Then she so hurriedly said to Tanaka Koichi: "Koichi, take your card out!"

Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Since the man has scheduled it first, let's change to another one."

"No!" The woman hurriedly blurted out: "I want this one! I just saw this one!"

After that, she pointed to Charlie and said to Tanaka Koichi: "Babes, you give him a few more yuan for the benefit, Let him transfer this bag to me, okay!"

Tanaka really couldn't stand the other party's soft and hard foam and coquettishness, so he had to say to Charlie: "You Sir, my girlfriend has taken a fancy to this bag. If you can give it to us, I am willing to give you one hundred thousand yuan for a benefit. don't know if you are willing to cut love?"

Charlie waved his hand without looking back.

The woman said angrily: "Hey! You don't have to do anything, just make 100,000 yuan in vain, where is there such a good thing? You didn't even agree, do you want the lion to speak out?"

Charlie didn't bother to care about her. Continue to say to the salesgirl: "Come on, bring me this fifty-eight women wallet."

"Hey!" The woman did not expect Charlie to completely ignore her words, and said angrily: "My boyfriend is a senior assistant to the Ito family in Japan! He is the confidant of Ito Yuhiko, the head of the Ito family. If you offend him, he will let you in the future unable to eat and walk around!"

Chapter 1628

Charlie heard this and snorted: "Such as show off! believe it or not, even if Ito Takehiko stands in front of me, as long as he dares to pretend to be forceful with me, I will beat him. Let him call me grandpa on his knees."

"b*stard!" Koichi Tanaka, who had some guilt towards Charlie because of his girlfriend's impoliteness, suddenly became angry.

He sternly reprimanded: "You dare to be disrespectful to Master Ito, are you too great?"

Charlie smiled, turned his head to look at Koichi Tanaka, and asked coldly, "Is it Tanaka? It's been a long time."

There is no doubt that Charlie is definitely the most abnormal person he has ever seen in his life, and he did not expect to meet this evil star in the Hermes store in Eastcliff Airport.

His legs softened, he knelt on the ground with a thump, walked a few steps on the ground, and came to Charlie's side, and said respectfully and fearfully: "Mr. Charlie, I didn't expect it to be you! I'm so sorry!"

Koichi Tanaka was naturally afraid of Charlie.

In the beginning, treasure level master Yamamoto Kazuki, just pretended to be a force with Charlie, he was beaten into a cripple, and he said nothing to disobey him!

Otherwise, if Charlie is unhappy, he will just abandon him, but he can only lie down and return to Japan.

Tanaka Hiroshi looked at the woman. Seeing him suddenly kneel down and apologized to the man, she was amazed. She hurriedly stretched out her hand to get him up, and said angrily, "Babes, are you crazy? You are President Ito's man. In the eyes of the most promising young generation, the future is limitless, how can you kneel to a stranger?"

Hiroshi Tanaka angrily stretched out his hand, pulled the woman to the ground, and sternly shouted: "Presumptuous! Who made you rude in front of Mr. Charlie? Hurry up and apologize to him!"

The woman was pulled to the ground by Hiroshi Tanaka. With a cry, her knees were so painful that she said aggrieved: "Babes, what do you mean?!"

As soon as Tanaka raised his hand, he slapped her and cursed: "Give me the f*cking nonsense, and apologize quickly!"

The woman was stunned by the beating, but seeing that Koichi Tanaka was so nervous, she was also a little scared, so she had to hesitate to say to Charlie: "Sir, yes...sorry, it's all my fault..."

Charlie was too lazy to be familiar with these two people, and said coldly: "You two will remember me, I don't care how many of you are in Japan to fudge, as long as you are in China, you two will give me a low profile, as the saying goes. Well said, the Raptors can't cross the river yet, what are you two?"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded hurriedly and begged: "Mr. Charlie, I know I was wrong. From now on, I will be a low-key person, and I will teach this stupid woman to be a low-key person. Please don't be the same as the two of us."

Charlie waved his hand disdainfully: "Go away."

When Tanaka heard Charlie say these two words, he was relieved immediately and hurriedly thanked him: "Thank you, Mr. Charlie, let's get out now, get out now..."

After that, he got up and ran out.

Charlie suddenly remembered something and stopped him and said: "Wait a minute!"

Tanaka trembled in shock, and asked nervously, "Mr. Charlie, what else do you have to say?"

Charlie said indifferently: "I ask you something, and you will answer me honestly."

"Okay!" Tanaka nodded hurriedly: "Don't worry, I must say everything!"

Chapter 1629

When Tanaka heard Charlie's question, his expression flashed dim, and he sighed slightly, saying: "Mr. Charlie, it is true that Miss Nanako suffered very serious injuries in the battle with Miss Qin. We saved her life, but her body is not as good as before. She is now recuperating in Kyoto..."

Charlie couldn't help feeling a little nervous when he thought of Nanako's tenderness.

However, he still hid his emotions. On the surface, he asked, "Is there anything wrong? Can she still participate in the competition?"

Tanaka Hiroshi smiled bitterly: "She definitely can't participate in the competition. The eldest lady is very weak now. She was barely able to stand a few days ago, but she couldn't walk a few steps away. Now she rests in bed most of the time every day. If it's good, she'll take a wheelchair to bask in the sun.

Charlie suddenly saw the girl who loves to laugh, sitting in a wheelchair basking in the sun, and felt that his heart seemed to hurt.

He asked again: "Then how is her mood?"

Hiroshi Tanaka shook his head: "The eldest lady seems to have no influence on the surface, and she is happy every day, but based on my understanding of her, she should have a lot of thoughts in her heart. She talked to me a few days ago and asked me if I don't particularly want to see people, but there are people who may never see them in my life. don't know what the eldest lady means, but I can see that she was very depressed at the time..."

Charlie couldn't help but sighed and said, "She shouldn't have played that game back then."

After being stunned for a moment, he couldn't help sighing: "Mr. Charlie, you are right. In the beginning, the president and I persuaded the lady not to play that game, but the lady disagreed life and death..."

After talking, Tanaka Koichi again said: "During this time, the guild grows up and searched all the famous doctors in Japan, but they were unable to treat the young lady's injuries. That's why I came to Eastcliff and went to the Eastcliff National Medical Center to seek medical advice for the young lady. medicine....."

Charlie gave a hum and asked him, "How about it? Have you got it?"

"No." Hiroshi Tanaka shook his head dejectedly, and said: "The President has offered a very high remuneration, and I hope to invite the famous doctors of the National Medical Center to Japan to treat the young lady, but they are not willing to accept it."

Charlie shook his head.

On the day Nanako was injured, he was watching. He knew that she was injured very seriously, which was far beyond the current level of Chinese and Western medicine.

So no matter it is the current top Western medicine or traditional medicine, it is impossible to cure her.

Probably, the only person in this world who can cure her is himself.

Thinking of this, Charlie remembered that he was going to Japan soon. I wonder if I can meet Nanako in Kyoto this time?

If he has a chance, he must go to see her, at least, to heal her injuries.

At this time, Charlie didn't have the mood to continue to care about with Tanaka Koichi and his girlfriend, so he waved his hand and said, "Okay, I won't pursue this matter, you two should go quickly."

Tanaka, as he received a pardon, hurriedly bowed to Charlie, and said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, then let's go first..."

After that, he took the woman next to him and fled quickly.

Chapter 1630

Charlie sighed with a melancholy expression, turned around and bought some small Hermes items from the counter as a distribution.

After matching up to 500,000, he directly swiped his card to check out, carrying a bunch of Hermes gift boxes, and heading to the VIP lounge.

Seeing Charlie coming in with something from Hermes, she said with a bit of jealousy: "I said why I didn't see you after I came, so you went to visit Hermes! Did you buy a gift for Claire?"

Charlie nodded naturally: "I finally came to the big city of Eastcliff. Of course I have to buy some souvenirs for my wife."

Elsa curled her lips and said, "Charlie, I found that you are hidden deep enough, a star as big as Sara, and any signed photo can be sold for thousands on a second-hand website. You knew her, and I never heard you talk about it."

Charlie said indifferently: "How can I take others out as my capital to show off? Wouldn't that betray the kindness of others to me?"

Elsa nodded slightly: "That's what you said."

After all, she asked with some gossip: "Do you know what you two have known since childhood?"

Charlie shook his head and said, "Of course don't know, I actually don't want to tell anyone, but I didn't expect to be seen by you in Hwai yesterday, otherwise you wouldn't know."

Elsa said happily: "In this way, I actually know your secrets that I didn't even know at the beginning. Does this mean that our relationship has gone further?"

Charlie said helplessly: "What are you thinking about? I just said it just happened to be bumped by you."

Elsa snorted, "Whether it happens or not, I also know one more secret about you than at first!"

After that, she observed Charlie's eyes and asked: "Eh Charlie, how many secrets are there in you? It feels like you are mysterious, as I can't see through you at all."

Charlie didn't want her to ask questions about this kind of thing, so he cleverly ridiculed: "What else is completely invisible? That time when we went to the hot springs together, I wore a pair of swimming trunks. I can't let you see the rest after you finish it."

Elsa blushed suddenly!

In her mind, it suddenly appeared that when Charlie was wearing swimming trunks in the hot spring hotel, that strong and perfect figure, the deer couldn't help but jump around.

Charlie said awkwardly: "Do you still have to ask why? We are friends, and you are my wife's best friend, so of course I can't show you the rest!"

Elsa lowered her head and whispered softly: "Why do you want to treat me like this? When I was injured, didn't I also let you see the places you shouldn't be shown? Did you not touch it?"

Charlie blurted out: "These are two different things. It was to save you, not to take advantage of you."

Elsa pouted her little mouth, rolled her eyes towards Charlie, and said, "Who knows if you were trying to take advantage? Maybe you are saving people and taking advantage, and do both!"

As she said, she said hurriedly and seriously: "Actually, I don't care about letting you take advantage of it. Even if I let you take advantage of it, I am willing to..."

Chapter 1631

Charlie was already a little numb to Elsa's unrelenting show of love.

So he only regarded Elsa as joking with him, so he changed the subject and asked her: "By the way, where did your cousin Delon pedal his bicycle?"

Elsa pouted her lips in disappointment. She also knew that Charlie had been avoiding her on emotional issues all the time, so she had become accustomed to Charlie's attitude. Seeing him turn the topic off, she followed him and said: "I heard that he has arrived in Jinhai this morning, but I heard that he slept under the bridge at night and he has a cold."

Charlie smiled faintly and said: "When he rides to Aurous Hill, his physical fitness should be able to move forward a lot."

Elsa chuckled: "Actually, your punishment like this is also a good thing for him. My cousin is usually arrogant and domineering. He often makes trouble for the family, but he has never suffered any losses before, so I don't have a long memory, believe this. After this time, he will constrain a little."

Charlie nodded slightly: "If it wasn't for your face, I would have to ask him to swallow the jade pendant during the birthday banquet, and let him have another operation to take it out. For such a person, the scar will be healed and forget the pain. , He will realize what is unforgettable by cutting the scar again."

Elsa looked at Charlie: "Knowing that you are looking at my face, you let him go. After my cousin arrives in Aurous Hill, I will take him to invite you to dinner, and let him toast you to apologize."

Charlie waved his hand: "It's okay to eat toast or something, let him reform in Aurous Hill honestly. If he performs well, maybe he can be sent back in advance. If he does not perform well, I can extend the deadline at any time."

Elsa pursed her lips and said, "Don't you always be so strict. If we really get together in the future, he is your brother-in-law. Although he is a cousin, he is also your brother-in-law!"

Charlie shook his head helplessly: "You have this one all day long..."

"Hehe." Elsa said with a smile: "Who makes me like you? Anyway, I'm always ready. If you figure it out someday, please find me anytime!"

Charlie ignored her. He looked up at the big screen and said, "Hey, it seems that our flight has already started to board first-class and business-class passengers. Let's go."

Elsa gave a hum, and while standing up to pack her luggage, she asked casually: "Did you tell Claire that we will go back together today?"

Charlie nodded: "I said that on WeChat last night."

Elsa asked with a smile: "She was not jealous at first, right?"

"Why would she be jealous?" Charlie said: "She knew that I was attending your grandma's birthday banquet, so I told her directly that you just want to come back, and you booked the ticket for me."

Elsa smiled and nodded: "Then did you tell Claire that you gave my grandma a fan worth tens of millions?"

"No." Charlie said: "Don't tell Claire about this. She doesn't know my relationship with Chairman Gu."

"I know." Elsa said seriously: "Don't worry, I will definitely not tell her."

Charlie relaxed, and the two got on the plane first from the VIP boarding gate.

The two seats in the first class were next to each other. Elsa chose a window position, and Charlie sat beside her.

After boarding the plane, Claire called Charlie and asked with a smile, "Husband, are you on the plane?"

"Going." Charlie said, "It will take off in twenty minutes."

Claire asked again: "Elsa is with you, right?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded: "Sitting next to me."

Claire said, "Then you have to take care of her."

Charlie said helplessly: "I don't fly the plane. The flight attendant takes care of everyone's food and drink along the way. What can I take care of her..."

Elsa deliberately approached the phone and said with a smile: "You can hug me when the plane encounters a turbulence, lest I be thrown out..."

Claire thought that Elsa was just joking, so she smiled and said, "You should buckle your seat belt, otherwise what if Charlie doesn't have time to hug you?"

Chapter 1632

Elsa smiled: "I know!"

Claire smiled and said, "It happens that I have nothing to do today. I will drive to the airport to pick you up in a while."

"Okay!" Elsa said with a smile: "Then my big beautiful girl will have a hard time running!"

Claire smiled and said, "What are you doing so politely with me? Besides, it's not to pick you up alone, but also to pick up Charlie."

Elsa said: "Okay, you are to pick up Charlie, right?"

Claire smiled and said, "Yes!"

"Okay, okay." Elsa said helplessly: "If you can pick me up on the way, I'm already very satisfied!"

Claire said, "Then I won't tell you anymore. See you at the airport later!"

"It is Okay."

Charlie and Elsa came out of the airport together and saw Claire waiting here.

After seeing Claire for a few days, Charlie missed it very much. Seeing that Claire was wearing a long and slender coat, she was slim and had an extraordinary temperament.

In the past few days, Claire also missed Charlie very much.

After all, when the two got married, they had never been apart for such a long time.

She doesn't feel much about living together every day, but when one of them is not around, she can feel the feeling of discomfort and the feeling of constantly missing in her heart.

Seeing Charlie coming out of the exit, Claire hurried forward a few steps and gently hugged him.

After hugging him for a few seconds, she hugged Elsa again.

Elsa was shocked by Claire's initiative to embrace Charlie. She realized that her best friend's attitude towards Charlie seemed to have undergone some subtle changes.

However, she couldn't analyze the specific changes.

Charlie didn't expect that Claire would hug him directly in front of Elsa. Thinking about it, his wife's feelings for him seemed to have made some progress, which was a good sign.

After Claire and Elsa hugged gently, she discovered that Charlie was carrying several Hermes shopping bags, and asked in surprise: "Charlie, why do you buy so many Hermes things?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I bought some gifts for you and your parents."

Claire hurriedly said, "Oh, why buy such an expensive brand? Just buy some local specialties..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Isn't this making money? It is only natural to spend some money on family."

Claire said seriously: "You will spoil mother like this. You still don't know who she is? If you buy her such expensive things this time, her appetite will be even bigger next time."

Charlie smiled slightly: "This time I mainly bought a limited-edition bag for you wife. What I bought for Mom was all the ordinary styles that were used for distribution."

Claire said distressedly: "Then you have to spend a lot of money this time..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't worry about money all the time here. It's easy to make money anyway. Let's go home first, and talk about it when we get home!"

Chapter 1633

Leaving the airport, Charlie drove Claire's BMW and first sent Elsa back to the Shangri-La Hotel.

On the way, Claire wanted to invite Elsa to live in her home again, but Elsa said nothing.

Although living in Tomson First Grade can be closer to Charlie, Elsa is also afraid of Elaine and Jacob. These two people are really subverting the Three Views when they fight. As an outsider, it is really embarrassing to watch from the sidelines.

Moreover, she always felt that the Willson family still had a time bomb.

That time bomb is Jacob's first love, Meiqing.

Elaine still didn't know about Meiqing's affairs, and could be upset with Jacob. If she knew this, she would have to fight directly at home.

Therefore, she felt that she should not go to Tomson to find awkwardness, and it would be nice to live in Shangri-La.

Although staying in the hotel alone is a bit deserted, but fortunately, there is absolute freedom and unrestrained activities, even if you toss the room and throw it there in the morning, you will naturally get a clean and spotless room after returning.

So, she said she didn't want to go to Tomson anymore.

After sending Elsa, Charlie and Claire went home together. Claire asked concerned: "Charlie, have you been optimistic about Feng Shui for Miss Sara's house?"

"I'm optimistic." Charlie smiled: "Their whole family They are all very satisfied and gave a five-star praise."

Claire relaxed and said: "If people are satisfied, then we can be assured of the money."

She said, she asked Charlie again: "You buy With so many Hermes, can't you spend less money?"

Charlie said truthfully: "A total of one million or so."

"Ah? One million?!" Claire felt dizzy and exclaimed: " Why are you so willing to spend money to buy luxury goods and buy one million for family's a year's living expenses, but not as much as one million?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Luxury, it must cost more money."

Charlie pulled the car over and parked in the parking space on the side of the road, and gave things to Claire from the back empty seat. He bought the Hermes limited edition crocodile leather handbag and handed it to Claire's arms. He smiled and said, "Open it and take a look!"

Claire carefully opened the package and saw the beautifully crafted bag. , Exclaimed: "The craftsmanship of this bag is really good and the leather is impeccable. This bag costs a lot, right?" Charlie said: "The main reason is that this bag is more expensive, more than 500,000 yuan.

"Oh my god," Claire said nervously: "A bag is more than half a million? This is too expensive!"

Charlie said with a smile: "My wife. Hermes limited edition items are not cheap, but don't think about it. Money is very expensive, because the Hermès limited edition bags are very valuable and can even increase in value. If such bags are resold, they will cost at least 600,000 to 700,000 yuan, or even higher."

Claire said with some anxiety: "But this bag It's too expensive, how can I be willing to use it, and with my status I can't afford such an expensive bag, or you can resell it!"

Charlie hurriedly said: "That's OK! This is from me. How can you sell the gift I chose for you?"

Then he said again: "My wife, you can use this bag with confidence. If it is worn out, we will buy a new one. Now your husband, I am also in the eyes of high-ranking officials. Master of Feng Shui, you, as my wife, do you use a bag of 500,000 yuan? If you don't use it, people may tell me what I will say in the future. They might say that Charlie is too picky and earns so A lot of money, but not even willing to buy a better bag for his wife!"

Claire saw that Charlie insisted, and there was some truth in what he said. She sighed and said gratefully: "husband, then I will listen to your words, thank you."

Charlie remembered one thing and hurriedly said: "By the way, my wife, I will come back this time and take a rest for a day or two, so I have to go to Japan as soon as possible. I told you last time. There are also customers who have been urging me to go there."

Claire nodded and asked him, "How long will it take? It's more than half a month before the Chinese New Year. Many units are preparing for holidays. If you want to take a rest, wait for the next year." Go back to work again."

Charlie said with a smile: "I have promised people, how can we temporarily release the pigeons at this time, but you can rest assured, it should be done in a few days, in fact, Japan is not far away, and we fly directly from Aurous Hill. It's not more than two hours."

"Okay." Claire nodded gently and said, "Then you must take care of yourself when you arrive in Japan. If you are unfamiliar over there, don't conflict with others. , So as not to be bullied by the locals."

"Okay!" Charlie said with a smile: "You still don't know what your own husband's current ability is? I will definitely not let people bully me."

Claire confessed to him. At a glance, he said: "I know you can fight, but you still have to make money with peace after all."

Back to Tomson.

As soon as the car entered the villa yard, Elaine, who had removed the plaster, ran out with joy.

She knew that Claire had gone to the airport to meet Charlie, so she had been waiting for Charlie to return.

The reason why she looked forward to Charlie's return was mainly that Charlie had promised her that he would bring her a gift when he came back from Eastcliff.

After Charlie gave her a set of hundreds of thousands of caviar skincare products last time, she has already valued him as a lavish son-in-law. Her guess, Charlie will definitely prepare valuable gifts for her this time. She can't wait any longer.

Seeing Charlie stepping out of the car, Elaine hurriedly greeted him with a smile, and said cheerfully: "Oh my good son-in-law, you can count as coming back. Mom wants to die for you these days!"

Charlie felt a little uncomfortable with Elaine's flattering attitude.

Although Elaine had already changed a lot before, it was the first time to say such nasty words.

At this time, Elaine continued: "You don't know, Mom is worried about you these days. You have never been far away. Mom is afraid that you will not be able to adapt to the outside, eating and sleeping well. This has always been a thought in my heart!"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Mom, thank you for your concern. I have had a good time these past few days."

"That's good, that's good!" Elaine breathed a sigh of relief. So she hurried to look in the car secretly.

Because Charlie came back by car, it was impossible to take the gifts with him, so she looked in the car to see if there were any gifts ready.

At this time, the Old Master Jacob also walked out, holding a string of unremarkable red sandalwood beads in his hand, and said with a smile: "Oh, Charlie, you are back, how have things been done in Eastcliff these days? How was it?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Dad, things are going well for me."

Jacob nodded: "It's going to go well!"

Elaine caught a glimpse of some gift boxes in the back seat of the car, but the car windows were covered with a film. Can't see what it is, so she hurriedly asked: "Oh my son-in-law, what are you putting in the back of this car? Is it a gift for us?"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "This time in Eastcliff, I have prepared some gifts for you and dad."

"Oh!" Elaine immediately beamed, and said excitedly: "You really deserve to be my good son-in-law. You think about me all the time. Come out and show Mom, what gifts have you bought for Mom!"

Chapter 1635

Seeing Elaine's eager look, Charlie smiled lightly, opened the rear door and took out a bunch of Hermes gift boxes from inside.

When Elaine saw so many Hermes, the whole person's eyes suddenly widened, and even gleamed twice!

She couldn't help but exclaimed in excitement: "My God, it's Hermès! Hermès bag is too expensive. Charlie may not really be willing to buy it for me, but even a Hermès scarf would cost tens of thousands!"

So she came to the front with excitement, covering her mouth excitedly and said: "Oh, oh! It's Hermes! My son-in-law, you are so willing! What did you buy from Hermes for your mother?"

Charlie picked out a few gift boxes of different sizes, and handed them to Elaine, "Mom, this big one is a Hermes bag. It matches your temperament. Do you like it?"

When Elaine heard that it was a bag, she jumped up in excitement!

"Oh! It's really a bag! My good son-in-law! You are so willing to pay for mom!"

Elaine has always wanted a better bag, but for so many years, her best bag, that is, an ordinary lv, looks like 15,000 one.

In her eyes, Hermès bags, which can only be carried at the level of ladies, can't even be touched by ordinary and second-class people. She dreams of carrying a Hermes on her back, but she just dares Think about it, even if she had some money in her hands before, she would have to spend more than 100,000 to 200,000 to buy a Hermes, she would still be reluctant to bear it.

This really gave her a huge surprise!

She hurriedly unpacked the Hermes package and took out the more than one hundred thousand handbags from the inside. He smiled and said: "Mom, this bag is so beautiful! Do you like it!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie and said with a flattering smile: "Oh my son-in-law, you are so willing! You bought such an expensive bag for mom!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "You like it."

"I like it, I like it so much!" Elaine excitedly held it in her arms, and sighed: "I was really blind before, and I didn't see that my good son-in-law has such great potential! Good son-in-law, what happened before Son, don't take it to heart!"

Charlie nodded lightly.

He knows that such a world-class shrew like Elaine could be bought with only a little profit, and he has already put her in order.

How could she fight her wits so many times, and send her to a detention center for a few days.

But that's fine, Elaine's character is the kind of master who doesn't suffer and doesn't know the evil in the world. After suffering a lot, her temper will naturally become more honest.

Afterward, Charlie took out two small gift boxes, handed them to Elaine, and said, "Mom, here are two more gifts, which are also for you."

"Ah? There is mine?!" Elaine was excited to kneel down for Charlie.

Good guy, I don't want to say that I gave a Hermes bag, but there are other gifts. My son-in-law really looks more and more pleasing to the eye!

So she hurriedly took two gift boxes from Charlie and opened them one by one.

"Wow! Hermès scarf! It's so beautiful! It's cold now, so it can be wrapped around! This is a lot of money, right?"

Chapter 1636

Charlie nodded: "Twenty to thirty thousand."

"Oh! My son-in-law is so generous! Buy me such an expensive scarf! Twenty to thirty-thousand, you can buy a mink to wear!"

Afterwards, Elaine opened another gift box and exclaimed: "Oh! This is the classic Hermès belt for women! My son-in-law, Mom has loved this belt for several years, and has been reluctant to buy it. I didn't expect you to realize my dream for me."

Jacob on the side looked a little bit sour, and couldn't help but ask: "Good son-in-law, didn't you bring any gifts for dad?"

Charlie smiled and said, "For you, I have prepared several things."

Having said that, Charlie handed him two Hermes gift boxes.

Jacob slapped his thigh happily, and said excitedly: "Oh, there really is me, really my good son-in-law!"

As soon as the voice fell, he rushed over and took the gift box from Charlie.

Open the first one. It is a men's belt with the head of the belt and the golden letter h, shining in the sun.

Jacob clapped his hands happily: "Oh, this Hermès belt was popular all over the country back then!"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "This belt is now a standard for successful men."

Jacob sighed and sighed: "Oh, I am also a successful person. We live in a Tomson first-class mansion, drive a BMW five-series sedan, wear Hermès trouser belt, and then we will string a large gold chain and get a gold watch. Live with the upper-class people with small gold watches and three small barbecues a day!"

Claire said helplessly: "Dad, which middle-aged and old people do you see who is still wearing a big gold chain to swagger through the market? Those are standard equipment for young people and social people."

Jacob chuckled, "I just said that."

After speaking, he winked at Charlie and said: "Good son-in-law, when can you give me a gold watch? I recently picked a Rolex Gold, and that watch looks impressive!"

Charlie suddenly thought: "Hey, before, Meiqing seemed to have given his father-in-law a Rolex Gold! It is worth three to four hundred thousand, but the Old Master was afraid that Elaine would be jealous after seeing it, so he never dared to wear it."

"He is now mentioning Rolex Kindy again. It is estimated that 80% of him wants me to agree to his so-called request."

"In this way, he can just look back and wear the Rolex that Meiqing gave him. Even if Elaine sees it, he can tell Elaine that I bought him this watch."

Thinking of this, Charlie couldn't help feeling in his heart: "This Old fox is not easy. In order to be able to put on the gifts from the first lover in a fair manner, he has to prepare so much in advance, so just help him!"

Therefore, Charlie said to Jacob straightforwardly: "Dad, don't worry, Rolex Gold, right? It's on me!"

As soon as Jacob heard this, he was immediately happy with nothing to add, and ran forward to hold Charlie's hand, and said with emotion: "Good son-in-law, you are the one who knows me!"

Elaine on the side was unhappy, and said angrily: "Jacob, you old thing is really shameless, even you wear a Rolex for your unpromising appearance? Don't pit my son-in-law's money here!"

After speaking, Elaine hurriedly smiled to Charlie and said: "Good son-in-law, you don't think mom has a decent watch until now. How about you turn around and give mom a piece?"

Chapter 1637

When Jacob received a Rolex from Meiqing and showed off with Charlie in the car, Claire was sitting in the back row.

So she knew very well that Dad now asked Charlie to ask for a Rolex. In fact, it was a formality. The main reason was to find an opportunity to put the Rolex that Meiqing gave him on his hand.

At this moment, although Claire felt a little uncomfortable, he could only turn one eye and close one eye when she thought of the past of her father and her mother, and the many wrongs he suffered over the years.

But Claire didn't expect that her mother would come to join in the fun at this time, and wanted Charlie to buy her a Rolex too.

She hurriedly said to Elaine: "Mom, all Rolexes are worn by men. They don't look good on you. If you really like watches, I'll give you a female Tissot."

Elaine said disgustingly: "Don't even think about fooling me, the watch of that brand is very cheap, I bought it for a few thousand, and the low-end ones can't even cost three thousand. How can they be compared with Rolex! I don't want it!"

Charlie said smoothly: "Mom, I bought a lot of things from Eastcliff this time. If I buy a gold watch for you and dad alone. It is estimated that our family's living standards will have to drop drastically. I happened to know a buddy who sells imitation watches. The imitation watches he sells are made the same as the real ones, there are no real fake ones, and they are cheap. How about I give you and dad a whole fake watch first to make do?"

Now Elaine, in front of Charlie, is no longer the vixen who blindly criticized the opposition back then. Charlie treats her a little better, and she is quite sensible.

Thinking that Charlie had already bought so many Hermes for her, it would be hard for him to spend money to buy a gold watch for her, so he hurriedly said: "Oh, good son-in-law, mom just said it by the way, mom knows it's not easy for you to make money, so let's buy a fake for your dad first, and let him make do with it, then mom will not need it."

After that, he hurriedly added: "Hey, my son-in-law, if you take on the feng shui big job in the future and make a lot of money, don't forget Mom!"

Charlie smiled and nodded: "No problem, I won't forget you if I make money in the future."

As he said, he winked at Jacob again and said, "Dad, how about letting my friend find you a replica Rolex? Anyway, most people can't see it, it's the same as the real one!"

How could Jacob know what Charlie meant, anyway, just to find a reason to wear the watch given by Meiqing outright, Elaine thought it was a fake, but it would be better!

So she nodded hurriedly and said with a smile: "Oh, it's okay to fake it, anyway, I just want to wear it, but the real is a waste!"

Charlie pushed the boat along the water: "Then it's settled. I'll call him soon and ask him to help find a high copy."

Jacob smiled and said, "Okay, Okay!"

Charlie then took out the tea that Stephen had given, and handed it to Jacob and said, "Dad, this is some good tea I asked someone to find for you. Don't buy tea from WeChat indiscriminately in the future."

Jacob smiled and said, "My tea is not bad! It tastes fine after drinking!"

Charlie said: "Then you taste this and see how big the gap is."

Jacob nodded: "Okay, I'll try it later!"

At this time, Charlie took out the remaining Hermès gift boxes and said to Claire: "My wife. These are all for you. Go back to your room and take them down slowly."

Claire was surprised and said, "Ah? Why are there still my gifts? You already gave me a bag..."

Chapter 1638

Claire gratefully said, "Thank you husband, but in the future, you must not spend money on me like this..."

Charlie knew that she couldn't accept such a high price in her heart, so he smiled and said, "Okay, OK, I know, I will buy you a gift with high cost performance in the future."

Back in the room, Elaine quickly put the Hermes that Charlie had given her to the living room.

While putting the gifts and packing boxes away, she took out her mobile phone and took many photos from different angles.

Afterwards, she selected nine photos that she was satisfied with, and immediately sent them to the circle of friends, with the caption: "My good son-in-law went to work in Eastcliff and came back to give me a bunch of Hermes! I am so happy!"

I can't help feeling proud: "It's so cool! The Old Lady is now living in a big villa and carrying Hermes, she is a proper super lady! After the two porcelain teeth of the front teeth are finished and set, she can carry a Hermès bag, wearing a Hermès scarf, and wearing a Hermès belt, I'm going out in awe!"

And Jacob sat down on the sofa and quickly took out the tea leaves given by Charlie, planning to make a pot, and taste the tea that he bought from WeChat. How was it different?

As soon as the tea leaves Stephen gave were opened, the refreshing tea aroma came out!

Jacob was cheered!

He has never seen such fragrant tea!

As soon as it was opened, it hadn't been brewed, and the taste lingered for three days, which made people feel refreshed.

Looking at the tea leaves, the pieces are perfect and impeccable. There are no problems of different sizes and colors, and there are no small pieces of foam and small bellflowers. At a glance, they are carefully selected piece by piece.

He grabbed a handful of tea leaves under the tip of his nose and lightly smelled it, then grabbed the tea he bought from the WeChat Maicha girl and smelled it, and suddenly he felt a huge gap.

The former is like a fine natural agarwood, the fragrance is rich and perfect, and it is completely natural, with no trace of processing.

But the latter is like fake agarwood made from low-quality firewood soaked in a chemical potion. The fragrance smells a little choking and pungent. Compared with the former, it is obviously not the same thing.

Jacob quickly put the tea leaves sent by Charlie in the teapot. The electric kettle with tea at the bottom was already hot. He quickly poured boiling water into the pot. Then, the fragrance of the tea was forced out by the hot water. The whole living room is full.

Jacob said in horror: "This... the taste of this tea is too good!"

Claire smelled the scent too far away, and exclaimed: "Ah, it smells really good! Dad, can you give me a cup too!"

Elaine, who has never liked tea, smelled the tea scent at this time, and said excitedly: "This tea smells very advanced, Jacob, give me a cup and let me taste it!"

Jacob hurriedly took out four small tea cups, poured four cups of tea, and then took a cup by himself and took a careful sip in his mouth. Then his eyes lit up and exclaimed: "Good tea! Good tea! Ah! I have never drunk such good tea in my life!"

Chapter 1639

Sighing at Jacob, Charlie shook his head helplessly.

This Old Master, indeed, has never seen anything in the world.

Playing antiques can only afford fakes, and drinking tea is the same.

This is mainly because his status in the Willson family is too low. He was not valued by the Old Lady before. Later, he was squeezed by Elaine for many years. Life has been unsatisfactory and there is no improvement in money.

But fortunately, Jacob's personality is not bad. If he changed to another person, he would have been depressed because he couldn't think about it.

Here, while Charlie's family was happily tasting the finest tea, Horiyah was preparing lunch for the family in Villa A04 next door.

Because the child who she was previously pregnant with the black coal kiln supervisor, infected Noah's whole body, Horiyah was always excluded from this family.

But because Regnar supported her, the Willson family did not dare to do anything to her.

In the beginning, Horiyah also pleased the Mrs. Willson and Noah in various ways, hoping to exchange their forgiveness, and even specially made an abalone dinner for Noah, and bought expensive king crabs to supplement his body, although kind she did a bad thing, but it was really meant to please.

However, Horiyah saw that she always had a hot face with her cold buttocks, so now she has some broken jars.

Recently, after the Willson Group received Regnar's investment, the business restarted. With Regnar's help, it finally returned to formality, so the Willson family all returned to work in the Group's office.

Mrs. Willson is still the Old Lady in power, Noah is the general manager, Harold is the business director, and Wendy is the Management director.

This family of four goes to and from get off work together every day, so they are even more alienated from Horiyah.

Her current role at home has almost become the servant for the four of them, doing laundry and cooking at home every day.

At this moment, she had just prepared the meal, but before the Willson family came back, she took off her apron and sat on the sofa tiredly and played with her mobile phone.

Randomly swiping the circle of friends, and immediately reached the one of Elaine. When she saw Elaine showing off a bunch of Hermes in the circle of friends, Horiyah was very depressed.

"This Elaine is really a stinky burning bag! Isn't it just a few Hermes? Is there anything to show off?"

After a few curses, Horiyah felt uncomfortable again.

"Elaine kind of b*tch, there is a son-in-law like Charlie to support her, what about me? What do I have?"

"Husband? Beats me, scolds me, and threatens to divorce me. If it weren't for Mr. Regnar, this old tortoise would have driven me out."

"Dead Old Lady? Not a good thing! This old thing is so bad, if Regnar hadn't warned her enough, I am afraid that she would beat me to death together!"

"Hey, my son is not up for it. He doesn't have the ability to sh!t, and he will brag all the time. Such kind of stuff will definitely have nothing to do in the future, and I can't count on him."

"Wendy...hey...it would be great if Wendy was still with Gerald. No matter what, she can continue to be Fredmen's lover. As a result, she has a reputation now. Whether to marry or not to go out is a problem, and it is even more a commodity that cannot be expected..."

"Hey, what can I expect in my life? Who can buy me a Hermes bag?"

Thinking of this, Horiyah felt uncomfortable, and when she thought of the hardships and experiences she had experienced, tears burst into her eyes.

Chapter 1640

At this time, the door was pushed open.

Noah walked in first with the Old Lady.

Harold and Wendy followed behind.

Since regaining a new life in the Willson family group, the Mrs. Willson has been happy every day, her whole face is red, like she has eaten a rejuvenation pill.

As soon as she entered the house, Mrs. Willson opened her mouth and said, "Oh, although the Wu family is not good enough, at least the lean camel is bigger than the horse. With the project they gave, we can make at least 20 million in profit in the next year. , that is really good!"

Noah laughed and said, "Mom, it's not that you are far-sighted! If you weren't strategizing behind the back, our Willson Group wouldn't have a chance to be born again!"

Mrs. Willson nodded in satisfaction. She has always been narcissistic and has a strong desire for power. She likes to be flattered most.

Horiyah on the sofa was very upset when she heard this, she couldn't help cursing inwardly:

"The old dead woman is really shameless! What is your contribution to the rebirth of the Willson family? Isn't it the help of Mr. Regnar? Besides, Mr. Regnar back then but first sent someone to the black coal kiln to rescue me! Only then did you get your family out of the detention center!"

Mrs. Willson entered the living room happily, and when she saw Horiyah sitting on the sofa playing with her mobile phone, she immediately shouted annoyed: "Horiyah, what are you doing on the sofa instead of cooking in the kitchen? This is your sitting Place?"

Horiyah stood up and said angrily, "Mom, what do you mean by this? I am also a member of this family. Am I not even qualified to sit on a sofa?"

Mrs. Willson said sharply: "You are right! You are not qualified to sit on the sofa! In this house, you are a servant! Still a servant who dissatisfied me! If it weren't for Mr. Regnar to cover you behind, I would Just drive you out, you pugnacious girl!"

"You..." Horiyah said angrily: "The dead Old Lady, you're endless, right? You take that little mess out all day long and nag, is it interesting? Don't forget what Wu always does. That said, let us put aside all our prejudices. If you have an old attitude, I will go to Mr. Regnar to help me out!"

The Mrs. Willson was speechless.

She insulted and bullied Horiyah because she determined that Horiyah did not dare to make trouble.

But she didn't expect that the rabbit would bite in a hurry.

Horiyah dared to talk to herself like this.

However, she did not dare to choke with Horiyah right away, after all, Regnar had indeed ordered that if she annoyed Regnar, it might affect the rise of the Willson family!

Thinking of this, she snorted and said, "Okay, since Mr. Regnar asked us to let go of our prejudices, then I don't have the same knowledge as you, but I still advise you to figure out your own situation. In this family, you are a sinner. There must be a sense of atonement at all times!"

Although Horiyah was upset in her heart, she did not continue to argue with the Old Lady. Instead, she said blankly: "The food is ready, let's eat!"

However, although she didn't say anything on the surface, she hated the Old Lady deeply in her heart.

She completely understood that Mrs. Willson's attitude would only get worse in the future, not better.

If the Willson Group continues to move up, Mrs. Willson's posture will definitely be higher.

She couldn't help but sighed inwardly: "This dead old woman, if only she could fall a bit hard!"

Chapter 1641

Horiyah followed the Willson family into the restaurant with resentment towards Mrs. Willson.

Mrs. Willson sat down directly on the main seat of the dining table and glanced at Horiyah's cooked food. She frowned dissatisfiedly and said, "Why are all home-cooked dishes? I don't have any hard dishes. don't know I'm old. Do you not need to replenish your body?"

Horiyah said with a bit of aggrieved tone: "Mom, you can't blame me for this. The money in the family is yours. I only have a few hundred in total. How can I afford to buy a lot of big fish and meat."

Mrs. Willson coldly snorted, "I know you can find a reason. You can buy a chicken for a few hundred, right? A local chicken is only a hundred, can't you afford it?"

Horiyah was very angry and said, "Mom, five people in the family eat, you don't pay me living expenses. I am also a clever woman who can't cook without rice. There is still pork in this meal today, and I might not even be able to eat meat for the next meal."

Mrs. Willson glared at her: "The living expenses are okay, but you have to be reimbursed. In the future, you will go to a regular supermarket to buy food and come to me for reimbursement with the receipt."

Horiyah felt a little disgusted when she thought that she might have to buy vegetables for hundreds every day and reconcile the reimbursement with the Old Lady.

But she didn't show it. She just said smoothly: "Okay, since mom is not too troublesome, then we will check the accounts once a day from now on."

Mrs. Willson smiled sarcastically: "I don't find it troublesome, the Old Lady is very energetic."

Horiyah didn't pick her up with interest, picked up the bowl and took a couple of mouthfuls.

Wendy next to her was flipping her phone while sipping her food, and then said to Mrs. Willson: "Grandma, can I apply for an image fee with you?"

Mrs. Willson frowned and asked, "What image fee?"

Wendy behaved and said: "Grandma, look, I am now the commercial director of our Willson Group. This commercial director usually specializes in external affairs. After going out, it represents the image of our company. So my dress, even Cosmetics and skin care products have to meet our company's positioning."

Mrs. Willson gave her a white look, and said, "Don't be arguing with me here, just say what you want."

Wendy said: "Grandma, I want to apply for 100,000 to buy a bag, buy new clothes, and buy some cosmetics and skin care products."

"One hundred thousand?!" Mrs. Willson coldly snorted, "Do you really think our family's money was brought by the wind?"

Wendy said aggrievedly: "Grandma, didn't Mr. Regnar give us tens of millions? The funds in the company's account are also quite abundant. 100,000 is nothing to us!"

Mrs. Willson said angrily: "Isn't that what? I tell you, money is because you always think that 100,000 is nothing, 200,000 is nothing, and even 1 million is not much. Little by little, we defeated the Willson Group! So from now on, we must seize this opportunity of rebirth from the ashes, and we must not make any mistakes we made before!"

Wendy was also a little unhappy, and muttered with a little emotion: "After so long and hard days, I don't even have a decent set of cosmetics now, so I will go out to discuss business and cooperation in such a disheveled manner. I'm sorry for the reputation of our Willson Group. Besides, my bags were sold cheaply for the sake of food etc. Now I don't even have a good bag. Wouldn't I be laughed at when I go out?"

Mrs. Willson waved her hand impatiently: "Okay, don't come to this set with me. The bag problem will be solved. Just buy a fake one. Buy a fake Hermes. Wouldn't it be worthwhile to carry it out?"

Chapter 1642

"What's the face..." Wendy was anxious, choked up and said: "How can I say that I am also the commercial director of the Willson Group. If I'm caught by a fake Hermes when I go out. What a shame if I am found out!"

Mrs. Willson sneered and said, "You know what a bullsh*t! If you have a noble status these days, you just carry a fake bag, which is true in the eyes of others; but if you have a humble status, you are even saying the truth. In the eyes of others, he is also a fake! The Willson Group is now in Phoenix Nirvana and it is a rebirth from the ashes. In the eyes of outsiders, you are the commercial director, naturally contain a lot of gold. Even if you carry a fake bag, no one will think that is fake!"

Wendy was depressed: "Grandma, even if you don't look at it, if I am the commercial director of the Willson Group, even if I am your granddaughter, giving me 100,000 is not too much, right?"

Mrs. Willson snorted: "Don't come to this set, it's only ten thousand, you want it, don't pull it down!"

Wendy was extremely depressed, but when she thought of 10,000, if she didn't want it, then she would lose all that as well.

So she nodded and said aggrieved: "Well, ten thousand is ten thousand..."

Mrs. Willson cleared her throat and said solemnly: "I tell you, this time, we must let the Willson Group regain its glory! We even want the Willson Group to take another step, so you call me one by one. With the spirit of 12 points, no hedonistic thinking is allowed, otherwise, even if it is my son or grandson, they have to get out! Do you understand?"

Noah, Harold, and Wendy knew in their hearts that the Old Lady said this to them.

Although the hearts were depressed, everyone didn't dare to show any objection. They could only nod bitterly and said in unison: "We understand..."

Mrs. Willson was satisfied with this and waved her hand: "Okay, hurry up and eat. We have to go to the company in the afternoon to continue working!"

At this moment, Wendy flipped through the WeChat Moments, and suddenly saw the one sent by Elaine, her face suddenly blue with anger.

There was an uneasy feeling in her heart: "Elaine's b*tch has a bunch of Hermes. I want to buy one. Grandma didn't even agree and asked me to buy a fake one. If I really buy a fake Hermes, in case, I meet Elaine, so I still have to let her die?!"

Thinking of this, she became more and more angry in her heart, Elaine's old w!tch, why use such an expensive thing?

I am now youthful and naturally beautiful, why can't even Elaine be as good?

Thinking of this, she said aggrieved: "Grandma! Look! Even Elaine b*tch has used real Hermes, why can't I use one real?!"

Mrs. Willson snatched the phone from her, took a look, and said angrily: "d*mn Elaine, I know it all day long!"

Noah also took the phone and looked at it and found that there was a picture of Elaine taking a selfie with her bag on her back. He said coldly: "This stinky lady's legs seem to have been plastered off! She's going to jump out!"

Harold's teeth tickled when he thought of Elaine, and hurriedly asked him: "Dad, didn't you say you want to punish her before? When do you do it? I have wanted to teach this d*mn lady a long time ago!"

"Don't worry." Jacob snorted coldly: "She broke her leg before and stayed at home all day long, so she couldn't rush into her house and fix her? Wouldn't we have to put us in? Since hers The cast has been removed from the leg, and she must be stumbling out. When the time comes, we will seize the opportunity and she must be treated well!"

Chapter 1643

Noah still hates Elaine very much.

Not only have they been hanging there, she has also successively bought a batch of new ones online, and now there are more than 30 in total.

Noah goes in and out of Tomson First Grade every day, passing through Charlie's house, so he will see them, more than 30 green hats fluttering in the wind, and every time he is angry enough to think of killing her.

Moreover, thinking of Elaine's mockery of himself, he hated her even more.

He always wanted to find a chance to tidy up Elaine, and by the way, he also added some blockage to Charlie's house to make Ragnar as satisfied as possible. However, Elaine had a plaster on her leg, and she stayed at home most of the time. Even if he wanted to start. no chance.

Now that Elaine's plaster has been removed, she must be able to come out very quickly because of her character. As long as she goes out frequently, he has a chance to deal with her.

When she heard that Elaine was going to be cleaned up, Mrs. Willson was also interested. She said in a cold voice, "This d*mn Elaine is jumping all day long. The last time she was in the detention center, she should have been taken care of more thoroughly. All the legs interrupted, to relieve the hate!"

Wendy hurriedly said: "Grandma, then we can find a chance to break her legs this time!"

"Yes, grandma!" Harold became excited immediately, and blurted out: "If you interrupt both her legs, I've long seen her not pleasing to my eyes!"

Mrs. Willson looked at Noah and said: "Noah, Elaine has been insulting you and humiliating the entire Willson family. You should really make a plan to show this b*tch a little bit of color."

Noah nodded repeatedly: "Mom! Don't worry! I will definitely not let this stinky lady go!"

.....

After having lunch at home, Charlie called Mr. Orvel to drive over and picked him up to the kennel.

He plans to go to Japan tomorrow and quickly settle all matters concerning Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

To get Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, it is inseparable from the help of brothers Ichiro and Jiro.

In Mr. Orvel's car, Charlie asked him: "How are Ichiro and Jiro's performance at the kennel recently?"

Mr. Orvel chuckled: "Master, these two brothers performed well in the kennel. They worked hard and don't dare to pretend to be forceful everywhere. They are working honestly like quail, but they couldn't meet. Two dogs with grudges are the same, and they have to be pinched as soon as they meet. I now assign the two to different areas and try to avoid their meeting."

Charlie nodded lightly, there was naturally a deep hatred between Ichiro and Jiro.

Especially Ichiro, he was scammed by Charlie, and even his father was poisoned to death by him. It was already miserable enough. He didn't expect that his younger brother would fall into trouble and gave him one. For the crime of poisoning his biological father, he also spent a lot of money to offer a reward for his head.

It can be said that he would never forgive Jiro until he died.

In fact, Jiro hates his own brother.

Because Charlie had already made it very clear last time, only one of the two brothers could go back to Japan with him, and the other person had to stay in the kennel and work for a lifetime.

And Charlie himself tends to take his brother Ichiro home, so he hopes that his brother will have some accident every day, it is best to die suddenly, in that case, he will become the only candidate for Charlie.

Chapter 1644

Although after returning to Japan with Charlie, he must give him 90% of the shares, but this is much better than staying at the kennel to work.

After Charlie came to the kennel, he instructed Mr. Orvel: "Bring both Ichiro and Jiro."

"OK, Master!"

Mr. Orvel immediately ordered to go down, and soon, several of his men came over with brothers Ichiro and Jiro wearing work clothes.

As soon as the two met at the door, Ichiro took advantage of the unpreparedness, rushed over and kicked Jiro, kicked Jiro out, and said in a curse, "You b@stard, dare to show up in front of me!"

Jiro was kicked to the ground and hurriedly got up and rushed over to fight with him. He yelled, "You b@stard, I must kill you!"

Ichiro is not to be outdone: "Come on, let's see who kills who! I will blow your head with a punch!"

Mr. Orvel's men hurriedly separated the two and kept them under control. One of them yelled, "What the hll is this all fck? Just be honest with me! Otherwise, there will be good-looking ones from both of you later."

The two of them didn't dare to make any trouble, and were led into the room one after another.

Charlie sat on the chair of the grandmaster, looked at the brothers with interest, and said with a smile: "Two, how are you doing these days?"

When the two saw Charlie, they all knelt in front of him. Ichiro said excitedly: "Master, you are finally here! I have been waiting for you to come back these days, so I can follow you to Japan, 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares will be transferred to you!"

Jiro said hurriedly: "Master, don't believe this b@stard. He is a natural rebellious person and he is not a good person at all! Choose me! If you take me back to Japan, I will give you 95% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Ichiro was crazy and he blurted out: "Jiro, you Abnere who murdered, dare you to say that I was born with a bone?!"

Jiro ignored him and looked at Charlie and pleaded: "Master, I don't ask for anything else. You only need to leave me two shares, and I will give you the remaining 98%. Please, take me. Take me back to Japan..."

Ichiro next to gritted his teeth: "Master, if you take me back, 99% of the shares will be given to you!!!"

Jiro collapsed and shouted: "Master, I will give you everything! You only need to save me some real estate and pay me a salary!"

Charlie looked at the two brothers vying for freedom with interest, and smiled faintly: "Okay, don't chat here anymore. I always count my words. Last time I promised Ichiro to take him back. He will give me 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares, so naturally I will not break my promise."

After that, he looked at Ichiro who was ecstatic, and said, "Ichiro, you prepare, let's set off in the next two days."

Ichiro was trembling with excitement, and when he knocked Charlie three times in a row, he said excitedly: "Thank you Master, thank you Master!"

Jiro almost collapsed, crying and said: "Master, please take me back, I am willing to do anything you ask me..."

Charlie said indifferently: "Well, Jiro, how about you, just stay here honestly. Here you can eat, drink, and live. You don't have to worry about anything. If your brother is not obedient, he naturally will be sent back to replace you."

Jiro fell into despair. Will he wait until the year of the monkey?

On the side, Ichiro seemed to be reborn, and he asked Charlie excitedly: "Master, when are we going to leave?"

Charlie waved his hand: "Tomorrow!"

Chapter 1645

Ichiro was excited when he heard that Charlie would take him back to Japan tomorrow, but then he felt nervous again.

He looked at Charlie and asked in a low voice, "Master, how can I convince the public when I return to Japan like this? Everyone thinks that I killed my father, and they all think I'm dead. Suddenly going back, I am afraid it will be difficult to inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceutical..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Isn't this a trivial matter?"

After finishing speaking, he immediately beckoned to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, arrange for someone to prepare a video camera and shoot a video of confession for Jiro to let him admit that he poisoned and killed his father, and then offered a huge reward for his brother. Human head in order to achieve the goal of monopolizing Kobayashi Pharmaceutical."

When Jiro heard this, he felt as if the sky had fallen, crying and said, "Master, you can't do this! Didn't you say that if my eldest brother behaves badly, just change me back? You let me now Plead guilty, how can I go back in the future?"

Charlie said coldly: "What are you afraid of? You brothers will record a video of confessing guilt alone later. If your brother is in charge, you will be in charge; if you are in charge, let your brother be in charge. Is this not perfect?"

Both Jiro and Ichiro are full of despair, now that Charlie is really going to die?

However, they are also very clear that their current life and death are in Charlie's hands. If they really fight against him, they are likely to suffer a disaster.

So the two of them could only nod their heads honestly, and the people arranged by Orvel took them to the empty room next door to shoot the video.

Charlie called Meiqing's son Paul at this time and asked him as soon as he came up: "Paul, do you have time in the next few days?"

Paul hurriedly said, "Mr. Charlie, what are your orders?"

Charlie said: "It's the thing I told you before. You will accompany me to Japan to resolve the issue of the transfer of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares and complete the relevant legal procedures."

"No problem!" Paul said immediately: "When is the specific departure time? I can arrange what I have at hand, and then I can go with you."

Charlie said with a smile: "Tomorrow, let's go early and return early."

"Ok." Paul said, "Then let me book the ticket, who are you with?"

Charlie said casually: "You don't need to book the ticket. I will say hello to Issac and let him arrange a private jet."

"It Okay then!"

Then Charlie hung up the phone and called Issac again.

After all, the Wade family has a big business. In Aurous Hill, there is a private jet specially assigned to Issac for daily use. When Issac heard that Charlie was going to Japan, he immediately arranged for the crew of the private jet to apply for the route and departure time.

At the same time, he said to Charlie: "Master you are going to Japan this time, and you are not familiar with the place. So, I will go with you. I have some friendships with many Japanese companies and families. In case of any need, It can also be convenient for you."

Since returning from killing the Eight Great Heavenly Kings in Changbai Mountain, Issac has followed Charlie with all his heart, and regarded him as the only master in his heart, and Charlie can also see that this person is now 100% credible and is completely under his control. Since he wanted to follow, he had no objection.

So Charlie said to him: "Let's do it, you arrange the plane, and then arrange two or three capable subordinates, and then go there together."

With that said, Charlie glanced at Orvel and asked him, "Mr. Orvel, have you been okay in the last few days? If it's okay, come with me to Japan."

Chapter 1646

Mr. Orvel nodded immediately and said, "No problem, Master! Orvel will listen to your instructions!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said to Issac: "Old man, Mr. Orvel is with us, Paul from Smith Law Firm, and Ichiro from the Kobayashi family, please let the crew prepare."

"OK Master! I'll make arrangements!"

At this time, the brothers Ichiro and Jiro also recorded their own back-to-back videos.

Later, the two were brought back by Orvel's men.

Charlie looked at the two and said lightly: "Ichiro, you have a good rest today. Tomorrow Mr. Orvel will take you to the airport, but I will warn you in advance. Please be careful along the way. Don't think that coming to Japan is like Back at your home court, if you dare to have any disobedience, I will definitely not spare you."

Ichiro nodded like garlic: "Mr. Charlie, don't worry, I will die, but I won't disobey you..."

Charlie gave a hum, then looked at Jiro, and said lightly: "Jiro, you just stay here, Mr. Orvel's men will make you eat and drink well. Apart from work, you will have the rest. You can pray for a while, and pray that something will happen to your eldest brother, so that you have a chance to return to Japan."

Hearing this, Ichiro waved his hands in fright: "Mr. Charlie, you don't need to worry about anything, I will never cause anything. Jiro, the b@stard, will never have the chance to leave this kennel in this life!"

Jiro gritted his teeth angrily.

However, now that Ichiro became Charlie's first choice, he could only honestly be a spare tire.

What is a spare tire?

If there are no problems with the tires being used, no air leaks, and no punctures, the spare tire will never have the opportunity to be employed.

Thinking of this, the hatred in his heart for his eldest brother is even deeper.

If it weren't for so many people here, he would have liked to rush up now and strangle this big brother to death with his arm!

Seeing that the brothers were hostile and jealous of each other, Charlie was very satisfied.

What he wants is such an effect, allowing them to deter and check and balance each other.

In this way, none of them dare to make trouble with him, and can only honestly let themselves be at his mercy and be his puppets.

Thinking of this, Charlie stood up and said to Orvel, "Mr. Orvel, starting from tomorrow, we will strengthen the guard of the kennel. We must take care of Jiro, and he's not allowed to go on business trips!"

Mr. Orvel immediately nodded and said, "Master, you can rest assured that there are more than 20 guards here, and dozens of the most ferocious purebred hounds. One bite of a dog and Jiro's small body is gone, tomorrow I will transfer ten more subordinates to come and surround this place into an iron bucket, there will never be any business trips!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Okay, your style of doing things has become more and more appetizing to me, but you should also pay attention to it. If he is disobedient and you really let the dog bite, don't let the dog bite him to death. It's a good thing to keep him alive."

Orvel looked at Jiro and smiled sullenly: "If this kid dares to run, I will let my snow mastiff bite his stuff first!"

Chapter 1647

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has multiple production bases in Japan.

Its headquarter is located in Tokyo. In addition to Tokyo, there are also production lines in several cities such as Yokohama, Osaka, and Nagoya.

In addition, some time ago, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical also invested a large amount of funds to establish Asia's largest biopharmaceutical production base in Osaka.

When Charlie went to Japan this time, in addition to finalizing the share transfer agreement with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and completing the share transfer, he also brought Liang from Wei's Pharmaceuticals to inspect these production bases.

Liang is now the general manager of JX Pharmaceutical and the specific person in charge of the company. After Charlie takes over Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, he will be in charge of the entire production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical for the time being.

In the future, if the time is right, Stephen can come over to take over Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, and then let Liang concentrate on the country, and continue to expand the scale of JX Pharmaceutical in China.

Therefore, Charlie and Issac made an itinerary plan.

They will fly from Aurous Hill to Tokyo tomorrow morning. Issac will contact his men in Tokyo to respond to them locally, and arrange for a team to accompany them throughout the journey.

After getting things done in Tokyo, they will drive from Tokyo and head west to Yokohama.

Yokohama is near Tokyo, not too far away, and it is less than a hundred kilometers by car.

Then, drive from Yokohama to Nagoya and finally to Osaka.

After the inspection in Osaka, they can fly back to Aurous Hill directly from Osaka.

The reason why they have to drive around these cities is mainly because Japan has a relatively small land area. In fact, these cities are not far apart.

From Tokyo all the way to Osaka, it is more than 500 kilometers away. It takes less than an hour to arrive by plane. What's more, you have to go to the two cities of Yokohama and Nagoya in the middle. Instead, taking a plane is far less convenient than driving.

Charlie studied the map of Japan and found a small detail. The highway from Nagoya to Osaka in Japan happened to pass through Kyoto.

Nanako, who was seriously injured, was resting in Kyoto.

Charlie couldn't help but think: I must go to Kyoto to see her!

.....

At the dinner table, Charlie told the family directly that he was going to Japan tomorrow.

When they heard that Charlie was leaving tomorrow, Claire said with a bit of dismay: "You just came back today, and will leave tomorrow. You haven't even stayed for 24 hours..."

"Yeah!" Jacob couldn't help but muttered: "Good son-in-law, making money is important, but your body is more important. You keep running back and forth like this, and this body can't stand it either."

Elaine was a little excited and said, "Oh, what do you know? You have never been successful since you got married, and you have no motivation at all. That's why our family has been looked down upon you especially by the Old Lady, and we have never had a good life."

After that, she looked at Charlie with a flattering expression, and complimented: "Look at our family Charlie, how ambitious! don't know how many times stronger than you!"

Jacob snorted, "Are you a human again? You used to chase people, and Charlie said that they were useless. Isn't it you? You used to chase your daughter and asked her to divorce Charlie?"

Elaine's expression was a little unnatural, and she said anxiously, "Jacob, you don't instigate discord here! I was wrong before, but I can correct it if I know the mistake!"

After speaking, he hurriedly said to Charlie with a smile: "Good son-in-law, for how many days are you going to go to Japan this time?"

Charlie said: "If it's fast, it's three to five days, if it's slow, it's a week."

Chapter 1648

Claire couldn't help muttering: "Huh? So long?!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Isn't this going to a foreign country? I'm not familiar with the place. It's definitely not as convenient as doing things in China. If you really want to help others change Feng Shui, those raw materials are probably not available. It is so easy in China, so the time period may be extended."

Claire felt a little stunned.

In the past few days when Charlie went to Eastcliff, she thought about him falling asleep every night. Now she finally looked forward to him coming back. She didn't expect him to leave again, and it would last for several days.

Elaine couldn't help asking at this moment: "Good son-in-law, you go to Japan to show others Feng Shui this time, how much would they give you?"

Charlie replied casually: "Two or three million."

"Oh! So much!" Elaine clapped her hands happily, then gave a thumbs up and complimented: "My son-in-law is amazing! You can make two or three million by just watching Feng Shui!"

After finishing speaking, she quickly said with a smile: "Good son-in-law, I heard that Japanese cosmetics, skin care products, etc., the quality and efficacy are good, don't forget to buy some gifts for mom when you come back. Okay!"

Jacob couldn't see it anymore, and blurted out: "Elaine, are you endless? Charlie has bought you a lot of Hermes, and you still ask for gifts? You are not greedy enough!"

"You need to take care of it!" Elaine gave Jacob a white look, and said angrily: "I'm asking about what I want, not what you want, what are you doing here? Who didn't mention the pants and gave you Exposed?"

When Jacob heard this, his angry cheeks flushed and his whole body trembled!

"I didn't mention my pants to show myself? Doesn't this compare me to that thing?"

"This lady's broken mouth is too bad! I really want to smoke her with a big mouth!"

However, Jacob only dared to think about it in his heart, if he really started with Elaine, then he would be annoying.

So he immediately looked at Claire and complained: "Claire, look at your mother, it's really a dog that can't spit out ivory. What kind of quality is this!"

Claire couldn't listen anymore, and couldn't help but said, "Mom, you can't be more civilized..."

"Good, good." Elaine waved her hand indifferently: "I am a little more civilized, and I don't have a general knowledge of this old thing."

Charlie, who was on the side, shook his head and smiled, but he didn't even think about it. He was used to the bickering between the two for a long time now. If the two of them didn't fight each other someday, they would have something wrong.

After dinner, Charlie and Claire returned to the bedroom on the second floor.

As usual, the couple took a shower one after the other, and then lay on the bed one after another.

Charlie hasn't gone further with Claire since he was promoted to the first level before the fight, but he hasn't been too anxious, not to mention that there have been a lot of things recently, and he has always been troubled by the presence of other women.

Thinking of going to Japan tomorrow, Nanako's face and how she looked when she was injured in the ring suddenly appeared in his mind.

Charlie didn't understand why he would never forget the woman Nanako.

It seems that he is attracted by her dual character, which is gentle as water and tough and unyielding?

While thinking wildly, Charlie suddenly felt that Claire next to him moved.

He thought that Claire was just turning over normally, but he didn't expect that she would lift a corner of Charlie's quilt and get into his bed...

Chapter 1649

Claire got into Charlie's bed and gently hugged his waist.

At this moment, she felt an unprecedented sense of security.

Having been with Charlie for so long, this is the first time to hold him like this. Although she feels full of security, her heart is still short of breath.

Charlie, who had been thinking about things, was startled by Claire's actions.

When he turned his face, Claire was also taken aback by him.

Claire's pretty face suddenly became hot, and she stammered: "Husband, you...you haven't slept yet?"

Charlie also explained in a flustered manner: "I slept, woke up again..."

After speaking, he couldn't help asking: "Wife, why did you run into my bed?"

Claire said in embarrassment, "That...I...I am...I am..."

Claire stammered and murmured for a long time, before she simply turned her mind and said, "I just don't want you to go out again, so I want to hug you to sleep, okay?"

When Charlie heard this, he felt a little throbbing in his heart. He stretched out his hand to put her in his arms and whispered softly: "Silly girl, I will be back in a few days."

"Yeah." Claire gently leaned in Charlie's arms and said with a smile: "I found that holding you to sleep like this is really safe."

Charlie smiled and said, "Will I be able to get another level up from now on? How about we just sleep in a b3d from now on?"

Claire was immediately embarrassed and said in a low voice, "It's not impossible to upgrade to one level, but for the time being, you can only upgrade to one level..."

Following Charlie's previous routine, he must ask Claire at this time, when will he be able to reach the full level? When can he have a baby? After all, even Elaine supported the two of them to have a baby quickly.

Perhaps, if he satisfactorily, he would be able to get things done for the couple.

That feeling, like a thorn stuck in Charlie's heart, instantly made him calm down a lot.

So, he gently hugged Claire, and said softly: "It's okay, I will be promoted to the next level, and it will be fine to sleep with you."

Now, it was Claire's turn to be surprised.

She also thought that Charlie would definitely come to make some soft and hard bubbles.

However, she never expected that Charlie would accept it so easily.

This made her heart linger for a while.

In fact, she has had deep feelings and dependence on Charlie after getting along for so long.

However, after all, she was an unmanned girl, and she was somewhat hesitant and worried about breaking through that layer of relationship.

If Charlie was very active, she might just let him go.

But Charlie's sudden calmness really made her unexpected.

She wanted to ask him, why did he act so indifferently today? Is it because he doesn't like her?

However, she soon felt that it was really hard for her to speak such words, so she could only hide them deep in her heart.

Soon, Charlie by her side let out a uniform breathing sound, Claire sighed in her heart, and fell asleep slowly with a bit of loss.

Charlie woke up early the next morning.

In fact, he didn't sleep well this night.

Don't know why, as long as he closed his eyes, he couldn't help but think of Nanako.

During this period of time, there have been many women around Charlie.

Whether it was Warnia, Aoxue, or Zhovia, Xiaofen, and Sara, although these women more or less made him feel a little heart-stirring, none of them made him feel distressed like Nanako.

After Sara waited for so many years and found him after all after so many years, Charlie was indeed very guilty, but, Sara was born into a big family and was loved by her parents in every possible way.

After adulthood, she became an internationally renowned star, and was sought after and loved by countless people.

Even without him, her life is very wonderful, very rich, and very happy.

But Nanako is different.

Although she was also born in a rich family and was loved by her family, she was indeed injured too badly in the fight with Aoxue.

Suffering such a serious injury, the double blow to the body and spirit is absolutely impossible for an ordinary girl to experience in her lifetime.

Moreover, Charlie can also imagine that although she is out of danger now, she must be tortured by injuries all the time. This feeling must be very painful.

And she could not have played this game.

However, she did everything to make him admire.

Even in the last match against Aoxue, she waited for a chance to win with one move in order to make him notice her, even if she was injured.

Charlie knew very well that if it wasn't for him, how could that silly girl be injured so badly?

It is precisely because of this that he always feels distressed for how she looked when she was injured.

Charlie also reflected on that, as a married man, he should not feel sorry for other women, let alone a her.

However, that kind of mood is completely beyond his control.

After washing, Charlie quietly left the bedroom without waking Claire, who was still asleep.

Charlie went downstairs and saw that Jacob and Elaine hadn't gotten up, so he left a note, and then hurried out of the house.

At the door of Tomson.

Several Rolls-Royce cars parked side by side. As soon as Charlie came out, Issac and his men all got out of the car, bowed respectfully to him, and said in unison: "Master!"

Charlie nodded and got into the same car with Issac.

As soon as he got on, Issac immediately said to Charlie: "Master Paul and Liang are all going by themselves. Mr. Orvel and Ichiro walked past the kennel. We only need to meet them at the airport, the plane and the crew personnel are all ready, and they will leave at any time after we arrive!"

Charlie said, the biggest difference between private jets and ordinary civil aviation flights is that the time is relatively free. As long as you apply for today's flight route, you can theoretically depart at any time.

There is an idea in his subconscious mind now, that is to go to Tokyo to get things done, and then rush all the way to Kyoto.

Don't know why, Nanako has become a curse in his heart, always emerging and constantly affecting his emotions.

He felt that this might be mainly because he felt a bit of sympathy for Nanako's experience, and if he cured her by himself, this demon would naturally be eliminated.

As a result, he said to Issac a little impatiently: "Okay, time is waiting for no one, hurry up"

Chapter 1651

Aurous Hill Airport.

The plane arranged by Issac has been waiting in the hangar for a long time.

Orvel had already arrived with Ichiro, and was waiting under the plane.

Nine o'clock in the morning.

Issac's motorcade drove to the hangar one after another.

He immediately got out of the car and personally opened the door for Charlie.

After Charlie got out of the car, everyone came forward to greet him.

Charlie nodded slightly, and said to everyone, "Are all the people here? If they are all there, then get on the plane now."

Issac counted, and respectfully said to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, it's all here."

"Okay, let's go!"

In addition to Issac, Orvel, Liang, Paul and Ichiro, who accompanied Charlie, there were also some twelve people under Mr. Orvel and Issac following them along.

After everyone boarded the plane, the crew immediately started the engine of the plane, pushed the plane out of the hangar, and then contacted the tower to jump in and take off.

The plane jumped into the air and flew eastward.

During the flight, Ichiro was restless and looked very nervous.

He plucked up the courage, came to Charlie's side, and asked respectfully: "Master, what if other members of the family are unwilling to accept me, and even think that I am the murderer of my father and refuse to let me inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceutical?"

Charlie said lightly: "I have a video of Jiro's confession in my hand, and I will show it to them in time."

Ichiro asked again: "Then what if they still don't believe it?"

Charlie smiled contemptuously: "Don't believe it? Just go through the legal process if they don't believe it. They said that you killed your father. Can they show tangible evidence? If they can't show it, it proves that you were not the murderer of your father. , What can they do with you?"

After that, Charlie said again: "Besides, your brother has disappeared now, and you are the only heir to your father's estate. If the other members of your family do not agree with you, then all of them will be driven out of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and let them fend for themselves!"

Ichiro said with a little emboldened expression: "Master, let's not tell you that, on the board of directors of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, there are my uncles and family elders. Although they have no actual shares, they have certain shares. From the pharmacy, they take a lot of dividends, and they all hold some more important positions. If this group of people works against me, it's really not that easy to deal with..."

Charlie said indifferently: "These are not problems. At that time, we will give them two ways. The first is to cooperate honestly. As long as they are obedient, the dividends that should be given to them will still be given to them; but if they don't toast, there is only a second way to eat, drink, and fine. When that happens, there will be no one left, all of them will be gone. Everyone will be transferred after the earth is gone. These important positions can also be re-built with a new management team.

After that, Charlie pointed to Liang and said to Ichiro: "It's really not possible. I will split a part of the management team of JX Pharmaceuticals and take over the management. Then you will stay in Japan and enjoy the life of a drunken fan. Just do it, don't worry about anything else."

Ichiro knew very well that after he successfully transferred 90% of the shares to Charlie, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has nothing to do with him.

What he can do is to honestly take the dividends given by Charlie and live a life of drunken dreams of ordinary rich people.

Chapter 1652

Thinking about it carefully, Ichiro felt a little guilty in his heart.

Because in this way, it was equivalent to selling out his father's life's hard work.

There is an old Chinese saying that it is not distressing to ask the cubs to sell Yetian, but this old saying is a prodigal. Although Ichiro is not very capable, he really cannot be regarded as a prodigal.

If he were a prodigal son, he would not have come to China to participate in the traditional medicine Expo, let alone covet Tianqi's magical medicine.

He wanted to get the magic medicine formula, but he also wanted to revitalize Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and let the company stand on the top of the world.

After all, he also has a leading family to flourish.

But now, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will soon be ruined in his hands.

Although Ichiro was very melancholic, but after thinking about it, he felt that this might not be a bad thing.

After all, he also knows how popular JX Weisan is now. Judging from the powerful medicinal effects of JX Weisan, it will definitely become a best-selling medicine in the world in the future.

As for Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, if it is not included by Charlie, it will definitely go downhill in the future.

If Kobayashi Pharmaceutical makes all-out efforts to produce JX Weisan after the change of ownership, it will surely create huge wealth around the world. By that time, his 10% shares may allocate more money.

Thinking of this, Ichiro felt much more relaxed.

After completing the immigration formalities, everyone came out of the airport, and the men arranged by Issac were already waiting outside the airport.

Issac arranged for these men to drive all Rolls-Royces.

This is mainly because most Japanese people choose cars from local Japanese brands, which are cheap and affordable.

Imported cars such as Mercedes-Benz, BMW and even Rolls-Royce have a very low percentage of appearances on the streets of Japan, so this fleet of Rolls-Royce is also very eye-catching at the airport.

Issac personally opened the door of one of the Rolls-Royce cars for Charlie. After Charlie got in the car, he went to the other side to get on the car and asked Charlie, "Master where shall we go first?"

Charlie said: "Go directly to the headquarters of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical."

Issac said: "Master I have investigated the situation of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. before, to be honest, their family is still very complicated, and you rashly brought Ichiro over, I am afraid it will be difficult to convince the public."

Charlie smiled slightly, and said indifferently: "The more complicated, the more quickly I have to cut the mess. I'm here to make money, not to make friends with them. Could it be that I have to take all the mess of the Kobayashi family one by one. Is it smooth?"

Issac said with some worry: "Master after all, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is a large group worth more than 100 billion. the collateral members of their family will look at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. Now in their eyes, Ichiro is dead. Jiro has also disappeared, so it is a good opportunity to embezzle Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. Maybe they have already started to divide the company internally. We risked to harvest them, it will cause strong resistance..."

Charlie smiled calmly: "From a legal point of view, no one can stop Ichiro from taking back Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. If other people in the Kobayashi family are not convinced and want to make some small actions, then I will take this opportunity to take the rest of the Kobayashi family. Clean up the collateral members!"

Chapter 1653

At this time, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's Tokyo headquarters is preparing to hold an emergency shareholders meeting.

During this time, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., that is, Jiro, disappeared suddenly after he left for China, and the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Group was headless.

In the beginning, the shareholders were still trying every means to find the whereabouts of Jiro.

But they did a lot of hard work and tried, and they did not find Jiro.

After that, they immediately contacted Ito Takehiko, the leader of the Ito family.

I contacted Ito Yuhiko because the shareholders of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals know that Ito Yuhiko is very optimistic about Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and Jiro, and hopes to recruit Jiro as his son-in-law, and then buy shares in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals.

And the reason why Jiro went to China, in the final analysis, was to pursue Ito Yuhiko's daughter, Nanako.

As a result, Nanako returned, but her follower Jiro evaporated from the world, which made the Kobayashi family members even hard to understand.

Ito Yuhiko is also very concerned about this matter. After all, he is very optimistic about Jiro and Kobayashi Pharmaceutical too. If Jiro disappears, he will naturally not be his son-in-law.

Moreover, JX Weisan is currently insufficient in production capacity and has not been exported to overseas markets. Therefore, local Japanese consumers know nothing about this magic medicine. They still regard Kobayashi Weisan as the best in stomach medicine. Kobayashi Weisan is in the Japanese market. Sales have not received any impact.

Therefore, in Ito's view, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's future prospects are still bright.

In order not to miss the opportunity to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, Ito Yuhiko also sent many people to search for Jiro's whereabouts.

But it is a pity that they don't have a strong intelligence network in China, and they can't get any information about Jiro at all.

As a result, Jiro seemed to have completely disappeared in the eyes of the Kobayashi family and Ito Yuhiko.

Over time, Ito Yuhiko took the lead in giving up the search for Jiro.

He felt that instead of looking for Jiro, it would be better to quickly let the Kobayashi family choose a new president, and then go to work with the new president by himself.

Subsequently, under the operation of Ito Takehiko, the Kobayashi family also gave up.

After the Kobayashi family gave up looking for Jiro, they began to enter the next stage, preparing to reform Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, and re-divide the cake of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical was developed by Ichiro's father, Masao Kobayashi, in decades. Although many members of the Kobayashi family are involved, they do not directly own the shares of the company.

After the death of Masao Kobayashi, Ichiro was labeled as a father-killer, and Jiro naturally became the sole heir of industry.

However, now Jiro is also missing.

According to Japanese law, if Jiro's whereabouts remain unknown within a certain period of time, it can be determined from the legal level that the person is dead and his relatives have the right to inherit all his property.

In that way, all the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will become a Chinese meal for the collateral relatives of the Kobayashi family.

Ichiro's pro-uncle, Masayoshi Kobayashi, has now temporarily succeeded as the acting chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., and exercises management power instead of Jiro.

Chapter 1654

At this time, he called Masayoshi Kobayashi directly, and as soon as he came up he said: "Mr. Kobayashi, congratulations on your seat as the acting president!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi respectfully said: "Mr. Ito, thank you for your kind wishes. My acting chairmanship is only a temporary act. When my nephew Jiro returns, I will still give him this position."

Ito Yuhiko sneered and said, "I guess Jiro will not be back. You, the acting president, will soon become the official president!"

Masayoshi Kobayashi was secretly happy in his heart, but still said very honestly: "Mr. Ito, to tell you, I still think about it day and night, I hope Jiro can return safely."

Ito Yuhiko smiled and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, I am calling, not to be polite to you, but to have a business to cooperate with you."

Masayoshi Kobayashi hurriedly said, "Mr. Ito, please speak!"

Ito said in a serious tone: "I have always been very optimistic about Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's prospects. You should know this."

"Yes!" Kobayashi Masayoshi respectfully said: "I've heard about this a long time ago! Thank you for your interest in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Ito Yuhiko said again: "I, I have always wanted to buy a stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals. I have had a deep conversation with Jiro before, but it is a pity that he suddenly evaporated, so I can only come and continue this matter with you now."

Masayoshi Kobayashi hurriedly said, "This is okay, but don't know how you want to advance, Mr. Ito?"

Ito Yuihiko said: "I want to make a deal with your company and make two deals with you personally."

Kobayashi Masayoshi said: "Please speak."

Ito Takehiko said: "The transaction with Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is an agreement that I intend to take a 30% stake at a valuation of 15 billion USD."

Kobayashi Masayoshi said embarrassingly: "Mr. Ito, the current value of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is probably more than 20 billion USD, and your price is 15 billion USD, which is really a bit less..."

Ito Yuihiko said lightly: "Don't worry, I will discuss two deals with you next."

As he said, Ito Yuihiko said again: "The first one, as long as you can make me buy Kobayashi Pharmaceutical at a valuation of 15 billion USD, then I will privately give you 200 million USD in cash."

"The second pen, as long as you help me make this happen, I will not only give you 200 million USD in cash, but also consolidate your position in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. I can assure you at that time whether Jiro will come back or not. You can sit firmly as the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd.!"

Although the Ito family is the top family in Japan, it does not mean that Ito is a generous person.

He has always wanted to buy shares in Kobayashi's, to make a fortune with its medicine line, and he has always wanted to keep the price of shares as low as possible.

If it is a valuation of more than 20 billion USD, if he wants to invest 30% of the shares, he has to pay at least six to seven billion USD in cash.

However, if the valuation can be reduced to 15 billion USD, which is also a 30% shareholding, it will only need to pay 4.5 billion USD, which can save more than one or two billion USD

When Kobayashi Masayoshi heard this, the first thought in his mind was that he didn't want to make such a big hole for Ito. After all, this was a price difference of more than two billion USD, and the amount was huge.

However, when he thought that he could return cash to him privately and ensure that he would sit firmly as the president without any interference, he was vaguely moved.

After thinking about it, he opened his mouth and said: "Mr. Ito, since you have said so well, then I will not hide it with you. If you can privately return me five hundred million USD, then you can ensure that I sit firmly in the chairmanship. , Then when I have a meeting, I will try my best to promote the Ito family's stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. meeting room.

A large group of collateral members of the Kobayashi family and corporate executives are all sitting in distress at this time.

Recently, there have been incidents in the group one after another, making everyone present a little nervous.

First, the old president died tragically by poisoning, and then the young master was suspected of killing his biological father by poison.

However, nervousness turned nervousness, and everyone was still full of expectations for the future.

Because they have not been able to deeply participate in the operation of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals before, let alone deeply intervene and enjoy the profit distribution of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, they have always only got some petty profits.

It's different now.

Now, Masayoshi Kobayashi has become the acting president. He has promised everyone that he will release at least 40% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's profits. If it can be realized, everyone in the room will have an annual income more than ten times.

At this moment, Kobayashi Masayoshi walked into the meeting room with full momentum.

Everyone turned their attention to him. In everyone's eyes, he is now the god of wealth for everyone.

After entering the door, Masayoshi Kobayashi went straight to the chair of the conference room, and the others stood up respectfully to pay their respects.

At this time, without knowing who it was, he said flatteringly: "Welcome the president!"

Everyone returned to their senses and hurriedly said in unison: "Welcome to the president!"

After all, warm applause also sounded.

Masayoshi Kobayashi felt very comfortable in his heart, and said with a smile: "Don't scream about titles. I'm still the president of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. If it is passed on, outsiders will gossip!"

The person who was the first to flatter hurriedly said: "President, in our minds, you are the official president of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi smiled triumphantly, and then put on a just and awe-inspiring look, and said seriously: "I personally hope that Mr. Jiro can return to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and take control of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's overall situation as soon as possible. Before he comes back, I am only temporarily sitting in this position to manage the business for him!"

After that, he raised his hands and motioned everyone to sit down.

After everyone sat down, he said seriously: "Everyone knows that Kobayashi Pharmaceutical can be said to have internal and external troubles. I heard some time ago that a Chinese company called JX Pharmaceutical has launched a Weisan. This medicine is said to be much more effective than our Kobayashi's Weisan, but because the company's production capacity is relatively limited, it has not yet been exported to our market."

One of them hurriedly said: "My lord, I am going to report this to you. My son-in-law went to China last week and heard about this medicine, so he bought a box of it at a higher price. I tried it yesterday. After a while, I have to say that this medicine is more than a little bit stronger than our Kobayashi Weisan!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi said: "If this is the case, then JX Pharmaceutical will very likely become our next mortal enemy!"

After a pause, Kobayashi Masayoshi continued: "Moreover, our medicine is not as effective as it. If this continues, their output will continue to increase, and our sales will continue to decline. If Kobayashi's Weisan is in the global market, JX Weisan will eat, then our revenue will lose most of it!"

Everyone's expressions were stunned.

Chapter 1656

Kobayashi's Weisan is the flagship product of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, and most of its revenue and profits are supported by this medicine.

If it is really beaten by JX Weisan, then Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's vitality will definitely be greatly injured.

So someone asked Masayoshi Kobayashi: "President, we can't just wait and die like this! Do you have any good solutions?"

Kobayashi Masayoshi said: "There is also a way to deal with it, that is, we must increase investment in drug research and development, and we must quickly upgrade our current products. If our Kobayashi Weisan can surpass JX in terms of efficacy. Stomach market must still be ours!"

The person in charge of R&D opened the mouth and said: "My lord, if you want to increase investment in R&D, you need a huge budget. The company was sacked of a lot of money some time ago. Can it still afford it now?"

Masayoshi Kobayashi said smoothly: "This is what I'm about to tell you. Our current cash flow is not very good. The investment in the production base in Osaka costs a lot, coupled with the previous accidental losses, which leads us to get it now. The funds invested in research and development are already less than 50 million USD, so my idea is to raise a fund as soon as possible, with at least one billion USD to upgrade our drug R&D laboratory!”

When everyone heard that they were going to raise funds, they all sat up straight. Some people asked, “My lord, do you have a suitable financing partner?”

Masayoshi Kobayashi nodded and said, “Before, Chairman Jiro had been negotiating with Mr. Yuhiko Ito, the patriarch of the Ito family, about financing. Surely everyone knows about this?”

Everyone nodded.

Jiro has always wanted to take Ito’s investment, and even wanted to become Ito’s son-in-law, otherwise he would not spend money to name Nanako in the Sanda competition, which has long been known by Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Even, everyone is ready for the marriage between Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and the Ito family. Unfortunately, Jiro disappeared before the marriage was officially advanced.

Everyone thought that the cooperation with the Ito family would be terminated, but they did not expect that Masayoshi Kobayashi would now start cooperation with the Ito family.

As a result, everyone immediately became interested and asked excitedly: “Sir, don’t know what kind of valuation the Ito family can give us?”

Masayoshi Kobayashi cleared his throat and said, “Mr. Yuhiko Ito of the Ito family is willing to invest US$4.5 billion in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical at a valuation of US$15 billion, which will account for 30% of Kobayashi’s total shares after the investment!”

“Valued at 15 billion USD?!”

Everyone couldn’t help but talk.

In the beginning, Jiro and Ito Yuhiko talked about it, but it was not the price.

Why is it suddenly lowered so much now!

Someone questioned: "Mr. President, the Ito family's previous offer was not so low, why did it shrink so much?"

Someone said, "Yeah! At least 22 billion USD is appropriate? A valuation of 15 billion USD is nothing short of robbery..."

Kobayashi Masayoshi's expression was a bit ugly, and he said: "You have to figure out that we are facing internal and external troubles. It is not just that the president has disappeared for no reason. Another Weisan has appeared in China. If we don't hurry up and raise funds at this time, If we wait for JX Weisan to catch us by surprise, then our performance will drop significantly, let alone a valuation of 15 billion USD, even if it is 10 billion USD, it is impossible to get it!"

Chapter 1657

In fact, what Kobayashi said is true.

There is a certain information gap between Yuhiko Ito and him.

At this time, Ito Yuihiko thought that Kobayashi's stomach med was invincible. At this time, grabbing Kobayashi Pharmaceutical was equivalent to grabbing a profitable train.

However, Masayoshi Kobayashi and other members of the Kobayashi family now know about the existence of JX Pharmaceutical.

Knowing that at this moment, in China and in Aurous Hill, there is a Weisan that is popular in China. The efficacy of this Weisan is much stronger than that of Kobayashi Weisan.

Just now they thought that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals must have a valuation of at least 20 billion, and 15 billion USD is absolutely impossible to accept.

But now they suddenly realized that there are still people willing to offer a valuation of 15 billion USD, which is already very rare.

If JX Weisan successfully crosses Japan eastward, the valuation of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will be greatly reduced.

As a result, everyone together almost immediately supported Kobayashi Masayoshi's decision one-sidedly.

Kobayashi was very excited.

As long as the agreement is signed with the Ito family, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will immediately receive a capital injection of 4.5 billion USD, and he will also receive 500 million USD in remuneration.

In this way, he suddenly became a super-rich man!

As for Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, even if it will go bankrupt in the future, it has nothing to do with him. US$500 million is almost equivalent to more than 50 billion yen, which is enough for him to live a life in style.

So, he immediately notified Ito Yuihiko to go to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, strike the iron while it was hot, and sign the contract on the spot.

After hearing this news, Ito Yuhiko was very excited.

He felt that he had bought Kobayashi Pharmaceutical at a low price and could earn at least three or four times more in the future, so he almost immediately took his assistants and lawyers and went straight to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical without stopping.

Because the two companies are both located near Ginza, Tokyo, and both are located in Tokyo's most prosperous commercial area, the distance is not too far, only ten minutes away by car.

Kobayashi Masayoshi was overjoyed and said to everyone in the family: "Mr. Yuhiko Ito will come over and sign a contract with us. After the contract is signed, 4.5 billion USD will be paid to our account. In this way, we will have enough money, to deal with the next impact of JX Pharmaceutical on us!"

Everyone immediately beamed with joy.

The US $4.5 billion is indeed an astronomical figure. With so much money, even if Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals loses the US $100 million each year, it is enough to last for 45 years.

In this case, these senior executives can stay in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., even if Kobayashi Pharmaceutical suffers a huge impact, the money on the books will enable them to live well with food for many years.

Following him were his two bodyguards and an assistant, and this assistant was Koichi Tanaka who had followed Nanako before.

Koichi Tanaka was originally Ito Yuhiko's confidant. Some time ago, the reason why he let him go to China to participate in the competition with Nanako was because he was not at ease, so he let the person he trusted the most to accompany her all the way.

Chapter 1658

Now, Nanako is recuperating in Kyoto, and Hiroshi Tanaka went to China to seek medicine for her a few days ago, but there was no progress, so he returned to Tokyo to return to life with Takehiko Ito, and then stayed in Tokyo.

In addition to the Lexus extension sedan Ito took, there were ten bodyguards, divided into two Lexus off-road vehicles, one after the other protecting Ito Yuhiko's car. The three vehicles formed a convoy and drove to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

In the car, Ito Yuhiko looked very excited. He analyzed the financial reports and market sales of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in the past two years and felt that the future of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is very broad. It is definitely the best time to invest in shares now.

Therefore, in his view, the US$4.5 billion investment in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is like planting a large piece of gold in a magical land, and the future harvest will be at least 15 billion USD!

15 billion USD, converted to Japanese yen, more than 150 billion, converted to RMB, more than 100 billion!

While he was excited, Ito could not help but sigh, and said with emotion: "don't know what happened to Jiro. What a great living person, how can I say that he disappeared?"

Koichi Tanaka also couldn't figure it out, and said: "Before the young lady participated in the finals, Jiro also came to visit him, saying that he must go to see the young lady's competition, and look forward to awarding the young lady after the final..."

"But on the day of the final, Jiro did not appear at the competition. Originally, he was still the guest of the final, but because he was absent for no reason, the organizer temporarily invited other people to present the award..."

"I have always felt that this matter is a bit inexplicable. It stands to reason that Jiro's thoughts about the eldest lady are absolutely impossible for him to miss the final."

Ito Xiuhiko sighed: "I wanted to get him to be son-in-law, but I didn't expect him to disappear..."

After speaking, he said with a bit of melancholy on his face: "Nanako's physical condition is not very good now. don't know when and how long will it be to return to the original..."

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "President, I have asked someone to help contact an American expert, and see if I can ask him to come over and give the lady a consultation."

"Yeah." Ito nodded earnestly: "Be sure to bring in the best experts in the world, no matter how much money is spent, you will not hesitate!"

Koichi Tanaka asked again: "President, what about Mr. Yamamoto Kazuki? The doctors in Tokyo are also helpless about the injury. Would you like to ask an expert from the United States to come and see?"

Ito Yuihiko waved his hand in disgust: "Forget it, it's a waste, it's not worth putting too much energy into him. If he is really capable, Nanako won't be hurt so badly!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Mr. President, in fact, Mr. Yamamoto can't be blamed for this matter. The main reason is that the coach of the opponent's side was formidable..."

"Formidable?" Ito snorted and said disdainfully: "Tanaka, you may have some misunderstanding of the word formidable! I tell you that the truly powerful is not karate at all, but our Japanese ninjutsu and Onmyoji, this is the real great supernatural power, the karate of Yamamoto Kazuki is nothing more than an ordinary person's fake style and fancy!"

Ito Takehiko said indifferently: "Tanaka, ninjutsu and onmyoji are the national martial arts of Japan, especially ninjutsu. Even Westerners are obsessed with it. Why do you still doubt it?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: "My President, I've been to Iga City, the hometown of ninjutsu, several times before, and I have seen ninjutsu performances there. I always feel that ninjutsu is a bit like a combination of acrobatics and magic. significance."

Yuihiko Ito snorted and said with some sarcasm: "You, it's the frog at the bottom of the well, I tell you, true ninjutsu is no different from what is said in the legend, but now there are few true ninjas. Few, most of them are meticulously enshrined by top families. To the big families, they are like nuclear weapons. No family will take the initiative to expose them!"

Having said that, he sneered and said: "Some time ago, the sixth generation of Yamaguchi group died inexplicably in his own heavily guarded Hokkaido hot spring palace. Do you know this?"

Koichi Tanaka nodded immediately: "This matter is almost unknown to everyone in Japan. It has been reported on TV that he died of a cerebral hemorrhage."

"Cerebral hemorrhage?" Takehiko Ito coldly snorted: "It's just a slander from the outside world. In fact, he died at the hands of a ninjutsu master!"

Chapter 1659

At this moment, Tanaka felt that his worldview had been subverted.

The six generations of the famous Yamaguchi team died at the hands of a ninjutsu master, which is too legendary.

However, he did not dare to have any doubts about Ito's words.

Because he knows Yuhiko Ito's character very well, this person never says anything that is unsure.

If he says that, it must be that he has some special way to confirm that the facts are indeed what he said.

Even Koichi Tanaka suspected that there might be a master of ninjutsu in the Ito family.

However, he didn't ask much about it.

Because he knows that there are some questions he should not ask, and some things he should not know.

As the assistant of the Ito family and the confidant of Ito Takehiko, what he has to do is to serve Ito Takehiko well. Do not say a word about what you should ask and what should not be asked.

Therefore, he respectfully said to Ito Takehiko: "I'm ignorant and ignorant completely. I didn't expect the legendary ninjutsu master to actually exist..."

Ito Yuhiko nodded gently, and sighed: "It's a pity that Mr. Ninjutsu is good at killing people invisible, not good at curing diseases and saving people. Otherwise, Nanako would not have to endure so much pain."

After that, he sighed and waved his hand again: "Don't talk about it, I will arrive at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical later. After signing this contract, it is considered to be a worry for me. You will follow me tomorrow. For a trip to Kyoto, I want to put aside my business and return to Kyoto to accompany Nanako for a few days."

"Sure Lord!"

After all, the airport is still a little far away from Kobayashi's, not as convenient as Ito Yuhiko.

In the executive meeting room of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, Masayoshi Kobayashi had already instructed everyone not to mention anything about JX Weisan, and first get the money from the Ito family.

If after the investment of the Ito family, it is discovered that JX Weisan suddenly emerges, then the Kobayashi family will have to unify their slogans. If they ask, they will say that they don't know, and the relationship will be cleaned up so that the Ito family will not be accountable.

After all, it's just playing the Ito family.

Ito Yuhiko didn't know this. When he stepped into the meeting room, the entire management of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals all stood up and applauded. They all respected him, making him immediately feel that his face was greatly respected.

Masayoshi Kobayashi even surrendered the chairmanship of the conference room and said to Takehiko Ito: "Chairman Ito, please sit down!"

Ito nodded in satisfaction, sat down in the chair, and said with a smile: "I have always wanted to visit you, but there has never been a suitable opportunity. I see you here today. It is really a talent!"

Everyone was full of joy when they saw that Ito Yuhiko gave everyone such a high evaluation. At this time, looking at Ito Yuhiko's expression, it was completely like watching a boy who lost money.

Chapter 1660

At this time, Ito Yuihiko said again: "I have always been very optimistic about Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, and I am very willing to support it to go further, so I came here today just to sign an investment agreement with you. Regarding my investment intentions, you should not What's your opinion?"

Kobayashi Masayoshi hurriedly said respectfully: "Chairman Yitong, you can rest assured that we have reached a consensus before you come, and you are very welcome to invest in our company."

Yuhiko Ito nodded to prevent night-long dreams, and he said directly: "Well, I have had a lot of things recently, and I am going to leave Tokyo tomorrow, so we simply sign the contract now. If there is no problem, I will immediately notify the finance to arrange money."

Kobayashi Masayoshi blurted out: "No problem! Absolutely no problem, we can sign a contract immediately!"

Ito Yuihiko immediately said to Koichi Tanaka next to him: "Tanaka, take out the contract and show it to everyone."

Koichi Tanaka immediately took out a few contracts and distributed them, introducing: "Everyone, the investment details are already written in the contract. We valued Kobayashi Pharmaceutical for this investment at US$15 billion, and we are planning to invest 4500 million USD, holding 30% of the shares. If you don't have any comments, we can sign the contract now, and we can arrange the financial payment immediately after the contract is completed."

Everyone accepted the contract, and after reading it carefully, they found that there were no hidden terms and risks, and they all looked at Kobayashi Masayoshi and asked him to directly sign the contract.

Kobayashi Masayoshi also wanted to settle this matter quickly, so he immediately signed his name on the contract with a wave of his hand in the name of the acting chairman.

After the contract was signed, Ito Yuihiko also immediately notified the finance company and credited $4.5 billion to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's account.

What is left is that the board members of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical must submit an application to the commercial management department of Tokyo to officially change 30% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares to the Ito family.

After hearing that the 4.5 billion USD had already arrived, Kobayashi Masayoshi was so excited that he shook hands with Ito Takehiko and said, "Mr. Ito, you will be a shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical from now on!"

Yuihiko Ito laughed and said, "Don't worry, I won't interfere with your daily operations. You only need to do well and strive to become the world's top pharmaceutical company, and we will make money together!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi hurriedly said to the surrounding executives: "Come, everyone applauds, and welcome Mr. Ito to become a shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Everyone smiled and applauded.

At this moment, the door of the conference room was suddenly pushed open. Charlie walked in first with no expression on his face, and said coldly: "What is the noise?"

Everyone immediately looked at Charlie, everyone couldn't help being dumbfounded, who is this person? Why have I never seen him before? What are you doing here?

Ito Xiuhiko didn't expect anyone to come in and spoil the situation at this time, and snorted coldly: "Who are you? Can you break into this place?"

Charlie looked at him and said indifferently: "Old Master, I am a major shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. Can you say I can breakthrough?"

"Joke!" Kobayashi said coldly: "You are not from Kobayashi Pharmaceutical at all, so why do you say that you are a major shareholder?"

At this moment, Tanaka turned his head to recognize Charlie, and exclaimed: "Mr. Charlie, you... why are you here?"

Seeing that he was here, Charlie snorted and said: "Tanaka, you are really a bit lingering, how can I meet you everywhere?"

Ito Yuhiko hurriedly asked Tanaka Koichi: "Tanaka, do you know him?!"

Chapter 1661

Ito Yuihiko couldn't understand why Charlie came here, and Tanaka couldn't understand even more.

After all, in his impression, Charlie's identity is just Aoxue's coach, a local master in Aurous Hill, but why did he suddenly appear in Tokyo, and also in the meeting room of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical?

What is even more confusing is why Charlie said he is a major shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical? !

At this time, Ito's expression was a bit ugly.

On the way he came, he heard Tanaka talk about Charlie. In fact, he was very disdainful of such so-called masters, so he didn't take him to heart.

So he observed at Charlie and shouted in a cold voice: "Boy, you must consider the consequences before speaking. You can't afford the price of talking about it!"

Charlie didn't know Ito Takehiko. Seeing that this man looked like he was about fifty years old, with a big back, his expression and tone were very arrogant, and he suddenly felt a little dissatisfied.

He observed at Ito Takehiko, and said coldly: "Don't think you can pretend to be aggressive when you are old, and you will hit me if you get angry."

When did Takehiko Ito feel so angry?

Even the current Yamaguchi Group's Seventh Generation Mee must be respectful when meeting him. In this country, no one dares to talk to him like that.

As a result, Takehiko Ito was immediately furious, pointed at the two bodyguards beside him, and shouted angrily: "Teach him a lesson!"

As soon as the voice fell, the two people who had not moved like a mountain immediately rushed to Charlie.

They are all top masters, and different from the competition-type players like Yamamoto Kazuki, they are all real combat players, really hands-on, there may not be any good-looking tricks and postures, but they are absolutely lethal!

The two of them let out a low growl, all the strength of their bodies was raised, and they immediately attacked Charlie.

Seeing these two people rushing towards Charlie, Tanaka became tense.

He was not worried about Charlie, but about the two personal bodyguards of Ito Takehiko.

He had seen it with his own eyes at that time, how Charlie used a palm to destroy Yamamoto Kazuki, and Yamamoto Kazuki was a sc*m without fighting power in front of him!

No matter how strong these two bodyguards are, they can't be several times stronger than Kazuki Yamamoto, right?

For Charlie, it could be done in just a few palms.

At this moment, the two bodyguards had already rushed to Charlie, one on the left and the other on the right, hitting both sides of Charlie's ribs with heavy punches.

The ribs on both sides are one of the weakest parts of an adult's body. The ribs are not as hard as a skull, and they are extremely prone to breakage when hit from the side. If the ribs are broken from the side, the broken ribs themselves will also become A sharp blade pierced the victim's body.

The ribs protect the most important internal organs. Once a broken rib pierces the internal organs, it is extremely easy to cause severe internal bleeding, which may directly kill the other party!

This kind of cruel trick is almost lethal!

Charlie couldn't help narrowing his eyes slightly.

In ordinary conflicts, very few people come up and use such insidious tricks, either running their faces or running their limbs, even if they abolish all limbs, they will not kill others.

But he didn't expect that these two men would be so insidious that they wanted to kill him if he didn't agree with them. Looking at it this way, don't know how many people have already lost their lives!

Moreover, these two people know how to use hands, and it seems that they are also a good practice.

So Charlie sneered, and at the moment when the two fists were about to hit his ribs on both sides, he suddenly stretched out his hand and grabbed the wrists of the two at extremely fast speed.

Chapter 1662

The two powerful offensive stopped abruptly at this moment!

Both of them were frightened by the sudden huge force on their wrists, and found that their fists couldn't move in, and they couldn't retreat. They immediately realized that they had met a master today!

The two looked at each other, and they could see the panic in each other's eyes.

Afterwards, the two exchanged glances, and at the same time they exerted force, trying to free their right hand from Charlie's hand.

But unfortunately, with all their strength, they still couldn't withdraw their right hand even at all!

Charlie looked at the two with a smile on his face, and said with interest: "The hands of the two are a bit dark! They attacked others' ribs when they came up, are you afraid of killing them?"

The two were very nervous, and one of them said: "We just want to test your strength, nothing else!"

Charlie laughed: "Such a bad reason can be imagined, and it seems there is really something!"

Seeing that his two personal bodyguards were completely controlled by Charlie, Ito became nervous and blurted out: "What do you want to do?! Do you know who I am? If you mess with me, you will never end well in Japan!"

Charlie smiled: "The duck has a hard mouth when it dies, you really have your unique opinion."

After finishing speaking, he looked at the two bodyguards of Ito Takehiko, and said lightly: "You two remember that all your encounters today are due to your master!"

The two of them were asking for mercy, and Charlie suddenly twisted his hands, and their right arms were twisted into woven ropes!

At this moment, the two cried out in pain, and everyone at the scene paled!

What is the identity of Ito Yuhiko?

He is the patriarch of Japan's top family!

The bodyguard next to him is almost the strongest bodyguard in Japan, but what they didn't expect is that the two people added up are not Charlie's opponent!

At this time, Ito Yuhiko was also dumbfounded.

He never dreamed that these two bodyguards with rich practical experience and lots of blood on their hands would be abandoned at the same time so easily.

In Charlie's eyes, these two people are just a little bit stronger than ordinary people, but they are still far from the level of a master.

Together, the two can at most be similar to Oliver Vincent.

How could such a person be Charlie's opponent.

If Yuhiko Ito really finds out the so-called master of ninjutsu in Japan, he might even give Charlie a look.

At this time, Takehiko Ito scolded with a little nervousness: "You are an outsider, so you dare to go wild in Tokyo! Are you not afraid that I will not let you return to China?"

Charlie smiled and said: "What? Do you still want to keep me in Japan as your son-in-law?"

"b@stard!" Ito Yuihiko exclaimed, "Boy, you are too arrogant!"

Charlie said with a bit of disdain in his eyes: "I have no one in my eyes? I came here today to take over my own company. Instead, you barked at me in my company. What are you? I didn't beat you out. I am already respecting the old and loving the young!"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurried forward and said respectfully, "Mr. Charlie, calm down your anger. This is the head of the Ito family and the chairman of Ito Corporation, Mr. Yuhiko Ito!"

Chapter 1663

"Ito Yuhiko?"

Charlie frowned when he heard this, and asked Koichi Tanaka: "What is his relationship with Nanako?"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "Mr. Charlie, President Ito, is Miss Nanako's father!"

Charlie suddenly realized.

He actually didn't know much about the Ito family, except for Nanako, he didn't know anyone else.

Hearing that the middle-aged Japanese man with a big back head turned out to be Nanako's father, his expression eased slightly.

Afterwards, he looked at Ito Takehiko, and said lightly: "For the sake of your daughter's face, I won't be familiar with you this time. Since you are not from the Kobayashi family, then you don't need to stay here and take your people and leave."

Ito Yuhiko's face was pale with anger!

As the patriarch of the dignified Ito family, when did he receive such contempt?

Moreover, this young man's tone was extremely proud, as if he was just taking care of his daughter's face, so he didn't care about himself. It was too much!

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said: "Boy, why do you say that this is your company? You also said that you are a major shareholder of this company? I tell you that I just signed a contract with the representative chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. Officially acquired a 30% stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

"Oh?" Charlie said with a smile: "Which representative chairman has this right to sign a contract with you on behalf of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical?"

Masayoshi stood up and said, "I am the acting chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. All shareholders clearly agreed to Mr. Ito's shareholding in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. Why are you an outsider interfering? Besides, you in this company have nothing to do. If you don't leave, I will call the police!"

Charlie smiled: "I have nothing to do with this company? Come here, I will introduce you to an old acquaintance."

After that, he clapped his hands and shouted outside the door: "Come on, invite Mr. Kobayashi in!"

Issac and Mr. Orvel immediately took Ichiro and walked into the meeting room.

When Ichiro entered the meeting room, everyone was stunned in shock!

"This...this...isn't this Ichiro?!"

"Isn't he dead?!"

There were a lot of discussions.

Ichiro's expression was a bit ugly at this time, and he said coldly: "I tell you, you are all deceived by that b@stard Jiro! I didn't poison my father to death at all, but he was poisoned to death and then blamed on me! In order to monopolize Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, he also spent a lot of money and wanted to take my life!"

"Impossible!" Masayoshi said coldly: "I know exactly how the president died! You said that you got a magic medicine from China that would make the president stand up again, and the president was excited, he took Jiro and me to the airport to wait. After the medicine was delivered, the president died suddenly after taking the medicine. Do you dare to deny it?!"

Ichiro gritted his teeth and said: "I did get the magic drug at the beginning, but Jiro arranged for the magic drug to be dropped! You don't even think about it, why should I kill my father?"

Chapter 1664

Masayoshi angrily said: "You naturally want to monopolize Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, so that's why you killed the president!"

Ichiro scolded angrily: "Your dog's brain is broken. You keep saying that I killed my father to save Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, but you keep your dog's eyes open to see clearly, I am exclusive. After father died, who became the new president of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical?!"

Everyone observed each other when he said this.

Ichiro was right.

After the death of the old chairman, Masao Kobayashi, it was Ichiro's younger brother, Jiro, who succeeded the chairman.

Moreover, Jiro also spent a lot of money to get the head of Ichiro.

If this incident was really planned by Ichiro, is he too stupid? Not only did he not get any benefits, he even gave others a wedding gown, and even worse, after others put on the wedding gown, they wanted his life in turn...

Thinking of this, everyone suddenly realized that what happened back then might have something else hidden.

At this time, Masayoshi's mood is very complicated.

First of all, he managed to get rid of Masao Kobayashi and Ichiro, and then missed Jiro and took the position of acting chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd.

But in a blink of an eye, Ichiro came back unscathed!

Isn't this f*cking epic unluck?

He was full of resentment, and said angrily: "Ichiro, you have left Kobayashi Pharmaceutical for a long time. The current Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has been fully exercised by the shareholders meeting, and you have not eliminated the murder of your biological father. We will not allow you to take the Re-in charge of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Ichiro was also furious, and he sternly reprimanded: "Uncle, you are my elder. I wanted to give you respect. I didn't expect you to be so ignorant of good or bad! I am the real heir of the Kobayashi family, and the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. It was founded by my dad. You just follow part-time jobs and get a high salary. Why do you interfere with our family's property? What the h*ll are you? Believe it or not, I will let you get out of the company now?!"

"You...you...you..." Masayoshi was scolded bloody, and trembling with anger, cursed: "You murderer of the father sc*m, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will never fall into your hands!"

During this period of time, Ichiro worked hard at Orvel's kennel, and he was suffocated. He finally returned to Japan and returned to his own company. He didn't expect that this man would dare to yell at him. He immediately became angry and went up and gave Masayoshi a slap in the face!

After working in the kennel for so long, Ichiro's physical fitness has improved a lot. In addition, he is a mature man, and Masayoshi has been slapped with a slap.

All the members of the Kobayashi family present were horrified. Ichiro pointed to the bewildered Masayoshi and cursed: "Dog stuff, I will let you know today!"

After that, he looked at Charlie and bowed respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, please publish the video of Jiro's confession to let them know the truth!"

Charlie nodded and winked at Mr. Orvel. Mr. Orvel immediately took out his phone and played the video of Jiro's confession to everyone.

In the video, Jiro confessed in tears that his biological father, Masao Kobayashi, was killed by him, and he also admitted that he had spent a lot of money to hire someone to chase and kill his elder brother in an attempt to eliminate the trouble.

This completely subverted everyone's understanding of the whole thing.

Masayoshi was also panicked. He now realized that Jiro might have been killed by Ichiro, and now this guy is going back to seize power!

Chapter 1665

At this time, Masayoshi was 10,000 unconvinced.

It was so hard for him to get to an acting president, just about to take charge of the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, he didn't expect to wake up so soon!

So, he gritted his teeth and said: "Ichiro! Did you poison the old president? You haven't completely cleared the suspicion of this matter! Even if Jiro recorded this video, it cannot prove that the murderer must be him! Who knows if you kidnapped Jiro and forced him to record this video?"

Having said that, he immediately looked at everyone and fanned the flames, and said: "Am I right?"

Everyone nodded.

Kobayashi found out that he had a mass foundation, so he immediately continued to aggressively say: "This matter must be handed over to the police for investigation. When the police say that Ichiro is no longer suspicious, and then will we hand over the rights of the shareholders meeting? Here you are, before that, you must not interfere with Kobayashi Pharmaceutical in anything!"

As soon as Ichiro heard this, he ran away!

He kicked Masayoshi's abdomen, and yelled, "Masayoshi, you f*cking tell me, are you shameless? According to Japanese law, I am the eldest son of the family and I should inherit the family business, and now my brother has also disappeared. I am the only legal heir to my father. The company he founded is naturally inherited by me. You are a hired worker who works in the company. Why are you shouting at me here?"

Thinking of the torture he suffered during this period of time, Ichiro was full of evil fire, and now Masayoshi still wants to prevent him from taking over Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, this kind of man-armed car behavior makes him very angry!

So, he rushed up angrily to punch and kick at Masayoshi, and yelled: "Don't look, what the hell are you? Have you ever seen a group of servants occupying the house and not letting the owner's son live? Did you come in? How the hell dared to stop me back to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical? I tell you, you are now officially fired by Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, immediately get out of here!"

Masayoshi was beaten in various ways and grinned in pain. Although his heart was extremely angry, he was really frightened by Ichiro.

Ichiro's words sounded rude, but what he said was reasonable and legal.

He was originally the first heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. Even if he was suspected of murdering his biological father and the police convicted him and arrested him in prison, it would not be possible to deprive him of the right to inherit the estate.

What Masayoshi said sounds like awe-inspiring justice, but in fact it is a manifestation of not knowing the law at all.

Seeing that Masayoshi was beaten up, Charlie said: "Okay, continue the fight. If something happens to him, then you might really go to jail."

Ichiro stopped then and said respectfully to Charlie: "I'm sorry, Mr. Charlie, I made you laugh."

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "You all listen to me. As the legal heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, he has signed an equity transfer agreement with me. From now on, 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares are owned by me. The remaining 10% goes to Ichiro, so now I am the absolute majority shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical."

After that, Charlie waved to Paul: "Come on, Lawyer Paul, take out the copy of the contract and pass it on to them!"

Chapter 1666

Among them, Ito Yuhiko was the most unacceptable. He angrily protested: "Charlie, you don't talk about it here! I just signed a contract with Masayoshi, and used 4.5 billion USD in cash to buy 30% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares. ! I alone have 30%, so how can you get 90%? Isn't this a daydream?"

Charlie sneered and asked him: "Mr. Ito, right? I ask you, what position is Masayoshi in this company? What right does he have to sign such an agreement with you?"

Ito Yuihiko said coldly: "He is the acting president of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical! Since he is the acting president, he naturally has the right to sign a financing agreement!"

Charlie said contemptuously: "Should be nonsense here, who did his generation of president seal it? Did he seal it himself? There is something for him? The entire shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical are owned by Masao Kobayashi. Masao Kobayashi is dead. Ichiro and Jiro's father. Jiro's whereabouts are unknown now, so it's all Ichiro's. Why would Masayoshi make a decision for Ichiro and sell you 30% of the shares?"

Takehiko Ito angrily picked up the contract signed just now, and angrily scolded: "You can read it clearly. This contract is clearly written in black and white. I, the Ito family, own 30% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical! And I have already paid for it!"

"Oh, I'm sorry." Charlie said blankly: "The person who signed this contract with you is not qualified to sign this contract at all, so this contract is invalid. You move yourself think about it, if I sign an agreement for you and sell you the entire Japanese island, will the entire Japanese island be yours?"

After speaking, Charlie took a copy of the equity transfer from Paul and threw it in front of Ito Yuhiko, saying: "Come, see what is written on this, Ichiro has voluntarily incorporated 90% of the shares into JX Pharmaceutical Company, in black and white!"

"And you have to figure out one thing, Ichiro is the legal heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, so this agreement in my hand is truly and legally valid!"

"As for your share, I'm sorry, but it's just a pile of waste paper! Even if you ask your lawyers and judges, I believe they will not admit that your pile of waste paper has any practical meaning!"

"You...you are a hooligan!"

Ito Yuhiko also collapsed.

He has been strong for a lifetime, and has never shown weakness in front of the Yamaguchi group, but he did not expect that he would meet a shameless person like Charlie here today!

However, he also knows that his two personal bodyguards are now useless, and he is not Charlie's opponent at all. He can't face him head-on, so he can only temporarily avoid his edge, then find a chance to take revenge, and think of other ways to get it. To the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

So, he protested indignantly: "Well, since you said Ichiro is the legal heir, then we step back and say, anyway, I have paid 4.5 billion USD. If you say that the contract is invalid, then you Just return the 4.5 billion USD to me immediately!"

Ito Yuihiko said angrily: "I said you must immediately return to me the 4.5 billion USD in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's account!"

"Refund?" Charlie snorted and said contemptuously: "I'm sorry, Mr. Ito, you may not know something about me, I have always had an iron rule when walking around the rivers and lakes. don't know if you hear me, or heard about it."

Yuhiko Ito gritted his teeth and asked, "What is the iron rule?!"

Charlie smiled and said: "The iron rule is, never refund!"

Chapter 1667

"Never refund?!"

He covered his chest and pointed at Charlie and scolded: "You Wade, you keep saying that you have to follow the law, is that how you follow? I reached the account of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical for $4.5 billion, you either give me shares , If you don't give me shares, refund me. Do you still want to rely on my money and not give it to me?"

Charlie nodded, and said blankly, "Yes! I just want to rely on your money. When the money goes into my pocket, it's up to me. If you ask me to take it out and give it back to you, I have to pay. Come out and pay you back? I don't want face?"

"you....."

Ito Yuhiko felt a sharp pain in his heart.

He really has never seen such a brazen person in his life.

So, he gritted his teeth and scolded: "I still don't believe it, do you think you can swallow a huge sum of 4.5 billion?"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Didn't I already swallow this? And you took the initiative to feed me."

Ito Yuhiko almost vomited blood.

Issac nodded, and immediately brought a few of his men to Takehiko Ito's, and said lightly: "Mr. Ito, you should act yourself, don't force me to move, otherwise you will lie down for a while. Can't get up for five months."

"You...you dare to threaten me?!"

Issac smiled and said, "Hmm okay. I just threatened you. Master has always had a bad temper. If you don't get out, he might beat you."

Yuhiko Ito gritted his teeth tightly, his heart was angry, but he didn't dare to resist here, he could only hold back his anger, and said coldly: "Okay! Very good! Charlie, I want to see who has this ability. , Can take my 4.5 billion USD! I will never finish this with you!"

He had heard that Ito Yuhiko has always wanted to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, so he wanted to marry his daughter Nanako to Jiro.

Thinking of this, Charlie felt a little unhappy in his heart.

Nanako is so beautiful and tender as water, she is definitely a standard Yamato Nadeshiko. Marry her to Jiro? Ito Yuhiko was afraid that he was blind.

In his opinion, Ito Yuhiko and his mother-in-law, Elaine, are not much different. They are people who would rather sacrifice their daughter's happiness and seek benefits for themselves.

Therefore, he naturally didn't have a good impression of Ito Yuhiko. This 4.5 billion USD thing, it is not bad to give him a bitter taste.

Koichi Tanaka came to Charlie at this time and said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, I'm really sorry about this incident. I didn't expect that you are now a major shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. If there is anything improper today, please forgive us."

As a person who has seen Charlie's strength, Tanaka has full awe of Charlie.

Abandoned Yamamoto Kazuki with a palm, and with his hands, Ito Yuhiko's bodyguards lost their combat effectiveness. Such a person was incredibly powerful in Tanaka's eyes.

Therefore, even if it is now in Japan and even if the Ito family has full influence in Japan, Koichi Tanaka still feels that the Ito family had better not provoke Charlie, otherwise, no one knows what will happen to the entire Ito family...

Chapter 1668

Seeing that Tanaka Koichi was quite on the road, Charlie's expression was slightly relieved, and he said: "Tanaka, leave me a contact information, I may have something to find you in the future for."

Koichi Tanaka immediately took out a business card and handed it to Charlie respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, this is the business card. Please accept it."

Charlie nodded, took the business card from him, and put it in his pocket.

Tanaka bowed slightly to Charlie and said, "Mr. Charlie, then I will leave first."

After that, he left the meeting room.

Ito Yuhiko's two personal bodyguards can only flee hurriedly, clutching the broken arm like the broken arm heroes.

There was dead silence in the meeting room.

Everyone looked at Charlie and Ichiro with anxiety, and didn't know what fate was waiting for them next.

Ichiro cleared his throat at this time and said, "I tell you, as the legal heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, I have 100% decision-making power over Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, and the equity transfer agreement I signed also has 100% legal effect. , So now Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is already a subsidiary of JX Pharmaceutical, if you still want to make money here to support your family!"

At this time, some people questioned: "Before the old president gave us 30% of the shares of the family executives, now you give 90% of the shares to others, how to protect our interests?!"

Ichiro said coldly: "In the future, you can get 3% of the income from my 10% shares. I can assure you of this!"

"Thirty percent, becomes three percent?!"

Someone questioned indignantly: "How can we support our family after shrinking so much?!"

"Yes! Isn't this killing us?!"

"Yes! We will starve to death sooner or later if this continues!"

Ichiro did not expect that after playing Masayoshi, there were so many people against him.

At the bottom of his heart, he could not help but secretly said: "This matter is really tricky. I sacrificed 90% to Charlie. I was forced to use this 90% of the shares in exchange for freedom. Otherwise, don't know that I will be placed under house arrest in that kennel. When will it happen, but these people will certainly not be willing to sacrifice 90% of their own interests..."

Charlie said in a cold voice at this time: "If you can't accept Kobayashi's proposal, then go to the human resources department to go through the resignation procedures immediately."

"Let us resign?" Someone sneered: "The entire R&D, production, promotion, and sales of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals are all done by us. If we leave, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will immediately be paralyzed! All of the many production bases in the country will all be in chaos, then you will just wait for bankruptcy!"

Charlie smiled and asked him, "This friend, what are you responsible for at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical?"

The man said proudly: "I am in charge of R&D! I am the head of the R&D department! Kobayashi's Weisan was developed by me and Mr. Jiro! Without me, the entire R&D of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will be suspended!"

Someone echoed: "Yes! If Makawa Kobayashi leaves Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, then the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will completely lose its ability to innovate!"

Charlie nodded and smiled and said, "Oh, that's great. I was thinking on the way here. After merging Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, I must make drastic reforms to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. The first department to be cut down is the R&D department! Because the R&D department of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is worthless in my eyes, it is rubbish!"

Makawa Kobayashi angrily shouted: "I am a postdoctoral fellow majoring in biopharmaceuticals at the University of Tokyo and one of the top pharmaceutical experts in Japan. The department I lead is the strongest among Japanese pharmaceutical companies. You dare to say that I am rubbish?!"

Charlie said disdainfully: "As for the Kobayashi Weisan you developed, at least 80% of the prescriptions are stolen from ancient Chinese prescriptions, and the remaining 20% is a little improvement of your own. Obviously, it is plagiarism, and it is said that it is self-developed, and calling you garbage is an insult to the word garbage!”

Chapter 1669

Objectively speaking, as a developed country, Japan has indeed made high achievements and achievements in many fields.

However, in terms of their medicine, in addition to Western medicine, almost all of the remaining line is copied from traditional medicine from elsewhere.

Among them, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, Ota Pharmaceutical, and Dapeng Pharmaceutical are models. They search for prescriptions from traditional medicine classics.

For example, Dapeng Pharmaceutical once launched a so-called traditional medicine slimming granule, and the name they gave to this granule is actually the ancient Chinese genius doctor, Bianque.

He has so many magical prescriptions on the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets, how can he use the R&D department of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical?

Indeed, as Charlie said, all the prescriptions of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical are basically derived from ancient Chinese medical books.

So he felt blushing at this moment, but he didn't know how to refute Charlie's words.

Charlie looked at Makawa, and said coldly: "R&D personnel like you who can only plagiarize are of no value to me, so I announce that from now on, the R&D department of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will be dissolved on the spot. Expelled, not leaving one!"

"what?!"

The people at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical were almost speechless in shock.

Is this Charlie not too ruthless?

We must know that there are more than 100 people in the R&D department of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. Behind these more than 100 people, there are more than 100 families.

Japan's social environment is that only one person in the family goes out to work, and most of the husbands go out to work, and the wife raises the family and the children at home.

This situation has led to extremely high requirements for job stability in the families.

Generally speaking, most Japanese can work for a job for decades until retirement.

So for the Japanese, the most feared thing is unemployment.

Makawa Kobayashi was also shocked.

Although his previous income has not been low, his pressure is not small at all.

Tokyo's housing prices are originally the highest in Asia. In the past few years, when Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals was booming, he bought a large apartment in the urban area and repaid bank loans every month, which was more than 200,000.

In addition, he has two sons and a newly born daughter.

Originally, his income from Kobayashi Pharmaceutical was very high, almost 700,000 a month, so his previous life was very comfortable, his wife and children also lived in the upper-class life, daily consumption is also very luxurious.

However, if he suddenly loses his job now, his family will immediately fall into a huge financial deficit, with a gap of at least RMB 500,000 per month. If they cannot find a job with more than RMB 500,000, the family will soon be overwhelmed.

The nervous little Makawa hurriedly cried and pleaded: "Mr. Charlie, I am a high-end talent in the field of biological preparations. If you fire me, it must be a huge loss for you. I beg you, Please keep me here. I will definitely work hard for you!"

Charlie said blankly, "I know you are begging me now? I'm sorry it's too late. You must go through the resignation procedures within today. Otherwise, the company will directly end the labor relationship with you."

After that, Charlie looked at Issac: "Kick him out for me."

Issac nodded, and immediately stepped forward, grabbing Kobayashi Makawa by the collar like a chicken, and dragging him out.

At this moment, the others in the conference room finally realized the urgency of the situation.

Charlie has already obtained the equity transfer of Ichiro, and he is now the new boss of the company, so he holds the power of life and death for everyone present at the scene.

If you anger him, you will really be kicked out of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!

As a result, everyone immediately stood on the spot like a quail, afraid to move, let alone speak.

Charlie said at this time: "To tell you the truth, I only need to keep the production links for the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, and all other links such as research and development, promotion, and sales can be eliminated!"

When this was outstanding, everyone was even scared to almost death.

Charlie continued: "The medicinal effect of JX Weisan relies on word-of-mouth communication. The real word-of-mouth medicinal effect is more effective than any kind of advertisement, so there is no need to leave a special promotion department;"

"The same is true for the sales department. JX Weisan is now in short supply, and dealers take the initiative to come to ask for goods, so there is no need for a special sales department to be responsible for sales in various regions."

"Therefore, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's promotion and sales departments are all dissolved on the spot, and all employees and leaders are not left!"

The scene was in an uproar!

There are only a few major departments in total. As a result, all the other departments except the production department have to be killed now. Thousands of people will be unemployed!

Three-quarters of these Kobayashi Pharmaceutical executives at the scene will also lose their jobs!

Moreover, the current global economic situation is not so good. The middle-aged crisis is very serious. There are many middle-aged people across the world who have suffered layoffs and eventually jumped to commit suicide. This shows how stressful middle-aged people are now.

Most of the senior executives of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical at the scene were between 35 and 55 years old. They belonged to a typical middle-aged group and suddenly lost their jobs. To them, it was like the sky had fallen!

The whole scene suddenly cried.

Most Japanese, like Americans, have typical hedonism in their consumption philosophy. They don't like to save money but spend it as soon as they earn it. They are very keen on buying luxury houses, luxury cars, holiday villas and even yachts.

And their wives, not only do not usually make money, but also spend a lot of money, which intensifies the daily expenses of the family.

Studies have shown that Japanese women have a high demand for luxury per capita. For brand-name bags such as Chanel, lv or GUI, 90 Japanese women will have at least one, not to mention other luxuries.

Such a family, of course, is very smart when there is no accident, but once the family's income collapses, it will immediately be on the verge of bankruptcy.

Many wealthy middle class immediately became negative equity holders after the economic crisis. They not only went bankrupt, but even became homeless. The reason is that they spend a lot of money but do not save money at all, resulting in poor risk resistance. .

This is also the case with most of these Kobayashi Pharmaceutical executives.

So Charlie's announcement that they are unemployed is almost equivalent to announcing that their family finances are bankrupt.

Charlie has no sympathy for these wailing middle-aged people. Kobayashi will be his own company in the future and will never raise idle or worthless employees. Therefore, these people must be expelled, and expelled as soon as possible!

Chapter 1671

At this moment, Ito Yuhiko was sitting in his car and cursing.

Hiroshi Tanaka covered his face, and said with some nervousness and aggrievedness: "My President, Mr. Charlie is extremely powerful and acts extremely casually. At first, Yamamoto Kazuki only said the words sick man of East Asia in front of him, and he was beaten up. If you really intend to kill him, you still don't know what kind of lethality will erupt, so even if you hit me, I will remind you from the bottom of my heart, don't talk to this man Right"

Ito Yuhiko's expression was extremely ugly.

He knows Koichi Tanaka.

This kid is loyal to him, even if he asks him to perform a caesarean on the spot, I am afraid he will not hesitate.

Therefore, what Koichi Tanaka said must be from the heart.

Thinking of this, Ito Yuihiko couldn't help but wondered: "Could it be that that kid is so powerful? Even so powerful that Hiroshi Tanaka felt for a while that the patriarch of the dignified Ito family couldn't even offend him?"

Yuhiko Ito frowned and asked Koichi Tanaka: "Then you tell me, what should I do now? Can't you really just give him the 4.5 billions for nothing?"

"It must be impossible." Tanaka Koichi said, "Chairman, the 4.5 billion USD we only paid Kobayashi Pharmaceutical were remitted through Ito Corporation's public account. The bank has clear remittance records. Kobayashi Pharmaceutical did not pay the corresponding shares for the 4.5 billion USD We can sue the court to demand that Kobayashi Pharmaceutical must return all the 4.5 billion USD We will definitely win this kind of lawsuit."

"Fighting a lawsuit?" Ito Yuhiko's expression was very gloomy: "You let me Ito Yuuhiko to fight with him? Go to the court and cry that this kid didn't pay me the money?!"

Koichi Tanaka said seriously: "President, this is the safest way and the way with the highest success rate."

"impossible!"

Yuhiko Ito said with a cold face and angrily said: "If the outside world knew that a young Chinese man would dare to take 4.5 billion USD and not return me, and I could not get him to return the money. Go to the court for help, where do I put my face? Where do I put the face of the entire Ito family? With this precedent, then other people can't ride on my neck and sh!t?!"

Because the underground world is legal under the Japanese government, many Japanese families and consortia will get involved in the underground industry and even cultivate their own underground forces.

Chapter 1672

The Ito family is not only Japan's top chaebol, but also the top power of Japan's underground world.

There are three strongest underground organizations in Japan. The Yamaguchi group ranks first, and the Ito family ranks second.

The underground world is a world where the weak is eaten by the strong, and the most important thing to survive in this world is to stay strong.

For people in the underground world, sometimes it is not that they are cruel, but the law of survival forces them to be cruel.

If you have been implementing the principle of whoever beats you, you will dare to fight hard, and over time, no one will dare to provoke you.

But if you don't go back after being beaten once, but swallow your anger and admit that you are unlucky, then from this day onwards, everyone in this world can come to bully you.

Moreover, there is another very important criterion for surviving in this world, that is, no external force can be used to solve problems.

If a person in the underground world asks the police and the court for help, that person will immediately be disgusted and rejected by the entire underground world.

Therefore, what Ito said, he couldn't get back the 4.5 billion USD through legal means. He had to let Charlie honestly and intact, and return the money to the Ito family's account.

Therefore, he gritted his teeth and said: "There are only two solutions to this matter. The first one is to let Wade, and honestly return the money to me, and this matter must not be disturbed. Everyone knows it; the second one is to kill him directly!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said with some anxiety: "I, I am worried that Mr. Charlie will not agree to your request."

Ito Hirohiko snorted coldly: "No? If you don't agree, choose the second plan and kill him!"

Although Koichi Tanaka didn't know how powerful Charlie really was, he always felt that Charlie was extraordinary.

And Charlie is not only strong, but also the key means seems to be very powerful. Otherwise, how could Ichiro give him all the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical 90?

Therefore, he felt that they should try to avoid the conflict with Charlie as much as possible, otherwise, he might cause a big trouble.

So, he hurriedly changed the topic and said, "Mr. President, I don't think you should worry about Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's 4.5 billion USD now. The money will definitely not run away. It's just a matter of coming back early or late. Don't forget, the Chinese Eastcliff Su family will be coming soon!"

Ito Yuihiko frowned and asked: "Did the Su family say that the specific day has come?"

"No." Tanaka Hiroshi said: "They said they would come at any time. After all, the trip is a private jet, you can fly anytime you want."

After speaking, Tanaka persuaded: "My President, the Su family is not only watching this opportunity, but also the Takahashi family. I heard that the Su family came here this time. Choose one of the Takahashi family to be a partner. At this time, you must not make any extravagance!"

Yuhiko Ito gritted his teeth and nodded, and said: "In this case, I will bear the wave of the kid named Wade, and you will keep an eye on him. If he does not leave Japan for the time being, then I will leave him alone. Take down the Su family cooperation first!"

Chapter 1673

Thinking of the Su family's cooperation, Ito's expression looked a little melancholic.

Sitting in the car, he sighed and said with emotion: "Koichi, in the past ten years, the speed of our national economy has been relatively slow, so the strength of several top families, including our Ito family, has shrunk somewhat. And the successor is weak..."

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly asked: "My President, We once led the world in its development speed in the decades after the war, why hasn't it kept up with it in the past decade?"

Ito said with regret: "There are many reasons for this lag in economic development, firstly because Japan's local resources and land have been very scarce; secondly, because Japan has not made major innovations in the Internet and high-tech fields in recent years."

With that, Ito Yuhiko continued with emotion: "You see, many Japanese companies that had advantages in various fields more than ten years ago have gradually lost their original advantages in these years;"

"Look at the previous companies such as Sony, Panasonic, Hitachi and Toshiba. They are all in the world. I think that Sony's color TVs were the best in the world and sold all over the world. Sony Ericsson's mobile phones were also World-renowned, Panasonic and Hitachi's home appliances, and Toshiba's semiconductors are all top-class in the world, but what about now? All are gradually declining!"

"Most of the TVs in the world are produced in China, which are cheap, affordable and cost-effective; the world's mobile phones are divided into two parts, the United States' Apple occupies a large part, and the remaining large part is China's Huawei, Xiaomi, Vivo and Oppo. What about Japanese mobile phones? Even South Korea's Samsung is absent, and it's already decadent!"

Koichi Tanaka couldn't help but feel frustrated: "Mr. President, you are right. We in Japan have indeed completely lost many traditional advantages, especially in electronic products..."

Ito sighed: "More than electronic products? In addition, Japan's steel industry was once the world's top, our special steel, even the Americans have to look up, but because Kobe Steel was exposed to a long-term fraud scandal. , And it plummeted!"

"Originally, Japan's Shinkansen technology was the world's best. High-speed rail technology was invented by us. The strength was unique in the world. But who would have thought that China's high-speed rail would come to the top, so that our Japanese high-speed rail technology and the high-speed rail technology of Germany and France all Decreased into the second-rate in the world, Japan's Shinkansen has also lost a lot of overseas markets..."

Koichi Tanaka also kept sighing: "We, the Ito family, hold different proportions of shares in the companies you mentioned. They are lonely, and our assets are shrinking. This is indeed a very serious problem... ."

Yuhiko Ito hates that iron cannot be made into steel and said: "Not only that, but the most important thing is that our young people in Japan are seriously lacking in creativity as a whole!"

"Look at China in the past few years. A large number of world-class Internet companies have been born, such as Tencent, Alibaba, Toutiao, JD.com and Pinduoduo, as well as DJI drones that account for more than 70% of the world's drone market. In contrast, Japan has never had an influential Internet company in recent years! If we continue to develop like this, we will lose all our advantages!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded: "In contrast, the top families in China, with the continuous development and progress of all walks of life, their wealth and influence are also increasing. They now have the ability to directly challenge Europe and the United States. They don't put Japanese companies in their eyes at all."

"That's it." Ito said with melancholy: "Before, they were still chasing us. As a result, in the blink of an eye, they surpassed us and chased the United States, but we were left behind by them. In the back of our heads, so that we now want to make a breakthrough in business, we have to turn back to please the Chinese family. It really responds to the old Chinese saying, 30 years in Hedong and 30 years in Hexi... ."

Speaking of this, Ito Takehiko seriously said: "Because we have been stagnating and China has been developing rapidly, we now need to be firmly tied to China's top families. This time the Su family's cooperation is right. For us, the significance is very important and should not be lost."

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded in a hurry and blurted out: "President, please rest assured, I will definitely go all out!"

The Japanese economy has been sluggish in recent years.

Chapter 1674

As Japan's top chaebol, the Ito family is constantly being weakened.

Also confused with them, there is another big family in Japan, the Takahashi family.

Both companies are now actively seeking breakthrough points, so they all pin their hopes on top Chinese families.

As the top family in China, the influence of the Su family has been continuously increasing in recent years, and with the rapid development of the Chinese economy, the strength of the Su family has also been soaring.

The focus of the Su family in the past few years has been on maintaining and consolidating the domestic market. After consolidating its position as the first family in China, it has only begun to turn its attention overseas in the past two years.

Therefore, in recent years, many Japanese families and chaebols are eager to develop in-depth cooperation with the Su family.

Over the past ten years, China's import and export trade has continued to grow, shipping demand has increased, and port construction and development have been extremely fast. Now, China accounts for seven of the world's top ten ports in terms of throughput.

Today's global trade relies very heavily on shipping. The vast majority of oil, ore and various goods rely on ocean transportation.

For example, the oil in entire East Asia and Southeast Asia is almost transported from the Middle East to ports by giant tankers;

Entire East Asia and Southeast Asia's iron ore also depends on a large number of giant freighters, transported from Australia and Brazil.

The Su family has been in the port business for many years and has its own industries and shares in major domestic ports. It is now preparing to build Asia's largest shipping company and build Asia's largest shipping fleet, which can just match their domestic ports for resources Complementary.

In order to build the largest shipping fleet in Asia, the Su family not only invested heavily on their own, but also prepared in-depth cooperation with consortiums in Japan and South Korea, giving them a certain share and letting them participate in depth.

The reason for winning the consortium of Japan and South Korea is mainly because Japan and South Korea are both developed countries, and the demand for shipping is also very large. In addition, South Korea's Busan Port, Japan's Tokyo Port, and Yokohama Port are all established large ports in Asia.

If the Su family can also hold the resources of these ports, by that time, the shipping company headed by the Su family can control the lifeline of entire East Asia to a certain extent, and the future profit space will be huge.

The Japanese and South Korean consortiums are extremely excited about this news. They all hope to reach a cooperation with the Su family and then get on the boat of the Su family.

In Japan alone, there are at least a dozen families and consortia that hope to cooperate with the Su family.

Among them, the strongest ones are the Ito family and the Takahashi family!

Chapter 1675

In the afternoon, Charlie expelled nearly half of the entire staff of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in a desperate manner.

Originally, those people from Kobayashi Pharmaceutical were still thinking of using a strike to fight against Charlie, but he didn't expect that Charlie was not at all soft to them, and they all fired them, leaving none.

First of all, no one thought that Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, which is an excellently developed company, would change ownership. Now 90% of the shares have been transferred to a Chinese and it has become a Chinese company.

Secondly, no one thought that after Kobayashi became a Chinese company, it would kill half of its employees in one go!

In Japan, apart from bankruptcies, very few companies will suddenly expel so many people.

Especially for manufacturing companies like Kobayashi Pharmaceutical with nearly 10,000 employees.

If half of them are fired at once, four or five thousand people will be fired!

Moreover, except for the employees in the production positions, the R&D, promotion and sales positions were all laid off. This operation method makes everyone feel incredible.

But Charlie didn't care.

What he needs is not the brand of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, nor the reputation and patents. What he needs is only the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

As long as Kobayashi Pharma honestly produces JX Weisan for him according to his requirements, that is the greatest value of Kobayashi Pharmacy at this stage.

The rest of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical that has not been expelled are all the people in charge of the production line.

Immediately afterwards, Charlie immediately held a meeting at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, appointing Liang as the general manager of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and Ichiro as the deputy general manager.

At the same time, Charlie also very clearly warned the remaining people in charge of the production line: "You people in charge of the production line will listen carefully. If you work for me honestly, listen to me and do things according to my instructions. Then your job can be retained and your income can be guaranteed. What I can promise you is to follow me honestly and I will make your income never lower than before."

As he said, Charlie turned around and shouted sharply: "But! If anyone among you dares to play with me carefully, dare to fight against me, then I am sorry, I will immediately kick you out of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

When the people who stayed heard this, they immediately acted like tamed wild dogs, and honestly didn't dare to say more.

When the group is angry, everyone wants to fight, because they feel that when everyone is tied together, Charlie must not dare to do anything to them. After all, he certainly does not want Kobayashi Pharmaceutical to be paralyzed suddenly.

But what everyone didn't expect was that Charlie didn't play cards according to the routine at all. Before everyone was tied together and confronted him, he had already driven out half of the people!

This immediately caused all the people who were evicted and their families into a serious economic crisis.

Therefore, how can the remaining group of people dare to have any thoughts of making troubles, to keep the job and to ensure that the salary is not lower than before, which is to ensure that their family life will not be affected in any way and let them completely relax.

At this time, how can they have the least thought of confrontation?

As a result, a group of people quickly surrendered and decided to continue working for Charlie's Pharmaceutical company.

Chapter 1676

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said to Ichiro: "From today, you must cooperate with Liang to readjust all production plans, stop all production of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals before, and fully switch to production immediately, understand?"

Ichiro hurriedly expressed his heartfelt words: "Mr. Charlie, don't worry, I will definitely cooperate with Mr. Liang!"

Liang said to Charlie at this time: "Mr. Charlie, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's production capacity is still very strong. If the production of JX Weisan is fully started, the demand for raw materials for JX Weisan will be huge. We have to do this in advance. Prepare, otherwise, once the production raw materials are insufficient, production capacity will be severely restricted."

Charlie nodded and said, "I will solve the raw material matter."

When he said this, Charlie thought of Qin Gang, the lord of the Qin family far away in Aurous Hill.

The Qin family originally started from the medicinal material business.

Moreover, Qin Gang was also very trusted by Charlie, so Charlie planned to hand over all the raw materials and medicinal materials business to him.

After that, he immediately took out his cell phone and called Qin Gang.

When the phone was connected, Qin Gang was eating.

Seeing that it was Charlie's call, he respectfully said, "Master, why made you call me at this moment?"

Charlie smiled and asked, "Mr. Qin, I have something to ask you."

Qin Gang said respectfully: "Master, please do not hesitate to ask."

Charlie said: "What is the annual supply of medicinal materials in your Qin family?"

Qin Gang thought for a while, and said: "Last year, our Qin family made more than 200,000 tons of various medicinal materials and supplied them to more than 30 pharmaceutical companies across the country."

Charlie snorted and asked, "Can you supply one million tons a year?"

Qin Gang exclaimed: "One million tons?! Master, one million tons is almost equal to the total annual output of botanical medicinal materials in the three eastern provinces. Our total annual output in the country is also more than 5 million tons, the largest medicinal material in the country. The company can produce seven or eight hundred thousand tons a year..."

Charlie asked him: "Then do you have the confidence to supply one million tons a year?"

Qin Gang said: "Master, all the medicinal materials are in the hands of pharmaceutical farmers across the country. As long as I buy them, one million tons is not a big problem."

The key is that I have no channels to digest so many medicinal materials! In fact, personally, I am eager to Sell more medicinal materials, but the key is to find a strong enough next home."

Charlie smiled and said: "To be honest, I have taken over Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in Japan. In the near future, all the production capacity of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will serve me, and I am also going to continue to expand the production line. This year, I will consume one million tons of medicinal materials, which is not a big problem. I can trust you. If that is so nice of you to cooperate with me, then I will give you all the orders for the supply of one million tons of medicinal materials!"

As soon as Qin Gang heard this, he was so excited that he got up and got up from the dining chair. He couldn't care about throwing the bowls and chopsticks to the ground, and said excitedly: "Wade...Master... ..You...what you said is true?!"

Charlie smiled indifferently: "When did Charlie tell you a lie?"

Qin Gang was immediately ecstatic, so excited that he couldn't add anything!

He was excited and thought to himself: "If Master can really digest one million tons of medicinal materials from the Qin family every year, it would be equivalent to five times the business volume of the Qin family! That way, Isn't the Qin Family's strength going to soar?! And my dream of revitalizing the Family can be easily realized?!"

At this moment, he almost regarded Charlie as the reborn parent of the entire Qin family, and said excitedly: "Master! Since you look down on Qin so much and are willing to pull a certain Qin, then Qin will never give it. You are holding back! Don't worry, no matter how many medicinal materials you want, even if I have to fight with my life, I will definitely get it for you! And I will definitely give you the best quality and the lowest price!"

After Qin Gang hung up the phone, Aoxue next to him hurriedly asked curiously: "Dad, what did Master? Why did he call you?"

Qin Gang, who was still trapped in excitement and couldn't help himself, took about a few seconds to recover, and said excitedly: "Aoxue! We Qin family, we are going to meet the great opportunity!"

Aoxue asked in surprise: "Dad, what great opportunity?"

Qin Gang was so excited that even his words were a little trembling, and said, "Master has annexed Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, saying that he will let the Qin family supply him with raw materials and medicinal materials. The demand for a year is almost One million tons!"

"Oh my God!" Aoxue exclaimed in a dumbfounded voice: "One million tons?! Our family now has a supply of about 200,000 tons a year, right?"

"Yes" Qin Gang said excitedly: "Master asked us to supply one million tons a year, and our Qin family's revenue immediately doubled! Isn't this a great opportunity?"

Aoxue nodded repeatedly, and said with gratitude: "Master has really taken good care of our family. He can think of us for everything. He has helped us so much, and don't know how to repay his kindness."

Qin Gang also agreed very much and said: "Master is the second parent of our Qin family. Whether the family can rise in the future depends entirely on Master!"

After speaking, he couldn't help but look at Aoxue, and sighed: "Aoxue, Master is right, our family has had such a great kindness, and he will always take care of you like this, you have to hurry."

What exactly did Aoxue's father mean? Knowing that he wanted to hold on tight, in fact, he wanted to make her act faster and make substantial progress with Master.

She suddenly said with a little shame: "Dad, many things are not what I want to do. After all, Master has a wife. Although I like him, I still have more than enough energy."

Qin Gang nodded, and then said earnestly: "Aoxue, otherwise, you will come forward to meet with Master for the supply of medicinal materials. Anyway, you are graduating this summer and you should enter the internship period soon. Now, just serve the Master's pharmaceutical factory wholeheartedly! This way you will have more opportunities to get along with him."

Aoxue thought for a moment, then nodded immediately: "Okay, dad!"

There are basically no classes in the next semester of the senior year. After the Chinese New Year, she will enter the internship period.

At that time, almost all senior students will find a work unit to start an internship, and Aoxue is no exception.

She studied finance and management at the Aurous Hill Institute of Finance and Economics, and she was asked to cooperate with Charlie, which happened to be a professional counterpart.

Thinking of this, Aoxue couldn't help but look forward to it.

She herself has always been melancholic for not having the opportunity to get along with Charlie often. If there is a work issue with Charlie in the future, it means that she will often have the opportunity to see him.

This made her feel very excited

Tokyo, Japan at this moment.

After Charlie's killing of chickens and monkeys, the only remaining executives of the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceutical were as honest as sheep.

Ichiro also cooperated with Paul in the local commercial department in Tokyo to complete the transfer and change of the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Chapter 1678

Now, 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares are all under the name of JX Pharmaceutical.

Because the next production work of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is of great importance, Charlie cannot leave Tokyo for the time being. He wants to ensure that all production lines of Kobayashi are successfully converted to JX Weisan before leaving Japan.

Therefore, the first production line to complete the conversion work is Kobayashi's Tokyo production line.

Charlie asked Liang to take inventory of all the medicinal materials of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, count all the medicinal materials that can be used to produce JX Weisan, and then calculate how much other medicinal materials are needed based on the production capacity of the Tokyo production line.

After counting the demand, he immediately sent the list to Qin Gang, and asked him to immediately make arrangements to prepare these medicinal materials as soon as possible, and then quickly transport them to Tokyo by air.

At the same time, Liang had to count the medicinal materials needed by several other production lines, and send them to Qin Gang one after another, so that Qin Gang could prepare, and then send the prepared medicinal materials to other production bases.

After doing all this, Charlie and his party, led by Ichiro, came to the luxurious flat-floor villa of the Kobayashi family in central Tokyo.

Originally, Issac had arranged a hotel for Charlie, but because of Ichiro's kind invitation, Charlie decided temporarily to stay at Ichiro's house.

This flat-story villa of Ichiro's is the entire top floor of an 80-story building. The indoor construction area alone is thousands of square meters. It is extremely luxurious. It also has exclusive use of the entire roof terrace and its own helipad. , Sky infinity swimming pool, can be said to be the ultimate luxury.

After nightfall, Charlie took a bath and called his wife Claire to report that he was safe. Then he stood alone on the large terrace on the top floor, watching the bustling night view of Tokyo, with thoughts flying.

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is a key part of his energy accumulation.

If Kobayashi successfully converts all production to produce JX Weisan for him, then JX Weisan can be marketed worldwide in the shortest time.

Moreover, Charlie had already figured it out clearly that the price of his Weisan scattered in the domestic market would never be increased, and to give back to the domestic people with the greatest cost-effectiveness, but the price overseas must soar.

The selling price of retail terminals should be at least two to three times higher than RMB 100.

That is about sixty a box.

Since JX Weisan can greatly relieve and treat many stomach diseases and discomforts, it will definitely become an essential medicine for every family in the future. Therefore, Charlie estimates that JX's future income will increase rapidly at a rapid rate. , Maybe it can make tens of billions a year, and it's still in USD.

If you develop a few other categories, it will really make a huge profit.

Charlie is not a greedy person. The main reason why he can't wait to make more money is that he hopes to improve his overall strength as soon as possible.

The parents' grievances have not yet been repaid. The many Eastcliff families that formed the anti-wade Alliance led by the Su family back then had to pay the price for the death of his parents.

Charlie knows very well that if he wants to oppose the entire Eastcliff family and make them surrender to him, the first thing is to improve his strength!

If one day, he can return to Eastcliff as the raptor crosses the river, then all Eastcliff's families will tremble in front of him!

Chapter 1679

The huge mansion with a century-old history of the Ito family is located in the center of Kyoto City.

The Ito family residence is next to Nijo Castle, the residence of Oda Nobunaga, one of the three masters of the Warring States Period in Japan. Although the area is slightly smaller than Nijo Castle, the overall area is larger than the largest single-family villa in Eastcliff. Even much more.

Around the mansion, there is a moat dug during the war, and it still bears the responsibility of guarding the mansion.

On the city wall, 360-degree surveillance with no dead ends was installed to ensure that this mansion would not be violated by anyone.

The buildings in the mansion are all typical Japanese-style wooden buildings. Each one has a history of at least a hundred years. There are dozens of ancient trees with a history of 100 years in the courtyard, plus those mottled and countless. The century-old stone sculptures are antique and full of charm.

At this moment, in the large courtyard, a beautiful young woman is sitting alone in a wheelchair, looking up at the hazy sky. This beauty is the eldest lady of the Ito family, Nanako.

In the past, the snow in Kyoto would come a little earlier, but this winter is an exception.

Although the winter of this year was cold, and every day was extremely cold, but no snow fell.

Earlier today, the Kinki Regional Meteorological Department issued a heavy snow warning, saying that it will be heavy snow in Kyoto tonight, and Nanako loves snowing days, so she waited early in the yard.

However, after waiting till late at night, there was still no trace of the heavy snow, the sky was very cloudy, there was no starlight, and even the moon could not be seen clearly.

The housekeeper of Ito Mansion looked at Nanako from a distance for a long time. Seeing that it was late, he walked over and respectfully said, "Miss, it's late. It seems that the snow will not fall tonight, the weather's too cold, you should go back to your room and rest earlier."

Nanako looked at the hazy moon in the sky and whispered softly: "Since the weather forecast has said, there is still some hope after all. You should go back to rest first and leave me alone."

The housekeeper sighed slightly, and said distressedly: "Miss, or go back to rest first, I will arrange for someone to wait here, if it snows, let them notify you as soon as possible."

Nanako smiled lightly and said, "I'm here to watch. I just want to see the first snowflake falling from the sky, and I want to feel the first snowflake on my face. I have waited for the snow to fall. If I go in now, I will lose the fun."

The housekeeper hurriedly said: "But now it is cooling down, the temperature is getting lower and lower, and you will catch a cold if you stay outdoors for a long time."

"It doesn't matter." Nanako said with a smile: "I will wait until twelve o'clock, no matter whether it is snowing or not, I will go back to my room to soak in a hot spring. You can rest assured, although I am injured, I still have relatively strong physical fitness. , The temperature is colder, it will not have any effect on me."

The housekeeper nodded helplessly, and said respectfully: "I'm nearby. Miss, call me whenever you have any needs."

Nanako chuckled softly: "Okay, thank you!"

For some reason, Charlie's appearance suddenly appeared in the cloudy night sky at this moment.

She felt like spring blossoms in her heart, and thought to herself: "Master Wade, don't know if it snows in Aurous Hill? I wonder if you are looking at the night sky above your head now? don't know, do if you will think of me?"

Chapter 1680

Thinking wildly, the phone in her pocket suddenly vibrated.

She took out her mobile phone and found that it was Hiroshi Tanaka who was calling, so she hurriedly put away her thoughts, connected to the phone and smiled: "Tanaka, why call me so late?"

Hiroshi Tanaka sighed and said, "Miss, something happened today. The president is very angry. He just smashed a lot of antiques in the house."

Nanako felt nervous, and hurriedly asked, "Tanaka, what happened? Is father having any trouble?"

Koichi Tanaka said: "Today, the president took me to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, intending to sign a share agreement with the board of directors of the company. After the agreement was signed, the president and the financial staff sent 4.5 billion USD to the account of the company." Then some people came in and the trouble began.

When Nanako heard this, she asked in a puzzled way: "Isn't my father always wanting to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals? Today this is what he wanted, so why is he angry?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said helplessly: "Before the president, the financial staff made the payment, we didn't know that company had actually changed hands."

"Changed ownership?" Nanako asked in surprise, "What's the matter? Didn't it mean that Jiro is missing? Is he back again?"

"No," Koichi Tanaka explained: "It's not Jiro who is back, but Jiro's brother, who is said to have been dead, suddenly came back alive!"

"Huh?" Nanako said with a bit of sorrow: "What's the matter? Why am I getting more and more confused?"

"Hey" Hiroshi Tanaka sighed and said, "This is nothing. The point is that Ichiro, as the sole heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, transferred all the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, 90% that is to be exact, to a Chinese company called JX Pharmaceuticals."

Nanako was surprised and said: "Isn't my father investing in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical for 30%? Then Ichiro only has Kobayashi Pharmaceutical 70% shares. How can he transfer 90% of the shares of the company?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a stunned voice: "This is the reason why the president is angry! He signed a share agreement with Masayoshi, the acting president of Pharmaceuticals, and paid after the signing, but Ichiro is back, which means The equity agreement signed by Masayoshi is invalid."

Nanako nodded slightly and said, "So, my father's plan to buy a stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has been lost?"

"It's more than an intention to fail," Tanaka sighed: "The chairman of JX Pharmaceutical clearly told the president that Ito Co., Ltd. remitted the 4.5 billion USD to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, he will not refund!"

"Ah?!" Nanako exclaimed, "How come there is such a shameless person? The act of holding shares is an equity transaction. When we pay, the other party must pay the corresponding shares. If the other party is unwilling to pay the shares, then it must return the money the same way, and even paying liquidated damages, why did the other party not give us shares and deduct our money?! This is too much, right?! Doesn't he know law?"

Koichi Tanaka said very depressedly at this time: "Miss, the other party is simply an extrajudicial fanatic!"

"Extrajudicial fanatic?" Nanako frowned: "With the character of her father, it is impossible to be willing to suffer from this dumb loss, right? Does he have no countermeasures?"

Hiroshi Tanaka sighed: "Of course the president is not willing to suffer from this dumb loss. He originally wanted to fight the other party desperately, but he was persuaded by me. the president can't offend him! Oh, right, speaking of it. You even know this person, Missy."

"I know?" Nanako asked in surprise, "Who is he?"

Koichi Tanaka said: "That's Aoxue's coach, Charlie Wade who injured Mr. Yamamoto Kazuki with one palm!"

"What? Master Wade?!"

When Nanako heard this, she exclaimed in excitement, and blurted out: "Master Wade has come to Japan?!"

Chapter 1681

Hiroshi Tanaka didn't expect that after hearing the news of Charlie's arrival in Japan, the young lady's voice suddenly would become extremely excited.

He couldn't help but secretly said, "Isn't what I said just now is not clear enough? This Charlie is cheating your father for four and a half billion! Why do you seem to be excited when you hear that he is coming to Japan?"

However, Koichi Tanaka naturally did not dare to ask this question.

At this time, Nanako saw that he did not respond, and hurriedly asked him: "Tanaka, answer me quickly! Master Wade really came to Japan?"

Koichi Tanaka can only honestly say: "Yes, Miss, he came to Japan, he's in Tokyo, I saw him today."

Nanako asked, "He came to Japan, did you see him in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical?"

"Yes." Hiroshi Tanaka answered truthfully: "don't know if the situation is too specific, but it should be to take Kobayashi Pharmaceutical."

Nanako felt a little regretful, and thought to herself: "If Master Wade came to Japan just to receive Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, then he should only stay in Tokyo for a few days. After the business is finished, I am afraid he will return to China? He certainly won't come to Kyoto, then I definitely won't have the chance to see him..."

Thinking of this, Nanako suddenly had a very strong idea in his heart, she wanted to go to Tokyo, she wanted to see Charlie!

So she hurriedly asked Koichi Tanaka: "Tanaka, do you know Master Wade will stay in Tokyo for a few days?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said awkwardly: "Miss, don't know this too well..."

Nanako hurriedly said, "I'll let steward prepare and take the car to Tokyo tomorrow morning."

"Back to Tokyo?" Tanaka asked, "Miss, didn't you always want to cultivate your body in Kyoto? Why do you suddenly want to come back at this time? Is it...Is it for Mr. Charlie?"

"Yes!" Nanako blurted out without thinking, "I want to see Master Wade, if I don't come back, I'm afraid there will be no chance!"

Tanaka Hiroshi suddenly realized that something seemed to be wrong.

He couldn't help thinking in his heart:

"The eldest lady has always been extremely reserved, and has never been confused because of any opposite sex."

"But now, she is very excited about the news that Charlie came to Tokyo, and even plans to return to Tokyo to see him tomorrow morning. This is really abnormal..."

"Could it be..."

"Could it be that the eldest lady is already stunned by Charlie?!"

When Tanaka Hiroshi thought of this, his whole person was already shocked. He secretly said: "The eldest lady has always admired superior martial arts masters, and Charlie is also a master of masters. His strength is so staggering that she is really tempted by him. , It makes sense..."

"But... the president is a complete nationalist. He has made it clear that he will marry a young lady in the future to someone from Japan and she must not marry a man from any country. If the lady really likes Charlie, if it is known by the president, he will definitely be angry!"

At this point, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly said: "Miss, I can't do anything!"

Nanako asked in surprise, "Why Tanaka?"

Hiroshi Tanaka blurted out: "If the president knows that you have a deep love for Mr. Charlie, he will definitely be very angry. Not only will he not see Mr. Charlie, but you may also even be forbidden by the president, and he may make faster your marriage plan!"

Chapter 1682

Although Nanako and Koichi Tanaka were separated by the phone, she blushed instantly at his words.

She vaguely explained: "Tanaka...you...you misunderstood, I...I didn't...not to Mr. Charlie. Heart is born...love..."

Hiroshi Tanaka sighed: "Miss, I have served the Ito family for many years and have been by your side for a long time. I still know you very well. You don't have to hide things from me, and I don't want to explore your privacy. The key is , If you can see your thoughts from the bottom of the page, the president will have the eyes of a torch, and it will be impossible to hide it. you will not see Mr. Charlie, but will leak your thoughts in front of the president... ."

"This..." Nanako was speechless.

She knew that Koichi Tanaka was out of good intentions, so he reminded her.

She also knows that her father, Ito Yuhiko, would never allow herself to have any possibility of development with foreign men. He has made it clear to her countless times that he can only accept that she will marry a Japanese in the future, and it is purely Japanese not even someone of Japanese descent.

As for the others, even the immigrants from China and the Korean Peninsula one or two hundred years ago and those who have lived in Japan for three or four generations are not purely Japanese in his eyes.

Just like the chairman of the SoftBank Group that invested in Alibaba, Sun Masayoshi, although he is the richest man in Japan, in the eyes of Ito Takehiko, he is not Japanese at all.

Many years ago, Sun Masayoshi was born and raised in Japan when he immigrated from Daegu, South Korea to Japan to work as a miner.

In the eyes of most people, he is already a standard Japanese.

However, in the eyes of a nationalist like Takehiko Ito, Sun Masayoshi can only be regarded as a Korean Japanese at best.

This is like Americans who treat Chinese Americans like Chinese. Even if Chinese Americans have American citizenship, they are still regarded as Chinese in the eyes of some Americans.

It is precisely because Nanako knows her father very well that she is afraid of her hasty decision.

Koichi Tanaka is right. If she suddenly returns to Tokyo and insists on meeting Charlie, Ito Yuhiko will definitely be very angry, and may even impose a foothold on Nanako, or even directly interfere with her freedom of marriage. Find her a marriage partner and force her to marry.

Thinking of this, Nanako was extremely disappointed, and she murmured: "Thank you Tanaka, I understand..."

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly asked: "Miss, will you return to Tokyo tomorrow?"

Nanako bit her lower lip lightly and remained silent for a long time. Then she said sadly: "I don't want to go back, so as to avoid accidents, it won't be good if I trouble Master Wade."

Hiroshi Tanaka breathed a sigh of relief and said: "Miss is wise, now the president is very annoyed with Mr. Charlie. If it weren't for the cooperation of the Su family at the moment, the president would have thought of a way to deal with him. , If you come to Tokyo to meet Mr. Charlie at this time, you will definitely add fuel to the fire..."

Nanako whispered, full of loss, "I know Tanaka, besides, can I ask you something?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Miss, if you have anything to do, please give orders!"

Nanako said: "If father's conflict with Master Wade intensifies, please Tanaka must stop my father, and don't do anything to hurt Master Wade because of his urgency..."

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Miss, to be honest, Mr. Charlie now has president's 4.5 billion USD. Even if you like him, you can't turn your elbow out!"

Nanako said very seriously: "I am not trying to protect Master Wade, but to protect my father. The Ito family is not Master Wade's opponent. If Master Wade is offended, there will be a disaster..."

Chapter 1683

Nanako knew very well that Charlie's strength was far beyond his own.

After being injured, Mr. Yamamoto Kazuki once said that Charlie's abolition of his palm was not just Abnere force, but with the internal energy mentioned in Chinese martial arts, which really destroyed his muscles and veins. It is this kind of inner strength.

Yamamoto Kazuki has also come into contact with some ninjutsu masters. Although his actual combat ability is much worse than that of ninjutsu masters, at least he can perform a few tricks under the hands of ninjutsu masters, unlike in front of Charlie. There is nothing to resist.

It can be seen that Charlie's strength is even far above that of ninjutsu masters.

It was when Nanako recognized this, she knew clearly that neither her father nor the Ito family was necessarily Charlie's opponent.

However, Yuhiko Ito was not aware of this level.

He just felt that Charlie's strength was better than Yamamoto Kazuki, and better than his two personal bodyguards, but if you really want to compare with ninjutsu masters, Charlie must be a bit inferior.

After hearing Nanako's words, Hiroshi Tanaka was embarrassed and said hurriedly: "Miss, I understand what you mean, please rest assured, if the president has a conflict with Mr. Charlie, I will definitely find a way to persuade him."

Nanako gave a hum, then sighed lightly, and said, "It's Okay Tanaka, so be it. Just tell me if you have anything in time."

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "OK eldest lady, then I won't bother you anymore!"

After hanging up the phone, Nanako held the phone in both hands and looked up at the sky, feeling sad.

During this period of time, she missed Charlie every day and night, looking forward to meeting him again, and at the same time, she felt that the chance of seeing him again was very slim.

But she didn't expect Charlie to come to Japan!

Before, Charlie was separated from her by the sea, she was on this side of the sea, and Charlie was on the other side of the sea.

Now, Charlie and her are on the same land, only more than 400 kilometers apart. If she drives, she can get there in four or five hours; if she takes the Shinkansen, it will be more than two hours.

When she thought of Charlie, who was thinking about it all night, only a few hours' drive away from him, Nanako really wanted to see him.

However, when she thinks about her inconvenience now, it will inevitably be known by her father when she sees him in Tokyo, and she can only give up this idea unwillingly.

At this time, the dense dark clouds in the sky quietly dispersed at some point, and one after another star gradually emerged from the cloud.

Nanako sighed and said to herself: "It seems that there should be no snow tonight."

After that, she put away the mobile phone, controlled the wheelchair with both hands, left the deserted yard, and returned to her room.

The pain in her body is still very serious, almost 24 hours, suffering from pain all the time.

Originally, the doctor advised her to wear an analgesic pump. The analgesic pump is a device that can automatically infuse fluids at a constant rate and can continuously push pain medications into her veins.

Generally speaking, people who have been severely injured or who have just had an operation should wear an analgesic pump, which can relieve pain to a great extent.

But Nanako has been reluctant to use it.

That's because the painkillers will cause certain damage to her nerves. Once the painkillers have been used for a long time, it will be more difficult for her to recover in the future, and it is very likely that she will be an invalid who can no longer practice martial arts.

Therefore, she has been clenching her teeth and insisting, relying on tenacious willpower to resist physical pain.

The natural hot spring in the mansion is taken from the underground hot spring eye. It is rich in minerals and rich in selenium, which is of great benefit to the body and can relieve body pain to a certain extent.

But because her body is still injured, she can't soak in the hot spring for a long time, no more than one hour a day, so Nanako's happiest time every day is the time in the hot spring.

Soaking her body in the hot spring, Nanako couldn't help but think of Charlie again.

She remembered how she was looking for him in the villa area where Charlie lived with the shyness of a girl.

Chapter 1684

At that time, she was nervous as a little quail in front of him.

When she was at a loss, he gave Charlie a cup of milk tea in his hand, and lied that she was going to drink it, but he did not expect that he actually took a sip of the milk tea.

And just before Charlie drank it, Nanako had just used that straw. That kind of indirect kissing behavior was the most ambiguous thing Nanako had done with a man since she grew up.

It was also the indirect kiss that Nanako has been thinking about ever since.

Thinking of Charlie's appearance, she subconsciously raised her slender fingers and wrote Charlie in traditional characters on the water.

There were waves of soft water ripples on the water, but she couldn't keep any of the strokes she wrote down.

It was this fleeting trace that allowed Nanako to be confident and bold, and write Charlie's name on the water again and again without leaving any traces.

This night, Nanako couldn't sleep for a long time.

This night, the sky in Kyoto gradually cleared.

The heavy snow predicted by the meteorological department did not come.

The early morning weather forecast stated that due to the impact of the air currents, the heavy snow that was originally expected to fall last night was estimated to be two to three days later than originally planned.

The snow was delayed, and Nanako was somewhat regretful.

She always felt that this was an expression of God's unbeauty.

Thinking of Charlie, who was only a few hundred kilometers away from herself, but couldn't rush to meet him, a melancholy thought suddenly popped into her heart:

Perhaps, I have no relationship with Charlie!

The next day, Aurous Hill.

Qin Gang rushed to Qin's warehouse for storing medicinal materials early in the morning and personally directed the staff to prepare the herbal medicines for Charlie.

Workers at the scene began to pack the boxes in full swing, and he urged on the side: "All medicinal materials must be checked manually before they are packed to ensure that the medicinal materials are not loaded incorrectly, there should be no deterioration or damage, and that the amount of medicinal materials is sufficient. Do you understand?"

"Understood President Qin!"

A group of employees hurriedly responded.

Qin Gang nodded in satisfaction and continued: "Before this afternoon, be sure to prepare the first batch of medicines and then send them to the airport. I have already contacted the air cargo company and will take off at 10 o'clock tonight. The goods will be delivered to Tokyo!"

For twenty years, the Old Master of the Su family held a morning meeting in the main hall of the mansion every day.

This morning meeting was just like the early dynasty of the ancient emperor, and the children of the Su family had to report to the Old Master the progress of various businesses in the daily morning meeting.

If the father has any orders, he will also announce them at the morning meeting.

The Su family is thriving, and there are more than 30 children and relatives participating in the morning meeting.

The rules at the meeting are very strict. The Old Master sat down on a half-meter-high step, facing everyone, very Carden.

Children, grandchildren, and relatives sit in several rows according to their status and generation.

At this time, Mr. Su was sitting on a chair like a dragon, looking at the children below the stage, and said in a Carden manner: "The recent international crude oil situation continues to be turbulent and the global economic downturn has caused international import and export trade to be affected. Now many ocean shipping companies are struggling. It is a good time for our Su family to buy bottoms and buck the trend. The cooperation with the Japanese must be accelerated!"

Chapter 1685

The Su family is a big family that was born in Huizhou, but has been standing in Eastcliff for a century.

During the Qing Dynasty, when the Taiping Heavenly Kingdom movement swept across China, the Su family followed the red-top businessman Hu Xueyan and risked his life to transport arms and grains for the Qing army, which was appreciated by the Qing government.

After that, the Su family moved to Eastcliff from Huizhou with rich accumulation and wealth. Since then, the family has been in business for generations and its strength has been at the forefront of the country.

In the past few decades, the Su family and the Wade family were fighting against each other. Under the attack of Charlie's father, Changying, they were already slightly tired, but after Changying's death at young age, the Su family immediately stepped on the Wade family. Became the first in the country.

The Old Master of the Su family, named Chengfeng Su, was named after Su Shi's famous "Inscription on the Forest Wall".

As the saying goes:

Viewed horizontally as ridges and peaks on the sides, the distances are different.

Chengfeng is named after this.

Chengfeng is sixty in his seventies this year. Although he is not very old, he is no longer a man in his prime age.

It stands to reason that his life has been considered a success, but he is still not satisfied.

He hopes to lay a solid foundation for the Su family before he retires. At the very least, to realize the long-cherished wish of "1 is greater than 2+3".

Since ancient times, no one in the business field can truly dominate.

The true meaning of the so-called 1 is greater than 2+3 refers to the sum of the family ranked first, the overall strength is greater than the family ranked second, and the family ranked third.

To be more specific, it is equivalent that the Su Family's comprehensive strength is greater than the combined strength of the Wade Family and the Gu Family.

In this way, even if the second-ranked and third-ranked join forces to fight against them, they don't have to worry at all.

Only in this way, the Su family can truly sit back and relax.

Now, the gap between the Su family and the Wade family is indeed getting wider, but if you want to truly achieve 1 greater than 2+3, there is still a gap of at least a few hundred billion in assets.

Therefore, the Su family is now actively seeking breakthroughs overseas, hoping to realize this ambition in one fell swoop.

As long as this goal is achieved, Eastcliff will no longer have the concept of three big families. Instead, it is the new pattern of the Su family that despises the heroes.

Therefore, Chengfeng attaches great importance to this shipping business.

Hearing that the Old Master attaches great importance to ocean transportation, one of the heirs of the Su family couldn't help but show off in front of him: "Grandpa, grandson feel that the development of the world economy has encountered considerable resistance now, and all countries have import and export trades. Great contraction. don't know when foreign trade will fully recover. In this case, if you bet on ocean shipping, the risk is still very high. It is very likely that you will copy the bottom half of the mountain. So grandson advises you to think twice. Then go!"

"Think twice?" Chengfeng snorted coldly and ignored him. Instead, he looked at the middle-aged man next to him and sternly reprimanded: "Fifth, how did you discipline your son? He hasn't grown well, so he dares to question here. My decision, is it true that I am useless, old, and still able to eat?"

The fifth son is Holden Su, the fifth son of Mr. Su.

The Su family has five sons and two daughters.

Holden is the fifth son of Father Su and the last of the seven children.

The young man who just spoke was Normen Su, the youngest son of Holden.

Normen is just eighteen years old this year, and is considered an academic genius. Last year, he was admitted to Harvard University on his own strength.

Chapter 1686

Because of his young age and the reason he has been favored at home, Normen has a strong desire to express himself.

However, he used to behave in front of his parents, and he had no chance to behave in front of his grandfather. Today, he finally seized the opportunity, thinking about the Old Master's ideas, and debating with him, so as to show his extraordinary talents. And wisdom, but did not expect, just a word, annoyed the Old Master soon.

He was about to open his mouth to explain, but he didn't think about it. His father Holden stood up and opened his bow left and right. He drew several big blows on his face, and the corners of his mouth were full of blood. Then he roared with extreme anger: "You read, go inside you dog? Dare to question your grandfather's decision here?!"

He hadn't been beaten when he grew up so old, and he didn't understand why his father, who had always been doting on him, wanted to suck him into death after one sentence angered his grandfather.

At this time, Holden hates this son who is not growing.

He was very aware of the coercion of the Old Master, even his elder brother Zynn, he did not dare to stand up to the Old Master, let alone his ineffective little son?

It's not so popular!

It is very possible that his words will be completely beaten by the Old Master in the future, and after graduation from university, he will not even have the opportunity to return to Su's home to work!

The reason why the Old Master Chengfeng is so hegemonic and authoritarian is greatly related to his growth experience.

When he was young, he had many brothers.

At that time, it was still in the Qing Dynasty. His father not only had many children from seven wives. He gave birth to more than 30 children, including 23 sons alone!

Just like the ancient prince seizing the first-in-law, Chengfeng had been fighting openly and secretly with 22 brothers since he was a child. After fighting for fifty years, he finally inherited the position of Su Family Patriarch.

If someone threatens his Carden, even if it is his son or grandson, he will never tolerate it.

Normen was young and ignorant, and with the aura of genius, he dared to confront Old Su to find a sense of existence. In everyone's eyes, this action was no different from looking for death!

Holden even slapped Normen dozens of slaps, and he almost couldn't stand to faint. Grandpa Su snorted and said: "Okay, don't beat him, let someone take him out, we Continue the meeting!"

Holden's heart was bleeding a long time ago, but the Old Master didn't speak, he didn't dare to stop.

Seeing that the Old Master finally spoke, he put his hands away and suppressed the distress in his heart, and yelled at the servant standing next to him: "Hurry up and get this unfilial son out of my face!"

Several people immediately stepped forward and dragged out Normen, who was vomiting blood, dizzy and tinnitus.

The Old Master Su cleared his throat and continued: "This cooperation with the Japanese will not only win at least 20% of the operating rights of Tokyo Port, Yokohama Port and Osaka Port, but also let them provide at least no less than For all kinds of cargo ships and oil tankers with a displacement of 3 million tons, whoever has the most resources will have the opportunity to become one of us. Therefore, when going to Japan this time, we must take a good look at the true strengths of Ito and Takahashi. In addition, we must force the two of them to use the most resources!”

The eldest son Zynn blurted out: “Father, don’t know who you plan to let these two Japanese families cooperate with this time?”

Elder Su was silent for a moment, and then said: “Zynn, you are the eldest son and grandson, and it is time for you to take the lead. This time, you will take the lead!”

Zhifei, the eldest grandson of Su, and the eldest son of Zynn, is 28 years old this year and is the most outstanding male heir of the Su family.

Upon hearing that he was selected, Zhifei immediately stood up and said firmly: “Please rest assured, I will go all out!”

Elder Su nodded lightly, and his eyes fell on the beautiful and glamorous girl beside Zhifei.

It was also at this moment that the Old Master’s eyes were finally not so hard. Instead, he was replaced by a somewhat pampering look. He smiled and said, “Zhiyu, you will graduate from Yale soon. It’s also time to go out and exercise. This time you will follow your brother, learn more, watch more, and accumulate some experience!”

The beautiful and glamorous girl stood up, bowed slightly, her expression was not lukewarm, her eyes were lukewarm, her tone was neither salty nor free of salt, and said, “Ok, Grandpa, I will.”

Chapter 1687

When the Old Master announced that Zhifei and Zhiyu would go to Japan together, their father Zynn’s expression became a little proud.

In his opinion, the father gave such an important matter to his sons and daughters, which is evidence that he is the eldest son and is most trusted by the father.

The other heirs are full of envy and jealousy.

The Old Master wants to train Zhifei, and everyone has no opinion on this. After all, Zhifei is the eldest son and grandson. If placed in ancient times, this is the standard crown prince. No matter how strong other princes are, they must bow their heads when they see the eldest son and grandson.

However, let Zhifei go for exercise, and also take Zhiyu along with him. This is really a bit too eccentric!

Under normal circumstances, if you encounter such a thing, you should let the eldest son and grandson take the lead, and then from the second, third, fourth and even fifth family, choose one or two younger generations who are agile and capable of training and let them follow the eldest son. The eldest grandson went out to meet the world together.

However, he never expected that in addition to the eldest grandson in the eyes of the Old Master, there is only the eldest granddaughter he spoils the most!

In other words, this is tantamount to the Old Master showing his position. Except for the eldest grandson, all the other grandsons, in his eyes, are not as good as Zhiyu's female stream!

This can make other families feel extremely uncomfortable.

Everyone in Eastcliff knows that the Su family is thriving.

The Old Master had 22 brothers and a dozen sisters back then. In his line, he still has 13 grandsons and two granddaughters.

But who could have expected that in his eyes, the eldest granddaughter Zhiyu was the most favored.

The reason is that the Old Master has always been strict in his requirements and management of the male heirs of the family, so he and his sons and grandsons have always had a black face.

But the Old Master is also a mortal, and there is softness in his heart. He can't show the soft side to his son and grandson, so he gives the soft side to his granddaughter.

In addition, Zhiyu has been smart since she was a child, and she has been loved by her grandfather. In front of others, the grandfather is a demon with decisiveness, an extraordinary spirit, and an arrogant personality, but in front of his granddaughter, he is an ordinary, kind and doting younger generation lover.

In fact, the degree of doting the Old Master has for Zhiyu can be seen from the name of Zhiyu.

Zhifei's name is meant to know right and wrong and not to make detours;

The name of each grandchild can be said to be full of the admonition and vigilance of Grandpa Su to his grandchildren.

Only Zhiyu.

In "Zhuangzi·Autumn Water", a conversation between Huizi and Zhuangzi is recorded. Huizi said that Zi is not a fish, and he knows the joy of fish.

The Old Master named her Zhiyu, hoping that she can be happy, happy, simple and happy. Since she can know "the joy of fish", she can naturally know "the joy of man".

Chapter 1688

It can be said that Father Su's incomparable love for Zhiyu is everywhere.

It is precisely because of this that the entire young talents of Eastcliff are full of desire for Zhiyu.

Solving Zhiyu is not just a glamorous super beauty, a super schoolmaster who has stayed in the United States all year round and received the world's top high-end education, it is also equivalent to the entire Su family.

Someone joked that whoever marries Zhiyu may obtain a huge wealth of up to trillions.

After the Old Master Chengfeng announced his decision, he said to his eldest son Zynn: "Zynn, you and Zhifei and Zhiyu should hurry up to discuss a general plan, and then hurry up to prepare for the journey. The sooner the better."

Zynn immediately stood up and said respectfully: "Father rest assured, I will discuss a plan with the two of them as soon as possible, and strive to leave for Japan tonight!"

Chengfeng nodded and exhorted: "As long as this kind of choice is made, it is particularly important who we contact first. Although the Ito family and the Takahashi family have fallen a bit due to the overall recession of the Japanese economy over the years, their overall strength is still very strong in Japan. Stay at the forefront, and you must carefully decide which one to contact first."

Zynn said immediately: "Good father, we will start the discussion right away and report the results to you as soon as possible."

Chengfeng smiled with satisfaction and said: "Zynn, eighteen years ago, you won Changying and became the most dazzling one among the younger generation of Eastcliff, but in the past eighteen years, you have not been able to achieve greater glory. Of course, you are not to blame. It is our family who has never encountered any decent opponents in China over the years."

Speaking of this, Chengfeng sneered, stood up, and fervently said: "The domestic market has no room for incremental growth. If we want to continue to grow, we must go abroad, go to sea, and develop into the ocean!"

"Otherwise, the veteran families in the West, including Rothschilds, will still pop out and disgust us at odds and ends!"

"Therefore, this ocean-going strategy is a good opportunity for the Su family to create new brilliance, and it is also a good stage for you to lay a higher achievement!"

"If this battle is fought beautifully, I can be considered to be consummated, and I can retreat with peace of mind to enjoy the family happiness. By then, you will be the Patriarch of the Su Family!"

When Zynn heard this, he bowed deeply and shouted loudly, "Father rest assured, Zynn will do his best! Create new glory for the Su family!"

As soon as he got home, he called his son and daughter to the study, and said with a high spirit: "My children, this time is a good opportunity for our family to make new achievements in the Su family. You two are going to Japan this time. , We must get the best terms of cooperation. Whether we choose the Ito family or the Takahashi family in the end, we must compress their interests to the extreme and strive for the greatest benefit for our Su family!"

Zhifei immediately said: "Dad, when we go to Japan this time, should we first contact the Ito family or the Takahashi family?"

Zynn asked, "What do you think?"

Zhifei said: "I think it's best to contact the Ito family first, because the Ito family is strong in Tokyo and Kyoto. Tokyo has the Port of Tokyo, and there are Osaka Port and Nagoya Port near Kyoto. In theory, the Ito family is in Ports and shipping have greater potential."

"Yeah" Zynn nodded slightly, and said approvingly: "Your point of view is very reasonable, and I also tend to contact the Ito family first."

Zhiyu frowned and said in a lukewarm tone: "Dad, brother, I think we should first contact the Takahashi family."

"Oh?" The two looked at Zhiyu, and Zynn asked, "Zhiyu, why do you think so?"

Chapter 1689

Faced with the questions of father and brother, Zhiyu answered calmly: "First of all, although the Ito family has strong resources in Tokyo, and also has good strength in Osaka and Nagoya, Japan's real super seaport is actually next to Tokyo. The port of Yokohama."

"Although the Takahashi family is slightly inferior to the Ito family in Tokyo, they are very tough in Yokohama. It can be said that Yokohama is the base camp of the Takahashi family."

"Secondly, the Ito family is somewhat troubled now, Ito Yuhiko's daughter was seriously injured while participating in an international Sanda competition in Aurous Hill some time ago and is currently recuperating. Ito himself loves this daughter very much. The physical condition of the daughter will more or less distract him. Once this person's energy is not full Focusing on our work 100% will have an impact on our cooperation. Even if the impact is only 1%, it is a real impact."

Zynn frowned, "Ito Yuuhiko's daughter was injured? I have never heard of this."

Zhiyu said lightly: "I asked someone to investigate the situation of these two companies, including their family's children." The eldest brother Zhifei couldn't help but give a thumbs up: "Zhiyu, you still think about the problem most. All-round!"

Zhiyu said without a wave: "Brother, don't slap me here anymore. You will be the one who will be alone in the future. I will just help you think about it temporarily."

Zhifei said with a smile: "Having such a good sister, I will really worry about it in the future!"

Zhiyu gave him a blank look and said, "One more thing, I have heard that the Ito family had previously wanted to invest in a Japanese pharmaceutical company named Kobayashi. Pharmaceuticals, this matter will also distract his energy to a certain extent."

Zhifei nodded: "I know that company, Kobayashi Weisan, I have used it before, and the effect is really good, very powerful."

"That's before." Zhiyu said lightly: "Now, there is a JX Weisan in China, which has surpassed them in product strength."

"Oh," Zhifei said with a smile: "I have a hunch that JX Pharmaceutical will soon emerge. It will catch up with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals first, and eventually catch up."

At this point, Zhifei seriously suggested: "If possible, I think it's a good opportunity to invest in JX Pharmaceutical now. It's possible that there will be more than ten times the return on investment in a few years."

Zynn waved his hand and said, "No matter how big the pharmaceutical company is, it will be worth 100 billion. It's very big, we still focus on the bigger market and opportunities. This ocean-going project is the key to the internationalization of the Su family."

Zhiyu wanted to say something, but she swallowed it to her lips and ordered Nodded and said, "Get back to the subject, dad, which one do you think we should contact first? I still think that Ito Yuihiko has internal and external troubles, and other things involve energy, or the Takahashi family as a whole is more appropriate."

Zynn looked towards Zhifei asked: "Zhifei, what do you think?"

Zhifei immediately said: "If you listen to people persuading you to eat a full meal, I think you should listen to Zhiyu. After all, those who investigate have the right to speak!"

Zynn Nodded with satisfaction, and said with a smile: "You two brothers and sisters are the most outstanding among your peers. If you two work together, you must be famous throughout the country, and even the world!"

Zhifei said with a smile "I don't dare to compare with Zhiyu. This girl is a pervert. At the age of 22, she is mentally mature and like forty-four. I really don't know what kind of person I have to find in the future to be cured."

Zhiyu glared at him and said angrily: "I want you to worry about my business? Think about yourself first. You have been in love with that Sara for so long, when are you going to confess to her?"

Zhifei with a big embarrassment, he blurted out: "Don't talk nonsense! Sara and I are acquaintances, not even friends."

"Of course." Zhiyu snorted, and said contemptuously: "You meet someone. Even if you can't speak well, of course even friends can't do it!"

Chapter 1690

Zynn on the side of them frowned and asked him, "Zhifei, do you have ideas about that girl from the Gu family?"

"No, Dad" Zhifei hurriedly waved his hand: "I just admire her, simple as that."

Zynn nodded, paused for a while, and then said: "Gu's girl is really good. If you really like her, I don't have any objection. I'm just afraid that your grandpa won't look down on Gu's family, then it will be difficult."

Zhifei Upon hearing this, was overjoyed, and blurted out, "Dad, are you really okay?"

Zhiyu blurted out: "Brother, are you stupid? Can't you hear that Dad is deliberately deceiving you?"

"Ah?!" Zhifei panicked, and hurriedly looked at Zynn: "Dad, what do you mean?"

Zynn sighed and said seriously: "Zhifei, you are not as smart as your sister!"

Zhifei suddenly became embarrassed.

Zynn had a face at this time, saying: "You are the son of the Su family and the third-generation heir of the future Su family, and the strength of the Gu family is really not enough in front of the our family. Your grandfather will definitely not agree to it, nor do I. You will agree, don't forget, the girl from the Gu family has been engaged to Changying's son since childhood, and I and Changying are at odds, and I will never let you marry the girl from the Gu family in future!"

Zhifei sighed: "Dad , When did that happen, the millet is old and rotten, besides, hasn't Changying's son have been missing for many years?"

Zynn looked at him and said solemnly, "Leave aside this matter. Your grandfather once discussed with me about your marriage. He even hopes that after completing the internationalization of the Su family, you can marry the eldest daughter of the top American family. This will be more beneficial to our overseas expansion. Domestically, it is no one who can deserve your."

Zhifei was a little anxious and blurted out: "Dad, I don't like American women."

Zynn said solemnly: "This kind of thing has never been related to liking the word. It's nothing more than a pair, understand?"

Zhifei was a little depressed at once.

Zhiyu on the side reminded him at this moment: "Dad, let me declare first, I don't care how you arrange my brother, but no one is allowed to influence my marriage in the future!"

Zhifei exclaimed, "Hey, Zhiyu ! You just sold your brother like that?"

"No." Zhiyu said calmly, "We are in different situations. If I find a man who can make my heart beat, I will marry him, from the Su family. Nothing has anything to do with me anymore. In the future, I will give birth to children without the surname Su, but you are different. You are going to inherit the Su family."

Zhifei was speechless. The expression is very depressed.

Zynn looked at Zhiyu helplessly, and reminded: "The premise for you to find the object is that he has to be the right one!"

Zhiyu waved his hand: "What is the right one, does not exist, who is this lady fancy? Who, whether he is the king of heaven, or the trafficker."

"Bull$hit!" Zynn said annoyedly: "In case he is really a pauper, what can you guarantee for your life's happiness?"

Zhiyu curled her lips: "I don't believe it. My dignified Su family, can't afford a pauper?"

Chapter 1691

Zhiyu's words made Zynn mad enough.

He pointed to Zhiyu, and said angrily: "You will also talk about this at home, dare to speak out to see if your grandpa scolds you or not!"

Zhiyu took out her cell phone and said with a smile: "Or I am now going to give grandpa a call and tell him again in person."

"Hurry up and get it down!" Zynn hurriedly said: "It's all right, I won't talk nonsense with you, anyway, the horoscope hasn't been written yet, you two Hurry up and study the matter of going to Japan, and then set off early!"

Zhifei said quickly: "Let's do this, Dad, this matter is just as Zhiyu said. Let's meet the Takahashi family first, and then Ito family, as the departure time of it, I think, try to get earlier, I am now ready to let the crew. What about starting immediately after lunch?"

Zynn nodded and said: "OK, you guys ready to seize the time to look at , After lunch, don't leave in a hurry. Go and report to your grandfather first. Tell your grandpa about your plans and ideas. If he doesn't have any comments, you are ready to set off!"

"Okay, dad." Zhifei agreed, and then hurriedly winked at Zhiyu and said, "Zhiyu, let's go."

Zhiyu nodded and followed Zhifei out of father's study.

As soon as he came out of the study, Zhifei blamed: "You girl really owe to Sara, why do you want to tell dad about Sara?"

Zhiyu chuckled, and said in a playful tone, "Why don't you mention it? You must have been hiding in your heart. Do you really have to accept your fate and obey the family arrangements in the future?"

Zhifei sighed and said, "We are from this background, and we have everything we have on the day we were born. The only part of the feeling is that you don't have autonomy. Don't you know that? Why do you still choke those words with dad?"

"I'm happy." Zhiyu said wantonly, and then rationalized it. With short hair and a resolute expression, she said, "Anyway, Zhiyu's future will never be at the mercy of anyone!"

Zhifei shook his head helplessly: "Okay, I won't talk to you about these meaningless things. This time we are going to Japan. It may take a few days. You can quickly prepare your luggage. After dinner, let's go to Grandpa. Then, we'll be ready to leave after the report."

Zhiyu hummed, stretched, and said lazily: "Hey, it's too early in the morning. I'll get some sleep when I go back to the room. Come call me."

Zhifei looked at her back and sighed heavily: "Auntie, I really will take you with me don't worry."

Tokyo, Japan at this moment.

Charlie had been lying down on the top terrace of Kobayashi's house all morning.

Today, Paul is busy resolving the remaining lengthy legal documents with the local business department in Tokyo.

Liang and Ichiro first went to the production base of the company.

Although Qin Gang's medicinal materials will not arrive until the evening, Liang still needs to find out about the production base first, and then arrange the work of transferring JX Weisan in advance.

In this way, after the medicinal materials arrive at night, he can start trial production directly overtime.

Therefore, Charlie became the most idle one.

Issac walked over at this time and said respectfully: "Master if you are idle, shall we go out in the afternoon? Ginza and Shinjuku in Tokyo are very famous."

Charlie waved his hand: "I have nothing to do with shopping. You go with Mr. Orvel."

Issac smiled and said: "I have something to go shopping with him, the Old Master, I guess is holding back his energy and wants to try Japanese Special Place."

"Then let him Go." Charlie smiled lightly: "That thing is considered legal here, so go if you want."

Chapter 1692

Issac nodded: "If there is nothing wrong in the evening, let him go over and see."

At noon, Charlie didn't go anywhere.

He is not familiar with Tokyo, and he doesn't have a lot of favor with this particularly prosperous modern city.

In contrast, he prefers Eastcliff. The city not only has advanced and prosperous modern high-rise buildings, but also has historical sites with hundreds or even thousands of years of history. The cultural atmosphere is very strong, and the foundation is much stronger than in Tokyo.

However, Charlie didn't want to deprive others of the right to go shopping because he was not interested, so he sent Issac, Orvel and others out.

The group of people went to the bustling Ginza and Shinjuku for a whole afternoon, and when they came back, everyone had a good harvest, carrying a lot of big and small bags.

In the evening, Issac arranged for everyone to have dinner at a Chinese restaurant opened by one of his staff.

After eating, Charlie didn't see anything important, so he said to Issac and Mr. Orvel: "You can move around freely for a while, and you don't have to go around me."

Mr. Orvel asked hurriedly, "Master, do you have any arrangements for a while?"

Charlie thought for a while and said, "I'll go out and walk around by myself."

Mr. Orvel smiled and asked, "Master, are you going to Fengyue Street? I heard that the girls on Fengyue Street in Japan are very punctual!"

Charlie waved his hand: "Forget it, I want to go to the University of Tokyo and walk around. You should go to Fengyue Street to enjoy it yourself."

"To the University of Tokyo?" Orvel asked in surprise: "Master, what are you going to do there? It's not your alma mater."

Charlie said calmly: "It's nothing, just want to go shopping, you don't have to follow me."

Issac hurriedly said, "Master, do you want me to send you a car?"

"No." Charlie waved his hand and said, "After spending a day at Ichiro's house, I want to take a walk."

Seeing this, everyone no longer insisted.

Charlie came out and got into the subway station next to the building alone. After seeing the route map, he took the subway to the University of Tokyo.

He didn't know why he suddenly wanted to go to the University of Tokyo. Thinking about it carefully, it might be because of Nanako.

Although the girl didn't have much contact with him, she was still stubborn and distressed.

Charlie knew that she was not in Tokyo, but knew that she was a student of Tokyo University, so he wanted to take a walk and take a look where she went to school.

Zhifei, Zhiyu brother and sister, and more than a dozen of the Su family members departed to Tokyo together.

The Takahashi family, who had received the news in advance, was very excited about the decision of the Su family to meet them first. The main members of the family had already been waiting at Tokyo Narita Airport in advance.

At the same time, they also booked the best rooms in Tokyo's most stylish hotel, Aman Hotel Tokyo, in accordance with Zhiyu's requirements.

And Yuhiko Ito also received the news. After learning that the representative of the Su family had to meet the Takahashi family first, he was furious.

Coupled with the fact that Charlie had taken 4.5 billion USD yesterday, it has been stuck in his mind. The two things superimposed on each other, making him even more angry.

After dropping more than a dozen pieces of precious porcelain in a row, he secretly vowed that if he didn't get the chance to cooperate with the Su family this time, he would make Charlie pay double the price!

Chapter 1693

Ito's anger did not come from hypocrisy or narrow-mindedness.

During this time, he has been feeling upset.

First, the beloved daughter was seriously injured, and then the future son-in-law Jiro disappeared inexplicably.

Immediately afterwards, he spent 4.5 billion USD and planned to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

The contract was signed and the payment was made. Then, Ichiro suddenly returned and unilaterally declared the investment contract he had signed invalid.

Then, Charlie strongly stated that there were no shares, and the 4.5 billion USD would not be refunded. Ito Yuihiko lived so big, he thought he had never seen such a brazen person.

If it wasn't for this kid who seemed to be really strong, plus the Su family was about to come to Japan to discuss cooperation, Ito Yuhiko would really want to kill Charlie immediately.

But he did a great deal of tolerance for the Su family's arrival, but the first stop of the Su family's visit to Tokyo was not to discuss cooperation with himself, but to find his enemy, the Takahashi family.

At this moment, Ito Yuhiko's mentality collapsed.

Why have I encountered so many problems recently?

Is it to go to the temple to burn incense, worship Buddha, and eat vegetarian food for a few days?

Seeing him fury, Tanaka did not dare to come up to persuade him for a long time.

Until Ito Yuihiko had enough vent by himself, Tanaka Koichi leaned forward and said, "Chairman, you don't have to be so angry about this matter. Even if the Su family gets in touch with the Takahashi family first, it doesn't mean anything. I have received Their message, they will visit the house in the morning the day after tomorrow. We still have a chance."

Yuhiko Ito said with a black face: "For this kind of thing, it is very important for the Su family to choose whom to meet first. It is as if you are talking about a girlfriend in Osaka, and at the same time you have work matters to go to Osaka. Your girlfriend should go to work first, which determines which is more important in your mind."

Ito Yuihiko said angrily: "Then treat you as a playboy, you have two lovers in Osaka, and now you go to Osaka to see them separately, then I ask you, will you choose to see your favorite one first, or first See the one you don't like that much?"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "It may also be that I like both, but I can't meet at the same time, so there must always be an order. If don't know how to choose, maybe I will use lottery or guess coins. It's decided in a way, so it doesn't necessarily represent who I see first, who I like more."

Takehiko Ito raised his leg, kicked Hiroshi Tanaka distractedly, and blurted out: "Go on, I f*cking use you to comfort me here? Why should I go!"

Hiroshi Tanaka stepped back a few steps, and said, "Mr. President, I'm right outside the door. If you have anything, please call me."

At the same time.

Charlie has come to the campus of the University of Tokyo.

Although the styles of this city are quite different, the University of Tokyo, like Eastcliff University, is one of the top universities in Asia, naturally with a strong academic atmosphere and a sense of sacredness.

Charlie is a very knowledgeable person, but it is a pity that he did not have the opportunity to receive a complete higher education. This has always been a great regret in his heart.

Back then, one of his parents graduated from Eastcliff University and the other from Tsinghua University. When he was a child, he would often follow his parents to visit these two universities, or accompany his parents to participate in some activities of their alma mater.

In the past, he always felt that he would definitely choose one of Eastcliff University and Tsinghua University in the future. After finishing his undergraduate degree, he would choose a top business school from around the world to study in business management.

The heirs of most big families basically follow this line.

Because the members of the big family are also very clear in their hearts that the more they are born in the big family, the more they have to improve their comprehensive abilities, otherwise, they are very likely to be left out or eliminated by the family.

Among the top ten families in Eastcliff, as long as they are young heirs of the right age, it is impossible for anyone to have never studied at university. Of course, Charlie is the only exception.

If Charlie is not included, the ratio for undergraduates is 100%, and the ratio for postgraduates is also 100%.

Even those people who immediately devote themselves to the family business as soon as they graduate from university will spend their spare time studying for a master's degree in MBA.

It is a pity that Charlie is now 26 years old, and he knows very well in his heart that it is impossible for him to return to school to study for a university or for a master's degree, so this has become his eternal regret.

At the University of Tokyo, you can see young people of different skin colors everywhere, dressed in simple and plain clothes, carrying school bags or holding textbooks, and many people appear to be in a hurry.

At first he was still surprised, and seeing the Chinese New Year in more than half a month, why didn't Japanese universities have holidays.

Chapter 1694

After thinking about it, he realized that although Japanese culture was deeply influenced by China and the Japanese people also celebrated the Lunar New Year in the early years, after the Meiji Restoration, the Japanese tried to escape from Asia and enter Europe, so they changed the New Year from the lunar calendar to Gregorian calendar.

Therefore, the biggest and most solemn festival in Japan is actually New Year's Day.

And now, the University of Tokyo seems to have entered the eve of the winter vacation, and the students are actively preparing for the exam.

When Charlie strolled around the campus of the University of Tokyo, he couldn't help but think of Nanako studying at this university.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, it would be hard to imagine. A girl who looks so weak is not only a top student from the University of Tokyo, but also a powerful Sanda fighter.

This girl is really full of very polar contradictions.

When he approached the library, Charlie was even on the street light pole and saw Nanako's support poster.

The poster has a photo of Nanako wearing a school uniform, and her smile is really eye-catching.

The content on the poster is to call on students from the University of Tokyo to support Nanako in participating in the Aurous Hill International College Sanda Competition.

They even labeled Nanako as “No. 1”, “Pride of Japanese Women” and “A Strong Contender for Olympic Gold Medals.”

These labels are all put on by classmates who have high hopes for Nanako.

However, these labels have also caused moral kidnapping of Nanako to a certain extent.

It's like telling Nanako all the time that you must win, or else I'm sorry for the strong expectations of us all.

Compared with this kind of utilitarian support slogan, Charlie feels that it is better to simply say to her: “Just work hard, and we will support you even if you fail.”

Thinking of this, Charlie shook his head and sighed, took out his mobile phone, and procured this cinema poster as a souvenir.

Seeing that it was not too early, and it was completely dark, he stepped out of the University of Tokyo.

After leaving the University, on the roadside, a girl who sang with a guitar attracted his attention.

There are many people playing piano and performing arts on the streets of Japan, but this girl plays and sings a Chinese song.

This song is Pu Shu's “Ordinary Road”.

The phrase “I have crossed the mountains and the sea, and also through the sea of people, everything I once possessed, all of a sudden disappeared like smoke”, it suddenly hit Charlie's heart, making him stop.

This girl looks like she is about twenty years old. She is a little thin and not long enough, but she is pretty.

The little girl can sing very well, but many Japanese people passing by, probably because they don't understand, they pass by her indifferently, without even looking at her.

And the guitar box in front of her contained only a small amount of yen. If converted into RMB, it might not add up to fifty.

Charlie inferred from the little girl's pronunciation that the girl should be Chinese, so after the girl finished singing the song, he asked: "Is it Chinese?"

The little girl nodded, smiled sweetly, and said: "I am from Sichuan Province, are you also Chinese?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I am from Aurous Hill."

After speaking, Charlie asked her: "Are you working or living in Japan?"

"Going to school." The little girl pointed to the University of Tokyo not far away, and smiled: "I study here, occasionally come out to sing and make some money to subsidize living expenses."

Charlie nodded, took out the wallet from his pocket, took out about one hundred thousand yen, and put it in the guitar case in front of her.

The girl was taken aback, and hurriedly waved her hand: "Sir, you don't need to give so much money..."

Charlie smiled slightly: "It is a pleasure to meet a compatriot in another country."

With that said, afraid that the girl would return the money to him, he turned around and left.

At this moment, several young Japanese men came to the girl, one of them snatched her guitar, and yelled, "Who asked you to sing here? Tell us Bunkyo Has the runaway group said hello? Also, what song are you singing now? Are you looking for death?!"

Chapter 1695

Japan is a country where gangs are legal, and there are various gang organizations in the society of this country.

The famous movie star Jackie Chan once starred in a movie called "Shinjuku Incident". The story background in the movie is the Japanese gangster.

In Japan, the Yamaguchi Formation and Inagawa will naturally be the big bosses at the top of the food chain.

In fact, there are small-scale gang organizations in various cities and districts.

The favorite thing these tyrants do is to ride a roaring motorcycle with a variety of cold weapons, and fight fiercely against others in the streets and alleys.

Of course, more often it is actually bullying the soft and fearing the tough, and bullying the market.

The girl who played and sang, seeing a few rioters getting trouble with her, hurriedly begged: "Sorry, don't know this is your site, I won't come next time, please forgive me this time."

"Aren't coming?" The gangster who snatched the girl's guitar sternly reprimanded: "If every unruly person can get away with just one sentence if he won't come next time, where do we put the face of Wenjing gangster!"

The girl asked nervously, "Then... Then how can you let me go?"

The mobster glanced at the cash in the guitar case in front of her. It was obvious that there were at least one hundred thousand yen here. For these idle mobsters, this was a lot of wealth, enough for them to spend a day or two.

Therefore, he sneered: "It's easy to let us let you go, leave the guitar and the money!"

The girl bit her lip, hesitated for a moment, then said with tears: "Okay...I will give you the guitar and the money..."

Another violent clan immediately reached out and grabbed all the money, greedily put it in his pocket, then winked at the other people, and said: "Brothers, there is something tonight! Go to the bar to have a good night!"

The girl choked up and asked, "Then can I go?"

The mobster with the guitar looked at the girl up and down, and said with a wry face, "Don't go! I think you look good, so let's take your guitar and sing a song to the brothers, and then Go to the bar with your brothers for a night!"

"No!" The girl took a few steps back subconsciously, turned around and wanted to escape.

Unexpectedly, the man suddenly rushed over, grabbed the girl by the wrist, and sneered: "Want to run? Don't ask me who Onizuka Ryuji is!"

Passers-by cast their curious and lively gazes, but Onizuka Ryuji immediately shouted: "What are you looking at? The Bunkyo runaway group does things, and who is not afraid of death, just stand still!"

As soon as these words came out, the passers-by who were onlookers suddenly became scattered.

This society seems to be highly polite, but in fact everyone is indifferent.

This kind of indifference is polite on the surface, but shunned by the heart.

No one wants to cause trouble to others, let alone trouble themselves.

Onizuka Ryuji turned around and followed the reputation. Seeing that it was the man who had just given the girl one hundred thousand yen, he sneered: "B*stard! Do you still want to be a hero to save the beauty?! Do you know that I am from the Bunkyo gang!"

Charlie said indifferently: "I don't bother to care which group you belong to. If you don't let her go, you will do it at your own risk!"

Chapter 1696

Onitsuka Ryuji laughed presumptuously, and gritted his teeth: "You don't even look at Bunkyo's runaway group, boy, you are dead today!"

The girl was shocked and hurriedly shouted: "Sir, go away! They are all members of the runaway group! The Bunkyo runaway group is the largest violent organization in the entire Bunkyo district, and you can't afford them!"

Charlie touched his nose, looked at Onizuka Ryuji and said with a smile: "I heard that there are 23 districts in Tokyo. Doesn't that mean that there are at least 23 groups in Tokyo like your Bunkyo Bandit One?"

Onizuka Ryuji asked angrily: "So what? Our Bunkyo runaway group ranks in the top five in Tokyo! Can you afford it?"

Charlie snorted: "You can't provoke it or not, I will know after you provoke it!"

"b*stard!" another mobster shouted angrily: "Boy, you are too arrogant!"

Onizuka Ryuji winked at those people and shouted sharply, "Kill him to death!"

When the other people heard this, they immediately pulled out the forearm iron rods from their waists, swarmed up, and rushed towards Charlie.

These people, without exception, are all ordinary gangsters, and their strength is almost equal to zero in Charlie's eyes.

Therefore, he was not afraid of so many people rushing to him at once.

At this time, the girl who was caught tightly by Onizuka Ryuji shouted: "Sir, be careful! Run!"

"Run?" Charlie smiled, "Dignified boy, how can you run?"

After that, his eyes suddenly became cold.

Immediately afterwards, the four people who rushed towards him suddenly felt a flower in front of them, only that Charlie's right leg seemed to move very fast, kicking four feet in an instant.

Before they could see Charlie's figure clearly, their abdomen was hit by a huge force. All four of them were kicked in the abdomen by him. The whole person immediately flew out uncontrollably, all in a parabolic posture. Fell into the green belt on the side of the road.

Although Charlie deliberately reduced most of his strength so as not to be directly fatal, the four of them were still severely injured. They fell into the green belt one by one, and couldn't get up at all, as if they were kicked. Half-life.

Onitsuka Ryuji and the girl who was caught by him looked dumbfounded.

Especially Onizuka Ryuji.

He never dreamed that Charlie had such a strong strength, and the four men were kicked when they went up. Isn't this kicking on the iron board?

Thinking of this, he hurriedly took out a small dagger from his pocket, pointed it at the girl's neck, and threatened nervously: "You, you...Don't come here! Or I will kill her!"

Charlie said coldly: "If you let her go now, I will neither beat you nor scold you."

Onitsuka Ryuji heard this, and his eyes revealed a kind of joy after the disaster.

He was about to ask Charlie if his words counted.

Then Charlie continued: "I only need one of your right arms as punishment, so you can use at least one arm in the future."

"What?!" Onizuka Ryuji almost collapsed.

Don't hit me or scold me, "just" want me to have a right arm!

Are you a f*cking devil?

At this time, Charlie continued to say without expression: "I'll give you the opportunity, but if you still resist, then I will abolish your two arms and let you even use the toilet and wipe your a in the future. No! I'll count three seconds, consider it yourself!"

Chapter 1697

Onitsuka Ryuji felt a deep chill, and hit the sky from the soles of his feet!

He had never seen someone like Charlie, such a cruel person, not only was a bit perverted with strong strength, but even spoke with a cruel strength that was countless higher than that of the Bozou clan.

The rioters threaten others, it will always be you who are looking for death, and I will kill you and other unnutritious words.

It is possible that the throat is screaming dumb, but in the end there is no fight at all.

But isn't it like this in the arena? Three points rely on momentum, three points rely on face, and the remaining four points rely on the means of fighting for power.

But this guy, when he opened his mouth, he said lightly that he wanted his right arm? Is his arm like a motorcycle tire? Say you can remove one without blinking? !

Seeing that this kid was stubborn, Charlie lost his patience and said coldly: "I originally wanted to leave you an arm, but you just didn't want to be on the road. If that's the case, don't blame me for being impolite."

Onitsuka Ryuji was guilty, but yelled hoarsely: "b*stard! You Chinese had better keep a low profile! This is Japan! It's Tokyo! Are you afraid that my brothers will hack you to death?!"

Onizuka Ryuji said loudly, "We have five hundred people in the Bunkyo Runaway Group! One person can beat you into flesh with one punch! No matter how you dare to take care of your nostalgia, just wait for our Bunkyo Runaway Team to kill you!"

Charlie snorted coldly: "Noisy! Don't talk about the runaway group, even if your Heavenly King Yamaguchi team comes, I won't take it seriously."

Onitsuka Ryuji's legs were frightened by Charlie's words!

What's the source of this guy? ! He dares to talk about the Yamaguchi group with contempt? ! Is he really not afraid of death? !

He almost collapsed. He just wanted the evil star to leave quickly, so the tip of the knife pressed against the Chinese girl's neck and shouted nervously: "If you don't go away again, I will kill this woman!"

Charlie said with a gloomy expression: "If you dare to hurt her today, I want everyone in the Wenjing gang to be buried together!"

Onizuka Ryuji is really going to collapse.

Why doesn't this person eat soft and hard? Moreover, looking at his posture when he speaks, it seems that if he really hurts this girl, he will really kill all the members of the Bunkyo gangsters...

What kind of perversion is this? !

At this time, Charlie had exhausted his patience. He grasped the zipper of the jacket with his fingers, twisted his fingertips lightly, and he directly took off the metal slider of the zipper.

Immediately afterwards, Charlie shook his hand. Before Onizuka Ryuji recovered, he felt a sharp pain in his right hand. The pain immediately dissipated the power of his palm, and the dagger involuntary fell to the ground!

He was shocked in his heart and looked at his right hand, only to find that a piece of metal zipper pull was inserted into the back of his right hand!

At this time, the girl seized the opportunity in time, her arms suddenly broke free of his restraints, and ran to Charlie quickly.

At this time, Onizuka Longer didn't dare to come forward and chase him. He looked at Charlie in amazement. After hesitating for a second, he immediately held his right hand, turned his head and ran!

Because the girl was singing on the side of the road, facing the sidewalk, now Onizuka Ryuji ran in the opposite direction and rushed directly onto the road.

Chapter 1698

Seeing that he was about to escape, Charlie immediately took a step and chased him. The girl said nervously, "Sir, stop chasing, it's dangerous!"

Charlie said coldly: "I have said that should have two arms, and can't break his words, so as not to let international friends not laugh at me!"

Onitsuka Ryuji heard Charlie's remarks, his fear in his heart increased sharply, and he ran a little faster under his feet, almost trying his best to escape.

Just as he rushed to the middle of the road, a car suddenly couldn't get away, hit his lap and knocked him out at an angle.

After Onizuka Ryuji was hit, his whole person lost his balance completely, and he slumped to the side lane.

At this time, on the side lane, a convoy composed of Rolls-Royce was passing quickly.

Onitsuka Ryuji suddenly became uncontrollable and rushed in front of one of the Rolls-Royces. The Rolls-Royce was too late to dodge, and then rolled over his arms!

Rolls-Royce braked, and then the entire Rolls-Royce team stopped.

In the Rolls-Royce car that broke Onitsuka Ryuji's arm, a young man with an angry expression came down. He was about twenty-six or twenty-seven years old. When he got out of the car, he angrily kicked between Onitsuka Ryuji's ribs. He screamed: "b@stard thing! Did you know there is a distinguished guest in my car?! It doesn't matter if you are dead, it shocked the distinguished guest in my car, and I threw you down!"

Onitsuka Ryuji's arms were crushed, and he wanted to die in pain, but being kicked over with this foot made him cough violently.

However, he raised his head weakly and saw the man kicking him. He was so frightened that he cried and said, "Taka...Mr. Takahashi, I didn't deliberately hit you. I was caught by the man behind. Chasing and rushing to escape, only then fell under your wheels, please forgive me..."

The young man who walked down from the Rolls-Royce is the eldest master of the Takahashi family, Eiki!

He had just picked up Zhifei and Zhiyu from Narita Airport and was about to escort them to the Aman Hotel where they were staying, but he didn't expect something like this to happen on the road!

Moreover, Zhifei and Zhiyu were in the same car with him. He was sitting in the co-pilot and proudly introduced to the two siblings that there would never be a pedestrian running a red light in Tokyo when the Onitsuka Ryuji suddenly ran into a red light!

This incident simply slapped Eiki in the face with lightning speed, and also shocked him, Zhifei and Zhiyu.

Fortunately, there is nothing wrong with the two of them. Otherwise, if it affects the cooperation and negotiation of the next two, wouldn't it be a mistake?

Therefore, he slammed on Onizuka's body in anger and looked at Charlie who was chasing him.

He pointed at Onizuka Ryuji at his feet, and asked Charlie coldly, "Did you chase this person to the middle of the road?"

Charlie frowned: "It's me, do you have an opinion?"

Eiki angrily roared: "Enough to live, right? Do you know who I am?"

Charlie squinted his eyes and snorted coldly: "Don't know who you are, and I don't bother to know who you are. I only know that the two arms of the person under your feet are reserved in advance by me. Now you broke his two arms, so you must give me a satisfactory explanation!"

Eiki was stunned, and asked dumbfounded: "What did you just say?!"

Charlie looked at him and asked contemptuously: "What? Didn't you hear what I just said? Seeing that you dress up like a dog, do you still suffer from intermittent deafness?"

Chapter 1699

At this moment, Eiki almost exploded in anger.

He is the eldest son of the Takahashi family and the rising star of the family. Not only does he have an extraordinary position in Tokyo, he can be regarded as widely known even in Japan.

To some extent, his status in Japan is very similar to that of the national man who was very popular in the past few years.

Because of this, Eiki's character has always been rebellious. In his dictionary, there are no words for tolerance and bullying.

Seeing that this young man who was about his age ignored his Carden and identity, he choked with himself, and even questioned whether he had intermittent deafness. In his opinion, it was a crime worthy of death!

So, he immediately waved at the front and rear vehicles, and a dozen strong men in black suits immediately descended from a few Rolls-Royces.

These people, without exception, are all bodyguards of the Takahashi family, and they are top masters.

The bodyguards got out of the car and surrounded Charlie. Everyone looked at Charlie and at the same time looked at Eiki. As long as Eiki said a word, they would attack Charlie.

At this time, Zhifei and Zhiyu in the car exchanged glances, and Zhifei said: "There is no fraud in this matter, right?"

Zhiyu shook her head: "It shouldn't be. If someone really wants to do something, they will never do it on the streets of downtown Tokyo, Japan. Isn't the viaduct from the airport to the city more suitable than here?"

Zhifei relaxed, smiled, and said, "He must have a hard time hanging on his face. Just after he said that no one ran the red light, he bumped into one."

After that, Zhifei raised his eyebrows at Zhiyu again: "I feel that Eiki seems to be a little bit interesting to you. This kid is also very handsome. There are five people. Would you like to consider it?"

Zhiyu said firmly: "I would never consider Japanese men."

"Why?" Zhifei said: "Japanese men are at least similar to Chinese men, with less body hair and no body odor. If you change to men from Europe, America, Latin America, and Africa, that would be indescribable."

Zhiyu curled her lips: "Don't say I haven't thought about falling in love now. Even if I fall in love, I must find a pure Chinese."

Zhifei asked again: "Why?"

Zhiyu said indifferently: "When two people get along, they have the same culture, the same tradition, the same habits, and the same cognition. It will save a lot of worry. If I tell my boyfriend, I want to go to Dunhuang to have a look. At Mogao Grottoes, he replied to me, "Where is Dunhuang? What is Mogao Grottoes?" I can slap him to death!"

Zhifei laughed: "My dear sister, don't have such a strong character. Is it okay to beat your boyfriend at every turn in the future?"

Zhiyu said: "I'm just making an analogy with you to let you know that Chinese men and Chinese women are the best combination, so you should never blindly pursue any foreign love in the future."

Zhifei sighed and didn't want to continue talking about this topic. Instead, he looked out the window and saw that Charlie was surrounded by so many bodyguards, and his expression was not scared at all. He couldn't help but smile: "This Japanese guy he is kind of kind, surrounded by so many bodyguards, I'm not afraid at all."

Zhiyu nodded and hummed: "Maybe your brain is not so good?"

Zhifei smiled and said, "Don't say it, this Japanese guy is pretty handsome."

Zhiyu smacked his lips: "Pray that he won't be beaten and disfigured by Eiki Takahashi later."

Zhifei helplessly: "Why is your mouth so poisonous?"

Chapter 1700

Zhiyu asked back: "Do you know me from the first day?"

.....

At this moment, Eiki was looking at Charlie coldly.

He wanted to give an order to let people beat Charlie to death.

However, after all, this place is near the University of Tokyo and a downtown area. So many people watched it. If it is done publicly, all kinds of public relations will be inevitable in the follow-up.

In addition, there are two distinguished guests in the car, especially Zhiyu, who is quite appetizing of him, and he has to maintain sufficient demeanor in front of her. If he shows the overbearing and violent side, it will definitely affect her impression of himself.

So, he looked at Charlie, snorted, and said high up: "Boy, today is your lucky day, I don't want to be familiar with you, you kneel and knock me three heads, this matter is over!"

Charlie seemed to hear a joke: "You seem to be a little confused about the situation. The crux of the problem now is that you still owe me two arms!"

"You..." Eiki was really convinced, and he thought to himself: "It's kind to give this kid a way to survive, but he ran into the road to death. If I take advantage of the situation to beat him, no one will blame me?"

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said: "Good boy! I give you face, not to make you cheek! Since you don't want your face, then don't blame me for being impolite!"

After speaking, he immediately shouted at the bodyguards: "Hit him for me!"

As soon as the voice fell, a thin girl suddenly rushed into the crowd, it was the girl who was playing and singing on the street.

The girl rushed in and stood in front of Charlie, blurting out: "I'm sorry, this gentleman clashed with the mobster to protect me, and I hope you don't embarrass him!"

As she said, she bowed to everyone.

At this time, Charlie directly stopped the girl and said lightly: "These people are not worth your bow to them, go and wait."

"He is Eiki Takah..." The girl shed tears anxiously: "He is one of the most powerful second-generation rich in Tokyo. If you mess with him, you will have a lot of trouble!"

Charlie said lightly: "I don't care if he is a high bridge, a low bridge, or a dangerous bridge. He owes me two arms today, and he must return it."

Having said that, Charlie gently pushed her, and said: "Hurry and hide, otherwise if I am distracted and injured because of protecting you, you must be upset, right?"

The girl was pushed out by Charlie and subconsciously wanted to break in again, but when she thought of Charlie's words, she suddenly hesitated again.

She saw Charlie's skill just now, knowing that Charlie is not an ordinary person, maybe he has the ability to compete with these people, but if he is injured because of being distracted by her, then she is really to be blamed!

Thinking of this, she had to stand aside nervously, the phone in her hand had already entered the emergency number, and planned to call the police as soon as the situation was wrong.

At this time, Zhiyu in the car looked at Charlie and couldn't help raising her eyebrows, and said to Zhifei, "Hey, the Japanese guy in your mouth is actually a Chinese!"

Zhifei sighed: "Since I am a Chinese, I should know the reason why a strong dragon does not suppress a snake. Why is he still against Eiki? This kid has a bit of a tiger character..."

Chapter 1701

Seeing that Charlie was surrounded by so many bodyguards, Zhiyu had determined in her heart that he was in a disaster today.

However, she had no sympathy for Charlie.

Because she didn't see the whole cause of the incident, she only saw Charlie desperately chasing a man on the road, causing the man to be hit by a car, and then his arms were broken by the car.

Just so, it was already a bit bloody and cruel, and she didn't expect Charlie to accept it before seeing it, and even choked with the young master of the host family. It was simply a brain problem.

At this time, Eiki saw that the time had been delayed for a long time, and his endurance had been completely exhausted. He immediately ordered his opponents: "Fight me! Only one breath left. Together with this person under my feet, you will be thrown into the Rubbish Heap!"

With an order from Eiki, they quickly rushed to Charlie, and everyone tried their best for fear of falling behind.

After all, Charlie is only one person. In their eyes, this is the standard of more monks and porridge. Everyone is a top master. If anyone is a little slower, this kid may notice them.

In that case, those who lag behind will have no chance to show their strength in front of the young master!

Seeing so many people surrounding Charlie, Takahashi suddenly shrank the encircling circle, and a sneer of mockery was wiped from the corner of his mouth.

"A little man, dare to confront Eiki on the streets of downtown Japan. Isn't this a death-seeking thing?"

"It's a pity that, as the eldest master of the Takahashi family, it is not convenient for me to personally shoot in front of so many people. Otherwise, I really want to destroy you by myself!"

Eiki was expecting to see Charlie's dying appearance immediately, but he didn't expect that a few screams of horror and pain suddenly came from the encircling men made up of more than ten masters!

Immediately afterwards, several people on the periphery of the encirclement circle flew out one after another!

"what!"

"pain!"

"This kid, is he a human?!"

Accompanied by these few hoarse roars, several people flew out, and then fell heavily to the ground.

One of them flew to the feet of Eiki in a daze!

The subordinate was grabbed by Charlie's in the neck and threw him out directly, so he lay heavily on Eiki's feet, and with a bang, Eiki was startled!

Immediately afterwards, the man raised his head with great difficulty, his forehead was already full of blood!

The man looked at Eiki with extremely painful eyes, and said, "Young...Young master..."

Immediately after that, there was a pop, and a large cloud of blood mist was ejected from the mouth!

This large mass of blood mist was sprayed on Eiki's vamp and trouser legs, and the white trousers were completely stained red with blood!

Eiki hurried back half a meter in fright, and saw that his subordinate said in great pain, "Mr....that b@stard... so awesome... ."

After finishing talking, he lay down on the ground again with a loud boom, completely losing consciousness!

Eiki felt that his brain was instantly energized with high voltage!

what happened?!

Why did he get down on the ground like a waste in front of that kid? !

Before he could understand the situation, several other people were also defeated by Charlie one after another!

These so-called masters fell to the ground one after another, just like a bowling pin that was hit by a bowling ball.

Chapter 1702

Zhifei and Zhiyu in the car were also shocked!

Zhifei swallowed his saliva and exclaimed: "This kid... is too strong?!"

Zhiyu was also dumbfounded, and blurted out: "He is indeed a top expert, it seems that I underestimated him just now..."

At this moment, Charlie had already put down all the bodyguards and walked towards Eiki.

While Eiki was trembling with fright and his legs were weak. He wanted to escape, only to find that his legs didn't listen at all.

And he knew very well in his heart that this guy was so powerful that he couldn't escape it...

So, he could only say in horror: "What do you want?! I tell you, I am the youngest of the Takahashi family!"

Charlie went up and slapped Eiki's face severely, and said coldly: "I care what bridge master you are, now let's talk about what you owe me two arms!"

Eiki was dizzy by Charlie's slap!

He grew up, he has always been spoiled, pampered, and held in the palm of the hand by countless people like stars holding the moon. When has he been beaten?

Moreover, he was slapped in the street!

This is really shameful!

Eiki Takahashi clutched his swollen face, gritted his teeth and roared: "b*stard! Do you dare to hit me?! Beware that I want your life!"

Charlie stretched out his hand and patted his face, and said faintly: "It's just a skin test for you. I said, you owe me two arms!"

After all, Charlie didn't bother to talk nonsense with him, grabbing his right wrist directly, and shaking his hand was just a twist.

Immediately after hearing a "click", Eiki's right arm had broken from the elbow, and his pain was so great that he cried, his nose and tears flowed: "It hurts... my arm hurts so much. Up..."

Charlie remained unmoved, and said: "This is just one piece, you still owe me one, come on, stretch out your left hand!"

Eiki was trembling in pain, and his face was extremely pale. He really realized that Charlie hadn't joked with him this time.

Panicked, he knelt on the ground with his knees soft, crying and begging: "Brother, I'm sorry, it's me! I shouldn't be entangled with you, please forgive me, don't take my left arm it will be a waste...I beg you..."

Charlie said with a grim expression: "Everyone is an adult, and you have to be brave enough to bear it, instead of kneeling down and begging for mercy!"

After speaking, Charlie asked again: "Do you think that if you ask me, I will spare you?"

Eiki was almost shocked.

What is this guy going to do?

Does he really want to scrap both arms?

In that case, wouldn't he be a useless person? What if he turns around and kills him?

Thinking of this, he wailed loudly, and pleaded with trepidation: "Sir, I am willing to pay you a sum of money, how about 100 million yen? As long as you nod your head, I will give you money!"

Charlie said coldly: "Don't talk about these useless things, even if you give me 100 billion, you can't keep this arm."

At this time, Zhiyu in the car couldn't stand it anymore, and said, "Brother, we can't just sit back and watch this matter, otherwise it won't be justified."

"Man?" Zhifei blurted out: "Are you crazy? Didn't you see the strong power of this kid? What if he even beats you?"

Zhiyu said earnestly: "I'm going to reason with him, or know it with affection and move it with reason, otherwise we will sit in the car and watch Eiki Takahashi being deposed, which is not in line with the justice of the world."

"Oh, no! Safety first!"

Zhifei was persuading, Zhiyu had already opened the car door and went straight out!

Chapter 1703

Seeing that Charlie didn't move at all, Eiki felt that he was going to be cold today.

Because at this time, he is no longer available.

Even if he is now calling a master from the family to help, it is too late.

When Eiki Takahashi was desperate, the door of the car next to him suddenly opened.

Zhiyu stepped out of the car and said to Charlie: "You gentleman, you are Chinese. You have to be forgiving. You don't understand the things?"

Moreover, she is still a woman.

He frowned and looked at Zhiyu, and asked in a cold voice, "You should be Chinese too when I hear you? Why Want to intercede for this little kid?"

Zhiyu said blankly, "I'm not pleading, I just advise you not to be a man in the wild, you should stay in the line of everything."

Charlie smiled and asked her: "Just now, he asked those dozen or so people to gang up on me, why didn't you stop him and persuade him to stay a line in everything?"

Zhiyu was stunned by Charlie's question.

Just now, a thought flashed in her mind, if Charlie couldn't hold it and his life was in danger, she would definitely have to come down and stop Eiki.

However, she knew very well in her heart that he would definitely not believe what she said now.

So she opened the mouth and said: "A dozen people beat you up, haven't you been injured? Since you are not injured, why don't you leave some room for the other party?"

Charlie sneered and asked, "He doesn't give me the room, why should I give it to him?"

Zhiyu blurted out: "You gentleman, let's just talk about things. What happened just now was that you made a mistake first. This is the main road, not your back garden. You chasing and fighting people on this road are inherently wrong. First, and after that person was chased by you, he was finally crushed by this car."

Charlie smiled and said, "Then I ask you, do you know why I chased that kid just now?"

Zhiyu said coldly: "don't know, I don't want to know, don't say anything else, you chase each other on the street, this itself is very rude."

Having said that, Zhiyu said again: "You were wrong in this matter, but you did it to Mr. Takahashi for no reason, and you still attacked him for no reason. This is justified, right?"

Charlie snorted: "Girl, I don't think you are like a treacherous person, why do you want to defend two idiots? And there are still two s*umbags?"

"scm?" Zhiyu asked back: "Then I ask you, why are the two scm in your mouth, one was chased by you and caused a car accident, the other was crippled by you?"

Charlie said disdainfully: "The term fake pious, used on a superficial person like you, could not be more appropriate!"

Zhiyu was a little angry, but asked, "Hey, what did you say?! I'm superficial?"

Charlie nodded: "Yes, and very superficial!"

After a pause, Charlie said again: "The more superficial people, the more they believe what they see. Let's not talk about what evil this kid who was crushed by the car did, just say that this guy with the surname Takahashi, gets off the car. Just pretend to be non-stop with me and let so many people work on me together. Do you think this person is innocent? If I were a little less skilled, I would have been beaten to death by those bodyguards a while ago!"

Zhiyu's angry chest continued to rise and fall, and said angrily: "I just want you to be forgiving. You have broken one of his arms. Isn't that enough?"

"Not enough!" Charlie said blankly: "I just said, I will have two!"

"you....."

Zhiyu was really angry.

She didn't expect this kid to be so defiant!

Chapter 1704

In fact, she also knew that Eiki had the current fate, and he was to blame.

But she still hoped that Charlie could stop here by moving with affection and reasoning, and don't really scrap both of Eiki's arms.

Although Zhiyu is not very old, she received elite education from a young age and stayed in the United States for many years, so she can be regarded as a standard business genius.

Therefore, she has an account in her heart for what she does.

For example, this time, as the representative of the Su family, she came to discuss cooperation with the Takahashi family. Before the cooperation was discussed, Eiki was beaten as a useless person. If she sits idly by, it would be inappropriate to not say anything about it. Not only does it seem that she is not very righteous, but it also affects the specific details and progress of the subsequent two talks about cooperation.

Therefore, she has come to stop him with emotions, reasoning, and interests.

Even if she didn't use it to block f@rts, Eiki was still abandoned by Charlie, at least she had tried hard, and she could have an explanation for her heart and the face of the Takahashi family.

Of course, the best situation is that after she comes forward, the young man in front of her can give her some respect, and when she sees it, she will take care of Eiki.

In this way, not only can she live well in his heart and face, the Takahashi family will also owe her a favor. When she discussed the specific details of the cooperation later, she can even use this to ask the Takahashi family to sell more and get multiple benefits.

However, what she did not expect was that the hostility in this kid's temper was so heavy!

Seeing his posture, he must abolish Eiki!

So, she suppressed the anger in her heart and said: "You gentleman, I am from Eastcliff..."

Before she finished speaking, Charlie interrupted her directly and said with a little dissatisfaction: "You lady, you don't need to tell me who you are, and I don't want to know, let alone try to suppress me with your identity. Because even if you are a heavenly king, I won't give you half face in this matter today, have you heard me clearly?"

Zhiyu's mood was a bit untenable!

Since childhood, no one has dared to speak to her in this tone.

She has long been accustomed to the feeling of being respected and complimented wherever she goes, but she did not expect that the guy in front of her would really not give any face!

Even, he didn't even let her finish speaking!

The urge in Zhiyu's heart was immediately ignited by Charlie. She snorted and said angrily: "I'll take care of this matter today! If you dare to move him, I will definitely make you regret it!"

Charlie smiled playfully: "Make me regret?"

Zhiyu said confidently: "Yes!"

As soon as Zhiyu finished speaking, she heard a click from the side, and then, Eiki's miserable cry came out!

She immediately looked at Eiki, and saw that his left arm had obviously been twisted by Charlie, now with both arms shrugged in front of her, crying loudly in pain!

Zhiyu looked at Charlie angrily, and shouted: "What the h*ll is going on with you? You must have trouble with me?"

Charlie shook his head: "Don't be affectionate. don't know you at all. Why should I have trouble with you? You are air in my eyes."

After all, Charlie didn't bother to look at the two of them again, took back all the money he had robbed from the singing girl from the pocket of Onizuka Longer who was lying on the ground, and then turned around and came to the singing girl.

"Take the money away and don't come out to play or sing in the future."

The girl whimpered with grateful tears and choked: "I'm sorry, I'm causing you trouble..."

Charlie shook his head and said, "If you are in a foreign country, you must take care of yourself. I'm leaving now."

Zhiyu was so angry that she clenched her fists, staring at his back and shouted: "b*stard, stop for me!"

Chapter 1705

Zhiyu grew up so big and had never been so despised, so she was naturally very angry.

There are almost no girls in the Eastcliff wealthy family who are not self-righteous, but they are just about the importance.

Zhiyu is regarded as the top existence in Eastcliff, and even among the wealthy daughters in the country. Therefore, both self-esteem and self-righteousness are slightly higher than ordinary people.

Therefore, being despised by Charlie without looking back, made her whole popularity stomped straight.

However, she was also very clear in her heart that she was not Charlie's opponent at all, and she was not familiar with his life in Tokyo. There was no other way except to get angry.

Just as Zhiyu was very angry, Eiki shrugged his two broken arms and came to Zhiyu and the girl who sang. His expression was extremely gloomy, staring at the girl who sang, and asked viciously: "Say! Who is that guy?! What is his name, where does he live, and what is his background?!"

The girl said with some horror: "I don't know that gentleman..."

"bulls*it!" Takahashi yelled angrily: "Do you think I'm a three-year-old kid? You don't know if you don't know me? If you don't tell me honestly, I will kill you!"

Zhiyu glared at him and said coldly, "Mr. Eiki, it's not appropriate to yell at a little girl, right?"

Eiki came back to his senses a little bit, suppressing the anger in his heart, gritted his teeth and said: "Miss Su, you saw it just now, that b@stard took my arms!"

Zhiyu said blankly: "Yes, I saw it. It was the man who abolished your arm just now. What does it have to do with this little girl? You don't know what is wronged and indebted? Let's talk about it. , The injury on your arm can be recovered after three or five months of care after a plaster cast. Is it such a lack of grace?"

"No manner?!" Eiki couldn't hide his anger: "This girl is obviously related to that man, as long as she honestly tells me the man's information, I will naturally not embarrass her!"

Zhiyu glared at him and said angrily: "This girl has said enough. If you don't know that man, don't you understand?"

Eiki said angrily, "Who knows if she is lying!"

Zhiyu said coldly: "Whether she is lying or not has nothing to do with you. If you want to ask for more details, you can ask others for advice. If others tell you, it's your duty. Don't tell you. It threatens the personal safety of others at every turn. Don't you remember what happened just now?"

Eiki Takahashi's expression was hard to look at all of a sudden. He knew that Zhiyu was reminding him not to be too arrogant. The reason why he offended the man just now was entirely because he was too arrogant. Not only did he curse, he also asked the bodyguard to deal with him and it ended up like this.

Zhiyu's words made him feel very shameless on his face.

However, on the one hand, because the Su family behind Zhiyu is much stronger than the Takahashi family, on the other hand, because he has a good impression of Zhiyu, he can only suppress the anger in his heart at this time.

Zhiyu asked the singing girl: "Girl, you just said you don't know that man, then why did he help you out? I think he took some money from the person who was hit by the car just now. about you?"

The girl said seriously: "I can tell you clearly, that gentleman is a good person!"

"I was playing guitar and singing on the side of the road, and no one cared about it. The gentleman gave me 100,000 yen, and then the mob went around with a few violent elements, grabbed my money and guitar, and asked me to accompany them. They wanted to take me to drink, the gentleman saved me!"

Zhiyu frowned, "Is the man who was hit by the car a runaway?"

Chapter 1706

"Yes!" The girl nodded and continued: "They are all members of the runaway group. The gentleman saw the uneven road and injured several other violent elements. Then the runaway clan who was hit by the car took a knife to my neck. Because of me, the gentleman knocked down his knife and I was spared."

"Then the violent race was about to run away, and the gentleman chased him out, causing him to be hit by a car. You know the rest."

After hearing this, Zhiyu was stunned.

She did not expect that the plot would be reversed so quickly!

The rebellious and Abneral young man just now was actually trying to save an innocent girl from the hands of the members of the runaway group.

Moreover, that little girl is a Chinese compatriot!

She could even imagine that if it weren't for the man to rescue her today, this Chinese girl in a foreign country would definitely be harmed by the mobsters, and might even be abused by them!

No wonder, that man shot so hard!

If it were herself, she would want to abolish these people!

Eiki was still yelling at the other party in anger, and even let a dozen bodyguards go up and besiege the other party. From this point of view, it is not too much to have two arms scrapped!

At this moment, Zhiyu's anger at Charlie disappeared instantly.

So, she looked at the girl and asked, "Do you know where the other party is from? Which runaway group is from?"

"Bunkyo Runaway Group?" Zhiyu looked at Eiki, and asked coldly, "Bunkyo Runaway Group should be an external force of your Takahashi family, right? They grabbed money from a little girl in the street and forced her to accompany them. This is too much, right?"

Eiki's expression was shocked, and then he couldn't hide his embarrassment and said: "Miss Su, where did you hear the rumor? Our Takahashi family has nothing to do with the runaway group..."

Zhiyu snorted and said: "Mr. Takahashi, I have investigated it clearly before I came here. Your Takahashi family started from the gray world in the early years, but later you didn't go to the black, and then washed the white in time. The transformation is very successful!"

After that, Zhiyu said again: "I know that more than half of the runaway groups in Tokyo and the surrounding areas are under your family's control, but you are very smart and did not let the Takahashi family directly control these runaways. The regiment, instead of using some distant relatives with foreign surnames, right?"

Eiki said embarrassingly: "That...Miss Su...These runaway groups are indeed managed by our foreign relatives, but our Takahashi family has long since ignored this business."

Zhiyu snorted coldly: "Mr. Takahashi, everyone is an adult. Don't think of me as a fool! The reason why this happened today and the reason your arm was scrapped is entirely because of your family. Tolerate the fate caused by the rampant group's nonsense!"

Eiki Takahashi was speechless and wanted to refute, but he couldn't find a reason.

Zhiyu pointed to the girl and said to Eiki: "Mr. Takahashi, this lady has nothing to do with this matter. I hope you will not trouble her in the future. Can you make that sure?"

Eiki Takahashi knew that he was wrong, and did not dare to offend Zhiyu, so he nodded sadly: "Miss Su, please rest assured, I will never embarrass her in the future..."

Chapter 1707

At this time, Eiki was already angry inside.

He wanted to find a clue about the man from this girl, but he didn't expect that the girl didn't even know him!

Eiki knew in his heart that what the girl said was definitely not a lie, so he was afraid that it would not be so easy to find that man to settle accounts.

However, what is more important right now is to send someone from the family to the hotel, and to the hospital with Zhiyu and Zhifei.

Zhiyu ignored Eiki who had abandoned his arms. Instead, he helped the Chinese girl put the guitar away, then gave the other party a business card, and said seriously: "Girl, if anyone from now on, dare to do what happened today If you are in trouble, call me immediately. In addition, give my phone number to the person you trust most. If you are in trouble and can't call me in time, let the person you trust most call me."

Zhiyu's words are more for Eiki.

She knew that she would not stay in Japan for a long time at most. What if Eiki waited for her to retaliate with this girl after she left Japan?

Therefore, she must make Eiki hesitate.

With what she said just now, Eiki would never provoke this girl again, because the energy of the Su family was definitely not something they could contend.

What's more, the Takahashi family is bent on reaching a cooperation with the Su family, and he has said it all. If he dares to trouble this girl, it can only show that Eiki is mentally retarded.

Takahashi Eiki naturally knew what Zhiyu meant in his heart, and he was very uncomfortable because he couldn't come up with a depressed breath.

However, no matter how uncomfortable, you have to endure it.

As a result, he could only find a subordinate who could still make a call, and asked him to call home quickly.

Before Machi Takahashi got out of the car, he was shocked by the tragic sight in front of him and could not speak.

More than a dozen bodyguards were staggering everywhere, and traffic was even blocked because of them.

His own son's face was swollen and half of his face was drawn. What's worse, his two arms had completely lost control, and he was shrugging pitifully.

With a dark face, he apologized to Zhiyu and Zhifei first, and sent someone to send them and their entourage to the hotel.

Arranged for the Su family, he then ordered people to take his son and other people into the car and go to the hospital.

On the way, Machi Takahashi asked Eiki carefully about the whole process. After listening, he was even more speechless.

After a while, he slapped the central armrest of the car fiercely, and shouted angrily: "What a j3rk! A foreigner dares to hurt my son and a dozen bodyguards in Tokyo. This is a trampling on the dignity of my family!"

Eiki was also furious and choked and said, "Father, you must find that man and kill him to avenge me!"

Takahashi nodded and said coldly: "Don't worry, I will let the wind go and let people find out his whereabouts!"

Eiki couldn't wait to say: "Father, find him, I will kill him myself!"

"Personally?" Takahashi asked with a frown, "Can you still kill with your hand?"

"Uh..." When Eiki heard this, he cried and said, "Then I will let someone tie a knife to the sole of my shoe! Anyway, I must kill him myself!"

Chapter 1708

Machi Takahashi nodded and said, "But we can't be too fanciful about this matter. After all, we still have to discuss cooperation with the Su family. If we want to find him in Tokyo and kill him, the Su family will definitely have minor words in heart!"

Eiki suddenly panicked: "Dad! Are you going to let the b@stard off?!"

Takahashi said coldly: "Don't worry, I will never let him go. I will let people find him first, and then let the top ninja of the family watch him secretly. No matter where he goes, he will follow him all the way. After the dust settles on our cooperation with the Su family, we will catch that guy and quietly bring him back to Tokyo, let you execute him yourself!"

Hearing this, Takahashi Eiki really felt relieved.

He can endure for a while for the cooperation between the clan and the Su clan, but he must not let him go.

He was relieved to hear what his father said.

As long as you can kill Charlie personally, you can wait a few more days!

Moreover, he believed that to his top ninja, Charlie could never be an opponent!

.....

He didn't know that at this moment, he was completely popular on short video app in Japan.

Just now, someone who had something good taught him to the Mozou clan, and the video of him disposing of Eiki was filmed and then uploaded to the short video app.

This time, the whole of Japan was shocked!

No one thought that a Chinese person could have such a strong strength, one person defeated almost 20 people in a row, it was incredible!

What's more, what makes people even more unbelievable is that this person dared to do something on Eiki on the streets of Tokyo!

As Japan's top rich second-generation and, who doesn't know Eiki?

He was beaten up as a ghost on the streets of Tokyo. This is simply the most explosive news in Japan in recent times!

In this video, Charlie and Eiki, because it was late and the mobile phone video was not very clear, they could only take 50% of their looks clearly, and the quality was comparable to those videos released by paparazzi night celebrities. The photos are similar.

As for Charlie, because the Japanese people didn't have any idea about him, so when the video was released, the Japanese couldn't recognize him.

However, if you are a little familiar with Charlie, you can still recognize Charlie's identity from this video.

Ito Takehiko was sitting in his study at this time, bored with a Cuban cigar and a glass of Scotch in his hand.

He was still annoyed at the first meeting of the Su family with the Takahashi family, and even more worried about Charlie, his mood was naturally bad.

At this time, Tanaka Hiroshi rushed in without knocking on the door suddenly, and said anxiously: "President, something has happened!"

Ito Takehiko scolded annoyedly: "What big thing can make you mess like this?! What kind of style is this?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka didn't have time to explain, he hurriedly handed the phone to him, clicked play, and said, "Let's take a look, it's the big news of the Takahashi from the family!"

Chapter 1709

"Big news from the Takahashi family?!"

As soon as Ito heard this, he immediately glared: "d*mn! What big news? Did the Su family announce their cooperation with them so soon? Shouldn't it, the Su family should have just landed in Tokyo, how could it be? Are they making a decision so quickly? Don't these beasts plan to meet us?"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "It's not this news, it's Eiki Takahashi who was scrapped on the street!"

"Eiki was abolished?!" Ito Takehiko blurted out like a lightning strike, "Who did it?"

In his impression, there are only a handful of people in Tokyo who dare to act on Eiki.

If you want to do it yourself, you will be frustrated. After all, the gap between the Ito family and the Takahashi family is not too big. If you really do it on Takahashi, it is almost equivalent to declaring war on that family.

Therefore, except for his father, Ito Takehiko can't think of anyone else who would dare to attack him.

So, he quickly looked at Tanaka's cell phone, wanting to see who was so kind.

It didn't matter at this look, Ito was trembling with fright. He couldn't hold his fingers firmly, and the cigar fell out of his hand and fell on his pants. It immediately burned a hole in his expensive hand-sewn suit pants.

Ito Takehiko didn't care about feeling distressed, grabbed the cigar and threw it aside, pointed at the evil-looking man on the phone, and blurted out: "This...this...isn't this Charlie?!"

This may be the power of hatred.

After all, Charlie's face not only means humiliation to Ito Takehiko, but also represents a huge sum of US$4.5 billion!

He can recognize it really turned into ashes!

Seeing Charlie in the video, continuously flipping Eiki's more than a dozen bodyguards, and then abolished Eiki's arms, Ito Takehiko couldn't help but feel his back chills.

Only then did he realize how strong Charlie is!

Last time, he just abolished his two bodyguards.

This time, he simply scrapped a dozen of Eiki's bodyguards in one go!

While surprised, deep in his heart he couldn't help but fear.

Fortunately, he didn't make Charlie anxious that day.

Eiki is a young man. He has a some physical resistance. He is too old, and he is really guilty of him. he will go directly to see Amaterasu in one or two rounds!

After a while of fear, Ito Takehiko was also a little gloating.

He watched Eiki's screaming again and again, a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, and then reached out to drag the progress bar, and replayed Eiki's unlucky process again, and the smile on the corners of his mouth became even stronger.

Chapter 1710

Immediately afterwards, he played it again, and the smile at the corner of his mouth became more intense.

After watching it a dozen times in a row, Ito Takehiko smiled: "Okay, the Takahashi family also has it today! After this video has become popular throughout Japan, don't want the faces of their Takahashi family hide on the roads!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded and said: "Now this video has become a hit on all major online and video platforms in Japan, and the reputation of the Takahashi family will definitely suffer a severe setback!"

"Very good!" Takehiko Ito exhaled happily and said: "Oh, seeing this video makes me feel much better!"

After that, he remembered something, and said: "The Takahashi family and I have never dealt with each other, but this time we finally have a common enemy!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "President, are you trying to deal with Charlie together with the Takahashi family?"

"Of course not!" Ito said with lingering fear: "I am different from the Takahashi family. Eiki was beaten up in the street by Charlie. It is known throughout the country. In contrast, I am much better. I was at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical that day. Although I suffered a big loss, at any rate, I closed the door and suffered a loss without letting the people across the country know..."

Tanaka was stunned for a while.

Unexpectedly, the guild leader, who has always been a staunch personality, would be so self-comforting...

At this time, Takehiko Ito said enthusiastically: "This incident is bound to affect the impression and attitude of the Su family towards the Takahashi family. This is a great thing for us!"

"That's true." Hiroshi Tanaka nodded again and again, and said: "This time the Takahashi family has not only suffered damage to their reputation, but also their ability. After all, they can be beaten like this at their own door. The Su family must be honest. They are cooperating in ocean transportation and they will definitely worry that the Takahashi family will not be able to protect this business."

Ito Takehiko smiled and said, "Hahaha, this is really the one thing that makes me most happy in recent times!"

When Hiroshi Tanaka saw that Ito Takehiko was in a better mood, he was relieved and said with a smile: "President, I have received news that the Takahashi family is now inquiring about Charlie's identity. I guess they still want to find him out and take revenge."

Ito Takehiko asked, "What do you think about this? Do you think the Takahashi family can beat Charlie?"

When Tanaka thought of the tremendous shock and horror that Charlie had brought, he said: "I really can't say this. I always have a feeling for Charlie... It feels like what we see about him it is just the tip of the iceberg!"

Ito Takehiko frowned: "What? Do you think that even if the Takahashi family gives it all, it is impossible to beat Charlie?"

Tanaka nodded and said truthfully: "President, Master Wades make tricks. Whoever is stronger will have the last laugh. Charlie's strength lies here. A dozen top masters can't match him. How does that family fight him?"

Ito Takehiko sneered and said: "Don't forget, the Takahashi family also enshrines several top ninjas. The Ninjutsu is so powerful, Charlie can't be their opponent!"

Tanaka reminded: "President, even the top ninja we worship, may not be able to defeat Eiki's dozen personal bodyguards so easily, right? Even if it can be played, I am afraid it will be a terrible victory, but for Charlie, it's just one-sided crushing..."

With that, Tanaka pulled the video progress bar back to the scene where Charlie singled out a dozen bodyguards of Eiki. He pointed to the video and said to Takehiko Ito: "Sir, look, these dozen people are in the hands of Charlie. In front of him, even chickens, ducks and geese can't compare with them. He almost knocked down one with a punch, kicked one with one kick!"

"Even when the chickens, ducks and geese are beaten by someone, they can still jump up and peck twice, but these so-called masters are absolutely waste in front of him!"

"Uh..." Ito Takehiko's expression gradually became more serious.

It seems that these dozen masters, who are not human at all, were directly ravaged by his cruel and inhuman madness...

Thinking of this, he looked at Tanaka sadly, and asked helplessly: "Tanaka, you say, our 4.5 billion USD, can we still ask it back?!"

Chapter 1711

"This one....."

When Hiroshi Tanaka faced Ito's problem, he immediately fell into a dilemma.

How should I answer?

Can the answer come back?

If you don't come back by any chance, do you have to take the blame?

Will the answer come back?

Even if it was Ito Takehiko, he would run away immediately!

It seems that this question is really difficult to answer.

Seeing that he was stubbornly speechless, Ito shook his heart, and blurted out, "You don't think that 80% chance for the money is that it will not come back, right?"

Hiroshi Tanaka quickly explained: "It's not that there is no hope. I don't think we need to be so pessimistic. It should be 50-50!"

"Fifty-fifty?" Ito Takehiko said angrily, "What the h*ll is this difference between not telling me and being so ambiguous?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "President, there are indeed many uncertainties in this matter. I am not ready to make a conclusion now, but don't forget, no matter how bad, we can still solve the problem through litigation."

"Litigation?" Ito pointed at Hiroshi Tanaka and cursed: "You let the dog eat your brain? Eiki was abolished by Charlie in the street and has become the laughing stock of all Japan. If I f*cking sue him for usurping my money wouldn't it be even more laughed at by the whole of Japan if we don't give 100 million?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Mr. President, this is 4.5 billion USD. We can't really let it go because we are afraid of being laughed at? The whole family's annual net profit can't reach this number..."

"Yeah..." Ito said in a painful voice: "The recent economic downturn, our overall net profit last year was only more than 300 million USD. If there is not much improvement this year, maybe it will be even less."

For large families or large companies, losses are common.

For example, the domestic Zotye Automobile, their financial report shows that they have lost more than 10 billion in a year in 2019.

The American General Motors Corporation, which is also in the automotive industry, has suffered losses due to poor management for years. In GM's 100-year history, the worst year is a direct loss of 38.7 billion USD!

The international economic situation has been cold in the past two years, and the pressure on Ito Takehiko has been even greater.

In this sluggish market environment, the development prospects of medical and health companies are actually the broadest, because people may not buy cars or houses, but they have to buy medicines.

Because of this, he decided to do everything possible to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Unexpectedly, he stepped into a deep pit.

Now that 4.5 billion fell into the pit and he can't get it back, I remember him scratching his heart.

Seeing that Ito was extremely depressed, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly persuaded: "My lord, in fact, you don't have to worry about it now. We are different from the Takahashi family. The Takahashi family doesn't even know who Charlie is, but we at least know him more. On the bottom line, knowing that he is the current owner of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and he is in Aurous Hill, China, and he stepped back and said that even if we had to meet each other in the end, we would be able to find him. The Takahashi family is different. They may not even be able to find him."

"Yes!" Ito Takehiko suddenly felt his eyes light up and blurted out: "I just want them to not find him! As long as they can't find Charlie, they will always be the laughing stock of Japan! Hahaha, so funny!"

After that, Ito Takehiko stood up immediately, lit another cigar excitedly, and took a sip, then smiled and said, "Tanaka, in my name, send a bunch of flowers and a fruit to the Takahashi family. The basket should go over and say it is sympathy and meant to disgust them! Hahaha!"

Chapter 1712

"OK, President!"

.....

At this moment, Nanako, who is far away in Kyoto, is still sitting in the courtyard waiting for the heavy snow, and doesn't know if it will come.

There was a sudden vibration from the phone in her pocket. After she opened it, she found that it was a push notification popped up by the app, with the title: "Eiki was beaten up in the street by someone in Tokyo, and his arms abolished!"

Nanako couldn't help being surprised, and thought to herself: "Eiki is very famous in Tokyo, why would anyone act on him in the street?"

However, she didn't have much interest in Eiki, and didn't want to care about this gossips, so she didn't click on it.

However, as soon as the screen of the phone was locked, it immediately lit up again, and it was a push from another app. The title was similar to the one just now, except that this one added: "The mysterious man is superb and can be called the god of war!"

Nanako, who has a deep love for fighting and martial arts, immediately cheered up.

She really wanted to see how powerful the mysterious person who was called the god of war by the Japanese media really is!

Later, she turned on the phone and played the video.

Charlie was surrounded by the crowd, and when she couldn't see anyone, Nanako felt very calm.

When several people were quickly knocked into the air, her expression showed unconcealable shock, and she murmured: "Eiki's bodyguard can't be a waiting person. It can be seen that this person is really strong!"

Then, she suddenly uttered an ah, the phone couldn't be held firmly, and it fell to the ground with a snap.

She hurriedly bent over to pick it up. Fortunately, the ground in the yard was not hard and the phone was not damaged.

So she picked up the phone and couldn't wait to continue to look at it, her expression became more horrified and excited!

She blurted out excitedly: "Master Wade...It's really Master Wade!"

At this time, Nanako has become a star chaser girl.

And Charlie is her natal idol!

Therefore, as long as she saw Charlie, she couldn't hide the excitement in her heart!

What's more, Charlie in the video is so elegant, so chic, and so domineering!

Nanako, who has always been as quiet as still water, got up, the nymph0 who couldn't control it, and said to herself in surprise: "Master Wade is really handsome and powerful! This kind of strength is indeed a master of martial arts! No wonder! Can beat Yamamoto Kazuki-sensei with a single palm. With his strength, even if five Yamamoto Kazuki-sensei attacks him at the same time, I am afraid it will be difficult to win!"

With the extreme excitement of the young woman, Nanako watched the video several times over and over again. At this moment, she couldn't wait to rush back to Tokyo immediately and try her best to meet Charlie!

However, after a while, she gave up the idea again.

She knew that after Charlie abolished Eiki, he would have to face the Takahashi family's targeting, and her father also has conflicts with him. If she went to him at this time, let alone whether he had the energy to see her. Just going to see him by her is likely to bring trouble to him!

Nanako looked at the sky and murmured: "I only hope that Master Wade can leave Tokyo in peace. As for whether I can see him again, his safety is far more important than my wish. I hope God will bless him and Master Wade will never meet danger....."

Chapter 1713

That night.

The whole Tokyo runaway group united unprecedentedly.

In the past, they were fighting each other, even competing, antagonizing, and fighting each other while guarding a site. Now they all have become comrades-in-arms.

Everyone held hands together and searched through the carpet, just to find the whereabouts of the mysterious man who abolished Eiki.

However, the instruction they received was not to hack the man, but to report his whereabouts to the Takahashi family immediately.

As long as the exact clue is found, one million will be given.

The mobsters usually don't have many opportunities to make money. They either collect some protection fees on Red-Light Street, or they are doing some chicken business, and their income is actually very low.

In Japan, how can you be considered a successful mobster?

In fact, it's very simple. It is enough to have a large displacement motorcycle.

Because in the eyes of the rioters, a good motorcycle is simply the standard equipment for the successful rioters.

However, most of the mobsters barely make ends meet, and simply cannot afford the cost of large-displacement motorcycles. Therefore, they have to walk, or take buses or subways, to fight with others on the streets.

As for why not to take a taxi, it is because the taxi fare in Japan is surprisingly expensive. The mobsters go out for a fight. Before they get to the place, the taxi fare may have been over 1,000, far exceeding their consumption ability.

Because of this, they are desperate for money.

One million, even if it is divided among several people or dozens of people, it is a very objective figure in the hands of individuals.

Therefore, these rioters all took to the street with their own brains, holding their mobile phones, while playing the video of Eiki being beaten, while looking for Charlie in the video.

But they didn't dare to search with great fanfare, they only dared to search with their eyes quietly, because they knew that this man was incredibly powerful. If you see him, you must not hesitate, turn around and run, and report to the Takahashi family while running. That's it.

At the same time, several ninjutsu masters enshrined by the Takahashi family also penetrated into the night wearing night clothes.

They are extremely good at concealing body shape and breath, and they are very good at secretly searching and tracking. They are one of the few masters who can truly pass by without leaving marks.

For top ninjutsu masters, it is completely possible for people to run in front and let top police dogs chasing behind. In a few steps, the police dogs will lose all clues.

However, although they are good at hiding their whereabouts, when it comes to attacking power, they are still much worse than Chinese martial arts masters and internal masters.

But then again, although their absolute strength may not be comparable to China's domestic masters, their overall combat effectiveness should not be underestimated.

Because they are very good at using fatal blows, such as very good at using poisoned daggers, darts, and blow arrows. They like sneak attacks and give opponents a surprise nirvana.

Therefore, if the average master is slightly less vigilant, it is really possible that they will follow their way, and maybe they will die when it is unclear.

The task of these ninjutsu masters is to find Charlie and monitor him secretly. After the Su family leaves Japan, or before Charlie leaves Japan, they will kill him.

Chapter 1714

However, it was not easy for these ninjutsu masters to find him. Charlie left no clues at the scene. They could only check Charlie's whereabouts through the Tokyo monitoring system first.

.....

After the plane landed, it was unloaded and cleared immediately, and then shipped to the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical at the fastest speed.

Since Liang and Ichiro have been training at the Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Tokyo production base for a day, after the raw materials arrived at the base, they immediately entered the factory and started producing JX Weisan.

In addition, Liang followed Charlie's request and applied to the Japanese Drug Administration to directly change the name of Kobayashi Weisan to JX Weisan.

In this way, after successful trial production, JX Weisan can be put on the market directly in Japan and in the countries where their Weisan has covered it.

During the trial production, Issac asked his subordinates to drive him and come to Ichiro's house to pick Charlie to the scene.

As soon as Charlie got on the car, Issac said nervously: "Master why were you choking with the young master of the Takahashi family?"

Charlie frowned and asked, "How did you know?"

Issac hurriedly said: "Someone took a video of you teaching him and posted it on the Internet. Now it's spread all over Japan! You are hot in Japan!"

Charlie frowned: "It has been spread throughout Japan within two hours?"

Issac helplessly: "Master think about how fast the cross talk between Liu Guang and Liu Ming was spread on our domestic short video platform! We have more than one billion people in China, and that cross talk is not half It's been all over the country within just a few hours..."

Charlie shrugged and said, "After all, our domestic Internet industry is very powerful, but is the Japanese Internet so developed?"

Issac sighed and said, "Master even if Japan hasn't done much in the past few years, it is still an established developed country. Although their Internet is not as developed as ours, the video entertainment sector is still good. Young people have nothing to do all day long, except for drinking, eating and shopping, just playing with mobile phones."

As he said, he pointed to a few young boys walking side by side on the side of the road outside the window, and said, "Master look at those little b@stards. They just walked and looked at the phone. He didn't even take the road to watch. Several people in Tokyo get kill several times a day. I guess the eight achievements of these people are watching your video!"

Charlie asked, "Do you have any Japanese short video app? Find out and let me see it."

Issac hurriedly took out his phone, found out the video and passed it to Charlie: "Look, master."

Charlie looked at the video and found that he was blurry in the video. This was a relief, and said: "Fortunately, the filming is not very clear, otherwise it will be troublesome if an acquaintance sees it. I still talked to my wife before I came. It was about coming to Japan to help people watch Feng Shui. If she sees this video, she must ask me what happened."

Issac said: "You can rest assured that this app is not compatible with ours in China, and Japanese short videos have no influence in our country."

Charlie asked him: "Are you sure?"

Issac nodded: "Yes, on our domestic short video platform, there are only a small number of people who are doing content. Most of the rest are copied and copied by a bunch of birdmen. One piece is hot, they can't wait for it. Ten thousand people plagiarize, and there is either a bunch of ugly and poor stinky silks playing the rich second generation, or a bunch of scammers selling some broken fish and shrimp lives on the beach."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Regardless of these people, you call Stephen, this video of mine can't be circulated to China in any case."

"OK Master!"

Chapter 1715

Under Liang's overall management, the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals quickly produced the finished Powder.

Charlie came to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's production base in the suburbs of Tokyo and personally did a quality inspection. After confirming that the newly produced JX Weisan was no different from the JX Weisan produced in Aurous Hill, he told Liang: "Liang, you must ensure that the Tokyo production line maintains the current speed, work overtime, keep people, don't shut down the machine, and quickly produce a large number of finished products."

"Okay Master!" Liang nodded immediately and asked, "By the way, Master, when will our JX Weisan be officially launched in Japan?"

Charlie said: "Don't worry about the official launch. We have to debug the production lines in Yokohama, Nagoya, and Osaka, and then accumulate a batch of finished products. At the same time, we must also prepare to advertise in Japan for consumers even in Asia. Everyone knows that Kobayashi's Weisan has been fully upgraded, the name has been changed to JX Weisan, and the prescription has been enhanced. The effect is at least ten times the previous one. After the campaign is completed, sales will begin."

Liang hurriedly said: "OK, Master, after I have sorted out the production lines, I will immediately start to promote things."

Charlie snorted and said, "Since the trial production has been successful here, we can go to Yokohama tomorrow."

Liang nodded and said, "Master, I will leave an engineer here to supervise. Let's leave early tomorrow morning!"

Charlie turned to Ichiro next to him and said: "Give you a chance to come back. You must take good care of it. Whether you can rest easy in your life next depends on how you perform in Japan. These production lines must be given to you. Manage it well, otherwise, I will cut off your dividends and let you drink Northwest Wind."

Now, Ichiro has given 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares to Charlie, and his remaining 10% will not play a decisive role in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

As the majority shareholder of Absolute Holdings, Charlie has all decision-making powers over the company.

In other words, if Kobayashi Pharmaceutical makes 10 billion this year, Charlie wants to withdraw all the profits of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and transfer it to JX Pharmaceutical, Ichiro has nothing to do.

When the time comes, all profits will be taken away, and naturally he won't be able to pay him a dime in dividends, and he will have nothing to do.

Therefore, his best choice now is to honestly work for Charlie. In this way, after Charlie asks Kobayashi Pharmaceutical to make money through the production of JXwei Powder, he will also generously release a portion of the profit dividend to him. Make sure that he can enjoy the rich life in Japan without worrying about money for the rest of his life.

Ichiro has been imprisoned in the kennel for a long time in the dark, so he can be said to cherish his current life very much. Seeing Charlie said this, he hurriedly said: "Master, don't worry, Ichiro will be your dog in the future. , Wherever you let me go, I will go, whatever you ask me to do, I will do it!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction.

Seeing that the on-site production is in order and the production quality is up to the standard, Charlie did not stay too much. He said to Issac and Liang: "Okay, let's go back to rest and go to Yokohama tomorrow."

.....

Charlie was about to get into the car, and when he first stepped one leg into the car, his figure suddenly stopped for a few seconds.

Issac asked hurriedly, "Master what's wrong?"

Charlie frowned slightly, then said calmly: "It's okay, let's go."

After speaking, he got into the car.

At this time, on the roof of a building opposite Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, four men in black were lying side by side.

Chapter 1716

Moreover, this kind of black equipment is very different from ordinary black cloth. The ordinary black cloth is only black, but the black on their bodies is completely super black, like a black hole.

In fact, the reason why this black equipment has this effect is mainly because a layer of ultra-black material with extremely low light refractive index is attached to the outside.

The scientific name of this super-black material is carbon nanotubes, and its reflectivity to light is only 0.035%, which is 3.5/10,000, which is the darkest material that humans have made so far.

The clothes are coated with this material. In a poorly lit environment, to the naked eye it is almost completely unclear. So for ninjas who are good at hiding, this high-tech material is simply their gospel. Wear such clothes. , The ability to hide them has increased exponentially.

At this moment, one of the men said: "Brother, the guy paused for a second before getting into the car. I looked through the binoculars. He seemed to be looking at us. Could we be discovered by him?"

The black-clothed man he called his senior said coldly: "You are just f@rting! The straight-line distance between us and him is more than 800 meters, even beyond the effective range of most sniper rifles, and our location, altitude About thirty meters taller than that guy, how could he find us?"

"That's right!" The man on the far left sneered, "This kid is nothing more than a little fight. It is estimated that he is a Chinese master, but the internal power of their master is not supernatural. At most, he is most powerful. No Maybe you can find us even this far away."

The person asked before, "Brother, the Patriarch does not let us do anything to him now, what shall we do now?"

The brother said, "My second son and I followed the convoy with a powered paraglider. You two drive, and on the radio follow my command."

The other three agreed in unison.

Immediately afterwards, the brother and the other person pulled a set of powered paragliders also painted with super black material from the roof.

Afterwards, the two men started the engines of the paraglider, and after the dark paraglider was blown up by the wind, they took off directly from the roof and disappeared into the night.

At this moment, Charlie in the car frowned.

Just before getting into the car, he keenly felt that there were people lurking around.

After all, he obtained the good fortune of the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures", and occasionally got spiritual stones and auras in his body, and then used Rejuvenation Pills as snacks. Not to mention his strong strength, his perception ability is much stronger than ordinary people.

Those four people were on the top of the building in the distance. Not only were they very hidden, they also controlled their breath very well, but they still didn't hide from Charlie.

Charlie couldn't help thinking about it in his heart.

First of all, these four people are hiding in the dark, they must be unkind, and ninety-nine percent of them are coming to him;

Secondly, these four people should all be relatively strong masters, not ordinary people;

Again, these four people are very good at hiding their whereabouts.

Therefore, based on the analysis of these three points, he felt that the four people should be the famous ninjutsu masters in Japan, that is, ninjas.

And their master must be the Takahashi family who he just offended!

Chapter 1717

At the same time, two dark silent paragliders are flying fast at an altitude of two hundred meters.

This silent paraglider uses a lithium battery to drive an electric engine, so there is no noise generated when the engine is running.

Moreover, the fan blades of the paraglider have been carefully designed, and the air noise during high-speed operation is also very small.

Using equipment to make up for the lack of strength is also the consistent development direction of Japanese ninjas.

In the early years, Japanese ninjas not only had to practice ninjutsu hard, but they also had to be proficient in chemistry, because they needed to prepare a variety of strange equipment.

On TV, the ancient ninja dropped a ball on the ground, and smoke was instantly ignited. After the smoke disappears, people also disappear. This is not a fictional scene, but a real existence in history.

The round ball used by ancient ninjas is actually a mixture of smoke bombs and flash bombs made with the earth method.

When the explosion occurs, the instantaneous strong light will make the opponent's vision temporarily blind, and the smoke is an excellent cover for retreat, so when the opponent's vision recovers and the smoke clears, the ninja will have run away long ago.

When the target feels that they may have run away, they may hide on the beams of the house, or hide behind the target, or hide in the water, using the thin bamboo strips used to blow arrows to ensure breathing.

Modern ninjas integrate scientific and technological achievements into ninjutsu, which gives them better concealment capabilities.

At this time, the two people on the paraglider were communicating with each other through wireless intercom, and one of them said: "Brother, should we control the distance a little bit? So that the other party will not find us."

"Impossible." The senior said very confidently: "Our current height is two hundred meters, and the straight-line distance from them is almost one kilometer. At such a distance, they can't hear any sound at all, nor can they see anything. Clue, even if the person directly below us looks up, it is impossible to spot us!"

The headed ninja thought he had achieved perfection, but he did not expect that Charlie still noticed the two of them.

After realizing that he was being observed at by the two, Charlie couldn't help but smile sarcastically.

It seems that these ninjas intend to bite him and not let go.

I just don't know when they are going to do it on him.

Not only did Charlie not worry about it, but faintly expecting it.

When he was young, he watched some ninja-related movies and TV series and cartoons, and he was still a little interested in the profession of ninja.

Therefore, he also wanted to compete head-on with Japanese ninjas to see what level of ninja Japan boasted for thousands of years.

So he decided not to change any of his next plans, but always pay attention to the movement of these four ninjas to see what they want to do.

Twenty minutes later.

The convoy stopped downstairs in the building of Ichiro's house.

Charlie entered the building with everyone and came to the top floor.

At this time, two ninjas riding powered paragliders were hovering in the night sky above the building, and the other two also drove downstairs.

Chapter 1718

The leading ninja observed the surrounding environment and saw that the Aman Hotel was not far from this building, so he immediately ordered: "Second, we fell on the top of the Aman Hotel to watch each other, the third, the old Fourth, look for a suitable place to hide downstairs and closely monitor the target first!"

In the intercom, the voice of three people immediately came: "OK, brother!"

The two pitch-black paragliders slowly lowered their height, and finally landed on the roof of the Aman Hotel. After landing, the leading ninja immediately called Eiki's father Machi Takahashi.

Machi Takahashi is in the hospital at this time. His eldest son, Eiki, is still undergoing surgery to implant a steel plate.

After receiving the call from the other party, Takahashi Machi immediately asked, "Mr. Fujibayashi, how is the matter going?"

His name is Tenglin Zhengzhe, and the Tenglin family is one of the four famous ninjutsu in Japan.

In the development of Japanese ninjutsu, there was once a master of ninjutsu named Tengwu.

In 1676, he wrote a book called "Wanchuan Jihai", which combined the martial arts essence of famous Chinese and Japanese masters, and also referred to the famous "Sun Tzu Art of War" and "Tai Gong Art of War" in Chinese history. "This book was later regarded as the encyclopedia of ninjas.

Since its beginning, the Tenglin family has gradually become Japan's top ninjutsu family.

And Tenglin Zhengzhe is the heir of this generation of Tenglin family.

In Japan, ninjas have always been dependent on top-notch families to survive. There were a large number of ninjas who worked for them in large Japanese families and under the shoguns during the Warring States period.

Although modern ninjas are becoming rarer and rarer, the true masters of ninjutsu are still attached to top big families.

This is mainly because the ninja family lacks sufficient earning power, and modern society is becoming more and more secure and more emphasis on the rule of law, so they cannot make money by killing people and by arson, so they can only continue to adhere to the big family and become A master enshrined in a large family.

Said to be worship, in fact, it is captive.

Raising ninjas in captivity, giving them enough money, enough respect, and letting them work for themselves is also a common hobby of large Japanese families.

On the phone, he reported to Takahashi: "Mr. Takahashi, we have tracked down that guy's address, which is opposite to the Aman Hotel in the city center. Now I am closely monitoring him on the roof of the Aman Hotel. Waiting for your next instructions."

"Good! Great!"

Machi Takahashi finally breathed a sigh of relief and gritted his teeth: "As long as you find him, I don't have to worry that my son's vengeance will not be avenged!"

After that, Takahashi Machi again ordered: "Mr. Fujibayashi, you must keep observing him. Wherever he goes, you will follow him and wait for my next step. But if he wants to leave Japan, Just kill him!"

Tenglin said: "Mr. Takahashi, please rest assured, from now on, I will never let the target leave our control!"

Takahashi really knows: "Mr. Fujibayashi, when things are done, I will give you a generous reward, at least five million USD!"

Tenglin smiled and said, "Thank you Mr. Takahashi in advance!"

Takahashi really knew what he thought of, and hurriedly said: "By the way, Mr. Fujibayashi, the eldest son of the Su family, Zhifei, lives in the Aman Hotel. If possible, please help me monitor him. I want to know if he sees him at the hotel. Who did he call, who called him, and what he said."

Tenglin immediately said: "No problem, I will check it out now!"

Chapter 1719

Aman Hotel Tokyo.

This is one of the most luxurious hotels in Tokyo.

The two lived in the best room type in this hotel. The rooms are next to each other. Every room here has floor-to-ceiling windows on three sides. You can clearly see the night view of Tokyo, which is truly beautiful.

Zhiyu had just taken a shower at this time, her short hair was wet, so she simply combed all her hair to the back of her head. Looking stunning.

After taking a shower, Zhiyu wiped her body clean, put on the silk nightgown brought, holding a glass of red wine, and came to the huge French window.

In her mind, Charlie could not help but appear again.

Thinking of that man's arrogant and pretentious look, Zhiyu was still angry.

However, when she thought that everything that the man did was to protect an innocent girl, Zhiyu felt a little admiration for him unconsciously.

In a foreign country, most people are more low-key and tolerant, hoping to avoid trouble as much as possible.

In this case, even if you have been bullied, you may choose to endure a moment of calm and take a step back, let alone see others being bullied, and stand up for others.

It can be seen from this point that the man is indeed very nice, and the three views are also very positive, but he is a bit crazy.

Of course, the strength is so strong, there is nothing wrong with madness.

Just thinking about it, she suddenly received a WeChat message on her mobile phone.

After opening it, it was a link sent by her brother Zhifei, and then he sent another voice: "Zhiyu, take a look, things tonight have caused trouble in Japan!"

Zhiyu opened the link and saw that Charlie's video has exceeded 10 million views on the Japanese network, and it is heading towards 20 million, and she can't help but be stunned.

There are more than 120 million people in Japan, and more than 15% of Japanese people have watched this video.

You know, Japan is still a highly aging society. If you remove the elderly, young children, and farmers who rarely go online in rural Japan, the views on this video is already terrifying.

And this is just the beginning.

The ghost knows how much it will be played tomorrow?

Zhifei sent a WeChat message at this time and told her: "Zhiyu, Dad is going to have a video conference. Is it convenient for you now?"

Zhiyu gave a hum and said, "Wait for me for a minute."

After speaking, she stood up, found a shawl, and draped it over her pink fragrant shoulder.

Chapter 1720

Her nightgown is a low-cut and big v-neck sling. She is very comfortable in the room, but it is a bit exposed after all, so she has to cover it.

After the video conference was connected, Zynn asked in the video: "Zhifei, Zhiyu, have you two arrived at the hotel?"

"Yes." Zhiyu and Zhifei nodded in unison.

Zynn asked again: "Have you met briefly with the Takahashi family?"

"Not yet." Zhiyu said: "Originally, we planned to touch the cooperation intention in the hotel's meeting room tonight, but unexpectedly, the Takahashi family had a small accident and Eiki suffered an injury, his father Takahashi should be in the hospital with him."

Zynn frowned and asked, "What's the matter? Will it affect our cooperation with them?"

Zhiyu said: "Eiki was beaten by a passerby, but this incident was just an incident and should not affect cooperation."

"That's good." Zynn breathed a sigh of relief, and said, "You must understand the foundations of these two companies and choose the best one."

With that said, Zynn continued with a cruel expression: "You must find the strongest and most wolfish company for cooperation, whether it is the Takahashi family or the Ito family, as long as we choose one of them, then we will join forces with them and kill the other one!"

Zhiyu asked in surprise: "Dad, if we choose any company to cooperate with, can we just focus on cooperation? There is no need to help them fight against another company, right?"

Zynn said: "I went to see your grandfather today, and he said that the Wade family seems to want to transport this cake by the ocean, so if we choose the Takahashi family, they will definitely choose the Ito family, and vice versa. also the same."

Zynn paused, and then said: "What your grandpa means is that if we choose the Takahashi family, then we will join hands with the Takahashi family to kill the Ito family."

If we choose the Ito family, we will have to go with the Ito family. Join forces to kill the Takahashi family. In short, you can't leave the Wade family any chance!"

Zhifei asked in surprise: "The Wade family also wants to get a share of the pie?"

"Yes." Zynn nodded and said, "I guess they just wanted to follow us because they saw that we started to get involved in this industry."

Zhifei said coldly: "The Wade family is a little overwhelmed. Many domestic businesses haven't gotten the order, so they want to come to us to grab overseas markets?"

Zynn smiled: "This kind of thing is also normal. Big families, like big companies, have to do everything possible to steal other people's business."

After that, Zynn said: "Look at Tencent and Alibaba. One of them is doing a good job in social networking, but they desperately want to be an e-commerce company; an e-commerce company that is doing well, sharpened their heads, and wants to do social networking, and Ali has become Alipay. , Tencent will do WeChat payment, Ali buys Hungry, Tencent will invest in Meituan takeaway, the two will always be like playing Go, you surround me, I surround you, we are the same as the Wade family, early Wade family When we started a new business, we also united many people to deal with them. Now that we have a new business, they can't just sit back and watch."

Zhiyu smiled slightly and said, "Dad, as far as I know, the Wade family's generation seems to be nothing special. Moreover, the Wade family seems to be getting quieter and quieter in recent years. I think they will be in a difficult situation for a while. Cut into the business of ocean transportation and port operations."

Zynn said, "I have the same opinion as you on this matter, but your grandpa still hopes to be more cautious."

Zhifei smiled and said: "Dad, grandpa is old and it is normal to be more conservative and cautious, but we don't need to worry about this. My view is the same as that of Zhiyu. Wade family should not catch up for a while, and, The gap between them and us will definitely grow."

Zynn sighed, and said seriously: "Forty years ago, your grandfather treated the Wade family in the same way. He always felt that the Wade family had no successors and would be lonely in a short time, but he never dreamed that there was a person named Changying who was so wise and close to a demon, and brought Wade Family up all at once..."

As he said, Zynn's expression became extremely serious, and he asked the two: "You must remember that a big family like ours is often the same as the country. In the long history of national development, many times it is to bet on the national fortune. Yes, just like when Germany attacked the Soviet Union, it was betting on national luck. If the bet wins, entire Eastern Europe belongs to Hitler. The Soviet Union's massive oil, natural gas, and iron ore resources sufficient to support Germany's rule of Europe; but if the bet lost, it fell into the quagmire of two-front combat and ultimately failed miserably."

"We are now focusing our efforts on ocean transportation. The Wade family wants to keep up, and they want to take a gamble!"

"If they bet, there is still a chance of not being separated; if they don't bet, they will definitely be left far behind!"

"So, even if the Wade Family doesn't have a capable person to pull the flag, they will definitely come in and fight with us! And we, no matter whether the Wade Family will catch up or not, we will cut their way first!"

Chapter 1721

Father Su's thinking was deeply influenced by his father.

The Old Master's father fought a war back then. The battlefield is different from the business world. The battlefield is always desperate, so his business philosophy is also very simple. As long as he is his opponent, he must go to death.

Choose one between the Ito family and the Takahashi family, and then kill the other. In the eyes of Mr. Su, it is like going to sea. There are two boats on the shore, but only one is needed. Then what should I do at this time??

Ordinary people randomly choose one that is pleasing to the eye, and then board the ship and set sail;

After detailed research, smart people choose a ship with the strongest overall performance;

The clever ruthless man will choose the one with the strongest overall performance, and then scuttle the other before sailing.

The reason for this is that if you simply choose one ship to ride, the remaining ship will become a huge hidden danger.

Competitors may ride that ship to catch up, and finally may leave you behind.

Therefore, if you choose one to ride and scuttle the other, you don't have to worry about your opponent being able to catch up with you.

When the time comes, the opponent can only sigh on the beach, being left behind by you.

This routine is simple and rude, but also very effective.

Zynn, and even Zhifei and Zhiyu, were born in peaceful times. After living in peaceful times for too long, gradually, they lost the bloodiness of the older generation.

However, when Zynn said the father's decision, Zhiyu was the first to react.

She said with some enlightenment: "Dad, grandpa's strategy is wonderful! This will not only break the road of the Wade family, but also increase our influence in Japan. I was still worried before, the Takahashi family and the Ito family Each has its own strengths and weaknesses. No matter which one you choose, it is a pity to give up the other. If you win over one of them and then work together to swallow the other, it would be perfect!"

Zynn said, "Zhifei and Zhiyu, you two must remember that the biggest enemy of the Su family in the past, present, and the next ten years is the Wade family!"

"Therefore, no matter what field we are involved in in the future, we must also call the same principle: if the Wade family is also in this field, then the first priority is to kill the Wade family; if the Wade family has not entered this field yet, then we must do our best to prevent them from coming in!"

“Although the anti-wade Alliance of the year is gone, we still have to beat the Wade Family to death. Only in this way can we prevent the Wade Family from taking the lead and forming an Anti-Su Alliance to deal with us. Understand?”

The two, brother and sister said at the same time: “Understand!”

Zynn nodded and continued: “You have to think more, not only about your grandfather’s strategic layout, but also about his tactical arrangements. The older generations said that business world is like battlefields. At that time, businesses were based on the degree of cruelty. , Not lost to the battlefield. But the world has been at peace for decades since World War II. People have been at ease for too long, and their bloodliness has become weaker and weaker. The gap between the market and the battlefield has become larger and larger... ..”

Zhiyu said earnestly: “Dad, you are right. Brother and I will try to make up for blood and wolf nature!”

The Zynn in the video nodded and said admiringly: “The future of the Su family will ultimately belong to your generation. If the two of you can find the bloody nature of your ancestors, the Su family will no longer has to worry about the future and hope for more glory!”

Let the Su Family stand on top of the world, this sentence has been lingering in Zhiyu and Zhifei’s ears from this moment on.

And this figure is the ninjutsu master of the Takahashi family, Tenglin.

Machi Takahashi learned that he happened to be at the Aman Hotel, so he asked him to monitor Zhifei. As Party A and Party B who are about to start negotiations on cooperation, if they can know the other party's cards and low prices in advance, it is absolutely no disadvantage.

The most feared thing in business negotiations is to miss the cards.

When you are playing gold with someone, if you can know the opponent's card, then you will never lose, even if the card you hold is not better than the opponent, you can get out early.

If you can know your opponent's cards, then you will never be scammed by the opponent. If the opponent holds a small hand that pretends to be pretentious and delusional, you can also see through it at a glance.

Many times, you obviously have the biggest card in the game, but you can't make any money. The reason is that you can't guess the opponent's hole cards and your psychological quality is not strong enough, so you are scared by the opponent's bluff and leave the game early.

Therefore, Takahashi is very eager to see Su's hole cards.

However, when Tenglin sent him the recording, he was scared into a cold sweat by the recording!

It turns out that Su's hole card is not just a good card, it is a killing card!

Especially the strategy of Mr. Su. If they choose Takahashi, they will kill Ito; if they choose Ito, they will kill Takahashi...

Machi Takahashi felt a bit cold in his back, and sat down on a chair alone, slandering in his heart: "That Old Master from the Su family is like a f*cking old beast!"

"Frankly speaking, I have been fighting with the Ito family for so many years, and I have never thought of destroying the other party. It is enough to step on him and beat him..."

"But this Old Master Su is so cruel that he has to kill his my family, or the Ito family, just to cut off his competitors' retreat?!"

"More importantly, I have no choice at all! If I am selected by the Su family and the Su family asked me to join them to kill the Takahashi family, can I refuse? If I refuse, he will turn his head and go to the Ito family. Kill me together..."

Thinking of this, Takahashi wiped his sweat while matching up his mind. In any case, he must reach cooperation with the Su family! Never let the Su family and the Ito family come together, otherwise, he will be responsible for himself and his fate!

The main reason why Takahashi is so scared is mainly that the strength of the Takahashi family is still too far behind the Su family.

In recent years, the form of international economic development has almost been the rapid growth of China, while other countries have either stagnated or retreated without advancing.

Japan is the one that does not advance or retreat.

In recent years, Japan's gpd has not increased but declined. In 2011, it was still able to reach 6 trillion USD. As a result, when it bottomed out in 2018, it was only more than 4 trillion USD.

With the receding of Japan's economic development, these families in Japan have also suffered heavy losses. The current strength has been left behind by China's top families. It is almost impossible to compete with China's top families.

So, Takahashi has an idea in his heart.

He decided that he would do everything possible to attack the Ito family, just like the Su family attacked the Wade family!

If the Su family wants to scuttle the Wade family's boat, they must scuttle the Ito family's boat!

Chapter 1723

When Machi Takahashi made a decision in his heart, the operation of his son Eiki had also been completed.

Seeing his son, who had his arms in cast, was pushed out of the operating room by the doctor, Takahashi's heart twitched.

He wished to smash the body of the b@stard who injured his son immediately.

But thinking about it carefully, the most important thing now is to settle down the cooperation with the Su family, otherwise, if the Su family cooperates with the Ito family, it will be yourself that is unlucky.

So he didn't dare to cause any trouble at this time, so he could only choose to bear it temporarily.

Fortunately, Tenglin has found the trace of the other party and is keeping a close eye on the other party. Therefore, he believes that this person has already pierced his wings and cannot escape. When will he die? It is a matter of time.

Eiki had a local anesthesia in his arms, so his brain consciousness was still clear. Seeing his father waiting outside the operating room, he was moved and aggrieved, and tears immediately shed.

"Father, Eiki is not filial, which is causing you trouble!"

Machi Takahashi waved his hand and sighed: "You can't be blamed for this matter. You can take a good rest these two days. When your condition stabilizes, I will take you home for a good rest."

Eiki nodded quickly.

At this moment, someone rushed over and respectfully said to Takahashi Machi: "Chairman, Takehiko sent flowers and fruit baskets to express condolences..."

Immediately, he yelled coldly: "Humph! With my knowledge of Takehiko, the b@stard, he is sending flowers and fruit baskets now. He must have come to mock me and watch me as a joke! Last time his daughter was seriously injured after the game in China. When she returned from China and was treated in Tokyo, I also gave him flowers and a fruit basket to laugh at him. I didn't expect that he would find me back so soon!"

Eiki, with his arms in plaster, said angrily, "Dad! Takehiko, that b@stard, is a must-have guy himself! The flowers and fruit baskets you sent to the hospital last time were all said to have been thrown into a rubbish can, this time we do exactly what he did, showing that he had deliberately slapped my face! This time I lost such a big face, don't know how this b@stard will humiliate me in the future!"

Machi Takahashi smiled awkwardly and comforted: "Son, you don't have to be so angry. Maybe Takehiko doesn't mean anything else, just want to express condolences?"

Eiki asked him back: "Dad, do you believe this? His daughter was injured. What kind of mentality did you send flowers and fruit baskets? Isn't it for mocking and watching a good show?"

Eiki said with a sad face: "The video of Nanako's injury was spread all over Japan, but the people respect her and loved her very much. Numerous fans are still launching activities to protect her and pray for her online. But I was injured this time, and all the country is laughing at me. I am embarrassed this time..."

With that, Eiki couldn't think about it, and cried uncontrollably.

It's no wonder that he is too fragile. After all, he was a Japanese national man before, and countless women are crazy about him and call him their crush on the Internet.

Unexpectedly, in a blink of an eye, he would be beaten to death in front of the people of the whole country.

Through this incident it can be said that he has lost face for a lifetime.

Chapter 1724

Even if he really killed Charlie, it was useless. After all, the horror of his beating was already well known to the Japanese, and it was deeply rooted in the hearts of the people.

Machi Takahashi's expression was also ugly, and when he was thinking about how to comfort his son, his cell phone rang suddenly.

Machi Takahashi took out his cell phone and saw that it was an unfamiliar number, so he pressed it to answer.

Immediately afterwards, Takehiko's voice came over the phone.

"Oh, Brother Takahashi, I heard that Lord Eiki was beaten in Tokyo today?"

At first glance, Takehiko's voice seemed to be somewhat concerned, but anyone with a little brain could hear it. This voice was simply sarcasm.

Takahashi Machi said with a black face: "Ito, I remember I saved your phone number, why? You changed it?"

"No." Ito said with a smile: "My mobile phone number is still the same as before. I am using my assistant's mobile phone. I am afraid to call you with my own mobile phone. You see my name you will never pick it Hahaha!"

Machi Takahashi's expression went dark immediately.

Takehiko was right. If he knew it was his call, he would not answer if he died.

Unexpectedly, this dog was so damaged, so he changed his mobile phone number and called, just to mock him on the phone?

Seeing that Takahashi really didn't speak, Takehiko immediately smiled and said, "Oh, Takahashi, why don't you speak anymore? Do you feel that your son is so humiliated at the door of the house that he really is a bit embarrassed?"

Takahashi was a little bit intolerable, and asked, "Ito, what's the matter with you? If it's okay, I'm going to hang"

"Don't!" Ito said with a smile, "Takahashi, I called, mainly because you and your son felt worthless! You see, he was also injured. When my daughter was injured, all of Japan was there to comfort her and encourage her, but after your son is injured, all Japan laughed at him. Netizens also really damned him. How can you make such a difference, right?"

Takahashi gritted his teeth angrily, and said coldly: "Takehiko, how far are you f*cking for me! Don't let me see you again!"

When he heard Takahashi's swearing, he smiled a little, and said happily: "Takahashi, there is an idiom in China to describe you now. It is perfect. Do you know what it is?"

Machi Takahashi scolded, "I don't want to know, you go to hell!"

After speaking, Machi Takahashi hung up the phone!

However, not long after the call was hung up, he received a message on his cell phone.

The content of the message is: "Brother Takahashi, don't blame the brother for not reminding you, you really have to change your temper in the future, otherwise, you will easily suffer the loss your son just suffered! Eiki is young, he has broken two arms it is nothing, but if you are older, if you break both arms, you may not be able to recover in your life!"

Seeing this, Takahashi was really furious.

At this time, the phone received another text message.

It was sent by Takehiko Ito: "Oh, yes, the Chinese idiom used to describe you can't be more appropriate is: Sh!t jumps over the wall!"

Takahashi was so angry that he had nowhere to vent. He slammed the phone to the ground and fell to pieces. He cursed hysterically, "Ito Yuuhiko, you d*mn b@stard! You really know that Takahashi will not avenge this revenge."

At this moment, in Takahashi's heart, for the first time, he was murderous against Takehiko!

Chapter 1725

For so many years, Takahashi Machi and Takehiko have been fighting over and under.

It can be said that over the years, the two have regarded each other as biggest competitors.

However, Takahashi and Takehiko are only in their fifties this year. They were both born in the most desolate and least self-confident years in post-war Japan, and they have been growing up peacefully. Therefore, they are not in the past blood and wolf nature of the older generation.

Therefore, the two sides have been fighting for so many years, and they are only competing in the commercial field. No one has ever thought about killing the other party to death.

This is like the boss of Alibaba and the boss of Tencent. Although they compete fiercely in different fields all day long, everyone still abides by laws and regulations very much.

Even if they are upset with each other in their hearts, the minimum politeness and rules can be guaranteed by everyone.

This is the phrase often said on the Internet: "He is grinning on his face, and I am in my heart."

However, after eavesdropping on the video conference of Su's family, Machi Takahashi was shocked, but also felt the vigilance of Daigo's enlightenment!

At that moment, his whole person suddenly opened

Now he doesn't want to use the previous law-abiding model to compete with Takehiko.

He now hopes that Takehiko will disappear from this world!

To be more precise, he hopes that the entire Ito family will disappear from this world!

In that way, the Takahashi family would have no obstacles or stumbling blocks in Japan!

In Takahashi's mind, a death list has been placed.

The first on this list of deaths is Takehiko Ito;

The second place was Charlie, who has abolished his son's arms.

He thought it was easy to kill Charlie, but it was difficult to kill Takehiko.

Because Charlie is just a martial arts master from China, and has been locked by the ninjutsu master sent by him, he can kill him at any time.

However, it is not so easy to kill Takehiko.

After all, the Ito family has also been cultivating in Japan for many years, and the strength is comparable to that of the Takahashi family. They also have complete security personnel at ordinary times. More importantly, he has a high social status in Japan. Want to kill him. , never directly use force, otherwise it is very likely to cause trouble for himself.

Therefore, the best solution is to join forces with a more powerful family to continuously suppress the strength of the Ito family, first knock him out of the position of the top family in Japan, and when he becomes a second-rate or third-rate family, everyone will treat his life and death. He doesn't care so much, and his overall strength will drop sharply.

It is easy to take his life at that time.

Therefore, if you want to kill Takehiko, you must join forces with the Su family.

In the final analysis, this cooperation with the Su family, in his view, can only succeed and not fail.

.....

Chapter 1726

This night, the four of them took two-by-two shifts, with another person watching every four hours to ensure that all four of them could get a certain rest.

They thought everything they did was perfect, but they didn't know that everything was under Charlie's control.

The reason why Charlie didn't do any performance was mainly that he wanted to make plans first, and at the same time, he didn't try to get rid of them.

He doesn't want to do anything to these ninjas in Tokyo, mainly because he will go to several cities next. If the Takahashi family's ninjas are killed now, then the Takahashi family will definitely stick to him like dog skin plasters. Will bring a lot of inconvenience and trouble to him.

Instead of this, it's better to let these four ninjas follow him all the time, and then look for opportunities to defeat them one by one.

Eight o'clock in the morning.

Paul's work has ended, so Charlie arranged for him to return to Aurous Hill first, so as not to delay other work in his law firm.

After the convoy sent Paul away, carrying Charlie, Orvel, Liang, Issac, Ichiro and others, left Tokyo directly for Yokohama.

Tenglin and his younger brother followed along in two commercial vehicles. Originally thought that Charlie was just coming to the airport to see Paul off, but unexpectedly, the convoy did not return to downtown Tokyo, but went directly to Yokohama.

So he immediately called Machi Takahashi and reported Charlie's departure from Tokyo.

Machi Takahashi instructed him to continue to follow, not to act rashly for now.

At the same time, Zhifei and Zhiyu had a formal meeting with Machi Takahashi.

They met in the property owned by the Takahashi family in Ginza, Tokyo, and Machi Takahashi enthusiastically invited the two to sit in his office.

Afterwards, he said very religiously: "I wanted to have a simple exchange with the two yesterday, but I didn't expect the accident happened to the boy, so I neglected the two, and please forgive me."

As the eldest son of the Su family, Zhifei took the initiative to smile and said: "Mr. Takahashi is too polite. don't know what happened to Young master's injury?"

Machi Takahashi sighed and said, "He received surgery on his arms and is also put in a cast. It may take some time to recover."

Zhifei nodded lightly, and said politely: "It's a pity that Eiki encountered such a thing. If Mr. Takahashi needs our Su family's help, please don't hesitate, we will definitely go all out!"

Although Takahashi really knew that Zhifei was only being polite to him, he still said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Su for your concern!"

Zhifei smiled and said: "Mr. Takahashi does not have to be so polite. If our two can finally reach a cooperation, then we are each other's strategic partners. Our family attaches great importance to strategic partners, and I communicated with my father last night. On the phone, he is also very concerned about Eiki's body, and he has repeatedly asked you whether it is useful to Su's family. If the Japanese orthopedic doctor is not good enough, he can send several orthopedic experts from Eastcliff."

Machi Takahashi said flatteredly: "That's really thank you Mr. Su, if I have this need, I will speak to you at that time!"

After talking, Takahashi sighed: "The Su family's sincere attitude towards its partners makes the Su family admire, and at the same time more fascinated. If there is a chance to reach a strategic cooperation with the Su family, the Takahashi family will definitely go all out and never disappoint Su's expectations!"

Zhifei nodded lightly and smiled: "That's good! In that case, let's talk about the details of cooperation next."

Takahashi Machi suddenly said with a cold face at this time: "Mr. Su, Miss Su, before we start talking, I want to give our cooperation a temporary precondition!"

Takahashi said sincerely: "Ms. Su, the condition is not to raise the price from the Su family, but to ask the Su family to agree to me and cooperate with us to help completely eradicate the Ito family!"

Chapter 1727

Zhiyu frowned as soon as Takahashi's words were spoken.

She couldn't help but wonder: "Yesterday my dad just said in a video conference that he would unite with one of them and kill the other. Why did Takahashi take the initiative to join us to kill the Ito family?! Isn't it a coincidence? Is it true that Takahashi eavesdropped on the video conference of the family of three last night?"

Zhiyu felt that her speculation was not impossible.

She thought to herself: "Although the bodyguards who accompanied her had been tested when she checked into the hotel yesterday and confirmed that there were no bugs and cameras in the room, this is after all in Tokyo, in the site of Machi Takahashi. If he wants to find a way, it should not be difficult to eavesdrop on me and my brother..."

Zhifei also had some surprises and doubted whether it was tapped by Takahashi.

However, because Takahashi Machi was right in front of him, Zhifei couldn't communicate with his sister, so he winked at her.

Zhiyu nodded quietly, and then asked Machi Takahashi with a calm expression: "Mr. Takahashi, why are you completely eradicating the Ito family?"

Takahashi said furiously: "That d*mn Takehiko has been working against me. If it's just normal business competition, it doesn't matter, but he has risen to the level of personality insult to me and my family!"

With that said, Takahashi Machi told the story of Takehiko Ito sending flowers and fruit baskets yesterday, and calling to mock him.

After speaking out of righteous indignation, he still cursed in annoyance: "This Takehiko, joking with my son, and ridiculing us all, is too much! So I made up my mind when I was in the hospital yesterday. There is him without me, or there is me without him!"

Takahashi is not stupid. He knows that if he rashly offered to join forces with the Su family to destroy the Ito family, the Su family would doubt whether they were being monitored.

Therefore, when he mentioned Takehiko, he deliberately exaggerated his words, and the whole person was extremely angry. The whole performance can be said to have reached the acting skills of a powerful actor.

What he thought was that if the Su family really believed his words, then instead of suspecting that they were eavesdropped on, they would feel more like their natural allies.

In this way, he will definitely become the best candidate for cooperation in the eyes of the Su family.

Zhiyu was indeed relieved when she heard this.

Obviously, she did believe what Takahashi said.

Because all this sounds so natural.

Machi Takahashi's son was injured, and at the same time he became a laughing stock. This in itself already made him very irritated. At this time, Takehiko came to add fuel to the fire, teased him, and irritated him.

Thinking of this, she smiled slightly and said to Takahashi Machi: "Mr. Takahashi, let's talk about cooperation first. As for the matter you just said, if the cooperation itself is okay and everyone can reach an agreement. This matter can also be discussed."

Machi Takahashi immediately said excitedly: "That's really great! Don't worry, Miss Su, I have shown 200% sincerity this time. I believe the Takahashi family must be the best choice for the Su family!"

.....

When Machi Takahashi had detailed negotiations with Zhifei and Zhiyu, Charlie and his party had already arrived in Yokohama and went straight to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's production base in Yokohama.

Qin Gang's medicinal materials had also been delivered two hours ago.

Therefore, Ichiro and Liang began to organize workers at the Yokohama production base to conduct trial production of JX Weisan.

The trial production went very smoothly. At four o'clock in the afternoon, the first batch of qualified JXwei Powder was produced in batches from the assembly line.

After that, Charlie and his party immediately drove to Nagoya, the most important city in central Japan.

When they arrived in Nagoya, it was late.

Chapter 1728

Issac had already booked the best hotels in Nagoya.

Charlie could also detect that the four ninjas who had been following him had followed him all the way to this hotel.

After Charlie and others checked in, Tenglin, headed by the four ninjas, also brought the other three to the front desk of the hotel.

They booked two rooms on the same floor as Charlie.

Moreover, they are very clever to book four different rooms, these four areas are next to two elevators, and the escape stairs at both ends.

Japan is a country prone to earthquakes, so when designing their buildings, they fully considered the issue of escape.

A building with two sets of escape stairs is really rare in other places.

The reason why they want to arrange the room in this way is that they can firmly control Charlie's every move, so that it can also facilitate their monitoring.

As for why not live directly around Charlie, it was mainly because the rooms around Charlie were all covered by Issac's men.

Not long after Charlie rested in the room, he noticed that the breath of the four people was getting closer, and after knowing that they were also living on this floor, he had a plan in his heart.

Tonight, he wants to try the depth of these Japanese ninjas first.

At dinner, Issac's men, Jones Luo and everyone ate the most distinctive local eel rice at the most famous restaurant in Nagoya.

After dinner, Orvel proposed to go to Nagoya's Rong Business District together. Charlie deliberately said: "You go, I want to walk around alone."

Orvel hurriedly said: "Master, we are not familiar with this place in life, you should not act alone, or say where you want to go, we will accompany you."

Issac nodded again and again: "Yeah, Master, let's stay with you!"

Charlie waved his hand and said with a smile: "No one in Nagoya knows me, what are you worried about? Besides, I think I still have some ability to protect myself, so you don't have to worry about it."

When Issac heard this, he knew that Charlie would not let everyone follow him, so he respectfully said: "Master, don't go too far. If you have any needs, remember to call us!"

Charlie nodded: "Okay, you play yours."

After speaking, he walked away alone.

At this time, in a car across the street, Tenglin's junior asked him: "Brother, do you want to follow him?"

Tenglin sneered and said, "He has already checked in at the hotel, and he will definitely go back. He won't run away."

Another junior asked: "Brother, do you mean we don't need to follow?"

Tenglin said: "The follower still needs to follow. I promised Mr. Takahashi not to let him leave the control area, so I will let the fourth child follow him. Let's quickly put a bug in their room."

A man in his thirties sitting in the back row immediately said: "Okay brother, I will follow him!"

Tenglin gave a hum, and said, "You can just follow him far away, but don't lose him. If there is any abnormality, call in time, understand?"

"Understood brother!"

Chapter 1729

The reason why Charlie wanted to leave Issac and Mr. Orvel aside was to find a chance to act alone, so as to try to track these ninjas, how many of them there are.

Moreover, he knew very well in his heart that since the other party had followed him to the hotel, he would definitely think that no matter where he went now, he would definitely return to the hotel.

Therefore, there is a high probability that they will not follow him with four people.

It's not that Charlie was afraid of the other party's group, but he felt that there were only four people who followed all the way from Tokyo. If they were all alone, Machi Takahashi might have no one available.

If you solve all your opponents in one go, the rest of your time in Japan will be boring.

Therefore, Charlie hopes to give them a "break down one by one."

Only by breaking through them one by one can the opponent's fears continue to increase, and the fears of Takahashi Machi can be continuously increased.

When leaving the hotel, Charlie had already noticed that the other party only sent one person to follow him in secret this time.

So, he planned to take this single guy first.

The guy who was alone, named Tenglin Qingtian, was a distant relative of the Tenglin family. He learned ninjutsu from Tenglin Zhengzhe's father when he was young, so he was commensurate with Tenglin Zhengzhe's brother.

Among the four brothers of Tenglin Zhengzhe, although Tenglin Qingtian's strength is not the strongest, but his talent is extremely high, especially very good at concealment and tracking. He debuted for many years and has never been escaped by the other no matter who is being tracked.

Tenglin Qingtian followed Charlie all the way, and followed him away from the downtown area and the residential area with a high density of living. The distance from Charlie was always between one hundred and two hundred meters.

His figure is very hidden, and his aura is very well controlled. People with less strength may not notice that he has been eyeing.

After leaving the city, Charlie went straight to a park by the river.

As it was already night, the weather was cold, and it was in the suburbs, the park was empty.

Seeing that Charlie entered the park he followed him all the way into the park.

But what made him dream of was that Charlie, who had been under his nose, suddenly disappeared after entering the park!

As a master of ninjutsu all year round, Tenglin Qingtian's senses of hearing, sight, smell and touch are much more sensitive than ordinary people. He can hear sounds that ordinary people can't hear; he can also see things that ordinary people can't see.

His most powerful thing is that he is beyond ordinary hearing.

Ninja tracking in the middle of the night relies on hearing the most.

Tenglin Qingtian can hear the sound of crickets crawling in the grass and the movement of ants crawling out of the cave within a radius of two to three hundred meters.

Because of his good hearing, he can hear everyone's breathing and heartbeat within a radius of 500 meters.

When people are hiding, they can stay still or speak, but breathing and heartbeat cannot be avoided anyway. Therefore, it is impossible for ordinary people to escape the surveillance of Tenglin Qingtian.

However, Charlie, who was still within his sight and hearing range, suddenly disappeared without a trace, no footsteps, no breathing, and no heartbeat!

It's not difficult to hold your breath for a short time, but you can't make your heart stop beating, right? This is obviously beyond human control!

This made Tenglin Qingtian suddenly nervous.

Because he realized that this thing is unusual!

He immediately suppressed his breath to the extreme with extreme vigilance, and then remained motionless, carefully listening to the surrounding sounds.

At the same time, he has pulled out two dark shurikens from his arms.

The shuriken is one of the most commonly used weapons by Japanese ninjas. The length of this weapon is about fifteen centimeters. It has symmetrical blades on both sides and a short grip, which looks like a dagger.

Chapter 1730

However, the use of this shuriken is quite different from that of a dagger.

The use of daggers is mostly piercing and cutting, but the use of shuriken is throwing.

In martial arts ninjutsu is sinister and vicious.

Ninjas don't like to compete face-to-face with their opponents. They like to hurt people with dark arrows. It's best if the opponent doesn't find them until death. This is the ultimate ninja pursuit.

They like to use weapons like shurikens, darts, and blow arrows, and they will smear highly toxic substances on the sharp blades, so as to ensure that as long as the opponent is broken by the sharp blade, they will be over.

One minute later, Tenglin Qingtian still did not catch any movement of Charlie!

His hearing almost covers the entire park, and he can also conclude that there is only him alive in this park.

Tenglin Qingtian couldn't help but wonder: "Where did the man go? Did he escape or hide?!"

"If he escaped, how did he escape in an instant? Could he fail to transfer in an instant? Or did he not pay attention just now and be distracted by him?"

"If it is hidden, how can he not move at all for a minute? It is understandable to control his breathing, but it is a bit unrealistic to control his heartbeat?"

If it is the former, most of the responsibility lies with me, and I can't find the other party, so I should go back and report the penalty and pay more attention next time.

But if it is the latter, then the strength of this person is simply unfathomable!

Thinking of this, a cold sweat broke out behind him!

As a result, Tenglin Qingtian gripped the shuriken tighter, and slowly turned his body silently under his feet, carefully staring at the surroundings, for fear that the other party would suddenly appear.

After watching two laps, he was a little relieved to make sure that there were no ghosts around.

When he was about to leave quickly, he suddenly felt that someone patted his left shoulder lightly!

At this moment, his whole body was frightened and his hair exploded, and the whole person turned around like crazy, and the two poisoned shurikens were thrown out behind him with a scream.

However, the sword in the two hands did not hit any target. After flying dozens of meters away, it was firmly nailed to the wall!

d*mn it!

People? !

Tenglin Qingtian was shocked, but he didn't dare to delay his hands. As soon as he stretched out his hand, he took out two swords from the cowhide cover on his waist!

Tenglin Qingtian, holding a shuriken, shouted with fear: "Who is it?! Get out of for me!"

At this time, he felt that his right shoulder was tapped twice!

At this moment, Tenglin Qingtian almost freaked out!

He took a violent step forward when he was crazy, and at the same time turned his head angrily, and threw the sword in both hands again!

However, this time it was still empty!

Behind him, he couldn't even see a ghost!

Tenglin Qingtian was shocked, and hurriedly took out the last two swords in his hands.

At this time, he heard a man behind him sneered: "It seems that ninjas are nothing more than this! It's really disappointing!"

Chapter 1731

Hearing this voice, Tenglin Qingtian's liver and gallbladder were cracked!

This really confirmed the scariest assumption in his heart!

And from the beginning to the end, he didn't hear this person's breathing or heartbeat. How did he do it? !

Moreover, he slapped his shoulder twice, which proved that he was close to his body at least twice, but he didn't even hear anything, not even his footsteps!

At this moment, he subconsciously wanted to turn around and throw out the shuriken, but he was a little worried deep in his heart.

After all, he only has six swords in his hand. Four of them have been thrown out just now, and now the two in his hand are the last two!

What if these two are also on the empty target?

The opponent is right in front of him, and he will never give himself a chance to dig out other weapons. In other words, the sword in these two hands is his last chance.

If you use it rashly, you may put yourself in a situation where you can never recover!

Tenglin Qingtian didn't dare to act rashly, so he could only swallow his saliva nervously, and said with some humility: "You gentleman, you may have misunderstood. I am not a ninja, just a shuriken fan."

"Oh?" Charlie smiled playfully and asked him: "You are not a ninja, so what are you doing with me?"

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: "I didn't follow you, I just finished my dinner at night, come here to practice my shuriken..."

Charlie sneered and said, "Do you think I will believe such a bad reason?"

Tenglin Qingtian said innocently, "I...I...I'm telling the truth..."

Charlie sneered: "If I guessed correctly, you should be a member of the Takahashi family? I now give you a chance to survive and tell me everything exactly. If what you say satisfies me, then I can consider letting you go."

Hearing this, Tenglin Qingtian knew in his heart that denying was no longer useful, and blindly denying it was likely to be a disaster.

Therefore, he can only cower and say: "Sir, I say! I say everything! I was indeed sent by the Takahashi family, and they asked me to follow you all the way from Tokyo to here..."

Charlie asked again: "What is the plan of the Takahashi family? Do they want you to follow me like this?"

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: "No, Mr. Takahashi Machi meant that we should follow you first, and wait for his instructions. He is now negotiating cooperation with a big family from China, so he doesn't want to be out of the question, but wants to wait until after the cooperation is finished. , Let us kill you then."

Charlie nodded and asked, "What is the origin of you four ninjas?"

Tenglin Qingtian said truthfully: "We are all members of the Tenglin family, and the Tenglin family is one of the major ninjutsu families in Japan."

Charlie asked him with interest: "Since your family is a relatively large ninjutsu family in Japan, why should you follow the Takahashi family as running dogs?"

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: "This...actually, the main reason is that in the postwar years, ninjas and samurai have become less and less important. At the same time, the underworld is also rapidly rising, and they are equipped with very powerful heat. Weapon, so our living space is even smaller. In addition to being good at ninjutsu, the entire family has no other skills. It is not good at doing business and Making money, so it can only survive by attaching to the big family..."

Speaking of this, Tenglin Qingtian begged: "Sir, what I told you is all the truth, can you let me go?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Don't worry, I still have questions to ask, you can leave after answering all of my questions."

Tenglin Qingtian's mind turned slightly, and he asked: "Sir, I...can I turn around and talk? I'm so nervous with my back facing you like this..."

Charlie said calmly: "Yes, turn around."

Tenglin Qingtian turned around slowly, and when he turned around, the shuriken in his hand had not been put down.

At the same time, his toes slid gently on the ground, seemingly nothing unusual, but Charlie still noticed the other's intentions.

Tenglin Qingtian's shoes are special ninja shoes, which are not only light and quiet, but more importantly, they hide a short-edged dagger in the sole.

Normal walking and running will not trigger the shoe sole slider to eject the short blade. Only after the slider completes the S-shaped movement, will the short blade eject mechanism be triggered.

This kind of weapon is very common in the era of cold weapons. Even in China a hundred years ago, it was also a necessary hidden weapon for many people to walk the rivers and lakes.

In many film and television works, this hidden weapon has also been shown, but the principle is not revealed. In fact, this s-shaped slider is equivalent to the simplest mechanical code. Others don't know how to trigger it, but the user himself knows it. Obviously, you can be surprised at any time.

Chapter 1732

However, as the thermal weapon became more and more mature, this weapon gradually withdrew from the stage of history.

But unexpectedly, Japanese ninjas are still in use.

The moment he moved the sole of his shoe, he realized that this guy was preparing to unlock the short blade in the ninja shoe.

Even, his toes have completed 80% of the entire S-shape, as long as they move one centimeter in the correct direction at the end, the short blade hidden in the sole will suddenly pierce from the toe!

At this time, Tenglin Qingtian has made up his mind. Once he finds the right opportunity, he first uses the sword in his two hands to attract the other's attention. When Charlie's all attention is on the shuriken, he immediately uses the ninja shoes. The short blade launched an attack.

At that time, the upper and lower sides and the four sharp blades will come out, as long as one of them stabs Charlie, Charlie will undoubtedly die!

Although he explained that he should not kill him for the time being, he felt that Charlie had already threatened his life, and he did not care about Zhenzhi's instructions. The most important thing was to kill Charlie first!

After Maching up his mind, he began to attract Charlie's attention and said, "Sir, if you have any questions, just ask, I will answer truthfully!"

Charlie nodded and asked, "Are you four of you the strongest under Machi Takahashi?"

"Yes."

Charlie frowned, and said with a bit of contempt: "I don't think the four of you are really good at it. Isn't your skill just throwing knives? And you're dying. If you have this skill, In China, no one looks at performing arts on the streets, and you can't keep up with the heat if you eat sh!t."

Feeling humiliated, Tenglin Qingtian blurted out: "Nonsense! My shuriken has always been accurate. Within 100 meters, the wings of flying flies can be cut off!"

Charlie smiled and said, "So powerful?"

Tenglin Qingtian said sternly: "Of course! If you don't believe me, I can show you something!"

Charlie smiled contemptuously: "Come on, start your performance."

Tenglin Qingtian gritted his teeth, realizing that the opportunity is coming, and sneered: "Okay! Then you are optimistic!"

After that, both hands suddenly shook, and the sword in both hands instantly pierced the air and dashed towards Charlie!

Immediately afterwards, he rubbed his feet on the ground slightly, and the two short blades of his toes popped out instantly!

Tenglin Qingtian didn't dare to delay half a minute, and immediately raised his foot and kicked Charlie!

Immediately afterwards, he did not move. He just snapped two fingers with both hands, and then separated two invisible vigor, and slightly pushed the two shurikens that came straight to his door.

Immediately afterwards, the sword in the two hands was like a Chinese character "eight", swiping and flicking it, just passing Charlie!

Tenglin Qingtian was so scared that his face was pale by this strange scene. At this time, he could only hope for the short blade of his toes!

A strong wind blew, and his feet kicked in front of Charlie.

Charlie's expression was indifferent, and he quickly attacked with one hand, and grabbed his ankle tightly.

Tenglin Qingtian looked at the short blade of the toe, and was only a few strands away from Charlie, but Charlie's hand was too strong, and he was completely unable to enter even half a minute!

At this time, Charlie sneered and said contemptuously: "Since you like to hurt people with short blades so much, then I will fulfill you and arrange a happy ending for your life!"

Tenglin Qingtian was frightened and collapsed, and he blurted out and pleaded: "No! Please..."

As soon as the voice fell, he felt a sudden pain in his ankle and knee!

With a crisp click, Tenglin Qingtian saw his calf bend forward from the knee!

He was tortured to collapse by the severe pain, opened his mouth and yelled hysterically: "Ah!!!"

The next moment, his voice stopped abruptly.

The short blade on the toe of his shoe had already pierced into his mouth at this time, and the bloody blade tip came out directly from the back of his neck!

Chapter 1733

The moment Tenglin Qingtian pierced the sharp blade, he felt pain and numbness at the wound, and a sense of weakness spread from the wound to his whole body.

The pain comes from the wound of a sharp blade;

The sense of powerlessness originates from the poison on the blade.

He was already unable to breathe, his face became more and more bruised, staring at Charlie with an expression of horror, and sobbing in his mouth.

Charlie looked at him and asked with interest: "Did you follow me first, how did I do it?"

Tenglin Qingtian nodded desperately.

He didn't want to understand until he was on the verge of dying, why Charlie had such a strong strength, why he could hide everything in front of him in an instant, and why he could make his two-handed sword deviate from the original trajectory.

Charlie smiled slightly at this time and said: "Did you learn physics when you were a child? The transmission of sound depends on vibration. As long as you can control vibration, you can control any sound. No matter how sensitive your ears are, you won't feel it."

Tenglin Qingtian's eyes were full of shock!

Sound transmission depends on vibration, he knows this, but how can people control the vibration of sound? !

Immediately, he looked at Charlie with eager eyes, Making a um ah ah ah sound in his mouth.

Charlie smiled and asked, "Do you want to ask, how did I make your two swords deviate?"

Tenglin Qingtian nodded uncontrollably.

Charlie smiled indifferently: "This is the same principle as how I control the vibration, but this ability is a profound heritage, far from your ninjutsu, so you don't think too much, go on the road."

Tenglin Qingtian's expression was full of shock and regret.

What is shocking is that this man actually has such an inheritance of heavenly skills. Regrettably, he has come to an end in this life, and it is impossible to learn such a heavenly skill.

At this moment, Tenglin Qingtian's face had begun to turn black and purple, and his eyes were staring, almost shooting out of his eye sockets.

And his whole person couldn't stop convulsing suddenly, and his whole person was shaking violently.

The reason for this is also because he himself smeared cyanide on his short blade. This highly toxic substance killed him very quickly and in a tragic manner.

This state continued for about ten seconds, and Tenglin Qingtian lost his vitality and turned into a stiff corpse.

Charlie didn't have any sympathy for the tragic death of Tenglin Qingtian. This man carried so many poisonous weapons with him. God knows how many people he killed with these weapons before. Now, it is best for him to let him eat the consequences.

In other words, this is also his best destination.

Otherwise, if the crime is in the hands of other enemies someday, you may not even be able to keep a whole body.

At this moment, there was a short and slight vibration in Tenglin Qingtian's pocket.

If it weren't for Charlie's extremely keen senses, it would be impossible to detect it.

Astonished, he reached out to touch the inner pocket of Tenglin Qingtian's shirt, and he found a mobile phone.

This mobile phone seems to have specially modified the vibration motor, which greatly shortens the period of vibration and greatly reduces the force of vibration. It is estimated that it is to prevent the mobile phone from revealing its whereabouts when it is hidden.

At this time, a message was displayed on the screen of the phone. After Charlie unlocked the phone with Tenglin Qingtian's finger, he saw a text message with the title Tenglin. The text message contained only two numbers: "07."

Charlie couldn't help frowning, scrolling up the text messages of the two and found that they were all communicating with two digits. Tenglin sent a 03, and Tenglin Qingtian responded with an 11.

Chapter 1734

Charlie speculated that this should be some kind of agreed code between them. Only they themselves know what the different numbers mean, so that they can realize basic communication encryption, even if he has Tenglin Qingtian's mobile phone, There is no idea what the two are passing on.

However, Charlie felt that the 07 sent by Tenglin should really mean to ask Tenglin Qingtian about his situation.

Thinking of this, he gently bends the phone with both hands, and when the phone is powered off, he put the phone back into Tenglin Qingtian's pocket.

Immediately afterwards, he took out his mobile phone and called Issac.

As soon as the phone was connected, he ordered: "Old man, let your hands prepare a light refrigerated car, and then drive to the park on the outskirts of the river."

Issac asked in surprise: "Master what do you want to freeze the car for?"

Charlie said lightly: "A big popsicle of personal flesh."

When Issac heard this, he immediately became nervous, and blurted out, "Master have you been attacked?! Are you okay?"

"Of course okay." Charlie said: "You quickly do as I told you to find a car first, and I will send you the address in a moment."

"OK, Master!"

.....

Tenglin was about to install a bug in Charlie's room. Just to be cautious, he sent Tenglin Qingtian a message to ask him about his tracking, such as where Charlie went and how long it will take to return.

If Charlie can't come back for a while, then he can safely sneak into his room.

However, when the message was sent, Tenglin Qingtian never responded, which made him feel a little uneasy.

The other two juniors were also in his room. Seeing Tenglin Qingtian not responding to messages, everyone looked a little worried.

The four of them have worked closely for so many years and are very familiar with each other. There is no lag in the communication between them under any circumstances. The information is basically returned within seconds, and there has never been a situation where there is no reply for a few minutes.

Tenglin couldn't help muttering: "Could it be that Qingtian was discovered by the other party?"

The second junior brother said: "No, senior brother! The fourth child has the strongest concealment ability. If he gets serious, the three of us together may not be able to find him. How can the subject detect his trace?"

Tenglin waved his hand and said solemnly: "Qingtian hasn't responded to the message for so long. This is obviously very abnormal. Therefore, it is no longer meaningful to discuss his strength. The key is to find him!"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly sent another message to Tenglin Qingtian. The content of this message was the number 10, which means one hundred thousand in a hurry, and he responded quickly!

However, when the message was sent, it still fell to the ground!

He waited anxiously for another minute, but there was still no response.

The expressions of all three people became very ugly.

The Third Junior Brother couldn't sit still, and stood up and said, "Big Brother, go out and look for it!"

"Looking for?" Tenglin smacked his lips: "Where to find? Qingtian has not communicated with us since he separated from us, we don't even know which direction to choose when we leave the hotel!"

The second younger brother blurted out: "What if there is an accident with Qingtian?"

Tenglin said with a black face: "I think with Qingtian's strength, even if it is discovered by the opponent, he can still fight. It may not really be an accident. Maybe it has already started with the opponent!"

After that, he blurted out: "Second, give Qingtian a call!"

Chapter 1735

Tenglin's last hope is to pray that the reason why Tenglin Qingtian didn't reply was that he was following Charlie or was fighting Charlie fiercely.

In short, as long as he is still alive.

The second child picked up the phone and immediately called Tenglin Qingtian.

As a result, a series of prompts appeared on the phone, telling him that the other party's mobile phone might not be able to connect temporarily because of no signal.

He hurriedly said to Tenglin: "Brother, Qingtian's phone cannot be connected..."

"How come..." Tenglin stood up immediately and blurted out: "Qingtian's mobile phone is always on standby all the time, why can't it be connected suddenly..."

The old third looked panicked and said, "Brother, has Qingtian already encountered an accident?"

The second child said with certainty: "There must be a big problem! Otherwise, Qingtian will never be so abnormal!"

After that, he looked at Tenglin: "Brother, we have to find him!"

"Look?" Tenglin's expression was extremely ugly, and he said: "We don't know where to look. If Qingtian really encounters an accident, even if we find him, he may become a corpse. We risk it. If you look for it, you might expose yourself..."

"Then what to do?!" The third asked: "Brother, we can't just sit and wait for death, right?"

Tenglin gritted his teeth and said, "Of course you can't sit and wait! So, you two will go downstairs and watch. I will install a bug in the room. If they come back, tell me immediately."

The second child asked eagerly: "Brother, what is the point of installing a bug now? What we are looking for now is the whereabouts of Qingtian!"

Tenglin said coldly: "If Qingtian really encounters an accident, then only the subject will know his whereabouts. Only by closely monitoring him can we know the whereabouts of Qingtian!"

With that, Tenglin sighed and said: "Second, third, you two must be mentally prepared that Qingtian is not alive..."

The expressions of the two suddenly became indescribable pain.

They are all senior brothers. Although they are not real brothers, they are also members of the Tenglin family. They are distant relatives. They have grown up together, learned ninjutsu together, and have the same siblings. Suddenly they were prepared for this. The two of them were naturally very sad.

However, Tenglin's words are indeed correct.

Nagoya is not very big, but it is definitely not a small city. With the capabilities of the three of them, it is impossible to find a missing person in this city.

The only clue is the Subject they are following. Therefore, all clues and truth must wait for him to return before they can surface.

As a result, the three immediately divided the work and cooperated. The two watched in the entrance hall downstairs of the hotel, and Tenglin sneaked into Charlie's room and installed multiple bugs in the secret location of the room.

.....

Ten minutes later, Issac, one of his subordinates, and the three of them, including Orvel, drove a refrigerated truck to the park where he was.

After the car stopped outside the park, Issac and Mr. Orvel ran all the way to see Charlie standing in front of a black and purple corpse, and the corpse even swallowed his own toes with his mouth wide open, and he was shocked!

Orvel couldn't help asking: "Master, this...who is this person?!"

Charlie said lightly: "A ninja, a member of the Takahashi family."

Chapter 1736

"The Takahashi family?!" Both were shocked.

Issac blurted out: "Master! Is the Takahashi family going to attack you?!"

Charlie nodded: "They want to follow me first, and then find a suitable opportunity to kill me."

Issac gritted his teeth and cursed: "Takahashi family is just as powerful as the Eastcliff Gu family at best, so they have such courage!"

Charlie smiled and said, "People are still very strong at least in this three-acre land in Tokyo."

With that, Charlie asked him: "Has the refrigerated car been found?"

"found it"! Issac said: "We bought a freezer box to transport seafood directly from the seafood market at a high price. We drove over before the car had time to unload the cargo."

Charlie asked: "According to that, the carriage is still frozen, right?"

Issac nodded: "In the car, it is 20 degrees below zero. The fish inside is so hard that it can kill people."

Charlie said with satisfaction: "Okay, you and Mr. Orvel lift this guy up and move it into the car before freezing."

Issac asked hurriedly, "Master what about the Takahashi family? Don't you ask them?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "The Takahashi family sent a total of four ninjas, one dead, and three more. When the four brothers have gathered in the freezer, they will be sent to Machi Takahashi at once. I will give him a big gift!"

The frozen container truck has a quick-freezing function. When the power is fully turned on, the body of Tenglin Qingtian can be frozen into a pile of ice in ten minutes.

Before a few people put Tenglin Qingtian on the freezer container, Charlie took off the cowhide cover that stored the shuriken from him, planning to use it for others.

Afterwards, Charlie told Issac's subordinate who drove: "You first drive the car to a hidden place and park it properly. Remember not to cut off the oil and power of the refrigerated truck. Make sure that the container keeps cooling. I want to send four ice sculptures to Machi Takahashi. Don't look back. People will turn into four piles of rotten meat when they receive it. It won't be good if they give me a bad review. After all, I am an overseas customer and an international friend.

The subordinate nodded quickly and said, "Don't worry, we must arrange this car properly!"

Issac asked at this time: "Master we are going to Osaka next stop. Will this car follow us? Will it be alerted by the other party?"

Charlie said: "In principle, where we go, this car will go wherever we go, but there is no need to follow us closely. If we set off tomorrow, let this car leave before two hours in advance."

Issac nodded immediately: "Okay!"

Charlie waved his hand: "The three of you go back. I will deal with the scene and go back by myself."

Issac asked hurriedly: "Is there anything I can help? Or I will stay!"

"No." Charlie said lightly: "I will go back after I finish handling it. This will also prevent the group of people from seeing the clues."

Seeing this, Issac nodded and said, "Master since this is the case, then I and Mr. Orvel will go back first."

He found all the six-handed swords in Tenglin Qingtian. He did not discard the six-handed swords, but put them all back in the cowhide case and kept them next to him.

Afterwards, the bloodstains on the ground were also cleaned up by him, leaving no traces.

After doing all this, he was alone, walking back to the hotel leisurely.

Chapter 1737

The two juniors of Tenglin were watching around the hotel lobby.

Seeing that Charlie returned to the hotel without incident, they immediately notified Tenglin. At the same time, the two of them were surprised at the same time. This guy seemed to have just gone out for a walk, and could not see anything. Didn't Tenglin Qingtian act with him for the traces of fighting with others? !

The reason why they think so is because both of them feel that even if Tenglin Qingtian's strength is not as good as Charlie, it will certainly not be so weak.

If he has encountered an accident now, then his opponent will be injured a little bit, and it is absolutely impossible to look like nothing happened.

Tenglin, who had already installed several bugs in Charlie's room, quietly walked out of Charlie's room, and then told them on the intercom: "Come to my room!"

In fact, as soon as Charlie entered the door, he noticed the breath of these two people.

After all, they followed him all the way from Tokyo to Nagoya, and he was already familiar with these four people to a certain extent.

Seeing these people waiting for him in the hotel lobby, Charlie knew that they must have a plan.

So he took the elevator back to his room quietly.

As soon as he entered the door, he felt another familiar feeling in the air.

From the inheritance of the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures", Charlie knew that everyone has their own unique aura.

The so-called breath is like the magnetic field in physics.

A big living person, no matter how good he is to hide his figure, if he doesn't have the ability like Charlie, it is difficult to hide his breath.

This is like a running car, no matter how environmentally friendly it is, it will definitely emit a faint exhaust gas, and the exhaust will still be in the air when the car is gone.

However, the smell of exhaust gas can be detected by anyone with a keen sense of smell.

However, the faint breath of a person is easy to dissipate, and unless the sense organs are extremely sensitive, it is impossible to detect it.

Tenglin thought he was hiding well, but he didn't expect that Charlie would have noticed the traces he left as soon as he entered the room.

So Charlie calmly looked around in the room and found several wireless bugs hidden on the back of the furniture, the bottom of the sofa, and the ceiling.

Seeing this, Charlie couldn't help but sneer.

Since these friends even used the wiretap, and he didn't perform a play for them, he is really sorry for their troublesome arrangements.

So he took out his mobile phone and sent a text WeChat message to Issac and Orvel: "My room was tapped. Mr. Orvel will not come to my room for now. Old man will cooperate with me in a show later."

Issac hurriedly sent a text asking him what arrangements he had.

Charlie sent him a bunch of lines he played live, and then sent him a voice: "Old man, come to my room."

After half a minute, Issac knocked on Charlie's door.

When the door was closed, Charlie spoke nervously, "Old man, I feel that Nagoya is a bit weird."

Issac hurriedly followed Charlie's script and asked him: "Master what do you mean by weird?"

Charlie said with some worry: "When I went for a walk just now, I always had a strange feeling, as if someone had been following me."

"No, master!" Issac hurriedly said, "We have already left Tokyo, and we went to Yokohama in the middle, and now we are in Nagoya. Maybe no one will follow us here all the time?"

"It's hard to say." Charlie sighed: "I played that b@stard on the streets of Tokyo. It seems that he has a d*mn background. As the saying goes, strong dragons do suppress local snakes. We go out and provoke the local big family. It's still a little troublesome!"

At this moment, in Tenglin's room, the three of them were already dumbfounded when they heard it on the radio.

The third blurted out: "Brother, I heard what this guy meant, he didn't seem to meet Qingtian directly?"

Tenglin stopped him with gestures, and said: "Keep listening!"

At this time, Issac said again: "Master are you a little too sensitive? I don't feel anyone is following us."

Chapter 1738

Charlie said very seriously: "I always feel that something is wrong. Just now when I was out for a walk, I inexplicably heard someone behind it seemed to be fighting, and there was the sound of weapons colliding, but I looked back, what? There was nothing."

Issac thought for a moment, and said, "Master I think you are still too sensitive. Maybe you have auditory hallucinations."

"It's still not quite right." Charlie smacked his lips: "The movement I overheard was very chaotic. It seemed that several people struck for a while, and then someone struggling and whimpering as if their mouth was covered, waiting for me to follow. When following the voice I came over, there was a pool of blood on the ground, and there was also a shoe. That shoe was f*cking weird..."

Issac said: "Master the blood may be astupidl. As for shoes, what's weird about a shoe?"

Charlie said very seriously: "Do you dare to believe that there is a dmn knife on the toe of that shoe? It's like a fcking movie, it's a d*mn door."

Issac exclaimed: "What? There is a knife on the toe of the shoe? Is this not too weird?!"

In Tenglin's room, when they heard Charlie's words, all three looked terrified!

The second child said with some horror: "Brother, this should be Qingtian's ninja shoes!"

Tenglin also became nervous and frowned, "According to what he said, it is possible that Qingtian was harmed by others?"

The third added at this time: "It is very likely that he is also a ninja!"

On the other side, Issac asked Charlie: "Master do you think this is the legendary Japanese ninja?"

Charlie nodded and said in agreement: "I think it's possible too!"

Issac asked curiously: "Did you happen to see a ninja fighting with a ninja?"

Charlie groaned: "I always think it shouldn't be so coincidental. I feel vaguely in my heart that maybe this matter has something to do with me."

"Can't be?" Issac blurted out: "According to you, is it because someone wanted to mantis catch cicadas at you, and then was followed by other oriole?"

Charlie said: "The ghost knows, it's possible, so I think this place in Nagoya is a bit weird. Let's finish our work as soon as possible and leave as soon as possible!"

Issac snorted and said: "Master I will make arrangements to arrive at the airport in the middle of the night, and the pharmaceutical factory will start trial production in the early morning. As long as the trial production is okay, let's leave this place sooner than planned!"

"Okay." Charlie sighed and cursed in a low voice: "It's f*cking annoying. I have never had to worry about it since I've been in Japan. If I don't withdraw quickly this time, I might have to get involved in the disputes of the big Japanese family."

Having said that, Charlie waved his hand and said: "Okay, you go back and tell everyone to stay alert to avoid Maching mistakes!"

"OK!"

After Issac finished speaking, he left Charlie's room.

At this time, Tenglin was a little confused.

He and his two younger brothers felt that what Charlie said should be true.

There are four reasons.

First, it is impossible for Charlie to retreat unscathed after starting hands with Tenglin Qingtian;

Second, Charlie couldn't detect the bug in the room, so he didn't have to lie in the room and act;

Third, Charlie mentioned Tenglin Qingtian's ninja shoes, and mentioned the short blade hidden in the ninja shoes! This feature is very secretive. With the three of them understanding Tenglin Qingtian, it is impossible for Tenglin Qingtian to use this hand to press the bottom of the box when it is not a last resort and must work hard!

Fourth, Charlie just said that he heard that there were many people fighting, and there was only one person Tenglin Qingtian. If many people were fighting, it would prove that he was ambushed by many people, so this is also right with his sudden disappearance. Ok.

After analyzing all of this, Tenglin gritted his teeth and said: "All of this shows a fact: He was targeted by another group of ninjas!"

Tenglin's second junior brother blurted out and asked, "Brother, who do you think it will be?"

Tenglin thought for a moment, and said seriously: "We have never offended any ninja family on weekdays, so I guess that the one who did it on Qingtian is most likely the enemy of the Takahashi family!"

The third junior slapped his thigh immediately: "d*mn, is it the Ito family?!"

Chapter 1739

At this moment, Tokyo, Japan.

The talks between the two sides can be said to be very in-depth, and both sides are very satisfied with each other.

This is mainly because Zhifei and Zhiyu feel that this person Machi Takahashi is very good, and he does not need to guide him to kill the Ito family himself. He already has this consciousness.

Secondly, it is also because, in order to finalize the cooperation as soon as possible, Takahashi deliberately released a few percentage points of the profit share on the specific cooperation terms.

Zhifei originally wanted to talk about the next three-to-seven cooperation agreement. Whether it was with the Takahashi family or the Ito family, only 30% of the benefits would be given to them.

But what he didn't expect was that Takahashi himself reduced his expected profit share to 25%!

Even Zhiyu feels that the target of this cooperation can basically be finalized, that is, the Takahashi family. As for the Ito family, there is no need for negotiation.

But out of business reputation, the siblings decided to talk to the Ito family before Maching the final decision.

After all, before she came, she had made an appointment with someone from the Ito family, and she couldn't just kick the opponent out before she met.

Therefore, even if they just walked through the scenes, they couldn't let the Su Family talk.

This is the business field.

Even if he has sharpened his knives secretly and is about to slaughter the other person to eat meat, he will still be very polite on the surface, and even call him brothers and sisters.

Machi Takahashi is indeed a smart man.

He knew that the Ito family could never offer better terms than their own. Even if the Ito family could accept a 25% share of the bill, they couldn't take the initiative to propose to the Su family to unite with the Su family to kill.

After all, when doing business in peaceful times, most people are afraid to shout and kill. Even if they have this idea, they are still hiding in their hearts and afraid to speak out.

Takehiko didn't know the malicious plan of the Su Family, and naturally it was impossible to actively cater to their tastes.

But he is different.

He had made a mistake and had known Su's hole cards in advance.

Therefore, he believes that the Su family will eventually choose himself!

By then, the Takahashi family will also become the top presence in Japan!

Just when he was excited about this, he suddenly received a call from Tenglin.

Seeing that it was his call, Machi Takahashi immediately thought of the Chinese man who abolished his son's arms in the street!

This incident is simply the greatest shame the Takahashi family has suffered over the years! Every time he think about it, Takahashi really gets angry!

So he immediately connected the phone and asked in a cold voice, "Tenglin, how is the matter going? Where is that b@stard now?"

Tenglin hurriedly said: "Mr. Takahashi, something has happened to accidents. If I guessed correctly, my junior brother should be dead now, and there is no dead body!"

Chapter 1740

"What?!" Takahashi blurted out in shock: "You mean, Tenglin Qingtian is dead? Who did it?! Is that the Chinese?!"

"No." Tenglin said with a gloomy expression: "There is a high probability that another ninja family did it!"

"Another ninja family?" Takahashi Machi frowned. "Did you provoke anyone?"

"No." Tenglin said: "Mr. Takahashi, our brothers have been doing things for you all these years. Except for your enemies, we have not made enemies outside, so I suspect that the other party should be directed against you!"

"Targeting me?!" Takahashi blurted out, "Who is targeting me? And the other party also used ninjas. It seems that the background is not small!"

Tenglin asked him: "Mr. Takahashi, do you think it is the Ito family? As far as I know, the famous Koga family in the ninja family has always been closely related to them!"

"This" Takahashi was also a little confused.

He didn't know what happened to Tenglin Qingtian and who was killed by him.

So I thought in my heart: "There are not many ninja families in China. Except for the ninjas of the Ito family, the remaining families seem to have no need to be an enemy of me."

"Could it be that the old dog, Takehiko Ito, is also plotting to kill me?!"

At this time, Machi Takahashi, because he originally wanted to kill Takehiko, he felt somewhat preconceived in his heart that Takehiko might also be planning to kill himself!

"It seems that everyone is a swordsman, and they want to put each other to death!"

Thinking of this, he blurted out: "This time the big Chinese family came to Tokyo to meet me first. Takehiko must be furious, maybe he is targeting me!"

"And I guess, he is now waiting to discuss cooperation with the Su family. In order to leave a good impression on the Su family, he dare not directly act on me at this time, so he acted on you first. I estimate Ito's purpose. It is to weaken my strength in advance, and then slowly clean me up!"

Tenglin hurriedly asked, "Mr. Takahashi, what shall we do now?"

Takahashi really thought about it for a long time, gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice: "Tenglin, you have been a little low-key these days, and you will send more people to watch the b@stard secretly and wait for my news. Once I successfully sign the contract with the Su family, I will first Get rid of that b@stard! To snow the shame of my Takahashi family!"

Tenglin immediately said: "Good Mr. Takahashi, I will definitely fulfill my mission!"

Machi Takahashi said again: "In addition, you will mobilize a group of people from your family to rush to Kyoto overnight!"

"Go to Kyoto?!" Tenglin asked in surprise: "Mr. Takahashi, why should I send people to Kyoto?"

Machi Takahashi said coldly: "Takehiko's baby daughter has been recuperating in Kyoto since he was injured. You will monitor her closely. When I started with Takehiko, I didn't want to leave any troubles, so his daughter Nanako must also dead!"

"Furthermore, it is good for me to monitor Nanako in advance. If Takehiko dares to attack me, then I will use his daughter as a threat and force him to dictate him! In this way, I will have double insurance!"

Tenglin immediately said: "I understand Mr. Takahashi, then I will notify the family, immediately arrange for personnel to go to Kyoto, and secretly monitor Takehiko's daughter!"

Machi Takahashi gritted his teeth and said: "Tenglin, you must make sure that as long as I call, your people will immediately kill Nanako!"

Tenglin promised: "Don't worry master, I should go all out!"

Takahashi hummed, and said, "Tenglin, don't worry, after you cooperate with me to destroy the Ito family, I will definitely give you a very generous remuneration, and then a generous settlement allowance for your junior."

Tenglin hurriedly said, "Then I would like to thank Mr. Takahashi in advance!"

Chapter 1741

Aman Hotel Tokyo.

After taking a shower, Zhiyu turned on the laptop in her room, and again, together with her brother, had a video conference with Zynn who was far away in Eastcliff.

The two, brother and sister, truthfully reported Takahashi's huge concession to Zynn, and Zynn was greatly surprised.

In Zynn's view, Takahashi's true knowledge is too high, not only has the determination to kill the Ito family, but also has the consciousness of letting Lee give the Su family and be willing to be a younger brother.

Such a person can be said to be teachable.

Zhiyu said: "Dad, we will meet Takehiko from the Ito family tomorrow as agreed in advance, but I think Takehiko has already lost his competitiveness in this cooperation. The first one really knows better conditions."

Zynn gave a hum, and laughed: "Then go through the cutscene. After finishing the superficial work, you can sign with the Takahashi family, but before signing, you have to go to the major ports in Japan. Take a look at the actual operations of Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagoya and Osaka Ports."

Zhiyu nodded and said, "Don't worry, brother and I have already planned the schedule."

"That's good." Zynn smiled with satisfaction: "I didn't expect Machi Takahashi to be willing to reduce the share to 25%. You must know that your grandfather's psychological price was 30% at the time, and the maximum tolerance limit was 35%. Directly on the basis of his tolerance limit, he cut down 10%. After the contract is signed, your grandfather will be very happy and will definitely give you great credit!"

Zhifei smiled and said, "Dad, if Grandpa really gives us a great credit, can you let him give the entire ocean shipping business to our family?"

Zynn smiled and said, "I will definitely win this business from the Old Master, and I think the probability of the Old Master agreeing is very high. You will do a good job of preparing for cooperation in Japan. Then I will talk to the Old Master. Talk about it, try to let him give this business to your brothers and sisters."

Zhiyu hurriedly waved his hand: "Dad, I don't want to do it, just let Brother take over."

Zynn asked in amazement: "Why? Why don't you want to do such a good opportunity?"

Zhiyu said seriously: "I will go to the United States to study for an MBA after finishing this matter."

Zhifei hurriedly said, "Oh, grandma, you are so talented, what MBA is you still studying? It's a waste of time. It's better to go back to work in the family earlier and lock up some resources in advance!"

Zhiyu shook her head: "Learning is endless. I don't want to come back to work so early, and I am not so interested in family resources."

Zynn hurriedly said: "Zhiyu, you are not too young anymore. It's almost time to consider marriage. MBA is too time-consuming to get through. It's better to get married in two years."

Zhiyu asked back: "Get married? To whom?"

Zynn said: "Your grandpa will naturally help you choose the best one."

"I don't want it." Zhiyu shook her head: "If I let my grandfather choose for me, then I might as well find someone who looks pleasing on the streets of Tokyo and marry casually."

"Stop talking!" Zynn angrily said: "Don't let your grandpa ask you to go to Japan to talk about cooperation, but he will never allow you to marry a Japanese!"

Zhiyu curled her lips and deliberately said to Zynn sullenly: "Who said I was going to marry a Japanese? There are also many Chinese people on the streets of Tokyo, okay? I met one on the way, who was tall and handsome. He's pretty fanciful, I think he's pleasing to the eye, or I can marry him, it's much better than going back and letting my grandfather choose for me."

Zhifei said awkwardly: "Do you know his name?"

Zhiyu hummed: "I'm just making an analogy. It doesn't matter what his name is. I can ask him next time I meet."

Zhifei smiled and said: "I guess there is no chance to see him. With Takahashi's character, he will definitely not let him leave Japan alive."

Zhiyu raised his eyebrows and said: "How do you know that Takahashi can kill him? I think that man is very capable, and Takahashi may not be able to do anything to him."

Zhifei shook his head and said with a smile: "The strong dragon does not hold down the snake. Even if the two fists can beat four hands, they may not be able to beat forty or four hundred hands."

Chapter 1742

Hearing this, Zhiyu's expression became a bit solemn.

What she said just now was just to anger her father, but when she really thought of the figure of that man, Zhiyu was quite worried for him.

Thinking that Machi Takahashi might not let him go easily, Zhiyu blurted out: "Next time I have an interview with Machi Takahashi, I will warn him. If he dares to quietly attack that man after the cooperation is reached, then I terminate cooperation at any time!"

"Naughty!" Zynn sternly scolded, "As the representative of the Su family, everything must be based on the interests of the Su family. How can you let a strange man affect the interests of the Su family?! As long as we can get Machi Takahashi The biggest concession clause, what does the life and death of this strange man have to do with us?!"

Zhiyu also moved a bit of anger, and argued for reason: "The man offended the Takahashi family to save a little girl from bad boys. How can I let the Takahashi family kill him?"

Zynn said disdainfully: "When the Takahashi family kills him, don't you just look at it?"

Zhiyu said angrily: "Dad! How can you do this?! Are there any principles and ethics?"

"Principles and ethics?" Zynn said coldly: "My principles and ethics are for the interests of the Su family! For the interests of the Su family, I don't need any principles and ethics!"

"I..."

Zhiyu was speechless.

Zhifei hurriedly finished the game at this time: "Dad, Zhiyu, we haven't finished talking about our business, why are you two still arguing?"

Zynn said with a gloomy expression: "Okay, don't talk about these meaningless things, Zhiyu, you're going to study the MBA, let's discuss it after you come back."

"No need to discuss." Zhiyu said with a very cold expression: "The admission notice of Harvard Business School has been sent to my mailbox. School starts in August, and I will leave in May."

"You kid!"

Zynn was about to say something. Zhifei just received a call on his cell phone. The call was from an assistant who came to Tokyo with them.

The other party said in WeChat: "Young Master the patriarch of the Matsumoto family in Tokyo, Ryoto Matsumoto begs to see you and the young lady at the hotel reception!"

"The Matsumoto family?" Zhifei frowned, "Is the Matsumoto family ranked third in Tokyo?"

"Yes!"

Zhifei looked at the video conference interface on the computer and asked, "Dad, Zhiyu, the Matsumoto family's man, want to see us, do you want us to meet?"

Zynn said disdainfully: "As far as I know, the strength of the Matsumoto family is much worse than that of the Takahashi family and the Ito family. We only need to choose between the Takahashi family and the Ito family. There is no need to waste energy planting garbage."

Zhifei said to the assistant on the phone, "Reject the Matsumoto, just say that I have taken a break and I will not see guests."

Zhiyu opened his mouth at this moment: "Brother, let's see. This Ryoto Matsumoto still has some abilities. It is really not easy to bring the Matsumoto family together on his own, and as the saying goes. The smiley man, the patriarch of a family came to the hotel to see you personally. This has already put the figure very low. If we don't even see him, it will be more or less justifiable."

Zynn opened his mouth at this time: "Zhiyu, you like to think more about things. This is good, but you can't think about everything so much. It will be too late! If you see this Ryoto Matsumoto tonight, maybe tomorrow The 4th, 5th, and even the 40th and 50th families in Tokyo will come to the hotel to ask to see you. Can you handle it?"

Zhiyu nodded: "Okay"

Chapter 1743

The lobby of the Aman Hotel.

Ryoto Matsumoto, who is not yet forty years old, is looking forward to meeting with the Su family.

He personally came to the hotel to meet the Su family this time, hoping to use a humble attitude to seek an opportunity to interview the Su family.

Although the strength of the Matsumoto family is not as good as that of Takahashi and Ito, Ryoto Matsumoto feels that his ability is not weaker than anyone, and he is young and bold. He is definitely the ideal partner for the Su family.

However, the Matsumoto family had insufficient precipitation in the early years, and it was far from the Takahashi and Ito families.

Although Ryoto Matsumoto resolutely led the Matsumoto family to develop rapidly and catch up with them, there was still some distance from them.

In fact, the Matsumoto family can be said to be the fastest rising family in Tokyo.

Ten years ago, it was unknown. Today, ten years later, it is second only to Takahashi and Ito. This speed is regarded as a miracle to the outside world.

Therefore, Ryoto Matsumoto believes that as the head of the family, he came to the hotel to ask for a meeting in person, which definitely gave the Su family a lot of face.

However, he didn't know that in the eyes of the Su family, the strength of the Matsumoto family was about half that of the Takahashi family or the Ito family, so the Su family naturally wouldn't take him in their eyes.

At this time, Ryoto Matsumoto is full of confidence. He is a recognized business genius in Japan, a young and rich man who has the real ability to fight the world, so he thinks that the Su family should give him a chance to have an interview, and he will definitely use it. Their eloquence and vision convince them to cooperate with them.

Ryoto Matsumoto's assistant was somewhat apprehensive, and said, "Boss, do you think the Su family will be willing to cooperate with us?"

Ryoto Matsumoto tidied up his suit and tie, and said confidently: "When I meet in a while, I will use my abilities and charm to make the Su family realize that my Ryoto Matsumoto is their most perfect partner! As for Takehiko Ito and Machi Takahashi, they are just a bunch of old men with outdated thinking and worrying abilities!"

As soon as the voice fell, Su's assistant made a call to the front desk.

The little girl at the front desk answered the phone and immediately came to Ms. Matsumoto, bowed and said: "Mr. Matsumoto, I'm really sorry, Mr. Su and Ms. Su don't have time to see you, please go back."

Ryoto Matsumoto was stunned, and after a while, he asked in a daze, "What are you talking about? They don't have time to see me?!"

The little girl at the front desk nodded slightly and said, "It is true, so please go back."

Matsumoto immediately felt hot on his face!

I am also the patriarch of the Matsumoto family anyway, and a leader among young Japanese entrepreneurs. Those who came to the hotel to meet with the Su family in person can say that they have put their identity very humble.

But I never dreamed that even though I came to see them so humbly, I would still receive the most ruthless and direct insult from the other party!

"No time?!"

"Just let me go if they don't have time?!"

"The Su family is too arrogant, even too much, right?!"

"Even if you are China's top family, even if you do have very good big projects, you can't put my face on the ground, right?!"

"What's more, if you step on my face, you don't step on it yourself, let a hotel front desk step on it. Where do you put my face?!"

Thinking of this, Ryoto Matsumoto had a dark face and said coldly to the front desk: "Contact them again and tell them that I am the patriarch of the Matsumoto family and the president of the Tokyo Young Entrepreneurs Association. I came here today just to see the young master and young lady of the Su family, so that they must take time to talk to me once!"

Chapter 1744

The front desk was frightened by his hideous expression, and he said falteringly: "You gentleman, I'm really sorry! The assistants of the two distinguished guests have clearly told us that the two distinguished guests really don't have time to see you, so please don't embarrass us..."

Ryoto Matsumoto's original strong self-confidence was instantly crushed by the powder hit by the front desk girl!

He cursed almost hysterically, "My name is Ryoto Matsumoto, not 'You gentleman'! Do you understand?"

The girl at the front desk took a few steps back in fright: "I'm really sorry, Mr. Matsumoto, I'm just passing on the reply from the guest. Please forgive me..."

These people whispered in twos and threes. Although they couldn't hear what they said, from their expressions, Matsumoto could see that they were all laughing at him!

He has always been arrogant, thinking that he is in the top spot among young Japanese companies in terms of ability.

Unexpectedly, he took the initiative to come to see them, but the other party didn't bother to see him!

This made Matsumoto very resentful in his heart.

Ryoto Matsumoto clenched his fists and gritted his teeth, and his entire popularity trembled violently.

The more confident and conceited people are, the worse their psychological endurance.

The more people feel that everyone has to look at them, the more afraid of being looked down upon by others.

Ryoto Matsumoto is the most typical example.

At this time, he was angered to the extreme in his heart, but he couldn't find a source to vent.

And his blushing appearance made the people around him despise the sarcasm.

Although many people may not have the strength and wealth of Mr. Matsumoto, they see Mr. Matsumoto making a fool of himself in the public, and they are still very dark in their hearts.

Seeing that everyone was laughing at him, Matsumoto's assistant hurried forward and said in a low voice, "Boss, let's go first, in case someone has something good take out their phone and shoot the video and put it on the internet. It's hard to deal with the impact of..."

Matsumoto gritted his teeth and nodded lightly.

The moment he turned and left, he felt the whole world laughing at him behind his back.

Bite the bullet and return to his car, Matsumoto immediately urged the driver to drive as soon as he got in. He was afraid that he would walk slowly, and would make people laugh, for fear that the ridicule of those people would fall into his ears.

The assistant could not help but persuade him: "Boss, the Su family must feel that our overall strength is still much worse than that of Takahashi and Ito, so they are regarded as cooperation options and do not want to waste time with us, but this must be their loss!"

Matsumoto was silent for a long while, with bloodshot eyes, gritted his teeth and said, "Want to choose between Takahashi and Ito? Very good! Since they don't want the face, don't blame me for being cruel! This time, it happened to be. I have a great opportunity to surpass Takahashi and Ito in one fell swoop!"

The assistant asked in surprise: "Boss, you...what do you mean by this? Why can't I understand..."

Mr. Matsumoto said in a cold voice with a vicious expression: "You don't need to understand, just do as I tell you!"

The assistant immediately said: "Boss, just give your orders!"

Ryoto Matsumoto said coldly: "The first thing, I write a check for 20 million. You take it to the head of the Iga family and tell him that it is only a deposit. If he is interested, come to the house. We will talk, if he is not interested, the money will be my gift to him!"

Chapter 1745

The Kobayashi Pharmaceutical production line in Nagoya has soon been able to produce qualified Weisan.

This is mainly because Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals itself is a top pharmaceutical company in Asia, with very advanced production lines, even more advanced than those of JX Pharmaceuticals back in China.

Therefore, their production line switched to JX Weisan, as long as the formula and medicinal materials are in place, there is almost no difficulty.

After the production line went into normal operation, Charlie left Nagoya and headed to Osaka together with the group of people.

Because there is Kyoto between Nagoya and Osaka, according to Charlie's original plan, after Nagoya's affairs are over, he plans to go to Kyoto and see Nanako.

However, there are three ninjas following all the way right now, and he doesn't want to bring these three people to Kyoto.

So, he planned to solve these three people in Osaka, and after all the troubles are dealt with, he will go to see Nanako.

After making this decision, he felt somewhat regretful.

He thought he could see Nanako earlier, but he didn't expect to wait until the end of the trip to Japan this time.

Charlie was more worried about her body, and didn't know how she was doing now.

They doubled the distance to follow Charlie, and were completely afraid to approach him. On the one hand, it seemed that they were throwing a rat for the unknown whereabouts of Tenglin Qingtian, and on the other hand, because they could not figure out who was secretly targeting them. So were more cautious.

The convoy drove onto the expressway and passed by Kyoto.

No one knows that the seemingly calm and quaint ancient city of Kyoto at this time has actually been feeling undercurrents.

Machi Takahashi felt that Takehiko was secretly targeting him, so Tenglin transferred a group of ninjas from the family, who had already lurked to Kyoto secretly, and closely monitored the Ito family's residence in Kyoto.

Once Machi Takahashi orders them, they can kidnap Nanako or kill her directly.

And Takehiko Ito was unaware of these at this time. At this time, he was meeting with Zhifei and Zhiyu in Tokyo.

However, the meeting process was not pleasant.

Although Takehiko is very enthusiastic, he can also see that Zhifei and Zhiyu seem to have come and walk through the scene.

Although the two brothers and sisters are also very polite and serious, and they talk very comprehensively, Takehiko always feels that, deep in their hearts, they are not very concerned about this cooperation.

At the meeting, he proposed to obtain a 35% share in the cooperation. Originally, he wanted to leave 5% room for a counter-offer to the other party, and it would basically be possible to reach a consensus by letting the other party press down to 30%.

However, he did not expect Zhifei to directly throw a sentence: "Mr. Ito, from the opinion of our Su family, if it is higher than 20%, we can't think about it."

"what?!"

Takehiko was immediately stunned, and exclaimed in his heart: "20%? This is too d*mn dark!"

Chapter 1746

Zhifei has his own consideration.

In the view of the Su family, Machi Takahashi has two advantages compared with Takehiko: first, he wants to kill the Ito family; second, he is willing to reduce the share to 25%;

Therefore, looking at Takehiko now, he thinks that Takehiko must be at least equal to Takahashi's two points, and the other point is better than Takahashi's conditions.

The first is to kill the Ito family, which is already an extreme request.

Whether it is asking the Takahashi family to kill the Ito family or asking the Ito family to kill the Takahashi family, as long as it is killed, it will be the ultimate.

Therefore, even Takehiko is willing to join hands to kill the Takahashi family. At this point, he is only equal to Machi Takahashi.

In this way, unless he can get more favorable terms than Machi Takahashi's expulsion on the second article, there is no need for the Su family to consider it.

That's why he offered a 20% share. If Ito agrees, then persuade him to agree to join forces to kill the Takahashi family. In that case, he won another 5% interest for the Su family.

However, as soon as Takehiko heard about 20%, he couldn't stretch himself immediately.

He was very angry and secretly thought: "I want 35%, you give me 20%, and he said that if it is higher than 20%, it will not be considered, and there will be no room for bargaining. This is too much, right?"

"This matter requires me to take advantage of my own domestic port and let you foreign capital come in to make money, but you only let me account for only 20%. Isn't it a bit deceptive?!"

Thinking of this, Ito's anger rose in his heart. He said coldly to Zhifei: "Mr. Su, 20% is too low. I admit that the Su family is strong and there are many ocean-going ships in hand, but you can't do that either to squeeze me this hard?"

Zhifei said seriously: "Mr. Ito, the squeeze is far from talking, but we do have a lot of initiative now. Japan's economy is now declining. It is difficult for you to do this business at this stage. You want to earn this money, only cooperate with us."

After a pause, Zhifei said: "Although the 20% is less, after the business is running, the amount of this piece is still very large. If we make 10 billion USD a year, the Ito family can share 2 billion. , What is the concept of two billion USD? I believe it is impossible for the Ito family to have so much profit in a year, right?"

Takehiko shook his head and said, "Mr. Su who does not calculate the account like this. If I do this by myself, although I may not make an annual profit of 10 billion USD, the problem of doing more than 1 billion is not big. If you work hard by yourself, maybe you can achieve the scale of two to three billion. If you look at it this way, am I not at loss?"

Zhiyu spoke with a bit of arrogance at this time: "Mr. Ito, you just said that you might be able to achieve the scale of two or three billion USD with your hard work. In my opinion, it is impossible."

Takehiko Ito frowned and asked, "Why is it impossible? My family is one of the best in Japan!"

Zhiyu smiled and said with a bit of pressure: "To be honest, if the Su family is not ready to do this business, you may have this opportunity, but since the Su family is going to enter the market now, then the Su family is there. It is certainly impossible for you to do such a large scale, and even the Su family may not allow you to do this business."

Takehiko's pride was hit hard.

He did not expect that Zhiyu, who had never spoken very much, could speak so directly!

It can even be said that they don't give any face to Takehiko!

Feeling the shock, Ito's unconvinced emotions burst instantly. He gritted his teeth and said coldly: "If this is the case, then there is no need to talk about it. The Ito family will operate this business by themselves! You will see with your own eyes how I do this business!"

Zhiyu smiled slightly: "Mr. Ito, then I wish you good luck!"

Chapter 1747

On the way back to the hotel, Zhifei asked Zhiyu: "Zhiyu, I just planned to flicker Takehiko, and see if he can agree to the 20% ratio. Why did you suddenly turn your face with him?"

Zhiyu smiled slightly and said, "20% is obviously lower than the lowest price he can afford, so no matter how you talk to him today, he will not be able to agree to this ratio. If you really want to force him, you must give him enough pressure."

Zhifei asked: "Do you have any good ideas?"

Zhiyu said: "You call Machi Takahashi, saying that you plan to sign a contract with him tomorrow, but before signing the contract, you have to talk to him about the details. The time is set to be tomorrow morning."

Zhifei asked: "How do you say? It's so decided. Give them a contract?"

"No." Zhiyu said indifferently: "I plan to sign the contract, but the details have to be finalized. We can just find a reason and say at that time. There are some details that need to be discussed again, and I can move the signing date later. Right?"

While speaking, Zhiyu said again: "If you let the wind go now, Takehiko will definitely be very anxious. If not tomorrow, he will lower his posture and take the initiative to talk to us again."

Zhifei nodded and said, "Okay, then listen to you, I'll call Machi Takahashi!"

Machi Takahashi received a call from Zhifei. When he heard that the Su family was about to sign a contract with him, he was so excited!

Later, while arranging his staff to prepare for tomorrow's signing ceremony, he let people go out and told the whole of Tokyo that the Su family was ready to sign with him.

This news immediately spread among the Tokyo business elite.

Countless people called and sent messages to congratulate Machi Takahashi, because they believed that once the Takahashi family and the Su family cooperate, the Takahashi family will surely surpass the Ito family and become the first family in Japan!

Takehiko also received the news very quickly. He was still angered, but after hearing the news, he almost went out of anger.

He did not expect that as soon as the news came out, the Takahashi family would become a hot target.

Now, the entire Tokyo city is beginning to chase Machi Takahashi, who regards Machi Takahashi as the future richest man in Japan, immediately let Takehiko realize the meaning of Zhiyu's previous words.

If the Su family united with the Takahashi family, he would definitely not have a bright future.

If this were the case, the Ito family seemed unscathed, but actually suffered heavy losses.

In the past, he was able to equalize with the Takahashi family, but if this cooperation is lost, the Takahashi family will quickly leave him behind.

At that time, all the aura on him will be robbed by Machi Takahashi.

The invisible loss is almost immeasurable!

Takehiko, who was extremely bored, shut himself in the room and thought about it all afternoon.

In the end, after nightfall, he reluctantly made a decision and called Su family to try to talk again.

If it doesn't work, I will directly agree to the 20% cooperation terms of the Su family.

At this moment, Zhiyu and Zhifei had just finished eating in the revolving restaurant on the top floor of the hotel. After the two returned to their rooms, Zhiyu was going to take a bath first.

At this time, the door bell rang, and she saw from the LCD screen that her brother was knocking on the door, so she opened the door by hand.

Zhifei stood at the door, holding his mobile phone, and said with a smile: "Zhiyu, you are a god! Takehiko just called me!"

Zhiyu leaned on the door frame and asked with a smile, "What did he say?"

Chapter 1748

Zhifei said excitedly: "He means he is willing to consider our proposals and conditions, but he still hopes to have a face-to-face talk. What do you think?"

Zhiyu said, "I think it's okay. Call him back and ask him to come to the hotel to talk to us early tomorrow morning. If the talk is good, we will cooperate with him. Machi Takahashi won't be there. Let's talk again; if the talks are not good, we will go directly to sign the contract with Machi Takahashi!"

"Okay!" Zhifei said eagerly: "I'll call him back!"

As soon as Zhifei's voice fell, four black-clad ninjas suddenly rushed down from the ceiling of the hotel corridor?!

Zhiyu and Zhifei hadn't had time to react, they were already subdued.

Zhiyu roared in horror: "Who are you?!"

One of the masked ninjas said coldly: "Miss Su, I'm Mr. Ito's subordinate. I have something to do with you, so please cooperate!"

"What?!" Zhiyu and Zhifei were both dumbfounded!

Zhiyu was horrified, and thought to himself: "Takehiko just called and said that he was going to negotiate with them again. Why did he send ninjas to them in a blink of an eye?!"

"Could it be that his renegotiating is false and the kidnapping is true?"

Zhiyu hurriedly blurted out: "You people, is there any misunderstanding in this? We are just about to renegotiate the meeting with Mr. Ito. What are you doing?"

The man grinned: "Ms. Su, ask what you should ask, don't ask what you shouldn't, just walk with us, we won't kill you, but if you want to resist, or use some tricks If you do, I'm sorry, I will let you two die in Japan!"

Zhiyu realized that something might be wrong, and blurted out: "You people, if it's about money, you can speak as much as you want. No matter who you are instructed, I can give you double or even triple four times the price!"

The man sneered and said, "Sorry, we ninjas always pay attention to credibility, so I ask Miss Su and Mr. Su to cooperate!"

Having said that, he immediately winked at the two people around him!

The two men immediately took out two special handkerchiefs from their pockets.

A large amount of ether was spilled into the handkerchief.

Immediately afterwards, the smell of a chemical potion puffed up the nose, making the two of them immediately unconscious!

Afterward, the two ninjas carried the two siblings on their shoulders, tied them firmly with straps, and threw the downhill rope directly from the window of the hotel room, leading them to slide down the ground from the wall as light as a swallow.

Outside, two commercial vehicles had been waiting for a long time. After the black-clothed ninja carried the unconscious Su brother and sister into the vehicle, the two commercial vehicles drove away from the scene quickly!

This series of kidnappings was nothing short of passing, and no one in the entire hotel knew that the Su members had been abducted!

What is even more frightening is that more than a dozen people from the Su family have been poisoned to death in their respective rooms at this time.

It was the military sarin gas used by this group of ninjas that kill them.

This poisonous gas is a military chemical weapon. In 1995, someone used this highly poisonous chemical weapon to cause a terrorist incident on the Japanese subway.

After sarin gas invades the human body through the respiratory tract or skin and mucous membranes, it can cause the death of the victim in a very short time, and the lethal dose is even only 10 mg.

After the two cars drove quickly away from the hotel, the man in the car took out his mobile phone and made a call: "Mr. Matsumoto, the people have been caught, and all the other people in the Su family have died. In their room, secretly, we left the exclusive mark of the Tenglin family!"

On the phone, Matsumoto's excited voice came: "Very good! Very good! You will take them to Kyoto to wait for my orders, kill them when needed, and hide their bodies in the Ito family's mansion in Kyoto! After the death of Su's family's grandchildren and eldest granddaughter, Takehiko's death is unclear! However, there was an exclusive imprint of the Tenglin family on the scene. Ito will definitely think that all of this is the fault of Takahashi, grandson. The family will definitely send someone over to avenge their heirs. Here will be a good show!"

The hotel quickly discovered the anomaly.

It was the guests downstairs who first discovered the problem. They found that there were two ropes outside the window, so they informed the hotel reception.

The front desk of the hotel found Zhiyu's room directly according to the room number found by the rope.

When they found that Zhiyu's room was empty and the scene was a bit messy, the person in charge of the hotel immediately panicked!

The Su brothers and sisters are not only their distinguished guests, but the Su family is also one of the shareholders of Aman Hotel Group. Naturally, they dare not neglect any such thing.

Soon after, they came to the room of Su's entourage, looking for someone to ask what happened.

Unexpectedly, besides the corpse in the room, there was nothing!

The death is terrible!

The hotel manager was so scared on the spot that his legs were soft, and he sat on the ground with a puff, and then he wetted his crotch!

In the hotel he managed, more than a dozen people died at once, all of them from the Su family!

Even more desperate is that Zhifei and Zhiyu two brothers and sisters have disappeared!

They are definitely the two most outstanding of the Su family's generation!

Unexpectedly, they were kidnapped in the hotel he managed!

If the Su family held him accountable, it would be hard for him to die!

He hardly dared to delay, and while letting people call the police, he called his boss, the chairman of the Aman Hotel Group.

He wanted to notify the Su family's situation immediately, so as not to blame the Su family for not reporting in time.

However, in his capacity, he was not qualified to directly contact the Su family, so he could only call the boss, and the boss would relay it on his behalf.

The chairman of Aman Hotel Group was in Dubai at this time. After hearing this, he almost suffered a heart attack on the spot!

Zhifei and Zhiyu were kidnapped in their hotel?

This is simply a great disaster!

What if the two of them really have a shortcoming, the Su family can't destroy him? !

So he immediately called Zynn who was far away in Eastcliff!

After hearing the report, Zynn's blood pressure surged and he almost passed out.

Fortunately, he was rescued in time, and fortunately, there was no serious problem.

However, when they heard that Zhifei and Zhiyu were kidnapped in Japan, the whole Su family was extremely angry!

Mr. Su immediately let all the hermit masters of the Su family fly to Tokyo overnight, and issued two consecutive iron orders:

The first is to dig three feet of land in Tokyo, but find and rescue Zhifei and Zhiyu alive!

Second, find out who is behind the scenes, and if the Su family owns it, they must also punish the whole clan!

Chapter 1750

An hour later, the two private jets took off one after another at Eastcliff International Airport, and nearly 100 top masters from the Su family were dispatched to Tokyo!

At this time in Tokyo, undercurrents are already surging under the calm surface!

After the police in Tokyo learned about this, they were so scared that they blew up the pot!

They know that this kind of killing more than a dozen people and kidnapping two people is not only extremely bad in nature, it is more likely to rise to an international incident!

As a result, the Tokyo police immediately blocked the Aman Hotel, and officers from the Investigation Section were searching for all valuable clues inch by inch.

They first found the mobile phone that Zhifei left behind in Zhiyu's room, and found the call records between him and Takehiko, and then in the room of Su's entourage, they found a ninja dart with the Tenglin family totem.

As soon as these two clues came out, the Tokyo police became even more powerful!

The director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department (TMPD), who came to supervise the scene personally, paled in shock after receiving these feedback.

He looked at the technicians below and asked loudly, "Are you sure that both the Ito family and the Takahashi family are suspected?!"

The police chief in charge of the on-site investigation blurted out: "Director, there is a gossip that both Ito and Takahashi are trying their best to reach cooperation with the Su family, but the Ito family seems to have fallen behind, so they have done something to the Su family. Motivation, and the ninja darts of the Tenglin family were discovered at the scene, and the Tenglin family is under the Takahashi family, so this incident may be the Takahashi family arguing for the Ito family. In short, there are suspicions for both sides... .."

The chief of the TMPD wanted to cry without tears, and blurted out: "Just the news of the deaths of a dozen people is likely to make a global sensation, not to mention the use of sarin to kill people, this can be regarded as a terrorist attack! It turns out that the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of China's first family is kidnapped. Now you tell me that Master behind the murderer may be one of the two largest families in Japan. How can this case be solved?"

The other party also said helplessly: "Director, I don't want to make the case so troublesome, but the evidence chain of the case is like this, and our top priority now is to find out the two members of the Su family. If they are dead, and our TMPD will definitely become the laughing stock of the world!"

The chief of the TMPD angrily said: "Let all the police in Tokyo move! Even if you dig the entire Tokyo three feet, you must find people for me!"

The TMPD's battle was so big that the entire Tokyo metropolis suddenly exploded.

The first to receive news was the big family in Tokyo.

Takehiko had not received Zhifei's reply, so he took the initiative to call him. After calling him a few times and no one answered him, he immediately sent someone to find out the situation. When he heard the news, he was struck by lightning.

He couldn't understand, who was so bold that he dared to do something to the Su family.

Although he knew that before Zhifei was kidnapped, he had just talked to him on the phone, but after all, he hadn't done anything extraordinary, so he had a clear conscience, and he didn't expect this matter to have anything to do with him.

However, after Machi Takahashi heard about this, he was immediately confused.

Zhifei had already said that he would sign a contract with him tomorrow morning, but was suddenly kidnapped with his sister? Isn't this a good thing or bad for himself?

When he thought of this, the first suspect he thought of was Takehiko!

This is not only because the Ito family is its biggest competitor, but also because of the death of Tenglin Qingtian, it is highly suspected that it has something to do with Takehiko!

The unclear death of Tenglin Qingtian gave Takahashi a feeling of being watched. Now that the Su brothers and sisters have been kidnapped again, he has naturally attributed it to Takehiko.

Thinking of this, he suddenly became nervous!

Ito can kill more than a dozen people from the Su family and kidnap the Su family siblings, maybe he will do it on himself too!

So many people in the Su family have been killed, which proves that the manpower of Takehiko's organization is very strong, and he must strengthen his safety protection!

So he immediately called Tenglin, who was monitoring Charlie, and said nervously as soon as he opened his mouth: "Tenglin, the three of you come back to Tokyo quickly, come back now!"

Tenglin asked in surprise: "Come back to Tokyo now? Mr. Takahashi, don't we need to follow the subject?"

Machi Takahashi blurted out: "You can't take care of him anymore. The b@stard Takehiko is probably the one who tied the Su family. This time I'm afraid I'm going to die! Come back and protect me!"

Chapter 1751

This time he went out, he still did not let Issac and others follow.

The reason was that he wanted to take advantage of this time and directly eliminate the remaining three ninjas who were following him.

Because Osaka was already the last stop of the business on his trip to Japan, he wanted to quickly get rid of these three followers, and then hurry up to visit Kyoto.

He deliberately led the three of Tenglins to leave the downtown area, preparing to find a suitable place to start.

However, what he didn't expect was that the three people who had been quietly following him two or three hundred meters away suddenly began to turn their heads and walk back.

Charlie couldn't help but wonder: "What's the matter? They are not following me anymore, are they aware of something?"

"But it shouldn't be. I alone did not show any intention to attack. I have even been completely ignorant of their existence. They have no reason to notice anything abnormal.

"Is it because they are in a hurry? Or is it that Takahashi gave up letting them follow me?"

Thinking of this, Charlie sighed, turned around, and started following these three people in turn.

He didn't want to leave any hidden dangers for himself. After all, these ninjas have been with him for so long. If he let them go like this, the ghost knows if they will come back again?

Even, the ghosts knew that after they left Japan, they would follow him to Aurous Hill to make trouble for him there?

So, today, let these three people keep their lives!

Tenglin never thought that Charlie would follow them in turn. He always felt that Charlie should not have noticed their existence, so now he took the two juniors and ran all the way to the hotel.

It's getting late now. It's impossible to get from Osaka to Tokyo by Shinkansen or airplanes, so the best way is to drive all the way.

If you drive fast, you can reach Tokyo in five or six hours.

Therefore, they have to go back to the hotel to pick up the car, and then set off quickly to Tokyo.

The three people walked in a hurry all the way and arrived at the hotel quickly.

At the entrance of the hotel, Tenglin said: "Second, you come to the room with me to pack things, and third, you go to the basement to pick up the car and wait at the entrance of the hotel. We will come down and meet you soon!"

"Okay!" The old third nodded, and the three men were divided into two groups. The two used the elevator to go upstairs to the room and simply packed the soft and monitoring equipment, and one took the elevator to the underground garage to pick up the car.

As soon as Tenglin entered the elevator, he hurriedly called to report to Machi Takahashi.

As soon as the phone call, he hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Takahashi, we will leave for Tokyo in five minutes, and we are expected to arrive in more than four hours! Please stay at home during these few hours. , Wait for everything to be said after we arrive."

Takahashi said in a panic: "Tenglin, I asked someone to inquire about it. It is said that the other party's methods are very fierce, and even the sarin gas is used. This is a f*cking lunatic! I am afraid of them now. Start with me, how many masters does your Tenglin family have in Tokyo? Quickly let them all come to my house to protect me!"

Tenglin hurriedly said: "Mr. Takahashi, we don't have much manpower available in Tokyo now, because the remaining manpower has been sent to Kyoto and is observing Nanako. Should I tell them to rush back?"

Machi Takahashi hesitated for a moment, and then said: "No need! Leave them in Kyoto! As long as they can control Nanako, I still have the capital to mediate with Takehiko! You can't put all eggs in the same cage!"

Tenglin immediately said: "Okay, then the three of us will come back first. We must protect your safety!"

At the same time, Tenglin's third junior brother also got out of the elevator on the second basement floor and rushed all the way to the front of the car.

As soon as he unlocked the door to get into the car, he felt a sudden force grabbing his neck directly from behind!

Immediately afterwards, he saw someone using a shuriken to withstand his throat!

Moreover, he knows this shuriken! It is what his little brother Tenglin Qingtian owns!

He murmured in panic in his heart: "Could it be that this person is the one who killed the younger brother?!"

He was shocked and blurted out: "Big brother for your life! Don't kill me!"

Charlie said coldly: "If you want to survive, just do as I say!"

Chapter 1752

He hurriedly nodded his head like smashing garlic: "I listen to you, don't be impulsive, this shuriken is smeared with poison, even if it breaks a little, I won't be saved..."

.....

At this moment.

After Tenglin and the second younger brother quickly packed some important items, they took the elevator to the hotel lobby.

They didn't even have time to check out, just thinking about getting in the car and returning to Tokyo.

However, when they went out, they found that their car was not waiting there.

Tenglin cursed: "d*mn, the third b@stard, what are you doing! Give him a call!"

The second brother immediately took out his mobile phone, called, and cursed: "Idiot, what are you doing? Why haven't you come out!"

At the request of Charlie, the third said: "Second brother, one of the tires is flat. I guess it's punctured. I'm jogging. I'm about to change spare tire. Why don't you come down and help me!"

"d*mn!" The second junior brother said to Tenglin: "Brother, one of the tires may be punctured. I'll change it for him."

Tenglin nodded and exhorted: "You two move faster!"

underground garage.

The third who was held by Charlie's shuriken against his neck, pleaded: "Brother, I have called according to your instructions, can you spare my life..."

Charlie smiled slightly: "You did a good job, I will let you suffer less!"

After speaking, before he recovered, Charlie slammed his hand!

Hearing a click, the person's neck was broken in an instant, and the whole person lost all consciousness at this moment and turned into a corpse.

After that, Charlie did not hesitate, and immediately moved his body to the side of the car, with his back facing the front of the car, as if he was checking backstage.

And Charlie himself, behind the car next door, hid his breath, waiting for the next fish to be caught.

At this time, the second child ran over violently.

Due to the irritability, the whole person's vigilance was reduced a lot. Seeing that the third was still squatting on the tires of the car, he was suddenly out of breath.

He ran over quickly, slapped the back of the youngest's head, and cursed: "b*stard! You are here to watch? Don't you know how to get the spare tire and jack out first?!"

After finishing speaking, he saw the youngest body, swayed by a slap, and fell to the ground.

The second child saw his eyes suddenly open and staring at him, and he was immediately frightened!

At this moment, he realized that he had been targeted!

Moreover, it is very likely that the gang who killed the fourth Tenglin Qingtian was eyeing them!

Thinking of this, he flees with fright.

But when he turned around, a man suddenly appeared in front of him! This black shadow stretched out a hand at a very fast speed and pinched his neck tightly!

The second younger brother of Tenglin couldn't breathe instantly.

But at this time, he also saw the man in front of him clearly.

Isn't this person the same Chinese who followed his four brothers all the way from Tokyo? !

At this moment, the second child's mind was almost exploded!

He exclaimed in astonishment in his heart: "Could it be that...is it the Chinese who killed the fourth and third son?! Could it be that...has he been teasing us all the time?!"

When he was extremely frightened, Charlie wiped a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and said playfully, "My buddy, what are you running for?"

The second child who was pinched around his neck immediately turned blue.

He wanted to talk, but he couldn't say anything except one word for me.

He looked at Charlie with frightened and pleading eyes, hoping that Charlie could leave him a way out.

But Charlie said calmly: "People don't offend me, and I don't offend people. You guys started in Tokyo and followed and eavesdropped all the way, with the intention of killing me before I left Japan. Do you think I might let you go?"

The face of Tenglin's second junior brother was already full of despair.

Charlie said calmly: "Okay, let's have a good time."

After speaking, with a gentle force on his hand, he heard a crisp sound from the opponent's neck, and the person completely lost his vitality.

Later, Charlie stuffed the bodies of the second and third into the trunk, as if these two people had never appeared here.

After doing all this, Charlie took out his mobile phone and called Issac: "Let your men drive the frozen car to the door of the hotel."

Tenglin, who was at the entrance of the hotel, waited for nearly ten minutes, and he was anxious before the two of them drove out.

Although it is a little troublesome to change tires, it is impossible for two people to get better together for so long, right? He took out his cell phone and called the third.

No one answered the phone.

Immediately afterwards, he called second again, but the call was still unanswered.

No one answered the phone calls of the two of them, which is really abnormal and excessive!

There was a strong sense of crisis in Tenglin's heart.

Thinking of the death of the fourth oldest Tenglin Qingtian, he felt a chill in his back!

"Could it be that we have been targeted by people now?!"

"Have the second and third suffered an accident?!"

Thinking of this, he subconsciously wanted to turn around and go to the basement to see what happened.

However, as soon as he took two steps, he stopped immediately.

"If the second and third really encounter unexpected events, then the opponent's strength is definitely not something I can handle..."

"It seems that at the moment it can only be a thirty-six plan!"

Thinking of this, the flustered turned and prepared to leave the scene quickly.

He wanted to leave this place of right and wrong first, and after making sure that no one was following him, he would find a way to leave Osaka.

but.....

At the moment he suddenly turned around to leave, he ran into a man full of arms.

At this moment, he was in a panic, and he didn't have the usual calm and alertness. He didn't even look at the person he had hit. He bowed his head and said I'm sorry, and wanted to leave quickly.

But at this moment, he suddenly felt his arm being pulled by the other party, and then he heard a familiar voice asking: "Mr. Tenglin, where are you going in such a hurry?"

He listened to Charlie in a hotel in Nagoya, so he recognized this voice all at once!

When he looked up subconsciously, he saw Charlie looking at him with a smile on his face.

Tenglin asked in horror: "You...you...how do you..."

Chapter 1754

Charlie smiled and asked, "You want to ask, how can I know your identity?"

Tenglin observed Charlie with wide eyes: "You...you always know?!"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Of course I know!"

"This is impossible!"

"What's impossible? Blame it on your ninja's strength, it's really a bit powerful."

Tenglin was struck by lightning. He blurted out and asked, "Is my junior brother killed by you?!"

Charlie nodded generously and said, "Yes, it's me."

After speaking, Charlie added: "Your second and third junior brothers were also killed by me. Their bodies are now lying in your trunk."

"b*stard!" Tenglin roared, and immediately, from the cuff of his left hand, a dagger suddenly fell out of his left hand.

Immediately afterward, he concentrated all his power on his left hand, and suddenly stab Charlie with all his strength.

Seeing his movements, Charlie smiled slightly, still holding his right arm with one hand, and holding his left wrist with the other hand in a calm manner.

Tenglin didn't expect that Charlie's strength was surprisingly great, and his left hand was so grasped by him that he couldn't move at all.

Charlie saw his face full of shock and smiled and said, "Mr. Tenglin, don't be so nervous. If you give up resistance, you can suffer a lot less pain when you are on the road to death later!"

Tenglin's whole body seemed to be thunderous, and he said in horror: "Sir! I am under orders from Takahashi, he let me follow you, please forgive me..."

Charlie smiled and said: "You always have to pay back when you come out. You have to tie your head to your waistband. Who can you blame if you drop it?"

Tenglin blurted out: "As long as you don't kill me, I am willing to help you kill Machi Takahashi and avenge you!"

"No need." Charlie said coldly: "The thing I don't like most in my life is you, a domestic slave of the three surnames who sells for glory. You are dead anyway. If you die with a little heart and backbone, I will count you as a man."

Tenglin choked and said, "Sir, don't you have an old Chinese saying that it is better to live than to die? Even if you are a dog, it is worse than death..."

Charlie smiled lightly: "Being a dog even, you are not worthy."

Having said that, Charlie squeezed the meridian of his wrist and used a burst of vigor, and followed his meridians to destroy his all meridians!

Tenglin only felt that his legs suddenly softened, and then his whole body had lost support, as if all the strength of his body had been vacuumed at this moment.

He was horrified and didn't know what was the reason or what was good, when a refrigerated container truck stopped by the roadside.

Issac's men ran off the car and said respectfully to Charlie: "Master what do you want?"

Charlie smiled slightly, and supported the weakened Tenglin, and said to Issac's subordinate: "My friend is drinking too much. You can get him into your car. He still has two friends have someone drive it out."

The man nodded immediately, taking over Tenglin and preparing to carry him into the passenger compartment of the refrigerated car.

Tenglin was shocked, and blurted out: "Where are you taking me?!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Look, your whole body is already soft and muddy now. This does not fit the characteristics of ninjas. Are you ninjas with forbearance and hard as iron? I will put you in the container later. Frozen in the car for a few hours, so you can get back the hardness of the ninja!"

"What?! Freezing?!" Tenglin begged desperately: "You gentleman, I beg you, I really don't want to die, I don't want to die..."

After speaking, he couldn't help looking into the distance, watching the pedestrians on the side of the road shouting: "Help...Help..."

However, in the next second, he realized that not only did he lose strength all over his body, but his voice became extremely weak.

Although it was hoarse, this sound, people two meters away will not hear any movement...

At this moment, Issac also ran over. He came to Charlie and hurriedly asked: "Master what is your business?"

Charlie handed him a car key and said: "There is a commercial car in parking lot 094 in the basement, and there are two ninjas in the trunk. You drive the car out, and go to a safe place with the freezer car. Put the people in the trunk, and the guy in the co-pilot, into the freezer, and then send the four ice sculptures to the gate of Machi Takahashi's house in Tokyo for him to sign for it!"

Chapter 1755

Five hours later.

The sky is getting brighter.

In the sky of Tokyo, there was a touch of white fish.

A new day has begun. Many people wake up from a deep sleep, but many people never sleep.

The night that just passed, the entire Tokyo was almost turned upside down.

The TMPD dispatched all, and even seconded a large number of people from several nearby small cities. Not only did they find an earth-shaking situation in Tokyo, they also closed all the roads leading from Tokyo to the outside and set up cards for every vehicle leaving the city. Strictly searched, just to find the whereabouts of the Su brother and sister.

Overnight, the entire Tokyo was under total martial law!

The keen media has already received news that the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of China's first family were kidnapped in Tokyo, and dozens of entourages were killed.

The explosion of this kind of news is unprecedented!

In the past, Tokyo has also encountered terrorist attacks and major criminal cases, but there has never been such a bad nature!

You know, the Su family is the richest and most powerful family in China.

They encountered such a serious criminal case in Japan, the nature of which even surpassed Bill Gates' kidnapping in Tokyo.

The Su family also spent half the night in Tokyo.

This time, not only did the Su family have hundreds of hidden masters, but Zynn also came personally.

The TMPD attached great importance to the arrival of Zynn, and the director personally invited him to the TMPD to inform him of the investigation process of this case.

The so-called detection process of the TMPD is actually to bring Machi Takahashi and Takehiko Ito to the TMPD for interrogation.

Because in their opinion, both of them are suspects.

Moreover, the two people feel that it must be the other party's so-called, and they are harming each other at the same time.

Takehiko felt that Takahashi must have deliberately wanted to use this incident to pour dirty water on the Ito family, so that the Su family can completely eradicate the Ito family;

Machi Takahashi felt that Takehiko Ito must have felt that he couldn't get the cooperation of the Su family and deliberately wanted to frame him, so they left a ninja dart of the Tenglin family on the scene. This clearly shows that it is planting and setting the blame!

The TMPD is also at a loss.

In their view, although the two men seemed to have certain motives, the TMPD could not find any substantive evidence.

The only evidence is the ninja dart left on the scene.

This ninja dart really belongs to the Tenglin family, and the Tenglin family is attached to the Takahashi family. This is something everyone in Tokyo's upper class knows, and the TMPD naturally knows it.

However, this evidence is somewhat abrupt.

Because, no one was injured by the ninja dart at the scene where the ninja dart was found. The murderer was so professional that he killed more than a dozen people without leaving a living mouth. Why did he leave a ninja dart that was useless at all?

This is likely to be a blindfold left by the other party.

Therefore, the Chief of the TMPD said to Zynn: "Mr. Su, we have to continue to investigate this matter. After all, it is difficult to explain the problem with a ninja dart alone, and it is very likely that the other party left it behind only to confuse us, just like smoke bombs!"

Zynn said with a black face to the director of the TMPD: "I don't care if it is a smoke bomb! If the TMPD can find my son and daughter within 24 hours, and ensure their safety, I can no longer pursue the matter to the TMPD, but if it exceeds 24 hours, or if there is any accident to my son or daughter, I will definitely announce the matter to the world! Let the TMPD completely discredit you!"

Chapter 1756

After 7 o'clock in the morning, the media will definitely report this matter.

At that time, it will definitely spread throughout Japan.

If within 24 hours, he can't save people, this news will surely spread all over the world.

At that time, this will not only be the scandal of the TMPD, but also the scandal of entire Japan!

If the law and order in Japan are so bad, the murderer is so cruel, and so tough, who will dare to come to Tokyo in the future?

It is not only the rich and entrepreneurs who dare not come, but the politicians of various countries will be afraid to come.

But Tokyo is the capital of Japan! If this scandal spreads all over the world, it will surely plunge the entire Japan into a diplomatic dilemma!

So he immediately asked his subordinates: "Are there any detailed autopsy results?"

The chief forensic doctor in charge of the autopsy immediately rushed to report to the TMPD Commissioner and Zynn: "After our autopsy, it was found that more than a dozen Su's entourage who died of poisoning, without exception, were all sarin poisoning, and it is discovered that they all died of liquid sarin poisoning."

Zynn frowned, "Liquid sarin gas, what do you mean?"

The forensic doctor hurriedly explained: "Sarin gas is a colorless oily liquid at room temperature, much like glycerin. When used in war, it is exploded to form a large area of aerosol, whether it is breathing or skin contact, it will cause poisoning."

"But the murderer this time must not want to make a big explosion, so he used a carrier similar to a syringe needle to inject about 30 milligrams of liquid sarin gas, and projected it on the victim at a certain distance to make the victim suffer. People died of poison."

The chief of the TMPD hurriedly asked: "That is to say, that ninja dart really has not been actually used?"

"Correct!"

The chief of the Metropolitan Police could not help asking Zynn, "Mr. Su, you said that the person behind this incident is the enemy of the Su family?"

Zynn said with a green face: "I don't care whose enemy I am, I only know that my son and daughter are kidnapped in Tokyo! You must get them back to me unscathed!"

The chief of the TMPD was extremely helpless, and hurriedly arranged: "First, continue to enhance the search, and do not let go of any suspicious locations, vehicles, and people! Second, release both Takehiko and Takahashi, and then closely monitor them. What they do, see if you can find any clues!"

Machi Takahashi in the interrogation room, when he heard that they let him go home, hurriedly asked: "It's not very peaceful these days, can you let me stay in the TMPD?"

The police officer handling the case said angrily: "You use the TMPD as a hotel? Get out quickly, otherwise we'll be hard!"

Takahashi was really helpless, so he returned home from the TMPD under the escort of a few bodyguards.

Along the way, Machi Takahashi has been worried.

He was afraid that someone would harm him, and Tenglin and the three of them were not around yet. If something happened, he was afraid that he would not even have the ability to resist.

So, he immediately called Tenglin.

However, no one answered a few calls he made, which made him even more nervous.

"What the h*ll is going on? After a few hours, it's time to go back to Tokyo from Osaka? Why can't I get through the phone?"

Thinking of this, he couldn't help getting irritated, and made several more calls to Tenglin's two junior brothers, but none of them could get through.

At this time, he was already faintly aware of something bad in his heart. Could it be that Tenglin and the three of them, like their fourth junior brother, are all killed by those mysterious ninjas?

At this moment, the housekeeper called, and as soon as he came up he said hurriedly: "President, there was a mysterious person just now. He said he sent you a great gift!"

Takahashi asked in horror, "Great gift?! What kind of gift?!"

"A truck!"

Chapter 1757

"Truck?! What the h*ll is going on?!"

The butler hurriedly said: "The other party drove the truck to the door of the villa, saying that it is a gift for you in the car."

"What about others?!"

"I heard it through the intercom on the doorbell at the door. When I came out, the people had disappeared, but the car is still..."

Takahashi shivered when he heard this!

Who would use a truck to give gifts? Leave the truck at your door? !

Moreover, it is still in such a sensitive time period!

Thinking of this, he asked nervously: "Have you opened it to see what's inside?"

The butler said: "No, I want to wait until you come back before opening it."

Takahashi blurted out: "Call the police! Call the police! Maybe there is a bomb in the car!"

The housekeeper hurriedly said: "My lord, we have done explosives and toxic substances tests and no abnormalities have been found."

"Nothing abnormal?" Machi Takahashi breathed a sigh of relief when he heard this.

Under normal circumstances, if you want to use something to harm people, it is nothing more than bombs and poisons. Since there is nothing abnormal after detection, there should be no problem.

The equipment used at home to detect explosives and toxic substances are the same as that used by the airport and customs. The accuracy rate is extremely high. If there are such substances, it is absolutely impossible to hide them.

Thinking of this, he said: "I will be back in a few minutes, wait for me."

After hanging up the phone, Takahashi couldn't help rubbing his temples, and his whole body was a bit exhausted.

From yesterday to today, Tokyo has been so chaotic that he is already a little nervous.

Ten minutes later, Machi Takahashi returned to his villa.

The biggest difference between Japan and China is that many houses are not built by developers, but are built by homeowners. This is very similar to China a few decades ago. Whether rich or poor, they buy land and build their own houses.

Therefore, in Japan, there are very few concepts of community and apartment.

The mansion of Machi Takahashi, not far from the Japanese Imperial Palace, has an excellent location and a huge area.

When he came to the door of his house, he saw a frozen truck parked on the side of the road.

The butler ran over to open the door for him at this time, and said respectfully: "Mr. President, this is the car. The door is locked and the engine is not turned off. The freezer at the back is still cooling."

Takahashi touched his chin and couldn't help but slapped his lips: "Who the h*ll delivered this? Would you give me ice cream for the big winter?"

Eiki, with his hands in plaster, was also supported by the servant. He walked out of the luxurious gate with sleepy eyes. He saw Machi Takahashi and the frozen car still in operation, and asked in surprise: "Dad, what is going on?"

Machi Takahashi shook his head and said, "don't know which b@stard it is. He drove such a car and said it was a gift for me."

Eiki frowned and asked, "Is it not a seafood delivery car? Yesterday, I ordered a top-quality bluefin tuna. They said it would be delivered in two days."

The housekeeper hurriedly said, "Master the person who delivered it just now said it was a gift for Master, not for you."

Eiki said, "Maybe it's a mistake. What about the delivery person?"

"Ran....."

"Strange..." Eiki blurted out: "Why did he leave the car behind when giving something?"

Takahashi's brows furrowed: "It always feels a little weird..."

The housekeeper said at this time: "My lord, we have checked with the equipment. There should be no danger. Would you like to open the freezer?"

Chapter 1758

Machi Takahashi pondered for a moment, then nodded gently: "Open it and see what kind of medicine is sold in the gourd!"

The butler immediately ordered the two servants: "You two, go and open the door of the freezer!"

The two immediately stepped forward and opened the lock of the freezer door one by one.

When it was about to open, Machi Takahashi took a few steps back subconsciously.

His nerves are a bit sensitive today, and he always feels that this world is full of weirdness.

The door opened to the left and right, and a burst of white mist sprayed out from inside.

The weather in Tokyo these days is humid and the temperature is slightly warmer. The temperature at this time is about three or four degrees above zero, but the temperature in the refrigerated car is lower than twenty degrees below zero, so this kind of water vapor will be cold. The mist produced.

Everyone observed the fog gradually dissipating. After the fog slowly dissipated, the things in the carriage finally appeared in front of everyone.

But when everyone looked up, everyone was immediately frightened and screamed in unison!

In the carriage, there are four human-shaped ice sculptures standing neatly!

And the shapes of these four people are also strange!

Someone swallowed his own feet backwards, and the whole person stood in the carriage, the whole being the independent shape of a golden rooster. This was the first Tenglin Qingtian who was counter-killed by Charlie.

There are also two people standing with their arms around each other, and they are the second and third.

As for Tenglin, he has one hand on his hips, and his other hand is pointing his middle finger outside the car...

The shapes of these four people, except that Tenglin Qingtian was in the form at the time of death, the other three were made by Issac's men as plastic models after being frozen.

In order to stabilize the shape, he poured some water on the people. After the water froze into ice, they completely strengthened their shapes.

Then there was this weird scene in front of everyone.

Eiki got close, and when he glanced over, he let out a scared cry: "Ah! This...this...is this a real person or a wax figure?!"

Takahashi's nerves were already devastated, and suddenly saw his four confidants frozen into popsicles, their legs collapsed on the ground, and he shouted in fear, "Call the police! Call the police!"

Just as the housekeeper was about to take out his cell phone to make a call, a few police cars suddenly appeared and blocked the door.

Originally, they followed Machi Takahashi secretly, wanting to see if he and the Su family's siblings' disappearance has anything common, but they never dreamed that they just followed Machi Takahashi to his door, and Machi Takahashi received four personal ice lolly...

The inspector of the TMPD who led the team came forward with a black face and personally stepped into the freezer for inspection. Then he mumbled in a little panic: "It's a living person... dmn... ...*Really big living people! Four big living people! Is this the dmn Tokyo where I lived for more than 30 years? Everything in front of me is too d*mn magical!*"

The following police officer asked in surprise: "Inspector, are these four people still alive?"

The inspector scolded: "Living like your mother! Are they not frozen into popsicles if you can see it?"

The police officer was full of grievances: "You just said that there are four big living people..."

The inspector wiped his cold sweat and said: "It's an ice sculpture made of four big living people...Hurry up, call the forensic doctor to come over for an autopsy!"

After speaking, he walked to the pale face of Machi Takahashi sitting on the ground, squatted down, and asked very seriously: "Mr. Takahashi, are these four people your subordinates?"

Takahashi nodded and murmured, "They are all members of the Tenglin family..."

"Tenglin family?!" The inspector exclaimed and blurted out: "Tenglin family, one of the four top ninjutsu families?!"

"Yes..." Takahashi swallowed his saliva and said nervously, "The first is the eldest son of the Tenglin family, the current head of the family, Tenglin Zhengzhe..."

The detective's liver trembled in fright: "Tenglin can be regarded as one of our top ninjas in Japan. Even he died so miserably, who is it that you offend?"

Machi Takahashi watched Tenglin gesturing with his middle finger, crying desperately, "How the h*ll do I know!"

Chapter 1759

The inspector saw Takahashi's flustered look, and hurriedly said: "Recall carefully, did you offend anyone? Generally speaking, unless there is a deep hatred, who would target you like this?"

After that, the inspector reminded: "Think about it, does anyone want to kill you, or do you want to kill anyone?!"

The first thing Takahashi thought of was Charlie.

But soon he denied this idea in his heart.

After Tenglin Qingtian disappeared for no reason, Tenglin Zhengzhe once eavesdropped on Charlie and got a message that it was not Charlie who killed Tenglin Qingtian, but another group of ninjas.

At that time, Tenglin speculated that it should be a Koka ninja loyal to the Ito family.

However, he did not tell the TMPD about this matter.

Because, he felt that what he said to the TMPD is meaningless, because there was no direct evidence for this incident, and everything was just a guess by Tenglin during his lifetime.

In my opinion, 80% of it is the Ito family behind the scenes, but in the eyes of the police, the opponent may be the Koga Ninja, but it may also be the Iga Ninja, Saga Ninja, or other low-key ninja families.

After all, Japanese ninjas have a long history and many schools.

Just like Chinese martial arts, Chinese martial arts have a wide variety of martial arts since ancient times, and there are many martial arts that can be named.

Shaolin, Wudang, Kunlun, Emei, Huashan, Kongtong, the following unknown small and medium schools are countless.

The same is true in Japan. In addition to the four well-known ninja families, there are countless small families and sects.

Therefore, he decided not to let the TMPD intervene, and take revenge on Takehiko himself!

Soon, the forensic doctor arrived at the scene.

They transported the four hard corpses back to the forensic department of the TMPD. Such corpses must at least be completely thawed before being dissected.

At the same time, the news of Tenglin's four strange deaths was also reported to the top of the TMPD, making the entire TMPD shocked.

The director of the TMPD has almost collapsed!

Zhifei and Zhiyu were kidnapped without a clue, and such a big incident happened in an instant.

Four superb ninjas are also killed, this is simply a wave of unrest!

Tokyo has also suddenly changed from a fashionable international city to a strange and sinful city.

However, it was just when the TMPD was in desperation and digging three feet in Tokyo.

Brother and sister Zhifei and Zhiyu have been secretly sent to Kyoto, hundreds of kilometers away.

According to Matsumoto's plan, he wanted the Su family's children to die in Ito's residence.

When the time comes, the Ito family will have no answer.

However, Takehiko is not a counselor, but also has a strong strength.

By then, he knew that he was being blamed, and he would definitely regard the man behind the scenes as Machi Takahashi.

In this way, Takehiko Ito will definitely fight to the death with Machi Takahashi!

It won't take long for Japan's top two families to suffer severely and even disappear completely.

At that time, the Matsumoto family can reap all the benefits, and then as the only optional collaborator of the Su family, they can cooperate with the Su family to further strengthen their own strength.

.....

Charlie got up very early today.

The weather forecast app pops up a reminder that starting this afternoon, until night, there will be a blizzard in Kyoto and Osaka.

He first went to the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical with Liang. In the afternoon, he asked Issac for a car and planned to drive to Kyoto by himself.

Issac didn't know where he was going. Seeing that the snow had fallen, and the snow was getting bigger and bigger, he hurriedly reminded him: "Master there is a blizzard today. Driving in this kind of weather is too dangerous. If you have nothing important, Don't go out anymore."

Chapter 1760

Charlie waved his hand: "It's okay, you don't have to worry, I have something personal to do, and I'll be back when it's done."

Issac asked: "Is it in Osaka? Do you want me to arrange someone to escort you?"

"No need." Charlie didn't say where he was going, and he didn't want to say.

He didn't know why, he kept thinking about Nanako in his mind, perhaps out of sympathy for that girl, or out of admiration, or out of some other emotion, Charlie couldn't figure it out, and he didn't want to keep missing her.

Now he just wants to go to Kyoto to see Nanako in person, and take a look at her injuries by the way.

In any case, if her injury is cured, he can go back with peace of mind.

Issac saw that Charlie was unwilling to reveal his whereabouts, so he did not insist, but told him to drive carefully. If the snow is too great, wait until the snow stops before driving.

Charlie accepted, and then drove off alone.

Osaka is very close to Kyoto, and it takes about an hour to drive.

When he arrived in Kyoto, the sky was already dark.

The snow is getting bigger and bigger, almost like goose feathers.

Charlie didn't know where the Ito family's mansion was, so he went to a Chinese restaurant to eat a bowl of Chinese ramen. When checking out, he asked the boss: "Boss, do you know where the Ito family's mansion is?"

The other party smiled and said: "The Ito family residence is next to Nijo Castle. It covers a large area and is easy to find. There is a plaque at the front entrance, which is the Ito."

Charlie nodded, thanked him, and then went out of the restaurant.

Nijo Castle is a well-known scenic spot in Kyoto, so you can search it directly on the map, and it is only two kilometers away from Charlie.

After looking at it for a few minutes, Charlie who was sitting in the car hesitated for a while.

He hasn't figured out how to meet Nanako.

When he arrives at the Ito family mansion, should he just knock on the door to see her?

Inappropriate.

After all, Takehiko's 4.5 billion is still in his own hands. If his subordinates report Takehiko, he will definitely not let himself meet Nanako.

Then what should he do?

Do you want to sneak in by yourself?

Perhaps, there is only one suitable way.

Thinking of this, Charlie started the car, followed the navigation, and came to the vicinity of Nijo Castle. Sure enough, he saw the Ito family mansion not far from Nijo Castle.

The Ito family's mansion covers a large area. From the outside, half of the area is planted with towering old trees. The buildings are also Japanese-style ancient wooden buildings that incorporate strong Chinese architectural elements. You can know the age at a glance. So it has been a long time.

Since there is an ancient moat around the Ito family's residence, and the two bridges entering and exiting belong to private territories, Charlie parked his car on the side of the road not far away, and then braved the heavy snow and sneaked in in the dark into the residence of the Ito family.

At this moment.

Nanako just finished soaking in the hot spring.

Because today was finally looking forward to the long-awaited snowfall, and it was a heavy snowfall, Nanako swept away the haze in her heart, and she was in a particularly good mood.

She asked her servant to help put her in an indescribably beautiful kimono, and then gracefully coiled up her long hair and inserted her favorite hairpin.

After that, pushing the wheelchair, she came to the small courtyard to enjoy the snow with great joy.

The Ito family's residence covers a large area, and there are several large and small courtyards. The courtyard where Nanako is located in the most remote and quietest.

The snow fell heavily, and soon a layer of white snow fell on top of her head, and Nanako looked at the snow flying in the sky, jumping for joy like a child.

After a while, she looked up at the sky and said in her heart piously: "Don't know what Master Wade is doing at this time? don't know if it's snowing in Aurous Hill now? don't know if he will think of me..."

Chapter 1761

Charlie, who was hiding on the wall, finally saw the moving figure in the courtyard below.

He bypassed the security of Ito's mansion and circled the house halfway around the fence, only then saw Nanako, who was always concerned about him.

Seeing Nanako wearing a kimono with a light bun, Charlie couldn't help sighing: "It is said that Nanako is a standard Yamato Nadeshiko. It is indeed no exaggeration. She is definitely the most beautiful and perfect he has ever seen a woman."

However, the wheelchair under Nanako made Charlie a little bit embarrassed.

She could have not participated in the final with Aoxue, and could also admit defeat and end the game early in the competition, but she had to persist to the end, which caused great physical trauma to her body.

At this moment, Charlie wanted to jump in directly from the wall and meet her next to him, but when he thought of using this kind of gentleman's way, he suddenly appears in front of her, it might be a little embarrassing.

If she is scared by him, how can he explain it?

If she asks him why, how can he explain it?

Charlie, who has always had excellent psychological quality, hesitated at this moment.

At the same time, in Tokyo, hundreds of kilometers away.

While letting the subordinates who held Zhifei and Zhiyu brothers and sisters wait for an opportunity to come and kill, he let another wave of people start a new round of planning in Tokyo.

He is like the evil clown in "Batman: The Dark Knight", intending to play with everyone, and then gradually divide them and kill them one by one.

This time, his target was Eiki.

He felt that it was just that when Zhifei and Zhiyu were kidnapped, they left a little trouble for their two families, and this was not enough to make the two families completely turned their faces.

Therefore, he wanted to add a bloody feud between these two families.

Only blood and blood will make people lose all their sanity and become extremely crazy.

So, in this evening, he stretched his claws towards Eiki Takahashi, whose arms had been dismantled.

Eiki is a young man in his prime.

His arm injury and a cast will not affect his physical needs.

And he is usually in Tokyo, and he is also well-known as a young girl seeker. Many well-known actresses in Tokyo are his lovers and playthings.

Some time ago, he had just made a huge sum of money to acquire Hua Dan, the head of a popular Japanese girl group, to make her his lover. It happened that the girl group was doing a variety show on TV Tokyo today.

Therefore, Eiki intends to sneak out tonight and spend the night with her.

The other party is eager to establish a long-term relationship with him, and naturally she readily agrees.

So, under the stimulation of hormones, Eiki scorned his father to let him stay at home and wait for the rest of the storm to pass, and quietly arranged for his subordinates to drive him out of the house and head to the most luxurious high-end club in Shibuya, Tokyo.

Chapter 1762

In that high-end clubhouse, he has a fixed high-end private room all year-round. It is luxuriously decorated and concealed and private. It is the home ground of his unspoken female stars all year round.

A convoy of three Rolls-Royces took Eiki to Shibuya, and Eiki in the car was too excited, looking forward to the strong clouds of romance and rain of love tonight.

When the convoy passed through an underground passage, a normal truck suddenly braked and hit the direction, blocking the entire road horizontally.

Several black commercial vehicles drove immediately behind, blocking the three Rolls-Royces of the Takahashi family.

The bodyguards in the leading and trailing vehicles realized that something was wrong, and they pulled out their guns to protect Eiki.

However, in the black business cars behind, a large group of people in black with automatic weapons suddenly jumped out!

The firearms in these people's hands were all automatic rifles and mini-submachine guns. The firepower was much stronger than that of the Takahashi family's bodyguards.

Before the Takahashi family's bodyguards could recover, all eight bodyguards were sifted.

At this time, Eiki in the Rolls Royce in the middle was already shocked.

In his car, there is only one driver and one assistant, both of whom are ordinary people, and they have no combat effectiveness at all.

And the other party, not only has a large number of people, but also has extremely strong firepower, completely crushing!

Eiki was so scared that he hurriedly called his father and said in a panic: "Dad! Save me, Dad! I'm surrounded by killers, come and save me!"

Machi Takahashi blurted out: "Aren't you at home?! Where's the killer?!"

Eiki collapsed and cried: "Dad, I'm outside... on the way to Shibuya... I am surrounded and attacked by people, and the bodyguards are dead. They have already come to me, Dad. You think of a way to save me, I don't want to die..."

Machi Takahashi only felt that the sky was spinning, and he roared hoarsely: "Tell them, I can give them no matter how much they demand! As long as they keep you forever!"

As soon as the voice fell, the group of people in black had already surrounded the Rolls Royce where Takahashi was riding.

Eiki rushed out of the car and shouted hysterically: "Please don't kill me! My father said, no matter how much money you want, he can satisfy you!"

The headed man in black grinned: "Money? We, the Ito family, don't care about money! What we want is the life of everyone in the Takahashi family! Now we will send you on the road first, and we will send your father and your family soon join you!"

Eiki was so scared that he collapsed and wailed frantically: "I beg you not to kill me, I'm still young...I don't want to die..."

Machi Takahashi also yelled as hard as he could on the phone: "Let go of my son! Something is coming at you!"

The headed man in black sneered, "Oh? You're still on the phone with President Takahashi? That's good, President Takahashi, just listen to your son's desperate scream before his death!"

After all, he smashed the Rolls-Royce glass with a gun, but the moment the gun was pointed at Eiki, seeing the tears on Eiki's face, he suddenly took the gun back.

Eiki thought he had changed his mind and blurted out excitedly: "How much do you want, if you say a number, my father will give you the money immediately!"

"Yes!" Takahashi thought that things had turned for the better, and blurted out: "I can give you 100 million. Give it up now!"

The man in black chuckled and said grimly: "The two have thought too much, I just want to change the way of playing."

After that, he turned to look at his men and said coldly: "Come over with two barrels of gasoline from the trunk, and I will put them on fire together with the people and the car!"

Chapter 1763

The next five minutes are the most painful, suffering, and collapsed five minutes of Takahashi's life.

He didn't dare to hang up the phone, because he knew that the next voice he heard might be the last voice his son left in the world.

However, he was also very clear in his heart that the other party would torture his son to death and make him suffer tremendous pain when he died.

As a father, does he really want to listen to his last scream in his ears, but he can do nothing and has no choice?

Immediately afterwards, the murderer poured gasoline into the Rolls Royce where Eiki was sitting, and even Eiki's hysterical yelling in the car was completely disregarded.

After all the gasoline was poured in, the leader took out a pack of cigarettes and a box of matches, coldly lit the cigarette, took a hard sip, and then threw the still burning matchstick into the window!

The extremely luxurious Rolls-Royce turned into an incinerator in an instant, and the flames inside even spurted out frantically.

In the car, the screams of Eiki, his assistant, and the driver were like h*ll on earth!

Machi Takahashi on the other end of the line burst into tears.

And the screams lasted for more than a minute before finally he couldn't hear them.

Takahashi knew very well that his son was dead.

It is even possible to die without a whole body!

At this moment, the anger of vengeance burned his sanity!

"Takehiko! You killed my son, I will kill your family!"

Having said that, he immediately called the temporary Patriarch of the Tenglin family, and as soon as he spoke, he said in a cold voice: "The Ito family killed my son. The four Tenglin family members, including Tenglin Zhengzhe, are also Because of him, I want you to kill Takehiko's daughter first, and then kill Takehiko, that old dog too!!!"

The other party's voice suddenly shuddered: "Mr. Takahashi, don't worry, our people are looking at the Ito family mansion in Kyoto. Takehiko's daughter has not left the place. We can kill her tonight!"

Machi Takahashi roared hoarsely: "Kill her now! I want you to kill her now!!! I want you to behead her alive, and then send me the video, Takehiko let me hear with my own ears my son's tragic death, I want him to see his daughter's head in a strange place!!!"

The other party immediately said: "Okay Mr. Takahashi, I will order them to kill Nanako!"

.....

at the same time.

Kyoto.

The snow is getting bigger and bigger.

In this heavy snow, Charlie has quietly observed Nanako for nearly ten minutes.

In these ten minutes, Nanako looked at the sky in a daze, and sometimes bent down, collecting white snowflakes from the ground, playing alone seemed very happy.

At the moment when Charlie decided to go down to see her, he suddenly noticed that from the darkness in the distance, several black shadows were attacking at his location at an extremely fast speed!

Judging from the posture when running and the way of breathing when running, these black shadows are quite similar to the four of Tenglin.

Charlie immediately became alert.

These people should all be ninjas!

Moreover, these are the ninjas of the Tenglin family!

Chapter 1764

Charlie felt that they were not good at coming, so he immediately concealed his breath and observed it secretly, and saw that these people climbed over the wall at an extremely fast speed, and then rushed toward Nanako from multiple directions!

Although Nanako was seriously injured but still hadn't healed, she was still a martial arts master after all, and she had a very high acumen. She had already noticed these six people before they got close.

At this moment, Nanako wanted to shout and call the housekeeper and housekeeper from other courtyards to help, but when she was about to ask for help, she suddenly gave up this idea.

Because, she has seen from the figures of these six people that these people are all ninjas without exception!

Although there are ninjas in her family, they are all in Tokyo, not in Kyoto.

The strength of the ninja is very strong, and the actual combat ability is stronger. Even before he is injured, he can't beat an ordinary ninja, let alone there are six!

And it seems that they have at least the strength of a mid-level ninja.

Almost at this moment, Nanako understood that to gather all the people in this mansion, it was probably not the opponent of these six.

In this case, why bother calling for help and letting others die for her?

After all, this group of people came for her at first sight.

So, just when these six people were almost rushing to Nanako, she spoke neither humble nor strong: "You seniors, if you have come to kill me, then I can cooperate, but please also let the rest of the people in the house be spared. Most of the human lives are not children of the Ito family, but only servants working in the family."

The leader sneered: "I have long heard that the eldest daughter of the Ito family is extraordinary. When I see you today, indeed you are extraordinary!"

After that, he drew out his sword and said coldly: "It's true that we are here to take your life to make your father pay for it. He secretly killed four members of my Tenglin family and Takahashi's eldest master, I can only take your life to your life to make your father pay a little interest first!"

Charlie was startled when he heard this, "What? Eiki is dead? It seems that after he left Tokyo, Tokyo is not at all peaceful!"

At this time, Nanako, who was surrounded by six people in the courtyard, blurted out: "Impossible! My father is definitely not such a person! This matter must be another misunderstanding!"

"Misunderstanding?" The man gritted his teeth and cursed: "He froze the four masters of the Tenglin family into human-shaped popsicles and burned the young master of the Takahashi family into coke. Tell me this is a misunderstanding?!"

Nanako said unswervingly: "I know my father. Although he is not a good person, he has at least a bottom line! Even if he is an enemy, he is upright and will never do things that would hurt people with secret arrows!"

The man sneered and said, "Knowing others, knowing the face and not knowing the heart, you may not really understand Takehiko! But you can take a step first, and after he gets on the road, you can ask him if he has done anything!"

After that, he immediately said to the person next to him: "Take out the mobile phone video, I will send the video of the beheading to Mr. Takahashi!"

"OK!"

The leader took out an extremely sharp ninja sword from his waist, flashed a cold light, and said to Nanako: "Miss Ito, time to die!"

Nanako nodded silently, and then closed her eyes confessing her fate, muttering to herself in grief: "Master, see you in the next life..."

The leader sighed slightly: "Miss Ito, I will make you die happy, and I hope you will not be born in a rich family in the next life!"

Having said that, he raised his ninja sword high, all his strength gathered in his arms, ready to chop Nanako's neck at any time.

Nanako was also heartbroken at this time, her beautiful eyes were tightly closed, waiting for the moment when fate finally arrived!

At the moment when the head of the man raised to make the sword fall, a blade of Hanmang came to him quickly through the air at an extremely fast speed!

With a scream, a poisonous shuriken has been shot from the center of his eyebrows!

And this person who was about to behead Nanako died suddenly at this moment!

Charlie finally made a move!

Chapter 1765

In fact, just as the man raised the ninja sword, the other five people took two steps back.

This is because they don't want the blood to splash on them when it is sprayed out.

However, their eyes have been staring at Nanako, waiting for the blood to come.

And Nanako herself is also ready to meet death.

However, the picture stopped abruptly at this moment!

The ninja sword held high, has been hovering in the air, and other people don't know why he has been so late.

When they looked over, they realized that the executioner wielding a sword was already dead!

Only a few centimeters in length was left on the center of his forehead. The wound was too close to the sword body, so only a small amount of blood penetrated from the wound and dripped on the white and thick snow. , A bright red fainted instantly!

Just when these people were dumbfounded and didn't know what happened, they found that the sword in the hand that pierced this person's eyebrows was surprisingly familiar!

The person who took the phone to shoot the video shouted in horror: "Ah! This...this is Qingtian's shuriken!"

This is indeed Tenglin Qingtian's Shuriken!

After Charlie killed him, he kept all his shurikens, and it just came in handy at this time!

The remaining five people were suddenly shocked!

The tragic death of Tenglin Zhengzhe and Tenglin Qingtian has left them with lingering fears. Now, Tenglin Qingtian's shuriken killed another member of their family. It can be seen that the crisis is in sight!

The person who took the video with his mobile phone, threw away the phone and blurted out to the other four people: "Arrange an array! Arrange an array!"

The other four people recovered for a while, and took out ninja knives one after another. The five people formed a small circle back to back, and each one was guarded in different directions.

This is the most commonly used pawn formation when ninjas are defending.

At this time, Nanako heard the movement and opened her eyes, and suddenly realized that the man who was about to slash her had become a standing corpse, and the other five people formed a defensive formation like a big enemy!

She hadn't figured out what was going on. Suddenly, one of the five people suddenly fell straight forward and plunged into the thick snow!

The people around her hurriedly reached out and turned over, only to find that there was a shuriken stuck in the center of his forehead and brow!

The man pointed to the wall and said nervously, "At the wall!"

As a result, the remaining four people gave up the circular defensive formation, one after another with twelve points, staring at the direction where the shuriken shot just now.

One of them trembled and said, "What is the ability to injure people with a secret arrow! Come out if you have the ability!"

Although he said so, he didn't expect such words to really excite the other party.

After all, this sounds too pediatric, how can the opponent be fooled by him if he has such strength.

However, no one thought that just as his voice fell, a dark figure suddenly jumped down on the wall.

Every time that black shadow took a foot, the snow creaked on the ground, making the four people more and more frightened.

Nanako observed the dark shadow with wide-eyed eyes. She wanted to know who the man who saved her secretly was.

And when the dark shadow came to her to let her see the people, she was instantly struck by lightning!

She never dreamed that the person who saved her would be Charlie, who she had been thinking about for a long time!

At this moment, Nanako thought that she was wrong, and she had hallucinations.

So she wiped her eyes and looked carefully.

Chapter 1766

The smiling man in front of her is indeed Charlie, whom she has missed, loved, and longed for a long time!

At this moment, in the depths of Nanako's heart, countless questions suddenly emerged:

"How could it be him?!"

"Why is it him?!"

"Why is he here?!"

"Am I dreaming?!"

"Could it be that I am already dead, and all this is an illusion after my death?!"

"Just now, I even felt that even if I could see Charlie before I died, I would die without regrets, but who would dare to believe that Charlie suddenly came to save me like a god from heaven?"

Countless thoughts in her mind gathered together, she was surprised and hesitant, nervous and excited, and her whole body was trembling to the point of speechlessness.

At this time, Charlie was the first to break the silence. He looked at Nanako, smiled, and asked: "Miss Ito, how are you doing now?"

Hearing Charlie's voice, Nanako finally made sure that everything in front of her was not an illusion!

She has been in love for a long time and even thought that Charlie, who would never have a chance to meet again, came to save her when she was in the most critical time of her life!

At this moment, Nanako finally realized the ultimate happiness of a woman.

She feels that in this life, there will be no more moment that can surpass every minute and every second of the present.

Even if it was to let her die now, she felt that her life had been completely fulfilled, without any regrets.

As a result, she couldn't control her emotions anymore and cried out loudly: "Master! I came back from Aurous Hill, looking forward to reunion with you day and night, I didn't expect you to really come..."

The four ninjas were on the verge of an enemy, and one of them gritted his teeth and scolded: "Boy, did you kill Qingtian?!"

Charlie smiled cruelly: "I killed him, what can you do?"

The man gritted his teeth and shouted: "b*stard! Killed six members of the Tenglin family, I want your life!"

Charlie looked at the four ninjas, and said lightly: "You are a little bit noisy, since you want my life, don't bother other people in this mansion."

After speaking, he held his thundering order with one hand, and muttered in a low voice: "Thunder!"

Suddenly, a series of dull thunders suddenly sounded in the gloomy sky!

This series of thunders immediately caused a dog to bark around, and the originally quiet snowy night suddenly became noisy.

At this moment, Charlie sneered with contempt, and shouted: "Want to get paid, right? Come on! I will send you to meet them before they are far away!"

The man didn't know that the thunder was caused by Charlie, and he roared in anger, "b*stard, you must die today!"

As soon as the voice fell, he raised the ninja sword high and slashed at Charlie at an extremely fast speed!

The other three are not far behind!

One of them jumped directly into the air, swiping a sword to Charlie from mid-air!

The other two quickly drew away to the sides and waved the ninja sword, preparing to besiege Charlie from the left and right wings!

As we all know, the katana and ninja swords are all tempered by top craftsmen with top-notch stainless steel. The blades are so sharp that they can be broken by blowing!

The four attacked together, and Charlie would be chopped into several pieces if he couldn't stand it a little bit!

These four people can be described as murderous!

Nanako saw four terrifying cold lights in the night sky and shouted in horror: "Master, be careful!"

Chapter 1767

The four ninjas of the Tenglin family all felt that this time they would definitely be able to give Charlie a definite blow.

And Nanako also raised her heart to her throat, for fear of Charlie's accident.

For her, even if she died, she would never let Charlie hurt himself.

At this moment, Charlie suddenly retreated several meters on the spot. The speed made the four ninjas stunned!

They themselves are preemptive, and they are faster than Charlie in terms of starting time.

Moreover, they all have a ninja sword nearly one meter long in their hands, which undoubtedly further strengthens their attack range, allowing them to take advantage of the opportunity to move faster.

According to their understanding, it is almost impossible for anyone to escape at this moment.

It's like a bullet that is about to hit him that a normal person cannot escape!

However, Charlie did it!

At the same time Charlie retreated quickly, the Thunder Token was already in his pocket. Then, his left and right hands suddenly drew out two swords in his hand, and shot at the one in the air, and the one in front of the four people in front of him at high speed!

When the two heard the sound of shuriken breaking through the air, and seeing the cold light flying at extreme speed, they reminded each other: "Be careful!"

Immediately afterwards, the two of them were about to dodge to both sides, when they felt a sharp pain in their hearts.

The person who rose into the air fell quickly, and the person who first rushed towards Charlie also knelt to the ground instantly!

The two people who doubled on the left and right wings were shocked by the situation in front of them.

Who could have imagined that this person moved so quickly, completely exceeding them by more than one grade!

It was originally a team of four full of confidence, but they didn't expect that even the fur of the other party was not even next to each other, and he would break the two again!

Under this circumstance, both of them knew that there was no chance to win at all, and they continued to attack blindly. There was no other way but to die.

As a result, the two exchanged glances, and then suddenly stopped. At the same time, they took out a ball about the size of a ping-pong ball from their pocket and slammed it to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, the ball burst out with a dazzling light, and another burst of black and thick smoke lit up. The two took advantage of the cover of these two clouds of smoke, turned around and fled.

Charlie sneered, and took out the last two swords from the cowhide without hurry, and shot them at the two black veils of mist.

The two of them had actually run far away at this time, but they didn't expect that the sound of breaking through the air was still heard behind their heads, and the speed of breaking through the air was extremely fast, almost leaving them with a flash of light!

At this moment, there was only one thought in their minds: they were dead!

As predicted!

The swords in both hands pierced the backs of the two.

The poison smeared on the blade spread rapidly, and the two of them died in an instant!

At this time, the faint thunder in the sky continued.

Therefore, what happened in the courtyard of Nanako did not disturb other people in the mansion.

Seeing that these six people had completely died, Charlie finally breathed a sigh of relief, and at this moment, Nanako, who was not far from him, looked at him with tears, horror, and awe in her eyes.

Chapter 1768

"Master Wade..."

Nanako choked, then turned the wheel of the wheelchair with both hands and came towards Charlie.

Charlie took a few steps quickly, came to her, and asked, "Miss Ito, are you okay?"

"It's okay, I'm okay..." Nanako shook her head, and then she couldn't control her face and started crying.

At this moment, her biggest feeling was not the rest of her life, but the great surprise that Charlie's sudden appearance brought her.

Seeing her crying as if she was emotionally out of control, Charlie couldn't help but stretched out his hand and gently touched the back of her cold hand, softly comforting: "Miss Ito, stop crying, it's all right."

Nanako wiped away her tears, shook her head and said, "I am not cry for what happened just now..."

After finishing speaking, she raised her head, did not hide the deep love in her eyes, choked up and asked: "Master, why did you come to Kyoto?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I came to Japan to do something. I just arrived in Osaka. I thought that Osaka is quite close to you, so I came to see you."

When Nanako heard this, the sweetness in her heart seemed to melt away instantly.

She asked excitedly: "Master, you...you came to see me because you missed me?"

"Uh..." Charlie was asked by her.

He wanted to find an excuse to conceal it, but suddenly he felt that he came here so far. This action is the most honest answer. At this time, what else can he lie?

So, he nodded lightly, and said somewhat unnaturally: "Forget it..."

Nanako was so happy to hear this!

Although there were still tears in the corners of her eyes, she smiled and said with great joy: "I didn't expect Master to still think of me...this is...this really surprises me... .."

Then she hurriedly asked Charlie: "Master, how do you know that I am in Kyoto?"

Charlie said: "I met Tanaka at Eastcliff Airport a few days ago and he told me."

"That's it!" Nanako said shyly: "Master, thank you for remembering me, and thank you for saving my life today..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "You don't need to be so polite, just raise your hand."

After speaking, Charlie asked her again: "I think you have been sitting in a wheelchair, hasn't your body recovered yet?"

"Yes." Nanako nodded gently: "Since the last time I finished the game with Aoxue, I was seriously injured. I was treated in Tokyo for a period of time. I am out of danger, but my body still failed to recover. The injury, may be possible, it will take a long period of recuperation to get better."

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "Actually, I came to see you this time mainly to help you heal your injury. I didn't expect to encounter such a thing..."

Nanako smiled gratefully, and said softly, "Master, my injury has been seen by the best doctors in Japan. What they mean is that it is very rare to save my face. With existing medical methods, it is very difficult. Let me recover again. If I can get rid of the wheelchair in a few years, it will be considered a medical miracle."

After that, Nanako raised her head again, staring at Charlie with fiery eyes, and said seriously: "Master, you came to see me, I am already very moved, this is more important than getting me to stand up again or to recover."

"You don't know how much I miss you during this period of time, even I can't believe it, my biggest wish for such a long time is not to be able to recover, but to see Master Wade again..."

At this point, Nanako mustered up the courage, took Charlie's hand, and said affectionately: "Thank you, Master Wade! You are here, it is Nanako's blessing, if I can hold hands with Master Wade in this place. Walking in the snow for a while, I will have no regrets in this life..."

Seeing her gentle eyes, Charlie felt a little distressed in his heart. He looked at her and said very seriously: "Nanako, I have a way for you to heal you and restore you to the state before the fight!"

Chapter 1769

Hearing Charlie's unwavering words, Nanako was a little dumbfounded.

She couldn't believe that her injury still had the possibility of recovering as before, but when Charlie said this, she suddenly felt very trusting.

So, she asked Charlie in surprise: "Master, do you really have a way to heal my injury?"

Charlie nodded and said, "But before I treat you, I'd better treat these corpses."

Nanako hurriedly said, "I'll call the butler!"

"No need." Charlie stopped her and said: "I had a little conflict with your father in Tokyo. If you tell the housekeeper about such a big matter, he will definitely notify your father immediately. It may not look good at that time."

Nanako asked in surprise: "Master, did you see my father in Tokyo?! Why are you conflicting?"

Charlie shrugged his shoulders and said, "This matter is a long story. I will tell you later when I will treat you."

Nanako stuck out her tongue and said with a smile: "It seems that my father must have suffered a lot with Master Wade..."

Charlie chuckled, "He didn't take the pain, he just lost a little money."

Nanako smiled and said, "It doesn't matter, he is not short of money anyway, and it doesn't matter at all to lose."

Charlie coughed and said, "He lost 4.5 billion USD."

"Huh?" Nanako was shocked by Charlie's words and asked in shock: "4.5 billion USD? Master is not kidding, right?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I'm not kidding, it's true, but I haven't considered whether it really cost him so much."

Nanako said without hesitation: "Master you don't have to think about it. This money will be regarded as a token from my father for me. After all, you just saved my life. My life is in his eyes. More than four and a half-billion dollars."

Charlie laughed and said, "You are generous, so you are not afraid that your father will know that he is angry with you?"

Nanako shook her head and said seriously: "If he dares to be angry, then I will run away from home and go to China to join Master Wade, and then never come back!"

"Uh....."

Charlie was speechless at once.

He didn't know if Nanako was joking or was serious. If she was serious, he would naturally be willing deep in his heart, but he couldn't explain to Claire...

At this time, Nanako saw Charlie hesitating, and hurriedly smiled: "Master, I am making a joke with you, you don't have to be serious, and even if I really want to go to China, I must buy a house in Aurous Hill and settle down by myself. Will not cause trouble to Master Wade!"

Charlie sighed and said, "I'll talk about this later. I'll deal with these six corpses first. You have a lot of rooms in your yard. Which one is not commonly used?"

Nanako pointed to the west wing and said, "That room is a storage room, but since I haven't come back for a long time, it has been empty."

Charlie nodded and said, "It's cold, I will send you back to the room, and then deal with these corpses. When this is over, I will treat your wounds first. After the wounds are healed, you will inform the housekeeper at home, let them dispose of the body properly."

Nanako hurriedly asked, "Master, are you going to leave after healing me?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said, "I have to go back to Osaka. I will return to China after I finish my work there."

Nanako looked a little lost, and murmured: "Then I hope...my injury will never be cured..."

Charlie blurted out: "Don't talk nonsense, it's bad luck."

Nanako said earnestly: "In that case, Master Wade can stay here forever? Because you said, you can only leave if the injury is cured, and you can't leave if the injury is not cured."

Charlie looked at her with a helpless smile, and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely cure you."

Chapter 1770

Nanako asked Charlie, "Master, do I have a chance to see you again in the future?"

Charlie nodded: "Yes, I now put part of my business in Japan, and I might come here often in the future."

"That's great!" Nanako said with joy, "Master, can you promise me one thing?"

Charlie said, "Say it."

Nanako hurriedly said, "I hope you can tell me every time you come to Japan. If it is convenient for you, I hope you allow me to see you!"

"In addition, if I come to China, if Master is also convenient, please allow me to meet you, okay?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "No problem, I promise you."

Nanako cheered like a little girl and said, "Then I will see Master Wade often in the future!"

Charlie was touched by her sweet smile, and her voice became gentle. He smiled and said, "Okay, I will send you back to the room first, and I will come to help you heal later."

Soon, under Nanako's guidance, Charlie pushed her wheelchair and sent her back to her room.

Nanako's room has a typical Japanese classical layout. The whole house is made of natural wood flooring, which is clean and tidy and simple and elegant.

There is a tea table on the floor in the room, as well as a Japanese-style book case and flower arrangement table. On the wall of the room, there are many calligraphy works, which seem to be written by Nanako.

Charlie sent her back to the room and helped her into the room.

In order to prevent Nanako from falling, Charlie held her hand with one hand, and supported her waist with one hand. Such intimate contact made his heart beat faster, and at the same time made Nanako two red clouds float on her face.

Charlie just so supported Nanako, and at her request, he helped her sit down on the futon at the tea table.

On the tea table, there is a set of exquisite Japanese tea sets and a small incense burner.

After Nanako sat down, Charlie said: "Wait for me, I will deal with the bodies outside."

Nanako looked at Charlie shyly, and said, "Master, I am in a bad health and can't help you, so I'll make a cup of tea and wait for you to drink."

Charlie nodded, then turned and left the room.

At this time, the six corpses lying in the snow were half buried by the snow.

Charlie carefully moved the corpses to the storage room, and then stepped back to Nanako's room.

When he returned, the room was already ignited with a delicate and quiet sandalwood incense, and Nanako was carefully brushing the matcha powder with a Japanese-style tea bowl and brush.

Seeing Charlie coming in, she hurriedly said to him: "Master, please sit down!"

Charlie nodded and sat cross-legged on the futon in front of her.

While brushing the matcha powder, Nanako said to him: "The Japanese tea ceremony may not be the same as the Chinese tea ceremony. The tea here is brewed with matcha powder. don't know if Master Wade is used to drinking it."

Charlie smiled and said, "I tasted Japanese tea ceremony with my parents when I was young, and I felt pretty good personally."

Nanako nodded, smiled and said, "That's good!"

With that said, Nanako was about to make Charlie tea, Charlie frowned suddenly, lowered his voice and said to her: "Someone has come in over the wall!"

"Ah?!" Nanako's eyes widened in surprise: "Are you with the few people just now?"

Charlie shook his head: "don't know yet, but there is only one person on the other side. It may not be here to hurt you. Don't talk nonsense later, we will do what we do!"

Chapter 1771

Brother and sister Zhifei and Zhiyu have been transported directly to Kyoto since they were taken out of Tokyo.

At this time, the brother and sister were imprisoned in a house less than two kilometers away from here.

The ninjas of the Iga family are responsible for guarding them.

They have been waiting for Ryoto Matsumoto's order. If Ryoto Matsumoto lets them do it, they will immediately kill the brother and sister, and then quietly transport their bodies into the Ito family mansion.

However, before Matsumoto issued the order, they had to keep the siblings alive, so as not to be inconvenient to transport after the dead body was too long and stiff.

The ninjas of the Iga family are best at assassination. In their experience, the most convenient time to carry a corpse is within an hour after death. At this time, the corpse is relatively soft and can even be packed in a suitcase, but if it exceeds this time, the body will become more and more rigid.

So they plan to kill the brother and sister immediately after receiving the order of Matsumoto Ryoto, and then take them directly to the Ito's mansion to find a suitable place to hide.

Just ten minutes ago, Ryoto Matsumoto called and asked them to check the situation in the Ito family mansion.

First, take a look at the defense of Ito's mansion and find the weakest link. Then they have to find a suitable place to hide the dead body. After confirming it, kill the brothers and sisters directly.

So, an Iga ninja sneaked into the Ito house alone, preparing to step on a spot first.

It was this person that Charlie noticed in Nanako's room.

This person observed the wall for a while, and seemed to have selected the remote courtyard of Nanako. After looking around for a while, he took out a few photos with his mobile phone, and then quietly rolled down the wall and planned to leave.

Charlie stood up at this time and said to Nanako: "I'll go out for a while, you are waiting for me here."

Nanako hurriedly asked: "Master, where are you going?"

Charlie said: "That person was also a ninja just now. He came here alone, and 80% came to step on it. There may be other ninjas behind him. Let me go and see!"

Nanako stretched out her hand to hold him, and said seriously: "Master, please don't go, it will be dangerous!"

Charlie said seriously: "If there are ninjas peeping in secret, it is very likely that they are conspiring against you. If I don't go now, they may find you soon. If this is the case, it is better to take the initiative and get it done once and for all. Get rid of them."

Nanako said nervously, "But I am worried about you...I don't want Master to take risks for me..."

Charlie smiled slightly and shook his hand and said seriously: "The reason why I came to Kyoto is for you. Whether it is a sword mountain or a sea of fire, since I have come, I will definitely take care of it!"

After speaking, he released Nanako's hand, turned and left.

Nanako was immediately hit by Charlie's words. In addition to being moved and happy, her whole heart seemed to be melted by his words.

When Charlie said this sentence, there was no domineering voice, but it gave her an unprecedented sense of security.

Nanako realized that at this moment, she was hopelessly in love with Charlie.

For him, she was willing to give everything, even if he let her sacrifice her life for Charlie, she would never hesitate.

So, she hurriedly reached out and grabbed Charlie, and said piously: "Master, please pay attention to safety. If you have any accidents, Nanako will definitely die for you without hesitation!"

Chapter 1772

Charlie turned around and smiled softly: "Don't worry, I will be back soon."

After speaking, he stepped away from Nanako's room and disappeared into the vast snowy night.

.....

In the wind and snow, the Iga ninja who came to step on the spot was running fast in the night.

He moves quickly and is as light as a swallow. Under the cover of the night, he is almost like an elusive ghost.

However, he would never have thought that right behind him, he was also followed by a super master who was a hundred times stronger than him. This super master was Charlie.

Ninja Iga ran for two kilometers without stopping, and finally stopped at a courtyard door. Then he came to the courtyard's simple door, buttoned the door four times in two long and two short ways, and the door opened from the inside. A gap where only one person can pass sideways.

Immediately afterwards, he quickly stepped in and disappeared.

But Charlie concealed his breath and heartbeat, and quietly jumped onto the wall, carefully watching the courtyard.

The entire courtyard is not too big. The front yard is more than 200 square meters, with some bamboo and ancient pine planted, and behind the courtyard is a wooden two-story building.

The Iga Ninja, who had just entered, went straight through the front yard and entered the two-story building.

Charlie could feel that there were more than six or seven people in this building, so he walked along the wall and quietly came to the building.

At this time, on the second floor of this building, there is a hall of about 50 square meters. In the hall, there is a ninja in black. In addition, on the floor in the middle, there are two quilts. People with big ties and balaclavas.

The ninja that Charlie followed all the way, after stepping up to the second floor, reported to one of the ninjas headed by: "Master, I have just found out that the internal defense of the Ito family mansion is very weak, and there are only less than ten people. The strength of guards is average!"

The leading ninja hummed and said: "This time we are going to quietly throw the corpses of these two Chinese people in, so even if the opponent's strength is weak, we have to make sure not to disturb anyone, quietly. Go in, leave the corpse, and then quietly withdraw."

After that, he asked again: "Have you found a suitable place to hide the body?"

"Found it!" The ninja hurriedly reported: "In the Ito Mansion, there is a very secluded small courtyard. There is also a pine forest in the small courtyard. Now the snow is thick. We can hide the body there for a short time. It should not be discovered by anyone."

Speaking of this, he immediately took out his mobile phone, turned out the album, and reported to the Chief Executive: "Master, I took some photos. Please take a look."

The other party took the phone, flipped it a few times, and nodded in satisfaction: "Yes, at first glance, this pine forest shows that few people go there. The corpse is hidden here. No one will find it for several hours or even ten hours, Mr. Matsumoto. The requirement is for at least two hours not to be discovered by the Ito family. If you hide here, time is enough."

Another ninja hurriedly asked, "Master, when will we kill these two Chinese?"

The leader looked at the time and said, "Wait a minute, I'll call Mr. Matsumoto."

At this time, Zhiyu, who was wearing a black headgear, struggled violently.

Because her mouth was blocked, she could only whimper with her nose, trying to attract the other's attention.

The headed ninja frowned, pulled off her headgear, and observed at Zhiyu, who was extremely haggard and full of horror, and asked coldly: "What? Do you have any last words to say?"

Chapter 1773

At the moment Zhiyu was uncovered, Charlie immediately recognized her.

He couldn't help slandering in the bottom of his heart: "Isn't this woman the same woman who sat on the Rolls Royce of Eiki? When I taught Eiki, she even choked a few words with me, but I didn't expect these people to be tied up here, and it seems that they are going to kill her, and then blame Takehiko. It seems that this woman has a lot of background!"

At this time, Zhiyu was still stuffed with a towel in her mouth, so she sobbed for a long time, but couldn't really say a word.

So, the headed Iga Ninja stretched out his hand and tore off the towel from her mouth, and said coldly: "Give you a chance, just say what you want to say."

Zhiyu's eyes were full of horror, but she forced herself to calm down, and said tremblingly: "Let me and my brother go, you can tell me how much it costs, and I will give you ten times that to you!"

The leader sneered: "It's meaningless to talk about this. The rule in the Japanese ninja family is to be loyal to the employer. Only by being absolutely loyal to the employer can the ninja family be favored by the big family. Otherwise, once the big family is loyal to the ninja. When there are doubts, all ninjas in Japan will lose their jobs. At that time, we will become the public enemies of all ninjas in Japan. Even if you give me more money, I won't have my life!"

Zhiyu couldn't wait to say: "Then you can come to China! I will give you one billion, enough for you to live comfortably in China for a lifetime! Never fight for others!"

The leader was startled and couldn't help sighing: "Girl, I didn't expect you to be quite rich. One billion is indeed a very large sum. Let's not say whether I can get so much money, even if I can tell, I just said that I don't have a life-saver. Even if you give me 10 billion, I will still be hunted down by ninjas for the rest of my life. This deal is not worth it."

Zhiyu blurted out: "Then you think that if you kill me, no one will chase you? I tell you, if you kill me, my family will chase you at all costs! To that. At that time, no matter how much money you have, you will never be able to spend it!"

"No, no," the man said with a smile: "I am planning to kill you, but after I am planning to kill you, I will blame Takehiko. Anyway, there are some differences between you because of cooperation. At that time, both the TMPD and the family behind you will regard Takehiko as the man behind the killing of you two."

Zhiyu gritted her teeth and said, "All this is the work of Matsumoto, right?"

At this time, the headed Iga Ninja looked at Zhiyu and sneered: "Mr. Matsumoto originally wanted to cooperate with you piously, but he didn't expect that you are really above the top, and you are very arrogant! Mr. Matsumoto came to see you in person, But you ignore him. Since you are so rude to Mr. Matsumoto, don't complain that he is cruel to you!"

Just now, when the leader was talking to his subordinates, he mentioned Mr. Matsumoto. Zhiyu had realized at that moment that Master of all this was Mr. Matsumoto.

She really did not expect that Ryoto Matsumoto, who can only rank third in Tokyo in strength, could be so vicious!

He attacked her and her elder brother and blamed Takehiko. He must take the opportunity to weaken the strength of the Ito family, and maybe even use other methods against the Takahashi family.

If the time comes as he planned, his family goes to Takehiko to seek revenge, wouldn't Matsumoto be able to take advantage of the fisherman? !

Thinking of this, she felt extremely regretful.

Knowing this, when Mr. Matsumoto came to see her, she and her brother should have met him. No matter what he said, at least they would not have offend this person for face.

It's a pity that these things are now an afterthought, the big mistake has been made, and there is no room for reversal now.

Zhifei on the side was too regretful, but he was covered, his mouth was pouting, and he couldn't say a word.

The headed Iga Ninja took out his cell phone, called Ryoto Matsumoto, and respectfully said: "Mr. Matsumoto, Ito's mansion has been inquired, there is a very suitable place to hide the bodies, and the defense of the opponent is also very weak. We are confident that we will not be discovered by anyone in the process of hiding the body. I wonder when Mr. Matsumoto wants us to do it?"

Ryoto Matsumoto smiled and said, "Tokyo is very chaotic now. It hasn't been so chaotic for decades, so I want to wait a little longer so that I can rest assured to finish watching the Tokyo drama!"

Chapter 1774

Iga Ninja immediately said: "OK Mr. Matsumoto, we are always at your disposal!"

Ryoto Matsumoto sneered and said: "By the way, the two you kidnapped, their family members have come to Tokyo, I hope you will make these two people die a little bit more tragically, when the police find their bodies, the more miserable the scene the better, the more miserable they die, the more angry their family members will be, and this event will be even more exciting!"

Iga Ninja hurriedly said: "Don't worry, we will do it!"

Ryoto Matsumoto said: "That woman is said to be pretty good. You might as well abuse her before killing her. If her family sees her being abused to death, they will definitely hate Takehiko more!"

When Iga Ninja heard this, he suddenly laughed and said: "In fact, my brothers have been coveting this woman, but I was worried that your good deeds will be broken, so I have been stopping them, but since you say this, I am completely relieved!"

Ryoto Matsumoto laughed and said, "It's okay, let the brothers enjoy it. By the way, you can come together. By the way, you can take some videos that will not expose your faces. If you send it out then, it will definitely have a better effect, haha Haha!"

Ninja Iga laughed similarly: "Mr. Matsumoto, don't worry, we will definitely shoot a blockbuster for you!"

Zhiyu at this time, her face pale in fright.

She tremblingly pleaded: "I beg you to kill me directly, don't ruin my innocence..."

"Innocence?" Iga Ninja smiled and asked: "So, you are still innocent? A super beauty like you still retains innocence. This is really rare, such a precious gift, I must disassemble you myself later!"

Ryoto Matsumoto smiled on the other side of the phone and said, "Okay Iga Kamino, I won't bother you with good things. You still have an hour and a half to indulge yourself. After an hour and a half, kill them, and then Bury the corpse in Takehiko's mansion!"

Iga Ninja hurriedly said, "Mr. Matsumoto, don't worry. After two hours, the bodies of these two people will lie in the snow in the Ito Mansion! You will be able to reveal the news to the TMPD."

"Very good! I will never treat you badly after it's done!"

The Ninja hung up the phone, looked at Zhiyu, and rubbed his hands in excitement: "Beauty, before you die, I will let you taste the ultimate happiness of a woman. For your good, you must obediently cooperate with me. If you make me happy, I can give you a reward!"

Zhiyu almost collapsed. She burst into tears and said in horror: "Please, kill me now..."

Iga Kamino laughed: "It's not so easy to want to die now. I have to ask my brothers if they agree!"

Zhiyu shivered in shock, and blurted out, "Help! Help!"

Iga Kamino sneered: "To tell you the truth, the several houses around here are all focused on repairs. Even if you shout at the top of your voice, there is no way anyone will come to rescue you! You can keep your voice and stay under me. Scream happily, the harder you call, the more excited I will be, hahahaha!"

The other ninjas also laughed presumptuously.

At this moment, a voice suddenly rang: "You group of beasts, together to bully a girl, do you think you deserve to live?"

It was Charlie who spoke!

Chapter 1775

When Charlie's voice suddenly sounded, so many well-trained ninjas were all startled by his voice!

No one thought that they would be tracked by others!

Moreover, before this person spoke, no one realized his existence!

The headed Iga Kamino took out the ninja sword almost instantly, looked around vigilantly, and asked nervously, "Who is it?! Get out for me!"

At this moment, Charlie jumped from the wall, broke the window and entered, leaving the floor with broken glass.

The moment Zhiyu saw Charlie, her whole body was struck by lightning!

She couldn't believe that someone would come to save her at this time, and she couldn't believe that it was the Chinese man she met on the streets of Tokyo!

Moreover, she also offended him because she didn't know what happened!

At this time, Charlie was standing upright in the broken window. In her eyes, Charlie in front of her was more than handsome, like a god!

The violent cold wind poured in from the broken window, blowing Charlie's hair and clothes, in her eyes, there was a sense of sight of a great hero in a martial arts movie.

However, Charlie's attention at this time was completely off Zhiyu's body.

He observed at Iga Kamino with cold eyes, and said coldly: "I thought ninjas are so ethical, you turned out to be such a mob! It's not fair for you to bully women, and for that you deserve to die!"

Several other ninjas of the Iga family stepped back, staring at Charlie and drew the ninja swords.

They knew that Charlie could always hide nearby without being discovered, and he must have extraordinary strength, so they didn't dare to act rashly, they were all waiting for Iga Kamino.

Iga Kamino's face is blue at this time!

Others call him a superior ninja, which means superior ninja, not just a nominal name.

In the Japanese ninja registration system, roughly divided into upper ninja, middle ninja and lower ninja.

He is already at the top level among ninjas and is highly respected throughout the country.

However, he did not expect that the man in front of him would dare to insult him and insult all ninjas. It was really unforgivable!

So he roared: "Boy! There is an old saying, there is a way to heaven, you don't go, and there is no way to hell, you break in! Since you are looking for death, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Having said that, he immediately swung his ninja sword and shouted to the people around him: "Set up an array! Trapped in the formation and kill him! I will cut off his head with my own hands, and let him atone for the insult to the ninja!"

With a flash, the other six ninjas surrounded Charlie one after another.

Charlie didn't change his face at this time, and said coldly, "Want to cut my head? Not to mention that you only have two hands, even if you have eight hands!"

Iga Kamino said sarcastically: "Boy, it's okay to look down on me, but don't look down on ninjutsu. I'm a dignified ninja. If I can't cut your head off, I'm sorry Amaterasu!"

Charlie's expression became more and more gloomy, and he reprimanded in a deep voice, "Today, I really want to see that!"

"court death!"

Iga Kamino is angry and rushed.

He roared, and immediately shook the ninja sword with both hands, rushing towards Charlie with a mighty force!

Several other people also released knives one after another, intending to chop Charlie into meat sauce.

Charlie's tactics against ninjas are really powerless to complain.

Just like a group of mad dogs biting people, the core tactic is to attack in groups.

In their eyes, anyway, the ninja swords were smeared with highly toxic substances, and everyone rushed forward and attacked. As long as a sword pierced one centimeter of the opponent's skin, they would win the battle.

For thousands of years, ninjas have relied on such tricks to defeat their opponents countless times, which can be said to be time-tested!

Chapter 1776

But.

This time, they met, it was Charlie!

Charlie's face did not change at this time, and his toes gently rubbed on the ground, and a triangular piece of broken glass ballast on the ground suddenly bounced from the ground at a very fast speed, and went straight to Iga Kamino!

In the blink of an eye, Charlie kicked another piece of glass ballast again, and shot in the same direction!

As Iga Kamino rushed, he suddenly saw two crystal clear and colorful things in his eyes, like two shooting stars one after another, passing by his vision in an instant!

Before he had time to think about what it was, he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his right wrist holding the ninja sword!

In less than a blink of an eye, the same pain suddenly came from his left wrist!

After a while, he felt that his hands lost strength in a short time, and the ninja sword in his hand immediately took off and fell to the ground.

At the same time, two warm red water mists from unknown sources rushed onto his face immediately...

When he smelled the strong bloody smell in the red water mist, he finally realized that his hands had been cut off by the two meteor-like rays of light!

And the two red water mists that spewed out were blood mists spewing out from the wrists of his two hands!

He was shocked! He doesn't understand why this happened at all!

At this moment, Charlie suddenly rushed forward!

He grabbed Iga Kamino by the neck and picked up his body directly!

At the same time, Charlie has also avoided the encirclement of other people!

This group of mad dog-like ninjas thought that Charlie might choose a direction to break through, but none of them expected that Charlie would choose Iga Kamino's direction to breakthrough!

Didn't this take the initiative to hit the hardest wall? !

However, Charlie chose the hardest one among them!

At this time, Iga Kamino, the whole person was provoked by Charlie pinching the neck with one hand, and the wrists of both hands were still bleeding. Although the arms can still move, they can't move completely below the wrists, so they can't move completely. Lost all attack power!

Charlie pinched his neck, walked straight through the hall from the window, and then slammed his body against the wall with one hand!

At the same time, Charlie still kept the posture of pinching his neck with one hand, making him 30 centimeters above the ground!

At this time, Iga Kamino, with his legs hanging in the air, stuck to the wall, relying on Charlie's hand to get stuck so that he would not slip off the wall.

But the tremendous strength in Charlie's hands made him almost unable to breathe, his legs kicked, his face was dark purple!

Everyone at the scene was frightened!

Especially the few Iga Ninjas, feeling that the whole worldview has been subverted!

Everyone is horrified, what is the origin of this man? !

He... why is he so strong!

More than strong!

It's like a god!

The powerful Iga Kamino, under his hand, has fallen like a dead dog!

What kind of perverted ability is necessary to form such an Abneral and thorough crush on Iga Kamino? !

At this time, Charlie's expression was extremely cold, but the corners of his mouth appeared to be extremely ridiculous, and he sneered word by word: "It turns out! This is what the ninjutsu is! What a long time waste!"

Chapter 1777

Charlie's words made everyone more frightened immediately!

They realized at this time that Charlie had just kicked two pieces of broken glass ballast with his toes just now, and he had directly and accurately cut off Iga Kamino's two hand muscles!

It is not difficult to kick the glass ballast.

It's not difficult to hurt people with kicked glass ballast.

But the difficulty is that it is impossible to accurately cut off a person's two hand muscles with a kicked glass fragment!

What's more, instead of standing there and letting the opponent attack, Iga Kamino rushed all the way to the opponent, and would be cut off from his hands while moving at a high speed. This head is incredible!

Moreover, Charlie can completely subdue Iga Kamino with just one hand, and this ability is also incredible!

What kind of perverted strength is it that can reach this point? !

Zhiyu also looked silly!

At this moment, Charlie nailed Iga Kamino to the wall with one hand, it was like a god in her eyes!

At this time, Iga Kamino was still struggling, trying to break away from Charlie's control, but the tiger's mouth on Charlie's right hand was like steel bars, leaving only a little space for him to breathe.

Iga Kamino struggled and asked with a slight voice, "You...who are you?!"

"Me?" Charlie smiled: "I am your Chinese father."

Iga Kamino's expression was extremely ugly, as were other people's expressions.

However, at this moment, no one dared to attack Charlie.

Because they knew that with Charlie's strength, Iga Kamino's neck could be chopped off easily.

At this time, Iga Kamino gritted his teeth and asked: "I have no grievances with you, what do you want?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I want your life!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at the dumb ninjas and sneered: "Oh yes, I also want your life."

Everyone took a step back, holding knives in both hands, but their expressions were full of horror.

At this time, Iga Kamino shouted: "Hurry up and tie that woman! Come on!"

As soon as the voice fell, a ninja rushed up, put the ninja sword on Zhiyu's neck, and said nervously: "Let him go! Otherwise, I will kill her!"

Charlie gave a hum, and said lightly: "If you want to kill, feel free to kill. don't know her either."

Iga Kamino said hoarsely: "You don't bluff me here! Didn't you come to save her?!"

Charlie said calmly: "Of course not! I came to Kyoto today to visit my old friend, that is, Miss Nanako of the Ito family. As a result, your people are so dying to go to the Ito family to inquire. Just came here."

As soon as Charlie said these words, Iga Kamino was ashamed!

He really thought that Charlie was a member of the Su family, or a master hired by the Su family, who came to rescue Zhiyu and Zhifei. Then he could use the lives of the brother and sister as a bargaining chip, perhaps in exchange for way out.

However, he never thought that this person turned out to be here for Nanako, so he followed the person he sent to step on it all the way!

Thinking of this, Iga Kamino suddenly remembered something, and hurriedly pleaded: "You gentleman, we have no intention of hurting Miss Ito. We just wanted to kill these two people and then blame the Ito family. We didn't even think about going to be bad for Miss Ito!"

Chapter 1778

Charlie sneered: "According to you, you kill two people casually and bury them in her home in the snow. Didn't it mean to harm her and her family?"

Iga Kaminori was stunned. He was very eager to survive, and hurriedly tossed Matsumoto Ryoto: "In fact, we are commissioned by others. It is Matsumoto Ryoto who really wants to deal with the Ito family. It has nothing to do with us... .."

Charlie asked back: "You are helping the gang to abuse you, and now you still tell me it doesn't matter, are your ninja bones so soft?"

Iga Kamino suppressed the humiliation in his heart, and said: "I believe in an old saying in your country... It's better to die than to live... Please give me a chance, I am willing to help you After the saddle..."

Charlie shook his head: "After you saddle me, you are not qualified."

After all, he looked around for a long time and said lightly: "You are the same, get ready to go on the road!"

As soon as Iga Kamino heard this, he immediately roared, "Go together, kill him! Kill him! Kill him and have a chance to live, otherwise he will have to wait for death!"

When everyone heard it, their faces were immediately full of awe.

They also knew very well that Charlie was too strong, and if he confronted them head-on, or let him break one by one, everyone would be finished!

The best way is to attack in group. In any case, try your best to kill him. As for how many people like them can survive, it all depends on their own good fortune!

As a result, the remaining six ninjas rushed towards Charlie with their swords mad, and everyone's expressions were extremely hideous!

Zhiyu saw so many people attacking Charlie, the heart jumped to her throat!

However, she didn't make any sound, let alone remind Charlie to be careful, because she knew that she didn't need to do anything to interfere with Charlie's concentration.

She observed him with hot eyes, and murmured in her heart: "Today, my life and death depends entirely on this man who does not yet know her name!"

"If he dies, I will definitely die; if he survives, maybe he will let my brother and me live a life..."

"You gentleman, what happened last time was that I was wrong. I have already apologized to you countless times in my heart. This time, I hope you can survive, even if I eventually die, I don't want you to die because of me... .."

When she thought of this, a group of ninjas had already passed through the entire hall and surrounded Charlie tightly.

Charlie didn't change his face. Seeing six swords slashing at him, with a wave of his hand, he directly waved Iga Kamino's body!

Seven people including Iga Kamino didn't expect Charlie to use him as a meat shield!

At this moment, Iga was frightened and screamed: "Stop! Stop!"

However, the six men came down fiercely, and they had already reached the stage of raising the sword, how could they be able to get it back!

Iga Kamino watched as six swords slashed down, and in a short time, they slashed on him one after another!

Iga Kaminori felt severe pain all over his body, gritted his teeth and groaned: "Fools! Wastes! Eight quacks!"

As soon as the voice fell, he died suddenly by vomiting blood!

Seeing that Iga Kamino was hacked to death by them, the six people turned pale with fright. At this moment, Charlie suddenly slammed Iga Kamino's corpse, and flew away!

The remaining six ninjas did not recover at all. They only felt that the tiger's mouth was shaken, and the ninja sword disappeared!

At this time, the six were shocked, and some of them had completely lost their intent to fight and turned to flee!

At this moment, Charlie sneered: "Since you have already made a move, it's my turn now!"

Chapter 1779

As soon as Charlie's words fell, people already rushed out!

His physical function and speed are already far comparable to others, so these ninjas are not given a chance at all.

Every time he catches one, he directly hits the opponent's abdomen with a heavy punch, causing the opponent to instantly lose all combat power and escape opportunities.

In the blink of an eye, the six ninjas running away all lay on the ground one by one.

Zhiyu was dumbfounded!

As the eldest granddaughter of the Su family, she is also one of the most favored children. She has been in contact with Masters hidden behind the Su family since childhood, but in her opinion, Charlie's strength is far above those people!

What she can't understand is that the hidden masters enshrined by the Su family are hard to pick in the country. In theory, they have touched the ceiling of martial arts, but why is Charlie so powerful that it is incredible.

The appearance of Charlie suddenly raised the ceiling of martial arts in her mind by more than thousand levels!

Seeing a group of ninjas lying on the ground wailing, Zhiyu was shocked and relieved.

She knew that she and her brother were finally saved.

So, she couldn't help but looked at Charlie excitedly, and blurted out: "Benevolence! Thank you so much today! don't know what to say? If you are willing to leave your name, I will do my best to return the great kindness!"

At this time, Charlie finally turned his head and looked at Zhiyu.

Zhiyu is very beautiful. Even with her tortured hands tied behind her back, her short hair is messily attached to her face, but she still can't hide her perfect facial features and beauty.

However, Charlie didn't like this woman very much.

First of all, he doesn't like the character of this woman.

In his opinion, this woman is self-righteous and arrogant, even if she can't see these characteristics at all, but combined with the impression of the first meeting, Charlie believes that he is right.

Secondly, he didn't like the woman's looks either.

Zhiyu is really beautiful, but her attitude is also really cold and arrogant, even with a bit of aggressive heroism.

In fact, in one sentence, this woman is a bit too pretending.

Charlie doesn't like people who like to pretend to be like her.

As the saying goes, there is no room for two tigers in one mountain, and the two auras repel each other, even if the tiger is a female.

So Charlie said calmly: "Whoever I am, don't bother you. I also don't want to know who you are. I am here today not to save you, but to kill them. As for saving you, But it's just a matter of convenience, so you don't have to thank me."

Zhiyu has never been underestimated in her life, but she has encountered Charlie twice.

However, at this moment, she doesn't have the slightest temper. She can only nod respectfully and sincerely said: "Anyway, thank you very much!"

Charlie didn't speak, walked to her and untied the rope on her body.

After that, he pulled off her brother's headgear, and pulled off the towel that was stuck in his mouth.

Zhifei has not been able to speak, nor has he seen everything that happened in this room, but when he heard Charlie's voice, he had already guessed that it was him. Seeing Charlie at this moment, the first sentence was: "You Brother, your great kindness, we brother and sister will never forget!"

Charlie untied the rope on his body and said blankly: "Okay, don't talk so much nonsense, I will set fire to burn this place later, you two quickly run away."

Chapter 1780

Zhiyu hurriedly asked, "My dear man! I wonder if you can lend me your phone. I want to call home. I have lost my phone..."

Zhiyu said that she wanted to make a phone call at home, but actually wanted to take this opportunity to get Charlie's phone number.

Now is the information age. As long as she can get the other party's mobile phone number, she can get all the other party's identity information.

In this case, after returning home, she will be able to find this benefactor.

Even if Charlie saw through the other party's tricks, he sneered and said: "I'm sorry, the mobile phone is a personal item, so you can't borrow it."

After speaking, he reached out and took out a mobile phone from a ninja, and threw it to Zhiyu: "Hey, use this, call your family, tell them the location, and let them send someone to pick you up as soon as possible."

Zhiyu was stunned to pick up the phone. The phone hit her lap. She was extremely disappointed, but she couldn't show it, so she picked it up and said gratefully, "Thank you, Grace!"

Charlie flipped through the ninja again, and found out a very thin personal wallet, which contained five ten thousand yen banknotes in addition to the person's ID.

Although it is not much, it is enough for them to find a place to stay, wait a few hours, and wait for their family to pick them up.

No matter what, this money enough for them to take the train back to Tokyo.

So Charlie handed the money to Zhiyu, and said: "You take the money, go with your brother quickly."

Zhiyu hesitated in her heart.

She really didn't want to leave like this.

Because she didn't know Charlie's identity yet, for fear that she would never see him ever again.

At this moment, she wanted to tell Charlie her identity so that he would come to her if he encountered any difficulties after returning home.

However, when the words came to her lips, she swallowed it back.

This is because she knew in her heart that an unruly top expert like Charlie would never put her identity in his eyes. If she told him that she was the granddaughter of Su family, it would be counterproductive.

He might think that she deliberately used her identity to put pressure on him, and thus disgusted herself;

He may also avoid her completely in the country from now on because he does not want to have any intersection with her.

In that case, revealing the identity now would be self-defeating.

So, she had to stand up, bowed deeply to Charlie, and said sincerely: "Benevolence, thank you for your life-saving grace, if there is a chance to meet again in the future, I will definitely repay your kindness for today!"

Zhifei also bowed aside: "Grace, thank you!"

Charlie waved his hand: "Okay, leave now, I have business work later, I have no time to be polite with you here."

Zhifei was a little embarrassed, so he nodded his head again and again: "Sorry, we delayed your business..."

Zhiyu looked at Charlie, bit her lower lip, trying to say something, but finally gave up.

When she and Zhifei came to the wooden stairs on the second floor side by side, he suddenly turned around, hugged Charlie, and said with great reluctance and piousness: "Grace, if there is a destiny in the future, we will see you again!"

Charlie didn't lift his head, and said coldly, "I won't see you again."

Chapter 1781

Zhiyu was hurt by Charlie's attitude.

She looked at Charlie's profile, bit her lower lip vigorously, did not speak anymore, turned and left the courtyard with her brother.

The siblings staggered out, and Zhifei asked in a low voice, "Zhiyu, those ninjas were defeated by the young man just now?"

Zhiyu said solemnly: "It's not that young man, it's Grace."

Zhifei nodded in a hurry: "Well, it's Grace, so were those ninjas defeated by him with bare hands?"

"Hmm." Zhiyu said seriously: "I have never seen such a strong person...this is the first time..."

Zhifei smacked his lips and said, "It would be great if he could be included in the Su family and used for the future."

"Impossible." Zhiyu shook her head: "Grace has an arrogant personality and will definitely not be used by others, and he may be the top master of the hidden Sejong Sect. He may not put the Su family in his eyes."

Zhifei said angrily: "It's also...hey...thanks to your benefactor, otherwise the two of us will have to die in Kyoto..."

After he finished speaking, he was busy and said again: "By the way, Zhiyu, hurry up and call dad! This time we were kidnapped, the family must have sent a lot of masters over, it is very likely that dad is here too! You have to let him know about us that we are in Kyoto, also ask him to quickly chop off Matsumoto b@stard! I really didn't expect it to be this b@stard who has been doing bad things behind our back!"

At this time, a burst of fire suddenly appeared behind them, turning the originally dark night into red!

Zhiyu hurriedly turned around, and saw that the two-story small building where they had almost died just now was ignited in an instant!

The wooden buildings burned, and there was a crackling sound of wood cracking, a bit like the sound of firecrackers. With this heavy snow, it also had a taste of Chinese New Year.

Zhifei touched his chin and asked Zhiyu: "Zhiyu, did you say those ninjas died?"

Zhiyu asked back: "Is it possible to survive such a big fire?"

Zhifei waved his hand: "I didn't mean that, I mean, did the benefactor kill them first and then set the fire, or did he just put them all in a pot?"

Zhiyu felt a bit of cold air coming out of her back, and immediately shook her head: "This kind of thing...I can't say it..."

After that, Charlie's figure appeared in her mind again, and she couldn't help muttering: "Benevolence, he... is not a mortal... I really want to know what his identity is."

Zhifei smiled and said: "If you want to know, let the family check it out. In the country, who else has a clue that we can't find?"

Zhiyu shook her head: "Benevolence obviously doesn't want us to know his identity. If we deliberately investigate, what if we anger him?"

Zhifei smacked his lips: "Oh, that's what I said..."

After that, he thought of Charlie's previous conversation with Iga Kamino and said, "By the way, when I was covered with my head just now, I heard En-gong tell the Iga family that he seems to be the Ito family Missy's friend?"

"Oh yes!" Zhiyu nodded and blurted out: "The reason why he came here is for Ito's daughter."

Zhifei said: "It seems to be called Nanako?"

"Yes." Zhiyu blurted out: "It's Nanako, a very beautiful girl, and she's also a martial artist."

Zhifei said in some gossip: "Hey, Zhiyu, do you think Grace is Nanako's boyfriend? Maybe he can even become Ito's future son-in-law. Let's cooperate more with Ito in the future. , More contact, maybe there is still a chance to see Grace."

Zhiyu heard this and suddenly became very uncomfortable.

She was extremely disappointed and asked: "Is Grace really Nanako's boyfriend? Grace is Chinese, why should he be with a woman from Japan? Shouldn't he fall in love, get married, or have children with a Chinese woman?"

Thinking of this, Zhiyu sighed faintly, and said: "Let me call Dad first..."

"Okay." Zhifei nodded, bent over and grabbed a handful of snow from the ground, and smeared it on his face, sighing with emotion: "Oh, the feeling of the rest of my life is really good..."

.....

Chapter 1782

Tokyo at this moment.

The chaos remains.

The TMPD has been driven mad.

First, the Su family's brothers and sisters were kidnapped and a dozen people were killed. Then the Takahashi family found several human popsicles. Then, Takahashi's son was burned alive in the car!

These few things, if you take out one of them, can be regarded as an annual criminal case.

However, in a very short period of time, one after another broke out in Tokyo!

Moreover, almost all the top big families are involved.

This is simply stepping the TMPD's face on the ground, and then repeatedly beating with a belt desperately!

Even worse, the TMPD has not found any useful clues.

A bunch of waste wood was almost digging three feet into Tokyo, and they still couldn't find a clue to the Su brothers and sisters. They didn't even know who did it, let alone where they were.

Therefore, the entire TMPD was collectively caught blind.

Zynn was about to lose patience.

The life and death of his son and daughter are still unknown, and his whereabouts are unknown, and he has to wait endlessly for the Rubbish of the TMPD. For him, it is simply the greatest suffering in his life!

Just when he was planning to contact the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs directly to raise the matter to a major diplomatic incident, he suddenly received a call from a local Japanese mobile phone number.

After he connected suspiciously, he immediately heard Zhiyu's voice: "Dad, it's me! Zhiyu!"

Hearing his daughter's voice, Zynn's heart almost jumped out. He blurted out with excitement, "I know..."

At this time, Zhiyu on the phone hurriedly interrupted him and said: "Dad, is there anyone else around you? If there are, don't let others know that I am calling!"

The human-like Zynn looked around. In addition to his own people, there are a few heads from the TMPD and even a few cabinet members, so he hurriedly changed his words: "Do you know me? Very busy now?! Hang up if there is nothing important, just say if there is something important!"

Zhiyu said: "Dad, brother and I are safe now. We have been rescued, but we are not in Tokyo, but in Kyoto."

While Zynn breathed a sigh of relief, he couldn't help but frown and look at the people from the TMPD.

At this time, he hated these idiots in his heart.

"These dumb donkeys! They vowed to tell me that the other party is very likely to hide in Tokyo, and it is unlikely that they will go out of the city!"

"Furthermore, they also said that they blocked Tokyo's external traffic in time and set a strict check on all those who left the city, so the son and daughter are definitely in Tokyo. It just takes time to find them out!"

"The results of it?"

"People are in Kyoto, hundreds of kilometers away!"

"I really want to take a knife and engrave the word idiot on their faces!"

However, Zynn also knew that now is not the time to be angry, so he asked, "What do you need me to do?"

Zhiyu said: "Dad, don't tell the people in the TMPD. I doubt their abilities, and they are likely to leak information, so I want you to send our own people to Kyoto. Pick me and brother."

Zynn said immediately: "Okay!"

Zhiyu said: "Also, Dad! The kidnapper was Ryoto Matsumoto in Tokyo! He wanted to kill us and then blame Takehiko Ito, so he brought us to Kyoto!"

"What?!" Zynn's tone suddenly became extremely gloomy: "It's him?!"

Chapter 1783

Zynn had highly suspected that the man behind the kidnapping of his children should be Takehiko Ito.

However, the TMPD secretly monitored Takehiko, dug deep for so long, and found no clues.

At first, Zynn thought that the TMPD deliberately protected Takehiko, but now he knows that Takehiko really has nothing to do with this matter.

Not only is it okay, but it's almost being blamed!

What Zynn did not expect was that the Master behind the whole incident turned out to be Matsumoto!

He didn't even include him in the category of suspects!

It seems that this Ryoto Matsumoto is really sinister!

He was able to provoke so many incidents secretly, and it made the Ito family and the Takahashi family suspect each other, and the Su family concentrated their eyes on these two families!

Thinking of this, Zynn could not wait to devour Matsumoto's life!

So he gritted his teeth and said: "I know everything you said, keep the phone open, and I will let the people under me contact you."

Zhiyu hurriedly said, "Okay, brother and I are waiting in Kyoto."

Zynn hung up the phone, stood up and said to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Commissioner: "I have something to do, you go ahead."

The Chief of Metropolitan Police hurriedly asked, "Mr. Su, where are you going?"

"What does it have to do with you?" Zynn said in an unkind tone: "You still have to find a way to find my son and daughter, otherwise, I will call the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs!"

The Chief of Metropolitan Police hurried forward and pleaded bitterly: "Mr. Su, you will give me the next 12 hours. Even if I turn Tokyo over these 12 hours, I will definitely find the son and daughter!"

After he finished speaking, he added: "Mr. Su, even if the Ministry of Foreign Affairs knows about it, they still submit the case to our TMPD. After all, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is not a law enforcement agency, and they have no extra manpower to come. Do this..."

Zynn coldly snorted: "Then you guys hurry Don't linger here!"

After that, Zynn turned angrily and walked away.

After leaving the TMPD, his first sentence in the car was to tell his confidant next to him: "Josh, you will immediately take twenty people to Kyoto to pick up Zhifei and Zhiyu. I'll take a while. Give you a cell phone number, you can contact Zhiyu."

The middle-aged man is known as Josh, a confidant secretary who has followed Zynn for many years. Hearing Zynn's instructions, he immediately asked: "Master have you found the young master and the young lady?"

"Yeah." Zynn nodded: "They are fine, but the black hand behind the scenes is beyond our imagination!"

Josh hurriedly asked: "Master who is it behind the scenes?"

Zynn gritted his teeth and said, "It's Mr. Matsumoto! d*mn, dare to calculate on my son and daughter, this Matsumoto has enough life! With a bang, let everyone else know, before dawn, I want Ryoto Matsumoto's head!"

Josh's expression froze, and he immediately said, "Okay master, I'm going to order!"

Zynn rubbed his temples and said, "You let one of our planes fly to Osaka now. After you receive Zhifei and Zhiyu in Kyoto, you will directly send them to Osaka and let them return to China by plane. I'll take over the things in Japan!"

"Ok, master!"

.....

After a few minutes.

Chapter 1784

Nearly a hundred hidden masters of the Su family in Tokyo stopped secretly searching for Zhifei and Zhiyu. Twenty of them drove straight to Kyoto in the middle of the night, and the remaining nearly 80 people all started to follow Matsumoto. His mansion is surrounded by them now.

Matsumoto didn't even know that he was in the mouth of the disaster.

He checked the time and saw that it was already ten o'clock in the night, so he took out his cell phone and called Iga Kamino.

According to his plan, let Iga Kamino kill people now, and then hide the bodies in the Ito family mansion half an hour later.

Then, wait patiently for a few more hours, when the body has almost completely lost its residual temperature, then anonymously report the clue to the TMPD.

In this way, Takehiko will be finished early tomorrow morning.

After Takehiko Ito is finished, the only enemy in front of him was Machi Takahashi.

The current Machi Takahashi should still be immersed in the pain of bereavement, unable to extricate himself, it can be said that it is the most vulnerable time, he can set an ambush to kill him when he is going to die for Eiki.

Matsumoto thought this in his mind, but the phone in his ear kept beeping unhurriedly.

"Why can't Iga Kamino's phone call get through?"

Matsumoto frowned involuntarily.

"Didn't I tell him before? He must always keep the phone open, so that I can communicate with anything in time. What's wrong?"

Matsumoto's heart suddenly twitched, and he said to himself, "Iga Kamino, could there be an accident?!"

"But this shouldn't be it! They took the Su family siblings all the way to Kyoto, and the TMPD has been searching for so long without any clues. How could there be an accident? No sense!"

"If they were discovered while hiding their bodies in the Ito family, and they were killed by the Ito family's ambush, it sounds logical, but the key is that they did not get his own orders and could not kill them in advance. This doesn't sound logical at all!"

"So, what happened to Kyoto?"

Ryoto Matsumoto, who had always been confident and thought he was strategizing, suddenly fell into a strong self-doubt.

.....

At this moment, it is not just Ryoto Matsumoto who can't make a call, but also Takahashi, who just lost his son.

Machi Takahashi has ordered that the Tenglin family ninja who is ambushing in Kyoto kill Nanako first and take a video of her killing.

Then, he used this video to torture Takehiko and let Takehiko die in extreme pain.

However, the ninja of the Tenglin family never gave him any reply.

He called to ask about the progress, but the call was completely unreachable, and after several changes, no one answered.

Seeing that all the calls couldn't get through, Takahashi shoved the phone to the ground and shouted angrily: "It's a hll! It's a hll! The invincible Tenglin Ninja, why is it all f*cking rubbish these days?"

"Before, Tenglin and the others disappeared for no reason, and they were finally sent back frozen as popsicles. Now there is no news about this batch of d*mn ninjas, will they be sent back frozen as popsicles too!"

The subordinates hurriedly said: "Mr. President, Master of the Tenglin family, will he encounter an ambush at Ito's house?"

"Where the h*ll came the ambush from?" Takahashi scolded annoyedly: "The situation over there has long been clear. The Ito family doesn't even have a ninja in Kyoto, just a few housekeepers, servants and ordinary bodyguards. What did these people use to ambush the ninjas of the Tenglin family? And there are still six people!"

After speaking, Takahashi couldn't help but mutter, "What could happen in Kyoto?!"

Chapter 1785

Neither Matsumoto nor Takahashi could understand what happened in Kyoto.

However, Matsumoto is far more shrewd than Takahashi.

When he couldn't contact Iga Kamino, although he couldn't figure out why, he had realized in his subconscious that the matter was probably going to be a big mistake.

Thinking of this, he immediately called the other members of the Iga family and immediately asked them about Iga Kamino.

But the people of the Iga family are also unaware of what happened in Kyoto.

They also couldn't get in touch with Iga Kamino, and didn't know if he was alive or dead.

At this time, Matsumoto really panicked.

He nervously paced back and forth in the living room at home, his brows were constantly frowning, and even his hand holding the cigar was shaking uncontrollably.

His younger brother Ryosuke Matsumoto saw him very nervously, and hurriedly calmed him down: "Brother, don't panic, if you panic, we really don't know how to deal with it next!"

Unlike Machi Takahashi, Machi Takahashi's goal is Nanako, which has nothing to do with the Su family, so it doesn't matter if his motivation is revealed.

The strength of the two families can basically come between five and five, so he is not afraid of Takehiko.

However, Matsumoto knew very well in his heart that if his motives were revealed, he would not only face the behemoth Su family, but also the Ito family and Takahashi family.

So, he smoked a cigar and said to Ryosuke Matsumoto: "The hand I played almost squeezed all our chips. If I win, the Matsumoto family can become the top in Japan; if I lose, The Matsumoto family will be ravaged to death by the three big families of Su, Ito, and Takahashi!"

As he said, he couldn't hide his nervousness and said, "Now, Iga Kaminori can't get in touch, and Zhifei and Zhiyu are dead or alive. don't know if our motives have been revealed. If it is not revealed, it doesn't matter. , At most, it's planting the plan of Takehiko Ito, but if it is revealed, then we will basically have no way to survive."

Matsumoto Ryosuke hurriedly asked: "Brother! We don't know if we have been exposed, are we just waiting for the verdict? That would be too passive? Even if we die, we have to find a way to fight back. You must not just give up like that."

Matsumoto thought for a moment, gritted his teeth, and said coldly: "Of course we have to resist! Since the first card is still dead or alive, we will bet on the second!"

Ryosuke Matsumoto asked, "Brother, how do you bet on the second one?"

Ryoto Matsumoto said sternly: "I bet that our motives for the Su family have not been revealed yet! In this way, we will go all out to kill Machi Takahashi and Takehiko Ito! Kill them and we will have a chance to become No. 1 in Japan!"

"Ah? Kill them?" Ryosuke Matsumoto asked in amazement, "Isn't it just trying to deal with the Su family?"

Ryoto Matsumoto shook his head: "It is a wishful thinking to deal with the Su family. With their strength, as long as the target is aimed at us, we have no resistance."

As he said, Matsumoto said again: "However, Machi Takahashi must be at the weakest time now. He is deprived of a few ninjas and lost his son. Now is a good time to kill him! Let the Iga family again Send a few ninjas to kill him! Anyway, Iga Ninjas are already in the same boat with us!"

Ryosuke Matsumoto asked again: "What about Takehiko? How to kill him? He seems to have no strength loss!"

Ryoto Matsumoto gritted his teeth and said: "Then he can only be outsmarted! Go and kidnap a few families of police officers from the TMPD, and then force these officers to come home, saying that they will return to the TMPD to assist in the investigation of the Su family. As long as he leaves home, we will have a chance to deal with the disappearance!"

Ryosuke Matsumoto continued to ask: "Brother, what if the Su family knows about us?"

Ryoto Matsumoto said with a vicious expression: "If they really know that they are all dead, then why don't they pull Machi Takahashi and Takehiko Ito under the water?"

Chapter 1786

"Okay!" Ryosuke Matsumoto said grimly: "Even if we die, some people will die with us! Anyway, we won't lose!"

.....

At this moment.

After Charlie set the two-story building on fire, he returned to the Ito family residence.

He went from the same road to Nanako's courtyard.

At this time, Nanako was sitting in front of the tea table with her eyes closed, her hands gently twisting a string of Bodhi beads, and she silently recited Buddhist scriptures to pray for Charlie.

Buddhism is not only prevalent in China, it has also been prevalent in Japan for a long time. Since Mr. Jianzhen traveled east to Japan, Buddhism in Japan has developed rapidly.

Although the Buddhism of the two countries is somewhat dissimilar, there is almost no essential difference between the believers of the two countries in the matter of chanting and praying.

After reading silently for a long time, the incense in the incense burner had already burned. She felt the fragrance dissipate. When she opened her eyes and wanted to order another plate, she found that Charlie was already sitting opposite her.

Nanako was frightened, covering her mouth and exclaimed: "Master, you...when did you come back?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Just now, five seconds ago."

"Huh?" Nanako said incredulously, "Why didn't I notice any movement?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Because I thought you were chanting sutras, so I didn't disturb you."

Nanako blushed, and said softly: "I was praying for Master just now, and I hoped the gods will bless Master to return safely..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Thank you!"

Nanako smiled unnaturally and said, "Master, you saved my life, so why bother to thank me for this little thing..."

Charlie said earnestly: "I saved you out of my heart, and you prayed for me also out of your heart. The starting point is the same for everyone, so naturally there is no difference in size."

Nanako couldn't help sighing: "Master, you are really the only gentleman I have ever seen in my life, you are always considerate of others..."

Charlie smiled and said, "I'm not a gentleman, so don't praise me."

After speaking, Charlie said hurriedly: "By the way, give me your hand and I will check your injury."

Nanako replied shyly: "Master, are you trying to signal me?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said, "Don't you want to go for a walk in the snow? I will help you heal your injury quickly, and let's go for a walk on the snow in the yard. If you are not satisfied, I'll take you outside!"

"Ah?!" Nanako asked dumbfounded: "Master, you mean my injury will be healed soon? Before the snow melts?"

Charlie said seriously: "You don't need to wait for the snow to melt. You can cooperate with me. We can walk in the snow together before it stops."

Chapter 1787

Nanako couldn't believe that Charlie could really heal her.

But when she thought that the man in front of her who was eager to try to heal her was the one she loved, she was willing to give a try.

So she shyly handed her right hand to Charlie, and said shyly: "Master, then...please!"

Charlie nodded slightly, and stretched out his fingers to gently place her veins.

A trace of aura traveled through Nanako's veins into her body, and within the blink of an eye, it completely wandered through her body.

After a while, Charlie took the opportunity to see the specific situation of Nanako's injury.

From this look, he discovered that her injury was indeed serious.

Almost all of her organs have suffered serious internal injuries. Not only that, but the meridians and bones are also damaged. The whole person seems to have become a fragmented porcelain doll. A little carelessness may cause serious secondary injuries.

Although she has been rescued from danger to life after being rescued, her whole body has been in a state of very low safety.

She is currently less than one-fifth of ordinary people.

Someone who fell might be unharmed, stand up and dust the dirt and leave. If she falls, it would be life-threatening, and she would have to be sent back to the hospital for treatment.

Charlie could imagine how severe pain Nanako's body would have to endure from such a severe injury, and the pain was continuous, even in her sleep.

Thinking of this, Charlie couldn't help but feel distressed, and said with emotion: "I told you at the time that martial arts is a kind of spirit. There is no need to care too much about winning or losing the game, let alone putting yourself in a dangerous situation in the game. , Why were you betting your life against Aoxue?"

Nanako said with some shame: "Master, I was not betting on her life, but hoped to go all out without leaving any regrets..."

Having said this, she sighed and smiled bitterly: "It's just that I didn't clearly realize the gap between myself and Aoxue. She was really too strong, incredible..."

Charlie shook his head helplessly.

At this time, he also has his own treatment plan.

There are two options for treating Nanako.

The first is to directly use the aura in her body to repair the damage suffered. Compared with ordinary people, her body is indeed seriously damaged, but for him, it is not a big problem. With the aura it will be repaired soon;

This method is simple, direct and convenient, with many benefits.

However, this approach has drawbacks.

If he directly repaired her injury with Aura, how would he explain it to her?

After all, Nanako doesn't have a deep cultivation base, and she can't realize the existence of aura. In her opinion, he may just touch her hand and heal her in a confused way. This may be too incredible for her.

And the second way is to let her swallow the rejuvenating pills.

The efficacy of Rejuvenating Pill is beyond doubt.

Chapter 1788

For ordinary people, this kind of medicine is simply a panacea. It can be used by the elderly to prolong life for more than ten or twenty years; young people take it, and the body can be more than many times stronger than ordinary people; the injured take it, even if only one breath is left. , And can definitely strengthen the opponent's body on the basis of restoring the original.

In the beginning, Orvel was almost completely killed by Regnar's men, leaving only the last breath, and he was saved with a rejuvenating pill.

That rejuvenating pill not only saved Orvel's life, but also made him a few years younger, and his body was better than before the injury.

This is mainly because the effect of Rejuvenating Pill is too strong. When Orvel was cured, there is still remaining effect to improve his body.

Although Nanako's injury was also very serious, in Charlie's view, at most half a rejuvenating pill could be enough.

If she takes a whole rejuvenating pill, it goes without saying that Nanako's strength will be upgraded by one or two levels at the peak state before!

Therefore, Charlie had a question in his heart.

Should I give half a rejuvenating pill for Nanako, or just give her one and give her a chance.

Charlie is not a stingy person, and the main reason why he is entangled with half or one is because Nanako is not his compatriot.

As the saying goes, people who are not of my race must have different hearts.

I dare not say that the other party must be harmful, but at least it is difficult to keep one mind with the people of the different race.

And Nanako is a martial arts master, has been participating in various international competitions, and originally planned to participate in the next Olympic Games.

If he allowed her to improve significantly, she would definitely pose a threat to Aoxue in the future.

If Nanako represented Japan and defeated Aoxue who represents China in the next international competition, wouldn't it be equivalent to handing over the champion's title that should belong to China to Japan?

Charlie's hesitation was based on this.

It stands to reason that he can give half a rejuvenating pill to Nanako, so that she can fully recover, which is equivalent to giving her a great good fortune.

However, considering that Nanako is obsessed with martial arts and has a pious mentality.

Therefore, in Charlie's own selfish heart, he also wanted to give her another chance so that she could study the martial arts she loved more deeply.

Thinking of this, Charlie looked at Nanako and asked her: "Nanako, if I can cure you, can you promise me a condition?"

Nanako said without hesitation: "Master, even if you can't cure me, I will agree to any of your conditions, and I will never hesitate!"

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "I want you to promise me that after I cure you, if you still love martial arts, just concentrate on studying it yourself, but don't participate in any form of international competitions, you can promise?"

"Yes!" Nanako said with a firm gaze: "After the last match, I deeply reflected on the principles you taught me before. Martial arts is a spirit, not a competition, so I myself have lost that kind of passion."

Speaking of this, she looked at Charlie affectionately, and said seriously: "Since I met Master, I have known what is the truth that there are people outside the world and the heavens outside the world. A real top expert like Master will not participate in the so-called competition, only throw Only with the desire for competition, victory and defeat, can we have the opportunity to achieve a more sophisticated martial arts training. Therefore, if I really have a chance to recover from the beginning, I will definitely not participate in any competitions!"

Seeing what she said was serious and firm, Charlie felt relieved.

Immediately, he looked at Nanako, smiled slightly, took out a rejuvenation pill from his pocket, handed it to her, and smiled: "Nanako, if you take this pill, it will not only restore you to the original, but also your body strength will also improve!"

Chapter 1789

Although the effect of Rejuvenation Pill is very magical, it is very simple and unpretentious on the outside, but it is a black, round pill, and there is nothing special about it.

Nanako looked at this medicine, did not conceal her astonishment, and asked Charlie, "Master, can this really cure my injury?"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "If Master takes the shot, it will naturally cure all diseases and invalid refunds."

"Master?" Nanako asked in surprise, "Is this Master the nickname for Master Wade?"

"You can say," Charlie tried to take the discussion away from the topic.

"Hurry up and take the medicine. Didn't you say you want to go out to see the snow? Don't wait for a while and you haven't taken the medicine yet. "

Nanako smiled and said, "The weather forecast says that the snow will fall until tomorrow."

With that, she picked up the Rejuvenating Pill and looked at Charlie: "Master, is this eaten directly?"

"Yes." Charlie said seriously: "After you take it, I will help you guide the absorption of the medicine."

Nanako nodded gently, and put the pill in her mouth without hesitation.

At the moment of entrance, the pill immediately turned into a warm current, poured from the mouth into the stomach, and from the stomach to the whole body.

Nanako could clearly feel that her body was undergoing earth-shaking changes at this time.

She doesn't know how to describe this change. If she was injured before, it was like a porcelain bottle was broken on the ground and the fragments were all over the floor, then now she is like a broken porcelain bottle rewinding and playing all over the floor. The fragments quickly returned to the basket, pieced together into a complete self, who had never suffered any harm, and had never had a cracked self.

It's like going back in time, full of a strong sense of unreality.

At this time, Charlie grabbed Nanako's slender and white jade hands, and a trace of spiritual energy entered to help her guide the absorption of the rejuvenating pills.

Nanako thought that the feeling of turning back in time was extremely magical, but she did not expect that half of the effects of Rejuvenation Pill had not been exerted.

With the help of Charlie, she felt that every cell in her body seemed to be nourished by the medicinal effect. She could feel that her body level had reached the peak level in the past and continued to improve and increase!

A few minutes later, she opened her eyes, ignoring the sweat on her face, looked at Charlie in amazement, and blurted out, "Master, what exactly is this magic medicine? How can it be so powerful?"

Chapter 1790

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "This medicine is called Rejuvenating Pill."

Nanako suddenly remembered something, and said: "I know! I know! Master Wade! Aoxue's strength suddenly improved before the quarterfinals. It should be because of this kind of rejuvenation pills?"

Charlie nodded: "Yes, it is indeed the effect of Rejuvenation Pill."

Nanako asked again: "Because of this, Master didn't want me to have a head-on contest with Aoxue in the future, so you won't let me continue to participate in international competitions, right?"

Charlie said frankly: "Yes, you were indeed out of this consideration."

Nanako bit her lower lip lightly, and after hesitating for a while, she asked tentatively, "Is Master Wade asking this because he likes Aoxue?"

Charlie shook his head: "I am more like a brother to my sister Aoxue. I don't want you two to meet on the field. It's more because we represent different countries. I didn't want to influence it because of her. To the national honor of Chinese athletes, so I hope you could not continue to participate in international competitions."

Nanako suddenly realized that she stood up suddenly, bowed to Charlie ninety degrees, and said seriously: "Master, please rest assured, from now on, Nanako will concentrate on studying martial arts and will never participate in any form of martial arts game!"

After saying this, she came back to her senses, looked at her legs, and said with excitement: "I have never thought before, it feels so good to stand up by myself"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Don't you want to take a stroll in the snow? Let's go now!"

"Yeah!" Nanako nodded excitedly, walked around the tea table, took Charlie's hand, and said excitedly: "Let's go Master!"

Nanako, who had just improved her strength, couldn't see the look of any martial arts master at this time.

At this moment, she is just a simple and happy little girl, holding the hand of her beloved man, running towards her favorite snowy night.

Nanako loves snow, especially at night. In the quiet snow, you can enjoy the snow and the beauty of the night without being disturbed by others.

This is her girlish heart and her girlish feelings.

In the courtyard at this time, a thick layer of snow has fallen.

The trace of Charlie's killing of Tenglin Ninja had been completely gone. The thick snow, they stepped on it and made a creaking sound, which made people feel as if they were far away from the hustle and bustle of the city.

Nanako held Charlie's hand tightly without letting go, pulling him to walk in the snow, and then raising his hand high, and then holding his hand in a beautiful circle.

The exquisite skirt of the kimono, as she dexterously turns in the white snow, also sets off the extraordinary posture of Nanako, making her posture a little more enchanting in grace.

she turned around in the snow a few times, and stopped when facing Charlie.

She observed at Charlie with her pair of shiny and pure eyes, and said sincerely with a bit of infatuation: "Master, I have waited for this snow for several days. The weather forecast said that this snow was only a few days ago. After the meeting, I was sitting in a wheelchair, parked in the yard, looking up at the sky, waiting for the snow, while thinking of you."

"But that day, I didn't wait for the snow, let alone hope to wait for you."

Speaking of this, a layer of water mist suddenly appeared in her eyes, and she said with a bit of choking in her tenderness: "But I really didn't expect that today, the heavy snow that I have been looking forward to for a long time will be the same as mine Master, the long-awaited, you are here together with the snow."

"At this moment, it is really the happiest, most satisfying and perfect moment in my life, so perfect that I can't believe it, so perfect as true as false, as dreamlike as fantasy!"

Chapter 1791

When Charlie and Nanako walked hand in hand in the quiet snowy night of Kyoto, Tokyo was still under currents.

At this time, Machi Takahashi was at home, anxiously waiting for the news of Tenglin Ninja.

The Tenglin family is more anxious than him.

Because so far, the Tenglin family has lost ten ninjas, and almost all the young backbone of the family has perished.

Even though ten people are not too many, a family with ten young men is already a very large family.

First of all, these ten young adults have at least one or two generations of elders, mom and dad, aunts and uncles, grandparents, and at least ten people in total.

Secondly, these ten young adults are all males, but it is impossible for all young adults in a family to be males. If the male to female ratio is one to one, then there are at least ten females in the family.

Once again, at least half of the ten young men are married and have children. They have wives and children.

In this way, a family must have at least fifty or sixty people in order to have ten male young adults.

Now, the prime-age males of the Tenglin family have all been folded in, and the family's combat effectiveness has dropped sharply.

In this case, naturally, there is no ability to separate manpower to protect Takahashi.

Therefore, there is no ninja in Takahashi's home except for some bodyguards.

It was late at night, and Takahashi was still not tired.

On the one hand, he is still grieving for the tragic death of his son Eiki; on the other hand, he wants to wait to see if he can still contact the missing Tenglin Ninja.

Although he knew subconsciously that the Tenglin Ninja sent to Kyoto had been murdered 80% of the time, but deep in his heart, he still held a glimmer of hope.

He felt that at least before he saw the corpse, there was still a possibility that things could come back. Maybe after a while, those Tenglin Ninjas would contact him?

Just as Takahashi was pacing back and forth in the living room, waiting anxiously, a very thin blow arrow suddenly shot out from the corner, and one shot hit Takahashi's back neck.

Machi Takahashi, who had just suffered the pain of losing his son, had not had time to figure out how to avenge him, and suddenly he was poisoned and fell to the ground!

The bodyguards discovered that he suddenly fell to the ground, and they gathered around him. After a closer look, they found that he had lost his breath and heartbeat!

When the bodyguards searched for the murderer in amazement, the several Iga ninjas who had sneaked into the Tenglin family had already retreated.

In normal times, the Tenglin family will arrange at least four ninjas to lurk beside him, secretly protect him and prevent him from being assassinated by other ninjas.

But today, there is no ninja beside him.

Without the protection of a ninja, just relying on ordinary bodyguards, in front of the ninja is almost like no one.

Therefore, it is not difficult for the ninja to take the head of Takahashi.

Poor Machi Takahashi, just as the white-haired man gave away the black-haired man, he died too!

.....

Just as Takehiko Ito fell asleep, he heard a knock on the door.

He asked with some annoyance: "It's so late, what is there? If it's not something important, I'll talk about it tomorrow!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "President, the police officer from the TMPD is here again, saying that there are still some things that need your cooperation to go to the TMPD for another questioning."

"I have to face some questioning?!" Takehiko roared angrily: "I have said everything that should be said, and there is nothing left to say!"

Tanaka explained: "My Grace, the other party said that the Su family has been putting pressure on them, and it might cause an international diplomatic incident, so they ask you to cooperate."

"International diplomatic incident?!"

Hearing this, Ito yelled angrily: "d*mn, it's really annoying!"

Chapter 1792

Although he was very dissatisfied, Takehiko did not dare to continue at this time.

He is a businessman after all.

He knows very well that if he is really involved in international diplomatic events and affects Japan's international image, then Japanese citizens will definitely regard him as a criminal who smeared Japan's image.

In this case, the people will spontaneously boycott the Ito family, which might make the family a target of public criticism.

In this case, it is better to actively cooperate and clear up some of the relationships.

So, Takehiko Ito got up from the bed angrily, simply put on his clothes and opened the door.

Although Takehiko Ito was irritable, he could still understand the truth.

Anyway, I'm walking and sitting properly, don't say asking questions again, even if I stay in the TMPD for a few days first?

So, he said to Tanaka Koichi: "You go to arrange the car, we will leave in a while!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded immediately and turned around to make arrangements.

A few minutes later, under the escort of several bodyguards and two ninjas, Ito got into his car and prepared to go to the TMPD.

At this time, Ryoto Matsumoto had already prepared Iga Ninja and other subordinates. He wanted to repeat the old tricks and find a suitable section of road to kill him on the way to the TMPD.

Now Machi Takahashi is cold, as long as Takehiko is killed, he will be the strongest in Tokyo and even Japan.

However, Ryoto Matsumoto didn't know that Master of the Su family had already surrounded his mansion at this time. The leader in the lead was not anxious to take people in immediately, but began to follow the actual situation of Ryoto Matsumoto's residence. Develop a strategy, hoping to wipe out the entire Matsumoto family.

According to Zynn's temper and disposition, if Mr. Matsumoto wants to kill his son and daughter, it is impossible for him to kill Matsumoto alone.

The most hateful, and the most once-and-for-all way is to destroy the Matsumoto family directly!

The Su family has never been a soft-hearted family.

From the anti-wade Alliance back then to the current top Chinese family, the Su family's style of work has always been cruel!

The vehicle is about to enter a two-kilometer-long viaduct.

This viaduct is a closed road.

The bridge deck is 15 meters above the ground with an average height of 15 meters. It is almost as high as a five-story building, and there are only two lanes in a single direction. It is difficult for vehicles to make a U-turn at once. At least two steering wheels must be turned back and forth before it is possible to turn back.

It would be even more troublesome if a team was blocked directly on it. If the team got into a disorderly rhythm, it is very likely that several cars would block each other, so that there would be nowhere to run.

However, Takehiko did not realize the danger.

This is mainly because Takehiko has not suffered any other losses, and has not been targeted, except for Charlie's embezzlement of 4.5 billion USD.

Although both the Takahashi family and the Matsumoto family wanted to provoke, they were all resolved by Charlie, who cheated on him because of a coincidence.

It was precisely because he had no trouble that he felt that the reason why Tokyo was so messy was that someone wanted to target the Su family and the Takahashi family, and it had nothing to do with him.

Moreover, he is now indirectly a beneficiary.

If the Takahashi family suffers a severe setback, then the Ito family will be the number one in Japan while lying down, and the opportunity for cooperation with the Su family will naturally come to its court.

This feeling of lying down made Takehiko Ito who was sitting in the Rolls Royce proud.

So he picked up a cigar, lit it and put it in his mouth.

Just as Takehiko was about to take a sip, he suddenly felt a violent tremor of the vehicle. Then, the vehicle was uncontrollable and hit the roadside guardrail!

Iga Ninja's hunt for Takehiko has begun!

Chapter 1793

Before the vehicle lost control and hit the roadside fence, Ito never thought he would be in danger.

Because, Takehiko Ito is protected by the entire Koka Ninja.

It can be said that now in the big Japanese family, only his ninja has not suffered any harm or loss of combat.

In addition to him, the young and middle-aged of the Tenglin family are almost wiped out, and the Iga family also lost half of their combat effectiveness.

However, Ito's biggest negligence was that he went out too lightly this time.

He felt that he was going to the TMPD for questioning and cooperating with the investigation, and there was a police officer driving ahead and going to the TMPD by himself. There can be no one else thinking about him on the way to the TMPD. Right?

It is precise because of this that he did not arrange too many ninjas to protect himself.

However, he never expected that the police car that cleared the road would have been threatened and threatened by Matsumoto. Matsumoto laid a net and waited for him to get in.

Takehiko Ito's motorcade suddenly lost control, mainly because a large number of slings had been planted by Iga Ninja on the road!

The so-called Saling is the most commonly used weapon of Japanese ninjas. It is generally a metal product covered with spikes. No matter how it is scattered on the ground, Saling will reveal several spikes facing in different directions.

In ancient times, when a Japanese ninja was hunted down, he would use Saling behind him. When the opponent catches up, as long as he stepped on it, he would pierce the sole of his foot.

And the current ninja has made a big upgrade to Saling. The current Saling uses extremely sturdy tungsten carbide alloy, which is also the hardest steel material in the world, with hardness equal to diamond.

Therefore, with such a sling, you can easily puncture any rubber tire!

The reason why Takehiko Ito's team lost control in an instant was that the four tires of each car were stabbed by several slings, so without exception, they all lost control and crashed into the roadside.

At the moment of the collision, the cigar that Takehiko had just lit fell on his crotch, and his whole body was shaken by the impact.

Fortunately, this Old Master has good safety habits, even if he is sitting in the rear seat, he also buckles his seat belt.

Otherwise, with the violent impact just now, no matter how good the car is, it will not be possible to offset the inertia on his body.

If one head hits the back of the front seat, 80% chance for him that he will lose his life.

At this time, several of Ito's bodyguards and two ninjas had gotten out of the two cars, and surrounded Ito's cars.

At this moment, six Iga ninjas suddenly leaped into the sky from the opposite lane, each of them gripping the ninja sword in both hands and killing them with all their faces!

Hiroshi Tanaka, who was in the co-pilot, turned pale, turned his head and said to Takehiko: "President! How come there are ninjas? Could it be sent by Takahashi?!"

Takehiko was about to speak, and suddenly he yelled, and looked down, the cigar has burned through his pants and burned a scar on the inner thigh.

He hurriedly picked up the cigar, threw it aside, and blurted out: "Where is the police car leading the way?"

The driver said at this time: "President, the police car has already driven away..."

"Off?!" Takehiko cursed dumbfounded: "We are ambushed, and they drove away?! Is this a f*cking human trait?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka suddenly realized it, and he blurted out: "President, did the police officers deliberately lure you out?"

Takehiko roared: "b*stards! There is such a beast, who is deliberately calculating me!"

Chapter 1794

After he finished speaking, he hurriedly said to Tanaka Koichi: "Call the police! Let the TMPD send a helicopter to me! The bodyguards and ninjas outside, I'm afraid I won't last long!"

Hiroshi Tanaka saw that the six ninjas had already rushed up, quickly took out his mobile phone and called the TMPD to report to the police.

Although Tokyo is very uneasy these days, and the TMPD's handling efficiency and crime-solving capabilities are also messed up, but the hardware configuration of the TMPD is still very powerful. It is equipped with 14 police helicopters of all kinds. Once there is an emergency, the special operations team can be sent there quickly.

Tanaka directly called the head of the TMPD. After all, Takehiko is one of the top entrepreneurs in Tokyo, and the TMPD has to be a bit thin, and he can directly communicate with the chief in charge of everything.

At this moment, the director of the Tokyo Warning Service just learned that Takahashi was assassinated at home, and he was on the verge of collapse.

Zhifei and Zhiyu were not found;

The four human popsicles of the Tenglin family did not detect the murderer;

Machi Takahashi's son, Eiki was burned to death in the car, and no murderer was found;

As a result, Machi Takahashi quickly got cold...

This series of serious criminal cases have cast a thick fog of magic and crime across Tokyo.

However, at this moment, Tanaka Hiroichi suddenly told him that Takehiko had also been ambushed and was in danger at this time. When he heard this, he felt a burst of blood on his head, and his legs collapsed directly in the office when he heard this. .

Several subordinates hurriedly stepped forward to help. He was extremely weak but full of anger and said: "Quick! Quickly send helicopters and special operations teams to the Yotsuya Viaduct to rescue Takehiko. Today Tokyo says nothing can be dead anymore!!! "

It stands to reason that a fully-armed modern special operations team has no gap with special forces in terms of equipment or combat effectiveness.

This kind of special police, single-handedly against a ninja, may not have any advantage in front of the ninja's weird body techniques and hidden weapons.

However, after dozens of individuals have formed firepower, formation, and complementary advantages, the ninja's advantage will disappear.

However, the biggest problem now is that the near thirst cannot be quenched by far!

It takes at least five minutes for the special operations team to assemble, several minutes for boarding the helicopter, and several minutes for the plane to take off and arrive quickly. Together, it takes at least ten minutes.

However, how can Takehiko's men last for more than ten minutes? !

The two sides fought for several rounds outside the car, and Takehiko's bodyguards were all brought down to the ground!

Although the remaining two ninjas have been struggling to resist, they have been forced to retreat steadily, and they have suffered multiple injuries!

Looking at this form, it is estimated that in another minute, they will basically be unable to resist it!

At that time, the opponent will directly take the head of Takehiko!

Tanaka, who was in the co-pilot, hurriedly said to Takehiko Ito: "President, let's escape! If you don't run away, there will be no chance!"

"escape?!"

Takehiko trembled and said desperately in horror: "Where can we escape under this situation? Even if we escape, we will be caught by the other party. There is no way to survive!"

After that, Takehiko's expression dimmed, and he murmured: "Tanaka, you and I are getting killed here today..."

Chapter 1795

At this time, Takehiko had already decided that he was bound to death.

The rescuer will not be able to make it for a while, his own people can no longer survive, and the other ninja may be killed by the sword at any time.

The remaining driver and Tanaka have no actual combat effectiveness. Like him, they will be cut and killed by the opponent in a matter of seconds.

At this moment, he really wanted to call his daughter who is far away in Kyoto. Kyoto is a few hundred kilometers away, and his daughter must not know that he is in deep trouble. Call her quickly, and maybe hear her voice before he is dead. This is also a bit of comfort before death.

However, just as he took out his cell phone and was about to call Nanako, Hiroshi Tanaka blurted out: "President! It's really too late if we don't run!"

Takehiko sighed: "I already told you just now, we have already pierced our wings and we have nowhere to escape..."

Having said that, he gritted his teeth and cursed: "It must be the beast Takahashi! That scm! bstard! He used such insidious means to deal with me!"

Hiroshi Tanaka quickly pointed out the window and blurted out: "Mr. President, don't scold Takahashi for now. If we run to both ends of the viaduct, we will definitely die! But, we can still jump from here!"

After that, he pointed to the guardrail outside the car and said excitedly: "Mr. President, when we push the car door, it will be the guardrail. If we turn over, we can jump off!"

Takehiko Ito paled in fright, and blurted out: "Are you crazy?! This viaduct is more than ten meters high. Won't we just fall to death if we jumped down?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said solemnly: "I can bet, from this height we may not necessarily die. As long as you don't let your body face down, or face and abdomen face down, you still have a chance to jump down, but if you don't jump, you will have no chance. Nothing!"

Takehiko Ito swallowed his saliva: "Jump down, immortal and crippled, it is impossible to escape their pursuit!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said seriously: "This place is so high, those ninjas must not dare to jump around! Even if they are stronger, their bodies are long, and they will be disabled if they jump. They are the same. If they don't dare to jump, Then you have to drive down the viaduct. The two ends of the viaduct are still far away. When they get around, the special operations team of the TMPD should be there!"

After speaking, he added: "Also, the viaduct we are walking on has no traffic at night, but the road below is relatively close to Red-Light Street. It is always lively at night, so there must be a lot of private cars and taxis going back and forth!"

"Moreover, there are young people who enjoy the nightlife, drunken people and homeless people!"

"Once they find that we are falling, they will definitely come around to watch the excitement or help!"

"Even if this group of ninjas really dared to jump down, they might not dare to kill us in front of so many people. As long as it can be dragged for a few minutes, the helicopter from the TMPD will probably arrive!"

Takehiko blurted out and asked, "What if we fall directly to death?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka gritted his teeth: "President! Even if we fall to death, it is better than being killed by a ninja! The ghost knows how Takahashi wants us to die? What if Takahashi told them to behead us?! "

Takehiko felt a chill in the back of his neck!

"Beheaded?!"

"That's too d*mn bad, right?!"

"I would rather jump from here and fall to death than be chopped off by the ninja with a sword!"

Thinking of this, he shook his heart: "Okay! Then jump!"

After speaking, he remembered Takahashi's true knowledge, gritted his teeth, and said angrily: "dmn it, Takahashi forced me to jump from this heigh! This thing is really fcking ironic! Today's hatred, I remember Takehiko If I can survive, I will smash the head of that b@stard that Takahashi really knows! I'll break him into pieces!"

Chapter 1796

Hiroshi Tanaka sighed, turned his head and said to the driver, "Brother Yamamoto, let's jump together!"

The driver wiped a cold sweat, nodded and said, "Okay! I'll be with you two!"

At this time, Takehiko's two personal ninjas have already fought to the dying state!

Seeing that the two might be hacked to death by the other at any time, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly shouted: "President, Brother Yamamoto! It's now or never!"

Takehiko quickly pushed open the door on one side with him. At this time, the driver also opened the door of the cab, ready to get off.

However, the driver's side was right in front of the Iga Ninja. One of the ninjas saw that the driver was about to get out of the car, so he rushed over and pierced the driver's heart with a flying knife!

After the sharp ninja knife pierced the driver's body, the blade even pierced the hard door of the Rolls Royce.

The driver died almost instantly!

Ito saw the driver being killed across the car. He trembled unconsciously, and his legs became soft.

Although he is also a man who has experienced many battles in the market, it is the first time he has experienced this kind of disaster, and it is inevitable that he is nervous and afraid in his heart.

In addition, the older he is, the less courage he has, so Takehiko squatted on the ground in fright, unable to climb the one-meter-high guardrail at all.

At this time, the ninja who had just killed the driver suddenly discovered that Takehiko and Tanaka Hiroshi both had escaped from the car, as if they were about to jump off the bridge, and suddenly shouted: "Quick! Takehiko is going to escape!"

Having said that, he drew the ninja sword out forcefully, and stepped up to the roof of the car to kill Takehiko.

Seeing that Takehiko wanted to escape, the other ninjas immediately went mad and killed Takehiko's two lingering ninjas, and then swarmed

The more so, the weaker Ito's legs became uncontrollable, and even his efforts to stand up have no effect.

At this moment, Tanaka, who was about to climb over the guardrail, rushed desperately to push Takehiko's body, and shouted: "Mr. President! You must support me with your hands! We must jump down, or we will die!!!"

Takehiko was instantly empowered, and he knew that this was really the line between life and death!

So, he pulled his body up with both hands, coupled with the desperate push by Tanaka Hiroshi, he quickly jumped over the guardrail of the viaduct.

At the moment when he almost lost his balance and turned over, he looked at Tanaka gratefully and reluctantly, and shouted, "Koichi! You must not give up"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded, using a little more force in his hand, and pushed Takehiko down.

Immediately afterwards, he climbed up the guardrail at the fastest speed, watching the short knives of several ninjas that were about to cut him, he jumped, followed Takehiko, and jumped off the bridge!

One after another, the two jumped off the highway bridge that was more than ten meters high.

At this moment, Ito hoped that a truck full of fluffy goods could appear under him.

It's a pity that there is nothing but the hard pavement below...

Chapter 1797

Before the fall, Takehiko's mind kept echoing Tanaka's words.

As long as you don't face down, or belly down, you still have a chance to survive.

So, he struggled to adjust his body in mid-air, and landed heavily with his legs straight to the ground!

With a bang, Takehiko only felt an incomparable sharp pain from both legs, but he didn't care to check the injuries on his legs, and he immediately rolled a few somersaults on the ground to relieve the impact of his falling from the viaduct. .

Immediately afterwards, Tanaka fell heavily to the ground. Like Takehiko, he landed on his legs and rolled over for several meters.

Although their legs hurt to death, both of them saved their lives because of the correct landing posture. At this time, Ito looked at his legs and saw the entire knee, calf, ankle and sole of the foot. All fell beyond recognition!

Tanaka's situation was just as tragic. His legs were bloody, broken bones even pierced from the flesh, blood flowed across, and it was horrible!

When the passers-by saw this, they were shocked, and some women had already screamed.

Soon, several enthusiastic people gathered around, and one of them asked, "You gentlemen, how do you feel? Would you like me to call an ambulance for you now?"

Takehiko cried bitterly and said, "Help me call the police! Someone on the bridge is chasing us!"

Everyone hurriedly looked up at the bridge. On the side of the guardrail of the over ten-meter viaduct, six ninjas were lined up in a row, looking down under the bridge with a bewildered expression.

One of the ninjas asked dumbfounded: "Boss, this...what now?"

The boss didn't expect that this big piece of fat has already reached his lips, and it could fly away. He blurted out angrily: "Old fifth and sixth, the two of them can't move now, you two jump down and give him I'll kill!"

When the two heard this, each of them shrank their necks in shock.

One of them said embarrassingly: "Boss, if it is seven or eight meters high, you don't need to say that I have already jumped, but it must be about 15 meters! I jumped, and the result would not be better than them."

"Yeah!" Another said with a bitter expression, "Boss, the landing posture for the two of them is very scientific. If we are not so sure by any chance, we might just fall to death..."

The boss's expression is very ugly.

He knows that if his subordinates don't jump, he must not force them to jump, otherwise, how will this team lead in the future?

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and blurted out: "Get in the car! Let's get down and kill them before the ambulance and the police arrive!"

Everyone hurriedly wanted to turn around and return to the car. At this moment, they heard the roar of helicopters in the sky.

When several people looked up, they were not shocked!

At this moment, there are four police helicopters coming fast from different directions!

One of the ninjas said in horror: "Oh! It's a special operations team!"

Tokyo's special operations team is the most ace special police under the TMPD. They have been serving anti-terrorism missions all year round. They have extremely strong combat capabilities. Moreover, they all have American-style equipment and have strong firepower. Ninjas are in front of them, no different from primitive people.

What's more, they came in a helicopter!

If this is hovering over the head, holding a machine gun and shooting, even the most powerful ninja will be beaten into a sieve!

The boss of Iga Ninja immediately stunned, and shouted in a panic: "f*ck! Run away!"

The remaining five ninjas quickly got into the car under his leadership, and everyone fled in two cars.

The special operations team in Tokyo split immediately.

Two of the helicopters hovered directly nearby, allowing the combat team members to quickly reach the ground by cable drop from the helicopters to protect Takehiko.

Chapter 1798

The other two helicopters directly caught up with the two vehicles in which Iga Ninja were riding.

Since the Iga Ninja was on the viaduct, there was nowhere to hide. He was driving a car and fleeing frantically, and the helicopter was approaching overhead.

Just when they wanted to escape with all their strength, the special forces on the helicopter directly hit the front hoods of the two vehicles with armor-piercing shells.

The penetration ability of armor-piercing projectiles is extremely strong, even military armor is difficult to resist, not to mention the civilian car engine, a few armor-piercing projectiles hit, the vehicle engine is instantly damaged.

When the engine is damaged, the vehicle immediately loses power, and the vehicle speed becomes slower and slower until it finally stopped.

The six ninjas in the car were frightened. They were about to push the door and get out of the car, holding their heads and scurrying. They found that the helicopter had hovered two or three meters above the bridge deck one after another, and then a large number of special forces quickly descended. Down, the dark muzzle had been aimed at their heads.

Twenty special forces, directly let the six ninjas surrender, and did not dare to resist at all!

And at this time, Takehiko and Tanaka Koichi were also sent to the ambulance and drove to the hospital quickly.

.....

Matsumoto is at home at this time, feeling the feeling of strategizing.

The gambler's mentality is extremely heavy, and he already has that kind of immersion.

It's just that this gambling game is really too big, and he was a little nervous while excited, for fear that there would be accidents in the process of trading.

Now that Machi Takahashi is cold, Takehiko will be cold soon, and when he is cold, he will be the top one!

Nervous and excited, holding a glass of whiskey, thinking about the time in his heart, guessing that Takehiko was almost worthy of death, so he immediately took out his mobile phone and called Iga Ninja who was responsible for assassinating Takehiko.

As a result, the strange communication black hole appeared again.

The call that could be made ten minutes ago is not made.

Everything is the same as Iga Kamino who is guarding the Su brother and sister in Kyoto. If he is missing, he will disappear, and there is no trace.

Just when he was at a loss, the assistant walked up anxiously and said to him: "President there was an accident with Iga Ninja!"

"What's the accident?!"

"Six Iga ninjas are all arrested. Takehiko and Tanaka Koichi fell from the viaduct. They have now been sent to the hospital. It is said that there is no life threatening!"

"What?!" Matsumoto gritted his teeth and cursed: "Let Ito Yuuhiko escape?! The ninjas of the Iga family are too Rubbish!"

The assistant nodded and said seriously: "At present, it is indeed like this..."

Ryoto Matsumoto angrily threw the whiskey glass in his hand to the ground, and the glass slammed heavily on the marble floor tiles, and it broke instantly.

At this moment, a cold woman's voice suddenly came from the living room: "Mr. Matsumoto's temper is really big enough!"

Ryoto Matsumoto and his assistant were startled by the strange voice. The two followed their reputations and saw a woman in her twenties stepping in.

Ryoto Matsumoto was shocked, and blurted out and asked, "You...Who are you?! How did you get in?!"

The woman sneered: "Of course I walked in."

Matsumoto took a step back and asked nervously, "What are you going to do?!"

The woman looked at Mr. Matsumoto with interest, and then said coldly after a while: "You tied up my young master and young lady of the Su family, and assassinated more than ten people of Su family. What do you say I want to do? Of course it is time. I am here to take your life!"

Chapter 1799

Ryoto Matsumoto never dreamed that the Su family would find him!

Just when the woman said the whole thing, he trembled all over, and blurted out, "I have so many guards in my house, how could they let you in!"

Matsumoto's house has always been heavily guarded.

The stronger the heart of harm, the stronger the heart of the defense.

In order not to be conspired by others, he arranged twenty bodyguards at home, among them there are ninjas from small families, and his defenses can be regarded as very strong.

So, he couldn't understand how this woman got in, why didn't he hear any movement? !

The woman smiled indifferently: "It doesn't matter how many guards there are, I just kill them all? Besides, there are not many people, including your family, there are 36 people in total. Now they are all dead, leaving you two."

After that, the woman said again: "You killed more than a dozen of our Su family, we naturally want to ask for more interest."

Ryoto Matsumoto looks terrified!

He paled in fright, trembling all over, and blurted out, "You...you killed my whole family?!"

"Yes." The woman nodded: "But you can rest assured that our Su family is still very civilized. Your parents, wife and children, brother and sister-in-law are all poisoned and dead, and there is no blood spill."

Matsumoto's legs weakened, he unconsciously stepped back two steps, fell on the sofa, his whole muscles trembling violently, gritted his teeth and asked: "As the saying goes, it's not good for wife and children. If you have any hatred, you can just attack me. ! Why do you want to start with my family!"

The woman smiled and asked, "What? Mr. Matsumoto has started talking about the justice of the world? Then when you killed more than a dozen people in my Su family and intended to murder young master and the young lady of the Su family, why didn't you talk about the justice of the world? What? When you plan all this, you should think of such consequences."

Matsumoto gritted his teeth and roared: "You are beasts! Devil! No matter how bad my Matsumoto is, I have never killed a child! My son is only ten years old! My daughter is only eight years old!"

The woman smiled, and said coldly: "So what? If you dare to plot against my Su family, you must be prepared to bear the greatest price! To blame, you can only blame yourself for being too vicious and not leaving others behind. The way is not to leave a way for oneself."

Matsumoto's heart collapsed completely at this time.

He knows that when he comes out, the most basic quality is to be willing to bet to lose. He has suppressed everything in this game. Since he has lost, he naturally has to lose everything.

At this point, Matsumoto sighed sullenly, and said without love, "If this is the case, I am willing to bet, and you kill me too."

The woman nodded and said coldly: "You are definitely going to die, but we don't want you to die so happy. Before you die, I want to arrange for you to meet your family again."

After that, she clapped her hands and said loudly, "Bring in those dead people!"

As soon as the words fell, dozens of Su family masters walked in, carrying corpses one after another. These corpses were all placed neatly next to each other in front of Mr. Matsumoto.

Ryoto Matsumoto saw this scene, and his whole body was distraught.

He really didn't expect that he would end up like this.

And he also knew very well that he was bound to die today.

However, there is still the only glimmer of hope left in him, that hope is the eldest son taken away when his ex-wife divorced.

Ryoto Matsumoto got married for the first time 15 years ago, and his eldest son was born in the third year after marriage.

At that time, the Matsumoto family was still in despair, until he met his current wife.

Ryoto Matsumoto's current wife was the daughter of a middle-class family in Tokyo. In order to take advantage of her natal power, Ryoto Matsumoto swept his wife out of the house and then married her.

Chapter 1800

Because the current wife didn't like Matsumoto's eldest son, Matsumoto kicked out his eldest son after marriage and let him follow his ex-wife.

Later, Matsumoto's second married wife gave him a pair of children, so he rarely thought of his ex-wife and eldest son over the years.

But now, Ryoto Matsumoto thought of his ex, and finally felt a trace of comfort in his heart.

At least, after his death, the Matsumoto family's blood will not be completely cut off tonight.

His eldest son can continue to carry on his blood.

For the current Ryoto Matsumoto, nothing can comfort and rejoice him more than this.

The Su family girl in front of her seemed to see through his thoughts.

The woman smiled playfully and said to Matsumoto, "Mr. Matsumoto, I heard that you have a son?"

Matsumoto was taken aback and blurted out, "I don't! Who did you hear it from? How could this be possible!"

The woman smiled: "Everyone is an adult, so there is no need to be embarrassed by such a botched lie."

After that, she said coldly: "Your eldest son's name is Taro Matsumoto. Later, after you drove him out of the house, he changed his surname, followed by your ex-wife's surname, Kurosawa, and changed his name to Kurosawa Shota. Twelve years old and lives in Yamanashi Prefecture, not far from Tokyo. Am I right?"

Matsumoto listened to her words, his whole body was struck by lightning.

After a while, he was already in tears, and he knelt on the ground with a shuddering puff, and begged bitterly: "I beg you, don't kill my son. I only have this one son. If he died too, The Matsumoto family will be completely extinct. I beg you to leave a bloodline for my Matsumoto family! I'll kowtow to you!"

Having said that, Matsumoto slammed his head against the hard marble floor.

At this time, he was extremely desperate and regretful in his heart, but he also knew that the bodies of his entire family were placed here. He had no way to save them, and he could not even save his life, so his only wish is to let his eldest son live.

Therefore, when he kowtows, he is also extremely pious, hoping to impress the ice-like woman in front of him.

Matsumoto knocked three heads, and his forehead was already full of blood.

But he didn't dare to stop, and continued to kowtow until his forehead was completely bloody and bloody, and he almost fainted because of the blow to the head.

Ryoto Matsumoto gritted his teeth to support his body, and choked in his mouth: "Please! Please! Please! Please!!! Please promise my only request!!!"

The woman just smiled at this moment and said: "I'm sorry, it was too late. Just five minutes ago, Shota Kurosawa had been poisoned and is dead now!"

When Ryoto Matsumoto heard this, he collapsed completely. He raised his head and shouted hysterically: "Why! Why do you want to destroy my Matsumoto family?! Why are you killing me like this?!"

The woman sneered: "This is the price you pay for angering the Su family!"

Ryoto Matsumoto burst into tears immediately, and his tears were mixed with blood, making his entire face look particularly tragic.

At this time, he had also completely lost the will to survive, and he muttered: "Kill me, kill me now!"

The woman nodded, took out a sunflower seed carved from white jade from her pocket, and said lightly: "Ryoto Matsumoto, before you die, I hope you remember my name, my name is Su Ruoli!"

After that, she shook one hand, and the sunflower seeds made of white jade shot out.

In the next second, a tiny hole of blood appeared on the center of Matsumoto's eyebrows, and the whole person had completely lost all vitality, with a bang, and his body fell to the ground!

Chapter 1801

At this moment, the TMPD.

The chief of the TMPD finally breathed a sigh of relief when he learned that Takehiko has been taken to the hospital and his life was not in danger.

He took out a cigarette and knocked on the cigarette case to make the tobacco tighter. Then he took out the lighter and lit the cigarette and took a puff.

After a while, he sighed: "Oh, it seems that this strange day is finally coming to an end..."

The person next to him hurriedly said: "Director, the Su family brothers, and sisters have not been found..."

The director of the TMPD immediately said angrily: "Can't you add more traffic to me? The Su brother and sister are still in a state of unclear life and death for the time being!"

With that said, he added: "Unknown life and death means that you don't know whether they are dead or alive. At least you can't be sure that you are dead. My request tonight is very simple. Don't tell me that someone has died, I'm satisfied. , Wait until tomorrow!"

The person next to him nodded quickly and said, "Director, you have been working hard all day and night, you should go home and rest first."

"Yeah." The director of the TMPD took a breath and said, "I want to go back and take a good rest."

Just as he was about to leave the TMPD, someone suddenly ran in in a panic and blurted out: "Director, Director! Something happened, Director!"

The chief of the TMPD was going crazy and blurted out: "What happened now?!"

The other party said breathlessly: "It's Matsu...Matsumoto...Something happened to the Matsumoto's family!"

The chief of the TMPD was dumbfounded and said: "First it was Takahashi, then Takehiko, and now it's Matsumoto, why the h*ll did you breathe? You say! What happened to Matsumoto? He's still alive?"

In his opinion, as long as people are still alive, it doesn't matter if they are injured or disabled. Anyway, his only requirement is to stop death.

As a result, the other party said with a horrified expression: "Director, something has happened to the Matsumoto family! There are more than 30 people in the family, all...all dead..."

"what?!"

When the TMPD heard this, he threw away the cigarette bu.tt in despair, grabbed his hair with both hands, and collapsed and said, "I'm the fcking going to split!!! What the hll is going on?! Is this still the Tokyo I am familiar with?! Why is it so endless?!"

The other party was also very collapsed, blurting out: "Tonight, the Matsumoto house suddenly lit a fire. After the firefighters put out the fire, they found that everyone in the Matsumoto house was lying neatly in the living room and burned beyond recognition. Arson, let's not mention how tragic the scene was. Many firefighters vomited into the hospital!"

Upon hearing this, the chief of the TMPD felt his blood pressure surge immediately, and murmured: "Oh... my f*cking... I..."

Before finishing speaking, the whole person's eyes went dark and he passed out completely.

.....

At the same time the ancient city of Kyoto.

Charlie and Nanako strolled for a long time in the snow.

During the period, Nanako told Charlie that since she came to Kyoto to recuperate from her injury, she had stayed in the mansion and never went out, so she wanted to go out for a walk.

So Charlie took her and left the Ito mansion quietly over the wall, walking hand in hand through the streets of Kyoto.

Chapter 1802

Nanako wanted to say something to Charlie, but for a while she didn't know where to start, so she told Charlie about her childhood and past.

Although she was born in a rich family, Nanako's childhood was not a happy one.

Her mother died young, and although her father did not marry again, it could not make up for Nanako's childhood shortcomings.

Moreover, Takehiko was busy with work all day, and the time that can be allocated to Nanako was very small. In addition, Takehiko's character has always been serious and unsmiling, so Nanako's childhood lacked a lot of care.

Nanako's mother was a pretty lady, so when she was alive, she always taught her in a very traditional way, and Nanako also followed her mother to learn tea ceremony, illustration, embroidery, and even read poetry and books. In her character, the side of Yamato Nadeshiko was given by her mother.

However, after the death of her mother, Nanako fell in love with martial arts because she felt that when she was practicing martial arts, she could temporarily forget the sadness and unhappiness in life.

In the beginning, she only practiced martial arts to escape reality, but over time, she completely fell in love with martial arts.

After she finished telling her story, she chased Charlie and asked him: "Master, can you tell me the story of your childhood?"

Charlie smiled bitterly: "I was at two extremes when I was a kid. I lived well before I was eight years old. My parents were kind, wealthy, and worry-free. But when I was eight, my parents died unexpectedly. I fell into the street and became an orphan, and then I grew up in the orphanage..."

"Ah?!" When Nanako heard this, she was surprised, and said with a bit of distress: "I'm sorry Master, I didn't mean it..."

Nanako said with emotion: "In this way, my childhood is much happier than that of Master. Although my father is strict and unsmiling to me on weekdays, he still loves me very much in his heart, but his way of expression is not so soft in comparison."

After all, Nanako looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Master, in fact, you have a conflict with my father. I heard Tian talk about it before. The reason why I pretended not to know was that I didn't want Master to feel embarrassed, but actually, Father's nature is not bad. If you have the opportunity, I still hope that you can let your previous suspicions go away and become friends..."

In fact, deep down in her heart, Nanako really wanted to say that she didn't want Charlie and her father to become enemies.

In her heart, she dreamed that the two would cultivate a real relationship as husband and wife.

However, she knew that Charlie was already married, so she could only hide such words in the most secret place in her heart and would never say them.

Charlie didn't think much at this time, nodded slightly and said: "If there is a chance, I will."

Nanako immediately became happy, and said seriously: "That's really great! But Master don't get me wrong. I hope you and my father will become friends, not for the 4.5 billion things. Master must keep it for himself, not give to my father!"

Charlie couldn't help laughing and asked her: "Why did you turn your elbow out? Four and a half billion is not a small sum!"

Nanako blushed and said softly, "It doesn't matter, Master saved my life and healed my injury. This money is regarded as a reward from my father to Master Wade!"

Charlie couldn't help laughing, and said happily: "If your dad knows, he will be pissed off by you."

Nanako stuck out her tongue and was about to talk when her phone suddenly vibrated.

She was a little surprised: "It's so late, who will call me? Could it be the servant who found out that I escaped?"

With that, she quickly took out her mobile phone and said in surprise: "Oh, it's Father!"

Chapter 1803

Nanako didn't expect that her father would call her even so late.

So, she said to Charlie a little nervously: "Master, I want to answer the call from father..."

Charlie nodded, and smiled: "Come on."

Nanako was so busy pressing the answer button, and asked carefully, "Father, what's the matter you called me so late?"

On the other end of the phone, Takehiko's weak voice came: "Nanako, dad had an accident. I called to confirm your safety. Is everything okay in Kyoto?"

Nanako hurriedly asked: "Father, what happened to you?! Is it serious?!"

Takehiko said: "I was hunted down together with Tanaka. Fortunately, I escaped by chance, but I'm afraid they will try to get you, so I called to confirm."

At this moment, Takehiko Ito is lying in the intensive care unit of the Tokyo Hospital. The family's ninjas, bodyguards, and police officers from the TMPD have already tightly protected the third and outer floors of the hospital.

Lying on the hospital bed, Ito did not have any serious trauma at first glance, but his legs below the knees have disappeared, but the ends of the two thighs are wrapped in thick gauze.

After falling from the viaduct, Ito's brain and internal organs did not suffer much damage.

However, the legs that mainly bear the impact of the fall were seriously injured.

His soles, ankles, and calf bones were almost completely shattered, and his bloody appearance was really horrible.

In this case, the doctor also concluded that his legs are no longer able to recover.

Moreover, fragmented bones and severely damaged muscles have lost their vitality and face a huge risk of infection.

Therefore, only if the severely damaged part is amputated as soon as possible, the damage can be stopped in time and Takehiko's life can be saved.

For ordinary people, once the body tissues die in a large area, there is basically no possibility of restoration.

If the limb is severely injured, if the limb is not amputated, the infected area will rot, and the entire body will soon be affected, eventually leading to death.

At that time, when the doctor was seeking Ito's opinion, Ito had little hesitation.

He is also considered a courageous and knowledgeable hero, able to clearly judge the situation he is facing at a critical moment.

In his opinion, it is a blessing to be able to save his life. If he is unwilling to accept the amputation and continue to delay, he will probably die because of it.

For him, except for his daughter, nothing is more important.

Tanaka's situation was almost exactly the same as Ito's. He also underwent amputation of both legs below the knee, and recovered his life. At this time, he is recovering in the next ward.

Nanako didn't know that her father had undergone amputation, and asked impatiently, "Father, are you okay? Is there any injury or danger?"

Takehiko Ito sighed lightly and said, "I and Tanaka's legs were injured a little, and we are now being treated in the hospital, but fortunately, there is no danger to our lives, so you can rest assured."

While talking, Takehiko said again: "The world has been very uneasy in the past few days. You must be careful in Kyoto. I am going to send a few ninjas to protect you!"

Nanako blurted out: "Father, I want to return to Tokyo to see you!"

Chapter 1804

Takehiko hurriedly said, "Don't come. Tokyo is very chaotic now. In just one or two days, too many people have died. Besides, you are ill, you should rest in Kyoto!"

Nanako hurriedly said: "My father, my injuries are all healed. Don't worry, I will rush to Tokyo to take care of you as soon as possible!"

Naturally, Takehiko didn't believe that his daughter's injuries would heal, and naturally thought that Nanako was just comforting him.

Therefore, he said to Nanako in a serious tone: "Nanako, you have to listen to me, stay in Kyoto honestly, don't go anywhere, let alone coming to Tokyo!"

What else Nanako wanted to say, Takehiko angrily said: "If you let me know that you dare to come to Tokyo secretly, I don't have you as my daughter!"

After that, he hung up the phone.

Nanako burst into tears immediately. She was extremely worried about her father's safety. Although she was basically sure that the father on the phone did not look like life-threatening, she felt that her father's injury was not as bad as he said on the phone. Such an understatement.

Charlie on the side asked her: "Nanako, is there something wrong with your father?"

"Um..." Nanako nodded tearfully, and said, "My father called and said that he was hunted down and he is now in the hospital..."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie and choked up: "Master, I'm so worried..."

Charlie couldn't help but be comforted: "Your father shouldn't be life-threatening, so you don't have to worry too much."

Nanako shook her head and said, "I'm afraid that my father is hiding something from me..."

After that, she looked at Charlie eagerly and asked: "Master, I want to go back to Tokyo, you...can you help me?"

Charlie asked her: "How do you think I can help you?"

Nanako said: "My father won't let me go back. If I tell the servants of the family, they will definitely not agree to it, and may even ban me. Since we have slipped out now, I don't want to go back again. Hope Master can lend me some money, and I will take the first Shinkansen back to Tokyo after dawn!"

Seeing her look very urgent, Charlie sighed and said, "It's just twelve o'clock in the night, and the Shinkansen will have to wait until the morning at least, or I will drive you back, we will be there in just over three hours. ."

"Really?!"

Nanako looked at Charlie excitedly, and blurted out, "Will Master really want to drive me to Tokyo?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I've said everything, can I lie to you?"

Nanako said, "But...but isn't Master having business affairs in Osaka? If you take me to Tokyo, will it not delay your affairs in Osaka?"

"It's okay." Charlie smiled indifferently and comforted: "You don't have to worry about me. Someone is helping me deal with things in Osaka. The top priority now is to send you back to Tokyo to see your father, lest you keep worrying about him."

Nanako grabbed Charlie's hands and said in grateful words: "Master, thank you so much..."

Charlie smiled and said: "Okay, don't say anything polite. My car happened to be parked nearby. Let's set off now."

"Okay!" Nanako nodded repeatedly, and the eyes were full of gratitude and obsession.

Charlie at this moment, in her eyes, is the world-famous hero sent by heaven to save her...

Chapter 1805

In the middle of the night, Charlie drove the car, carrying Nanako, and galloping back to Tokyo.

In the middle of the journey, Issac called Charlie and asked him if he had finished the work and when he would return to Osaka.

Charlie told him that he would not be able to return for a while, and that he would not be able to return until tomorrow.

Issac didn't know what was wrong with Charlie, but he knew that Charlie was extremely strong, and no one in Japan could threaten him, so he was relieved.

Nanako, who was sitting in the co-pilot, seemed nervous all the way. Although Takehiko Ito said on the phone that he was not in danger, Nanako was still a little worried.

After more than three hours, Charlie drove the car back to Tokyo and stopped in front of Tokyo's best hospital, Tokyo University Affiliated Hospital.

This hospital is the highest-ranked hospital in Japan, and represents the highest level of treatment.

After the car stopped steadily, Nanako couldn't wait to push the door to get out of the car, but before getting of the car, she looked at Charlie and asked, "Master, are you going to go up with me?"

Charlie said slightly embarrassed: "Your father may not want to see me, right?"

Nanako said earnestly: "Master, you saved my life, no matter how big a misunderstanding, I believe my father will never care about it again!"

Charlie thought for a moment, and said: "Okay, then I will go with you."

In fact, what Charlie thought was very simple. After all, Takehiko is Nanako's father. If his physical condition really has any major problems, he might be able to help.

The two came to the floor of the intensive care unit and found that starting from the elevator entrance to the lounge and corridor, they were all full of people.

Among them, most of them are members of the Ito family, and a small part is members of special operations teams sent by the TMPD.

As soon as the elevator door opened, everyone outside looked at the elevator car vigilantly, and found that it was Nanako and a strange man. Everyone was surprised.

At this time, a middle-aged woman rushed over and asked in surprise: "Nanako, why are you here?!"

The speaker is Emi Ito, the younger sister of Takehiko and the aunt of Nanako.

When Nanako saw her, she hurriedly bowed, "Auntie, how is my father?"

A trace of melancholy flashed in Emi's expression, and she sighed: "Brother, his vital signs are very stable. The doctor said that he is out of danger, but..."

Nanako blurted out and asked, "But what?!"

"Hey..." Emi sighed and said seriously: "My brother's legs are seriously injured. The doctor has already amputated his legs below the knees in order to save his life. For the rest of his life, he will have to sit on a wheelchair or use artificial limb..."

"Ah?!" Nanako's tears burst into her eyes.

Hearing that her father had both legs amputated, she naturally felt distressed deep in her heart.

She knows her father's character very well. She must be strong and tenacious throughout her life. It is indeed a very heavy blow for people like him to use a wheelchair for the rest of life.

It's like her mentor, Kazuki Yamamoto, who has studied martial arts all his life, but never thought that he was beaten as a waste because he underestimated Charlie's strength. The original martial arts master could only lie in bed and live his life. This kind of blow can be called fatal.

Charlie couldn't help frowning at this moment.

Takehiko's luck didn't know whether it was good or bad.

To say that he was in bad luck, but he still got his life back, otherwise, he has been separated from Nanako long ago.

Chapter 1806

To say that he is lucky, in fact, he only needs to amputate a few hours later, as long as his leg is still on his body, his own rejuvenation pill can heal it.

But if the limb has been amputated, the Rejuvenation Pill will be helpless.

Although Rejuvenating Pill is strong, it does not have the effect of regenerating a broken limb.

Moreover, Takehiko was injured just now tonight, and amputation a few hours later will not have much impact.

After all, it takes time for damaged limb tissues to rot and spread infection. Doctors assist in certain anti-inflammatory treatments. A few hours' window can still be won.

If Takehiko Ito hesitated and thought about it a little bit, he might be able to drag him and Nanako over.

However, what he didn't expect was that he would be so straightforward and had his limbs amputated directly.

Charlie estimated that it was the hospital who felt that Ito's affected limb had no value for preservation, so they simply performed the amputation.

This can only be said that Ito's luck is not so good.

At this moment, Nanako next to Charlie cried and asked, "Auntie, father, he... is he in good condition? Is he particularly angry or depressed?"

Emi gently took Nanako's hand and smiled and said, "Your father looked very open this time. He personally told me that survival is already the greatest gift, even if he becomes a disabled person in the future. It's okay."

As she said, Emi sighed again: "In fact, what your father fears most is not injury or disability, nor loss of life, but in the future journey of life, unable to accompany and walk with you, this time he could have died. Escaped, you don't know how happy he is! This is like a mountain of father's love!"

Nanako couldn't control her emotions anymore, and she hugged Emi and cried loudly.

Emi patted her back gently, remembering something, and blurted out in surprise: "Nanako, why...how can you stand up?! The doctor said that you will always depend on wheelchair in the future?"

Nanako looked at Charlie and said to Emi truthfully, "Auntie, thanks to Master Wade, he cured me..."

"Master Wade?!" Emi was shocked, and blurted out: "That's it...Is that Charlie Wade, who owed our Ito family's 4.5 billion USD?!"

Nanako was a little embarrassed and said, "Auntie, don't worry about money too much. Master Wade not only healed my injury, but also saved my life!"

"Save your life?!" Emi blurted out, "Nanako, are you in any danger?"

Nanako nodded and said, "Earlier tonight, Machi Takahashi sent six Tenglin ninjas to Kyoto to murder me. Thanks to Master Wade, I was spared..."

Emi widened her eyes and blurted out: "I didn't expect Takahashi to be so vicious! Even he won't let you go!"

After that, she looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, I am not overly qualified for the grievances between you and my brother, but for the thing that you saved Nanako, I want to thank you on behalf of my brother and the entire Ito family!"

As soon as the voice fell, she immediately bowed to Ninety degrees and held it for about three to five seconds.

Charlie said indifferently: "You are polite. I and Nanako are friends, and these are what friends should do."

At this time, a doctor ran over and said to Emi: "The patient is awake and wants to see his family. Ms. Ito, please come with me."

Emi hurriedly said to Nanako, "Nanako, let's go see your father together."

Nanako nodded heavily, and immediately asked Charlie: "Master, are you coming?"

Charlie smiled slightly, thinking that since Takehiko has been amputated, he can't help much, so he said: "Nanako, I will not go there, lest Mr. Ito will be emotional and affect recovery after seeing me."

Chapter 1807

The reason why Charlie came was because of Nanako's face, so he could help if he wanted to.

But since Takehiko has been amputated and his life is not in danger, there is no need for his help here, and he does not want to go in and meet Takehiko to avoid embarrassment.

Nanako didn't insist upon seeing this, and said softly: "Master, then please wait here for a while, I'll go in and see my father!"

Charlie nodded: "Go, I'll be here."

Nanako nodded lightly, and then went to the ward with her aunt Emi.

In the ward, Takehiko Ito just woke up.

After both legs were amputated, the doctor used an analgesic pump for him, so he basically didn't feel the pain, but he was always worried about Nanako in Kyoto, so he couldn't sleep well.

He just dreamed that Nanako had an accident in Kyoto, and Takehiko immediately woke up and wanted to order his sister Emi to send someone to bring Nanako back to Tokyo as soon as possible.

However, what he didn't even dream of was that after the ward door was opened, his sister Emi came in with his beloved baby daughter, Nanako!

"Nanako?!" Takehiko Ito blurted out in surprise: "Why are you here?"

Nanako saw her father lying on the hospital bed pale and bloodless, with thick gauze wrapped around his legs and knees, and disappeared without a trace from below the knees. She burst into tears and cried out, "Odosan!"

After speaking, she ran to the hospital bed, grabbed Takehiko's hand and cried bitterly.

Only then did Ito recover his senses. Seeing his daughter appear in front of him safely, he was relieved, and he was even more relieved. He rejoiced and said, "Nanako, Oudosan really didn't expect to see you alive. , At this moment, seeing you in front of me is really worth everything..."

Nanako cried and said, "Odosan, you have suffered..."

Takehiko smiled and said, "No, no no, Nanako, O'Duo Sang knew in his heart that being able to survive is already the greatest fortune. I am already very satisfied!"

As he said, he suddenly remembered a detail just now and exclaimed: "Nanako, what about your legs...how can you walk?"

Nanako choked and said, "Oodusan, I almost died by the sword of Tenglin Ninjas tonight..."

"What?!" Takehiko Ito was shocked and blurted out: "Tenglin Ninja came to assassinate you?"

"Yeah!" Nanako nodded and said, "The Tenglin family sent six ninjas to Kyoto to assassinate me..."

"Six ninjas?!" Takehiko Ito was even more horrified, and said nervously: "I didn't give ninjas to protect you, how did you escape?!"

Nanako hurriedly said, "Thanks to Master Charlie Wade... he saved me..."

"Charlie?!" Takehiko's eyes widened.

"Yes!" Nanako hurriedly said, "It is Master Wade from China. He not only killed six Tenglin ninjas and saved my life, but he also cured my injury with a magical medicine. I am now completely fine, healthy as before, and I even feel better than before!"

"Really?!" Takehiko asked in surprise: "Nanako, you don't lie to Oodusan?"

Emi smiled and said, "Brother, didn't you see that Nanako ran over from the door just now?"

Chapter 1808

"Oh yes!" Ito was overjoyed, and nodded and said excitedly: "It's great! It's great! I dream of wishing Nanako can heal and stand up again. This is even more important than my own life! I didn't expect it to happen!"

As he said, Takehiko asked Nanako again: "According to this, you came to Tokyo. Charlie should have sent you here?"

Nanako said truthfully: "Yes, Oodusan, it's Master Wade, who drove me all the way from Kyoto to here."

After that, Nanako said again: "By the way, Odosan, the corpses of the six Tenglin ninjas are still in the storage room of courtyard. I have to trouble you to order the housekeeper to send someone to deal with it!"

"Okay..." Ito sighed, sighing as if he was talking to himself: "I have been hating Charlie for the past few days, but I didn't expect him to save my beloved daughter and heal her too. In contrast to my daughter's injury, I am really a villain's heart to save a gentleman's belly..."

After that, he hurriedly asked, "Nanako, where is Mr. Charlie?"

Nanako hurriedly said, "Odosan, Master Wade is outside."

Takehiko hurriedly tried to sit upright with both hands, and said seriously: "Hurry up and invite him in, I want to thank him face to face!"

Nanako hesitated for a moment, and said, "Odosan, Master Wade said, you will be angry if you see him..."

"How come!" Ito said seriously: "My contradiction with him is nothing more than the 4.5 billion, but he saved your life! In the eyes of Odosan, your life, Don't say 4.5 billion USD, even 45 billion USD, it can't be exchanged! Therefore, Mr. Charlie is my great benefactor, and I want to thank him in person..."

Nanako hesitated for a few seconds, and then said: "Odosan, I will ask Master Wade, if he wants, I will bring him in."

Takehiko said immediately: "Okay! Go ahead!"

Nanako came out of the ward and walked to Charlie.

Charlie asked in surprise, "Why did you come out so soon?"

Nanako stammered and said, "Master Wade... Father, he... he... he wants to see you..."

Charlie smiled a little awkwardly: "He has just finished the amputation, even if it is not life-threatening, his body should be relatively weak. It's not appropriate to see him at this time?"

Nanako hurriedly waved her hand and said, "That's not the case! Father wants to thank Master in person! Thank Master for saving my life and healing my injury."

Charlie asked a little surprised: "Your father really said that?"

"Yes." Nanako solemnly nodded and said, "I use my personality to assure Master Wade!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said generously: "If this is the case, then I will go and meet Mr. Ito."

After that, he followed Nanako to Ito's ward.

As soon as he entered the ward, Takehiko sat up with the help of Emi, clasped his fists to Charlie, and said piously: "Mr. Charlie, thank you for saving the little girl's life and curing her. For this great grace, the Ito family is unforgettable!"

Charlie really didn't expect that Takehiko's attitude was so good, so at this moment he was a little stunned.

Immediately, he smiled and said, "Mr. Ito is polite. Nanako and I are friends. I should do all these things."

Chapter 1809

Takehiko sighed and said apologetically: "There have been many things that have offended you before, and I hope you don't mind!"

Charlie was also generous, smiled slightly, and said, "Mr. Ito is polite. I've turned over the previous misunderstandings and you don't need to mention it again."

The subtext of Charlie's words is actually, the misunderstanding will not be mentioned anymore, and the 4.5 billion USD matter will not be mentioned again.

Although he was not short of money, he didn't want to spit out the money in his pocket easily.

It wasn't that he wanted to misuse Takehiko's money. The point was that even if the money was thrown out, he couldn't just spit it out in a few words.

At least, the money will have to be taken out by Nanako when she needs it in the future, and it will be given to her only.

But this may have to wait for Nanako to inherit the Ito family.

Takehiko is also a good person. Hearing this, he knows what Charlie means.

Four and a half billion USD is indeed a huge sum of money, but since Charlie didn't want to give it, he couldn't chase him for it.

After all, Charlie saved his daughter's life and made her completely healed. This is really a great kindness.

Otherwise, even if the daughter was not in danger, she will not be able to live without the torture of wheelchair and illness for the rest of her life.

Therefore, Takehiko also consciously did not mention the 4.5 billion USD, but asked very curiously: "Mr. Charlie, how did you save the little girl, by chance?"

Charlie said truthfully: "I originally took over the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical in Osaka. I heard that Ms. Nanako is in Kyoto, and it's only a 40-minute drive from Osaka to Kyoto. I wanted to meet her. I didn't expect it to happen. I met the ninja of the Tenglin family who came there to attack her, so I did it."

Charlie couldn't help but sigh: "It's also a coincidence. If I arrive later, I might be helpless."

Takehiko also nodded in fear, and exclaimed, "Thanks to Mr. Charlie!"

After finishing speaking, he couldn't restrain the angry cold voice: "?? The ninjas of the Tenglin family are loyal to Machi Takahashi. I don't understand why Machi Takahashi has acted on me! Everyone is competing with me. The Su family's cooperation, even if there are some holidays and misunderstandings on weekdays, there is no need to kill my daughter like this, right?!"

Charlie frowned immediately: "What did you say? The Su family? Which Su family?!"

Takehiko explained: "It's the Su family, the top big family in China. They want to engage in ocean shipping and they have taken a fancy to a few ports in Japan, so they want to cooperate with Japanese families. Both the Ito family and the Takahashi family In their shortlist."

After speaking, Takehiko said again: "For our two families, whoever can cooperate with the Su family will have the opportunity to surpass each other and become the first family in Japan. Therefore, both of us attach great importance to this cooperation. , But I didn't expect that Machi Takahashishi would actually act like this!"

Charlie suddenly remembered that he was in Kyoto, following the two Chinese people saved from the Iga family ninja.

Are they from the Su family? !

Thinking of this, Charlie hurriedly asked again: "Mr. Ito, who did the Su family send to discuss cooperation with you this time?"

Takehiko said: "They sent their eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter, one named Zhifei and the other named Zhiyu."

Charlie frowned and asked, "Aren't these two very young? Woman is only in her early twenties, and man is only twenty-five or six?"

"Yes!" Ito said: "Zhifei is almost twenty-five or -six, Zhiyu and Nanako should be about the same age, both 22 years old."

As he said, Ito sighed and said, "But, who would have thought that the Su family's siblings were bizarrely kidnapped after they came to Japan! The kidnapers also killed more than a dozen of Su's entourage? It turned Tokyo upside down, and Machi Takahashi and I were both listed as suspects by the TMPD!"

Hearing this, Charlie was basically sure that the siblings that he accidentally saved and let go in Kyoto were the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of the Su family!

Thinking of this, Charlie's expression suddenly became very ugly!

Su family!

Chapter 1810

D*mn the Su family!

In the beginning, it was the Su family who took the lead and united countless other families in Eastcliff to form an "anti-wade alliance" that was an enemy of his father!

Although not sure whether the death of his parents is the result of the Su family and the Anti-Wade Alliance.

However, at least he can be sure!

In this matter, the Su family is absolutely unclear about the relationship!

Unexpectedly, he saved the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of the enemy's family!

At this moment, Charlie regretted it!

The hatred of parents is shared!

Even if he didn't take the initiative to make the descendants of the Su family pay the price, he shouldn't have saved their lives!

Thinking of this, Charlie really wanted to slap himself a hundred times!

Seeing his ugly expression, Takehiko hurriedly asked him: "Mr. Charlie, do you know someone from the Su family?"

Charlie sighed, shook his head and said, "I don't know, but I accidentally saved them in Kyoto..."

"What?!" Takehiko Ito exclaimed: "The Su brothers and sisters were taken to Kyoto? Could it be that Tenglin Ninja did it?"

"No." Charlie shook his head and said: "Iga Ninja did it. At that time, after I solved Tenglin Ninja, I found Iga Ninja went to Ito's mansion to step on something. I was afraid that someone wanted to harm Nanako, so I followed along all the way. It was discovered that another group of ninjas had kidnapped the Su family girl and boy, and wanted to kill them before hiding their bodies in the Ito mansion to blame the Ito family."

Takehiko blurted out in amazement, "Who is instigated by those ninjas?! It is so vicious! This is to push my Ito family into the fire pit!"

Charlie said, "I heard that they were instigated by a guy named Matsumoto."

"Matsumoto?!"

Takehiko, Emi, and Nanako were all shocked!

At this moment, they want to understand the ins and outs of the whole thing!

Takehiko shook his head and sighed: "When I jumped down from the viaduct, I thought it was Machi Takahashi behind the scenes. I didn't expect that the instigator of all this was Ryoto Matsumoto! This b@stard, secretly played the game. Let me and Machi Takahashi suspect each other, and wanted to pour the dirty water of kidnapping and murdering the Su brother and sister on me. It's really vicious!"

Emi spoke at this moment: "Brother, when you were resting, I heard some messages from the TMPD. I didn't understand it at first. Now after Mr. Charlie mentioned this point, all the clues are correct. Got it!"

Takehiko hurriedly asked: "What information? What clue?!"

Emi said truthfully: "Machi Takahashi's son was killed yesterday evening. The murderer blocked his convoy in the underground passage, locked him in the car and set it on fire to char..."

"What?!" Both Takehiko and Nanako heard with surprise.

Emi continued: "Later, Machi Takahashi was also assassinated by a ninja at home..."

"Machi Takahashi is dead?!"

Emi nodded, and said, "There are more terrifying things..."

Takehiko Ito stabilized his mind, and said, "Say!"

"Matsumoto's family has more than 30 people, all of them have been destroyed!?"

Chapter 1811

The news that Matsumoto's family was decimated completely shocked Takehiko.

He was already dumbfounded, and blurted out: "This will wipe out all the more than 30 Matsumotos. Isn't this too cruel?! Who is so bold?"

Emi shook her head and said, "don't know the specifics. The police are also investigating this matter."

Charlie said coldly at this time: "Do you still need to check it? It must be the Su family. I rescued the Su family siblings just in the middle of the night, and the Su family killed the Matsumoto family behind the scenes in the middle of the night.

Takehiko Ito looked a little surprised, and murmured: "The Su family's behavior style is too harsh? Ryoto Matsumoto only acted on their subordinates and two younger generations. Even if they take revenge, they could take Ryoto Matsumoto. Isn't it enough to kill people? At most, kill their bodyguards. Why do you have to hurt so many people up and down?"

Charlie said with a black face: "This should be the style of the Su family."

With that, Charlie couldn't help thinking of his parents again.

With the fierce style and vicious methods of the Su family, the death of his parents is probably directly caused by them!

Thinking of this, Charlie felt extremely upset!

He was so d*mn blind that he saved and released the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of the Su family!

If he didn't intervene, the two brothers and sisters would have become cold corpses by now!

In that case, the talent pool of the younger generation of the Su family must have suffered heavy losses.

More importantly, this could greatly blow the Su Family's arrogance!

This is not that Charlie is narrow-minded, but that his parents' hatred is not shared!

Seeing Charlie's ugly expression on the side, Takehiko couldn't help asking: "Mr. Charlie, are you okay?"

Charlie chuckled and shook his head: "It's nothing, I am just a bit surprised."

What can he say?

He can't tell Takehiko Ito about the death of his parents and his own life experience.

Ito Nodded, was silent for a moment, and suddenly sighed: "I didn't expect that in just a few days, things would turn into the current situation..."

As he said, he continued with a serious face: "Now it seems that this incident seems to have been unintentional, and the Ito family has become the biggest beneficiary."

Chapter 1812

Emi agrees and said: "This is indeed the case. Originally, we competed fiercely with the Takahashi family, but I did not expect that both Machi Takahashi and his son were dead. Next, the Takahashi family will be very vigorous and hurt."

"Also, Ryoto Matsumoto had been trying hard to catch up from behind. Now the entire Matsumoto family has been wiped out. All the business shares of the Matsumoto family have been released. Can the Takahashi family now have the ability to compete with us? Not to mention the families below. , If we take the opportunity to grab the resources released by the Takahashi and Matsumoto families, then we will soon be able to become the true Japanese first family!"

Takehiko nodded, but there was no sign of happiness in his expression. He sighed: "I wanted to be like a samurai, and frankly compete with Takahashi, but I didn't expect that I would become a snipe and clam. A fisherman who has gained nothing for nothing, is really unbelievable..."

At this moment, Charlie looked at Takehiko with admiration. Most people at this moment are probably excited and overwhelmed.

But what he didn't expect is that Takehiko still has this consciousness.

At this time, Emi counseled: "Brother, there is no need to worry about how to win. After all, the things encountered by these two families are not behind us. Even if we take advantage of it, Those who can pick it up have peace of mind, so the most urgent task is to quickly start cleaning the battlefield and take this opportunity to let the Ito family stand on top of their invincibility!"

Takehiko Ito did not answer immediately, but turned to look at Charlie, clasped his fists again, and said sincerely, "Mr. Charlie, thank you for all this! If it were not for you, the end of the Ito family might not be much better than Machi Takahashi. If it weren't for you, I'm afraid that the Ito family and the Takahashi family have already been calculated by Matsumoto to ruin our homes. You are the benefactor of the Ito family!"

Seeing this, Emi immediately stood up, knelt on one knee, clasped her fists, and said sincerely: "Mr. Charlie, brother, he has trouble with his legs, so I would like to thank you on behalf of the Ito family!"

Nanako also hurriedly got up, and immediately knelt down with her aunt, and said in gratitude, "Master, please also accept my gratitude!"

Charlie sighed lightly and said seriously: "You two, please get up. You don't need to do this. Although I helped the Ito family by chance, you escaped this disaster. In the final analysis, it is the good fortune of the Ito family. "

Emi and Nanako just got up.

Emi said to Takehiko Ito: "Brother, Mr. Charlie is right. In addition to Mr. Charlie's help in this matter, I have to say that the good fortune of our Ito family is really rare! Not only can we take the opportunity to absorb the Takahashi family and the Matsumoto family

The share released can also take advantage of the Takahashi family's vitality to promote cooperation with the Su family. If the Su family wants to do business, now they only have the choice of the Ito family!"

"No!" Ito said without hesitation: "From now on, we will not cooperate with the Su family of any nature!"

Emi couldn't help asking, "Brother, why is this?! Haven't you been looking forward to this collaboration?"

Takehiko said very seriously: "That's because I didn't know enough about the Su family! But now, through the Matsumoto family's affairs, I can see through the Su family's behavior. The Su family is too hostile and has no bottom line. Even the underage children are not spared. To cooperate with this kind of family is to seek the skin of the tiger!"

Emi looked terrified, and suddenly said: "What my brother said makes sense...The Su family's actions are indeed too cruel..."

As she said, Emi suddenly remembered something and hurriedly said: "Brother, I heard that another family in China ranked second only to the Su family seems to want to get involved in ocean shipping. They have been competing with the Su family for many years. Similar to our situation with the Takahashi family over the years, if conditions are right, we can cooperate with the Wade family."

Takehiko Ito shook his head and said, "Forget it, the Su family and the Wade family are both very strong. In recent years, China's economic development has been advancing by leaps and bounds. The strength of these two families has also far surpassed other families in Asia, whether it is the Su family or the Wade family. We are far from their opponents. To cooperate with the Su family is to seek skin with the tiger, and to cooperate with the Wade family is to completely offend the tiger of the Su family. In my opinion, we still should not put ourselves in such a dangerous situation!"

Speaking of this, Takehiko pondered for a moment and said seriously: "In this way, starting from today, the Ito family will terminate all cooperation with foreign families, and will not accept any invitation for cooperation. We have been working hard in the Japanese domestic market during this time. , Let's try our best, dig deep holes, and accumulate food! When our strength is equal to or similar to that of Wade and Su, then consider cooperating with them!"

Chapter 1813

It seems that Takehiko does have a good overall view, and he can control his inner greed, not to be greedy or aggressive.

If you change to a very ambitious and greedy family, then you will immediately start to play high and play both ways.

On the one hand, it completely suppresses other families in the country, strives to eat their share in a short time, and makes oneself a fat man;

On the one hand, we must cooperate with large overseas families as soon as possible to further open up profit channels and develop ourselves rapidly.

However, Takehiko Ito can clearly see the situation and the hidden dangers and hidden pitfalls.

There is no doubt that the Su family is indeed the Tiger Wolf family.

Such a family not only has no morals, but also has no basic humanity.

When cooperating with such a family, you must be on guard at all times, otherwise it is very likely that the opponent will be severely stabbed behind you.

And if you fall to the Su family's competitors, it is equivalent to directly standing on the opposite side of the Su family, and the risk factor is even greater.

Instead of doing this, it is better to close the door and try to develop yourself.

Emi also understood her brother's worries and vision, and said seriously: "Brother, you are right. I am too dull to see this level."

Takehiko waved his hand: "Your thoughts are also normal. Starting a business is like a gamble. Either simply keep betting a little bit more, or you can have an unparalleled future; or after you reserve a certain amount of chips, learn to see and close.."

Speaking of this, Takehiko sighed: "If it were before tonight, I might also be the same as you thought. I would take this opportunity to give him a big shot. However, I walked through the gate and lost both. After the legs, I finally know the preciousness of life and the meaning of being alive, and after knowing that I almost lost Nanako, I became more aware of this..."

"So, I want to be more cautious now, and being steady is more important than anything else."

Emi nodded seriously.

At this time, Takehiko Ito glanced at Nanako, and said seriously: "Nanako, since you are now cured, from now on, stay in Tokyo with Odosan."

Nanako hesitated slightly.

She likes the environment of Kyoto, and she is reluctant to leave Kyoto.

However, thinking of the special situation now that she can no longer follow her own preferences, she immediately said: "Okay Odosan, I will stay with you!"

Takehiko said: "Let you stay in Tokyo not only to allow you to accompany me, but also to let you get in touch with the family's business and industry earlier and start preparing for succession."

Nanako hurriedly said, "Odosan, I have no experience in running a business. Isn't it too early?"

Takehiko nodded and said seriously: "It is indeed a little earlier, but now the situation is special, my legs are gone, and it will be more inconvenient to move in the future..."

Speaking of this, Takehiko sighed a little lonely: "Moreover, I am a disabled person, and I am not suitable for showing up on behalf of the family, which will affect the family image."

"So, you must be ready to take my seat now. At the very least, you must first assume the external image of the Ito family. Later, on the outside, you will represent the Ito family."

Chapter 1814

Emi also persuaded: "Yes, Nanako, you should stand up to the stage for your father now and let your father teach you and make suggestions for you."

Nanako nodded gently and said, "Okay, I will definitely work hard!"

Takehiko and Emi were relieved to see Nanako's promise so refreshing.

Takehiko Ito naturally has high hopes for his daughter, but Nanako was obsessed with martial arts before and did not have much interest in the operation and management of the family business.

At that time, Takehiko was still worrying about how to let his daughter gradually take care of him and focus on inheriting the family business.

He thought that he could carry his body for more than ten years, which would give Nanako a few more years of free time.

Unexpectedly, things changed so much all at once.

Although most of Japanese culture originated from China, it has more or less localized development.

In China, most entrepreneurs put their interests first and do not pay much attention to external image issues.

However, after the Meiji Restoration in Japan, the degree of westernization was relatively high, so Japanese entrepreneurs attached great importance to the external image of enterprises.

To give the simplest example, if you do a clerical job in a Japanese company, you will have a headache in summer.

Because most Japanese companies require their employees to wear formal attire during working hours, even in the middle of summer, they must wear a shirt, suit, and even a tie.

Therefore, Japanese entrepreneurs hold press conferences or attend public events, regardless of age, all in formal wear.

And the Japanese like to bow, because they are talking here, and then they suddenly stand up ninety degrees and take a bow, then sit down and continue talking.

Therefore, Takehiko's current state is particularly unsuitable as a company's external spokesperson.

Although Nanako is young, she has a very good image and is especially in line with the Japanese aesthetics. She is responsible for the outside world. For the Ito family, it is the best choice.

Charlie is also very optimistic about Nanako, and encourages her, "If Nanako takes over the Ito family, it has the potential to turn the Ito family into an Internet celebrity company. The media will definitely beat the beauty president's personal settings. Setting up a successful establishment will enable the Ito family to achieve a multiplier effect in their careers."

When Nanako heard Charlie's words, she couldn't help being a little embarrassed, and said with a blushing face: "Master Wade should stop making a joke about me. I don't have the temperament of a beautiful president. It's nothing more than catching ducks on the shelves. I have to do it."

Charlie earnestly said: "Don't be presumptuous. With your perfect image and temperament, you will definitely become a beauty entrepreneur crazily sought after by all of Japan in the future, and maybe you will become a business card of the Japanese business community overseas."

Nanako was so complimented by Charlie, she was ashamed and happy, and because she was a young girl who had just started her love, she had no ability to hide her own ability in this kind of thing, so she could only lower her head deeper and deeper.

Takehiko immediately saw his daughter's extraordinary. At this moment, he was already certain that his daughter had fallen in love with Charlie.

Observing for a moment, he strengthened his opinion.

At this moment, as a father, he felt a little melancholy in his heart, but at the same time, he felt a little relieved for his daughter's emotional maturity.

So he opened his mouth and said: "Emi, Nanako, you two go out first, I want to talk with Mr. Charlie in private!"

Chapter 1815

Emi and Nanako didn't think much about it. Seeing Takehiko was about to chat with Charlie in private, they got up to leave and left the ward.

After the two people left, Ito looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, what happened before was offensive, and I still have to apologize to you. Thank you for repaying your grievances with morality and saving the little girl. The Ito family, otherwise, if it really makes the Su family think that it was the Ito family who killed the Su family's heirs, the Ito family is afraid that we would face annihilation?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Ito is polite. I saved Nanako out of a friend's relationship. As for indirectly helping the Ito family, you don't have to be too polite to me. After all, I took your money. There is an old saying about taking money from others and helping others to eliminate disasters. I can't take money without doing anything, right?"

Takehiko was stunned.

The reason why he was dumbfounded was also completely shocked by Charlie's shamelessness.

Charlie's words are very clear. Take people's money and fight against people. This means that the 4.5 billion USD can't be taken for nothing. You have to do something for the Ito family.

Therefore, he has helped the Ito family get rid of the disaster, and the money can be taken with ease.

Takehiko was shocked, more or less painful.

Although he did feel that his daughter's life was more valuable than 4.5 billion USD, he would still feel distressed if he really threw 4.5 billion in.

However, he knew very well in his heart that if you lose the US$4.5 billion, you have lost. He has no other way to get the money back, or recover the loss to a certain extent, so there is no need to deal with this issue now.

Thinking of this, he smiled awkwardly and said to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, your JX Pharmaceutical has a very strong momentum of development. After the annexation of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, I believe there must be a broader prospect. Don't know if we can work together. How about a certain amount of cooperation on this?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Mr. Ito, there is actually nothing to cooperate in this matter. JX Pharmaceutical is the foundation of my life and I will not give up my share of it."

Takehiko hurriedly said: "Mr. Charlie, I don't want your share, but I really want to have a certain degree of in-depth cooperation with you. In the future, the Ito family will hand it over to Nanako. You and Nanako are friends, and I think it can be concluded that Nanako trusts you very much. You can try various forms of in-depth cooperation. This is good for you and us, and it is truly mutually beneficial."

Charlie smiled slightly: "I will naturally consider this in the future. If the time is right, I will definitely not reject cooperation with Miss Nanako."

"That's good....."

Takehiko breathed a sigh of relief and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, I can see that Nanako likes you very much. If you two can have any possibility, then I'm so relieved..."

Charlie said immediately: "Mr. Ito, Ms. Nanako is still very young. Don't talk about this kind of thing. If it spreads out and gets misunderstood, it will ruin Nanako's reputation."

Takehiko waved his hand: "My daughter has been raised for 22 years. No one in this world knows her better than me. I can see that she really likes you, and she likes you sincerely, if possible. , I also suggest that you stay in Japan for development. You have JX Pharmaceutical and Nanako has the Ito family. If you two can combine to become a husband and wife, you will definitely become the top existence in Asia and even the world."

Charlie smiled and asked, "Mr. Ito should have investigated me? You should know that I am already married."

Chapter 1816

"I know." Takehiko Ito smiled slightly and said indifferently: "What about being married? You are married, doesn't Nanako still like you? So, it's good for me and for Nanako, We don't care about your past and present. What we care about is your future!"

With that, Takehiko said very seriously: "Mr. Charlie, after today's events, I have a very clear understanding of life. When people live, everything has meaning. Being rich means being rich, and being poor means being poor. If you die, no matter whether it is rich or poor, it will be nothing."

"If it were before today, I would never let my daughter marry a foreign man, but at this moment, these are no longer important to me. What is important is how to make my daughter happy; The important thing is, how can my daughter have the best life!"

"Mr. Charlie has the ability, strength, and charm that a strong man should have. Nanako is cultivated, has a background, is strong external and internal, and she likes you so much. I believe you must have some feelings for Nanako in your heart, otherwise If you didn't, you would never travel all the way to Japan and make a special trip to Kyoto to see her, save her life, heal her injuries, and even drive a few hundred kilometers in the middle of the night to take her to Tokyo to see me."

Charlie nodded and said, "Mr. Ito, it is undeniable that Nanako is indeed a very good girl, but I still said that. I'm already married."

Takehiko waved his hand and said: "Don't always prevaricate me by this getting married fact. You can divorce if you are married. Even if you don't leave, you can marry Nanako in Japan. As long as you don't go back, there is no problem."

Charlie shook his head and smiled: "Mr. Ito, I really appreciate some of the precious qualities of Miss Nanako, but what you said is still impossible."

After a pause, Charlie said again: "And I will not stay in Japan, today, tomorrow at the latest, I will return to China."

Takehiko smiled and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, you have an old Chinese saying that good birds choose wood and live in them. I have investigated your background. Forgive me to be honest, your current wife is not worthy of you!"

Charlie looked at Takehiko noncommittantly, and asked with a smile: "Mr. Ito seems to have studied Chinese culture very much. Just now he could say words like 'dug a hole deep and accumulate grain', and now there is 'good bird'. 'Choose wood and live', you seem to be a Chinese expert too!"

Ito said seriously: "When he was young, he admired Togo Heihachiro, who led the Japanese fleet to defeat the Russians in the Battle of Tsushima. I started to follow his footsteps, read Chinese history books, and learned a lot of Chinese culture and classical literature."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Mr. Ito is so studious, really admirable, but I still want to make it clear to you: I will not divorce my wife! So, just ask Mr. Ito not to Mention it again."

Charlie said again: "Also, I am leaving Japan soon, so please don't mention this to Nainako, so as not to have a negative impact on her."

Takehiko looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, you Chinese pay attention to the cycle of fate, you see, before tonight, it was Nanako who was injured sitting in a wheelchair. The doctor also vowed to say that she might live a lifetime like that. Couldn't stand up anymore, but now?"

As Takehiko said, he reached out and patted his amputated knee lightly, and laughed at himself: "Now, Nanako, who was declared by the doctor that it is impossible to stand up again, stands up again, but I lost my legs, so I said Ah, this life is a cycle!"

Charlie frowned and said: "Mr. Ito, I don't quite understand what you mean."

Ito said with a smile: "I mean, even if you leave Japan today and swear that you will never come back again, when the wheel of fortune turns, it is likely to send you back here, even if you are unwilling. You can't help it!"

"The same is true for your wife. Even if you think you will never divorce her, the wheel of fortune may one day separate you!"

"Everything in the world is confusing and perplexing. Mr. Charlie is still young and there are still decades to go in his life. Why should he speak so absolute now?"

Chapter 1817

The words of Takehiko made Charlie more or less surprised.

First of all, he did not expect that Takehiko would know so much about Chinese culture;

Secondly, he did not expect that Ito would mention the cycle of fate.

He doesn't know whether the Japanese believe in Feng Shui or not, but now, the Japanese believe in fate at least.

These words of Takehiko Ito seem to be nonsense, but they also contain a bit of truth.

What he said was not a complete catch. After all, no one can say good about fate.

He thought of the hundred-year-old Fengshui master he met in Waderest Mountain in Eastcliff.

That master relied on the deduction of the cycle of fate that finally met himself in Waderest Mountain.

It was also that he personally broke the fate of Dragon Shoal so that he could fly into the sky.

That old gentleman must have a deeper understanding and perception of the fate cycle.

It is a pity that the Old Master is on the other side of the ocean and may not have the opportunity to meet again in the future.

Otherwise, he really wants to sit opposite him, sip tea, and have a long conversation.

However, at this moment, Charlie suddenly thought of what Takehiko said.

There is a cycle of fate, maybe in the future, He will meet the Feng Shi master again.

By the same token, if you leave Tokyo or Japan today, you may come back someday in the future.

Even if you don't come back, you should have the opportunity to meet Nanako again at a certain time and in a certain place.

Thinking of this, Charlie sighed lightly and said to Takehiko Ito: "Mr. Ito, I think we should leave the future to the future. After all, neither you nor I can control our fate."

Takehiko nodded and said earnestly: "Mr. Charlie, from today, the door of the Ito family will always be opened for you. In the future, the Ito family will replenish its energy and will not interact with any other overseas family or business. Cooperation, if one day, if you have enough ambitions and want to expand your horizons, the Ito family can cooperate with you unconditionally at any time!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Thank you Mr. Ito for your kindness, but I am a person with no ambitions, no schooling, no ambition and no ability, so let's leave it."

In Charlie's view, although his attitude towards Takehiko had changed to a certain extent, it was not enough to let him put his guard down.

Therefore, Charlie didn't want him to know his future plans.

In fact, in Charlie's heart, he very much hopes to use JX Pharmaceutical to make the career snowball bigger and bigger.

Because if he wants to avenge his parents, it is useless to rely solely on his personal strength. Not only his personal strength must be strong, but his economic strength is even more important!

Otherwise, how could he be able to deal with a behemoth like the Su family alone?

Among other things, just from the Su family's ability to cross the river with the Raptors, and directly kill all the local Japanese snakes and the Matsumoto family, it is enough to see how strong this family is.

This not only shows that the Su family has an astonishing number of top masters, but also shows that they are extremely mobile. Zhifei and Zhiyu have an accident in Japan, and they can immediately send a large number of masters. , And it's not worse than the US military.

If there is not enough strength, no one can single out such a family based on individual ability.

Not to mention the combat power of dozens of hundreds of masters swarming, just the relatives and friends around, they are unable to protect.

Chapter 1818

Therefore, Charlie knew very well that if he wanted to truly compete face-to-face with a family like the Su family in the future, he must have a strong comprehensive strength and being brave is not enough.

What's more, he hasn't been able to determine how much responsibility the Wade family will bear for the death of his parents.

If the Wade family had a major responsibility that they could not shirk in the death of their parents, then he might face the two top families of the Su family and the Wade family in the future.

Therefore, Charlie has decided that after returning to Aurous Hill, he will keep a low profile and develop JX Pharmaceutical.

Starting from JX Pharmaceutical, step by step, he will form his own business empire.

Only in this way can he have the opportunity to sit face-to-face with the Su Family and the Wade Family, and even trample them under his feet!

Takehiko didn't know Charlie's true identity, let alone what Charlie was thinking. Seeing that he seemed to be really ambitious, he couldn't help but persuade:

"Mr. Charlie, you have JX Pharmaceutical as your foundation and cash in your hand. Why don't you spread your business?"

"Take the current ocean transportation as an example. The vast majority of international oil and bulk trade logistics rely on shipping. Now the international economic situation is declining, and this is a good opportunity for bargain-hunting!"

"Furthermore, your country is with the best economic development momentum at present, and it also has the most complete industrial system. Export trade is rising year by year. China's demand for ocean transportation from all over the world will increase, and the prospects for ocean transportation will be even greater. For the vastness!"

"If Mr. Charlie is willing to do it, you can start from the Chinese mainland. If you need to expand to Japan's port and shipping business, the Ito family will definitely cooperate with you. Even if it is your green leaf, I am willing!"

At this time, Takehiko had a very simple thought in his heart.

Four and a half billions will definitely not come back.

JX Pharmaceutical will definitely not sell shares.

In this case, it is better to find a way to attract Charlie step by step.

If Charlie can be recruited to Ito's house as a son-in-law, what else should he worry about in the future?

Charlie has the strength and ability, and saved his daughter's life. More importantly, his daughter loves him.

Before, he wanted his daughter to marry Ichiro. It wasn't that he had to force his daughter to marry the Kobayashi family, but that his daughter at that time was simply a silly girl with powerless love.

She didn't have anyone she liked at all, and he didn't know if she would move that muscle.

Instead of this, he might as well choose the most suitable one for her.

However, she obviously already has her favorite object now. As a father, he certainly hopes that his daughter will get what she wants.

Besides, he also felt that a man like Charlie was indeed a good choice to be a son-in-law.

For the happiness of his daughter, he is even willing to let the entire Ito family become his daughter's dowry.

Anyway, he has this one daughter, everything is for his daughter to be happy and happy all her life.

As for the assets of the Ito family, it doesn't matter whether the surname is Ito, Yamada, Watanabe, or even Wade.

Because these assets will still be in the hands of his daughters, son-in-law, and the offspring born to them.

In Ito's view, the real inheritance is blood, not surname.

Charlie only smiled at Takehiko's suggestion, and said seriously: "It's true that my current development focus is to do a good job of JX Pharmaceutical. If JX Pharmaceutical can develop, then I will consider other businesses."

Chapter 1819

Seeing that Charlie declined his proposal temporarily, Ito sighed regretfully.

He really hoped that Charlie would be able to set up the stall of ocean shipping.

Because at this stage, the bulk of Asian ocean shipping is in China.

More than half of the top ten busiest ports in the world are in China. Only with such a huge import and export trade can the huge ocean shipping industry be supported.

This is beyond the reach of Japan.

Therefore, even if the Ito family wants to do it themselves, there is not enough market and demand support in the local area, and it is difficult for a clever woman to cook without rice.

So he said to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, the Ito family will gradually hand over to Nanako for operation and management. If you change your mind, you can contact her at any time. I believe you will be able to establish a very good foundation for cooperation."

Charlie nodded lightly and said seriously: "If I have this idea, I will definitely contact Miss Nanako."

Takehiko smiled and said: "Nanako is a good girl. I dare say that in terms of overall conditions, in Japan you may not be able to find a better girl than her. Whoever marries her is to marry the best Japanese Yamato Nadeshiko. Will become the envy of men all over the world."

Charlie smiled kindly, but did not answer.

Knowing that freezing three feet is not a day's cold, Ito said: "Mr. Charlie, you and the little girl are tired and have no rest at night, so I will send you to the house to take a rest first."

Charlie waved his hand: "No need Mr. Ito, I have something to do, I have to hurry back to Osaka, so I won't bother you too much."

"That's how it works." Takehiko seriously said: "Mr. Charlie, you drove over overnight. You have not rested or even eaten any food. If you just leave, then the hospitality that my Ito family ancestors upheld, Wouldn't it be reduced to a laughing stock."

As he said, he didn't wait for Charlie to refuse, and hurriedly pressed the pager on the bedside, and said: "Let Emi and Nanako come in."

After a while, Nanako and Emi knocked gently on the door and entered the ward.

Nanako asked softly, "Odosan, what's your order?"

Takehiko Ito said to Emi: "Emi, Mr. Charlie and Nanako have worked very hard all night. You arrange for someone to send them back to the house to rest. Remember to call ahead and let the chef prepare the best dishes!"

Emi hurriedly said, "OK brother!"

Charlie said sincerely: "Mr. Ito, really don't bother, I will just drive back to Osaka directly."

Takehiko said very solemnly: "Mr. Charlie, even if you want to go back to Osaka, you should at least sit down at the house for a while, eat a meal, have a cup of tea, and then leave!"

Nanako also persuaded from the side: "Yeah, Master Wade, the mansion is not far from here, you can eat something, take a rest and set off again, it's not light yet!"

In the middle of the night, the two arrived in Tokyo by car for travelling more than three hours, and it was only four o'clock in the morning.

And it's winter again now, and it's already late, and it will take at least two hours before dawn.

Seeing that both father and daughter were so polite, Charlie had to agree, and said, "If this is the case, then I'm better off being respectful."

Upon hearing this, Emi hurriedly said, "Then I will arrange the convoy. Now there are a lot of people from the TMPD. They will be escorted and protected all the way. Safety is definitely guaranteed."

Takehiko nodded and exhorted: "You must be a good host to entertain Mr. Charlie."

.....

Chapter 1820

Emi quickly arranged a team to accompany them, and Charlie still drove the car he came in.

Nanako also got into Charlie's car without hesitation.

Afterwards, Charlie drove the car and, under the leadership of the convoy, went to the residence of the Ito family.

Although Tokyo is one of the most expensive cities in the world, the Ito family also owns a private manor in a quiet place.

The entire manor is designed with Japanese-style ancient buildings, which is very simple, but it reveals low-key luxury everywhere.

Charlie found that even the wood used to build the house was extraordinary.

It seems that the top big families have no place to spend more money, so when building and decorating, they are completely trying to spill money everywhere. If you can use high-end ones, you definitely don't need ordinary ones, you can use imported ones. Never use local ones.

In the final analysis, it is still a sentence, only choose the expensive, not the right one.

Because Emi called in advance, the servants of the entire Ito residence were all neatly dressed, waiting respectfully at the entrance of the residence, in the courtyard and inside the villa.

Charlie parked the car and, led by Nanako, walked through the beautiful courtyard and walked all the way to the door of the villa. All the servants along the way bowed 90 degrees, with a very humble attitude.

The villa of the Ito family in Tokyo is a huge multi-storey wooden building. The whole building looks like a huge ancient temple, and the internal space is surprisingly large.

As soon as they arrived at the entrance of the main hall, Nanako suddenly leaned down and knelt on the ground, holding both hands empty, and said to Charlie: "Master, please let me change slippers for you!"

Charlie was stunned, and hurriedly waved his hand: "No need, no, give me slippers, I'll just do it myself."

Nanako insisted, "I should help Master to change it. This is a Japanese tradition, and Master should just go to the countryside and do as the customs."

Charlie thought to himself, China has long been equal between men and women, why in Japan, women still kneel and change shoes for men?

But then thinking about it, since it is a custom of others, they may not feel that there is anything wrong with this. If they insist on opposing it, they will break the other party's rules.

So he had to lift his feet up and said sincerely: "Then work hard, Miss Nanako."

Nanako, who was still wearing a kimono, looked up at Charlie, and smiled ashamed. She was so beautiful.

Afterwards, she gently held Charlie's feet with both hands, and gently changed him a pair of slippers, then slowly stood up and said: "Master, please!"

Charlie nodded slightly and walked in with her.

Nanako introduced to him: "This house has a history of more than a hundred years. It was severely damaged during the Great Kanto Earthquake. Because the repair cost was too high, no one paid attention to it. Later, it was taken by the father. He bought it and spent huge sums of money to repair it, and it looks like this now."

Charlie asked curiously: "Mr. Ito seems to have a soft spot for this old house? The house in Kyoto looks much older than this one."

Nanako smiled softly: "In fact, it's mainly because I like this style of architecture. After I moved from Kyoto to Tokyo at the age of fourteen, I have not been accustomed to life in Tokyo, so my father bought it here and spent a lot of money to repair it and it became what it is now."

With that, Nanako said with emotion: "But I still like Kyoto more."

Charlie nodded and said, "This mansion is quiet in the noisy city, and it has an ancient flavor and charm. It is already very good, but the Kyoto one is indeed better."

Nanako said in a sad tone: "My father asked me to take over the family affairs. It seems that I will rarely have the opportunity to go back in the future..."

After finishing speaking, she looked up at Charlie, and asked a little pleading: "Master, I have a request. I wonder if you can agree to it?"

Chapter 1821

Hearing Nanako's words, Charlie immediately opened his mouth and said: "You speak, if I can, I will agree."

Nanako hesitated for a moment, looked at him expectantly, and said seriously: "I want to ask Master Wade to leave later..."

"Later?"

Charlie was slightly surprised, and subconsciously asked: "How long is that late? To tell you the truth, I actually plan to return to China tonight, and the plane is still waiting in Osaka."

Nanako's eyelids were hot, her eyelids drooped slightly, and she whispered: "This...this mainly depends on Master's schedule. If time is tight, a few hours are all right..."

With that said, Nanako hurriedly added: "Don't get me wrong, Master. The main reason is that both father and Tanaka are seriously injured and hospitalized. Aunt is not only busy with family affairs, but also busy taking care of them..."

"And my mind is a little confused now, don't know where to start for the time being, I want Master to stay with me for a few more hours..."

Charlie thought for a moment and nodded: "Then I will stay until the afternoon, because it will take four hours to return to Osaka."

Nanako asked, "You have booked a flight from Osaka Master?"

"No." Charlie said truthfully: "My friend helped get a private jet, which is now parked at Osaka Airport."

Nanako asked tentatively: "Master, can you let the people you travel with, come to Tokyo by plane first, and then you go to Tokyo airport to meet them and fly back to China? In this case, You can save four hours of driving?"

After finishing speaking, Nanako hurriedly said: "If it is inconvenient, it doesn't matter, Master needn't feel embarrassed..."

Charlie thought for a while, his original plan was to drive back to Osaka first, then meet Issac, Orvel, and Liang and fly back to Aurous Hill from Osaka.

However, the method Nanako said is also a good solution.

Let Issac and the others come directly to Tokyo by plane, so he doesn't have to drive this way.

Moreover, it is normal for Nanako to feel at a loss and helpless for a while after the Ito family has experienced an accident. He might as well stay here for another day, and he can also inquire about the Su family's actions in Tokyo.

Thinking of this, he said to Nanako: "If this is the case, then I will wait till dawn to say hello to my friends and see their situation."

Nanako clenched her fists excitedly, and said happily, "That's great!"

The cheerful Nanako quickly invited Charlie to her dining room.

It is said that the dining room at home is actually bigger than a medium-sized restaurant outside.

Charlie feels like entering a Japanese-style buffet restaurant, where there are several busy chefs, and they are making all kinds of meals.

Nanako asked Charlie expectantly: "Master, do you like any of these meals? Just say if you like them, and the chefs will prepare them for you immediately."

Chapter 1822

Charlie looked around for a long time, and didn't feel any sense of all kinds of delicacies, so he smiled slightly and said, "Thank you, please give me a bowl of ramen."

Nanako hurriedly said to the chef responsible for making ramen: "Yokoyama, please make two bowls of ramen. Master Wade's bowl needs double noodles!"

The chef respectfully said: "OK lady, please wait for a while it'll be ready."

.....

At that time

Just when Charlie and Nanako were having food at Ito's house, in the presidential suite of the St. Regis Tokyo, Zynn, who was in his 50s, was already out of bed.

He was holding a cup of coffee and a cigarette in between, looking at the Tokyo street scene still shrouded in the dark outside the window, and he was surprised.

When the cigarette burned out, he poked the cigarette butt into the ashtray, then lit another one, and asked his confidant Josh: "How are the young masters and young ladies now?"

Josh checked the time and said, "The plane should land in Eastcliff in half an hour. I have already informed the family that the wife has already rushed to the airport with the doctor. When the plane lands, he will immediately take the young master and Miss take them to the family hospital for a comprehensive examination."

"Hmm." Zynn nodded, and said with a gloomy expression: "This time the incident is so dangerous, I almost put both Zhifei and Zhiyu in Tokyo in danger! This d*mn Matsumoto, even if he is annihilated. He is still at advantage, and it is difficult to quench my anger!"

Josh hurriedly said: "Master Matsumoto's family has become coke, you don't have to be too angry."

Zynn gritted his teeth and licked his smoke before he said fiercely: "After all, it is in Tokyo. If it is not so convenient to do things without leaving, I will definitely let Ruoli catch Matsumoto in front of me. Cut him a thousand times, and watch him bleed till his last breath!"

Josh said, "Master the TMPD has guessed that this incident was caused by our Su family. When you are resting, they have been protesting with me. They feel that we have made such a big disturbance and they still don't say hello. Too much, and threatened to submit this matter to the Homeland Security Council for investigation and handling, thinking that this matter has violated their homeland security."

"Infringement of homeland security?" Zynn coldly snorted, "A good man Matsumoto in a small area can be hooked on homeland security? I think they are not satisfied that we killed so many people in Tokyo. Can't hang on it?"

"Yes." Josh said truthfully: "The Tokyo government is also very dissatisfied. It feels that this matter is too cruel and affects Tokyo's image very much, so they decided to investigate it to the end."

"Moreover, the international airports of Tokyo and several surrounding cities have entered a state of emergency. They are strictly investigating all departing foreigners, and even announced that private jets that are temporarily not allowed to leave the country and charter flights take off. Our private jets are all monitored. Things may be a little tricky."

Zynn asked him, "Which other airports in this state are relatively more relaxed?"

Josh said: "At present, there should be only Osaka Airport, because Osaka is quite far away, hundreds of kilometers."

Zynn nodded and said, "Then let them spread out, find a way to take public transportation to Osaka, and then transfer another plane from China. Remember not to transfer from Eastcliff, from China to the sea, so as not the Japanese customs are alerted, and then take Ruoli and the people who actually participated in the action back to the country tonight."

"OK Master!" Josh nodded respectfully, and then asked again: "Master when do you plan to go back then?"

"I'm not in a hurry." Zynn smiled and said coldly: "The Takahashi family suffered heavy losses, the Matsumoto family is completely destroyed, and Takehiko is disabled. Tokyo is very safe now. I will stay for two more days."

After all, he checked the time and said, "Josh, prepare some gifts for visiting patients in the morning, and come with me to the hospital at noon to take a look at Takehiko Ito. This is our only partner at the moment!"

Chapter 1823

Charlie and Nanako had breakfast together, and the sky in Tokyo was already bright.

Nanako said to Charlie: "Master, I will ask the servant to prepare a guest room for you. You can take a short rest. You haven't slept all night. It's too hard."

Charlie smiled slightly, shook his head and said, "Don't bother, I'm not tired."

"How can you not be tired?" Nanako couldn't hide her distress. "Since the battle with Tenglin Ninja last night, Master has never rested for a while, and you has gone through two battles and drove hundreds of kilometers."

Charlie smiled and asked her, "You haven't rested, do you feel tired?"

Nanako looked slightly startled, and she thought about it for a moment, and said: "I really don't feel tired at all. Not only I don't feel tired, but I also feel like I have inexhaustible strength all over my body. The whole body is in a very good state... ."

After that, she hurriedly asked, "Master, this should be the effect of the medicine you gave me?"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Yes, that medicine can not only cure injuries, but also improve the body's ability and endurance, so people will not get tired so easily."

Nanako couldn't help feeling: "This medicine is really amazing. If it produces energy, Master Wade's JX Pharmaceutical will definitely become the world's top pharmaceutical company, right?"

Charlie smiled and said: "This medicine can't be mass-produced. It is a very rare thing in itself. It was left by ancient Chinese genius doctors. If you take one, you will lose one..."

In fact, the medicinal materials needed for refining the rejuvenating pills are not difficult to obtain.

But the key is that this pill must be refined with spiritual energy.

Aura is like the powerful energy that turns steel into molten iron during steelmaking.

Without this energy, just pile a pile of iron ore together for 10,000 years, and iron ore cannot turn into steel.

Therefore, it is not difficult for Charlie to make this medicine, but the possibility of mass production is multiplied.

Moreover, he is not going to put such a strong medicine out for mass production.

This thing is too bad for ordinary people. If it comes out in large numbers, it is likely to cause a shock in the world, and it is definitely not a good thing for him.

When Nanako heard him say this, she regretted a little bit, but didn't think about it anymore.

Charlie checked the time and said, "I'll call a friend and tell them about coming to Tokyo."

Nanako nodded expectantly.

Charlie took out his cell phone and called Issac.

As soon as the phone was connected, Issac asked him: "Master where did you go? I didn't see you all night..."

Charlie said, "I'm in Tokyo."

"Ah?" Issac became more puzzled, and asked, "Didn't you not say that you are going to see friends in Kyoto? Why did you go to Tokyo again? This is a few hundred kilometers away."

Charlie said: "Something happened at my friend's house, so I accompanied her to take a look."

Then he asked, "By the way, Old man, how are things going on in Osaka?"

Issac hurriedly said, "Going back to the young master, things are going well. Today, the day will basically be over. When do you think we will return to Aurous Hill?"

Charlie said: "I called you just to talk about this. I have something to do in Tokyo. After you get it done, you will fly to Tokyo first. Then I will come to the airport and meet you. Let's be together and fly from here to Aurous Hill."

Issac blurted out: "Master private jets can't fly in Tokyo now! It's restricted."

Charlie asked in surprise: "Why are private jets restricted here in Tokyo?"

Chapter 1824

Issac said: "I heard from my Japanese subordinates that in the past two days in Tokyo, there have been many very serious criminal cases in succession, and they seem to be related to foreign forces. Therefore, Tokyo has strengthened customs control and private jets. If you want to leave Japan, only Osaka can let you fly out in the entire region, and you can't fly out from anywhere else."

Hearing this, Charlie understood in his heart.

Strict control here in Tokyo must be inseparable from the fact that the Su family killed Ryoto Matsumoto.

In fact, if you think about it carefully, you can figure out why.

Take the TMPD as an example. If someone violates the law in Tokyo, they definitely want to punish the perpetrator through normal legal means.

However, a group of foreigners suddenly came out on their turf and abused their nationals, and the methods were so cruel. This kind of thing cannot be tolerated by any country's security department.

Therefore, it can be seen that the TMPD, and even the Homeland Security Department, hope to catch the Su family's gangsters as soon as possible, in order to apprehend them, and at the same time save a bit of face.

Thinking of this, Charlie sighed softly and said, "Forget it, you guys wait for me in Osaka. I will drive over in the afternoon."

Issac hurriedly said, "Master it's too hard to drive, such a long distance, and it's still snowing here in Osaka. The highway is closed because of the thick snow. You may not be able to make it in six or seven hours. Leave the car at Tokyo Airport and let my staff drive by themselves. You fly directly from Tokyo to Osaka. See you at the airport, so the time will be faster."

Charlie asked him: "I have no restrictions on flying from Tokyo to Osaka, right?"

Issac said: "There are currently no restrictions on flying within Japan. They can't control the entire domestic and overseas aviation at once, but it should be tightened gradually."

Charlie said, "Let's leave tonight, no delay, I will try to arrive at Osaka Airport at seven, and then we will meet and take off from Osaka Airport on time at eight."

Issac hurriedly said: "OK Master, then we will arrive at Osaka Airport before seven o'clock to wait for you."

"Ok, see you tonight!"

Charlie hung up the phone, and Nanako hurriedly asked, "Master, what happened?"

Charlie nodded, and told Nanako about the situation.

After hearing it, Nanako said: "Then I will help Master with the ticket now."

With that said, she quickly took out her mobile phone and checked the flight information.

"Master, there is a flight that takes off at 5:40 in the afternoon. It takes an hour to get to Osaka and land at 6:40. Is this okay?"

Charlie nodded: "The time is just right, so choose this one."

Nanako said: "Master, give me the passport number. I'll book the ticket. I'll take you to the airport in the afternoon!"

The short-haul ticket itself is not expensive, so Charlie didn't decline, and said to Nanako, "Thank you, Nanako."

Nanako smiled knowingly: "Master and I don't have to be so polite!"

After that, she remembered something and asked Charlie: "By the way, Master, would you like to take some gifts for your family when you go back tonight? Shopping in Tokyo is still very convenient, usually in the afternoon, it will be more lively, if you want to go shopping, I have lunch with you, OK?"

Charlie thought, he must take some gifts to his wife after he has been away for so many days, and his mother-in-law, Elaine, also hoped that he would get something for her, so he took time to go out and stroll around.

So, he said to Nanako: "Then you will accompany me to take a good round, I am really not familiar with Tokyo."

Nanako smiled and said, "No problem, I will accompany Master to Ginza in the afternoon."

After that, she thought of her father Takehiko, and asked Charlie: "Master, I want to go to the hospital to deliver meals to my father at noon. Is it convenient for you to come with me?"

Charlie agreed without thinking, "Okay, let's go to the hospital first, and then go shopping."

Chapter 1825

After breakfast, Charlie, who had nothing to do, was dragged by Nanako to her room.

Just like in Kyoto, Nanako invited Charlie to sit on the tatami in the room, burned a plate of incense, and prepared a cup of Japanese matcha for Charlie.

Then she said to him: "Master, I want to take a look at the financial statements and detailed information of the family industry, and get familiar with the overall operation of the family as soon as possible. If you feel bored, please tell me."

Charlie was free, so he said casually: "I have nothing to do, you get busy, I will play with the phone for a while."

Charlie doesn't really like to play with mobile phones, and unlike young people nowadays, he always keeps his hands on the phone.

The reason why he wants to look at his cell phone is to check the news in Tokyo to see if he can find more useful information.

Nanako leaned over in front of the book case and looked at the confidential family data attentively. The information in her hand was all top secret, but she did not shy away from Charlie beside her.

Charlie flipped through some local news, and one piece of news aroused his interest.

The news said that relatively serious violent incidents have occurred in Tokyo. As the number one violent organization in Japan, the Yamaguchi group issued a message to its members across the country, claiming to use violence to curb violence and use violence to maintain public order in Tokyo.

The Yamaguchi group is the head of the Japanese gang, and it is one of the world's three largest gangster organizations with the Italian Mafia, and its strength cannot be underestimated.

They issued a statement at this time, although they did not name anyone, it should be aimed at the Su family.

This time the Su family played a bit too big, and offended all Japanese black and white.

Even if they can retreat completely this time and want to come to Japan to develop in the future, they will probably receive "special attention" from the Japanese government and non-governmental organizations.

At this moment, Wade Family Mansion.

Charlie's grandfather, Zhongquan, called the entire Wade family to a meeting because of the same news.

Today's Zhongquan looks very happy.

While flipping through the news with a tablet, he said to everyone: "This time the Su family really lost it and broke down! The cooperation has not yet been negotiated. The eldest grandson and the eldest granddaughter almost died, and now the entire Japan is offended, and I'm afraid it will be difficult for the Su family to go to Japan for development in the future!"

Charlie's uncle Andrew laughed, and said triumphantly: "The Su family is also embarrassing this time. The family's Old Master is afraid that he can't eat for three days!"

Third Uncle Changyun said with some regret: "Hey, in the final analysis, the Su family is still lucky, d*mn! Ryoto Matsumoto has done such a big game, why did the mysterious man rescue Zhifei and Zhiyu? If Zhifei and Zhiyu die in Tokyo, the entire Su family must be greatly injured! These are the two most outstanding members of their younger generation!"

"Yeah..." Zhongquan couldn't help sighing, "Although Chengfeng has the wrist and courage, after all, he is old and Zynn is more than hot, but his ability is still lacking. In front of Changying, he's like a clown, and not enough to look at it. The wife he crazily pursues, after being rejected countless times by Changying, became discouraged and chose to marry him..."

Speaking of this, Zhongquan sighed and said with a grimace: "If Changying was still alive, don't say that Su Family is the Heavenly Dragon, and it may not have been Wade Family's opponent..."

Chapter 1826

Hearing the Old Master pitying Changying again, Andrew was a bit dissatisfied and said: "Dad, Changying has been away for so many years, so please stop mentioning this kind of thing. Let's not talk about it again. Act responsible, so even the entire Eastcliff family is inseparable, and it is not something we can control."

Changyun also agreed: "Yes, Dad, isn't this talk not about Zhifei and Zhiyu? Why did you talk about Changying?"

The Old Master sighed and waved his hand: "Don't say it, don't say it, let's get it right! All in all, the Su family's first step towards Japan is already emptying one foot. The next situation will face them very much. Unfortunately, this is a good opportunity for us to catch up and take advantage of it! What do you think?"

Everyone glanced at each other, and Andrew was also very agreeable and said: "Dad, you are right, I also think this is our great opportunity!"

"Our ocean shipping business started later than the Su family and was at an absolute disadvantage, but if we could take advantage of the failure of the Su family, reach cooperation with the Ito family, and take the Japanese market, it would be tantamount to getting stuck in the Su family. The neck is definitely a powerful blow to the Su family!"

Zhongquan nodded, but he pondered for a moment before he said: "At the moment, we are not suitable for direct competition with the Su family. This matter must be kept low-key and slowly. We must not let the Su family know in advance."

Cynthia asked in a puzzled way: "Dad, the Su family can go to Japan to destroy people's families in a high-profile manner. When we go to Japan to talk about cooperation, should we still hide it?"

Zhongquan smiled slightly: "The strength of the Su family is there. We are now talking about cooperation with the Ito family in the future with great fanfare. For the Su family, it just slapped them and made them hard on their faces."

After speaking, Zhongquan said again: "However, we slapped the Su family. With the style of the Su family, they will inevitably conflict with us, and we will be in trouble."

Andrew asked hurriedly, "Dad, what do you mean then?"

Zhongquan said very seriously: "If you want to deal with the Su Family, you must dissect your opponent from a deeper level, instead of superficially comparing the two sides' paper data!"

Andrew quickly stood up, bowed and clasped his fists: "Dad, I am dull, please tell me!"

Zhongquan shook his head slightly, thinking of Changying again in his heart.

He sighed in his heart: "My eldest son, Andrew, is also a brilliant talent, but he is still far from the level of genius, so he can't do it well. However, Changying was the top genius who never came out of the world. Changying was never 'percent through a single point', but rather 'perceive without a point' and learned without a teacher! What a pity, what a pity..."

Andrew also saw a trace of disappointment in his father's eyes, and suddenly his face turned red.

Zhongquan expressed a few words in his heart, and quickly put away his thoughts, and said to everyone: "Although the Su family has many heirs, only Zynn can enter Chengfeng's eyes. What's more, Zynn's sons and daughters are very competitive. The two most outstanding young people of this generation."

"Especially that Zhiyu, who is deeply loved by Chengfeng and Zynn. The degree of preference for Zhiyu between these two fathers and sons has long surpassed other heirs, even the eldest grandson Zhifei."

"So, once Chengfeng is dead, the power will definitely fall into the hands of the Zynn family!"

"In the future, among the Zynn family, the one with the greatest say in the future must be Zhiyu!"

Speaking of this, Zhongquan was already glaring, and said forcefully: "Zhiyu is a female stream and will eventually marry as a wife. Once she gets married, it will be the day when the Su family will divide into two. So, Whoever can conquer Zhiyu can conquer half of the Su family's assets!"

Chapter 1827

Andrew heard the old man's words and said awkwardly: "Dad, you say that you wanted to marry the Su family and turn Zhiyu into the Wade family's daughter-in-law, but there is no suitable person!"

Zhongquan said indifferently, "Didn't I say it last time? The son of Changying is a good candidate."

Andrew said: "But Leon also said at the time that the son of Changying is unwilling to come back to recognize the ancestor and return to the clan. Maybe this kid hates us in his heart!"

Zhongquan waved his hand: "Does he hate us? It doesn't count if you say it, and it doesn't count if I say it. He has to say it."

Changyun hurriedly asked: "Dad, do you mean to find the son of Changying to come back and recognize the ancestor?"

Zhongquan nodded: "I do have this idea, but I haven't figured out a useful method yet."

Andrew felt a tremendous pressure and threat, and hurriedly said, "Dad, the son of Changying has been away from home for many years. He will completely be uncontrollable! Please think twice!"

Zhongquan waved his hand: "You don't have to persuade me. When I asked Leon to buy the Emgrand Group as a gift to him, I had actually decided that sooner or later I would let him come back to recognize his ancestors. My family's descendants are not many. It's totally incomparable with the luxuriant branches of the Su family, and we can't let such an adult male live out."

Andrew held his breath in his heart, but still calmly asked, "Dad, what if the son of Changying is not willing to come back?"

Zhongquan said solemnly: "People change. If he doesn't want to come back today, maybe he will be willing tomorrow. If he still doesn't want to, one year, two years, three years, or even ten years, I will change my mind and then he gets loose!"

Andrew, Changyun, and the old Changtian who hadn't spoken all the time scolded his mother in his heart.

The most feared thing about family property is dilution.

Whether it's ten thousand yuan, one trillion yuan, one person, two people, or three people, the result will be a thousand miles away.

Originally, buying the Emgrand Group for Charlie cost the family 100 billion, and also gave Charlie 10 billion in cash, which made everyone very unhappy.

After all, after the father's death, when the family property is divided, the 10 billion yuan, on average, to the three sons' homes, each can get at least 30 billion yuan, and the result is that the 30 billion yuan is in vain.

Therefore, they are also very worried that Charlie will return to the family.

Zhongquan didn't look at these sons or grandchildren but looked at his daughter, Cynthia.

He sighed, and said, "Cynthia, the New Year is almost coming soon."

Cynthia hurriedly got up and asked, "Dad, don't hesitate to tell me if you have any orders, I will definitely go all out."

Zhongquan nodded and said, "Let's go to Aurous Hill tomorrow. See Charlie, have a good chat with him, and ask him if he wants to come back. If he has this heart, invite him to come back and spend time together with us this year."

Cynthia hurriedly said, "Okay Dad, I will go to Aurous Hill tomorrow."

As she said, she remembered something and asked, "Dad, Charlie is already married. If he wants to come back, should he bring his wife to see you?"

Zhongquan waved his hand and said in disgust, "How can a vulgar woman from a third-rate city and a third-rate family be worthy of entering Wade family mansion? See you at a glance and see if there are any opportunities for development."

"Okay!" Cynthia nodded, and said, "I'll go and test Charlie's ideas first. Let me mention these things to him step by step!"

Zhongquan smiled with satisfaction, "I'll leave this to you!"

Chapter 1828

Andrew was extremely depressed, but he didn't dare to object, so he could only pull the topic back, and said, "Dad, didn't we talk about going to Japan? You just said that you should not have a head-on conflict with the Su family, so what do we do?"

Zhongquan said: "We can't go with a big fanfare, but I can send someone to meet Ito Yuihiko in private."

Andrew was a little irritable, thinking about going to Tokyo on his own, and by the way, he should be relieved, so he volunteered: "Dad, or I will fly to Tokyo in the morning, and see Ito Yuhiko."

Zhongquan nodded and said, "I definitely want to see him, but you can't go."

Andrew asked in surprise, "Dad, what do you mean?"

Zhongquan said: "Before the Su family sent the younger generation of juniors, if the Wade family let you go, it would look asymmetrical, as if we are a bit lower than the Su family."

After that, Zhongquan looked at Andrew's son and his eldest grandson, and said, "Junior, you are ready to set off before ten o'clock, and go to Tokyo after lunch."

Grandson hurriedly got up and said respectfully: "Okay grandpa, I will prepare now! But grandpa, I meet Ito Takehiko, how should I talk to him about the project?"

Zhongquan waved his hand: "You don't have to talk about anything related to the project. I will prepare some gifts, and you will take them with your own hands. It is just a little bit of my heart. Besides, I also want to make friends with him. Leave the contact information and you can come back."

Grandson asked in surprise, "It's that simple?"

Zhongquan nodded and said, "Yes, it's that simple!"

After speaking, Zhongquan said again: "Flying two thousand kilometers to discuss cooperation is not sincere; but if it is flying two thousand kilometers to visit a patient, it is very sincere."

Andrew smiled and said, "Dad, you're better off! The Su family may have done it this time, our Wade family!"

Zhongquan nodded his head and smiled, and said, "This is called the last thing first!"

.....

noon.

Charlie had lunch with Nanako at the Ito mansion, and the two took the meal prepared for Ito Takehiko to the hospital.

When they first went out, Zynn brought a few of his men to Ito Yuihiko's ward with a few exquisite gift boxes.

Ito Yuihiko didn't want to see them at first, but he also knew the truth about not hitting the smiley people with his hand, so Emi invited them in.

As soon as Zynn entered the door, he walked very politely to Ito Yuuhiko's bed and sighed, "Brother Ito! I have been admiring Brother Ito for a long time. I am honored to see you today!"

Seeing Zynn's harmless face, he felt a little hairy in his heart.

The incident of the Su family's destruction of Matsumoto's family really brought a great psychological shadow to Ito, and it also made him deeply aware that the man in front of him looked gentle and smiled, but in fact, he was a foodie. The devil who does not spit bones.

However, Ito Yuhiko knows very well that for such a smiling tiger, the less he can offend him on the bright side, otherwise he still doesn't know what kind of trouble he will cause in the future.

So, he also said with joy: "Oh, Mr. Su! I didn't expect you to come to see me in person. I am really flattered! Please sit down, please sit down!"

Zynn nodded, sat on the chair by the hospital bed, smiled, and said, "I'm so sorry to meet in this way. I've been busy recently, so I wanted the children to come and visit Mr.

Ito first, and then I took time. I came to visit in person again. I didn't expect so many accidents. I would like to ask Mr. Ito to forgive me!"

Chapter 1829

I have to say that Zynn's acting skills are very good.

If it wasn't for Takehiko who knew what kind of person he was, it would be easy to be deceived by his smiling and friendly appearance.

Although disgusted in his heart, he still braced him and did a good job on the surface, so he smiled and said: "Mr. Su is too polite, you are coming to Japan, I was going to meet at the airport in person, and then arrange the hotel for you. Staying here, I didn't expect to encounter so many things."

Zynn hurriedly said: "Where is it, Mr. Ito doesn't have to be so polite. The friendship between our Su family and the Ito family has a long history. We will definitely continue to strengthen cooperation and deepen our relationship in the future. Why should we be stuck with this little thing?"

Seeing his hypocritical appearance, Ito wanted to vomit the breakfast in his stomach, but he could only nod his head and said in agreement: "Mr. Su is right! You really don't have to be too rigid..."

Zynn nodded in satisfaction, and said seriously: "Mr. Ito, although the things that happened in Tokyo in the past two days are chaotic and even hurt you seriously, I still have to say something about the facts. This series of things After the dust settles, the Ito family is the biggest winner."

Takehiko knows what Zynn's words mean. He knows that in addition to explaining the facts, Zynn also wants to mention him. Now his family is fighting between snipes and clams, and the fisherman is profiting, and he is pushing his family to profit from it. , He is Zynn.

In other words, Zynn also reminded him, don't forget the help that Su family gave to you.

However, Ito doesn't want to owe such favors casually.

After all, the reason why the Ito family can survive this dispute is not really dependent on Zynn, but Charlie!

Don't say that he didn't rely on Zynn. Zynn's son and daughter can survive, and he must thank Charlie!

If Charlie hadn't saved Zhifei and Zhiyu, and Zynn guarded the corpses of a pair of children, it might not have been able to find out the real murderer.

Therefore, Takehiko couldn't help but sighed: "Oh, Mr. Su, it is very dangerous for the Ito family to survive this time!"

As he said, he patted the roots of his thighs and sighed: "Look at my legs, they are completely abolished. If it wasn't for my loyal servant Tanaka who pushed me to jump off the viaduct, I would have been knifed. Hacked to death."

In this remark, Takehiko actually explained a point to Zynn first. First of all, if he can survive, it has nothing to do with your Su family.

Immediately afterwards, Takehiko said again: "And my daughter, she also suffered a ninja ambush in Kyoto, and was fortunate to be saved by a master, so she was spared. Otherwise, I would really want a white-haired person to send a black-haired person."

Speaking of this, Takehiko pretended to be curious and asked: "By the way, Mr. Su, it seems that your children were also saved by the mysterious master in Kyoto?"

Zynn's expression became a little depressed when he heard this.

What he meant just now was to mention Takehiko. To have the last laugh, and kill Machi Takahashi and Ryoto Matsumoto. More than half of the credit is due to that master's help.

Unexpectedly, the old fox, Takehiko Ito, came directly to say something like this. The meaning is also very simple: Don't say I want to thank you, it doesn't exist. We both have to thank the mysterious master, otherwise my daughter would have finished. Both your son and daughter would have finished.

Although Zynn was depressed, he couldn't refute Ito's words.

After all, his son and daughter were indeed saved by that mysterious man.

He also asked his son and daughter specifically, who is that mysterious person? Now that he has such a powerful ability, can he be used by him?

But Zhiyu told him that the mysterious person was very dismissive of the brother and sister.

It was to help Takehiko Ito's daughter, Nanako, to relieve the troubles, so he chased them all the way.

Chapter 1830

Rescue brother and sister, that was just by the way.

The only clue they know is that he should be Chinese.

But don't know anything in more detail.

Originally, Zynn wanted Ruoli to leave to check the clues and details of that person.

But now the TMPD, Japan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and the Homeland Security Department all want to capture his subordinates.

So he could only give up this idea and let Ruoli return home first, so as not to be caught here.

Once caught by the Japanese government, it will be as serious as the killing of the door, even if she is not sentenced to death, it will be at least life imprisonment, so he won't think about it in this life.

So Zynn could only give up temporarily.

Now he heard Ito mention that person again, so he deliberately asked: "Mr. Ito, that mysterious person is said to protect your daughter, so you should know him?"

Takehiko shook his head and said regretfully: "I really want to know him, but unfortunately, that person is really too mysterious. I asked my daughter, but my daughter didn't know, otherwise, I really want to take him. For my own use! With such a powerful person by your side, you should never have to worry about safety anymore!"

Zynn observed at Takehiko for a moment, feeling that he didn't seem to be lying.

It seems that Takehiko does not know who the mysterious person is.

But why would he save Nanako?

Is it a pure chivalrous man of justice?

However, it seems a bit strange for a Chinese to come to Japan as a hero.

Or, he is an overseas Chinese living in Japan?

Zynn couldn't think of a reason, so he simply left it behind, looked at Takehiko, and said seriously: "Mr. Ito, I'm here this time. In fact, besides visiting you, I also want to talk to you about cooperation. Talk about a general intention."

After speaking, he said: "Ocean shipping is the next very important business of the Su family. Although we pursue a global strategy, we still attach great importance to the Japanese market in East Asia. Block business and reached a cooperation with the Ito family. don't know what Mr. Ito wants?"

Takehiko Ito nodded and said seriously: "The Ito family has always wanted to reach a cooperation with the Su family on this business. I also talked to your son and daughter two days ago."

When Zynn heard this, his eyebrows showed a bit of joy, and he thought to himself: "It seems that cooperation with the Ito family can be a matter of course."

Zynn was thinking triumphantly, but Takehiko had already planned to use the dragging technique.

Seeing him, he changed the conversation and said apologetically: "But Mr. Su, you can see my current physical condition. The doctor said that I have to stay under observation in the hospital for at least half a month."

"Moreover, even if I leave the hospital, I will have to rest for a few months when I go home. For the time being, I may not have much energy to focus on business operations."

"Therefore, whether or not this cooperation should be carried out or how it should be carried out, it may take a while to give you a clear answer..."

Chapter 1831

Zynn frowned when he heard this.

He was naturally not satisfied with Ito's plan.

However, he also knows that Takehiko has just amputated his limbs. To put it ugly, the blood scabs on the wounds are still fresh. At this time, it is indeed unrealistic for him to immediately push such large cooperation forward.

Moreover, Ito's daughter seems to be very young, about the same age as his daughter Zhiyu.

In this case, it is really difficult for him to draw conclusions immediately and move forward.

So, Zynn said seriously: "Mr. Ito really needs to take a good rest during this time. As for the specific cooperation matters, when you are discharged from the hospital, I will come again. Then I will visit the mansion and talk about the details of the cooperation. how is it?"

Takehiko Ito nodded readily and smiled: "When the lower body recovers, if Mr. Su comes to Tokyo, he must have a good banquet here!"

Zynn smiled slightly, and said, "Then I'll bother Mr. Ito."

He said, "By the way, Mr. Ito, I have one more thing to remind you of friendship."

Takehiko hurriedly said, "Mr. Su, please say it."

Zynn said: "As far as I know, the Wade family of Eastcliff also wants to follow our pace and take the development route of ocean shipping. If I am not wrong, they should also want to contact you here and talk about Project cooperation."

After a pause, Zynn said: "However, the strength of the Wade family is far worse than ours, so I suggest that Mr. Ito doesn't have to consider them, as long as he concentrates on raising his body and waits for the body to recover, then talk to the Su family. Comprehensive cooperation must be the best choice."

Takehiko Ito nodded and smiled, and said, "To not hide from Mr. Su, I have a certain understanding of the Wade family. Their ocean shipping business hasn't started at all. It's just that the Su's family has improved so they are trying to catch up. It is really difficult for them to become a big game, so in my mind, the Su family is ranked the highest priority."

Zynn said with great satisfaction: "Mr. Ito really has eyes like a torch! The Wade family just wants to follow a wave of wind, but they don't have any resources at all in this field! Let alone cooperate with the Ito family, even It is China's domestic port resources, and we will suppress it without a stand!"

Takehiko smiled and said: "Mr. Su, don't worry, I will never cooperate with the Wade family. If I want to choose between the Su family and the Wade family, I will definitely choose Mr. Su!"

Zynn laughed: "Oh, Mr. Ito, with your words, I can go back to China with confidence."

Takehiko asked, "When does Mr. Su want to return to China?"

Zynn said: "Just these two days, mainly because private planes are restricted from taking off from Tokyo. I wait here for two days. If the take-off permit is not open within two days, then I will buy a ticket and take a civil aviation flight back."

Takehiko Ito nodded and said with emotion: "As far as I know, Mr. Su's previous handwriting was too big, and the Tokyo authorities did have some criticism."

Zynn waved his hand indifferently: "The TMPD and the Department of Homeland Security are all dogs. Ryoto Matsumoto was a sinister and vicious person. don't know how many people would get killed if I let him in the world! I was not only acting for the sky, but also protecting the public order in Tokyo!"

After he finished speaking, he looked at Takehiko and said seriously: "Mr. Ito, aren't you the direct victim of Matsumoto? If I can't kill him, he might have sent someone to the hospital to chase you down, like a ghost. Know how many people he will kill in Tokyo?"

Seeing Zynn's righteousness and boldness, Ito couldn't help being amazed by the thick skin of this man.

He cursed secretly in his heart: "Zynn, Zynn, you stinky shameless thing. You killed Matsumoto, kill Matsumoto's right-hand man, and even kill his younger brother. This is understandable, but you kill the whole family. Young and old, not sparing one, what the h*ll is this? The saying that it's not good for your wife and children is still what your Chinese ancestors said. How come you are here, and even the basic morals and justice are ignored?"

"Now what you mean by this, were you destroying Matsumoto's family, or were you protecting me in disguise? Do I have to thank you for killing Matsumoto's family? What a f*cking b@stard logic!"

However, on the surface, Takehiko still said with emotion: "Oh! This is really thanks to Mr. Su, otherwise, I may really still have countless dangers and threats..."

Chapter 1832

Zynn nodded and said with a somewhat arrogant expression: "I hope the TMPD and the Japanese Homeland Security Department can understand this truth. Sometimes, the necessary surgery is still required, leaving the cancerous tissue in the body. It will only drag down the whole city, and I just fly over and perform a precise surgical operation on Tokyo!"

Takehiko Ito nodded in agreement, but he said in his heart: "d*mn, this Zynn is a real dog. The more you talk, the more shame you get!"

Zynn looked at the time and smiled: "Mr. Ito, your body is still injured. I won't bother you anymore. The nutritional supplements I brought you are all very good natural medicinal materials and ingredients. I look forward to a speedy recovery."

With that, Zynn's right hand: "Since we all have the intention of deep cooperation with each other, then I will wait for your body to recover, and we will move forward together hand in hand!"

Takehiko said seriously: "No problem! You and I keep communicating at any time!"

"Okay!" Zynn laughed and said, "If this is the case, then I will leave first!"

Takehiko nodded: "Mr. Su walks slowly, I won't see you off here!"

Zynn hastily patted him on the shoulder: "Mr. Ito, you are welcome, take a good rest and heal your injuries!"

Takehiko Ito said to Emi: "Emi, please see off Mr. Su!"

"OK, brother!"

Zynn got up and shook hands with Takehiko. Accompanied by Emi, he stepped out of the ward.

At this time, Charlie and Nanako had just arrived at the hospital, standing at the elevator entrance waiting.

Emi sent Zynn and Josh to the elevator entrance, and said apologetically: "Mr. Su, I have to take care of my brother, so I can't send you down."

Zynn smiled and said, "Ms. Ito, please stay. Go back and take care of Mr. Ito!"

Emi nodded, and bowed ninety degrees, "Mr. Su, take care!"

Zynn waved his hand and stepped into the elevator.

After the elevator door was closed, Zynn asked Josh, who had been silent for a long time: "What do you think, what does Takehiko Ito think?"

Josh thought for a moment, and said seriously: "Master I think that although Takehiko has a good disguise, he still feels a little afraid of you..."

"Yeah." Zynn nodded: "It should be because of the fact that Matsumoto Man's family is destroyed. Thinking about it now, what I did was really a little overdone."

After he finished speaking, he waved his hand again and said indifferently, "I don't care about him. I killed Matsumoto because he wanted to harm my son and daughter. He wanted me to end. If I didn't let him die, others would think I am weak. A soft persimmon, anyone can squeeze!"

Josh asked: "Will Takehiko dare not cooperate with us because of this?"

Zynn snorted coldly, and said, "Give him some time to heal his injury first, and then come to him. At that time, we will have a cooperative approach, and there will be solutions for non-cooperation don't worry!"

At this time, the elevator gave a ding sound and stopped on the first floor.

Josh hurriedly stepped forward and said respectfully, "Master please!"

Chapter 1833

When the elevator door opened, Zynn took the lead.

When Charlie saw the elevator coming, he was about to signal to let Nanako next to him go first. At this time, Zynn had already stepped out.

The moment he walked out of the elevator door, he directly faced Charlie's eyes.

At this moment, Zynn frowned slightly subconsciously, a familiar and unfamiliar aura that made him feel nervous.

And Charlie, although he didn't know the man in front of him, but seeing the other person's eyes with full alertness and surprise, he couldn't help but glance at him more.

The opposite man was in his early fifties, with a normal appearance and a normal figure. He was dressed very luxuriously. There was a bit of hostility between his eyebrows, and he looked like a cruel master.

A face, but between the sparks and flints.

There was Nanako beside Charlie, so she didn't pay too much attention to this man, and after passing by, he entered the elevator with Nanako.

When the elevator door was closed, Zynn suddenly stopped and looked back in the direction of the elevator.

Josh on the side asked him: "Master what's wrong?"

Zynn smacked his lips: "Weird... the kid who entered the elevator just now has a familiar feeling..."

Josh asked curiously: "Do you have acquaintances in Japan?"

Zynn said: "There are many acquaintances, but there are really no such young people. Does the kid just now look like a twenty-six or seven? He is about the same age as Zhifei, or one or two years older than Zhifei."

Josh nodded: "It's about the same age as the Young Master...Do you know him?"

"Do not know."

Zynn bit his lip and said with a black face: "But he looks quite similar to an old friend of mine!"

"Old friend?" Josh asked curiously: "Master who is your old friend?"

Zynn asked with a very cold expression: "Have you ever heard others talk about Changying?"

Josh is not very young.

This year is less than forty years old.

When Charlie's father, Changying, died, he was still studying abroad, and he didn't know what happened in Eastcliff at that time.

Therefore, he couldn't help asking: "Master is the Changying you said belongs to the Wade family?"

"Yes."

Zynn couldn't help thinking of Changying's heroic posture.

At that time, Changying was really a super noble son who moved the capital.

Handsome, unrestrained, and suave, and more importantly, his personal ability extremely strong, and he was definitely the first to excel in Eastcliff.

Back then, in front of Changying, Zynn was completely gloomy.

Changying, one of Eastcliff's celebrity ladies, squeezed their heads and wanted to marry Changying, one by one, they could not wait to find a life for Changying.

Zynn's wife, Liona Du, who was also Zhifei and Zhiyu's mother, loved Changying to the death.

Back then, Zynn exhausted everything and launched a frantic pursuit of Liona, but Liona completely dismissed it and wanted to marry Changying.

Even if Changying already had a fiancée, Liona was determined to die for him at any time.

Even if Zynn worked hard to create a grand proposal that made a sensation in Eastcliff for her, Liona still did not agree.

In front of countless people, Liona only said a few words to Zynn.

The first sentence was: I'm sorry, I can't marry you.

The second sentence: Because Changying is not married after all!

Chapter 1834

Because Changying has a fiancée but is not yet married, Liona still felt there was a glimmer of hope and was still unwilling to give up.

He asked a woman to marry him, but the woman said in public that she was still waiting for another person. Zynn still remembers this strange shame.

From then on, he hated Changying deeply.

Later, Changying got married in Eastcliff.

That night, Liona cried out all her tears and stayed behind closed doors for a month.

Zynn brought flowers to Du's house every day to beg to see her. He persisted for thirty-nine days and spent thirty-nine bouquets of roses before finally knocking on Liona's heart.

Liona, who was nearly twenty kilograms thin, walked out of the room and the door, and said a word to Zynn who was holding flowers outside the door.

She asked Zynn if she might not forget Changying for the rest of her life, Zynn would still marry her.

Zynn gritted his teeth and agreed.

Then, Liona and Zynn became engaged, and a month later, got married.

When he got married, Zynn slept with anxiety and fear every night.

He was afraid that his wife next to his pillow would suddenly call Changying's name in her dream.

Worry soon became a reality.

A few days after the wedding, Zynn could hear Liona whimpering in her mouth and yelling Changying's name every day while she was half asleep and half awake.

During that time, Zynn almost collapsed.

Later, the eldest son Zhifei was born.

Liona finally shifted her focus from Changying to her son.

Since then, Zynn could finally sleep well.

The son's loud cry in the middle of the night became even the most beautiful lullaby for him.

He could sleep peacefully in the cry of his son, but he couldn't listen to his wife's sleep, whispering Changying's name in a very low voice, because the name became his nightmare!

Thinking of the humiliation in the past, Zynn felt extremely angry.

Even though the incident had passed more than two decades, even if Changying had passed away long ago, he still couldn't swallow this breath.

Josh was surprised when he saw his cold expression, clenched fists and trembling teeth.

He worked for Zynn for many years, knowing that Zynn looked like this, he was generally angry to the extreme.

When he heard that Matsumoto was the man behind the kidnapping of Zhifei and Zhiyu, his performance was no different from now.

Josh couldn't help but wonder in his heart: "What exactly did this Changying do to make Master so angry?"

Thinking of this, he couldn't help asking: "Master is the man just like that Changying?"

"Like." Zynn nodded, and said: "But his temperament is a bit low-key, maybe he is dressed somewhat casually. Changying back then could be said to be full of style, walking with wind, and amazing aura!"

Josh asked again, "Is that kid just now the offspring of Changying?"

"Impossible." Zynn said coldly, "Changying's offspring has long since disappeared, and the life or death of him is uncertain. The Wade family couldn't find him. It is estimated that he died outside long ago."

As he said, Zynn smiled darkly, and mocked: "Back then, Changying made enemies everywhere and offended the Rothschild family that controlled Europe and the United States. He was also targeted by all kinds of people in China because of his sharp edge. People who wanted to kill him were really Too much."

Speaking of this, Zynn lit a cigarette and said lightly: "Although the kid looks a lot like him just now, I think he is likely to be a Japanese, maybe it's just a little like him."

Josh nodded slightly and asked him: "Master where shall we go next? Back to the hotel or?"

"I won't go back to the hotel." Zynn said coldly, "If the TMPD can't catch them, if they can't stay away, they will definitely find a way to embarrass me and disgust me. I'd better leave Tokyo early!"

Having said that, Zynn told him: "Just leave the hotel room there. Let's drive north directly to Aomori Prefecture, the northernmost part of Honshu, Japan. We will soak in hot springs for two days, relax and then go to China."

Chapter 1835

When he took the elevator upstairs, Charlie was still thinking about the man he met when he got out of the elevator just now.

He was sure that he didn't know the person, why did that person look hostile when he saw him.

He originally thought that the opponent would also be a hidden master, and he saw that he was extraordinary.

But after thinking about it, he felt that something was wrong, because that man didn't have the aura of a strong man. From the perspective of his own strength, he should be an ordinary person.

However, he didn't think too much. After getting out of the elevator, Nanako took him to the ward where Takehiko was.

At this time, Takehiko was scolding his mother in the hospital bed.

He said to Emi: "This guy Zynn is a b@astard with a honey-sucking sword. Staying with this kind of person for a second makes me feel uncomfortable!"

Emi nodded and said, "That Zynn really feels insidious, and the more friendly he smiles, the more chilling his back, especially when he thinks of what he did to the Matsumoto family in his head. I feel cold all over!"

Charlie, who had just entered the door, blurted out and asked loudly: "That man just now was Zynn from the Su family?!"

Both Takehiko and Emi were shocked, and they realized that Charlie and Nanako had already entered.

So, Takehiko asked curiously: "Does Mr. Zynn also know Zynn?"

Charlie frowned, and even his voice became colder: "The man who just got down from the elevator is Zynn?!"

Ito said, "don't know who you met in the elevator, but Zynn did just leave."

When Charlie heard this, he turned around and ran out!

Zynn!

The initiator and leader of the anti-wade Alliance!

When Charlie thought of this, hatred surged all over his body!

He just wanted to chase out, even if it was to kill Zynn's bodyguard and entourage in broad daylight, he still had to catch the b@stard and ask him why he wanted to target his parents.

Then let him have a taste, and kill him on the street!

It's a pity that when Charlie chased him out, there was no shadow of Zynn anywhere in front of the hospital.

Zynn was already in the car and headed to Aomori Prefecture.

Charlie couldn't help but beat his chest and feet at the entrance of the hospital!

Since the death of his parents, this is the closest moment to his enemy!

However, he failed to recognize the other party!

This is really annoying to him!

The Wade Family and the Su Family had always had a bad relationship, so even when Charlie was young, he had never seen Zynn very much.

In addition, the Su Family and the Wade Family are themselves top families, and they never appear on various wealth lists, and the media never report them, so Charlie doesn't even know Zynn's appearance.

At this moment, he was extremely depressed.

When he came to Japan this time, he had close contact with the Su family one after another.

First, he accidentally saved Zhifei and Zhiyu, and now he just passed Zynn!

Charlie gritted his teeth and thought to himself, if he were to give himself a chance to go back a few minutes ago, the first thing he would do when he saw Zynn would be to smash his dog head first!

Chapter 1836

It's a pity that even if he has great abilities, it is impossible to turn back time.

Therefore, he can only hope for the next time.

At the same time, he swears from the bottom of his heart: "Zynn, if I have the opportunity to come face to face with you again, I will definitely not let you go!"

.....

When Charlie returned to the ward, Takehiko asked him with a look of surprise: "Mr. Charlie, do you know Zynn? Or is there any relationship? Why are you so sensitive to him?"

Emi and Nanako also looked at Charlie suspiciously, looking forward to his answer.

Seeing this, Charlie laughed at himself, and said angrily: "You forgot? I accidentally saved his pair of children. He is so rich. It stands to reason that he has to give me 10 billions? I didn't expect to let him run away..."

Takehiko suddenly became dumb.

He didn't doubt the authenticity of Charlie's words, because Charlie was in his eyes, everything was good, but that he loved money as if it was like his life, for money, he could even shamelessly blackmail or even maliciously Occupy it.

Therefore, he accidentally rescued Zhifei and Zhiyu. Because of his character, he didn't want to ask for some money. It really wasn't him.

When Nanako heard this, she couldn't help laughing and saying, "Master, you are too fascinated by money, did you know that when you heard the word Zynn just now, you acted as if he was your murderer? Like an enemy, I didn't expect it was just a creditor in your heart..."

Charlie smiled bitterly and said casually: "Hey, it's a pity that I let him run away, but it's nothing. Sooner or later, he will still have the opportunity to see this debt. He can't hide from the fifteenth day of the first year."

Nanako nodded, and then said to Takehiko Ito: "Odosan, I brought two sick meals here today. One is for you and the other is for Tanaka. Can I visit him?"

Takehiko nodded and said, "Tanaka is in the next ward. Go and have a look."

Nanako turned her head to look at Charlie: "Master, are you going to see him?"

Charlie's impression of Tanaka was pretty good, he was indeed a rare servant, so he nodded and said, "Okay, let's go and take a look."

At this time, Tanaka was lying on the upper half of the ward next door and reading.

Seeing Nanako and Charlie coming in, he hurriedly put down his book and said respectfully: "Hello, Miss, Hello Mr. Wade!"

Nanako smiled slightly and walked forward with the lunch box, and said, "Tanaka, I brought you a sick meal from home. The chef at home made it specially. You can eat it while it is hot."

Hiroshi Tanaka was flattered and said, "Miss, how can I let you deliver food to me? This is really impossible..."

Nanako said very religiously: "Tanaka, you saved the life of my father. I am very grateful. A meal is nothing but a little bit of thoughts!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said sincerely: "Miss, with your words, it is worth 10,000 deaths..."

Nanako said: "Tanaka, if you have any needs, just tell aunt, she will find a way to solve it for you, you must cheer up, recover well, and leave the hospital early!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded again and again, and said gratefully: "I know Miss, thank you for your concern!"

After speaking, he asked tentatively: "I took a wheelchair and went to the president's ward in the morning. I heard the president said that Mr. Charlie cured your injury?"

Nanako nodded and said, "Master Wade not only healed my injury, but also saved my life..."

Tanaka looked at Charlie and thanked him: "Mr. Charlie, it is...thank you so much!"

Charlie felt somewhat upset because he was rubbing shoulders with Zynn and missing opportunities for revenge. Seeing Tanaka talking to him, he couldn't help but said in a perfunctory tone: "You're welcome."

Hiroshi Tanaka asked in surprise, "Is there anything Mr. Charlie is unhappy about?"

Nanako smiled charmingly and said, "He, just missed $10 billion and is sulking..."

Chapter 1837

Charlie just smiled slightly at Nanako and didn't explain much.

After chatting with Tanaka Hiroshi for a while, Nanako said to him apologetically: "Tanaka, Master Wade is going back to Aurous Hill tonight. I have to accompany him to buy some things. I will leave first and see you at night!"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "Miss, you and Mr. Charlie go to work, don't worry about me, don't have to come to visit me specifically. It is too much trouble for you!"

Nanako smiled and said, "It's not troublesome. We have known each other for so many years, so why are you so polite."

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded gratefully, then looked at Charlie, and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, I will not be able to see you off when you return home tonight. I wish you a safe journey!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Thank you Tanaka, we have a chance to see you again."

"Okay Mr. Charlie, see you if I have a chance!"

Leaving Tanaka's ward, Nanako accompanied Charlie to Ginza, Tokyo.

It's been a few days since he came to Japan. This is the first time he has come out to go shopping.

Because when he went to Eastcliff last time, he bought a set of Hermes for his wife Claire, so this time Charlie skipped the luxury goods of luggage.

He strolled around in the jewelry area and found a heart-shaped diamond ring from Tiffany's.

The main diamond of this diamond ring has a net weight of three carats. The purity is very high, not very large, but it is very exquisite, and the heart-shaped cut is also very beautiful, which makes him look very fond of it at a glance.

Recalling that from the time of marriage to the present, he had not given Claire a real wedding ring, so Charlie planned to buy this diamond ring and give it to her.

He consulted the clerk and learned that the price of this ring was about 800,000 converted into RMB, which was not expensive.

So he was going to buy this ring.

Nanako couldn't hide her envy and asked: "Master bought this ring for your wife, right?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said: "She has been with me for so many years, and I haven't given her a ring yet."

Nanako sighed and said, "Master Wade is so kind to his wife..."

Charlie smiled slightly and was about to say something modest. Tiffany's salesperson said very politely: "Sir, may I ask how big your wife's ring finger is?"

This question stopped Charlie from asking.

"How big is the ring finger? I really don't know this..."

The salesman explained: "If you don't know the size of the ring, it will be more troublesome to buy a large or small one. So I suggest you call your wife and determine the size of the ring. We will help you directly adjust to the most suitable state."

Charlie hesitated slightly.

He wanted to give Claire a surprise. If he calls her and asked her now, wouldn't the surprise be gone?"

Just thinking about it, Nanako whispered from the side: "Um... Master Wade, look at my hand, how bad is it compared to your wife?"

With that, Nanako opened her hands, spreading her fingers in front of Charlie.

Charlie took a closer look, and said in surprise: "Nanako, it feels like your hand is similar to my wife's finger! please help me try it!"

Nanako nodded without hesitation.

The salesman handed the ring to Charlie and said, "Sir, please let this lady help you try it out!"

Charlie didn't think too much. He picked up the ring with one hand, and gently dragged Nanako's right wrist with the other, carefully putting the ring on her ring finger.

At this moment, Nanako felt dreamlike and drunk.

Although she knew very well that she was only helping Charlie's wife to try the ring, but when she thought that this was Charlie wearing a diamond ring on her ring finger, she was so excited that she couldn't add anything.

She said to herself in her mind: "If this is a dream, then I wish I could sleep here and never wake up again..."

Chapter 1838

The moment the ring passed through the knuckles of her ring finger and put it on her hand, Nanako's eyes were filled with tears.

She hurriedly lowered her head, not wanting Charlie to see what she was like now.

She liked Charlie very much, but she didn't want to put too much psychological burden on him.

Because she faintly knew in her heart that the main reason why Charlie came to Japan this time to visit her in Kyoto was definitely not because of how much he liked her in his heart, but because he sympathized with and felt sorry for her.

She can understand Charlie's feelings, that is a kind of empathy that a person who is also a martial artist has in his heart.

What is empathy?

It is the emotion of understanding each other, empathizing with each other.

It's like a racer, seeing another racer suffered a car accident and was seriously injured or even killed on the field, his empathy for the injured must be stronger than ordinary people.

In the same way, if a soldier sees his comrades-in-arms, or those who are with the same soldier, injured or disabled in battle, this kind of empathy will surely develop in his heart.

Charlie must be feeling the same to her.

Seeing that she didn't listen to persuasion, was seriously injured in the game, or even was pulled directly from the field by an ambulance, he must have sympathized with her more.

In addition, he had a way to heal her, so when he came to Japan this time, he took time to go to Kyoto to see her, save her, and heal her injuries.

Therefore, Nanako knew very well that although Charlie was very good to her, most of them should be sympathy born out of empathy.

For a girl who is obsessed with him, the last thing she wants is the sympathy of the other party.

In fact, apart from love, any other emotions are not what she wants.

At this moment, Charlie couldn't see Nanako's expression. His attention was focused on her fingers. Seeing that the ring Nanako was wearing slightly larger, he gently took it off again, yes. The salesperson said, "I'm sorry, but the trouble is a little bit smaller."

"OK, sir." The salesman took the ring and began to readjust the ring.

At this time, Nanako felt a strong sense of loss.

Although he knew it a long time ago, that ring would leave after just staying on my finger.

But when the ring was really taken off by Charlie, her heart hurt like a knife.

However, she did not dare to be seen by Charlie, so while Charlie was watching the salesman adjust the ring, she hurriedly said: "Master, let me go to the bathroom!"

After speaking, he ran away before Charlie responded.

The reason why she had to run away was because the tears filled her eyes, and her eyes were too big to bear.

She didn't want Charlie to see that she was crying at this time.

Because she didn't want to affect Charlie's concentrated mood.

She had never thought of affecting Charlie's life and Charlie's marriage.

After all, Charlie has given her too much kindness.

She turned to leave, silently in her heart:

"Tonight, Master Wade will leave Japan, return to the embrace of his family, and return to his wife..."

"In the future, don't know what year and month you will come back again..."

"The next few hours will be the last few hours I will be with Master Wade..."

"I must control my emotions and don't add any psychological burden to him..."

Chapter 1839

When Nanako returned from the bathroom, there were no traces of tears on her face, but her eyes were slightly red.

She deliberately bashed her face with cold water, so it seemed a lot more natural.

Back in the store, Nanako took the initiative to smile and asked Charlie: "Master, have you adjusted it? Do you want me to try again?"

Charlie smiled and nodded: "Trouble you!"

Nanako smiled softly: "Master Wade doesn't have to be so polite."

As she said, she stretched out her right hand again and said grinning: "Come on! Try again!"

Charlie didn't think much, picked up the adjusted ring and put it on the ring finger of her right hand again.

This time, the size of the shank has become very suitable, it is not tight or loose on her hand, it looks almost natural.

Nanako couldn't help changing the direction of her right hand, and under the light, carefully observed this diamond ring, which was not expensive.

Although this ring is not as gorgeous as the tens of millions of rings in the hands of ladies and beauties, it has its unique charm.

Simple, atmospheric, beautiful and touching.

Charlie looked at the ring on Nanako, and also liked it as he watched it.

He knew that his wife didn't pursue those luxurious jewels, and this ring happened to match her calm temperament.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but turn his attention from the ring to Nanako's face.

To be honest, if you say that it is as quiet as still water, Claire may be able to achieve 80 or even 90 points, but Nanako is absolutely 100 points.

So in other words, it seems that this ring is more in line with the temperament of Nanako.

But Charlie didn't think too much about this issue.

Nanako wore this ring, and observed it with joy and melancholy for a long time, only then reluctantly took it off and handed it to Charlie.

She said: "Master, if appropriate, let the salesman help you wrap it"

"Yes!" Charlie saw that the ring was indeed suitable, so he smiled and said to the salesperson: "Hello, please help me wrap this ring."

"OK sir!"

The salesperson is also very happy.

Although Tiffany is also a well-known brand, the price of most diamond rings is actually in the range of 10,000 USD to 20,000 USD. In fact, very few people will buy rings with more than 20,000 USD. Sometimes it may not be possible for a long time to sell one.

Like Charlie's choice, the equivalent of a ring with a price of more than 100,000 USD, generally can sell such a limited number of rings a year.

Therefore, she regarded Charlie as a distinguished VIP customer, so she helped him pack the ring very carefully, and said to him: "Sir, if you have no other needs, please follow me to the cashier to checkout."

Charlie said: "No hurry, I want to see the bracelet."

The ring is a token of love between lovers, so when he bought this ring for his wife, he naturally couldn't buy the same thing for his mother-in-law.

Therefore, Charlie planned to show Elaine a bracelet, the price would not be too high, equivalent to two or three hundred thousand, which would be great.

Two or three hundred thousand bracelets were enough for Elaine to make her happily unable to sleep.

The salesperson heard that Charlie wanted to buy a bracelet, and immediately said: "Sir, wait a moment, I will let the person in charge of the bracelet area show you and recommend a few styles for you."

In their store, each salesperson has his own exclusive counter, and this salesperson is responsible for the diamond ring, so the bracelet needs other people to provide shopping guide services for Charlie.

Chapter 1840

Charlie readily agreed. Soon, the salesman called another girl and said to her: "This VIP wants to see the bracelet. Can you recommend one for him?"

The girl knew that Charlie was an elite, and immediately said with a big smile: "Sir, please come with me."

Nanako hurriedly asked him: "Master, do you still need me to try the bracelet for you?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I plan to buy the bracelet for Mother-in-law. She is a bit fat, so I don't need to trouble you."

Nanako smiled and said, "Then Master will take a look for himself, I want to see the ring, can I?"

Charlie nodded: "Of course you can. Look first. I'll go over there to see the bracelet."

Nanako smiled sweetly: "Okay!"

When Charlie went to the bracelet area, Nanako whispered to the girl who sold the ring: "Excuse me, is the ring I tried just now in stock?"

The salesperson nodded lightly and said, "Yes, we have three rings of this model in our store. We sold two, and now there is one left. Do you want it now?"

Nanako was overjoyed, and whispered: "It is not convenient for me to pay now. Can you keep it quietly for me? I will ask someone to come over and help me pay the bill later, and then please help me adjust the ring to the size?"

The salesperson said politely: "Madam no problem, please tell me your name. When the person you arrange comes over, he can tell me your name."

Nanako smiled happily and said: "My name is Nanako Ito, and the other party will tell you that he buys it for Miss Ito."

The salesperson nodded slightly: "Okay, Miss Ito."

Nanako blinked, and said in a low voice, "Don't tell the gentleman who came with me, keep it secret for me."

Although the salesperson was a little puzzled, he nodded his head very dedicatedly and said, "Don't worry, I will not disclose it to anyone."

"That's good!"

At this time, Charlie was on the side of the bracelet counter, looking around.

There are many styles of bracelets in this store, most of which are relatively low-key and simple, but there is a rose gold bracelet full of diamonds that is more luxurious.

Charlie knows Elaine very well. What he likes most about his mother-in-law is that she can see the luxury at a glance.

Things that are golden, full of diamonds, and sparkling at a glance, will definitely be able to win her taste.

And don't look at the diamonds, but because they are relatively small diamonds, the price is not high.

The bracelet that Charlie chose for his mother-in-law was actually about 250,000 equivalent. Although it was not cheap, it was just drizzle to him.

After he chose, he asked the salesperson to pack the bracelet and pay the money together with the ring.

At this time, Nanako had already set up the ring with the previous sales, and then sent a message to ask an assistant of her family to help over and pay.

After the arrangements were made, she came to Charlie contentedly and asked him with a smile: "Master, have you chosen everything?"

Charlie nodded: "The money has been paid, hey, Nanako, why are you so happy?"

Charlie could also see that Nanako's condition at this time seemed to be much better than before, and she seemed to be happier.

Nanako stuck out her tongue playfully and blinked and said, "This is a secret. I can't tell Master Wade, otherwise Master will definitely laugh at me."

Charlie smiled slightly: "How can it be!"

Nanako said shyly, "I am too shy to tell you."

Charlie shrugged helplessly: "Since you don't want to say, then I won't ask..."

Chapter 1841

After leaving Tiffany, Nanako accompanied Charlie again, walking around the major shops in Ginza.

In order to show less favoritism, Charlie bought a high-end boss suit for his old man Jacob.

Jacob now mixes with the Calligraphy and Painting Association every day, and has become the No. 2 figure in the entire Calligraphy and Painting Association. It can be said that he has a lot of face.

What's more, the calligraphy and painting association he is currently in and Meiqing's senior college often have contacts and exchanges, so Charlie buys a suit for the Old Master, and also wants to help the Old Master to dress up and make him more energetic and more appealing.

In addition, Charlie bought some other small accessories and small objects piecemeal.

At 3:30 in the afternoon, there are about two hours before Charlie's flight to Osaka takes off. Considering that Tokyo Airport is far from the city, Charlie said to Nanako, "Nanako, the time is almost here. I have to go. It's time to go to the airport."

Nanako said without hesitation: "Master, I'll take you there!"

Charlie said: "I have to drive over and leave the car at the airport. If you follow me, what will you do how you will come back?"

"It doesn't matter." Nanako blurted out: "I can ask someone to drive to the airport to pick me up. Don't worry about it, Master!"

Charlie asked subconsciously: "Too much trouble for you, right?"

"No, no!" Nanako said with a pleading expression: "Master, Nanako wants to take you to the airport, and even wants to take you to Osaka and take you back to Aurous Hill, but the situation at home is very special now, it is really not suitable for me to get out. So I asked Master to give me a chance to take you to the airport..."

Hearing this, Charlie couldn't help feeling a little moved, so he said: "Then we two will drive to the airport together, and you should also call your family and arrange for them to send a car to the airport to pick you up."

"Yeah!" Nanako nodded and said happily: "Master doesn't have to worry, I will arrange it!"

"Fine then!"

When Charlie heard this, he didn't insist anymore. The two of them got in the car and drove to Tokyo Airport.

This way was Charlie's first journey back.

On the way, Nanako was worried.

She had been sneaking at Charlie next to her, feeling extremely reluctant to him in her heart.

As early as in Aurous Hill, she had a passion for Charlie.

And when she met him again in Japan, she fell in love with him completely.

After separating from Charlie this time, she didn't know if she still has a chance to meet him again.

Because she could feel in her heart that Charlie has lifted the burden of her heart.

She is a very smart girl.

She could see that the reason why Charlie came to Japan must be because of her injury, so he had a sympathy for her in his heart.

And he happened to have the medicine that could cure her, so he took that medicine and came to Kyoto to find and cure her.

At this moment, she was lonely deep in her heart and thought to herself: "My injury has been healed. It is estimated that Master will be able to relieve me in the future?"

Thinking of this, Nanako felt very sad.

In her heart, she was willing to give up some and stay with him forever.

But she also knew in her heart that this was unrealistic.

Chapter 1842

When Nanako's thoughts were flying, Charlie had already driven the car to the airport.

After he parked the car in the airport parking lot, he got out with Nanako.

Then, instead of leaving in a hurry, he bent down and put the car key on top of the front tire of the car.

Nanako asked in surprise: "Master, what are you doing?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I leave the key here for my friend, otherwise the key will have to follow me back to China."

Nanako asked suspiciously, "Can't it get stolen this way? If someone finds out, can I just drive away?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It is impossible for other people to see it here. There are so many cars here. Who would bend down to look at other people's car tires?"

After speaking, Charlie said again: "I will tell the owner of the key when I go back. After the owner knows it, it will be very convenient to pick up the car for him."

Nanako smiled and nodded, and said, "Master is smart. I might never think of such a method for a lifetime."

Charlie smiled and said: "Actually, I mainly want to save some money, otherwise the mailing fee is quite high if I wait until I return to China and then send it to him."

Nanako suddenly laughed and said, "Master, in your case, you definitely won't be short of money... My father alone has contributed 4.5 billion USD to you, your JX Pharmaceuticals is developing rapidly, so why to save money so much..."

Charlie smiled slightly: "It's not saving money, it's about how to live a life. We won't save a point for what should be spent, and we won't waste a point for what shouldn't be spent."

Nanako nodded earnestly: "Thank you Wade, Nanako is taught."

Charlie smiled and said: "I am not a good teacher, I just express my own little opinions, which are some very crude personal opinions."

Nanako said sincerely: "Although the reason is simple and obvious, I have never considered this. If I was in my previous status, it would not matter if I spent more money or wasted a bit, but now my father wants me to take over Ito Co., Ltd., in the future, I must change my previously unconceptual attitude towards money. Only like Master Wade can I make the family business bigger and stronger!"

Seeing Nanako's serious look, Charlie smiled helplessly, and said, "I believe Ito Co., Ltd. will become stronger and stronger in your hands!"

Nanako nodded gently: "Thank you Master Wade for your blessing, I hope I can live up to expectations..."

Charlie looked at her, smiled encouragingly, and then said: "Okay, time is almost up, I have to go through the registration procedures, how do you go back?"

Nanako said, "I asked the family assistant to drive me to pick me up."

With that, she checked the time and hurriedly said: "He may take a while to arrive, or I will send you to the security checkpoint!"

Charlie nodded, and the two left the parking lot together and went straight to the airport departure hall.

At this moment, a woman with a delicate face and delicate features, but with a bit of heroism and coldness, walked into the airport departure hall.

This woman is about one hundred and seventy-five centimeters tall and has slender legs.

She was wearing a black tight leather jacket, black stretch leather pants, and black high-top leather boots. Her long black hair is tied into a bunch of ponytails and hung to her waist.

This woman is beautiful and moving, but her face is icy.

She stepped into the airport and went directly into the VIP security check channel.

The male staff in charge of checking the boarding information turned his eyes straight when he looked at the woman.

After the woman stood in front of him for a few seconds, he came back to his senses and said blushing: "Miss, please show your ID and boarding pass."

The woman handed over the certificate blankly, and the other side glanced at it. It read "Su Ruoli."

Chapter 1843

At this stage, in order to detect the murderer of Matsumoto's family, Tokyo Airport has strengthened exit inspections.

However, due to the shortage of manpower, there is no way to strictly control all passengers.

Although Ruoli took a Chinese passport, because her boarding pass was for Osaka, not for leaving Japan, the staff did not report to the leader.

He just read Ruoli's name silently in his heart a few times, and felt that the name was very nice, but he couldn't tell why it was really nice.

Ruoli saw the other party holding her passport in a daze, and the first thought in her heart was whether her identity has been exposed and the other party had already noticed it.

However, she quickly analyzed it and felt that such a thing was unlikely.

First of all, the TMPD only knows that it was a hidden master from China who killed Matsumoto, but they don't know anything else.

They also don't know who killed the Matsumoto family.

What's more, Japan is so close to China. There are so many tourists, overseas Chinese and business elites traveling between the two countries on weekdays. The TMPD cannot lock itself in such a short period of time.

After a quick analysis in her mind, Ruoli could conclude that the staff in front of her was probably just amazed by her appearance, and was a little slow to react.

So she asked the staff member blankly: "Does my passport look good?"

The other party nodded subconsciously: "Very pretty..."

After finishing speaking, he realized that he accidentally missed his mouth, and hurriedly handed the passport back to Ruoli with both hands, and said apologetically: "Miss Su, I'm so sorry! I didn't mean it!"

Ruoli completely ignored his apology, but continued to ask him with a cold expression: "Then can I pass?"

"Of course!" The staff was pressed by Ruoli's glamorous aura to cold sweat, and quickly stamped her boarding pass and handed it to her respectfully.

She received the boarding pass and immediately turned to leave. The staff member turned to look at her back, with a face full of intoxication, and he couldn't help sighing and muttering: "This...this is simply her Carden's. Aura...Apart from TV shows and anime, I have never seen a woman with such a strong aura..."

Although the staff member was thinking of Ruoli, Ruoli had completely forgotten him and came to the security inspection machine.

This time, all Masters of the Su family broke up, unable to leave the country, so everyone dispersed, and as tourists, they bought ordinary flight tickets and flew to Osaka.

Ruoli chose the 5.40 flight.

After the flight arrives in Osaka, she will take the private jet temporarily seconded from Zhonghai to return home with other Su's subordinates.

.....

At this moment, Charlie also came to the VIP security check channel.

Before entering the security checkpoint, he turned sideways and said to Nanako next to him: "Nanako, you have taken so hard to send me so far. I'm going through the security check. You should go back now."

Nanako nodded reluctantly, and said seriously: "I wish you a good journey Master, and remember to report me peace after landing."

"Okay!" Charlie smiled slightly, and said: "Take care of yourself too!"

Nanako said with red eyes, "Thank you Master for your concern, I will definitely!"

Charlie nodded and couldn't help but sigh softly.

With this sigh, there was reluctance, but also a relief.

What is reluctant is that Nanako is indeed a rare good girl. It can be said that apart from nationality, there is nothing wrong with it.

If they say goodbye today, it will be difficult for the two to see each other again in the future, so Charlie will naturally feel reluctant.

As for letting go, it was mainly because he came to Japan this time and he has removed the thorn in his heart.

That thorn is Nanako.

Chapter 1844

In the beginning, Nanako insisted on competing with Aoxue.

As for Aoxue, it was because of his rejuvenation pills that her strength improved by leaps.

In the end, Aoxue severely injured Nanako in the ring, this was a thorn in Charlie's heart.

On the one hand, he felt sorry for Nanako, and on the other hand, he admired her character of never giving up and favoring competition over backing off.

In addition, he also felt ashamed of Nanako to a certain extent.

Because it was his hand that pushed Aoxue from a level far below Nanako to a position far surpassing her.

Now, he cured her, so he dilute the distress;

He saved her life and made her strength improved by leaps and bounds, so that guilt is also played down.

At this point, the distress and guilt have been washed away, and the rest is more of an appreciation for Nanako.

Therefore, Charlie smiled at her knowingly, revealing a row of white teeth: "If this is the case, then I will go first!"

"Okay!" Nanako nodded heavily, feeling extremely sad, but still smiling and said sweetly: "Master, I wish you good luck, peace and health!"

Charlie didn't expect that Nanako would say the words wishing him, he startled slightly, and immediately clasped a fist to her with a serious face, and said loudly: "Thank you Miss Nanako, we will have some time later!"

After speaking, he took a deep look at Nanako again, turned around and entered the security checkpoint.

At the moment Charlie turned around, Nanako's tears burst.

She looked at Charlie's back, tears flowed like rain!

She wanted to call him so that he could look back so that she could take a closer look at him.

However, she was afraid that when she stopped him, when he sees her face full of tears, he would think a lot, would misunderstand, and think that she deliberately wanted him to see her letting go of all the disguise.

Therefore, she resisted the urge to call him, just wanted to stand here, watch him disappear into that door, and then turned and left.

At this moment, Charlie couldn't help it suddenly, and subconsciously looked back at her.

Just a glance made Charlie's whole body as if struck by lightning, and stayed for a while.

He wanted to turn his head, and beckoned to her courteously.

But he didn't expect it. Looking back, Nanako, who was still smiling just now, was already crying into tears.

At this moment, Charlie felt that the softest part of his heart seemed to have suffered a shock. This kind of feeling, in general, only needs one word, that is: distressed!

Nanako didn't expect that Charlie would even look back at her again.

At this moment, as the eldest lady of the Ito family, as the Yamato Nadeshiko who had undergone traditional Japanese education since childhood, she finally completely lost all self-control ability.

At this moment, she lost all her sanity and ran towards him crying, rushed straight into his arms and hugged him tightly.

Before Charlie came back to his senses, she gently stood on tiptoe and offered her first kiss on her own initiative. Those thin lips that were a little salty and cold because of her tears, kissed Charlie's lips without hesitation... ..

Chapter 1845

Charlie felt the soft and cold touch of Nanako's lips first, and then felt a slightly bitter taste in his mouth.

He knew in his heart that this was the smell of Nanako's tears.

At this moment, he felt a little bit reluctant and helpless.

A few seconds later, their lips parted, Nanako raised her head, looked at Charlie with red eyes, choked up and said: "Master, don't forget me..."

Charlie nodded earnestly: "Don't worry, I definitely won't!"

Nanako said solemnly: "If there is anything that needs my help in the future, you must tell me Master!"

Charlie nodded: "Okay, so do you!"

Nanako broke her tears into a smile: "Then Master, let's go, if you get off the plane again, you won't be able to catch"

Charlie looked at her and said softly: "Nanako, there will be a period later."

"Well, Master will come later!"

Charlie turned around this time, and did not look back.

He didn't want to be like just now, when he looked back, he saw a tearful Nanako.

So, simply put your mind away and stepped into the security check channel.

The surrounding passengers, seeing the beautiful and charming Nanako, covered their face with their hands at the security checkpoint, their eyes were crying, and they looked at Charlie's figure without blinking until they disappeared, and their hearts were quite moved.

At this moment, most men envied the man who had just disappeared from the security check.

"How can that guy, have such a beautiful woman watching him cry with such infatuation?!"

"The point is... he never looked back! This is too much!"

"If it were me, I must turn around to save that woman and tell her I will never leave!"

Nanako turned a deaf ear to everything in her body.

After Charlie disappeared for a long time, she was still immersed in the feelings that had nowhere to rest.

Until, her cell phone rang.

The phone connected, and a woman's voice came: "Miss, I have arrived at the gate of the airport, where are you?"

Nanako wiped away her tears hurriedly, and said, "Wait a moment, I'll be there soon!"

After speaking, she hurriedly looked into the security checkpoint again, and after making sure that Charlie could not be seen, she turned and left the airport reluctantly.

Outside the airport at this time, three black Rolls Royces were already waiting side by side.

As soon as Nanako walked out of the airport gate, the co-pilot of the Rolls-Royce in the middle walked down a young woman. The woman respectfully greeted her: "Miss is here!"

Nanako nodded, and before she got to the front, a man opened the back door for her.

After Nanako got into the car, she closed the door and returned to the co-pilot.

After getting in the car, Nanako couldn't help but asked her: "Kawana, did you buy the ring I wanted for me?"

"I got it!" The woman called Kawana, whose full name is Hisui Kawana, is a senior assistant of the Ito family. At this time, she immediately handed over a beautiful Tiffany jewelry box from the co-pilot.

Nanako took the jewelry box excitedly, and carefully unpacked it.

When she opened the box, she found that in the jewelry box, lying quietly, the same ring that was exactly the same as the diamond ring that Charlie had tried on her fingers.

Chapter 1846

The rings are the same in style and size, even the size of the shank is exactly the same.

As soon as she saw this ring, Nanako felt extremely happy and joyful, as if this ring was really given to her by Charlie.

Seeing her looking at this ring, Kawana was overjoyed and asked in surprise: "Miss, why would you be interested in a brand like Tiffany? This brand is a very ordinary jewelry brand, and this ring is too cheap, and diamonds are really hard to get out..."

Kawana is right.

This kind of diamond ring, which sells for less than RMB 1 million, is simply for ordinary little rich people.

The real rich don't even bother to wear this kind of ring.

The richest people in Europe, America, Japan and South Korea like diamonds the most. Some of them are very pure, and the cutting process can reach the top diamonds. One is worth ten million.

Real wealthy people buy this kind of diamond, specially made into diamond rings.

Therefore, the diamond ring worn by the top wealthy people is worth more than tens of millions, which is really not ordinary.

Chinese rich people like more things. They not only like diamonds, but also all kinds of gems, especially jade.

The real top-quality emperor green jade has a surprisingly high price.

It is not a big problem for a bracelet to be worth more than tens of millions or even hundreds of millions.

Because for the wealthy, this kind of jewelry can not only bring out face, but also has a lot of room for appreciation.

The Ito family itself is Japan's top wealthy family, and Nanako is the only daughter of the family patriarch. She would like this ordinary small diamond ring, which really exceeds Kawana's cognition of her.

Nanako held the diamond ring in love, and said shyly: "Kawana, there are some things that cannot be measured by money. This ring may not be worth too much in your eyes, but it is invaluable in my eyes."

After all, she couldn't wait to wear the ring on her ring finger.

Kawana exclaimed: "Miss, the ring finger is specially used to wear a wedding ring. You can't wear a ring on the ring finger. Otherwise, if someone sees it, he will think you have been married.!"

When Nanako heard this, she suddenly realized that as a single woman, she really shouldn't wear a ring on her ring finger. This would cause misunderstandings among people around her.

But this did not delay her love for the ring, so she hurriedly took off the ring, put it back carefully, and stuck out her tongue at Kawana: "It's okay, I just wear it for a try. I will definitely not wear it."

Kawana nodded and asked her, "Miss, where are we going now?"

Nanako said: "Go to the hospital, I'll accompany father!"

"OK!"

.....

At this moment, Charlie had successfully passed the security check, and took his passport and boarding pass to the VIP lounge.

Now, there is about an hour before the flight takes off, and about half an hour before boarding.

There were not many people in the VIP lounge, so Charlie randomly found a seat and sat down.

As soon as he sat down, a beautiful waiter immediately said to him: "Hello sir, do you need something to drink?"

Charlie didn't know why, but Nanako was still in his heart, so he waved his hand absently, "No, thank you."

The waiter nodded and said politely: "If you have any needs, please feel free to tell me."

"Ok."

After Charlie finished speaking, he was about to take out his mobile phone to contact Issac. With his keen hearing, he heard a woman not far away. She lowered her voice and said to the phone: "In order to avoid unnecessary trouble, notify the crew, tonight first Zhonghai, we will rest one night in Zhonghai and return to Eastcliff tomorrow!"

Chapter 1847

Originally, Ruoli's retreat plan was that everyone dispersed to Osaka, and then transferred a private jet from Zhonghai to bring everyone from Osaka directly back to Eastcliff.

However, considering that if the TMPD cannot catch her and the other Su family members, it will definitely recheck the previous exit records, so a plane flying directly from Osaka to Eastcliff will inevitably become the most in the eyes of the TMPD. Suspicious object.

Therefore, Ruoli decided to fly to Zhonghai from Osaka first.

The Japanese side only has the right to check the flight information related to its own country. In theory, for all flights departing from Japan, the Japanese side has the right to check all the information about the flight.

But if you arrive at Zhonghai and then fly directly from Zhonghai to Eastcliff, then this is a completely domestic flight and has nothing to do with Japan.

In this way, the Japanese clues are also broken.

It stands to reason that Ruoli would not make such a low-level mistake of being heard when making a phone call. She deliberately chose a corner in the VIP lounge where there was no one within 5 meters.

And when she called just now, she deliberately suppressed her voice to the lowest level.

Judging from her experience, with the volume of her words just now, it is impossible for anyone to hear it even within three meters.

Unless that person is only about one meter away from her.

In addition, she didn't reveal too sensitive information when she spoke, only that she changed the plan and flew to Zhonghai first and then to Eastcliff.

However, she did not expect that she would be heard by Charlie several meters away when she called with such a low voice.

Charlie heard her words and immediately realized that this woman must be from the Su family.

the reason is simple.

The reason why the entire Tokyo implements strict exit control is that the Su family destroyed Matsumoto's affairs.

At this time, those who are deliberately thinking about leaving Japan and deliberately conceal their whereabouts are most likely from the Su family.

What's more, this woman said on the phone just now that she must fly to Zhonghai before returning to Eastcliff.

This proves that her destination is actually Eastcliff.

Eastcliff happened to be the base camp of the Su family, so this woman must have worked for the Su family.

After Ruoli gave orders, she put the phone back in her pocket and closed her eyes in the seat to rest.

Charlie quietly looked at the woman not far away. The beauty of her appearance was Charlie's first impression of her, and his second impression of her was that the features of this woman made people feel too cold.

The Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures made Charlie's perception more sensitive, allowing him to perceive a deeper taste from a person.

The feeling that Ruoli gave him was faintly bloody.

This kind of feeling is rarely encountered in ordinary people, so he can be sure that this woman's hands must be bloody. If he thinks about it, he should be the killer of the Su family.

Moreover, listening to what she said, Masters sent by the Su family to Japan should be just like her, preparing to leave Japan by private jet from Osaka.

Thinking of this, he immediately took out his phone and sent Issac a WeChat message: "Old man, you can check it out immediately. There are a few private planes flying from Osaka tonight."

Issac did not ask the reason, and immediately began an investigation.

Although he doesn't have much energy in Japan, collecting some tips, this basic problem can still be solved.

Chapter 1848

Civil aviation information itself is not considered a secret. Even the route of a private jet cannot be concealed from the airport staff and the airport dispatch system.

Therefore, Issac quickly found some information and summarized it to Charlie.

Issac's message to Charlie showed that there were four private jets flying from Osaka to Zhonghai tonight.

Two of them are small business jets with very few passengers. Both planes carry about 10 passengers. Considering that there are many masters from the Su family in Japan, it is unlikely to take this kind of aircraft back, so Charlie Then directly filter out the two planes.

The remaining two are private jets modified from Airbus a320 aircraft, and the number of seats for the entire aircraft is about forty to fifty people.

Therefore, Charlie speculated that the person from the Su family who left Japan from Osaka tonight will take one of the two a320s.

So he asked Issac to carefully investigate the information of the two aircraft.

Both aircraft are registered in China. One of them is under the name of a domestic private airline, but it is actually serving a high-end travel agency, specializing in high-end outbound charter flights, and this aircraft just left from the south yesterday. Shenzhen City sent a high-end tour group of forty people over, and today plans to pick up another group of tour group members to return to Shenzhen City.

The other one was registered under the name of a real estate company in China Shipping. The plane arrived in Osaka from China Shipping only today. The original flight plan was to fly from Osaka to Eastcliff, but the flight plan was temporarily changed and applied Permission to fly from Osaka to Zhonghai.

As soon as Charlie saw this, he knew that the last plane must have been arranged by the Su family.

Analyzing so far, Charlie suddenly had a bad idea.

As a result, he wiped a cold smile on the corner of his mouth, and after giving Issac some orders, he smiled at the corner of his mouth, squinted his eyes on his seat and squinted to sleep.

Twenty minutes later, a gentle voice rang in his ears: "Priority boarding of your flight has already started, honorable first-class passenger. If you want to board the flight early, please go to the boarding gate.

Charlie gave a hum, and glanced at Ruoli's position, and saw that Ruoli had also stood up, and thought to himself: "Thinking of this Su family's female assassin, she is on the same flight as me."

Afterwards, he stretched his waist and took his small suitcase, before Ruoli stepped out of the VIP lounge.

Charlie came all the way to the boarding gate, and after showing his boarding pass, he gave priority to boarding from the VIP lane before all economy class passengers boarded the plane.

Since the plane was flying on a one-hour short-haul route from Tokyo to Osaka, the plane had very few first-class cabins, with only eight seats. Charlie's seat was in the second row by the window on the right.

The weak flight attendant offered to help him put the suitcase, Charlie thanked her, but he did it himself and put the suitcase in the overhead compartment.

Just as he sat down, Ruoli walked in with a few first-class passengers.

When Charlie saw her coming in, his first thought was to turn his head and not look at her, so as not to be discovered by her.

However, between the electric light and flint, he suddenly realized a problem.

A female killer like Ruoli's strength and perception ability, although not necessarily better than him, must be superior to ordinary people.

And she is so beautiful, she must have accepted the attention given to her by ordinary men.

If you deliberately avoid looking at her, she is very likely to notice something abnormal.

So Charlie deliberately looked at Ruoli with a look of surprise, as if he was shocked by her beauty and excited about being able to take the same plane with her.

Ruoli felt Charlie's scorching gaze, but just glanced at him casually, and her heart was immediately full of disdain.

She secretly said contemptuously in her heart: "Hey, it's another rag who can't pull his legs when he sees a beautiful woman!"

Chapter 1849

Although Ruoli sneered at Charlie's performance, it was Charlie's superficial appearance that made her relax a little guard against Charlie.

Then, she stepped to his side and sat down directly next to him.

As soon as she sat down, Ruoli spent her spare time and looked at Charlie silently.

This was not because she had doubts about Charlie, but because of her usual cautious habit.

In each environment, the first thing she will do is to have a relatively in-depth understanding of the environment, so as to obtain more information that may be useful.

She observed Charlie for a while, and found that this man was really handsome and looked pleasing to the eye.

It is that when he looked at her occasionally, the straight-forward look makes people look a little bit uncomfortable.

So, Ruoli turned around, looked at Charlie, and asked with a smile: "Hello. Are you Chinese?"

Charlie didn't expect that this Su family's female assassin would turn her face to talk to him, so he pretended to be surprised, and then asked with a bit of surprise: "Beauty, how can you tell that I am Chinese? This is not A flight to China."

Ruoli smiled slightly and said seriously: "The difference between Japanese boys and Chinese boys is still very big. For example, Japanese boys basically shave their eyebrows, and their hairstyles and dressing styles are also different."

Charlie smiled and said, "The beauty is really observant."

Ruoli nodded, and asked him, "Where are you from China?"

Charlie said casually: "I am from Wuhan."

"Oh?" Ruoli raised her eyebrows and said with a smile: "Wuhan is a good place. As the saying goes, there is heaven above and Suzhou below. The soil and water there are very nourishing."

After that, Ruoli asked him again: "By the way, since you are from Wuhan, you should know the Wu family, right?"

After all, Ruoli is a well-versed and experienced master. Hearing Charlie introduced himself as from Wuhan, her first thought was to determine whether Charlie lied.

She felt that if the man next to her did not lie, he would most likely be a very useful tool person. On the next trip, if there is an emergency, he can be used as a shield, so that she can be better. Be safer.

Charlie heard the woman next to him mention the Wu family, and knew that the other party wanted to test if he was from Wuhan, so he smiled and said, "Who doesn't know about the Wu family, the current owner is Regnar. He has two sons, one is called Roger and the other is called Wu Qi. That Wu Qi is very famous. It is said that don't know which of the tendons didn't match up, and he has to eat poop every once in a while. Oh, it's also amazing."

Ruoli smiled and said, "I didn't expect you to be familiar with Wu's affairs."

Charlie said with a playful smile: "Of course, who doesn't know about the Wu family, Wuhan?"

As he said, Charlie lowered his voice and said, "Tell you something more exciting!"

Ruoli nodded: "Listen with respect."

Charlie hooked her and said, "You get closer and I will tell you."

Ruoli couldn't help frowning slightly, and said in a cold tone: "You can just say that."

Charlie wrote a copy of his face: "How can this secret be told in front of so many people casually? If you want to listen, come and listen. If you don't want to listen, forget it."

Ruoli's anger came up all at once, seeing Charlie's serious intention to take advantage of her, she wanted to lick him with her big mouth.

Chapter 1850

However, Ruoli really wanted to know, what exactly Charlie knew about the more explosive material, so she suppressed the disgust in her heart and moved her body towards him, and said coldly: "Hurry"

Charlie also deliberately leaned toward her, spitting out warm air in her ear: "Some time ago, the brother-in-law of Regnar, that is, Nanshan, the leader of the Regnar Gang, was killed. He was killed together, with his wife, and a lot of beggars!"

Ruoli immediately retracted her body from Charlie's side, keeping a certain distance from him, and said coldly: "That's it? It was all popular in short videos at the time. I ask you. Does anyone else know?"

Charlie shrugged: "I thought you didn't know."

Ruoli glared at him disgustingly. In her opinion, Charlie just used this matter to try to get close to her.

But fortunately, he didn't take any real advantage, so Ruoli didn't have an attack either.

However, after this incident, Ruoli's guard against Charlie was even lower.

Seeing that Ruoli could no longer speak, Charlie voluntarily leaned over to ask her, "Hey beauty, where are you from? I told you all, so do you want to talk to me?"

Ruoli said blankly: "You told me, it doesn't mean that I have to tell you."

Charlie smiled and said: "Beauty, don't be so cold! You are such a beautiful big beauty, you should smile more, smiling more will make you look better!"

Ruoli rubbed her temples, and said disgustedly: "I'm sorry, I want to rest."

After speaking, she simply closed her eyes.

Charlie asked again: "Beauty, what are you doing in Osaka? Are you going to Osaka or returning from Osaka?"

Ruoli opened her eyes, frowned at him, and asked, "How do you know that I am going back to China from Osaka?"

"Tokyo won't let you go!" Charlie sighed, and said, "don't know what is going on in Tokyo, and what exit control is going on. My family is still waiting for me to go back to celebrate the New Year. There is no choice but to choose from Osaka....."

Ruoli nodded lightly, and thought to herself: "It seems that I am too sensitive. People in Tokyo who want to return to China basically have to leave from Osaka or other airports in northeastern Japan. It's normal to return home from Osaka.

Therefore, she also completely lost interest in chatting with Charlie, and said: "Okay, I'll take a nap for a while, if nothing is wrong, don't chat with me."

Charlie didn't shut his mouth wisely, but continued to ask: "By the way, beauty, I listen to your accent, it looks like an Eastcliff person!"

As soon as Ruoli's brows stretched out, she quickly frowned, denying: "I am not from Eastcliff, I am from Zhonghai."

Currently, Japan restricts exits and conducts investigations on all foreign tourists. Among them, the most important thing is tourists from China's Eastcliff native place, so Ruoli was cautious and described herself as a Chinese citizen.

Charlie said in surprise at this time: "Oh, beautiful, you're boring. Everyone is Chinese. It's fate to meet on a Japanese plane. You don't need to chat with your compatriots and hide it, right? Your accent As soon as I heard it was from Eastcliff, the people of Zhonghai are not talking like you."

Ruoli was about to be annoyed by Charlie.

She is now more and more sure that Charlie has nothing wrong with her, nor is there any danger. He is just a bit sloppy, a bit wretched, and a bit too much nonsense. So while bothering him so much, she also completely relaxes her guard against him.

At this time, she closed her eyes and rested her mind, too lazy to talk to him.

Charlie has already instructed Issac on WeChat to prepare according to his plan...

Chapter 1851

Soon, the plane took off from Tokyo Airport.

An hour later, they landed at Osaka Airport on time.

When the plane landed, according to the usual practice, the first-class guests will get off the plane first.

Ruoli didn't have any luggage and was sitting in a row outside, so as soon as the plane stopped, she immediately got up and walked directly to the door.

As soon as the cabin door opened, she stepped out. In order to avoid long nights and dreams, the plane arranged by the Su family will take off in half an hour, so she needs to go to the business jet terminal and go through the security check again. To reach the hangar of the private jet.

The duty process of private jets is different from that of ordinary civil aviation, and ordinary terminals only serve ordinary civil aviation passengers.

As long as the customized passengers take private jets or business jets, they all go through the security check and boarding at the business jet terminal.

When Charlie walked out of the hatch carrying the suitcase, Ruoli was no longer in the long reach.

He couldn't help but smiled and thought to himself: "She wants to go back so anxiously? The more anxious you want to go back, the less I don't want you to go back."

Thinking of this, he himself walked slowly to the business jet terminal while taking out his mobile phone and asked Issac: "Old man, how are things arranged as I explained to you?"

Issac smiled and said, "Master don't worry, I have everything ready."

Charlie snorted and said, "You pay attention to the situation, I will be here soon."

"OK Master!"

When Charlie arrived at the business jet terminal and passed the security check smoothly, Issac had been waiting in the terminal for a long time.

Seeing Charlie, he immediately stepped forward and whispered to him: "Master everyone else has already boarded the plane. The woman in black clothes you mentioned on WeChat, I just saw her. After passing the security check, she made a shuttle bus and went to Hangar No. 12. The plane parked there is the one you found out!"

After speaking, he said again: "Oh, yes, our plane is parked in Hangar 13 next to them, and the departure time we requested is just behind them, and their plane will be in front of us in a moment."

"Okay!" Charlie laughed and said, "Go, go to the hangar first, and wait for a good show!"

Later, Charlie and Issac boarded a VIP shuttle bus and went to Hangar 13 together.

The shuttle bus drove all the way into the hangar, and the Gulfstream airliner that arrived was already waiting here.

When the plane sent Charlie and the others to Japan, they first flew to Tokyo, and then flew directly to Osaka to wait. During this time, they never left Osaka.

Seeing Charlie's arrival, Orvel, Liang and others hurriedly got off the plane before Charlie arrived, and respectfully guarded outside the cabin door.

After Charlie got out of the car, everyone called him, and then bowed deeply together.

Charlie waved at them and said, "Don't engage in these etiquettes, board the plane quickly, I'm still waiting for a good show!"

After all, he has already taken the lead in boarding the plane.

Seeing this, other people hurriedly followed.

After everyone boarded the plane, the flight attendant immediately closed the door, and then asked Issac for instructions: "Mr. Issac, can the plane be launched?"

Issac glanced at Charlie, and when he saw Charlie nodding, he immediately said to the flight attendant: "Let's launch it now!"

Subsequently, the aircraft was slowly pushed out of the hangar by ground vehicles.

The captain reported the situation to the tower and requested takeoff arrangements by the way. The tower responded to the instructions and informed the captain that there was a private jet going to Zhonghai in front of them and asked the captain to queue behind him to go to the runway.

Chapter 1852

So the captain immediately picked up the communicator and made a cabin announcement: "Mr. Issac, we have obtained the queuing permission from the tower. The tower puts us in line behind the China Shipping plane in Hangar No. 12. Now compare the planes waiting to take off at Osaka Airport. It takes about forty minutes to take off."

As soon as Charlie heard that the plane he was flying was behind the plane of Su's family, he immediately said to Issac, "Go, go to the cockpit!"

Issac quickly followed Charlie and squeezed into the somewhat narrow cockpit together.

As soon as Issac came in, he asked the captain, "Where is the plane from China Shipping?"

The captain pointed to the plane that had just been pushed out from the hangar and was turning in place, and said, "Issac, that's the one."

Issac nodded and saw that the plane turned toward the runway after turning in place, so he quickly said to the captain, "Quickly follow him!"

The captain immediately increased the engine thrust, and the plane followed the Su's plane and taxied forward unhurriedly.

Seeing the plane with its wings trembling constantly in front, Charlie's face was full of smiles.

At this moment, in the Airbus A320 sent by the Su family, more than fifty top masters of the Su family were sitting neatly.

A middle-aged man, looking at Ruoli sitting in the front unsmilingly, stepped forward and smiled and said: "Miss Ruoli, this operation was really successful under your command. We destroy the Matsumoto family. None of them survived, and are successfully withdrawing this time. As long as our planes fly, the TMPD will never find us in this lifetime!"

As soon as the others heard this, they hurriedly agreed: "Yes, Miss Ruoli, you have a good leadership this time. After you go back, Mr. Su will definitely promote you. Don't forget us at that time!"

Ruoli said indifferently: "I, like you, are both subordinates of the Su family. As long as you do things well, the Patriarch will definitely not treat you badly."

After that, Ruoli said again: "After going back this time, I will definitely report the truth to the Patriarch and ask for your credit. Please rest assured!"

When everyone heard this, they all smiled and apologized.

Although everyone is a master of martial arts, in the final analysis, they have completely entered the dunya, and they have worked for the Su family for money.

When Ruoli said that she wanted to ask for credit for everyone, everyone naturally knew, which meant that the Su family would definitely reward everyone with a generous amount of cash.

As a result, everyone clapped happily, cheering and whistling endlessly.

At this time, Ruoli's phone vibrated.

She picked up her mobile phone, saw that Zynn was calling, hurriedly connected the phone, and said respectfully: "Patriarch!"

Zynn's voice came: "Ruoli, how is your side? Is it about to take off? There are no accidents and twists in the middle, right?"

Ruoli hurriedly said, "Master our plane is already in line for take-off, and it is expected to take off in half an hour at most!"

"Very good!" Zynn said with a smile: "This time, you did a very beautiful job! When you return to Eastcliff, you will definitely be rewarded!"

Ruoli said piously: "Patriarch, it is Ruoli's blessing to share worries for you and the Su family..."

Zynn laughed and said, "If you leave, I am really lucky to have you as a strong general! Don't you always want to go back to your hometown to take a look, after this time you go back, I will give you a good vacation and go back to your hometown to take a rest, you can rest until the Lantern Festival and then come back!"

Ruoli said gratefully: "Thank you Patriarch! I really want to go back and take a look. It would be great if I can rest!"

Zynn said, "You did so beautifully this time, and you will definitely have a good rest when you go back!"

When Ruoli was about to say thank you, a large number of helicopters roared from all directions outside. Outside the window, you could see many armored personnel carriers roaring, surrounding the planes.

In the sky, the helicopter shouted with a high-power speaker: "Listen the people below, we are the Japanese Self-Defense Force! You are now surrounded!"

Chapter 1853

At this moment, more than fifty Su family masters in the plane looked shocked!

The plane is about to take off, and everyone will be able to retreat, leave Japan, and return home to receive awards.

Ruoli had even received repeated compliments from Zynn on the phone. Who could have predicted that at this moment, things suddenly changed dramatically!

More than a dozen helicopters of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, more than 30 ground-wheeled armored vehicles, and the planes that surrounded Ruoli and others!

The Japanese Self-Defense Force is actually the Japanese army. Only after Japan was defeated that year, according to regulations, the defeated country could not have an army, so it made some changes in the form of the Self-Defense Force.

Although it is called the Self-Defense Force, the equipment and training standards of the entire Self-Defense Force are completely in accordance with the regular army.

The masters of the Su family are certainly very strong, but no matter how strong they are, they are just martial arts masters. Their little punches and kicks, in front of the guns and guns of the regular army, are almost like children playing in the house.

What's more, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces dispatched this time are all specially trained anti-terrorist special forces, and the number is large, and the total number of air and ground forces is at least 600 or 700!

These six to seven hundred people are almost the top presence in the Japanese Self-Defense Forces!

In addition, their equipment is very sophisticated, and they have set up a net in advance, so the Su family masters are simply inevitable!

Ruoli, who had not been in the old well, couldn't help panicking now.

She blurted out and asked the people around: "What's the matter?! How did the Japanese Self-Defense Force find us?! Who leaked the wind?!"

Everyone was full of horror, and they didn't know who had leaked the news.

However, they know that everyone is over this time!

Originally, the movement they made in Tokyo this time was so surprising that the TMPD and even the entire Japanese government hated them to their bones, so they would trace their whereabouts at all costs.

Tokyo and many surrounding cities have implemented exit controls in order to catch them early.

Now that they are in the hands of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, you don't have to think about it, this is a big trouble!

At this time, Zynn's phone has not hung up.

Hearing the movement on the phone, he immediately blurted out and asked: "Ruoli, what's the matter?!"

Ruoli said with a trembling voice: "Patriarch...our plane is surrounded by the Japanese Self-Defense Force..."

"What?!" Zynn felt dizzy when he heard this!

He secretly said in his heart: "It's over! This is over! The Su family has sent nearly a hundred people to Japan this time. Except for some support and auxiliary personnel, the real core masters are all on that plane!"

"It can be said that the more than fifty people on that plane represent at least 80% of the combat effectiveness of the Su family!"

"Especially Ruoli, this is a general who can be equal to one hundred!"

"If these people fall into the hands of the Japanese government, according to Japanese law, the principal offender should be properly sentenced to death, and the accessory should also be imprisoned for life..."

Thinking of this, Zynn almost ran away, and he tremblingly asked, "Ruoli, what is going on?! Did you leak the wind, or did a traitor appear inside?!"

Ruoli also said nervously, "Going home, don't know this now..."

At this time, the broadcast outside the plane continued: "This is the Japanese Self-Defense Force. You are restricted to immediately turn off the aircraft engine and open the door for investigation. Otherwise, we will resort to aggressive attack!"

The captain and deputy captain in the cockpit panicked first.

They can all see the gunship above the front, and the large-caliber cannon in front of the helicopter has been aimed at them.

In front of this kind of military weapon, the civil aviation airliner has absolutely no power to parry. If the engine is not turned off, the cannon on the helicopter can instantly turn the aircraft into a hornet's nest.

So they didn't care about asking Ruoli for instructions, and immediately turned off the aircraft engine.

Chapter 1854

At this time, the outside broadcast continued: "This is the Japanese Self-Defense Force. You are restricted to open all hatches immediately! Otherwise, our special forces will attack!"

The captain ran out of the cockpit at this time and said nervously: "The other party asked us to open the hatch. If we don't open it, we will be under attack!"

There was also chaos in the cabin.

These so-called super masters were completely panicked at this moment. Some people stood up in a panic, like a headless fly, pacing back and forth in the cabin, as if looking for a way to escape.

More than fifty people, like more than fifty cockroaches locked in a glass bottle, were so frightened that there was nothing to add!

Ruoli also panicked.

However, she knew very well in her heart that once the hatch was opened, it was tantamount to surrender!

The massacre of the Matsumoto family angered the whole of Japan. If she takes everyone to surrender, the Japanese government will not let them go, and will punish them with the harshest means possible...

However, if you don't surrender, the end will probably be even worse!

Because special forces all over the world basically adopt the same approach when fighting terrorism.

They will use directional bombs to blow open the doors and windows of the cabin, and then throw flash bombs and tear gas into the cabin.

Flash bombs will release extremely strong light instantly, blinding people's eyes in a short period of time. Once they lose their vision, they can only be slaughtered.

And tear gas is a double blow.

It not only makes people cough and loses combat effectiveness, but also makes people's eyes irritated and secretes a lot of tears, further destroying the opponent's vision.

The flash bombs and tear gas came in turns so many times, before the special forces rushed in, the people inside might not be able to hold it, climb out and surrender...

In despair, Ruoli asked Zynn on the other end of the phone, "Patriarch...you...what do you think we should do..."

"How to do....."

Zynn whispered feebly, all distressed are bleeding!

The elite of the Su family's core fighters are going to be wiped out!

The blow and influence this brought to the Su family was too great!

Moreover, in the next few years, it is impossible for the Su family to re-assemble such a team!

Even if it can, it will have to pay a huge cost!

The cost of attracting a top master is sometimes higher than attracting a hundred ordinary people!

With so many top players, the cost behind them is also astronomical.

What is even more depressing is that if these fifty people fall into the hands of the Japanese government, whether they are sentenced to death or life imprisonment, the Su family will have to pay their relatives a lot of living allowances all year round!

This is also the core method used by the Su Family to win over these masters.

The reason why they worked for the Su family was because the Su family promised their high salaries, and they also promised that in the event of an accident, the Su family would pay their family members a monthly subsidy of more than one million.

It was this kind of money spent at any cost that allowed the Su family to gather such a large number of top experts.

But now, once these fifty-odd people are captured by the Japanese government, their families will immediately become the oil bottle of the Su family!

Moreover, the Su family must not kick these oil bottles away, otherwise, no one will be devoted to the Su family in the future!

So, this time they really have to lose to grandma's house!

Chapter 1855

At the time when the two sides were deadlocked, the head of Japan's homeland security department had already flown to Osaka Airport by special plane.

With him, there was the Director of the TMPD.

Originally, they were under tremendous pressure and carried out a carpet investigation in Tokyo. They tried their best to catch the group of murderers, so that they could give the people an explanation and the high-level officials.

But what they didn't expect was that these murderers were more cunning than the foxes, and left no useful clues at all.

When they originally wanted to continue to expand their search range, they suddenly received a message from a mysterious man saying that the murderer had arrived in Osaka and would return to China by plane from Osaka. This shocked the people of the Department of Homeland Security!

If this group of people is really allowed to run away, this sensational massacre that caused a sensation across the country may not be broken for a lifetime.

At that time, the Japanese TMPD and the Homeland Security Department will be completely thrown into the mud, and even be scolded by thousands of people.

Therefore, the Homeland Security Department immediately made a decision to directly take over the case from the TMPD, and then notify the Self-Defense Forces in Osaka to take over and prevent the plane from taking off at all costs.

The Japanese Self-Defense Force has tens of thousands of troops stationed in Osaka. Upon receiving instructions from the Homeland Security Bureau, they immediately dispatched the most powerful special forces to Osaka Airport.

Moreover, the Homeland Security Department even made an emergency plan to prepare a fighter squadron.

If the special forces fail to stop the private jet and allow it to take off, the Japanese Self-Defense Force's F35 fighter jet will immediately take off, trying to force it to return to Osaka Airport and land before it leaves Japan's airspace.

At this time, the special plane of the Department of Homeland Security just stopped, the person in charge immediately picked up the phone and asked: "How is the situation on the scene now? Is the other party's plane under control?!"

On the phone, the voice of the operational commander came immediately: "Now the opponent's aircraft is surrounded by our square-wheeled armored vehicles, and there is no possibility of breaking through, but the opponent has not yet been captured, we are already preparing for a storm!"

"Okay!" The head of the Department of Homeland Security gritted his teeth and said, "Give them one more minute. If they don't surrender obediently, immediately carry out a live ammunition attack! This time we must kill these cruel desperadoes in one fell swoop and give it to all of Japan. The people will not care!"

Following his order, four boarding vehicles with boarding ladders slowly drove towards Su's plane from both sides.

Four combat squads with live ammunition have assembled under the plane. Once the boarding car is aimed at the cabin door, they will quickly rush up, blow up the cabin door, and use flash bombs and tear gas to conduct the first round of attack.

Their firearms have also been inspected. The all-American assault rifles have very powerful firepower. Once the fire is exchanged, these Su family's subordinates have no power to parry.

At this time, Ruoli, through the window, saw the boarding car approaching, she was already extremely nervous, but she still didn't think about what to do.

Someone around her panicked and proposed: "Let's open the hatch and surrender honestly. If they attack by force, the bullet will not be long-sighted!"

"Surrender?!" Someone immediately scolded angrily: "d*mn! I killed four of the Matsumoto family alone. Isn't surrendering equal to death? I will definitely be sentenced to death by then!"

"The death penalty does not matter!" Another person blurted out: "The execution cycle of the death penalty in Japan is very long. Do you know the Shinrikyo who committed terrorist attacks at Tokyo subway stations before? Their leader Shoko Asahara used sand in 1995. Lin Duqi attacked the Tokyo subway and shocked the world, but he was not executed until 2018, and it has been delayed for more than 20 years! Even if we are sentenced to death, we can at least live in prison for more than ten or twenty years. It's better than being shot to death right now, right?"

"Yes!" Someone stood up, clenched a fist and said, "With our strength, even if we go to prison, we can definitely become a hegemon in the prison. No one will bully us. Then we can live even in prison. Very comfortable, why don't you think about it now?"

The conversation between these people immediately convinced most people.

If you can live, no one is willing to give up the hope of survival.

Even living in prison is much better than dying on the spot.

So everyone looked at Ruoli and blurted out: "Miss Ruoli, let's surrender!"

Chapter 1856

"Yes! Surrender!"

"Leave the green hills, I'm not afraid that there will be no firewood!"

Zynn on the phone also gave a long sigh and said to Ruoli: "Ruoli, surrender, I will do everything possible to mediate with the Japanese side, and I will rescue you anyway..."

The string in Ruoli's mind was finally loosened. Although she was still unwilling, she nodded and said, "Patriarch, I know... you take care, if you can't Serving you is in control..."

Zynn was heartbroken, but he could only speak, "Trust me, I will definitely save you!"

"Well! I believe it!"

Ruoli said angrily, then hung up the phone and said to the flight attendant: "Okay, open the hatch!"

The flight attendant nodded immediately and opened the four front and rear hatches one after another.

Afterwards, they heard people shouting outside: "Everyone put your hands on top of your heads and line up to walk down the spiral staircase. Anyone who dares to play tricks will be killed on the spot!"

Ruoli sighed, stood up, and said to everyone with a sad expression: "It is also fate for everyone to work together, I hope you can take care of yourself!"

After speaking, she raised her hands above her head, and stepped out of the hatch first.

Outside the cabin, the helicopter kept roaring overhead, and the huge wind blew Ruoli's long hair and clothes.

Countless guns were pointed at her below, and someone shouted: "Come down slowly, put your hands on your head and let us see!"

Ruoli could only do so.

The moment she stepped down the spiral staircase, she was also flustered for her unknown future.

Because she didn't know what the end of waiting for herself was.

After all, she is the principal culprit. After being arrested, others will definitely confess her identity as the principal culprit.

If nothing else, the death penalty must be waiting for her. Unless Zynn can really save her, she will undoubtedly die.

When she stepped down the spiral staircase, several heavily armed self-defense team members rushed up and pressed her to the ground, then put her hands behind her back, and handcuffed her in handcuffs.

Immediately afterwards, the remaining fifty or so people stepped off the plane one after another, all of them were handcuffed back and squatting on the ground, the heads of the assault rifles against the back of the head.

Even the crew members were not spared, they were all caught by their accomplices.

Charlie stood in the cockpit of the plane behind, sneer in his heart as he watched the Su family get swept away.

These fifty-odd people are the claws and fangs of the Su family.

Now that they are all in the hands of the Japanese government, the Su family's vitality is greatly injured.

Su Family, I, Charlie, will definitely let you pay the price for the anti-wade Alliance back then!

Chapter 1857

After all the members of the Su family plane were under control, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces began to clear the ground and gradually restore order at the airport.

They first drove over three buses with steel protective nets welded to their windows, so that everyone including Ruoli, under the watch of the self-defense team, boarded one by one.

In order to prevent these people from escaping as much as possible, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces put two sets of handcuffs on everyone, besides, they also handcuffed them.

Not only that, but they also scattered these people and guarded them one-on-one.

The seat division on the bus has two seats on each side.

Therefore, every Su family in handcuffs was arranged to sit by the window, and then a self-defense team with live ammunition sat next to them to prevent them from having any chance to escape.

In addition, ten self-defense personnel armed with live ammunition were arranged in the corridor of the bus to guard all suspects in the vehicle. If there is any change, they will be shot and killed immediately.

Ruoli was leaning against the window with her face like ashes, looking out the window through the steel protective net.

The airport at this time was brightly lit.

For Ruoli, she should have taken off by plane and headed back home, but she never dreamed that she would become a prisoner.

She still couldn't figure out which link went wrong.

But she knew that she could not escape this time!

After a while, all of the Su family's men were escorted into the bus by the self-defense team.

As a result, the three buses started slowly under the escort of ten wheeled armored vehicles, ready to leave the airport.

In order to ensure that there are no accidents to the greatest extent, the Japanese Homeland Security Department plans to relocate all the more than 50 people from the Su family to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces station in Osaka.

There are tens of thousands of soldiers guarding them, and no one can rescue them from there.

When the bus drove away from the scene, it happened to pass by the plane that Charlie was on behind.

The Gulfstream plane Charlie took was a small plane with about ten seats, and the fuselage was not too high.

And Ruoli was sitting on the bus, further shortening the height difference between the two.

When passing by this Gulfstream plane, Ruoli looked at the plane's cockpit, just like looking at the cab of an off-road vehicle from an ordinary car.

Leaning against the window of the car, she was so desperate, she suddenly caught a glimpse of a man who was somewhat familiar standing in the cockpit of a Gulfstream plane passing by.

She glanced at it, angrily almost exploded on the spot!

Because she recognized that on that plane, the man who was looking at her playfully was the man who sat next to her when he came to Osaka from Tokyo!

"Why is he on a private jet?"

"And, it's still behind our plane?"

"Why does the look in his eyes seem to play with me?!"

"And, why would he pretend to be a squinting ordinary person on the plane?!"

Countless questions suddenly gathered in Ruoli's brain.

She suddenly realized that the person who leaked her whereabouts was most likely the Chinese who flew to Osaka with her!

Ruoli couldn't help asking herself: "Who is he?!"

Charlie was not afraid of being seen through by Ruoli at this time, he kept looking at her in the bus with a mocking look.

Chapter 1858

Seeing the other party getting closer and closer to him, Charlie had a frivolous smile on his mouth, looked at Ruoli, waved at her, and shouted: "Hi, beauty!"

Ruoli looked at him with cannibal eyes.

Although she couldn't hear what Charlie said, she could still easily recognize the mouth shape of the words Hi Beauty.

From Charlie's playful and ridiculous expressions, Ruoli realized that he was planted in the hands of this man.

She observed at Charlie fiercely with resentful eyes, and her teeth were almost crushed by her!

At the moment when the car and the plane interacted and the distance between the two was the shortest, Charlie made a decapitating gesture on his neck with his right hand.

This gesture made Ruoli immediately furious!

Suddenly she jumped up from her seat and shouted hoarsely: "Bad son! I will kill you myself!"

Charlie's hearing is much more sensitive than ordinary people, so he heard the woman's angry shout clearly.

Immediately, he smiled at Ruoli, and said with a smile: "I'm waiting for you!"

Ruoli recognized this mouth shape clearly, and was even more sure that Charlie was the culprit who harmed her and more than fifty subordinates.

At this moment, she couldn't wait to eat Charlie alive!

However, the reality does not give her any chance of revenge at all.

The convoy had already begun to accelerate at this time, and soon passed by Charlie, and after leaving the airport, it drove towards the Self-Defense Force station.

At the same time, the airport staff had driven the plane towing it away, and at the same time the tower began to direct the airport to resume normal operations.

The captain beside Charlie said: "The tower has approved us to go to the runway and take off!"

"Okay!" Charlie smiled slightly, and said with satisfaction: "I have been out for so many days, it's time to go back!"

The plane quickly taxied to the end of the runway, then continued to accelerate on the runway, and finally took off and left Japan.

All TV stations across the country are broadcasting major news urgently at this time. During the news, the host excitedly introduced to the audience that the Tokyo Matsumoto family killing case shocked the whole country, 57 suspects have been arrested!

The news also specifically broadcast real shots of the capture scene.

The shocking scene of multiple armed helicopters, wheeled armored vehicles, and self-defense team members encircling the entire aircraft is indeed jaw-dropping.

Soon, the news spread throughout Japan.

Zynn was in a hot spring hotel in Aomori Prefecture at this time. After reading this news, he angrily smashed everything that could be smashed in the hotel room, including the TV hanging on the wall!

This time, the Su family not only suffered heavy losses, but also disgraced!

really!

The old Chengfeng, who was in Eastcliff, had received the news for the first time.

He called and blurted out and asked: "What's the matter?! What's the matter?! More than 50 people are captured by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces?! How did you lead the team?! If I didn't completely hand it over to you, you caused me such a disaster. You are trying to piss me off!"

Zynn suppressed the anger in his heart, and said in pain, "Dad! don't know what is going on, don't know who leaked the wind, but you should know that I don't want to see this scene more than you!"

As he said, he firmly grasped his hair with one hand, gritted his teeth and said word by word: "Although Ruoli's identity is shameful, she is my flesh and blood after all, and now even she has been arrested. It is very likely that she will be sentenced to death by the Japanese government. Do you understand what I feel, I am a father?"

Ruoli is only 21 years old this year.

Her actual age is one year younger than Zhiyu.

However, from her birth until the age of eighteen, Zynn didn't know her existence.

Ruoli's biological mother, whose real name is Roma, is the eldest daughter of the He family of China's four major martial arts families and one of Zynn's personal bodyguards.

Roma was not only beautiful, but also very capable. She was almost the leader of the Su family bodyguards at the time.

She was three years older than Zynn. When Zynn was fifteen years old, he went abroad to study. For his safety, Chengfeng asked the He family to come over and became Zynn's personal bodyguard.

That year, Roma was eighteen years old and had just grown up.

Since that year, she has been with Zynn.

Accompany him abroad, accompany him to study, accompany him to hone his family business, and accompany him to travel around the world.

Even when Zynn frantically pursued his current wife Liona, Roma had been secretly guarding.

She joined the world to protect Zynn when he was ignorant, and had been guarding him for more than ten years. She had no understanding of other men at all, so it was natural for her to have a secret love for Zynn, who she was most familiar with.

Roma has always kept this love in her heart because of the differences in their identities, ages, and family background.

Until Zynn married Liona, Roma, who was nearly 30 years old, still didn't reveal what she thought of him.

In the second year of Zhiyu's birth, Zynn was 30 and Roma was 33. Zynn encountered a plot overseas. Roma tried her best to save him at the risk of her life, but she herself lost an arm because of this.

Roma, who became a disabled person, had a sharp decline in combat capability, so Zynn had to let her retire and return to her home early.

When Roma was leaving, Zynn was also persevering.

After all, for the 30-year-old at the time, Roma had been with him almost every step of half of his life.

Therefore, he asked Roma if there was anything he could do for her.

Roma hesitated again and again, expressing the feelings she had buried in her heart for many years.

Zynn, who is usually hard-hearted, was also moved by Roma's confession.

That night, he had an excuse to go out and spent the night out with Roma.

After that night, Roma left Zynn and returned to her hometown in Northeast China.

After more than nine months, Ruoli fell to the ground.

Ruoli did not have the surname Su at first, but followed her mother's surname.

The so-called Ruoli means Ruo Zhi Ruoli.

It also represents Roma's special feeling for Zynn in her heart.

Ruoli has been held in the palm of the hand by the He family since she was a child. She has never been to school. From the age of two to eighteen, she has been practicing ancient martial arts.

Therefore, at the age of eighteen, she surpassed her mother at the age of eighteen and became the strongest young woman in the He family.

After becoming an adult at the age of eighteen, Roma told her, her life experience.

In Roma's description, Zynn is a good father who values love and justice. The reason why he never cared about Ruoli is because he never knew her existence.

Therefore, Roma gave Ruoli two choices.

Stay and continue to practice martial arts in He's family;

Or leave home to work for her biological father.

Chapter 1860

Ruoli considered for a long time and chose the latter.

Because she can faintly realize that this is the path her mother hopes to choose.

So, Roma changed her name to Ruoli Su, and then she was recommended to Zynn.

Zynn didn't know Ruoli's life experience at the beginning, but felt that this girl was extraordinary in strength, a manufacturable, and very much like Roma back then.

Ruoli also obeyed her mother's instructions, and didn't want Zynn to know this, but the old and cunning Chengfeng saw some clues from Ruoli.

He always felt that the look in Zynn's eyes was something wrong with this young girl.

This kind of wrong made him vigilant.

He was afraid that Ruoli was an undercover agent sent by his opponent, so he asked people to thoroughly investigate Ruoli's identity.

Going up the source step by step, he finally found Roma's body.

After learning that Ruoli might be Zynn's daughter, the father ordered someone to collect the hair of the two and quietly compare the DNA.

After getting the definite result, he told Zynn all this.

Zynn's first reaction was shock, and his second reaction was moved.

He is really why Roma is moved by his feelings.

After that night that year, she not only gave birth to his daughter, but also cultivated her into a talent, and quietly sent her back to him to protect him.

However, he was also worried about Ruoli's identity.

After all, Ruoli is the illegitimate daughter of his derailed marriage.

If he lets his wife, children, and others know Ruoli's identity, then his image in their minds will be greatly reduced.

Moreover, with the wife's character, she will definitely choose to divorce him without hesitation.

Even with this mistake, nearly two decades have passed.

After the Old Master discussed with him, the two thought of a solution, pretending not to know.

Since Ruoli didn't want to disclose her identity and recognize him as the father, he didn't need to take the initiative to recognize this daughter.

Everyone keeps secrets in their hearts, and everything in life will not be affected by this.

In the past few years, Zynn took special care of Ruoli and even trained her as a leader of the Su family master team.

He felt that even if he couldn't show Ruoli a fatherly love, he must arrange her future properly so that she could realize her own life value in Su's house, and let her become a master in the future, and not worry about food and clothing.

But he never expected that a trip to Japan would ruin all of Ruoli's future, even her life.

So, how can he not suffer at this moment!

Chengfeng could understand his mood at this time. He was silent for a while, and sighed after a long while, saying: "The current situation is very unfavorable for the Su family. We have lost so many people at once. This matter will spread before dawn. All over the country, now we are like tigers with broken teeth. I am worried that the Wade family will be the first one to be unable to hold back! So you can't get too distracted by this matter, it's best to come back to China right away and discuss it together!"

Zynn choked and said, "Dad, I have a request, and I hope you can agree to it!"

Chengfeng hummed, "Say it, I'll listen to it!"

Zynn observed him and said, "At all costs, we must rescue Ruoli!"

Chengfeng said with emotion: "Zynn, this matter is really too ruthless! It is tantamount to slap the Japanese government in the face of the whole world. They will definitely deal with this kind of thing severely. If she is rescued, the cost may be too high for you to imagine!"

Zynn said seriously: "Ruoli's implementation is what I meant, so I am at fault in this matter!"

He said, "The Japanese government just wanted to catch the murderer and ensure justice, and give the people an account. They arrested more than fifty of our people, and one of the fifty-something is released. The core purpose has no effect, is it always okay to sell face?"

Chapter 1861

"Selling face?"

When Chengfeng heard this, he said with some emotion: "In this world, everything can be clearly priced. People say that the crime of killing his father is greater than the sky. Then you give him 100 million, ten 100 million, or even 10 billion, 100 billion, there is always a price that can move him."

After that, he changed his words: "But! The key is how much money it costs to buy this face? If it really costs 10 billion, or even 100 billion, do you want to buy it too?"

Zynn fell silent all at once.

He really wanted to save Ruoli.

Ruoli, she is her own flesh and blood. Tiger poison still doesn't eat her, how can he watch her die?

Ruoli, is the top master of the Su family, and she is still young, if she can be rescued, then she can make a great contribution to the Su family in the future.

However, no matter whether it is sentiment or reason, the cost must always be weighed before calculating the plan to be implemented.

If it is really necessary to pay a price of tens of billions or hundreds of billions, the Su family may not agree to it.

After all, apart from him and the Old Master, no one in the Su family knew that Ruoli was his daughter, and they thought it was a subordinate of the Su family.

It's fair to spend tens of millions for a subordinate. A top expert like Ruoli spends a few hundred million, and he just bites his teeth and accepts it.

But if you really want to spend more money, this matter will be clearly out of balance in the eyes of outsiders. At that time, even if they barely accept it, they will definitely wonder if there is any hidden truth in it.

Seeing that he fell silent, Chengfeng said with comfort: "Zynn, if Ruoli is the flesh and blood of the Su family, your daughter, and my granddaughter, I certainly hope that she will be safe, but when doing business, we must weigh the pros and cons in everything. Disadvantages, or advantages equal disadvantages, can be done, but if the disadvantages outweigh the advantages, don't force it."

Zynn asked in anguish: "Dad, tell me, how much cost and price the Su family is willing to bear for Ruoli? We also paid a great price to rescue Zhifei and Zhiyu this time..."

Chengfeng thought for a while, and said: "if Ruoli is illegitimate after all, her identity is shameful, so I can't equate her with Zhiyu. Let's do it, within one billion, so that the accounting can be hidden. High, it's troublesome for other people or your wife to ask."

Zynn hesitated for a moment and said, "Well, I will try it first, and I will fly to Osaka after a while to see if I can find the key person to mediate."

Chengfeng said: "Don't go. The Japanese government has long known that you are behind the scenes, but they don't want to get into trouble with Su's family for the time being, so they won't go further after arresting those who did it. But if you still don't understand a little bit and leave Japan as soon as possible, in case there are changes in this matter, if someone among our people confessed your name, I'm afraid the Japanese government will change their mind and take you!"

Zynn thought for a while, and felt that Dad's words made sense.

In this situation, the Japanese government has more or less sold the Su family for a little bit of face. As long as the murderer is brought to justice, they can not hold the Su family accountable.

But if he doesn't keep a low profile at this time, and instead goes to Osaka and try every means to mediate and save people, then he might be a bit shameless in the eyes of the Japanese government.

When the time comes, the Japanese government's lack of security will turn its face.

Thinking of this, he sighed and said, "I know Dad. I will fly back from Aomori early tomorrow morning."

Chapter 1862

"Yeah." Chengfeng said: "You have to adjust yourself, don't put all your thoughts on Ruoli. Now the Su family's trouble is even greater. After returning, we will have a meeting to discuss the feasible solutions at this stage. The plan, if we don't quickly fill up the lost power, some families will be ready to move!"

"Ok, I see!"

.....

At this moment.

Eastcliff, Wade family.

The major news of the Su family in Japan has instantly detonated the entire Eastcliff public opinion.

All the families were shocked by this news, because no one expected that the Su family, as the top family in China, would suffer such a big loss and encounter such a big failure in Japan.

However, this news is a piece of huge bad news for the Su family, but for other families, it is a piece of good news that cannot be better!

The strength of the Su Family in Eastcliff is indeed too strong. Except for the Wade Family's barely able to fight them, the gap between the other families and them can be described as heaven and earth.

Now the strength of the Su family has been severely damaged. For other families, the gap with the Su family has naturally narrowed, so everyone is naturally happy to watch the Su family's jokes.

Among them, the Wade Family was naturally the most excited one, not all of them.

Zhongquan was pacing back and forth in the living room of the villa with excitement, saying, "The masters of the Su family have always been a problem to my heart, especially that Ruoli, young and strong, scary, and capable of doing things. She is very strong, and the execution is outrageous. She has always been a thorn in my eye and a thorn in my flesh. I didn't expect that this time the full fold will be in Japan! It is great!"

"Yeah!" Andrew on the side was also full of excitement: "The Su family is really losing money this time. The top masters have been swept up by Japan. For a long time in the future, they will all have their tails in their hands!"

Zhongquan nodded and asked him, "How is Morgan talking with Takehiko?"

Andrew shrugged: "Morgan met Takehiko at the hospital, but Takehiko doesn't seem to be interested in continuing this business at this stage, so he doesn't seem to be too caring."

Zhongquan said: "It is understandable. After all, even ordinary people may not accept this kind of thing after losing their legs. What's more, Takehiko, Japan's top rich man, is understandable to face a period of depression."

Andrew asked again: "Then should I let Morgan come back, or let him stay in Tokyo to see?"

Zhongquan thought for a while and said, "Let him stay in Tokyo first, and then visit Takehiko in two days. Maybe his attitude will loosen. Now there are still a few days before the Chinese New Year. Let Morgan stay in Tokyo until the twelfth lunar month. Then come back again."

"Okay." Andrew nodded and said, "Cynthia will go to Aurous Hill tomorrow morning. It would be great if Charlie is willing to come back for the New Year!"

Cynthia chuckled and said casually: "It is good if Charlie is willing to come back. If not, we can't force it..."

Zhongquan said very seriously: "The Wade family itself is not considered prosperous. If Charlie is willing to come back, it will not only give the Wade family a boost, but also lock us in a marriage partner in advance. I dare not say that he can do it. Zhiyu from the Su family, but at least that Sara from the Gu family is within easy reach. Marriage with the Gu family is not bad. At least the two can be combined to suppress the Su family!"

Chapter 1863

Charlie's plane landed safely at Aurous Hill Airport at around ten o'clock that night.

In order to give Claire a surprise, he didn't tell her of his coming back tonight.

Issac had already arranged the convoy to pick up from the plane, so when everyone got off the plane, they shared several cars and went home.

Orvel and Liang left separately, and Issac took the initiative to drive Charlie back to Tomson, Charlie naturally did not refuse.

After getting in the car, Issac smiled and said to him as he drove, "Master this time we made the Su family so miserable. If the Su family knows about it, I'm afraid it will be desperate with us..."

"It doesn't matter." Charlie said with a smile: "The Su family is now hard to protect itself. It has lost so many people. It will not be able to recover in a few years. It must be overwhelming in recent years.

"This is..." Issac sighed: "Ruoli, who was so distracted by the people of Eastcliff, was also brought in by you. The Su family really suffered a heavy loss this time."

"Ruoli?" Charlie frowned and asked, "Who is Ruoli?"

Issac said: "This is the woman you greeted on the plane. She is Su Ruoli, one of the strongest players in the Su family."

"Oh?" Charlie asked curiously: "Is she the heir of the Su family?"

"No." Issac said: "She just happened to be Su. She joined the Su family at the age of 18 and it has only been three years now. However, in the past three years, there has been a lot of noise, and the strength is really intolerable."

Charlie nodded lightly and smiled: "Unfortunately, I don't have a chance to discuss with her."

Issac laughed and said, "Master she is also a master among ordinary people. How can she be compared with you? If you just say a word of thunder, I think Ruoli will turn to ashes!"

Charlie said indifferently: "Thunder this kind of thing can't be used too often, I have the opportunity in the future, I still hope to learn from real martial arts masters."

Issac said: "The national martial arts masters are basically in Eastcliff. Some serve the top families."

Charlie smiled slightly: "If I have the opportunity, I can go to Eastcliff again."

While talking, Issac's cell phone rang suddenly.

He kept his cell phone on the cell phone holder in the car. He looked down and exclaimed: "Master it is your aunt who is calling..."

"My aunt?" Charlie frowned, and the image of a young woman appeared in his mind.

He had an impression of his aunt. Aunt Cynthia was two years younger than his father. She was not close to his father before, and naturally she was not so close to a family of three.

In his memory, his aunt was a relatively snobby woman, because she felt that the uncle was the eldest son, so the aunt had been close to him since he was a child.

Moreover, because the uncle and dad were a little uncomfortable, the aunt stood in the uncle's camp. Before, she always tried every means to help the uncle run against his dad. This was what bored Charlie.

Issac was also a little puzzled at this time, saying: "I have no contact with your aunt. Don't know why she called me suddenly, so I will answer it first."

"Good." Charlie exhorted: "Don't disclose any information about me."

"OK Master!"

Issac said, reaching out and pressing the answer button.

As soon as the phone call connected, he respectfully said: "Hello, Miss Wade!"

Issac was a subordinate of the Wade family, and the subordinates were called by the main family. Except for the Old Master, Andrew, Changying and Cynthia were all major members.

Chapter 1864

As for Charlie's generation, they are generally called Young Master and Young Miss.

On the phone, Cynthia spoke with a high-pitched tone, "Issac, are you in Aurous Hill recently?"

Issac hurriedly said respectfully: "Miss back, I'm in Aurous Hill."

Cynthia gave a hum, and said, "Tomorrow, vacate the presidential suite of Shangri-La Hotel, and arrange for a convoy to pick me up from the airport. I will fly there in the morning."

Cynthia usually travels by private jet, so there is no specific departure time at all.

Get up early and go a little earlier; get up late and go a little later.

After listening, Issac asked in surprise: "Miss, you are coming to Aurous Hill?! Don't know what else needs to be prepared next?"

Cynthia asked, "What has Charlie been up to lately?"

"Young Master..." Issac glanced at Charlie, who was expressionless in the back seat, through the rearview mirror of the car, and said: "He is not busy, he should be at home with his wife. Right."

Cynthia said in a somewhat contemptuous tone: "The dignified young master of the Wade family, it's not fine to join a low-class family in a third-rate city. Gave him an Emgrand group. If he doesn't manage it well, he only knows how to stay home with his wife and do housework every day. Pathetic!"

Issac was embarrassed and didn't know how to answer the conversation for a while. After thinking for a while, he asked, "Miss, are you here this time to see Young Master?"

"Right." Cynthia said, "Tomorrow night, let Charlie come to Shangri-La to see me, so I will invite him to dinner."

Issac hurriedly said, "Oh, well, I'll talk to him later."

"Yeah." Cynthia said: "By the way, I am a person who recognizes a bed when sleeping. What brand of bed does the Master bedroom of your presidential suite use?"

Issac thought for a while and said: "It seems to be the black label series of Simmons in the United States, all imported with original packaging."

Cynthia blurted out: "Replace it! Change to a bed from Swedish Heisteng, and ask for their high-end series."

Heisteng's bedding can be said to be the most expensive bed in the world. Any entry-level mattress costs hundreds of thousands, and a high-end series mattress costs millions.

If you add the bed frame, at least two million.

Even a five-star hotel would not use such an expensive bed.

But now that Cynthia has spoken, Issac can only agree and say: "Miss, Aurous Hill might not have a Heisteng store. In this way, I will arrange for someone to buy it at Zhonghai tomorrow morning, and then drive it back to replace it."

"Yeah." Cynthia's voice sounded satisfactory, and continued: "Yes, there are quilts. I want to cover the quilt made of Icelandic goose down. Arrange it as well for me."

Iceland goose down is the world's top and most precious and rarest top down. It uses soft down on the breast and underarms of the Iceland goose duck. It is very precious and is made into a quilt, which costs at least one million.

In other words, if Cynthia came to stay one night, just preparing the bed and quilt would cost at least three million.

Issac did not dare to have any doubts, and immediately said: "OK eldest lady, I will do everything tomorrow."

Cynthia hummed: "Okay, so be it, I'll hang up."

After speaking, she directly hung up the phone.

Charlie frowned at this moment and asked: "My aunt, suddenly coming to see me, what kind of medicine is sold in the gourd?"

Chapter 1865

Hearing Charlie's question, Issac was also puzzled: "Master to be honest, don't know your aunt. In my capacity, it's actually difficult to have direct contact with the Wade family's direct members. Steward Stephen will have more daily contact with them. Why don't you call and ask him?"

Charlie waved his hand and said indifferently: "Forget it, it doesn't make sense to call and ask. Soldiers will stop you and the water will cover you. Let's see what she wants to do first."

Issac asked again: "Then will you go to dinner with her tomorrow?"

Charlie nodded: "Go, if you set a time, tell me directly when the time comes, and you won't use it to pick me up, I will come by myself."

"Ok!"

Charlie thought of his aunt's previous appearance. In his mind, she was a relatively mean and evil woman. When he was five years old, she married a young master from a quasi-first-line family in Eastcliff, and later gave birth to a son. Don't know his name.

So Charlie asked Issac: "Old man, what is the status of my aunt at Wade's house now? It stands to reason that she is married, so she should not be able to intervene in family's affairs anymore?"

Issac replied truthfully: "Master your aunt has separated from her lover a long time ago, and since the separation, she moved back to the family."

Charlie frowned and asked, "Separated? What's the matter?"

Issac chuckled and said, "In fact, we shouldn't say such things, but since you asked, Master I will tell you..."

Immediately, Issac gave a slight pause and explained: "When your Aunt married to the Sun family, although the Sun family is not as good as the Wade family, it is still a quasi-first-line family in the entire Eastcliff family. The overall strength is also very good. However. Six or seven years ago, the Sun family bet on the steel industry and invested a lot of money to build a steel group. It coincided with the continuous collapse of the steel industry, so the Sun family also lost a lot of money, and the family industry lost at least half of its assets."

Speaking of this, Issac smiled helplessly: "Since the sun's family was gone, your aunt had always wanted to get a divorce, but Master Wade felt that the divorce was detrimental, so he didn't let her leave. Fortunately, your aunt moved from the sun's family. Come out, went back to the Wade family, and then start working in the family again."

Charlie nodded lightly and hummed: "It seems that my aunt is not a fuel-efficient lamp."

Issac smiled and said: "Your aunt's temper is really bad, and she is also famous in Eastcliff, so when you meet with her tomorrow, if there is something wrong, don't be too impulsive."

"Okay, I see." Charlie smiled faintly and said: "In fact, I can guess without thinking, she probably wants me to return to Wade's house."

"Yes." Issac agreed and said: "I think so, but steward Stephen said that Master Wade really wants you to go back. Considering that you may be more resistant at first, so it didn't make this matter clear."

Charlie smiled and said, "This time the Su family's accident, the Wade family should be very happy, right?"

Issac also smiled and said, "You really did a great favor to the Wade family. The Su family has not suffered such a big loss in many years. Master should be very happy."

Charlie put away his smile, sighed, and his eyes became more determined and said: "These two families, whichever one is the only one, is cheaper than the other. One day, if I can step on them together, it will be considered a real success!"

.....

When Issac drove to the door of Tomson, it was already eleven o'clock at night.

Charlie carried the suitcase, walked into Tomson alone, came to the door of his villa, swiped his card directly into the yard.

The room was brightly lit. Charlie opened the door directly with fingerprints before his wife and father-in-law were asleep.

At this time, Claire, Jacob and Elaine's family of three are sitting in the living room, watching TV intently.

Chapter 1866

Claire heard the door ring, turned her head and found that it is Charlie. She ran over to him in surprise, and exclaimed in excitement: "Husband, why are you back today? Yesterday you said I might have to wait for two more days?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Can't I surprise you!"

After speaking, Claire ran up to him and plunged into his arms.

In the past few days that Charlie went to Japan, Claire missed him every night.

Before that, she rarely felt this way.

Charlie missed her when he went to Eastcliff, but she didn't think so much.

Therefore, when she saw Charlie suddenly come back, she ignored her all-time reservedness and hugged him directly.

Charlie didn't expect that his wife would hug him directly in front of the old man and mother-in-law, and for a while, he was a little delighted and embarrassed.

So, he said to Claire: "Wife, if you want to hug, you have to wait until we return to the room. After all, your parents are still watching."

Claire also recovered and blushed all of a sudden.

She was a little shy and fearful and said: "We just watched TV. It turned out that there was a massacre that killed more than 30 people in Japan a few days ago. It is really scary!"

Charlie asked in surprise: "Has it been reported in China?"

"Yeah!" Claire nodded and said seriously: "Several TV stations are broadcasting, and it seems that they are still sending out troops to arrest suspects at the airport. They at once arrested three buses. The law and order seems terrible. Now, I know if it was so messy over there, and I won't let you go if I knew anything!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't know how messy there is, but it should be an accident."

Elaine had already run over happily at this time and said excitedly: "Oh my dear son-in-law, you are finally back! You don't know how much your mom missed you when you went to Japan these days!"

Jacob immediately dismantled the platform from the side and hummed: "You don't miss Charlie, you are thinking about what he brought you!"

Elaine immediately glared at Jacob and cursed: "Jacob, you don't bullsh*t! I said it from the bottom of my heart. Even if my good son-in-law doesn't bring me anything, I miss him!"

Elaine finished cursing in this voice, immediately turned to look at Charlie, and asked with a smile: "Good son-in-law, have you come back this time, have you brought a gift for mom?"

Charlie nodded: "Take it, take it all."

With that, he took out the gift he bought.

He first took out the ring that was bought for Claire, handed it to his wife's hand, and said, "My wife, this is for you. Open it!"

Claire asked in surprise, "What is it?"

Charlie smiled and said, "You'll know by unpacking and taking a look."

Elaine also hurriedly urged: "Claire, you quickly open it, and let Mom open her eyes to see what gift the good son-in-law has prepared for you!"

Chapter 1867

Seeing that Elaine was already full of eagerness, Charlie put the suitcase on the ground and was about to open it.

Elaine, who was on the side, could no longer hold it back, squatted down and said flatteringly: "Oh, my son-in-law, how can this kind of thing be bothering you? Mom will help you get it!"

Charlie smiled helplessly and did not object.

Elaine opened the box and saw a huge boss bag on the top. She couldn't help but said, "Hey, this boss should be men's clothing, right?"

Charlie nodded and said, "This is the suit I picked for dad. He is the standing director of the Painting and Calligraphy Association now. He always has social activities and so on. He is also a leader, and he is a little dignified to go out!"

Jacob was excited on the side: "Oh, Charlie, you are really a good son-in-law of Dad! Dad has always wanted to buy a suit that can be worn out to drink tea, but I have been reluctant to start, but I did not expect you to do it for Dad! Thank you so much!"

Elaine curled her lips, took out the suit bag and threw it at Jacob's feet in disdain, and said contemptuously: "Your old thing is also worthy of such a good suit? Look at your old face, are you worthy?"

Jacob angrily said, "Why am I not worthy? I am in my early 50s and I haven't gotten blessed yet. Unlike you, the whole body is out of shape!"

"What are you talking about?!" Elaine suddenly exploded, and blurted out: "You dare to say that I am out of shape?! Aren't you tired of life and crooked?"

Jacob hurriedly shrank his neck and said angrily, "I was just kidding..."

Elaine glared at him fiercely, and then said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, what boss suit do you buy for him? Just his old thing, wearing a fake is worthy of him. I saw you last time. The fake Rolex you found for him is not bad, and it's good enough to match his bad Old Master!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Mom, Dad's suit doesn't have much money. It's a discount. The gift I bought for you is much more expensive than this."

When Elaine heard this, she immediately smiled and said happily: "Really? Ouch! My good son-in-law loves me! What gift did you buy for mom, show it to mom!"

Charlie took out the two Tiffany boxes, and handed the larger one to Elaine.

"Mom, this is for you."

Elaine looked at the Tiffany logo on the package and immediately danced with excitement: "Oh! Tiffany! This...this is a big international brand!"

Having said that, she immediately opened the package and couldn't wait.

After that, she opened the exquisite Tiffany jewelry box again, and when she glanced at it, she found a golden bracelet full of diamonds lying inside, and she was suddenly surprised!

"d*mn! I know this bracelet! It sells for hundreds of thousands in China! It's certainly not cheap to buy in Japan?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Mom likes it, it doesn't matter if it costs more money or less."

Elaine smiled: "Why don't I say that my son-in-law is the best!"

After finishing speaking, hurried up and put the bracelet on her hand, and watch carefully from all angles under the light. While observing, she exclaimed: "This Tiffany thing is done well! The workmanship is fine, and there is no fault at all! It's so good with my temperament in my hands."

Although Jacob secretly curled his lips on the side, he did not dare to say anything ironically.

At this time, Charlie took out another smaller gift box from the suitcase and handed it to his wife.

Chapter 1868

"My wife, this is for you, open it and see if you like it!"

Claire was surprised and said: "Bought it for me too? Husband, it is not easy for you to make money. I usually don't see you spend money for yourself, and you always buy things for me when you go out..."

Elaine hurriedly said: "Silly girl, Charlie is an absolute model of a good man who loves you, admires you, and spoils you! Look at your dad, this old stingy man. When did he give me any valuable things? ?"

Jacob said angrily: "You used to control the financial power of the family. I don't even have pocket money. What can I give you something?"

Elaine sipped: "I'm pooh! Even if the husband has no money, he will do everything possible to give things to his wife. How about you? You will make excuses for having no money. Haven't you hidden private money yourself for so many years?"

Jacob picked up the suit Charlie gave him and hummed: "I won't tell you about these useless ones. I will go back to my room and try the suit my good son-in-law bought me! It happens that the Calligraphy and Painting Association will have activities tomorrow. I will wear this new suit then?!"

Claire had already carefully unpacked the gift box.

When she saw a brilliant diamond ring in the jewelry box, she was shocked and covered her mouth!

Elaine's eyes widened several times and exclaimed: "Mom! Such a big diamond?! Should it be a three carat?!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Then you really know the goods, the main diamond on this ring is 3.2 carats!"

"Oh!!!"

Elaine felt her scalp numb, and exclaimed: "So big?! This is not a millions?!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Renminbi is only eight hundred thousand!"

"It's only eight hundred thousand?!" Elaine touched her chest, and said with emotion: "My dear! My son-in-law is really good at it! Eight hundred thousand diamond ring, only eight hundred thousand, really. Great wealth! Great! Great!"

Claire beside her couldn't help being shocked, and said, "Charlie, you are busy running around every day, and it is not easy to make money. Why buy me such expensive things... The ring is so expensive, I can't wear it out, isn't it a waste of money..."

Charlie said seriously: "My wife, we have been married for so long and haven't bought you a ring. Just treat this ring as my belated wedding ring for you!"

Claire's eyes were moved with tears.

She looked at Charlie and choked: "If you really want to buy a wedding ring, then you can buy one for 20,000 or 30,000. Don't buy such an expensive one..."

As she said, she wiped her tears and continued: "And look at you...every time you just buy things for me and parents, but never buy things for yourself, how can I live in my heart? Go willingly..."

Charlie smiled slightly, took out the ring, and took his wife's right hand, and said seriously: "Claire, it is my blessing to marry you. Thank you for your persistence for so many years. This ring is what I, as your husband owe you, now I will make up for it, you must accept it!"

"Yeah!" Elaine also helped to echo: "Daughter, look at how good Charlie is and takes care of you so much! You must have a good time with Charlie. The most important thing is to have a baby quickly!"

Claire was still moved by Charlie's affectionate confession, but when she heard this, she blushed immediately.

At this time, Charlie carefully put the ring on her right ring finger and said with a smile: "Wife, company is the most affectionate confession, thank you for being with me all these years!"

Chapter 1869

At this time, Claire was already moved to tears.

Looking back on the years of marrying Charlie, she was also filled with emotion deep in her heart.

Back then, grandpa insisted on letting her marry Charlie, she didn't understand, and the whole family strongly opposed it, but grandpa still used his Carden to make her compromise.

However, forced marriage made her misunderstand marriage from the beginning.

After marrying Charlie, the marriage she thought was to follow her grandfather's request and be Charlie's wife. The two would live together like that. It didn't matter whether it was suitable or not, it didn't matter whether she liked it or not.

Therefore, the two have respected each other for a long period of time. Although they are nominally husband and wife, they are actually just strangers living under the same roof.

Especially when he first got married, Claire also suffered strong pressure from all sides because of Charlie's identity.

At that time, everyone was in her ears and kept telling her: Charlie is a Rubbish, a d*ck, and a rubbish. She shouldn't be with Charlie, and divorce Charlie quickly.

But for her at that time, since she chose to marry him, no matter whether she was willing or not, she didn't want to embark on the road to divorce.

After all, Charlie has never done anything to miss.

Later, in her post-marriage life with Charlie, she gradually saw the shining points on Charlie's body, and gradually developed a little affection.

However, she has never understood what it is like to like and love.

After all, Claire had never been in a relationship before, and she was relatively ignorant and stupid about feelings, so that the two of them had been so confused to this day.

And now, facing Charlie's affectionate confession, she suddenly felt a feeling of extreme acceleration in her heartbeat, which made her short of breath and dizzy.

Of course, she was moved to tears.

Elaine on the side saw this scene with joy in her heart.

She really felt that Charlie was indeed a good son-in-law who could stand the test.

In the past, those rich second generations who liked Claire, although they were extremely flattering to her, there were few who could really do Charlie's steps.

Looking back in the past, she treated Charlie so much and insulted him so much. He still took his respect for his mother-in-law and always called her a mother. From this point of view, Charlie is a good young man who repays his grievances with virtue.

What's more, she has repeatedly caused serious disasters, and in the end it was Charlie who helped her settle, and even saved her life more than once. These are classic models for repaying morality!

The most important thing is that Charlie is finally promising now.

A Tomson villa worth more than 100 million and two BMW cars were all earned by Charlie. Every time he went out to show others Feng Shui, he would buy her many expensive gifts.

Such a son-in-law, to be honest, is really hard to find with a lantern.

Moreover, he is really good and caring for her daughter, which is even more rare.

So she hurriedly said to Claire: "Claire, Charlie must be tired after flying back so late. You two should go back to the room and take a shower together and go to bed early!"

"Ah?" Claire was startled, her face flushed immediately, and said at a loss: "Mom...you...what are you talking about...what together... a bath..."

Elaine said solemnly: "Isn't it normal for a couple to take a bath together? It just so happens that the bathroom in our big villa also has a luxurious bathtub. That bathtub is suitable for two people. You can also wipe Charlie's back or something. , How great..."

Claire was so embarrassed that she couldn't wait to get in.

Although she is now more than 20 years old, in fact, she is still a little girl who has never been in a relationship before.

Elaine suddenly asked her to take a bath with Charlie and asked her to wipe Charlie's back. She couldn't adapt at all, she was ashamed and embarrassed.

Chapter 1870

Charlie knew that his wife was a shy woman, and she had no experience in that aspect. How could she be able to hold Elaine's ridicule.

So he hurriedly said: "Mom, at first she feels thin-skinned, so don't shame her."

Elaine smiled and said, "Claire, have you seen it? Charlie thinks more of you!"

As she said, she stretched her waist and said, "I won't talk to you anymore. I have to go back to my room and take pictures of my bracelet. You guys should rest early!"

While talking, Jacob walked out of the elevator wearing a brand-new boss suit.

As soon as he saw the three of them, he walked around the elevator entrance with a smug look, and smiled: "Look, the old Willson still has some foundation, this suit is almost tailor-made, you just say I have this figure. It's rare in the world to be blessed in the fifties!"

At this time, Jacob, wearing a high-end and decent suit, did look very stylish. In addition, he did a good job in body management. At first glance, he really did not look like a person in his 50s.

But Charlie knew very well in his heart that Jacob was actually a lazy man, and he didn't exercise much at all. The reason why he could keep his figure so good was completely tortured by Elaine for so many years.

Although Elaine has converged a lot now, the former Elaine is simply a female devil. Whoever puts on a wife like this will be awful and dying. She is bored and bored every day. She doesn't even have any appetite for eating, and she doesn't want to gain weight. It's too impossible.

So Charlie praised: "Dad, you are dressed like this, and you look like you are forty years old. You really have a very good temperament!"

"Yeah! Hehehe!" Jacob smiled triumphantly, and said: "When I was in college back then. It was also a famous school grass, not much worse than those little fresh meats now!"

Claire shook her head helplessly: "Dad, when can you be a little humble? If you say this, it will make people laugh!"

Jacob curled his lips and said, "What are you afraid of? Your father, I put it in the pile of old men. That is definitely one of the best. To use an idiom to describe it, it's called a triumphant crowd!"

Elaine looked at Jacob, who was young and styled, and felt really uncomfortable.

She couldn't help thinking in her heart: "Jacob's dog stuff, it's really like that to clean his my figure, he has been getting blessed all these years, and he is getting a little out of control! During this period of time at home, my legs have been injured. , And even a serious lack of exercise, which leads to continuous weight gain! No! I must lose weight and get back to my body! Nothing can make me comparable to Jacob!"

So Elaine gave Jacob an unconvinced glance, did not speak to him, but said to Charlie and Claire: "I'm going back to the room, and you two will go back to rest soon."

Claire blushed and responded, "Okay mom, you go back to the room and rest!"

Jacob also said: "Charlie, you go back to your room early to rest. You must be tired after running around for so many days. Let Claire put some hot water for you and take a good bath!"

Claire couldn't help but feel ashamed when she thought of what her mother said just now, but when she thought about it, her husband was really working hard. Taking a bath can relax a lot, and the feeling of exhaustion will definitely be greatly improved.

So she said to Charlie: "Charlie, you can chat with dad for a while, I'll go up and ready some water, and you can take a bath in ten minutes."

Charlie nodded.

After Claire and Elaine took the elevator upstairs together, Jacob pulled Charlie to make him a cup of tea to relieve his fatigue.

As soon as Charlie sat down, the phone buzzed.

Looking down, it was an unfamiliar number from Eastcliff, so he stood up and said to Jacob, "Dad, I'll answer the phone."

Jacob said: "Answer the phone right here, go out?"

Charlie nodded: "The customer is calling."

After speaking, he stepped out of the door.

When he came to the yard, Charlie pressed the answer button and said, "Hello, who is it?"

On the phone, a woman's enthusiastic voice came: "Oh, Charlie, I am your aunt! For so many years, your aunt really missed you so much!"

Chapter 1871

If it weren't for the phone call between his aunt and Issac on the way home, Charlie at this moment would really believe that the enthusiasm of the woman on the phone really came from the heart.

So, he simply pretended to be very surprised, and said with a smile: "Auntie, it's really you? Why would you remember to call me?"

Cynthia actually didn't want to call Charlie either.

She had already passed the order to Issac, so that Issac would directly inform Charlie to go to Shangri-La for dinner tomorrow.

However, Mr. Wade came to her specifically just now and asked her to call Charlie herself.

But it can also appear that she is more sincere, and, after all, she and Charlie have not seen each other for so many years. A call ahead of time to get in touch with each other is tantamount to warming up in advance. For the next plan to persuade Charlie to go home, also Will help.

So she smiled and said: "Charlie, I haven't seen you for so many years, your aunt has always been thinking about you. I wanted to see you in Aurous Hill a long time ago, but I heard Stephen say that you don't want to come back temporarily, so I just I didn't bother you..."

With that said, she asked with great concern: "Charlie, how have you been all these years?"

Charlie felt a little nauseous in his heart, but he kept politely saying, "Everything is fine for me, thank you aunt for your concern."

Cynthia breathed a sigh of relief and said with a smile: "You have a good time, auntie can't be more pleased!"

After that, she said again: "By the way, Charlie, I called you, mainly because I want to come to Aurous Hill to see you tomorrow and ask you out for a meal. I wonder if you have time?"

Charlie asked in surprise, "You are coming to Aurous Hill tomorrow?"

"Yes!" Cynthia said: "Actually, I wanted Issac to notify you, but I thought about it, the aunt and nephew have not seen each other for so many years, so I called you personally."

Charlie smiled and said, "Okay, when will you arrive tomorrow, I will invite you to dinner!"

Cynthia smiled and said, "Let's have dinner in Shangri-La tomorrow night. I have already told Issac."

"Okay." Charlie did not hesitate, and agreed without thinking, "Then see you in Shangri-La tomorrow night."

Cynthia smiled and said, "Well, well, then I'll see you tomorrow!"

Charlie hung up Cynthia's phone, the smile on his expression gradually disappeared.

He has no affection for all the people named Wade, whether it is his grandfather, his uncles, or his aunt.

Before investigating the cause of his parent's death, the Wade family was the biggest suspect in his eyes.

Back in the room, Claire had already set a bathwater for him.

After taking a bath, Charlie went back to bed to sleep.

Claire, like a child waiting to hear the story, asked him if he had encountered any interesting things in Japan.

Charlie told Claire what had happened between the three big families in Tokyo.

However, he deliberately picked himself out of this series of events, not daring to let Claire know that he was deeply involved in it.

He just told her that his clients in Japan happened to have some relationship with these families, so he got some first-hand inside information.

Claire was shocked to hear Charlie talk about these incredible things.

The elements of big family, ninja, and assassination sound not only incredible, but also new.

Therefore, Claire was very happy to listen to it, and entangled Charlie to talk about it until it was too late.

Chapter 1872

The next day, Claire got up early to go to work at the company.

Charlie had eaten breakfast made by Elaine, and spent the whole day thinking about Cynthia's affairs.

Since Stephen found him, until now, the Wade family has never directly appeared in his life.

Charlie, also liked this situation where he didn't have to deal with the Wade family.

However, Cynthia broke the silence between him and the Wade family this time, which also means that the Wade family has begun to want to win over him, and for whatever purpose they do not want for him to stay in Aurous Hill.

Even if he saw his aunt today and refused her request, the Wade family would definitely give up.

It seems that the Wade Family will become a long-term trouble for him in the future.

.....

At 5:30 in the afternoon, Charlie said hello to his mother-in-law Elaine, telling her that he would have something tonight and not eat at home.

Later, he went out alone and took a taxi to Shangri-La.

Issac wanted to pick him up by car, but Charlie refused.

The Wade family always thought that Issac was theirs. If Issac behaved too diligently to him, the Wade family might be aware of the abnormality.

When Charlie arrived at the Shangri-La catering department, Issac was already waiting here in person.

Seeing Charlie arrived, Issac immediately stepped forward and said respectfully: "Master you are here."

Charlie nodded and asked him, "Where is my aunt? Is she here?"

"Here." Issac wiped the sweat from his forehead and whispered: "Your aunt said that she was a little tired. I arranged for a spa masseur to go to her room to serve her. It will take more than half an hour to finish the work."

Charlie smiled faintly: "All right, then take me to the box first."

Issac hurriedly said, "You two will have dinner in the sky garden tonight."

Charlie couldn't help but frown. He remembered the Hanging Garden, where the wedding he had made up for Claire was held there.

The Hanging Garden is a huge banquet hall with no boxes and translucent glass around it. It is usually a dining place for top Shangri-La members. Choosing to eat there will inevitably be seen by other guests.

So Charlie asked him, "Are there many guests tonight? In case many people see me having dinner with her, and then recognize her, it might expose my identity."

Issac shrugged and said, "Don't worry, Shangri-La tonight has completely cleared the entire catering department. Whether it is the outside box or the sky garden, there are no other guests tonight."

Charlie asked in surprise: "It's not enough to clear a sky garden? The boxes, Chinese restaurant and western restaurant outside are also cleared?"

"Yes." Issac said: "The catering department will only entertain you and your aunt tonight."

Charlie said awkwardly: "There is no need to toss like this, just find a higher-grade box?"

Issac lowered his voice and said in Charlie's ear: "Master you may not know your aunt, she has always been like this."

After speaking, Issac said again: "Your aunt usually has eyes above the top, and she has always sneered at a third-tier city like Aurous Hill, and asked her to eat with locals in a third-tier city like this. In her eyes, it's an insult to her..."

"What insult?" Charlie said with a bit of disgust: "No matter how pompous you are, don't you still have to eat, drink and sleep like ordinary people? What's the point of doing this kind of specialization everywhere?"

Chapter 1873

Charlie stepped into the restaurant department of Shangri-La.

The huge food and beverage department is indeed empty today.

The waiters also evacuated a lot of arrangements. According to Issac, he was afraid that there would be too many waiters, which made Cynthia upset.

Charlie walked through the outer restaurant of the catering department and came directly to the Hanging Garden in the center. In the Hanging Garden Banquet Hall at this time, the eighty-eight banquet tables have been completely removed, and only one is left in the center. A well-made Western-style dining table.

Charlie didn't need to think about it. The removal of the eighty-eight banquet tables and chairs must have been instructed by his aunt.

Therefore, he felt a little upset in his heart.

Although Charlie hadn't met this aunt until now, he felt very disgusted by his aunt's style of being a relative of the ancient emperor.

Even if Charlie now has nearly 60 billion in cash in his bank card, he still has no intention of showing off.

Not to mention that eating a meal is a waste of time and money, even if he is allowed to eat a bowl of beef noodles for ten at a roadside ramen restaurant, he will not feel anything wrong.

Moreover, in order to have a meal, the entire Shangri-La field and the entire Hanging Garden were emptied, and it was really impossible for Charlie to experience any superiority.

On the contrary, this will make him very repulsive and resistant.

Accompanied by Issac, Charlie came to the only table.

The dining table is about two meters long and one meter wide, with two seats placed at both ends.

Issac personally opened one of the seats for Charlie and said, "Master I have to apologize for keeping you waiting here for a while."

Charlie nodded lightly and said, "Okay, go ahead and wait for her here. I will just play on my mobile phone."

Issac asked hurriedly, "Master would you like to drink something first, I'll let someone help you prepare it."

Charlie said, "Just give me a glass of boiled water."

"OK, Young Master."

Charlie sat at the dining table alone, fiddling with his cell phone, just in time to receive a message from Nanako: "What is Master Wade doing?"

Charlie smiled knowingly when he saw her message, and replied, "Preparing to eat outside, how about you?"

Nanako replied: "I just came back from the hospital and accompanied my father in the hospital."

Later, Nanako sent another message: "Master, does your wife like the ring you gave? Is the size of the ring still appropriate?"

Charlie replied: "She liked it, thank you for helping me try the ring, the size of the ring is also very suitable."

Nanako sent a smiling face and said, "That would be great! It will be the Chinese Lunar New Year in four days. I wish Master Wade a Happy New Year in advance!"

With a smile on his face, Charlie typed his fingertips and replied: "Thank you! How is Mr. Ito doing?"

Nanako replied: "The doctor said that after a few days of training, he can be discharged from the hospital."

"That's good." Charlie just sent these three words, and at the entrance of the Hanging Garden, a woman dressed in luxurious and splendid walked in.

This woman, looking at her age, is about forty years old, wearing a limited edition Chanel costume, with short and medium hair dyed in yellow. Her face was not beautiful, except for her indifferent appearance. Kind of a very mean feeling.

This woman is Charlie's aunt, Cynthia.

Chapter 1874

Cynthia walked very fast, the stride meteor came in and went straight to the dining table where Charlie was.

And Issac followed her step by step with a respectful attitude.

When Charlie was still a few meters away, Cynthia smiled and said, "Oh, Charlie, I haven't seen him for so many years, and he has grown into a handsome young man!"

Charlie looked at Cynthia and found some childhood memories on her face.

So he laughed and said, "I will be 27 years old soon, and I am not a big or small guy anymore."

Cynthia looked very intimate, and said with a smile: "Oh, you look so much like your dad! It's like a mold!"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Compared with the previous years, Auntie seems to have not changed much."

Cynthia laughed and said: "A dozen or twenty years have passed in a blink of an eye, and I am almost 50 years old. How could I be the same as before."

At this time, Issac had already taken Cynthia's seat away carefully.

When Cynthia sat down, he glanced at Charlie's side, and saw that Charlie had always been sitting on the chair, but he hadn't stood up before she took a seat. She couldn't help feeling a little dissatisfied.

According to the rules, the younger generation at the dinner table should stand up and wait respectfully when the elders arrive.

If the elders speak, the younger ones must bend over and lower their heads to listen carefully;

If the elder is seated, the younger must wait until the elder is seated and when the elder indicates only then he can sit.

But Charlie did well, his bu.tt looked like he was on a chair all the way, not to mention standing up, he didn't even bother to move.

Cynthia felt annoyed all at once.

She actually didn't have a good impression of Charlie.

If Charlie keeps missing, never shows up again, it is naturally best for her.

But she didn't expect that this kid had been missing for so many years, and suddenly jumped out to divide the assets of the Wade Family.

What made her even more unacceptable was that the Old Master gave him Emgrand Group and 10 billion cash, which was not enough, and he wanted him to return to the Wade family.

She looked at Charlie, who was dressed in ordinary clothes, had an easy-going temperament, and had some ignorance of etiquette, and she said in her heart: "What qualifications does such a person have to return to the Wade family? Any direct member of the Wade family has received aristocratic education since childhood. Then he went abroad to receive advanced studies. Compared with Charlie, who only spent a year as a senior in Aurous Hill, it is almost a heaven and earth difference. Letting such a semi-illiterate return to Wade Family will definitely lose Wade Family's face!"

However, although Cynthia didn't like Charlie very much in her heart, she did not dare to refuse the father's explanation.

After all, after she and her husband were completely separated, her wishful thinking was to return to the Wade family, so that in the future, she would get a share of the family's assets.

But after all, she was a married woman, and she wanted to return to her natal family to separate the family property. She herself was very repelled by the Andrew and Changyun brothers.

In this case, if Cynthia still wants to get some of her assets, she must have her father's strong support.

Therefore, she has always been the only one in the Wade family.

She usually has eyes above the top, no one is in the eye, and everyone does not dare to contradict her, but she did not dare to disobey the Old Master.

Moreover, whenever the Old Master confessed to her, she always went all out to make the Old Master happy.

Therefore, she also warned herself in her heart: "This time, I have to do the things my father arranged for me beautifully! Let's not say that I can persuade Charlie to return to the Wade family, at least let him agree. For the Lunar New Year, he has to go back to Wade's house to spend time with the Old Master!"

Thinking of this, she suppressed her dissatisfaction with Charlie, and said with a smile: "Charlie, you have really suffered in Aurous Hill these years. My family hasn't seen you for so many years, and all of them miss you very much. When do you want to come home and have a look?"

Chapter 1875

"Come home and have a look?"

Charlie couldn't help but smile when he heard these words.

Cynthia saw that he had a fake smile on his face, so she said, "Charlie, people say that you are leaving home to be the boss. Now that you are no longer young, you should come back and have a look after you have been away for so many years."

Charlie nodded, agreeing: "You are right. After leaving for so long, I should take time to go back and have a look."

As he said, he smiled and said, "Well, I'll arrange a time later, and I will check it out if I have time."

Charlie seemed to have agreed to Cynthia's proposal, but in fact it was nothing more than a drag formula.

After a while, to arrange another time, is basically tantamount to nowhere. Anyway, his only idea is to deal with today.

Of course, Cynthia also knew Charlie's plan, and immediately said, "Charlie, don't have any resistance to your family. My family has always cared about you very much. Don't forget, your grandfather heard that you were in Aurous Hill. He immediately asked Stephen to buy you the Emgrand Group and transfer 10 billion in cash. It is reasonable. You should also come back and meet the Old Master, what do you think?"

Charlie asked back: "Aunty, is it true that I just have to go back and have a look, and this matter is settled?"

Cynthia's dissatisfaction has grown stronger.

In her opinion, Charlie was indeed a little ignorant of good and bad.

Wade Family asked her to come all the way to ask him to go back. This is already a shame for her. If he knows a little bit, he should immediately agree to it, and then go directly with her plane back to celebrate the New Year.

Unexpectedly, he actually played hide and seek with her here, and he even said nothing.

So, she said to Charlie with a slightly displeased expression: "Charlie, your grandfather invested 110 billion in you. This amount of money is nothing to the Wade family, but it is purely from Quantitatively speaking, it is definitely a huge sum of money. Is it possible to invest so much in you so that you can only go back and take a look?"

Charlie looked at Cynthia and asked seriously: "Auntie, what exactly does the Wade family want from me? You don't have to hide it here. Let's open the skylight to speak up."

Cynthia hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, "Well, since you said that, then I won't go around with you."

As she said, Cynthia sat up straight and said with a serious expression: "Your grandfather meant to let you come back to Wade's house to spend a reunion year together."

Charlie raised his eyes and asked with interest, "Did it break? What happened?"

Cynthia said: "You have nothing more than an Emgrand Group in Aurous Hill, and a family of your current wife."

Chapter 1876

As she said, Cynthia stretched out a finger and said arrogantly: "First of all, regarding the Emgrand Group, you can continue to ask Doris to help you take care of it at that time. We have investigated this person, and she has the ability, and during this period of time. The Emgrand Group has developed well in her hands, so you can rest assured to hand it over to her."

After that, Cynthia stretched out another finger: "Secondly, your current wife, Claire's family. We have investigated the situation of the Willson family. To be honest, such a family can not even count as a bullsh*t in front of the Wade family. No! How can their family be the Wade family's in-laws?"

Cynthia had already looked disgusted at this time, and said, "So, I advise you to leave that Claire as soon as possible and draw a clear line with their family. It is best to give them a sum of money directly and let them get away forever. Leave China so that no one will make a big fuss about them in the future and satirize our Wade family man who is hungry and does not choose food!"

Charlie's face immediately became a little ugly when he heard this, and his voice became colder and colder. He said, "Auntie, my marriage is my own business, and it has nothing to do with you or the Wade family. So, please don't interfere with the Family!"

Cynthia sighed and persuaded: "Charlie, don't be so arrogant. Think about it yourself. You are a descendant of the Wade family! Choose ten of the richest second generations in the country with the highest status and you will definitely be there. For a seat, how could the girl with the surname Willson be worthy of you? She wouldn't even be qualified to carry your shoes! In ancient times, she wouldn't even had the qualifications to be your housekeeper!"

Charlie said with a bit of sullen tone: "Auntie, she is my wife at first, and she married me when I was at the bottom of my life. I would never divorce her, I don't need to divorce her!"

Cynthia said with regret: "Charlie! Don't use emotions!"

Charlie said coldly: "Emotional matters, of course, I must be emotional!"

Cynthia blurted out: "As a descendant of a wealthy family, feelings are not even a bullsh*t! Do you remember your uncle? He is also a kind of talent. He has treated me well for so many years, but what about it? Once his family strength couldn't match I separated from him!"

Immediately afterwards, Cynthia said unwillingly: "If it weren't in your grandfather's opinion, woman's initiative to divorce will affect her reputation, and if I was not allowed to go through the divorce formalities, I would have severed all relations with him! You are a man, at all. Don't worry about the impact of divorce on your reputation, you just divorced the surname Willson, and returned to Eastcliff to marry a well-known eldest lady. The future is boundless!"

Charlie sneered and said, "I'm sorry, I am more emotional. If you can do something like this, I can't do it!"

Seeing that Charlie did not accept her suggestion, Cynthia immediately said: "Charlie! You have to find out that Wade Family's hands are one of the best in the whole country! Any woman who wants to marry into our Wade family, must have a family background that matches the Wade family! Otherwise, it will drag my Wade family back and shame my family's face! The Wade family's face must not be ruined by you or ruined by the surname Willson in the hands of the humble family!"

Charlie said coldly: "I'm sorry, although I am a Wade, I am not someone you can control and control at will. I am in charge of my marriage. No one else has the right to interfere. The same is true for you!"

"You!"

Cynthia was furious at that moment. She slapped the table and stood up and shouted angrily: "Charlie! You thought I was talking to you in a good voice, and I was discussing it with you?!"

"What?" Charlie asked her coldly, "Are you going to force me to get a divorce?"

Cynthia scolded, "You are the heir of the Wade family! You must follow the arrangements of the Wade family. What's more, do you think the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion cash are given to you in vain?! If you are not obedient, the Wade family can support you, just I can step on you!"

Charlie was also immediately furious, and he said coldly: "You don't want to talk about the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion cash here! The reason why the Wade family was able to advance by leaps and bounds and stand at the top of the country was due to my father's dedication. Plowing, and strategizing decision-making! If the property is counted, my father owns at least a quarter of the Wade family's asset inheritance rights. If that is the case, let alone 110 billion, even 110 billion, I deserve it! "

Speaking of this, Charlie's tone became more severe, and he scolded: "My father did so much for the Wade family, but how did you return him? You forced our family of three out of Eastcliff! In the end, my parents died tragically. ! I haven't settled this account with you yet!"

Chapter 1877

Cynthia didn't expect Charlie to dare to talk to her like this!

Moreover, when Charlie said that he should inherit a quarter of Wade Family's assets, she was immediately furious!

So, she shouted directly: "b*stard! You are too high on yourself! Why should you inherit a quarter of the assets of the Wade family?!"

Charlie said coldly: "Just because I am Charlie! Just because my father is Changying!"

Cynthia scolded, "Your dad has been dead for so many years, so you still want to inherit the Wade family's assets?! I tell you, you are not worthy!"

Charlie looked at Cynthia and sneered: "My father flew for the Wade family back then. In my opinion, even the head of the Wade family is more than enough! It's you! I really have to follow the rules of the big family and get married. His daughter is the water that was poured out. Now that you are married, you are no longer a member of the Wade family! Why are you pointing fingers at me in front of me?!"

The sentence that the married daughter is the water poured out is the sentence that Cynthia hates most in her life.

Even if she married as a wife early on, she had been thinking about the Wade family's wealth.

Now, after separating from her husband and severing her relations, she pinned her hopes for the future on the Wade family's fortune!

However, the elders of the Wade family, Andrew, Changyun, and old Changfeng have always been hostile to Cynthia. They often said this in front of Cynthia, and reminded her overtly and secretly not to worry about Wade family assets, because she was married. , Is no longer the Wade family member, and is not worthy to inherit the Wade family's assets!

Cynthia naturally refused to accept it 10,000!

She felt that her husband's family was unreliable, the only thing she could rely on was Elder Wade!

Therefore, in any case, she must please the Old Master, and let the Old Master give her a legacy that can make her life safe for life before death. This is also the goal of her hard work now.

However, what she didn't expect was that Charlie, a kid who had been away from home for nearly twenty years, dared to say such things in front of her. It was like stepping on her tail and making her angry immediately!

So, she gritted her teeth and glared at Charlie, and said angrily: "Charlie! I tell you! If you are more acquainted and follow the instructions of the Wade Family, the Wade Family will naturally not treat you badly in the future, and will let you live a life of food and clothing!"

After all, she changed her conversation, her voice increased a little, and her eyes were cracked threatening: "But if you don't know me! Then I tell you, the Wade family can hold you up, and naturally they can also throw you down. Go down! At that time, the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion will leave you! After all, you will be beaten back to your original shape and become the stinky rag that is despised by everyone and even in the wife's family!"

Cynthia was out of control, her voice even screamed.

In the whole sky garden, her angrily voice echoed.

Issac hurriedly evacuated all the service personnel, and walked out of the sky garden banquet hall and stood outside the door.

At this time, even if she is slightly dissatisfied with them, it is possible that Cynthia's emotions will be further out of control.

Seeing that Cynthia's expression had already taken on a strong resentment, Charlie smiled playfully, and asked her: "So cruel? Then I would like to ask, if I'm acquainted, what would the Wade family command me?"

Chapter 1878

Cynthia thought that her threat had softened Charlie, so she immediately sneered: "First divorced your wife, and then returned to the Wade family to wait for your grandfather's dispatch. Now Philip of the Gu family is unified. The Gu family's control over the entire Gu family has reached an unprecedented peak. His daughter has a marriage contract with you. If you marry his daughter, it will be of great help to the Wade family."

After that, Cynthia said again: "Or you can try the eldest granddaughter of the Su family, that is, the daughter of Zynn. She is very favored in the Su family. Her mother was one of your father's suitors back then. , Maybe she will be willing to marry her daughter to you, and she will be even more helpful to the Wade family at that time!"

"So, after you divorced that woman, first try to develop with the eldest granddaughter of the Su family. If you can get her, you will get married to her. If you can't get her, you will fulfill the engagement with Philip's daughter!"

Charlie chuckled, "So the Family wants me to sell for the Wade Family!"

Cynthia said coldly: "This is not a sell-off. After all, marriage is very common in the upper class. This is not only good for the Wade family, but also good for you!"

Charlie sneered: "Auntie, since marriage has so many benefits, why don't you just divorce, and then try to get together with Philip or Zynn? If you have this, it is with them. You hook up with one of them, wouldn't it be a huge help to the Wade Family?!"

When Cynthia heard this, she felt like she had been slapped repeatedly by Charlie. Then she realized that he seemed to be subdued, but it was actually to humiliate her!

Thinking of this, she immediately became angered and gritted her teeth: "You beast! I am your aunt! How dare you insult me?!"

Charlie said coldly: "I insult you? I shame you. If you were a man, I would have beaten you eight times!"

Cynthia almost fainted, clutching her chest with a hideous face.

Charlie didn't bother to stay here at this time. He stood up and said to Cynthia disdainfully: "Go back and tell the Old Master, if he wants the return of the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion, I can return at any time!"

When he said this, his expression was stern and he shouted sharply: "But!"

"My parents' account, I will definitely settle it with him in the future!"

"At that time, all the people who are responsible for this matter will have to pay me back with profit! No one can escape! Even him! No exception!"

"You, you" Cynthia trembled angrily, and yelled at Charlie with her fingers pointing: "You b@stard! You dare to be so disrespectful to your grandfather because you are the heir of the Wade family! How outrageous!"

Charlie said coldly: "What if I disrespect him? If you are not satisfied, you can go back and complain to him!"

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said, "Okay! Every word you say today will be truthfully told to your grandpa. If you are beaten back to your original form, don't blame your aunt for not giving you a chance!"

"Give me a chance?" Charlie snorted: "You don't deserve any chance at all! However, if I find out in the future and find that you are also involved in the death of my parents, then you won't ask me to give you a chance!"

"It turned you back! It turned you back!" Cynthia was already completely irritated by Charlie. She grabbed a beautiful empty wine glass on the table and slammed it on the ground, shouting hysterically: "I will definitely make you regret it!"

Charlie nodded and sneered contemptuously: "You can use whatever means you can, I'm waiting!"

After that, he walked toward the gate without looking back.

Chapter 1879

Seeing Charlie's departure, Cynthia behind him couldn't help shouting angrily: "Charlie! I haven't left yet, what qualifications do you have to leave first! I am your elder, your aunt! You dare to be so disrespectful to me, I must make you pay!"

Charlie ignored it.

In his opinion, his aunt is completely an idiot spoiled by the family halo.

She never forgets to hold his airs and arrogantly at all times. It is obviously the order of the Old Master to do business, but she only cares about her own air and face, such a person, even in the Wade family, is difficult to respect.

Therefore, Charlie didn't bother to waste time with her.

Issac hurriedly greeted him and said nervously, "Master why are you doing this? If Miss Cynthia goes to Master to file a complaint, then your situation will not be good!"

"So what?" Charlie snorted: "Don't think she is from the Wade family, but in fact she is just a dog of the Old Master. She wants to bite me, but also depends on what the Old Master means! If the Old Master wants to really want to start with me, then let him do it!"

After that, Charlie said again: "The reason why I only scolded her now, instead of hitting her or killing her, is because I was thinking that they still have a blood connection with me. If they do it themselves, then I will even have this point. The bloodline is ignored! No matter who belongs to the Wade family, if they dare to bark in front of me, I will directly destroy them! If anyone dares to do anything to me and the people around me, I will directly kill them!"

At this moment, Charlie's body was murderous!

Issac sighed helplessly.

At this moment, what he was actually worried about was not what the Wade Family would do to Charlie in the future, but worried. Once the Wade Family became angry and angered Charlie, he was afraid that he would not let the Wade Family go.

In case it really started, Wade Family might not be Charlie's opponent.

He sent Charlie all the way to the door of Shangri-La, and respectfully said: "Master where are you going? I will drive you."

Charlie waved his hand: "No, you send me at this time, the Wade family will be aware of the clues. Go and see Cynthia, and by the way, see what she has planned next."

Issac nodded slightly: "Master then I will go and see your aunt first."

Charlie reminded him: "Take a look at Cynthia's return plan to see when she leaves. Besides, I must be guarded against her going to see my wife, understand?"

Issac suddenly shuddered and stood up straight and respectfully said: "Master don't worry, I understand!"

Charlie did not put Cynthia in his eyes, but he also worried that Cynthia would think of other ways to save the country.

She wanted him to divorce Claire on her own initiative, and then returned to Wade's house. He rejected her directly. Then, if she went to find his wife, it would be a bit tricky for him.

After all, Claire still doesn't know his identity.

And he didn't plan to let her know.

At least, he didn't want his wife to know his identity before he found out the truth about his parents' death and successfully avenged his parents.

.....

At this time, Cynthia was already furious on the spot and her blood was boiling.

Chapter 1880

The prepared western dining table had already been lifted by her, and the ground was full of mess.

Because there was a lot of broken glass ballast on the ground, the female foreman of Hanging Garden was afraid that Cynthia might accidentally injure herself with the glass ballast, so she hurried over with two waiters to clean it.

Cynthia was full of sorrow and anger and had nowhere to vent. Seeing that the foreman came with two waiters, she was immediately furious. She went up and grabbed one of the girls. She raised her hand and pulled her face, while beating, she cursed and said in her mouth: "Did I let you come? Did I let you come?!"

The girl was slapped several times, crying and begging: "Miss you, calm down, I am afraid that you will be injured by the glass ballast, so I came quickly to clean the glass ballast..."

Cynthia's heart was still very angry, and even increased a bit of strength in her hands, and yelled: "b@stard thing! I let you out, you can come out, I don't let you out, I better not even see your!"

Seeing this, the foreman hurriedly stepped forward and begged: "Miss, don't be angry, this was my own opinion, so I ran into you..."

Cynthia observed angrily, kicked the foreman's stomach, and cursed coldly: "Things that don't have eyes! All three of you have been fired. Get out!"

The foreman was kicked by Cynthia and sat down on the ground.

The ground was full of glass ballast, so she immediately felt a few pieces of glass ballast pierced into the flesh.

However, at this moment, she did not care about the severe pain caused by the glass ballast. She was pale and clutching her belly, and said in pain: "My stomach hurts... Lily, please call me an ambulance....."

Lili was the other of the two waiters. She was not beaten by Cynthia because she was standing a little far away from her.

As soon as she saw the foreman holding her stomach and her face in pain, she immediately asked with concern, "Sister Nan, are you okay? Hold on, I'll call 120!"

Cynthia looked at the foreman contemptuously, and said disgustedly, "What kind of pity do you pretend to be in front of me? Do you want me to lose money to you?"

The girl who was dialing the phone suddenly rebuked, "Why are you like this! Sister Nan is three months pregnant! You are still kicking her belly. If the child has something long and two short, no matter how much money she has It can't solve the problem!"

Cynthia couldn't help frowning, and said coldly: "What are you, dare you to talk to me with this attitude?!"

The girl blurted out without showing weakness: "We are human! Not a thing! Even if we are not as high as you, our body is given by our parents! Why are you hitting us?!"

Cynthia is almost furious!

She grew up so big, in addition to behaving like a good woman with her tail clipped in front of her father, no one had ever dared to disobey her and talk to her in such a tone!

But here today, she has been confronted by Charlie and several waiters one after another, and she is naturally annoyed.

At this moment, she completely ignored the fact that the foreman was pregnant, and took a step forward, grabbed her mobile phone from the girl who had smashed her into the hands of the girl who was waiting for the 120-sound station to answer, and slammed it directly on the ground.

Immediately afterwards, she immediately raised her hand and slapped her face, slapped her face fiercely, and gritted her teeth and cursed: "Shame on her face, and dare to yell at me here, don't you know who I am?!"

As she was talking, Issac stepped forward, and when he saw this, he hurriedly stepped forward and asked: "Miss, what's the matter with you?"

Seeing Issac's arrival, Cynthia said coldly: "Okay, you are here just right! I ask you, how do you manage this group of people under your hands? Even they dare to stand in front of me?!"

When Issac saw that all three of his employees had been beaten, he didn't need to ask them to know that Cynthia must have vented her anger towards Charlie on them, so he immediately said respectfully, "Miss, don't worry, these three do not have long eyes. I must deal with the person seriously! Don't get angry, I will send you back to your room to rest first?"

Cynthia was also suffocated with anger, and looked at Issac and said coldly: "Completely block these three b*tches for me!"

After that, she stretched out her hand and slapped Lily's face again, before turning around and leaving...

Chapter 1881

Lily choked and said: "Mr. Issac, Miss Cynthia was angry and raised the table. Sister Nan took us over to clean the glass ballast. As a result, Miss Cynthia suddenly acted on us and kicked Sister Nan in the stomach. Sister Nan is pregn@nt. She is pregn@nt, I wanted to call an ambulance, and the Lady smashed my phone..."

Sister Nan, who was sitting on the ground with a painful face, said: "Mr. Issac, I am to blame for this. You must not get angry. If the company wants to punish, please punish me alone!"

Issac sighed and said, "I blame myself for this. I didn't protect you. I will arrange for someone to take you to the hospital immediately. In addition, I will give you at least one month's vacation and give you a compensation of 200,000 each."

After finishing speaking, he looked at the supervisor sitting on the ground and said seriously: "Sister Nan, I will contact the best gynecologist in Aurous Hill to help you with the baby, and make sure that the child is fine at all costs. If the child can be saved, I will make up for your 200,000 fetal expenses; if can't keep it, I will make up for you 500,000, and then give you one year of paid leave, and go back to take a good rest, and actively prepare for pregnancy!"

When Issac said so, everyone was immediately relieved.

They also worried that Issac would obey Cynthia's request and punish them severely.

Unexpectedly, it is really rare for Issac to take care of them so much.

Seeing the three women crying and thanking him one after another, Issac couldn't help persuading them, so he greeted the security team and rushed them to the hospital.

After all three of them were sent to the hospital, he sighed sadly in the office alone: "Hey, I really don't know how long Cynthia, the aunt, will be tossing in Aurous Hill, let alone what she will do too much. It's a pity that she is a member of the Wade family after all. No matter what, I can't suppress her at all. If she really wants to cause trouble in Aurous Hill, I have nothing to do. It seems that I can only hope for her immediate return!"

.....

Charlie didn't pay attention to his aunt, let alone take it to heart. After returning home, he began to prepare for the New Year with his family.

Since it was the first Spring Festival in the Tomson Villa, the family of four paid great attention to the sense of ceremony of the Spring Festival this year.

Claire bought a lot of decorative window grilles, stickers, red lanterns and other accessories, intending to make her home more festive.

Although Elaine is lazy, she has a strong vanity. She also wants to set out her home as soon as possible, and then take more photos to show off in her circle of friends, so she is busy with Claire.

After Charlie came back, he joined them.

Claire took out a bunch of beautifully made red lanterns from the big carton that she bought online, and said to Elaine: "Mom, I want to decorate both the third and second floor terraces. Hang this on the railings of the terrace. Plant red lanterns and turn them on after dark, the effect must be particularly good."

Elaine agreed without hesitation: "Okay! New Year, just have to be a little festive, I'll go hang up later!"

Claire hurriedly said, "Mom, I have another business, I want to discuss it with you."

Elaine smiled and said, "Okay! Just talk about it!"

Claire said embarrassingly: "You have been hanging a lot of green hats on the terrace on the third floor. This is New Year. It is really inappropriate to hang so many green hats, so let's remove the hats. Right!"

When Elaine heard these words, she immediately blurted out without hesitation: "So how do you do it! Those green hats are all prepared for the Old Master Noah, so that after he gets up every day, he opens his eyes and sees this. He piled up green hats, and then was gloomy all day. If I take them away, wouldn't it be a waste of money for him?"

Claire helplessly said, "Mom! Every family is full of lights and festivities for the celebration of the New Year. If we still have so many green hats, it will not look good at that time!"

Chapter 1882

"That won't work!" Elaine said stubbornly, "Those green hats are my magic weapon against the Willson family. I just want them to forcibly remember every day that Horiyah was pregn@nt outside with wild species!"

Elaine suddenly remembered something at this time, and said with a smile: "Hey! I will hang these lanterns and the green hats one by one in a while. When the lanterns are turned on, the red lanterns and the green hats are absolutely conspicuous! It will definitely anger the Willson family!"

Claire persuaded: "Mom, those who celebrate the New Year, have to be forgiving and forgetting of other's past deeds!"

Elaine snorted coldly: "You don't come to persuade me. It's useless to persuade me. Don't you know that your grandmother broke my leg? And my two front teeth are also lost thanks to her. I will never forgive her for this!"

Seeing her mother's face full of determination, Claire felt a burst of powerlessness.

It seems that there is no possibility to persuade the mother to change her mind.

At this time, Elaine held a bunch of red lanterns by herself, and walked towards the elevator, and said as she walked: "I'm going to hang up the lanterns and hang them with the bunch of green hats!"

After half an hour.

Under the organization of Mrs. Willson, the Willson family was also lighting up the lights in their villa, so it was so lively.

The Willson family is not what it used to be. The Willson Group had previously received Regnar's investment, and after repaying all the debts, it took another small project given by Regnar. Now it has turned a profit.

Mrs. Willson also took back the villa, antiques, and calligraphy and painting that had been seized by the bank before.

Because Regnar promised to lend the Tomson first-class luxury villa to their family for ten years, Mrs. Willson simply rented out the old villa and could earn some rent back.

The company has survived enough again, and all the previous assets have returned to her own hands. The current Mrs. Willson is very high-spirited.

Noah's family knew that the happy life in the future depended almost entirely on the Old Lady, so they always treated her as the empress dowager Cixi.

Noah is also proud of the recent spring breeze. The Willson Group has come back to life. He and Harold and Wendy are in important positions in the group.

Harold and Wendy are re-living the lives of the rich second generation, and of course they are also full of joy.

Horiyah was the only one in the family who had the worst. No one gave her a good face all day long.

Noah and Mrs. Willson hated her deeply, but because of Regnar, they couldn't drive her away, so they regarded her as a thorn in the eye.

Harold and Wendy also felt that their mother was too embarrassed to have been pregnant with wild species and contracted sexually transmitted diseases, so they always ignored her every day.

Being rejected by the whole family made Horiyah very hurt.

Especially seeing the four people smiling every day, but she can only hold back at home, sweeping, cooking, and washing clothes, like a servant who doesn't need money, she feels even more uncomfortable.

At this moment, seeing that they were all preparing various decorations for the New Year, Horiyah stepped forward, licking her face and said flatly, "Oh, mom, I will help! You forgot that we lived in the past. When I was in the old villa, the decorations and arrangements of the house were all made by me as soon as the Chinese New Year came!"

Mrs. Willson glared at her, and said in disgust: "What's the matter with you? Hurry up and clean the windows! I tell you, as soon as today is over, there will be three days before the New Year. You must have all windows in the villa all spotless!"

Chapter 1883

When the Old Lady said that she asked her to clean the windows of the entire villa, Horiyah suddenly collapsed.

She couldn't help but blurt out: "Mom! Our villa is so large, with so many rooms, so many windows, I can't finish it even after the first month of the year!"

Mrs. Willson said with a sneer: "You still want to delay the first month? I tell you! Before New Year's Eve you must have cleaned all the windows of the whole family, I will drive you to the yard for New Year's Eve dinner!"

As soon as Horiyah heard this, how angry the whole person was!

If it weren't for Noah, Harold, and Wendy still here, she would have liked to rush over now, kick the Old Lady to the ground with one foot, and then ride on her stomach and slam her old face.

It is a pity that she has no chance to start at all.

Horiyah was extremely helpless, even if there were 10,000 dissatisfaction in her heart, she could only swallow it all in her stomach, and said with annoyance, "OK mother...I know...I will try my best. To wipe..."

Mrs. Willson coldly snorted: "Forget your acquaintance! She was originally a woman who corrupted her family style. If she is not honest and obedient, even Regnar can't save you!"

Faced with the arrogance of Mrs. Willson, Horiyah felt so annoyed.

But at this time, she didn't dare to say a rebuttal, she could only nod and say with humility: "Mom, you are right, I must listen to you!"

Noah said at this time: "Mom, I'll go upstairs and hang some decorations."

Mrs. Willson hummed and said to Horiyah: "You go to clean the windows now, hurry"

Horiyah had no choice but to do it.

Noah went upstairs and came to his room. He was about to put a few grilles on the window. He suddenly saw that a row of red lanterns lit up on Elaine's balcony opposite their house.

What is disgusting is that these glowing red lanterns are all next to all kinds of green hats, and the red light is set off on the green hats, emitting a strange color, which makes people feel annoyed to watch.

Noah was furious immediately!

He couldn't help cursing: "*dmn, this Elaine is too much, and she gave a green hat with a red lantern. Isn't this the fcking old saying, red and green race sh!t?! It's so f*cking mad. I'm dead!*"

Thinking of Elaine not letting himself live during the New Year, Noah felt uncomfortable, and gritting his teeth came downstairs, and said to Harold who was putting window grilles in the living room? "Harold, you come with me! Let's go find that Elaine!"

Mrs. Willson frowned and asked, "What are you going to do to Elaine at this time?"

Noah scolded angrily: "Mom, that stinky Elaine is really deceiving people. She hung so many green hats on the balcony, and it's fine after hanging them for so long. Now they have one next to each green hat. The big red lantern, this is the d*mn Chinese New Year and wants me to die! I have to find her to settle the accounts!"

The Mrs. Willson shouted sharply: "You stop! Go to Elaine to settle the account, can you two beat Charlie? Do you two want to spend the New Year in the hospital?"

Noah, who was still aggressive just now, was immediately dumb.

Chapter 1884

Charlie's strength is very abnormal. If he is at home, finding his door with his son is equivalent to sending him to death.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help gritting his teeth: "Mom! I don't need to trouble her today, but in any case, I can't let Elaine wear those green hats for the New Year!"

Mrs. Willson said disdainfully: "If she likes to hang on, let her hang on! Now for our family, what counts for the face? Money is the most real thing!"

Noah said angrily, "Then I can't bear Elaine b@stard forever, right? When is this the f*cking stop?"

Harold said with a black face at this time: "Dad! Didn't you always say that you want to find a chance to engage in a wave of Elaine? If you want me to say, we want to do it as soon as possible! It's best to do it before the New Year. Let Charlie's family have a miserable year. If this happens, Mr. Regnar will also be able to explain it! Otherwise, we will never start with their family, Mr. Regnar will soon lose patience with us!"

Noah's expression froze, and he blurted out: "Yes! stinky Elaine had a plaster on her leg before, and she stayed at home all day long and didn't go out. We didn't have a chance to fix her, but I think she seems to have the plaster removed now. Now, she has to prepare for the New Year in the next two days. In my opinion, Elaine will definitely go out. It is better to find a chance to provoke her and let her learn a lot!"

After that, he looked at Mrs. Willson again and asked, "Mom, what do you think?"

Mrs. Willson pondered for a moment, and nodded: "We really have to teach Elaine a lesson. At least we have to cause a little trouble for Charlie's family, otherwise Regnar is not going to feel comfortable."

Later, Mrs. Willson remembered something and said excitedly: "Regnar will just come to Aurous Hill tomorrow to inspect a few projects. It is estimated that he will spend the night in Aurous Hill!"

When Noah heard this, he quickly agreed: "Mom, isn't this a good opportunity to give back to Mr. Regnar! Why did he let us live in this villa and return it to our Willson Group to invest? To put it bluntly, not just to let us be under the nose of Charlie's family and disgust them? If we take the money and never do anything, if Mr. Regnar comes to blame someday, we'll be in bad luck!"

Mrs. Willson hummed, and said: "If you do it often, let you figure out how to do this. I only ask for one thing. Don't kill anyone, otherwise Regnar may not be able to keep us."

Noah nodded and sneered: "Don't worry, mom, I planned it a long time ago. I'm going to tie Elaine and take some unsightly photos of her. It's best to find someone to get her pregn@nt and let that family feel the shame!"

Mrs. Willson frowned, and said: "Noah, I have no objection if you find someone to do it, but you should never do it yourself!"

Noah nodded and said, "Don't worry, Mom, I know it!"

Harold on the side hurriedly asked, "Dad, are you planning to start tomorrow?"

"Yes!" Noah grinned and said, "Tie her up tomorrow, and then wait for a show for President Wu tonight!"

Harold said hurriedly, "Dad, I used to know some friends, they were pretty reliable, and I can ask them to help!"

Noah smiled and said: "Okay! You go find a few young and strong people, and then find a van, I have a buddy who has a vacant warehouse in the suburbs, and then I will get Elaine there!"

Wendy on the side asked, "Dad, what if Elaine doesn't go out tomorrow?"

Harold also nodded and said, "Yes, Dad, what if Elaine doesn't go out?"

Noah said: "If Elaine doesn't go out, let's create an opportunity for her to go out! I have been observing her daily trajectory these days. Don't worry, I have a way to get her out of home by herself!"

Chapter 1885

Early the next morning.

Claire and Jacob left home early and went to work on their own affairs.

Claire's studio is closed according to the national legal holidays. It will be closed on New Year's Eve and will be closed for a total of seven days until the sixth day of the new year.

As for Jacob's Calligraphy and Painting Association, it is a hobby group in itself, so there is no such thing as a holiday, it depends on everyone's mood.

And Jacob didn't deal with Elaine at home on weekdays, so he couldn't wait to be in the Calligraphy and Painting Association on the first day of the new year.

Elaine didn't have much entertainment, and prepared the ingredients for the New Year's Eve dinner alone at home.

As for Charlie, after getting up early in the morning, he checked the operation report of JX Pharmaceutical from Liang on his mobile phone.

At present, several production lines of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical in Japan have begun to smoothly switch to JX Weisan, and a large amount of inventory has been in place within a period of time.

Charlie plans to sell JX Weisan on the first day of the Lunar New Year in Japan. At that time, all major Japanese TV stations will also broadcast Sara's endorsement of JX Weisan ads.

As one of the most well-known actresses in Asia, Sara's influence in Japan cannot be underestimated.

In addition, the efficacy of JX Weisan is far ahead of similar competitors, so Charlie believes that it will be a hit in Japan.

When Elaine downstairs was preparing the ingredients, the doorbell rang.

She stepped out of the yard, saw a courier guy standing outside the door, and opened the yard door directly.

The courier brother asked her: "Is this Ms. Elaine's house?"

Elaine nodded: "I am, what's the matter?"

The little brother handed a small package to her and said, "Hello Ms. Elaine, this is your city express, please sign for it."

"Sent to me?!"

At this time, Elaine was a little surprised. She didn't do much online shopping, and she didn't buy anything online recently. Why does she have her own city express delivery?

So, after she signed for the courier, she opened it suspiciously.

After unpacking, she found that the express included it was a trial package of high-end body care essential oils, as well as a very beautifully made card and a printed letter.

She opened the letter and read all the words on the letter: "Hello, distinguished guest, congratulations on your acquisition of the whole body spa treatment package of Lizi high-end beauty and health club worth 8888. With the package card, you can visit the store at any time. Enjoy free full spa services, no appointment required!"

After reading these, Elaine said with joy: "Oh, I'm going! Free body spa treatment?! Is there such a good thing?!"

The thought of lying on the beauty bed in the beauty salon and enjoying the meticulous massage by the masseur makes Elaine feel itchy all over!

She could not help but secretly said: "I have been raising legs at home some time ago. I haven't enjoyed a high-end spa for a long time. I didn't expect that a free high-end spa would suddenly hit me. Maybe someone made a mistake. It's sent to me. If I don't hurry to experience it, if someone catches it back, wouldn't I be a big loser?!"

Thinking of this, Elaine immediately put the package card into her pocket and ran into the house excitedly, went straight to her room on the third floor, changed clothes for going out, and planned to go out and make the spa immediately.

Thinking of Charlie before going downstairs, she went to the door of Charlie and Claire's room on the second floor, knocked gently on the door, and asked with a smile: "Good son-in-law, have you gotten up yet?"

Charlie got up and opened the door and asked, "Mom, are you okay?"

Elaine smiled embarrassedly: "Well, mom is going out for something. The breakfast is ready and it's in the kitchen. It's still hot. Go down and eat while it's hot!"

Chapter 1886

Charlie nodded and said, "Okay mom, go ahead if you have anything."

Elaine hurriedly smiled and said, "OK, OK! Then mom will go out first, if you have anything to do, call mom!"

"It is Okay."

Charlie didn't think too much, after all, Elaine was also an adult, and it was normal to go out.

.....

Noah had been on the terrace of his room at this time, staring closely at the door of Charlie's house.

Seeing Elaine went out in a hurry, a sneer was wiped from the corner of his mouth.

Afterwards, he walked downstairs quickly and said to Harold: "Harold, Elaine is out! How are your friends preparing?"

Harold smiled and said, "Dad, don't worry if I do the job, I'm all ready, and I'm sure that Elaine will never return!"

Noah said hurriedly: "Come here, you will review the overall plan with me, and I will see if there are any omissions!"

Wendy and Mrs. Willson also leaned in, waiting for Harold's text with a look of expectation.

Harold said triumphantly: "First of all, the beauty card sent to Elaine by the same city courier just now, isn't that beauty salon called Lizi Beauty Health Club? The owner of this beauty club is a former friend of mine. He is now having difficulties in business and has always wanted to transfer the beauty salon, but the economic situation is not good recently, so he has not been able to transfer."

Noah waved his hand: "Talk about the important point!"

Harold said hurriedly, "Don't worry, Dad! I have to explain the whole plan to you!"

Noah nodded: "Yes, you say."

Harold then continued: "My friend can't make it anymore now, so I just want to take advantage of the fact that the New Year's members have a lot of things at home and can't take care of them to do beauty, and take advantage of the opportunity to roll the money away. I told him, as long as he cooperates. Well, I will give him 200,000 for this scene. He wanted to run away anyway, so he was naturally willing to make more money before running away."

Wendy on the side hurriedly asked: "Brother, did you intend to tie Elaine to the beauty salon when you fudged her?"

"Yes!" Harold nodded and said, "That beauty salon has a back door. When Elaine goes to the spa, I will arrange for a masseur to put sleeping pills in her water. When she passes out, we drive to the beauty salon. At the back door of the courtyard, she is directly tied up and taken away from the back door, absolutely unaware of it!"

Horiyah heard this and hurriedly asked, "Harold, what do you plan to do with Elaine after torturing her?"

Harold said, "I haven't thought about this yet, what do you think?"

Horiyah immediately gritted her teeth and said, "Find a black coal mine and send her to dig coal too!"

Harold said embarrassingly: "Don't know anyone who runs a black coal kiln either!"

Wendy blurted out: "Then send her to Africa to grow sugarcane! I heard that there are many illegal immigrants there, and they can only bury their heads in the sugarcane fields and chop sugarcane for the rest of their lives, and they cannot live out of the African continent!"

Harold coughed and said awkwardly: "Wendy, what you said is illegal immigration, how can I have that relationship!"

Horiyah was anxious and blurted out: "Harold, are you planning to find someone to take Elaine after sleeping, take pictures, and then let her go?! This is too cheap for her, right?!"

Although Noah was very disgusted with Horiyah, when he heard this, he couldn't help but nodded in agreement: "Yes! I just found someone to sleep with Elaine, maybe he even let Elaine take advantage!"

Mrs. Willson thought for a moment, and said: "We are helping Mr. Regnar with Elaine. Or else you call him and ask him to see if he has any friends who run black coal kilns. Let him arrange for her to dig coal!"

Chapter 1887

Regnar's life has been miserable recently.

The eldest son Roger is still recovering from his injuries at home, and the second son Wu Qi's condition has not improved. He has basically given up treatment.

In addition, Regnar's wife Yaqina has divorced him recently.

The main reason for the divorce was the death of Nanshan and his wife Kaili.

Yaqina felt that Regnar didn't protect her brother, nor did he find out who killed her brother.

In Yaqina's eyes, what was even more exaggerated was that instead of helping her younger brother and avenge him, he was at home every day, scolding his dead brother bloody.

Of course Regnar hates Nanshan crazy.

In his opinion, it was the b@stard who completely ruined the reputation of the Wu family, so that the market value of the Wu family was directly cut down because of its reputation.

It was originally the first family in Aurous Hill, but now, it can't even make the top ten in Aurous Hill.

What made him a little unacceptable was that his wife was so ignorant to praise!

He hadn't blamed her for being too doting on her younger brother, causing the Wu family to be implicated, but she blamed him on the contrary, it is really unreasonable!

Because of this, the two of them simply fell into a long cold war.

Originally, Regnar spoiled his wife very much, but now he doesn't even bother to care about her, and put all his thoughts into his career.

Now he has only one thought in his mind, which is to do everything possible to make the Wu family rise again!

At just this time, he was following up on a real estate project in Aurous Hill, so early this morning, he came to Aurous Hill from Suzhou for inspection.

Just when he first arrived at the project site, he received a call from Noah.

On the phone, Noah said flatly: "Hello, Mr. Regnar! I'm Noah, we haven't seen you in a long time!"

Regnar said coldly: "Noah, you call me, what's the matter?"

Noah hurriedly smiled and said, "Mr. Regnar, this is the case. Do you know that the New Year is coming? Our family wondered, saying that nothing will let Charlie's family have a stable year, so we plan to confront Wade first today. His mother-in-law, Elaine, decided to find someone to give it to her first, and then take some photos and videos and upload them to the Internet, so that Charlie's family will be disgraced!"

Regnar suddenly became interested, and his voice improved a little, "Huh? Noah, I heard that right, did your family finally dare to do something with Charlie?"

Noah said embarrassingly: "Mr. Regnar, I really didn't think of a plan before, so I haven't moved, but you can rest assured! This time we must do this thing beautifully!"

With that said, Noah said with a bit of bitterness: Charlie is in Aurous Hill. I heard that there seems to be a nickname called Real Dragon in the world. I want to see if his mother-in-law lets people play, what he is in this world after that. Can the true dragon's face hang on it?"

When Regnar heard this, he smiled and said, "Not bad, not bad! Do this thing well, I will not treat you badly."

Noah was overjoyed, and he was too busy to ask: "By the way, Mr. Regnar, I called you. I actually wanted to ask you if you know the little boss who runs the black coal kiln. If you know him, that's really great. After I find someone to take care of Elaine, I will send her directly to the black coal mine!"

Chapter 1888

Regnar thought for a while and said, "There are not many coal mines in the South, so I really don't know anyone who runs black coal mines."

Speaking of this, he suddenly remembered something, and said with a smile: "But I do have a kid who runs a brick factory at home. The work in the brick factory is not easy compared to the black coal kiln. You can take that woman sent there as a coolie!"

Noah immediately smiled and said, "Oh, Mr. Regnar, this is really great. A b*tch woman like this should spend life in the black brick factory!"

After speaking, he hurriedly asked: "Mr. Regnar, do you think it is convenient for you to tell me the address of your friend? After I have taken care of Elaine, I will send her directly!"

"Don't worry!" Regnar sneered: "I have a deep hatred for Charlie. Now I just arrived in Aurous Hill. There is no reason to miss such an enjoyable thing. You tie her up first, and then give me an address. I will come over. Witness it with my own eyes!"

Noah hurriedly agreed, "Mr. Regnar, don't worry, I must have done this properly, and I will call and let you witness it in person!"

Regnar hummed, and said with a smile: "Okay, I have something to work on. Call me after you finish it."

"OK, Mr. Regnar!"

As soon as Noah hung up the phone, he immediately couldn't help but said to the family excitedly: "Mr. Regnar said, he has a friend who runs a brick factory. When we tie Elaine, we will let someone do it as planned. After that, she will be immediately sent to the brick factory to let her work hard in the brick factory for the rest of her life!"

When Horiyah heard this, she felt very unbalanced in her heart. She said angrily, "I went to the black coal kiln at the time. How can Horiyah go to the brick factory! This is too cheap for her!"

Noah glared at her dryly, and blurted out: "You know what a sh!t! The brick factory is much more bitter than the black coal kiln. Although the black coal kiln is dirty and exhausting, it is warm in the winter and cool in the summer. The brick factory is different. The fire burns bricks in all seasons, and the people alone can't stand the heat. Moreover, the work of moving bricks is no easier than digging coal. Generally speaking, people in brick factories suffer more than black coal kilns!"

Horiyah felt a little more comfortable.

However, she still had one more question to ask, but she swallowed it again.

So she can only murmur in heart: "Hey, don't know if Elaine will meet a squinty supervisor after being sent to the brick factory. If she can meet, that would be great, and it's better to let her Get sick and get pregn@nt!"

.....

At this moment.

The Presidential Suite of Shangri-La Hotel.

Cynthia was making a short report to Zhongquan over the phone.

On the phone, she described Charlie as a s*umbag with perverted personality, hot temper, low quality, and unremarkable. She also always emphasized to Zhongquan: "Dad, Charlie, this kid has not received any education for so many years and has very low quality. You can't let him come back to Wade's house, otherwise, our Wade's face will be lost by him!"

Zhongquan listened to her little report of adding fuel and jealousy, and said lightly: "Cynthia, I always thought you were very smart. I didn't expect to be so easily influenced by emotions. You really disappointed me!"

Cynthia suddenly became nervous when she heard this, and blurted out: "Dad, I...Where am I not doing well enough?"

Zhongquan said coldly: "You still don't understand, why do I want Charlie to come back?"

Cynthia said embarrassingly: "Dad...I really don't understand too much. If you want me to say that Charlie's quality is so low, not only can we not let him come back, but we have to draw a clear line with him!"

Zhongquan snorted and said: "What I want now is to let any of my grandsons marry Zhiyu from the Su family, or to marry Sara from the Gu family. Now it seems that only Charlie has the greatest chance!"

Chapter 1889

"how can that be possible!"

Cynthia blurted out: "Dad, you haven't seen Charlie for many years, so you think of him too well. Let me tell you the truth, Charlie is now a small gangster in a remote country! Whether it's Zhiyu or Sara, They are all Eastcliff's famous ladies of the sky, how can they be worthy of him?!"

Zhongquan said coldly: "I saw Philip at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, and I asked him if he still remembers Charlie's engagement with his daughter. He said to me on the spot, as long as he can find Charlie, he must not hesitate. Let his daughter marry him!"

"In addition, Philip also said that no matter what Charlie is now, even if he is begging along the street, he is also the future son of the Gu family. Their family has long reached a consensus on this matter!"

Cynthia was stunned: "What age is this, is Philip crazy?"

Zhongquan said in a harsh tone: "I don't want to care if Philip is crazy or not, don't worry about it. Your task now is to do everything possible to make Charlie promise to come back for the New Year!"

Cynthia was so helpless that she had no choice but to say angrily: "Dad, tell you the truth, Charlie was too much yesterday, so I didn't control my emotions yesterday. I had a big fight with him. He didn't eat anything, so he just waved away..."

"b@stard!" Zhongquan yelled, "Don't think don't know you. With your acting style, it's not good to say who is too much!"

After that, Zhongquan said again: "I don't care about anything else, you must bring Charlie back to me! If he doesn't want to return, then you can think of something else!"

Cynthia hurriedly asked: "Other methods? What else?"

Zhongquan said, "Doesn't he have a wife in Aurous Hill? Can you find a way to get in touch with his wife or his father-in-law?"

Cynthia said immediately: "Then I will go to see his wife, give her some money, and let her divorce Charlie!"

Zhongquan said: "Don't go to his wife, you can make a fuss from his mother-in-law first. I heard that his mother-in-law is very greedy for money and is a monster who eats money!"

Cynthia quickly said, "Dad, then I will try to find a breakthrough from his mother-in-law!"

"Yeah!" Zhongquan reminded: "After you meet his mother-in-law, don't reveal your true identity, otherwise, if you let that kind of evil people know that Charlie is a member of our Eastcliff Wade family, you will be killed. She, she won't let her daughter divorce Charlie either."

"Okay, dad! I see!"

Cynthia quickly agreed, and then immediately took out the phone, called the bodyguard who brought Aurous Hill this time, and ordered: "Check for me where Charlie's mother-in-law is, I want to see her!"

.....

Elaine rushed to take a taxi to the beauty club on the package card. When she came in and showed the package card, she was somewhat guilty, for fear that others might make a mistake, or the card itself could not be used.

But what she didn't expect was that the clerk said to her very politely: "Hello madam! Your package card can be used at any time and no appointment is required. Do you want to experience it now?"

When Elaine heard this, she said excitedly: "Of course! I've been taking a taxi from a long distance, can't I just come and ask you? Hurry up and arrange a massager for me, I will have a good experience now."

The clerk nodded and said respectfully: "Madam, our full-body spa here is for bathing first. I will take you to bathe and change clothes first, and then arrange a massager to do the spa for you!"

Elaine was very happy. When she had money in her hands, she did go to beauty salons or beauty clubs to do facial or spa treatments.

Therefore, she knows the process of a high-end spa in a beauty salon. The first thing she must do is to soak in a flower petal milk bath, then put on the disposable underwe@r provided by the beauty club, and receive a full body massage from a massager.

Elaine happily followed the clerk to the bathroom and found that a tank of water had been placed here, with milk, flower petals and bath salt added to the water, and immediately smiled and said, "Oh, your service is really in place. Come on, put the water away first."

Chapter 1890

The clerk thought that Elaine had noticed the abnormality, and hurriedly said, "Uh...that...this is the case. We originally had a customer who made an appointment to come to the spa. The water for our bath is ready, and she said that we can't do anything temporarily, so you can just pick a ready-made one."

Elaine smiled and said, "Oh, what a coincidence, it seems that God just wants to make up for me and let me enjoy it!"

After speaking, she waved to the clerk and said, "Okay, you can go out. I will take a bath by myself and let the massager prepare to wait for me."

"OK, Madam!"

After the clerk went out, he immediately ran to report to the boss.

When the boss heard that Elaine was coming, he quickly called Harold and said to him, "Harold, people have already come and are taking a bath. When will you come?"

Harold said excitedly: "Great! Old Baidel, you must stabilize her for me, don't expose any flaws, I am ready to come over!"

The owner of the beauty salon laughed and said, "Harold, who is my brother, since I have promised you, I will definitely do this thing beautifully!"

"Good!" Harold smiled and said, "Wait for half an hour!"

After finishing speaking, Harold said again: "Brother Baidel, your shop will not do business with other customers in the morning, so as to avoid accidents."

"Don't worry, I won't do other business in the morning, just pick up your order!"

.....

Just as Elaine was lying in the bathtub soaking, a Rolls-Royce stopped at the door of this beauty salon.

A tall bodyguard walked out of the co-pilot. After getting out of the car, he immediately opened the rear door.

Immediately afterwards, Cynthia, dressed in gorgeous clothes, stepped down.

She looked at the door face of this beauty salon, and said contemptuously: "What a broken beauty salon, looking at it, it's not up to the standard!"

In fact, the decoration of this beauty salon is pretty good. Although it is not top-notch, it is not affordable for ordinary housewives in Aurous Hill.

However, for the top rich second generation like Cynthia, it is really too much to be on the table.

The money she paid for a treatment at a top beauty salon is enough to buy this beauty salon.

The bodyguard whispered from the side: "Miss, the woman you are looking for is doing beauty treatment here, just came in ten minutes ago."

Cynthia nodded, and said in disgust, "Follow me in."

"OK!"

The bodyguard took the lead and reached out and pushed open the door of this beauty salon.

The clerk rushed over and said apologetically: "I'm sorry, we won't receive guests in the morning."

Cynthia frowned: "Won't receive guests? A woman named Elaine, didn't she just come to your store for a spa? Why did it become unwelcome when it came to me?"

Chapter 1891

The clerk was questioned by Cynthia, and she didn't know how to reply.

She knew very well in her heart that the boss meant that she would never treat guests this morning, so she couldn't let anyone in.

So she hurriedly said: "I'm sorry, Ma'am, we really don't treat guests in the morning. Ms. Elaine made an appointment in advance, so I'm sorry."

Cynthia almost exploded in anger.

She condescended to come to this kind of shabby beauty salon. It is like a phoenix coming to the chicken coop. Didn't expect that this chicken coop would not let her enter? !

She immediately furiously said: "Don't let me in, right? Believe it or not, you won't have to do this in the future?!"

The clerk suddenly didn't know what to do.

She could also see that Cynthia's dressing was no ordinary person at first glance. If she really angered her, it might cause trouble.

So she could only say respectfully: "Sorry, ma'am, wait a moment, I will ask our boss for instructions."

Cynthia waved her hand in disgust: "Move faster, I have very limited patience!"

The clerk hurried to the boss's office. The boss was already in his office at this time, picking up valuable items.

He intends to help Harold this time. After earning Harold's 200,000, he will immediately prepare to run away and vacate the shop tonight. If this is the case, when members of the shop arrive tomorrow, they will find the courtyard is empty.

This is also the usual routine for most gyms and beauty salons to run away, taking advantage of people's unprepared feet to apply oil, so that all members who have been fooled into applying for a stored-value card are caught off guard.

The clerk entered the office and hurriedly said: "Boss, there is another woman outside. She has to come in! I can't stop her, go and see!"

When the boss heard this, he frowned and asked, "What woman? Didn't you tell her not to treat guests in the morning?"

"Said it!" the clerk said aggrievedly: "I told her several times, but she insisted that the guest named Elaine came in, why can't she enter..."

The boss suddenly became nervous: "Does she know Elaine?"

"I do not know either....."

The boss thought for a moment, and said: "Okay, I'll deal with her and see what she wants to do."

After speaking, he got up and came out of the office, all the way to the front desk.

Seeing Cynthia, the boss also saw that this woman should have a lot of background, and he was even more nervous.

So he hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "Hello Ma'am, don't know what your needs are?"

Cynthia said coldly: "Your store is open, why don't you let people in? What do you mean by not serving guests in the morning?"

The boss chuckled and hurriedly said: "It's true that we have guests booked a full set of care in the morning, so it is not convenient to treat guests again. If you come in the afternoon or tomorrow, I will arrange the best massager to serve you!"

Cynthia said disdainfully: "Stop this set with me, I didn't come to your ruined place to consume!"

The boss frowned: "If you don't come to consume, what are you doing here?"

Chapter 1892

Cynthia said, "I'm here to find Elaine, who just came to your place for care. I have something to talk to her in private."

As soon as the boss heard that she was not for consumption, he darkened his face and said annoyed: "If you are not for consumption, then please go out. If you are looking for someone to discuss matters, you must find another place. I don't provide such services."

Cynthia winked at the bodyguard, and the bodyguard immediately took out 50,000 in cash from his small suitcase and patted it on the counter.

When the boss saw the money, his attitude became flattering again, and he smiled and asked, "Ma'am, what service do you want me to provide you with?"

Cynthia said coldly: "Take me to see Elaine. I want to chat with Elaine in private. It won't be too long, at most half an hour. During this half an hour, no one is allowed to bother me. , This fifty thousand is your reward, do you understand?"

When the boss heard this, he thought to himself: "Harold asked me to give that Elaine some sleeping pills. After she is asleep, Harold would take her away secretly. Now he has killed the eldest sister halfway and has to talk to Elaine. It sounds like a good deal for an hour, and then give 50,000. As long as he let Harold wait for half an hour, wait for the older sister to talk to Elaine and leave, then give Elaine sleeping pills?"

Thinking of this, he immediately agreed with a smile: "It's easy to talk about! Isn't it half an hour of private time, no problem, Ms. Elaine is taking a bath, you can wait in the spa room first."

Cynthia nodded and said to the bodyguard, "Come with me."

"Hey!" The boss said hurriedly, "We are a female-only club. Members wear very casually here, and sometimes they don't even wear clothes. Even my boss can't enter the private service area for members. You can't take this gentleman inside!"

Cynthia didn't think that an ordinary beauty salon would be dangerous, so she said to the bodyguard, "You are waiting outside."

The bodyguard nodded slightly.

Today, Cynthia's whereabouts were made on a temporary basis, and there was no suspicious person following along the way, so in this case, there was basically no possibility of encountering danger, so she didn't care too much.

The bodyguard waited at the door, and Cynthia said to the boss: "Can you take me in now?"

The boss smiled and hurriedly said, "Let our clerk take you in. I can't get in either."

"Good." Cynthia nodded, and followed the clerk into the beauty salon.

The apartment of this beauty salon is relatively deep, with the front desk and lobby outside, and then the bathing place through the promenade, and then the spa room is going deeper.

The reason why the spa room is placed in the deepest part is mainly that the guests who come to the spa for complete relaxation and are very resistant to noise. If it is too close to the outside and close to the road, the vibration and horn sound of passing cars will be very obvious.

After Cynthia followed the clerk through the deep corridor, she came to one of the spa rooms.

The clerk respectfully said to her: "Hello, madam, please wait here for a while, and I will bring her here after Ms. Elaine comes out."

Cynthia gave a hum, took out 10,000 in cash from her limited Hermes backpack, handed it to her, and exhorted: "Don't tell Elaine I'll wait for her here, just bring her in, understand?"

The clerk happily accepted the ten thousand, and said excitedly: "Don't worry, I won't say it!"

"Yeah." Cynthia nodded: "You go out first."

"OK, lady."

After the clerk went out, Cynthia frowned and looked at the environment in the room, frowning in disgust.

She took out a cheque written a long time ago from her bag. The amount on the cheque was one billion, which she planned to use to buy Elaine.

However, the more she looked at the low-end environment of this beauty salon, the more she sighed in her heart: "This Elaine would actually come to this place to do a spa. She must be a bun who has never seen money. Give her a billion. It is too much!"

Chapter 1893

Thinking of this, Cynthia stuffed the one billion check back into her wallet.

She felt that if she wanted to buy a cheap woman like Elaine, one billion would be taken advantage of, and one billion was a lot.

As a result, she took out the checkbook again and temporarily wrote a check for 100 million.

She planned to take this one-hundred-million-dollar check directly in a while to entice Elaine to go home and force her daughter to divorce Charlie. In this way, her mission to Aurous Hill this time would be half completed.

After writing a check for 100 million, she took out a Hermès silk scarf from her bag and placed it on the sofa before sitting down.

At this time, Elaine was still soaking in the bathtub.

In fact, she had washed it a long time ago, and the reason why she still didn't want to soak it out was mainly because she felt that the milk petal bath should have a good moisturizing effect on the skin, so it's better to soak for a while.

And Harold and Noah, at this time, had already brought a few young men who were still alive and drove a large van to the back door of the beauty salon.

Harold took out the phone, called the boss, and asked, "Brother Baidel, how are things prepared? Have you fainted Elaine? I'm just waiting at the back door!"

The boss thought to himself: "I haven't made the extra 50,000 yet, so I have to wait for my 50,000 to be safe before doing it!"

So, he said to Harold: "Harold, wait a moment, that Elaine is taking a bath, there is a bit of ink, but don't worry, I will have the water with the added ingredients ready for her. After the bath, find a chance to let her drink it, and you will wait patiently for my notification. Once she faints, I will call you. Then you can just come in and do your thing!"

As soon as Harold heard this, he immediately smiled and said, "Brother Baidel, you are still reliable! Okay! In that case, I'll wait a while, and you will notify me immediately if it's done."

"Okay, just wait for me!"

.....

Elaine soaked for another ten minutes, feeling that the skin on her body was a little pale because of the blisters, and then she came out of the bathtub reluctantly.

After she came out, she immediately rang the service bell, and the clerk who had received her hurried in with a clean bath towel in her hand.

She helped Elaine wrap the bath towel and asked diligently: "Madam, do you need to wear disposable underwe@r? I will open the package if necessary."

As she said, she added: "All our massagers and service staff are women. It doesn't matter if you don't wear them."

Elaine thought for a while and said, "I'd better put it on. After all, this is not a bathhouse. It's too awkward to be alone."

The clerk nodded and quickly took apart the disposable underwe@r for her to wear, and prepared another bathrobe for her. After Elaine put on the bathrobe, she was led to the spa room.

Opening the door, the service staff said to Elaine: "Miss, please come in."

Elaine nodded, and when she stepped through the door, she found a beautifully dressed woman sitting on the sofa in the room, and asked the clerk with some dissatisfaction: "This is your massager? This fancy suit is too exaggerated. Right? There are so many decorations on her body, making it look like a mannequin in a jewelry shop. What if she accidentally scratched me?"

Cynthia must be angry at this.

Secretly cursed in her heart: "The f*cking bun, said I am wearing fancy clothes, said I am pompous?!"

Chapter 1894

The clerk was also embarrassed at this time. Looking at Cynthia, she didn't know how to introduce Elaine.

Cynthia frowned, and said in a very arrogant tone to the clerk: "Okay, you go out first, I'll talk to her."

The clerk immediately left the room as if she was getting amnesty, and closed the door behind her.

Elaine looked at Cynthia warily, and asked coldly, "Hey, who are you?"

Cynthia said lightly: "You don't deserve to know who I am."

Elaine suddenly sipped: "You babble! The smelly Old Lady, what kind of big-tailed eagle is here with me? Dressed in colorful, d*mn United, and carrying a fake Hermes, it's not you who are awesome here?"

Cynthia suddenly shouted angrily: "What are you talking about?! It is a catwalk coat customized by Chanel's top designer! My Hermes is also the top limited edition! The clothes I wear are worth at least 50 million!"

Elaine disdainfully said: "You f*cking pretend to impress me, if I am a bunny who has never seen the world? Just your broken Hermes, and mother dare to say that it is a limited edition. Tell you, I am the one who uses the real products!"

As she said, she immediately took out the Hermès backpack she had placed in before taking a shower from the locker, hung it on her arm and stretched it out in front of Cynthia, and said pretentiously: "Open your dog's eyes, This is the real Hermes, simple and atmospheric, understand?"

Cynthia glanced at Elaine's Hermes, and suddenly she burst into laughter.

Seeing her smile, Elaine couldn't help but sneered: "What? You don't dare to pretend to be impressed when you see the real Hermes, right?"

Cynthia sighed, and sneered: "I know what is poor, so you are called poor!"

As she said, her eyes were full of contempt and said: "Do you still dare to show off in front of me with the most basic entry-level Hermes?"

Immediately, Cynthia picked up her Hermes, and sneered: "Open your dog's eyes and see it clearly, this Hermes, can buy more than 100 of those!"

"fck your mother's old mule!" Elaine said in disgust: "You fcking boast that you won't be taxed. Listen to what you mean, do you earn 10 million Hermes?"

Cynthia sneered: "15 million!"

Elaine curled her lips: "I really don't know where the dead Old Lady came from. I chop you up and sell you by a kilogram. You are not worth 15 million! Are you still here to pretend to be my grandma? Get out of here. Don't f*cking delay my spa!"

When Cynthia heard this, her whole body trembled with anger, and she wished to slap Elaine immediately to give a lesson to this unseen turtle.

But after another thought, I came here today, not because she is more expensive than her Hermes, there is still business to be done.

So she gritted her teeth and waved her hand: "Okay, Elaine, I won't talk nonsense with you anymore. It's meaningless. I came to you this time because I wanted to make a deal with you."

"Doing business?" Elaine frowned, "I have nothing to do with the fake Hermes like you, so get out of here!"

Cynthia pressed his anger and said coldly: "You might as well listen to me first. I am looking for you this time for one purpose. You go back and get your daughter to divorce Charlie. If you promise me, this check will be yours."

After that, she handed the one-billion-dollar check to Elaine, and said proudly: "This check is worth 100 million. As long as you promise me, you can take the money first!"

Seeing Elaine's expression stunned, Cynthia sneered again, and said in a condescending tone: "But Elaine, listen to me. Since you have taken my money, you must do what I explain! Otherwise, I will not only Letting you spit out this money a lot, and it will cost you a huge price!"

Chapter 1895

Elaine looked at Cynthia dumbfounded, and blurted out unbelievably, "What are you talking about, this check is worth 100 million?!"

Seeing her surprised look, Cynthia sneered, and said sarcastically: "Look at the way you have never seen the world, Citibank cash check! Haven't you seen it? If you think of someone like you, you won't have the chance to see it in your life. Such a large cash check!"

Elaine's whole expression immediately became uncertain.

Cynthia thought she completely shocked Elaine, and smiled satisfied.

She held the check in her hand and slapped it a few times, and smiled arrogantly: "Do you want this check? If you want, just listen to me and persuade your daughter to leave Charlie!"

Elaine's expression suddenly became a little annoyed.

Cynthia hasn't figured out how this woman's expression has become so fast.

Elaine suddenly stretched out her hand and snatched the check over, took a close look in front of her, and then angrily tore the check into pieces!

Cynthia was dumbfounded. She saw Elaine tear her one hundred million check into shreds, and immediately said in her heart: "It seems that I have underestimated this stinky lady! She tore the check even if she said it, it seems that her appetite is not small!"

At this moment, when Cynthia saw Elaine staring at her with an extremely angry look, she gritted her teeth and said: "Okay! One hundred million is too small for you, yes! As long as you obediently listen to me, let your daughter and Charlie divorce After the formalities are completed, I can give you 200 million!"

After all, she immediately took out the checkbook from Hermès' bag, took off the pen cap, and said coldly: "You think about it. If you want, I will write you a check now!"

When Cynthia said this, she thought to herself: "Elaine is nothing but an old hat in a small city. Don't look at you in a villa of Tomson, but you must be a stinky silk who has never seen a lot of money. A billion is in front of you, I don't believe you will refuse!"

Thinking of this, Cynthia suddenly saw a flower, and in the next second, a sharp pain came from her left cheek!

"Snapped!"

It turned out that Elaine directly raised her hand and slapped Cynthia severely!

Cynthia has never been beaten in her entire life, and never dreamed that she lived more than 40 years old. The first slap in her life was actually beaten by a s*umbag!

She immediately felt a burst of anger rush to her head!

Staring at Elaine, she yelled hysterically: "B!tch! Are you f*cking crazy? Dare to beat me?! Do you know who I am?"

As soon as the voice fell, Elaine came up directly, kicked her chest, and kicked her directly from the back of the sofa!

Although Cynthia is not a good person, she is also an intellectual.

Although she was proud and bullied others all her life, she basically was never bullied with violence to this level.

Therefore, Elaine suddenly moved her hands, and she suddenly had no resistance!

Seeing being knocked to the ground by Elaine, she struggled to get up and cursed with a disheveled hair: "Elaine! Are you fcking sick?! I am giving you money, if you fcking don't, there is no need to do it with me." Don't you f*cking understand the truth that a gentleman speaks but doesn't use his hands?!"

Elaine gritted her teeth and cursed: "What a f*cking gentleman who talks but doesn't do anything? Since you dare to give the dead man the paper money to fool me, why can't I beat you like this! I will not only beat you today, I want to kill you!"

Cynthia was almost blinded at the moment.

She yelled hysterically, "What the hll are you doing?! I gave you a cash check from Citibank! You can hear clearly, it's Citibank! Even if you fcking have never seen the world, at least have some basic common sense!"

Chapter 1896

*"fck you!" Elaine rushed over in a rage, and rode directly on Cynthia's stomach. With her big mouth bowed from side to side, she flicked towards Cynthia's face and cursed as she slapped, "You fcking treat me as a fool. I have been fooled like this once, you f*cking dare to cheat me again!"*

At this moment, Elaine thought in her heart that Jacob was hospitalized in the hospital. She wanted a check for her daughter Claire's check-out rent. After Charlie handed the check to her, she took the check to pay for the hospitalization.

Unexpectedly, the denomination of that check turned out to be 100 million!

At that time, the hospital cashier ridiculed her and threatened to call the police to catch her.

In the end, she went back to Charlie to settle the accounts in a rage, only to realize that Charlie had bought the check from the funeral store and planned to burn it to his deceased parents.

Therefore, Cynthia now also took out a 100 million check, which looks almost exactly the same as Charlie's 100 million check at that time.

In this case, of course she was furious!

What's more hateful is that this d*mn Cynthia has been repeatedly emphasizing Citibank in front of her!

In this life, Elaine hated Citibank the most!

Because for her, the worst experience in her life was caused by the fake black gold card of Citibank.

After that, she was put in a detention center, and was abused by Mrs. Willson, Wendy, and the big and rough Gena for several days.

Those just a few days were definitely the black hole of Elaine's life.

Therefore, when she saw that Cynthia not only cheated her with a cheque of 100 million from the dead, but also dared to use Citibank to chirp here, she was already angry!

Cynthia was dizzy and nauseous when she was beaten at this time, and her cheeks that Elaine beat back and forth were red and swollen, and the pain was unbearable.

Although she screamed, her bodyguard was outside the gate at this time and couldn't hear the movement so deep inside, so he couldn't help her at all.

Even though Cynthia was beaten very dumbfounded, she knew very well in her heart that now it is idiotic to get his mobile phone and let the bodyguard come in to rescue him, so he can only fight with Elaine! ?

As a result, she suddenly stretched out her hand to grab Elaine's hair like crazy. After grabbing a lock of Elaine's hair, she yanked her desperately!

Elaine didn't expect her to be beaten by this woman all of a sudden, and as a result she attacked her hair!

Suddenly, she felt a sharp pain in her hair, which made her scream several times, and she was desperately trying to beat Cynthia with her hands.

While beating and cursing: "Silly idiot, you dare to pull my hair, I fight with you!"

Naturally, Cynthia was not to be outdone. With that strand of hair in her hand, he desperately tore, and directly tore all that strand of hair from Elaine's head!

This time, Elaine covered her head in pain and yelled. Cynthia saw that this was an opportunity, and directly pushed Elaine to the ground, and then rushed up, riding on Elaine's stomach, facing her face for a while!

"Even I dare to fight, I f*cking kill you shrew!"

Cynthia was mad at this moment. If she were given a knife, she would be able to kill Elaine on the spot.

At this moment, the waiter outside heard the movement and ran over in a hurry, opened the door to see, and was shocked immediately, so she hurried to the boss's room, opened the door and panted and said, "Boss, no... ..Not good! Then...the two women...in the room...fight...fighting..."

Chapter 1897

As soon as the owner of the beauty salon heard that the two women were fighting, he became angry.

"d*mn, aren't friends chatting? Why are they fighting?!"

The clerk hurriedly said: "don't know, it's a terrible beating. If you don't check it again, one will probably kill the other!"

"f*ck!"

The beauty salon owner was nervous.

He hasn't run away yet. If something goes wrong at this time and the police are brought in, it will be a big trouble.

So he hurried to check the situation. Before he got there, he heard that one is being beaten to death.

Elaine was yelling through the door: "d*mn, stinky girl, I can't cure Gena's big fat pig, and he can't cure you?!"

Cynthia obviously took the advantage, gritted her teeth and cursed: "You wait! I'm definitely not going to make you feel better! I won't let you live to see the sun tomorrow!"

"Snapped!"

Elaine slapped Cynthia's face again: "That broken mouth, why the f*ck is forcing me to talk, see if I won't tear your mouth for you!"

The owner of the beauty salon opened the door and took a look, but was frightened by the two women with blood on their faces and quickly closed the door.

He muttered nervously in his mouth: "No way, no way! If you continue to do this, you must die!"

After speaking, he immediately ran to the back door, and when he pushed the door, he saw a van parked upside down at the door, with the trunk entrance facing the back door.

So he hurried to the co-pilot and took a picture. Harold put down the car window and asked excitedly: "Brother Baidel, has that stinky Elaine fainted?"

The owner of the beauty salon said anxiously: "Fat! she fought with a woman inside. If she continues to fight, she will kill people. Go in and take them away!"

Harold asked in surprise: "What's the situation?! Has she started fighting? With whom?"

The owner of the beauty salon was a little guilty, but didn't mention a word about the fact that he charged Cynthia. He said hurriedly: "don't know who the h*ll is, you quickly take the person away, otherwise it's all be over if something happens! I'm going to die, and you are going to die!"

Upon hearing this, Harold hurriedly led a few young people out of the car.

A crowd of people, led by the owner of the beauty salon, swarmed to the door of the spa room. Before opening the door, they heard the mess inside.

Harold kicked the door open. Seeing Elaine was riding on a woman with a bloody face and beating her, he immediately said to a few people around him: "It's the woman above, grab her and take her into the car!"

Elaine turned to find Harold, and suddenly shouted in panic: "Harold! What do you want to do?!"

Harold grinned and said, "aunt, you spent so long with our family and sent Mom to the black coal kiln. Now is the time to pay a price!"

After speaking, he waved his hand, and several people around him immediately rushed over and tied Elaine up.

Cynthia didn't know what was going on, but when someone started to arrest the woman who had been beating her, she was finally relieved and angrily cursed: "Elaine, I am going to break you into pieces! Wait! "

As Cynthia spoke, she reached into Hermès' bag and fetched her phone.

Seeing this, Harold hurriedly scolded: "d*mn, you still want to call?! Put the phone down for me! Otherwise, don't blame me for being impolite!"

Cynthia looked at him and blurted out: "This matter is my personal grievance with Elaine, don't worry about it! Give Elaine to me, and I will give you a satisfactory reward!"

Harold exploded immediately.

Chapter 1898

He thought to himself: "Is this woman mindless? Give Elaine to her? How can our family explain to Mr. Regnar? Besides, I don't care how you appeared here today, since you and Elaine When they got together, in order to avoid problems with kidnapping Elaine, then I can only take her away!"

So he ignored Cynthia and said directly to the young people: "Tie up this woman and take her away!"

When Cynthia heard this, she shouted angrily: "Tie me?! Do you know who I am?!"

Harold said in disgust: "I don't bother to know who you are. When you and Elaine go to the brick factory to burn bricks, tell Elaine who you are!"

After speaking, he said to the few people: "Give me both of them!"

Cynthia said hysterically: "You dare to move me, I'm Wade...oo..."

Before Cynthia could say the rest, her mouth was tightly gagged with a towel.

The end of Elaine was the same. After being gagged, Harold immediately said to them: "Hurry up and get people in the car!"

Several people immediately took Elaine and Cynthia, walked out the back door quickly, and stuffed them into the carriage.

Harold said to the owner of the beauty salon at this time: "Brother Baidel, I advise you to withdraw as soon as possible and don't spend an extra moment here."

The owner of the beauty salon said: "No, I still have some second-hand equipment and furniture waiting to be processed!"

Harold asked him: "How much money can it be worth just such a little second-hand tatter?"

"It's worthless, but it's better than a lot of things. If you sell it, you can sell it for ten or twenty thousand."

Harold said hurriedly: "You quickly pull it down! How long do you have to spend on this 20,000? In case it is for such a small amount of money, and you finally want to run away, then you will lose out. ! So I advise you to leave now! After I am gone, you should withdraw from the back door quickly!"

The beauty salon owner thought carefully: "Yes... the woman who came to Elaine just now has a companion, but that companion is waiting outside at this time, and now she is taken away by Harold. The other party can't wait for anyone, and it will take half an hour, and he will definitely come in to see what happens. Isn't it a bad thing?!"

Thinking of this, he lost his heart. Anyway, he earned 200,000 from Harold, and another 50,000 from Cynthia, which is already a lot of money. If he doesn't run away now, if he can't get away. Regret no tears!

So he hurriedly said to the clerk: "Go and say hello to the massager, pack things up and leave in five minutes!"

The clerk nodded busy: "OK, boss!"

Soon, the van that Harold found, carrying Elaine and Cynthia who were tied up by the five flowers, quickly left the back door of the beauty salon.

Within a few minutes, the owner of the beauty salon also took clerk and a massager, with large and small bags of soft luggage, and sneaked away through the back door.

At this moment, Cynthia's bodyguard was still standing beside the Rolls-Royce on the roadside, waiting for Cynthia to come out.

How did he know that Cynthia was actually kidnapped in this ordinary beauty salon...

Twenty minutes passed, and Cynthia hadn't come out yet. The bodyguard took out his cell phone and planned to call Cynthia to ask.

At the same time, the van was driving outside the city.

Harold was sitting on the back seat with a smug look, while Elaine, who was heavily tied up, was lying at his feet.

He deliberately stepped on Elaine's face with his feet, and sneered: "Elaine, you didn't expect it, you will have a f*cking day today!"

Elaine was speechless, so she could only whimper a few times.

At this moment, in Cynthia's bag next to him, the phone rang suddenly!

Chapter 1899

Cynthia's cell phone ringing shocked Harold.

He hurriedly reached out to Cynthia's bag and took out an Apple mobile phone.

Seeing someone calling her, he immediately turned off the phone without saying anything, and threw it back into Cynthia's bag.

Although Cynthia whimpered for a while, but there was nothing to do, and the intestines that she had regretted long ago were blue.

She thought to herself, "Isn't it the bad luck that I did? What am I doing with this Elaine? If it wasn't for her, I wouldn't be kidnapped by this group of people!"

However, regret at this time has no meaning. Although she is the eldest daughter of Elder Wade, at this moment, she is also called every day to refuse, and the ground is not working.

Cynthia's bodyguard found that his master refused to answer his phone.

He didn't think much about it at first thought. After all, he knew that Cynthia was here to talk to Elaine. Maybe it was inconvenient to answer his phone at the critical moment of negotiation.

However, in order to be sure that he was foolproof, he called Cynthia again. Unexpectedly, after the call was made, the phone turned off!

This moment made the bodyguard nervous!

In today's society, mobile phones are very important to anyone. Therefore, Cynthia's mobile phone has hardly ever been turned off during the day.

He immediately noticed something abnormal, so he immediately said to the driver: "Follow me in and have a look!"

The driver was also one of Cynthia's bodyguards. He immediately got off the Rolls-Royce and rushed into the beauty salon along with the bodyguards who had been guarding the car.

As soon as they entered the beauty salon, the two realized that something was wrong!

The clerk was not there, and it was a bit messy inside, obviously showing signs of hastily turned over.

So they searched from room to room and found the spa room where Cynthia and Elaine had been fighting before.

When they saw the house full of mess, blood, and a lock of long hair on the ground, the two of them shook their hearts and looked at each other, and they could see the despair and collapse in each other's eyes!

From the scene, it can be easily seen that Cynthia was kidnapped!

The two bodyguards suddenly felt thunderous!

They were ordered to protect Cynthia's personal safety. They should have used their lives to defend Cynthia's safety, but they didn't expect Cynthia to be kidnapped right under their noses!

One of them desperately said: "It's over! This is over! The protector is not strong, this is a capital crime!"

The other person was equally desperate and collapsed and said, "This...this shouldn't be! Missy decided to come to see that Elaine temporarily today, so it is impossible to reveal any whereabouts in advance, and our way is not. Without being followed by anyone, who would take her against her, this is not logical!"

"Oh, you don't care about what is reasonable or unreasonable. The top priority now is to find the eldest lady! Let's call Issac as soon as possible! Aurous Hill is his site, he must be better than us!"

"It makes sense!"

As the man said, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called Issac.

Issac was in the hospital at this time, visiting the employee who miscarried because of Cynthia.

Cynthia's kick not only kicked the female employee's child, but also caused the female employee to cause a severe bleeding. Fortunately, the rescue was timely and she was temporarily out of danger.

Issac hated and angered at the thought of Cynthia's arrogance and domineering, but as a servant of the Wade family, he had no right to point fingers at her anyway.

Chapter 1900

Therefore, he can only comfort his female employee and let her cultivate her body at ease.

After coming out of the ward, Issac sighed, wondering when the grandmother Cynthia could leave when the phone suddenly rang.

The person who called was Cynthia's bodyguard.

Issac answered the phone: "Hey, this is Issac."

The nervous people on the other end of the phone almost cried, and choked up: "Mr. Issac, something has happened, Mr. Issac!"

Issac frowned and asked, "What's the matter? What is such a fuss for."

There was a shivering voice and said: "Issac...Mr. Issac, the eldest lady...she...she is kidnapped!"

There was a buzz in Issac's mind!

What do you mean?

Cynthia was kidnapped in Aurous Hill?

Who is so bold that even they dare to touch the Wade family?

So, he hurriedly said, "Don't worry, let me know the matter clearly after the first five to ten!"

The other party hurriedly said, "Today the eldest lady is looking for a woman named Elaine to talk about something, so we accompanied the eldest lady to a beauty salon and met with that woman..."

"Unexpectedly...the two of them disappeared in the beauty salon together, and even the clerk and boss of the beauty salon are missing..."

In the next moment, he immediately thought of Charlie.

He knew that Charlie had a big quarrel with Cynthia in the Hanging Garden, and the two sides must have been very uncomfortable, so it might really be Charlie's hand.

So he hurriedly called Charlie and asked as soon as he came up, "Master where are you?"

Charlie said lightly: "I'm at home, what's the matter?"

Issac said nervously, "Master did you tie up Miss Cynthia?"

Charlie frowned: "No, I don't even bother to see her, why would I tie her up? Why, she is kidnapped?"

Issac was surprised: "Ah? You didn't do this thing?! That's bad! This is really going to happen!"

Charlie asked, "What the h*ll is going on?"

Issac blurted out: "Miss Cynthia went to the beauty salon to see your mother-in-law, and said she was going to talk to your mother-in-law in person, but she suddenly disappeared and disappeared from the beauty salon!"

Charlie was shocked, and hurriedly asked him: "What about Mother-in-law? Missing too?! Do you know what she said to Mother-in-law?!"

What Charlie feared most at this time was that Cynthia would reveal his identity in front of Elaine.

Now, the Su family is the enemy he must get rid of, and the Wade family does not know whether it is an enemy or a friend. It is very likely that the two top Eastcliff families are his enemies. If his identity is revealed, they will be exposed to those around them. Brings a lot of danger.

Before these things were resolved, he was not going to tell Claire his identity.

However, if Cynthia and Elaine show up, then he won't be able to hide...

Issac also heard that Charlie was a little nervous about this matter, and hurriedly said: "Master don't know the specific situation now. don't know what Miss Cynthia and your mother-in-law talked about. Now they are both kidnapped. We have to find them first!"

Charlie nodded, and said, "You call Orvel. His subordinates are scattered all over Aurous Hill and have many eyes and ears. For this kind of thing he should be able to find a clue!"

Chapter 1901

Under Charlie's order, the entire Aurous Hill Underground World was dispatched almost at this instant.

Orvel even took to the streets in person, looking for clues to Elaine with his men.

Harold didn't know this at this time.

He just wanted to take revenge on Elaine, and then send her to the black brick kiln to work for a lifetime. This will not only suppress the arrogance of Charlie and Claire, but also avenge him and his mother.

Noah was also very excited.

His hatred for Elaine has already reached a peak.

Of the four of Charlie's family, he hates Elaine the most!

The reason why he hates Elaine so much is mainly that Horiyah was sent to the black coal kiln, because of Elaine, and Horiyah was pregnant in the black coal kiln and infected herself with a venereal disease.

That's fine, but this Elaine hung dozens of green hats on the wall to disgust him, so that he will never forget the harm Horiyah has brought to him, and he will always feel green on his head. As time continues to increase, it is no longer a common practice!

At this time, the father and son, together with their accomplices, dragged Elaine and Cynthia to the abandoned warehouse in the suburbs.

Because the warehouse is large, the van can be driven directly into the warehouse.

As soon as the car stopped, Harold jumped out of the car first, and then dragged Elaine out of the car.

Noah looked at Elaine on the ground with a sneer, and said with disgust: "Elaine, Elaine, you never dreamt that you would have a f*cking day today?"

Elaine was terrified, but because her mouth was blocked, she couldn't speak and could only sob loudly.

Noah directly tore off the towel from her mouth.

Elaine blurted out immediately: "Noah! You are so f*cking tired and crooked, dare to kidnap me?! Believe it or not, my son-in-law, can blow your head anytime!"

"Huh?" Noah raised his hand and slapped Elaine, angrily said, "It's all about this time, so f*cking act with me? You think you are on your terrace now, don't you?"

Elaine is a master who cannot afford to lose. Seeing that he dared to beat her, she immediately furiously said: "Noah, you wait! My son-in-law knows many people with good power in Aurous Hill, and he will definitely teach you a lot!"

Noah sneered and said: "Do you still expect Charlie to teach us? I tell you, today I tie you here for two main purposes. First, let a few young people have fun with you, and take some videos to post online, let you and your family be ruined; second, send you to the black brick factory to burn the kiln and move bricks for a lifetime! How did you deal with Horiyah in the first place, I will now get it back hundreds of times!"

As soon as Elaine heard this, she was so frightened!

She really did not expect that Noah would have such a vicious plan!

So, she immediately persuaded him and choked: "Brother, you shouldn't hate me so much. It was not me who wanted to harm my sister in the first place. It was my sister who wanted to harm me. Ask yourself if you didn't want to pit me. My son-in-law's villa, I can't do it against you!"

Noah raised his hand and slapped her again, yelling, "Then you hung so many green hats on your terrace, how do you explain?"

Elaine hurriedly said, "I was really wrong about that, the eldest brother, think I am your younger sibling, please spare me this time, I will definitely collect all the green hats after I go back. Do not keep them there!"

Noah coldly snorted: "Now you know that you confesse your mistake? I tell you, it's too late! Even if it's the gods of health, don't want to save you this time!"

Harold on the side came over and asked in a low voice, "Dad, when should we let people do it?"

Noah said: "Don't worry, when President Wu comes over, he will have to witness it with his own eyes!"

Chapter 1902

Harold asked again: "What should I do there is still a woman in the car? At that time, there was no way but to tie her together, but we don't know her either."

Noah smacked his lips and said, "Don't worry, let's get rid of this one first. If it doesn't work, send that woman to the black brick kiln!"

.....

At this moment, the Wade family had received news that Cynthia was kidnapped.

After Elder Wade heard about this, he was instantly furious!

He threw a beloved blue and white plum bottle directly in the living room, and roared angrily: "With the strength and status of my Wade family in the country, there are still people who dare to kidnap the immediate family members of the Wade family. This is too courageous!"

The three brothers Andrew, Changyun, and Changjun looked at him one by one, but none of them spoke.

Cynthia was kidnapped suddenly, and for them, it was not something worth worrying about.

On the contrary, it is something worthy of the expectations and excitement for the three of them.

None of the three brothers liked her.

The reason is nothing more than the word interest.

If Cynthia, like Changxiu, the youngest daughter of the Wade family, would live steadily with her husband when she married, they would naturally not be dissatisfied with Cynthia.

But it was because she had already married out, but she couldn't keep herself in the husband's family and teach her sons. After separating from her husband, she ran back to the Wade family in an attempt to share a share of the family property. This made the three Wade family brothers treat her very much with disgust.

Moreover, Cynthia was already very serious.

She never cared about the feelings of the three brothers, only the feelings of the father alone.

Therefore, she would often deliberately target the three brothers in order to win the affection of the father, and make them annoying.

Now she has been kidnapped. Isn't this the gift God gave to the three of them?

Although the three of them haven't had any communication with each other, they all have the same wish in their hearts.

That is, they hope the kidnappers will kill Cynthia directly and never let her back again.

The Old Master Zhongquan was very annoyed. During this period of time, he increasingly felt that his eldest daughter Cynthia was not only capable, but also very obedient to his words. Compared with the three sons, Cynthia made herself more compliant.

Now, his daughter, by his own order, went to Aurous Hill to find Charlie, and was kidnapped there. This not only threatened his daughter's life, but also slapped him in the face, so he could not do anything.

So he immediately called Issac and asked about the details of the matter.

Issac could only reply truthfully, and told how she was kidnapped with Elaine, and told Elder Wade in detail.

After listening to the Old Master Wade, he blurted out and asked: "Issac, do you think the other party is targeting Cynthia or Elaine?"

Issac said: "Master I really can't analyze the specific situation now. The eldest has a high status. Maybe there are desperate desperados who want to kidnap her and blackmail a huge fortune. But Charlie's mother-in-law has a pungent personality. Very often, she offends people, maybe the other party may come to her to seek revenge. All of this will be known after the party is found."

Elder Wade immediately said in a cold voice: "Issac, I have two requirements! First, you must rescue Cynthia anyway, otherwise you will be asked; second, immediately grab Cynthia's bodyguard, interrupt his hands and feet, and then send him back to Wade's house to accept punishment!"

Chapter 1903

Issac also knew very well that he had to take responsibility for something wrong with Cynthia.

If Cynthia finally turned away from danger, everything would be fine, but if she really had some shortcomings, then her good life would have come to an end.

What's more, there was Charlie's mother-in-law who disappeared with her this time.

Therefore, he further increased his search power, and even transferred the entire Shangri-La security guard out, just to search for the whereabouts of Cynthia and Elaine as soon as possible.

However, the clues need to start from the beauty salon and a little bit of searching, so it is impossible to find them immediately.

Charlie had also left home at this time and went to the beauty salon to meet Issac.

He was worried about two things at this time. One thing was that Cynthia exposed his identity to Elaine, and the other was that Elaine was Abnerally murdered by the kidnapers.

In fact, until now, he has no family feelings towards Elaine.

After all, Elaine has been bullying and humiliating him for more than three years, but only recently has she changed.

If there is a choice, Charlie hopes that Elaine will evaporate.

However, Charlie felt a little unbearable when he thought of his wife Claire.

Claire is very kind after all, and she can be considered very filial to Elaine. If Elaine disappears for no reason, her blow will be extraordinary.

The last time Elaine entered the detention center, she was missing for just a few days. Claire was going crazy. If something happens this time to her, she would definitely be more worried than the last time.

Moreover, it seems that the New Year will be around in two days. If Elaine has any accident at this time, the family would not have a good year.

Therefore, Charlie still hopes to find and rescue her as much as possible.

.....

At this moment, abandoned warehouses in the suburbs.

Elaine and Cynthia were tied together. The reason why the Willson family and his son hadn't let Elaine go to sleep was mainly that they wanted Regnar to come over and inspect their work.

After all, cannibalism is soft and short.

The Willson family got so many benefits from Regnar, but they never let Charlie family jump in accordance with Regnar's explanation, so Regnar felt very insecure.

This is mainly because the Tomson Villa they live in is not their own, but Regnar lent them to live in.

Moreover, Regnar's investment in the Willson Group's money is also conditional. Regnar can withdraw all the money at any time, and then the Willson family will still have nothing.

Therefore, they wholeheartedly hope that they can please Regnar and satisfy him.

In this way, they can also get more benefits from the Wu family.

Regnar was sitting in the car rushing to the warehouse, and he was very excited.

During this period of time, although he has been busy making the Wu family rise again and can't worry about fighting with Charlie, the hatred of Charlie in his heart has never been lessened.

Chapter 1904

This time he heard that Noah wanted to attack Charlie's mother-in-law first. Regnar was naturally very happy. For fear of missing the show, he asked his men to drive and drive over to watch the live broadcast.

As soon as he arrived, Harold ran to open the door of the warehouse himself, and let the Rolls Royce with Regnar drive in.

Noah walked to the car door excitedly and took the initiative to open the rear seat door for Regnar.

As soon as the door opened, Noah bowed very humbly and said, "Mr. Regnar, you are here!"

Regnar nodded and saw Elaine tied back to back with Cynthia on the ground. He sneered and said, "This is Charlie's mother-in-law, right?"

"Yes!" Noah said with a bit of bitterness: "This girl, the number one v!xen in the universe, is as cheap as a bone! I'll get her to be done later, and I'll help Mr. Regnar!"

When Elaine heard this, she hurriedly begged in fright: "I beg you to let me go, I have no grievances with you, why do you treat me like this..."

Regnar shouted coldly: "I have no grievances or hatreds? Do you know that your son-in-law Charlie deserves my unshakable vengeance?! Today you fell into my hands, don't blame my cruel heart, blame it You found yourself a good son-in-law!"

Elaine was about to collapse and cried out, "I was wronged! Charlie is not the son-in-law I found for myself, but the live-in son-in-law arranged by Noah's father for the Willson family. I strongly opposed it at the beginning, but the Old Master didn't listen to me. Yeah!"

Regnar said contemptuously: "Don't f*cking talk to me about this nonsense, as long as it is the people around Charlie, they will be a thorn in my eye and a thorn in my flesh!"

As he said, his expression was a little excited, but he said with some regret: "It's a pity, you are only Charlie's mother-in-law, not Charlie's immediate family member. If I can find Charlie's immediate family member first, then I in front of Charlie will just kill her with one knife!"

As soon as Ragnar said this, Elaine felt that the woman tied to her behind her trembled violently.

Cynthia almost freaked out at this moment.

She originally thought that she was unlucky enough to meet Elaine, a b*tch woman's enemy.

But now she realized that what she had encountered was not Elaine's enemy, but Charlie's enemy!

Moreover, the other party is still regretting that he has no chance to kill Charlie's immediate family...

Isn't she an immediate family member of Charlie? Charlie's aunt!

At this time, Ragnar looked at Noah and said, "Old Willson, when can you tie Charlie's wife?"

When Noah heard this, he said with some embarrassment: "Mr. Ragnar, Claire is also my niece, I can't make this hand..."

Ragnar waved his hand: "I didn't want to kill his wife! His wife is going to stay in the second to last. Before killing Charlie, kill her in front of Charlie!"

As he said, Ragnar paused slightly, and then said: "I mean, first kill an immediate family member who is related to Charlie and get addicted. He has no parents, so there is no such thing as Seven Aunts and Eight Aunts. Kind of?"

Noah thought about it for a while and said, "Charlie has always been an orphan. I have never heard of his immediate family members. They should have died long ago!"

Ragnar sighed: "That's really a shame!"

At this moment, Elaine suddenly had an idea, and blurted out: "I know I know! Charlie has an immediate family member! The stinky woman who is tied to me is Charlie's aunt! If you hate Charlie, just Kill her, kill her, it's definitely more useful than killing me!"

Cynthia was so scared that she had a cardiac arrest!

She cried desperately in her heart: "When I came out, my father told to me. That I should not let Elaine know that I have the identity of the Wade family. What's afraid is that Elaine knows that she is the Wade family, so the lion speaks loudly.. So, how did Elaine know that she is Aunt of Charlie?!"

Chapter 1905

Elaine actually didn't know who Cynthia was.

She didn't even know what Cynthia's last name was, and where she came from.

And the reason why Elaine said that Cynthia was Charlie's aunt was complete nonsense.

The reason for saying this is complete because she is completely scared by Regnar's words just now.

Elaine was afraid that Regnar would kill her, so she thought to herself: "Since Mr. Regnar wants to kill an immediate family member of Charlie to relieve his hatred, then I might as well cheat the b*tch behind me! This will not only make me safer, and I can avenge this woman for humiliating me and fighting me!"

"This d*mn woman, came and pretended to me inexplicably! She lied to me with a fake cheque and asked me to persuade my daughter to divorce Charlie. This is the point. I framed her as Charlie's aunt. This is completely justified!"

Therefore, Elaine didn't expect that she would actually be on the right side!

Regnar didn't even expect that the woman behind Elaine was Charlie's aunt. He asked in surprise, "Elaine, you said she is Charlie's aunt, aren't you kidding me?"

"Of course not!" Elaine blurted out immediately: "This woman is indeed Charlie's aunt. Just now she ran to the beauty salon to find me and said that she would give me a check for 100 million and let my daughter leave Charlie!"

After Regnar heard this, he strode to Cynthia's face and looked her up and down.

Although he could see that Cynthia was well dressed and didn't look like an ordinary person, he didn't have any impression of her face.

This is not to blame for his ignorance. The main reason is that although the Wade family is famous, the direct members of the Wade family rarely show up in the public eye for personal safety.

Except for Eastcliff's upper class, ordinary people have no chance to meet the Wade family.

The media from all walks of life are absolutely afraid to report any personal information about the Wade family.

Therefore, although Regnar was familiar with the Wade Family of Eastcliff, he even knew it well, but he really didn't know anyone in the Wade Family.

Naturally, he couldn't recognize Cynthia in front of him.

So he tore off the towel from Cynthia's mouth and asked coldly, "Are you Charlie's aunt?"

Cynthia shuddered in shock, and shook her head desperately to deny: "No! I am not Charlie's aunt! I have nothing to do with Charlie!"

Elaine yelled: "f*ck your mother! You have nothing to do with Charlie, why should my daughter divorce Charlie?!"

Cynthia was nervous and didn't know how to answer.

She heard Regnar say with her own ears that Charlie's immediate family would be slaughtered. If he knew that she is Charlie's aunt, he would definitely kill her without saying a word.

Therefore, she knew that she would never admit this relationship.

She even didn't dare to expose the identity of the Wade family, because once the other party knew that she was the Wade family, she was afraid that he would do nothing but kill her forever.

Regnar saw that she hadn't spoken for a long time. He slapped Cynthia's face with a slap in the face and gritted his teeth furiously: "Don't say yes?! Okay! I'll kill you! Anyway, you are going to get killed today!"

Cynthia's face was extremely pale, and she cried and said, "Actually, I am not Charlie's relative at all. I just think that Charlie is a good-looking kid and capable, so I want him to be my son-in-law..."

Chapter 1906

"bullshit!" Before Elaine spoke this time, Regnar cursed Cynthia first, then slapped her again, and cursed: "You the fcking treat me as a three-year-old child? Charlie is married you do not know?"

"I know..." Cynthia cried and said, "Because I know, I can only make this move. I want to separate Charlie and Claire first, and then my daughter will have a chance!"

Regnar sneered: "You woman, you are very dishonest at first glance. I can tell from your eyes that you didn't tell me the truth!"

Cynthia was nervous to death.

In fact, she does not have very good psychological qualities. She has been arrogant before. It is not because of how strong her psychological quality is, but because of the reputation of the Wade family, so she can be free and unreasonable, not afraid that anyone dares to treat her badly.

However, this is not Eastcliff after all.

She also underestimated Regnar's hatred for Charlie.

At this time, Regnar just wanted to teach Charlie a lesson first, and then find a chance to kill him as well.

Therefore, it is impossible for Regnar to reason with Cynthia.

If Cynthia can't prove very clearly that she is not Charlie's aunt, then Regnar would rather kill the wrong person than let it go!

Therefore, Cynthia could only choked and said, "You gentleman, since you hate Charlie so much, you must know that Charlie was an orphan since childhood and grew up in an orphanage. How could I be his aunt? If I really am his aunt, How could I let my nephew live in the orphanage for so many years, don't you think?"

Regnar snorted coldly, gritted his teeth and said: "What's impossible? When my b@stard brother-in-law died, there was a little girl left behind. That little girl was my wife's niece, and she was also called my wife her aunt. She has always wanted to bring her to my side to raise, but I did not agree, so the little girl is still living in the orphanage. Isn't this the same as your situation?"

Cynthia was stunned for a moment, and she had no idea what to do.

At this moment, Harold on the side rummaged in Cynthia's bag for a while, pulled out a document from her bag, and handed it to Regnar with a flat face, and said, "Mr. Regnar, look, this woman is called Cynthia Wade. From Eastcliff!"

Regnar frowned immediately.

Although the surname of Wade is not too much, it is not too few, so he did not think of Cynthia and Wade's family together.

On the contrary, he discovered that this woman was also named Wade, and almost instantly concluded that this woman must be Charlie's aunt!

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and grabbed Cynthia's hair, and his big mouth drew several times. Cynthia's mouth was full of blood, and she said coldly: "You are brave enough, and dare you f*ck me. Do you really think Regnar is vegetative?!"

Cynthia was beaten up and down, and her whole body almost collapsed. She cried and said, "Mr. Orvel, I beg you to let me go. I have no grievances with you. Why should you embarrass me again and again..... If Charlie has offended you, then you can kill him. Don't make me, a woman, so miserable please..."

Cynthia didn't dare to reveal her true identity as the last resort, because once her true identity was revealed, it might be an even stronger motivation for Regnar to kill her.

Therefore, she wants to carry it to the end!

If there is really no other way, then use the identity to make the last fight.

At this time, Regnar grinned: "You said you have no grievances and no enemies with me?! I tell you, all Charlie's relatives and friends are enemies of Regnar! You two, one is Charlie's aunt, One is Charlie's mother-in-law, so don't both of you want to run!"

After that, he immediately shouted to a bodyguard next to him: "Amao! First, drag Charlie's aunt to me, and shot her!"

Chapter 1907

Regnar's violent shout made Cynthia's whole person instantly shaken into chaff.

Because of the high tension of her body, Cynthia didn't control it, so she urinated her pants on the spot.

Since she and Elaine were tied back to back, after urinary incontinence, the urine flowed down into a big pool.

Elaine suddenly felt that the place where she was sitting became damp in an instant, and there was still a bit of stinky smell in the air, immediately like an electric shock, while struggling to move her body, she cursed: "What about you girl? It's so disgusting! When is it good to pee in pants, not pee now, f*ck you b!tch!"

Cynthia has completely collapsed, and all the decentness that she has cultivated for decades as a wealthy daughter has disappeared in this lesson.

She looked at Regnar and cried and said, "Mr. Orvel, please don't kill me. I am the eldest lady of the Wade family of Eastcliff. My name is Cynthia Wade. As long as you spare me this time, I can give you a lot of money. My father Zhongquan Wade will also give you a lot of money!"

Suddenly, Regnar was taken aback, looked at Cynthia, and asked incredulously: "You said you are the eldest lady of the Wade family?!"

Cynthia cried and said, "Yes, I am! I really am!"

Regnar asked again: "You said your father is Zhongquan Wade?!"

Cynthia nodded repeatedly, choked up and said, "Yes! Zhongquan is my father!"

Regnar had never heard of Cynthia.

However, he had heard of Zhongquan's name.

After all, Zhongquan is the head of the Wade family, and he is very well-known throughout the country.

Cynthia said that she was Zhongquan's daughter. Regnar's first thought was: "Impossible!"

He observed at Cynthia, and sneered coldly: "Didn't you just urinate? Take a good picture of yourself and see if you look like the Wade family member?"

Cynthia collapsed and pleaded from the bottom of her heart: "Brother, I really am from the Wade family!"

Regnar said disdainfully, "Well, even if you are really from the Wade family, then I will ask you, what do you do to come to Aurous Hill if you are a dignified Miss from the Wade family?"

Cynthia choked up and said, "I...I'm looking for Charlie..."

Regnar was even more disdainful: "Charlie is just a live-in son-in-law who knows Feng Shui metaphysics, don't you f*cking tell me that he is also from the Wade family of Eastcliff!"

Cynthia cried and said, "It's true! Charlie is really a member of our Wade family. He is the son of my second brother and the grandson of my father..."

Elaine was stunned, and forgot that all of her body was soaked with Cynthia's urine, and blurted out, "What did you say?! You said Charlie is the grandson of Wade family?!"

"Yes..." Cynthia said sincerely: "Charlie had been living in Eastcliff when he was a child. Later, due to some special reasons, he followed his parents to Aurous Hill, and then his parents died. He was sent to Aurous Hill Welfare Institute..."

"Impossible!" Elaine blurted out: "If Charlie is really the young master of the Wade family, how could he have been growing up in the orphanage? And when he became an adult, he was picked up by my father-in-law from the construction site when he worked as a construction worker. Yes, you tell me now that he is the eldest of the Wade family? I f*cking said that I am the queen mother who came down to earth!"

Regnar also said in a cold voice: "What you said is not in line with common sense. If Charlie really has such a powerful identity, how can he be included in such a poor family?"

Noah touched his nose, and said awkwardly, "Mr. Regnar, what you are saying is not appropriate..."

Chapter 1908

"That's it, Mr. Regnar..." Harold on the side was also a little unconvinced, and said: "Our Willson family in Aurous Hill can be regarded as a middle-class family anyway, and that's also a good one!"

Regnar glared at him and cursed: "Your family has a head and a face? Your sister has a head and a face, and even went to kneel and lick the bad Old Master Fredmen? With a head and a face, your mother sl3pt with the overseer in the black coal mine?"

As soon as Noah heard this, his face flushed with shame, and he wanted to slash the ground and get in on the spot.

Harold beside him also wanted to die in embarrassment.

Regnar seemed to be puzzled. He gritted his teeth and cursed: "dmn, the TV in my villa has been sold by your family secretly, and you have the face to tell me that your family has a head and a face? Your grandma runs away with a head and face. From Charlie's house steals foreign daffodils to make dumplings to eat? How much does it cost you to buy two kilograms of leeks at the dmn vegetable market?! The fcking family is stupid, saying that you're all fcking fcking fcks!"

Noah and Harold were speechless immediately.

What Regnar said is the truth. After the Willson family fell, they did a lot of things that were not ethical, indiscriminate, and bull$hit. If they were to say one by one, they would really bring the Willson family back. The ancestor's face is lost.

Cynthia's desire to die is gone.

Obviously, she was confessing her identity and Charlie's background to Regnar, how to say it, became Regnar and cursed the other two people bloody?

So, she looked at Regnar with a very pious expression: "Big brother, every word I say is true. I can swear to the heavens. Please look at the face of the Wade family and let me go. Right!"

.....

At this moment.

Charlie was sitting on Issac's helicopter, flying to the suburbs at high speed.

Noah and Harold's methods of committing crimes are not smart, and it is not difficult for Issac and his men to find out their trajectory.

Soon, they locked the van based on surveillance video, and then used traffic monitoring to get out their crime route along the way.

After learning that the other party was currently in an abandoned warehouse in the suburbs, Issac immediately organized a large number of men to prepare for rescue.

Charlie naturally went with him.

When the helicopter was flying, Charlie, who was sitting in the cabin, looking sad.

Seeing this, Issac on the side hurriedly comforted: "Master we can rush over in a few minutes. Your mother-in-law and Miss Cynthia should not be in danger of life."

Charlie rubbed the bridge of his nose and sighed: "Noah and Harold are likely to be working for Regnar. I can probably guess how they would treat Elaine. It is likely that they will find something similar to a black coal mine after torturing Elaine. The place imprisoned her for suffering, so I am not worried that they will kill Elaine."

Issac nodded and said, "Miss Cynthia is the eldest daughter of the Wade family. If it is Regnar who is in charge behind her and Miss Cynthia reveals her identity, he should not dare to make trouble, so Miss Cynthia will probably not encounter a threat to her life."

Charlie smacked his lips and said: "What I worry about is that my aunt reveals her identity! If she reveals her identity, she will definitely reveal my identity. I don't want others to know that I have anything to do with the Wade family!"

Issac hurriedly asked, "What if Miss Cynthia has already said it?"

Charlie said coldly: "If she has already said it, then she must be a little wronged by the time!"

Chapter 1909

At this moment, an abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of the city.

Cynthia, who had not dared to reveal his identity, couldn't take care of that much now.

Seeing that Regnar had never believed in her, she hurriedly blurted out, "Mr. Regnar, I really am the eldest daughter of the Wade family of Eastcliff. As for you just mentioned that Charlie grew up in the orphanage, I don't deny that. This is mainly because Charlie's situation is very special. His father was Changying, the famous Eastcliff hero from back then. You should have heard of this, right?"

Regnar felt a little in his heart.

He secretly thought: "Changying?! This was my idol when I was young! The Changying back then, with his own power, made the Wade family stand on top of the country, even straight away, and even suppressed the old European and American family Rose. The arrogance of the family, that man, in the domestic business world, was a godlike existence! It is a pity that Changying died young, otherwise the future was boundless..."

Thinking of this, he frowned and looked at Cynthia, and asked, "You said Charlie is Changying's son?! What evidence is there?!"

Cynthia blurted out: "Don't you think that the two of them look very alike? The two are simply carved out of the same mold. What kind of evidence is needed..."

Regnar said coldly: "What you said is just nonsense! I don't even know what Changying looks like!"

Changying passed away eighteen years ago. At that time, the Internet in China had just started. He usually relied on TV and newspapers to obtain information.

However, families like the Wade family generally do not report directly on TV and newspapers, so things about these big families are basically passed on by word of mouth from the upper class.

At that time, Regnar was in Suzhou, so he never had a chance to see him. He just heard about Changying's many deeds.

So, how did he know that Charlie and Changying looked that same or not?

Cynthia had no choice but to say: "You also read my ID card just now. My name is Cynthia, a native of Eastcliff. The word 'Wade' is my surname. I have two elder brothers, the two younger brothers, the eldest brother Andrew, the second brother Changying, the third brother Changyitian, the fourth brother Wade Changjun, and the younger sister named Changxiu, these are all true! I am really the Wade family member!"

Regnar frowned.

Changying has long been like a thunderbolt, and Cynthia has also heard about it.

He couldn't help muttering in his heart: "Is what this woman said is true?! If so, didn't I cause a catastrophe? If the Wade family is investigated by that time, then I am afraid that the family will be ruined!"

Seeing Regnar's expression of uncertainties, and the nervousness that could not be concealed, Harold on the side was a little startled.

He asked Noah in a low voice, "Dad, you said Charlie's rag, isn't it he really a member of the Wade family?"

Noah frowned and said seriously: "This...don't know. It sounds impossible at first, but when I think about it, it doesn't seem to be fake, otherwise, where did this woman emerge from? Why is she here? Even if she is not Charlie's aunt, at least she has a certain connection with him!"

Harold nodded repeatedly: "It makes sense!"

Elaine was also in a cloud at this time.

She had sneered at all that Cynthia said, but the more Cynthia said, the more truth she felt.

She couldn't help but wonder in her heart: "Mom! is my son-in-law really the young master of the top big family?! If this is true, won't I have to become so prosperous in the future?!"

Elaine suddenly became excited.

However, after a while, the excitement in her heart was immediately replaced by despair.

She looked at the menacing people around her, and wailed in her heart: "Oh, why is my life so bitter? Finally, my son-in-law has great ability, but I am tied up by these b@stards, in case they really give me away. What can I do after entering the black brick kiln? Will Charlie come and save me?!"

Chapter 1910

Thinking of this, Elaine suddenly realized that she had treated Charlie too badly before.

She thought of the past that she had been arrogant, screaming, and even bullying and insulting him before, and she regretted it very much.

She couldn't help thinking, "What if Charlie still hates me in his heart? I'm missing this time. Maybe it's just as his wish. If he doesn't want me to go back at all, then he won't come to the rescue at all. Me, do I have to burn and move bricks in the black brick kiln for the rest of my life?!"

At this point, Elaine burst into tears immediately.

At this time, Regnar looked at Cynthia and said, "Since you said you are from the Wade family, then I ask you, what evidence do you have to prove it?"

Cynthia hurriedly said, "I have my checkbook and my personal signature stamp in my bag. You can take a look!"

Regnar looked at Harold and blurted out, "Where is her bag?"

Harold immediately returned to the van and took out Cynthia's top runway Hermes.

As soon as he saw this bag, Regnar shook his heart.

Elaine didn't know the goods and couldn't recognize how much the bag was worth, but he did.

Back then, his wife Yaqina also participated in the Hermès spring show. In that show, this bag was the finale.

Moreover, according to the official introduction of Hermès at the time, this bag is a collection of Hermès' top artisans, handmade, and there is only one, which is extremely valuable.

At that time, Yaqina matched this bag at a glance, and he had to buy it for her. It's a pity that Hermes officially stated that this bag had already been ordered by a celebrity in Eastcliff, so no one else would buy it.

Yaqina didn't give up, and even asked Regnar to act like a baby, hoping that Regnar could find a way to help her buy this bag.

Regnar tried several times, but the other party did not let go.

Later, a senior Hermès official told Regnar that this bag had been ordered by a member of the top family of Eastcliff and persuaded him to give up.

Regnar heard that it was ordered by a member of Eastcliff's top big family, and immediately understood that the other party was definitely not an object of competition.

Therefore, he spent a lot of money and bought a lot of other Hermes for his wife, which made his wife give up thinking about this bag.

Now, when he saw this bag again, he almost immediately determined Cynthia's identity deep down in his heart!

At this moment, Regnar had all the desire to die deep in his heart!

"Isn't this a f*cking beeping dog? Isn't it! Today it was just the Willson family father and son asking him, flattering him, saying that they wanted to engage in Elaine, and he hated Charlie, so came to watch the excitement... ."

"But who the h*ll would have imagined that the Willson family's father and son, the eldest daughter of the Wade family, were tied together!"

"This is a member of the Wade family! Let's not talk about the courage of the Rubbish father and son, the key is, how can such a big person make the father and son tied up? Is there not even a bodyguard with Cynthia?!"

As he was thinking, Harold had already handed Cynthia's bag over. He handed it over to Regnar with respectful hands, and said flatly, "Mr. Regnar, I don't think you should believe this stinky woman who is slanderous here. , When we went to catch Elaine, this stinky woman was ganging up with the v!xen, and she was still riding the hammer on her face by Elaine, but as long as she is a person with status, not even a bodyguard was around, right?"

Cynthia blurted out: "I brought him! I brought two bodyguards and an assistant, but at the time I wanted to go to the beauty salon to talk to Elaine about Charlie, and I didn't want Elaine to know my identity and be followed by her. Mistake our Wade family, so I let the bodyguard wait at the door..."

Speaking of this, Cynthia said angrily: "But I never expected that the owner of that beauty salon would be in the same group as you!"

Chapter 1911

Regnar opened Cynthia's Hermes with fear.

Inside, in addition to the checkbook, there is indeed a badge of Cynthia's name.

People's name badges are usually not carved by ordinary people, and there is no need to use them.

But if it is an enterprise leader or senior management, almost everyone must.

A lot of money-related businesses need a corresponding name stamp, especially cash checks.

Moreover, the font of the name seal is generally unconventional, so Regnar can clearly see that the two words "Cynthia Wade" are engraved on this seal.

Seeing Cynthia's name badge, Regnar's blood pressure rose instantly and he could barely stand.

In the next moment, he even had the desire to die.

This feeling is like asking the Willson family and his son to catch a dog, but when the other party catches the dog, he still catches a tiger in confusion.

The key is that behind this tiger, there is also an extremely powerful family.

Regnar cried angrily in his heart: "What the h*ll is this! I just want to teach Elaine. How the young lady of the Wade family... Came to join in the fun! This is a good thing Noah and Harold did, but Cynthia took me as Mastermind as soon as I came..."

At this moment, Cynthia saw that Regnar's expression was very complicated, and he knew clearly that he should believe in her identity, so she hurriedly said: "Mr. Regnar, I know that you really want to tie Elaine, not me, between us. But it's just a misunderstanding. As long as you let me go, I will definitely not pursue what happened today. In the future, I will promote the cooperation between the Wade family and the Wu family. What do you think?"

Hearing this, Regnar's heart was more or less moved.

Judging from today's things alone, he has nothing more than two choices.

The first one is to do nothing but to kill Cynthia directly;

The second is to quickly rein in the cliff, perhaps the Wade Family can still give him a chance.

If he chose the first one, he must have a prerequisite, that is, after he kills Cynthia, he must ensure that the Wade family cannot find him.

So he beckoned to Noah, and said coldly: "Old Willson, come, take a step to speak."

Noah hurriedly followed up.

Noah took him to the door of the warehouse and asked in a low voice, "Did you deliberately avoid surveillance on the way you tied these two women?"

"No." Noah shook his head and said: "After we tied them up from the beauty salon, the driver navigated directly here, and the route they took was all the route planned by the navigation..."

Regnar's legs softened and he almost couldn't stand firm.

Noah hurriedly supported him and asked, "Mr. Regnar, what's wrong?"

Regnar opened his hand and asked angrily: "You didn't find a hidden place to change your car on the way you came?"

"Change the car?" Noah asked in astonishment: "Mr. Regnar, I didn't think this was necessary, right? Isn't it just two stinky ladies? Just tuck them into the car and pull it over?"

As he said, Noah reminded him: "Mr. Regnar, I always feel that the lady named Cynthia has something wrong with her, but her mouth can be fooled. I almost believed what she just said, but I am careful. After thinking about it, he still feels that something was wrong!"

Chapter 1912

After a pause, Noah continued to talk loudly: "Look, Mr. Rengar, if this Cynthia is really from the top Eastcliff family, how could she come to Aurous Hill? Besides, what she said about Charlie's life experience is simply d*mn it! Charlie's stinky rag, before he arrived at our house, he was just a small casual worker who lived on the construction site with food and lodging, and a poor batch of hanging people! Not obedient, maybe he Back then, couldn't even use wiping paper, how could he be the young master of a wealthy family? Which wealthy family was willing to throw their children out for so many years?"

Regnar remained expressionless, and did not respond to what he said.

Although what Noah said may sound reasonable at first, there is no real evidence at all.

However, Regnar had seen Cynthia's checkbook and the name stamp just now.

The checkbook is real, and the name stamp is by no means forgery.

Coupled with her top Hermes limited edition, it is basically certain that she must be Cynthia Wade.

He was 10,000 the person who didn't believe Cynthia's words. He couldn't understand the mentality of the upper-class people.

She said that she could not blame the past, but if he really made her free. The first thing she does is probably to kill him.

However, if you kill her now, it is too unsafe.

Because Noah and Harold were far from cautious in handling this matter, they were brought here directly after they were tied up, and there was no change of cars along the way. As long as the road monitoring is strictly checked, the car could be tracked all the way.

Maybe, they will be here soon!

Thinking of this, Regnar's nervous scalp became numb.

Immediately, he thought to himself: "Since this Cynthia can't be killed, he can only do everything he can to save the situation!"

After making up his mind, he immediately said to Noah: "Come, follow me in."

Noah nodded quickly, followed him eagerly, and walked back to the warehouse.

As soon as Regnar entered the warehouse, he strode towards Cynthia. Before he came to the front, he was very ashamed and said, "Oh, Madam Wade, what happened today is really a misunderstanding, Noah and Harold, father and son, they wanted to teach Charlie's mother-in-law Elaine, the shrew behind you, I didn't expect that the two goddamn b@stards would arrest you. I'm so sorry!"

Upon hearing this, Cynthia was relieved immediately...

At this moment, she was so excited that she almost cried!

Harold on the side heard this and asked with surprise: "Mr. Regnar, which one are you singing?"

"Which one did you sing?!" Regnar grabbed Harold's collar directly, slapped it violently, and cursed: "You f*cking have a face to say? The whole thing is because of you and your father. Let's start together! If you two hadn't been for Elaine, you wouldn't have got Ms. Wade involved!"

After the fight, Regnar cursed with lingering fears: "Fortunately, I came and took a look today. If I didn't come here today and you did something excessive with Ms. Wade, I'd kill you both with my own hands."

Harold said with a dazed expression: "Mr. Regnar, what do you mean by this? We tied Elaine, but it's all for you!"

"For me?!" Regnar scolded: "f*ck your mother! What does this have to do with me!"

After speaking, he immediately angrily shouted to several bodyguards around him: "Come here, give me the two arms of this b@stard!"

Chapter 1913

Harold's whole body collapsed after hearing this!

Seeing Regnar's bodyguards stepping forward, he rushed towards him, scared back, and shouted nervously: "Mr. Regnar, what are you doing! I...we are not all for you. Isn't it... you don't need to do this, why would you abolish my arms?"

Regnar exploded in anger, and he blurted out: "If you dare to say it's for me, I'll break your legs!"

Harold was horrified. Before he could run far, he was firmly pressed to the ground by a few tall bodyguards.

Regnar's bodyguards are not good, and since the boss has ordered, they will never hesitate.

Therefore, as soon as Harold was pushed to the ground, someone picked up a brick from the ground and slammed it on his shoulder.

Harold let out a painful ouch, and before he finished screaming, a sharp pain came from the other shoulder, which made him almost fainted.

Seeing that his son was smashed into such a miserable picture, Noah hurried up to intercede, and blurted out: "Mr. Regnar...Mr. Regnar! My son is completely kind, even if he does something bad, you should not be too cruel to him..."

Regnar gritted his teeth and cursed: "Your speak really a lot of bull$hit! Come here, give me both of his arms!"

At this moment, Regnar knew that this incident could not be completely hidden, so he could only choose to fall to Cynthia.

He just wanted to do his best to prove to her that he was innocent.

Therefore, at this time, Noah dares to say that they are out of good intentions, isn't this breaking the dirty water on himself?

In that case, don't blame him for being rude!

To abolish them is to give Cynthia a name.

If Cynthia relieved her hatred and anger in her heart, his troubles would be much smaller.

How could Noah ever think that this d*mn Regnar not only turned his face, but he abolished his son's arm, and when he was about to abolish his arms!

Seeing that his son was smashed to the ground and wailing, his first thought was to run away.

However, he is about to become a bad Old Master, which is the opponent of Regnar's several mature bodyguards.

Therefore, before running a few steps, he was immediately pressed to the ground.

After that, the same brick was smashed twice, and Noah was thrown to his son like a pig to be slaughtered. The wailing of the father and son resounded throughout the warehouse.

The wailing was so loud that the helicopter roared from a distance, and the people inside could not hear it.

The bloody father and son, their shoulders were full of blood at this time, they looked terrible.

Seeing that both father and son had their arms destroyed, Regnar came to Cynthia flatly and said: "Ms. Wade, I have already taught these two beasts. I hope you don't get angry..."

Cynthia breathed a sigh of relief, but couldn't help complaining: "You have to untie me!"

"Oh, yes, yes!" Regnar hurriedly started and untied Cynthia's rope.

Cynthia just regained her freedom and immediately jumped up from the ground, completely ignoring that she was full of urine. The first thought was to turn around, grab Elaine by the hair, and hit her face with a violent blow!

Chapter 1914

"bstard, you beat me! You beat me! You fcking country shrew, even you dare to beat me, it's really all because of you!"

Elaine was still tied up, so she didn't have any resistance at all, so she could only let Cynthia output wildly on her face and head.

At this time, Elaine was yelling and begging for mercy: "Oh, elder sister, please don't beat me. Can I know if I did wrong?"

"Knowing that you are wrong?" Cynthia was even more furious when she heard this. She blasted the hammer at Elaine and shouted angrily: "You have killed me like this. Just tell you that you know you are wrong?! The Old Lady not only wants it all today? I have to kill you for that!"

Elaine frightened her a and blurted out: "Sister, forgive me! Don't forget, you are Charlie's aunt, I am Charlie's mother-in-law, we are relatives! Between relatives, how can we fight like this?! If my son-in-law turns against you in the future because of this, you won't be able to hold on to it!"

Cynthia snorted coldly: "I'm going to your mother! How could I be relatives to a poor ghost like you! If Charlie dares to bring your family back to Wade's house, I will not let him!"

When Ragnar on the side heard this, he suddenly became energetic and said excitedly: "Ms. Wade, as long as you have a word, I will let people kill this stinky woman!"

When Elaine heard this, she looked at Cynthia in horror, and begged: "Sister, if you don't look at the face of the monk and the face of the Buddha, you will spare this dog! At most you will label me like Noah and Harold, but let me live..."

Cynthia also hoped that Elaine would go to h*ll.

However, she suddenly thought of the father's entrustment to herself, and suddenly she felt a little daunted.

She knew that if she really let Regnar kill Elaine, she was afraid that Charlie would not forgive her.

At that time, if Charlie resisted the Wade Family, the Old Master would definitely complain that she didn't get things done properly.

Thinking of this, she gave up the idea of killing Elaine, looked at her, gritted her teeth and said: "Should you f*cking talk nonsense with me, the Old Lady can't kill you because of Charlie's face today, but you are doing a capital offense." It can be avoided, living sins you cannot escape!"

After finishing speaking, she looked at Regnar and sternly shouted: "Interrupt her hands and feet!"

When Regnar heard this, he immediately said, "Ms. Wade, don't worry, leave it to me!"

After finishing speaking, the opponent hurriedly shouted: "Come here, give me her hands and feet!"

As soon as the voice fell, several subordinates rushed over.

Elaine was so frightened that she broke down and cried, but the other party directly held on to her, without saying anything, directly picked up the brick and slammed it on Elaine's right knee.

At this moment, Elaine fainted almost instantly in pain.

When she was in the detention center her right knee was broken once by Mrs. Willson. After so long, she had just removed the plaster and recovered within a last few days. This time, she was smashed again. The pain of the heart was so painful. She is desperate!

Elaine immediately cried out heartbreakingly: "Please forgive me, my leg has been broken once, and now it happened to be broken again. You want my life... ..."

Regnar sternly reprimanded: "Stop the f*cking nonsense, Miss Wade will break your hands and legs. You have just finished a quarter!"

Elaine screamed out like crazy: "Then you kill me! You kill me, I no longer have to suffer this crime!"

Regnar scolded in disgust: "What a f*cking shrew! You guys, quickly get rid of her for me!"

When the man with the slab was about to attack Elaine's other leg, the door of the warehouse was suddenly kicked open. A dozen men in black with live ammunition quickly filed in and pointed their guns at the people inside.

The headed man in black was holding a gun and said coldly: "No one is allowed to move. If anyone dares to move in my sight, be careful that my bullets do not have eyes!"

Chapter 1915

Seeing a group of men in black with live ammunition rushing in, everyone was stunned.

Regnar asked nervously: "Who are you?!"

Among them, the man in black wearing a black mask said coldly: "We are Interpol! We are ordered to investigate a huge transnational fraud case!"

It was not someone else who spoke, but Charlie's most loyal subordinate, Orvel.

At this time, Charlie was on the helicopter outside, but he didn't get off.

He didn't plan to come forward directly on this matter today, otherwise, there would be no way to explain to his mother-in-law Elaine.

At this moment, Regnar's expression is extremely surprised, Interpol? Check transnational fraud? What does it have to do with him?

He just kidnapped Elaine and Cynthia!

Elaine felt as if her nerves were hit by high-voltage electricity all at once, and her whole body trembled. She immediately thought of her tragic experience when she was sent to the cell for stealing Charlie's bank card.

However, after a while, she immediately came back to her senses and cried out for help: "Comrade Interpol, help! I am kidnapped by these people, they are going to kill me!"

The headed man in black walked up to her, checked her injuries, and said coldly to those around him: "Protect the injured first!"

"Yes!" Several people in black moved at the same time, and then hurriedly stepped forward and dragged Elaine, who has a broken leg now.

Elaine saw that she was being protected by a few men in black with guns, and she was completely relieved, and she cried loudly.

Seeing that Elaine was protected, Regnar immediately became anxious!

Elaine gave Cynthia a name. If she were protected by Interpol, how could he satisfy Cynthia? !

So he immediately questioned: "Hey! Did you make a mistake? There is no suspect of transnational fraud! Quickly let the woman go!"

Orvel walked directly in front of him, kicked him on his abdomen, kicked him all the way, with the muzzle against his forehead, and said coldly: "What? Are you teaching me to do things here?!"

Feeling the cold muzzle, Regnar was so frightened that he immediately waved his hand and said, "I dare not, I just want to confirm..."

Orvel said disdainfully: "No more nonsense, we will take you back to the Vienna headquarters for trial!"

Cynthia walked over in embarrassment at this time and said to Orvel, who was dressed in black, "Is this Interpol? I know the person in charge of your Vienna headquarters. I don't care what you are going to do here. I now ask you to send me first. I want to go to the hospital and you will protect me all the way until someone in my family takes over!"

Orvel looked at Cynthia and sneered for a moment. Without a word, he slapped her loudly!

Cynthia sighed. Before she had time to question the reason, Orvel sternly shouted: "Roxa, we have been investigating you for a long time! In the beginning, you specially made counterfeit Citibank black gold cards and searched for victims all over the country. The reason why people like Elaine were arrested on suspicion of defrauding the bank because she used the card you made. We have already investigated the fact that you used the alias Cynthia to slander and deceive all over the world. We have already investigated it! Do you dare to argue here?!"

Cynthia was stunned by this remark.

Chapter 1916

She subconsciously questioned: "Who do you say is the Roxa?! How could I be called such a thing! I am Wade's daughter! I am Cynthia Wade who has been replaced by a fake!"

Orvel shouted coldly: "You still pretend to me? You have killed so many people and caused so many companies and individuals bankrupted for so many years, don't you have the slightest knowledge of yourself?"

Elaine was also dumbfounded...

Ten thousand voices in her heart kept lingering in her mind: "What the h*ll is going on? Who is this woman? Is she Charlie's aunt or a transnational scammer?!"

"If she is Charlie's aunt, what's the matter with these Interpol people? They also accurately stated what she was arrested and was in prison, which seems to be really well-founded."

"If she is a transnational scammer, why did she find her and want her daughter to divorce Charlie? And even a big man like Regnar believes she is really Wade's daughter?!"

"These two things seem to have their own reasons. If you take out any of them, you can stand up..."

At this moment, Orvel continued to scold, "We have already investigated what you did. We also know the purpose of your visit to Elaine this time. Don't you just want to give that? Do the three women who have been sentenced to life imprisonment take revenge? You want Elaine's family to ruin, right?"

As soon as Elaine heard this, she suddenly thought of the three women who made trouble for her and wanted to kill her when she was in prison!

One of them was a middle-aged woman with a scar on her face. The woman said at the time that they were arrested because of Elaine...

Thinking of this, Elaine's balance has already tilted!

She began to feel that Cynthia should be a liar more likely!

At this moment, Cynthia was already stunned: "What are you talking about! I am not Roxa at all! I am Cynthia!"

Orvel sneered: "Still pretending? It seems that you scammers are very involved in the drama. Sometimes you forget who you are and brainwash others? Well, if this is the case, then I don't Leave room for you. We have already understood your plan ahead of time! You want to use a short promise to induce Elaine to persuade her daughter to divorce Charlie, right?!"

Cynthia blurted out: "What the h*ll are you talking about?! The check I wrote to her is real!!! It's a real check not like a fake replacement!!!"

A smile was wiped at the corner of Orvel's mouth, but Cynthia couldn't see it under the cover of the black mask.

Charlie had long guessed that his aunt would definitely use the money to smash Elaine, so he deliberately let Orvel pour dirty water on Cynthia.

Elaine has been in jail. Fake checks and bank cards will definitely make her extremely sensitive.

Charlie's guess of Elaine was really thorough!

As soon as Elaine heard this, she immediately blurted out: "Comrade Interpol, she gave me a fake check for 100 million!"

Mr. Orvel nodded and said coldly: "Her intention is to induce you to disturb your daughter's marriage first, and then ask you to go to the bank with a fake check to exchange it. Then the bank will definitely call the police. You will definitely be sent back to prison for fraud."

After that, Orvel paused and said, "It's just that you were let out by chance last time. If you go in again this time, you will not be so lucky. It is very likely that you will be the same as her three men. Sentenced to life imprisonment!"

When Elaine heard this, she felt a chill in her back! She screamed in her heart: "My god! Fortunately, I have learned the skills. When I saw Roxa, this stinky woman giving me a check, I guessed that she must be a liar. Sure enough! Mom is really stupid. I'm afraid I'll be imprisoned in a blink of an eye!"

Chapter 1917

The many key points mentioned by Orvel quickly convinced Elaine of his words.

Now thinking of the three wicked women she met in the prison, she still had lingering fears, as if it had become a psychological shadow of her.

Orvel looked at her at this time and said seriously: "Ms. Elaine, this time you did not believe in the tricks of this scammer and did not get deceived. This is indeed a very big improvement. Otherwise, once you are sentenced to life, you would have become human sandbags of Roxa's three subordinates..."

When Elaine heard this, she couldn't help but be shocked!

"Mom! This is too d*mn dangerous! Fortunately, I am strong and vigilant, otherwise, if I was actually trapped in prison, wouldn't it be the three stinky ladies who would blast me for decades? ?!"

Mr. Orvel turned his face, looked at Cynthia again, and said coldly: "Roxa, now there are Interpol from more than 20 countries applying for extradition for your return from China for investigation. You can be said to be the biggest fraudster in human history! You will stay overnight! Send you back to the Interpol headquarters in Vienna for trial. Which country will extradite you back to your country for trial will depend on which country you committed the highest amount of crime in!"

Cynthia's entire will and spirit at this time have almost completely collapsed!

She felt as if she had suddenly fallen into a magical world, in this world, nobody believed anything she said...

Moreover, in this magical world, she was confused by the name Roxa.

Moreover, she became a transnational scammer!

Still the biggest scammer in human history!

This is just nonsense!

Cynthia suddenly felt that there seemed to be a huge conspiracy behind the incident, so she shouted: "I now doubt your identity, whether you are from Interpol! Show me your relevant documents!"

Orvel sneered: "Why? You found that you couldn't escape with your wings, so you want to take a bite back? I tell you Roxa, this time you can't have any chance to escape!"

Having said that, he immediately ordered several people around him: "Handcuff her for me and get her on the helicopter!"

"Yes!"

Several people in black immediately rushed forward, handcuffed Cynthia's hands behind her back with handcuffs, and walked outside holding her.

Orvel said coldly: "Roxa is a serious offender, wear a black hood over her!"

"OK, Sir!"

One of the people in black immediately used a black cloth cover to directly cover Cynthia's head.

Elaine, who was paralyzed on the ground because of a broken leg, blurted out and shouted: "Comrade Interpol, you must sentence her to death! Don't let this stinky woman come out to harm others!"

Mr. Orvel said lightly: "Don't worry, she will definitely get a fair trial!"

After finishing speaking, he shouted to the other subordinates: "Take this guy with the surname Wu away. We highly suspect that he is involved in cross-border money laundering. We wanted to arrest him a long time ago, but we didn't expect to meet him here!

Regnar said in a panic: "When did I become a suspect of cross-border money laundering?! I have been doing business fairly, and I have never committed any illegal or criminal activities!"

Orvel slapped him directly, "Don't you know how many nasty things your brother-in-law has done over the years?"

Regnar blurted out, "My brother-in-law did that. What does it have to do with me?"

Chapter 1918

Orvel slapped him on the face again, and cursed: "If you didn't support him behind his back, how could he have done so many detrimental things? Do you think you can be exempted without doing it directly? Don't forget. The commanders of those invaders are all Class A war criminals!"

Regnar blurted out: "But then I didn't launder money across borders either!"

Orvel sneered: "Whether it is washed or not, you know it yourself, and we know it too! When the time comes, all the evidence will be in front of you, depending on how hard your mouth is!"

After finishing speaking, he waved to the people around him: "Take this guy away for me!"

The person Orvel hates most in his life is Regnar.

He observed at Regnar and cursed in his heart: "Regnar, the old dog, sent people to Classic Mansion and almost killed me! Had Master not arrived in time and rewarded me with a rejuvenation pill, I might have already reported to the angel of death, this time you fell into my hands, see if I f*cking not kill you!"

Seeing that Regnar was also taken out, Elaine hurriedly pointed at Noah and Harold who were like dead dogs on the ground, and asked Mr. Orvel: "Comrade Interpol, the two of them intend to kidnap me, what should I do?"

Mr. Orvel said indifferently: "This... we are the Interpol after all. We are affiliated with the Interpol headquarters in Vienna. We mainly catch transnational crimes. Local criminals like them should be handed over directly to the local officers!"

Elaine nodded repeatedly and echoed: "That's OK! Send them to life imprisonment!"

Orvel nodded and said, "Don't worry about this. In this way, I will arrange someone to take you to the hospital, and then you will inform your family members. We will notify the local officers of these two people, so you don't have to worry about it."

Elaine burst into tears and cried, "Comrade Interpol, please send me to the hospital. My leg broke again in just a few days. Hey... God, why am I facing this? My fate is hard for me..."

Orvel greeted the people around him and said, "You, drive Ms. Elaine to the hospital."

"OK Captain!"

Later, Elaine was helped out of the warehouse by two people.

As soon as she left the warehouse, she was stunned by the sight in front of her!

In the open space at the entrance of the warehouse, three helicopters and a dozen black cars were parked.

She couldn't help sighing in her heart: "My boy! This Interpol is amazing! There are several helicopters! Fortunately there is Interpol today. Otherwise, wouldn't she be killed by Roxa and Regnar?!"

Thinking of this, she cursed in her heart: "That Regnar is a d*mn idiot! What a billionaire boss, you can't even see the identity of a fraudster like Roxa, and a mouthful of Ms. Wade shouted. That's him lying flatly before her! So stupid!"

Afterwards, Elaine was taken into a Rolls-Royce car, and the driver drove away quickly from the scene to Aurous Hill People's Hospital.

At this moment, Cynthia was sitting on the helicopter nervously.

With a black cloth bag on her head, she couldn't see the surrounding environment at all, so she was extremely nervous.

At this time, she felt that her headgear was suddenly taken off, and she was terrified.

But when she took a closer look, she realized that the person sitting in front of her was her nephew, Charlie!

At this moment, Cynthia finally knew that these Interpol were fakes at all, and they must all belong to Charlie!

Roxa and transnational scammers are nothing but his playbook!

Realizing that Charlie had been playing tricks on her, she suddenly sternly scolded: "Charlie! Are you f*cking crazy?! I'm Cynthia Wade, you even dare to play with me?!"

Chapter 1919

Facing the furious Cynthia, Charlie just smiled indifferently, and asked her: "Big New Year, don't you stay in Eastcliff to prepare for the New Year, came to Aurous Hill to find trouble for me, persuade Mother-in-law, and ask my wife to divorce me. , You can do all kinds of mischievous things, can't I play you around yet?"

Cynthia's expression flashed a bit awkward, and then she gritted her teeth and said: "I'm doing all for your own good! Look at your wife. How can she be worthy of you?"

Charlie said in a cold tone: "Can my wife be worthy of me? I don't need you to point fingers here. Today's matter is just a small lesson for you. If you know me, please go back to Eastcliff as soon as possible. Otherwise, I will not let you stay in Aurous Hill for the New Year."

Cynthia was immediately furious!

She struggled to get up, but was pushed back by the man in black next to her, she could only grit her teeth and shouted: "Charlie! Do you dare to threaten me?!"

Charlie nodded and said blankly, "Now it's just threatening you. If you really annoy me, I might be going to hit you."

"Dare you!" Cynthia gritted her teeth and said, "If you dare to move me, I will fight you!"

Charlie snorted and said, "Even my subordinates can slap you. Why don't I dare? The reason why I don't want to hit you is because I don't want to dirty my hands."

Cynthia yelled like a ghost: "The man who moved me, I will kill him sooner or later! And your mother-in-law! That shrew dared to beat me too! I will definitely want her to be broken into pieces!"

Charlie frowned slightly, and raised his eyebrows and said, "What? You're still so arrogant, right? Okay, then you don't want to go back. Let's celebrate the New Year in Aurous Hill!"

Cynthia asked: "Do you want to detain me?!"

"Yes." Charlie nodded: "You use the word very well, just to detain you!"

Cynthia was mad and shouted: "I'll give you the courage!"

Charlie said calmly: "I don't need you to give it, I have already decided, are you not convinced? Okay, when will you be convinced, and when will you leave!"

Cynthia yelled hysterically: "Charlie! I'm your elder anyway! It's Cynthia Wade! You can't be so presumptuous to me!"

"Elder?" Charlie asked coldly: "You keep saying that it's my elders and my aunts. Then I ask you, where were you when I was in the orphanage?"

Cynthia was speechless.

Charlie asked again: "Let me ask you again, when I was an adult, where were you when I was working on a construction site?"

Cynthia was still speechless.

Charlie asked again: "Also, when I got married, where was Miss Cynthia Wade?"

Cynthia's expression was dark, and she wanted to refute him, but she didn't know where to start.

Charlie said at this time: "You, aunt, never cared about me or helped me. After all, life is like this. People have to learn to rely on themselves, but you Not only didn't help me, but also came to provoke the relationship between me and my wife. What is your intention?!"

"I...I..." Cynthia quibbled, "I asked that Claire divorce you for your own good! That kind of woman doesn't deserve you!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Then I will leave you in Aurous Hill to sharpen your temper, and the same is for your good. After all, if your personality is not restrained, I don't know what catastrophe you will make in the future. Maybe your own life will be in danger!"

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said: "Dare you! Give me a cell phone, I want to call your grandpa!"

Charlie handed her the phone indifferently, and said, "Come on, use my phone, call now!"

After finishing speaking, he said to the black-clothed person beside her: "Unlock her handcuffs."

The man in black immediately followed suit.

After Cynthia regained her freedom with both hands, she immediately grabbed the phone from Charlie, put a number, and pressed the dial.

After a few prompts on the phone, an old but very thick voice came: "Hello, who?"

Cynthia heard the Old Master's voice and cried and said, "Dad, it's me, dad!"

Chapter 1920

"Cynthia?!" Zhongquan, on the other end of the phone, blurted out: "How are you?! Have you encountered any danger?!"

Cynthia cried and said, "I am detained by Charlie, and he said he wouldn't let me go back to Eastcliff for the New Year! Dad, this lad has no respect, and is arrogant. You have to help me out!"

Zhongquan said in surprise: "What's the matter?! Why did you have a conflict with Charlie?"

Charlie took the phone directly at this time, and said coldly: "She carried me, found Mother-in-law, and asked Mother-in-law to persuade my wife to divorce me. Is this the Wade family's style of doing things?"

Zhongquan was startled, hesitated for a moment before sighing: "Charlie, she is Cynthia Wade, your aunt after all."

Charlie asked back: "What's the matter? What right does she have to interfere with my freedom of marriage? Don't say she doesn't have this right, even you don't have this right!"

Zhongquan said with emotion: "Hey...you are right, she really shouldn't do this, I apologize to you for her, you can let her come back..."

Charlie said coldly: "I said, leave her in Aurous Hill for the New Year, and I will let her go back after the New Year, but before the New Year, no one can let her leave Aurous Hill! Not even the king of heaven!"

Zhongquan on the other end of the phone hesitated for a moment, and said helplessly: "All right, it's up to you!"

When these words came out, Cynthia looked desperate, and blurted out and pleaded: "Dad! I want to go back to Eastcliff to accompany you to celebrate the New Year, Dad!"

Zhongquan said earnestly: "Cynthia, your character is really too hot, take advantage of this lesson, take advantage of your temper, don't be 50 years old, and make trouble like young people all day long!"

"I..." Cynthia suddenly blocked up and didn't know what to say.

Zhongquan said again: "Charlie, come home if you have time, grandpa is very..."

Before Zhongquan finished saying the three words 'I miss you very much', Charlie directly hung up the phone.

He has no relationship with Zhongquan, not to mention that he is more or less responsible for the death of his parents, so Charlie is even more impatient with him.

As soon as the phone hung up, Cynthia choked up and asked: "Charlie! Let me celebrate the New Year in Aurous Hill. I want to spend the New Year alone in the Presidential Suite in Shangri-La!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Shangri-La's presidential suite? I think you want to be blinded. I will rent you a house in the village in the city and let you live there for a long time."

"What?!" Cynthia collapsed and said: "You...you ask me to live in the village in the city?! You are so cruel!"

Charlie sneered, and suddenly remembered that it was the Chinese New Year. Delon who came to Aurous Hill on a bicycle didn't know where he went?

So he directly called Elsa.

As soon as the phone call, Elsa asked happily, "Charlie, why did you think of calling me?"

Charlie asked her: "Elsa, where is your cousin Delon?"

Elsa said: "He told me this morning that he was about to cross the Yangtze River, and he might be able to reach Aurous Hill tonight."

Charlie frowned: "Why is he so slow?"

Elsa said helplessly: "He had a small accident on the bike and injured his arm, so he slowed down."

Charlie asked again: "Have you found a house for him in the village in the city?"

Elsa said: "I've found it, according to your request, 500 a month rent."

Charlie gave a hum, and said, "Okay, I will check it out tomorrow."

Hanging up the phone, at this moment, Orvel came over with Regnar, who was wearing a black cloth cover.

Charlie said to him immediately: "Arrange for someone to go to the village in the city, rent the worst single room, arrange it for Ms. Wade to stay there for seven nights, and she will not be allowed to go out for these seven days. She buys food, whether it is ingredients or daily necessities, only the most common ones are allowed, understand?"

Orvel nodded immediately and said, "OK Master, I will arrange this!"

Chapter 1921

Cynthia was already furious.

She gritted her teeth and shouted: "Charlie! Don't think that I, Cynthia, can be muddled. In the Wade family, my status is much higher than you! You better respect me!"

Charlie ignored her, but pointed to Orvel and pointed to the empty seat beside Cynthia.

Orvel understood, and immediately escorted Regnar to Cynthia's side.

Afterwards, Charlie stretched out his hand, took off Regnar's headgear, and smiled slightly when he looked at him: "Hello, Mr. Regnar, we meet again."

"Wade... Charlie?!"

At this moment, Regnar's whole person seemed to be split back and forth by thunder from the outside to the inside!

He couldn't imagine that Charlie would actually appear in front of him!

Could it be...

Is it that he is behind all this today? !

How could he have so much energy? !

Seeing his horrified expression, Charlie said with a smile: "Mr. Regnar, it's been a long time, but let me introduce you to the shrew next to you first."

Cynthia observed Charlie with splitting eyes, gritted her teeth and said: "Charlie! Don't go too far!"

Charlie ignored her and continued to speak to Regnar: "This shrew's real name is not Roxa, but Cynthia. She is the eldest daughter of Wade's family, and also my father's sister and my aunt."

"What?!" Regnar seemed to explode a nuclear bomb in his heart!

His scared voice trembled and said, "You...oh no...you! Are you really...you are really the Wade family?!"

Charlie smiled: "I am indeed the Wade family man, but it's nothing great."

Regnar shivered in a cold sweat and said, "Master...you...why didn't you just say your identity! If I knew that you are from that great Family, I will definitely be the only one looking forward to it. , Even if you give me 10,000 courage, I dare not fight against you!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Regnar, don't be so scared, look at you, your face is pale. This Wade family, it's not as scary as you think,"

With that, he pointed to Cynthia beside him, and said, "Look, didn't you tie up Wade's daughter?"

Regnar was frightened and waved his hand again and again and said, "Master, you must not say that! This matter is entirely a matter of Noah and Harold's two b@stards, and they told me that they were tying Elaine. I didn't tell them to tie Ms. Wade. After I came, I realized that they were so courageous and tied Ms. Wade too!"

Charlie pointed at Cynthia and asked Regnar: "Did you beat her just now?"

Regnar looked like a dead father, choked up and said: "I was wrong...I really didn't know the true identity of Ms. Wade..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Miss of Wade Family, is it fun?"

Regnar shook his head like a rattle.

Cynthia on the side looked so ugly and unbearable.

Regnar was frightened, and choked, "Master, I really didn't know the identity of you and Ms. Wade. Otherwise, how can I dare to think of you two badly..."

Charlie looked at Regnar at this time and asked, "Mr. Regnar, have you ever thought about what will happen to the Wu family after today?"

When Regnar heard this, his whole body trembled violently.

Chapter 1922

How can he not know the next fate of the Wu family?

Cynthia would definitely fight with him.

And the Wade Family will definitely stand up for her.

The Wu family in its heyday was not enough to look at in front of the Wade family, not to mention the current Wu family, whose strength was mostly defeated by Charlie. At this time, in front of the Wade family, even the Wu were not counted as ants.....

Regnar even felt that the Wade family might destroy his tortured family...

Thinking of this, he immediately choked up and pleaded: "Master and Ms. Wade, I didn't know Your excellency and accidentally offended you. Please forgive me both of you..."

Cynthia was hating Charlie into her bones, but she didn't dare to be too angry, so she directly directed all the anger at Regnar, gritted her teeth and cursed: "The surname is Wu, today, I, Cynthia, will definitely not spare you! Wait, I will let you die without a place to bury you!"

Regnar almost collapsed when he heard this.

Damaged family reputation and shrinking assets are acceptable.

However, if the Wade Family really wants to smash him to the end, how can he be able to handle it...

If the family is really ruined at that time, it will be all over!

Thinking of this, he immediately looked at Charlie with red eyes, and pleaded to cry: "Master, please help me. This time is really a misunderstanding. If the Wade family can forgive me, I would like to confess all of my business's 20% shares! I only ask you and Ms. Wade to raise your hands!"

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said: "Don't say your 20% shares, even if it is 50% or 100%? In my eyes, it's not even a bullsh*t!"

Charlie waved his hand: "Don't, even a bullsh*t is not counted in your eyes, it's pretty much in my eyes."

After he finished speaking, he immediately said to Regnar: "Mr. Regnar, you not only kidnapped Mother-in-law but also my aunt. I am really a double victim of your actions today. Let's adjust the 20% to 40%, in the future, follow my orders and I promise that the Wade family will not trouble you."

When Regnar heard this, his heart was joyful and sad.

The good news is that now that Charlie has proposed a solution, he and the Wu family still have a chance to live.

Sadly, Charlie showed that he was cutting his own meat with a knife, and 40% of the shares were almost equivalent to cutting the entire Wu family.

Cynthia was reluctant at this time.

She has suffered too many grievances and disasters today.

And she couldn't do anything to Charlie, so the only object of catharsis was Regnar.

If Charlie blocked Regnar's catharsis, wouldn't she have to find the father and son who kidnapped him? !

However, those are just two little guys, what can she do even if she kill their whole family?

Thinking of this, she yelled angrily: "Charlie! Whether to trouble him or not, it is not you who has the final say, but I have the final say! It is your grandfather who has the final say!"

Charlie said lightly: "I have already given Regnar a solution for this matter. As long as he agrees, it will be useless for any of you to object."

With that, Charlie looked at Cynthia, his voice suddenly increased by an octave, and he said coldly: "Also! Don't you think that I have not been in the Wade family for so many years, so I can let your Wade family at the mercy of me, let alone take me? When the marriage partner asks me to go back to help the Wade Family cling to other powerful people, I will never give the Wade Family this opportunity!"

"So, if you dare to calculate me behind my back next time, don't blame me for disregarding my blood! Whether it is you or the other people in the Wade family, I will not let go!"

Cynthia was frightened by Charlie's eyes and tone, but she roared incomparably: "Charlie! Do you think you have the ability to challenge the Wade family now? Your Emgrand Group, your 10 billion cash, no Is it all given by the Wade Family?! The Wade Family can hold you up and step on you! If there is no Wade Family, you are just a stinky rag without any foundation! With the strength of the Wade Family, you can be destroyed. Destroying Regnar is ten times, a hundred times easier for your case!"

Charlie looked at her hysterical self, raised his eyebrows, and asked playfully: "Oh? Really?"

Chapter 1923

Cynthia's self-esteem was deeply stung by Charlie's playful eyes!

She gritted her teeth and shouted: "Of course! Do you think I was joking with you?! If you continue to be so ignorant of praise, toasting and not eating and drinking fine wine, I promise you will be finished sooner or later! Not only you are finished, your wife, and your mother-in-law, And all the people around you are going to die!"

Speaking of this, Cynthia has also completely exploded. She shouted hoarsely like a shrew: "I tell you, your parents were lucky back then, and they could return to Waderests grave when died! If you die in the future, you don't even have the qualifications to enter the Wade Family Ancestor's grave!"

Charlie's expression suddenly became extremely gloomy.

He looked at Cynthia and said lightly: "You are my father's biological sister, so I can't beat you."

Cynthia sneered and said, "Do you still know that I am your father's sister?! Don't you hurry up and respectfully treat me..."

Before Cynthia finished speaking, Charlie immediately said to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel! You have no blood relationship with her, give me her mouth!"

Orvel immediately said loudly: "Yeah, Master!"

After that, he immediately rushed over and grabbed Cynthia by the collar.

Cynthia was taken aback and threatened: "Do you dare to hit me, I will definitely kill you in the future!"

Orvel slapped the face and Cynthia's two posterior teeth. He said coldly, "Master gave me my life. Even if Master asks me to kill the king, I will never Blink, not to mention you uneducated v!xen!"

After that, it was another slap in the face.

Orvel had long been so angry with Cynthia's attitude towards Charlie, he finally waited until Charlie agreed, naturally he was merciless.

Cynthia was stunned by these two slaps. She was furious and angry, and shouted like crazy: "You will all die! All of you will die!!!"

Charlie looked at her and said coldly:

"If you have investigated me carefully, you should know why I am revered as Master in Aurous Hill!"

"If you have investigated me seriously, then you should also know why the Eight Heavenly Kings sent by Regnar were completely wiped out by me under Changbai Mountain!"

Having said that, Charlie smiled and continued:

"If you have investigated me seriously, you should know that I just went to Japan a few days ago. As for the things that happened in Japan some time ago, I think you should know it!"

Cynthia's complexion continued to change dramatically, becoming more and more frightened and paler!

Charlie observed at her, and then asked, "Don't you want me to go back and marry Sara? Then you didn't think about it. My father's best friend Philip was already dying. Why could he suddenly become alive and well? Is there really any sh!t medical miracle?"

After speaking, Charlie pointed to Orvel and continued to question: "At the beginning, Mr. Orvel was in Classic Mansion and was almost killed by Regnar's men. With the last breath, how did he come alive? Do you know?"

Cynthia's expression is as pale as paper!

At this time, Charlie didn't conceal his aura, filled his whole body with it, and shouted very aggressively: "If you haven't thought about these problems before, then please use your mind now and think about it. Think about it! After thinking it through, come tell me again, between the two of us, it is you who could kill me, or is it me who can kill you!"

Cynthia was immediately stunned by the momentum on Charlie and what he had said!

Wade family did investigate many things about Charlie in Aurous Hill.

However, many clues obtained are not sufficient.

For example, they know that Charlie seems to be very strong, but they have not had a clear understanding of how strong it is.

They also knew about Regnar's death at the foot of Changbai Mountain, but they didn't know who did it.

And Philip!

Chapter 1924

Philip, who was in the late stage of pancreatic cancer, suddenly recovered his health, and it seemed like a decade back in time. The entire upper class of Eastcliff was eager to know the reason, and wanted to know what kind of chance Philip encountered.

However, everyone investigated for a while, and no one got any effective information.

Now, when Charlie said this suddenly, Cynthia asked in horror: "These things have something to do with you?!"

Charlie snorted coldly: "What does it mean to have something to do with me? These things are all done by me!"

At this time, even Regnar was shocked with nothing to add.

The death of the Eight Great Heavenly Kings caused the Wu family to suffer a great loss, but they still don't know how the Eight Great Heavenly Kings died.

Now, he finally understood.

It turned out that the eight heavenly kings were all dead in Charlie's hands!

He couldn't help but deepen his soul torture him: "How powerful is this Charlie?!"

Cynthia was also shocked.

Regnar couldn't hear what Charlie said, what happened in Japan some time ago, but Cynthia knew it!

The three major families in Japan reshuffled almost overnight. One was wiped out, and the other half was wiped out. Only one Ito family remained almost intact. The patriarch Takehiko lost his legs.

Behind this, there is an extremely powerful master who killed countless ninjas and even saved Zhiyu and Zhifei brothers and sisters. Could it be... Charlie? !

Charlie pointed to Regnar and asked Cynthia, "Do you know that Regnar has a son named Wu Qi, who was in Aurous Hill some time ago. He must eat sh!t every hour like a demon?"

Regnar's expression instantly became extremely pale!

And Cynthia was also shocked!

However, Wu Qi, the second son of Regnar, is very famous in Eastcliff.

Mainly because of that time, the short video platform has been pushing Wu Qi's related videos.

Now everyone knows him in the whole country.

At that time, the top masters of several major families all analyzed this matter and believed that Wu Qi must be a master who can endure the sky, and made a very strong psychological suggestion.

Cynthia asked herself inwardly: "Could it be that Charlie did that too?!"

Regnar had also collapsed at this time!

He suppressed his anger, choked and said, "Master! My youngest son has always been sensible! He just studied in Aurous Hill peacefully and did not do any bad things. Why did you harm him so badly!!!"

Charlie glanced at Regnar, slapped his face severely, and angrily reprimanded: "Your bastard son, takes pleasure in playing with and ruining innocent girls!"

"If he has enough play with the girls he doesn't stop, but they have to use the s*umbag's psychological hints to brainwash and force each other to commit suicide!"

"This kind of stupid behavior, everyone can be punishable!"

"Now you are licking your face to tell me that your son who is not as good as a beast has always been sensible and has not done any bad things?!"

"Who gave you the courage?!"

Chapter 1925

Regnar was reprimanded by Charlie, and he dared not look up.

He naturally knew these things about Wu Qi.

But he originally thought that it was all between his son and other girls. Even if he did harm a few girls, after all, he did not harm Charlie and the people around Charlie. Why did Charlie hurt him?

However, seeing Charlie so furious at the moment, he realized that the sense of justice in Charlie's heart was far beyond his imagination!

Charlie observed at Regnar at this time, and said coldly: "Regnar, Auntie wanted to kill you, but I didn't expect you to be so irreconcilable! In this case, I am also taking 40% of your assets. If no, I will let the Wade Family dispose of you at will in the future!"

Regnar burst into tears suddenly!

He was still carrying his hands behind his back, but he immediately leaned forward and knelt on the ground. While kowtow heavily, he cried and begged, "Master, I was wrong! I know I was wrong! My son is indeed guilty of death, you Being able to spare him a dog's life is already a great kindness. It is because there is no eye and no way to discipline him. Please be merciful and forgive me once..."

Charlie said coldly: "You have no way to discipline, more than this one!"

Having said that, Charlie asked again: "Your brother-in-law Nanshan committed countless crimes! You, as the head of the first family in Aurous Hill, Nanshan committed these things by pulling your banner. It all happened under your nose. You know in your heart, why didn't you stop him? If you led him to the right path earlier, he hadn't poison so many people, and I hadn't let him sink in the River!"

Regnar was shocked!

At this time, he immediately realized that Charlie did the thing that the original brother-in-law Nanshan and the entire top of the Beggar Gang were destroyed...

So Regnar didn't care about the shock, and cried, "I'm sorry, Master! I do have an inescapable responsibility for this matter...I knew he was doing these things at first, so I wanted to stop it, but My wife cried and hanged up with me three times, my heart softened, just thinking, anyway, I don't participate in it myself, so he can do whatever he wants... I never expected it, because of this, Just committed a terrible mistake..."

Charlie gritted his teeth and said: "You did commit a terrible mistake! How many children and families Nanshan destroyed? Part of each of these debts is recorded on your book of deeds! With your crimes Look, even if I kill you now, the Nine Heavens Gods will make atonement for what you have done in your next life and the next life! Let your ninth reincarnation suffer all the suffering in the world!"

Regnar's crying nose and tears flowed, and his voice trembled: "Master, I really know that I was wrong! Please give me a chance to correct the evil. I am willing to hand over 60% of the Wu family's assets. I have a chance to take the lead, the Wu family will do everything for you from today!"

Charlie waved his hand: "It's not just about money anymore. If you really want to correct the evil, I can give you a chance, depending on whether you can accept it."

When Regnar heard this, he squatted his head and said, "Master, please tell me! I will do my best to seize this opportunity!"

Charlie said coldly: "Change 40% of your family assets to Mr. Orvel, and Mr. Orvel will hold it in the future, and another 20% will be used for charity to make up for the evil your brother-in-law Nanshan has done over the years!"

Orvel blurted out: "Master, how can this be done... You gave me life, and if you want to give me these assets, they are also given to you... How can you give me... .."

Charlie said lightly: "If Mr. Regnar agrees to this solution, you will take 40% first."

Regnar dared to say nothing, and nodded hurriedly: "You can rest assured, Master, I will do this today!"

Charlie said again: "Regnar, from today, you are Mr. Orvel's person. If Mr. Orvel asks you to go east, you must go east. The direction is half-way off. I want your Wu family to completely disappear in the south of the Yangtze River?"

Regnar didn't dare to say half a word, nodded hurriedly and said, "You can rest assured, Master, master Orvel will be my master in the future..."

Charlie said to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, take care of him in the future, he dares to have any disobedience, tell me immediately!"

Mr. Orvel hurriedly said: "Master, don't worry, I will! As for Regnar's shares, Mr. Orvel will hold it for you temporarily!"

Charlie nodded slightly.

Immediately, he looked at Cynthia, whose cheek was swollen by Orvel, and said lightly: "Auntie, since you are here, you will stay in Aurous Hill for a long time and wait until the New Year to go back. But your nephew, I have been busy recently. I'm not going to visit, I wish you a Happy New Year in advance."

Chapter 1926

Having said that, Charlie became serious and warned: "This is the end of today's business. If you let me know that you dare to do any small actions behind my back, then don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Cynthia observed Charlie and wanted to say something to support the scene, but when the words came to her lips, she couldn't say it all at once.

She found that Charlie's character was too similar to his father, that is, her second brother Changying.

Why was Changying so famous back then?

He looks like a weak scholar, but he can stand in front of the army.

As long as it is what he decides to do, he has never given up and failed.

Even if the whole world stands in front of him, he has to blaze a trail.

Therefore, there was a saying in the upper class society of Eastcliff: Wade family has a son, who can do anything!

Mention Changying, even his opponent would give him a thumb in his heart.

At that time, he was the most dazzling new star of the Wade family.

Now, Cynthia realized that she had actually seen the aura on Charlie's body.

Therefore, at this moment, deep in her heart, she felt a little awe of Charlie.

It was also at this moment that she knew that she could no longer offend this nephew who hadn't seen her for many years, otherwise, she really didn't know if he would really kill off his relatives.

So, she could only smash her teeth and swallow in her belly. After a long while, she was aggrieved and said: "Charlie, I will listen to you about this matter today. I will not pursue your mother-in-law or Regnar..."

Having said this, she almost begged: "But, you can no longer protect the father and son who tied me up, right? Auntie has suffered so many crimes today, and you have to tell auntie..."

After speaking, Cynthia thought of her series of tragic experiences today, her nose sour, and tears came down.

She was really miserable today.

She wanted to ask Elaine and impress her with her attitude, and bought her by the way, but she didn't expect to be hit by Elaine.

Then Harold, Noah led them to this place;

Then Regnar came again and beat her up. He almost shot her up with a single shot, causing her to pee in h3r pants...

She hadn't suffered any bitterness in her life, so she tasted the sufferings of the world today.

And what was even more annoying was that she had never fought with Elaine before, and was slapped in the face by her. She wanted to kill her to relieve her anger, but she was Charlie's mother-in-law, so she couldn't get revenge on her.

Regnar now offers most of his family property and is willing to be Charlie's running dog.

In this way, only the Willson family father and son can be retaliated against...

Charlie frowned when he heard this and asked Orvel, "What's the situation with Noah and Harold now?"

Orvel said: "These two people's arms and legs were smashed by Regnar's men. They have become useless. Master will tell me what to do next with them!"

Chapter 1927

There is no doubt that Charlie does not have a half-hearted relationship with Noah and Harold.

However, hearing that the two of them had their limbs broken, the anger in Charlie's heart was mostly gone.

No one knows the Willson family better than him.

Horiyah used to pit Elaine before. A large part of the reason was that when Elaine was playing cards at a friend's house, she met Horiyah and Noah who came to see the house. Then Elaine mocked them and made Horiyah a lot. Their mentality collapsed and wanted to cheat Elaine's money.

Now Noah and Harold kidnapped Elaine and wanted to send her to the black brick kiln, also in order to repay the hatred of sending Horiyah to the black coal kiln. To be honest, Elaine is still blocking his guns to a certain extent.

In the final analysis, the Willson family is really bad, but it has not yet reached the point where it must die.

Moreover, Charlie really didn't like his aunt who was troublesome and meddling. If he really let her kill Noah and Harold to vent her anger, it would be cheaper for her. It would be better to let her keep holding on to this fire and have nowhere to vent. Grind her annoying character.

So Charlie said: "What Noah and Harold say are my wife's uncle and cousin, my father-in-law's brother and nephew, if you kill them, such a big funeral, our family will pass a good year?"

Cynthia hurriedly said: "Wait after the New Year to slaughter the two of them, right?!"

Charlie waved his hand: "My wife has a softer heart. If they really die, she will definitely be sad, so let them live."

When Cynthia heard this, she was anxious and uncomfortable, and blurted out: "They made me like this, you must let them out like that?"

Charlie frowned and asked: "How do you calculate your breath? Both of them have lost their limbs. I'm afraid they can only lie in bed to eat and drink for a few months. Can't you breathe out?"

"I can't get out!" Cynthia said indignantly: "If I don't kill them, I won't be able to get out with such a bad breath!"

Charlie shouted angrily: "If you can't get it out, just hold on to it!!!"

The roar made Cynthia's liver tremble!

Charlie glared at her fiercely, and asked in a cold voice: "It's obviously you who caused trouble first, and you will kill others at every turn. Who gives you the stinking troubles you are used to?!"

Cynthia's expression was very depressed, and she choked: "I grew up so old, and I have never suffered such a big loss today..."

Charlie said coldly: "Then just let you have a taste today, and this is just the first dish, your character, if you don't change it, you will lose money in the future!"

After that, Charlie waved his hand a little irritably: "I don't want to tell you so much nonsense. In short, this is the end of today, and I will never allow you to spread this matter in any direction! Otherwise, Only you are asking for trouble! Did you understand?!"

Seeing that Charlie's expression didn't mean joking with her, Cynthia couldn't help but play a little drum.

She realized this matter today, she was afraid that she would not be able to find her place.

Otherwise, with Charlie's character, he would never spare her.

So she could only say dejectedly: "Okay...I understand..."

Charlie nodded and said to Orvel, "Mr. Orvel, quickly arrange a self-built house in the village in the city, and settle down my aunt, who has come from afar, so that people will keep an eye on her for 24 hours. She will never leave the house for the next seven days. Half a step, as soon as seven days arrive, I will send her to the airport and let her go back!"

Orvel nodded immediately: "Master don't worry, I will do it properly!"

Chapter 1928

Charlie looked at Regnar again: "Report everything to Mr. Orvel in the future, don't make any small actions, do you understand?"

Regnar hurriedly squatted his head and said, "Master, don't worry. From today onwards, I will follow your and Mr. Orvel's instructions..."

Charlie said again: "By the way, Tomson first-grade a06, did you buy it?"

Regnar said awkwardly: "Yes, I bought it..."

Charlie asked him, "You bought this villa for the Willson family, did you come to make me sick?"

"Yes..." Regnar said nervously, "Master, this is my fault. Don't worry, I will take back the villa and let the Willson family get out!"

"Don't!" Charlie waved his hand and said: "It's so boring to get them out. You are like this. First, stop all the businesses of the Willson Group and withdraw all the investment you gave them. I still want them to return to the previous one. Although this species lives in Tomson First Grade, it actually has nothing at all."

Regnar said without hesitation: "OK, Master, I will make arrangements today!"

Charlie nodded with satisfaction: "Okay, Mr. Orvel, you arrange the accommodation for my aunt, Regnar will go and arrange the affairs of the Willson Group. As for Noah and Harold, don't turn around to the relevant departments, and go directly to the hospital. Go ahead."

The two hurriedly agreed to him respectfully.

Cynthia's expression on the side was extremely ugly.

But ugly is ugly, she now dare not have any emotion of resistance.

Therefore, she could only say angrily: "Charlie, look at your aunt, who was also injured and two teeth were lost. You can send me to the hospital first..."

Charlie nodded: "It's okay to send you to the hospital, but you should not make any wrong ideas, otherwise, it is not as simple as leaving. In that case, you will have to live in the Aurous Hill for a long time, maybe a year or half."

Cynthia couldn't help but shudder when she heard this.

Charlie arranged for her in the village in the city, basically the same as under house arrest. The environment there must be extremely bad, and it would be a great torment to stay for a day, and she would simply collapse if in for a long time. If it is a year, it is really better to die.

Therefore, she can only honestly say: "Don't worry, since your aunt has said and listened to your instructions, I will never do anything else..."

Charlie said to Orvel, "Then arrange for my aunt to go to the hospital for treatment first, and don't set the teeth in Aurous Hill. Let her go back to Eastcliff and do it there."

Orvel immediately agreed: "OK, Master!"

Immediately afterwards, Orvel asked Cynthia and Regnar to be put in different vehicles, and then sent to the warehouse to take out the broken limbs of Noah and Jacob.

At this time, the two of them were lying on the cold concrete floor and had completely collapsed. The father and son cried in the warehouse for a long time, and they almost dried up all their tears.

Harold felt so depressed and lost in his heart, sobbing like a child: "I originally wanted to teach Elaine to please Regnar, but I didn't expect that the other Lady who was caught by us with Elaine turned out to be a transnational fraud!"

"Besides, this scammer is so d*mn good to makeup, she even made up a set of so-called rich master status for Charlie...makes my dad and I believe it..."

"Even Regnar believed the nonsense of that stinky woman!"

"Regnar, you old dog, if you say you believe it, you can believe it, but there is no need to abolish the father and son in order to please her! We both were serving you, and you can't be so right no matter what! What the h*ll is this!"

Chapter 1929

At this time, in Harold's heart, he had already regretted that his intestines were green.

Being beaten into a waste by Regnar's men is actually not the worst, after all, it only takes a few months to recover after being injured.

The worst thing is that the International Criminal Police who came just now said that they would be handed over to the local authorities. If they were really handed over, the kidnapping charges on the father and son would definitely be inevitable.

This charge is a felony! Sentencing starts with ten years!

Thinking that he might stay in prison for ten years, Harold's emotions have completely collapsed.

When being lifted out by Orvel's men, Harold choked up with his nose and tears: "May I ask the comrades of the Interpol...Could it be...Is it that we are really going to be sent to authorities? Are we going to jail... We... were both instigated by others. The real man behind the scenes is Regnar..."

Noah also cried bitterly: "Although we father and son are wrong, we have already paid a painful price. Can you please raise your hands high and give us father and son a way of life..."

Harold turned around hard, looked at his father with red eyes, and cried out: "Dad...I don't want to go to jail, Dad..."

With tears on his face, Noah choked and said, "When the time comes, you will push everything to Dad. You will say that everything is Dad's idea. You don't know anything. Try to make the judge lighter..."

When Harold heard this, he burst into tears.

The father and son cried and cried, and the scene suddenly became a little too noisy.

Orvel came over at this time and said coldly to the two of them: "Don't f*cking cry! If you cry again, you will be sent to prison!"

As soon as Harold heard this, he asked incredulously: "Comrade Interpol, what do you mean...you don't send us to jail?"

Mr. Orvel said coldly: "Fortunately for you two, we must keep the arrest of Roxa absolutely confidential, so we cannot let people from other departments know about it for the time being. So today you kidnapped Elaine and Roxa. It will not be communicated to local agencies!"

"Really?!" When Harold heard this, his whole body twitched with excitement.

However, because of the twitching, the severe pain in his limbs became more severe, so he kept wailing.

Although his mouth was screaming in pain, Harold's heart was extremely excited.

In any case, a prison sentence is finally removed!

.....

The Tomson Villa at this moment.

Mrs. Willson was lying on the sofa in the living room of Villa A06. While watching the time, she said to Wendy who was sitting on the other side: "Why haven't your father and your brother figured it out yet? There has been no movement for so long."

Wendy said: "Maybe they can't take care of it. After all, there are quite a lot of things. Not only they have found someone to give Elaine to that person, but also filmed the video and sent her to the black brick factory."

Mrs. Willson nodded gently, and said with a smirk: "This Elaine, she's really drifting recently. She's always floating in the sky. It's really a bit ungrounded, so she should also experience it. What is civil suffering!"

Wendy smiled and said, "Yes, grandma, Elaine, this b*tch woman, I hate her a long time ago, especially since she is so terrible this time, I can't wait to break her leg again!"

As she said, she said with a look of nostalgia: "It was interesting when I was in the cell. That Gena, the five big and three rough, could not wait to take Elaine's feces out with a slap. Elaine was really miserable at that time, thinking about it, I still get excited!"

Mrs. Willson also nodded again and again, and said happily, "Oh! Gena, the rural lady, really has two strengths. That woman is as strong as a cow. To deal with Elaine, one can beat her. She on her own was enough!"

Chapter 1930

Wendy sighed on the side: "It's a pity that Elaine will be sent to the black brick kiln to burn bricks soon, and Gena hasn't come out yet. After she comes out, she may never see Elaine again in this life."

"Who said no!" The Old Lady also sighed, "But it doesn't matter. When Elaine arrives at the black brick kiln, there will be endless suffering waiting for her!"

At this time, Aurous Hill Women's Detention Center.

Gena, who was in the cell, suddenly sneezed.

Several entourages hurried over and asked diligently, "Sister Gena, what's wrong with you? Have you caught a cold?"

Gena rubbed her nose: "Don't know, maybe someone misses me."

The woman next to her smiled and said: "Who would think of us like us prisoners who have no relatives and no cause!"

"Yes." The other person also echoed: "This will be the Chinese New Year right away, and no one in my family has ever visited me. It really makes me chill!"

After that, she looked at Gena and asked, "Sister Gena, how long will you get before you get released?"

Gena smacked and said, "Hey, it's still five or six months!"

"That's too soon, I'm still eight months away..."

"I'm four months..."

"Hey, you can't spend the New Year at home this year, and it should be fine next year!"

Gena sighed: "Mom is gone, the husband also ran away with the v!xen, and my brother's family is a tortoise b@stard again. I don't even have a family member in this world..."

Having said this, Gena's eye circles suddenly reddened, and she choked up: "Hey! Looking at the New Year, I couldn't burn some paper money for the Old Lady. don't know how she lived there and whether she has enough money. Huh! it's cold today, don't know if she and my dad have the money to celebrate the New Year..."

"Sister Gena, don't think about it. After you go out, there will be opportunities to burn paper for your parents!"

Gena nodded lightly, and couldn't help sighing: "Actually, I still miss that Old Lady. Seeing how she was bullied, I remember how pitiful Mom was when she was bullied by my sister-in-law when she was alive. Looks like, in this heart, there is a burst of pain..."

After speaking, she asked several other people, "You said, what is Mrs. Willson doing now? When she came in, she didn't even have a place to sleep. How is life now? Shouldn't she still wander in the street?"

As they were talking, the prison guard suddenly came over and said to a few of them: "Gena, Tabia, and Lexi, the three of you pack up and are ready to be released!"

The three of them were stunned!

Gena asked in surprise: "Preparing to be released from prison?! Isn't it time for me?"

The prison guard said: "Someone has already handled the bail pending trial for you. You can be released today!"

"Ah?!" Gena said in surprise: "Don't know anyone, who will help me get a bail pending trial?"

The prison guard said indifferently: "Your old acquaintance, Mrs. Willson, asked someone to do it. She paid a lot of deposit for the three of you!"

Gena was even more surprised and speechless. She opened her mouth wide and thought for a long time before she asked in disbelief, "Mrs. Willson?! Isn't she miserable? Where can she get the money to help us get the bail pending trial?!"

The prison guard laughed and said: "That Mrs. Willson is amazing now. I heard that the family business has come back to life, and the family has also moved into the luxury villa of Tomson. It is said that they have arranged to let you go to Tomson. Good day!"

Chapter 1931

When Gena and others heard this, they were all shocked and dumbfounded!

At the same time, it is even more excited and ecstatic!

She asked, "Mrs. Willson got her daughter-in-law's first-grade Tomson villa?"

The prison guard said lightly: "She bought another set."

"I'm going to drop a mother!" Gena said dumbfounded: "A villa of more than 100 million, buy it if she wants to buy it?"

The prison guard smiled and said: "Of course, they paid more than one million bail for the three of you just to get the bail pending trial. This is because she remembered your kindness to her at the beginning, so she wanted to bail you out and pick you up. Go to Tomson to live a fairy life!"

Gena's moved tears flowed, and as she wiped it, she choked with sobs: "Mrs. Willson is about to catch up with Mom..."

The other two also looked excited, and one of them sighed with emotion: "Yes, Sister Gena you helped them out of righteousness, and the Old Lady is also a person who knows gratitude. In the final analysis, this is the kindness that Sister Gena has planted!"

Gena's sense of justice immediately burst, and said solemnly: "Elaine, that b@stard, is so unfilial to her mother-in-law. I taught her that it is justified and obligatory! If she dares to bully Mrs. Willson in the future, I will never forgive her!"

The prison guard hurriedly reminded: "Gena! This is a rare opportunity to be released on bail. After you go out, you must make a good reform. You must never do any illegal or criminal things again! If you get caught in a fight again, not only The remaining sentence must be made up, and repeated offenders will be severely punished!"

Gena blurted out: "Ah?! So serious?!"

"Of course!" The prison guard said very seriously: "You must be a good citizen who obeys the law, let alone fights with others, even if you litter or spit, you may be subject to administrative punishment!"

After that, the prison guard added: "After you go out, even if you have a criminal record, our law enforcement officers, as well as the community streets, will strictly watch your every move. If you are really messy, the law definitely won't forgive you!"

Gena's heart jumped in fright and hurriedly waved her hand: "Don't worry! After I go out, I will definitely change my mind and be a new woman!"

"It's almost the same!"

The prison guard nodded in satisfaction and said, "Also, you will go to Mrs. Willson's house and lived in the Tomson Villa. It is the best house in Aurous Hill. The life there is also a fairy-like life, so you should cherish it, or you can only come back here and sleep on the floor again, understand?"

"Understood!"

Gena nodded as if pounding garlic, thinking about life in the Tomson Villa in the future.

She was originally just a peasant woman, and her family's conditions have not been good. She had just saved some money a few years ago and repaired the old brick house with a history of more than 20 years. The living conditions are actually no better than the cell.

Her lifelong dream is to be able to move into the city and live in a two-bedroom house, but the housing prices in Aurous Hill are not cheap. She can not afford it, so she can only think about it.

But now, she actually has the opportunity to live in the luxurious villa of Tomson, which is simply a step from the bottom to the top!

The three were so excited that they almost cried.

At this time, the prison guard reminded: "Don't be eager to be happy, we still have a lot of procedures to go through, you guys cooperate, and you should be able to go out soon!"

"OK, OK! We will definitely cooperate!"

.....

While Gena and others were going through the procedures for release on bail pending trial, Mrs. Willson, who had been waiting at home for a long time, received a call from the hospital.

On the phone, the eager doctor came up and asked her: "Hello, are you the family of Noah and Harold?"

Mrs. Willson hummed: "I am, what's the matter?"

Chapter 1932

The other party hurriedly said: "Noah and Harold are both seriously injured. They are now being treated in the emergency department of our Aurous Hill People's Hospital. The family members should come over!"

"what?!"

Mrs. Willson said in surprise, "The two of them are injured?! What is going on?!"

The other party said: "They have their limbs broken. Although they are not life-threatening, the injuries are still serious and they need human care. Come here!"

Mrs. Willson panicked suddenly!

Wendy on the side asked: "Grandma, what's the matter?"

Mrs. Willson said with a sad face: "The hospital called and said that your father and your brother are injured! They are in the hospital now! Let's go there!"

"Ah?!" Wendy stood up immediately in shock, and asked nervously, "Grandma, what's the matter? Didn't Dad and brother went to teach Elaine that b*tch? Why are they injured and hospitalized?"

Mrs. Willson said eagerly: "Oh! don't know! Hurry up and get ready to go to the hospital!"

At this time, Horiyah, who was preparing ingredients in the kitchen, heard the movement and walked out and asked, "Mom, what's the matter? What's the matter?"

Mrs. Willson glared at her and shouted angrily: "You hurry up to change clothes and follow us to the hospital! Noah and Harold are injured and hospitalized!"

"Ah?!" Horiyah was also dumbfounded, and blurted out: "What's going on? This is... Elaine still understands when she enters the hospital, why would they return to the hospital?"

Mrs. Willson shouted sharply, "Why do you have so much nonsense? Hurry up and change your clothes and come help!"

How dare Horiyah make a mistake, wiped her hands on her apron, and said in a hurry, "I'm going to change clothes..."

Three generations of women from the Willson family hurried out and went straight to Aurous Hill People's Hospital.

At the same time, at the gate of the Aurous Hill Women's Detention Center, Gena, Tabia, and Lexi walked out of the iron gate by the high wall, holding their blankets and clothes.

As soon as they left the house, Gena immediately said to the two people around her: "Tabia and Lexi, they said, you must not look back after you come out, or you will have to come back sooner or later, you know?"

The other two nodded vigorously: "I know sister Gena!"

At this time, Tabia asked her: "Sister Gena, Mrs. Willson has released us on bail, why didn't she meet us?"

"That's right." Lexi also echoed: "Such a big thing is done, isn't it easy to arrange a car for us?"

Gena hurriedly said: "Don't think so! It is already a great blessing for people to save us and let us go to Tomson to enjoy the blessings. How can we ask others to do everything! People, we must know how to be satisfied and be grateful!"

The other two shrugged: "Well...Sister Gena, you are right, we will know later."

Gena said: "Let the three of us take a taxi to Tomson. It's almost time for dinner now, maybe Mrs. Willson will hold a banquet at home and wait for us to pick up the dust!"

When the other two heard this, they were overjoyed and immediately said, "Then let's take a taxi and go there!"

At this moment, a Mercedes-Benz car stopped in front of the three of them. After the driver got out of the car, he asked the three of them: "May I ask the three ladies, if your names are Gena, Tabia, and Lexi?"

Gena nodded hurriedly: "It's us, who are you?"

The driver smiled and said, "I am the driver sent by Mrs. Willson, I am here to pick you up to Tomson! Please get in the car for three!"

Chapter 1933

After listening to the driver, Gena looked at this luxurious Mercedes-Benz car and said with excitement, "Mrs. Willson is so kind to us! I have never been in a Mercedes-Benz car in my life!"

Tabia beside her couldn't help but sigh: "The best car I've ever ridden is the police car driven by Comrade Police when I was arrested..."

Lexi nodded again and again: "Sister Tabia...the same is true for me!"

The driver heard their conversation and said with a smile: "Three, get in the car!"

"Good, good!" Gena reacted first, hurriedly opened the rear door and sat in.

The other two were also eager to squeeze in. The driver said hurriedly, "We only have two seats in the back row, so let one of the three take the co-pilot!"

Tabia was opening the rear door on the other side to get in. Lexi, who was a step slower, couldn't help but mumble: "That's a big car, there are only two seats in the back? The Santana, which was driven by comrades, in the back we can sit up to three people!"

Gena said to her in the car, "You know what a sh!t, there are really only two seats in there, with a very large armrest in the middle, which feels like leather! Oh, it's really comfortable to put your arms on this!"

Tabia hurriedly sat in and said with a smile, "Really? Let me touch and feel it too!"

Lexi looked at the spacious and luxurious rear seats and the huge armrest box with LCD screen and control knobs, and said with envy: "I want to feel it too..."

Tabia waved her hand at her: "Oh, you will feel it next time! Sit ahead quickly, Mrs. Willson is waiting for us!"

Lexi had no choice but to go to the co-pilot quietly.

In fact, this Mercedes-Benz is not luxurious, but it is a Mercedes-Benz S-Class with a price of less than one-fifth of Rolls-Royce.

However, for Gena and the others, this car is already the top luxury car they can imagine.

If you put a Rolls Royce in front of them, they might not recognize it.

After all, for the most ordinary people, Mercedes-Benz's popularity is still the most common!

Gena sat in the back row of this luxury Mercedes-Benz car with excitement!

She couldn't help but think to herself: "Riding in a luxury car and living in a luxury house, is my life finally going to soar into the sky?! This Mrs. Willson, is simply my noble person!"

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but feel proud and thought: "Mrs. Willson is so good to me, I must do more for her in the future. From now on, I will treat her as my own mother!"

The Mercedes-Benz drove fast and steady all the way.

This car had a pass for Tomson's villa, so it sent them directly to the door of villa a06.

Afterwards, the driver used the administrator password to open the outer door of the villa, and then helped Gena and the two to enter their fingerprints and said to them: "After entering the fingerprints, you can enter and exit the door directly without a key."

Gena looked at the huge courtyard of the villa, shaking with joy. She asked, "Master if you are tired, can we enter the door of the house even if we swipe our fingerprints?"

"Yes." The driver nodded and said, "The gate of the yard and the front entrance of the villa are both a set of smart home systems. After fingerprints are entered, they can be used in common use. You can go in now. From now on, treat this as your home, no matter what, don't be impolite!"

Gena hurriedly asked, "Where is Mrs. Willson? Why didn't she come out?"

The driver smiled and said, "Mrs. Willson went out for a while, so she let me pick you up first. You can go first and choose a room. There are a lot of empty rooms in the villa."

"Oh! Great!"

As soon as she heard that she was going to choose a room, Gena rushed over with her own blanket.

Not to be outdone, the other two hurriedly followed behind and ran to the door.

Gena tried to swipe her fingerprints on the doorknob, and the door of the room opened!

She pushed the door in excitement, and when she entered, she was shocked by the extremely luxurious interior!

Chapter 1934

This villa is, after all, the best and largest villa within the urban area of Aurous Hill, and it has undergone a very luxurious decoration. The decoration style is open and ostentatious, and the ultimate moneyism is exposed everywhere.

Therefore, Gena and the others just took a look, and they were completely crazy!

Before coming, they had also imagined what the inside of Mrs. Willson's villa would look like.

However, even their most daring guesses are far less than the actual situation of this villa!

Lexi exclaimed from the side: "This...what kind of villa is this! The palace is just like this, right?!"

"bullshit!" Tabia blurted out: "This is much more luxurious than the palace! dmn! Look at that sofa, it's so beautiful! I'm going to lie down!"

With that, the person has already ran over.

"I want to go too!" Lexi saw Tabia go, and when she was unwilling, she hurriedly dropped the blanket and ran all the way.

This sofa is a European-style top-level sofa imported from Italy. It is exclusively for the European royal family. The original owner of the villa imported it directly from abroad for more than one million.

Different from Classical furniture, Classical itself is expensive on wood, which is not comfortable for practical use. It is equivalent to buying a set of gold bricks as a mattress. Expensive is really expensive, but hard is also really hard.

Therefore, Classical Furniture is more like a financial product.

But this European style furniture is different.

It is mainly based on the brand, the workmanship, the extraordinary luxury appearance and the meticulous comfort.

Therefore, this kind of sofa is actually a high-end luxury consumable.

After the two pounced on the sofa, they also forgot to take off their shoes, so they directly stepped on the surface of the sofa with their feet, turning over and looking for the most comfortable posture.

Gena hurriedly said: "Hey, ah, slow down, don't sit down on someone else's sofa! And the soles of your shoes are dirty too."

Lexi smiled and said, "Oh, it's okay, don't you tell me, let us be like our own home, and I will wear shoes on it when I'm at home!"

Tabia said excitedly: "Sister Gena, come and feel it, this sofa is so comfortable! I think the chair the Jade Emperor sits in the sky is not as comfortable as this!"

"Really?" Gena said with a smile: "I think this sofa is really good, it's very grand! I'll try it!"

After speaking, she stepped to the single-person sofa and sat down.

"Ouch! It's so soft!" Gena was lying on the sofa, her whole body trapped in the soft leather, dancing happily.

Lexi lying on the side said hurriedly: "Oh, sister Gena, you haven't tried it while lying down, this sofa is more comfortable lying down!"

After finishing speaking, she hurriedly stepped on the sofa to stand up, pulled Gena, and said flatly: "Sister Gena, come and try it! Make sure you lie down and you can't bear it!"

Gena lay down and tried it, and said with joy, "Oh, this is really great! I have the heart to sleep on the sofa later!"

Lexi smiled and said: "The sofas are so comfortable, the bed will definitely be more comfortable!"

Tabia hurriedly asked: "Then shall we go to see the room? This villa is so big, we can definitely guarantee one room for three people!"

Gena said: "Well, let's wait for the Old Lady to come back and let her arrange a room for us."

Lexi curled her lips: "I can't wait. The villa rooms must be large or small, some facing south, some facing north, I want a south-facing, bigger one, and I can get some sunshine every day!"

Tabia said hurriedly: "I want to face south too!"

As soon as Gena heard this, she immediately jumped up from the sofa and ran up the stairs, saying, "No! I have to choose first!"

Chapter 1935

Mrs. Willson didn't know that when she went to the hospital, her house was already occupied by Gena.

She and Wendy rushed to the hospital in a hurry and found Noah and Harold. The father and son were already half mummies wrapped in plaster.

Although neither of them is life-threatening, they fractured their limbs, so that they completely lost the ability to move, and could only lie in bed and wail.

As soon as Mrs. Willson entered the door, she was shocked and anxious when she saw the two of them like this. She hurriedly stepped forward and asked: "Noah! Harold! You guys...what's wrong with you?!"

When Noah and Harold saw the Old Lady coming, they couldn't control their tears and wept loudly.

Especially Harold, crying very sadly.

Wendy burst into tears all at once, and asked pitifully, "Dad, brother, how did you become like this..."

Harold's eyes were red, and he cried and said, "Grandma! Dad and I were scrapped by Regnar's people! Grandma, I'm so wrong! I kindly served Regnar. He was not only not grateful, but also let his People beat me and Dad like this, they are just ba$tards!"

Noah also sighed: "Mom...people say that Tigers are the only companions to tigers. I understand today! We can't accompany people like Regnar, so we must keep our distance from him in the future!"

Mrs. Willson said eagerly: "What on earth happened?! Tell me clearly!"

Only then did Noah tell what happened.

Only then did Mrs. Willson understand that when they kidnapped Elaine, they also tied up a transnational fraudster.

The most annoying thing is that Regnar, a scheming man, was also deceived by a transnational fraudster. In order to please the other party, he interrupted the limbs of her son and grandson...

Hearing this, Mrs. Willson burst into tears, patting her thighs and howling: "God doesn't have eyes! If you don't trouble Elaine today, that transnational scammer will definitely take Elaine's family. People have broken their homes! But at this time, you just took the initiative to solve the trouble for Elaine, and then caused the trouble to yourself. Today Elaine was supposed to go to h*ll, but it turned out to be bad. You directly help Interpol and take the fraud. The crime is caught, which is equivalent to helping Elaine completely for free..."

When Harold heard that the truth was like that, he cried louder and went crazy and said, "I didn't expect that we would end up getting the b@stard Elaine for nothing. It's really a big loss... I, Harold has never suffered such a big loss in his entire life! And it was a big loss that she took the initiative to eat! Wendy, you slap me twice! I feel so uncomfortable in my heart..."

Wendy can only persuade: "Brother, since the matter has already happened, don't think about it. The key now is whether your and dad's injuries are not serious and can you recover..."

Harold choked and said: "Recovery can be made, but it takes a while. The doctor said that we may not have the ability to take care of ourselves for several months. We have to eat, drink and sleep in the bed. We may have to stay in the hospital and have to be accompanied by a caregiver... .."

Mrs. Willson hurriedly asked, "Harold, where did Mr. Regnar go? He was fooled by the scammer, so that he was dismissed. Later, the identity of the scammer was revealed. Didn't he give you any compensation or give you a statement?"

"Gave a sh!t!" Noah said angrily from the side: "Regnar, that old dog, was also directly arrested by Interpol! It is estimated that he will be out of luck!"

Mrs. Willson exclaimed: "Ah?! Then you two got the meal in vain?"

Noah naturally knew what the Old Lady's idea was, and he thought to himself: "What mom means, she must think that Harold and I were accidentally injured by Regnar's people, and Regnar has to make some compensation to make it reasonable."

"After all, my mother is looking at money!"

Thinking of this, Noah was a little depressed, and said, "Mom, you have to pay us the hospitalization fee first, let us transfer to the inpatient department! As for Regnar, if he comes out in the future, I will ask him for an explanation!"

"Okay!" Mrs. Willson nodded and said, "I'll pay the bill!"

Chapter 1936

With that, Mrs. Willson turned around and left the ward.

She stepped to the collection office and said, "I'm here to pay Noah Willson and Harold Willson's hospital bill."

The other party inquired for a while and said, "The incurred treatment fee is 26,700, and another 80,000 of hospitalization deposit will be needed, which is a total of 10,06,700."

Mrs. Willson couldn't help but feel some pain.

"Although this one hundred thousand is not a lot, it is not too small. If this money is not compensated by Regnar a hundred times, I really can't sleep in my dreams!"

Thinking, Mrs. Willson still took out a bank card from her wallet and handed it to the other party: "Come on, swipe the card."

The other party took the card, swiped it on the POS machine, entered the amount, and said to the Old Lady: "The password."

Mrs. Willson immediately pressed the password and confirmed, but the pos machine never automatically issued an order.

The staff member in charge of the cash register took a look and said, "Your card is frozen, please change one."

"What? Frozen?!" Mrs. Willson frowned, "How is it possible! I have tens of millions in my card!"

At first, after Regnar helped the Willson family repay the debt and the bank unsealed the previously sealed property, Mrs. Willson returned part of her deposit.

After that, Regnar invested in the Willson family, and Mrs. Willson also found a way to find some companies that helped people take the account and put the money in her card. Now she has more than 20 million cash in her card, which has always been her pension money left for you.

Now, the other party suddenly told her that this card was frozen, and she suddenly became nervous.

The other party didn't know if there were tens of millions in her card, and she said impatiently: "I can't control how much money you have in the card, but the pos machine gave me feedback that the card has been frozen. If you have a problem, call the bank!"

Mrs. Willson was too shocked, and quickly took out her mobile phone and called the bank.

After waiting for a long time for the manual service, she hurriedly asked: "Why did your bank freeze my card?! What right do you have to do this?!"

The other party patiently said: "I'm sorry. It shows that your card is indeed frozen. The reason for the freezing is because your creditor filed a property preservation with the court."

"f*ck your mother!" Mrs. Willson scolded angrily: "I have paid off all my debts a long time ago, how can there be any creditors?!"

The other party was also a little angry: "Madam, please speak up properly and don't swear! I can see the property preservation execution document. The document shows that your creditor Regnar Wu initiated property preservation and he helped you repay the amount before. Ten million debts, and tens of millions of funds invested in your company, but now he has to withdraw all the loans and investments, so he has frozen your bank card."

"what?!"

Mrs. Willson suddenly felt thunderous!

Did Regnar divest?

This... Doesn't it mean that the Willson family is going back to the previous situation of nothing and in debt? !

Chapter 1937

Seeing that Mrs. Willson stood blankly on the spot, the hospital toll collector asked, "Are you still paying? If you don't pay, we may ask you to discharge the two patients."

Mrs. Willson immediately took out another bank card, chose one, handed it to the other party, and said, "Try this again!"

The toll collector nodded and took it and swiped it. After Mrs. Willson entered the password, he shook his head and said, "This is also frozen."

"Then try this one again!"

Mrs. Willson passed all of her cards in succession, but the reminder that none of the cards was working!

This made Mrs. Willson's whole body very desperate!

Just when she was at a loss, a phone call came and she hurriedly connected, only to hear the other person say: "Hello madam, I am calling to inform you about the enterprises, villas, vehicles, antique paintings, etc. under your name. All real estate has been sealed by the court. Please repay Mr. Regnar's investment as soon as possible, otherwise, all your assets will enter the auction process!"

Mrs. Willson cried and said, "You...you are trying to force me to death!"

The other party has an official attitude and said: "Sorry, we are also acting in accordance with the regulations. The amount of debt claimed by your creditors has far exceeded your assets, so if you do not repay the debt in time, we will take action against you!"

Mrs. Willson choked and said, "My son and grandson are now in hospital. I need to pay for the hospitalization, right?"

"Sorry, you are now a negative equity holder, and if you have money, you also need to repay Mr. Regnar first."

"You bullsh*t!" Mrs. Willson shouted angrily: "What is the difference between you and drinking human blood?!"

"Sorry, it is justified to pay off debts."

Mrs. Willson roared: "God!! your mother, go to h*ll with her! Bullying an old lady like me, you can't die with peace!"

Having said that, Mrs. Willson immediately hung up the phone angrily.

Here, the toll collector said embarrassingly: "Old Lady, are you still paying the fee? If you don't pay, please get out of the way first, because the people behind have to pay the fee."

Mrs. Willson said with a black face, "Stop paying! I can't afford to eat, so I have to pay a bullsh*t!"

After that, she immediately called Regnar with her mobile phone.

Although she didn't know what was going on with Regnar, she still had a try and dialed his phone.

Unexpectedly, the call was quickly connected.

After Regnar answered the phone, he asked in a bad tone: "Old Lady, what's the matter with you?"

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said flatteringly: "Oh, Mr. Regnar, that's it, Mr. Regnar, why did I hear that you are going to divest suddenly? Didn't you say that you want to cooperate for a long time? You suddenly withdraw like this. But what did we do? Is there any misunderstanding in this?"

Chapter 1938

Regnar said coldly: "There is no misunderstanding, I just completely lost confidence in your family, so I don't expect you to do anything for me. In that case, what else should I do if not hurry up and divest?"

Mrs. Willson immediately pleaded with pity: "Mr. Regnar! Did the things my son and grandson did today make you feel unsatisfied? If they are not doing well enough, just say it, I will let them perform better next time. Please give our family another chance!"

Regnar said impatiently: "I had given you the opportunity, but the key is that you were not up to it! So don't come to beg me now."

Mrs. Willson was desperate in her heart. Suddenly thinking about the villa, she hurriedly asked: "Mr. Regnar, we signed an agreement about the villa. You agreed to lend it to us to live for 10 years. If we can't go back, our family will have to sleep on the streets!"

Regnar sneered: "Of course the villa. You can live for a while, but you have to make it clear to your son that if he dares to divorce Horiyah, then I will kick your family out immediately!"

Mrs. Willson said angrily, "Mr. Regnar, you don't need us to deal with Charlie anymore. Why do you have to let my son stay with the dirty woman Horiyah? You know, men hate most. What is being cuckolded by his own woman, as long as Horiyah is still there, my son will never pass this hurdle..."

Regnar said contemptuously: "Your son can't pass this hurdle. It has nothing to do with me. Horiyah, I gave her my words. If you don't want to, you can move out of Tomson and leave the villa to Horiyah."

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she immediately realized that she couldn't say more. If she continued to talk to Regnar, she might not even be able to keep the right to reside in the villa.

Mrs. Willson has experienced the taste of sleeping on the street, so she never wants to have such a hard life again.

She couldn't help but secretly thought: "As long as I can keep the residence right of Tomson Villa, even if my son always wears a green hat on his head, I can accept it. I am so old that I can't live for many years. In the next few years, I don't want to suffer that kind of suffering anymore!"

So, she could only grit her teeth and agree, saying, "Mr. Regnar, don't worry! I will definitely keep Horiyah in Willson's house!"

Regnar snorted coldly: "Forget we are acquainted! Don't call to bother me anymore."

Mrs. Willson hurriedly asked: "Mr. Regnar, don't hang up in a hurry, I have one more thing I want to ask you for help..."

"Say it."

Mrs. Willson said hurriedly: "My son and grandson are both seriously injured, and now there is no money for treatment. Can you please lend us hundreds of thousands for help?"

"Lent you hundreds of thousands?" Regnar said disdainfully: "Don't forget, your Willson Group still owes me tens of millions. At this time, you still lick your face and ask me to borrow money. How thick?"

Mrs. Willson cried and said, "But my son and grandson can't just bear it like this..."

Regnar said: "I heard that they are no longer in danger, and the plaster is also put on. You can take them home and cultivate slowly."

Mrs. Willson choked up and said, "But neither of them has the ability to take care of themselves. It will cost a lot of money to hire a caregiver or something..."

Regnar smiled and said, "Well, you don't have to worry about them. I will tell the hospital about their treatment fees. You don't need to pay them. You can take them back at any time. In addition, I have already given it to you. Three helpers have been arranged. You can wait. Then these three people will help you."

Mrs. Willson felt a glimmer of humanity in Regnar at this moment, and thought: "In any case, Mr. Orvel can still keep the villa for us to live in, and arrange for three helpers to come over. This is not bad. Maybe he was really angry, so he made the decision to divest. Maybe he will reinvest in the Willson family when he gets better in the future!"

Thinking of this, Mrs. Willson hurriedly said gratefully: "Thank you so much!"

Chapter 1939

At this moment, Elaine's situation is also very tragic.

She was first sent to the best orthopedic hospital in Aurous Hill by Mr. Regnar's men, and then an expert was urgently arranged to perform joint surgery on her knee.

In fact, for injuries like hers, the best way is to undergo surgery in the shortest possible time. After fixing the knees with steel plates and nails, they are wrapped in plaster for protection.

In this way, the best recovery effect can also be obtained.

After the operation, she returned to the ward, where Orvel's men were already waiting for her.

The subordinate opened his mouth and said to Elaine: "Ms. Elaine, you have done a lot to arrest Roxa this time, so all your treatment costs this time will be borne by our agency."

Elaine looked at the right leg that was put in plaster again, and she burst into tears in discomfort, and choked up: "Comrade Interpol, you can't let that b!tch go anyway!"

The man nodded and said solemnly: "Ms. Elaine, don't worry, we will bring her to justice!"

He said, "By the way, Ms. Elaine, for your personal safety, I have to remind you of something else."

As soon as Elaine heard that it was related to her personal safety, she said hurriedly: "Say!"

The man said seriously: "Roxa is a transnational fraudster. Behind her is a huge fraud group spanning dozens of countries. Although we have arrested Roxa this time, there are still many of Roxa's comrades who have to be arrested, so you must not tell anyone about this matter, otherwise, it is very likely that you will be retaliated by this fraud group!"

When Elaine heard this, she burst into tears!

"Mom, this is endless! It was because of this thing last time that I was taken into the detention center. I suffered a lot and my leg was broken..."

"Now my leg was just right, I haven't had time to jump for two days, or because of this, it is broken again, you said they will come to retaliate against me next time, then what can I do in the future? I..... Why do I have such a hard life..."

The man hurriedly comforted: "Ms. Elaine, don't get excited. This time is different from the last time."

Elaine cried and asked, "What's the difference? Didn't you still catch them clean? As long as they have a comrade outside, it is possible to retaliate against me! And this time I got their boss Roxa in. Now, they will not let me go! They interrupted my leg before, and might kill me!"

The person explained: "This is Ms. Elaine. We are still very cautious. The arrest of Roxa has not leaked any information. As long as we do not disclose it, and you do not disclose this matter, no one will think of it. You can go on to live a normal life."

Elaine breathed a sigh of relief, and hurriedly asked, "But you see how miserable I am now, my leg is broken, my face is beaten and swollen into a pig's head, and my hair is choked off by that b!tch. How can I explain it to my family?"

The man hurriedly said, "In fact, this matter is easy to explain. How did you explain to your family the last time you entered the detention center?"

Elaine said: "I told them that I was tricked into an MLM organization, and then I was taken into the detention center as an MLM employee..."

The man nodded and said, "You tell your family this time that members of several MLM organizations deliberately designed to retaliate against you, so they beat you like this. I think they should believe it."

Elaine sighed, "Hey, this is the only way to do things now..."

The man took out Elaine's mobile phone and handed it to her, "Ms. Elaine, you can contact your family. To avoid suspicion, I will also leave."

Elaine nodded, looked at the person in a flustered manner, and exhorted: "Comrade Interpol, please be sure to keep things alive today. Don't let Roxa's associates know that I got her in, otherwise. My life is definitely gone, please..."

The man said seriously: "Don't worry, we must keep it strictly confidential!"

After that, the man said in a convenient way: "Ms. Elaine, take care of your injuries, I will leave now."

After the man left, Elaine picked up the phone and quickly called Claire.

As soon as the phone was connected, she immediately cried and said, "Claire, my dear girl! Come and see mom in the hospital! Mom's leg is broken again... Why do you think mom's fate... .."

Chapter 1940

Claire was about to get off work. She was shocked when she heard this, and blurted out, "Mom, what's wrong with you?! How did you break your leg again?!"

Elaine cried and said, "Don't mention it. Mom let the people of the MLM organization take revenge. They caught me and gave me a fat beating... My hair was smashed and my legs are broken up..."

"Ah?!" Claire hurriedly asked: "Did you call the police?"

Elaine cried and said: "Reported, Comrade Police has arrested them, come and see mom!"

Claire asked, "Which hospital are you in, I'll be there!"

Elaine choked and said, "I'm in this Aurous Hill Orthopedic Hospital, come on..."

Claire blurted out: "Okay, mom, wait a minute, I'll come!"

Claire hung up Elaine's phone at this time, and while drove to the hospital, he hurriedly called Charlie.

Charlie had already returned home at this time, watching TV in the living room pretending to be a casual person.

Jacob also came back, and he was about to make a pot of tea and have a drink with Charlie.

Charlie received a call from Claire, already knowing what was going on, but still pretending not to know, he asked, "My wife, are you off work?"

Claire hurriedly said, "Husband, where are you?"

Charlie casually said: "I'm at home."

Claire asked again: "Where is Dad?"

Charlie said, "Dad is also at home and just came back."

Claire hurriedly said, "Then you and dad should drive to the orthopedic hospital! Mom, she is in the hospital! I'm driving there too, see you at the hospital!"

Charlie pretended to be surprised and asked, "What? Did mom go to the hospital again? What's the matter?"

Claire said with a bit of sobbing, "Mom, she was retaliated by the people from the MLM organization. Those people broke her leg, but don't know the specifics, so I have to go there!"

Charlie said hurriedly: "That's OK! Then dad and I will go out and rush over!"

"Okay, see you in the hospital!"

Jacob was preparing to make tea. Hearing this, he asked in surprise, "Charlie, what's the matter?"

Charlie said: "The people of the MLM organization retaliated against mom, and the leg is broken. She is at the hospital, let us go there!"

Jacob asked in surprise: "Elaine's leg is broken again?! What you said is true?!"

Charlie said awkwardly, "Dad, how do I think about what you mean? You seem quite happy..."

Jacob said seriously: "Charlie, it is reasonable to say that I really shouldn't be gloating, but when I think about Elaine's legs in plaster and crutches, I just want to laugh inexplicably..... Isn't it a bit unkind to say that, but hahaha..."

Charlie shook his head helplessly: "You also know that you are not kind. When you see mom later, don't laugh."

Noah nodded: "Don't worry, I can hold it back."

After that, he hurriedly put down the tea set and urged: "My son-in-law, let's go quickly, I can't wait to see how terrible she is now!"

Chapter 1941

When Charlie and Jacob arrived at the hospital, Claire had already reached.

When Jacob and his son-in-law came to the ward, Elaine was holding Claire's hand, and the crying could be heard outside the room.

Claire was also wiping tears distressedly.

Although Charlie heard that his mother-in-law had suffered a lot today, he had been outside at the time and had not entered, so he didn't see what was going on inside.

Moreover, after Elaine was brought out by Orvel's men, she was directly sent to the hospital, and Charlie did not see her face either.

Seeing Elaine with a blue nose and swollen face and missing a piece of hair on her forehead, he couldn't help sighing in his heart: "Oh, Mother-in-law is really miserable. This time she was in this way. It was really a disaster. The ghost knew that Cynthia would suddenly run away. Looking for her?"

Seeing Charlie's arrival, Elaine felt wronged and finally regarded as a catharsis, crying and said: "Good son-in-law, mom is so miserable..."

After speaking, she cried out of breath.

Charlie hurried forward, pretending to be concerned and asked: "Mom, what's wrong with you?"

Elaine waved her hand and wiped her tears: "Hey, I can't mention it, I can't mention it, it's a bitter tear..."

Looking at her like this, Jacob didn't dare to laugh even if he wanted to. He just stood there motionless or spoken.

Elaine glanced at him, and said angrily: "Jacob, what are you doing here!"

Jacob hurriedly said, "You said what I am here to do, of course I am here to see you."

"See me?" Elaine said angrily: "I think you came to see me and laugh at me!"

Jacob hummed in his heart: "Hey, I really made you right, but I can't admit it..."

So, he can only say embarrassingly: "What are you talking about it? Even if we are separated or divorced, we will be together for half a lifetime. You were bullied in this way. I must feel sorry for you!"

Elaine glared at him: "You feel bad a*, you! don't know what you old dog are thinking, you fcking want me to be lame forever!"

Jacob did not expect Elaine to guess so accurately, but he did not dare to respond.

Fortunately, Claire on the side said at this time, "Mom, don't quarrel with Dad. He came to see you out of concern."

Elaine said angrily, "I don't need his care."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie again, and said bitterly: "Good son-in-law, this time I was tossed by the same group of people who engaged in MLM last time. Mom is really in bad luck. This time I will be fighting for a few months with the plaster, not only I can't cook for you, but also won't be able to go anywhere in the future. The days to come will be extremely depressing..."

Charlie understood Elaine's meaning at once.

So he immediately said openly: "Mom, in this case, I'll cook the food in the future. In addition, I will transfer you 100,000 in pocket money. You are really bored during this time. You can buy something online. Just play with things and it's time to manage and be patient."

When Elaine heard this, she was immediately moved!

In fact, she didn't expect Charlie to give her money at all.

She just felt that Charlie had promised her that he would pay 30,000 a month for food and another 10,000 for the hard cost of cooking. She did not dare to deduct the food cost, but the hard work should be taken for granted.

But now she is limping again, and she can't buy vegetables and cook. No one can do this work. She was afraid she couldn't ask Charlie for the 10,000.

Chapter 1942

That's why she wanted to pretend to be pitiful and hope that Charlie won't deduct her 10,000 for hard work.

But she didn't expect him to be so generous, he would directly give her one hundred thousand!

Hearing this, Elaine immediately felt refreshed, and was also full of gratitude to Charlie, and said hurriedly: "Hey, you are really a good son-in-law of your mother! With a son-in-law like you, mother has cultivated blessings for several lifetimes..."

Claire was secretly speechless when he heard this.

The reason for the tongue is that she discovered that when her mother said this, her attitude was really sincere. It seemed that she was really from the bottom of her heart, rather than just saying two polite words...

Charlie didn't expect that one hundred thousand would be able to move Elaine into this, and he couldn't help but chuckled secretly, thinking: "I knew this superb mother-in-law, so I can send her away with such a small amount of money. I would not have to worry if I gave her some money?"

However, if you think about it, this matter is not that simple.

In the past, Elaine controlled the family's financial power, not to mention, at least two million in his hands. At that time, if she was given more than two hundred thousand, she would really not be able to send her.

However, after being sacked by Horiyah and spending a few days in the detention center, her starting point has been reduced a lot, and her appetite is not as great as before.

Charlie was also very straightforward. After talking here, he immediately transferred 100,000 to Elaine's card. When Elaine received the receipt message from the bank, she immediately beamed and said happily: "It's my son-in-law who loves me!"

At this time, the doctor just came in for the rounds, Claire hurriedly asked her: "Doctor, can I ask you, how is Mom's situation now?"

The female doctor explained: "The patient is here mainly to recover and recuperate. This does take a while, and there is nothing else to pay attention to. You can let her under observation in the hospital, or you can take her home for recuperation."

Claire said, "Mom, why don't we take you home for training, so that it will be convenient for us to take care of you! Besides, it will be the New Year soon, and staying in the hospital is too deserted."

Elaine nodded again and again: "This hospital feels very bad. I don't want to wait for a minute. Anyway, my leg is not broken for the first time. I already have experience. I will wait until my bottle of fluid infusion is finished later. Just take me home!"

.....

At the same time, in Aurous Hill People's Hospital.

Noah and Harold were forced to leave the ward because they could not pay the hospital fee.

The father and son were lying on the mobile cart in the hospital, and Mrs. Willson and Wendy pushed them to the parking lot together.

When they came, it was Wendy who drove the new Bentley bought at home.

The Bentley is not an ambulance, and there is no way for them to lie down safely, so they can only find an ambulance to transport them.

However, it costs money to find an ambulance.

The family of four has no cash on them, and all bank cards and electronic payment accounts have been frozen. Now they are really penniless, and they don't know how to pay for the parking fee after driving out of the hospital.

Just when they were at a loss, two middle-aged men stepped over and said, "Is it Mrs. Willson?"

Mrs. Willson said in a hurry, "It's me, who are you?"

The other party said: "We are sent by Mr. Regnar, for the sake of your family's pitifulness, arranged an ambulance for you to take the four of you back to the villa."

Mrs. Willson breathed a sigh of relief and said gratefully: "That's great! Could you arrange an ambulance to take my son and my grandson back, and I will drive back together with my granddaughter."

The other party waved his hand: "Sorry, you two have to take the ambulance back as well, because this Bentley was bought with our President Wu's money, so he asked us to take the car back!"

Chapter 1943

Mrs. Willson heard the other party's words, and she felt as if she was struck by lightning. Just stand on the spot!

She said helplessly and begging: "Two brothers, please call Mr. Regnar and say that our family is exhausted now. I beg him to show mercy and leave us a little escape. Leave the Bentley to us..."

After speaking, she quickly added: "Even if you just borrow us to use it for a few years!"

The other side said blankly: "I'm sorry, Mr. Regnar, said that a family like yours really can't come to the table, so he doesn't want to have any interests or entanglements with you anymore. The villa allows you to live in, it is already his. The greatest kindness, if you don't know what is good or bad, then I'm sorry, the villa, he can also take it back at any time!"

Mrs. Willson's heart throbbed for a while, but at this time, she did not dare to say any rebellious words.

Wendy on the side couldn't help choking: "Please tell Mr. Regnar again, you two, look at the way my dad and my brother are now, our family has no credit and hard cash, and there is fatigue without hard work... .."

The other party said coldly: "If you are still talking so much nonsense, then the villa is really gone."

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said at this time: "Wendy, stop talking! Get out of the car handover the keys quickly!"

Wendy was extremely angry, but she did not dare to continue to resist, so she cried and took out the car key and handed it to the other party.

The man took the key and said to the Willson family: "Okay, the ambulance has been arranged for you. Your family of five should go back quickly. We will drive away now."

After speaking, the two got into the Bentley car and directly started the car to leave the scene.

At this time, an old ambulance drove to the family and stopped. The driver lowered the window and asked, "Are you going to Tomson?"

"Yes..." Mrs. Willson nodded sullenly, and said, "Thank you, please take the four of us to Tomson a06."

The driver and a young man in the co-pilot got out of the car and helped them lift Noah and Harold up there, and then said to Mrs. Willson and Wendy: "You two will squeeze in too."

Mrs. Willson nodded and said to Wendy: "Wendy, this ambulance is a bit tall, please help grandma."

Wendy wiped her tears, rubbed her red eyes again, choked up and said, "OK, Grandma..."

Horiyah hurriedly followed, and said flatly: "Mom, I will help you too!"

Mrs. Willson opened her hand and yelled angrily: "Get out! Don't touch me!"

Horiyah didn't expect that the Old Lady suddenly got angry with her, and asked a little aggrieved: "Mom, where did I offend you?"

Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth and cursed: "You have offended me everywhere! If it weren't for you, our family wouldn't be what it is today! If it weren't for you, they wouldn't be able to beat you up for more than ten million! If it wasn't for you, Noah will not always be ridiculed by Elaine!! If it weren't for you, Noah would not be able to do anything to Elaine. He and Harold are so miserable now, this is all your harm!"

Horiyah cried all at once.

Chapter 1944

She was also extremely aggrieved in her heart, crying and said, "Mom, I know you have been worried about my pregnancy in the black coal mine, but I was really trying to survive, otherwise, I might have already died!"

"Furthermore, the ten million things I did not deliberately want to get rid of!"

"I intended to deceive Elaine's money and villa, so as to improve the living conditions of our family! All my efforts and sacrifices are all for this family!"

When Mrs. Willson heard her talk about pregnancy, she immediately felt as if she had been slapped twice, and immediately yelled: "You shameless b*tch, dare to mention pregnancy! Depraved family-style, depraved morals, and extremely shameless! Had Ragnar protected you, I would have driven you out of the house!"

With that said, Mrs. Willson was so angry that she even lost her breathing rhythm. She gritted her teeth and said: "Also! When you came out of the black coal kiln, you were not only pregn@nt with a wild species! You also contracted a venereal disease! You also infected my son! Do you think I don't know?!"

Horiyah's face turned red.

Just when she didn't know how to fight back, the driver asked impatiently, "I said your family can't leave? If you want to fight, pull the two sick numbers from the car and accompany you. Noisy, we are still waiting to get off work, we have no time to spend with you here!"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she immediately persuaded him, and hurriedly said: "Mr. driver, don't be angry, let's go, let's go!"

After speaking, she gave Horiyah a fierce look, and then with the help of Wendy, she climbed into the ambulance.

Although Wendy sympathized with her mother, she didn't dare to speak up at this time, so she could only wink at her mother and let her get in the car before talking.

Horiyah also knew very well that she had no other place to live except the Tomson a06 villa, so she could only swallow her anger and got into the car, and sat in the corner.

After all five members of the family got into the ambulance, the ambulance immediately went to Tomson.

In the car, Noah was lying on the mobile hospital bed, looking at Mrs. Willson, crying and asking: "Mom, what can we do in the future? Our family is now as poor as it is..."

Mrs. Willson wiped her tears, and said in extremely painful and melancholy: "don't know what to do. Now our family has no money, and your father is injured like this again. Later treatment, medication and rehabilitation. It's a lot of money, it's really desperate situation..."

Harold cried and said, "Grandma, if you want to return to Tomson to see if there are valuable things, let's get them out and sell them! There are still a lot of good things in our villa, just in the wine cellar. It is estimated that you can sell the liquor for a lot of money!"

Mrs. Willson nodded: "There is really no way, it can only be this way!"

Wendy asked at this time: "By the way, grandma, the two people just said that Regnar arranged three helpers for our family. Where are they?"

Mrs. Willson was also at a loss: "Don't know, he may have arranged but people haven't arrived yet, right?"

"Hey..." Wendy sighed: "If he could send three helpers over, Regnar would be more or less conscientious. Otherwise, Dad and Brother would be hurt like this, just the three of us. It's really hard to take care of them."

"Who wouldn't say..." Mrs. Willson said with emotion: "I guess Regnar is indeed angry with us in his heart, but he should still have some hope for us, but he is now No matter how angry we are, if we have a chance in the future, we must perform well, and we should be able to win his trust again!"

Wendy nodded and sighed, "Hey, I hope the three helpers he arranged will arrive as soon as possible. It's best to have already arrived at the Tomson first-grade waiting, otherwise we don't know how to get Dad and Brother back to the room later."

Chapter 1945

At this moment, in the a06 villa of Tomson.

Gena, Tabia and Lexi have just filled their stomachs.

They waited left and right, but they couldn't wait for Mrs. Willson's family to come back, and they were hungry and uncomfortable. They just found out that there were some ingredients in the kitchen that she had prepared but had not had time to cook, so they decided on their own and used those ingredients. Prepared a great meal.

Before Regnar divested, the living standards of the Willson family were still very good. After all, Regnar invested in the Willson Group, which restored the life of the Group, and the Old Lady also resumed her previous life like Lafayette. The level has also been greatly improved.

Moreover, Horiyah deliberately prepared very rich ingredients today, in order to celebrate it after Noah and Harold got Elaine.

Unexpectedly, these ingredients were not eaten by the Willson family, and Gena's three were all impatient.

The three of them were lying on the sofa watching TV with big and round bellies.

This TV was brought up from the room on the first basement floor after Harold sold the big TV. Compared with the previous one, it is indeed a lot smaller. In the huge living room, it is somewhat different.

While watching TV, Gena smacked her lips and said, "Oh, all the villas are good for Mrs. Willson, but this TV seems to be a bit small. Compared with such a large living room, it looks uncoordinated."

Lexi asked in surprise: "Mom is coming! This big TV can't be 50 inches? The TV set in my village chief's house is not so big, is it small?"

"Yeah..." Tabia also echoed: "I have never watched such a big TV before."

Gena waved her hand and said, "You don't understand. The TVs of rich people start at 70 or 80 inches. Last year, when I was working at a housekeeping company in the city, I went to the rich people's house to clean, and the TV was much bigger than this. ring!"

Lexi said with emotion: "Goodbye! What are you doing with such a big TV? Don't you be tired if your eyes are running back and forth on such a big TV?"

Gena sneered and said: "Look at your promise. According to you, when people go to the cinema to watch a movie, their eyes will fall to the ground!"

Lexi scratched her head: "I have never been to a movie theater. don't know what it is like."

Gena said: "I've been there, and I've done cleaning in movie theaters. Let me tell you that. The screen in the movie theater is bigger than a wall in this living room. Just think about it!"

Tabia on the side asked, "It's bigger than this wall, that's too scary!"

Gena said: "You two have never seen the world. When you turn around, let Mrs. Willson take us to watch a movie in the cinema, then you will know!"

The three were chatting, and the ambulance had been driven into the yard.

But their TV sound was loud, so no one heard the movement outside.

After the ambulance stopped steadily, the driver and the co-pilot jumped out of the car, and roughly removed Noah and Harold from the car.

They did not move down with the mobile beds, but directly moved them down and placed them on the marble floor in the yard.

Mrs. Willson was ready to get in the car and leave as soon as they saw them, and hurriedly said, "Aren't you going to help us get them in?"

The driver said impatiently: "The customer's request is to bring you to the place. The entrance fee is not included. If you want us to help, you can pay two hundred per person."

Mrs. Willson said: "I don't have a penny!"

The driver frowned and asked, "You live in such a luxurious villa, don't you have four hundreds?"

Mrs. Willson eagerly said: "Now I don't need cash at all when I go out, so I haven't put any money at home. Now our mobile payment and bank cards are all frozen, there is really no way!"

Chapter 1946

The driver waved his hand: "Then we will be helpless."

Wendy said angrily, "You are paramedics, shouldn't it be right for you to help the wounded?"

The driver looked at her and said seriously: "Little girl, I want to make it clear to you that we are not doctors, and ours is not a 120 ambulance in a public hospital, but a transfer ambulance operated by a private company, just like a taxi. We drive to make money by driving, and we will work when we are given the money, understand?"

Wendy was speechless.

The man said disdainfully: "Who, who can live in such a good villa, can't afford four hundreds!"

After speaking, the two got into the car directly and started the car to leave.

Wendy stomped her feet angrily, the Old Lady sighed helplessly, and said to her and Horiyah: "My old bones can't help. First carry Noah into the house, and then come out to carry Harold. Right."

Wendy and Horiyah also knew that there was no other way. They could only grit their teeth and used the strength of suckling to put Noah up carefully.

Noah's body erupted with pain, and said in pain, "You move a little bit slow, it hurts too much..."

Mrs. Willson shook her head and sighed, "Dear son, there is really no other way now, so just bear it!"

After that, she said to Wendy and Horiyah: "You two help Noah, I'll open the door first!"

Wendy and Horiyah struggled with Noah and moved to the doorstep by step. Mrs. Willson was about to swipe her fingerprints to open the door. Suddenly heard the movement of the TV inside, she asked Wendy in surprise: "Wendy, did you turn off the TV when you left?"

Wendy shook her head: "I was too rushed when I left, I forgot too."

"Okay." Mrs. Willson didn't think much, she opened the door directly.

As soon as the door opened, she saw three people lying on the sofa in the living room inside!

She was so scared that she yelled: "You...who are you?!"

When the three heard the movement, they suddenly turned their heads and found that Mrs. Willson and Wendy were coming, and they recognized these two former inmates at a glance.

Gena was so excited that she rushed over and said excitedly: "Old Lady! You are back! We have been waiting for you for a long time!"

Mrs. Willson saw the three people running over barefoot, and she was shocked to speak.

She naturally recognized Gena and the others, but she couldn't figure out why these three people came out? And why is it in her own home? !

So, she asked in surprise: "Gena, you guys... why are you here!"

Gena said excitedly: "Old Lady! Are you still pretending to be confused here! Didn't you give us a bail pending trial and save us?"

"Me?!" Mrs. Willson said with a dazed expression: "This...Is there a misunderstanding?"

"Is there any misunderstanding!" Gena hurriedly said, "Old Lady, I know, you are grateful that we helped you a lot in the detention center and took care of you a lot, so you wanted to repay your favor and let us come and live with you!"

Tabia on the side also echoed: "Yes, Mrs. Willson, you are so nice! You also sent a big run to pick us up. For the first time in my life, I have been on a big run!"

Gena said with a bit of emotion: "Old Lady, let me just say something from my heart. The three of us are very grateful to you! So we all think about it. In the future, the three of us will live here and not leave. Let's take care of you as our own mother, and give you the end of your retirement life!"

Mrs. Willson suddenly felt deep despair in her heart, and she blurted out anxiously: "Gena, listen to me, there must be some misunderstanding in this, it really wasn't me who saved you! Besides, I really didn't want you to come here to live with me!"

Chapter 1947

Mrs. Willson is a typical hiring person forward instead of backward.

When she was in the detention center, she needed Gena to support her, so she was extremely polite to her at that time, and treated her like her own daughter.

But in fact, she doesn't even look down on a vulgar village woman like Gena.

Therefore, from the day she left the detention center, she had completely forgotten her.

For her, Gena is only a tool that must be used in a special period. After that special period, she never wants to have anything to do with her.

However, she never expected that this Gena would appear in her own home inexplicably!

Gena didn't expect that the Old Lady would deny what she had done.

In her opinion, it was obviously Mrs. Willson who saved them, arranged for the driver to pick them up to Tomson, and entered the fingerprints on the gate. Why did she deny it at this time?

Thinking of this, Gena asked with a puzzled face: "Old Lady, what's wrong with you? You did all these good things, so why are you reluctant to admit it?"

"Yeah!" Tabia and Lexi also came over and asked uncomprehendingly: "Old Lady, you obviously did all this. Why are you denying it? Why is that?"

Mrs. Willson was surrounded by the three of them, feeling the stinky smell on their bodies, feeling dizzy, and choking her coughing.

The three of them didn't pay much attention to personal hygiene, and it was winter now, their clothes were thick, they didn't pay much attention to hygiene, didn't take a bath or change their clothes, so that the three of them had a strong body odor.

Now three people surrounded the Old Lady, and the smell was sour and unbearable for her.

While covering her nose, Mrs. Willson said grievously: "Gena, you really misunderstood. I really didn't do these things..."

Gena smiled, showing her big yellow teeth, and said with a smile: "Oh, Old Lady, I know you have a good heart, and you may not want to say something, but it doesn't matter, the relationship between our inmates is deep after all! Now! The three of us have also come out. From now on, we will all stay by your side and take care of you!"

Lexi on the side also said: "Yes, Old Lady, when you didn't come back, the three of us had already arranged a room. Fortunately, your villa is big enough and there are enough rooms. From now on, we will live in three of them. Here, you are the mothers of the three of us!"

"What?!" When Mrs. Willson heard this, she burst into flames and blurted out: "You have arranged the rooms? Who gives you the power?!"

Lexi didn't expect the Old Lady to suddenly get angry, and hurriedly asked: "What's the matter, Old Lady, you let us come over and live with you, we must get a share of the room!"

Mrs. Willson trembled angrily, and said: "This is my house, so I won't be held accountable if you break in without permission, but who gives you the right to divide my bedrooms?! Leave immediately!"

Wendy hurried over at this time and said in a low voice: "Grandma, we are currently short of manpower, so let them help, and let them go when Dad and Brother are better off."

Mrs. Willson waved her hand and said coldly: "I can't let them be here without manpower. They are so stinky to live like this. Letting them stay one more minute will be my birthday! Besides, Mr. Ragnar will arrange a helper for us. Yes, it must be 10,000 times stronger than these three stinky ladies!"

After that, she looked at Gena and said sharply: "You three, get out of here quickly!"

Gena was stunned!

Chapter 1948

She looked at Mrs. Willson and said in disbelief: "Lady, you will let us get out? This is too much! Don't forget, we were in the detention center, but the three of us have been taking care of you and helping you. , Even your daughter-in-law Elaine, we helped you teach her a lesson!"

Mrs. Willson asked viciously: "Did I ask you to help me? When did I say and asked you for Elaine to teach her a lesson? It was entirely because you felt that Elaine was insulting that you started beating her!"

Gena was extremely disappointed: "Mrs. Willson, you are really turning your face faster than turning a book! Back in the detention center, when we maintained you so much, I didn't expect to return to such a result!"

Mrs. Willson said blankly: "I'm really sorry, I let you down, but this is also a lesson for you, telling you to recognize your identity in the future, don't think about utopian dreams all day!"

Gena gritted her teeth and said, "Oh, Old Lady, are you talking like this? Okay! Then I won't leave! I think what you can do to me!"

Tabia and Lexi also said repeatedly: "Yes! We won't leave!"

Mrs. Willson did not expect that the three of them would even want to play rogues, and immediately said coldly: "You three, don't mess around here with me. You don't look in the mirror to see yourself. Just like you, your whole body is stinking. Are the soil buns worthy of living in this Tomson first-class villa? If even you can live in such a luxurious villa, it is really not long-sighted!"

With that said, Mrs. Willson said with a arrogant face: "I was in the detention center when the Phoenix fell into the chicken coop and was forced to stay in the chicken coop for two days. You really thought I was with you. Am I that kind of person?"

Tabia yelled, "Mrs. Willson! As the saying goes, a troubled phoenix is not as good as a chicken! Don't go too far, you dead old woman! If you annoy us, even if you are old, we will beat you!"

"Yes!" Lexi also immediately agreed: "How we beat Elaine back then, now we can beat you the same!"

Mrs. Willson curled her lips and said: "You try to hit me. As long as you dare to do it, I will call the police immediately! You will definitely be caught back!"

Gena also clenched her fists, her violent temper made her wish she would rush to punch Mrs. Willson now.

However, before she came out, she thought about the instructions given to her by the prison guards, and she thought to herself: "The prison guards have said that we are all on bail pending trial. Although we have temporarily obtained personal freedom, we must abide by the law, otherwise, Because if we don't abide by the law and cause trouble, we will most likely be caught again. Not only will we have to make up for the remaining sentence, but it might also even worsen!"

Thinking of this, she had to suppress the anger in her heart, and said coldly: "Old Lady, I can see it too, you are idle and you have nothing to do with us, right? Since you think we can't climb up to you, then Is it okay to go?"

Mrs. Willson nodded: "It's best to leave as soon as possible, or I will call the police right away!"

Gena gritted her teeth and said to the two people around her: "Okay, anyway, we have released it in advance. There is no need to go back to this matter, pack up things, let's go!"

Although the other two were unwilling to do so, they did not dare to make a mistake at this time, for fear of returning to the detention center, so they nodded angrily.

The three of them packed their belongings in anger and loss, and prepared to leave with the blanket.

Mrs. Willson has been supervising them. Seeing that they have packed their things, she fanned her hands in front of her nose and said with disgust on her face: "Oh, it's so stinking! You guys hurry up and roll as far as possible. If you dare to come again, I will call the police and arrest you as soon as possible!"

Gena felt the great humiliation, but because she was afraid of causing trouble, she could only grit her teeth and endure it, and said to the two people around her: "Let's go!"

At this moment, seven or eight strong men suddenly pushed in from outside, saw this situation, and asked: "What's the matter? Where are you three going?"

Gena thought that these fierce and strong men were all found by Mrs. Willson, and immediately said nervously, "Don't be impulsive, big brothers, we are leaving! we're leaving!"

The leader said coldly: "Why are you going?! Mr. Regnar said, the three of you will treat this as your own home from now on, this house belongs to him, not to Mrs. Willson. Mrs. Willson is like you. She's just borrowing to live here, so as long as we, nod our heads, they don't have the right to drive you away!"

Chapter 1949

Mrs. Willson was confused all at once.

Regnar arranged for Gena and the others? !

What does Regnar mean? !

Did he say that these three helpers arranged for her? !

Just before the Old Lady came back to her senses, Gena heard the brawny man's words and blurted out excitedly: "Big brother, what you said is true?! Can we really live here?"

The man nodded, "Of course! Hasn't the driver entered your fingerprints before? You will treat this as your home from now on!"

Mrs. Willson shouted desperately: "Brother! Excuse me, tell Mr. Regnar that we don't want such a helper! These three people are all peasant women and don't know a few big characters. What can they do for us? We can't change to three professional nurses, preferably the one who can wash clothes and cook!"

The man yelled coldly: "Old Lady, I found that although you are old and ugly, but you think well and beautifully! Still bargaining with us? Don't look at what you count?"

Mrs. Willson was blushing when she was scolded, and she stammered and said: "Then we don't need help, can't we? Let the three of them go. Let's do everything by ourselves. This is alright?"

"That's not okay! As I said just now, these three people are the same as your family. They will all be residents of this house from now on. They will sit on the same level as you. You have no right to let them go!"

Gena just heard this, looked at Mrs. Willson, sneered and said: "Oh, Mrs. Willson, I think you are really a phoenix! Not long after you came out, you can turn over so quickly, I didn't expect this big villa is not yours at all. Yeah! What are you pretending here with me? I really thought this was your villa! I didn't expect you to be the same as the three of us, just renting it out!"

"Yes!" Tabia said contemptuously: "The clamor was so powerful just now, it seems to be really awesome, I didn't expect it was all pretended!"

Lexi also echoed: "I still think you are really a phoenix. You live in such a good phoenix den. Only now I know that you are a pheasant who borrowed and lived in the phoenix den!"

Mrs. Willson's expression was very ugly.

This villa is indeed not hers.

It belongs to Regnar.

Regnar allowed them to live in the family so they could live.

If Regnar doesn't let them live anymore, they will have to get out.

In other words, if Regnar wants Gena and the three of them to live in, then she has no right to obstruct.

Gena exhaled suddenly!

She excitedly said to the two of them: "From now on, we are also residents of this big villa! Some old pheasants pretending to be phoenixes no longer have the right to drive us out!"

"Yes!" The other two were also very excited.

After clarifying the relationship of interest, they were in a good mood.

After all, this not only extinguished the arrogant arrogance of the Old Lady, but also allowed the three of them to live in this large villa reasonably and legally.

At this moment, Gena suddenly remembered something and asked the brawny headed man: "Brother, I want to ask you something!"

The man said: "You say!"

Chapter 1950

Gena said: "We looked at the rooms in this villa before and found that those big and good rooms were occupied by the Willson family. All we could find were corner rooms. Since the three of us were with them Family rights are equal, so can we ask for reallocation of rooms?"

"Yes!" Lexi also recovered, and said excitedly: "I want to live in a big bedroom facing south too!"

The man naturally didn't think it was too big to watch the excitement, and said with a smile, "Of course, we don't care how you distribute it internally."

"That's great!" Gena said immediately: "I booked the big bedroom on the third floor! Who owns the bedroom? Move out quickly, otherwise, don't blame me for throwing everything out!"

Mrs. Willson said angrily: "Dare you! The big bedroom on the third floor is my room! No one can grab it!"

Gena sneered and said, "You bad Old Lady, hurry up and get away! I just gave you a face. The three of us have come to you sincerely and really want to treat you as a mother! But Unexpectedly, your old thing is so unfeeling! Now that Mr. Regnar has spoken, then let's speak with strength. I want the room on the third floor. If you dare to grab it, you can weigh yourself whether you have that ability!"

Mrs. Willson was suddenly desperate!

Not only despair, but also deep regret!

She only understood now that these three people turned out to be the helpers Regnar arranged for her!

If she knew this was the case, she shouldn't have yelled at them just now and had to drive them out...

Originally, although the three of them couldn't make it to the stage, they had enough respect for her, and she also had the strength to direct them to do anything.

But it's better now!

She actually offended the three of them to death!

And these three people were not driven out in the end...

Gena wants to grab her room...

Isn't this shooting yourself in the foot? !

Thinking of this, Mrs. Willson felt so uncomfortable...

She could only lick her face and said to Gena: "Oh, Gena! It was a misunderstanding just now, don't you be familiar with me! I am old, confused, and can't live for a few years. Sometimes my brain is not enough. Said something that doesn't sound very nice, don't take it to your heart! I always treat you like a daughter!"

Gena said with a disgusted face: "Now it's close to me? I'll go to your mother! What the h*ll are you doing? I see through your old stuff this time! The show sings "Something is wrong with you," No matter what, it's a dog thing like you! Everyone will live under the same roof in the future. You'd better not provoke me, otherwise, I will let you die in minutes!"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she shuddered in shock, and blurted out: "You...are you not afraid to go in again?"

At this time, the brawny man immediately added: "Don't worry, Mr. Regnar still has a lot of face, and this little thing is definitely done!"

When Gena heard this, she immediately felt as if she had been given a cardiotoxic injection, and sneered: "Then I'm sorry, Mrs. Willson, from now on, the big room on the third floor belongs to me!"

Mrs. Willson almost collapsed. The large bedroom on the third floor was the best bedroom in the entire villa. When she first moved in, she fell in love with that room, and it was extremely comfortable to live in, absolutely unmatched by other rooms.

Moreover, the Old Lady is eager to enjoy her life. She intends to live in such a good bedroom. Now seeing that Gena will snatch it away, she is naturally anxious. She cried and said, "Gena! You see how old I am. Yes, maybe I will die one day, so you can let me die in that better room, and I can have a good fate in my next life!"

Gena stepped forward and slapped Mrs. Willson, and shouted coldly: "You're so f*cking f@rting here! Mom drank pesticides, and the hospital said it was useless, so we took her back home. She died in the end. In the dilapidated brick house in my hometown, according to what you said, won't Mom have a good fate in her next life?!"

Chapter 1951

Mrs. Willson was dizzy as slapped by Gena.

She really did not expect that she had said so many insults to Gena before that Gena did not do anything to her.

Unexpectedly, when she showed her weakness she accidentally touched her inverse scale.

Although Gena has no culture, she is indeed a filial daughter.

At first, her mother was forced to commit suicide by taking medicine. After hearing the news, she rushed back from her husband's house.

At that time, her mother was very sick and hopeless.

In the hospital, Gena's mother told her very weakly that she wanted to go home, saying that she was uncomfortable in the hospital.

Gena knew that she knew that she was going to die. When she was dying, all she wanted to do was to save some money for her family, and didn't want to stay in the hospital for fearless treatment.

She wanted to take her mother back to her in-law's house, be good for a few days, and let her walk through the last part of life.

But her mother-in-law strongly opposed it, especially her mother-in-law, who yelled at her on the phone, saying that if she dared to pick her mother back, she would not even enter the house herself.

The younger brother who is afraid of his wife is unwilling to let her mother go back because it is unlucky for her to die in her own home.

In the end, Gena could only take her mother back to her old house that had been abandoned for many years.

In the old house, Gena tried her best to wipe her mother's body with warm water, put on clean clothes, and made her a bowl of noodles with eggs.

After the mother ate the bowl of noodles, she held her hand and said to her contentedly, "Good girl, mom will sleep for a while", and then she never woke up.

That day, Gena cried all the tears.

After her mother entered the soil, Gena beat her younger sister-in-law and was sent to the detention center.

It was also because of her filial piety that when she heard that Elaine was very unfilial to Mrs. Willson, she felt sympathy for Mrs. Willson and hated Elaine at the same time.

Generally speaking, this is a vulgar, sloppy, and uneducated peasant woman who has always respected her deceased mother and awe of human nature.

Although her temper is aggressive, she is not a bad person.

She could tolerate the insults Mrs. Willson had put on her, but she couldn't tolerate even a slight offense to her mother.

Mrs. Willson only said that by dying in a better room, she can guarantee a good fate in her next life. It reminded her of her mother who had died in a dilapidated building.

She always felt that her mother was loyal and kind-hearted, though poor and down for her life.

However, her fate is so awkward, she has never enjoyed a blessing in her life, and finally was driven to ruin by her daughter-in-law.

She also felt that such a mother, even if she died in the worst room in the world, God has eyes, she would have a good fate and enjoy a lifetime of happiness in her next life.

And what Mrs. Willson said just now, inadvertently, not only denied her consistent firm belief in her heart, but also blasphemed her mother's holy and great image in her mind.

Therefore, she couldn't bear it and slapped Mrs. Willson.

At this time, Mrs. Willson, covering her face, looked at Gena resentfully.

Chapter 1952

Although she was very annoyed in her heart, but at this time, given her ten thousand courage, she did not dare to do anything with Gena.

Regnar's subordinates said in a cold voice at this time: "We are here this time. It is Mr. Regnar's order to empty the assets in this villa. Mr. Regnar means that in the future, except for the hard-decorated parts, as well as the bed, Except for the large pieces of furniture such as the sofa, all other household appliances, all valuable furnishings, and the good wine stored in the basement must all be emptied, leaving nothing!"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she suddenly felt desperate.

At first, she was worried that she had no money. She could sell the household appliances in the villa, especially the wine in the warehouse in the basement, which could sell for at least one million, but she didn't expect that such a rich person as Regnar could even do this. She was worried about this in her heart, and before she was ready to make a move, his people had already found it!

Mrs. Willson said bitterly: "You can move away from the little brothers, home appliances and so on, but please keep the wine for us. After all, we like to drink a few drinks occasionally..."

The leader sneered and said: "You're fcking almost out of food, and still thinking about fcking drinking? With that energy, you should study how to make money and make a living!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately said to a few people around him: "Start moving! Don't leave any valuables!"

"OK, boss!"

Several subordinates immediately agreed, and then began to search the villa for a while.

They even carried a flatbed cart specially used for moving house, put all the valuables in the cart, and pulled out all the bits.

Mrs. Willson didn't dare to make any trouble, she could only watch them constantly move the things in the villa, not only moved all the wine out, even the TV on the wall was also taken down.

What's more, the kitchen utensils, pots and other items in the kitchen were all taken away by them.

Mrs. Willson choked and said: "Brothers, please keep the cooking pots and pans for us..."

The man said coldly: "These are all kitchen utensils imported from Germany. One pot costs tens of thousands. Keep them for you. You will sell them all in two days!"

Mrs. Willson cried and said, "No matter what I sell, I can't sell the pot..."

The man said disdainfully: "We don't care about this. If you want to cook, you can find a way to buy another pot!"

After that, he checked in each room again to make sure that there were no valuables left. Then he said to his men: "You first put everything in the car!"

Several subordinates went out one after another, and the person said to Gena again: "You will live here steadily in the future. Mr. Regnar has only one requirement of you, that is, you must not go to the house of Ms. Elaine next door to find any trouble with their family. Otherwise, we will never be merciful!"

As soon as Gena heard this, she nodded quickly and said: "Don't worry, I will never trouble Elaine! The trouble with Elaine before was all because of Mrs. Willson, an ungrateful Old Lady, so I will definitely not do it again in the future. Not anymore!"

The man was satisfied and said: "Okay, don't you want the bedroom on the third floor? Go and take it quickly, let's go first."

Gena said excitedly: "Okay! I see! You go slowly!"

After the group of people left, Mrs. Willson sat on the ground and cried: "Oh my life, why is it so bitter..."

Wendy also cried out and said, "Grandma, Regnar is too much. He clearly wants to play with us..."

Horiyah said at this time: "People, Mr. Regnar, may not really want to play with us. Originally, he wanted to arrange a few helpers for our family. Unexpectedly, your grandma would offend them to death when she came up. Now there are no other helpers. Now, there are three more enemies..."

Mrs. Willson asked furiously: "Horiyah, you sl*t who doesn't obey women's way, dare to point fingers at me!"

Horiyah had been fed up with the Old Lady's arrogance for a long time. Seeing that the Old Lady was angry with her, she immediately became angry and cursed: "You dead Old Lady, don't deceive too much! Do you really think you are still Mrs. Willson?! You are now very poor and utterly impoverished, and you're fcking here with me, what the hll I owe to the Willson family?!"

Chapter 1953

Mrs. Willson did not expect that Horiyah, who had always been crushed by herself, would dare to challenge herself!

At this moment, she felt furious in her heart, but she didn't dare to say anything when she thought that she had no support at the moment and was like a frustrated ball.

If I had treated Gena better at first, then the three of them would now be their own loyal licking dogs, and Horiyah would naturally not dare to make any mistakes.

It's a pity that she has already made enemies with Gena and the others. If she offends Horiyah at this time, she really can't find half a helper.

So she could only say angrily: "I don't want to quarrel with you, let's take Noah back to the room, and then move Harold in!"

Noah was almost crying, and choked up: "Mom, you still remember me, I can't hold it anymore..."

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said, "Wendy, Horiyah, please take Noah back to the room and let him rest."

The two struggled to lift Noah to the elevator. Wendy couldn't help but said to Gena: "Can't you three come over and help? Just watch it like this?"

Gena said blankly: "When the three of us came here, we really wanted to be a cow and a horse for your family, but your grandma was unwilling. Now, the three of us are in a co-tenant relationship with you, and it's love to help you. It's not our duty to help you!"

Wendy said angrily, "Can't you reach out and help?"

Gena shook her head: "Sorry, the love is gone!"

After speaking, she said to Mrs. Willson again: "The biggest room on the third floor will be mine from now on!"

Mrs. Willson stood there with tears in her eyes, but she dared not speak.

After all, it was all her own fault, and she could only break her teeth and swallow in her stomach.

Otherwise, Gena will certainly not give a chance.

After Gena warned Mrs. Willson, she took Tabia and Lexi to the third floor.

The three generations of women in the Willson family had to work hard to move both Noah and Harold to the second floor.

In order to take care of the father and son, Wendy and Horiyah both moved them to Master bedroom on the second floor and let them sleep on the same bed.

The original personal belongings of Mrs. Willson had already been thrown outside the door on the third floor by Gena.

The Old Lady also wanted to find a separate room on the third floor, but she did not expect that the other rooms on the third floor would be occupied by two other women.

In desperation, the Willson family can only draw a line with the three of them. Gena and the others live on the third floor, Noah and Harold live in Master bedroom on the second floor, and Wendy and Horiyah live in one of the second bedrooms on the second floor. The other second bedroom was given to Mrs. Willson.

After the busy work, the family of five was exhausted and hungry.

Mrs. Willson wanted to eat a meal, so she directed Horiyah to say: "Hurry up and make something to eat, I'm almost starving to death!"

Horiyah choked and said: "Be a bullsh*t, do it, let Gena and the three of them eat the ingredients prepared before, and now the pots and pans have been taken away by Regnar's people, and there is only half a bag of rice at home. , Even the rice cooker is gone, what do I use to cook?"

Mrs. Willson asked desperately: "Is there nothing to eat in the refrigerator? It's better to eat a few sticks of ham rather than going hungry!"

Horiyah said annoyedly: "Old Lady is demented? Even the refrigerator is dragged away. Where can I get you the ham sausage? How about you give me the money and I go out to buy it for you?"

Only then did Mrs. Willson remember that Regnar's people had already moved the refrigerator out.

In other words, in this villa now she cannot even find a bite...

Harold was aggrieved at this time and cried, "Mom...I...I'm so hungry...I haven't eaten a bite since I went out... .."

Chapter 1954

Horiyah couldn't help crying when she saw her son's miserable appearance, and choked up, "Harold, mom is really helpless. There is no bite to eat at home, and the money I can find has been taken away by Regnar's people. What do you want me to get you to eat..."

Wendy cried and said, "Mom, or I will find a job tomorrow!"

Horiyah nodded and said: "It's okay to find a job, but you have to find a job tomorrow. For the salary, we will have to wait for the next month. This is looking at the New Year. Our family should not be hungry for the New Year.."

Mrs. Willson said at this time: "It's really impossible, just go find a part-time job! Find a job that pays daily!"

Wendy said: "It can only be like this..."

At the same time, Gena on the third floor was also holding a meeting with Tabia and Lexi.

The situation faced by the three of them is the same as that of the Willson family, except that they have no money.

Therefore, Gena said to the two of them: "It is a blessing that we can live in this big villa now. As for the meal, I think we have to figure out a solution by ourselves."

Lexi hurriedly said: "Sister Gena, what do you think we should do? The Chinese New Year is only two days away, so we have to prepare a little bit. Not to mention the big fish and the meat, at least make dumplings for dinner, right?"

Gena said: "This is actually simple. I know a few cleaning companies that specialize in cleaning homes. There we can make about 20 an hour. The three of us work together for eight hours a day, and one person has one hundred. Sixth, this adds up to 500, and now that the year has come, the service industry costs have risen. Going to the bathhouse and rubbing the back can also make a lot of money. As long as the three of us work hard, we will definitely make money. Enough for our lives."

Tabia said immediately: "No problem, although I haven't studied much, I still have strength in both arms!"

Lexi also nodded again and again: "Then we two will listen to sister Gena's arrangement!"

Gena gave a hum and said, "Go to bed early tonight, and we will go out to find work tomorrow morning!"

.....

Although Elaine had a cast on her leg, she was in a pretty good mood.

The young couple Charlie and Claire had dinner together. Elaine stretched her legs out of the dining table diagonally in a plaster cast, while eating and visiting Taobao with her mobile phone, her expression was very relaxed.

Seeing this, Jacob couldn't help but mock her: "I say Elaine, you are really such heartless. You just broke your leg for a short time. Not only do you don't swear or curse the street, but you are like an okay person. Here comes Taobao! This is not your character!"

Elaine glared at him, and said contemptuously: "What do you know? I am different now. I have learned how to counsel myself!"

Charlie was very curious and asked: "Mom, can you tell me, how do you do psychological counseling?"

Elaine waved her hand: "Hurt! Isn't it easy? You think my good son-in-law, if I sit here and think about my leg, then I must be more uncomfortable the more I think about it, and the more uncomfortable the more I think about it. If I'm so angry that this leg won't return to nature, don't you think?"

Charlie nodded: "This is indeed the truth."

Elaine chuckled and said, "So, I don't think about it that way, and I don't think about my legs, I just miss that Roxa!"

Charlie was dumb for a while, Roxa? Isn't that his aunt Cynthia?

Elaine said triumphantly at this time: "I just thought in my heart, I am really fateful this time! The fraudster Roxa deliberately retaliated, not only didn't she die, she even got f*cked!"

"Not only did she do a fight, she swelled her nose and face. How awesome is this?"

Speaking of this, Elaine refreshed and continued: "Now, Roxa has also been arrested, and I don't have to worry about anyone retaliating against me in the future. Can you say I can be upset?"

Claire asked in surprise: "Mom, who is Roxa? Is it a member of MLM organization?"

Elaine realized that she had missed her mouth and nodded hurriedly: "Yes, that's right, Roxa is the boss of that MLM organization! Heinous b@stard!"

Chapter 1955

Charlie marveled at Elaine's spiritual victory method, and at the same time, he was relieved for the successful resolution of this matter.

What he was most worried about before was that Cynthia exposed his identity. After all, his aunt's acting style was extremely arrogant. Maybe the moment his brain heated up, she revealed the identity of the Wade family.

Fortunately, Cynthia chose the wrong way as soon as she came up. She directly wrote Elaine a 100 million cheque, and asked her to classify her as a liar as soon as she came up.

The two words Citibank even stung Elaine's deepest pain in his heart, so that Elaine directly responded to Cynthia's purchase by force.

Thinking of this, Charlie couldn't help but feel funny.

His aunt, who has been living in Eastcliff for so many years, is always a respectable object wherever she goes, but she must have never imagined that her heroism would be broken in Aurous Hill.

Moreover, it was at Elaine's hands.

Want to come, this time will definitely teach her a lesson.

Charlie was thinking. The phone suddenly received a WeChat message. When he saw it, it turned out to be a video from Orvel. The thumbnail of the video showed that it was a dilapidated small room, and his aunt Cynthia was standing before the camera with a bitter face.

He knew that Orvel should have settled her, so he immediately got up, went to the bathroom, and clicked on the video.

The video began to play, and Orvel's voice came: "Master, take a look, this is the room prepared for Miss Cynthia! It's in the shantytown of the village in the city!"

In the video, it is a small room of less than 20 square meters. The room is very shabby. Apart from a bed, a simple wardrobe, a desk and a chair, there is almost nothing else.

Although this kind of self-built house is in poor condition, it has the advantage that the landlord has made a separate bathroom for each room, so that at least there is no need to queue for public toilets.

However, this toilet looks very ordinary, small and broken, and very dark.

As for the toilet, it is definitely not available. The landlord provided it with a very cheap squat toilet.

Cynthia stood in the middle of the room with a depressed face, and said angrily: "You show Charlie, how can I live in this shabby place!"

While filming the video, Mr. Orvel said coldly: "Why can't you live? Master had lived on construction sites for several years. The conditions are much worse than this. If Master can live, why can't you?"

Cynthia was furious: "Don't compare me to him! I have lived for more than 40 years, and I have never experienced a hard day!"

Orvel sneered and said: "Congratulations, from now on, your seven-day dream tour is about to begin. Haven't you had a hard time ever? The next seven days, let you live it all at once!"

After that, Orvel said again: "Master, look at this environment, are you satisfied? If you think the conditions are still a bit superior, then I will find a worse one!"

Seeing this, Charlie couldn't help laughing.

Although he is not very old, he knows human nature better than most people after so many years of playing outside and encountering so many people of all kinds.

Therefore, he most likes to punish the wicked from the root of human nature.

For example, Youngzheng of Wei's Pharmaceuticals, who always looked down upon Liang's mother who was born under the Changbai Mountains, disappointed others, and delayed others for a lifetime. What's more hateful is that if they delay others, it's fine. They have all passed away. In rants, such a person is completely bad from the root of human nature.

That being the case, letting him settle down under the Changbai Mountain for a lifetime is the best punishment for him.

It is also his best way of atonement.

Chapter 1956

This Aunt, Cynthia.

Born in the mansion of Eastcliff has grown up since she was a child and has enjoyed the glory and wealth all her life, always being arrogant, defiant, and arrogant.

That being the case, the best way to punish her is to let her live a hard life and severely frustrate her spirit!

Therefore, Charlie sent a voice to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, I think this environment is good, but you must make your people guard against it 24 hours a day, and never allow her to buy any goods online, nor allow her order any takeaway!"

"If she buys something, or orders takeaway, your people will stop it directly and absolutely can't give it to her!"

"As for her daily food, just let your people see the mood and buy her something from a small restaurant outside, but remember that the standard for a single day's food must never exceed fifty!"

At this moment, the shantytown of the village in the city.

Orvel used the phone speaker to play the voice that Charlie had just sent.

Cynthia's face suddenly became even more ugly after hearing it!

She angrily said: "This is too much! Don't let me shop online, let me not order takeaway?!"

Mr. Orvel sneered: "I just won't let you order, what's the matter?"

Cynthia said angrily: "I want to call Charlie!"

Orvel smiled and said: "Based on what I know about Master, if you make a call, the daily food standard will definitely not increase but decrease! You will definitely regret the call by then!"

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said, "You're f*cking here to bluff me!"

After speaking, she immediately took out his mobile phone and called Charlie.

Charlie answered the phone, and Cynthia blurted out immediately: "Charlie! You are too much, right?! You let me stay in Aurous Hill for a long time and live in this kind of pig nest-like environment, and I will bear it! But why are you restricting my online shopping and ordering takeout?"

"Also! What good food can I eat for a food standard of fifty a day? What if I am malnourished during this period? What if I eat waste oil and cause heavy metal poisoning?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Auntie, is Mr. Orvel by your side? You turn on the speakerphone and I will tell him."

Cynthia immediately turned on the speaker, and Charlie said: "Mr. Orvel, can you hear me?"

Orvel's voice soon came: "Master, I am here. Just give your orders!"

Charlie gave a hum and said, "Auntie, my temper is still too strong!"

Having said that, he sighed and said, "Let's do it, reduce her daily food standard from fifty to thirty. If she is still not satisfied, reduce it to twenty or ten. It's really not good, one day. Five is also fine, two for steamed buns, one for pickled mustard, and the remaining two for some other tooth-fighting sacrifices!"

Orvel laughed out immediately: "OK, Master, I see!"

Cynthia suddenly collapsed, crying and said, "Charlie, what do you mean?! If you don't want to add a little bit to me, just forget it, why you deduct 20?!"

Charlie said, "Auntie, it is all for your own good. Let you work hard, so that you can gain a little more experience and lessons after returning to society. But I think you are really insincere. The ancients said , The sky will descend to the people of Sri Lanka, you must first suffer from your mind, your muscles, and your body. Since you are not sincere and so stubborn, then I will increase my efforts to make you a better one soon. One of the pure people!"

Chapter 1957

Cynthia really didn't expect that what Orvel said before turned out to be true.

She wanted to find Charlie's preferential treatment conditions, but she didn't expect that not only did Charlie ignore her, but also directly lowered her daily food standard from fifty to thirty.

At this moment, she experienced the same pain as Mrs. Willson at this time.

I knew it would be such a result, so why bother to pretend to be this?

Orvel glanced at Cynthia, who was crying, and sneered, "What am I talking about? I said Master will definitely lower your food standards. You just don't believe it. Have you taken it now?"

Cynthia was black and did not speak.

She dared not speak anymore.

Because she knew that she said so many mistakes, maybe she said a few more words, every day she really has to eat steamed buns and pickles.

Seeing that she didn't dare to do it again, Orvel smiled and said, "Ms. Wade is here to enjoy the good time for seven days. There is nothing wrong, I will leave first."

Cynthia glared at Orvel fiercely. Seeing Orvel leaving the room, she couldn't help but burst into tears.

She immediately took out her cell phone and sent a video call to Zhongquan, Master who was far away in Eastcliff.

As soon as the video went through, Cynthia cried and said, "Dad! Charlie, this b@stard humiliated me in every possible way! Look at what he did to me!"

With that, she switched cameras and took pictures of the situation in the room.

Zhongquan didn't expect that Charlie would be so cruel to his own aunt. He directly arranged such a difficult environment for her, and he was somewhat dissatisfied in his heart.

He sighed: "Charlie is indeed a bit overdone. Anyway, you are also his aunt..."

As he said, Zhongquan sighed again and said seriously: "However, Charlie is of great use to the Wade family now, and nothing else, as long as he returns to the Wade family and marries the Gu family's daughter, the Wade family's strength is immediately It can go up a lot! If he can handle the Su family girl, it will be even more perfect..."

Hearing her father's sigh, Cynthia suddenly thought of what Charlie had said to her on the helicopter.

He said that the eight heavenly kings of the Wu family died in his hands;

He said that Philip was dyingly ill, but was reborn because of him;

He even said that a series of earth-shattering events that happened to the three major families in Japan some time ago were all personally done by him...

In this way, Charlie's strength is likely to far exceed everyone's cognition...

Thinking of this, Cynthia twitched in his heart, and murmured: "These things must never be let his father know! Otherwise, he will pay more attention to Charlie b@stard! I, Cynthia, can't let him return to the Wade family by saying anything. ! Otherwise, once this kid returns to the Wade Family, there will be no place for me to stand in the Wade Family!"

So Cynthia immediately said: "Dad, let me tell you the truth, Charlie is a cold-blooded stupid without affection! You think he is of the Wade family's blood, and you want him to return to the Wade family, but he doesn't leave his body at all. The family's blood is in the eyes. He can treat me like this aunt. If we return to the Wade family, let's make him a little bit dissatisfied, then he wants to bring the whole Wade family into trouble?"

Zhongquan became silent all of a sudden.

Cynthia's words also made him a little alert.

Everyone hopes that their subordinates can have a viable general, but the first thing to consider is a very realistic issue, which is whether they can suppress the opponent.

Chapter 1958

What Charlie did today, in Zhongquan's view, was indeed a bit too much.

Even if Cynthia went to his mother-in-law without authorization, she had the fault first, as Cynthia's nephew, he shouldn't do this to his aunt.

He even forced his aunt to live in Aurous Hill's dilapidated Village for a long time.

It can be seen that the Wade Family wants to tame Charlie, let Charlie re-identify his ancestors and return to the clan, and use it for the Wade Family. It is definitely not as easy as imagined.

Therefore, this matter must not be rushed, otherwise, it may be counterproductive.

After Zhongquan wanted to understand this, he opened his mouth and said: "Cynthia, after all, this matter is your fault first, so even if Charlie is indeed a bit too much, but you don't need to completely turn your face with Charlie. Let's be aggrieved. We will discuss this matter in the future."

Cynthia secretly breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said: "I know Dad, I can't accompany you during this time, especially during the New Year, I can't pay you a New Year..."

Zhongquan smiled slightly: "These are all trivial things, don't worry, dad is waiting for you to come back."

"Okay!" Cynthia nodded to the video camera while wiping tears.

At this time, in Zhongquan's picture, the eldest son, Andrew, stepped in and said a little anxiously: "Dad, I have a news."

Zhongquan frowned: "What news?"

Andrew said: "I heard that the Su family is buying all kinds of masters across Asia, and the price is very high. An ordinary martial arts master will be given tens of millions. Calculated in 100 million a year, it is estimated that the cost of investing in this alone will be over 10 billion. Many top players who have retired from the arena are planning to return to the arena!”

Zhongquan asked in surprise: “Why are you making such a big move?”

Andrew said: “Maybe it is to quickly make up for the loss of combat power in Japan. I heard that dozens of masters in the Su family have been sued by the Japanese prosecutors. No one of these masters wants to escape from prison.”

Zhongquan nodded, he knew very well how important combat power is to the top family.

Take what happened to the Su family in Japan this time. If it weren't for their own large reserves of masters, it would be impossible to send nearly a hundred martial arts masters to Japan overnight.

What's more advantageous is that when this master arrives in Japan, he can directly destroy the Matsumoto family with the attitude of a strong dragon slashing the ground with a snake.

These masters, without guns, ammo, and bare hands, can burst out powerful combat effectiveness.

As long as you have a passport and visa, you can enter and leave any country at any time and maintain combat effectiveness at all times.

Such a person is the most important support for a large family to fight overseas.

The combat effectiveness of guns is certainly strong, but no family can transport people with guns from one country to another.

Therefore, assassins who use guns have severely limited combat effectiveness. Once they need to go overseas to perform missions without guns, they will almost lose their usefulness.

And the martial arts masters raised by top big families? Even in the country with the strictest gun control in the world, they can still guarantee combat effectiveness. This is the important point of masters.

Andrew said to Zhongquan again at this time: "I heard that Zhiyu, the eldest lady of the Su family, has been investigating a mysterious person across the country since she returned from Japan. The Su family even secretly offered a one billion price tag. To find information about this person."

"Oh?" Zhongquan asked in amazement: "What is this person's background? Is it the enemy of the Su family?"

"No." Andrew said: "I heard that it seems to be Zhiyu and Zhifei's lifesaver!"

Chapter 1959

"Zhifei's savior?!"

Hearing these words, the Old Master Wade suddenly asked in surprise: "Is that the mysterious person I mentioned at the beginning?"

"Yes!" Andrew nodded, "There was a rumor back then that Zhiyu and her brother were saved by a mysterious man when they were in Japan."

Elder Wade asked again: "The mysterious man saved their siblings in Japan, and Zhiyu and the Su family are looking for clues to him in China. Is this mysterious man a native of China?!"

Andrew said: "It looks like this! Otherwise, there is no need for the Su family to find a mysterious person in China who has appeared in Japan. Isn't that a boat for a sword?"

Elder Wade suddenly became excited!

He said excitedly: "No matter who the mysterious person is, at least one thing is certain. The strength of that mysterious person is absolutely so powerful that we can't understand it, or even incredible!"

"Yes!" Andrew also sighed: "He can kill multiple Iga Ninjas and rescue Zhiyu and Zhifei with his own power. This person's strength is absolutely against the sky!"

Elder Wade blurted out: "If such a talent can be used by the Wade Family, what fear will the Wade Family have in the future!"

After that, he immediately said to Andrew: "Andrew, you quickly order, closely monitor the progress of the Su family, and do everything possible to find this mysterious person before the Su family. If you can't get ahead, then At least you have to do your best to draw that mysterious person to our Wade family!"

Andrew nodded: "I know Dad!"

At this time, Cynthia, who had been silent in the video, had a very strange expression.

She suddenly remembered what Charlie had said to her before. Could it be that the mysterious person the Su family was looking for was him? !

Thinking of this, she felt a chill in her back!

If Charlie is really that mysterious person, then she can't let him return to Wade's house!

Originally from the Wade family's blood, and there was a marriage contract with Gu's family, these two trump cards were enough for Charlie to exchange for a very high status in the Wade family.

If he had the identity of this mysterious master again, he would be invincible. At that time, she would be driven out of the Wade Family!

Just when Cynthia was thinking about it, Zhongquan gave Andrew instructions, and when he looked at the phone, he found that Cynthia had a strange expression, and asked in surprise: "Cynthia, what's wrong with you?"

Cynthia hurriedly said, "Ah, Dad, I'm fine, I was thinking about something just now."

Zhongquan nodded and sighed: "After you come back, you can rest early, and stay in Aurous Hill for a few days. When you come back, Dad will pick you"

Cynthia hurriedly said, "Thank you Dad, I see!"

After hanging up the video, Cynthia couldn't help being afraid for a while.

At this moment, she really regretted it.

I shouldn't have come to Aurous Hill to take a trip to this muddy water. Before I came, I never thought that Charlie would be such a hard bone to chew, and I didn't expect that my nephew seemed to be a highly hidden top master!

If I had known this before, if I killed myself, I would never come.

Before Cynthia came, she didn't regard Charlie as an enemy. She just felt that he was just an heir left behind by the Wade Family. Letting him go home would be a gift to him.

Moreover, after such people go back, they can only serve as the flag of the family, and they cannot pose any threat to people in the family.

But after coming to Aurous Hill, she really realized that the bones of her nephew, who hadn't seen each other in more than ten years, were as hard as her second brother.

At this time, Cynthia slandered in her heart: "If Charlie is just like the second brother, it's okay to say. What's more terrifying is that the second brother was a scholar who had hard bones, but his fists were not hard."

"And what about Charlie?"

"Not only the bones are harder, but the fists are harder!"

Chapter 1960

"It seems that in the future, I will stay away from him as much as possible! Try not to let him have the opportunity to return to the Wade family!"

.....

At this moment.

Eastcliff, Su's family.

Zhiyu sat in front of the computer in the study, looking at the information gathered from all over the country.

Since returning from Japan, whether Zhiyu opened her eyes or closed her eyes, Charlie was all in her mind.

She has trouble sleeping and eating all day because of Charlie.

However, she didn't tell anyone else what she was thinking, even her brother or her mother.

What she originally wanted was to use her energy to find the mysterious person who saved her, and then thank him in person.

However, she tried for several days without finding any valuable clues.

Immediately afterward, in order to quickly replenish the missing strength of the Su family, Grandpa Chengfeng decided to search for a new group of masters at all costs.

Zhiyu immediately recommended the mysterious person to her grandfather. In her words at the time, if the Su family could find this mysterious person, this person would definitely be able to use one man against one hundred enemies, which would increase the Su family's strike power geometrically!

Chengfeng was naturally overjoyed and immediately instructed Zhiyu to find the mysterious man at all costs.

However, there is no way to find out the information of that mysterious person.

The Su family's informants have inquired from various sources in China and Japan, and no one has ever heard of such a powerful expert.

There is a huge roster among the martial arts masters.

Basically, there are top masters who have learned from, have a background, and are well-known.

However, Charlie is not a person in martial arts, so he is not known to them at all.

In this way, it will be more difficult for the martial artist to figure out his relevant information.

What's more, there are almost none in the martial arts masters at this stage that fit the kind of strength Zhiyu described.

Domestic martial arts masters are not weaker than Japanese ninjas, and some people are even stronger than ninjas, but there is really no one who can face just a few ninjas and can completely wipe out the enemy himself unharmed.

Zhiyu's bitter search has no results, so she wants to find all the entry and exit records of the most recent period from the Japanese customs, and then make a selection based on nationality and approximate age group.

However, since the Su family committed the killing of the door in Japan, the Japanese Homeland Security Department has imposed a lot of stricter customs control over it.

In the past, the Su family could easily obtain the entry and exit records of the whole of Japan, but now, they can't get the least information even after racking their brains.

Zhiyu also wondered whether the mysterious master was of Chinese descent who settled in Japan. In that case, he might not be found in the immigration information.

However, Zhiyu was unwilling to stand still, so she decided to start with better-operated domestic ones.

While searching for clues about mysterious people in China, she is also doing everything possible to break through the layers of supervision in Japan, and strive to obtain Japan's entry and exit records and even immigration records as soon as possible.

However, Japan's data blockade is a bit strict, and it will be difficult to break through for a while.

When she was at a loss, a female friend who had a close relationship in Japan called her and said to her: "Zhiyu, I can't get the entry and exit information and immigration records from Japan for the time being, but I found you a curvilinear way. Whether this method is feasible depends on whether you have patience!"

Zhiyu blurted out, "You can tell me what the answer is, I have patience! Even if it is a needle in a haystack, I will find him!"

The other party smiled and said, "That's right. Although Japan's homeland security department has blocked customs records, it has not blocked the video surveillance of the airport. In addition to uploading it to the customs, I have also kept a copy of all the video surveillance of the airport. There is a way to get you a copy. If you have the patience to look for it bit by bit from countless surveillance videos in several airports, you may be able to find the clues of your lifesaver!"

Chapter 1961

Zhiyu knows that entry and exit records are confidential customs documents, but airport surveillance is not.

Therefore, she secretly thought in her heart: "If he has returned home from Japan by plane, then he will not be able to bypass the surveillance video at Japanese airports. As long as she read the video carefully, she will definitely be able to find his trace."

"It's just that the workload may be very huge..."

"Besides, brother and I are the only ones who have met benefactor, so at most I let brother come to help me. Others can't help if they want to."

Thinking of this, although Zhiyu felt that the opportunity was a little slim, she still didn't want to give up. She immediately said, "Please help me get the copy as soon as possible, and then send it to me using the Su family's exclusive network."

Massive data is very troublesome to transmit. Ordinary networks want to transmit surveillance videos from several airports and a large number of cameras for several days, the optical transmission will take several months.

However, the top family like the Su family has its own dedicated network and large data server, and the transmission speed is extremely fast, and it can all be transmitted in a day or two.

The other party immediately agreed and said: "I'll let someone sort it out, and I will start sending you the data tomorrow."

With that, she couldn't help reminding Zhiyu: "Zhiyu, there are so many surveillance videos, it may take a long time to watch them all, and if your savior does not return from Japan in the end, all your energy will be lost; if you make a little mistake or miss your lifesaver among the millions of passengers, then your energy will be wasted, so before you start, you must first think about it."

Zhiyu smiled slightly: "These are not problems! Even if I have to watch a year's surveillance video in front of the computer, I will definitely stick to it."

The other party sighed helplessly, and said, "Oh, well, it's the Zhiyu I know. You have this kind of unstoppable energy for reaching the goal, which I will never learn in my life... .."

Zhiyu smiled and said: "That's because you haven't encountered anything that can make you fail to achieve your goal and swear not to give up. If you do, you will be like me."

The other party laughed and joked: "What? You think you, a life-saver, as a prince charming?"

Zhiyu chuckled and said, "Prince Charming is nothing but a horseback rider. The lifesaver, can do much better than Prince Charming!"

"Tsk tsk tsk..." The other party kept smacking her lips, and said with emotion: "Then I congratulate you as soon as possible for finding your savior, and by the way, you will also solve the major marital affairs. If this is the case, take more time and energy to find him, and it is not a loss, after all, it is a great thing that kills two birds with one stone, perfect!"

Zhiyu actually blushed on the phone and blurted out: "What are you talking about! I just want to find the savior and thank him in person!"

"I don't believe you!" The other party grinned and said, "If it's just to thank him, didn't you say thank you when he saved you?"

Zhiyu replied with some embarrassment: "What I said at the time..."

The other person said: "Since you said thank you at that time, why bother to find him out at this time? Is it really to say thank you in person again?"

Zhiyu said with a little shame: "In fact, it's not just to thank him. The family is also looking for some top masters to cooperate with. I think this is a good opportunity to kill two birds with one stone. Not only can I thank him in person, but also help the family match up to see if the two parties have a chance to cooperate."

The other party smiled and said: "If you want to do this, you will have three birds with one stone. Not only can you thank him in person, you can also ask him to cooperate with your family, and you can even get a good son-in-law for your family!"

Zhiyu felt her cheeks become a bit hot immediately, and couldn't help but angrily said: "You really can't vomit ivory from your dog's mouth. I won't talk nonsense with you, you quickly give me the information and prepare, and then I will start screening."

Only then did the other party stop teasing, and said seriously: "I'll make arrangements, but today it's twenty-eighth Chinese New Year, and the next night is New Year's Eve. Your family has so many rules during the Chinese New Year. Can you get over it?"

Zhiyu said: "If you are too busy, you have to be busy. You should prepare for me as soon as possible. Don't delay."

"Okay, I get it."

Chapter 1962

Charlie didn't know that Zhiyu was doing everything possible to find him at this time.

He focused his attention on the preparations for the new year's goods.

This is the Spring Festival that Charlie has most anticipated since his parents passed away.

In the previous years, he had a hard time, and the Spring Festival was no different from usual. Not only did he not enjoy the warmth of family, but he felt sad because other people were reuniting with their families.

After marrying Claire, he has no interest in Chinese New Year, because, in the past, the whole family of Willson's celebrated the New Year together, and Charlie was naturally the object of everyone's sarcasm. He would be humiliated every time at the New Year's Eve dinner.

In contrast, this year's situation is much better, so this has become the Spring Festival that Charlie has most anticipated in his heart since his parents passed away.

Early the next morning, the new year was twenty-nine.

The family ate at the dining table together. Charlie listed all the items to be purchased to his wife and father-in-law, and made some adjustments based on everyone's opinions, and got a finalized version.

Because Elaine's leg broke again, and Claire still insisted on finishing the last day's work, Charlie and Jacob became responsible buyers.

Jacob and his son-in-law prepared, and after breakfast, they went out to the supermarket to purchase together.

Claire finished her breakfast and stood up and said, "Husband, Dad, Mom, I have to go to the company. Today is the last working day before the holiday. I have to sort out the situation of some projects at hand, and then have a meeting with workers and give out a New Year red envelope."

Elaine murmured from the side, "What red envelopes do the employees need? Haven't they all been paid?"

Claire said earnestly: "Everyone has worked hard for the projects at hand for a long time. How can I not give a red envelope at the end of the year? Not only red envelopes, but also year-end awards."

Elaine felt distressed and said, "This money can be saved obviously, and you have to give it to outsiders. I really don't know how to say it!"

Charlie said at this time: "Mom, the company relies solely on the employees to work hard to get better and better. Seeing the New Year, if the boss did not express anything at first, the employees would lose hope. After the end of the year, when they come back and propose to resign, doesn't this company fail to function?"

Jacob also agreed at this time: "My son-in-law is right. Your mother-in-law is going to die. If you really want her to be the boss, she must be more ruthless than that and the company won't run a week!"

Elaine glared at him: "Jacob, did you just use your mouth? I can try one more thing, I can still scratch your old face with a lame leg!"

Jacob shrank his neck in fright, and said angrily: "I don't bother to argue with you!"

Claire shook her head helplessly, and said, "Okay, dad, go shopping with Charlie. I have to go to work, too."

"Okay." Jacob nodded and said: "You go first, we will leave in a while."

As he was talking, there was a doorbell outside, and Jacob opened the video intercom and saw a few middle-aged men in suits standing in front of the camera.

The leader said respectfully: "Excuse me, is Master at home?"

It was Orvel who spoke.

And beside him, there are Issac, Qin Gang, Solmon and Liang.

There seemed to be a few people behind them, but Jacob couldn't see clearly, he could only see that there were men and women, old and young.

So, he hurriedly said to Charlie: "Son-in-law, a lot of people with good looks have come to you!"

Chapter 1963

Charlie had heard Orvel's voice through the speakers of the intercom system.

He didn't expect that Orvel would come to his home at this time, and listening to the meaning of the Old Master's words, it seemed that he was not the only one.

So he got up and said: "Dad, I'll go open the door."

Claire asked in amazement, "Charlie, wouldn't it be the big figures who came to you to see Feng Shui?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It must be them. Only they call me Master."

Claire shook his head helplessly, and said jokingly, "Master, I think you are the boss, it's almost the same!"

Charlie raised his eyebrows: "It's also an ability to convince others who can fool you!"

After all, he stepped out and walked through the courtyard to the door.

The door opened, and Charlie was stunned by the sight in front of him.

It turned out that Orvel, Issac, Qin Gang, Solmon and Liang were not the only ones at the door.

Qin Gang also brought Aoxue and Steven;

Solmon also took Gerald and Fred;

The red-faced Old Master Song unexpectedly came with Warnia and Honor.

The radiant Old Master Tianqi also took his granddaughter Zhovia to stand beside him.

Even Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, rushed over with Charlie's good brother Zhao Hao at the orphanage, and Zhao Hao, now Tailai's driver and assistant with an annual salary of several million, has become a favorite of Tailai's side.

With so many people, they drove dozens of cars, large and small, to park up along the large road at the door of Tomson A.

Before Charlie came back to his senses, everyone at the same time clasped their fists to Charlie and shouted respectfully: "Hello Master!"

With so many people shouting together, everyone in the entire villa area was shocked. Many people have already walked out of the terrace to check what happened.

When they saw so many top luxury cars, so many Aurous Hill and Haicheng big figures gathered at the door of the a05 villa, they were all stunned!

At this time, Mrs. Willson, who had been hungry all night, heard the movement and hurried to the second-floor terrace.

The terrace on the second floor was in the room where Noah and Harold lived. Wendy and Horiyah were also here to take care of them at this time. Hearing the movement outside, Wendy and Horiyah had already taken a step ahead of the Old Lady to take a look on the terrace.

When they saw so many savvy people at the door of Charlie's house, Wendy and Horiyah's expressions were so ugly and dark.

At this time, the Old Lady also walked up and asked in surprise: "Why are there so many cars? What are you doing?"

Horiyah said sourly, "Don't you see it? They all came to Charlie for New Year's greetings. Many of them are big people. Just see the Song family's father and Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng."

Wendy said with red eyes, "I see Solmon! And Gerald..."

Gerald, in the earliest days, was Wendy's fiance.

At that time, Charlie was still the smelly rug in everyone's eyes, and Gerald was the future good son-in-law who was content with the entire Willson family.

Wendy watched that she was about to marry into that family, and she was also arrogant and above clouds.

At that time, Wendy was at the peak of her life.

However, not long after, Solmon, the head of the White family, directly annulled the marriage contract between her and Gerald.

Chapter 1964

Although Wendy had been with Gerald desperately for several years, and she was pregnant with his child, she was still left clean by him.

Later, Wendy became the concubine and plaything of Fredmen and Barena. Following them, instead of getting much benefit, she suffered a lot of crimes and ruined her reputation.

The current Wendy was even more miserable. Although she was still living in this luxurious Tomson First-Class villa, she was hungry all night, but she didn't even have the money to eat breakfast.

In this case, seeing Gerald again, all kinds of scenes from that year appeared before her eyes, which made her feel extremely sad.

In a short while, Wendy's eyes were filled with tears, and then two lines of tears burst into her eyes.

She couldn't help but choked softly: "Gerald...why did you not want me...Gerald...what did I do wrong to make you leave so desperately? I... Gerald..."

Speaking of this, Wendy was already crying!

Seeing her daughter cry like this, Horiyah was of course very distressed deep in her heart. She gently embraced her and comforted her: "Wendy, believe mom, you will definitely find a better man than Gerald in the future!"

Wendy cried and said, "How could it be possible...My reputation is completely bad now. When people talk about me, they are just jokes, mocking me for not loving enough, and being Fredmen's plaything, a man older than my dad. He threw me to Barena after he was done..."

Having said that, Wendy turned around and glared at the complicated Old Lady, and said angrily: "It's all because of you! It's all due to the dead Old Lady! You forced me to seduce Fredmen! If it wasn't for you, My reputation cannot be broken! If it weren't for you, Gerald and I might still have a chance! You ruined me!"

Mrs. Willson was taken aback by Wendy's angry roar, she stepped back subconsciously, and said, "How can you blame me for this? Didn't you agree with Fredmen?"

Wendy scolded: "You bullsh*t! If you didn't force me, how could I agree?! You just wanted to let Fredmen use me in exchange for investment! You just wanted to sell my body in exchange for prosperity and wealth!"

Mrs. Willson said angrily: "Wendy! You have to rely on your conscience! In this matter, could I benefit from it alone?"

After that, she pointed to Horiyah and said angrily: "Don't forget, Fredmen gave you five million back at the beginning, but in the end, it was cheaper for your parents! If you really want to say who betrayed your body in exchange for that Wealth, you cannot only count one! Your parents must also be included! You must also be included!"

Horiyah's expression suddenly became very ugly.

Although Mrs. Willson's words were harsh, what she said was indeed the truth.

In the beginning, whether it was Mrs. Willson, Horiyah, and Noah, they all liked Fredmen's ability and wealth.

Therefore, together they persuaded Wendy to enter Fredmen's room in the middle of the night.

And Wendy was not completely forced, to be more precise, it was half-push half self-motivation.

She broke up with Gerald at the time, and the family's economic situation continued to deteriorate. She herself had long been dissatisfied with those poor days. Therefore, mixing with Fredmen was partly because of her own vanity.

Wendy was also blushing at this time.

she knows.

Everyone is responsible for this matter, including herself.

Just like a proverb, in an avalanche, no snowflake is innocent.

Thinking of this, she also lost the idea of continuing to entangle with Mrs. Willson, squatting on the ground and crying.

Mrs. Willson ignored her, but looked at the big luxury car at the door of Charlie's house and the large group of big people in the upper class, and her heart was so sad...

Horiyah also had a sour taste in her heart!

She thought that Charlie had sent her to the black coal kiln, and she was even more angry.

So he gritted her teeth and cursed: "Isn't Charlie just a liar? What the h*ll! Master, master this b@stard! How come so many big people believe him? Really blind their dog eyes!"

Mrs. Willson sighed deeply, and said with extreme regret and despair: "Hey!!! I knew Charlie would have what he is today, and I wouldn't have driven the family out of what I said back then! Blind me!"

Chapter 1965

At this moment, at the entrance of Villa A05.

Charlie looked at the crowd and asked with a bit of surprise: "Why are you all here?"

Orvel smiled and said at this time: "Master, the Chinese New Year will be coming soon. Everyone is thinking of coming to you in advance and giving you some new year goods by the way."

Issac also nodded and said: "Master, everyone is afraid that taking turns will delay your time, so after negotiating in private, just came over together!"

Qin Gang echoed at this time: "Master, everyone has prepared some small gifts for you, and I hope you won't dislike it!"

"Yes!" Solmon also said hurriedly: "Master, you are a person with great supernatural powers. They are ordinary people like us, if the gifts prepared can't enter the eyes of your law, I hope you won't mind!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said: "You still remember me, I am already very grateful, you don't have to spend money on me."

Old Mr. Song, stepped forward at this time and said seriously: "Master, you have the kindness to reinvent us. On the occasion of the Chinese New Year, we should be prepared to pay a visit. It is reasonable."

Charlie arched his hands: "Mr. Song, That is so nice of you!"

Warnia, standing next to Old Song, wore a Chinese-style cheongsam jacket today, which vividly set off the hot figure and showed her feminine temperament impeccably.

Having not seen Charlie for many days, Warnia missed him very much in her heart. When she saw Charlie's eyes look at her, her pretty face suddenly became red.

What she thought of in her mind was the scene where she was in the car and offered her first kiss to Charlie.

When she thought of this, her face became even more red. In order to divert her attention, she hurriedly replied with shame: "Master, I wish you a happy new year in advance!"

Aoxue said not to be outdone: "Master, Coach Wade, I also wish you a Happy New Year in advance, and I wish you all the best in the new year!"

Zhovia hurriedly said: "Master...!...I also wish you a Happy New Year..."

Warnia understood at this moment that the two little girls actually belonged to Charlie.

At this moment, she couldn't help but sigh in her heart.

She knew very well that it was a very tormenting thing to like a married man like Charlie. It seemed that these two little girls, like herself, suffered from lovesickness to Charlie.

With a smile on his face, Charlie expressed gratitude to the three ladies one by one.

Later, Tailai brought Zhao Hao over. Tailai put his hands together and said respectfully: "Master, since the last time I took your Rejuvenation Pill, this body has become stronger and powerful. Thanks to you for everything! I am really grateful!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "President Tailai doesn't have to be so polite, after all, the Rejuvenating Pill was taken by you yourself with your strength, so don't thank me.

When Zhao Hao saw Charlie at this time, his heart had already been overwhelmed.

Ever since Charlie introduced him to Tailai as a driver and assistant, Zhao Hao has deeply realized that Charlie is extraordinary.

However, he really didn't expect Charlie's strength to be so strong.

His boss made a special trip to drive to Aurous Hill to give Charlie a New Year gift. This shocked him a bit, but after he came, he realized that the scene was even more shocking!

In Aurous Hill, there are almost all figures with the greatest of reputation!

Moreover, they all showed such humility in front of Charlie one by one, this scene is really staggering!

It was precisely because of the shock in his heart that Zhao Hao felt a little flustered when facing Charlie.

Charlie looked at Zhao Hao at this time and said with a smile, "Brother, how is everything going recently?"

Chapter 1966

Zhao Hao hurriedly said, "Master, everything is fine with me lately! Thanks to you and President Tailai for taking care of me!"

When Charlie heard this, he couldn't help getting serious, and said seriously: "Brother, everyone present can call me Master, but you can't!"

Zhao Hao said awkwardly, "Master...I...hey...including Mr. Taili, so many people respect you so much, how can I make an exception... .."

Charlie walked up to him, patted him on the shoulder, and said very solemnly: "Brother, they call me Master because I have helped them more or less, but you are different!"

Zhao Hao hurriedly said: "I... I am also today thanks to your help... The help you brought to me is earth-shaking, and I have to respect you more than others."

Charlie said with a somewhat displeased expression: "Don't be fooling around with me! The two of us grew up in the orphanage together. Although we were not born by the same mother, in those years in the orphanage, between the two of us there was no difference between us!"

"After so many years, you and I supported each other, depended on each other, and shared weal and woe. I helped you. It is the brothers who pulled each other out. Why are you polite with me?"

When Zhao Hao heard these words, he felt ashamed in his heart as he was grateful.

He thought to himself: "I was always afraid that I would not be able to climb Charlie, so I became more and more sincere and frightened in front of him, but the more so, the more alienated I and him, but Charlie has always regarded me as a brother. , If I treat him with respect as a servant, he must be very uncomfortable..."

Thinking of this, Zhao Hao observed at it and said, "Charlie, brother got it, brother, thank you!"

Charlie smiled slightly and nodded: "This is the f*cking brother of Charlie. If you call me Master next time, I will break the friendship directly!"

Zhao Hao hurriedly said, "Charlie, don't worry, I will never call you Master again. Charlie is not a Master in front of me, you are Zhao Hao's brother, brother for life!"

Charlie nodded lightly, and said with satisfaction: "I am so happy to have you!"

At this time, Jacob and Claire also walked out.

The two felt that if Charlie's customers came to visit at home, of course they had to do a good job of hospitality, so they quickly cleaned up the living room at home and came out to invite the guests in to sit for a while.

But after they came out, the two people discovered that there were obviously more people outside than they expected!

What is even more frightening is that these people are almost all of Aurous Hill's most prestigious group!

Especially when she saw Warnia, Claire suddenly felt a little inferior. She knew Warnia was also outside, so she had to put on makeup before coming out.

Usually, Claire goes out without makeup, seldom puts on makeup, and is not so elegant in dress, and today is no exception.

So, in front of Warnia who was dressed up, she suddenly seemed a little bleak.

Jacob knew that his son-in-law was very capable now, and that his clients were all big shots, so seeing so many big shots made him feel nothing.

However, when he saw Tianqi, Jacob hurriedly greeted him and said respectfully: "Oh, genius doctor Tianqi, you are here too! You are a life-saver, I should go down to pay you a New Year greeting..."

Tianqi couldn't help feeling a little embarrassed, because he knew very well that the high paraplegia caused by car accident was cured by Charlie with magical medicine, and he had nothing to do with him.

Therefore, Jacob respected him so much that he couldn't help being embarrassed, and hurriedly said: "Mr. Willson, you are too polite. Master has the kindness of remaking me Shi, so I came to visit him this time!"

At this time, Orvel stepped up and hugged Jacob. He bowed slightly and said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. Willson! Orvel is here. I wish you a happy New Year in advance!"

Jacob had several contacts with Orvel in Classic Mansion, and he had already been very familiar with him, so he smiled and said, "You are too polite, Mr. Orvel, and I wish you a happy new year!"

Orvel was very flattered and said: "If you can't do it, you can call me Orvel, Mr. Willson!"

Jacob was very proud of his heart, and secretly said: "Oh, I Old Willson has such a great face now?! Even the underground emperor of Aurous Hill, Mr. Orvel, is respectful in front of me, is it worth it?! Moreover, if so many big people come to pay New Year's greetings today, if it spreads out, don't know how many people will have their jaw dropped!"

Chapter 1967

In order not to neglect the guests, Charlie invited everyone into the villa.

Everyone also hurriedly asked the accompanying people to take out the prepared gifts from the car, and then saw at least twenty or thirty people, holding various high-end gift boxes, lined up into the villa.

Not far away, Mrs. Willson from Villa A04, her eyes straightened, and her mouth muttered: "This battle, which is an ordinary gift? This is simply the posture of officials from all over the ancient times lining up to pay tribute to the emperor!"

Horiyah felt so uncomfortable, she said: "This group of people are both rich and powerful. The gifts they give can not add up to less than 100 million?"

Wendy muttered with red eyes, "I'm afraid I can't stop at one hundred million. Solmon just gave away a villa and it cost more than one billion..."

"Hey..." Mrs. Willson said with an extremely painful expression: "I can't do it anymore, I can't see it anymore, and I'll have a heart attack if I look at it..."

After speaking, she turned and entered the room.

Horiyah said angrily: "I look at it, hey."

Wendy didn't say a word, seeing Gerald following Solmon into Charlie's villa, she felt even more uncomfortable.

Harold was lying on the bed and wailing: "Mom...grandma...if you don't get something to eat, I will starve to death...you can't look at me. The wounded are lying in bed hungry. Ragnar's men beat me and Dad to death. It seems that we are going to starve to death at home!"

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said: "Wendy, didn't you say that you are going out to find a job today? Go out and have a look!"

After finishing speaking, she looked at Horiyah again, blurted out: "Horiyah! You have to find a job to support your family!"

Horiyah nodded, and said with a bit of anger: "I can go, but this house can't support idlers, you have to go if I go!"

"Me?!" Mrs. Willson's speech was not smooth anymore, and she said angrily, "I...I'm so old...you let me go out to find a job?!"

Horiyah asked her back: "Why? What's so great about being older? You don't need to eat when you are older? If you make it clear that you don't need to eat, then you don't need to go out to work. Go to the north bedroom to open the window and open your mouth. Wait to drink Northwest Wind!."

"You...you bullsh*t!" Mrs. Willson was furious: "I'm so old and don't let me eat. You are trying to force me to death!"

Horiyah said with a cold face: "The situation at home is so miserable now, anyone must find a way to make money to support the family. Noah and Harold are now injured. They can be temporarily exempted, but you can't!"

Mrs. Willson angrily said, "It turned you back! It turned you back! I am so old, and you have to force me to work! You are killing me! Why did our Willson family make you daughter-in-law? A wolf-hearted daughter-in-law! If God has eyes, and a sky thunder should drop you to death!"

Horiyah sneered and said, "Don't be haggling with me. I won't force you if you don't go out to work, but I won't be able to support you if I make money. You can do it yourself!"

Mrs. Willson didn't dare to pretend to be forced at this time, and said embarrassedly: "We can't all go to work for the three of us, we have to leave one person to take care of Noah and Harold."

Horiyah said: "It's even more inappropriate for you to take care of them. They are now paralyzed in bed. You don't even have the strength to turn them over. What's the use of staying?"

With that said, Horiyah looked at Wendy and said, "Wendy, you stay and take care of your dad and your brother, and I will go out with your grandmother to find a job."

Wendy nodded gently: "Okay..."

.....

At this time, Charlie was at home.

Elaine, with her right leg in a cast, was stunned by the sight in front of her.

Chapter 1968

The big men came to the house and didn't say anything, but all kinds of gifts just piled up as a hill in the living room.

Her excited mouth was almost grinning behind her ears, and she couldn't wait to rush to take apart these gifts one by one, but with so many big people here, she was really embarrassed.

As Charlie's most heartfelt subordinate and the initiator of this collective visit, Orvel took out a piece of paper from his pocket and said loudly, "Master, I have a gift list here. It's over here, let me read it to you."

Before Charlie spoke, Elaine over there hurriedly said excitedly: "Oh, read it! Read it loudly!"

Orvel said hurriedly, "Ms. Elaine, don't worry, I must say it louder!"

With that said, he cleared his throat and said loudly:

"Shangri-La's Issac Craven, giving Master a set of Banshan Hot Spring Resort Villa, located in the Champs Elysées Hot Spring Hotel, worth 80 million!"

This sentence made Elaine stunned!

Elaine couldn't help but exclaimed with excitement in the depths of her heart: "Mom! One-shot is a set of 80 million hot spring villa, this...this is too bright! I really want to go to the Champs tonight. Experience the beautiful hot spring villa!"

However, immediately afterwards, she looked at her right leg, and muttered in her heart: "I still have a cast on my leg, so I'm afraid I won't be able to soak in the hot spring for a while? But it doesn't matter, anyway, Champs Elysees Hot Springs. I won't run, and it's never too late to go when my legs are better!"

Elsa also specially invited Charlie and Claire to go there.

It is the best hot spring hotel in Aurous Hill and even the province.

The Champs Elysées covers a large area. The entire foot of the mountain up to the mountainside in their industry. In addition to the hot spring hotel, there are several hot spring villas that are not for sale.

These hot spring villas are all built in the middle of the mountain. The villas have excellent scenery, exquisite architecture, and luxurious decoration. More importantly, these villas have natural hot spring springs, and there are hot springs throughout the year.

The only fly in the ointment is the remote location. After all, the natural hot springs are closely related to the geography and topography. The entire Champs Elysées hot spring hotel is built in the mountains, too far from the city and the commuting time is too long, so it is suitable for vacations, but not for long-term living.

Claire and Jacob were also frightened by such a valuable gift, and they were all startled and speechless.

Issac said at this time: "Master, the hot spring villa sent to you has always been a non-sale item of the Champs Elysées Hot Spring Hotel, and never entertains guests. The hot springs there are rich in minerals and are good for people. It has a health care function. In the future, you can often go on vacation with your wife, uncle, and aunt to relax. If you don't usually go, our professional housekeeper will take care of the villa and daily cleaning and maintenance. It is absolutely spotless!"

After all, Issac said again: "The keys to the villa, the real estate certificate, and other related documents are all in the gift box. Please I ask Master to accept it!"

Charlie nodded and smiled slightly: "Mr. Issac always has a heart!"

Charlie really didn't think the tens of millions of hot spring villas were too valuable, especially Issac's own assets, which was nothing to him.

Claire was a little nervous and said in Charlie's ear: "Husband, how can we accept such an expensive gift..."

Charlie waved his hand and faintly said: "My wife, don't worry about this. I accept their gift, and naturally I will repay them in other ways."

Orvel looked at Charlie at this time and asked respectfully: "Master, then I continue to read?"

Charlie nodded: "Go on."

Chapter 1969

With Charlie's approval, Orvel continued to speak loudly: "Mr. Song, gives Master a luxury yacht made in Italy and Sanlorenzo!"

"Yacht?!" Elaine was the first to blurt out: "What kind of yacht? What kind of ship?"

Mr. Song said with a smile: "Ms. Elaine has misunderstood. Sanlorenzo is a veteran European luxury yacht manufacturer. This yacht is more than 20 meters long and has three decks. It is very suitable for a family trip."

Elaine was stunned and said, "You can get a lot of money for such a yacht, right?"

Honor on the side said: "Taking taxes into account, it's about 70 million."

"How much more?!"

Elaine was stunned: "A ship is 70 million?! This is too scary?!"

Claire couldn't help saying, "Mr. Song, your gift is too expensive, we really can't...!"

Charlie smiled slightly at this moment, made a gesture, interrupted Claire's words, and smiled slightly: "My wife, this is the heart of Mr. Song, so don't shirk it."

After that, he looked at Old Song and slightly arched his hands and said, "Mr. Song, I thank you!"

Mr. Song hurriedly said: "Oh, Master, I dare not be it! I worry if you like it or not!"

Afterwards, he said to Charlie: "The keys to the yacht and related documents are in the gift box, but the yacht is now parked at the pier of the Aurous Hill Yacht Association. I have bought an exclusive berth for you. If you want to sail the yacht in the future, if you travel, or even go to sea along the Yangtze River, you can directly contact the staff of the Yacht Association."

Charlie nodded lightly and smiled: "I guess it won't be used for a while. I don't have a yacht driver's license, so let's talk about it when I have time to take the test."

Mr. Song hurriedly said, "Master, if you need to use a yacht, you can let Warnia or Honor help you sail. Both of them have a yacht driver's license."

Warnia said shyly: "Yeah, Master, if you have a need for a yacht, just tell me directly."

After that, she remembered something, and then said: "Oh, right, after the Chinese New Year, if you want to use a yacht, you can contact brother. I will go to Japan after the Chinese New Year. It may take a while for me to come back."

"Oh?" Charlie asked curiously: "Ms. Song is going to Japan for a trip or?"

Warnia said hurriedly: "I'm going to talk about business. The Song family is now preparing to get involved in the steel manufacturing industry and want to discuss some cooperation with Japan's Nippon Steel."

"Nippon Steel?" Charlie frowned and asked her: "Is this company strong?"

Warnia nodded and said, "Nippon Steel is one of the world's top steel companies and one of the world's largest steel companies."

Charlie asked curiously: "Who is the boss behind this steel company?"

Warnia said: "The big boss behind Nippon Steel is Sumitomo Group."

"Sumitomo Group?" Charlie smiled slightly: "I haven't heard of it."

Warnia laughed and said: "Sumitomo Group has a wide range of business, but most of them are in the industrial field, especially the heavy industry, which is really not closely related to daily life."

Charlie nodded lightly and said, "If you need help in Japan, you can contact me. I have a few acquaintances there."

Charlie did not say directly that he knew Takehiko and Nanako of the Ito family.

He doesn't want to let people know what he did in Japan some time ago, so he still tries to keep a low profile.

Warnia didn't think much, and said with a smile: "OK, Master, if you need it, I will contact you!"

At this time, Orvel continued to read the gift list.

"Mr. Tianqi will give Master a pair of blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottles!"

Chapter 1970

Hearing this, Jacob stood up suddenly and tremblingly asked: "What? Dragon-like elephant ear bottle?!"

Orvel nodded: "Yes, Mr. Willson, it is indeed a pair of blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottles!"

"Oh my God!"

Jacob has always been fond of antique writing and playing. Although he is always fooled when buying things, he still knows the antique industry very well.

Dollar blue and white porcelain can be said to be one of the most expensive porcelain.

Any blue and white plate in the Dynasty can sell for millions.

If it is a large piece of blue and white, such as the well-known Guiguzi Xiashan blue and white can, the auction price more than ten years ago had exceeded 100 million, and now if it is brought out again, it will be at least 500 million.

Jacob once heard of a blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottle in Dynasty.

Many appreciation manuals published by Christie's and Sotheby's record similar blue and white porcelain.

It is conservatively estimated that it must be at a price of 30-50 million!

At this time, Zhovia took the initiative to open an exquisite mahogany gift box. The inner lining of the box was made of golden silk and satin.

And two beautiful blue and white porcelain vases are lying in the lining made of silk and satin.

Jacob's eyes are almost gone!

This is an antique unmatched!

The ultimate collection for antique lovers!

There is an antique priceless!

At this time, Jacob couldn't wait to step forward to pick up one of the bottles and play with it carefully.

However, he felt a little hairy when he thought of throwing a Wang Dynasty jade pot spring bottle.

You know, the price of this antique bottle is several times that of the Yuhuchun bottle!

Charlie saw that the Old Master liked the bottle very much, so he smiled and said to Tianqi: "Mr. Shi, thank you for your gift. My father-in-law loves antiques the most in his life. I let him appreciate it up close."

Tianqi hurriedly said, "Master, please!"

Charlie walked up to Zhovia, took out one of the elephant ear bottles, and then handed it to Jacob. He smiled and said, "Dad, don't you like antiques? I will borrow flowers to present these bottles to you and give them to you."

When Jacob heard this, his whole body trembled with excitement, and his heart had already reached the utmost excitement, but he was flattered on the face and said, "How can I accept it, this is too expensive?"

Elaine was also a little jealous.

Although she doesn't know how much the blue and white elephant ear bottles are worth, she knows that the blue and white elephant ear bottles are not cheap, and it is estimated that this pair of bottles is worth tens of millions.

So, she thought sourly in her heart: "Charlie gave me hundreds of thousands of cosmetics and hundreds of thousands of bags, and Jacob, an old thing, turned out to be worth tens of millions of blue and white. Why is this old thing so privileged?"

When she was jealous, Charlie smiled at Jacob and said, "This is the intention of the genius doctor. As long as you keep it well and treat it as a collection in your home, don't sell it!"

Jacob immediately patted his chest and said, "Good son-in-law, don't worry, even if I sell myself, I will never sell this pair of bottles!"

After that, he carefully took the blue and white elephant ear bottle from Charlie's hands with both hands, and looked at the perfect hair color and enamel on it, tears filled his eyes with excitement.

Elaine also breathed a sigh of relief at this time, thinking: "I'm an old thing like Jacob, he can really get such a pair of treasures from Charlie! It turns out that he can only store it but not sell it! That's meaningless."

Chapter 1971

Elaine has two sets of standards for measuring the value of items.

The first is how much money can be exchanged for this thing.

The second is how much face this thing can change.

In her eyes, everything in the world, all-encompassing, is ultimately money and face.

For example, Charlie gave her a set of top-notch caviar skincare products at a purchase price of nearly 400,000, and it can sell at least 300,000 for takeaway, so she can clearly feel the weight of the three hundred thousand.

This is in line with her first set of standards, and it is valuable!

For another example, Elaine can not only sell 100,000 for takeaways, but also enjoy the envy and hatred of others, and let her feel the weight of more than 100,000. , But also feel very special.

This is in line with her second set of standards, face.

At this time, she looked at the set of antiques and thought with a lack of interest: "If an item can't be exchanged for money, and can't be brought to the house to impress others, how valuable is it?"

"This blue and white elephant ear bottle do seem to be very valuable, but it can't be sold out, and can't be taken out to show off, so in the eyes of the Old Lady, it is a worthless waste."

"Unless the Old Lady steals it and sells it another day, sell it for thousands"

However, Elaine changed her mind and thought again: "No! Charlie gave this thing to Jacob. If I sell it secretly, it doesn't matter if Jacob is angry. If Charlie is angry, it will be difficult to handle."

Thinking of this, Elaine could only give up the idea of playing this pair of blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottles.

At this time, Orvel continued to read the gift list.

Qin Gang gave an emerald worth 50 million, and Solomon gave a pink diamond of about the same value.

The two are relatively familiar and have a good relationship. At the last auto show, the two men gave Charlie a sports car each, so this time they discussed in advance and gave valuable jewelry together.

Although they are all jewels with similar value, they are of different varieties, so they are not afraid of crashing.

At this time, Aoxue and Fred each held a gift box and displayed the gems in it.

Two gems, one green, and one pink, reflect colorful colors under the light, and the appearance is really perfect.

Elaine was so interested in these two gems that even her eyes fell out.

She couldn't help thinking of the jade bracelet that Qin Gang had given to Charlie before.

The bracelet was worth at least several million. Charlie gave it to Claire, and was later stolen by Elaine to wear it. When wearing it, she took it as her own, but it was set up by Horiyah. It was accidentally broken. This has always been a pain in Elaine's heart that she does not want to recall.

Moreover, since then, Elaine hasn't had much jewelry.

Now that she saw these two crystal and perfect gems, she suddenly moved her mind again, wishing that she could use both gems to make a necklace and put it on her neck and go out to impress people around in the market.

However, she dare not think about such a thing. If Charlie didn't tell her, she would never dare to steal it.

After the gems were displayed, Orvel continued to read: "Mr. Tailai, presents Master a EC145 helicopter produced by Eurocopter!"

As soon as these words came out, the audience was deeply shocked!

Chapter 1972

Just now, Mr. Song had delivered the yacht, and Tailai gave a helicopter

Claire was also shocked to hear this. Now that he received the gift, she was already a little scared.

Fear, because these gifts are too expensive!

It is so precious that even those high-class people would never give such a precious gift.

So far, the prices of all the gifts mentioned are in the tens of millions, or even higher. Take anyone out, they are all valuable treasures. As a result, these people have all used them to give to Charlie. Claire felt very magical.

Tailai said at this time: "Master, I heard that you don't often leave Aurous Hill. Haicheng is not too far away from Aurous Hill. It may take four or five hours to drive, but if you take a helicopter, you can visit in a short time, so I gave you a helicopter. If you have any short- and medium-distance commuting needs, you can take the helicopter directly, which is much faster than a car."

Charlie nodded slightly: "Tailai always has a heart."

In fact, for Charlie now, whether it is a hot spring villa, a private yacht, or a private helicopter, these are actually not attractive to him.

When he was very young, the Wade family owned almost all kinds of civilian transportation.

Millions and tens of millions of luxury cars are not worth mentioning. Wade family has several private jets worth hundreds of millions or even billions.

Villas and manors worth more than 100 million cannot be counted anywhere in the world.

Not to mention luxury yachts.

In fact, when Charlie's father was young, he bought a luxury cruise ship. It was a luxury cruise ship that could carry hundreds of people and could carry helicopters to travel around the world.

Back then, Changying bought a luxury cruise ship entirely to make his wife happy.

Although Charlie's mother is also a descendant of elite family, she is a foreign Chinese. The whole family is on the other side of the ocean. She grew up in the West and advocated outdoor travel.

In order to meet the needs of his wife to visit family and travel, Changying bought the luxury cruise ship with huge sums of money and promised that he would spend two months each year to accompany her on the cruise ship to visit relatives on the other side of the ocean and cross half of the earth along the way. They could also travel together.

From the age of three, Charlie followed his parents back to his grandmother's house every year on a luxury cruise until his parents had an accident at the age of eight.

Others expect to be able to travel around the world before death, and Charlie has traveled around once a year since he was three years old.

In those few years, he lived a luxurious life that many people could not enjoy in his entire life, so that he personally had no pursuit of material things.

Everyone saw that so many gifts were given, Charlie's expression was still very calm, and everyone couldn't help feeling a little embarrassed. They knew that none of these gifts seemed to be given to Charlie's heart.

Later, Liang gave Charlie a jade-carved Guan Yunchang. In his words, Guan Yunchang is the god of wealth, who can protect Charlie's safety and wealth.

Charlie smiled and thanked him for it.

Finally from Orvel himself, he took out a beautifully packaged gift box, handed it to Charlie, and said seriously: "Master, there is a little effort here."

Charlie said with a smile: "Mr. Orvel, you read so many gifts from so many people, why don't you tell me what your own gift is?"

Orvel said embarrassingly: "This, I am afraid that Master will be dissatisfied with the things in here."

Charlie shook his head: "No matter what you give, I am very grateful, how can I be dissatisfied."

Orvel nodded and said earnestly: "Master, here is a villa near the imperial palace in Tokyo, Japan."

Chapter 1973

When everyone heard that Orvel gave Charlie a villa in Tokyo, they were all surprised, and they didn't understand why Orvel wanted to send Charlie to his villa in Japan.

But after a moment of surprise, Issac and Liang suddenly realized in their hearts!

At the same time, they all sighed in their hearts, why didn't they think of this!

Back in Japan, they had been by Charlie's side, busy assembling the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals. After everyone arrived in Osaka, Charlie suddenly wanted to go to Kyoto alone.

At that moment, Orvel guessed that Charlie must have been looking for Nanako.

Orvel is a very smart person, and he has served with Charlie for a long time, knowing more about some things about Charlie than others around him.

He had long seen that Charlie seemed to have some appreciation for the Japanese female fighter named Nanako, and then the female fighter returned to Japan for treatment because of an injury during the match.

Orvel paid attention to Nanako's follow-up. She first received treatment in Tokyo, and then went to Kyoto to train, but Charlie suddenly went to Kyoto when he was in Osaka, he suddenly guessed the reason.

What is even more bizarre is that Charlie drove to Kyoto that same day, and then drove from Kyoto to Tokyo at night. Combined with the Japanese news reports on a series of times at that time, Orvel used these clues to structure the whole thing in his mind. And the guess is not bad.

He knew that Nanako inherited the Ito family and began to work hard to become the heir of the Ito family. He also knew that the Ito family had a luxurious mansion near the imperial residence in Tokyo, so he simply bought it next to the Ito family mansion. Now, this mansion is given to Charlie.

In his opinion, this should be what he liked, Charlie would definitely like it very much.

Issac and Liang also followed Charlie all the way to Japan, so they also knew the outline of the matter.

Suddenly, they found that Orvel had given Charlie a villa in Tokyo, and he immediately knew what Orvel was thinking.

While admiring him, the two were also annoyed that they did not expect this level.

Charlie heard that Orvel had given him a villa in Tokyo, his first thought was also surprised.

As soon as he came up, he didn't want to understand why Orvel gave him a villa in Tokyo, and it seemed to be very close to the Ito family's residence in Tokyo.

Then, he immediately realized that Orvel should have seen some clues, so he came specifically to meet his needs.

At this moment, Charlie suddenly felt a little mixed.

He really admires Nanako and knows her feelings for him, but he is married after all, so he really shouldn't get too close to her.

Before in Japan, the reason why he wanted to see her was mainly to heal her injuries, but he didn't expect so many things to happen later.

After curing Nanako and sending her to Tokyo safely, Charlie had already let go of it.

But now Orvel suddenly gave away a villa in Tokyo, and immediately deepened the image of Nanako in Charlie's mind.

At this time, Elaine clapped her hands happily: "Oh, I have long wanted to go to Japan to see cherry blossoms, do shopping, etc. If I have my own villa in Tokyo, wouldn't I be able to go there often?"

Orvel said hurriedly: "Ms. Elaine, you can go there at any time. I also arranged for a few servants in Tokyo to be on standby around the clock to ensure that no matter what time you go there, it is in the best condition and there are people dedicated to you. Do their best to take care of you!"

"Oh, that's really great!" Elaine said excitedly: "I, I wanted to travel abroad for a long time, but it's a pity that I have been unhappy in the early years, and there is no chance. Now My son-in-law has a good life, and I will have to go out often in the future!"

With that, she asked Mr. Song: "Oh, Mr. Song, can the yacht you gave go all the way to Japan?"

Chapter 1974

Old Song hurriedly replied: "Ms. Elaine, that yacht has a maximum range of more than 2,000 nautical miles, which is nearly 4,000 kilometers, which is enough to travel all the way from Aurous Hill to the estuary, and then to Tokyo, but because this involves entry and exit. So you have to report to the customs in advance."

Elaine immediately said to Charlie excitedly: "Good son-in-law, let's take some time and sail the yacht to travel to Japan by ourselves. What do you think?"

Charlie said vaguely: "Let's talk about this when I have time."

Elaine hurriedly said: "Time is not easy to tell? Your dad and I don't go to work, and you don't go to work, she started running the company on her own. She is the boss herself. Wouldn't it be a matter of a sentence when you want to take a holiday?"

Claire hurriedly said: "Mom, what are you talking about? Entrepreneurship requires focus to be effective. How can I leave the company and go traveling by myself"

Elaine said, "It doesn't matter. You will stay and continue to work and let Charlie take us to Tokyo. It just so happens that we are not at home, so you can focus more on your company."

Claire was speechless at once.

Although she didn't want her family to go travel alone, but Elaine said this very skillfully.

She first asked Claire to go with them, but she refused on the grounds of working hard to run the business.

So she said let Claire stay and start his own business. Claire couldn't refute it, otherwise she would just slap herself in the face.

So Claire had no choice but to say: "Hey, do whatever you like."

Charlie smiled slightly, and said: "Don't talk about it for now, the Chinese New Year will be coming soon. Naturally, I will spend the holidays at home during this time. As for whether to go out to travel, I will wait until the end of the New Year."

Elaine nodded hurriedly, and said with a smile: "OK, son-in-law, mom listens to you!"

Charlie gave a hum, then looked at everyone, and said seriously: "I really thank you all for coming here today, and you gave me so many gifts, which cost everyone."

Everyone hurriedly said: "Where and why, this is what we should do!"

Charlie looked at the people and smiled and said, "As the saying goes, courtesy is about to come and go, after the New Year, I will definitely prepare a gift in return for everyone. At that time, I will have to trouble Mr. Qin Gang to help me prepare some materials."

As soon as these words came out, all those who came to pay the New Year's greetings showed an unquenchable ecstasy.

They knew that Charlie wanted to give back some pills!

Otherwise, he would never say, let Qin Gang prepare the materials!

What does Qin Gang do?

He specializes in various Chinese herbal medicines!

Charlie's first refining medicine was the material Qin Gang provided!

Charlie now asked him to prepare the materials, not to make a pill, what else could it be?

The reason why Charlie didn't say it clearly was because he didn't want to directly mention the medicine in front of his wife and father-in-law.

He did not let his family know whether it was the previous basic medicine or the later rejuvenating medicine.

However, these people present have all been blessed by him, and they will understand as long as the words are used.

Chapter 1975

Charlie's rejuvenation pills are not much.

Moreover, as the saying goes, rare things are expensive. Tailai spent two billion on a rejuvenating pill, which proved that the rejuvenating pill is completely worth the price for the rich, so he did not intend to use the pill to return gifts to everyone.

If this kind of thing is really bad, it will naturally not appear so scarce, and its value will naturally fall.

Therefore, Charlie planned to ask Qin Gang to find some raw materials and refine a batch of the first pill that he had refined at the beginning, and then give one to each one who came to give gifts today.

Everyone just came to pay a New Year greeting to Charlie and give some gifts for the New Year, but they didn't expect that Charlie would actually give them a pill in return, so everyone seemed very excited. Suddenly, no matter how much money was spent, it was 10,000. worth it.

Afterwards, everyone exchanged glances, and Orvel said, "Master, with so many of us here, it will definitely affect your family's original plan. We will leave first!"

Charlie nodded and said, "After the New Year is over, I will choose a time to invite everyone to dinner, and I will take it with you in return."

Everyone hurriedly clasped their fists and bowed, and said uniformly, "Master, thank you!"

The mighty convoy drove away. After Charlie's family watched them leave at the door, Elaine was the first to break the restraint and blurted out: "My God, it's really developed today! It's a villa again. It's a yacht and a helicopter again. It really sums up to a lot of money!"

Jacob was also excited, and muttered: "The pair of blue and white elephant ear bottles are really good treasures at the national treasure level! I have to go and see again!"

Elaine looked at Charlie at this time and said, "By the way, son-in-law! I think they still have a lot of gift boxes left. What are they, why didn't they say?"

Charlie shook his head: "don't know what's in there. If you want to know, you might as well open it."

Elaine said happily, "I just want to see what it is! Then I will go and open it one by one!"

Claire was a little nervous at this time, but also a little worried and said, "Charlie, why do they give you so many precious gifts? These things are worth hundreds of millions. Isn't this too much? How can we? What about you?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I help them, and they give us gifts. It's all things you love and I want. What's wrong?"

Claire said: "This value is too high after all. Can you show them Feng Shui, can it be worth so much?"

Charlie nodded: "As long as you believe in this thing, you are willing to spend as much money. There used to be a great quack master, so many big stars and rich people regarded him as a guest, and they also spent a lot of money for him. Isn't it because they believe that quack can change their destiny?"

Claire hurriedly said, "But wasn't that quack master finally exposed? It was all a lie."

Charlie smiled and said: "He was a liar, but I am not."

As he said, he said again: "I show these people Feng Shui, these people have got great benefits without exception, otherwise, why do you think they have always believed in me? Of course they believe it only after seeing the effect."

Claire asked again: "Then you said you want to return a gift to them, what are you going to return?"

Charlie said: "I will return to each of them a set of special Talisman."

"Talisman?!" Claire asked in surprise: "Is it the kind of amulet that costs a few coins in the temple?"

Charlie nodded: "It's almost the same, but the difference is that what the temple sells is consecrated by the monks, and what I do is consecrated by myself."

Claire said with some worry: "Is it reliable for you to do all this? I always feel very worried, for fear that you will be taken away someday."

Charlie comforted: "My wife, don't worry, I'm a businessman, I always do business with integrity and fairness. I have been showing Feng Shui for a long time. Do you see anyone coming to trouble me?"

Claire was asked by Charlie at once.

Charlie was right.

For such a long time, he saw that Feng Shui had not made less money, and he also made a large villa of more than one billion, but none of those customers came to trouble him.

Especially Solmon.

The villa was given by Solmon, and he again just gave a priceless pink diamond, which proves that Charlie must have really helped him and he will be so loyal.

Chapter 1976

At this time, Elaine persuaded: "Oh, Claire, you don't understand Feng Shui and other things, so don't argue Charlie."

After that, she started to face and said very seriously: "Mom doesn't expect you to help Charlie in his career, but Mom will never allow you to hold back his legs! Our family's future will be all dependent on Charlie!"

"Mom" Claire was choked by Elaine and was speechless.

She could see that her mother had completely fallen to Charlie, and nothing she says could be of any use.

So, she sighed helplessly: "Hey, I'm going to the company first"

Elaine hurriedly said: "Claire, why don't you wait for Mom to finish the present before leaving?"

Claire shook his head and said, "I'm already very late, everyone is still waiting for me to hold a summary meeting."

Elaine said, "That's OK, then you go first. If there is something good, Mom will take a picture and send it to you!"

Claire gave a hum, and said to Charlie and Jacob: "Husband, Dad, I'm leaving now."

Charlie nodded: "Drive slowly on the road and pay attention to safety."

Claire hurriedly said, "Don't worry, I will pay attention."

After Claire drove away, Charlie returned to the villa living room.

At this time, Jacob and Elaine had already taken apart a pile of gift boxes by herself.

Elaine opened a gift box and exclaimed in excitement: "d*mn! It turned out to be a limited edition Chanel bag!"

Jacob took out a bottle of Moutai. After reading it carefully, he was stunned and said: "My God, this is a five-star Moutai made in 58! There are very few in stock, and a bottle appeared at auctions a few years ago. It sold for 2.99 million!"

"What?!" Elaine asked in horror: "A bottle of Moutai, 2.99 million?! Are you crazy?!"

Jacob curled his lips: "Look at you who have never seen the world! The 2.99 million Maotai scared you like this? I tell you, there is also a kind of Maotai that only has ten bottles in the country, called Handi Maotai, which is worth thousands of Million each!"

"Handi Maotai?" Elaine frowned and asked, "What do you mean? Moutai dug out from the dry land?!"

Jacob said contemptuously: "You even went to college because you were Emperor Wu of the Han Dynasty, not a dry land of arid land!"

Elaine sipped: "Bah! Who do you look down on? It's obvious that you haven't said clearly, so do you know Emperor Wu of Han?"

Jacob immediately retorted: "You definitely don't know who Emperor Wu of Han is. If you can tell the name of Emperor Wu of Han today, I will count you as a college student!"

Elaine was speechless immediately.

She really can't remember who Emperor Wu of Han is Seeing her anxious look, Jacob sneered: "What? Can't remember? Was the university in vain?"

Elaine said angrily: "Why are you so sepaking much bull$hit? I tell you Jacob, the bottle of wine in your hand is worth three million, and you absolutely can't drink it! Save it and wait for it to appreciate later before selling it!"

Jacob annoyed and said, "This is what someone gave to my son-in-law Charlie. It's up to you to tell me? My son-in-law says drink and drink, my son-in-law says sell it, and my son-in-law says just smash it, and you can only watch it. Leave!"

"You"

Seeing the two arguing again, Charlie shook his head helplessly.

At this time, his mobile phone rang suddenly, and it was Sara who called. So he said to the couple, "Dad and Mom, I have something to do. I will go back to the room first."

After finishing talking, he went straight into the elevator without waiting for their response.

Chapter 1977

Charlie returned to his room and then connected to Sara's video call and asked her: "Hey, Sara."

"Charlie!" In the video, Sara, wearing a nightgown at home, waved at him excitedly.

In the video, Sara has no makeup, and her long black hair is casually draped over her shoulders. Without the full aura of a top star, she is more like a beautiful girl next door.

At this time, she happily asked: "Charlie, what are you doing?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I'm not busy. Isn't it the New Year right away? Just prepare some New Year's goods at home."

Sara smiled happily: "Hehe, me too! This year we will return to the old house in Hwai for the New Year!"

With that, she switched the cameras and took a picture of the surrounding environment. As expected, she was in the courtyard of the Gu family.

Charlie couldn't help asking: "Sara, your courtyard is so big, does it seem a little deserted for a family of three to celebrate the New Year?"

"No!" Sara said with a smile: "This year I will spend the New Year with my second and third uncles. There are three big families in total, which is quite lively."

Charlie nodded, thinking of her second and third uncles, and couldn't help but ask: "Sara, your second and third uncles, how are you doing lately? Didn't you make any trouble with your family?"

Sara hurriedly said, "No, no! My second uncle and third uncle have a good attitude these days. I ran home every three days, and every time I went, I brought big and small bags of various gifts!"

"Oh, by the way, this year I will go back to my old house for the New Year. The two of them proposed to my dad. They said that the family hadn't been together for a long time for a lively New Year. So they wanted to get together for a while, dad agreed."

Charlie knew that Sara's second Uncle Yanzheng and third Uncle Yangang, as well as their sons, are still in a state of infertility. During this period of time, you can guess that they must be very honest.

After all, they still hope to please Philip's family and get their forgiveness.

Before, they had signed an agreement with Philip, and everything in the future will only be in the hands of Philip, so now they can't make any more storms.

So Charlie said with satisfaction: "That's good, if your two uncles are still unruly, you must tell me the first time."

Sara nodded quickly and said, "Charlie, wait a moment, I'll go to my parents' room, they have something to tell you too!"

Charlie hurriedly asked: "You wear more clothes, this dress looks like you wear it in summer, don't freeze."

Sara said with a sweet smile: "I won't freeze, because the entire courtyard is covered with floor heating, and the heat is sufficient. The room has always been around 28 degrees."

Charlie was relieved now.

In his mind, Sara is not so much a fiancée who has a marriage contract and a parental matchmaker's agreement, but a little sister who has been by his side since childhood.

Therefore, Charlie also cared very much about her.

In the video, Sara trot all the way, through the huge hall, to the room of Philip and Lenan.

Philip was drinking tea and reading at his desk at this time. Lenan burned a small furnace of sandalwood and brought the incense burner to Philip's desk. Seeing Sara rushing in at this time, he hurriedly said: "Sara, you be careful, don't fall!"

Sara said excitedly: "Mom, I'm videoing with Charlie!"

When Philip heard the word Charlie, he immediately put down the book in his hand, and asked excitedly: "Are you videoing with Charlie? Hurry up, let me talk to him!"

Sara quickly placed the phone on the desk, with the camera and screen facing Philip.

Philip's complexion was very good at this time, and his whole state was very young. Seeing Charlie in the video, he immediately smiled and said, "Charlie! How are you in Aurous Hill recently?"

Chapter 1978

Charlie smiled and said, "Looking back at Uncle, everything is fine, how are you and Aunt Lenan?"

"Okay! We are fine!" Philip nodded repeatedly. At this time, Lenan stood beside him, looked at Charlie on the screen, and said with a smile: "Charlie, when will you come to Eastcliff for a few days? Uncle has been thinking of you especially recently. Basically, I have to listen about you several times a day, and my ears are about to grow cocoons."

Charlie smiled and said, "Uncle and Auntie, when I finish my work, I will make time to visit Eastcliff to see you two."

Standing on the other side of Philip, Sara murmured dissatisfiedly: "What do you mean by seeing them, then what should I do? You don't have to see me?"

Charlie hurriedly smiled and said, "Of course I have to meet you as well. I made a mistake. I have time to see you, Uncle and Auntie! Are you satisfied now?"

Sara hummed triumphantly: "This is pretty much better!"

At this time, Philip said: "By the way, Charlie, I heard that Cynthia came to Aurous Hill?"

"Yes." Charlie smiled slightly: "Uncle, have you heard about it?"

Philip smiled and said, "Your grandpa called me this morning and told me about you and Cynthia."

Charlie asked in surprise: "He knows that I have met you?"

Philip shook his head: "He didn't know yet, so he thought I hadn't received your message yet, so he told me about you."

Charlie asked puzzledly: "Why does he want to tell you these things?"

Philip smiled and said, "I see what he meant, mainly because he wanted to tell me your news, and then asked me if I was still willing to fulfill the promise I made with your dad and let you get married with my daughter."

Charlie couldn't help but feel embarrassed.

It seemed that Grandpa meant that he still wanted to get himself back to the Wade family, and then let himself go to marry Sara.

At this time, Philip also saw Charlie's embarrassment and hurriedly said: "Charlie, don't put any pressure on this matter. I just told your grandfather that I am willing to fulfill my promise, but I also said that in this matter the opinion of children must be respected."

After speaking, Philip said again: "Charlie, you still come at your own pace. Since I said, our family waited for you for many years and we must wait for you for more."

Charlie nodded lightly and said: "Uncle, thank you for your understanding."

Philip waved his hand and said, "Uncle's life is yours. You don't have to be so polite with me."

Immediately, Philip said again: "Oh, yes, your grandfather asked me to persuade you, after all, you and Miss Cynthia are all in the same family. Don't be so angry, let alone hurt your peace."

Charlie said: "Uncle, my aunt is too domineering, and my grandfather doesn't give her the necessary restraint. When she arrived in Aurous Hill, she drank and arrogated me, and went to Mother-in-law to gossip. , She is really too arrogant."

Philip nodded and said, "Miss Cynthia is in Eastcliff. That is notoriously difficult to deal with. I didn't expect that going to Aurous Hill would let you get cured."

Charlie said indifferently: "If she is not too much, I don't want to be familiar with her."

Philip smiled slightly and said, "Your grandfather still wants me to persuade you. If you have time, go back to Wade's house. This year's Spring Festival is over. After the Lantern Festival, it's almost March. He hopes you will save energy. Come back, join him in the ancestor worship ceremony held by the Wade family in Waderest Mountain."

Charlie asked in surprise, "Holding an ancestor worship ceremony?"

"Yes." Philip said: "Your Wade family originally held an ancestor worship ceremony once in twelve years. It happened to be this year, and Waderest Mountain was developed for more than three years. The construction was just completed last spring. Wade family moved to the ancestral tomb in the fall. So this year's Qingming Festival is also the first Qingming Festival when Waderest's tomb was moved to Waderest Mountain."

"So your grandfather wants to hold a grand ceremony for ancestor worship. At that time, not only your Wade, but also dozens of Wade branches across the country will also go to participate. You are the grandson of the Wade family, and he hopes you can be there, and formally pay homage to your parents by the way."

Chapter 1979

The Wade Family's ancestor worship is the most grand family ceremony in the entire Wade Family.

Large families value ancestor worship, especially large families with a long history like the Wade family, which have a profound history and many branches, and they attach great importance to ancestor worship ceremony.

In fact, many wealthy families really want to engage in special ancestor worship ceremonies, but the real ancestor worship ceremonies are definitely not something ordinary families can do.

Some nouveau riche families want to hold an ancestor worship ceremony but can't hold up this stage.

Because these people's ancestors may have buried the ancestors of the last three or four generations in total, and when it comes to their identities, they may all be farmers in the previous generations. There is no tall story to tell for future generations.

Although the peasant class is also very worthy of respect, but in these upper-class societies, the ancestors did not have a strong enough identity background, and it is indeed somewhat ineffective.

Especially in the upper class of Eastcliff.

In addition to comparing money and power, it is the family origin and heritage.

In Eastcliff, there were many elders and children who were in power during the Manchu and Qing dynasties. When the ancestors of these families were in the Qing dynasty, they were all nobles. It was not which elder brother, which Gege, and even the first-rate elders in the dynasty was a member.

Such a family has a strong foundation. When the ancestor worship ceremony, if you take out two or three ancestors' deeds and read it out, you can immediately give people a feeling of bullying.

The ancestors of the Wade family were also imperial officials. The ordinary family and the ancestors of the ancestors could not wait to build an ancestral hall for this ancestor in his hometown. However, the Wade family, the ancestors of the ancestors were awarded hundreds of scholars and ten of the champions. The top three, including the champion, made a total of 31.

With a history of nearly 300 years in the Qing Dynasty, there were 112 examinations in the imperial ways.

In these nearly three hundred years, a total of more than 20,000 scholars and 114 champions were awarded.

The great Wade family accounted for nearly one-tenth, which was an extremely remarkable achievement.

It is precisely because of the talents of the ancestors that the Wade family can continue to exist for hundreds of years, and it has always been quite strong. Even in the era of war, it was at least a formidable one.

The Wade family has opened branches and leaves for so many years. There are at least tens of thousands of Wade family descendants all over the world, and a considerable number of them have gone overseas.

Their ancestors, going back hundreds of years, are the ancestors of the Wade family.

It's just that in ancient times, the eldest son inherited the mantle, and the other sons and daughters had to separate their families. Therefore, more and more Wade family members were reduced to collateral families, leaving only the descendant line as the real suzerain family.

It's like Charlie's father has three brothers. According to the ancient rules, after Charlie's father's death, the three sons of the Wade family will be separated. By then, the eldest son, Andrew, will inherit most of the family business and residence.

The second and third sons should leave the original Wade family mansion with their family members after three years of filial piety for their father, and start another family by themselves.

In this way, the second son and third son's two families became Wade family's collateral family.

At this time, the two collateral families were still relatively close to the suzerain family. After all, the second, third, and eldest brothers were still the brothers of the main one.

But by the time of Charlie's generation, it was Charlie's cousin who inherited the mantle of the suzerain family, so the relationship between the two collateral families and the suzerain family is separated by another generation.

By the time of the third and fourth generations, these two collateral families have also derived several more detailed collateral families, so they are farther away from the suzerain family.

If it lasts for five or six generations, the span may have been more than 100 years.

At that time, they probably don't know each other at all, and they could only find the names of descendants of other collateral families on the genealogy.

Chapter 1980

Therefore, as the suzerain family, it is necessary to use the ceremony of worshipping the ancestors to gather people from the collateral family at regular intervals.

After you get to know and get acquainted with each other, and after worshipping the common ancestor together, the connection between bloodlines will be strengthened.

This is also a necessary way for large families to maintain their strength.

Therefore, the Wade family not only holds an ancestor worship ceremony every twelve years, but also revises the entire Wade family's genealogy at the ancestor worship ceremony.

Between these twelve year and the last twelve years, each family will have a new heir born, an older generation will die, and young adults will marry.

Therefore, every twelve years, countless branches of the Wade family report the population changes of their family over the past twelve years to the suzerain family.

At that time, the suzerain family will select a respected Old Master to personally renew the genealogy, and write down the names and deeds of these people one by one.

The existing Wade family tree records the names of millions of Wade family descendants, as well as the names of millions of their spouses, such as Wade family's son XX, whose daughter XX was married, or the Wade family daughter married to whose son so so and so on.

Each revision of the genealogy is also very grand.

The female parent of the genealogy is stored in a safe with constant temperature and humidity, and is invited out by the descendants of the Wade family every time the ancestor worships.

They come out and after the worship, they must immediately and respectfully invite the mother back.

Later, renew the new genealogy.

After the renewal of the new genealogy is completed, grandly invite the new genealogy back, and keep it together with the countless parents.

All the Wade family members regard the genealogy as a family sacred object, sacred and inviolable.

The suzerain family is the only family that has the right to retain the genealogy. Therefore, every time a collateral family comes to worship the ancestors, in addition to three bows and nine worships to the genealogy, it will also have a natural sense of belonging to the suzerain family.

This is like the ancient emperor and ministers, through cumbersome etiquette, rituals, and strict rules and inheritance, to strengthen the Director's mind, the idea of loyalty to the emperor is essential.

This is also a great support for the suzerain family to let the collateral family bow their heads.

However, Charlie has no impression of Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony.

The last ancestor worship ceremony was twelve years ago, when he was still in Aurous Hill Welfare Institute;

The last ancestor worship ceremony was twenty-four years ago. At that time, he was too young, so young that he has no memory of this incident.

However, although he can no longer find the memory of the ancestor worship ceremony 24 years ago, he is still very clear about the Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony. The grandest worship ceremony for parents.

Therefore, he couldn't help but look forward to it.

He wasn't expecting to pay homage to the ancestors of the Wade family. He just expected to pay respect to his parents in a respectable, upright, grand, and pompous manner.

The last time he followed Philip to worship his parents, he had to pretend to be Philip's driver, and he failed to walk to his parents' grave with his true identity and kowtow. This has always been a regret in his mind.

So he said to Philip: "Uncle, please tell my grandfather that I will come to the ancestor worship ceremony at Qingming Festival!"

Philip originally thought that Charlie would not agree, but he did not expect that he promised so readily, so he immediately said: "If your grandfather knows that you are willing to come back to the ancestor worship ceremony, he will be very happy!"

Charlie smiled, thinking in his heart: "Whether he will be happy or not should not depend on whether I will attend the ancestor worship ceremony, but on whether I will follow his arrangements and become the Wade family's tool."

However, he did not tell Philip these words.

At this time, Sara spoke again: "By the way, Charlie, my concert time in Aurous Hill has already been set!"

Charlie was very surprised and asked: "The concert? In Aurous Hill?"

Sara nodded and smiled and said, "Originally, the next stop of my tour is Aurous Hill, but the specific time has not yet been determined."

Charlie just remembered that when he was taking his wife to dinner with Sara, his wife once told him excitedly that Sara was going to hold a concert in Aurous Hill soon, but he didn't expect this matter to be on the agenda now.

So he asked her: "Sara, when is your concert?"

Sara said: "It's on February 2 of the lunar calendar, at 7 pm on your birthday, at the Olympic Stadium in Aurous Hill!"

Charlie was suddenly surprised.

The second month of the lunar calendar? Is it my birthday?

Is this girl deliberately choosing to hold the concert on that day?

At this time, Sara said with a look of anticipation: "Charlie, I have reserved the best ticket for you. You must come and join me when that happens!"

Charlie nodded: "Don't worry, I will definitely come there."

Sara said happily, "Then let's meet in Aurous Hill then!"

"Okay."

At this time, Philip suddenly heard a knock on the door during the video call.

Philip said, "Come in."

Afterwards, Yanzheng, the second child of the Gu family, pushed the door and said respectfully: "Brother, sister-in-law, the Su family came to give gifts."

Philip frowned and asked in amazement: "The Su family? I have never been with them. Why did they suddenly come to me and give me gifts?"

Yanzheng shook his head, and said with some puzzlement: "I didn't understand this either. This time, it is a pair of children from Mr. Zynn, Zhifei and Zhiyu. Zynn himself did not come. It is estimated that he is also self-aware, knowing that I have been very dissatisfied with him because of what happened to Big Brother Wade."

Philip was even more puzzled, and said: "Zynn hasn't come, what are the juniors of the Su family doing? I haven't heard of the juniors of the Su family coming out to visit during the New Year!"

The Su family has always been very high in Eastcliff.

Neither Chengfeng nor his sons would ever visit others during the Chinese New Year. At most, they would visit their father-in-law and mother-in-law.

Even the younger generations of the Su family and Zhiyu's generation never lowered their stature and took the initiative to visit other families.

Therefore, Philip couldn't understand why Zynn's son and daughter came to visit him.

Charlie was also a little surprised.

Chapter 1982

Last time in Japan, he saved Zhifei and Zhiyu easily. He thought he saved two compatriots easily, but he didn't expect them to be the enemy's children. This incident once made him very depressed.

Unexpectedly, the two people now ran to Philip's home again.

Could it be that the Su family even wants to win over the Gu family?

However, Charlie didn't say much in the video. After all, Philip didn't know his experience in Japan.

At this time, Yanzheng, the second child of the Gu family, said: "Brother, why the younger generation of the Su family came to give gifts? I am not sure about this, but I think it may be related to the experience of the Su family in Japan some time ago. During this period, The Su family has indeed suffered heavy losses. Maybe now they have the idea to win over some families."

Philip said with a cold face: "In the whole of Eastcliff, the person I don't look down on the most is that Zynn! The complete b@stard! The anti-wade alliance back then was he was among the leading, and the secret arrow hurt people!"

Lenan on the side said: "I can't look down on it, but I don't want to look down on it, but as the saying goes, you don't hit a smiley person. What's more, it is Zynn's two children who are here this time. Don't pass the old grievances to the younger generation. , Otherwise if it is spread out, wouldn't it make people laugh."

Philip thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Well, let's see what medicine they sell in the gourd."

After that, he said to Charlie: "Charlie, someone from the Su family is here to give gifts, I will accept it."

Charlie nodded, and said, "ok Uncle, go ahead, wish you a Happy New Year in advance!"

Philip smiled and nodded: "Happy! Happy! During the Chinese New Year in recent years, I have never been so happy as today!"

As he said, he couldn't help sighing again: "Hey, it would be great if you could spend the New Year in Eastcliff! If the family of four can spend a year together, it will be better than anything else! Once the door is closed, you can enjoy the family reunion, even if the heavenly king comes to the door, I will not see him!"

Charlie knew that Philip and his wife wanted to make him their son-in-law, and even his parents were in the spirit of heaven.

It's just that he has never thought of divorcing Claire, so at this moment, he doesn't know how to respond to Philip's words.

At this time, Lenan came out to round the scene and said: "It's OK, Charlie must have a good idea, maybe your wish will come true in a few years, so why bother to rush now."

Philip nodded: "Don't be in a hurry, don't be afraid of being late for a good meal, I've been waiting for so many years, don't care if I wait another three years!"

After that, he said to Charlie: "Charlie, uncle, I won't tell you more for now, and talk to you another day. Uncle here also wishes you a happy new year!"

Charlie hurriedly said, "Thank you Uncle!"

Sara said at this time: "Dad and Mom, you go, I will chat with Charlie for a while."

Philip said, "You should come along. I have nothing to talk about with the younger generation of the Su family, don't you know each other? You can say a few words to them for me, and then find a reason to see them off."

Sara said helplessly: "Well then..."

After speaking, Sara said to Charlie again: "Charlie, then I will hang up first."

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Okay, go ahead."

At this moment, the main hall of the Gu family courtyard.

Zhifei, a talented person, sat on the red sandalwood sofa with the slim Zhiyu.

After the Gu's servants offered tea, they retired. There are only two of them in the main hall for the time being.

Zhiyu saw that Zhifei was a little nervous, and whispered in his ear: "Brother, when you see your dream lover later, don't be too nervous!"

Chapter 1983

Zhifei was a little nervous at first, but when he heard his sister say this, his heart became even more nervous.

Sara belongs to the top rich second generation of Eastcliff. Although the relationship is not very close, they can be regarded as ordinary friends.

Zhifei has been secretly in love with Sara for many years, but because Sara never mixes with the second-generation wealthy circle, he does not have much chance to contact Sara.

Moreover, Zhifei didn't dare to confess to her, because he knew that in the eyes of his father Zynn, Gu's family was a little uncomfortable.

Zhifei is the eldest son of the Su family in his generation, and there is no doubt that he will be the head of the Su family at some time in the future.

Therefore, Zynn attaches great importance to his marriage.

In Zynn's view, the Su family is now the number one family in the country, and the second-ranked family, the Wade family, is against them, so Zhifei has no need to find a suitable marriage partner in China.

Zynn's plan for Zhifei was to either marry the person above him, or simply find a top family from abroad to marry.

Therefore, he naturally cannot be willing to let his son be with Sara of the Gu family.

Zhifei never thought of confessing to Sara before.

As the eldest son of the Su family, although he is not as capable as Zhiyu, his consciousness is higher than Zhiyu.

He knew that in his marriage he could not be the master of his own, so he simply gave up the right of his own choice and let his family arrange it for him.

However, after being kidnapped by a ninja and almost killed last time in Japan, he suddenly felt that his life was short.

He feels that even if life is a good one, it is only a few decades, and maybe at a certain period of time because of an accident and died young.

That being the case, why do you need to compromise your marriage?

Since he has always liked Sara, why not have the courage to pursue her!

After he had said this plan to Zhiyu, Zhiyu immediately raised her hands in agreement, and deliberately helped him figure out a way to approach Sara.

Zhiyu knew that Sara would have a series of national tour concerts after the new year, so she suggested to her brother to talk to Sara about the naming rights of the concert.

It happened that Zhifei had a well-known cosmetics company in the country under his own name. Zhiyu suggested using this cosmetics brand to discuss naming cooperation with Sara.

Zhiyu's original intention was to let Zhifei establish a business relationship with Sara, so that he could go to her concert to cheer for her as the title dealer.

By doing two things like this, starting with public and then private, saving the country with curves, basically, the relationship between the two can be quickly brought closer.

If the elder brother has enough ability and charisma, it will be a matter of course.

At this time, Zhifei felt a little nervous, and he asked Zhiyu in a low voice: "Do you think Sara can agree to let me endorse her concert?"

Zhiyu said seriously: "If you do what I said, I don't think the problem is big."

Chapter 1984

Zhifei nodded softly, but still a little unsure, and said in a low voice: "I heard that Sara seems to have a marriage contract with a younger member of the Wade family. If I really confess to her, can she agree?"

Zhiyu comforted helplessly: "Oh, brother! Why are you chirping like a lady!"

"Don't think about it so much, you don't want to turn your bow back!"

"Moreover, even if she has a marriage contract, what about it? It was Changying's son who had a marriage contract with her. When the Changying couple was killed in the early years, he had already disappeared. Whether he is still alive is still unknown. , How could it be possible for him to come back and marry Sara?"

Speaking of this, Zhiyu said again: "You, just play well and perform well. You are the eldest son of the Su family. In terms of financial resources, few people in the country can compare with you. In terms of looks, you look like a talent. , And with high education, I think you are more than enough to match Sara."

Zhifei said with emotion: "In fact, there is one more thing, don't know if you are not clear."

Zhiyu asked: "What's the matter?"

Zhifei said: "Dad and Changying were always at odds. In order to fight against Changying's unstoppable energy, Dad also formed an anti-Wade alliance that year. The hatred with Changying can be said to be very deep. Sara's father was also a good brother of Changying, so I am worried that Sara's father will have prejudice against the Su family."

Zhiyu frowned and said, "I know that Dad and Changying didn't deal with him. I heard my uncle talk about it, but Changying and Philip were like brothers, I have never heard of... .."

As he said, Zhiyu comforted: "But things have passed for so many years, I think he shouldn't hold such a grudge? Besides, even if he has prejudices, he also has prejudices against dad, and won't be the same as those of our juniors. Besides, Sara is his only daughter. If Sara really likes you, I believe he will respect his daughter's choice. What do you think?"

Zhifei's nervousness eased a bit after hearing her say this, and he nodded and said, "What you said makes sense... I will try it!"

Zhiyu smiled and said, "You, be more confident. The world doesn't know how many women are lining up to marry you. Some of them have better overall conditions than Sara. Why do you feel inferior?"

Zhifei chuckled, "I said so, but I still feel nervous."

Zhiyu earnestly said: "This is the problem of your mentality, and lack of self-confidence is the key! If I like a man in the future, I will never feel inferior at all. Even if he is the prince of the Middle East, I will not be inferior in front of him."

As she spoke, Zhiyu laughed and said: "The prince is actually nothing great, let alone that I don't like the foreign person. Even if I really put a prince in front of me, I still look at him with my heels!"

"A prince seems to be very powerful. The family assets are hundreds of billions, but in their kind of family, the princes from all quarters add up to say a few hundred. On average, a prince has more than one billion in assets, which is not enough. Ma'am's own pocket money."

Zhifei looked at Zhiyu, chuckled lightly, and said seriously: "Hey, sometimes I really wish I could have your personality, and I don't care about anything, so I will naturally live very generously."

Zhiyu asked him back: "Are you complimenting me or hurting me?"

"Praise you!" Zhifei said earnestly: "Because I am the eldest son and grandson, I have been restrained by grandfather and dad since I was a child. The edges and corners of my personality have long been in front of them. It's smoothed out, and there is no sense of resistance at all. Unlike you, no matter who you can fight twice."

Zhiyu said: "We are in different situations after all. It is you, not me, who will inherit the family in the future, so I can live a little heartless."

Zhifei nodded and asked her, "By the way, aren't you looking for Blessed Man? How about it?"

Zhiyu sighed: "I just got the surveillance video of several major airports in Japan, and looking at them one by one. It is estimated that I will find him by my 30th birthday. I am still thinking of a reliable solution."

After that, Zhiyu hurriedly said: "By the way, I will start watching the surveillance videos at home today. After you go back, you must help me sort it out!"

Chapter 1985

Hearing what sister said, Zhifei did not hesitate to pat his chest and agreed: "Don't worry, I will do my best to cooperate with you after I go back!"

Zhiyu nodded in satisfaction, just about to speak, two men and two women walked in at the entrance of the main hall.

It was Philip's family of three and the second child Yanzheng.

When Sara came in, Zhifei became a little nervous, and his palms immediately began to sweat.

Zhiyu on the side saw him, hurriedly poked him with her finger, gave him a reminding look, and immediately stood up, smiled and said to the four people who came: "Uncle, Auntie, also There is Sara, hello, sorry to bother you, I wish you a happy new year in advance!"

After speaking, she quickly took out a long gift box and handed it to Lenan's hand, saying: "Auntie, this is a New Year gift for you and Uncle!"

Seeing that it was Zhiyu who spoke first, Lenan took the initiative and smiled: "Oh, it's Zhiyu, right? I haven't seen you for several years, and your looks are more and more beautiful!"

Zhiyu smiled generously and said, "Auntie, you're overwhelmed. If you want to say pretty, sister Sara is much more beautiful than me!"

Lenan said: "You child are too polite, why did you bring gifts when you came home..."

Zhiyu said, "Auntie, who should be, is not a precious gift. It is a painting by the painter Zhang Daqian."

Lenan said earnestly: "Zhiyu, this is too expensive, I can't take it."

Zhiyu hurriedly said: "Auntie, don't be so polite. To be honest, a painting doesn't cost much, it's just a matter of the heart."

After that, she hurriedly changed the subject and introduced Zhifei, who was a little dull around her: "By the way, Auntie and Uncle, this is my brother, Zhifei! Sister Sara and brother should know each other?"

Sara nodded and said lightly: "Yes, I have met Mr. Su several times."

Philip saw that Zhifei looked seven to eight points similar to Zynn, and suddenly felt a little unhappy in his heart.

He looked at Zhifei and Zhiyu, with a smile on his face and said: "To be honest, the Gu family has never visited the Su family in the past ten years. don't know how your brother and sister condescended to come to my house?"

Zhiyu hurriedly said: "Uncle is like this. brother has a cosmetics company. This year he wants to focus on enhancing brand awareness. He happens to be a fan of Sara. Knowing that Sara is about to hold a concert tour, I thought Let's bring together the two parties to make cooperation and let brother sponsor Sara's concert..."

Philip was a little surprised. He originally thought that Zhiyu and Zhifei were coming over, and it was likely that they would represent the Su family and come to talk about some kind of family-level cooperation.

However, what he didn't expect was that the brothers and sisters came only to talk to his daughter about a small concert.

However, he was a little relieved, since it was about cooperation with his daughter, then he didn't need to be involved in it.

So he said indifferently: "You can talk to Sara directly about this. Normally, I will not interfere with her affairs."

Zhiyu nodded, then looked at Sara and asked her: "Sister Sara, don't know how you feel about it?"

Sara is actually not very interested. She is not in the entertainment industry to make money, so she is fundamentally different from those female stars who see money and accommodate their attitude accordingly.

Other female celebrities, no matter what they do, they may only look at money.

It depends on the amount of money to participate in variety shows and publicity activities, and how much money is paid for what songs to sing and which movies and TV series to participate in.

Chapter 1986

Some even sell their bodies for money.

But Sara is an exception.

Money really has no practical meaning to her.

What's more, after she reunited with Charlie, she had already made plans to quit the entertainment circle.

She wanted to quit the entertainment circle first, and then after Charlie had dealt with his current marital problems, she would marry him, and then concentrate on helping her husband and raising children at home.

Even, she had already thought that when the concert tour reached the final stage, she will announce her withdrawal at the concert site and stay away from all music, film and television and TV programs.

Therefore, the kind of cooperation mentioned by Zhiyu is even more uninterested in her.

So she bluntly said: "I'm sorry, Zhiyu, I have no plans to find a title sponsor for this concert tour, and the relevant materials for the concert promotion have already been made, and some online platforms have already started its promotion. At this time, it's too late to sign the agreement, and it's too late to modify the promotional materials that have already been prepared."

Zhiyu hurriedly said: "Why? Sister Sara, as long as you can nod your head, we will have no problem even getting on the bus halfway."

With that, she quickly winked at Zhifei.

Zhifei on the side hurriedly said: "The thing is Miss Sara, I want to combine this sponsorship with your concert, and then do a large-scale public welfare promotion. As long as you nod, I can help each The concert will provide a sponsorship fee of 10 million. By that time, all the million will be donated to charity in the name of Miss Sara. The purpose of this money will be dedicated to improving the living environment and quality of education for orphans. , What do you think?"

When Sara heard this, she suddenly hesitated.

Originally, she had made up her mind to refuse directly, but she did not expect that Zhifei would actually cooperate with her in a charitable way.

Moreover, it is a charity action specifically aimed at orphans.

At this moment, it touched the softest part of her heart.

At first, after reuniting with Charlie and learning that Charlie had lived in the orphanage for ten years, Sara always felt distressed for Charlie's hard childhood and teenage years.

If a person has grown up and entered society, it is not a big deal to endure some hardship. After all, that kind of life is also a kind of discipline.

However, if childhood suffers too much, it is probably an experience that is difficult for anyone to let go of.

After all, childhood is a period of innocence and sunshine, and it is too important for anyone.

If you have a good childhood, even when you think about it in your 70s or 80s, it can still make people feel happy.

If you have a bad childhood, you will be shrouded in a powerful shadow for the rest of your life.

Because she loves Charlie, Sara also loves other orphans who have similar experiences with Charlie.

At this moment, she was somewhat ashamed in her heart, and she couldn't help but think to herself: "I'm so stupid! Actually, I should have thought of doing something for other orphans, why should I wait for others to remind..."

Thinking of this, she said, "Let's do this, Mr. Su, since it's charity, using your money in my name, I really don't dare to take it, it's better for me and your cosmetics company to do this together. Well, for every concert, your cosmetics company donated 10 million, and I personally donated 10 million!"

Chapter 1987

Hearing Sara's promise, Zhifei was immediately overjoyed.

Immediately, he looked at his sister Zhiyu, his face was full of admiration.

At this moment, Zhifei really admires the five bodies that his sister Zhiyu admires.

He knew that although his sister was a few years younger than him, her brain was much easier to use than his!

In the name of charity, to persuade Sara to accept the naming cooperation is also a solution that Zhiyu figured out a long time ago.

Zhiyu has analyzed Sara, she is not short of money, second love, and third suitors. It is not easy for ordinary men to impress her.

Don't talk about pursuing her, even if you want to cooperate with her, it is difficult to reach the sky.

Therefore, Zhiyu felt that if he wanted to impress Sara, he has to find another way.

She thought that Sara once had a fiancé arranged by her parents and that the fiancé's life and death are uncertain. She felt that he could impress Sara by doing charity for orphans.

After all, a child who has been missing for many years has two possibilities. Either he has not been alive long ago, or he has been growing up as an orphan.

Therefore, she felt that Sara would definitely not refuse as long as her Brother arranged the charity for orphans.

As predicted!

Sara was in his arms completely!

So, Zhifei was very excited and said: "Miss Sara, in this case, let's wait for the contract to be signed in the next year, and then I will arrange for payment directly."

Sara nodded and said, "Since each donation is 10 million, then you don't need to pay my agency. Before each concert starts, we will each donate 10 million to local charities. That's all right, don't know what Mr. Su wants?"

Of course, Zhifei didn't have the slightest opinion, and said without hesitation: "No problem! Absolutely no problem! Just follow the way Miss Sara said!"

Sara is actually a little selfish.

Her first concert tour a year later is in Aurous Hill, and Aurous Hill is where Charlie has lived for so many years, so deep in her heart, she hopes to donate a sum of money to Aurous Hill's charity first.

At that time, the money can even be used to improve and expand the welfare home where Charlie grew up.

After all, there are more than one billion people in the country. If you donate the money directly to the Charity Federation, you may not be able to give it to Aurous Hill.

Instead of this, it is better to donate 20 million directly.

Zhifei didn't know Sara's plan. He had been paying close attention to Sara, so he knew that Sara's first concert after the year was selected in Aurous Hill.

However, because of his sister's previous reminder, he pretended to be curious and asked: "By the way, Miss Sara, don't know where your first concert this year is?"

Sara immediately said: "The first concert is in Aurous Hill, on the second day of the second month of the lunar calendar."

Zhifei nodded and said with a smile: "Aurous Hill is not far away, and we can fly there in two hours. Since we have also reached a cooperation, then I will go to Aurous Hill to cheer for Miss Sara, by the way, I will personally promise to donate to the Aurous Hill Charity Foundation!"

Chapter 1988

Sara smiled slightly: "Then I will thank Mr. Su on behalf of the Aurous Hill orphanage."

Zhifei hurriedly waved his hand: "Where and where, this should be done. What's more, I donate the money, which is actually used to make a donation to the Buddha. The money was originally intended to be used as a sponsorship fee. Thank goes to Miss Sara, not me."

Sara smiled for some reason and then said, "Mr. Su, since the cooperation has been decided, let's wait for the actual progress in a few years. I still have something to do now. I have to lose my company first."

As soon as Zhiyu heard this, she quickly stood up and said with a smile: "Sister Sara, you are busy in advance, we won't bother!"

Sara nodded lightly and said, "Then I'll let the two of you out."

After finishing speaking, she called the servants at home and said: "Auntie, please help me send the guests."

A middle-aged maid walked over immediately and said respectfully: "Two guests, please."

Zhifei felt a little bit reluctant, but he stood up and said to Sara, Philip, and Lenan: "Miss Sara, Uncle, Auntie, we will leave now."

Philip nodded, and said nonchalantly, "Go slow."

Lenan smiled and said politely: "Then we won't give away two people, and the road will be slow."

Zhiyu hurriedly said, "Auntie, visit us at home when you have time."

Lenan politely said: "Well, if you have time, come to the mansion to visit."

With a few simple greetings, the family servant sent the Su family's siblings out.

After the two left, Philip couldn't help frowning, and muttered: "I always feel that the two young people of the Su family are strange."

Lenan nodded and said, "I have this feeling too, it seems a little unnatural."

After all, Lenan said again: "It might have something to do with what they encountered in Japan some time ago? After all, the incident was quite a big deal. It is said that if the mysterious person did not save them, the two of them might have had trouble, even died in Japan."

Philip nodded and said with emotion: "Hey, I heard that Zynn also went to Japan at that time. Why didn't he die in Japan?"

Lenan seriously asked: "You, don't talk nonsense, Zynn is also the quasi-patriarch of the Su family now. We really can't afford him. If you talk nonsense like this, don't you cause trouble for yourself when you spread it out?"

Philip gritted his teeth and said: "That old b@stard Zynn, this grandson is the most dmn thing! Back then, how many times did the older brother Changying have the chance to kill him directly, and in the end, he was relieved to let him go. Later, that villain's cheeks and avengers! It's so fcking disgusting!"

Lenan patted him on the back and comforted him: "If you are done, don't worry about these things anymore. Even if you are recovering from a serious illness now, our family is not the opponent of the Su family. Zynn's hatred, etc. After Charlie returns to Eastcliff in the future, you two will join hands to report!"

Philip nodded repeatedly and said seriously: "You're right! One day Charlie returned to Eastcliff, and marries our daughter, and inherited the entire Wade family. At that time, I see what else the Su family can do!"

Sara on the side was more or less embarrassed and whispered: "Oh, Dad...you haven't said anything about the marriage between Charlie and me, don't forget that he is married now... .."

Philip waved his hand and said firmly, "Sara, don't worry, Charlie will marry you within three years!"

Sara was a little shy and asked in surprise, "Dad...you...how are you so sure?"

Philip looked at Sara and said very solemnly: "Charlie's personality and his style of behavior are too much like your Uncle Wade. Based on this alone, I dare to conclude that Charlie will follow his parents' arrangements before death, we will marry you!"

Chapter 1989

Zhifei and Zhiyu were on the way back, Zhifei drove, and Zhiyu sat in the passenger.

It can be seen that Zhifei is in a very good mood, and is happy from ear to ear.

Seeing this, Zhiyu smiled helplessly, and said, "Brother, I've done this for you. You must help me looking for a benefactor!"

Zhifei blurted out without hesitation: "Zhiyu, don't hesitate to put a ten thousand heart, the brother must go all out, even if you blind my eyes, I will help you find your benefactor!"

Zhiyu nodded with satisfaction: "You have a conscience!"

At this time, Zhifei couldn't help sighing again: "Hey...there are too many video materials. Only the two of us have seen Benevolence. I can't ask others for help. I really don't know that more information, let's see when we go."

Zhiyu said: "I have already figured out a general operation method, which should save us a lot of effort."

Zhifei hurriedly asked: "What method of operation? Tell me quickly."

Zhiyu explained: "Although only the two of us have seen the face of Grace, others cannot directly help us find someone from the video material, but they can at least help us do a simple screening!"

"First of all, I can ask the Su staff to help me pass all the female passengers in the airport video, regardless of men, women, young or old, and then pass all men, including all whites, blacks, and browns. The remaining male passengers with yellow skin will be screened out for the male passengers who appear to be underage, the middle-aged male passengers who seem to be over 30 years old, and the older middle-aged and elderly passengers! Adult young travelers who are about 18 to 28 years old.”

“Then I ask them to crop all the frontal photos of eligible young male travelers in the video!”

“In this case, we don’t have to keep watching the video material forever, and hundreds of people can help us watch it!”

“Let them help us screen out eligible travelers and take a screenshot of his front. We only need to look for Grace in all the clear photos from the screenshots!”

When Zhifei heard this, he said excitedly: “Yes, you know! Your brains turn really fast. According to you, we don’t have to watch the video. We just have to wait for others to watch the video. Cut out the picture, and then look for someone who looks like the benefactor from the picture!”

“Yes!” Zhiyu nodded and said: “If we find that the young traveler on a screenshot looks like a good friend, then we will find the person who intercepted the picture and ask him to intercept it. The video will be picked directly.”

“In this case, we can combine the video to make a clearer judgment whether this person is a good-natured man!”

“If it is, then we can follow the video at the time to find out the entire trajectory at the airport, and we can naturally judge which flight he took and where he left Japan to the country. A city, and then we can go directly to that city to find him!”

Zhifei gave Zhiyu a thumbs up, and said sincerely: “Awesome! I believe that with this method, you should be able to find out the traces of Grace in a few days!”

.....

At this moment, Charlie, who was far away in Aurous Hill, didn’t know that Zhiyu was one step closer to finding him.

After he and his father-in-law gathered the gifts they received, according to the original plan, they drove to the largest supermarket nearby to purchase the goods for the New Year.

Because the New Year is about to come, so many people come out to shop and purchase, and there are people and cars everywhere.

Charlie had queued for more than half an hour after parking, and finally, he was lined up to a parking space.

After Jacob and his son-in-law parked the car, they came to the supermarket and found that there were more people in the supermarket, almost people next to each other, and the whole supermarket was in an overloaded state.

Chapter 1990

To make matters worse, because the Chinese New Year is about to come, many employees have already gone home on holiday. The passenger flow in the supermarket has doubled than usual, but the number of staff is less than usual. Therefore, all kinds of jobs in the supermarket staff are in a shortage.

There is a shortage of salespersons, cleaners, and cashiers. Even the staff responsible for weighing are far from enough. You have to wait in line for ten minutes to buy a la carte.

Seeing so many people inside, Jacob was very frustrated and said, "Hey! I should go out early to buy so that I can lie at home and watch TV without having to come here to join in the fun!"

"Yes." Charlie smiled helplessly, and said, "I wanted to come yesterday, but mom was hurt."

Jacob hummed: "Don't mention that stinky woman, she is making trouble all day long!"

Having said that, Jacob couldn't help but sigh: "You said she caused so many things all day long, why didn't she break the law? If she accidentally touched the high-voltage line of the law and put her in jail for several years, then How great it would be!"

Charlie couldn't help being dumb, and smiled: "Dad if Claire hears you, don't know how sad she should be."

Jacob hurriedly said, "Hey, I'm just talking to you, don't tell Claire!"

Charlie nodded: "I know, don't worry."

Jacob sighed and said, "Hey, let's not talk about her, let's quickly buy the ingredients for the New Year's Eve dinner."

Charlie said, "Then let's start with the vegetable section. The first one to enter the supermarket has to buy vegetables because if you don't pay attention to this dish, the rest will be picked by others and what we get will not be fresh."

As they talked, they came to the vegetable area.

Although the vegetable area is large, the shelves are densely arranged, and the aisles left in the middle are relatively narrow, which makes it easy to be crowded with more people.

Charlie and Jacob were pushing the shopping cart into it, and suddenly they heard someone yelling: "You dead old woman, are you blind? Didn't you see me mopping the floor? Don't you hurry away?"

At this time, they heard a familiar voice again, and an old woman said in a solemn and aggrieved voice: "Gena...why are you always mopping the floor under my feet? Your mop has been dragged under my feet a dozen times back and forth!"

It was Mrs. Willson who spoke!

At this time, she is wearing a green vest for supermarket employees, holding a roll of breakpoint plastic bags for grocery shopping.

And in front of her, stood a woman of five big and three thick, also wearing a green vest.

This woman is Gena!

At this moment, Gena was standing in front of her with a mop and deliberately poke her feet with the mop.

Mrs. Willson was almost knocked down by her several times, but she could only grab the edge of the shelf and begged bitterly: "Gena, all the previous mistakes were all my fault. Please look at my age. , Don't have grudges with me!"

Gena glared at her and said contemptuously: "Now you know to beg for mercy? Were you not very arrogant before? Were you not very arrogant when you scolded me?"

Mrs. Willson dare not speak when she yelled.

Gena continued to sneer and said, "I think of you as Mrs. Willson riding in a luxury car and living in a villa. How moist your life is! I didn't expect that you old thing are just a donkey sh!t! It looks like five people. Actually, it's not as good as a piece of sh!t! You despised me so much yesterday, don't you still have to work in the same supermarket as me?"

Chapter 1991

The noise of the two immediately attracted Jacob's attention.

He looked at his mother and was speechless in surprise.

After a while, he asked Charlie: "Good son-in-law, um... is that my mother? Am I wrong?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Dad, you are right, it is indeed her."

Jacob exclaimed: "She... how does she wear the staff vest?! Did she come here to work?"

Charlie nodded: "It looks like this."

Jacob said in surprise: "This is not right. Didn't Regnar inject capital into the Willson family? He also bought them a first-grade Tomson villa. It stands to reason that their family should be living well now!"

Jacob didn't know what happened in the past two days. He didn't even know that Elaine was kidnapped by his own elder brother and nephew, not to mention that Regnar had already given up a considerable part of his family assets and became a dog under Orvel.

Therefore, it is naturally not clear that the situation of Mrs. Willson and her family has changed drastically in these two days.

Charlie said at this time: "I heard that it seems that Regnar has withdrawn his capital."

"Withdrawn capital?" Jacob exclaimed, "This Regnar is too unreliable. He said that he would withdraw his investment? Then why did he divest? I believe that with his assets, he doesn't care about the investment in the Willson Group, it is just some money?"

Charlie shrugged and said with a smile: "We don't know this."

As they were talking, they saw Gina poking the old lady's ankle a few times with the mop, and said in disgust: "You bad old lady get out of the way quickly, it affects my mopping!"

Old Mrs. Willson choked and said, "Gina, the job arranged by the supermarket leader is here to help customers pull plastic bags. If I don't do it well, I will be fired. I beg you, don't have trouble with me!"

Gina snorted coldly: "I originally respected you very much, but you should know what you did this yourself. This is called self-inflict!"

As she said, Gina sneered and gritted her teeth: "I tell you a dead old woman, don't think I am a rural old lady with no culture, but my bones are very hard! And I especially don't like those who look down on me! It doesn't matter if you beat me, but you shouldn't insult me!"

After finishing speaking, she put away the mop, and when she passed by Mrs. Willson, she deliberately bumped her and slammed her into the shelf next to her, making her grin in pain.

However, after Gina hit her, she didn't continue to pester her, and took the mop to other places to mop the floor.

The old lady Willson stood still, the more she thought about it, the more she was wronged.

She thought to herself with grief and anger in her heart: "I have been in the Willson family for so many years, when have I been bullied like this?! It is really unreasonable!"

"What's even more unacceptable is that I am so old now that I have to come out to do this kind of undignified temporary worker!"

"For these years, I have been in Willson's house, but I haven't even washed a teacup myself! Now, I have to pull plastic bags for various customers in the supermarket to save their time!"

"But, what else can I do if I don't do it?"

"I don't do it, I don't even have a chance to fill my stomach..."

"I work here as a part-time worker, and at least get a pay of 100 yuan a day, and I can manage a meal at noon..."

"If I don't do it, neither Horiyah nor Gina will give me a bite of food..."

"Will I starve to death by then?"

Thinking of this, Mrs. Willson felt so aggrieved that she stood by the shelf, sobbing.

Seeing this, Jacob felt a little bit unbearable in his heart, and said to Charlie: "Charlie, I think your grandma is really pitiful too, she will definitely come to work in such a place as a last resort... ."

Chapter 1992

Charlie asked him, "Dad, do you have any plans?"

Charlie didn't know what Jacob's mood was at this time, but saw that he was somewhat unbearable, so he thought he might want to help the old lady.

At this time, he saw Jacob and said: "Seeing his mother living such a life and doing such a job with his own eyes, he, as a son, must be very sad, and it is not easy to stand by.

Speaking of this, Jacob suddenly changed his conversation, covered his eyes, and said, "But, I didn't see anything! It was an illusion just now!"

After speaking, he quickly turned around and said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, let's go buy some fish, shrimp, meat and eggs first. As for the vegetables, we should buy them from a supermarket, what do you think?"

Charlie didn't know what he meant, and immediately said with a smile: "Yes, Dad, I think the same as you, the food in this supermarket is really not very fresh. See if there are any larger Boston lobsters, and if so, buy a few homes!"

Jacob smiled, pointed his finger at Charlie, and exclaimed: "You still know me! Come, let's buy lobster!"

Although Jacob felt more or less sympathetic to his mother's experience.

However, he is not a fool.

He had already seen clearly the face of the old lady for so many years.

When he dared to go out with family, there was really no kindness at all, and even less thought of blood.

When she pitted his daughter Claire, the start was just as cruel.

Later, the Willson family failed. In order to be able to live in his Tomson first-class villa, she also deliberately did a lot of disgusting things.

Jacob was tired of these faces.

Therefore, he also hopes that reality can teach Mrs. Willson a profound lesson.

Before Mrs. Willson repented completely, he did not intend to give her any help.

Jacob and his son-in-law bought a lot of things, but they didn't go back to the vegetable area to purchase. After a cart full of various ingredients, the two went to the cashier with the cart to checkout.

In the cash register area at this time, a long line was lined up in front of every cash register.

Charlie and Jacob lined up for more than 20 minutes before they finally reached one of the cash registers.

Seeing that it was his turn to check out, Jacob hurriedly walked to the shopping cart and said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, you will scan the code with the cashier at the back, and I will put the bag in front."

Charlie nodded, Jacob walked into the cashier aisle first, and before Charlie picked up the goods, he said to the cashier: "Come on four plastic bags, the largest one."

The cashier nodded and said, "Five cents a big bag."

After speaking, he lowered his head and took out four large plastic bags from the drawer beside him and handed them to Jacob.

Jacob took the plastic bag, looked up subconsciously, and immediately exclaimed: "Oh, sister-in-law?! Why are you here?"

"Huh?! It's... it's you?!"

In front of the cashier, Horiyah, who was wearing a supermarket employee's vest, looked at Jacob and was equally shocked!

She never dreamed that when she was forced to be helpless, run out to work as a temporary worker, and become a cashier, she would run into Jacob!

Look at the young man who went out of the shopping cart on the other side. Isn't he the trash son-in-law of the Willson family, Charlie?

When Horiyah saw that Charlie took out a thick plastic bag containing several top-quality large lobsters, she thought sourly in her heart: "I've been hungry for a day and night, and I have stood here hungry all morning. , I haven't waited for lunch at the supermarket. They've done it, and they bought a big bag of lobsters of this size! The two families who also live in Tomson, how can the difference in living standards be so big!"

Chapter 1993

Charlie also saw Horiyah at this time.

Seeing her wearing a supermarket green vest, he suddenly felt a little funny.

What he thought of was when Horiyah was doing coolies in the black coal kiln.

Wonder if the black coal kiln gave Horiyah the work clothes at that time?

Don't even know what Horiyah looks like in black coal mine work clothes.

Horiyah felt extremely uncomfortable at this time.

She really had a hard hatred for Charlie.

When she set Elaine, Charlie rushed over and broke her good deeds.

That's not counting.

The worst thing was that Charlie donated all her money to charity and then sent her to the black coal mine.

Thinking of the time in the black coal kiln, Horiyah felt uncomfortable and wanted to die, and she couldn't help yelling angrily: "D@mn Charlie! It was he who sent me into the black coal kiln and I spent so many days in the black coal kiln. , I paid so much, but got a whole body of venereal diseases and a child, if it weren't for him, how could I be so miserable today..."

The more she thought about it, the more she gritted her teeth at Charlie.

So, seeing Charlie come to buy something, she immediately said with a cold face: "Thank you for changing the cash register, I am temporarily suspending service!"

Charlie was not angry, and smiled and said, "Auntie, aren't you bullying the honest people? We have been in line for so long before we get to the front. So many people have also checked out before, so how come we are here the service is suspended?"

Horiyah said annoyedly: "I want to take a break, can't we suspend the service? Do you think this supermarket belongs to you? Follow me here! I tell you, I just won't tie it to you today! You love it. It's impossible for me to find a knot!"

Jacob was dissatisfied, and with a bit of anger, he said, "I said Sister-in-law, you are a bit too much. We are the customers here, and the customer is God. You are the cashier here. You have to serve God well. Are you still standing up with us?"

When Horiyah heard him say that she has to serve the god, she was immediately furious, and she shouted: "Jacob, how do I say it is your sister-in-law? You serve, do you have a sense of respecting the old and loving the young in your heart? Get out of here! Don't bother me!"

Jacob exploded immediately and blurted out: "You are still an elder brother's wife. It's like a mother. You are a stinky lady who deserves to say these words to me?"

Horiyah slammed the code scanner in her hand and shouted angrily: "Jacob, who the hell do you think you are?!"

Jacob pouted his lips: "Say it, why? Can't I?"

Horiyah bitterly said: "You...you...you...you say one more thing, I will scratch your old face!"

At this moment, a man in a full uniform shouted angrily: "No.8, what are you doing?! Why did you yell at the guests?!"

Horiyah was shocked immediately!

Looking up, it turned out to be the manager of the cashier department!

For fear of offending the leader of the supermarket, she was swept out, so she hurriedly explained with a smile: "I'm sorry, manager, I met my relatives, so I just made a joke."

After that, she pointed to Jacob and said, "This person is called Jacob. He is my husband's biological brother, my relative, don't mind!"

Hearing this, the manager of the cashier department eased a little.

Recently, supermarket cashiers are in short supply. The cashier manager often looks at a large number of customers waiting in line to check out. Many customers even call the group to complain because the cashier time is too long, and he is also very troubled.

Chapter 1994

Originally, Horiyah came to look for a job today, and she applied for a day job for one hundred yuan.

However, after chatting for a few words, he heard that Horiyah had studied at university, so he asked her to try to collect cash.

The cashier work is not too tiring, and one hundred and five a day, fifty more than the handyman type of work, so Horiyah naturally agreed happily.

If there is no problem, the manager is naturally willing to let Horiyah continue to do it, but if she dared to scold customers at the cashier, then this person would definitely not be able to stay.

Fortunately, she was joking with her relatives, so there is nothing to be harsh.

So, the manager reminded: "You still need to pay attention to the impact in the workplace, and your relatives should not make jokes in the workplace, understand?"

Horiyah nodded her head hurriedly, and said flatly, "Don't worry, there will be no next time!"

The manager hummed, turned and prepared to leave.

At this time, Jacob said, "Hey, are you the manager here?"

The manager turned around again: "Yes, I am."

Jacob said coldly: "I want to complain to you!"

The manager asked in surprise: "You complained against me? Why?"

Jacob pointed to Horiyah and said angrily: "The employee under your hand has personally attacked and verbally abused me for no reason. You don't even want to ask! This is an obvious dereliction of duty! Do you usually condone your subordinates like this?"

The manager looked puzzled: "Aren't you two relatives?"

Jacob cursed: "Bah! Who is her relative?"

The manager was even more puzzled, pointing to Horiyah: "She said it!"

Jacob said contemptuously: "Believe what she says? It seems that you are indeed negligent! I also said that you two are relatives! Otherwise, how could you indulge and shield her so much?!"

The manager sighed in his heart and asked hurriedly, "Sir, are you not relatives with Horiyah?"

Jacob raised his head high and said coldly: "Of course not! I don't even know her! My son-in-law and I came to buy things, and the queue finally arrived at us for a long time, but she insisted that she wants to rest and let us go. The other team, isn't this deliberately making things difficult? And she just said rudely to me, you should have heard?!"

The manager panicked, and quickly looked at Horiyah, and asked, "What the hell is going on?! If you don't tell me clearly, you don't have to do it!"

Horiyah was also terrified!

When she saw Jacob and Charlie, she unconsciously had a fit of strong anger in her heart, so no matter what it was, she gave Jacob a start.

But what she didn't expect was that Jacob went to complain to her manager!

Isn't this about breaking your own job? !

Thinking of this, she hurriedly pleaded: "Jacob, please tell the manager, we are a family, and I am your sister-in-law. If I did something bad, I apologize to you, but don't take it. My job is not a joke, I beg you, okay?"

Jacob glared at her, and said to the manager: "Look at this person, and I'm still talking about her. I fucking don't know her. She opens her mouth and is my sister-in-law, shut up still my sister-in-law. You can bear it instead of me. I can't stand it?"

Horiyah hurriedly explained: "Manager! Don't listen to his nonsense! I am really his sister-in-law!"

Jacob looked at the manager, patted him on the shoulder, and asked him blankly: "If I say now, I am really your father, do you believe it?"

Chapter 1995

When the manager of the supermarket cashier department heard this, he immediately understood.

"It turns out that this Horiyah not only clashed with customers, but also yelled at them, and even called names in front of customers, it was totally unreasonable!"

"This kind of person, leaving her here to do this job, I don't know how many customers will be offended. Maybe it will hurt me in the end!"

"No! This kind of person, I must let her go right away!"

Thinking of this, the cashier manager said sharply without hesitation: "Ms. Horiyah, I kindly asked you to be a temporary worker. I didn't expect your attitude towards customers to be so bad! In that case, I don't think you need to do it anymore. Get out the cash register key, take off your vest now, and leave immediately!"

Horiyah collapsed!

She thought to herself: "I came here early in the morning to find a job, and spent the whole morning exhausted!"

"It seems that it's almost time for the lunch shift to eat, and I was looking forward to going to the staff canteen for a violent meal and filling my stomach. I didn't expect to be fired by the manager!"

"In this way, not only I will miss my lunch at noon, but my salary of 150 yuan a day will also be gone!"

Thinking of this, Horiyah cried and pleaded: "Manager! I beg you, the manager, don't fire me, I'm waiting for this job to support my family!"

With that said, Horiyah hurriedly grabbed the manager's arm and choked, "Manager, my husband and my son are paralyzed in bed at home. They haven't eaten a bite of food from yesterday to now, just waiting for me to make some money. Go home and buy rice for cooking! I beg your mercy, please spare me this time, I will never dare anymore!"

The manager said contemptuously: "Horiyah, you are too good at making up stories. The front foot said that the client is your little uncle, and the back foot said that your husband and your son are paralyzed in bed at home. What age are these? Is there such a miserable family? What are you talking about here?"

Horiyah cried and said, "Manager! I really didn't bully, manager!"

After that, she looked at Jacob and cried and said, "Jacob, I beg you to be honest with the manager and beg for me. Your brother and Harold are now crippled. I have to rely on this pay to feed them!"

Jacob curled his lips: "You are really interesting. Is it interesting to be always messing around here? Just now, for no reason, you said that I was your little uncle. Now you have another brother for me? Isn't it over?"

The manager reprimanded loudly and angrily: "Horiyah, if you don't get out, I will let the security guard drive you out!"

Horiyah saw that the matter was irreversible, she gave Jacob a bitter look and then said to the manager: "If this is the case, please settle the morning salary, one hundred and five a day, I did this all morning. You have to give me an eighty or a hundred, right?"

The manager immediately scolded: "I found that you are really not so thick-skinned. You have to do the job like this, and you still have the face to ask me for money? Get out! Get out!"

Horiyah annoyed and said, "If you don't give me money, then I won't leave!"

After all, she turned off the computer at the cash register, and then stood on the spot with her hands on her chest, if he didn't give her money, she would not go anywhere and follow it to the end.

At this time, the manager directly called several security guards and blurted out: "Take off the vest from this woman, and get her out!"

Several security guards stepped forward without saying anything, set up Horiyah and dragged her out abruptly.

Chapter 1996

Horiyah collapsed and shouted: "Why are you dragging me out?! Why don't you pay me the salary?!"

However, no matter how loud she yelled, no one would pity her, let alone sympathize with her.

Seeing that Horiyah was dragged out of the supermarket, the manager said to Charlie and Jacob with a look of guilt: "You two, I'm really sorry for this matter. It's my improper employment. I apologize to you two!"

Jacob nodded and said, "You are not the main fault of this matter, but you must also be responsible. This is called improper employment!"

Later, Jacob sighed and said with emotion: "Yes, after all, you still don't have a good vision."

The manager nodded awkwardly: "You are right to criticize, I must improve a lot in the future!"

Jacob stretched out his hand and patted him on the shoulder, and said in a tone of a predecessor's a little bit of a younger generation, "Hone more!"

"Yes, yes!" The manager kept nodding, and then hurriedly greeted a cashier who had just returned from a shift after eating, and said: "Boy, hurry up and settle the accounts for these two guests. It has been a long time for them!"

The cashier hurried over, turned on the computer, and paid for Charlie and Jacob.

Jacob and his son-in-law left the supermarket and drove directly to a relatively large vegetable wholesale market in Aurous Hill. As for the old lady Willson and Horiyah, neither of them took it seriously.

After Horiyah was driven out of the supermarket, she hadn't dripped rice for dozens of hours. The hungry person was dizzy and her chest was on her back, almost on the verge of fainting.

She really didn't have the energy to find another temporary worker, so she could only walk home.

As soon as she returned to Tomson's villa, Horiyah sat down on the sofa, and didn't even have the strength to lift her eyelids.

Wendy, who had been taking care of Noah and Harold at home, heard the movement downstairs and hurried down to check. Horiyah was lying halfway on the sofa and asked in surprise, "Mom, didn't you go out to find a job? How come you came back?"

Horiyah cursed and said: "Don't mention it! Damn it! I'm so angry!"

Wendy hurriedly asked: "Mom, what happened?"

Horiyah's eyes were red, tears burst out, and she choked up: "I went out with your grandma to find a job, and found that the supermarket is now recruiting a large number of temporary workers, and the wages can be settled daily, so we went in and consulted. Your grandma is old. She was asked to go to the vegetable area to help customers pull plastic bags and let me be a cashier..."

Speaking of this, Horiyah was sobbing and crying emotionally: "Who knows, I met Jacob and Charlie, two b@stards who had shopped thousands of yuans! I lost all my work... .."

As soon as Wendy heard this, she gritted her teeth angrily: "They are too much too! How can they deceive people so much!"

After that, she hurriedly asked: "Mom, did they pay for this half-day? If you want to, you will give me some first, I will buy some steamed buns, and then go to the small restaurant to fry two dishes and bring them back."

At this point, Wendy's eyes were red, and she whimpered: "Dad and brother have been hungry and crying in bed for several times. It's so pitiful..."

Horiyah burst into tears when she heard this, and said with a beating, "I blame Jacob that b@stard! I was kicked out by the manager and worked all morning without paying me a penny... .."

Chapter 1997

Horiyah suddenly felt that now this ghost life is not as good as in the black coal mine.

While crying, she recalled her life in the black coal kiln, and she couldn't help sighing: "At the black coal kiln, although the environment was a bit worse, at least after I was with the supervisor, I could eat every day!"

"Not only you don't have to go hungry, but you don't have to work hard every day. It's cool to think about it."

"And...and...and that supervisor, although the person was a bit ugly and dirty, but his ability in that area was indeed very strong. On a certain level, she had also experienced it. An unprecedented feeling..."

Thinking of this, Horiyah sighed, crying and said to Wendy beside her: "Wendy, what do you mean by this family? What kind of life is this? It's not this or that thing all day long, I had some money It's all lost, and company went bankrupt. Now that I live in someone else's villa, I don't even have a stutter. When will I be heady in these days..."

Wendy couldn't help crying, and choked up: "Mom, I don't even think about it. Our family has been very good before, and all aspects were pretty good. I had a very good relationship with Gerald, and we were about to get married. Suddenly, every day it got worse..."

Horiyah sighed and said, "I have to go to the temple to worship another day. If this continues, my life will be lost..."

Wendy said: "Mom, let me think about it now. Our family is beginning to get bad luck. It seems that it started after grandma's previous birthday."

"Huh?" Horiyah asked in astonishment: "Which time was the birthday?"

Wendy said: "Just last time, last birthday banquet, Gerald gave grandma a Hetian jade Buddha, Wendell who pursued Claire, and sent grandma a jade amulet."

Horiyah nodded: "I remember that Wendell Jones's jade amulet is worth a lot of money. It is said to be worth three or four million..."

Speaking of this, Horiyah lamented regretfully: "What a pity! That jade amulet, along with your grandma's other antique jewelry, was sealed by the bank."

Wendy said: "At that birthday banquet, Charlie also asked grandmother to borrow money, saying that he was going to see that aunt in that welfare house, do you remember?"

"Remember." Horiyah gritted her teeth and cursed: "Charlie's stinky hanging silk, borrowing money at the birthday banquet, really brave. Finally, your grandma scolded him so badly. I am happy when I think of it!"

Wendy said: "I don't want to say this, I want to say, I always feel that since that night, our family has started to be unlucky..."

"Really?" Horiyah frowned and asked her, "What was the first unfortunate thing?"

Wendy hurriedly said: "The first thing is the day after the birthday banquet! I went to the Emgrand Group with Gerald and wanted to send invitations to the Vice Chairman of Emgrand Group Doris. By the way, I also climbed up the relationship, and ended up in the Emgrand Group I ran into Charlie..."

"Charlie?" Horiyah asked, "Why did Charlie go there?"

Wendy said: "Charlie said at the time that he was applying for a job in the Emgrand Group, and then Gerald and I mocked him, and then something strange happened..."

"What?!"

Chapter 1998

Wendy said: "I went upstairs with Gerald to meet Doris Young, but she did not see us, and asked people to say that Emgrand Group would not cooperate with our low-quality garbage. Then Gerald was beaten by Emgrand security guards."

After that, Wendy said again: "After that, the Emgrand Group terminated the cooperation with Gerald and his family. Gerald's father and uncle were very angry. Since then, he gradually became estranged from me. Then his uncle Solmon didn't know what was going on, he walked very close to Charlie, and he gave Charlie the big villa next door..."

"After that, the Emgrand Group contract Claire negotiated, which was terminated by the Emgrand Group because of grandma's refusal. Since then, our family has started to go downhill..."

"Wendell Jones pursued Claire, chasing after her, his family went bankrupt, and he disappeared from the world for no reason..."

"Gao Junwei of the Gao family also pursued Claire, but disappeared with his dad Gao Jianjun. The Gao family is still offering a huge reward to find their whereabouts..."

"Fredmen Willson came to our house, originally wanting to support our house, but was beaten by Charlie. Not only did he lose his ability to be a man, he also returned to Eastcliff in despair..."

"Fredmen later gave me to Barena Wei. Barena also looked down upon Charlie. As a result, Barena and his father also disappeared. Now the company is inherited by his illegitimate son, and I also heard that the two of them are now digging ginseng at the foot of Changbai Mountain. Not sure whether it is true....."

Horiyah's hungry chest was pressed against her back. Hearing this, she suddenly sat up, slammed the coffee table, and yelled angrily: "That dog Charlie! He sent me to the black coal kiln. Yes! Fcuk! In my opinion, he is behind all this!"

Wendy hurriedly asked her: "Mom, can I say that Charlie has some hidden strength? Otherwise, how could he have such a big influence? No one is his opponent?!"

"Strength?" Horiyah pouted her lips and said contemptuously: "That orphan, what strength can he have? He doesn't deserve to mention strength!"

Wendy asked back: "Then how can he let so many big people respect him? This proves that he must still have some abilities that we don't know."

Horiyah gritted her teeth and said: "His ability is to bluff!"

Wendy shook her head and said, "I think he must still have real skills, otherwise it is impossible for so many big people to be deceived by him..."

With that said, Wendy said seriously: "Maybe he really knows something about Feng Shui! Maybe he used Feng Shui behind our back to give us some tricks, so our family will be more and more unlucky!"

Horiyah suddenly stared her eyes wide, and blurted out: "You say that, it seems that there is some truth to it! He must have done the kind of feng shui bureau for us, making us more and more unlucky, and he is getting more and more lucky. Amazing!"

Wendy nodded hurriedly and said, "I think that's what eight achievements are like! Otherwise, how could he become so powerful all of a sudden? Mom, we have to think of a way!"

Horiyah cried and said, "What can I do? We can't even eat food now. If we want to fight with Charlie and his family, we must at least have a backer!"

Wendy hurriedly said: "I'm not talking about fighting Charlie, mother, we haven't fought him before, now it's even more impossible..."

With that said, Wendy said earnestly: "Mom, what Claire said is my cousin, Claire is my cousin no matter what, we might as well take the initiative to show him good, and then ask them to help us. Even I can be a junioir for him!"

Chapter 1999

When Horiyah heard Wendy say that she was willing to be a junior for Charlie, she was immediately anxious.

She blurted out: "Wendy! Are you crazy? It's not good for you to be a junior. If you have to be a junior, how can he be worthy of you?!"

Wendy sighed and said quietly, "Mom, now I really think that Charlie is actually quite good, handsome, responsible, and good character. He is much better than Gerald."

"What nonsense are you talking about!" Horiyah glared at her and blurted out: "Just like Charlie's stinky hanging silk, he's not worthy to lift your shoes!"

Wendy smiled bitterly and said, "In the past nearly a year, what's my own situation, can I still not know? I was the phoenix that soared in the sky before, and I fell straight down to the point where even a local chicken raised in the village is better than me."

As she said, Wendy couldn't help sobbing: "Mom, look at me now, my reputation is completely ruined, how can any man want to look at me anymore..."

Seeing Wendy in tears, Horiyah hugged her head distressedly, and comforted her: "Good girl, we can't think so, you know? Fame is a fart? How can it be more important to live well?"

Then, Horiyah said again: "Besides, you have a lot of money and have never followed a few men. Gerald is one, Fredmen is one, and Barena is one. Doesn't this add up to three men? You are twenty. It's a lot, what is it to have been with three men? How many girls have not graduated from college, and there are more men who they have sl3pt with. They are not afraid of their reputation being ruined. What is there to fear for you?"

Wendy cried and shook her head: "Mom, that's different. Falling in love in college is a small closed society. It doesn't matter what you do or do in four years. As long as you graduate, who else knows?"

"But I am different. When I was with Gerald, who didn't know about it in the Aurous Hill?"

"Later with Fredmen, everyone in the city knows it too!"

"Since then, my reputation has been bad. Everyone knows that I had a man who is older than my dad. Who can look down on me?"

"Not to mention that I was later used as a commodity by Fredmen and sent directly to Barena. This matter is even more known to Aurous Hill..."

Horiyah was full of pain and choked up: "My dear girl, I don't blame you for this, mother, and your father and your grandma! If we didn't see our eyes open, we could not push you into the fire pit."

After that, she raised her hand and slapped herself, and said angrily: "Mom, is sorry! Mom is not human!"

Wendy hurriedly grabbed her hand and cried and said, "Mom, I don't blame you for this. I also volunteered...I couldn't resist the temptation of money, and wanted to sacrifice myself in exchange for the glory of wealth. It has nothing to do with you, don't beat yourself like that..."

Horiyah cried and sighed: "What kind of evil do you think I have done! How can a good life be like this..."

Wendy nodded to the side and said, "I can no longer bear the days like this. To be honest, as long as I can live a stable life now, let alone Charlie as a junior. Even if Charlie's housekeeper, I am willing to..."

Speaking of this, Wendy cried and said: "To this day, I really start to envy Claire..."

"At first, everyone thought that she married a trash and ruined her life..."

"But who would have thought that the rubbish she married would treat her the same for four years..."

"Moreover, this rubbish, for her to work hard, beat and scold, even if the whole world laughs at him, he will not leave Claire half a step..."

"What's even more commendable is that this trash man can even counterattack and become Master who is respected by everyone in the upper class of Aurous Hill. Isn't this a proper super potential stock?"

"Look now, a man like Charlie is really the most reliable..."

"As for Gerald and his ilk, what can they do even if they have money?"

"At the critical moment, isn't the disaster approaching and flying separately?"

After listening to Wendy's words, Horiyah was taken aback for a moment, and immediately said with emotion: "You are right... Claire, this girl, looks stupid, she is really wise!"

Chapter 2000

"Others are looking at this, thinking about that, thinking about that and thinking about this, and they are looking at this, thinking about that, thinking about that and worrying about this, and they picked out a bunch of sh!t in the end instead..."

"By the way, Claire doesn't fight or grab or pick it up. The old man arranges for her a stinky sh!t, so she marry the stinky sh!t..."

"Who would have thought that the smelly sh!t will turn into gold one day..."

Wendy nodded and said seriously: "If there is a chance, I must get closer to Charlie. Even if he doesn't look down on me, it is good to give our family more or less help. At this time, everyone outside Unreliable, one by one is not as good as Charlie..."

Horiyah sighed and said, "Let's do it. Mom got excited just now and became hungry. I came back to the house and lie down for a while. When your grandma gets off work, we will have food... .."

.....

Mrs. Willson pulled plastic bags from customers all day in the supermarket.

The big roll of plastic bags like those in supermarkets ignited static electricity as soon as they were pulled. After a day of pulling, the old lady's hair became a little bit elegant.

However, Mrs. Willson was very satisfied.

Because at noon she had a free lunch provided by the supermarket staff canteen.

This is the most delicious meal that Mrs. Willson has ever eaten in her life.

There is nothing special about the food, not only is it not very tasty, but also there is not much oily water.

But Mrs. Willson has been hungry for too long.

At this time, giving her a bowl of white rice is already the delicacy and delicacy of God's gift. If she has another dish or two with meat and vegetables, her soul will fly.

After eating and drinking enough, the old lady became motivated, and she pulled up the plastic bag, and it was not so boring.

On the contrary, she gradually felt a little enjoyable.

Busy till 5 o'clock in the afternoon, supposedly it's time to get off work, the foreman came over and gave her one hundred yuan, and said to her: "Old lady, you did a good job today. Will you come tomorrow? It is the time when people are most lacking. If you come tomorrow, I will pay two hundred a day!"

"Really?" The old lady Willson was so happy, she put the hundred yuan into her pocket carefully, and said excitedly: "I'll come here tomorrow!"

The foreman nodded in satisfaction: "That's good, then you go back to rest first, tomorrow nine o'clock in the morning."

Old lady Willson excitedly agreed. Then, she suddenly remembered something and said: "Foreman, what time does the cafeteria open in the afternoon?"

The foreman said: "It's six o'clock in the afternoon."

Old lady Willson asked hurriedly, "Then...then can I go to the cafeteria for another meal?"

The foreman said with some embarrassment: "But an employee is issued a meal coupon and taken care of one meal a day. Haven't you already received the meal coupon at noon?"

When the old lady Willson heard this, she nodded with some disappointment: "Okay, then I will come again tomorrow!"

Seeing her lost look, the foreman couldn't bear to say: "Well, old lady, you have another shift and work till 7 o'clock. I will apply with the manager and send you a meal coupon. Then you can go home after eating in the cafeteria?"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she was very excited and thought to herself: "If I pull the plastic bag for two more hours, I can eat another meal? Then of course, I agree!"

So she said with great excitement: "Sure foreman! Thank you very much!"

Chapter 2001

Mrs. Willson had never been so happy to shake her whole body for a meal.

According to the foreman, she had been busy in the supermarket, and at seven o'clock in the evening, she finally received the meal coupon she was thinking of.

Although she had already had a full meal at noon, Mrs. Willson still looked like a hungry dog that had been confined for three days with this meal in the dining hall. She had a big belly and couldn't stand up.

She couldn't eat anymore. She rested on the canteen seat for half an hour before she stood up reluctantly with her hands on the table.

After eating and drinking, the whole person has energy.

Mrs. Willson wiped her mouth with the back of her hand, and touched her belly with the palm of her hand, feeling satisfied with herself: "Unexpectedly, eating after this labor is so delicious! Today I had enough to eat!"

Immediately, she checked the time and realized that it was already past eight o'clock, so she planned to go home quickly.

Although she has always been selfish, after experiencing all the hardships and difficulties during this period, she has more or less cared about her children and grandchildren.

Thinking of her son and grandson still lying in bed waiting to be fed, Mrs. Willson hurried to the cafeteria window and asked the staff member who was about to leave work: "Excuse me, do you still need these leftovers, steamed buns, and rice?"

The other person looked at her and said helplessly: "Isn't it, old lady, you have eaten three people's meal alone, and you haven't eaten enough?"

Mrs. Willson wiped her mouth in embarrassment and said with a grin: "Hey, I'm full and the children in the family are still hungry. Do you know, they haven't eaten anything for almost two days and nights."

The other party asked in surprise: "Really? When is there still someone who can't eat?"

Mrs. Willson had a hot face and said embarrassedly: "Hey, something happened to my family during this period of time. The eldest daughter-in-law in the family has breast cancer. It is found to be at an advanced stage. The ball is about to die, my eldest son spent all the money at home in order to treat her illness..."

With that said, Mrs. Willson suddenly felt very refreshed in her heart.

It's really cool!

She had long seen Horiyah not pleasing to her eyes. If Ragnar hadn't stopped her, then she herself would have wanted to beat Horiyah to death.

Especially recently, Horiyah has disobeyed her in various ways and even forced her to work. She has long hated her for this in her heart.

Therefore, in front of others, fabricating the rumor that Horiyah was dying of breast cancer made her feel the pleasure of revenge.

When the staff in the cafeteria heard this, they suddenly exclaimed: "Huh? Advanced breast cancer, that would be too miserable..."

"That's not a big deal!" Mrs. Willson sighed, "Hey... My eldest daughter-in-law has advanced breast cancer, and my second daughter-in-law is even more miserable!"

The staff member hurriedly asked: "Lady, what happened to your second daughter-in-law?"

Mrs. Willson said with regret: "Second daughter-in-law has uremia and lives on dialysis all day long. However, on the way to the hospital for dialysis some time ago, she was hit by a car, and her limbs are amputated under her a$s..." "

The staff were scared and stupefied: "Is this... not so miserable?"

Mrs. Willson said with a face: "What's this? What's worse is yet to come!"

The staff asked: "What could be worse?"

Mrs. Willson said with emotion: "My second daughter-in-law, she had to go to the hospital for dialysis if her leg was gone. It was miserable, but she got a stroke again. Now she has a crooked mouth."

When talking about Elaine, Mrs. Willson felt more resentful in her heart.

Chapter 2002

She wished that Elaine was really as miserable as the one she arranged! She even hopes that the more miserable she is, the better!

However, the staff did not know that she was just talking about it.

The staff felt that normal people, who would curse their family members out of nothing? So what the old lady said must be the truth.

So she said with great sympathy: "No wonder you at this age still come out to work. It's really not easy for you to have things like this one after another at home!"

As she said, she continued: "Lady, we have seven or eight buns left here, almost four rice, and some leftovers. Do you have a lunch box? I'll pack it for you and you can take it home!"

Mrs. Willson was very excited, but she still suppressed her ecstasy, and said with a melancholy expression: "How can I have a lunch box... My daughter-in-law is dying, I can't afford that stuff."

With that said, the old lady saw the plastic bag hanging on the side of the counter, and blurted out: "Why don't you do it, big girl, you put all the leftovers in plastic bags for me, I'll take them home."

The staff nodded hurriedly and said, "I'm fine, as long as you don't dislike it!"

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said: "Don't dislike it, there is no such thing!"

Soon, the staff took out the leftovers for Mrs. Willson, and packed four large plastic bags.

She felt a little regretted when she got started, thinking: "With so many leftovers, it's too damn heavy! How can I carry it back?"

But then she thought about it: "No, I have to take everything. With this food, the family can last for at least two days, otherwise, what is enough to rely on the one hundred earned today?"

Thinking of this, she could only thank the staff, and gritted her teeth and took the four big bags of food home.

On the way back, Mrs. Willson was not willing to take a taxi.

It takes a lot of money to take a taxi home from here, and the one hundred she made for a whole day of hard work, maybe half of it will be lost to a taxi.

After much deliberation, it is better to take the bus.

So, she bought two ham sausages at a roadside store, thinking about using ham sausages to make up for Noah and Harold, just to give the change to take the bus driver.

On the bus, other old people swiped their old people's card to ride for free. Mrs. Willson didn't have one, so she could only put a dollar in the coin box.

In fact, she had known for a long time that when the elderly with local household registration reached 65 years of age, they could go to the civil affairs department to get a free bus ride for the elderly.

However, Mrs. Willson never took the bus when she went out. She had a full-time driver with a dedicated car. At that time, how could she deserve the free bus card for the elderly?

For her at that time, let alone using this card, even if it was used, it was a shame.

But now she regrets it, and at the same time she muttered in her heart: "It seems that after the Chinese New Year, when people go to work, I should hurry to get the card for the elderly, so at least I don't need to pay the bus and save some money each day. This way I can save a lot in one month!"

Carrying a few large bags of food, Mrs. Willson finally returned to the Tomson Villa.

Walking into the entrance of Tomson, when she was about to brush the gates, a well-dressed middle-aged woman pinched her nose and shouted at her: "Where is the old lady? Coming here with a swill? Do you know what this is not such a place? This is Tomson! You can't afford to buy any house here for several lifetimes!"

Mrs. Willson was vomiting blood tiredly. Seeing a woman who had popped out from somewhere, she yelled at her, and suddenly cursed: "Fcuk your mother! Do you know where the old mother lives? I live in villa a04! If you look at your bird, it looks like a pheasant, and I think you live on the outer flat floor at most!"

As soon as the woman heard this, she rushed in angrily, slapped Mrs. Willson directly, and cursed: "Dead old lady, the old lady's set of more than 20 million flat layers, you fcuking dare to laugh at me? You are so poor, and you dare to say that you live in a villa, you fucking deserve it too?!"

Chapter 2003

Mrs. Willson never expected that after a hard day's work, she would not even be willing to hit a car when she came back, and finally reached the door of her house, she was slapped in the face by an unknown woman.

The woman smoked her, and scolded her eyes cracking: "Bad old lady, you ate damn pig food, and came to Tomson to pretend to be a good one. Really have a problem with your brain!"

After finishing speaking, she immediately shouted to the security guard not far away: "Hey, come here, are you fucking blind? I spent more than 20 million to buy a house in your place. Do you serve distinguished owners like this? The bad old women who are inferior to pigs and dogs like this come in, who will protect the mood and interests of the owner?"

The security is also very nervous.

Mrs. Willson looked somewhat haggard, with a tired face, she didn't look like an old lady from a wealthy family.

Moreover, she was carrying four large plastic bags in her hand, which were filled with steamed buns and rice, as well as the horrible vegetable soup, which was even more inconsistent with the characteristics of the owners of Tomson.

So, he hurriedly said to the old lady: "I'm sorry old lady, we are a private residence here, and we can't get away with other people. Please leave as soon as possible."

Mrs. Willson trembled angrily.

Even if she is not the owner of Tomson, at least she is also a tenant of Tomson! And it is the tenant of Tomson's top villa! Why should she be beaten and driven out? !

The angrily Mrs. Willson immediately took out the card, shaking her hand a few times, and said angrily: "Keep your dog eyes open and show me clearly, this is the access control card for the gate of Tomson First Grade!"

The security guard and the female owner were immediately stunned.

The access control card of Tomson is very elegant, and there is a unique logo on the card. One of them is the owner and the other works here, so they are familiar with this card.

When they saw this card, they both had a question in their hearts: "Is this bad old lady really the owner of a Tomson Villa?"

The middle-aged woman opened the mouth and said: "Just take out a card, who knows if it is true or not, so dare you to try it!"

Mrs. Willson said angrily: "Okay! You wait! I'll show it to you!"

After that, she immediately swiped the induction area stuck on the gate.

The turnstile immediately sounded a prompt: "Hello, honorable resident of Villa A04, welcome to you home!"

In Tomson, residents are divided into two categories.

The first category is the owner, that is, the property owner clearly recorded on the property certificate of the property.

The other category is households.

However, residents should not be underestimated.

After all, most of the households are the immediate family members of the owners, and the less frequent ones are also due to relatives.

For example, Warnia, as the current head of the Song family, is well-known in Aurous Hill. If she buys a villa here, she is the owner, and her grandfather, other elders, and siblings are the residents.

Although the occupants are not the owners, because they are very close to the owners, it is not something ordinary people can afford.

When the middle-aged woman saw that Mrs. Willson had successfully swiped her card, and she was really a resident of Villa A04, she paled with fright!

Although she has a wealth of tens of millions, she is only a middle class in Aurous Hill.

A series of villas, each set at a price of one hundred million to tens of millions, is simply impossible for her to afford.

Chapter 2004

Therefore, she is also very clear in her heart that anyone who can live in a series of villas must have much more energy than herself.

Thinking that she had just slapped the old lady, the woman was already scared to pee.

At this moment, she thought anxiously in her heart: "It's over, it's over! This is really a disaster! Who would have thought that this old lady really has a few brushes! I slapped her just now, in case she wants I can't get through with her, am I in big trouble now?!"

The security guard was trembling in shock.

"What's the matter? This old lady is really a resident of Tomson's first-class villa? Why don't I have any impression of her?"

"Furthermore, everyone who can live in the villa area is either rich or expensive. Since this old lady is so rich, so capable, and with a formidable background, why should she carry a few bags of leftovers and come on foot? What about Tomson first product reputation?"

"Could it be that the rich people nowadays have become popular for eating swill?"

Mrs. Willson asked the woman angrily at this time: "Keep your dog's eyes wide open to see clearly? Now you say, am I a resident of A04?!"

That woman was completely shocked!

Just when she was shivering, not knowing what to do, Jacob happened to be out for a walk.

Although he saw the back of Mrs. Willson, he smelled a smell of leftovers before he could see clearly.

He pinched his nose, planning to go around a little bit.

As soon as he walked to the gate, he swiped his card, and the intelligent voice prompt: "Hello, honorable resident of Villa A05, welcome to your home!"

The gate opened at the sound. As soon as she heard that it was a05, Mrs. Willson looked at it and recognized him at a glance, and hurriedly shouted: "Jacob! Jacob!"

Jacob turned his head and realized that it was his own mother. He said in embarrassment, "Mom, what are you doing here?"

Jacob's mother almost made the woman pee her pants in fright.

She was flustered in her heart: "Dead, dead, so dead today! What is the origin of this old lady?! She lives in villa a04, and her son lives in villa a05. This...this looks like a top family Ah! I actually beat an old lady from a top big family. Will their family find a way to kill me..."

At this time, Mrs. Willson pointed at the woman in front of her, and said angrily to Jacob: "Jacob! This girl beat me! You quickly help me teach her a lesson!"

Jacob felt a little embarrassed.

So he whispered to himself: "First of all, my mother makes trouble all day long. I don't know if others beat her. Even if she beat her, she might be the first to cause trouble."

"Secondly, she treats me so badly. I won't help her out. The people who live in Tomson's first-class residence are either rich or powerful. If I really provoke someone with a reputation, wouldn't I make trouble?"

Thinking of this, he said to Mrs. Willson: "Mom, you should call the police for this kind of thing. Besides, you can't take any scissors for New Year's Eve. How can you fight with others, don't you know?"

Mrs. Willson covered her chest angrily, and was about to give him a moral kidnapping. Jacob had already spoken: "Well, mom, you call the police first. If the police can't solve it, you call me again, just say that, okay?"

After finishing speaking, without waiting for the old lady's response, he said: "Um, Mom, there is something at home, I'll go now."

The voice is down, and he just left.

He didn't want to be entangled by the old lady, let alone have anything to do with the old lady.

After all, tomorrow is New Year's Eve. At this time, what he wants most is to spend the New Year with his family steadily. Nothing else matters.

Chapter 2005

Seeing Jacob running away, Mrs. Willson was angry to death.

She shouted in grief and angrily: "How can there be such a child! It doesn't matter if his own mother is beaten? Is this still a human? It's just a beast!"

But what she didn't know was that the woman on the opposite side was almost shocked.

She didn't know any rift in the relationship between Jacob and Mrs. Willson, but she knew that the two were in a mother-child relationship.

She thought with horror in her heart: "This old woman and the man are obviously mothers and sons, but they don't live in the same villa. Instead, they bought two of the best villas to live next to each other, one set a04 and one a05. What kind of damn family is this? How much money does the family have to take advantage of? How much energy must be behind it?"

When she thought of this, she regretted the trouble she had just made to find the old lady.

So, she nervously hurriedly apologized in a low voice: "Lady, I'm so sorry...I really didn't expect you to be a resident of the villa area...I blamed myself for just now, please don't be like me."

Mrs. Willson scolded angrily: "You slapped me, and then you're done by saying sorry?"

The woman hurriedly asked again: "Then how do you want to solve it...or tell me how can I calm you down? Why don't you slap me? No matter how many times you slap me, I won't fight back! "

Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth, and at that time she wished to rush over and smack the woman's face.

However, she thought carefully: "Although I smoked her to relieve my hatred, it has no practical effect...Instead of this, it is better to ruin her for some money!"

Thinking of this, Mrs. Willson said coldly: "You scolded me and slapped me in the face. You have to give me a little compensation for everything, right?"

The woman nodded without hesitation: "You are right! I am willing to actively compensate! You can say the number, how much is it, I will pay you..."

Mrs. Willson originally wanted to bid ten thousand.

But after thinking for a moment, she felt that calling ten thousand was not appropriate.

The current Mrs. Willson is no longer the old lady like Lafayette before.

Mrs. Willson had a lot of money in her hands, let alone ten thousand, one million might not really be in sight.

However, the current Mrs. Willson has spent a whole day pulling plastic bags in the supermarket for 100, so 10,000 is a huge sum of money for her now.

So, the old lady thought to herself: "After all, she just slapped me. If I ask her for 10,000, what if she gets angry and calls me an extortionist? Isn't it going to take me back to the detention center?"

"In these days, it is not easy to make money. I am exhausted all day working, and only earn one hundred a day. It would be a bargain to get one hundred for a slap... Wouldn't it be called extortion?"

Thinking of this, Mrs. Willson said sharply: "I'm so old, you slap me, the problem can be big or small, but I have always been generous, you give 100, this matter is even a flip!"

"One... one hundred?!" The woman's eyes almost fell to the ground.

She originally thought that since this old lady could afford to live in villa a04, there must be some awesome people at home, and if she beat her today, it was really a mess.

Therefore, even if Mrs. Willson asked her for one hundred and eighty thousand, she also decided to agree without hesitation, and then transfer the funds as quickly as possible to settle the matter.

Unexpectedly, when the old lady spoke, it only cost one hundred...

She was so happy that she nodded and said: "No problem, no problem! I'll get you the money!"

As she said, she took out her wallet, took out one hundred in cash, and handed it to Mrs. Willson, then pointed to the security guard and said, "Lady, we have a witness here.

You just said it to One hundred, and I have given you the money now. You can't trouble me anymore!"

Mrs. Willson was very happy when she held this hundred bill.

Chapter 2006

She thought to herself: "This makes a hundred for a slap, which is more cost-effective than working hard for a day!"

So, she suppressed the excitement in her heart and said: "Okay, forget about it, remember from now on, when you go out, don't look down on people!"

The other party immediately nodded respectfully: "Don't worry, I must remember..."

.....

When Mrs. Willson arrived home with two hundred and four large plastic bags, the smell of food was permeating the house.

The three cooks are Gina and the others.

They were working as cleaners in the supermarket today, one hundred and twenty a day, three people are three hundred and sixty.

This year, three hundred and sixty-three people spent in a restaurant, that is, an ordinary meal.

But if you cook and eat carefully, these three hundred and six are still very rich.

Gina and the others are all from the countryside, and they are quite real. When they think of being tired for a day, they want to eat more meat to reward themselves, so they bought two catties of pork at the vegetable market, and bought some potatoes, beans, and vermicelli. When got home, they went straight to a pot of stew.

Although the cost of a pot of stew is less than one hundred, the portion is really sufficient, and the scent of the pork cannot be suppressed by the range hood.

What's more interesting is that Gina turned off the cooker hood when the simmering pot started to simmer.

Then she deliberately opened the door of the kitchen in order to let the fragrance spread a little wider.

For Noah and Harold on the second floor, this was simply great torture.

This kind of stew, although there is no tall countertop, it is one of the most practical, most appetizing and most greedy dishes for ordinary people.

What's more, Noah and Harold are almost hungry and confused. When they are extremely hungry, their sense of smell becomes extremely sensitive, so a little fragrance can make them crazy.

The two of them thought they were cooking at home, and they wanted to eat it quickly, but they called Horiyah to ask and realized that the rice was not made by their own family, but by three new tenants.

This made the father and son despair to the extreme.

Wendy and Horiyah were equally desperate.

At this moment, Mrs. Willson pushed in with a dark face.

As soon as she entered the door, she cursed and said: "The three old women in the countryside are so presumptuous! The restaurant clearly has a table, and even ran to the coffee table to eat. you really treat this as own home!"

Seeing her come in, Wendy said with excitement: "Grandma, finally you are back! We are almost starving to death. We waited for you to come back and bring us food!"

Harold also cried and said, "Grandma! I'm really hungry. If I don't eat, I will starve to death..."

Mrs. Willson sighed, handed the four plastic bags in her hand to Wendy, and said, "This is for you. Go get a few sets of dishes and eat quickly!"

Seeing the plastic bags in her hand, the Willson family didn't care about where the food came from. They just wanted to eat all into their stomachs quickly.

So, Wendy said excitedly: "Grandma, I will go to the kitchen to get the tableware!"

Horiyah was also very happy and hurriedly said, "You can't finish it by yourself, I'll be with you!"

Mrs. Willson coldly snorted, "Horiyah, stop! Don't eat the food I brought back!"

Chapter 2007

Horiyah didn't expect that Mrs. Willson would turn her face with her at this time.

She pointed to the food in the plastic bags, and said aggrieved: "Mom, what happened to you? Did you bring so much food back to me to eat two bites? I have been hungry for so long..."

Mrs. Willson sneered and said, "If you want to eat, go out to work and earn money by yourself. You rely on an old woman to support you. Do you want to be shameless?!"

Horiyah was immediately anxious, and blurted out: "I was scammed by Jacob! Otherwise, I would be a cashier and earn more than you!"

Mrs. Willson curled her lips: "It doesn't matter to me that you earn more or less. You earn what you earn, and I earn what I earn. Neither of us will take advantage of the other. So you don't want to eat the rice I bring back. Earn and eat for yourself!"

Horiyah immediately looked at her sadly and indignantly, and blurted out: "Old Lady, are you going to get into trouble? You rushed me, and I will run away from home!"

Mrs. Willson laughed and clapped her hands: "Oh, that's great. You go quickly. I can't wait to buy firecrackers to celebrate when you leave! If it wasn't for Regnar to stop me, I would let you get out of our house long ago. Why would I keep you by my side as an eye-catcher? Since you are going to leave, then Regnar will definitely not blame me, it is great!"

Horiyah gritted her teeth: "Okay! Old stuff, let's see!"

Wendy hurriedly came out at this time to finish the game: "Grandma, don't be like that with mom. She has been hungry for so long, so let her eat too!"

"Let her eat?" Mrs. Willson sneered: "I will let the dogs eat what is left but I won't let her eat a bite!"

After that, Mrs. Willson said again: "Give me the food, you go get the dishes, we will eat here as a family of four, let her watch it!"

Horiyah burst into tears immediately and scolded: "Mrs. Willson, I married your Willson family and had children for you. You don't even give me a bite of food now. I am really discouraged!"

Mrs. Willson said contemptuously: "If you want to eat, you can find a way to do it yourself, aren't you good at hooking up with wild men? Go out and hook up again! Maybe you can still make a big money on the list!"

"You..." Horiyah was immediately ashamed and angry.

The old lady always likes to insult her about her work in the black coal mine, but she can't find any powerful way to refute her.

So, she could only stomp her feet in resentment, and gritted her teeth and said: "From today onwards, I, Horiyah and your Willson family, will be cut in two ways!"

After that, she slammed the door and went out and returned to her room.

Noah had no feelings for Horiyah for a long time, so he didn't say a word at this time, and he also hoped that she would disappear quickly.

But Harold beside him was somewhat unbearable.

Seeing that his mother was about to be forced to run away from home, Harold naturally couldn't bear it, so he said to Mrs. Willson: "Grandma, it's not easy for mom, please forgive her this time!"

Mrs. Willson said coldly: "If anyone talks about this woman, get out of this house with her, I don't care ."

Harold was already starving to stare at Venus, so if anything conflicted with eating, he would definitely choose the latter.

So he immediately closed his mouth with interest, and said no more.

Wendy quickly brought some tableware up, and together with Mrs. Willson, poured the leftovers into the container. Wendy dipped the vegetable soup in two or three bites and finished a steamed bun, and then stuffed another steamed bun in the same way. Into the stomach.

Mrs. Willson had a full stomach, so she took the dishes and fed Noah and Harold who were lying on the bed.

The father and son, like the newly hatched chicks in the nest, opened their mouths and waited to be fed, the moment they finally had the meal, the father and son couldn't help but burst into tears.

Seeing the appearance of the two of them, Mrs. Willson felt a little distressed in her heart, so she said with blushing eyes: "Tomorrow Mom will go to work for another day, buy some noodles and some meat in the evening, and we will make dumplings for a family of four!"

Noah cried and asked, "Mom, can we eat meat dumplings tomorrow?"

Mrs. Willson nodded her head: "Don't worry, you can eat. I will buy it when the time comes and pack it with Wendy for both of you!"

Chapter 2008

Noah said with a dry eye: "Mom, when I get better, I will go out to work, even if I go to a construction site to carry cement, I will do everything possible to make money to subsidize the family, and say nothing to let you go out when you are so old Running around!"

Harold also said vaguely: "Grandma, I will also go then!"

Mrs. Willson nodded and said, "You two will take care of your injuries. When you are well, I will count on you to give me the end of the care!"

When the four of the Willson family finally had a full meal, Horiyah cried dry in her room.

In the midst of hunger and cold, she not only despaired of the Willson family, but also made a decision in her heart to leave.

She does not intend to stay in this home, nor does she intend to stay in Aurous Hill.

She wants to go back to her natal home.

Although her mother's family has little money, and another brother followed her parents to nibble the old, at least her mother's family can take care of her food, so that she won't be so devastated.

However, her family is a little far away. It takes at least five or six hours to take a hard-seat train, and the train ticket costs more than one hundred. The entanglement of going back has become Horiyah's biggest problem.

After thinking about it, she decided to think of a solution from Mrs. Willson.

This night, Mrs. Willson slept very securely because of all day's physical work.

In the wee hours of the morning, Horiyah sneaked into her room and found out two hundred from her pocket.

Of the two hundred, one hundred is the old lady's salary, and the other one hundred, which the old lady received in exchange for a slap in the face.

Seeing these two bills, Horiyah was very excited.

Although two hundred is not much, it is enough to have breakfast after dawn, and then take the train back to parents' house for New Year's Eve!

So she put the money into her pocket almost without thinking, then packed a few pieces of clothes and personal belongings, and before dawn, she left the Tomson with a suitcase.

Before leaving, she left a note in her room with only four words on it: "There will be no deadline."

.....

Early morning on New Year's Eve.

Claire finally started taking a vacation.

However, she had long been used to going to bed early and getting up early, so she got up before seven o'clock to prepare to wash.

Seeing his wife got up, Charlie got up from the bed. Today is New Year's Eve. There are a lot of things to keep them busy at home. Not only do they have to prepare the New Year's Eve dinner, but they also need to get the dumpling stuffing out in advance. The family made dumplings while watching the Spring Festival Gala.

At this moment, Claire's phone rang suddenly, and she said in surprise: "Oh, Elsa called me so early, I don't know what's wrong."

Charlie smiled and said, "Wife, don't you know if you pick it up."

Claire nodded and connected the phone: "Hey, Elsa, why do you call so early?"

Elsa smiled and said: "I have a holiday! so I returned to Eastcliff by plane at noon to accompany my family to eat New Year's Eve dinner."

After that, she said again: "Will it be convenient for you later? I will pay a visit and give uncle and aunt a new year greeting?"

Claire smiled and said, "Convenience is convenience, but you should never buy anything to come home. I don't even care about buying gifts for family. So we have such a good relationship, so don't engage in these formalities."

"Okay!" Elsa said with a smile: "Isn't this just a sentence?"

After all, Elsa added: "By the way, Claire, I will ask my cousin to visit your house with me, is it okay?"

Chapter 2009

Claire and Elsa have known each other for many years and have some understanding of her family situation. Hearing that she is going to bring her cousin, she curiously asked: "Elsa, the cousin you are talking about is Delong, right?"

Elsa smiled and said, "It's him."

"Huh?" Claire suddenly remembered the image of that dude in her mind, and asked in surprise, "What is your cousin doing in Aurous Hill?"

Elsa said: "He, after staying in Eastcliff for a long time, he always makes troubles, so he came to Aurous Hill to practice for a while."

Claire asked in surprise: "Practice? How to temper?"

Elsa smiled and said, "Have a hard time, now he has rented a place to live in the village in the city. The conditions are not ordinary."

Claire couldn't help laughing: "Your cousin is such a domineering person, let him live in the village in the city, it must be great torture for him? It must not be his own decision, after all, Who is so bad?"

Charlie was somewhat embarrassed when he heard this.

After all, he was the culprit who made Delong come to Aurous Hill to live a hard life.

Elsa smiled at this time: "My brother offended a big man in Eastcliff that he couldn't afford. He was required to live a year in Aurous Hill before he could go back. Today I return to Eastcliff to celebrate the New Year to stay here."

Claire pursed her lips and smiled: "To tell the truth, Elsa, your cousin is a bit too arrogant usually. If this time he can really get his heart out, it might be a good thing."

"Yeah." Elsa laughed and said: "When I arrive at your house later, don't mention it in front of him, save him face."

Claire hurriedly said, "Don't worry, I know."

Elsa: "That's OK, let's come over and be there in a while!"

"Okay! I'll wait for you at home!"

After hanging up the phone, Claire said to Charlie: "Husband, Elsa, and her cousin will come home soon."

Charlie nodded and asked, "Would they have lunch at home?"

Claire shook her head: "No, Elsa will take a while and leave. She hurried to the airport and flew back to Eastcliff."

Then, Claire said again: "Oh, by the way, husband, Elsa's cousin will also come over and I will introduce you to him. Her cousin seems to be staying in Aurous Hill for a whole year."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I saw her cousin the last time I went to Eastcliff. At that time, you asked me to give Elsa's grandma a birthday gift. Her cousin was also there."

"Really?" Claire asked with a smile: "Then have you had any contact with him?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I didn't have much contact after just chatting a few words."

Claire nodded and said, "Her cousin has a very unpleasant personality. He is very proud of having some money in the family. When he speaks, he can't wait for his nostrils to be open to others. Please don't take it to your heart. After all, he is a guest, and it's a celebration of the New Year, so you should never conflict with others."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Don't worry, I know."

.....

At this moment, Delong is driving the old Mercedes-Benz car given to Elsa by the Emgrand Group, following the directions of the navigation instructions, to Tomson.

Chapter 2010

Elsa, the co-driver, just hung up the phone with Claire, Delon said with a sad face: "Elsa, you can go to Charlie's house by yourself, don't take me with you, I really don't want to take a minute to see him."

Seeing Delong's face full of grievance, Elsa couldn't help but ridicule: "Brother, are you too persuaded? I will take you to Charlie's house for New Year's greetings instead of taking you to Charlie. What are you afraid of fighting?"

Delong sighed: "Hey, Elsa, don't you know, I have seen this Charlie twice in total, and every time I saw him, it was not okay! The first time I swallowed a necklace and had an operation. The second time I was directly asked to ride a bicycle all the way from Eastcliff to Aurous Hill. If this is goodbye, if he is not happy, he wants to send me to Africa for mining, then how am I going to fix it!"

Elsa said seriously: "Brother, you just think too much about it. In fact, Charlie is not bad in nature, and he never bullies people. It's only when others bully him that he will be cruel to others. So you just need to be humble and low-key in front of him, and he will definitely not trouble you."

Delong still sighed with lingering emotions: "Even though you say so, but this person is not in his mood, I don't know if I will offend him because of an unintentional sentence..."

Elsa said, "If this is the case, then you should talk less when you are there. When you meet Charlie, you will respectfully call him Mr. Wade and don't say anything else."

Delong begged: "Oh, can you just go by yourself? Then I will park the car at the door, and I will wait for you in the car."

Elsa pretended to be angry and said, "I just told Claire that you are coming with me together. Claire must have told Charlie too. If you don't go in by then, let me go alone. Charlie might think you have opinions on him! I think you don't give him face!"

After a pause, Elsa said again: "If he is not satisfied with you and puts you on small shoes on purpose, don't blame me for not reminding you. After all, Aurous Hill is his territory, you can't fight him in Eastcliff, let alone. On his turf?"

Hearing this, Delong shrank his neck, and said angrily: "Okay, okay, can't I go..."

Elsa said seriously: "I tell you that Charlie is actually very easy to get along with, but the premise is that you are in front of him, and you must not put on airs. You have to talk to him well. He must be polite to you. If you are Acting with him, then you are done."

After speaking, Elsa said again: "Once I went to a hot spring with Charlie and Claire, a b@stard shoved my car, and then in turn scolded me. He was very arrogant. You know what happened afterward?"

Delong shook his head: "What?"

Elsa said: "Charlie asked his men to come over and engraved two words on that person's forehead with a knife."

Delong was dumbfounded in fright: "Use a knife to engrave on the forehead? Is this too cruel?"

Elsa said: "You didn't see the virtue of that guy. If you see him, you will understand that it is not cruel to engrave on his forehead."

Delong hurriedly asked: "Then can you tell me what words Charlie engraved on his forehead?"

Elsa said: "That guy likes to scold others for being poor, so Charlie asked people to engrave these two words on his forehead."

"Fcuk..."

Delong was scared out of his forehead sweat, he even had a feeling as if those two words were engraved on his forehead.

He couldn't help but sigh: "This Charlie...what is the difference from the devil? It's simply not as good as a beast!"

Elsa immediately turned her face and blurted out: "I don't allow you to speak ill of Charlie!"

"Ah?" Delong was stunned, and said aggrieved: "Elsa, I am your brother! Why do you turn your elbow out!"

Elsa snorted coldly: "Charlie is the great hero in my mind. If I compare him with you, an unlearned dude, then I will definitely turn my elbow at you!"

Delong's face was crying: "Elsa, do you like Charlie?"

Chapter 2011

Delong suddenly asked a question, so Elsa had no time to cover-up, and the whole person suddenly said in embarrassment: "You...you... don't talk nonsense, I...I don't like Charlie."

"I don't believe you!" Delong curled his lips: "I have been you for so many years, and I can understand women. As you are now, I am sure, you have a crush on Charlie!"

Elsa pretended to be impatient and said: "Oh, whatever you think, I don't bother to tell you."

Delong reminded: "Elsa, Charlie is married, you'd better stay away from him, otherwise, if it spreads that Miss Dong likes a married man, and Dong family's face can be affected by you!"

When Elsa heard this, she suddenly became angry, and blurted out: "You still have the face to say that I have? You swallowed a necklace and performed the operation. The whole city was full of troubles. Who didn't know about it in Eastcliff, and later you Wearing a green helmet and riding a big 28 all the way from Eastcliff to Aurous Hill, the whole Eastcliff is abuzz with this news. Why don't you say that the Kong family's face was lost by you?"

"I..." Delong felt embarrassed and unbearable on his face, and suffocated in his stomach, angrily said: "Elsa, is it necessary? Do we need to hurt each other like this?"

Elsa asked him back: "Who asked you to call me?"

Delong sighed helplessly, and said, "Yes! I really understand that you have a crush on Charlie..."

As he said, he muttered gloomily: "It's so fcking weird! Charlie, a married man, where is it good? Why do you all like him? Every other man in this world is dead. Is he light?"

Elsa no longer concealed what she liked about Charlie, and asked curiously: "Who else likes him?"

Delong said angrily: "It's Warnia from the Song Family in Aurous Hill! Why did I swallow the necklace last time? Isn't it because Warnia had her birthday? I wanted to chase her and marry her. I didn't expect that she would be too lazy to watch the whole process. Look at her, all her attention was on that Charlie, so I got mad, and I choked with Charlie..."

Elsa exclaimed: "Isn't it?! Warnia likes Charlie?! Brother, are you kidding me?"

Delong said depressed: "Can I lie to you? What good is it for me? To be honest, I like Warnia, and she is now the Patriarch of the Song family again. Home is also a great help, I didn't expect that she would not look down upon me!"

Warnia's beautiful and moving appearance immediately appeared in Elsa's mind.

Although Elsa is also the eldest lady of the big family, she really lacks self-confidence in front of Warnia.

First of all, the strength of the Song family is not weaker than that of the Dong family. Secondly, Warnia is indeed a rare top beauty. Not only is she extremely beautiful, but also has a very good temperament. She is definitely an impeccable top beauty.

Elsa even felt that Warnia was the number one beauty in Aurous Hill in the true sense. Although Claire looked no less inferior to Warnia, Claire was still a bit worse than Warnia in temperament.

What's more, Warnia is now the head of the Song family.

This is not comparable to the eldest lady. After all, most eldest ladies of large families will be outsiders who will marry in the future. No large family will give the right of family inheritance to a woman.

But the Song family did so.

Warnia is now in charge of a large family of 100 billion alone, and is definitely the top female rich in China.

Even Sara Gu hasn't actually inherited the Gu family, so if you really want to talk about worth, Warnia is even above Sara!

Such a super beautiful woman who is very beautiful, she also likes Charlie. This made Elsa realize the strong competitive pressure.

Seeing that she stopped talking and looked sad, Delong couldn't help sighing in his heart: "Where is Delong worse than Charlie? Why is he so popular?"

Chapter 2012

Just as Delong drove to Tomson First-Class, in the quiet villa area of Tomson First-Class, a burst of loud curses broke out early in the morning.

It was Mrs. Willson who scolded the street.

She woke up early in the morning and found that the two hundred in her pocket were gone. The first thought was that the money was stolen!

She thought at the time with 80% certainty that her money was stolen by the three including Gina.

But when she wanted to take Horiyah and confront Gina together, she discovered that Horiyah left a note, and the person was no longer there.

At this moment, Mrs. Willson realized that 200 of hard-earned money and was stolen by her eldest daughter-in-law Horiyah.

She exploded at the time!

You know, these two hundred were exchanged for the hardships and sufferings, as well as being beaten and scolded. They didn't have time to spend a penny and were all stolen by Horiyah. How could she not be furious?

So, the angry Mrs. Willson stood on the second-floor terrace and yelled: "Horiyah! You stole my hard-earned money! You must die!"

Wendy hurried over and asked: "Grandma, what's the matter?"

Mrs. Willson cried and said, "Your mother who suffered a thousand swords has stolen my money! My hard-earned money! The money for our family of four to eat dumplings during the Chinese New Year, she stole all of it! Fcuking all of it!"

"Ah?!" Wendy blurted out, "Grandma, what's the matter? Mom stole your money?"

Mrs. Willson handed the note left by Horiyah to Wendy, and cried: "See it for yourself! Your b!tch mother left it! She said that she will have an indefinite future with us!"

When Wendy saw the words, they were indeed mother's handwriting, she was dizzy and blurted: "Mom is gone?! Where did she go? Why didn't she tell me..."

Mrs. Willson cried loudly: "That b!tch girl, she must not want to stay and endure hardship, nor want to be burdened by your father and your brother, so she left without saying goodbye!"

With that said, Mrs. Willson sat on the ground, slapped her hands on the ground, and cried: "This b@stard is really a criminal! She can go as far as she goes. The farther she goes, the better, but why did she steal the old lady's money. Wouldn't her conscience hurt?"

Noah and Harold also heard what the old lady said. Noah shouted in the house: "Mom, what did you say?! Horiyah, that stinky woman, stole your money away?!"

"Yeah!" Mrs. Willson cried and said, "This b@stard woman who has suffered thousands of swords has stolen all my money..."

Noah gritted his teeth and cursed: "Horiyah is a real b!tch! How come I haven't noticed that she is such a b@stard!"

Harold was also extremely angry: "Mom is too much! She left, regardless of whether our family lives or dies?!"

Mrs. Willson cried and said, "No! I can't let her go! Call the police! Call the police!"

Wendy said with a red eye: "But we don't have a mobile phone. The mobile phone has been taken away by Regnar's people..."

Mrs. Willson immediately said to Wendy: "Wendy, you go out to find a public phone. Call 110 on the public phone it is free. Hurry up! The sooner you call the police, the better the chance of catching that stinky woman!"

Chapter 2013

Elaine was cooking on the first floor. Hearing that Mrs. Willson cursed the street early in the morning, she hurried out to watch the excitement.

Here, Charlie and Claire also happened to go downstairs, just to see Elaine coming out.

She hurriedly asked excitedly: "Hey, have you heard that dead old woman scolding the street?"

Charlie and Claire nodded, and Claire said embarrassingly: "Grandma, don't know what's wrong with her, she started cursing on the terrace on the second floor early in the morning."

When Elaine heard this, she said excitedly: "Claire, hurry up! Help me go upstairs and have a look!"

Claire said helplessly, "Mom, what's so good about this..."

Elaine put her right arm on the crutch, patted her left arm on the sitting leg, and blurted out: "Is there anything better than this? Help me go quickly, otherwise, it won't be a good show if I am late!"

Claire could only sigh and said, "Then I will help you up."

Seeing this, Charlie helped Elaine up first and said, "Wife, let me help mom."

Claire nodded and said, "Then I will press the elevator."

The couple supported Elaine all the way up to the third floor. Elaine came to the terrace and looked down, and saw Mrs. Willson next door sitting on the ground of the second-floor terrace screaming.

In the house before, she could only hear Mrs. Willson being noisy, but she couldn't hear what she said. After coming out, her voice became clear immediately.

Mrs. Willson was still scolding at this time: "You are Horiyah who has suffered a thousand swords! You dare to steal the hard-earned money of mine! You have no conscience! The old lady curses you to be hit by a car when you go out!"

When Elaine heard this, she laughed, and shouted: "Hey, old woman, what's the matter? Isn't your eldest daughter-in-law the most filial to you and the one that suits you best? Did she steal your hard-earned money?"

Mrs. Willson suddenly heard Elaine's voice, and when she looked up, she saw Elaine's grinning face. She was angry and gnashed her teeth and cursed: "Elaine, our family affairs have nothing to do with you b!tch! You! Don't talk cold words here!"

Elaine curled her lips: "Oh, you are in your sevens and eighties. You scolded the street on the terrace in the morning. Why do you still have the face to say that I am a shrew? You are so cheeky!"

Mrs. Willson said angrily: "You sh!t! The biggest b!tch in the world is you, Elaine, do you think you can pretend to be a good person if you live in a Tomson first-grade and wear good clothes?"

Elaine was not angry, and said with a smile: "Oh, old lady, you also said, I am now a person who lives in the first-grade Tomson, and the quality of the first-grade Tomson must be mentioned. I can't be like you. You have been living in Tomson, and you ran to steal other people's food. Are you not shameless?"

After that, Elaine hurriedly said, "Oh, yes! The leek stolen from our house last time, did your family eat the leeks well?"

"You...you..." Mrs. Willson trembled angrily, gritted her teeth, and said: "Elaine! You used the daffodils to harm me. I haven't accounted for you yet! You dare to mention this to me?!"

Elaine smiled and said, "You stole our leek, why can't I mention it? I heard that it was because of eating our leek that your eldest daughter-in-law found out that she was pregnant, right? So in the final analysis, you have to thank our leek for this! If it weren't for our leek, your son would like to be a father!"

Mrs. Willson was immediately furious. The incident of eating daffodils and incontinence at home was the most helpless moment in her life. Whenever she thinks about it, she feels like a knife.

In addition, she was already immersed in the pain of stolen hard-earned money and couldn't help herself, and now she was ridiculed by Elaine's old story again, so the fire in her heart was about to ignite this villa!

Just when she wanted to scold Elaine and didn't know where to make her mouth, a police car hurriedly drove downstairs.

Several police officers got out of the car, and Wendy quickly opened the door, so one of the police officers asked Wendy, "Is it the call from your family?"

Wendy hurriedly said: "Yes, yes, it was my grandma who asked me to call..."

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she hurriedly got up, squatted on the balcony guardrail, and blurted out crying bitterly, "Comrade police officer, you must help us to call the shots! Our house has been ransacked! The hard-earned money is gone! Can't live anymore!"

Chapter 2014

When several police officers heard this, they immediately became energetic.

After all, people who can live in Tomson First Grade have very strong financial strength. The "hard-earned money" they call must be an astronomical figure.

Even if you want to come, people who can live in a villa of more than one billion at will, what is three to five million to them? The estimate of thirty to fifty million is frowning.

But seeing this old lady's whole body behaving like this, it seems that this amount has to be more than 30-50 million!

Maybe, this is still an extremely large theft!

Therefore, several people hurried in and asked Wendy directly: "When did the theft happen? How much was stolen?"

Wendy was a little embarrassed and said: "This...please go to the second floor and ask my grandma, the money lost is hers. She knows the situation best."

"OK, fine!"

Several police officers hurried upstairs, led by Wendy, to the bedroom on the second floor.

Seeing two men sleeping in the bedroom on the second floor, one old and one young, the police officer was also a little surprised, but he didn't think much about it. He went straight to the terrace and asked Mrs. Willson: "Lady, did you lose your property?"

"Yes! It's me!" Mrs. Willson said angrily: "A woman named Horiyah! Stole my hard-earned money and ran away! You must catch her!"

The police officer nodded hurriedly, took out the police officer's handheld computer, and said, "Do you know the specific information of Horiyah? Such as hometown and age. If you have an ID number, it would be great! In that case, we can directly locate specific information and start arresting immediately."

"ID number?" Mrs. Willson thought for a while and asked Wendy: "Do you know your mother's ID number?"

Wendy said embarrassingly: "I...I can only remember a small part, not all..."

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said, "Go find your father's marriage certificate with her! There must be her ID number on it!"

Wendy nodded: "OK, grandma, I'm going to find..."

Several police officers exchanged glances, and the leader asked, "Lady, what is the relationship with Horiyah who stole your money?"

Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth and said: "That b!tch is my eldest daughter-in-law! I am really a guard against day and night. I didn't expect house thieves to be hard to guard against!"

The police officer in the lead said embarrassingly: "If she is from your own family, you must carefully consider whether to take legal procedures, because theft is not a trivial matter, it is a criminal offense."

After a pause, he said again: "If you really want to claim that she made the theft, then after we open the case for investigation, we will transfer it to the prosecutors to initiate a prosecution. In case of a felony conviction, it will take at least a few years or even After more than ten years in prison, you and your daughter-in-law are a family. There is no need to be so serious, right?"

Mrs. Willson coldly snorted, "Really? I not only want to be true but also to be true to death! It's best if you catch her and sentence her to life imprisonment! Even if she dares to steal my money, she has turned her back! Let her know today that I am definitely not something she can bully if she wants to! I must give her some color!"

Seeing this, the lead policeman stopped persuading, and nodded: "Since you claim that the other party is stealing your property, then we will proceed according to the theft case."

Mrs. Willson nodded hurriedly: "Yes, yes! It's just going to follow the theft case and catch her! Jail her!"

The lead policeman asked again: "Lady, how much property did you lose this time? Including but not limited to cash, creditor's rights, and any valuable personal items."

The old lady blurted out: "She stole two hundred from me! That's all my hard-earned money!"

The police officer was immediately stunned: "How...how much?! Two hundred?!"

Chapter 2015

Facing the police officer's confirmation, Mrs. Willson nodded and gritted her teeth and said: "Yes, it's two hundred!"

The police officer thought there was a problem with his ears.

"An old lady who lives in the best villa of Tomson, will call the police for two hundred? It's not right..."

Thinking of this, he secretly thought: "Could it be that rich people talk like this, saying that two million are two hundred? The last time the classmates' reunion, the rich second generation in the class said that the same was true of his luxury car. It is obviously a Rolls-Royce with more than five million. When it comes to how much it is, he said lightly about more than five hundred. Is this a common problem of the rich?"

But thinking of this, he was a little puzzled: "It stands to reason that this old lady has a net worth of over 100 million, even if she loses two million, she won't be so excited?"

So he looked at the old lady again and said, "Hello old lady, I will confirm with you again. You said your daughter-in-law, that is, Horiyah stole two hundred from you. This two hundred refers to Two million, right?"

"No." Mrs. Willson said: "It's two hundred only, two hundred, cash, two hundred yuan!"

"Ah?!" The chins of several police officers all wanted to fall to the ground.

The leader said embarrassingly: "Lady, your eldest daughter-in-law took your two hundred, you called the police to arrest her?"

Mrs. Willson raised her eyebrows and asked, "What's wrong? Can't I? She stole my hard-earned money, can't I call the police yet?"

The police officer in the lead said embarrassingly: "It is okay, but I have to tell you basic legal knowledge. According to the definition of theft in our country's laws, the penalty for theft is that the amount involved must be at least a large amount. Standard."

After speaking, he explained: "The threshold for this relatively large amount is between 1,000 and more than 3,000. If this standard is not met, there is no way to pursue criminal responsibility."

Mrs. Willson frowned and said, "What the hell?! She stole my hard-earned money! Did you know that I only made a hundred salary after a hard day yesterday! I was slapped in the face by someone else? I earned another hundred! And the two hundred is the money for our family to eat dumplings during the New Year!"

The policemen were all silly, and thought to themselves: "This old lady is joking with us, right? Living in such a big villa, calling the police for two hundred? And the two hundred is still earning one hundred from working. , Was beaten to earn a hundred? Most people are not poor enough, not to mention that she still lives in such a big luxury villa? This is too magical!"

However, he can only patiently explain: "There is no way, old lady, this is clearly stipulated by the law. If the other party only steals two hundred from you, we really have no way to file a case. We can only register you for the record first. In the future, she has met the criteria for filing a case because of other things, and we can try to help you recover the loss."

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said: "Then I remembered wrong! She didn't steal two hundred, but two thousand!"

The police officer said embarrassingly: "How much money she stole from you depends on the detection of the case. Even if you say it is two thousand, we filed the case and the person is caught. In the end, it is discovered that you were lying. If the standard for filing a case is not met, then you are legally responsible for your lies."

Then, the police officer reminded her: "Also, the old lady, I want to explain to you that even if it reaches two thousand, it is only control, not detention. Do you understand the meaning of control? Do not detain the other party, just Personal freedom is restricted to a certain extent and community corrections are carried out on a regular basis. At that time, you may be required not to leave Aurous Hill or the street where your villa is located. Then you can do some community corrections and you will basically pass the barrier."

"What?!" Mrs. Willson blurted out: "Your management is too loose, right?! This is theft!"

The police officer sighed helplessly: "Let's put it this way, old lady, the theft is indeed a crime, but there must be a degree of accountability. If a student comes to report that the same table has stolen his rubber, worth a dollar, we will also go arresting people? This is not appropriate!"

Chapter 2016

After that, the policeman said again: "Lady, if your daughter-in-law only stole two hundred from you, we really can't file a case on this matter. I blame her for stealing too little, even if she took and sold the TV stealthily. Let's calculate the price at the time the TV was purchased. It's enough to file a case, but she didn't steal your TV after all!"

The police officer just used the TV as an analogy, but Mrs. Willson suddenly thought about selling the TV in Regnar's villa together with Harold and Noah. She was shocked and asked nervously: "Comrade police officer, if you steal a TV worth 100,000, how will you be sentenced?"

The police officer said seriously: "If this TV is really worth 100,000, then the amount is extremely huge. As long as the value of the theft reaches 60,000, then the basic penalty is ten years. On this basis, for every additional 4,200, the sentence is increased by one month, and if a TV is worth 100,000, it is almost sentenced to 11 years in prison."

"What?!" Mrs. Willson was shocked!

"Stealing a TV is sentenced to eleven years?! This is too terrible, right?!"

"Fortunately, Regnar didn't call the police at the time! Otherwise, I'm so old, I was probably going to die in prison directly by then..."

In the room, Noah Willson and Harold lying on the bed were also frightened by these words.

Harold trembled in fright. Immediately, Noah next to him felt a damp heat coming from the sheets, and blurted out, "Harold...you...how did you wet the bed?!"

Harold said in a low voice with a bitter face: "Dad, I'm afraid...Stealing the TV is sentenced to 11 years, which is too scary..."

Noah was particularly helpless, and sighed repeatedly: "Hey! It's scary, it's scary, but don't wet the bed! Now it's good, my pants are all wet by you..."

Harold's mouth flattened and his voice choked: "Dad...I'm sorry...I really didn't hold it back...I promise not to do it anymore..."

Jacob nodded bitterly, and said in a low voice: "Listen to what the police officers say...Your grandma is also right. What is the point of reporting two hundred to the police! What's the point! If you tell me about selling TV, you might have to hurt everyone..."

At this time, Mrs. Willson was also a little panicked.

She really did not expect that Horiyah stole two hundred from her, which was not even enough for the filing standard.

But her family secretly sold Regnar's TV, but it was enough to be sentenced to more than ten years, which really scared her.

The police officer saw that the old lady's face was wrong and thought that the old lady was simply angry, so he said, "You should try to deal with this matter inside the family. To be honest, two hundred is in the current society, where is it? It's not too much, and you don't have to hold on to it. No matter how the family has feelings, it won't turn around for two hundred, don't you think?"

Mrs. Willson sighed depressed, and said, "Okay, let's do it, it's a b!tch!"

The officer nodded: "You can drive as long as you want. If there is nothing wrong, we will leave first."

At this time, Wendy came over with the marriage certificate and said: "Police officer, here is the marriage certificate."

Mrs. Willson angrily said, "What kind of marriage certificate do you still have? Send the officers off quickly!"

Chapter 2017

Elaine on the terrace on the third floor, seeing the old lady let Wendy send a group of police officers away, she said with a grin in her throat: "Oh, I say old lady, don't you want to call the police to arrest your eldest daughter-in-law? Why? At this time, your heart is soft again? It seems that you still have a soft spot for your eldest daughter-in-law!"

Mrs. Willson felt uncomfortable at first, but when Elaine was chattering on the other side again, she became angry and cursed: "Elaine, my family's affairs have nothing to do with you, don't chirp here!"

"Oh, don't you think I'm crooked?" Elaine sneered, "Don't live next door to our house if you don't think I'm crooked!"

As she said, Elaine sneered: "I heard Jacob say yesterday that you went to the supermarket to work? Okay, old lady, you didn't do anything for the whole of your life. When you get old, you start working hard for your career? But I heard that your career seems boring, just pulling plastic bags at the supermarket!"

Mrs. Willson was furious, and sternly scolded: "What am I doing has anything to do with you? Is it necessary for you to point your fingers here?"

Elaine smiled and said, "What you are doing has nothing to do with me. I just sigh with emotion that your old thing will have today."

As she said, Elaine laughed at her and sighed: "Oh, forget it, since you are so poor that you are going to work in the supermarket, what can I care about with people like you? I'm not a member of your family anymore. I live a life that you can't dream of. I wasted all these tongues with you and played the piano for cows, so I can only wish you good luck."

Mrs. Willson's blood rushed to the top of her head by Elaine's words, and she gritted her teeth and said: "Elaine! Please pay attention when thunder and rain, I think you will be killed by thunder sooner or later!"

Elaine laughed and said: "You old thing do all the bad things, otherwise you will oppress your two sons, control the financial power of the family, and sell your own granddaughter's body in exchange for prosperity and wealth. In my opinion, if God is really eye-catching, the chance of thunder smashing you to death is much greater than smashing me to death! It smashes you to death eight times, and can't kill me once!"

Mrs. Willson almost collapsed. She jumped and cursed: "You... don't squirt dung here!"

Elaine waved her hand impatiently: "If you do the old thing, don't fix the useless ones. Let's see who has a good life. You can see that my leg is injured. My son-in-law gave me hundreds of thousands. Just to buy on the Internet, how about you? You are so poor that you can't eat enough to go to the supermarket to work. That is the gap between the Phoenix and the pheasant!"

Mrs. Willson was out of breath, she was completely speechless, she only felt her blood pressure rise suddenly, and it rushed straight to her forehead.

At this time, Elaine didn't plan to let her go, and sneered: "Old stuff, if you are really poor and can't eat, I can give you a trick. Don't forget that you were mixed in the detention center at the beginning. In the beginning, there was Gina and the others covering you. How cool were you? From my point of view, you might as well go out and do something sneaky right now, and then wait to go to the detention center to eat food for free!"

After finishing speaking, Elaine waved to Charlie and Claire: "Good son-in-law, good girl, let's go downstairs to eat, don't be familiar with that old thing!"

As soon as she finished speaking, she turned her head and said to Mrs. Willson: "Oh, old stuff, I'm going to eat first. By the way, I will tell you that our breakfast is very rich, with chicken feet in black bean sauce, steamed pork ribs in black bean sauce, and fresh shrimp. Barbecued pork buns, oh yes, and sashimi fish porridge. They are all authentic Cantonese morning tea. I am going hungry!"

Mrs. Willson was overwhelmed by blood pressure, she felt dizzy and almost fell to the ground.

At this time, Wendy just came back, and when she saw this, she hurriedly supported her.

But even though Mrs. Willson was dizzy, she still cursed hoarsely: "Elaine, don't go, I will never spare you today! You will come out!"

Elaine was so addicted to her mouth that she didn't bother to continue to talk to her, and said directly to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, help mom downstairs."

Claire followed behind and asked, "Mom, where do we get so many Cantonese refreshments?"

Chapter 2018

Elaine smiled and said, "Silly girl, I lied to her. Where can I buy Cantonese-style refreshments for the Chinese New Year? Besides, I can't do it. I'm just angry with that bad old lady!"

Elaine continued, "Don't you know that your grandma usually likes Cantonese-style tea, so she goes to the teahouse to have it all morning. Every time she goes there, she eats a meal like Empress Dowager Cixi, one big table, now she has fallen into a family of despair, I still can't stimulate her well?"

Claire sighed helplessly, and said, "Mom, should you turn over the grudge you had with grandma? She is so old, so don't be familiar with her."

Elaine said disdainfully: "What about getting older? I tell you, there are a group of people in this society. The older she gets, the worse she gets! This kind of people, the older they are, the more they can't breathe. It was able to save bad water in my stomach, and it smelled bad! Back in the detention center, you didn't know how she tortured me. I didn't rush to kill her. It is all my kindness!"

Claire had nothing to do with this mother, so she asked, "Okay, mom, then what do we have for breakfast?"

Elaine said: "I have noodles for breakfast, I ordered tomato and egg noodles."

After finishing speaking, she looked at Charlie and said flatly, "Good son-in-law, don't dislike it. When your mother's legs are ready, I will go out to buy all kinds of big fish and meat every day, and make a big meal for you!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Mom, I'm not picky about eating. You should make more delicious food for Claire."

"Sure for sure!" Elaine said with a grin: "At the beginning of pregnancy, it is necessary to eat healthily."

Claire said shyly: "Mom... why are you talking nonsense again..."

Elaine said solemnly: "How can this be called nonsense? Mom is here. Before a woman wants to have a baby, she must be healthy. Don't be like your mother. You will get pregnant if you are confused."

Charlie was embarrassed when he heard it, and thought: "Obviously you used Jacob to get drunk and take the initiative to have a relationship with him. It can be regarded as deliberate, how can you become pregnant if you are confused?"

Claire didn't want to continue discussing this topic with her mother at this time, and she said, "By the way, Mom, Elsa will come and stay with her cousin for a while. Then you can stop talking nonsense."

Elaine asked in surprise, "Elsa is coming? She hasn't returned to Eastcliff yet?"

Claire nodded: "Not returned. Does she not work in the Emgrand Group? Office workers only have a holiday today, so she will visit our house first, and then return to Eastcliff for the New Year."

Elaine asked again: "Will she come back to work after the New Year?"

"She will." Claire said: "She likes the job of the Emgrand Group."

Elaine smacked her lips, and said seriously, "It feels a bit wrong!"

Claire asked in surprise, "What's wrong?"

Elaine said very seriously: "The Dong family is so powerful, how can she look for a job in the Emgrand Group? And she has been working for so long, I think, she must have another plan!"

Chapter 2019

Charlie didn't expect Elaine to judge Elsa so accurately.

In fact, when Elsa first arrived at the Emgrand Group, Charlie had already guessed her motive.

The Dong family must have heard that the Wade family arranged a descendant in Aurous Hill and also bought the Emgrand Group as a gift to the other party. Therefore, the Dong family felt that this was a good opportunity to get ahead, so Elsa was arranged.

Originally, Charlie planned to prevent Elsa from contacting him in the Emgrand Group. As a result, she could not find his true body for a long time, and believed that she would leave Aurous Hill soon.

But who would have thought that Elsa fell in love with him by chance?

From the moment she confessed to Charlie, Charlie knew in his heart that it would be impossible for this woman to shake off for a while.

Here, Claire heard her mother say that Elsa came to Aurous Hill because she actually had other plans, so she couldn't help but smile: "Mom, wherever you want to go, people just come to work. There are no other plans."

Elaine smiled and said: "Then I ask you, if your family has a hundred billion, would you go to a job with an annual salary of several million a year?"

Claire thought for a while and said: "She may just want to be an independent woman, or just want to work hard on her own in the workplace, or simply because of feelings."

"Feelings?!" Elaine waved her hand and said solemnly: "Oh my daughter, you don't understand! In this world, the pauper may be with a bit of so-called feelings, but the rich definitely don't!"

As he said, Elaine said with a certain face: "These rich people, all of them are unprofitable guys, all of their energy is focused on making money, and I can't wait to sh!t to use it. Click to create a little value, so it is impossible to come to a small place to waste time!"

"The only explanation is that they have taken a fancy to something in this small place. Maybe, what valuable treasure is hidden in Aurous Hill!"

Claire said helplessly, "Mom, it was a very simple thing, how can you say it is so mysterious..."

Elaine said solemnly: "Don't believe it! When I was young, I heard my grandma say that their hometown was in a mountain nest, and they didn't see a few outsiders throughout the year. The rich would never go to them, but from the beginning of the year, there will be several wealthy people who go to them to donate money to build temples, some donate land temples, and some donate Guanyin temples, saying that their gods are very effective..."

"The people in the mountains are very puzzled, thinking, I haven't heard of any very efficacious gods here. If there are real gods, how can we be so poor and have a meal without a meal? This is not logical, right?"

Claire nodded: "It's a bit strange, then?"

Elaine said: "Then it has been this way for several years, dozens of large and small temples have been built, but everyone is still poor and dying, until a great detective from Eastcliff came all the way to investigate the case in the mountains. Everyone realized that those rich people came to the mountain to donate to the temple to steal a tomb from the Han Dynasty!"

"Ah? Tomb robbers?" Claire said embarrassingly, "Mom, are you reading too many novels? Where are so many tomb robbers in novels!"

Elaine said seriously: "Do you think the tomb robber in the novel is mysterious? I tell you, there are more tomb robbers in reality than described in the novel!"

After that, Elaine rolled her sleeves and gestured with her hands excitedly: "I tell you, that tomb is under the mountain behind your grandma's house, but the villagers have never known it! In those few years, All kinds of tomb robbers used the donations to build the temple and punched dozens of holes under the temple, almost hollowing out the bottom of the mountain!”

Chapter 2020

Claire smiled and said: “Mom, the more you talk, the more mysterious you are, and you are digging holes...Do you think you are touching Captain Jin?”

Elaine saw that Claire didn’t believe in her, so she couldn’t help but anxious, and blurted out, “You girl, you don’t believe what mom said! My grandma’s house has opened a lot of tombs over the years. Not far from my grandma’s house, a particularly famous tomb of Haihunhou was unearthed. Have you heard of the tomb of Haihunhou?”

Claire nodded: “I heard that it seems to be a very important archaeological discovery. What’s wrong with this tomb?”

“What’s the matter?” Elaine hummed: “I tell you, the reason why this tomb was discovered by the cultural relics department is that when the tomb robbers robbed the hole, they alarmed the nearby villagers. After the villagers called the police, the talents of the cultural relics department knew that there was a large tomb there, and the tomb of Haiyunhou’s wife was also in front of him. It had been stolen by tomb robbers long ago. It is said that there are dozens of thief holes punched in from all directions!”

Claire was stunned at hearing, “Are these tomb robbers really so powerful?”

Elaine was a little anxious, and said, “If you don’t believe me, search online!”

Charlie on the side nodded in agreement: “Wife, you are indeed a little ignorant about this matter. Actually, there are many very powerful craftsmen in the folk. The tomb robbers you read in novels are actually too many in real life, don’t believe me. Ask your dad, every year in the antique circle, many unearthed cultural relics are privately traded underneath. To put it bluntly, they are items stolen by tomb robbers.”

After speaking, Charlie said again: “A dozen or twenty years ago, a case of theft of Cordyceps Sinensis occurred in a provincial capital city in the central region. A shop that operated Cordyceps was stolen overnight with 200 kilograms worth thousands of Wan’s Cordyceps, do you know how the other party stole it?”

Claire shook her head: "How did they steal it?"

Charlie said: "It was a thief and stole it. They rented the shop opposite to the Cordyceps shop, drilled tens of meters underground, and went directly to the ground of the Cordyceps shop, and then drilled out and stole all the Cordyceps."

Claire was surprised and said: "This is too amazing..."

Charlie nodded: "Aside from their illegal and criminal behavior, just talk about their craftsmanship in drilling holes, it is indeed very powerful."

Elaine looked at Claire and said, "Now you believe me?"

Claire nodded, "Mom, I believe..."

Elaine gave a hum, and then said: "Then now, you understand what is meant by unprofitable and profitable, right? For tomb raiders, if it weren't for the ancient tomb in the mountains, who would go to that kind of poor country to donate? Temple? That's the same with Elsa. If it weren't for Aurous Hill's profit, why would she be the eldest lady of the Eastcliff family and waste her time here? That's why I say, Aurous Hill must have a big treasure we don't expect!"

Claire frowned and said, "But there is no treasure in Aurous Hill. Even if there is an ancient tomb, it is impossible for the Dong family to steal the tomb!"

Elaine said, "The big treasure I'm talking about may not be an ancient tomb! Maybe there are hidden great men in Aurous Hill!"

Claire smiled and said, "Big man? What big man can interest Eastcliff's family?"

After she finished speaking, she pointed to Charlie and ridiculed: "Many people in Aurous Hill call your son-in-law Master Wade, saying that your son-in-law is a real dragon in the world, is he a hidden great figure."

Chapter 2021

When Charlie heard Claire's ridicule, his heart shook.

He was really afraid that his mother-in-law and his wife would have nothing to do with the reasoning here, pushing and pulling his true identity.

Therefore, Charlie was really nervous when he heard Claire put her doubts directly on him.

At this time, Elaine waved her hand, looked at Charlie, and said with a flattering smile: "Claire, what you say is unlikely. Although my good son-in-law is promising now, it is also a recent thing. , When Elsa came to Aurous Hill, the good son-in-law hadn't raised his head yet, did you forget that at that time, Harold's cripple gadgets dared to be like my good son-in-law?"

Claire smiled helplessly: "Then I really don't know what the big baby you are talking about is."

Elaine smiled: "It doesn't really matter who it is, and it has nothing to do with our family. I say so much, but I just want to tell you that your girlfriend is not easy, and she must have kept a big secret in her heart."

Claire said: "Let her go, even if she hides a big secret, it has nothing to do with me, and I don't want to spy on her privacy."

After that, Claire asked again: "If Elsa is here for a while, mom, don't ask me, don't make it seem like we are gossiping."

Elaine nodded: "Okay, I won't talk much then."

Charlie was relieved.

When they got downstairs, Jacob was already sitting in the dining room eating noodles.

Seeing the three of them come down, he asked: "What are you three going to see? Mother was making noise outside early in the morning?"

Elaine grinned and said, "Oh, Jacob, your mother is so prosperous now, and she has learned to swear publicly on the balcony. It seems to be that Horiyah stole her hard-earned money. Your mother is swearing and calling the police to arrest her Yeah!"

Jacob murmured: "My mother's ability to scold the street on the balcony is far worse than you used to scold the people in the entire community on the balcony."

Elaine immediately patted the table: "Jacob, what are you talking about?!"

Jacob hurriedly waved his hand: "I didn't say anything."

Afterwards, he quickly turned away from the subject and said: "What is Horiyah doing stealing my mother's money? Which one are they singing this?"

Seeing Jacob's change in time, Elaine didn't continue to question him. After glaring at him, she continued, "I don't know which one they sang in the end."

Jacob sighed: "It is a good day, so I have to do it all day long. Now it's okay. The family business my dad created has been completely sent to dogs by them."

Elaine curled her lips: "It doesn't matter if they clean up the family business, it has nothing to do with us, as long as they don't come to us with a calm face!"

Jacob nodded with a complicated expression, and said nothing.

After the three of them had breakfast, Elsa and Delong arrived.

The two came to the door carrying large and small bags of gifts. As soon as they entered the door, Elsa warmly said to Jacob and Elaine: "Happy new year, uncle and aunt! I have come to pay you two New Year wishes in advance!"

After speaking, she looked at Claire and Charlie: "Claire, Charlie, happy new year to you too!"

Claire and Charlie said in unison: "Happy new year."

Delong followed Elsa, who looked like a little chicken, and when he saw Charlie, his liver trembled even more.

Elsa pointed to Delong next to her and said: "This is my cousin, Delong, cousin, you can say hello to everyone."

As soon as she finished speaking, DeLong said tremblingly: "Happy new year for uncle and aunt, happy new year for Miss Willson, happy new year for Mr. Wade."

After speaking, he bowed ninety degrees.

Elaine looked silly.

Although she didn't know DeLong, she had heard of him and knew that Elsa's aunt was married to the Eastcliff Kevin family, and she also knew that the Kevin family was also a powerful family.

However, she could not imagine that DeLong, as the young master of the this family, was so polite, even a little overly polite, and she thought to herself: "Oh dear, is this Kevin progeny so good? The young master came out to a small family like us in a small place visited and bowed ninety degrees as soon as he came up. Isn't this too grand?"

She didn't know that DeLong was originally one of the most arrogant and domineering second generation in Eastcliff. The reason why he is now honestly like a quail is entire because he was scared of Charlie.

DeLong came to Aurous Hill by bicycle from Eastcliff. Charlie stipulated that he must arrive within fifteen days, but it took him almost twenty days.

Therefore, he was afraid that Charlie would settle accounts with him. If he was unhappy and allowed him to stay in Aurous Hill for another year, wouldn't he be broken?

Chapter 2022

Thinking of this, he immediately said to Charlie subconsciously: "Mr. Wade, I'm so sorry, I was delayed for a few days on the road, and I was late..."

Claire, Jacob and Elaine were even more surprised.

Why did DeLong apologize to Charlie for? Do they know each other?

Seeing that everyone in his family was surprised, Charlie had an idea, and smiled slightly: "Master Kevin is polite, since I said to invite you to dinner, whether you come early or late, I will honor my promise."

Delong was taken aback for a moment, but he didn't understand why Charlie was so polite to him suddenly.

Then he realized that he might have said the wrong thing.

Charlie probably didn't want his family to know about his conflict with him.

Therefore, he hurriedly followed Charlie's words and continued: "If this is the case, thank you Mr. Wade in advance. Let's wait for the time in the next year."

Charlie nodded and smiled and said to Claire and his father-in-law and mother-in-law: "When I went to Eastcliff to show others Feng Shui, it happened that Claire was going to celebrate Grandma Dong's birthday. I met Master Kevin at the birthday banquet and heard about him. To come to Aurous Hill, I invited him to dinner after he comes."

Delong also hurriedly nodded: "Yes, I didn't expect that I was delayed for a few days on the way, and it was dragged to the root of the year."

Elaine asked in surprise: "Master Kevin, how did you come from Eastcliff? How can you delay a few days on the road? It takes only ten hours to take this journey? The plane is faster."

Delong said awkwardly: "I...I came here on a bicycle..."

"Ah?!" Elaine, Claire and Jacob were all stunned.

The dignified young master of the Kevin family came to Aurous Hill from Eastcliff on a bicycle. What is he doing in this cold winter?

Delong saw that everyone was very surprised, so he could only bite the bullet and said: "The reason for riding a bicycle is actually to cultivate the sentiment..."

Several people looked at each other.

Cultivating sentiment? Is the rich second generation so boring these days?

At this time, Elsa quickly came out to ease the embarrassment, and handed the prepared gifts to Jacob and Elaine, and said, "Uncles and aunts, these are some small gifts for you. Please also accept it!"

Jacob said politely: "Oh, Elsa, you came to wish us, that is already a big deal. Why bother with this all. I am embarrassed to make you spend money."

Elaine also echoed: "Yes, Elsa, come to aunt's house, then it's the same as coming to your own house, don't be so polite."

Although Elaine said this, she stretched out her hand while talking, and took the gifts they brought from Elsa and Delong.

Seeing Elaine's leg still in a cast, Elsa couldn't help asking in surprise: "Auntie, are your legs still?"

Elaine sighed: "Hey, it's good, but didn't it happen in an accident two days ago, it was cut off accidentally."

Elsa hurriedly asked: "What did the doctor say? Is it serious?"

Elaine waved her hand: "Hurt! It's nothing serious, just like last time, it's fine to cultivate."

Elsa nodded and said: "Then I wish Auntie a speedy recovery!"

Elaine smiled and said, "Thank you Elsa!"

Claire felt in her heart that her girlfriend came home with so many gifts, but she didn't prepare anything in return for her girlfriend. She was really embarrassed and hurriedly said, "Elsa, you said you are coming to sit at home suddenly. Didn't say hello to me, you have prepared so many gifts for my house, and I don't have time to prepare gifts for you to take back to Eastcliff, how embarrassing..."

Elsa smiled and said, "Why are you so polite with me! When you have the opportunity to come to Eastcliff next time, can you not come to my house and sit?"

As she said, she glanced at Charlie and said to Claire, "Claire, if you have nothing to do after the Chinese New Year, you can come to Eastcliff with Charlie for two days and stay at my house! On the seventh day of the new year, we will come back together!"

Claire smiled and said, "Well, let me see. I can't determine the time yet."

At this time, the doorbell rang.

Jacob hurriedly got up and went over. Through the video intercom screen, he saw that standing outside the door was a very mature and s3xy superb beauty.

Jacob asked in surprise, "Hello, who are you looking for?"

The other party politely asked: "Hello, is this Ms. Claire Willson's home? I am Doris Young from the Emgrand Group. I would like to visit the house, please forgive me!"

Chapter 2023

"Doris?!"

Hearing Doris's name, Jacob recognized that the s3xy beauty at the end of the video turned out to be the vice chairman of Emgrand Group who came to the scene to congratulate him when his daughter's studio opened.

This surprised Jacob.

After all, Doris, as the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group and a well-known business elite in Aurous Hill, is still very well-known in the city.

Moreover, Jacob also knew that the Emgrand Group gave Claire a lot of decoration business, which can be said to be Claire's career.

But he really did not expect that Doris would take the initiative to visit his home, so he hurriedly said to Claire: "Come on, come on, Doris, the vice-chairman of the Emgrand Group is here!"

"Ah?" Claire was surprised, and then a little nervous, and said: "Why is Doris here... I'll open the door for her!"

Elsa was also surprised.

Although Doris's worth is far less than Elsa's, she is after all the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, the second in command of the Emgrand Group, and Elsa's immediate boss.

Elsa did not expect that her immediate boss would come to visit her girlfriend's house.

Therefore, she was somewhat embarrassed in her heart, but now she couldn't leave, she could only bite the bullet and wait for Doris to come in.

Claire hurriedly invited Doris in. Doris said a little apologetically: "I'm sorry, Ms. Willson, I took the liberty to interrupt."

Claire hurriedly said: "Doris, you are too polite. I should have visited you, but I haven't spared time for these two days. I haven't just started the holiday until today."

Doris nodded, handed over the gift in her hand, and said, "These are some New Year gifts for uncle and aunt. Be careful, please accept it."

Claire was very embarrassed and said, "Ms. Doris...this...this is really inappropriate..."

Doris smiled slightly: "We have been working together for a long time. You and I don't need to be so polite. Compared with our cooperation, this little care is nothing."

At this time, Jacob and Elaine also walked over. Jacob was amazed by the young and capable temperament of Doris, while Elaine focused her attention on the gift box in her hand.

Claire said to Doris enthusiastically: "Doris sits in the living room for a while!"

Doris didn't see Charlie in the hall, and felt a little disappointed. If she had left like this, she would be a little bit regretful. Hearing Claire inviting herself to sit in, she smiled and said, "Excuse me, then. Up!"

Jacob smiled and said, "Don't bother, don't disturb, Doris, please come in and sit down, I will let my son-in-law make a pot of good tea for you!"

When Doris heard that Charlie was asked to make tea for her, she couldn't bear it, she waved her hand and said, "Uncle Willson, you are too polite, don't have to be so troublesome."

"Oh, it's not troublesome! It just so happened that there are guests at home, so let's sit together for a while." Jacob responded with a smile, then walked two steps quickly to the living room and greeted Charlie: "Good son-in-law, quickly make a pot of tea and entertain the three guests."

Charlie nodded, stretched out his hand and opened the kettle on the set of tea.

At this time, Doris also walked into the living room. As soon as she entered the living room, her eyes were focused on Charlie.

Charlie also looked at her, his eyes met, and there was a hint of joy in Doris's eyes.

And Charlie was also a little surprised at Doris in front of him.

Today's Doris does not wear the clothes of a strong woman in the workplace, but wears a light coffee-colored windbreaker, with long wavy hair draped over her shoulders, s3xy and charming.

Charlie nodded slightly at her, and said politely: "Hello, Doris."

Chapter 2024

Doris quickly replied: "Hello, Mr. Wade..."

At this moment, Elsa stood up and said a little embarrassingly: "Hello Doris..."

Doris only saw Elsa and said in surprise: "Oh, Elsa are you here too? Didn't you go home?"

Elsa said unnaturally: "Um...I'll go to the airport in a while."

The moment Delong on the side saw Doris, his eyes burst into flames!

Although he has seen a lot of beautiful women, he has never seen such a beautiful and charming workplace beauty, so he immediately felt a kind of heartbeat.

He stood up subconsciously and asked Elsa: "Elsa, you haven't introduced this beauty yet?"

Elsa hurriedly introduced: "Oh, by the way, Doris, let me introduce to you, this is my cousin, Delong."

After speaking, she looked at Delong: "Cousin, this is the vice chairman of our Emgrand Group, Doris Young."

Delong immediately stretched out his hand and said flatly: "Oh, I have heard of the name of Doris a long time ago. When I saw her today, it seems she really deserves this reputation! I am Delong, a descendant of the Eastcliff Kevin family."

Doris nodded lightly, and said politely: "Fortunate to meet you."

However, Doris was not surprised by Delong's identity.

Although she is not from a big family, she has worked in the Emgrand Group for a long time, has been in contact with many big families, and also knows many things about big families, and naturally she has some understanding of the Eastcliff Kevin family.

Even Charlie, the young master of the Wade family, has known her for so long, and she naturally didn't feel superfluous when seeing the young master Delong of the Kevin family.

Delong thought that he moved out of the role of the young master of the Kevin family, which would definitely make Doris admire him.

Unexpectedly, Doris didn't seem to care about the fact that he was the young master of the Kevin family at all, and there was no wave in his expression.

This made Delong's heart a little depressed, and he thought to himself: "I want to treat Doris as a key target. If Doris can be taken down, then my next year in Aurous Hill will not last forever. Too boring..."

"But, this Doris doesn't seem to be very cold to me... She is just a professional manager, and the salary is tens of millions for a year, so why would she ignore me, the young master of the Kevin family? No? Isn't it too high-sighted?"

Therefore, he continued to persevere and said to Doris: "Doris, I have long heard that you have extraordinary ability and are a business elite. If you are interested in developing in Eastcliff in the future, you can consider coming to our Kevin Group as a vice chairman. It's definitely much higher than the Emgrand Group."

He thought that he could use a high salary to seduce Doris, but he didn't expect that Doris shook her head without hesitation: "Thank you, Mr. Kevin, for your kindness, but no need. I'm pretty good at the Emgrand Group and I don't plan to change jobs."

Delong couldn't help feeling a little lost, but he was still unwilling to admit defeat, so he continued: "Doris, Aurous Hill is too small and it will restrict your development. It is better to go to Eastcliff. , The sky is high, let the birds fly!"

At this time, Delong only cared about picking up girls, but forgot that there was Charlie who he could not afford to offend.

In fact, he didn't think that there was any problem in hooking up Doris in front of Charlie.

After all, even though he was triggered by him and came to Aurous Hill to live a hard life for a year, Charlie did not say that he would not let himself pick up girls during this year!

Charlie saw Delong's tricks deep in his heart and thought to himself: "This Delong, really can't change the dog's ability to eat sh!t, and he has to pretend to be the young master of the Kevin family wherever he goes. In that case, then Just give him another year and let him stay in Aurous Hill for two years before leaving!"

Thinking of this, he immediately sent a WeChat message to Sara: "Sara, tell your cousin Weiliang, let him convey to the Kevin family, that Delong's punishment period in Aurous

Hill will be extended by one year, and let them send WeChat notification to Delong now."

Sara immediately replied: "Charlie, did that Delong make you angry again in Aurous Hill?"

Charlie replied: "He didn't mess with me, he just pretends to be coerced in front of me, which made me a little unhappy!"

Chapter 2025

Delong was thinking about how to find a topic and get closer to Doris, when he suddenly received a WeChat message from his mother Xiuhua.

The content on WeChat made him struck by lightning in an instant.

"How did you b@stard provoke Charlie?! Weiliang from the Gu family just called and scolded me, saying that you were in trouble again. Charlie wants to extend your punishment in Aurous Hill to two years!"

Delong collapsed almost instantly!

"Two years?! Isn't this killing me?"

"I have only lived in the city village of Aurous Hill for two days, and I can't stand it anymore. I don't know how to fight it in the next year. Why did Charlie suddenly add another year in prison? How did I offend him?"

Thinking of this, Delong looked at Charlie and asked subconsciously: "Mr. Wade, I..."

Charlie didn't wait for him to speak, he passed a cup of tea, smiled faintly, and said, "Come on, Mr. Kevin, please have tea. This tea is good. I brought it back from outside. I drank it once, than never stopped. Drinking it is about to change to three, and it may even change to four or five."

Delong's face immediately became extremely ugly.

He heard the threat in Charlie's words clearly.

"Charlie's point is definitely to tell me not to talk nonsense. If I drink tea honestly and don't talk nonsense, then let me stay in Aurous Hill for two years. If I don't follow what he said, two years will be possible. Become three, four, or even five years..."

Thinking of this, DeLong's heart completely collapsed!

"This Charlie is simply a devil among the devil! Why on earth did I provoke him? Why does he want to treat me like this?!"

"Is it...Is it because of that Doris?! Did I just want to get Doris and offend him?!"

"Doris is not his woman either! Isn't she the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group? What does it have to do with your Charlie? You are too broad, right..."

Just when DeLong was so depressed that he wanted to die, others also looked at Charlie in surprise, completely ignorant of what Charlie meant by changing two to three or four.

Claire asked in surprise: "Charlie, what are you talking about, why two changes to three, two changes to four, why don't I understand..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "My wife, I'm just playing puzzles with Mr. Kevin. When we met last time, I found that we both like puzzles, so I asked Mr. Kevin a temporary question."

Claire nodded lightly, and asked with a smile, "What is the answer?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I can't say the answer to the puzzle, it's boring to say it."

As he said, he pushed the teacup in front of DeLong again, and asked with a smile: "Mr. Kevin, do you know this cup of tea, do you want to drink it?"

DeLong knew that if he didn't pick up this cup of tea, he might be inseparable from Aurous Hill in the next three or four years.

If you want to stop the loss in time, drink this cup of tea quickly, so as not to continue to expand the loss.

Thinking of this, his eyes reddened and he almost cried on the spot.

"Two years! Let me live for two years in this kind of city, in that kind of shabby urban village, what's the difference between being in jail!"

"Maybe it's fucking better than going to jail!"

"What kind of sin I have done, that I will meet Charlie, a beast that is not as good as a beast! Before I met him, I should not live a too chic life. Since I met him on Warnia's birthday last time, I haven't met him in life. What a good thing!"

At this point, DeLong's heart suddenly exclaimed: "Damn! That time I offended Charlie because I wanted to get in Warnia! Charlie is too brutal, right?! He's married, and his wife is so beautiful, why does he stop me? Let me pick up girls?! Are these all his women?!"

DeLong's desire to die is gone. He accidentally hit Charlie's muzzle so many times. From now on, he just wants to stay away from Charlie. He never wants to see him again in his life...

Apart from resentment, he could only be forced to compromise to Charlie helplessly, and respectfully took the teacup pushed by Charlie, brought it to his mouth with a trembling hand, and said with great pain: "Mr. Wade, thank you for making it. Tea, I will drink it!"

Chapter 2026

After that, he gritted his teeth and stomped his feet, picked up the teacup, and drank up.

Drinking this cup of tea is equivalent to acquiescing to Charlie's new arrangement.

The one-year sentence suddenly doubled to two years.

Delong wanted to cry without tears, and his whole body instantly lost his soul, completely devoid of energy.

Elsa was also a little surprised at this time.

Others didn't know the contradiction between Charlie and Delong, but she knew it perfectly.

It was Charlie who asked Delong to ride a bicycle from Eastcliff to Aurous Hill, and suffer hardships in Aurous Hill. Now Charlie suddenly started to use numbers to play dumb puzzles, and she immediately had a bad feeling.

So she asked Delong in a low voice: "Brother, what is going on?"

Delong handed the mobile phone to Elsa in despair. On the screen of the mobile phone, it was the WeChat sent to him by his mother Xiuhua.

After Elsa finished reading, she was immediately stunned!

She also didn't expect Charlie to be so cruel, and he just directly doubled the cousin's one-year hardship period.

However, she couldn't care about the distressed Delong.

She was looking back, looking back at how Delong had offended Charlie from the moment he entered the door to the present.

"Did cousin offend Charlie?"

"It doesn't seem to be... he has always been very polite to Charlie, so he almost bowed and called him Big Brother."

"Did cousin offend Claire?"

"It doesn't seem to be! The cousin is afraid of Charlie to death, knowing that Claire is Charlie's wife, even if he gives him ten courage, he does not dare to have any bad ideas about her."

"Does the form offend Claire's parents?"

"Still not! The cousin has been very humble from the time he entered the door to the present, and he doesn't look like the second generation dude at all."

"Then where did he offend Charlie?"

Elsa suddenly fell into thought.

After that, her eyes suddenly caught Doris who was secretly looking at Charlie.

At this moment, she suddenly shook her heart!

"Could it...could it be that my cousin offended Charlie after expressing his affection for Doris just now?!"

"But, what does Charlie have to do with Doris?! Doris is the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group. She has some contact with Claire. It is impossible to have too much contact with Charlie!"

"Furthermore, even if Charlie knew Doris, why did he turn his anger on her cousin because of her cousin's provocation of Doris?"

"Moreover, Doris looked at Charlie's eyes, as if something was not quite right! This...Is there anything hidden in it?!"

When Elsa thought of this, her mind was already in a mess.

Reason told her that Charlie and Doris should have nothing to do with each other.

However, her instinct told her that the relationship between the two people seemed far less simple than what she had seen!

Chapter 2027

Elsa wanted to explore the relationship between Charlie and Doris.

However, today's time is obviously not allowed.

She had to rush back to Eastcliff to spend the New Year with her family, so she could only say to Claire and Charlie after sitting for ten minutes, "Claire, Charlie, I have to go, I have to I will have to go to the airport to catch the plane. Today, all the flights to Eastcliff are full. If this flight is missed, I can only spend the New Year in Aurous Hill."

Claire asked, "Elsa, do you want us to see you off at the airport?"

Elsa hurriedly said: "No, you can stay at home."

After speaking, she greeted Doris again: "Doris, I'm leaving now."

Doris nodded slightly and said, "A good journey, and I wish you a happy new year in advance!"

"Thank you!" Elsa nodded, and after leaving Claire's parents again, she left with Delong who was crying.

As soon as he left the door, Delong couldn't hold back his depressed mood anymore, and cried out all of a sudden, saying: "Elsa, Charlie is too much! You have seen it too, I haven't offended him since I entered the door. I didn't provoke him, and didn't dare to confront him with a word. Unexpectedly, he asked Weiliang to give me a one-year deadline! He also said that I made him feel uncomfortable. You give him a comment!"

Elsa sighed and said, "Brother, I suspect that the reason why Charlie looks unpleasant to you is because your attitude towards Doris is a bit too ambiguous!"

Delong nodded, and said with emotion: "I guess you can tell, I guessed it. I guess there are two possibilities for this. Either Charlie is very upset about my behavior of picking up girls in front of him, or he is very upset with my behavior of making ways towards Doris, and there must be one of these two."

Elsa nodded: "I have the same opinion as you, and it probably has something to do with Doris, but I don't understand it. It stands to reason that Charlie and Doris should have no friendship."

Delong said angrily: "I suspect they might have a leg!"

Elsa naturally couldn't accept such a fact in her heart, so she said, "It should be impossible for them. Charlie is still very sincere to his wife."

Delong said: "Knowing people, knowing the face and not knowing the heart, you don't know what kind of face Charlie is like when he is not in front of you..."

As he said, he sighed depressedly: "I had known that I would not come with you! I said I would not come, you have to let me come, now it's okay, I have to stay in this shabby place of Aurous Hill for two years. Isn't this killing me?"

Elsa said helplessly and ashamed: "I'm sorry, brother, I'm all to blame for this, I shouldn't have brought you here..."

Delong wiped a tear and said, "Instead of saying sorry to me, you should think of a way to persuade Charlie to spare me as soon as possible..."

Elsa hurriedly nodded and said, "Brother, don't worry about that. When I come back from Eastcliff, I will definitely find a chance to help you intercede with him."

After speaking, she said firmly: "After I come back, I must check Charlie and Doris's affairs, and see if they have any secrets."

.....

With strong suspicion, Elsa flew back to Eastcliff by plane.

Delong had no money in his pocket, and didn't dare to make trouble in Aurous Hill, so he could only return to the village in the city slumped.

At the same time, the arrogant and defiant aunt of Charlie, Cynthia, was under residential surveillance in the village in the city.

This New Year's Eve will be the worst New Year's Eve that the two of them have ever had in their lives.

Just as tragic, there is Willson family.

Chapter 2028

Mrs. Willson originally agreed to go to work in the supermarket today.

The supermarket also agreed to double her salary today.

However, because her hard-earned money was stolen, and Elaine sneered fiercely, Mrs. Willson's blood pressure suddenly rose, and she sat down on a chair and could not stand up again.

Although there was nothing serious about her body, she had no choice but to give up the idea of going to the supermarket to work because of her anger and blood pressure.

Seeing that the hard-earned money is gone and there is no chance to earn today's salary, she is desperate in her heart.

She originally wanted Wendy to work in the supermarket and earn her double salary.

But when she thought that her son and grandson were both seriously injured in the bed, and her blood pressure surged, she couldn't take care of herself and couldn't take care of them, so she didn't dare to let Wendy leave.

A family of four can only stare at each other in a luxurious villa.

The four of them are now penniless, the only thing they have is the leftovers that were not finished yesterday.

It was originally leftovers, but after another night, it was completely broken into vegetable soup.

Wendy suggested to eat these leftovers at noon, but the old lady did not agree.

She said to Wendy: "The leftovers are the only food we have now. If we eat them now, we will be hungry at night."

With that, Mrs. Willson sighed and said, "Tonight is the New Year's Eve, what are we talking about? You can't be hungry for the New Year's Eve dinner, so let's save the leftovers for the evening."

Wendy cried and said, "Grandma, the rest of the food, none of the four of us can eat half full, what's the point of keeping it..."

The old lady said seriously: "You don't understand! You must eat the New Year's Eve dinner. If you can't eat the New Year's Eve dinner, the next year will be the life of a pauper and you can't turn it back!"

When Harold heard this, he immediately cried: "Grandma, didn't you say that you would wrap meat dumplings for me tonight? Why did you let me eat these leftovers?"

Old lady Willson was extremely helpless: "Harold, grandma can't do anything about it. After all, we don't have a penny now. What can we buy noodles and meat with?"

Harold cried particularly sadly: "Grandma, today is New Year's Eve, and I can't eat big fish and meat. Anyway, I have a mouthful of dumplings. I really don't want to eat the leftover vegetable soup from yesterday. The smell of water, mixed with the smell of rusty kitchen knives, is really unpalatable..."

Jacob on the side choked dryly and said, "After you have done Harold, you can eat some, it's not bad...It's better than having a hungry stomach on New Year's Eve..."

After all, he gritted his teeth and said: "This thing, blame your mother, that b!tch took all of your grandma's hard-earned money, otherwise, we would be able to eat hot dumplings... .."

Wendy also cried, sobbing and said, "Mom is too much. When she stole grandma's money, didn't she think about our family?"

The lady Willson was even more angry, and blurted out: "She wants a f@rt! If she really had our family in her heart, she wouldn't betray her body in the black coal pit! This kind of unruly b!tch, if it is true. If I have eyes, I will take her as soon as possible!"

After that, the old lady Willson sat down in a chair, patted her thighs, and cried out: "God, you open your eyes and look at our house, what life are we having!"

The old lady hid her face and wept bitterly.

Others kept whimpering, and the family of four cried together...

Chapter 2029

And the Charlie family next door began to prepare New Year's Eve dinner after noon.

All kinds of ingredients piled up the entire kitchen workbench.

Charlie is the one with the best cooking skills in the family, so he did his part and became the chef of this New Year's Eve dinner.

Elaine had poor legs and feet, so she sat on the ground picking vegetables. Claire helped Charlie wash and cut vegetables and prepare other ingredients. As for Jacob, he chopped up dumpling fillings by hand with a kitchen knife.

The family of four help out in the kitchen, and the atmosphere is rare and warm.

As the sky gradually darkened, each dish was served on the table.

In villa a04, Gina and the others have also begun to get busy in the kitchen.

The three women lived in a more pragmatic way. In addition to preparing the noodles and meat for making dumplings, they bought a chicken, a fish and two catties of ribs, and made a few home-cooked dishes with meat and vegetables.

Gina felt that the opportunity to live in such a good villa was the result of three people, so she bought an incense burner, a handful of incense, and a cheap portrait of Guanyin.

Before eating, Gina took Tabia and Lexi, kneeling before the portrait of Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Gina offered three sticks of incense with both hands, and said very piously:
"Avalokitesvara who saves the suffering, thank you for blessing our three struggling sisters, so that we can live in such a great villa in this life, and dare not dream of it before. You can rest assured that the three of us will work hard to make money in the future. It is not easy to be lazy, please let me know! In addition, your disciple Gina also asks you to bless our lives as better as possible!"

On the two sides behind her are Tabia and Lexi.

The two of them also learned everything at this time, holding three sticks of incense, and said: "Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva, please bless us!"

Afterwards, the three of them knocked their heads three times to Guanyin Bodhisattva.

After the kowtow, Gina stood up and took the lead in inserting the three sticks of incense into the incense burner. After the other two sisters had also inserted the incense, she said contentedly: "Come sisters, it's time for New Year's Eve dinner!"

The two said in unison: "Let's go Sister Gina!"

When the three of them went to eat, Wendy and Mrs. Willson had been hiding at the corner of the stairs and watching.

They smelled the scent of rice, so they couldn't help but take a look.

Although the old lady always wanted to save the leftovers that she brought back yesterday as New Year's Eve dinner, when it was just dark, the four of them were so hungry that they couldn't hold back their hunger, so they divided up the leftovers.

There was not much leftover, and everyone was not even half full, so the four people were still hungry.

Seeing these three women cook a table of home-cooked dishes, the old lady Willson and Wendy drooled.

Seeing that the three of them were eating, Wendy asked the old lady in a low voice: "Grandma, do you think they will leave a little leftovers or something?"

Old lady shook her head, and swallowed her saliva at the same time: "I don't know, I hope..."

Wendy said aggrievedly: "If only two spare ribs and a bowl of rice can be left, I am afraid they will have nothing left..."

After speaking, tears have already rolled down.

The old lady stared at the incense burner in front of Guanshiyin Bodhisattva, and said seriously: "Wendy, don't worry, do you see that incense burner? It is filled with rice! When they return to the room to rest in the evening, we will use the rice in it to cook!"

.....

Chapter 2030

At this time, Charlie's family was in the living room, eating New Year's Eve dinner while watching the Spring Festival Gala, and the family was enjoying it.

Jacob and Elaine, two old people who disliked each other, were rare to not pinch each other.

Jacob drank some white wine with Charlie, and he was very happy to drink.

Claire originally wanted to drink some red wine with Elaine, but Elaine snatched the red wine from her and poured it to herself, and said to Claire very seriously: "Claire, women can't get pregnant drinking, it's not good for children!"

After finishing speaking, she smiled and said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, you also drink less, too much alcohol will affect the quality of the male tadpoles! And then affect the quality of the children!"

Claire was suddenly embarrassed, and said with shame and anger, "Mom...how do you talk... look at your words!"

Elaine said seriously: "I am teaching you health care experience. This is what the parenting experts and genetics experts on TV say!"

Claire helplessly said, "Then don't be so blunt! At least say it tactfully!"

Elaine was a little aggrieved: "Didn't I use tadpoles to call it? Isn't this tactful enough?"

Jacob's drinking volume was average, and a few cups and his stomach will be a little overwhelming. He looked at Charlie. Although he was a little drunk, he said very seriously: "Good son-in-law, don't listen to your mother's nonsense. She is too drunk. Claire can only be found when the whole person is unconscious. What is the difference in the quality of Claire? Just my girl, placed in the country, that is also the handful of top-quality words! Completely inherited my Excellent gene!"

Elaine immediately sipped, and said: "You have to nod! In the beginning, this is inheriting your fine genes? What fine genes do you have? She can grow so beautiful in the first place, it is all my natural beauty that depends on my old lady!"

"Fat you!" Jacob curled his lips: "Just your gene, no one will pick it up after throwing it into the sewer. Is it good? Good f@rt!"

Elaine smashed her chopsticks and shouted angrily: "Jacob, what are you going to do? I don't want to fight with you during the Chinese New Year, so don't be too frustrated!"

Jacob shrank his neck and said nervously, "Oh, I'm not teaching experience to my son-in-law, this is a topic between men, so don't mix it up."

After speaking, he patted Charlie on the shoulder, and said: "Charlie, you, listen to Dad, you don't need to think about anything, you don't need to prepare anything, it's okay to drink some wine and have fun, and then this matter Maybe it will happen!"

Claire's face blushed when she heard this, and immediately put down her chopsticks and said, "If you talk about this untimely topic again, then I will go back to my room and watch TV."

"Oh, don't don't!" Jacob hurriedly beckoned, "Isn't it okay if Dad doesn't talk? Tonight is the first time for our family of four to celebrate the Chinese New Year alone, and we live in such a great villa without having to suffer from your grandma. I have to make the New Year's Eve more successful if anything I say!"

Elaine rarely agreed with Jacob's point of view, and said cheerfully: "Yeah! We must keep the year old until twelve o'clock in everything we say this year!"

Claire said: "It's okay to keep the year old, but you don't stop talking nonsense..."

"Good, good!" Elaine said with a smile: "I know you are thin-skinned, it won't work if I don't say it!"

Jacob also hurriedly changed the subject and said to Charlie: "Come on, good son-in-law, drink!"

Charlie nodded and touched Jacob with his wine glass.

Just after drinking, the phone received two WeChat messages.

When he opened it, it was Nanako from Japan who sent the message.

She first posted a photo of the courtyard of her old house in Kyoto. In the photo, the courtyard was covered with snow again.

Later, she also sent a text: "Master, today is your country's traditional New Year's Eve, Nanako wishes you a happy Chinese New Year! In addition, I want to share a good news with you: It's snowing again in Kyoto tonight."

Chapter 2031

Looking at the photo, Charlie couldn't help but return to the snowy night in Kyoto many days ago.

It was under that heavy snow that he saved Nanako, and also saved Zhifei and Zhiyu with a hand.

Thinking of this, he sighed in his heart and replied to Nanako: "Thank you, and wish you a happy Chinese New Year too!"

Charlie didn't respond to what Nanako said about snow in Kyoto.

He knew that he shouldn't have too much emotional communication with Nanako.

In the beginning, he felt that she shouldn't have been trapped by the injuries Aoxue brought to her for all of her life, so he wanted to cure her.

Now, she has recovered and he saved her life. It stands to reason that he has completely cleared her.

If it involves too much, I am afraid it will be out of the question.

Charlie himself knew that those women who liked him might not be able to explain to them, and Nanako was the same.

Therefore, keeping some distance appropriately is considered responsible to her.

Nanako is indeed a talented girl. From Charlie's reply, she can see his inner thoughts.

Therefore, she replied to Charlie: "Master must be spending the festive season with his family now, and I won't bother you! I wish you a happy holiday again!"

After replying to this sentence, her heart was very sad.

She knew that today is a traditional Chinese holiday and the most important holiday of the year, so she sent a WeChat blessing to Charlie.

At the same time, it happened that she happened to accompany her father to Kyoto for training in the past two days. It happened that there was a heavy snowfall in Kyoto tonight, and she immediately thought of the night when Charlie was the god of war.

Thinking of that night, she missed him more and more.

Therefore, she also took advantage of the opportunity of New Year's blessing to share the heavy snow in Kyoto with him.

Unexpectedly, he didn't even respond with half a word.

Although she was very disappointed in her heart, Nanako could still understand. She knew that Charlie had a wife, and even if she liked him again, he still had to keep a certain distance from her.

So, she put her phone away and sat alone on the wooden steps at the edge of the yard, staring at the falling snow.

Takehiko Ito, who had his legs amputated, was now manipulating the electric wheelchair, slowly approaching.

The voice of the wheelchair didn't even disturb Nanako.

It's just because, at this moment, all the attention in her mind is not on her eyes and everything around her, but on the distant Charlie.

Seeing his daughter staring at snow in a daze, Ito sighed.

My daughter, how can I not understand?

Takehiko has long seen that his daughter has a loyalty to Charlie and has always been thinking about him. Seeing her like this, he can't help feeling a little distressed.

So, he coughed and called out: "Nanako."

Only then did Nanako recover, and said embarrassedly, "Father, why are you out?"

Takehiko Ito smiled slightly and said, "You didn't come in for a long time, so I came out to see you."

Nanako said hurriedly: "Then let's go back, it's quite cold outside."

"It doesn't matter." Ito said with a smile: "Nanako, there are some things that you can't force, let alone urgently, ask for it."

Nanako hurriedly concealed: "Dad, what are you talking about, why can't I understand..."

Takehiko smiled and said: "Charlie is a good man, and what is rare is that he is also very capable. Such a man is worth waiting for a few more years."

Nanako blushed immediately.

Chapter 2032

However, she did not immediately deny it, nor did she run away on the spot. Instead, she put her hands in front of her and bowed deeply: "My father, I understand!"

Ito Takehiko smiled comfortedly and said: "I am old, and I can't bear the cold wind. I will go back to rest first, and you should go to bed earlier."

Nanako hurriedly said, "My father, let me see you off!"

Ito Yuhiko waved his hand: "No, you like to meditate, just meditate for a while."

After all, he controlled the electric wheelchair, turned half a circle on the spot, and returned to his room slowly.

Nanako watched her father's back disappear at the end of the corridor, feeling that her face was still hot, so she gently covered the thick snow with her hands, and then she covered her face with her hands.

The cold hands made the temperature of her cheeks drop a lot, and Nanako's heart gradually calmed down.

After a while, she stretched out her hand again and wrote a beautiful word on the snow with her fingers. This word is Charlie's name.

Afterwards, she supported her chin with her hands and watched the snowflakes fall on the word one by one until it became more and more blurred and eventually disappeared.

At this moment, she slowly stood up and returned to her room.

At the same time.

Osaka, Japan is only tens of kilometers away from Kyoto.

A one-armed woman, led by several Japanese Self-Defense Force soldiers, came to the Self-Defense Force station in Osaka.

This one-armed woman surnamed He, the daughter of the He family of the four major ancient martial arts families in China.

She is Ruoli's biological mother, Roma.

Since the time difference in Japan is one hour earlier than in China, it is already ten o'clock in the night in Osaka at this moment.

Under the leadership of the soldiers, Roma finally entered the self-defense force station after passing through strict security checks.

Afterwards, the soldiers led her from a building on a high-speed elevator all the way down.

The high-speed elevator stopped at a depth of fifty meters underground.

Here is the three defense underground base of the Osaka Self-Defense Force.

The three protections for civilian use are waterproof, dustproof and drop-proof.

The three defenses in the military refer to the prevention of nuclear, biological, and chemical weapons.

Therefore, this three defense base is the most closely guarded area of the Self-Defense Force in Osaka.

Now, this three-defense base is used for other purposes. All the more than fifty masters of the Su family, including Ruoli, are detained here. The strong defense here can effectively prevent them from escape.

After Roma was brought in, she was directly arranged into a closed room.

The iron door of this room is 20 centimeters thick, much stronger than the bank vault.

After she sat down in the room, a Japanese soldier reminded her in a low voice: "People will be here soon, you only have five minutes."

Roma nodded hurriedly and said seriously: "Thank you!"

The soldier said nothing, turned and left the room. A minute later, a young woman with metal shackles on her hands and feet walked in under the leadership of the two soldiers.

This young woman had a gloomy expression, and her eyes were full of coldness.

However, after she entered the room, those cold eyes immediately stared in surprise, and then two lines of tears rolled down.

She looked at Roma, who was also crying silently in front of her, and cried out in a choked voice: "Mom..."

Roma walked two steps quickly, hugged her in her arms with one hand, while gently stroking the back of her head, while lovingly said: "Ruoli, you have suffered..."

Chapter 2033

Ruoli hugged Roma's waist tightly and asked excitedly: "Mom, why are you here?! How did you come in?!"

Roma saw that the Japanese soldiers had retreated, and said: "Ruoli, your father asked me to come."

"Dad?" Ruoli asked hurriedly: "How is dad now? Has he returned to China? There is no danger, right?"

Roma shook her head and said softly, "Don't worry, your father is fine. He has returned to Eastcliff safely."

Ruoli just breathed a sigh of relief and muttered, "Dad is fine..."

Roma said: "If Ruoli, your dad originally wanted to come to Japan to rescue you personally, but he is now the subject of strict monitoring by the Japanese national security department, so it is not convenient to come to Japan again in a short time, so he let me meet you."

Ruoli was very puzzled and asked, "Mom, the Self-Defense Forces kept me so tight, how did you get in? Why did they let you in?"

Roma said: "The Japanese authorities have indeed reached the highest level of control over you, and your dad has inquired about it. They hope to sentence you and several principal offenders to death. In order to save you, your dad spent a lot of money on the Self-Defense Forces. The high-level officers have a good relationship and are ready to rescue you!"

"Help me out?!" Ruoli exclaimed, and asked: "This...how is this possible? The Japanese Self-Defense Forces guard me very closely now, and there are tens of thousands of Self-Defense Forces on the ground. Soldier, how could you rescue me from here..."

Roma explained: "Although you are currently being detained by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, the Self-Defense Forces cannot represent the Japanese judiciary after all, so you still have to be tried by a Japanese court, and according to Japanese law, you are to be escorted back to the place where the case was committed. The court accepts trial."

Ruoli asked hurriedly: "Then we are going to be escorted to Tokyo for trial?"

"Yes!" Roma nodded and said, "The Japanese Self-Defense Forces will use their military transport aircraft to send you back to Tokyo. After arriving in Tokyo, the special operations team of the TMPD will be responsible for escorting. At that time, your father will arrange a stand-in in Tokyo, and with the help of a senior from the TMPD, you will be replaced."

Ruoli was dumbfounded, and only after a long while she asked, "Mom, can you change me out so grandiosely?"

Roma took her hand and said seriously: "Don't worry about this, your father has already arranged it. Before the double is found out, he can buy you twelve hours. At that time, your father will arrange for you to travel from Tokyo Port. Leave Japan by boat."

With that, Roma squeezed Ruoli's hand and said with emotion: "Ruoli, to save you this time, your father spent nearly 1 billion yuan to clear the relationship between the Self-Defense Force and the TMPD. If you can return home safely, and you must repay your father well in the future!"

Ruoli's eyes were red, and she nodded while crying, and choked up: "Mom, don't worry, I will repay my father well!"

Roma nodded and said, "Also, after you return to China this time, the Japanese side will definitely do everything possible to catch you back. If they know that you have returned, they will definitely apply to our country and extradite you. Go back to Japan for trial, so after you go back, you have to live under a different name. You will no longer be able to use this name in the future."

Ruoli hurriedly asked: "Mom, if I can no longer be called Ruoli in the future, what should I call?"

Chapter 2034

Roma said: "Your dad said, you can pick up the name as you like, and he will help you get the relevant household registration information."

Ruoli flashed a flash of joy. Just as she was about to speak, Roma added: "Ruoli, your father said, you cannot continue to have the last name Su, or you can call any name other than Ruoli, but you can't use the character of the Su family."

Ruoli's expression of joy just now became extremely bitter. She looked at Roma and asked, "Mom, Dad still doesn't want others to know who I am?"

Roma said with an ashamed expression: "Ruoli, you are your father's illegitimate daughter after all, and few people know about this. Apart from your father, only your grandfather knows about the relationship between your father and me. Liona, if she knows that your father still has an illegitimate daughter like you, she will definitely break with your father..."

Ruoli choked up and said, "Mom, can't I tell others that Zynn Su is my father all my life? Do I have to be a girl who has no father since childhood?"

Roma's eyes were red, and she sighed, "Ruoli, the reason why your father had that past with me back then was entirely my own request. He didn't even know your existence for many years, so you can't blame him. Unwilling to disclose your identity!"

"What's more, your dad paid a very high price to save you this time. Even if he can't publicly claim that you are his daughter, deep down in his heart, he also loves you very much! Can't blame him, do you understand?"

Ruoli sighed when she heard this, nodded slightly, and said seriously: "Mom, I know, don't worry, I will never mention this matter again in the future, let alone blame Dad in my heart!"

Roma squeezed Ruoli's hand hard, and said seriously: "In a few days, you will be escorted to Tokyo. Then someone will contact you, replace you, and send you to the dock. Mom will be waiting for you at home!"

Ruoli hurriedly asked: "Mom, won't you wait for me in Tokyo?"

Roma shook her head and said, "Your dad said, once you successfully escape, Japan will definitely check everyone who has recently entered the country. At that time, if it is found that I am from China and I have been to Osaka, the incident will happen again. I went to Tokyo before, which meant that I gave the Homeland Security Department a complete clue for nothing. So after he told me to meet you, I immediately returned from Osaka to avoid leaving clues. As for Tokyo, he will arrange for others to meet you."

Ruoli nodded and said, "Okay mom, I know! You wait for me to go back in peace in China!"

At this time, someone opened the door and said: "Time is almost up!"

Roma looked at Ruoli reluctantly, and said, "Ruoli, take care of yourself these few days, mom will go!"

Ruoli nodded gently with tears: "Mom, take care, and also help me to say thanks to Dad..."

Roma patted her arm and whispered: "There is no 100% success rate in everything, but you must promise mom and come back alive!"

Chapter 2035

Ruoli looked at Roma, nodded heavily, and said with tears in her eyes: "Mom, don't worry, I will come back to see you alive!"

Roma touched her face with one arm, and said lovingly: "After you come back this time, don't go back to Su's house. You will stay with your mother at grandma's house for a while, and wait for the limelight to fade before going back."

Ruoli gave a hum and said, "Mom, take care."

Roma said in a low voice: "Don't disclose the matter of saving you to anyone who are arrested with you, because this time only you can leave. If you let them know, in case of unrest, I am afraid it will cause trouble."

Ruoli sighed softly: "Okay mom, I see..."

Roma nodded, and then reluctantly left.

And Ruoli was also taken back to her cell by soldiers.

However, Ruoli at this time was full of gratitude to Zynn in her heart.

Although she is only an illegitimate daughter, and her father Zynn cannot admit her identity, Zynn is willing to pay such a high price to rescue her. This is indeed far beyond Ruoli's expectations of Zynn, and it also makes her heart move deeply.

Originally, she was ready to be sentenced to death, but after seeing her mother Roma, she rekindled hope for the future life.

Eastcliff time, ten o'clock in the evening.

The Charlie family in front of the TV are watching the Spring Festival Gala on TV.

Claire's emotions seemed a bit agitated, and said to Charlie: "The program published on the Internet says that Sara's solo singing will be in prime time at 10:10 and should be coming soon!"

Charlie nodded, he couldn't help but look forward to it.

Although he knows that Sara is a big star, he hasn't watched Sara's film and television dramas, nor has he heard her singing songs.

This is mainly related to Charlie's personality. He has no need for entertainment, so naturally he doesn't care about the entertainment industry.

However, he naturally cared a little more about Sara. After all, this was his childhood friend who grew up with him, and she was also the fiancée that his parents made for him.

So he and Claire looked forward to the TV together, looking forward to Sara's appearance.

The timing of the Spring Festival Gala is almost exactly the same. At 10:10, the host smiled and said: "It is said that the taste of first love is the most beautiful feeling in life. Next, the film and television song superstar Miss Sara will bring her to us. The new single "First Love"."

Afterward, Sara, wearing an elegant evening dress, stepped onto the gorgeous stage.

Claire said excitedly: "Wow! Sara's dress is really beautiful!"

Charlie couldn't help but nod in agreement.

Sara on TV deliberately put her long hair lightly behind her head, which is a little more dignified and a little more charming than before.

Elaine looked at Sara and couldn't help sighing: "Oh, this girl is really beautiful! Much more beautiful than those female stars!"

After finishing speaking, he said with some regret: "In fact, with the appearance of Claire, she can also enter the entertainment circle and become a star. Even if it is compared with Sara, Claire is not inferior.

Claire smiled and said, "Mom, you are too praising me. How can I be a star? I like actors but not acting, and I want to hear a voice without mine going out to others.

Chapter 2036

Elaine said seriously: "What's the matter? Now, being a celebrity doesn't need acting or a voice at all, it's enough to be beautiful! Look at those popular stars who can produce albums even if the tone is not perfect. The movie, why? Aren't you good-looking!"

Claire shook her head helplessly: "Mom, don't talk about it, let me watch the show well..."

Elaine did not forget to add another sentence: "Claire, what mom said is true, and mom thinks you are really fine..."

At this time, Sara was already singing.

When she opened her mouth, Elaine couldn't help but exclaimed: "Oh! This girl's voice is really good!"

Claire hurriedly waved her hand: "Mom, stop talking!"

Charlie was also a little surprised by Sara's voice. Although she seemed to be just an idol star, when she opened her mouth, she showed very good singing skills, absolutely professional.

The tune of this song is melodious and fresh and refined. It is similar to the song "Legend" sung by the Queen.

Charlie couldn't help being immersed in it.

After Sara sang for five minutes later, Charlie was still immersed in the wonderful atmosphere created by her singing just now.

Clair's eyes flushed even more, and she clapped unconsciously, and said with emotion: "Sara sings really well! This song is particularly moving!"

Then, she said to Charlie: "Husband, Sara will come to Aurous Hill for a concert in a while, will you accompany me to watch it?"

Charlie couldn't help feeling a little embarrassed when he heard this.

Sara did invite him to her concert, but if he goes with Claire, this thing feels a bit wrong.

He sighed in his heart: "Although I have never thought of divorcing Claire and honoring the marriage contract my parents made for me and Sara, I can't bear to take Claire to watch her concert. This is a little bit unfair for her."

Just when Charlie hesitated, Claire couldn't help but coquettishly said: "Husband, you should accompany me to see it once, is it okay? I beg you..."

After finishing speaking, she added: "I will go grab the ticket then, if I can't get it, I'll go to the scalper to buy it. You don't have to worry about anything, and you just have to pay someone else!"

Charlie heard this and knew that Claire must be determined to go to Sara's concert. Even if he didn't agree, she would go.

Moreover, he has promised Sara to go to her concert, and he will definitely not break his promise by then.

In this way, he can only agree to it.

So he said to Claire: "My wife, don't worry, I will accompany you when that happens."

Then he said, "Oh, right, you don't have to worry about getting tickets anymore. Last time I went to Ms. Gu's house to see Feng Shui. Ms. Gu should be more or less able to save face, and I will find her then. It shouldn't be a problem to ask for two tickets for the front row."

Claire asked in surprise: "Husband, are you telling the truth?! Can I really find Miss Gu for the front row tickets? The front row tickets for Miss Gu's concert are very popular, and they are generally not released at all. When they were sold, the price was increased several times or even dozens of times. Once at a concert in Yenching, the first row of tickets was sold to 100,000, which was an order of magnitude higher than anyone!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Miss Gu is still very angry, I believe she will definitely give this face."

Claire excitedly said, "That's great! Thank you husband for supporting my star-chasing career!"

Charlie couldn't help sighing. At this moment, the phone received a WeChat message and Sara sent a text message: "Charlie, have you watched my performance in front of the TV?"

Chapter 2037

The Spring Festival Gala was broadcast live to 1.4 billion viewers across the country, so the Charlie family had just watched Sara's show in front of the TV, and Sara had just finished the show and came backstage.

At this moment, she didn't care about changing clothes, so she quickly sent Charlie a WeChat first.

What she cares most about is Charlie's views on her performance.

Originally, the Spring Festival Gala director team hoped that she could sing her other famous song, a song about friendship.

Sara had already promised the director team to sing that song, but after meeting Charlie again, she had the idea of changing the song.

So, she negotiated with the director team and expressed her wish to change the song.

In the beginning, the Spring Festival Gala director group was very reluctant.

This is mainly because the Spring Festival Gala performance has always been very meticulous and cautious, and such things as temporary song changes have almost never happened.

However, Sara has been working hard, and finally the program team saw that she really wanted to sing today's song, so she had to compromise.

Sara chose to sing the song "First Love" today because she wanted to sing for Charlie.

There is a lyric in this song, which she wrote specially for Charlie. The lyric is: From the first time I saw you, you have been deeply burned in my heart, and I cross the sea of people, I found you all the way, just to tell you that in this life, I will never leave you again.

Charlie couldn't feel the affection in Sara's song.

But he can only pretend not to know, and reply to Sara: "I watched your performance and it was great! You sang very well!"

Sara happily sent a message: "This song...is written for you..."

Charlie asked in surprise: "You wrote this song yourself?"

"Yes." Sara said: "I am the songwriter, okay?"

Charlie replied with a thumbs-up expression, and exclaimed: "I didn't expect that not only would you sing well, but you would also write your own songs. It's amazing!"

Sara sent a playful expression with a tongue out, saying: "I learned the piano from my mother when I was a child, and then I was fine while playing the piano and hummed. I slowly tried to write a few songs. After I published it, I felt that the response was pretty good. So I wrote more, one after another."

Charlie praised sincerely: "It's really great! Unparalleled!"

Sara was satisfied and said, "Charlie, I wrote this song specifically for you a few years ago. I didn't find you at that time, so the lyrics are another version. After I found you, I made some more lyrics. Adjusted, that's why there is this version."

Charlie was moved in his heart and replied: "Thank you, thank you for always remembering me, and thank you for doing so much for me for so many years."

Sara sent a shy expression and said, "These are all things that should be done. Who made me your child bride since I was young..."

Charlie was speechless at once.

It is not an exaggeration to say that she is a child bride for marriage since she was a child.

At this time, Sara sent another message: "Charlie, I won't talk to you for now. My parents are still at home waiting for me to go back to eat New Year's Eve dinner, and then stay together. I have to go now."

Charlie knows that it's not easy for every actor to participate in the Spring Festival Gala. They all participate in the performance on New Year's Eve. If they are local actors from Eastcliff, they are relatively better. After the performance is over, they will immediately change their clothes when they step down. Hurry home to spend the holiday with my family.

Some foreign actors are more sentimental. In order to go to the Spring Festival Gala, they can only spend the festive season in a different place alone.

Chapter 2038

Fortunately, Sara's house is in Eastcliff, and her performance time is very good. Now she rushed back. Before New Year's Eve, she can stay with her family until 12 o'clock.

So Charlie replied: "Then you go back and accompany your uncles and aunts, and help me bring a good one to your uncles and aunts. I wish they still have you, and Happy New Year!"

Sara also replied: "Thank you, Charlie, and wish you a happy new year!"

Afterwards, Charlie put away the phone, and concentrated on watching the Spring Festival Gala with his wife Claire.

When it was almost twelve o'clock, Jacob said with emotion, "Hey, although firecrackers are banned now, although it is environmentally unfriendly, the Chinese New Year is indeed a bit less flavorful. What a pity..."

"Yes." Claire on the side could not help but sigh: "When I was young, I especially liked the smell of fireworks exploded by firecrackers, and now I rarely see them."

Charlie said: "Although firecrackers are not allowed to be set off in the urban area, in the suburbs it is still possible. Do you want to celebrate with firecrackers in the suburbs?"

Claire's eyes brightened, then dimmed again, and shook her head and said, "Forget it, everyone is spending the Spring Festival at home at this point. Where can I find firecrackers..."

Charlie thought for a while and sent a message to Issac and asked him: "Mr. Issac, do you have some fireworks in stock in Shangri-La?"

Issac replied immediately: "Some young masters, do you need?"

"Right." Charlie said: "My wife wants to go to the suburbs to shoot some."

Issac hurriedly said, "Then I will send it to you."

"No need." Charlie said: "Have a good time at your festival, don't delay reunion with your family because of me."

After that, Charlie asked him again: "Shangri-La is open, right?"

"Some staff." Issac said: "Shangri-La is open 24 hours a day, and there are always people on duty."

Charlie said: "Okay, then you say hello to the person on duty, I'll drive over to pick it up."

Issac was very moved by Charlie's actions, and said quickly, "Master, or I will let the person on duty send it to you, anyway, they also get three times the salary on duty."

Charlie replied: "Forget it, for the New Year, I don't want to toss others, it's not appropriate, I drive by myself, this time will definitely not be a traffic jam, I will be there in ten minutes."

Issac had no choice but to say, "Okay, master, I'll say hello to the people below, you can go and get it anytime."

After confirming with Issac, Charlie said to Claire: "My wife, I will go out and come back soon."

Claire hurriedly took his hand and said seriously: "Husband, don't go out to toss, just watch TV at home. It doesn't matter whether you set off fireworks or not."

Charlie smiled slightly and said lovingly: "It's okay, you wait at home, and your husband will be back soon."

After speaking, he got up and took Claire's car keys and stepped out of the house.

Claire still wanted to stop him, but seeing that he was walking very fast, he had already left the door in the blink of an eye, so she sighed helplessly and told him: "You drive slowly, don't worry!"

Charlie's voice came from outside the door: "Good wife, I know!"

Seeing Charlie left, Elaine couldn't help sighing: "Claire, Mom say to you, Charlie is really good for you..."

After speaking, Elaine said with emotion: "Before, Mom always felt that Charlie was not good enough to be worthy of you. You should find a rich young master to marry to be considered a good marriage... But Mom didn't understand until now that the most important thing about marriage is the relationship foundation. Money is not so important. What's important is that he has to treat you as a treasure so that you can live happily..."

Chapter 2039

Charlie drove straight to Shangri-La, and Issac's subordinates had already pushed a trolley and waited at the gate.

Seeing Charlie's arrival, he hurriedly pushed the car forward and said respectfully: "Master Wade, Mr. Issac asked me to prepare some fireworks for you. Would you like me to help you get in the car?"

Charlie nodded, opened the trunk, and said, "Thanks for your hard work."

The other party hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Master, you are polite, this is what I should do."

After that, he put several large boxes of fireworks into the trunk of the BMW car.

Charlie said thank you, then drove back and dared, and at the same time called Claire to ask her and her father-in-law to prepare, and then get in the car directly to find a place where they can set off fireworks and firecrackers to find the New Year atmosphere.

Claire was very happy, put on thick down jackets with her parents, and waited outside the gate of Tomson early.

As soon as Charlie's car arrived, the family of three got in.

Claire asked Charlie: "Husband, where are we going to set off firecrackers?"

Charlie smiled and said, "As long as you are not within the city limits, you can think about where to go."

Jacob suggested at this time: "Or go to the riverside! The riverside scenery is good. After the fireworks rise, the reflection on the river surface can be reflected, and it will be more artistic!"

Claire smiled and said, "Dad, this is a good idea! Then go to the riverside!"

Jacob hurriedly said, "I know there is a nice place with a large river embankment!"

Charlie listened to his wife and father-in-law talking about the riverside, and suddenly thought of Warnia from the Song family.

Before, Warnia was passing by the Yangtze River when sending him home, and she suggested that he should accompany him on a stroll along the river.

Without thinking about it, he readily agreed.

What he didn't expect was that after walking on the riverside and returning, Warnia sent him to the gate of Tomson Villa, and then kissed him in the car.

That scene still stays deep in Charlie's memory. Sometimes when he thinks about it, he feels a little different kind of warmth.

Charlie, while thinking wildly, drove the car all the way to the Yangtze River under the command of Jacob.

What he didn't expect was that the tidal flat led by Jacob turned out to be the place where Warnia brought him.

Since it was New Year's Eve at this time, there was no one around.

After Charlie parked the car. Carrying a few boxes of fireworks with Jacob, they came under the river embankment.

On a concrete-poured river embankment, Charlie placed the fireworks at certain intervals.

On the other side, Jacob could not restrain his impulse and set off two firecrackers.

The festive sound of firecrackers echoed along the river, and people immediately felt the feeling of the New Year.

When the firecrackers burned out, Charlie said to Claire, "Claire, I am going to set off the fireworks!"

Claire immediately took out her mobile phone and said excitedly: "Husband, wait a while, I'll turn on the video first!"

"it is good!"

After she took the mobile phone and turning on the camera function, Charlie lit the fuze of the fireworks.

Colorful fireworks rose into the sky and exploded on the surface of the river. The wide river surface reflected the wonderful colors of the fireworks bursting in the sky.

Claire was already dancing with joy on the side.

After one group of fireworks burned out, Charlie immediately ignited the second group, followed by the third and fourth groups.

Until all the fireworks were burned out, Claire's cheeks flushed with excitement!

She hasn't had this feeling for a long time, setting off fireworks and firecrackers on New Year's Eve, so she is excited like a child at this time.

Jacob and Elaine are also very happy. This Lunar New Year is of great significance to this family of four.

And this New Year's Eve, having lived so perfectly, made them feel an unprecedented sense of happiness.

Twenty-four o'clock on New Year's Eve.

It is also the zero point on the first day of the new year.

Charlie set off the last set of fireworks, and Jacob also lit the last set of firecrackers.

Claire put her hands on her mouth and shouted: "Husband, parents, happy new year!"

Chapter 2040

Elaine leaned on crutches and shouted excitedly: "Happy New Year!"

Jacob raised his head to look at the fireworks, the brilliant brilliance reflected on his face, and that face was already wrinkled, and it was full of happiness.

At this moment, Jacob inevitably thought of Meiqing in his heart.

This was also the first Spring Festival that Meiqing had after returning home after more than 20 years.

Jacob quietly took out his mobile phone and sent a WeChat to Meiqing. The WeChat only had four words: "Meiqing, Happy New Year!"

Charlie's mobile phone has been bombarded by WeChat notifications.

Many people sent him New Year greetings at this moment. He didn't have the energy to reply one by one, so he posted a text in the circle of friends: Happy New Year to all family and friends!"

This night, thousands of houses in Aurous Hill were lit up.

Charlie's family of four even played on the riverside until one o'clock in the morning before driving back.

Most people are immersed in the unique sense of happiness in the New Year. Only the old Mrs. Willson's family are still struggling with starvation.

During the day today, Gina didn't know where to buy an old 21-inch color TV. This kind of broken TV, even if it is intact, can sell for dozens of dollars at most. Normal people almost don't even bother to take a look.

However, for the three Gina and the others, this shabby old TV allowed them to watch the entire Spring Festival Gala intact and brought them great satisfaction and happiness.

While watching TV, they ate all the New Year's Eve dinner they had prepared, and in the end they didn't even leave a bite of vegetable soup.

After eating in the living room, the three of them did not forget to carry the TV back to Gina's room.

In order to prevent Mrs. Willson's family from taking any advantage of them.

Mrs. Willson and Wendy had been thinking about the little rice in the incense burner, so they had been hungry and boiled until a little bit more before finally putting Gina and the others to sleep.

After making sure that Gina and the others were sleeping, they began to prepare porridge.

The rice in the incense burner did not look very good because it had a lot of incense ash, but the old lady and Wendy, who were so hungry that their chests stuck to their backs, could no longer take care of them.

They didn't say a word, they brought the incense burner into the kitchen very neatly, then poured out the rice and washed it clean, and immediately afterwards they used the rice to cook the porridge.

The rice in the incense burner is almost over a jin, and it's all boiled into a big pot of porridge.

Mrs. Willson and Wendy each drank a bowl when the rice porridge was just cooked.

Later, feeling that it was not enough to relieve hunger, so they drank another bowl.

Feeling that the taste was a bit weak, the two secretly put the salt and soy sauce bought by Gina and the others into the rice porridge and stirred and drank.

Gina tried every means to leave no obvious opportunity for Mrs. Willson, but she did not expect Mrs. Willson to think about the rice in her incense burner, as well as her own salt and soy sauce.

Early the next morning.

New Year's Day.

Claire was a little bit tired because she went out to play around last night, and she still hadn't gotten up.

Charlie has already woken up and made himself a cup of tea in the living room downstairs.

In his spare time, he checked the circle of friends. In addition to the circle of friends wishing new year, he also saw a circle of friends posted by Warnia.

"Leaving for Japan today, the cycle is estimated to be one week. During this period, please contact Mr. Honor for the relevant affairs of Aurous Hill."

Charlie couldn't help being a little surprised. He didn't expect Warnia to go to Japan on the first day of the Chinese New Year.

At the same time, next door a04.

Gina and the three woke up early. Although today is the first day of the new year, they still have to go to the supermarket to work and make money.

The first thing Gina did when she got up early was to put a stick of incense on the portrait of Guanyin Bodhisattva, so that Guanyin would bless her in the new year with peace and prosperity.

She lit the three sticks of incense, made a wish, kowtow, and when she stood up to insert the three sticks of incense into the incense burner, she suddenly realized that it felt a bit wrong.

Originally, when the incense is inserted into the rice in the incense burner, there will be an obvious sense of damping.

But now, she couldn't find any feeling.

When she took a closer look, she was immediately angry!

She screamed: "This dead old woman Willson! Even dare to steal the rice from my incense burner!?"

Chapter 2041

Mrs. Willson finally had a full meal and had a good night's sleep.

Unexpectedly, the door of the room was kicked open by the angry Gina early in the morning!

Before Mrs. Willson could react, Gina rushed to the bed, slapped her face fiercely, and cursed angrily: "You dead old woman, even the censer used by me to give incense to the Buddha You dare to steal rice, are you still a human?"

Mr. Willson was dizzy by the slap. Looking at Gina's face that was close at hand was full of anger. She was so frightened that she blurted out and pleaded: "Gina, I'm sorry Gina! I didn't want to steal either. Your thing, but I was so hungry..."

Gina was furious and gritted her teeth: "It's your problem that you are hungry. What does it have to do with me? The incense burner is used by me to incense the Bodhisattva. You stole the rice in it. That would be disrespectful to the Bodhisattva! If you condemn me, you are hurting me!"

Lady Willson couldn't help but choked up: "Gina...this New Year's Eve...you can't just watch my old lady starving to death in this house, right? You say, if I die in this house from hunger on new Year's eve, how will you live here in the future? You lie in the bedroom upstairs every night thinking that I starved to death in this room downstairs. Would you feel better in your heart?"

With that, Lady Willson said in tears: "Gina...you just saved me, saved an old life. Didn't the Bodhisattva say? Save a life and win the seventh-level Buddha statue. This is also considered accumulation of good deeds!"

Although Gina's expression eased a little, she still shouted coldly: "For the sake of the Bodhisattva, I can forgive you for stealing rice, but you must save your own behavior and pay a certain price!"

Mrs. Willson hurriedly asked, "Gina, what price do you want me to pay?"

Gina said coldly: "You honestly wash the clothes for the three of us for one day. I will think this has never happened!"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she immediately pleaded: "Gina, I was unwell yesterday and couldn't go to the supermarket to work, so I stole your rice. Today I said everything has to go to work, otherwise for the family of four today's rations are missing again..."

"Then I don't care!" Gina said annoyedly: "Either you will wash our clothes, or you will give me the rice that you ate, and I will not ruin you. As much as you eat, you will pay me back and give the incense burner just fill it up!"

Mrs. Willson cried her face in mourning: "Gina, all the rice has been boiled by me, now let me give you back what? Or else, you let me go to the supermarket to work today, and I get the money after work. I'll buy rice and return it to you immediately, do you think it's okay?"

"No!" Gina said without relenting: "If you choose to return the rice to me, then return it now, otherwise, just get out and wash my clothes honestly!"

After that, Gina threatened again: "If you toast and don't eat fine wine, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Seeing Gina's grim expression, Lady Willson knew that this woman was definitely not joking with her.

She is now lonely and weak, how could she be her opponent?

So, Lady Willson nodded her head in tears, choked up, and said: "Okay...I will wash...I will go to wash..."

On the first day of the Lunar New Year, Mrs. Willson's family of four did not get in.

The three of Gina gave a lot of dirty clothes and bed sheets to Mrs. Willson and asked her to wash everything today.

So the old lady has no time to go out and make money.

And Wendy, because of the need to take care of the injured and bedridden Noah and Harold, she couldn't get out at all.

Chapter 2042

No one is going to make money, so naturally there is no food to cook, so the family can only stand hungry.

Since Noah and Harold kidnapped Elaine, and mishandled Cynthia Wade, all four of the Willson family have lost a lot of weight, and their lives have been miserable.

The Charlie family next door packed up their things at noon on the first day of the Lunar New Year and drove to the hot spring villa Isaac gave to Charlie. The family planned to relax in the hot spring villa for two days.

At the night when they arrived at the hot spring villa, Cynthia sat in the shabby rental house, looking bored at a takeaway dumpling.

Since Charlie detained her in Aurous Hill, Cynthia has been relying on takeaways to survive.

And the hateful thing was that Charlie didn't allow her to order takeaways by herself. All the takeaways were ordered directly by Orvel's confidant, and the price of each meal basically never exceeded thirty yuan.

In the past few days, Cynthia was forced to taste a lot of popular delicacies that she had never tasted in her entire life.

For example, yellow braised chicken rice, such as green pepper shredded pork rice bowl, Kung Pao chicken rice bowl, ramen noodles, northeastern potato noodles, donkey meat fire and so on.

In the eyes of the Wade family, these common delicacies, which could no longer be ordinary, were simply rubbish in the trash. Not to mention eating a meal, or even smelling it, would make her feel sick.

But now, Cynthia, who had always been aloof, can only feed on this every day.

Yesterday was New Year's Eve and they couldn't order takeaways, so Orvel's people gave her two boxes of instant noodles, a bag of ham and two braised eggs.

Cynthia had eaten this kind of garbage when she saw New Year's Eve. Naturally, she lost her reason to live, and said that if she couldn't eat dumplings on New Year's Day, she would commit suicide on the spot.

Therefore, Orvel's people gave her a dumpling made by themselves.

The dumplings are made with pork and sauerkraut. Because the younger brother of Orvel and his family are all from the Northeast, he loves this flavor of dumpling filling.

But Cynthia ate all the delicacies of mountains and seas since she was a child, and Wade's dumplings had not been wrapped in pork.

The most commonly eaten dumplings of Wade's family are mixed with shrimp meat from top lobster and fish meat from wild large yellow croaker. They are then chopped into meat puree by hand, and then wrapped with minced meat from shark fin and abalone. The cost of a dumpling is probably higher than the cost of ordinary people eating dumplings for a year.

Cynthia had never eaten a bite of sauerkraut.

For a young lady who grew up in a top family, pickled food like sauerkraut is a taboo they will never touch. Almost any food that needs to be pickled and fermented is equivalent to poison in her eyes.

Therefore, she only tasted the pork and sauerkraut dumplings, and immediately spit it out, and then rinsed her mouth several times before finally getting rid of the taste of sauerkraut.

Cynthia opened the door angrily and questioned Orvel's younger brother: "What kind of shit dumplings did you bring? Is it the damn thing for people to eat?!"

When the man heard this, he immediately became angry. He spoke with a northeastern accent, and said angrily: "You stinky woman, why the hell do you talk? My mother made these dumplings, and I was kind enough to give you some. , Are you fcuking talking like that? Are you willing to die?!"

Chapter 2043

Orvel's subordinates did not know Cynthia's specific details.

All he knows is that this is a middle-aged woman for whom the boss requires strict supervision. As for her surname, where she comes from, and what background, this person knows nothing.

Therefore, when Cynthia got furious because of the dumplings he kindly brought, he immediately became a little angry, feeling that he was kindly feeding a vicious dog that barked.

Cynthia didn't think that Charlie, one of his subordinates, spoke to her in this tone, suddenly becoming angry.

She pointed to the other's nose and sternly said, "Do you know who I am? How dare you talk to me like this?"

The other party gritted his teeth and cursed: "I care who you are, you insult the dumplings my mother made for me, and I can't get rid of your hatred if I don't strike your fcuking mouth!"

Cynthia became even more angry when she heard him mention dumplings, and cursed: "You have a fcuking face to mention dumplings. I'll ask you, what is the sour thing in that dumpling of your mother? Your mother is rotten and sour, and your mother is still making dumplings. Is it sick? Is the family so poor?"

A man from the Northeast who is about 1.8 meters tall, his face flushed immediately and annoyed, he said, "You fcuking know a f@rt! That's the fcuking sauerkraut we eat most often in the Northeast! You haven't even seen sauerkraut. Are you fcuking still human?"

Cynthia said with a haughty expression: "This kind of junk food, that is, poor people like you will eat it!"

After that, she took the dumpling and threw it directly on the opponent's face.

Cynthia didn't care about the dumplings scattered all over the place. She stared at the strong man in front of her and said coldly: "I don't eat this garbage, you quickly go and prepare me a lobster dumpling!"

Seeing the dumplings that his mother worked so hard to make, Cynthia was so ridiculed by it that she even threw them all to the ground, and suddenly couldn't control them. He raised his hand and slapped Cynthia in the face.

Cynthia was immediately slapped and scolded in anger, "You...you dare to beat me! I fcuking kill you!"

The other party ignored her and said coldly: "Today's meal has been delivered to you. If you are not full, you can only wait for tomorrow."

Cynthia blurted out: "What did you say?! I ate one of your rubbish dumplings and vomited!"

The other party said lightly: "Then it has nothing to do with me. Anyway, I have delivered the meal. It is your business whether you eat or not."

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said, "I won't eat your dumplings, you can order me a McDonald's!"

When the other party heard this, he roared angrily: "You fcuking don't want your face! Northeast sauerkraut is rubbish in your eyes, and McDonald's is not rubbish in your eyes? It's a damn good thing. Shame on you!"

After that, he closed the door directly and hung the lock from the outside.

Cynthia didn't eat a bite of rice, so she quickly became hungry.

In the evening, Cynthia couldn't help calling her father Zhongquan, who was far away in Eastcliff. She complained on the phone and told her father about her experience in Aurous Hill.

Then, she begged her father bitterly: "Dad, you put some pressure on that b@stard Charlie, let him put me back quickly, I really can't stand it..."

After listening, Zhongquan said calmly: "Okay, I've told you about this before. Since you did something wrong by yourself, then honestly stay in Aurous Hill for a week."

Cynthia choked and said, "Dad, I really can't bear it anymore. I don't know how to live this kind of ghost life! I didn't even stutter all day today. If this continues, I will be driven crazy!"

Chapter 2044

Zhongquan frowned, and asked: "As a daughter of the Wade family, why don't you have this patience? You can't hold on to this little thing, what else can you do?"

Having said that, Zhongquan reminded again: "By the way, from now on, you don't have any conflicts with Charlie, and don't end up with him because of these things. He has agreed to come back to attend the ancestor worship ceremony on Qingming Festival. That is a good start for him to return to the Wade family."

Cynthia asked angrily: "Dad! Why do you always favor Charlie that infamous b@stard? He is a poor boy who has been living outside for many years. He has never read a book or went to school. What value does he bring to the Wade family? You still let him go back to attend the ancestor worship ceremony, he won't be able to embarrass us Wade Family's direct line?"

Zhongquan said coldly: "Charlie is also of the Wade family's bloodline. He still has the marriage contract of Philip's daughter. His potential value to the Wade family is incomparable to anyone, including you! So you Don't fix any monster moths, let you stay in Aurous Hill for seven days and you'll just stay! A portion of pork and sauerkraut dumplings can find faults, you really don't look like floating!"

After Zhongquan finished speaking, he directly hung up the phone.

Cynthia on the phone's end was naturally aggrieved in tears.

The more so, the more she hated Charlie in her heart.

In her opinion, she suffered hardships and was even scolded by her father because of Charlie.

Therefore, she swears from the bottom of her heart that she must find an opportunity to make Charlie pay the price!

And this ancestor worship ceremony is the best opportunity!

Thinking of this, Cynthia murmured in her heart and swears: "Charlie! Cynthia, I will definitely teach you a bitter lesson!"

Thinking of this, she wiped away her tears, opened the door, and said with an apologetic look to the subordinate of Orvel: "You gentleman, I was indeed reckless just now. I apologize to you and hope you can forgive me... .."

As she said, she bowed deeply.

Seeing this, the other party's mood naturally eased a bit, so he said: "Okay, because of your good attitude, this matter will be over!"

Cynthia was overjoyed and quickly bowed to thank him. Then she asked, "Sir, can you please help me to send a message to your boss?"

.....

At night, Charlie, who was in the hot spring hotel, received a call from Orvel.

On the phone, Orvel said to him: "Master, your aunt asked me to bring you a message today. She said that she has been deeply aware of her mistakes in the past few days and wants me to say sorry for her and hope you Can forgive her for being immature."

Charlie said indifferently: "It's impossible for a person like her to apologize to me willingly. It must be something else?"

Orvel said: "She said, I hope you can recite her good attitude and let her return to Eastcliff in advance."

Charlie sneered: "No! Tell her to stop dreaming. She can't miss a minute in seven days."

Orvel said hurriedly, "Okay Master, I will pass it on to her."

"Yeah." Charlie said: "After seven days, let her leave Aurous Hill immediately, and never allow her to come again!"

Chapter 2045

The overall living experience of the hot spring villa in Champs Elys is much better than Tomson.

It is located on the mountainside with beautiful scenery, not only the scenery is excellent, but more importantly, it is very quiet, the distance between the villa and other villa is also very far, and the privacy is very good.

In addition, although the total price of the hot spring villa in Champs Elys is about half that of Tomson's first product, it is actually much larger than Tomson's first product in terms of the construction area and courtyard area.

Housing prices in the city are very expensive, mainly because of the land price. The Champs Elysées is located in the suburbs, so the land price is much lower than in the city.

Claire likes the environment very much. For her, it has been a long time since she had the opportunity to experience such a relaxed and quiet life.

Therefore, the family simply decided to take advantage of the Chinese New Year holiday to stay here for a few more days and relax.

Elsa has been trying her best to invite Claire and Charlie to visit Eastcliff, but Claire is still hesitating. She feels that going to Eastcliff will inevitably have to go back and forth, and no matter how good someone else's home is, it's far away from living in someone else's home. It's not as good as living in own home, so she hesitated.

On the second day of the Lunar New Year, while Charlie's family was still enjoying their vacation in the hot spring villa, Warnia had already started meeting with Nippon Steel's senior officials in Tokyo.

The Song family's involvement in steel manufacturing this time was a careful decision after Warnia thought twice.

The steel industry is the foundation for the development of the modern industry. Whether it is light industry, heavy industry, or military industry, it is inseparable from the support of the steel industry.

The Song family had been involved in the steel industry earlier, but they never seized the opportunity to become bigger and stronger.

Now, she takes over the Song family, hoping to increase the overall industrial scale of the family by a step, so she decided to bet heavily on steel companies.

The specific plan is to establish a steel company focusing on special steel smelting in Haicheng, a city on the lower reaches of the Yangtze River not too far from Aurous Hill.

Haicheng is the city where Tailai is located.

Although Tailai is the richest man in Haicheng, his main direction is real estate and supporting commercial development, which is highly similar to the development direction and industrial form of Wanda Group.

As Haicheng is a city on the lower reaches of the Yangtze River and closer to the sea, shipping is also very convenient. Iron ore and other raw material purchased from Brazil and Australia can be easily transported via the sea by 10,000-ton bulk carriers to the city.

The most important part of the iron and steel industry is transportation. The amount of iron ore is huge. Therefore, shipping conditions must be supported to reduce costs to the greatest extent. This is why almost all large-scale steel companies are established in coastal cities and cities along the river. The main reason.

The Song family invested in a large area of industrial land in Haicheng many years ago, which happened to be used to build a factory. So now the only thing the Song family lacks is a partner with strong R&D capabilities and a large number of steel patents.

Therefore, Warnia set the cooperation target as Japan's Nippon Steel.

Chapter 2046

She decided to adopt a joint venture like an automobile company to introduce Nippon Steel's cutting-edge technology in steel companies.

FAW-Volkswagen, Guangqi Honda, and Changan Ford have basically adopted this kind of joint venture idea. After two to thirty years of joint venture development, these companies have indeed achieved very impressive sales results.

Nippon Steel is also very interested in this cooperation, coupled with the Song family's strength, land, and certain experience in the steel industry, it is also a very good potential partner for Nippon Steel.

So the two sides hit it off, and the rest is the discussion and formulation of cooperation details.

Warnia's idea is that the Song family holds 51% and Nippon Steel holds 49%, but the idea of Nippon Steel is that they hold 51% and the Song family holds 49%.

Don't look at such a slight difference in proportions, but it determines who has the final say in a company.

Shareholders who reach 51% are undoubtedly the largest shareholders, and they have absolute power to say anything about specific matters of the company.

Once the controlling rights are handed over to Nippon Steel, the Song family will lose all dominant positions in this cooperation.

At the negotiating table, both sides saw the issue back and forth, but no one wanted to take a step back.

Warnia said to Nippon Steel's senior management: "Everyone, our cooperation this time refers to the usual cooperation model of the auto industry. In our country, local auto companies and overseas auto companies have established joint ventures with local companies to hold shares %, overseas companies hold 49% of the shares. After that, the company is established in our country and it should be controlled by us. I hope your company can understand this!"

The person responsible for negotiating with Warnia is Nippon Steel's vice chairman, whose full name is Hashimoto Kinzaki, is a member of Nippon Steel's core management.

Hashimoto Kinzaki is forty years old this year. In Japan, a society where qualifications are extremely important, he can climb to the core management so early. It can be said that he is a very right-handed person.

At this time, he looked at Warnia and smiled slightly: "Miss Song, I know the kind of cooperation model you mentioned in the automobile industry, but that kind of model is not suitable for this cooperation between Nippon Steel and you."

Warnia said with a calm expression, "Mr. Hashimoto, why is it not suitable for our cooperation? I would like to hear more."

Hashimoto Kinzaki said with a smile: "First of all, there are too many leading companies in the automotive industry. There are Toyota, Honda, and Nissan in Japan alone, BMW, Mercedes-Benz, Audi, and Volkswagen in Germany, and GM, Ford, and Chrysler in the United States. Not to mention the Ferraris, Lamborghini, and Maseratis in Italy. With such a large number of competitors, it is inevitable that their peers will be underestimated. Everyone will often lower their prices for the Chinese market..."

Speaking of this, Hashimoto's expression was stern, and he said seriously: "However, there are only a few leading companies in the steel industry. Among the world's top ten steel companies, half of them are on the list due to large output. There are only three or four companies specializing in the core technology of special steel, and the only company in Japan is Nippon Steel. You have a Chinese saying, "Rare is precious". Miss Song for the rare cooperation of Nippon Steel Partner, it is normal to sacrifice more interests!"

Warnia hesitated again and again, and said: "Mr. Hashimoto, I really can't give up any more shares. The Song Group must hold 51% of the shares in this cooperation, but as compensation to Nippon Steel, we can give rope in terms of income rights, Nippon Steel has a certain degree of tilt. For all the net profits generated by our cooperation in the future, Nippon Steel will enjoy 51% of the net profit income rights. What do you think of this?"

Hashimoto Kinzaki shook his head without hesitation, and said seriously: "Ms. Song, we will not make any concessions on the equity issue. If we are willing to make concessions on this point, we will have deep cooperation with other steel companies in your country. How can we wait until today?"

Chapter 2047

Warnia knew that what the other party said was true.

In fact, Nippon Steel, a top-notch steel group, is very popular in any country.

Especially their strength in special steels is among the top in the world.

Special steel has a wide range of uses, and the more sophisticated the field, the higher the demand for special steel.

Such as the military industry.

The most common barrels have very strict requirements on steel.

If the material is excellent, the life and accuracy of the gun can reach the best, but if the material is not good, the life and accuracy of the gun will naturally not work.

Some barrels, fired thousands of times, will wear out so much that they have to be replaced.

Some gun barrels have reached the end of their life after hitting a few hundred rounds. If they don't work well, they may explode. Once they are put into use on the battlefield, it may affect the battle situation and results.

In addition, tank armor, helicopter armor, and aircraft carrier decks all have extremely high requirements for steel.

Therefore, everyone hopes to have in-depth cooperation with companies like Nippon Steel.

But Nippon Steel is also very smart.

They not only have a great appetite for foreign cooperation, but they are also very cautious about patents and scientific research results.

Even if it is to reach a cooperation, they will not bring out the top results at the bottom of the box.

At most, some castrated products are used to cover the civilian field, and the cutting-edge technology in the military field is never external.

This time working with the Song family, what they want is Absolute Holdings.

While letting the Song family surrender, contribute money, land, and power, they must do things under their hands and at their orders.

As long as the Song family agrees to this condition, they will spend a few years gradually turning the Song family into their own puppets, or sweeping the Song family out of the game.

Warnia didn't expect that she would give Nippon Steel two more profit rights, but the people of Nippon Steel still refused.

So, she gritted her teeth and said: "Mr. Hashimoto, I can give Nippon Steel a part of the income right. The future net profit will be 55% for Nippon Steel and 45% for Song. How about this?"

To give up five points in one breath, for Warnia, it was already a great compromise and concession.

Unexpectedly, Hashimoto shook his head without hesitation and smiled faintly: "Miss Song, our Nippon Steel's requirement is to never give up the controlling rights. If you can't agree to the controlling rights, then there is no need to continue talking."

Warnia suddenly felt very passive.

She couldn't help but secretly think in her heart: "Now, on behalf of the Song family, I actively want to cooperate with Nippon Steel, so Nippon Steel directly squeezed my mentality and demanded a controlling stake, and it did not give in at all... ..If I continue to insist, then this matter may not be discussed..."

"If this time I return without success, then all the preparatory work I have done will be lost..."

Chapter 2048

"By the way, if I give up the controlling rights, it will be equivalent to giving up all autonomy. In the future, Nippon Steel will decide almost all the affairs of the company. Then the Song family will be too passive..."

Hashimoto Kinzaki saw her expression a bit tangled, and said with a smile: "Miss Song, this matter does not need to settle immediately without any hurry. You can go back and think about it first. Let's make an appointment tomorrow for a chat. What do you think?"

Warnia hesitated for a while, then nodded gently.

She is very clear that she has no initiative at all in this round of negotiations.

If continue to talk like this, they will only become more passive.

This is like buying things in a store. If the seller is anxious to make a move, the buyer will have more room for bargaining. For example, if the seller makes a price of 100, the buyer will directly say 20, and then you will sell if you sell. I go to another place to buy it, and then I can firmly seize the initiative.

However, if the seller's mentality is very stable, the buyer will say twenty, and the other party will directly say that you should go to another house. This will make the buyer lose the initiative.

According to normal logic, buyers can only add up a little bit until the price can satisfy the seller. The specific transaction depends on the seller's psychological price. It may be fifty or seventy-eight. Ten, even ninety.

However, the seller in front of Warnia was not prepared to make any concessions.

He gave Warnia a very tough attitude. You can only buy one hundred for this item, and one cent will not work. If you want to get 99, I'm sorry, then you can go to another house or go back and think about it.

Warnia has no room for mediation at this time. The only way is to suspend the negotiation first, slow down the rhythm, and continue to come and talk tomorrow.

So, she nodded and stood up and said, "Mr. Hashimoto, then both of us will consider it carefully. If it is convenient for you, I will come back tomorrow morning."

"No problem!" Hashimoto stood up with a smile, shook hands with Warnia, and said, "Miss Song, I will send you out."

After Warnia left Nippon Steel, she and her assistant got into the rented nanny car and rushed back to the hotel.

At the same time, she sent a message to the family's WeChat group in the car: "Nippon Steel must have a 51% controlling stake here. I will not give in. I give up the right of income to 55% and they are still unmoved. I have already come out of Nippon Steel. I will organize the negotiation points in the evening, and I will talk to them again tomorrow."

Mr. Song immediately sent a voice message: "Nippon Steel has always had a big appetite, but don't take them too seriously, because I learned some time ago that Nippon Steel's life is not easy now!"

Immediately afterward, the old man sent another voice: "Their group has successively engaged in several large investment projects in the past few years, but they have not done it properly and wasted a lot of funds, so their revenue this year is under great pressure. On the surface, it seems very calm, but deep down, they must also be eager to cooperate with us. It's nothing more than trying to put on the air and strive for more benefits."

Honor Song also sent a message: "Warnia, don't worry, look for their flaws, and then hold them, they will definitely compromise."

"Yeah." The old man said: "It is now February, and they will soon release last year's financial report. If the financial data is not good, not only shareholders will trouble them, but investors will also complain. In that case, their stock price is bound to fall. If they can announce their cooperation with us before the financial report is released, it can also inspire the emotions of shareholders and investors."

Warnia replied: "Okay, I will get ready after I get back to the hotel, and talk to them again tomorrow!"

At this moment, Hashimoto's phone suddenly rang.

The caller ID indicated that the call was from Aurous Hill of the neighboring country.

Honor, at this time, was in his luxurious duplex apartment in the center of Aurous Hill, listening to the prompt tone on the phone with a wireless landline.

Hashimoto got on the phone first, and said with a smile, "Mr. Song is so fast. As soon as the lady left with her front foot, your call came from the back foot!"

Chapter 2049

At this time Honor, looking at the river outside the window, smiled faintly, and said: "Mr. Hashimoto, I also just heard my sister say that the cooperation negotiation with you does not seem to be going well."

Hashimoto Kinzaki laughed and said, "She really thinks a little bit. She wants to cooperate with our Nippon Steel and also wants a 51% controlling stake. How is this possible? It is also cooperation. Mr. Song, you give me the terms. , Much better than her!"

Honor said with a smile: "Of course, women are too petty, so it is difficult to acclimate. As long as Mr. Hashimoto and I work together, I will give 51% of the shares to Nippon Steel by then. I will give nine more points to Mr. Hashimoto in private!"

Hashimoto Kinzaki said with some excitement: "Mr. Song is really magnificent! After such a toss, you only have 40% left in your hand!"

Honor said indifferently: "40% does not matter. I do this not to make money, but to make friends with Mr. Hashimoto."

Hashimoto Kinzaki smiled and said, "Mr. Song is really too generous! But I want to know, what is the chance of our success in this matter?"

Honor said seriously: "As long as you have the ability to keep my sister in Tokyo, the chance of success in this event must be 100%!"

Hashimoto Kinzaki said: "Mr. Song, I'm not distrusting you, but I heard that before your sister inherited the seat of Song's Patriarch, the Song's Patriarch seems to have always been your grandfather. If I take your sister Staying in Tokyo, will you be able to be the head of the Song family?"

Honor sneered and said seriously: "My grandfather is old and has reached the age of being able to eat. Even if he wants to sit as the master of the home, he must have more than enough energy."

Having said that, Honor said again: "And Mr. Hashimoto, don't worry, since I have decided to do this, it is that I have no arrow back when I open the bow. Even if my own relatives stand in front of me, I will kill my relatives righteously! So, as long as you can cooperate with me, I will not let you down!"

Hashimoto slapped his lips first, and said with emotion: "Tsk-tsk...Mr. Song is really courageous and knowledgeable, but there is one thing, I must put the ugly words first."

Honor hurriedly said, "Mr. Hashimoto, please speak."

Hashimoto Kinzaki said word by word: "Mr. Song, I can help you solve your sister's trouble, but after I help you solve the trouble, you must honor your promise to me, otherwise, the recording of the call may be transmitted to the Song family or even to the police in your country!"

Honor said without hesitation: "Mr. Hashimoto, please don't worry about this. After the event is completed, I will definitely honor my promise to you 100%!"

.....

The following day, the third day of the Lunar New Year.

Warnia rushed to the Nippon Steel Corporation early to continue negotiations with Hashimoto Kinzaki.

After going back yesterday, Warnia thought about it all night. In order to win Nippon Steel, she made several plans for emergencies.

After the two parties sat at the negotiating table, Warnia took the lead in coming up with her first plan.

In the first set of plans, she still insisted on a 51% controlling stake, but in return, she was willing to adjust the share ratio to 40% to 60% in the first five years of cooperation between the two parties.

In other words, give Nippon Steel 60% of the net profit in the first five years, and then adjust it to 55% after five years.

Chapter 2050

Hashimoto's attitude has changed slightly from yesterday.

He no longer rejected Warnia's proposal very simply as he did yesterday, but started Tai Chi with Warnia.

He made many things ambiguous, and neither agreed nor refused. This kind of hard and soft attitude made Warnia feel very helpless.

The two sides have been talking about the approaching evening from the morning. Warnia has adjusted the profit share to Nippon Steel for the first five years to 65%, but Hashimoto recently refused to agree.

Warnia really has no choice but to show her own cards, and said: "Mr. Hashimoto, it seems that both of us are unwilling to make concessions to each other on the issue of holdings. If it is not possible, you think this will work. 50% of the shares, under any circumstances, we guarantee that each other has 50% of the voting rights. All cooperation matters, we are equal. If our two sides can't make progress in the cooperation, we will also follow the 50% to 50% method Distribute all remaining assets equally!"

Hashimoto Kinzaki frowned and sighed: "Miss Song, both parties hold 50% of the shares, which means that everyone has no initiative. If there is any dispute or disagreement in the future cooperation, how to resolve it? If not If a person can finally make a final decision, isn't it that you are caught in an infinite loop where you don't obey me and I don't obey you, but no one can help each other?"

Warnia said with a very serious expression: "Mr. Hashimoto, if both of us want to cooperate to the best of our ability, even if there are differences, I believe that everyone can calmly resolve them instead of trying to smash each other. Since we seek cooperation, we just want to do things well. If we don't even have this prerequisite, then cooperation will indeed be difficult to continue."

After that, Warnia said again: "So if you really have the sincerity to cooperate with our Song Group, the equity of 50-50 will not be a problem, but if you do not have this sincerity, then cooperation may not be necessary. It can be pushed forward."

Hashimoto Kinzaki said embarrassingly: "Ms. Song, there is a saying in your country that you call a villain first, then a gentleman. Since it is cooperation, it must take all the worst cases into consideration first, don't you think?"

Warnia said: "Mr. Hashimoto, the equity is 50%, and the income is still five points. This is the last limit of our Song Group. If you think you can cooperate, then we will continue to talk. If you think we can't cooperate, then we can only say sorry, so it's up to you to continue the conversation."

Hashimoto Kinzaki did not rush to express his opinion to Warnia. Instead, he looked at the time, with a weird smile on his face, and said, "Miss Song, it's too early now. Otherwise, on your terms, I and our director let me give you long feedback. I will give you a definite answer at the earliest tonight and tomorrow at the latest. What do you think?"

Warnia hesitated for a while, and said, "Well then Mr. Hashimoto, I'll wait for your news!"

Having said that, she stood up, reached out to Hashimoto Kinzaki, and said politely: "Mr. Hashimoto, then we will go back to the hotel today. If there is any progress, please contact me as soon as possible."

Hashimoto nodded first and smiled: "No problem, Miss Song, please rest assured to wait for my news."

Warnia took her assistants and got up and left the office building of Nippon Steel.

When going out, Warnia felt very complicated.

Today, she has already revealed her final trump card, and she has no room for mediation anymore. If Nippon Steel's senior management can't agree, then she will return from Japan this time without success.

Upstairs of Nippon Steel.

Hashimoto Kinzaki watched Warnia's commercial vehicle leave the parking lot downstairs, with a cruel smile on his lips, and picked up his mobile phone to make a call.

As soon as the phone call, he smiled and said, "Mr. Song, the lady has been driven mad by me. I think the time is ripe and we can do it tonight. After tonight, your cousin will completely disappear from this world!"

Honor's voice came from the other side of the phone: "Haha, Mr. Hashimoto, then everything depends on you!"

Chapter 2051

At this moment, Warnia was very upset.

She didn't expect Nippon Steel to be so difficult to chew.

Moreover, during the entire negotiation process, she has been very passive, prepared so many hole cards, until the last hole card was also opened, and failed to finalize the cooperation.

Deep down in her heart now, she has a strong sense of frustration.

And she also had a hunch that she always felt that it would be difficult to get the result she wanted in this negotiation.

Maybe, this time she will return without success.

On the way back to the hotel, she told her family about her guess.

Although Mr. Song was a little disappointed, he still encouraged her and said to her: "Warnia, this time you are cooperating with Nippon Steel, you shouldn't put too much pressure on it. It's good if this matter is negotiated, it's not right for us. There is no loss, nothing more than a little less, it doesn't matter."

Honor also sent a message, saying: "Yes Warnia, Nippon Steel is notoriously difficult to eat. There are so many companies in China who want to cooperate with them in-depth, but none of them really reached a conclusion. So even if it's really impossible to talk about it, there is nothing to lose."

Honor's words immediately aroused the potential competitiveness in Warnia's heart.

She feels that the more people and so many companies have failed to achieve, the more she wants to win it!

Otherwise, she would become one of the countless losers.

However, the current situation is not very clear, so Warnia dared not be too confident, so she said in the group: "Tomorrow I will try my last time to achieve success, but forget it."

Grandpa Song said: "It's okay. Don't worry too much about success or failure. Grandpa doesn't want you to wrong yourself for business, understand?"

Warnia felt a little more comforting, and replied: "OK, grandpa, I see."

Honor said with a smile at this time: "Warnia, brother believes in your abilities, and brother believes that if you wake up early tomorrow morning, you will wait for the good news of your successful signing!"

Warnia knew that it was her brother who was comforting her, so she made a smile and said, "Brother, then I will borrow your good words!"

Back at the hotel, Warnia was a little bored, so she didn't even eat dinner. She just stayed in her room alone, combing through the plans she wrote, trying to find out the reason for not moving Nippon Steel.

Due to excessive immersion, she did not realize that it was ten o'clock in the evening.

At this time, her doorbell rang.

She stood up, walked to the door, looked through the cat's eyes, and found that it was her personal assistant, so she opened the door.

Outside the door, the young female assistant said: "Ms. Song, you haven't eaten anything at night. You should be hungry. Would you like me to order some food for you from the catering department and send them to the room?"

Warnia did feel a little hungry, so she nodded and said, "Okay, you can help me order something."

With that, Warnia asked again: "Have you eaten?"

The female assistant nodded: "We have all eaten."

Warnia smiled slightly: "That's good."

Twenty minutes later, the hotel waiter pushed the dining car and delivered the dinner the assistant had ordered for Warnia to the room.

Warnia closed the computer, and just about to sit down and take a bite, she suddenly received a call from Hashimoto.

Chapter 2052

Warnia couldn't help but wonder, "Why did Hashimoto Kinzaki call me so late?! Could it be...could it be that they have already discussed the results?!"

Thinking of this, Warnia inevitably felt a little nervous. She hurriedly connected to the phone and asked, "Mr. Hashimoto, what can I do for you?"

Hashimoto Kinzaki smiled and said, "Ms. Song, I have given feedback to our chairman of your final cooperation intention today. He recognizes your sincerity very much, so let me inform you that I will cut the mess tonight. The contract is signed!"

Warnia did not expect that what she was waiting for was the most anticipated news, and she asked in surprise: "Mr. Hashimoto, what you said is true?!"

Hashimoto Kinzaki laughed and said: "I don't dare to talk nonsense about this. After that, I'm just the representative of the group to negotiate with you. The chairman of our company is the one who really made the decision. Since he has said so, there will be no falsehood."

Warnia said excitedly: "That's great! Mr. Hashimoto, does the chairman of your group want to sign the contract tonight?"

"Yes!" Hashimoto said: "Our chairman's meaning is that since Miss Song is so sincere, then we should also show our sincerity and sign the contract as soon as possible."

Warnia hurriedly said, "Okay! Mr. Hashimoto, please give me an address, and I will be there!"

Hashimoto Kinzaki said: "Miss Song is like this. Our chairman originally took a vacation at the hilltop villa in Nishitama County today, so what he meant is to let you sign a contract in Nishitama County now."

Warnia asked: "Nishitama County? Where is it? I don't know Tokyo very well. Please forgive me..."

Hashimoto Kinzaki said with a smile: "Nishitama County is about 70 or 80 kilometers west of Tokyo. You should be able to get there in more than an hour. Your driver must know the location. If you are convenient, you can come now."

Warnia said without hesitation: "Okay, no problem, I will set out now!"

After hanging up the phone, Warnia immediately called her assistant again, and said with excitement, "Swallow, hurry up and prepare. Let's set off in five minutes and go and sign the contract with the chairman of Nippon Steel!"

"Ah?!" Warnia's assistant Swallow asked in surprise: "Ms. Song, Nippon Steel has agreed to sign?!"

"Yes!" Warnia blurted out: "Their chairman told us to sign the contract now! You should ask the other to prepare quickly, and also ask the driver to prepare!"

"OK, President Song!"

Five minutes later.

Warnia walked out of the room in a hurry.

The two female assistants met her at the door, and Swallow said, "Mr. Song, the driver is already waiting at the door of the hotel. Let's go straight down!"

"Okay!" Warnia nodded, and said eagerly: "Then let's go downstairs!"

In the car, Warnia told the driver the address given to her.

The driver immediately entered the address into the navigation, and while starting the car, he said to Warnia, "Miss Song, the traffic is very smooth now. We will be there in about an hour and 20 minutes."

"Okay." Warnia nodded.

Swallow on the side said at this moment: "Ms. Song, do you want to tell Mr. Song this good news in advance to make him happy?"

"You are right." Warnia just wanted to take out her mobile phone, call her grandpa, and tell her family about her major progress.

However, when she thought of her brother Honor on the way back in the afternoon, she hesitated and thought: "In the afternoon, my brother, in order to cheer me up, joked that I would receive the good news of my successful signing in the morning. I might as well sign the contract first, and wait until tomorrow morning to tell them and give them a real surprise!"

Thinking of this, Warnia put away her mobile phone and said to Swallow: "The contract has not been signed yet. Now I say it, this will be a bit hasty. Let me tell them after the contract is signed and the dust settles!"

Chapter 2053

The vehicle Warnia was in, quickly drove out of downtown Tokyo and continued on toward the mountainous areas in the western suburbs of Tokyo.

Although Japan is mountainous, the capital Tokyo is located in the Kanto Plain, so the entire Tokyo is flat, and there are almost no peaks in the city. One has to go west for dozens of kilometers until Nishitama County before entering the mountainous area.

Mountainous areas are mostly winding roads, but the road conditions are very good. Commercial vehicles continue to drive on the winding mountain roads with nine bends and eighteen bends, and the altitude is gradually increasing.

Because it was in the mountains and it was a long night, almost no cars were driving along the winding road for dozens of kilometers. Looking down from the sky, only Warnia was in the car with its lights on, circling through the mountain road.

She was very happy at this time.

Although in the final cooperation plan with Nippon Steel, the Song family gave up the controlling rights, but fortunately, the controlling rights did not fall into the hands of Nippon Steel, which is a relative compromise solution.

Since taking over as the head of the Song family, Warnia has been working hard, but it is true that she has not made very outstanding results immediately.

Therefore, she personally attaches great importance to this cooperation with Nippon Steel.

I also look forward to using this cooperation to prove to everyone that I really have the ability to make the Song family better and better.

At this time, the car has already run most of the winding mountain road, occasionally when the car drove to the east side of the mountain, one can see the night view of the entire Tokyo east side at the feet.

Sitting next to Warnia, Swallow took out her mobile phone with some excitement. While taking pictures of the scenery outside the window, she exclaimed: "The night view of Tokyo from the mountain is really unique..."

With that said, she tried to take a few photos, and said with some regret: "Oh, it's not clear to take pictures on the phone at night, so I can't capture this kind of mood at all!"

Warnia smiled slightly and said, "If you take a photo at night, the light is too weak, so long exposure time is needed. If you really want to shoot this kind of night scene, you have to find a place with a wide view, use an SLR with a tripod, and use a long exposure. This kind of feeling can be photographed in the same way."

Swallow said in surprise: "Mr. Song, you know photography!"

Warnia smiled and said: "It was popular to join various interest clubs when I was in college. I have fewer cells for singing and dancing, so I chose photography."

Swallow smiled and said, "Then I will learn from you if I have a chance!"

Warnia nodded and said: "If the contract is successfully signed, we will rest in Tokyo for a few days and relax. Then I will buy an SLR and a tripod, and we will come here again to take night shots."

"It's great!" Swallow said cheerfully: "This way, I can stroll around and take a look in Tokyo!"

As they were talking, the vehicle drove into a U-shaped curve on the winding mountain road, and the driver subconsciously slowed down and entered the curve. After a slow and steady turn, a low roar suddenly came in front of him.

The driver subconsciously turned on the high beam, and then he was stunned to find that a full-loaded heavy truck was in the middle of the road, leaping downhill and quickly diving toward him!

The opponent's car is very large, and it is going downhill and extremely fast. Once a collision occurs on such mountain roads, the consequences will be disastrous.

The driver of the commercial vehicle kept flashing his lights and honking his whistle, but the other party remained unmoved.

What's more frightening is that the mountain road itself is very narrow, with only two lanes on the left and right, and the other side is driving in the middle of the road, so there is no room for commercial vehicles to dodge at all!

When Warnia saw this, several questions flashed in her mind: "What's the matter with that truck?! Why doesn't it slow down?!"

Before she could understand, the Truck banged directly on the front face of the commercial car!

Since this big truck is downhill and full of muck, its tonnage and inertia are large.

Warnia's commercial car was in front of it, exactly like paper!

Chapter 2054

The sudden impact directly knocked the engine compartment of the entire commercial vehicle into the front seat!

The driver and the other assistant sitting on the co-pilot died instantly!

Warnia sat in the middle row of the commercial vehicle and had buckled her seat belt, so at the moment of the impact, she was firmly tied to the seat by the seat belt.

However, because of the great inertia during the impact, she had four ribs broken by the seat belt!

And Swallow next to Warnia had no such good luck!

When she got in the car, she was a little slack. She always felt that she didn't need to buckle the seat belt when she was sitting in the back. So at the moment of the impact, she flew out and slammed into the back of the front passenger seat!

At this moment, her whole body was smashed including the head, and she instantly lost consciousness and went into a deep coma.

Because of the rib fracture, Warnia felt terribly painful in her chest, but before she could catch a breath, the entire front face crashed into a commercial vehicle with scrap metal, and was pushed back by the big truck!

Because the two front wheels of the commercial vehicle were smashed into a mass of scrap iron together with the wheel hub, there was a group of sparks abruptly pierced with the ground under the front face of the commercial vehicle!

Warnia turned her head back hard at this time, glanced back, and she was suddenly cold in shock!

Behind the car is that U-shaped curve!

However, this big car obviously wanted to push the commercial car she was sitting in directly down the cliff!

The height here is at least hundreds of meters, no matter what car, rolling down from such a high cliff, I am afraid it will fall into a pile of scrap iron!

And the people sitting inside are afraid that they will die too!

At this moment, she immediately realized that all of this was not accidental!

This big car deliberately did not turn on the lights, deliberately drove in the middle of the road, deliberately hit her car by going downhill, and not only did not decelerate at all after the impact, it even slammed on the accelerator, trying to push itself into the cliff with others!

At this time, she could no longer think about who was murdering her behind her back.

Because she knew that her life might only have less than a minute left.

She had never expected that she would be buried in a foreign country today in her great years, and a strong feeling of grief suddenly appeared in her heart!

At this moment, the first thing she thought of in her mind was not herself, nor her grandfather and other relatives, but the man that always lingered in her heart, Charlie!

She choked in her heart: "I originally thought that there is still a long way to go in life, so it is okay to wait for Master for a few years or even more than a dozen years, but who would have thought that my life is about to fall down a cliff in Japan. Alas, I die in a foreign country..."

Thinking of this, Warnia was already full of tears.

She endured the severe pain in her chest, took out the phone, clicked on the top of Charlie's portrait, and then clicked the voice message button.

At this time, the commercial vehicle has been pushed to the edge of the cliff by the truck.

Warnia looked at the phone and cried and said, "Master, I...I really love you! If there is a chance, Warnia will be your woman in the next life..."

As soon as the voice fell, the entire commercial vehicle had been completely pushed out of the edge of the cliff, rolling and falling into the abyss...

Chapter 2055

When the business car rolled and fell off the cliff, Warnia was already nervous to the extreme.

However, the more at this critical moment of life and death, her brain became more sober.

Her brain was spinning fast at this moment, and many things came to mind in her mind all of a sudden.

Because of the speed of thinking in her mind, it seems that time has slowed down.

When the commercial vehicle hit the cliffside boulder, Warnia felt that her whole body was completely destroyed by the violent impact.

Fortunately, she is still sitting in the luxury car seat of a commercial vehicle. This kind of seat is very comfortable and safe. The most important thing is that the body contact part is very soft.

The soft part of the seat can greatly alleviate the huge impact on the body, which is like putting eggs in a box wrapped in cotton, and the safety factor is greatly increased.

But because of that, Warnia still had huge inertia when she was hit, and she almost fainted her whole body. The huge inertia even squeezed her internal organs together.

The pain was beyond imagination!

But at this moment, she suddenly thought of something, something she had been carrying close to her body!

At this time, after the vehicle hit the boulder, it bounced up several meters into the sky and then continued to roll down. Warnia tried her best to spin her hands into the pockets of her clothes.

Immediately afterward, she took out a wooden box the size of a ring box. Because the car body was still rolling, she could only grasp the wooden box with both hands, and did not dare to relax, for fear that the wooden box would let go!

Because she knew that what was in this wooden box was her only life-saving straw!

Warnia quickly opened the wooden box, and when the vehicle was about to collide next time, she did not hesitate to put the pill stored in the wooden box into her mouth!

Boom!

This time, the impact of the vehicle was more serious!

The commercial vehicle directly faces down and hit a boulder!

In an instant, Warnia's car door on the right side was smashed into a huge depression!

This powerful force, the recessed car door directly hit Warnia's right knee, and even broke her right leg!

The severe pain caused her to scream, and then, the whole car began to roll violently on the rocks full of steep slopes!

While the vehicle was rolling over, Swallow repeatedly bumped up and down in the carriage. She was so terrible that she had already lost her life.

Warnia watched her body roll back and forth in the carriage, she wanted to help but she couldn't take care of herself. She could only watch her and her tears suddenly burst!

When the vehicle vacated again, the window was already completely broken due to the rolling speed too fast, so Swallow's body was thrown out of the window...

Warnia broke down and cried. She herself suffered all the injuries, and almost all of her brain, internal organs, and limbs were severely damaged. She even felt that she was on the verge of dying.

However, the pill that Charlie gave her was kept in her mouth and never swallowed.

She knows that the pill can only save hers once, if she swallows it early, maybe she will die when the vehicle rolls and falls!

Therefore, there is only one belief in her mind: "I must persist and persist! Do my best to persist to the end, and then leave the destiny to God!"

Immediately afterward, another thought emerged in her mind: "No! Not to hand over the destiny to God, but to Charlie!"

It was another violent impact.

Warnia felt that she was about to lose consciousness.

Between the last electric light and flint, she bite into the pill and swallowed the pill with a bit of medicine fragrance into her abdomen!

In the next second, Warnia had completely lost all consciousness, and her body continued to roll down with the car.

At this time, a strong medical force was dissolving in her belly.

The power of the medicine was conducted extremely fast, and it quickly poured into every part of her body through the meridians.

At this time, Warnia's body had almost lost all vitality, but at this moment, the powerful medicine made her body instantly recover.

Chapter 2056

This is like a city that was plunged into darkness due to a power outage. At the moment when the power supply was suddenly restored, the entire city was instantly re-lit!

Just as Warnia recovered rapidly, the commercial vehicle she was riding in finally fell to the bottom of the valley.

At this time, the vehicle is already full of defects.

The front of the car completely collapsed into the first row of seats, all the windows were shattered, and the metal body was also cut into countless hideous holes by the stone.

And the whole car has been deformed in the constant rolling, like a can that was stepped on!

However, Warnia's consciousness is constantly recovering. Broken ribs, leg bones, arms, as well as body wounds, damaged brains, and internal organs are all quickly regaining vitality.

Within a moment, she regained her mobility.

She wanted to unfasten the seat belt, but the plug of the seat belt had been severely deformed together with the plug.

The seat under her body has also been completely deformed by the impact.

But fortunately, the seat belt can barely go around the body, and her body will also be able to escape from the deformed seat.

The phone under her feet is still on. Although the screen of the phone is severely broken, it still lights up, which means it can still be used.

So Warnia hurriedly grabbed the phone in her palm and hurriedly fled out of the car!

The doors of the car were no longer usable, but the windows on both sides became two completely deformed frames.

She struggled and crawled out of the car.

At this time, she heard the sound of water and at the same time smelled a pungent smell of gasoline.

The fuel tanks of family cars are almost invariably under the car, and most fuel tanks are made of engineering plastics.

Although the fuel tank can withstand most collisions and accidents, it is basically difficult to protect yourself in the face of such a 360-degree rollover accident.

Therefore, the fuel tank of this commercial vehicle was also punctured by several large openings, and dozens of liters of gasoline flowed out through these openings.

The commercial vehicle that Warnia rides has a fuel tank capacity of 70 liters, and a two-liter Coke bottle can be used as a container, which can fill a full 35 bottles.

The driver had just filled up the fuel after returning to the hotel, and it took less than ten liters to drive over, and there were at least 60 liters of gasoline in the car.

You must know that gasoline has a lot of energy when burning. Not to mention 60 liters of gasoline. Even a large Coke bottle of gasoline is enough to burn a car into iron slag!

At this time, the damaged engine of this car is still humming, which means that the spark plug of the engine is still igniting and the fuel injection nozzle is constantly injecting fuel to push the piston movement of the engine.

Once there is an oil leak inside the engine compartment, flames are likely to escape from the engine compartment, and then ignite all the gasoline!

Warnia did not dare to delay, although she was surrounded by dense woods and grasses, but in order to escape, she could only dive into the woods.

Just when she was not ten meters away, a strong fire suddenly burst out behind her.

The gasoline starts to burn from the position of the engine compartment and ignites the gasoline leaking around.

Gasoline burns extremely fast, and in the blink of an eye, the commercial vehicle is quickly consumed by the fire.

Warnia turned around and looked at the burning flame, tears filled her eyes.

Her other assistant and the very nice driver she was with, in Japan were all in the car at this time.

Although she knew that they were dead as early as the first time they hit, she still felt like a knife at the thought of their bodies being burned beyond recognition by the fire.

And Swallow...

The little girl who had been talking about learning photography with herself a few minutes ago was already separated from her...

After the rest of the catastrophe, Warnia ignored the hot flames, her legs were slightly bent and slowly knelt on the ground, covering her face with her hands, crying bitterly...

Chapter 2057

When Warnia was uncertain of her next moments in Nishitama County, Tokyo, Japan, Charlie was preparing to soak in the hot springs at the Champs Elys Villa in the mountains on the outskirts of Aurous Hill.

With him in the hot spring pool, his wife, Claire.

Just like when they were bathing in the hot springs with Elsa, Charlie wore swimming trunks, while Claire wore a one-piece swimsuit.

The graceful posture was revealed in front of Charlie, making Claire more or less ashamed.

In fact, the couple did not plan to take a hot spring together.

Charlie wanted Claire to come first. When Claire came over in a bathrobe, she happened to be seen by Elaine, so Elaine said that Charlie and Claire should be together.

Claire stepped into the hot spring water first, and Charlie put the two people's mobile phones on the stone platform next to the hot spring pool before they were ready to enter the water.

At this moment, the phone rang suddenly.

It's a WeChat.

He turned on the phone and found that Warnia had sent WeChat.

Moreover, it is a voice.

This made him feel somewhat embarrassed.

If he clicks on the voice message and listens to it, doesn't know what it is. But if he clicks on it on the spot, what if it says something in it that makes his wife Claire misunderstand?

It is safer to listen to the ear in the earpiece mode, but it will inevitably make Claire think more.

So Charlie had to click to change the text.

Warnia's accent is very standard, and the recognition rate of WeChat voice-converted text is also very high, so her words were completely transformed all at once.

Charlie looked at the text, and his whole person was suddenly shocked!

"Why did Warnia suddenly speak to me saying the three words I love you? Why does she say that if she has a chance, she will be his woman in the next life?!"

"Could it be... is there any danger she encountered?!"

Thinking of this, Charlie hurriedly said to Claire: "My wife, you can soak for a while, I'll get a drink."

Claire nodded and exhorted: "You put on some clothes, don't freeze."

"it is okay."

Charlie said, put the thick bathrobe on him, turned around and entered the villa.

Jacob and Elaine both went back to their rooms to rest, and Charlie clicked on the voice directly in the living room.

Immediately afterward, Warnia's sad and desperate voice came out: "Master, I...I really love you! If there is a chance, I will be your woman in the next life... .."

In this voice message, in addition to Warnia's voice, there are also violent impacts, harsh sounds caused by friction between metal and the ground, and the roar of engines...

Charlie felt a little in his heart!

Listening to this voice, Warnia must be in an accident!

He immediately called her, and it turned out that the other party was temporarily unable to connect!

He hurriedly sent Warnia a voice call invitation on WeChat, but the other party did not respond!

Charlie panicked suddenly.

He knew that Warnia was in Japan and had not yet come back, so he could also speculate that she must have something wrong in Japan.

Now, he couldn't get in touch with her at all. What Charlie thought of the first time was to call Mr. Song to ask about the situation.

So, he immediately dialed Mr. Song's phone.

Chapter 2058

At this time, Mr. Song was ready to go to bed.

Since taking the Rejuvenating Pill, his body has grown stronger, but it also made him more cherish his hard-won health. Therefore, he has been adhering to the health concept of going to bed early, waking up early, getting active, and exercising, so he rests earlier every day.

Suddenly received a call from Charlie, he quickly connected the phone and said: "Oh, Master, you are calling me so late, what's your order?"

Charlie said: "Master Song, I want to ask what is Warnia's situation now? Why can't I contact her suddenly?"

"Warnia?" Mr. Song said in surprise: "We had contact in the evening. She is in Tokyo, Japan, and is negotiating cooperation with Nippon Steel."

Charlie said: "A few minutes ago Warnia sent me a voice message, suddenly saying something about her next life, and then I went back to her, and she is no longer available. I suspect Warnia may be in Tokyo. What happened to her!"

"Encountered an accident?!"

Mr. Song suddenly sat up from the bed and blurted out: "Master, in the voice that Warnia sent to you, did she encounter something?"

"No." Charlie pondered: "This is what I worry about the most. Warnia didn't say anything specific in the voice message, but it made me feel like she wanted to say goodbye to me."

Grandpa Song said nervously, "I will call the people next to her and ask what happened!"

"Okay! If you have any news, please be sure to notify me as soon as possible!"

Father Song hung up the phone and called Warnia first.

Sure enough, as Charlie said, Warnia's phone could not be connected at all.

The old man Song couldn't help but be stunned, and then he hurriedly beat Warnia's assistant Swallow.

Swallow is Warnia's confidant and her right arm. If Warnia encounters anything, she must know.

However, what made Old Man even more nervous was that Swallow couldn't get through!

He is really panicked now!

He immediately called Honor and said: "Honor, come to my room immediately! Something happened to Warnia!"

A minute later, Honor rushed in panic, and as soon as he walked in, he blurted out nervously and asked: "Grandpa, what happened to Warnia?!"

Father Song said nervously, "Warnia is missing! I called her and Swallow, and neither of them could get through!"

With that, Mr. Song asked again: "Honor, how many people did your sister take to Japan this time?!"

Honor said: "It seems that she took two assistants with her, as well as a local driver."

Father Song hurriedly asked again, "Do you know who the other person is besides Swallow?"

Honor thought for a while and said, "It seems to be Silviana."

Father Song hurriedly ordered: "Quick! Find that Silviana's phone number and contact her immediately to see if you can contact her!"

Honor nodded in a hurry, then took out his mobile phone, called the director of the human resources department of the Song Group, and said: "Silviana who went to Japan with Warnia, do you have her contact information?"

The other party replied: "Yes Young Master, should I send it to you now?"

Honor said: "Send it to me, hurry up!"

Soon, a bunch of phone numbers reached Honor's phone.

Honor called immediately, and after a while, he heard a prompt from the phone: "Sorry, the call you dialed cannot be reached temporarily, please call again later..."

Honor looked at the old man Song with a nervous expression, and said, "Grandpa...The two assistants around Warnia can't get in touch, this...what the hell happened... .."

Father Song was sweating profusely. He kept tapping his palms and muttered anxiously: "It's broken, it's broken! Warnia must be in a difficulty! What can I do... "

Honor said without hesitation: "Grandpa, or I will take someone to Japan! We should go now!"

Chapter 2059

Honor offered to go to Japan, and Mr. Song had some comfort in his heart.

He even thought to himself: "Honor and Warnia are not brothers and sisters, but it is really rare for Honor to be so concerned about her."

Thinking of this, he sighed and said: "Honor, you go to arrange the plane, I will go with you!"

Honor hurriedly said: "Grandpa, don't follow along. You are old and you are not familiar with the place. It will be even more troublesome if there is something short and long, and my dad is still abroad. There can't be no one sitting here in Aurous Hill, you stay at home, and I must find a way to get Warnia back!"

Mr. Song hesitated for a moment, and knew in his heart that it was really difficult for him to play any role as in the past.

Moreover, if both himself and Honor go to Japan, the Song Group would have no leader.

After that, it's a big family with hundreds of billions. Even during the holidays, the various tasks to be dealt with every day are very tedious. If there is really no one in charge of staying here to guard, if something happens, it is likely to cause a Great loss.

So, Mr. Song nodded slightly and said, "That's fine! Then I will stay at home. You can choose some capable personnel as soon as possible, and hurry up and leave as soon as possible!"

Honor immediately said: "Grandpa, don't worry! I will make arrangements!"

Immediately afterward, Honor called a few assistants and a dozen bodyguards. At the same time, he arranged a plane at the airport and took off directly to Japan in an hour.

Elder Song also called Charlie back and said to him: "Master, Warnia and the people around her can't be contacted. I'm afraid they have had some accident. I have arranged honor to leave immediately and rush to Tokyo!"

Charlie asked on the phone, "Is there no clue?"

Father Song sighed: "Yes, there are no clues. I asked the hotel. The hotel only said that they left by car more than an hour ago, but no one knows where they went."

Charlie asked again: "Didn't Warnia tell you what she was going out to do?"

"No..." Mr. Song said very sadly: "Warnia returned to the hotel from Nippon Steel in the evening and told me about the progress of the negotiation, and also explained that she may continue to communicate with them. But where she went tonight, I don't know at all, and she never said a word."

Honor is indeed extremely clever.

As early as when Warnia and Nippon Steel's Hashimoto Kinzaki had been frustrated in their negotiations, he had been constantly encouraging Warnia, giving her blood, and making her more eager for success.

And in the afternoon, he deliberately uttered the so-called blessing of "Maybe you will receive a surprise tomorrow morning", which gave Warnia a psychological hint even more subtle.

So after she received the phone call from Hashimoto to sign the contract, she naturally thought of giving her family a surprise, so when she left the hotel, she did not tell anyone other than her companions of the itinerary.

This is exactly what Song's honor is.

At this moment, Charlie was very worried.

Hearing that Honor was going to Japan, he didn't think much and certainly didn't have any doubts about him.

He just felt that since Warnia's whereabouts in Tokyo are unknown, the best thing he should do now is to find someone in Tokyo to help, and quickly follow the hotel where Warnia stayed to check for clues and see where Warnia went after leaving the hotel.

So he hung up the phone of Mr. Song first, and then called Nanako.

Chapter 2060

At this time, Nanako has just returned to Tokyo from Kyoto.

A few days ago, she temporarily accompanied her father to stay in Kyoto for a few days to change her mood to relax, but because of the many family affairs, she stayed for three days and returned to Tokyo.

After receiving Charlie's call, Nanako was a little surprised. After that, the time in Tokyo is one hour earlier than in China. It is more than 10:30 in the country now, and it is already 11:30 in Tokyo.

Therefore, Nanako asked excitedly and surprised: "Master, why are you calling me at this time?"

Charlie asked hurriedly, "Nanako, are you in Tokyo now?"

"Yes." Nanako said: "My father and I just came back this afternoon, Master, you seem to be a little anxious from your voice, what's the matter?"

Charlie said: "A good friend of mine suddenly disappeared in Tokyo. The last voice message she sent me seemed to have encountered an accident, but I can't contact her at all now, so I want to ask you for help. Arrange for someone to investigate where she went tonight."

Upon hearing this, Nanako hurriedly said: "Master, no problem! Tell me the general information, and I will arrange for a full investigation! The influence of our Ito family in Tokyo is still unmatched, as long as people are really there. I will find her where she is missing in Tokyo!"

"Okay!" Charlie hurriedly told Nanako some personal information about Warnia, the hotel she stayed in, and the time she left the hotel and asked: "Nanako, please arrange for someone to mobilize the surveillance video and take a look at her. Which car did she take, and where did she drive the car too!"

"Okay, Master!" Nanako also attached great importance to it, blurting out: "Then I will make arrangements!"

Since the Matsumoto family went offline and the Takahashi family was seriously injured, the Ito family's influence in Tokyo has naturally increased greatly.

Many of the dependent forces and organizations that followed the Takahashi and Matsumoto families in the past are now taking the initiative to show their favor to the Ito family, and Nanako has gradually incorporated a part, which greatly expands the external power of the Ito family.

Among them, it includes the big runaways controlled by the Takahashi family.

Just like those little brothers of Orvel in the underground world.

They may not be able to get on the table, but they are all groups that breed in the dark of the city, so they are like rats in the sewers, with a strong sense of smell and extremely fast action.

When she asked them to find someone, they all moved immediately.

Because the last place where Warnia appeared was a hotel in the city center, the monitoring equipment was very complete. Therefore, the external forces of the Ito family immediately locked onto the commercial vehicle that Warnia was in when she left through the hotel's surveillance video.

As a result, everyone began to follow the trajectory of the car through the monitoring system. Because the Ito family offered a reward of hundreds of millions of yen, they were all trying their best to pursue the clues. Every group hopes to be the first. Find Warnia's whereabouts.

At this moment, in a valley in Nishitama County, western Tokyo.

Warnia walked carefully through the dense forest at the bottom of the valley alone.

The valley is hundreds of meters deep, not only has dense forests and vegetation but also has towering mountains on both sides, so the phone has no signal at all.

At this time, she had only one thought in her heart: walk out of the mountain alive, and immediately ask Charlie for help once the phone has a signal.

While marching through the dense forest, she secretly thought in her heart: "Today's matter must be someone deliberately murdering me. If they know that I am still alive, then I will definitely not be able to leave Japan alive!"

At the same time, there is a perception in her subconscious: "Now, no one can save me except Master!"

Chapter 2061

On the winding road in Nishitama County, western suburbs of Tokyo.

Several people in black were looking down at the place where Warnia had fallen from the cliff. From a distance, they saw a fire burning below. One of them whispered: "Now, the person in the car should be dead, right?"

Another person sneered and said, "Falling down so high, and adding a big fire to it, if she is not dead, I will chop off my head and give it to you."

The man smiled and said, "In this case, you can return to Mr. Hashimoto."

The people around nodded and said, "Hurry up and clean up the scene first. All the impact debris, glass slag, and tire friction marks on the ground must be removed to ensure that no one sees an accident here after dawn."

"OK!"

Several people in black immediately began to clean the scene.

The leader took out his cell phone and called Hashimoto, and reported: "Mr. Hashimoto, things have basically been settled. We will withdraw after cleaning the scene."

Hashimoto asked, "Is the person dead? Have you confirmed the body?"

The man smiled and said, "It's impossible to confirm the corpse. This cliff is several hundred meters high. Even if the Amaterasu fell from here, he would probably be finished."

Hashimoto slapped his lips: "I don't see the corpse with my own eyes, I'm still a little unsure."

The man said, "Mr. Hashimoto, people have already rolled down the cliff with the car, and I saw from above that the car has burned up. With this fire, Amaterasu must be turned into ashes inside. I can say this with ten thousand hearts."

Hashimoto couldn't help complaining: "Why do you always make fun of Amaterasu? Don't you have any sense of awe in your heart?"

The man curled his lips and smiled on the phone: "Fear a sh!t, I am a man who commits many crimes. If there is a great god, I am afraid that I would have been killed long ago. I can live and continue to commit crimes. There is no god in this world!"

Hashimoto said helplessly: "It's OK, I won't tell you, as long as you are sure that the person is dead, I will definitely trust you 100%."

The man hummed and said, "Okay, the balance will be sent to my house at that time. Remember, I want the old banknotes with or without serial numbers."

Hashimoto said quickly: "No problem, I'll deliver it to you early tomorrow morning!"

"Okay, then I'll hang up first!"

.....

In the valley at this time.

Warnia is still struggling to walk through.

She doesn't know where she is or where she can get out of the mountain, but she is thinking very simple now, she must go a little farther before climbing up the valley, otherwise, if she climbs up and is hit by the other party, then she is really doomed.

What made her feel very miraculous was that in the past ten minutes, her physical condition was getting better and better.

Not only did she lose all the pain from the injury, but her body didn't even seem to have been seriously injured.

And now she can feel that there is still very powerful energy in her body, which is constantly being transmitted to her body, making her feel better and better, and she even feels that her body is full of inexhaustible power.

Chapter 2062

She thought to herself: "This strength must be derived from the magical medicine that Master gave me... He gave me that medicine so that I could keep it with me at any time. In case of emergency, I didn't expect this medicine to really save my life at the critical moment!"

Thinking of Charlie, Warnia felt that her spiritual level was also inspired by unprecedented levels.

She kept encouraging herself in her heart: "Since Master gave me a chance to live, then I must live back to Aurous Hill!"

.....

Aurous Hill.

The ancient capital of the Six Dynasties.

Although it is not as prosperous as Eastcliff and Zhonghai, nor as affluent as the new first-tier cities in the south, it has its own charm and heritage after all.

People who live here love this land and this river.

Just when Warnia vowed to return to Aurous Hill alive, a private jet at Aurous Hill Airport had slowly reached the end of the runway.

This is the private jet of the Song family, which can accommodate more than twenty people and has a separate bedroom.

Honor at this time, lying on the bed in the separate bedroom, holding a glass of red wine, smiling at the corner of his mouth.

Hashimoto just called him and told him: "Mr. Song, the business car that Lingmei was riding in fell to the bottom of the valley from a cliff several hundred meters high in Nishitama County. The vehicle ignited spontaneously. One-tenth of it was turned into ashes!"

Honor smiled sullenly: "Okay! Great! I've waited for this day. I have been waiting for a long time. Today I can get what I want. Thanks to Mr. Hashimoto's help."

Hashimoto laughed: "Mr. Song, we will work together in the future, making more money is the most important thing!"

Honor said with a smile: "Mr. Hashimoto, please rest assured that we will work together in the future, and I will not be less of the money that should be given to you."

Hashimoto said: "Then, when Mr. Song arrives in Japan, we will enjoy the wine and talk!"

Honor sighed and said, "Oh! This time I come to Japan mainly to behave for the old man. Although the old man is old, his mind is very clear. If I behave a little bit wrongly, he will definitely notice that, so I will come to Japan this time to avoid suspicion, it is better not to meet each other."

Hashimoto asked first: "Mr. Song, when shall we sign the contract?"

Honor said: "When I bring my sister's body or ashes back to Aurous Hill and finish her funeral, I will choose an opportunity to sign with Mr. Hashimoto!"

Hashimoto smiled wryly and said, "Haha, this is no problem. Mr. Song must be very painful to lose his loved one, so let's wait for the sake of drinking and talking!"

Honor also smiled and said, "Yeah, my agile and capable sister died so miserably. I really feel pain in my heart, hahahaha!"

Having said that, he said with some regret: "If that old thing didn't pass on the position of the head of the house to my sister and let her be at ease by my side to assist me, I would not have killed her today."

Speaking of this, Honor flashed a sullen look in his eyes, and said coldly: "To blame, I blame the old thing for standing her on my way! Anyone who stands in my way must die!"

Hashimoto said first: "Mr. Song, what if the old guy wants to regain his position as the head of the house? Or, when we sign the contract, he doesn't agree to the cooperation terms we have set, what should we do?"

Honor smiled sullenly and said faintly: "Don't worry, Mr. Hashimoto, none of this you worry about will happen. I will find an opportunity to let him reunite with his beloved granddaughter. No one can stop me from becoming Patriarch of the Song Family!"

Chapter 2063

The strength of the Ito family in Tokyo is now basically unmatched.

In addition, this was the first time Charlie spoke and asked Nanako for help, so she attached great importance to this and almost sent out the entire Ito family.

Tens of thousands of people searched intensively in Tokyo, and they soon followed the vines and traced Warnia's trajectory to the mountain crossing in Nishitama County.

As Warnia's road up the mountain usually has very little traffic, there is no surveillance video on this road.

After learning that the clue was interrupted at the foot of Nishitama County, the smart and astute Nanako almost immediately realized that Warnia's accident must be on the mountain road in Nishitama County.

Not only is it sparsely populated, but the road is also very high. If someone deliberately harms Warnia, doing it here is indeed a perfect choice.

Therefore, Nanako Ito immediately halted the large-scale search and announced that a heavy prize of 100 million yen would be awarded to the first team to find a clue in Nishitama County.

After that, she immediately arranged for the ninjas of the Ito family to go to the deep mountains of Nishitama County and let them sneak among them to find clues.

At the same time, Charlie, who was in Aurous Hill, couldn't sit still.

At this time, he was pacing back and forth in the living room, thinking to himself: "From Warnia's voice, she must have encountered an unusual danger, and it is very likely that someone is deliberately harming her, even, It is very likely that she has encountered an accident now..."

"After all, she is just a weak woman. Even facing an adult male alone, she can't have any chance of winning. What's more, she is in a foreign country at the moment. Apart from a few assistants, she has no one to rely on. , I'm afraid for such a situation she is more ill-prepared..."

Thinking of this, Charlie felt a throb in his heart.

For Warnia, he naturally has a strong affection in his heart.

This is not because Charlie is half-hearted, but because a girl like Warnia is really too rare, so as long as he is a normal man, after getting along with her, he will have a good impression of her.

She is beautiful, gentle, intellectual, generous, and more importantly, she is sincere to others. Even from the perspective of ordinary friends, she will worry about them when someone is in danger.

What's more, Charlie was lucky enough to get her heart and first k!ss, so he was even more worried when she was in danger.

It's a pity that she is in Tokyo, and even if he has the ability to reach the sky, it is impossible to rush to her to rescue her immediately.

Therefore, he can only pray in his heart for Warnia's good life, and at the same time pray in his heart: "Warnia, I hope you will always listen to me and carry the pill that I gave you close to your body. If you have it. Maybe, it can save your life..."

Half an hour passed.

Nanako called Charlie back, and said: "Master, the people I sent out chased all the way to Nishitama County in the western suburbs of Tokyo. The car that Miss Song was riding on went up the mountain there. The surveillance video is no longer visible. , So I suspect that Miss Song should have something wrong in the mountains. I have now sent the best ninjas to search the mountains. If there is any news, I will notify you as soon as possible!"

Charlie was even more worried when he heard Nanako said that.

In the voice just now, there was a sound of impact and friction. He thought it was just a car accident, but as soon as he heard that it was in the mountains, he immediately felt that Warnia's chances of surviving were a little bit smaller!

Chapter 2064

No matter which country you are in, mountain roads are much more dangerous than ordinary roads.

In a car accident on a mountain road, the most feared thing is falling off a cliff. Once you roll and fall from a 100-meter-high cliff, the chance of surviving is very small.

In the rally race, the car running on the mountain must be equipped with a very strong roll cage. Only in this way can it be ensured that the cab will not be deformed when the car rolls or falls at high speed, thereby protecting the safety of the driver.

However, ordinary civilian cars, even a Rolls-Royce of 10 million, do not have such a thing as a roll cage, so once they fall from a cliff, the Rolls-Royce will fall into a pile of scrap iron!

Thinking of this, Charlie hurriedly said to Nanako: "Nanako, I beg you for one thing. You must let your ninja find Warnia's whereabouts as soon as possible. As long as she still has a trace of breath, she will also be brought out of the mountain. Take her to the hospital, wait for me to come!"

Nanako hurriedly asked, "Master, are you coming to Japan?"

"Yes!" Charlie said decisively: "I will pass now!"

Nanako jumped for joy!

"Master is coming to Japan! Then I can see Master again!"

But after a while, Nanako felt jealous again in her heart: "Master is coming to Japan for that Miss Song, not for me... Why is he so nervous about that Miss Song? Is she his confidante?"

Although Nanako's heart is a little sour, she has a very strong view of the overall situation. She quickly put all these thoughts behind her mind and blurted out: "Master, I will arrange for a helicopter to wait for you at Tokyo Narita Airport now!"

"If I find Miss Song's whereabouts while Master coming to Japan, then I will send her to the best hospital immediately, and after you land, I will take you to the hospital by helicopter to see her."

"If you arrives in Japan, and I haven't found Miss Song's whereabouts, then I will let the helicopter take you to Nishidamo County, and I will accompany you to search!"

Seeing Nanako arranged things so thoughtfully, Charlie said gratefully: "OK, Nanako! Thank you so much!"

Nanako hurriedly said: "Master and Nanako don't have to be so polite. My life was saved by you. What a trivial matter this is."

Charlie felt a little more relieved, and said: "Nanako, first arrange a helicopter to wait for me at Narita Airport, and I will fly straight over there!"

"Okay Master!"

Charlie hung up the phone, and he immediately called Issac. Upon the call, Charlie immediately ordered: "Mr. Craven, arrange the plane to prepare for take-off, and then send a helicopter to pick me up. I have to go to Tokyo as soon as possible!"

Issac was shocked and said: "Master, it's so late, why are you going to Tokyo suddenly?"

Charlie blurted out: "Warnia had an accident in Tokyo, life or death is uncertain, I must rush over as soon as possible!"

"Miss Song's accident?!" When Issac heard this, he knew that Charlie must be very anxious at the moment, so he immediately said, "Master, I will make arrangements immediately. It is 11 o'clock in the evening. When I get to you, I will pick you up and fly to the airport for almost 20 minutes. Counting up and down time, I will arrive at the airport at about 11:40!"

"I let the plane wait for you at the end of the runway. You get off the helicopter and board the plane immediately and take off immediately. At the same time, you fly to Tokyo at maximum speed. It is expected to arrive at 2 o'clock in the morning at Eastcliff time, which is 3 o'clock in the morning Tokyo time!"

Chapter 2065

Deep in the mountains of Nishitama County.

Warnia was still carefully walking through the valley slowly.

Although it is winter, the valley is dense with evergreen plants such as pines and cypresses.

Moreover, in this gloomy, cold valley, there is no trace of human visits at all, so there is not even a small intestine path.

So walking in such a place is extremely difficult.

Not to mention female streamers like Warnia, even experts who are good at expedition crossing can hardly increase their speed.

Fortunately, it's the cold winter season. Warnia's clothes are thicker, her upper body is a thick cashmere windbreaker, her body is a black mid-skirt with black corset leggings, and a pair of black leather boots, so she won't be exposed to dense pine needles and dryness. The branches and leaves are hurt.

At this moment she has adapted to the darkness at the bottom of the valley. She could have used a mobile phone with a broken screen to illuminate the surrounding environment, and walking like that would save some effort.

However, she was afraid that the people who wanted to murder her would not give up, and they might still be searching for her whereabouts, so she did not dare to turn the mobile flash on.

Occasionally, she wants to see if the phone has a signal. She also hides the phone in a windbreaker and completely wraps her head and mobile phone in the windbreaker for fear of leaking light.

After groping for two or three hours in the valley, Warnia was still very physically strong, but her hands and face were repeatedly scratched by the branches and leaves of the trees. It was already covered with tiny red marks, and some even had bloodshot eyes.

But at this time Warnia could not care about the pain at all. Her only thought was to grit her teeth and walk out of the mountain to live.

.....

At this time, Honor's special plane landed at Tokyo Airport first.

As soon as he landed, he went straight to the TMPD without hesitation.

He had already thought about it, this time coming to Tokyo is nothing more than to behave for the old man.

When he finds Warnia's body, he first will express some grief, and then hand the matter to the TMPD for investigation, and he could bring Warnia's body or ashes back to Aurous Hill for a funeral.

On the way to the TMPD, Honor received a call from the United States.

He pressed the answer button and heard the voice of his father Tianming Song from the other end of the phone.

"Hey, honor, is it convenient for you to speak now?"

Honor gave a hum, and said lightly: "My confidants are all around me, dad, don't worry."

Tianming asked, "Are you in Tokyo?"

"Yes Dad, I'm here."

Chapter 2066

Tianming asked again: "How is Hashimoto doing things? Is it pretty?"

Honor sneered and said, "It should be pretty. According to him, the car rolled down from a cliff of several hundred meters and burned into a pile of scrap iron. It is estimated that the people inside are all burnt to coke."

Tianming said with satisfaction: "That's good, that's good!"

After that, he asked again: "By the way, before you came, did your grandfather doubt anything?"

Honor said: "He shouldn't, but I'm not sure if he will doubt it in the future."

Tianming sneered and said, "It's okay, he has nothing to do later."

Honor was overjoyed and hurriedly asked: "Dad, are you going to do something with Grandpa?"

Tianming said, "No, it can't be so fast."

Honor said with a worried expression: "Dad, don't forget that when the old guy passed the position of Patriarch to Warnia, he said in public that as long as Warnia has no descendants, he must be the Patriarch of the Song family. Let Charlie inherit, and if we don't quickly get rid of the old guy, don't we mean making Charlie wedding dresses?!"

Tianming said: "If we start with the old guy now, then all of this will be too obvious. Warnia dies in a foreign land before, and the old man dies in Aurous Hill later. Even if we don't leave any evidence, the outside world will think this is something. We did it!"

Honor asked nervously: "Then what?! Can't you really wait for the old thing to invite Charlie into the Song family? In that case, we are all over! We are definitely not Charlie's opponent!"

Tianming said: "Don't worry about this. I have asked people to engage in a batch of neurological drugs used by U.S. agents. In the early stage after taking the drugs, they will be extremely obedient. Then the old guys will do what we say. At that time, we will directly let the old guy announce the abolition of the previous verbal agreement, and then announce that I will take over as the head of the family."

Honor asked: "You just said that the drug can make the other party obey in the early stage. What about the middle and late stages? Will the drug fail?"

"No." Tianming sneered: "After taking this medicine for a period of time, it can irreversibly destroy a person's brain. Not only can it not be cured forever, but it can't be found at all. The apparent symptoms are no different from Alzheimer's. At that time, we can say that the old guy was irritated by Warnia's death, so he has dementia.

Anyway, I would have become the head of the family and let him become dementia, which is good for us.

Honor smiled excitedly: "Dad! Your trick is really wonderful! Then we will raise the old thing as a mascot, and just arrange a few people to take care of him eating and drinking!"

"Yeah!" Tianming smiled sullenly, and said: "The old man called me just now, and asked me to come back as soon as possible. The medicines have been brought in through special channels. When Warnia's funeral is over, I will find opportunities to feed him!"

Honor remembered something, and said, "Dad, the old guy still has a rejuvenating pill! Warnia got it from Charlie on her birthday and gave it to him. In case he takes that rejuvenating pill, everything will return to normal. What should we do? We may be in big trouble then!"

Tianming said coldly: "Honor, don't be afraid! This matter, there is no turning back when you open the bow! For the Song family's 200 billion assets, we must walk to the dark one by one, and the gods block and kill the gods and the Buddhas block to kill Buddhas!"

After all, Tianming said again: "In addition, if the Rejuvenation Pill can really reverse his brain damage, I will find a chance to give him some medicine, as long as we don't reveal that we killed Warnia, don't reveal that we gave him Once the old guy takes the medicine, no one will doubt us."

After a pause, Tianming sneered and said, "Besides, what if they suspect it? Warnia is not killed directly by us. Who can convict us? All things must be evidence!"

Honor said: "You are right, as long as there is no evidence that we are behind the scenes, no one can help!"

Tianming coldly snorted: "The blame for this matter is that the old man is too partial! If the family is born and handed over to a female generation, he really treats me as a dish! This time, we will take the whole Take it back from the Song family! I am the son of the Song family and you are the grandson of the Song family. The Song family should have been ours!"

Chapter 2067

When Charlie left home, Claire was still soaking in the hot springs.

She didn't know that her husband left from the hot spring in a bathrobe and said to get a drink. He had already taken a helicopter to the airport and then flew to Japan.

She waited and couldn't wait for Charlie anymore. After coming out of the hot spring, she didn't see his shadow in the living room, and she couldn't help but wonder.

She picked up the phone and called Charlie, but it turned out that the phone was turned off.

This made her even more puzzled. When she returned to the bedroom, she didn't find Charlie's shadow, only a note that he left for her on the bedside table.

There was a line written on the note: "My wife, a friend is in danger, I will rush to save."

After Claire finished reading it, she was shocked: "Save people?! Could it be that something terrible has happened?!"

Thinking of this, she hurriedly sent a voice to Charlie: "Husband, where did you go? What happened? Anyway, you must pay attention to safety!"

.....

Tokyo, Japan.

The ninja of the Ito family took a helicopter and rushed to the mountainous area of Nishitama County in the shortest time.

Afterwards, the helicopter landed a few kilometers away from the foot of the mountain, and ten ninjas dressed in black filed out and rushed towards the mountain.

The reason why the helicopter was not allowed to fly directly in was because Nanako was afraid of throwing grass.

She is similar to Charlie's opinion. Warnia is likely to be murdered. So if you let them go in a helicopter to search with great fanfare, if Warnia is not dead, her people will disturb the other party again, which will cause more trouble.

However, the mountains in Nishitama County stretch for hundreds of kilometers, and the winding road alone is tens of kilometers long, so they can only hide in the dark and walk along the winding road to search for clues.

Fortunately, there were more ninjas dispatched by the Ito family this time, and ten ninjas came out, starting from the entrance to the mountain to inspect all the clues.

While they were searching, Nanako also took a helicopter from home to Narita Airport.

Two o'clock in the morning Tokyo time.

Since Honor went to the TMPD to report to the police, a large number of police officers have been ordered to set off to search for Warnia's whereabouts.

To the director of the TMPD, the news of Warnia's disappearance in Tokyo was like a nightmare.

A few days ago, an unprecedented war broke out in the city. Various assassinations emerged one after another. Many wealthy and powerful people died in a series of violent incidents, and even shocked the whole world.

Not only has the world laughed at Tokyo's public security issues, but it has also made the TMPD lose face in front of the world.

Finally, it was restored as before, and public order was approaching peace, but who would have thought that another well-known foreign entrepreneur lost contact in Tokyo!

The Song Group has a total market value of nearly 200 billion RMB. As the chairman of the Song Group, Warnia Song is a proper business elite no matter where she goes to any country.

But it was this business elite who lost contact in Tokyo, and according to reports from her family, it was probably an accident!

The director of the TMPD felt like a man on his back. If Warnia really died in Tokyo, then Tokyo would not ask for it anymore!

So he immediately rushed to the TMPD to supervise the battle and sent thousands of police officers to search for Warnia's whereabouts.

As the members of the Ito family, the TMPD also used surveillance video to trace all clues before Warnia's disappearance.

Moreover, the TMPD could directly access all the surveillance cameras in Tokyo, so they quickly found relevant clues and locked Warnia's accident to Nishitama County.

Chapter 2068

The police officers of the TMPD don't care about anything.

They directly sent hundreds of police officers to drive to Nishitama County, intending to block all the roads into and out of the mountains. At the same time, the TMPD also sent six police helicopters to the mountains of Nishitama County in order to find Warnia's whereabouts as soon as possible.

Nanako quickly got the news, so she immediately ordered the ninjas she sent out to keep low-key and try not to have any direct contact with the TMPD.

Tokyo time, half-past two in the morning.

The ninja of the Ito family, after passing through several mountains, smelled of burnt near the incident that had been cleaned up by the murderer.

Then, with this smell, they found the valley all the way down.

Along the way, they found the body of Warnia's assistant Swallow who was thrown out of the car. It was broken and horrible.

They immediately passed the news to Nanako. Nanako was shocked and immediately ordered them: "Check if the face is recognizable, and then search the Internet for Warnia's photos to see if it is the same person!"

After the ninja identified the body, he said to Nanako: "Miss, this corpse shouldn't belong to Miss Song. Let's continue searching!"

Nanako breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "Go down and take a look!"

The ninja said: "Miss, I have something to tell you."

Nanako hurriedly said, "Okay, you say."

The leading ninja said: "This cliff, at least a few hundred meters in height, we have only just reached halfway down. From the body of the female corpse just now, it can be seen that when the vehicle rolled and fell, it received a huge impact and the huge inertia generated by the roll. , So the people inside will probably not survive."

"Moreover, the more we go down, the more we can smell the scorching smell of burn, which proves that the vehicle spontaneously ignited after falling to the bottom of the valley, so the possibility of surviving is even smaller. Even the top ninja, in this case, I am afraid. It's hard to get out..."

Nanako felt tight and hurriedly said, "I see, you go down to see the situation first, and report to me in time!"

The headed ninja said: "Miss, our mobile phone signal is very unstable now. If we go further down, we may not find any signal. We may temporarily lose contact for a while. Don't worry. Once we find a clue, We will climb up immediately and report back to you!"

Nanako said immediately: "Okay! Go and see what's going on. If you find Miss Song's body, tell me immediately, if you can't find the body, then Miss Song is likely to be alive and around. Search hard!"

"OK, lady, going down now!"

Immediately, ten ninjas jumped down quickly like parkour masters.

This group of people still have excellent eyesight in the middle of the night, and they are very quick to reach out. On the steep cliffs and slopes, they can still find their footing safely, quickly and accurately, and they will soon reach the bottom of the valley inch by inch.

At the bottom of the valley at this time, Warnia's commercial vehicle had already burned out.

A winter's snow accumulated in the valley ensured that the fuel leaked from commercial vehicles did not cause a mountain fire, but even so, the snow that burned while burning still gathered into a creek below.

There were two charred corpses in the commercial vehicle that had been burned into a pile of scrap iron.

The corpse had almost turned into carbon dust, and black carbon chips would fall as soon as the wind blows. If you touch it with your hands, it is likely to turn into a mass of black dust.

Through the outline, it can be determined that there are two bodies in the car, and they are a man and a woman.

However, the female corpse was completely unidentifiable.

One of the ninjas sighed: "Boss, people are already burnt like this, and the god Amaterasu can't save him. Let's go up and find a signal to send the information."

The headed ninja was about to nod his head, and suddenly saw a trace of an anomaly on the ground through the weak light.

He immediately lay on the ground and smelled it, then touched the ground with his hand, feeling the different degrees of hardness in different places on the ground, and exclaimed: "This is a string of fresh footprints! Someone is still alive!"

Chapter 2069

Tokyo time, 2:50 in the morning.

Charlie's private plane landed at Narita Airport.

He didn't take anyone along this time, and rushed to Tokyo alone.

This way, because there is only a wireless network on the plane, there is no communication network, so he has been connected to the wireless network on the plane.

He always stared at Warnia's profile picture in WeChat, looking forward to her message.

However, she never gave him any feedback.

After flying for more than two hours, Charlie was very anxious, and he became more and more uncomfortable.

He would always involuntarily imagine the worst result: If Warnia really died, what should he do?

This time he came, although he brought the Rejuvenation Pill, but although the Rejuvenation Pill is magical, it does not have the effect of bringing back the dead to life in the true sense.

If people are really gone, eating more rejuvenating pills will not help!

In the Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures, although there are records about higher-level pill, the information is too vague, Charlie can't understand it at all, and doesn't have the ability to realize it.

Therefore, he can only pray in his heart, praying that Warnia is still alive.

Or, even if she only has the last breath, she can be saved by him!

After getting off the plane, Charlie passed through customs at the fastest speed.

Later, he saw that Nanako was already waiting at the customs exit.

Seeing him, her heart was full of joy, and she ran towards him in threes or twos, her eyes full of excitement and admiration and said: "Master, you are here..."

Charlie nodded, and asked her, "Nanako, have your people found out?"

Nanako hurriedly said: "The ninja I sent out just gave me feedback. They said that they had found the vehicle in which Miss Song was traveling. Three bodies were found at the scene, two women and one man..."

"what?!"

Charlie felt a little bit in his heart and blurted out: "Has the identity of the corpse been confirmed?"

Nanako quickly explained: "The male body is Miss Song's driver. The other two female bodies, one of which has been confirmed to be not Miss Song herself, and one female body. The co-pilot in the car has been burned beyond recognition and cannot be identified. , But because this female corpse was sitting in the co-pilot, I guess she might not be Miss Song herself."

Charlie hurriedly asked again: "Then there is no one else at the scene? If there is no one else at the scene, where did Warnia go? Could this be the same corpse that was burned?"

Nanako said again: "That's Master. My ninja told me that fresh footprints were found at the scene. Someone should have escaped before the vehicle spontaneously combusts."

Speaking, Nanako sighed: "The ninja told me that this incident was very unbelievable, because the scene was too tragic. The commercial vehicle fell from a cliff several hundred meters high and spontaneously ignited. In this case, even a ninja can hardly survive, but that person has survived and has the ability to act. It is a miracle among miracles!"

Charlie breathed a sigh of relief when he heard this!

It seems that the person who survived and escaped should be Warnia herself.

Chapter 2070

Warnia must have relied on the pill that he gave her, so she was able to save her life under such treacherous conditions.

So Charlie hurriedly asked again: "Nanako, have your people found Warnia's whereabouts?"

Nanako shook her head and said, "Now they are tracking the traces left by Miss Song, but they have not found where she is, but I believe that if she is alive, they will be able to find her."

After speaking, Nanako said again: "Oh yes Master, a large number of police officers have been sent to Nishitama County to search through the TMPD. I believe they are also looking for Miss Song's whereabouts, and they have many police officers. Helicopters are more suitable for fast and large-scale search and rescue. I believe that Miss Song's whereabouts will be found soon."

Charlie shook his head solemnly and said, "The reason why Warnia suffered from accidents, in my opinion, must be someone assaulting her. If the TMPD finds her whereabouts, it must be impossible to hide this matter from behind. I'm afraid the other party will come back then."

After that, Charlie hurriedly asked her: "Nanako, is the helicopter ready?"

Nanako nodded and said, "It's on the helipad, ready to go!"

"Okay, hurry to the place where the incident happened as soon as possible!"

.....

The helicopter soon roared from Narita Airport, traversed half of Tokyo city, and headed straight for Nishitama County.

At this time, Nishitama County, which had always been peaceful, suddenly became bustling.

Thousands of police officers and special operations team members from the TMPD swarmed in, and several police helicopters circulated the mountains with high-power searchlights.

Secretly, the ninja of the Ito family was in the valley, following the traces left by Warnia.

After all, Warnia is not a practitioner, let alone a master, so she can't hide her movement at all.

The ninja is very clever. While chasing the traces left by Warnia, he did not forget to order people to eliminate the traces left by Warnia little by little.

In this way, no one can find the clue left by her.

Even if someone from the TMPD found the completely damaged business car, they could not find her dead or alive.

In this way, it is possible to ensure that Warnia will not be discovered by others.

The TMPD was crowded with people, and there were police helicopters searching high in the sky, so it didn't take long for them to find the commercial vehicle.

Afterwards, several police helicopters drove towards the valley where the accident occurred, and twenty or thirty special forces with live ammunition came down from the helicopters.

When these special forces came, they immediately protected the scene tightly.

They checked the scene for the first time and confirmed that there were two deceased persons in the car. Then they traced the location of the commercial vehicle upwards and found the body of Warnia's assistant Swallow halfway up the mountain.

So their person in charge immediately reported to the headquarters via radio: "We have found the scene of the incident. The vehicle matches the one on the video surveillance. Three bodies were found on the scene. One of them is identified as Swallow a woman next to Warnia. The other two bodies have been completely carbonized and can only be identified as a man and a woman, but the identity of the woman cannot be confirmed at all."

The commander-in-chief at the scene hurriedly asked on the radio: "Are there any other clues found at the scene? You have only found three bodies now, but we found from surveillance video that when the commercial vehicle left the hotel, there were a total of four people, one of them is a driver, one of the other three is Warnia, and the other two are her assistants. It is impossible to have only three bodies!"

The person in charge of the special forces said: "It is true that only three bodies are at the scene, and judging from the tragic degree of the accident, there is no survivor, and no signs of surviving are found at the scene."

The commander-in-chief said in a puzzled voice: "This is not right! Four people got in the car, and only three are left after the accident. Where did the other one go?"

Chapter 2071

At this moment, Honor was sitting anxiously in the meeting room of the TMPD.

Since the Song Group is a well-known company with strong strength, the TMPD is very polite to Honor.

The director who rushed over from home overnight, at this time, was personally hosting Honor.

Seeing Honor's anxious look, the director comforted: "Mr. Song, our brigade has already begun searching for your sister's whereabouts in Nishitama County, so you don't have to worry too much. Once there are any results and clues, I will Feedback to you as soon as possible."

Honor sighed softly, covered his face in pain, and choked up: "Warnia is my only sister and the one I love the most. Please do your best to rescue her safely!"

The TMPD nodded and promised: "Please rest assured, Mr. Song, we will try our best to find Miss Song's whereabouts!"

Honor said gratefully, "Thank you so much!"

At this time, someone came in outside the door and said eagerly: "Director, our people found Miss Song's business car in the mountains of Nishitama County. The car has fallen to the bottom. They found two charred bodies in the car. Another corpse was found on the steep slope halfway up the mountain!"

When Honor heard this, his eyes reddened, and two lines of tears flowed out immediately.

He asked nervously: "Director, has Warnia suffered an accident?"

The director sighed, and said: "Mr. Song, please control your emotions..."

Honor immediately covered his face and cried bitterly: "Why...why Warnia...she is still so young...she is still so young! Why is it not me who died? !why!"

The director stepped forward, patted Honor's shoulder lightly, and said something to comfort him. The person who came to report said again: "Director, we found through monitoring that when Miss Song was leaving the hotel, they were four people sitting in the car, including her, so the whereabouts of one person remained unknown."

Honor immediately raised his face and asked dumbfounded: "What did you say?! Another person is missing?!"

"Yes!" The person hurriedly said: "Four people got in the car, and there were only three bodies. The other person has not found any clues, and we highly suspect that the missing person is Miss Song!"

"What?!" Honor was extremely nervous, and blurted out: "Is there any evidence that the missing person is my sister? Have you confirmed who was the corpse who fell to death halfway up the mountain? In addition, in the car. Is there her in the two charred bodies?"

The person explained: "This is Mr. Song. The corpse halfway up the mountain has been confirmed. It is Miss Song's assistant Swallow. As for the two charred corpses, we carefully compared them through high-definition cameras. The order of seating when leaving the hotel, the only male is the driver sitting in the driving seat, and the co-pilot sitting in the passenger seat was one of Miss Song's assistants. When Miss Song got in the car, assistant Swallow sat in the back row together."

Speaking of this, the person continued: "So, it can be seen that the scorched body on the co-pilot should not be Miss Song, unless she exchanged places on the way, but we think this possibility is minimal."

The director reasoned at this time: "It has been confirmed that Swallow's body has been found. The other two corpses are most likely not her. So, Miss Song is very likely to be alive!"

When Honor heard this, his whole person almost collapsed!

Deep in his heart, he nervously slandered: "What's going on?! What is going on?! Why is Warnia still alive?! The people near Hashimoto are not sure and confident, Warnia has already rolled off with people and cars. Why would she be missing?!"

Chapter 2072

So he hurriedly stood up and blurted out and asked: "Have you found the whereabouts of my sister? Or have you found any valuable clues?!"

The person who came to report shook his head and said: "Now things are a bit tricky, and there are some inconsistencies. No trace of Miss Song was found on the scene, and no trace of life was found, but we did not find anything about Miss Song. A clue whether she got off the car early, so everything is still unknown now."

Honor's heart was already a little bit scared at this time: "If Warnia dies, everything will be resolved easily. Even if the TMPD finds that she died of murder, I have nothing to worry about. Anyway, it's not me. It's almost impossible to be discovered if they move their hands. At that time, the TMPD can continue to trace the clues. I will take Warnia's body back to have the funeral, and then take care of the old thing. The Song family is my father's and mine. That's it."

"But, if Warnia didn't die, then all of this would have to be abandoned! Even if Warnia didn't know that I was secretly harming her, as long as she returned to Aurous Hill alive, she would definitely become extremely alert in the future. In that case, she would be hard to get killed!"

Thinking of this, he couldn't sit still, and said, "Several people, I want to go out and get some air."

The director nodded hurriedly: "Mr. Song have some fresh air!"

Honor immediately walked out of the door, came to an empty stairwell, and dialed Hashimoto's phone number.

"Haha, Mr. Song, you should be in the TMPD now?"

Honor said coldly: "Mr. Hashimoto, people from the TMPD told me that my sister is missing! What the hell is going on?"

Hashimoto asked in surprise: "What did you say? Missing? How did she disappear?"

Honor gritted his teeth and groaned: "That's how she disappeared for no reason! No one knows where she is, and now neither can anyone nor a corpse!"

Hashimoto murmured: "That's not right! My people have clearly rammed her and the commercial vehicle she was riding into the valley. According to them, the vehicle crashed to the bottom of the valley within a minute. Naturally, even Amaterasu can't escape!"

Honor said angrily: "You're so fucking sh!t to me! Your Amaterasu can't escape, so my sister escaped!"

"People from the TMPD did not find her body! She was not there at all!"

Hashimoto also became nervous, and said with a trembling voice, "This is damn wrong! I really have a video here. It was taken by my hand. It can be seen from the video. At the time of the impact, your sister was there. Obviously still in the car!"

Honor questioned angrily: "She was in the car at the time of the collision, and she disappeared when she fell to the bottom of the valley, so I ask you to answer me, where did she go?"

Hashimoto said in a desperate voice: "She...she should be dead...at that height, no one can survive!"

Honor questioned: "If she died, would the body walk on its own?!"

Hashimoto hesitated and said, "This...I don't know this..."

Honor growled: "So there is only one possibility, she must have escaped! I don't care what you use, find a way to find her, and then kill her immediately! Otherwise, if this matter is revealed, we two will be finished!"

Chapter 2073

Charlie and Nanako flew by helicopter for about 30 minutes before they approached Nishitama County.

As Nanako's ninja is still tracking Warnia's whereabouts, a large number of police officers from the TMPD are also searching near the incident.

So Charlie asked the helicopter to land at a relatively gentle place on the top of the mountain about five kilometers away from the incident.

The distance of five kilometers can temporarily avoid the search of the TMPD without being too far away from Warnia.

After all, she won't walk too fast in the mountains with her feet. It is estimated that she has walked five kilometers at most since she has been engaged in this event.

Therefore, even if Charlie's helicopter was unlucky and completely landed in the opposite direction, the maximum straight-line distance between him and Warnia would not exceed ten kilometers.

At the top of the mountain of more than 2,000 meters, the weather was severely cold, and Charlie stood on a huge rock on the top of the mountain, anxious.

The pill that he gave to Warnia could save her once, but not twice. If she is encountered by a gangster again, or if she encounters any danger in the mountains, she may be beyond reach.

Seeing Charlie's anxious expression on the side, Nanako immediately took out her mobile phone and prepared to call the ninja she had sent out to ask about the situation.

At this time, her mobile phone happened to vibrate, and it was the ninja headed by the Ito family who called her.

Nanako hurriedly connected the phone and asked, "What's the matter? Have you found Miss Song's whereabouts?"

The other party immediately said: "Back to Miss Song, we have found Miss Song's whereabouts. She is in the valley about four kilometers northeast of the incident. When we were the closest to her, the straight-line distance was about 500 meters. However, I found that Miss Song was in good condition, so I didn't alarm her. Because there was no signal on the top of the mountain, I first came up to the mountainside and called you for instructions. Others are secretly following her to protect her."

Nanako breathed a sigh of relief and blurted out, "That's great!"

Charlie hurriedly asked: "Warnia's whereabouts?"

Nanako nodded heavily and said to Charlie: "Master! My men have found Ms. Song. She is now marching to the northeast, and her condition looks good. My people are about five or six hundred meters away from her. They haven't disturbed her, so I called me for instructions. What do you think we should do?"

As soon as Charlie heard this, a stone in his heart immediately fell to the ground.

Coming to Japan in the middle of the night, the only thing he looked forward to was to hear that Warnia was safe.

So, he immediately said to Nanako, "Nanako, please let your person give a specific position, let's go over!"

.....

In the valley.

Warnia is still struggling.

Since the mobile phone has no signal, she can't use positioning, and she doesn't know how far she has gone.

However, Warnia is very smart that she has relied on the North Star in the sky to discern the direction.

Polaris is a star in the northern part of the sky, and due to its unique movement pattern, the star almost remains motionless from the northern hemisphere.

It is precisely because the Polaris has remained motionless in the northern part of the sky that it can provide people with the most basic position navigation.

When you find the North Star, you can find the north. When a person is facing the north, the south is behind him, the right-hand direction is east, and the left-hand direction is west.

In this way, she can guarantee that she has been walking in the northeast direction, instead of aimlessly and confusedly turning around in the valley.

When you get lost in the mountains, if you can't tell the direction, you often go around unconsciously.

Warnia wanted to go as far as possible from the place where the incident occurred. After a sufficiently safe distance, she will climb up and find the mobile phone signal to call the police for help.

However, she didn't know at this time, she was secretly followed by 10 top ninjas.

Fortunately, these ninjas were sent by Nanako, and they didn't have any malice against Warnia. Otherwise, even if Warnia had a rejuvenation pill in her hands, she would be more and more fierce.

At this time, she didn't even know that Charlie, who she was thinking of, had already arrived in Tokyo, and was fast moving towards her in the darkness!

Charlie's strength is extraordinary, even if he doesn't rely on a helicopter, he can quickly attack and walk on the ground in such a place.

Chapter 2074

However, Nanako and the others couldn't keep up with his rhythm at all, so they could only wait for Charlie's notice in place.

Charlie didn't want to take a helicopter to pick Warnia directly, because in that case, it would be possible to disturb other people searching for Warnia's whereabouts.

Therefore, it is more reliable to rely on your own legs.

Fortunately, the distance between Charlie and Warnia was not too far. From the perspective of positioning, it was almost two to three kilometers away.

Therefore, after half an hour of rushing, Warnia had already appeared in Charlie's sight.

Warnia at this time was climbing up from the bottom of the valley.

She felt that she had already opened a safe distance, so she wanted to climb up, look for a cell phone signal, and then report to Charlie and her family to be safe.

At this time, Warnia couldn't help worrying in her heart: "If Master talks about the voice that I sent him when the accident happened, he will be very worried about my safety, right? I have to give Master make a call and let him know that I am still alive!"

Charlie was excited for a moment when he saw her figure.

When rushing over from Aurous Hill, he was most afraid that Warnia's life would be threatened.

Seeing her in person now made Charlie completely relieved of all the tension and worries he had before.

When Warnia climbed on a relatively flat boulder halfway up the mountain, she took out her mobile phone, which still showed no signal.

She walked back and forth on the boulder with her mobile phone, and finally caught a cell phone signal.

So she hurriedly stayed still and opened WeChat for the first time.

Because the network is very poor, her WeChat keeps prompting for network connectivity.

After waiting a few minutes, WeChat changed from connecting to receiving.

Although it was shown to be receiving, she did not even receive a new WeChat message.

Therefore, she could only give up WeChat and call Charlie directly.

Fortunately, although the network has only one grid, it is almost difficult to connect to the Internet, but this grid signal can already support her to make a call!

After the phone rang twice, she heard Charlie's voice: "Warnia, how are you now?"

When Warnia heard Charlie's voice, she felt the voice in her ears. She was so excited that she cried out immediately: "Master...I...I'm still alive... .."

Charlie said: "I know."

Warnia was sobbed at this time, choked up: "Master...thank you...if it weren't for you, I must be dead now..."

Charlie looked at Warnia's back distressedly, and said softly: "Warnia, I want to tell you one thing, don't be nervous, let alone be afraid."

Warnia hurriedly said, "Master, as you say!"

Charlie said seriously: "I know you have an accident, I have come to Japan."

"Ah?!" Warnia asked excitedly: "Master, you... have you come to Japan?!"

Charlie said: "Yes, I'm in Tokyo."

Warnia was extremely happy and touched at this time, crying and saying, "Master, you... have you really come to Tokyo to find me?"

Charlie sighed softly and said, "Warnia, I'm in Nishitama County where your accident occurred."

Warnia was full of disbelief at this time, and exclaimed: "Master, how do you know that I had an accident in Nishitama County? Where are you now?"

Charlie said seriously: "Warnia, I'm...behind you now!"

Chapter 2075

The reason why Charlie told Warnia step by step was because he was afraid that he would suddenly call her out, or tell her that he was behind her and scare her.

After all, she has been walking alone in this deep mountain and old forest for so long. If he suddenly appears without any psychological preparation, she will definitely be shocked.

Therefore, Charlie chose to guide her step by step, let her know that he was in Japan, Tokyo, and Nishitama, and then told her that he was behind her.

When Warnia heard Charlie's words, she immediately turned back subconsciously!

really!

She found that a familiar figure was standing about ten meters away behind her!

That familiar figure is exactly Charlie, the man about whom she was thinking at a critical moment!

Warnia's heart was almost ecstatic!

She didn't even dare to dream that Charlie would really appear here suddenly!

At this moment, Warnia's heart was completely filled with touch and happiness!

She choked in her heart: "Master actually came to rescue me...at such a late time, at such a distance, he appeared in front of me within a few hours! This is simply a movie! Here is the supreme treasure with colorful auspicious clouds! He came, my position in his heart must be very important..."

Thinking of this, her whole emotions were completely immersed in extreme touch, and she cried out: "Master!"

After speaking, she ran towards Charlie!

Charlie was afraid that she would fall down on the mountain road, so he hurriedly walked two steps.

As soon as she arrived, Warnia plunged into Charlie's arms, crying, and said, "Master...I'm not dreaming, am I really you? You really came to save me."

Charlie patted her back lightly and comforted her: "You are not a dream, it's really me, I'm here to save you!"

Warnia cried with rain, and whimpered: "Master, I thought I would never see you again in this life..."

Charlie asked her, "Did you take the pill that I gave you?"

Warnia nodded as if pounding garlic, hugged Charlie, and said on his shoulder: "I have always listened to you and carried the medicine next to my body. After the car I was sitting in fell off the cliff, I immediately took the medicine. I took it. Fortunately, I had the medicine. Otherwise, Master might not see me..."

Charlie sighed softly and said, "The medicine was given to you to use for emergencies, but I have never hoped that you would really use it. I didn't expect it to be like this today!"

Warnia choked with grateful gratitude: "Master, the greatest fortune in my life is to know you... If it weren't for you, I might have already passed away... All your great kindness. I can't repay in my life..."

Warnia has always been very grateful to Charlie.

In the beginning, her room was accidentally hit by mistake, and she accidentally formed a feng shui bureau of trapped dragons. The whole person's fortune was consumed rapidly, and her life was even endangered.

If it hadn't been for Charlie to resolve it in time, she might have already died by accident.

Not to mention, Charlie helped her take the position of Song Family Patriarch step by step.

Today, she is facing such a big death crisis in Japan, and she is completely dependent on the medicine he gave her to be able to turn the danger into a breeze.

Now, Charlie has traveled thousands of miles at night to rescue her in the mountains of Japan. His kindness has already made Warnia grateful.

What's more, she loves Charlie deeply in her heart, so at this moment, she regards Charlie as a beloved person more important than her own life.

Chapter 2076

Warnia even had an idea deep in her heart. She felt: "From today onwards, I am willing to do anything for Master. Even if he asks me to die immediately, I will be willing to die for him without complaining!"

Charlie didn't know Warnia's inner activities at this time. He just kept comforting her with a gentle tone: "Warnia, between you and me, don't say thank you, let alone any great kindness, you are my friend. I save you, it is the only right thing, not to say that you are in Japan, even if you are in the fierce mountains, I will never say anything to stop myself."

Charlie was expressing to Warnia his steadfastness towards friends and friendship, but he did not expect that these words in Warnia's ears would become the most moving emotional expression in the world!

At this moment, she even loved Charlie to the bone, even willing to hug him so tightly and rub her whole body into his bones.

Her heart was full of love and touch for Charlie, her brain heated up and she immediately stood on her toes and kissed his lips.

This is Warnia's second kiss of Charlie.

It was also the second kiss in her life.

Her lips were cold and there was a faint salty taste in her tears, which made Charlie feel distressed.

Warnia kissed Charlie, holding him tighter with her hands.

At this moment, how much she longed for time to stop, so that she and her beloved man can stay in this beautiful moment forever.

Even if this life comes to an abrupt end, She is already satisfied.

Unfortunately, the reality is not a fairy tale.

When she was immersed in the kiss, the sound of a helicopter roared from a valley not far away.

Charlie hurriedly turned his head and looked, three helicopters lined up in the sky.

At the nose of the helicopter, three high-power searchlights were shining back and forth in the valley.

Charlie hurriedly said to her: "We can't stay here for a long time, now all the police in Tokyo are looking for you."

Warnia hurriedly said: "Master, the police are looking for me, I happen to call the police!"

Charlie frowned slightly and asked her: "You want to call the police?"

"Yes!" Warnia said categorically: "The truck that hit my car was obviously premeditated, and it came to kill me!"

After all, Warnia said with red eyes, very angry and said: "These b@stards, just want to kill me and rush to me, but they want to implicate the innocent. My two assistants and the driver I have are all."

Speaking of this, Warnia suddenly couldn't control her emotions. She choked with sadness: "The two have been with me for so long. They have been doing business with me. They will accompany me on a business trip to Japan for the New Year. Take them to have fun in Tokyo, I didn't expect... I didn't expect them..."

At this time, Warnia couldn't speak anymore, and cried out sadly.

Charlie hurriedly comforted her: "Warnia, don't worry, they will not die in vain!"

Warnia nodded heavily, wiped away her tears, and resolutely said: "So I want to call the police, let the police catch the black hand behind the scenes, bring them to justice, and avenge my people!"

Charlie shook his head and said seriously: "You are unfamiliar with the place where you were born in Tokyo. The alarm will not do any good, but only alert them."

Warnia hurriedly asked, "Master, what do you mean, don't call the police anymore?"

"Yes!" Charlie nodded and said: "Warnia, we still don't know whether someone in Japan wants your life or someone in China wants your life. Therefore, calling the police in Japan will not solve anything. If you believe me, leave it to me to deal with this matter, I will find it out, and give you an explanation about the death of the three!"

Chapter 2077

Warnia heard Charlie's words, without thinking at all, she said categorically, "Master, I listen to you!"

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "In Japan, I still have something to do. I will take you to my friend's house first. During this time, you should not contact anyone, including your grandfather and your other family members. Not talk about this until we find out what happened."

Warnia asked in surprise: "Master, can't I tell my grandfather? He must be very worried about me now. If my whereabouts remain unknown, I am afraid he will worry too much and affect his body..."

Charlie smiled slightly and comforted: "Don't worry about this. Your grandfather has taken Rejuvenating Pill, so his body will never be in serious trouble, and don't forget, I gave it to you on your birthday. The rejuvenating pill of yours is also in his hands. With this rejuvenating pill in his hand, he will definitely not have any problems."

After speaking, Charlie further explained: "Most of the secrets are leaked from the person's own mouth. The real secrets should be known to as few people as possible, and it's best if no one except yourself knows, otherwise, once this secret is known by others, it will be difficult to ensure that it will not be known by more people."

Although Warnia's expression was a little struggling, she quickly raised her head and looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Okay Master, then I won't tell anyone."

Charlie nodded and asked her, "You didn't contact your grandpa and other family members just now, did you?"

"No..." Warnia hurriedly said, "As soon as my mobile phone got a signal, I immediately contacted you. I originally wanted to contact you and then contact grandfather, but I didn't think about it."

Charlie hurriedly said: "Then quickly turn off the phone, not only do not answer any calls, nor use WeChat and other communication software."

Warnia said obediently: "OKay Master, I will shut down now."

With that, she immediately pressed the power button and turned off her mobile phone with a broken screen.

Immediately, she remembered something, looked at Charlie with a puzzled face and asked, "Master, how did you find me in this deep mountain and old forest?"

Charlie said truthfully: "The eldest lady of the Ito family in Japan is my friend. After your accident, I asked her to help me find your whereabouts. She sent some Japanese masters of ninjutsu, also known as ninjas, to look for clues about you in the mountains."

"They found the commercial vehicle in which you had an accident, and followed your footsteps all the way, chasing you over. After I got your location, I hurried over."

Warnia exclaimed: "Ah?! Ninjas?! Master, you mean, there really are ninjas in this world?"

Charlie nodded and said: "Ninjas are actually no big deal. He is like our Chinese martial arts masters, they are all real."

Warnia nodded suddenly, and then remembered something, exclaiming: "They have been following me secretly, doesn't it mean that they are also watching us secretly now?"

"Uh...this..."

Charlie smiled awkwardly, and said, "You are right, they have been following us secretly."

Warnia was immediately embarrassed and intolerable: "That...that...then what we did just now, did they...have they seen it all?"

Charlie shrugged helplessly, "They must have seen..."

Warnia was embarrassed, she lowered her head shyly and said, "Master...you...why didn't you remind me...this is too shameful... .."

Charlie stretched out his hand and said with an innocent look: "Warnia... You can't blame me for this, I didn't know you would suddenly jump over...I was completely blank at the time."

Warnia heard him say this, recalling the scene when she took the initiative to plunge into Charlie's arms and kissed his lips, her face became more and more rosy, she had to say in a lowly embarrassed voice: "Oh... Don't talk about this...Master, where are we going now?"

Chapter 2078

Charlie said: "First go to Miss Ito's mansion to take shelter for a while, and watch the changes!"

.....

At this moment, Nanako is still waiting in place.

After all, her skill is much worse than Charlie, so it is impossible to keep up with his running rhythm, so she just waited in place.

Because people from the TMPD were searching in the surrounding mountains, and there were often police helicopters patrolling in the sky, she asked her helicopter to turn off the engine and quietly waited for Charlie's news.

At this time, the ninja under her head sent her a message: "Miss, Mr. Wade has found the Miss Song."

Nanako breathed a sigh of relief, tapping her fingertips on the screen repeatedly, and replied: "That's good, you can ask Master what to do next."

The other party made an embarrassing expression and said: "Miss...Mr. Wade and Miss Song are hugging and kissing, we are also embarrassed to step forward and disturb..."

When Nanako saw this, she was stunned.

Immediately, deep jealousy surged in her heart.

She thought sourly in her heart: "Originally, I thought that Master is a married man after all. Even if I love him, I can't destroy his feelings and family..."

"But, I never thought that Master and Warnia would even hug and kiss... Is Warnia Master's extramarital relationship? Or to put it more bluntly, is Warnia Master's lover?"

"If Warnia can be Master's lover, then why can't I..."

"I also love Master from the bottom of my heart. Why can't I be his lover like Warnia?"

"Although I don't want to be a third party, if Master is willing to give me this opportunity, I am also willing to hide in the dark for a lifetime and be his underground lover..."

"After all, I love him more than anything else. Her status, reputation is not worth mentioning in front of me"

Just as she was thinking about it, the phone suddenly vibrated, and it was Charlie's call.

She hurriedly answered the phone, her voice was a little flustered and unnaturally said: "Uh... Wade... Master... You... saw Miss Song Are you here?"

Charlie said: "Yes, we met."

Nanako asked hurriedly, "How is Miss Song?"

Charlie said, "She's fine, Nanako, I'm calling you to discuss the next arrangements with you."

Nanako hurriedly said: "Master, everything will follow your instructions, and the entire Ito family's forces will be at your call!"

Charlie said seriously: "I am really grateful to Nanako. My current plan is to let the helicopter come over first, take Warnia to your residence, and let her live in your house temporarily, but you must keep this matter strictly confidential. It must not be leaked out."

Nanako said without hesitation: "No problem, Master waits a moment, I will pick you up now!"

Chapter 2079

When Charlie and Warnia returned to downtown Tokyo on the helicopter of the Ito family, Honor was already a little bit unable to sit still at the TMPD.

He was extremely nervous at this time, and said to himself: "Warnia's whereabouts have not been found for a few hours until now. If we delay it, the day will be bright. If we can't find her then, then This thing is really tricky!"

"Warnia's body should have stayed in that business car honestly, but she was strangely missing and disappeared in the vast mountains. Is she dead or alive now?"

Honor was very worried because he was afraid that Warnia would not die.

Because, as long as she does not die, the lie that Nippon Steel's vice president Hashimoto made up to Warnia will be thoroughly exposed.

After all, this matter was Hashimoto's own assertion, on the one hand, to seek greater profit space for Nippon Steel, on the other hand, it is also for his own personal gain.

Therefore, he cooperated with Honor and deceived Warnia, saying that she was asked to go to Nishitama County to find the chairman to sign a contract. In fact, the chairman of Nippon Steel had no idea about this.

If Warnia is still alive, as long as the police ask her why she went to Nishitama County, it will be completely exposed.

At that time, the Japanese police will definitely arrest Hashimoto Kinsaki immediately.

Murder is one of the most serious crimes in Japan, not to mention that three people have died this time, Hashimoto will definitely betray Honor without hesitation.

At that time, the murder of Warnia by Honor will also come to light.

At this moment, Hashimoto was also nervously pacing repeatedly in his home.

The team member responsible for assassinating Warnia stood in front of him at this time.

These few people stood side by side in front of the sofa, all of them bowed their heads and did not dare to look at Hashimoto Kinzaki.

Hashimoto just made a phone call to a friend from the TMPD to inquire about the latest developments.

After learning that Warnia's life and death are uncertain, he was as nervous as Honor.

He knew very well that if Warnia was still alive, he would be the first one to be unlucky!

So, he walked in front of these people angrily, and directly smoked them one by one with his big mouth, angrily cursed: "You b@stards! Wastes! What's the use of raising you?! You can't do such simple things. You're of no use!"

The people looked at each other, but no one dared to speak up.

Hashimoto saw that they did not speak beforehand, and gritted his teeth angrily: "A bunch of trash! Can't get rid of even a woman! It caused me such big trouble! If my fcuking plans get exposed, none of you can run away!"

.....

Twenty minutes later.

The helicopter landed slowly in the courtyard of the Ito family mansion.

Ito Yuhiko, who lost his legs, was pushed by his sister Emi and waited in the courtyard early.

As soon as the helicopter landed, Emi Ito immediately pushed Yuihiko Ito out of the cabin.

Charlie just stepped out of the helicopter at this time, and reached out to help Warnia down.

Nanako followed Warnia to get off the plane. Seeing Charlie stretched out his hand to help Warnia down, she felt a little jealous but more envious.

Chapter 2080

At the moment when she was slightly lost, Charlie, who was under the helicopter, stretched out his hand to her again.

Nanako didn't expect that Charlie would even help her to get off the plane, and her heart was as sweet as she was eating honey.

Although she was a master, and she had taken Rejuvenation Pill, her strength had improved a lot, but she was still a little woman deep in her heart. Seeing Charlie as such a gentleman and so considerate, she immediately felt a little bit shy and moved her hand. Passed it over and said softly: "Thank you Master!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said lightly: "It's okay, it should be."

At this time, Ito Yuhiko was pushed over by Emi, and he said with a little excitement: "Mr. Wade, I didn't expect we would meet so soon!"

Charlie smiled bitterly: "Yeah, I didn't expect to meet again so soon, how has Mr. Ito been recently?"

Ito put his hands together and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I have been doing well recently, but since I was injured, my physical fitness has not been very good. I often catch cold, feel weak and night sweats are common. It just happens that Tokyo is cooling down these days, so I originally planned to go to the beach in the Maldives to recuperate for some time in two days. I didn't expect you to come suddenly."

Charlie nodded and pointed to Warnia and said, "Mr. Ito, let me introduce you. This is my good friend, Ms. Warnia Song, the chairman of the Song Group. Ms. Song is having a little trouble, so I came here this time. It's also for her."

Looking at Warnia, Ito Yuhiko said very politely: "Hello, Miss Song, I am Ito Yuhiko, Mr. Wade is a distinguished guest of the Ito family, you are his friend, and you are naturally one of the distinguished guests of the Ito family. Welcome to the house."

Warnia also politely bowed slightly: "Thank you, Mr. Ito!"

At this moment, Warnia was very surprised in her heart.

She knew very well what status of the Ito family in Japan.

In Japan, the strongest family is the Ito family.

In addition to the Ito family, the rest are big chaebols composed of several families, but the strength of the Ito family, even when compared with those of the big chaebols, is not much worse.

Unexpectedly, Ito Yuhiko of the Ito family was so respectful and polite to Charlie, which made her even more shocked by Charlie's strength.

Ito Yuhiko slandered in his heart at this time: "This Warnia seems to be no worse than my daughter in terms of appearance, build, and temperament. She is definitely among the top beauties. She and Charlie are so close. Isn't she? What's the hidden deep relationship with Charlie? If this is the case, then the chance of my daughter and Charlie is even smaller!"

While he was feeling emotional in his heart, his sister Emi hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, it's quite cold outside, let's go in and talk."

Only then did Yuihiko recovered, and hurriedly said, "Yes, yes! Go in and talk, and let Nanako prepare the tea ceremony to entertain the two. At the same time, tell the chef to prepare some breakfast."

Inside the Japanese-style meeting room.

Charlie and Warnia sat on the ground next to each other.

Nanako knelt at one end of the tea table, elegantly and unhurriedly making tea for everyone.

Charlie asked Warnia at this moment: "Warnia, what happened to you last night? Can you tell me in detail?"

Ito Yuihiko also hurriedly said at this time: "Miss Song, I have a bit of energy in Japan. You might as well tell the story. I and the entire Ito family will definitely be able to help you!"

Warnia bowed slightly and said, "Thank you Master, thank you Mr. Ito and Miss Ito."

After thanking him, Warnia continued: "I came to Japan this time to reach strategic cooperation with Nippon Steel. I talked to their vice presidents for several rounds. Until last night, their chairman decided to see me, to sign a contract with me..."

"Because their chairman is in Nishitama County, I drove there overnight. I didn't expect to be hit by a car into the cliff on the road..."

Yuihiko Ito frowned and said, "It's a bit strange. The chairman of Nippon Steel has a deep friendship with me. According to his style of working, he should not ask you to sign a contract at night, and even if he signs a contract, he will not call you to Nishitama County because his mansion is very close to me, but a few minutes drive from here. After dinner yesterday, he visited me at the mansion!"

Chapter 2081

Takehiko's words made Charlie suddenly alert.

He asked, "Mr. Ito, are you familiar with the chairman of Nippon Steel?"

"Yes!" Takehiko said very seriously: "The chairman of Nippon Steel is named Watanabe Shinka, and he has a deep friendship with me."

Charlie nodded and said, "Then please ask him if he is looking to cooperate with a Chinese company to build a factory recently. If so, ask him which company he is cooperating with and whether it has been finalized."

Takehiko said immediately: "Okay, Mr. Wade, I'll just ask."

Warnia hurriedly asked Charlie: "Master, do you think Mr. Watanabe has a problem?"

Charlie shook his head: "One is this Watanabe, and the other is for you to see Watanabe's vice chairman. Both of them are suspicious, but I am still not sure who has the problem, and neither it's okay to exclude both of them, or include both."

Warnia nodded lightly, without saying more.

This is because she also knew very well in her heart that this matter was far beyond her control. Since Charlie had already come to Japan for her, she would completely listen to his arrangements.

When Ito heard that there might be a problem, he patted his chest and said, "Mr. Wade, I am very familiar with Watanabe. Although he is a little bit cunning in business, he is still very upright. I believe He should have nothing to do with the murder of Miss Song."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Mr. Ito, I am not distrusting you, but this matter involves many lives, so you still have to be cautious. Could you please help me ask this Watanabe, and please also ask. At the time, try to be more natural and don't let him hear what you mean."

Takehiko nodded, immediately took out his cell phone, found Watanabe's number, and called.

The call was quickly connected, and a lazy voice came: "Hey, Ito, what do you b@stard doing calling so early?"

Takehiko laughed and said, "Watanabe, where are you now?"

Watanabe yawned, "I'm sleeping, where else can I be! What's the matter with you? Let me sleep a little longer if there is nothing important..."

Takehiko said: "I heard that you want to cooperate with a Chinese company? Are there any companies that have confirmed intentions?"

Watanabe asked curiously: "What? Are you planning to enter the steel industry?"

Takehiko said: "No, I just ask you, I happen to know some friends in China, if your cooperation here has not been settled, I may be able to help you match up."

Watanabe said: "We have indeed considered this matter. Recently, it seems that we have indeed been docking with some powerful Chinese companies, but I will leave this to Hashimoto."

Takehiko asked: "Hashimoto? Is it Hashimoto Kinzin?"

"Yes." Watanabe said with a smile: "To be honest, this kind of cooperation to build a factory is not too big a business for Nippon Steel as a whole. I usually don't directly intervene, but if you have friends who want to cooperate, then I can sell you face."

Takehiko smiled and said, "Then I will thank you in advance, but has Hashimoto determined a partner for cooperation? If he already has a certain candidate, I will suddenly jump in. I am afraid. Not suitable."

Watanabe said indifferently: "You don't need to worry about Hashimoto's suitability, he is a senior part-time worker. If I don't ask anything, he will decide, but if I ask, he can only follow orders."

Takehiko laughed and said, "Okay, I know, wait for me to ask my friends for details, and I will contact you if necessary."

Watanabe said: "You have nothing else, right? I'll hang up if there is nothing else, and continue to sleep!"

"Okay, go to sleep!"

After hanging up the phone, Takehiko said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, it seems that Watanabe really doesn't know about this. He didn't even ask Miss Song and Hashimoto Kinzin about cooperation, and why would he participate in the murder? Where is Miss Song in this equation?"

Chapter 2082

Charlie nodded slightly and looked at Warnia to the side: "Did Hashimoto called you yesterday and asked you to sign a contract with the chairman?"

Warnia said firmly: "Yes, Hashimoto called me first and asked me to go to Nishitama County to sign a contract with the chairman."

Charlie snorted coldly: "It seems that the problem lies with Hashimoto Kinzin. He must have deliberately deceived you to go to Nishitama County, and then set up an ambush on the mountain road in Nishitama County."

Warnia asked very suspiciously: "Master, I don't understand why Hashimoto Kinzin would harm me? I have no grievances with him, and there has never been any intersection before. Why did he plan to kill me?"

Charlie said coldly: "Many assailants and victims don't know each other. What really drives him to murder each other is mostly profit. It must be good for him to kill you, so he did this."

Warnia was even more surprised, and asked: "I really can't think of it, what good will I do for him if I die? He won't get any good either!"

Charlie looked at Warnia and said seriously: "You are dead, it may be difficult for him to get any benefits directly, but the key is to see if anyone benefits him after you die!"

Warnia's expression suddenly tightened: "Master...you...you mean...someone hired him to kill me?!"

Charlie nodded firmly: "I think it should be like this!"

Warnia was a little nervous at once, and at the same time she couldn't understand, she said vaguely, "But...but...but it doesn't make sense...I usually I have never offended anyone. Who would be good if I die?"

Charlie looked at her, smiled but did not speak, because he already had an answer in his mind at this time.

He felt that Honor Song and his father Tianming Song were most likely behind the incident.

Charlie knew everything about the Song family.

Warnia's parents died young, and there are several uncles in the family.

Among them, Tianming, the father of Honor, has the most influence.

Because he is the eldest son and the successor that the old man had originally decided to set aside.

Therefore, in Warnia's generation, Honor is naturally the most influential one.

Warnia has not had much influence because she has no parents and is alone.

It is also fortunate that Mr. Song takes care of her and loves her, so even if her parents are gone, she can still enjoy the treatment of Missy.

In case Mr. Song is the kind of old feudal patriarchal patriarch, Warnia has no parents, I am afraid that the Song family has long used as a marriage tool, married her to a big family as a wife.

However, since Warnia met Charlie, her position in the Song family has skyrocketed.

When the old man Song was about to die, Warnia asked Charlie to pull him back from the Palace of the Kings of the Lords. Then Charlie also looked at Warnia's face and gave him a rejuvenation pill to regain his health and be twenty years younger.

Therefore, when Charlie gave a pill as a birthday gift on his birthday, Mr. Song was so excited that he passed the position of Patriarch to Warnia.

In this way, Warnia suddenly became the most powerful one in the Song family. In contrast, the power and influence of Honor and his father have shrunk drastically.

In this case, Honor and his father must be very dissatisfied with Warnia.

Once the dissatisfaction in their hearts continues to accumulate, over time, they have the idea of murdering Warnia, and it seems logical!

Chapter 2083

Warnia really couldn't think of who wanted her life.

Although the shadows of Honor and Tianming flashed in her mind, she immediately denied this idea.

She felt that Honor grew up with her since she was a child, and treated her like a sister, so he couldn't think of her badly.

This is not how simple and stupid Warnia is, but that she feels family love is priceless, and she shouldn't doubt her cousin and uncle.

Charlie could see that she hadn't doubted Honor's head, so it was just on this topic, and it was just a point of fascination.

He is only suspicious of Honor now, and there is no need to tell Warnia too much before he finds definite evidence.

So he said to Warnia: "Warnia will live in Mr. Ito's house for the time being in these two days. As I said, don't contact anyone, let alone let anyone know that you are still alive and who wants to kill you. I will investigate."

Warnia nodded lightly, and said respectfully: "Master, I will let you arrange everything."

Charlie smiled slightly: "You didn't sleep all night. After you finish eating, let Miss Ito arrange a room for you to rest."

Nanako hurriedly said: "Miss Song, what style of room do you like? Is it a Japanese-style tatami mat or a European-style soft bed? I'll let the maid prepare it in advance!"

Warnia hurriedly said: "Miss Ito is too polite, I can go with anything."

Nanako said with a sweet smile: "In this case, let me help you arrange a Japanese-style guest room, which is also considered to be in the countryside."

Warnia said politely: "Then thank you, Miss Ito!"

Nanako said earnestly: "Miss Song is Master's good friend. When you come to Ito's house, you treat it as your own home."

With that, Nanako said with some regret: "Ms. Song is coming to Tokyo. It stands to reason that I should accompany you to stroll around, but Master will not let you show up. This time I can only apologize for you to stay at home. After the matter is resolved, I will take you around again!"

Warnia did not expect that Nanako, as the eldest lady of the Ito family, was much stronger in value and background than herself, but she was so polite to her that she was flattered for a while.

However, she soon realized a very real problem in her heart, and thought to herself: "I have never met Miss Ito. She is so polite to me. Isn't it all about Master's face? She can only say Master. Too much ability, too much face..."

While Warnia was feeling emotional, Nanako had already prepared the matcha in the Japanese tea ceremony. She was the first to bring the teacup in front of Charlie, with a little respect and a little shyness, and said, "Master, Please enjoy!"

Charlie nodded slightly and smiled: "Thank you Nanako."

After that, he reached out and took the teacup.

Nanako did the same, and took a cup to Warnia.

Warnia discovered that although Nanako was very polite and humble when serving tea to her and Charlie, her eyes were a bit less bright than when serving tea to Charlie.

As a woman, Warnia couldn't be clearer, Nanako was facing Charlie, what the light in her eyes meant.

If a woman looks at a man with a different kind of light in her eyes, then this man must be the love in her heart.

Because the light in the eyes is the look of love.

There was a sudden sadness in her heart.

The sadness is because Charlie always seems to have no shortage of women who like him.

Chapter 2084

Moreover, those women who like him are all excellent.

Not to mention the Ito Nanako, just in Aurous Hill, Aoxue of the Qin Family, and Zhovia next to the genius doctor Shi, which one is not stunning in the world?

But, who can't tell, they both have a special attachment to Charlie?

Thinking of this, she looked at Charlie's eyes with a bit of resentment, and at the same time, she was also feeling emotional: "You b@dass, I really don't know how many women you provoke outside, so many women love you, so passionate. Debt, I see how you can pay it off in the future..."

At this moment, in order to please Charlie, Takehiko said to Warnia, "Miss Song, I have a relationship with Nippon Steel's Chairman. You also know. When this matter is investigated, it will become clear. After the murderer is severely punished, if you still need to cooperate with Nippon Steel, I can help you build a bridge, and I will definitely help you fight for the best cooperation conditions at that time."

Warnia said gratefully, "Thank you so much, Mr. Ito..."

Takehiko said seriously: "Ms. Song, Mr. Wade has helped me the Ito family too much. It can be said that if Mr. Wade hadn't helped me at the beginning, my Ito family would probably have suffered annihilation!"

Speaking of this, Takehiko sighed: "Mr. Wade is so kind to us, you are his friend, that is, a friend of my Ito family. Helping friends is what we should do."

After the Matsumoto family was wiped out for kidnapping a pair of children from the Su family, Takehiko often felt that he was lucky.

In the beginning, the Matsumoto family was going to kill the children of the Su family, and then set the blame on his family. If it weren't for Charlie, it would be the Ito family that might be destroyed.

Not to mention, Charlie also saved Nanako, so Takehiko attaches great importance to him.

Seeing that Warnia was his friend, he was naturally willing to sell Charlie's face and help Warnia.

Charlie on the side also saw this.

He couldn't help but secretly said in his heart: "Unexpectedly, after Takehiko was injured, his temper has not only changed a lot, but he has also improved a lot in his behavior."

.....

After breakfast.

Warnia, who had not rested all night, followed Nanako to the Ito family's guest room.

Although she took the pill that Charlie gave her and was in good physical condition, the mental fatigue caused by the high tension could not be solved by the pill.

So, she lay on the Japanese-style tatami, and soon fell asleep.

At this time, after chatting with Charlie for a while, Ito said apologetically: "Mr. Wade, I'm really sorry. After the amputation, I have been relatively weak. I got up too early today. I can't hold it anymore. I'll go back to my room and rest for a while. If you have any needs, just tell Nanako."

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Mr. Ito, please."

Takehiko arched his hand weakly and said to Emi Ito, "Emi, take me back to the room."

Emi Ito hurriedly said, "OKay, Oni chan!"

Oni chan is the name of brother in Japanese.

The elders and inferiorities of Japanese society are very clear. Therefore, in front of outsiders, Emi Ito has always treated Takehiko with respect, like a daughter to a father.

Afterward, Emi Ito said to Charlie with a guilty face: "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, Oni-chan's body is severely damaged, and his vitality is severely injured. The doctor asked to take more rest. Please forgive me..."

Charlie nodded and said, "Ms. Ito, please take Mr. Ito back to rest. When I finish this matter, I will definitely help Mr. Ito get a good treatment. I may not be able to make his severed limb grow longer, but at least I can restore his physical condition to the state before the injury, even better than that."

Chapter 2085

Nanako, who was making tea, immediately became excited when she heard Charlie's words!

She knew the weight of Charlie's words.

In the beginning, her injury was also extremely serious, and she didn't even dare to imagine that she would have a chance to heal in this life, but what she didn't expect was that Charlie could quickly get rid of all of her pain with just one pill.

Not only that, but her physical fitness has undergone tremendous changes and improvements.

Therefore, Nanako believed that as long as Charlie was willing, he would surely be able to restore her father's body to the original state.

Of course, Nanako knew very well in her heart that Charlie definitely couldn't regenerate her father's severed limbs, but he could at least greatly restore his physical condition.

In that case, apart from losing his legs, her father is at least a healthy person.

Rather than being so sick as it is now, very haggard and distressing.

Therefore, she almost immediately put down the tea set in her hand, got up and bowed deeply to Charlie, and said gratefully: "Master, thank you so much!"

Takehiko also knows Charlie's ability!

In the beginning, he tried every means to find all the experts in Japan, and no one had any solution to his daughter's injury.

He even thought that his daughter would be inseparable from a wheelchair for the rest of her life. He even thought that under the influence of that kind of injury, her physical condition might get worse.

But never dreamed that Charlie could help her daughter to recover.

Not only is it recovering as before, but it is also a big step forward.

This is enough to prove that Charlie is a person with great abilities and supernatural powers!

Therefore, he couldn't hide his excited hands and said, "Mr. Wade! You are willing to treat me. It is a great blessing for me. Your great kindness is unforgettable!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said seriously: "Mr. Ito doesn't have to be so polite, my style has always been like this, you respect me, I will respect you!"

As Charlie said, he has always been full of grudges.

Not only hatred must be repaid, but also gratitude must be repaid.

For example, Aunt Li in the orphanage, she raised him in childhood, he feels grateful to her and even willing to do anything for her.

Another example is Claire, when he was so down and nothing, she was willing to marry him, and she did not ridicule and insult him like other people, but respected him as a guest. Charlie did not forget this.

Sometimes, it doesn't even need to reach the point of so-called kindness, as long as the other party has enough kindness to him, he will return more kindness to the other party.

Solmon knew when he was lost, Charlie gave him a pill;

Qin Gang was devout, Charlie donated two pills to his family;

Orvel was loyal, and Charlie not only gave him the earliest basic medicine, but also saved his life with the rejuvenating medicine.

Warnia treated him pretty well at the beginning, and had always treated him respectfully, so he was willing to wish her the position of head of the house and rescue her from the overnight raid in Japan.

This is Charlie's code of conduct.

At this time, Charlie thought very simply: Although Takehiko was a bit pretending before, but since he saved Nanako and helped the Ito family through the crisis, he immediately lost his way and knows how to return. It can be said that he is a very current affairs person.

Moreover, this time he is extremely concerned about his visit to Japan and the things Warnia encountered. He really sees this in his eyes.

Since he is in a situation like this, it is within his power to help him recover.

Chapter 2086

After all, there are still a lot of rejuvenation pills, and this thing is of little use to him, but it has a great effect on Takehiko.

He is not a martial artist, and he is not too old. If he scrapes a rejuvenating pill by one-tenth and soaks it in water for him to take it, he will surely restore his health quickly.

As for why he didn't give it to him right now, he mainly wanted to control the rhythm more or less in this matter.

Sometimes, to be generous to others is to be rhythmic.

Although generosity is a good thing, it is like medicine. It can both cure and hurt people.

Just like when injecting drugs, a scientific and reasonable rate of administration must be established according to the properties of the drug and the patient's condition.

It is not good to give the medicine too quickly;

But it's too slow to give, and it's not good!

Giving it soon will often make the other party despise this generosity, and it may cause the other party's mentality.

But slowing down will often make the other party lose patience, drain the original gratitude, and replace it with complaints and dissatisfaction.

The rhythm is just right now. It's not given right away, and it won't be delayed for a long time. Just wait until he finishes Warnia's affairs.

In this way, not only can Ito be grateful, but also he can spontaneously help with Warnia.

Not only can he help Warnia find the real murderer behind the scenes, but he can also help her facilitate cooperation with Nippon Steel.

It is possible to help her turn this crisis into an opportunity.

In this way, Warnia can not only survive the crisis without any risk, but also can use this to find out who is behind the scenes, ensure that everything is safe in the future, and even get a cooperation agreement with very good terms. This is the best of both worlds.

Takehiko, Nanako, and Emi all thanked Charlie respectfully at this time.

Especially Takehiko, his eyes were flushed while thanking him.

Seeing him emotionally, Charlie smiled at him: "Mr. Ito, you should go back to rest as soon as possible. I will tell you in advance when I am ready to treat you."

Takehiko immediately said excitedly: "Okay Mr. Wade! Anyway, I can't thank you enough!"

.....

After Takehiko was pushed away by Emi, only Charlie and Nanako were left in the room.

Nanako took the initiative to move her seat, and sat cross-legged opposite Charlie. While adding tea to him, she asked with a blushing face: "Master has any plans next? Do you want to investigate that Hashimoto's approach? If necessary, I can send a ninja over and monitor him secretly!"

Charlie thought for a while and nodded: "That's okay. After all, I am not ready to stun the snake. If you want to solve this matter once and for all, you must not only find out the master behind the scenes, but also have solid evidence."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "If you have a ninja who you trust and pass the test for you, let him help me monitor Hashimoto's activities. I want to see what he does every day, where he has been, and who he has contact with. And what is the content of contact."

Nanako immediately nodded and said, "Master can rest assured, these are small things, and ninjas can do it, so I will give them orders.

Charlie thanked her and asked her: "Nanako, in your Ito family, how many ninjas can you mobilize now?"

Nanako thought for a while and said, "There are probably fifteen or sixteen ninjas that can be mobilized."

Charlie nodded and said: "By the way, Miss Song's cousin also came to Tokyo. His name is Honor, but I don't know what hotel he is staying in Tokyo. Please I ask you to arrange for someone to investigate. After the result, two more ninjas can be sent to secretly monitor him."

Nanako asked in surprise: "Master, do you suspect that Miss Song's cousin is behind this incident?"

"Yes!" Charlie said gratefully: "This matter, I will trouble you to help me keep an eye on."

Chapter 2087

At noon, in the mountains of Nishitama County.

The weather in Tokyo today is excellent.

Clear sky.

The warm sun rises high in the sky, spreading warmth and brightness over the whole earth.

In such good weather, the visibility is extremely good, so it is especially suitable for search and rescue.

The TMPD searched all night, but did not find any traces related to Warnia, which made the entire TMPD desperate.

The search range, centered on the location of the accident, first spread to five kilometers, and then to ten kilometers, still nothing.

The TMPD decided to expand the search range to 20 kilometers. If it is not possible to search for 20 kilometers, it can only announce that Warnia has disappeared and whereabouts are unknown.

Honor was anxious at this moment.

What he needs now is to find Warnia's body as soon as possible, otherwise he will be unsure of her death, and he will not be peaceful.

Hashimoto Kinzin was also anxious, and now the TMPD has highly suspected that Warnia and her party were deliberately killed, so they have begun to investigate from the scene.

Although Hashimoto's staff have handled the scene very carefully, there is absolutely no perfect crime in this world, no matter how careful and cautious, they will definitely leave clues.

As long as the police find the key clues, they can follow the vine and figure out the whole story.

Until then, no one can escape from the subordinate who actually executed the murder to Hashimoto who gave orders behind the scenes.

Mr. Song, who was far away in Aurous Hill, was still worried about Warnia's whereabouts.

He made several phone calls to Honor all morning and asked about the progress of the TMPD, but Honor gave him no clue.

This also made the old man's mood more and more heavy.

Although he extremely hoped that his granddaughter would be safe and sound, the absence of any news for so long has made him prepare for the worst in his heart.

He knows that the longer the time is delayed, the less chance the granddaughter will return.

So, he hurriedly called Charlie.

As soon as the phone was connected, he choked up with pleading: "Master, please find a way to save Warnia!"

As he said, the old man didn't feel stretched, he was crying.

Charlie hurriedly comforted: "Master, don't worry, I will definitely try my best to help Warnia."

Mr. Song sighed, "Master, you don't know that the honor has gone to Japan overnight, but the whereabouts of Warnia has not been found in Japan, and the three people with Warnia have died. Life or death is uncertain, this...how can I not worry..."

Charlie originally considered whether to tell Father Song that Warnia is safe.

But after much deliberation, he still felt that he had to stop it. Since he said it or didn't tell him, then he wouldn't tell anyone.

Whether it was Mr. Song or anyone else, he couldn't reveal half of it.

So he said to Mr. Song: "Don't worry, Mr. Song, I've already notified my friends in Tokyo to help find Warnia's whereabouts. I will tell you as soon as I have any news."

Mr. Song choked and said, "Master, it's true that I have a very bad premonition this time. Warnia's accident seems to have been man-made, and everyone else has died. Only she is missing. I feel it is very likely that she has been met by an accident, or she is about to meet..."

Charlie said, "Master, there is still no conclusion on this matter, so you don't have to be too pessimistic. I believe that Warnia has her own natural conditions, and they should be able to turn dangers into peace."

Father Song was silent for a moment before he pleaded: "Master, if you can, the old man dare to ask you one thing..."

Chapter 2088

Charlie hurriedly said, "Master, please speak."

Father Song trembled: "Master, I beg you to take time to go to Japan. In this world, I am afraid that only you will have the chance to save her..."

Charlie didn't tell the Song family about coming to Japan by himself.

Therefore, Mr. Song now thinks that others are in Aurous Hill.

But since Mr. Song said so, he didn't conceal it anymore, and said: "Mr. Song, I really don't hide it. I'm in Tokyo right now, and I will do my best for Warnia."

Mr. Song asked in surprise and excitement: "Master, you...are you in Tokyo?! When did you go?"

Charlie said truthfully: "Last night, I heard that Warnia had an accident, so I asked Mr. Issac from Shangri-La to help arrange the plane and flew over."

Mr. Song was obviously relieved, and said gratefully: "Master, Warnia to have a friend like you is really fortunate! You are a person with great magical powers, I believe you will definitely save her."

As he said, he hurriedly said again: "Master, Honor also took some people to Tokyo last night. Or I will let him see you and let him listen to your instructions over there. What do you think?"

Charlie couldn't help frowning when he heard this.

See Honor?

He is not interested.

However, when he thought that Honor was the biggest suspect, Charlie felt that it was okay to see him.

See him and see if this kid will show his feet when facing him.

So Charlie said to Mr. Song: "Old man, let Mr. Song call me, and I will tell him the time and place of the meeting."

Father Song was very excited: "Okay, OK! Master wait a minute, I'll call him, let him visit you immediately! In the future in Tokyo, let him listen to your instructions!"

Charlie snorted and said, "Okay, let him call me."

Honor is worrying about the hotel at this time.

He thought his trip to Japan would be very simple. He would come and claim Warnia's body. Discuss directly with his family about how to take the body back. Then he could go back to Aurous Hill to prepare for the funeral.

After the funeral, give Grandpa the neurological drugs prepared by his father to slowly turn him into Alzheimer's patient, and then he can be raised as a mascot.

However, he did not expect that he planned everything carefully, but he was directly stuck in the first link.

He is here, but Warnia's body is gone...

Just when he was riding a tiger and didn't know what to do next, Mr. Song called.

This is already the eighth call that Mr. Song has made to Honor today.

He looked at the word "Grandpa" on the phone, and couldn't help screaming: "Fck old stuff! Keep calling his mother! He will annoy me sooner or later!"

He scolded, but he still didn't dare to delay a little bit, and hurriedly pressed his phone to answer.

As soon as the phone was connected, Honor immediately seemed to have changed. He said in a respectful voice with a bit of self-blame and a bit of sadness: "Grandpa, sorry, there is still no news from the TMPD, but you Don't worry, I will urge them again!"

Grandpa Song gave a hum and said, "Honor, I called you because I have something to tell you."

Honor hurriedly said, "Grandpa, please tell me what you want!"

Mr. Song said, "Master Wade has also reached Tokyo."

Honor's whole body suddenly exploded in shock, and he blurted out: "What did you say?!"

Chapter 2089

Hearing that Charlie had come to Tokyo, Honor was shaking all over!

He didn't expect him to be in Tokyo!

He knew that Warnia was easy to deal with, and the old man was easy to deal with, but taking on Master Charlie was by no means a good deal!

Therefore, as soon as he heard about this, his whole person suddenly panicked.

The old man Song on the other end of the phone asked him in surprise: "Honor, what's wrong with you? What's the fuss about?"

Honor only then came back to his senses, suppressing the tension deep in his heart, and said: "Grandpa, why did Master come? I can't believe it, is it because of Warnia?"

Mr. Song hummed, and said, "Master is a person of loyalty, and Warnia has always had a good relationship with him. Now that something happened to her, he rushed to Tokyo as soon as possible, which shows how much he values her. With the help of Master, the chances of finding Warnia are much higher!"

Honor is crazy with hatred!

He roared in his heart: "D@mn! Charlie b@stard, what is he doing in Tokyo now!?! He's not at home to spend time with his wife, and what does he come to Tokyo for?! Tokyo can't turn around without him, right!"

Honor is very clear about Charlie's ability.

That's why he worried.

On the one hand, he worried that he would be exposed in front of Charlie; on the other hand, he was also worried about whether Charlie could really find Warnia.

What if he really rescued Warnia?

At this moment, Old Man Song saw that he hadn't responded for a long time, and he asked, "Honor? Are you still listening?"

Honor quickly said: "I'm listening, I'm listening!"

After finishing speaking, he quickly said: "Grandpa, that would be great if Master can come! I feel more at ease in my heart!"

Mr. Song said, "Yes! When I heard Master said that he had arrived in Tokyo, my heart really became more at ease. I believe that with Master, Warnia will surely be able to make good fortune."

Honor can only agree: "Grandpa, you are right. I also think that with him, Warnia will be safe with him!"

Mr. Song seldom laughed twice and said, "Honor, if you hang up later, call him immediately, and then quickly go to meet him. From now on, you must listen to Master Wade for everything in Tokyo. Do you understand?"

Honor said without hesitation: "Grandpa, don't worry, I must look forward to Master's orders!"

Mr. Song said with satisfaction: "If you have this enlightenment, just call Master!"

Honor hurriedly said, "Okay Grandpa! Then I'll hang up first!"

"OK!"

Honor hung up his grandfather's phone, and his whole body suddenly became angry!

Unable to control his emotions, he slammed a punch on the glass coffee table and smashed the tempered glass coffee table to pieces!

At the same time, his right hand was also scratched by the glass, and several bloody holes appeared immediately.

Honor didn't care about the pain at all, his mind was full of anger and tension at this time.

To Charlie, he already hated him, and he thought to himself: "This man! He's too lenient for meddling!"

"I really thought that if someone called you Master, you would really control the air?!"

"The Song family's affairs are his family affairs, why is he so nosy?!"

Chapter 2090

"If it weren't for him to get involved in the first place, it would be impossible for the old thing to go against it and let Warnia's become the head of the Song family!"

"In that case, naturally I wouldn't want to kill her!"

Thinking of this, Honor's eyes were full of hatred, and he whispered to himself coldly: "Charlie, Warnia, you'd better not cause me trouble or engage with monsters, otherwise, I don't care about you Master. , I must find a way to kill you!"

After that, Honor calmed down again, took out his phone, and called Charlie.

As soon as the phone was connected, Honor heard on the other end of the phone, Charlie said: "Hello, hello."

He hurriedly said, "Master? I am Honor Song!"

Charlie said, "Oh, it's Mr. Song."

Honor hurriedly said: "Master, Grandpa called me and said that you have come to Tokyo for Warnia. He asked me to follow your instructions. I don't know where you are now?"

Charlie said, "I am living at a friend's house."

Honor didn't think much, and said, "Master, friend's house may not be convenient and the conditions may not be really good. It's better to stay in a hotel. I am staying at the Aman Hotel Tokyo. If you need, I'll let someone get the best room for you."

Charlie said lightly: "Don't bother, it's quite convenient for me to live in a friend's house."

With that said, Charlie deliberately used the tone of a leader to his subordinates, and ordered: "Mr. Song, I want to meet with you. You can report to me face to face about Warnia and the current investigation progress of this matter."

Honor felt 10,000 upset in his heart, but still said very sincerely: "Okay, Master, you give me an address, I will rush over to meet you now!"

Charlie deliberately wanted to give Honor a disarm, so he said indifferently: "No, didn't you stay at the Aman Hotel? You wait at the hotel for a while, and I will arrange for someone to pick you up and call you when they arrive."

Honor also wanted to say something politely, saying: "Master, how can you be in the next, how troubling for you to send someone to pick me up? It's better for me to come by myself..."

Charlie said coldly: "Don't say much, just wait for the call."

After that, Charlie directly hung up the phone.

Honor on the other end of the phone was already bursting his lungs.

He slammed the phone on the carpet and yelled: "fcuk! Who the hell do you call Mr. Song? I ask you to call, so you dare to call? Is Mr. Song your servant?"

After finishing speaking, he roared angrily: "D@mn! Let me see you? Why are you so fcuking boastful? If you have a friend in Tokyo who can have a place to stay for a night, it's not you who are awesome. What a fcuk!"

However, even though Honor has been scolded, he still sees it clearly in his heart.

"Even if I am dissatisfied with Charlie's 10,000 times, I must honestly meet him and obey his instructions. At the very least, I have to pretend to be very cooperative on the surface..."

"Otherwise, if he notices something wrong with me, wouldn't I be finished?"

"Charlie's temper is notoriously bad. He and my sister have never been clear. If I let him know that I killed my sister, maybe he will kill me directly in Japan. Everything is cold..."

At this moment, the residence of the Ito family.

Warnia is still resting, Nanako has been with Charlie.

Charlie ended the call with Honor, and said to Nanako next to him, "I have to trouble you to do me a favor again."

Nanako hurriedly said, "Master, please give orders!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said: "I'm going to trouble you to send a team to help me pick someone up here. The team should be as grand as possible, the grander the better!"

Chapter 2091

When Nanako heard Charlie's request for a grand team, she immediately smiled and said, "Master, isn't the team a bit grand enough? Or I would just send a few helicopters over!"

Charlie smiled slightly, "Is this guy staying at the Aman Hotel in Tokyo and arranging a helicopter in the city center, isn't it inappropriate?"

Nanako smiled and said seriously: "Master, this little thing is not inappropriate for the Ito family. If you want, you can leave this to me to arrange it. I will definitely not disappoint you!"

Charlie thought about it for a moment, then nodded and agreed, and said with a smile: "Then I will trouble you for help. I have only one purpose, to completely shock him."

Nanako smiled and said, "Master can rest assured, I will give him a vivid and realistic education class!"

.....

Aman Hotel.

Honor asked his beautiful assistant to put a few band-aids on his hands.

This girl is not only his assistant, but also his lover, but also his confidant.

After helping Honor to deal with the wound, she said distressedly: "Mr. Song, you should never be so impulsive in the future. You can't make fun of your body anyway!"

Honor said with a gloomy expression: "You don't understand, it's not that I'm too impulsive, it's that Charlie is too tricky. It's a huge trouble for me to stay in Tokyo!"

The assistant hurriedly said: "Mr. Song, it's actually not that difficult to deal with such a person? Let Hashimoto first summon a few killers and find a chance to kill him."

Honor waved his hand and sighed: "Oh, you don't understand, you don't know what Charlie is capable of. This person is quite capable, and most people are not his opponents."

"Furthermore, if you rush to trouble him, you will most likely expose yourself in advance. In that case, you will lose more than you gain."

The assistant asked, "Mr. Song, what should we do now? Is it like the old man said, you should follow his arrangements?"

Honor nodded, and said coldly: "There is no other way but to cooperate with him superficially, and hope that he will not discover me."

As he said, he sighed, and said without a word in his heart: "I just don't know if I can remain calm in front of him. This person is very shrewd, and if I am careless, he might be able to see it."

The assistant hurriedly said, "Mr. Song, you are the person with the best psychological quality I have ever seen. I believe that you will definitely not expose any flaws."

Honor nodded slightly: "I hope!"

As he was talking, Honor's cell phone rang suddenly.

On the phone, a woman's voice came: "Is this, Mr. Honor Song?"

Honor snorted and said, "Yes, it's me."

The woman said: "Hello Mr. Song, I am sent by Mr. Wade to pick you up. Are you ready to go?"

Honor said: "I'm ready, where shall we meet?"

The woman said, "You should be staying at the Aman Hotel, right?"

Honor said: "Yes, I am in the presidential suite of the Aman Hotel."

Honor deliberately said the two words presidential suite, just to find a sense of superiority in front of the other party.

He knew that Charlie had some skills, but he also felt that Charlie's skills should only be useful in Aurous Hill. If he leaves Aurous Hill and arrives in Japan, he will definitely be discounted.

Therefore, he instinctively didn't look at the friend in Charlie's mouth.

In his opinion, it is impossible for Charlie to make friends with high-ranking officials in Japan.

It is estimated that the other party is at most a middle class in Tokyo.

Chapter 2092

The woman on the other end said calmly, "Since Mr. Song lives in the Aman Hotel, please move to the rooftop now."

"Rooftop?" Honor frowned: "What do you want me to do on the rooftop?"

The woman said, "The helicopter is waiting on the rooftop."

"Helicopter?" Honor's expression was a little surprised, but also a little despised.

He thought to himself: "This Charlie and his friends are really boring. There are some helicopters to pick me up in the city. It's a little bit of money. Don't you know where to spend it? Rent a helicopter. I think I'm really awesome? This bit is really too low, right?"

Thinking of this, he smiled contemptuously, and then said very politely: "If this is the case, please wait a moment, I will come up."

"Well, I am waiting for Mr. Song on the rooftop."

After Honor hung up the phone, he immediately laughed contemptuously: "Humph, Charlie is really interesting, I said I'm going to find him, he has to let me wait for his friend to pick me up, and he has to get a helicopter. Does it make sense to come and pick me up? Have I never seen the world? With a helicopter, he wants to bluff me?"

The assistant smiled slightly: "In my opinion, Mr. Song, this Charlie is nothing but the light of fireflies, so he is so embarrassed to compete with you like the sun and the moon. He doesn't know what to do!

Honor sneered: "Oh, if you want to talk about him, he still has some ability, and nothing else, the rejuvenation pill in his hand is really a fucking good thing! I really hope to see it. I can have one when I am old..."

As he said, Honor sighed and waved his hand to the assistant: "Okay, let's not talk about it, you come to the rooftop with me."

"OK President Song!"

Honor took his confidant assistant to the rooftop of the Aman Hotel.

At this time, a heavy black helicopter was parked on a helipad on the rooftop.

When Honor saw the helicopter, he was a little surprised and said: "Oh, to pick me. Charlie and his friend are really willing to pay for this. This super cougar helicopter has an ex-factory price of more than 1.5. With a little modification, the price will exceed 200 million. Such a helicopter can cost hundreds of thousands for a short flight."

The little assistant smiled and said: "To spend hundreds of thousands to pretend to be forceful in front of Mr. Song. This man is really blind!"

"Yes." Honor sneered: "Have you seen the four letters on the fuselage of this plane?"

The little assistant looked at the eye-catching white letters on the black fuselage and read them one by one: "itou? Mr. Song, what does this mean? There seems to be no such word in English."

Honor said with a smile: "This is not an English word, it is the Roman sound of Japanese. The four letters of itou, pronounced in Roman sound, should be pronounced as 'yito'."

"Yito?" The assistant frowned, "What does this mean, Mr. Song, it sounds weird."

Honor said seriously: "You, there are really few people in the world. The Japanese corresponding to these four letters means Ito, which means that this aircraft belongs to the largest family in Japan, the Ito family."

"Ah?!" The little assistant exclaimed, "Is it the plane of the Ito family?! My goodness, does Charlie know someone from the Ito family?!"

Honor curled his lips: "Just rely on him? I know people from the Ito family, is he worthy?"

The little assistant asked in surprise: "Then what's going on with this plane?"

Honor said with a smile: "You don't know anything about it. The industry of the Ito family covers all walks of life in Japan. The family has its own general aviation company called 'Ito General Aviation'!"

"Ito General aviation?"

"Yes! It's Ito General Aviation!" Honor explained: "This general aviation company is mainly engaged in short- and medium-distance navigation. It has more than 200 various aircraft under its umbrella, including more than 100 helicopters, which is very powerful!"

"I guess Charlie and his friend rented this helicopter from Ito General Aviation!"

The little assistant nodded and said with a smile: "So that's it! You said that this plane belongs to the Ito family, which really shocked me. You thought Charlie's friend was from the Ito family."

Honor sneered: "I just said that he doesn't deserve to know someone from the Ito family! The Ito family is now in Japan, which is equivalent to the Su family in our country. Charlie, a guy who relies on feng shui and dances, even he is not worthy to give shoes to the Ito family!"

Chapter 2093

In Honor's heart, the status of the Ito family is indeed very high.

After all, this is the largest family in Japan, and it has just survived the fierce battle of the three major families in Tokyo. In this regard alone, the future of the Ito family is limitless.

Therefore, Honor did not believe that Charlie could have any actual relationship with the Ito family.

It must be him or his friend who spent money to rent a helicopter owned by the Ito Family General Aviation Company.

So he took his little assistant and walked to the helipad.

Standing by the helicopter was a beautiful lady wearing a blue flight attendant uniform. Seeing the two approaching, she looked at Honor and said respectfully: "You should be Mr. Song, right?"

Honor nodded, and said arrogantly: "Yes, it's me, are you responsible for picking me up?"

The beauty smiled slightly and said, "Yes, Mr. Song, Mr. Wade and our eldest lady are waiting for you at home now, please board the plane with the lady."

Honor hummed: "Master is so polite. In the urban area, you don't need to take a helicopter at all, can't you just take a car?"

The beauty said indifferently: "Mr. Song, our eldest lady said, be more solemn when picking you up."

Honor shook his head and smiled, and thought to himself contemptuously: "Send a helicopter here to be grand? Do you think I'm a bunny who has never seen the world? Our Song family is also worthy of private jets and private helicopters. All have this stuff in my eyes. It's nothing great."

However, since it is the helicopter sent by Charlie, he naturally did not dare to say such dismissive remarks in person, so he said very politely: "If this is the case, then let's leave now."

After that, he took his assistant and got into the heavy helicopter.

This helicopter was originally able to carry at least 20 people, but now the cabin has been completely transformed into a luxurious room, just like a top luxury RV.

Honor sat down on the sofa of the helicopter and asked the beauty: "I don't know where Master is, how far is it from here?"

The beauty smiled and said, "It's almost fifteen kilometers."

"Fifteen kilometers?" Honor said helplessly, "Isn't it just a few minutes away?"

The beauty smiled and said, "It takes a few minutes to fly, it takes about half an hour."

"What? Half an hour?!" Honor said dumbfounded: "Fifteen kilometers, even if you pedal a bicycle, you can get there by pedaling faster for half an hour. The speed of this helicopter can't be slowed to this point, right? ?"

The beauty smiled and said: "Mr. Song doesn't know something. In order to show the importance of you, our eldest has specially arranged a sightseeing route. You will know later."

Honor asked a little puzzled: "Could I ask who your eldest lady is?"

The beauty shook her head and said apologetically: "I'm sorry, Mr. Song, we can't tell you the identity of our eldest lady yet, but when we get to the place, you will naturally know."

Honor nodded and said, "Okay..."

Having said that, he also muttered in his heart: "I don't know what kind of medicine Charlie is selling in the gourd? I'm free to get a helicopter, what's the trouble here?"

At this time, the beautiful woman said, "Mr. Song, our helicopter is about to take off. Please put on the intercom headset and buckle your seat belt."

"OK."

Honor nodded, put on the intercom headset, and buckled the seat belt.

Since loud noise is generated when the helicopter is in operation, it is impossible to hear each other in a normal conversation in the cabin.

In order to solve the problem of communication in the cabin, all the crew and passengers on the helicopter wear headphones with very good sound effects. Wearing headphones can not only isolate the sound of the engine, but also use radio to ensure each other's call.

Once the helicopter gets up, they can only communicate with each other in this way.

Chapter 2094

At this time, the helicopter engine turned slowly, then accelerated continuously, and soon began to slowly rise.

Honor thought: "I can also take this opportunity to take a look at Tokyo under the sky."

As he was thinking, he heard the beautiful woman's voice in the headset, and she said, "No.2 and No.3 take off, No.4 and No.5 start the engines, No.6 and No.7 start to prepare!"

Honor was still a little puzzled, and he thought to himself: "What is No. 2, No. 3, No. 4, No. 5? What is this girl talking about here?"

Just wondering, the assistant on the side pointed to the roofs of the other two buildings on both sides of the window, and said in surprise: "Mr. Song, there are also two helicopters flying on the roofs of those two buildings, exactly the same as the one we are sitting on!"

Honor turned his head to see, as expected!

Two identical helicopters take off at the same time and simultaneously on the left and right sides.

These two planes are not only the same as the model they are flying in, they are all Super Cougar, but also the fuselage painting is the same, both of which are painted by Ito General Aviation.

Honor asked the beauty in surprise: "These two planes are also yours?"

The beauty nodded and smiled: "They will accompany you all the way."

Honor was stunned: "What is full flight companionship?"

The beauty smiled and said: "It is to accompany you throughout the flight, just like the front and rear cars of the convoy."

Honor's expression was a bit stunned and said, "Uh... is this really necessary? Master won't be too expensive, right?"

The beauty said calmly: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade doesn't have to pay a penny."

Honor nodded, and thought to himself: "Needless to say, Charlie should have found another bully in Tokyo..."

As they were talking, the two helicopters had risen to the same height as them. After that, the two planes followed the plane Honor was riding in, and the three planes moved forward at the same speed.

Just one kilometer after flying out, Honor's assistant pointed to the two buildings on both sides and said, "Mr. Song! Two more planes on both sides!"

Honor took a closer look and was shocked!

This is five! is this necessary?

Just after speaking, the assistant pointed far away and blurted out: "Mr. Song, there seem to be black helicopters on the roofs of the two buildings in front!"

Honor looked in the direction of her fingers, and indeed there were two black things the size of ants at a distance of one kilometer away.

Honor carefully identified the two black objects parked on the top of the building. They really looked like the same helicopter he was riding in!

I was surprised that the two helicopters that took off just now have arrived.

The fleet has changed from three to five.

Soon, the black things that were like two ants became bigger and bigger in Honor's vision, and it was easy to recognize them. They were indeed two helicopters.

Subsequently, the two helicopters also began to take off.

The fleet has changed from five to seven.

At this time, Honor had a numb scalp.

He doesn't understand, what exactly is Charlie doing? Just pick him up, is it necessary to make it so grand?

As he was thinking, he heard the beauty say on the walkie-talkie: "The efficiency of taking off in twos is too low. Let's start four at a time!"

Chapter 2095

Seeing that four helicopters really took off, and the fleet quickly expanded to nearly twenty all the way, Honor felt like a fight!

He didn't understand, so he thought to himself: "What the hell is doing? Sending 20 helicopters for more than ten kilometers of roads, this is too incredible, right?"

"Also, where does Charlie's friend from Tokyo come from?! Renting twenty helicopters also cost a lot of money. Is it a waste of money to burn?!"

At this time, the citizens of Tokyo were all startled by the echelon of helicopters whizzing by in the sky, one by one stopped and looked up, thinking that something big had happened, or something extraordinary was coming.

The more Honor couldn't guess Charlie's motive, the more he felt guilty.

Although he and Charlie are not familiar, nor can they talk about friends, at least they are acquaintances. If you meet between acquaintances, shouldn't it be an appointment and then go separately? Charlie suddenly made this appearance, what does it mean?

At this time, on the top floors of the high-rise buildings on both sides, new helicopters are constantly taking off and joining them.

Soon, the total number of helicopter echelons exceeded thirty.

Honor has never experienced such a battle in his entire life, and his heart is a little hairy!

Moreover, he did not have the initial contempt in his heart.

Subconsciously told him that Charlie seemed to be much better than he thought, including his Japanese friend whom he had never met. First URL m. kanshu8.net

Maybe, the other party is still a big local in Tokyo!

More than 30 helicopters circulated idling over downtown Tokyo, and finally hovered over a private estate.

At this time, Honor discovered that the thirty or so helicopters around him had become a circular layout, enclosing his own plane in the middle.

As for his own plane, it was slowly descending at this time.

Honor looked down at the huge estate below, and asked the beauty in surprise: "Excuse me, where is this?"

The beauty said: "Back to Mr. Song, this is where our eldest lady lives."

Honor doesn't know where the Ito family's mansion is, so he can't recognize who owns the mansion directly below.

However, looking at the location, area, and architectural style, you know that this is definitely not an ordinary home.

As the helicopter slowly descended, Honor's heartbeat became faster and faster.

He hurriedly thought in his heart: "Charlie's friends in Tokyo have such a strong family background, and their energy must not be underestimated. If Charlie asks them to help investigate Warnia's affairs, then maybe he is really going to explode!"

Before, Honor still felt that even if Charlie came to Japan, it was meaningless. He was unfamiliar with the place in Japan. He didn't know what he did. He didn't have enough contacts and human help. He wanted to find Warnia's whereabouts or investigate The cause of Warnia's death is as difficult as reaching the sky.

This is true for most people.

Everyone's abilities have obvious geographical restrictions.

For example, Orvel, is an underground emperor in Aurous Hill, no one dares to provoke him, but as long as he leaves Aurous Hill, even if he is in Suzhou, his influence will be greatly reduced.

If he were to come to Tokyo, with his little influence in Aurous Hill, any rich would dare to slap him in the face.

This is because most of Orvel's abilities can only be brought into play when he is in Aurous Hill. The farther away from Aurous Hill, the smaller his abilities.

Honor originally thought that Charlie must be the same.

Charlie was screaming in Aurous Hill because there were a lot of local bigwigs who had good looks in Aurous Hill.

But once he leaves Aurous Hill, his influence is bound to decline drastically.

If he really came to Japan to investigate Warnia's affairs, he might not even be able to find a three or five assistant.

But now, Honor finally realized how ignorant he was.

Chapter 2096

Because he discovered that Charlie seems to have an extraordinary relationship in Japan!

The helicopter landed on the lawn in the back garden of the Ito family.

As soon as the helicopter landed, twenty men in black suits ran over neatly.

Then, twenty people stood on both sides of the hatch, very mighty.

At this time, the beautiful lady in the helicopter opened the hatch, jumped down first, and then said to Honor: "Mr. Song, please!"

Honor swallowed with some difficulty, while drumming in his heart, he stepped out of the helicopter nervously.

The beauty said: "Mr. Song, please come with me. Mr. Wade and our eldest lady are already waiting in the living room."

Honor hurriedly asked humbly: "Beauty, can I dare to ask, who is the eldest lady in your family?"

The beauty smiled and said: "Our eldest lady's identity, when you see her later, she will definitely tell you in person."

Honor pretended to smile indifferently, but in fact he became a dog in panic.

He could see that such a mansion, in such a good location in Tokyo, is worth at least tens or even tens of billions of yuan. The family that can have such a mansion should be much stronger than the Song family!

At this time, the beauty gestured at him with a gesture of invitation, and said with a smile: "Mr. Song, please here."

Uneasy Honor could only nod his head, biting his head to follow.

He followed the beauty through the back garden of the entire Ito family mansion, and then through the long corridor to the door of a Japanese-style room.

The beauty said to him and his assistant: "Two, please wait a moment, I'll go in and report."

Honor nodded hurriedly: "Please... let's wait at the door first..."

The beauty entered the door and said to Charlie and Nanako who were drinking tea cross-legged in front of the tea table: "Mr. Wade, Madam, the guests are here."

Nanako nodded and said lightly, "Please let them in."

The beauty immediately said: "OK, lady!"

After that, she came to the door and said to Honor: "Mr. Song, please come in."

On the side, Honor's assistant asked Honor in a low voice: "Mr. Song, am I going in too? I'm a little nervous, so I'm not going..."

Honor saw her look very flustered, knowing that she might have been frightened by the unbelievable large formation of the other party, so she dared not go in.

He sighed inwardly: "Are you a little nervous? Did you know that I am also panicked now!"

However, he also knew that the assistant could still retreat, but he could not do it, so he had no choice but to say: "Then you wait for me outside."

The assistant heaved a sigh of relief, and nodded hurriedly, as if she was granted a pardon.

Honor mustered up the courage at this time and stepped into the door.

As soon as he entered the door, he saw Charlie tasting tea at the tea table.

At this moment, Charlie was still the same as before, with a calm face, seeing Honor coming in, waved his hand slightly at him.

Opposite Charlie, there was also a young-looking Japanese woman who was wearing a Japanese-style kimono. She looked not only extremely beautiful, but also gentle and elegant.

Honor recognized this woman at a glance!

At this time, the stormy sea had already turned up in his heart, and he muttered to himself: "This...this woman...this woman is not the eldest lady of the Ito family, Nanako, known as Yamato Nadeshiko. Is it... Is it that the local friend Charlie said is her?!"

Chapter 2097

Honor felt at this moment that his outlook on life, values and world outlook were completely subverted in an instant.

He didn't expect Charlie to have a relationship with Miss Ito.

What's more terrifying is that the eldest lady of the Ito family is wearing a kimono, kneeling across from Charlie, and pouring tea to him respectfully like a waiter.

This is simply incredible!

Honor wailed desperately in his heart: "What the hell is this? Do the Japanese also believe in the feng shui metaphysics? Otherwise, how did Charlie flick Nanako?"

Just when his mind was full of shock and surprise, Charlie saw him come in, as if he had seen a friend's son, smiled and waved at him and said, "Oh, honor, come on, please sit down."

Seeing Charlie's calm face, Honor was even more puzzled, and wondered: "Charlie has such a good relationship with Warnia, why did Warnia have been missing for so long? Charlie came to Tokyo, but instead of looking for someone So calm, drinking tea in the Ito family mansion?"

Although Honor was puzzled in his heart, he bit his head and came to Charlie's front and said respectfully: "Hello, Master!"

After speaking, he looked at Nanako and said politely: "Hello, Miss Ito. Please take care of me for the first time.

Nanako smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Song knows me?"

Honor nodded: "You are so well-known, how could I not know you."

Nanako smiled generously and stretched out her hand to signal: "Mr. Song, please sit down, just have a taste of the Japanese tea ceremony and see if it suits your appetite."

Honor hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Miss Ito is really too polite. This time, I came to listen to Master's instructions, so I just want to stand here."

Charlie faintly waved his hand: "It's honor, I've known your grandfather, you don't need to be so cautious in front of me, since Miss Ito let you sit, then you sit."

The tone of Charlie's words made Honor very disgusted.

He could hear the feeling of being elevated in Charlie's mouth.

This made his heart very upset.

But at this moment, he didn't dare to disobey Charlie halfway.

After all, Charlie is a guest of the Ito family, and this amount of gold is too great.

So he hurriedly said respectfully: "Since Master said so, it's better to be respectful."

After all, he just sat down beside Charlie.

After sitting cross-legged, Honor was in a state of anxiety, always wondering what kind of medicine Charlie sold in the gourd.

At this moment, Charlie asked, "Honor, what do you know about Warnia? Tell me."

Honor felt a little bit in his heart, but on the surface, he tried to control it as natural as possible, and said, "Master is like this. Some time ago Warnia wanted to cooperate with Nippon Steel in Japan, so she brought people to Japan to start a follow-up. Nippon Steel was negotiating, but something happened suddenly last night. The commercial vehicle she was riding in crashed into a cliff in the mountains of Nishitama County. The other three people in the car died on the spot. Warnia is currently missing.... .."

Charlie nodded, looked at him and asked, "What did the Tokyo Metropolitan Police say?"

Chapter 2098

Honor was a little guilty when Charlie saw that, he hurriedly lowered his head and pretended to respectfully say: "Master, the TMPD has sent a lot of people to search in Nishitama County, but yet to find Warnia's whereabouts."

As he said, Honor hurriedly added: "However, they are increasing the police force to expand the search range, hoping they can find valuable clues as soon as possible. Of course, it is best to find Warnia's whereabouts as soon as possible.

Charlie waved his hand and said faintly: "I am not asking this. I am asking the TMPD. Is there any definition of this matter? Is this fall from the cliff an accident or not? Or was someone deliberately murdered?"

Hearing the four words of deliberate murder, Honor immediately became nervous.

He felt that cold sweat had begun to ooze from his back, and he was wearing his jacket, so it was not easy to be seen.

In fact, the TMPD already has a clear definition. They think this incident is a deliberate murder, because the scene of the accident was obviously handled by humans.

However, they have not found any valuable clues.

Now that Charlie asked so bluntly, Honor's heart became more and more panicked.

He originally thought that Charlie was alone in Japan and couldn't get over the storm in Tokyo, but now it is different. The relationship between Charlie and the Ito family is so good. As long as he has a word, the family will do everything they want in 1000 ways to help him investigate this matter.

The Ito family is very strong in Japan. Once they intervene, it is very likely that they will go slant and find out the truth faster than the police.

Honor was nervous and didn't know how to respond to Charlie's question.

And Charlie also asked at this time: "Honor, why don't you speak?"

Honor recovered and hurriedly said, "Oh, I'm really sorry Master, I just thought about Warnia, and also worried about her safety, so I was a little distracted..."

After speaking, he sat up straight and said truthfully: "Master, the TMPD defines this matter as the possibility of deliberate murder, but because no valuable clues have been found. So the specifics are to be determined based on further investigation, as for the murder, it is just a guess."

Charlie nodded, and said coldly: "TMPD is a notorious waste. Some time ago, Tokyo's public security was so poor and there were so many major and important cases. The TMPD has not solved all those cases. So if Warnia counts on them, I don't know if I have to wait until the year of the monkey."

Afterwards, Charlie pointed to Nanako and said to Honor: "Honor, Miss Nanako has a deep friendship with me, and I have some connections with the Ito family. I believe you have heard of their strength in Japan. With the help of Miss Nanako, I believe that our search for Warnia should be faster than the TMPD.”

Nanako immediately said respectfully: “Master, please don’t worry, as long as you say a word, the entire Ito family will be dispatched for you!”

Nanako’s words made Honor panic.

He knew very well that judging by the strength of the entire Ito family, even if they could not find the living Warnia, they would definitely be able to find out the truth of the matter.

Moreover, just now the Ito family had so many helicopters to pick him up with great momentum, which is enough to show that the Ito family is very attentive to any instructions of Charlie.

It can also be imagined that once Charlie speaks, the Ito family will definitely go all out to find Warnia’s whereabouts and the whole thing.

By then, everything will be over...

Honor’s heart was desperate at this time.

A thin layer of sweat has even poured out of his forehead.

Charlie saw all his reactions in his eyes and became more and more certain in his heart that Honor definitely had a big problem!

Chapter 2099

At the moment Nanako expressed his attitude to Charlie, Honor had already begun to plan to leave Japan as soon as possible.

He knew that as long as the Ito family intervened, he would be exposed soon.

If at the moment of exposure, if you are still in Japan, you basically don’t have to want to go back alive.

Because he knew that Charlie would definitely not let him go!

The only way at the moment is to leave Japan and get rid of the old man before he is exposed, and take over the entire Song family completely.

As long as he can take over all the assets of the Song family, he can break away from Charlie.

After all, the Song family's assets of one or two hundred billion can not be resisted by Charlie, a so-called Master!

Seeing Honor next to him, Charlie looked a little restless, and deliberately asked: "Honor, how come you look absent? Is there any physical discomfort?"

Honor hurriedly waved his hand and said, "No, Master, I'm just a little worried about Warnia. She has been missing all night. I am afraid that the more delay, the less chance of her survival..."

Charlie looked at him and said seriously: "Don't worry, as long as I am here, Warnia will never die."

Honor pretended to be pleased and said: "That's great! Master, it's all up to you if you can find Warnia!"

When he said this, Honor's heart was viciously cursed: "Even if Warnia is really alive, I will definitely kill her, even if you Charlie stand in front of me, it's useless! As long as I Song The honor is, Warnia is not allowed to live, she must die!"

At this time, Charlie said: "If you are honored, go back to the hotel first, and look for Warnia's affairs. You don't have to intervene. Stay in the hotel and wait for my good news."

Honor was a little surprised at once, and thought to himself: "What do you mean? He sent dozens of helicopters to pick me up, and just said a few words, let me go? A phone call or even a WeChat can solve it, so why bother?!"

However, although Honor was puzzled, he didn't dare to have any disobedience. He hurriedly stood up and said seriously: "Master, since this is the case, then I will leave first..."

Charlie nodded and said, "Don't run around in Tokyo these days, just stay in the hotel and wait for my news."

Honor quickly said: "Okay Master, I will be waiting for your news at the hotel these few days!"

Nanako spoke at this time: "Since Mr. Song is going back to the hotel, I will let the helicopter take you back."

Honor said flatteredly: "Ms. Ito is really too polite. It's not far from the hotel. I can just go out and take a taxi. I won't bother you to arrange a helicopter."

Nanako said earnestly: "Mr. Song is Master's guest, and that is the distinguished guest of my Ito family. The Ito family has never allowed the distinguished guests to take a taxi and leave by themselves, so I should ask Mr. Song to return by helicopter."

Honor nodded, and said with a little embarrassment: "Miss Ito, it's okay to go back by helicopter, but you really don't need to send so many helicopters. It's too wasteful, one is enough..."

Nanako smiled slightly: "Mr. Song doesn't have to be so polite. The reason why so many helicopters are sent to pick you up together is also because the Ito family attaches great importance to distinguished guests."

Honor had no choice but to say: "Then I will follow Miss Ito's arrangement."

Nanako nodded, looked at her assistant and asked her to send Honor.

Chapter 2100

As soon as Honor left, Nanako hurriedly said to Charlie: "Master, your intuition is really accurate. After meeting, I also think there is a problem with Honor!"

Charlie said coldly: "As long as people with a guilty conscience, no matter how strong their psychological quality is, they will definitely expose some flaws. Honor will obviously become nervous after seeing you. This must be because he is afraid of the Ito family. Strength, knowing that once the Ito family intervenes, this matter will surely be revealed, so he must be frightened in his heart."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "I think Honor will most likely run away soon after this incident. You must let your ninja watch him closely, and never let him run away!"

Nanako nodded and said, "Although Master can rest assured, I have already arranged everything. When Honor comes, my ninja has already rushed to the hotel, and they will monitor Honor in all aspects!"

Charlie smiled with satisfaction and said, "If he has other accomplices, the first thing he does after he returns to the hotel must be to get in touch with his accomplices. Then you must eavesdrop on all his calls to find clues!"

.....

During the flight back to the hotel, Honor was always a little restless.

After such a major change, he himself has lost his backbone, and all hopes are pinned on his father Tianming.

He can't wait to contact Tianming and tell him what happened here.

However, since he was still sitting on the helicopter of the Ito family, he could only resist this impulse and wait until the hotel.

On the way back, dozens of helicopters were still roaring and escorting him.

Outsiders seem to be very aggressive, but they put a lot of pressure on Honor.

The strength of the Ito family was undoubtedly revealed in this short flight.

According to Nanako's assistant, the Ito General Aviation Company, owned by the Ito family, has taken over 80% of Tokyo's high-rise aprons.

Usually, their helicopters do not stop at the airport, but on the top aprons of Tokyo's high-rise buildings.

The advantage of this is that once there is any demand, the helicopter closest to the demand location can take off quickly.

That's why, when he came here, Ito family helicopters took off from the top of each building.

The more the Ito family showed their muscles in front of him like this, the more frightened Honor became.

Back at the Aman Hotel, the first thing he did when he entered the room was to immediately take out his mobile phone and call Tianming.

At this time, Tianming had just landed in Aurous Hill after more than ten hours of flying.

After the call was connected, Honor's first sentence was: "Dad! I will soon be exposed. Neither in Tokyo nor in Japan can I stay for long. I plan to return home quietly tonight. You will also get rid of the old stuff as soon as possible!"

Tianming was shocked and blurted out and asked, "What's the matter?! What happened?!"

Honor said in a crying voice: "It's Charlie! That guy is too D@mn strong! Dad, you can't imagine that Japan's largest Ito family completely treats him as their father! Charlie said to look for Warnia. , The Ito family immediately stated that everyone in the family can be dispatched by him! I don't know what the hell does Charlie has, do these people have brain problems or what, it's beyond my comprehension?!"

Chapter 2101

When Tianming learned that the Ito family wanted to help Charlie find Warnia's whereabouts and help investigate the whole story, he was also scared into a cold sweat even when he was two thousand kilometers away.

In this world, there is no perfect crime. When they were planning to kill Warnia, they only wanted to keep the murder clues in Japan, so that everyone thought that Warnia was killed in Japan and had nothing to do with them. This was enough.

However, once people know that Warnia's death is related to them, or even they are the instigators behind the back, then the trouble will be big.

Not to mention that the old man will be furious, and the domestic law enforcement agencies will not let them go. Although they committed crimes overseas, in the final analysis, the killers are the citizens of the country, and the laws of the country apply.

Moreover, once the outside world knows that the father and son killed Warnia, the reputation of them and the entire Song family will inevitably decline.

At that time, even if their father and son escaped the sanctions of the law by chance, they would all be treated like rats crossing the street and be beaten by everyone!

Thinking of this, Tianming immediately made up his mind and blurted out: "Honor, if you run back right now, this is undoubtedly telling Charlie that you have a problem. Charlie will call your grandfather by then, using your grandpa's shrewdness. To the extent, they can guess all the links at once, and by then, you will have more trouble!"

Honor choked nervously: "Dad, what do you think I should do now... The Ito family is too strong. With their help, this matter will not take a few days. It will come to light, and by that time, I will be done!"

Tianming immediately calmed down and said, "Honor, you first calm down and wait for my message. After I go back, I will find a chance to give your grandpa the medicine!"

As he said, Tianming sneered, "As long as I turn the old thing into an Alzheimer's patient, I will call you back from Japan on the grounds of his sudden illness. In that case, Charlie should not suspect you. At that time, we will sell all the assets of the Song family as quickly as possible in the country, and then replace them with U.S. dollars. Before this matter is completely solved, we will immigrate to the United States or Canada with tens of billions of dollars in assets!"

Honor asked hurriedly: "Dad, how long will your medicine be effective after the old man has taken it?"

Tianming said: "If I increase the dose a little, it will take a few hours at most. It is estimated that he will become a dementia patient tonight.

Honor sighed slightly and said, "If that's the case, can I fly back tomorrow morning?"

Tianming hummed and said, "If things go well, everyone will find that your grandfather is suffering from Alzheimer's disease early in the morning. Then I will inform you to come back quickly, and then I will urgently inherit the position of the head of the Song family. Hurry up and get rid of all the assets."

Honor asked again: "Then what about uncles? They are all eyeing the inheritance. It is absolutely impossible for us to deal with it..."

Tianming said disdainfully: "Don't worry, they have long been looking forward to the separation of the family. Before, the old thing had been holding the power of the Song family, and they couldn't separate the family. Later, the old thing asked Warnia to take over as the head of the family. What I said, but I was even more annoyed."

Chapter 2102

After a pause, Tianming continued: "And you know Warnia's style of doing things. This girl doesn't have a high pursuit of quality of life, so she wants to develop the scale desperately. She can't wait for all the profits made by the Song Group. They are all invested in the new expansion. Everyone can't get any money when she does this. Who is not angry?"

As he said, Tianming sneered: "If I inherit the position of the head of the Song family and I propose to divide the family, your uncles will never refuse. I will take a relatively large share and give them the rest. They won't have any opinions."

Honor couldn't help asking: "Then what if they have opinions? What if they ask for a split by head? By the time we have done so hard, won't we all benefit them?"

Tianming smiled and said, "Don't worry, I have already considered these problems. After solving the old thing, I will give them two choices!"

"The first option is to continue to be the owner of the house. Then, like Warnia, I will put all my energy into expanding the business map. In this way, they won't even think about being allocated from the Song Group for a while. Money, when they do not have it, they will continue to maintain their arrogant and lu$tful lives, naturally they will be anxious to scratch their hearts;

"As for the second option, they voluntarily give up part of the share to me. In this case, I agree to sell the entire business for cash. In this way, they can get the money sooner and live the life they want."

"The total assets of the Song Group now amount to more than 20 billion U.S. dollars. In order to seek a quick deal, the whole package is sold for 20 billion U.S. dollars. The problem is still not big, and my requirements are not high. No matter how much it sells, we take half of the income and divide the rest equally. I believe they will not refuse."

Honor thought for a while, and said in agreement, "What you said makes sense. For them, there is no difference in essence between a person's share of 3 billion U.S. dollars and a person's share of 5 billion U.S. dollars. Anyway, with so much money, all of it in their life will never be spent."

Tianming hummed, and said, "Based on what I know about them, they are definitely willing to sell some shares and get the money early, so that they don't have to send people under the fence, and they don't have to look at other people's faces."

Honor sighed in relief and said with a smile: "Dad, since you are confident, then I will wait for your good news in Japan!"

"As long as you handle the old stuff there, I will return to China immediately! After returning, let's deal with these follow-up matters as soon as possible. Before the Ito family has found out the hidden circumstances of Warnia's murder, we will immigrate to the United States with the family!"

"At that time, even if they find out that we are behind it, they will have nothing to do with us!"

Tianming also smiled and said: "Yes! Such a major case is generally not clear within a few months, and we don't need so much time. As long as one week at most is enough!"

After that, Tianming said: "Honor, the only variable now is not the Ito family, but Charlie. This person is mysterious and scheming. You must not let him see any clues. Otherwise, you If you are alone in Japan, if he wants to attack you, Dad is so far away, it is beyond reach!"

Honor hurriedly said: "Don't worry, Dad, I'm already very cautious. In front of Charlie, I have been doing my best to make myself look more natural. Moreover, all around my room are living with my own people. They have also checked against eavesdropping. I will definitely not let Charlie see any clues!"

Tianming chuckled: "That's good! That's good! You can wait for my good news in the hotel!"

Chapter 2103

Knowing that Dad already has a complete solution, Honor was relieved immediately.

What he and his father wanted was not the so-called Patriarch of the Song family, but most of the assets of the Song family.

After Warnia is removed, it is naturally the best situation to be able to manage the entire Song family steadily, but if this goal is not achieved, taking a step back and being able to get most of the assets is already satisfied for the father and son.

Therefore, Tianming is not afraid that the murder of Warnia will be revealed, he is just afraid that it will be revealed too early.

He needs to win a time difference, which is enough for him to get rid of Mr. Song, cash out all the Song family assets, and then flee to the United States.

The biggest question now is how long this time difference is.

After all, Charlie and the Ito family were investigating this matter, and Tianming was also worried about the premature exposure, so he planned to do something against Old Man in advance.

Quickly solve the troubles of Mr. Song, so that Honor can return to the country as soon as possible. Otherwise, Honor will stay in Japan, which is like leaving a proton for Tianming.

In ancient times, two countries that were hostile or threatened to each other often sent protons to each other.

The so-called proton means that the emperor of a country sends one of his princes to hostages in a hostile country in order to seek peace.

If during this period the two sides are violent, the other party can kill the proton at any time.

Tianming was afraid to leave Honor in Tokyo for too long, otherwise, if Charlie finds out something and takes his son as a hostage or simply kills him to avenge Warnia, then he will be dead!

However, neither Tianming nor Honor knew that the conversation between the two of them had actually been monitored by the ninjas of the Ito family.

After the two had finished talking, all the recordings of their conversation were sent to Nanako's cell phone.

Nanako immediately put the recording to Charlie, and Charlie frowned immediately after hearing it.

Nanako sighed: "Master is really good at everything, this Honor is really the culprit!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said seriously: "Actually, this is not a good thing. Just remember one thing. When you can't find the culprit in a certain case, the culprit is often the case's beneficiaries."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Honor is the eldest son of the Song family. It is reasonable to say that his father should inherit the position of Patriarch of the Song family. After his father retires, he will pass on the position of Patriarch to him."

"But Honor's grandfather passed on the position of Patriarch to Warnia, which invisibly brought a huge loss to Honor and his son."

"So, whenever Warnia dies, these father and son are the biggest beneficiaries. As the biggest beneficiaries, the suspicion is naturally the biggest."

Nanako thought for a moment, and nodded in agreement: "What Master said is really reasonable! Sometimes, profit is the biggest motivation for committing crimes!"

Charlie said with a gloomy expression on his face: "Honor and the two grandfathers did all the money for that little property. I didn't expect that they not only murdered Warnia, but also their own father and grandfather. It is really hateful.!"

Nanako hurriedly asked, "Master, what are you going to do now? Do you want me to get Honor to be deducted and force his father to surrender?!"

Charlie sneered: "This operation is okay, but it also has certain risks."

Nanako asked, "Master, what are the risks?"

Charlie explained earnestly: "If Tianming is willing to give up Honor, then even if I kill Honor, it is impossible to stop him."

Chapter 2104

Nanako asked again, "Master, what are you going to do?"

Charlie smiled: "I want to give them a bait."

"A bait?!" Nanako asked in surprise: "Master, what kind of bait?"

Charlie said with a smile: "Don't Honor and his father think that Warnia's chances of survival are slim? Also, don't they think that Mr. Song will definitely become Alzheimer's? If they succeed, I will announce from Tokyo. Nothing was found in the search. Will Honor and their father and son breathe a sigh of relief?"

Nanako nodded and said, "That's for sure. The father and son may be happy to celebrate with fireworks."

Charlie smiled and asked: "Then what would happen to them if they knew that Grandpa Song was not demented and Warnia was not dead at all when they were most proud of it?"

Nanako pursed her mouth and smiled: "Once such a happy and sad thing happens, they will definitely collapse..."

Charlie nodded: "Yes! All I want is to make them happy first and sad later!"

As he said, he took out his cell phone and called Mr. Song.

When the phone was connected, Mr. Song asked nervously, "Master, have you found a clue about Warnia?"

Charlie said: "Master, I am calling you to discuss something with you."

Elder Song hurriedly said, "Master, please tell me if you have anything!"

Charlie asked him: "Is it convenient for you to speak now?"

"Convenient!" Mr. Song said hurriedly, "I'm in my own room now. It has been soundproofed and it is very safe."

Charlie said seriously: "Okay, what I say next may be a bit shocking or even unbelievable to you, but you must not doubt it, do what I say, as long as you do exactly what I say, not only you can survive, and your Song family can never suffer from future troubles!"

As soon as he heard this, Mr. Song said excitedly: "Master, just give your orders. The old man doesn't dare to disobey!"

Charlie said lightly: "I need you to take out the rejuvenating pill I gave to Warnia, and use a blade to scrape one-fifth of the dose and soak it in water for consumption."

Father Song was shocked and blurted out: "Master, why do you want me to take Rejuvenation Pill? And it's still one-fifth. What special intentions do you have?"

Charlie snorted and said, "One-fifth of the rejuvenating pills can at least guarantee that you will not be invaded by poison in the next two days."

Father Song was even more shocked: "Master, what do you mean? Could it be...is anyone going to poison me?"

Charlie said very bluntly: "Master, from now on, you must always pay attention to your eldest son Tianming. As far as I know, he is likely to use some kind of nerve-damaging drug to destroy your brain!"

"So, you take one-fifth of the rejuvenating pills in water in advance, and after you meet him, you will eat whatever he feeds you; whatever he gives you, you must drink it, and then At the right time, pretend to remember nothing and know nothing."

Speaking of this, Charlie said again: "Or I would say it more directly, you are playing a dementia patient in front of Tianming!"

Mr. Song was shocked: "Wade...Master...you mean...Tianming, he...wish me ill?!"

Charlie didn't conceal it, and said seriously: "From the information I have received so far, this is indeed the case, so you must take a look at what medicine they sell in the gourd!"

Chapter 2105

Aurous Hill, Song family.

When Tianming came back, he pretended to be nervous to find Mr. Song to ask questions, his face was full of concern for Warnia.

Elder Song looked at his eldest son, wondering deep in his heart.

He really didn't want to believe that the eldest son he had raised for fifty years wanted to murder him.

If these words were spoken by any other person, Grandpa Song would never believe it.

However, when the words came out of Charlie's mouth, even if he didn't want to believe them, Mr. Song had to pay attention to it.

Because, in his heart, he knew very well that Master Charlie's abilities are all over the sky, and with his character, he would never say anything irresponsible.

And since he said so, there must be some evidence!

Thinking of this, while looking at his eldest son Tianming, he secretly thought in his heart: "It seems that I really have to be cautious! From now on, I must have the spirit of twelve points!"

At this point, he stood up and said to Tianming, "Hey, Tianming, I have been exhausted by Warnia's affairs, and my body is somewhat unwell. Now that you are back, you will help me preside over the overall situation. I have to rest, The body can't hold it anymore."

Tianming hurriedly said: "Dad, then I will help you back to your room."

Mr. Song waved his hand and said, "No, please contact Honor quickly and ask about the progress in Japan. Has he found any news about Warnia? If you have news, please tell me in time."

After speaking, the old man looked at the housekeeper Boyo and said: "Boyo, you can help me back to the room."

Boyo nodded hurriedly, stepped forward and said respectfully: "Master, please!"

Grandpa Song stood up, took a look at Tianming, and exhorted: "Tianming, your brother left Warnia in his bloodline after he left. No matter what, you must let her come back alive, otherwise I will die and I will have no face to see the couple, do you understand?"

A bit of embarrassment flashed in Tianming's eyes, and he immediately returned to nature, and said seriously: "Don't worry, Dad, I will definitely go all out!"

Father Song nodded lightly, sighing in his heart.

The reason why he said this was to see if Tianming did this thing, then whether he has the last bit of conscience.

If he still has a little conscience, he should let his niece go and leave his dead brother a queen.

But if he said this, he was still indifferent, and even continued to murder him, then for him, this son could give up completely.

Boyo assisted the exhausted Old Man to return to his room.

As soon as he entered the door, Mr. Song looked like he had changed. He was sharp and alert, and his body was no longer as weak as before. He said coldly to Boyo: "Boyo, close the door, come to the study in the inner room, let me tell you something!"

Mr. Song's room is actually a large suite.

The living room, bedroom, living room and study are all in it, which is very private.

Especially the study room, which is located in the center of the whole suite, with other rooms on all sides as buffers. There is no open window, and conversations are difficult to be eavesdropped on.

Seeing Mr. Song suddenly becoming serious, Boyo suddenly had a long-lost familiar feeling.

Chapter 2106

Back then, when Mr. Song was in his prime, he acted vigorously and decisively.

From then on, Boyo followed him and saw him riding the wind and waves in the sea of commerce.

Every time Elder Song wants to do a big thing, he will look like this, with firm eyes and torch.

He hurriedly followed the old man into the study, and then, after the Old Man waited for him to close the door, Boyo was shocked by the first words he said!

“Boyo, start the monitoring system at home, from now on, give me a comprehensive monitoring of Tianming’s every move!”

As soon as Boyo heard this, his whole expression suddenly shrank!

Before he moved into this villa, Mr. Song specifically confessed to him that he found the best security company on the market and quietly installed a complete set of internal monitoring systems.

A total of four systems have been installed throughout the Song family villa.

The first set is a family security system to prevent thieves and criminals;

The second set is an outdoor monitoring system, which can shoot all positions inside and outside the wall and the entire courtyard without dead angles for 24 hours;

The third set is the emergency escape system, once a natural disaster occurs, or when there is sudden danger, it is used by the owner to escape.

The Song family knows these three systems very well, but the fourth set of internal monitoring systems is known to only two members of the family, one is Mr. Song and the other is Boyo.

This fourth system is the internal monitoring system.

The internal monitoring system monitors all the places in the entire villa in 360 degrees without blind spots. The concealed cameras are all very clever, and ordinary people may not be able to discover them in ten years, and these cameras are also equipped with high-fidelity orientation. The microphone can clearly capture the sound in every room.

The reason why Mr. Song installed this system is not because he has any desire to spy, but because he really sees more infighting among other giants around him. Some are even finding brothers and sisters for money, killing fathers and mothers for money, for the benefit of nothing. Do not use the extreme.

Therefore, Mr. Song, who has a strong sense of anxiety, was worried that something like this would happen to the Song family in the future, so he specially installed this internal monitoring system to fully monitor the other party and gain insight into the other party as soon as possible.

However, this system has been on standby 24 hours a day since its installation for so many years, but this system has never been actually used.

Mr. Song is also considered a decent gentleman. When his children and grandchildren show nothing wrong, he is unwilling to spy on his children and grandchildren's privacy.

But now, he has to use this system to monitor Tianming's actions, to see if he is not only the culprit in the murder of Warnia, but also intends to poison him!

Boyo asked nervously at this time: "Master, you suddenly want to activate this internal monitoring system. Is there any major change in the Song family?"

Old Man nodded his head with a heavy face: "Boyo, you and I have been together for many years is a fateful friendship, so when there is a problem in this family, you are the person I trust the most, so I will not hide this matter. Just before Tianming came back, Master Wade just called me. He said that Tianming and Honor had harmed Warnia, and that the father and son wanted to give me medicine and turn me into an Alzheimer's patient!"

"what?!"

Boyo said dumbfounded: "This...this...Master...you...are you kidding me?!"

Elder Song seriously said: "How can this kind of thing be a joke? If it weren't for Master Wade to tell me, I wouldn't believe it if I was killed."

Boyo thought for a moment, nodded solemnly, and said seriously: "Master is not an ordinary person. If he said that, he must have his reason. You must pay attention to this matter! You must take precautions!"

Father Song sighed: "This is from Master's mouth. I naturally take it seriously, so I have to activate the internal monitoring system to see what Tianming is doing and saying when he is not in front of me!"

Chapter 2107

The difficulty of running a large family is comparable to running a country.

Looking at the current big families fighting each other, it can be said to be exactly the same as the fighting between ancient princes recorded in history books.

For the throne, the ancient princes did not hesitate to kill their brothers and kill their fathers.

But such things are not uncommon in today's society, especially in large families with assets of more than 100 million.

Although the sons of the Song family have always been very united and harmonious before, Old Song has always planned the worst in his heart.

Now, the internal monitoring system he prepared has really come in handy.

Boyo immediately came to the bookcase and found a secret switch. After that, the bookcase slowly moved to the left, revealing a huge display embedded in the wall.

Boyo quickly turned on the monitor, and then said to Mr. Song: "Master, please verify it!"

Mr. Song nodded, took out his mobile phone, and opened an inconspicuous software from it.

This software is the entrance to this internal monitoring system.

To open the software, it must go through the same triple certification as the banking software.

These triple authentications are facial recognition, traditional passwords, and real-time mobile phone verification codes. If one is wrong, the software cannot be activated.

After Master Song successfully activated the system, the display on the wall immediately turned into a picture of as many as 210 small grids.

The pictures in these two hundred and ten small grids are from two hundred and ten cameras in different positions.

Father Song chose four of them, and the 210 pictures on the screen disappeared and turned into the four pictures he chose.

The area of these four pictures is much larger at once, and everything on the pictures can be clearly seen.

The four scenes that Mr. Song chose were Tianming's bedroom, Tianming's study, Tianming's living room, and gym.

At this time, Tianming had just returned to his room. In the picture, he walked through the living room to the bedroom, lying directly on the soft and comfortable bed.

When Grandpa Song saw his expression on the bed, he immediately believed what Charlie said in his heart.

He didn't believe Charlie before, but he still wanted to hold a glimmer of hope in his heart.

But at this moment, when he saw Tianming lying on the bed with stretched legs tilted and his face full of excitement, he knew that Tianming must have a problem!

Otherwise, his niece is alive or dead in a foreign country is still unsure, and he shouldn't have this expression no matter what.

Grandpa Song pointed to Tianming on the screen, and said sharply to Boyo: "Boyo look at this beast! He was so worried and so distressed just now in front of me, all the fuck is acting for me! Now he has this face. The expression on the face is the true portrayal of his heart! He is happy! And very happy!"

Boyo nodded and sighed: "It seems that what Master said is true, the young master does have a problem..."

Having said that, he couldn't help but admire: "Master, this internal monitoring system can not only determine their conspiracy, but also lock down evidence of their crime! You are really too prescient!"

Mr. Song sighed: "The ancestors said that if people are born in sorrow and die in happiness, if a person has no sense of anxiety, what is the difference from the animals waiting to be slaughtered in the slaughterhouse? Survive in society!"

Having said that, he said with grief: "But, I really didn't expect that my worries would become a reality!"

At this time, there was a ring of the cell phone ringing on the screen.

Tianming's cell phone rang.

Chapter 2108

Lying on the bed, Tianming immediately picked up the phone and said with a smile: "Honour, I'm home, yes, don't worry, the old thing hasn't noticed anything abnormal, he may be sick for too long, so he went back to his room to rest."

At this time, the high-fidelity directional microphone also caught Honor's voice on the phone, and he asked, "Dad, when are you going to give medicine to the old thing?"

Tianming smiled and said: "Don't worry, there is no suitable option right now. I just told the chef to stew a bowl of bird soup for your grandfather. Later I will take it first. After adding the medicine, I will send it to his room. Watch him drink it with my own eyes!"

Honor hurriedly asked again: "Dad, how long will this medicine take effect?"

Tianming said: "Time is running out. I give the old thing more dose. It should be effective within an hour or two after he takes it!"

Honor said with excitement: "That's really great! When the old things turn into Alzheimer's, Song family affairs, he will never have the opportunity to make trouble!"

Tianming hummed, and said, "Honor, you tonight. Take a good rest first. If Charlie has something to tell you to do, then you honestly follow his instructions and do not let him have any doubts. After I turn the old stuff into Alzheimer's, I will call you back, and then you can fly back to Aurous Hill directly."

Honor said excitedly: "Okay Dad, then I am waiting for your news!"

When Mr. Song heard this, he only felt anxious!

"Really!"

"This b@stard really wants to harm me!"

"I'm his biological father! Now he wants to poison me for a little family property!"

When Mr. Song said this, his whole body was shaking with anger.

He stood up, pointed at Tianming on the screen, and shouted angrily: "I have never done anything wrong with this son in my life. I didn't expect to give birth to such a wolf beast! I knew he was such a beast. I should have strangled him in a swaddle!"

"And the b@stard Honor! I have loved him since the day he was born. I didn't expect that he would do such an inferior thing for money!"

Boyo was equally shocked and angry, but he still hurried over to help Old Man, and said seriously: "Master, the top priority now is not to get angry, but to think about how to deal with it!"

After a pause, Boyo said again: "Don't say anything else, you must not take the bird soup that he prepared for you!"

"Not only can't it be taken, but we also have to work hard. From now on, all eating and drinking must be guarded strictly, and we must not leave him any opportunities!"

Grandpa Song shook his head with a sad expression on his face, waved his hand and said, "Boyo, since he already has the heart to harm me, if I keep guarding so strictly, it will let him realize that he has been exposed and become even more vicious! If he is not allowed to succeed, he might not just want to turn me into Alzheimer's, but want to make worst actions."

Boyo hurriedly asked him: "Master, are you planning to let them succeed and let you be at their mercy?"

Grandpa Song nodded and said seriously: "Boyo, I have the Rejuvenation Pill given to me by Master. He specially asked me to use it to resist poison. If you want to come, Master should not be able to cheat, so I will give it to them. One will count."

When Boyo heard this, he was relieved and sighed: "Fortunately, there is Master!"

Father Song couldn't help sighing: "Hey! Yeah! If it wasn't for Master, I would have killed the old bones, I don't know how many times I have died!"

Boyo nodded slightly and said, "Master, you have done good deeds throughout your life. Master may have been arranged by God to keep you safe throughout your life."

Grandpa Song smiled bitterly, and said, "Boyo, if I can do everything, I must act as a patient with Alzheimer's disease. At that time, you must not reveal any flaws!"

"The two beasts know that you are the person I trust the most. If they ask you about anything about me, you must know how to use wisdom to mediate with them!"

"You must know what you need to say and what you can say, and let them know that you are loyal to them!"

"But, what you can't say, don't mention a word!"

"Especially the existence of this internal monitoring system, we must never let them know, understand?"

Chapter 2109

Hearing the explanation from Mr. Song, Boyo did not hesitate to nod his head: "Master, rest assured, I must keep in mind the things you explained!"

Only then did Mr. Song relieved his mind, and then he waved his hand weakly and said, "Boyo, I'm a little tired. Go ahead and I'll take a rest."

Boyo said nervously: "Master, why don't you go to the bedroom to rest, I'll be guarding in the living room outside, you really don't worry..."

Grandpa Song gave a wry smile and asked him, "Are you afraid that you will not be in front of me when they give me medicine?"

"Yes..." Boyo's eyes were red, and he said very seriously: "Master, you are indeed very powerful, but this kind of thing, I am really afraid that something will happen..."

Old Man smiled indifferently: "Don't worry, since some things are beyond your control, you must feel relieved and boldly give it to someone more capable, and then trust that person wholeheartedly."

With that, Mr. Song said again: "It's as if you have just started skydiving. Before you can accumulate enough skydiving times, you must be led by the instructor. Every time you jump off the plane, your fate is not in your control. In your own hands, but in the hands of the coach behind you, what you have to do at this time is to safely and boldly entrust your life to him, and let professional people do professional things."

Boyo knew that the professional person he was talking about was Master Wade, so he nodded slightly and said, "Master, then I will do what you said."

Grandpa Song gave a hum, then nodded slightly, and exhorted: "After you go out, do what you should do, do the same. If I don't call you, or if there is nothing important, you should not come to me."

Boyo hurriedly said: "Okay Master, then you take a rest first, I'm going out!"

Father Song waved his hand, and sighed softly, "Hey...Go!"

After Boyo left, Mr. Song has been in front of the monitor, observing his son, who he has raised for 50 years.

The more he watched, the more he felt that the man in the video became stranger.

In the video, Tianming repeatedly played with a potion in his hand. His expression at this time was not half hesitating, but some were obviously excited and unable to hold back.

The Old Man's heart was dead ashes, and he became more and more certain that his son had almost no affection or kindness towards him.

An hour later, Tianming, who had long been unable to restrain himself, was already unable to sit still.

He didn't want to wait any longer, so he got up and went to the back kitchen.

According to his instructions, the chef has simmered the bird soup with rock sugar.

When Tianming came, he asked, "Is the bird soup prepared for the master ready to be stewed?"

The chef hurriedly said, "I have to wait ten minutes to get back to the young master."

Tianming waved his hand: "No longer, the old man is hungry, and he needs something to replenish his physical strength. Just serve me a bowl, and I will deliver it to the father myself."

The chef didn't dare to disobey, so he hurriedly pulled out a bowl, put it in the tray carefully, and said to Tianming, "Master, the bowl is very hot, be careful."

Tianming gave a hum, then returned to his room with the tray.

After returning to the room, he took out the medicine he had already prepared, and added one of the medicines to the bird soup in the bowl.

Seeing this scene, Mr. Song gave a wry smile and shook his head.

He was the only one in the study at this time, and he couldn't help muttering to himself: "Tianming, you and I have been a father and son for fifty years. Since today, you and I have been suffocated! The past is like a cloud of smoke from today, and you have blown it away. , It is completely dispersed!"

Afterward, he stood up, turned off the monitoring system, and restored the study to its original state.

Then from the mobile phone, the software that authorized the internal monitoring system was also completely deleted.

From now on, he was prepared to follow Charlie's statement completely, and to do everything.

Chapter 2110

Therefore, after Tianming will give him medicine and before Charlie comes back, he will become a patient with Alzheimer's.

Alzheimer's patients don't know how to use mobile phones, so they can't even touch their phones during this time.

Therefore, just in case, deleting the software directly will be more stable.

Later, Mr. Song found the Rejuvenating Pill, scraped a layer from it, soaked it in the water and took it.

Soon after, he went back to his bed and lay down.

At this moment, the visual screen at the head of the bed suddenly lit up, and Tianming appeared in the picture, followed by a melodious "Turkish March" ringtone.

This is the doorbell of Mr. Song's room.

Because his own suite was too big, when people were in the bedroom or study, they couldn't hear someone knocking on the door outside, so he rang the video doorbell.

Seeing that his eldest son came to his door with the medicined bird soup, Mr. Song gave a light sigh and pressed the answer button: "Tianming, are you okay?"

Tianming hurriedly said to the camera: "Dad, are you asleep?"

Mr. Song deliberately made his voice a little tired and said: "I was awakened by you as soon as I fell asleep, why are you so anxious?"

Tianming hurriedly said: Dad, I just saw you look exhausted, so I asked the chef to stew a bowl of bird soup with rock sugar."

Grandpa Song gave a hum and said, "You are so caring, come in."

After that, he pressed the door button.

Tianming heard the click of the door and knew that the door lock had been released, so he pushed the door into the room, walked through the living room, and came to the bedroom.

He stepped to the bed of Mr. Song and asked with concern: "Dad, how are you feeling?"

Elder Song said absently: "It's okay, squinting for a while."

After speaking, he couldn't wait to ask: "How is Warnia? Is there any news from Japan?"

Tianming shook his head and said with a bit of pain on his expression: "Dad, there is no valuable news from Japan. I am also continuing to communicate with Honor. At the same time, I have asked him to find from the Japanese TMPD some specific clues, I will inform you as soon as possible."

Father Song nodded, and sighed: "I feel more at ease when you came back."

Tianming smiled slightly and said respectfully: "Dad, the rock sugar bird soup is very suitable for replenishing qi and blood. Drink it while it's hot now!"

A trace of sadness flashed in the eyes of Old Man.

In the end, his own son still has to do something against himself.

So he sat up without hesitation and said to Tianming, "Come, help me to sit in the living room for a while, I'll drink in the living room!"

Tianming was overjoyed and said hurriedly: "OK dad! I will help you to the living room!"

Tianming helped the old man into the living room, let him sit down on the sofa, and immediately handed over the bird soup with rock sugar, and said respectfully: "Dad, you drink it while it is hot."

Without any hesitation, Mr. Song nodded and took the bowl of bird soup with rock sugar, took a sip, and exclaimed, "It tastes good, you are so caring!"

Tianming didn't expect things to go so smoothly, he couldn't help but feel ecstatic, and said with a smile: "Dad, what are you doing so politely with me, isn't this all I should do?"

"What should be done?" Old Man smiled and nodded seriously. He suppressed the sorrow deep in his heart and sighed from the bottom of his heart: "Oh, that's right, it should be done, it should be done! I have a good son! Hahahaha!"

Chapter 2111

Father Song suddenly sighed, making Tianming more or less guilty.

However, he carefully observed the Old Man and found that there was nothing wrong with him, so he was relieved.

He felt that he had almost no intention of rebelling against the old man. Even if he wanted to give up the position of Song Family Patriarch to Warnia, he himself did not express very strong opposition, so the old man should not doubt him.

So, he smiled and said respectfully, "Dad, you drink more while it's hot, and I will let the chef stew you a pot of nutrient soup in the evening to replenish your body."

Mr. Song nodded, did not speak, but ate all the bird soup in the bowl.

Seeing the old man eat up the bird soup in the bowl, Tianming was completely relieved and sneered in his heart: "Warnia's life and death are unclear, and the old thing has become demented. No one in the Song family can be an enemy of mine! Old things have always It is the eldest son who inherited the throne, if you insist on giving me this monster moth, don't blame me for being cruel!"

Afterwards, he smiled and said to the old man: "Dad, you can rest for a while, I will go out and call Honor and ask him how he is doing now."

The old man nodded gently: "Go."

Tianming stepped out of the old man's room, did not really call Honor immediately, but directly found one of his confidants, called him to his room, and said seriously: "From now on, keep an eye on the old man. You must tell me everything he does and what the old man said. Do you understand?"

The other party nodded immediately: "Understand the master."

At this moment, Father Song lying on the bed suddenly felt a headache, and the painful entire brain seemed to be abruptly stripped out.

But soon, there was warm energy in his body that completely drove the pain away from his body.

He knew very well in his heart that the headache must originate from the neurotoxin that Tianming had given him.

And that warm energy is just a small amount of rejuvenation pills that he took in advance.

The old man couldn't help but sighed: "It seems that the Rejuvenation Pill really can resist all kinds of poisons, as Master said! Since it has escaped the damage of neurotoxins, the next thing to do is to pretend to be foolish for 24 hours. He must ensure that no one sees any flaws before Master returns!"

So he took advantage of this relatively free time in the end and took out his mobile phone to check the symptoms of Alzheimer's disease.

He found that Alzheimer's disease, can cause memory impairment, as well as loss of cognitive ability, language ability, and visual ability.

Severe Alzheimer's disease has not only severe memory loss, but also symptoms such as incontinence, body stiffness, and hollow eyes.

Seeing this, Mr. Song secretly thought in his heart: "It seems that if I want that rebellious son to completely believe that I have become Alzheimer's, I must show symptoms of severe dementia. Only in this way can he be completely relieved."

After an hour.

Tianming has been paying attention to the time. Now it has been an hour and a half since the father took the medicine. It stands to reason that the effect of the medicine has already occurred.

So he planned to go to the old man's room to see the situation.

When he came to the door of the old man's room and pressed the doorbell, there was no response in the room.

He was overjoyed, but on the surface, he pressed it again without showing off.

This time there was still no response.

So he pretended to panic and said: "Come on! Come on!"

Chapter 2112

Suddenly, several servants ran over and asked, "Master, what happened?!"

Tianming said, "He didn't respond when I pressed the doorbell of the master. I am afraid that he might have an accident. You should help me knock the door open!"

When several servants heard this, they suddenly became nervous, and one of them took the initiative: "I'll come!"

Another hurriedly said: "I'll be with you!"

At this time, Boyo also rushed to hear the news and asked nervously: "Young master, what happened to the master?!"

Tianming saw him and said hurriedly: "Boyo, you came just right. Father is in the room and he has no response after pressing the doorbell several times. I'm afraid he will have an accident!"

Boyo's heart was tense, and he suddenly realized that Tianming should have given the old man medicine, and suddenly he felt a little angry, sad, and worried.

He didn't know whether Charlie's method could save the old man from disaster.

However, he did not dare to show any hesitation, and said hurriedly: "Then slam the door open and go in and have a look!"

Several servants had already begun to work hard together and ran into the gate. After several times, the gate was knocked open with a bang.

Immediately afterwards, Tianming pulled away the left and right people, his face was nervous, and he rushed in first. As soon as he entered, he went straight to the bedroom, running, and shouting: "Dad! Dad, you're all right, dad!"

With that, he pushed open the bedroom door!

As soon as Tianming entered the door, he was immediately stunned by the sight in front of him!

Then Boyo, who rushed in, and several of his servants were also frightened by the situation in front of them!

In the meantime, Father Song was standing by the bed with a dazed expression.

He was wearing only a pair of boxer briefs. There were a few strands of yellow sh!t flowing along the two legs at the base of his thigh. The expensive hand-made wool carpet was full of filth mixed with sh!t and urine, and the whole room was full of foul smell.

Seeing so many people suddenly rushing in, Mr. Song was so frightened that he burst into tears. He stumbled to the balcony and cried out, "Who are you...what are you doing?"

Seeing the old man's appearance, Tianming was happy!

"The old thing really is Alzheimer's! Can't even control his bowels! This is really stable!"

Although he thought so in his heart, he was still very nervous on the surface, and rushed over, regardless of his filth, he kept him tight, and cried, "Dad, what's the matter with you, Dad? You don't recognize me? I am God. Ming!"

Although the Old Man was angry at this time, he still admired his son.

"This beast is really capable of bending and stretching out. I am so dirty that he can come up to hug me without hesitation in front of so many people, and he is so real.

It seems that he is also the number one character!"

Thinking of this, Mr. Song couldn't help but laugh at himself:

"Why am I not the same? In order to make him completely believe that even things like incontinence can be performed, compared to this beast, he is more able to survive."

Although he had mixed feelings in his heart, the play still had to go on, so he desperately tried to break free from Tianming, crying loudly, "Kill...Kill!"

Tianming cried loudly and said, "Boyo! Hurry up to arrange a car and take dad to the hospital! Hurry up!"

Chapter 2113

Tianming hurriedly went back to his room and changed into clean clothes while Boyo took Mr. Song to the hospital.

In the process of changing clothes, he had already called Honor and officially informed Honor and asked him to return to Aurous Hill immediately.

Honor has been waiting for the news, so he arranged for the private jet to prepare for takeoff almost immediately, and was scheduled to leave Tokyo early tomorrow morning.

In order to prevent Charlie from doubting, Honor also called Charlie respectfully. On the phone, he said respectfully: "Master, my father called me just now. Grandpa seems to have a little problem. I have to rush back as soon as possible, so I may leave Tokyo early tomorrow morning..."

Charlie pretended to be surprised and asked, "Honor, what's wrong with your grandpa? Is it a serious problem?"

Honor hurriedly said: "Master, don't worry, my dad said there is nothing serious, but his mind seems to be a little unconscious, so I hurried back to take a look."

As he said, he said with some pleading: "Master, I have to leave Tokyo temporarily this time. I can only ask you to find Warnia. Please do your best to find her and bring her back to Aurous Hill, she represents our family, thank you!"

Charlie snorted and said, "Don't worry, I will do my best. The best case is that I will be able to take Warnia back to Aurous Hill in a few days."

Honor on the other end of the phone sneered when he heard this, "The surname is Wade, did you fucking wake up? Warnia has been missing for more than 24 hours. Even if she didn't die in the car accident, she was in that mountain. I guess there is no way for her to survive in the old forest after so long!"

"Furthermore, the deep mountains of Nishitama County are inaccessible, and there are many wild animals. Maybe her body is now eaten by the birds and beasts in the mountains and only the bones are left. Do you want to take her back to Aurous Hill?! Have your dream of spring and autumn come together?"

However, even though he thought so in his heart, Honor still said very sincerely: "Master, thank you so much!"

Charlie said indifferently: "Don't be so polite, it's not too early, you take a good rest, go back tomorrow morning, and help Mr. Song et well by the way."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie wiped a mocking smile from the corner of his mouth.

Tianming and Honor his son must be very proud now.

They must feel that Warnia has a high probability of dying, and Mr. Song himself has become Alzheimer's, and now the entire Song family has become their possession.

Okay, let them be proud.

After Honor left, he sneaked away from Tokyo with his lover and returned to Aurous Hill quietly, catching them by surprise!

At that time, they thought that Mr. Song, who had become Alzheimer's, would also tear off the disguise, interact with them inside and outside, and give them a fatal blow!

Just thinking, Nanako ran over, knocked on Charlie's half-open sliding door, poked her head in and smiled sweetly, and said, "Master, Miss Song is awake."

Charlie smiled and said, "She slept all day and finally woke up."

Nanako smiled and said, "She was frightened last night, and after walking in the mountains for so long, she must be exhausted. It is normal to sleep longer."

Then, she said: "By the way, Master, I have arranged for Miss Song to go to the hot springs to relieve fatigue. My father sent someone to send a freshly caught bluefin tuna, and the family members prepared two bottles of Yamazaki 50. In the evening, I invite you and Miss Song to eat sashimi and sushi."

Bluefin tuna is the most expensive fish, the quality is really good, one piece is worth ten million, and the next one kilogram is more than ten thousand dollars.

And this is not the terminal retail price, this is the package auction price of the whole fish.

Chapter 2114

In the past two years, a big Japanese boss bought a bluefin tuna weighing 278 kilograms, which cost a full 3.1 million U.S. dollars, and the average price per kilogram was 11,000 U.S. dollars.

And if this quality of bluefin tuna is delivered to top restaurants, the price will be several times higher.

Eat the most expensive bluefin tuna in the most high-end shops. The price of fish is even more expensive than gold.

As for the Yamazaki Fifty Years Old Whiskey, it is the top whisky of Japan's national treasure, with a single bottle of more than RMB 3 million.

Takehiko used such expensive ingredients and drinks to host a banquet, which is enough to see how much he values Charlie.

When Charlie came to the restaurant, Takehiko had been waiting here for a long time.

At this time, a huge bluefin tuna was placed in the center of the huge wooden dining table. The body of this bluefin tuna was covered with ice cubes made of frozen pure water.

A chef is holding a sashimi knife standing next to him. After the meal is opened, he will directly cut different parts from the bluefin tuna for the guests to enjoy.

Seeing Charlie's arrival, Takehiko hurriedly said with enthusiasm: "Mr. Wade, please take a seat! Mr. Wade has good fortune today. This is a bluefin tuna brought by the fishing boat just an hour ago. It is the best quality in Tokyo this year. Good one!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said seriously: "Mr. Ito is really too polite. In fact, I don't have much demand for food. You don't have to spend so much."

Takehiko said very seriously: "Mr. Wade is a distinguished guest of our unified family, and the best ingredients and wine are naturally used to entertain distinguished guests!"

Then, he asked Nanako: "Nanako, Miss Song hasn't gotten up yet?"

Nanako smiled and said, "Ms. Song is in the hot spring. I have ordered to bring her over after she finishes the hot spring."

"Okay." Takehiko nodded lightly and smiled: "Then we will wait for Miss Song to come."

Charlie remembered something at this time and asked Takehiko: "By the way, Mr. Ito, I want to ask you something."

Takehiko hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, you don't have to be so polite, just ask if you have anything, I must know everything!"

Charlie nodded and asked him: "If I want to leave Japan quietly without disturbing the customs, do you have any good ideas?"

Takehiko thought for a while, and said, "If you don't want to disturb the customs, you can only use the smuggling road."

Charlie asked again: "How is it more convenient to smuggle? Is it feasible?"

Takehiko explained: "There is basically only one way to smuggle from the sea by boat, especially an island country like Japan, which is not bordered by any country. If you want to leave secretly, there are only two roads, the sea, and the sky. The aircraft control is extremely strict and there is basically no operating space, so the only option is to go by sea."

With that said, Takehiko said again: "Japan has a long coastline, and shipping is relatively developed. There are too many ships coming and going. It is not difficult to smuggle out by the sea."

Charlie heard this and said to him: "Mr. Ito, please help me prepare a boat. I want to take Warnia back to China."

"Smuggling back?" Ito said in a puzzled way: "Mr. Wade, if you want to smuggle back to your country, you must not only conceal the customs in Japan, but also conceal the customs in your country. It's a bit too tossing... .."

"It doesn't matter." Charlie said seriously: "Aurous Hill can solve it, I will let people prepare everything, mainly because I have no one in Japan. The only friend who can ask for help is you. I don't know if you can get a boat for me and let Warnia and me leave Japan quietly by boat?"

Chapter 2115

Hearing Charlie's request, Ito said without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, boats are a trivial matter. I can prepare a luxury yacht for you at any time and make sure that you can leave Tokyo by sea without any hindrance. I just don't know when do you plan to leave?"

Charlie asked him: "How long will it take to return home by the sea?"

Takehiko said: "Luxury yachts are generally large in size. Large ships have high stability and strong resistance to wind and waves, but their speed will be slightly slower. The average speed per hour is only about 50 or 60 kilometers. From here to Aurous Hill, you must first go to the Yangtze River estuary in Zhonghai City, a distance of about 2,000 kilometers, and at least 30 hours of sailing."

While talking, Takehiko said again: "But because we are smuggling the ship, we still need time to deal with the Coast Guard, and the speed will definitely slow down when we get to the shore. So I estimate that it will take at least three times to get from Tokyo to Zhonghai."

Charlie smacked his lips and said, "Thirty-five hours...it's really a bit longer..."

Ito nodded and said helplessly: "Smuggling is the fastest. You know, smuggling is basically by sea. If you are smuggling from Asia to North America, it will take more than a month to float at sea. "

Charlie said, "This is only the time to get to Zhonghai. From Zhonghai to Aurous Hill, it will take at least a few hours?"

Takehiko explained: "If you still take a boat from Zhonghai to Aurous Hill, this is estimated to be another seven or eight hours' voyage. However, if you are in a hurry, I would suggest that you go to Aurous Hill by helicopter from the shores of Zhonghai, in that case, just over an hour."

Charlie immediately said, "Okay, if that's the case, please trouble Mr. Ito to prepare the ship as soon as possible. I want to leave tonight."

Both Takehiko and Nanako were shocked. The father and daughter said in unison: "Huh? Leaving tonight?!"

Charlie nodded, and solemnly said: "Honor went back by plane, and arrived in Aurous Hill in more than two hours. I can't take Warnia to fly directly. After all, the entire TMPD thinks Warnia is missing. Searching hard, the customs are connected with them. If Warnia suddenly exits the customs, the TMPD will get the news as soon as possible. At that time, I am afraid that she will be detained by the customs and checked."

After speaking, Charlie added: "Furthermore, Tianming and Honor must still fully monitor Warnia's whereabouts. Once she appears at the customs, it will be completely exposed. So, to be cautious, let her continue. She remains missing in front of the outside world, and then quietly leave Japan and returned to Aurous Hill."

Nanako was feeling a little lost at this time, and Takehiko next to him said, "Mr. Wade, it's hard to come here, why not stay for two days, so that I can do everything you like as a landlord!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I understand Mr. Ito's kindness, but this matter is really important. If I delay, I am afraid that something will happen in Aurous Hill. After all, Warnia's grandfather is still in Aurous Hill."

Takehiko suddenly realized, and hurriedly said: "I understand! This is indeed a rush, or else, I will have someone prepare the ship now, and then take care of the relationship with the coast guard, and strive to be able to set off at one or two o'clock tonight."

Charlie said gratefully, "Thank you so much, Mr. Ito."

Takehiko quickly waved his hand: "You are welcome, Mr. Wade, you are the great benefactor of the Ito family, I should do things for you!"

As he said, he took out his cell phone and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, I'll make arrangements on the call, and let me be out of company first."

Charlie nodded and said, "I also want to make a call to settle the domestic affairs."

Afterward, Charlie took out his mobile phone, pulled a group on WeChat, pulled Issac and Orvel into the group, and said, "Are you two taking it easy now? If it's convenient, let's have a conference call."

The two immediately replied: "Convenient!"

Charlie immediately initiated a group voice call, and Issac and Orvel connected one after another.

Issac came in first, and said, "Master, what is it?"

Chapter 2116

Then Orvel also came in: "Master, what do you want to order?"

Charlie said, "That's right, you two are people I can trust, so what I will tell you next, you must keep it strictly confidential and strictly enforce it, do you understand?"

The two said in unison: "Don't worry! We must keep it strictly confidential! Strictly enforce it!"

Charlie gave a hum and continued: "Tianming and Honor are about to usurp the throne in the Song family. You two quickly contact Tianming and tell him that Mr. Song's body is out of condition, so wanted to visit Song's father, pay more attention to Father Song's physical condition and personal safety."

Issac blurted out: "The Song family and his son are going to usurp the throne?! Then Miss Warnia had an accident in Tokyo, did they also do it?"

Charlie said coldly: "Yes, they arranged it alone."

Orvel gritted his teeth and said: "D@mn! This father and son are really mean-hearted, and even their relatives can not be spared! I'll let the brothers hack them to death!"

Charlie exhorted: "Don't be so impulsive, I will solve them, father and son, and what you have to do is to protect the safety of Mr. Song."

Orvel had no choice but to say angrily: "Okay Master, I will listen to you!"

Charlie said again: "One more thing, I'm going to take Warnia to return home by sea. Then the ship will dock at Zhonghai. Mr. Issac, you can arrange a helicopter in advance for me. When we arrive, we will transfer to the helicopter immediately!"

Issac said without hesitation: "No problem, master, I will arrange to let the helicopter wait for you at Zhonghai!"

Charlie said with satisfaction: "Okay, you two will closely monitor the Song family's father and son's every move, and report any actions to me in time."

After the phone call, Warnia, who had just finished soaking in the hot spring, walked over quickly under the leadership of someone from the Ito family.

When she arrived, he said embarrassedly: "I'm so sorry, I made everyone wait for me..."

Nanako hurriedly smiled and said, "Miss Song, don't be so polite, we just sat down."

With that, she stood up and said, "Miss Song, would you like to sit with me?"

Warnia nodded: "Okay, thank you Miss Ito."

With that, she sat down beside Nanako.

Nanako looked at her still wet hair, and smiled, and said, "Miss Song's hair is really good, black and shiny, and it has a lot of volumes. I don't know what you do to maintain the hair normally?"

Warnia smiled slightly and said, "I usually use a kind of ginger shampoo, which has a hair growth effect. When combined with a nourishing hair mask, the hair quality can be guaranteed. However, the brand I used should not be available in Japan. I can mail some."

Nanako said excitedly: "Oh, thank you so much, Miss Song!"

Warnia smiled and said, "Miss Ito doesn't have to be so polite, and there is no need to always call me Miss Song, just call me Warnia."

Nanako said earnestly: "Miss Song is older than me, then I should call you Sister Warnia!"

Chapter 2117

Nanako is still in her senior year, 22 years old, about the same age as Aoxue.

Warnia is about the same age as Charlie.

Therefore, she is four years older than Nanako.

It was reasonable for Nanako to call her sister.

But Warnia was flattered by Nanako's attitude.

Nanako is now the head of the Ito family, the largest family in Japan, whose family strength is ten times that of the Song family.

With such strength, she can still be so polite to Warnia and actively call her sister. Naturally, Warnia is moved and feels a little closer to Nanako.

After all, it was a woman who shared a lot of topics in common, so the two of them quickly talked in full swing.

At this time, Takehiko also came back. He first greeted Warnia politely, and then he said: "Mr. Wade, the ship has been arranged. To board the ship at the Tokyo container port tonight, you are really lucky. Well, internal sources say that tonight the Coast Guard's patrol is conducting equipment overhauls, so maritime supervision will be very lax, and going to sea tonight is the easiest."

While speaking, Takehiko said again: "But I have also greeted the Coast Guard. If they change anything, they will not conduct any inspections on the boat you are on."

"Okay." Charlie nodded with satisfaction, and said: "Mr. Ito I am troubling you in this matter."

Ito said respectfully: "Mr. Wade and I don't have to be so polite!"

Warnia, who was whispering to Nanako, suddenly heard this and hurriedly asked Charlie, "Shall we leave tonight Master?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Let's leave by boat tonight."

Warnia's heart was tense, and she hurriedly asked, "Master, has something happened in Aurous Hill?"

Charlie didn't tell her about Tianming and Honor's medicine for Father Song, so he smiled slightly and said, "Don't think about it, nothing has happened, but I want to take you quietly without disturbing anyone."

Warnia nodded lightly, and said gratefully: "Thank you, Master."

After speaking, she looked at Takehiko and Nanako, and bowed slightly: "Mr. Ito, Miss Nanako, thank you for your help and care!"

Nanako hurriedly said, "Sister Warnia, don't be so polite with us. Don't forget that you are my elder sister. We are also good sisters. From now on, this will be your home. If you come to Japan anytime, please stay at my home!"

With that said, Nanako looked at Charlie again, and said with dismay, "The same goes for Master. Please remember that this is Master's home in Japan!"

Charlie nodded slightly, smiled, and said, "Don't worry, I will remember."

Takehiko hurriedly said: "By the way, Ms. Song doesn't want to cooperate with Nippon Steel? Do you want me to call Watanabe over and let him sign the cooperation agreement with you first?"

Warnia was speechless in surprise. Charlie took the lead at this time and asked, "Is this person highly credible? Will he disclose Warnia's situation to the outside world?"

Takehiko promised: "Mr. Wade can rest assured, Watanabe is absolutely reliable. I will tell him to keep secrets strictly and he will not talk nonsense."

Charlie nodded: "Well, in that case, please I ask Mr. Ito to ask him over for me, and sign the contract tonight."

Warnia hurriedly said, "Master, is this appropriate?"

Although she also wanted to win the Nippon Steel's cooperation agreement, this operation was not a normal business cooperation negotiation at all, but completely used Ito's favor. She was very worried that Charlie would owe Ito for her. She is too emotional.

Charlie smiled indifferently at this time and said: "You don't have to worry about this matter, I will make the decision."

Warnia wanted to say something, but after thinking about it, she gave up.

She knew that she already owed Charlie too much. Anyway, her life and heart belonged to him. As long as he nodded his head, her body and even the entire Song family could belong to him, so she didn't need to care too much. How much does she owe him?

Chapter 2118

Charlie remembered one thing, and said to Takehiko: "By the way, Mr. Ito, I have to trouble you and do one more thing for me."

Takehiko hurriedly said, "Please tell me."

Charlie said, "What's the name of the vice president of Nippon Steel who docked with Warnia? Hashimoto, right?"

"Yes." Ito Nodded: "It's Hashimoto Kinzie!"

Charlie sneered and said, "You send a few ninjas and tie them to me, but don't send them here after you've tied them. You can get me to the dock directly, and then put them in the cabin. I will take him to Aurous Hill!"

Takehiko said without hesitation: "Okay Mr. Wade, I will make arrangements!"

Although Hashimoto Kinzin is an executive of Nippon Steel, he can be regarded as a man of good looks, but he is still far behind the Ito family.

He usually takes a driver and two bodyguards at most, but he certainly can't afford a ninja, such a top Japanese existence, so sending a few ninjas to tie him is absolutely easy.

Takehiko arranged both matters in an orderly manner.

He asked his family's ninja to immediately tie up Hashimoto, and at the same time he called Nippon Steel's chairman Shinwa Watanabe and invited him to talk at home.

Although Watanabe was the chairman of Nippon Steel, he respected Takehiko, and drove over immediately when he heard his call.

And the two lived very close, so ten minutes later, he had already arrived at Ito's home.

As soon as Watanabe entered the door and saw Takehiko, he hurried forward and said with a bit of humility: "Brother Ito, I don't know if you are looking for me so late, what can I do for you?"

Takehiko smiled slightly, and said playfully: "Calling you over so late will not delay the world of you and your wife?"

Watanabe smiled awkwardly, his expression a little lonely.

Although Watanabe is about the same age as Takehiko this year, and his physical condition is relatively good, only in the matter of men and women, there is something unspeakable.

He didn't know what was going on. He was good everywhere, but his ability was getting worse and worse.

Originally, he and his wife lived together at least three times a week, and the two were considered harmonious.

But in the past two years, the desire and ability in this area have plummeted.

From three times a week, to once a week, once every two weeks.

Now, he has reached a month and it is difficult to have a state once.

Watanabe has been to many hospitals and looked for many experts, but the feedback they gave is that this ability is sometimes irrelevant to the overall condition of the body.

Some people are obviously very healthy, and can even be said to be very strong, but that's not enough.

But some people look at the wind as they fall down, but they are incredibly strong in that respect.

Physical fitness cannot be equated with that ability.

Moreover, the ability in that area is also very troublesome to treat. Some are physiological degeneration, some are neurological degeneration, and some are psychological degeneration.

All in all, if something goes wrong in this regard, no matter how rich it is, it may not be cured.

Because of this, Watanabe was only troubled by this incident, but he was ashamed to tell others about this incident, so Ito didn't know anything about it.

However, Charlie saw the melancholy between Watanabe and his expression, and then carefully looked at his expression, and he knew the situation well.

Chapter 2119

At this time, after Takehiko and Watanabe chatted a few more words, Takehiko entered the topic.

"Shinwa, I have two things to come to you this time. The first thing is to taste bluefin tuna and taste Yamazaki 50-year-old whiskey."

Watanabe smiled slightly, and asked with a smile, "What about the other thing?"

Takehiko smiled and said, "Don't you want to build a joint venture in China? I will introduce you to a good partner, Miss Warnia Song from the Song Group."

After that, Ito pointed at Warnia at the dinner table.

Only then did Watanabe see Warnia.

The whole person was immediately stunned.

He was shocked and said: "Song...Miss Song?! Hasn't she been reported missing on TV after the accident?! Why... how could she be here?!"

Takehiko said at this moment: "Miss Song is a distinguished guest in my family. She encountered an emergency this time. Because the matter was more sensitive, she did not disclose her whereabouts. Shinwa, you must keep a secret, understand?"

When Watanabe heard this, he nodded hurriedly and said solemnly: "Brother Ito, don't worry, I will never reveal a word!"

Ito smiled with satisfaction and said: "In this case, you first represent Nippon Steel and sign the cooperation agreement with Ms. Song!"

Having said that, Takehiko said very seriously: "Brother, I'm selling my face. In terms of cooperation terms, we must make appropriate concessions!"

Watanabe said without hesitation: "Brother Ito, since you have spoken, I will definitely give the best discount in terms of terms!"

Warnia hurriedly stood up at this time and said to Watanabe: "Mr. Watanabe, I have been admiring your name for a long time! I am Warnia Song, and I hope you will take care of me in the future.

Watanabe nodded and smiled and said, "Miss Song, since you are a distinguished guest of Brother Ito, you are naturally also a distinguished guest of Watanabe. In our daily overseas cooperation, we generally strive for holding, but since Brother Ito speaks. Now, let's just keep it simple. You hold 51% of the shares and we hold 49%. What do you think?"

Warnia's biggest goal in coming to Japan this time is to reach holding cooperation with Nippon Steel.

She is completely satisfied with the Song Group holding 51%.

She talked to that Hashimoto for so long before, and tried to get a 50% shareholding of both parties but failed. So now Watanabe directly agreed to let the Song Group hold 51%, which made her immediately excited.

So Warnia hurriedly bowed to Watanabe and thanked: "Mr. Watanabe, thank you so much! I believe we, the Song Group, will definitely not disappoint you!"

Watanabe is also very fine on the road, pointing directly at the Takehiko next to him, and earnestly said: "Miss Song, you have to thank Brother Ito for this matter. Brother Ito spoke, I naturally raised my hands in agreement."

For Watanabe, he doesn't know Warnia, so he doesn't care whether Warnia owes him favors. What he cares about is letting Ito take his favors in mind, and if he needs it in the future, he will ask Takehiko to get them back.

When Warnia heard this, she looked at Takehiko gratefully, and said thankfully, "Mr. Ito, thank you for your help. Warnia is indebted!"

Takehiko is even more of a human spirit. He doesn't want Warnia to owe him a favor. The reason why he helped is for Charlie's sake, so he hurriedly said: "Miss Song, in the final analysis, I still have to thank Mr. Wade for everything!"

Charlie looked at the performance of Takehiko and Watanabe, with a slight smile on his face.

He is very clear about the mentality of these two people.

It's nothing more than a chain of relationships.

Chapter 2120

If that's the case, then just put the favor of both of them on himself.

And since it's hanging on him, don't owe it all the time. In order to avoid long nights and dreams, just pay it back before you leave!

Thinking of this, Charlie said to Warnia and Nanako, "Warnia, Nanako, please avoid me for a while. We men have something to talk about in private."

Nanako stood up without hesitation and smiled: "Sister Warnia, do you like puppies?"

Warnia nodded: "I like them!"

Nanako smiled and said, "I have a few purebred Akita dogs at home, and six little ones who are just two months old. They are very cute. They are raised in the east yard. I will take you to see?"

Warnia said excitedly: "Great, let's go now!"

"Ok!"

Seeing Nanako and Warnia go hand in hand, Charlie retracted his gaze, looked at Watanabe, and said with a smile: "Mr. Watanabe, Warnia is a good friend of mine. Can you agree to let her work together? I am very grateful for her 51% shareholding."

Watanabe replayed the old and new tunes, and hurriedly said, "Oh, it's all because of Brother Ito's face..."

Charlie waved his hand to interrupt him and said seriously: "Mr. Watanabe, it's better not to look at the face of Mr. Ito. I want you to look at the face of your own body and make this cooperation concession bigger. , What do you think?"

Watanabe was surprised. Defeated in the heart:

"What does it mean to look at the face of my own body?"

"What does it mean to make the concession bigger?"

While wondering, he asked curiously, "Mr. Wade, what do you mean by this?"

Charlie smiled indifferently, and asked with an inscrutable look: "If I read it right, Mr. Watanabe should be very worried about the body now?"

Watanabe hurriedly said: "No, I am very healthy, and I often go to the gym to do exercises. The average middle-aged and elderly men do not pay attention to exercise."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Exercise can naturally strengthen the body, but everyone is a man, and there is no woman present. I will not hide some words. Mr. Watanabe's two years of married life It should be very uncoordinated, right?"

As soon as he said this, Watanabe's expression was horrified, but also full of embarrassment appeared in his heart, "This is the most difficult hidden illness in my heart, except for my wife and me, and the doctor I have visited. , No one knows, how could Charlie know this?!"

Takehiko was also a little shocked and subconsciously asked, "Shinwa, you are not too old. Did something go wrong so early?"

Watanabe flushed with embarrassment, grabbed his hair in a panic, and smirked, "This...this...hey...Mr. Wade is really extraordinary. Can you even see this kind of thing?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "In the nearly lost ancient Chinese medicine, it is said that people have three types of qi, namely blood qi, vitality, and essence."

"Blood qi governs the outside and vitality is the inside. As for the essence, it is more reflected in the affairs of men and women."

"Blood qi is strong, and vitality is long, but neither qi has much to do with essence."

"Don't look at your vitality and blood, but your energy is sluggish."

"Without the essence, even if your body is strong, you still have strength and energy when doing things with men and women."

At this time, Watanabe ignored the embarrassment, and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, since you have such supernatural powers and can see the crux of my body at a glance, I don't know if you can cure me?!"

Chapter 2121

Charlie looked at Watanabe with a look of excitement and eagerness. He tapped his finger on the table twice, and said with a smile: "Mr. Watanabe, I, never say anything that is unsure, if I can't cure it. Of course, I won't say it."

Watanabe was so excited immediately, he blurted out: "Mr. Wade! If you can really cure me, no matter what the conditions are, I will agree!"

For Watanabe, although he is not as rich as Takehiko, he is still one of Japan's top rich.

After having so much money, making money has long ceased to be his first motivation in life.

His first motivation is to enjoy life.

Ironically, when it comes to enjoying life, you lose the body to enjoy life.

For Watanabe, this kind of pain is an unbearable burden.

However, this kind of hidden disease often has nothing to do with the amount of money or power and resources, but no matter how rich he is, the place cannot be used, and no one can save him.

Charlie looked at Watanabe at this time, smiled lightly, and pointed to Takehiko Ito: "Mr. Watanabe, for the face of Mr. Ito and the reason you just promised to cooperate with Miss Song, I can cure your hidden illness, but I have another request..."

Watanabe was very excited: "If you have any requests, please mention them!"

Charlie gave a hum, and said: "It's the terms of cooperation between you and Miss Song, and make a little more concession."

Watanabe nodded repeatedly, and couldn't wait to say: "How to make concessions, you decide the terms!"

Charlie smiled and said: "In this way, both of you will contribute capital at a ratio of five to five, but the equity will be distributed at a ratio of six to four. In other words, Miss Song's Song Group has to own 60% of the equity in the joint venture. Do you have any questions?"

As soon as Charlie said this, Takehiko was blindfolded, and he thought to himself: "Charlie is too dark, right? Is this person always so dark? When he opens his mouth, he will invest five or five shares and share four or six shares. He ruined 10% of the shares..."

"Moreover, this is not a project of several hundred million. For a steel company to invest at least 20 to 30 billion, if you want to take 10% of the shares of others, the corresponding amount is to go to 2 to 3 billion!"

However, Watanabe nodded and said without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, as long as you can heal me, I have no opinion on your condition!"

In the past few years, Watanabe has exhausted all his patience and hope in the process of seeking medical advice everywhere.

Before he saw Charlie, he already had a very clear and affirmative understanding of this matter, that is, even if he let himself take out 10% or even 20% of his personal assets, as long as he can find it again The meaning and pleasure of being a man, he agreed without hesitation.

After the money reaches a certain amount, it is just a number, no amount of practical significance.

However, his own male prowess is half the fun of a man's entire life!

Give up 10% of the shares and reap the joy of life for the other half of a man. This transaction is really worth it.

Charlie nodded slightly, and said, "I have medicine here. You can take it and it will take effect."

After that, he looked at Takehiko again and said: "Mr. Ito also helped me and Ms. Song a lot this time. I said before that I will help you to adjust your body before leaving. Mr. Ito will receive treatment together."

As soon as Takehiko heard this, his heart was immediately excited.

He thought to himself: "From the changes before and after his daughter Nanako, I can see Charlie's supernatural powers!"

"The injury that my daughter suffered at that time was helpless by all top doctors, but I didn't expect that Charlie would heal it!"

"Even my daughter's injuries can be cured, so Charlie can treat me with this weak physique, and he can't help it?"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, thank you so much!"

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said: "Wait a moment, I will prepare the medicine."

Chapter 2122

After that, he stood up and returned to the room arranged for him by the Ito family.

After returning to the room, he took two clean glasses from the coffee table, and then poured half a glass of water into each.

After pouring the water, he took a rejuvenation pill from his pocket.

He scraped off some powder from the Rejuvenating Pill, and the powder immediately melted after falling into the water.

Two cups of water, a total of one-tenth of a rejuvenating pill.

Charlie wasn't stingy.

The main reason is that the conditions of the two people are different, and the demand for rejuvenating pills is not large.

The first is Takehiko, who is physically weak, mainly due to the injuries and shocks he received in the accident, and the damage to his vitality after the amputation operation.

In this case, a little rejuvenation pill is enough to replenish the blood he lost.

As for Watanabe.

His main problem is that his energy is sluggish. Rejuvenation pills can naturally replenish his energy, but replenishment is like filling a tank of fuel for a car that is out of fuel. If he drives this tank out of fuel, he will fall into it again. An immobile situation.

Therefore, Charlie prepared to do both.

First use a little water added with Rejuvenating Pill powder to restore his essence, and then use a little aura to help him repair the loss of essence in his body, so that he can generate essence by himself like a normal man in the future. In this way, he will be able to restore his ability in that area.

For Charlie, Aura is the best scalpel. He can use Aura to get rid of the lesions in a person's body, restore a person's blood qi, vitality and essence, and repair the body's damaged meridians.

On the contrary, he can also use spiritual energy to abolish a person's blood, vitality, essence, and even meridians.

At the time, Fredmen, the chairman of Eastcliff Willson Group, after getting together with Wendy, pretended to be forced in front of Charlie. After Charlie sealed his spirit with aura, he lost his ability to be a man.

There is also a Japanese Sanda expert like Yamamoto Kazuki, after he had used the four words of the sick man in East Asia, he used aura to destroy the meridians throughout his body.

Therefore, Charlie can now also use aura to repair Watanabe's new and damaged essence.

When he came out with two glasses of water, both Takehiko and Watanabe were a little surprised.

Charlie came to the two of them and handed the water cups to them respectively: "Come on, two of you, drink the medicine."

The two looked at each other for a while.

They didn't expect that the medicine Charlie said was only two glasses of white water?

Seeing the two of them were surprised, Charlie smiled slightly: "You two will drink this glass of water, and you will know whether it will work."

Takehiko nodded, picked up the cup, and said seriously: "Okay Mr. Wade, I will drink now!"

After that, drank all the white water in the cup.

Watanabe looked at Takehiko hesitantly, then at the water glass in front of him, hesitated again and again, and decided to hold the glass up and drink it with his head up.

After a few seconds, both of them felt a different kind of warmth suddenly poured into their bodies, and a different kind of warm current flowed from their abdomen throughout their bodies.

At this moment, the two of them were dumbfounded. Looking at each other, they could easily see the deep shock in each other's eyes!

Chapter 2123

When the two were shocked, Charlie looked at Watanabe with a smile on his face, and said with a slight smile: "Come on, Mr. Watanabe, stretch out your hand, and I will signal your pulse."

Watanabe was nourished by the warmth in his body. He was immersed in it. Hearing Charlie's words, he nodded hurriedly and said, "There is Mr. Wade!"

After that, he stretched out his hand immediately.

Charlie put his fingers on Watanabe's Xinhe Meridian, and a touch of aura penetrated into his meridian.

These few auras can already guarantee that he can continue to produce essence in the future, and then enable him to rejuvenate the male glory.

Watanabe couldn't help thinking of his beloved wife in his mind at this time.

Thinking of the two gentle scenes, he felt a little change in his body!

This bit of change immediately evolved into a strong impulse, which made him overjoyed!

"This...this...is effective so soon?!"

Watanabe was shaking with excitement.

In order to ensure that the impulse was not fleeting, he hesitated for about two minutes, motionless, without saying a word, with all his attention, feeling his impulse!

In these two minutes, instead of disappearing, his impulse has grown stronger!

At this moment, Watanabe's excitement burst into tears!

He exclaimed from the bottom of his heart: "I have been looking forward to it for so many years, and I have been waiting for this day in my dreams, and today is finally realized!"

At this moment, he looked at Charlie and cried, "Wade...Mr. Wade, you are the living god!"

Charlie smiled lightly and asked him: "Mr. Watanabe, just ask you for 10% more shares for this curative effect, is that too much?"

Watanabe stood up and blurted out, "Not too much! Not too much! You are my second-born parents!"

At the side, Takehiko, seeing Watanabe's pants put up a bag, hurriedly waved at him: "Oh, sit down, sit down! How well are you!"

Watanabe looked down, embarrassed and excited at the same time!

"Brother Ito...this...this is the symbol of male power! You don't know, how long have I longed for this power again!!!"

Takehiko was stunned suddenly.

At this moment, he suddenly understood Watanabe's excitement.

At this moment, he thought of his legs.

"Although it didn't take long for me to lose my legs, my desire to stand up again, and to have my legs again, was beyond everything.

If one day, I can grow legs and regain the state of a healthy person, then I am afraid that I will be ten times or even a hundred times more excited than Watanabe." He said these words in his heart.

Thinking of this, he sighed in his heart again:

"Hey, in my life, I am afraid that it is impossible to have legs again. In the future, I still don't know that I will face decades of incomplete life... At this moment, I am suddenly envious of Watanabe! He has also experienced several years of crippled life, but he was healed by Mr. Wade, what about me? In this world, I have never heard of a severed limb that can grow... ."

After sighing for a while, he finally realized that Charlie was not actually black.

He made up for Watanabe's imperfect life, but only received his two or three billion worth of shares.

Chapter 2124

For ordinary people, two or three billion is indeed a sky-high price, but for Watanabe, it is only one percent, or two percent of all his assets.

Let any person who loses his male prowess spend 1% or 2% of his total assets to regain the coveted ability, I believe that no man in the world will refuse.

Watanabe was also very excited at this time, and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, don't know how long I can maintain this ability?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "It must be enough to maintain for twenty years. By that time, you are nearly seventy years old, and you can be considered old and healthy. If you maintain yourself properly, it may not be impossible to maintain it to your seventies."

Watanabe's face flushed with excitement, his fists clenched, and his voice was a little trembling and said, "Twenty...twenty years?! This...I dare not even dream of this! It's great...really great!"

Takehiko on the side said, "Shinwa, since Mr. Wade has helped you make up for your shortcomings, let Nanako bring Miss Song back. You can sign the contract first!"

"Yes, yes!" Watanabe said without hesitation: "Sign! Must sign!"

Takehiko Ito nodded, took out his cell phone, called Nanako, and said, "Nanako, you and Miss Song will come back. We have to have dinner."

"OK, father!"

Not long after, Nanako walked back with Warnia.

At this time, Warnia was still holding a small khaki milk dog in her arms.

The puppy was crawling around in her arms at this time, appearing to be very intimate with her.

Nanako Ito smiled and said: "Xiaoyou and Sister Warnia are very fond of each other, and have been stuck to each other, so Sister Warnia wants to take it back to Aurous Hill."

Warnia caressed the little milk dog in her arms lovingly and said to Charlie: "Master, Xiaoyou is a little girl, she seems to like me very much, and I like her very much, so I want to take her back to China. Don't know if it's inconvenient?"

Charlie smiled and said: "What's inconvenient, we two big living people can smuggle back, not to mention a little milk dog, the space on the boat is very large, I am afraid that a hundred dogs can be held."

Takehiko also nodded again and again, and said with a smile: "The boat I prepared for the two is indeed very large, and dozens of people are not even enough."

Warnia was overjoyed, and smiled softly: "Then I will take Xiaoyou back!"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Sister Warnia, I will ask someone to prepare some dog food for you. At night, you and Master can take it directly on the boat!"

Warnia nodded and thanked: "Thank you so much Nanako!"

Nanako Ito blinked and smiled, "Sister Warnia don't be so polite!"

Warnia said: "Xiaoyou is leaving with me, would you miss it?"

Nanako quietly glanced at Charlie's face, and said with a smile: "If I want to see it, I will come to Aurous Hill, and I can also see my sister and Master!"

In fact, it was Charlie that Nanako wanted to see most.

However, she knew very well in her heart that Charlie was a married man after all, and he traveled all the way to see what he said.

Therefore, when Warnia takes the puppy to Aurous Hill, she can at least borrow the reason to see Charlie in Aurous Hill.

Although this rhetoric is more or less trivial, at least it can be regarded as not inappropriate.

Warnia was also aware of it at this time, and she couldn't help sighing: "Nanako, such a tender little girl, was completely captured by Master. I really don't know how Master will pay these peach blossom debts in the future!"

At this moment, she felt a little bit of distress for Nanako, and also a little distressed for herself. Although the two had just met for a while, deep in her heart, she felt a real pity for the same illness...

Chapter 2125

At this time, Watanabe immediately said to Warnia with a flat face: "Ms. Song, Mr. Wade had a deep chat with me just now, and I also met Mr. Wade at once, so I decided to readjust our contract. Terms."

Warnia was a little surprised, and hurriedly asked: "Mr. Watanabe, how are you going to adjust?"

Watanabe said with a smile: "In this way, both of us will invest in a ratio of five to five, but in terms of the equity allocation, your company holds 60% of the shares and our Nippon Steel holds 40%!"

Warnia was immediately stunned!

She wondered, what is the operation of Watanabe?!

Why did he give up 10% of the shares all at once?

The next moment, she immediately looked at Charlie and told her instinctively that it must have been during the time she left with Nanako. Charlie had regained this condition with Watanabe for herself!

She was shocked in her heart: "What method did Master use to get Watanabe to make such a big concession?! In this way, would Master owe Watanabe a favor to me?"

Thinking of this, Warnia felt a little panic.

In fact, she just wanted a 51% controlling stake.

Of course, the controlling rights are not in vain.

Not only will she invest in a 51% proportion, but also provide land and local relations to promote the rapid implementation of cooperative projects.

However, at the moment, Nippon Steel is obviously giving her a huge bargain!

Just when she didn't know what to do, Charlie said, "Warnia, since Mr. Watanabe is so sincere, let me tell you to sign the contract now, and when we return to China, we will finish the domestic affairs. Then we can promote cooperation with Mr. Watanabe."

Warnia heard this and hurriedly said: "Master, this...is this...appropriate..."

Charlie smiled: "There is nothing inappropriate, Mr. Watanabe with full sincerity, don't you want to cooperate again?"

Warnia hurriedly waved her hand: "No, no, I didn't mean that..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Then you can sign the contract steadily."

Watanabe also hurriedly echoed: "Yes, Ms. Song, I am looking forward to cooperating with the Song Group. We sign the contract earlier to save nights and dreams! Good partners like Miss Song and the Song Group, I'm really afraid that you will not cooperate with us and will cooperate with other people instead!"

Warnia was so shocked that she couldn't add anything.

What Watanabe said was too much for her and the Song Group.

To be honest, this is how the Song Group is rushing to cooperate with Nippon Steel, and Nippon Steel is the world's top steel group, ranking first in Japan and top in the world. How could the Song Group turn to cooperate with others?

However, Watanabe said that it would have lowered his worth and praised Warnia. It can be said that his posture has been very low.

Charlie also said at this time: "Warnia, don't drag it, everyone is still waiting to eat, sign the contract quickly, let's have dinner, and prepare after eating, and go to the dock to take the boat."

When Warnia heard this, she didn't hesitate any more, she glanced at Charlie gratefully, and then immediately said to Watanabe, "Mr. Watanabe, let's sign the contract now!"

Watanabe naturally agreed, "Good job, sign it quickly!"

Takehiko Ito ordered his subordinates to prepare a portable printer, and then the two changed the data on the originally prepared contract on the computer, and then printed it out, signed and exchanged the papers with each other.

Warnia is very excited, because, with this contract, the Song Group will definitely make great progress in the future!

If she manages well, the Song family may be able to become the new first family in the province in the future.

Chapter 2126

Watanabe was even more excited.

It is more important to him to be a complete man again.

Moreover, getting acquainted with someone with great magical powers like Charlie, there must be more unimaginable benefits in the future.

Therefore, this business is even more valuable to him.

Takehiko Ito was equally excited.

After drinking Charlie's glass of water, he obviously felt that his body became much stronger all at once.

"I used to be a little weak, as if I fell down with a blow, but now the whole person feels that the physical strength and energy are very abundant, and it can't be better.

Except for the amputation of the legs that can't recover, the other feelings are the same as before I was not injured, and even vaguely stronger than then."

This is also of great benefit to him. After all, after the body's vitality has been greatly recovered, he can prepare for rehabilitation training.

Rehabilitation training for the disabled and amputees is very physically demanding and cannot be carried out when the body is weak.

And if Takehiko Ito wants to wear a prosthesis, he needs to do a series of adaptive training in combination with the prosthesis, which requires more physical strength.

Originally, he had to cultivate for at least another six months before it was possible to start rehabilitation training and prosthetic adaptation training.

Now, Charlie helped him save at least half a year.

When Warnia and Shinka Watanabe signed the contract, Takehiko Ito immediately started to cut the fish, and he also opened the specially prepared 50-year-old whiskey.

The host and the guests enjoyed this meal.

Takehiko is happy, Watanabe is also happy, Warnia naturally goes without saying.

Charlie was also in a good mood. After all, a piggyback could help Warnia seek more benefits. This would provide her with greater help to control the Song family in the future and strengthen her control of the Song family.

However, Nanako Ito felt a little lost.

After all, Charlie was leaving tonight, and when he came to Tokyo this time, she didn't have much chance to get close to him.

Therefore, during a meal, Nanako Ito has been peeking at Charlie, with a deep sense of reluctance in her gentle eyes.

After dinner, in accordance with the rules of Japanese hospitality, all the wine and dishes are removed, and then they are served with the tea ceremony.

However, Watanabe clearly couldn't sit still.

His body's reaction has been strong and vigorous, so that he was a little absent-minded and couldn't wait to go home quickly, surprise his wife, and at the same time look for the happy feeling like a fairy.

Therefore, after the meal, he stood up anxiously and bowed to everyone: "Brother Ito, Mr. Wade, Miss Song, there are still problems in the home, so I will leave! Thank you Brother Ito for this hospitality! Thank you Mr. Wade for your help! I am grateful!"

Takehiko naturally knew what he wanted to do in a hurry, so he nodded and smiled: "Okay, you can go back quickly!"

Charlie also smiled and said, "It's late, Mr. Watanabe, go back to rest earlier."

Shinka Watanabe hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I don't know if I have this honor, can I exchange contact information with you?"

Charlie smiled slightly, nodded and said, "Let Mr. Ito send you my mobile phone number then."

Watanabe was overjoyed immediately, as long as Charlie is willing to exchange contact information with him, he can still ask him for help if he encounters any problems later!

Chapter 2127

At this moment, Tokyo Airport.

A military transport plane belonging to the Japanese Self-Defense Force landed at the airport.

This C2 military transport aircraft is developed and produced by Japan's Kawasaki Heavy Industries and has a full load capacity of more than 30 tons.

In the cabin of the transport plane, nearly a hundred Japanese Self-Defense Force soldiers with live ammunition are escorting more than fifty top Su family masters, including Ruoli.

Their task is to transport these people, including Ruoli, to Tokyo safely and hand them over to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

The Matsumoto family's killing trial will soon open in Tokyo. By then, everyone including Ruoli will participate in the trial as defendants.

The Japanese judicial department is preparing to conduct a public trial of Ruoli and others this time, and simultaneously broadcast live to the whole country and the world through TV and online channels.

The reason for such a huge momentum is mainly because the previous Matsumoto family's killing has had too bad influence throughout Japan and even internationally, so that it seriously affected the overall image of the Japanese judicial department.

The judiciary decided to save his face by severely punishing these murderers.

After landing, the plane taxied all the way to an open apron.

Hundreds of special forces from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department have been waiting here for a long time.

All of them were loaded with live ammunition, and they had a strong spirit, for fear of any changes in this matter.

Therefore, not only did they dispatch hundreds of elites this time, but also dispatched more than 30 wheeled armored vehicles.

These wheeled armored vehicles, which are usually used to deal with terrorists and criminals, are now all mobile prison vehicles for this group of people.

Ruoli was very nervous at this time.

She knew that her father Zynn had already made arrangements to replace her with a substitute after arriving in Tokyo.

Once he was successfully swapped out, his father's person would immediately arrange for him to leave Japan and return home.

Ruoli believed very much in the ability of her father Zynn and believed that she would definitely be able to return to China alive, but deep down in her heart, she couldn't help feeling guilty for the companions around her.

She thought to herself complicatedly: "This time, although I can run away, these brothers have no such opportunity..."

"In other words, what I have to do now is to betray all my comrades in arms, to forget their lives and deaths, and to escape alone!"

"If they find out, they would hate me very much, right?"

Thinking of this, Ruoli couldn't help feeling a moment of shame.

At this moment, the tailgate of the cabin was opened, and the armed self-defense team members began to ask them, these criminal suspects, to get off the plane in an orderly manner.

On the outside of the plane, the special forces of the Metropolitan Police Department are ready. Every time a suspect comes down, they will immediately send three members to guard it 3 on 1.

Not only are handcuffs indispensable, but they also cover their heads with a black cloth bag so that they cannot see their surroundings.

As the first offender, Ruoli was taken directly into the first wheeled armored vehicle.

Subsequently, the other suspects took a wheeled armored vehicle for two each, and the entire convoy left the airport in a mighty manner, preparing to go to the special prison with the most heavily guarded Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

At this time, on the edge of a crossroad on the highway outside the airport.

Several people in black are using binoculars to observe the convoy coming from a distance.

Chapter 2128

One of them was holding a remote control in his hand, while keeping an eye on the leader of the convoy and counting the time.

When the convoy was less than 50 meters away from the intersection, the man pressed the remote control, the original green light began to flash, and then quickly turned into a red light.

Since the airport is in operation 24 hours a day, the traffic volume at this intersection is relatively busy. For the fleet of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, the traffic rules must also be observed.

Therefore, the first wheeled armored vehicle stopped directly at the frontmost position of the through lane.

The convoy behind, also slowly stopped.

The logic of the red light conversion is to take turns in four directions, one minute in each direction, so it takes a long time to wait for the next round of green lights, which is a full 180 seconds.

The special forces on the armored vehicles were all standing by for fear of any gaps in the escort.

Fortunately, the vehicles that shuttle back and forth on both sides are showing nothing unusual, and no one approaches their convoy.

But who would have thought that at this moment, the special forces in the first wheeled armored vehicle immediately opened the emergency escape port under the vehicle?

This wheeled armored vehicle specially prepared for special forces has very good safety. In order to ensure that the special forces in the vehicle can escape from danger, or after the door is severely hit or exploded, they are specially placed on the bottom of the armored vehicle. , Installed an emergency exit opening from the inside to the outside.

This emergency escape port is like a tank door installed upside down on the bottom of a wheeled armored vehicle.

At this time, after the hatch was opened, a black sewer manhole was facing directly below.

Because it is settled in advance, the manhole cover and the hatch are almost completely vertical.

The hatch was just opened by the special forces in the car, and the sewer manhole cover was also removed at the same time.

Immediately afterward, someone pushed up a woman with the same figure and clothes as Ruoli, and also wearing handcuffs and black cloth bags.

As soon as the woman was pushed up, several special forces team members immediately pulled her into the car, let her sit beside Ruoli, and then immediately raised Ruoli, followed the emergency exit and sent her Inside the sewer.

After the sewers connected Ruoli into the sewers, they immediately gestured an ok to the special forces in the wheeled armored vehicle, and whispered: "The red light has thirty seconds left, close the hatch!"

The special fighters above nodded and said: "You should also quickly cover the manhole cover, and wait for our convoy to leave for one kilometer before taking Miss Su away!"

The person below said immediately: "Don't worry, I know!"

After that, quickly replaced the sewer manhole cover.

The emergency escape port of the armored vehicle was also closed at the same time, and everything worked in a tacit agreement, and it was seamless.

After a few seconds, the red light turned green, and the armored car in the first place drove out, and the cars behind followed it. No one knew that the important suspect in that car had already been dropped!

After the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department's convoy had left about one kilometer, a black truck came from a distance.

When the truck came to the intersection, the traffic light just turned red.

After the car stopped, someone in the box of the truck opened the secret entrance at the bottom and tapped the manhole cover directly below with a stick.

Immediately afterward, the manhole cover was removed, and Ruoli, who was covering her head, was pulled into the truck again.

Afterward, the manhole cover was tightly closed again, and the truck drove off with a kick, as if nothing had happened at the scene.

In the carriage of the truck, a Japanese woman unbuttoned Ruoli's black headgear and looked at her, and said: "Miss Su, I am entrusted by Mr. Su to save you! We will now go to Tokyo Port, where the ship is already waiting!"

Chapter 2129

Ito House in downtown Tokyo.

Charlie and Warnia are also ready to go.

This evening is a good opportunity for smuggling.

Because tonight, the Coast Guard patrol unit is going to overhaul the equipment.

Therefore, there will be a few hours of vacuum time at sea.

In addition, the Japanese Coast Guard is strict in entering and lenient in the exit. Most of their energy is trying to do everything possible to combat illegal immigrants who have smuggled into Japan or smuggled illegal goods into Japan.

They have little interest in smuggling people and objects out of Japan.

So in this way, it will be easier to leave Tokyo.

Takehiko prepared the team and planned to personally send Charlie and Warnia to the dock.

And Nanako also had this idea.

Naturally, she felt unwilling to give up Charlie in her heart, but she knew very well in her heart that she would never be able to leave him.

Therefore, she was very satisfied to be able to send Charlie to the dock.

So, after everyone was ready, Charlie and Warnia, accompanied by Takehiko and Nanako, took the bus to the pier.

In the car, Takehiko said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, Nippon Steel's Hashimoto, has been taken to the dock by the ninja I sent."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction: "Thank you, Mr. Ito."

Takehiko hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade doesn't have to be so polite, it's all I should do."

After driving for forty minutes, the convoy arrived at the huge port of Tokyo.

The entire Port of Tokyo covers a large area, at least several kilometers along the coastline.

Most of the berths are exclusive berths for ultra-large oil tankers and container freighters. These berths are close to the operation area. Not only are there many workers working here, but they are also the worst-hit areas for smuggling, so customs inspections are very strict.

The berth Ito prepared for Charlie and Warnia was actually a relatively simple and small wharf.

This type of terminal can only dock ships under a few thousand tons, and the monitoring is relatively lax.

In fact, smuggling does not start from embarking, because Tokyo Port is still within Japan's territory and territorial waters, so embarking from here is not illegal.

Boarding from here, as long as you don't leave the country without authorization, don't enter the high seas without authorization, it is all reasonable and legal.

At this time, several small and medium-sized yachts were docked at the pier, the largest of which was a luxury cruise ship prepared by Takehiko for Charlie.

The convoy drove directly to the dock and stopped directly at the boarding gate of the yacht. Although Takehiko lost his legs, he was still helped by someone in a wheelchair and got out of the car.

After Charlie and Warnia got off the car, Takehiko said, "Mr. Wade, the crew and the captain are my confidantes, you can rest assured!"

Charlie nodded slightly: "There is Mr. Takehiko, I don't have to worry."

Takehiko hurriedly said, "You don't have to be so polite!"

Charlie looked at the time, and said to the father and daughter Ito Takehiko, "It's not early, we have to hurry up, so we won't talk more with them, we will have some time later!"

Takehiko Ito hugged his fists and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, there will be a period later!"

Nanako said dishearteningly: "Master, there will be a period later!"

Charlie looked at her and smiled slightly and said, "Nanako, please take care!"

Chapter 2130

Nanako Ito nodded with red eyes, then looked at Warnia, who was holding the puppy, choked up and said, "Sister Warnia, I wish you a good journey. If you have a chance, you must come to Tokyo to see me!"

Warnia also hurriedly said: "Don't worry, I will definitely! If you have time, you can also come to Aurous Hill to see me and Xiaoyou!"

Nanako Ito took a bit of joy and said without hesitation: "Sister, don't worry, I will come to see you after I finish this time!"

At this moment, a middle-aged man stepped down from the boat and said respectfully to Takehiko: "Sir, we are ready to set sail at any time."

Takehiko Ito asked, "Where is Hashimoto?"

The other party said: "Hashimoto is detained in the cabin for the first time, with all his limbs tied up. I sent a person to watch him, and there will be no mistakes."

Ito Nodded in satisfaction, and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, you and Miss Song can board the ship!"

Charlie said: "You guys go back too, let's go!"

Takehiko shook hands with Charlie, and Nanako also hugged Warnia gently.

Later, Warnia came to Takehiko again and said sincerely: "Mr. Ito, this time in Japan, thank you for your care!"

Takehiko Ito laughed, shook hands with Warnia gently, and said seriously: "Miss Song, don't be polite with the Ito family at any time. You and Mr. Wade will always be the guests of the Ito family!"

Nanako Ito came to Charlie's side at this time, blushing and embarrassed.

When she looked at Charlie, she gently opened her arms, Warnia to see Charlie's next reaction.

She wanted to hug Charlie and bid farewell, but she was worried that Charlie was unwilling, so she could only use this small gesture to test it.

Seeing Charlie smiled slightly and stretched out his hand towards her, Nanako hurriedly stepped forward, rushed into his arms, hugged him tightly, and said nothing.

In fact, Nanako had many things in her heart to say to Charlie, but at this moment, in front of her father and Warnia, those things she wanted to say but couldn't say.

The two embraced for a while, and with Takehiko's cough, Nanako hurriedly withdrew from Charlie's arms, and said to him with all her face, "Master, take care!"

Charlie nodded lightly, and finally said goodbye to the father and daughter, and walked into the boat with Warnia.

This cruise ship is very large, with three upper floors and three lower floors. On the uppermost deck, there is even a freshwater swimming pool, which is much more luxurious than the cruise ship that Mr. Song gave to Charlie.

After Charlie and Warnia got on the ship, they went directly to the top deck, stood in front of the guardrail on the deck, waved to Takehiko and Nanako on the pier below, and said loudly: "It's too late, the sea breeze is getting colder and colder. Go back quickly!"

Nanako nodded gently and asked her servant to help her father into the car. She also sat in the car obediently, but she was not in a hurry to let the driver drive, but wanted to wait for the boat to leave and watch Charlie fade into the horizon.

At this moment, a business car with a one-way black film drove from the entrance of the dock, passed the Ito family's convoy, and continued to drive forward.

In this three-row business car, sitting in the middle row is a beautiful woman with a struggling and painful expression. This woman is Ruoli.

At this time, Ruoli was still ashamed of her own escape.

At the thought of more than fifty followers who followed her and they were about to face severe punishment under Japanese law, Ruoli was not only ashamed but also hateful.

What she hates is the man who cheated her and so many of her men at Osaka Airport that day!

She still remembers the appearance of that man, if she has a chance, she would kill him by herself and avenge her brothers!

Just as she gritted her teeth, the driver said, "Miss Su, our ship is in front, we are ready to set sail!"

Ruoli wanted to take a look at the ship that was about to take her out of Japan, when she suddenly caught a glimpse of a man standing on the deck of the cruise ship!

At this moment, Ruoli's pupils suddenly shrank, and her expression became extremely cruel!

She gritted her teeth and murmured: "It turned out to be him! It's really a narrow road to the enemy!"

ovince in the future.

Chapter 2131

What Ruoli had originally thought was that after she successfully left Japan and survived this period of wind, she would seek revenge from that nasty man.

But she never dreamed that, at the moment when she was about to leave Japan, she actually let herself on the dock and saw the man she had always hated!

At this moment, her blood boiled suddenly.

Her eyes, which were so beautiful that they were breathtaking, were already blood red because of hatred!

At this moment, she had only one thought in her mind: "Kill him! I, Ruoli, must kill him!"

At this time, Charlie, because his eyes and attention were on Nanako sitting in the car, he didn't notice the commercial car passing by the dock.

Moreover, the business car is one-way light. Ruoli can see him in the car, but he can't see Ruoli, so he didn't know that an acquaintance passed by him at this time.

Soon, the tail of Charlie's cruise ship was stirred by the slowly rotating propeller.

The yacht also slowly leaves the dock with the rotation of the propeller.

After that, the speed of the boat became faster and faster, and it quickly turned into a small light spot in Nanako's sight, and finally disappeared.

No one noticed that the yacht at the next berth also accelerated away from the dock.

At this time, in the cockpit of this yacht, Ruoli gave a cold voice to the captain: "Full power! We must catch up with the ship ahead!"

The captain hurriedly said: "Miss Su, our top priority now is to leave Japan's territorial waters and go to the high seas. Only after arriving in the high seas can you be considered safe!"

Ruoli gritted her teeth and said: "You don't understand! There is my unshakable enemy on that ship, I must kill him personally!"

The captain said embarrassingly: "Miss Su, I took Master Su's order to take you to the high seas as soon as possible without any delay, so I can only deny you."

Ruoli said angrily: "Give me a call, I want to call the master!"

The captain hesitated for a moment, picked up the satellite phone on the ship, and said, "Miss Su, then I will call Master Su now, you can tell him yourself."

After that, he used the satellite phone to call Chengfeng, the head of the Su family.

As soon as the phone was connected, Chengfeng immediately asked, "How is the matter going?"

The captain hurriedly said: "Master, Miss Su suddenly said that she wanted to chase and kill someone, so I called to ask you for instructions."

Chengfeng's stern voice came: "She hasn't left Japan and headed to the high seas at this time to chase and kill anyone? If she gets caught by the Police or the Self-Defense Forces, the trouble will be big! Don't let her in this life do that, she must leave Japan!"

Ruoli grabbed the phone and couldn't wait to say, "Master! I'm Ruoli! I was at the dock just now and I ran into the person who had pitted us! He was the one who leaked our whereabouts to the Japanese Self-Defense Force in Osaka. Caused us all to be arrested! If I don't retaliate this hatred, I won't die with peace!"

Chengfeng hesitated for a moment, and said: "Okay! If this is the case, get rid of this trouble first! Otherwise, if you leave him in the world, I don't know if he will continue to pose other threats to Su family in the future!"

Chapter 2132

At this time, Zynn, who had been staying next to Chengfeng, hurriedly said, "Dad, don't let Ruoli take a reckless action at this time. The most important thing is to come back quickly. That person can think of a solution later, but if you leave here If she can't escape this time, there will be no chance again!"

Chengfeng sternly said: "If we leave that person, none of us know his true identity, what if he is the enemy of the Su family? What if he has already deliberately planned to deal with our family in secret?"

Zynn said, "Dad, we can look for this person slowly in the future. Don't be in a hurry. If you can meet him today, there will definitely be a chance in a while. Let Ruoli come back first!"

Chengfeng immediately yelled: "As$hole! How come you don't have any overall view of the situation?! This person has damaged more than fifty generals of my family with his own power! Do you know how much loss this has brought us? There are more than a few billion! What if he still has methods against us behind him?!"

Speaking of this, Chengfeng said coldly: "This person is already a little fascinating, and his identity is uncertain. If we hadn't met him today, we might not be able to find him in this life, so we must not miss this opportunity! Otherwise! If you do, it will be a big mistake!"

As soon as Zynn heard this, he immediately knew that the old man had made up his mind. He definitely couldn't convince him, so he could only tell Ruoli over the phone: "Ruoli, since you want to get him, then dad I won't stop you, listen to your grandfather's instructions, and be sure to find out his true identity!"

The first time Ruoli heard Zynn talking to her as "dad", she thought of her identity as an illegitimate daughter. Today, she finally got the recognition of her biological father. With mixed emotions, she said excitedly: "Dad, rest assured, if I leave, I will go all out!"

Chengfeng also exhorted at this time: "If Ruoli, it's better to be able to catch alive and take him back to Eastcliff directly. I will try him personally!"

Ruoli immediately said decisively: "OK lord, after I catch him, I will definitely leave him a dog!"

Chengfeng said with a hum, and said: "Okay, you can do it yourself!"

After that, he said: "By the way, the few people who picked you up are all my confidants. They are all very skilled. When you act, let them be with you, so that the odds of winning will be greater!"

Ruoli said without hesitation: "OK, lord!"

Chengfeng said loudly: "Tell them, if this thing is done well, I will reward them all!"

"I know!"

After hanging up the phone, Ruoli immediately said to the captain: "Go ahead at full speed and you must catch up with the ship ahead!"

The captain naturally didn't dare to make a mistake at this time, and immediately nodded and said, "OK Miss Su!"

After that, he maximizes the engine thrust!

Several people who had rescued Ruoli started gearing up at this time because they heard what Chengfeng said.

One of them asked Ruoli: "Miss Su, what should we do after we catch up with the other party?"

Ruoli's expression was stern, and she sternly said: "We will use our side to rub the other party's ship and force the other party to stop!"

The man asked again: "What if the other party doesn't stop the boat?"

Ruoli sneered: "Don't stop the boat? No matter if he stops, when we are approaching, we jump directly onto their boat! After getting on the boat, we will take everyone except the target person Kill them, sink the ship to the bottom of the sea, and leave nothing else alive!"

Speaking of this, Ruoli clenched her fists, clenched a neat little white tooth, and said coldly: "In any case, we must catch that guy!"

Chapter 2133

After leaving the dock, the boat that Charlie was riding on went all the way toward the open sea.

Because Hashimoto was imprisoned in the cabin on the bottom floor, Charlie decided to take Warnia down to meet this guy for a while.

The sailor on the ship took the two to the bottom cabin and pushed open one of the doors.

In the room, a man wearing a high-end wool suit, his limbs are firmly fixed to a chair, his hands are tied to the handle of the chair, his legs and feet are tied to the front legs of the chair, above his head There is also a black bag on it, which covers the entire head.

Charlie speculated that this person should be Hashimoto.

For the sake of caution, Takehiko's people used round steel pipes to firmly put each finger of Hashimoto inside, and then fixed them to the handrails together.

In this way, Hashimoto couldn't even bend his fingers, let alone any possibility of escape.

In addition, there was a man holding a stun gun standing beside him, staring at him unblinkingly. The security work can be said to be in place.

Seeing Charlie coming in, the man holding the stun gun immediately said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, you are here!"

Charlie nodded, and asked, "Is this the man?"

"Yes!" The man immediately tore off the bag that Hashimoto put on his head and said: "Mr. Wade, this guy is Hashimoto! We have already confirmed it!"

At this time, Hashimoto had not adapted to the dazzling light, with a towel in his mouth, so he couldn't speak, he could only whimper, and his body was constantly struggling.

Seeing him struggling desperately, Charlie basically didn't move, he couldn't help but smiled: "You are too cautious, and you don't need to tie your hands and feet. You also fixed all your fingers, so he is anxious."

The man respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, you don't know that the villain in the movie and TV series always ignores the protagonist's hands, so no matter how you tie up the protagonist, the protagonist can find flaws and escape, so we simply put this guy All of his ten fingers are wrapped in steel pipes, so that even Da Luo Jinxian cannot escape!

Charlie laughed, pointing to Hashimoto, and smiling: "It's such a thing, it's not worthy of being comparable to the protagonist in the film and television drama."

At this time, Hashimoto also gradually recovered his vision.

The first thing he saw was Charlie, whose hand was pointing at him.

At this moment, he was astonished: "Who is this person?! Did he let someone kidnap me? Did I offend him?"

At this moment, Charlie stretched out his hand and took off the towel from his mouth, and said coldly: "Hashimoto is here first, right? Do you know why I tied you here?"

Hashimoto subconsciously asked: "Who are you?! I don't even know you, why are you asking someone to kidnap me?!"

Charlie didn't expect this guy to be stubborn, so he slapped him and yelled, "You're so fucking good, you've done something shameless, don't you know it? You dare to question here?"

Hashimoto blurted out: "I...I am a law-abiding citizen of Japan! I am the vice president of Nippon Steel Group! I have never done anything lawless, but you... .. Do you know that kidnapping is a felony?!"

Charlie slapped him again and cursed, "Is it a felony? Okay, then you look at her and tell me whether kidnapping is more serious or murder is more serious!"

After all, he pulled Warnia to his side.

When Hashimoto saw Warnia, he was shocked and dumbfounded!

Chapter 2134

"Song...Miss Song?!"

Warnia looked at Hashimoto with a look of disgust, and asked: "Mr. Hashimoto must have never thought that Warnia is still alive, right?!"

Hashimoto's nervous whole body shuddered.

He knew that his murder attempt of Warnia was heinous.

Warnia's whereabouts were unknown before, and her two assistants and the driver were all buried in the man-made traffic accident.

Aside from other things, just killing three people is already an absolute felony. In murder, the plot is extremely bad and the methods extremely cruel.

Now, Warnia was standing in front of Hashimoto alive, so he immediately realized that it was Warnia to seek revenge from him!

He cried and pleaded almost immediately: "Miss Song, I am not the real mastermind of your unexpected event! The real mastermind is your brother Honor! Everything is his mastery!"

Warnia asked coldly: "Oh? It's all Honor's pot? Then I ask you, who lied to me that Mr. Watanabe was signing a contract with me? Who lied to me to go to the mountainous area of Nishitama County? And who arranged it. People smashed the four of us with a truck down the cliff?!"

Hashimoto was constantly questioned by Warnia, so frightened, he begged: "Miss Song, this is your brother's idea. If you want to blame, blame him, don't blame me..."

Warnia questioned: "According to you, if I ask someone to throw you into the sea right now, then you can't blame me, right?"

As soon as Hashimoto heard this, his face turned pale in shock, and he hurriedly cried, "Miss Song, I didn't mean that...I...I...I just want you to spare my life...As long as you can spare me, I will do anything you want!"

Warnia looked at Charlie and asked, "Master, what are you going to do with this person?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said: "Leave him a dog's life first. When I return to Aurous Hill, I will give him a chance to make up for his work. If he can grasp it, then keep his dog's life; if he can't grasp it, then Just chop him up and feed the dog!"

Hashimoto hurriedly pleaded: "You can tell me what you want me to do! I will do my best to get my life back!"

Charlie said coldly: "When it comes to Aurous Hill, I will let you face-to-face confrontation with Honor. At that time, you have to say all the activities between you and Honor, and dare to miss one word, I will kill you!"

Hashimoto nodded like garlic, and cried, "Don't worry, I will listen to you and tell the truth!"

Charlie put the towel into his mouth again, and said to Takehiko's men: "Continue to watch him."

The man hurriedly said: "Okay Mr. Wade!"

Charlie said to Warnia again: "Warnia, this Hashimoto is here for the time being, so he'll be locked up here. After he arrives in Aurous Hill and confronts Honor, I will give you a satisfactory solution."

Warnia respectfully said, "Master decides everything!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said: "Okay, go to the room and rest. I'll stand on the deck for a while."

Warnia hurriedly asked: "Master, can I go with you to the deck and stay for a while before returning to the room?"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Of course you can, then let's go up together!"

Chapter 2135

When the two came to the deck, Charlie couldn't help sighing against the cold sea breeze.

Although he has rescued Warnia safely now, and has begun to take her on the journey home.

However, this matter is far from over.

Next, is the most important part.

Tianming and Honor, the vicious father and son, have not yet resolved!

Now, Mr. Song pretends to protect himself from dementia. With his current situation, it is impossible for a single person to beat Tianming and his son.

Once the father and son found out that he was in disguise, they would kill him immediately.

Therefore, what he has to do next is to expose the true colors of Tianming and Honor, the father and son duo in public, rescue Old Song, and let Warnia regain control of the entire Song family group.

However, after this, we still have to face the problem of how to solve Tianming and Honor.

In Charlie's view, the father and son not only committed the crime of intentional homicide, but also directly attacked their loved ones. Not only were they rebellious, but also heinous, even if they resorted to the law, they should be sentenced to death.

Therefore, there is no need for people like this to stay in this world.

However, these two people are after all Warnia's close relatives. How to deal with them depends on what Warnia and even Mr. Song meant.

Warnia was also standing on the deck at this time, blowing the sea breeze, looking at Tokyo further and further away, and said with emotion: "Master, if it were not for you, I might have died in Tokyo..."

Charlie smiled and said: "Don't say such dejected words, you auspicious people have their own heavens, even without me, you shouldn't die, you won't die."

Warnia smiled gratefully and asked him, "Master, if I really died, would you be sad?"

Charlie said seriously: "Of course, don't forget, you are my friend."

Warnia's expression was a little joyful and a little disappointed.

She secretly said in her heart: "Could it be that in my life, the relationship with Master can only stop at the word 'friend'?"

The past keeps reappearing in her heart, and she comforted herself from the bottom of her heart: "Master has treated me very well, I should be satisfied..."

At this moment, Charlie looked at Warnia and asked, "Warnia, have you ever thought about how to deal with your uncle and cousin after this incident?"

Warnia was slightly surprised, thinking for a long time, shaking her head blankly and saying, "Master, I haven't thought about this question..."

Charlie nodded and sighed lightly: "You haven't thought about it before, now you should think about it..."

Warnia asked him, "Master, do you have any good suggestions?"

Charlie said: "My suggestion is very simple, just five words, cut the grass and root."

Warnia's expression flashed a little struggling, and she clenched the railing with both hands, and said tangledly, "I know what you mean, but...but after all, they are all from the Song family, and they are my dearest relatives, I... I can't do it..."

Charlie said lightly: "You don't need to start this matter, you just have to make a decision."

Warnia sighed: "I know what you mean, but it is very difficult to make this decision. I have to consider not only my own feelings but also the feelings of my grandpa and the feelings of everyone in the Song family. It's all a family..."

Charlie asked, "But when they tried to kill you, did they treat you as a family?"

Warnia nodded: "They are really amazing, but I am not them after all..."

After that, she said again: "Master, in fact, you... Actually, you don't know. Since the Song family has no great people in my generation, Grandpa used to feel sorry for this. If the uncle and cousin die again, it must be a bigger blow to him..."

Chapter 2136

Charlie smiled indifferently: "I understand what you mean. After all, blood is thicker than water. It's okay to spare their lives, but... there is one thing you should pay attention to."

Warnia hurriedly said, "Master, please speak!"

He said: "You can keep their lives, but you must remember that capital crimes can be avoided, but living crimes are inevitable. While forgiving them, you must give them enough punishment, and you must fully restrict their future. Possibility, only in this way can future troubles be eliminated to the greatest extent!"

Warnia nodded: "I know Master, I will definitely consider this matter."

While speaking, Charlie suddenly heard it, and a faint roar came from directly behind.

He turned his head and saw that at a distance of about one or two kilometers from his own ship, a smaller one was rushing towards him at full speed.

When a ship is sailing on the sea, the wind noise and the slap of the waves are already very loud. At this time, it is difficult to hear the sound of other ships.

At such a distance, it is difficult to hear the sound even when the siren is fully opened.

If it wasn't for Charlie's hearing sense to be much more sensitive than ordinary people, it would be impossible to hear it.

Seeing that there was still a ship following him on the empty sea, Charlie immediately felt that something was wrong with this matter.

He immediately said to Warnia: "Warnia, you go back to the room first!"

Seeing Charlie's solemn expression, Warnia felt that something was wrong.

So she hurriedly asked: "Master, is something wrong?"

He looked at the light that was approaching in the distance, with a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and said playfully: "We seem to have new guests again."

Warnia followed his gaze. She only saw a ship on the sea, directly behind their ship, constantly approaching.

She was a little surprised and asked, "Master, do you suspect that the ship's target is us?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Their goal maybe just me, not you."

Warnia immediately said firmly: "Master, I want to be with you!"

Charlie smiled and said: "No, you go back to the room and stay there, I can solve any problem alone."

"but....."

Warnia's expression increased. If there was any danger, she would definitely not want Charlie to stay alone.

Charlie said with comfort at this time: "Warnia, what's the matter, you can't help me if you stay here, and you may become a burden, so you should go back to the room as soon as possible to make me more at ease."

After speaking, Charlie added: "You are not clear about my situation. It is impossible for ordinary people to hurt me."

Warnia hesitated repeatedly, nodded gently, and exhorted: "Master, then you must pay attention to safety!"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Okay, don't worry."

As soon as the voice fell, a sailor ran out of the stairs on the deck, and said nervously: "Mr. Wade, there is a ship behind us that has been following us and is rushing towards us with all strength! The captain suspects that the other party is not good, let me ask you! What are you going to do?"

Charlie smiled indifferently: "They should be here for me. Don't all of you come to the deck later, leave everything here to me."

The sailor hurriedly said, "How can this work? Mr. Wade, Mr. Ito, and the chairman told us that we must safely send you and Ms. Song to China. If the other party is really bad, then we will fight with them! At the same time! Ask Mr. Ito for help and let him send reinforcements as soon as possible!"

Charlie waved his hand: "No, listen to me, send Miss Song back to the room, and then everyone stays in the cabin. Without my permission, don't come on deck anyway!"

Chapter 2137

As the yacht on board was getting closer and closer to Charlie, Ruoli's face had begun to show the joy of revenge.

She was born in one of the largest martial arts families in China, and she has undergone the country's top martial arts education since she was a child. She is definitely a master of masters.

The strength is countless times stronger than those fancy large-scale goods outside.

Therefore, she didn't pay attention to Charlie's strength at all.

In her impression, he is just a guy who owes a lot, and is cheap and sinister.

There may be a little skill and a little background, but it is absolutely impossible to be a top master.

After all, what the masters pay attention to is fair competition, what is the ability to call the police behind their back?

Therefore, she has determined at this time that she must be able to avenge her original revenge today.

At this time, the captain reported: "Miss Su, we are less than 800 meters away from the target ship!"

Ruoli wiped the sweat from her palms excitedly, and said, "Give me the telescope!"

Immediately, a sailor handed a high-powered telescope for navigation to her hand.

Ruoli raised the binoculars and looked at it, and immediately saw Charlie standing on the deck alone, his face full of leisure and contentment!

Because of the extremely high clarity of the telescope, Ruoli could almost completely see Charlie's expression.

At this time, he carried a natural indifferent calmness on his face. If there was a smile at the corner of his mouth, he could always give the other party a feeling of being despised.

Therefore, in Ruoli's view, his current appearance is simply a perfect portrayal of pretending to be so compelling.

At this moment, Charlie's eyes seemed to look in Ruoli's direction, and the smile on the corners of his mouth grew a bit thicker.

Ruoli felt an inexplicable nervousness at first, and thought to herself: "That kid's expression seems to have seen through me, does he know that I want to come to him for revenge?!"

Thinking of this, she shook her head again and muttered softly to herself: "Impossible! Today he arrived at the pier first and got on the boat first. When I got to the pier, he was already on board, and I was riding His car is one-way glass. It is impossible for him to see me. This means that the situation tonight is the enemy's light and I am dark, so he can't detect me now. It seems that I think too much."

As soon as she thought of this, she couldn't help but smile coldly, and gritted her teeth and said: "Boy! Auntie will make you unable to laugh later!"

Having said that, she sternly shouted: "Go ahead at full speed!"

"OK!"

The boat Ruoli was sailing in was smaller than Charlie's, and the boat's speed was relatively faster, so after running full horsepower, the gap narrowed faster and faster.

In the blink of an eye, the distance between the two sides was only 500 meters.

With the help of a telescope, Ruoli could even see the sparse scum on Charlie's face.

At this time, Charlie's smile was even stronger, and his eyes kept staring in Ruoli's direction.

She was a little flustered at this moment: "If the look in his eyes just now was an accident, then why is he still looking at me now?!"

Thinking of this, she gritted her teeth and said to a few people around her with a stern face: "Everyone, get ready for battle!"

"Yes!"

Several people immediately responded, and then took out their weapons from their waists.

Japan's gun control is very strict, so they use almost all the hidden weapons commonly used in martial arts.

And the distance between ships is getting closer.

Ruoli raised her hands, tied her long hair into a crisp high ponytail, and immediately said to a few people around: "The captain will hit the opponent's side first, and then slam the direction so that the boat is close to each other. When the boat will be attached to each other, the other people jumped up with me, grabbed the man on the deck for the first time, and killed all the rest!"

Several people looked terrified, and immediately said in unison: "OK!"

When it comes to killing, Ruoli never relents.

From the moment she was born, her mother had always instilled a belief in her.

Chapter 2138

That is, her most important task in this life is to do her best to serve her biological father Zynn and the entire Su family.

This belief, over time, became her unwavering belief in life.

She was brainwashed by her mother since she was a child, and she has been brainwashed for 21 years.

Therefore, as long as it is beneficial to the Su family, even if it makes her an enemy of the whole world, she does not hesitate.

If someone dared to be disadvantageous to the Su family, it would even touch her absolute negative scale!

This is the fundamental reason why she will destroy the entire Matsumoto family!

She and Charlie not only have personal grievances, but also family grudges!

It was precisely because Charlie pitted her and more than fifty other Su family masters that the Su family's vitality was severely injured and suffered heavy losses.

Therefore, she now not only wants to avenge herself, but also the Su Family!

At this time, the distance between the two ships was only less than two hundred meters.

Even without relying on the telescope, Ruoli could clearly see Charlie's facial features and the strange smile on his face.

This smile makes her feel deja vu now!

When she and other Su masters were taken away by the Japanese Self-Defense Force in a bus at Osaka Airport, Charlie, who was standing in the cockpit of a private jet, looked at her with such a smile on his face!

At this moment, Ruoli realized that Charlie was indeed looking at her all the time.

It was from the beginning, and it is still.

She couldn't help being surprised, this guy, could he perceive that she was observing him? !

On this vast sea, and in the middle of the night, thousands of meters away, did he find her? !

In fact, she didn't know that Charlie had not only noticed that she was observing him, but had even noticed her identity!

Just when Ruoli was shocked, the distance between the two ships was getting closer and closer!

One hundred meters, fifty meters, thirty meters!

Ruoli's eyes were red and shouted at the captain: "Continue to accelerate! Hit it!"

The captain shouted: "Miss Su, the engine thrust has been driven to its maximum!"

Ruoli shouted: "There are still the last 20 meters, everyone ready to charge!"

As soon as Ruoli left the voice, Charlie said loudly with a smile on his face: "Hey, the boat is also bought for money, hit a hairy hit! If it crashes, don't spend money to repair it?"

Ruoli was dumbfounded immediately, and blurted out: "He... how can he hear me?!"

Ruoli at this time was in the cockpit.

Across the windows and doors, coupled with the sound of wind and waves outside, even standing at the door, it is impossible to hear what the people inside are saying.

What's more, this is still 20 meters away.

The captain was also a little panicked, and subconsciously said: "Miss Su, the wind and waves outside are so big, and the distance is so far away, why can we hear his voice clearly?!"

Ruoli was even more surprised when she heard this! Secretly said in her heart: "Yes! He just spoke as if he was in her ears, how did he do this?!"

At this moment, the captain saw that she didn't respond, and couldn't help but blurt out, "Miss Su, what should I do now?!"

Ruoli didn't know what to do at once.

The distance between the two ships is only about ten meters.

Charlie continued to smile at this time: "I urge you to think more about it. If two ships collide with each other and everyone is left on the vast sea, shouldn't you call the Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force for help?"

With that, Charlie added: "But I am not afraid, but what about you? There is a serious prisoner on the ship who is at large. If she is caught by the Japanese Self-Defense Force, I am afraid she will be shot directly?"

Chapter 2139

Charlie's words immediately made Ruoli involuntarily nervous.

She is the super felon in the eyes of the entire Japanese judiciary, and the culprit who wiped out the Matsumoto family. If the Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force was really recruited after the collision, she would definitely not be able to escape.

Moreover, if the Japanese find out that she has escaped from prison, they will definitely take care of her and will never give her a second chance to escape.

Thinking of this, Ruoli gritted her teeth and said in a cold voice: "Slow down! Just get up, don't hit!"

The captain breathed a sigh of relief and quickly took an emergency brake.

Ruoli's eyes were full of hatred and determination at this time, and she coldly shouted to the people around her: "Come with me!"

After all, she took the lead in rushing out of the cockpit and directly onto the side of the ship!

At this time, the two ships were almost pasted, and Ruoli was standing in front of the railing on the side of the ship, and was only 35 meters away from Charlie on the opposite deck.

Face to face with Charlie again, Ruoli's eyes were full of resentment towards him, gritted her teeth and shouted coldly: "Boy! You ran away last time, this time you will never have such good luck! If I don't take it today Your dog's life, I will not be called Ruoli!"

Charlie laughed and said happily: "Girl, have you always been so temperamental? Or is it because your life is too depressing when you grow up the day after tomorrow, so your temper is getting worse and worse?"

Ruoli scolded angrily: "Don't be silly with me! If you tell me your name honestly, I can keep you a whole body! Otherwise, you will be broken into pieces!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Girl, I think you are young, beautiful and energetic, so you can be considered a top-notch beauty, so don't just say things like broken corpses. Isn't it better to be gentle? You? Remember, gentle girls, are the most likable to men. With a tigress character like you, it is very likely that you will die alone!"

"What are you talking about?!" Ruoli pointed at Charlie and gritted her teeth: "Boy! After you die, I will sew your mouth together and let you be dumb in your next life!"

Charlie smiled playfully: "Then see if you have the ability to kill me! If you have this ability, if you want to kill, please do whatever you want, but if you don't have this ability, then I will let you feel my punishment!"

Ruoli glared at him and screamed, "Go to hell!"

After speaking, with one hand on the fence, the whole person suddenly jumped, jumped several meters high, and charged towards Charlie with all her strength!

Charlie stood by the fence with a disdainful smile on his face.

For Charlie, her mastership is basically the same as the old ladies on the street who could not restrain the chickens.

In other words, it is like an online game. In front of a level 100 boss, there is no real difference between a level 10 player and a level 1 player.

For the one-hundred-level boss, the player who cuts the first level only needs one knife; the player who cuts the tenth level also only needs one knife.

However, Ruoli didn't know that she was completely vulnerable to Charlie!

She leaped into the deck of Charlie's ship, and saw that he has been standing motionless by the railing. She wanted to strangle his throat directly!

But she didn't expect that Charlie, who had always been calm, took a step back a little later in the critical juncture, and immediately escaped Ruoli's attack.

Charlie could have just stepped forward and used Ruoli's acceleration to subdue her, but he didn't plan to do so.

In his eyes, Ruoli is like a little milk dog encountered on the street. She obviously has no strength, but she prefers to bark and sometimes wants to rush to bite.

Although the character of this kind of little milk dog is very annoying, but the key is that it has a pretty high face value. As a result, people have the idea of teasing it.

Chapter 2140

Besides, Charlie saw that Ruoli left behind and followed several subordinates. These people had already begun to climb over the railings and climb onto his ship. If he had solved Ruoli now, the others would see it. Definitely turn around and run.

So, he might as well wait for them all to get on his own boat, and then give them an urn to catch turtles.

Thinking of this, Charlie continued to back up a few steps, letting Ruoli chase him.

When Ruoli chased him, other people also rushed up.

Seeing this, he smiled with satisfaction on his face: "Since they are all here, then I won't waste everyone's time!"

After that, he suddenly seemed to have changed a person, and his whole body exploded with an astonishing aura!

Ruoli is a master of the inner family and has already developed a good inner strength, so she immediately felt the momentum released from Charlie, and the whole person was suddenly stunned!

"If I didn't feel wrong just now, the inner strength of this kid should be much stronger than me!"

"But, he doesn't look like a master at all! Could it be that I am wrong?!"

Before Ruoli hadn't figured it out, Charlie had stopped retreating and rushed towards her directly.

At this moment, Charlie's whole body was sharp and lightening!

Even when running, there is even a sound of breaking through the air!

Compared with the silly dude before, it's a completely different person!

Ruoli was shocked and immediately stopped, standing still and preparing to respond with all her strength.

However, just when Charlie was about to rush to her, his whole person suddenly evaporated, and he had disappeared from Ruoli's eyes!

Before she could figure out what was going on, she heard a few screams suddenly behind her!

She turned around in a hurry, and the situation in front of her immediately shocked her!

At this moment, out of the six men who followed her, three of them were already lying on the ground wailing, and the other was raised in the air with one hand by Charlie, while screaming, and like a javelin at the same time, Charlie threw him out vigorously.

The other two wanted to escape, but one of them was directly knocked to the ground by the person who Charlie had thrown over. In the end, before that person had time to escape, Charlie grabbed his neck by neck and was directly lifted by him like a chicken, standing him up.

The person was so scared that he was so frightened that he cried and cried, "Big Brother, please be forgiving..."

Charlie smiled and said, "You're forgiving, right? Okay, don't say I won't give you a chance. You have to fight for your own way to survive!"

The man nodded repeatedly and blurted out: "Don't worry, no matter what you say, I will do it!"

Charlie said indifferently: "I don't need you to do anything for me. You got on my ship without my permission. I just want you to fcuk off, that's all."

As soon as the man heard this, he immediately said with joy: "I'm going to get out of here, out of here!"

He thought that Charlie was telling him to roll back to the boat where he came, so he was naturally relieved.

However, he never expected that Charlie to directly threw him out with a wave of his hand.

At the moment he rose into the air and flew to the sea, Charlie said coldly: "Whether you can survive or not depends on your own good fortune!"

Chapter 2141

At the moment that person rose into the sky, he sadly discovered that he was thrown to the left side of the cruise ship by Charlie, and the ship in which he came was on the right side of the cruise ship!

Moreover, Charlie's hand was so powerful that he threw him for more than ten meters in one fell swoop!

The whole person fell directly into the cold water with a huge parabola!

The location here is not far from the open sea, the water depth has reached thousands of meters, and it is winter, and the sea is bitterly cold!

When he fell into the sea with a thump, the impact itself made him feel pain.

Immediately afterward, the clothes on his body were completely soaked in cold water, and all of a sudden he felt like an ice cellar!

In this case, he could only struggle desperately, trying to swim back to his boat.

However, the sea was very windy and he was just in the downwind direction, so no matter how hard he swam, he still failed to narrow the distance between him and the cruise ship by even a few meters.

Just when he was desperate, there were a few more thumps on the sea.

It turned out that the few people left were thrown into the sea one by one, like dumplings.

The lives of these people are far worse than the first one.

After all, the first kid was not beaten and was thrown down.

But other people didn't have such good luck. They were first beaten and wounded by Charlie, and then thrown into the sea, which basically lost half their lives!

The remaining half-life is not enough in such cold water!

Several people screamed and thumped desperately, for fear of sinking directly to the bottom of the sea and losing their lives here.

On the ship carrying Ruoli, the captain and several sailors were shocked!

what happened? ! Ruoli led the team, a total of seven people went to fight, but six were thrown into the sea? !

The sailor asked at this moment: "Captain, do we want to save them?"

The captain said with an indifferent expression: "Save them? Don't forget our mission! Focus all your energy on Miss Su. The lives of these people are not worth mentioning!"

When the sailor heard this, he had to shut his mouth with interest.

At this time, on the deck of another ship.

Ruoli's heart has been cold for more than half!

She really didn't expect Charlie to have such abnormal strength!

Moreover, not only the strength is abnormal, but the working style is also abnormal!

He actually threw all her subordinates into the sea!

Is this a human job?

As the saying goes, if you want to kill, you have to kill them. Their strength is not good. It doesn't matter if you kill them directly, but why throw them into the sea?

Thinking of this, Ruoli couldn't help but worry about herself.

In this way, she was probably not Charlie's opponent.

If she was thrown into the sea later, wouldn't it be a shame?

Ruoli didn't doubt her abilities, she believed that even if she was thrown into the sea, she could easily swim back to the boat.

It's just that she grew up so old and had never suffered such a loss, so she couldn't accept it for a while.

At this moment, Charlie had already thrown all the six young men into the sea, clapped his hands, and said with a look of contempt: "Is the Su family's dog so capable? If the Su family's strength is so poor, then I think it should almost give up the seat of the first family!"

When Ruoli heard this, she was immediately furious!

The thing she can't stand most is that someone dares to be disrespectful to the Su family!

Although she was still an unrecognized illegitimate daughter, she felt that the blood of the Su family was flowing in her bones!

Therefore, in any case, don't let others blaspheme the Su family!

Chapter 2142

So, she angrily reprimanded: "Boy! Dare to be disrespectful to the Su family, you are looking for death!"

Charlie sneered: "Why? This is disrespect to the Su family? I tell you, sooner or later, I will let Chengfeng and Zynn kneel down in front of me and beg me to forgive them! "

Ruoli felt a buzz in her head in this one!

Chengfeng is her grandfather!

And Zynn is her biological father!

Since she was a child, under the indoctrination of her mother, she has a fascination with her father!

Therefore, at this time, she could not wait to torture Charlie on the spot in order to avenge him for insulting her father!

At this moment, she took out a sharp black-blade dagger from her waist, and said coldly: "Boy, today I must make you die without a place to be buried!"

Saying it!

Ruoli yelled and rushed towards Charlie!

This time, she no longer wanted to analyze in her heart, between Charlie and herself, who is strong and who is weak, who wins and who loses, she has been dazzled by anger! She just wants to take advantage of Charlie early and defend the dignity of her father and the Su family!

However, Charlie is something she can handle!

Seeing her holding a dagger and rushing forward, Charlie stood still and waited for her.

The closer Ruoli is to Charlie, the faster the speed!

She has gathered all her internal energy on her right arm, and with the sharp blade of titanium alloy in her hand, even if it is a car, he can be cut off by her, not to mention a flesh and blood body!

Moreover, she knew very well in her heart that the more internal energy she gathered, the greater the potential energy of this knife!

And the faster you run, the greater the inertia of your body!

Adding the two together, the strength of this blow would be difficult for the gods to resist!

Therefore, at this moment, she was ready to kill Charlie with one blow!

but.....

The moment she rushed to him, a sudden change suddenly appeared!

Charlie did not step back, nor did he dodge, but directly stretched out a hand, and easily grasped Ruoli's wrist!

Ruoli felt as if her wrist was completely fixed, unable to move at all, and her heart was shocked!

And her worldview was almost completely subverted at this moment!

She learned the peak martial arts of the He family since she was a child. When she was eighteen years old, she was already the strongest among the younger generation of the He family.

Moreover, in the entire He family, her strength is second only to several elders including Grandpa.

Her mother, Roma, is not Ruoli's opponent because of the loss of an arm!

This shows that her strength is by no means comparable to ordinary people!

At this time, she was extremely horrified, and said in her heart: "I just made such a full blow, even if the strongest grandpa of the He family is here, it is impossible to resist it so easily! Grandpa must at least go all out to fight My strength for this blow is completely removed!"

"But, my full blow, in front of this guy, is like a child's play!"

"This guy just moved his hands and completely resolved my thunderous offensive and brought the whole offensive to an abrupt end!"

"This... how capable is he!"

Ruoli knew that the overall strength of her attack was not weaker than the bullet that came out of the chamber!

Charlie stretched out his hand to block all her attacks, it was equivalent to stretched out his hand to pinch the bullet that came from a rapid shot!

Therefore, Ruoli stretched out inwardly and exclaimed: "This...this is simply not something a human can do! What magical powers does this man in front of me have?!"

Rarely in her heart, she became flustered, and blurted out: "You...who are you?!"

"Me?" Charlie smiled indifferently: "Say a word without blowing or pretending, I am someone you and your entire Su family can't afford to offend!"

Chapter 2143

Charlie now has nothing to fear.

Neither the Wade family nor the Su family could make him fear at all.

With his strength, it may not be difficult to take the heads of Chengfeng and Zynn among ten thousand people.

The reason why he hasn't acted to remove the two Su's right away is mainly because he wants to wait for the opportunity to give Su family a complete crush.

Not only are the people who are stronger than the Su family, but they also have an absolute advantage over the Su family in the industry. Only in this way can the Su family be able to bow down in a true sense.

However, Ruoli didn't know Charlie's depth at all.

She just felt that the strength of this man was terrible to abnormal!

However, even so, he could not be the opponent of the entire Su family!

But Ruoli was also very clear in her eccentricity. Now that it doesn't make any sense to say this. The most important thing at the moment is how can I escape from this abnormal man!

She is not afraid of death.

However, when she thought of her father spending a lot of energy, financial resources, material resources and manpower in order to rescue her, her inner desire to survive instantly reached its peak.

So she looked at Charlie and said: "If you let me go, our previous grievances can be wiped out! Otherwise, the Su family will definitely not let you go!"

Charlie smiled and said, "The people of the Su family won't let me go? To tell you the truth, even if the people of the Su family don't find me, I will go to them!"

Ruoli's expression was startled, and she blurted out and asked, "You...you have an enmity with the Su family?"

Charlie nodded: "Of course! And it's an unshakable enemy!"

Ruoli was in ashes.

She felt that since the young man in front of her had an antagonism with the Su family, he naturally couldn't let her go.

It seems that she is going to die here today.

Thinking of this, she thought of her parents who were still waiting for her to return home, her eyes filled with tears.

Immediately, she looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Since my skills are not as good as humans, you can kill or slash as you please!"

Charlie smiled lightly: "Don't worry, I won't kill you."

"What?!" Ruoli exclaimed: "You won't kill me?!"

Charlie nodded: "You committed a capital crime in Japan, and now you are an escaped prisoner. As long as I hand you over to the Japanese judicial department, they will naturally sentence you to death."

Speaking of this, Charlie frowned suddenly, and immediately looked at her with cold eyes.

He looked her up and down, and asked, "The Japanese judicial department hates you so much. The Su family can save you in this situation. It shouldn't cost less, right?"

Chapter 2144

Ruoli was afraid that he would notice something, so she avoided his eyes and dared not answer.

She was afraid that Charlie knew that she was the illegitimate daughter of Zynn.

In that way, not only might he use her as a bargaining chip to threaten her father and the Su family, but he might even make her identity public.

Although she hopes that her father can recognize her identity, she also knows that her father is the son of Su's family after all, and he has the original wife and a pair of children. If her identity is exposed at once, it will be very bad for her father's reputation and family happiness will have a big negative impact.

Ruoli only wanted to share his worries for her father all her life, and never thought of causing trouble to her father, so at this time, it was panic deep in her heart for fear that Charlie would notice it.

Seeing Ruoli avoiding his eyes, and at the same time shutting his mouth, he realized that something was wrong in his heart. He sighed with emotion: "You are now the number one serious criminal in Japan. In this case, they can still get you. When it comes out, the Su family will have to spend at least one billion yuan, or even more, to achieve freedom for you."

Speaking of this, Charlie stared at Ruoli, and said coldly: "The style of the Su family, I have also heard that the current Patriarch Chengfeng is not a generous person, he cannot be willing to spend so much money to save one servant, even if you do have some strength, you are definitely not worth so much money!"

At this point, Charlie deliberately stretched the tone and sneered: "Unless...you are not a subordinate of the Su family!"

Although Ruoli is very strong, her social experience and emotional intelligence do not quite pass the test. Hearing this, the whole person is obviously a little flustered.

She said: "No...not as you expected! I...I am indeed a servant of the Su family..."

Charlie sneered: "It seems that you do lack some social experience. The look in your eyes has given me a clear signal!"

Ruoli asked in a panic: "Ah?! What signal?!"

Charlie smiled and said: "I guessed the signal right!"

After that, he asked coldly: "Who are you from the Su family? I have investigated you, Ruoli, the subordinate of the Su family, and the bodyguard of Zynn. Although you also have the surname Su, you are not in the Su family. what is the relationship....."

Ruoli nodded hurriedly: "Yes...I am indeed just a subordinate of the Su family..."

Charlie waved his hand: "No, I said, the Su family can't do such a big fight for a subordinate. Therefore, your identity as a subordinate of the Su family is not the key to let the Su family save you..."

Speaking of this, Charlie stared at Ruoli's somewhat horrified eyes, and said lightly: "So, you must have another identity!"

Ruoli shook her head repeatedly in shock, and said in a begging voice: "I am not, I really don't have any other identity. If you want to kill me, kill me quickly, don't humiliate me like this, okay?"

Charlie saw her nervous performance in his eyes, and laughed coldly: "The Su family values you so much, and you are so sincerely defending the Su family. This performance has obviously surpassed the feelings between the master and servant, could it be..."

...Could it be that you and the Su family are related by blood? After all, your surname is Su!”

Ruoli shook her head desperately: “Although my surname is Su, it is just a coincidence... I came to Su’s house when I was 18 years old. My main job is to be Zynn Su’s bodyguard, occasionally with Su. The other subordinates in the family perform some relatively secret tasks! For example, I am responsible for leading the execution of the killing of Matsumoto Machi! What I told you is the truth, I really have no other identity...”

Charlie smiled and said, “The better you are, the more you explain, the more you want to cover it up in my opinion. If you are really just a subordinate of the Su family and you are ready to die for the master! And you don’t want my life, but you are here to explain so much to me. Obviously, you’re arguing for the Su Family!”

Having said that, Charlie teased: “Let me guess, are you the illegitimate daughter of someone from the Su family? That’s why they tried so hard to save you, right?”

Ruoli turned pale with fright. She shook her head desperately and even threw out her tears. She choked and said, “I’m really not the illegitimate daughter of the Su family, please believe me...”

Charlie ignored her, shook his head, and muttered: “Whose illegitimate daughter will you be? Chengfeng? It’s unlikely. Chengfeng is an old dog who is about to die. He should not have the ability to raise a young woman. Little girl, besides, if you are really his illegitimate daughter, he will never arrange for you to protect Zynn. In that case, Zynn may find out at any time...”

Speaking of this, Charlie looked up and down Ruoli and asked with a smile: “So, you should be the illegitimate daughter of Zynn? Zynn simply kept you by his side as a bodyguard in order to conceal you from others. Close contact, without being suspected by others. Am I right?”

Chapter 2145

Charlie just speculated, and by the way, observed Ruoli’s reaction.

Unexpectedly, as soon as these words came out, Ruoli’s body trembled uncontrollably.

At this moment, Charlie immediately understood in his heart that he was right.

This girl is the illegitimate daughter of Zynn!

No wonder!

No wonder the Su family was willing to spend so much effort to rescue her from the Japanese judicial department!

It turns out that this girl is the flesh and blood of Zynn!

Interesting!

Ruoli was already shocked at this time!

She didn't expect that the man in front of her would guess her true identity in such a short time!

You know, the entire Su family, there are only two people who know her true identity.

One is her biological father, Zynn, and the other is her grandfather, Chengfeng!

Even Zhifei and Zhiyu didn't know that the girl who had been acting as bodyguards by their side was actually their sister!

And Zynn's original wife, even more ignorant.

Ruoli was very afraid of the man in front of her and stabbed this matter out. In that case, her father's reputation would suffer a huge blow!

Thinking of this, she immediately had a plan to die deep in her heart, and she thought to herself sadly: "As long as I live, I will be Zynn's daughter. No matter how I deny it, his blood is flowing in my body... .."

"But, if I die, no one can claim that I am the daughter of Zynn! Even if this man exposes my identity, because I'm dead, my father can firmly deny my identity... .."

"It seems that only when I am dead can I become less of a liability, and can keep the secret of my identity forever!"

At this point, she immediately said to Charlie pleadingly: "Please, kill me! Or you can let go of my hand and let me end it by myself!"

Charlie smiled and said, "How is it possible? Not only will I not kill you, but I also will not let you commit suicide!"

Ruoli asked in horror, "What are you going to do?!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Little girl, don't be afraid, I will take you home! You must be very wrong for so many years of hiding the secret of your identity? Don't worry, I will help you get back the identity of Su Family. Let you enjoy everything you should have enjoyed long ago!"

"No!" Ruoli immediately broke down and cried, crying in silence, "I have killed countless people and committed serious crimes. You should treat the people as the people and give me a happy..."

With that, she tried her best to break free from Charlie's hand.

However, Charlie's hand seemed to be frozen, and she couldn't shake it at all!

Seeing her desperately seeking death, Charlie became more and more interesting, and deliberately ridiculed: "If a beautiful girl like you is dead, it would be a shame! How could I do this kind of cruelty and brutality?"

Ruoli looked at Charlie and choked with horror: "What do you want to do..."

Charlie smiled and said: "I think it is very simple, take you back to the country, disclose your identity, and let your dad give you an upright name, isn't that good?"

"I don't want..." Ruoli's tears became a thread, and her other hand began to desperately try to break Charlie's fingers, her eyes were aggrieved and horrified, and said: "I'm doing this good, I don't want to be the eldest lady of the Su family, I don't want to cause them any trouble, I beg you, kill me, kill me, and then throw me into the sea..."

Charlie asked back: "Why? Your father gave birth to you and asked him to admit that your identity is justified. Why would it cause him trouble in your eyes?"

Although Ruoli was in tears, she still said stubbornly: "I don't want to cause trouble to him, nor do I want to cause trouble to my mother..."

Charlie smacked his lips: "Tsk, you are really strange. You can kill dozens of people for the Su family without blinking, but now you don't want to cause any trouble to the Su family. How can you be so selfless to the Su family? Where is this dedication coming from?"

Ruoli was speechless when asked by Charlie.

The reason for this dedication is because of the brainwashing education she has experienced since she was a child.

She firmly believes that she should give everything for the Su family and her father, even her life.

However, in this case, she naturally couldn't tell Charlie.

So she could only continue begging in tears: "Sir, although my life is very short, I have hardly begged anyone. Today I beg you once, please give me a good time and stop torturing me, okay? ...Please..."

Charlie shook his head and said coldly: "I'm sorry, you can't die now!"

Chapter 2146

At this moment, in the cockpit of the other ship.

The captain and sailor were already stunned!

They really couldn't understand why Ruoli only had a trick with that man, and she stood still and couldn't move as if she had been cursed!

Moreover, she nodded, shook her head for a while, and cried bitterly for a while. To the people on the boat, this scene was a bit too magical.

The captain immediately took out the satellite phone and called a domestic number.

On the phone, he explained what happened here in detail, and then heard the order on the phone, he nodded hurriedly and said: "Okay, I get it! I will do what you want!"

After that, he hung up the phone and said coldly: "Hurry up and notify Mr. Kylo, that he has a new order!"

A sailor by his side quickly turned around and ran to the bottom cabin of the cruise ship.

There is a locked door in the bottom cabin. He knocked on the door and shouted: "Mr. Kylo, the captain asked me to tell you that the master has a new order!"

A man's gloomy voice came from the room: "Okay, I will come up now!"

As soon as the voice fell, the door was opened.

A middle-aged man with triangular eyes and a hooked nose carries a specially customized heavy composite crossbow in his hand.

The composite crossbow is the most powerful of all crossbow weapons, and the power of a single crossbow even exceeds that of a gun.

Professional hunters like to use heavy composite crossbows to hunt large prey, such as wild boars with thick skins.

Ordinary pistols and light rifles, bullets hit the wild boar, it is difficult to penetrate the wild boar's skin covered with pine oil and mud, and even the bullet may refract on the wild boar's skin.

However, if the heavy composite crossbow is used well, it can shoot the wild boar through with one arrow. Its power is not inferior to the heavy sniper rifle!

What's even more powerful is that the composite crossbow has a long-range and high accuracy. When paired with a sniper scope, it can be used for long-distance sniping, and it is no less than a sniper rifle!

The composite crossbow is not only powerful and accurate, but also has a great advantage, that is, the sound is extremely low, and it is especially suitable for assassination!

More importantly, most countries in the world are gun-ban countries and have strict legal restrictions. It is even more difficult for ordinary people to get a pistol, let alone a sniper rifle.

However, the composite crossbow does not have so many restrictions. For example, the composite crossbow that this person holds in his hand is a reinforced composite crossbow used in sports competitions. It is extremely powerful and can even pierce a bulletproof vest. A wonderful weapon for assassination!

This person carried this composite crossbow and stepped onto the top cockpit.

The captain said to him immediately: "Mr. Kylo, hurry up, immediately kill the man on the opposite boat!"

The man glanced at Charlie and Ruoli on the opposite boat, with a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and said indifferently: "Isn't this the fucking target who is still motionless at such a close distance?"

Having said that, he immediately opened a window and pointed the crosshair of the sniper mirror on the composite crossbow at the left temple of Charlie!

Chapter 2147

The power of a heavy composite crossbow is enough to penetrate a person's head at such a short distance.

In addition, this Mr. Kylo is himself a top killer who is extremely good at killing people with this weapon, so he has absolute certainty that he can kill Charlie with a single blow.

He debuted in the assassin field for fifteen years, and has never missed a target with the crossbow.

Therefore, after aiming at Charlie with extremely fast speed, he immediately pulled the trigger without hesitation!

The bowstring of the composite crossbow made a humming sound, and then a crossbow arrow made of titanium alloy and carbon fiber galloped straight to Charlie's temple.

The speed of the composite crossbow exceeds 100 meters per second, not to mention this heavy composite crossbow is a modified killing weapon, the speed is almost close to 200 meters per second.

At such a short distance, the speed left for the opponent to react is no more than 0.5 seconds.

In other words, the opponent didn't even have a chance to turn his head and take a look!

Therefore, Kylo has already made his mind and regards Charlie as a dead person.

He was even ready to witness Charlie's head burst open with his own eyes.

Moreover, he knows very well that the arrow of this crossbow bolt is very poisonous, even if it only cuts the opponent's skin, the opponent will definitely die!

However, what he never expected was that Charlie didn't even look here, just casually stretched out his hand and grabbed it, and grabbed the swift crossbow arrow!

"This... how is this possible!"

Kylo was already stunned!

The captain was also stunned, and blurted out: "Mr. Kylo, am I dazzled?! The crossbow arrow you just shot is what that guy is holding in his hand?!"

Kylo suddenly sweated coldly: "Yes... this guy... is simply a pervert! I have never seen such a strong person..."

After that, Kylo hurriedly asked: "Who is he?!"

The captain was full of horror: "I don't know! I just received an order from the master to tell you to kill him..."

Kylo gritted his teeth: "I will shoot him another arrow, I don't believe he can catch it!"

This composite crossbow has two sets of bowstrings, which can be used for two crossbow arrows for continuous shooting.

After the two crossbow arrows are fired, the bowstring must be re-stringed. For such a heavy crossbow arrow, the bowstring is not an easy task. Even if it is operated by Kylo, it will take at least ten seconds.

Therefore, the remaining crossbow arrow is almost his last chance.

At this moment, the captain suddenly stopped him and blurted out: "Mr. Kylo, if you can't get rid of him, start the emergency plan! Are you absolutely sure that you can kill him with this last arrow?"

Kylo froze for a moment, hesitated for a moment, shook his head and said: "I don't..."

The captain said with a grim expression: "Mr. Kylo, if you are not absolutely sure, then... then implement the emergency plan!"

Kylo nodded lightly and said: "Okay, then implement the emergency plan!"

.....

At this time, on the deck of the other ship.

Ruoli saw Charlie grasp a crossbow arrow that broke through the air with one hand, and the whole person was already in shock!

She exclaimed in her heart: "This person...is this person a human?! The strength of this crossbow arrow is stronger than my previous strike, and it is much faster than me! He can even watch it. How can he grab it with one hand without looking?! What level is this man's martial arts?!"

At this moment, Charlie saw Ruoli's expression in shock, and smiled lightly: "What? Do you feel that your worldview has been subverted?"

Ruoli nodded gently.

Chapter 2148

Although she was unwilling to admit her failures and shortcomings, the strength of the man in front of her was indeed incredible, and he had completely exceeded her knowledge of martial arts.

Charlie sneered and turned to look at the ship opposite.

The killer with the composite crossbow in the boat was startled by the look in his eyes.

He hesitated for a while, then whispered to the captain: "No matter whether my arrow can be shot or not, you must drive the boat to its maximum horsepower as soon as possible, and leave at the fastest speed. This man is too strong, the farther we are from him, the better!"

The captain immediately put his hand on the engine power gear, and at the same time said to the chief mate next to him: "After Mr. Kylo shoots the second crossbow arrow, you will immediately fill the rudder to the left, and I will maximize the horsepower at the same time."

The first officer blurted out immediately: "I understand!"

"Okay!" The captain nodded, and looked at Kylo aside nervously.

Who took a deep breath, then immediately pulled the trigger and shot a cold arrow!

Afterwards, he immediately shouted: "Withdraw! Withdraw quickly!"

The captain and first officer immediately began to cooperate, controlling the ship's full rudder to the left and preparing to escape at full speed.

At the moment when he shot the crossbow arrow, Charlie already felt that the crossbow arrow was coming.

He wanted to reach out and grab it, but suddenly gave up.

Because he noticed that the crossbow arrow was not coming at him!

Instead, it rushed to Ruoli beside him!

The next moment, Ruoli suddenly felt a sharp pain in her thigh.

She screamed in pain, and looked down, her right leg had been completely penetrated by a crossbow arrow!

The severe pain made her clenched her teeth, and her heart was full of surprise.

"Why? Why would he shoot a crossbow arrow into my leg?!"

As soon as she thought of this, she immediately felt that there was a powerful energy flowing from the wound throughout her body along her blood vessels.

She is a woman of martial arts, has a certain internal strength, and suddenly realized that this kind of energy is nothing but poison that can kill people!

Her face suddenly turned pale!

However, after a while, she felt relieved again: "In the hands of the man in front of me, I am a bit unable to survive or beg to die. No matter what, I will soon die by poison. In this way, my identity can never be made public, and it won't cause trouble to Dad..."

Thinking of this, her face suddenly had a relieved expression.

Seeing this, Charlie couldn't help but frown, and said coldly: "You want to die so? Don't worry, the more you want to die, the less I will let you die so easily!"

Having said that, immediately grabbed her wrist and fingertips to penetrate a trace of spiritual energy from his veins to remove the poison in her body, and at the same time temporarily seal all her meridians, making her completely immobile.

After that, he threw the first crossbow arrow in his hand to the ship that was about to escape.

That Kylo was staring at the two of them, wanting to see when Ruoli is poisoned and die, but he didn't expect a black shadow to fly in front of him!

Immediately afterwards, he felt a sharp pain in his forehead. The next second, the crossbow bolt shot through his Cap, killing him on the spot!

When the captain and other crew members in the cabin saw this scene, they were all frightened. The captain convulsed and pushed the power control stick tightly. He blurted out and shouted, "Why is this ship moving so slow!"

The first officer held the rudder and shouted hoarsely: "Captain! The rudder is full left! It is difficult to speed up when turning on the spot, just wait for it to turn!"

Just when the ship desperately wanted to turn to escape, Charlie took a few steps on the deck and suddenly jumped, and the person had already jumped onto the opponent's deck!

At this time, a crew member twitched in shock: "Captain... that person... jumped onto our boat!"

Chapter 2149

The people on the boat were so scared that they screamed again and again!

At this moment, there is no expert on the ship who can still fight Charlie!

Ruoli was hit by a poisoned arrow, fearing that she would die soon. The remaining Su Clan's men were all thrown into the sea by Charlie, and some of them had already sunk into the water because of lack of physical strength.

The rest is that Kylo.

He himself was a killer hidden in the boat, and even Ruoli didn't know his existence.

However, he is now completely dead.

The only people left in the cabin, apart from the captain and chief mate, are just a few sailors.

They had never practiced martial arts, so they were not Charlie's opponent.

Just when everyone didn't know what to do, the door of the cockpit was suddenly kicked open by Charlie.

In the next second, he had already stepped in.

The legs of the sailors were frightened, and one of them knelt on the ground with a thud, crying and begging: "Brother, please! I'm a crew member of the Su family. I haven't done anything that hurts the truth!"

Several other people also knelt on the ground and kowtowed, begging: "Yes, brother, we are ordinary crew members, we don't know other things!"

Charlie ignored the plea of these people and asked, "Who is the captain?"

The crowd hurriedly pointed their fingers at the same person.

The captain tremblingly raised his hand and said, "Big...big brother, I...I am the captain..."

Charlie nodded and said coldly: "Return the boat back, and then turn off the engine!"

"Okay elder brother..." The captain dared not make a trip, and hurriedly ordered the first officer: "Right full rudder!"

The first officer hurriedly did so, and the two of them posted the boat back towards the boat Charlie was sailing on.

Afterwards, Charlie said coldly: "Everyone, put your head in your hands, line up on the deck and climb to the opposite ship!"

Seeing that so many people had died, how could they dare to disobey Charlie's words at this time, so they immediately hugged their heads with both hands and walked out of the cockpit in a line.

Under the leadership of the captain, everyone climbed over the railing and carefully climbed onto the deck of another ship.

Ruoli was still standing here at this time, unable to move.

But fortunately, there is Charlie's aura, so she has no life-threatening for the time being.

At this moment, Charlie pulled the captain in front of Ruoli and said: "Come on, tell me, why did that guy just use a crossbow arrow to kill the beauty next to me?"

The captain's expression was tangled, and then he said: "This...I don't know... Maybe... Maybe it was accidentally shot crooked..."

Charlie sneered and said, "He accidentally shot it crooked? The man's first arrow came straight to my temple, with almost no deviation, and the accuracy was extremely high. Why would the second arrow accidentally shot crooked?"

Although Ruoli did not say a word, she wanted to know the answer in her heart.

The captain hurriedly said: "Big brother, I don't know what's going on with him... I was just following the order to sail, I don't know anything else..."

Charlie nodded: "You don't know, right? Very good, then go to the sea to feed the sharks!"

After speaking, Charlie immediately grabbed his collar with one hand and directly lifted him up, hanging his legs in the air.

Chapter 2150

The captain urinated his pants on the spot in shock and cried out, "Big brother, please! I say it! I say it all!"

Afterwards, the captain choked and said: "I have always been on a cruise for the master. This time, I was sent to Japan on a mission by him. Originally, the master did not intend to save Miss Su back tonight, because once Miss Su is rescued, not only it will cost a lot of money and will leave a lot of trouble, causing the Japanese government to have a long-term grievance with the Su family, so he deliberately set up a plan..."

Charlie frowned and asked, "What plot is set?"

The captain said truthfully: "According to the plan, after sailing tonight, I will sail directly to the designated location on the high seas. The Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force has already laid ambush there. Once the ship reaches the designated location, they will immediately carry out encirclement and arrest. Arrest, take Miss Su back..."

Charlie was even more surprised: "Catch her back? It took so much effort to rescue her, why did it take so much effort to catch her back?"

The captain shook his head and said, "This...I don't know about this. I only know that the master ordered us."

Charlie asked again: "What happened to that crossbowman just now?"

The captain hurriedly said: "The crossbowman's name is Kylo, he is the famous cold weapon king in the killer world. The master meant to treat him as an emergency plan..."

Charlie asked again: "What does the emergency plan mean? You'd better explain it to me at once, otherwise, I will kill you!"

The captain cried out in fright: "I will say it! I will say it all. I made it clear all the time! The emergency plan is, if the Self-Defense Force fails to catch Miss Su, then let Mr. Kylo kill her with the crossbow, and then hand over the body to the Self-Defense Force!"

As soon as these words came out, Ruoli's face was pale immediately...

She said with an incredulous face: "What did you say?! Master's emergency plan is to kill me?!"

"That's right..." The captain nodded and said seriously: "The original plan was to go directly to the pre-determined location after boarding the ship, but you suddenly wanted to hunt down this big brother. The master agreed, so our route changed temporarily. The master called me specifically to explain to me, let me take you to kill this eldest brother first, and then sail you to the pre-determined place and meet with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces. He also said that in any uncontrollable circumstances, Mr. Kylo must be asked to execute the emergency plan and kill you. It is said that this is the only way to prevent future troubles..."

With tears in her eyes, Ruoli desperately shook her head and said, "Impossible! You must be talking nonsense! How could the lord let you kill me? I am his..."

Speaking of this, she realized that she had said something wrong and immediately closed her mouth.

In fact, what she thought in her heart was that she was Chengfeng's granddaughter, how could he kill her?

Besides, even if he really had this heart, her father Zynn couldn't agree!

Seeing Ruoli's disbelief, the captain said quickly, "Miss Su, I really didn't talk nonsense... Master did explain that we must not let you leave Japan alive, even if you die, we will have to hand over the body only to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces..."

Ruoli murmured: "It's impossible...It's impossible...It's not logical, and there's no reason!"

Charlie sneered at the side: "Why is this impossible? You must die, so the Su family will not be in huge trouble. You must know that you are a serious prisoner in the eyes of all Japan. If anyone saves you, then Even if it is against the whole of Japan, even if the Su family is as rich as the enemy, they absolutely cannot withstand such pressure!"

Ruoli roared angrily: "You are talking nonsense!"

"I'm talking nonsense?" Charlie sneered: "Although I don't know how the old Su family planned, I believe they must be the truth!"

Ruoli shook her head and said, "I don't believe it! I don't believe a word they say!"

Charlie said calmly: "It doesn't matter if you don't believe it, I naturally have a way to make you believe!"

After that, he looked at the captain and asked, "How did you contact the old Su family?"

The captain hurriedly said: "It's a satellite phone!"

Charlie asked again: "Where is the satellite phone?"

"In the pocket inside my clothes..."

Charlie ordered: "You call the old man now and tell him Ruoli has been killed by me! Listen to what he says!"

Chapter 2151

The captain just wanted to survive at this moment, so he asked Charlie tremblingly: "Brother, if I listen to you, can you spare my life?"

Charlie nodded and promised: "As long as you cooperate obediently, I can spare you not to die. Even then, I can arrange a new identity for you and let you start a new life."

As soon as the other party heard this, he immediately said with gratitude: "Brother, with your words, I will listen to you!"

Charlie said with satisfaction: "Okay, then you just say everything as I told you!"

Having said that, Charlie thought for a while, and said: "Since the old dog Chengfeng has set up an emergency plan, then you simply tell him that Ruoli was killed by his emergency plan."

After that, he immediately whispered a few words in the ear of the other party.

After listening, the captain nodded, and immediately picked up his satellite phone, drew out the long antenna, and called Chengfeng, the Su family Patriarch.

At this moment, Chengfeng is at Eastcliff home, waiting for his feedback.

As soon as the phone was connected, Chengfeng immediately asked: "How is the situation now?"

Just now, after Ruoli was subdued by Charlie, the captain called to report the situation, so Grandpa Su is now very worried that things will change unexpectedly.

According to Charlie's explanation, the captain said: "Master, Miss Ruoli was pierced in the heart by Mr. Kyo's crossbow bolt, and she is now dead..."

Chengfeng asked, "Are you sure she is dead?"

The captain hurriedly said: "Yes! We have all seen with our own eyes, Miss Ruoli was hit by a crossbow, she died in a few seconds."

Chengfeng hurriedly asked again: "What about her corpse? Is it still in that man's hands?"

The captain replied: "The body has been thrown into the sea by that man. We were worried that he would come to chase us, so we evacuated first..."

"Evacuate?!" Chengfeng roared angrily: "You are so bold! Why did you evacuate before you got the body? Who asked you to evacuate? The Japanese are still waiting, tell me how to explain it to the Japanese?!"

The captain said embarrassedly: "Master, that man is too strong. We are not his opponent at all. If we don't leave as soon as possible, he will definitely kill us all..."

Chengfeng gritted his teeth and cursed: "I don't care about those, you can find it for me now! Even if you dive to the bottom of the sea, you must find Ruoli's body. If the Japanese can't get the body, I will only be asking you!"

The captain hurriedly said: "Master, if Miss Ruoli is dead anyway, why do the Japanese want her body?"

Chengfeng roared angrily: "I have made a deal with the people of the TMPD a long time ago. What I did tonight was not to help Ruoli escape, but to behave for some people! No matter Ruoli is Dead or alive, the Japanese must capture her back and give their citizens an explanation!"

With that said, Chengfeng said again: "You must find Ruoli's body, and then go to the predetermined location to hand it to the Japanese! If you break my good deeds, I'll fcking kill you!"

When Ruoli heard this, her whole body was already struck by lightning!

Not only was her face extremely pale, but the tears were also completely connected.

She never dreamed that her own grandfather would want her life!

If it wasn't for the man in front of her, she would have been killed by the poisoned crossbow bolt!

Chapter 2152

At this time, the captain hurriedly said: "Master, I will set out now, and I must find the body and send it to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces!"

Chengfeng said, "If you can't figure this out, you don't have to come back!"

"Okay lord, I understand!"

The captain agreed, then hung up, looked at Charlie, pleadingly said: "Sir, if Chengfeng knows that I lied to him, he will definitely break my body..."

Charlie said indifferently: "Don't worry, since you have done things according to my instructions, then I will naturally honor my promise!"

Having said that, Charlie said again: "You guys will come to Aurous Hill with me tonight. After you arrive there, I will settle you in an absolutely safe place. Then you will live incognito for a while, and wait for me to take Su. After your home is settled, you can restore your free identity and live a free life with integrity!"

When the captain heard this, he knelt down in ecstasy immediately, kowtow to Charlie, and said excitedly: "Sir, then we brothers, everything will depend on you in the future!"

Several other people also knelt down.

Charlie's willingness to spare their lives made them extremely grateful. In this case, naturally everything followed Charlie's instructions and arrangements.

Charlie looked at Ruoli at this time and said faintly: "How about you little beauty? I'm right? Chengfeng, an old thing, is not going to save you back to China. Everything is just acting for you. Just watch."

Ruoli's eyes were red and swollen, and her stubbornness was gone. Her face was as gray as death, but she asked with some doubts: "But I still didn't want to understand one thing, why did he act for me? Anyway, he was not ready to save me... Whether I died at sea or was captured alive by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, I couldn't leave Japan alive. What is the need for him to show me such deliberate acting?"

Charlie shrugged his shoulders and said with a smile: "Since it is acting in a play, there must be no one in the audience. In addition to you, there may be other audiences who also need to see this drama, such as your maiden family."

Speaking of this, Charlie said calmly: "Although I don't know the identity of your maiden family, since you are Zynn's illegitimate daughter, then your maiden family should be a little capable!"

"If the Su family does not save you, your maiden family will definitely feel chilly; but if the Su family goes to great lengths to save you, but ultimately does not save you alive, your maiden family will be very sad, but at least they will be grateful to the Su family for their hard work!"

"You have also played for the Su family for a period of time. What is meant by acting on the spot and false feelings? You should be very clear, right?"

Ruoli understood it almost instantly!

Charlie's words woke her up all at once.

She thought to herself at this moment: "Although the Su family is the strongest family in China, they have always depended on the He family for combat effectiveness!"

"After all, the He family is one of the four major martial arts families in China. Because of the relationship between the mother and father and the illegitimate daughter like me, the relationship between the He family and the Su family is very close!"

"Almost all the masters of the He family are serving the Su family!"

"So, when Chengfeng did this scene, he must want to show the He family a look, let the He family know that the Su family did their best to save me!"

"In this way, it will definitely be able to greatly win the favor of the He family, and make the He family more devoted to the Su family!"

Just when she wanted to understand the reason for this, Charlie smiled and said: "Little beauty, I wonder if you have heard a very interesting story."

Ruoli blurted out and asked, "What story?"

Chapter 2153

Seeing Ruoli's face full of curiosity, Charlie smiled slightly and said, "This story tells that there is a rich second generation who wants to pursue a big beauty, but this rich second generation is rather picky and doesn't want to do it for this beauty. Spending too much money, so he pretended to tell this beauty that he was going to buy her a Ferrari..."

"Then this rich second generation bought the Ferrari sales and let the Ferrari sales accompany him in a scene."

"When he took the beautiful woman to see the car, the salesman told them that there is no car now, so he can only book first. Then this rich second-generation will pretend to be giving hundred Ten thousand deposit, got the contract to book the car."

"The beauty thought that the Ferrari bought for her by the rich second generation was already certain, so she climbed into the bed of the rich second generation that night and was succeeded by the rich second generation."

"After the rich second generation succeeded, he immediately went to the Ferrari salesperson, returned the one million deposit, and then gave the sales 20,000 yuan as a bonus."

"And that beauty didn't know it. She didn't know that the contract signed by the fake man was not a formal contract signed with the 4s shop at all, but a fake contract signed with that salesman. The Fake man did not give her a contract at all. He tried his best to do this scene, just to trick her into sleeping."

"The price of a Ferrari is often more than four or five million yuan, but this rich second generation actually only spent twenty thousand yuan from start to finish, and successfully slept with this beauty. Twenty thousand compared to five million. Not one part!"

Ruoli blurted out and asked, "You...what do you mean by telling me this story?"

Charlie smiled slightly and sighed helplessly: "You, you really look beautiful, but this brain is really stupid!"

Ruoli was a little angry in her centrifugation, but facing Charlie, she dared not show it.

So she could only ask him like a bag of air, "Can you make it clear, then?"

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "In fact, this story of the rich second generation pretending to buy a car is the same as the Su family pretending to save you!"

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Look, if the Su family really wants to buy the entire TMPD and the Japanese Self-Defense Forces and save you alive, it is not impossible, but the price may be very high!"

"After all, the impact of this matter is extremely significant, everyone must weigh the weight of it, unless the money is particularly large, otherwise no one dares to take the risk."

"I guess, I really want to save you alive. Without a billion dollars, it is impossible to get through the multi-layered relationship between the Japanese judicial department, the customs department, and the Self-Defense Force!"

Speaking of this, Charlie turned around and smiled: "But! What if they just pretend to save you, but actually don't let you leave Japan alive? Then it's definitely not going to cost them so much, so I guess they would buy a car. The story is the same, the actual cost is less than one percent of the expected cost!"

When Ruoli heard this, deep down in her heart, she immediately felt extremely shocked, and all three views of her whole person collapsed completely at this instant.

Although she didn't want to believe that everything Charlie said was true, she was not a fool either.

Chengfeng's intention to kill her has been indirectly admitted on the phone, and this matter is completely fixed.

Therefore, the story Charlie told, and his speculation about the Su Family, can be said to hit the nail on the head.

In her opinion, this story and speculation also perfectly fit the overall context of this matter.

At this moment, her whole heart was ashamed. There were too many tears just now, so at this moment, she even had no tears.

Seeing that she had basically given up her mind, Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Don't stay here for a long time. We must leave Japan as soon as possible before the Self-Defense Force discover."

After speaking, he called out all the crew on his ship, pointed to the captain and crew of the Su family boat, and ordered: "You guys, take them to the bottom cabin and clean the deck. a bit."

Chapter 2154

Ito's crew hurriedly followed suit.

At this time, Warnia also walked onto the deck and asked Charlie in surprise: "Master, were these people coming for me?"

Charlie shook his head: "No, they are here for me."

Warnia was even more surprised when she saw Ruoli with a crossbow arrow stuck in her leg and she was motionless. She hurriedly asked him: "Master, this woman is..."

Charlie looked at Ruoli and smiled slightly: "This little beauty, who was an enemy before, shouldn't be counted anymore now."

After speaking, he raised his eyebrows at Ruoli again, and asked with a smile, "Little beauty, am I right?"

Ruoli felt embarrassed.

Although she had already seen the true face of the Su family, and although Charlie did save her life, she still couldn't give Charlie a good impression.

After all, it was Charlie who reported her and her companions to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces.

Among her companions, many of them are from the He family, and many are even her brothers and cousins.

However, although she had no good feelings for Charlie, her hatred for him also disappeared a lot as the whole matter became clear.

Therefore, she didn't know how to answer his question for a while, and could only stubbornly turned her face to one side.

Seeing her resentful look, Charlie couldn't help but chuckle a few times, and said: "Little beauty, the Su family don't know that you are still alive, let alone that you are in my hands, so you will listen to me next time. You will follow me back to Aurous Hill first like everyone else."

Ruoli subconsciously said, "I won't go back to Aurous Hill with you!"

Charlie smiled and said, "You are on my boat and don't want to follow me. Are you going to get off the boat now?"

Ruoli was immediately embarrassed.

She thought sadly in her heart: "I have nowhere to go right now. If I don't follow this guy, I can only wait for the Japanese to catch me here... In the eyes of the Japanese, I am a heinous criminal once I fall into their hands, there will be no escape..."

"Moreover, I can't go back to China by myself..."

"Let's not talk about the vast sea, I can't go back at all. Even if I go back, I'm afraid it's hard to escape the claws of the Su Family..."

"Just now, when the captain called Chengfeng, he clearly told him that I was dead. If I went back alive and the Su family knew about it, they would immediately realize that the captain lied to them..."

"They will also realize that their vicious scheme has been completely exposed!"

"At that time, they will definitely do everything possible to kill me..."

"Now, my only chance is to follow this man back to Aurous Hill..."

"He is so strong, he must have a way to bring me back quietly, and he must be able to hide me from the Su family..."

Chapter 2155

At this moment, Ruoli wanted to survive first, and then find out the truth of the whole thing.

At this moment, although she was full of hatred for the Su family, she still had the last hint of fantasy.

She felt that if this matter was planned by grandfather Chengfeng alone, and her father Zynn did not participate, and was even kept in the dark, then she would be more relieved in her heart.

But if grandfather Chengfeng and father Zynn were involved in this matter, then she and the Su family would be completely cut off!

At this point, Ruoli looked at Charlie and pleaded in a low voice: "I can go to Aurous Hill with you, but can you let me call my mother? I have to let her know that I'm alive... Otherwise, she will be very worried..."

Charlie blurted out without hesitation: "No!"

Ruoli didn't expect that she begged Charlie so hard that she only hoped to report peace to her mother, but he refused her very simply.

She couldn't help but asked a little annoyed: "Why not? Even if the entire Su family wants me to die, my mother will definitely not participate in it..."

Charlie said coldly: "You know, a mother, her daughter is really dead, and her daughter is not dead, her response to outsiders is completely different!"

"If your mother doesn't know that you are still alive, then she will definitely show a very natural sadness, and the Su family will never find any clues;"

"But if you tell your mother the situation now, and your mother knows that you are not dead, it will be difficult for her to pretend that she really lost her daughter. In that case, it will be easy for the Su family to find a flaw!"

After speaking, Charlie sneered and said: "After all, your surname Su is very good at doing things. You led people to destroy the Matsumoto family, and Chengfeng asked you to kill in Japan. Who knows if he will find her? Your mother's trouble, want to cut the grass and root?"

As soon as Ruoli heard this, she was immediately ashamed.

She was indeed brainwashed before, thinking that the interests of the Su family were above all else and that the interests of the Su family should not be desecrated.

Therefore, she has always been very ruthless in dealing with the enemies of the Su family.

However, the last time the Matsumoto family was destroyed, it was not Ruoli's intention, but Zynn's order.

The Matsumoto family nearly killed the children of Zynn, which made him extremely angry at the time, so he ordered Ruoli to lead the people to transcribe the Matsumoto family.

Now, when she thinks that the Su family is also unrelenting to her, Ruoli is also very ashamed and regretful in addition to being angry.

If she had known that the Su family was such a group of people, and would not give up their lives for them without saying anything.

At this moment, she really realized that not only was she too one-sided in thinking about the problem, but also too one-sided and simple about the Su family.

She couldn't help but blame herself in her heart: "Ruoli, Ruoli, you are so stupid! For so many years, except for killing people, you knew nothing, even you almost dragged your mother into the water."

"This man is right. If I let mother know all this, she will most likely go to the Su family immediately. Even if she can hold it back, once the Su family finds her, she will find it hard not to be noticed by the other party. , It will put my mother in danger..."

Thinking of this, she immediately looked at Charlie, nodded obediently, and said angrily: "Then...well...I...I listen to you."

Charlie gave a hum, and said: "I will ask you to take you to the cabin to rest first. The blood from your wound has stopped. I will help you pull out the crossbow arrows later, and then help you remove the toxins in your body.

Ruoli nodded lightly, hesitated again and again, then bit her lower lip and whispered, "Thank you..."

Charlie gave a hum, and said to the captain of his own ship: "You follow me to the next ship, set it in the opposite direction and let it go at full speed, so that it can divert the attention of others."

Chapter 2156

The captain nodded quickly.

At this time, the six people thrown into the sea by Charlie had all drowned.

The bodies of several of them have begun to sink to the bottom of the sea.

Charlie took the captain to the opposite cruise ship. After the captain set the course, Charlie asked him to return to the ship first.

After that, he drove the power of the ship's engine to its maximum, and the ship rushed out immediately.

Warnia saw the ship sail away on the next deck, and shouted with some worry: "Master..."

As soon as the voice fell, she saw a figure on the ship jumped up and jumped into the water with a perfect parabola.

After that, she saw Charlie poking his head out of the water lightly and swimming back to the boat without hesitation.

Warnia was worried about Charlie, and quickly took a bath towel. The moment Charlie got on the boat, she immediately handed the bath towel to him, and said with concern: "Master, quickly wipe the water on your body, and then go to the cabin to take a shower to avoid catching a cold..."

Charlie smiled slightly: "It doesn't matter, just change to clean clothes later."

As he said, he instructed the captain on the side: "Let's set sail now and enter the high seas as soon as possible."

"Okay Mr. Wade!" The captain nodded immediately and said: "You go and change your clothes first, we will set sail!"

.....

Charlie returned to the cabin and changed into clean clothes. The crew helped him put the clothes soaked in seawater into the washing machine integrated with washing and drying. In this way, it could be washed and dried in a few hours.

At this time, Ruoli was arranged in a big bedroom on the first floor.

Because Charlie had sealed her meridians before, she could only sit on the sofa and couldn't move at this time.

Charlie knocked on the door politely, then pushed the door in, looked at Ruoli and asked, "How do you feel?"

Ruoli said awkwardly: "I...I'm okay..."

After finishing talking, she asked very puzzledly: "Can you tell me how you did it?"

Charlie frowned and asked, "How did you do it?"

Ruoli asked: "How did you make it possible to remove the toxins in my body instantly? It also helps me stop bleeding. What I cannot understand is that my body's ability to move seems to have been greatly affected."

Charlie said lightly: "Since you are a martial artist, you should have an understanding of internal power?"

Ruoli nodded and said seriously: "I know internal strength, but this seems to be completely beyond the scope of internal strength, right?"

"The martial arts people work hard to train their internal strength to enhance their physical fitness and strength. This strength can only run in their own body, but your internal strength seems to be able to run in the body... This...this is also amazing..."

Charlie hummed, and said with an arrogant look: "My internal strength is completely different from your internal strength. The ancients said, how can the light of fireflies compete with the sun and the moon? If my inner strength is the sun and the moon, then Your internal strength is nothing but fireflies!"

Chapter 2157

Chinese martial arts have emphasized the accumulation, operation, and use of internal forces in the body since ancient times. The so-called Qi meridians, Qi Shen Dantian, Da Zhou Tian, and Xiao Zhou Tian are all based on this theory.

The overall logic of Reiki is similar to the internal force. The most obvious difference is that in addition to its own accumulation, operation, and use, Reiki also has an ability that can be released outside.

No matter how strong the internal strength is, it can only rely on one's own body. A good internal master can kill a heavy cow with one punch, or even an elephant with one punch.

But even so, he couldn't achieve the ability to kill a mouse in the air.

The reason is that the internal force cannot be released outside.

After all, the internal force is actually an entry-level low-end version of Reiki.

And the spiritual energy is a thousand miles higher than the internal force.

The difference between the two is like the difference between primates and humans.

Although the DNA of primates and humans has almost 99% similarity, the gap between the two is still a difference between heaven and earth.

No matter how smart a chimpanzee is, it cannot become a human being.

Between the two, there is an insurmountable gap.

Among Chinese martial arts practitioners, there are at least tens of thousands of people who can master internal Qi.

However, among these tens of thousands of people, almost none of them can train their internal qi into the aura.

If Charlie hadn't had the help of the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures" and the earlier piece of spiritual stone, even if he took a lot of Rejuvenating Pill, he would not be able to form aura in his body.

This is a real great opportunity, an opportunity that ordinary people cannot get in a few lifetimes.

Charlie naturally couldn't tell Ruoli the actual situation, but the light of the fireflies and the brilliance of the sun and the moon had already shocked Ruoli deep in her heart.

She murmured in her heart: "It turns out that his internal strength has reached a higher level... No wonder his strength is so perverted, and he can easily save my life, which is better than the martial art I know. This is so powerful..."

Charlie said calmly at this time: "Although the toxins in your body have been removed, your wound is still open. I will help you pull out the crossbow arrow, and then help you clean up the wound."

Ruoli looked at the wound on her leg. The crossbow arrow almost penetrated the entire thigh from the base of the thigh. She couldn't help but secretly said in shame, "I am still wearing black tights, but if I want him to help me deal with the wound, He must take off or tear my p@nts off..."

"But... but this part is indeed a bit too private..."

Seeing that Ruoli was more or less embarrassed, Charlie's first thought was: "Otherwise, just let her handle it. She is a professionally trained killer who must be very good at dealing with such small wounds."

However, another thought popped into his mind: "This woman's character is as strong as an untamed wild horse, and her methods are vicious and cruel. For such a woman, I want her to be honest from tonight. , To be submissive, you must first completely wipe out her self-esteem!"

Thinking of this, Charlie said with a cold expression: "Come on, I will help you sit on a single recliner, you lie on it, and I will help you deal with the wound!"

Ruoli vaguely said: "Um...I'll do it myself...please give me a pair of pliers, and some debridement potion and gauze for dressing. It'll all be fine."

Charlie said blankly, "It's not impossible for you to deal with it yourself, but the legs are rich in blood vessels. When the crossbow arrow is taken out, the wound will bleed heavily. If the wound has injured the artery, once you rush the crossbow arrow If it comes out and the wound opens, your life will be in danger, and if you hurt your nerves, you may be disabled in the future."

Chapter 2158

Ruoli also knew very well that it would be no problem to deal with ordinary wounds by herself, but if it really hurts the arteries, it would be really difficult to get started.

Moreover, if you hurt your nerves, it will indeed leave certain sequelae. Once there are sequelae, your strength will definitely be affected.

Thinking of this, Ruoli's heart suddenly hesitated, not knowing whether to let Charlie help.

After all, Charlie is a master whose strength is far surpassing hers. If he handles her injuries, it must be much more reliable than handling her own injuries.

Seeing her struggling expression, Charlie said categorically: "Okay, don't rush, life is more important than anything else, and I believe you don't want your legs to be disabled. Otherwise, a little beauty would walk on a slope. , That's too ugly."

After that, he has stretched out his hand to Ruoli, and said without a doubt: "Come on, I will help you to the recliner!"

Seeing Charlie's uncompromising posture, Ruoli suddenly felt a little embarrassed deep in her heart, and said in a low voice, "I can do it myself."

After that, she wanted to support herself with both hands, but after a few tries, she found that her arms simply couldn't help her.

Seeing that she had nothing to do, Charlie said calmly: "Don't bother, your meridians have been temporarily sealed by me, and your body can't use strength."

Ruoli was a little shocked, so she handed her hand to Charlie obediently, and whispered, "Then I will trouble you..."

Charlie stretched out his hand to hold her soft and cold little hand, and then directly supported her up.

It was the first time that Ruoli was held in this way by a man, and her heartbeat like a drum.

She grew up with her mother. She has always practiced martial arts hard, not to mention falling in love, and she has no chance to get along with boys.

Suddenly he was holding her hand so intimately, and he panicked unconsciously.

Charlie helped her onto the recliner and let her lie on it gently, then locked the swing function of the recliner, and said to her: "I will cut off your trouser legs first."

As soon as Ruoli heard this, her face flushed with shame, and she asked him desperately: "Does he really want to cut the pants? In that case, wouldn't the entire thigh be exposed to him?"

Just when Ruoli was still unable to accept Charlie's decision for a while, he had already picked up a pair of scissors, followed the position where the crossbow arrow was shot, upwards a few centimeters, and cut Ruoli's entire trouser.

Ruoli only felt a sudden cold in her right leg, and when she looked down, her slender leg was completely exposed to the air, and she immediately covered her face shyly.

Charlie didn't expect that Ruoli's legs would be so beautiful, even far surpassing all the women he knew.

This may have a lot to do with her martial arts training since childhood.

Her legs are not only slender, but also very straight, and even with faint muscle lines. Compared with those supermodels, it is not less than that, and even better. It is definitely the best leg in a million.

Seeing Charlie staring at her leg motionless, Ruoli felt embarrassed in her heart. She felt that although this man was very strong, he seemed to have nothing different from those squint men. The difference was not that much.

So she asked a little bit angrily: "What are you looking at?"

Charlie raised his head, smiled indifferently, and said calmly: "I'm looking at your legs, your legs are very beautiful."

Chapter 2159

Ruoli didn't expect Charlie to admit the matter of looking at her legs so generously.

He was so open and natural, and Ruoli's angry mood suddenly seemed a bit at a loss.

She, who had some accusations against Charlie, suddenly didn't know what to do.

Moreover, the bit of anger in her heart disappeared with his generous confession.

So, she could only give him a shy look, then turned her face away, and whispered with a bit of shame: "If you see enough, please help me treat... "

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Okay, let's start treatment now."

Ruoli asked subconsciously: "If you have watched enough."

After finishing speaking, she realized that it didn't seem to be right, so she asked for help in embarrassment: "Uh, no...I didn't mean that...I mean, if you really saw enough, Let's start..."

When she said this, she was somewhat disappointed.

Charlie smiled slightly and said without shame: "The doctor is kind, although your legs are really good-looking, I still have to help you deal with the wound quickly."

After speaking, he held Ruoli's thigh with one hand, and took a pair of pliers in the other hand, and said: "The crossbow arrow has barbs. I can only cut it from the tail and pull it away from both sides. It will hurt a bit, you have to bear with it."

Ruoli nodded gently: "Come on, I can bear it."

Charlie snorted, carefully cut the crossbow arrow with pliers, then grabbed the arrow, and said: "In this way, I count 123, and then take it out. You get mentally prepared."

Ruoli hurriedly said: "Okay!"

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "Come on, let's start, one or two..."

Just after the word was finished, Ruoli felt a sharp pain in her leg, and the pain caused her to shout immediately: "Oh, it hurts... Didn't you say that you count to three? How to count to two?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I am a person who likes to surprise. If I really counted three times, what if you can't control it and suddenly retract your leg?"

Ruoli had tears in her painful eyes, and said grotesquely: "Then you can't be so unexpected, I'm almost so painful, I wasn't prepared at all..."

Charlie smiled and said: "How can you say that you are a tried-and-tested killer, why can't you stand this pain?"

Ruoli said aggrieved: "It was really painful just now. I was injured by this cold weapon. The pain is much worse than being shot by a bullet..."

Charlie smiled faintly: "The pain is the same thing. It's all right now. I will debride and sterilize your wound, put some anti-infection medicine, and then bandage the wound. It's basically done."

Ruoli could only nod her head and asked, "Would you not use alcohol to sterilize me? That will hurt even more..."

Charlie waved his hand: "Alcohol is not suitable for wound sterilization. I will use some iodophor for you. Don't worry, it doesn't hurt as much as alcohol."

Ruoli breathed a sigh of relief, and then saw that Charlie brought a bottle full of iodophor, then used metal tweezers to add a clean cotton ball, and then dipped the cotton ball with iodophor and applied it evenly. Above her wounds.

Iodophor is a drug that is very suitable for debridement and sterilization of wounds, and the pain is indeed much less than that of alcohol.

Chapter 2160

Seeing Charlie holding the tweezers and carefully helping her with the wound, Ruoli's heart felt a little more fond of this strange man who had made her extremely angry.

She looked at Charlie and asked in a curious voice: "Hey...I don't know what your name is yet!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Does my name matter to you?"

Ruoli pretended to be annoyed and said, "The last time you cheated me, I haven't settled the account with you yet! So you are of course very important to me!"

Charlie nodded, and said, "Hey...I cheated you because you did a little too much to kill the Matsumoto family at that time. You are also Chinese, so naturally you know what the Chinese ancestors did. Don't you still understand the reason that style is not harmful to your family?"

Ruoli looked a little ashamed and said, "Although I did the things, I also acted on orders. The owner of the family clearly asked the Matsumoto family to pay the most painful price, so I followed his instructions and led people to execute it"

Charlie asked her: "The Patriarch you are talking about, is it Zynn or Chengfeng?"

Ruoli whispered: "It's Zynn..."

Charlie sneered, with a bit of disdain, and a bit of self-deprecating: "Zynn, this old bastard, luck is so good, I accidentally saved his son and daughter because of a coincidence. It was Zhifei and Zhiyu, the two heirs of the Su family. Unexpectedly, I saved his illegitimate daughter today, and I am fcuking drunk!"

Ruoli exclaimed: "What did you say? You saved Zhifei and Zhiyu?!"

Charlie nodded and said uncomfortably: "Yes, I did save the two. I didn't know that they were the children of Zynn. If I knew, I would definitely not save them!"

Ruoli couldn't help asking: "Do you have any deep hatred for him?"

Charlie looked at Ruoli and said seriously: "I have an antagonism with him!"

After that, Charlie said again: "I said, one day, I will let him kneel in front of me, crying and apologizing to me, begging me for forgiveness, and then, I might cut off his head with a single knife. , He may also smile and succumb, whether it is death or life, it depends on his own good fortune!"

Charlie still doesn't know how much the death of his parents has to do with Zynn.

Judging from the information he has so far, Zynn was indeed an enemy of his father at all times, and even personally formed the famous Anti-wade Alliance at the time.

However, it is still unknown whether the death of the parents is related to the Anti-Wade Alliance and how much it has.

In his speculation, three parties are responsible for the death of his parents. One is the Wade family, one is the Su family, and the other is the Rothschild family in Europe.

It's just that he hasn't figured out who is most responsible for these three parties.

Ruoli was shocked when she heard this, and asked tentatively, "Could you tell me what hatred you have with him?"

Charlie said lightly: "You don't need to ask such details about this."

Ruoli nodded in disappointment, and then asked: "Then...then can you tell me your name?"

Charlie said lightly: "My last name is Wade, and my name is Charlie."

Ruoli muttered to herself: "The last name is Wade... Charlie Wade? Could it be... Could it be..."

When Ruoli said this, she looked straight at him and exclaimed: "Are you from the Wade family?!"

Chapter 2161

Seeing Ruoli recognize his origin, Charlie smiled slightly and said calmly: "Yes, I can indeed be regarded as the Wade family, or the Wade family before."

Ruoli thought for a moment and muttered: "Before it was the Wade family, that means you are not in the Wade family now..."

With that said, she said with a very shocked expression: "The Wade family was not prosperous at first, and every direct descendant is very familiar to me. If you are not in the Wade family, then you probably are..."

When the words came to her lips, Ruoli was shocked and couldn't add anything!

She stared at Charlie, and said in amazement: "Among the direct descendants that the Wade family left, there was only one Changying, but he died more than 20 years ago. Could it be...are you his? son?"

Charlie's expression flashed, and he said seriously: "Yes, I am Changying's son!"

"Gosh!"

Ruoli's whole person seemed to be struck by lightning at this moment.

Although Changying had passed away before she was born. , But she still knew this name.

Not only that, but she also knew some of the past matters between her father Zynn and Changying.

She knew that her father's biggest rival in this life was Changying.

She also knew that the biggest blow to her father in this life also came from Changying.

In those days, any person in Eastcliff mentioned Changying, it was bound to be full of praise and admiration with both hands and thumbs up.

And when they mentioned Zynn, everyone showed a bit of regret.

Many people lament that Zynn was born at the wrong time, because Changying was so dazzling that he completely crushed all the style of Zynn.

Ruoli also knew that his father had not only been suppressed by Changying, but more importantly, even his wife was one of Changying's most loyal suitors.

At that time, her father was struggling to pursue his current wife, but his current wife loved Changying to death.

Using an ancient poem to describe Zynn's situation at that time could not be more appropriate.

That ancient poem is: "I turned my heart to the moon, but the moon shines on the ditch."

It can be said that Zynn's wife was desperate to chase Changying and hopeless, and she married him in desperation.

Therefore, Zynn has always lived in the shadow of Changying.

Speaking of which, Charlie's father was definitely the person Zynn hated the most in his life.

Ruoli knew these past events very clearly, but she never dreamed that she would meet Changying's son one day.

Chapter 2162

Moreover, what is even more unexpected is that she would have so many stories with him...

Even her right leg is now held in his hand...

Thinking of this, she suddenly felt that the world was indeed good fortune.

She couldn't help thinking in her heart: "I have always been serving the Su family wholeheartedly, and even willing to dedicate my life to them..."

"But, I never dreamed that the Su family would make me look like this, and almost kill me..."

"And this Charlie, as a descendant of the Wade family, is originally the mortal enemy of the entire Su family, plus he is the son of Changying, to her father Zynn, he was a thorn in the eye and a thorn in the flesh, but it happened to be the mortal enemy of the Su family. He saved my life at the most critical moment. All this is really ironic..."

Seeing that Ruoli's expression was very rich, Charlie couldn't help teasing her: "What? Knowing that I am the Wade family, did you immediately arouse the hatred of you as a Su family and the hatred of Wade family in your heart?"

Ruoli hurriedly waved her hand and said in a flustered manner, "It's not what you think...If I knew you were the Wade family before today, then I would definitely hate you even more."

With that said, she sighed and said with emotion: "Hey...now I have thoroughly understood. I am just a tool for the Su family, and a tool that can be sacrificed at any time. , They don't take this b@stard girl seriously..."

Speaking of this, Ruoli said with a bit of self-deprecating expression: "My father has always been very worried that his wife knows my life experience. It may be a good thing for him that I die, at least it can make him feel relieved, so he didn't have to worry that his beloved wife would discover the fact that he had betrayed his marriage..."

Charlie looked at Ruoli and said with some sympathy: "You don't need to be too sad about this. In fact, if you think about it from another angle, this is not a good thing. At least you can see it clearly now. Their true colors and you have not received very serious injuries in nature, this is better than when you suddenly realized the moment before dying, right?"

Ruoli nodded lightly, looked at Charlie's red eyes, and choked softly: "Master, thank you very much. Thank you for saving my life regardless of the predecessors. Today's incident. If it were me, and you were killed in front of my eyes, I might not have a mind to save you..."

Charlie said seriously: "That's for sure, not only will you not save me, but you yourself want to kill me."

Ruoli immediately felt ashamed, lowered her head, and whispered softly: "This matter is indeed too stupid for me. All I have been thinking about is to serve the Su family and my biological father. Never thought about what other people think of me..."

Charlie asked her: "Then what are your plans now?"

Ruoli asked in surprise: "Master, didn't you say that you want to take me to Aurous Hill? Are you going to change your mind?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded, and said: "I really intend to take you back to Aurous Hill, and I am not afraid to put the ugly words first, even now, I am not absolutely relieved of you."

Having said that, Charlie continued: "So, after you return to Aurous Hill with me, I will not give you freedom right away, but will restrict you until I have settled my affairs, or you can only be free when I feel that you are truly 100% credible."

Ruoli nodded without thinking and said seriously: "I understand what you are saying. If I were you, I would not immediately trust too."

Immediately, she smiled bitterly, and said, "Master, from now on, I will cause you trouble..."

"But don't worry, I have always said one thing since I was young!"

"From now on, I will never have any rebellious heart towards you, nor will intend to hurt you or anyone around you!"

"And after arriving in Aurous Hill, I will definitely follow your instructions..."

"After all, you saved my life..."

Chapter 2163

The reason why Charlie rescued Ruoli was because he saw the Su family's intention to kill her, adhering to the basic principle of "the enemy's enemy is a friend", so he decided to save her.

As long as Ruoli had a barrier to the Su family in her centrifugation, then this person could become a big help for Charlie to seek revenge from the Su family in the future.

If you control it properly and turn her into a loyal subordinate, it is not impossible for Charlie to see it.

If you want to take a person into your own use, the most important thing is to make her owe your favor.

In this world, no favor is more important than life-saving grace.

Charlie's current plan is to take her back to Aurous Hill first, then hide her well, and then just wait and see what changes will happen to the Su family.

As for teaming up with Ruoli to take revenge on the Su family, this is not in a hurry. Charlie likes to plan and then move. If you don't move, moving is more than just peeling the Su family. At least, you have to kill half of this Fate is justified.

Subsequently, Charlie further processed the wound for Ruoli.

After bandaging the piercing wound, Charlie said to Ruoli: "Okay, the wound has been treated almost. Our boat will be traveling at sea for more than 30 hours, so you can rest in your room. Just call the crew if you need it."

Ruoli nodded lightly, and said gratefully: "Thank you, Master..."

Charlie waved his hand slightly: "It's just a matter of raising your hand, you don't need to be so polite."

Having said that, Charlie carefully put down her slender right leg, and said: "You can rest, I will go now."

Ruoli hurriedly said: "Master, I will send you..."

"No need." Charlie said calmly: "You take your time and rest."

Having said that, he remembered that he had sealed Ruoli's meridians before, so he said: "I just temporarily sealed your meridians with internal force. Now I will help you unlock them, but you still have to pay attention. Don't move your right leg to a large extent, and try not to get wet. If you want to take a bath, wrap the bandage in a plastic bag."

Ruoli nodded obediently and said: "I know Master, please help me, otherwise it is really difficult to exert strength."

Charlie stretched out his hand and tapped her ankle lightly, and directly took away the pain left in her body.

Ruoli also instantly felt that the meridians that had been sealed in her body were completely opened at this moment, and she couldn't help but sigh at Charlie's supernatural powers:

"Master can control the opening of my meridians with his fingers. Hey, this kind of ability is incredible. Fortunately, he didn't have the heart to kill me. Otherwise, if he really wanted my life, I'm afraid it would be easy..."

At this moment, Charlie stood up and said: "It's okay, you rest, I'm leaving."

Ruoli hurriedly escorted him to the door and said respectfully: "Master, go slowly..."

For Charlie, Ruoli really admired him from the bottom of her heart.

Not only because of his strength, but also because of his extraordinary identity.

From Ruoli's point of view, Charlie's strength is outstanding, and he is also the son of Wade Family Master Changying, and he really deserves to be called a Master.

.....

At this moment.

Charlie's ship had left Japan's territorial waters and entered the high seas.

On the other side, the Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force finally arrived at the scheduled location and waited for the ship of Su's.

Chapter 2164

When the yacht appeared on the radar screen, the captain of the Maritime Self-Defense Force smiled and said, "Damn, after waiting so long, these b@stards have finally arrived!"

His deputy smiled and said: "Captain, if we arrest Ruoli this time, it must be another great achievement, right?"

The captain nodded: "Of course, this Ruoli is the number one culprit. As long as we take her back, it will be a great achievement whether it is alive or dead!"

As he said, he was a little excited and eagerly said: "I will try not to shoot later, I have to catch her!"

Soon, the cruise ship on the radar was less than one nautical mile away from where they were ambushing.

The patrol boats of the Self-Defense Forces had been completely silent for a long time. They turned off the engines, turned off the transponder and all the lights on the ship, and waited for the target to approach them before they were caught off guard.

Seeing that the target was getting closer, the captain of the Self-Defense Force immediately ordered: "Start the arrest!"

At this moment, six patrol boats of the Self-Defense Force turned on their spotlights at the same time, and six lights illuminated the unmanned yacht together.

The captain of the fleet said loudly in the loudspeaker: "Listen to the ship in front, we are the Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force, please turn off the engine immediately for an inspection!"

After the voice shouted out, according to the original plan, the target ship should start to slow down, but what he didn't expect was that the target ship didn't even slow down and continued to move in his direction.

So he hurriedly shouted again: "Listen to the ship in front, you are now surrounded by us. It is your best choice to give up resistance and raise your hands to surrender. If you refuse to surrender, then we will take coercive measures. That's it!"

The yacht continued on without slowing down.

The captain yelled angrily: "I warn you, if you don't turn off the engine immediately, we will shoot you according to law!"

The yacht still regarded him as air and continued to sail forward.

The captain saw that it was about to rush out of the encirclement, but he didn't mean to catch it with his hands. He couldn't help but wonder: "What the hell are these guys up to? Aren't they stop the boat after I say something?"

The deputy on the side couldn't help asking: "Captain, do they want to take the opportunity to drive away?"

The captain said angrily: "The ghost knows! This group of people is unreliable, so quickly catch up and force him to stop!"

The six Self-Defense Forces patrol boats quickly chased up. They sandwiched the target cruise ship and approached it little by little.

When they approached, someone exclaimed: "Captain, there seems to be no one on that ship!"

"What?! Nobody?!"

The man nodded and said, "Yes, you can see clearly in the telescope, there is no one in the cockpit, and there is no one on the deck!"

The Captain of the Self-Defense Captain trembled in shock, and blurted out: "Damn! Could it be the Su family who played the Golden Cicada's shell for us?!"

Thinking of this, he immediately ordered: "Quickly stop it, get on the boat and check it out for me!"

The speedboats of the Self-Defense Forces are naturally much faster than yachts, and they soon surrounded the yachts tightly, and even completely sandwiched it left and right.

At this time, several ships and the cruise ship in between remained relatively still, and several self-defense members with guns and live ammunition immediately jumped onto the ship to check the situation under the command of the captain.

It doesn't matter at all, there is no one on board!

The captain slapped his thigh and scolded angrily, "The Su family b@stards! It seems that it is fake that they want us to act together. It is true that they want to adjust the tiger away from the mountain. Even we dare to play with us, they are tired Right?!"

Chapter 2165

To say that the old fox Chengfeng does have a few brushes.

He pretended to save Ruoli this time, but he didn't actually spend much money, because the entire Self-Defense Force was an actor who played with him for free.

As for why the Self-Defense Force is willing to cooperate with Chengfeng for free, this has to be traced back to when Ruoli and other Su masters were arrested.

At that time, Ruoli and others destroyed the Matsumoto family and put the entire TMPD to shame. Afterward, they collectively planned to escape from Osaka. At the critical moment when the plane was about to take off, the Self-Defense Forces came forward and captured them all.

Therefore, this incident immediately made the Self-Defense Force famous.

While people praised the Self-Defense Forces for their work, they would even scold the TMPD as a bloody head, thinking that they were a bit too wasteful.

Prior to this, the reputation and social status of the Self-Defense Force in Japan were not high.

Since the defeat in World War II, the attitude of the Japanese people towards soldiers has been far less respectful than before.

After the Self-Defense Forces realized that the arrest of Ruoli had greatly improved their social status, they were immersed in this highly anticipated feeling, and they were bent on creating new miracles.

The shrewd Chengfeng, through the praise of the Japanese nationals on the Self-Defense Forces, realized that the Self-Defense Forces must enjoy this feeling very much. Therefore, he directly commissioned people to connect and communicate with the high level of the Self-Defense Forces and wanted to cooperate with them in a big show.

This drama is also very simple, that is, let the Self-Defense Forces help Ruoli escape, and then the Su family will guide Ruoli directly into the French Open prepared by the Self-Defense Forces during the escape.

In this way, the Self-Defense Force once again successfully captured Ruoli who fled, and they will surely gain greater recognition from the people.

Moreover, the original design was to allow her to escape from the TMPD after the prisoners were handed over to the TMPD.

In this way, the Self-Defense Forces can completely disassociate themselves, and at the same time drag the TMPD into the water.

After the prisoner escaped, the Self-Defense Force intercepted the prisoner from the sea and carried out a series of propaganda in the media.

That is equivalent to the Self-Defense Force has captured the prisoner now at Osaka Airport, and then the TMPD, after handing over the prisoner, will take the prisoner, and then the Self-Defense Force will wipe the bu.tt for the TMPD, grab the Killed.

In that way, the Self-Defense Forces occupy the two sides, and the TMPD is not human in the middle.

Because of this, the Self-Defense Force unconditionally cooperated with Chengfeng's plan, in order to recapture Ruoli and once again play the role of turning the tide.

Chengfeng is really good at calculating.

He not only counted the Self-Defense Forces, and made a big help for them, but also calculated Ruoli and the whole He family.

The He family has always been concerned about Ruoli's safety. Since Chengfeng promised the He family that he would rescue Ruoli, the He family has been very grateful to him.

Now, the Su family did indeed rescue Ruoli from Tokyo. This alone is enough for the He family to be grateful.

But how could the He family know that Father Su was just acting for them?

His original plan was to rescue Ruoli from the TMPD and hand her over to the Self-Defense Force.

Chapter 2166

Simply turning the left and right hands on the right hand can achieve both sides and greatly reduce the cost of the whole thing. For the Su family, it has the best of both worlds.

However, no one thought that everything carefully planned would suddenly change.

Even the old man Su himself is looking forward to the news of Ruoli successfully captured by the Self-Defense Forces in Eastcliff.

While he was waiting anxiously, a senior member of the Self-Defense Force directly called.

As soon as the phone connected, Old Su cheerfully asked, "Matsushima-san, have you caught Ruoli?"

"Caught a sh!t!" the other party scolded on the phone: "Why is there no one in the boat you arranged?! Where is Ruoli now?!"

Elder Su asked in amazement: "What did you say? No one in the boat?!"

The other party said angrily: "Yes, there is no one in the boat!"

"This..." Su suddenly became a little nervous and said: "My subordinates told me not long ago that everything is under control. How could they suddenly disappear?"

"Why are you asking me?!" The other party said furiously: "We have been waiting at the predetermined location, and we have waited until now to finally wait for the target ship, but there is not even a ghost shadow on board!"

As he said, the other party threatened viciously: "I tell you Su, if you don't hand over Ruoli as soon as possible, then don't blame us for being rude to you!"
