have to report to Hades."

Mr. Orvel hurriedly said, "Isn't it better to die? These two people should have died a long time ago as dogs with Wu's family!"

Charlie smiled and said: "If you didn't make this video, it would naturally be the most worry-free killing them, but since the video has been filmed, it would naturally make them live the most worried, because they only need to live, Wu family will be laughed at by the people all over the country, and will be immersed in the pain of humiliation and anger all day long, unable to extricate themselves! Therefore, Liu Guang and Liu Ming have to be kept alive! They are alive, this is interesting!"

Mr. Orvel nodded immediately and said, "I understand Mr. Wade!"

After that, Mr. Orvel asked again: "Mr. Wade, what about Regnar and Roger?"

Charlie looked at the time and said, "I guess these five people will go to Regnar to complain and complain now, but Regnar is a very dogged person. If the situation is wrong, he will definitely run away, maybe even overnight. Take Roger back to Suzhou."

Mr. Orvel blurted out: "Mr. Wade, then we have to find a way, we can't let the tiger go back to the mountain!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "It's okay to let the tigers go back to the mountain. After all, the Wu family is more than these two tigers. Let them go back first to bring out more tigers. The best way is to find an opportunity to kill them all at once!"

Speaking of this, Charlie asked Mr. Orvel: "Have you heard a word?"

Mr. Orvel hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, what are you talking about?"

Charlie smiled and said, "A family, it just needs to be neat and tidy!"

Chapter 723

Jacob has been in the corner, silently watching his son-in-law turn things around and kill all quarters, and he is extremely shocked.

He didn't understand why Charlie had such a strong strength and such a strong aura.

This is totally two extremes from Charlie, who is usually called a rag by Elaine at home!

At this time, Charlie stepped forward to him and asked, "Dad, are you okay?"

Jacob hurriedly shook his head and said, "I am okay, it's okay, oh, fortunately you came in time, otherwise I will be miserable..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Dad, you are fine. I have already taught these people, are you satisfied?"

"Satisfied and satisfied!" Jacob nodded as if pounding garlic, and then said a little worried: "Charlie, were you a bit too cruel just now? That Wu family... won't come to avenge you, right?"

Charlie smiled and said: "When dealing with Wu family, you can't be afraid of their revenge. If you don't provoke him, he will kill you. Then instead of doing this, it's better to do it with him, what do you think?"

Jacob said embarrassingly, "That's right, but I'm just worried. They bit us hard. We don't have the money or the big business as of their family. If we really do it, we might want lose!"

Charlie waved his hand: "Dad, don't worry, I will protect Claire, as well as ensure the safety of you and mom. Don't worry about that."

Jacob nodded um.

Charlie said again: "By the way, Dad, in order not to worry Claire and Mom about this matter, we must not tell them both when we go back."

"That's that!" How dare Jacob say, if Elaine knew about such a big thing, she wouldn't try to fry him? She must be upset at home!

Charlie relaxed.

The only thing he's afraid of is that the Old Master can't keep his mouth shut and tell what happened today.

But he seemed scared enough to follow his words, Guess this matter can be stabilized.

Charlie immediately said to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, find more subordinates to accompany you these days, and by the way, find some subordinates to protect my family members secretly, don't take it lightly."

Mr. Orvel nodded immediately: "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, I will make arrangements!"

"Yeah." Charlie smiled slightly: "Okay, I will take father-in-law home. Now that the matter is resolved, we should also go back."

After finishing speaking, he said to Jacob, "Dad, shall we go?"

"OK, OK." Jacob nodded hurriedly.

He just wants to go home quickly and digest the whole bunch of things that just happened.

When Charlie took the old man home, Liu Guang and his son were at home like bandits, frantically tossing and cleaning the gold and silver at home.

Liu Ming's mother hadn't figured out what was going on. Seeing that her husband was also engraved with words on his forehead, and it was the four characters of the father of the poor, she hurried forward to ask.

Liu Guang blurted out: "Don't ask so much, we are in a big disaster now, and we must pack our things quickly. We must leave Aurous Hill tonight, otherwise we may die without a place to bury!"

"Ah?!" Liu Ming's mother hurriedly asked: "Where are we going?"

"Go to Malaysia!" Liu Guang said, "Go to my brother, and never return to China again!"

"What?!" Liu Ming's mother collapsed instantly and cried out: "Why are you going to Malaysia suddenly? I can't come back later? What about my parents? What about my brothers and sisters?"

Liu Guang questioned: "You don't want your life anymore? Give it back to your parents. Your parents are doing well in Aurous Hill. Now the trouble is that our family of three will die. Maybe your parents will come to give it to you. The three of us, to collect the corpses? Hurry up and pack things!"

Chapter 724

When Liu Ming's mother heard this, she didn't dare to say more. She knew the situation was serious, so she hurriedly started to pack her things.

Liu Guang asked Liu Ming at this time: "Look at the situation on YouTube, has our video been sent by Charlie?"

Liu Ming opened his hands and said, "My phone is at Charlie's. Charlie used my phone to take pictures."

"d*mn it." Liu Guang hurriedly took out his mobile phone, threw it to Liu Ming, and said, "Hurry up and check it."

Liu Ming took the phone and immediately started downloading and installing the app.

After swiping a few videos on YouTube, he found that there was no cross talk between himself and his father. He was a little relieved and said, "Charlie probably hasn't posted yet."

"That's good." Liu Guang nodded and said, "Let's not delay, go quickly! Let's leave in half an hour!"

After finishing speaking, he told his wife, "Don't bring anything you can't finish with. Call your mother back and ask her to help us sell everything for cash, and then take it to the black market and exchange it into dollars. When we get to Malaysia, the renminbi will not work well, so we have to use the U.S.D.!"

His wife nodded quickly: "I'll call her later, because she has our spare key!"

.....

At this moment, Jones Zizhou and other five broken arms have returned to Shangri-La Hotel.

All five of them had no arms and could not drive a car, so they could only hit two cars.

When taking a taxi, a lot of drivers didn't dare to pull it when they saw them, and ran away in a hurry.

After all, these five guys are too scary, one by one, bloody and scornful, and more importantly, there are d*mn words engraved on their heads, this is absolutely abnormal!

Later, Jones Zizhou was in a hurry. He promised ten for the road and gave ten thousand, and then he stopped a rental car.

After stopping, the five people squeezed in.

The driver hurriedly said: "Oh, my car can take up to five people with the driver and passengers. You have one more. Let's get another one!"

Jones Zizhou said angrily: "What the h*ll is so much nonsense, I am giving you 10,000, can't you get one more?"

As soon as the driver heard this, he had no choice but to bear it, nodded and said: "Then you sit behind the four squeeze, don't close the door."

Four people desperately squeezed in the back row. Jones Zizhou sat in the passenger seat and said with a gloomy expression: "Go to the Shangri-La Hotel, drive faster!"

The driver subconsciously said: "Five, if you are injured like this, why not go to the hospital first?"

"If you fcking talk, I will fck you!"

Jones Zizhou looked upset.

The driver shrank his neck in shock.

The other younger brothers couldn't help saying, "Brother, let's go to the hospital first, at least stop the bleeding and see if the shoulder can be saved..."

"Save me!" Jones Zizhou said with an extremely gloomy expression: "No matter how good the orthopedic doctor is, it is impossible to cure us. We have to let the Wu family and his son know that we are abolished because of them, and they have to give everything they say. A resettlement fee. In addition, we have to let them know how much Charlie looked down on him and how much he insulted him. Only in this way can he kill Charlie at all costs and avenge us!"

Another person asked: "Brother, if they see these words on our foreheads, if they are seen by Mr. Regnar and Young Mr. Roger will they not be angry with us?"

"How is it possible?" Jones Zizhou said: "These are all made by Charlie for attacking Orvel, who are wronged and debts are in charge. He can understand the situation!"

Chapter 725

Car to the door of Shangri-La.

The five couldn't even open the door.

The Shangri-La waiters themselves saw the rental, and rarely took the initiative to open the door for the guests who took the rental. When they saw the rental, they deliberately used it as air, so they didn't come forward.

There was a moment of silence in the car, and Jones Zizhou could only shout to the driver: "d*mn, you are blind? Don't you know to help open the door?"

The driver was a little annoyed and said, "Then you pay the fare first, 10,000, you said yes."

Jones Zizhou said: "You help me drive the door, and you take it from my pocket after getting out of the car. My arm is injured and I can't move."

The driver got out of the car and helped them open the door.

Immediately afterwards, five people with blood all over their heads finally got out of the car.

They were covered in bruises and scribbled characters on their foreheads, so they looked very scary and very eye-catching.

Therefore, when they appeared, they immediately attracted the attention of everyone around them, and what's more, they subconsciously made a harsh laugh.

"What's the matter with these people, they actually have lettering on their foreheads, are they doing performance art? Hahaha, it's really funny, it's so funny!"

"Yes, I have lived for most of my life, and I have seen many artists, some pretending to be beggars begging on the street, and some who use a needle to draw ink and paint on paper. I have never seen such a wonderful work, and have carved it. The characters are ugly!"

"This situation and this scene really opened my eyes. In my opinion, these people and the rich second generation who grabbed sh!t on YouTube some time ago have a good fight!"

"Dude, you reminded me of this. I have to quickly take a picture and post it on YouTube, so that netizens all over the country will come and see these wonderful works of Aurous Hill. By then, the number of hits will not reach millions?"

"Yes, right, right, everyone hurry up and take pictures. After passing this village, there will be no more shop!"

While talking, someone took out their mobile phone, turned on Livestream, clicked on the video to shoot, and directly posted the desolate appearance of Jones Zizhou and others to the Internet.

Seeing everyone holding their cellphones to snap at him, Jones Zizhou suddenly became angry. He wanted to reach out to cover his forehead, but his arms were all gone, and he couldn't raise it at all.

He was so annoyed that he could only blurt out, "What are you shooting? Get out!"

Everyone shuddered by his ferocious appearance, and they didn't want to be familiar with this kind of mad dog. Only then did they choose to stop with unfinished intentions, and hid far away.

Jones Zizhou was satisfied when he saw such a scene, and immediately took his people into the Shangri-La Hotel.

The driver hurriedly stopped him: "Hey, hey, you have not given me the ten thousand you promised!"

Jones Zizhou observed at him coldly, and said angrily: "I'll give it to your mother!"

After speaking, he lifted his foot and kicked him out with one kick.

Although both hands have been abolished, and the foundation of years of hard training has also been abolished, but it is not a problem for Jones Zizhou to beat a taxi driver.

After he kicked over, he immediately said to the four people around him: "d*mn, kick him to death!"

The four people rushed up immediately, kicking the taxi driver.

Chapter 726

When the Shangri-La security captain saw this, he immediately led the team and rushed over, stopped them, and said coldly: "You people, don't make trouble at Shangri-La's door, or don't blame me for being impolite!"

Jones Zizhou knew that Issac, the boss of Shangri-La, had a strong background, so he hurriedly stopped, stopped the people around him, and said to the driver: "Fortune telling you today, please be careful in the future, or you will be killed!"

After speaking, they entered Shangri-La.

As soon as they were about to enter, the security guards immediately reached out to stop them, and the lobby manager hurriedly came over and said: "Sorry, gentlemen, you are indecently dressed and poorly groomed. According to regulations, you cannot enter our Shangri-La Hotel!"

Hearing this, Jones Zizhou calmed down and said with disdain: "We are from the Wu family of Regnar, you, a little manager, dare to stop me?!"

The lobby manager frowned and said with a strong attitude: "This gentleman, I don't care if you are from the Wu family or someone from another family. According to the regulations, you are not allowed to enter Shangri-La!"

After speaking, he said coldly: "Your faces have already scared our guests and affected the reputation of our hotel. Please leave immediately, otherwise, you will be at your own risk!"

Jones Zizhou's heart was raging, and he said coldly: "I will give you the face of President Issac and will not beat you, but if you continue to find uncomfortable, then don't blame me for being rude to you!"

The lobby manager did not back down and blurted out: "I'm sorry, the rules are the rules, you can't enter Shangri-La!"

Jones Zizhou gritted his teeth.

Not to mention a lobby manager, even if the security team all come up, it is impossible to be the opponent of their five useless people. Everyone can take this group of people down with the work of their legs.

However, the other party is Issac's dog, which is a bit tricky. If Issac is offended, wouldn't it be worth the loss?

At this moment, their noises attracted the attention of many people in the lobby.

Many people were watching them whispering, and Jones Zizhou listened carefully, only to realize that these people were actually discussing what characters were carved on their foreheads!

He was immediately embarrassed and unwilling to stay here to be watched, so he said to the lobby manager with a black face, "I will give you three seconds, give me the f*ck, otherwise, don't blame if I'm not polite to you!"

The lobby manager also had a bit of temper, and immediately shouted to the security captain: "Captain Jones, these people have seriously affected the image of Shangri-La, kick them all out!"

Jones Zizhou was furious and cursed: "Shame on your face, beat me!"

After speaking, he rushed forward first, kicked the lobby manager to the ground with one kick, and immediately vomited blood from his kick!

Jones Zizhou vomited bloody sputum on his face, cursing: "If you don't know whether you live or die, dare to talk more, believe it or not, I will just destroy you!"

The lobby manager endured the huge pain in his body, and ordered several security guards behind him: "Shoot out all these guys who dare to make trouble in Shangri-La!"

But with this order, before a few security guards could react, unexpectedly, the other four bodyguards of Wu's family rushed forward, and they went crazy in an instant!

This group of people suffered a lot in front of Charlie, and they were already holding back the fire. Suddenly, there was an object of exasperation. They had completely lost their minds and vented wildly to this group of people. They just wanted to put the group in front of them. People were killed to relieve the hatred in the heart.

Although Charlie had their hands severed, they were from a strongly trained family. Their legs and knees could cause great damage to these security guards.

Therefore, with just one move, all these weak security guards were overthrown to the ground, causing the opponent to lose combat effectiveness.

Seeing that these people were dying, and if they continued to fight, they would definitely be dead. Jones Zizhou asked everyone to stop the attack and said coldly, "A bunch of dogs that don't have long eyes slap their mouths, and they dare to fight against Wu family guards. I ah, Don't look at what virtue you are!"

After speaking, he took the elevator directly with people and went upstairs.

Chapter 727

After the five Jones Zizhou left, the scene was in a mess.

Shangri-La's lobby manager and several security guards were all injured lying on the ground, their noses and faces swollen looking very miserable.

A security guard struggled to get up and hurriedly helped the lobby manager from the ground, and couldn't help but ask: "Manager, what should we do now?"

The lobby manager said with a cold face, "You quickly take other people to the hospital, I will find Mr. Charlie! If you dare to make trouble in Shangri-La, I still don't believe Mr. Charlie will let him go!"

With that said, he limped to Issac's office.

At this time, Regnar and Roger, the father and son, were staying in the presidential suite of the Shangri-La Hotel, patiently waiting for Jones Zizhou and others to return.

A few dozen minutes ago, Regnar also received a message from Liu Guang, saying that he had arrived at Classic Mansion and subdued Orvel. Not only that, but he also found an unexpected surprise. Charlie's wasteful Old Master, was also dining in Classic Mansion.

This made Regnar very happy. He felt that just taking advantage of this opportunity, he would kill Charlie's father-in-law first.

But now seeing that time has passed by almost an hour, Liu Guang has not reported any progress to him, which makes Regnar aware that something is wrong.

He called Liu Guang but no one answered, and he called Jones Zizhou again, but no one answered.

Actually, the mobile phone is in Jones Zizhou's pocket, but both of his arms are useless, and there is no way to get the mobile phone out of his pocket.

The other four people are the same, and there is nothing they can do at this time.

If only the fingers were scrapped, it would be nice to still be able to control the phone by sliding the belly of the fingers with the drooping fingers, but now, the whole arm can't use any strength, it's a complete mess.

Regnar couldn't get through Jones Zizhou's phone, and he couldn't help feeling a little nervous.

Jones Zizhou's strength is very strong. He hasn't met an opponent so far, so he can't plant on him, right?

Roger frowned and couldn't help but say to his father Regnar: "Dad, Liu Guang's situation, no one has given us any reply up to now, did Jones Zizhou and the others have an accident?"

Regnar shook his head and said confidently: "Impossible, Jones Zizhou and the others are all practicers. They are powerful. Looking at the whole Aurous Hill, it is impossible for anyone to be their opponent!"

As he was talking, he took out his phone again and called Jones Zizhou.

Immediately afterwards, he heard a cell phone ringing outside the corridor.

While he was still wondering, he heard the doorbell ring.

It was a little brother of Jones Zizhou, who pressed the doorbell with his forehead.

When Roger heard the doorbell rang, he blurted out: "It is estimated that someone has returned!"

After finishing speaking, he hurried to the door, opened the door and was stunned for a moment!

Regnar paced over slowly at this time, still smiling and saying: "What are you talking about? With Mr. Orvel's insignificant role, how can he beat Jones Zizhou?"

After finishing speaking, he did not forget to say to his son who was in a daze at the door, and said with earnest words: "You, don't rush and mess up your position. You must be calm when you become a big thing. You have to think about this in the future. Don't you?"

Roger swallowed his saliva, pointed at the five ghost-like people outside the door with horror, and said blankly: "Dad, come and take a look!"

"What are you looking at?" Regnar said indifferently, "Have they come back from Classic? What are they still standing outside the door? Don't let them come in and tell me in detail about the process of killing Mr. Orvel!"

When Roger heard this, he took a step back subconsciously to make room. Jones Zizhou and the five people gathered up their courage, shook their two broken arms, and walked in with their heads downcast and dejected!

When Regnar saw the five people coming in, he was shocked and stunned. The tea cup in his hand was suddenly unsteady, and he dropped to the ground...

Chapter 728

He looked at five ghost-like people, and said dumbfounded: "You...you...what's the matter?! What happened to your foreheads? Why is it all blood?! This... How does it happen? It looks like it was written by someone?!"

As several of them kept their heads down, it was difficult for Regnar to make out the words on their foreheads.

Jones Zizhou immediately took a step forward, thumped, and knelt in front of Regnar, and said in fear, "Mr. Regnar, I was not able to do things well, please punish me!"

Seeing these people in such a horrible situation, Regnar's heart shook, his face changed suddenly, and he asked: "You can tell me clearly, what happened?!"

Jones Zizhou knelt on the ground, bowed his head and cried, "Mr. Regnar, we went to help Liu Guang deal with Orvel as ordered by the young master. Today in Classic Mansion, we had already controlled Orvel and even caught Jacob, Charlie's old father-in-law, but who expected that Charlie suddenly rushed in..."

Speaking of this, he wept bitterly and said: "Mr. Orvel, that Charlie's strength is too strong, not to mention that I am not his opponent. Even the five of us can't help beat him at all. However, not only did we all have our arms scrapped by him, but he also engraved words on our foreheads..."

Regnar was struck by lightning!

Better than Jones Zizhou? ! Is that still a human? !

He trembled with disbelief on his face and said, "Even you are not Charlie's opponents?! That Rubbish...that Rubbish is so strong?!"

As he said, he thought of engraving, and hurriedly asked: "Engraving? What kind of words? Look up, let me see!"

Jones Zizhou and the others hesitated for a while, but didn't dare to defy Regnar's orders, they could only raise their heads with a gray face, that expression was even more tragic than the dead family!

Regnar and his son observed at these people's foreheads, and suddenly became furious!

Roger beep!

Wu Qi loves to eat sh!t!

Roger is gay!

Regnar is incompetent!

I want to poop to Roger to eat!

They looked at these extremely humiliating words, their faces turned green!

Regnar has lived for most of his life. He has seen all kinds of punishment methods, and he has even seen many corpses who died tragically, but he has never seen such a scene!

This...this is f*cking cruel!

Engrave on someone's forehead, and the engraved words are still so full of humiliation!

This really makes people feel a tingling scalp and chills in the limbs!

Regnar was panicked and angry, and questioned: "This is all done by the waste Charlie?!"

Jones Zizhou knelt on the ground and said: "It was the calligraphy that he asked Orvel to make, and he also asked me to bring you a message, saying that if you want to target him, just go for him, but if you dare to involve people around him, then he will let Wu family never recover..."

After Roger heard this, he couldn't help but furious, gritted his teeth and said: "Dad, Charlie alone would dare to let my Wu family be overwhelmed. What a big tone! How can you be worthy of the Wu family's face if you don't kill him!"

Regnar's expression was a bit cold, and he said, "Do you think it is easy to kill him? These five people have been completely abandoned. You and I, the father and son are in Aurous Hill. Now there is not even a bodyguard. If Charlie comes to the door, can we resist?!"

Just now, Roger, who was pretending to be forced to kill Charlie, turned pale in shock and said: "Dad, let's run now!"

Regnar glared at him, and said in dissatisfaction: "What are you panicking? This is Shangri-La! I don't believe that Eastcliff Wade family's property, that waste dare to kill here! If he really dares to come, then Eastcliff Wade family will never let him go!"

Chapter 729

At this moment, the lobby manager who was kicked half-dead by Jones Zizhou, with the support of several employees, staggered to the door of Issac's office.

Knocking on the office door, as soon as the lobby manager entered, Issac saw that he was completely injured, and blurted out, "Manager, what's the matter?"

Manager said indignantly: "Mr. Charlie, some bodyguards from Regnar Wu's family dared to break into our hotel and fight me and some security guards in the lobby!"

"What?!" Issac frowned and blurted out: "What's the matter? Both the Wu family and his son live in our presidential suite, and their bodyguards also live in it. Why did they break into the hotel to fight?"

Manager hurriedly explained: "It's like this. A few of them seemed to have just had a fight with someone outside. They were covered in blood, their arms were broken, and their foreheads were carved with a knife. , The faces full of blood, it looks like filth, doesn't our hotel always have a request to not allow guests with disheveled clothes to enter, so I stopped them..."

Issac frowned.

He had also heard of Wu's bodyguard.

It is said that the strength is very extraordinary.

These five people, in Aurous Hill, even Issac's own bodyguards may not be their opponents. Therefore, when Issac heard that their arms and foreheads were engraved on them, he was stunned!

He couldn't figure out, when did Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon start in places like Aurous Hill?

Is there such a master who can abolish all the five bodyguards of the Wu family? What kind of perverted power must this be?

Thinking of this, he said to Manager: "This matter is a bit weird, don't worry, I'll call someone to check it."

Issac had many eyes and ears in Aurous Hill. He quickly picked up his mobile phone, dialed a number, and said in a cold voice: "Check it out now, the bodyguard of Wu's family from Suzhou, what did they do in Aurous Hill tonight, within five minutes, I want to know all results!"

Three minutes later, Issac's phone rang. Hearing the words on the other end of the phone, Issac was struck by lightning!

It turned out that the bodyguard of the Wu family went to Classic Mansion tonight and wanted to punish Mr. Orvel, but unexpectedly, they were defeated by his young master Charlie!

The five masters of the Wu family were actually defeated by the young master? !

Oh my god, Mr. Wade has such a powerful strength? !

Issac was terrified!

Immediately, a strong anger surged in his heart!

Wu family, so bold!

Mr. Orvel had been with the young master for a long time, and he was considered half of the Wade family. How dare the Wu family come to Aurous Hill to punish Mr. Orvel, and even clashed with his own young master?

They are tired of life, right? !

Moreover, after this group of people went to punish Mr. Orvel and was beaten to death by his young master, they were so arrogant that they beat the lobby manager of Shangri-La? !

What the h*ll is going to offend the Wade Family to death!

Thinking of this, Issac was furious!

He even gave the father and son face back and let them live in the presidential suite in Shangri-La. If the young master knew about it, what if the crime came down?

The angry Issac almost wished to rush to the presidential suite where the Wu family and his son are located, and break the legs of these two dogs!

However, when he thought that the young master was also involved, he didn't dare to call the shots without authorization, so he immediately called Charlie.

When the phone was connected, Charlie had just stopped the car.

After the Old Master got off the car, Charlie said to him: "Dad, I will pick up the phone and follow you."

Jacob nodded and said, "You can pick it up, I'll smoke a cigarette outside and wait for you."

Chapter 730

Charlie nodded.

The Old Master went to smoke, and he sat in the car to answer the phone.

As soon as the phone was connected, Issac hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade I heard that you have a conflict with Wu's bodyguard?"

Charlie gave a hum, and said, "Your information is quite timely!"

Issac hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade I also heard that these five people are making trouble in Shangri-La, and I found out after finding someone to check."

With that said, Issac explained what happened after the five Jones Zizhou went to Shangri-La.

After listening to Charlie, he said coldly: "These five dogs, I didn't expect that dogs can't change their poop. I thought they could learn to be honest and low-key, but I didn't expect them to have both arms and legs troubled!"

Issac hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade now the Wu family man and his son are also in Shangri-La, what do you want to do with them, you only need to give an order and do so immediately!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "In this way, you go to their room first and interrupt the legs of these five dogs. I want to see they have all their hands and feet gone, what else will they do to cause trouble."

Issac blurted out: "OK Master! What else do you want?"

Charlie said again: "There are also Regnar and Roger. I don't plan to kill them for the time being, but I can't make them go so easily. You can help me to interrupt one of them and drive them out of Aurous Hill!"

"Okay!" Issac said immediately: "Mr. Wade don't worry, I will do this wisely!"

After speaking, Issac asked again: "By the way, Mr. Wade do you want me to tell them clearly so that they know what kind of existence they provoke?"

"No." Charlie said indifferently: "If I let them know my true identity, they will probably be completely persuaded. That would be boring."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Remember, you need to teach them this time, it is completely because the Wu family bodyguards made trouble in Shangri-La and ruined Wade family's face."

Issac said immediately: "I understand Mr. Wade!"

"Well, you understand, just do it."

.....

In the presidential suite at this time, Regnar was darkened, looking at the five dead dogs in front of him!

On the one hand, he hated the waste of these five people, even if they could not handle a waste like Charlie, on the other hand, he hated the words engraved on the heads of these five people.

d*mn, it's a complete insult to the Wu family!

He shouted to Jones Zizhou in a cold voice: "I will arrange for someone to perform cosmetic surgery on you, cut off all the skin on your forehead, take skin from other parts of your body and transplant it, and then you should be able to remove these words!"

Jones Zizhou nodded hurriedly, and said with a trembling, "Thank you, Mr. Regnar..."

Regnar used to have some respect for Jones Zizhou, but now he is not pleasing to the eye.

So, he said coldly: "I will transfer a group of new bodyguards from the family, and then you can disband on the spot."

"Disbanded on the spot?!" Jones Zizhou blurted out: "Mr. Regnar, are you trying to fire us?"

Regnar frowned and asked, "Otherwise? I'll keep you as a bodyguard? Can you still be a bodyguard like this?"

Jones Zizhou blurted out: "Mr. Regnar, our five brothers have been with you for so long, and we have killed many people, prevented a lot of disasters, and suffered a lot of injuries for you. Today, all five of us were abandoned by Charlie, this all happened while fulfilling your orders. How can you leave us at this time and let us disband on the spot?"

Regnar asked in return: "Why? If you don't dissolve, do you still want me to provide for you?!"

As he said, Regnar said in disgust: "Don't tell me these useless things. I will give you 500,000 severance pay at that time. If you know how to raise money, you can get out of it. If you don't know how to raise money, Don't blame me for being rude then!"

Chapter 731

Although Regnar is a billionaire, he is not a generous person.

In other words, in his eyes, the money that should not be spent is not spent any more.

For example, Jones Zizhou and these five wastes.

The bodyguard with his broken hand can't even open the door of his mother's car. What are they going to do?

Their wages are ridiculously high, and if they continue to be kept, they can only be charity and provide them with old age benefits.

Therefore, they should be driven away as soon as possible at this time.

The further you go, the better.

Regnar actually didn't want to pay 500,000 severance pay.

Therefore, he felt that he was already very generous.

However, Jones Zizhou certainly didn't think so!

He's a useless person now!

What is the concept of waste? In this life, it is tantamount to being an armless person!

Armless people, eat, drink, and sleep, why don't they need someone to take care of?

In the next few decades, there will be more places to spend money!

They were so badly injured because of the Wu family. At this time, the Wu family fell into trouble, wouldn't it be their life, they have to pay for?

Thinking of this, Jones Zizhou felt resentful.

However, he didn't dare to do anything to Regnar.

Because the Wu family is too strong, five of the brothers have been scrapped, and dozens of bodyguards may come in a blink of an eye. He is already a useless person. When the time comes, he will face the Wu family. Get killed?

Jones Zizhou really wanted to cry without tears at this time.

Why didn't he notice that Regnar turned out to be such a b@stard! The subordinates said that they kicked, and the ministers in the arms completely ignored him. He was simply a beast with no heart and liver!

At this moment, the door of the presidential suite was suddenly opened.

The waiter used the universal room card to open the door of the presidential suite. Then, Issac walked in with dozens of personal bodyguards with a cold face.

Regnar didn't expect the door to be opened suddenly, but he was shocked when he saw Issac walked in slowly with unspeakable anger and indifference.

Behind him, in addition to following Manager who was beaten by Jones Zizhou before, there were also dozens of strong bodyguards in suits.

Seeing Issac's sudden appearance, Regnar felt confused, but he didn't dare to neglect. He hurriedly put away his face full of anger, and smiled: "Issac, why are you here?"

Unexpectedly, Issac said with a cold face and angrily said: "Regnar, you are so brave! Do you know that Shangri-La is an industry under the name of the Wade family?"

Regnar's expression suddenly stunned, and he couldn't help but wonder, is this Issac taking the wrong gunpill?

He was still chatting and laughing with him before, so why didn't he have too much effort in the conference, so he changed into such an inhumane face?

Or even call him a dog? !

However, no matter how unhappy he was, he knew that he could not offend Issac.

Therefore, Regnar hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, of course I know that Shangri-La is the industry of the Wade family. To be honest, my admiration for the Wade family is really like a surging river, and I hope I can rely on you. Get acquainted with the Wade family, and I will serve the Wade family in the future..."

Issac looked at Regnar, raised his hand and slapped him severely, then kicked him to the ground.

Chapter 732

Regnar screamed, and fell to the ground in pain, with panic in his heart.

Roger, who was next to him, subconsciously rebuked angrily: "Hey, why are you hitting my dad?!"

Issac strode to him and hit his nose with a punch. He was covered with blood and yelled: "Your dad has to be respectful in front of me. What are you? Dare to talk to me like this?! Tired of living? Believe it or not, I will kill you now?"

"You're looking for death!" Roger grew up so old and had never suffered from a hit, so he ate twice today.

First Charlie scrapped one of his own hands, and then Issac smashed his nose with a punch.

He was spoiled and arrogant since he was a child. How could he ever suffer such a crime?

So angrily roared: "Do you think that you are the Wade family's dog? That's great? My Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. It will kill you every minute!"

As soon as Roger's voice fell, Regnar rushed over, slapped his face with a slap, and angrily cursed: "b@stard thing! How do you talk to Mr. Charlie?! Don't you hurry up to Mr. Charlie. Kneel down and admit your mistakes!"

Regnar was shocked by Roger at this time.

He couldn't think that his own son was so useless, he couldn't even tell the situation?

Even if Issac was just the Wade family's dog, the Wade family standing behind them!

What does the Wade Family exist?

One of the top three families in the country!

In terms of financial resources, the Wu family may not be one-tenth the Wade family.

Because the Wade family is a trillion-level family, but whether it is one trillion or nine trillion, no one can figure out.

After all, a behemoth like the Wade Family can never be seen through by ordinary people!

When it comes to power and status, the Wade Family is far more numerous than the Wu Family!

Therefore, even if Issac kills the two of them now, the Wu family will definitely not dare to bullsh*t!

Even his own father, Mr. Orvel, might not even care about holding a funeral for himself, so he first went to Eastcliff and pleaded guilty to Wade's family!

Roger even dared to scold Issac at this time. Isn't this looking for death?

After Roger was slapped with this slap, he realized that he had caused a catastrophe. Apart from anything else, he immediately knelt in front of Issac in fear, kowtow and begged for mercy: "I'm sorry, President Issac! I was impulsive, d*mn it! "

After speaking, he snapped his big mouth back and forth.

Issac went up and kicked him in the chest. After kicking him down, he went up and stepped on his face, and said coldly: "Big boy, I have offended the Wade family. Believe it or not, I made your Wu family extinct?"

Roger's face was swollen just now, and now Issac stepped on his face. He couldn't speak clearly, but he could only insist on saying: "Issac, I'm really wrong. You beat me and scolded me. Anyway, please don't be like me..."

Seeing that his son was beaten like this, Regnar felt distressed and couldn't help asking: "Mr Issac, Mr. Charlie, I have my heartfelt respect for you. If you are dissatisfied with us, please tell me. , If someone Wu really did something wrong, I am willing to be punished, but you have to make me understand!"

Mr. Charlie sneered, and said, "Your heartfelt respect? You respect me, so let these silly dog bodyguards of your Wu family rush into my Shangri-La lobby. In my Shangri-La lobby, they hurt my Shangri-La people. ? Then if you don't respect me, will you even call me?"

Regnar was struck by lightning!

what?

His bodyguard actually beat Issac's men in the lobby of Shangri-La?

Which thing with no eyesight did this? !

Thinking of this, Regnar's icy eyes fell on Jones Zizhou and the others.

Needless to say, he also knows that it must be one of these five people who caused the catastrophe!

Chapter 733

Regnar was extremely angry, staring at the five people kneeling on the ground, and asked coldly: "Who did it? Or did the five of you do it together?!"

Feeling the killing intent in Regnar's eyes, Jones Zizhou was shocked. He hurriedly said, "Mr. Regnar, it's not us to blame! We have already explained to the security guard at the door and the lobby manager and said we are Wu's people. But they insisted that our manners were disordered and that we were not allowed to come in, I was anxious to return to you, so I broke into the hotel and clashed with them..."

Hearing this, Regnar suddenly became angry. He slapped on the face and cursed: "It's really a bunch of Rubbish! Can Shangri-La also be something you can break through? He kept saying that you should return to life. If you do it again, it is also called life?! Give you such a small thing. I couldn't handle it well, and it caused me great trouble. What is the use of raising you?!"

As he said, he immediately said to Issac: "Mr. Issac! These five wastes ran into you, and wanted to kill you!"

In fact, Regnar couldn't wait for Issac to drag these five people away and kill them.

There are five wastes anyway, and leaving them in the world will only waste his own money.

Issac also knew Regnar's wishful thinking, and said coldly: "Regnar, are you the boss? If you don't help your little brother, you will sell your own people if something happens. Your Wu family's work is really true. Too low-level, isn't it? If it's spread out, how do you Wu family still mix?"

Regnar was suddenly shocked.

What does Issac mean? He has already handed over all the five people who caused trouble for him. He still holds on to him?

However, he dared not yell at Issac, so he could only suppress the soaring anger in his heart, walked to Issac's body, and apologized: "Mr. Issac, this matter is my fault. I apologize to you!"

After speaking, he said again: "In order to express my apologies, I am willing to spend 10 million for the medical expenses and mental damage expenses of the injured staff. I hope you can forgive the Wu family for this mistake. What do you think?"

In his opinion, although Issac is the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill, after all, he is also the second-generation heir of the Wu family somehow, and he also paid out 10 million as compensation. No matter what, the other party will not be because This trivial matter will cause conflict and disharmony with the Wu family, right?

Unexpectedly, Issac's face was still cold at this time, and said, "Do you think that my dignified Eastcliff Wade family cares about ten million? According to your statement, I will now let people beat you father and son into a rubbish. , And give another 20 million to your father who is far away in Suzhou. After that this matter is over, do you agree?!"

As soon as these words came out, Regnar's expression was so ugly.

He never expected that Issac would be so stubborn!

The few of his own non-eyed subordinates just beat a lobby manager in a small area. What's the big deal?

Moreover, the other party didn't suffer multiple injuries. Issac had to chat with him here for this?

With Issac's tough attitude, if someone else came over, Regnar would have let him be broken into pieces!

Throughout Aurous Hill, the second-generation heir to the dignified Wu family, when did he suffer such grievances?

But having said that, he never dared to offend Issac, after all, he was the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill.

As the second-generation heir of the Wu family, once there is a conflict with Issac, it means that the Wu family is directly provoking the authority of the Wade family.

In this way, it will definitely bring great trouble to the whole family!

Once Eastcliff Wades asks the guilt, and fights for it, the Wu family is bound to fall into an abyss that cannot be restored!

Therefore, he could only endure the anger deep in his heart and did not immediately break out. He was very aware of the current affairs and smiled and said: "Mr. Issac, I said the wrong thing. I apologize to you. I hope you won't remember the villain!"

Chapter 734

After speaking, he licked his face and said: "Mr. Charlie, how do you want to solve this matter today? As long as you give a solution, Wu will do everything you can to do the way you said!"

Issac smiled coldly in his heart, and secretly said in his heart that this second-generation heir of the Wu family is quite capable of bending and stretching, and sure enough.

However, today they provoke his own young master, it is really impossible for him to come around!

Had it not been for the command of the young master, Issac would have waited to cut them off immediately!

He snorted coldly and said, "I'm sorry, I don't accept your apology, nor will the Eastcliff Wade family accept it!"

Regnar held back his anger and asked in a low voice, "Mr. Issac, how do you want to solve it?"

Issac said coldly: "Your five men injured the leg of my men they will pay with legs. I want to abolish all the legs of these five people!"

As soon as these words came out, Regnar immediately said without hesitation: "No problem! Since President Issac has spoken, these five people's legs will be at your disposal!"

As soon as Jones Zizhou heard this, he suddenly collapsed and shouted: "Regnar! You can't be like this, right?! The five of us have already had our arms destroyed. If our legs are destroyed, what is the difference with the living dead?"

Regnar scolded coldly: "d*mn, your arms were scrapped because you were inferior to human skills, and your legs are scrapped because you offended President Issac. This is all your fault, you deserve it!"

"You..." Jones Zizhou roared angrily: "Regnar, you are an old tortoise b@stard! If I knew you had such a face, I Jones Zizhou should screw your head off!"

Regnar was furious and said to Issac: "Mr. Charlie, you see, for this kind of b@stard thing, you break their legs, it is all kind of grace to them! Such people should be killed directly.!"

Issac smiled playfully and said: "They were damned originally, but I saw the carved calligraphy on their foreheads, and felt that the five of them had to live well to be worthy of the artwork on their foreheads."

Regnar's face suddenly became a little ugly.

The foreheads of these five people were all engraved with words that insulted the Wu family. Issac actually said that these words are works of art. Isn't that an insult to the Wu family?

However, he dared not pretend to force Issac.

So can only laugh with him and say: "Since Mr. Issac, you think they are meant to be alive, please interrupt their legs and let them be useless persons forever!"

Issac nodded playfully, and said to his men, "Come on, first interrupt these five dogs legs for me!"

Regnar breathed a sigh of relief. It seems that Issac can calm down his anger this time.

However, he felt wrong again in an instant!

Issac just said, "First" interrupt the legs of these five dogs? !

Why is it first?

Is there anything behind?

Chapter 735

Before Regnar had figured out what Issac's remark meant, Issac's men had already moved!

His subordinates are also top masters, but if you really talk about strength, no one may be better than Jones Zizhou.

However, Jones Zizhou is now half a dead dog, and it may be okay to deal with ordinary people, but dealing with Premium man is simply a waste.

Therefore, facing Issac's men, he has no opportunity to refute or resist.

Charlie had already planned his destiny in advance!

Jones Zizhou's heart was extremely desperate and dead.

He never dreamed that he would end up like this!

If his legs are also abolished, wouldn't he be completely cold in this life?

At that time, he will be a d*ck with a broken arm and leg, lying on the bed, unable to move, and not even capable of taking care of himself...

At this time, Issac's men stepped forward to Jones Zizhou and the others, and the first one started with Jones Zizhou.

The man said coldly to some of his men, "Hold his legs for me!"

Several men immediately stepped forward and pressed Jones Zizhou's legs to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, the man took out a finger tiger made of pure steel from his arms, put it on his hand, and slammed it against Jones Zizhou's right knee. The whole knee was suddenly broken into slag.

Jones Zizhou suddenly felt a piercing pain, and kept wailing.

But this is only halfway through!

The other party then slammed on the knee of his other leg again, and with a click, the knee cracked.

Afterwards, this person kept abandoning all the legs of these five bodyguards!

There was a wailing in the living room of the presidential suite.

Regnar's complexion did not change the slightest. These five people, he couldn't wait to kill them directly, so he didn't care about their current fate.

He only care, is Issac satisfied?

If not satisfied, what else would he want? !

So he asked Issac: "Mr. Issac, I don't know the result now, are you still satisfied?"

Issac said coldly: "Of course not satisfied!"

Regnar trembled all over, and hurriedly asked: "Mr. Issac, how can you be satisfied?"

Issac looked at him with a cold expression in his eyes: "It's very simple, I want you and your son to give a leg!"

"What!?" Regnar looked startled and blurted out: "Mr. Charlie, are you kidding too much?"

Issac squinted his eyes and asked him, "Which one of your eyes saw me joking with you?!"

Regnar stepped back involuntarily in fright, and blurted out in a panic: "Mr. Issac, the person under your hand has had a little conflict because of a little misunderstanding, why should you take this seriously?"

As he said, he lowered his posture and said in a humble tone: "If Wu did not do well in any way, please make it clear that Wu will make all efforts to correct it. You don't need to continue to hold onto it. It hurts the harmony between our two families, right?"

Issac said coldly: "Only your Wu family is worthy to talk to the Wade family about peace? Are you not a bullsh*t?"

After all, Issac sternly shouted: "If you want to survive, just let me get rid of a leg, otherwise, no one can save you today!"

Regnar trembled in shock!

This Issac is going to be real!

Want his leg now? !

What a joke!

He is the eldest son of the Wu family and the second-generation heir of the Wu family!

In the whole Aurous Hill, he can be said to be under one person and over ten thousand people, and the only person above him is his own self.

The Wu family is strong throughout Aurous Hill, and it is always the Wu family bullying others. When has it been bullied by others? !

This Issac rushed in and beat him up with his son, but for the Wade Family's face, he could bear it.

However, he actually wants to break the legs of his and his son, how can he accept it? !

If this were to be spread out, wouldn't the Wu family be discredited? !

Thinking of this, he plucked up courage and shouted sharply: "Issac! Don't go too far! Do you think you are a member of the Wade family? You are just a subordinate of the Wade family! Who gave you the courage to let you dare Against my Wu family?! Even if my Wu family is not as strong as the Wade family, it is still the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. I don't believe that the Wade family will let you indulge like this?!"

Chapter 736

Issac smiled playfully: "Do you want to know who gave me the courage? I'm sorry, it was Mr. Wade!"

If it was normal, he was just a spokesperson for the Wade family, and he really didn't dare to directly conflict with the Wu family on behalf of the Wade family, let alone interrupt the legs of Wu's parents and grandson.

However, today's decision was not made by himself, but by his young master!

If his young master said he wanted to kill the Wu family man and his son, he would immediately follow suit, and the Wade family would definitely support the protection!

Therefore, Issac has no scruples at all.

Regnar and his son were stunned!

Is Mr. Wade going to deal with him? !

However, when did he offend Mr. Wade? ! I doesn't even know Mr. Wade!

At this moment, if they were killed, they couldn't believe that Charlie, the well-known Rubbish son in Aurous Hill, was actually the young master of the Wade Family!

Regnar said in a panic: "Mr Issac, is there any misunderstanding in this? When did we offend Mr. Wade?"

Issac was too lazy to explain to them, sneered, and said to the people around him: "First discard that small leg! Then discard the old one!"

As soon as the voice fell, the man in black around him rushed to Roger!

Roger was scared!

He was pressed to the ground by the man in black and shouted: "Dad! Hurry up and help Dad! Dad, help me!"

Regnar was trembling even at his teeth!

He thought that Shangri-La was the safest place, but he didn't expect it to be the real wolf den!

This Issac, relying on being a member of the Wade family, is confident, what can he do now?

Beg for mercy? He doesn't buy it at all!

Show your identity? He doesn't care at all!

Go head-to-head with him? Is there anyone else available around?

Thinking of this, his heart was completely ashes!

He knew that he could not save his son.

He can't even save himself now!

At this moment, the black man wearing a finger tiger's punch suddenly fell!

After the click, Roger howled sadly like a slaughtered pig!

His right leg is useless!

The right hand and right leg are all dead at this time!

Moreover, the injury of the right leg is too serious, and there is no possibility of recovery!

In other words, in the future, he, the dignified eldest son of the Wu family, will become a lame ridiculed by others!

Roger burst into tears immediately!

How could this be!

Why is this happening? !

What kind of place is Aurous Hill? Why does it feel that this small city is full of devastating demons!

Regnar was heartbroken.

The one he loves most is the eldest son.

After all, the eldest son will inherit his mantle in the future, and he has always been a focus of training.

Unexpectedly, he turned out to be a disabled person now!

And his second son is still that sh!t swallowing beast that eats sh!t every hour...

Why is his destiny so miserable? !

At this time, Issac pointed to Regnar who was indignant in his heart, and said to the black man: "Come on, this old guy!"

Regnar snorted in his heart, his legs softened involuntarily, and he knelt on the ground with a thump...

Issac looked at him who was kneeling, and laughed coldly: "Oh, Mr. Regnar, why are you kneeling? Kneeling, also have to break your leg!"

Chapter 737

Regnar collapsed!

He knew that he was already powerless. When he came to Aurous Hill this time, instead of detecting the murderer of the younger son, he got in with his elder son's legs...

Issac's subordinates walked to the front in three or two steps, grabbed his right leg, fists up and down...

Regnar felt an extremely strong pain in his knee, and the pain almost made him faint.

He gritted his teeth and tried to stop himself from screaming, but the severe pain only made him endure for less than ten seconds, and then he let out a cry, crying!

Issac looked at all this coldly, and snorted disdainfully: "Wu Family, for whatever the f*ck, you dare to stray wild on the Wade Family's site. This is a little punishment for you. If you dare to touch Wade Family again, Wade Family will definitely destroy your, Wu Family Mansion!"

Issac's words are loud and clear!

Especially the last six words, destroy your Wu family!

It was even scared that Regnar twitched violently!

what happened.....

What exactly happened here.....

Why does the Wade Family want to target him so much?

If he wanted to kneel and lick the Wade family, he couldn't find a chance. Why would the Wade family hate him for being a shareholder and would punish him so

He can't figure it out, totally can't figure it out!

He can only attribute all this to Jones Zizhou's and guards who fought in Shangri-La!

It seems that Wade's majesty really does not tolerate any form of trampling, even if it is just making trouble in the Wade Family's property and beating Wade Family's insignificant subordinates, they will also be punished by the Wade Family!

Regnar hates this d*mn Jones Zizhou crazy!

Blame him!

It was him who killed him, so he and his son were also implicated!

At this moment, he could not wait to rush over and choke this Jones Zizhou alive!

Moreover, his heart was really moved to kill!

He knew that he couldn't kill people on Issac's territory, but he had made up his mind. After leaving Shangri-La, he immediately called and asked the family to send some masters over to kill Jones Zizhou and his four brothers directly, leaving them dead!

At this time, Issac said coldly: "I will give you ten minutes to get out of Shangri-La. If you are still in Shangri-La after ten minutes, I hope you two will also interrupt the other leg!"

Regnar trembled all over, and hurriedly said with sincerity and fear: "Mr. Issac, we'll go now! we'll go!"

After speaking, he jumped to his son's side, reached out to help him, tearful, and comforted: "Son, let's go back to Suzhou. Dad must find the best orthopedic doctor to treat your leg!"

Roger also cried in a mess. With the help of his father, he got up with difficulty and cried and said, "Dad...can my legs be cured?"

"Yes, it will definitely be possible!" Regnar also knew that the knee has been completely shattered, and there is almost no possibility of cure. Even if all the artificial joints are replaced, there will be serious sequelae in the future, even if it is not a lame, it is a lame man. It is absolutely impossible to restore the appearance of a normal person.

However, he cannot hit his son that way.

He is still young after all!

So, he didn't dare to pack things anymore, and supported each other with his son, and walked to the door of the presidential suite.

At this time, Issac suddenly smiled and said: "Hold on!"

Chapter 738

Regnar trembled all over, turned around, and asked nervously, "Mr. Issac, what do you want to say?"

Issac pointed to Jones Zizhou and other five people lying on the ground, and said coldly: "You two, drag out these five dead dogs, don't dirty my Shangri-La place!"

"I..." Regnar was anxious, almost vomiting blood!

After a while, he came back to his senses and blurted out: "Mr. Charlie, these five people have nothing to do with the Wu family anymore, you can do what you want to do at will! You want to kill or smash them, it is up to you!"

Issac said coldly: "Did you forget what I just said? These five people have works of art on their foreheads. You take them back to Wu's house, wait on them and let them live well, and you must not let them die. , Let alone remove the artwork on their foreheads, understand?"

artwork.....

Regnar looked at Jones Zizhou and the five of them with resentment. Every word on the forehead of these five people was like a sharp knife, slamming his heart!

Now, Issac actually asked him to take these five people home to serve?

This is really too humiliating!

However, he did not dare to have the slightest temper.

What can't humiliate him?

What should be received, still have to be received!

It seems that at the moment he can only deal with himself first, taking these five people away and taking them back to Suzhou, and then let them evaporate!

Just as thinking about this, Issac said again: "Yes, I forgot to remind you, these five people are to be taken home, you must take good care of them, and you will send them to Aurous Hill by special plane every once in a while for my inspection. I want the life of one of your sons; if two of these people die, I want the life of a pair of your sons; if three people die, your dog's life is mine!"

Regnar's body trembled violently with anger!

This...this is sh!t riding on the neck!

What exactly does Issac have against Wu family?

Why does he want to humiliate him in such an extremely insulting way?

However, how dare he say a word to Issac?

So he could only cry and nod: "Mr. Charlie, what you say is what I do..."

Issac was satisfied and said coldly: "Okay, you two, get out with them behind your back!"

Regnar begged: "Mr. Issac, I broke my leg, my son also broke his leg, and he also broke his hand earlier today. We two are disabled people, how can we carry these five people on our backs... .. Please forgive us, or please arrange some of your subordinates to help us carry them out..."

Issac asked coldly: "If you don't carry them. Don't leave if you don't carry it. I will interrupt your hands and feet. The seven of you are lying here together waiting for the Wu family to pick you up!"

Roger suddenly collapsed and cried: "Mr. Issac...how did we make you unhappy, please give us a good time, don't torture me and my dad, I'll kowtow to you!"

With that, Roger, who had broken his leg, knelt on the ground with difficulty and kept kowtow with one hand supporting it.

He is really scared!

What the h*ll is the top luxury Shangri-La, this is simply purgatory on earth!

He just want to escape now, escape back to Suzhou, escape back to own home, then lock himself up and lick the wound alone.

What happened today is really humiliating, and he will not even want to go out to meet people in the next few years!

Issac didn't buy anything for his kneeling and kowtow, and said coldly: "Well, I have already said, either you two will get them away, or you will become such dead dogs just like them. There are only two roads, choose your own!"

Regnar hurriedly and humbly pleaded: "Mr. Charlie, don't be angry, we will get them all out, even if it is crawling, we will drag all five of them out!"

Chapter 739

With Regnar's complete compromise, the injured and lame father and son can only lean down with a gray face and tried their best to prepare to carry Jones Zizhou and others out of the Shangri-La Hotel.

However, the two had already become disabled, and Roger was even more miserable, having broken hands and feet, so carrying these five profuse sweats was simply extremely difficult.

The father and son took the lead in dragging Jones Zizhou out, and every time they took a step, they both panted with exhaustion.

Not only were they tired, but the leg that was broken was even more painful.

However, neither of them dared to yell at this time, so they could only grit their teeth and persist.

Issac hugged his shoulders, as if watching a good show, watching the father and son exert all their energy, and drag the five people to the square outside Shangri-La Hotel one after another like a shitball.

Regnar slumped on the ground tiredly and raised his hand to wipe off his sweat. Then he asked Issac: "Mr. Charlie, are you satisfied now?"

Issac nodded and said coldly: "But you took too long. I let you do it in ten minutes. How about you? It took an hour!"

"I'm really sorry..." Regnar said humiliatingly: "The legs and feet are indeed inconvenient. It is a waste of your precious time."

Issac snorted, and said, "You know it!"

Afterwards, he said sharply: "This square at the entrance is also my site for Shangri-La. Hurry up and let people come and pick you up. If I come out later, if I see you are still there, I will break your other leg!"

After Issac finished speaking, he turned and left the scene.

The father and son were left almost desperate.

Roger cried and asked Regnar at this time: "Dad, what shall we do now? I want to go back to Suzhou, and I don't want to stay in Aurous Hill anymore..."

Regnar gritted his teeth and said, "I will call your grandfather now and ask him to send a helicopter over to take us back!"

In fact, Regnar had already broken his heart in Aurous Hill. At this time, he just wanted to go back and treat his legs quickly.

So Regnar immediately called his father, and on the phone, he complained to his father about what happened here.

After listening to this, Mr. Wu became furious.

"The Wade Family is really deceiving people too much!"

His eldest son and eldest grandson had both broken their legs, and it was fake that Mr. Wu was not angry.

However, after getting angry, he sighed again and said, "Wait, I will contact the general aviation company in Aurous Hill, and hurry up to rent a helicopter to pick you up."

Regnar also knew that even if his father regained his energy, there would be no way to do this. After all, the Wu family could only be regarded as ants in front of the Wade family, without any strength to compete with it.

A few minutes later, the Old Master called and told Regnar: "The helicopter has been found. It will be there to pick you up in 15 minutes!"

"Great..." Regnar even choked up.

He has never suffered such a big humiliation in his life. Now he is like a child who has been wronged outside, just thinking about being able to go home sooner.

After hanging up the phone, he said to Roger: "Your grandpa has arranged a helicopter, and it will be there in 15 minutes!"

When Roger heard this, he cried in excitement.

Regnar hugged him, and the father and son cried together.

The five Jones Zizhou lying on the ground also felt very complicated.

They are sad, because they are now completely useless, and may never have the chance to stand up.

But they were also very fortunate. Fortunately, Issac came forward and asked the Wu family to take care of them and send them to be inspected by Issac regularly.

This also means that he will not be retaliated by the Wu family and will not be killed by the them. On the contrary, he will be raised by the Wu family.

Thinking about it this way, at least the future life will still have a fall, otherwise, with Regnar's character, he will definitely kill them immediately.

Chapter 740

At this moment, Wu Qi, who had been at Regnar's home, suddenly called Regnar.

At this time, he had just finished eating and had just regained his senses. Regardless of the stench in his mouth, he hurriedly called his father Regnar.

Regnar didn't expect the younger son to call him.

After all, he has been very depressed during this period of time. Every time he finishes eating, he wants to die and commit suicide. The whole person is very decadent. No one wants to see or talk.

Don't know why he is calling him at this time?

Could it be that he heard about what happened to his eldest son and called to comfort me?

Thinking of this, Regnar felt somewhat relieved.

But after the call was connected, he heard Wu Qi's extremely flustered voice: "Dad! It's not good! Grandpa had a heart attack just now!"

"What?!" Regnar blurted out, "What's the matter? When I was talking on the phone with your grandpa just now, his voice sounded fine!"

Wu Qi said: "Just now, a friend of my grandfather called and asked him to watch a video on YouTube, and I showed it to him. As a result, he suffered a heart attack after watching it! Now the medical team at home is trying to rescue him. Fortunately, there is no danger to life"

"YouTube video? What video?!" Regnar said anxiously: "What kind of YouTube is the Old Master watching? Is he scared by the horror videos above?"

"No..." Wu Qi blurted out: "There is a pair of father and son with lettering on their foreheads. They said that a cross talk was sent to YouTube!"

"Crosstalk?!" Regnar didn't understand even more.

Then he suddenly asked: "What did you just say, lettering on forehead?"

"Yes!" Wu Qi said hurriedly: "They introduced themselves, and said one was called Liu Guang and the other was Liu Ming!"

Regnar is even more surprised!

What happened to these two father and son?

Yes indeed!

When he saw that Jones Zizhou and the others had become useless and had their foreheads engraved on them, he was shocked that they were not enough, and completely forgot about Liu Guang and his son.

Where did these two go?

Said the cross talk went?

So, he asked in amazement: "What did these two talk about cross talk? How could you have your grandpa's heart attack?"

Wu Qi said: "He probably watched a little bit. Their cross talk is all about scolding our family. The scolding is really terrible! They not only tease me about eating sh!t, they also tease you and my brother. With my mother and my grandpa!"

"f*ck!" Regnar was furious, and scolded: "The father and son are guilty of having a bear heart and a leopard! Dare to take our Wu family for fun?!"

After speaking, he immediately said to Roger: "Quickly open YouTube and search for Liu Guang Liu Ming's cross talk video!"

Roger was very surprised. He didn't know why his father wanted to watch YouTube suddenly, let alone why Liu Guang, Liu Ming would talk about cross talk on YouTube.

However, he obediently took out his phone, turned on YouTube, searched Liu Guang and Liu Ming, and suddenly came out with a video that had been liked more than a million times!

He subconsciously clicked on it, and the voices of Liu Guang, Liu Ming came out.

Regnar also hurried over to listen. It didn't matter if he heard it, the expressions of the father and son were getting more and more ugly!

Halfway through hearing this, Regnar hated him, and almost wanted to take a knife himself and cut Liu Guang, Liu Ming thousands of times!

Do not!

Thousands of knives can't solve the hatred in his heart!

Chapter 741

It's not just Regnar who is angry.

Roger is also angry!

This "cross talk" between Liu Guang and Liu Ming almost crushed and humiliated the entire Wu family on the ground!

Even after the humiliation was over, the father and son pissed on them!

Which makes them even more unacceptable!

This cross talk was spread to YouTube and it was made it public all over the Internet!

Since the Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, it can be regarded as having a good face in the country, so this cross talk so openly mocked them, satirized them, and insulted them, and it exploded in the circle of netizens!

On the one hand, netizens are curious, what is the origin of these two foreheads? who dare to insult the Wu family so much, isn't this like looking for death?

On the other hand, netizens also like to watch this kind of big family drama, so everyone started to pay attention to this video, so it immediately got a huge amount of attention.

Now the whole network is spreading this cross talk frantically. Countless people reposted, liked, commented, and even reposted it on Instagram, Facebook, WeChat Moments and WhatsApp Groups. The popularity is extremely high.

Regnar almost got Parkinson's anger, so he immediately took out his cell phone and called his local underground spokesperson in Suzhou. As soon as he came up, he said, "I want the lives of Liu Guang and Liu Ming! Today! I want it tonight!"

The other party was surprised and asked, "Mr. Regnar, is it because of the YouTube video?"

"Why are you so fcking bullshit?!" When Regnar heard that he also mentioned the YouTube video, he knew that this matter had spread so much, he blurted out: "Find them both tonight, kill them both, I'll give you 20 million, if you can't find them or kill them, I'll fcking kill you!"

"Okay, Mr. Regnar, I'll take ten carts to Aurous Hill overnight, and find them at earliest, kill them both, and give this breath to Mr. Regnar!"

But Regnar didn't know. At this moment, Liu Guang's family had already drove on the highway overnight and rushed all the way to Eastcliff.

After arrangements were made to kill Liu Guang and his son, Regnar immediately called a friend.

As soon as he came up, he said to the other party: "Xuwen, did you see that video on YouTube?"

"I saw it." The other party couldn't help asking: "Old Wu, what's the background of this person, dare to fight against you like this?"

Regnar said coldly: "Just leave it alone, I have sent someone to kill them. I called you to ask you for a favor."

"Say it."

Regnar said: "I have 30 million. Please help me contact the public relations company and the operations of YouTube, and help me delete this video. It is best to block the entire network and don't let it spread again!"

Now, celebrities and entrepreneurs all have special crisis public relations.

Once the videos broke out on the Internet, one can immediately spend a lot of money on it, and all kinds of online searches and news can be removed.

Therefore, what Regnar thought at this time was to quickly spend money to remove all the videos. After the removal, there will be no new transmissions, so after a while, netizens will naturally forget about this.

Or, when someone else's news breaks out, everyone's eyes will be attracted by the other person, and then they will be relieved.

The other party thought for a while and said, "Old Wu, you have too much influence in this matter. If you want to completely suppress it, 30 million is not enough!"

Regnar immediately said: "Then you make an offer! How much can you suppress it for!"

The other party hesitated for a while and said: "Well, I won't say 100 million, don't say 50 million, you give me 70 million, I promise to delete this video permanently on YouTube!"

"Okay!" Regnar blurted out: "I will arrange for someone to make money now!"

Soon, Regnar arranged his own finances and immediately remitted 70 million to the other company.

While Regnar was waiting for the helicopter, the video was deleted on YouTube.

At this moment, Charlie was in the kitchen, cooking while watching the volume of YouTube play and likes soaring.

Liu Ming's phone is in front of him, and his YouTube account is about to explode at this time!

Charlie liked his black humor very much, and felt that it was a very murderous punishment for the Wu family.

Chapter 742

However, when the number of likes exceeded 1.5 million, his YouTube suddenly prompted: "Your account has been permanently banned for posting illegal videos!"

Charlie frowned suddenly.

What the h*ll?

Permanent ban?

He immediately took out his mobile phone and searched for the cross talk between Liu Guang and his son, and found that the entire site had been deleted cleanly!

He suddenly realized that this must be Regnar who spent money to do crisis deletion public relations!

Oh sh!t!

Charlie didn't expect that Regnar could still use this method to curb the spread of the video, and he was suddenly a little annoyed.

After thinking about it, he took out his cell phone and called Stephen Thompson who was far away in Eastcliff.

If Issac is only one of the many spokespersons of the Wade family, then Stephen Thompson is the only steward of the Wade family.

In other words, in the entire Wade family, except for the Old Wade, he is the oldest.

After the phone call, Stephen Thompson immediately said respectfully: "Hello Mr. Wade you haven't called me for a long time."

Charlie gave a hum, and said, "I call you now. I want to ask you for help."

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade you are serious. You are the young master of the Wade family, and I am a servant. If you have anything to do, just tell me!"

Charlie said, "I want to ask you, how much is YouTube local operations worth now?"

Stephen Thompson thought for a while, and said: "If you calculate it based on the valuation, there are some elements of false reporting. The declared valuation should be about 130 billion."

Charlie asked again: "If you buy it directly? How much is the price?"

Stephen Thompson said: "If the price is one price, it will be between 80 billion and 90 billion."

Charlie asked again: "Can you buy YouTube local operations for me?"

"Yes!" Stephen Thompson said immediately: "Mr. Wade wait a moment, I will let people contact the boss of YouTube. I believe he will not refuse the offer from the Wade family."

Charlie said in his heart, as long as it is bought, he would put that crosstalk on the homepage of YouTube users across the country, asking them to open YouTube, and they would see that crosstalk.

Don't the Wu family want to delete the video? He f*cking bought this video company directly, Now how would they delete it!

At this time, Regnar didn't know that Charlie had already started to buy YouTube local operations.

He scribbled on the YouTube several times, and finally heaved a sigh of relief after finding that there was no cross talk.

However, his anger towards Liu Guang and Liu Ming did not diminish at all.

Moreover, he thought carefully about the details.

Liu Ming had long been engraved with the word "poor hang" on his forehead. He knew this, but Liu Guang's forehead had not been engraved before. When he saw him today, he was fine.

In other words, this video should have been shot after Jones Zizhou was defeated and abandoned by Charlie.

Moreover, in the video, the father and son laughed more ugly than they cried. It should be the cross talk that someone threatened them to film.

Anyway, who threatened them?

It seems that there is only one possibility, and that is Charlie!

Thinking of this, Regnar gritted his teeth bitterly!

The surname is Wade, I will kill you one day!

Otherwise, I will be called a person in vain!

Chapter 743

Just when Regnar finally breathed a sigh of relief because YouTube's video was deleted, he never dreamed that YouTube had already completed the transaction with Wade's in Eastcliff.

Eastcliff Wade's acquired YouTube local operations wholly-owned by RMB 85 billion.

Before this news was released, the Wade family had already begun to take over YouTube's operations.

The first thing they did was to restore Liu Ming's deleted account, as well as the deleted hot video.

Immediately afterwards, the technicians through the setting, let all the notifications section users across the country, the first time they turn on the notifications section, they will see this cross talk directly on the home screen!

Regnar didn't know that things had changed a hundred and eighty degrees. When he was waiting for the helicopter to come over, he suddenly received another call from Wu Qi.

Wu Qi yelled in panic on the phone: "Dad, what's going on, why are all the cross talks when the notifications section is turned on?! Now the number of likes has exceeded two million, I asked many people, their steep When the sound is turned on, it is the cross talk!"

"What?!" Regnar exclaimed suddenly and blurted out: "Are you sure? I just spent 70 million to solve this problem, there is no reason to come up again!"

Wu Qi said confidently: "Of course I'm sure. I saw it myself. As long as you turn on the notifications section, it's that section. I also asked several people that their notifications section is like this. Dad, what should I do now... .."

Regnar said with a black face, "Let me see what is going on!"

After speaking, he immediately hung up and asked Roger to turn on YouTube.

really!

As soon as YouTube is turned on, it is the crosstalk by Liu Guang and Liu Ming by default!

He was so angry that he immediately called the person who was in crisis public relations, and blurted out: "Xuwen, are you playing me so much? How come the video is released again?! And all users will see it by default! "

The other party said embarrassingly: "Oh, Mr. Wu, I just received the news. You can't blame me for this. The main reason is that Eastcliff Wade's family just bought YouTube and paid 85 billion in cash. The other party did not hesitate. They just sold it..."

"What are you talking about?!" Regnar went crazy and exclaimed: "The Wade family bought YouTube whole?"

"That's right!" Xuwen said embarrassingly, "Just now, they contacted YouTube's boss directly and quoted a cash purchase price for the local operations. The other party agreed without hesitation. You know, the world recently The economy is not so good. The entrepreneurs who start their own businesses want to get rid of their hands and realize it. At such a high price, they are paid directly in one lump sum, and there is no resistance at all..."

As he said, the other party hurriedly said: "Old Wu, don't be angry, the 70 million, I will leave it as it is, and I will immediately let the finance call you back! This time I'm really sorry, brother, I can do nothing!"

Regnar was shocked!

What is the Wade Family's purpose?

So how can a big family smash with a small character like himself?

He didn't offend the Wade family much! It's nothing more than five of his dogs, who injured Wade's servants in Shangri-La. Is it necessary to revenge so frantically?

In order to make a fool of him, even bought YouTube directly? !

At this moment, Regnar still didn't want to believe that Charlie's son-in-law would have anything to do with Eastcliff Wade family.

In his mind, he instinctively felt that these were completely two things.

One is that he offended Charlie, Charlie injured his subordinates, and recorded a cross talk between Liu Guang and Liu Ming;

One was that his subordinates offended the Wade family, and the Wade family protected their calves. Starting from Issac to Wade family, they began to have trouble with them.

It must be a coincidence that these two incidents collided together. It should be that the Wade family saw this video and wanted to use this video to humiliate the Wu family, but found out that they had deleted the video by crisis PR, so they simply put it up again by buying the local YouTube operations.

Eighty-five billion in cash, only they can take it, this boldness is indeed a top big family!

Chapter 744

Even though the Wu family's assets are around 200 billion, the proportion of cash is actually not so much, at most less than 10 billion.

A family is like a family. If a family has 2 million assets, it does not mean that they have 2 million cash. The house may be worth 1.3 million, a car worth 200,000, and Miscellaneous other things are worth two hundred thousand, and finally there are two hundred thousand in cash.

With so many assets and cash, there are only two million.

Therefore, the Wu family has a net worth of 200 billion, and the real cash proportion is not much.

If they were to buy YouTube for 85 billion, they would have to sell nearly half of their assets.

However, the Wade family is different.

No one knows exactly how much assets and cash the Wade family has. In short, they bought things with a lot of money.

The imperial group of 100 billion, buy it when they say buy; the notifications section of 85 billion, buy it when they say it!

Regnar was a little frightened in his heart. The Wade family was so willing to spend the capital to deal with the Wu family. Could it be that they were going to fight the Wu family to the end?

If this is the case, wouldn't the Wu family want to be cool?

Just as he was panicking, there was a roar from far and near in the sky.

The helicopter arranged by his father is here.

This is a heavy civilian helicopter with a large fuselage that can accommodate at least ten people. This time, not only will Regnar and his son be taken away, but also Jones Zizhou's five wastes will be taken away.

Regnar saw that the helicopter had hovered over his head and was slowly descending, his flustered heart eased slightly.

For him, it is more important that nothing goes home now.

For big things, he can wait to go home before slowly discussing solutions.

At this moment, Issac stepped out of the Shangri-La Hotel.

Behind him were dozens of black-clothed bodyguards, with a murderous look on their faces.

Regnar trembled for a while when he saw this scene.

He originally thought that the Wade family might not really want to rip apart with the Wu family, it was likely that Issac was good at making opinions.

However, the news that the Wade Family bought YouTube directly made him realize that this was not Issac's advocacy, but that the entire Wade Family was targeting the Wu Family!

That's why he was flustered, limped up to meet him, nodded and bowed his head and said, "Mr. Issac, we will get out of here. It won't delay you too long. Please forgive me, and I ask you to talk to the Wade family. To say a few good things, thousands of mistakes are all the fault of the Wu family. The Wu family will definitely go to Eastcliff to apologize in a few days. I also ask the Wade family to have a lot of them. Don't be familiar with our kind of rag family... .."

Regnar is really scared.

In order to use a video to humiliate the Wu family, the Wade family can buy YouTube for 85 billion. If the Wade family really wants to kill the Wu family, they don't know what terrifying power they will use!

Issac looked at Regnar coldly at this time, and said contemptuously: "Just you, are you worthy to go to the Wade family to make an apology? Don't look at what you count as a thing!"

Regnar's face suddenly flushed red!

Yes, I don't deserve to visit Wade's house...

At this time, Issac yelled in a cold voice: "Let your helicopter roll f@rther from me, don't fall on my Shangri-La site, otherwise, I will have your helicopter dismantled, and then you and your son's other working limbs!"

Chapter 745

Regnar is about to collapse!

The helicopter is now overhead. Just let it fall, and the people inside will lift up their father and son and these five dead dogs, and they can take off in less than ten minutes, and they can take their son home.

However, Issac was not even willing to give him this convenience!

He couldn't help begging: "Mr. Issac, you don't think our father and son are already miserable enough, so please raise your hands and let us get on the plane back to Suzhou! Your great kindness, Wu will never forget!"

Issac snorted coldly, "It's close to me? You don't take a picture of yourself without soaking urine, is it worth it?"

After speaking, Issac waved his hand: "I have already said what I have said. As long as the plane lands, I will have the pilot pull down and break his leg. Don't want the plane. You and your son, don't want the other leg?"

Regnar was desperate.

He knew that Issac's resolute attitude was absolutely impossible to give himself this face.

So he could only sigh, and tearfully said: "Mr. Issac, wait a minute, I'll call the pilot..."

As he said, he limped to the side and asked for the contact information of the pilot from the general aviation company to get through the phone.

The pilot received his call and hurriedly said: "Hello, Mr. Regnar, I am ready to land now! Please wait a moment!"

Regnar hurriedly said, "Don't land! Shangri-La will not let the plane land here!"

After speaking, he hurriedly asked: "Is there any place to land near here? My son and I have inconvenient legs and feet, and can't be too far away!"

"Oh..." the pilot said embarrassedly: "Mr. Regnar, this is the city. Except for the square at the entrance of Shangri-La, only the apron on the top of the Shangri-La building I can land."

"That won't work either!" Regnar said, "You have to avoid Shangri-La's place."

The pilot said: "This... there is an elementary school two kilometers away. We can apply to land on the playground of that elementary school. This is the nearest place."

"Two kilometers?!" Regnar hesitated.

Both himself and his son were lame, and both their right legs were scrapped and they could not drive the car.

Is it not too far to walk over?

Moreover, there are these five dead dogs as well for them to carry!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly asked: "How many people are there on your plane?"

"Three."

Regnar hurriedly said, "That way, I will give you 10,000 per person. After you land the plane at that elementary school, take a taxi and pick us up. There are seven of us and our legs and feet are not very good."

The other party thought for a while and said, "Okay, Mr. Regnar, wait a moment, we will pick you up after landing."

The helicopter hovered overhead for a moment, then climbed and flew away.

Regnar wiped away tears and said to Issac: "Mr. Issac, are you satisfied now?"

Issac looked at him disgustedly: "Take your son and get out, don't appear in front of me like a fly, ever again!"

Chapter 746

After speaking, Issac turned and left.

Regnar squatted on the spot, crying silently, covering his face.

The dignity of a lifetime has been trampled down today!

What the h*ll does it mean to live for this purpose?

The point is, how can he make up the Wade Family? Even if this hatred is as deep as the sea today, there is no way to repay it.

Is there anything more painful than this?

By the way, there is more!

On the notifications section, the cross talk between the Liu family and his son is still spreading wildly. Now the number of likes has reached more than three million, which is almost all over the Internet...

Ten minutes later, two helicopter pilots and a mechanic rushed over by taxi.

Regnar finally saw the savior of his life.

The three people got him and his son Roger in the car first, and then the five dead dogs in the car. The driver pulled them to the primary school playground where the helicopter was parked. The three people got all the seven people in the car. After that, the plane took off in the dark and hurried to Suzhou.

When the Wu family man and his son came to Aurous Hill, they came by private jet. They were extremely high-profile and arrogant!

But who could have imagined that when the two of them left, they broke their hands and feet and suffered humiliation, like a bereaved dog!

In the cabin of the plane, Regnar and Roger, father and son, looked at the bustling night view of Aurous Hill, embracing and crying!

No one thought that this trip to Aurous Hill would end in such a bleak situation!

The father and son cried for a long time, and finally eased their emotions. Roger clutched his severed hand and said angrily: "Dad, I don't understand. Charlie's Rubbish is just the son-in-law of a small family. How come there is such a strong strength, Jones Zizhou and the five of them are not even his opponents!"

As he said, he said angrily: "I don't know why, I always have a feeling that the Wade family is targeting us, not because Jones Zizhou's Rubbish wounded the Shangri-La people, but as if the Wade family was helping Charlie assist. same!"

Regnar's expression was pale, and he said, "You think too much! Charlie is just a live-in son-in-law with a stronger personal strength. He may have practiced with an expert before, but he is absolutely impossible to have anything to do with the Wade Family! "

Roger said: "Then why did the Wade family help him?! And they are all named Wade, are they distant relatives?"

Regnar shook his head and said, "Do you see how well the Wade family protects the calf? Even the security guards and lobby managers do not allow anyone to bully, and they can even turn their faces with the Wu family for this reason! If Charlie really belongs to the Wade family A distant relative, how could the Wade family sit back and watch him as the live-in son-in-law in Aurous Hill?"

Immediately, Regnar said: "I heard that this Charlie was very humiliated in his wife's family. The key point is that his wife's family is not even a third-rate family. If he is really a distant relative of the Wade family, the Wade family must be early So he took action to put his wife's obedience to his family!"

Speaking of this, Regnar regretted it in his heart and blurted out: "If I knew Charlie had such a strong personal strength, so I directly mobilized a dozen or twenty masters and killed him at once! This will be done once and for all! There will be so many troubles behind!"

When he mentioned Charlie, Roger felt bitter in his heart, and hurriedly asked, "Dad, what shall we do with Charlie next? Everything today is due to that Charlie! If it weren't for him to abolish With these five wastes of Jones Zizhou, they can't offend Issac, and the Wade family can't offend them as well! They definitely can't spare him!"

Regnar said coldly: "The current situation is already very unfavorable to us. It is not a wise move to deal with Charlie now. When we return to Suzhou, we will keep a low profile for a while, and wait for the turmoil to pass, and then consider the long-term plan!"

Roger was shocked, and blurted out: "Dad, Charlie made our Wu family lose face in front of the people of the whole country, so just forget it?"

Regnar said with a cold face, "How could it be forgotten?! Anyone who dares to offend our Wu family must pay the price of their lives! Charlie must be dealt with for severed hand and the dignity of my Wu family, I must let him pay for his bloody hands! Let him die without a place to bury!!"

Chapter 747

Before Charlie was cooking, Stephen Thompson called and told him that YouTube local operations have already been bought.

He turned on YouTube and saw that the video has been restored, and it is indeed the first one to open on the screen for all users. The number of likes has grown rapidly, and now it has exceeded 5 million.

This makes him feel happy.

What he want is this feeling!

It seemed that the Wu family was really uncomfortable now.

This video, it will at least hang on YouTube for a while. The Wu family must be uncomfortable, but they definitely have nothing to do.

When the meal was ready, Charlie put away his mobile phone and came out of the kitchen with the food. Only then did he discover that his wife Claire had also returned and was sitting in the living room looking at the phone.

Not only Claire was looking at his cell phone, but his father-in-law Jacob and his mother-in-law Elaine were all looking at the cell phone.

Elaine sighed as she watched, "The Liu family and the two masters are really brave, so speaking of the Wu family, can't the Wu family kill them?"

Claire looked very nervous.

She recognized Liu Ming in the video.

The poor hanging on Liu Ming's forehead was the one that she watched.

At first, she went to the hot springs with her husband Charlie and her girlfriend Elsa. They had a little conflict with Liu Ming in the parking lot. Later, Mr. Orvel suddenly appeared and helped Charlie beat Liu Ming severely.

Later, it was also Charlie who asked Mr. Orvel to engrave the words "poor hanging" on his forehead.

Now, in the video, Liu Ming's father had "Father of the Poor hanging" engraved on his forehead. She thought of Charlie all of a sudden, and felt that this matter seemed related to Charlie.

So, when she saw Charlie coming out of the kitchen with food, she hurriedly walked to him and asked him in a low voice, "Charlie, tell me the truth, are you conflicting with Liu Ming and his father again?"

"No!" Charlie lied: "I haven't seen them at all!"

"Really?" Claire frowned, remembering that when he saw Charlie on Warnia's Rolls Royce in the kitchen this morning, he couldn't help feeling jealous again.

So she asked in a low voice, "Then I ask you, when you went out this morning, why was the Miss Song picking you up?"

Charlie was stunned, and immediately said seriously: "She came to pick me up because today her grandfather invited me to his birthday banquet."

"Really?" Claire didn't quite believe it.

Charlie hurriedly said: "Why would I lie to you? Didn't I tell you that there is a friend who is going to have a birthday, he is the Old Master of the Song family."

Claire had a taste in her heart and mumbled and asked, "Why is Warnia so good to you? She even drove to the door to pick you up. I think she even gave you the car door. It's very respectful. Does she like you? Huh?"

"Hey..." Charlie laughed and said: "Wife, who is your husband, a rag who doesn't even have a job, and it's a fool to show others Feng Shui or something. A few people, but they don't make the Song family like them? What kind of family is the Song family, the first family in Aurous Hill! Think about how they can look at me, not to mention, I am a married person, in the Aurous Hill, who doesn't know me, the soft rice king..."

Claire hurriedly said: "Don't be so presumptuous of yourself!"

Charlie smiled and said: "I didn't slander myself. Isn't this all the truth? Many people see me, and they just talk rubbish, rag, eating soft rice, and the son-in-law. Actually, I've been used to it for a long time."

Claire said earnestly: "Anyway, you are my husband, you are not a waste, nor are you eating leftovers."

Charlie nodded and said, "My wife knows how to appreciate me. I think in Aurous Hill, the person who appreciates me most is you."

Chapter 748

After speaking, Charlie said again: "So you see, Miss Song, how can she look at rag like me?"

Claire couldn't help saying: "But...but I think she really respects you! She took the initiative to get off the car and open the door for you!"

Charlie snorted and said: "She respects me because her grandfather believes in me. Her grandfather is getting older and he believes in Feng Shui fortune and fate more and more, and I am the one he trusts, so he respects me. Naturally, his granddaughter should be polite to me too. If she neglects me, her grandfather will blame her.

Claire nodded slightly.

Charlie's explanation seemed to be believable.

Everything can be said and explained.

Thinking of this, she dispelled a lot of doubts in her heart.

In fact, she was in a bad mood all day today.

When shopping with Elsa, she also seemed a little uninterested and worried.

The main reason was that she always felt that Warnia seemed to really mean something to Charlie.

Otherwise, a woman has the strongest sixth sense!

She just looked from a distance and felt that Warnia seemed to like Charlie.

And it really made her guess right!

Fortunately, Charlie's brain reacted quickly, and he immediately dealt with her doubts in her heart.

In fact, Charlie knows Warnia's affection for him deep in his heart.

He is not a fool either, he also feels many things, he can see that Warnia must have a heart for him, and this intention is very strong.

Of course, he didn't have any thoughts of betraying Claire, so to Warnia, he had always pretended to be stupid, pretending to be confused.

Fortunately, Warnia was more graceful and restrained, and did not take the initiative to express her feelings to him, so she gave him space to pretend to be confused.

At this time, Claire felt much more relieved and said, "You, don't interact too closely with these upper-class people in the future. When they believe you, they will hold you, and when they don't believe you, they will throw you away. If they lose you, if they really want to throw you, you are likely to suffer a big loss."

Charlie nodded hurriedly and said seriously: "My wife, don't worry, I will try to keep my distance from them in the future."

Seeing his sincere attitude, Claire was a little relieved.

At this time, the mother-in-law Elaine came over with her mobile phone and muttered impatiently to Charlie: "Can't you still eat? You run out every day without a sh!t, and everything about grocery shopping and cooking is delayed! Me and your dad I've been waiting hungry for a long time!"

Charlie hurriedly said: "Mom, there is something wrong today, but you can rest assured that I will not delay buying vegetables and cooking in the future."

"You better remember what you said!" Elaine snorted coldly, her face full of discomfort.

In fact, she had always resented Charlie for what he asked Lian to donate the money last time.

There were two million in it that belonged to her, but now it was completely lost.

She has no money now, and can't go out and play with the old sisters. She can only stay at home by herself every day to make her sulking, so Charlie is even more unpleasant.

At this time, Jacob walked over and suddenly asked, "By the way, Charlie, when will our Tomson first-class villa be finished?"

Chapter 749

When Jacob asked about the villa, he actually wanted to help Charlie.

He knew his wife's temperament and personality, plus she had recently taken gunpowder, so Jacob was also afraid that she would catch Charlie, and kept sarcasm at him.

In Jacob's eyes, his son-in-law is really saving his life time and time again, so he now treats Charlie as a son-in-law, a real one.

In addition, as the saying goes, a son-in-law is half a son, so when he saw Charlie being scolded, he even felt sorry for his son-in-law.

However, when he asked about the villa, Elaine's attention was suddenly attracted!

She looked at Charlie and blurted out: "Yeah, when will the villa be renovated and when we can move in? When I move in, I will leave a separate room with a mahjong machine so that it can be occupied by my friends. , I asked my friend to play Mahjong in my villa!"

Charlie thought to himself, playing mahjong? Do you have money to lose? Living in a large villa worth more than 100 million, you find someone to come to your house to play mahjong, and then you can't afford to lose two thousands. Are you not ashamed?

However, he certainly couldn't say this directly to his mother-in-law, that is, he just mocked her in his heart.

Thinking of this, Charlie didn't bother to be familiar with his mother-in-law, and said lightly: "I saw Solmon White today. He said that the villa is basically covered, but furniture and appliances are missing. If we want to move in, we can buy some furniture. Put home appliances in, and then can move."

"Great!" Jacob was very happy when he heard that the villa could be available to live in.

Elaine on the side was also very excited, haha laughed and said, "Okay, okay, okay! I'm finally getting rid of this broken house!"

With that, she suddenly recovered.

Buy furniture and appliances? !

What the h*ll!

Didn't the villa have any furniture or appliances? !

All the money made Charlie donate the Hope Project, so what kind of purchase can they get? !

Thinking of this, Elaine's expression immediately became ugly, and she said coldly: "That Solmon White is too much, so expensive villas are given away, furniture and appliances are not provided, let us buy it ourselves?! Why so miser! "

When Claire heard this, she reluctantly said: "Oh, mom, why are you like this? People gifted a villa worth more than 100 million, are you still not satisfied?"

Charlie immediately understood Elaine's desperate look.

The mother-in-law must be afraid that Claire and Jacob will know that she has no money!

Therefore, Charlie deliberately said: "Mom, what Solmon White gave was a villa, not furniture and appliances. Besides, this furniture and appliances should be selected according to personal preference. If they give it to you, if you don't like it, there will be so many troubles. Where to put the furniture?"

Elaine made a strong argument: "Why don't I like the gift? As long as it is free, I like it!"

Jacob took the conversation and said, "Oh, it's okay for us to buy the furniture we like. Tomorrow, we will go to the furniture store and take a look. If we have any furniture we like, we don't need the money. Ah, after all, we still have more than two million in our family. Buying some good furniture and home appliances can not use more than one million at most."

Elaine panicked suddenly and blurted out: "What to buy? Don't buy it! Let that Solmon White give it to us!"

After she finished speaking, she said to Charlie annoyed: "You call that Solmon White, what the h*ll are you doing? The car is delivered, how can you drive it without adding a tank of gas? Let him be matched and we will move past!"

Charlie deliberately said: "Mom, this is not possible. Mr. White regrets that he should not give such an expensive villa. He told me in the past two days that he wanted to change to a smaller and more partial villa for me."

Chapter 750

"What the h*ll?" Elaine was anxious, cursing: "What kind of dog thing is this? Can you ask to return the gift from someone?"

Charlie opened his hands: "After all, it was something that was given by someone else, even if someone repents and doesn't want to give it away, what can we do? We can't compare with White's family!"

Elaine said angrily, "How can it be like this! It's a b@stard to send the villa without the furniture!"

Jacob said: "Okay! You should be content too, stop twittering here, take out our money, and buy furniture tomorrow! After buying furniture, I will find a moving company to move next week!"

Elaine panicked and said, "No! If you don't talk about furniture, you can't move it!"

"What are you talking about?" Jacob frowned and asked, "I buy the furniture we use ourselves. What else can I say?"

"I...I..." Elaine said in a panic: "I don't want to buy it! If you want to buy it, you can buy it yourself!"

Jacob blurted out: "What nonsense are you talking about, how can I have the money to buy furniture? My son-in-law gave me the money for my dinner party!"

"What?!" Elaine blew up all of a sudden, blurted out: "Charlie, where did you get the 20,000?!"

Charlie said: "Private money."

"Private money?" Elaine said annoyedly: "If you eat in our house, live in our house, and use our house, you still dare to hide your private money?! Say, how much private house money you have, all will be kept by me! "

Elaine is now insane and desperate to make money. Hearing that Charlie has private money, she immediately became greedy!

Charlie said indifferently at this time: "Mom, I didn't save much money for my private house. I just occasionally showed people to see Feng Shui and made some money. Didn't this I bought two BMWs? I don't have much money anymore. ."

Elaine hurriedly asked, "How much money do you have?"

Charlie shrugged: "Maybe there is less than 10,000, seven or eight thousand!"

"Give it to me!" Elaine blurted out: "You are not allowed to save a penny of private money in the future!"

Claire couldn't see it anymore, and said coldly, "Mom, why do you always bully Charlie for! It's not easy for him to save some money, and it's just a little bit in total. You still wonder if you have More than two million?!"

Elaine was speechless.

How can she have more than two million?

So she could only say angrily: "Well, let's move when the time comes. Let's move the old furniture in our house and use it first!"

"Huh?" Jacob was stunned, and said, "Do you know how big the villa is? There are three floors above ground and two floors underground. The total area is more than 1,000 square meters. There are more than 100 points in our house. Put this piece of furniture in. What does it show?"

With that, Jacob pointed to his own fabric sofa and said: "Just put this broken sofa in a living room of the boss of Tomson. What's the matter? Wouldn't it be an ant riding an elephant?"

Elaine was very guilty and made strong words: "You know what a bullsh*t? This saves money! Otherwise, just buy some furniture and appliances for the villa, and it will cost more than one million! Spending so much money is just for vanity? People can't live their lives!"

Jacob was stunned...

He has vanity? He can't live? What face does Elaine have to say to him like this?

Chapter 756

At this time, Claire was also about to collapse.

On the one hand, her father is about to divorce, and mother is about to commit suicide. In the meantime, mother can still have a big quarrel on the balcony with a person who's voice she can only hear and does not know who it is, and the quarrel is so unbearable...

Jacob was also a little flustered.

He knew that Elaine's fighting power was fierce, but he didn't expect her to be so fierce...

If he insists on divorcing her, will she stay in front of him for the rest of his life and curse?

What is the difference between such a life and h*ll?

Thinking of this, Jacob sighed in his heart, secretly thinking that today's marriage might not be possible.

Even if he can leave, Old Willson still dare not leave in his heart...

After Elaine cursed the street on the balcony and victoriously opened the flag, he wanted to open it too.

After thinking for a few minutes on the balcony, she climbed down again, patted the dust on her body, walked back to the house and said to Jacob, "Jacob, you can get a divorce, and the house belongs to me. Give me 50,000 a month for living expenses. , You are not allowed to move to Tomson with us, you will leave the house alone and find a way to live by yourself!"

Jacob was mad and blurted: "Why? You are the sinner in this family! It is you, not me, who should go out of the house!"

Elaine sternly said: "Want to drive me away? There are no doors! I definitely won't leave. By then, I will live in the villa of Tomson's!"

"Why are you so shameless!" Jacob is going crazy, what's the matter? Just now, the initiative was still in his own hands, why would he be eaten by Elaine again when he turned his face?

Elaine gave it up right now and said disdainfully: "I'm just shameless! What can you do? I tell you, if you want to divorce me, then I won't make you feel better. The Lady Willson is not afraid of wearing shoes. If you don't believe me, try it!"

"You..." Jacob's aggrieved tears rolled in his eyes.

Charlie couldn't help sighing when he saw this.

It seems that Jacob has lost again in this wave.

The key is that the loser is uncomfortable!

Seeing Jacob's fierce attack, he was about to push up the opponent's high ground and hit the road. In the end, he did not expect that the opponent would directly rise up, rush to tear down his base, and complete a beautiful counter-kill... .

Loss! Lost to grandma's house...

Charlie couldn't help feeling extremely sorry.

Jacob was really persuaded at this time. He didn't know what to do at once, and he was in a dilemma.

Get a divorce, it may be a real clean-up, and this Lady Willson may be like a dog, chasing him and biting for the rest of his life;

Let's not leave, this is really uncomfortable, and the desire to die is all there...

At this moment, Claire hurriedly opened the mouth to complete the battle, saying: "Mom and dad, don't quarrel with you. The past is over. Can't we live a good life in the future? You both step back, and mom will not worry about the money, and play less mahjong. Dad, you manage the money, but don't talk about the previous things."

Jacob said with a sad face, "I will be in charge of the money in the future? Where is the money from this family you want me control..."

Chapter 757

When Elaine saw Jacob a little bit about to compromise at this time, she hurriedly changed her compliment and said, "Oh my husband, our family will definitely be able to make money in the future! From now on, the company will make money. She will give it to us. All the money will be kept by you, and you will be in charge of the financial power of our family in the future, okay?"

Jacob felt a little relieved when he heard this.

Thinking that if he head-to-head with Elaine, he might not be able to get a bargain, so he simply borrowed the donkey from the slope, which was considered a default solution.

Elaine thought to herself, Jacob, I can't help mother?

Now she has no money, so on the surface, if he is in charge of financial power, he is just a hollow shell.

As long as she has money from now on, she will definitely bring back the financial power!

Thinking of this, she was very proud, and quickly coaxed Jacob and said, "My husband, you are so kind. I will cook tomorrow by myself and make your favorite braised prawns with oil!"

Seeing that the two had passed this hurdle safely, Claire was relieved, but Charlie was full of regrets.

This Old Master, was really awkward to death, and it was for the sake of being so close, and it was really hopeless to be able to provoke again.

Regardless, it is his own life anyway, since he chooses to continue to suffer in dire straits, let him go.

When the farce ended, Charlie and Claire went back to the room with their own thoughts.

In the room, Claire immediately showed a sad face.

Charlie hurriedly asked: "Wife. What's wrong with you?"

Claire shook her head, sighed, and said, "My mother really makes me helpless, more than two million, if you don't have it, it will be gone, hey..."

Charlie comforted: "My wife, if you are worried about money, don't take it too seriously. the money could be earned."

Claire said: "I'm not worried about money, I'm worried about people, you say my mother is really uneasy!"

Charlie said helplessly: "There is no way, what kind of mother is she, you know better than me."

Claire nodded and sighed, "It's because I'm clear that I have no choice. I can see that my mother hasn't really regretted it at all. When dad is gone, she must be the same again."

Charlie comforted her and said, "Don't think about it so much now, you are busy with your affairs, don't worry too much about family affairs, parents are not young anymore, they are adults, and they can find a way for their own affairs. Can solve it."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "As for Tomson's purchase of furniture and home appliances, I will find a way."

"Huh?" Claire asked in surprise: "What can you do?"

Charlie said: "I happened to have another feng shui job in the past two days. I should be able to make a fortune. Then I can just use it to buy furniture and home appliances, and then we can move in."

Claire said with some worry: "I'm just afraid that you will always show you Feng Shui. What if you are not optimistic one day and provoke others? After all, they are all decent figures."

Charlie said with a smile: "I don't show people the feng shui indiscriminately. Generally, after reading it, it does have a certain effect. You can just say that the Song family's father Song, someone can make the Song family more than 100 billion in assets. What a great person is this? I think if Feng Shui is really ineffective, how can people believe me?"

Claire hesitated for a moment, nodded lightly, and said: "It makes sense."

Immediately, Claire said again: "You must not lie, don't cause trouble, don't be like my mother, understand?"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "My wife, don't worry! I know it in my heart."

Chapter 758

"Yeah." Claire said, "I'll take a shower."

.....

When Charlie and Claire were already laying down and preparing to rest, a heavy helicopter screamed over the city of Suzhou.

The Wu family, father and son, spent two hours on the helicopter, and finally arrived over the Wu family's top luxury villa in Suzhou.

The whole family was waiting on the big lawn of the villa at this time. The family already knew what happened to them in Aurous Hill. At this time, they all wanted to come over to meet and comfort them.

Wu Qi also followed his mother at this time, waiting on the side of the lawn.

Regnar and Roger on the plane, as the plane continued to descend, they also saw their relatives waiting on the ground. Both were in tears.

The experience in Aurous Hill was like purgatory, which caused great suffering for both of them.

Now that they finally returned home, they were naturally filled with emotion!

When the plane landed and the door opened, Wu's servants hurriedly helped the father and son and Jones Zizhou and other five people to get off the plane.

Seeing that both father and son had broken their legs, Roger even broke his hand. Both father and son cried and blushed, and the whole Wu family was shocked.

They have not yet figured out why the eldest son and grandson of the Wu family went to Aurous Hill to become so miserable, like having experienced a catastrophe...

When everyone saw the words on the foreheads of the five Jones Zizhou, they were all dumbfounded!

When Wu Qi saw the words "Wu Qi loves to eat sh!t" engraved on one of them's foreheads, he suddenly went crazy, rushed up and kicked him on his stomach, yelling, "Bad son, you What is written on his forehead?! Bring me a knife quickly, and I will cut off all the flesh on his forehead!"

The man cried and said, "Mr. Wu this is all carved by Aurous Hill Orvel! And he carved it very hard, it has been carved on the forehead..."

Regnar also hurriedly said: "Wu Qi, don't be impulsive! These five people and the words on their foreheads can't move!"

"Can't move?!" Wu Qi was mad and cursed: "Why can't move? He engraved the words "I eat sh!t" on his forehead! This is humiliating me!"

Regnar said: "The Wade Family's spokesperson said, we can't hurt them, don't neglect them, let alone get rid of the words on their foreheads, otherwise, the Wade Family will not let us go!"

"Wade Family?!" Everyone present was dumbfounded.

Wu Qi was also shocked.

When he was not attacking, he was a normal person, so he knew how powerful the Eastcliff Wade family was, and he was not the object of the Wu family to provoke.

It's just that he can't figure it out, why did the Wade family of Eastcliff target the Wu family? What did the Wu family do wrong?

When Regnar wife saw this, she stepped forward and said with red eyes: "Husband, the video on YouTube is too insulting. they describes me as a woman who can do her best. I...I"

Regnar held his wife in his arms distressedly, and said helplessly: "My wife, I worked hard on YouTube, but I didn't expect that Eastcliff Wade's family bought YouTube directly, and put the video on top. There's no way, but you shouldn't be too serious about it, after all, it's all nonsense, and anyone with a brain knows it's not true."

After speaking, Regnar said again: "Don't worry, I have sent someone to chase down these two video-recording dogs, they probably won't survive tonight!"

Regnar's younger brother, Dongjiang said with a distressed expression: "Brother, go and see dad. After a heart attack, he can no longer get up. He's lying in intensive care unit."

Regnar hurriedly said: "Quickly, someone will support me, hurry up and let me have a look!"

Chapter 759

At this time, the Old Master of the Wu family was already lying in the intensive care unit of his mansion.

Important indicators such as electrocardiogram, blood pressure, and blood oxygen are monitored all the time. In order to prevent the Old Master's body from getting worse, he even is specially infused nutrient solution and inhaled oxygen.

The video on YouTube really irritated Mr. Wu. In addition, he was old and his anti-strike ability was not so strong, so he caught it all at once, almost out of breath for a myocardial infarction.

When Regnar brought Roger, Wu Qi, and his younger brother Dongjiang to the intensive care unit, the Old Master was lying in bed angrily cursing.

"Two filthy dog things, dare to humiliate my Wu family openly, really d*mn it! If you don't kill these two dog things, my Wu family will definitely be laughed at in Aurous Hill all the year round! The majesty of my first family in Aurous Hill is also There will be nothing left!"

Regnar called the courage when he saw the Old Master's heart rate, he limped forward and blurted out: "Dad! You are like this, so don't get angry!"

"You rubbish!" When Mr. Wu saw Regnar, he scolded, "I asked you to go to Aurous Hill to find out who harmed Wu Qi. It's good for you. You shamed Wu family's face!"

Regnar said dejectedly: "Dad, this time I went to Aurous Hill, it was too far from what I expected. I never thought that someone in Aurous Hill could use their own efforts to abolish Jones Zizhou and the five others; I didn't expect to accidentally offend Wade's Home, being completely crushed by the Wade Family, I can't help it..."

As he said, he pointed to his right leg, and pointed to the right leg of his son Roger, and said sadly, "Dad, both of my legs and Roger's legs have been scrapped, and Roger's hands have been scrapped. You really think I want to do this to myself? It's just that we really can't afford to offend the Wade Family in Eastcliff. Even if the Wade Family takes the lives of us father and son, we will not be able to resist!"

Elder Wu gave a cold snort and said, "If I didn't think you had been injured, I would have gotten up and beat you personally!"

Regnar could only knelt on the ground with a puff, and said ashamed: "Dad! It is Regnar who is not doing things badly. I lost the face of the Wu family. Please punish me!"

Old Master Wu said with a black face: "I ask you, are those two b@stards killed?"

"Not yet." Regnar said hurriedly: "I have arranged for someone to go there. I believe they can find them soon and kill them!"

Elder Wu said: "After they are killed, the media must report the deaths of these two people, so that the whole Aurous Hill must know, offending the Wu family's fate!"

Regnar nodded quickly: "Don't worry, Dad, I will definitely get this thing done!"

Elder Wu asked again: "Did you delete the video on YouTube?"

"Deleted..." Regnar didn't dare to say that YouTube had been bought by the Wade family, for fear that the Old Master would get angry.

Elder Wu gave a hum and said, "Remember what I said, I want those two b@stards to die! Within 24 hours, they must die!"

Regnar hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Dad, I will do as you ordered!"

Elder Wu's expression eased a little, looking at Roger, he said distressedly: "Roger, this time you went to Aurous Hill, you have suffered."

It is not Ragnar or his brother Dongjiang that the Old Master loves most, but his eldest grandson Roger.

Seeing Roger's current tragic situation, he was really distressed deep in his heart.

Chapter 760

Roger also knew that grandpa spoiled him since he was a child. When he heard this, he burst into tears, but he still wiped away his tears firmly, saying, "Grandpa, don't worry about me. I can hold it, but you, definitely Take care of yourself!"

Like Mr. Song, Mr. Wu is also the face of the Wu family.

Moreover, Mr. Wu's contacts in Aurous Hill are very wide. Many people in business, politics and even the gray world have to give him face. This is not only because of his high qualifications, but also because he has very close and direct relationships with many people. Everyone has been helped by him.

If Elder Wu is gone, these people will certainly not give the Wu family the same face as before. By that time, the Wu family's influence will inevitably drop a lot.

In addition, Mr. Wu is quite shrewd. He did not hold the power when he was old. He passed the Patriarchy to Ragnar early and retreated behind the scenes. In this way, he would not occupy the power of the Wu family for a long time. , And disgusted by descendants

Therefore, the Wu family all hope that the father can live a long and healthy life.

Seeing that the father's mood stabilized slightly, everyone hurriedly said goodbye.

Once out of the surveillance ward, Ragnar confessed to his brother Dongjiang, saying: "Dongjiang, you go and tell everyone in the family, including servants and drivers, to never have a notifications section on the phone. Otherwise, if he finds out, it won't look good!"

"Okay brother!" Dongjiang nodded hurriedly, and then said: "Brother, you and Roger's legs must be treated quickly, the doctor is already waiting!"

Regnar and Roger's legs have not yet been treated, and the family doctor is waiting for them to be treated.

However, after a doctor's examination, they found that the knees of the Regnar and his son had been completely broken and there was no possibility of recovery.

So he said to the two of them: "Mr. Wu, young master, the situation of the knee is not optimistic now. I think the best solution is to order an artificial knee joint and then perform an operation for replacement."

Regnar hurriedly asked: "How much influence will the artificial knee joint have?"

The doctor said: "After all, it won't be natural, and will be a little uncomfortable at least, but at least you will not be lame, you can bend, stand, walk, and at most a little lame and cannot run."

Regnar's expression was indifferent.

This result is in line with his psychological expectations, and his idea is still realistic, as long as he doesn't really become a cripple with a broken leg.

Roger was very sad and cried, "Dad, I'm only in my twenties, and I don't want to be a lame!"

Regnar patted him on the shoulder, and said earnestly: "Son, you are in your twenties, and you have to learn to face the reality. It is difficult for your knees to return to their original state. This is not a question of money, but the level of medical care. The question, what can you do if you don't want it? You should think about it a little bit and focus on how to get revenge."

"Vengeance..." Roger blurted out: "Yes! we must take revenge! we must smash that Charlie's body! Then take Warnia over to marry! Even if she disagrees, use a gun forcing her to marry!"

Regnar nodded with a cold face, and said, "I have already thought about it. This Charlie has extraordinary strength, and is supported by many people from the Song family and Aurous Hill. If you want to kill him, you must not be impatient, and you have to plan to move. Slowly!"

Roger hurriedly asked: "Dad, do you have any good solutions?"

Regnar said: "Our previous problem was that we underestimated the enemy, were too aggressive, and we rushed out without knowing the opponent, so we suffered a big loss. This time, I am going to first understand from the outside and figure out what forces Charlie has. How strong, and how many enemies he has, and then touch his weaknesses to figure out all of these. We are targeting and prescribing the right medicine. We must make him unable to resist!"

Chapter 761

The Wu family quickly released a new family motto:

Anyone who enters or leaves Wu's house, no matter who it is, must not have the YouTube app in their mobile phone. Once discovered, they will be punished severely!

Of course, the Wu family followed this family motto very much, because the YouTube had a video insulting their family on top. Even if they asked them to watch it, they didn't want to watch it.

However, everyone in the family complained.

They just work in Wu's family, and they don't have the name Wu, and they don't feel uncomfortable with the video at the top.

Moreover, on the contrary, everyone felt that this video looked particularly cool! Special relief!

This is mainly because working in Wu's family is subject to stricter restrictions and controls. Everyone lives in a state of high pressure and is very depressed.

The Wu family has always been strict with subordinates, and there are many rules and regulations for subordinates in the family law. It can be said that they will be beaten, scolded and even punished at every turn.

Therefore, now they see someone scolding the Wu family so much on YouTube, they still feel pretty good!

When Regnar and Roger were undergoing knee trauma treatment, Wu Qi withdrew from the treatment room because he couldn't bear to look at their bloody knees.

At this time, Wu Qi felt particularly contradictory in her heart.

Before today, he was living in pain all the time.

The dignified second young master of Wu's family eats sh!t every hour. This makes people all over the country laugh out loud and makes them miserable.

Especially every time after eating sh!t, the moment his consciousness recovers, he is extremely painful.

However, just now, seeing the way his father and brother had their legs broken, he suddenly felt that the whole person seemed a lot easier.

This feeling is strange, but also very realistic.

It's like, at first, he was the only one who didn't wear clothes on the street, so he was very cramped and panicked, but suddenly, there were two more people who didn't wear clothes, and he felt less panicked.

Feeling relaxed for a while, Wu Qi rarely wants to drink two glasses.

The Wu Family Villa occupies a huge area, like a palace of its own. It not only has living spaces, but also medical, fitness, leisure and entertainment places.

Wu Qi left the consulting room and went to the bar.

When passing by the door of a bathroom specially used by the subordinates, he suddenly heard a familiar voice coming from inside.

After listening carefully, Wu Qi couldn't help but become angry!

In this bathroom, someone is listening to the cross talk of Liu Guang and his son!

And, unfortunately, he just heard Liu Guang and his son mocking his own poop!

Wu Qi suddenly became angry!

d*mn, I said that YouTube is not allowed to be downloaded and used, so why is someone watching this video secretly? Really looking for death!

Thinking of this, Wu Qi slammed open the door of the bathroom. On the toilet seat was a middle-aged man in his 40s. This man Wu Qi knew, and he was one of the Wu family drivers!

The other party didn't think that the second young master would suddenly break in. He was still holding a mobile phone in his hand, and a cross talk of Liu Guang and Liu Ming was still on the phone.

Wu Qi scolded angrily: "You watch this kind of video at Wu's house, are you looking for death? I will kill you b@stard!"

Chapter 762

After that, he rushed forward and punched and kicked the driver!

The driver was beaten and yelled, but he didn't dare to fight back. He could only stretch out his arms to block. At the end of the block, he couldn't hold him anymore, and he didn't care about wiping his butt. He just lifted his pants and ran out.

Wu Qi scolded: "Dog b@stard, let me see where you go! I must interrupt your leg today!"

After speaking, he was about to catch up, and suddenly felt dizzy in brain.

At this moment, Wu Qi wailed in his heart, it was over...

He knew that he had another attack!

Immediately afterwards, Wu Qi lost consciousness for an instant, and his eyes were on the filthy thing left in the toilet by the driver. His eyes lit up, without saying a word, he squatted on the ground and reached out to grab it, grabbing it and gobbled it up. Stuffed all of it in his mouth...

A few people here saw the driver running out of the bathroom with his pants, wondering what was going on. When they went to the bathroom, they saw that Wu Qi was squatting in front of the toilet and having a good meal, all of them vomited.

One of them hurriedly yelled: "Quick, quick, stop the Second Young Mr.. The Second Young Mr. eats a pressure cooker for high-temperature sterilization stuff. He can't eat this fresh, and will get sick!"

The crowd vomited, and they dragged Wu Qi out of the bathroom.

Wu Qi had a seizure and the six relatives did not recognize him. Seeing that these people prevented him from enjoying the "food", he immediately yelled: "b*stard, let me go quickly, or I will kill you!"

This opening, the stinking smell is so bad, the key is to spray a group of subordinates with sc*m on their faces, and the disgusting group of subordinates can't wait to die.

Seeing that something was wrong here, other people hurried up to greet him. A servant who was holding Wu Qi tightly yelled: "Go get the high-voltage cabinet for the young master to sterilize it! Hurry up!"

"Oh oh oh!" The man turned his head quickly and ran back.

Everyone knows that Wu Qi has a seizure, and it is impossible to stop without eating, so he can only quickly get him a sterile "supper" that has been sterilized.

Knowing that Wu Qi had a sudden attack, and was in the bathroom, and ate something left by a driver, Wu's family suddenly became a mess again.

.....

At this time in Aurous Hill, the mist in the middle of the night is gradually covering the ancient city.

Ten seven-seater commercial vehicles drove quickly into Aurous Hill City and stopped in front of Liu Guang's house.

These ten cars were full of people and they drove over from Suzhou to take the lives of Liu Guang, Liu Ming.

These seventy people surrounded Liu Guang's house to death, and when they rushed in, they discovered that the house was empty!

The leader beat his chest and said: "d*mn, the dog and son ran away!"

"Boss, what should we do?!"

The man said distressedly: "If they were at home, they will be slaughtered right now and return to President Wu, but once they are not at home, they may be anywhere! Aurous Hill has a population of millions of people, where are 70 of us going? Looking for it?"

"What should we do then?" The other party asked, "Why don't you call Mr. Wu first? Otherwise, Mr. Wu feels that we are not doing things badly. If we do something badly, it will be troublesome!"

"Yes!" The headed person immediately called Regnar.

Regnar just dealt with the injury on his knee and waited for the transplant operation after the customized knee joint arrived. He suddenly received a call and immediately connected to question: "Have you killed Liu Guang and Liu Ming, these two dog b@stards?! "

"Mr. Wu..." the leader said embarrassingly: "Mr. Wu, Liu Guang's family has already gone out of the building. I took a look. They should have been rushed to pack up and leave. It should have not been too late. For a long time, only two or three hours."

"d*mn!" When Regnar heard this, he was furious and blurted out: "Find them! Even if you find them at ends of the world, you must get these two b@stards and kill them for me!"

Chapter 763

Seventy people from Suzhou began a carpet search in Aurous Hill.

However, they could not find any clues about Liu Guang and Liu Ming.

In fact, the current Liu Guang family had already drove away from Aurous Hill, and was galloping north in the dark.

It is easy to catch a fish in the washbasin, but it is really difficult to find this fish accurately in the lake!

In the night, Liu Ming was driving, and the luxurious Mercedes-Benz car ran all the way. Liu Guang's cell phone suddenly rang.

It was Liu Guang's neighbor who called. The two have a good relationship and often go out to eat, drink and have fun together.

Before Liu Guang left, he called him and asked him to help pay attention to movement. So now he called suddenly, Liu Guang guessed that there should be some movement at home.

Sure enough, as soon as he got on the phone, the other party lowered his voice and said, "Liu Guang, dozens of people came to surround your house just now, and the group of people quietly got in!"

"Several dozens of people?!" Liu Guang exclaimed and blurted out: "What about now?"

"They just came out and left." The other party said: "It looks like it's not easy to give up..."

Liu Guang gave a hum and said, "I know Jones, thank you!"

"Why are you polite with me!"

After hanging up the phone, Liu Guang said with a cold face: "Sure enough, the Wu family sent someone to kill us! It is said that they sent dozens of people, sh!t, really ruthless!"

Liu Ming blurted out, "Dad, shouldn't they find us?"

Liu Guang waved his hand: "Impossible. China is such a big country. Where can he find us? Let's not stop the car tonight. We will drive directly to Eastcliff Airport. Tomorrow, we will buy the earliest plane and fly directly to Malaysia. When we get there, we will be anonymous. Tian lives in his own manor and is a rich man. The Wu family will never even think of finding us for the rest of their lives!"

Tears burst into Liu Ming's eyes and said, "Dad, when we go to Malaysia, I don't have to talk to Orvel at five o'clock every week. We should be able to get rid of the engraved characters on our foreheads?"

"Yes!" Liu Guang touched the dry and solidified scar on his forehead, and said depressedly: "The engraving enmity, I am afraid that there will be no chance to repay..."

.....

The Song family mansion at this time is still a brightly lit scene.

Mr. Song wore a white Tai Chi practice suit and played Tai Chi in the yard against the cold wave.

Although the weather has cooled down and the Old Master is only wearing thin clothes, he does not feel cold at all, but is sweating!

The Old Master's three sons, several grandsons, and granddaughter all gathered around the courtyard to watch.

Honor became more surprised as he watched. He didn't expect this Rejuvenation Pill to be so magical. Not only did it make the Old Master younger and his body tougher, but more importantly, even the whole person's mental outlook was completely different!

Who would dare to imagine that the Old Master who was about to die a few months ago is so lively now!

He has been punching for more than two hours, so he should be tired when he is a young man!

However, he didn't feel tired at all.

On the contrary, the more he fight, the more vigorous.

This is not a good signal!

If you look at it this way, the Old Master's body is so hard, it won't be a big problem for another ten or twenty years.

Chapter 764

Tianming Song, Honor's father, was also stunned at the side, he was even more depressed than Honor.

When a prince, what he fear most is that king father will live too long.

The princes cannot wait for so long. Sometimes in impatience they will have to take some reckless options.

Now Father Song still holds the power of the Song family, the longer he lives, the more sad he will be?

If he lives for more than ten years and he will be in his seventies and eighties, how can he have any chance to become the Patriarch of the Song Family?

Maybe even, he might die before him...

Thinking of this, Tianming felt extremely depressed.

Warnia on the side, seeing that grandpa's body and spirit are much better, she feels very happy.

Seeing that the Old Master was a little tired after playing for so long, Warnia hurriedly handed over the prepared towel and said, "Grandpa, come here tonight, let's call again tomorrow."

"Okay!" Mr. Song nodded excitedly, took the towel and wiped his sweat, and sighed: "I had never thought that when I was about to die in this life, I could get such a chance. I am extremely grateful to Mr. Wade... .."

With that, Mr. Song said to Warnia again: "Warnia, you have to pay close attention to the matter between you and Mr. Wade. Grandpa's biggest wish now is to see you and Mr. Wade together!"

When Warnia heard this, her face immediately turned red.

Tianming said at this time: "Dad, Warnia and Mr. Wade, please think twice!"

"Think twice?" Mr. Song asked back: "Don't you see that Mr. Wade has the ability to reach the sky, he is a true dragon on earth? If you had a daughter, I am afraid that you would also dream of wanting to recruit Mr. Wade into the house as a son-in-law! "

Tianming said awkwardly: "Dad, what you said is correct, but the key is that Mr. Wade is already married. You ask Warnia to pursue Mr. Wade. Didn't this encourage Warnia to intervene?"

When Warnia heard the third party intervene in such words, her face was immediately a little embarrassed.

She also knew that Charlie was already married, and she was always rushing to get close to him. It was indeed a bit inappropriate. Now that the uncle said that, it was naturally even more embarrassing.

Elder Song snorted coldly at this time, and said, "You know what a bullsh*t? Mr. Wade and the girl from the Willson family are simply famous and inaccurate. In that case, what should we worry about?"

After finishing speaking, Mr. Song simply ignored him and said to Warnia, "Warnia, don't care what other people think. If you also like Mr. Wade, just let go and pursue."

Warnia pursed her mouth and did not speak, obviously feeling a little uncomfortable in her heart.

Elder Song saw her thoughts, turned his head and glared at Tianming, and said coldly: "From today, no one is allowed to say that Mr. Wade is married, otherwise, don't blame me for being unwelcome!"

When Tianming heard this, he hurriedly bowed and said, "Dad, I'm sorry, I was the one who talked too much!"

"Huh, you know it!" Old Song snorted dissatisfiedly, and immediately said to Warnia, "Warnia, you can make an appointment with Mr. Wade for me tomorrow. I would like to invite him to dinner and thank him for giving me a rejuvenation pill. Great kindness, I will prepare a one-billion-cash card at that time, as my little care, and give it to Mr. Wade during the meal."

The rest of the Song family were shocked!

Billion in cash? !

The cash flow of the entire Song family is only about 3 billion. The Old Master is going to take out one-third of the cash flow of the family and give it to Charlie?

Both Tianming and Honor's eyes burst into flames.

The cash in hand of the father and son may not add up to three to five billion, the Old Master wants to give Charlie one billion now?

Chapter 765

Early the next morning.

Claire ate early and went to the company.

The Old Master, Jacob, had a dark face all morning, and he was full of gloom when he saw Elaine, and he was too lazy to care about her.

The thought of the family's savings of more than two million, which caused Elaine to lose completely, and Jacob was furious.

He doesn't have much money himself, this little money is accumulated by his family for many years.

And the money he earned from dumping antiques has now been wiped out.

Jacob even felt that he should come back out of the world, go to the antique street, pick up a leak, and then find Ervin Jones to sell it.

Elaine seemed a little guilty of conscience when she woke up early in the morning, so she smiled at Jacob, but Jacob still ignored her.

Seeing her hot face pressed her cold a, Elaine is now not daring to be angry and afraid to speak, so she can only point her finger at Charlie and said angrily: "Hey, Charlie, you are idle at home. Use your feng shui and so on, flicker some money back to buy furniture for the house! Otherwise, how can we move to Tomson?"

Charlie said lightly: "I will try my best."

Elaine pinched her waist and said, "As far as you can, you have to make money back!"

Jacob said dissatisfiedly: "Why are you bluffing? Charlie made a great contribution to the family. Unlike you, you not only didn't make a penny, but you spent a lot of money, and even lost money. This family, we All three are positive numbers, and you are the only negative number! And your negative number is very negative, so you cancel out all our positive numbers in one go!"

"You..." Elaine flushed with anger.

She wanted to question Jacob. She was bluffing at Charlie. What does it have to do with him? Jacob is amazing now. Not only does he dare to yell at her and beat her, but also dare to stand up for Charlie?

This lady now, is the one with the lowest status in this family? She thought nothing can work, right?

While Elaine was holding the fire, Charlie's cell phone rang.

Warnia called.

After the phone was connected, Warnia said respectfully on the other end of the phone: "Mr. Wade, are you busy?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Nothing is busy, what's the matter?"

"That's it." Warnia said: "Grandpa is very grateful for the Rejuvenatingdan thing. He would like to treat you to a meal. I wonder if you have time?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Didn't I just ate it yesterday? You want me to have it again today?"

Warnia said: "Yesterday was a birthday banquet. Today I want to invite you to dinner alone. I don't know if you have time?"

Charlie thought for a while, and asked, "What time?"

Warnia hurriedly said, "It depends on what time is convenient for you."

Charlie said: "Then at noon."

"Good!" Warnia said hurriedly: "I asked Mr. Orvel to clear the Classic Mansion in advance and wait for you in the Diamond Box at noon!"

Charlie said, "See you at noon, then."

"Okay Mr. Wade, see you at noon!"

After hanging up the phone, Charlie said to Elaine and Jacob, "Dad, Mom, I have something to do at noon, and I can't cook at home. You two should go out to eat or order a takeaway."

Elaine blurted out, "What is it? Go out to eat or order takeaway? You are so good now, you don't even make meals?!"

Charlie said lightly: "A client asked me to see Feng Shui. He is a rich boss."

Chapter 766

"Huh?!" Elaine asked in surprise: "A big boss asks you to see Feng Shui?"

"En." Charlie nodded and said, "I'll go at noon."

"Great!" Elaine got excited and blurted out: "Hurry up! Go for more money, and it's best to make all the money for our furniture in one step!"

Charlie said, "I will try my best."

In fact, Charlie had already made up his mind. He will take out two million from his card, and then said that he made it for people to show Feng Shui, and used the money to buy furniture.

He also didn't want his wife to live in this dilapidated house all the time, and to live here, separated from Elaine by a wall, and shared a bathroom, not to mention how annoying she was.

If they move to the villa, he will live on the first floor with wife, and let Elaine and Jacob live on the ground floor, then they can stop a lot.

Therefore, he just pretended that he was going to show people Feng Shui. In fact, he had already thought about it. After having dinner with Mr. Song, he would go directly to the bank to apply for a new card, transfer two million in, and then hand the money to his wife. Or Jacob.

In short, it must not be handed over to Elaine, a prodigal gambler.

Otherwise, she is likely to get the money and immediately go to the beauty salon to charge her 200,000 balance for face and body use.

At eleven o'clock, Warnia drove out of the community.

She respectfully called Charlie and told him that she has arrived and asked him to reach downstairs.

At the gate of the community, Warnia got off the car respectfully and opened the door for him. After he got in the car, she said to him: "Mr. Wade, Grandpa has already gone to Classic Mansion to wait for you in advance, let's go there too."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and smiled: "Thanks for your hard work, for coming here to pick me up."

Warnia was a little shy, and said with a blushing face: "This is what I should do."

Charlie smiled slightly and said nothing.

.....

Classic Mansion at this time.

Accompanied by two bodyguards, Mr. Song stepped into the door.

He invited Charlie to dinner today. He didn't bring the descendants of the Song family. Apart from the report, he brought Warnia alone.

When Mr. Orvel heard that Mr. Song had arrived, he hurriedly greeted him and said respectfully: "Mr Song, I'm really sorry. The person under the supervision of the diamond box just now arranged the arrangement, but I couldn't meet you in time."

Old Master Song looked at Mr. Orvel, suddenly surprised.

Mr. Orvel in front of him was actually much younger than he looked at yesterday's birthday party!

Could it be that he also got Mr. Wade's Rejuvenation Pill? !

Thinking of this, Mr. Song couldn't help but tremble and asked, "Mr. Orvel...you...you got the chance from Mr. Wade?!"

Mr. Orvel hurriedly nodded, and while reaching out to respectfully help Old Master Song, he said in a low voice, "Old Song, let me tell you, the Wu family sent someone to Classic Mansion last night and injured more than a dozen security guards. After my life, Mr. Wade appeared in time to save me and gave me a rejuvenation pill. Otherwise, even if I am alive now, I would still be a living dead!"

Mr. Song asked in surprise: "What's the situation? Why didn't I hear about it?"

Mr. Orvel sighed: "After the birthday banquet at noon yesterday, Mr. Wade said that his father-in-law would come to Classic Mansion to host a banquet at night. The father and son Liu Ming suddenly killed me with Regnar's five bodyguards and almost killed me! They also wanted to kill Mr. Wade's father-in-law! In fact, their real goal was Mr. Wade!"

"What?!" Mr. Song didn't pay attention to these things at all yesterday. He was immersed in the powerful effects of Rejuvenation Pill and couldn't extricate himself, and the others in the Song family also had their own thoughts, like Warnia, who was happy. However, Tianming and Honor were worried, and did not pay attention to what happened outside.

At this time, Father Song heard that Regnar was going to kill Mr. Wade, he was furious, and blurted out: "d*mn the Wu family!"

Having said that, he immediately said to a bodyguard next to him: "Speak out immediately, if the Wu family dared to touch a hair of Mr. Wade, my Song family will have the whole clan and fight to the end!"

Chapter 767

Before Charlie arrived at Classic Mansion, the Song family's statement had spread throughout Aurous Hill, and then spread throughout the upper class of Aurous Hill.

No one thought that the Song family, the first family in Aurous Hill, would openly challenge the Wu family, the first family in the south of the Yangtze River.

This is really a good show to watch.

When Tianming and Honor heard the news, they immediately exploded almost in situ.

What's wrong with Mr. Song?

Yesterday's birthday banquet, it doesn't matter if Mr. Song was angry with Ragnar. Everyone is a little unhappy in private, so they can talk about it later if they find a chance.

But now the Old Master openly challenged the Wu family, which is almost equivalent to publicly declaring a complete break with the Wu family, and may even become a mortal enemy!

Both the father and son think, what is the cause of the father's actions? Even if they want to curry favor with Charlie, there is no need to openly turn face with the Wu family, right? In this case, in the future, the Wu family may fight against the Song family everywhere.

Not only that, if the Old Master is doing this, Warnia and Roger are less likely to be together!

The Wu family was also very angry when they got the news.

Originally, the Wu family was enough to jump around, but now Father Song suddenly said that he would fight to the end with the Song family, which made the current situation of the Wu family even more uncomfortable.

The Wu family's current affairs were big enough for the Wu family, and suddenly they ran out of the Song family to sing the opposite, which naturally made the Wu family more irritable.

Elder Wu was still lying on the hospital bed. Ragnar ordered the whole family not to tell the father of the Song family's statement. At the same time, he also made a decision to ignore the Song family for the time being and not to respond to the Song family's statement.

Right now, the majesty of the Wu family has suffered a great deal.

Although it is still the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, the news that it has offended the Wade family of Eastcliff has already caused trouble in the city.

Before, the outside world didn't know who the Wu family had offended, only that YouTube kept putting cross talks that humiliated their family on the top of the homepage.

Today during the day, after the news of the Wade Family's acquisition of YouTube came out, the outside world immediately understood that it turned out that the Wu Family had offended the Wade Family!

The families that had a good relationship with the Wu family took the initiative to alienate them at this time, mainly because the Wade family was too strong, and no one wanted to be too close to the Wu family at this time.

As a result, the Wu family suddenly fell into a passive position, and even because many families had to draw a clear line with them, their overall strength was also affected.

At this time, the Wu family had no energy to fight against the Song family, after all, they still had a bigger enemy, Charlie.

.....

Warnia drove to Classic Mansion, and Orvel hurried out to greet her.

Seeing Charlie tall and handsome, Warnia beautiful and generous, Orvel couldn't help but admire in his heart: This is the appearance of a golden girl and a talented girl! With Miss Song's beauty and education, looking at the whole country, there may not be anyone who can be compared!

Mr. Orvel respectfully invited Charlie and Warnia to the diamond box. The old and strong Song has been waiting here for a long time.

Seeing Charlie coming in, Mr. Song hurriedly got up and bowed, and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, you are here, please move to the main seat!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Mr. Song, you are the oldest, you should be on the main seat."

"How did you make it?" Old Song hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade is the real dragon in Song's eyes, and the main seat naturally belongs to him."

Chapter 768

Warnia also hurriedly said to the side: "Mr. Wade, Grandpa has always respected you, so just take the seat."

Charlie hesitated for a while, then nodded and said, "If this is the case, then it is better for me to be respectful."

After that, Charlie sat down on the main seat.

At this time, Orvel hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, Mr. Song, Miss Song, you three have a good dinner, I won't bother you too much!"

After all, Mr. Orvel carefully left the box.

With no other people in the box, Mr. Song took out a golden bank card from his Tailored suit pocket, raised his hands in front of Charlie respectfully, and said: "Mr. Wade, you gave me the opportunity yesterday, I am really grateful! If you don't want to report it, I prepared a bank card for you. There are billions of cash in this card. It is my little care for you. Please accept it."

Charlie glanced at the bank card and said, "Mr. Song, I am not short of money. You should take this card back."

Charlie was telling the truth.

He has more than 20 billion in cash, but now he has no chance to spend it.

Mr. Song insisted: "Mr. Wade, I know that you will not be a person short of money, but last time you bought the 300-year-old purple ginseng at a sky-high price of 100 million in cash. In the future, in case there are any good medicinal materials to be procured, in case you are a little nervous on hand and you miss a good thing, you will regret it if you want to, so please accept the money, and you can prepare for it."

In fact, Father Song gave Charlie money, he was a little selfish.

He knew that Charlie had taken the best purple ginseng to make a rejuvenating pill, and he was also drenched in the light of heaven, so he thought, give Charlie some more money, in case Charlie can buy more in the future. With good medicinal materials and refining better medicines, wouldn't he have a chance to get Mr. Wade's eyes again?

So he stood up, knelt on one knee, holding the bank card in his hands, and said: "Mr. Wade, Song has a little bit of care, please accept it, otherwise I will keep kneeling!"

Charlie hurriedly helped him up, smiled slightly, and said calmly: "If this is the case, then I will accept it."

"It's so good!" Mr. Song stood up with joy, and said to Charlie: "If Mr. Wade needs money in the future, or if there are other places where the Song family can help, just say it, I certainly will try my best to help you solve it!"

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Mr. Song you are so humble."

"Where is it!" Mr. Song said with great joy: "Song is fortunate to have the precious opportunity given by Mr. Wade, and naturally hopes that I can do more for Mr. Wade, and repay the kindness in the future!"

After that, Mr. Song hurriedly said: "By the way, Mr. Wade, the password for this card is Warnia's birthday, 951201."

Charlie looked at Warnia and asked curiously, "Warnia, is your birthday on December 1st?"

Warnia hurriedly stood up, bowed slightly, and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I was indeed born on December 1."

Charlie nodded and said, "Then it will be your birthday in less than a month."

"Yes." Warnia nodded nervously, and then asked tentatively: "Mr. Wade, I may want to hold a birthday dinner at that time, I wonder if you have time to attend it?"

After Warnia finished speaking, her eyes kept staring at Charlie's face, looking forward to Charlie's promise.

Charlie thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Since it's your birthday, then I'm naturally going to come to join you. You can tell me the location."

Warnia was overjoyed and hurriedly bowed, "Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Charlie said: "Warnia, you and I are about the same age, so we don't have to be so polite between us."

Warnia nodded lightly, and lightly said, "OK, Mr. Wade, I got it!"

Chapter 769

After dinner, Charlie declined Warnia's request to send him home, and said goodbye to her and Mr. Song in front of Classic Mansion, and walked to a construction bank near Classic Mansion.

When he came to China Construction Bank, he transferred 998 million from the card that Mr. Song gave him. After the money was transferred to his card, he had only 2 million left. With that card, he returned home.

At home, Jacob and Elaine had just eaten the takeaway.

Seeing him back, Elaine hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "Charlie, how did it go? Have you made any money?"

Charlie nodded and said lightly: "I made a little bit."

"What's the point?" Elaine blurted out: "Get all the money out!"

Charlie directly took out his bank card and said: "There are two million in this card."

"Two million?!" Elaine's eyes straightened!

Excited, she took the card into her hand and blurted out: "You are not lying to me, right? There are really two million in this card?"

"Right." Charlie said lightly: "I have checked on the ATM, and it is indeed two million."

"Great!" Elaine cheered excitedly!

Two million!

Wouldn't it be that he made up for the large sum of money she lost?

The thought of being able to go to a beauty salon with a friend, make an appointment with a mahjong friend, and even live in Tomson, Elaine was very excited.

She took the bank card in her hand and looked at it carefully for a moment. Only then did she recover and asked: "Does this card have a password?"

Charlie nodded and said: "There is a password, the password is..."

He was about to say what the password was, but Charlie suddenly came back to his senses.

Its not right!

Didn't Elaine say yesterday that Jacob will be in charge of the money in the future?

Why does she still have the face to ask him for a password?

Thinking of this, Charlie hurriedly turned his face and said to Jacob who was on the side: "Dad, didn't you say yesterday that you will keep all the money at home in the future?"

Jacob came back to his senses only then, suddenly, right! I am in charge of the money. I should control the two million!

So he hurriedly got up, walked up to Elaine in two steps, and said, "Give me the card."

Elaine subconsciously hid the card behind her, looked at Jacob cautiously, and asked, "What are you doing?"

Jacob said coldly: "You just said yesterday that I will be in charge of the money, so I must have the card?"

Elaine stammered and said, "I don't have one. I just want to confirm whether this card is what Charlie said, there are two million."

After that, she said again: "Honey, to be honest, you are a big man, it is difficult to manage the money in an orderly manner. Or you can see, let me take care of the money in this family, how about it?"

Jacob suddenly became angry and cursed: "Elaine, what you just said last night, you haven't even passed 24 hours, so you don't recognize your own words anymore?"

Elaine explained: "Oh, I really didn't mean that..."

"Then what do you mean?" Jacob said coldly: "I tell you, you don't want to control money in the future! If you insist on managing money, then we two will go through the divorce procedures immediately!"

Elaine was a little confused at once.

Although she wanted these two million very much, but Charlie didn't tell her password, it didn't make much sense to hold the card by herself, and she couldn't get the money.

So she could only pass the card to Jacob angrily, then turned her head and gave Charlie a vicious look.

Chapter 770

Charlie just pretended not to see her eyes, and quickly turned his face again, and said to Jacob: "Dad, this money will be used to buy furniture and home appliances. Buy it as soon as possible. After buying it, we can move in as soon as possible."

"OK, OK!" Jacob nodded, carefully put the card into his pocket, and asked Charlie: "Good son-in-law, what is the bank card password?"

Charlie said, "I will post it on WeChat later for you."

"It is good"! Jacob hurriedly said: "Then, I will go to the bank first. You will send me the password. I will transfer the money to my card. This money must be earmarked."

Charlie nodded, and said: "Then you go first, I'll send it to you later."

Elaine was furious.

What does Charlie mean? In front of her own face, he doesn't even want to say the password. Is this defending himself? What a jerrk!

Charlie was indeed guarding her. Elaine didn't have any ethics, and she might have secretly taken the money away, so it's better to be careful.

Jacob got dressed and went out. He received the password from Charlie when he was almost at the bank. After inserting the card in the ATM, he checked the card, and there were indeed two million in the card.

Seeing the actual balance figure on the ATM, Jacob was very surprised.

Charlie is really amazing! If he goes out to show others the feng shui, he will get two million?

If this is a little more of this kind of business, wouldn't he want to make a fortune?

Astonished, Jacob entered his bank account and transferred all the money in this card to his card.

Afterwards, he took out his mobile phone to check the mobile banking and found that the money had arrived, which was a relief.

When he was walking back, he suddenly received a WeChat message from Charlie. The content of the WeChat message was: "Dad, remember to change the phone unlocking password, mobile banking password, and payment password, otherwise it will easily go wrong!"

This made Jacob admire him even more!

Fortunately, son-in-law reminded him quickly, otherwise he would go back like this. As long as Elaine took a few minutes to get his mobile phone, she must have taken all the money away.

So he did not dare to delay, and hurriedly changed all the passwords, and replaced them with a new password that Elaine could not guess.

When Jacob returned home, Elaine hurried up and asked: "How are husband, is there really two million in bank?"

"Of course!" Jacob said arrogantly: "When did my son-in-law lie to me?"

Elaine asked hurriedly: "Those two million have been transferred to your card?"

"Yeah." Jacob nodded, not wanting to talk to her, and asked: "Where is Charlie?"

"He went out to buy groceries."

Jacob let out a cry and said, "I have to call my girl and say, tomorrow morning we will go to the furniture store to see the furniture."

Elaine hurriedly asked: "Then, after buying the furniture tomorrow, can we move in that day?"

Jacob said irritably, "If you buy so much furniture, you can't wait for someone to deliver it and install it? It will take two or three days."

Elaine smiled and said: "My husband knows a lot, I don't know these doorways. I thought I could live in on the same day you buy it!"

As she said, she hurried over, rubbed Jacob with her body, and said softly: "Husband, my friend and the others called me to go to the beauty salon for a spa, saying that it has a good effect on firming the body and lifting the skin. But I don't have any money in my hand. Why don't you transfer seven or eighty thousand to me first?"

"No!" Jacob resolutely refused: "What's going on at home, do you want to go to the spa? You are not the one who burns the bag!"

Elaine said aggrieved: "Husband, am I not for you too? Do you want me to become a yellow-faced woman?"

Jacob said coldly: "Do you think you used to run to the beauty salon every day, it was not a yellow-faced woman? In my eyes, you have always been a yellow-faced woman!"

Elaine's expression turned dark, and she blurted out, "Jacob, what do you mean?"

"Literally." Jacob snorted coldly, and said, "If you are not satisfied with me, we will get a divorce, and it will be over!"

Chapter 771

When Elaine heard Jacob mentioning divorce again, her anger exploded.

However, she did not vent her anger at all.

Because she knew that at this time she had to endure.

Who let her lose more than two million in gambling?

At this time, bear with it for a while, wait until she finds an opportunity, and then settle the account with Jacob.

Thinking of this, she sighed and said, "Husband, you are right. It is really too expensive to do a spa. I still save a little money for the family and don't do it."

Jacob's expression softened a little when he saw that she was quite on the road.

At this time, Jacob was a little proud.

For so many years, he haven't been able to suppress Elaine. Sometimes Elaine said something. If she raises different opinions, he would definitely have to scold Elaine.

But now, Elaine seems to have begun to compromise.

If Elaine could only serve him in front of her in the future, wouldn't he be a turned serf singing?

However, Jacob couldn't help being cautious.

This girl has been domineering all her life, can she really change it all at once?

Thinking of this, he was ready to try this woman!

So he said to Elaine, "I'll take a bath, and you can make me a cup of hot tea and bring it in."

Elaine asked in surprise: "What do you do for a bath in the afternoon?"

Jacob said: "I'm happy, can you manage it?"

Elaine gritted her teeth angrily, but after another thought, if he goes to take a bath, wouldn't she be able to use his mobile phone? Then she simply will transfer the two million to her card!

When the time comes, the money is in her own hands. What can Jacob pretend to do with her then? If the Lady Willson wants to make a face, she will make a face, if she wants to go to a spa, she will go to a spa, and she wants to play mahjong, it won't be impossible!

So Elaine immediately nodded, and said respectfully: "My husband, you work so hard every day, I will follow you in everything from now on! You go take a bath first, and I will make good tea for you and bring it in!"

"Yeah." Jacob arrogantly responded, with his hands behind his back, he swaggered back to the room.

After returning to the room, Jacob first took off his jacket and pants, and then threw the phone on the bed.

In order to make a mark, he specifically pulled a piece of hair from his head, then placed it on the top of the phone screen, and noted the position of the hair.

If Elaine came to pick up his mobile phone, it would be difficult to see clearly that there is a strand of hair falling on the black screen. If she picked it up easily, the strands of hair would definitely fall off, and he will know she was peeking at his mobile phone. .

It doesn't matter if Elaine has this anti-reconnaissance consciousness, she may not be able to remember the specific position of the hair, once it moves, it will definitely not be in the same place again.

When he comes back from the shower, he can check the location to determine if she has touched the phone!

After doing all this, Jacob hummed a small song to the bathroom, and Elaine soon brought him a cup of tea.

After entering, Elaine searched for Jacob's mobile phone with her eyes, and at the same time actively asked him if he wanted to wipe his back by her.

"No need, go out quickly, don't delay my bath!"

As Jacob said, he waved his hand directly, sending her out like a dog.

Elaine was not angry either.

Because she looked around in the bathroom and didn't see Jacob's mobile phone, she probably didn't bring it in!

So the first thing she came out, she wanted to find Jacob's cell phone in the bedroom!

As soon as she entered the bedroom, she saw Jacob's phone on the bed.

Elaine is overjoyed!

She rushed to the front in a few steps, picked up the phone, and didn't notice the single strand of hair slipping off the screen of the phone.

She hurriedly tried to unlock Jacob's phone with her fingerprint, but she was surprised to find that her fingerprint could not be identified!

its not right!

Chapter 772

When Jacob first changed the phone, she arrogantly asked to enter her fingerprint in it so that she could check it at any time. Did this guy delete her fingerprint?

Elaine couldn't help gritting her teeth.

d*mn, this guy started to beware of her!

Annoyed, Elaine hurriedly tried the unlock code.

Not only did she record fingerprints on Jacob's mobile phone, she also knew the six-digit unlock code for his mobile phone.

However, after she entered the password she remembered, the phone prompted the password error!

Elaine didn't believe it, and entered it again, but it was still wrong!

She suddenly became angry!

"d*mn, Jacob, this dog thing! he deleted my fingerprint and changed my password."

Did he expect to steal his mobile phone to transfer money? Or after getting these two million, he was guarded like a thief?

This is really outrageous!

Elaine was uncomfortable, and tried a few more passwords that Jacob might have set, but what she didn't expect was that all of these passwords were wrong!

The previous password was the wedding anniversary of the two, but it has been changed.

Try Jacob's birthday, it's not right!

Her birthday is not right!

Daughter Claire's birthday is not right!

Even if Mrs. Willson's birthday was entered, it still displayed incorrectly!

Elaine began to wonder.

What kind of password will this old thing set?

She was thinking hard, but she couldn't think of an answer.

Between this sparkle and flint, she suddenly thought of someone!

Meiqing!

That school flower of the year! Also Jacob's first love!

And she is Meiqing's roommate, and even her "good sister"!

To say that at that time, she was really envious, jealous and hateful to both of them!

At that time, Jacob was handsome and stylish, and had money at home. He was really the Prince Charming in the hearts of many girls.

At that time, Elaine wanted to fix Jacob and marry into his wealthy family, so she didn't hesitate to have s3x with Jacob while he was drunk while Jacob was in love with Meiqing.

It was with this trick that she angered Meiqing and became the ultimate winner of this battle.

However, Elaine knew in her heart that Jacob had not forgotten Meiqing for many years! He even called Meiqing by the name of Meiqing when he talked in sleep several times! These things were recorded by Jacob on his account book himself!

So, at this moment, she thought, would Jacob's mobile phone password be Meiqing's birthday? !

As Meiqing's best friend at the time, Elaine still remembered her birthday, so she immediately entered Meiqing's birthday in the mobile phone password input area. Unexpectedly, what made her stunned was it was unlocked!

Elaine was really angry, hated and excited!

Annoyed, hated, of course it is Jacob, an Old Master who has never changed. After so many years, he is still thinking about that d*mn Meiqing!

Excited because she guessed the password correctly. Doesn't it mean that she can transfer the two million away?

Okay, isn't this Jacob thinking about his first love?

She will transfer all the money away, and then kick him out of the house!

Anyway, his old lover is in the United States, and he doesn't have the ability to find her in the future, and she is said to have a very good life, and may not look at him!

"You old dog, just wait for penniless and wandering on the streets."

Chapter 773

Elaine gritted her teeth at Jacob, and immediately opened her mobile bank, preparing to go in and transfer all the two million that Charlie gave him.

When entering the mobile banking to request the password, she directly used Meiqing's birthday, and she really came in!

At this time, there is 2027232.15 in the balance of the bank card.

Among them, two million were transferred in by Jacob just now, and another twenty thousand were the last time Charlie gave Jacob a dinner party, but Jacob did not spend the money.

The remaining seven thousands are regarded as Jacob's private money.

Elaine immediately clicked the transfer, filled in her account, and then entered 2027232.14 in the transfer amount column. She decided to leave only a cent for Jacob to let him know the cost of offending her!

After entering all the transfer information and checking to confirm that there was no problem, Elaine sneered and clicked to transfer immediately.

Then, a dialog box pops up: "Please enter the payment password."

Elaine entered Meiqing's birthday again, but this time she didn't succeed!

Mobile banking immediately popped up a prompt: "The password is wrong, you can try 2 more times today!"

"d*mn!" Elaine immediately gritted her teeth and cursed: "The old dog even set a different payment password separately..."

While scolding, she thought in her heart, what exactly would Jacob set the payment password to?

Since the unlock password and the online banking login password are both Meiqing's birthday, the payment password must be inseparable from Meiqing.

However, she really can't think of any other details!

She thought about Meiqing's bedroom number and bed number at the time. The system prompts an error again, and prompts that she can try again today. If the error continues, the mobile banking will be locked.

Elaine didn't dare to try again.

In case of a wrong trial, the mobile banking cannot be logged in today, Jacob finds out that she would be exposed in advance?

Thinking of this, she could only grit her teeth and give up, and put Jacob's phone back in the distance.

However, she already hated Jacob and gritted her teeth bitterly at this time, ready to find someone, to clean him up, so that he still remembered the fox in his mind!

Ten minutes later, Jacob changed into long trousers and walked out of the bathroom, humming a small song as he walked out.

Elaine had already left the bedroom and was sitting in the living room pretending to watch TV. Jacob returned to the room and hurried to the bed to check his mobile phone.

There is no change in the location of the phone, but the hair on the phone has long been missing.

It seems that the Lady Willson was really trying to unlock phone in secret!

She unlocked mobile phone, she must have only one purpose, money!

Fortunately, he was smart and changed password in advance. Otherwise, if he didn't watch it for two minutes, the two million might be taken away by Elaine!

Fortunately, Jacob felt that he was right to be more cautious. The unlock password and mobile banking login password used Meiqing's birthday. As for the payment password, he used the date of the day when he and Meiqing first tasted the forbidden fruit.

Only he and Meiqing knew the date of the latter in the world, so he didn't worry that Elaine might guess it.

Facts proved that Elaine really couldn't guess.

However, if Elaine knew about this, she would be able to attack Jacob with a knife on the spot.

Throughout the afternoon, Elaine seemed very worried.

She had been thinking about a way to deal with Jacob and get the money out by the way, but after much deliberation, there was no substantial progress.

In the evening, Charlie made a meal and Claire came back.

As soon as Claire came back, Jacob told her to go to the furniture store next morning.

Chapter 774

Claire hurriedly asked Charlie how the two million came.

Charlie said lightly: "Looking at Feng Shui."

Claire was surprised and said, "You can get two million with a feng shui look. Isn't this too outrageous?"

Charlie asked back: "Wasn't it even more ridiculous that the White family gave a villa?"

Claire was speechless to refute.

Charlie said: "My wife, I know what you are worried about, but you can rest assured that I helped this big man see Feng Shui and indirectly helped him solve a big business problem, which made him earn tens of millions. It is reasonable to take two million."

Claire was just a little relieved and asked, "Did you give the two million to dad?"

Charlie nodded and said, "I gave it to him."

Claire said anxiously: "I'm worried that mother will be thinking about the money, maybe she will be a demon again!"

Charlie smiled and said: "It's okay, let's go to the furniture store tomorrow, and try to spend the two million. When the time comes, mother will not miss it."

.....

At this moment, the Willson family villa.

Old Mrs. Willson held the collection slip from the Agricultural Bank, her expression uglier than crying.

The Agricultural Bank owes more than 10 million in arrears. According to the requirements of the Agricultural Bank, it must first repay 10%, which is more than 1 million.

Now the Willson family is down and out of money, and more and more orders are being collected by the bank.

The more than one million in the Agricultural Bank is still small, and there are more than 20 million holes in China Merchants Bank. Don't know how to fill it.

Noah was also worried at this time and said to the Old Mrs. Willson: "Mom, it's really not good. Let's sell our antique furniture. Can sell it for a million? Fill it in and think about the rest."

"Selling furniture, you know selling furniture!"

Old Mrs. Willson angrily reprimanded: "These furniture are all left by your father. You really don't feel sorry for selling it!"

Noah said helplessly, "Is there anything we can do? If you don't sell, the hurdle in front of us will be overwhelming!"

Old Mrs. Willson grabbed a teacup and suddenly fell to Noah's feet!

The teacup suddenly fell apart, and Noah also hurriedly stepped aside in fright.

The Old Mrs. Willson glared at Noah, gritted her teeth and said: "I told you a long time ago, give me the money! Give me the money! What about you? You don't believe me! You don't believe me! You played with me carefully, took your All that money and gave to Horiyah, that dmn stinky lady, and now it's alright, and that btch Horiyah ran away with money. Are you satisfied? Are you comfortable?"

The mention of Horiyah or the thought of her makes Noah very uncomfortable.

This woman can be a lie!

For more than 20 years, she has been doing very well, loving him and children very much, and she was very responsible for her family.

However, he never dreamed that she would donate all her money and run away when the Willson family was in the most difficult phase of its time!

This incident dealt a huge blow to Noah, and also caused him extremely injured.

He even wanted to find Horiyah and cut her a thousand times.

However, reality does not give him this opportunity at all.

He asked people to inquire and looked for clues everywhere, but found nothing.

Horiyah disappeared completely as if the world had evaporated.

Seeing the Lady Willson's anger, he had to speak out and persuade her: "Mom, you are right, but our biggest problem now is that we need a sum of money to help us in the emergency, our furniture, or the antiques my dad left behind. I say you have to sell a few things, so that we can exchange some cash to save life!"

Chapter 775

When the Old Mrs. Willson heard that Noah asked her to sell furniture or antiques, she didn't get angry.

She angrily said: "I can bear selling furniture, don't even think about selling antiques! Those are the coffin books your dad left me when he died!"

Noah hurriedly persuaded: "Mom, this person is still the most important thing when you are alive. Are you hiding those antiques until you bring them back to dad?"

"Don't bullsht!" Old Mrs. Willson cursed angrily, and shouted: "Do you know what a bullsht? These furniture are all registered in the bank. Once the bank comes to seal up, they will definitely buckle this batch of furniture, but those antiques, The bank doesn't know that, once we are finally unable to recover and the house is taken away by the bank, those antiques can be used to save lives!"

Noah realized this!

Selling furniture now is tantamount to secretly disposing of the mortgaged things to the bank in advance, which is regarded as making up for the loss.

But now selling antiques, once the people in the bank know that they are worried about it, they may have to find all these antiques by digging the ground.

Therefore, this antique cannot be sold as a last resort.

Therefore, Noah hurriedly complimented and said: "Mom, you think more comprehensively, I will listen to you."

Old Mrs. Willson snorted coldly and said, "Had you listened to me and gave me the money. Today will not be like now!"

Thinking of the Willson family's severance of financial resources and the tragic situation of being heavily in debt, Mrs. Willson jumped angrily.

And all of this is thanks to Noah's wife, Horiyah.

If it weren't for Horiyah's b*tch to run away with money, how could the Willson family be reduced to its current miserable situation?

Moreover, Mrs. Willson had thought about it a long time ago and asked her son to take out 8 million first, and first repay part of the bank's foreign debt, and then drag it for a while to find other solutions.

But now, everything has fallen through. There is no money for money, no people for money, and the bank has urged to come to the door. The entire Willson family is already in a depressed state.

The older Mrs. Willson wanted to get more and more angry, she couldn't help but slapped the table and cursed: "Horiyah, this btch, how come I haven't noticed that she is a natural rebellion! She and Elaine, the btch, are just like the same raccoon. Let her marry into the Willson family. This is the decision I regret in my life. I should have driven her out of the Willson family and starved her to death on the street."

Speaking of this, Mrs. Willson bit her posterior molars and said angrily: "This b*tch is cool now! More than two million in cash in her hand, she also has a little white face, I don't know where she is living happy now! "

Old Mrs. Willson didn't know that at this moment, her daughter-in-law Horiyah was much worse than Willson's family.

Every day, she digs coal in the dark coal kiln. She has to wear a dozen kilograms of cast iron shackles on her feet. It is impossible to rest if she does not work for twelve hours a day. Her hands and feet are worn out with blood blisters. , Flesh and blood.

Moreover, the owner of mine where Horiyah is relocated to is very cruel, and arranged a fierce supervisor for the group of laborers Mr. Orvel had sent over. They were beaten up for their coal mining activities. If they were dissatisfied, they used the whip to lashed them hard.

Horiyah used to be properly maintained, and she could be said to have the charm at the age of 40 or 50. So when she arrived at the black coal kiln, she was remembered by the overseer. Originally, she didn't look down on the dirty and smelly overseer and would rather die. Not willing to let him touch.

However, after being beaten maliciously several times by the opponent and deliberately hungry several times, she completely compromised and became the c0ncubine of the overseer in the black coal mine.

After being a c0ncubine for a supervisor, although she had some relief from physical labor, she suffered mentally.

Originally, she was also a woman worth tens of millions and living in a villa every day, so she was a half-laden woman.

But now, in a dim, dirty, and even smelly tiled house, trying her best to cater to the dirty old supervisor with her body is simply the greatest torment in the world.

Chapter 776

But in order to live, in order not to be beaten or go hungry, Horiyah can only choose to compromise.

However, at this time, the Willson family, how did they know that she was suffering and insulted like this.

They thought she was lying in a five-star hotel, being served hard by a lover who was twenty years younger than her.

Therefore, the Old Mrs. Willson cursed Horiyah bitterly. Noah and his sons and daughters heard this. Not only were they not angry, but they were also aroused by anger and dissatisfaction in their hearts.

To say that the most miserable person was Horiyah who belonged to Noah's family.

For Noah, both people and wealth are empty, and all day long wondering whether Horiyah would go crazy looking for young guys outside with the ten million, and wear countless green hats on.

The reason why Harold and Wendy hate Horiyah is very simple, that is money!

Without the money, the Willson family was struggling. Even with the two rich second generations of them, they were desperate like dogs. The more they lived, the more they were suffocated.

"dmn, Horiyah, this btch, if I get her one day, I have to break her leg, otherwise I can't get out of this nasty breath!"

Noah gritted his teeth and cursed loudly. After the cursing, he took out his phone and said angrily: "I'm looking for a car. I will take these furniture to the furniture store tomorrow morning and let people give an estimate. If it's appropriate, then sell directly."

Old Mrs. Willson looked at the furniture displayed at home in pain with a look of dismay.

When the Old Master Willson was alive, the Willson family had a glorious experience. Some furniture was made of fine imported wood. Not only does it have a lot of value, but the meaning is also different.

However, there is no way to be reluctant, if they don't sell it, they will have to return to the bank sooner or later.

So she said to Noah: "If these furniture are sold slowly, let alone the value of one million six hundred and seven hundred thousand, we are anxious to sell, the other party will definitely have to keep the price down, so the price must not be so high, but if you can give it a price One million and three hundred thousand, you can shoot."

"Okay." Noah nodded and said, "1.3 million is not too much, at least it can be turned around first."

.....

At this time, Jacob was lying on the sofa, using his mobile phone to look for pictures of furniture, and wanted to look at the furniture style he was interested in first.

Elaine muttered with ulterior motives from the side: "Jacob, don't be extravagant when buying furniture, save a little money and we will live better in the future."

Jacob snorted disdainfully, and said, "Son-in-law said, two million will be used to buy furniture and appliances."

Elaine suddenly became anxious, and blurted out: "Buy furniture, but life is not enough?"

Jacob said dissatisfied: "What are you yelling at? This money was given by Charlie to buy furniture and appliances. If we spend 1.5 million, the remaining 500,000 will be returned to Charlie. You persuade me. Don't worry about it, I won't give you a penny."

"You..." Elaine gritted her teeth bitterly.

But at this time, Jacob had two million in his hands, and she had nothing in her hands. Before cracking his password, she couldn't do anything!

At this time, Jacob saw a set of classical Chinese-style all-wood furniture and sighed: "If we can take a set of this kind of furniture, or get the set of classical furniture from the Willson family, we put it in our set. It will be perfect in the new villa!"

Chapter 777

The next morning, Charlie's family of four had eaten and drove directly to the Furniture City.

Elaine thought about it all night, but she didn't think of how to get the money from Jacob's bank account. Seeing that it was going to be spent, she scratched her heart anxiously.

At the same time, Mrs. Willson's family also got up early in the morning.

After breakfast, the truck arrived. The workers loaded the Classical furniture from the Willson family, and drove to the furniture market.

In the west of Aurous Hill, there is a large-scale furniture city. Almost all the furniture sellers in Aurous Hill gather here.

There are everything from high, middle and low grade furniture here, and it can be said to be the best place to buy furniture.

Jacob himself has always been under the influence of Mr. Willson, and he especially likes antiques. Not only does he like to shop for antiques, he also likes old furniture, especially old furniture with good wood.

He has always liked the set of Classical furniture in the Willson's villa, but it's a pity that he can't take it to himself, so he can only think about it.

Because he likes old wooden furniture, Jacob has to go straight to the wooden furniture hall when he arrives in the furniture city.

When Elaine saw him head straight to the wooden furniture store, her face was immediately pulled off, and she blurted out: "Jacob, you are not allowed to buy a bunch of rotten wooden furniture home! Our house is a luxuriously decorated villa. Buy it if you want. This kind of luxurious European-style furniture, that kind of wood furniture, is earthy and expensive, and it's uncomfortable to sit down, absolutely not worthy to buy!"

"What do you know?" Jacob said disdainfully: "Chinese-style furniture plays with wood and heritage, and there is still a lot of room for appreciation for this thing, and culturally talented people can understand it!"

Elaine blurted out: "We are both from the same university, do you think you are more educated than me?"

Jacob waved his hand: "This kind of culture talks about the foundation, you don't understand it."

After finishing speaking, he said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, if we can buy a set of Classical furniture, we won't come in vain today!"

Charlie nodded indifferently and said, "Dad, you like it."

Seeing that Jacob ignored her, Elaine stomped her feet in anger. She would have been mad at him when she was going, but now she dare not mad at him casually. After all, she doesn't have any money now. Isn't it too passive to turn her face at this time?

So she could only pull Claire aside and said, "Claire, you persuade your dad not to buy that kind of flashy wooden furniture, which is expensive and unsightly. What's the matter? Keep hundreds of thousands in the bank. Isn't it good to prepare for a rainy day?"

Claire said helplessly: "Mom, since that money Charlie has given Dad full control, let's not interfere."

"You kid, why aren't you facing me at all?" Elaine didn't expect Claire to be indifferent to him at all, and suddenly felt uncomfortable.

Claire said earnestly: "Mom, you have lost so much money in a game of cards. It's time to learn a little bit and stop. Now that you have agreed to let Dad control the money, you must respect Dad's choice."

Elaine was as uncomfortable as it was something in her throat.

At this time, Jacob walked directly into a shop called "Emperor Furniture", this shop is a store that specializes in Classical furniture, which is quite famous in Aurous Hill.

As soon as he entered, a shopping guide stepped forward and asked enthusiastically: "How many would you like to watch?"

Jacob said: "I want to see the rosewood furniture, which is for the living room."

The shopping guide hurriedly asked: "Then how big is your living room?"

Jacob said: "Almost a hundred square meters!"

Chapter 778

"A living room with more than 100 square meters?!" The shopping guide was dumbfounded after listening, and blurted out: "This is too big, right?"

Jacob chuckled and said, "Tomson's largest villa, can the living room be small?"

The shopping guide's eyes were full of shock, and he hurriedly said: "Sir, such a big living room, then you can buy more furniture to look less empty!"

After that, the shopping guide hurriedly led him to a set of Classical sofa and introduced: "Sir, our set of 3221 Classical sofa is specially designed for villa customers. There are eight people in total. Being able to sit down and it is very atmospheric."

Jacob stepped forward and touched the armrest of the sofa. He was very satisfied with the slippery touch. He curiously asked, "What price is this set?"

The other party said: "Sir, this set is made of Hainan Classical, good quality wood, and old material. If you like it, we can give you a cost price of 1.98 million!"

"Oh!" Jacob was startled and said, "You are expensive!"

The other party explained: "This is made of Hainanese materials, good materials, so the price is naturally more expensive, but your Tomson first-class large-scale villa is worth hundreds of millions. Such a luxurious villa requires such a set of sofas!"

Elaine frowned on the side and said: "What kind of a ghost sofa, a set will cost almost two million. After buying this family, you can just sleep on the sofa!"

Jacob glared at her, and then said embarrassingly: "This set is too over-budget, is there a cheaper one? For example, the price of Burmese rosewood is not much lower than that of Hainan?"

The shopping guide said: "This set of Burmese rosewood costs about one million, and we don't have it in stock now."

After finishing talking, the shopping guide added another sentence, saying: "Most people who deal rosewood still like Hainanese materials, but Burmese materials are really not up to the standard."

Jacob smacked his lips, feeling a little regretful.

Buying a sofa set for nearly two million, which obviously exceeds the budget too much.

After all, not only buying a sofa at home, but also other furniture and appliances in the living room, furniture for at least two bedrooms, furniture for the dining room, and appliances for the room.

Bedroom furniture and dining room furniture don't need to be so good, but at least a few hundred thousand are enough. So if want to buy a good sofa, the budget cannot exceed 1.4 million.

So he hurriedly asked the shopping guide: "If I order a set of Burmese materials, how long will it take to deliver it?"

"This..." The other party thought for a while, and said, "It will take a month for less to say. You know, this kind of timber is more troublesome to purchase. When the timber comes in, it will be sent to the processing plant for processing. It will take a long time to send it to Aurous Hill again."

"This is too long..."

Jacob thought to himself, can't the living room even have a sofa after moving in as a family?

It seems that he can only look at other cheaper sofas.

As he was thinking, he suddenly heard a familiar voice, and said, "Is the boss here? Can he accept second-hand old furniture? Hainan Classical!"

Jacob turned his head subconsciously, and suddenly looked at his big brother Noah, who was walking into the store.

Noah didn't expect that he would meet Jacob's family here. When he thought of his current desolate appearance, he almost subconsciously wanted to turn around and leave.

At this time, a man suddenly walked out of the store, looked at Jacob, and hurriedly asked loudly: "Did you say you want to sell Hainan Classical furniture?"

Chapter 779

Jacob was confused by the boss's question.

I'm obviously here to buy furniture, how can I sell it?

So he said to the boss: "I'm here to buy furniture, can you understand it?"

The shopping guide also hurriedly said: "Boss, this gentleman wants to buy a set of Classical furniture."

After finishing speaking, he pointed to Noah who had just come in, and said, "This gentleman is selling furniture."

The boss suddenly realized, and hurriedly said to Jacob: "Oh, I'm so sorry, I made a mistake."

Then he looked at Noah and asked him, "Sir, are you selling furniture?"

When Noah heard Jacob say that he was here to buy furniture, he really wanted to turn around and leave.

After all, he didn't want Jacob to read the joke either.

However, this store is the largest Classical furniture store in Aurous Hill, and it is also the most affordable store for second-hand Classical furniture on the market. If he turns around and go, he might lose a dozen or so less when he goes to other stores.

So, he could only bite the bullet and said to the boss: "Yes, it's me. I have a set of Hainan Classical sofas and chairs that I want to sell. They are all old things."

The boss hurriedly smiled and said: "Okay, we mainly make furniture for Hainan Classical. Where are your goods? Is it convenient to take a look first?"

Noah glanced at Jacob awkwardly, and said in a low voice, "The goods are in the car, and the car is in the parking lot. You can come and see with me."

Looking at Noah at this time, Jacob was secretly surprised.

Because of the disappearance of Horiyah's volume, Noah has been very upset recently, and at the same time worried, so the whole person has lost a lot of weight, his hair has turned white all of a sudden, and he looks quite a little down.

Jacob had never seen such a decadent big brother.

And Noah's side was followed by Mrs. Willson and his son and daughter.

The four relatives all looked decadent, especially the Lady Willson, with ugly expressions.

The thought of selling the valuable furniture left by her husband made Old Mrs. Willson feel like a knife cut in her heart, not only hurting but also bleeding.

Suddenly seeing Jacob and family also here, her face suddenly became more ugly.

Jacob hesitated for a moment, but he walked over and asked, "Mom, brother, why are you here?"

"Humph!" Noah said coldly, "What? We are still in this place?"

Jacob hurriedly said: "I didn't mean that. You just said that you want to sell a set of Hainan Classical furniture. Isn't it the one that our dad left behind?"

Noah suddenly became angry, and blurted out, "What does it have to do with you?"

Chapter 780

After that, he was too lazy to take care of Jacob, and said to the boss: "You can go out with me to see the goods!"

"Okay!" The boss nodded, and went out of the store with Noah.

Mrs. Willson frowned at this moment and looked at Jacob, and asked coldly: "What are you doing here?"

Although Jacob had indeed severed the relationship with the Lady Willson on the bright side, she was his own mother anyway, and there was still some respect and jealousy when he met.

So, he replied respectfully: "Mom, Charlie's villa decorated, we are thinking about buying some furniture so we can move in."

Jacob was telling the truth, but listening to Mrs. Willson's ears made her feel more uncomfortable than hitting her in the face!

When he watched this, she was about to be driven out of the villa, and even started to sell some things left by the Old Master, but the Jacob family, who was driven out of the house by herself, was going to move to the super luxurious building of Tomson.

When she thought that Tomson was the best villa in Aurous Hill, the Lady Willson felt uncomfortable. She gritted her teeth and said, "You came to show off to me on purpose and watch me joke, right?"

"No!" Jacob shouted wronged, and hurriedly explained: "Mom, I didn't mean it. You asked me why I came here, so I told the truth."

Seeing Jacob's humble expression in front of the Old Mrs. Willson, Elaine was very upset.

This Old Mrs. Willson has bullied her for so many years, and now she's down to the point of selling second-hand furniture, is she still arrogant here? Who does she show with an old face?

Thinking of this, Elaine immediately stepped forward and said mockingly: "Oh, my mother, why did you come here? You still want to sell the furniture that Dad left behind? The Willson family is now poor. Does it look like?"

The Old Mrs. Willson looked at Elaine's mocking, playful face, suddenly became angry, and blurted out: "Elaine, who gave you the courage to talk to me like this?!"

"Oh!" Elaine curled her lips and said, "What is it? You are about to go bankrupt, and you still treat yourself as the head of the family? Aren't you ashamed?"

When the Old Mrs. Willson heard Elaine mocked herself, she immediately blurted out, "Elaine, how do you talk to me? Is there still mother-in-law in your eyes?"

Elaine said disdainfully: "I know you can't look down on me. What you like is your eldest daughter-in-law Horiyah, but your eldest daughter-in-law is really filial to you. I heard that you gave your son a favor. The big green hat swept away all his savings."

Speaking of this, Elaine sighed and deliberately reprimanded: "This sister-in-law is really cruel. Even if she left one or two million for the family, you wouldn't want to sell furniture so miserable now!"

The Old Mrs. Willson angrily cursed: "Elaine! You shrew, I shouldn't have let you into my Willson family back then!"

Elaine said contemptuously: "I'm sorry, we have left the Willson family now and are no longer in your Willson family's door, and the broken villa of your Willson family is too old for too long, we have long been unable to look down on it, let me tell you, After we buy the furniture today, we move directly to Tomson, a large villa with thousands of square meters, full of luxurious decoration, living in it is like a queen, but you Lady Willson, you have no chance to live in this life.!"

In the past, Elaine was not less angry with Mrs. Willson, and never had a chance to find her place.

Moreover, she has always held grudges, and she had no chance to retaliate against the Old Mrs. Willson. Now that the Lady Willson is in despair, she naturally has to sneer.

Old Mrs. Willson was trembling with anger at this time, and gritted her teeth and said: "Elaine, don't be too proud, isn't your villa deceived by Charlie's Rubbish? You will be kicked out one day. Then I will wait to see you sleep on the street!"

Elaine pinched her waist and said, "Wait to see me sleeping on the street? I think you will be sleeping on the street soon, right? I heard that the bank will seal your villa soon. Then I will see what you do. Do! Someday if you starve to death, die of thirst, or freeze to death on the side of the road, you must reflect on it carefully before you die, why did you end up so tragically? Is it because you have done too much retribution in this life!"

Chapter 781

"Enough!" The Old Mrs. Willson's chest rose and fell violently, staring at Elaine, and cursed: "You shrew, what if the Willson family is now down? Sooner or later we have a chance to rise again, for your family will it be impossible to return to Willson's house if you wish? No."

Jacob hurriedly said to Elaine at this time: "How can you talk to mom like this? Hurry up and apologize to mom!"

Elaine frowned and looked at Jacob, and said coldly: "You forgot how this old woman drove you out? At this time, she started to turn to him again. You treat her as a mother. Does she treat you as a son?"

After finishing speaking, Elaine pointed at Mrs. Willson again, and said coldly: "Lady Willson, I beg you to figure out what is wrong with you now, and you are still pretending with me? I tell you, you are kneeling now. If you ask me to return on the ground, I won't go back! What kind of sh!t Willson's family is reduced to selling furniture to survive. Who the h*ll is going back!"

The Old Mrs. Willson was mad and pointed to Elaine's nose, saying every word: "Elaine, I have lived for so many years. You are the first person who dares to talk to me like this. Remember what you said today. Sooner or later, one day, I will break your leg and make you kneel in front of me and kowtow to apologize!"

Elaine disdainfully smiled: "Come on, just you? A handful of old bones are almost in the soil, and you want to break my leg? Come on, my leg is here, if you have the ability, you can hit me. Give it a try?"

As she said, Elaine actually stretched out her legs and sneered at the Old Mrs. Willson with contempt.

This made the Old Mrs. Willson annoyed enough, she couldn't wait to really interrupt Elaine's legs on the spot, so that she would dare to be so arrogant again.

However, in front of Charlie, Mrs. Willson didn't dare at all.

She still remembers the scene where Charlie hit a group of bodyguards alone, which made her still feel lingering.

Harold used to be very arrogant, but now that Charlie was there, he didn't dare to bullsh*t for a long time. Seeing that his grandma was insulted by Elaine, he didn't dare to step forward and help find a place, so he could only hide behind with a sad face.

At this time, Noah had a dark face and came back with the boss.

As soon as he came back, he said to Mrs. Willson: "Mom, let's go, they bid too low!"

The boss hurriedly said: "Brother, 1.1 million is really a lot. Your set of furniture is of average materials, and it has been old and the damage is relatively large. My price is already very fair. You can change it to another place. , Absolutely can't get a higher price than this."

Old Mrs. Willson was so angry that she heard that the quotation was only one hundred and one hundred thousand, and she immediately scolded: "For such a good piece of furniture, only one and one hundred thousand? Your heart is too dark, right?"

The boss said helplessly: "I'm giving a sincere price. If you don't believe it, just ask about it again."

Mrs. Willson coldly snorted and said to her family: "Come! Change another house! I still don't believe it!"

Jacob hurriedly said at this time: "Mom, or I will give you 1.2 million, you can sell it to me, to be honest, I have feelings for Dad's furniture."

"You want to be beautiful!" Old Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth and said, "Even if I chopped and burned the wood, I will never sell it to you!"

After speaking, she waved to Noah, "Come!"

Noah gave Jacob a dry look, and hurriedly accompanied the Lady Willson to turn around and leave.

Looking at their backs, Jacob couldn't help but shook his head again and again, and sighed: "I didn't expect that the Willson family would be reduced to a property seller. That set of furniture was father's favorite during his lifetime. It's a shame to sell it!"

Claire knew that her father had a lot of affection for that furniture, but she still came forward to comfort him: "Okay, Dad, grandma has a temper. It's impossible for her to sell that furniture to you. Let's take a look at the others."

"Yeah." Jacob sighed, and immediately said to the shopping guide: "Let me take a look again, your Hainanese materials are too expensive, and for Myanmar materials waiting is too long."

Chapter 782

The shopping guide nodded and said, "If you need it, come back."

Turning around, Mrs. Willson's family has disappeared.

Jacob went to several shops selling Classical, but it seemed that he didn't see the one he liked.

Elaine was anxious, so she proposed to buy other furniture such as the bedroom, dining room, etc., otherwise it is very likely that they would go shopping for nothing today.

Jacob also felt that it was not a problem to look at it this way, so the family moved to the living hall.

Elaine chose a set of tens of thousands of beds for herself, and Claire also chose a set of more than 10,000. Furniture such as wardrobes, dining tables, and storage cabinets were quickly available in the living hall.

They even bought all the household appliances they needed and other miscellaneous things for a total of more than 700,000.

Elaine has been quietly settling accounts for Jacob. Knowing that he still has more than 1.2 million left, she has an idea in her heart. If Jacob really uses the money to buy a set of Classical sofas, it will really be any money. There is not much left, but if they just buy a good European style sofa, at least one million will be left.

So she kept mumbling next to Jacob and said: "Jacob, if you can't find a suitable Classical sofa, it's better to buy a set of European style first, and when you have money, let's just buy a set of 3 million. Isn't the Hainan red pear better?"

Jacob knew what her idea was, so he said lightly: "You don't have to worry about what kind of sofa I buy. Anyway, the furniture for the bedroom, dining room, and recreation room are all available, enough for you."

Elaine was very depressed, and blurted out: "Why don't you listen to persuasion! You buy a ready-made sofa and it will be delivered to your home in the afternoon. Tomorrow our family can move to a new house happily. But, if you continue to consume it, this little money can't buy Hainanese materials, and you can't look down on Burmese materials. How long will it be spent?"

Jacob suddenly hesitated.

More than 1.2 million, buying Classical is indeed high or low.

If he continues to hesitate, it will definitely delay the normal use after moving.

If, according to Elaine, buy a set of European-style sofa now, it can be delivered in the afternoon, and they can move in tomorrow.

When Jacob was hesitant, Charlie suddenly said, "Dad, I think Mrs. Willson will definitely contact you after a while."

Jacob asked subconsciously: "Why?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Because of the money! That set of furniture must be sold for less than 1.1 million. It is estimated that you will have the highest price after a round, so it must be sold to you."

Elaine said contemptuously: "What are you talking nonsense? Didn't you listen to the Old Lady just now? Even she will chop and burn wood, but won't sell it to us!"

"So what?" Charlie said calmly, "They are now at the poorest time. Dad is willing to pay an extra 100,000. This 100,000 is a large sum for them. The Lady Willson is so smart. People who are smart will definitely not throw away this 100,000 for nothing."

Elaine curled her lips and said: "Just can you? Do you think you can see a feng shui fool, so you can see through everything? Based on my understanding of the Lady Willson, if she can swallow this breath, take this Sell the furniture to us, and I will eat that set of furniture raw!"

As soon as the voice fell, Jacob's cell phone rang suddenly, and he was surprised and said, "It's my eldest brother."

After speaking, he quickly picked up the phone to connect.

Noah said coldly on the phone, "You said just now that you want this set of furniture for $1.2 million, is it true?"

Chapter 783

When Jacob heard this, he said with excitement: "Of course it is true, 1.2 million, I want it!"

Noah said angrily: "Okay, since you really want it, put the money on mother's card, and this furniture will be sold to you!"

Jacob left an eye on it and said, "In this way, you send the furniture to Tomson. After the furniture is unloaded, I will pay immediately."

Noah on the other side of the phone hesitated for a moment, and said, "Okay, things are in the car now and can be transported at any time."

Jacob hurriedly said, "Well, let's see you at Tomson! I'll wait for you there!"

After speaking, Jacob immediately hung up and said excitedly: "Charlie, you guessed it! They are willing to sell!"

Elaine's expression suddenly became very ugly.

Not only did she just say something, she was slapped in the face by a phone call by Jacob, but more importantly, if Jacob bought the old furniture with this 1.2 million, wouldn't the family have no money?

Thinking of this, Elaine was extremely depressed, and the look in Charlie's eyes was almost humane.

Charlie didn't bother to talk to Elaine, he knew exactly what Elaine wanted, so the more she couldn't get it, the more interesting he found it.

It just so happened that the family of four had also bought other furniture, so Charlie drove the car and drove the family to Tomson.

Tomson's villa has been completely completed. Except for the lack of furniture, everything else is full of incomparable luxury. The decoration of the living room is magnificent. The whole floor is polished by natural marble, like a mirror, which makes people feel like a mirror. It feels magnificent.

Elaine looked at the extravagant decoration, her pores were stretched out, and she was happy from ear to ear.

Jacob was also inexplicably surprised, and said with emotion: "When I saw it last time, the decoration was not finished yet, and the living room is still covered with scratch-resistant floor mats. I can't see the details. If I look at it today, it looks more stylish than the palace!"

Claire does the decoration herself, so you can see the cost of the decoration of this villa at a glance. She pulled Charlie aside and whispered: "This decoration probably costs tens of millions. Why is Solmon White doing this? Generous?"

Charlie said: "After all, it's a rich man. A villa worth more than one billion is given away, so tens of millions of decorations are nothing."

"Okay..." Claire stuck her tongue out and said, "This is the first time I have seen such a high-standard residential decoration. It's too scary."

Charlie smiled without saying a word.

In his mind, there are still many memories of being in the Wade family as a child.

The Wade Family Mansion in my memory was many times more luxurious than this ten or twenty years ago.

Just when Claire's family of three were amazed by the luxurious decoration of the villa, Noah led the truck with the goods and arrived at the door of Tomson Villa.

Jacob was overjoyed and hurried out to direct the porters to move the Hainan Classical furniture into the villa.

Old Mrs. Willson took Noah, Harold and Wendy, got out of the car and took a look in the courtyard. After the villa's courtyard was renovated, it was much more luxurious than before, and the four of them felt uncomfortable to death.

Noah went into the villa because he had to follow in to see how the furniture was moved. When he came out, his face looked many times uglier than before.

Mrs. Willson couldn't help asking: "Noah, how is the decoration inside?"

"Hey..." Noah sighed and said uncomfortably: "I have never seen such a luxurious decoration! It's so dizzy!"

"Really?!" The Old Mrs. Willson came to her energy, blurted out: "I want to go in and take a look!"

Harold also wanted to see and insight, so he hurriedly said: "Grandma, I will join you!"

Wendy looked at this villa with an extremely complicated mood.

She used to be the fiancée of Gerald, and this villa was owned by Gerald's uncle Solmon White. If she had married Gerald, she could not only come here often, but might even live here.

Chapter 784

But now, the one who is about to live here is Claire, who she has never looked down upon and has been very upset!

Thinking of this, she couldn't help saying: "Grandma, I'll be with you too!"

After speaking, she walked up quickly, and supported her grandma with her brother Harold from left to right.

The grandma walked into the living room, looking at the magnificent and carved decoration, they couldn't even speak in amazement.

Above the living room, there is an oversized ceiling of more than ten meters high. In the center is a huge and luxurious golden crystal lamp. The light is refracted through the crystal and it is colorful and it is so beautiful that it is suffocating!

Old Mrs. Willson stood in the living room, her legs trembling.

Her own villa, if compared with this place, is simply a huge pit!

The decoration here is simply countless times stronger than that of her own villa!

The Lady Willson couldn't help thinking, what a pleasant experience would it be if she could live here?

She's afraid that she just want to stay at home every day, look here, touch there...

It's a pity that she has no life!

This son, Jacob, doesn't look at the usual squanderings, he is really lucky in choosing a son-in-law.

Who would have thought that the smelly rug from an orphanage like Charlie could have such good luck?

Knowing this a long time ago, she would never look down on Charlie at the beginning, and be polite to him when she said thing, and be polite to Jacob's family. In that case, she might have the opportunity to live in this luxurious villa.

It is a pity that she had clearly severed the relationship with Jacob at the beginning, even if she wanted to restore the relationship with him, she would not agree...

Harold and Wendy on the side felt even more uncomfortable.

Wendy looked at this palace-like living room, her eyes even turned red.

If it wasn't grandma who had offended Charlie, how could the White family retreat from her?

She should have become the young daughter in law of the White family, but now, after being played by Fredmen and Barena, her reputation in Aurous Hill has been completely ruined. During this time, she didn't even have a suitor by her side. She wanted to marry a rich family. It's a foolish dream!

When the grandmom and granddaughter were thinking about themselves, the porter had moved all the furniture into the living room.

Jacob took a count and checked one by one to make sure that everything was okay, and he was extremely excited.

He is really sentimental about this set of furniture, and it can be said that it is the best result to buy this set of furniture.

So he came to the Old Mrs. Willson with a look of excitement and said: "Mom, there is nothing wrong with the furniture, how can I pay you?"

The Old Mrs. Willson looked at Jacob with a complicated expression, and said, "Jacob, you are also mom's son. Since you like this set of furniture so much, this furniture mom will give to you."

Jacob hurriedly said: "Mom, how can this work? One size fits one size. Even if you send me these pieces of furniture, eldest brother won't agree. Besides, isn't the family short of money right now? Maybe it can help the family."

Mrs. Willson shook her head and said earnestly, "Jacob, I know what you want, but don't worry. The Willson family is still has your mother and I am in charge. As long as I say this furniture is given to you, it is yours."

When Jacob heard this, he said gratefully: "Thank you mom!"

Elaine on the side was also very excited. Is this the Lady Willson changing her s3x? If she doesn't want it, just doesn't want it? That's great! She has another chance!

Unexpectedly, Mrs. Willson sighed pitifully at this time: "Jacob, Willson's villa will be taken away soon. By that time, your mother and I will be sleeping on the street. Your villa is so big and luxurious, isn't it? Shouldn't you leave a bedroom for mom?"

Chapter 785

As soon as Mrs. Willson said this, the expressions of everyone present changed!

Elaine was the first to change his face!

She instantly understood the intention of the Lady Willson!

Good Old Lady! What an old fox! It's fake that she gives furniture, it's real that she want to live in our big villa!

Finally asked you to get rid of the Willson family, even better than the Willson family, and can crush the Willson family.

As a result, she suddenly licked their face and wanted to live in the big villa?

Is she worthy?

Jacob was not a fool either. The last second was indeed touched by the generosity of the Lady Willson, but in this second, he immediately understood the Lady Willson's intentions.

He knew that if he let the Lady Willson live in his new villa, it would simply lead the wolf into the house, and the whole family would be disturbed, so he could not agree to anything.

Charlie was also a little worried, if this old woman really lived in, that day would be totally turned upside down!

Not only the Charlie and the family was shocked, but Harold and Wendy next to them were even more shocked!

Not only are they shocked, they are also very angry!

The Lady Willson's meaning is too obvious, this is to go directly to curry with Jacob's family, and then move over to live with them.

In that case, what should a family of three do? !

Their mother rolled 15 million and ran away. The father is almost penniless now, and their siblings have no savings.

The only reliance is the batch of antiques hidden in the hands of the Lady Willson. If she defected to Jacob's family at this time, wouldn't her family be ruined? !

Once the bank takes away the villa, the family will sleep on the street!

Just when they were tense, Elaine took the lead. She looked at Mrs. Willson with contempt, and said coldly: "Oh, your wishful thinking is really good. Please kick us out first. Let us live now. It's a big villa, so you want to exchange a set of broken furniture for a room? Do you know how much my villa is? 130 million! Counting the decoration, maybe it's 150 million, a bedroom At least it's worth tens of millions. How much is your set of furniture?"

Old Mrs. Willson only wants to live in this villa now, so facing Elaine's ridicule, she said with an innocent look: "My daughter, this set of furniture is a little bit of care from mom to send you to the house. How can my heart use money? How about measuring?"

Elaine immediately said: "Don't come to this set. Let's use money to measure it. Isn't it 1.2 million? We would rather give you than let you move in. If you move in it is not going to be a good omen for us. That's it?"

Jacob also instantly realized.

Yes, if Mrs. Willson also moved in, then his life would be no different from h*ll.

So he immediately said to Mrs. Willson: "Mom, you give me a card number, and I will send the money!"

Seeing that Jacob was not fooled, Mrs. Willson suddenly lowered her face and asked in a cold voice, "What? Are you obliged to break up with your mother?"

Jacob hurriedly said: "Mom, I didn't tell you to make a clean break, but you said, but in my eyes, you will always be my mother."

"Where is your mother in your eyes?" Old Mrs. Willson said angrily, "You don't want to leave me a room in such a big villa. You would rather see me starving to death or freezing to death outside. Don't want to support me! Your conscience has been eaten by dogs!"

Before Jacob had time to speak, Elaine blurted out: "Don't fix that useless thing. Sell sofas and sell. Why do you still rely on us? Tell you, you were the one who broke the relationship and drove us out. Now you regret it, but we don't regret it. After leaving Willson's house, you don't know how happy we were. If you ask us to restore the relationship now, we will not agree."

Chapter 786

Jacob also nodded again and again.

He knows what it feels like to have a b*tch in the house, it's just like jumping around.

If there are two shrews in the family, don't ask for this one.

So he was cruel and said: "Mom, give me a card number, I will send you the money, or you can let these porters move the furniture."

The Old Mrs. Willson was very angry, and she pointed to Jacob and was about to come up and slap him. Fortunately, Jacob reacted quickly and took two steps back to make the Lady Willson rush away.

She was shivering with Jacob's attitude, and what was even more depressing was that she had no chance to enjoy such a luxurious and extravagant villa, which made every pore in her body feel as uncomfortable as a needle.

However, there is no other way right now.

She could only glare at Jacob, gritted her teeth and said: "Okay! Really my good son! From now on, we will completely cut off all relations! Even if I die, don't come!"

Elaine answered, "That's just right, it saves us trouble."

"you....."

Old Mrs. Willson coughed violently, took out a bank card, and shouted to Jacob: "Transfer money! You have to give me 1.21 million!"

Elaine frowned and asked, "Why give you 1.21 million? Didn't you say 1.2 million?"

The Lady Willson said angrily: "I hired a car and hired people for nothing?"

Elaine said coldly: "What does it have to do with us when you hired someone and hired a car? Why don't you ask for money for the paper you sh!t and wipe your a in the morning? Do you want me to reimburse you?"

Old Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth and cursed: "You shrew, I will tear your broken mouth!"

With that, the Lady Willson stretched out her hand to catch Elaine.

Elaine is not Jacob, she is not at all polite, she just shakes her hand to open the Lady Willson's hand forcefully, and coldly said: "Why? Still want to do it? You are right, I am indeed a shrew, but you are not something. Good bird! You old shrew, do it with me at my house, believe it or not, I'll suck you with my big mouth?"

Having been bullied and despised by the Lady Willson for so many years, Elaine had long wanted to avenge this revenge. She had never had a chance before, but today is a godsend.

The Old Mrs. Willson didn't expect that Elaine was really not afraid of her at all. Although angry, there was really no way to do it.

At this time, Jacob took the phone to operate, and then said to the Lady Willson: "Mom, 1.21 million has been sent to you, you can check it, please go back if there is no problem."

Elaine blurted out: "You have the money to burn? Give me the 10,000 to do a few spas. What can I do for her? Isn't this feeding the dog?"

Jacob waved his hand: "Okay, don't say a few words!"

Mrs. Willson received a text message on her mobile phone at this time. When she took it out, she found that her account had reached 1.21 million. So she observed at Elaine and said coldly: "Elaine, wait for me. Open your mouth!"

After that, she said to Harold and Wendy: "Let's go!"

Harold and Wendy breathed a sigh of relief.

They are really afraid that their second uncle Jacob is not firm enough. If they really agree to let the Lady Willson live in, their family of three will be over.

Fortunately, they didn't let the Lady Willson succeed!

Chapter 787

Outside the villa, Noah saw the Lady Willson coming out with his son and daughter, and immediately asked: "Mom, have you received the money?"

Old Mrs. Willson said with a black face: "Hey, let's go!"

Seeing that Mrs. Willson seemed very angry, Noah hurriedly grabbed Harold and asked in a low voice, "What's the matter? Why is your grandma angry?"

Harold waited for his sister and grandma to go farther, and then whispered, "Dad, grandma is such a thing!"

"Why do you say it!" Noah let out a low growl, and reprimanded: "We all rely on your grandma now. You say that to her. What if she hears it?"

Harold said angrily: "Dad! Do you know what grandma said to second uncle? She said that the furniture was given to second uncle for nothing. As long as second uncle keeps a room for her in this villa, let her Come live! Fortunately, the second uncle ignored her, and Elaine even scolded her!"

"What?!" Noah's expression suddenly changed when he heard this!

OK!

My own mother is really a mess!

Before the accident, she didn't look down on brother's family, and she was the one who drove them away.

Now that the Willson family is no longer working, and younger brother's house is a big villa again, she wants to turn her back?

She wants to live in a big villa with all her heart, and doesn't consider it for our family of three at all!

His sl*t wife ran away with money, and the family of three had no source of income. It all relied on her to sell old things for emergency. At this time, she want to abandon them and go for her own good!

Thinking of this, Noah was too angry!

But he also dared not say anything, so he could only whisper to Harold: "We have to find a way to get the antiques left by your grandfather from your grandma, so that we can save ourselves."

Harold hurriedly said: "Grandma has always been reluctant to say it! I keep asking her, she has never answered me directly, the old woman is very good!"

Noah said coldly: "Come slowly, keep an eye on your grandma these next two days, except for going to the toilet, follow her closely!"

"It is good!"

.....

The Willson family is gone, and Elaine is in the new villa, laughing triumphantly.

Although she still hated Jacob's changing his mobile phone password to Meiqing's birthday, and she also hated Jacob for spending all money without giving her, but today she stunned the Lady Willson. She swept away the grievances of more than two decades and was extremely happy.

Even more happily, she is finally moving into this villa!

Such a luxurious house, she didn't even dare to dream of it before, but now it is in front of her eyes!

Now only the sofa furniture has arrived, but in the afternoon, the people in the furniture store will bring other furniture and home appliances one after another, and then they can officially move in!

Elaine was very excited, and said to Claire: "Your dad and I will live in the biggest bedroom on the third floor!"

Claire nodded and said, "You can live on the third floor. Charlie and I live on the second floor."

Then, she said again: "By the way, I promised Elsa before we moved the villa to leave her a room. Elsa has been in Aurous Hill for a long time, and she has been living in a hotel, which is very pitiful."

Elaine hurriedly asked, "Is that Elsa from Eastcliff Dong's family?"

"Yes." Claire said: "It's her."

Elaine smiled and said: "Okay! The Dong family is very powerful, and the strength is comparable to that of the Song family. You have a good relationship with her, and she may be of great use in the future!"

After speaking, Elaine hurried to the elevator and said: "I will go up to the third floor to see how the bedroom is arranged!"

Charlie said to Claire, "Shall we go to the second floor to have a look?"

Claire nodded and walked up the stairs with him to the second floor.

Chapter 788

The layout of the second floor is the same as that of the third floor. There are three rooms, including one large bedroom and two smaller bedrooms.

The large bedroom is a suite, with a living area outside and a separate bathroom.

Of course Charlie and Claire chose this room, and then left the bedroom next door to Elsa.

There is also a room on the second floor. Claire planned it into her own study. Her company often had to produce design drawings and construction plans, so she needed a room where she could work.

Charlie and Claire looked around in the room and deliberately said to Claire: "My wife, the bed we bought seems to be two meters wide, right?"

"Yeah." Claire nodded, and said, "This bedroom is too big. It's not nice to choose a 1.8-meter bed."

Charlie said with a smile: "The two-meter-three bed, you sleep alone, is it too wide?"

Claire understood the meaning of his words at once, her face flushed, and asked in a low voice, "What do you mean?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Wife, don't you understand what I mean? I have been sleeping on the floor for three years. Should I not go up one level?"

Claire said embarrassedly: "What level of promotion? I don't understand what you are saying."

Charlie said hurriedly, "I just upgraded from the ground to the bed."

Claire said with a blushing face: "No one said that you would not be allowed to upgrade. Once I asked you if it was cold on the ground, and you still said if it was cold, and you don't want to get up, who do you blame?"

When Charlie heard this, his eyebrows were instantly pleased, and he smiled: "My wife, after we move to a new house, I will officially upgrade, OK?"

Claire was very shy and said, "It's up to you!"

After speaking, she hurried out of the room.

Charlie felt very happy. After sleeping on this floor for more than three years, it seemed that it was time to stand up and sing!

.....

In the afternoon, people from the furniture company drove several trucks over to deliver and install them.

There are two bedrooms on the second and third floors, and an additional study room on the second floor.

In one afternoon, all the furniture and home appliances were all available, and only a few pots and pans, bedding and pillows and other daily necessities, one can live here directly.

Elaine lay on her large bed of more than 100,000, rolling in excitement, and said to Jacob, "I plan not to leave today, and I will sleep here at night!"

Jacob frowned and said, "How can you live tonight? There are no bedding and toiletries!"

Elaine said, "I don't want to go back to live in that broken house anyway!"

Jacob said with a bit of disgust: "You can't live with it. Anyway, I will go back to live tonight, and I will pack my things and move them in together. If you don't go, you can live here by yourself."

Elaine thought that there was no quilt, and said angrily: "Well, let's go back to clean up together at night, and find a car tomorrow to move in all at once!"

After speaking, Elaine deliberately asked: "How much money is left in our house?"

Jacob asked vigilantly: "Why are you asking this?"

Elaine said, "I just ask, can't it work?"

Jacob said: "There are tens of thousands at home. I warn you not to use the idea of this money. If you want to spend money in the future, you can go out and earn it by yourself. Otherwise, in this house, you will eat, live in, and have you. It is used, but it is not spent by you!"

As soon as Elaine heard this, the fire in her heart could no longer be suppressed, she blurted out: "Jacob, I f*cking gave you a face, didn't I? You and me have become more and more arrogant these past few days!"

Jacob asked in a cold voice, "Don't forget, you have lost more than two million in the family. I am so kind to you!"

Elaine scolded, "You fcking don't fck with me! You changed your phone password to Meiqing's birthday. I haven't counted the f*cking account with you yet! I really didn't expect it! I have given birth to your child for more than 20 years, and you are still thinking about the vixen who suffered a thousand swords! What's the matter, you still want to keep the sound of the vixen with that fox?!"

Chapter 789

Elaine's words made Jacob panicked!

He knew about Elaine secretly unlocking his mobile phone, but he thought he had changed the password, Elaine must have guessed it incorrectly, but he did not expect that Elaine knew that he changed the password to Meiqing's birthday!

This made him feel flustered for a while, and at the same time he was afraid for a while!

Fortunately, he had set a separate payment password by myself, otherwise, the money might have been taken away by Elaine!

Seeing Jacob's stubbornness, Elaine immediately broke out, and gritted her teeth and cursed: "Aren't you very good these past two days? Hit me, scold me, and show me your face. Why are you dumb now? Didn't you let me say that bit of your dirty mind?"

Jacob blurted out: "You don't want to talk nonsense here, I don't have any dirty thoughts!"

"bulls*it!" Elaine scolded: "The phone password has been changed to adult birthday, and you told me that you have no dirty thoughts? Fortunately, the vixen who suffered a thousand swords has gone to the United States. Otherwise, you can't bear me. Cheating with her?!"

Jacob blushed and said, "Why are you like this? Why is Meiqing a vixen? Back then, Meiqing and I dealt with each other very well. You got me drunk and had a relationship with me, and she went away from me afterwards. Meiqing intervenes with a third party, you are a fox, OK?"

Elaine said angrily: "I am a fox? My f*cking child is from you, I am a fox?"

Jacob was also furious, and blurted out: "You are a vixen! If you hadn't had s3x with me when I was drunk, I would have married Meiqing!"

As soon as Elaine heard this, she rushed to Jacob's face in two steps, went up and slapped him, hysterically scolding: "You f*cking dare to call me a vixen, and dare to defend Meiqing, Elaine fights with you today! "

Jacob was slapped and trembling with anger. He kicked Elaine to the side and pointed to her nose and cursed: "I have tolerated you for more than 20 years. I have had enough of you! We will get divorced immediately! We just moved into the villa right away, and there are many bedrooms. We will separate first before we go through the divorce procedures!"

Elaine was kicked and sat on the ground, crying loudly: "Jacob! You ungrateful b@stard, I have been with you for so many years and have suffered so much. You still think about other women! Now you have to divorce me! I want my daughter to make the decision for me!"

After finishing speaking, she cried loudly in the direction of the door: "My dear daughter, you have to call the shots for your mother, your mother is wronged! Your father is not a thing!"

At this time, Claire was setting up the study room on the second floor with Charlie. When she heard the upstairs crying and noisy, Claire hurriedly said: "It's broken, they're fighting again!"

After speaking, she rushed out the door.

Of course Charlie followed closely behind.

The two hurried upstairs, and as soon as they entered Master bedroom on the third floor, they saw Elaine sitting on the ground, crying tears blurred, and at the same time slapped the ground with both hands, crying: "My dear girl, you came, if you don't come, your mother will let your dad, this unscrupulous b@stard, be beaten to death!"

Claire hurriedly wanted to help her, and at the same time asked: "What's wrong with you? The new house has just been finished. Isn't it very happy occasion? Why are you two arguing again?"

Elaine pointed at Jacob and cried and said, "Your dad, shameless, changed his mobile phone password to the birthday of his first love. Just now he pointed to my nose and called me a vixen. I was pregnant with you back then, and he has long been flying with his first love. He dislikes his wife!"

When Claire heard this, she was really uncomfortable, and hurriedly asked Jacob, "Dad, is what mom said is true?"

Jacob's expression was extremely ugly and embarrassed, he didn't know how to explain it.

He did change the phone password to Meiqing's birthday, and he did call Elaine a vixen.

However, Elaine is really vicious! he never said anything to dislike his daughter.

Chapter 790

So he could only bite the bullet and explained: "Claire, what I told your mother about us back then was not against you. Dad never disliked you."

Claire didn't know the stories back then, and couldn't help but say a little bit of dissatisfaction: "Dad, I don't care what happened between you and mom, and whether there was still between you and mom. The third one, I only know that you have married more than 20 years ago. This is a marriage of your own choice. You must give this marriage enough respect!"

"Like you, changing your mobile phone password to the birthday of your first lover is an infidelity to your marriage! If you don't love your wife or hate your wife, you can divorce your wife and pursue your own happiness, but you can't just do something like this before a marriage is over!"

Jacob suddenly felt helpless.

He also knew that his daughter was right, and that he did not divorce Elaine, so he changed the phone password to the birthday of his first love, which really shouldn't be.

So he said ashamed: "Claire, you are right about this. Dad did a bad job. Dad apologizes to you."

Claire said, "You should apologize to mom, not me."

Jacob can only bite the bullet and say to Elaine: "My fault, I shouldn't change the password to Meiqing's birthday, nor should I do it with you, I will review."

Elaine succeeded, and immediately said: "You immediately change your mobile phone password to my birthday, and then change your bank login password and payment password to my birthday!"

Jacob rebuked: "Aren't you just trying to control money? What's the point of acting in so many dramas?"

Elaine made a strong argument: "I don't want to manage money, I hope you will give me the respect I deserve!"

Jacob nodded and said, "Okay! You want the password changed, right? I will change it now."

After finishing speaking, he immediately took out his mobile phone, advanced to mobile banking, and transferred the remaining tens of thousands to Charlie, and then changed the password to Elaine's birthday.

After finishing all these, Jacob said coldly, "Okay, I have changed everything, are you satisfied?"

Elaine immediately snatched the phone from him and said, "I will check it first!"

After that, enter her birthday to unlock, and then hurriedly enter the mobile banking.

As a result, when she saw that the balance turned out to be zero, her heart suddenly became angry!

Money? !

Obviously there are tens of thousands of left!

She hurriedly checked the transfer records and discovered that just now, Jacob had transferred all the money to Charlie!

This old thing would rather transfer all the money back to Charlie than let himself get a point!

However, Elaine couldn't do anything else for a while.

She can't ask the whereabouts of the money in front of her daughter, it seems that it was all about the money!

She had to grit teeth, jot down this in her heart, and then slowly calculate with Jacob!

Chapter 791

At the end of a farce, neither Jacob nor Elaine benefited.

Elaine wanted money, but in the end she didn't get a point, and she hurt her depressed chest for a day.

When a family of four returned home from the villa, everyone began to pack their own things. Claire did not forget to call Elsa to tell her about the move tomorrow, so that she would prepare tomorrow, check out from the hotel and move in together.

When Elsa heard the news, she danced happily.

Ever since she liked Charlie, she had always wanted to find more opportunities to get along with Charlie, but she was busy with work and had to take Claire into consideration, so she never had any chance.

If she can live with Claire and Charlie, then there will naturally be more opportunities.

So she agreed almost without thinking.

When Charlie's family was busy packing things, Willson's family was just jumping around.

After selling the furniture and returning from Tomson, Noah has become more dissatisfied with his mother.

The Old Mrs. Willson wanted to live in the big villa of Jacob's house, and the incident stung Noah.

Let him realize that the Lady Willson is not really biased towards him.

She had always been biased towards him before, considering her own interests. Once Jacob was better for her, she would abandon him and prefer Jacob.

So when he got home, he told Mrs. Willson that she would transfer the 1.21 million that sold furniture to him.

He felt that the Lady Willson might abandon him at any time, so he had to make plans early, at least to get some money in his hands?

Otherwise, if the Lady Willson turns against him, who can he count on?

His son, Harold, is a waste. In the past, the Willson family had no problems, and it was okay to let him be a rich second generation who was eating and waiting to die. Now the Willson family is in a desperate situation. It is impossible to expect him to make progress and make money.

Daughter Wendy is a canary again. She doesn't touch the sun with two fingers. She can't cook well. Moreover, in Aurous Hill nowadays, who doesn't know about Wendy's troubles, it's hard to find someone to marry her, even more so. Can't count on her either.

So he said to Mrs. Willson: "Mom, you are the legal representative of the Willson Group and the person in charge. If you put the money here, it will easily be frozen by the bank!"

Old Mrs. Willson didn't think so, she said lightly: "The money for selling furniture is used to pay back the bank."

As a last resort, Mrs. Willson did not want the Willson Group to go bankrupt and liquidate, because once the Willson Group goes bankrupt, she would be finished.

She is a legal person of the Willson Group. If she has money and does not return the bank, not only will the bank seal up her house, they will even sue her and arrest her.

In that case, it's her who is unlucky, and it is her who is going to be in jail.

Therefore, she insisted on repaying the bank's minimum repayment first, and at the same time, she also planned to intercede with the bank's account manager so that the other party could be allowed a period of grace.

When Noah heard this, he immediately exploded and blurted out: "Mom, the house is almost impossible to open. After a while, more than one million came, and you returned it to the bank. What do we eat and drink?"

Chapter 792

Mrs. Willson coldly snorted: "If I don't pay the money, I will be taken to jail! Don't forget that I am a legal person in the company and I am responsible for the company's debts!"

Noah hurriedly said, "Then you should at least take out one or two hundred thousand, let's take a breath! I am living now, and I can't even smoke a pack of cigarettes for fifty!"

"Do you still smoke?" Old Mrs. Willson said sharply, "It would be nice to have a bite of food, and still want to smoke?"

Noah held the fire in his heart, but sighed in his mouth: "Mom, I am old, so I can bear it, but Harold and Wendy are still young! They have not suffered much, so I can't wrong them!"

Old Mrs. Willson coldly snorted: "Then I don't care, the more I have to cut down on food and clothing, and tide over difficulties together at this time!"

As soon as these words came out, Harold and Wendy immediately became dissatisfied.

The two of them were spoiled and coddled and couldn't endure any hardship. Since Horiyah ran away with money, their lives have been very hard during this period of time.

However, now that Mrs. Willson is rich, she doesn't want to open the warehouse and put grain, instead she wants everyone to cut down on food and clothing. Isn't this killing them?

Immediately, Harold said: "Grandma, it's easy for you to say it. When you are old, eating less and drinking less, it's no problem for you to eat less, but how can my sister and I be like this? We can't eat this. It's kind of bitter, I'm not good at eating and drinking these days, and I've lost a few kilos of weight!"

"Yes, grandma!" Wendy said with no air: "The cosmetics I used before were thousands or tens of thousands. Now I can only use the most common L'Oreal. Seeing that this L'Oreal is almost running out. I don't even have money to buy it. Grandma, do you still want me to spend some bucks on the sod honey?"

After she finished speaking, she immediately said, "I don't care. Grandma, you have to give me 20,000 today. I will buy a set of Aquamarine Mystery, otherwise my face will be completely ruined!"

Mrs. Willson coldly snorted: "Poor scream! The mystery of the sea blue? Is the sod honey sorry for you? Useless things, you even couldn't grasp Fredmen. If you could hold Fredmen in the first place, our family will be as good as today?"

Wendy suddenly became anxious and blurted out, "What does this have to do with me? It was Fredmen who was made incompetent by Charlie. Before he became incompetent, I coaxed him well, don't forget that he gave me five Millions, tens of millions to the Willson family!"

"So what?" Old Mrs. Willson said coldly: "He hasn't left yet? If you really have that ability, even if he becomes incompetent, he will stay. After all, you can't do it!"

Noah was still holding the fire, but when the Lady Willson said this about his daughter Wendy, he felt a little angry and blurted out: "Mom, Wendy and Fredmen have also listened to your instructions. How can you get into trouble at this time? Cross the river and demolish the bridge?"

Old Mrs. Willson coldly snorted: "I crossed the river and demolished the bridge? Did I cross the river? Obviously the bridge disappeared before halfway through, causing me to fall into the water and almost drowned me!"

Noah said annoyedly: "Mom, anyway, I just said that I can't pay the money back to the bank. I have to spend 200,000 to improve my life if I say anything. Otherwise, you can sell all dad's antiques for some money. Otherwise you can hide those things and you won't be able to take them away in the future!"

"You curse me to death?!" The Old Mrs. Willson suddenly became angry, and said coldly: "You three want to shake the sky, don't you?"

Old Mrs. Willson's voice changed, sharp and scary.

She didn't expect that Noah, who had always been flattering and obedient to her, dared to slap her on her nose, and even dared to speak harsh words to her!

At this moment, she also deeply realized that her eldest son, grandson, and granddaughter were not really following her in a desperate manner.

They are just three parasites attached to her, all the time thinking about opening their mouths to draw nutrients from her body!

The more this happens, the more she has to keep her money and things under control, and must not let the three of them succeed!

Chapter 793

After the Old Mrs. Willson and Noah renounced their morality, an unhealable crack occurred in each other's hearts.

In the end, the Lady Willson only used 50,000 as the living expenses of the family of four, and the rest was all returned to the two banks that owed money.

After the bank received this part of the repayment, the person in charge of the collection department also gave the Old Mrs. Willson a lot of face, saying that the debt could be extended appropriately to give the Willson family a chance to breathe.

The Old Mrs. Willson finally breathed a sigh of relief.

She is still counting on the Willson Group to come back to life. As long as the bankruptcy can be delayed, she may have a chance.

Maybe when the next Fredmen will come out?

For her, the Willson family is currently facing great difficulties, but in the final analysis, it is only a problem of tens of millions. If she really encounter a big boss like Fredmen with a worth of tens of billions, the other party will casually leak from fingers. A little money was enough to bring the Willson family back to life.

Compared with the Old Mrs. Willson who is full of longing and anticipation, Noah is very depressed.

The Lady only got 50,000 for the furniture, and the 50,000 was still in her own hands.

Noah was going to be exhausted, and he was so empty that he could not even afford a pack of cigarettes.

That night, the Lady Willson only took 20 to buy vegetables, and she bought a bunch of rotten cabbage and half a kilogram of pork.

Noah felt dry and uncomfortable, but there was no other way. He could only endure it in his heart, and at the same time racked his brains to study where the Lady Willson would hide the antique left by the Old Master.

Just as the Willson family complained about the poor life of clear soup and water, Claire's family had already begun to move to the Tomson villa early the next morning.

Since the furniture is newly bought, there is no need to carry any large items when moving. The four people each packed their clothes and supplies, and then packed the tableware and kitchenware. They found a truck and pulled them all at once.

Charlie was in a particularly good mood, because when he was tidying up the bedroom, he deliberately asked Claire if he wanted to put the blanket roll he used to lay on the floor.

Claire said embarrassedly: "Aren't you all ready to upgrade? Why are you still bringing these things?"

Upon hearing this, Charlie was suddenly excited!

After the truck arrived at Tomson's first product, Jacob put a few hand-drawn small salutes in the air at the door, which was regarded as a housewarming joy.

Then, the family of four began to clean up their rooms.

Charlie and Claire cleaned up Master bedroom on the second floor, Elaine cleaned up Master bedroom on the third floor by herself, while Jacob went to clean up the small room next door with a muffled voice.

In his words, he wanted to separate from Elaine.

Elaine didn't bother to quarrel with him, anyway, she was going to sleep in Master bedroom on the third floor. As for Jacob, wherever she likes to sleep, she is upset when she sees him now, and it's a pleasure to be separated.

However, Claire felt a little uncomfortable.

Although the relationship between her parents has not been very good, they have been here for more than 20 years, and now they are separated, which makes her feel uncomfortable.

But she also knew that, as a daughter, she shouldn't interfere too much with her parents' affairs, so she thought, whether they should be separated first, both of them can calm down and think about it.

If they can all want to open up, then the future will be better.

When Charlie and Claire were about to pack up, Elsa also took a taxi.

She didn't have much things, just two suitcases and one bag, Claire enthusiastically invited her in, and then took her directly to the second floor by elevator.

As soon as she got out of the elevator, she shouted: "Charlie, come and help Elsa!"

Chapter 794

Charlie hurriedly went out and saw Elsa who had been specially dressed up.

Elsa is very beautiful today. A beige windbreaker with a black base sweater inside not only looks tall and plump, but also particularly feminine. As for the lower body, it is a woolen short skirt with black leggings, and a slender pair. The legs are completely outlined, thin and long, very eye-catching.

When Elsa saw Charlie, her face was flushed, she waved her hand at him a little nervously, and said, "Charlie, I will thank you for your care in the future!"

Charlie smiled slightly, nodded and said: "Welcome, welcome."

In fact, Charlie felt a little helpless in his heart.

He knew that Elsa liked him.

If she just confessed to him, he didn't care, he declined or turned deaf.

However, now she suddenly moved over to live under the same roof with him, which really made him a bit big.

But of course he couldn't show anything abnormal in front of Claire.

Claire pointed to Elsa's two big boxes and said to Charlie: "Charlie, you are strong, help Elsa get the luggage to her bedroom."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and dragged two boxes into Elsa's bedroom.

Elsa also followed in, feeling sweet in her heart.

In her opinion, she will be able to get closer to Charlie in the future, no matter whether she can be with Charlie in the end, as long as she can get closer to him, she will be very satisfied.

After all, in her heart, Charlie is not only the object of her secret crush, but also her savior twice, so she only longed to be closer to Charlie, so that she would be satisfied.

As for whether the two will develop, it depends on the relationship between him and Claire.

If the two are always a false marriage, then she will naturally have to fight for it, but if the two have a real relationship, then she can definitely not grab the husband of her girlfriend.

Elsa followed Charlie into the room, looked around, and said in surprise: "Ah, this room is quite big!"

"Yeah." Charlie smiled and said, "It must be enough for you to live alone."

Elsa pursed her lips and nodded. She immediately saw that Claire hadn't come in, so she hurriedly asked, "How are you and Claire?"

"Very good." Charlie replied smoothly.

"Oh..." Elsa asked vaguely: "Are there any changes compared to before?"

Elsa wanted to know whether Charlie and Claire had broken through that relationship, but it was difficult to ask very clearly, so she could only vaguely knock on the side.

Charlie didn't think much, just casually said: "We are in a stable relationship, and there is no change."

When Elsa heard him say that there was no change, she felt more at ease. It is estimated that Claire and Charlie are still sleeping in separate beds, which proves that the two of them still have no breakthrough.

For her, this is good news.

At this time, Elaine on the third floor was very excited. She took a lot of photos and selfies in her large bedroom, and also turned on the beauty filter to the maximum, and then carefully selected a few of the living room and the photos taken from the outside. Photos were sent to the circle of friends together.

The accompanying text is: "Oh, after waiting for so long, I finally moved into my Tomson villa! This is the largest apartment of Tomson! With such a large living room and such a large bedroom, I don't know how to sleep at night. Will you be scared here!"

After writing this, she thought of Mrs. Willson and added another sentence: "Hey, this villa has three floors above ground and two floors below ground. There are five floors in total. There are ten bedrooms, each of which is very luxurious and stylish, but we have a family of four. , Where can I live here? I'm really sad..."

Chapter 795

Elaine finished editing the copy of the Moments, and deliberately added a few shy expressions to the back, and then opened the location of Tomson, and clicked sent happily.

When this was posted, many people immediately liked and commented.

The message was all kinds of admiration, catering, kneeling and licking, marveling at how luxurious her mansion is.

After all, no one thought that Elaine could live in a top-notch villa of more than one billion, which is beyond the understanding for everyone who knew her.

At this time, the Willson family was boiling cabbage around a pot of duck racks, eating bitter tears.

The Lady Willson herself did not lose the money, and was quite dissatisfied with Noah and his children's contradictions yesterday, so she also deliberately wanted to toss them.

So, she went out to buy vegetables in the morning, only bought a duck rack, and then bought two Chinese cabbage, washed and chopped directly, and simmered in a pot.

She felt that, anyway, she was old, had a small appetite, and couldn't eat anything that was too meaty and greasy, so she put this kind of clear soup and watery things, as for the three of them, they would like to eat or not, and would not eat it.

Noah, Harold, and Wendy were almost exhausted. The three of them couldn't make up the money for a meal, so they could only eat this stuff with the Lady Willson at home.

The duck frame looked not small, but it was all bones, and there was no meat at all. The bone skull in front of Harold says, he had already eaten a lot, but it just didn't fill his stomach.

Annoyed, he ate while scanning the circle of friends.

Suddenly he saw the one sent by Elaine, and after a closer look, he gritted his teeth and threw the chopsticks off his head. He cursed, "Grass! Elaine, a shrew, has actually moved into Tomson's first product. d*mn, she too. Is it worthy of Tomson's first product?! God is blind!"

When the Lady Willson heard this, she picked up her mobile phone and took a look, and she was suddenly angry!

"This d*mn dog thing, specifically said that there are ten bedrooms can't live in all of them, this is deliberately to tell me!"

Old Mrs. Willson was extremely uncomfortable, and she cursed in her heart that she couldn't give her a room out of so many rooms and let her live in it. Now she is still sending out intentionally to irritate her. It is really a thousand cuts that she will not understand her hatred!

At this time, Noah also looked at the mobile phone circle of friends, looked at the photos of the mansion sent by Elaine, and then looked at the duck rack in front of him and boil cabbage. He was so angry that he couldn't eat anymore, and directly pulled Elaine into the blacklist. .

Out of sight out of mind!

Wendy also has Elaine's WeChat friends, and she opened a glance and was also very angry.

Seeing the emotions of these three people, the Lady Willson was a little depressed, and said hurriedly: "Don't care about the things Elaine sent. She will have to be driven out of the villa within a few days."

After speaking, she cleared her throat and said, "Our top priority is to think about how to make the Willson Group overcome the difficulties and regain its vitality!"

Noah said angrily: "What difficulties have you overcome? Tens of millions of debts must be solved? What can be done? This villa is so old, I think it can sell at most 178 million, and the remaining holes will be repaid. It's big."

After he finished speaking, he looked at Mrs. Willson with some complaints, and said, "The antiques that dad left behind can be sold for tens of millions, right? If you want me to say Mom, you might as well give me all those antiques. I sell them for real. , And then go to buy a house. After the bank takes the villa away, you can still have a place to live."

Old Mrs. Willson said with a cold face: "Buy a house? Do you think I can live there if you buy a house? I can't pay my debts. I might go to jail! I'm already this old. If I go to jail, I will pay and come out alive?"

Chapter 796

Noah plucked up the courage and said, "Mom, even if the court sentenced you to jail one day, Harold and Wendy and I have this money, we can live a stable life anyway, but if you don't take these antiques out, you Once in prison, the three of us will starve to death outside!"

"Starve to death?" Old Mrs. Willson said coldly: "You three have hands and feet, even if you go to sweep the street, you can't starve to death! I tell you Noah, the batch of antiques left by your father is my share, don't think about it!"

Noah couldn't hold back his anger, he stood up quickly, and said coldly: "The things my dad left behind are for our children and grandchildren. Why your alone?"

Old Mrs. Willson said coldly: "Why? Are you going to rebel? Okay, just call me, bark my teeth, I'm dead, none of you want to know where the antiques are. Nothing!"

As she said, the Lady Willson snorted and sneered: "Anyway, I am an old woman. She has long enough to live, and it doesn't matter if I die now. Before I die, I will definitely make a will to donate my life insurance. I won't give you any points! The three of you will suffer at that time. If the Willson family collapses and I die, even if the three of you don't go to the streets to beg for food, you will be reduced to the bottom of the society, and your hard days will be early!"

When Noah heard this, he immediately persuaded himself.

He has no choice.

There is really no way.

Lack of money and no ability to make money is the biggest problem for him and his pair of children. If the Lady Willson is really dead and the life insurance is also donated, he will have no hope.

So he could only suppress his anger and humbly said: "Mom, I am in a rush. Don't be like me."

Old Mrs. Willson snorted coldly, and said arrogantly: "This is pretty much the same!"

At this time, several bank and court cars suddenly stopped at the entrance of Willson's villa.

A large number of law enforcement officers in uniforms and several bank managers quickly came to the door and banged the door.

The family was astonished, Harold hurriedly got up and opened the door. Once he opened the door, he was stunned by the sight in front of him!

At this time, a large number of people rushed in and directly commanded many security guards to blockade the scene.

Then, a person in charge of the court stepped into the villa and said to the Old Mrs. Willson who was eating: "Are you the person in charge of the Willson Group?"

Before waiting for Mrs. Willson to reply, she said to Conveniently: "On behalf of the district court, I formally inform you that multiple creditors of yours have jointly filed an application with the court to request the Willson Group and all the people in your name, to freeze assets, freeze all accounts under the Willson Group and your personal name, and force you to fulfill your repayment obligations!"

Old Mrs. Willson blurted out: "I just paid back more than one million to the bank! The bank manager also told me that he can give me a period of grace, why did he change my mind in a while?!"

The other party said coldly: "The bank considers that you have no profitability, and it is impossible to repay if you delay it. Therefore, it initiated an application together with other creditors and seized all the assets under your name. Now I will give you an hour to clean up. I moved your own things out, it is going to be sealed!"

"what?!"

Old Mrs. Willson stood up tremblingly, and blurted out and asked: "Seize all my assets?! Why?!"

The other party said coldly: "Of course it is because you owe money not to pay back! Also, don't blame me for not reminding you, you can only take away daily clothes, toiletries and ordinary furniture. All cash, luxury goods, and valuables must be left behind."

Chapter 797

When Mrs. Willson heard this, her face suddenly changed!

She shook her body, and the crutch in her hand fell to the ground with a snap.

She thought there was still enough time to find someone to help me, but she didn't expect that the life-giving spell was delivered so quickly!

When Noah and his children heard this, their faces turned pale!

"Mom? What is the situation, our house is going to be sealed up? Haven't we already given over one million?"

With the current economic conditions of the Willson family, if the villa is sealed, they will not even have a place to live, and none of them have any skills, the end will only be worse.

Not only Noah and others are going out to look for work or part-time jobs, but even the Old Mrs. Willson has to find a place to wash the dishes.

Otherwise, they will not survive at all.

Old Mrs. Willson sat down on the ground and said, "You are killing our family of four! I just paid back the money, and you are about to take my house!"

The person in charge said coldly: "We are acting in accordance with the law. If you owe money if you don't pay it back, the creditor has the right to request the court to freeze and seal all your assets! Now I'll give you a piece of advice, if you can get the money to pay off the debt, villa and account. They will all be unblocked, but if you can't pay off your debts in the next three months, the creditor will file a lawsuit against you, and you may be charged for fraud!"

Mrs. Willson frantically hugged her legs and blurted out, "You can't seal up my villa. I have lived here for nearly 20 years. This is my home!"

The other party ignored her and said directly to several staff members: "First take her out and let her calm down."

Several people hurriedly put her up and took her out of the door. Old Mrs. Willson broke down and cried out: "You can't do this! You can't do this!"

No one paid any attention to her yelling.

Noah and others were also taken out by law enforcement officers.

At this time, Noah was desperate.

He has seen the situation and it is now enforced by the court. If he dares to block it, it is a blatant resistance to the law.

Who makes his family owe others money?

Now that people go to the court to apply for enforcement, it is completely reasonable and legal.

Harold collapsed at this time and said: "Dad, what can we do? Where do we live in the villa?"

Wendy cried directly: "We are miserable and poor enough now. If the villa is gone, then I might as well die."

Hearing the words, the Lady Willson scratched her hair and cursed: "The bank of the gods, how can it do things to such an extent, it doesn't give people a way to survive!"

Noah blurted out at this time: "Mom! Where are your antiques?! If they find out, it will be all over!"

When the Lady Willson heard this, her eyes went dark, and she almost fell down.

Noah hurriedly stepped forward to hold her back. Then she eased her energies and said nervously, "Those antiques are all in a hidden area under the basement floor. They probably won't find it..."

Chapter 798

Noah rubbed his temples and said, "If it is discovered, then everything will be over."

As he was talking, another young man in uniform came in outside the door, holding a strange device in his hand.

This device is a long pole with a circle in front of it, which looks a lot like the mine detector used in the movie.

Noah asked in surprise: "Young man, are you a mine detector?"

The man smiled and said, "No, but the principle is similar. They are all metal detectors. They will give out when they encounter metal underground. Mines are also made of metal, so this can also be used for mine clearance, but the sensitivity is almost inferior."

When Noah heard that it was a metal detector, he groaned in his heart and blurted out: "It's fine for you to seal other people's houses. Do you still have to go to other people's houses to clear mines?"

The man said: "With our years of seizure experience, generally as long as it is a villa, there are hidden compartments in the basement, and there are some valuable things hidden inside, so my task is to find them all, and then according to the law, seize them!"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she collapsed to the ground.

Noah's heart was also a little choked. The man hurried into the villa after speaking. Only then did Noah hurriedly help the Lady Willson up and asked, "Mom, what's in the antiques of Dad?"

Old Mrs. Willson said nervously: "There are two vases, an ancient painting, and some other antiques..."

Noah hurriedly asked again, "Are there any metal objects?"

"Yes..." The Lady Willson said in a panic: "There is a Ming Dynasty bronze lamp, a set of tin ware, and two gold horseshoes..."

When Noah heard this, he slapped his thigh abruptly, and said with great pain: "It's over! It's over! This is all over! You hide all these things in the basement, and when they go down and use the stuff, they will find everything out! "

After that, he pointed at the Lady Willson angrily and rebuked: "Just say that you are the most greedy! I told you a long time ago, take things out, take them out, take them out, and I will exchange for some money, you just didn't take it! You don't want to take it if you die! If you really can bring it into the coffin, it's fine, now you can't take it away if you die, it's all sealed up!"

Old Mrs. Willson was nervous to death, her mouth still insisted: "It's impossible, they can't find it, I hide things very concealed, and no one can find it except me!"

Just after speaking, the person in charge walked out of the house and came directly to the Lady Willson, and said coldly: "Hello, we found a secret compartment in the basement of this house, which contains a number of antique cultural relics and precious metals."

When this was just said, the Old Mrs. Willson, who had just been lifted up, sat on the ground again, her face full of despair.

The person in charge said again: "Because this villa is in your name, we acquiesce that the hidden things belong to you. Therefore, we will seal up these cultural relics and precious metals in accordance with the law. These will be publicly auctioned, and all the proceeds from the auction will be used to repay the debt you owe."

"If the total amount of the auction exceeds your total debt, we will refund you the remaining funds after the debt is repaid; if the total amount of the auction is less than your total debt, the creditor has the right to continue to sue you!"

When the man finished speaking, he took out a form and said to Mrs. Willson: "If you understand what I just said, please sign on it!"

"I won't sign!" Old Mrs. Willson shouted hysterically: "You have no right to seize my antiques! Those are my coffin books!"

The person in charge said coldly: "Sorry, according to the law, these antiques have been sealed by us. Even if you don't sign, you can't change any established facts."

After speaking, he turned around and went back to the villa.

Mrs. Willson's eyes went dark, and she immediately passed out in a coma...

Chapter 799

When the Old Mrs. Willson passed out, Noah rushed over, grabbed the Lady Willson's collar and shook it vigorously in anger!

The Old Mrs. Willson was awake vigorously as soon as she fell into a coma. As soon as she opened her eyes, Noah scolded furiously, "Didn't you say that no one except you can find those antiques? Now these antiques are gone! They are gone! !!! How do you let our family live?!"

Old Mrs. Willson felt a pain in her heart, and she was crying in a mess at this time. She was in grief and wailed and said, "I don't know it will be like this. If I knew it would be like this, I won't be hiding at home if I was killed... .."

Speaking of this, the Old Mrs. Willson couldn't help crying tears: "It's over, it's really over this time, everything is over, all her life's hard work is over!"

Harold was also desperate. He cried and said, "There is nothing here, and even the dinner for the evening is gone... I have no food to eat at night, and I am already hungry, but where to sleep at night? You can't sleep in the street!"

Wendy collapsed as soon as she heard this, and cried loudly, "Isn't this going to be wandering on the streets? I don't want it!"

At this time, the staff have begun to carry the things from the house before the car.

The Lady Willson watched all her antiques have been sealed and taken away. She cried loudly in the yard. She wanted to rush to snatch it several times, but was stopped by law enforcement officers.

Noah looked more and more angry, angrily wishing to give the Old Mrs. Willson a kick, this Lady Willson is too selfish! Selfish to the extreme!

The key point is that she was selfish and didn't get any good results. All these things are now confiscated, and there is no doubt that it is impossible to return in this life.

All valuable things were moved away, and the family's worthless clothes and broken furniture were all moved out by the staff, and they were stacked on the side of the road outside the door.

When everything was almost moved, the court staff put a seal on the door of the villa. The person in charge came to the courtyard and said to the four members of the Willson family: "We are now going to stick the door outside the courtyard as well. Put on the seal, please cooperate and move outside. You are already prohibited from entering inside."

"I won't go! This is my home, why should I go!"

Old Mrs. Willson's crying eyes were red and swollen, and the appearance of her disheveled hair was just like that in melodramatic novel, the Lady Willson who had been under the well for decades and only vomited jujube seeds!

The person in charge said: "This has been sealed up. To be clear, this is no longer your home. If you continue to stay here, you are obstructing official duties! We have the right to detain you!"

When Noah heard this, the three of them went out in a hurry.

They don't want to be caught in the detention center for a few days at this time.

Old Mrs. Willson didn't want to go, but at this moment, there was no one around her, and there was no one to support her, so she could only cry and walk out.

After going out of the gate, the court staff also posted two seals on the gate, and then told Mrs. Willson again: "You have three months to prepare funds. If the funds are not available after three months, these things will be auctioned. If it is not enough to repay the debt after the auction, then you will have to be sued!"

Old Mrs. Willson sat slumped in front of her house with a desperate face.

Villas can sell for up to 178 million, and antiques and cultural relics can sell for more than 10 million, which may not be enough for 30 million.

However, the various debts of the Willson Group currently add up to at least 60 million.

This money is not enough...

Chapter 800

In other words, in the next three months, she will not have a place to stay, but after three months, she may be going to jail...

Old Mrs. Willson cried out of breath, and almost pumped it out a few times.

After the people in the court gave the warning, they stopped telling them, and went straight into the car.

The four members of the Willson family could only sit helplessly on the side of their house, guarding a pile of tattered furniture and clothing and daily necessities, weeping secretly.

At this time, they were completely helpless.

Unexpectedly, at this time, the house leaks rain.

Several security guards from the villa property rushed over and said to them: "You guys, please take your things and move out of our villa area as soon as possible. Don't be here to affect the appearance of our villa area."

"What are you talking about?!" Noah scolded angrily: "I have lived here for almost 20 years. You said I affected the appearance of this place? You want to drive me out?!"

The other party said coldly: "Sorry, we also received a notice that you are no longer the owners of this place. Since you have lived here before, you must know that our community is closed management and no outsiders are allowed to enter. Yes, so please leave as soon as possible."

As he said, he pointed to a lot of things on the side of the road, and said: "These things also ask you to move out as soon as possible. If you don't move, our property assumes that these are abandoned things and are free to deal with them."

Noah trembles dryly, and yells: "Too much deception! You want to have a fight with me I guess!"

Several strong security guards immediately pushed him forward and screamed: "What do you want to do? Do you want to do it? There are a dozen people in our security team. How many can you beat?!"

Noah was immediately shocked.

Harold from behind scolded angrily: "Be careful that I call you to complain!"

The security guard sneered: "Complain to us? We follow the rules. What qualifications do you have to complain to us? I tell you, you are not the owners of our community now. If you still stay here and don't leave, I will call the police to arrest you!"

"You..." Harold wanted to start cursing, but seeing the other party's aggressive posture, he froze again.

Noah knew that it was useless for him to stay here now, and he did not take any reason. The house was sealed, and he was naturally not the owner of the community. It was only natural for him to be driven out.

So he could only sigh, and said to a few people: "Pick up your things, only the useful and valuable ones, and leave the rest here and let them take care of them!"

Wendy cried and said, "Dad, where can we go now!"

Noah shook his head and sighed, "I don't know, but it's a problem to stay here..."

Harold also cried, wiped away his tears, and said, "Dad, why don't we go and beg second uncle... Apologize to him, admit mistake, and beg him to take us in, second aunt Didn't say that there are ten bedrooms in her villa? It's enough to ask them to give us two, let us sleep one, let Wendy and grandma sleep one..."

Noah's face is more ugly than bitter gourd, and he sighed: "What you said is simple. Who is your second aunt? Haven't you counted it? At this time, she is too late to watch our jokes, how could she kindly take us in and give us a room? !"

The Old Mrs. Willson who had not spoken all of a sudden stood up and gritted her teeth and said: "Go to Tomson First Grade! Even if I die today, I will die at the door of Tomson First Grade! If Jacob and Elaine don't take us in, I will sue them for abandoning the elderly!"

Chapter 801

At this moment, Tomson Villa.

Elaine was lying on the deck chair on the second-floor all-glass balcony, watching her phone close from ear to ear.

More than 300 people have liked her, breaking her record since installing WeChat.

As for the comments, I can't count them one after a while, or even return them.

Elaine finally felt it today, what is called attention.

People in the entire circle of friends are looking at hers, and they don't hesitate to praise her in the comment area, and she is relaxed and happy.

At this time, Elaine's sisters who played better, sent a message from everyone in the group: "Oh, Sister Elaine moved to the Tomson first-class mansion today, and she has to entertain her for dinner!"

"That's it!" Many people echoed: "Sister Elaine, you are moving to a big house that sells for more than 100 million. It's such a big happy event, it's impossible not to invite us to dinner!"

After a while, all the people in the group came out and lined up for Elaine to invite him to dinner.

Elaine looked at their compliments while feeling depressed in her heart.

Invite to a meal? How can I have money?

Don't think that I live in a mansion worth more than 100 million, but I really can't even get a thousand.

At this time, someone said: "Sister Elaine is worthy, why should you invite a Shangri-La to talk about it!"

An elder sister in the group said: "If Sister Elaine is going to have dinner today, I will take everyone to a high-end spa in the evening. It feels great!"

"Then I invite everyone to sing at Golden Emperor KTV tonight!"

"After singing the song, how about I invite everyone to squeeze their feet and enjoy a foot massage?"

"You are all arranged so densely, then I will invite a late night bar!"

Everyone had arranged the evening activities, so the eldest sister who took the lead said, "Sister Elaine, you are saying something, everyone is waiting for you!"

When Elaine saw that everyone had arranged so well, she also wanted to go out and play with the sisters in her heart.

After all, she was too depressed during this period, and really wanted to take the opportunity to relax.

However, everyone asked her to treat them to dinner, and couldn't afford to pay for it!

Thinking of this, she can only find excuses and say: "Oh, sisters, I'm so sorry. I just moved, there are still a lot of places to clean up in the house, so I may not get time!"

"Oh!" Someone said: "Sister Elaine, you have moved in, so you will slowly clean up! Today is the day of housewarming. If you miss it, there will be no such good sign!"

Elaine was also very excited.

But, money is a big problem!

Jacob has already returned all the remaining money to Charlie, so she can only go to Charlie and ask for the tens of thousands back!

So she said to her friend: "Wait for me, I will confirm the time with my family, and I will reply to you later."

The eldest sister said: "It's half past one in the afternoon. Give us a quasi-trust before three o'clock, so we can arrange time!"

"Okay." Elaine hurriedly agreed, and then quickly got up and wanted to find Charlie.

At this time, Charlie was cooking in the kitchen downstairs.

Chapter 802

Since they just moved to a new house, it took a long time to clean up, so today he had dinner later than usual.

But Charlie's treatment was good. Two beauties, Claire and Elsa, surrounded him and helped him in the kitchen, so cooking became a kind of enjoyment.

After preparing the meal and serving it out, Elaine also walked down from the elevator at this time.

She was going to ask Charlie for money, but when she saw people preparing to eat in the kitchen, she suddenly hesitated.

She wasn't embarrassed to talk to Charlie, the key, husband and daughter were here, so she felt it inappropriate to speak immediately.

At this moment, she heard the doorbell ringing outside, so she said in surprise: "Why someone came to visit just after moving in?"

After speaking, she turned and walked out of the gate and went through the yard to open it.

As soon as the door opened, she suddenly discovered that Mrs. Willson was standing at the door with Noah, Harold and Wendy.

Elaine didn't know that Willson's family had been sealed up. When she saw the Old Mrs. Willson and a group of people, standing at the door like people fleeing with large bags, she frowned and asked, "Why are you here again?"

Seeing Elaine opened the door, Mrs. Willson ignored her, and walked in blankly.

Elaine hurriedly stood in front of her and said, "What are you doing? Break into the house? Believe it or not, I called the police to catch you!"

The Old Mrs. Willson squeezed Elaine away, and while walking inside, she said dissatisfied: "I can't come to see my son? Now I can't even enter your house?"

Elaine was anxious, and grabbed her, and said, "Why don't you understand the good words? You are not welcome here, have you heard? Don't run to our house if you have anything to do in the future, go quickly!"

Old Mrs. Willson broke free from her and walked in. As soon as she entered the living room, she smelled the scent of the food and she shrugged her nose.

It smells so good...

It's more fragrant than the duck stand boiled cabbage for lunch!

Before the meal was finished at the crucial noon, the people from the court came to the door, and after crying and crying for a long time, the Lady Willson was hungry and pressed her back.

At this moment, when She smelled the scent, her stomach gurgled.

When Elaine heard this voice, she sneered immediately, and said, "It turns out that you are coming to our house to beg for food... I think you were so arrogant at the beginning. Every meal was cold and hot. Why are you hungry now? Be like this ghost?"

When the Old Mrs. Willson heard Elaine's words, her face flushed suddenly, and she wanted to go back directly, but when she thought that she was still planning to live in Tomson and want to live a good life, she could only bear her for a while. "My daughter-in-law, mom is really hungry. You can let mom eat first, right?"

Elaine sneered and said, "Stop dreaming, I'll give you ten seconds to get out by yourself, or let the police come and take you away!"

Seeing that the Old Mrs. Willson couldn't make sense with her, she shouted in a loud voice: "Jacob! Do you have the heart to watch your mother starve to death?"

Jacob walked out with a sad look and said, "Mom, 1.21 million was just given to you yesterday, what else can I do?"

Mrs. Willson immediately sat on the ground and cried loudly: "My son, don't you know that the bank has sealed our villa, and your brother and I have nowhere to stay now!"

After that, she looked at Jacob, crying and pleading: "Good son, you can't see your mother starve to death or freeze to death, right?"

Jacob was a little surprised at once, and blurted out: "What's the matter? How could the villa be sealed?"

"It's not because of the debts owed by the Willson Group!" The Old Mrs. Willson wiped her eyes and said, "Good son, you can't save yourself, your villa is so big, you prepare two rooms for your mother. I sleep in the same room with Wendy, and let your brother sleep in the same room with Harold."

Elaine suddenly became anxious, and blurted out: "Lady Willson, why are you so shameless? We have already said that our house does not welcome you, and licked our face to stay, are you not ashamed?"

The Old Mrs. Willson ignored her, looked at Jacob, and pleaded: "Jacob, you are the head of the family, can you speak for your mother?"

After finishing speaking, she cried: "Please, I'm kneeling down for you!"

Chapter 803

Seeing the Lady Willson about to kneel, Jacob panicked and hurriedly reached out to support her.

But the Lady Willson was determined to kneel down. She was paralyzed and fell straight down. She thought about kneeling first and then said, to see if Jacob is really hard-hearted. It's useless for the Lady Willson to kneel for him?

Jacob thought the same as Elaine.

Although he was at odds with Elaine and even planned to separate from her immediately, he and Elaine agreed on the matter of the Lady Willson, that is, in any case, the Lady Willson should not be allowed to live in!

So, Jacob held the Lady Willson in his arms, and said coldly: "Mom, don't come to me to play any tricks. No matter what you say, I can't let you live in this villa!"

The Old Mrs. Willson blamed sadly: "Jacob, do you still have a conscience? You were born during my pregnancy in October. You moved into such a big villa, and you don't even let me live?!"

Jacob nodded and resolutely said: "Mom, you will die of your heart. In any case, I will not agree with you to live here!"

"Have you heard?" Elaine pinched her waist and said, "If you still know that you want a face, just leave, don't wait for me to call the police and drag you out, then your old face won't look good!"

Old Mrs. Willson's face was immediately pulled down, and she snorted coldly, and said, "Jacob is my son! My son! He has the obligation to support me. I have no place to live now. He must accept and support me! Starting today, I just live here and go nowhere! If you don't let me live, I will go to the court to sue you. If you move me, I will call the police and say that you abused the elders, and you will be arrested at that time!"

Elaine pointed at the Old Mrs. Willson and cursed: "You're an Old Master, you're starting to play tricks, right? I don't believe anyone dares to catch me! If you don't get out today, I will kill you!"

After speaking, Elaine opened her teeth and danced her claws, and hit the Old Mrs. Willson's face.

Noah hurriedly blocked her and said, "What are you going to do? Do you beat the Old Lady I tell you, my phone can record images!"

Harold and Wendy also rushed up quickly, surrounded the Lady Willson, and arguably said, "It is reasonable and legal for you to support grandma!"

Jacob was dumbfounded.

He also doesn't know how the law generally deals with such problems, but it sounds like if it really gets into the judicial organs, it seems that he is really unreasonable.

Elaine also panicked. If this really makes them succeed here, how will the good life be? !

They just moved in today, and didn't even get a good night's sleep in this villa. Old Mrs. Willson, a nuisance, was about to get entangled in it. Wouldn't it be annoying? !

When the couple didn't know what to do, Charlie suddenly said: "It is indeed his duty of father-in-law to support his mother, but this villa belongs to me, and I have no obligation to support you!"

Jacob breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "Have you heard? The villa belongs to my son-in-law, not mine. I can't be Master here!"

Old Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth and looked at Charlie, coldly snorted: "You have been eating and drinking for so many years in my Willson family, shouldn't you support me?"

Charlie smiled indifferently: "I am not legally obligated to support you, so I'm sorry, please go back."

Old Mrs. Willson spoofed and said, "Then I don't care, if you marry my granddaughter, you have to support me! I will live in this villa today. No one can get me out. I will die here! "

Charlie frowned and said, "You are trespassing into the homes and provoking troubles. If you don't leave, I will call the police to arrest you!"

The Old Mrs. Willson sneered: "Catch me? I came to my son's house and my granddaughter's house. Why should the police catch me?! Even if you bring the Jade Emperor over, I'm not afraid!"

Chapter 804

Charlie nodded, since you don't want to face, don't blame me for being rude.

So, he said lightly: "Lady Willson, since you don't have a place to live, how about I arrange a place for you to live? It includes food and housing, without spending a penny."

"Don't come to this set with me!" Old Mrs. Willson said disdainfully, "Do you want me to live in the old house where the four of you used to live? I tell you, there is no door! I won't live in such a shabby place, I'll live in you Tomson Villa today!"

Charlie sneered: "You think too much, the old house is also bought with money, how can it be for you to live in vain."

After speaking, he immediately took out his mobile phone and sent Issac a WeChat.

"The Willson family came to Tomson to make trouble. Say hello and get these people into the detention center for half a month."

Issac quickly returned the message: "Understand young master, I will make arrangements."

At this time, Elaine was really upset with Mrs. Willson, and she just wanted to push her and drive her out. Mrs. Willson was too anxious, so she took out her mobile phone and called the police directly, blurting out: "Comrade police, come soon. Help me, my daughter-in-law doesn't support me, and she has to beat me out and let me die out!"

The police said very responsibly: "Where is the address? Let's send someone there!"

The Lady Willson blurted out: "It's in the Tomson Villa area a05!"

"Okay, please wait a moment, our police officers will be there soon!"

Charlie just finished sending WeChat. Seeing that she called the police, he smiled and said, "Since the police have been called, then everyone will wait for the police to decide."

Elaine was anxious about it. She was very afraid that the police would come and forced Jacob to support the elderly.

So she hurriedly said to Charlie: "What police are you waiting for, throw them all out, or else the police will come in a while, and the old things will be here, wouldn't it be more troublesome!"

Old Mrs. Willson coldly snorted and said, "What's the matter? Are you afraid? If you obediently clean up a room and give it to me, so that I can live here safely, I will tell the police officer well, otherwise, I have to take you all to station!"

Noah hurriedly said to the side: "Mom, ask them to prepare two rooms! I have to live with Harold! Can't I say I am Jacob's eldest brother, he also has a maintenance obligation to me! Otherwise, I will tell the police that they fight and break my heart!"

After finishing speaking, Noah looked at Charlie again and snorted coldly: "Tell you charlie, I have coronary heart disease, and I can die here anytime and anywhere. If I die here, you have to be responsible to the end!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Then wait until the police arrives."

Soon, there was a knock on the door.

Noah was overjoyed and hurriedly told Harold: "Harold, go open the door!"

Harold quickly went out and opened the door.

At this time, a team of police officers walked in from outside the door.

The Old Mrs. Willson hurriedly cried and shouted: "Comrade police, you have give the old woman a shot. My son is not willing to support me. My daughter-in-law and grandson-in-law beat me!"

Chapter 805

Elaine hurriedly said: "Comrade police, don't listen to this Lady Willson's nonsense. My husband was kicked out of the house by her and severed the relationship between mother and child!"

The police officer looked at Elaine, then looked down at Mrs. Willson, and asked, "Is what she said is true?"

"It's not true!" The Old Mrs. Willson said hurriedly, "I was just talking for a while!"

"An angry word?" Jacob was also angry, and blurted out: "You have long stopped letting us live in the Willson family villa. You also kicked out my daughter and me from the Willson family group, and detained me and Elaine in the Willson family. The group's pension, cut off the mother-child relationship with me, and now you're in a downfall, just tell me it's a moment of anger?!"

The police officer frowned and asked, "Whose the owner of the villa?"

Charlie said: "It's me."

The police officer nodded and asked, "What is your relationship with this Lady Willson on the ground?"

"It doesn't matter." Charlie said: "She is my wife's grandmother."

The police officer said to the Lady Willson: "You have come to the wrong place. You can consult with your son and daughter about maintenance, but you can't break into your grandson-in-law's house and make trouble. You are already suspected of breaking into the house and provoking trouble."

"What?!" The Old Mrs. Willson scolded angrily: "Your head is crowded? My son's house, can't I come?"

The police officer said patiently, "The key is not your son's house, understand?"

"I understand your uncle!" Mrs. Willson scolded angrily: "I don't care about this, they must take me in today, otherwise, I won't leave!"

Noah also concealed himself and blurted out: "I am Jacob's eldest brother, I have no place to live now, and he also has maintenance obligations to me. If they don't take us in, we will not leave!"

"That's right, we are not going!" Harold and Wendy also sat on the ground, lying here.

Elaine's face was extremely ugly, and said: "Your family of four is too shameless, right? All you have is to rely on house?!"

Old Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth and said, "Anyway, if you don't let me live, I'll just sit here, sit here without eating or drinking! I'm going to die at your door! I'll haunt you when I become a ghost!"

Elaine was stunned.

Charlie was also shocked.

Isn't this the way the mother-in-law used to scold the streets in the previous neighborhood?

The Lady Willson and Elaine, really are born to be the same.

The police officer looked at these four people, waved to the subordinates beside him, and ordered: "Come on, take these people back."

"OK, Sir!"

The other police officers quickly controlled Mrs. Willson and handcuffed them quickly.

Old Mrs. Willson was confused by this scene and said angrily: "Policeman, did you catch me wrong? They abandoned me and what did you catch me for?"

The police officer glanced at her and said: "You have been suspected of provoking troubles. In accordance with the law and order, you will be detained for 15 days!"

Old Mrs. Willson struggled quickly, and said, "Why are you indifferent? You are turning black and white and wronging good people!"

The police officer frowned and said: "If you don't abandon your support, you can file a lawsuit in the court, and the court will judge it, but you can't go to someone else's house to make trouble. This is already illegal!"

After that, the police officer warned: "The four of you had better be honest. If you yell or even resist, you will be deemed to be obstructing official duties, and you may be sentenced at that time!"

The Old Mrs. Willson was desperate and blurted out: "Why! Why! Why are you arresting me? I'm just an Lady Willson who has no place to live. Even if you are pitiful and pity me, you can't take me away!"

The police officer said coldly: "No matter how poor you are, you must obey the law! Take them all away!"

Chapter 811

Elaine observed at the numbers on the cash machine screen, shocked.

At this moment, she felt that the whole world had collapsed.

She was shocked and she didn't understand why Charlie had a deposit of more than 20 billion!

"How is this possible? Twenty billion! I am crazy or Charlie is crazy! Where did he get so much money?"

Elaine's hands are shaking, 20 billion! Not two hundred, not two million!

She had never dreamed of so much money in her life!

Where did Charlie get so much money? Could it be that he fooled Bill Gates?

At this moment, Elaine's first thought was to call Charlie and ask what was going on.

But the next moment, she suddenly realized that it was impossible!

Isn't it exposed when you call?

Before Charlie knew it, she had to get as much of his money as possible and get it into his card!

Thinking of this, she immediately clicked on the transfer function and entered her bank account number. Then, when she entered the transfer amount, she hesitated slightly.

After a while, she looked excited, and entered 21,900,000,000 in the amount column!

A total of 21.9 billion, Elaine plans to credit all of it to his account.

She didn't bother to worry about how Charlie got the money.

But the money was seen by her, it was all her own!

Fighting with the Lady Willson and Jacob for a lifetime, isn't it just for a little money to provide for the elderly?

After the previous two million was gone, she fully understood how painful it was to lose money.

So, now, seeing the money, she has only a strong possessive desire in her heart.

With all this money, what can she worry about in life?

The life that she had never dreamed of before seems to have begun to wave to her.

So, she immediately pressed the confirmation button with emotion.

21.9 billion!

It's all mine!

I, Elaine, have a chance to become a billionaire!

At this moment of ecstasy in her heart, a prompt popped up on the screen: "Automated teller machine transfers. The maximum transfer amount in a single day is 1 million, and the maximum cash withdrawal amount in a single day is 100,000. If you need a higher amount of financial Service, please go to the counter with your card!"

"Oh sh!t!"

Elaine scolded: "The single-day limit is only 1 million, which is enough to do an egg? You can transfer 365 million away without falling a day! Wouldn't it be better to transfer 21.9 billion away by this method? Won't it take decades!"

Thinking of this, Elaine immediately chose to withdraw the card, and then went into the bank with the card!

No, today, no matter what, all the money must be transferred away! So as not to have many dreams at night!

Elaine's style of work is tornadoes, wherever she goes, no penny must be left!

Afterwards, Elaine walked towards the bank lobby with excitement.

As soon as she walked in, an enthusiastic young woman said to her: "Hello, what kind of business is going on? I'll help you get an account."

Elaine shook the black gold card in her hand and couldn't wait to say: "I want to make a transfer!"

When the young woman saw the black gold card in her hand, she was shocked!

All Citibank staff have undergone professional training before taking up their posts. In the training class, there is a section dedicated to explaining the black gold card!

This black gold card is the highest standard of Citibank. It is limited to one hundred issued in the world, and only five in China!

Everyone holding a black gold card is a super VIP guest of Citibank, no matter it is any executive of Citibank, he will serve him respectfully when he sees it!

She never expected that the legendary Black Gold Card would appear in the second-tier city of Aurous Hill!

So she hurriedly stepped forward, bowed very respectfully ninety degrees, and blurted out: "Dear distinguished guest, please follow me to the VIP reception room! I will ask our president to come over and handle the business for you personally!"

When Elaine heard that she was a distinguished guest, she immediately felt the strong pleasure of pretending to be successful from her scalp to her toes, so she immediately urged and laughed: "Hurry up and take me over! Neglect me, be careful I let Your president fire you!"

The other party panicked and said hurriedly: "Please don't be angry, please follow me!"

The young woman invited Elaine to the VIP room, and immediately asked the service staff in the VIP room to pour water for Elaine, and then ran to the president's office quickly, and hurriedly pushed the door in without knocking on the door, and said, "President, President! Here is a VIP client!"

The bank president frowned, very dissatisfied with the staff's act of pushing the door without knocking, and shouted coldly: "What does the fuss look like? If people see it, they think how rough our bank staff are!"

The young woman said breathlessly: "President, the VIPs with black gold cards is here to handle business!"

The president suddenly sat up from the chair, his eyes widened, his breathing was short, and he blurted out and asked, "What? Say it again!"

The young woman said, "The Black Gold VIP guest is here! She is in the VIP room! Come and take a look!"

"My God!" The governor felt a whirlwind feeling: "The VIP of the Black Gold Card? Are you sure it is the Black Gold Card? Only five of the gadgets have been issued nationwide, and I have never seen the real thing!"

"I'm sure!" the young woman said confidently: "We talked about the black gold card during our training. I will definitely not read it wrong!"

The manager hurriedly straightened his collar and quickly got up and ran out.

Black gold card VIP, that is the VIP of VIPs, the super VIP of VIP, who has this card, who is not a super rich person worth hundreds of billions?

It is said that the five cards issued nationwide are all given to top families, one each for the three top families of Eastcliff and the two top families of Zhonghai, and there is no more!

Don't know which family member came with the black gold card today? Wade family, Su family, or Zhonghai Xue family? Or the other two families? !

The president rushed to the VIP room, opened the door respectfully, and saw Elaine sitting on the sofa.

At this time, Elaine had the illusion of the Empress, arrogantly tilting her legs.

At the thought of immediately becoming a super rich with 21.9 billion in cash, Elaine was so excited that she almost became incontinent.

The president could not see the depth of Elaine, but he also recognized the black gold card in her hand, so he hurriedly stepped forward, bowed and said, "Hello, honorable black gold card guest, I am the president of the bank. Li Dongtao, you just call me Dongtao."

Elaine gave an arrogant hum, and said contemptuously: "Oh, Dongtao, you just came here, I want to transfer money, but you sh!t ATMs say I can only transfer one million a day, it's not the f*ck What about bullshit? I have more than 20 billion in Kali, and can only transfer 1 million a day. Can I transfer it till death?"

Dongtao hurriedly apologized and said, "Dear distinguished guest, I'm really sorry. This ATM is for ordinary people to put it bluntly. Think about it, it's just a boxy machine with limited capacity. If you put it to death, you can't put a lot of money. How can it match your status as a VIP of the Black Gold Card?"

As he said, he hurriedly complimented: "A super VIP like you, to any Citibank, as long as you show the black gold card, it is the top VIP treatment. The president personally entertains you, how can we stand your noble body? Operate in front of the ATM!"

Chapter 813

Hearing what Dongtao said, Elaine felt a lot of comfort immediately.

It turns out that ATMs are for ordinary people!

Hahaha, ordinary people, aren't they just poor people?

This Dongtao is right. Like herself, a super rich who is about to have tens of billions of assets, how can her distinguished body stand in front of an ATM to operate that sh!t?

Thinking of this, Elaine stretched happily and said to Dongtao: "Yes, Dongtao, you have a future!"

"Where you award, you passed the award!" President Dongtao respectfully said: "If you want to handle the transfer business, I can do it for you personally."

After speaking, he immediately sat opposite Elaine and turned on the computer dedicated to the VIP room.

After the computer was turned on, he asked Elaine: "Madam, which account and how much are you going to transfer to?"

Elaine took out a bank card of her own, handed it to him together with the black gold card, and opened her mouth: "From this premium card, transfer me 21.9 billion to this white ICBC card. in!"

Dongtao was so frightened that he almost urinated.

"Madam...Are you sure you want to transfer 21.9 billion?!"

Elaine nodded, and said impatiently: "Yes, what the h*ll, I have to do it quickly, have you heard it? Otherwise, I will smash your bank!"

Dongtao swallowed, and subconsciously took the premium card, put the chip up and inserted it into the card reader, and then said to Elaine: "Please enter your password."

Elaine raised her hand and entered Charlie's lunar birthday on the password keyboard.

The password is correct.

Later, Dongtao also saw the account balance, which was indeed more than 21.9 billion.

He was shocked in his heart.

Unexpectedly, a middle-aged woman who took out a black gold card would have more than 20 billion in it. What a woman!

However, he is just the president of a small branch in Aurous Hill, and his authority is not enough to check the identity of the owner of the black gold card, so he doesn't know whose name the card is issued for.

But the black gold card is like this.

Most people cannot find out the true identity of the owner of the black gold card. As long as someone withdraws money from the black gold card, there is no need to ask how much to withdraw, because the privacy of the black gold card owner must be fully respected.

Moreover, the black gold card is never afraid of stealing it.

Because in this world, no matter how courageous a thief is, he will retract his hand in shock when he sees the black gold card.

Once someone steals the black gold card and steals the money in the card, with the strength of the black gold card owner, this person is absolutely lifeless to spend the money.

This is the same as if the credit card amount of a rich person is extremely high, but without a password.

For those who are rich, there is no need to set a password on a credit card. Whoever dares to steal it, the bank and the police are the first to let him go.

The black gold card of Charlie was sent to him by Stephen, and the password was set at the beginning. Because this card was rarely used, Charlie never changed the password.

When Stephen gave this card to Charlie, the password of the card was Charlie's birthday in the lunar calendar, and Elaine guessed it by mistake.

Now, Elaine wants to take away all the money in this card.

Because Dongtao did not have the authority to check the identity of the card owner, he could not determine who Elaine was. Moreover, out of respect for the owner of the black gold card, he could only do business.

Thinking of this, he complimented: "Are you sure you want to transfer 21.9 billion to this ICBC card, right?"

Elaine said impatiently: "I'm sure, what are your ink marks? Hurry up!"

Dongtao was taken aback and nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay, I'll help you handle it!"

Afterwards, he immediately entered Elaine's account on the computer.

After confirming that it was correct, he clicked Confirm, and then said to Elaine: "Please enter your password again to confirm."

Elaine can't wait to enter the password.

Chapter 814

Dongtao said immediately: "I am reminding that the money has been transferred out."

Elaine hurriedly turned on the phone, opened her mobile bank, went in and took a look, and asked in surprise, "Why haven't it arrived?"

Dongtao hurriedly said: "Don't worry, this is 21.9 billion after all. The banking system has to repeatedly confirm such a large amount and report it to the central bank for the record, so it will take a while to get the account."

Elaine was a little impatient, and asked: "Are you f*cking bullshitting with me? Have to wait? How long will it take?!"

Dongtao said: "This is uncertain. If it is fast, it will take tens of minutes, if it is slow, it will be up to one working day."

Elaine said angrily: "Why is it going to take so long! Let it be faster, or I will let you Citibank fire you!"

Dongtao said helplessly: "This is not something I can control, it's the central bank's decision. Even if you go to the court to sue me, I can't help it..."

Elaine saw that Dongtao was indeed unable to affect this speed, and said angrily: "I knew it was so slow. I would transfer a million first, and then transfer the rest. I am really mad at myself now!"

Dongtao hurriedly said, "You can wait here for a while and have a look."

She was already scratching her heart at this time.

21.9 billion!

She felt uncomfortable when the account arrived one second late.

But she has no other way, she can only wait.

So she said coldly: "I'm waiting here, go and pour me a cup of coffee! Want the best one!"

Dongtao hurriedly said: "I'll go and pour it for you!"

.....

At this moment.

After Charlie came out of the kitchen, Jacob waved at him, smiled and said, "Good son-in-law, come sit down and have a cup of tea."

"Okay." There was no one at home, and Charlie didn't be polite with Jacob, so he sat directly in front of him.

Jacob hurriedly poured him a cup of tea, and said with a smile: "Oh, thanks to your blessing, I have the opportunity to sit in this big villa and drink tea. Come and taste it."

Charlie nodded, smiled and said, "Thank you Dad."

After speaking, he picked up the teacup and took a bite, shaking his head secretly.

Jacob really didn't have much money, and he lived relatively cheaply. The tea was worth up to three hundred a kilogram, and he still enjoyed drinking it.

Jacob smiled and said at this time: "This tea is a good thing. I secretly bought it from the granddaughter of a tea farmer on WeChat. It was 5,000 a kilogram. I was not willing to buy more, so I bought two taels. I usually don't want to drink it. "

Charlie asked in surprise: "The tea farmer's granddaughter? It's not the grandfather who is sick and has no money to see a doctor, and sells his top-quality tea cheaply?"

"Oh, how do you know?" Jacob smiled and said: "Good tea is also to be picked up, and the opportunity is rare. If you drink it well, I will get you some when I look back."

Charlie sighed helplessly, and said, "Dad, you have cheated people. Those are all routines, not true."

"How is it possible?" Jacob said with a serious face, "I'm so good with little girls! There are still many videos and photos in the circle of friends."

Charlie smiled and said, "It's all fabricated fake materials. Maybe it's a big guy who is talking with you."

When speaking, Charlie also secretly thought in his heart that Jacob had indeed had a hard time, he had never seen any good things.

The tea that he drank with his father when he was young was not sold by two pounds, but by grams, and no tea was cheaper than gold.

However, this kind of good thing, father-in-law must have never tasted it. It seems that he has a chance to make some good tea for him, so that he will also have a long experience.

At this moment, his mobile phone suddenly received a text message.

"Dear Mr. Charlie, your black gold card account was successfully transferred out of RMB 21,900,000,000.00 at 15:02 today."

Charlie frowned when he saw this text message.

Chapter 815

Charlie, who had always been calm, couldn't help being dumbfounded when he saw this short breath!

In his Citibank Black Gold Card, there are a total of a little over 21.9 billion in deposits.

Among them, when Stephen first sent the card, there were 10 billion in it;

Then he pitted Kobayashi Pharmaceutical twice. The first time he pitted Kobayashi's president Masao Kobayashi for 10 billion. After his death, Masao Kobayashi pitted his second son for a billion;

A few days ago, Mr. Song gave him another one-billion-dollar card. He had nowhere to deal with it, so he put the money into this card.

The total revenue is 22 billion.

But I didn't spend a lot of money, so in total he still has 21.9 billion plus tens of millions of change.

Now they were transferred away at 21.9 billion. Who did it? !

The first thing he thought of was the Wade Family.

Could it be that he was reluctant to return to Wade's house for so long, and that Wade's family took back the money in his card?

Then the big family won't take away his own money, right?

Wade family is unlikely, then it might be stolen!

However, the black gold card is said to have very powerful chip encryption and the possibility of forgery is extremely low, so it is possible that the card has been stolen!

Thinking of this, he immediately put down his teacup and walked to the second floor.

Jacob hurriedly asked, "Charlie, where are you going? Great tea, go after drinking?"

Charlie waved his hand: "Dad, I have something urgent to deal with. I will get you some real good tea to taste."

After speaking, the person ran up the stairs.

Jacob sighed and sighed: "Hey, this kid, you don't know how to drink such good tea. What kind of real good tea can you make for me? Don't let people fool you and burn you up."

Charlie rushed back to the room at this time, the first thing was to look for his black gold card in his coat.

Some coats, sure enough!

d*mn it.

This is a bit of a pull.

The security of Tomson Villa is so good, who can steal his card?

Besides, if they steal the card, they don't know the password! The password is his birthday, even if they try, it must be someone who knows him before they have the chance to try it out...

At this time, a familiar face suddenly popped out of his mind.

Elaine!

It's definitely her!

When Charlie thought of this, his expression immediately went cold.

"Okay, you usually make a bad habit, just forget it, and steal the money?"

The point is, she is so bold! 21.9 billion, she is not scared after seeing it? Her heart is so dark!

Thinking of this, he immediately took out his cell phone and called Stephen.

On the other side of the phone, Stephen's old and steady voice came: "Mr. Wade what's your order?"

Charlie said coldly: "My black gold card is stolen, and the money inside is also taken away."

Stephen hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade how many are there in total?"

Charlie said: "21.9 billion!"

"So many?!" Stephen was surprised. It didn't take long for the 10 billion to be given to Charlie, how could it become 21.9 billion so quickly? The speed of making money is impressive, Mr. Wade is too awesome, right?

However, he was not overly surprised, but hurriedly and professionally judged: "So much money is transferred out, the central bank will definitely check it first. That is to say, the money is now out of your card to the central bank's settlement center. After the approval, the money will be released to the other party. The amount is so large that it will probably take at least an hour. Mr. Wade how long has your money been out?"

Charlie said: "A few minutes, not too long."

Chapter 816

Stephen breathed a sigh of relief and said, "That's good, the Wade family cooperates very closely with the central bank. I say hello, and the money will be returned to your card."

"Okay." Charlie also relieved a little.

Two minutes after hanging up the phone, Charlie received another text message on his cell phone:

"Dear Mr. Charlie, RMB 21,900,000,000.00 will be credited to your Black Gold Card account at 15:06 today."

Charlie breathed a sigh of relief when the money came back.

But then another serious problem came to mind.

Elaine stole his card.

Tried out his own password.

She also saw the amazing balance in his card.

If Claire knew about this incident, how to explain it to her? !

Thinking of this, Charlie's expression grew colder.

Elaine, thinking that she is Claire's mother. He has endured her for so long, but she is really playing too much today.

He must not let her go easily today!

So he immediately called Issac again.

On the other end of the phone, Issac's voice rang respectfully: "Mr. Wade what's your order?"

Charlie said angrily: "My mother-in-law died, stole my black gold card, and ransacked me 21.9 billion. I am going to teach her a lesson. Please help me contact the relevant department and cooperate."

Issac said immediately, "Mr. Wade please give me your orders!"

Charlie immediately informed Issac of his arrangements, and said: "You must make arrangements for me, don't go on a business trip, understand?"

"Understood Master!"

.....

Citibank VIP room.

Elaine refreshed her mobile banking over and over again.

In mobile banking at this time, there was only a pitiful 0.32.

All she was thinking about was that the 21.9 billion hurriedly arrive, so that she could instantly reach the pinnacle of her life!

However, after brushing for a long time, ten minutes passed, and the money has not arrived yet.

She couldn't help being a little irritable, and was about to scold that Dongtao, when she suddenly received a call from a friend.

"Hey, Elaine, are you going to make a face tomorrow? We are going to form a group and go together."

Elaine disdainfully said, "Making face? What kind of face? What kind of face do I have, and making faces with you? What the h*ll do you think?"

The voice of the other party immediately changed: "What do you mean by talking that way?"

Elaine sneered: "What do I mean? I tell you that going to a beauty salon to do facials is what people like you do, and I want to buy the beauty salon directly and serve me alone. I will not follow you in the future. This kind of person draws a line!"

The other party said in disbelief: "Elaine, are you crazy? Just you, and you still bought the beauty salon? Are you dreaming!"

Elaine shook her head and said with a sense of superiority: "I have nothing to say with you, poor, I tell you, Elaine is now different from what I used to be. You can't imagine the money I have in this life."

The other party sneered and said, "I think you should take medicine!"

After speaking, she directly hung up the phone.

Elaine didn't care when she was hung up. Now she's floating all over, like this kind of poor friend, don't need to touch her, if she sees her in the future. .

So she drank a sip of the top Blue Mountain coffee and watched Dongtao scolded: "Hurry up, do it faster! This Lady's money hasn't arrived yet, what are you doing? Believe it or not, I'll call you tomorrow. Don't do it?"

Dongtao was very annoyed by Elaine's arrogant attitude, but he could only bite the bullet and said: "Madam, please wait a moment, the central bank will take time to deal with it!"

Elaine said unreasonably: "I don't care about your sh!t reasons, you can find out what happened there, otherwise I will just give millions to kill you!"

Chapter 817

Dongtao was frightened by Elaine, and could only say helplessly: "Then I will help you look at our progress. If it has been reported to the central bank, I can't find the rest."

Elaine was anxious, so she splashed coffee on his face and cursed: "Hurry up, what's this all? Your mother is going to die!"

Dongtao was screaming when he was hot on face. Fortunately, the coffee was not very hot, otherwise he would have to be disfigured.

He was furious, but he really didn't dare to provoke such a big woman, so he could only humbly say: "Wait a minute, I will help you see the progress."

After that, after entering the system and checking, he said in surprise: "No! This money shows that the central bank has returned it."

"What is it? Where did you go?"

Dongtao said: "Your black gold card has been returned to the account."

"What?" Elaine slapped Dongtao when she went up, cursing: "What's the matter with you b@stard? Why is my money returned again?!"

Dongtao, an Old Master who was aggrieved, cried and cried, "Madam, I really don't know...this is returned by the central bank, not by me... ."

"f*ck your mother!" Elaine slapped the table and yelled, "Hurry up and transfer it to me again! Maybe I will break this bank!"

At this time, Elaine was full of hurriedly getting the 21.9 billion. Even if her mother stood in front of her, she would kick away without hesitation.

She thought that the money was coming soon, but she never dreamed that the central bank returned the money again. What the h*ll? Cheating?

At this moment, there was a rush of footsteps outside the VIP room.

Immediately afterwards, the door was kicked open. A group of police officers with guns and live ammunition quickly rushed in and asked: "Who used the black gold card to transfer the money just now?!"

Dongtao was frightened, and pointed to Elaine tremblingly and said: "This lady, is there any problem?"

The police ignored him and said directly to Elaine: "What's your name?"

When Elaine saw the police coming, she was shocked and panicked.

what happened? Charlie called the police?

I am his mother-in-law! Should it be illegal for a mother-in-law to take money from her son-in-law?

Just when she was stunned, the police questioned again: "What is your name!"

"I...I..." Elaine said flusteredly: "My name is Elaine..."

The police said coldly: "Elaine, right? You are now officially arrested by us for being suspected of participating in a major bank fraud case!"

After that, he shouted to the two people around him: "Handcuff me and take it away!"

When Elaine heard this, her face paled in fright, and she blurted out: "Police officer, misunderstanding, I just came to transfer the account, the card is not mine, and I have not defrauded the bank!"

Officer said coldly: "Let's say these things when you arrive in the interrogation room. As servants of the people, we will not wrong any good person, but we will never let any bad person go."

Chapter 818

Elaine hurriedly shouted: "This card is not mine, this card belongs to my son-in-law, and my son-in-law's name is Charlie! Are you misunderstanding?"

Officer said coldly: "I'm telling you, this card was forged by an overseas high-tech criminal group! It was specially used to defraud banks of huge amounts of money! This transnational case, we have joined the International Criminal Police Organization of 23 countries and it has been investigated. It's been two years, and now it's finally time for you, the fox, to show the feet! Now that the evidence is there, you still dare to quibble?!"

Elaine suddenly collapsed!

d*mn, that card is forged? !

"He just said it!"

Charlie, this d*mn stinky silk, how could he have 21.9 billion so much money!

It turned out to be a f*cking lie!

The point is, listening to the police, this card seems to be involved in a major transnational case? !

Joint tracing by Interpol in 23 countries? This battle is too big, right? If they really think she did it, they can't shoot her?

Thinking of this, Elaine knelt on the ground with a puff, and tremblingly cried: "Comrades, you really wronged me. I'm an ordinary law-abiding citizen. This card was given to me by my d*mn son-in-law, the son-in-law is idle all day long and is cheated everywhere. You must catch him and give me my innocence!"

After she finished speaking, she hurriedly said: "This Charlie is now in Tomson Villa a05. Go and take him away. It's better to sentence him to life imprisonment! I don't like to see this b@stard again in my life. !"

The leading policeman snorted coldly: "You are shaking the pot quickly! We don't know Charlie, we only know that you used this card. You used this card to defraud Citibank 219. Fortunately, we discovered it early and intercepted the transfer in time. Otherwise, you would succeed! You will wait to sit in prison this time!"

Elaine collapsed completely, and she slumped on the ground and cried loudly: "Comrade police, I am really innocent, I am wronged!"

Just as she was talking, a cup of tea was suddenly poured on Elaine's face. Dongtao rushed up and kicked Elaine to the ground with a single kick. Then he rushed up crazy and slammed her face, shouting hysterically. "d*mn, you liar, I'm also a bank leader, you screamed at me, poured coffee on my face, and slapped me in the face, I'll kill you!"

The two young policemen hurriedly pulled Dongtao away, when Elaine was already bloodied and terrible.

The police headed at this time said: "Okay, take the people in the car and go back to the bureau for the trial!"

Elaine, with a blood-stained face, was dragged by two policemen, her legs slid on the ground, and her mouth was crazy and shouted in a torn voice: "I'm wronged! The card is not mine! The card is Charlie's. b@stard! What are you doing with me? Why don't you catch that b@stard?"

The people in the whole bank lobby were staring at this scene dumbfounded. Elaine couldn't care about the embarrassment. The wow-wow rusher shouted: "Help! I was wronged! You must testify for me! "

Everyone froze, testify? What proof do they know her?

At this time, the policeman leading the team said coldly: "I tell you, even if you have a skyrocket, it's useless! When you arrive at the police station, there is a longer interrogation waiting for you. I advise you to keep your strength!"

The blood-stained Elaine was like a Rakshasa, desperately breaking free from the restraint of the police and the handcuffs, and shouted: "Let me make a call! I want to call my daughter! Let my daughter bring the liar over to accept the crime. Turn yourself himself in, then you will know that I am innocent!"

The policeman took the phone out of her pocket directly and said coldly: "You are the main suspect in a major transnational criminal case. During our interrogation and handling of the case, you have no right to contact anyone!"

After that, he turned off Elaine's cellphone and shouted to the two policemen who were dragging her: "Hurry up and get her in the car, hurry up!"

The two of them moved directly to the left and right, lifted Elaine, carried her out of the bank lobby, and stuffed it into the back seat of the police car.

Immediately, a group of police cars roared to the police station!

Chapter 819

Aurous Hill Police Station.

As soon as Elaine arrived, she was directly taken to the crime team for interrogation.

Seeing the words "criminal group", Elaine trembled in shock.

Being taken all the way to the interrogation room of the police station, Elaine had already panicked and was about to collapse, and the whole body was no longer arrogant, like a cock that was defeated.

In the interrogation room, the incandescent light shone on Elaine's face.

Sitting on the opposite side were several police officers from the crime team.

One of them said coldly to Elaine: "The criminal suspect, Elaine, you are now the first suspect and the only suspect of an overseas high-tech criminal gang. You must truthfully explain your criminal process, otherwise, what is waiting for you will be a just trial."

At this moment, Elaine immediately started crying: "Comrade, you caught the wrong person, Charlie is the suspect...No, he is a criminal, I am a good citizen who abides by the law, the card I stole it from his pocket, not me."

The police officer frowned and said, "You said it was your son-in-law, will we believe it? It's stuck on you, and you took it to the bank to withdraw money. You are the biggest suspect!"

Another police officer beside him sneered and said: "I see this Elaine, because the situation has been revealed, do you want to pull son-in-law to top the bag?"

After that, he observed at Elaine and said coldly: "You can even do such a frenzied thing. It's too inhuman, right?"

Elaine shouted wronged: "What I said is true. My son-in-law Charlie is really a liar. He is best at scams and abductions, and he is definitely a criminal!"

The police officer slapped the table and said angrily: "I think you are the criminal! I'll say it again, be lenient in confession and strict in resistance."

Elaine cried anxiously: "Comrade police, I have already confessed...If half of what I said is false, I will be thundered!"

The policeman shouted angrily: "This is the police station, do you think it is a temple? Give me a swear to the heavens? I tell you! Hurry up and explain your upper family, next family, and accomplices, and link your organization's crime chain Let me explain everything clearly! Now the International Criminal Police of 23 other countries require you to be taken back to the country for investigation. If you resist to the end, we will hand you over to the US police and let them take you to the US for interrogation. Let me tell you that the American police are very violent in law enforcement. They often use torture to extract confessions. Say it all for your own blessings!"

Elaine wailed in fright: "Police officer, I was really wronged. How can I go to my next home? I stole a bank card from my son-in-law, and then I was arrested here, please. Don't hand me over to the American police..."

The police officer stood up and said to others: "The criminal Elaine has a rampant attitude. She refuses to explain the crimes of forging bank cards and transnational fraud. First, put her in the detention center and wait for further investigation."

Elaine was frightened and cried, and went straight to the ground, and started to splash: "If I don't go to the detention center, you can't wrong the good people. If you wrong me, I will die with you!"

The police officer looked at Elaine, who was lying on the ground and reluctant to get up, and said coldly: "Put her up for me and close the detention center directly!"

"Yes!"

The others immediately set up Elaine like a dead pig, and it was useless for Elaine to cry for father and mother, and sent directly to the Aurous Hill City Detention Center.

.....

There are three detention centers in Aurous Hill, which specialize in administrative and criminal detention, as well as prisoners who have not yet been tried or have a short sentence.

After the trial, prisoners with longer sentences are directly transferred to prison to serve their sentences.

Chapter 820

The three detention centers in Aurous Hill perform their duties. One is dedicated to detaining male suspects, one is dedicated to detaining female suspects, and the other is dedicated to detaining juvenile detainees.

After the four members of the Willson family were arrested in the afternoon, they were sent to two detention centers.

The Old Mrs. Willson and Wendy went to the women's detention center, while Noah and Harold went to the men's detention center.

When she first entered the cell, Mrs. Willson was still very uncomfortable. After being locked in, she sat on a simple bed, thinking about her experience during this time.

During this period of time, it was the greatest catastrophe for Mrs. Willson and the Willson family. Mrs. Willson's life's hard work and coffins were all sealed by the court, and her son refused to let her live in the Tomson Villa, and called her to the police. Grasping the prison, these things made her think more and more angrily.

Sitting cross-legged on the cot, thinking of the painful place, she slapped the bed in despair, crying loudly: "What a sin I have done, my family is bankrupt, my son doesn't support me, and my daughter-in-law has sent me to the detention center, this goddamn unfilial son! This is to make me die in the detention center!"

Wendy sat aside, also angry and sad, and cried and said, "Grandma, Second Uncle never used to be like this. He used to obey you and never dared to resist. Why is he so cruel now..."

Old Mrs. Willson coldly snorted, and said angrily: "It's not Elaine's vixen who suffered a thousand swords! This vixen has been uneasy since she got married to our Willson family. If it weren't for her to stop him this time, second uncle I guess I agreed to let us live in!"

With that said, the Lady Willson felt sad again, wiped a cloud of tears, and cried: "I'm really too fateful. When I go there and meet the Old Master, if he knows I was forced by my daughter-in-law Dead, don't know how much he feel sorry for me..."

The grandfather and grandson were in the prison cell, mourning in their hearts and crying.

Because the Lady Willson is too old, the inmates in the same cell rarely see anyone who is still in the detention center at such an age, so they came to inquire curiously.

Among them was a tall and strong middle-aged woman who had been squatting in this cell for three months. She was the boss of this cell. She walked up to her and asked, "Lady Willson, is your daughter-in-law so bad? Put you in the detention center? What is going on?"

"Yeah, what's the matter? Tell us about it?"

When someone asked questions, other prisoners in the cell also gathered in front of Mrs. Willson.

They were originally a group of old ladies who love gossip, and their favorite gossip is the short stories of the parents, so they all hurriedly came to the front, pricked their ears, and waited to hear the following.

At this time, Mrs. Willson had nowhere to vent the evil fire that was holding her stomach.

Hearing so many people coming to inquire, she cried and cried: "I tell you, my life is really bitter! My daughter-in-law is simply not human, she and her shameless Rubbish son-in-law, constantly Framed us, made us a big family in Aurous Hill with a big face, step by step pushing us to bankruptcy, let us owe a debt, even our house was taken away by the court."

The fat woman said coldly: "Why is there such a bad person?"

Old Mrs. Willson flushed suddenly, and said angrily: "They are so bad, they are so bad!"

"My grandchildren and I were driven out by the court to be homeless, but their family bought a Tomson first-class villa, worth more than one billion!"

"Our family has nowhere to go, but their family of four sleeps in more than a dozen bedrooms!"

"I thought they were my own sons and daughters-in-law. No matter what, they wouldn't see me living on the street? So I went to run to them. Who knows, they not only beat me, scolded me, kicked me, but also called the police. Saying that I broke into the homes and provoked troubles, and let the police arrest us all!"

As soon as the fat woman heard this, she clenched her fists and said angrily: "I, Gena Jones, hate the b@stard who disrespects the elderly the most in my life! If it weren't for my brother-in-law, my mother-in-law, my mother could not commit suicide by drinking pesticide! So I was sentenced to ten months in detention because after my mother died, I blasted my brother-in-law!"

Speaking of this, Gena Jones's eyes were already filled with anger and tears. She gritted her teeth and said: "Lady Willson, don't cry. If I have a chance to see your daughter-in-law, I will hammer her to death for you!"

Chapter 821

Gena Jones's words immediately aroused the anger of the people around, and these people were suddenly filled with righteous indignation!

Although everyone is a prisoner, people in detention centers generally do not commit serious crimes, nor are they extremely vicious people. They instinctively sympathize with the weak.

Hearing Mrs. Willson's words, and seeing that Mrs. Willson had gray hair, they couldn't help but believe her words.

As a result, everyone immediately condemned in indignation.

"Even such an old mother abandoned her, this is simply a family of beasts."

"Who would say no? live in a big villa worth 100 million, but refuse to give the Lady even a bedroom. How could there be such a disgusting person."

"Lady Willson, don't worry, such a daughter-in-law will be struck to death by lightning sooner or later!"

The Old Mrs. Willson burst into tears: "Thank you, thank you for your concern and support. I really didn't expect this bad old woman to meet so many good people here!"

Gena Jones sighed and said: "Lady Willson, let's tell you that, when I see you, I think of my mother who died after drinking medicine. It's not easy for an Old Master! It's even harder to meet an unfilial daughter-in-law!"

Old Mrs. Willson nodded and cried, "Hey, I am detained for fifteen days. I don't know what to do if I go out after fifteen days. I have no place to eat or live. After a few months, maybe I will pay. Will be sued by the court."

Gena Jones hurriedly said: "Lady Willson, then you might as well stay in the detention center. You will have three meals on time each day, including food and accommodation. Isn't it better than going out and living on the street?"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she felt desperate.

Does she really want to fall into the detention center in the future?

Thinking of this, the Old Mrs. Willson shouted wildly in her heart: "No! How can I say that I am also the head of the Willson family. If I am reduced to pensions in prison, then all the hard-earned faces in this life will have to be Lost it all before I die?!"

Must find a chance to stand up!

.....

At this moment, a police car stopped at the door of the detention center.

Two police officers walked into the detention center with a woman with disheveled hair.

This woman is Elaine.

Elaine was desolately held by the police, with cold handcuffs on her hands.

Along the way, she had already cried her tears dry and her throat became hoarse. She never dreamed that she stole Charlie's bank card, but turned her face into a prisoner.

According to the police officer, she now facing indefinite custody and detention. She will not submit a prosecution to the prosecutors until the entire chain of transnational crime has been investigated and other suspects have been arrested.

After the initiation of the public prosecution, the court opens a trial and finally decides how many years it will be based on how old the whole case is.

Elaine asked in a panic, if she is found guilty of this crime, how long would the sentence be probable.

The police officer told her that the attempt to defraud the bank with RMB 21.9 billion was arguably the largest fraud case in decades. Even if it was attempted, its nature was extremely bad, so it was likely to be sentenced to life imprisonment.

If we seize your accomplice and unearth more evidence, you may even be shot.

Elaine was so scared that she was almost incontinent. She hated Charlie to death. She wanted to talk to her daughter Claire on the phone immediately, and then asked her to divorce the big liar Charlie immediately.

Chapter 822

However, the police officer said that she was suspected of being involved in a major and important case. Before the case was tried, she could not meet or contact her family members, or even hire a lawyer for the time being.

Elaine was full of hatred in her heart, but there was nowhere to vent.

After entering the high wall of the detention center, the police officers immediately took Elaine to go through the detention formalities.

The procedures are complicated. Not only do they need to take pictures and verify her body, one also have to take off all clothes and hand them to the detention center, and then change into the prison uniforms and uniform daily necessities provided by the detention center.

Elaine changed into prison uniforms, and the two police officers who had sent her over have already left. From now on, everything about her will be under the management of the detention center.

A female prison guard took her into the prison, and as she walked, she introduced to her as usual: "This is a cell with twenty people. Get up at six in the morning, turns off the lights at ten in the evening, and has three meals a day. They all eat in their own cell."

After that, she glanced at Elaine and said blankly: "However, the meals are all quantitative. You may not be able to eat completely with your physique. If you need any food or daily necessities, you can let your family give it to you. We charge a little money in your name, and then you can buy things in the canteen inside."

"That's great!" Elaine hurriedly asked: "How do I contact my family?!"

At this time, the female prison guard remembered that when the police officer sent Elaine over, she explained her affairs, so she said with a cold face: "I almost forgot, you are a suspect in a major criminal case and cannot contact the outside world for the time being. So if you don't have enough to eat, consider it a diet!"

When Elaine heard this, her heart was suddenly desperate.

Suddenly she thought at this moment that the Old Mrs. Willson and Wendy seemed to have been put in the detention center too, would she not run into them?

Thinking of this, she couldn't help feeling a little nervous.

But soon the tension disappeared.

It doesn't matter if she meet Old Mrs. Willson and Wendy. Old Mrs. Willson is a bad Lady, and if she dares to incite her, she can kick her half of life with one kick!

As for Wendy, although this little girl is young, she is also a little girl with ten fingers that does not touch the sun. Her small physique can't even carry two laps at the mahjong table. She really wants to start with herself. The slap in the face will be enough.

At this time, the prison guard pointed to the cell not far in front and said, "Elaine, that is cell 025, you will be here from now on!"

Elaine nodded hurriedly.

At the same time, in cell 025, Mrs. Willson just calmed down a little bit under the comfort of everyone.

She really didn't expect that these inmates in the cell would sympathize with her so much. Everyone gathered around to comfort herself with a word or two, which really made her feel more comfortable.

Wendy's mood is much better than when she first entered the detention center.

She felt that the detention center must be the same as in the movie. There are all kinds of bullies everywhere in the detention center. Newcomers will be bullied and humiliated all kinds of things when they come in. They can't even eat food, but she didn't expect it to be so warm inside.

At this moment, someone looked at the door and shouted: "Here is a newcomer!"

Outside the iron gate, the female prison guard opened the cell where the Old Mrs. Willson was, and pushed Elaine into the cell, saying: "Go in and reflect on it!"

As soon as Elaine was pushed in, the iron door closed again.

She looked a little nervously at the other prisoners in the cell and found that they were all surrounded by a lower bunk. She was still a little surprised, and said to herself, "Why are these old ladies in a circle? What about it? listening to a story?"

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson, who was surrounded by the crowd, recognized Elaine at a glance. She trembled in shock immediately, and then shouted with canthus: "Elaine! You shrew, you have today!"

Chapter 823

Elaine was startled by the sudden voice.

Taking a closer look, it turned out that Mrs. Willson was sitting cross-legged on the bed, pointing at her and cursing the street.

The Old Mrs. Willson did not expect that she would encounter Elaine in the detention center.

Moreover, Elaine was wearing the same prison uniform as her own in the detention center. It seemed that she was arrested for committing a crime!

After Elaine saw the Old Mrs. Willson and Wendy, she was also very flustered.

She really didn't expect that she was actually placed in the cell where the two of them were.

Just now she was thinking about not splitting up with the two of them, but didn't expect to be so unlucky.

So she hurriedly shouted at the small window of the iron gate while the prison guard was not far away: "Comrade prison guard, can you change me to a new cell? I don't want to live with the two of them."

The prison guard said blankly, "Do you think your house opened the detention center? You can change it if you want? You don't want to live in a cell. Don't commit any crime, why did you come early?"

Elaine hurriedly defended: "I have explained it to you. That thing was completely done by my Rubbish son-in-law. It has nothing to do with me. Go catch him and let me go, please. "

The prison guard ignored Elaine's begging eyes and said, "Don't talk so much nonsense, you don't want to go out for the rest of your life!"

After speaking, he turned around and left.

Elaine watched the other side's back go further and further, and her heart gradually sank.

Wendy sneered at this time and said, "Elaine! You just moved into the Tomson First-Class Villa, and you haven't slept for a while. Why did you come to the detention center? According to the prison guards, you are still committing a serious crime!"

Elaine turned her head and looked at the grandparent and grandchildren, and cried out unlucky in her heart, but soon calmed down.

A bad Lady, a yellow-haired girl, what is there to be afraid of?

Thinking of this, Elaine coldly snorted, "What's the matter? Just you two have fallen away and want to see me making a joke? Even if I enter the detention center, I also a person with a villa outside, how about you? You still have a home outside. Isn't it that I look down on you two, just like you two, you'll have to starve to death on the street when you go out!"

Old Mrs. Willson shouted angrily: "Elaine, do you still know your surname? You are so arrogant in the detention center!"

"Yeah, what's the matter?" Elaine said disdainfully: "I am not arrogant for a day or two, we are not convinced?"

After finishing speaking, Elaine continued to use her poisonous tongue, and said coldly: "After you go out, you are probably going to starve to death if you don't live for three days, but Wendy doesn't have to worry about it. At any rate, it's a dichotomy. She can support yourself by going to the street."

Wendy suddenly exploded: "Elaine, what are you talking about?!"

Elaine curled her lips and said, "I said you were going to stand on the street, why? Are you still not convinced? What is your own situation? What is the situation of Fredmen and Barena, do you want me to remind you?"

Old Mrs. Willson was trembling with anger, she deliberately glanced at Gena Jones, then pointed to Elaine and said: "Elaine! My Willson family has a daughter-in-law like you, this is a family shame!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Gena Jones on the side exploded.

She stood up quickly, pointed at Elaine and asked the Lady Willson: "Is this your daughter-in-law who is not something?"

Chapter 824

Seeing that the purpose was achieved, Mrs. Willson burst into tears, slapped her legs, and wailed: "My life is suffering! My family is unfortunate, married to such a daughter-in-law, and I will be scolded by her nose when I am about to die!"

Gena Jones couldn't bear it when the Lady Willson cried.

She remembered the tragic appearance of her mother who was sent to the hospital after drinking pesticides. At that time, she hadn't died yet, but the doctor told her that because of taking a lot of pesticides, her lungs had become irreversibly fibrotic, and could not save her.

At that time, her mother was crying like this in bed, and Gena Jones couldn't help crying every time she thought of that scene.

Now that Elaine has forced the Lady Willson to be like this, and is even more arrogant than her own b@stard sister-in-law, the anger in her heart can't stand it!

She immediately strode towards Elaine, and said coldly: "You b@stard! Didn't your parents teach you to honor your in-laws before you got married?"

Elaine didn't realize that Gena was here to do it with herself, and when she heard that she even taught herself to honor her in-laws, she suddenly said with contempt: "Honor to in-laws? Are you kidding me? If such a mother-in-law is lying on your head, I am afraid that you would have killed her early."

When Gena Jones heard this, she couldn't think of how disgusting and nasty the Old Mrs. Willson was. She just hated this Elaine crazy! Can't wait to punch her to death!

So she rushed to Elaine, and hit her nose with a punch.

Elaine yelled and was smashed by a punch and sat on the ground. Gena Jones, the big five and three thick, rode directly on her stomach, pulling her hair desperately with one hand, and slapped her with all her strength with the other hand, and cursed, "I will kill You are not filial to your mother-in-law! I will kill you!"

Elaine yelled when she was beaten, and blurted out, "Who are you, why are you hitting me! I asked you to mess with me?"

Gena Jones cursed her while smoking her, "You shameless dog, you abuse your mother-in-law and everyone is punishable! You are doing the way for heaven today!"

Seeing Elaine being beaten, Mrs. Willson was so excited that she blurted out: "Quick! Help me over!"

After speaking, she shivered and was about to stand up.

Wendy and another woman hurriedly helped her up and took her to Elaine.

Old Mrs. Willson was full of excitement and viciousness. She came to Elaine and cursed excitedly: "You b@stard, b@stard, look at me today!"

After speaking, she immediately reached out and left a few blood marks on Elaine's face!

Elaine cried out in pain, and blurted out, "Help! Help prison guard! Murder!"

The prison guard had already gone far by this time. Gena Jones smashed her hair out a lot, grabbed a hand again, and squeezed it between her fingers. While squeezing her face, she sneered and said: "Prison guard The patrol is over, and it won't come again within an hour. Look at how I can kill your unfilial dog!"

Wendy was also waiting to vent her stomach, so she lifted her foot and kicked Elaine, cursing, "Aren't you great? You live in a villa of the first class of Tomson, aren't you awesome? You know, then. It was my former fiance's villa! Why did you live in and let me fall into the street! I will kick you to death!"

Elaine has indeed been beaten several times, but she has never been beaten so badly!

Because each has her own hatred, these three people are simply fighting to death, leaving no affection at all!

And soon other inmates joined in and attacked Elaine!

Elaine was quickly beaten and there was no good place on her body, so she could only wail in despair, "I beg you to stop beating, I am going to die!"

Gena Jones slapped her in the face: "It's okay if she can talk! She can't die for a while, just keep hitting!"

Chapter 825

When Elaine encountered a blast in the detention center, Charlie received a call from Issac.

As soon as Issac came up online, he said, "Mr. Wade Elaine has been put in the detention center, and I have arranged her in a cell with the Lady Willson of the Willson family and that Wendy according to your wishes."

Charlie asked, "Have you said hello to the prison guard?"

Issac said: "I have asked my subordinates to say hello to the person in charge of the detention center. No one will care about what torture Elaine suffers inside."

"Okay." Charlie said coldly: "Let her suffer more in it!"

Issac hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade do you want me to arrange a few people to go in and do her directly? If this is the case, she won't be able to provoke you again."

Charlie hesitated for a moment and said, "Don't worry, let me see how things develop."

For Charlie, he hoped that Elaine would disappear from his and Claire's world from now on.

Moreover, he believes that Jacob will not only have no opinion on this, on the contrary, he will definitely feel relieved.

However, it is difficult for Claire to say.

Based on Charlie's understanding of her, she is a very filial and affectionate woman. If her mother suddenly evaporates from the world, she may not be able to let it go for a lifetime.

Therefore, Charlie was going to observe Claire's reaction first.

In order not to let Claire see anything, when he went to the supermarket in the afternoon to buy vegetables, he still bought the food for four people, and also bought something Elaine likes to eat.

However, Elaine had no chance to taste it.

Gena Jones took a group of people and hammered Elaine to death. Seeing that she had been beaten into a pig head, she temporarily let her go, and sternly threatened: "Tell you, don't talk nonsense when the warning comes, or else you will pay more. I will hit you! Do you know?"

How dare Elaine say no, nodded hurriedly and said: "I know, I know, I will not talk nonsense..."

In fact, what Elaine thought in her heart was that the prison guards immediately called for help as soon as they arrived, and sent all of the b*tches to the prison guards. Don't think about it one by one! She has heard that if a prisoner in a prison fights, they will be given additional punishment!

When Charlie went home and started cooking, it was time for dinner in the detention center.

After all, all hours in the detention center are very disciplined, eating, going to bed, and getting up early, so they eat early at night.

When the prison guards came to the cell where Elaine was located, shortly after Elaine had been beaten, she was curled up in a corner. She had no strength to sit up, and there was no good place to sit up and down. It was so miserable.

The prison guard opened the door of the cell and said lightly: "It's time to eat..."

Just after speaking, Elaine, with a blue nose and a swollen face, crawled over to her and cried out: "Prison guards help, guards! They beat me! They want to kill me! You must punish them severely!"

The prison guard frowned and looked at her, remembering the explanation from the leader, so she directly regarded her as air, and continued to say to Gena Jones and others: "You sent two people from your cell to get food."

Gena Jones was a little worried when she saw Elaine's complaint, and was afraid that she might be detained, but she didn't expect the prison guards to ignore her at all, so she was relieved and quickly commanded the two women around her and said, "You two and the prison guards Go get the food!"

"OK." The two hurriedly got up and came to the prison guard.

The prison guard beckoned and said: "Follow me."

While she was talking, Elaine hugged her leg and cried and said, "Please change me to a different cell, otherwise they will kill me!"

Chapter 831

At dinner, Claire barely moved her chopsticks.

She repeatedly picked up her mobile phone to call Elaine and send WeChat videos, but everything seemed like a stone sinking into the ocean without any feedback.

Jacob looked at ease and content, anyway, he felt that Elaine had better run away, just like Horiyah. In that case, his life would be truly liberated.

Claire repeated anxiously about going to the police station. Jacob said to the side: "Oh, Claire, your mother is an adult. Maybe she has something to do. What do you care about her? What if she is single-minded. If she want to leave this house, you can't let the police catch her back, right?"

"How come?" Claire said seriously: "Mom has been looking forward to the Tomson villa for so long, and now she has finally moved in. She wants to leave this home again, and she will never leave this time because of her character! Dad, you have lived with Mom for so long, don't you still know her?"

Jacob suddenly fell into thought.

The daughter's words woke him up.

Who is Elaine?

She is a person whose vanity is so strong that she can even explode.

And she is also a person who dreams of having fun.

When she left home, it was impossible for her to leave home on the day when the whole family moved into Tomson. This was not her style at all.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but frown, wondering to himself, could it be that Elaine was really surprised?

In fact, although Jacob dislikes Elaine, he has lived together for so many years after all. If something happened to this person suddenly, his heart is somewhat empty. If he is really staying at home and drinking tea, he always feels a little inappropriate.

So he sighed and said, "Eat first, and I'll go out with you after eating."

Seeing that her father's attitude had eased, Claire felt a little more comfortable, and said hurriedly, "Dad, why don't we wait, let's split up, I'll call the police, and you can find the mahjong hall mother often goes to."

Jacob said: "Okay, I'll find it."

Charlie said: "Wife, let me go to the police with you."

Claire hurriedly said: "This simple, one person is enough, you should go everywhere with dad."

"Okay." Charlie nodded, but he was a little worried about Claire, so he said to Elsa: "Elsa, you can stay with Claire."

Elsa hurriedly said: "No problem, I will be with Claire."

After a few bites of food hastily, the four of them were divided into two vehicles and left Tomson.

Claire drove Elsa to the police station, and Charlie drove Jacob to the mahjong hall.

However, before getting on, Charlie sent Issac a special WeChat message with the content: "My wife is going to call the police. You should say hello to the police station. Don't disclose any news about my mother-in-law."

Issac quickly replied: "Young master, don't worry, I have already called him. Young Lady will never find any information about her."

"That's good." Charlie relaxed a lot.

Driving the car, Jacob drove out.

As soon as he left the house, Charlie asked Jacob: "Dad, where shall we find her?"

Jacob sighed: "I don't know where she likes to play mahjong. Just drive around and see if there is a mahjong hall. If you see it, go in and look for it."

Charlie smiled secretly in his heart. It seemed that Jacob was also dealing with errands and acted to show Claire.

They searched for a few mahjong halls, but didn't find Elaine's shadow. Jacob was not in a hurry. Anyway, his main idea was to come out and behave. By the way, he would feel more at ease. As for Elaine's specific comfort and whereabouts, He didn't care too much.

Chapter 832

After searching for a while and not finding anyone, Jacob said, "Charlie, should we go back, or find a place to eat some skewers? I was always nervous at first for dinner, which made me not full. "

Charlie smiled and said, "Okay, Dad, I know a roadside barbecue stall, which tastes very good."

Jacob patted his thigh: "Let's go, let's try the roasted waist. By the way, let me drink two more bottles of beer.

Charlie said hurriedly, "I'm driving, Dad, I can't drink."

Jacob waved his hand: "Hey, I'll just call you a rider. It's not easy for father and I want to have a drink. Your mother usually cares not, chatting and chatting in my ears all day long, and I'm so annoyed. Now she happens to be away, shouldn't your father and you have a drink?"

Charlie shrugged and said with a smile: "Since you have said so, drink it!"

With that said, he drove the car to the side of the barbecue stall.

The two ordered a lot of skewers and a few bottles of beer, and happily sat on the side of the road and skewered them.

Elaine was missing, and Charlie was naturally very happy as Master and initiator behind the scenes.

And because Jacob was tortured by Elaine for too long, he suddenly felt a lot relaxed, and he was naturally very happy.

As soon as the two of them sat down and were about to start eating, Claire called Charlie.

He hurriedly winked at Jacob, then put on the phone and asked concerned: "Hey Claire, have you called the police?"

Claire said in a frustrated voice: "I have called the police, but the police says that mom is an adult, and the missing time is less than ten hours. There is no way to send police to help find them immediately, but they are already there. The missing person is reported in the system, and if someone finds her, it will notify me."

Charlie said, "That's good. In fact, what the police said is right. They have only been missing for a few hours. How can they send a large number of police to search? The people's police have more and more important things waiting for them."

"Hey..." Claire said, "I just don't feel very good. I always feel that things are a bit strange in my instinct. I'm really afraid that something will happen to mom...Her temperament, just in case if she has a conflict with people outside, she will easily suffer a big loss..."

Charlie said, she is indeed hyper! Claire really knew Elaine's temperament.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help sighing inwardly. Ever since he married Claire and entered the family of Willson Clan, he has been healed over the past three years that Claire is an extremely rare good girl.

It is not just how beautiful and attractive she is on the outside, but more importantly, the kindness of her nature is really amazing.

Especially in this kind of family environment, the entire Willson family, from Elaine to the Lady Willson, to Noah's family, did not have a good nature at all.

Jacob is barely good, but he is also cowardly and timid.

In such a family, Claire was able to possess gold-like qualities, which Charlie had always appreciated very much.

He also began to ponder about Elaine.

If Elaine was kept for a lifetime, then there was no doubt that Claire would not be able to let go.

In other words, for the sake of his wife, sooner or later, he had to release his brain-dead mother-in-law.

It's not impossible to let her out, but the key is to let her suffer enough first.

Moreover, he still has hidden dangers that have not been resolved.

For example, when Elaine comes out, she will definitely ask him the first time, asking him why she has such a bank card.

She would definitely consider him a member of a scam gang.

In this case, she would definitely tell Claire about this.

So, in any case, he has to think of a good way to make Elaine obediently close her broken mouth!

Chapter 833

Charlie was considering the problem, Claire asked impatiently: "How are you and dad? Do you have any clues?"

"Uh..." Charlie looked at the pile of skewers and beer in front of him, and said against his will: "We are still looking up the mahjong halls, and we have no clues for the time being."

Claire sighed and said, "Then you continue to search for her, and Elsa and I will continue to look for her as well."

"Yeah." Charlie said hurriedly: "Don't worry, dad and I will work hard to find!"

"Okay." Claire said: "Then I'll hang up and communicate if there is anything in time."

"no problem!"

Charlie hung up the phone, and Jacob was already appetizing.

He drank a glass of beer, poured another glass for Charlie, and said while eating the skewers: "Good son-in-law, no one is going to bother us today. Let's have a good drink, come, let's go first."

Charlie was funny in his heart. Elaine was not there, and the Old Master was relieved. He nodded and said, "You should drink less. Drinking too much is not good for your health."

Jacob laughed and said: "People are refreshed at happy events. I am looking forward to your mother being admitted by the MLM organization. Anyway, if she goes in and suffer a bit, she can't die. She will be stuck for three or five years. Yes, let us have a birthday in a few years."

Charlie nodded and sighed: "I think it's good too, but I'm afraid she won't accept it at first."

Jacob sighed, "That's right. At first, this child is filial, too filial, the key is silly filial piety! Is it your mother's kind of person, is she worthy of such filial piety? You have no blood relationship with her, you yourself Say, if your mother is like this, are you still filial to her?"

Charlie was a bit embarrassed and a bit melancholic and said: "If my mother is still alive, even if her temperament is worse than the mother-in-law, I will be a hundred willing."

"That's true." Jacob said embarrassedly: "I'm sorry, dad shouldn't mention this, just use it as an analogy. You see, the grandmother of Claire, and the mother's temperament are basically the same. To be honest, they are two shrews, one older and the other younger."

Having said that, Jacob drank a glass of wine and said seriously: "So you see that I am not filial. My mother can't do things. I won't let her live in my house when she is on the street. Why? you can't say that because it was your mother, you protected her when she kill you?"

Charlie nodded: "You are right."

Jacob sighed and said, "Actually, your life is much better than mine. If you marry a good child like Claire, even if you are not successful anymore, she will not divorce you. If you are like me, marry a b*tch, then Your days are terrible."

Seeing Jacob's melancholy look, Charlie couldn't help but feel a bit of sympathy. This Old Master's life was really not easy. He had a sweet first love, and he had a good relationship with his first girlfriend, but Elaine gave it to him. Cut her out, how miserable it is.

At this time, Charlie deliberately asked: "Dad, tell me the story of your first lover? Last time your classmates reunion, I listened to a few uncles chatting, and it seemed to be quite legendary."

"What's the legend!" Jacob lamented, and said, "I and Meiqing were getting married before graduation. It was difficult to go abroad at the time, but her family has something to do. They could send us to the United States for further studies. I planned to have a happy event after graduation, and then go to the United States for graduate studies together..."

Speaking of this, Jacob said angrily: "Who would have thought that when I graduated and everyone was partying, I would have a f*cking drink! When I woke up, your mother-in-law and I had already..."

"Hey..." Jacob covered his face and said, "Elaine, this woman is also very scheming. She told Meiqing about this at the time. She was so angry with Meiqing. Similarly, a b*tch like Elaine likes to be noisy. Meiqing directly wrote me a parting letter, then packed up and went to the United States by herself. I have never seen her since."

Charlie asked curiously: "You didn't explain to her then?"

Chapter 834

"How to explain?" Jacob said: "No matter how you explain it, Elaine and I had actually done that. Meiqing has a cleanliness, life is clean, and emotions are also clean. She also knows that I was drunk and designed by Elaine. , But she felt that she could no longer accept me like that, so she broke up with me without hesitation and went to the United States."

Charlie deliberately asked him: "Then do you still think of her in your heart?"

Jacob also opened the chatterbox, and said with emotion: "I think, how can I not, she is the first woman in my life, and the only woman I have ever loved, otherwise I would not change the phone password to her birthday."

Charlie nodded with understanding, and then asked: "Then have you inquired about her current situation?"

"I've inquired about." Jacob said: "But I can't find out anything. In the past few years, I only heard that she married an American and gave birth to a son. It is said that the family conditions are very good, but there is nothing more detailed. People know, after all, our old classmates didn't have much contact with her, and we immediately broke contact with our classmates."

Charlie nodded lightly, and thought to himself, if Meiqing knew that Jacob had become like this now, I guess she wouldn't feel the same way back then.

Jacob saw that Charlie had not drunk at this time, and said with some dissatisfaction: "Good son-in-law, why don't you drink two glasses? Just let me drink it alone!"

Charlie smiled and picked up the wine, and said, "Come, come, have a drink with you."

Just after speaking, Jacob's cell phone rang suddenly.

The phone showed an unfamiliar number, and he couldn't help frowning: "That's it, who will call me."

After speaking, he subconsciously pressed to answer.

A woman's gentle voice came from the other end of the phone, and she asked tentatively, "Excuse me, is this Jacob?"

Jacob was taken aback and asked nervously, "You...you are..."

The other party smiled slightly and said with a smile: "I'm Meiqing, Meiqing."

Jacob was struck by lightning!

He was stunned for a while, and then asked excitedly: "Miqing? It's really you?!"

"It's me." The other party smiled and said, "Is my voice getting old, so you can't hear it anymore? But I heard, your voice didn't change much."

Jacob said in a panic: "I...you...we haven't been in contact for so many years, why would you suddenly call me? I...I just talked to my son-in-law. Talking about you..."

"Really?" The other party couldn't help asking: "Why would you talk to your son-in-law about me? Could it be that you told him the old calendars?"

"No, it's not." Jacob obviously has completely messed up and said hurriedly: "I'm not drinking with my son-in-law, I was a little bit overwhelmed, and I was emotional."

After that, Jacob asked, "Meiqing...how did you think of contacting me?"

Meiqing smiled slightly: "My son and I are going to return to China to settle, so I will contact you and other old classmates. When I return to Aurous Hill, I want to treat you to dinner. After all, everyone hasn't seen you..."

Chapter 835

Jacob never dreamed that he would receive another call from Meiqing in his life.

What was even more unexpected was that Meiqing was going to return to China!

She went directly to the United States after graduating from university, and then she stayed there. Since then, no one has seen her again. It has been more than 20 years since then.

However, even if he didn't meet again after more than 20 years, Jacob's heart was still stirred by her voice.

So he hurriedly asked: "Meiqing, you...are you really coming back? When will you be back?!"

Meiqing smiled and said, "I will be on the plane right away, and I will arrive at Aurous Hill at around 11 o'clock tomorrow. If nothing happens, let's have a dinner together with our classmates the day after tomorrow!"

Jacob was extremely excited. He said with excitement and unbearable excitement: "Oh, you will be in Aurous Hill tomorrow...tomorrow?! Then...where do you live?"

Meiqing said: "My son has booked a hotel in Shangri-La. In the next few days, we may live in Shangri-La for a period of time, and then see if there is a suitable house in Aurous Hill. If so, we will buy one."

Jacob asked tentatively: "Then...then your husband also come back with you?"

"No." Meiqing said in a frustrated voice: "My husband passed away, so I decided to go back to China with my son and not stay in the United States."

Jacob's heart suddenly blossomed!

So he hurriedly blurted out: "Then...Would you like to have a meal together after landing? I'll pick you up! I'll pick you up!"

Meiqing hesitated for a moment and said, "Oh, if Elaine knew, she wouldn't let you eat with me alone, right?"

When Jacob heard this, he almost didn't laugh.

Elaine?

She is missing!

Hahaha! She just disappeared, and Meiqing is coming back, this... isn't this just God opening his eyes?

Jacob got up from the chair of the barbecue booth excitedly, and walked back and forth: "Don't worry about Elaine, Elaine and I are also in a broken relationship now, we are separated, and she doesn't care about my business."

Meiqing asked in surprise: "Why are you two separated?"

"Oh..." Jacob sighed, "This is a long story because the child has no mother."

After speaking, he hurriedly said: "Meiqing, I will pick you up at the airport at noon tomorrow, don't you live in Shangri-La? Then let's have a meal in Shangri-La!"

Meiqing thought for a while, and said, "Um...I still have my son, isn't it inappropriate?"

"It doesn't matter!" Jacob hurriedly said, "I can take my son-in-law. My son-in-law should be about the same age as your son. Let the young people talk more. Let's talk about us."

"Well then." Meiqing said with a smile: "Then we will see you at the airport tomorrow. I haven't seen you in more than 20 years. Don't forget to write a sign, otherwise I'm afraid we won't recognize each other!"

Jacob said excitedly: "OK, OK! I will write a sign tomorrow."

Meiqing said: "Jacob, then I won't talk to you, I will board the plane right away, fly for more than twelve hours, and arrive at Aurous Hill at 10 noon tomorrow."

"Good!" Jacob said with a smirk, "See you at the airport tomorrow!"

After hanging up the phone, Jacob was jumping around in excitement, like a fifteen or sixteen-year-old boy.

Charlie looked funny for a while, and couldn't help asking, "Dad, is your first love coming back?"

Chapter 836

"Yes!" Jacob said excitedly: "The key is that her husband is dead, haha! Isn't this God helping me too?!"

Charlie nodded, but then said: "Dad, but Mom is not dead..."

Jacob's expression suddenly cooled down again, and he said awkwardly, "Don't get me wrong, I didn't curse her to death."

With that, Jacob sighed and said, "You said that if she was like Horiyah, she would have eloped with someone, it would be great..."

Charlie shook his head helplessly, Jacob's heart, fearing that it had all gone to Meiqing, who was about to return to China. The feelings that had been faintly for Elaine had already disappeared.

Therefore, Charlie couldn't help sighing: "If Claire can accept that her mother's disappearance is an elopement with someone else, that would be great."

If Claire treats Elaine as well as Jacob, then he will let Elaine disappear from the world in minutes.

For people like Elaine, it would be cheaper for her to watch everything, eat, drink, and live. It's better to send her to the black coal mine to dig for coal and go with Horiyah.

Horiyah's gang probably hated Elaine. If Elaine was also sent there, it wouldn't be justified not to suffer dozens of beatings a day.

It is a pity that Claire is too kind, kind enough to be too tolerant of Elaine.

Jacob was in a very good mood. He ate and drank all by himself. He was so happy. He kept pulling Charlie to accompany him to drink, but Charlie always picked up the wine glass and poured the wine while he was not paying attention. After all, it was tonight, the first time he went to bed, he still hoped that he could complete the marriage with Claire. Wouldn't it be too disappointing to drink alcohol?

Jacob ate and drank enough. It was already more than ten o'clock in the night. Claire called Charlie to ask about the situation. Charlie had to say: "We haven't found her. I guess mother didn't come out to play mahjong. Where could she be? "

Claire said in an anxious voice: "I also found some of mother's former friends, but I haven't found any clues."

Charlie said: "Why don't you just stop looking around like the headless flies tonight? Let's go home and wait. Since the police have reported missing, I believe they will help pay attention. What do you think??"

"Hey..." Claire sighed and said, "That can only be the case. Elsa and I are going back now, and you and Dad will go back too."

"Okay." Charlie answered, then hung up the phone and said to Jacob, "Dad, let's go."

Jacob patted his thigh and said with a smile, "Come! Let's go home and take a bath and sleep. You will accompany me to the airport tomorrow morning."

Charlie asked in surprise, "I want to go?"

"Of course." Jacob said: "Meiqing is still taking her son. We are reminiscing about the past. Isn't her son just an electric light bulb? Then you will talk to him more, nonsense, and create something private for me and Meiqing. Chance to chat."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and agreed, "Then I will go with you tomorrow."

"Oh, right." Jacob said embarrassedly: "Good son-in-law, your father and I have no money, and I will pay you the money left over from buying furniture. Or tomorrow Shangri-La, will you help dad arrange a table?"

"Okay, I'll arrange it." Charlie didn't have any selfish intentions to the old man, after all, he was pretty good to him.

So Charlie sent Issac a WeChat message, asking him to reserve a better box in Shangri-La tomorrow.

However, he also pointed out that it must not be the best gear, otherwise it is difficult to explain, and it is almost the same if it is above the middle.

Issac immediately ordered the lobby manager of Shangri-La to arrange the boxes in advance.

At this moment, in the detention center.

Because the lights had already been turned off, Elaine could only lie on her wooden bed hungry, enduring the pain all over her body.

As soon as she lay down, her stomach groaned.

Gena Jones, who was not far away from her, immediately cursed: "Elaine, if it groans in your stomach, you can roll out of bed and go to the toilet let me sleep!"

Chapter 837

Elaine was very wronged in bed.

She hasn't eaten a bite for more than twelve hours, and she has been violently beaten. She has gone hungry on her chest and back. Even if she can resist eating or drinking, she can't help her stomach cry!

However, she did not dare to offend Gena Jones.

After all, this stinky lady beats up people too hard.

She was thinking about going to sleep with her head covered quickly. Who would have thought that at this time, her unbelievable stomach groaned again.

Gena Jones stood up immediately, rushed to Elaine in three or two steps, and greeted her face with a slap in the face. Elaine's red and swollen face was blown up with a slap, and it was more like an explosion.

Elaine could only plead, "I'm sorry, sorry, I didn't mean it..."

Due to the loss of two front teeth, Elaine is now seriously leaking, so her speech is very unclear, and it is more difficult to listen to her.

Gena Jones slapped her again and cursed: "d*mn, your tongue is cut off? You can't speak clearly? Tell me loudly and clearly!"

Elaine hurriedly said loudly: "I didn't mean it! I'm sorry!"

When the voice went down, the two front teeth were vacant, and a ball of saliva was directly sprayed on Gena Jones's face impartially.

Gena Jones stretched out her hand and touched it, angrily grabbed Elaine by the hair, dragged her off the bed directly, and dragged her hair into the toilet.

Elaine struggled and yelled all the way, but no one sympathized with her at all, on the contrary, everyone still watched with relish.

Old Mrs. Willson staggered to the door of the toilet, watching Gena Jones press Elaine on the damp floor and bow left and right, and said with a smile: "Gena, let her sleep in the toilet at night!"

Gena Jones nodded, then slapped Elaine, and said angrily: "If you dare to go out of the toilet tonight, I will f*cking kill you!"

Elaine's face was even more swollen, and the painful whole person almost collapsed. She could only nod her head and whimper vaguely: "I sleep in the toilet! I sleep in the toilet! Please stop hitting me, please!"

Gena Jones snorted coldly and said, "Is this dying? Tell you, your good days are long, let me wait!"

After finishing speaking, she stood up and kicked Elaine again before turning to leave.

Old Mrs. Willson did not leave, but leaned on the door frame of the toilet, looking at Elaine, who was crying on the ground, and sneered: "Elaine, people are watching, you are an unfilial dog. Did not let me live in Tomson Villa, you can enjoy it by yourself? Take a look! You have not slept in Tomson Villa for one night, and you have fallen to the present end. What is it, do you know? It proves that you did not live at all Enter the life of Tomson first-grade!"

Elaine cried and said, "Mom, all the previous mistakes were my fault, but you have beaten and scolded and scolded. I beg you to tell Gena Jones, don't beat me. I'm wrong I know!"

"Knowing what's wrong?" Mrs. Willson coldly snorted, "Do you think I don't know what you are? If it is strong, it will be soft, and if it is soft, it will be strong. If it weren't for Gena and other inmates to support me here, you would Just fight me, if someone like you really knows what's wrong, the sun can come out from the west!"

Old Mrs. Willson and Elaine are actually the same kind of people, and they know each other's nature very well.

The Lady Willson knew very well in her heart that neither Elaine nor herself could really succumb to one person, the only possibility was forced by the situation.

Elaine is kneeling on her own now. If she is given a chance to come back, she will worsen her situation.

Chapter 838

Why not change to be herself?

Therefore, she did not intend to have any kindness to Elaine.

Moreover, when she remembered the humiliation she had suffered at Tomson, she felt resentful in her heart, and said coldly, "This is the result of your own self-expression. Enjoy your own bitter bar! This is only the first day. There are fourteen days left which we will spend together!"

After speaking, Mrs. Willson coldly snorted and turned to go out of the toilet.

Elaine sat on the floor of the toilet alone, hungry and cold. She was desperate and wanted to cry, but when she thought of the fierce Gena Jones, she immediately covered her mouth.

In the end, she couldn't help it, so hugged her legs and buried her face between the legs and started crying.

Elaine has never experienced such a tragic experience in her life, and she suffered more sins in one day than she has suffered in the past decades combined.

She panicked when she thought of living in this cell for next 14 days with Mrs. Willson.

Especially when she thought that she would have to wait indefinitely in the detention center, she became even more desperate, and her tears were almost dry.

.....

When Elaine was crying in the toilet of the detention center, Charlie and the old man just drove back to the big villa of Tomson.

Jacob was humming and singing tunes with excitement along the way, and the joy on his face was beyond words!

Claire and Elsa had already returned before them.

Charlie and Jacob stepped into the door and saw Claire rushing around in the living room.

Seeing them coming in, Claire hurriedly asked, "Dad, Charlie, how many mahjong halls have you been to?"

Jacob said with a guilty conscience: "I don't know anymore. Anyway, there are many. We went all the way and looked for them. Whenever we saw the mahjong hall and the chess room, we went in and asked."

Claire asked, "Is there no result?"

"No..." Jacob waved his hand and said, "Oh, Claire, your mother is such a big person, nothing will happen, at most she will be cheated by the MLM organization. Worry..."

"How can I not worry..." Claire said with red eyes, "What if she encounters an accident? Now that there is no news from her, all bad things may happen, and the more it's more dangerous if you drag on. Looking at so many disappearances reported in the news, how many people find them and everyone is happy? Most of the results are bad guys, accidents, and the worst!"

Jacob said embarrassingly: "How can it be as dangerous as you think, don't you see if your mother is worthy of the bad guys' mind? Is she rich in any way? She has already lost all the money at home. Is she pretty? Other robbers struggled to rob her once, risking being shot in jail, and robbing her like that would be a shame?"

"Dad!" Claire said angrily, "Dad, how can you say that?!"

At this time, Jacob was thinking about Meiqing all over his head. In addition, he drank some wine and was a little unrestrained. He didn't care about Elaine, so he said indifferently: "Oh, it's a bit ugly, but Every sentence is the truth, one is impossible to rob money, and the other is impossible to rob s3x, what danger can she have?"

"Besides, you don't know your mother's temper? Who dares to provoke her? She yelled out of the window in the community before. The dogs in the whole community dare not bark. Are you afraid of her having trouble?"

Claire was speechless by Jacob's words, and then her nose shrugged slightly, and asked angrily, "Dad! Did you go drinking just now?!"

Chapter 839

Originally, Claire hadn't seen Jacob drinking.

But after she got closer, she suddenly smelled the smell of alcohol on his body, and suddenly became very angry!

Father usually likes to drink some wine, she has absolutely no opinion, but the point is, he clearly said that he was going to the mahjong hall to find her mother. Why he came back drunken? !

This...this proves that he didn't go to search for her mother at all, but...to drink!

When Jacob heard Claire asking him about drinking, he hurriedly covered his mouth, stepped back, and explained in a panic: "Don't talk nonsense, I didn't drink!"

"You're just talking nonsense!" Claire stomped angrily: "I can smell alcohol on you! you didn't have it when you went out, you have it now! You must have been drinking in the middle!"

As she said, she fixed her eyes on Jacob's collar, and found that there were a few oil spots, and her angry eyes were red: "Mom has disappeared and cannot be found. Not only will you not look for her, but you will also eat and drink. , How happy you are!"

Jacob said embarrassingly: "Oh, me...Oh, I...I really don't..."

Claire angrily said, "Dad, do you think I can believe it?"

Jacob knew there was no sophistry, so he could only look at Charlie and said, "Charlie called me to go."

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly winked at Charlie, which meant a good son-in-law, please help me carry this pot first.

Charlie is also very human, and without hesitation, he nodded and said: "Yes, that's right, Dad is right, I really called him to drink."

In fact, Charlie knew very well, anyway, he didn't drink any alcohol, Jacob drank dizzy, the more he said it was his own idea at this time, the less Claire would believe it.

Sure enough, Claire stomped her foot and said angrily: "Dad, at this time you are still throwing the pot to Charlie! Can't you be a little manly?"

Jacob said with a gloomy expression: "I'm telling the truth. If you don't believe me, I can't help it."

After finishing speaking, he quickly said: "Oh, I'm really old, and I feel sleepy and uncomfortable after ten o'clock. I will go back to my room and rest first."

Claire wanted to stop him, but he ran away without looking back.

In desperation, Claire looked at Charlie again, and said: "You too, I called you to ask you, and you said you were looking for a mahjong hall, but actually took my dad to eat and drink!"

Charlie coughed and said, "He said he was hungry and uncomfortable. I can't drag the Old Master hungry and run with me all over the street. In case of hypoglycemia and fainting, he might be vulnerable to danger."

"Then you can't lie to me! Tell me the truth, couldn't you tell me that you two are eating?"

Charlie didn't know how to answer at once, and felt that this matter was indeed not handled properly. The key is that Jacob could not be seen by Claire. If he knew this was the case, he really wouldn't go to the barbecue.

So he could only apologize sincerely: "I'm sorry, my wife, I owe this matter to me. Dad said at the time that I didn't tell you, so I couldn't tell you on the phone."

Charlie was not guilty at all when he said this.

Anyway, the pot is tossed back and forth. Since the old man is not here, it is natural to throw the pot to him.

Claire also believed Charlie's words, thinking that it must be Dad's idea, and Charlie was forced to be by his side and couldn't tell the truth to her.

Although her anger had subsided a bit, she still felt very wronged in her heart, so she sighed weakly, and said with some emotional breakdown: "Charlie, my mother is missing now, my dad doesn't care, neither will you, how would you let me find her by myself...If something happens to her, how will you let me live the rest of my life? I might not forgive myself until I die!"

Charlie hurriedly comforted and said, "Don't think too much about it, mom will definitely not have an accident."

Chapter 840

Claire couldn't hear it at all, and waved her hand: "Forget it, I don't want to talk about this problem anymore, I will go back to the room and calm down."

After speaking, she stepped up the stairs.

Seeing her disappearing at the corner of the stairs, Charlie couldn't help sighing.

It seems that Elaine is really hard to deal with.

Can't kill, nor let her evaporate from the world, after he has suffered enough, he still has to let her come back.

However, it is also very troublesome to let her come back. How can he make her shut up and not talk nonsense?

Psychological hints?

Not reliable!

Because the side effect of psychological cues is that once this person starts to do things according to his own cues, his own consciousness will be lost.

Just like Wu Qi, he implied that he had to add a meal every hour. When he added a meal, he was following his own psychological cues. At that time, he had completely forgotten himself and just wanted to eat. The more he eats, the better.

However, once he was full and the psychological suggestion ended, he would regain his own consciousness. At that time, he was still himself, Wu Qi.

So this is very embarrassing. If he gives Elaine a psychological hint that she can't talk nonsense, then this hint must always work.

In that case, Elaine is no longer Elaine, she may be a lunatic, or a lunatic with no self-consciousness at all.

So he has to make Elaine willingly shut up, not mentioning anything about his bank card, this technical difficulty is really big enough.

After Claire left, in the huge living room, only Charlie and Elsa who had not spoken were left.

Elsa has been waiting for an opportunity to be alone with Charlie, and finally waited, so she hurriedly said to him: "Charlie, don't be angry, she didn't intend to be angry with you, but the aunt was missing. Now, she is really anxious..."

Charlie nodded and said, "I know, I won't be angry with her, she is my wife after all."

Hearing this, Elsa's eyes flashed with envy.

She didn't understand that Claire and Charlie were just married in a fake marriage. Why did Charlie feel so passionate about her? Doesn't he know that this is just a scene?

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but feel a little lost.

Regarding appearance, she asked herself if she was not much worse than Claire.

In terms of net worth, she is also a child of the Dong family of Eastcliff, much better than Claire.

"Moreover, I have expressed my heart to him a long time ago. I really love him and I sincerely hope to be with him. But why does he guard the woman who doesn't love him like this?"

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but ask Charlie with a grimace: "Charlie, you should know what I want for you, but do you really have no feeling for me?"

Charlie couldn't help being a little big head when he heard what she said, and said: "Elsa, you are Claire's best friend, and Claire is my wife again, so I'm naturally the same as Claire. As a good friend, there are many good men in this world. You don't need to put your mind on me. I'm already married."

Elsa's eyes were red, and her tears came out. She stubbornly wiped away the tears and said: "You are not married at all, but it is just a scene. This scene you have been acting for more than three years. It's going to be over! What will you do then? Are you standing alone on the stage and continue to perform?"

Charlie looked at her, smiled slightly, and reached out to wipe away the tears for her, but his expression was very firm and said: "Believe me, this scene will never end!"

Chapter 841

Elsa felt the gentleness when Charlie wiped away tears for her, and at the same time, she listened to his firm emotional confession to Claire, and her heart was extremely painful.

She said with a hoarse voice: "Charlie, if Claire really loves you, I will never do anything to disturb you, but you know that she is with you because of her promise to her grandfather, you think so Your feelings, do you insist on making sense by yourself? Why not let your own life and the beginning of your life be the same?"

After that, she couldn't help sobbing and asked him, "In which sense I am inferior to Claire? Tell me, I will try to catch up with her, don't refuse so fast, give me a chance?"

Charlie stood up and shook his head: "Elsa, sometimes you don't understand the mind of a man. You are kind to me at first, just like you think I am kind to you. Just because of this, Enough for me to stay with her. As for whether she loves me or not, I am not in a hurry to figure it out. I still have a long time to understand, explore and even change bit by bit. Just like you did to me, even if I repeatedly tell you that I am married and have no interest in women other than Claire, don't you still continue to confess to me?"

Elsa understood at once.

In fact, Charlie treats Claire just like she treats Charlie.

With that said, she immediately realized.

However, after the realization, she was also uncomfortable.

Just as Charlie was unwilling to give up Claire anyway, Elsa was also unwilling to give up Charlie anyway.

So she wiped her eyes, looked at Charlie, and said stubbornly: "You don't want to give up Claire, and I am also unwilling to give up on you. Since you can wait for Claire, then I can wait for you too! No matter how long the wait. It doesn't matter, I will wait forever!"

Charlie sighed: "Well, since you have decided, I will respect your decision."

After all, Charlie checked the time and said, "It's getting late, go back to the room and rest."

Elsa nodded lightly and said: "You go back first, I want to sit down for a while."

Charlie gave a hum and stepped upstairs.

After Charlie left, Elsa sat on the sofa with mixed feelings.

There were grievances, unwillingness, sadness, and obsession, all kinds of emotions popped up in her mind, making her entangled.

Elsa felt that Charlie might be the only man she would fall in love with wholeheartedly in her life. If she didn't get together with him, then she would never meet a man who made her feel so excited.

She couldn't help feeling sad when she thought that she might never get the man she loved the most.

Is it because she is destined to miss Charlie in this life?

No, she doesn't believe it!

She believes that God will not arbitrarily arrange a silent ending if he sends Charlie to her side twice to let him save her from danger.

He will definitely arrange a perfect ending for her, as long as she can stick to it with a sincere heart.

Persevere, then persist until victory!

.....

When Charlie gently opened the door of the room, Claire was standing alone on the balcony on the second floor.

Her perfect figure looked hazy and enchanting in the moonlight, which made Charlie's heart beat.

It is true that Claire is a stupid and filial girl, but it is her stupid energy that makes her insist on not divorcing him.

She is foolish and filial to Elaine, but foolish and loyal to herself.

That year, soon after the two got married, Mr. Willson passed away.

At that time, the entire Willson family was persuading Claire to divorce him.

After all, the reason why Claire married him at the beginning was because of the father's fate, and everyone else opposed it.

Therefore, those people all hope that she can divorce him and marry the rich young master of a big family to change the fate of the entire Willson family.

However, she feels that marrying him means marrying a chicken and a dog, marrying a dog and a dog. As long as she does not divorce him, he will never divorce himself. This is her loyalty to her marriage and her husband.

Chapter 842

If Claire hadn't relied on this stubborn "stupidity", she would have listened to persuasion and had enough.

In that way, what kind of destiny would he have?

Charlie didn't dare to think.

Before marrying Claire, his life was very difficult.

Because the orphanage didn't accept adults, on his eighteenth birthday, Aunt Lena bought a birthday cake with her frugal money, celebrated his birthday, and sent him out of the orphanage with tears.

At that moment, Charlie once again became lonely and helpless in this world.

Aunt Lena wanted to help him, she wanted to introduce him to work and provide him with living allowances, but he had no face to ask.

He found a construction site alone, and moved bricks, sand, and cement with others at the age of 18.

He was not able to rent a house, so he has been living in the prefabricated house on the construction site, eating the cheapest meals, and doing the most tiring, heaviest and dirtiest work.

He only kept a small part of the money he earned to live, and the rest was donated to the orphanage.

Because the orphanage still had many brothers and sisters who were just as helpless and lonely as himself. They are still young and need more care and love.

However, after all, the orphanage had limited funds and can ensure that they are fed and clothed, but it cannot guarantee that they eat well and wear well.

Therefore, he spared no effort to donate the money he saved to his younger brothers and sisters to improve their lives, and even buy them textbooks for them to study hard.

In the fourth year of working on the construction site, his construction team was employed by the Willson family and began to work on a project for the Willson family.

At that time, Grandpa Willson, who came to inspect the construction site, could tell at a glance that Charlie and his grandfather looked almost exactly the same when they were young.

And the reason Grandpa Willson knew Charlie's grandfather was because the Willson family was the Wade family's servant a hundred years ago!

From his grandfather's generation, Elder Willson fled all the way to Eastcliff because of fleeing. When he was about to starve to death, the Wade family took them in.

In order to repay their favor, they voluntarily sold themselves to the Wade family and started long-term jobs.

At that time, the Wade family was already one of the largest families in Eastcliff, and the head of the family was kind and sympathetic to the servants, allowing them to marry, allowing them to have children, so that they could live and work in the Wade family.

Elder Willson's father was born and raised in the Wade family.

Later, Elder Willson's father became an adult, and he voluntarily sold himself to the Wade family and continued to work for them.

Later, Elder Willson was also born in the Wade family.

Therefore, when he was a child and a young man, he was raised in the Wade family, and also worked as a servant in the in the family.

The Old Master of the Wade family was about the same age as the Old Master Willson, and the two had grown up together. Of course, there was a huge difference in status, so the Old Master Willson knew him, but he didn't know the Old Master Willson.

After the war, the Wade family also prepared to move out to avoid the war, but couldn't take so many domestic servants, so they gave most of the domestic servants a generous settlement allowance and dismissed them.

It was at that time that Elder Willson returned to his hometown with the Wade family's settlement allowance.

Therefore, when he saw Charlie, he firmly believed that he must be a descendant of the Wade family.

Therefore, after his repeated questioning, Charlie revealed his life experience.

At that time, Grandpa Willson knelt directly on the ground and knocked three heads to Charlie, saying that he was kneeling and thanking the Wade family for their kindness to the Willson family.

Then Mr. Willson took him back to the Willson family and insisted on marrying his eldest granddaughter Claire.

At that time, the Old Master Willson didn't know if Charlie, the young dragon, could even fly into the sky.

But he felt that the descendants of the Wade family shouldn't spend their lives on the construction site.

As the servants of the Wade family for generations, the Willson family has the responsibility and obligation to take care of this Charlie who was living away and give him a stable home!

Chapter 843

Looking back into the past, Charlie was full of emotion.

There are only two people in the Willson family who really treated him well.

One is Mr. Willson, who has passed away, and the other is his wife, Claire.

Now, Mr. Willson has also passed away, and the entire Willson family is really not good to him, and only Claire is left.

Seeing Claire standing on the balcony with a sad face at this time, Charlie slowly walked over, came to the balcony, and said to her: "Claire, you don't have to worry too much, mom will definitely come back safely."

Claire realized that he had come in. She glanced back and said annoyed: "You don't really care about her, so of course you don't think she will have something to do. Even if she has something, you will not really feel sad."

Charlie knew that she was still mad at him, so he sighed, walked up to her, and comforted: "My wife, I know you are worried that mom will suffer and even be in danger outside, but you don't think that her character, If she can suffer a bit, will it be good for her?"

Claire said: "I understand what you mean, but the key is that the loss must be within a controllable category. If it rises to personal danger, everything will be uncontrollable..."

Charlie nodded and said: "Let's take a good rest first, and we will continue to go out to find tomorrow morning, okay?"

Claire hesitated for a moment, and nodded slightly, "Go to bed first, and I will go to the police station to ask about the progress tomorrow. They said that if there is no one to be found tomorrow, they will send the missing information to the Blue Sky Rescue Team and ask them to help."

"Yeah." Charlie hurriedly coaxed her and said, "The Blue Sky Rescue Team can mobilize a strong social force. It shouldn't be a problem to find someone to come out."

"I hope..." Claire said, turning around and walked back to the room.

Charlie hurriedly followed behind her, faintly excited.

After all, tonight is a great day for him to be promoted, and finally he can sleep with wife in bed!

Even if it goes well, he can make up for the unfinished bridal chamber with her!

With that in mind, Charlie hurriedly followed into the house and was about to directly hug Claire up and put her on the bed. As a result, he saw that Claire hadn't gone to the bedside, and went directly to the closet to take out a set of bedding, and looked at Wade angrily. She said: "Here, you are still sleeping on the ground tonight!"

"Ah?!" Charlie asked in surprise: "Good wife, didn't you say that I can already be promoted to one level? I have been stuck at this level for more than three years, so I should be promoted!"

Claire was ashamed and angry, and stomped her feet and said, "That was what I said before. Now the situation has changed, so the upgrade will take a bit longer!"

Charlie asked depressed, "How long is it delayed?"

Claire angrily said, "Slow down until mom comes home!"

Charlie was taken aback, and his expression immediately slumped.

Elaine, Elaine, you are so lingering!

Just thinking about it, Claire was already lying on the bed and said angrily: "You are not allowed to sneak up! Otherwise I will drive you to the bedroom on the first floor!"

Charlie had no choice but to say angrily: "Okay, my wife, I won't upgrade yet, I'll talk about it when Mom comes back."

This night, Charlie was quite depressed.

At the same time, he was even more annoyed at Elaine.

This mother-in-law, if she hadn't owed her hand to steal his premium card, things wouldn't be what they are now!

If she were honest, she would definitely be sleeping in the big bedroom upstairs now, and he and Claire would sleep on the same bed.

It seems that this woman still owes repairs!

"When I look back, I have to say hello to Issac and send a few people in to teach her a lesson! At least let her learn a lesson, and dare not steal other people's things and steal other people's bank cards to withdraw money from the bank in the future."

.....

Chapter 844

In sharp contrast with Charlie, Jacob upstairs.

Jacob didn't fall asleep when he was excited this evening.

He remembered his past with Meiqing several times in his mind, thinking back and forth, and taste back and forth, the whole person has been completely immersed in it!

The more he thought about Meiqing, the more he looked forward to seeing her again.

Early the next morning, Jacob, who hadn't slept the whole night, was rather vigorous, and his happy whole body was closed from ear to ear.

He got up early to wash, and shaved his beard clean without leaving a single stubble. Then he combed his gray hair well, sprayed some styling spray, and then turned the box and the cabinet again and looked for it. Out of the high-end suit that he had been reluctant to wear.

This suit was specially made in Hong Kong when the Willson family was in its heyday. At that time, he was also the second son of the Willson family. The Old Master didn't hesitate to give his pocket money, so he had a lot of face when he went out every day.

Unfortunately, Jacob's life is not good these years, so he didn't get lucky. This suit still fits well.

After changing into his clothes, Jacob looked at himself in the mirror, showing a satisfied smile when he was ten years younger.

Just as the so-called happy events are refreshing, the smile on Jacob's face is simply uncontrollable!

He believes that Meiqing will not be disappointed when she sees him now!

Thinking of this, he was so excited that he couldn't wait to rush to the airport immediately to meet Meiqing again.

However, Meiqing's plane landed later than ten o'clock, so it was still early, so he went downstairs and came to the restaurant.

In the restaurant, Claire and Elsa were sitting at the table drinking milk. Charlie was still busy in the kitchen with fried eggs and bacon. Elsa was the first to see Jacob and was surprised and said: "Wow! Uncle dressed so young today. Ah!"

"Really?" Jacob smiled a little embarrassedly, and asked, "Is it okay?"

Elsa gave a thumbs up: "That's great!"

Claire raised her head at this time and saw that her father was actually wearing his favorite suit. She was surprised and asked: "Dad, what are you doing in this dress?"

Jacob hurriedly said: "I have something to do today. An old friend came back from abroad and wants to meet me for a meal."

After that, Jacob said again: "Oh yes, Charlie is with me at noon. Don't come home for dinner, just order a meal at the company."

"Dad!" Claire said with some dissatisfaction: "Mom is still missing! I still expect you and Charlie to go out with me today to find her. Why are you still making an appointment with your old classmates for dinner?"

Jacob said, "Then when they are here, I can't help but meet up, right?"

Claire said angrily, "But my mother is missing! Shouldn't you worry about her first? At this time, you are still in the mood to go to an appointment. Are you and mother not a couple?"

Jacob nodded and said, "It's a couple."

After that, he added another sentence: "But I'm separated."

Claire was angrily speechless. Dad was dressed so formal at this time, and even his hairstyle was deliberately adjusted. It must have been a meeting with a female classmate.

Moreover, Dad said that the other party came back from abroad, and that is probably the first love her mother said!

She felt angry when she thought that her mother was still missing but her father was dressed up and going to eat with her first love.

Jacob said seriously at this time: "Your mother can find it anytime, but I have already made an appointment with someone for this dinner. I can't break the appointment. I will search together after dinner. I will find her with Charlie!"

Claire said: "Go by yourself, Charlie will follow me!"

"How can I do that!" Jacob said hurriedly, "I can't go alone with my son. How inappropriate? Or you let Charlie go to your mother, and you come with me!"

Chapter 845

When she heard that her father asked her to meet his first love, Claire refused almost without hesitation: "I'm not going!"

Jacob opened his hand: "Then don't stop Charlie from following me, anyway, one of you must follow me."

"You..." Claire was furious and asked: "It is more important to eat with your old classmates, or to find mother is more important. Dad, don't you know it clearly?"

Jacob blurted out: "It is clear, of course it is more important to eat with old classmates!"

"you....."

Although Claire had always had a good temper, she was really going to be blown up at this time.

Jacob said indifferently at this time: "Claire, you have to understand one thing, this world does not revolve around your mother. There are four people in this family. Your mother and I have our own needs. You can revolve around your mother, but you can't force me or force Charlie to revolve around her. We don't have anything to live on? We don't have any needs of ourselves?"

Speaking of this, Jacob continued with a little excitement: "Could it be that if your mother can't find it back one day, I can't do other things a day, so I can only go out to find her? Then if she can't find it back forever, then I don't have to sit besides, I will find her to die in the second half of my life? If this is the case, then I would rather run away from home. Why should I do this?"

Claire was speechless.

Although she knew that what her father was talking about was false, she still had to admit that there was some truth in this statement.

Dad has been suppressed by mother for so many years, and now her mother has suddenly disappeared. For him, it should be a kind of relief, but also a kind of release.

In desperation, she could only compromise and said: "You want to party with classmates, I have no objection, but after the meeting, you have to help me find mother's whereabouts!"

"OK, OK." Jacob agreed repeatedly, and said with a smile: "Don't worry, I will go all out at that time."

Charlie came out carrying fried eggs and bacon. He saw Jacob dressed up and said in surprise: "Oh, dad, you are looking handsome today."

Jacob smiled happily, and said, "How about it, can you tell?"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "That's so good."

Claire rubbed her temples and said to Charlie: "You accompany dad to see his old classmates at noon. After meal, you will quickly go to a place like Mahjong Hall to find out if anyone saw Mom."

Charlie immediately agreed and said, "OK wife, I will go with Dad."

.....

At the same time, breakfast was also started in the detention center.

Elaine slept in the toilet all night. She was trembling all over. She was hungry and almost fainted. She was looking forward to eating breakfast to add something, otherwise she would really be hungry and faint.

The two people who took the meal quickly brought back a plastic basket. Everyone went to take the meal. Elaine didn't dare to take it directly. Instead, she walked up to Gena Jones and asked pitifully, "Sister Jones, can I have a bite? I haven't eaten anything for a day and night..."

Gena Jones frowned while drinking porridge and steamed buns, and asked her, "What does it have to do with me whether you eat or not? Am I not letting you eat it?"

Elaine said bitterly, "I'm afraid you will hit me again after I eat..."

Gena Jones sneered and said, "It's good if you know it. If you want to eat, you can eat whatever you want. If you are full, you can get beaten up."

Chapter 846

Elaine knew this was a threat. As long as she eats by herself, even as long as she reaches out to get the meal, she will probably suffer a meal.

So she cried and pleaded: "Sister Jones, you beat, scolded, and punished yesterday. Please be merciful and forgive me..."

Gena Jones raised her eyebrows and asked: "I can spare you, but who can bring my dead mother back to life? Do you know how miserable it was when she drank pesticides and finally lay in the hospital bed with breathless and suffocated breath??"

Elaine burst into tears and said: "Sister Jones...I know you are a filial daughter, but I haven't harmed your mother..."

Gena Jones angrily said: "You still talk nonsense with me? I tell you, my mother was killed by her unfilial daughter-in-law, so I feel sick when I see someone like you! You should be glad that it is not an ancient society, otherwise I would chop you out for the sky!"

The Old Mrs. Willson hummed triumphantly: "Gena, you are so right! This kind of woman was supposed to be immersed in a pig cage in ancient times! It is the kind of bamboo cage, put her in it, and then fall Put on a few big rocks and throw them into the river to drown her directly!"

Elaine was so frightened that she didn't dare to say anything, nor did she dared to eat. She could only bow her head and stand in front of Gena Jones, like a kid who made a mistake.

Gena Jones drank her last mouthful of porridge, and used the last piece of steamed bread to turn around in the porridge bowl, dipped all the remaining rice fat in the porridge bowl, and ate it in one bite.

Afterwards, she said intently: "Oh, I don't seem to be full."

At this time, a female prisoner pointed to the plastic basket and said, "Sister, isn't there still one portion left in there? You can eat that portion too!"

Gena Jones deliberately looked at Elaine with a smile, and asked with a grin: "Oh Elaine, I have breakfast for you, are you okay?"

"No comments, no comments!" How can Elaine dare to say something? Can only nod like garlic.

Gena Jones smiled and said, "I'm fine, I am a person who exercises a lot, so I have a lot of appetite. It took a lot of physical energy to beat you yesterday, and I really need to make up for it today."

With that, she walked to the plastic basket and took out the lunch box inside. After opening it, she held the buns in one hand and the lunch box in the other for porridge.

Because she deliberately wanted to torture Elaine, she drank porridge and sucked very loudly, making Elaine's gluttonous legs soft and her stomach twitching.

Gena Jones ate up all the steamed buns and drank almost one third of the porridge. Then she shook her hand deliberately and threw the lunch box to the ground, and the porridge was immediately spilled.

Gena Jones sighed and said annoyedly: "Why is it spilled? It's a waste..."

As she said, she waved to Elaine and said, "Go to the toilet and get a mop, and mop this piece clean."

Elaine has never cherished food in her entire life, and she has not even finished a bowl of rice cleanly, but now looking at the pool of rice porridge on the ground, she feels very distressed.

Seeing her eyes fixed on the rice porridge on the ground, Gena Jones smiled and said, "Elaine, if you are hungry, you can also kneel on the ground and lick the porridge."

When Elaine heard this, she felt wronged and wanted to die.

Kneeling on the ground and licking porridge? How dirty this ground is! Countless people have stepped on it. The mop that mopped the floor in the toilet is already black. Now that she lick the porridge spilled on the floor, how can she stand it?

She can't lick it even if she starves to death!

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said: "I'd better drag it clean."

Gena Jones sneered: "Whatever you do, but you will lick it sooner or later. If you don't believe it, let's just wait and see!"

Chapter 847

A little more than eight o'clock, Charlie drove the car and went out with the Old Master who burned the bag.

There were still more than two hours before the plane landed, but Jacob couldn't wait.

After the Tomson Villa, he hurriedly asked Charlie: "Good son-in-law, do you know where the flowers are sold? I want to buy a bunch of roses to take with me."

Charlie said, "Dad, she will be with her son. It's not appropriate for you to send roses in front of her son, right?"

Jacob thought for a while, nodded and said, "You are right, then let me give her a bunch of ordinary flowers."

Charlie said: "I know there is a flower shop, not far away, let's go buy flowers first."

When he arrived at the flower shop, Charlie spent five hundred and asked the shopkeeper to help with a bouquet of flowers that symbolized friendship, and then he took it back to Jacob in the car.

Holding the bouquet of flowers, Jacob was very excited, and said with a smile: "This boss is good at craftsmanship. This flower looks very impressive! I believe Meiqing will like it!"

Charlie smiled slightly, and said to his heart that Jacob is a typical second spring glow. If this Meiqing is interesting to him, maybe the two can get together.

Thinking of this, Charlie felt a little sympathetic to the Old Master.

"No way, for the sake of my wife, I must not let Elaine evaporate from the world. Therefore, although the Old Master can happily meet the old lover now, but after a few days Elaine is released, his hard life will be started."

If Elaine knows that Meiqing is back, she still doesn't know how to make trouble, then Jacob's life will probably be more sad than before.

But naturally, Charlie didn't tell his old man. After all, he is in the most exciting time now, so let him enjoy the feeling of freedom and the breath of his first girlfriend before Elaine comes out!

At this time, Jacob asked again: "Oh yes Charlie, have you booked a place in Shangri-La?"

"It's booked." Charlie nodded and said, "Don't worry about it, I will satisfy you and Aunt today."

"That's good, that's good!" Jacob breathed a sigh of relief. He held the flower and looked at it again. He approached the only rose in the bouquet and smelled it, and sighed, "Scent! It's so refreshing!"

After finishing speaking, he couldn't help humming an old song: "Rose rose, I love you; rose rose, love is heavy..."

Charlie shook his head and sighed secretly. He didn't expect that after some hours of freedom, he would be quite depressed...

.....

After driving to the airport, the two arrived at the arrival hall. Jacob kept staring at the arrival screen at the airport. After searching for a long time, he finally found Meiqing's flight.

The expected landing time of the flight is 10:20, and there is one hour left, and the other party is returning from abroad, there must be an entry process, so it is estimated that it will be 11 o'clock when she comes out.

Jacob was very excited and didn't feel tired. He stood for more than an hour after standing.

Five minutes before eleven o'clock, a group of people came out from the exit. Jacob was holding flowers looking forward to it. Suddenly he saw a middle-aged woman wearing a black dress, and immediately waved to her excitedly: "Meiqing! "

When the other party saw him, she was taken aback for a moment, and then she said with surprise on his face: "Oh my God, Jacob!"

After all, walk a few steps quickly and walk towards Jacob.

Charlie also became interested, and hurriedly wanted to see what Jacob's first love, looked like.

So he took a look, and he was shocked!

Meiqing is said to be the same year as Jacob, and both are 48 years old, but Meiqing doesn't look like a 48-year-old woman at all!

She is tall and slender, and her skin is well maintained. She wears a long black one-piece dress, which looks like a goddess, and her hair is very dignified.

Chapter 848

As for the appearance, it is even more impeccable, beautiful and generous, and it has a bookish breath from the previous generation of intellectuals.

Among the stars of this age group, there is an actress. She is regarded as one of the most beautiful and charming women among the stars of this age group, but Meiqing is even more beautiful than her!

This famous star is in her early 50s and she is still charming, and Meiqing's actual age is three years younger than her, and she seems to be more than six or seven years younger than her!

This is an aunt who is nearly fifty years old!

This is a eldest sister who is less than 40 years old in her thirties!

Charlie was stunned. He really didn't expect that Jacob's first love was such an impeccable super middle-aged beauty. It can be imagined that she must be very beautiful when she was young!

God!

Charlie is a little envious of Jacob, this wimpy Old Master, how can he, can actually fall in love with such a super beauty back then!

At the same time, Charlie also sympathized with Jacob more!

Because of Elaine, he has lost such a majestic beauty, this is simply picking up a grain of sesame seeds and losing ten acres of watermelon land!

At this moment, Jacob looked at Meiqing, who was still beautiful in front of him, and felt even more sympathetic to himself than Charlie!

Why is there no trace of too much time on Meiqing's face after more than 20 years?

Why is she still so beautiful that he can't breathe after more than twenty years?

Why is it that more than 20 years have passed, her shallow smile and faint dimples are still so high, so that she can't move his legs just by looking at her?

At this time, Meiqing walked to Jacob quickly. After standing still, staring at him, she smiled gently: "Jacob, I really didn't expect it, we haven't seen you in more than 20 years!"

Jacob was a little nervous. He was a little helpless and said, "That, yeah, Meiqing, I didn't expect it to be... for so many years!"

When Charlie saw that the Old Master was still holding the flowers when he was talking to Meiqing, he forgot to give them to her, and hurriedly reminded him behind him: "Dad, don't hold the flowers all the time, give them to her!"

Jacob came back to his senses, and hurriedly handed the flower to Meiqing, and said nervously, "Meiqing, this...this flower is for you. Welcome back to Aurous Hill!"

Meiqing took the flowers with joy, took a deep look at Jacob, and said, "Jacob, thank you!"

There was no flower in Jacob's hand. He didn't know where to put his hands at once, so he rubbed awkwardly and smiled stiffly: "Meiqing, we haven't seen each other for so many years, why are you polite to me... .."

At this time, a tall and handsome young man with blond hair came over with his luggage from behind.

This blond young man has white skin, no different from white people in Europe and America, but his eye pupils are black, and his facial features are somewhat Asian in style, and he looks a bit like Meiqing. He looks like a mixed race.

He walked up to Meiqing and yelled with a smile, "Mom, is this your college classmate?"

Meiqing hurriedly pulled him and introduced Jacob, "Jacob, let me introduce to you. This is my son, Paul."

Jacob took the initiative to stretch out his hand and smiled: "Oh, Paul, hello!"

Then Jacob quickly introduced Charlie, saying: "Meiqing, Paul, I will introduce you to this man, this is my son-in-law, Charlie!"

Paul took the initiative to stretch out his hand to Charlie, smiled and said, "Hello, Mr. Charlie!"

Chapter 849

Jacob hurriedly said: "By the way, Meiqing, I have booked a box at Shangri-La Hotel. Let's go to have a meal first, and pick up the dust for you and your son!"

Meiqing smiled and said, "Thank you so much, Mrs. Jacob and son-in-law, who came to pick us up from afar and invited us to dinner..."

"It should be!" Jacob smiled awkwardly, and couldn't wait to say: "It just so happened that we were driving there, let's go directly!"

"Okay." Meiqing nodded, and then said to Paul: "Son, tell your driver, we won't take the company car, let's take your Uncle Willson's car."

Paul smiled and said, "Okay mom, I'll call the driver and ask him to send the luggage to the hotel room first."

"It is good!"

Paul politely said to Jacob and Charlie: "Uncle Willson, Charlie, wait for me first, I'll make a call, sorry!"

Jacob hurriedly said: "Oh, Paul, look at you child, you are too polite, you don't need to be so polite with your uncle."

Paul smiled and said, "I should be."

After speaking, he took out his mobile phone and walked aside to make a call.

Jacob then asked Meiqing curiously: "Meiqing, you and your son returned to China, and did you arrange a driver in China?"

Meiqing nodded and said: "After Paul's father passed away, I always want to return to the country to settle, but his father left a company. Paul said that he can't throw away his father's life's hard work, so he began to gradually start business transfer to China six months ago."

Jacob asked in surprise: "Did you transfer all the industries to China first?"

"Yes." Meiqing said: "But I don't participate much in these things, it is Paul taking care of it."

Jacob nodded lightly, feeling a little inferior in his heart.

Meiqing and her son returned to settle in China, and even transferred the business. An enterprise worth such a lot of trouble is probably not small in scale. From this point of view, Meiqing's current economic strength is very strong.

"In contrast, I am a little embarrassed. After all, the Willson family is now down, and I have no source of income. It can even be described as penniless. The only one who can do it is Tomson First Grade. The villa is now, but this villa is still owned by Charlie."

Thinking of this, Jacob felt a little bored.

Given his current situation, would Meiqing look down on him?

It's been half a lifetime, and most middle-aged people have at least a certain career, industry and family business, but he still have nothing to do now, which is too shameful!

Charlie also saw that Jacob's expression was a little upset, knowing that he must think that Meiqing is too good, and he is not worthy of others, but he did not break it either.

At this time, Paul finished the call and said with a smile: "Mom, Uncle Willson, and Brother Charlie, I have already told the driver, let's go."

"Okay." Charlie said with a smile: "Then let's go."

The four people went out of the airport together. A brand new Rolls-Royce Phantom stopped in front of them. A foreigner got out of the car and respectfully said to Paul: "Hello, general manager!"

Paul nodded slightly.

The foreigner driver said to Meiqing, "Hello, Chairman."

Meiqing nodded and smiled, and said, "Mike, you help me deliver my luggage to Shangri-La, and directly ask the front desk to send the luggage to my and Paul's rooms."

Chapter 850

The foreigner driver nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay chairman, I will go now!"

Then, he opened the trunk of the Rolls-Royce Phantom, took all the suitcases in Paul's hand, and stuffed them into the trunk.

After doing this, he asked Meiqing again: "Chairman, don't you and the general manager want to go in this car?"

Meiqing nodded and said, "I'll take my old classmate's car, you can go."

Jacob looked at the brand new and luxurious Rolls Royce, feeling particularly uneasy.

He can see the value of this car.

The bare car costs eight or nine million, and this car is equipped with a pure gold little golden man logo, and it costs more than two hundred thousand!

Therefore, Jacob felt even more inferior.

He couldn't help but said to Meiqing, "Oh, Meiqing, you should take this Les Royce over there. My car is not up to grade. I'm afraid that you won't get used to it and you will be wronged again."

Meiqing said seriously: "Jacob, we have known each other for so many years, do you think I am the kind of person who loves vanity?"

Jacob was suddenly embarrassed.

He hesitated and said: "My car is just an ordinary BMW 5 series. I'm afraid I will wrong you..."

Meiqing was a little angry, and said, "Jacob, why do you care about these things so much now? Rolls-Royce and BMW 5 series are all the same, even if it is still the kind of 28-year-old bicycle popular among your male students. Are they all a means of transportation? Don't talk about the BMW 5 Series, even if you are riding a big 28 to pick me up today, I am willing to ride."

As she said, Meiqing said with a smile, "But I guess it's a bit hard for you to ride a bicycle at your age now?"

When Meiqing said this, Jacob felt a lot more comfortable.

He was really afraid that Meiqing was used to being a Rolls-Royce and would feel a little uncomfortable when sitting in his BMW fifth series. If it made her feel uncomfortable, he would have trouble.

However, Paul suddenly said to Meiqing in a low voice at this time: "Mom, maybe you should take this car. The comfort of the BMW 5 Series is very poor, I am afraid you can't adapt."

Meiqing waved her hand, and also whispered: "When you see my old classmates in the future, don't drive this public car. Ask if your company has the most common commercial car, like the Buick gl8 two or three. A hundred thousand cars, I don't want to come back after more than 20 years, to make everyone feel too distant."

Paul reluctantly said: "The company really doesn't have such a cheap car. The most common commercial vehicles are Toyota Elfa with more than one million..."

Meiqing said: "Then just buy a car worth two or three hundred thousand."

Paul had no choice but to nod his head and said, "Well, since you have ordered, then I will arrange it."

After speaking, he stepped to the driver and told him: "Go back and buy a Buick gl8."

The driver was taken aback for a moment and said, "General Manager, our company doesn't have such a low-end car."

Paul said, "It's okay, just go buy one and come back."

"Okay, Sir."

Because Charlie's physical fitness far exceeds that of ordinary people, he couldn't help but admire Meiqing very much when he heard the whispers among them.

This aunt is not only beautiful and extraordinary, but more importantly, her emotional intelligence is too high.

Such a woman, for a middle-aged man, is even more goddess than the goddess of his dreams.

He can even have a foreboding that Jacob, the Old Master, should soon be completely fallen...

Chapter 851

The driver drove the Rolls-Royce Phantom away, and Charlie also drove the fifth-series BMW of the Old Master.

As soon as the car stopped in front of the three people, the Old Master hurriedly opened the rear door, and the gentleman said to Meiqing: "Meiqing, please first!"

Meiqing nodded and smiled, bending down and getting into the car.

Immediately afterwards, Paul seemed to go to sit with his mother in the back row on the other side, but Jacob said to him: "Oh, Paul, you and Charlie are both young people. You should have many topics in common. Have a good chat with him while driving!"

After speaking, without waiting for Paul's promise, he already came to the back door on the other side, opened the car door and sat in.

Paul had no choice but to get into the co-pilot.

Charlie drove toward the city, and Jacob in the back row said to Meiqing with a little embarrassment: "Oh, Meiqing, this car is a bit crude, and I hope you don't mind too much."

Meiqing said helplessly: "Jacob, I have already told you, I don't care about these things, so you don't have to mention them all the time."

"Yes, yes." Jacob complimented: "I don't mean you care, I just feel that this car is not worthy of your temperament. Look at how you look like a fifty-year-old middle-aged and elderly person. It's less than forty! A woman with temperament like you should ride in a top luxury car like a Rolls-Royce."

When Meiqing heard him complimenting herself, her face flushed slightly, and she smiled and said, "After so many years, you still speak so well."

Jacob smiled and said, "What I said is all from the bottom of my heart."

Meiqing nodded and asked him, "By the way, how are you doing for so many years?"

Jacob sighed and said angrily: "I have done it, that is, to be honest, after graduating from university, I have not been so happy."

Meiqing asked in a low voice, "Are you and Elaine unhappy?"

"Happiness?" Jacob gave a wry smile and exclaimed: "I have never had these two words with her for more than 20 years."

Seeing Jacob's wry smile, there was an inexhaustible pain, and a distress and regret flashed in Meiqing's beautiful eyes.

She remembered the thing that she could not forget the eve of college graduation.

That day, her roommate ran back, crying and said to her that her boyfriend took her for the first time after drinking.

She suddenly felt a bolt from the blue sky, and the whole person was on the verge of collapse.

At that time, she had already started happily planning the route after graduation. The family arranged for herself and her boyfriend to go abroad for further study, so that the two could stay and fly together, and at the same time, they could get a higher diploma together and come back later. Serve the country and become a pillar of the country.

But who would have thought that suddenly, such a disintegrating thing would happen.

At that time, her roommate was still crying and confessing in front of her, saying that she was sorry for her and that her boyfriend was too drunk and didn't know.

But how can she not mind?

My boyfriend is sleeping with her roommate, how could she not care?

Especially her own character, she is born to emphasize feelings rather than interests. For the one she loves, she can be wronged by heaven, but she must never allow her beloved to betray her or have any flaws in her relationship. .

Therefore, she could not accept such a thing, so she chose to quit, and left Aurous Hill and China sadly.

Even after going abroad, she was even more shocked when she learned that her ex-boyfriend had married that roommate.

Chapter 852

At that time, it happened that an American boy was madly pursuing her, so out of anger, and out of wanting to forget the past as soon as possible, she agreed to the other party's pursuit.

As a result, the two quickly married, got married, and soon had a child.

That American boy was very kind to her and cared for her for a lifetime, but she has been unable to forget her ex-boyfriend for more than 20 years.

When she looked back at that period of history, she realized that she had been deliberate and fooled by others.

The roommate didn't come to her to confess at all, nor did she really hope that she would not mind this. She just hoped that she would mind, that she couldn't let it go, and she wanted to take the initiative to quit, and then handed her ex-boyfriend to her.

But the oneself back then was still too young, too proud, too focused on the principles of life and the purity of feelings, so she gave up her beloved man. Right in the arms of that roommate.

Because of Jacob's unforgettable heart, Meiqing's married life was actually very painful.

Her husband loved her very much, and she had fulfilled the responsibilities and obligations of a good wife, never betrayed him, took good care of her family and child, and even helped him a lot in his career.

However, deep in her heart, she knew that this was just a life of supporting and respecting him. Although she thanked him very much, respected him, cared for him, she did not love him.

The marriage without love lasted for more than 20 years, and her husband died because of cancer.

Meiqing took care of her husband wholeheartedly until he was buried.

After her husband was buried, Meiqing's heart suddenly became empty.

At this time, she realized that she had completely fulfilled all her obligations to her husband as a wife.

Virtuous, loyal, caring for the family, passing on from generation to generation, she goes all out at every point.

However, after her husband died, she suddenly realized that her life should be lived for herself once.

So, she resolutely prepared to return home.

And what she wanted to see most when she returned to China was Jacob, who was impulsively handed over to Elaine.

However, she really did not expect that Jacob and Elaine would be so unhappy.

In the words of Jacob, He hasn't felt happiness in more than 20 years, so how much torment in these days?

Although she hasn't felt true love for more than 20 years, but fortunately, her husband treats her very well, even if there is no love, at least he is still very happy.

Jacob was also very melancholy at this time.

For more than twenty years, he has been regretting that he had drunk too much that night.

For more than 20 years, he has never loved Elaine, nor has he felt the happiness of his family.

He has been obsessed with Meiqing for more than 20 years, and it is more than 20 years since he saw Meiqing again and her scorching demeanor. His heart is full of regret.

He should have been with this perfect, humble, intellectual and understanding woman for half of his life.

But why, just missed her and came together with a shrew like Elaine?

At this moment, Jacob felt that what he had missed was the whole world!

Chapter 853

Jacob recalled this in his heart, his eyes flushed, and two lines of tears could not help but flow out.

The main reason is that the current Meiqing is too perfect. Even if Charlie saw it, he felt that she was more than 100,000 times stronger than Elaine, and Jacob spent more than 20 years with a b*tch who only had one in 100,000 of his ex-girlfriend. , Now that he looks at Meiqing and thinks about it again, can he feel uncomfortable in his heart?

When Meiqing saw Jacob's tears, she felt even more uncomfortable.

She also regretted.

Regret shouldn't have left him on impulse.

In the past twenty years, he has not been happy and he has no love.

Both people suffered the same torture.

Since this is the case, why did separate separate in the first place?

She knew that he couldn't like Elaine.

She knew that he must have completely lost consciousness before being taken advantage of by Elaine.

She even knew in the subconscious that Elaine was behind the scenes.

However, she couldn't help that arrogance at the time.

The results of it? For more than 20 years, the two people have no real happiness.

Thinking of this, Meiqing felt very uncomfortable.

She quietly took out a pack of tissues from her bag, took out one, and stuffed it into Jacob's hand.

Jacob originally turned his face to the window, not wanting Meiqing to see his tears, but suddenly he was stuffed with a tissue in his hand. He hurriedly looked at Meiqing on the side, only to find that her eyes were also choked. Tears, tears gleaming.

At this moment, Jacob asked herself in his heart, does Meiqing still have feelings for him? !

If she really still has feelings for him, can she reconnect with her? !

Thinking of this, when he was excited, he suddenly became nervous again.

He was nervous, where did Elaine go, and will she come back?

If she didn't come back, how nice it would be!

He can pursue Meiqing wholeheartedly!

He is already fifty years old, and if he doesn't pursue true love, he will never have love for his life!

But what if Elaine comes back...

If that b*tch knew that Meiqing was back, she would be crazy! She will definitely observe at her, and will never let him have the opportunity to meet or contact Meiqing!

More importantly, once Elaine sees Meiqing now, she will definitely be stimulated.

Because now Meiqing is much more beautiful than Elaine, and more temperamental than her, more educated than her, richer than her, and more cultivated than her, in every aspect, she is much better than her.

So compared to her, Elaine is just a mess of stinky sh!t.

Chapter 854

Jacob couldn't help begging to heaven in his heart, hoping that Elaine would never come back. She had harmed him for more than 20 years, so she should give him some freedom. After all, it was really not easy to bear her for more than 20 years.

If Elaine never comes back, then he believes that he must have the opportunity to continue to be with Meiqing and to continue his relationship.

Moreover, he thinks that Meiqing's son is still a very nice person, and he should be able to accept him as his stepdad.

And his daughter Claire is also a more sensible and filial girl.

If her mother indeed goes missing, she would not object to his search for his second spring without gambling. After all, it is impossible for him to live alone after Elaine disappeared.

The only thing he worried about now was whether Elaine, a woman, would return.

So he can only pray to God.

And he didn't know at this moment. It is not God that can decide all of this, but his son-in-law, Charlie.

.....

After Charlie drove to Shangri-La, the hotel staff immediately stepped forward and opened the door.

He handed the car to the waiter who parked the car, and then said to his father-in-law and his first love, Meiqing, mother and son: "Shangri-La is considered to be a relatively good hotel in Aurous Hill. The local cuisine is the best. It's delicious. I've already booked a good box here, but I don't know if it fits the taste of the your personality."

Meiqing hurriedly said, "Oh, Mr. Charlie, you are really too polite. I don't have any requirements for food, and I'm honest, after leaving Aurous Hill for so many years, I still want to try our Aurous Hill. The local flavors!"

Charlie said with a smile: "Then you came to Shangri-La, you really didn't come wrong."

After all, he was next to Paul: "Mr. Paul, I don't know how you feel about Chinese dining? Are you still used to eating?"

Paul smiled and said, "Mr. Charlie, don't forget that I am also half Chinese, and to be honest, I prefer Chinese food to those fast food and western food in the United States."

As he said, Paul hurriedly said: "By the way, let me tell you, my mother cooks very well. She is the best Chinese chef I have ever seen. She has great cooking skills."

Charlie couldn't help but exclaimed: "I didn't expect Aunt to look so beautiful, have such a good temperament, and cook deliciously."

Meiqing said modestly: "Don't listen to this kid's nonsense, he brags too much for me."

Jacob could not help but sigh at the side at this time: "When we were going to school together, you always said to cook for me, but at that time everyone was living on campus, and there was never a very suitable opportunity. More than 20 years have passed. Now, to be honest, I haven't eaten this meal yet..."

Meiqing smiled and said seriously: "Then if I have the opportunity, I can cook for you to taste. But I can put the shame on the front. My cooking is not as delicious as Paul said. If you are disappointed then If you do, don't blame me."

When Jacob heard this, he became excited, and blurted out, "Really? When will you have time?"

After that, Jacob couldn't wait to say: "If you have time, we can make an appointment at my house! What kind of dishes you will do, or what you want to do, tell me directly. I will buy and make all the ingredients in advance. Everything is prepared, and then you and Paul come to the house, you just cook, I'll help you, let the children just eat."

Meiqing said with some embarrassment: "Is this appropriate? Elaine shouldn't want to see me, right?"

In yesterday's phone call, Jacob told Meiqing that he and Elaine had broken up and had separated, but there was no specific reason for that, and he did not say that Elaine is now missing.

Therefore, Meiqing thought that the two had just separated bedrooms, but they still lived in a house, so they didn't want to go to his house, for fear that they would meet Elaine again, not to mention that this woman is not a good thing.

Jacob hurriedly waved his hand at this time, and said indifferently: "You don't have to worry about her. She is not at home now, and I don't know when she will be back. It will be impossible for a while."

Having said that, Jacob said again: "In my opinion, choosing a day is better than hitting the sun! Let's have dinner in Shangri-La at noon, and then you will go back to the hotel to rest. Come to my house in the afternoon. We can cook together. Have a meal, so I can also introduce my daughter to you!"

Chapter 855

Jacob's consideration was simple, because he was worried that Elaine would come back suddenly in the next two days.

In case she suddenly returned home, then she would not have such a good opportunity.

Killing him, he would not dare to invite Meiqing to eat at his home while Elaine is still at home.

In that case, Elaine would probably hack him to death with a knife.

So he felt it. If he wanted to have such an opportunity, he must do it as soon as possible, and the sooner the better.

Meiqing couldn't help thinking back then.

Because her hometown was in Suzhou, when she was studying in Aurous Hill, she could only live in a dormitory.

Moreover, when everyone was in love, they were relatively shy and low-key, and didn't dare to let the family know, so she always wanted to cook a meal for Jacob, but she never found a suitable opportunity.

Back then it was not as convenient as it is now.

Now if you want to find a place to cook for couples, you can directly find a hotel apartment or a short-term rental family apartment to solve the problem, and there are kitchen utensils, everything.

But at that time, there was no such condition.

Even if you are staying in an ordinary guest house outside, you need to open a letter of introduction by your unit. Therefore, young people at that time are in love, it is impossible to go out to a hotel or guest house to open a room.

At that time, the school's own guest house did not need to open a letter of introduction, as long as the student ID can open a room, but ordinary students dare not go there to open a room, because they are likely to be caught by classmates and teachers.

The first time that Meiqing and Jacob tasted the forbidden fruit was when Jacob secretly took her home one night when there was no one in Willson's house. The two of them hurriedly finished it at home.

After that, the two wanted to taste that taste again, they could only wait until Jacob had no one at home.

However, in the Willson family at that time, although the eldest brother Noah went to school in other places, most of the projects of Mr. Willson were in the local area and he did not often go out.

And Mrs. Willson seldom travels far, so the chance of no one at home was extremely rare.

Therefore, for a long time, when two people wanted to try the forbidden fruit, they could only choose to go to the school grove, or in the park of Aurous Hill, or to abandoned houses or even construction sites.

Most college students of that era used this way to fall in love, and there was no way.

It seems crazy now, but it was really normal in that era. After all, young people's hormones need to be released and there is no suitable venue to choose from.

Especially the small woods in the school are the most popular. They are dark inside. There may be a pair every ten meters. Everyone can hear other people's voices, but no one says nothing and doesn't look at other people. A tacit understanding, each busy with own things.

Because no one can see who, and no one knows who it is, no one feels ashamed.

Sometimes, the school teacher took a flashlight to catch in the small woods. Thought that at most one or two couples could be caught in it, but unexpectedly, he was shocked as if he plunged into a pile of wild ducks. A sky full of wild ducks.

Now, when two people think back to the past in their hearts, especially when they think back to the bits and pieces of the two people together, even now they seem crazy, romantic, or shameful details. There is an extraordinary throbbing in heart.

Charlie found that Meiqing's face suddenly turned red. And the whole person seems to be still shy.

He couldn't help thinking in his heart, didn't he just asked to go to the house to cook and eat? Why did this Aunt suddenly blush?

Then turned to see the Old Master beside him again, and found that his face turned red all of a sudden.

Chapter 856

Moreover, the whole person seemed very awkward, and he didn't know where to put both hands, so he could only keep rubbing with his fingertips.

Charlie understood right away that the two middle-aged and elderly people must have some unusual memories about "cooking and eating" or about "going home with him".

Paul also found out that things didn't seem right, but he was too embarrassed to say anything, so he could only say to Charlie, "Mr. Charlie, let's go to the box first."

With that, he said to Meiqing: "Mom, you've been on the plane for more than ten hours. It should be quite tired. If you and Uncle Willson want to talk, we can sit in the box and talk."

Only then did Meiqing suddenly came back to her senses. What she was thinking of just now was the past with Jacob, and even recalled the details of her first time with Jacob.

Nearly 50 years old, she blushed all of a sudden, and hurriedly followed her son's words and said: "Oh, that's right, you see we are all confused already, let's go sit in the box and talk!"

Jacob also hurriedly echoed: "Yes, yes, we let's go to sit in the box, and all blamed me. I just thought about chatting, but I forgot about it!"

Charlie shook his head helplessly, and even sighed in his heart. It seems that these two people are really fighting fire!

And it's the dry wood and raging fire that have been waiting for more than 20 years. If they meet together and give them a chance to burn, then it will definitely burn a raging fire...

.....

Charlie led the way, leading everyone to Shangri-La's dining department.

The manager of the catering department had been instructed long ago. As soon as he saw Charlie, he immediately greeted him and asked respectfully: "Hello sir, are you a member of Shangri-La?"

Charlie shook his head and said, "I am not a member, but I have asked a friend to book a box for me."

The other party hurriedly asked again: "Then what is your surname? What box number is reserved?"

Charlie said: "My surname is Wade, but I don't know what box number I booked. I booked the box through your President Issac."

The other party immediately bowed respectfully and said: "So you are Mr. Charlie. We have prepared the box for you. Please come with me."

Charlie smiled slightly, nodded and said, "Thank you."

The manager of the catering department took the four people to the box. Paul asked Charlie curiously: "Mr. Charlie, do you know Mr. Issac here?"

Charlie nodded and smiled and said, "I know, but I'm not familiar."

Paul subconsciously said, "Shangri-La seems to be the property of the Wade family, and Mr. Issac here is the spokesperson of the Wade family."

Charlie looked at Paul in surprise, he really didn't expect this American to touch this place so clearly.

So he smiled and asked, "Mr. Paul must have done a lot of homework for Aurous Hill, right?"

Paul nodded generously and said, "Before I was going to move the company to Aurous Hill, I had already begun to understand some of the situation in Aurous Hill. After all, the company was my father's painstaking effort. I could not bring it to a place without preparation. In a strange environment."

Charlie couldn't help but admired: "Mr. Paul you are so meticulous and forward-looking. I believe you will be able to flourish in Aurous Hill in the future."

Paul smiled slightly: "Mr. Charlie passed the award."

After that, he suddenly remembered something. He looked at Charlie and asked curiously: "Mr. Charlie, your surname is Wade, and you know Mr. Issac from Shangri-La. Are you from the Wade family of Eastcliff?"

Chapter 857

Charlie really didn't expect that Paul could guess his identity all at once.

However, he knew that Paul was making just a guess, and he couldn't admit this kind of thing.

Charlie was about to deny it, and the Old Master on the side laughed and said: "Oh, Paul, you really think too much. My son-in-law is the son-in-law recruited from our family. If he is from the Wade family, I am afraid that our family will fly on the branch and become a phoenix."

Although Jacob is usually not very motivated, and he doesn't do any business. But he still knew the name of the Wade family in Eastcliff.

It can even be said that there are not many people in China who don't know the Wade Family because the Wade Family is so famous.

Because of this, it was impossible for him to believe that Charlie belonged to the Wade family.

Because there are too many people surnamed Wade in this world, but there is only one Wade family.

He knew Charlie's life experience very clearly. When he was young, he entered the orphanage. When he was 18, he went out to work on the construction site. When he was in his early 20s, he was taken home by his father and became his own son-in-law.

How could such a person belong to the Wade family?

If Charlie would be Eastcliff Wade family, wouldn't he be the lost young master of the universe family?

As soon as Paul heard that Charlie was the son-in-law, he immediately realized that he had guessed wrong. After all, what kind of family was the Wade family? How could such a family let their young master be the son-in-law of others? Even the president of the United States cannot have such qualifications.

So he smiled and said to Charlie: "It seems that I have misunderstood. I'm sorry, but the main reason is that you are also named Wade, and this Shangri-La is the property of Wade family, so I think too much. I hope Mr. Charlie will forgive me a lot."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Paul, you don't have to be so polite."

While they were talking, the manager of the catering department took them to the door of the box, and respectfully said to the four people: "Mr. Charlie and three distinguished guests, please come inside!"

The four of them stepped into the box, and Charlie invited his father-in-law to sit in the main seat, and then said to his first love, Meiqing, "Aunt, sit with my father-in-law, after all, you have been so many years apart. You haven't met, there must be a lot of things you want to talk about."

Meiqing nodded, and said with a smile: "Yeah, then you can sit with Paul. I think your conversation is quite speculative."

Charlie hurriedly nodded and agreed, but kept reminding himself in his own heart that he should be a little more cautious when speaking in front of Paul, because this person does not seem simple.

After sitting down, Charlie handed the menu to the two elders and asked them to order some meals they liked.

Jacob hurriedly said: "Oh, Meiqing, I still remember which dishes you like to eat, or let me have some?"

Meiqing asked in surprise: "No, after all these years, do you remember what I like to eat?"

Jacob smiled and said, "Of course, I will definitely not forget this."

Having said that, Jacob picked up the menu and ordered several dishes with the waiter, all of which were local dishes from Aurous Hill.

Every time Jacob ordered a dish, Meiqing's expression became even more surprised. After Jacob ordered several times in one breath, she was already dumbfounded by surprise.

Because every dish he ordered was a Aurous Hill dish that she liked very much back then.

Chapter 858

Meiqing couldn't help sighing: "I didn't expect that you still remember these dishes. To be honest, some of them I don't even remember now."

After speaking, Meiqing said again: "Actually, the food in my hometown of Suzhou is also delicious, but I don't know why after coming to Aurous Hill and attending university, I prefer the local dishes of Aurous Hill."

Jacob smiled and said, "I still remember that you always said that you would make me some some dishes for me to try. It's a pity..."

Speaking of this, Jacob hurriedly asked: "By the way, Meiqing, we said just now about going to my house to cook and eat. How are you thinking about it? To be honest, I have been waiting for so many years, and I want to realize this. wish!"

When Meiqing heard this, her heart was even more moved, so she said, "I have no problem. I don't know if Paul has time at night."

After speaking, she looked at her son Paul and asked: "Son, do you have any other arrangements for the evening? If not, how about we go to your Uncle Willson's house for dinner together? I can also see Uncle Willson's daughter by the way."

Paul simply nodded and smiled and said, "Then I really can't ask for it."

When Jacob heard this, he became excited!

Immediately he blurted out: "In this case, then we'll make it so, Miqing, what dishes are you going to cook for the evening?"

Meiqing smiled and said, "Oh, now you let me say that I really can't tell for a while..."

After that, she suddenly remembered something and smiled: "Why don't we add a WeChat account for a while, I will tell you on WeChat when I think of it, and then I will trouble you to help me go to the vegetable market. Buy all the ingredients, oh yes, you will also send me your home address, and I will come with my son around 5:30 in the afternoon."

Jacob was so excited that he took out his mobile phone, opened his WeChat scan function, and said, "Meiqing, I will scan your phone."

The two have not been in contact for more than 20 years. Even if it is Jacob's phone number, Meiqing asked for an old classmate to come temporarily, so the two have never added WeChat before.

In this era, WeChat has become more important than mobile phone numbers.

Your mobile phone number courier, food delivery person, and even telemarketing and telecom fraud scammers all know, but your WeChat must be for your good friend or someone you know.

Therefore, being able to add to WeChat is the closest contact method.

What's more, after adding WeChat, you can see the other party's circle of friends, you can see the other party's photos, the other party's videos, and every bit of the other party's life.

If one person has feelings for another person, then he will definitely want to take a look at all his circle of friends.

At this moment, Jacob and Meiqing had almost exactly the same thoughts.

Seeing that the two had already added WeChat, Paul on the side also took out his mobile phone and politely said to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, why don't we add WeChat to each other and leave a contact information."

Charlie actually doesn't like adding strangers to WeChat, but since Paul took the initiative to say it, but he is not easy to refuse, so he turned on his mobile phone and scanned it and said: "ok, let me scan yours."

After the two added WeChat, Paul asked Charlie curiously: "Mr. Charlie I want to know what do you do?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I'm not as high as I am. I just stay at home. My usual job is cleaning, washing clothes, buying vegetables, and cooking."

After listening to Paul, he was taken aback, but he didn't show any eyes or expressions that looked down upon Charlie. He smiled and said, "Mr. Charlie, this life is also very leisurely and elegant. To be honest, I am envious!"

Chapter 859

After all, Paul was born in a family of high-ranking intellectuals, so the overall quality is quite high, not like others, when he heard that Charlie is the son-in-law, he looked at him differently.

And Charlie didn't feel any embarrassment. After all, it was not a day or two for him to be have the bad feelings about being the live-in son-in-law.

At this time, Paul said to Charlie again: "By the way, Mr. Charlie, since you know Mr. Issac from Shangri-La, but I don't know if it is convenient for you to take some time to recommend me? After all, I just moved the company back to Aurous Hill. We also need to actively expand Aurous Hill's local resources and contacts. If Mr. Charlie can help me with this, then I will definitely not treat you badly."

Charlie did not want Paul to know how close he was to Issac. After all, he almost guessed the relationship between himself and the Wade family just now. If he really got to know Issac through himself, he might have learned from it. Taste more details.

So he apologized and said to Paul: "Mr. Paul, to tell you, I don't know Mr. Issac, I just have a personal relationship with a friend of him, and I am ashamed of this, that person is I met when I helped others watch Feng Shui."

"Feng Shui?" Paul asked in surprise: "Mr. Charlie, are you a Feng Shui master?"

Charlie smiled lightly and said calmly: "I can't talk about what Feng Shui master is. It's nothing more than reading a few books and learning with the Old Master for a while. To put it bluntly, it's somewhat foolish."

Jacob on the side was afraid that Charlie would be embarrassed, and asked roundly, "By the way, Paul, what business does your company do? They have moved from the United States to Aurous Hill specifically, so the business should be very large, right?"

Paul smiled and said: "Uncle Willson, our company is actually a multinational law firm, mainly providing high-end legal support for some Fortune 500 companies."

Jacob asked in surprise, "Paul, are you a lawyer yourself?"

Paul nodded and said, "Yes, Uncle Willson, my dad and I both lawyers. To be clear, I have inherited his mantle."

Jacob said with emotion: "The requirements for being a lawyer in the United States seem to be very high, right? Generally speaking, it seems that you need a PhD?"

Paul smiled slightly and said: "Uncle Willson, you are right. There are two professions in the United States that have the highest requirements for academic qualifications. One is a doctor and the other is a lawyer. Generally speaking, a registered lawyer must be at least a law school Graduated with a master's degree."

Jacob nodded slightly and asked: "Then what degree you have?"

Paul humbly said: "I am Ph.D. from Yale Law School."

Jacob nodded in amazement and said, "Yale University, that is a world-class university! It is really amazing to be admitted to a doctorate in this kind of university!"

Paul said seriously: "Uncle tells you that even if you get a doctoral degree, you only have the qualifications to be a regular lawyer. A truly good lawyer needs a long period of growth, some even 10 years. More than a year of working experience and practical experience in hundreds of successful cases are not enough, so for me, I am just an entry-level elementary school student."

Speaking of this, Paul looked at his mother, Meiqing, and said: "Actually, I have just graduated. If I were to run our own law firm independently, my own experience would not be enough, so I'm just On the surface, I assumed the position of general manager, but it was my mother who really helped me behind the scenes, and even guided me to run the company. Without her help, the company would probably be destroyed in my hands."

Chapter 860

Jacob looked at Meiqing in surprise, and blurted out, "Oh, Meiqing, are you very proficient in law and law firms?"

Paul smiled and said: "Uncle Willson, don't underestimate my mother. In fact, my mother is also a PhD student at Yale Law School. She and my father met and married at Yale Law School. My dad founded the family's law firm, and my mother has been there to assist him. Without my mother's good help, my dad's career would not be successful.

Immediately, Paul sighed with self-deprecation: "It's just that my ability hasn't grown up yet, so I have to bother my mother all the time."

Meiqing smiled and said, "Son, in fact, you have done a very good job. Mom especially hopes that you can grow up as soon as possible, and then take over the company as a whole. In this case, Mom won't have to work so hard anymore."

With that, Meiqing couldn't help sighing: "Mom is now back to China and Aurous Hill. The biggest idea in my heart is not to start our family's business in Aurous Hill, but to enjoy the retirement life of a Chinese Lady in in the city."

Afterwards, Meiqing looked at Jacob and sighed in her heart: I have been working hard in the United States for so many years, but I am actually very tired of my career.

In addition, I have never really felt the taste of love, so I now want to go back to China, let go of all that before, concentrate on being an Lady, and if given the opportunity, she even hopes to be able to be with Jacob, her first love If you continue the frontier, this will make up for the regrets that she have had for many years.

She also knows that lawyers in the United States are actually a very popular profession, because many lawsuits in the United States are very high in compensation, often tens of millions, even hundreds of millions.

According to media reports, a few years ago, someone sued Marlboro, a famous American tobacco brand, for inducing smoking and causing death. The American court even awarded hundreds of millions in compensation.

There was also an Asian man who was beaten by American Airlines security on the plane. That incident had a very bad impact on the airline. In the end, the lawyer won tens of millions in compensation for the Asian man.

For lawyers, they also have to receive at least 30 to 50% of the compensation amount, and sometimes even higher.

Therefore, this is why the lawyers in the United States are very professional, and they are simply desperate to file a lawsuit, and even do everything they want.

Because the benefits behind this are really too great, it is possible to win a big lawsuit, and the direct compensation is divided into several million tens of millions, which is much easier than for ordinary people to make money.

Therefore, in the United States, the status of lawyers is also very high, and they are all upper-class people.

Especially some of the more famous super heroes in the United States, people like this can generally become billionaires, and even many stars, billionaires and important American guests.

Therefore, Jacob couldn't help but feel more inferior in his heart, because he guessed that the family of Meiqing must be very, very rich, even enough to make their mother and son become an upper class society in Aurous Hill.

In contrast, there is nothing he can tell...

Chapter 861

Shangri-La's meal was a joy for the guests. Charlie's father-in-law was naturally very happy, and Meiqing was also in a very good mood. Her husband passed away some time ago, and she has been a little sad. At this time, it feels like the rain has passed the day. .

Paul looked very pleased when he saw his mother in such a good mood.

As for Charlie, he just hit the Old Master who felt sorry for him.

Because Meiqing is so good, he can't imagine how many old men in Aurous Hill will pursue her crazy after such a beautiful, temperament, single and golden Lady Willson returns to Aurous Hill. It is estimated that the old man will only be troubled in the future. Increase, not decrease.

The mother and son came to China on the plane for so long, and their bodies were already a little tired, so after dinner, Jacob and Charlie sent them to the room they had opened in Shangri-La without too much interruption.

When he arrived at the guest room department, Jacob was again irritated, because Meiqing and her son both opened super luxurious executive suites.

Shangri-La's luxurious executive suite is second only to the presidential suite. It can accommodate four people and the rent per night is tens of thousands. It can be said to be very luxurious. You can live in this type of room if you can go out, and it's a set per person. The financial capacity of Meiqing's family is very strong.

After bidding farewell, Charlie and Jacob left the hotel together.

As soon as he left the hotel door, Jacob couldn't help but take a deep breath, then he couldn't help but sigh again.

Charlie sighed with emotion when he saw him next to him, and couldn't help asking: "Dad, what are you sighing for?"

Jacob said with a sad face: "I really didn't expect it. I really didn't expect Meiqing to have such a good life in the United States. I didn't expect that their family even had a law firm of their own. Compared with her, I am really useless..."

Charlie smiled slightly and comforted: "Dad, I don't think Aunt has any intention of despising you, and Aunt is really low-key and very humble. She is definitely not that kind of special material woman. Don't worry too much about these material gaps."

Jacob sighed, and said helplessly: "I understand what you are saying, but as a man, I always feel that such a face is particularly shameless."

Charlie said with a smile: "Dad, you think too much. Look at me. When Claire and I got married, I had nothing. I wanted money without money, status without status, ability without ability, status without status. At that time, the gap between me and Claire was much larger than the gap between you and Aunt, but Claire didn't get along well with me?"

Jacob was stunned suddenly, and after thinking about it carefully, it was really true.

He thinks so much now, it doesn't make any sense, because with his current ability and current family background, it is impossible to surpass Meiqing.

Is it because he can't surpass her, he can never be with her?

of course not!

Jacob could see that after so many years, Meiqing still has feelings for him, and she also said when she was at the airport, even if she was riding a 28 bicycle to pick him up, she would not have any opinion.

This is enough to see that Meiqing doesn't care about material things.

Thinking of this, he finally breathed a sigh of relief.

But then, another problem came to his mind.

Chapter 862

He suddenly turned his head and looked at Charlie, and asked worriedly: "Charlie, do you think your mother can come back in this life?"

Charlie couldn't help but asked him awkwardly: "Do you think I should say yes? Or not?"

Jacob was startled slightly, and said in embarrassment, "Hey, in fact, I know that you have very big opinions on your mother just like me in your heart, right?"

Charlie said hurriedly, "Dad, I haven't said this before!"

Jacob hurriedly said: "Let's talk, you don't have to hide with me. After all, Claire is not here, what can we say, can't you?"

Charlie knew what Jacob was thinking.

He must be looking for a comrade in arms now.

Because he didn't want his mother-in-law to come back, but his wife was very eager to find her mother to return home as soon as possible.

Therefore, a psychological confrontation formed between the father and daughter.

The current situation is 1:1, and he acts as a neutral party, so now the Old Master urgently needs to win him over.

After all, there are only three people left in a family. If two people want that woman not to come back, then his psychological appeal will take the lead.

So, he looked at Charlie and further induced: "Charlie, your mother has scolded you every day for the past few years, and even asked Claire to divorce you repeatedly. I see it all! To be honest, Many times, as an Old Master, I feel sad for you. As the saying goes, a son-in-law is half a son! When did you mother treat you as half a son? You are not as good as an outsider in her heart! "

Charlie looked at Jacob with a sincere face, and said seriously: "Dad, mom will come back or not, it doesn't depend on whether we two want her back, even if neither of us wants her back, she might be there tonight. Suddenly return home, maybe even when Aunt is cooking, she suddenly rush into the kitchen to fight with Aunt. The legs are on Mom's body. If we really want to come back, we can't stop her. Can we?"

In fact, Charlie himself can decide everything about Elaine, but he can only say that to Jacob.

As soon as Charlie said this, Jacob's face immediately became extremely frightened. He looked at Charlie and asked with a trembling voice: "You said this would not be so coincidental? Ask your Aunt to eat at home tonight, if Your mother suddenly came back at this time, and the house must be fried. According to your mother's character, she is going to kill people..."

Seeing that Jacob was so frightened and worried, Charlie hurriedly said: "Dad, I don't think Mom will be back tonight, so please feel free to invite Aunt to home for dinner."

Jacob was said to be scared by him, and blurted out, "How can you be sure that your mother won't come back? Like you just said, the legs are on her body. What if she does come back? "

Charlie, in his panic now, smiled calmly and said: "Don't worry, Dad, I promise you that Mom will not come back tonight. If she comes back tonight, I will turn her head off and kick her for you."

Jacob hurriedly said: "Oh, I don't want her head. I want your Aunt to be able to eat a meal in our house with peace of mind."

After that, Jacob said again: "I thought of a good way, good son-in-law, you must help me!"

Charlie smiled and asked, "Dad, tell me, what is the good way? What do you want me to do?"

Jacob hurriedly said: "After your Aunt arrives in the afternoon, I will lock the door of the villa from the inside. In the meantime, if your mother comes back, you will go out and help me with it. You are strong, even if you carry her, You have to carry her away. If you can't carry her, you will knock her out! In any case, you must never let her come in and meet your Aunt!"

Chapter 863

Charlie had never thought that his old man would be such a devil before.

But he can also understand the feelings of the Old Master.

After all, his first girlfriend that he haven't seen for more than 20 years, and she is still so perfect now. If she were his own, she would not dare to make any mistakes in this matter.

Moreover, Elaine's character is indeed a super time bomb. Once such a person initiates a fire, it is possible that the power of nuclear weapons will really burst out.

So there is nothing wrong with him being so cautious.

But he didn't know that Elaine was currently in the detention center, suffering from inhuman torture. If she didn't nod her head, she would never come out.

Jacob and son-in-law drove home, and Claire had just returned.

Upon seeing her, Charlie hurriedly asked: "My wife, have you gone to the police station? What did the police say, is there any news about mom?"

Claire's face was a little pale and said: "The police told me that they have issued a notice of assistance in the whole city, and even communicated with the person in charge of the Blue Sky Rescue Team, but the current feedback is that no one has seen her. I couldn't find any clues about her whereabouts."

Elaine was taken away by the police directly when she was withdrawing money from the bank. Issac had already said hello, so it was definitely impossible for them to reveal any clues.

And when Elaine was at the bank, she was always in the VIP reception room, so in the process, she didn't contact any outsiders at all. Issac at the bank also said hello, so the outside world could not have any clues. Blue sky It is impossible for the rescue team to find her.

He comforted Claire and said, "My wife, don't worry. Mom hasn't been missing for more than 24 hours. We can wait a little longer."

Jacob on the side also hurriedly agreed: "Yes, Claire, your mother only went out yesterday afternoon, and now it's barely a day and a night, so I don't think you need to worry too much."

Claire shook her head and resolutely said: "No, I must go and look for her again, otherwise I will always feel uneasy."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie and blurted out: "Charlie, you will help me look around in the afternoon and inquire everywhere, especially in places like the chess room of Mahjong Hall. My mother likes to go to that kind of place."

Charlie immediately agreed and said, "Then I will look for her!"

Claire hurriedly ordered: "You must never deal with errands like yesterday, and then come back to deceive me!"

Charlie promised again and again, "My wife, don't worry, I will definitely not. Today I will be careful and look for Mom in all the mahjong halls and chess rooms in Aurous Hill!"

Claire immediately said, "Then in every one of them must take a picture for me when you look around!"

Claire felt a little depressed when she thought of last night when he said he was going to find her mother, but in the end he went to eat and drink with his dad.

Although she knew that all of this should be Dad's idea, she was still a little disappointed in her heart.

Chapter 864

Charlie hurriedly asked her: "Wife, where are you going to find this afternoon?"

Claire said: "I am going to meet my mother's friends, as well as the beauty salon where they often go, and the club where they often go to spa."

Jacob hurriedly said at this time: "Claire, Dad will not go out to see your mother in the afternoon, because Dad invited Dad's old classmates to eat at home, and my old classmate wants to show her hand to our family, so I will go in the afternoon. Buy some ingredients, and then tidy up the house and prepare.”

Claire asked in astonishment: “Dad, haven’t you and your old classmates already had dinner at noon? Why do you have to make another appointment at night?”

Jacob explained: “Eating at noon is at noon, and noon has already passed. People have returned home from a long distance, so we should always invite others to sit at home and have a home-cooked meal. This is to entertain friends. The serious way!”

Claire said angrily: “Dad, even if you want to entertain classmates, you have to divide the time. Now that mom is missing, why are you still in the mood to invite your old classmates to eat at home? You can’t wait for mom to come home. Will you treat them afterwards? After all, my mother is also your old classmate. Wouldn’t it be better for you three old classmates to meet?”

“What a sh!t.” Jacob muttered in his heart: It is because your mother is missing that I feel in the mood, and I have the courage to invite my old classmates to eat at home, otherwise I would be killed, I would not have the guts.

However, he must not say this in front of his daughter, so he hurriedly waved his hand and said, “Oh, you don’t understand. She has been to the United States for more than 20 years. She has finally returned. I will definitely do my best as a landlord. One thing must be done on the day when someone comes back to have a sense of ritual! How can someone wait for someone to come back for a few days before picking up others? What is it? Others will think that your dad can’t handle things. .”

Then, Jacob said again: “And they did not come back alone. She also brought her son with her. The son is about the same age as you and Charlie, and he is still a well-known American barrister who runs a Well-known law firms, you young people know each other, and there may be great benefits in the future. How rare is this opportunity!”

Claire said angrily: “I don’t think there is anything rare. I don’t want to know your classmate and your classmate’s son. I just want to find my mother as soon as possible and bring her home.”

Jacob couldn't help but scolded, "Why are your kid so ignorant? It's just a dinner, can't you not find her later? Don't you eat dinner anymore? I think you are clearly trying to fight against your dad! "

"I don't!" Claire said anxiously: "I just don't feel in the mood to meet strangers at this time, and I am not in the mood to meet strangers."

Jacob said angrily: "That's Dad's old classmate, even if you look at your dad's face, you can't say such things!"

In fact, there was something in Jacob's subconscious that he didn't say, and he didn't dare to say it.

The sentence is: If your mother doesn't come back in this life, my old classmate is probably your stepmother! Her son may be your brother in the future! It's always good to meet in advance!

Charlie also persuaded at this time: "Yes, my wife, Aunt is Dad's old classmate after all. Dad should try his best to be a landlord. As children, we must also cooperate with each other."

After all, he hurriedly said: "Well, let's go find mom in the afternoon. Anyway, I don't need to cook tonight. Aunt is here to cook. Then let Dad go shopping in the afternoon, and then Aunt will Come to cook at home, we will come back to eat directly after we finish looking for mom, we can go out to look for after dinner, then it won't take up our time to find mom too much, don't you think?"

Claire also felt that her speech was a bit heavy just now, and was worried about how to end the scene. Seeing that Charlie was coming to fight the fire at this time, she followed his words, nodded and said, "That's it, just as you say."

Jacob let out a sigh of relief, and couldn't help but give Charlie a grateful look...

Chapter 865

At this moment, in Aurous Hill Detention Center.

Elaine watched everyone finish their lunch, and watched Gena Jones finish her lunch, almost collapsed in sadness.

She hasn't eaten anything for more than 24 hours, and after a few more beatings, she was forced to sleep all night in a cold and humid toilet. Now she is dizzy with hunger, and she is on the verge of fainting.

But she dared not express any dissatisfaction, because Gena Jones might come up to beat her again at any time.

Old Mrs. Willson had a small appetite, and after she was full, half of the rice was left in the lunch box.

She deliberately carried the lunch box, paced to Elaine, handed the lunch box to Elaine, and asked with a smile: "You haven't eaten anything for one night a day. It's uncomfortable to go hungry? Would you like to have two bites?"

Elaine looked at the Lady Willson incredulously, and asked cautiously: "Mom, do you really let me eat it?"

The Old Mrs. Willson nodded and said, "Seeing that you have been hungry for so long, I still feel uncomfortable. As long as you don't think I am dirty, just eat my leftovers."

The food at noon in the detention center was not good, just a stew and a rice, and there was nothing fishy in the stew.

But even so, Elaine was still drooling when she smelled the scent of the food.

She still cares about whether the Lady Willson is dirty or not. As long as she eats a bite, she can accept it as long as she doesn't let herself lick from the ground.

So she hurriedly said gratefully: "Thank you mom, thank you!"

After speaking, she had to reach out to pick up the Lady Willson's lunch box.

Just when her hand touched the lunch box, the Lady Willson directly dumped all the leftovers and rice soup on her head.

Afterwards, the Old Mrs. Willson looked at her and sneered: "You don't think I am dirty, I think you are dirty, you are a shameless b@stard woman who deserves to eat my leftovers. Pooh. If I throw it away or feed the dog, it won't be for you!"

Only then did Elaine realize that she was being tricked by the Lady Willson. She didn't care about wiping off the food on her head. She broke down and cried: "When will you stop to torture me? I've been so miserable, why are you still? Can't you let me go? Even though we two have not dealt with each other for so many years, have I hit you? Have I touched you? But what did you do to me? You want to kill me!"

Mrs. Willson coldly snorted, and said disdainfully: "Do you have to beat me before I can beat you? If you are in awe of me and are honest and polite, invite me into Tomson's villa, would I still do this to you?"

Elaine cried and said, "I know I was wrong. I really know I was wrong. If I have a chance to go out, I will use the eight-lift sedan chair to carry you back to the villa of Tomson, and I will give the best Room for you to live in."

After speaking, Elaine said again: "Didn't I have written you a letter? You just have to wait until your 15-day detention period expires and take that letter to find Claire, she will definitely be in the first-grade Tomson arranged a room for you in my villa! You can enjoy the good fortune in Tomson, why are you still having trouble with me now?"

Old Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth, directly used the aluminum lunch box, slammed it on top of her head, and said sharply: "Why am I having trouble with you? I tell you, I can't wait to kill you! Don't say beat you. Pause, even if I kill you and take your skin off, I won't get rid of my hatred! I have come here in my life, when have I suffered such humiliation? All this is thanks to you, you think I will forgive you?"

Chapter 866

After that, the Old Mrs. Willson immediately shouted to Wendy: "Wendy, come here, our take her to the bathroom and washes away the food on her head with cold water! Otherwise, later in case she ate secretly behind us, On the contrary, it is cheaper for her!"

Elaine shouted in horror: "It's almost winter now! You are going to wash my head with cold water, you are going to kill me!"

Gena Jones, who had been watching the excitement by the side, suddenly said coldly: "Stop the d*mn talking nonsense, otherwise, not only will the Lady Willson use cold water to wash your head, I will also give you a shower with cold water!"

Elaine was so frightened that she could only cry loudly while letting her grandma and granddaughter drag her into the bathroom.

Immediately afterwards, Wendy put her head under the faucet of the mop pool and screwed the faucet to the maximum without hesitation!

The cold tap water directly washed Elaine's head, leaving her brain blank, followed by the biting cold, which made her swing all over.

She was holding her head full of cold water, looking at the grinning Old Mrs. Willson, begging: "Mom, I beg you, give me a towel, or I will really freeze to death!"

The Old Mrs. Willson sneered: "Just you still want a towel, do you deserve it? If you really freeze to death, it will be a good thing. You will free yourself, and I will also relieve my hatred!"

As she said, she looked at Elaine and said sarcastically, "Or you can just cooperate. If you die, it's a hundred!"

Elaine collapsed on the ground and cried loudly. The Lady Willson glanced at her in disgust, and said to Wendy: "Let this b*tch cry here, let's go!"

Wendy also said happily: "*btch! Your good days have just begun! Now it's to clean up you. When I finish cleaning up your old btch, I will definitely find a chance to clean up that little b*tch Claire!*"

.....

Claire never dreamed that her wonderful mother was being tortured to death by her grandma and her cousin.

Because her father Jacob was unwilling to come out to find her mother, she could only split up with Charlie planner, one to find the chess and card room and the other to the beauty salon.

Charlie got the car key from the Old Master, and was about to get into the Old Master's car, and went to the chess and card room to look around. Claire grabbed him and asked in a low voice: "Charlie, I ask you, What is the specific situation of that old classmate and Dad?"

Charlie asked curiously: "Wife, what do you want to know?"

Claire said: "I want to know her appearance, temperament and personality, as well as her family situation, relationship situation, and her future plans after returning to China."

Charlie said truthfully: "That Aunt is really very beautiful, has a very good temperament, and her personality feels very low-key and humble, and very very friendly. As for her family situation, her husband was very simple. Has passed away, now she and her son are dependent on each other."

After speaking, Charlie hurriedly changed his words: "It can't be said that it is dependent on each other. After all, the mother and son are still very powerful. I heard that they have opened a very large law firm, and it is designed for the world's top 500 companies. They have already moved their businesses back to Aurous Hill, and their future plans are definitely to prepare for retirement in Aurous Hill."

Chapter 867

"What?!"

Claire was shocked and said: "Good looks, good temperament, and perfect personality. More importantly, she is widowed and gold... Isn't this the diamond king among middle-aged aunts?"

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "It is indeed the fifth king of the diamond, but this Aunt does not look like an aunt at all, more like an older sister."

Claire asked in surprise, "Is it so exaggerated? How big does it look like?"

Charlie said: "Looking at it is only thirty-seven or eight years old, up to forty."

"real or fake?!"

Claire's face was unbelievable, she rarely saw a woman who was 50 years old, she would look like thirty-seven or eighteen.

Even a movie star is not so outrageous, right?

Charlie said seriously: "I didn't make any jokes with you at all. Aunt looks really young."

Claire exclaimed: "So exaggerated?"

Charlie smiled calmly and said, "It just so happens that she will come to eat at home tonight, you will know when you meet."

Claire no longer doubted Charlie's words. She said anxiously: "This woman is father's first love. Now she is widowed and the conditions are so good. It just so happens that the relationship between my father and my mother is so unstable and even more angry. The human thing is that my mother is still missing at this time. Wouldn't it be necessary for this woman to take advantage of this?!"

Charlie smiled a little embarrassedly and said, "Wife, that's not what we can manage as children. After all, parents also have their freedom. As children, we can only respect, not objection."

Claire suddenly became impatient. Although she knew that her mother was not a good and virtuous woman, she was also her own mother after all. How could she want to see her mother abandoned by her father?

Thinking of this, her heart became even more eager, eager to find her mother quickly and take her home.

So she hurriedly said to Charlie: "Oh, it's getting late. Let's start separately. You must do as much as possible this afternoon. You must arrange all the chess and card rooms. You must take the picture of mother, carefully. Go and ask every owner and every customer in the store."

Charlie said: "I don't have a picture of mother."

For Elaine, Charlie was too late to hide, how could he keep any photos of her in his mobile phone.

Claire hurriedly said, "I will immediately send you the ID photo my mother took some time ago!"

.....

After Charlie drove out of home, he started near his home and shuttled between the chess and card rooms.

Every time he went to the entrance of a chess and card room, he would take a photo of the front entrance of the chess and card room, then another photo of the chess and card room, and then send the two photos to his wife to prove that he had been there.

Whenever Claire asked him how it turned out, his rhetoric was the same: the boss said that he had never seen this person, and the guests said that they had never seen this person.

Although he didn't really ask, he knew the result must be like this.

Claire looked at the various feedbacks he kept sending. On the one hand, she knew that Charlie was indeed helping her find mother, but on the other hand, she couldn't find any clues for a long time, and her heart became more and more anxious.

It is said that the best time to solve a disappearance case is the 24 hours before the disappearance. If a clue can be found in these 24 hours, there is a higher probability that the person will be found.

Chapter 868

At this time, 24 hours had passed since Elaine disappeared.

So Claire was also very worried and nervous now, so she went to the beauty salons and clubs that Elaine often went to without stopping.

She came to one of the beauty salons, took the picture of Elaine and asked the boss: "Hello, have you seen the woman in the photo?"

The boss looked at Elaine's picture and said in surprise: "Oh, isn't this Sister Elaine?"

Claire asked in surprise, "Do you know my mother?"

The boss smiled and said, "So you are Sister Elaine's daughter. Sister Elaine used to be a frequent visitor to me, but I haven't seen her much these days. Sister Elaine used to come to me with friends. What's the matter? Has she disappeared?"

Claire nodded and asked, "Then do you know her friends? Can you give me a contact method."

The boss suddenly thought of something and blurted out: "Oh, a friend of Sister Elaine's is making a face with me now, should I call her out and ask?"

Claire said gratefully, "Thank you so much, for your hard work!"

"You're welcome, you should."

The boss smiled slightly, picked up the walkie-talkie, and said: "Lili, you call Sister White, just say Sister Elaine's daughter has come to Sister Elaine, and I want to ask her face to face."

A response came quickly from the intercom: "Okay, Sister White said this will come."

Claire waited for a while and saw a fat, very rich and burly woman walking out with a mask on her face.

This woman's face is a bit too fat, so the entire mask is a little bit too much, and it looks somewhat funny.

But Claire didn't mean to laugh. She just looked at each other expectantly, hoping to get some information and clues from her mother.

That White Sister walked up to Claire, looked her up and down, and asked, "Are you Elaine's daughter?"

Claire hurriedly said respectfully: "Hello Aunt White, I am Elaine's daughter, I would like to ask you, have you seen my mother since yesterday?"

"d*mn!" Sister White snorted angrily: "Friends like your mother, we can't afford it!"

Claire hurriedly asked: "Aunt White, what do you mean by this? Does my mother have any conflicts with you?"

Sister White curled her lips and said, "How dare I have any conflicts with the old horse? I just called her to make a face with her yesterday afternoon, but do you know how your mother spoke?"

Claire hurriedly asked, "Aunt White, what did my mother say at the time?"

Sister White scolded angrily: "What kind of identity your mother said at the time, how could she have facials with me? She also said that people like us do facials in a beauty salon. She wants to buy the beauty salon directly. Come down, serve her alone, and said that she wants to draw a line with us!"

After speaking, Sister White looked at Claire and asked angrily: "Talk to yourself, is your mother going too far?"

"Everyone is a friend. I kindly asked her to come out and make a face together. She was so sarcastic and ridiculed me. She also said that I was a poor woman and said that she had wealth that I could not imagine in my life! What does she mean? She got rich? Can't look at our poor sisters?"

"If you don't look at me, just don't contact me. What are you doing to harm someone? I f*cking provoke you? Why did you come up to harm me? You really mad at me!"

Chapter 869

Sister White said annoyedly, the already tight mask on her face was collapsed by her twisted facial muscles.

She looked at the mask on the ground, feeling distressed.

Thinking of yesterday's events, she felt even more depressed to death.

Although she and Elaine are not so good friends, they all have a good friendship. They often play together, make faces together, and often play cards together.

Friends like this, everyone has a lot of each other, and they usually greet each other with a polite smile, and no one will embarrass anyone, but Elaine was on the phone yesterday and ridiculed her so badly that she was so angry that she didn't sleep last night.

Claire was puzzled, why did her mother talk to Sister White like this? She doesn't have much money, but she has been very low-key recently. Did she find any windfall yesterday?

She also said that she would buy a beauty salon and serve herself alone, which proves that this windfall is not a small amount.

But the problem came again, even if she really got a windfall, there is no need to evaporate!

what on earth is this kind of happenings?

The more Claire thought about it, the more she didn't understand.

At this time, the angry sister White asked, "What? Your mother is missing?"

Claire hurriedly nodded and said, "Yes! She hasn't come back since she went out at noon yesterday, and she couldn't get through the phone, WeChat didn't reply, and the video couldn't get through. It's been a day and a night!"

Sister White was stunned, and then snorted and said: "It may be that after your mother got rich, not only did she do with old friends like us, but even you and your dad, so she chose to evaporate. Got it."

As she said, Sister White sighed slightly and said, "I feel much better after hearing what you say. Elaine can't even look down on her husband and daughter, or even poor sisters like us. It's also normal."

Claire felt a little bit in his heart.

She thought of her aunt Horiyah.

Horiyah evaporated with more than 15 million people at the time. It is said that she still raised her little white face outside and eloped with her.

If mother really got a windfall, would she be the same as Horiyah?

Thinking of this, Claire suddenly felt nervous.

She hurriedly asked Sister White again: "Aunt White, do you know any other clues?"

Sister White waved her hand and said, "I just made a phone call with your mother. From then to now, I have never contacted her again, and there is no news about her."

Claire could only say gratefully: "Thank you Aunt White."

Sister White said indifferently: "You don't need to be polite, but I should thank you. I was quite flustered in my heart. Listening to you, I suddenly feel better."

Claire could only say sincerely to Sister White: "Aunt White, I'm really sorry, I apologize to you for my mother."

Sister White waved her hand and said seriously: "You don't need to apologize. If your mother can't be found, then forget it. But if you can find her, you tell her not to show up in front of me in the future, otherwise I don't care about her. How rich she is, I will smoke her with a big mouth."

Claire nodded awkwardly, and after thanking her again, she hurriedly left the beauty salon.

After coming out, Claire has been thinking about this issue.

According to mom's character. If she really talked to Sister White like that on the phone, it would prove that she was really rich, otherwise she would definitely not dare to talk like that.

But she remember that at noon yesterday, mother wanted to ask Dad for money and went to the beauty salon to make a face. Later, she went to Charlie to ask for it, but Charlie didn't give her anything.

Chapter 870

In other words, mother was penniless.

So why didn't she miss that Aunt White while on the phone not long afterwards, in the tone of a nouveau riche?

To say that in such a short period of time, she suddenly became rich?

Where does the money come from?

Taking a step back, even if she is really rich, why should she disappear?

Is it really because she hate her and father when she has money?

It's not impossible with her mother's personality, but she has been thinking of Tomson for a long time.

Even if she did get a fortune by accident, it stands to reason that she should hide the money quietly, and then continue to come back to enjoy the luxurious Tomson Villa. This is in line with her mother's behavioral style.

It wasn't that after getting a sum of money, the world evaporated immediately, and she couldn't even live in the Tomson villa, not to mention that she didn't even live in the Tomson villa to sleep.

The more Claire thought about it, the more she felt that this matter was strange and very contradictory, and there was a strange and unexplainable aura everywhere.

However, the clues stopped abruptly when they arrived at Aunt White, and for the time being, she couldn't continue to explore other clues.

Therefore, to solve these mysteries, more clues must be found.

Once the mystery is solved, then the whereabouts of mother will be clear.

Otherwise, she may never find where her mother is.

.....

Charlie drove around Aurous Hill City, thinking about his mother-in-law.

He saw his wife getting more and more anxious, and he didn't want his wife to suffer such torture from the bottom of his heart.

But now he hasn't figured out exactly what method should be used to release Elaine.

As he drove through an intersection, he saw the eye-catching words on the intersection billboard: "All the people mobilize, resolutely crack down on MLM and MLM behavior in disguise, completely eradicate the soil for MLM survival, and build a safe and harmonious Aurous Hill!"

Seeing this slogan, Charlie suddenly had a plan.

So he immediately called Issac and asked, "How is my mother-in-law in the detention center recently?"

Issac respectfully said: "Mr. Wade your mother-in-law suffered a bit in the detention center. It seems that everyone in the cell is not pleasing to her eyes, so she has to be treated."

Charlie snorted and said, "She used to scold Old Lady so badly before, and this Lady has such a grudge. This time, she will definitely not let her go easily. It is normal for her to suffer a bit."

Issac asked, "Mr. Wade do you think about how to solve this problem? With all due respect, your mother-in-law has suffered so much in it. If you let her out, she will definitely not give up, the first thing. It must be trouble for you."

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't worry about this. I already have a general plan, but I still need your cooperation. You must cooperate with me and act in a big show."

Issac hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade you can just ask if you have any questions."

Charlie smiled indifferently: "I am not ready to let her out now, I will contact you when I want."

"OK Master!"

Chapter 871

Charlie pretended to look for it all afternoon, and received a call, saying that Aunt was going home soon, so he drove home.

Claire also received a call from her father. Although she was reluctant, she drove home.

Elsa heard that there was a visitor at home, and said tonight that she did not want to go home for dinner.

Claire wanted her to accompany her, so she wouldn't be so embarrassed, but Elsa felt embarrassed herself, so she used the excuse to work overtime and eat out by herself.

Claire couldn't force it, so she said to Jacob, "Dad, after your classmates come later, try not to talk about me. I am not in a good mood today, and I don't want to talk too much."

Jacob also knows that if his daughter is willing to go home at this time and eat this meal with him and his old classmates, even if it is a lot of face, he can't force her.

So he said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, you have to talk more at the dinner table later, and be more active."

"Okay." Charlie nodded awkwardly.

At this time, the door bell in the villa rang, Jacob couldn't wait to walk to the videophone, and immediately said to Charlie and Claire excitedly: "They are here, I'll open the door."

After speaking, he opened the door and went through the yard to open the door.

Claire looked at Jacob's positive look, couldn't help sighing, and asked Charlie: "You said my dad and that Aunt, is there something else?"

Charlie smiled and said, "They haven't seen each other for more than 20 years, what can I say? You must be thinking too much."

Claire said earnestly: "But when I see my dad like this, he seem to be a little too excited."

Charlie comforted: "You don't know about this. After all, they have had a history."

Claire hurriedly said: "But my dad has already married my mother, and he and my mother are not divorced! He is responsible for and must be loyal to the marriage!"

Charlie smiled and said: "It seems like Dad really had an extramarital affair. He just saw his first love today. How could it be so serious as you said."

Claire sighed and said, "I'm just worried, not that they already have something now."

At this time, Meiqing was outside the villa, marveling at this top-notch villa in Aurous Hill.

She has been away from China for a long time, so she doesn't understand many domestic real estate and other things, nor does she understand.

When Jacob told her the address, he only talked about Tomson Villa A05, and Meiqing didn't think too much.

But after she came to Tomson, she discovered that the villa in this place turned out to be so luxurious and atmospheric.

Seeing that Jacob lives in such a luxurious villa area now, it made her faintly surprised.

Because she used to ask her classmates to inquire about Jacob's recent developments over the years, but the feedback she got was that he was not very happy, which made her a little confused.

While waiting for Jacob to open the door outside the gate of A05, Paul was bored, so he checked the approximate selling price with his mobile phone, and said to his mother: "The house here needs about 80 million to more than one billion. I read it online. It is said that Type A villas are the largest in size, and they probably sell for one to several tens of millions."

Chapter 872

Meiqing nodded and said, "More than one billion is not expensive, but I don't quite understand. In your Uncle Willson's situation, how can he afford the villa here?"

Paul smiled slightly and said, "This requires you to ask him personally."

Meiqing also smiled and said, "Maybe it's called hiding."

Paul thought for a while, and said, "Well, let me be honest, I feel that Uncle Willson should be a good person, but not like a hidden person."

Meiqing asked curiously: "What do you mean by that?"

Paul said, "It's nothing, it just feels a little strange."

Meiqing smiled and said: "Well, let's not discuss this. I should be happy for the old classmate who can live in such an expensive villa. As for the others, we don't have to ask about it."

Paul nodded and said seriously: "Mom, you are right."

At this time, Jacob had also opened the door of the villa. When he saw Meiqing and Paul, he immediately said excitedly: "Oh, Meiqing and Paul, you are here, please come in, please come in quickly."

Meiqing smiled and said: "Oh, Jacob, your house is really beautiful. When I entered this community just now, it felt very high-end and atmosphere. This should be the best villa area in Aurous Hill?"

Jacob said modestly: "I don't know if it's the best. Actually, I just moved in just two days ago."

Meiqing and Paul walked into the villa with Jacob.

Seeing the exquisite decoration in the yard, Meiqing couldn't help sighing: "It seems that the decoration of your villa is also a lot of thoughtful. It should be designed for you by a high-end designer?"

Jacob said: "In fact, this villa was not decorated by us. In fact, this villa was also given to my son-in-law by his friend."

Paul's expression was very surprised, and he blurted out: "Uncle Willson, this villa is worth more than one billion, right? Mr. Charlie's friend was willing to give him such an expensive villa?"

Jacob nodded and said, "Not only the villa was given away, but even the decoration was paid for by his friends. We just bought some furniture by ourselves and didn't spend much money."

Paul couldn't help asking: "Is this villa also earned by Mr. Charlie showing Feng Shui for others?"

Jacob happily said, "You really guessed right. This villa is his reward for showing others Feng Shui. Let me tell you, don't look at my son-in-law. It seems that there is nothing serious about doing things, and there is nothing to do. , But his ability to look at Feng Shui is truly unique in the upper class of Aurous Hill!"

Paul felt a little strange in his heart. Normally speaking, no matter how expensive Feng Shui masters are, there will be more than one or two hundred million price tags once, right?

Charlie showed others Feng Shui, and others gave him such a good villa, coupled with exquisite decoration, this should not only be for the villa, there must be other reasons.

It seems that Charlie is definitely not an ordinary person!

Thinking of this, Paul couldn't help but exclaimed: "Actually, I also believe in Feng Shui. But I have never met a very good and very capable Feng Shui master. Since Mr. Charlie is so capable, then my new company must Ask him to help me take a look at Feng Shui."

Jacob smiled and said: "Then you can go back and talk to him, Charlie is very interesting, I believe he will not refuse you!"

Chapter 873

At this time, Jacob had taken Meiqing and her son Paul and walked in through the yard.

When they met, Claire was shocked by Meiqing. She heard Charlie say that Meiqing's temperament and appearance were very good, but she didn't expect it to be so good.

Being a woman, Claire even envied Meiqing a little.

After all, it is really amazing that a woman can maintain such a good level at the age of about 50.

Meiqing was also a little surprised when she saw Claire. She really didn't expect that the daughters of Jacob and Elaine was so beautiful and outstanding.

The Paul next to him, at the moment he saw Claire, couldn't help being a little stunned. He was also shocked by Claire's beauty and temperament.

Jacob introduced at this time: "Meiqing, let me introduce to you, this is my daughter Claire."

After that, he looked at Claire again, and said with a smile: "Claire, this is your father's old classmate, Meiqing, you may want her to be called Aunt."

Claire was shocked by Meiqing's beauty and temperament, and at the same time was even more worried about the relationship between her father and her.

Because compared with Meiqing, her mother really seems to be a thousand miles away. In addition, the relationship between the two of them is not stable. Now that there is such a strong competitor, it will become More fragile.

However, out of politeness, she shook hands with Meiqing very warmly, and said with some respect: "Hello, Aunt."

Meiqing smiled, and sighed sincerely: "Claire, you really look so beautiful!"

Claire said modestly: "Aunt, you really appreciate it. Compared to you, I am far behind."

"No, no," Meiqing said seriously: "When I was your age, I was not as beautiful as you."

After that, she looked at Charlie and said with a smile: "Charlie is really blessed to marry such a good wife."

Charlie smiled and nodded and said, "Aunt, you are right. This is my blessing."

Meiqing smiled and introduced her son again, and said: "Claire, this is my son Paul. He should be one year younger than you. It stands to reason that he should call you sister."

Paul on the side hurriedly stretched out his hand to Claire and said seriously: "Hello Miss Willson, I am Paul, my full name is Paul Smith, and I am glad to meet you."

Claire was hesitating whether to shake hands with Paul, and Meiqing hurriedly said: "Son, Claire is a married person. It is necessary to avoid suspicion when contacting the opposite sex."

Only then did Paul come back to his senses, hurriedly withdrew his hand, and smiled awkwardly: "I'm really embarrassed, it's because I was rash."

Claire nodded slightly and smiled as a response. Charlie couldn't help being surprised, Meiqing's tutoring was really extraordinary.

Jacob couldn't wait to say at this time: "Meiqing, I have already bought all the ingredients and seasonings related to those dishes, and are in the kitchen now. We'll go in and beat it, what do you think?"

Meiqing naturally nodded and smiled: "No problem, let's cook a meal for the children today."

After all, she said to Paul: "Son, you have a good chat with Mr. Wade and his wife. In the future, you have to develop as much as possible for a long time. Everyone knows and understands more. It is good for everyone's future development. Young people should communicate more and make more friends to expand network."

Paul nodded hurriedly and said, "Mom, don't worry, I know."

Jacob took Meiqing to the kitchen and turned around to explain to Charlie, saying, "My son-in-law, there is my good tea on the coffee table. You can make a cup and give Paul a taste."

Chapter 874

Charlie nodded: "Okay Dad, I see."

Jacob hurriedly said, "Also, don't forget the thing I reminded you!"

Charlie knew what he was talking about. He wanted to pay more attention. If the mother-in-law came back, she would not be allowed to enter the door and break Meiqing's affairs in her own house.

So he smiled and said: "Dad, don't worry, I will give you a military order for this matter, and there will be no mistakes."

Jacob gave him a thumbs up and exclaimed, "Really my good son-in-law, I will not treat you badly in the future!"

After speaking, Jacob took Meiqing and plunged into the kitchen.

Claire asked Charlie curiously: "What did Dad tell you? The two of you are mysterious and seem to be engaged in a shameful conspiracy."

Charlie Charlie said, he definitely can't tell her that dad let him be here to guard? If Mom comes back, he will carry her away. If he can't carry, he will knock her out and carry her away.

So he smiled and said, "It's okay. Dad just asked me to entertain Paul. Don't let him think that our family has no hospitality."

"Really?" Claire was full of disbelief.

Charlie said seriously: "Of course it's true. Didn't you hear that he asked me to make tea for Paul just now?"

As he said, he hurriedly greeted Paul and said, "Come here to Paul, and I will give you a taste of the high-end tea my father-in-law bought from the WeChat tea seller."

Charlie feels that Paul is an American, even if he is half of Chinese ancestry, he probably doesn't know much about tea when he lives in the United States.

Therefore, the ordinary tea that his father-in-law bought by the deceit, should still be able to fool him.

Unexpectedly, Paul immediately smiled and said, "Oh, what I like most is drinking tea. Since Uncle Willson has good tea here, I must try it."

Charlie was taken aback for a while, and said with a smile: "Since you understand tea, then I think you might be disappointed."

With that, he took Paul to sit down on the sofa, ready to make tea.

Claire didn't really want to chat with her father's first lover's son, so she said to the two of them: "You two men talk, I don't like tea too much, and I have a headache. I'll go back to the house and rest for a while, sorry. I'm lost."

Paul hurriedly stood up and said politely: "Okay Miss Willson, take a rest first."

Claire went upstairs, and Charlie said to Paul: "Sit down, don't stand and talk."

After Paul sat down, he looked at the Hainan yellow rosewood sofa sitting under him, and said in surprise: "The material of this sofa is really good! At first glance, it is made of sea yellow material, and it is old. As soon as the pulp comes out, the texture of this wood is particularly beautiful, a good thing!"

Charlie was a bit stunned. He really didn't expect that although Paul was a mixed race, his mother was completely a Chinese.

He speaks good Chinese, knows tea, knows wood, and even knows patina. The other half of this guy's American ancestry is not fake, right?

And why is his hobby so similar to his old man?

Had it not been for his blond hair and a standard white skin color, he would even doubt if he had been left behind by the Old Master.

Chapter 875

So Charlie looked at Paul and asked curiously: "Paul, did you often come to China before?"

Paul shook his head and said with a smile: "I just come here on business occasionally, but every time it doesn't take more than a week."

Charlie asked with a puzzled look: "Then how do you know so much about tea, Chinese furniture and wood?"

Paul smiled and said: "It's mainly because my mother likes these. I only came into contact with these when I was a child."

As he said, Paul said again: "Don't look at me as if I look like a mixed race, and I seem to be more of a white race, but in fact I am a downright yellow person in my bones. I have been very influenced by my mother since I was a child. I like Chinese culture and Chinese food, Chinese habits and everything in China."

"That's it."

Charlie nodded, boiled water in the sea of tea, and started to prepare tea, while letting people be fooled into buying tea on WeChat.

After brewing the tea, Charlie poured a cup for Paul and himself, and smiled and said to Paul: "Come, taste my Old Master's tea."

Paul nodded and thanked him, then took his teacup to his lips and took a sip.

Immediately afterwards, his expression became a little weird.

After tasting it for a long time, he said embarrassedly: "Uncle Willson's taste in drinking tea is very strange. To be honest, I can't taste the goodness of this tea. Why does Uncle Willson treat it as a good treasure? Where's the tea?"

Charlie thought to himself that this Paul was really acquainted, much better than his own husband.

He is a silly Old Master who has been drinking this kind of tea. Not only did he fail to drink it, but the more he drank, the better it tasted.

If he hadn't stopped him, he would definitely find the WeChat girl who sells tea to buy some more.

So he smiled and said to Paul: "father-in-law bought this tea from a liar on WeChat. It cost a lot of money, but it's really not a good thing."

Paul also understood what was going on. He nodded slightly and said to Charlie: "I have the superb one that I entrusted to others and bought from the south. I have a chance to give some to Mr. Charlie next day. Let uncle Willson taste it. The tea is really good. It was a tea that was picked and fried by the top master."

Charlie politely thanked him and said, "father-in-law doesn't know much about tea, but he just likes it very much, so if you give him good tea, it will be a violent thing. Just keep drinking this tea and entertain yourself."

In fact, Charlie's psychological activity is that son-in-law hasn't given him any good tea. Does it seem inappropriate for him, an outsider?

Paul didn't realize Charlie's mentality. He thought of what Jacob told him before entering the villa, and looked at Charlie curiously: "Mr. Charlie, I heard Uncle Willson say that this villa is for others to see. Is it true that I earned it from Feng Shui?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "That's right. Actually, it's not just looking at Feng Shui, but by looking at Feng Shui, it solves some of the more important problems for others."

Paul said very sincerely: "Mr. Charlie will tell you that, I am a person who has studied the Book of Changes and gossip and other things, but I have never had a very good Master to get started, and my spare time is also relatively limited. , So my research is relatively superficial."

After speaking, Paul said again: "By the way, Mr. Charlie, my new company will be officially opened in Aurous Hill soon. Could you please help me take a look at Feng Shui?"

Charlie saw that this Paul was very friendly to himself, and his EQ and quality were relatively high. In line with the principle of reaching out and not hitting the smiley person, he smiled and said, "When will your company open? I can take time to have a look."

Paul was very excited and said, "Thank you so much. My company will open the day after tomorrow. If you have time, can it be tomorrow?"

"It is Okay."

Chapter 876

In the kitchen at this moment, Meiqing has put on her apron, and with the help of Jacob, she began to process the ingredients and prepare to cook.

Jacob hit the side, playing very diligently.

He dreams of having such a day, he and his beloved Meiqing can have a sumptuous dinner in the kitchen together.

But he didn't expect that this dream would finally come true after twenty years.

Meiqing was full of emotion. She has lived in the United States with her husband for more than 20 years, and the two often cook together, but she has never made herself feel the way she is now.

She feel that the man next to her, as long as he stands by her side, he can bring her an infinite sense of intimacy.

Cooking for him by her, busy in the kitchen with him, full of joy and satisfaction.

When two people are cooking together, there is always some friction and contact on the body. Sometimes they rub their hands, sometimes they touch other parts. Soon, the two of them are red. face.

After all, both of them have had a lot of past events, and they are each other's first love, and even when they first tasted the forbidden fruit, they both gave each other the first time.

So after so many years, after seeing each other again, the hearts of these two people are always affected by the memories of the past.

It is as if there is a strong magnetic field inside the two people, and it is the kind of magnetic field that the opposite sex attracts.

When Jacob laid hands on Meiqing, they had been close to each other countless times, and had an impulse in heart several times, wanting to hug the other person directly in arms.

But this impulse was quickly suppressed by the timidity in his heart.

Meiqing herself is very capable in housework, but today because she has her first love around her, she also feels that no matter what she does, she seems a little absent-minded.

Even always distracted by the man around her.

A few times when she cut things, she almost cut her own hands because of distraction.

Jacob was also a little absent-minded by the side. His energy was not on washing vegetables, picking vegetables, and helping Meiqing at all, but on Meiqing herself.

At this moment, Jacob even regretted moving to Tomson's big villa.

Because, if it were in the previous home, in such a small kitchen, two people were busy working in it, even if they borrowed it, they would have to touch or even stick to each other.

But the kitchen of Tomson's villa is really too big.

Even if there are five people working in it at the same time, they can be in order without disturbing each other.

Therefore, every time Jacob wants to get closer to Meiqing, he needs to find some special reasons or excuses.

Jacob struggled for a long time and didn't dare to hug Meiqing. Every time he mustered up the courage, he soon persuaded himself against it.

Finally, when Meiqing put the shrimp into the pot, Jacob suddenly showed courage and hugged her from behind Meiqing, and murmured nervously and excitedly in her mouth: "Meiqing, Over the past twenty years, I really missed you!"

Chapter 877

Suddenly, Meiqing was hugged tightly by Jacob, and her whole body stiffened in a moment.

From the bottom of her heart, why didn't she hope that Jacob could hug herself tightly after twenty years?

After all, this is the only person she has loved in her life.

At this moment, the first lover from more than 20 years ago hugged her so tightly, his hands clasped tightly on her belly, and the feeling seemed to have brought her back to the twenty-year-old. Youth years.

The true feelings in Meiqing's heart were surging, and she suddenly couldn't help it, and put her hand on the other's hand.

But at the moment she put her hand on Jacob's hand, she suddenly realized that it was wrong for her to do so.

So she broke away from Jacob's embrace, arranging her hair in a panic, and said unnaturally: "Jacob, we two can't do this, you are married after all, and I can't wrong Elaine! "

Jacob was immediately anxious, and blurted out: "At the beginning, she was sorry for you. When we were together, we were in such a good relationship. She knew that I was your boyfriend, and she took advantage of it when I was drunk. And in, if she were not so shameless, the two of us would have already been together!"

Meiqing sighed lightly and said: "Even though the past was her fault, I was the one who chose to let go. Since I have chosen to let go and give you to her, I will not be like her back then. I'm sorry for that, and I'm sorry for her again. This is a matter of principle. Otherwise, would I be like her?"

Jacob was anxious and said, "That woman has almost ruined the relationship between the two of us for a lifetime. Do you still need to talk about her about principles at this time?"

Meiqing said seriously: "In fact, after that incident happened back then, I also knew in my heart that all of this was caused by Elaine behind my back. I knew she is a villain, but I can't become a villain because of being hurt by a villain."

As she said, she looked at Jacob again, and said very seriously: "You are her husband after all. I can meet you and eat with you like a normal friend or an old classmate, but we can't have such things, it's not possible at all..."

Jacob's tears were streaming down. He looked at Meiqing and choked and said, "Is it impossible for the two of us in this life? After so many years, we can finally meet again, don't you want to make up for us? Was it a regret back then?"

Meiqing's expression was also a bit painful, and she sighed: "Of course I want to, otherwise I won't make a special trip back from the United States, but I think that gentlemen must do everything they want when it comes to money and feelings. If we The two have a chance to be together again, and that must be after you and Elaine divorced."

Jacob blurted out without hesitation: "Then I will divorce her immediately!"

Meiqing said very seriously: "Jacob, don't get me wrong. I'm not saying that after you divorce Elaine, the two of us can be together."

Jacob asked nervously, "Meiqing, what do you mean by this? I don't understand, don't you want to be with me?"

Meiqing said sincerely: "Jacob, after all we haven't seen each other for so many years, how could we suddenly decide to be together? This is too trifling."

As she said, she said with a serious face: "We were in school when we were dating. At that time, we were all students. We had to study and socialize with our classmates every day. We never lived together. Life is different from falling in love. Especially at our age, we must not only consider our own life, not only our own feelings, but also our children and their views on each other."

Chapter 878

"So this kind of thing is not something we can decide with our lips when we are like teenagers. We must think carefully before we can make a more mature decision."

Jacob said immediately: "I can't accept what you said. I know you still have feelings for me in your heart, and I have feelings for you in my heart. Since both people have feelings, what can't you break through? "

With that said, Jacob forced himself to ask: "Meiqing, I want you to tell the truth, do you really feel about me now?"

Meiqing said with some embarrassment: "How do you ask me to answer your question? After all, we were together back then, and the relationship was so good, and we were all our first loves, and we had regrets for more than 20 years. It's self-deception."

As she said, Meiqing said again: "But as I said just now, this matter is not just about how you feel."

Jacob's tears flowed more and more, aggrieved like a child.

For so many years, he has suffered too much emotionally. So he felt great comfort at the moment when Meiqing came back.

When he saw Meiqing, he really realized that his previous life had always been in dire straits.

Therefore, he didn't want to live that kind of life for a minute.

Seeing Jacob crying like a child, Meiqing's eyes were red.

She walked up to Jacob, used her sleeves to gently wipe away his tears, and said distressedly: "Jacob, you have worked so hard for so many years. If you can go back in time, return to the one before our graduation. At that time, even if you and Elaine already have facts, I will not give up on you..."

As she said, she sighed sadly again: "It's a pity, time is gone, no one can let the years turn back. In a blink of an eye, we are all middle-aged and elderly people over half a hundred years old."

Jacob grasped her hand tightly and said excitedly: "Meiqing! Because we can't let the years turn back, we should not let down our future! Let us not let down in a second!"

At this point, Jacob was very excited, knelt on one knee, and blurted out: "Meiqing, I want to be with you!"

Seeing him kneeling, Meiqing suddenly panicked, and hurriedly pulled him up and blurted out: "Oh, Jacob, what are you doing? Get up!"

Jacob said stubbornly: "If you don't agree to me, then I won't be able to get up here!"

Meiqing glanced at the door of the kitchen and said anxiously: "Oh, get up quickly, if you let the children come in, how can you explain this?"

Jacob said seriously: "If Paul comes in and sees it, then I will tell him that I love his mother. I want to be with his mother and hope to be blessed by him; if it is Claire seeing it, Then I will tell her that I love you, and I want to divorce her mother and be with you!"

Chapter 879

When talking about this, Jacob suddenly became emotional.

He observed at Meiqing's eyes and said emotionally: "Meiqing, I'm really not joking with you. Every word I say comes from the bottom of my heart. In the past twenty years since you left, I have never been happy, we are all this old, why can't we put aside those scruples and pursue a real love vigorously?"

Meiqing sighed faintly: "Jacob, I have thought about everything you said, and to be honest, I also have illusions in my heart. It's just that the current situation is really not like before. The third party I hate most in my life. So I don't want to become a third party, so we shouldn't be so anxious about this matter. Give me some time, and I will give you some time."

Jacob hurriedly asked: "Are you willing to stay with me after I divorced Elaine?"

Meiqing's big beautiful eyes with a few fine wrinkles observed at Jacob unblinkingly, and said seriously: "Jacob, I admit that one of my big motives for returning to China is to hope to see you again. I hope I can continue with you again."

Having said that, she changed the conversation and said: "However, we are not 18 or even 20-year-old youngsters. We have to think carefully about things now. I have no way to answer the question of whether we are willing to be with you. After you are truly single, the two of us have tried to get along for a while, and I will answer your question solemnly."

Jacob blurted out without hesitation: "I am willing, I am willing, ten thousand times willing, one million times willing."

Meiqing said seriously: "Jacob, I also hope that you will seriously and solemnly consider Elaine, your marriage. Consider whether there is still love between you two. If you still have love, then I will wish you all the same as before; if you do not have love, then you must tell her clearly as early as possible. I still know your character very well. If you are constantly interrupted, you will always be disturbed."

Meiqing is already a complete winner in life, but the only thing she has not won in her life is true love.

Therefore, she is obsessed with Jacob.

Everyone should have an obsessive object in their heart. If this obsessive object is with him, then his life is happy and his life is fulfilled; but if the obsessive object is not with him Together, he will regret for life.

Therefore, Meiqing's return to China this time can be said to be nothing else, just to rediscover the unforgettable love during this period of sunset in life.

Jacob couldn't wait to say: "Meiqing, as long as you don't dislike me and are willing to stay with me, I will definitely divorce Elaine!"

Meiqing sighed softly and said, "Whether you and her were intentional or unintentional, or if you were used by others, in the final analysis, you have betrayed our feelings. If you are really willing to make up for it, then of course I am also willing. Give you a chance."

Recalling that year, Jacob suddenly stood up and once again hugged Meiqing face-to-face.

While hugging her tightly, he said: "Meiqing, I regretted what happened back then for more than 20 years. This time I will never let myself regret it again. You must wait for me!"

Meiqing nodded and said softly: "Okay! I'm waiting for you! But you can't hold me like this anymore. What we do now is wrong!"

Jacob said stubbornly: "Whether it is right or wrong, I just want to hold you now!"

Meiqing was struggling in her heart. Want to talk about her feeling of being held in his arms, but she has lived a decent life in her life and cannot accept that she is so close to a married man.

So she said in a panic: "Oh, you let me go first, it's not good for us, and I still have to cook..."

Jacob said: "I have you in my heart, and you also have me in in your heart. What's so bad about this!"

After speaking, Jacob actually plucked up the courage, lowered his head and wanted to k!ss Meiqing.

Meiqing hurriedly avoided him, and said very solemnly: "Have you talked to yourself for a long time?"

Chapter 880

As she was talking, a burning smell spread in the kitchen.

Meiqing exclaimed: "Oh, my Longjing Shrimp!"

Having said that, she hurriedly pushed Jacob away, blushing and ran to the side of the stove, and when she looked into the pot, she let out a mournful cry: "It's over, it's over, the shrimps are all cooked!"

Jacob quickly reminded her from the side: "Quickly turn off the fire, or it will burn out soon."

Meiqing hurriedly turned off the gas on the stove. The shrimp that had been burnt in the pot said helplessly, "I blame you, originally this was my best dish, but it's all over now... ."

Jacob was also embarrassed and guilty, and said, "Should I go out and buy you a bag of shrimps again?"

At this time, both Charlie and Paul, who were drinking tea outside, could smell the mushy smell spreading out of the kitchen, and Charlie subconsciously said, "Is it not a mess?"

Paul frowned and said, "My mother cooks very professionally. It shouldn't happen to her..."

Charlie stood up and said, "Paul, sit down for a while. I'll go in and take a look. Don't be surprised."

Paul hurriedly said, "I will come too."

After saying that he was about to get up, Charlie stretched out his hand, pressed him back, and said with a smile: "Sit and drink tea. I'll just go and see it."

What Charlie was thinking at this time was, if his mother and father-in-law were doing the firewood in the kitchen at this time, and the two of them were disheveled and forgot what was in the pot, how embarrassing would he be to rush in like this?

He's different. His mother and Jacob are not related by blood. He just went in to watch the show.

Paul didn't know that Charlie's heart at this time was all thoughts of watching the show. Seeing that Charlie had already stepped to the kitchen, he didn't insist on it anymore.

Charlie came to the kitchen, opened the kitchen door, and probed in.

Seeing that the two people in the kitchen were hurriedly tidying up and had burnt the pot, their clothes looked neat, and there was nothing wrong with them, Charlie couldn't help feeling a little disappointed.

He wanted to come over and eat a melon, but he didn't even have a watermelon rind.

However, looking at the faces of the old man and his first love, both seem to be a little red, and it feels as if the two should have had some closer contact just now.

So Charlie deliberately pretended to be surprised and asked: "Dad, Aunt, I don't know what burned, are you two all right?"

Jacob hurriedly said in a panic: "Well, nothing is wrong, nothing is wrong, just accident, the pot burned, I am dealing with it, don't worry."

Charlie said, two people can still see the confusion after watching a pot, you two must have done nothing good just now.

Jacob said with a guilty conscience at this time: "Charlie, you should go out and have tea with Paul. It is enough to have me and Aunt here..."

Chapter 881

The two first-love lovers, who had been in the kitchen for more than an hour, finally made a table of food.

Jacob ran out to tell Charlie and Paul: "Get ready, we can eat."

After speaking, he asked Paul again: "By the way, Paul, do you want to drink two cups at night?"

Paul smiled and took out a portable gift box and said: "Uncle Willson, I just brought two bottles of 30-year-old Maotai. This bottle of Moutai is not an ordinary Moutai. It was an export version more than 20 years ago. It was exported to the United States, and then collected by collectors in the United States. It has been properly preserved until now. Each bottle is two kilograms."

Jacob was surprised and said: "For 30 years of aging more than 20 years ago, isn't it more than 50 years since now?"

"Yes!" Paul said with a smile: "It should be about 56 years."

Jacob sighed, "Oh, this wine is too precious. It's a waste to give it to me. You should keep it for yourself."

Paul hurriedly said: "Uncle Willson, you don't need to be so polite to me. It was originally a gift for you. If you want, we will drink it with a bottle in the evening. If you don't want it, we will change another wine. "

When Jacob heard this, he smiled and said, "In that case, thank you. Let's drink a bottle tonight!"

With that said, Jacob said to Charlie again: "Charlie, you go upstairs and tell Claire to come down for dinner."

Charlie nodded and said, "Then I will go upstairs and call her."

After that, Charlie got upstairs and when he came to the bedroom, he found Claire lying on the bed with her back to the door.

He said, "Wife, come downstairs to eat."

While talking, Charlie was about to walk into the bedroom when he heard his wife say: "Oh, don't come here yet."

Immediately afterwards, Claire stood up, turned her back to Charlie, as if reaching out and wiping her eyes.

Charlie hurriedly walked around in front of her, looked at her red eyes, and asked: "Wife, why are you crying again?"

Claire shook her head and stubbornly denied: "I didn't cry, but my eyes were a little uncomfortable."

Charlie said distressedly: "Still quibbling. Your eyes are red like this, and you still said I didn't cry?"

After speaking, he asked softly: "Is it because of mom?"

Claire was silent for a moment, then sighed, nodded and said: "It has been almost 30 hours now, and there is no news yet. I'm really afraid that Mom will have some accident."

As she said, tears burst into her eyes again: "Furthermore, when such a big thing happened at home, I expected my dad to be able to stick with me, but I didn't expect him to..."

At this point, Claire couldn't speak anymore. She couldn't keep her emotions all at once, so she cried out.

Charlie hurriedly stretched out his hand and took her in his arms. While gently tapping her back, he comforted in her ear: "Wife, don't cry, mom will definitely be fine. Don't worry, I assure you."

Claire sobbed and asked, "What can you promise me? You don't know where she is, you don't know what she has gone through, and you don't know whether she is in danger..."

Charlie said seriously: "Don't worry, since I have promised you, I will definitely not let her have trouble. I will ask those capable friends to help me find a way."

Claire hurriedly asked, "Really? You go to them, can they be willing to help?"

Chapter 882

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't worry about it. If someone agrees, they are stronger than us and have a wider network than us. Maybe they can help us figure out what happened."

Claire breathed a sigh of relief and said gratefully: "Charlie, that's really thank you so much!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Silly girl, I'm your husband, why are you polite to me?"

As he said, he patted her on the shoulder hurriedly, and said: "Let's go, let's go down for dinner first, and after dinner, I'll go out to find my friends and see if they can help. If they don't, then I will Ask them for help. Anyway, I promise you that Mom will come back safely!"

Claire nodded heavily, feeling a lot more comfortable.

Before that, she felt that she was the only one in the family thinking about her mother's disappearance. Now that Charlie stood with herself so resolutely and was willing to help, she was naturally relieved.

Charlie really felt sorry for Claire at this time. It can be seen that Elaine's disappearance has been worrying her all the time. If Elaine is not allowed to come back quickly, Elaine hasn't had any major incidents in the detention center, and his wife is probably already. Unbearable.

So he decided in his heart that he would implement it tomorrow. He had already figured out the plan, and he could get Elaine back the day after tomorrow.

To comfort Claire, Charlie took her downstairs.

In the restaurant downstairs, Jacob and Meiqing had already prepared a table of food.

On the other hand, Paul opened one of the rare bottles of Maotai aging. Seeing Charlie and Claire walking down, he smiled and asked Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, would you like to have two glasses?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Okay, then I will have two drinks with you."

Claire on the side reminded in a low voice: "Aren't you going to find your friends after dinner? Or don't drink, you can't drive after drinking."

Charlie smiled and said, "It's okay. I'll take a taxi after I finish drinking. It's the first time Mr. Paul came to the house. It's impossible to not drink two drinks with him."

Hearing this, Claire nodded and said, "Okay, as long as you don't drive anymore."

At this time, Jacob walked out of the kitchen with a pot of beef soup, and saw Claire, he smiled and said, "Oh, Claire, try your Aunt's craftsmanship later. I just stole it. After eating two bites, I can tell you this, just three words, It is great."

Claire had no appetite for food at all now, not to mention that the meal was made by her mother's rival in love back then, so she didn't want to eat it even more.

But because of face, she could only sit down at the table.

At this time, Meiqing took off her apron and walked out of the kitchen with the bowls and chopsticks. Seeing that Charlie and Claire were both down, she smiled slightly and said, "I'm sorry, I made you wait for a long time. time to eat."

Then, she asked Charlie and Claire with concern: "You two must be hungry? Come on, move your chopsticks!"

The table is full of home-cooked dishes of varying taste made by Meiqing.

There are Xihucuyu, braised prawns in oil, Dongpo meat, fish head tofu, fried shrimp eel and so on.

These dishes are really beautiful, and they are not much less than professional restaurants.

Meiqing said with some regret: "I originally had a Longjing Shrimp that I was better at, but I was too busy in the kitchen just now, so I didn't care about it all at once, and it's mashed up, so I can only make it for you next time. ."

When talking about the Longjing shrimp paste pot, Meiqing thought of the scene where Jacob suddenly hugged herself in the kitchen. Two red clouds appeared on her beautiful face...

Chapter 883

Seeing the food Meiqing made, Charlie couldn't help but appetite, but out of politeness, he didn't feel ashamed to use his chopsticks directly, instead he took out a bottle of drink and poured it for the two ladies.

Later, he picked up the wine glass and said with a smile: "Aunt and Paul, welcome you back to China, welcome you back to Aurous Hill, and welcome you to our home as a guest. Let's have a drink together."

Jacob also hurriedly echoed: "That's it, I'll take the wind and dust for you, let's have a drink together!"

Meiqing picked up a drink and said sincerely: "I really appreciate your hospitality. I didn't expect to be able to have a home-cooked meal at my old classmate's house on the first day of returning to Aurous Hill. Thank you very much."

Jacob smiled and said: "Meiqing, we have been old classmates for so many years, what are you doing so politely for this little thing!"

After that, he said: "Furthermore, this table of food today is all your credit. I'm just battling it out. I'm very embarrassed about it. How can any old classmates come here as guests and cook it herself."

Meiqing smiled and said: "What's so embarrassing about this, I said it at first, I will cook today."

Charlie smiled and said, "Come on, let's dry this first glass of wine first!"

Everyone picked up their wine glasses and drinks. The three men drank all the wine in the small wine cup, and the two ladies took their drinks and took a sip.

Claire's expression was slightly indifferent, but she can't be blamed.

After all, she has also tried her best to express her kindness to Meiqing.

Meiqing is also very clear in her heart that Claire must have an opinion on herself, so she also deliberately flattered her, and smiled and said to Claire: "Claire, first try the braised prawns cooked by auntie. , See if it suits your taste."

With that said, Meiqing took the initiative to pick up a prawn for her and handed it to her bowl.

Claire was somewhat embarrassed. After all, this woman was her father's first love back then. Now she is sitting in her own home and picking food for her. This feeling is always a bit wrong.

However, she nodded very kindly, and said softly, "Thank you Aunt."

Having said that, she also tasted the braised prawns.

Unexpectedly, the taste of this shrimp made her amazed at the entrance.

Well, Claire has eaten this dish of braised prawns more than once, but she has never tasted such a good one.

The braised prawns cooked by Meiqing have moderate sweet and salty taste, tangy aroma, and good flavor.

Claire was even more amazed in her heart. This Aunt is really not an ordinary woman. Not only does she have a good temperament and a good image, she even cooks so deliciously.

She recalled the meals her mother had cooked. There was only one adjective that could describe it, which was hard to swallow. Compared with Meiqing's cooking skills, it was almost every day!

More importantly, her mother never seeks improvement in cooking. What was the taste of cooking more than 20 years ago, it still tastes that cooking now.

Later, after she married Charlie and, Charlie was in charge of cooking, her life was much better.

However, although Charlie's cooking is good, it's still far behind Meiqing.

Chapter 884

At this time, Meiqing gave him another piece of Xihucuyu, and said with a smile: "At first you tasted this fish, which is also a specialty of aunt, but I haven't done it for some time. I don't know if it suits you. Taste."

Seeing the enthusiastic Meiqing put the fish into her bowl, Claire nodded in order not to hurt people's face, and said, "Thank you Aunt, but you don't always have to add food to me, you eat first."

Meiqing nodded and said with a smile: "You must eat more food yourself. If you can't reach it, let Charlie pick it up for you."

Claire agreed, and then tasted the fish that Meiqing gave her. After taking this bite, it immediately surprised her.

Meiqing's cooking is really delicious. The fish is soft, fragrant and delicious. It is impeccable.

Jacob was also dumbfounded.

He has never eaten such delicious home-cooked food in his entire life. You have to know that eating a delicious meal at home is completely different from eating a delicious meal in a restaurant.

There is a warm feeling of home as a blessing, and that feeling will make men linger.

This is why women always say that if you want to keep a man's heart, you must first keep the man's stomach.

Jacob felt that his stomach and his taste buds were conquered by Meiqing's cooking skills at this moment.

He looked at Paul enviously and said: "Paul, your mother cooks so deliciously, you are blessed."

Paul smiled and said seriously: "Uncle Willson, this question depends on how you look at it."

"Take me as an example. When I was in college, it was very painful, because I left home and my mother. No matter what I ate at school, I almost felt a little bit meaningless;"

"Later, because of the busy business of the law firm, I often traveled on business. Most of the time I flew back and forth across the United States, and there was still a lot of time flying back and forth around the world, and I had no chance to taste the food my mother cooked.”

“But. My appetite has been spoiled by her cooking skills, so I can’t get used to eating wherever I go. This feeling is actually very painful.”

Jacob sighed: “That’s true. It is easy for people to change from frugality to luxury, and it is difficult to change from extravagance to frugality. Your mother cooks so deliciously. If it was me, I would not be interested in any food outside.”

When Claire heard the cryptic meaning in his father’s words, he was not very happy, so he took a drink and said to Meiqing: “Aunt, I toast you, it must be very hard to come back from the United States so far. This glass is to wash the dust for you.”

Meiqing hurriedly picked up a drink and said with a smile: “Thank you Claire, then we will drink a drink instead of wine.”

Claire touched her cup slightly with that of Meiqing, and at the same time she couldn’t help but sighed and said, “Hey, it would be nice if my mother was also at home. She has been talking about you for so many years, knowing that you are back. She must be very happy.”

When Claire mentioned Elaine, Jacob and Meiqing both had unnatural expressions.

Both of them knew very well in their hearts that Claire mentioned Elaine at this time, deliberately speaking to them both, reminding them that this family, and her mother, even if her mother is not here, she is The hostess of this house!

Meiqing’s dignified expression was a bit embarrassing, she smiled unnaturally and said, “I haven’t seen your mother for so many years, and I really want to see her.”

After speaking, she looked at Jacob and asked, “By the way, where did Elaine go? Why is she not at home?”

Jacob hurriedly said: “She, she has been back to her family in the past two days. I guess she will be back in a few days.”

Chapter 885

Since Meiqing's cooking skills are so good, everyone has a little support for this meal.

Although Claire was somewhat dissatisfied with Meiqing in her heart, and was a bit repulsive, she did not have any ability to resist her cooking.

She usually pays attention to diet, but this evening she ate three times the usual amount of food.

Not to mention Charlie and Jacob, the father-in-law. The two elders were like windswept clouds, eating almost all the dishes, and there was not much vegetable soup left.

After eating, Jacob secretly put his hand under the table, loosened his belt, and temporarily relieved his bulging stomach.

At the same time, he could not help but secretly thought: "Meiqing is really perfect in every aspect. If he can really divorce Elaine and stay with her, it will be from the eighteenth h*ll, all at once to top heaven.

Even Charlie couldn't help but imagine that if Jacob could be with Meiqing, then his days would be much more comfortable.

A mother-in-law like Meiqing can't really find with a lantern, and she cooks so deliciously. If she becomes his own "step mother-in-law," then she will save him from cooking in the future.

It's a pity that he can't let Elaine disappear from the world.

After eating dinner later, he has to talk to Issac to see how to release Elaine from the detention center.

.....

After eating, Meiqing took the initiative to clean up the dining room and kitchen.

Charlie hurried to take over, but she refused to let Charlie interfere, saying that women should do everything in the kitchen.

After everything was cleaned up, Meiqing said to the family: "It's late, and Paul and I won't bother you today. Thank you for your hospitality today. I have had a very happy meal!"

Jacob hurriedly said: "Oh, Meiqing, I have to thank you. It was you who gave us such a hearty meal of Suzhou home-cooked dishes and fulfilled my wish for more than 20 years."

Meiqing smiled and nodded. For her, it was also a wish for many years, but in front of Claire, she was not suitable to say many things, so she said: "Okay, I won't bother you. You stay here, we will go first."

Jacob asked, "How did you come here?"

Meiqing said: "Paul came by car, but the car stopped at the door of your villa."

Jacob said: "Oh, can Paul still drive after drinking?"

Meiqing smiled and said, "He can't drive, I can drive, and I haven't drunk."

"Oh yes!" Jacob said with a smile: "I just forgot about this. That's fine. I'll send you to the car."

After that, he opened the door without waiting for Meiqing to express her attitude, walked out first, and then made another sign of please.

Seeing this, Meiqing said, "Thank you, Jacob."

Charlie and Claire sent them outside the gate, and after saying goodbye to them politely, Jacob took them out.

Chapter 886

Seeing them walking away, Claire closed the door and said to Charlie: "The feeling between this Aunt and my dad is too obvious. You say my dad will not cheat... ."

Charlie said seriously: "I think Aunt is definitely not that kind of person. She is a very principled person. Even if she likes dad in her heart, she will definitely wait for dad and our mother to divorce. What development does Dad have."

Claire angrily rebuked, "What are you talking about? How could Dad divorce Mom?"

Charlie knew that Claire would definitely not be able to accept such a thing, so he didn't talk to her in depth. After checking the time, he said: "My wife, you can take a good rest at home. Don't go out to find mother. I will go. I beg a friend to see if they have any other channels, so I can ask for help."

Claire nodded and said, "Do you want me to go with you?"

Wade hurriedly said: "No need, I just take a taxi to go by myself. You haven't been worrying about it for the past two days, so go back to your room and take a rest."

Claire sighed and said, "That's OK, then I won't go with you. If you have any questions, remember to communicate with me in time. If you have a clue, you must tell me immediately."

Charlie agreed, opening the door and saying: "Okay, then I will go straight away."

Saying goodbye to his wife, when Charlie left Tomson and came outside the entire villa area, the Old Master had just sent away Meiqing and her son.

Seeing that Charlie was going out, Jacob hurriedly asked, "Charlie, it's so late, do you want to go out?"

Charlie nodded and said, "I'll beg a few friends to see if I can find clues about mom."

As soon as Jacob heard this, he suddenly became nervous, and hurriedly grabbed him and asked, "Who are you going to ask for? Are you going to ask Orvel? Or to ask that Miss Song?"

Charlie said: "Just ask, they have a lot of contacts, maybe there is some way to find mom."

"Oh..." Jacob clutched his chest with a heartbroken expression, and asked, "My son-in-law, should we be so anxious about this matter? Can't we take it easy? You say father It's only a day since these two good days, are you going to destroy it yourself?"

Charlie naturally knew what Jacob was thinking, he must be 10,000 unwilling, as he wanted to find Elaine back now.

After all, he had just met his first love today, and the two seemed to have some opportunities for development. At this time, the person he didn't want to see most was probably Elaine.

However, in Charlie's eyes, Jacob's happiness is naturally inferior to that of his wife's happiness.

So he could only say with a helpless look: "I'm sorry, Dad, Claire's mood has not been very good recently. If I can't find Mom again, I think she will be stimulated, so I have to find a way to get Mom as fast as possible. get back."

Jacob's expression was extremely ugly, and he said seriously: "Good son-in-law, she is already an adult at first, and an adult must have a certain degree of tolerance. You should temper her and let her wait two more. Goodness, dad begs you..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Dad, don't be so anxious now. Even if I ask a friend for help, it may not be possible to get Mom back right away."

Jacob blurted out: "How could I not be in a hurry. Whether it is Orvel or Miss Song, they are all capable people in Aurous Hill. Isn't it easy for them to find someone? Maybe your mother will do it tonight. Come back!"

Charlie looked at Jacob's almost crying expression, and said helplessly: "Dad, this kind of thing is not something we can do whatever we want. Instead of hoping that mom will come back a few days later, or even not come back, It's better to hope that she will come back soon."

After speaking, Charlie added: "After mom comes back, you can tell her clearly, and then formally divorce her. In this way, you can pursue your own happiness without any worries!"

Chapter 887

Charlie's words made Jacob wake up instantly.

Only at this time did he realize that evasion is not the solution to the problem, only to face the problem and completely solve the problem is the best solution.

If he wants to stay and fly with Meiqing, he must divorce Elaine.

Only after divorce can he be able to marry Meiqing into the door upright.

Thinking of this, he felt much better, and said to Charlie: "Okay, I know, you can go to your friends for help, I will find someone to inquire about the divorce, and when your mother comes back, I Just ask her for a divorce."

After bidding farewell to Jacob, Charlie took a taxi to Shangri-La Hotel.

Issac is already here waiting for him.

The manager of the hotel respectfully invited Charlie to Issac's office.

As soon as the door of the office closed, Issac immediately said respectfully: "Mr. Wade I'm really sorry, but you have to condescend to come to me for your hard work. I should see you."

Charlie waved his hand and said, "It's better to say something when I come to see you. It's not easy to explain when you come to see me."

Then he asked, "My mother-in-law who stole more than 20 billion from me, how is she in the detention center now?"

"She's very miserable." Issac said: "She became a public enemy of the entire cell inside. I heard that she seemed to have not eaten a bite of food since she went in."

Charlie nodded lightly. Said blankly: "She is responsible for all this, and she can't blame others."

Issac said seriously on the side: "Mr. Wade I really didn't expect that when such a woman saw more than 20 billion deposits, she was not afraid or worried, and she didn't even think about it. How could there be so much money in the card, so she dared to transfer all the money to her card, this person is simply too courageous!"

Charlie smiled and said, "My mother-in-law, she love money the most in life. She used to be a third person to intervene in old man and his first love, because her husband was still relatively wealthy at the time, which can be regarded as a standard. What she didn't expect was that after getting married, the conditions in husband's family began to get worse and worse, and soon there was no money. This person ran for money all her life, but she didn't get it. So her heart has been suppressed and has been distorted"

Issac said: "Mr. Wade in fact, I dared to suggest you that it is best to let your mother-in-law learn a little more lessons in it. At the very least, she should be detained for three years and five years, and she can be detained for one and a half years. She has just been locked in for less than two days now, do you want to release her?"

Charlie nodded and said: "Let her come out, mainly because I feel bad for my wife. But if she is not honest after she comes out, I still have other ways to treat her slowly."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Yes, tomorrow morning you will arrange for the police station to interrogate her, like I told you last time, find all the actors that should be found, and prepare all the props, and then give her a performance. A big drama."

Issac blurted out immediately: "Mr. Wade don't worry, I must have everything ready."

Charlie said indifferently: "I came to see you, mainly to go through the process with you again. Don't make any mistakes then."

Issac nodded and said, "Mr. Wade let's start sorting it out!"

Chapter 888

After Charlie sorted out all the procedures for tomorrow with Issac, he took a taxi home without rush.

But at this moment, in the Aurous Hill Detention Center, Elaine's nightmare continues.

Because she was tortured and beaten by all kinds of means from the time she first entered the detention center, and she was poured cold water on her head, plus not eating a bite for two days and nights, Elaine had completely collapsed. Not only did she have a bad cold, And also developed a high fever.

The high fever made Elaine burn all over, and she was almost fainted by the high fever, but at this time, she was still not allowed to lie in the bed, and could only curl up and shiver in the corner of the detention center cell alone.

Because of her fever, she felt an extreme cold, which made her sway her whole body nonstop.

She felt that she was about to be unable to hold it, so she murmured and pleaded: "Please, please have mercy on me, give me a quilt, I'm so cold, I'm so cold... "

Old Mrs. Willson sneered: "What is your name? People like you still want to cover the quilt. I tell you, you have to sleep in the toilet tonight!"

Wendy echoed: "Grandma, I think she has to take a bath in cold water! How about we go to the toilet and help her?"

When Elaine heard this, she cried her nose and burst into tears, and pleaded miserably, Mom, I really can't do it. If you let me sleep in the toilet and give me a cold shower tonight, then I'll be, I must die here at night, I beg you to show mercy! "

Old Mrs. Willson said viciously: "You still expect me to pity you? I tell you, I wish you would die soon! You better not wait until night to die, you better die now!"

Elaine wailed and said, "Mom, you and me just have the contradiction between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, and I have suffered from your anger for more than 20 years. Why are you killing me now? Even if you are angry with me There is no need to fix me for not letting you live in the villa, right?"

After finishing talking, she looked at the big sister Gena in the cell, crying and begging: "Sister Gena, I know you hate this unfilial daughter-in-law, but I don't let her live in my villa. This mother-in-law is just drawing the line!"

"I have been married to the Willson family for more than 20 years. I have never beaten her, never really scolded her, and even been bullied by her all the time. During this time, the Willson family is not good enough. I have mocked her and ridiculed her. , But it's all disrespect, but that's all."

"But you also saw how she treated me in the past two days. She beat me, scolded me, tried everything she could to torture me, bully me, this is basically killing me!"

"As a sensible person, can't you see who is the wicked person between me and her?"

"If I am as evil as her, do you think she can live to this day?"

"If I'm as evil as her, how could she still be so healthy and even fight me? This proves that I am not as evil as she said, and she is the real evil person!"

When talking about this, Elaine was in tears, and the whole person was like a street dweller who had suffered great injustice.

Seeing that she dared to accuse her, the Old Mrs. Willson walked up to her angrily and slapped her face with a slap.

Immediately afterwards, the Lady Willson grabbed her hair and slammed it against the wall, swearing in her mouth, "You shameless thing, you dare to provoke discord here, you see I won't kill you!"

Chapter 889

Hearing Elaine's tearful complaint, Gena also realized at this time that what she said seemed to make sense.

Although the Lady Willson all accused Elaine of being unfilial, and even scolded her to beat her and prevent her from living in the villa of Tomson.

But the Lady Willson didn't look like a person who had been tortured for a long time. She was in good health and strong in spirit, and she was not at all soft in fighting people.

So it seems that if Elaine has 10 points for her unfilial piety, then her hatred and revenge for Elaine would have 100 points.

Seeing that the Lady Willson was still fighting Elaine at this time, Gena felt something was wrong.

She immediately said, "Don't fight the Lady Willson. You are indeed a bit cruel. In any case, you won't drive her to death, right?"

Hearing this, Elaine breathed a sigh of relief.

It has been almost two days since she entered the detention center, and she had long seen that Gena was the only support for the Lady Willson here.

With Gena behind her back, she dared to insult and beat herself unscrupulously.

If Gena is no longer supporting her, or even Gena feels sorry for her and prohibits her from doing anything to herself, then her future life will be really much better.

Thinking of this, Elaine continued to cry: "Sister Gena, you are more sensible, you can tell at a glance, between me and the Lady Willson, she is not me who really wants to kill each other! She has been thinking Push me to death. If you don't do anything again, I might really be tortured to death by this cruel Lady Willson!"

Old Mrs. Willson was a little impatient, and hurriedly blurted out: "Gena, you must not believe this woman who is talking nonsense, there is no truth in her mouth!"

Gena said seriously: "Is there any truth in her mouth? I really don't know, but I'm not blind. It's almost enough for the Lady Willson if you are enough. After all, you haven't suffered any injuries or physical torture. Why do you want to fix her to death like this?"

Old Mrs. Willson felt a little in her heart.

She realized that she had gone too far.

Although she has not dealt with the hate in heart yet, her own behavior has already broken Gena's heart balance, making her feel that she is a bit too much!

If she doesn't want to do anything, then Gena's inner balance will lean towards Elaine, and then, she will really be passive.

Thinking of this, the Old Mrs. Willson hurriedly burst into tears, and pointed to Elaine and complained: "Gena, you must not be fooled by this wicked woman!"

As she said, she was so angry that her voice trembled, and she sternly said: "Do you think she is a good person without hitting me? Do you know what she has done to our family?"

"Back then, my son had a very good first love girlfriend, and was also a very ideal candidate for a daughter-in-law. That girl is really a pretty girl and a sensible girl, so many times better than this shameless woman!"

"At that time, my son was already preparing, and he married someone after he graduated, but do you know what happened just before graduation?"

Gena looked surprised and asked: "What happened?"

The Old Mrs. Willson pointed at Elaine and said angrily: "It's this stinky shameless woman. Knowing that our family was well-off at the time, she wanted to marry in and be a wife, so she took advantage of my son to be drunk and forced him to follow her. My son had a relationship! Then she told my son's girlfriend about it shamelessly! The woman who finally forced to break up with my son and go abroad!"

"In the end, my son was forced to marry this b*tch who he didn't love at all! Since then, for more than 20 years, my son has not been happy for a day!"

"My son's marriage is unfortunate, thanks to this b*tch woman!"

Chapter 890

"She ruined my son's life! I hit her twice, do you think it can make up for my son's lifelong happiness?"

The women in the entire cell were stunned. No one thought that Elaine had done such a shameless thing back then!

What do women hate most? The cheating man and the mistress!

Therefore, Mrs. Willson's words successfully aroused everyone's hatred of Elaine again!

So many people scolded:

"This stinky shameless woman dares to do such shameless things at a young age. d*mn it!"

"That's it, how can a serious woman insist on getting on her body when a man is drunk? Isn't this just a sl*t?"

"It's d*mn disgusting! It's nothing more than a third party intervenes, the key is to use such abusive methods!"

Seeing that she had successfully helped Elaine a wave of hatred, Old Mrs. Willson was relieved in her heart, but she couldn't help but think to herself: "Elaine, d*mn thing, at this time, she still wants to instigate discord and want to come back? Okay, Then I will drive you into the abyss!"

As a result, she also shed two lines of tears, and angrily complained: "You don't know the most disgusting thing!"

"This sorrowful woman, and my son's girlfriend at the time, were still roommates in the same dormitory back then, best friends and good friends!"

"As a result, this sorrowful woman turned her head to do such a shameless thing. She slept with her good girlfriend's boyfriend!"

"She not only robbed her good girlfriend's boyfriend, but also forced her good girlfriend to go to the United States. I heard that she has not returned to China for more than 20 years. This is all thanks to this woman! "

Mrs. Willson's words successfully made the little pity that everyone had just established instantly turned to ashes.

It was replaced by a total hatred of Elaine!

Elaine was so nervous that she almost collapsed. She didn't expect that the Lady Willson would move out of Meiqing's affairs and turn into ashes the little mass foundation she had just established.

What Elaine did to Meiqing and Jacob, their sweet lovers, was an extreme evil that all women disdain.

Therefore, everyone's sympathy for her disappeared in an instant.

Not only that, everyone's hatred for her is even stronger!

One of the women jumped down from the upper bunk and came to Elaine in three or two steps, picked up her plastic slippers, and slammed Elaine's face fiercely.

"I beat you to death! You shameless thing! My husband was hooked up by a slutty woman like you!"

A group of women immediately screamed, and someone shouted: "Good fight, kill this shameless sl*t!"

At this time, Elaine was beaten and yelled, but two more women rushed towards her quickly, kicked her one by one, and then punched and kicked her!

Old Mrs. Willson looked at all this coldly, and sneered in her heart.

"Elaine, you still want to fight with me based on your little weight, it's just looking for death!"

Chapter 891

Elaine never dreamed that after more than 20 years, she would still get such a fat beating because of Meiqing's incident.

She was looking at herself and was about to persuade Gena, but she didn't expect that after Mrs. Willson moved out of this matter, she would directly subvert all her efforts, and instead plunge her into an endless abyss.

The few women who came up to beat her up had all experienced the tragic past of being meddled by women, so when they hit her, they brought all their new and old hatreds into it, and they didn't show any mercy at all.

Elaine was beaten again quickly, and her whole body was almost dying. Several times Elaine felt that she was going to be in shock, but before she was really shocked, she was woken up twice by others.

After a group of people beat Elaine, the Old Mrs. Willson said to the side: "I think we'd better get this sorrowful woman to the toilet, so that she won't make us upset here!"

"Yes!" The woman who rushed up to start her hands coldly said, "The Lady Willson is right. Throw her into the toilet!"

With that said, she greeted another woman next to her and said, "We are both hold a leg, and we will drag her in."

"Okay!" The other party immediately nodded and agreed, so the two of them pulled Elaine's leg and dragged her from the ground to the toilet.

Wendy also hurriedly followed. Seeing that the two women threw Elaine into the toilet, she took out the washbasin and took a basin of water and poured it directly on her body. She sneered and said, "Elaine, you never dreamed. Do you think you will have today? Just rely on you, still want to fight with grandma?"

Elaine was awakened by the cold water, shaking violently and regretting in her heart.

She shouldn't say those things in front of Gena, trying to arouse Gena's sympathy.

If she didn't accuse Mrs. Willson of what happened just now, she wouldn't end up like this.

What she regrets more is that she shouldn't have stolen the bank card of her son-in-law Charlie, and never dreamed that Charlie turned out to be a transnational liar!

If she didn't steal his bank card, he would be the one who would come in and suffer this time sooner or later, but because she couldn't control her hands, she was here now, suffering this inhuman torture.

Her intestines are already regretful.

That night, Elaine sat in the corner of the toilet holding her legs and struggled till dawn.

In the evening, Elaine had already developed a high fever, which made her bewildered.

More importantly, she hasn't eaten anything for nearly 48 hours!

When everyone else started to wash in the toilet in the morning, Elaine was so weak that she didn't even have the strength to lift her eyelids.

Someone in the cell went to get the breakfast for the whole cell. The breakfast consisted of rice porridge with steamed buns.

When Gena and others were eating, they found that Elaine hadn't come out, so she told someone to say: "Go in and see if the sorrowful woman is dead, and drag her out if she isn't."

So the man came to the toilet, took a look at Elaine, and found Elaine was curled up in the corner shivering, so she walked forward, grabbed her hair, and abruptly pulled her out of it.

When Elaine came out, Gena was already eating her box of lunch.

Just like yesterday morning, Gena finished the steamed buns and deliberately left about one-third of the porridge. Then she looked at Elaine and said playfully, "You haven't eaten anything for two days and two nights. You must be hungry? "

Chapter 892

Elaine nodded in a daze, and said: "Sister Gena, please let me have a bite, otherwise I might really die..."

Gena sneered and poured all the porridge in the bowl on the ground, then tapped a little with her toes, and said with a sneer: "Do you want to eat it? Then lick it on the ground!"

When Gena asked Elaine to lick the porridge on the ground yesterday, Elaine was 10,000 unwilling.

Because she felt that, no matter what, she could not just lie on the ground and do such abusive things just to eat one bite.

But now, she can't take care of so much anymore. What about the three abuses, as long as they can fill up their stomachs, or even just fill up, let herself kneel on the ground and lick?

So she immediately knelt down and lay on the ground without hesitation, licking the cold porridge on the concrete floor with her tongue.

Old Mrs. Willson couldn't be more happy seeing this scene.

The thought that Elaine might stay in it for ten to twenty years or even longer in the future made her feel even more excited.

Elaine licked the porridge on the ground bit by bit, and even ate a lot of sand in her mouth, but she didn't care about it at all.

At this moment, the prison guard opened the door of the cell, looked at Elaine in the room, and said coldly: "Elaine, come out, the police station is about to interrogate!"

Those who have not been sentenced in the detention center are collectively referred to as suspects. Suspects are often taken back to the police station by the police for interrogation. This is also a normal process.

As soon as Elaine heard that she was going to be interrogated, she had no doubts, she immediately got up with difficulty, crying and rushed to the door, watching the prison guard pleading: "Please, take me away soon."

She didn't know long ago that this arraignment was just a good show arranged for by her son-in-law Charlie!

The prison guard saw her in such a miserable state, her whole body was wounded, even two front teeth had fallen, and he couldn't help but be surprised.

Immediately, she said to Elaine: "Come out quickly, the police officer who will pick you up is still waiting!"

These two police officers are the two police officers who sent Elaine over the previous two days.

After less than 48 hours, Elaine has become inhumane, making them a little dumbfounded.

But they also knew that someone had already greeted them and prevented them from asking about Elaine, so they all pretended not to see it and said directly to Elaine, "Let's go, our car is waiting outside."

After that, the man walked up to Elaine with handcuffs and handcuffed her hands together.

Elaine followed them out and asked nervously, "Comrade police officer, I was really wronged. Is there any progress in your case? When will my grievance be cleared and when will you let me go home?"

After speaking, Elaine couldn't help but wept bitterly.

The police officer said: "You are now involved in a transnational fraud case. This is the largest transnational fraud ever recorded in the world, and you, as the first suspect we have now, are the key to our investigation and arrest. Breakthrough."

After that, the police officer said again: "If you are more acquainted, you'd better confess all your accomplices. This can help us solve the case, and it can also help you do meritorious service and strive for leniency!"

Elaine cried bitterly and said tremblingly: "Comrade Constable. Please believe me, I am willing to swear with my life that I really don't know anything about this. The person you are going to arrest is my son-in-law. I can take you to arrest him. If you have any problems, you can try him, or even shoot him, there is no problem, but you can't wrong the good guy!"

Chapter 893

As soon as Elaine was taken to the police station, she was immediately stuffed into the interrogation room.

Several police officers came in immediately, sat in front of her, and said, "Elaine, how have you considered these two days? Are you ready to explain your business?"

Elaine cried and said, "Comrade police officer, I was really wronged..."

The officer snorted coldly: "What? Are you stubborn? Do you really think we are vegetarian? If we can't catch your accomplices, you will have to fight all crimes by yourself. In this case, you might be going to be shot!"

When he heard that he might be shot, Elaine panicked and immediately pleaded: "Comrade police officer, I have said it many times, that card is really not mine!"

"I took that card out of my son-in-law's pocket, and the code of that card is my son-in-law's birthday. This is enough to prove that this card belongs to my son-in-law, not mine. Since you said this Card is suspected of transnational fraud, and the real mastermind must be my d*mn son-in-law. Why don't you arrest him and try him?"

The police officer sneered: "Your son-in-law's name is Charlie, right?"

Elaine hurriedly asked: "You have already investigated him. Did you catch him? Did you try him out of the blue? Did you sentence him to give him a quick account?"

The police officer took out a premium card from a file bag, put the premium card in front of Elaine, and asked, "Elaine, was this the bank card you used to withdraw money from the bank?"

Elaine recognized the premium card at a glance. As soon as she closed her eyes in the past two days, what this card appeared in her mind.

If it weren't for this card, how could one become a prisoner and suffer so many inhuman tortures?

So she was really worried about this card, and she was deeply impressed!

She resentfully said: "This is the card, this is what I stole from my son-in-law's pocket! He must be the culprit! You quickly catch him, try him, and shoot him!"

The police officer sneered, then took out another portfolio, opened the portfolio, and poured the contents on the table.

What made Elaine dream of was that all the premium cards that came out of this portfolio were exactly the same, and there were at least a few hundred!

Elaine exclaimed and asked: "Are these cards found from Charlie's b@stard?"

The police officer said: "To tell you the truth, that transnational criminal group forged many of these black gold cards, and they are very, very intelligent. They bought the personal information of many people from the Internet and set the forged card passwords. Set these people's birthdays and send these cards to these people to trick them into going to the bank to check the balance in this card."

"The balance of each of these hundreds of cards is 21.9 billion!"

"Once the deceived person can't control his greed and tries to take the money from the card, then he becomes an accomplice to help the criminal group defraud the bank and take money from the bank."

"Fortunately, you did not get the money at that time, you have been arrested by us, otherwise once you get out of that bank, the criminal group will look at you, kidnap you, ask for your bank card password, and then Take away all the 21.9 billion you just scammed from the bank, and finally kill you and divide your body! In that case, you will evaporate in this world!"

Elaine was stunned, she blurted out and asked: "You mean, this card was mailed to my son-in-law Charlie by the criminal group?"

"That's right!" the police officer said sharply, "and not only sent it to your son-in-law, as far as we know, at least thousands of people in Aurous Hill received this card! There are tens of thousands of people across the country!"

Chapter 894

As he said, the police officer said again: "Your son-in-law is a very upright person, and a very magnanimous person. He has no greed. After he received this card, he found out the balance of this card. We immediately reported to the police. We were going to tell him not to behave in a rush, but unexpectedly, you stole this card without a long eye, and you took it to Citibank to withdraw money!"

Elaine exclaimed and said regretfully: "Oh! I should have known this situation, even if I killed me, I would not steal his bank card!"

As Elaine said, the whole person was already crying, she did not expect that she would step on this kind of thunder without long eyes!

It turned out that this card was a criminal's who stole Charlie's personal data, and then forged it and sent it directly to Charlie!

What they did was to lure Charlie and make Charlie greedy for the 21.9 billion balance in the card!

Then asked Charlie to go to the bank to transfer the money out and transfer it to his own account!

In that way, Charlie helped them complete the whole process of defrauding the bank, and they could completely get rid of the crime and avoid all risks!

After Charlie transfers the money to his own account, these criminals can directly approach Charlie, threaten him to call out the money, and then kill Charlie and let him take the blame... ..

Thinking of this, Elaine was already covered in cold sweat.

She didn't have the slightest doubt about what the police officer told her.

At this time, she realized that when she was about to transfer the 21.9 billion in the bank, she almost passed Death!

If it weren't for the police to arrive in time, taken her away, so that she might have been killed by the criminal group until now!

When she thought that she was almost dead, but she was lucky enough to get her life back, she was grateful!

Even the inhuman torture in the cell has suddenly become worthwhile!

Fortunately, she went to the cell and was tortured by Old Mrs. Willson and Gena, otherwise, she would have become a lonely ghost!

Fortunately, Elaine couldn't help crying and said to the police officer: "Comrade police officer, since you all know that I have been wronged, please let me go!"

The police officer said coldly: "Let you go, if we let you go, if you talk too much about this matter, if you start to provoke the snake, then how will we catch the suspect in the future?"

Elaine hurriedly stated: "You can rest assured, as long as you let me go, I will never talk about this to anyone!"

The police officer asked, "Can you really not tell anyone? Even your daughter and your husband, you can never say a word!"

Elaine nodded and said, "I can! I can! I can definitely do it!"

The police officer said coldly: "I can't believe you. As long as you miss a word on this matter, it may bring irreversible consequences. Can you afford it by then?"

Elaine cried and said, "Comrade police officer, please rest assured, I will take this matter into the coffin even if I die, and I will never mention a word again!"

Chapter 895

Elaine had completely believed the story the police officer told her.

What she worries most now is that the police officers continue to lock her in the detention center in order not to provoke them. Then she really doesn't know when and when she will be able to regain her freedom.

So she looked at the police officer pleadingly, crying and said, "Comrade police officer, I really don't know a word, so you just let me go. If you lock me up again, I will die inside. Up..."

The police officer shook his head cautiously and said, "Ms. Elaine, I still can't believe you. I see people like you a lot. On the surface, no one tells you. In fact, the mouth is faster than anyone. If you let them go, they will tell others about this immediately."

As he said, the police officer said again: "And don't think that I locked you up to solve the case. In fact, it is also for your safety!"

"Because after letting you out, once you talk nonsense, once they know about it, they are likely to kill you! It is even possible to kill you, and then all the evidence will be planted on you, let You their substitute!"

"In that case, wouldn't you be more wronged?"

"So, to be on the safe side, you should continue to stay in our detention center until we have caught all the suspects before releasing you. This will also ensure your safety."

Elaine said desperately: "Then I have to wait until the year of the monkey and the moon? I beg you to be merciful and let me go. I really won't talk nonsense. I beg you, I am willing to kneel down for you. Kow my head, just beg you to let me go, don't lock me up again..."

Speaking of this, Elaine is already crying out of breath...

"Forget it." The police officer said coldly: "We can't take this risk. After all, this case is about the international criminal police of 23 countries. If we do it because of you, we can't bear this responsibility.!"

The police officer next to her sang red face at this time and said, "I think her attitude is quite sincere. As long as she can control her own mouth, it doesn't hurt to let her go."

The black-faced police officer replied: "If the case cannot go on because of her, who will bear the responsibility? If she is killed because of this, who will bear the responsibility?"

The red-faced policeman looked at Elaine and asked, "Elaine, can you control your own mouth? If you can, you write a letter of guarantee, we will consider letting you go, but if you promise to write, Go out and talk nonsense, even if you say a word nonsense, as long as we know about it, we will immediately arrest you, and will never let you out until the case is finished!"

Elaine wiped her tears with her sleeves, crying out of breath, and said, "Comrade police officer, you can rest your heart. I will tell you a heart-wrenching remark. I am also greedy for life and fear of death. Human, this matter is related to my own life safety. Even if they kill me and force me with a gun, I dare not say a word!"

The black-faced police officer asked coldly: "What about your son-in-law? Will you go to your son-in-law to confront this matter right after you leave?"

Elaine sighed in her heart, didn't she even have the chance to find Charlie that b@stard?

Then who should be accounted for after so many beatings and so many humiliations in the detention center?

Chapter 896

So, she asked in a low voice tentatively, "That...comrade police officer...I'm just at home, can I tell my son-in-law about this in private?"

The black-faced police officer slapped the table angrily, and blurted out to the red-faced police officer beside him: "I said this kind of stupid woman can't believe it. You have to let her go. Did you hear what she said? Go down and confront son-in-law! Isn't this going to kill herself and ruin our case?"

The red-faced police officer's complexion also darkened, staring at Elaine, and said coldly: "Elaine, you really disappoint me. I just thought you could do it without mentioning it. I didn't expect you to return and want to confront your son-in-law! Are all the things I said to you just for nothing?"

Elaine panicked suddenly, and tremblingly asked: "Comrade Constable, to be honest, I will end the game today. It will be Charlie's card. Can't I confront him? Is it?"

The red-faced police officer scolded angrily: "Stupid! Charlie is one of the members who received the premium card! The criminal gang itself has been staring at him, and it is even possible that his every move, every word and deed is in their observation. Within the monitoring range, there may be many monitors and listening devices installed in your home. If you dare to go back and mention a word with him, it is very likely that you will be killed, or even your whole family!"

Elaine was shocked and hurriedly said: "Then I won't say it, I won't say it, I won't say a word, I won't say anyone!"

The black-faced policeman snorted coldly: "Now say this? Tell you! It's too late! I said a long time ago that people like you are not credible at all, and letting you out is a scourge. Sooner or later it will ruin our major affairs. Then take your own life in!"

After finishing speaking, he said to the red-faced police officer: "I think it's better to shut her back again, when the case is solved, and when will she be released!"

The red-faced police officer no longer objected, nodded and said, "Be cautious, I think it can only be this way!"

When Elaine heard the conversation between the two, she burst into tears and burst into tears, crying heartbreakingly. While slamming her mouth with her handcuffed hands, she blurted out: "Comrade police officer, I really know what's wrong. Yes, I really don't say a word anymore, you let me go, I will never mention this to anyone again, please don't send me back, otherwise I will die inside!"

The black-faced police officer observed at her and said coldly: "I can't believe you at all!"

Elaine regretted it and wanted to beat herself to death.

"Why do you want to mention Charlie? What is more important now than letting yourself out?"

Besides, what's the point of going to Charlie by herself? This card itself was given to Charlie deliberately by criminals. It was low-handed and could not stand the temptation. Even if she went to settle accounts with Charlie, he would still be an unknown teacher.

What's more, there is that d*mn transnational criminal group behind this, if because she scolds Charlie, he ends up killing himself, wouldn't it be a big loss? !

It's okay now, just because she had a bad mouth, she was able to let herself go, but now it seems that she has been tossed by herself...

She thought over and over again, and could only use the trick of a b*tch crying, making trouble, and hanging herself. She cried and said to the two police officers: "Comrade police officer, if you don't let me go, then I will hang myself in the detention center when I go back!"

Chapter 897

Seeing Elaine looking for life, the two police officers looked at each other and the red-faced policeman asked: "Elaine, we can consider letting you go, but there are some issues that must be communicated to you first. Let you go, you go home, your family asks about your whereabouts in the past two days, how do you tell them?"

Elaine hurriedly said: "I, I will tell them...I have these two days... these two days..."

Elaine hesitated for a long time, and didn't say a word, so she came, because she herself didn't know how to explain to her husband and daughter after returning home.

After all, she has been missing for two days and nights for no reason. What's more important is that she doesn't have a good place all over her body now, and still just getting beaten.

More importantly, even the front teeth have been lost, which is too miserable.

The red-faced policeman said indifferently: "Let's do it, I'll give you an idea. If we decide to let you go after consideration, then after you get home, you can tell your husband, your daughter and your son-in-law, this In two days you entered an MLM organization by mistake. The MLM organization brainwashed you and asked you to go to the bank to complete the fraud, and then you were arrested by the police."

Elaine nodded quickly, and blurted out: "Comrade police officer, don't worry, as long as you put me back, I will tell my family according to your instructions, and I will never reveal a word about this matter, let alone It will delay your capture of transnational fraudsters!"

The policeman hummed and said lightly: "Okay, let's study and discuss this matter, and we will send you back to the detention center immediately. If we discuss and decide to release you, the detention center will directly handle the formalities for you. ."

Elaine hurriedly asked: "Comrade Constable, you will not let me go to the end of the discussion, will you?"

The black-faced police officer slapped the table and scolded, "We have to discuss this matter! You can go back and wait patiently for the results of our discussion. There is no room for you to bargain!"

When Elaine heard this, she didn't dare to say more, so she agreed to honestly and tremblingly said, "Comrade police officer, am I going to wait for news now?"

"Yes!" The black-faced police officer said coldly: "We will let the police drive you back now. You must remember that after you go out of this door, don't say a word about related things!"

Elaine nodded resolutely and promised: "Don't worry, I won't say a word even if one kills me!"

Later, Elaine was driven back to the detention center by two policemen.

On the way back, she was very depressed.

Unexpectedly, this incident turned out to be such a reason.

It's a big matter, and it's impossible to find Charlie's b@stard to settle accounts.

Otherwise, if she can't speak a word well, miss a word, and are known by the police, she will probably catch themselves back to the detention center again.

In that case, don't know which year and month she can come out.

.....

Just when Elaine was sent back to the detention center, Jacob couldn't wait to find a chance and continued to meet Meiqing again.

Last night, he had a very delicious home-cooked meal with Meiqing at home, and it was Meiqing who cooked it herself, which made Jacob happy.

So early in the morning, he sent Meiqing a WeChat message, inviting her to visit University, their alma mater, to find memories of the year.

As soon as Meiqing heard that he invited her to visit her alma mater, she immediately agreed without hesitation.

Chapter 898

Immediately, Jacob immediately cleaned himself up, ignoring breakfast, so he was anxious to go out.

Seeing him dressed up again, Claire immediately asked, "Dad, where are you going this morning?"

Jacob happily said: "I have an appointment with your Aunt, and we will go to my alma mater today. She hasn't come back for more than 20 years!"

When Claire heard this, he suddenly became angry, and blurted out: "Mom has been missing for almost two days and two nights, and there is still no news. How can you go hanging out with Aunt? Are you not prepared? Go and find out where mom is?"

"Hey..." Jacob chuckled, and said in a veiled manner, alas, isn't it up to you and Charlie to find her? After all, you two are young people, doing things more reliably than an old guy, so I just wait patiently for your good news. "

Claire angrily said, "Dad, I'm really angry no matter how you look like this! How come you still can't tell the priorities? My mother's safety is in your heart, isn't it better than staying with Aunt Is it important to visit your alma mater?"

Jacob knew that this kind of thing was wrong, so he didn't want to talk too much about the right or wrong of this matter with his daughter, so he waved his hand in a hurry and said, "Oh, it's late, I won't follow. You said it, let's talk to you when I come back, I'll go first, bye!"

After speaking, he has already stepped out.

Claire wanted to stop him in the end, but it was no longer useful.

Jacob has already seized the door.

Seeing Jacob leaving, Claire said angrily to Charlie: "Have you seen? Dad won't even take you this time. I believe Aunt will not take her son with her today. They are going to be there. The world of two people..."

Charlie hurriedly said: "Oh, don't think about it so much. They are just old classmates meeting each other. What kind of two-person world is it?"

Claire said with red eyes: "You don't need to excuse them, I can see what they are doing at a glance..."

After that, she asked Charlie again: "By the way, have those friends started to help you find mother's whereabouts? Did they reply to you?"

Charlie said: "They told me that there would be results within today, and I also asked them to inquire. There have been no serious social security or criminal cases recently, so they also told me that my mother is not in danger. The possibility is very low. We should be able to get mother back in a day or two."

Hearing this, Claire's mood improved. She sighed and said, "I hope your friends can be more reliable. It's best to let mom come back today. Otherwise, I really am going to crash..."

Charlie couldn't help but slander in his heart, letting her come back is sure to let it back anytime.

But the key is to make her shut up honestly.

Otherwise, letting her back is a hidden danger.

It's better to let her stay in the detention center.

So he sent Issac a WeChat and asked him: "How is the matter with my mother-in-law?"

Issac quickly replied: "I asked the police to say hello to her. The words were very serious. I believe she must not dare to talk nonsense!"

Charlie relaxed and said: "In this way, you send a few more people in to help me make a scene, deepen and deepen her impression, and let her shut her mouth completely!"

Chapter 899

Jacob dressed himself as an old overseas Chinese who had returned from Nanyang, handsome and stylish.

This time, he and Meiqing had a very tacit understanding, Jacob did not bring Charlie with him, and Meiqing did not bring her son Paul.

Jacob personally drove his BMW 5 Series, went to the Shangri-La Hotel to pick up Meiqing, and went back to his alma mater together.

Now, Meiqing is wearing a long gray woolen coat, and she looks very temperamental. As soon as she meets at the door of Shangri-La, Jacob is fascinated by her.

He got out of the car and opened the door to Meiqing, and he couldn't help but exclaimed, "Meiqing, what you are wearing today is so beautiful!"

Meiqing smiled slightly and said, "I'm all of an age. What is beautiful or not? I just have to go back to my alma mater to have a look, so I should tidy myself up a bit, and I can't shame my alma mater."

Having said that, Meiqing said again: "Besides, I will have a party with our old classmates today."

"Oh, yes!" Jacob patted his head and said, "Look at my memory. I just wanted to accompany you to visit my alma mater. I forgot about the class reunion. By the way, is the location of the class reunion set? If there is no decision, I can ask my son-in-law to help."

Meiqing hurriedly said: "The place has already been decided. I asked Paul to help him. He said it was a local place Clubhouse."

Jacob was surprised and said: "Brilliant Clubhouse? The requirements for the guests are very high. Will Paul be able to get membership there as soon as he arrives in Aurous Hill?"

Meiqing smiled and said, "I don't know the details. I only know that he told me that our law firm seems to have a long-term cooperative relationship with the parent company of this brilliant club. Legal affairs are entrusted to our law firm."

Jacob couldn't help being shocked!

The parent company of Brilliant Club is naturally the famous Song family in Aurous Hill. He did not expect that the law firm of Meiqing's family would have a cooperative relationship with the Song family!

He originally wanted his son-in-law Charlie to help arrange a venue in the Brilliant Clubhouse, and by the way, he could also make himself pretentious.

But he didn't expect that Meiqing's son solved the matter directly, which is really extraordinary.

So, Jacob hurriedly made an inviting gesture and said, "Come on, Meiqing, get in the car."

Meiqing thanked him, and gracefully sat in the co-pilot of Jacob's BMW 5 Series.

As Jacob drove towards University, he couldn't help but sigh: "You have been away for more than 20 years and haven't come back again?"

Meiqing said: "I have been back to China, Suzhou, but I have never returned to Aurous Hill."

Jacob hurriedly asked, "Isn't it because of that incident that you didn't return to Aurous Hill?"

Meiqing said seriously: "Half and half, on the one hand, because of the previous incident, I don't want to come back to face the memories. On the other hand, I have no relatives in Aurous Hill, and my old classmates have not been in contact for a long time. So I never came back."

Chapter 900

Jacob nodded, thinking of the last time when the classmates reunion, many classmates used their previous relationship with Meiqing and Elaine to tease them.

Therefore, he said to Meiqing seriously: "Meiqing, we have a party today. Maybe those old classmates will tease us about what we have done in the past. Don't take it too seriously. It's a bit old and rude!"

Meiqing smiled and said, "As long as it's not distorting the facts, it doesn't matter if they make a joke. If I'm afraid of them ridicule, how can I bring these classmates together? Everyone hasn't seen each other for more than 20 years. What's the point of teasing me?"

.....

When they arrived at University, Jacob parked his car in the parking lot at the entrance of the school and walked into the school side by side with Meiqing.

Classes are taking place in the school, so the campus is very quiet.

The two of them were walking on the concrete road of the campus. Jacob introduced to Meiqing next to him, saying: "In fact, our school has been rebuilt and renovated several times over the years, and it is no longer what it looked like in the past. It's broken."

"Yes!" Meiqing couldn't help but sighed: "I remember that our school had only one cement road back then, that is the road that came in from the school gate. The other roads were paved with slag ash, and sometimes the school let the local Students from home bring some burnt briquettes to pave the road. The road was very muddy when it rained. At that time, it was very disgusting, but now that I think about it, I still miss it."

"Yes, yes, yes!" Jacob said with a smile: "I used to bring burnt briquettes from home to the school. Do you remember that the school had a sports meeting that year. As a result, the track in our school's playground was too bad. Just start, we tried every means to get more materials that could be used to pave the road."

Meiqing smiled and said: "Of course I remember, at that time you paid for me, brought a lot of male students, and bought burnt briquettes everywhere in the city by pushing a tricycle."

With that said, Meiqing looked at Jacob's eyes with ambiguous brilliance, and said with emotion: "I remember that at that time you drove a lot of cars to the school. Later, half of the entire playground track was covered. The people you brought spread out, so the teachers and the school value you very much and made you the president of our school."

"Yes." Jacob rubbed his hands with some embarrassment, and said, "Dedication was popular at that time!"

Meiqing nodded, and sighed: "Oh, you were really heroic at that time, and countless girls admired you very much. I remember the girls who liked you in school at the time, that was really a long line."

Jacob blushed and said cheerfully: "At that time, there were more boys who liked you. I can't count the number of them."

Meiqing smiled indifferently: "It's all the old calendar. No matter how many people like you, it's useless. Many people just think of you as a passing moment. When they like you, they like it, but when they turn their heads, they forget."

At this time, Jacob pointed to a small park on the campus and said, "This used to be a big forest. In the evening, many students fell in love, and those who have s3x will come here for dates. We also often came here at that time. do you remember?"

Meiqing, who had always been calm, blushed immediately when he said this.

How could she not remember that wood? Back then, it was the holy place where many wild ducks from the school met, and Jacob and she had visited many times.

At that time, everyone was in this small forest, but they were really relaxed. Once they were in love, they felt that they could do everything with their loved ones.

In addition, in that era, there was no other place to go, so everyone came here, and everyone was not surprised.

But think about it now. The young people back then were quite open-minded, and they were much bolder than the young people now...

Chapter 901

Jacob deliberately mentioned the small forest, just to see how Meiqing blushed.

Even if she was calm, she would be ashamed to think of the presumptuous youth and sweet and ambiguous past of the two.

Jacob felt that he had to make Meiqing think more about the past, and think about the past that made her excited, and it would definitely arouse the fire in her heart that had been waiting for more than 20 years.

Naturally, Meiqing knew what he meant, and she couldn't help but turn the subject away when she was shy, and blurted out: "By the way, how is our former teacher in charge now?"

Jacob said: "Not bad, but the legs are not very convenient. Last time when our old classmates got together, we invited him to alma mater and invited him to the classroom to give us a lecture."

"Really?" Meiqing sighed: "It's a shame not to be able to attend your party!"

Jacob smiled and said: "We had a small gathering that time. We were all old classmates from Aurous Hill or near Aurous Hill, and they were all male classmates."

Meiqing nodded and said: "Today's party seems to have a lot of classmates, because I contacted several girls who had a good relationship with me, and they are all willing to come."

"That's good." Jacob said with a smile: "Then we can get together this time."

Meiqing said: "But I heard that Panming seemed to have been dealt with because of corruption some time ago? He is now in custody awaiting prosecution."

"Yes." When Jacob thought that Panming took his son-in-law to pretend to be forceful with him last time, he was furious.

The old b@stard last time, he really slandered him in front of his old classmates.

Now he is in jail, not knowing how beautiful he is.

So he smiled and said, "Old Panming, he deserves it. You say you work well, don't do it well, and you think about using your position to facilitate corruption all day long. What should we do? Our teacher taught that year. They do not ask us to become talents, but they must make us a righteous person. People like him belong to self and have their own problems!"

Meiqing nodded in agreement. In fact, most of the old intellectuals of their generation are very upright. Everyone went to university with the attitude of contributing to the country and society.

Although Meiqing has always lived in the United States, she has always been concerned about China. There have been several major natural disasters in the country. Meiqing has donated a lot of cash and materials, and has even been commended by the country.

However, she has always acted very low-key, and this kind of thing has never been mentioned to others, so old classmates such as Jacob have no idea that Meiqing is still a great charity overseas Chinese.

At this moment, Jacob's cell phone rang suddenly.

He picked it up and found that it was the WeChat group of the Student Union during the university years. No one had spoken in this group for several days. At this time, all of them suddenly said, "Classmates, Meiqing is organizing a class gathering at noon today. Are you here yet?"

"I'm in Aurous Hill, I'm already preparing for a banquet!"

"I'm on my way to Aurous Hill, there is still a hundred kilometers left, and I will arrive in an hour and a half!"

"I just got off the plane! I came here specially from Eastcliff!"

At this time, someone said, "Jacob, come out soon, your first love is back! You old guy don't know yet, do you?"

It was Zhouqi who had a good relationship with Jacob.

Last time Panming ridiculed Jacob, thanks to him being there to help Jacob round the field.

Jacob saw that Zhouqi had turned himself, and smiled and rolled his eyes, and said, "Why do you say that I don't know? If I tell you, I will be with Meiqing now, believe it or not?"

Zhouqi sent a voice and said with a smile: "I believe it, of course I believe it, what is the relationship between the two of you? Back then, the two of you were recognized by our school, a perfect match!"

When Jacob heard this, he felt very happy, so he also sent a voice over and laughed loudly: "Haha, Zhouqi, you tell the truth!"

Lilan, a female classmate in the class who had an excellent relationship with Meiqing back then, followed him with an angry expression and replied: "Jacob, you s*umbag still has a smile? It was you who took Meiqing so angry! I haven't had a chance to meet Meiqing sister for so many years!"

Jacob suddenly became embarrassed again. Back then, he inadvertently cheated on Elaine after drinking. This incident was at school, but everyone knew it. Even thinking about it now, he felt extremely embarrassed. It was the biggest shame in his life.

Just when Jacob didn't know how to reply, a person in the group who had not spoken jumped out and directly sent a red envelope.

Chapter 902

Jacob grabbed the red envelope a long time ago, so he immediately clicked the red envelope subconsciously, and was surprised to find that he actually received 200!

Only then did he discover that many of his classmates had received 200.

It seems that this is a big red envelope with 200 per person!

Jacob was still gratifying for the 200 unexpected fortune, but when he saw the other party's nickname, it was called "I miss that beautiful sunny day", and his face turned black suddenly!

At this time, the classmates in the group are all exploding!

"I'll go, thank you boss!"

"Yeah! Boss Xie Wenru of Wannian Diving, every shot is 200 per person, which is really unusual."

"I have heard that Boss Xie Wenru has made a lot of money over the years, and he really deserves his reputation."

"That's it! People thank boss, now he's a well-known Hong Kong businessman, what does this little money count?"

The man sent a smiling face and another voice, speaking in a Hong Kong accent, and said: "Oh, Meiqing came back from the United States. I was very excited, so I sent a red envelope to make everyone happy."

After speaking, he sent another red envelope.

Looking at the other's nickname, Jacob seemed to be obsessed with Meiqing, and he was naturally very upset.

However, seeing the red envelopes coming out, he was reluctant to let go.

So he could only curse this guy in his heart for being blind, while reaching out and opening the red envelope.

Unexpectedly, this is another red envelope of 200 per person!

With these two red envelopes, the other party has already issued more than 10,000!

Suddenly there were a lot of compliments in the group.

The other party smiled at this moment: "Attention everyone, the third round of red envelopes is here!"

After speaking, another red envelope was sent out.

Everyone rushed to grab the red envelope, and Jacob also ordered the red envelope without any promise.

As a result, the third red envelope is still 200!

Jacob was a little puzzled. He really couldn't think of who this person would be. After all, they didn't have classmates from Hong Kong back then. They were all classmates from mainland China. So who is this person who speaks Hong Kong and Taiwanese?

At this time, the other party issued a fourth red envelope.

The thunderous person is 200 per person.

Then came the fifth red envelope, still 200...

In just one or two minutes, all the online classmates in the group grabbed a red envelope of 1,000.

But Meiqing never grabbed the other party's red envelope.

At this time, "Missing that beautiful sunny day" said in the group: "I have flown from Hong Kong to Aurous Hill this morning, and I am staying at the Shangri-La Hotel. I heard that Meiqing also lives in this hotel. I don't know if you are here. Which room? If it is convenient, apply through my friend and tell me your room number in private chat. I'll come chat with you!"

After that, Meiqing was still behind.

When Meiqing saw this, she couldn't help but frown, and said lightly: "This Xie Wenru is the same as he was twenty years ago. He likes showing off so much!"

Chapter 903

"Xie Wenru?!"

When Jacob heard the name, his jealousy was overturned.

This Xie Wenru was the head of the External Relations Department of the Student Union at the time, and he was also a wealthy second-generation family.

Back then, both he and Panming were one of Meiqing's suitors.

It's just that at that time, Meiqing had no interest in him and Panming, so even if Xie Wenru chased Meiqing for many years, Meiqing was still unmoved.

After Jacob and Meiqing were together, Xie Wenru worked against him in various ways, always trying his best to show off in front of Meiqing.

Later, after Meiqing broke up with Jacob, he immediately realized that his great opportunity was coming, so he launched a crazy pursuit of Meiqing.

But Meiqing still did not accept him, but went directly to the United States.

Xie Wenru's family was very wealthy. His father had already established his business in Hong Kong before he went to university. It can be said that he was the first group of tycoons to become rich after the country opened up.

Therefore, Xie Wenru had a strong family background, so he gritted his teeth and stomped his feet, chasing Meiqing to the United States.

It is a pity that even in the United States, Meiqing still refused to accept him.

Xie Wenru saw Meiqing finally fall in love with an American, and then left the United States in a desperate manner. Since then, he has gone to Hong Kong to develop.

More than 20 years later, he has become a well-known successful businessman in Hong Kong.

Jacob felt very uncomfortable, because he knew that what he lacked most now was money, and what Xie Wenru has most is money.

Who would have thought that Xie Wenru was among the group of old classmates, just sending out red envelopes and sending out tens of thousands in one go.

At this time, the students in the group who received the red envelopes continued to compliment.

"Boss Xie Wenru is so affectionate. When he hears that Meiqing is coming back, he can't sit still."

"Thank you boss, you are not afraid that Meiqing's husband will be jealous?"

"That's, you ran over so aggressively. In the past, I saw the sweetness of Meiqing and her husband. Don't you smash your old heart that has been beating for forty to fifty years?"

"How can you explain to wife when you go home?"

At this time, Lilan, a good friend of Meiqing, made a silent expression in the group, saying: "Don't talk about it here, sister Meiqing's husband, has passed away some time ago..."

As soon as Lilan said this, the old classmates in the group immediately made a blessing expression with their hands folded.

There are also many people inside Meiqing, saying: "Sister Meiqing, change our grief!"

However, although everyone said so on the surface, most of the male students did not feel sorry for this incident at all.

Especially Xie Wenru, he didn't know how excited he was when he heard that her husband had passed away.

What he has been waiting for is to have a chance to truly come together with Meiqing.

After all, this was the woman he couldn't get anyway.

Now that her husband has passed away, isn't there any obstacle to him?

Chapter 904

Therefore, Xie Wenru immediately replied in the group: "Hey, my wife has passed away long ago. It seems that Meiqing and I have the same fate..."

An old classmate who had something good, heard his words and immediately said in the group: "Oh, then you and Meiqing, aren't this a match made in heaven?"

Several other old classmates who took his red envelopes also joined in.

Some people even said: "Oh, Xie Wenru, you and Meiqing are now widowed, then you two are really suitable, and I remember that you had a soft spot for Meiqing back then, you must work hard. Ah, we old classmates are all blessing you from our hearts!"

When Xie Wenru heard this, he immediately laughed and said, "Then I would like to thank the old classmates for their blessings in advance, but this matter still depends on what Meiqing means."

Having said that, he said again: "Whether Meiqing replied or not, I decided to return to Aurous Hill for long-term development this time."

"Isn't it?" Someone in the group exclaimed: "Xie Wenru, your family has been developing in Hong Kong for many years? Why did you suddenly decide to return to Aurous Hill at this time?"

Xie Wenru said: "Meiqing has lived in the United States for so many years, and she has decided to come back now? It seems that we are better at Aurous Hill. This is the place where we swayed our youth, sweat and tears. I intend to come back this time. Retired in Aurous Hill!"

Jacob couldn't help it anymore. He immediately tweeted in the group: "Xie Wenru, I advise you not to settle in Aurous Hill. Meiqing didn't like you back then, and it's impossible to like you now, so don't bother yourself!"

In fact, Jacob was very nervous and inferior at this time.

In his opinion, Xie Wenru is now a large Hong Kong businessman, worth hundreds of millions, and he is stronger than himself and he doesn't know where to go.

He hasn't had a good life all these years. Compared with the high-spirited self in college, it's a world of difference.

The most important thing is that he and Elaine have not yet divorced, they are still married, and Xie Wenru is now widowed!

It just so happens that Meiqing is also widowed, so if they are together, it is really a good fit.

Therefore, no matter how the comparison is made, he's at a disadvantage.

He hasn't seen Meiqing for so many years, and Jacob can't figure out what Meiqing is thinking now. What if she sees Xie Wenru right at the party at noon?

Xie Wenru saw Jacob talking in the group at this time, and said with a smile: "Oh, I thought that our original student council president would only snatch red envelopes. I didn't expect that the president would finally speak."

Jacob's face immediately turned red when he heard this. As the saying goes, he was sluggish and shorthanded. He just snatched several 200 red envelopes from others. Now that he was identified, his face was really a bit unbearable.

This is no food in the pocket, panic in my heart.

Jacob has never had a rich life. In addition, Elaine has always been in charge of the money in the family before. Therefore, even if he grabs a red envelope of 5 and 8 from the WeChat group, he can be happy for a long time. .

So it has long been a habit to grab every red envelope.

Today, Xie Wenru gave out red envelopes in the group. He didn't even bother to see who sent it. The first thing was to grab them first.

In the end, each of these red envelopes was 200, and Jacob who grabbed it was secretly happy in his heart, but he did not expect that the grab was a red envelope issued by a rival in love, and the grab was also out of touch.

It's not worth the loss.

Seeing that he stopped talking, Xie Wenru continued to ridicule: "The president is a good official. He has graduated for so many years, and he still wants to order me?"

Jacob bit his scalp and replied: "I am not giving an order, but to persuade you, for your own good."

Xie Wenru immediately replied: "For my good? For my good, you wouldn't let me return to Aurous Hill to settle and be with her? I think you guy, it's been so many years and still can't forget Meiqing. You're afraid I will return to Aurous Hill to settle down. Be your rival in love!"

Chapter 905

Hearing what Xie Wenru said, Jacob felt a little guilty.

He was indeed afraid that Xie Wenru would become his rival in love, but he certainly couldn't say such things among his classmates.

After all, he is now married.

Therefore, he could only say in the group against his will: "I'm afraid you have been in Hong Kong for so long, and suddenly you feel uncomfortable when you come back to Aurous Hill. We are all old and our bodies are getting old, so we rashly change to a different water and soil. In cities, maybe the health is going to be a problem."

Xie Wenru laughed twice and said, "I am in good health, so I won't bother you!"

Jacob didn't bother to talk to him anymore, put his phone in his pocket, and said to Meiqing beside him: "Meiqing, let's go inside and go shopping."

Meiqing nodded, and went on walking around the alma mater with him.

After 10 o'clock, Meiqing checked the time and said to Jacob next to her: "The class reunion arrives at 11 o'clock. I think it's almost the time. Let's pass now."

Jacob nodded, smiled and said: "Okay."

Later, he drove his BMW 5 Series and brought Meiqing to the brilliant club.

This time, Paul booked for Meiqing on the fourteenth floor of the Brilliant Club. This is already the top level of the Brilliant Club, which normal members can reach.

Jacob couldn't help being a little surprised!

The last time he relied on his son-in-law Charlie to know Lord Mr. Orvel, he went to the tenth floor once.

But never expected that this time Paul would be able to book directly to the fourteenth floor!

It is said that the 15th floor is used by the Song family and is not open to the public. In other words, Paul should be the most senior member here.

Moreover, the tenth floor of the Brilliant Clubhouse is already very, very luxurious, isn't the fourteenth floor going to be luxurious to the sky?

Walking up the elevator, Jacob couldn't help asking Meiqing next to him: "Meiqing, is Paul and the Song family good friend?"

Meiqing nodded and said, "After all, we have had a cooperative relationship for so many years, and we have helped them solve a lot of problems legally, so the Song family is fairly polite to us."

Jacob was amazed in his heart. It seemed that Paul, a young man, was really young and promising.

The two came to the huge luxury box on the fourteenth floor, and many old classmates were already waiting in the box.

This box has a table that can accommodate 50 people for dinner at the same time. The table is huge and very luxurious.

The entire table is electric. As long as a person sits there, the food will rotate in front of him repeatedly at a constant speed, ensuring that everyone can taste every dish.

Moreover, such a large table, full of 100 dishes, is extremely luxurious.

It is said that the standard for such a meal starts at least 20,000 per person.

There are more than 40 old classmates who came here today, which is much more than last time. It is estimated that Paul's expenses for this entertainment will be at least more than 1 million.

Seeing Meiqing and Jacob come in together, many old classmates were dumbfounded.

Someone who has something good directly points out and asks: "Meiqing, why are you here with Jacob?"

"Did you two meet down by accident? Or did you two come together?"

Among the crowd, a very stylish middle-aged and elderly man in a high-end suit with a big back combed his head. At this time, his eyes were staring at Meiqing, and he was Xie Wenru.

Chapter 906

Xie Wenru has been waiting for Meiqing since he entered the box. Now that Meiqing is here, he is naturally looking at her intently.

He found that Meiqing was still so beautiful, so outstanding, so intoxicating.

He didn't dare to imagine that Meiqing was 50 years old, and she could be so beautiful.

This also strengthened his belief in pursuing Meiqing.

But he never expected that Meiqing, who he had been thinking about it for more than 20 years, would walk in with Jacob, the s*umbag who had hurt him before.

He couldn't help feeling angry, and stood up and questioned Jacob: "Jacob, why are you embarrassed to come up with Meiqing? What you did to Meiqing back then, we all know well, if it weren't for you, a s*umbag, Meiqing How is it possible that you have lived in the United States for so many years? You should be very ashamed of it in your heart. If I were you, I would have no face at all!"

Jacob was also very angry. He said annoyedly: "Xie Wenru, don't speak too much. Anyone with a discerning eye knows what happened back then, you can't blame me at all!"

As he said, he added: "Do you think you've had a better life in the past twenty years? I tell you, in the past twenty years, you regret more than anyone and feel ashamed than anyone!"

Xie Wenru said dubiously: "You are ashamed! So I advise you to leave quickly, you shouldn't come for this meal."

At this time, Meiqing suddenly spoke and said, "It's all right, you don't want to talk about the old sesame seeds and rotten grains. It is not when you were young, you liked to talk about gossip. Forty or fifty years old, why do you still say this?"

After speaking, she looked around for a week and said seriously: "Every one of you here is personally invited by me, so there must not be any unpleasantness between you."

Jacob sneered at this time and said to Xie Wenru: "Xie Wenru, have you heard? Even Meiqing said that. What qualifications do you have to drive me away?"

After finishing speaking, he patted his forehead and said: "Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you, I didn't just come up with Meiqing, I picked her up at the hotel where Meiqing lived this morning, and then went to my alma mater together. I remembered our youth back then, and then came to meet with you, why? Do you have any opinions?"

When Xie Wenru heard this, he felt uncomfortable.

After all, he has always had a unilateral crush on Meiqing, unlike Jacob.

Jacob and Meiqing had been together for a long time.

Moreover, the two of them were really talented and beautiful at the time, and they were the most standard pair recognized in the school.

Therefore, there are many stories between these two people, and the two of them went back to their alma mater to recall the past, which in itself seemed a little ambiguous.

Xie Wenru was very depressed. When he didn't know how to refute, the young Paul opened the door and said to Meiqing with a smile: "Mom, I have already greeted Boyu, the housekeeper of the Song family, today you and yours classmates gather here, and he will arrange everything properly, so you don't have to worry about it, just gather with your uncles and aunts."

When everyone saw Paul, they couldn't help but marvel, and a woman blurted out, "Oh, Meiqing, isn't this your son? How handsome!"

Meiqing nodded lightly and said to everyone: "Come on, let me introduce you to everyone. This is my son. His name is Paul Smith."

Another person exclaimed: "Oh, Meiqing, your son is still a mixed race, he was born to your American husband, right?"

Meiqing smiled and said, "I didn't give birth to my husband's, but who else could I give birth to?"

Everyone laughed.

Xie Wenru asked at this time: "Hey, by the way, Meiqing, Paul should also have a Chinese name?"

Meiqing nodded and said with a smile: "Of course, Paul's Chinese name is my last name."

Everyone hurriedly asked curiously: "Then what is Paul's Chinese name?"

Paul smiled slightly and said, "Uncle and Auntie, my Chinese name is Han..."

Before the latter words came out, Meiqing hurriedly interrupted: "Today is our party, not with my son. Let him go first. Let's relive the old together with the elderly!"

Chapter 907

When Paul saw that his mother didn't want others to know his Chinese name, he immediately smiled and said, "Uncles and aunts, eat and drink and have fun, I will leave first."

Jacob hurriedly said, "Oh, Paul, what are you going for in a hurry? Why don't you eat with us?"

The reason why he wants to talk to Paul at this time is to let others see that he and Paul have known each other a long time ago. If this is the case, everyone can guess that he has already met Meiqing before this meeting.

In this way, everyone naturally knows that the relationship between the two is extraordinary, which can also make those who have ideas about Meiqing retreat.

When others heard the conversation between these two people, they did feel that something was not quite right. Why is Jacob so familiar with Paul?

Paul smiled and said to him at this time: "I won't eat with my uncles and aunts at noon, because I still have business in the afternoon."

Having said that, he specifically told Jacob that he asked Mr. Charlie to come to company in the afternoon to help him see Feng Shui, and he had to go and entertain him.

Jacob smiled and nodded, and said: "My son-in-law has no other skills. It's okay to look at Feng Shui's skills. Let him take a look at yours when the time comes. He will definitely not ask you for money, otherwise, yesterday's didn't he just drink the wine for nothing?"

After that, Jacob said again: "Well, let me call him and let him give you a free bill!"

Xie Wenru on the side was very depressed when he heard this.

what happened? Could it be that this Paul, Jacob, and Jacob's son-in-law have already drank together?

When did this happen? Is it yesterday?

Didn't Meiqing just arrived in Aurous Hill yesterday? Just arrived yesterday, and had dinner with Jacob and others? This is really a special treatment!

Thinking of this, Xie Wenru felt a little uncomfortable. He not only thought to himself, does Meiqing still like Jacob now?

At this time, Paul smiled and said to Jacob: "Uncle Willson, you don't need to be so polite. If you ask Mr. Charlie to waive me, then I'm ashamed to let him watch it for me."

Meiqing on the side also smiled and said, "Jacob, let's not interfere with the children's affairs."

Jacob glanced at Xie Wenru and saw that her expression was very depressed, and he knew that his goal had been achieved, so he stopped talking to Paul about this, but smiled and said to him: "Okay, then you go ahead. Your mother is here to take care of me, so don't worry."

Xie Wenru felt even more depressed when he heard him say this. What does he mean by this? Why does he feel like he is Paul's stepdad?

Thinking of this, Xie Wenru held a fire in his heart, and thought to himself: Jacob, Jacob, you already took Meiqing 20 years ago, now if you dare to ruin my good deeds, then I will not let you go! "

So he deliberately said loudly: "By the way, Jacob, what about your wife? That is the shrew who was very famous throughout our college. What is the name? It seems to be Elaine. Who knows what the name is?"

An old classmate in the class smiled and said, "Yes, her name is Elaine!"

"Yes! It's Elaine!" Xie Wenru smiled and said, "Jacob, I heard that you and Elaine are very affectionate. Your relationship should have deepened after so many years? Why didn't you call Elaine together today? "

As soon as Jacob heard him mentioning Elaine, his face immediately became uncontrollable, and he blurted out, "Xie Wenru, which pot is not opened here. Elaine is not a classmate in our class, why must she be here?"

Chapter 908

Xie Wenru smiled and said: "You, you have to figure out that you are a married man after all, so don't mess around with flowers outside, and don't be unruly towards other women, otherwise, once Elaine's shrews know, she will definitely not spare you."

Jacob suddenly became angry and blurted out: "Xie Wenru, what are you talking about here? When did I get in trouble, and when did I feel bad about other women? I tell you, don't think you have two bad money. You can point to sang and curse here, Jacob will not eat yours!"

Meiqing's expression was very embarrassed, and her voice became a little angry, and she said, "You two are endless, right? What I said just now, we are here for a class reunion today, not to make you arguing here. If you are still like this, then I will leave!"

Jacob said innocently: "Meiqing, you heard it too, it's the old b@stard Xie Wenru who is fanning the flames by the side!"

Xie Wenru was also a well-known Hong Kong businessman anyway, and he was confessed wherever he went. At this time, Jacob was scolded as an old b@stard, and he was naturally very dissatisfied.

So he slapped the table and stood up and shouted angrily: "Jacob, who the f*ck do you say is the old b@stard?"

Jacob's this also came up, glaring at him and said, "I'm talking about you, what's wrong?"

Xie Wenru said coldly: "Jacob, don't think it's an old classmate, I can't do anything to you, I tell you, you really annoy me, I make you can't eat, you think I am going back from Aurous Hill to Hong Kong, Can I be bullied by a worm like you? Don't weigh and weigh what strength you have and yell at me?"

Jacob suddenly felt a little guilty. If he wanted to talk about his strength, he wouldn't even be able to get 10,000. The villa he lived in was also abducted by his son-in-law, and compared with a vendor like Xie Wenru, it was useless at all.

If he really angered Xie Wenru, he might not be able to offend him.

When he was riding a tiger, Paul hurriedly said: "Two uncles, this game is for my mother's team today, so please give my mother a face and don't quarrel in my mother's team. "

Jacob immediately borrowed the donkey from the slope and blurted out: "Paul, uncle looks at your face and doesn't have the same knowledge as him!"

Xie Wenru said annoyedly: "After you scold me, you still say you don't have the same knowledge as me? Do you believe that I'm licking you now?"

Meiqing's expression became frosty, and she asked coldly, "Xie Wenru, what do you want? If you really don't listen to advice, then I can only ask you to go out. Don't blame me for disregarding the love of my classmates."

Xie Wenru was very annoyed. It was obvious that he was scolded. Why didn't Meiqing look at him at all?

Jacob also felt that his face couldn't hold back. How should he respond when he was scolded in public? Hard? Will he really come up and smoke himself?

At this moment, a 60-year-old Old Master stepped in.

When the Old Master saw Paul, he smiled and said, "Mr. Paul, the chef has already prepared the food. I wonder if you can start the food?"

Paul looked at the Old Master and said in surprise: "Oh, Boyu, why are you here in person?"

With a cry of Boyu, everyone at the dinner table was shocked!

Boyu? Could it be Boyu, the chief steward of the Song family in Aurous Hill?

Everyone knows that this Boyu is a great figure with great status and face in Aurous Hill!

Chapter 909

When Xie Wenru heard that this person was Boyu, he immediately put away the arrogant face that he had just dealt with Jacob.

Because when he was still studying in Aurous Hill in his early years, he knew that the Song family was very strong, and that the Song family was now the strongest family in Aurous Hill.

Although he is now a well-known Hong Kong businessman and has hundreds of millions of fortunes, it is still far from the Song family.

The assets of the Song family are hundreds of billions, a hundred times more than themselves, so the Song family's stewardship status is much higher than that of itself, and its energy is much greater than that of itself.

Paul was also a little flattered at this time, he really didn't expect that Boyu would come here in person.

At this time, Boyu smiled and said to Paul: "Mr. Paul, the Song family has not cooperated with your law firm in one or two days. When I just opened up the export business in the United States, I accompanied our master to the United States. Moreover, we encountered many legal problems at the time, and your father helped us solve them. In fact, our old Mr. Song and your father had a personal relationship with you very well, but you were still in school at that time, and you might not be clear about these."

Speaking of this, Boyu said again: "So, for the Song family, you are the son of an Old Master, how can we neglect? If we neglect, it seems that we have no way of hospitality."

Paul nodded gratefully and said, "Uncle Boyu, if you have the opportunity, please help me thank Mr. Song, and also help me tell Mr. Song that I may be a little busy these days. After I have settled the matter here. After the company starts to get on the right track safely and steadily in Aurous Hill, I will definitely come to visit."

Boyu nodded and smiled, and said, "You can contact me directly at that time, and I will help you arrange time with the Old Master."

After all, Boyu said: "Okay, I won't bother here anymore. Since the dishes can be served, then I will let the back chef quickly start the dishes."

Paul said: "I just want to go, Boyu, let's go out together."

"OK." Boyu nodded.

As Boyu was about to leave, Xie Wenru hurriedly stood up and said respectfully: "Hello Boyu, I am Xie Wenru from Hong Kong Huisite Trading Company. I am glad to meet you!"

Boyu looked at him in surprise, and asked curiously: "I'm sorry, I don't seem to remember this company. Does your company cooperate with the Song family?"

Xie Wenru hurriedly said respectfully: "You said that Boyu, I have always hoped to cooperate with the Song family. There has never been a good opportunity. If possible, I hope you can help introduce him."

Boyu smiled courteously and said, "Thank you for admiring the Song family, but the Song family's requirements for partners are very high. With all due respect, if it is a company that no one has ever heard of, basically It is unlikely to cooperate with the Song family."

A person like Boyu, who has been a housekeeper for many years, knows the entire family's business well, and has a certain understanding of top companies, large companies, and well-known companies across the country. This is also his professionalism.

If he hasn't heard of a company, then the scale of this company must not be very large, at best it is second-rate.

It is impossible for the Song family to cooperate with a second-rate company.

Xie Wenru's expression was a bit awkward, he didn't expect that he would be rejected so simply by Boyu.

Although the other party did not speak very directly, but the meaning is already clear at a glance.

This made Xie Wenru feel a little frustrated, but he dared not express any dissatisfaction, so he could only respectfully and humbly say: "Sorry Mr. Boyu, it's great talking to you!"

After finishing speaking, he sat back a little angrily, feeling hot on his face. He had known that he would not be boring, not only did he not get any benefits, but he also lost face in front of his classmates.

Boyu nodded slightly to him as a response, his expression was a bit arrogant, but this was also normal, after all, he had long been a respected upper-class figure in Aurous Hill.

Chapter 910

Paul looked at the crowd at this time and said: "Uncles and aunts, please gather here, I will leave first."

After finishing speaking, he specifically said to Jacob: "Uncle Willson, I'm leaving first."

Jacob looked at Paul as if he were looking at half of his son, and said kindly: "Go, go, then go to work!"

At this time, Boyu saw Jacob, and he was surprised and said: "Oh, you are Mr. Willson, right?"

Jacob didn't expect that the well-known Boyu, the housekeeper of the Song family, would even know him, so he was surprised and asked, "You...how do you know me?"

Boyu said respectfully: "Mr. Willson, let me tell you that Mr. Wade is so kind to the Song family that everyone in the Song family is grateful for Mr. Wade's kindness. Don't dare to forget it! You are Mr. Wade's father-in-law, how could I don't know you?"

Jacob suddenly realized!

It turned out to be in the face of his son-in-law Charlie...

It's really getting harder and harder for his son-in-law to flicker. It turned out that the Orvel, who thought he was fooling, and Solmon White, who fudged him, are also very powerful. He didn't expect that he would fool the Song family, the largest family in Aurous Hill.

Paul on the side was shocked. He naturally knew that the Mr. Wade that Boyu was talking about was Charlie.

But he really didn't expect Charlie to be so awesome.

Even the head housekeeper of the Song family, Boyu, respectfully called him Mr. Wade.

And according to what he said, Charlie has great kindness to the entire Song family, is it the kindness that Charlie can see from looking at Feng Shui?

Thinking of this, he felt that Charlie's image was a bit more mysterious. When he thought that he would come to his company to see Feng Shui this afternoon, he wanted to see if he could take the opportunity to learn some in-depth information about him.

Boyu said respectfully to Jacob at this time: "Mr. Willson, I didn't expect you to be at this table today. In that case, I will serve you at this table today. If you have any needs, you can directly order certainly."

Jacob's classmates were shocked. Many of them were natives of Aurous Hill. Everyone knew how strong the Song family was, so no one thought that Jacob would have this kind of face.

Xie Wenru was also shocked.

He couldn't figure out why Boyu, who was dismissive of himself, was so polite to Jacob!

He inquired about Jacob's situation before, but he is nothing more than a fallen household man.

The Willson family has long been dying, and it is basically cold now. Jacob must have no capital himself, nothing more than an old rag.

However, why does Uncle Boyu have to respect him this old rag?

Is it just because of his son-in-law called Mr. Wade? !

Thinking of this, Xie Wenru was curious about Jacob's son-in-law.

So, he asked a classmate next to him in a low voice, "Who is Jacob's son-in-law?"

Chapter 911

Xie Wenru, who was quite disdainful of Jacob just now, was a little more jealous of him at this moment.

In any case, his son-in-law can make Boyu so caring and respectful, which proves that Jacob is more important than himself in Boyu's eyes.

He asked his old classmates about the background of Jacob's son-in-law, who happened to have attended the last class reunion, so he smiled and said, "The son-in-law of Jacob seems to be a vagrant. It is said that he is a full-time worker at home. Mr. Wade what exactly does he do, we really don't know."

Xie Wenru is in business after all and has seen the world.

From Boyu's attitude alone, he realized that he must never underestimate Jacob's son-in-law.

Maybe the other party is still a very big person, otherwise it would be impossible for Boyu to be so respectful.

This also made him feel worried, fearing after ridiculing Jacob just now.

Aside from other things, just with Boyu's respectful attitude, it can be seen that if he is really torn apart with Jacob, Boyu will definitely not be against him.

Therefore, he looked at Jacob with some fear, hesitated for a moment, and said: "Jacob, I was so embarrassed just now. They were all angry words made in anger. Don't take it to your heart. Everyone is old classmate. It's just a matter of just saying a few words, what do you think?"

Jacob knew very well in his heart that Xie Wenru was so arrogant just now, and suddenly became so polite at this moment, and even took the initiative to apologize to him, it must be because Boyu's attitude made him realize that he was not so easy to mess with.

He didn't want to just give up with Xie Wenru, but Meiqing also said at this time: "Jacob, both are classmates, don't mention the unpleasantness just now."

Jacob nodded and said to Xie Wenru: "Since Meiqing has spoken, I won't mention it anymore. I am a person who does not offend others and I not like being offended. If you do not continue to trouble me, of course I will not put my foot on your tail."

If someone talked to Xie Wenru like this, he would have exploded.

But at this time, he dared not clamor with Jacob anymore.

After all, this is in the Song family's territory, and Boyu has such respect for Jacob. If he really makes trouble, he must be finished.

Therefore, he can only say in an utter anger, "Jacob, you have a lot of respect, I will definitely toast you later."

Other students also noticed the change in Xie Wenru's attitude. Everyone knew that Xie Wenru was a little jealous of Jacob.

Some people are also surprised, this Jacob, his son-in-law is really so good, can the Song family be so polite to him?

Jacob's heart at this moment is also very proud. He didn't expect that even though he didn't bring his son-in-law, his son-in-law could still help him grow a face.

With this attitude of Boyu today, in the circle of classmates, no one should dare to underestimate him.

.....

At this moment, Paul also took the car to his company "Smith Law Firm."

Americans and Chinese act in different styles. Chinese seldom use their own names to name companies, because the Chinese as a whole still believe in acting low-key, obscure, and not too public.

The whole should highlight a modest way of doing things.

However, Americans are generally very high-profile. Well-known American companies are basically named after their founders.

Chapter 912

For example, the famous Boeing Company is a super aerospace group that produces passenger aircraft, military aircraft and space shuttles.

It was named Boeing because of their founder, William Edward Boeing.

It is equivalent to the founder using his surname as the name of the company.

Another example is the world-renowned hotel company Hilton Group. Its founder is Conrad Hilton. This family is also the famous Hilton family.

Paul's full name is Paul Smith, Paul is his first name, and Smith is his family name.

Since his father founded this law firm, he named it Smith Law Firm after his family name.

"Smith Law Firm" has been well-known internationally after many years of hard work by Paul's father.

So this time Paul moved his office to Aurous Hill and directly chose the best cbd area in Aurous Hill for the company's location.

And he chose the most prosperous and top-notch office building, Gemdale Building.

The Gemdale Building, with 58 floors, is the best and top five-star office building in Aurous Hill. Basically all the top enterprises in Aurous Hill and the country and even the world can settle in the Gemdale Building.

Because Paul Smith's law firm is also very well-known, and it serves all of the world's top 500 companies, they also pay great attention to their appearance.

It is worth mentioning that the Emgrand Group, which Wade Family bought for Charlie, is the largest group company in Aurous Hill, and it is mainly based on real estate.

The Emgrand Group owns a number of high-end office buildings in Aurous Hill, and these office buildings are operated by the Emgrand Group itself and have not been sold. This includes the entire Gemdale Building.

Charlie was a little surprised when he heard that Paul chose the company in the Gemdale Building.

Unexpectedly, he chose his property by such a coincidence.

But think about it carefully. The Gemdale Building is the best office building in Aurous Hill. A law firm like his is in need of a sufficient facade, so there is no other option except Gemdale Building.

After he had lunch at home, he took a taxi to Gemdale Building.

Paul's law firm is on the 27th floor of the Gemdale Building. He took the elevator directly to the 27th floor. Paul was already waiting for him at the elevator entrance.

When he saw Charlie, Paul was very, very polite, and he came forward and said politely: "Oh, Mr. Charlie, it's really hard for you to come here."

Charlie smiled slightly and said to Paul: "It's just a matter of raising your hand, don't be so polite."

Paul invited Charlie to walk in and said, "Mr. Charlie, I had already let someone rent the 27th floor of this Building a few months ago, and the renovation started immediately. Now the renovation is basically fast. The construction is completed, how about the overall Feng Shui? Is there anything that is not suitable, and if so, how to modify it?"

Charlie probably read it once, and soon found out that Paul had a very careful Feng Shui layout here. He smiled and said: "Paul, you seem to have seen an expert here, right? I think you have set up this entry point. The Jucai Fengshui Bureau can gather wealth; there is a disaster-avoidance Fengshui Bureau in the main hall. For legal business like yours, this type of Fengshui Bureau can avoid disputes to the greatest extent. Overall it is very good."

Paul exclaimed and said: "Mr. Charlie, you are really smart, you can see my Feng Shui arrangement at a glance."

Charlie said calmly: "Paul, your mother and my father-in-law have been classmates for so many years, so you don't have to be too polite with me. But I'm very curious, since you have already found someone here to see Feng Shui, why do you invite me?"

Paul did not hide it at all, and said frankly: "It is true. Yesterday I invited you to help me see Feng Shui, mainly to see if you really have the true talents in this area. Now it seems to be abrupt. Please forgive me, Mr. Charlie!"

Chapter 913

Paul was really curious about Charlie. From the beginning, he thought Charlie belonged to the Wade family of Eastcliff. Later, even though Charlie let him dispel this doubt, the title of Mr. Charlie still gave Paul a new name. doubt.

Asking Charlie to come over and show himself Feng Shui is actually Paul's one-step temptation. He has already asked someone to watch Feng Shui specifically here.

If Charlie couldn't tell after he came, that the Feng Shui Bureau had already been set up here, it would prove that he didn't have such a level;

But if Charlie can see the Feng Shui Bureau here after coming, it will prove that Charlie's level is extraordinary.

Paul did not expect that Charlie could see all the Feng Shui layouts here at a glance. The previous master also watched for a long time and studied for a long time before thinking about and laying out these.

Charlie was not angry about Paul's suspicion. On the contrary, he admired Paul's magnanimity. He would say whatever he wanted, without covering up. This kind of quality is very rare in today's society.

So he said to Paul: "You want to see if I have this ability to learn. This is also human nature, but since I am here, I will charge you a fee for feng shui, which is also human nature. "

In fact, Charlie didn't intend to ask Paul for money before he came. After all, he was the son of the Old Master's lover, so he still had to give this little face.

But since Paul is so frank, one said one, and the other said two, then he should also get along with him in the same way.

When Paul heard this, he immediately said, "Of course! Since Mr. Charlie is invited, how can he not be paid for it!"

As he said, he took out the checkbook from his pocket without hesitation, drew on it for a while, tore it off and handed it to Charlie, saying, "Mr. Charlie, this 1 million is a little bit of my care. Please accept it. "

Charlie accepted the check with a slight smile, and said with a smile: "Then I would be more respectful than fate."

After speaking, Charlie looked around, and said: "That means it is indeed seen by an expert, but the expert will inevitably omit something. For example, the entrance of the Jucai Fengshui Bureau is naturally There is nothing wrong with it, but the failure to make a corresponding layout behind this is really a failure."

Hearing what he said, Paul hurriedly asked: "Mr. Charlie, what do you mean by this?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Feng Shui often says that purple energy comes from the east, wealth comes from the east, and your entrance faces east. There is nothing wrong with setting up the Jucai Fengshui Bureau, which means that money comes in from your entrance and enters your company. , This is a good start, but your company must be able to keep the money."

After all, he pointed to the back of the company and said: "Look at this side of your company, there are all transparent floor-to-ceiling windows and transparent glass. There is no such thing in the Feng Shui Bureau, so you just come in from the entrance and stay let it go out directly from the back without stopping. Do you know what it is called?"

Paul asked nervously: "Please Mr. Charlie make it clear!"

Charlie laughed and said: "There is an old Chinese saying that bamboo baskets can be used to catch water. Why do you say that is because although the mouth of bamboo baskets can enter water, the gap itself is too big to retain water. If the company can't retain money, it is very likely that your company will be big in and out in the future, with more money in and out, and in the end nothing will be left behind."

Paul exclaimed and asked, "Mr. Wade, how should this situation be resolved?"

Charlie said lightly: "First of all, all glass must be filmed. As I said earlier, if the glass is transparent, it means nothing, but once it has a color, even if it is just a light brown color, it is equivalent to putting it on. The glass becomes a wall."

Chapter 914

Paul nodded in excitement, and blurted out: "Thank you so much, Mr. Charlie, I will arrange for someone to do it quickly."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry, I haven't finished talking yet."

Paul hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, please tell me."

Charlie said: "When you put a film on the glass, you also have to place a golden brave on the left and right sides. It must be made of pure gold to play the best role in fortune. Moreover, Paixiu is famous. The best way to keep money is to eat but not pull, but not to get in. This is tantamount to setting up a feng shui bureau for keeping money. After the money comes in, you can keep it, and your business will naturally flourish."

Paul held a fist at Charlie with a grateful look, and said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie is indeed worthy of the title of Master. From today onwards, I, like everyone else, will respect you as Master!"

Charlie smiled and waved his hand: "You don't need to call me Master. If you call me Master in front of my Old Master, or in front of your mother, I don't know how to explain it to them. "

Paul blurted out: "From then on, in front of them, I will call you Mr. Charlie, but when not in front of them, I must call you Mr. Wade!"

Having said that, Paul immediately took out his checkbook again, and wrote and painted on it for a while. Then he tore off the check, dragged his hands to Charlie respectfully and said, "Master, this is a supply. Please accept your expenses."

Charlie glanced at it and found that the check was written for 4 million, and he said to Paul: "One million is already a lot. You don't need to be so polite with me. I will accept this million, but this 4 million you should take it back."

Paul resolutely said: "No, Master, if it weren't for you, I might just be in Aurous Hill in the future with not much wealth."

Charlie waved his hand and smiled: "These are just some sayings about Fengshui. Even if I don't point it out to you, you may not be able to make money. After all, your law firm has been in business for so many years and is already very famous. "

Paul said earnestly: "Master, it is true that when my dad opened a law firm, he first took a few cases and lost all of them, and the reasons for losing the case are strange. During that time, using my mother's words Said, Dad happily drank cold water and stuffed his teeth."

"Later, my mother invited a Feng Shui gentleman from Chinatown to see Feng Shui in my dad's law firm. At first, my father rejected this kind of oriental feudal superstition, but when that Feng Shui gentleman clearly figured out what happened to my father After a few difficulties, my father realized that the mystic academic fengshui was really extraordinary!"

"Then the Feng Shui gentleman changed the layout of my father's law firm and re-established a Feng Shui bureau for him. Since then, my father's law firm has prospered."

Speaking of this, Paul said with emotion: "If it weren't for the Feng Shui man at the beginning, my father might have failed at the beginning of his business, so there would be no Smith Law Firm, which is why I am so firm. Believe in the reason of Feng Shui."

Charlie didn't expect that at the beginning of the Paul's business, it was because of Feng Shui that it survived.

Feng Shui sometimes is so magical. When you are ready and owe the east wind, the east wind may not come.

Then no matter how you prepare, it is impossible to succeed.

Feng Shui, in the subtlety, plays the role of borrowing the east wind!

Chapter 915

Paul's admiration for Charlie really called a five-body cast.

He himself is an American who looks more like a Chinese. He is obsessed with Chinese traditional culture and Feng Shui metaphysics, and he believes very much.

Everything that Charlie said just now made him feel that this man's accomplishments in Feng Shui were unfathomable.

So he didn't understand why someone would give Charlie a luxury villa worth more than one billion.

Paul is very aware of the importance of a Feng Shui master. A good Feng Shui master can not only help people improve their luck and gather wealth. It can even help people change their lives against the sky.

Therefore, the better the Feng Shui master, the higher their appearance fee and the higher their worth. For example, Hong Kong's Li Jiacheng, it is said that their royal Feng Shui masters will pay hundreds of millions for one visit.

Therefore, he even felt that his 4 million cheque was a bit small.

He knew he should write him a check for 10 million.

Thinking of this, he directly shredded the 4 million cheque and threw it aside, and then hurriedly rewrote a 9 million cheque and handed it to Charlie respectfully, "Mr. Wade, please accept it."

Charlie said earnestly: "Paul, I'll charge you 1 million, it is already enough, you don't have to give it to me anymore."

Paul said very seriously: "Mr. Wade, Feng Shui metaphysics itself emphasizes piety. In some respects, money is also a representative of piety, so I hope you can laugh at it. Otherwise, you will appear to be insincere. ."

Charlie is not short of money. There are nearly 22 billion in the entire account, so he doesn't know how to spend it.

Whether Paul gives him 1 million or 10 million, there is actually no difference to himself.

Charlie was not going to ask Paul for too much money. The money was just a form. He had no opinion on how much he gave, but he gave too much, and it was indeed not appropriate.

However, Paul was very determined, and he was unwilling to take the money back, he insisted on letting Charlie accept it.

Seeing this, Charlie no longer shied away from him, saying: "Since you have to give me the money, I will accept it first, but if I need to use your barrister in the future, you must charge as much money as you should."

Paul smiled and said, "How can that work? You are Master. You can use me. That's an exaltation to me."

Charlie said, "In this case, I have legal affairs in the future, so I dare not come to you."

Paul hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, if you have any legal needs in the future, you can come to me and I must collect the money normally."

Charlie nodded and smiled: "It's pretty much the same."

After speaking, he looked at the time and said, "Paul, since there is nothing wrong with you, then I won't bother you today."

Paul hurriedly said: "Master Wade, I would like to treat you to a meal tonight. I wonder if you have time?"

Charlie smiled and waved his hand and said, "I don't have to eat, there is still something waiting for me to do, I have to go."

When Paul heard this, he immediately nodded and said, "Since Mr. Wade has something to do, then I will not keep you. I will send you out, please."

Paul's simplicity made Charlie very appreciative of him.

Most Chinese people prefer to be polite. If someone else wants to invite them to dinner, and if they shirk something, they will definitely continue to invite a few more enthusiastic invitations until they explicitly refuse it.

Sometimes even if deep down in heart, they don't really want to invite the other party to dinner, they will treat each other politely.

Chapter 916

It's like a few people rushing to pay after dinner.

Everyone is rushing to pay, but not everyone really wants to pay.

It is very possible that everyone just wants to be polite, because if you are not polite, it seems that you are not sensible.

Therefore, there are often people at the hotel bar asking who pays the bill, and you come and go all the time.

Charlie saw many such people, but he admired people like Paul, who is witty, decisive, and straightforward.

Since he has said something, he will absolutely stop talking nonsense, and send him away directly. This is the way of communication between smart people should take place.

Afterwards, Paul took Charlie all the way out of the company and came to the elevator door.

He took the initiative to press the elevator button for Charlie, and then an elevator came up from the first floor and stopped on this floor.

As soon as the elevator stopped, Paul hurriedly made a please gesture.

Just about to speak to Charlie, at this moment, the elevator door suddenly opened, and a super beauty with a glamorous and tall figure, wearing a small suit on the upper body and a skirt with a covered hip suddenly appeared in the elevator.

The beauty is glamorous and moving, but at the same time there is no lack of glamorous and s*xy look. It can be described as the best of the best, so that all men are excited.

Paul looked at her in surprise and exclaimed: "Miss Song, why are you here?"

The beauty was about to speak when she suddenly saw Charlie next to Paul, her cold and pretty face suddenly seemed to be bathed in the spring breeze, with a cheerful smile of the little girl, she said in surprise: "Mr. Wade, why are you here?"

Charlie looked up and found out that the person in the elevator turned out to be Warnia, the eldest of the Song family. She was also accompanied by several bodyguards, each holding a beautiful flower basket.

Warnia didn't expect to meet her sweetheart Charlie here, and she was naturally very happy in her heart.

Charlie felt a little surprised to see her here, and said with a smile: "I came here to help my friend take a look at his Feng Shui."

After all, he thought that Paul had recognized Warnia just now, so he guessed that the two of them must know each other.

Warnia smiled and said, "It seems that Mr. Wade, you also know Mr. Paul. I came here because my grandpa asked me to help him and gave Mr. Paul some flower baskets to congratulate him on the opening of his company."

After speaking, she realized that she hadn't greeted Paul, so she said with some embarrassment: "Mr. Paul, it's been a long time."

Paul is a smart man, and the most contacted suspects in his work as a lawyer, so he has a very strong ability to interpret people's eyes and expressions.

FBI in the United States once offered a course on interpreting facial expressions.

This is mainly to teach the case handlers how to use the subtle expressions and eye changes of the suspect to guess whether the other party is lying.

This is a very high-end psychology category, but it is also a compulsory course for every judicial officer.

Paul studied law in the United States for many years, and also became a lawyer, coupled with his childhood family edification, so that he has a unique talent in this area.

Therefore, from Warnia's look at Charlie's expression and eyes, he could tell that Warnia liked Charlie.

While admiring Charlie, he was able to attract such a stunning beauty as Warnia, and he couldn't help but sigh. It seems that Charlie is really extraordinary, and even the eldest lady of the Song family has a deep love for him.

More importantly, Charlie is a married person. The Song family's eldest lady would actually like a married man. This is simply explosive news!

Chapter 917

At this time, the graceful Warnia walked out of the elevator.

Although she came to give Paul a flower basket, her eyes were always on Charlie's body.

Every time she saw Charlie, Warnia felt very happy, as if she had returned to the age when she was 18 years old.

In fact, an eldest lady like her matured earlier than most people, got in touch with the human world earlier, and learned to put on a mask earlier.

But after seeing Charlie, after falling in love with Charlie, Warnia's ability to put a mask on herself failed in front of him.

She looked at Charlie with admiration and affection in her eyes, and she answered shyly: "Mr. Wade, how did you and Mr. Paul know each other? Mr. Paul should have just arrived in China not long ago?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "My father-in-law and Mr. Paul's mother are college classmates, so they met each other."

Warnia was surprised and said: "Oh, how could it be such a coincidence!"

Paul on the side smiled and said, "It's such a coincidence. I didn't expect that, Miss Song, you also know Mr. Wade."

Warnia took a deep look at Charlie and said to Paul: "Mr. Wade can be regarded as my savior. Do you remember one time when our export goods arrived in the United States, they were immediately said to be unqualified, but they still want to sue us and make us bear huge compensation?"

Paul immediately nodded and said: "Of course I remember that time you asked me to rush from the east coast of the United States to the west coast to help you resolve this dispute, but the problem was resolved before I reach the west coast."

Warnia said with lingering fear: "I accidentally broke the Feng Shui at home that time. Not only did the business suffer, but I also had many problems with it. I even had frequent driving problems and accidents."

With that, Warnia raised her wrist to reveal the bracelet her mother had left her, and said with emotion: "At that time, this bracelet was already lost. If it weren't for Mr. Wade, I wouldn't be able to find it back."

Paul exclaimed: "It turns out that the great Feng Shui master you told me was Mr. Wade!"

Warnia nodded and said, "Yes, it's Mr. Wade."

Paul's eyes looking at Charlie are already full of worship and admiration!

He blurted out: "Mr. Wade, I really didn't expect that you are the Feng Shui master who has always been praised by Miss Song!"

Charlie smiled indifferently, waved his hand and said, "It's nothing more than a little bit of bugging skills, not worth mentioning."

Paul hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, you are really too modest. If you hadn't pointed it out just now, my Feng Shui bureau might have a big problem. I'm so grateful!"

Although Charlie was very humble, Paul didn't think so. He already had some respect for Charlie in his heart.

Moreover, even the eldest lady of the Song family praised Charlie for being more natural, not to mention Charlie.

At this moment, Charlie said, "I still have something to do, so let's talk about it first, and I will leave now."

Warnia hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade, where are you going? Do you have the car? If you aren't driving, I will see you off!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't you need to retell the past with Paul?"

Warnia hurriedly said: "Paul and I are old acquaintances. From now on, he will develop in Aurous Hill. We have time to relive the past. If you don't drive today, please let me see you off!"

Seeing this, Paul knew that Warnia not only liked Charlie, but also put Charlie in a very, very important position in her heart.

At this time, he said in a hurry, "Miss Song, thank you for the flower baskets you gave, and thank, Mr. Song, for helping me. If you have the opportunity, you will definitely come to visit me next time."

Chapter 918

Warnia glanced at Paul gratefully, and said to him, "That's fine, since you have something to do, then I won't bother you much, let's get together again!"

Paul is indeed very high in EQ, and also very high in IQ. He can see that Warnia's mind is all on Charlie, so he proposed to send Charlie to her. In that case, why not push the boat along the way and help her?

So Warnia said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, I'll give it to you!"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Well then, I will trouble you."

Warnia smiled shyly, and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, don't be so polite with me."

.....

Warnia left her bodyguard to carry the flower baskets to Paul. She pressed the elevator, reached out to block the elevator door, and said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, please!"

Charlie nodded slightly, stepped into the elevator first, and Warnia followed in.

The elevator door closed, and the faint and advanced fragrance of Warnia's body slowly penetrated Charlie's nostrils.

Warnia's taste is very high, the perfume on her body is light and long. Not only makes people feel very comfortable and refreshing, but it also smells not vulgar, and even makes people obsessive and addictive.

Standing with her, Charlie even had some contemplation in his heart.

It is undeniable that Warnia is indeed very beautiful, with a very noble temperament, and more importantly, this woman is too gentle when she is in front of him, and she can't see the air of Missy.

The two left the Gemdale Building together, and Warnia personally opened the door of her Rolls-Royce and asked Charlie to sit in.

After getting in the car, Warnia respectfully asked Charlie next to her: "Mr. Wade, where are you going, I will see you off!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Then please take me back to Tomson Villa."

Warnia asked in amazement: "Mr. Charlie, are you going to do errands? Why are you going home suddenly?"

Charlie said with a smile: "The time to do something hasn't arrived yet, I'll go home and wait."

Although Warnia was a little surprised, she nodded slightly and said, "Then I will take you back."

As she said that, she plucked up courage again and asked expectantly: "Mr. Wade, when will you have time? I want to treat you to dinner..."

Charlie thought for a while and said, "Let's take two days. There have been a lot of things recently, especially today."

He has already explained to Issac very clearly that once he is ready to release Elaine, the detention center will specifically ask her to call him.

At that time, he will go and pick Elaine back.

The reason why he had to pick up Elaine himself was mainly because he wanted to see how miserable Elaine was now.

This woman, who dared to steal 21.9 billion, would never be able to learn a lesson if she didn't suffer from it.

21.9 billion. If show mercy to her and she are not afraid of revealing identity, and he calls the police directly, Elaine will be sentenced to at least a suspended death sentence even if he doesn't shoot her for such a large amount of money involved.

Let her go in and suffer for a few days and then let her out. It's already very cheap for her!

Chapter 919

After Elaine returned to the detention center from the police station for questioning, she has been waiting for the result with anxiety.

She didn't know if the police would let herself go, so she could only pray in her heart.

In the two days since entering the detention center, Elaine has suffered. She has never suffered the painful torture in her life. Now she feels that she is on the verge of collapse. If they not let her go out, she will really have to die here.

Old Mrs. Willson knew that Elaine was called to the police station for questioning in the morning, and she felt a little worried in her heart.

She was afraid that Elaine would tell the police officers that she and Gena tortured and beat her.

Moreover, she was also worried that Elaine would apply for a cell change with the police officer.

If the police officer replaced her, wouldn't she lose the greatest pleasure?

For so long, the Willson family has suffered so many misfortunes and tribulations, that the Old Mrs. Willson's mood has been very low. It was not until Elaine and her were locked up in the same cell that she regained the joy and joy of life.

The thought that Elaine might have been in prison for more than ten or twenty years, and that she would be able to go out after waiting for more than 10 days, the Old Mrs. Willson felt excited.

Seeing Elaine curled up in the corner of the cell, the Old Mrs. Willson was very playful. She stepped up to Elaine and asked with a smile: "Oh, I heard you were called to the police station for questioning?"

Elaine looked at her, shivering: "Yes, mother, I was called to ask about the situation."

Old Mrs. Willson asked coldly: "Then did you talk nonsense with the police? Did you not complain to them?"

Elaine hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Don't worry, mom, I didn't tell the police what happened in the cell. They came to me to ask about the case."

Old Mrs. Willson relaxed, snorted and asked her: "I said Elaine, have you consulted with a lawyer? How many years are you going to be sentenced to in this situation? Is 10 years and 15 years enough?"

Elaine shook her head repeatedly and muttered: "I haven't found a lawyer yet, so I don't know how long I will be sentenced."

After returning, Elaine did not dare to say that she might be released soon.

Because once they knew she was going to be let go, they would definitely do everything possible to torture themselves severely before they left.

So Elaine decided to forbear, until the moment the police came to let him go.

The Old Mrs. Willson sneered and said proudly: "I have heard others say that in your case, at least 15 years will be sentenced!"

The Lady Willson said with a long sigh, but she said with excitement: "Oh, 15 years, Elaine, 15 days, I can't stand it for 15 years, how will you take it then? I will worry about you when I think about it."

Elaine said nonchalantly: "I don't know ah! Mom! When I thought that I might be locked up in it for more than ten years, my heart was so cool..."

Gena stepped to Elaine at this time, and slapped her right and left, and then looked down at her: "Like you, a bankrupt woman who snatches someone else's husband, don't say you will be detained for more than ten years, even if you are detained for a lifetime. It doesn't reduce the hate. Think about that Meiqing who was forced to the United States by you. Although I don't know her, I haven't even met her, but when I think of what you did to her, I want to do it for her. Bad breath!"

After that, she stretched out her hand to grab Elaine's hair, crackling her face several times.

Elaine's mouth soon shed blood, and at the moment Gena stopped, she did not expect that the Old Mrs. Willson on the side was also waiting to teach her.

Just as Gena stopped, the Old Mrs. Willson suddenly stretched out her hand, tightly grabbing Elaine's ear, and pulling desperately, making Elaine cry out in pain.

Elaine grinned and asked, "Mom, why are you pulling my ears? Did I do something wrong, mom?"

Chapter 920

Old Mrs. Willson coldly snorted: "You still have the face to ask me, what did you do wrong? I tell you, as long as you are alive, as long as you can breathe, it is wrong. Your only correct choice is to die quickly. , Don't waste air in this world!"

Elaine felt that her ears were about to be pulled off, and the pain was so painful, but she didn't dare to have the slightest sense of disobedience, so she could only swallow the bitterness into her stomach, thinking that if she persisted, she could just persist this out!

After she goes out, this bad Lady Willson will also be released in less than ten days. At that time, this bad Lady Willson has no place to live, no place to eat, no place to drink, or she will go to death on the street. There is a chance to find her revenge!

Doesn't this bad Lady Willson feel that she is going to be locked up in it for more than ten years?

She also wanted to take the letter written by her and go to live in her Tomson Villa, which is simply a dream!

She must have never imagined that it would be impossible for her to be detained here for more than ten years, and she will be released soon!

When the prison guards come to let her go, she believes this bad wife will be dumbfounded, dumbfounded, and even very painful, very depressed, and very angry!

Maybe it's possible to die here on the spot.

The Old Mrs. Willson did not expect that Elaine might be released. She only felt that Elaine might stay in jail for the rest of her life.

That's why she has always regarded the letter written by Elaine as a treasure, because with this letter in her hand, she can go to live in the big mansion of Tomson after only waiting for more than ten days from now.

"OMG, Tomson, how dare I think about it before."

After staying in the Tomson First-Class this time, she said nothing would be possible to move away, and she would die in a mansion like Tomson First-Class.

She is more feudal and superstitious. She feels that only by dying in this kind of mansion can she devote herself to a wealthier family and enjoy a lifetime of prosperity.

At this time, the guards in the detention center stepped over.

Only then did Mrs. Willson reluctantly let go of Elaine's ears. Just now, with all her strength, she pulled Elaine's ears so red and swollen, and there was even some tearing and bleeding at the base of the ears.

Elaine's painful tears burst, but when she saw the prison guard, she was almost crazy with excitement.

The prison guard is here, the prison guard is here to let her go!

"I am finally going to be free again!

I can finally return to the big mansion of Tomson, have a full meal, and sleep peacefully!

For more than two days, I didn't eat anything except licking two mouthfuls of porridge on the ground, I didn't sleep well, and I also had a fever. This feeling was simply too painful."

So Elaine can't wait to leave here quickly, leave here forever.

The prison guard strode to the cell, opened the door, and said, "It's time to let the wind out, everyone lined up to the playground!"

"Out for the air?!"

Elaine's heart was extremely excited, and instantly fell to the bottom.

Are the prison guards here to take everyone out? Isn't she ready to let her out? Haven't the police officers discussed whether they want to let her out?

Chapter 921

Although Elaine was desperate in her heart, at the detention center, she knew that she had to listen to the prison guard, so she hurriedly followed everyone out of the cell.

When they arrived at the playground, the prison guard said: "First run three laps around the playground, and then freely move for half an hour. After half an hour, gather at the entrance of the playground and return to the cell!"

Everyone rushed to line up. Gena was the head of the cell, so she arranged the queue. She glanced at Elaine and said: "You stand in the front, everyone behind is staring at you, if you don't run well, I will blow your head!"

Then she turned her head to look at other people and said, "You can help the Lady Willson run slowly, don't exhaust her."

The Old Mrs. Willson smiled and said: "Gena, you are really interested. Although I am old, my body is not bad. I don't need anyone to support me. I just walk slowly behind you."

Gena nodded, and then shouted, "Get ready, run!"

Elaine was at the forefront. Hearing this, she quickly endured the pain in her whole body and the weakness of not eating much for two days and nights, and started to run. Then everyone followed her.

Elaine is very weak, and she was uncomfortable as if she was about to fall apart, so after two steps, her legs were soft, one staggered and almost fell.

The woman behind her kicked her directly on the waist and cursed: "Sorry women who rob someone else's husband, who run crookedly every step of the way, what else can you do?"

Another woman laughed and said, "This sorrowful woman can also grab someone else's husband. Although she can't run, she will run to someone else's bed!"

Everyone burst into laughter, Elaine could only endure the humiliation deep in her heart, gritted her teeth and ran forward.

At this moment, Elaine saw three fierce women standing on the runway in the corner of the playground, staring in his direction as if looking at her.

As soon as she ran past the three women, one of the women stretched out a hand and grabbed her shoulder.

Elaine was caught, and the whole team stopped. Gena came up and asked, "What are the three of you doing?"

These three women are fierce and vicious. The person who just stretched out her hand to hold Elaine had a scar on her face from the corner of her left eye to her right chin. This scar split her face in half. , Looks extremely scary.

Although Gena is the king and has total hegemony in her cell, in the final analysis she is nothing more than an ordinary peasant woman. Let her beat Elaine, she dares to beat, but she must not dare to let her attack someone with a knife.

So when she saw that there was a scar on the other's face, she knew that this woman was absolutely extraordinary, she was an existence she couldn't afford.

The scar woman said, "I'm looking for a person named Elaine, is it your cell? Which one is her?"

When Elaine heard that she was looking for her, she was frightened and distraught, waved her hands again and again: "I don't know, I have never heard of a person called Elaine..."

The Old Mrs. Willson pointed to Elaine, and said, "Don't listen to this shameless woman being talking nonsense here, she is Elaine!"

Wendy also said: "Yes, it is her! She is Elaine! She is still a scammer!"

The Scar Woman turned her head to look at Elaine, and slapped Elaine's face severely.

At first glance, this scar woman had practiced, and she had muscles all over her body, so her slap was much stronger than Gena's and others.

This slapped Elaine directly to the ground.

Elaine was directly slapped by the slap, and fell to the ground with a bang, and then spit out a posterior molar, which was really miserable.

Chapter 922

Everyone felt timid when they saw the scar woman being so cruel, but the Old Mrs. Willson was very happy, anyway, as long as she saw Elaine being beaten, she felt very happy.

Wendy also felt that this was really hateful. After seeing Elaine suffered so many beatings, she didn't have the energy to slap her. A slap directly knocked her to the ground. This is the power that ordinary people can't have.

Elaine was scared to death!

Being beaten is not a big problem for her, because she has not been beaten less in the past two days, and she has already practiced.

But the key is that she doesn't know why this scar woman hit her.

Is she a member of that transnational fraud group, came to ask herself to settle accounts?

Just when Elaine was terrified, Gena said to the scared woman with a face: "Eldest sister, we are not familiar with this woman. If you want to beat her, you can beat her. It doesn't matter if you kill her, but We still have to run, do you think we can keep running?"

The Scar Woman snorted coldly and said, "I don't care if anyone waits, get out of me! Otherwise, don't blame me for being polite!"

Gena hurriedly waved and shouted: "Sisters, come and run with me, 121, 121!"

People in the same cell hurriedly followed her and yelled chants. People in the 20s yelled 121 and hurried away.

Only the three women and Elaine remained at the scene.

Elaine was so frightened that she blurted out and asked, "Sister, where did I provoke you? At least tell me..."

Scar woman kicked Elaine's belly, and she was clutching her belly and wailing on the ground.

Then, she took out a black bank card from her pocket and asked, "Elaine, you look up, do you recognize this card?"

As soon as Elaine looked up, her heart was shocked, this card is so special, how could she not recognize it, it is exactly the same as the card stolen from Charlie!

These three people are indeed from the fraud gang? !

In the morning, didn't the police still tell her that they didn't find a clue? Why are three accomplices caught now?

These three women even knew that they were 80% here to settle their accounts, and it is possible that they caused them to go to jail.

It's over now, they won't get angry and kill her?

He was obviously going to be released soon. Wouldn't it be too miserable if someone killed him at this time?

So, she said with tears and nose bleeding: "I really don't recognize this bank card, did you recognize the wrong person?"

"Admit it? Are you f*cking kidding me?"

The Scar Woman grabbed Elaine's hair, slapped her face with a slap, and said, "Do you know why the three of us came in? It's because of you, a woman, attracted the police and killed the three of us. Being arrested, let me tell you, the three of us are likely to be sentenced to life imprisonment, and this is all your doing!"

Elaine cried out, "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry, I am also a victim, I don't know that there are so many things behind that card..."

Scar woman looked at her and shouted angrily at the two people around her: "d*mn, give me a hard hit, and beat her half to death! Anyway, she will be locked in for more than ten or twenty years, and we will do it every day. Beat her twice to relieve our anger, when will she be killed, and then will it be finished!"

Chapter 923

When the other two women heard this, they rushed forward, and the three of them punched and kicked Elaine together.

The fists and big feet greeted Elaine frantically, as if she didn't want money, and Elaine kept calling out.

In fact, these three people were sent by Issac to teach Elaine, in order to convince Elaine that she was in great trouble.

In this way, after she was released, she wouldn't dare to fall out with Charlie.

At this time, Elaine was beaten and rolled back and forth on the ground, screaming and begging for mercy endlessly.

The others were still running, but when they heard this scream, they stopped and observed at them from a distance, all in shock.

Although Gena also beat Elaine, she was not as cruel as the three of them. It was almost as if beaten to death...

It can be seen that these three people must not be ordinary people.

"Oh, it's so miserable, so miserable!" Gena couldn't help sighing: "This Elaine, it's really a thumping woman...I sympathize with her a little bit..."

And the Old Mrs. Willson saw that Elaine was beaten so badly, she immediately laughed on the side, and laughed loudly: "It's great, beat this shrew to death, beat her so hard that she can't speak with her broken mouth!"

Wendy also clapped vigorously and smiled: "Hit! Hit it hard! Pump her face! Smash her broken face!"

At this time, the scar woman saw that Elaine was almost beaten, and then she said: "Okay, leave this dog, or if she is killed now, who will be beaten for the next 20 years. Why are you venting?"

The two stopped now.

Elaine's nose and face were swollen, and she fell to the ground and kept screaming, feeling that she had only one breath left.

Scar woman walked up to her and said coldly: "I tell you, your good days are still early, this is the end of your low hands, wait, I will let you not survive, but you cannot die!"

Elaine burst into tears with fright.

The suffering that Charlie's premium card brought to her was even more tragic than the nine-nine-nine-eighty-one difficulties that Thompson Seng took from the scriptures.

From the time she stole that card to the present, besides being beaten, nothing else has happened. She was hungry after she was beaten, she was frozen when she was hungry, she was poured with cold water, and poured in cold water when she was completely frozen, and slept in the toilet...

This is simply a scene of human tragedy.

When the scar woman saw Elaine lying on the ground and crying, she kicked her and snorted coldly: "Cry again, cry again and I will break your teeth!"

Elaine closed her mouth immediately. She didn't dare to make a half-word or a little sound. She had already lost two front teeth and one posterior molar. At this time, if her mouth was broken again, she would have to spend the rest of her life. How to live!

Seeing that she didn't dare to make any more noises, the scar woman sneered: "Okay, get out of here."

Elaine was relieved. Although the beaten couldn't stand up, she still clung to the distance with her hands, trying to stay away from the three women.

After Elaine was beaten, the three women also turned and left. At this moment, two prison guards suddenly appeared, greeted Gena to come, and drove Elaine back to the cell.

Although Gena hates Elaine very much, seeing Elaine being beaten like this, she also has a hint of compassion in her heart.

As a result, she was physically strong, she helped her up and led her to the cell.

Others followed behind, each with their own thoughts.

Some people sympathized with her, some watched a good show, and some had lingering fears.

When Elaine was dragged back to the cell, Charlie received a call from Issac at home.

On the phone, Issac said, "Mr. Wade I have sent someone to teach Elaine. I believe that after she comes out, she will definitely not dare to say one more word to you."

Charlie said lightly: "Well, you did a good job."

Issac said: "Mr. Wade please forgive me. I think that your mother-in-law has done too much. She stole so much money from you. In fact, it is better to hand her over to the law. At least give her a suspended death sentence. Why bother by releasing her?"

Charlie gave a wry smile: "You don't understand, my mother-in-law is a ticket."

Issac hurriedly asked: "Tickets? Mr. Wade what do you mean by this?"

Charlie couldn't tell him directly that his mother-in-law Elaine was actually his ticket to the wife's bed, so he said indifferently: "Okay, don't ask so much, go make arrangements, it's almost time to let her go. "

"Okay!" Issac nodded immediately: "I'll make arrangements!"

.....

At this moment, Elaine was lying on her little bed, howling.

This was the reason why she came to the guard, and was able to lie down on the bed for the first time.

Thanks to Gena's pity for her, she felt it was too miserable for her to be beaten by thousands of people, so after taking her back, she put her directly on her bed.

The Old Mrs. Willson walked into the room at this time, looked at Elaine on the bed, and said with a sneer: "Oh Elaine, you have offended so many people, why would anyone want to beat you twice? I see you The days from now on are really hard to get through!"

Elaine was about to collapse at this time, she even wondered, are the policemen not going to let her go out? If that is the case, then she will be too miserable in the future.

To be beaten in the cell, and beaten out of the cell, how many beatings does she have to get on this day?

Wendy also echoed: "Grandma, I think this b*tch woman may not live for more than ten or twenty years. According to this style of play, it is estimated that in two or three months, she will have to be beaten to death?"

Old Mrs. Willson laughed and said: "Oh, she deserves it, she really deserves it!"

After finishing speaking, she sat in front of Elaine, looked at her with a swollen nose and lips, and said excitedly: "Haha, Elaine, you probably never dreamed that you would have today? It's fine now, you will be here in the future. Suffer well in this prison. After a few days of going out with Wendy, we will go to Tomson to enjoy the good fortune!"

Elaine was aggrieved and said: "Even if you are going to live in the Tomson first-class, there is no need to curse me to death, right? I am also the daughter-in-law of the Willson family, the wife of your son, and the mother of your granddaughter. How can you be so cruel?!"

The Old Mrs. Willson sneered: "Of course I am cruel to you! Besides, I have never regarded you as the daughter-in-law of my Willson family. How do you deserve to be the daughter-in-law of our Willson family? After the first rank of the minister, let my son change to a new daughter-in-law. When the time comes, our family will be happy, it is really family happiness! You just wait for moldy and smelly in this prison!"

When Elaine heard this, she was almost furious!

"how? Do you want Jacob to change his wife? Enjoy family happiness with you?"

Your bad old woman is just a pipe dream!

You wait! I will definitely go out! At that time, let's see how I turn to see you jokes!"

Elaine was thinking fiercely in her heart, when the prison guard suddenly opened the door and said: "Elaine, you have been released, come out with me to pack your things and go through the formalities so that your family can pick you up! "

Chapter 925

The words made the whole cell stunned!

Old Mrs. Willson and Wendy couldn't believe their ears!

Why?

Didn't Elaine committed fraud?

Doesn't it mean that she will be imprisoned for at least 10 years, 20 years, or even longer?

Why let her go now? !

Now let her go, how can she live in Tomson after going out in ten days?

The Old Mrs. Willson panicked!

At this moment, when Elaine, who had been seen half dead, immediately jumped out of bed with excitement when she heard this!

The pain of being beaten up just now was completely incomprehensible, as if being driven out of the sky by this sentence at this moment.

Thankfully, she can finally go out!

Elaine excitedly danced and cheered: "Haha, great, Lady Willson is finally going to let go, hahaha, great, great, really great, I am going back to live in my Tomson Villa !"

After finishing speaking, she immediately looked at Mrs. Willson and cursed coldly: "Hahaha, bad Lady Willson, you never dream that I would not be released, hahaha!"

"And Wendy, you two poor, just stay in jail! Cherish your days in jail. Once you are released, you will not even have a place to live. You will have to Fall to the streets!"

"Just like you two are so poor, you still want to live in the first grade of Tomson, yeah, after they let you go, go and open your ancestral grave! See who of your eighth generation ancestors is worthy of the first grade of Tomson? Let alone you two paupers!"

Old Mrs. Willson was trembling with anger, and at this moment, she wished to tear Elaine alive.

She even regretted not encouraging Gena to kill Elaine directly.

Now this b*tch woman is about to be released suddenly, this is nothing short of eyes!

Wendy scolded angrily: "You shrew, don't be too happy too early, maybe the court is about to hear you, and you will be sentenced to life imprisonment after you are tried! Don't even want to go out in this life!"

Elaine suddenly cursed and shouted: "*fck your mother's a, I have already washed away the grievances, I will be released, I will regain the freedom, you homeless homeless people, please hurry up!"

After finishing speaking, Elaine looked at Gena again and gritted her teeth and cursed: "Gena, an ugly fat pig from the countryside, dare to beat me and let me kneel on the ground to lick the porridge. I tell you, you will wait for me. Now, when you get out, I will find someone to kill you b@stard, aren't you the most filial one? Wait, when I find out where your mother is buried, I will take your mother's grave away and lay her ashes fly!"

Gena was trembling with anger, and was about to fight her desperately on the spot.

Just about to start, she heard the prison guard yell from behind: "Elaine, are you going to leave?"

Elaine hurriedly said: "I am coming, I don't want to stay here for a minute."

The prison guard said in a cold voice, "Then hurry up and pack things."

Because the prison guards were there, the others wanted to beat Elaine, but they didn't dare to do it, they could only hate it.

Gena hates her the most because she hates her mother who is abused by others. This Elaine dares to say that she is going to spread her mother's ashes. It's a crime!

Chapter 926

Elaine was completely confident at this time. While packing her own things, she said coldly to the people around: "By the way, there are a few of you who have beaten me, don't even want to run! I tell you, I am here. The outside forces are very powerful. Starting today, I will wait for you when I go out. I will fight one by one, and let you pay for bullying me again!"

Elaine counted them down one by one, turning the expressions of everyone in the cell blue and angry.

After scolding these people, Elaine could be regarded as letting out a sigh of relief.

At this time, she had finished packing her things, and was about to leave with the prison guard, when she suddenly felt a urge to pee.

She muttered to herself: "d*mn, why do I have urine at this time..."

As she said, she whispered again: "No! This cell is too bad, and the urine taken from here must also be particularly bad, and I must leave after the spread!"

Thinking of this, she sneered at Mrs. Willson and Gena, and said contemptuously: "I happened to have a pee, so I will leave it to you guys!"

After speaking, Elaine hummed a song, twisted her waist, and walked into the toilet.

Outside, a group of people were silent, and Elaine gasped for breath.

Old Mrs. Willson clutched her chest, she looked like she was mad, and she said: "I'm so angry, I'm really angry! It must be my unfilial son who came to bail her!"

Gena asked in an interface: "Your son bailed her? This is not what a b@stard is!"

The Old Mrs. Willson cried and said, "My son is also a useless man. He was taken care of by this shrew. They just don't want me to live. They just tried every means to toss me away..."

After that, Mrs. Willson deliberately instigated her and said to Gena: "Gena, this woman is very vicious. She said she wants to pick up your mother's grave. I think she will definitely do something like this. She has to be sorry!"

When Gena heard this, she immediately felt a puff of blood rushing to the top of her head, making her tremble all over.

She gritted her teeth, stood up directly, and immediately rushed into the toilet!

This is her last chance to teach Elaine, if she doesn't seize it, then this b*tch will really leave.

When the Old Mrs. Willson saw her rushing into the bathroom furiously, she immediately followed in tremblingly.

Wendy, and several others who were scolded by Elaine, also immediately followed!

When Elaine was about to relieve her hand, she suddenly heard the toilet door slammed and kicked open. Then, facing Gena's big foot, she kicked her and sat down in the toilet.

Her legs stuck on the edge of the urinal, her a sank in, painful, and she couldn't stand up after getting stuck.

When Gena thought that Elaine was going to pick up her mother's grave and also lift up her mother's ashes, Gena grinned with hatred, and said to others: "Beat her hard! Kill her! Let her be a stinky girl. She pretend to be forced!"

A group of people immediately hit Elaine on the head and body.

Elaine was caught off guard, yelling and raising her hands, trying to block the opponent's fists and feet, but it was in vain.

At this time, Wendy's eyes flashed with cold light. She had long wanted to beat Elaine, but she had never had a chance!

Seeing that everyone in front was greeting Elaine's upper body, and Elaine was tall with two legs up, Wendy immediately stepped forward, held Elaine on one leg, and winked at the Old Mrs. Willson, saying, "Grandma, let's just Smash this b*tch's leg to her! Otherwise, there will be no chance again!"

"OK!" Old Mrs. Willson nodded with gritted teeth!

Chapter 927

The Old Mrs. Willson saw that her dream of living in Tomson's first-tier future was broken again, and she hated Elaine to death.

Moreover, Elaine dared to be so arrogant in front of her just now, and spoke so excessively, which made the Lady Willson feel resentful.

For Mrs. Willson, the last thing she wants to see is Elaine's escape from the sea of suffering, but now Elaine is going to be let go? !

If Elaine is released, then this is the last chance to teach her! Once missed, there may be no chance in the future!

So the Lady Willson, regardless of her old age and health, raised her leg and slammed her foot on Elaine's knee.

With a click, Elaine suddenly let out a terrible scream.

She felt severe pain in her leg, it must be a broken leg!

Old Mrs. Willson succeeded in one blow and was excited, but she did not expect that her body movements were too great, and one of them couldn't stand firmly and slipped to the ground.

This fall directly hit her tailbone, and the pain caused her to scream "Oh, oh,".

But Elaine was obviously more miserable. Seeing her right knee, she folded an arc in the opposite direction, and her pain was so painful that she could only scream incessantly, "Ah...my leg! I have broken my leg!"

The prison guard heard the movement inside and shouted outside: "What's the matter? What are you doing inside?"

When everyone heard this, they hurriedly stopped and stood aside.

Gena took a look, and then smiled deliberately: "Ken, this b*tch is dripping badly. She is about to go out. She wants to kick the Lady Willson. She didn't expect to break her leg. She deserves it!"

After speaking, she hurriedly helped the Old Mrs. Willson and went out of the toilet.

Elaine cried loudly: "Guard, come and save me, my leg is broken!"

The prison guard had already arrived at the door of the toilet. As soon as he came in, she saw Elaine's tragic situation, frowned and asked everyone, "What are you doing?"

Gena stood up and said, "I don't know. Just now the Lady Willson came in to go to the bathroom. She tried to kick old lady, but she slipped and fell like this."

Old Mrs. Willson also endured the pain, and said: "This astupidl kicked me, and my tail vertebra is broken. It hurts me to death..."

Elaine cried loudly: "You bullsh*t, you b@stards hit me and broke my leg!"

Gena sneered and said, "Do you have any evidence? We, more than 20 people, have seen you kicking the Lady Willson. You still want to make a sophistry?"

Elaine pointed at the crowd and cried out, "You were the one who beat me! You collectively broke my leg!"

The prison guard frowned. It is impossible for a normal person to go to the toilet for no reason and her leg broke.

So Elaine broke her leg, it was obviously beaten by these people in the cell.

But if one person does it alone, she can still handle it, and if all of them do it, there is really no way at all.

Firstly, it is impossible for all members to deal with it. Secondly, it may be very troublesome to ask these people to confess who is fighting. It requires constant isolation and brings these people out one by one for interrogation.

Thinking of this, she began to speak: "After doing Elaine, if you continue to make trouble like this, you won't be able to leave today. If you want to investigate and deal with it again, you will have to wait a long time at least."

Chapter 928

Elaine cried and said, "Then you can't let them break my leg in vain, right?"

The prison guard said indifferently: "If you want to report them, I'll go through the normal process and let the police come for interrogation. But in that case, you may also need to go to the police station. You have to record your confession, and I have to say something. To be honest, you are alone, they are more than 20 people, they may not admit what you say, if they bite you back then and insist that you hurt the Lady Willson, then you are shooting yourself in the foot."

When Elaine heard this, she suddenly became desperate.

She also knows that these female prisoners are not good people, and they are very united under Gena's leadership, not to mention that she has provoked public anger. If she makes this matter to the police, it is very likely that they will turn out to be them bite her together.

In that case, it would be more troublesome for her.

It's better to go out as soon as possible. The sooner she goes out, the better!

Thinking of this, Elaine nodded angrily, and said, "I want to go out, I want to go out now!"

The guard nodded, helped Elaine walked out of the bathroom, and then led her out of the cell.

The moment she left the cell, Elaine turned back and said to the Old Mrs. Willson: "Dead Lady, wait for me. Sooner or later, I will break both of your legs!"

Old Mrs. Willson said coldly: "You b*tch, you won't die sooner or later!"

Elaine ignored the Lady Willson and looked at Gena again, and said sharply: "Gena, you dog and woman, wait for me. Your mother's grave will definitely not be kept!"

Gena yelled angrily: "Dare you, I must kill you."

Elaine limped out with the support of the prison guards, turning around and cursing: "Look at me, dare you, wait. When you come out, take a look at your mother's grave and see you. Has Mom's ashes been raised by me!"

After speaking, without looking back, she followed the prison guard out of the cell in the detention center.

Elaine came to the office area of the detention center, and the prison guards led her into an office. There were already two police officers sitting in this office, the two who were in charge of her case.

When the two police officers saw her being supported by the prison guards, they jumped in, and they were suddenly dumbfounded.

The guard said to the two of them: "She had a conflict with a cellmate in the same cell just now in the bathroom, and her leg is hurt."

Elaine said angrily, "Is it hurt? My leg is broken, OK, haven't you seen it?"

The prison guard asked in a cold voice, "What I told you just now, you are all deaf to your ears, right? Do you want to call everyone out now, and then transfer you to the Public Security Bureau for a good trial. I'll tell you, don't judge you. For three to five days, don't even think of it!"

One of the police officers said, "Elaine, you can go home now and it's very good. As for the injury on your leg, you can wait until you go out and go to the hospital for treatment. You can keep it for three to five months. ."

Elaine nodded angrily and asked, "Comrade police officer, when can I be released?"

The police officer said, "Did you remember everything we told you before?"

Elaine hurriedly said: "Don't worry, I remember it clearly, and I won't say a word to anyone after I go out and kill me!"

When Elaine was let out in the afternoon, she was beaten and threatened by the three fierce women. She was so frightened that she was deeply aware of the huge danger behind this incident.

So now she can't hide, how can she dare to mention it again?

The police officer was satisfied, and returned Elaine's cell phone to her and said, "Okay, you will call your son-in-law now and let him pick you up."

Chapter 929

After Elaine picked up her mobile phone, she couldn't wait to turn it on.

Since calling in, she has never been able to touch her phone again, nor can she contact her husband and daughter.

Suddenly taking back the phone, Elaine suddenly felt a strong grievance.

Husband and daughter certainly didn't know that she had suffered so much inhuman torture in the past two days.

But this kind of thing, she just can't tell them.

Because once she uttered a word, she might be murdered, or she might be caught by the police again and put in jail.

After the phone was turned on, Elaine could receive countless messages on WeChat. She clicked on it and found that basically every message came from her daughter Claire.

Seeing that her daughter was always worried about herself and kept sending her various messages, Elaine felt very comforted.

But she couldn't help but think of another thing.

Why didn't husband send a WeChat?

She has been missing for two days, is he not worried at all

Thinking of this, Elaine was quite dissatisfied, and she couldn't help but wonder: I didn't expect Jacob, an old thing to be so affectionate, that I had been missing for so long, he didn't even have a WeChat! Be sure to settle accounts with him afterwards!

At this time, the police officer said: "Don't play WeChat there anymore. Call your son-in-law quickly."

Elaine hurriedly asked: "Comrade Constable, can I stop my son-in-law from picking me up? I am so annoyed to die when I think of this man. I hate him to my teeth. Can I let my daughter pick me up?"

The police officer slapped the table and shouted coldly: "The reason why we let you find your son-in-law to pick you up is because we want to confirm whether the criminals are looking at your son-in-law now, otherwise, if we rashly put you back, you are very likely to be targeted by others, maybe you will be killed tonight. In that case, don't blame me for not reminding you!"

As soon as Elaine heard this, her liver trembled with fright, and she hurriedly said: "That's fine, I'll call my son-in-law now, comrade police, please make sure to see if the criminals are looking at him."

The police officer nodded and said coldly: "Don't worry, as long as you do as we say, we will naturally investigate."

Elaine breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Then I'll call him now!"

The police officer asked her again: "Do you know how to tell him?"

"Know!" Elaine forced the pain in her leg and said honestly: "I tell him that I was cheated by a MLM organization, and then I was caught by the police. Now I am relieved of my grievances and can finally go home."

The policeman hummed, waved his hand and said, "Okay, let's call now."

At this moment, Charlie was waiting for Elaine's call at home.

Suddenly the phone on the table rang. He hurriedly picked up the phone and realized that it was indeed his mother-in-law who was calling, so he pressed the answer button.

"Mom?! Where are you? We are going crazy looking for you these past two days!"

Charlie started acting as soon as he spoke.

Elaine hated him crazy in her heart, but she couldn't say it directly, so she could only say in a cold voice: "I'm in the city detention center right now, please drive to pick me up!"

Charlie said: "Mom, the car at home has been driven away, I'll take a taxi to pick you up."

Elaine asked angrily: "Are both cars driven away?"

Charlie gave a hum and said, "Claire has gone to the company, and Dad has gone to the party."

Chapter 930

"Party?!" Elaine asked, "That d*mn Jacob is still in the mood to party? Whom did he go to party with?"

Charlie said: "Talk to some old classmates. I'm not very clear about the details. Should I call him?"

Elaine said angrily: "You come to pick me up first! I am injured now and must go to the hospital!"

Charlie asked, "Mom, what hurt you? Is it serious?"

Elaine said angrily: "My leg is broken! You are so much nonsense, get out here!"

Charlie said: "Okay, then I will pass now."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie immediately went out, stopped a taxi, and went to Aurous Hill Detention Center.

On the way to the detention center, he called Claire and said to her: "Wife, Mom called me, and I'm going to pick her up now."

When Claire heard this, she blurted out excitedly and asked, "Really? Did Mom call you? Where is she? Is she okay?!"

Charlie said: "Mom said she was in the Aurous Hill Detention Center. As for the reason, I asked her. She said that she was deceived into a pyramid scheme two days ago and was arrested by the police again, so she was locked in. She is released after being free of suspicion."

Claire suddenly realized!

She suspected that her mother was cheated away by pyramid schemes, but she didn't expect her to be caught by the police!

It seems that after mom comes home, she must tell her well, and never trust people outside who can make her rich overnight.

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said: "Then I will come over now, we will see her in the detention center."

Charlie hurriedly said, "My wife, don't come here. Mom told me on the phone that she was injured. After I picked her up, I would take her to the hospital immediately. Then we can see you at the hospital!"

Claire asked nervously, "What's the matter? Where did Mom get hurt? Is it serious?"

Charlie said: "Mom said on the phone that her leg was broken, but I don't know whether it's serious or not. We have to see the doctor to find out."

Claire burst into tears all of a sudden, and said, "Then you will come directly to the emergency department of the People's Hospital after picking up mother. I will go there now!"

.....

When Charlie came to the detention center and saw Elaine, Elaine was already tortured.

She had a bruised nose and swollen face, her body was wounded, her front teeth had lost two, and her hair was ripped apart and some of her scalp had been exposed.

And Elaine came in for the past two days, almost as if she didn't eat or drink, so the whole person has two avatars, originally quite rich, now it is a bit horrible.

What's worse is Elaine's right leg, which has broken from the knee at this time, and can only hang at this strange angle. It seems that she has been tortured quite miserably.

Charlie asked in surprise, "Mom, what's wrong with you? Why do you suffer so many injuries?"

"You want to take care of it!" Elaine gritted her teeth and said, "Hurry up and take me to the hospital!"

Charlie shrugged and said, "Okay, the taxi is waiting outside. I'll take you to the hospital."

The police officer looked at Elaine and said coldly: "Elaine! What did we tell you just now? If you still have this attitude, then don't go out and just stay inside!"

As soon as Elaine heard this, she was so frightened that she blurted out to Charlie, "Oh my good son-in-law, it was all bad for mom just now. Mom shouldn't yell at you..."

The police officer observed at Elaine and warned: "Don't forget what I told you. We are only letting you out temporarily, but we will always observe you, understand?"

Chapter 931

Seeing Charlie, Elaine's heart was full of hatred.

Although she had believed the police's statement, she believed that Charlie was also a tool in the eyes of those transnational criminals, instead of keeping a fake bank card deliberately.

However, all of her disasters started from his card after all. If it weren't for his card, she wouldn't suffer these grievances, so she naturally regarded Charlie as the biggest culprit.

Because of this, she saw Charlie now, naturally it was impossible to show him any good expressions.

But suddenly she was yelled at by the police officer, which shocked her.

The thought that she might be observed at by the police all the time in the future, Elaine felt very uncomfortable.

But she has nothing to do, who gets involved in such a huge vortex.

As a result, she could only hold back the hatred deep in her heart towards Charlie and calm down.

Seeing that she was honest, the police officer said to Charlie, "You are her son-in-law, right?"

Charlie nodded and said: "I am."

The police officer simply said: "Okay, then you come over and sign a document with me to prove that you have taken the person away."

Charlie followed the police officer to sign a document, and then asked him: "Can I go now?"

Then he nodded and said: "Okay, you can go."

So Charlie said to his mother-in-law, "Mom, let's go, I'll take you to the hospital."

Elaine gritted her teeth angrily, but didn't dare to say anything cruel, so she could only act in front of the police officer and said, "Oh, my good son-in-law, you give me a hand, otherwise my leg can't move."

Charlie walked to her, resisted the stench on her body, and helped her up.

Elaine's right leg was very painful, and it hurt her heart with a slight movement, but now Elaine is no longer the previous Elaine. The previous Elaine has not suffered any losses, suffered no crimes, and never suffered. She has been bullied by the flesh, but now Elaine, after two days of intensive beatings, already has a fairly strong tolerance.

In her opinion, the pain of a broken leg was nothing short of a drizzle compared to the pain and torture in the detention center.

She couldn't help but think of Zheng Zhihua's song. He said that this pain in the wind and rain is nothing...

As long as she can get rid of the nightmare of the detention center, even if she break two legs, as long as she can go out, it is worth it.

Charlie helped his mother-in-law out of the detention center. An old Jetta taxi at the door had been waiting here. It was the taxi he had taken when he came. So he said to Elaine, "Mom, let's get in the car."

Elaine was extremely depressed when she saw this broken taxi!

She has suffered so many crimes and finally came out. She must leave in a good car to say the least, right?

No matter what, he must have drove husband's BMW 530 over!

The results of it? BMW didn't see it, and even now she will havet to sit in a broken rental!

Elaine was extremely angry, wanting to scold Jacob, and even more to scold Charlie.

But the most uncomfortable thing was that although she was very angry in her heart, she couldn't go crazy with Charlie.

She didn't dare to go crazy with Charlie because of the bank card, nor could she go crazy with Charlie because of the taxi.

She can only hold the anger in her heart, and her discomfort is almost exploding.

Afterwards, Elaine was depressed and got into the dilapidated taxi with Charlie's support.

After getting on, Charlie said to the taxi driver: "Master, go to the emergency department of the People's Hospital."

Chapter 932

The driver hurriedly drove taxi to the People's Hospital.

Sitting in the co-pilot, Charlie said to Elaine, "Mom, I have already called Claire. She has already rushed to the People's Hospital."

Elaine snorted bitterly, then turned her face out of the window angrily, and said in a strange way: "It's really useless to have a son-in-law like you, you will only cause me trouble!"

Charlie deliberately asked: "Mom, what do you mean by this? When did I cause you trouble again?"

Elaine glared at him through the rearview mirror, and said coldly, "Don't ask! Think about it for yourself, I won't say anything if you ask!"

Elaine has been warned by the police many times, and now she doesn't dare to be mad at Charlie directly, and can only use this obscure way to get angry.

Charlie naturally knew what he thought of this wonderful mother-in-law, so he deliberately said: "Excuse me, I really can't think of what trouble I caused you."

Elaine's chest was up and down with anger, and the words that yelled at Charlie several times had reached her lips, but in the end she could only endure it, the feeling was like a throat hook.

So she could not think about it for a while, forced herself to bring the topic to Jacob, and asked, "Who did your dad have a party with? When did he go?"

Charlie said: "He went in the morning, but I don't know who is there, because I didn't ask him."

Charlie knew very well that if his mother-in-law knew that his father-in-law had gone to a party with his first love and the classmates, she would be so angry that the taxi would be smashed.

So he simply pretended to be stupid and asked her to ask the Old Master directly at that time, but he didn't want to wade in the muddy water between the two of them.

Elaine was very angry and cursed: "Didn't they just get together some time ago? Why did they get together again? It seems that during the two days I was in the detention center, his life is very chic!"

After speaking, Elaine immediately took out her mobile phone and called Jacob.

At this moment, Jacob was in the Brilliant club, having fun with Meiqing and a group of old classmates.

And Jacob himself was in a good mood, because no one of his old classmates, including Xie Wenru, dared to mock him anymore.

Looking at Charlie's face, Boyu personally served Jacob and his classmates. This face is really rare in Aurous Hill.

So the old classmates of Jacob couldn't help but admire him.

Everyone had a hearty lunch in the clubhouse, because everyone was still in the mood, so Meiqing asked for a box in the brilliant clubhouse, and everyone started singing.

The KTV environment of the Brilliant Clubhouse can be said to be the best in the whole Aurous Hill. Dozens of old classmates are not crowded in it. On the contrary, it is very spacious. The decoration inside is naturally luxurious and the facilities are advanced and comfortable.

But the only bad thing is that there are too many people at the party. Everyone clicks a lot of songs at once, so it takes a long time to sing in line.

Jacob specifically ordered a song by his beloved, and finally waited for his own song for more than half an hour, so he picked up the microphone, and then handed the other microphone to Meiqing, and said diligently: "Meiqing, this Let's sing the song together."

My confidant lover is originally a duet love song, and in the eyes of the older generation, this song is still very famous.

Moreover, the two singers who sang this song are also a couple in real life, so they add a bit of sweetness to this song.

When the old classmates watched Jacob clicked this song, and even specially invited Meiqing to sing with him, they couldn't help but scream.

Someone said: "Oh, Jacob, you deliberately clicked on such a song and invited our beautiful lady to sing it together. What is your intention?"

Others said: "Hey, don't you understand his thoughts? It must be his heart that everyone knows."

Some people even flattered Jacob and said, "Oh, Jacob and Meiqing should have been a couple. They haven't seen each other for more than 20 years. Singing such a song together is really just right!"

Jacob was completely overwhelmed with joy when he heard this.

At this moment, he had no idea that his nightmare was about to come!

Chapter 933

Although Meiqing blushed a little at this time, she accepted the microphone openly and smiled and said, "Don't get me wrong, don't you just sing a song together? If someone else is willing to sing with me, neither will I Opine."

Xie Wenru felt a little upset in his heart. He felt that, Jacob, was also a married person. How could he openly invite the goddess to sing this kind of love song?

But when he thought that Jacob's son-in-law could make Boyu take it so seriously, he swallowed it again when it reached his lips.

Jacob always had an excited smile on his face, and couldn't help but secretly look at Meiqing, his heart was already surging.

Meiqing accidentally caught a glimpse of Jacob. Seeing his unconcealed obsession with herself in his eyes, she couldn't help but blush.

At this time, the prelude to the song has started.

Meiqing took the microphone and observed at the screen intently.

Just after the prelude, Meiqing took the lead in singing the female part.

"Let my love be with you forever..."

"Do you feel that, I am worried for you."

Meiqing's singing voice is very nice, and to these old men, it is like the sound of nature, making them intoxicated.

Jacob even got goosebumps all over his body. He felt that even if Meiqing's voice was compared with that of a professional singer, it was not so much.

The students were also thunderous with applause.

Meiqing had finished singing her female part at this time, and then it was time for Jacob to sing his part.

Just as Jacob picked up the microphone and prepared to sing affectionately, his mobile phone on the KTV coffee table suddenly shook.

He looked down subconsciously, and was shocked by the words on the phone screen.

The person's name displayed on the phone is "wife" ...

what the h*ll? !

Jacob's mood collapsed instantly!

Elaine has been missing for two days and two nights, but the phone has been turned off and cannot get through. Why is she calling him now?

Could it be...

Is this dominatrix back?

In the next second, Jacob affirmed his guess in his heart.

Elaine's mobile phone was said to have been turned off for the first two days, and now she called him suddenly, that means she must have been back...

Jacob was suddenly panicked!

Elaine is back, what can I do?

Isn't my good life coming to an end?

At this time, the phone is still shaking on the desktop, and the part that he should sing is already gone.

The classmates booed for a while and said, "Jacob, are you too nervous to sing with Meiqing? You don't know if it's your turn to sing?"

Meiqing couldn't help asking: "Jacob, why don't you sing your part?"

Jacob wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and looked at the phone again. He knew that with Elaine's personality, if he didn't answer her phone, she would definitely be mad.

Chapter 934

So he said in a panic: "Sorry, sorry, I'll answer the phone first, and come back to sing again later!"

After speaking, he hurriedly picked up the phone and quickly got out of the box.

When Xie Wenru saw this, she immediately picked up the microphone he left behind and said with a smile: "Come Meiqing, I will sing with you!"

Jacob took his mobile phone out of the box, and then hurriedly pressed the answer button.

As soon as the call was connected, Elaine's iconic roar came over: "Jacob, are you going to die? I have been missing for two days and two nights. I didn't have a phone call or a WeChat message from you, so you went to a f*cking party?!"

As soon as Jacob heard this, he suddenly slammed in his heart, and his originally passionate heart instantly became extremely cold.

It's over, this stinky lady is really back!

God is too unfair to him, his good days have just passed two days! He just started to party and sing with Meiqing. Without any substantial development, this stinky lady is back?!

Isn't this taking his life?

He was so depressed that he almost wanted to die, but Elaine on the other end of the phone asked angrily: "Jacob of the dog day, are you dumb? Why are you not talking?"

Jacob hurriedly explained: "Oh, my wife, don't be angry with your husband and listen to me. I have been looking for you for these two days. If you don't believe me, you can ask your girl or Charlie. In order to find you, I will talk to Charlie. We searched all the Mahjong halls in Aurous Hill!"

Elaine yelled: "Don't tell me that it's useless, I just want to know who you are partying with, how can I listen to someone singing, are you in KTV? Well, you have no conscience, You were still in the mood to sing when I was unclear about my life and death!"

Jacob explained: "When I meet with some old classmates, they called me over."

Elaine gritted her teeth and cursed: "I tell you Jacob, I have a broken leg and I am about to go to the emergency department of the People's Hospital. You'd better roll over to me immediately, otherwise I will never end with you!"

Jacob was shocked, how dare he say no at this time, and hurriedly said: "OK wife, I will come now!"

After speaking, he hung up the phone and ran back to the box. At this time, his sweetheart, Meiqing, was singing duet to Xie Wenru. He must not be jealous, and hurriedly said to Meiqing, "Meiqing, I have something important to do. I must leave."

Meiqing asked in surprise: "Why are you leaving now? Is something wrong?"

"Nothing happened." Jacob chuckled and said, "It's just a call from home to tell me something. Let me go. I have to go back first!"

Meiqing nodded and asked, "It doesn't matter, do you want me to come and help?"

Jacob hurriedly waved his hand and blurted out: "No need, no, I can go by myself."

Although Meiqing was a bit regretful, she nodded her head very understandingly and said, "Then if you need any help, remember to call me."

"Okay!" Jacob nodded, and hurriedly said to the others: "Everyone, I have to leave a little bit beforehand, you should eat and drink and have fun."

Everyone couldn't help saying: "Jacob, this is just beginning to sing, why would you leave? We haven't heard your singing."

Jacob can only bite the bullet and say, "There is something really urgent this time."

Xie Wenru felt very happy and said, "Oh, Jacob, did Elaine call you to urge you to go back? You didn't bring her to the party. She must be angry?"

Jacob glared at him and said coldly, "Xie Wenru, what's the matter with you? Why are you everywhere?"

After speaking, he reluctantly glanced at Meiqing and turned his head out of the box.

As soon as he got out of the box, Jacob stamped his feet with anger.

What the h*ll is this? How did Elaine come back so soon? Why can't she learn from Horiyah?

Look at Horiyah, there has been no news since she disappeared, and it's just like the world has evaporated. If Elaine could learn from her, it would be great.

Jacob rushed out of the glorious clubhouse, hurriedly drove his BMW to the People's Hospital.

Chapter 935

Also running towards the People's Hospital was Claire, who was full of worries.

She heard that her mother's leg was broken, and she was extremely anxious in her heart. She didn't know what happened to her mother in the past two days.

Elaine hung up the phone, holding her right leg, aching cold sweat like rain.

While she screamed, she urged the driver in annoyance, and said, "Can you still work with this broken car? Drive so slow! I am hurt, you know?"

The taxi driver said unhurriedly: "City driving is limited in speed. I must strictly follow the speed limit regulations. Speeding will not only deduct points, but also pose a great threat to the safety of pedestrians."

"Threatening your mother!" Elaine was feeling angry. Hearing what she said, she immediately scolded angrily: "Drive faster! It hurts me so much that you can make more money or why? You are so delaying. In case I am disabled, my mother will never end with you in this life!"

The driver said helplessly: "I have driven this car fast enough! If you think I am driving slow, then you can go down and change to another car!"

Elaine didn't even think about it, and blurted out: "What's your attitude? Believe it or not, I will complain about you? Believe it or not, I will make you unemployed today?"

The driver said angrily: "I follow the traffic rules and regulations. What are you complaining about me? Are you complaining about my unwillingness to speed?"

Elaine gritted her teeth and cursed: "I complain that you are indecent and sexually harassed me!"

The driver laughed suddenly, looked at her through the rearview mirror, and said contemptuously: "You look at what you look like, so ugly? Your two front teeth are gloriously laid off, just like the one in the sketch Like Song Dandan, you still have the face to say that I sexually harass you? Don't sexually harass me, I will burn a lot of incense!"

Elaine herself suffocated her stomach. When she heard that the driver dared to talk back to her, even dared to ridicule her ugliness, she suddenly became angry and shouted coldly: "What's your name? Which company do you work for? I'm right now calling to complain, believe it or not?"

When the driver heard this, he immediately became angry and pulled the car over and said disdainfully: "If you want to complain, please complain. If I can't take your order, get out of here!"

Elaine scolded, "Let me go down? How old are you! Drive me quickly, have you not heard? You're delaying my treatment of legs, and I am desperate with you!"

The driver turned off the car and sneered: "I'm sorry, my car is broken and can't go. If you don't want to get off, then you just stay here."

Elaine did not expect that the other party would not buy her own account at all, and was about to continue to get angry, but did not expect the driver to push the car door and smoke.

Charlie was amused while sitting in the co-pilot.

The mother-in-law seems to never figure out the situation.

Now it is her own broken leg that needs treatment as soon as possible, and it is not the broken leg of a taxi driver. What is the point of her pretending to be a taxi driver?

Now people just stop driving, isn't she the one who delayed it?

But Charlie didn't bother to care about her, so he deliberately asked: "Mom, what shall we do now? Can't you just spend it here?"

Elaine is about to explode, but now she has a broken leg and must rush to the hospital for treatment as soon as possible. Otherwise, what if she is left behind and becomes disabled later?

So she could only say to Charlie: "Go and stop another car!"

Charlie nodded, got out of the car and walked to the side of the road to wait for a while, beckoning to stop another taxi.

Chapter 936

Afterwards, he returned to the car just now and helped Elaine out of the broken leg.

Elaine managed to endure the pain in her leg, got out of the car, and then endured the pain again, and was sent into another car by Charlie.

As soon as she was driving away, she lowered the window and cursed the driver who was smoking on the side of the road: "Bad son, you must have a car accident and die outside today!"

When the driver heard this, he cursed with anger: "You ugly woman must have died in front of me!"

Elaine was immediately furious and wanted to stick out her head to continue cursing, but the car had already driven far, so she could only give up in anger.

Charlie, who hadn't spoken all the time, couldn't help but sigh in his heart: Hey, mother-in-law, seems to have been tortured in the detention center, otherwise she would not be like this.

He couldn't help but began to sympathize with his old father-in-law Jacob. Elaine wanted to know that he was busy dating Meiqing these two days, and he couldn't get his brains out?

.....

The taxi came to the emergency department of Aurous Hill People's Hospital.

Claire was already waiting here.

Seeing Elaine not only broke a leg, but also had a miserable appearance with a blue nose and a swollen face. Even two of her front teeth had fallen out. She couldn't help but her eyes were red. She walked up and asked, crying, "Mom, how can you suffer like this? Such a serious injury?"

When Elaine saw her daughter, she felt sad. All the grievances she had suffered in the past two days could not be restrained at this moment. She hugged Claire and cried loudly: "My dear girl, Mom's life is so bitter, don't you know? I almost died in these two days, you almost never saw Mom again!"

After speaking, Elaine's mood suddenly collapsed, and she burst into tears.

Claire saw that her mother had been wronged so much, naturally she felt very uncomfortable. While supporting her mother, she cried and asked, "Mom, what's the matter with you these past few days? Tell me.!"

Elaine wiped out a tear, with an urge in her heart, wanting to tell her daughter exactly what happened.

But when the words came to her lips, she swallowed them all back. She knew that she couldn't talk nonsense about this kind of words, otherwise the words would cause death or jail.

So she could only lie: "Hey, don't mention it! Mom let a MLM swindle. After that person tricked me into the MLM organization, she kept beating me and forced me to buy their products. But how can I have money? They kept beating me, and they didn't give me food, my front teeth were knocked out by them."

Claire hurriedly asked, "Mom, have you called the police? Let the police arrest them!"

Elaine cried and said, "Later, the MLM organization was caught by the police, and even I was arrested by the police into the detention center. Unexpectedly, I met your grandma and Wendy in the detention center. They were both in the detention center. There they got together to bully me!"

Claire asked in shock: "Grandma and Wendy?! Why are you locked up with them?"

Elaine cried out of breath and said: "I don't know why I was so unlucky that I met two of them b@stards. They didn't let me sleep, didn't let me eat, and they put cold water on me, you don't know what kind of life your mother has been living in the past two days, that is worse than h*ll..."

Claire burst into tears when she heard this.

Elaine vented for a while, just as her mood improved a little, suddenly thought of Jacob, and immediately questioned: "Claire, you tell me the truth, who on earth did your dad go to the party with?"

Chapter 937

Claire knew very well in her heart that if she let her mother know that the father was partying with Meiqing and their old classmates, she would definitely be so angry.

At this time, she was already very emotional, and she couldn't say anything to add fuel to the fire.

So she said: "It should be a gathering with his old classmates. I am not too clear about the specifics. Maybe it is the last time."

"It's not quite right!" Elaine said with a black face: "His old classmates can't get together once in a few years. It is impossible to get together again in a short time and go again. This time there must be a different opportunity.!"

Claire could only lie against her will: "I don't know this too well."

Elaine gritted her teeth with anger, and said coldly: "This old b@stard, I have suffered so much inside, and he still has the mind to go to party with others, really heartless!"

Claire had no choice but to speak for her father, saying against her will: "Mom, during the two days you disappeared, Dad was also very anxious."

"I don't believe it!" Elaine said sternly: "This old b@stard, he said that he would separate from me two days ago! I went in without the separation. I guess he doesn't know how happy he is!"

Claire hurriedly said, "Mom, don't speculate about Dad like this..."

As she was talking, Jacob drove his BMW 530 to the hospital.

Seeing Elaine's horrible look, Jacob was also stunned.

Although he has no feelings for Elaine in his heart, he has lived under Elaine's lust for so many years that his heart is still very timid towards Elaine.

So the fundamental reason why Elaine quickly turned the other way around when he called.

When Elaine saw Jacob, her anger went wild.

There is no other reason. The main reason is that Jacob's dressing up is really too careful, with a decent suit, a decent tie, and his hair meticulously combed. At first glance, he has been well dressed for a long time.

Elaine is not a fool. She immediately realized that Jacob's dressing up today was definitely not for herself, but for the party.

This made her suddenly become extremely alert.

She began to speculate, what are the important elements of this party that would make Jacob dress so seriously for the first time?

From the time she married him to the present, except for the day of the wedding, she seem to have never seen him dressed up so vigorously!

When Jacob arrived, he asked, "Where did you go? How did you make it like this?"

Elaine observed at him coldly, and blurted out: "You tell me the truth, who are you partying with?"

Jacob's expression was a little unnatural, and he said falteringly, "Isn't it the same classmates in my class before? You all know it."

Elaine asked, "Didn't you just visit the other day? Why did you meet again?"

Jacob said, "Didn't we just go to more than 20 people last time, but today there are a few more people."

"Oh?" Elaine frowned and asked sternly: "Jacob, let me ask you, is Meiqing here?"

Jacob suddenly panicked.

He didn't expect that Elaine would be able to ask Meiqing all of a sudden, this woman's intuition is really a bit too accurate, right?

However, he must not dare to say anything about Meiqing to Elaine, so he lied: "No, she has been away for more than 20 years and has never come back."

Chapter 938

Elaine asked coldly: "Really not?"

Jacob hurriedly said: "Oh, I really didn't. Why would I lie to you, and now you care about whether this is turning the cart before the horse? The most important thing now is to look at your injury. Is your leg broken?"

Elaine was patronizing to find out about Jacob's affairs. She couldn't even take care of her already injured and broken leg. After being reminded by Jacob, she remembered the pain in her right leg.

So she hurriedly said to Claire: "Good girl, take mom to see a doctor, don't let mom leave any disability!"

.....

After leaving the emergency room and seeing the doctor, Claire asked nervously, "Doctor, how is my mother's situation?"

Elaine was afraid that she would have three long and two shortcomings, and hurriedly asked: "Yes, doctor, how is the result of the examination? I won't be a lame?"

The doctor said to Elaine: "From the X-rays, you have a comminuted fracture of your calf. The condition is more serious, but if you take good care of your injury, you should not be lame. I suggest you get a cast first and then be hospitalized for observation. About half a month, before that we can guarantee nothing."

Elaine was relieved when she heard that she would not become lame, but when she heard that she needed to be hospitalized, she was immediately anxious: "Ah? Why I am going to be hospitalized? After the cast, can I go home and recuperate?"

The thought that she hadn't lived in the luxurious Tomson first-class mansion until now, Elaine felt aggrieved.

After two days of inhuman torture, she dreamed of returning to the big villa, lying on the soft big bed, and feeling the joy of living in Tomson.

The doctor shook his head and said: "The first half month of the cast is very important. It is related to your overall recovery. If you go home, if something goes wrong and one is not dealt with in time, it may be the root cause of the disease. "

Upon hearing this, Elaine's face suddenly filled with loss.

However, Jacob on the side was full of joy!

Elaine came back suddenly, and it was irreversible for him, but if Elaine could be hospitalized, he could relax for a few more days.

Therefore, he deliberately said to Elaine: "Wife, you can follow the doctor's arrangement and stay in the hospital with peace of mind, so as to avoid leaving the root of the disease in the future."

Elaine frowned and looked at Jacob, and asked, "What? You just don't want me to go home?"

Jacob hurriedly waved his hand: "I didn't mean that."

Elaine snorted coldly, remembering something, and then hurriedly asked Charlie: "Didn't you happen to know the genius doctor Tianqi? You immediately call him and ask him to come and treat my leg."

Charlie's brows suddenly frowned upon hearing the tone of his mother-in-law's order.

For a b*tch like Elaine, still want Tianqi to treat her legs?

Charlie sneered in his heart, and said indifferently: "Mr. Shi is not in Aurous Hill for the time being, he has gone to Eastcliff to treat someone."

Upon hearing this, Elaine immediately said: "Then I will wait for him to come back?"

Charlie said, "She may not be able to come back in ten and a half months."

The doctor said: "You have to put a plaster first, no matter what."

Elaine said immediately: "Okay! Then put a cast first, and I will go home and rest after the cast!"

When Jacob saw Elaine insist on being so persistent, he knew that it was impossible for her to be hospitalized. He couldn't help but secretly conceal the news of Meiqing's return from her for a while. He mentions divorce, then she will definitely not agree.

That being the case, it is better to go back at night and find a chance to divorce her first, it is best to let her divorce first!

Chapter 939

After Elaine got cast in the People's Hospital, Jacob drove home to rest.

Along the way, Elaine kept scolding Jacob next to him, and at the same time beating on the side, trying to figure out why he dressed himself so glamorously for the party today.

However, Jacob's mouth was tighter than a safe.

He just wanted to wait for a good time tonight to discuss the divorce with Elaine, so he must not let Elaine know about Meiqing before that.

In the other car, Charlie drove Claire with red eyes, and drove unhurriedly behind Jacob's car.

Claire was very sympathetic to her mother. After all, she was a son and daughter. Anyone who saw the mother suffered so many injuries and so many tortures would feel uncomfortable.

In addition, one thing that worries her is the relationship between her father and mother.

She knew that her father liked Meiqing. Compared with Meiqing, her mother was far behind, so she was worried that her father would finally give up the current marriage and pursue his own happiness.

Charlie saw the wife on the side with a sad face, and was about to persuade her, when he suddenly received a call from Issac.

Issac asked him on the phone: "Mr. Wade have you received your mother-in-law?"

Because his wife was by his side, Charlie couldn't speak too clearly, so he said vaguely: "Yes."

Issac said: "That's good."

After speaking, he said again: "By the way, Mr. Wade I heard a news."

Charlie asked: "What news?"

Issac said: "The Wu family in Suzhou seems to be looking for your antagonist everywhere. They even sent someone to Eastcliff to find Fredmen. They seemed to have sent someone to Changbai Mountain to find Youngzheng and Barena, the father and son. , But it was discovered by the people arranged by Mr. Orvel, so they fled early."

Charlie couldn't help but frowned.

The Wu family suddenly contacted Fredmen, and even contacted the Wei family and his son. There was only one possibility, that is, they wanted to unite more of his mortal enemies to deal with him.

Since Regnar and Roger father and son were insulted and fled back to Suzhou, the Wu family did nothing. He thought they had realized that they were not something they could afford, but he did not expect that they were actually Darkness that follows you in the light.

Charlie asked: "Who else did they contact?"

Issac said: "The Wu family also sent people to contact those who have been taught by others before, but they are all low-level rags, and can't make waves if they want to, just like the one who bullied your classmate Darren. Dog men and women and their fathers."

Afterwards, Issac asked: "Mr. Wade do you want me to say hello to the family and kill the Wu family directly, or let the family warn the Wu family so that they can be honest in the future?"

"No." Charlie said with a smile: "I don't want others to help."

Charlie is not ready to return to Wade's house yet, he even feels that he does not necessarily have to return to Wade's house in the future.

After all, he has been away from the Wade family for so many years, and to be honest, although he can't talk about a deep hatred with the Wade family, there is still a hurdle in heart, and that hurdle was the accidental death of his parents that year.

Therefore, he said to Issac: "Some things are more interesting if you have to do it yourself. Relying on others for help is not only unreliable, but also takes away a lot of fun."

Issac hurriedly said: "But young master, the Wu family is in the whole Aurous Hill. It has a top-notch existence. If they are really deliberate about going against you, I'm afraid you can't handle it alone."

Chapter 940

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry about this. Although I am not a very talented person, I am not a soft persimmon that everyone can pinch."

Issac sighed and said: "Mr. Wade you still have to be more careful, and you must not neglect the Wu family. The Wu family has only offered a reward of 300 million to kill Liu Guang and Liu Ming, the father and son. Countless people are chasing down the father and son all over the world. Once they are exposed, they may be hacked to death by countless people.”

Charlie asked curiously: “Does anyone know where the father and son have gone?”

Issac said: “It is said that they went abroad, but no one knows which country they went to, because they seemed to have used fake passports when they left.”

Charlie nodded. Although he didn’t say anything, he knew in his heart that the reason why the Wu family wanted to hunt down the father and son was actually because of the cross talk on the YouTube.

The Wu family had been deliberately trying to delete the cross talk, but because it has now been bought by Stephen, they had no choice.

Because of the cross talk, the entire Wu family has no face and cannot be deleted, so the only way to find face is to kill both Liu Guang and his son, so that the world knows that the Wu family is definitely not insulted.

Issac said at this time: “Mr. Wade the Wu family is willing to spend 300 million or more to deal with Liu Guang and his son. If it is to deal with you, I believe they will be willing to pay a higher price, so you must be careful. .”

Charlie said lightly: “Okay, I get it.”

Issac said: “Mr. Wade if you need any help, please tell me.”

Charlie gave a hum, quietly glanced at his wife next to him, and said to Issac: “I’m on my way home now, I’ll talk about it later.”

“Master, Okay.”

Charlie hung up the phone, and Claire asked curiously: “Who was calling? What are you talking about for help or not, for soft persimmons but not soft persimmons, is anyone going to bully you?”

“No.” Charlie smiled and said, “Didn’t our mother be bullied by the MLM organization, so I plan to find friends to see if I can help mother.”

Claire hurriedly said, "Don't!"

She said, "To be honest, my mother has suffered so many sins. Although it is pitiful, I am a daughter who is fair to her. She also takes the blame. She takes money too seriously. And always think of taking shortcuts for nothing. Even if she didn't fall for this one today, she will still fall for something else tomorrow."

Charlie nodded in agreement. He didn't expect that although Claire was somewhat filial to Elaine, she still knew at least what kind of person Elaine was.

At first, helping Elaine to vent her anger was just to find an excuse. Seeing that Claire said this, he did not continue to talk about this topic.

At this moment, Charlie's mind was thinking of Wu's family in Suzhou.

Since the Wu family's father and son are still obsessed with their previous experience, sooner or later they will come to avenge.

But there is a problem. It is a bit beyond his expectations. The Wu family and his sons are very arrogant in doing things, and seek revenge. Why do they need to find a helper?

When they contact Fredmen and other people who have offended him, they should just want to unite a few more enemies to target him.

This is a bad signal to Charlie.

Because the enemy is always easy to defeat when he is proud.

But when the enemy is no longer proud, they will become more cunning and more difficult to deal with.

The Wu family has a strong strength, and now they have to unite others to deal with him, which proves that they have made great progress now and deserve his attention!

Chapter 941

Two BMW cars, one after the other, returned to Tomson's big villa.

Jacob was scolded all the way by Elaine, and his dissatisfaction grew stronger.

When he first received a call from Elaine, he was singing a love song with his first love, so he was guilty of conscience. He became angry when he heard her and went to the hospital in a hurry.

But after calming down, he felt more and more that Elaine was really hopeless.

Therefore, Jacob's idea of divorcing her became stronger.

After getting out of the car, Jacob abducted the one bought from the hospital to Elaine directly from the back row.

Elaine was still waiting for him to help him in, even carrying her in, but she didn't expect him to pass a crutch directly.

Elaine squeezed on the crutches and cursed in place: "Jacob, you b@stard, my leg is broken, you throw me a crutches?"

Jacob said: "Anyway, you have to get used to crutches sooner or later, otherwise, what do you do if you go to the bathroom?"

"What's the matter?" Elaine asked angrily: "What do you mean, I won't be able to count on you in the future?"

Jacob said with a black face, "Don't forget, we two have separated!"

Elaine immediately wanted to yell at him. At this moment, Charlie happened to park in front.

When Claire got out of the car, Elaine immediately complained to her. With the mentality of turning big things into small things, Claire hurriedly supported her and comforted her: "Oh, mom, don't be angry with dad. Your body will be bad, and your body will be bad if you get angry."

Elaine still wanted to curse, but suddenly felt dizzy in her brain, and immediately realized that she had been hungry for too long and was about to pass out of hypoglycemia.

So she said weakly: "Oh, I'm going to die, I'm starving to death, where is Charlie? Hurry up and cook for me! I want to eat braised pork and beef stew"

Charlie said blankly, "I haven't had time to buy groceries today. I only have some noodles at home. Should I make a bowl of noodles for you?"

Elaine blurted out: "I've been hungry for two days and two nights! What's the use of a bowl of noodles?"

Charlie said lightly: "Then I will go shopping now."

As soon as Elaine heard this, she said in a hurry: "I will be fainted with hunger when you buy it!"

Charlie asked, "Why don't I order you a takeaway?"

Elaine blurted out: "It takes half an hour or even forty minutes to take out. Cook the noodles and knock two more eggs!"

Charlie said casually: "There are no eggs, I haven't bought them yet."

Elaine said: "Will you give me a taste? Give me some green vegetables. I haven't eaten any vegetables in the past two days, and my mouth on the fire is rotten."

Charlie shrugged and said: "There is nothing but dried noodles at home. If you want to eat, I will give you a bowl of clear noodle soup."

Elaine stomped angrily, pointed at Charlie and asked Claire: "Claire, is this waste deliberately against me? Why is there nothing at home?"

Claire looked embarrassed.

Charlie said at this time: "We have been looking for you for the past two days. He didn't cook at all at home, so he didn't go shopping."

Elaine was angry and uncomfortable, but now she didn't have the strength to get angry with him, so she said to Charlie: "Then you quickly get me a bowl of noodles!"

Chapter 942

Charlie responded and walked to the kitchen.

In fact, there was a box of eggs in the refrigerator, but he didn't want to feed them to Elaine, so he smashed all the eggs out and poured them into the sewer. Although pouring them into the sewer is a waste, if it gets into Elaine's stomach, more wasteful.

Then he used a pot to boil some hot water, grabbed a handful of noodles, and threw it in.

Just when he was perfunctory, the phone suddenly received a WeChat message.

He opened WeChat and found that there was someone in the chat group of "Aurous Hill Welfare Institute".

The 20th and 30th people in this group were all taken in by Aunt Lena and raised up orphans, but now everyone has been in the society for many years, and many people are scattered all over the country. The connection is not too close.

Charlie clicked to open the group.

The message was sent by a girl named Xiaofen Li in the orphanage. The content read: "Secretly tell everyone a good news, Aunt Lena has recovered from illness and has returned to Aurous Hill!"

Xiaofen is a little girl Charlie met in the orphanage.

This little girl was abandoned by her parents not long after she was born, she was raised by Aunt Lena, two or three years younger than Charlie, and she was a little sister in Charlie's eyes.

Aunt Lena didn't know what her surname was, so she asked her to name her Xiaofen.

After Xiaofen became an adult, she worked with Aunt Lena in the orphanage, and was the only one who remained in the orphanage among the many friends that year.

Seeing her saying that Aunt Lena has recovered from illness, Charlie hurriedly asked in the group: "Why didn't Aunt Lena tell us when she came back, so we might as well pick her up."

Xiaofen said: "Brother Charlie, Aunt Lena said that she didn't want to cause you trouble, so no one told me. I also found out after she came back suddenly this afternoon."

Charlie asked again: "How is Aunt Lena's health? Does she look okay? She just recovered and was discharged from the hospital, won't she go back to work in the orphanage?"

"Yeah!" Xiaofen said: "What kind of person Aunt Lena is, Brother Charlie, you must know better. How can she be free? She hasn't come to the orphanage for so long. She cares about the children in her heart."

After speaking, Xiaofen said again: "But I see Aunt Lena's body, and it feels pretty good. It doesn't look like someone who has been seriously ill at all. It should have been restored to its original condition!"

Charlie breathed a sigh of relief. After all, Stephen sent Aunt Lena to the best hospital in Eastcliff, and he also paid Aunt Lena two million in medical expenses, which included very high-end postoperative recovery. .

At this time, other people in the group also sent out messages.

"Ah, Aunt Lena is discharged from the hospital? That's great!"

"Haha, I knew that Aunt Lena is a good person, and she will definitely recover one day!"

At this moment, a person named Jiang Ming suddenly everyone in the group said: "Everyone, since Aunt Lena has recovered and discharged, then I suggest that our friends in Aurous Hill, now go to the welfare home to visit Aunt Lena, by the way Find a restaurant and pick her up, what do you think?"

"Yes, right, right, Jiang Ming, your idea is good! I'm getting off work soon, and I can go there anytime!"

"Yes, it is a happy event for Aunt Lena to recover from illness, we must visit her!"

In response, Xiaofen sent a happy expression, saying: "That's what I mean by sending a message to everyone. Since we haven't seen Aunt Lena for a long time, and everyone hasn't seen each other for a long time, it's better to take this opportunity. We all join together and invite her to have a meal, so I believe Aunt will also be very happy!"

"Oh, you guys in Aurous Hill, can't you wait for another day or two? Wait for us outsiders to rush back, or I will buy a plane ticket now and come tomorrow!"

That Jiang Ming said: "Receiving things like wind and dust, of course, is the most ceremonial feeling on the day of return!"

Chapter 943

"Yes!" a friend named Zhao Hao in the group said: "Aunt Lena got such a serious disease and finally healed it back. If we children raised by her, don't come to see her for the first time. Maybe she will feel lost too."

Jiang Ming said: "Well, let's find a five-star hotel, and we must take care of Aunt Lena."

Xiaofen said: "Jiang Ming, let's not be so extravagant. Aunt Lena is thrifty all her life. If she goes to such a good place to eat, she will definitely feel distressed. Why don't we just serve home-cooked food at the entrance of the orphanage for many years?!"

When Charlie thought of the home-style restaurant that had been in operation for more than ten years, he couldn't help feeling sighed.

On his 18th birthday that year, Aunt Lena took the frugal money and took him and a few friends to eat a meal in that restaurant.

She also bought a cake for him, and after celebrating his birthday, he no longer met the adoption regulations of the orphanage, so he entered the society alone.

Now think about it, the meal he ate there was the most tender meal he had ever eaten in his life.

So he immediately said: "I really didn't expect that restaurant is still open! The place Xiaofen chose is great! Then let's make an appointment there!"

Jiang Ming replied: "I said Charlie, everyone has been working for so many years, and they have some savings. Facing Aunt Lena, don't you need to be so stingy?"

Charlie said: "I am not stingy, but respect Aunt Lena's habit. We ask Aunt Lena to go to a five-star hotel. Aunt Lena may not be really happy. On the contrary, she may feel too extravagant and wasteful and will feel distressed for a long time."

Jiang Ming said: "Cut, don't I know you yet? Don't you just want to save twos?"

After speaking, Jiang Ming sent another voice: "Charlie, I know that you are not doing well. It is normal for you to be a son-in-law. It is normal to have no money in your pocket. But after all, Aunt Lena brought you up, with so much kindness. , Even if you have some blood, what can you do if you join in and invite her to have a good meal?"

Charlie couldn't help frowning.

This Jiang Ming didn't deal with him when he was in the orphanage. At that time, Jiang Ming relied on that he was stronger than his peers and formed gangs in the orphanage, and he often got together to bully other children.

Charlie was also targeted by the opponent, but because he had practiced some martial arts when he was at Wade's house in Eastcliff, most people were not his opponents at all, so when Jiang Ming brought someone to trouble him, a group of people were directly beaten by him. Them crying father yelling mother, looking for teeth everywhere.

From then on, Jiang Ming, with a very small mind, held a grudge against Charlie, sang everything against him, and targeted him everywhere.

Moreover, this guy has always been wrong, and always caused trouble for the orphanage when he was young.

He was caught stealing things several times, and in the end it was Aunt Lena who came forward to lose money and apologize to save him.

Having not seen him for so many years, Charlie estimates that this person is not much better now.

But Charlie didn't bother to be familiar with him, and said lightly: "Whatever you say, I still think it's best to go to the restaurant Xiaofen said."

Xiaofen also hurriedly said: "I think what Charlie said makes sense. Aunt Lena saved money all her life and asked her to go to a five-star hotel for dinner. She must be uncomfortable."

The childhood friend Zhao Hao also echoed: "I also support it!"

Others also agreed, so Xiaofen said, "Well, there are ten people we can come over tonight, and nine of them all support going to the old restaurant. Then we will be the minority and obey the majority! I will go to that restaurant now. Book a box! Come here too!"

"Good, good!" Everyone agreed and happily agreed.

Chapter 944

Charlie couldn't help feeling a little excited when he thought of meeting Aunt Lena immediately.

Since the Old Mrs. Willson passed her birthday and was scolded for borrowing money at the birthday banquet, he has never seen Aunt Lena again because Aunt Lena was directly sent to Eastcliff by Stephen.

Charlie has a deep relationship with Aunt Lena, almost treating her as his own mother.

When Aunt Lena first became ill, Charlie desperately tried to get money everywhere, even secretly looking for options to sell blood, and also took a lot of private money from Claire in order to make Aunt Lena survive.

If he hadn't done everything to help Aunt Lena raise money, Aunt Lena would have never waited for Stephen's appearance at the beginning, and she might have passed away.

But Charlie felt that these were what he should do, and even so, he only paid back one ten thousandth of Aunt Lena's kindness to him.

Dad had taught him countless times before his death that if a man is alive, he must know his gratitude. The ancients said that the grace of dripping water should be reported by the spring, and Charlie has always asked himself so.

So, he didn't care, the noodles for Elaine were still boiling in the pot, so he took off his apron directly, stepped out of the kitchen, and said to Claire, who was accompanying Elaine, "Wife, I'm in a bit of a hurry. hospital!"

Elaine immediately asked: "Have you cooked my noodles for me? I haven't eaten a bite of rice so far, so you want to go out?"

Charlie glanced at her in disgust, and said impatiently: "The noodles are boiling in the pot, you can eat them out in a while! Aunt Lena has recovered from illness and I am going to pick her up."

When Elaine heard this, she immediately scolded: "Wade, what is your b@stard attitude? For a Lady in a welfare institution, you dare to talk to me like this?! Do you still have the consciousness of being a son-in-law? Don't concern if I have something to eat, drink, wear, or live?"

As she said, Elaine sneered again: "What does it have to do with you even if that lady is dead?"

Charlie has endured Elaine for a long time. He thought that this mother-in-law would go in for two days and suffer a little bit of sin, and she could change a little bit, but she didn't expect her to change at all.

Even more unexpectedly, she dared to speak out to insult his benefactor Aunt Lena!

So he looked at Elaine and said angrily: "I eat my own, drink my own, wear my own, live in my own! Don't forget, this house was given to me by someone else, and the furniture in it I bought it with the money I made from Feng Shui, so I have this attitude. If you are not satisfied, you can move out and live in the old house!"

When Elaine heard this, she was suddenly speechless!

She wanted to scold Charlie, but when she thought about it, she found that what he said was not wrong.

Now it's not before. He used to live in her small house. He couldn't make money without telling others, so she could scold him whatever she wanted.

Now he has a good life. Someone gave him such an expensive villa and gave it to him after it was renovated, and he could earn millions by showing a feng shui.

On the other hand, she is already penniless. If Charlie really turns his face with her and prevents her from living here, what can she do?

Thinking of this, Elaine felt guilty, looking at Charlie's angry expression, she was also a little nervous and afraid.

However, she still tried to save the situation, so she immediately looked at Claire aggrievedly, and choked up: "Claire, your husband is too much. Is there any son-in-law in the world who talks to his mother-in-law like this? You don't care. He, he won't shake the sky if this continues?"

Unexpectedly, Claire said very seriously: "Mom, I think Charlie is right. Now we live in a villa given to him by others. If it weren't for him, we wouldn't have had the chance to live in such a good place, so You can't treat him like you did before, it's not fair!"

Chapter 945

When Elaine heard these words, she felt sad!

In the past two days, everyone in the family seems to have changed their attitudes towards her.

Her husband ignored her, and even took the initiative to start a fire with her. The son-in-law is no longer the son-in-law at the mercy of others. He even became angry with her and asked her to move back to the old house.

Even the only good girl who relied on her was no longer facing herself.

She never dreamed that her daughter would speak to Charlie at this time.

She is a great dramatist, seeing that she seems to be losing power in this home, she blushed in the blink of an eye and started acting.

She choked pitifully: "Now it's unnecessary for me to be in this house. Your dad doesn't care about me. Your husband threatens to kick me out, even if you are not with me..."

With that, Elaine twitched her mouth and tears flowed down.

Claire sighed helplessly, and said, "Mom, it was indeed you who was wrong just now. I can't look at you all the time."

Although she felt sorry for her mother for having suffered so much, this was not the reason for her mother to shout to Charlie, nor the reason for insulting Aunt Lena.

Moreover, Claire knew very well in her heart that her husband had been very pitiful since he was a child, and he did not have many real relatives in this world.

Except for himself, it may be Aunt Lena.

This is why Charlie desperately tried to get money to treat Aunt Lena some time ago.

She knew that in Charlie's heart, he treated Aunt Lena as a mother.

She has always admired Charlie's behavioral style of acknowledgment, otherwise she would not give him all her private money and let him take it to Aunt Lena.

Therefore, she also felt that her mother was a bit too much, and naturally she could no longer speak to her at this time.

At this time, Elaine was already crying with tears, and sighed: "My life is really pitiful, does this family still have a place for me?"

Charlie no longer wanted to watch her acting at this time, and even no longer wanted to be patient with her any more, so he skipped her and said to Claire: "My wife, I'll go to the orphanage first. Eat at home."

Claire hurriedly stood up and said, "I'll go with you. I haven't seen Aunt Lena for a long time. The last time I went to see Aunt Lena in the hospital was a few months ago. I still miss her."

To say that Claire really fulfilled the duties and responsibilities of a good wife. Not only did she support Charlie treating Aunt Lena, she also often went to the hospital with him to visit and take care of Aunt Lena, just like Charlie she was very respectful to Aunt Lena.

Aunt Lena also liked her very much, almost treating her as her daughter-in-law.

Seeing that Claire was going to see Aunt Lena with herself, Charlie nodded with satisfaction and said, "Then let's go together. When Aunt Lena called me last time, she asked about you, she I should miss you a lot."

Claire stood up and said, "Then let's go now."

As soon as Elaine heard that Claire was going to go with Charlie, she said pitifully: "Good daughter, are you angry with your mother? Do you even want to ignore your mother?"

Claire looked at Elaine and said seriously: "Mom, I really hope you can reflect on this experience and change your personality. Otherwise, you will definitely suffer in the future."

When Elaine heard her say this, she immediately sat on the ground and said, "What's the point of saying I'm alive? My only relative, my dear girl, is no longer facing me. The police shouldn't let me go. Come out and let me die in the detention center..."

If it were to be kept in the past, Claire would have softened and compromised when she saw her mother being so aggressive, but this time she understood that if her mother always had this character, then she would suffer a loss sooner. She can't condone her temperament anymore.

Chapter 946

So she said to Elaine: "Mom, think about it alone, I'll leave with Charlie first. By the way, Charlie also cooked the noodles for you. Don't forget to serve them out."

After finishing speaking, she said to Charlie: "Let's go."

Charlie nodded, took Claire out of the house, and drove her to the orphanage.

On the way, Charlie bought a bunch of flowers, another fruit basket, and handwritten a greeting card for Aunt Lena.

When he came to the gate of Aurous Hill Welfare Institute, Charlie parked his car in the parking space on the side of the road. Looking at the slightly outdated gate, he was in a daze, and he couldn't help but feel a sense of time going back and space dislocation.

He stood here, as if for an instant, he overlapped with certain scenes in his memory. The scenes that flashed continuously were the softest, happiest and most precious memories deep in his heart.

He still remembers the scene of his first visit to the orphanage.

When he was eight years old, he lost his parents and was displaced on the street. Aunt Lena, who was like an angel on earth, brought him here, then held him with one hand and pointed at the gate, saying very lovingly: "Child, don't be afraid, this will be your home from now on."

Charlie still remembers this extremely warm scene even after many years.

Thinking of this, Charlie's face also showed a rare happy expression, even the corners of his mouth couldn't help but rise.

Seeing him with a smile, Claire couldn't help saying: "Today you seem to be very happy."

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Yeah, you know, since Aunt Lena became ill, I have always been particularly worried. I tried to get money everywhere, but I didn't collect enough medical expenses for the kidney transplant. Had it not been for a coincidence of fate, Aunt Lena would have left me."

Claire recalled the scene when Charlie whispered to her grandma to borrow money from her grandma in order to collect medical expenses for Aunt Lena.

At that time, he really felt sorry for this, since he was young, he had been ill-fated and left the man.

It's a pity that he didn't have any ability at that time, and couldn't spend so much money to help.

Fortunately, later, Aunt Lena, the Ji people had their own vision. Someone solved her medical expenses and sent her to the best Union Hospital in the country for treatment.

Thinking of this, Claire couldn't help asking: "By the way, you said that someone paid Aunt Lena all the medical expenses, who is that person? How could he be so generous? Aunt Lena went to Fairview for treatment. It costs at least two or three million for a trip, right?"

Charlie nodded and said, "I heard that it cost a total of 3 million. As for who paid the money, I am not too sure, but I heard that it was also the person Aunt Lena had saved before."

Of course Charlie couldn't say that the money for Aunt Lena's treatment was paid by himself, because at that time he was still a standard poor sling, it was impossible to get a huge sum of 3 million, so he couldn't explain it clearly.

So he could only sigh: "I knew that showing others how to make money by showing Feng Shui, I should try it when your aunt was sick."

The two were talking, a pleasantly surprised voice suddenly sounded in their ears: "Brother Charlie!"

When he turned around and looked around, he saw a tall and thin figure in the orphanage.

It turned out to be Xiaofen.

After a few years of absence, Xiaofen has become a big girl!

She is in her early 20s. She is more than 1.7 meters tall, and her figure is no less than that of those models.

Although the dress is very simple and plain, and the face is facing the sky, it can give people a crystal clear, icy and clean feeling.

Charlie couldn't help but marvel at her. It's really the eighteenth change. Is this still the little girl who had been a follower in the orphanage back then? !

Chapter 947

Seeing Charlie, Xiaofen's face was filled with joy and surprise.

She ran to Charlie quickly, still grabbing Charlie's arm with both hands as before, and asked delicately: "Brother Charlie, why didn't you come back to the orphanage for so long?"

Charlie didn't feel uncomfortable when she was grabbed by her arm. On the contrary, like an older brother, he said with affection, "I have never been mixed up since I went out, so I am embarrassed to return to the orphanage to see you."

As soon as Xiaofen heard this, her big eyes flashed red, and she choked up and said, "Aunt Lena told us that you have been working on a construction site since you went out, and all your hard-earned money was sent to Aunt Lena. , Asked Aunt Lena to buy us books, clothes, and food, but you never come back to see me. It has been so many years, and I have never seen you again..."

With that, Xiaofen burst into tears and said: "When Aunt Lena was sick, I heard Aunt Lena say that you often visit her, but every time we came you left, you deliberately hide. If you didn't want to see us, you don't know how uncomfortable our brothers and sisters felt..."

Charlie couldn't help but sigh when he heard this.

Since he came out of the orphanage, he really hasn't had a good life. He has been busy working on the construction site before, 365 days a year, 365 days a year, all year round, except for filling his stomach, all the rest is sent. Gave it to Aunt Lena.

The reason why he was reluctant to return to the orphanage was because he was too bad at that time. He didn't want these younger brothers and sisters who had not yet entered the society to see him in despair, and then set a bad example for them.

Later, he joined the Willson family and became the famous son-in-law of Aurous Hill. He was even more embarrassed to return to the orphanage.

Knowing that Aunt Lena was sick, he was more worried and worried than anyone else, and more concerned than anyone else.

He was still not as embarrassed, facing the friends in these orphanages.

Later, although he had money, he got the Wade family and got 10 billion, and also got the Emgrand Group, but the aunt has not been in the orphanage during this time, so he didn't come back.

After Charlie had money, he had always thought of donating money to the orphanage. After Aunt Lena came back, he would find a suitable reason and excuse to donate a large sum of money to the orphanage.

The reason why he agreed to come with everyone to pick up the dust for Aunt Lena, in addition to wanting to see Aunt Lena, he also wanted to see what kind of method he could use to donate a sum of money to the orphanage without being suspected. .

It was also the first time that Claire followed Charlie back to the orphanage, so it was also the first time she saw Xiaofen.

While she was surprised by Xiaofen's youthful beauty, she also felt that Xiaofen and her husband seemed a little too intimate.

However, she soon comforted herself. This little girl saw that the little sister who grew up with Charlie before, regarded Charlie as her own brother, and there was nothing unusual about being intimate.

Seeing Xiaofen's tears, Charlie said: "Xiaofen, your brother has not been messing well these years. I don't want you to see your brother's desolation, but now it's different. Your brother is doing pretty well now, too. I finally have a face, and I'm back to see you."

As he said, he took Claire's hand and said with a smile: "Come on, let me introduce to you, this is your sister-in-law, how is she, is she beautiful?"

Claire was suddenly grabbed by Charlie, and she felt a little nervous. Although she and Charlie have been married for more than three years, to be honest, the two did not act too intimately.

But she didn't draw her hand back, just let him hold it.

Xiaofen looked at Claire, and a look of envy suddenly appeared in her somewhat sad eyes.

Looking at Claire, she couldn't help feeling a little embarrassed.

Chapter 948

Although she looks good, but compared with Claire, she seems to be a little bit worse.

Moreover, she's just an orphan with no father, no mother, and no support. The current work in the orphanage is half-work and half-charitable, and there is not much money to be made.

Even with the limited balance, she, like Charlie, had all donated to the orphanage, so she was a poor girl.

In this way, she felt that she was naturally much worse than Claire's career women.

With a heart of envy, she said to Claire a little nervously: "Hello sister-in-law, my name is Xiaofen, we meet for the first time."

Claire nodded and said with a smile: "Hello Xiaofen, my name is Claire."

Xiaofen looked at Claire and exclaimed: "Sister-in-law, I really envy you!"

After speaking, she glanced at Charlie again, and said: "Envy you to find my brother Charlie such a good man!"

Charlie suddenly became embarrassed.

He thought that Xiaofen would say that he envied Claire for being beautiful, or envied her for her good figure and good temperament. Unexpectedly, she envied Claire for finding herself...

It's worthy of being a younger sister who grew up with her a. Even if she knew she was poor and white, she still felt very good.

When Claire heard this, some of them couldn't laugh or cry.

Xiaofen said very seriously: "Sister-in-law, Charlie brother is the best man in the world. You must treat him well! He has been very responsible since he was a child, taking special care of us brothers and sisters. After leaving the orphanage at the age of 18, he has been working hard on the construction site and all the money he earned has been given to our younger brothers and sisters to improve our lives and provide for us to study. Back then, the orphanage raised so many people, and only Charlie knows the rewards. One brother! Sister-in-law, tell me, is my brother Charlie the best man in the world?"

Claire was surprised at hearing.

She only knew that Charlie had a hard life before marrying her. Grandpa found it on the construction site, but she didn't know that Charlie actually worked at the construction site at the age of eighteen, and she didn't know that Charlie gave all the money. They were donated to the orphanage.

No wonder he was penniless when she married him. He even asked grandfather for money for a haircut before the wedding.

Coupled with his behavior of raising money for Aunt Lena's crazy treatment of illness, Claire suddenly felt that her husband also had a great side!

She couldn't help asking Charlie: "Why have you never told me this?"

Charlie said indifferently, "Hey, what can I tell people about the poor days."

After speaking, Charlie didn't want to talk more on this topic, and hurriedly turned the topic off and asked Xiaofen: "By the way, Xiaofen, where is Aunt Lena?"

Xiaofen said: "Aunt Lena is talking to the dean about work. She asked to entertain you first, and she will come in a while."

With that said, Xiaofen asked expectantly: "Brother Charlie, would you like to go to the orphanage? You haven't come back for a long time!"

Chapter 949

Charlie has lived in this welfare institution for the past ten years from eight to eighteen, and he has great affectionate for it.

It's just that he has been a little destitute and have no face to come back.

Now that he has a lot of money, he might as well go in and see what other needs are in the orphanage, and can help solve it when the time comes.

So he nodded and agreed, and said: "Then let's go in for a while."

Xiaofen was overjoyed, and hurriedly grabbed Charlie's arm, and dragged him in front.

Charlie could only let her drag herself while holding his wife Claire's hand.

Claire's heart beat faster, but she still let her lead into the orphanage.

The Aurous Hill Welfare Institute was built in the last century and has a history of several decades. The buildings here are also relatively low brick buildings, and each building is almost decades old.

Charlie saw that this place was basically the same as when he lived many years ago, so he couldn't help asking Xiaofen: "Did the orphanage have not been expanded or renovated in these years?"

Xiaofen said: "Wanted to expand, but the funding has been tight. We have more children here than before. Both the dean and Aunt Lena feel that it is better to spend the money on the children. As for the hardware conditions, it can save money."

Charlie looked at the yard, but the slides, seesaws, and swivel chairs that had been rusted on, felt familiar and somewhat unpleasant in his heart.

These toys were all played when he was young, that is to say, they have been at least 20 years old.

Those younger brothers and sisters after him are still playing with these limited and old toys.

Charlie couldn't help but blame himself. Before Stephen found him, he was always worried about Aunt Lena's body and tried every means to treat Aunt Lena. After Stephen found him, he had been thinking about it all this time. Do everything possible to get back the dignity.

But during this period of time, he did not expect to donate a sum of money to the orphanage to help the younger brothers and sisters in the orphanage to improve their living environment. It is really inexcusable!

Thinking of this, Charlie planned to donate tens of millions to the orphanage to renovate the entire orphanage, and then buy the best toys, the best learning venues, and the best learning equipment for the younger brothers and sisters.

All computers and ipads must be bought for them!

Claire didn't know Charlie. The mood at the moment was very complicated and self-blaming. She was very curious to observe the environment of the orphanage. Although it was the first time to come in, she still felt that it was very kind.

Kind, maybe because my husband grew up here since he was a child.

In fact, in Claire's heart, she never regarded Charlie as her contracted husband. In her heart, Charlie was her real and legal husband.

Chapter 950

Xiaofen took Charlie to the dormitory area of the orphanage, and Charlie found the dormitory where he lived at a glance.

Looking in through the window, he saw a dozen or two-year-old children playing under the leadership of an aunt in the orphanage.

He couldn't help but exclaimed, "Xiaofen, why are there so many such young children in the orphanage now?"

Xiaofen said: "Many irresponsible parents send their children directly to the orphanage after they give birth. Some of these children are abandoned by them because they are born with disabilities or diseases. Like me, maybe it was because I was a girl, so I was abandoned."

Speaking of this, Xiaofen couldn't help sighing.

Later, she said angrily: "There are still some children in there. They were abducted by traffickers and then rescued by the police. Because the children are too young to find their parents, they can only be fostered at first. In the orphanage, after finding their parents, they will be sent back to their families."

Charlie saw that some of these children had some physical disabilities, so he couldn't help asking: "Xiaofen, what is going on with disabled children? Is it congenital disabilities?"

"No." Xiaofen said indignantly: "These were all rescued from the traffickers. They were originally healthy children, but after being stolen by the traffickers, they didn't sell these children, but got them and made them disabled. After becoming disabled, they took these children along the street to beg. Such children have been destroyed by them all their lives, but they have become their cash cows."

When Claire heard this, she suddenly angrily said: "These people are too j3rk, how can they turn good children into disabled people!"

Xiaofen said: "There are some such bad guys who specialize in this kind of conscience. They are normal people with hands and feet, but they pretend to be disabled and beg everywhere. Later, they found that the begging stuff came in too quickly. Therefore, in order to make more money, they deliberately find some disabled people to increase their credibility. Later, if they can't find the disabled, they buy the children. After buying, the children are disabled, so that it is easier to beg."

After hearing this, Claire trembled with anger, and blurted out: "b*stards like this, all of them should be shot!"

Charlie sighed at this time and said: "Actually, when I was working on the construction site, I had heard of the existence of beggar gangs. They were all fellow villagers or relatives. They organized groups to beg in big cities. Some of them were extremely cruel. Specializing in poisoning minors."

After speaking, Charlie said to her again: "You forgot that we watched an Indian movie two years ago. The name was Millionaire in the Slum. There was not a leader of a gang of beggars who sang good children. Blind his eyes, make him blind and let him sing and beg along the street. It looks like this kind of thing is far away from us, but it often happens around us."

Claire said angrily: "Unexpectedly, there are such demons around us. I knew I had gone to the police academy to be a police officer, and I could still bring these bad guys to justice."

Xiaofen sighed: "Sister-in-law, the key is that there is too much profit margins, so many people have to make this money even if they risk being shot."

With that, she felt that the topic was a bit heavy, and she said: "Oh, it's getting late, let's go to the restaurant first, the other friends should have arrived."

Charlie nodded and said, "Let's go, go to the restaurant first."

The three came out of the orphanage together, and Charlie asked Xiaofen on the side: "By the way, Xiaofen, are there any difficulties in the orphanage recently?"

Xiaofen smiled and said: "The difficulties have always been there, but they are okay, and they can be carried. The children's living conditions are much better than when we were younger, but the only downside is that our classrooms The dormitory and the cafeteria are all too old. The dean has been applying for funding, hoping to renovate it, but the superiors have been saying that the finances are tight and they cannot allocate funds for the time being."

Charlie nodded lightly and wrote down her words in his heart.

Chapter 951

Chapter 951

When the three of them came out of the orphanage, just about to go to the restaurant, a pleasantly surprised voice suddenly sounded in their ears: "Charlie, Xiaofen!"

When the two turned around to look, they saw several figures walking towards them.

These people are all the little friends who grew up with him in the orphanage.

However, for Charlie, there are many people in it, and they have basically never seen him since he left the orphanage.

The only one who still had contact after leaving the orphanage was his little friend, Zhao Hao.

In the early years, when Charlie was living in the orphanage, due to the accidental death of his parents, his personality became reticent, even a little withdrawn, and he might not speak a word to others for days.

Because of his incompatibility, he is often isolated by other children.

Charlie remembered that whenever he was isolated, Zhao Hao, who was a little older than him, would always be the first to stand up and play with him.

So over the years, the relationship between the two has been very deep.

Zhao Hao and Charlie are the same age, but Zhao Hao is a few months older than him.

The two people came out of the orphanage, and then they both chose to go to the construction site to work together, suffer together, becoming standard hard brothers.

However, the difference between Zhao Hao and Charlie is that Charlie made money, and all of it was secretly given to the orphanage, while Zhao Hao saved some money himself, then left the construction site and went to Haicheng to do a little business. .

For Charlie, Zhao Hao's approach is understandable.

After all, everyone is an orphan, and most of them are helpless when they come out of the orphanage.

Everyone wants to make some money to lay a foundation for themselves, because orphans are not like others. Others have parents, relatives, and a house that can shelter from wind and rain. Orphans have nothing.

If you run out of money today, you won't be able to eat today, and you can only sleep on the street at night.

The reason why Charlie didn't think about him after leaving the orphanage was mainly because of his father's teachings to him that year, which made him feel that he could live to be 18 years old. It was already the orphanage and Aunt Lena's kindness to him, of course. Find a way to repay.

Moreover, this has a lot to do with Charlie's childhood education.

In his childhood, Charlie was the young master of the Wade family from childhood. He received the education of Confucianism and classic Chinese studies. Therefore, in his bones, there is a kind of dedication spirit of ancient Confucianism and compassion.

This is what makes him different from everyone in the orphanage.

At this moment, Zhao Hao stepped forward with excitement, and said excitedly: "Charlie, my good brother, we haven't seen in a long time!"

Back then, he and Charlie slept in the shed on the construction site together, carried cement together and moved bricks together. The two supported each other and walked all the way for several years.

Later, Zhao Hao saved tens of thousands, and met a girl he liked on the construction site, and followed that girl to Haicheng.

After a few years of absence, Charlie couldn't help feeling a little excited, saying, "Zhao Hao, we haven't seen each other for three or four years? How have you been in Haicheng over the past few years?"

When Zhao Hao heard Charlie's question at this time, he laughed and said, "I am okay, I am okay! Let's say, have enough food and clothing!"

Charlie asked again: "Where is the girl you met on the construction site? Are you two married?"

"Hey." A trace of sadness flashed between Zhao Hao's eyebrows, but he smiled indifferently: "Get married. It's been a relationship for two or three years, but this is not about marriage, I can't afford it. What kind of gift, I can't afford to buy a house. The woman's parents look down on me, and they often blow the wind around her ears, and she won't look down on me when she listens to them, and then she broke off with me."

Charlie frowned and asked, "When is this?"

Zhao Hao smiled slightly and said, "Just last month."

Charlie nodded and said, "It is her loss for not choosing you."

Chapter 952

After finishing speaking, he said: "By the way, I haven't asked you yet, aren't you in Haicheng? Why did you come to Aurous Hill so quickly?"

Zhao Hao smiled and said: "It's very coincidental that the unit arranged for me to come over for a business trip. I just arrived in the afternoon. I just got off the bus and saw that you were chatting in the group, and then I hurried over."

Charlie asked curiously: "Aren't you doing business by yourself? Why did you work again?"

Zhao Hao smiled bitterly, and said, "Business has been dry, how can the business be so good now, especially in the past two years, the economic situation is not good, and it is not easy to do anything."

After speaking, he looked at Claire and smiled: "Charlie, is this your...?"

Charlie nodded and said, "This is my wife, Claire."

After speaking, he introduced Claire again: "Claire, this is Zhao Hao, my best friend in the orphanage."

Zhao Hao smiled and said, "Charlie, you are really blessed, your wife is so beautiful."

Claire smiled and said, "Thank you."

Zhao Hao nodded, and then pretended to complain to Charlie: "Charlie, you are not kind! You haven't taken the initiative to contact us for several years. After Aunt Lena suffered from uremia, I heard Aunt Lena say, You often visit her, but you avoid our brothers and sisters every time, why?"

Charlie smiled and said seriously: "The past few years have not been very good, I didn't want everyone to see it."

Charlie also has self-esteem. Since marrying Claire, he has often been ridiculed by people, saying that he is a Rubbish, a rag, and a live-in son-in-law. Although he is not surprised how people think of him, he does not want to let him be with him since childhood. These little friends who grew up together know their dilemma.

Zhao Hao said seriously: "My dear brother, we lived in a shack on a construction site for a long time. A steamed bun can be broken in half and a person can break in half. Why are you embarrassed in front of me? Brother, I've been unhappy in the past few years. Look at me, don't I still laugh every day."

Charlie nodded slightly.

At this time, Xiaofen also looked at Zhao Hao with a smile, and said, "Brother Zhao Hao, why don't you say hello to me?"

Zhao Hao saw Xiaofen and observed at her for a long time before he was surprised and said, "You...you are Xiaofen?!"

Like Charlie, Zhao Hao has never returned after leaving the orphanage when he was eighteen.

At that time, Xiaofen was only thirteen or fourteen years old, and she was still a yellow-haired girl, but now Xiaofen has become a decent beauty, and the gap is still very obvious.

Xiaofen smiled and said, "It's me, why are you so surprised!"

Zhao Hao laughed and said: "It's really a big eighteen woman. At that time, you were yellow and thin, and short. You looked like a tomboy every day. I didn't expect you to become so beautiful now!"

Xiaofen replied shyly: "Brother Zhao Hao, don't praise me. I have a sister-in-law here, I can't be considered pretty."

As she said, she couldn't help but look at Claire, and the envy on her face was even more expressive.

Zhao Hao smiled and said: "Don't be so arrogant, you are also a beautiful woman out of a million."

Xiaofen was embarrassed not knowing how to speak, and suddenly received a call.

She picked up the phone and listened, her face immediately became anxious, and she said to everyone: "The owner of the restaurant called and said that the hotel's wiring was aging, and the power was skipped. It can't be repaired today, and it has to wait for tomorrow, so it can't be opened."

"Huh?" Zhao Hao blurted out: "Then we have to find another place!"

Xiaofen said anxiously: "Now it's time for dinner, I'm afraid it will be difficult to find a box temporarily..."

As soon as Charlie heard this, he was about to call Mr. Orvel to ask if there were any boxes in Classic Mansion.

At this time, a black Mercedes-Benz car stopped beside everyone...

Chapter 953

The window of the Mercedes-Benz car was lowered, and Charlie glanced at it and recognized the man driving.

This person is Jiang Ming who took the initiative to organize a gathering in the group today.

However, Charlie didn't have much friendship with him.

Jiang Ming was dressed in a suit and leather shoes with a slightly fat figure. When he saw the crowd, he stopped the car, poked his head out of the car, and said, "Oh, I'm so sorry, everyone has been waiting for a long time."

With that said, with an arrogant and complacent look between his eyebrows, he deliberately explained: "Hey, there is a traffic jam on the road. It was delayed for a while, and I am late."

Someone exclaimed and said, "Jiang Ming, you all drive Mercedes-Benz? When did you buy it?"

Jiang Ming laughed and said, "I just bought it two days ago."

Charlie suddenly realized it, no wonder this guy was so active in organizing parties, it turned out to be showing off his childhood friends who just mentioned a new car and wanted to find him!

At this time, someone asked: "Jiang Ming, what model is this car? A lot of money, right?"

Jiang Ming smiled triumphantly, and pretended to be modest, and said: "Oh, it's just a Mercedes-Benz e300l. It's not a good car, it's just over 500,000."

"Oh!!"

Everyone exclaimed.

Someone said: "Oh, Jiang Ming, you are too good. You have only been out of society for a few years, so you can afford such an expensive car!"

"Yeah, we are still taking the bus, and you are already on the big run. It's really more than human to throw away!"

"That's more people to die than people to shop around!"

"Oh, one meaning."

To be honest, the children who come out of the orphanage are basically helpless people.

Their starting point is much lower than most people, if others start from 0, then they start from negative.

Up to now, most of the children who came out of the orphanage in the same period of the year are still struggling with food and clothing. They will not have any good jobs, let alone good opportunities, so everyone basically All are pretty poor.

Except for Charlie and Jiang Ming, none of the other orphanage friends can afford a car.

So when everyone saw Jiang Ming buying a Mercedes-Benz, they were very envious and admired.

Jiang Ming smiled triumphantly, waved his hand and said, "It's okay, it's all small money to me, it's not worth mentioning!"

As he said, he suddenly saw Charlie standing in the crowd, his face changed slightly.

Unexpectedly, Charlie's rival was actually one step ahead of him.

When he was in the orphanage, he looked down on people like Charlie, and wanted to teach Charlie many times, but because he couldn't beat him, he was finally repaired by Charlie.

With the increase in frequency, Charlie has become his psychological shadow, and he still can't let go of it.

He once thought that even if Charlie was able to fight when he was in the orphanage, as long as he entered society, people like Charlie would definitely get mixed up very miserably.

After he glanced at Charlie's clothes, he couldn't help but sneered in his heart. He was dressed in miscellaneous goods, and he didn't know anything about it.

However, when he saw Claire, his eyes lit up, and he was suddenly shocked!

He has never seen such a beautiful woman in real life.

Chapter 954

This made him wonder, could this beauty be a small partner in the orphanage?

But no matter how he thought, he couldn't think of any memory fragments related to this beauty.

Thinking of this, Jiang Ming still had a smile on his face, first with a bit of arrogance, and said hello to Charlie: "Yeah, isn't this Charlie? Long time no see!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Big bullsh*t pocket?"

Big bullsh*t pocket is Jiang Ming's nickname in the orphanage at the time, because this kid is fat and can eat, so he likes to amplify bad f@rts.

The key is that this kid f@rts. He never pays attention to the occasion. It is used when playing games in class, when eating, and when sleeping.

At that time, the little friends were troubled by his bullsh*t, and he was miserable, so he left with nickname, called Big bu.tt bull.

Jiang Ming didn't expect Charlie to mention his previous nickname as soon as he came up, and suddenly his face felt a little uncontrollable.

Before he could say anything, a young man behind him said displeasely: "Hey, Charlie, how do you talk? How dare you called Mr. Jiang Ming's nickname? Mr. Jiang Ming is now an executive of a listed group. , You have to be respectful when you speak!"

Charlie glanced at the person who spoke, and vaguely remembered that the other person was Ronnel, who was one of Jiang Ming's dog legs back then. He didn't expect that after so many years, he would still follow Jiang Ming's a.

So, he frowned slightly, and said faintly: "I'm sorry, I have called him a big a since he was a child, and he has become used to it."

Jiang Ming glanced at Claire, and found that Claire looked a little bit uncontrollable about his nickname. He was immediately a little angry, and counterattacked: "Charlie, look at you like this. It's not bad to be a guy. What car did you drive over? "

Rommel immediately took the conversation, laughed, and said, "Oh, Mr. Jiang Ming, what you said is a bit too much. I heard that Charlie went to be a live-in son-in-law, and he was supported by his wife. It would be nice to have a hot meal. , You also asked what car they drove over. Didn't you slap them on purpose..."

"Oh, slip of the tongue!" Jiang Ming slapped his head and deliberately said, "I'm sorry Charlie, I'm a bit straight, I hope you don't mind."

That's what he said, but he was already laughing in his heart, Charlie, Charlie, let me see how you step down!

Charlie smiled and said, "Big bullsht pocket, I always thought that you love to bullsht because your intestines are straight. I didn't expect you to speak straight. You use the trachea to speak, just like your intestines. The pipes are all straight!"

When everyone heard his ridicule, they laughed suddenly.

Jiang Ming's face became very ugly by the way.

He really didn't expect that when he said something straight, Charlie caught the handle, it was a sarcasm.

Jiang Ming's face suddenly became difficult to look.

He couldn't care about being angry now, mainly because he was afraid that Claire would have a bad impression of himself because of Charlie's words.

So, he hurriedly looked at Claire and asked with a smile: "Oh, this beauty looks a little strange. Maybe it's because I haven't returned to the orphanage for so many years. Why can't I recognize you? Can't tell me, what's your name?"

Xiaofen on the side said dissatisfied: "Hey, Jiang Ming, do you have any insight? Do you know who this is? This is my sister-in-law, my brother Charlie's wife!"

“what?!”

Jiang Ming was struck by lightning and killed him. He couldn't believe that this super beautiful woman who made her look at him was actually Charlie wasteful's wife!

He couldn't help but look at Charlie, and found that Charlie's clothes all over his body were not as expensive as his own coat. This Armani coat of his own, let alone buy him, and spare half!

Looking at the beautiful and moving Claire standing tall and tall next to Charlie, he couldn't help but feel extremely annoyed.

Oh sh!t!

Claire is such a beautiful woman, with an exquisite figure, she is simply the best among the best, and she is a hundred times, a thousand times or even ten thousand times stronger than the women he has ever seen.

As a result, she turned out to be Charlie's wife, God is so f*cking blind!

Chapter 955

When he thought that Charlie could find such a beautiful wife, Jiang Ming felt even more unbalanced. With a smirk on his face, he sarcastically said to Charlie: “Charlie, I don't think we two have seen each other in a few years. You have changed quite a bit. Yes, it looks like oily noodles. It's really a standard little white face, natural for soft rice!”

As he said, he looked at Charlie up and down, and pretended to be ashamed and said: “If I knew it was so easy to be a live-in son-in-law. Then why have I worked so hard in the past few years? Look at me. After being broken, I earned the position of director. Compared with you, the soft rice king who can only eat and wait to die, I am really ashamed!”

The reason why Jiang Ming was so cynic on purpose was that he wanted to show off his identity and status in front of Charlie and others, so as to attack Charlie.

After saying this, he couldn't help looking at the young and charming Xiaofen.

Now that such a super beauty like Claire is out of play, Xiaofen, a tender little sister who can pinch the water, can still develop well!

"When was in the orphanage before, why didn't I realize that this little girl, Xiaofen, was so beautiful.

If I had known it earlier, I should have dealt with her in the orphanage back then."

At this moment, the few people behind him laughed at Charlie when he heard him ridicule Charlie.

But Charlie still stood calmly in place, without any angry expression on his face.

Claire was a little angry, and said coldly: "This gentleman, my husband didn't recruit or provoke you. Why do you speak rudely and ridicule him? Besides, what does it have to do with you whether my husband eats leftovers? Did he eat a grain of your rice?"

Jiang Ming didn't expect Charlie's wife to be so towards him!

He suddenly felt that God was unfair!

Why is there no such a wife when he is so good and so hard?

Is it true to the old saying that a good man has no good wife? Good wife but no good guy? !

So he got even worse in his heart, sneered and said: "Beauty, I am not ridiculing your husband, I am telling the truth, a beautiful woman like you, marrying this kind of rag, it is really a flower on the cow dung!"

Claire said coldly: "You are an outsider in the matter between me and my husband, and you don't have any qualifications to judge! It's enough to manage your own affairs!"

Jiang Ming was choked and speechless, and Claire was so beautiful. The key is that she still loves her husband so much, and is so envious of her husband!

At this time, Xiaofen couldn't help but scolded angrily: "Hey! Jiang Ming! What do you mean by this person? Did my brother Charlie recruit you? You are here to be sarcastic to him! I see you as a human being. Too much time! Nothing has changed from before!"

When Jiang Ming heard this, his heart suddenly became annoyed.

Why is this Xiaofen facing Charlie like this? What is so good about this hanging wire? Why are all the beautiful women facing him?

Claire, as his wife, is fine with him. This Xiaofen didn't have a relationship with him for no reason, so why is she doing this?

Moreover, the more Jiang Ming looked at Xiaofen, the more he felt that this girl was really the best!

At the age of early twenties, the figure is already so tall, and this is what should be convex and curled, feel impeccable no matter how you look at it!

Moreover, the appearance of pouting in anger is even more confusing, and he can't wait to kiss them in his arms immediately!

It would be really cool if he could get started with such a young girl!

Chapter 956

So, he hurriedly said to Xiaofen with a grin: "Oh, Xiaofen, don't get me wrong. Did I make a joke with Charlie? You don't know the two of us. We used to make jokes a lot, but in fact our relationship is very good!"

Xiaofen snorted and turned her head to ignore him.

At this moment, a middle-aged woman with grey hair and kind face walked out of the entrance of the orphanage. Seeing everyone, she couldn't help asking: "Oh, didn't you go to the restaurant? Why are you still standing at the door? Huh?"

Everyone hurriedly looked back, and were pleasantly surprised to find that the speaker was Aunt Lena who had recovered.

At this time, Aunt Lena had a very kind smile on her face. She looked at everyone, and she was also very pleased, especially seeing Charlie, not only comforted, but also a little grateful.

For a while, everyone also looked at Aunt Lena with eager and excited eyes.

Charlie has the blessings of the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, so it can be seen at a glance that Aunt Lena's condition at this time has been completely cured and her physical condition is much better!

He felt extremely relieved in his heart, and at the same time he couldn't help sighing that if he had obtained the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures earlier, Aunt Lena might not have to undergo surgery for a kidney transplant. A rejuvenation pill would be enough to cure all her illnesses and also Make her a few years younger or even a teenager.

The same is true for Aunt Lena. For her, every child in front of her is actually the same as her own, and she feels extremely cherished, and all her generation's time has been dedicated to the orphanage.

Although she had never thought of asking these children to report their gratitude and be filial to herself, at this time, seeing everyone coming to visit her, she nodded her heads and felt very pleased.

All the friends from the orphanage all stepped forward to greet Aunt Lena.

Some people here come from the bottom of their hearts, while others just take a form.

But even so, Aunt Lena was very grateful, after all, this group of children can still remember her, which made her very satisfied.

At this moment, Charlie also stepped forward and said, "Aunt Lena, congratulations on your recovery and discharge!"

Claire smiled sweetly on the side and said: "Aunt Lena, congratulations on your recovery!"

After seeing Charlie and Claire, Aunt Lena burst into a happy smile on her kind face, saying: "Charlie, Claire, dear, I haven't seen you two for a few months. My mind is broken! Are you two okay now?"

To be honest, there are many children in the orphanage, and she treats all the children as her own children, but if she wants to say who she loves, Charlie is the first person to do her part.

When Charlie was in the orphanage, he was the most obedient, sensible and considerate child.

Moreover, although the other children who went out from the orphanage would come back to see and occasionally sponsor the orphanage, they have never been like Charlie and have been doing their best to help the orphanage.

Especially when she was ill at the beginning, the huge amount of medical expenses was prohibitive even for her family. Unexpectedly, at that time, Charlie alone would rise to the challenge.

Had it not been for him, she would have died a long time ago.

Moreover, she was lucky enough to be sent to Union Hospital for treatment. Thanks to Charlie's help in raising money, Aunt Lena was also full of gratitude to him from the bottom of her heart.

She felt the same for Claire in her heart. If Claire hadn't helped Charlie to raise money everywhere, she wouldn't be able to sustain it.

So, Aunt Lena looked at Claire just as she looked at her daughter-in-law, and praised: "Claire, you are more beautiful than before. During this time, Charlie didn't cause you trouble, right? Auntie's most optimistic couple must be respectful and get along well, and don't let other people gossip."

Chapter 957

Hearing what Aunt Lena said, Claire hurriedly said: "Aunt Lena, don't worry, I and Charlie have a good relationship."

After speaking, Claire then said apologetically: "Aunt Lena, after you went to Eastcliff for treatment, I have never had time to visit you in Eastcliff. If Charlie told me, I would not know that you were cured and discharged. Back to Aurous Hill, I am really embarrassed..."

Aunt Lena said with emotion: "After I fell ill, your couple has been busy in the hospital. If you two hadn't helped raise money, Auntie might have died in critical condition..."

As she said, Aunt Lena's eyes reddened and she choked up, "Especially Claire you, while you were busy with the affairs of the Willson family, you also have to come and take care of me. Auntie has always been very grateful and feels very guilty. I dragged down you couple, if you are really embarrassed, it should be the aunt who said it!"

Claire hurriedly comforted: "Aunt Lena, don't forget, I am Charlie's wife, and you are Charlie's benefactor, that is, my benefactor!"

Aunt Lena looked at Claire and was deeply moved.

Seeing Claire again this time, Aunt Lena felt that she was a little different from the past.

Although Claire and Charlie often visited her in the past, Claire still vaguely felt a little alienated from Charlie, obviously because they had no emotional foundation.

But this time, the two have been holding hands, and it seems that their relationship has also improved a lot.

In the past, Aunt Lena could often hear the rumours spread outside, so she was always worried about the relationship between the two, for fear that someday Charlie would divorce Claire and be driven out of the Willson family.

At this time, seeing the two people's relationship has improved, her heart settled down.

As everyone present listened to this conversation, they couldn't help being surprised.

Only then did they know that Charlie and his wife had done so much for Aunt Lena while Aunt Lena was sick.

Charlie was very humble. He took good care of Aunt Lena. He just wanted to repay the other party with all his heart, and he never thought of relying on this to show off and show off in front of others.

However, Jiang Ming on the side was depressed!

The reason why everyone can come together to visit Aunt Lena today is that he is the real initiator and organizer!

Moreover, he was thinking that he is now a successful person anyway, just by taking advantage of this reception banquet, he will put pressure in front of everyone and enjoy the compliments and complacency of this group of people. By the way, he will talk Xiaofen as a young gentleman and try to develop it.

Unexpectedly, Charlie was robbed of the limelight by a guy like Charlie, and he turned into a background board!

Thinking of this, Jiang Ming looked at Charlie with a bit of resentment.

At this time, Aunt Lena shook Claire's hand and said with great relief: "Claire, you and Charlie are not too young anymore. It's time to consider having a child. The group of children they left from the orphanage back then Here, Charlie got married alone, and the rest are still bachelors. As an aunt, I can't wait to hug a godson!"

Claire blushed all at once.

She and Charlie have been married for more than three years, but no one has ever urged her to have a baby.

After all, the relatives around her looked down on Charlie a little, and wished she divorced Charlie, how could they let Charlie have children with her.

However, she was suddenly urged to have a child by Aunt Lena. In addition to being shy in her heart, she suddenly had some strange feelings.

Claire will soon be twenty-six years old, at the optimal age for childbearing, and for a girl of this age, the motherhood and maternal love in her heart have already begun to faintly breed.

Take Claire, for example, occasionally when she sees other people with children, she will feel that maternal love is overflowing in her heart, and even start to think about when she can have a baby of her own.

However, because there are so many things in the family, she has never dared to consider this issue in depth.

So she said with some shame: "Auntie Lena, we haven't thought about having children yet, because I have just started a business and the company has only just improved a bit, and it has been the busiest time recently."

Chapter 958

At this time, Xiaofen looked at Claire's eyes, a bit more envy, and a bit more lost in his heart.

She has liked Charlie since she was a child. When she was very young, she dreamed of marrying Charlie and being Charlie's bride. She has not forgotten this dream until now, but now it seems that she has no chance.

That's why she envied Claire even more, because in her opinion, Claire found the best man in the world, so she is the happiest woman in the world.

Aunt Lena smiled slightly at this time and said: "Career is important, but family is also important sometimes. As women, we should not have children too late, otherwise it will affect our body."

Claire blushed and nodded.

Xiaofen said with embarrassment at this time: "Auntie Lena, the owner of the old restaurant called just now to say that there was a problem with the circuit of their restaurant and it cannot be opened today. We can only change the place for dinner."

Aunt Lena smiled and said: "In fact, it doesn't matter whether you eat or not. I am already very happy to see everyone. There are so many people here that I haven't seen for a long time."

Jiang Ming, who has been neglected all the time, immediately shined upon hearing this.

He immediately took a step forward and blurted out: "Aunt Lena, I will arrange dinner for everyone tonight."

As he said, he immediately took out his cell phone and made a call, and then said to everyone: "Everyone, I have booked a place at our five-star Hyatt Hotel in Aurous Hill. Let's go over now."

Hearing that Jiang Ming had booked a place at the five-star Hyatt Hotel, everyone present was suddenly surprised!

Someone embarrassedly said, "The Hyatt Hotel is a five-star hotel. It's too extravagant if we go there for dinner? It's not less than 20,000 or 30,000 after a meal?"

"Yeah! If you are aa, it will cost one or two thousand per person to spread it equally. Our salary level cannot afford such high consumption!"

Hearing this, other people couldn't help showing approval.

Those who enter and leave five-star hotels are basically high-class people, and only they have the confidence to go to such a place to enjoy.

And among the people present, because they are all orphans, generally have low education and no background, they can't talk about career success.

Most of the jobs that everyone is looking for are those at the lower level. Many people's salary for a month is not enough to meet the various expenses of their daily lives. They worry about firewood, rice, oil and salt all day.

Therefore, when they heard that they were going to a five-star hotel for dinner, everyone was a little worried, fearing that they would be stretched because of insufficient financial resources.

Jiang Ming smiled at this time, patted his chest generously and said, "Don't worry, you guys, I will pay half of this meal by myself, and you will pay the other half together. It is estimated that it will cost a few hundred per person. how about it?"

Hearing what he said, many people were relieved.

Jiang Ming will pay half of it by himself, which really relieved everyone's pressure.

Someone couldn't help saying: "Jiang Ming, how embarrassed to let you do half of the job!"

Jiang Ming waved his hand indifferently, and said with a smile: "Today is mainly for Aunt Lena. It doesn't matter if I spend more money!"

In fact, everyone did not know that Jiang Ming happened to have a budget for a company to entertain customers. What he thought was that he would pay 20,000 to 30,000 for this meal, and he would pay half of it on the surface, and let others pay the other half.

At that time, he will issue an invoice and go to the company for reimbursement. Not only could he get back half of what he spent, but could also earn back half of what everyone paid back!

For example, for a meal of 30,000, he would pay 15,000, and rest would pay 15,000. Afterwards, he will go to the company to reimburse 30,000. Not only would he earn face and favors in front of everyone, he also will make a net profit of 15,000. money!

why not?

Chapter 959

Aunt Lena next to me, when she heard that she was going to the Hyatt Hotel for dinner, she hurriedly said: "Jiang Ming, auntie knows that this is your wish, but I don't need to go to the high-end Hyatt Hotel. The place is too expensive!"

Later, Aunt Lena said: "And you eat wherever you go. It's better to cook a table of delicious meals for you. Let's have a bite in the orphanage. This will save you children. Less money. You can use the little money you save to do it yourself. It's not worth it to spend so much to get the wind from me..."

She has been thrifty and economical all her life. She has never been to such a luxurious place. It is difficult for her to adapt to the place where she spends tens of thousands to eat.

However, Jiang Ming smiled slightly and said, "Auntie Lena, don't say that. We are all raised by you, and now we are at the age to do something for you. Besides, I said just now. I'm not alone for the meal, I pay half, and the rest will pay the other half!"

After that, he saw Aunt Lena hesitate, and then persuaded: "Auntie, don't worry, this meal won't cost too much. Moreover, the Hyatt Hotel has a cooperative relationship with our company. I will have some discount, after a meal is eaten, and the spread is calculated on everyone's head, and it will only be a few hundreds!"

When these words came out, everyone present was also relieved.

If the per capita consumption is several hundred, if it is still within the range of most people, everyone will naturally relax a lot.

And they feel that they can also take advantage of this opportunity to spend very little money to experience the upscale and luxury of five-star hotels, which is very cost-effective.

At this time, Aunt Lena was still a little hesitant. Jiang Ming looked at the time and said, "Aunt Lena, it's already past 6 o'clock. If we don't hurry, there may be nowhere to go."

Aunt Lena felt that it was rare for these children to come together to visit her. If everyone didn't even finish the meal in the end, it would be really disappointing.

In the end, she couldn't stand Jiang Ming's hospitality, so she nodded and said, "Okay, then let's go to Hyatt to eat."

Jiang Ming was overjoyed and hurriedly said: "Aunt Lena, let's go quickly."

Someone asked: "How would a dozen of us go there?"

Jiang Ming smiled and said, "My car can take four. Let Auntie Lena take my car, and Xiaofen can take my car, and two more."

As he said, he deliberately looked at Charlie, raised his eyebrows and smiled: "Charlie, do you want to ride in my car with your wife? I'll take you there. Your wife is so beautiful and you should ride in a Mercedes-Benz. You can't take her on the bus!"

Charlie smiled lightly and said, "Thank you for your kindness, but I also came by car."

"Oh, really?" Jiang Ming asked exaggeratedly: "You came by car, aren't you the live-in son-in-law? How can you afford a car? What kind of car? Alto or Xiali?"

Charlie took out the BMW car key blankly and pressed the unlock button. The BMW 760 parked on the side of the road not far away flashed a yellow light.

Everyone looked in the direction that his remote control key was facing, and when they saw him really reached out to unlock a BMW, they all exclaimed.

These little friends really don't have much promise. They were shocked when they saw Jiang Ming's 500,000-plus Mercedes-Benz just now. They felt that this was their ultimate goal in life, but they didn't expect it. , Charlie even drove a BMW.

Jiang Ming's complexion immediately became a little unsightly, because BMW and Mercedes-Benz are basically the same brands, and this made him feel a little uncomfortable, who originally thought he stood apart.

He should be the only one in the orphanage who can afford a BMW and Benz.

Unexpectedly, Charlie could even afford a BMW!

He felt uncomfortable, so he took a closer look at Charlie's BMW and found that there were three numbers 520 written on the back of the trunk, and his mood finally improved.

Chapter 960

In fact, the BMW 5 Series and the Mercedes-Benz E-Class are two levels that are completely equivalent, and is not bad.

However, Jiang Ming knows very well that Charlie's BMW 520 is the second most beggar version of the BMW 5 Series. His own Mercedes-Benz e300l is closer to the top of the Mercedes-Benz e-class. There are also e260 and e200 below.

In other words, Charlie's BMW 520 and Mercedes-Benz e200 are of the same grade, so his own e300l also overwhelmed Charlie.

So he deliberately said: "Oh, Charlie, it's not that I told you, you are really dying to face and suffer. Other experts have said that when buying a car, you must never buy the last beggar version. You say you have this. Money, why can't you buy a BMW 3 series with a mid-to-high profile? Why do you have to lick your face, put on a big tail eagle, and buy the lowest BMW 5 series? Are you too vain?"

Someone asked in surprise: "Jiang Ming, what is the beggar version?"

Jiang Ming smiled and said: "The beggar version is this car, the most garbage model in these series, and the lowest model, which belongs to the ranks of the crane tail."

Everyone suddenly realized.

Charlie suddenly remembered that when the Darren Hotel opened, he drove a BMW 540 and acted like Gerald.

Thinking that Gerald deliberately agitated him and wanted to use his 540 to crush his 520, Charlie was suddenly inspired by him.

At that time, Gerald deliberately urged him to compare himself with him, but now it is his own way to urge Jiang Ming to compare this man with himself!

Therefore, he deliberately said to Jiang Ming: "Jiang Ming, there is a saying I don't know if you've heard it, saying that there are no meat cars, only meat people." In other words, as long as your skills are at home, you can drive whatever car you like. Faster than others, but if you are not skilled enough, you will not be able to drive even if they give you an F1. "

After speaking, Charlie said with a disdainful face: "Jiang Ming, it's not that I'm talking to you. I have a very good driving skill. People give me the nickname, Aurous Hill Schumacher!"

When Jiang Ming heard this, he immediately curled his mouth and said, "Oh, sh!t, you are Aurous Hill Schumacher? Do you know what Schumacher looks like?"

Charlie sneered disdainfully: "Do you believe it or not."

Jiang Ming coldly snorted: "The mouth is on your face, just blow it! I don't believe that it's just like you. If you drive a BMW 520, you dare to call Aurous Hill Schumacher? I kick the accelerator and let you eat your exhaust!"

After all, Jiang Ming raised his eyebrows arrogantly and asked: "Would you like to compare?"

"Ah, come again?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I'm telling you that, some time ago, I just put a BMW 540 on the ground. The power of the BMW 540 is much stronger than your Mercedes-Benz e300l.

Jiang Ming spit out and said with contempt: "Charlie, do you brag about it and don't write drafts? Just your broken car, the BMW 540? I'm! Don't talk about the 540, you can do it today. A Mercedes-Benz e300l, I have your last name!"

Charlie deliberately asked, "How much horsepower is your car?"

Jiang Ming said proudly: "My car has 258 horsepower!"

Charlie nodded, gave a thumbs up, and said: "Then you are awesome! I can't do this, only 184, far worse than you! You are still amazing!"

Jiang Ming sneered and said sarcastically: "Why? Don't you dare to compare? What did you just say? You smashed the 340-horsepower 540. My 258-horsepower Mercedes-Benz e300l, you are afraid are you still a man?"

Charlie deliberately said timidly: "Oh, I can't say that it can be better than yours. What is it better than you, you won, and you won't fight against others, right?"

Chapter 961

"That won't work!"

Seeing Charlie's confession, Jiang Ming bit him instead.

He deliberately increased the volume a bit and said: "Everyone has heard it. You said it yourself. There is no meat car, but only meat people. If this is the case, then we two will compete in front of all the students."

Charlie waved his hand and said a heart-wrenching sentence: "Oh, Jiang Ming, let's not compare. Everyone is not a heavyweight player. It would be unfair to be together like this."

It's really unfair. BMW 760 and Mercedes-Benz e300l are no different from Husky.

When Jiang Ming saw that Charlie said that he was not a heavyweight, he thought Charlie was scared, and he immediately sneered: "Charlie, didn't you just brag? Why are you talking about it now? In front of your Wife, can you look like a man?"

Charlie pretended to be annoyed and said, "Oh, I said Jiang Ming. It is meaningless for you to talk like this. Everyone is a small partner who grew up together. Do you need to be so aggressive? Yes, you should drive a car. What's so good about the car? Do you really think your car is better than mine, you can beat me?"

Jiang Ming thought that Charlie got the set, but he didn't expect that he actually got the set, and hurriedly said: "The key to whether you can beat depends on whether you dare to compare with me. If you are counseled and not a man, then there is no way for you."

Charlie immediately became ashamed and said: "Okay! Comparing, who is afraid of whom."

Jiang Ming immediately smiled and said: "Great! Then let's try and compare, so let's get to the Grand Hyatt Hotel first than whoever gets there first. What do you think?"

Charlie nodded: "It's okay, but it should be some color, right?"

"Come on!" Jiang Ming said confidently: "You can open the color head, whatever you want!"

Charlie thought for a while and said, "Let's do it, I heard from Xiaofen today that the orphanage is still short of funds, or else, no matter who we are, we will donate our car to the orphanage and let it go to the welfare. What do you think?"

The good brother Zhao Hao hurriedly grabbed him and blurted out: "Charlie, don't be fooled by him! This person is not at all well-intentioned!"

Charlie smiled, saying that it is okay, but in his heart he secretly said: "My dear brother, I actually want him to be fooled by me, because I am the one who really has no peace of mind."

But it is naturally impossible to say this.

Jiang Ming laughed aloud at this time and said: "Charlie, is your BMW 520 in your name? Didn't you push the door upside down? This should be your wife's car? Why are you not embarrassed to take your wife's car out? What about the generosity of others? What if you lose and your wife is unwilling to donate this car to the orphanage?"

Claire on the side was also very dissatisfied with Jiang Ming's arrogant attitude, and said: "Although the car is written with my name, you can rest assured that I will guarantee it personally. If my husband loses to you, then I will take this Donate the car to the orphanage. If you lose to my husband, then you have to donate your car to the orphanage. So many people are watching, do you agree?"

When Jiang Ming heard these words, he immediately relaxed.

They think, his Mercedes-Benz e300l can't even run with BMW 520?

Since you want to get humiliated, get ready to say goodbye to your car!

So Jiang Ming said: "Since you have said so beauties, of course I have no opinion. There are so many friends here to witness, including Aunt Lena, who is also here to witness. We are so sure, who loses. Donate this car to the orphanage."

Aunt Lena hurriedly said: "Oh, you guys. What is this for? We grew up together, what can't you say, you have to be stunned here? Listen to me, don't make this bet anymore, let's Just eat with peace of mind, reminisce about the past, and enhance the relationship."

Chapter 962

Jiang Ming said immediately: "Aunt Lena, don't worry about this. This is a bit of personal grievance between Charlie and me. Besides, we are more than a match. It is not whoever wins and who wins is good for the orphanage. As a result, if my car is sold second-hand, it can sell for 400,000. Although Charlie's car is cheap, it can sell for two or three. The money from selling can be donated to the orphanage, or it can be used by the brother of the orphanage. My sisters have a good life."

Charlie smiled and said to Aunt Lena at this time: "Aunt Lena, you don't have to worry about this. Jiang Ming and I will handle it in private."

Aunt Lena was actually mainly afraid that Charlie would suffer, but seeing Charlie's confidence, she suddenly felt that this matter should not be as simple as she thought.

Actually, when she went to Eastcliff to see a doctor this time, Aunt Lena found something wrong.

The first thing that is not right is that the doctors in the hospital were too polite to her and treated her as a VIP.

When she was recuperating in the hospital, she happened to meet a domestic celebrity and went to Fairview to see a doctor. The person who treated that celebrity at that time was her doctor.

However, she found that the treating doctor's attitude towards the star was far less respectful than his attitude towards herself.

She couldn't help but secretly thought that she was just an employee of an orphanage, and she came to Eastcliff for the first time in her life. It was impossible to have anything to do with her. What background might she have, so why did the doctor treat her so respectfully?

The second problem is that she went to the operating table and was injected with general anesthesia by the anesthesiologist, but before she passed out immediately, she heard chief surgeon talking to his assistant.

Dazed, she heard the other party say that this patient is the benefactor of the young master, so they must be cautious and careful

She never understood, what exactly was the young master that the other party was talking about? Or maybe she had hallucinations and misheard.

However, every time she thinks of this clip, she always thinks of Charlie.

Although she doesn't know why, she always feels that looking at the grown-up child is far from simple as she thought.

What's more, all of the millions of medical expenses that she had spent in the hospital at the beginning were all solved by Charlie.

What kind of method does he have to solve so much money in a short time?

This made her feel a little weird.

Seeing Charlie at this time, she found that Charlie has indeed changed a lot from before. The biggest change is that he is more confident than before, and much much more confident!

This also made Aunt Lena very pleased in her heart, because in the past so many years, she too hoped that Charlie could be more confident, but she had not been successful, but now it seems that he has successfully passed that hurdle. .

Thinking of this, she no longer intervened in the gambling agreement between Charlie and Jiang Ming.

Jiang Ming looked at Charlie smugly at this time, and said with a smile: "Charlie, to be fair, each of us is full of five people in our car. Let our little friends including Aunt Lena come as a testimony, lest you Who denies after losing!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Well, Aunt Lena, Xiaofen, and Zhao Hao are in my car."

"Ok!" Jiang Ming said with a smile: "Then those of us who played well back then, take my car together!"

Chapter 963

The friends who are good deeds immediately uttered a cheer, but because the car can't fit so many people after all, there are still a few friends who can only take a taxi.

Charlie sat in the BMW 760 he bought for Claire, and his wife Claire sat in the co-pilot.

Aunt Lena, Xiaofen and Hao Zhao sat in the back row.

Charlie said to the person in the car, "Sit down, and I will be on the straight road in front of you later. I can end the battle with a kick of the accelerator."

After speaking, he looked at Aunt Lena and told: "Aunt Lena, grab the handrails and hold on. I can make a Mercedes Benz for our orphanage with a kick of the accelerator! Easy to sell for more than 300,000, Then buy some good toys for the children!"

Aunt Lena nodded and said with a smile: "Then I have to thank you for the children in our orphanage!"

On the other side, Jiang Ming's car was also full of five people, all of whom were his attendants.

Jiang Ming drove the car to Charlie's BMW, lowered the window, and said with a smile: "Charlie, let's go when you are ready, I will let you run for three seconds."

Charlie said modestly: "Don't don't don't, you're all friends, let's not be boring for more than three seconds, let's get together."

"Haha!" The five people on the Mercedes-Benz laughed loudly, and Jiang Ming said, "Charlie, you are really interesting. If this is the case, then I count one, two, three?"

Charlie nodded: "Okay, come on."

Jiang Ming laughed and said, "Come on, one, two, three, go!"

After speaking, Jiang Ming immediately stomped on the accelerator.

Charlie let him deliberately for a second, and then stepped on the accelerator deeply, causing the BMW 760 to rush out quickly like an off-string arrow.

In few seconds, Charlie had already left Jiang Ming far behind.

The road went straight all the way, and slightly increased the speed, which directly cast away Jiang Ming.

Jiang Ming didn't realize that it was Charlie's car that rushed past, until someone around him reminded him: "Brother Jiang Ming, that kid Charlie has passed!"

"Where?" Jiang Ming panicked, and he looked at him with a dazed look: "f*ck, how could he be so fast..."

A kid in the back seat sighed: "It seems that Charlie does have some skills!"

"Technology a!" Jiang Ming came down in cold sweat, blurted out: "This is not good technology at all, this is a strong motivation! This b@stard tricked me!"

The man hurriedly asked: "What do you mean?!"

Jiang Ming scolded angrily: "My car has stepped on the floor oil, and he is so much faster than me. This proves that the horsepower of his car is much stronger than the horsepower of my car. At least it has to run. Go with 400 horsepower!"

Speaking of this, Jiang Ming said in a panic: "This is over, this is really over, Charlie has calculated it..."

The kid in the co-pilot asked, "What's the matter, Brother Jiang Ming, can't you win?"

"Win a chicken feather..." Jiang Ming was already crying anxiously, and blurted out: "The car is obviously not at the same level as others. Even if you run away from the car, you can't catch up with them, you see. Look, now you can't see his shadow. The Hyatt Hotel is only two or three kilometers away. What am I going to chase after! This time I've lost!"

"Ah?!" a person in the back row blurted out: "Brother Jiang Ming, if you really lose, will you donate this car to the orphanage?"

"I'll donate an egg!" Jiang Ming gritted his teeth and cursed: "Do you know how much effort I took to buy this car? It is impossible, you will have to kill me and donate it to the orphanage!"

"But, you've already made a bet with Charlie in public. If you break your promise by then, wouldn't it be unsightly?"

Jiang Ming was also aware of this problem.

Chapter 964

If he really turns back, wouldn't all he be laughed at by these little friends?

But if he killed myself, he didn't want to give this newly bought car directly to the orphanage!

At this moment, he even thought that he would just drive away and stop eating this meal, and he would never interact with the group of people in the orphanage in the future!

Just as he thought about it, there was a flash of light in his mind.

Immediately afterwards, he did not hesitate to change lanes to the right lane, and rushed to the rear of the car in front of him!

Jiang Ming has already figured it out. The best solution is to have a traffic accident on his own. In this way, it is equivalent to the end of the game due to force majeure, so he will not lose!

Therefore, he wanted to find a car to chase up.

At this moment, the guy in the co-pilot was so scared that he yelled, blurting out, "Brother Jiang Ming! Brother Jiang Ming! We're going to hit, we're going to hit!"

Jiang Ming sneered, and said in his heart: "All I want is to hit!"

However, when he got closer and closer to the car in front of him, he discovered that the car in front was a black Porsche Cayenne.

At this moment, he immediately stepped on the brake!

Cayenne got a millions, but he only bought half a millions for his car damage insurance. If he crashed into this car, the insurance might not be enough.

It just so happened that there was a Passat on the right side of the lane, so he slapped in the direction and hit the a of the Volkswagen Passat!

With a bang, Passat was slammed for a while before stopping, and Jiang Ming's front face of Mercedes-Benz was also smashed beyond recognition.

Fortunately, the airbag exploded, so no one was injured.

After crashing the car, Jiang Ming stopped the car immediately, pushed the door and walked off, then immediately turned on his mobile phone and took a video on WeChat.

He patted the front of his car and patted the Passat which was hit by himself in front of him. He said, "My friends, please help me tell Charlie that there was an accident on my side and I ran into a Passat. Today's race is definitely not going to go on, so let's wait for my car to be repaired and then I will compare with him!"

After that, he clicked send and sent the video to the group of the orphanage.

After posting the video, he thought to himself, I was so witty! Actually thought of using this method to solve the problem! Really smart!

Otherwise, if he really drove the car to the Hyatt Hotel, then he really won't be able to get off the stage.

Even if he don't donate the car, he won't be able to get involved in the circle of the orphanage in the future.

Originally, it was okay not to be in this circle. He didn't have any real feelings with these people, nor did he have any feelings for Aunt Lena.

However, when he met Xiaofen today, he felt that he has a new goal in life.

He is preparing to look for an opportunity recently to launch an offensive against Xiaofen. If he loses the game today and denies it, then he must be foolish to play Xiaofen.

Just when he was very proud of his intelligence, a middle-aged man walked up to him, pointed at him and yelled: "You're f*cking blind? Who told you that this car is a Passat, it is a w12 Top with imported Phaeton! More than 2 million! Did your mind kick the donkey?"

"What the h*ll?!" Jiang Ming said dumbfounded: "Phaeton?! Isn't it Passat?"

When the man heard this, he scolded his mother angrily. He reached out and grabbed his collar and dragged him to the front. He pointed to his car bu.tt and cursed: "Your mother will show you clearly what this is? Come and talk.

Jiang Ming's heart was suddenly cold!

This is the lowest-key Volkswagen Phaeton in the legend? How does this f*cking look different from Passat?

Chapter 965

Although Porsche is a luxury brand, an ordinary Cayenne is just over a million.

However, although the German Volkswagen is a common brand, the Volkswagen Phaeton is a very, very expensive model.

The top-equipped Phaeton is more than two million, which is not cheaper than the top-equipped Audi a8, the top-equipped Mercedes-Benz S, and the top-equipped BMW 7 Series.

Jiang Ming was taken aback by the logo of the Porsche Cayenne just now, so he subconsciously wanted to choose a cheaper car and hit him.

Seeing this Phaeton, in the evening, he only saw a Volkswagen logo hung on the back of his bu.tt, and the car looked like a Passat, so he just ran into it without thinking about it.

However, he didn't expect it to be a low-key and cheating Phaeton...

When he thought that this car was worth more than 2 million, he felt depressed and wanted to die.

Cars pay attention to the ratio of parts to the whole. In other words, if the parts of a car are taken apart, the price will be two or three times or even higher than the price of the car.

In the rear-end collision just now, the other party's two taillights, trunk, and anti-collision beams were all damaged. This Phaeton is an imported car again. All parts and accessories need to be imported, so it might cost hundreds of thousands to repair.

Moreover, his Mercedes-Benz also crashed very badly.

Mercedes-Benz is one of the brands with the highest retail ratio. As for this 500,000 Mercedes-Benz e-class, it can be dismantled at least more than one million according to the 4s shop's parts quotation.

With two automatic headlights alone, it costs more than 60,000!

In addition, the front hood, water tank, radiator, and anti-collision beams all had problems, and two airbags burst. If the damage of this car is determined by the insurance, at least about 200,000 will be need to get it repaired.

If they really hit a Passat, then the combined damage of the two cars will definitely not exceed 500,000.

In this case, all the money will be paid by the insurance company, so there is nothing to worry about.

But he was blind and ran into a Phaeton...

With this calculation, the damage of the two cars is estimated to be close to one million!

Insurance can only compensate 500,000, and you have to figure out the remaining money.

He suddenly felt incomparably collapsed, looking at the middle-aged man driving the Phaeton, crying and saying: "Big brother, you drive such a car to go out, aren't you in a pitfall?"

"I'm cheating?!" The middle-aged man raised his hand angrily and slapped him in the face, angrily cursed: "You ran into my car. You are all responsible. You said I cheated?! Believe me or not. Now make a call and let someone chop you off?"

Jiang Ming covered his face, stepped back subconsciously, and blurted out: "You...how can you hit someone?!"

"I can't beat you?" The Phaeton driver asked coldly, "Do you know who I am?"

"I don't know..." Jiang Ming shook his head with a guilty conscience.

The driver grabbed Jiang Ming by the collar, pulled him closer, and observed at him angrily: "You can see me clearly. My name is Ma Zhongliang. Have you heard of my name?"

When Jiang Ming heard this, his face paled in fright.

Of course he has heard of Ma Zhongliang's name.

There are four heavenly kings under Orvel, all of whom are Orvel's most powerful men.

Chapter 966

These four heavenly kings in Aurous Hill are also big figures in each town, and the most famous one is Ma Zhongliang.

People in the arena, Liang brother.

Jiang Ming never dreamed that he would run into Ma Zhongliang's Phaeton in order to avoid a Porsche Cayenne.

He already regretted it and wanted to die at this time. He had known this a long time ago, and he just hit the Porsche directly.

No, if he knew it was like this, he wouldn't be faster than Charlie in any car!

That's right!

It's all because of Charlie's b@stard who dared to trick him. His BMW 520 is surprisingly powerful. At first glance, it was a modified car.

If he doesn't shame him, how can he make such a bad move?

Thinking of this, Jiang Ming hated Charlie very much.

Ma Zhongliang looked at the boy pale with fright, and snorted coldly, "Go, show me your driving license, driving license, and ID card!"

Jiang Ming didn't dare to disobey, hurried back to the car, took out all these documents, and handed them to Ma Zhongliang respectfully.

After reading the documents, Ma Zhongliang put all the documents directly into his pocket.

Afterwards, he looked at Jiang Ming and said coldly: "Jiang Ming? I have been walking in the rivers and lakes for so many years. I really don't want to care about you, it hasn't been a month since I just bought it. You crashed like this, even if you fix it for me, this car is still the injured car, not my new car."

Speaking of this, Ma Zhongliang said sternly: "So, the solution I give you is very simple. From now on, this Phaeton is yours."

When Jiang Ming heard this, he was stunned.

He didn't understand why Ma Zhongliang said that? Give him this Phaeton? impossible?

At this time, Ma Zhongliang said with a gloomy expression: "This car is for you. You buy me a new car with exactly the same configuration. I will not pursue this matter. You are also lucky. I have a much better temper now. Otherwise, just because you hit my car, I have to break your leg first!"

After hearing Ma Zhongliang's words, Jiang Ming knelt on the ground with a desperate plop.

Let himself lose for a new car, which can cost more than 2 million. Where can he get so much money?

And what's the use of this car for himself? Repairing it alone would cost hundreds of thousands, and once it was repaired, it would cost hundreds of thousands to sell it. All in all, it would cost him a hundred and hundreds of thousands to get his car alone!

This hasn't counted the damage to his car!

Insurance companies can only cover half a million, and their combined losses are estimated to exceed one million.

Jiang Ming almost collapsed at this moment, because he bought this Mercedes-Benz with a loan, and has to pay back a monthly payment of more than 10,000 every month, and it will be enough for three years.

All of his household belongings are used to pay the down payment, and monthly salary is just over 20,000. What can he do to bear the millions of losses?

Thinking of this, Jiang Ming cried and said to Ma Zhongliang, "Brother Liang, I am to blame for this matter today. I am solely responsible. I admit it! But I really don't have much money. I can't afford such an expensive car and pay you!"

"Then I don't care." Ma Zhongliang scolded: "You have to pay me satisfactory compensation if you crashed my car. You have no money? You have no money to figure out a solution. I will give you at most one week, if one week, I can't see the new Phaeton in my house, then I will let someone cut you off."

After speaking, Ma Zhongliang said again: "I have something to do, my car is now yours. You only have one week, and if you can't solve this problem, I'll cut you off. If you dare to run, I will kill you!"

Chapter 967

Jiang Ming trembled with fright, and at this time he didn't know what to do.

Ma Zhongliang was too lazy to talk nonsense with him, returned to the Phaeton, took out his personal belongings, and threw the car keys directly to Jiang Ming.

"This car also has a spare key. When you hand it over to me, I will give you that key. Don't worry. Although I am a gangster, I am never wronged. It should be me. Yes, I want it, it shouldn't be mine, I don't want anything, we people in the rivers and lakes act only two words, pay attention to it!"

"But if you don't pay attention to me, don't blame me for being cruel!"

After speaking, he stretched out his hand to hit a rental car and drove away.

The few friends around Jiang Ming were dumbfounded.

Everyone couldn't help sighing in their hearts. This Ma Zhongliang is indeed the elder brother on the road. He acted decisively and simply. He threw a car worth more than 2 million here and turned around. This style is simply too handsome.

However, at this moment, Jiang Ming knelt on the ground and cried bitterly.

How can he get the money to buy a new Phaeton? Even if the two accident cars are sold, it is far from enough!

But the other party has a big backing. If he doesn't solve this problem, one week later, the other party might really hack him to death.

Jiang Ming didn't know what to do anymore. Now that the two cars were in front of him, he had the desire to die.

A few friends who have always liked him, stepped forward at this time and asked with concern: "Brother Jiang Ming, what should we do now?"

Jiang Ming grabbed his hair with both hands, and collapsed and said, "I don't know what to do. I don't know that I can hit a Phaeton while driving. I don't know why someone would spend more than 2 million to buy it. A car that looks like a Passat!"

After that, he cried in his arms.

At this time, the WeChat group of the orphanage had already exploded.

Ever since Jiang Ming posted the video, a lot of people in the group have been asking him with concern, Is he okay? How about people? Are they injured?

After all, everyone is a small partner who grew up together. After watching the excitement, everyone was very worried after knowing that Jiang Ming had a traffic accident.

But Charlie knew very well that this must be the other party's mediation.

The BMW 760 he drove was just a kick, and it left the opponent's Mercedes-Benz far behind. Under such circumstances, everyone knows that Jiang Ming must not win the game.

Jiang Ming must know it himself.

He was definitely not willing to donate that Mercedes Benz to the orphanage, so he chose a traffic accident at this time as an excuse to terminate the race.

In fact, if he strictly followed the agreement, no matter what happened to him while driving, as long as he arrived later than Charlie, he would lose.

If he lose, he must naturally be willing to bet.

But Charlie knew very well that since Jiang Ming had already used the method of a traffic accident to find himself down, then he could not be aggressive.

The other party has had accidents. If he is still aggressive, then in the eyes of these friends, it is not close to humanity.

On the BMW car, Aunt Lena said worriedly: "You should call Jiang Ming and ask him if there is anything wrong with him. Don't get hurt."

Xiaofen curled her lips and said, "Aunt Lena, I think this Jiang Ming deliberately tried to rear-end! He must know that his car is not better than Charlie's brother, and he is unwilling to donate the car to the orphanage if he is willing to lose. This is a bad idea!"

Aunt Lena hurriedly said: "Xiaofen, don't make such presumptions about the intentions of others. If you misunderstand others, then traffic accidents are a major matter. Nothing is the most important thing."

Chapter 968

"Okay." Xiaofen nodded helplessly.

So Xiaofen called the little friend sitting in Jiang Ming's co-pilot.

After the other party answered the phone, Xiaofen asked: "Why did Jiang Ming say that he had a car accident in the group? How are you? Are you all right? Aunt Lena is particularly worried!"

The man said awkwardly: "Um...Jiang Ming, he ran into a Hui..."

Before he finished speaking, Jiang Ming stood up, grabbed the phone, and blurted out, "Xiaofen, I'm fine. I just rear-ended a Passat. I'm negotiating with the owner to resolve it. I'll come there when it's done. Don't worry."

When Xiaofen heard this, she hummed and said, "Then we will wait for you at the hotel entrance, we've all been here for a long time."

Jiang Ming hurriedly said: "Oh, then you can help me tell Charlie, I'm really sorry this time, I can't finish the game, so let me ask him again when I have time in a few days!"

Xiaofen said good, and hung up the phone.

Here, the little friend who first received a call from Xiaofeng couldn't help but ask Jiang Ming: "Brother Jiang Ming, are you going to eat at night after such a big incident?"

"Come, of course I want to go!" Jiang Ming blurted out: "It's great to invite Aunt Lena to dinner tonight, how can I not go?"

In fact, what Jiang Ming was thinking was that now he has a shortfall of more than 1 million, and he must do everything possible to get more money.

At least half of the price difference can be paid for this meal. When the time comes, he will order more dishes and try to make this meal to 40,000 to 50,000. In this way, he can earn more than 20,000. More than 20,000 is a lot.

Thinking of this, Jiang Ming immediately said to a few people around him: "Don't tell anyone what happened just now, do you understand?"

"Understand!" Several people nodded hurriedly.

Jiang Ming said with a black face, "In this way, my car's airbags have blown up, and it seems that I can't drive it. You help me push the car to the side of the road, stop here, and then we drive this Phaeton over, Phaeton It's just being chased, it should still be possible to drive."

"it is good!"

.....

Jiang Ming drove the Phaeton to the hotel. Several friends around him were stunned by the luxurious interiors of the Phaeton.

A kid behind the seat sighed: "f*ck, it really is a Phaeton, low-key and luxurious, this car is really cool to sit up, it feels like it's worth over 100 million in an instant!"

Jiang Ming felt even more uncomfortable after hearing this. What the h*ll is this, it really is...

A few minutes later, Jiang Ming, who was extremely depressed, drove Ma Zhongliang's Phaeton to the Hyatt Hotel.

He dared not drive the car to the door of the hotel, but parked in a quiet place in the parking lot, and then walked over with others.

At this time, the friends including Charlie and others were all waiting at the gate of the Hyatt Hotel.

Seeing Jiang Ming came over, many people approached with concern and asked about the accident.

Although Jiang Ming was very upset, he still waved his hand pretending to be indifferent and said, "It's okay, it's okay, it's just a chase and insurance can solve it."

Everyone is relieved now.

Charlie looked at Jiang Ming with interest, and smiled: "Jiang Ming, it's too late for you to chase after you. There are only two or three kilometers in total. You could decide the outcome soon. How can you rear-end by such a coincidence?"

Chapter 969

Jiang Ming looked at Charlie annoyed, and deliberately said, "Do you think I am afraid of you? If I hadn't chased the tail, I was designate to win!"

Xiaofen pouted and said, "Just blow it! Brother Charlie kicked you back just now with a kick of the accelerator. I think if you didn't rear-end, you must lose.

"Just kidding!" Jiang Ming deliberately made an excuse and said: "The reason why Charlie was able to overtake me at the start was because I forgot to set the car to sport mode."

As he said, he hurriedly turned away from the subject and said, "Oh, I told you this woman who doesn't understand cars that these are meaningless. Let's go in quickly. I have already booked a place."

Charlie didn't care about him anymore, and entered the Hyatt Hotel with everyone.

The Hyatt Hotel is a comprehensive hotel integrating dining, entertainment and leisure. However, the location is a bit remote, which is far from Shangri-La and Brilliant Club.

Jiang Ming took the lead and led everyone into the Hyatt Hotel. A waiter greeted him and looked at Jiang Ming and asked politely: "Hello master, do you have an appointment?"

Although Jiang Ming was very bitter, he still pretended to be bullish and said: "My name is Jiang Ming, and I booked the table No. 03 in the lobby."

After finishing speaking, Jiang Ming said to everyone: "I'm sorry guys, we decided to be a bit late. They only have a seat in the hall today."

Everyone expressed their understanding. After all, for most people, it is the first time for them to have a meal in a five-star hotel, even in the lobby.

The waiter smiled and said after checking the error: "Okay, Mr. Jiang, your reserved seat is ready, everyone, please come with me."

The waiter led everyone to the catering department. Jiang Ming spoke at this time and couldn't help but said to Charlie: "Charlie, you must have never been to such a high-end place, this time you are lucky. If you can follow me in to see, or else, you might not have the chance to enjoy it in a lifetime."

Upon hearing this, Charlie couldn't help but laugh.

The top Shangri-La Hotel in Aurous Hill is all owned by his own. With a fraction of his bank card, he can buy the entire Hyatt Hotel, so he doesn't even bother to refute a person like Jiang Ming.

Therefore, Charlie smiled slightly, too lazy to take care of Jiang Ming's rag.

Seeing Charlie's indifferent attitude, Jiang Ming was even more angry.

This Charlie has never put himself in his eyes since he was a child! Doesn't put him in the eyes now!

He is just a live-in son-in-law, and he doesn't know where he is, and dare to despise him so much!

It seems that today he must find a way to make him lose face!

At this time, Jiang Ming already had a good way to kill two birds with one stone.

He has to do everything possible to make Charlie lose face, and at the same time make his group of friends admire him. When the time comes, he will directly play with them with an empty gloved white wolf and try to use it. At the same solve the trouble of rear-ending Ma Zhongliang Phaeton car!

The more Jiang Ming thought about it, the more he felt that this was a good idea with two birds with one stone!

After making this decision, Jiang Ming felt a lot of comfort, and then he walked in the forefront with great momentum.

When he arrived at the predetermined table position, Jiang Ming asked Aunt Lena to sit down.

When Aunt Lena was seated, Jiang Ming sat on her left hand, and Ronnel and others, who had knelt and licked Jiang Ming before, sat down one by one, sometimes flattering.

Chapter 970

Charlie and Claire also sat down on her right hand at Aunt Lena's request. As for the others, they all sat down on the table one by one.

As soon as they sat down, Aunt Lena looked at these children and said with relief: "Children, thank you for remembering me in your heart, and you came to see me!"

Everyone hurriedly said, "Aunt Lena, what are you talking about? We should be."

Aunt Lena asked, "How have you been all these years?"

Everyone laughed one after another: "Let Aunt Lena miss you, we are all fine."

After leaving the orphanage for many years, everyone have their own different life trajectory, but in general, most people are ordinary people. No matter how big ideals and ambitions in the past are, they are all influenced by reality after entering society. Defeated, in ordinary life, will eventually return to ordinary.

Everyone has changed a lot. When many people talk about their lives, although they pretend to be relaxed, they are silent after listening. It is obvious that many people's lives are not very satisfactory.

They have no background and no support. In this society, they can only work bit by bit on their own. It is already good to be able to become ordinary people. It is no different from a dream to become a master.

At this time, someone asked Jiang Ming: "Jiang Ming, I heard that you are now the director of a listed group in Aurous Hill?"

Jiang Ming smiled triumphantly and said, "Yes, I have been in this directorship for half a year!"

As soon as these words came out, several people on the table exclaimed: "My God, the directorship of a listed group must have an annual salary of several hundred thousand? Jiang Ming, you are too good, no wonder you can afford a Mercedes-Benz!"

Jiang Ming said proudly: "So so, to put it bluntly, I get an annual salary of several hundred thousand a year, which is just to make a living!"

Having said this, he pretended to sigh and said: "However, the salary is not counted any more, it is just enough to provide food and clothing. What really depends on is the commission and bonus."

With that said, Jiang Ming said: "Don't hide it from everyone, now I am in charge of a big project of the company. When that project is completed, I will be able to share a bonus of more than one million!"

When they heard this, everyone was even more surprised and hurriedly said: "Ming Jiang, no, Mr. Jiang Ming, what company is yours, the benefits are so good, even the bonus can be divided into more than one million?!"

Jiang Ming said triumphantly: "Speaking of it, it scares you. It is Aurous Hill's famous White Group, like Xinhe Group, it is actually White's industry, and the profit of a project must be spent in units of tens of millions. Let's calculate, what I take, is considered to be less!"

Charlie frowned, White Group, isn't that the property of Solmon White's family?

Is Jiang Ming doing something for the White family?

This is kind of funny.

At this moment, Jiang Ming saw that Charlie had been silent, so he deliberately said, "Charlie, what are you doing now? Wouldn't you just rely on your wife to support you after you become a son-in-law and eat leftovers?"

As soon as he said this, several of his dogs couldn't help laughing.

No matter how strong Charlie was, he was repeatedly provoked by Jiang Ming, and he did not get tired of it. He said indifferently: "Yes, I wash clothes and cook at home every day, clean up the housework, and live a comfortable life. How can I have free time to find a job?"

Charlie told the truth, but it fell in Jiang Ming's ears, but he seemed to have heard a huge joke.

He laughed and said sarcastically: "I said Charlie, everyone knows the bottom line, do you want face here? I don't believe how comfortable it is to be a son-in-law!"

As he said, he deliberately said: "By the way, we also grew up together anyway. To tell you the truth, I happen to be recruiting an assistant recently. Why would you not come and help me with Ronnel?"

Chapter 971

Ronnel in Jiang Ming's mouth is one of the doglegs who has been following him.

Charlie asked curiously: "Why? Is Ronnel in the same company with you?"

"Yes." Jiang Ming said with a smile: "Ronnel is one of my assistants."

As he said, he said to Charlie again: "Come and help me. I don't need any work experience from you. You just need to do chores and serve tea and water. Anyway, you are the best at serving people. , A monthly salary of three thousand, how about it?"

Bring tea and pour water?

Three thousand monthly salary?

Charlie smiled and said: "The salary is so high, I don't deserve it, I still won't go."

Jiang Ming nodded, and said triumphantly: "It's not about blowing with you or f*cking with me. Sooner or later you can make a lot of money. Take Ronnel as an example. If it weren't for me, he would have starved to death."

As he said, he said with a sullen look: "Well, is your heart moved? If your heart is moved, tell you buddy, as long as I say a word, you can come to work tomorrow!"

When Ronnel heard this, his face was embarrassed, but he dared not refute it.

Hearing Jiang Ming's "invitation", Charlie shook his head and said, "Thank you for your kindness, but I'm used to eating leftovers, so let's forget it."

There was a sullen anger on Jiang Ming's face, and he pressed his anger and said, "Charlie, you really take the kindness of others as donkey liver and lungs. I kindly give you a job. This is your attitude?"

At this time, Aunt Lena saw it and hurriedly said: "Okay, you two don't quarrel anymore. It was originally a friendly party. You two are so noisy. I don't think you should eat this meal, so as not to finish your meal. The two turned against each other!"

Jiang Ming said aggrieved: "Auntie Lena, to be honest, I really do it for Charlie's good. I usually don't bring others to make money. If he can really put down his body and come over and do it with me, I will definitely take him with me. He can make more money."

With that said, Jiang Ming looked at the big guy and said seriously: "Everyone, since we grew up together, there is no need for me to lie to everyone. To tell you the truth, I am now a director of a fund company, our fund company, It belongs to the White Group."

"Everyone in the fund should have heard of it. It makes money very quickly. Sometimes one hundred thousand is invested. The next day it becomes hundreds of thousands, and it becomes more than two hundred thousand in a month. We make funds. Yes, I have a lot of internal information, but I never disclose it to the outside world, let alone make money with others. I really see Charlie being a son-in-law too pitiful, so I showed him a clear way."

As soon as the crowd heard this, someone immediately asked, "Brother Jiang Ming, you really do a fund? Then can you tell us any internal information?"

Seeing that everyone had been fooled, Jiang Ming nodded immediately and said: "It is true that I do have a lot of inside information in my hands. I also made some money from inside information. Otherwise, I would not be able to afford a Mercedes Benz. ."

After speaking, Jiang Ming said again: "Oh, yes, in fact, I have more than one car, I also have another car. That car is relatively low-key. You may not have heard of it."

Someone hurriedly asked: "What car? Come and tell."

Jiang Ming smiled and said: "Popular Phaeton."

After finishing speaking, he took out Ma Zhongliang's Phaeton car key from his pocket, patted it on the table, smiled and said, "Look at this there is a public logo on it, and Phaeton's English, but people who don't understand it, When you see the Volkswagen logo, you will think that this car is very cheap, and you will even think of it as a Passat. I bought this car because of this. After all, it's low-key!"

In fact, Jiang Ming's heart was bleeding when he said this.

Chapter 972

What he said was all his personal experience just now.

Because he didn't see the Phaeton's English clearly, and only saw the Volkswagen logo, he thought it was a Passat and bumped it.

It's miserable now, there are millions of holes, and he doesn't know how to plug it.

If the strategy he thought of today could not be blocked, he would basically be finished.

"f*ck!!! It's really Phaeton?!"

A boy recognized the Phaeton's car key, saw the word w12 on it, and blurted out: "This is the most expensive model of Volkswagen. The top model costs more than 2 million. It is known as the lowest-profile super luxury car. Oh my god, brother, you actually bought the Phaeton, is it too low-key?"

Coming in the same car with Jiang Ming and seeing several people before and after the accident, their expressions were a little unnatural.

They did not expect that Jiang Ming could directly apply this matter to himself, and then use it to brag.

However, they are all Jiang Ming's dog legs, so naturally they dare not expose Jiang Ming's lies.

Jiang Ming smiled indifferently at this time and said: "In fact, the people in our fund are very low-key, because this business is indeed very profitable. Many people want to make money with you. Once he knows that you have inside information, you have a way to make money. They all want to come and take a ride and follow you to make a fortune."

The man asked again: "By the way, Jiang Ming brother, what model of the Phaeton you bought?"

Jiang Ming smiled indifferently, and said arrogantly: "I bought the Phaeton, which is a w12, which is a 12-cylinder engine."

"My God!" The man said dumbfounded: "Brother Jiang Ming, this is the best match for Phaeton. It costs two hundreds of thousands for it all?"

Jiang Ming smiled and waved his hand: "In fact, it's nothing."

After speaking, Jiang Ming said again: "In fact, I was low-key just now, so I didn't tell you my actual income. As a fund, we usually focus on 12 funds a month. If these 12 funds are good, every Each one can bring us hundreds of thousands or even higher income."

At this time, someone hurriedly asked: "Brother Jiang Ming, we have been in a relationship for so many years. You have such a way to make money. Can you help your brother? I am about to get married. My mother-in-law asked me for 300,000 gift. How can I get it? I have to save money and spend till now, and I have saved a total of hundreds of thousands. At this rate, my marriage will definitely not be completed..."

Charlie recognized this kid, his name was Zhao Zhuo, and he was also an orphan.

When Jiang Ming heard that he had a deposit of more than 100,000, his heart was immediately moved.

He blurted out: "To do a fund, the main thing is to make a leverage. The more money you invest, the more you earn. Your hundreds of thousands of startup funds are really too little."

Zhao Zhuo begged: "Brother Jiang Ming, this is too much for all my in-law, and I can't take it out anymore..."

As he said, he choked and said, "Brother Jiang Ming, to be honest, an orphan like me, rag, beating children without father and mother, without money, skills, and no schooling for a few years is equivalent to half illiterate. , I can only do some hard work outside to earn some money. It's not easy, and I want to marry a wife now, but I can't marry. I beg you to help me and help me out for your poor brother's sake. !"

Jiang Ming said with difficulty, "Brother, let me tell you a heart-wrenching remark. To play with funds, you must have the capital to play. Your hundreds of thousands are too small, and I can't bring you in."

As he said, he arched his hands apologetically: "I'm sorry bro, don't blame me."

Chapter 973

The reason why Zhao Zhuo was rejected was actually Jiang Ming deliberately played a trick.

He himself is the sales director of a fraudulent fund, just like those thunderous p2p, his job is to do everything possible to fool those who don't understand and invest in what they call a fund.

But in fact, none of these funds make money, and as long as they invest, they are doomed to lose money, and don't even want to get back a penny.

At the beginning, Charlie's mother-in-law Elaine was cheated by this kind of fund company. As long as the money entered their company's account, it would be impossible to ask for it again.

However, what he wants to do today is not to let them invest in their own funds, but to trick them into giving the money to himself, and pretend to invest in the funds for them, so that he can save his life with their money first!

As soon as Zhao Zhuo heard this, he was so anxious that he was almost crying. He was already madly poor and wanted to make money. He thought that Jiang Ming could bring himself to make money, but he did not expect that he had too little capital.

So he could only plead: "Brother Jiang Ming, please, help brother, otherwise your brother really doesn't know what to do. My life has failed like this. You can't let me say anything. My girlfriend left me."

Seeing that this man had already taken the bait, Jiang Ming continued acting and said, "Brother, it's not that I don't want to help you. The point is that your capital is too small and it's not easy to operate!"

As he said, he seemed to remember something, and his eyes lit up: "By the way, I have a way to help you."

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly asked: "What can be done? Jiang Ming brother, please speak up!"

Jiang Ming hurriedly said: "That's right. I know some friends who engage in online loans. As long as you provide an ID card, they can lend you a sum of money. Although each is not much, if you borrow more platforms, You can still make up enough for a batch. I guess you can borrow four or five hundred thousand, plus your hundreds of thousands, and you have to make up at least 600,000. If this 600,000 is put into the fund, it will take a week. Doubling is not a problem."

As soon as Zhao Zhuo heard this, he choked with excitement: "Brother Jiang Ming, then do as you said. Could you please introduce me the way to introduce online loans!"

Jiang Ming smiled and said, "I'll push several loan platform apps to you later."

Zhao Zhuo said excitedly: "Brother Jiang Ming, I really don't know how to thank you anymore. You are my benefactor of reinvention, and my second parent!"

He is an orphan and never went to school. He is illiterate. He finally found a second-hand girlfriend. Seeing that he was married, his mother-in-law in the future would not let go. Life was almost desperate.

Therefore, he really had no choice but to pin all his hopes on Jiang Ming.

Jiang Ming saw his mentality right, and prepared to cheat him on a big wave. First let him borrow a few hundred thousands everywhere, and then put his own hundreds of thousands together. In this case, with one person can solve the 600,000 funding gap for himself.

If he can pit two such people, he can basically solve this problem.

As for this Zhao Zhuo, will he be rushed to death by the major online lending platforms in the future? It has nothing to do with him. Who makes this silly bird not mindful? It deserves to be pitted.

At this time, a few friends in the orphanage heard that 600,000 would double in a week, and they were all moved.

Someone said, "Brother Jiang Ming, can you take me with you for this kind of thing?"

Jiang Ming said seriously: "As long as you can get a bargaining chip, this matter can bring you money together. If you can't get a bargaining chip, then learn from Zhao Zhuo, and then first borrow from some online lending platforms. After a lot of money is paid out, and after a big profit, the money is returned. This is called borrowing chicken to lay eggs!"

Chapter 974

When the man heard this, he blurted out: "Brother Jiang Ming, count me, count me!"

Aunt Lena has not spoken, but when she hears this, she can't help but say with some worry: "Jiang Ming, now TV stations have exposed a lot of high-interest online lending platforms. Their profitable interest is really scary. Ah, I think it's better not to touch it as a last resort.

Jiang Ming did not expect that Aunt Lena would come out to spoil his good deeds, and immediately said: "Aunt Lena, the platforms you mentioned are indeed very high, but the platforms my friends operate are all very formal, and the interest is not so high, compared with the income of my fund, that point of interest is almost negligible."

After a pause, Jiang Ming said again: "Actually, under normal circumstances, I don't want to do this kind of thing. It is thankless and not very interesting, but it seems that everyone is a small partner who grew up in the orphanage before. I really can't bear to watch them continue to suffer from poverty, so if I can help, I should."

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly blurted out: "Brother Jiang Ming, you don't need to worry about other things, you just push all those loan apps to me, I will take the loan immediately, and then we will give it to you in a unified way!"

Charlie, who has not spoken, looked at Jiang Ming at this time and asked with interest: "Jiang Ming, you just said that you work for a company under the White family, but as far as I know, it seems that the White family has not done any fund business?"

Jiang Ming's face changed slightly, and he blurted out: "Charlie, it's not that I despise you. The White family is big and has a wide range of business. There is no money that people don't transfer. Do you know a sh!t?"

Charlie didn't get angry either, and asked with a smile: "Then what's your company name?"

Jiang Ming blurted out: "My company is called Harley Insurance Fund Investment and Wealth Management Company."

With that said, Jiang Ming immediately took out his business card. In addition to his company's name, Jiang Ming's position was printed on it: "Investment Director."

Charlie feels that this Harley Insurance Fund invests in a wealth management company, how it sounds familiar.

After thinking about it carefully, he remembered, isn't this the company that lied to his mother-in-law? The boss of this company is Harley Zhou, and the backer is Orvel.

Harley Zhou's deceitful deceit and investment in his company's money are all in vain. It is useless for investors who have suffered huge losses to make troubles, because with the support of Orvel, no one can help Harley Zhou.

Unexpectedly, this Jiang Ming actually belonged to Harley Zhou Company!

The last time he went to help mother-in-law to collect debts, he didn't meet him. If he had seen him at that time, then he must have been humble when he saw him today.

Thinking of this, he looked at Jiang Ming with interest, and asked curiously: "The boss of your company is called Harley Zhou, right? He doesn't seem to belong to the White family! Are you talking nonsense?"

Jiang Ming didn't expect Charlie to know his company and the name of his boss, so he immediately became nervous.

If Charlie knows his company, then it proves that he knows what his company does? He also know that what he said to Zhao Zhuo now was a lie to him.

Just when Jiang Ming was nervous and didn't know how to explain, Zhao Zhuo looked at Charlie angrily and reprimanded: "Charlie, what do you mean by this person? Brother Jiang Ming showed kindness and wanted us to earn some money. What are you questioning here? Do you feel that if Brother Jiang Ming doesn't take you to make money, you are upset?"

Charlie looked at Zhao Zhuo in surprise, and couldn't help but sneer from the bottom of his heart. This kind of smelly rug is really helpless. He has no educational level and no ability to judge right from wrong. He kindly wanted to pull him in front of the fire pit. He turned away from hand and tried to jump down.

If this is the case, do it.

So he immediately said to Jiang Ming: "Maybe I remembered it wrong, sorry."

Chapter 975

Charlie was never a bad person.

Sometimes he would look at other people pitifully and want to pull them off.

But the premise is that the other party must know good and bad.

If the other party doesn't know good or bad, he will never use a hot face to stick someone's cold a.

Some people are stubborn, it is better to let them taste the price.

Anyway, he did it himself, and he will fall into the fire pit in the future and burn to death without complaining.

So he deliberately changed the topic, and immediately said: "If you want to manage money, just go back and chat in a group privately. We are here to invite Aunt Lena for dinner. We haven't ordered any food for a long time."

Jiang Ming immediately came over with interest and smiled and said: "Come here, give Aunt Lena the menu, and Aunt Lena can order it!"

Aunt Lena hurriedly waved her hand and said, "No, no, I've never been to such a good place. I don't know how to order any dishes, so you young people should order it."

Jiang Ming took over the menu without letting it go, and said with a smile, "I'll order it then!"

Then he immediately recruited a waiter and said, "Come on, I'm ordering."

The waiter also came, and Jiang Ming immediately started ordering, but he was very scheming this time, ordering only expensive dishes.

As soon as he came up, he ordered a premium abalone for everyone. This dish cost 1888 per person.

Zhao Zhuo caught a glimpse of the menu and exclaimed: "Oh, Brother Jiang Ming, this dish is too expensive. Just order this dish and it costs more than 20,000! We... we can't afford it. Get it off!"

Because Jiang Ming's proposal for this meal is that he pays half of the money, and the rest of the money is paid to the dutch system, which means that everyone has to pay, but his proposal is a little less than what he said before.

But once the meal is too expensive, even if Jiang Ming pays half of it himself, the remaining half is a very heavy burden for others.

Jiang Ming looked at Zhao Zhuo with disgust at this time, and said: "No wonder your mother-in-law in the future will bite the bridegroom and not let go. Just like you, you will be so scared when you come out for a meal. Your mother-in-law must be more important. Bridegroom, lest her daughter be wronged in the future! What if you are so scared that you don't even dare to order food if this meal is for your future mother-in-law? What do people think of you?"

Zhao Zhuo looked a little embarrassed, and said depressed: "Brother Jiang Ming, I don't have money with me. To be honest, I'm now living on 100 a week in order to save money. I drink cold water and eat steamed buns in the company dormitory every day. I can't bear to buy an electric kettle..."

Jiang Ming said coldly: "No wonder you are poor. With your mentality and your consumption philosophy, you can't make money. Who is poor if you are not poor?"

After a pause, Jiang Ming said again: "What is money? Money has to be spent before it is earned. What is it if it is not spent? It is paper in the wallet and numbers in the bank. Besides, I have already agreed. I will arrange you money. If you can't bear to pay for this little meal, then I won't pay you as a friend. I'm sorry."

When Zhao Zhuo heard this, he immediately closed his mouth with interest.

He has regarded Jiang Ming as his life-saving straw, so he can't disobey Jiang Ming anyway.

Otherwise, there is no hope in life.

Others also felt that Jiang Ming's ordering was too extravagant, but after listening to Zhao Zhuo's remarks, everyone was embarrassed to speak again.

They all feel that after all, people pay half by themselves, and there are so many people who pay the other half. If everyone is still called poor, they will not be able to save face.

At this time, Jiang Ming said to the waiter again: "Bring us a lobster weighing five pounds!"

The waiter nodded and said, "Sir, our premium lobster here is 688 a kilogram, is that okay?"

Chapter 976

Jiang Ming waved his hand indifferently, and said, "Yes, of course you can. If you can't, just give it to me!"

After speaking, he said: "Oh yes, that ace of spades champagne, give two bottles!"

The waiter opened his mouth and said, "Sir, a bottle of Champagne of Spades is 18,888. It is non-refundable for opening the bottle, okay?"

Jiang Ming said immediately: "Yes! Hurry up and bring it first!"

Hearing that he ordered two bottles of wine worth 18,888 at once, everyone immediately couldn't sit still.

After doing so, the meal has already cost more than 60,000. Even if everyone pays the other half, at least 30,000 this year?

If the dutch system is used, then everyone has to pay at least more than 2,000!

Zhao Hao suddenly said with some embarrassment: "Jiang Ming, we don't have to be so extravagant to eat. Today, we invited Aunt Lena to eat, and received the dust for Aunt Lena. Aunt Lena has just recovered from illness and must not be able to drink. You order these two bottles. What does wine mean?"

Jiang Ming said contemptuously: "Zhao Hao, I just look down on you for being so poor, just eating a meal, are you afraid of being a feather?"

After finishing talking, he didn't wait for Zhao Hao to speak, and immediately said to the waiter: "Bring us another big grouper, one shark fin in abalone sauce for each!"

Jiang Ming just hopes to have more, so that he can earn more.

Everyone else was a little worried, thinking that the meal was spread out and everyone had to pay too much.

But everyone is embarrassed to tear their faces, and no one is embarrassed to say that they will not eat this meal at this time, after all, Aunt Lena is still here.

Aunt Lena couldn't sit still at this time. She said nervously, "Jiang Ming, we really don't have to be so extravagant for our meals, and your things are too expensive. I am serious. Shaking...Can we order cheap dishes? Home cooking?"

Jiang Ming is now unwilling to let go of any opportunity for money, so naturally he can't willingly eat only a few thousand for this meal, otherwise he can't make any difference.

So he hurriedly said: "Aunt Lena, today you will just cook and eat. We have the rest. We were raised by you. Your kindness to us is heavier than anything. How about spending some money to invite you to eat? Even if I spend 30,000, 40,000, or 50,000 today, I agree that I will spend it willingly!"

After speaking, he deliberately looked around, watching everyone's expressions.

What he said just now was actually moral kidnapping. The subtext is already very clear, why? Aunt Lena is so kind to them, raised them, and inviting her to eat dinner, they are not willing to spend, is this possible?

Sure enough, as soon as he said this, everyone did not dare to express any dissatisfaction or opposition.

Everyone has already thought about it in their hearts. Since Aunt Lena is invited to dinner, let's have some blood.

Charlie suddenly felt something was wrong. Judging from Jiang Ming deliberately crashing the car in order not to honor his bet, he knew that this person was definitely not a generous person, and definitely a villain.

So why is a not so generous little person so generous when ordering food?

Could it be that more orders for this meal are good for him?

However, since Jiang Ming said that he had to bear half of the meal, he should not be the restaurant's support.

Then there is only another possibility left, Jiang Ming can reimburse the meal!

It turns out that this Jiang Ming has counted everyone in. If this is the case, then he might as well give him a general plan!

Thinking of this, Charlie said, "Everyone, let's go. For today's meal, Jiang Ming and I are one and half, and the others don't need to pay a penny. Even if this meal costs 200,000, it will be the two of us!"

Chapter 977

When Jiang Ming heard this, he immediately smiled sarcastically: "Oh, Charlie, you can do it, brag, don't even type the draft!"

Charlie smiled faintly, and said, "What's so bragging about? If you don't believe me, let's pay 100,000 in advance, and we will eat 200,000 tonight. What do you think?"

After listening to Jiang Ming, he said excitedly: "Is this true?"

Charlie directly took out his mobile phone, opened Alipay, and said to the waiter: "Come, scan the QR code to pay."

Seeing this, Jiang Ming was about to jump up with excitement!

What he want is to eat more meals, and then he can get more price difference when reimburse myself, but the friends of this group of welfare institutions are really too suspicious. They have been chatting there and don't know how annoying it is.

Charlie is now willing to involve, and pay one hundred thousand at a time. Isn't this clear to give him money?

He also pays 100,000, but he can open an invoice for 200,000. After he goes back, he will tell the boss that this meal is for a super customer. It is possible to negotiate a sale of 10 million. The boss will definitely wave his hand.

He has figured it out now, life is the most important thing!

First lied these two friends who wanted to make money with them, and then returned to the company, reported the 200,000, and solved Ma Zhongliang's problem.

As for whether the boss will settle accounts after autumn, it is time to consider this.

After all, Ma Zhongliang is the biggest threat to him now.

So he hurriedly took out his mobile phone and said to Charlie: "Well, since you are so refreshing, then I will also pay 100,000!"

Aunt Lena wanted to dissuade the two of them, but Charlie waved his hand at her to signal her not to worry.

For Charlie, whether it costs 100,000 or 200,000 for a meal, it is just a drizzle. What he wants to do is not let Jiang Ming succeed.

At this time, the waiter took the POS machine and used the function of scanning the code to pay, and each swiped 100,000 from the two Alipays.

After confirming that the 200,000 has arrived, Jiang Ming said with a smile: "In this case, let's order more good ones! Waiter, give us all the good wine, good food, and good seafood you have here, just take photos. With 200,000, what I want is to spend all of the 200,000 today, without a single point left!"

The waiter did not expect to meet such a wealthy table today, and immediately said with a smile: "Don't worry, I will make arrangements to bring you the wine first!"

When they heard that they were about to enjoy a meal of 200,000, many of the friends at the same table were excited and unbearable.

Especially that Zhao Zhuo, who just looked bitter melon, is so happy that his mouth is almost open to the root of his ears!

He was worried just now because he didn't want to spend more, but now seeing the 200,000 meal, someone has already paid for it, and he hasn't paid a penny. He is so excited that he can't wait to go to the bathroom and release everything he has eaten before.

This way empty his stomach and wait to eat the next good things.

Many rags have this kind of mentality. If he spends his own money to do something, he may be more uncomfortable than being beaten; but if he does not need to spend money on this matter, or if someone else spends money, he runs away. Faster than anyone, laugh happier than anyone.

To put it bluntly, it is the king of prostitutes.

Soon, the waiter brought lobster, abalone and other delicacies from the mountains and seas, and even a whole roasted suckling pig, tender on the outside and tender on the inside, exuding an incomparable aroma.

Zhao Zhuo frantically ate all kinds of good things, while holding a glass of wine, pouring into his mouth desperately.

Chapter 978

For nearly 20,000 a bottle of champagne, he hadn't even smelled it in his life, let alone drank it, so with this kind of good opportunity, he decided to drink enough.

At this time, Jiang Ming's dog-legged Ronnel, while eating roast suckling pig, said flatly: "How do I feel that I have become the richest man in the City, that good brother, where we are now? This scene is almost the same as the scene in the movie where they eat and drink in the hotel!"

As soon as the words came out, they immediately resonated with other people, and everyone nodded and laughed: "Yes, that's right, that's a bit of a meaning!"

Ronnel smiled again and said: "It's all thanks to Brother Jiang Ming, thank you Brother Jiang Ming!"

Xiaofen said indignantly: "Why should you only thank Jiang Ming? Brother Charlie also paid half of the money for this meal, OK?"

Ronnel said disdainfully: "I ate the half of Brother Jiang Ming and you ate the half of Charlie, so you thank him, it has nothing to do with me."

At this time, Zhao Zhuo, who was eating with a mouthful of oily mouth, just took time out and reacted to the topic that everyone just talked about. He was still chewing on all kinds of meat and asked vaguely: "By the way, what were you talking about just now? The richest man in City? Why don't I understand?"

Zhao Hao frowned and asked: "The movie! The richest man in Hong City, the one played by Shen Teng, was shown in theaters some time ago and the box office was so hot. Didn't you watch it?"

"Movie theater?" Zhao Zhuo immediately said contemptuously: "I don't go to the cinema to watch movies, so why make me spend money to watch the movies they make? Are these people not crazy about money? It's about the same if you show them all for free! I always go to the Internet and beg others for resources, and when I go back tonight, I beg for a resource to watch this movie."

"Stupid!" Zhao Hao said coldly: "Zhao Zhuo, you are too much to take advantage, right? People invest hundreds of millions in making a movie, and there are so many directors, cameras, dramatists, and actors. If the hard work they put in for a long time is free for people like you, who will make movies? The film and television company will not lose money?"

Zhao Zhuo heard Zhao Hao choking himself, and said disdainfully: "Shosh the f*ck and give me this set, I just don't have enough advantage, I just like not to waste money, even if they want money, I won't give it. , What's the matter? Can't it be? I not only don't pay him, but I also go to scold him online, scold him for bad filming, scold him for bad acting, scold him for filming too slowly, can you handle it? What a dog taking a mouse."

Zhao Hao said angrily: "You still curse after taking advantage of it? You are so shameless, you are not afraid of retribution if you say such things!"

Zhao Zhuo curled his lips: "What's the retribution? Anyway, I am an orphan, who am I afraid of? Am I afraid of death?"

Zhao Hao was choked and speechless.

When a person is shameless to this point, saying anything is useless.

So he didn't bother to continue to be honest with such people.

Charlie sighed straight as he watched from the side. Some people can climb up and become masters step by step, even if they are from a humble background, but some people will become rags and the bottom of the society.

Just like Zhao Zhuo, he became a pauper for no reason.

Disrespect others, do not respect oneself, only thinking about making money and taking advantage in their minds, this kind of people often suffer a lot.

After guessing this meal, he will desperately kneel and lick Jiang Ming.

And Jiang Ming would not hesitate to squeeze all the surplus value from him.

By that time, he might not even cry.

But it's not that he didn't want to give him a hand.

The point is that this person is not at all good or bad, and he has no self-knowledge until now.

This made Charlie couldn't wait to see what would happen to Zhao Zhuo's end!

Chapter 979

When everyone was enjoying a 200,000 meal, Charlie went to the front desk and said to the front desk clerk: "Hello, I am a guest at Table 03 in the lobby, please give me an invoice."

The waiter hurriedly asked respectfully: "Hello, sir, is it the table with 200,000 consumption?"

"Yes!" Charlie nodded.

The waiter asked again: "Do you issue a company or personal invoice?"

Charlie said: "Let's start a man."

"Okay, sir, would you please leave your name?"

Charlie nodded and said, "The leaves of leaves, the stars of stars."

The waiter hurriedly manipulated the computer, and then put the invoice into the invoice printer.

With a sizzling sound, a catering invoice with Charlie's name and the amount of 200,000 was printed out.

Charlie got the invoice and checked it. After confirming that there was no problem with the invoice, he thanked the waiter and turned back.

At the same time, he sneered in his heart, Jiang Ming, you must have never thought that I would act first, right?

Then he returned to the dinner table and continued to eat with everyone.

Claire on the side asked him in a low voice: "Charlie, tell me the truth, are you holding back some bad eyes?"

Charlie said, "No, I'm such a good person, what kind of bad eyes can I hold back?"

Claire lowered his voice and said, "I always feel that your meal seems to be calculating Jiang Ming..."

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Good wife, you are right!"

Claire chuckled and nodded, "This kind of person is really annoying, I support you!"

Charlie smiled: "Really my good wife!"

Claire's face blushed, and her heart was shy.

.....

After three rounds of wine, Jiang Ming stood up dizzy and said: "I'll go to the bathroom, you continue to drink, everyone drink more, that Maotai, that Maotai must not be left! And that champagne, This is 20,000 per bottle!"

When Zhao Zhuo saw this, he hurriedly stood up and said flatly, "Brother Jiang Ming, I will help you to the bathroom!"

After speaking, he stood up and held Jiang Ming with his brazen support.

Jiang Ming waved his hand and said with a smile: "I haven't drunk too much, so I drank much."

Zhao Zhuo said shyly, "Then I will go with you too!"

On the way to the bathroom, Zhao Zhuo smiled and said, "Brother Jiang Ming, I secretly finished the loan apps that you let me make. Don't say it. Not only does the hotel's wifi have no password, The internet speed is also very fast! It is much faster than the internet break in my company dormitory! It feels like a big bargain!"

Jiang Ming looked at him contemptuously, knowing in his heart that this Zhao Zhuo was more shameless than himself, and countless times more than himself.

However, it is precisely because he loves to take advantage of him so much that he has the opportunity to engage him.

So he said to Zhao Zhuo: "In this way, you first register all these apps and fill in your personal information, and then you start to borrow from them. You can directly borrow according to the highest amount and how much you can borrow. After taking it out, transfer the money to my card, and then I will help you operate the fund. A week later, I will call you to collect the income and principal!"

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly nodded and complimented: "Brother Jiang Ming, you are so interesting. I am really fortunate to know a friend like you. It seems that following you, my marriage will definitely come soon!"

Jiang Ming said: "Hurry up and get the money out first. I will soon operate a new fund. If you don't get the money out quickly, you won't be able to catch this train. Don't blame me in the future."

Chapter 980

Zhao Zhuo immediately said: "Brother Jiang Ming, I have seen it on the app just now. They requested that the front and back of the ID card should be uploaded first. My ID card is not here, it is in the dormitory. Don't worry, it will be the first one after I go back. The thing is to upload ID card information so that the loan can be made!"

"Okay." Jiang Ming nodded, and while relieved, said: "You must do this as soon as possible. Don't miss a good opportunity. I will show you a clear way to make you more money. ."

As soon as Zhao Zhuo heard this, he shook with excitement, and accidentally peed his hand, but he didn't care about it, so he wiped the trouser leg quickly, turned his face and asked Jiang Ming next to him: "Brother Jiang Ming, what is Ming Way? Brother, beg for advice!"

Jiang Ming said: "It's very simple, if you can make up 600,000 for me, I can help you earn 600,000 a week, if you can find someone to borrow 1 million more, I can help you earn 1 million more!"

"When you borrow 1 million, you can promise others 200,000 in interest, and others will be very interested. In this way, you can make a net profit of 800,000 in interest difference. Wouldn't it make you happy?"

"Don't talk about the 300,000 gift at that time, even a down payment for a three-bedroom apartment is enough."

When Zhao Zhuo heard this, he was suddenly excited.

However, he didn't know for a while, where he should borrow so much money.

After all, he is an orphan with no relatives and no reason. Who would want to lend him so much money?

Seeing that he was a little worried, Jiang Ming knew that he must be considering this issue, so he deliberately gave him an idea, saying: "In fact, you can go to your girlfriend and tell your girlfriend that you have the inside story to make money. The news, as long as you invest 1 million, you can earn 200,000 interest in a week!"

"Let her ask her mother, your future mother-in-law, if she has interest. If your future mother-in-law is interested, she will not only give you 1 million, but also when she gets 200,000 interest, she will feel that Your future son-in-law is very good and very capable."

"In this way, you not only earn an interest margin of 800,000, but also win the favor of your future mother-in-law, killing two birds with one stone!"

Zhao Zhuo immediately became excited.

He has been looked down upon by his future mother-in-law, and now he finally has a chance to exhale!

So he immediately said, "Brother Jiang Ming, don't worry. After I go back tonight, I will call my girlfriend to make it clear."

Jiang Ming nodded, put on his pants, didn't even wash his hands, and said to Zhao Zhuo: "I'll go to the front desk, you go back first."

Zhao Zhuo didn't wash his hands either. He hurried over and asked with concern, "Brother Jiang Ming, what are you going to do at the front desk? Hasn't the account been settled in advance?"

Jiang Ming said impatiently: "I have something wrong, you can go back, don't worry about me."

Zhao Zhuo nodded immediately, and said respectfully: "That's OK, Brother Jiang Ming, I'll go back first, to be honest, that champagne is really good, I haven't had enough, hehe."

Jiang Ming hummed a laugh, and thought to himself that the he was the f*cking rag, and it was a super rag that couldn't take enough advantage of.

But he likes this kind of rag without IQ. This kind of rag is really easy to cheat.

Immediately, he left the bathroom and walked to the front desk humming a little song.

After arriving at the front desk, he took out his business card and handed it to the waiter at the front desk. He said with an expression of force: "The table No. 03 in the lobby is the table that consumed 200,000. Give me an invoice. Follow the company name on my business card."

The waiter hurriedly said: "I'm sorry, sir, the invoice for your table has been issued by a gentleman just now."

"What?!" Jiang Ming felt dizzy and blurted out, "Who opened it?"

The waiter said: "It was opened by a gentleman named Wade, called Charlie, should he be with you?"

"f*ck!"

When Jiang Ming heard this, his blood surged!

Charlie drove the invoice away, so he couldn't be reimbursed!

Doesn't that mean that instead of making money from this meal, he also lost 100,000? !

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and roared: "It's Charlie again!"

Chapter 981

The invoice is the only proof of reimbursement.

Because of this, Jiang Ming was furious after hearing that the invoice was driven away by Charlie.

He just waited for this invoice to go to the company for reimbursement. If Charlie doesn't hand in the invoice, not only would he not earn money for his meal, but he would also lose 100,000. Isn't that making him worse?

Thinking of this, he rushed back to the dinner table angrily, and when he saw Charlie he asked, "Charlie, did you go to the front desk to secretly issue an invoice? Hurry up and hand me the invoice!"

Charlie said indifferently: "This meal is the money we spent. What happened to my invoice? After all, I have 100,000 here. You won't forget it?"

"You..." Jiang Ming was choked with speechlessness. After a while, he could only say angrily: "You don't work or start a company. What do you do with invoices?"

Charlie said with a smile: "You don't know many restaurants nowadays. They deliberately refuse to issue invoices to guests. If he does not issue invoices, the state tax authorities will not know how much money he has made. In this case, he does not have to contribute to the country or pay taxes."

After that, Charlie looked around and said to everyone: "However, as law-abiding citizens of the country, paying taxes according to the law is our obligation. It is also our obligation to supervise the hotel to pay taxes in accordance with the law. Am I right!"

Everyone nodded.

Xiaofen said: "The restaurants are the most thief. If you don't issue invoices, they won't have to pay taxes at all. They must issue invoices in accordance with the law before they can pay taxes to the treasury."

Zhao Hao agrees and said: "The catering industry is still very profitable. It is impossible to justify tax evasion and tax theft."

Zhao Zhuo on the side laughed and said: "You can also talk to the hotel. If it doesn't issue a ticket, it will give you a part of the discount, or send you some drinks. I usually go to the restaurant for dinner. If they don't invoice me, they asked them if I want a Coke, anyway, I can't suffer."

Charlie snorted: "Zhao Zhuo, Zhao Zhuo, you are still smart! I want to learn more from you!"

Zhao Zhuo thought that Charlie was complimenting him, snorted, and said, "Tell you, this is the wisdom of life."

Jiang Ming looked at Charlie with a dark face, and said coldly: "Don't talk about that useless, it's useless if you want an invoice, give me the invoice!"

"Why?" Charlie asked coldly, "I want an invoice to be useless, can it be useful if you want an invoice? We all come out for dinner, don't you still want to take the invoice to the company for reimbursement?"

Jiang Ming was suddenly caught up in what Charlie said. He was a little flustered on the surface, and hurriedly said: "You're so f*cking nonsense, I think the same as you, I have issued an invoice so that the hotel can pay taxes according to law! "

Charlie nodded, gave a thumbs up, and said, "I didn't expect that Jiang Ming, you are also such a responsible citizen! Not bad, not bad, I give you a thumbs up."

As he said, he took out the invoice from his pocket and said: "This invoice is written on my personal head, which means that this item cannot be reimbursed, but as long as the invoice is issued, the restaurant will pay taxes, so Jiang Ming You don't have to worry about it. The tax they should pay for this meal is 200,000.

Jiang Ming was anxious and blurted out: "Who told you to raise your head personally?!"

The invoice was issued and the head was raised. Even if I get this invoice, I couldn't use it for reimbursement. It seemed that Jiang Mingqi's lungs would explode.

Charlie said with a smile at this time: "You didn't say that you can't issue invoices. Besides, as I said just now, this meal is half of you and half of me. Everyone has the right to issue invoices. Pay attention to one first come first."

With that, Charlie said with a magnificent expression: "Well, let's not invoice for anyone, who didn't invoice. This is a trivial matter. Anyway, this meal is for everyone to eat instead of asking for it. Everyone will look for the company or someone for reimbursement after eating. I will tear off this invoice in front of everyone. Don't ask for either of us. Isn't that okay?"

Before Jiang Ming came back to his senses, Charlie immediately tore up the invoice.

Seeing this invoice torn to pieces by Charlie, Jiang Ming felt his heart dripping with blood.

It's over, this is over, this meal was worth 100,000!

Chapter 982

He originally wanted to earn 100,000, but he didn't expect to lose 100,000. This meal is really a big loss!

Jiang Ming had the desire to die in his heart, and he was quite good at first. He bought a new Mercedes-Benz with five people and six people, but he didn't expect that after meeting Charlie today, he all fall into it.

Therefore, he could not wait to stab Charlie to death so as to relieve his hatred.

Charlie intended to stimulate him again at this time, so he poured a glass of champagne, handed it to him, and said with a smile: "Come on, Brother Jiang Ming, I toast you a glass."

Jiang Ming said angrily: "I don't want to drink with you!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't be so angry. After all, this wine was bought by you. If you don't drink it, you will waste it."

When Jiang Ming heard this, his whole body trembled with anger.

Charlie was right, this wine was indeed bought with his money, he spent 100,000 on this meal!

Living so big, when did he spend so much money on a meal?

It's simply the rhythm of eating bankruptcy!

Thinking of this, Jiang Ming burst into tears, took the wine glass, and drank it dull and angry!

He bought them with his money, so he would drink more if he said, otherwise it would be cheaper for others.

However, there is still a bigger problem before him, that is, how to make money.

If Zhao Zhuo listened to him, and if he went back at night and used all the loan apps, it was estimated that he would be able to draw four to five million, plus his own deposit of hundreds of thousands, so it shouldn't be a big problem to make up 600,000.

As for whether he can fool his future mother-in-law, he has no idea about this.

It seems that he can only pray to the sky, and pray that this Zhao Zhuo will be able to fool himself!

After Charlie let Jiang Ming slumped, he didn't bother to continue to care about this person. It was estimated that this meal cost 100,000, which should make him pain for a long time, and he will definitely not dare to pretend to be forced.

Recalling the scenes in the orphanage before, he couldn't help asking Aunt Lena, "Aunt Lena, how is the situation in the orphanage now?"

Upon mentioning this topic, Aunt Lena looked sad and sighed and said: "The situation is not so good. The main reason is that there are more and more children and our financial pressure is increasing."

As she said, she sighed again and said: "Some time ago, our Aurous Hill police have successively uncovered many cases of child trafficking and rescued many children who were abducted. Many of them are being fostered by our welfare because they cannot find their biological parents. In the hospital, a lot of pressure was suddenly increased, but there is no way. It is our duty and obligation to rescue these abducted children. It is just that the milk powder money for these children is very high. The staff of the welfare institute now collects thousands. I'm supporting it and I'm applying for funding..."

Charlie couldn't help but feel distressed when he thought of the children he saw in the orphanage in the afternoon.

These children, because they were abducted by human traffickers, were in a more pitiful situation than ordinary orphans, so he planned to donate a sum of money to the orphanage to deal with the problems of these children.

So, he opened his mouth and said to Aunt Lena: "Aunt Lena, you should think more about the children in the orphanage, so let me personally donate 1 million first!"

When these words came out, everyone was stunned!

one million? This is simply an astronomical figure for these orphanage friends!

This is, Charlie looked at Jiang Ming, who was dumbfounded, and said: "Jiang Ming, you are doing so well now. You are driving a Mercedes and Phaeton. Don't forget that you were raised by the orphanage. Don't you donate some money to the orphanage now?"

Chapter 983

When Jiang Ming heard that Charlie said that he would donate one million, he naturally didn't believe 10,000. He sneered and said, "Charlie, you brag about not writing drafts. You donated one million to the orphanage, saying that you would die and suffer. Don't admit it yet, can you give out a million?"

Charlie said lightly: "Since I have said it, I will definitely honor it. I can't do the same as you, find a place to get out of a car accident!"

Jiang Ming knew that Charlie was deliberately mocking him, and when he thought about the crash, he hated it.

He knew that this was the case. He really didn't want to make a fool of himself. He would donate a car in a big deal. Is it better than now?

Look at how heavy the loss is now!

However, he still didn't believe that Charlie could donate 1 million.

So he sneered and said: "Don't think I don't know what virtue you are now, a live-in son-in-law who depends on his wife to raise, how can you get so much money to grab the bank?"

Rommel on the side also said to help: "Charlie, don't put on a swollen face to fill a fat man. What is the meaning of pretending? Do whatever you can do as much as you can. Don't go bankrupt just to pretend. Come on us again!"

Charlie smiled indifferently: "You don't care whether I rob the bank or something. I can still take out one million in total, but you, if I can donate one million, how much do you donate?"

Jiang Ming laughed and said: "If you can donate 1 million, I can donate 10 million. Who can brag about it? You just have a long mouth, right?"

The whole table burst into laughter.

Because everyone felt that Charlie was dying to face and suffer.

To say that Charlie donated one hundred and eighty thousand, some people believe that, after all, his wife is very good and also used a BMW, and the family should not be short of this money.

But to say donate one million is a bit unrealistic, even selling that BMW is not enough!

Among these people, only Aunt Lena, Xiaofen and his wife Claire can truly trust Charlie.

Aunt Lena and Xiaofen both knew Charlie's character. If something was unsure, he would definitely not say it.

As for Claire, she was already quite familiar.

Charlie usually shows people a feng shui, can earn more than two million back, and donate one million to the orphanage at once, which is also a breeze.

But she asked Charlie in a low voice: "Charlie, are you carrying me again and secretly showing others Feng Shui?"

Charlie nodded, and said with a hippie smile: "It's Aunt's son, Paul, this guy brought the law firm to our Aurous Hill, right? Asked me to have a look at Feng Shui, and I went."

Claire said embarrassingly: "You lie to acquaintances too? Is it appropriate?"

"How can this be called a lie?" Charlie said earnestly: "You think I would?!"

Claire was helpless and asked, "How much did you ask for?"

Charlie smiled: "One million."

Claire rubbed her temples: "You are so dark... there are so many more acquaintances..."

In fact, Claire didn't know that Paul gave Charlie 10 million in total.

However, this 10 million was given in two penalties.

First gave a check for 1 million.

Then he made up another check for 9 million.

Charlie originally thought that even if all 10 million were donated to the orphanage, it didn't really matter.

Chapter 984

But the point is, he rashly puts out 10 million, so many people watching, it is really hard to explain.

It is not easy to explain to Claire, after all, the number is too big, and the number of 1 million is more reasonable.

So Charlie looked at Jiang Ming and smiled faintly: "If I can really put out 1 million, would you really donate 10 million?"

"Yes!" Jiang Ming said almost without thinking, arrogantly: "If you can spend 1 million, then I won't have a problem with 100 million!"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Wait a moment, I will take a video to testify."

After all, smiled and said to everyone, "Please take out your phone and take a video as a testimony!"

When he heard such a good show, he took out mobile phone and turned on the video recording function.

Charlie said calmly: "I, Charlie, voluntarily donate 1 million to Aurous Hill Welfare Institute. As long as I donate this 1 million, Jiang Ming next to me is willing to donate 10 million. Today, please be a witness here. If either of us repents, we would be spurned and despised by the entire Chinese people!"

Jiang Ming sneered: "Okay, but you have to take out 1 million first. As long as you take out the 1 million, I will donate 10 million immediately!"

Killing Jiang Ming, Jiang Ming didn't believe that Charlie could really spend 1 million.

It is estimated that the 100,000 spent on eating just now was the money he had saved for several years.

Charlie directly took out his shabby wallet and found two checks Paul gave him.

He kept a mindful eye this time, first saw the amount of the check clearly, and confirmed that he was holding the 1 million one, and then took out the check.

After taking out the check, he directly handed it to Aunt Lena and said: "Aunt Lena, this cash check can be exchanged for 1 million cash at the bank at any time, please accept it."

Jiang Ming curled his mouth and sneered unremittingly: "Just take out a piece of torn paper and say it's a cash check of 1 million. What are you kidding me?"

Charlie smiled and asked, "Do you not believe it? Check it if you do not believe it!"

Jiang Ming sneered: "Of course I don't believe it. When I was a kid, I played Monopoly Chess. A toy banknote was worth d*mn millions. Or should I take a few from it to donate? Besides, I'm not from a bank. People, how do I know how to verify the authenticity of a check?"

Charlie smiled helplessly and nodded: "Since you won't give up until the Yellow River, if you don't see the coffin or cry, then I will fulfill your wish."

After all, he took out his phone and called Paul.

Paul answered the phone and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade."

Charlie smiled and said: "Paul, sorry to trouble you."

Paul hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, please speak."

Charlie said, "The one million check you gave me was lost by me and may not be exchanged. So can you please transfer me the 1 million cash directly? When I find the check, I will return the check to you."

Paul smiled: "Yes, you can give me an account, and I can transfer it to you now. If you can find the check, you don't have to return it to me!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Paul, you are really particular about what you do. I admire you very much."

Paul smiled and said, "Mr. Wade, you are too polite. Give me your account. I will send you now."

Charlie said: "You directly check the donation account of the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute, and then transfer the 1 million to the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute's account."

Paul asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, are you going to donate to the orphanage?"

"Yes." Charlie said lightly: "I grew up in this orphanage."

Paul immediately said, "That's it! Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will transfer the money to the orphanage now. I will transfer 2 million and the remaining 1 million is my little care!"

Chapter 985

Charlie didn't expect that when he said he would donate to the orphanage, Paul also donated 1 million.

He wanted to tell him that this is not necessary, but Paul has hung up the phone over there.

Seeing that the phone had been hung up, Charlie had no choice but to put it away. At the same time, he felt more and more that Paul, this kid, was indeed on the road, and he would have the opportunity to take him in the future.

After hanging up the phone, Charlie said to Aunt Lena, "Aunt Lena, my friend will immediately transfer the money to our orphanage's account. Please tell the financial institution of our orphanage and pay attention to the account information, but the amount is not 1 million."

Jiang Ming didn't wait for Charlie to finish speaking, he laughed and said: "Haha Charlie, you are confessing, shouldn't you just let your friends donate 10,000, then you are really embarrassed! Don't forget that everyone is still recording."

Charlie sneered and said, "Could you not be so anxious and wait until I have finished speaking before you speak up?"

Jiang Ming waved his hand and said loudly: "You say it, let you say it, you say it aloud, say it for everyone!"

Charlie ignored him, looking at Aunt Lena and said seriously: "Aunt Lena, the amount is indeed not 1 million, but 2 million, because my friend heard that I want to donate to the orphanage, he also added 1 million. "

Everyone was surprised!

What kind of friend is this? They heard that his friend is donating, and he is donating 1 million, so he also donated 1 million?

This person is not sick, or else he is too rich and burnt!

Or Charlie bragging.

Jiang Ming sneered and said: "Charlie, but more and more admire your bragging ability, Your excellency collapsed in front of the front, and did not change the color, said that a person like you, you are really a person doing big things!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't jump to conclusions in a hurry. Otherwise, how can you step down after the money arrives?"

Jiang Ming said coldly: "Save it, this kind of awesomeness won't last too long. If the money doesn't reach the account later, where do you put this face?"

As soon as this was finished, Aunt Lena received a call.

She saw that it was a call from the finance department, and hurriedly said: "It is the finance department of our orphanage who called me. Could it be that Charlie's donation has arrived?"

"Cut!" Jiang Ming said with a curled lips: "It may be there by then, but it will only be ten to twenty thousand at most, not more."

Aunt Lena answered the phone, turned on the speaker, and asked: "Hey, Accountant, is there anything wrong? Calling so late?"

Accountant's voice came from the other end of the phone. She was very excited and said: "Sister Lena, I just received a text message. Someone made 2 million donations to the charity account of our orphanage!"

Aunt Lena exclaimed: "Is it here so soon?!"

Accountant hurriedly asked: "Aunt Lena, do you know the situation of the 2 million? Who is so generous? Donated so much money to us?"

Aunt Lena said excitedly: "It's Charlie! Do you remember Charlie from our orphanage?"

"Charlie?!" Accountant exclaimed: "Really it was Charlie's donation? My God, Charlie is really promising now!"

Aunt Lena was also very pleased and said: "Charlie has heard that in our orphanage recently arrived so many children. Knowing that we are in financial difficulties, so he donated a million!"

"And his friends also donated one million for his face, a total of 2 million!"

The other party said excitedly: "Oh, this time we can really relax. We can buy some delicious food for the children, and we can buy some new clothes for the children when it is cold, and then we can enjoy the play in our orphanage. The facilities can be changed. Those amusement facilities have been used many years ago!"

Everyone present was stunned.

Chapter 986

Especially Jiang Ming, even more dazed.

what's the situation? 2 million really arrived?

Isn't Charlie a stinking son-in-law who eats soft rice? Where does he get so much money? !

Others also realized that they had underestimated Charlie before. They really didn't expect that even though Charlie was a son-in-law, he actually had so much energy.

Not only can he donate 1 million scary things at his fingertips, his friend, he heard that he donated 1 million, and he has no relatives with the orphanage, but he is willing to donate 1 million more. What kind of friend is this? So awesome?

At this moment, Charlie stood up, looked at Jiang Ming with a shocked and flustered face, and said: "Jiang Ming, everyone's mobile phones may still be recording images. Now my 1 million has already arrived, your 10 million. Well, when will it arrive?"

Jiang Ming was completely confused at this time, let alone let him donate 10 million, he may not even be able to get 100,000 now.

And more importantly, he still has a big hole waiting for him to fill in. If he can't fill this big hole, he may be broken into pieces.

Thinking of this, Jiang Ming was also very clear that he would not be able to win anyway, and he had already lost his face today, and he couldn't get it back if he wanted to go back.

So his old face was stubborn, and he said to Charlie: "Charlie, since you are so rich, it's better to take it out and let me help you manage your finances. I can double it in a week!"

Charlie smiled and asked, "Why? Don't you donate 10 million?"

Jiang Ming said embarrassingly: "You are joking, even if I am a good mess, I don't have that much money. Today, I didn't know Your excellency. Please forgive me and don't be like me."

Others sneered and said: "Jiang Ming, you are too much. Charlie has already donated 1 million. Even Charlie's friends have donated 1 million. You should also cash in. Isn't it a promise? Even if you don't have 10 million, even if you donate 1 million, it's fair enough!"

Jiang Ming's face was very ugly, but even now, even if his face was flushed from the beat, he didn't dare to pretend to be forced.

After all, these people have made videos. If he still keeps pretending to be compelling at this time, then this video will be released, and he will really have no face in the future.

So he had no choice but to fight, slapped himself a few times, and said guiltily: "I admit, I am damned, I pretend to be forced, I don't have so much money but I have a swollen face to fill a fat man, I'm sorry!"

When he said this, Jiang Ming was very depressed.

He felt that, just now, Zhao Zhuo, who was also about to talk to his own financial investment fund, and one or two other small partners, saw that he was exposed now, and he would definitely not play with him again.

In this way, he really doesn't know where to go to get money to buy the Phaeton for Ma Zhongliang.

Thinking of this, he had no face to stay here anymore, hurriedly got up, and said in a panic: "Sorry, everyone, I have something to do, I will go..."

After speaking, he got up and ran out.

Seeing his embarrassed look when he ran away, everyone felt disgusted. He just pretended to be so slippery, and now he ran away like a dog! The money was not donated, which is really disgusting.

Seeing him running away, Zhao Hao couldn't help sighing, "Charlie, you shouldn't let him run! You should hold him here and force him to donate the money!"

Charlie smiled indifferently: "Then I have become a wicked person? It's okay, let him go, the wicked have their own wickedness."

Zhao Zhuo, who loves to take advantage, saw Jiang Ming run away, and his heart was tense.

As soon as he left, Ronnel, the dog-legged man before Jiang Ming, said contemptuously: "I can see through this Jiang Ming, he loves to pretend! d*mn, he hit someone else's Phaeton and knelt on the ground and cried like a dog. Here, he still has the face to say that Phaeton belongs to him. It's really rubbish. I must draw a line with this stupid guy in the future!"

Everyone was shocked and hurriedly asked: "He hit someone else's Phaeton? What is going on?!"

Chapter 987

Seeing that everyone was very interested in the collision with the Phaeton, Ronnel eloquently explained the whole series of Jiang Ming's crash.

When everyone heard this, they were shocked to speak.

Everyone can't imagine that Jiang Ming's face would be so thick. It was obviously that he had hit someone else's car, and he could still hold someone else's car key and boast that he had a Phaeton.

This incident subverted everyone's views and impressions of Jiang Ming.

However, Zhao Zhuo, who got up to chase Jiang Ming, just missed this wonderful story.

He chased Jiang Ming all the way out of the hotel. Seeing Jiang Ming went to the parking lot, he hurriedly chased him.

Jiang Ming didn't know that Zhao Zhuo was chasing him all the way, he angrily opened the door of Ma Zhongliang's Phaeton and sat in.

At this time, a figure suddenly appeared outside the car window.

Jiang Ming was taken aback, but when he took a closer look, it was Zhao Zhuo with a flattering smile on his face.

He put down the car window, looked at Zhao Zhuo coldly, and asked, "What's the matter with you?"

Zhao Zhuo smiled and said, "Brother Jiang Ming, when you came just now, you drove a Mercedes-Benz. Why did you suddenly become a Volkswagen? This is the Phaeton, the interior is really luxurious!"

Jiang Ming said, "Didn't I tell you? There was a rear-end collision on the way here, and the Mercedes-Benz could not be driven, so I asked the driver to drive the Phaeton over."

Zhao Zhuo gave a thumbs up in admiration, and knelt down and said: "Brother Jiang Ming, you are really amazing. Compared with you, our little friends in the orphanage are really embarrassed!"

As he said, he praised again: "Brother Jiang Ming, you really are a great person, able to bend and stretch, unlike Charlie, a stupid idiot who threw a million to the orphanage in vain for a gamble! It's really a brain disease!"

At this moment, Jiang Ming suddenly felt a little magical.

He thought that after he lost the bet with Charlie, he must have been exposed in front of all his friends.

But he didn't expect that only Zhao Zhuo would kneel behind his a and lick him.

It seems that this buddy is determined to make money for him.

Jiang Ming finally breathed a sigh of relief. It seems that he still retains the last ray of life. This ray of life lies in Zhao Zhuo!

So Jiang Ming said: "Do you still want me to help you with the fund?"

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly nodded and said, "That's for sure, Brother Jiang Ming, whether I can marry a daughter-in-law depends on you."

Jiang Ming nodded and said lightly: "Get in the car."

Zhao Zhuo asked in surprise, "Where are we going?"

Jiang Ming said, "Didn't you bring your ID card? I will drive you to your dormitory now, and get all the loan apps out first. I will help you operate the fund tomorrow morning."

When Zhao Zhuo heard this, his excitement was overwhelming, and he blurted out, "Brother Jiang Ming, you are so interesting!"

After speaking, he immediately went around to the co-pilot, opened the door and sat in.

Jiang Ming started the car and drove the car to the dormitory of their unit under Zhao Zhuo's guidance.

Zhao Zhuo's work unit is a printing factory in the suburbs. He works very hard. He works 6 days a week, and his monthly salary is just over 3,000.

With such a small salary, he can save more than 100,000, which shows that Zhao Zhuo's usual life is hard.

After Jiang Ming came to Zhao Zhuo's dormitory, Zhao Zhuo invited him to sit down in the only chair, and hurriedly took out his ID card, then opened the loan apps to upload information one by one and apply for loans.

Chapter 988

He found that the interest rates of these loan apps were very high, and some even reached seven out of seven and thirteen, which is just one week. If you want to borrow 70,000 from them, you will have to repay 130,000 in one week!

This interest alone has nearly doubled.

Zhao Zhuo couldn't help asking Jiang Ming with some worry: "Brother Jiang Ming, the interest rates of these loan apps are too high, and they are all equal to your financial management income. If I borrow money from here to manage financial affairs, wouldn't it be helpful for all these apps? Will it work?"

Jiang Ming waved his hand indifferently, and said with a smile: "Don't worry, the loan apps I recommend to you are all operated by my friends. You seem to have high interest rates, but in fact, I will call them. The interest can be eliminated!"

After that, Jiang Ming said again: "The reason why such a high interest rate is displayed on the app is because they must ensure that all users look the same on the surface, but the actual operation is much more complicated. Understand, just listen to my arrangements."

Zhao Zhuo has been hanging around for half his life, and he has never seen any money, nor has he seized any opportunity to make money, so he now regards Jiang Ming as his only life-saving straw.

Therefore, he just wanted to catch him tightly, without any doubt about his words.

As a result, Zhao Zhuo, under the supervision of Jiang Ming, borrowed nearly 500,000 from more than a dozen loan apps.

He did not calculate how much interest is needed for this 500,000.

Because Jiang Ming told him that he didn't need to pay the 500,000 one cent in interest.

After that, Zhao Zhuo transferred the money from the loan and all his deposits, which totaled 620,000 in total, to Jiang Ming.

This person who would rather take advantage of death did not expect that because of his love to take advantage, a huge pit had already trapped him.

Jiang Ming got 620,000 and was very excited.

However, the money was not enough for him to solve his troubles.

Because he lost 100,000 for his meal today, and now there is at least a shortfall of five to six hundred thousand.

So he immediately said to Zhao Zhuo: "Hurry up and give your girlfriend a call and tell her you have a financial channel that can earn 20 a week. Ask her mother if she would like to buy some financial management from you."

Zhao Zhuo nodded hurriedly, and then called his girlfriend.

As soon as the call was made, Zhao Zhuo immediately said excitedly: "What are you doing, Juan?"

His girlfriend on the other end of the phone made a weird hum and said, "I...I...I'm at home, ah...what's wrong... ..what?"

Zhao Zhuo heard the strange hum and felt a little surprised, so he subconsciously asked: "Juan, what is your voice over there?"

Zhao Zhuo's girlfriend said, "Oh, I...I have a backache and I am a bit uncomfortable. I am practicing waist twisting on the bed..."

As she said, she let out a soft snort of pain and enjoyment.

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly asked with concern: "Juan, are you okay? If you have a waist injury, don't practice twisting your waist anymore. If it gets worse, you will be in trouble."

There was a creaking sound on the other end of the phone, as if the mattress was constantly being hit hard.

Jiang Ming on the side was extremely shocked.

Because he has already heard that the other party's voice is not right, there is a possibility of 99, this girl is having something like that with other men!

But this Zhao Zhuo's forehead is so green, why doesn't it feel at all?

Couldn't he notice it?

Although this person is too greedy for petty and cheap, he is not so lacking in IQ, right?

Chapter 989

At this moment, that Juan on the other side of the phone suddenly uttered a very strange scream, which made Jiang Ming feel the blood rushing straight down.

He was so familiar with this sound, isn't this the sound a woman makes when she is happiest?

At this time, Zhao Zhuo felt very distressed and said, "Good dear, since you are so uncomfortable, then stop practicing. If it gets worse, you will feel distressed."

The Juan's voice groaned unbearably, and hurriedly asked him: "Zhao Zhuo, are you...are you okay? If you want nothing...then... Then I'll hang up first, I...I'm training at the most critical moment here, and I can't stop, ah... once I stop, It will waste all the work... .."

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly said proudly: "Juan, let me tell you the good news. I have a good buddy who has given me a clear path. He can introduce me to a wealth management fund, which can generate 20 income in one week. Would you like to ask if your mother is interested?"

Juan blurted out: "Zhao Zhuo, you have no brains, right? What is the current economic situation? Your annualized income is less than 3, so if you have friends, you have 20 in a week. Revenue channel? What the h*ll is it?"

Zhao Zhuo became anxious when he heard this, and blurted out: "Juan, my friend is amazing. He drives the Phaeton. Did you know that the Phaeton? Volkswagen's most expensive car is more than 2 million. Inviting us to dinner today, a meal cost 100,000."

Juan scolded contemptuously: "You can still know such a rich person, and you can still get 100,000 for a meal. Do you think I am a child and believe anything?"

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly said: "Juan, what I'm telling you is the truth. I will tell you that I will be able to afford the betrothal soon, and I will be able to make enough money soon, and you will never have to spend every day selling cigarettes and e-cigarette cartridges in the circle of friends! I will treat you well in the future, support you, and let you live a good life."

When the other party heard this, she immediately said angrily: "Why? I listen to what you mean, you look down on my Mom? What happened to me selling cigarettes and electronic cigarettes? I can easily earn 5000 a month, occasionally if you meet a generous customer, if I please him, I may receive more than 10,000 a month, and you don't even have 3,000 in a month's salary. You still brag about raising me and letting me live a good life?"

Zhao Zhuo said emotionally: "Juan, I don't look down on you. I think that the things you sell are smuggled goods, which is always not a way. What if you are caught by the police someday?"

Juan said angrily: "You're so f*cking cursing me here, hurry up and hang up now!"

After speaking, she immediately hung up the phone.

Zhao Zhuo looked at Jiang Ming with some embarrassment, and blurted out: "I'm sorry, my girlfriend may not believe you a little bit, but she hasn't seen you this time. If she had seen you, she must I'll believe you! Or let's make some time tomorrow and I will show you to meet her, you tell her the details in person!"

Jiang Ming waved his hand immediately and blurted out: "Farewell, farewell! Let's forget about it. She doesn't believe it. It can only prove that she has no idea with the money, and we should not force it."

In fact, Jiang Ming knew very well in his heart that just by listening to Juan on the phone, he knew that this woman was definitely not a fuel-efficient lamp.

She is able to cheat on other men while answering her boyfriend's phone calls, and also scolds her boyfriend like a idiot. Is such a sturdy and fearless gameplay ordinary people? This shows that this girl must be very powerful!

Among other things, as far as her broken mouth is concerned, it is estimated that one can count as ten!

If she really met him and he let her know that Zhao Zhuo had given him 620,000, then she would definitely try her best to get the money back.

So he cleared his throat, looked at Zhao Zhuo with some embarrassment, and asked tentatively, "How long have you known your girlfriend?"

Chapter 990

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly said: "We have known each other for three years and have been together for two years."

Jiang Ming asked again: "Then how did you two meet?"

Zhao Zhuo smiled and said: "At that time, I wanted to enter a company, and I needed to ask people to do things, and they asked me to take two soft China."

"I wondered how expensive this soft China is. One piece is several hundred and two pieces are more than one thousand. Then I wanted to look for it and see if anyone could sell it cheaper, but I searched it online, hey, There is really a cheap one, Juan! She sells smuggled soft China, only two hundred!"

After listening to Jiang Ming, his face was extremely embarrassed, and he asked, "Excellent, I ask you, where are Chinese cigarettes made?"

Zhao Zhuo subconsciously said: "China."

Jiang Ming nodded and said, "Why can you buy Chinese-made cigarettes in China, but still smuggled?"

Zhao Zhuo frowned and said, "Hey, Brother Jiang Ming, what you said is really interesting. I don't think I understand. Maybe Juan has some other channels?"

Jiang Ming sighed and asked, "I'll ask you again, you bought two pieces of Soft China from your girlfriend, and they were smuggled. Then finally, did you get the job done?"

"No." As soon as Zhao Zhuo thought of this, he said distressedly: "At that time, the cigarette was passed, and then there was no more information. Later, I called and asked people, but he blocked my phone. This is what happened. Now I still remember that on the fifteenth day of the lunar new year, I have to buy twos of paper money and burn it on the side of the road, cursing the fool who lied to me two cigarettes to die sooner."

"You're really a god..." Jiang Ming rubbed his temples, and he finally knew why Zhao Zhuo was so hanging.

So he asked: "Excellent, you have been with your girlfriend for two years, have you had any relationship?"

Zhao Zhuo blushed and said shyly: "I want it to happen, but it hasn't happened yet. Juan told me that she wants to save her most precious first night until the day of her wedding, and I respect her decision."

Jiang Ming scratched his hair and asked him: "Then you didn't hear what was wrong with the sound she made when she called? Under what circumstances would a woman make such a sound? Ah, the sound of the creaking mattress, think about it carefully, think about the Japanese movies you may have seen, the ones with few people and simple scenes, usually the ones with one man and one woman."

Jiang Ming wanted to click on Zhao Zhuo. He felt that he was just talking about it. It's impossible for Zhao Zhuo to understand it?

But he didn't expect that after hearing his problem, Zhao Zhuo said with a serious face: "Of course a woman would make such a sound when her waist was twisted and she needed to practice her waist in bed."

After that, Zhao Zhuo said distressedly: "It's a pity that my dormitory is too far from her home, otherwise I will buy two packs of plasters and send them to her."

Jiang Ming sneered and said: "Also buy a hairy plaster, just buy two boxes of Yuting, otherwise there may be something wrong."

"What?" Zhao Zhuo hurriedly asked, "What is Yuting? Is it for waist treatment? Isn't it good? Is it expensive? How much is a box?"

"Come on." Jiang Ming waved his hand and said: "You can stay at home first, I have to go, I will handle the fund business as soon as possible. If no accident, you can get the money after a week!"

Chapter 991

The heartless Jiang Ming, when he left Zhao Zhuo's dormitory, suddenly felt a little guilty for him.

He thinks that people like Zhao Zhuo, although hateful, are really pitiful.

He is an orphan without a father and no mother. After so many years of hard work, he hasn't come up with anything. In the end, he found a girlfriend.

If he knew that his girlfriend was enjoying herself under other men when his girlfriend called and scolded him, what kind of mood would he be in?

Moreover, he just emptied all of his wealth.

He was also given a loan of more than 500,000, all of which were usury without exception.

It is estimated that in a week, he will have to pay back at least one million.

It is estimated that after a month, he will have at least several million.

By that time, he might be desperate, right?

However, he is also a mud bodhisattva crossing the river, and he cannot protect himself.

No way, if one of the two people must die, he hopes that the other person will die.

Moreover, he hasn't gone ashore yet!

If you want to go ashore, at least you have to get hundreds of thousands more.

Thinking of this, he no longer sympathized with Zhao Zhuo.

Regardless of him, let's live alive.

At this moment, at the dining table of the Hyatt Hotel, Jiang Ming has become the target of the thousands.

Even the few followers before him all hated him one by one.

While everyone looked down on Jiang Ming, they admired Charlie very much.

After all, he can donate 1 million to the orphanage at his fingertips, certainly not just 1 million.

Everyone realized that they had looked down on Charlie before.

In order to curry favor with Charlie, many people kept saying kind words, toasting him, complimenting him, and even kneeling and licking him.

Charlie didn't have any arrogance, but he was not too humble. He always maintained a calm mentality, which made people feel a little unpredictable.

Zhao Hao has been waiting for everyone to finish Charlie's praise. He picked up a glass of wine and said seriously: "Charlie, thank you for all this for the orphanage, I toast you a glass!"

Charlie looked at him and nodded gently.

Chapter 992

Apart from Xiaofen and Aunt Lena, Zhao Hao was the first person to toast to him because he had donated money to the orphanage.

Those other people, they toast to him, not because he donated money to the orphanage, but because they find that he seem to be rich.

These are two completely different starting points. Those who rush to the orphanage to toast are those who really care about the orphanage; those who rush to the orphanage to toast are all hoping to have a relationship with him.

After all, for these friends, it is certainly not easy to donate 1 million to the orphanage at will, and it has far exceeded their cognition.

Charlie and Zhao Hao drank a glass of wine, and Zhao Hao sighed sincerely: "Charlie, I am really pleased to see that you can have today! I felt that you are different from each of us, and knowing why, I thought you were great at that time, and I thought you would be promising in the future! I didn't expect you to be so generous!"

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said: "When we two slept on the construction site together, we were very happy to have enough food every day. We were paid every month. We two of us could have extravagance and buy two side dishes. I had a few bottles of beer and a drink in the shed on the construction site. In my opinion, it is already a great satisfaction."

After a pause, Charlie said again: "Because of that experience, I don't have too much material requirements now. Eat better, dress better, use better, live better. In fact, it really doesn't make much sense to me."

Zhao Hao nodded earnestly and said, "Brother, I understand what you say. We two worked together in the same job back then, but I saved up all the money I earned. I hope that I will be able to turn over as the capital of the salted fish in the future; All the money you earned was donated to the orphanage. At that time, I felt that I might not be as good as you in my life, because your situation is much bigger than mine!"

After all, Zhao Hao sighed softly and laughed at himself: "Facts have proved that I am really nothing."

Charlie said solemnly: "Brother, don't be arrogant at any time, as long as you can do it, you are worthy of the world, worthy of your conscience, worthy of yourself, even if your material life is not so good, you are a very happy person."

As he said, he said again: "Look at this world, how many wealthy people have made their homes by doing bad things, and how many people who have no money are deliberately thinking about stealing, robbing, cheating, and occupying some from others. One thing, there are too few people who can do no harm!"

Claire silently listened to Charlie's words, and suddenly felt that her image of her husband had become radiant at this moment and in her own mind.

From his donation to the orphanage, to the moment he said such a statement, she was impressed.

Zhao Hao drank a little wine and was a little bit on his head, so he was also a little impulsive at this time. He held Charlie's hand and said with red eyes: "Charlie, I have been muddled for more than 20 years. Today you made me understand. I thought, I shouldn't have left at the beginning. I went to Haicheng because I always thought in my heart that I would stand up, make a fortune, and become a master. In the past few years, I have never thought about giving back and raising. The orphanage I grew up, looking back now, I really feel guilty..."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Zhao Hao, people must first take care of themselves, and then take care of the world. If you can't take care of yourself, I don't want you to donate your limited money to the orphanage, so you must take care of yourself first. We are all suffering. Days come, and there is no family, no dependence, only one can rely on. At this time, you must be nice to yourself and let yourself live well first."

Zhao Hao burst into tears and choked up: "Why don't you do it yourself when you persuade me so? I know, when Aunt Lena was sick, you gave all the money you could find to Aunt Lena, that At that time, why didn't you want to let yourself live better first?"

Charlie said awkwardly: "We are in different situations after all. I am married, but you are not."

After speaking, Charlie took Claire's hand and said to Zhao Hao: "All Aurous Hill knows that I am a famous soft rice king. I eat my wife's, drink my wife's, and use my wife's money for everything. I live with my wife and have such a good wife. I don't need to spend a penny, and I can eat and wear warmth. In this case, it's useless to ask for money."

Claire was suddenly held by Charlie, and suddenly some deer bumped into her.

After listening to what Charlie said, she was extremely moved.

She felt that at this moment, she had a little more understanding of her husband.

But at the same time, she also felt that at this moment, she was a little stranger to her husband.

Once upon a time, she thought that her husband was hopeless and ambitious, just a useless person who didn't dare to fight back after being scolded and beaten.

But now, she felt that her husband seemed to be far more profound than the one she imagined!

Chapter 993

When Zhao Hao saw Charlie holding Claire's hand, he showed his affection, and he felt gratified for his good brother.

So he hurriedly poured another glass of wine and said: "Come on, Charlie, good brother, I will toast you two a glass, I wish you better and better relationship, and hope you give birth to an early son!"

Claire blushed all of a sudden, and she felt ashamed when he talked about having an early son.

Charlie said with a smile on his face: "Thank you brother, I will work hard!"

Claire was even more shy. She held one hand, put the other hand under the table, and pinched hard on the inside of his thigh.

Charlie grinned in pain, but didn't dare to scream, so he hurriedly picked up the wine glass and said to Zhao Hao: "Come on, do it!"

After a glass of wine, Charlie suddenly remembered that Zhao Hao was working in Haicheng, and asked: "By the way, Zhao Hao, which company in Haicheng do you work for now? What industry is it? What is your position??"

Zhao Hao explained: "I work in a company specializing in the production of lighting equipment in Haicheng. The main position is a salesperson. Our company is under the Tailai Group."

"Tailai Group?" Charlie frowned and asked, "The boss of the Tailai Group should be Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, right?"

Zhao Hao nodded and said with a smile: "You also know Tailai."

Charlie smiled and said: "More than knowing, I have seen him."

"Really?" Zhao Hao said in surprise: "I usually miss the end of the dragon. Only the people from the group headquarters have the opportunity to see him. People from small zonal ones like us have no chance to see him. Chairman Tailai."

In Haicheng, Tailai was basically a native emperor, and he had many companies and industries.

The lighting equipment company where Zhao Hao works is actually just a small industry under Tailai, let alone Zhao Hao, even the person in charge of their lighting equipment company did not have the opportunity to see Tailai several times.

Therefore, Zhao Hao felt very shocked and curious about Charlie's meeting with Tailai.

So he asked: "Charlie, how did you meet our chairman?"

Charlie smiled and said: "A friend had a party before, and I went to attend it. I happened to see him and he was there."

The first time Charlie saw Tailai, Warnia invited him to look at a piece of jade. At that time, Tailai also had ideas about the piece of jade, and even brought a master to give him a long eye. As a result, the scam was seen through by him.

Later, in Aurous Hill, Tailai also went. Although he had no friendship with him, he had always treated him respectfully.

After all, he is the supreme Nanguang Supreme in the eyes of those metaphysical circles.

Since Zhao Hao works in a company under Tailai, he still has to help him if he can.

So Charlie said to Zhao Hao: "Well, let me call Tailai and let him arrange a new job for you."

"What?! Do you know Chairman?" Zhao Hao looked at Charlie in shock.

He thought that Charlie had just a chance to meet Chairman Tailai at a party, but 80% of them had no chance to cultivate friendship with the Chairman.

It's not that he despises his brothers. The key is that Chairman's status is noble. After all, he is the richest man in Haicheng. In his eyes, he is really unattainable.

Others couldn't help being shocked when they heard Charlie's words.

Everyone has heard of Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng. Although he is not as powerful as the Song family, he is at least a super rich man worth several tens of billions.

Unexpectedly, Charlie would know such a big man!

Chapter 994

If it were placed half an hour ago, everyone would think Charlie was bragging.

But now, everyone felt that since Charlie said so, then this matter is likely to be true.

Charlie smiled indifferently at this time and said to Zhao Hao: "Although I don't have much friendship with him, Chairman Tailai, is an acquaintances after all. I believe he will give me a bit of face after all."

Having said that, he immediately took out his cell phone, found Tailai's number, and called him directly.

After a while, the call was connected.

Tailai on the other end of the phone said in surprise, "Mr. Wade, why are you free to call me?!"

Charlie smiled lightly and said, "Chairman, you and I haven't seen each other for some time."

Tailai hurriedly said, "Oh, I haven't been to Aurous Hill during this time. Otherwise, I must say hello to Mr. Wade!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Chairman don't need to be so polite. Actually, I called today for something. I want to ask you."

A table of people held their breath and looked at Charlie, looking forward to witnessing the miracle moment!

Because almost everyone is an orphan, let alone a richest man with a worth of tens of billions, even an ordinary rich man with a worth of more than ten million will have no chance to meet.

At this time, Tailai hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, if you have anything you want, I will go all out!"

Charlie said: "I have a buddy who grew up together with me. I just learned today that he actually works in a company under your industry, Chairman, so I want to trouble you, can you arrange for him a Future work?"

Tailai was shocked!

He never dreamed that Mr. Wade's good brother would actually work in his own company.

So he hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade, what is your brother's name? Which company does he work for? Could you please tell me, I will call now to arrange for personnel transfer, and directly transfer your good brother Come to the headquarter of our group!"

Charlie said, "My buddy is called Zhao Hao. He works in a lighting equipment company under your name."

Tailai hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, wait a minute, I'll call and ask now!"

After hanging up the phone, Tailai immediately called his secretary, asking him to verify Zhao Hao's identity in the shortest possible time.

When the secretary reported to him that the lighting equipment company did have this person, Tailai was delighted.

In fact, he has long wanted to find a chance to get close to Charlie, but he has been suffering from no chance.

After all, Mr. Wade is a real dragon in the world, and in Aurous Hill, who is awesome, can't play a face-to-face in front of him. Moreover, even a large family like the Song family treats Charlie with respect, so he also knows, he actually has no chance.

However, he never dreamed that this opportunity would suddenly fall from the sky. Mr. Wade's good brother actually worked in his own company. Isn't this a godsend opportunity?

So he immediately called Charlie back and asked, "Mr. Wade, I want to transfer your brother to the headquarters to be my assistant. The annual salary is one million, oh no, two million. I don't know. Are you satisfied?"

Charlie knew that for Tailai, the annual salary of two million was a drop in the bucket.

However, for Zhao Hao, it would be less than ten or twenty years of struggle, and it may not even reach such a height in his lifetime.

He hummed with satisfaction, and said: "Then this matter will be hard for you, Chairman, it is best to send a notice to my brother now, so that he can be happy sooner."

Tailai didn't dare to refuse, and respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, I will let the manager send him an employment notice!"

Chapter 995

After Charlie hung up Tailai's call, he said to Zhao Hao in front of him: "I have already greeted your Chairman, and he said he wants to transfer you to the headquarters to be his assistant."

Zhao Hao, including the entire table of friends, were all stunned.

Everyone has heard of Tailai's name, but he is a super rich man worth over 10 billion!

It is definitely not an ordinary job to be an assistant to a super rich person worth more than 10 billion. It is impossible for ordinary people to have a chance!

At the very least, you have to graduate with a Ph.D. from a prestigious university, or even have similar work experience in many large companies, to be considered by a rich man like Tailai.

Everyone knew exactly what happened to Zhao Hao.

He and Charlie were all just graduated from high school at the beginning, because the orphanage only took them until they were 18 years old. At that time, after they finished high school and graduated, they went straight to work in society.

Charlie is a little better than him, because in order to let him cultivate a relationship with Claire, Mr. Willson sent him to Aurous Hill University to study for a year.

However, Zhao Hao has been working since he was 18 years old, working on construction sites for a few years, and then went to Haicheng to toss for a few years.

To put it bluntly, Zhao Hao's situation is no different from the uncles of migrant workers who work on the construction site. The only difference is that he is a little younger.

So such a person suddenly wants to work as an assistant for the super-rich man. No matter how he hears it, it feels very magical.

Zhao Hao himself didn't believe it either. Not only did he not believe it, but he also felt that he was not capable of being an assistant to the chairman?

Being able to be a team leader in your own company already burns high incense.

But at this moment, Zhao Hao's phone rang suddenly.

Zhao Hao saw that it was an unfamiliar number, so he put on the phone and asked: "Hello, who may I ask?"

The other party immediately said: "Hello, is it Mr. Zhao Hao? I am the personnel director of our Tailai Group. I am calling you to inform you that you have now been transferred to the head office to serve as Chairman Tailai's assistant. Chairman Tailai will give you one week to prepare, then you can report directly to the head office."

Zhao Hao was stunned and blurted out: "You...are you kidding me? Are you really asking me to be Chairman Tailai's assistant? I haven't even gone to university..."

The other party smiled and said: "Chariman Tailai specifically explained that no matter what your academic qualifications, you will be allowed to do this position, and you will not be required to have any skills, as long as you can drive. It does not matter if you can even drive. The company can pay you to sign up for training."

Zhao Hao hurriedly said: "I have a driver's license. I have been taking the driver's license test for more than three years. I drove a taxi in Haicheng for a while."

The other party smiled and said: "That's good. You can help Chariman Tailai drive first. If Chariman Tailai needs you to do anything, he will tell you then."

After speaking, the other party said: "By the way, your salary is 2 million per year, which is the basic salary, not including year-end bonuses and commissions."

"...how much?!" Zhao Hao was struck by lightning. He thought that his ears had a problem. How could it be possible for 2 million a year?

At his current level, he can earn 100,000 a year, which is very impressive. Even in the best dream he have ever had, he has not reached the level of an annual salary of 2 million.

Seeing that Zhao Hao didn't seem to hear him clearly, the other party repeated it earnestly and said: "Mr. Zhao, your basic salary is 2 million a year."

Zhao Hao shivered with fright, and blurted out: "2 million a year is too much..."

Chapter 996

This sentence scared everyone present.

An annual salary of 2 million a year? ! How is this different from robbing a bank?

Moreover, does Charlie really have this ability? Can Zhao Hao's annual salary be 2 million with a single call? !

At this moment, the other party smiled on the phone and said: "Chariman Tailai made this decision. Since he made this decision, there must be a reasons. I believe that the price is not high in Chariman's view."

After speaking, the other party said again: "Mr. Zhao Hao, then we will see you next week. This is my mobile phone. If you come to report then, just call me and I will receive you!"

Later, the person hung up the phone for convenience.

Zhao Hao took the phone, his whole brain has been completely short-circuited.

Ronnel was full of envy, jealousy and hatred at this time, and blurted out: "Zhao Hao, does your company really give you 2 million annual salary?"

Zhao Hao came back to his senses and nodded blankly and said, "It was the personnel director who called, she really said that."

Ronnel was so jealous and crazy in his heart. He really didn't expect Charlie to have such a sky-reaching energy. If he had known that he had such an ability, what would he go to kneel and lick Jiang Ming? He'd kneel and lick Charlie directly!

At this time, Zhao Hao was already in tears. He looked at Charlie with red eyes and choked up: "Charlie, you have done too much for me. How can I be Chariman Tailai's Assistant?"

Charlie smiled indifferently, patted him on the shoulder, and said seriously: "Just because you are Charlie's brother, I can fully afford Tailai arrange an assistant position for you."

Zhao Hao was very moved in his heart, but he was still a little less confident and said: "Charlie, I know you have always regarded me as a brother, but to be honest, I still know my ability. I am not worth 2 million a year."

Charlie said with a smile: "Whether it's worth it, it's not your decision. Since you are my brother, the annual salary of 2 million is your starting price."

With that said, Charlie must say seriously: "So you will follow Tailai steadfastly in the future, and show those who look down on you to see! Let them know that you today are not the same as before!"

Zhao Hao was moved in tears when he heard this!

Since the two left the orphanage, he has been looked down upon, because he is young and has no father or mother. Even if he works on the construction site, he will be bullied by other workers.

Having been in Haicheng for so many years, he was also looked down upon by others. Even his girlfriend had left him because he disliked himself.

So Charlie's words ignited the self-esteem and blood in his heart.

So he immediately clasped his fists in his hands and said with great gratitude: "My good brother, I don't say thank you for your kindness. From now on, Zhao Hao's life will be yours!"

Charlie waved his hand and said with a smile: "What do I want to do with your life? You will live well in the future, live well, and live your personality, I will be very relieved."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "By the way, I only have one request for you."

Zhao Hao hurriedly said: "You said that no matter what the request is, I will definitely be there!"

Charlie said seriously: "After becoming Tailai's assistant, no matter how your ex-girlfriend and her mother come back to beg you, you must not agree, even if you still love her in your heart, you are not allowed to agree! Because from now on, Such a snobbish woman is not worthy of Charlie brother!"

Chapter 997

At this moment, Zhao Hao realized from Charlie's determined expression that his life had undergone earth-shaking changes.

He is no longer the stinky silk that is looked down upon by everyone, has never gone to school, and has no father or mother.

He is now Charlie's brother and assistant to the chairman of Tailai Group.

And the annual salary is as high as 2 million!

If her ex-girlfriend knew he got such a job, her snobbish mother would probably kneel in front of him, begging to get back.

However, Charlie was right.

Because from now on, this family is no longer worthy of him.

It wasn't that Zhao Hao himself was so floating, but he knew that he could have this good fortune entirely because of his childhood brother Charlie.

Not only should he be grateful to him, but he can't shame him.

At this moment, the people at the dinner table looked at Charlie like a god.

He donated 1 million to the orphanage in a single phone call, and his friends also donated 1 million for his face.

That's all, he actually called Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng!

And also solved Zhao Hao a job with an annual salary of 2 million.

This energy has exceeded the imagination of these people!

However, Claire didn't feel strange at all. She knew that Charlie's Feng Shui was just for the rich, so it was not surprising to know Tailai.

But other people don't know this, many of them have already begun to move their minds, and they have picked up their wine glasses and looked at Charlie.

While preparing to toast Charlie, she also hope to get close to Charlie, and then see if she can also arrange a better job for her.

But at this moment when many people had already picked up their wine glasses, Claire suddenly received a call.

The call was from Elaine, Charlie's mother-in-law. As soon as the call was connected, Elaine cried out on the other end of the phone: "My dear daughter, come back soon. Your dad is going to divorce me. I'm not alive!" If you don't come back, you can only wait to collect the body!"

Claire panicked immediately. She didn't expect she had just found her back and the house started to make trouble again.

So she hurriedly said to Charlie next to her: "It seems that parents are arguing at home, let's go back soon."

When Charlie heard this, he nodded immediately, so he picked up the wine glass and said to everyone: "Aunt Lena, there are so many friends, I am really sorry today, there is something urgent at home, so I just told Claire. Please allow us, We will get back together when we have time!"

Aunt Lena hurriedly said: "You two should go back to do business, don't delay because of us."

But those who still want to profit from him were disappointed for a while, and some even said: "Brother Wade, I haven't had time to toast with you... Drink two glasses before leaving?"

Charlie said lightly: "Don't drink it, next time, I have to leave now for home."

After speaking, he raised the wine glass in his hand and said seriously: "I've done this glass of wine."

As soon as the voice fell, he drank all the wine in the glass and took Claire's hand to leave.

Because Charlie drank, Claire was responsible for driving.

On the way back, she said anxiously: "I think my dad is tempted by that Aunt again, so he wants to divorce my mom. I really worry about it. You can help me think of a way to see how to get my dad change his mind..."

Charlie said: "What do you say about this kind of thing? If Dad really doesn't have feelings for Mom, and forcibly keeping them together not to be separated, it will be torture for both of them."

Claire sighed and asked, "Then you mean to make them short-term pain better than long-term pain?"

Chapter 998

Charlie smiled and said, "What kind of person mother is, don't you know? She will make short-term pains from the labors, and short-term pains will be caused by her to grow up. Even if dad wants to divorce her, I'm afraid It's not that easy."

Claire was stunned suddenly, her heart was full of enlightenment.

With the mother's temper and character, even if the father wants to divorce, it is difficult to get what he wants.

Thinking of this, she also suddenly realized that her mother's death-seeking thing was probably still acting.

So she was also relieved.

As soon as the BMW drove into the villa, they heard Elaine cursing on the street: "Jacob, you despondent b@stard, I have suffered so much for you and suffered so much, so you still have to divorce me."

Charlie and Claire got out of the car, and as soon as they entered the door, they saw Elaine standing in the living room, cursing shamelessly.

Because Elaine's two front teeth were still missing, she leaked when she spoke. When she got excited, it not only leaked the wind, but also kept spitting out.

Jacob deliberately kept a distance of more than five meters from her at this time, and said angrily: "Don't tell me those useless things, I'm broke with you now, there is no other choice except divorce!"

Elaine scolded, "Dog stuff, you are simply dreaming! I tell you, I am dead, I will not divorce you!"

Jacob said angrily: "You wait, I will go to the court to sue tomorrow."

Elaine scolded angrily: "You f*cking bluff me? Do you think that the court is yours, you can get a divorce if you go to prosecute? I tell you, in order to prevent you from doing this, inquired about it many years ago. As long as I disagree with the divorce, the court will not be able to sentence us to divorce for no reason!"

Jacob said angrily: "I have no relationship with you anymore. A marriage without an emotional basis will be sentenced by law!"

Elaine said triumphantly: "Cut, what if there is no emotional foundation? I tell you, the relevant laws have regulations. Even if there is no emotional foundation, you must have separated for two years before you can be sentenced to divorce!"

Jacob was taken aback, and immediately stomped his heart, and said, "Then...then...then I will be separated from you now, and counting from now, two years later, if you don't leave, you will also have to leave!"

Elaine curled her lips and said, "You want to separate with me, right? I tell you, two people live in a house and sleep in separate rooms. This is not separation. If you want to separate, you can get out of the Tomson Villa. Live in a house!"

After speaking, Elaine said again: "You can move back to the old house alone!"

"Go and go!" Jacob gritted his teeth: "As long as I can get rid of you as a b*tch, even if I go to sleep in the bridge hole for two years, I am willing!"

Elaine waved her hand: "Then you get out quickly, get out now, get out to somewhere!"

After speaking, Elaine threatened: "Your front foot is gone, and my back foot chopped the furniture that your father left behind and burned wood!"

"You..." Jacob shivered angrily: "What is the difference between your approach and that of a beast?"

Elaine hummed: "You care so much, don't you want to move out? Hurry up, go now!"

Jacob suddenly became dumbfounded.

He really wanted to separate from Elaine, but he was really reluctant to leave Tomson First Grade.

This big villa with elevator is so cool to live in. After living here, look at the small house before, it is no different from the chicken coop.

But now that he has only lived here for a few days, if he let himself move out, then he really feel a little unwilling.

Claire watched the two talking, arguing incessantly, and said helplessly: "Dad, Mom! I haven't had a good day, why you started to make trouble again?"

Elaine said, "I want to live a good life, but your dad doesn't want to."

Jacob blurted out: "I have nothing to do with you, I can't go together anymore!"

Charlie knew very well in his heart that the Old Master must want to stay and fly with Meiqing, but what he thought was too beautiful. Doesn't he have any compelling numbers in his heart because of his wife?

Chapter 999

Seeing Jacob so decisive, Elaine said angrily: "Okay, you can't live with me, right? Yes, then you can live without me for two years, and then go to the court to sue for divorce."

As she said, Elaine snorted and said, "But Jacob, I can tell you in advance that I am a very careful person. If you divorce me, let me know that you are better than me and more comfortable than me. Then I may be uncomfortable!"

"You know what I will do when I feel uncomfortable, you know better than anyone else, and I will definitely make you feel more uncomfortable than me, so that my heart can be balanced!"

"In other words, if you dare to find a little vixen outside and live secretly at that time, then I must confuse your good things, and then I haunt you every day. I am your ghost, I am Your shadow, you will never get rid of me!"

When Jacob heard this, his soul was frightened!

According to Elaine's words, even if he bears her for two years and finally can dissolve the marriage, she is not going to let him go...

If he is with Meiqing at that time, once Elaine knows about it, wouldn't she still be crazy?

She still doesn't know anything about Meiqing, she will haunt her every day as her own ghost.

At that time, if she knows about Meiqing, or even know that he's with Meiqing, then she can cut him to death with a knife?

Moreover, not only is it impossible for him to let go of her, it is also impossible for him to let go of Meiqing.

After all, she has always regarded Meiqing as her worst enemy for decades.

Given her style of acting as the number one vixen in Aurous Hill, how could Meiqing be her opponent?

At that time, she might end-up hurting him and hurt Meiqing, and it will be a mess by then.

Thinking of this, Jacob almost cried anxiously.

He desperately asked himself in his heart: "Can't I be with Meiqing in my life? Can't I find my own happiness? Will I have to live with such a b*tch in this life?"

Thinking of this, he had the heart to die.

Elaine looked like a winner, and said triumphantly: "I tell you Jacob, you will never get rid of me in your life unless I die! But even if I die before you, I will take you before death. If you walk with me, you will never be left alone in this world."

Jacob trembled with anger, almost unable to stand up. He roared with great indignation: "Elaine, you...you...you stinky lady, you are simply a beast! How can there be a brazen person like you in the world?!"

"What?" Elaine raised her eyebrows: "What's wrong with a person like me? Don't someone like me still marry you and have children? Do you think I, Elaine, is what you dump whenever you want?"

Jacob was so angry that Elaine cried, and said in a choked voice: "The last thing I regret in my life is marrying you! If I knew you were such a shrew, even if you put a knife on my neck, I would not marry. You come in!"

Elaine suddenly sneered: "Oh, what does your regret of marrying me have to do with whether I am a shrew? Do you think I don't know why you regret this old thing?"

"Don't you just regret not being with Meiqing? Don't you regret that you didn't get back Meiqing in time?"

"You ate the bowl yourself, looked at the pan, and regretted now that you said it was because I was a shrew? In front of the girl, you touched your own conscience and said, are you shameless?"

"You..." Jacob was suffocated to death.

People like Elaine have this ability. She can accurately find the most hurtful language under any circumstances and launch the most brutal attack.

Jacob had realized at this time that he was not the opponent of this shrew at all.

Thinking that his life was so gloomy, and it seemed that there would be no day in the future, he fell to the ground like a child and started to cry.

Unlike the crying method that Elaine used to cry, Jacob's cry is really sad for the listener and tears for the listener.

Chapter 1000

It can be seen how desperate he is at this moment.

When Elaine saw this, the victor's posture became more obvious, and she said contemptuously: "Jacob, you're a dmn Old Master, you're a fcking man, come with me. Why, in front of a girl, you want to win sympathy. Do you want me to tell you about your love affairs in front of daughter?"

After that, before Jacob could answer, she sneered and said, "You Jacob were the school's famous person back then. The matter between you and Meiqing is also known to the whole school, but you, someone like you, obviously has a girlfriend. Still messing with flowers and weeds outside, attacking me and ruining my innocence. Now you wasted half of my life, and talking about divorcing me. There are so many s*umbags in the world, but who can beat you?"

Jacob only felt that his heart was violently hit by a train.

At this moment he realized that he might not be able to beat this woman in his life.

With her, it is impossible to find true happiness in this life.

As a result, he changed from whispering to howling.

Claire was also depressed by the situation before her.

She suddenly realized that she had never wanted to divorce her parents before, but the result of the two of them not divorcing must be the endless quarrel like today.

In this way, neither of them will be happy.

If life is like this in the future, even she doesn't feel any light...

At this time, she suddenly received Elsa's WeChat message, which read: "Claire, I just went to Tomson. Before I even entered, I heard uncles and aunt arguing. The quarrel seemed to be quite fierce. Would you like to go back and take a look?"

Claire hurriedly said, "I have already returned."

Elsa said again: "That's good. By the way, I'd better stay in the hotel these days, otherwise it would be too embarrassing."

Claire was also very sorry.

Originally, it was to let a good girlfriend live in her own home, so that she would not stay in the hotel alone.

But who would have thought that when she had just moved here, her father would entertain her first love at home.

He had just treated his first love, and her mother had disappeared again.

Now mother has finally found herself back, and the two of them will start fighting when they get home. If they change to be her, I am afraid they will hide far away...

Thinking of this, she had to sigh and micro-channel Elsa back: "I'm sorry Elsa, you can come back when the family affairs are almost done."

Elsa said hurriedly: "You don't need to worry about me for now, and take care of family affairs."

In fact, Elsa had always envied Claire before, after all, she could find a good man like Charlie.

But now, she suddenly wasn't so envious.

Because her family is really weird, if you let yourself live in such a family atmosphere, I'm afraid it would collapse long ago.

At this time, Jacob had already cried and went back to the room. Elaine saw that he had escaped, and lost the interest in continuing to behave. She said triumphantly: "Oh, I'm going to take a good bath in my big bathtub. I sleep in Tomson Villa! Hahaha!"

Seeing parents went back to their respective rooms, Claire said to Charlie frustratedly: "Hey, I'm really tired, and my head hurts to death. I also go back to the room to take a bath, otherwise I really will collapse... .."

Charlie thought that he was going to be promoted to one level tonight, and hurriedly followed with a smiley face...

Chapter 1001

Seeing that Claire went to the bathroom of the bedroom to take a shower, Charlie went to the guest bathroom on the same floor to take a shower.

This is good for living in a villa. There are so many bathrooms, so there is no need to line up.

Charlie took a bath faster, and when Claire came out of the bathroom, he had already finished the bath and was lying on the bed.

Claire saw Charlie, who was wearing a vest and shorts, lying on his back on the bed. She was surprised for a moment before blurting out, "Why you sleep on the bed?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Wife, didn't you say it was done earlier, should I be promoted? Some time ago, mom went to engage in MLM, which delayed my promotion. Now that she is back, you can't stop me from being promoted. Right?"

"I..." Claire was suddenly embarrassed.

She didn't know how to answer Charlie's question.

Indeed, she had promised him that she would be promoted to a higher level without having to sleep on the floor.

But she and Charlie had never been so close.

I really didn't have the psychological preparation for this.

However, the words came back again.

During this period of time, Claire's favor with Charlie has been rapidly heating up.

Especially today, seeing Charlie hit Jiang Ming, seeing him donating 1 million to the orphanage, seeing Charlie solve the job for a good brother, and let him go to the pinnacle of life...

Charlie tonight is like an omnipotent male god in her eyes.

Sometimes, she feel very heart-warming. That may be the feeling of love.

Thinking of this, her face immediately turned red, and against the dim light of the bedroom, she looked even more charming.

Charlie looked at her shame, and his heart was full of love.

This is my beloved wife, like a ray of sunshine in life, warming my heart.

Claire looked at Charlie with red eyes, and after a while, she said shyly: "You can upgrade to one level, but you can only upgrade to one level, that's it!"

Charlie hurriedly asked: "My wife, what do you mean by this? What does it mean to only be promoted to one level?"

Claire said: "From today you will sleep on the bed, but this bed is divided into two, male left and female right. Without my permission, you must not cross the boundary, otherwise you will be downgraded to one level."

Charlie said with a sad face, "Wife, what does it mean to drop one level?"

Claire glanced at him for nothing, and said, "You know what it means to be promoted. Don't you know what it means to be lowered?"

Charlie asked depressed, "Should I go back to sleep on the floor if I drop one level?"

"Yes!" Claire said triumphantly: "If you do not behave well, you will drop one level to sleep on the floor. If you do not perform well, you will drop one level to sleep in the guest room. Anyway, our villa has a lot of rooms. Yes."

Charlie was about to cry and said, "Wife, can you tell me what the next level is? When can I go up to the next level?"

Claire blushed with a pretty face, and said, "What is the next level will be kept secret for now. As for when we can go up to the next level, you have to wait for notification from the superior."

With that said, Claire patted his chest again, and said grinning: "I am your superior, and all interpretation rights belong to me."

Charlie was very depressed, and said, "My wife, you must have heard what Aunt Lena said today. Aunt Lena is really looking forward to having a baby soon. We can't live up to Aunt Lena's wish!"

"Don't come here!" Claire stomped with embarrassment: "Who is going to give birth? Whoever wants to have a baby with you, you will find someone to give birth to, anyway, I don't have a baby."

Chapter 1002

Charlie said helplessly: "There is no child between these two people. We are both normal people, and we are not infertile. It is a joke to always have no children, just in case you think you are not fertile. , Don't you want to look down."

Claire curled her lips and said, "Then when someone asks me, I will tell them that you have no fertility. Isn't that all right?"

Having said that, Claire said again: "Besides, you know that you have just reached the second level now. Do you know how many levels you have a child?"

Charlie said immediately: "I must be the third level!"

Claire hummed: "You want to be beautiful!"

After all, Claire picked up her quilt from the floor, threw it on top of him, and said, "One person, one quilt, you are not allowed to cross the boundary! Hands, feet, body, hair, nowhere. If you cross the boundary, you will be downgraded!"

Charlie could only say helplessly: "Well, well, I know, I must not cross the boundary, is this not enough?"

Claire smiled shyly and said: "This is pretty much the same."

After speaking, she opened her quilt, turned her back to Charlie, and lay on the bed.

As soon as Claire got into bed, she wrapped himself tightly, blushing as if she was about to bleed, glanced at Charlie, and quickly turned her head over.

At this moment, Charlie wanted to hug her and give her a kiss.

However, since the respect for such a long time has come, why should he be anxious and disobey her?

In any case, he has been promoted to one level, and being able to lie on the same bed with her is a huge improvement. In the days to come, he will perform well, and will be able to reach another level.

Maybe when he gets to the next level, two people can sleep in one bed.

Thinking of this, he felt a lot of joy suddenly.

Claire dared not look at him, reached out her hand to turn off the light, and said, "It's getting late, go to bed."

After the light was turned off, the bedroom was dark, and he couldn't see fingers. It was so quiet that he could hear clearly as if a needle fell on the ground.

Charlie could clearly hear Claire's breathing, and her breathing was a bit rapid. It seemed that she should be very nervous at this time.

If Claire usually falls asleep, her breathing is very even and gentle.

So Charlie asked her: "Wife, are you still up?"

Claire asked, "What's wrong?"

Charlie was also a little nervous, and hurriedly said, "It's nothing, I just want to chat with you."

Claire said, "What do you want to talk about? Tell me."

Charlie smiled, turned his head to look at Claire's outline, and asked: "My wife, how is your company running recently?"

Claire said: "It's not bad. Emgrand Group and several other companies have given some orders. I am designing them one by one and looking for people to construct them. Now the overall situation has improved and the company's account has already The payment of several million is only an advance payment. If I finish the current projects, the payment should exceed 10 million."

Charlie was surprised and said, "Wow, my wife, you are amazing. How long has it been since you made 10 million into the account!"

Claire said: "10 million is just an account, and the actual profit is only about 2 million. This 2 million is not as much as you can earn by showing others a feng shui."

With that, Claire hurriedly said to Charlie: "By the way, you should never tell mom about the numbers that I just told you. If mom knows that the company has millions in the account, she will definitely get wrong ideas!"

Charlie hurriedly said: "My wife, I listen to you, and I will never say a word to her!"

After speaking, Charlie asked again: "Wife, you see that I have performed so well, can you raise me to the next level now?"

Chapter 1003

Charlie felt nervous after asking this question.

He didn't know what kind of reply Claire would give him.

At this moment, he suddenly felt an object hit his face. The next moment, he felt the object, which was the little bear that Claire usually hugged to sleep.

At this time, he heard Claire say in ear: "You are so greedy, you usually play mobile games, the more difficult it is to upgrade, how can it be so simple?"

Charlie said aggrievedly: "My wife, the upgrade of mobile games is fast now, and you can upgrade to level 80 with a single cut!"

Claire pretended to be a customer service of a certain treasure, and said, "I'm sorry, dear, this kind of upgrade is not available in our family. I suggest you consider trying other games."

Charlie hurriedly said: "No, no, no, I don't want to try other games, I just want to ask if you can give us a quick way to upgrade this game?"

Claire smiled and said, "I'm sorry, dear, we don't have any shortcuts for the time being."

"Okay!" Charlie sighed and said, "I will continue to work hard."

Claire nodded in satisfaction and said: "In this case, the customer service side is about to get off work now. If you have any questions, please come back tomorrow morning."

Seeing her playful, Charlie hurriedly said: "Okay, let's talk about it tomorrow morning."

Claire said again: "Then please don't hang up. After a beep, you will comment on my service. 1 is very satisfied, 2 is satisfied, and 3 is not satisfied."

Charlie said: "4!"

Claire said: "I'm sorry, the input was wrong, please re-enter."

Charlie said: "Yes, 4 is very unsatisfactory!"

Claire grunted and said, "Congratulations for activating the hidden random treasure chest in the game. You will get a random gift. To open the treasure chest, press 1, and to give up the treasure chest, press 2."

Charlie blurted out: "1!"

Claire imitated the sound of the lottery turntable and squeaked it around for a while before saying, "Congratulations on getting a random gift and drop one level! The gift will take effect immediately!"

Charlie yelled in shock: "Don't, stop, I don't want this gift!"

Claire giggled and said, "Dear, hide the random treasure chest. Once opened, it cannot be returned!"

Charlie said: "I want to appeal! I just pressed the wrong one, I want to press 2!"

Claire laughed for a while, and then said, "Dear, the system has received your appeal. We will process your appeal within two days. The result of the appeal will be sent back to you at that time, but before the feedback result comes out, You still need to accept a random punishment of downgrading one level in place."

Charlie said: "I am an old customer of game, can you give me a face? This time set me free from punishment!"

Claire thought for a while, and then said, "Dear, since you are indeed our loyal customer, we decided after discussion and give you a chance to choose again."

After that, she cleared her throat and said, "Please press 1 to open the treasure chest, press 2 to give up the treasure chest."

Charlie can only say: "2! I choose 2!"

Claire said: "It's a pity that you missed the random gift in the hidden random treasure chest this time. What else can I help you with?"

Charlie sighed, "Nothing, no more, I'm going to continue leveling."

Chapter 1004

Claire said: "Then please don't hang up. After a beep, you will comment on my service. 1 is very satisfied, 2 is satisfied, and 3 is not satisfied."

Charlie wailed: "1! Very satisfied!"

Claire said with satisfaction: "Thank you for your comments. That's all for today's connection. See you next time."

.....

This night, Charlie slept very unsteadily.

Although he has only been promoted by one level, this is the first time he has been in bed with Claire since he married Claire.

Of course, although the same bed is the same, there is no chance to sleep together. Two people use their own pillows and sleep on their own quilts.

Charlie really didn't dare to cross the middle 38th line, otherwise he would really have to drop one level on the spot, wouldn't it be because he didn't cry without tears?

Claire actually didn't fall asleep for a long time, and she felt very nervous in her heart.

Although she and Charlie slept in their own blankets and didn't have any skin-to-skin touch, she still felt that her heartbeat was very fast.

Well, this is after all the first time she shared a bed with a man since she shared a room with her parents when she was young.

It's not strange that she does feel nervous.

In this way, the two people suffered from insomnia for a long time before going to sleep one after another.

Early the next morning, Charlie opened his eyes, Claire beside him was gone.

Hearing the sound of the shower coming from the bathroom, Charlie knew that Claire was taking a shower.

Claire is a girl who loves cleanliness, and basically takes a bath every morning and evening, and Charlie has already been surprised.

He stretched and was about to get up when the phone under his pillow suddenly buzzed.

He took out his cell phone and found that it was actually a call from Xiaofen.

After answering the call, Xiaofen's anxious voice came from over there: "Brother Charlie, there is an accident in the orphanage!"

Charlie hurriedly asked, "What's going on?! What happened to the welfare institution? Don't worry about it go slowly."

Xiaofen choked up and said, "Ten children were lost! Suspected they were stolen!"

"What?!" Charlie was both anxious and angry when he heard that the child in the welfare home would be stolen. He hurriedly asked: "Xiaofen, tell me specifically, what is going on?"

Xiaofen hurriedly said: "This morning, the aunt in charge of infants and young children in the day shift went to work with the aunt in the night shift, and found that the aunt in the night shift was sleeping unconsciously. All the ten children in one room were gone. She was given a strong anaesthetic!"

Charlie was furious, and he scolded: "Someone is too bold to do it, even dare to steal the children of the orphanage?!"

Xiaofen cried and said: "This kind of thing happened before, but we discovered it in time before. Now human traffickers are particularly rampant. Not only do they dare to steal from the orphanage, they also dare to steal from the hospital, and steal from people's homes. They even robbed other people's children on the street!"

After speaking, Xiaofen said again: "The main reason is that this business is too profitable for them. Any child can sell for about 100,000. If it is the kind of beautiful child, these rich people cannot give birth. Children who are even willing to pay a high price..."

Charlie hurriedly asked, "What's the situation now? Did you call the police?"

Xiaofen hurriedly said: "Aunt Lena and the dean have called the police a long time ago, and the case has been opened for investigation, but the police said that they speculated that the night shift aunt was anesthetized at around 3 in the morning, that is, they stole the child. Four hours have passed now, and they may have left Aurous Hill or even the province in these four hours!”

Chapter 1005

At this moment, Charlie was very angry.

He did not expect that a human trafficker would be so bold and hit idea on the children of the orphanage.

Thinking of these children, among them, they might be sold to unscrupulous beggars, or even turned into disabled by them, Charlie wanted to smash the corpses of these traffickers.

So he immediately said to Xiaofen: “Xiaofen, where are you now? Are you in the orphanage?”

“Yes!” Xiaofen said, “I just came back from the police station, Aunt Lena and the others are still there.”

“Okay.” Charlie said immediately: “You are waiting for me in the orphanage, I will pass now!”

After speaking, he hung up the phone, ignored his wife, and hurried out.

Coming to the first floor, Elaine, wearing a big red pajamas, urged impatiently: “Charlie, hurry up and cook, I am starving to death.”

Charlie frowned, and said in disgust: “If you want to eat, you can cook it yourself.”

Elaine gritted her teeth and cursed: “Oh! You are amazing now, have you become more capable?”

Charlie nodded and said, “If you can get such a big villa, then I can count you as capable!”

When Elaine heard this, her face suddenly changed: "Charlie, what do you mean by this? Do you think the villa you made is amazing? You started to shake face with me?"

Charlie said coldly: "Yes, when I lived in your house before, what was your attitude towards me? I hope you will reflect on it now. Maybe after a while, I will treat you like you treated me. "

"You..." Elaine's arrogance disappeared by 80% at once, and she really realized that Charlie was different from before.

Now he doesn't have much to judge her. She used to say that he eats in her home and lives in her home, but now it seems that everything is the other way around.

At this time, Jacob also came out of the elevator, and when he saw Charlie as if he was going out, he asked: "Charlie, where are you going?"

Charlie said: "I'm going to the orphanage, something is wrong."

Jacob hurriedly said, "It just so happens that I have to go to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to do something, I'll drive you."

Charlie nodded: "Okay, dad."

Elaine said angrily: "Jacob, you are not allowed to go! Make breakfast for me!"

Jacob glanced at her disgustedly: "Make it yourself, don't eat it if you don't do it!"

After speaking, he didn't talk to her anymore.

Jacob and son-in-law walked out, Elaine gritted her teeth with anger behind.

Now the two men in the family ignore her, and her majesty in this family no longer exists.

Especially that Jacob, who was so ambitious yesterday that he wanted to divorce her.

This dog has been married to her for more than 20 years, and he didn't dare to yell at her like that. There must be something strange about this matter, so she has to find a way to investigate it.

At this moment, Charlie and the Old Master Jacob came to the garage, Jacob sat in his BMW car and drove Charlie out.

As soon as the car left the house, Jacob couldn't wait to ask: "Charlie, you usually have a lot of ideas. Can you give your dad an idea, how can I divorce that b*tch?"

Charlie said, "Didn't Mom say it yesterday? If you want to get a divorce, you have to live apart for at least two years."

Chapter 1006

Jacob said impatiently: "Two years are too long. That b*tch still doesn't know that your Aunt is back, but this matter must not be hidden for too long. My thought is that before she knows that your Aunt is back, I want to divorce her first."

Speaking of this, Jacob was a little depressed and said, "But, you heard what the shrew said yesterday. She said that if I find another woman, she will not let me get better, I'm afraid she will know you Aunt. She's going to trouble your Aunt. Your Aunt is quiet and dignified, and has a good temper. How could she be the opponent of that shrew."

Charlie said: "Dad, I really want to help you with this matter, but I am also helpless. You still have to solve this problem yourself for some things."

In fact, Charlie really wanted to let Elaine evaporate directly from the world. He had this idea the last time this woman stole his bank card.

It's a pity that he couldn't bear Claire being sad, otherwise, he would never let Elaine back!

If he didn't let Elaine come back, then the Old Master's current life will be extremely enjoyable.

Thinking of this, Charlie said again: "Dad, it's not that I told you. Your biggest problem is that you are too weak and too scared of her. She only has to say a few words, and you don't know what to do. People can't help you solve this problem. If you want to solve this problem, you can only rely on yourself."

Jacob sighed and said, "I understand what you said, but some things will form a psychological shadow, and it is difficult for me to overcome in your heart."

Charlie said: "Then I can't help, Dad, Aunt finally came back. If you let her know, she will probably fight Aunt to get rid of her. She will never give up unless Aunt is driven out of Aurous Hill. At that time, you have to think about what to do."

When Jacob heard this, he snorted in his heart.

What he fears most is the occurrence of this scene.

If Elaine really knew that Meiqing is back, she would definitely go to trouble Meiqing, and she would never die!

Jacob had to sigh: "Think about it. Try to think of a solution."

.....

Jacob sent Charlie to the orphanage, and he went to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to hold an appreciation meeting with others.

When Charlie got out of the car, he saw Xiaofen just waiting at the door. The little girl ran to him when she saw that he was coming.

"Brother Charlie!" Xiaofen cried out with a choked voice, then plunged into Charlie's arms, crying and said: "Brother Charlie, think of a solution quickly, I'm really afraid that those younger brothers and sisters will never again can be found..."

Charlie patted her back lightly and said seriously: "Don't worry, I will definitely go all out. Is Aunt Lena back now? Are there any new clues?"

Xiaofen shook her head with red eyes and said, "Aunt Lena and the others haven't come back. I don't know if there is any progress."

As she was talking, a taxi stopped at the entrance of the orphanage.

Aunt Lena and the director of the orphanage walked out of the taxi.

Charlie hurriedly pulled Xiaofen to greet them, and asked, "Aunt Lena, what did the police say, is there any clue?"

Seeing Charlie's arrival, Aunt Lena smiled bitterly, and said: "The police station has opened a case. They are starting from the monitor, but the only clue that can be found now is that they are driving a white Iveco and committing a crime. There should be six or seven of the elements. After they fainted the children, they all got in the car and were out of the city."

Charlie asked hurriedly, "Has the police station started tracking this car?"

"Chased." Aunt Lena sighed, and said: "Their car had a license plate, and it disappeared on the high-speed. It is seriously suspected that they have changed other brands on the high-speed. The kind of Iveco itself is our Aurous Hill. The models are very common, and there is no license plate number, so it is difficult to find them."

Charlie nodded solemnly.

Under this circumstance, it may be difficult to achieve results in a short period of time by relying on the police department's method of handling cases.

If you want to find criminals in the shortest time, or find information related to criminals, you must find the kind of people who have the underground world information and have great abilities.

They have a large number of eyes in all walks of life, so their intelligence is more in-depth than the police!

Chapter 1007

Thinking of this, Charlie called Mr. Orvel.

After all, Mr. Orvel is the underground emperor of Aurous Hill, and his eye is much more than ordinary people.

As soon as the call was connected, Orvel asked respectfully: "Mr. Wade, what do you want?"

Charlie said: "There are 10 two or three-year-old children in the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute. They were stolen by traffickers last night. You have been underground in Aurous Hill for a long time. Please help me to investigate if anyone has recently made noise about buying children. Or is anyone inquiring about the child everywhere."

Many cases can be solved, not necessarily because of the supernatural powers of the investigators, or what kind of high-tech assistance they have, but because the criminals left key clues in his unique group.

For example, if a person is killed, the police will start by confirming the identity of the corpse. But people in the arena know who the person has offended and what kind of things he has been involved in. The probability is that Who killed, can be found.

For another example, if someone loses a car in the local area, if they report to the police, the police usually investigate where the car has been. Where did it disappear? Surveillance video shows who has been in contact with this car during this time?

But if you directly ask the people in the underground world, who are the local people who steal the car, or who are the local people who are responsible for selling stolen goods, whoever has seen the car lost is basically accurate.

But the key is that the underground world has very clear rules and rules. Even if an insider wants to get certain information, his ability and status must match this information.

Otherwise, it is impossible to inquire about anything.

For example, a small gangster wants to know what kind of business Mr. Orvel is doing recently, who he has eaten with, and who he has met. It is basically impossible to inquire.

But if Mr. Orvel wants to know what a gangster is up to lately and who he has frequent contact with, his men will help him find out with just one sentence.

Mr. Orvel knew that Charlie had always lived in the orphanage from childhood to adolescence, so he also knew that the children of the orphanage were stolen, Charlie must be very angry.

So he immediately proceeded to investigate.

Ten minutes later, a clue was fed back to Mr. Orvel.

There is a kid named Liu Zhaochen in Aurous Hill. Some time ago, while having a meal with friends on the road, he asked where Aurous Hill could buy children.

Charlie hurriedly asked him: "What is the origin of this Liu Zhaochen?"

Mr. Orvel said: "This kid is a native of Aurous Hill. He has been stealing chickens and dogs since he was young, and his family is also making a living. When he was not an adult, he participated in many illegal and criminal activities for Money, this kid does everything."

"A few years ago, this kid and his family made some money by pirating movies. They sneaked into the movie theater with a video camera to secretly take pictures of other movies being shown, and then carved them into pirated CDs and sold them out. During that period of time, it was very busy."

"As a result, a big man invested in a big-produced movie, which was stolen by this kid as soon as it was released. Then the big man asked someone to chop off the kid's hand. From then on, the kid didn't dare to pirate the movie. , The family changed their careers and became a snakehead, just reselling the population."

"His family specializes in reselling underage children, usually to gangs in the south. Sometimes they also rent out a group of underage children to gangs. Some time ago, I heard that the police targeted those underage gangs controlled by the beggars. Adult children have carried out a special rescue operation and rescued a large number of children, so now the beggars have been asking for children everywhere, and he is specifically looking for children for the beggars."

Charlie asked coldly: "This kid and his family are doing this business?!"

"Yes!" Mr. Orvel said: "A family of six, his father, his mother, his two brothers and one sister, all do this kind of business."

Charlie gritted his teeth and said: "This kind of garbage is really d*mn!"

After that, he asked again: "Mr. Orvel, do you know where this kid is now? I want to know all his movements in the past two days!"

Mr. Orvel said: "I'm making inquiries, and there must be clues soon!"

Chapter 1008

Charlie snorted and said: "If you have any clues, you must tell me at earliest!"

Mr. Orvel respectfully said: "Okay, Mr. Wade, I see!"

Charlie hung up the phone, turned back to Aunt Lena and Xiaofen, and said: "Aunt Lena and Xiaofen, don't worry about it. I have asked friends to help me find out and they are quite energetic. I see some clues will come back soon."

Aunt Lena said with a red eye: "Charlie, thank you very much!"

Charlie hurriedly said: "Aunt Lena, what are you talking about? I also came out of the orphanage. Now that the younger siblings in the orphanage are lost, I will definitely try my best to find them back!"

Xiaofen choked up and said: "Brother Charlie, you donated so much money yesterday. On the way back, Aunt Lena also said that we are going to add a set of monitoring equipment to the entire orphanage. I didn't expect it to be today..."

Having said that, Xiaofen couldn't help it all at once, and started crying again.

Charlie knows Aunt Lena and Xiaofen very well. Most of the people working in the orphanage are very kind, and they take care of these children without parents as their own children, and regard themselves as the parents of these orphans.

Now the welfare home has lost 10 children at once, which is naturally a huge blow to them.

Charlie was about to speak to comfort them, when Mr. Orvel called.

He hurriedly connected.

He heard Mr. Orvel say on the other end of the phone: "Mr. Wade, I have already asked someone to find out. The Liu Zhaochen temporarily found a friend on the road last night and borrowed a deck of Iveco. Come out, there will be no fall in the early morning."

"Borrowed an Iveco?!" Charlie raised his eyebrows, and said coldly: "The kid who stole the kid also drove an Iveco. I guess this guy and his family did it!"

Mr. Orvel immediately said: "Mr. Wade, or provide this kid's phone number to the police now and let the police locate and arrest people based on phone number!"

Charlie said coldly: "No! This kind of sc*m who specializes in poisoning children is too cheap for them to go to jail! I want them to die!"

Mr. Orvel suddenly shuddered and blurted out: "Mr. Wade if there is any need, I will die!"

Charlie asked: "Can you locate that kid based on his phone number?"

Mr. Orvel said: "No problem, I have someone on China Unicom, and can investigate his real-time location information!"

Charlie said: "Okay! Now you help me figure out the position!"

Mr. Orvel said immediately: "Mr. Wade, give me five minutes!"

"it is good!"

Charlie hung up the phone, immediately called Issac again, and asked: "How many helicopters can Aurous Hill currently mobilize? How many people can each carried?"

Issac said: "Mr. Wade Shangri-La has two heavy helicopters, each of which can take 12 people. There is a general aviation company invested by Wade's at the airport, and there are three medium-sized helicopters, each of which can take eight people!"

Charlie snorted and said, "Get all the helicopters ready and bring your best manpower. Besides, you can let one of the helicopters pick me up near the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute now!"

Issac hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade what are you going to do?"

Charlie said coldly: "I want to walk for the sky!"

Chapter 1009

When Issac heard Charlie's tone, he knew Charlie must be angry.

So, he almost didn't even think about it, and immediately said: "Mr. Wade I will arrange it now!"

After that, he hurriedly asked: "By the way, Mr. Wade I will take a helicopter to pick you up right now. Should I come directly to the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute?"

Charlie didn't want people to know how much energy he had, so he asked, "Is there any place suitable for helicopter landing near the orphanage?"

Issac thought for a while and said, "There seems to be a building nearby called JH Building. There is a helipad on the top of the building. Or you can go there now, I will also set off now, and will be there soon!"

"Okay!" Charlie said immediately: "Then you come faster."

"I understand Master!"

After hanging up the phone, Charlie said to Aunt Lena and the others: "Aunt Lena, Xiaofen, I have a friend who may help me find some clues. I will go and find him now. Please wait patiently for my news, don't worry."

Xiaofen hurriedly said, "Brother Charlie, I want to come with you, okay?"

Charlie said: "Xiaofen, you can stay here with Aunt Lena, just leave this to me."

Only then did Xiaofen nod his head, and said obediently: "Good Brother Charlie, and Aunt Lena are here waiting for your good news, you must get your brothers and sisters back!"

Charlie resolutely said: "Don't worry, I will bring them back safely!"

After all, he immediately left the orphanage and went to the nearby JH Building.

.....

At the same time, the police issued a detective report to the whole society through various media. Suddenly, the fact that ten babies in the welfare home were stolen by human traffickers was quickly spread to the Internet and the entire Internet.

On many news platforms, this information has been topped the top search list.

It was also pushed on the screen, letting people across the country see this news.

In the past, a news about kidnapping on the street would be paid attention to by people all over the country, and even hit various headlines.

And now there are some traffickers who are bold enough to steal children from the orphanage! And one steal is 10!

This is simply unheard of astupidl behavior! Let everyone smell it with extreme indignation!

For a time, countless netizens across the country were filled with outrage, scolding, scolding, commenting, and forwarding on the Internet, and the search volume has been high!

You must know that in recent years, human traffickers have become too rampant. I don't know how many families have broken their homes because their children were stolen or abducted by human traffickers.

In any family, children are the treasures in the hearts of parents. If this baby is stolen, abducted and bought, the parents will even lose the hope and motivation to live!

Chapter 1010

Countless happy families have been completely destroyed because of this gang of human abductors!

The most hateful thing is that after these traffickers abduct the children, it would be better to sell them to normal families who want children, at least the children's lives will not be too threatened.

But if these godsend beasts deliberately disabled the child and used them to beg for money, wouldn't the child's life be completely ruined? !

Therefore, at this moment, the hearts of the people across the country are closely concerned about these 10 children who were trafficked.

At this time, Charlie just wanted to save the children as soon as possible! When he reached the top floor of the building, a helicopter had roared from the sky far away.

At this time, Mr. Orvel also sent an address to his WeChat, telling him: "Mr. Wade, that Liu Zhaochen is now out of the province, but their cars are afraid to go high speeds, they are all down the road, so now drove less than 400 kilometers."

Charlie checked the address and found that the other party was heading south with the child from the orphanage, and was now in the Province, next door.

At this time, the helicopter slowly descended from the top of JH Building, but before it touched the ground, Issac had already opened the door. Charlie jumped up and said directly to him: "Let the pilot take off immediately and go to address at full speed. Let the other helicopters head in the same direction!"

"OK, young master!" Issac immediately informed the pilot of the specific location through the earmuff intercom.

Afterwards, Issac asked Charlie: "Mr. Wade please forgive me. You are suddenly so anxious. What's the matter?"

Charlie said with a black face, "This morning, a family of six traffickers stole 10 children from the orphanage!"

"f*ck!" Issac suddenly exclaimed: "What kind of b@stards are this family, and they also do such sorrowful things!"

Charlie said coldly: "Among the four words "knock and abduction", what I hate the most is abduction. When I was a child, I grew up in an orphanage and I saw many children who were rescued after being abducted. There are too many children, and every child has sold several hands. Even if the police rescued many children, it would be difficult for them to find their families, so they became orphans who were not actually meant to be orphans."

Issac said immediately: "Mr. Wade don't worry, I brought my best men and horses this time. Everyone is a good soldier and strong general. After catching them, they will surely crush these b@stards!"

Charlie said: "Not only do I want to smash them into pieces, but I also want to smash them all up and down, their accomplices, and colleagues!"

After all, Charlie asked, "Does the Wade family have power in Zhejiang Province?"

Issac nodded and said: "The family's influence in Zhejiang Province is also very strong, but the family has always been relatively low-key. Just like I was in Aurous Hill, I generally do not participate in the management of disputes between local rich, families and gangs. If the locals do not follow the rules, then I can move them anytime, anywhere."

Charlie suddenly remembered something and asked: "The Wu family's base camp is in Suzhou. Suzhou are the capital of Zhejiang Province. They must be the local snakes of Zhejiang Province, right?"

"Yes." Issac said: "The Wu family is the largest family in the south of the Yangtze River. They have cultivated Jiangsu and Hangzhou for many years, so their strength in Zhejiang Province is really extraordinary."

After finishing speaking, Issac added: "However, this is extraordinary for ordinary people. To the Wade family, they are just little friends."

Charlie nodded, his face gloomy.

Issac thought of the Wu family, and said, "Mr. Wade the Wu family was looking for your enemy some time ago. You must pay attention to this matter. Since you don't need your family to help you, then do you need me to send you Some bodyguards to protect your safety at all times?"

Charlie waved his hand slightly, his heart was full of disdain for the Wu family, Issac still didn't know his strength, judging from his current strength, no one could hurt him at all.

Chapter 1011

At this moment, on the Iveco deck, the seven adults in the car did not even know that a net of heaven and earth had already covered them.

In addition to these seven adults, there are ten sleeping children in the car. These children have been given sleeping pills in the early morning and have not yet woken up.

In the co-pilot, there was a young man without a right hand. This young man was Liu Zhaochen.

At this time, Liu Zhaochen looked excited and said to his elder brother who was driving: "Brother, if this transaction is completed, it will be a million in money!"

His brother asked in surprise: "Are children so expensive now? Didn't you say that they only cost tens of thousands?"

Liu Zhaochen said: "Isn't there a wave of blows some time ago, the Beggars of Zhejiang Province are now in shortage of children, so the price has risen."

His brother smiled and said, "Then let's post this time!"

Liu Zhaochen nodded and said cheerfully: "When this transaction is completed, our family will find a place for vacation."

Inside Iveco's spacious carriage, Liu Zhaochen's mother said with a smile: "Oh, this wave of money is over, I really want to go abroad for a while, the daughter-in-law next door, went to Thailand some time ago. When I go there, I want to swipe my friends circle all day long, and after I come back, I still have a lot of fun. This time when we get the money, let's go!"

Liu Zhaochen laughed and said: "What's so fun about Thailand? Thailand is where the poor go. It costs two or three thousand to play with a tour group. If we want to go, we will go to a high-end place."

"High-end place?" Liu Zhaochen's mother asked excitedly: "Good son, you can tell me something is more advanced. Mom has never seen anything in the world, so I can't think of it for a while."

Liu Zhaochen blurted out: "Of course I went to the Maldives, that's a good place for the really rich to go on vacation!"

Liu Zhaochen's sister applauded happily: "Maldives? Great, I've long wanted to go to Maldives, I've been thinking about it for a long time!"

Then, she said again: "I'm going to the Maldives to live in that kind of water villa, luxurious to death! It must be so cool to live!"

Liu Zhaochen smiled and said, "Sister, when we get the money, we'll buy a plane ticket immediately!"

A family of six began to look forward to the upcoming trip to the Maldives in their hearts.

Liu Zhaochen turned around and looked at the man sitting in the back rows.

This man was also the seventh adult in the car besides Liu Zhaochen's family of six.

Liu Zhaochen looked at the seventh person and said with a smile: "Hey, Jiang Ming, you can divide 400,000 this time with the money. Have you thought about what to do after you get the money?"

Jiang Ming ignored him because Jiang Ming was very depressed at this time.

Last night, after he returned home from Zhao Zhuo's company dormitory, a few young and Dangerous boys came to his door with knives.

The young and Dangerous boys knocked on his door, put the knife on his neck, and warned him that he must send the compensation to Ma Zhongliang Phaeton as soon as possible, otherwise, he would be killed directly.

Jiang Ming was so frightened.

He found a friend who was a second-hand car dealer and evaluated his car and the Phaeton, and found that even if he used all the insurance costs, he still had a funding gap of more than 1 million.

And his Mercedes-Benz, because it has had an accident, can only sell for about 300,000.

Even if he sell the Mercedes-Benz himself, there is still a funding gap of more than 900,000.

Zhao Zhuo solved 620,000 for him, but he still missed 300,000.

Chapter 1012

In desperation, he could only find Liu Zhaochen, a fox friend and dog friend he had known before. Originally, he wanted to borrow 300,000 from him for emergency assistance, but Liu Zhaochen was also short of money during this time.

Liu Zhaochen complained to him that the police have been working too hard in cracking down on human trafficking recently, and a family of six is almost out of food.

Liu Zhaochen also told him that he is now looking for suitable children everywhere to sell to the south. Now the price is high. If found resources, they can make a lot of money.

When Jiang Ming thought that there were a lot of infants and young children in the orphanage recently, he immediately got confused.

He told Liu Zhaochen of this information and suggested that the two parties cooperate to steal a group of children from the orphanage and sell them.

Liu Zhaochen was worried about where to find a child. When he heard that there were many orphanages, his heart was ecstatic, and his thoughts were suddenly moved.

Jiang Ming knows well about the orphanage. He knows that the orphanage has many loopholes because of its current condition due to years of disrepair, inadequate funding, insufficient staff, and inability to keep up with security facilities. As long as those familiar with the process can find a breakthrough.

So he immediately took the lead and worked out a more detailed plan.

As soon as Liu Zhaochen saw the feasibility of this sentence, he immediately brought in the family of six.

Jiang Ming was very dissatisfied with the participation of Liu Zhaochen's family of six, because he knew that the reason why the other party called so many people was because he wanted to pay more.

If he only did this with Liu Zhaochen, the ten children will sell for more than 1 million by then, and each of the two will be able to divide between 60,000 and 700,000.

As a result, Liu Zhaochen brought in another five members of the family and immediately diluted his share.

This shameless Liu Zhaochen, who was shamelessly trying to divide his head evenly, would be divided into 7 parts, and he would only have 200,000 at most.

Jiang Ming fought hard with Liu Zhaochen, and finally decided on a distribution method. Jiang Ming got 400,000, and the rest went to Liu Zhaochen's family.

Suddenly losing 300,000 of income, Jiang Ming was naturally very depressed.

But he didn't have any good solutions, because if the other party had to leave him alone, he would be finished.

In desperation, he could only suffer from this dumb loss.

At this time, Liu Zhaochen looked at the map, and then at the time, and said: "We will be in Suzhou soon. After we arrive, we will come to pick up the goods at the next house. We can rush back when we take the money. We should go back before dark. I can rush back."

Liu Zhaochen's sister said excitedly: "Oh, I just want to go to the Maldives as soon as possible!"

As she said, she took out her mobile phone and said, "I'm going to find videos and guides of Maldives on YouTube to see which island to go to have fun!"

Immediately, she turned on YouTube. Unexpectedly, the first screen video after opening was the news about the loss of children in the orphanage!

This news video has only been released for two or three hours, and it has more than 5 million likes and more than 300,000 comments.

She tightened her heart, and when she opened the comment, she was shocked.

Because all the comments in the comments demanded the execution of the trafficker, the killing of the trafficker's family, and so on!

She subconsciously said: "Oh, that's bad, this matter has already hit the headlines! It seems that netizens all over the country are paying attention to it! Are we doing something big?"

"What are you afraid of!" Liu Zhaochen said indifferently: "There is no substantial difference between stealing one and stealing ten. Besides, I'm careful along the way. No clues are left. No one can find us. It is impossible to doubt us!"

As he said, he said triumphantly: "You can rest assured! When they can't find us after a while, the attention of netizens will be immediately attracted by other news, and after a while, we will be forgotten!"

Chapter 1013

Several helicopters merged in the outskirts of Aurous Hill, and they chased outside the province quickly, narrowing the distance with the target little by little.

The opponent's Iveco can only stop and go on the national road, and often encounters traffic lights or traffic jams, and the overall speed is simply not up.

The reason why Liu Zhaochen chose national roads instead of highways was mainly because the highways were closed roads. In case the police caught them, it would be difficult to fly by himself.

But national roads are different. National roads are all open roads and are connected to various township and county roads. It is very difficult for the police to block them.

And once there is any problem, you can abandon the car and run away at any time. The countryside, residential houses and even factory construction sites are all good places to hide!

Charlie left enough opportunities for pursuit.

The helicopter is in the sky, without stopping, without any detours and congestion, and the flying speed exceeds 200 kilometers per hour.

After flying for more than an hour, Charlie's location was only 100 kilometers away from the target.

Issac said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade their current average speed is only forty to fifty kilometers an hour, and we are expected to catch up with them in thirty minutes."

Charlie nodded and said, "Could you please contact the local forces of the Wade family and ask them to help us seal the road ahead of time, and I will give them a urn to catch turtles."

Issac immediately looked at the real-time location sent by Mr. Orvel and said: "There is a bridge across the river on the national highway in front. After they pass, I will seal the bridge to prevent other vehicles from getting on, and then wait for them. When they are about to cross the river, bet the other end too, so that they will not escape!"

Charlie said with satisfaction: "This is a good idea, just do what you said!"

.....

Soon, the two truck convoys, full of muck, set off from the two real estate construction sites on both sides of the river.

The construction sites where they are located are all properties owned by a real estate development company under the Wade family.

Both teams were also arranged by Issac.

Each fleet consists of more than 20 engineering trucks loaded with muck.

Any truck, when fully loaded, weighs forty to fifty tons.

A heavy tank is just this weight.

Such a car, just cross the road, no car can hit it.

What's more, there are more than 20 vehicles on each end, and even tanks will not be able to rush past.

Liu Zhaochen's elder brother drove to the bridge, Liu Zhaochen smiled and said: "After crossing this river-crossing bridge, we will almost reach Suzhou!"

"Okay!" Liu Zhaochen's sister said happily: "If we get the money today, we can go to the Maldives tomorrow! I just researched it. The Maldives is a visa on arrival, so we don't need to apply for a visa in advance. We will buy a plane ticket and fly there tomorrow. That's it."

While driving, Liu Zhaochen's brother said in surprise: "Why are there so many big cars suddenly?"

Everyone looked out the window and saw heavy trucks full of muck on both sides.

Liu Zhaochen said casually: "Which construction site should be sent the materials, regardless of it, let's overtake it quickly."

Iveco quickly accelerated and surpassed the engineering fleet.

Immediately afterwards, the engineering convoy behind began to run several large vehicles in parallel, directly blocking the road behind, so that other vehicles behind could not pass.

When Iveco got on the bridge, the engineering convoy, which was advancing side by side, also drove onto the bridge.

However, as soon as the engineering convoy got on the bridge, it immediately stalled and blocked the entrance to the entire bridge, making it impossible for other vehicles to pass.

Chapter 1014

The driver behind was so angry and got out of the car to check what happened.

At this time, a person from the engineering team got on and off and shouted to the back with a loudspeaker: "We have just received a notice from the superior that this bridge has become a dangerous bridge, and there is a risk of collapse at any time. Now we need to hurry up and repair it for everyone. Your life is safe, please detour, thank you for your cooperation."

These drivers originally wanted to scold their mothers, but upon hearing this, they immediately dispelled the idea of scolding, and the unhappiness in their hearts disappeared.

With so many construction vehicles parked here, they don't doubt what the other side said.

Therefore, they are very fortunate now. Fortunately, they have been following behind the construction vehicles. If they are in front of the convoy, wouldn't they also drive on this dangerous bridge?

So everyone turned around and took a detour from other roads.

Liu Zhaochen's elder brother drove to the center of the bridge, glanced back through the rearview mirror for a while, and said puzzledly: "Why are there no cars behind?"

Liu Zhaochen glanced back, maybe it was blocked by those big cars, which were running slowly. "

"It's also possible." Liu Zhaochen's brother said, and stopped taking it seriously and continued to drive.

When they were about to cross the bridge, a few large cars suddenly poured in from both sides in front, completely blocking the road ahead!

Liu Zhaochen's elder brother was taken aback, and hurriedly stepped on the brakes, blurting out: "d*mn, are these big cart drivers crazy?"

The other people in the car staggered for a while because they had no time to react.

After the car stopped steadily, Liu Zhaochen was surprised to find that the road in front of the car had been completely blocked by several large cars, and there was no car behind.

In other words, the Iveco was completely sealed on this bridge.

However, at this time he did not mean that he was imminent.

So he pushed the door down and shouted at the big car parked in front: "Hey! What the h*ll are you guys doing? Get out of the way quickly!"

A burly man jumped down from one of the big cars and said coldly: "This bridge has been closed. From now on, no vehicles or people will pass by!"

Liu Zhaochen said angrily: "The cars in front have all passed by, but we have not passed. You have to close it and wait until we pass."

He didn't know, the reason for closing this bridge was to seal him on the bridge!

The burly man yelled: "Don't f*cking talk nonsense with me, I said, no vehicles or people should pass by, if you are not afraid of death, you can give it a try!"

With that said, more than 30 people wearing hard hats came at once, all of them sturdy and looking fierce.

There are only seven people in Liu Zhaochen's group. His mother and his sister are helpless women, his father is an Old Master, and he is a disabled person. How could it be 30 in this case? Multiple opponents.

So he gritted his teeth and said: "Okay, then we can always turn around and change another way, right?"

With that, he got in the car again and said to the brother beside him: "Let's turn around!"

"Okay!" Liu Zhaochen's brother immediately turned around and drove back directly.

But what he didn't expect was that after turning around and driving back, he saw a large group of heavy trucks coming on the opposite side before driving a few steps away.

These trucks are next to each other. There was no room for a bicycle to pass through, and the menacingly approached.

Liu Zhaochen's elder brother hurriedly stopped the car and said in surprise: "What the h*ll is going on? How do you feel that these big cars are deliberately trying to sandwich us, are we exposed?"

"Impossible!" Liu Zhaochen said categorically, "Even if we are exposed, it should be the police who intercept us, not the big truck on the construction site!"

His brother was very worried and said, "Zhaochen, I think this is obviously strange!"

Chapter 1015

Even now, Liu Zhaochen also felt that something was really wrong.

Otherwise, how could it be possible that there are so many big cars in the middle of this car for no reason?

Moreover, looking at their posture, they simply didn't want to let them escape, so they used a parallel formation.

There were traffic jams both front and rear, and the river was rolling under the bridge. If they really came straight to them, they wouldn't even have to escape.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help feeling nervous, and said: "Aren't these people coming for these children? Shouldn't they, aren't they just a bunch of orphans?"

"That's right!" Liu Zhaochen's brother couldn't help but said, "Furthermore, the police didn't find it. Why did these people come?"

Seeing that the convoys at both ends were getting closer, Liu Zhaochen's brother could only temporarily stop the car.

Everyone in the car panicked, including Jiang Ming.

Jiang Ming felt a panic in his heart at this time. No one knows the situation of the orphanage better than him. If these children are lost, at most the police will come forward to find them. It is impossible for the people to have such a powerful force to find them. .

However, with one exception, he felt very nervous.

The exception was Charlie who hurt him miserably yesterday.

In the dark, he felt that this matter seemed inseparable from Charlie. Thinking back to Charlie, he always looked unpredictable. He couldn't help but wonder: "Are these people sent by Charlie? ?"

Just when this Iveco stopped, countless large cars began to pack him tightly, and the seven adults in the car couldn't help but panic.

Liu Zhaochen took out a knife from his arms and said nervously: "If someone is against us, we will fight him!"

His sister said in horror: "There are only 7 of us, and they have dozens of drivers alone. Fighting is not their opponent!"

Liu Zhaochen was already obviously flustered, and said nervously: "You close the curtains of the windows at the back. If they want to come in, I will fight with them!"

In order to be able to transport the children more safely, thick curtains have been hung on the windows of the rear rows. Looking in from the outside, they can't see the situation inside, let alone the unconscious children inside.

Several people, including Jiang Ming, hurriedly drew the curtains tightly.

Liu Zhaochen said to his two elder brothers and Jiang Ming: "Hurry up and get all the knives out! Now the car is definitely not going out, you can only rely on yourself."

When he started doing it early this morning, Liu Zhaochen gave each of them a knife. He thought it was just to strengthen the courage, but he didn't expect to use it now.

Jiang Ming was very panicked. He is very different from Liu Zhaochen. Liu Zhaochen has been doing the job of licking blood on the tip of a knife all the year round, otherwise he would not be chopped off his right hand.

But Jiang Ming is just a liar. Every day at Harley Zhou's company, he cheats those old men and old ladies who are eager to manage money and make money. If he really wants to use a knife to fight with others, he simply doesn't have the guts.

At this moment, he took the knife out tremblingly, and asked nervously, "Zhaochen, did you offend someone?"

Liu Zhaochen said desperately, "I also want to ask if you have offended people!"

At this time, Liu Zhaochen's brother said nervously: "Look at these big cars, they only surrounded us, but no one came down to say something, and I didn't understand what they are doing!"

Liu Zhaochen thought for a while, opened the window of the co-pilot, and shouted to the outside: "Who are you? What are you going to do?"

No one responded outside the car.

Liu Zhaochen's heart was extremely nervous. With so many cars surrounding him, this group of people didn't even have a word, which made people feel strange and terrifying.

Chapter 1016

At this moment, the sound of a helicopter roaring from outside suddenly came.

Because the movement of the helicopter was too loud, and the sound was too recognizable, the entire vehicle became more panicked.

Jiang Ming panicked and asked: "What's the matter? How come there are helicopters? Who are these people?"

Liu Zhaochen's father drew a gap in the curtain and looked up to the sky, and immediately saw several helicopters lined up.

He was so scared that he said, "There are several helicopters in the sky. Even if the police arrest people, they don't know how to use helicopters. Are we offending some big people?"

As they were talking, everyone heard the sound of the helicopter, and it was already overhead!

Marven was sitting in one of the helicopters, looking down at the scene on the bridge.

The entire bridge has been broken by large vehicles. In the middle of the bridge, a dozen large vehicles surrounded the Iveco.

Traffickers and children are in this car.

Zak Chen said to Marven: "Mr. Ye many of my people are from special forces. Some of them have a way to kill all these people!"

Marven said coldly: "Don't be anxious to kill, keep them alive."

"Good!" Zak Chen said: "Then I will let them control these b@stards first!"

Marven nodded and said, "Do it now!"

Zak Chen immediately gave an order, and one of the helicopters descended and hovered on top of the Iveco.

Immediately after four ropes were thrown on both sides of the helicopter, four former special forces in black immediately descended from the ropes.

They were very professional. They were hung on the four corners of the Iveco car roof. Then they took out the portable cutting machine and started cutting the iron sheet of the car roof at the fastest speed.

This white Iveco itself is not a special vehicle. The iron sheet on the roof is very easy to cut.

In the blink of an eye, the entire roof was cut off!

The people in the car were already shocked. They looked at the roof of the car which was gradually cut open. There was no good way at all.

At this time, the helicopter hovering over their heads began to slowly rise, and the four former special forces each used a special suction cup to firmly hold the four corners of the roof.

With the ascent of the helicopter, this Iveco was uncovered directly!

At this time, not only Marven on the helicopter, but also the situation in the car, even Jiang Ming in the car and Liu Zhaochen's family saw the magnificent scene of several helicopters hovering in the sky at the same time.

Except for the helicopter that cut the roof of their car, on both sides of the remaining helicopters are ex-special forces armed with automatic rifles. They are like the Marines in Operation Red Sea. The target was tightly locked on the 7 people in the car, ensuring that as long as anyone dared to hurt the child, they would immediately kill him.

For a top family like the Ye family with a net worth of trillions, their ability to protect themselves is far beyond the recognition of ordinary people.

Special forces, automatic rifles, and helicopters are just drizzle. With the influence of the Ye family, even if armored vehicles are called, it is not a big problem!

This is the confidence of the real top family!

Today, using such a big battle to solve a few human traffickers can be said to be fighting mosquitoes with anti-aircraft guns.

But Marven didn't feel wasted at all, for this kind of sc*m would have to use the most powerful means to destroy them all at once!

Chapter 1017

At this time, Marven directly turned on the PA system on the helicopter, and said loudly: "Listen the people in the car, you are already surrounded, immediately put down all resistance to surrender, otherwise, get kill!"

The sound of Marven frightened the 7 people in the Iveco car.

Liu Zhaochen collapsed, because he felt that even if he killed and set fire, he wouldn't use such a big battle to catch him, right?

At this moment, his family was so scared that they were so scared that they were still thinking that after they got the money, they would go to the Maldives for a holiday, but they didn't expect to be completely covered by such a net.

Jiang Ming was even more panicked.

He is almost regretting death at this moment!

Not only regret, but more panic.

But at this time, he suddenly came back to his senses, and felt that the sound of the call on the helicopter just now was so familiar?

But he didn't hear it for a while, this voice was Marven's voice.

So he panicked and asked Liu Zhaochen: "What should we do now? This group of people have guns. Now even the roof of the car has been cut off. What if they shoot us?"

Liu Zhaochen's elder sister wailed in fright: "Brother, we won't die here today, right? Your elder sister hasn't lived enough yet, your elder sister is still young, your elder sister hasn't been married yet!"

"What are you yelling about?! I'm not married either!" Liu Zhaochen was afraid and confused in his heart. Hearing his sister crying and making noise, his heart was even more irritable.

Marven looked down at these 7 people from the helicopter and found that they were not doing anything. He was immediately angry and said coldly: "I will give you three seconds to get off the car, otherwise you will have to pay the price!"

As soon as the voice fell, he immediately started timing.

"three!"

Ivecury, Liu Zhaochen's mother cried bitterly: "Zhaochen, let's get out of the car quickly, otherwise I'm really afraid that these people will attack us!"

Liu Zhaochen hesitated.

If they don't get out of the car, they might be able to kidnap a few children and use children's lives to threaten the other party to let them go.

But if they get out of the car, isn't it just being slaughtered?

"two!"

Liu Zhaochen's sister hurriedly said: "Zhaochen, you have to say something!"

"One!"

After Marven finished counting three times, seeing that none of the seven people moved, he immediately said to Zak Chen: "Notify the sniper and kill the driver!"

"OK Master!"

Zak Chen immediately passed the walkie-talkie and gave an order in a cold voice: "The sniper immediately looks for a suitable opportunity, kills the driver first, and fights for a shot!"

The intercom system immediately received a reply from the snipers:

"The sight of Sniper No. 1 is blocked."

"The sight of Sniper No. 2 is blocked."

"Sniper No. 3 has an unobstructed sight and has locked on the target! The kill probability is 80!"

"Sniper No. 4 is unobstructed and has locked the target! The kill probability is 95!"

Zak Chen immediately ordered: "Sniper No. 4 listens to my orders and shoots!"

At this moment, the former special soldier hanging outside the door of a helicopter on the right immediately pulled the trigger.

With a bang.

The sniper rifle burst out with a tongue of flame, and then the bullet shot out from the muzzle at a rapid speed.

The next moment, Liu Zhaochen, who was sitting in the driving seat of Iveco, was so nervous that he did not know what to do, he was suddenly headshot!

No one expected that a person who was intact in the last second would burst out a bloody mist on his head in the next second...

Chapter 1018

Liu Zhaochen's family was so scared that they collapsed and screamed!

They really did not expect that the caller would immediately instruct to shoot after three seconds!

The one who died was the eldest son of the Liu family, and Liu Zhaochen's parents loved the eldest son the most. Seeing that eldest son was instantly dead, the two of them went crazy and cried.

Liu Zhaochen was sprayed with red and white because he was closest to his brother.

He was already scared to death.

When he was in this business, he never thought that this business would be terrible!

At this time, Marven said coldly through the PA system: "I will give you three more seconds. If you don't get out of the car and surrender, then I will let the sniper randomly kill the second person!"

As soon as these words came out, all six of them lost the courage to resist, and ran out of the car in a hurry.

After getting out of the car, the six people raised their hands high above their heads, and their faces were filled with the deepest fear.

This is the first time they have witnessed such a bloody and direct death with their own eyes.

Everyone's heart trembled!

Even Liu Zhaochen's mother, sister, and Jiang Ming were so scared to pee their pants.

Marven continued to shout: "All six of you kneel down at the back of the car, hold your head in your hands, and if anyone dares to make any other actions, kill him on the spot!"

How dare these six people fail, they hurried to the back of the car and knelt on their heads.

At this time, the big car at the rear slowly retreated tens of meters, leaving a huge open area.

Afterwards, the helicopter that Marven was flying in began to slowly land on this open ground.

The former special forces on other helicopters moved faster, and they had quickly descended onto the bridge by cable descent.

Dozens of former special forces armed with live ammunition had surrounded the six groups at this time, and their guns were all aimed at them.

Several former special forces have entered the Iveco and quickly checked the health of the 10 children in the car.

Afterwards, he reported in the intercom system: "Mr. Ye all 10 children are in a coma, but I checked their physical indicators and vital signs, and there is no danger to their lives, please rest assured."

Marven immediately relaxed. Since the children are all right, the remaining task is how to deal with these human traffickers!

He not only wants these human traffickers to pay the price of their lives, but also finds out their downstream buyers and kills them all!

At this moment, Marven's helicopter had slowly stopped on the bridge.

Marven pushed the hatch, and jumped down.

The six people, including Jiang Ming, were all kneeling on the ground at this time, looking at Marven coming down from the helicopter in horror.

But the distance at this time was still a bit far, Jiang Ming did not recognize Marven.

Marven didn't see Jiang Ming either, he thought this was Liu Zhaochen's family.

But when he got closer, he saw Jiang Ming with a frightened face among the six people!

Marven's heart was suddenly extremely angry!

He really didn't expect that Jiang Ming would be involved!

No matter how hard this kid pretended, he was one of the orphans who came out of the orphanage. Marven never expected that it was this Jiang Ming who grew up in the orphanage who would collude with others and steal from the orphanage. 10 children out!

Jiang Ming also saw the man coming by at this time!

When he recognized that the person walking by was Marven, his whole person's worldview was instantly subverted!

how come.....

How could it be Marven? !

Chapter 1019

Jiang Ming felt that no one in the world would be too surprised to step down from this helicopter, but Marven was the only one who stepped down from here, which made him unacceptable anyway.

However, the tall and handsome man with a cold face is indeed the orphan who grew up with him in the orphanage, Marven!

He couldn't imagine, what exactly is Marven? Who can mobilize such a powerful force to pursue yourself!

Among other things, just these few helicopters, and these dozens of experts with guns and live ammunition like special forces, are definitely not the strength that ordinary people can have.

Even the richest man in Wrestrvel cannot be so capable!

Deep in his heart, he couldn't help asking himself: What is the origin of Marven?

Isn't he an orphan? Still the son-in-law who eats soft rice! Why can such a powerful force be mobilized by him?

At this time, Marven had already stepped forward to the six people.

However, instead of looking at the other five people, he observed at Jiang Ming with extremely cold eyes and asked coldly, "Jiang Ming! You are so bold!"

Jiang Ming trembled violently, hurriedly begged: "Marven! This is a misunderstanding, Marven!"

"Misunderstanding?!" Marven said furiously: "You and traffickers abducted 10 orphans from the orphanage, and then tell me this was a misunderstanding?"

Jiang Ming suddenly burst into tears, and said with tears in his nose: "Marven, I have no choice but to not lose my bet with you. I accidentally ran into someone else's Phaeton. If I don't pay for it, if someone else has a new car, they will kill me, and I am also forced to be helpless Marven!"

Marven stepped forward, kicked him on his chest, kicked him all the way, and sternly shouted: "You are an orphan. You know what kind of pain orphans have to go through since childhood. They are raised in a welfare institution. It's nothing more than doing something for the orphanage. If you steal the children from the orphanage for money, you deserve to die!"

Jiang Ming was in severe pain, but he struggled to get up, crying and said, "Marven, I was wrong, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have been blinded by lard for a while, please take it for the sake of growing up together. Please spare me this time!"

"Spare you?" Marven snorted coldly, and said: "You have done such a conscientious thing, how can the confidence let me spare you?"

Jiang Ming hurriedly pointed to the Iveco and said: "You can see that those younger brothers and sisters did not suffer any injuries, and they all took sleeping pills. Now take them back. They don't even know what happened. As long as you spare me this time, I will work for the orphanage in my life, and I am willing to use my life to pay for my sins!"

Marven said coldly: "Save some energy, Jiang Ming, among the seven people today, you are the most damned!"

When Liu Zhaochen heard this, he hurriedly blurted out and wailed: "Eldest brother, you are right. This incident was planned by him. We were all used by him! Please forgive us!"

Marven saw his right arm raised high, and his wrist broke all at once, knowing that this person was the notorious Liu Zhaochen.

So, he snorted and asked: "You are Liu Zhaochen, right?!"

When Liu Zhaochen heard this, his whole body trembled!

How would he know his name?

Marven saw his face full of horror, and smiled playfully, coldly: "Liu Zhaochen, you guys are okay. I heard that you were doing some sneaking and petting businesses before, and you were still a family of six. I didn't expect you to be cut off. With one hand, you don't even have a long memory? I heard that you had been reselling children before, but I didn't expect that you dared to steal children directly this time!"

Chapter 1020

As soon as Liu Zhaochen heard this, he knew that the other party had checked all of his details.

So he squatted his head in panic: "Big brother, big brother, this is all a misunderstanding, big brother! I have offended people before, so my reputation is corrupted everywhere. I have never done anything to resell a child. It was just spread by others!"

Marven smiled and asked him: "Do you think I am like a fool?"

Liu Zhaochen kept kowtow, his entire forehead had become bloody, and he begged: "Big brother, you really can't blame me this time. This time it was all Jiang Ming's idea.

He told me that he had an accident. There is a shortage of hundreds of thousands, because he told me that there are many children in the orphanage. He even made the whole plan for us to steal the children!"

Marven said coldly: "Don't worry, I will figure out the accounts of each of you."

After speaking, Marven questioned: "I ask you, who are you going to sell these children to?"

At this time, Liu Zhaochen dared not hide anything, and hurriedly said: "Brother, these children are going to be sold to the Regnar Gang!"

Marven asked again: "Who is your partner?"

Liu Zhaochen blurted out: "It's an elder of the Beggar Gang!"

Marven frowned and said, "There are elders in the Beggar Gang?"

Liu Zhaochen nodded and hurriedly said: "This gang of beggars was established completely after the gang in martial arts novels, because they all pretended to be beggars and cheated money everywhere, so they directly used the name of the gang, the biggest leader of the gang. , Is their gang leader, under the gang leader there are two deputy gang leaders, nine elders, dozens of hall leaders and tens of thousands of subordinates scattered across the province..."

Marven didn't expect this gang of beggars like a social cancer to have such a huge organizational structure!

There are tens of thousands of beggars in a province alone!

Liu Zhaochen wanted to perform meritorious service in front of Marven and strive for lenient treatment, so he poured out all the information he knew.

"Brother, the nine elders of the Beggar Gang are all rich men with a net worth of tens of millions. This group of people has long stopped begging in person. They live in luxury villas, drive luxury cars, and even sit in their offices."

"The nine elders perform their duties. Some people are responsible for recruiting new members, who are responsible for management, finances, and training. Some people are responsible for implementing family laws. The elder who joined me is responsible for buying children for begging... .."

Marven asked again: "Who is the leader of the beggar gang?"

Liu Zhaochen said: "The name of the beggar gang's leader is Nanshan. Don't think he is just a beggar gang's gang leader, but his net worth is at least one billion. His business covers various gray industries, and he has already become Suzhou. A big man in the underground world."

After that, he said again: "By the way, Nanshan has a big background, and his sister is the wife of Regnar, the head of the Wu family!"

Marven frowned, "So, this Nanshan is Regnar's brother-in-law?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Liu Zhaochen nodded and said, "His brother-in-law!"

Marven sneered and nodded, and said to himself: "Interesting! Really interesting!"

Chapter 1021

Charlie did not expect that the Wu family was also involved in this matter to some extent.

This hateful beggar gang was actually started by Regnar's brother-in-law, and it is estimated that the support of the Wu family is indispensable.

Originally, he was still waiting for the Wu family to find him, and was not ready to attack them.

But this time, he has to take Regnar's brother-in-law first!

Therefore, he immediately said to Liu Zhaochen: "I will give you a chance to redeem your sins. You must take it well, otherwise, I will let you end up like your brother!"

As soon as Liu Zhaochen heard this, he said with excitement: "Brother, if you have anything you want, you will die without hesitation!"

Charlie said: "You should call the elder beggars who specially connected with you now, tell him that your car has a problem, and let him come here to pick up people in person."

Liu Zhaochen nodded immediately and said, "Okay, big brother, I'll fight now. It's not far from Suzhou city. I think they will come soon."

Charlie gave a hum, turned around and said to Issac behind him: "Old Issac, I don't care what you do, I will see Regnar's brother-in-law here within an hour!"

Issac said immediately: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade I will make arrangements!"

Liu Zhaochen was eager to make contributions, and hurriedly said, "By the way, that Nanshan and his wife is one of the elders of the Beggar Gang, who is in charge of finances! And she is also his female military advisor!"

"Really?" Charlie frowned and asked: "The couples are doing this kind of conscience business?"

"Yes!" Liu Zhaochen said: "Their couple is amazing, earning at least 100 million a year. It is said that they earned more than 200 million last year!"

Charlie said to Issac: "You can verify the matter. If it is true, bring him and his wife to me!"

Issac nodded and made a call immediately.

Wade family's eyes are all over the country, if they want, there is no clue they can't find.

Suzhou is one of the largest cities in the south, and the hidden forces deployed by the Wade family here are beyond imagination.

Soon, Issac received the news and said to Charlie: "That kid is right. Nanshan's wife is indeed one of the elders of the Beggar Gang."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and said coldly: "Then bring them all to me!"

Issac immediately picked up the walkie-talkie and said: "A group of obedient! Go to Suzhou quickly and meet our family's local eyeliner. By any means, you must bring Nanshan and his wife here within an hour!"

A resolute voice came from the intercom: "Yes! One group set off immediately!"

Immediately after one of the hovering helicopters, it immediately climbed up and headed for downtown Suzhou.

Charlie asked him again: "Could you let the Wade family's eyeliner help me investigate how many core members of the Beggar Gang still in here, and bring them all over to me."

Issac said: "OK, Young Master, I'll give orders now and get everything I can find!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said coldly: "Today I will walk for the sky and get rid of this beggar gang!"

Liu Zhaochen also took out his mobile phone at this time, and under Charlie's supervision, called the elder of the beggar gang who had been connected to him.

Chapter 1022

When the other party heard him say that the car was broken, he immediately said he was not reliable.

Liu Zhaochen could only say in a low tone: "Elder, the car I built is quite old. I'm really embarrassed, but I'm only a few tens of kilometers away from Suzhou. It's not far, so please come and pick it up. Come on."

Then the other party cursed and said: "If it wasn't for seeing that you sent more goods this time, I would just ignore you."

After speaking, the other party said again: "Send your location to WeChat, and I will come here."

.....

At this moment, the beggar gang leader Nanshan and his wife Kaili had just walked out of Wu's villa with their daughter.

Today at noon, it is the birthday of Nanshan's sister, Regnar's wife Yaqina.

In the past, Yaqina had to organize a special birthday party, but this year, considering the special situation of her son Wu Qi, she chose to stay at home and simply prepared a lunch.

No guests were invited to this banquet. Apart from family, she only invited younger brother and younger siblings, as well as her younger niece.

After such a long time, Wu Qi is still the same, taking a meal every hour.

So in this banquet, Wu Qi disappeared for about 20 minutes. Everyone knew that he was going to add a meal, but everyone at the dinner table was embarrassed to say it.

After the birthday party, Nanshan's family of three was ready to go home.

His sister Yaqina sent them to the parking lot of the villa.

Seeing that there was no one else around, Nanshan asked his sister: "Sister, is Wu Qi's situation still not getting better?"

"No." Yaqina said with a sad face: "A lot of experts have come to visit during this period, but there is no result. They have no good way."

Nanshan couldn't help but sighed and said, "Sister, I think my brother-in-law has some problems with his mood and emotions recently."

Yaqina said depressed: "The last time your brother-in-law took Roger to Aurous Hill, he suffered a big loss in the hands of the Wade family, and was humiliated by an unknown man from Aurous Hill. Haven't you seen Roger's arm still in a cast? He was injured in Aurous Hill."

Nanshan said angrily: "What kid did this way? Sister, do you want me to take some brothers and kill that kid? Now the power of the beggars is stronger again. There are 10,000 registered gang members alone. There are many people. During this period of time, I am preparing to annex the beggars from the surrounding provinces one by one. By that time, my beggars may have more than 50,000 people!"

Yaqina said: "Your brother-in-law is already planning the matter in Aurous Hill, so you don't need to bother."

After that, she looked at her younger sibling Kaili and said to her younger brother: "You have to take care of Kaili during this period. Two months of pregnancy is the most dangerous time. Don't let the fetus have any problems."

Nanshan said immediately: "Sister, don't worry, I will take care of her."

Yaqina said to her younger sibling Kaili: "Kelly, you have just gotten pregnant. Don't interfere with the beggars' affairs for the time being. Have your baby at home and get a b-ultrasound in two months to see if it is a male or a female."

Kaili nodded hurriedly and said respectfully: "Okay sister, I see to it, don't worry."

Yaqina couldn't help but sighed and said with emotion: "Our Xue family, the biggest problem is that the population is not thriving enough. My parents left early and only gave birth to two children. Only the son of Nanshan, you and Nanshan are now There is only Tongtong a daughter. He said that everything has to be given to a son quickly, and it is not enough to have one. While he is young, he must have at least two sons to continue the incense for the Xue family."

Kaili hurriedly said: "Sister, don't worry, I will definitely inherit the Xue family!"

Chapter 1023

Yaqina, Regnar's wife, is a standard demon of helping his brother.

With her identity and her family background, it would have been impossible for her to enter the gate of Wu's house.

But the reason why Regnar married her into the Wu family was entirely because Regnar really loved her.

After marrying into the Wu family, Yaqina began to do everything possible to help her brother Nanshan.

Nanshan didn't have any abilities, he didn't read well, and his ability was not good enough. When he was young, he took a lot of money from Yaqina to do business, but he was basically defeated by him.

There was no other way, Yaqina went to beg her husband, hoping that her husband could give her brother a little bit from the Wu family's business, which would be regarded as a way to help his brother.

Although Regnar didn't look down on Nanshan, he still helped him several times because of his wife's face.

However, Nanshan is very ignorant of good and bad, and he is not capable of it. When others lead him to make money, he has to make some tricks from it. Finally, Regnar is tired of him, and he simply doesn't bother to take him.

However, Yaqina didn't want her brother to be mediocre all her life. Seeing that her brother didn't have much real ability, but he still had the ability to fight hard, he guided his brother to the gray industry.

After all, Nanshan is Regnar's brother-in-law, and the entire Wu family has a very strong influence in the south, so there is this relationship. He went out to make a profit, and everyone must give face.

After fishing for a few years, Nanshan explored the business of the Beggar Gang.

To say it is a "gang of beggars" is actually borrowing someone's name from martial arts novels. What they do is not a matter of acting for the country and the people. They are just organizing a large group of fake beggars to pretend to be beggars and swindle.

Moreover, there are often conflicts between the gang of beggars.

For example, the bus stations, railway stations, and commercial streets with the most crowded traffic are the favorite prime locations of the Beggar Gang. If you can set up a stall here, you will definitely make a lot of money in a day.

However, for the beggars in a city, there are tens of thousands of beggars who are true or false, and it is naturally impossible for them to gather in these golden locations.

Therefore, fighting fiercely with other gangs of beggars, forming cliques, and looting territory in daily life have become the most important thing besides begging.

Because of the big tree of the Wu family, Nanshan developed quickly in the cause of the Beggar Gang.

If any beggar dared to fight against him, he would immediately be trampled. If he couldn't step on it, he would beg his sister and ask his sister to ask his brother-in-law, Regnar, to help.

After all, Regnar is also the heir of the top big family. He naturally doesn't look down on this kind of gray business, and of course he doesn't want to interfere.

But he couldn't hold back his wife blowing the pillow breeze in his ears every day, and acted like a baby at every turn, or brushed up his temper or pretended to be wronged. Then he had nothing to do.

Chapter 1024

In the end, it didn't work, so she came out to help Nanshan several times.

When others discovered that even the heirs of the top clan like Regnar would come to help Nanshan get out, the other beggars naturally did not dare to offend Nanshan again.

As a result, Nanshan pretended to be invincible and brought all the Beggar Gang forces in Zhejiang Province into his own hands.

Now he is the leader of the famous "gang of beggars" in Aurous Hill area.

Nanshan is also very proud of this, because this kind of thing comes in too quickly, and it is completely unnecessary. Everyone is scattered, everyone finds a place, lies on the ground, and then writes on a blank paper. Copywriting that sells badly is just lying down and making money.

In a short period of time, he has already saved more than 1 billion family assets.

Yaqina was naturally relieved to see that her younger brother had made such a great achievement. For her brother-in-law, the younger brother was responsible for it, which was the continuation of the entire family's blood.

The Xue family's parents left early and there were no relatives. The more desolate and the less prosperous the family, the more she hoped that the Xue family could open up its branches and leaves as soon as possible, so that the family would also prosper and gradually become a famous family in Aurous Hill. , So that I can be considered to have completed my mission to myself.

.....

After leaving her brother's family, Yaqina turned and returned to the villa.

Regnar was sitting in the living room with a cigar in his mouth, and said annoyed:
"Yaqin, I recently heard that your brother's beggar has made a lot of children to make money. Can you tell him He will constrain a little bit later? Now everyone knows that he is my brother-in-law. He is doing this kind of mischievous business, and everyone outside thinks it is my order! What my Wu family says is a hundred billion level How can this big family get involved with this kind of business?"

When Yaqina heard this, her eyes were flushed with grievance, and she choked with sobs: "Husband, you don't know the situation of Nanshan. You said that he has no ability, education and no education, and no brains, except for the sidetrack. , What else can he do? He's just this little brother. If he doesn't live well, then I won't die!"

Regnar's most helpless thing is to see his wife's grievances. He also knows that this is just his wife's trick, but after all, out of true love, when he sees her grievances, even if she pretends to be wronged, Regnar will feel distressed in his heart.

So, he could only sigh, and said: "If you have done it, don't feel wronged. I mean, you will also say hello to Nanshan when you look back. There are many ways to make a mistake. Partial behavior is placed on women and children. If he has a kind, and dares to fight and kill, then I can completely praise him as the underground emperor of the whole Aurous Hill. Why do things that hurt women and children every day? These things. It's really faceless."

Yaqina came to Regnar with tears in her eyes, sat beside him, grabbed his arm with both hands, and choked pitifully: "Husband, you don't know what my brother is like. That ability to fight and kill with others? Besides, in our entire Xue family, he is the only man left who says that he can't go out to fight and kill. If something happens to him, we Xue Isn't the home going to be broken?"

Regnar said helplessly: "Didn't I tell you? If he dares to fight and kill, I will cover him behind his back. With me, do you think anyone in Aurous Hill dares to move him?"

Yaqina wiped away her tears, and said, "That's not what I said, my husband, there are many children now, who are totally shocked. He doesn't care what your identity or background is. He might just pick up a knife and say Killers, if they hurt Nanshan and kill them all afterwards, what problem can they solve?"

As she said, she grabbed Regnar's hand and said with red eyes: "Husband, he is just a younger brother Nanshan. You are for the sake of me having been with you for so many years and giving birth to two sons. Be considerate. Be considerate of him."

Regnar sighed and said helplessly: "These things Nanshan has done are too damaging and against morality. If you have time someday, let him go to the temple to burn incense!"

Chapter 1025

Nanshan drove his Rolls Royce at this time, with his two-month pregnant wife sitting in the co-pilot and his 6-year-old daughter in the back seat.

A family of three drove back to their villa and the journey went smoothly.

Rolls-Royce drove into the garage and stopped. Nanshan pushed the door to get out of the car. Then, Kaili beside him also opened the door.

Their daughters was already asleep in the back seat.

Kaili said to Nanshan: "Husband, you hug your girl, put on a dress for her, don't let her catch a cold."

Nanshan nodded, and after getting out of the car, he reached out and opened the door of the rear seat.

At this moment, a few men in black suddenly rushed out around him. Each of them held a gun in hand. As soon as they appeared, they pointed their guns directly at the foreheads of the couple. One of them gave a cold voice. Said: "Nanshan, our young master wants to see you, you husband and wife, come with us!"

Nanshan was taken aback by the battle in front of him.

He really didn't expect that someone in Suzhou would dare to provoke him.

He's not only the leader of the beggar gang, but also a relative of the Wu family, and Regnar's brother-in-law. In Suzhou, who should not give him a bit of face?

Don't talk about targeting him, even if they see him, they all have to nod and bow, kneel and lick him like a dog.

So he asked angrily: "What do those few eyesight things do? Do you know who my brother-in-law is?"

One of the people in black disdainfully said, "Isn't your brother-in-law Regnar?"

Nanshan reprimanded: "Knowing that my brother-in-law is Regnar, if you dare to provoke me, you are all f*cking impatient, right? Believe my brother-in-law, a word can make you dead?"

The man in black sneered: "Nanshan, you take your brother-in-law too seriously. In the eyes of our young master, Regnar is indistinguishable from a dog. The reason for leaving this dog is Regnar. Fate, he just want him to jump for two more days and have fun with him!"

"You..." Nanshan was a little panicked now.

He really didn't expect that the other party would not pay attention to his brother-in-law at all. In Suzhou, no one had such courage.

But these people in black know that they are Regnar's brother-in-law, and they have to use a knife to hijack him. It seems that they are not good!

So he asked nervously: "Who are you? Who is your young master? Have I provoke your young master?"

The black man said: "Who is our young master? You will know when you come with us."

After that, he pointed his gun at Kaili and said coldly: "And you, one of the nine elders of the Beggars, right? Come with us too!"

At this time, several people in black put their guns at them and led them out of the garage.

At the same time, a helicopter has slowly landed in the courtyard of Nanshan's villa.

Nanshan felt even more flustered when he saw that the other party was with a helicopter to kidnap him.

This situation can be seen at a glance that those who come are not good.

At this time, he found a man in black and walked out holding his sleeping daughter.

Chapter 1026

He panicked and said: "What are you going to do? My daughter is innocent! Don't involve her!"

The man in black sneered: "How many babies and children in your beggar gang have been kidnapped by you, aren't they innocent? Isn't your Nanshan's child a human, and other people's children are not humans?"

Nanshan was shocked!

Before he and his wife could recover, they were forcibly taken into the helicopter by the man in black.

They were taken on the helicopter along with their daughter.

One of the men in black directly took out a syringe and gave Nanshan's daughter a tranquilizer.

This shot of tranquilizer can give Nanshan's daughter at least another 10 hours of sleep.

Afterwards, the plane quickly climbed and flew towards the bridge where Charlie was.

.....

At this moment, above the bridge.

Liu Zhaochen's family of six is almost shocked.

Jiang Ming had already fainted a few times with fright, and regained consciousness.

The elder of the Beggar Gang, who was responsible for buying and selling people, was already on the way here. Issac's subordinates were already on the bridge and had no nets. As long as this person appeared, he would be immediately controlled.

Liu Zhaochen knelt in front of Charlie at this time. The blood that had been kowtow before, had formed blood scabs, making him look terrible.

But his expression was full of horror. He looked at Charlie and begged: "Brother, if the elder beggar comes over later, please let us go! We will definitely reform in the future. , Never do this kind of unconscientious thing again!"

Charlie sneered and said: "If you really have a long memory, when you make a pirated CD and your right hand is cut off, you will already have a long memory. Others have worked so hard to make a movie and prepare to be shown in the theater to earn the box office. , To recover the cost, and as a result, you stupid stole the fruits of other people's labor directly. If you are a pirated rubbish, brazen stupid, you should have no place to bury the whole family! I didn't expect you to be a pirate. You even hit the child with the idea, you are adding sin to sin!"

Liu Zhaochen burst into tears. He raised his severed right hand and begged: "Brother, I do piracy is really not something, really d*mn it, I have already paid the price! You see, I lost my right hand when I was young It's not easy for me to live the past few years!"

Charlie said coldly: "Your right hand is just the price you paid for piracy. Now you have to pay the price for kidnapping and stealing children!"

Liu Zhaochen cried and said, "Brother, why don't you take one of my legs, take one of my legs, I will definitely be a good person in my life!"

Charlie smiled and said: "You are quite good at discussing with others. It is not impossible to abandon your leg, but you have stolen 10 children in total. For each child, I abandon your leg. You have ten legs for me. ?"

Liu Zhaochen was stunned.

Seeing Charlie's face full of solemnity, as if he was about to kill him today, he said in a flustered heart: "Brother, although I don't have ten legs, there are seven of us! Seven people, that is fourteen legs. what....."

Charlie smiled and said: "You are quite good at doing arithmetic problems, but this kind of thing cannot be offset by the seven of you, because the results you seven have to face are exactly the same."

Just as he was talking, a heavy forklift drove over from the bridge head with a Mercedes-Benz S-Class directly on the fork!

Issac's voice came from the intercom: "The young master, the elder of the beggar gang has been brought over. It is in the Mercedes-Benz sedan. The car is bulletproof. He is unwilling to get out of the car, so I just let him be forked!"

Chapter 1027

As the forklift got closer and closer, Charlie asked the people around to make an open space, and waved at the forklift driver: "Come on, put him here!"

The forklift driver immediately drove the bulletproof Mercedes-Benz S-Class all the way to Charlie.

Issac said at this time: "Don't worry, don't put him down now, otherwise he will suddenly hurt the young master if he puts on the gas pedal. First remove his four wheels, and then put him down."

As a result, several workers from construction sites immediately took equipment and went up and unloaded all his four wheels.

At this time, there was a fat man sitting in the car. The fat man was full of horror and shouted in the car: "Who are you guys and what do you want to do?"

Charlie ignored him.

After all four of his wheels were unloaded, the forklift put the car in place.

Charlie took out his phone, turned on the video recording function, looked at the fat man in the car window, and said coldly: "The elder of the Beggar Gang, right? You are responsible for buying minors for the Beggar Gang, right? I will give you a chance now. If you don't grasp the opportunity to walk down, you are at your own risk."

The fat man looked at him with trepidation, and blurted out, "Who are you? I have never seen you before. We can't have any hatred, what's the resentment!"

Charlie lifted Liu Zhaochen up, pointed at him, and asked the fat man: "Do you know this person? Have you told him that you want to take over ten orphans from him?"

The fat man's face instantly turned pale.

Immediately, he glared at Liu Zhaochen and cursed: "You, you f*cking dare to sell me!"

Liu Zhaochen was also full of anger with nowhere to vent, staring at him, hysterically cursing: "You b@stard, if it weren't for you, I wouldn't be able to walk this way! You f*cking killed our family!"

Charlie looked at the fat man again and asked in a cold voice, "I will ask you one last time, will you not come down?"

The fat man didn't dare to get off, at least he could find a sense of security in the car.

Seeing that he was indifferent, Charlie said to Issac: "Are there electric welding equipment in these construction vehicles?"

Issac immediately asked through the walkie-talkie: "Whose car has an electric welding machine?"

A voice came from the walkie-talkie : "Master, I have a set of welding equipment and inverters in my car, just for mobile welding!"

Issac blurted out: "Bring here quickly!"

After a while, a truck drove over. After the driver jumped out of the car, he immediately lifted a set of electric welding equipment from the back of the truck.

Charlie pointed to the Mercedes-Benz S-Class and said, "Since this fat guy likes to stay inside, then weld all the doors, find some steel bars, and weld all the windows!"

There were so many construction vehicles, and various construction site materials were pulled inside, the most of which were cement, yellow sand and muck, followed by steel bars and other steel plates.

Upon hearing that Charlie ordered the car to be welded to death, the worker immediately greeted several workers for help. Then, many people carried various steel bars and the steel plates ran over quickly.

When the fat man in the car saw the battle, his soul was frightened. He asked hoarsely, "What are you going to do? I have no grudges against you, why are you doing this to me?"

Charlie sneered: "You kidnap and sell children, everyone will be punishable! To do this kind of conscience business, you must have enough psychological preparation!"

After that, he roared: "Do it now!"

Several workers immediately got busy. First, all the doors of this Mercedes-Benz were welded to death, and then all the windows of this Mercedes-Benz were welded into cages with various steel plates.

The fat man became more and more frightened inside, and his whole person almost collapsed.

He had already felt something subconsciously, but at this moment, deep down in his heart, he was still deceiving himself and couldn't believe it.

Chapter 1028

Charlie's mobile phone has been recording his images, and naturally recorded all the scene of him being welded to death in the car.

The fat man looked at Charlie and threatened with all his strength: "I warn you, let me go quickly, our boss's brother-in-law, is no one but Regnar of the Wu family! You must have heard of Regnar's name. How can you not provoke him, if you dare to be against me today, my boss and his brother-in-law Regnar will definitely not spare you!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Your boss? Your boss is already on the way here, so let's let him watch you on the road later!"

As he was talking, a helicopter in the sky had already moved quickly!

After a few minutes, the plane landed slowly, and several people in black escorted him. Nanshan and his wife Kaili walked off the helicopter.

When Nanshan saw the battle in front of him, he was shocked, his soul lost his body!

He has been out for so long and has never seen such a scary battle!

Dozens of engineering vehicles directly sealed the entire bridge, several helicopters were parked on the bridge, and dozens of men in black with guns and live ammunition.

H thought it was the troops doing some exercises.

He couldn't help wondering in his heart, who are these people? Whom did you offend? Those beggars who usually rob themselves of buying and selling, who has such great ability?

Those people in black brought him to Charlie.

Charlie observed at him and asked in a cold voice: "Are you Nanshan?"

Nanshan felt tight, and subconsciously asked: "Who are you? What are you looking for?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Me? I am the one who will kill you!"

When Nanshan heard this, his face became cold, and he immediately said angrily: "You want my life? Do you know who my brother-in-law is?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I know, isn't it Regnar? Do you think Regnar can save you at this time? If this old dog Regnar rushes over today, I will kill the entire Wu family today. Right here!"

"You..." Nanshan was shocked. He couldn't understand why the young man in front of him had such a strong confidence, and he dared to say such arrogant words.

Who is Regnar? Regnar is an existence that no one can match in the whole Aurous Hill and no one dares to mess with!

He is the king of Aurous Hill!

But the young man in front of him didn't pay attention to Regnar at all. What gave him such a confidence?

At this time, the fat man who had been completely welded to death in the Mercedes-Benz car opened a window in the car and shouted to the outside: "Boss, Boss, you must save me, Boss!"

Nanshan was shocked. He turned his head and found that in the Mercedes-Benz that was welded to death, there was sitting in one of the nine elders of his beggar gang.

He hurriedly blurted out and asked: "Old Liu, why are you here?"

The beggar elder in the Mercedes Benz cried and said, "Boss, I came to pick up the goods. I didn't expect that the boy who talked to me, he actually cheated me, because he united with others to do the crime I, boss, you must save me!"

Nanshan was frightened and stupid, this battle is clearly to kill!

If the opponent dares to kill own elder, he must dare to kill him...

He was nervous and scared to die, and tremblingly asked Charlie: "Brother, what on earth do you and I have misunderstood? Or what do you want? Just ask, as long as I can give it to you, I just beg you to let us go!"

Charlie said coldly: "Your beggars help to do some conscienceless things. What I want today is a heaven! A justice!"

Chapter 1029

Nanshan said in horror: "Brother, how can my brother-in-law Regnar be regarded as a face and face in the south of the Yangtze River. If you kill me, he will definitely not let you go. Instead of repaying injustices like this, why can't turn fighting into jade?"

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said: "I'm sorry, you want to turn a fight with me into a jade silk, you are not worthy! Even Regnar is not worthy! You see Regnar as a god, but in my eyes he is just a pile of sh!t!"

After that, he said again: "Nanshan, don't worry, come one by one, I will send your brother on the road first, and then have a good chat with you!"

Immediately afterwards, Charlie looked at the fat man in the Mercedes-Benz, and said coldly: "You kidnap and sell children, you lose your conscience, you are a tiger, and everyone is punishable. Today I will act for the sky and let you do what you do. To pay the price! Don't you like your Mercedes-Benz? Don't you like to stay in it and not get down? Okay, let this car be your coffin and let your boss send you on the road!"

After all, he looked at Nanshan and said coldly: "Come on, you sing a song loudly for me, sing a famous Italian song! Goodbye friends!!"

Nanshan subconsciously shivered and said: "I...I won't..."

Charlie scolded: "You f*cking bluff me? Who can sing such a classic song?"

Nanshan does sing this song, and he often sings it in KTV, but how could he be willing to sing it at this time?

The young man in front of him welded one of his generals in a Mercedes-Benz car, and said that he wanted this car to be his coffin, which meant that he would die in the car.

He can't save his brother, nor can he sing goodbye to friend when he dies, right?

Seeing that he didn't even speak, Charlie immediately yelled: "The sniper take his right leg!"

As soon as the voice fell, he heard a gunshot!

Then Nanshan knelt on the ground with a plop.

His right knee has become a mass of fleshy flesh, and the pain makes him cry.

Charlie continued: "I count 123, and within three seconds, if this person doesn't sing to me, you'll break his other leg!"

"One!"

"two!"

Nanshan was so scared to cry when he heard this: "Don't shoot, don't shoot, brother, I sing, I will sing!"

After all, he endured the sharp pain in his right leg and knee, and sang choked with a trembling voice: "Oh goodbye friend, ah, goodbye friend, ah, goodbye friend, goodbye, goodbye... ..."

Charlie looked at the fat man in the Mercedes-Benz car and asked him with a smile: "Have you heard? Your big brother is singing to see you off, you can go on the road with peace of mind!"

The fat man collapsed in pain, slapped the car window and shouted: "I don't want to die, please spare my life, I really don't want to die..."

Charlie stopped paying attention to him, but yelled, "Hang up this Mercedes Benz for me with a heavy helicopter!"

Issac immediately ordered one to go down.

In the car, the big fat man was completely crazy. He slapped the car window frantically, crying and begging: "Brother, uncle, please let me go. I'm still young and I don't want to die. I have 80 mothers. There are three-year-old children. If I die, they will all be over!"

Charlie sneered: "Before you do this business, you should have thought that you will end up like this!"

A heavy helicopter tied the Mercedes-Benz with a cable, and then slowly hoisted it in the air.

Chapter 1030

Charlie said coldly: "Throw him into the river for me!"

The helicopter immediately flew to the river surface by the bridge, and then the aircraft suddenly disconnected the rope, and the Mercedes Benz crashed into the river surface at a very fast speed.

This Mercedes-Benz itself is bulletproof, and the body is very heavy, plus the steel plate welded in a circle makes it heavier.

Therefore, the moment it plunged into the river at high speed, it immediately threw a spectacular splash of water!

The splashing water even formed a small rainbow in the sun!

Immediately afterwards, the Mercedes-Benz car sank directly into the river bottom and disappeared without any delay!

Everyone present knew that this fat man was bound to death.

Because that car has been completely welded to death, it is impossible to escape for him now!

Jiang Ming, Liu Zhaochen's family, and Nanshan's couple suddenly collapsed with horror as they watched the Mercedes-Benz sink to the bottom of the river.

No one thought that Charlie would be so decisive when killing someone.

Jiang Ming also clearly realized at this moment that this orphan, who grew up with him since childhood, seemed to be able to kill him today.

He crawled to Charlie's feet, crying and his whole person was out of breath: "Charlie, please let me go. I am different from them. I have never done such a mourning before. For the best things, I was just confused for a while, and blinded for a while, I beg you to give me another chance, you grew up with me, you know that I am not the kind of heinous person..."

Charlie looked at him in disgust, and said coldly: "Jiang Ming, there is a truth you have to understand. Some mistakes can be forgiven, but some mistakes can never be forgiven, even for the first time!"

After finishing talking, he used the camera of his mobile phone to aim at Nanshan and his wife, and said coldly: "Come on, I will give you and your wife a chance to confess to the people of the whole country. Looking at my mobile phone camera, you have done it all these years. If you do well, I might be able to make you suffer less."

Nanshan's wife Kaili was almost silly, but at this moment, she knelt on the ground with a thump, crying and begging for mercy: "Big brother, please forgive me, I'm just Nanshan's wife, I don't even know. What did he do on weekdays, I am really innocent!"

As she said, she pointed to her flat lower abdomen, and said: "You tell me, I have been pregnant for two months, please let us go and give us a way out!"

Upon hearing this, Nanshan subconsciously cursed: "Kaili, you actually want to betray me at this time!"

Kaili suddenly exploded: "Nanshan, I have your seed in my stomach! Don't I want to leave a queen for you Xue family? If we both die here today, your Xue family's incense broken!"

In fact, Kaili's thinking is very simple, just to survive.

She didn't live enough and didn't want to die!

If she is allowed to die with her husband and live as a widow by herself, choose one of the two, then she must choose the latter.

Nanshan also thought at first that she was going to live alone.

But listening to her say this, his heart suddenly shuddered.

His wife is right, if both him and his wife are dead, even if the young man in front of him let go of his daughter, his own incense will be cut off!

With a daughter, in the eyes of the Xue family, the incense cannot be continued!

Chapter 1031

Must have a son to succeed the Xue family.

This is why Nanshan and his sister are very eager to hope that Kaili can have a son.

Therefore, Nanshan realized at this moment that if he had to die here today, he would have to let Kaili and the child in her stomach live.

What if it was a boy? The Xue family has a prince.

Otherwise, if Kaili died here today, then the entire Xue family would be the last!

Thinking of this, he immediately said to Charlie: "Big brother, what hate you have, any grudges will come to me. My wife is innocent, and the child in my wife's belly is also innocent, please let her go!"

Charlie said coldly: "You have poisoned so many children, haven't you thought that those children are the most innocent?"

Nanshan cried and said: "Even if I am utterly conscienceless, it has nothing to do with my wife and children. Please let them go! You can't kill a pregnant woman in front of so many people, right?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I didn't expect it, would you still kidnap me morally?"

After speaking, Charlie nodded and said: "But you are right. It is really not my style to kill a pregnant woman, so I am going to let your wife go."

As soon as the voice fell, Kaili on the side was so excited that she kowtows her head again and again, crying and laughing and said: "Big brother, thank you, big brother, thank you for not killing!"

Charlie waved his hand: "Don't worry, I don't need to kill you, but the child in your stomach belongs to you and this s*umbag, so I can't let you go right now. I will arrange for someone to take you there directly. The obstetrics and gynecology hospital and the child will be knocked out. I will hand you over to the public security organs and let them take you to court to sentence, go to jail, and shoot according to your actions!"

When Nanshan heard this, he suddenly shouted: "How can you make our Xue family like that! The incense of our Xue family is in my wife's belly!"

Charlie smiled and said: "I'm sorry, a scm like you, and a scm who specializes in destroying families, is not worthy to continue the incense. I can spare life of your daughter, but the embryo in your wife's belly, Don't be foolish!"

Later, Charlie looked at Kaili again, and said coldly: "You choose now, do you want to stay and die with your husband, or kill the child and get your own dog life going?"

Kaili blurted out completely without thinking: "Brother, I want to live, I don't want to die, the child can be knocked out, at any time!"

In fact, at this moment Kaili had already thought very clearly.

First of all, she can't die anyway, because she's still young and haven't lived enough. If it is to die with her husband, she doesn't want to die.

Secondly, the child in the belly is only two months old. To put it bluntly, it is a fertilized egg. It doesn't matter if it goes on or not, as long as she can live is more important than anything else.

Therefore, of course she is willing to choose to knock the child out!

When Nanshan next to her heard this, his whole person was almost gone. He observed at Kaili with cannibalistic eyes and gritted his teeth and cursed: "You stinky lady, you want to abandon me at the critical moment and live by yourself?!"

Kaili looked at him nervously and said seriously: "Husband, do you want me to die with you? We still have a daughter! Even if I am in jail for more than ten years, my daughter still has a mother. If I die here today, our daughter will be an orphan!"

Chapter 1032

Nanshan angrily scolded: "You have to kill Nanshan's son to survive! Now you still want to use daughter as a shield, do you think I will be fooled by you! You b*tch, how come I didn't see that you are such a dog that is greedy for life and fears death, and betrays your husband to live alone at a critical moment!"

Kaili did not expect that her husband would scold her bloody at this time.

It is true that she really wants to live, but what she said is not unreasonable. In this case, whether she choose to die or choose to live, it is impossible to keep the child in her stomach. In this case, the couple can live. One, isn't it much better than two deaths?

So, she asked Nanshan: "Let's be a husband and wife. When you pleaded for me just now, you asked this eldest brother to let me go, but you heard that after the child can't stay, do you want me to die with you? Is the only reason I live is to give birth to your child?"

Nanshan blurted out: "I pleaded entirely because of the child in your stomach. If there is no child in your stomach, why should I die and you not? Why can't it be you and me?! No matter how bad it is, we have to die together. Companions of the Death Road!"

Kaili looked at him in shock, and said angrily: "Well, Nanshan, how come I haven't noticed that you are such a thing! A couple with you, at the critical moment you actually want to take me to your funeral!"

After speaking, she immediately looked at Charlie: "Big brother, I will listen to your instructions. I can go and kill the child now, as long as you spare my life!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said, "Yes, since you are so enlightened, then I will spare you not to die, and now I will arrange for someone to take you to the hospital!"

Kaili was so excited, she knelt on the ground and knocked Charlie a dozen heads.

At this moment, Nanshan next to her was already hysterical!

While Kaili was not paying attention, he suddenly rushed up, pinched her neck tightly, pressed her to the ground, and looked at her with gritted teeth: "You unfaithful dog woman, die for me!"

Seeing Kaili had been pinched by her and rolled her eyes, Issac hurriedly asked him: "Mr. Wade do you want to make a move? If you don't make a move, this woman will die."

Charlie said lightly: "Old Issac, remember what I just said, I will not kill a pregnant woman!"

Issac suddenly realized!

The young master did say that he would not kill a pregnant woman.

However, if this Nanshan killed the pregnant wife himself, then no one else could be blamed.

Sure enough, within a minute, Kaili had stopped her heartbeat and breathing.

After Nanshan strangled her to death, he couldn't get rid of his hatred, and gritted his teeth and cursed: "This btch, wanted to live alone? Go ahead and wait for me! When you are dying, you can pull a back cushion, and it is worth the fck. Now!"

Charlie sneered. This Kaili was a kowloon sergeant of the entire gang of beggars. Don't think she was a woman, but she might have done no less evil than others.

Therefore, if he were to let her live, Charlie would also feel very sick.

But there is no way. People always have to have principles. This group of dogs has no principles, so they have done so many unconscientious things, but they can't, at least they can't kill a pregnant woman by themselves.

It's alright now, Nanshan helped him solve this problem, at least he would not feel sick because Kaili was still alive in this world!

Chapter 1033

After Kaili's death, Liu Zhaochen's family, Jiang Ming and others were already frightened.

In a short time, two people have died in front of them, and everyone's death is so miserable.

The beggar elder who drove the Mercedes-Benz S-Class was originally the envy of everyone. He had money and status, and he drove a luxury car.

However, just a few minutes ago, his luxury Mercedes became his steel coffin.

But in front of them, Kaili's desperate tragic situation shocked their hearts.

Charlie asked Issac with a cold face at this time: "Where are the other core members of the Beggar Gang?"

Issac said: "Mr. Wade rest assured that I have notified all our forces in Suzhou. They are already walking, and these people will soon be brought over one by one!"

"Okay!" Charlie nodded and sneered: "Today, none of the core members of the Beggar Gang will stay alive!"

quickly!

All the people and horses of Wade Family hiding in Suzhou began to move, and the members of the gang kidnapped from various places were sent to the bridge one by one.

Two of the nine elders of the beggar gang have died, and the remaining seven have been taken one after another.

The two deputy leaders of the Beggar Gang were also brought to the scene at this time.

After the members of the beggar gang gathered, one by one was frightened and collapsed.

None of the later gang dared to believe that someone dared to destroy the entire gang of beggars in Suzhou.

Behind the gang of beggars, Regnar of the Wu family is supporting.

Why don't even Regnar care about this group of people?

Charlie stood in front of this group of people at this time, and said to Issac beside him: "Let people bring steel bars over, and give me all the hands of these people and tie them up tightly with steel bars!"

One gang leader, two deputy gang leaders, seven elders, and nine people knelt in a row.

The first one was Nanshan, the gang leader who just killed his wife!

Charlie's phone has not stopped recording. At this time, he pointed the viewfinder at Nanshan and said with a smile: "Come on, introduce yourself, who are you and what do you do, and who do you work for?"

Nanshan looked at him coldly, gritted his teeth and said: "You f*cking pretend to be here with me, I know I will not survive today. If you want to kill, kill, but my brother-in-law will definitely take revenge for me. Then he will take your body between thousands of corpses!"

Charlie nodded and smiled, and said disdainfully: "I, the least believer, is how kind a person can be!"

After all, he looked at everyone kneeling in front of him, including Liu Zhaochen's family and Jiang Ming, and said sharply: "I can tell you very responsibly that today is your anniversary. None of you can live today, but die. There are also many different ways. Some methods of death may be painful, and some methods of death may be more painful. Whether it is painful or less painful depends on your performance."

Later, Charlie looked at Nanshan and smiled: "Didn't you Nanshan just behave very unkindly? Then you have chosen the painful way of death! I will let you do what you want!"

A panic flashed in Nanshan's eyes.

He didn't know what exactly Charlie would do to torture him.

At this time, Charlie said to Issac: "Take off all the clothes on this person, and then use a knife to cut me thin cuts on him. The more you cut, the better, and the wound should not be too deep. But it must bleed. In this case, use a helicopter to lift him up and throw him in the river, so that the fish in the water can eat the wounds on his body. If there is enough time, he can be eaten into bones alive!"

Chapter 1034

Issac's expression stunned when he heard the whole individual, but he didn't expect the young master's methods to be so cruel.

However, think about what this group of people are doing is completely devoid of conscience, this method of death is already very fair to them.

If such a s*umbag is placed in ancient times, he must be executed soon.

So he didn't have any hesitation anymore, and immediately said to the two men in black next to him: "You two, remember to cut the wound more densely!"

The two of them were top killers who killed countless, so they were accustomed to this kind of thing for a long time, so the two immediately took out their knives from their pockets and walked towards Nanshan without expression.

Nanshan, who was still very stubborn just now, was trembling with fright at this time, crying loudly: "Big brother, I was wrong, big brother, I was really wrong, I will say whatever you ask me to say, I will never follow you are pretending to be forced, please don't torture me!"

Charlie sneered and said: "What? Haven't started cutting yet? Are you scared? What about the courage just now?"

Nanshan panicked and said: "Brother, you can hit me twice, even if you kill me now, I beg you, don't torture me, I will say whatever you ask me to say, and I will cooperate to the end."

Charlie said: "Sorry, I just gave you a chance, but it's too late now."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "But it's a bit useful to make up for it. Don't worry, I won't let the fish eat you into bones. I will ask you to face the camera later and leave a few words for your brother-in-law."

As soon as the voice fell, Charlie instructed the two men in black: "First give me his two legs to deal with it!"

The two immediately took out their knives and cut off Nanshan's trouser legs directly, and then drew countless blood trails on his calves and thighs, causing him to scream miserably in pain.

The people next to him looked even more terrified.

Immediately afterwards, the helicopter took off Nanshan, whose legs were covered with bloody wounds, and then hung him into the river.

Even across such a high bridge, you can hear the screams on the water!

After 10 minutes, Charlie said: "Okay, bring him up!"

The helicopter lifted him back slowly.

When he approached the bridge deck, his two legs had been gnawed by the fish in the river so that they didn't look like they were, and bones were exposed in several places.

The 10 minutes that have just passed were the most painful and difficult 10 minutes in Nanshan's life.

In those 10 minutes, he felt that countless big fishes and small fishes in the river were desperately trying to tear a piece of meat from the wound on his leg.

That kind of feeling is like being bitten countless bites of meat on his leg, every bite hurts so much that he wants to die!

Now he has only one thought in his mind, no matter what, he can no longer be thrown into the water!

So no matter what Charlie asked him to do next, he would not dare to have any disobedience!

The man in black caused Nanshan, who was so painful to collapse, to kneel. Charlie looked at him and asked, "How do you feel?"

Nanshan cried bitterly: "Please kill me, I really don't want to live..."

Charlie shouted coldly: "I'll give you another chance now. You can answer whatever I ask you. If you answer well, I will give you a happy reply. If you answer badly, you will be embarrassed."

Nanshan nodded as if pounding garlic, crying and said, "Big brother, ask, and I will answer all questions!"

Chapter 1035

Charlie pointed the phone at him and asked, "What is your name? What occupation?"

Nanshan tremblingly said: "My name is Nanshan and I am the leader of the Beggar Gang."

Charlie asked again: "What kind of livelihood does your Beggar Gang do?"

Nanshan answered truthfully: "The main business of the gang is to pretend to be beggars and beg everywhere."

Charlie asked: "You all wear gold and silver, why do you pretend to be beggars and beg?"

Nanshan said: "Because the money is the fastest in this way, we only need to send people out and lie down and sell badly in various crowded places, and we can have a high income."

Charlie asked: "Then why do you abduct so many children?"

Nanshan said: "Because when begging, if you bring a child with you, you can double the alms, even several times..."

Charlie continued to ask, "Then why do you make good children disabled?"

Nanshan shuddered and said: "Children with disabilities are more able to arouse others' compassion. According to our experience, it is the easiest to make money with children with disabilities."

Charlie asked coldly: "Then how many children have you hurt so far?"

Nanshan said nervously: "I haven't counted this, but there should be three digits."

Charlie continued to ask: "Who is behind you to support you in doing such a thing, and who is your backer?"

Nanshan said: "My patrons are my sister and brother-in-law."

Charlie asked: "What are the names of your sister and brother-in-law, and what do they do?"

Nanshan honestly said: "My sister's name is Yaqina. She has no job and is a full-time housewife. My brother-in-law is Regnar. He is the heir of the Wu family in the city."

Charlie asked coldly: "In other words, the reason why you dare to do this kind of conscience is completely because you have Regnar behind your back, isn't it?"

Nanshan hesitated for a while, but he nodded obediently and said, "Yes, the Beggars develop to this day relying on my brother-in-law to help. It was him who came forward to support me, so no one dared to fight against me."

Charlie asked again: "Does he know what you depend on for a living? Does he know that you poisoned so many minors?"

Nanshan nodded: "He knows, he knows all, and my sister also knows..."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction.

With this video, as long as it is released, the reputation of the Wu family will be greatly affected.

They will be angrily condemned by countless netizens across the country.

At that time, it would be impossible for the Wu family to be able to do a PR.

What Charlie wanted was to make the Wu family suffer!

For this matter, the Wu family is the culprit behind it!

If it weren't for the Wu family's help and abuse, helping this Nanshan all the way, forming a gang of beggars, and growing stronger, then he wouldn't have the opportunity to poison so many children!

Chapter 1036

Therefore, the Wu family is an absolute accomplice.

Charlie believed that Regnar would be very, very uncomfortable after this video was released.

Didn't he want to confront him?

Isn't he secretly looking for his enemy, ready to unite and attack him?

Sorry, this young master is already impatient with waiting, so take your brother-in-law first!

So Charlie immediately said to Issac: "Put all the members of this gang of beggars into that Iveco, and then weld the steel bars on their hands to the car body!"

"Yes!"

Issac gave an order, and many people in black rushed up quickly. Every two people grabbed one and brought them all into the car, which had been cut off and topped Iveco.

The children of Iveco have been taken to the helicopter and continue to fall asleep.

The people in black didn't have any kindness to them even if these people were crying and howling.

Immediately after the electric welding machine started up again, the steel bars were wrapped around their wrists. This time they directly welded the steel bars on their wrists to the car.

The welding caused a violent high temperature, and this group of people howled.

The whole scene is like purgatory on earth.

At this time, Charlie looked at Liu Zhaochen's family of five, and said coldly: "Your family, do some sneaking and petting businesses. You won't change after repeated teachings, you are extremely nasty, and are inferior to astupidls! It's really everyone's possession and condemnation! Today I will walk for the sky and send your family on the road!"

After finishing speaking, he ignored the hoarse pleadings of the Liu family, and directly let the people in black bring them into Iveco, and weld them firmly with the others.

At the scene, Jiang Ming, who was almost frightened, was left alone.

Jiang Ming's eyes towards Charlie were so empty that they lost his soul.

His whole body was shivering constantly, and his mouth murmured: "Charlie, we have grown up together, I beg you to forgive me, I am not a heinous person, I don't want to die...please you see, for the sake of growing up together for so many years, spare my life..."

Charlie lowered his head to see that his crotch was already covered with filthy things, and it seemed that he had already incontinence.

His face looked like frost, and he said coldly: "Jiang Ming, when you are born, you have to know what you can do and what you can't do. The 100,000-volt high-voltage line will kill if you touch it. When you are a first-time offender, and you are open, not to mention that you grew up in a welfare institution. Child trafficking is a high-voltage line that no one can touch, and the one we should not touch is orphans like us. I don't understand this truth, so what's the point of your life?"

Jiang Ming crumbled and grabbed his hair and tore a large bunch of hair. Then he raised his head and looked at Charlie with blood-red eyes: "Charlie, before I die, I have one more question I hope you can answer. Can you satisfy my wish?"

Charlie nodded and said: "For the sake of growing up together, I will satisfy your wish. No matter what question, I will answer you. However, after I answer you, after you get my answer, you are going away from this world!"

Jiang Ming shuddered suddenly, staring at Charlie, and asked: "Charlie...who are you...what are you, who can have such great energy... .."

Charlie smiled slightly, even if he was right, Jiang Ming would definitely ask him this question.

So, he squatted down, looked at Jiang Ming's eyes, and said word by word: "Jiang Ming, what I want to tell you next, even my wife doesn't know it. This may be the last thing you get before you die. An answer, so I hope you can listen carefully."

Jiang Ming swallowed hard, nodded hard, and said with a trace of unwillingness in his eyes: "Don't worry, I will listen carefully to every word you say, so that I can come to you for revenge in my next life. !"

Charlie smiled indifferently: "Then listen carefully! I am from the Wade family of Eastcliff...!"

Chapter 1037

"What?!"

Jiang Ming has lived for more than 20 years, and what Charlie said was the most shocking and incredible sentence he had heard in his life.

With bloodshot eyes, he observed at Charlie's face and muttered: "Impossible, how is this possible? I know you, I have known you since I was a child, your name is Charlie, you are an orphan! You were eight and taken back to the orphanage by Aunt Lena when you were 20 years old. You were like me. In this society, there is no support, no father and no mother. How could it be that you are the young master of the Wade family?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I know, it's hard for you to believe this, but it's really true. Otherwise, how could you think I could mobilize so many people to chase you casually? Look at these helicopters. , Look at these people in black with live ammunition, if I were not the young master of the Wade family, you should have succeeded this time."

"But...but..." Jiang Ming asked incredulously: "If you are the young master of Wade's family, why did you grow up in the orphanage? Why didn't they treat you and took you away? Why let you, a young master in oblivion live with a stinky silk like us since childhood?"

Charlie smiled and said: "They didn't know my whereabouts back then. Before my father died, it took a lot of hard work to hide my identity. Although the Wade family has been looking for me, they never thought I will grow up in an orphanage."

Jiang Ming immediately asked: "Then they found you again now? When did it happen? Why is this?"

Charlie said: "They came to me some time ago. Before they found me, I was just like you, and I might not be as good as you, because at that time, I was not only physically penniless, I still worked as a live-in son-in-law at my wife's house. Every day I washed clothes and cooked. I didn't see any hope in life. Unlike you, you can at least work as a director in a deceptive company."

Jiang Ming blurted out: "You know that you are the young master of the Wade family. Since you are living in such a miserable life, why don't you take the initiative to find them? As long as you take the initiative to find them, you don't have to live a life of being looked down upon?"

Charlie smiled and said: "This is the difference between the two of us. I came from an extraordinary background, but I am willing to be humble; you come from a humble background, but you are not willing to be humble and ordinary. If you are like me and willing to be humble, how can you commit crimes? What's the big mistake you made today?"

"I don't understand!" Jiang Ming desperately shook his head, already a little irrational and said: "I don't understand! I really don't understand! Is it because you saw money when you were young? Can you go on?"

"Perhaps." Charlie smiled faintly, and said: "When I was young, I was really rich in clothes and every other aspect. The life I lived at that time may be something you can't imagine now, but what about it? I didn't live well. Happy not, my parents were not happy either."

Jiang Ming asked incredulously: "Then are you willing to suffer poverty? When you were a kid, you obviously experienced a rich life, but when you have nothing, don't you miss that life?"

Charlie sighed lightly and said again: "Jiang Ming, you take money too seriously. You can take money very seriously, but I can't take money too seriously. There are certain things that money can never match. For example, your ideals, your love, your principles, and your conscience. Once you put your position in the wrong place, you will do things wrong. Some things can be changed if they are wrong, and some things cannot be changed even if they are wrong. "

At this moment, Jiang Ming finally realized how humble he was.

Because Charlie in front of him, Charlie who grew up in the orphanage with him since childhood, turned out to be the young master of the Wade Family of Eastcliff!

It was also at this moment that he knew how far he was from Charlie.

He finally knew the gap between the two.

It's the gap between the vulture and the eagle!

It is the gap between pheasant and phoenix!

It is the crucian carp that crosses the river, the gap with the real dragon on earth!

As the saying goes, the vulture is well aware of eagle's ambition. This sentence is now placed on himself and Charlie, it is really appropriate.

It was also at this moment that Jiang Ming finally gave in completely.

He knew that not only did he lose in this life, but also in the next life.

It is no longer possible for himself to seek revenge from Charlie, and if Charlie kills him, it is as easy as crushing an ant.

He is the same as Liu Zhaochen's family, and the members of the Beggar Gang, except that Charlie is a real dragon on earth, a small fish and shrimp that yawns to death.

Jiang Ming's face was instantly filled with despair.

Just now, he was thinking about his next life, or seeking revenge on Charlie in the next life.

But at this moment, he really understood that even if he had another life, he probably wouldn't have the qualification to seek revenge against Charlie.

Chapter 1038

The most painful thing in the world is to realize that you will never be able to catch up with your enemy in a few lifetimes.

At this moment, Jiang Ming is already completely ashamed!

He looked at Charlie with tears and choked up: "Charlie, I take it, I really take it, you kill me, I am tired of the world, and I am tired of myself. Please let me out..."

Charlie nodded and looked at him seriously: "Jiang Ming, of all the people who are going to die today, your crime is the lightest; but also among everyone who is going to die today, everyone committed a capital crime, of course. Including you, I hope you can have a good baby in your next life!"

Jiang Ming smiled miserably and said, "In my next life... after hearing you just finished your story, I suddenly felt that a person like me might be born with a hard life. If given another life, I can't do it. Still an orphan, maybe it's still a stinking silk in the eyes of a few people..."

Charlie nodded with a flat expression and said, "In this case, then I hope you can be a good person in your next life."

Jiang Ming nodded seriously and smiled sadly: "As you said, I myself have begun to hate myself. I hope I can be a good person in my next life."

After that, his whole person was calmer. He was scared of incontinence just now, but at this time, he was able to hold on calmly and stood up by himself.

He stood in front of Charlie and said seriously: "Charlie, let me go on the road, send those children back safely, tell Aunt Lena that I am wrong, tell all my friends, I am wrong, I regret it, I used my life to atone for my sins..."

Charlie nodded and said, "Since you really know that you were wrong, then I will give you a happy one."

With that said, Charlie said to Issac: "Weld all those people in Iveco, and then let the helicopter hoist the car into river!"

"OK Master!"

The helicopter took off again.

Ive Currie, the core member of the Beggar Gang and Liu Zhaochen's family, kept crying out the last despair.

Everyone was struggling hard, but at this time not only they were welded to death, but the car was also welded to death, it was impossible for them to escape.

Then the helicopter simply threw the Iveco full of sins into the river.

This Iveco made a rapid bubble on the surface of the river, and then it sank completely to the bottom!

Charlie turned his head to look at Jiang Ming at this time, and said lightly: "I promise to give you a pleasure, not to make you die as painful as they did."

Jiang Ming smiled miserably and nodded: "Thank you, Charlie."

Charlie nodded slightly, and said to a man in black next to him: "Take him to the bridge and give him something simple."

The man in black nodded: "OK Master!"

Before the man in black could get started, Jiang Ming staggered towards the bridge.

He climbed onto the guardrail, turned to Charlie and said, "Charlie, give me a good time!"

Charlie looked at the man in black and nodded slightly.

Afterwards, the man in black took a black pistol from his waist and aimed it at Jiang Ming's forehead.

Bang!

A bloody flower burst out of the back of Jiang Ming's head!

Immediately afterwards, his body leaned back, fell off the bridge, plunged into the river, and was instantly swallowed by the rolling river...

Chapter 1039

When Jiang Ming died, Charlie suddenly felt a little sad.

He was sad not because he sympathized with Jiang Ming, but because he felt that a person had become what he hated the most. This was indeed a kind of sadness.

Jiang Ming was in his youth. If it were not for going astray, he would have the opportunity to change his destiny. Perhaps in a few years, he could also marry the girl, become the CEO, and reach the pinnacle of life.

But life is like this. Some pits can be closed, and some pits cannot be closed.

Looking at the billowing river, a person was hurt for a moment and said to Issac: "Okay, you help me take the children back, send them to the hospital for the doctor to check if there is any serious problem, and then notify the welfare institution to come over."

Issac nodded and asked, "Mr. Wade what should we do with the rest of the beggar?"

Charlie sighed: "There are tens of thousands of evil beggars, and they can't be killed. I only hope that the death of the heads of the beggars can make the people below wake up a bit, and don't do this kind of things in the future."

After speaking, he said again: "By the way, let all the people on the scene today stop talking nonsense after returning."

Issac immediately said: "Mr. Wade don't worry, I understand!"

Charlie said: "Okay, let's go back!"

Issac hurriedly used the walkie-talkie to order: "One group, send all the children to Aurous Hill People's Hospital, and the second group, escort the young master back to Aurous Hill!"

After a few minutes.

Charlie had already boarded the helicopter on his way back, but the altitude of the plane was not high, and the cell phone signal was not affected.

So Charlie put the video he had taken in YouTube and processed it, mainly to change his voice so that it was unrecognizable, and then uploaded the processed video to the Internet.

This period of time is a bit long, very shocking, and some bloody videos. Once released, they immediately became popular on the Internet.

Originally, the loss of 10 children in Aurous Hill Welfare Institute today has become the target of attention of netizens across the country. The popularity on the Internet has surpassed all other news, ranking first in the major rankings!

Almost the people of the whole country are holding their mobile phones and watching this shocking video!

Now this video has brought this event to a perfect ending. The bad guys are punished and the children are rescued. It immediately aroused the zealous blood in the hearts of the people across the country.

Especially in the section where all the core members of the Beggar Gang were welded to the River in vehicle, countless netizens were excited and applauded.

People all over the country want to know who did this? Who made this video?

However, Charlie dealt with all other information, and did not even leave a back view to the netizens.

At the same time, because they learned that Regnar of the Wu family is the backer of the beggar gang leader Nanshan, the whole network criticized them.

Hundreds of millions of people scolded Wu's family online and asked the police to conduct a thorough investigation.

The reputation of the Wu family was destroyed.

Just when this video went viral on the entire network, and countless people reposted, commented, liked, and applauded, the whole gang of beggars was completely exploded!

They did not expect that none of their gang leaders, two deputy gang leaders, and the nine elders were spared!

This made the middle-level leaders of the gang of beggars almost all start, desperate to run away overnight.

The Wu family didn't know all of this at this time. Wu Qi just added a meal and caused the whole Wu family to jump around.

The Old Master of the Wu family was greatly stimulated last time, and he has just recovered from this period.

Chapter 1040

At this time, Ragnar and his wife Yaqina were comforting, and they had just looking at their son.

As the eldest son and grandson, Roger was carrying the dinner prepared by the servant and came to his grandfather's room.

When he just opened the door, he saw the Old Master lying on the carpet, twitching constantly, foaming at his mouth, his face pale!

Roger was taken aback, and hurriedly stepped forward to check and found that the Old Master seemed to have had a stroke. When he looked at his hand, he was holding his cell phone tremblingly. There was a video on the cell phone. How could the person on the video look like this? His uncle?

He subconsciously picked up the phone and took a look. He just saw his little uncle go crazy, pinched his aunt's neck, and strangled her directly...

When Roger shivered, his mobile phone was thrown out.

When he was shocked by the content of the video, the Old Master beside him had already lost his breath.

Roger was shocked and rushed out the door, shouting at the servant and the doctor.

The doctor arrived quickly and began to give first aid to the Old Master.

Soon, Regnar and his wife rushed over after hearing the news.

"What's going on?! Why did the Old Master suddenly have a stroke?!"

As soon as Regnar arrived, he immediately questioned the Wu family's expert doctor.

The doctor immediately said: "Chairman Wu, Master should have been irritated, and he was suddenly irritated, almost like last time!"

"What happened?!"

Regnar was extremely puzzled, what happened? Why is it suddenly stimulated to have a stroke?

At this time, Roger in the corner watched all the videos circulating on the Internet, and came to Regnar and Yaqina with a pale and weak face, and said in a panic: "Dad, mom, uncle killed my aunt, and then someone killed him. Young uncle and all the core members of his Beggar Gang, even the same group of human traffickers, a dozen or so people, all welded to an Iveco, dropped into river..."

"What?!"

When the couple heard this, what was their first reaction?

How can there be such a thing in this era?

Weld a dozen people in the car river? How arrogant is this?

Besides, Nanshan's gang of beggars in Suzhou and the whole province are all standard local dragons, and ordinary people can't provoke them at all, let alone ordinary people, it is impossible for people with authority to provoke them.

And the entire gang of beggars has more than 10,000 men. Who has the ability to kill all the core members of the gang of beggars?

Yaqina touched her son's forehead, and couldn't help but said, "Son, are you having a fever? Then it's my brother and aunt, how can you arrange them like this?"

Roger hurriedly said: "Oh, what I said is true. It has spread all over the Internet now, and before my uncle died, he admitted to the camera that our Wu family was his backer, and he relied on our family. That's why we have done so many things that hurt the world and reason. Now the whole internet is scolding our Wu family!"

"What?!" The couple were shocked.

Regnar immediately grabbed the phone from him and blurted out: "Which video is it? I will have a look at it."

Roger immediately found the video and clicked to play!

At this time, Regnar was sweating nervously, staring at the screen of his mobile phone. He knew what his brother-in-law had done. If he really asked the Wu family to take care of him, then the reputation of the Wu family would be all over!

Yaqina also raised her heart to her throat. She still couldn't believe that her brother and younger siblings were all dead!

Chapter 1041

Regnar and Yaqina were close to each other, staring at their mobile phones, after watching this thrilling video that broke them completely.

Seeing her brother strangled her sister-in-law, she was panicked to the extreme. When she saw her brother was welded to death in the car and sinking into the river with the car, she collapsed completely, and her legs became soft and paralyzed. She then fell to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, she cried out desperately: "Nanshan! My brother! You died so miserably! You are dead, and our Xue family is dead! How will your sister face our parents, How to face the ancestors of our Xue family!"

After that, she tried her best to hit the ground with her fist, and shouted hysterically: "My good brother, you tell your sister who killed you! Your sister must break him into pieces, and take revenge for you! People are so cruel!"

When Roger saw that his mother's fist had been smashed into flesh and blood, he hurriedly stepped forward and grabbed her hand and persuaded: "Mom, my uncle is gone, so don't do that..."

Yaqina was crazy, grabbing her husband by the collar, desperately shaking her mouth and shouting crazy: "Regnar, who killed your brother-in-law?! You must find him! Get him out! Bring him to me, let me kill him personally and avenge my brother!"

Regnar was extremely upset at this time.

He didn't care if Nanshan was dead or alive.

It can even be said that he had long been expecting Nanshan to die.

He had long been fed up with Nanshan's unpromising things, backed by his own brother-in-law, and doing sordid things like abducting women and children would only discredit his face!

But he never thought that Nanshan would die in this way.

It doesn't matter if he is dead.

But he is dead, he can't affect the whole Wu family!

It's better now, before this little b@stard died, he pushed everything to the Wu family!

He even called his name publicly, saying that he was supporting him behind his back. Isn't this pushing himself on the road to absolutes?

How do people outside look at Wu's family and how do they look at themselves?

Without even thinking about it, he knew that Wu's current reputation must have been in a mess and plummeted!

This is all thanks to Nanshan this dog thing!

At this moment, Regnar's assistant ran over quickly and blurted out: "Chairman, it's not good. Chairman, now the whole country is scolding Wu family and scolding you. The broker called me just now and said that if you continue like this As the situation continues, several of our listed group stocks will immediately drop by their limit at the opening of the market tomorrow, and will drop by at least 10 times in a row! By that time, the entire Wu family's assets will have lost more than half!"

The biggest fear of listed companies is the collapse of reputation.

Once a listed company is exposed to a huge scandal, the first thing that will be reflected is the stock price. The stock will continue to fall, continue to fall, and receive a point that no one can imagine!

Chapter 1042

Some companies have a market value of more than tens of billions, but only a few hundred million will fall, and their assets have shrunk by more than 90!

Some companies just have a little problem with their products, and they may end up in bankruptcy. But compared to the Wu family's charges, what counts?

This time, the Wu family might have to carry all the scapegoats for Nanshan's beggar gang, and all the conscientious things he did might end up on the Wu family!

Regnar was extremely nervous at this time, because he knew very well in his heart that what the Wu family was facing this time might be a catastrophe!

So he immediately said to his assistant: "I immediately issued a statement in the name of the group. Although Nanshan is indeed brother-in-law of Regnar, our Wu family has no knowledge of what Nanshan did, and all of Nanshan's behavior. It is his personal responsibility. Regnar and the entire Wu family don't know or don't endorse any of it. At the same time, we will prove ourselves to the police because we have nothing to do with Nanshan's illegal and criminal activities. Don't be misled by someone with a heart, and bring the rhythm!

The assistant nodded immediately and blurted out: "Okay Chairman, I will arrange for someone to issue a statement now!"

Yaqina was immersed in the immense pain of losing her younger brother and the family's bloodline. She suddenly heard her husband say that he would leave all ties with his younger brother, and suddenly said, "Regnar, do you have a conscience? Your brother-in-law, he is my own brother, he has been killed now, he has been killed, can you understand?! Not only did you not give him revenge, but you still have to get rid of him?! Are you still human?"

Regnar is also getting angry, because if this matter is not handled well, it is very likely that the whole Wu family will be affected.

Seeing that his wife is still defending her d*mn brother, Regnar resented and scolded sharply, "If it wasn't for your b@stard brother, how could my Wu family be so passive? I told you a long time ago to persuade him. Advise him not to do this kind of things, you just won't listen!"

"You protect him everywhere and defend him everywhere. I say a word and you won't let me say it. Now it's alright. Someone walks the way for the sky. It doesn't matter if he is dead, it will tire my Wu family too!"

When Yaqina heard this, she was almost so angry that she was about to collapse. She gritted her teeth, raised her hand and grabbed Regnar's face.

Regnar couldn't dodge, and Yaqina immediately scratched his face with blood!

Yaqina's nails were already long, making it so strong that she scratched his skin and flesh, so that the crevices of her fingernails were full of bloody flesh!

Regnar screamed with pain, and was even more angry. He grabbed Yaqina's collar, raised his hand, and slapped her face several times.

He slapped the face and cursed: "Yaqina, do you know? Your brother is about to hurt me miserably! I can't bear it for your brother for a long time. If it weren't for your face, I would want it without others. His life, do you know what I regret most now? What I regret most is that I didn't kill him with my own hands, that b*tch! Now he turned into a bomb, died by himself, and exploded me too Beyond recognition!"

Yaqina and Regnar have fought after so many years of marriage.

Now that the younger brother is dead, she was suddenly slapped so much by Regnar, and she has completely lost her mind.

"Regnar, you are not a human! I was blind and misunderstood you! If you don't help my brother get revenge, I will go by myself. From today on, I have nothing to do with you!"

After Yaqina finished speaking, she was about to run outside.

Roger wanted to chase her, Regnar sternly shouted: "You will come back for me! What are you doing chasing at this time? Will chasing back not cause us trouble? Don't you know what matters most to the Wu family now?"

Roger suddenly realized, and blurted out: "Dad! I'm going to find a group of PR soldiers to help us wash the white! No matter how much money we spend!"

Chapter 1043

Just as the Wu family was scolded on the Internet, the Wu Group's statement has been published through various channels.

However, all netizens can see that this is a statement to clarify the relationship.

Everyone knows that for someone as capable as Regnar, it is impossible for him not to know what occupation his brother-in-law is engaged in.

There is no credibility at all when you come out to set aside everything.

Moreover, many people on the Internet have picked out Nanshan's life resume.

The Xue family was originally a poor family in the south, not only did not have much money, but also the people were not prosperous enough.

It wasn't until Yaqina, the daughter of the Xue family, married Regnar, that the Xue family started getting better.

However, Yaqina's parents did not have such a good life. Not long after their daughter was married, they died because of cancer.

When they died, Nanshan was still a second-generation boy who had no job and was idle.

Back then, Nanshan relied on subsidies from his sister Yaqina, and lived a life of drunkenness and dreams.

Later, Nanshan began to make his fortune slowly, and his starting point was the beggar gang.

And many people have revealed the development trajectory of the beggar gang on the Internet.

In fact, in the early years, the gang of beggars was divided into many groups. Nanshan's gang of beggars was not very competitive, and even almost was swallowed by more powerful forces several times.

Until one time, after his brother-in-law Regnar came forward to settle the crisis for him, no one in the entire south knew that Nanshan was Regnar's brother-in-law.

It is precisely because everyone has to look at Regnar's face that Nanshan can develop step by step to this day.

Therefore, at this time Regnar came out and said that he had nothing to do with Nanshan, and he didn't know what Nanshan did. This was simply not enough to make people believe.

Not only could it not persuade the vast number of netizens, but even because it jumped out of the pot at this time, it was despised by the majority of netizens.

So much so that the voice of scolding Wu's family on the Internet is even louder, and this time everyone directly targeted Regnar, all scolding Regnar.

Regnar never dreamed that he would make a statement, it will end up counterproductive.

Rather than saying that he was a slamming essay, it was better to say that he was a quotation of a war. This statement attracted all the flames of war to him.

Seeing that countless people send out all kinds of insulting content and posts every second on the Internet, Regnar wants to die.

Roger saw his father being scolded as a dead dog on the Internet and being insulted by hundreds of millions of netizens. He couldn't bear it. In addition, he had a strong desire to express, so he immediately spent a lot of money and hired one. A PR who specializes in whitewashing people online.

This PR leader is quite capable. He specializes in whitewashing the wicked. As long as you give him money, even if it is black, he can say it is white. Even if he is against the world, he has nothing to fear.

In fact, there are many sc*m like this on the Internet. This person makes his own profit by smearing others or justifying sinners.

For example, in the entertainment industry, there is often a wife of a celebrity couple cheating, but in order not to be exposed and not to affect her career, she spends money to find this kind of sc*m to smear her husband, and beat her husband to say that her husband is out. Stealing fishy, or beating him back and saying that her husband is obsessed with gambling and ignores his family.

In this way, her husband will be criticized by the population, and she could continue to go on freely safely.

This PR leader had done many such things in the early years.

Chapter 1044

Later, by chance, he got in touch with the Wu family.

Earlier, Roger's younger brother Wu Qi was exposed online because he gave a little girl psychological hints and induced a her to jump off the building.

At that time, the Wu family let this PR guru come forward and forced the Wu Qi killing the little girl story, twisting it into a little girl who was greedy for vanity and tried to marry into a wealthy family. In the end, she failed to pursue Wu Qi. She threatened him by jumping off the building. Finally died accidentally.

At that time, the head of the PR used his shameless and powerful PR lineup to reverse black and white on the Internet, making netizens mistakenly believe that it was a little girl who was eating the bad results, and finally caused a large number of netizens to scold the little girl on the Internet for what she deserved. The girl's parents had no way of upbringing, and finally forced the parents who lost their only daughter to take medicine at home and die.

After the parents died after taking the medicine, the PR guru deliberately suppressed the news that the two had committed suicide. He even made up a lie, claiming that the two had scammed away from the Wu family, tens of millions in compensation, and then left. Emmigrated to the United States.

Netizens who don't know the truth thought it was all true, and even when the other's parents were dead, they still abused them online.

This PR guru is not only not ashamed, but proud of it, and often declares to the public that this is a classic of his own public relations.

This shows how s*umbag this person is.

What's even more ridiculous is that this PR guru has become such a lowly sc*m that he actually gave himself a screen name, called Anfen!

This time, the leader of the PR forces called Anfen, after receiving 20 million from the Wu family, started his performance again.

He posted on major websites, claiming: "The majority of netizens are being used by people with unpredictable intentions. Regnar is the most famous entrepreneur and the largest philanthropist in the city. No one pays more attention to minors than he does. Health and safety, how could he indulge Nanshan and do these unreasonable things?"

This incident shows that someone deliberately wanted to plant the Wu family and make the Wu family collapse, so that he could profit from it.”

He even swears to the sky in the post: “If he makes a false statement, the sky will thunder and thunder and the whole family will die.”

In order to make everyone believe him, he specifically listed the Wu Group’s competitors in various fields, and claimed that these companies may be behind the scenes, and it is even possible that these companies are uniting and want to deal with the Wu family.

Then, this person also mobilized the whole family to bring rhythm with the water army account.

At this moment, Charlie was still on the helicopter returning to Aurous Hill.

He brushed some web portals at will, and he was quite relieved to see that everyone was aiming at the Wu family.

Regardless of whether Regnar personally participated in these conscientious things, he was the chief culprit who helped Nanshan to be the abuser.

If it were not for him to support Nanshan, Nanshan would not have the opportunity to get up, let alone poison so many minors.

Therefore, although Nanshan is dead, the Wu family must also pay for this matter!

But when he was browsing all kinds of comments, he suddenly found a post from a netizen called Anfen.

After reading it, he was very upset with this person’s remarks.

Therefore, he instructed Issac: “Find the best hacker, touch this person’s information, and see if he has collected the Wu family’s money, and if so, expose all the evidence chains, making Wu family worse. !”

Issac nodded immediately and said: “Okay young master, I will make arrangements!”

Charlie said again: "By the way, locate me the actual address of the PR army and catch him to Mr. Orvel's kennel!"

Issac asked: "Mr. Wade how do you deal with this PR guru?"

Charlie said coldly: "The rumormaker, must die!"

Chapter 1045

This PR named Anfen and guarding oneself is nothing but a shameless ordinary person.

Although he has some ability to call on the PR, in front of a real top hacker, he is simply a transparent person.

After the hacker hacked into his computer, he immediately investigated his personal information.

First of all, this person is from Hui Province and his family is in Lu'an City.

Secondly, this person has indeed just received 20 million in cash from the Wu family.

Again, this man stupidly used his bank card to collect the money.

And the hacker also found the chat history between him and Wu's family.

In the chat log, Roger asked him if he could help the Wu family whitewash. He immediately said that he had 10,000 ways to help whitewash, and he had done this more than once.

He also took out the case of helping Wu Qi whitewash and preached, in order to make Roger believe in his strength and willing to give him this list.

After the hacker got the information and chat records, he immediately reported it to Issac.

Issac reported to Charlie again and asked him: "How do you plan to do this, Master?"

Charlie said lightly: "We should have observer in Lu'an, right?"

Issac nodded immediately and said, "Of course, every city in the country has our observers."

"Okay!" Charlie said with satisfaction: "If this is the case, it will be staged immediately, and this person will be caught by me first. Lu'an should not be far from Aurous Hill, right?"

Issac said: "The straight-line distance is just over 200 kilometers."

Charlie said, "The helicopter will arrive in less than an hour. In this way, you can have someone catch him now and send him directly to Orvel's dog farm by helicopter."

"In addition, after catching him, let the hacker expose all the information to the Internet, I want to completely ruin the Wu family."

"Okay!" Issac nodded and immediately began to order.

Lu'an is a small city in Hui Province. Its economic development is not impressive, and housing prices and consumption are not high.

And this leader of the PR forces, who is called Anfen has not finished his elementary school and basically has no culture. He belongs to the bottom of society. If he starves to death, it won't bother many.

However, the Internet age gave this person a chance to achieve something for himself. He started cursing on the Internet at first. Earlier, if one gave him 50 cents, he could hire him to scold others on the Internet for a day. Later, he gradually found the trick. As a PR soldier, he is now a rich man in this small city, living in a single-family villa and driving a Mercedes-Benz car, and he has the feeling of being a master.

Today, an accident in the Wu family brought him 20 million in income, which made him ecstatic.

At this time, he didn't care about eating, so he arranged work for his PR soldiers at home and asked them to use various methods to help the Wu family clean up, and even asked them to spread rumors that a popular star cheated, hoping to rely on the news that the rumors star cheated. To attract the enthusiasm of Wu's news.

He is already familiar with work like this, so the arrangement is very smooth.

But he didn't know that at this moment, there was already a team of people starting from the city and rushing to the villa area where he was.

Just as he had just finished arranging the work and was enjoying himself with a cigarette in his mouth, the door of the villa was suddenly opened with a door breaker!

Immediately afterwards, a group of people in black with live ammunition rushed into the villa.

He and his family were frightened suddenly.

Chapter 1046

One of the men in black stepped up to him, put a gun against his forehead, and asked in a cold voice, "You are on your own?"

The head of the PR was so scared that he hurriedly said: "I am not, I am not! I don't understand what you are talking about, who are you?"

The man in black said coldly: "Who are we, you will know soon, come with us!"

The PR guru hurriedly shouted: "Follow you! Why did you break into my house? If you don't leave, I will call the police!"

Two men in black walked forward directly, one of them grabbed his arms and twisted them back, then twisted his arms directly.

The man screamed with pain, and the other person didn't intend to spare him. He directly slanted down 45 degrees and kicked his two knees fiercely, and even kicked both legs directly from his knees!

The head of the PR army almost fainted in pain, and his family was crying with fright.

The man in black sneered: "Isn't it great on the Internet? You dare to use your fingers and type casually? Why do you just get confused today? People like you are not awesome in reality."

The leader of the PR army hurriedly cried: "Daddys, grandpas, I'm just a cockroach, please let me go! I can give you money, I have a lot of money!"

One of the people in black shouted angrily: "Relying on betraying your conscience to make a few stinky money will make you look bad? A dog like you will live in this world in vain!"

After that, he took out a cigar cutter, grabbed the opponent's right hand, and said coldly: "Aren't you eating with 10 fingers? Okay, today I will let you see how your job is broken. !"

Subsequently, the cigar was cut 10 times in a row, leaving 10 fingers on the ground...

The PR guru was so desperate and desperate, but he heard the man in black say: "This is just a prelude, is it already scared like this? Don't worry, come with us to Aurous Hill, the fun is still to come!"

The PR guru cried and said, "Grandpa spare my life, I'm only 25 years old, and I don't want to die!"

The man in black said coldly: "Our young master has already said that, the rumor, you will die!"

After that, he waved his hand and said coldly: "Take this man away and send it to the outskirts of Dongshili, where the helicopter will come right away!"

Then a group of people in black drove the disabled PR guru directly out of the door, stuffed him into the car, and drove towards the outskirts.

At this time, Roger, who was in Suzhou, was still waiting for the PR to help the Wu family wash their whites and at the same time help the Wu family to divert attention.

But he did not expect that another hot search soon appeared on the Internet!

“Regnar Wu throws 20 million and hires the PR to wash himself off!”

Below this hot search, there are screenshots of all the chat records of Roger and the PR boss, payment vouchers and screenshots of bank accounts!

This time, the entire network exploded even more!

The Wu family has detonated a powder keg with Internet public opinion!

No one thought that the Wu family would dare to be so shameless at this time. This greatly aroused the indignation and sense of justice in everyone’s hearts!

Regnar was originally searched for by Article 1 and was so overwhelmed. At this time, his assistant suddenly told him: “Chairman, it’s not good, something has happened. All the chat records between the young master and the PR were exposed. Now! The public opinion attacks on the Wu family on the Internet are now more powerful!”

Regnar took out his mobile phone and took a look, he almost went away without being angry!

He stepped forward to Roger, raised his hand and slapped him in the face, and yelled: “You are something that has not succeeded in success, but is more than defeated! Who makes you do it yourself?!”

Chapter 1047

Roger felt very wronged.

He also wanted to help his father share his worries, but he didn’t expect this PR guru to be so unreliable!

Not only unreliable, but also dare to betray him!

He was extremely angry and said to Regnar: “Dad! The PR guru took my money and dared to expose me. I must smash him into pieces!”

Regnar said coldly: "You are really not ordinary stupid. How can he dare to fight against our Wu family for a mere unscrupulous sailor? It must be the people behind this thing who are doing us!"

Roger hurriedly asked: "Dad, who do you think did this thing? Who is so bold that not only did he dare to kill my uncle and the core members of the entire gang of beggars, but also dare to openly confront the Wu family!"

Regnar gritted his teeth and said: "I'm also considering this issue, but I really can't imagine, who has such a great energy, and these families who have had some conflicts with us during the festival have long been convinced by us. They simply don't have the ability to plan such a big thing..."

Roger couldn't help asking: "Dad, what do you mean is that a stronger family targeting us?"

Regnar sighed: "I can't figure it out now, but I suddenly felt that this matter might have something to do with Charlie in Aurous Hill!"

"Charlie?!" Roger exclaimed, and said, "He shouldn't have such a great energy? It's possible to say that it's possible to be a local snake in Aurous Hill, but how could he have such strength? Catch all the core members of the Beggar Gang? Even the Wu family may not have such strength!"

Regnar nodded and said, "What you said is indeed reasonable, but the reason why I judge this is because I just saw a message on the Internet!"

Roger hurriedly asked: "What is it?"

Regnar said with a black face, "You d*mn uncle, the batch of children he wanted to buy this time was stolen from the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute."

Speaking of this, Regnar paused slightly, gritted his teeth and said: "I investigated the identity of this Charlie before. He grew up in the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute!"

"It turned out to be like this!" Roger exclaimed, and said, "If you say that, the children who were stolen this time can be regarded as Charlie's younger siblings!"

"Right!" Regnar said: "That's why I speculated that this matter should be inseparable from Charlie!"

Roger couldn't help asking: "Dad, how can Charlie do this? Even his backers in Aurous Hill don't have such a strong ability! Even if the Song family comes forward, they can't have such a strength!"

Regnar said with some worry: "So this is what I worry about the most. If the Song family is his backer, then I am not afraid at all, but I am afraid of Issac!"

Back in Aurous Hill, Regnar and his son were beaten out of Shangri-La by Issac.

At that time, both of them had their legs broken, and finally waited for the helicopter to arrive. Issac didn't even allow the helicopter to land in the square in front of Shangri-La. It can be said that the Wu father and son were not given any face.

However, Issac is a member of the Wade family, everyone knows this, so the Wu family father and son dare not ask him to settle accounts.

Regnar now suspects that the person who has the ability to kill the entire gang of beggars in Suzhou in a short time is Issac!

Hearing this judgment, Roger couldn't help but get nervous. He looked at Regnar and blurted out and asked, "Dad, why does Issac help that Charlie? He himself is just the spokesperson of the Wade family."

"It stands to reason that if it was his own decision, he would not be able to mobilize such a powerful force. There must be a lot of Wade Family relationships behind this incident. How dare he use Wade Family relationships for Charlie??"

"Could it be..."

When Roger said this, his face had become extremely ugly.

He looked at his father and asked in a low voice, "Dad, that Charlie wouldn't be a member of the Wade family? This would make sense. He is a member of the Wade family. That's why Issac gave him face like this. He is Wade Family, so he can have such a great energy!"

Chapter 1048

Regnar looked shocked, hesitated for a moment, waved his hand and said, "No, it's still impossible. It is impossible for Wade family member to go to Aurous Hill to be a live-in son-in-law! This is totally insulting. Thing! Not to mention that the Wade family is impossible. Even if the Wu family is less than one-tenth of the Wade family, it is absolutely impossible for me to let you or your brother go to Aurous Hill to be the son-in-law of a pauper family. This is totally unreasonable. !"

Roger frowned and said: "Then how to consider this matter, I can't consider it, is it Charlie?"

Regnar said: "I suspect it has something to do with him, but I can't figure out what kind of connection is in it. It just so happens that we have been trying to get revenge from him. This time, we even did revenge and investigation together! "

Roger hurriedly asked, "Dad, what do you mean, go to Aurous Hill again?"

"Yes!" Regnar gritted his teeth and said coldly: "This time, I must make that Charlie better than dead!"

With that, he looked at Roger and asked, "Did you communicate with Fredmen?"

"Communication!" Roger said hurriedly: "His meaning is very simple. As long as we move, he must keep up. He has a deep hatred of Charlie. Because of Charlie, he can't do everything. It is said to be painful."

"Okay." Regnar asked again: "How about Horiyah who was sent to the black coal mine to dig coal?"

Roger said: "The situation on her side is okay. Unlike the Changbai Mountain, the two have always had masters guarding and not robbing them. The Black Coal Kiln has no masters. If necessary, we can send someone there at any time to bring Horiyah. Get her back."

Regnar said with a black face: "The father and son of Changbai Mountain didn't snatch anyone over last time. This time they sent more people over. In any case, they must be snatched back by me!"

After speaking, Regnar said again: "Let the eight heavenly kings of our family pass! I still don't believe I can't get back the two stinky rag digging ginseng in Changbai Mountain!"

Roger exclaimed and said, "Dad, let the eight heavenly kings go? Not so? Isn't this a sledgehammer?"

After all, the Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. They not only have their own medical team but also their own master team.

The Wu family's master team is divided into three echelons.

Ranked in the third echelon are some veterans, who are much stronger than the average person, but they are not enough to see the real masters, they can only look after the home nursing home;

In the second echelon are some retired special forces with strong strength. These people are the personal bodyguards of the core members of the Wu family.

Ranked in the first echelon are the eight kings.

The Eight Heavenly Kings are martial arts masters who came out of the eight hidden Sejong gates, and they were dug up by the Wu family with a lot of money.

These eight people are very prominent in the Wu family. Under normal circumstances, they dare not ask them to come forward if they encounter any trouble.

Because these eight people are strategic nuclear weapons that will only be used at an emergency.

Regnar knew that Charlie's strength was extraordinary, and he brought so many bodyguards last time, but against Charlie they were completely useless.

He sent people to Changbai Mountain to snatch people, but the people sent were also killed.

This makes Regnar feel very depressed!

From the beginning to the present, he has never sought a bargain under Charlie's hands.

The successive failures have made him almost intolerable, and coupled with the blow of today's extinction, he almost collapsed.

So at this time, Regnar desperately needs a victory, so he must go all out, first use a crushing victory to comfort his injured heart!

So he gritted his teeth and said: "This time I must have a big victory! A complete and overwhelming victory!"

Chapter 1049

At this moment, Charlie's helicopter had already flown over Aurous Hill City.

Issac asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade what do you plan to do with Nanshan's daughter?"

Charlie said indifferently: "Her parents are gone, and now she's an orphan, so she can go directly to the orphanage."

Issac hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade don't leave things behind..."

Charlie waved his hand: "The older man has done something and what he hasn't done. It is impossible for me to hurt the child and send her to the orphanage. If someone from the Wu family comes to lead her, don't stop them."

Issac nodded and said, "I think it is impossible for the Wu family to come and adopt this child, because the Wu family now hates Nanshan and the couple. It is estimated that this time the Wu family will lose more than half of their property. , Tomorrow's stock market will reflect."

Charlie smiled slightly, and said: "That's right, the Wu family's strength is not good enough, I will help the Song family to become the first family in the south of the Yangtze River."

Issac said immediately: "Mr. Wade if you have any needs, just give your orders."

"It is Okay."

At this time, Issac said again: "By the way, the PR guru named Anfen has been sent to Orvel's kennel. Would you like to take a look?"

Charlie waved his hand: "It's just a smelly rag that relies on scolding people to eat. Just chop him up and feed him to the dogs. I won't see such a person, lest my eyes will be dirty."

Having said that, Charlie suddenly thought of Ichiro, this guy has been staying in Orvel's kennel.

So he asked Issac: "How is Ichiro?"

Issac smiled and said: "What else can he do? He raises, feeds, walks, and picks up dog dung every day. He doesn't dare to leave the kennel all day long. Now he only has to dare to go out and let his brother know. His brother will definitely spend a lot of money to kill him."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Let him persist in the kennel. If the time is right, I will send him back to Japan and let him compete with his brother for the property."

Issac said: "If Jiro knew that Ichiro was not dead, he would die of anger."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I don't know if he's angry, but by that time, it is estimated that Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will be mine."

Issac sincerely admired: "Mr. Wade you are really wonderful to play this set of Kobayashi's family, and I am amazed!"

Charlie smiled and said, "It's not so good, it's mainly because it just made use of the greed of Kobayashi's family, so this person is the least greedy. If there is more greed, it will cause disaster. Just like that kid who engages in PR forces. If he is not too greedy for money, he will not end up being chopped up and fed to the dog."

.....

Ten minutes later.

Charlie's helicopter landed on the top of Shangri-La.

When Charlie's plane landed, another plane had already sent the children to the People's Hospital.

Aunt Lena from the orphanage had already seen relevant information on the Internet and knew that the children had been rescued. They were all excited. Then they heard that the children were going to be sent to the People's Hospital, so they rushed over.

Originally wanted to go to the People's Hospital to have a look, but thought that this matter is now too hot on the Internet, he didn't want Aunt Lena and the others to think that this matter was behind the scenes, so he asked Issac to send a car to go home.

After arriving at Tomson's villa, Charlie did not rush in. Instead, he called Aunt Lena and asked her: "Aunt Lena, I heard that all the children have been found?"

Aunt Lena choked with excitement: "Yeah, Charlie, the children have been found back, and they are now under observation at the People's Hospital."

Charlie hurriedly asked: "Then the children are fine, right?"

"Yes, yes!" Aunt Lena said excitedly: "The doctor has already checked them because of taking sleeping pills. Now three children have woken up, and they are all fine. The doctor said to take a look and we can take them at night back to the orphanage."

Chapter 1050

While speaking, Aunt Lena asked in a low voice: "Charlie, did you make that video on the Internet? Did you find the children?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Aunt Lena, you look down on me too much, how can I have such a great ability."

Aunt Lena was silent for a moment, sighed, and said: "I watched the video, Jiang Ming seems to be dead...I really didn't expect this child to get this far..."

Charlie also sighed: "I also watched the video, Jiang Ming himself took the wrong path, Aunt Lena, don't be too sad."

"I know..." Aunt Lena said melancholy: "I thought I would definitely walk in front of each of your children. I was still thinking that in the future, when I am old and pass away, you will be there. At my memorial service, give me a flower..."

Speaking of this, Aunt Lena whispered softly: "I really didn't expect that a child would die in front of me nowadays, Jiang Ming, this child...ah...too annoying, but What a pity..."

"Yeah!" Charlie said: "Aunt Lena, don't think too much about it. I believe that Jiang Ming's incident will alert many people. His death may cause more people to correct their evils. The society has done a good thing."

Aunt Lena said: "You are right, Charlie, Auntie will not tell you for now. I have to take care of the children who wake up. Another day, don't forget to come to the orphanage!"

"OK, Aunt Lena!"

Charlie hung up the phone, sighed, and walked into the house.

.....

At this moment, Zhao Zhuo, who loves taking advantage very much. Just got off post.

Their factory work requirements are very strict, and it is strictly forbidden to carry mobile phones during working hours, so he has no knowledge of what happened today and the numerous news feeds on the Internet.

After he got off work, he changed into his clothes in the changing room, took out his mobile phone, looked down and found that there were countless WeChat reminders.

He opened WeChat curiously and found that the WeChat group of the original welfare institute had been fried.

Up to now, there are more than 3,000 messages that he hasn't read!

He flipped to the top curiously and began to look down one by one.

At the beginning, he saw 10 children lost in the orphanage. He didn't think it was so great. What does it have to do with him? He can't get a penny if they are missing, and he can't get a penny if they get back.

But when he looked down, he suddenly saw a video.

He hurriedly clicked on the video and watched it curiously. Halfway through, he was struck by lightning.

He did not expect that the person who stole 10 children from the orphanage would be Jiang Ming!

Seeing Jiang Ming kneeling on the ground and repenting, Zhao Zhuo couldn't understand it!

How can someone like Jiang Ming steal the children of the orphanage, who can make double the profits in one week by operating a fund at random?

Jiang Ming has a Mercedes-Benz and a Phaeton at his young age, which is so good in the eyes of Excellence! He is the great god in his own eyes!

Looking further back, Jiang Ming actually stood on the bridge, then dropped to a head headshot, turned over and fell into the river...

Zhao Zhuo was so scared that he dropped the phone!

This...what the h*ll is going on...

Jiang Ming is dead! ?

He is dead, what about his 620,000? There are 500,000 loan sharks loans borrowed from the app! Isn't this taking his own life!

Chapter 1051

At this moment, Zhao Zhuo felt that the whole world had collapsed in front of him.

He couldn't believe that Jiang Ming was dead, but in the video, the picture of Jiang Ming falling into the river was so clear.

He knew that Jiang Ming was really dead. The biggest problem now is, who is going to ask for his 620,000?

If he can't get the money back, he'll be finished, completely finished.

Because this 500,000 usury will continue to make money, and finally turn to an astronomical figure, driving him to ruins.

So he immediately called 110 and called the police. After the call was connected, he said in a panic: "Comrade police, I was deceived. Someone deceived me 620,000, but he is dead now. What should I do?"

The police said: "If the person concerned is dead, then this matter cannot be handled by us. It is recommended that you file a lawsuit with the court to apply for the recovery of your claims from his estate, or apply for his guardian or his immediate family members. Especially the parents will pay for it."

After hearing this, Zhao Zhuo immediately cried out: "Comrade Police, he is an orphan. He has no immediate family members or guardians. What should I do at this time?"

The police asked him: "Then what fixed assets does your debtor have? For example, a house or a car? If you have any, you can apply to the court for enforcement and sell his personal assets."

Hearing this, Zhao Zhuo suddenly recovered.

Jiang Ming was clearly dead, but he still left a Mercedes and a Phaeton!

That Mercedes-Benz may be worth three to four hundred thousand, but that Phaeton is very valuable!

If he can get this Phaeton, he will not only be able to cover debts, but the extra money will also make him a small profit!

Anyway, this Jiang Ming is now dead, and he doesn't have any relatives. It is only natural for him to take his property, and there should be no one to take care of it.

So Zhao Zhuo hung up the phone and drove the car straight to Jiang Ming's house.

Jiang Ming didn't buy a house in Aurous Hill, but he rented a one-bedroom apartment in a slightly remote place. Before the accident, his life was quite moist.

What Zhao Zhuo was thinking at this time was that after he goes to Jiang Ming's house, he first thought of a way to tow Jiang Ming's Phaeton away. He would definitely not be able to drive the car, but after towing it away, he could slowly figure out how to sell it.

He felt that even if a top-fit Phaeton was dismantled and sold parts, the money could be sold back, so he would not lose money.

But he didn't expect that at this moment, Zhongliang was also watching that popular video on the Internet!

Today was originally Orvel's treat. He and the core cadres of his staff were invited to have a meal at Classic Mansion, and Zhongliang was among them.

But while they were eating, everyone suddenly started to pay attention to this video that turned out.

These are all people from the underground world of Aurous Hill, and they naturally know something about the Beggar Gang, and they have a certain knowledge of the Regnar Beggar Gang.

Suddenly seeing someone destroy the whole gang of beggars, one by one was stunned, and they immediately started discussing at the banquet.

They are all very concerned about who did this thing. At the same time, they lamented that this person's ability is too strong. They didn't put the Wu family in their eyes at all. They rushed into the Wu family's turf and put Regnar, the heir of the Wu family. Nanshan's brother-in-law, and all of Nanshan's younger brothers were killed, this is simply not something that ordinary people can do.

Everyone speculated that this person must be a big figure in a certain super big family. Only Orvel knew very well in his heart that Mr. Wade must be handling everything!

At the beginning, Zhongliang was just like everyone else, only caring about curiosity and gossip.

However, when he saw the scene where Jiang Ming was killed, his heart suddenly shook.

d*mn it! It turned out to be the kid who hit his car!

He hadn't returned the car to before he was killed? !

Is this too nonsense?

He is dead, who will pay for his car?

Chapter 1052

This car itself cost more than 2 million, and it hasn't been a month since he bought it!

What's more f*cking is that he was so stupid that he didn't pull off and threw the crashed car directly to him!

He wanted to directly make him pay for the new car, but he didn't expect that he was dead.

Now not only the new car has not been found, but the Phaeton that crashed into it is still unknown where it is!

Thinking of this, Zhongliang gritted his teeth and said in his heart: "In any case, I must quickly find my smashed Phaeton, otherwise, I will lose a lot!"

Fortunately, he had asked the little brother to threaten the boy and knew where the boy lived.

So he didn't dare to delay, and immediately said to Orvel: "Orvel, I have to deal with something first, and then come back when I finish it."

Orvel nodded and said: "Then you go, and come back as soon as you are done. I will take you to the brilliant club in the evening."

The crowd cheered.

Zhongliang didn't have the mind to think about brilliant club. He just wanted to quickly find his Phaeton!

He got up and came out of Classic Mansion. His little brother and driver was watching him get on an old Audi a6 and waiting at the gate of Classic Mansion.

Zhongliang got into the car directly and said to his little brother: "Hurry up, go to the kid's house from yesterday!"

The little brother asked in surprise: "Brother Zhongliang, why are you going to the small house at this time? Don't you eat with Orvel?"

Zhongliang hurriedly urged: "Don't talk nonsense and drive quickly. I'm afraid that my Phaeton will be taken away by others!"

Zhongliang can be regarded as a person who has been in the underground world for a long time, so he is knowledgeable about many things.

He knew that once a person dies in an accident, there would be a lot of people spying on his property immediately around him.

He feel that now the boy is dead. What can he do if he does not get his stuff?

So he was worried about his Phaeton being taken away.

After all, the top-fit Phaeton is still very valuable!

Thinking of this, he found another Phaeton key from the glove box of the Audi a6.

No matter what, he has to drive the car back first. Even if he spends money to repair the car, you can't lose a Phaeton for nothing.

Zhao Zhuo came to the downstairs of Jiang Ming's house before him.

Seeing that Phaeton was parked downstairs, he was immediately relieved.

As long as the Phaeton is still there, his debt will be fine.

But then he had another trouble. He couldn't drive, and he didn't have a car key. This Phaeton couldn't be removed at all!

If the car can't be taken away, it will naturally be impossible to sell it for money.

Thinking of this, he called a friend who was working in a repair shop and asked him: "Can you come to Jinx District and help me tow a car?"

The other party knows what kind of virtue Zhao Zhuo is. This grandson likes to take advantage of him. When he visits a friend's house, he can't wait to make two poops at his friend's house in order to rub other people's toilet paper and water.

So the other party immediately said to him: "The tow truck is okay, but you have to pay for it first. There are more than ten kilometers from here to the Jinx. You pay 800 first!"

Zhao Zhuo angrily scolded: "It's just that way, you ask me for 800, why the h*ll don't you grab it?"

The other party said disdainfully: "At this price, you love to procrastinate!"

Chapter 1053

As soon as the other party said such unfeeling words directly, Zhao Zhuo did not dare to pretend to be forced.

He hurriedly said: "Good brother 800 is 800, you come fast, I am in a hurry."

Convenience said: "You transfer the money from WeChat to me first, otherwise, what if you shake it a little bit? You have always been unreliable in doing things. I f*cking learned it a long time ago!"

Zhao Zhuo helplessly said: "Oh, elder brother, you have the final say, I will transfer the money to you from WeChat, you hurry up, don't be too slow!"

"The money arrives before leaving, otherwise there will be no way to speak!"

Zhao Zhuo didn't dare to delay any more, he quickly took out his mobile phone, immediately found the other party, and then transferred 800 to the other party.

But when he clicked to confirm the payment, he realized that his bank card balance was insufficient!

Only then did he realize that in order to let Jiang Ming help him make money, he had given him almost all of his family property. His thinking was simple, the more he gave, the more he earned, so he didn't think much about it, and only left 500 for himself. Money for living expenses, planning to support Jiang Ming to give the money to himself.

As a result, he can't even pay 800.

Zhao Zhuo could only pay him 500, and sent a voice begging: "Brother, I only have 500 in my card now. You should take the remaining 300 later, and I will pay you back immediately when I get the money."

The other party directly responded with a voice: "Don't come to this set with me, don't I know you? Last time I went to Hong Kong with my girlfriend, you asked me to help you buy a set of cosmetics for your girlfriend, that set of cosmetics I bought for 1,320, and you only gave me 1,100. You said that you didn't have enough money and you would pay me after the salary. What happened? You still owe me 220! How can I trust you again?"

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly pleaded: "My good brother, it was indeed my fault last time. I really forgot about it! But this time you can rest assured that I will never forget! This 220, I will also Give it back to you, okay?"

"You first accept the 500, and then drive over to help me tow the car away. When I sell the car, I will pay you the remaining 520, OK? So, I will give you 600!"

The other party's tone did not relax: "No, you must give me 800 today, otherwise I won't come, sorry."

After speaking, the other party clicked to collect the payment, and then returned 280 to him, saying: "This 220 is what you owe me, and you take the remaining 280. If you want me to tow, then you can take another 800. !"

"you....."

Zhao Zhuo was almost mad. This kid didn't come to help. He also deducted 220 from himself. Now he only has 280, and it is impossible to find a trailer!

Thinking of this, he could only gritted his teeth and said: "Okay, I'll find someone to borrow money, and I borrowed enough 800 for you. Have you come and help me tow the head office?"

The other party greeted: "Yes, anyway, I'm fine now, I'll come when your money arrives."

Zhao Zhuo immediately sent a group message to his colleagues: "I am Zhao Zhuo. I have something urgent and need a few hundred for emergency help. Can you lend me 520? I will give you the salary!"

He only has 280 left in his hand, and wants the other party to help him tow the truck, which is 520 short.

As a result, the popularity of this grandson was really bad. He sent message to 60 or 70 colleagues in a group, and no one lent him money.

Even people in the 80s ignored him, and those who took care of him directly rejected him.

The reasons for refusal are naturally varied. Some say that they have no money, some say that the money has been deposited into financial management, and some say that they have lost their gambling.

In short, there is no one to lend him the money.

Zhao Zhuo, really couldn't think of any way, so he could only call his girlfriend and asked, "Juan, can you lend me 520?"

His girlfriend panted violently and said, "Zhao Zhuo, are you sick? They are all boyfriends. They send 520 to their girlfriend. If you ask me to send it to you, do you want to be shameless? "

Zhao Zhuo hurriedly explained: "Juan, I didn't mean that. I really have something wrong now. I need 520 urgently. You can lend it to me first and return it to you when I get pay."

The other party said a few times, "...Zhao Zhuo...you...you...you are too unpromising. You borrowed 520? How about your savings? Isn't there more than a hundred thousand? Where did it go?"

Zhao Zhuo said: "Oh, this is a long story, so you can give me 520 to use it first, can't I pay you back then?"

Chapter 1054

At this time, there was a man's voice on the other end of the phone, panting heavily, while deliberately lowering his voice and said: "Oh, you are talking nonsense with him at the critical moment, can you just give him the money quickly? Don't let him delay things!"

Zhao Zhuo suddenly asked vigilantly: "Juan, why is there a man's voice over there? Who are you with?"

The other party hurriedly said: "Oh, it's my cousin, am I not hurt? I've been practicing waist exercises in bed, but I don't practice well, so I asked him to come and help."

Zhao Zhuo let out a cry, thinking that when he called last time, his girlfriend was doing waist training in bed, so he didn't doubt it anymore.

At this time, his girlfriend said on the other end of the phone: "It's okay, I won't talk nonsense with you, I will transfer the money to you on WeChat later."

Upon hearing this, Zhao Zhuo immediately became happy, and said hurriedly: "Juan, you are so kind, thank you."

The other party said hurriedly: "Okay, I won't talk to you anymore, I'll hang up!"

After the other party hung up the phone, she sent Zhao Zhuo a red envelope of 520.

Zhao Zhuo was overjoyed, and immediately called all the 800 in his account to his friend in the garage.

Then he hurriedly urged: "Brother, the 220 has been paid back to you, and the 800 has been called to you. Come here, I am in a hurry!"

The other party charged the money immediately and said, "I will pass this time. It will take more than 20 minutes to get to you."

"Great!" Zhao Zhuo said excitedly: "Call me when you get there."

Zhao Zhuo squatted in front of the Phaeton car, anxiously waiting for his friend to come over.

Ten minutes later, the other party called and told him that he would be there in a few minutes.

But at this time, an old Audi a6 had already parked in front of him.

Zhongliang finally breathed a sigh of relief when he saw that his Phaeton was here.

d*mn, although no one repaired the car for him, it is a part of the loss.

Otherwise, if this car is not found, then the kid dead, and he is really at a loss.

Thinking of this, he said to his little brother: "I drive that Phaeton back, you follow me."

The little brother nodded immediately: "Okay, Brother Zhongliang."

Zhongliang pushed the door and got out of the car. He was upset because the car broke down and no one repaired it. He lost another remote control key.

Repairing a car is estimated to cost hundreds of thousands, with a remote control key, which is estimated to be several thousand larger, and the f*cking loss is really heavy.

Zhongliang couldn't help sighing in his heart, this is truly a disaster! It seems that he will burn incense in the temple another day. Isn't it a bit too old this year?

Just thinking about it, he got out of the car and was about to take the key to unlock the Phaeton, and suddenly saw a kid squatting in front of the Phaeton.

Zhongliang, who was upset, frowned and looked at the other man, cursing coldly, "What the h*ll are you doing? Go and squat!"

Although Zhao Zhuo has no money, no skills and a stinky stalker who loves to take advantage of it, his temper is like a stone in that pit, smelly and hard.

To use a common saying to describe it is exhausting.

Of course, when he kneeled and licked others, he couldn't see the impoverishment in his temper, but he looked at the middle-aged man in front of him and then at the car he walked down, and he immediately felt a little disdainful.

Isn't it just an old second-hand a6? This broken car is far worse than his own Phaeton, so d*mn it dare to play force with him? What does it have to do with him?

Thinking of this, Zhao Zhuo, who was squatting on the ground, looked up at Zhongliang, and said disdainfully: "I can squat wherever the f*ck I want, do you have a problem?"

Chapter 1055

When Zhongliang was upset, he didn't expect that a rag squatting in front of his car would dare to act as a force!

Without saying anything, he directly raised his foot and kicked Zhao Zhuo to the ground. Then, before Zhao Zhuo turned over, he immediately rushed to punch him and kick him.

Zhao Zhuo who was beaten, yelled, angrily said: "Why are you hitting me? Why are you hitting me? did I provoke you, did I provoke you here, are you sick?"

Zhongliang directly hit his nose with a fist, his face was covered with blood, and he cursed coldly: "You are all right, why squat in front of my car? You squat in front of my car and talk to me? Pretending to be forced, and I am not allowed to hit you?"

After finishing speaking, he punched again.

Zhao Zhuo, who was smashed, had a star in his eyes and almost passed out.

At this time, Zhongliang's little brother saw a fight here, so naturally he hurried to the door and got out of the car. After a word, he rushed to help his boss beat Zhao Zhuo severely.

Zhao Zhuo had been beaten miserably, and the other party suddenly added another helper, who beat him into despair.

At this time, he no longer had the enthusiasm that he had just now.

Seeing that the other party beating him nonstop, there is no fear at all, and they almost wants to beat him to death. Zhao Zhuo can no longer stand it. He cried and said, "Big brother, I was wrong, big brother, big brother, please don't fight. Brother will die if you beat again, brother....."

Zhongliang didn't mean to stop in the slightest, and he cursed while beating: "I'm having a f*cking stomach and there is no place to vent, you just came to the door, I won't kill you, I'm so sorry!"

Zhao Zhuo had been beaten to a faint, his face was full of blood, and he was completely inhuman.

At this moment, a tow truck suddenly drove up to the front. The tow truck driver was in the car and shouted through the window: "Hey, what are you doing? If you don't stop, I will call the police!"

This person is the friend of Zhao Zhuo.

This kid has a good character and a sense of justice. In fact, he didn't recognize it at all. The one who was beaten was Zhao Zhuo, but seeing the two men beaten so hard, a poor man with blood on his face, he decided to come forward.

At this time, the anger in Zhongliang's heart had also disappeared a lot, and all these anger had been transformed into force and hit Zhao Zhuo.

Seeing someone showed up and threatened to call the police, Zhongliang felt that more things were better than less things, so he hurriedly left. After all, the big brother was still waiting for him.

So he said coldly to Zhao Zhuo: "Boy, today is your fate, otherwise I would have killed you!"

After speaking, he kicked Zhao Zhuo a few meters away, took out his car key, and opened the door of Phaeton.

Zhao Zhuo was already going into a coma. His swollen egg eyes narrowed into a small slit. He suddenly saw Zhongliang open the Phaeton car door and sat in. He was suddenly anxious!

"Why are you driving my car!" Zhao Zhuo roared, and rushed towards the Zhongliang, rolling on the ground.

Before Zhongliang came back to his senses, his legs were already tightly hugged by Zhao Zhuo.

Chapter 1056

The blood on Zhao Zhuo's face rubbed his entire trouser legs, very disgusting!

Zhongliang was so angry that he kicked him out again, and sternly said: "You kid do not want to live, right? Is it death you desire? d*mn, when did my car become yours? "

When Zhao Zhuo heard this, he thought that Zhongliang was also Jiang Ming's creditor, thinking that he was also here to grab the car, so he desperately rushed up again, clinging to Zhongliang's leg, and shouting: "This Phaeton is mine! This Phaeton is mine! You can't drive away!"

Zhongliang was furious, grabbed his collar, and kept pulling his face fiercely: "Is your brain sick? Don't you see I have the car key?"

Zhao Zhuo cried loudly: "No! This is Jiang Ming's car. Jiang Ming owes me 620,000. I want to use this car to repay the debt. You can't drive it away. You want me to drive it away. It'll cost my life!"

*"I'm fcking your mother!" Zhongliang punched him again and scolded: "You really have a fcking brain problem! I tell you, this car itself belongs to Mr. me the kid Jiang Ming. He ran up to my car. I threw the car to him and let him recover it. Now that he is dead, I will naturally drive the car back. If you f*cking dare to talk too much, be careful I will now take your life!"*

Zhao Zhuo cried and said, "How is this possible? This is impossible. This car is obviously Jiang Ming's. Jiang Ming has two cars, one is a Mercedes-Benz and the other is a Phaeton. His Mercedes-Benz has crashed, so He drove the Phaeton now, and now that he is dead and still owes me so much money, I must take this car to repay the debt! If you don't give me this car, then you kill me, and I don't want to live!"

Zhongliang is also about to collapse.

He didn't expect this kid to be so stubborn who couldn't be killed. He had beaten him like this, and he even dared to hold his leg and not let go.

But in broad daylight, he can't really kill him, otherwise, even if he mix well, he can't suppress such a big thing...

Thinking of this, he just wanted to get rid of the neurosis quickly, so he carried Zhao Zhuo to his Phaeton car like a chicken, pointed at the entire rear of the Phaeton that was hit, and said coldly: "Come on. Your dog's eyes can see it clearly. Is there any injury on the back of this car? Why is there an injury? It was that Jiang Ming drove the Mercedes-Benz yesterday and rear-ended this Phaeton. Now you should believe it?"

Zhao Zhuo's face was bloody, but he still shook his head and said, "I don't believe it! I don't believe it! This car belongs to Jiang Ming! I want to use it to pay off debts, you can't drive away!"

Zhongliang felt helpless for the first time.

What should he do now? Can't he really kill him?

But if he hit him like this, he won't let go, just so entangled and consumed, this is not a way!

In desperation, he shouted to his little brother: "Willson Wu, you take out the driving license of this Phaeton from the armrest box of the Audi a6! Hurry up!"

The little brother hurriedly took out a certificate from the car and handed it over quickly.

Zhongliang opened the certificate, handed it to him, pointed to the license plate number on the driving book of the car, and said, "You see the license plate number, is it this Phaeton?"

The car license is the ID card of a car, which records all the information of the car, including its license plate number, frame number, engine number registration date, registration place and its owner.

Zhao Zhuo narrowed his eyes and only glanced at it, and suddenly he felt as desperate as an ice cellar!

The license plate number on this driving permit is exactly the same as that of the Phaeton.

Moreover, the owner's name written on this driving permit is called Zhongliang, not Jiang Ming!

Chapter 1057

Zhao Zhuo finally knew what kind of scam he had experienced.

It turned out that Jiang Ming was not as rich and successful as he said. Not only that, but he also caused a disaster.

He crashed Zhongliang's Phaeton and urgently needed to buy a new one for Zhongliang, which is the fundamental reason why he boasted about money making and deceived him to get more than 600,000.

But the worst thing now is that this b@stard is dead.

In other words, he can't get back his 620,000, not even a cent.

At this time, his heart was painful, more painful than the wound on his body.

Zhongliang, who beat him violently, saw that he was no longer crazy as he was just now, and he was a little relieved, and said to him: "You can see clearly this time, I am going to drive away. There's nothing wrong with the car."

Although Zhongliang looked down on Zhao Zhuo in his heart, Zhao Zhuo's crazy state just now made him somewhat jealous.

He also mixed up all the way, so he knows that this kind of person is actually very scary. If he really anxes him, he is likely to desperately fight.

So it is better not to provoke such a person, at least not to provoke him now.

When Zhao Zhuo heard his words, his heart was already gloomy.

He didn't even dare to think about what he should do in a week.

Because, after a week, some platforms are about to start asking for a repayment. By that time, he will not have the money, and he doesn't know how they will treat him.

Seeing that he was in a daze, Zhongliang seemed to be lost in a daze, so he didn't bother to talk nonsense with him any more, so he got into the car and started and drove away.

Zhao Zhuo sat on the ground alone, smelling the exhaust left by the Phaeton car, tears streaming down his face.

His tears kept streaming, mixed with blood and dust on his face, leaving two obvious tear marks on his face.

His guy who drove a trailer dared to jump out of the car, walked to him, squatted down, patted him on the shoulder and asked, "Excellent, do you want me to call the police for you?"

Zhao Zhuo cried and said, "I'm done, the person who killed me is also dead, what's the point of calling the police..."

The other party didn't know what he had gone through. At this time, he sighed softly and said: "Excellent, then can't you drag the car?"

Zhao Zhuo looked at him and yelled: "You're so f*cking blind, didn't you watch the car and those people driving it away? I'm dragging a feather!"

The other party couldn't help but frowned and thought, if he had just yelled, he would have been beaten to death. He is kindly coming over to care about him now, did he pretend to be with me?

Okay, then you can pretend it yourself, I won't play with you!

Thinking of this, he stood up and said to Zhao Zhuo: "Then if you don't want to tow the truck, I will leave."

Zhao Zhuo came back to his senses and hurriedly said: "You return the 800 to me before leaving!"

The other party said angrily: "You are arguing with me, I don't need money to drive all the way? I drive a car in the repair shop. As long as I go out, the repair shop will assume that I have started to pick up the job, regardless of you. If the car is not towed, I have to report the income to the repair shop when I go back!"

Zhao Zhuo angrily said: "I don't care about your reasons, it has nothing to do with me, I only know that I didn't let you tow the trailer, so you have to return my money to me!"

The other party was also anxious, and said in a huff, "I said you don't understand people's speech? The repair shop has regulations. As long as I take the truck, they will charge a fee. You ask me to return the money to you. Go back to the repair shop and they ask me for money, what should I do?"

Zhao Zhuo said coldly: "I'm the one who cares about you? what does it have to do with me, you quickly return the money to me!"

The other party did not expect that this person would not speak any truth at all, and said angrily: "A person like you deserves to be deceived and deceived into bankruptcy!"

Chapter 1058

After speaking, he ignored him and turned away.

Zhao Zhuo limped to catch up, and cursed: "You b@stard, quickly return the money to me, otherwise I will never finish with you!"

"Neurotic!"

The other party cursed, climbed onto the trailer and drove away.

Zhao Zhuo couldn't catch up with his truck, and his heart was extremely angry, but seeing that the other party had already left, he could do nothing, and his deep despair replaced the anger just now.

Now, his top priority is how to deal with the 500,000 usury.

At this moment, he felt that his life was almost desperate.

At this time he thought of his girlfriend Juan.

Zhao Zhuo is also an orphan. He has no father, no mother, and no relatives. This girl is his girlfriend, so he felt that Juan was his only relative.

Now that he has encountered such a major setback, when he is desperate and not knowing what to do, he just wants to see his beloved woman, hoping that his beloved woman can give him some comfort.

So he wiped his face with his clothes, limped to the gate of the community, and stopped a taxi.

The taxi driver had seen him look so terrible and didn't dare to pull over for him.

But he grabbed the other side's rearview mirror and didn't let go, and shouted: "If you don't pull over for me today, I will complain to your company!"

The taxi driver did not dare to blatantly refuse the ride, so he could only get him in the car and drove to the neighborhood where his girlfriend's house was located according to his request.

However, Zhao Zhuo is now penniless and can't afford the taxi fare.

He can only count in his heart, there is a very narrow alley near his girlfriend's house, and that alley cannot be driven in by cars, and it is very winding inside.

If he ask the driver to stop at that alley and then get into the alley while he is unprepared, he should not be able to catch up with him.

In this way, he won't have to pay for taxi fare.

Zhao Zhuo does what he thinks.

When he was approaching his girlfriend's house, he asked the driver to stop at the alley. The driver turned off the meter and said, "A total of 45."

Zhao Zhuo nodded, turned on the phone, opened WeChat and scanned it and said: "I don't have cash, scan the QR code to pay."

The driver said directly: "There is a WeChat QR code in the back row. Please scan the code directly."

Zhao Zhuo pretended to scan the QR code, then pretended to tinker for a while, and said to the driver: "Mr.'s money has been transferred."

The driver said: "I didn't hear the prompt, I have all voice prompts."

Zhao Zhuo deliberately said: "Maybe the internet is not good, and you will receive it immediately."

After finishing talking, Zhao Zhuo immediately pushed the car door, and ran into the alley as if stepping crazy.

He thought that he was familiar with the terrain of this alley, and he could get rid of the driver by going in and around twice. He didn't expect that he was beaten so badly. As soon as he got out of the car and was about to run, he immediately ran out of breath. He felt a sharp pain in my abdomen, and one fell to the ground without standing still.

At this time, the driver also realized that he was going to run, and hurriedly pushed the door to chase him, and found that he had fallen to the ground, and said angrily: "You want to run before the money has been paid? Give me the money quickly!"

Chapter 1059

Zhao Zhuo lay on the ground, looking at the fierce taxi driver, his expression was no longer the arrogance he had when he stopped the car and threatened him.

He looked at the driver, crying and begging: "Master I just went bankrupt and have nothing, and I owe a debt. I was beaten into such a situation again. I really have no money to pay the fare, please. Please let me go!"

The driver said angrily: "You owe a debt, and I still owe a debt. If I have money, would I still open a rental car? Do you think this 45 is nothing? This 45 is enough for me to eat for two days! Get it out for me quickly!"

Zhao Zhuo cried out: "Master I really don't have money, and I don't have any valuables on my body. I beg you, you can take pity on me!"

The taxi driver yelled coldly: "Don't come to this set with me, then if you don't give me the money, I'll call the police!"

When Zhao Zhuo heard this, he hurriedly got up, knelt under his feet, and kowtowed to him: "Master I really have no money. Even if you kill me, I have no money. I beg you. I beg you, can't I just kowtow to you? You just treat me as your son and kowtow to you in the New Year to say hello. Don't you have to wrap me a red envelope too?"

The taxi driver had never seen such a shameless person, and he was trembling with anger: "You... why are you so shameless? Do you have no parents? If your parents knew that you were outside Kowtowing to others for 45, what will be their feelings?"

Zhao Zhuo's nose was sour: "Master tell you that I am an orphan. I had no father and no mother since I was a child. I grew up in the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute. Going away, that b@stard not only defrauded my 120,000 savings, but also defrauded me to loan him 500,000 usury from various loan apps. Now he is dead..."

When the taxi driver saw that he didn't seem to be telling lies, he couldn't help but be shocked: "Rushing to a well-off society, why are there such unlucky people?"

Seeing this, he really couldn't bear it, and continued to force him for the fare.

So he sighed and said to Zhao Zhuo: "For the sake of your pitiful life, since you have no father and no mother, forget it this time. If you are unlucky, I will ask you to ride in the car!"

When Zhao Zhuo heard this, he immediately knocked three heads again and said gratefully: "You are such a good person, you are my second-born parent!"

After speaking, he raised his head, looked at the taxi driver, and pleaded: "You have already asked me to take the car. Can you give me another 50 and treat me for a meal?"

The taxi driver was so annoyed that he kicked him away and cursed: "Sure enough, a poor person must have something to hate. You can say it if you are so shameless. You really f*cking convinced me!"

After speaking, the driver turned back to the taxi, started the car and left.

Zhao Zhuo struggled to get up from the ground, patted the soil on his body, and thought to himself: "Although the process was a bit bumpy, it ultimately saved the 45."

It took up 45 for the taxi driver, which made Zhao Zhuo feel a little better.

He limped to his girlfriend's house, thinking in his heart, the moment he sees his girlfriend, he must pounce in her arms and cry.

The girlfriend's house is in a shanty town in this city, which is the kind of self-built house, which is relatively shabby.

However, in Zhao Zhuo's eyes, this is a gold mine, because shanty towns are being managed everywhere now, saying that the house will be demolished when it is demolished, and the house will be lost when it is demolished. There are two or three houses in a row.

Therefore, he is also eager to get married with his girlfriend earlier, so that he can join their family and become a son-in-law, and after the demolition in the future, he can share some benefits.

Chapter 1060

When he came to the door of his girlfriend's house, he knocked on the door, but no one came out to open the door.

He didn't know that Juan, his girlfriend, was in her room at this time, and a customer of hers who bought fake cigarettes was doing the same thing intently.

He sent a call to his girlfriend on WeChat, and the other party did not respond. He thought that the other party was asleep, so he found a key under a pickle jar at the door of his girlfriend's house.

This is the secret that he discovered by chance that the future mother-in-law leaves key under the pickle jar. It may be that older people are easier to forget, so the future mother-in-law hid such a key in case of emergency.

But this time it was convenient for Zhao Zhuo.

After Zhao Zhuo took out the key, he opened the door and entered the courtyard of this self-built house.

After entering the yard, although the door to the room was closed, it was not locked.

So Zhao Zhuo opened the door and walked in, passing through the living room. He suddenly heard a very, very strange sound from the bedroom inside, like the soft moan of his girlfriend.

He limped to the door, and the more he listened, the more he felt something was not right, because the voice from inside seemed to be a man besides his girlfriend, and there was also a very crazy sense of rhythm.

Thinking of something, he kicked the door angrily and saw the naked people on the bed hugging each other tightly. The one below was his girlfriend Juan.

Zhao Zhuo was very angry at this moment, and he shouted hysterically: "Juan! Why you b!tch betraying me?!"

The two people on the bed let out a cry of fright, and then quickly turned over and hid under the bed. Juan wrapped her body very tightly and looked at Zhao Zhuo nervously: "You... why are you here? ? How did you get in?"

Zhao Zhuo angrily scolded: "How do you care about me getting in? If I didn't come in and see, I won't know that you dare to betray me!"

As he said, he looked at the fat man next to Juan, gritted his teeth and cursed: "You dog dare to sleep with my girlfriend, I'm fighting with you!"

After speaking, Zhao Zhuo rushed towards the fat man.

But before he got there, the fat man kicked him directly through the quilt, kicked him upside down with one kick, kicked out the door directly, and cursed, "So you're the silly waste." ! What kind of blessings can Juan enjoy following you? What good life can she live on? I heard that you can't make a lot of money. Do you still expect Juan to sell fake cigarettes to support you in the future?"

Juan asked in surprise: "Mr. Benj...you...how do you know that I sell fake cigarettes..."

The fat man petted and said: "Fool, I have smoked for so many years, can I still not get the real China and the fake China?"

Juan was even more surprised, and blurted out: "Mr. Benj, you know that the cigarettes I sell are fake, why do you buy them? And you buy so many at once?"

The fat man picked her chin and said with a smile: "I feel sorry for you. I want you to make more money. It doesn't matter to me to buy a few fake cigarettes, I will be happy as long as you can be happy!"

Juan's face was full of the shyness of a girl, she threw herself in his arms and said shyly: "Mr. Benj, you are really kind to me..."

Chapter 1061

Zhao Zhuo struggled to get up at this time, already hating these two dog man and woman, crazy in his heart.

Unexpectedly, they dare to flirt and scold at this time. How d*mn shameless? Do they take him seriously?

Originally, he had accumulated countless negative energy, and seeing that the whole person was about to collapse, he ran to Juan to talk to her and find some comfort.

Unexpectedly, before arriving at Juan's house, he was ridiculed by the taxi driver and kicked, and he was forced to knock him several heads.

This brought his mood to the edge of almost collapse.

But he did not expect that a bigger bomb would be behind, and he did not expect that his beloved woman would betray him!

When he thought of this, he was completely crazy.

Now he doesn't think about it anymore, what should he do with the 500,000 usury? Can't think about what to do if you are beaten today or humiliated today.

The only thing he thought about now was to make the couple pay the price.

So he crawled to the kitchen and took a sharp knife that was boneless, ready to kill the b!tch and the man.

At this time, the fat man Benj had also put on his pants and walked out of the bedroom. What he thought was to get rid of that d*mn Zhao Zhuo.

As soon as he arrived at the door, he found that Zhao Zhuo had disappeared. He thought that this kid should have escaped in anger. He was about to go back and said to Juan. He suddenly felt a sharp pain in his back.

At this time, Zhao Zhuo had already inserted the sharp knife into his back.

Then Zhao Zhuo drew out the knife, pushed the fat man to the ground, and rushed into the bedroom.

In the bedroom at this time, Juan was not wearing any clothes, but lying on the bed waiting for the fat man Benj to return.

After all, the two hadn't finished their work just now, they were suddenly interrupted by Zhao Zhuo. She was still waiting for her lover to drive Zhao Zhuo away before coming back and continuing with her.

But she never expected that the person who stepped forward at this time turned out to be Zhao Zhuo, and he also held a knife in his hand.

Juan was so scared that she hurriedly jumped to the corner wrapped in a quilt, and said in a panic: "Zhao Zhuo, what are you going to do?!"

"Me?" Zhao Zhuo gritted his teeth and cursed: "You betrayed me, I want your life!"

Juan said coldly: "I tell you not to be foolish. If something happens to me, the police will not let you go!"

Zhao Zhuo smiled miserably: "My life has been ruined. I originally expected you to give me the last light. It is you who really pushed me down the abyss!"

After that, Zhao Zhuo gritted his teeth and said: "You want to completely destroy me, then I will completely destroy you before I am destroyed!"

Juan was so frightened that she knew that Zhao Zhuo's expression was not joking with herself!

So she hurriedly shouted: "Mr. Benj, Mr. Benj, save me, Mr. Benj!"

Zhao Zhuo smiled and said: "Mr. Benj has been stabbed to death by me, now it's your turn!"

Juan saw that the sharp knife in his hand was full of blood!

She was about to collapse, crying and said to Zhao Zhuo: "Zhao Zhuo, I beg you to forgive me, I really didn't mean to betray you, you love me so much, are you willing to hurt me?"

Zhao Zhuo sneered and said: "I'm sorry, I don't love you anymore. I don't even love myself or the world anymore! So, I must make you pay, let you know, bully Anyone can do it, don't bully honest people!"

After speaking, Zhao Zhuo rushed to her front.

Juan shouted in despair, but then her shout stopped abruptly.

The sharp knife in Zhao Zhuo's hand has already been inserted into her heart...

Seeing Juan's silence, Zhao Zhuo was stunned for about 5 minutes.

Chapter 1062

Five minutes later, he took out his cell phone and dialed 110: "Hello, I want to surrender."

The other party hurriedly asked: "What's wrong with you? Why do you want to surrender?"

Zhao Zhuo said blankly: "I just killed someone..."

When the other party heard this, he blurted out and asked, "Where are you now? Are people dead?"

"Dead!" Zhao Zhuo glanced at Juan again, and then slowly reported the address of Juan's home.

Ten minutes later, two police cars and a 120 drove to the door of Juan's house almost at the same time.

The police rushed in with the doctor, first controlled Zhao Zhuo, handcuffed him, and then asked the doctor to check the conditions of the two victims.

The doctor quickly concluded that both victims were dead.

The police immediately took Zhao Zhuo into the police car and formally arrested him.

Zhao Zhuo, who was sitting in the police car, had a very indifferent expression. He knew that his life had been ruined anyway, and it didn't matter whether he was alive or dead.

Although his expression is very indifferent, his heart still hurts uncomfortably.

He suffered all his life, and has loved countless people with inferiority, but no one really loves him.

He once thought that Juan was the only person in the world who loved him. Why is that? He desperately wants to save money, give the future mother-in-law enough money as a gift, and marry Juan as his wife.

It was for this purpose that he desperately gave all of his belongings, together with the 500,000 loan usury, to Jiang Ming.

But it wasn't until the moment when he opened the bedroom door that he really realized that no one had loved him in his life.

As the saying goes, grief is greater than death.

Now Zhao Zhuo's heart is completely dead.

.....

Charlie had just arrived home not long ago.

Seeing him coming back, Claire hurriedly asked him, "You went out early today to help the orphanage find children?"

Charlie asked curiously: "How do you know?"

Claire said: "It has been spread all over the Internet. I knew that when I saw the news, you must have gone out for this matter."

Charlie nodded and said, "I also organized several friends to find them, but I didn't expect a mysterious person to send the children back. It was a false alarm."

He said this because he was afraid that his wife would think more about it. If his wife thought that he was behind the scenes, she might have opinions on him.

After all, although he didn't personally kill people today, he also commanded and killed many sc*ms.

Thinking of this, Charlie looked at Claire, deliberately trying to test her tone and attitude, so he said: "I also watched the video today. It's scary. So many people died."

Claire nodded and said, "It's a bit scary, but seeing those b@stards of the beggar gang have been punished, I feel very relieved, because I have seen many posts on the Internet exposing the behavior of the beggars. Helping people is really bad. They have killed so many children. It's really not a pity to die."

Charlie nodded in agreement.

The reason why he asked Issac's men to deal with the beggars and human traffickers was also because they deserved to die.

At this moment, Charlie suddenly received a push.

"This city has just cracked an intentional homicide case, and the suspect has been captured on the spot!"

At this time, in the WeChat group of the orphanage, someone of members: "Something happened to Zhao Zhuo! He killed someone and was taken away by the police! The news has been broadcasted all over!"

Chapter 1063

Charlie only knew that the news just now was about Zhao Zhuo.

Today the WeChat group of the orphanage completely exploded.

Everyone dare not imagine that everyone was eating together yesterday, and today two friends from the orphanage died.

Jiang Ming was the first to die. Everyone knew what he had done, so they felt that he was dead.

But no one thought that Zhao Zhuo, who had always liked to take advantage of others, would become a murderer.

And what he killed turned out to be his girlfriend and his girlfriend's lover!

Xiaofen sent a tearful expression in the group and said, "Why is this person Zhao Zhuo unable to think so? Even if his girlfriend betrayed him, he shouldn't have done such extreme behavior!"

Others said: "Hey, although I usually hate Zhao Zhuo, I think he is quite pitiful now. He was poking his heart out to his girlfriend, but he didn't expect the other party to treat him like that."

Another said: "Zhao Zhuo killed two people, will he be shot?"

"The news said that he surrendered himself, he should be treated with leniency? He didn't murder for money or other purposes, but because his girlfriend cheated in front of him. It is estimated that the court judged will sympathize a little bit!"

"Hey, the high probability is the death penalty, and the small probability is the death sentence with a reprieve. But even with a reprieve, his life is over."

Xiaofen sighed: "Aunt Lena also learned about the news just now. She seemed to be very injured and locked herself in the room and didn't want to come out."

Seeing this, Charlie felt a little distressed for Aunt Lena.

Regardless of whether these children grow up, they are good or bad, but these children are brought up by Aunt Lena.

Everyone is like her child, and she lost two children today.

Charlie, who had not spoken all the time, said in the group at this time: "Xiaofen, do you want us to see Aunt Lena?"

Xiaofen said: "No need Charlie, let Aunt Lena be quiet for a while."

"Alright..." Charlie couldn't help sighing.

He did not expect that Zhao Zhuo would end in such a way.

Although this person is annoying, he is really pitiful.

Most of the time why people are fooled is because they are greedy.

Therefore, he shut down all WeChat accounts of the orphanage, and today he no longer wants to hear related information.

.....

At this moment, the worst family in the world is the Wu family.

The Wu family was scolded as a dead dog on the Internet, and was frantically condemned by netizens across China. The scolding became more and more intense, and there was no intention to stop.

More importantly, the fact that they spent money to find the PR managers was completely exposed. This is just worse, and the people of the whole country hate the Wu family even more.

The Old Master of the Wu family, his whole being angry, almost lost his breath. He took a big rescue measure to save his life, but he was already in a deep coma.

Yaqina, Regnar's wife, was emotionally broken because she learned that her younger brother and his wife were dead, and that his family was dead. She smashed everything that could be smashed in the room.

Chapter 1064

Regnar didn't have the time to manage Yaqina at this time. At this time, instead of feeling sorry for her, who was emotionally broken, he hated her very much.

Because if it weren't for her, if it wasn't her d*mn brother, how could the Wu family encounter such a big credibility crisis? !

It doesn't matter if this d*mn Nanshan is dead, it is very likely that the Wu family will lose more than half of their assets. In that case, the Wu family will no longer be the first family in the region.

Moreover, the nature of this incident is really too bad. It is estimated that the people of the whole country will never forget this incident for a while, so for a long time to come, the Wu family will become hateful dogs in this world.

Worse still, the Wu family's business will definitely be affected very far-reachingly. It is possible that for a long time to come, the Wu family's assets will continue to shrink.

It is very likely that the Wu family will be reduced to a second-rate family.

The saddest thing is that Regnar has nothing to do with this.

He was already exhausted.

Because the most feared thing is to incite the anger of the people.

If one day the Wade Family also had a scam, and the people across the country hated it, then the Wade Family would not be able to recover.

Therefore, at this moment, the helms of large families across the country sighed deep in their hearts: "We must keep in mind the mistakes and lessons learned by the Wu family this time. Today's Wu family has done a great job to all large families across the country."

At this moment, Regnar has given up his reputation for saving the Wu family.

He is full of resentment now, and only thinks about one thing, which is to seek revenge on Charlie.

Roger ran over to him and said, "Dad, the Eight Heavenly Kings have replied. They said they only obeyed Grandpa's arrangements, and other people's orders were useless to them."

Regnar hurriedly asked, "Did the doctor say when your grandpa can wake up?"

Roger shook his head: "The doctor said that he couldn't judge for a while. Grandpa had a serious stroke this time."

Regnar frowned: "If the Eight Great Heavenly Kings do not come out, I am afraid that I will not be able to snatch the father and son back from Changbai Mountain..."

Roger said: "But we continue to wait like this, I don't know when Grandpa will wake up."

After that, Roger said again: "In my opinion, let's send some second-rate masters to try it out first. We will send a few more people this time."

Regnar thought for a moment, then lightly nodded and said, "It's not a way to wait. If that's the case, send someone there first."

Roger said at this time: "Dad, actually I don't quite understand why you are looking for these enemies of Charlie? In my opinion, these people are all rags. How can you expect them to kill Charlie?"

Regnar said indifferently: "Last time we underestimated the enemy, so we suffered such a big loss. This time, we must first stabilize and observe for a while later, first find some cannon fodder, and help us test."

After speaking, Regnar said again: "The two armies should not expose their main force in advance. Instead, they should find some cannon fodder and go to the opponent's position to test it. Once the opponent fires, we can find the opponent's firepower point. Where, then we will unplug the opponent's firepower point, so that if the army is overwhelmed, the opponent will undoubtedly die."

"Otherwise, if we send the main force directly, what if we are destroyed by the opponent's firepower first? Wouldn't we be taken away by a wave?"

Roger nodded, "Dad, I understand what you mean."

Regnar hummed, and said, "Since you are looking for cannon fodder, you must find someone who has hatred with the other party. Because of this cannon fodder, he will be desperate and dash forward not afraid of death. The family's Horiyah who was sent to the black coal kiln, Fredmen who couldn't do anything, and even those who had been beaten in the face by Charlie before, are all excellent candidates for cannon fodder!"

After that, he asked Roger: "Have the people who are ment to save Horiyah set off?"

Roger hurriedly said: "They have set off!"

Chapter 1065

In the past period of time, Horiyah has lived like years.

She is the eldest daughter-in-law of the Willson family, so she has never suffered. On the contrary, Horiyah's life was also very good during the years when the Willson family was successful.

So Horiyah didn't dare to say that it was a lifetime of fine clothes and food, but it was also a good life. Now she has been reduced to mining coal day and night in the black coal kiln. This kind of life is more painful than h*ll.

However, Horiyah was the one who had the most comfortable life among the same group of people sent to the black coal kiln by Charlie.

Those men, who are now being tortured, are not like human beings. They have to work fifteen or six hours in the black coal kiln every day, and they are hungry and skinny.

The old Qian Lian had a hard time, because she was ugly and didn't like the supervisor, so her daily routine and work were no different from those men.

Horiyah is a little better because she herself is a woman. She looks good and maintains well. Although she is a little older, she still has the charm, which is really unique in the eyes of the supervisor.

As a result, Horiyah became the concubine of the black coal kiln supervisor, doing all she could to wait for the dirty supervisor every night, which made her life easier.

At least she doesn't have to do so much work, and she can take more time to rest. More importantly, she eats better than others.

But even so, this kind of life is still extremely torture for Horiyah.

Although the supervisor has the supreme status and right to speak in the black coal kiln, plainly speaking, he is a bad Old Master in the countryside, very sloppy, and does not pay attention to personal hygiene, sometimes he does not take a bath in two weeks.

But Horiyah has no choice but to resist the nausea to please him and cater to him.

At night, Horiyah had just finished serving the supervisor and came out of the brick house in disorder.

Horiyah still holds a plastic basin in her hand. Although the supervisor does not like to take a bath, wash his face, or brush his teeth, he likes to soak his feet every day, and as long as he soaks feet, Horiyah will help him. She washes his feet.

Every time Horiyah washes his feet with a basin of clean water, the basin is dark after washing.

Thinking of his foul-smelling feet, Horiyah shed tears of grievance.

That b@stard overseer, who didn't know anything about cleanliness, made her feel pain everywhere now.

Her original delicate skin gradually became rough in this dusty and coal dust environment.

Such a day is almost like h*ll, and don't know if there is any chance to leave this blind place in her life.

Horiyah carried the basin and headed to the boiling water room, just to see Lian's family with dark faces, beside the coal pile, carrying baskets of coal into the coal pile.

Lian looked at her, full of hatred and jealousy.

In her opinion, if it weren't for Horiyah, this stinky lady, who was pulling herself to Elaine, she would not have fallen into this kind of place.

Chapter 1066

Moreover, her family has been working at a high load since the day they came in, but what about Horiyah? She can be the concubine of the overseer just because she maintains better than herself!

So, she looked at Horiyah, not angry, and gritted her teeth and cursed: "Some women are really shameless. It's shameless to go to sleep with the supervisor for such a little benefit!"

When Horiyah heard her mocking herself, she was naturally full of anger and cursed: "Lian, you should be careful when you speak to me, otherwise, be careful that I will stop you from eating tomorrow!"

When Lian heard this, she became furious: "Horiyah, what are you going to do? Are you not sleeping with the supervisor? You think that if you have him as a backer, I dare not do anything to you? Wait for me to play. Tired of you, will you still be same by then?"

Horiyah was so angry that she blurted out: "Lian, I don't think your family wants to be better, believe me or not, tomorrow I will increase your daily working hours from 16 hours to 20 hours? Your family will be exhausted to death!"

When Lian heard this, she was furious: "Horiyah, do you have a d*mn conscience? It is because of you that me and my family ended up like this! Not only you have no guilt, you even told me to come on! You are not human!"

Horiyah said in a cold voice: "Don't talk to me here. You agreed to cooperate with me for money. If you want to make this money, you have to bear the risks behind it! Why do you rely on me?"

Lian gritted her teeth: "It doesn't matter who you rely on, if it weren't for you, I and my family were eating hot and spicy in Aurous Hill! How could it be possible to suffer this crime?"

Horiyah said contemptuously: "This proves that you have no life of happiness! You are destined to live in this small coal kiln in your life! Either you will be exhausted here, or the small coal kiln will smash you to death in the well. Bottom, in short, you won't be able to stand up in your life!"

When Lian heard this, she became angry!

The croupier, who has worked so hard in Macau for so many years, saved some money and returned to Aurous Hill to prepare for the elderly life, but Horiyah asked her to set up a set for Elaine. This set did not matter. The coal mine came, and then she lived a life of darkness and hell, so how could she not hate Horiyah in her heart?

Listening to Horiyah's words now, her whole body is already frustrated! She felt her brain tingling for a while, so she picked up a handful of iron hooks from the ground, specially used to pull coal, and waved towards Horiyah!

Horiyah did not expect that this stinky lady would dare to beat her!

And she moved the iron hook as soon as she came up. She was so frightened that she pissed off and ran away, but she started a little late after all, so the iron hook caught her calf!

The iron hook can even hook in hard coal, not to mention the flesh. Horiyah only felt that the hook was like a fish hook, piercing the flesh of her calf, and then there was a sharp pain. Making him staggered and fell to the ground.

At this time, her calf was bloody and it looked terrifying.

Horiyah was frightened. She knew very well in her heart that everything in this small coal kiln was very dirty, and the iron hook had rust and soot on it. She doesn't know how many bacteria were penetrated by it and infected her!

Moreover, Lian in front of her has obviously lost her mind, and the threat to herself is quite big!

So she hurriedly shouted: "Lian, you dare to touch me, do you want to live?"

Lian had red eyes at this time and gritted her teeth and said: "You have harmed me to the point where I am today, so that I will remain in darkness for a lifetime, and you as well die with me!"

After that, she violently pulled the iron hook out of her calf, and then she was about to hook it on her face!

Chapter 1067

Horiyah was so scared that she rolled several times on the ground, for fear that the iron hook would really hit her face.

That thing looks so scary, maybe it can hook her eyes off!

But Horiyah's leg was injured after all. Even if she could avoid Lian for the first two times, Lian has been chasing her and beating her, according to this posture, sooner or later she will be bloody abused by Lian!

Horiyah was about to run away, but suddenly there was a pain in her leg and she fell to the ground.

When she recovered, Lian rushed over, picked up the big hook and slammed it directly on her head.

At this time, Horiyah couldn't avoid it anymore. She closed her eyes in despair, thinking that she was dead today.

But at this moment, several Toyota overbearing vehicles suddenly drove in.

The dazzling car lights directly hit Lian's face, and a group of people jumped out of the car. One of them pointed at Lian with a gun: "What the f*ck? Put that hook down!".

Lian was taken aback by this battle!

After all, she has worked in Macau's casinos for many years. She is well-informed and knows at a glance what kind of person has what kind of strength.

Although the security guards and supervisors of the black coal mine are terrible, they don't have guns. This group of people seems to be a little bigger!

So she shivered and threw the iron hook on the ground.

At this time, the lead a chubby middle-aged man with a full face walked to Horiyah's face, opened a photo from his mobile phone and looked at Horiyah, then looked at Horiyah, and asked, "You are Horiyah?"

Horiyah nodded in panic: "I am. who are you?"

The middle-aged man nodded and said lightly: "Hello, Mrs. Willson, introduce myself. I am from the Wu family of Suzhou. My name is Tian Zhong. I am here to take you to Suzhou."

Horiyah was puzzled and cautiously said: "Hello, Mr. Tian Zhong...I...I don't seem to know the Wu family..."

Tian Zhong said blankly: "Our young master knew that you were pitted here by Charlie, so he specifically asked me to come and rescue you. Our young master has something to tell you, and then let you Meet your family."

Horiyah asked in surprise: "Is what you said true? Are you really going to rescue me and let me meet my family?"

Tian Zhong asked in a cold voice: "Otherwise, do you think I ran all the way to this place where the birds don't sh!t, is it because I am trying to tease you?"

When Horiyah heard this, she was so excited that she was almost crying.

As a result, she was so excited that she burst into tears, nodded and said, "Thank you, Master! Thank you!"

Seeing her dirty, Tian Zhong said to the person behind him, "Take her to your car."

"OK, boss!"

The man said, put the pistol away, and took Horiyah into the car.

At this time, a man in the room came out cursingly, cursing very uncomfortably, "What do you guys do? My woman, too, did you take her away? Leave her to me!"

Tian Zhong frowned and asked, "Who are you?"

This man is the supervisor of this black coal kiln. When the boss is not here, he is the earth emperor here.

So he arrogantly said: "I am the safety supervisor here. Have you come to me to lead people and greet our boss Li? Tell you, our boss Li is very powerful here!"

Tian Zhong said coldly: "Didn't your boss call you? Tell you that this place has been bought by our young master?"

"Joke!" The supervisor coldly shouted, "Boss Li really sold this place. He will definitely tell me. I think you guys are ill-intentioned. Want to grab the woman?"

Chapter 1068

Tian Zhong looked at Horiyah and asked, "What's the matter? Are you his woman?"

Horiyah cried and said, "No, I am not, I was forced by him!"

Tian Zhong looked at the supervisor and said coldly: "Since she doesn't admit that she is your woman, then you shouldn't mess with me here."

During this period of time, the overseer who was served by Horiyah was already ecstatic. He was nothing more than a rural old hat, who had experienced this kind of white and tender Lady from the city, so he had long been addicted to Horiyah.

Now seeing these people want to take Horiyah away, he is naturally 10,000 unhappy.

So he said coldly: "I don't care about what you have or what you don't have, what's upsetting, I will tell you again, she is my woman!"

Tian Zhong snorted coldly: "This is your own death, so don't say I didn't give you a chance."

After he finished speaking, he immediately took out a dark pistol from his waist, pointed the gun at the overseer, and pulled the trigger without hesitation.

With a bang, a tongue of fire spurted from the muzzle, and a bullet instantly penetrated into the forehead of the overseer.

The overseer who was still arrogant just now turned into a corpse in an instant.

Horiyah was so scared that she screamed, but Lian had a faint excitement in her eyes. She felt that she had a chance to survive!

So she hurriedly said to Tian Zhong: "This big brother, we were also taken captive here, please take us away too!"

Upon hearing this, Horiyah hurriedly said: "You must not take her away! She almost killed me!"

Tian Zhong looked at Horiyah and asked, "Is this woman your enemy?"

Horiyah nodded immediately and blurted out: "Yes, she is my enemy, and she will kill me!"

Lian was anxious and said hurriedly: "Horiyah, don't talk nonsense! When will I..."

Before Lian finished speaking, a gunshot suddenly sounded.

Horiyah was taken aback, and again, Tian Zhong raised his pistol at this time, and the muzzle turned out to be facing Lian!

And Lian who was still talking just now, her face was already full of blood at this time, she froze for a while, and then fell to the ground with a crash.

Tian Zhong actually shot Lian to death!

Horiyah didn't expect that Tian Zhong would even kill two people in the blink of an eye, trembling with fright.

And Lian's family members suddenly wailed and rushed towards her body.

They didn't expect that Lian, who was still alive just now, was already separated from them.

But they didn't have any choice. They didn't dare to seek revenge from Tian Zhong and Horiyah, so they could only cry with the corpse.

Tian Zhong didn't pay much attention to the family in front of him. He turned around and said to the younger brothers around him: "The plane is waiting at the airport. Let's leave!"

The shocked Horiyah immediately pushed into a domineering car.

Tian Zhong also stepped into the car when he came. When the car turned around, he opened the window and pointed at Lian's family. As long as her family rushed forward, he would immediately kill.

Fortunately, Lian's family was so scared that they did not dare to move.

Immediately after that, the convoy drove away from the black coal mine in the mountain and headed for the local airport!

Chapter 1069

The black coal kiln where Horiyah was, is located in the Jin Province in northwest China, which is a province rich in vinegar and coal bosses.

It is one or two thousand kilometers away from Suzhou in the southeast. If you want to drive back directly, it will take at least one day and one night.

The young master Roger urged him more urgently, so he sent Wu's private jet directly.

It took the convoy nearly three hours before it drove out of the deep mountain and old forest and arrived at the local airport.

On the airport apron at this time, a Gulfstream plane of Wu's family had been parked.

Horiyah never dreamed that it would be a private jet to take her to Suzhou!

Tian Zhong took her on the plane. When she saw the luxurious interior like a palace inside, her eyes were almost lost.

Seeing that she was all dirty, Tian Zhong frowned and said to her: "There is a bathroom behind the plane where you can take a shower. Go in and take a shower. Don't dirty our master's plane."

Horiyah nodded hurriedly, and cautiously came to the rear of the private jet. Sure enough, there is a very luxurious bathroom here. Although it is small, she can take a shower, which is indeed very unusual.

When she was about to take a shower, the plane had already started to roll. Seeing that the plane was about to take off, everyone was sitting on the seat and buckled up the seat belt, but she was afraid that she would be too dirty and would stain the seat. Stand firmly on the handrail.

Horiyah took a shower in the bathroom until the plane took off, climbed and started to fly smoothly.

After taking a shower, Horiyah carefully sat on the seat wearing to the new clothes brought by the service staff, waiting for her next destiny.

Horiyah is not a fool. Although she doesn't know why the Wu family came to rescue her, she can be sure that there is no free lunch in the world, and the Wu family must be a useful place to save herself.

Later, she thought of her family again.

She didn't know that at this time, her husband, her son and daughter thought she had taken all the money from the family and ran with some boy.

She didn't even know that her family already hated her at this time.

At this moment, all she thought of was her family. She missed her husband, her son and daughter.

In fact, Horiyah is really not a watery woman. She and Noah have been together for such a long time, and they have always wanted to live a good life at home and have never had a double heart.

But since she was sent to the black coal kiln, she has been betraying her husband almost every day, and she still has such a disgusting rural old hat, which made her feel a little worried.

She didn't know whether her husband would sympathize with her or blame her for giving him a cuckold if he knew what happened to her during this period.

Thinking of this, Horiyah decided to conceal this matter in her heart and would never mention it to anyone.

When the plane arrived in Suzhou, the sky was already dimly bright.

The Wu family's motorcade was already waiting here, and the plane had arrived, so they took Horiyah directly to the Wu family's villa.

Last night, neither father nor son of the Wu family slept.

They are not waiting for Horiyah, but because of this huge internal and external troubles, they really can't sleep.

Not only the two of them, but Regnar's several brothers and sisters, and their children, a total of 20 or 30 direct relatives, sat in the living room all night.

The video of Nanshan and the core members of the Beggar Gang being caught by river is still circulating on the Internet.

And everyone who saw this video scolded the Wu family countless times in their hearts.

Therefore, the reputation of the Wu family is still declining.

Chapter 1070

Under such circumstances, everyone in the Wu family was in a panic and could not fall asleep.

When Horiyah was taken to Wu's house, Tian Zhong didn't let her go to the living room directly, but temporarily arranged her in the living area of his subordinates, and then came over and invited Regnar and Roger over.

They heard that Horiyah was brought back, and the father and son went to see her together.

As soon as they met, Horiyah knelt on the ground and kowtowed them, thanking them for their life-saving grace.

Roger said blankly: "Horiyah, we rescued you not because we sympathized with you, but because we wanted you to do things for us."

Horiyah hurriedly asked: "What do you want me to do?"

Roger gritted his teeth and said: "I know that you have hatred with Charlie, and I also have hatred with Charlie, and we share the same hatred. I will ask you one sentence, do you want to get revenge on Charlie?"

Horiyah blurted out angrily: "That d*mn Charlie almost killed me and made me suffer. I would liked to smash him into pieces!"

Roger nodded with satisfaction and said, "That's good. In that case, I will let you go back to Aurous Hill. Your task is to do everything possible to avenge on Charlie's family with full power!"

Horiyah agreed without hesitation, even if Roger didn't say anything, once she has a chance to go back, she would definitely seek revenge on Charlie.

After agreeing, Horiyah couldn't help asking: "By the way, Mr. Regnar, you know my husband, my son, my daughter and my mother-in-law, what's the situation now?"

Roger sneered: "They are miserable now. They were taken into the detention center by Charlie some time ago, and they have not been released yet."

"Ah?!" Horiyah asked nervously when she heard that all her family had entered the detention center, "What's the matter? Are they all right? When can they come out?"

Roger said: "The reason why they entered the detention center was because they were fixed by Charlie. I guess they should hate Charlie terribly now."

Horiyah asked nervously: "Mr. Wu, can you release my family? I beg you!"

Roger said indifferently: "Of course I can let them out, but I want to ask you, if I let them out, will they listen to me and go against Charlie?"

Horiyah nodded again and again: "Yes, they will! To be honest, our whole family has suffered a lot from Charlie!"

"My mother-in-law's Willson Group was destroyed by Charlie!"

"My life savings with my husband were also lost because of Charlie!"

"My son was supposed to be the heir of the Willson Group, but in the end he had nothing and became a rag, thanks to him!"

"My daughter was supposed to marry the Aurous Hill King's family and become a young daughter-in-law, but after the King's family played with her, they retired from her. It was also the d*mn Charlie's ghost!"

When talking about this, Horiyah was so angry that her whole body had almost collapsed and she was shaking violently.

At this time, she was emotionally out of control, and she broke down and cried: "I was sent to that dark coal mine. After such a long hellish life, life was worse than death every day, and I almost committed suicide several times, and it was all because of Charlie. d*mn it! Our family doesn't share the same spirit with him!"

Roger and his father Regnar looked at each other.

The eyes were filled with joy.

The cannon fodder they want is someone who has a deadly animosity with Charlie!

The five members of the Willson family are all Charlie's mortal enemies. As long as they are brought out and sent under Charlie's nose, Charlie will definitely be uncomfortable! They are the ideal first members of the cannon fodder group!

In this way, Charlie's energy will inevitably be restrained in many ways, and the Wu family will also have more opportunities to attack him!

Chapter 1071

At this moment Aurous Hill Detention Center.

Old Mrs. Willson and her granddaughter Wendy have been living in the detention center for several days. The two of them are lucky. Old Mrs. Willson won the sympathy of prison tyrant Gena, so no one in there was to make things difficult for them.

However, Noah and Harold were not so easy in the men's detention center.

Because they were newcomers, the father and son were bullied by all kinds of things as soon as they entered.

Not only do you have to do a lot of work, but the only little ration will be taken away by others, and they can't even fill their stomach every day.

The more so, the more Noah hated Horiyah in his heart.

Because he always felt that Horiyah, with all her wealth, must be comfortable with some boy at this time.

If it weren't for Horiyah who had swept away the money, how could he have fallen to where he is today?

At the beginning, the four members of this family were sentenced to 15 days in detention. It seems that there are still a few days to come out, but no one expected that they had just had lunch today and the detention center where they were all released them at the same time.

After learning that she had been released, Mrs. Willson panicked and stayed in the cell unwilling to leave.

Now she really doesn't want to go out and face the cruel reality.

After all, she's penniless and the house at home has been sealed up. Not only can she not eat a bite to when go out, she doesn't even have a place to live comfortably.

However, the prison guards didn't give her this chance, and because they couldn't get out of the cell, they pulled her up from the bed and dragged her out.

Gena also knew that the Lady Willson must be on the street after she goes out, so she hurriedly shouted from behind: "Lady Willson, teach you a way. After going out, go to the bus stop and block the bus. The police will be informed for disturbing the bus if you die or not die. The social security will catch you back again!"

The Old Mrs. Willson breathed a sigh of relief and quickly said, "Gena so thankful to you, you are waiting for me, I will come back again!"

Wendy followed the Lady Willson without saying a word. She didn't know what to do at this moment. After all, she was a young girl, and she looked a little bit pretty. She really didn't want to stay in the detention center, but after she went out how to earn a living is also a very serious problem for her now.

She once thought about going to KTV to be a princess, if she meets a wealthy guest, she can occasionally open a room in private with him, anyway, she has seen it now. After she has been with Fredmen, her reputation is gone bad in Aurous Hill.

In that case, why bother to care so much?

So, she made up her mind, if grandma wants to come in again after going out, then she will ignore her.

The prison guards in the detention center led the two out of the cell all the way, and then came to the office that specializes in handling the release procedures.

As soon as she entered, she saw a man dressed in luxurious clothes standing in the office.

Several prison guards surrounded him with respectful faces.

The man saw the Lady Willson and granddaughter come in, and asked faintly: "You are the Willson family, right?"

The Old Mrs. Willson nodded hurriedly. She can tell at a glance that this man seems to be a little backed, so she asked, "Master are you looking for us?"

The man nodded and said, "I released you on bail. Your son and your grandson were also released on bail. I will take you to see them both."

Chapter 1072

When Wendy heard this, she asked excitedly: "Gentleman, are my father and my brother really released? Where are they now?"

The man said indifferently: "My people have arranged them, you two can just come with me."

Old Mrs. Willson didn't think too much about it. After all, she was already like this. There shouldn't be anyone who came here to hurt her. What's more, she was indeed released on bail. That being the case, she might as well go and take a look, maybe there is a new opportunity.

So the two went through the formalities, got their clothes and belongings, and after changing their clothes, they followed the man out of the detention center.

Outside the detention center, two Rolls-Royce Phantoms have been waiting here for a long time.

The man turned his head and said to her and Wendy: "You two, take the car behind you."

Seeing the two Rolls-Royce Phantoms, Mrs. Willson was very excited.

No ordinary people can afford a Rolls Royce.

When the Willson family was at its peak, they couldn't afford a Rolls Royce.

Even if she could afford the money, she would not be worthy of this worth and status.

So the Old Mrs. Willson said, "Thank you, sir. Then we two will sit in the back."

After speaking, he took her granddaughter to the front of the car behind.

The three people got in the cars one after another, and the two cars started to drive towards the outskirts.

After the car drove out for 20 minutes, the Old Mrs. Willson said to Wendy in surprise: "I think this road seems to be to the airport."

Wendy also nodded, and said, "We will reach the airport expressway after a few kilometers."

Old Mrs. Willson frowned and said in a low voice, "I don't know who the gentleman in front is. Could it be that your father and your brother were also sent to the airport by them?"

Wendy suddenly became nervous and said, "Grandma, shouldn't they be sent by Charlie? Are they going to get us out of Aurous Hill and never let us come back?"

"Impossible." Mrs. Willson shook her head: "Why is that b@stard Charlie so polite? He won't release us on bail. On the contrary, he will find a way to let us stay inside for a while, even let us unable to get out all our lives."

Wendy asked in surprise: "It's Fredmen, right? Does he still miss the old love and want to take us to Eastcliff?"

Old Mrs. Willson waved her hand and said, "Impossible. If Fredmen can still do what a man does, it might be possible, but he is already an incompetent person. How could he miss the old love? If he really misses the old love If he did, he would never leave you."

Wendy's expression couldn't help but feel a little sad. Although at first she was disgusted with her parents and grandmother's arrangement to serve Fredmen, but after thinking about it carefully, Fredmen treated herself well back then.

After all, it only happened once with her, and he was able to invest tens of millions and give her 5 million pocket money.

Thinking of this, Wendy couldn't help but sigh inwardly: "If Fredmen still has the abilities of a man, then she should follow him now, and she should be a fragrant drinker, and she won't have such a miserable life?"

Just thinking about it, the two Rolls-Royce drove one after the other towards the airport expressway, rushing to the airport quickly.

Old Mrs. Willson and Wendy were even more surprised in their hearts. They were really going to the airport. What are they going to do?

Chapter 1073

Although she was puzzled in her heart, Mrs. Willson knew very well that it would be useless to think too much at this time, because she was already in someone else's car, so it's better to settle down and wait to see what arrangements the other party has.

Moreover, her instinct tells her that although the other party looks mysterious, it shouldn't hurt her.

Because she is poor now and has nothing to do. If others want to harm her, she won't have to spend so much trouble.

Thinking of this, the Old Mrs. Willson was also relieved.

So he simply sat in the car calmly, waiting to see what medicine the other party was selling.

Two Rolls-Royce drove directly into Aurous Hill Airport. In a small hangar at the airport, Wu's Gulfstream aircraft had already parked here.

It was this plane that took Horiyah to Suzhou last night.

Early this morning, the plane took off again from Suzhou to Aurous Hill, ready to pick up the Willson family.

Seeing a private jet parked in front of her, Mrs. Willson was so surprised that she couldn't speak.

If Rolls-Royce is the toy of the rich, then private jets can only be afforded by the rich of the rich.

Because Gulfstream aircraft like this sells for at least RMB 200 million to RMB 300 million.

And if you buy an aircraft like this, you don't need to spend only two to three hundred million. You have to hire a crew, including two pilots, several mechanics, and several service personnel.

Aircraft maintenance costs are also very high, parking in the hangar, and taking off and landing at the airport cost a lot of money.

It is equivalent to buying a private jet, which means buying a tool to burn money.

When the Lady Willson saw this private jet, she immediately realized that there must be a very powerful family behind it.

Rolls-Royce stopped beside the plane, and the Old Mrs. Willson walked down with her granddaughter Wendy.

Wendy was also staring at this private plane, when a familiar figure suddenly ran out of the plane door!

"Grandma! Wendy!"

When the two heard this voice, they looked up, and it was Harold who got out of the plane!

Old Mrs. Willson saw her grandson and said excitedly: "Harold, why are you here? Where is your father?"

"mom!"

As soon as Mrs. Willson finished speaking, her eldest son Noah also walked out of the plane!

Old Mrs. Willson was very excited, but seeing her son and grandson lose a lot of weight, she couldn't help but feel distressed.

The Old Mrs. Willson didn't care about these things. She only cared about herself and didn't care about anything else.

But after going through jail, and seeing her son and grandson, she also felt a feeling that blood was thicker than water.

And looking at eldest son, there are a lot of white hair coming out, and the whole person is also several years old. He was originally ruddy and blessed, but now his skin is dull and his body is thin, which really makes the Lady Willson feel distressed.

On the contrary, in these days in jail, Mrs. Willson didn't suffer any crime, and she abused Elaine for a few days, so she didn't seem to lose weight or age.

At this time, Harold and Noah both ran up to the Lady Willson, who cried bitterly while hugging her son and grandson.

Chapter 1074

She cried in her mouth and muttered, "My son, my grandson, you two have suffered!"

Harold was aggrieved like a child, wiped his eyes and choked with tears: "Grandma, you don't know what kind of hardships my dad and I have had during this period of time. This is the hardship I have never had in my life. Eat it all."

Noah also sighed and said, "Hey, it's all the same, so don't talk about those things, it will only increase your troubles."

Old Mrs. Willson nodded, and hurriedly asked: "By the way, Noah, what the h*ll is going on? Who is the one who released us on bail?"

"I don't know..." Noah shook his head and said, "I and Harold were also taken out suddenly, and then their car sent us here and let us wait here. Neither know who they are."

At this time, the man who picked up Mrs. Willson and Wendy from the detention center quickly walked up to a family of four and said: "Introduce myself, my name is Dawson Wu, I belong to the Wu family, my brother is called Regnar, you should have heard of it."

"Wu family?!" The four members of the Willson family were stunned.

How could they not know the Wu family?

The Wu family is the No. 1 family in the south of the Yangtze River much better than the Song family!

When the Old Master of the Wu family was in the limelight, his legend circulated throughout Aurous Hill.

At that time, the Old Master Willson always talked about the Old Master of the Wu family every day, and regarded him as an idol worthy of imitation efforts.

The Willson family never dreamed that they could have a relationship with the Wu family, and this time it was the Wu family which rescued them. This is really amazing. Does the Willson family need time to run?

Thinking of this, the Old Mrs. Willson flatly smiled at Dawson and asked: "Mr. Dawson, may I ask, you brought us out and then brought us here again, what are you doing, what are your intentions?"

Dawson said calmly: "I came to pick you up on my eldest brother's order, but I don't know exactly what I'm going to do to pick you up for. But the time is urgent. Don't ask so many questions. Get on the plane first. , My brother will naturally explain to you everything."

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she nodded immediately and blurted out: "Mr. Dawson, we can't delay your time, let alone your brother's time. We should first get on the plane to Sozhu and meet your brother. Right!"

Dawson nodded, and then didn't say a word, so he stepped onto the plane.

The four members of the Willson family hurriedly followed behind him and boarded the plane.

Noah and Harold had already boarded the plane just now, so when they got on the plane, they were not too surprised by the luxurious interior of the plane.

But the Old Mrs. Willson and Wendy were dumbfounded.

Where did they fly on any private jet? Usually can't bear to go out by plane even first-class, let alone a private jet.

Therefore, the Old Mrs. Willson is like Grandma Liu who has entered the Grand View Garden. Her eyes are dripping and she doesn't know where to stay.

Dawson couldn't look down on this family in his heart. He always felt that sitting in the same plane with such a bunch of old hats was a bit uncomfortable.

So he greeted the charming stewardess, poured him a glass of whiskey, and then asked her to give him a steam blindfold.

The stewardess in the miniskirt writhed her plump body, waited on Dawson to finish drinking, and waited on him again. He put on his blindfold, put her ears close to his ears, and said, "You have to rest first, the plane is about to take off, call me if you need anything."

Harold looked at it from the seat behind.

This flight attendant is also too beautiful, and she is just trying to catch up with Dawson. If she could serve him in this way, how great...

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said to the flight attendant: "Hello, can you please bring me a glass of wine?"

After serving Dawson, the stewardess stood up, pulled her skirt down, and said disdainfully, "I'm sorry, I am Mr. Dawson's personal flight attendant, and I don't serve other people."

Chapter 1075

When Harold heard this, the other party directly refused to say that she was Dawson's private flight attendant, with embarrassment on her face and jealousy in her heart.

The rich are indeed rich, not only have private jets, but also private flight attendants. This is really d*mn envy and hatred.

When can he get into this situation?

The stewardess ignored them, twisted her waist and went to the front cabin, while Dawson kept his eyes closed and rested, and he was too lazy to talk to the Willson family.

The Willson family also felt bored.

However, they were looking forward to their situation after arriving in Suzhou. Although they had not heard of Dawson's name before, they had heard of Regnar's name.

Regnar is the eldest son of the Wu family and the current heir. It can be said that he is the helm of the Wu family.

Don't know what kind of high incense she burned, and she won the favor of the helm of the Wu family. Doesn't it prove that the Willson family has come back to life?

Although the four people were speechless all the way, they had their own thoughts.

Suzhou is very close to Aurous Hill, and the plane can fly there in less than an hour.

So soon, the plane began to descend and then landed at Suzhou Airport.

After the plane landed, there were still two Rolls-Royce waiting here.

Dawson took one by himself and the four from Willson family took one.

Then the two cars drove non-stop towards the Wu's villa.

At this time, Regnar was staring at the stock market with a green face.

As the Wu family's reputation plummeted yesterday, it became the target of siege and scolding on the Internet. Several listed groups under the Wu family dropped their limits as soon as they opened for trading this morning.

The market has already panicked. Everyone is desperately selling stocks. So Regnar predicts that after the market opens tomorrow, the limit will continue to fall.

Even the day after tomorrow will be the same.

The market value of the Wu family must fall by at least 50% first.

If he can find an opportunity to revive the reputation of the Wu family, then this stock will still have a chance to rise. If he can't find an opportunity to restore its reputation, then the Wu family may be ruined for good.

So the load on his shoulders is so heavy that he almost feels breathless.

And the Old Master is in a coma now, which makes Regnar feel that his heart is lost.

Looking at the top families in the country, most of them were founded by the older generation.

Both the Wu family and the Song family were the rich family business that the Old Master worked hard to produce when he was young.

And such families often have an awkward situation, that is, the next generation is not as good as the previous generation.

When the Old Master of the Wu family was young, he was a real hero. He didn't dare to say that he could be ranked in the whole country, but in Aurous Hill, he was definitely a remarkable figure.

But when he arrived ti Regnar, his ability was much worse than the Old Master.

If Regnar is allowed to start from scratch, even if he uses all his strength for feeding, it is impossible to reach one-tenth of the Old Master's.

Regnar is already like this, but his son is worse than him.

Take Wu Qi as an example. This little b@stard, except for picking up girls, spending money, and knows nothing. After raising him for more than 20 years, he has changed before he can contribute to the family. Become a sh!t-swallowing beast that eats a bubble of sh!t every hour.

And Roger, even if he was a little bit stronger than his brother Wu Qi, but his strength was limited.

Chapter 1076

Why is one generation inferior in the big family?

In fact, this has a lot to do with the environment in which they live.

The older generation was born in a reckless way. Every meal was spent with fate, and every penny was earned with fate. Therefore, in that era, no one was mediocre who was able to make a family business. Generations can be said to be elites.

But when they lay a piece of land and their son was born, he had already lived a life of adequate food and clothing. With adequate food and clothing, they didn't need to work hard and did not need to fight their lives, so the wolf nature was naturally much weaker.

By the time their grandson was born, they were already born with the golden key. Let alone let them go out and fight hard. For this second generation ancestor born with the golden key, let him go to bed early and wake up every day. Unable to realize the extravagant hope, what kind of fighting spirit can be expected in them, what bloody wolf nature is there?

Those born in the wild and risking their lives to prey and grow are real wolves.

Born in a zoo, there are wolves that eat meat every day when they open eyes. In terms of blood, it may not be as good as a wild dog on the side of the road.

Regnar also knew that his abilities were much worse than his father, and he knew that his son was much worse than himself, so in this situation, he felt an unprecedented sense of loneliness.

This kind of loneliness is isolation and helplessness. He feel that no one in the world can help, and the only dad who can help him has also suffered a stroke and coma.

Just as he sighed with emotion, his brother, Dawson, stepped in and blurted out: "Brother, you asked me to bring the family from Aurous Hill. I have brought them."

Regnar nodded and asked, "Where are they now?"

Dawson said: "People are in the living room."

Regnar said: "Okay. I'll go and meet them first, you go and call Horiyah over."

"Okay brother." Dawson nodded hastily, and stepped to find Horiyah.

Regnar lit a cigar, and while smoking it, he walked out of his study and walked to the living room.

In the living room, the four members of the Willson family were waiting nervously.

Seeing Regnar come out, all four of them are bright, and each of them has flattery written on their faces.

As the head of the family, Mrs. Willson immediately greeted him and said with a smile on her face: "Oh, Mr. Regnar, I used to see you on TV. I finally saw you today. I didn't expect you to be better than TV. The more generous!"

Regnar nodded blankly, he naturally wouldn't take the compliments of an Lady seriously.

So he said lightly: "I let Dawson take you over for two purposes."

Old Mrs. Willson quickly said, "Mr. Regnar, what do you want or what you want to tell us, just say it!"

Regnar nodded and said, "The first purpose is to let you meet someone; the second purpose is to help me deal with someone."

The Old Mrs. Willson knew very well that the Wu family was a life-saving straw given to the Willson family from heaven.

In the past, the Willson family wanted to be a dog for the big family, but the big family simply didn't look down on it.

But now it is different. Now the Willson family has the opportunity to be a dog for the Wu family. This is a rare opportunity in a lifetime!

So she hurriedly flattered: "Mr. Regnar, everything in the Willson family is based on head. We will see whom you let us see; we will deal with whom you let us want to deal with!"

As she was talking, Dawson brought Horiyah over.

Regnar pointed to Horiyah and said to the Willson family four: "I want you to meet her!"

The four of the Willson family followed the direction of his fingers and saw that it was Horiyah. Everyone's expression became extremely ugly!

Noah was furious in an instant, and gritted his teeth and cursed: "Horiyah, you shameless frame, I must beat you to death today!"

Chapter 1077

During this time, Noah hated Horiyah deeply!

After all, for a man, there is nothing more painful for him than the betrayal of his beloved woman.

When Horiyah disappeared, Noah was brought into the rhythm by Charlie, so confused that Horiyah really eloped with some boy.

In addition, all the money in the family was with him at the time, so he was even more angry with Horiyah.

After so many days and nights, every time he thinks of Horiyah, he wants to catch her and beat her to death!

But he also knew that since Horiyah ran away with the money, he would never be able to meet her again in this life, and it was even possible that she took the money and fled abroad.

But he never expected that he would meet Horiyah, whom he hated so deeply, in the mansion of Wu's family in with Regnar today!

So he rushed towards Horiyah almost without thinking, stretched out his hand and slapped her face severely, and slapped her to the ground.

After a slap was passed, Noah pointed at her furiously and said: "Okay, you btch, you dare to come back! Where the hll did you take my money? Do you know it's because of you, how miserable the family is now!"

Horiyah was beaten up, she didn't expect that her husband Noah, who she was thinking about day and night, would slap her severely when they meet.

Her leg was still a little lame, she could only struggle, trying to crawl open her mouth and blurt out and shouted, "Noah, what are you hitting me for?!"

"What are you doing?" Noah gritted his teeth and cursed: "I not only want to beat you, I want to kill you! How dare you use my money to raise a little white face, and you didn't leave a single cent for me, f*ck you so cruel!"

Horiyah screamed and blurted out: "Noah, what are you f@rting? When did I take care of the little white face? The Lady Willson was cheated by Charlie!"

"What?!" Noah frowned, "What does this matter have to do with Charlie?"

Horiyah thought of the torture she had suffered for many days, and suddenly burst into tears: "Have you forgotten what we were going to do for Elaine?"

Noah nodded: "Of course I won't forget!"

Horiyah cried and said, "I had done almost the same thing as Lian, but the b@stard Charlie suddenly rushed over, and then he took someone to beat us up and forced me to All the money in the bank card was donated, and then all of us were sent to the black coal mine to dig coal..."

Speaking of which, Horiyah was already in tears.

She wiped her tears and continued to choked up: "Do you know how miserable I was during this time? Every day I work hard in the dark black coal kiln, and can only rest for four or five hours a day, and the rest of the time is all Working under a black coal kiln, I can't eat enough, don't wear warm clothes, and I'm often beaten. This is the torture like h*ll. You unscrupulous, not only don't seek me or save me, but now I'm so It's easy to be rescued by the Wu family. You even beat me and framed me for raising a little white face. Is that what I deserve?"

When Noah heard this, he was dizzy!

He never dreamed that instead of taking the money to live with some boy, his wife suffered so much!

For a moment, not only was he full of distress and guilt for his wife, but he also hated Charlie to death.

It turned out that the culprit who took away all of his savings and sent his wife to work in a small coal mine turned out to be Charlie!

At this moment, the new hatred and the old hatred made him extremely angry.

Harold and Wendy were also gritted with hatred.

Chapter 1078

In the front-end time, the two of them were the same as their father Noah. They both hated her. The selfish mother who fled with money. After the hard life of this time passed, they often scolded her in their hearts.

But until today did they know that mother had a harder life than them, and much harder.

At most, the four of them suffered some crimes in the detention center, while Horiyah suffered extensive torture in the black coal kiln.

The Old Mrs. Willson on the side looked very ugly.

She didn't sympathize with Horiyah's experience, but sympathized with the money that Charlie had taken away!

At this moment, the Lady Willson walked towards Noah in anger, and slapped him severely in the face when he was unprepared.

With a snap, Noah was stunned.

He looked at his mother, exclaimed and asked: "Mom, what are you doing with me?"

The Old Mrs. Willson angrily scolded: "I'm hitting you, unfilial b@stard! I told you a long time ago, give me the money, give me the money! If you want to play with me carefully, just grab it. With that little money, you didn't let it go. What happens? The Willson family is over, with not a single penny to spend?"

When Noah heard this, he immediately lowered his head in shame.

If he had known that Charlie would get the money, he might as well give the money to his mother. At the very least, he could solve the difficulties of the Willson Group.

But at that time, he didn't want to sink with the Willson Group, so he started thinking carefully.

But he didn't expect to be self-defeating, beating his own wife, and hurting her...

When he thought of this, he was full of guilt for his wife, mother, and even the two children.

Thinking of his wife suffering so much, he felt even more uncomfortable, hugging Horiyah and crying bitterly.

Regnar walked up to a few people at this time and said in a cold voice: "It seems that you and Charlie both share the same vengeance. If I give you a chance for revenge, will you accept it?"

When Noah heard this, he suddenly blurted out: "Yes! I am willing! I want to tear Charlie b@stard alive!"

The Old Mrs. Willson was a ghost, she had guessed that Regnar had found her family here just to let her family deal with Charlie. From this, it can be seen that he and Charlie must also have antagonisms.

As a result, the Lady Willson nodded again and again: "Mr. Regnar, as long as you give us a chance, we will definitely go all out to deal with Charlie!"

Harold said angrily: "If anyone gives me a gun, I will go and kill the b@stard tonight!"

Regnar was very satisfied with the attitude of this family, what he wanted was this desperate heart that would kill Charlie.

So he smiled slightly and said: "I'm telling you, Charlie and I also have a deep hatred. I want to kill him personally. The enemy's enemy is a friend. That's why I called your family here. If you want revenge, too, Then you might as well cooperate with me."

Old Mrs. Willson blurted out: "Mr. Regnar, just give your orders! What do you need us to do?"

Regnar said indifferently: "Charlie's life, I will personally take it. As for you, I will send you back to Aurous Hill to help you solve all the other problems you are facing now. From then on, your goal is one. By all means, disgusting Charlie, let his family jump and distract him! Before I kill him, I will make his backyard catch fire!"

Chapter 1079

When the Old Mrs. Willson heard this, her heart was ecstatic.

Whether Regnar could kill Charlie, she didn't really care deep in her heart.

What she really cared about was that she needed her own help in form of Regnar. In this way, she would tie the Willson family to the big boat of the Wu family.

The Willson family was almost dead, but now that it can become a partner of the Wu family, then there is a chance to come back to life.

And not only can it bring the dead back to life, it's probably even more powerful than when it was at its peak and heyday!

So the Lady Willson opened her mouth and said to Regnar: "Mr. Regnar, my granddaughter is Charlie's wife, Claire, and now he also runs a decoration company. There is a business conflict with our Willson Group. If we can bring the Willson Group back to life, we can hit each other in business."

Regnar nodded and said faintly: "Don't worry, I will invest 80 million in your Willson Group to help you clear all your debts. If you do well, I will continue to invest."

Old Mrs. Willson was almost ecstatic when she heard this.

This is really nowhere to be found after breaking through the iron shoes.

In other words, it's another village.

During this period of time, she has always felt that the Willson Group could never come back from the dead, but she didn't expect Regnar to give her a powerful life.

The only problem with the Willson Group is that it has no money and owes tens of millions of foreign debts. It still doesn't know how to deal with it.

The bank has been pressuring them to get the loan back, but as long as the money is paid back, nothing will happen.

The Willson Group originally owed 80 million, but Fredmen had already invested 10 million, and the bank also took away the villa, as well as so many antiques of her own. When that time comes, just return the remaining tens of millions to the villa. And antiques, the bank will return it, and there will be tens of millions of surplus on the company's account at that time, and it will suddenly turn over!

Harold and Wendy were already very excited when they heard this. They looked at the Lady Willson and asked excitedly: "Grandma, can we return to our Willson family villa this time? Should we never use it again? Down the street?"

Wendy also shed tears in excitement: "Do I no longer need to use Dabao sod honey?"

Old Mrs. Willson just wanted to nod, but suddenly she thought of a brilliant idea.

So, the Lady Willson said to Regnar: "Mr. Regnar, Charlie's family, and our family are like water and fire, and are incompatible with each other. They are anxious to send us to the small coal mine and to the detention center. , But if we go back this time, we will be under their noses every day, and it will definitely cause them great pain. Don't you want them to catch fire in their backyard? You just need to put us behind them, and we will be behind them all day long. It's all fire!"

When Regnar heard this, he immediately became interested and raised his eyebrows and asked: "Lady Willson, what do you mean specifically? To be clear, you don't have to go around with me."

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said flatteringly, "Mr. Regnar, the Charlie family live in the villa of Aurous Hill Tomson First Class. Don't you know what they are doing all the time because of this villa? Looks like! Especially my second daughter-in-law, whose nostrils are almost going to the sky, and tell us every day that people like us are not even qualified to see the door, if we suddenly become successful with them. Become neighbors, every day I bow my head without looking up, then think about it, what is the mood of their family?"

Regnar's eyes suddenly lit up.

f*ck, this is kind of interesting!

Think about it, you just lived in a luxurious villa, enjoying a luxurious and secluded life every day, and then looking at your enemies down and down the streets, you can't even eat, that must be very enjoyable.

But if one day suddenly, you wake up and find that your down-and-down street enemy has become your neighbor, then your life will surely fall from heaven to h*ll in an instant.

Chapter 1080

Regnar believes in feng shui, fortune and magnetic field.

He firmly believes that if a person has good feng shui luck and good mood, everything will go smoothly.

But if a person's mood is affected and he is very upset every day from morning to night, he can't concentrate on anything and lose interest in everything. No matter how good the wine is, he loses its taste. The delicious meal does not feel delicious in his mouth.

Over time, his whole person will be affected by the magnetic field of this negative emotion, which will affect his whole person's Feng Shui fortune and even affect his physical health.

In Feng Shui, everything that makes people irritable is called sha.

If the sound is too loud, it is the evil spirit, if the light is too bright, it is the evil spirit.

These kinds of evil auras are colorless, tasteless, invisible, and without a trace, and are extremely difficult to resolve.

If he sends the Willson family to Charlie's eyes, it would be equivalent to giving him these kinds of evil spirits, and it would definitely make Charlie suffer every day!

Thinking of this, Regnar said with joy on his face: "If that's the case, then I can help you buy a Tomson first-class villa, and it's next to Charlie's, and then let your family live in."

When the Old Mrs. Willson heard this, she trembled with excitement.

After all, why did she break with her second son's family, and why was she sent to the detention center for so many days?

In the final analysis, the culprit is Tomson's villa.

She is too eager for Tomson's luxurious villa. She wants to live in it in dreams, experience the incomparable luxury and enjoy the luxurious life.

But in the end, she still failed to fight her second son's family, not to mention living in their Tomson First-Class, and even her old villa was finally sealed by the bank.

But now the situation is different, and now she embraces the Wu family's thigh.

After her own remarks just now, Regnar really became interested.

It seems that he really hates Charlie, as long as it makes Charlie uncomfortable, he is very interested!

Even the Old Mrs. Willson did not expect that Regnar would actually agree to buy a villa for her!

Isn't this the legend that the snipe and the clam compete for the fisherman's profit?

In this way, Tomson's villa is cheaper!

So she was extremely excited and said to Regnar: "Mr. Regnar, let's not tell you, Charlie's family lives in No. a05 of Tomson. I have been there and know the layout there. A05 is around a04 and A06, if we can live in a04 or a06, then Charlie will be uncomfortable!"
