The luxurious Willson family villa is brightly lit.

Tonight is the birthday banquet of the seventy-year-old Mrs. Willson, the owner of the Willson family.

Many grandchildren, granddaughters, and grandsons-in-law gave gifts.

"Grandma, I heard that you love tea. This century-old Pu'er tea brick is worth 500,000 and is a birthday gift for you."

"Grandma, I heard that you believe in Buddha. This jade Buddha is carved from Hetian jade and is worth 700,000."

Old Mrs. Willson looked at the various gifts and laughed, making the whole family happy.

At this moment, Mrs. Willson's eldest grandson-in-law, Charlie, suddenly said:
"Grandma, can you lend me a million? Aunt Lena from the orphanage has uremia and needs money for treatment."

The entire Willson family was shocked.

Everyone looked at Charlie with incredible eyes.

This live-in son-in-law is too courageous, right? The Lady Willson was over her birthday. Not only did he not prepare any gifts, he even dared to open his mouth and ask the Lady Willson to borrow one million?

Three years ago, the surviving Mr. Willson, don't know from where found Charlie, and insisted on marrying his eldest granddaughter Claire Willson to him. At that time, Charlie was penniless, just like a beggar, same as now.

After the two got married, the Old Master passed away. Since then, the Willson family has been deliberately trying to drive him away.

It's just that Charlie is indifferent, and is not moved by other people's insults, so he has always been a live-in son-in-law in the Willson family.

It is also helpless to ask the Lady Willson to borrow money today.

Aunt Lena from the orphanage where he was taken in and saved, had uremia. Dialysis and kidney transplantation required at least one million. He really had no choice but to speak to the Lady Willson.

He felt that today is the Lady Willson's birthday, and then she may be kind and willing to help when she is happy.

Unexpectedly, the Old Mrs. Willson was still laughing for a second, and she immediately pulled her face down this second.

She threw the teacup in her hand to the ground and shouted angrily: "b*start thing, you are here to celebrate my birthday or to borrow money?"

Charlie's wife, Claire, hurried forward and explained to the Lady Willson: "Grandma, Charlie is ignorant, don't be surprised."

With that said, she was about to pull Charlie aside.

At this time, Claire's cousin, Wendy, sneered and said, "Sister, look at what kind of rubbish your marriage is! Gerald and I were just engaged and not yet married, so Gerald gave grandma a Hetian Jade Buddha, it's good for your husband, he didn't bring any gifts, and he still have the face to ask grandma to borrow money!"

"That's right, Brother Charlie, we are both grandsons-in-law of the Willson family. You, as the eldest grandson-in-law, are really a failure!"

The man who spoke was Wendy's fiance, Gerald, the young master of a large local family.

Although Gerald was about to marry Wendy, in his mind, Wendy's appearance was a thousand miles away from Charlie's wife Claire.

Claire was a well-known goddess in Aurous Hill, but seeing the goddess marrying this worthless man and a waste of money, Gerald was also very upset.

"This kind of garbage, it's best to get him out of our Willson family as soon as possible!"

"Yes! The Willson family's face has completely lost this guy!"

"I think it is fake that he borrowed money, and his interest in deliberately sweeping the birthday feast of the Lady Willson is true!"

Charlie couldn't help clenching his fists when he saw that the entire Willson family was targeting and insulting him.

Had it not been for the medical expenses of the savior, he would have turned around and left this place of fake extravaganza and pomp.

However, thinking of his father's teachings to him since he was a child, letting his kindness of dripping water and retribution to the spring, he tried to suppress the humiliation in his heart, and said to the Old Mrs. Willson: "Grandma, saving a life is better than building a seventh-level Buddha. Please be merciful"

Someone snorted coldly and cursed: "Wade, you don't want to give grandma ecstasy here. If you want to have someone, you can find a way by yourself and don't let your grandma pay to help you save people. What are you?"

It was Wendy's brother, Harold.

The brothers and sisters have always had great opinions on Claire, who is superior to them in all aspects, so they like to seize the opportunity to mock Charlie the most.

Claire on the side looked a little embarrassed and said, "Grandma, Charlie lost his father when he was eight years old. Aunt Lena from the orphanage brought him up. He wanted to repay his gratitude because of a grateful heart. Please help him"

Old Mrs. Willson said with a dark face: "Let me help him? Okay, unless you divorce him and then marry Mr. Jones, if you do, I will immediately give him one million!"

The Lady Willson was talking about Wendell, who had been pursuing Claire. The Jones family was an upper-class family in Aurous Hill, much more powerful than the Willson family, and the Lady Willson always wanted to curry favor.

At this time, the housekeeper ran in and said loudly: "Mr. Jones sent someone with a birthday gift! A carved jade amulet from Laokeng is worth three million!"

Mrs. Willson was overjoyed and blurted out: "Bring it quickly, let me see!"

The butler immediately handed over an emerald green jade amulet, and everyone present let out a breath of surprise.

This jade amulet is emerald green, crystal clear, without a trace of impurities, and looks like a first-class genuine product.

Gerald, who had sent the Hetian Jade Buddha, saw this jade amulet, and his face was a little bit awkward. Unexpectedly, Wendell had nothing to do with the Willson family, and his shot was so generous!

Old Mrs. Willson happily played with jade amulets and said merrily: "Oh, Mr. Jones is really interested! Only if he could be my grandson-in-law, I would really wake up in my dreams!"

After that, she looked up at Claire: "How about my condition, would you like to consider it?"

Claire shook her head: "Grandma, I will not divorce Charlie."

Mrs. Willson's expression instantly turned into a haze, and she angrily cursed: "Don't give me your face! You must hang on this rubbish! Let this rubbish get out of my face! My birthday banquet, he is not allowed to participate!"

Charlie was completely disappointed, and he had no face to stay in the Willson family at this time, so he said to Claire, "Claire, I will go to the hospital to see Aunt Lena."

Claire hurriedly said, "Then I will be with you."

Old Mrs. Willson cursed at this moment: "If you leave too, I won't have you as granddaughter in the future! You take your parents and your mother, and get out of Willson's house with this waste!"

Claire looked startled, and she didn't expect the Lady Willson to say such harsh words.

Charlie said hurriedly: "You stay, don't worry about me."

With that said, before Claire recovered, he turned around and walked out.

Harold laughed behind him, "Oh my good brother-in-law, you left hungry and won't go to the streets to beg for dinner? In that case, our Willson family's face will not let you lose all of it? I still have it. For a coin, you can buy a steamed bun to eat!"

Harold said, took out a coin and threw it at Charlie's feet.

The entire Willson family burst into laughter.

Charlie gritted his teeth and left the Willson family without looking back.

When he rushed to the hospital, Charlie immediately went to the payment office, wanting to communicate with the hospital, and to inform them that the medical expenses would be delayed for another two days.

However, when he asked the nurse, he was suddenly told that Aunt Lena had been sent to the best Hospital in Eastcliff overnight.

Charlie was shocked, and hurriedly asked her: "How much does it cost? I'll find a way!"

The other party said: "A total of three million is needed. One million has been paid, and there is still a gap of two million. It will be paid in a week."

"Who paid this million?"

The other party shook her head: "I don't know either."

Charlie was surprised and was about to figure it out. When he turned his head, a man in a black suit with gray hair, about fifty years old, was standing behind him.

With eyes facing each other, the man bowed to him and said, "Young master, you have suffered for so many years!"

Charlie frowned, as if his temperament had changed, and asked coldly: "Are you Stephen Thompson?"

The other party said in surprise: "Mr. Wade, you still remember me!"

Charlie's expression froze, and he murmured: "Of course I remember! I remember every one of you! Back then, you forced my parents to take me out of Eastcliff and escape all the way. During this time, my parents died unexpectedly. I have also become an orphan, so why are you looking for me now!"

Stephen Thompson said very painfully: "Young Master, when your father passed away, Old Master Wade was also extremely sad. He has been looking for you for so many years. Now that it is all right, he wants you to come back to him with me!"

Charlie said coldly: "You can go, I will never see him in my life."

Stephen Thompson said, "Young Master, do you still blame Master Wade?"

"Of course." Charlie said word by word: "I will never forgive him in my life!"

"Hey" Stephen Thompson sighed and said: "Before I came, Master Wade said you might not forgive him."

"That means he has self-knowledge!"

Stephen Thompson said: "Old Mr Wade. knows that you have suffered over the years, he wants to compensate you a little. If you don't want to go back, he will buy the largest company in Aurous Hill and give it to you. In addition, he has asked me to give you this card. The password is your birthday."

With that, Stephen Thompson handed over a Citibank premium card.

"Mr. Wade, there are only five such cards in the country."

Charlie shook his head and said, "Take it away, I don't want it."

Stephen Thompson said: "Mr. Wade, for your savior, you still have a shortfall of 2 million in medical expenses. If you fail to pay, her life may be in danger."

Charlie frowned: "You deliberately fix me?"

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, "I don't dare to! If you accept this card, it will be enough to pay the money."

Charlie asked, "How much money is in this card?"

"Mr. said, this card is for you as a little pocket money, not much, a total of 10 billion!"

chapter 2

Ten billion? !

Charlie was stunned.

He knew that his grandfather's family was rich, but at that time he was young and had no idea about money. He only knew that the Wade family was one of the top families in Eastcliff and in the country.

But he didn't know exactly how much money it had.

But at this moment, he knew it.

Ten billion is just pocket money, and when it is about the entire Wade family, he is afraid it will be more than one trillion!

To be honest, at this moment, he was deeply moved in his heart.

But thinking of the death of his parents, Grandpa couldn't shirk the blame, and he couldn't forgive him.

Stephen Thompson saw his entanglement and hurriedly said, "Master, you are the heir of Wade family. You deserve this money, and strictly speaking, it belongs to your father."

"Master said, if you are willing to go back, you will inherit the trillions of family properties. If you don't want to go back, this money will be given as your living expenses."

"Oh yes, Aurous Hill's largest enterprise, the Emgrand Group with a market value of 100 billion, was wholly-owned by Yejia yesterday. Now all the shares are in your name, you can go to Emgrand Group for the hand over by tomorrow!"

Charlie was a little unbelievable.

Wade Family's investment is too big for him to handle, right?

Ten billion premium cards, one hundred billion Emgrand Group!

Although Aurous Hill hides the dragon and crouching tiger, the only true god is the Emgrand Group. Any family must bow to their knees in front of the Emgrand Group. It is the emperor of Aurous Hill's business field!

Even the Willson family and White family who humiliated him today, as well as the Jones family who pursue Claire, are all small in front of the Emgrand Group!

Unexpectedly, it turns out to be his own now?

At this time, Stephen Thompson handed him a business card and said, "Mr. Wade, you may need to calm down and think about it. I won't bother you anymore. This is my phone number. Please tell me if you have anything to do!"

After speaking, Stephen Thompson turned and left.

After he left, Charlie was still in a daze.

He didn't know whether he should accept Wade Family's compensation.

But, thinking about it carefully, the humiliation that he has experienced over the past ten years, and the humiliation he has been given in the Willson family, these are the compensations given to him by the Wade family, why doesn't he take it?

Moreover, Aunt Lena's medical expenses still need two million, and it is urgent.

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and immediately turned back to the toll office: "Hello, I want to deposit the two million."

Swipe the card, enter the password, the transaction is successful.

Two million was easily credited to the hospital's account.

Charlie felt like the whole person was in the mist.

Has he become a billionaire?

Going home in a muddled manner.

The family had fallen out at this time.

Claire and her parents did not live in Willson's villa, but a very ordinary building.

They have been driven out since Claire married him and Old Mr. Willson died.

His mother-in-law was yelling at home: "Charlie that rubbish! Let us lose face today! If you don't divorce him, your grandmother will drive you out of the Willson Group!"

Claire said, "I'll find another job when I get out."

"You" said mother-in-law angrily: "What's so good about that rubbish? Why can't you divorce him and then marry Wendell? If you marry Wendell, our family can be proud!"

The father-in-law also said to the side: "Yes! Marry Wendell, our family will become a treasure immediately in front of your grandma, and your grandma will rush to curry favor with you every day."

Claire said: "Don't say anything, I won't divorce Charlie."

"You kid!"

The two had to persuade Charlie to push in.

When they saw him, his father-in-law and mother-in-law didn't look good.

The mother-in-law snorted coldly: "A rubbish, and a face to bear it all!"

Charlie sighed inwardly. His mother-in-law has always looked down upon him, but if he were to let her know that he is now the boss of the Emgrand Group and has 10 billion in cash, what would she be like?

However, Charlie is not yet ready to let people know his identity.

He has been away from the Wade family for many years, who knows what the Wade family is now? What if someone in the Wade family is unfavorable to him if he exposes himself?

Therefore, it is better to keep a low profile first.

So he lowered his head and said apologetically: "Mom, I'm sorry, I caused you trouble today."

The mother-in-law scolded: "You are more than trouble, you are killing our family of three! You can't be a little self-aware, and get out of our house?"

Claire hurriedly said: "Mom, how do you talk, Charlie is your son-in-law!"

"bulls*it!" Mother-in-law said bitterly: "I don't have such a waste son-in-law! The farther you go, the better!"

Claire pushed Charlie: "Hurry go to the room."

Charlie nodded gratefully and fled back to the room.

He and Claire had been married for three years, but they had never been married for three years in the strict sense. Claire slept on the bed and he slept on the floor next to her.

This night, Charlie couldn't sleep for a long time.

What happened today is really shocking, he will not be able to digest it for a while.

Before going to bed, Claire said to him, "How is Aunt Lena? I still have more than 100,000 private money. You can take it to her tomorrow."

Charlie said: "No, someone has already paid Aunt Lena and sent her to Eastcliff for treatment."

"Really?" Claire said in surprise, "Aunt Lena is saved?"

"Yes." Charlie said: "Aunt Lena has done good and accumulated virtue throughout her life and helped so many people. Now someone has finally repaid her."

"That's good." Claire nodded and said to Charlie: "You can breathe a sigh of relief."

"Yes."

Claire said: "I have to go to sleep. Recently, the company has a lot of things and I'm so tired."

Charlie asked: "What happened to the company?"

Claire said: "The business is not very good. Grandma has always wanted to cooperate with a large company like the Emgrand Group, but the strength of the Willson family is still much weaker and people look down on it."

Charlie suddenly thought of the Emgrand Group and asked her: "The Willson family has no cooperation with the Emgrand Group?"

Claire laughed at him and said: "How can the Emgrand Group look at the Willson family! Even Wendy's fiancé and Gerald's family are barely able to catch up with the Emgrand Group. Grandma counts on them after they get married. The White family can help the Willson family connect with the Emgrand Group.”

Charlie nodded.

It turned out that the Willson family had sharpened their heads and wanted to cooperate with the Emgrand Group.

However, Mrs. Willson was afraid of dreaming and could not think of it, Emgrand Group is now his own.

Thinking of this, Charlie decided to take over the Emgrand Group first, and then give Claire a little help through the Emgrand Group. She was too bullied in the Willson family. As her husband, he had the responsibility to help her improve her status in the family.

At first, Your husband is different from today!

I will never let anyone look down on you again!

I will make the entire Willson family bow to you!

Chapter 3

Early the next morning.

After Charlie finished cooking, he rode his little ebike to the Emgrand Group.

He parked the little ebike next to the parking lot of the Emgrand Group. As soon as the bike was locked, a black Bentley car slowly parked in a parking space opposite.

Charlie looked up inadvertently and saw a pair of young man and woman walking down the car.

The man is dressed in high-end suits, they look very stylish, and the women are coquettish. Although a bit gaudy, they are also rare beauties.

It turned out to be Claire's cousin Wendy, and her about to be engaged fiance, Gerald, the eldest of the White family.

Charlie didn't know what Wendy and Gerald were doing in the Emgrand Group, but in order to avoid trouble, he still prepared to hideaway.

Unexpectedly, things are hiding more and more.

The sharp-eyed Wendy immediately saw him and shouted loudly: "Oh, brother-in-law!"

Wendy's brother-in-law yelled extremely cordially, but Charlie couldn't help but he strode faster after hearing it.

Out of courtesy, he could only stop, and when the two approached, he smiled and said, "Wendy, why are you here?"

Wendy giggled: "I and Gerald came over to meet with Doris, the vice chairman of Emgrand Group!"

After that, she looked at Gerald with admiration and said, "Gerald's family has a lot of cooperation with the Emgrand Group. In the future, not only will it help the White family, but also our Willson family."

Charlie didn't know that the White family had a cooperation with the Emgrand Group. After all, the Emgrand Group had just become his industry and had not had time to understand it.

But he didn't show it, just smiled and said: "The Prince has an extraordinary temperament and a good strength. You are really talented and beautiful!"

Gerald White looked at Charlie contemptuously, and couldn't help feeling injustice in his heart.

This stinky rug was scolded by Mrs. Willson yesterday as a dog, and today he has a hippy smile like a okay person.

Why would a stunning beauty like Claire marry such a useless waste?

If it weren't for this useless man, he would definitely pursue Claire desperately, and how could he be engaged to this inferior Wendy in every respect?

Thinking of this, Gerald was upset, and deliberately asked, "What did brother-in-law come to the Emgrand Group for?"

Charlie said casually: "I'm looking for a job."

"Looking for a job?" He sneered and said, "Why do you want to find a job in the Emgrand Group?"

Charlie frowned: "What does my job search have to do with you?"

Wendy called Charlie to stop, just trying to sarcastically sarcasm him. Seeing that Gerald had started first, she immediately sneered: "Why, is Gerald wrong?"

"For academic qualifications, do you have a diploma?"

"If you want a job, do you have any achievements apart from your uselessness?"

"If you come to the Emgrand Group to apply for a security guard, They will not want a waste like you. If you are a little self-knowing, you might as well go picking up rubbish on the street. You can earn two or three thousand at least a month!"

After speaking, she threw the drink bottle in her hand at Charlie's feet and hummed: "Hey, don't say I don't take care about you, pick up this empty bottle and sell it for money!"

Gerald smiled and said: "Although you are rubbish, since you are a relative, then I have to take care of you as much as possible. It just so happens that I have some friendship with the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group. Why don't I help you with two good things and let her arrange it for you? A job cleaning the toilet?"

Charlie smiled coldly and said: "The kind of job I am looking for, you don't need to worry about it. You should worry about yourself. Emgrand Group is a large enterprise. I believe they will not cooperate with you with such low-quality garbage."

Gerald suddenly got furious: "Who do you say is rubbish!"

Charlie said disdainfully: "You are rubbish!"

After speaking, he was too lazy to talk to Gerald, and walked into the Emgrand Group Building.

"Drafting it, stop for me!" Gerald quickly followed, and caught up with Charlie at the elevator entrance.

He wanted to teach Charlie a good lesson, but at least slapped him twice to let him know the fate of people offending him.

But when he saw that he was already inside the Emgrand Group Building, he was worried that doing something here would anger his partners, so he had to temporarily dismiss the idea of teaching him.

he gritted his teeth and said, "I will let you go for a while today, and you won't have such good luck next time!"

Charlie snorted coldly, stepped into the elevator, and said to him: "Gerald, do you think you are a powerful? Believe me, you will soon know the cost of arrogance!"

"f*ck you" Gerald stepped into the elevator.

Wendy gave him a hand and said in a contemptuous tone: "Gerald, don't take the same elevator with this kind of rubbish, lest you get smoked by the stench on his body."

Gerald nodded, knowing that he couldn't do something with him here, so he said coldly: "Letting you go, I want you to look good next time!"

Charlie took the elevator directly to the top floor where the chairman's office was.

On the side of the Emgrand Group, Stephen Thompson had already arranged it for him, and the person in charge of docking with him was a woman named Doris Yong.

Doris is well-known in Aurous Hill, and she is the most famous career oriented woman in Aurous Hill. Not only is she beautiful, but she is also very capable of working. She has been promoted to the vice chairman of Emgrand Group at a young age. She has contributed to Emgrand Group's existence today.

Now that the Emgrand Group has been acquired by the Wade Family, the original chairman has abdicated, and Doris stayed and prepared to assist the new chairman.

When she saw Charlie, Doris was shocked. She didn't expect that Charlie would be so young and handsome!

After that, she did not dare to delay, and immediately said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, please come to my office."

Chapter 4

Charlie also saw Doris for the first time.

I have to say that Doris looks really beautiful!

At the age of twenty-seven or eighteen, she has a slender and plump figure, an alluring beauty and a noble and capable temperament.

Charlie sat down at Doris's desk and said: "I won't come to the Emgrand Group often in the future, so the Emgrand Group wants you to preside over the overall situation, and don't reveal my identity."

Doris knew that the Charlie family in front of her was extraordinary, and an emgrand group was nothing short of drizzle to his family, and it was normal to not want to manage it himself.

So she hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, if you have anything in the future, you can just tell me."

At this time, a female secretary knocked on the door and came in and said, "Miss Doris, there is a man named Gerald who has brought his fiancée to visit you."

Doris immediately said: "I'm seeing the distinguished guests, let them wait first."

Charlie asked her: "Do you know this Gerald?"

Doris hurriedly said: "His family is a partner under us, and their main business is dependent on us. Their family has always said that they will come to visit, and they have been here several times."

Charlie said coldly: "From now on, the Emgrand Group will no longer have any business dealings with the White Family. All ongoing and preparatory cooperation will be suspended. If the White Family can still earn a cent from the Emgrand Group, you deputy Chairman, will have to pack your things!"

When Doris heard this, her expression suddenly frightened. She didn't need to ask to know that someone from the White family must have offended the young master.

So she nodded immediately and said: "Mr.Wade, don't worry, I will order now to terminate all cooperation with the White family!"

Charlie snorted and said, "Tell them that Emgrand Group will not cooperate with low-quality garbage, and then let the security guards drive them out."

Outside, Gerald and Wendy were waiting excitedly.

The White family has always wanted to become a strategic partner of the Emgrand Group, so they especially hope to get closer to Doris.

But unexpectedly, Doris's secretary came with several security guards.

Gerald couldn't help asking her: "Hello, will Miss Doris have time to see us?"

The secretary looked at him and said coldly: "I'm sorry, our Deputy Doris said, Emgrand Group will not cooperate with people of low quality like you, from now on, we are canceling all cooperation with your family!"

"what did you say?!"

Gerald was stunned for a moment, and was astonished. Why is this sentence so familiar?

Oh, right! When he was in the parking lot just now, Charlie also said exactly the same thing!

What does Miss Doris mean? Why should they stop cooperating with the White family?

Gerald felt his brain congested.

what happened?

Terminate all cooperation?

More than half of White's profits are made by the Emgrand Group!

If the cooperation is terminated, wouldn't the family strength be cut by half immediately? !

He could not accept this reality and shouted: "I want to see Miss Doris! I want to ask Miss Doris face to face!"

The secretary said coldly: "I'm sorry, our Deputy Doris won't see you, and you won't be allowed to step into the Emgrand Group in the future!"

Gerald scolded angrily: "Did you deliberately play with me? We are a long-term partner of the Emgrand Group. How can we terminate cooperation like this!"

The secretary ignored him and said directly to the security guards around him: "Take them out!"

The security captain rushed forward, grabbed Gerald's wrist, and then twisted it behind him.

Gerald yelled in pain, and the guard yelled coldly: "Get out! If you dare to make trouble in the Emgrand Group, be careful that I dispose of you!"

"You are a security captain, dare to yell at me, do you know who I am?"

As soon as Gerald's voice fell, Captain slapped him and cursed, "In front of the Emgrand Group, what are you?"

Gerald was slapped with a fierce pain on his face. When he was about to get angry, the phone rang suddenly.

The call turned out to be from his father.

When the phone was connected, an angry roar came from the other side: "Gerald, what did you do? Now that Emgrand Group wants to cancel all cooperation with us, who did you offend?"

Gerald said aggrievedly: "Dad, I have not offended anyone. I just came to visit Miss Doris, but I haven't even seen Miss Doris's face."

On the other end of the phone, Gerald's father yelled, "The people of the Emgrand Group said that the reason they discontinued their cooperation with the White family is all because you are an unqualified rubbish! Now the family has suffered heavy losses because of you, so you hurry back to me and personally Explain to your grandpa!"

Gerald was driven out of the gate of Emgrand Group by security all the way, holding the phone with a surprised expression.

He suddenly thought of Charlie, and couldn't help asking Wendy: "Wendy, is it because of your rubbish brother-in-law? Has he have anything to do with the Emgrand Group?"

"Huh?" Wendy was taken aback by Gerald's words, thinking about it carefully, it might indeed be related to her rubbish brother-in-law.

However, he is obviously a waste!

Thinking of this, she shook her head flatly and said: "How could he have something to do with the Emgrand Group? He is not qualified to come to the Emgrand Group to clean the toilet!"

"That's right." Gerald nodded, thinking of his furious father, he said sullenly: "No, I have to go home quickly."

The news that the White family was terminated by the Emgrand Group immediately spread throughout Aurous Hill.

Although it is not known why the Emgrand Group wants to block the White Family, everyone knows that the White Family must have offended the Emgrand Group.

At this time, the White family was over.

The White family's strength has plummeted by more than half. It was already close to the standard of the first-tier family, but now it has fallen directly into the tail of the second-tier family.

When the Old Mrs. Willson heard the news, she was shaking with anger.

She wanted to annul the marriage contract between Wendy and Gerald, but thought that the White family was thinner and camel was bigger than the horse, and the Willson family could not afford to offend, so she could only give this thought up temporarily.

At this time, in Doris's office.

Charlie learned the whole process just now and admired her style very much.

Charlie said with satisfaction: "Doris, what you did just now is very good. Starting today, your salary will be double."

Doris was surprised and delighted, and hurriedly stood up and bowed to Charlie, "Thank you Mr. Wade!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Also, I want you to announce two things."

"Mr. Wade, say it, and it will be done."

"The first thing is to announce the change of ownership of Emgrand Group and the appointment of the new chairman, but do not reveal the identity of the new chairman, only the last name is Wade, that is what people need to know."

"The second thing is to announce that Emgrand Group will invest 2 billion in Aurous Hill to build a six-star hotel. At the same time, it will launch a partner bidding. Construction and decoration companies in the city can participate in the bidding!"

The main business of the Willson Group is decoration. The Lady Willson dreams of going to the big ship of Emgrand Group. Whoever can win the cooperation of the Emgrand Group will definitely become the red man of the Willson Group.

Now the Emgrand Group is his own, and of course he has to give his wife some benefits.

Chapter 5

The two news released by the Emgrand Group completely detonated the entire Aurous Hill.

Hearing that the Emgrand Group has changed hands, the Willson family wanted to understand why the White Family was kicked out by the Emgrand Group.

It seems that the new owner of the Emgrand Group still looks down on families likes of the White Family.

But who is Mr. Wade? Is this person too good? The Emgrand Group, which has hundreds of billions, buys and buys, and the richest man in Aurous Hill is not as big as his!

For a time, countless families were ready to move. On the one hand, they were eager to have a relationship with this mysterious Mr. Wade, and on the other hand, they also longed for their daughter to marry Mr. Wade.

In addition, the Emgrand Group wants to invest in a hotel project of 2 billion, which also makes the entire Aurous Hill construction and decoration industry tremble!

Two billion!

Just get a little leftover material, and you can make a lot of money!

Countless companies want to get a share of it.

This naturally also includes the Old Mrs. Willson who is addicted to money!

Mrs. Willson was very excited at this time. This is a great opportunity for a two billion project!

If the Willson family can get a contract from it, it will really be ascended to heaven!

So she immediately ordered a family meeting to be held at home tonight to discuss how to make a breakthrough in the new project of the Emgrand Group. Everyone must attend!

That night, Willson's villa.

Because the Lady Willson asked everyone to be there, Charlie followed.

He knew that the Lady Willson was going to a meeting to discuss how to get a share of the Emgrand Group's big project.

Therefore, he wanted to take this opportunity to help his wife Claire grow her face!

When he arrived at the Willson family villa, Claire's cousin Harold immediately sneered when he saw him: "f*ck, Charlie, you have such a thick skin, and you have the face to see grandma again!"

Claire said with a cold face: "Don't talk nonsense. Grandma asked everyone in the Willson family to come. Charlie is my husband, and naturally also from the Willson family!"

Harold laughed and said, "He is though considered a half Willson family! But just a live-in son-in-law!"

Charlie touched his nose and said to Claire, "Forget about him my wife, don't be familiar with him, go in quickly, save grandma waiting."

Claire nodded, and owed Harold a good face, and walked in with Charlie.

Seeing this, Harold's expression also became cold, waiting for them to look good.

After entering the conference hall, Charlie and Claire found a place in the corner to sit down.

Soon, Mrs. Willson stepped forward and the family meeting officially began.

The Old Mrs. Willson sat in the main seat, knocked on the table, and said vigorously: "The Willson family has been waiting for an opportunity in the past few years, an opportunity that can make us one of the richest in Aurous Hill! Now, this opportunity has finally come!"

Mrs. Willson said loudly: "This time the Emgrand Group has thrown out a two-billion-dollar project. Whoever can get a cooperation contract from it will definitely benefit a lot!"

"Moreover, this is the first major project of the Emgrand Group after the change of ownership. For the Willson family, it is a great opportunity!"

"If we can cooperate with the Emgrand Group and leave a good impression on the new owner of the Emgrand Group, then the future of the Willson family will be limitless!"

Although the Lady Willson was very energetic, the people below seemed a little unmoved.

In fact, it is not a day or two for the Willson family to cooperate with the Emgrand Group. For such a long time, the Emgrand Group has ignored the Willson family. The Lady Willson now wants to take a share of the new project of the Emgrand Group. How can it be possible?

Seeing that all the people present were silent, Mrs. Willson immediately questioned in annoyance: "What? Are all dumb? Don't you have the confidence to take a little leftover from the 2 billion project?"

Everyone looks at her and each other, but they dare not talk to each other.

The Lady Willson was even more angry, and gritted her teeth and said: "I will put the words here today, who can talk about the 30 million cooperation share from Emgrand Group, who is the director of the group!"

As soon as this remark came out, everyone sitting was taken aback.

The Lady Willson has always been arbitrary, so she has never appointed a director in the group. After all, the director has a lot of power, and it is almost the successor of the future group that is qualified to hold this position.

The Lady Willson is now using this position as a reward. She definitely hopes that there will be a brave competition for the reward. It can be seen that she is extremely eager for the Emgrand Group project.

However, although the position of the director is good, it is not so easy to take.

In the eyes of the Willson family, if you want to reach a cooperation with Emgrand, you have to get a contract of 30 million? Don't be kidding, even if Mrs. Willson goes out in person, the executives of the Emgrand Group will not see her, let alone talk about cooperation.

There was silence in the family meeting hall.

Seeing this, the Old Mrs. Willson asked angrily: "You are descendants of the Willson family, don't you want to share the worries for the Willson family?"

After that, the Old Mrs. Willson looked directly at Harold: "Harold, leave this to you!"

Harold laughed a few times and quickly said: "Grandma, even Gerald's house has been cleared by the Emgrand Group now. Our strength is worse than the Whites. How can we get the Emgrand Group contract?"

Mrs. Willson suddenly cursed: "rubbish! Deny yourself if you haven't tried it. You are more rubbish than Charlie!"

In fact, Mrs. Willson didn't know her heart, but she didn't want to be the helm of a second-and third-rate clan forever. She dreamed and longed for the Willson family to rise to the next level.

And this Emgrand Group project is the only opportunity.

Therefore, no matter how difficult it is, she would not give up.

She thought that Harold, as the eldest grandson, would be able to take over the task happily, but she did not expect that he would withdraw at this time!

Harold was also very depressed, who would take on such an impossible task? He was afraid that he will be kicked out before entering the gate of the Emgrand Group.

At that time, not only did things fail, but they were also ridiculed and laughed at by others, so he decided not to agree in any way.

After cursing Harold, the Old Mrs. Willson shouted and asked: "Where are the others? Don't you dare to take this task?"

Charlie lightly touched Claire with his elbow at this time, and whispered: "Wife, you take this task!"

Claire hurriedly said: "It's crazy! It's impossible for the Emgrand Group to cooperate with a small company like the Willson family!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said confidently: "Don't worry, you can definitely talk about this cooperation!"

Claire asked in surprise, "Really?"

Charlie said confidently: "Of course! I don't think you have a problem at all! Seize this opportunity, and your future status in the Willson family will Hangingrocket!"

Claire didn't know why. At this moment, she believed Charlie's words in a bewildered manner.

She stood up subconsciously and said to the Old Mrs. Willson: "Grandma, I'm willing to try."

Chapter 6

Claire's statement made the entire Willson family stunned!

Everyone felt that Claire must be crazy!

Don't divide the time to show off! At this moment of being in the limelight, what can be the result besides death?

The Emgrand Group is the largest company in Aurous Hill. How can people look at the Willson family? Whoever talks about it will never succeed!

Harold couldn't help but sarcastically said: "Claire, do you think you can get the contract from the Emgrand Group?"

Harold's own sister and Claire's cousin, Wendy, also sneered at this moment: "Sister Claire, what is your identity, and what is the identity of the Emgrand Group? You go to talk so rashly, don't shame our Willson family. !"

Someone agreed: "That is, if she is driven out by the Emgrand Group by then, our Willson family will definitely become a laughing stock in Aurous Hill!"

When Claire heard the sound, her cheeks were extremely red, feeling very embarrassed.

Since marrying Charlie, her status in the family has plummeted, becoming less and less important, and almost squeezed out, and even her parents have been ridiculed.

She felt that if she could talk about this project with the Emgrand Group, her position in the family would definitely be consolidated.

The most important thing is that parents can also stand upright.

But at this moment, being ridiculed by so many people, she couldn't help but retreat.

She gave Charlie a depressed look. Why did she listen to his bewitching words? Won't get up for this if she knew it

Old Mrs. Willson was very angry when she heard what everyone said.

After asking this question several times, no one dared to take this task. Now Claire took the initiative to stand up, and the group of people began to pour cold water again!

Although the Old Mrs. Willson had always disliked Claire, at this time, she felt that Claire was at least willing to share her worries, unlike other people who only knew to hide in their shells at this moment!

Especially Harold, her beloved grandson, really disappointed her, too much!

Because of this, Mrs. Willson's attitude towards Claire also changed a lot.

So she immediately said: "Since others dare not agree, don't talk nonsense! This time we cooperate with Emgrand Group on the project, let Claire talk about it!"

Claire could only bite the bullet and replied, "Don't worry, grandma, I will definitely go all out."

At this time, Harold sneered coldly from his nose and said, "What's the use of going all out? It's not a shame for the family to fail in the end!"

Charlie asked with a sneer, "Harold, what is your purpose in singing badly? Don't you think the Willson family is qualified to cooperate with Emgrand Group?"

Harold didn't expect that Charlie would dare to speak at the family meeting, and he would wear a high hat on himself.

Seeing that Mrs. Willson's expression was also a little sulky, he immediately explained: "I don't mean that, I just think it is impossible for Claire to discuss this cooperation!"

Charlie smiled and asked him: "Then what if she can talk about cooperation at first? Shall we make a bet?"

Harold sneered: "Come on, just gamble, I will be afraid of you? Tell me, what are you betting on?"

Charlie said: "If she start to negotiate a contract, you kneel down and knock me three heads in front of the whole family and say you are wrong. If she can't negotiate at first, I will knock three heads for you and say aloud that I was wrong, what do you think?"

"Hahahaha!" Harold immediately laughed wildly: "You rubbish are really looking for death! Okay, I'll bet with you!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said: "The whole family is here to witness that if anyone goes back, it will be equivalent to wishing death for father, mother, grandpa, grandma!"

Charlie deliberately said the three words "dead grandma" very seriously, because he was afraid that Harold would back out if when he loses.

As soon as these words came out, Harold never dared to go back, because in that way, wouldn't it be cursing his grandma, that is, Old Mrs. Willson to die? When the time comes, Mrs. Willson will not let him go!

"Okay!" Harold didn't know that Charlie had dug a hole for him, but instead felt that it was impossible for him to lose.

So, he laughed and said: "The whole family witnesses, I am waiting for you to kowtow to me!"

Claire was startled, and kept winking at him, but she didn't expect him to completely ignore it.

Old Mrs. Willson didn't care about this kind of gambling. Her only concern was whether she could enter the Emgrand Group's cooperation list this time. If she could, don't say let Harold kneel to Charlie, even if Harold called Charlie his father, she didn't care either.

So she said: "Today's meeting ends here. Claire, you have three days to win the contract and the meeting ends!"

Back home, the father-in-law and mother-in-law immediately attacked Charlie and Claire.

The mother-in-law Elaine Ma was anxiously worried, and blurted out: "Claire, you are crazy, how can you listen to Charlie's rubbish words, so confused and promised this job!"

Father-in-law Jacob Willson also scolded Charlie and said, "Charlie, Charlie, you rubbish, you have killed my girl!"

Then, his father-in-law said angrily: "If you can't talk about the Emgrand Group's cooperation in the first place, you will definitely be squeezed out by the family. You, this rubbish, will also kneel and kowtow to Harold in front of the whole family. Don't let you lose it?"

Charlie said seriously: "Dad and Mom, as long as the contract can be negotiated at first, everything will be solved?"

"Talk, talk, talk! Talk all bullsh*t!"

The father-in-law scolded: "Do you know how strong the Emgrand Group is? How can they look at the Willson family!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Maybe people can see it? I think it must be fine at first, and she can definitely get the contract down."

The mother-in-law sneered at the side: "Do you think? Think you are the boss of the Emgrand Group? A rubbish, do you use any abrain of yours? You are still talking here!"

Chapter 7

Seeing that her parents had been targeting Charlie, Claire sighed and said, "Dad and Mom, this matter has nothing to do with Charlie. I don't want them to look down on us anymore. Isn't the grievances we have suffered enough over the years? "

Claire's mother blurted out: "Then you can't agree to this errand, don't talk about you, even if your grandma is gone, people won't talk to her at Emgrand!"

Charlie looked at the scene in front of him with a wry smile, his snobbish father-in-law and mother-in-law, even if he kills, they couldn't believe it. He is the boss of the Emgrand Group, right?

At this moment, there was a knock at the door.

"I'm coming"

The mother-in-law Elaine Ma sighed and opened the door.

Charlie looked around, and saw a young man in an Armani suit standing at the door. It could be said that he was a handsome and talented person with a Patek Geraldippe watch, which seemed to be worth at least three to five million.

The mother-in-law said excitedly: "Oh, it's Wendell! Why are you here?"

This person is Wendell Jones, the son of Jones Family who has been pursuing Claire.

Wendell smiled and said: "Auntie, I heard that Claire has taken over the cooperation of Emgrand Group, so I came here to give her an idea."

"Oh! You are really the savior of our family!"

Elaine was very excited. The look in Wendell's eyes was like looking at her son-in-law. She hurriedly welcomed him in and said, "Wendell, do you have a way to help Claire win the Emgrand Group contract?" "

Wendell nodded with a smile, turning a blind eye to Charlie who was standing by, as if looking at the ants on the side of the road. He went straight to Claire and smiled slightly: "Claire, you don't even tell me about such a big thing. , But you can rest assured that Emgrand Group and my company have a cooperation. I will ask my dad to say hello and I will do my best to help you."

In fact, Wendell's father didn't have that much energy at all. He said this just to pretend to be an something in front of Claire.

Claire always knew that Wendell was interesting in her, so she said coldly: "Wendell, I understand your kindness, and I will find a way."

Elaine exclaimed in disbelief: "Claire, are you crazy? Mr. Jones kindly came over to help you, how can you talk like that?"

Claire didn't speak, but Charlie on the side asked Wendell with interest: "Mr. Jones, I'm very curious about what you can do to help Claire? The Emgrand Group is so big, it can't be controlled by you, right? Emgrand signed a contract with Claire?"

Wendell sneered contemptuously, and said: "What do you know? Our Jones family and Emgrand Group have always been in-depth partners. This time from the Emgrand Group's 2 billion project, our family can get at least one-third of it! I will let you My dad directly allocated tens of millions from this third to subcontract to Claire. Wouldn't this help her complete the task?"

Charlie said in surprise: "Oh! I didn't expect that Mr. Jones's family has such a deep relationship with the Emgrand Group!"

Wendell snorted coldly and said, "Of course! In Aurous Hill, who doesn't know that our Jones family works closely with Emgrand Group?"

After finishing speaking, Wendell stared at Charlie and said contemptuously: "Charlie, I advise you to leave Claire as a frog at the bottom of the well. A man like you can't give her happiness and will only hinder her path to progress."

Claire said coldly at this time: "I'm sorry Mr. Jones, I don't need your help, and please don't speak harshly to my husband!"

Wendell said dumbfounded: "Claire, if I help you like this, you still have to face this rubbish? What is he worthy of your maintenance?"

Claire said seriously: "He is not a waste, he is my husband!"

Wendell was full of gloom and anger, and said angrily: "Okay! Toast and not eat fine wine! I want to see what you can do to solve this trouble! If you can't figure it out then, don't blame me for not giving you a chance!"

After speaking, Wendell turned around and slammed the door away.

Elaine wanted to catch up to explain, but Wendell had already gone far.

She slapped her thighs with anger, and pointed to Charlie's nose and cursed: "You are so mad at me! What else can you do except for your rubbish will drag your legs? Mr. Jones is so kind to help, but you are all Get angry and go!"

Charlie said indifferently: "Mom, he just talked about it. He couldn't get the cooperation of Emgrand Group himself, so how could he be able to help Claire."

"You bullsht!" Elaine said angrily: "The Jones family can get one-third of the Emgrand Group's projects, you know what bullsht!"

Charlie sneered in his heart. I don't know what Jones Family can do. I only know that my Emgrand Group will never have any cooperation with Jones Family! Even if the Emgrand

Group and Jones's did have a lot of cooperation in the past, from now on, this cooperations will all stop!

Claire didn't know what Charlie was thinking, and said to her mother: "Mom, don't blame Charlie. Let's talk about it when I come back from Emgrand Group!"

"Hey!" Elaine sighed long, only feeling that God was unfair. She married a rubbish husband, but the daughter married a more rubbish man.

What an injustice this is!

Chapter 8

Early the next morning, Claire brought the cooperation plan she had prepared overnight and came to the Emgrand Group with Charlie.

Looking at the 100-story Emgrand Group Building, Claire had no idea at all.

How could a company as large as the Emgrand Group look at the Willson family?

Not to mention that the Willson family wanted to negotiate a share of 30 million.

This is like a beggar who wants to go to a rich man's house to ask for a reward of 30 million, which is completely idiotic.

However, since she promised my grandma and accepted the task in public, then she have to try something.

Seeing that she was very nervous, Charlie tidied her hair a little distressedly: "Don't worry, my wife, you can talk, you will succeed."

Claire said helplessly: "Hope! You are waiting for me here."

After speaking, Claire took a deep breath and summoned her courage to walk into the door of the Emgrand Group.

Charlie watched behind her, took out her cell phone and called Doris.

"Doris, my wife has already gone up, you should know how to do the rest!"

Doris said immediately: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will definitely satisfy Mrs. Wade."

Charlie asked again: "By the way, I heard that Emgrand Group has a deep cooperation with Jones Family?"

Doris said: "The cooperation between them and Emgrand was really deep in the past. They also want to cooperate deeply in our new project this time, and are submitting the cooperation application materials to me, but now it depends on what you mean, Mr. Wade."

Charlie said coldly: "I don't want to see the Jones family participate in this new project, and I won't have any cooperation with them in the future."

Doris hurriedly said: "Don't worry, I will do it!"

On the other side, Claire walked into the office building of the Emgrand Group and waited for an appointment at the front desk. She didn't even know whether Doris, the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, would like to see her.

After a while, a female assistant came over with a graceful posture: "You are Ms. Claire, right? Miss Doris is waiting for you in the office, please follow me."

Claire nodded. She was still waiting in line to make an appointment, so why she was called indirectly?

Could it be that Doris knew she was coming?

But it doesn't make sense, how can a famous person like Doris know her?

Although she couldn't figure it out, Claire also knew that the opportunity was rare, and hurriedly followed the other party.

The female assistant took Claire directly into Doris's office.

Seeing Claire, Doris quickly got up from the chair and greeted her respectfully: "Hello, Ms. Willson, I am Doris, Vice Chairman of the Emgrand Group."

Facing the famous Aurous Hill superwoman, Claire felt a little nervous, and said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. Doris, I am here this time to talk to you about the hotel project. Although the overall strength of our Willson family is not good Strong, but we are really working hard in the decoration business, and we have a good reputation!"

As she said, she nervously handed over a piece of information, saying: "Doris, this is the relevant introduction and qualification documents of our Willson Group. Please also check it out."

Doris smiled, and after receiving the document, she glanced briefly and said directly: "Ms. Willson, I read your information. I think the Willson family and Emgrand can cooperate."

"What? What you said is true?" Claire couldn't believe it.

Agreed so soon? How could it be so simple?

Doris smiled and said: "Of course it is true. Although the Willson family's own conditions do not meet the cooperation standards of the Emgrand Group, our chairman is very optimistic about Ms. Willson and is willing to cooperate with you."

"Chairman?" Claire exclaimed and asked, "Who is your chairman?"

Doris smiled indifferently and said: "Our chairman is Someone called Wade from the Wade family of Eastcliff."

"Wade?"

Claire frowned and said, "I don't seem to know anyone named Wade, except for my husband."

Doris nodded lightly, Charlie had told her not to reveal his identity information, so she could only reveal so much.

Apart from Charlie, Claire did not know anyone with the Wade, but she had never thought that her orphaned husband, who was of no use, was the son of Wades.

At this time, Doris said again: "Ms. Willson, let me see if the share of intention to cooperate in your information is 30 million?"

Claire nodded in a hurry, and asked without a bottom: "Is it too much?"

Doris smiled and said, "Not much, not much, but less."

Claire became even more confused, and hurriedly asked, "What do you mean?"

Doris smiled and said: "Our chairman explained that he asked me to increase the cooperation share to 60 million."

While talking, Doris took out a contract and handed it to Claire: "Look, the contract has been drawn up in advance, and the total is 60 million. If you think it's okay, we can sign it now."

"Huh? This"

Claire was really dumbfounded.

She didn't expect that the Emgrand Group, which was unable to reach the Willson family, would take the initiative to prepare a contract for her!

Moreover, the contract amount has doubled!

Grandma's goal is 30 million, and the contract actually says 60 million!

She suddenly thought that during the meeting last night, her husband Charlie resolutely let her take this task.

Why was he so confident?

And when he was at the door of the Emgrand Group just now, she had no confidence at the time, but he seemed confident.

Did he already know the result?

Who is he?

Chapter 9

At this moment, Claire suddenly had an unbelievable thought in her heart.

Is the Wade in Doris's mouth just her husband Charlie?

But after another thought, she felt it was too magical to be true.

how could it be!

Charlie is an orphan who grew up in a welfare institution!

However, besides Charlie, who else in this world would treat her so well?

30 million is an extravagant hope, but the other party directly gave 60 million

She couldn't help but ask Doris: "Ms. Doris, may I ask, is your chairman's name Charlie?"

Doris sighed in her heart. The young master had ordered not to reveal his identity, and could only say that his surname was Wade to the outside world. If this was guessed by the young lady, wouldn't she have to go back?

So she hurriedly said: "Ms. Willson don't ask any more. Our chairman is behind Eastcliff's famous door. His identity is highly confidential and I have no right to disclose it."

Claire nodded lightly, and after Doris said the famous Eastcliff family, she suddenly recovered.

Charlie is an orphan, it can't be some Eastcliff famous door, it seems that she really thinks too much

When she came out of Doris's office, Claire was still dizzy.

What she held in her hand was the 60 million cooperation agreement between the Willson family and the Emgrand Group.

All this is just like a dream.

At the gate of the Emgrand Group, Claire saw Charlie's figure and ran up excitedly and said, "Charlie, I actually made it."

Charlie smiled secretly in his heart, your husband is the boss of the Emgrand Group, how could you fail to talk about it?

However, he pretended to be surprised and said: "You can negotiate such a difficult project. Wife, you are really amazing!"

Claire said: "Oh, this is not my great one, this is simply a gift from the Emgrand Group."

"What?" Charlie asked deliberately: "Why do you say that?"

Claire was afraid that she would say something about the chairman of the Emgrand Group, and Charlie would be jealous, so she hurriedly said, "Oh, this is a long story. Let's go to the company now and tell everyone the good news."

Charlie laughed and said: "Okay! This time, that b@stard Harold, has to abide by the betting contract and kneel and kowtow to me!"

Claire nodded, and said: "He usually has a high-level eye and no one is in the eye, so he should be taught a lesson!"

In fact, Claire also has her own temper. She wants that the people like Harold don't look down on her and her husband in every possible way. Now that they have negotiated a cooperation, they really want to restrain them in the future.

More than ten minutes later, the two came to the Willson Group.

In the meeting room, everyone in the Willson family looked strange.

They all know that Claire went to the Emgrand Group early in the morning, but everyone didn't believe that she could handle it, and they were all waiting to see her become a joke.

Unexpectedly, she would come back so soon.

When Claire and Charlie arrived in the meeting room, everyone showed sarcasm.

Harold said unceremoniously: "Oh, Claire, you are back in just half an hour? Did you even fail to enter the door of the Emgrand Group! Hahahaha!"

His sister Wendy also sneered: "Oh, sister Claire, she failed in less than an hour. You also broke the record, right?"

Old Mrs. Willson's expression also turned gloomy. The Emgrand Group project is indeed extremely difficult. Even if Claire fails to reach a conclusion, she should at least be cautious, right? It really made her angry to give up so quickly.

So, the Old Mrs. Willson stared at her and said coldly, "Claire, you disappointed me too much."

Charlie frowned immediately when she heard this.

This group is too disgusting, right? Don't ask about the outcome of the matter, let's make a mockery first regardless of whether it is indiscriminate or not?

Especially Harold, the tortoise b@stard, what the h*ll are you doing? He will kowtow later!

Claire was originally excited, but at this moment, everyone's words were undoubtedly pouring cold water. With anger in her heart, she said: "I'm sorry, I disappointed you all. The Emgrand Group's Doris has already negotiated with me for the Project cooperation!"

"What? You talked about it?"

"Impossible! How is it possible! You can't even see Doris's face!"

Everyone was stunned.

"Claire, do you think we will believe it?"

Harold came back to his senses and immediately slapped the table and said angrily: "Doris of the Emgrand Group is a well-known business elite in the city. How could she meet you? What identity do you have?"

Facing everyone's doubts and accusations, Claire directly took out the contract and handed it to Mrs. Willson: "This is the project contract of the Emgrand Group. Please have a look."

This contract is like a bomb, causing the atmosphere of these people on the scene to burst suddenly!

Harold still didn't believe it, and shouted loudly: "This must be her forged contract! I don't believe that she can handle the Emgrand Group!"

"That's it!" Wendy also added fuel and jealousy to the side: "How can she win the Emgrand Group's contract? This is a big project of 30 million! If she is able to it, I will have negotiated it!"

Claire sneered and said, "Cousin, you are wrong. This contract is not 30 million, but 60 million!"

"Get off!" Wendy grinned and said, "A contract of 60 million? Are you not embarrassed to say it! Are we really fools? You can sign 60 million, and I say I can sign 100 million! "

Harold also said with a cold face: "Claire, you are playing grandma and us as monkeys!"

After he finished speaking, he said to Mrs. Willson: "Grandma! At first this is a big treachery! You can't spare her!"

The Old Mrs. Willson also gritted her teeth angrily. She felt that 90% of the 30 million was worthless. After half an hour, Claire ran back and told her that she signed 60 million

Isn't this treating her as a fool in front of so many people?

Really be the head of the family for nothing?

This kind of unscrupulous offspring, if she can't drive out, how can she stand in the family in the future?

Old Mrs. Willson was anxious, slapped the table, and shouted: "Claire! Go to the personnel department to go through the resignation procedures immediately!"

Claire's expression was stunned. Are these people crazy? She opened the contract and took a look, can they still not believe?

At this moment, someone suddenly yelled: "f*ck! Emgrand Group's official statement is released! The 60 million contract is true!"

Chapter 10

With this roar, everyone was shocked.

Afterwards, everyone hurriedly took out their mobile phones and went to the official account of Emgrand Group!

really!

The official service account of Emgrand Group released a push!

The Emgrand Group's 2 billion hotel project signed the first partner. The group's vice chairman Doris and Aurous Hill Willson's representative Claire signed a 60 million decoration contract!

Seeing this title, everyone is crazy!

Claire actually talked about the project! And the amount doubled!

It has only been more than half an hour!

How could it be so easy? !

This is totally illogical!

Harold was shocked and regretted!

Before today, Claire was incomparable with himself in terms of status and identity.

If he accepted this task yesterday, no matter if he had negotiated it or not, he would not give Claire a chance to show her face!

In the end, he turned down because he was afraid of failure!

It doesn't matter if he refuse it, the key is that Claire actually made it!

This is simply slapped in the face!

Mrs. Willson immediately picked up the contract excitedly, read it carefully, and laughed excitedly: "Okay! Good! Good! Good! Claire, you really made a great contribution!"

After speaking, she asked: "How did you do it?"

Claire said: "Thanks to Ms. Doris, Deputy Doris, she is very optimistic about our Willson family."

In fact, Claire wanted to tell the truth, but after thinking about it carefully, she didn't know who the chairman of the Emgrand Group was, and no one might believe it, she ditched the idea.

Upon hearing this, Harold felt even more uncomfortable and wanted to die!

No wonder Claire can win the contract!

It turns out that Doris of the Emgrand Group is very optimistic about the Willson family!

Wouldn't anyone go?

He really missed a great opportunity!

At this time, Charlie spoke: "Harold, do you remember our gambling appointment?"

Harold's expression was as ugly as if he had eaten sh!t.

How could he not remember the bet, and if he loses, he has to knock three heads in public.

Claire got the contract and made it clear that he had lost

No way!

How can he kowtow to this kind of garbage!

Never possible!

So he immediately gritted his teeth and said, "Charlie, what are you? It's just a rubbish who enters our house and eats leftovers every day. You want me to kneel and kowtow to you?"

Charlie said calmly: "I am indeed a waste, but we swore yesterday, if anyone retreats, death, death, death, grandpa, death to grandma!"

Charlie deliberately said the three words "death to grandma" very hard.

really!

Mrs. Willson's expression immediately became extremely ugly!

She stared at Harold, and asked him in a cold voice, "What? Do you want me to die?"

Harold panicked and blurted out: "Grandma, you can't be fooled by Charlie! He wants to make your grandson's face and your face lost!"

Charlie said indifferently at this time: "Harold, don't fool grandma here, don't forget that you have taken a poisonous oath, if you retreat, your oath will be condemned by God, do you want to curse grandma?"

Harold was horrified, and blurted out: "Grandma, you can't make a joke!"

Old Mrs. Willson said with a cold face: "You know that I believed in Buddhism during my life and swear to heaven, how dare you break your promise?!"

"grandmother"

Harold really panicked, because he could see that grandma was really angry!

The Old Mrs. Willson saw that Harold even violated the vow linked to her life and death for the sake of his own prestige. She slammed the table and shouted angrily: "Are you determined to violate the oath?"

"Grandma I" Harold froze, and immediately made a calculation in his heart.

If he abides by the gambling agreement and kowtows to Charlie to admit his mistake, then he has lost face.

But if he doesn't abide by the gambling agreement and angers his grandma, then he will lose everything he has in the Willson family!

Thinking of this, even though he was 10,000 times unwilling in his heart, he could only grit his teeth and said: "Okay! I am willing to do it!"

Charlie looked at him with a smile, and said nothing, just waiting for him to kneel and kowtow.

Harold felt that his legs were filled with lead and moved to Charlie with difficulty step by step.

He was trembling with hatred and gritted his teeth, but his legs softened and he knelt on the ground.

Plop!

Those in attendance even took out their phones quietly.

Harold lowered his head and said in a trembling voice, "I was wrong!"

After finishing speaking, he leaned down and dropped his head.

Charlie said: "What did you say, I didn't hear clearly, speak louder."

Harold endured the humiliation and kowtow again: "I was wrong!"

Charlie sneered and said: "Oh, it turns out that you were wrong, where did you go wrong?"

Harold's heart for killing Charlie was all there, but there was one last head that didn't knock.

So he just gritted his teeth and said: "I shouldn't doubt Claire's ability to be wrong."

After speaking, he kowtowed again!

Charlie felt very comfortable!

He could not bear this Harold for a long time, and this time he seized the opportunity to let him kneel and kowtow. It feels really cool!

Claire looked at all this in surprise, and felt that her husband was suddenly different from before!

Where the specifics are different, she will not be able to tell for a while.

But, thinking back to the way that her husband had a bet with Harold yesterday, it seems that he had long expected that he would win?

Why does he have such a strong self-confidence?

Chapter 11

After Harold knocked three heads, tears of humiliation rolled in his eyes.

But he didn't dare to make a mistake at the moment.

Because he knew that grandma must have strong dissatisfaction with him now.

At this time, he can't say anything to make her angry anymore.

The Old Mrs. Willson saw that Harold kowtowed his head and admitted his mistake, she felt a little more relaxed.

She didn't want her grandson to kowtow to Charlie, but the point was that this poisonous oath was about her own life.

She has always believed in Buddhism. If Harold doesn't kowtow to admit his mistake, she is afraid that she will have trouble sleeping and eating, for fear of retribution to her.

So, she looked at Harold and said lightly: "Harold, these three heads are for you a little lesson. Don't bet with others casually about things you are not sure about. Even if you bet, don't harm your family!"

Harold said with a sad face, "Grandma, I know, I won't dare anymore"

When speaking, his eyes cast a look at Charlie, viciously waiting for him, thinking, you rubbish, forcing me to kneel and kowtow to you and lose face, I will kill you sooner or later!

Immediately, Mrs. Willson opened the mouth and said: "It is gratifying to win this contract today. Everyone should hurry to prepare during this period. We must take this opportunity to build a good relationship with the Emgrand Group!"

Charlie reminded her on the side: "Grandma, since Claire talked about project cooperation, should the position of company director be given to Claire?"

Old Mrs. Willson raised her eyebrows, and she couldn't help but think to herself.

She did say that whoever gets the contract can be the director.

However, when she thinks that Claire has always been disliked by herself, and that her rubbish husband has been disgusting, her heart beats again with a different tune.

If Claire is held up and she will not be under her control in the future, what should she do?

At this moment, she wanted to withdraw her previous promise.

After all, when she made the promise, she didn't swear a poisonous oath, even if she took it back, she will feel at ease.

However, she felt that this kind of remark could not be said when Claire just signed the contract, so she said in a convenient way: "Well, tomorrow night, I will hold a banquet and invite someone with good looks in Aurous Hill to the scene. Then, I will face to face announce our cooperation with Emgrand Group and the appointment of a new director."

Upon hearing this, Charlie was relieved with satisfaction.

Claire also smiled gently. It seems that the position of the director is finally her own, and she does not need to be squeezed out in the future, and her parents can raise their heads again!

Old Mrs. Willson turned her face, looked at Claire, and said, "Claire, there is one more thing, grandma wants you to help."

Claire hurriedly said, "Grandma, would you please say?"

Mrs. Willson said, "I want you to contact the chairman of Emgrand and invite him to the banquet tomorrow."

After a pause, the Lady Willson said with a look of expectation: "If he can come to our banquet, it will definitely be a brilliant good thing for our Willson family, and it will also make us famous!"

Claire thought for a moment, and hesitated: "But the last time I went, I only met Doris, the vice chairman of Emgrand, and never met the chairman himself. Moreover, we just got someone's project and are holding such a banquet. Does it not seem too deliberate?"

"So what? I just want to tell the whole Aurous Hill people that we are now tied to the big ship of Emgrand, and in the future our Willson family will develop!"

The Lady Willson finished speaking, and then said: "Even if the chairman of Emgrand does not want to come, it is okay to invite Doris over. She is the No. 2 figure of Emgrand Group, and it would be very face lifting for us to ask her to come over."

At this point, Mrs. Willson was already excited.

When she thought that the big clans and big families who had not looked towards the Willson family in the past might have to rely on the snort of the Willson family in the future, she couldn't help but burst into enthusiasm.

The Willson family, in her hands, will become even more brilliant!

Claire thought for a moment before replying hesitantly: "I understand, I will try."

"It's not a try! must be invited!"

Claire nodded lightly, and then quietly asked Charlie, "What should I do? What if the chairman of Emgrand doesn't come? What if Doris is unwilling to come?"

Charlie laughed and said, "Try it, don't you have Doris's phone? Maybe the other party agrees as soon as you call?"

The Willson family will hold a banquet. In addition to showing the strength of the Willson family, Claire will also be announced at the banquet.

Wife is promoted to director, and it's not bad to be a husband of such a woman.

At this time, Claire didn't know that her husband was the chairman of the Emgrand Group. She sighed a little tangledly and said: "The other party is the chairman of Emgrand, and it is said that he is the young master of the Eastcliff family. How can he come to the banquet"

Charlie smiled and said, "I don't think it is necessary. Maybe the other party is always at home with his wife, cooking and washing clothes?"

Claire was annoyed at him and said, "Do you think everyone is you?"

Charlie nodded: "Yes, it is very likely that the boss of the Emgrand Group is just like me"

Claire curled her lips and said softly, "Cut it! How could it be possible!"

Chapter 12

Knowing that Charlie was joking, Claire didn't care, stepped aside, and dialed Doris's phone.

Soon, the call was connected.

Doris's pleasant voice came across: "Ms. Willson, hello."

"Hello, Miss Doris, I have something, I want to ask you for help." Claire said embarrassedly.

"Well, say it." Doris agreed.

Claire organized a few words, took a deep breath, and said courageously: "I want to ask if the chairman is free tomorrow night. We want to hold a banquet at home and officially announce the cooperation with Emgrand. I hope the chairman can appreciate it and bless us with his presence"

Doris was silent for a while, then replied: "Ms. Willson, I can't do this, or else, I can help you ask the chairman's opinion?"

Claire respectfully said, "Thank you, then I will trouble you."

After hanging up the phone, Claire held the phone in some anxiety, waiting for news from the other party.

At this moment, Charlie's cell phone rang suddenly.

Charlie was taken aback, and then he scolded himself in his heart. He forgot to mute the phone. It must be Doris who called to ask his opinion.

Charlie answered the phone with a calm expression on his face, and said "Yeah".

Doris's voice came from the other side, "Chairman, the Willson family is going to hold a banquet tomorrow night. Would you like to go there?"

Charlie replied: "Oh, that's it, it's okay, I'll be fine. Just hang up."

After that, Charlie hung up the phone quickly, and then mumbled, "These sales promotion is really annoying."

Claire didn't doubt anything, but shortly afterward, her mobile phone rang again.

Doris's voice came over again, "Ms. Willson, our chairman has agreed, and will pass by then!"

"Really, that's great, thank you for your help, and thanks to the Chairman for agreeing." Claire was suddenly very excited. She did not expect that the other party would actually agree to it.

Claire hurriedly said to Mrs. Willson: "Grandma! The chairman of the Emgrand Group has already agreed!"

"Really?!" Mrs. Willson was suddenly excited!

After that, she immediately said to the Willson family present: "Go and prepare for me! Order the best hotel, order the best meals and drinks, and prepare to welcome the Emgrand chairman!"

"In addition, inform all the big companies in the city and invite them to our banquet! Tell them that the Emgrand chairman will appreciate their presence!"

Immediately afterwards, the entire Willson family became busy!

Everyone was extremely excited, constantly contacting various partners and the upper-class figures of Aurous Hill City.

This is undoubtedly a blockbuster!

For a time, the entire Aurous Hill City learned of this news.

The mysterious new chairman of the Emgrand Group will soon appear at the Willson's banquet tomorrow!

Mrs. Willson received countless inquiries, and she responded with a smile.

She is so happy today, because as soon as the banquet is over tomorrow, the Willson family will definitely become Aurous Hill's hottest family!

Thinking of this, she smiled excitedly and said: "Okay, come here today and start preparing for tomorrow's banquet, the meeting is over!"

At the end of the meeting, Mrs. Willson returned to her office.

Harold rolled his eyes and followed closely.

"Grandma, are you really going to give Claire the position of director?"

When he walked to a place where there was no one, Harold couldn't help but speak directly.

Old Mrs. Willson frowned slightly, and said coldly: "I have promised Claire, why can't I give it to her?"

Harold still insisted: "Grandma, you can't let her be the director!"

The Lady Willson asked back: "Why? She won such a big contract. She is the company's hero and deserves to be entitled."

Harold hurriedly said: "Claire was able to win the Emgrand contract because Wendell from the Jones family was behind her back. I heard that Wendell went to her house yesterday! Emgrand Group signed a contract with us today. What a coincidence? You see, 80% of it is because she slept with Wendell!"

The Old Mrs. Willson looked sullen and said: "What you said is true?"

Harold said plausibly, "Of course it is true. Wendell did go to see Claire last night. You can find out after checking."

After that, Harold said to Mrs. Willson again: "Grandma, she is a married woman at first. If the matter between her and Wendell is spread, let people know that our Willson family got the Emgrand Group contract by this means. Where do you put the face of the Willson family? Where do you put your face?"

Old Mrs. Willson frowned, she had already believed most of it in her heart.

Wendell liked Claire, she knew it.

On her birthday, Wendell also gave a jade amulet worth three or four million.

This also reasonably explained why Claire was able to get a 60 million contract.

At this time, Harold said: "If you let such a shameless woman be the director, then our reputation will be even worse. At this time, we must choose someone else to be the director, and then we will also give credibility to the project. Go to other people, and it's best to choose a man, this can avoid gossip to the greatest extent!"

Old Mrs. Willson nodded gently.

She believed Harold's words 80%.

Looking at it this way, she really have to choose another director to eliminate rumors.

If everyone knows that Claire and Wendell got the contract before they get the contract, he can explain to the outside that he is getting the project with the new director, and he is definitely not relying on Claire to sell meat.

Moreover, the Lady Willson has a selfish heart.

She really doesn't like Claire! Moreover, she has always favored sons over daughters, and does not want to see Claire's status and strength in the Willson family grow.

She must be contained to ensure that the Willson family's assets will not leak to outsiders.

When she thought of this, she had already made up her mind.

So, she looked at Harold and said coldly, "Harold, in the future, you must listen to me. You can do what I ask you to do. You can never do what I don't let you do. Understand?"

Harold immediately said faithfully, "Grandma, don't worry. What you say in the future will be what Harold will do. I will fight wherever you refer!"

"Yeah." Mrs. Willson nodded with satisfaction, and said: "At the banquet tomorrow, I will tell everyone that you are the new director and are fully responsible for the cooperation with the Emgrand Group, but you must remember that you must be obedient. I can lift you up, and I can step on you!"

Harold was ecstatic in his heart and quickly said, "Grandma, don't worry! Harold must be obedient!"

Chapter 13

When she came out of the Willson Group, Claire was extremely excited.

Tomorrow grandma will officially announce her new appointment, and she can finally be proud of it!

Thinking of this, she couldn't help saying to Charlie: "Charlie, thank you! If it weren't for your encouragement, I wouldn't dare to take this task."

Charlie smiled and said, "My wife, you deserve it."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "By the way, my wife, do you want to celebrate such a big event?"

Claire nodded: "How do you want to celebrate?"

Charlie smiled and said: "It just so happens that the anniversary of our third wedding year is coming soon, let's celebrate together! I'll make preparations, you don't have to worry about it."

Claire asked in surprise, "Are you trying to surprise me?"

"Yes!" Charlie nodded and smiled: "I just want to prepare a surprise for you!"

Claire felt a little sweet in her heart, and said, "Then I won't ask you exactly what it is!"

Charlie said, "Don't ask, just wait!"

In order to prepare a special wedding anniversary for his wife, Charlie thought of many plans.

The whole is mainly based on compensation. After all, he used to be poor and didn't have the money to buy gifts for his wife, and he didn't even give his wife a formal wedding. Now that he has money, he must compensate her well.

After splitting up with his wife, Charlie went to a jewelry shop named Rare Earth in the center of Aurous Hill City by himself.

Rare Earth is the most famous jewelry store in the region.

Gold, platinum, diamonds, and jade, it can be said to have everything.

Charlie wanted to buy a gift for his wife first, and then go to the best hotel to book a late wedding.

After arriving at Rare Earth, the shopping guides saw him wearing a four-bar Adidas, and they didn't bother to pay attention to him.

Charlie looked around for a long time, and saw a jade necklace locked in a cabinet.

The material of this necklace is the top ice jade, exquisite atmosphere, very in line with Claire's temperament.

Charlie looked at the price, thirteen million, which was trivial to him.

So he called a salesperson and said, "Hello, please take this necklace out and let me have a look."

The other party glanced at Charlie and said, "I don't have the key, it is in our manager's hands."

After speaking, he used the walkie-talkie to say: "Manager Jane, someone wants to see our treasure of the town shop!"

Soon, a very enchanting woman trot over excitedly. Her name was Jane, the sales manager here.

"Which distinguished guest wants to see the treasure of the town shop?"

The salesman pointed to Charlie and said, "Manager Jane, this is the gentleman."

"Huh?" When Jane saw Charlie, she was as sick as a fly.

How can this kind of filthy rug afford the treasure of the town shop?

Thinking of this, she immediately said to the male shopping guide: "Liu, are you kidding me?"

The other party said: "No, this gentleman really wants to see the treasure of the town shop."

Jane scolded: "Can this kind of filthy rug afford the treasure of the town shop? Are you blind? If you are blind, just say it and I will rid of you soon!"

Jane prides herself on being extremely accurate.

She can tell at a glance what kind of person and what kind of purchasing power one has.

Therefore, she also judged at a glance that Charlie was a pauper and stinky rug.

Not to mention the thirteen million treasure of the town shop, even the ordinary necklace for one thousand three hundreds, he definitely can't afford it!

This is not a waste of your feelings?

The male shopping guide dared not speak out, so Charlie frowned and asked her: "You don't open the door to do business? I want to see this necklace. What's the problem?"

Jane sneered: "We open the door to do business, but don't do business with worthless people. If you can't afford it, don't join the fun!"

Charlie frowned and said: "With which eye do you see that I can't afford it?"

"Ha ha!"

Jane said disdainfully: "This jade is worth tens of millions. What do you buy? I know, don't you just want me to take a picture of you and send it to your circle of friends?"

As she said, Jane wrapped her arms around her chest, with a high-pitched look, her face full of contempt.

Hearing that this jade is worth tens of millions, many people around pointed and said with contempt: "This kind of person is really shameless. He can't afford it but want to have to look at it. What to look at when you can't buy it even in dreams?"

"That's it, without looking at the identity, just that one dress, how can it be worthy of such a super jade?"

"I tell you, there are too many of these fooling around now!"

Charlie glanced at Jane at the counter, and saw that the other party was sneering at him with a disdainful face. He had already made up his mind to teach this b*tch, who is so low-minded!

So Charlie took out his cell phone and dialed Stephen Thompson's number.

"Come to Rare Earth, give me 13 million in cash. I want to see it in ten minutes."

"No problem, Master, I will come here."

Jane curled her mouth and smiled: "I'm still addicted to acting! You have 13 million in cash. I have never seen so much cash in my life. I hope you can open my eyes! You don't know, more than For millions of cash, you need to make an appointment with the bank first? Hahaha, you are so funny!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Since you haven't seen so much cash, you will see it soon."

The people around were all talking about it.

"It's not a problem to be poor, the problem is not to swell your face to fill a fat man"

"Haha, this man doesn't look like a rich man at first sight. He is still talking about 13 million, and can give out 300,000. I call him my father!"

"I just want to see what the 13 million cash looks like!"

Listening to everyone standing on her side, Jane couldn't help but smile. She couldn't see the cash after a while, let's see how the poor ghost ended up.

A few minutes later, at the entrance of Rare Earth, several Rolls Royce suddenly stopped.

Then, from the two front cars, eight bodyguards in black suits descended.

They were holding black leather suitcases in their hands, their muscles were tight, their faces were solemn, and they were all cold and murderous, and even the atmosphere around them was a little serious.

This scene immediately shocked the entire Rare Earth!

Where does this big man come from, there is such a pomp!

Chapter 14

Seeing such a big show, Jane was also shocked, thinking to herself that it was not really the person who was called by the poor ghost?

But after another thought, how could it be possible!

It is impossible for the poor ghost to know such a powerful character.

Stephen Thompson got off the third Rolls-Royce and walked into Rare Earth. Jane quickly got up to greet him.

But Stephen Thompson didn't even look at her, and went straight to Charlie.

"Master, I am here and I have brought the money."

Stephen Thompson said, waving his hand, and the bodyguard behind walked into Rare Earth, and directly put the box full of money on the ground and opened it.

It's all densely packed with cash!

The people around were so frightened that they gasped for air!

d*mn it!

This smelly filthy rug oh no! What this person said is actually true!

d*mn, what kind of big man is he!

Many people took out their phones to shoot videos one after another. They didn't want to miss such a shocking scene.

However, Stephen Thompson's bodyguards cleared them all out immediately, and they could only photograph Charlie on the back of his head.

Charlie pointed to the cash on the floor and asked Jane, "Have seen so much money? Have you seen it now?"

Jane was frightened and nodded, "I see it, I see it"

Charlie said to Stephen Thompson, "I want to see the manager of this store."

Stephen Thompson nodded, took out his cell phone, and searched for a moment to call.

As soon as the call was connected, he cursed directly into the phone: "Bad son, I am Stephen Thompson. I am at Rare Earth now. Give you one minute and get out of here immediately! Otherwise, I will make people burn this Rare Earth! Then let someone break your dog legs!"

Jane's face turned pale, and the expression in Stephen Thompson's eyes was full of fear.

Is this person really so powerful?

Own boss, but Aurous Hill has a big man with a face, and he can eat well on the road, who can't give him some face? How can anyone dare to talk to him like this?

Before a minute, a middle-aged fat man crawled out of the office behind him. As soon as he saw Stephen Thompson, he rushed forward and said, "Mr. Thompson, you come to my shop. Without saying a word in advance, I'd have come to meet you."

Stephen Thompson directly slapped him in the face and furiously said, "You have a big shelf, and your clerk dares to neglect our young master. Are you tired of life?"

Stephen Thompson knew that the young master had been wronged a lot in the past ten years. At this time, seeing a clerk also gave him annoyance.

The middle-aged fat man received a slap in the face, and he was a bit wronged at first, but when he heard this, he was shocked and lost his mind.

The young master of Stephen Thompson? d*mn, Stephen Thompson already exists like a real dragon, isn't his young master like a god in the Hanging?

His frightened legs kept trembling, and turned his head to see Charlie next to Stephen Thompson. Although he looked ordinary, he was the young master of Stephen Thompson's boss family!

Thinking of this, the middle-aged fat man was even more apprehensive, and said quickly: "Master, I'm so sorry, I apologize to you."

Then he turned his head, full of anger, and cursed: "Which thing that doesn't have eyesight offends the young master? Stand up for me!"

The eyes of other shopping guides instantly focused on Jane.

Jane quickly wanted to shrink back.

But the middle-aged fat man rushed up instantly, grabbed Jane by the collar, slapped her face with a blow, and cursed: "You are a b!tch not better than that. Even you dare to offend the master. You are really blind. blind eyes!"

Jane was knocked to the ground by a slap, she said crying: "Boss, I'm sorry, I'm blind, please spare me this time!"

"Spare you?" The middle-aged fat man grabbed her hair and pulled her face up, hitting her face with a big fist.

With one punch and another punch, her face was full of blood: "Drafted, do you want to kill me? You want to kill me, I f*cking kill you first!"

Jane's mouth full of teeth was broken several times, and the bridge of her nose she had just paid for was also broken, her face was full of blood.

She broke away crying and broke away from the middle-aged fat man. She knelt and crawled to Charlie's side, grabbed his leg, and cried: "Mr. Wade, I really know that I was wrong. I will never look down on people in the future, please forgive me."

Charlie said coldly: "Do it yourself."

When the middle-aged fat man saw that she grabbed Charlie's leg, he was so scared that he ran over and slammed on her head, cursing, "You can touch the young master's leg? I'll kill you!"

After this step, Jane suddenly became unconscious.

The middle-aged fat man said to the security guard next to him: "Put this dog-eyed into the waste bin behind the shop!"

"OK, boss!" The security guards did not dare to delay, and immediately took Jane, who was full of blood, and led her out.

Charlie said to the middle-aged fat man expressionlessly, "My wife likes that jade, please wrap it up for me."

The middle-aged fat man nodded quickly and said, "Okay, I'll wrap it up for you!"

Charlie took out the premium card and said, "Swipe this card."

After speaking, he said to Stephen Thompson: "You can take the cashback."

The middle-aged fat man hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, you like this jade, so I will give it to you as a little gift!"

Charlie said: "I don't need you to do that."

The middle-aged fat man said in a consensual way: "Mr. Wade, treat it as a small little heart, please accept it!"

Stephen Thompson said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, since he intends to send you as a plea, please accept it, otherwise he won't even be able to sleep at night."

Charlie hesitated for a moment, then nodded gently: "Okay, then I thank you."

Seeing Charlie accepted the jade necklace, the fat man breathed a sigh of relief.

If Charlie didn't accept this necklace, he was really afraid that Stephen Thompson would not let him go. With his strength, hooking his fingers could also make him wiped out.

At this time, Stephen Thompson asked Charlie: "Mr. Wade, do you want me to send you off?"

"No." Charlie waved his hand and said, "Where is the back door? I'll go by myself."

The onlookers really opened their eyes today!

Several Rolls-Royces brought thirteen million in cash just to buy a piece of jade.

As a result, the boss of Rare Earth did not even dare to collect money!

What is the origin of that very humble young man?

Many people uploaded this video to the Internet, and it became popular online.

Netizens have called this mysterious person "super rich second generation", "overbearing president", "god-level rich man", and even set off a "search for god-level rich man" activity, and countless people actively participated.

But fortunately, when these people took the video, the man and his people were cleared out of the store surrounded by bodyguards, so the identity in their video was very vague and could not be used as a reference for finding someone.

Chapter 15

After leaving Rare Earth, Charlie did not go home immediately.

He wanted to give his wife a full set of surprises on the day of wedding anniversary.

This surprise is not just a jade necklace, he also wants to make up a romantic wedding for his wife.

At the request of the Master Willson, Charlie and Claire hurriedly obtained the marriage certificate, and the wedding was never held in time.

The Old Master himself wanted to choose an auspicious day and hold a grand wedding, but soon after the two got the certificate, he was seriously ill and was admitted to the hospital, so the wedding was been delayed.

Later, the Old Master left, and Charlie was not admired by anyone in the Willson family, so the wedding was even more impossible.

However, now that he has money, he must pay his wife a wedding!

When he thought of holding a wedding, the first thing he thought of was the Hanging Garden of Shangri-La!

Shangri-La Hotel is currently the best hotel in Aurous Hill. The hotel occupies a large area, the decoration is very luxurious, and there is a large and high-end shopping mall inside.

The Hanging garden is on the highest level inside the mall.

The reason why it is called the Hanging garden is that it is built with crystal glass, and matched with high-end fresh flowers shipped by air from abroad, it looks like a sky garden suspended in the air.

This is also the grandest and most luxurious banquet hall in Aurous Hill. If a wedding is held here, it will cost at least several million.

Charlie is rich now, a few million is nothing to him, as long as he can make his wife happy, it is more important than anything.

So he came to Shangri-La Hotel and wanted to reserve the Hanging garden on his wedding anniversary.

However, Charlie did not know that Shangri-La Hotel adopted membership service.

Whether it is eating, lodging, or holding a banquet here, you must have hotel membership.

Moreover, the corresponding services are not available for different membership levels.

Ordinary members can only eat in the lobby and stay in standard rooms;

Silver members can eat in boxes and live in high-end luxury rooms;

Gold members can eat in luxurious boxes and live in luxurious suites;

Platinum members can eat in the Hanging garden and live in top luxury suites.

And the highest is the diamond member.

Only diamond members are eligible to live in the presidential suite, and only diamond members are eligible to hold the entire Hanging garden for banquets.

Moreover, members above the gold level cannot be processed with money, and they must have sufficient social status.

Charlie came to Shangri-La Hotel, but before entering the door, he was stopped by several men in black.

"Sorry sir, please show your membership card."

Charlie's clothes all over his body are not worth two hundred, which is extremely dazzling when compared with those brightly dressed and luxurious guests.

Charlie said hurriedly: "I want to find your account manager and talk about the reservation."

The other party said coldly: "Sorry, you can't enter without a membership card!"

Charlie said: "Then can I apply for a membership card now?"

The other party shook his head and said, "Sorry, the membership card must be processed through the introducer."

Charlie frowned, saying that Shangri-La is too much trouble, right?

When he didn't know what to do, he suddenly remembered that when he was arranged by Mr. Willson to enter Aurous Hill University to study with his wife as a senior, there was a college classmate named Sabrina Lee who seemed to be at work!

So he immediately took out his mobile phone and called Sabrina.

After explaining the situation that he wanted to apply for the card, Sabrina immediately said: "Class monitor Wade, this matter is handed over to me, I will come there!"

Charlie hurriedly thanked him.

It seems that even though they have only been university classmates with Sabrina for a year, there is still some friendship between them, and he must return Sabrina's favor in the future.

"Oh, Class monitor Wade!"

A few minutes later, a woman's exclamation suddenly came from inside the hotel door.

Lifting his head, Charlie saw a very coquettish woman wearing an ol costume, heavy makeup, and wriggling out of the hotel.

Sabrina? Her changes are really big enough! he almost dare not recognize her!

Seeing the glamorous girl, the two black-clothed security guards at the door hurriedly bent over and called respectfully: "Manager. Sabrina."

Charlie said in surprise: "Sabrina, I haven't seen you in a few years, you are now the team leader in Shangri-La, really amazing!"

Sabrina smiled and said: "Class monitor, you are polite, I am actually just a team leader of the personnel department, and I can only be regarded as a small and middle-level employee in Shangri-La."

Charlie exclaimed from the bottom of his heart: "That's already very powerful. I heard that Shangri-La's management is very demanding. You are really amazing!"

Sabrina smiled triumphantly, and then looked at the two black-clothed security guards beside her, and asked coldly: "You two blocked my university monitor at the door and refused to let in?"

The two looked at each other, and one of them hurriedly said: "I'm sorry, leader Sabrina, we didn't know this is your university classmate, and he doesn't have a membership card, we were also abiding by the hotel regulations"

Sabrina snorted coldly: "The rules are dead and people are alive. Don't you understand this truth?"

Charlie thought that Sabrina was going to punish them for this, and hurriedly said: "Sabrina, don't make it difficult for them, they also act according to the rules."

Looking at Charlie, Sabrina suddenly laughed. At the same time, she changed her face and sarcastically said: "Class monitor Wade, you take yourself too seriously, you really think I will do it for you, and it will be difficult for my subordinates?"

Charlie frowned: "Sabrina, what do you mean?"

"What do I mean?" Sabrina curled her lips and smiled: "Is it not obvious enough? Just like you, you want to enter Shangri-La? I tell you, don't even think about it in this life!"

Charlie clenched his fists and asked her, "What the h*ll do you mean?"

"I am teasing you!" Sabrina smiled and shivered, and said, "When I was in college, I didn't look down on you. I only knew the smelly rug, even a canteen bun without meat. Still working as a class leader? Are you still gesticulating about my academic performance? I babble! Don't look at your virtue!"

Charlie said with a gloomy expression: "Sabrina, I think I have never provoked you, why do you ridicule me?"

Chapter 16

Sabrina hugged her shoulders and said proudly: "I just look down on you, why? You are not allowed to talk about it?"

"University classmates who didn't know that you went to be a live-in son-in-law after graduation? When you were in school, you couldn't afford to eat, and when you graduated you are eating leftovers, you still have the face to ask me for help?"

A bit of anger surged in Charlie's heart.

People do not offend him, He does not offend people, Sabrina is really too much this time!

At this moment, he suddenly received a text message from Stephen Thompson on his cell phone: "Mr. Wade, Shangri-La, is the property of our Wade Group. Shangri-La in Aurous Hill is just one of our more than 100 Shangri-La units."

Charlie's pupils shrank suddenly!

Shangri-La belongs to the Wade family?

He subconsciously responded to the text message: "Aren't you lying to me?"

Stephen Thompson said: "The person in charge of Aurous Hill Shangri-La is named Issac Craven and his phone number is 155. You call him and he will take care of everything."

"Is it Okay?"

Seeing that Charlie kept low hair text messages made Sabrina very depressed.

She felt like she was abusing the dog, of course she wanted to hear the dog barking twice.

But unexpectedly, Charlie didn't say a word.

It seems that this Class monitor, who was very stubborn when he was in college, is still so stubborn and indifferent to being scolded.

So she increased her firepower and sneered: "Oh, Class monitor, you can really bear it!"

"By the way, I heard people say that you and Claire had been married for three years and you haven't gotten into her bed. Could it be that Claire was the mistress of others? Wouldn't you just be a pretence for her to be someone else's junior? Right? Hahaha!"

Charlie frowned.

It's all about insulting me, but also insulting my wife?

Sabrina, you are looking for death by yourself!

So, he dialed the phone number of Issac Craven, the person in charge of Shangri-La, looked at Sabrina, and said indifferently: "I want to ask your person in charge, how does Shangri-La recruit employees? Even someone with mouth full of dung, can they still be recruited?"

"Dare to scold me? Are you tired of life!" Sabrina immediately exploded her hair and shouted at the security guard beside her: "He is here to insult me, give him a beating!"

At this time, Charlie had already dialed the phone.

"Hey, who."

On the phone, a man's coercive voice came.

Charlie asked coldly: "Are you Issac Craven? My name is Charlie Wade. I'm at the door of Shangri-La now. I will give you one minute to get down, or you will get out of Shangri-La in the future!"

The man on the phone who was still full of momentum suddenly asked: "Young Mr. Wade? Are you really at the door of Shangri-La?"

Charlie said coldly: "You still have fifty seconds!"

The other party seemed frightened and blurted out: "Wait a minute, I'm here!"

Sabrina laughed angrily by Charlie's phone call, and said sarcastically: "Charlie, I didn't expect you to brag like this? Do you know the identity of President Issac? The two top members of Shangri-La did not dare to act in front of President Issac. Do you think you can bluff me by pretending to make a call?"

Charlie said lightly, "Is it bluffing you? You'll know after 30 seconds!"

Sabrina laughed loudly: "Okay, Class monitor Wade, then I will wait with you for 30 seconds! Oh no, I will wait with you for three minutes! If they don't come out for three minutes, I will let the security guard tear your mouth. Look at how you brag in the future! Hahaha! You really laugh at me!"

Twenty seconds.

A middle-aged man wearing a top-level customized suit ran out in a panic.

He is a dog of the Wade family and a very powerful dog.

Since he took office in Aurous Hill and became the head of Shangri-La, he has been one of the most respected existences in city. When has he been so flustered?

However, he had to panic, and never dreamed that the young master would appear in Shangri-La where he was in charge.

Sabrina was about to continue to ridicule Charlie, when she suddenly saw the security guards around her looking behind her with horror.

When she turned her head subconsciously, she suddenly discovered that President Issac was running out of it, and she was suddenly struck by lightning.

Immediately, she looked at Charlie, her eyes full of horror: "How is this possible?"

"Who is Mr. Charlie?!"

Issac Craven's voice was trembling.

The people were stunned, and Mr. Issac, who was able to bring the Aurous Hill earthquakes by stomping his feet, changed his voice in a panic at this moment!

Charlie said at this moment: "I am!"

Issac Craven rushed to the front immediately, bowed and said: "Master"

Before he finished speaking, Charlie immediately said: "Mr. Issac, don't say something outside."

When Issac Craven heard this, his whole body trembled in shock.

d*mn, I am a stupid dog! The identity of the young master must be highly confidential, and he almost called out. If the young master blamed him for that, wouldn't he be finished?

So he hurriedly changed his name, but still respectfully said: "Mr. Charlie, you are welcome to Shangri-La. Please move to my office to talk."

Sabrina was already frightened, she couldn't accept this reality, but it really happened in front of her eyes.

What is the origin of Charlie? How can the bosses of Shangri-La treat him respectfully?

She ridiculed him just now, shouldn't he hold grudges?

Chapter 17

Thinking of this, Sabrina hurriedly changed into a flattering look, and said to Charlie in a charming manner: "It's really an honor for our Shangri-La and my old classmates to come by, Mr. Charlie."

She felt that by complimenting Charlie, she could make Charlie forget or ignore what she had done just now.

However, she took Charlie too kindly.

When Issac Craven heard Sabrina's words, he asked in surprise: "Sabrina, are you Charlie's classmate?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Sabrina said hurriedly: "Charlie was the monitor of my college class. We have a very good relationship!"

Issac Craven said immediately: "I will report to the President's Office tomorrow, and you will be the personnel director of Shangri-La!"

From the team leader to the personnel director, there are at least three levels in Shangri-La, and the remuneration is more than ten times, and most of the employees are in control of life and death. He is definitely one of the executives.

When Sabrina heard this, she was excited and almost fainted.

At this time, Charlie said coldly: "Mr. Charlie, do you know what my relationship is with Sabrina?"

Issac Craven thought that Charlie was dissatisfied with this arrangement, and immediately said: "If Mr. Charlie is not satisfied, then let Ms. Sabrina be promoted directly to vice president!"

Charlie suddenly said, "Because I didn't have a membership card, I called Sabrina for help, but she actually humiliated me for no reason, and even wanted security to beat me several times. You actually want to promote her to vice president. What do you mean? Deliberately want to fight against me?"

Hearing this, Issac Craven felt cold.

The flattering hit the horse's leg!

Immediately, his eyes were full of anger when he looked at Sabrina.

Immediately afterwards, he slapped Sabrina's face fiercely, and cursed: "Even Mr. Charlie dared to offend, you have the courage of the bear heart and leopard? Don't you want to live?"

Sabrina was so frightened that she was soft, knelt on the ground and kept kowtow, crying: "Mr. Charlie, I was wrong."

Issac Craven kicked Sabrina abruptly, kicked her a few meters away, and cursed: "You are not a dog with long eyes! I will let you know today and it has caused Mr. Charlie's price!"

Having said that, he shouted to the security guard beside him: "Beat her fiercely! Beat her half to death, and then give her plastic face a good look, and then tell the whole Aurous Hill that no company will dare to use her in the future!"

Sabrina was so frightened that she hurriedly said: "President Issac, I was wrong, please forgive me!"

Issac Craven was furious, and shouted: "Now you know it was wrong? Why did you go? You can offend Mr. Wade too? If it wasn't for the face of Mr. Wade, I would kill you!"

Sabrina broke down and cried. She knelt on the ground and crawled all the way to Charlie, kowtowing her head again and again: "Class monitor Wade, I was wrong, sorry! Please let it for the sake of classmates."

Charlie asked her indifferently: "Sabrina, classmate, why did you insult me and my wife just now?"

Sabrina cried bitterly and said, "Class monitor, I was confused just now. I blame my bad mouth. Please forgive me."

Charlie said: "If people do not offend me, I will not offend others, but if they offend me, I will never forgive others!"

After that, he snorted and said: "You brew your own bitter wine, drink it yourself!"

Issac Craven scolded: "b*tch, dare to bitch with Mr. Wade, I will tear your broken mouth!"

Sabrina did not dare to beg for mercy anymore, but knelt on the ground and wept bitterly.

Charlie did not sympathize with her at all, but simply ignored her and said blankly to Issac Craven: "I want to talk to you about the Hanging garden. Let go to your office."

Issac Craven nodded hurriedly, and said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie come with me!"

After speaking, he pointed at the security guard beside him and shouted: "Hit her hard!"

"Yes, President Issac!"

How dare the security guard disobey him, nodding his head immediately rushed to hold Sabrina to beat her.

Sabrina kept wailing, but Charlie completely ignored it, and under the guidance of Issac Craven nodding and bowing, he entered Shangri-La.

As soon as he arrived at Issac Craven's office, Charlie went straight to the topic: "A few days later, it will be my wife's wedding anniversary. I want to reserve the entire Hanging garden. Can I do that?"

Issac Craven said without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, in order to ensure fairness to all high-end members, Hanging Garden has always refused to book the venue. Even the city leaders will not provide private space service. However, as long as you need it, the air in the garden can even be reserved for you alone forever!"

Charlie said indifferently: "That's not necessary, just save it on the anniversary. Besides, I need you to cooperate with me and prepare a little surprise for my wife."

Issac Craven said immediately: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, all Shangri-La employees and I will obey your instructions!"

Charlie got things done in Shangri-La. When he took the bus home, almost all the passengers in the bus were using TikTok, Instagram and YouTube.

Moreover, to his surprise, everyone is watching the same video!

It's the video of throwing thirteen millions in cash at Rare Earth!

The video was shot from Stephen Thompson's Rolls-Royce team, a series of top Rolls-Royce cars, a dozen black security guards with black suitcases, and thirteen million cash dropped on the ground for dogs to watch. The low-ranking sales manager has no place to show herself, and the whole process is posted online.

However, the video failed to capture the front of Charlie.

This video quickly became popular in Aurous Hill. Countless people are wondering who is the superhero. Many girls even dreamed of Cinderella and the prince's dreams, eager to one day meet this low-key hero.

Charlie repeatedly confirmed that he was difficult to recognize in the video, and then he was relieved and returned home.

At this time, the home is full of joy.

Claire got the contract from the Emgrand Group and was about to become the director of the Willson Group. Her parents were naturally excited and tearful.

She have been looked down upon in the Willson family for so many years, now she can finally raise her head and be a woman!

When the father-in-law and mother-in-law were happy, seeing Charlie was not as bored as before.

The mother-in-law said excitedly: "Oh, I'm so happy today, my daughter is really not an ordinary person!"

After finishing speaking, she looked at Charlie again, and said with a rare smile: "Charlie, you can be considered a great inspiration for this matter. I won't let you cook today. Let's find a restaurant to have a meal!"

Claire smiled and said, "Then let's go to Kempinski to eat western food!"

"It's too expensive!" The mother-in-law blurted out: "That's not more than 1,000 per capita?"

Claire smiled and said, "Mom, the director's salary is very high, with an annual salary of one million."

"Oh!" The mother-in-law applauded joyfully, and happily said: "It's great, great! My family is finally promising!"

After that, she said: "However, you must pay at least 70% to your mother from your future salary. You young people don't understand the importance of financial management. Money is definitely more reliable with me than you save yourself!"

Claire nodded immediately and smiled: "Okay mom, I will give it to you every month at that time, but let's say it, you can't always rebuke Charlie in the future, saying things like how can he be your son-in-law? "

The mother-in-law immediately opened her eyes and smiled: "Okay! Mom cares about your face, so try to talk less about him in the future!"

Chapter 18

Wendell was sulking at home when a family of four went to Kempinski for dinner.

He also saw the news from the Emgrand Group, and was very depressed.

He thought Claire would not be able to get the contract from the Emgrand Group if he didn't help. He didn't expect that she would successfully win a contract of 60 million in the morning. He recalled that he had put a cruel remark at her house yesterday. This was not for her face?

Harold also called to complain about it, and said as soon as he opened his mouth: "Brother Wendell, you are too interesting! I have been helping you create opportunities to chase my cousin, but you helped her win the cooperation of the Emgrand Group. Didn't you embarrass me?"

Wendell is also very innocent, what the h*ll? I didn't help Claire!

At this time, Harold asked again: "Brother Wendell, tell me the truth, did you put my cousin to sleep?"

Wendell was too embarrassed to deny, saying that he had nothing to do with all of this, wouldn't that mean admitting that he was incompetent?

So he said um um ah ah, "Yes, sorry Harold, I will definitely compensate you if I have a chance in the future."

"I knew it!" Harold sighed, and then hurriedly asked: "Brother Wendell, my cousin should still be intact? She seems to have never let that rubbish touch, you really hit a jackpot this time!"

Wendell was delighted when he heard this.

OK! Claire is still a ...!

Then he might as well declare to the public that she slept with him, so as to provoke the relationship between her and her husband.

Thinking of this, he smiled and said to Harold: "Harold, your cousin was indeed still a virgin, and it was really cool to do it, hahaha!"

Harold said bitterly: "Then you can't ignore me from now on, Brother Wendell!"

"Relax!" Wendell readily agreed.

After hanging up Harold's phone, Wendell's father called again.

As soon as the phone was connected, he blurted out: "Wendell, something has happened! The Marriott Group stopped all our cooperation! Have you been offending people these days?"

When Wendell heard this, his heart felt like an ice cellar.

The Emgrand Group has stopped all cooperation with the Jones family? Doesn't it mean that the family has suffered heavy losses? !

He blurted out: "What's the situation, Dad? I haven't offended anyone these days! Have you offended anyone?"

Wendell's father said angrily: "Neither do I! I have been in the company these days, and I haven't gone out to offend anyone."

Wendell said nervously: "Oh, dad, is it possible that the new chairman of Emgrand Group is preparing to shuffle the cards?"

"Very likely!" Wendell's father suddenly realized: "Now that the new chairman has taken over, I haven't had a chance to pay a visit. I have mentioned it to that Doris several times, but she keeps saying that their chairman is not attending guests."

Wendell asked: "What should I do?"

His father thought for a while and said, "Oh, right, there will be a banquet in the Willson family tomorrow night. It is said that they have invited the chairman of the Emgrand Group. Let's go and find a chance to meet him!"

"Okay!" Wendell said immediately: "Tomorrow we will go together!"

The next day, at the most important highlight of the Willson family, the entire family was excited up and down.

Because after a night of fermentation, the Willson family got the Emgrand Group contract and invited the Emgrand Group chairman to participate in the family banquet. The news has spread throughout Aurous Hill!

For this banquet, Charlie found his most expensive suit to put on and went to the hotel where the banquet was held.

As soon as he arrived at the hotel entrance, Charlie got out of the car and saw a Porsche suddenly braked and stopped in front of him.

Immediately afterwards, Wendell, dressed in a designer suit and meticulously combed hair, got out of the car.

Soon, a receptionist came up and greeted Wendell graciously.

And Wendell obviously saw Charlie too, with a trace of disdain in his eyes, looked at him up and down, and smiled: "Where did you find a copycat suit, and the person wearing it looks like a dog."

Charlie asked calmly: "What does it have to do with you?"

The corner of Wendell's mouth curled up, with a bit of sarcasm on his face, and said, "You have nothing to do with me, but your wife has something to do with me now."

Charlie frowned slightly and asked, "What's the relationship?"

People around can't help but stop.

Beginning last night, there was a gossip in the circle.

According to the news, Claire was able to win the Emgrand Group's cooperation entirely because she dedicated her life to Wendell's relationship. Otherwise, with the strength of her and the Willson family, how could she win the Emgrand Group?

Now it seems that this is really a sign.

Wendell saw the crowd gathered, and said to Charlie: "What do you think was the reason why the Emgrand Group was able to win the cooperation in the first place?"

Charlie looked at Wendell and asked indifferently: "Because of what?"

Wendell's mouth curled up and said, "Of course it's because of me, because Claire is now my woman, so I tried my best to help her win the Emgrand cooperation. If you know, divorce her sooner, it's also considered adult beauty. "

Although everyone around had speculated, but now that Wendell said it bluntly, everyone could not help being surprised.

Claire actually got the cooperation of Emgrand Group through sleeping with Wendell!

"Because of you?" Charlie laughed instead of anger when he heard this, and said, "You are worthy too?"

Chapter 19

"I'm not worthy, are you worthy?"

Wendell said with gloomy eyes: "You are just a rubbish, you can't even look at your own wife. It's too wrong to follow you in the first place. It's nice to follow me, I can give her what she wants!"

Charlie's face turned cold, lowered his voice, and said coldly: "I'll give you two choices. First, you will kowtow to Claire and apologize. In front of everyone, you will swallow what you have said. Second, I will completely bankrupt your family group, if you disagree."

"Hahahahaha, are you kidding me? What kind of thing are you that made my group bankrupt?"

Wendell laughed wildly and looked at Charlie disdainfully, obviously not taking what he said seriously.

"Are you a mentally retarded daydreamer? What do you use to make my family group go bankrupt? Do you know what the market value of my family group is?"

Charlie was expressionless, staring at Wendell for a moment with a mentally retarded expression, took out the phone at random, and dialed Stephen Thompson.

"Within three minutes, I want to see Wendell's group go bankrupt and liquidate its assets, and debts soar!"

In three minutes, letting a group with a market value of several billion go bankrupt is simply a pipe dream!

Wendell stared at Charlie with a stern look, and said: "d*mn, you're so awesome! Do you think you are the superhero on the Internet?"

After that, Wendell said coldly: "rubbish, don't pretend, I also give you two choices. First, you will kneel down and apologize to me, and then divorce Claire immediately; second, I will find a few people to completely abolish you from the face of earth. Then, let you see me and Claire sweet and sweet with your own eyes, and you can choose yourself! I will give you one minute!"

Charlie looked down at the phone and said, "You have one minute left, are you sure you can't save it?"

"f*ck off! You still have thirty seconds to think about it. If you don't kneel down, I will make you regret it forever!" Wendell said indifferently.

"Twenty seconds!"

"Ten seconds!"

"Five seconds!"

"The time is up, don't blame me for being cruel, it's you rubbish that you found yourself!" Wendell shook his collar, then waved to a few bodyguards, ready to take care of the rubbish first.

But at this moment, Wendell's cell phone rang suddenly.

Wendell was taken aback, saw his father calling, and quickly picked up.

"Dad, I'm already at the party, are you here?"

On the phone, Wendell's father snarled frantically: "You rubbish! Who on earth did you offend! What trouble did you cause! Now all shareholders are frantically dumping our group's stock, and our stock has fallen by more than 90%!"

As he said, his father roared again: "The bank suddenly came to ask for debt repayment! All the partners suddenly stopped cooperating with us and stopped settlement! Our capital chain has been broken! There is only one way out for bankruptcy and liquidation!"

Wendell's face instantly turned pale as he listened to the voice from the phone, and cold sweat dripped from his forehead.

"Our house is over! Completely over!"

Wendell wanted to ask again. Suddenly, he heard the sound of a police siren on the opposite side of the mobile phone, followed by the sound of a door breaking, and the voice of the police asking his father to cooperate in the investigation.

He was suddenly weak, and the phone fell to the ground, smashing to pieces.

As soon as his legs softened, he knelt in front of Charlie.

The wind blew, and the body and heart were cold.

Those bodyguards, seeing this picture, were all surprised and stopped stepping forward.

Wendell was extremely frightened, and asked Charlie in a low voice, "Who are you? You did it, right?"

The crowd onlookers were also extremely surprised. Wendell answered the call and suddenly knelt in front of the son-in-law of the Willson family. What happened?

Charlie looked down at him, bent over slightly, and said in a low voice: "I gave you the opportunity to choose, but you didn't choose the right one."

"I know that I was wrong, I apologize to you, please, let me go! At first I have nothing to do with you, I have never touched her, the Emgrand Group's cooperation is not my help, those words just said are all made up, I beg you, forgive me and my family!"

Wendell kept kowtow apologizing, he couldn't even dream that a son-in-law of the Willson family would have such a great energy! One phone call breaking his family!

When he raised his head and looked at Charlie's cheek, he only felt that this plain face was more terrifying than a demon!

Can let his family go bankrupt within a few minutes, such a character is not offended at all!

Charlie shook his head and said, "You should be satisfied, because at least I will save you a life! Otherwise, your whole family will be dead!"

As soon as he said this, Wendell's face paled and his whole body trembled violently.

Charlie looked at him and said coldly: "To tell you the truth, I am the superhero on the Internet. If you don't want to die, you'd better not talk about my identity, otherwise, you and your father won't survive tomorrow morning. !"

After speaking, Charlie patted Wendell's face, and stepped into the hall without paying attention to him.

But Wendell completely slumped to the ground, and he did not dare to resist Charlie's extremely humiliating action.

Seeing Charlie walked into the hall, Wendell even ran into the hall rolling.

Looking around and seeing Claire's figure, he crawled over there, knelt at Claire's feet, kept kowtow, and cried, "Claire, I apologize to you, I shouldn't tell you about it. The rumors, you got the Emgrand Group project, it has nothing to do with me, please, let me go!"

Claire was taken aback by his actions, and quickly dodged backwards, but ran into a warm embrace.

Claire looked back, and it was Charlie who hugged himself.

After Charlie came in, he saw Claire. Today's Claire has been carefully dressed, like a blooming star in the crowd, dazzling.

Seeing Wendell rushing towards Claire, Charlie took her in his arms first to prevent her from falling, and gave Wendell a fierce look.

Wendell was frightened and rolled away on his stomach, for fear of angering Charlie.

Claire asked puzzledly: "What happened to him?"

Charlie hugged her while whispering, "I'm afraid this person is sick. Leave him alone."

Although the two were husband and wife, they didn't have any close contact. Feeling Charlie's warm embrace, Claire's ears were red.

She hurriedly broke free from Charlie's arms, and said falteringly: "Well, Chairman Wade of the Emgrand Group should be here, I'm going to see"

Chapter 20

When Wendell fled, Harold just came in, followed by his sister Wendy and his fiancée Yunlong White.

Beside Yunlong, there was also a young man dressed in luxurious clothes. Looking at his face, he looked a bit like Gerald.

When he met Wendell head-on, Harold said hurriedly: "Oh, brother Wendell! When I just came in, I heard someone say something happened to your family? Really?"

Wendell pushed him away in despair, muttering in his mouth: "It's over, it's over, it's all over"

Harold asked with concern: "Mr. Jones, what's wrong with you?"

Wendell shook his head in fear, dare not say anything.

He had no doubt that if he said something that he shouldn't say, he might be corpse on the street tomorrow.

So Wendell broke away from Harold's hand and ran out in despair.

Harold looked at his back and sighed, "I guess this house is really finished, sh!t, too soon, right? It was fine yesterday, but today it is bankrupt!"

Later, when Harold saw Charlie and Claire, he was moved with bad thoughts, and hurriedly greeted Claire, "Claire, I will introduce you to this distinguished guest. This is Gerald's cousin, Fred White. , The eldest son of the White family."

"Brother Fred, this is my cousin, Claire." Harold introduced to Fred with a flattering expression.

As soon as Fred came in, his eyes were tightly focused on Claire. Hearing the words, he quickly stretched out his hand and said: "Hello Claire. I have heard about the beauty of the daughter of the Willson family a long time ago. Seeing it today, it really deserves its reputation."

A trace of dissatisfaction flashed in Charlie's eyes. There was no way for his wife to be beautiful, and the flies around her would be annoying to death after catching one after another.

So he stretched out his hand first, shook hands with Fred, and said coldly: "Hello, I am Claire's husband."

"You?" Fred looked up and down at Charlie, his disdain was overwhelming, and he withdrew his hand before he said indifferently: "I didn't expect Claire to be married. It's really a flower on the cow dung."

Wendy quickly explained on the side: "Brother Fred, this rubbish is imported into our Willson family. He has no job and no ability!"

After finishing speaking, she deliberately winked at Fred and said, "Brother Fred, after I marry Gerald, we will be considered as a family, and we must have more contact by then."

Fred naturally knew what she meant. This was to encourage him to pursue Claire. Then he smiled and said, "Miss Claire is as beautiful as an immortal. If I can communicate more, I can't ask for it."

At this moment, Charlie also saw his mother-in-law Elaine and father-in-law Jacob approaching.

After Elaine walked over, he hurriedly said to Claire, "Claire, have you heard about it? Jones family is bankrupt!"

"Huh?" Claire asked in surprise: "When did it happen?"

"Just now!" Elaine sighed: "I thought you would divorce Charlie in the future, and you can be with Wendell, but now it's nothing to watch."

Charlie was very depressed, is this mother-in-law a fool? Don't know that the current son-in-law is the real son-in-law?

After seeing Elaine, Fred hurried over and introduced himself: "You must be Claire's mother, right? Auntie, I am Gerald's cousin Fred. You are so beautiful, no wonder you can give birth to Claire. Such a beautiful daughter."

When Elaine heard that Fred turned out to be Gerald's cousin, the eldest son of the White family, and the son of the rich family! Her eyes lit up and she said enthusiastically: "Yes, I am Claire's mother. Are you and Claire friends?"

Fred nodded and smiled: "Kind of friends, but I just met today!"

Elaine was full of joy, and quickly nodded and said: "Everyone quickly find a place to sit, don't stand, Mr. White, you young people, you should have more contact in the future."

"Mom!" Claire exclaimed in dissatisfaction, preventing her mother from continuing.

Elaine was about to say something, Claire gave her a hand to remind everyone to pay attention to the stage.

At this time, Mrs. Willson was already standing in the spotlight!

She looked around with excitement before she stood in front of the microphone and smiled and said: "First of all, on behalf of the Willson family, I welcome dear friends and partners to come to our banquet."

"Then, let us welcome the Vice Chairman of Emgrand Group, Ms. Doris."

The spotlight moved instantaneously, hitting the beam of light on the front seat.

Wearing a black evening dress, Doris completely exposed her perfect figure to everyone's eyes. Under the light, she was as dazzling as a fairy, and all the men in the field couldn't help but focus on her.

Emgrand Group, Vice Chairman! Peerless beauty! Each of these identities is enough to attract everyone's attention.

After Doris stood up, she just nodded to the crowd. When she saw Charlie, her eyes stayed for a while before she moved away.

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson continued to speak: "Today, I would like to thank the Emgrand Group for being able to entrust such an important project to the Willson family. The Willson family will definitely go all out to live up to the trust of Emgrand."

"Secondly, we also want to introduce to our friends an outstanding junior of our Willson family. If it weren't for him, we would not have reached a cooperation with Emgrand. Moreover, after mutual consultation of our group, we decided to nominate him as our Willson Group's Director, is solely responsible for the cooperation with Emgrand Group!"

The mother-in-law Elaine said excitedly: "Oh, Claire! It's time for you to be on stage!"

Although Claire was ready to take the stage, she was still nervous.

Charlie immediately cast an encouraging look at her.

Harold looked at Claire who was full of excitement, and couldn't help but show a sneer at the corner of his mouth.

Old Mrs. Willson also looked at the table and spoke with a smile.

"Let us welcome the new director of the Willson Group, Harold!"

Claire's figure instantly froze in place

She looked to the side in disbelief, but saw Harold proudly and stepped onto the stage.

Charlie's eyes turned cold instantly.

A good way to cross the river and demolish the bridge!

The Willson family, after using Claire, immediately abandoned her, not caring about her feelings at all!

Claire's eye circles instantly turned red, and tears kept rolling in his eye sockets.

Immediately afterward, she stood up and ran out of the door without looking back.

For her, how happy she was when she came, how desperate she was now!

Charlie watched her leave, his face even colder.

Bullying my wife? Are you looking for death?

At this time, Harold stood on the stage and said proudly: "Thank you for the trust of the company, I will definitely work hard to be a director! I will definitely complete the project given to us by Emgrand Group!"

Mrs. Willson nodded in satisfaction, took the words, and said: "There is one more important thing about this banquet, that is, we are fortunate to have Mr. Wade, the new chairman of the Emgrand Group! Please use the warmest Applause, welcome to Chairman Wade!"

There was thunderous applause from the audience!

All the guests tonight are rushing to the new chairman of Emgrand Group!

Everyone is waiting to see his style!

Everyone is watching privately, just want to see, who will stand up at this moment!

Someone even said: "I suspect that the mysterious chairman of the Emgrand Group is the same person as the super goddess who made a lot of noise at Rare Earth on the Internet!"

"I also think it's very possible! That super hero's back looks strange, it shouldn't be in the Aurous Hill circle!"

"God! If you say that, isn't the chairman of Emgrand Group the most powerful super-rich in Aurous Hill?"

"I look forward to seeing him in his true colors!"

In this fierce applause, under the eager attention of countless people, Charlie suddenly, with cold his face and slowly stood up

Chapter 21

In everyone's incredible eyes, Charlie slowly stood up.

The eyes of the entire banquet hall focused on him in an instant.

"Charlie, what are you doing! Sit down!" Elaine quickly reminded him in fright.

He didn't look at what occasion it was! There are so many big men present, none of them dared to stand up, you Charlie are a wasteful son-in-law, what makes you think the limelight at this time is for you?

Fred and Gerald also glanced at each other, secretly saying in their hearts, d*mn, the chairman of the Emgrand Group would really be him, right?

But then, the two shook their heads again.

Impossible, if he is really the chairman of Emgrand, how could he be scolded by Elaine?

"What are you rubbish! sit down in your place!" Harold shouted from the stage with a dark face.

Charlie glanced at him coldly, then walked straight to Doris Young, completely ignoring everyone's horrified gaze, and whispered a few words in her ear.

While listening, Doris Young nodded slightly.

This scene made everyone's heart tighten instantly.

Doris Young! The vice-chairman of Emgrand Group, the famous beauty of Aurous Hill City! Charlie, a wasteful son-in-law, how could he know her? And looking like this, the relationship between the two seems pretty good.

After speaking, Charlie stepped out of the hall regardless of everyone's gaze, focused on him, he went out to chase Claire.

But Doris Young stood up, stepped onto the stage, took the microphone, and said in the blank eyes of everyone: "Hello everyone, this is Doris Young. Mr. Charlie was outside the venue before and met our chairman. He brought me a world."

When everyone heard that Charlie was not the chairman of Emgrand, they were relieved.

Fred White breathed a sigh of relief and whispered disdainfully: "It's just that he met someone once, so he tried desperately to cheat on the assistant. It's really rubbish."

Gerald White shrugged and said with a smile: "This is how the little guy is."

At this time, Doris Young on the stage glanced at Mrs. Willson, her face turned cold: "The chairman asked me to inform you."

"From now on, Emgrand Group terminates its cooperation with Willson's, and the signed contract is declared invalid!"

"boom!"

The crowd exploded in an instant, and no one expected that Doris Young would say such a thing.

This sudden change made everyone stunned.

Old Mrs. Willson paled instantly and asked eagerly: "Dear vice-chair, what is this? Is there anything in our Willson family that is wrong?"

Today, she invited all the people in Aurora Hill with good repute, hoping to take this opportunity to become famous in Aurous Hill.

If under all the eyes of everyone, the Willson family would be stepped on the soles of their feet if they cooperated.

Doris Young said: "This project was originally our chairman's approval of Ms. Claire before cooperating with you, but you made your own claim and asked an inexplicable person to take charge of this project. Sorry, we don't accept it!"

After speaking, Doris Young put down the microphone and walked out the door without looking back.

Old Mrs. Willson's face was pale, and she slumped on the stage for an instant.

She never dreamed that her momentary cleverness would have ruined this golden opportunity for good!

Had she known this situation a long time ago, she would not have allow Harold to replace Claire's directorship.

Harold was also very at a loss this time, what's the matter? It seems that Doris Young deliberately targeted him, and he did not even offend her!

Harold couldn't help asking the Old Mrs. Willson: "Grandma, the director's appointment has been announced, you won't regret it?"

Old Mrs. Willson struggled to stand up, raised her hand and slapped him, angrily scolded: "b*stard stuff, you still don't want to miss the directorship, even at such a time!"

Chapter 22

After Charlie went out, he realized that Claire hadn't gone far, just squatting in an unmanned corner next to the hotel, crying aggrievedly.

He slowly approached, took off his coat, put on Claire, and said: "My wife, don't be sad, the director of the Willson family is not a treasure, no matter it's inappropriate for your family to treat you like that."

"You don't understand, if I become the director, my parents will be able to raise their eyes in the Willson family, how can grandma turn back," Claire whimpered.

Charlie continued to persuade: "Maybe they will have to come and beg you to be the director. You are crying like this now, and you won't look pretty after a while on stage."

Claire choked and said, "How is it possible? Grandma has said everything, and there will be no chance of turning back. Leave me, let me be alone."

At this moment, Mrs. Willson and Harold also ran out of the banquet hall.

The Lady Willson was too old and out of breath when she ran. A large group of people behind her came out to watch the scene in excitement.

After Harold came out, he saw Charlie and Claire.

He ran forward quickly, looked down at Claire with dim eyes, and blurted out: "Claire, hurry up and chase Miss Doris, let her not terminate cooperation with us!"

Claire looked blank: "Terminate cooperation? Why?"

Harold said angrily: "You are here pretending to be innocent. You must have instructed Miss Doris to embarrass me publicly. If you don't settle this matter for me, I can't spare you!"

Snapped!

The Old Mrs. Willson who was on the side slapped Harold angrily again and said "You b@stard, how can you talk to your sister like that! She is the director of our Willson Group!"

Harold was anxious: "Didn't grandma chose me as the director?"

The Old Mrs. Willson said angrily: "If you hadn't given me Ecstasy, how could I change my mind temporarily? If you continue to be reluctant, get out of the Willson family!"

After being smoked twice by the Lady Willson, Harold was extremely angry, but he dared not speak, so he could only swallow his anger temporarily.

The Old Mrs. Willson said to Claire again at this time: "Claire, grandma begs you, you are now the director of the Willson family, hurry up and explain to Miss Doris, otherwise, our Willson family will be in ruins!"

Claire looked at Charlie blankly with doubts.

Charlie shrugged and said, "I told you, they have to come and beg you to be the director in a while, you didn't believe me, look, your face is all messed up."

Claire blushed, wiped her tears, and said, "Then I will try to contact Emgrand."

After speaking, she dialed Doris Young's phone.

Everyone's eyes focused on her.

After a while, the phone was connected, and Claire said: "Hello, Miss Doris, grandma asked me to explain to you, I will be promoted to the director of the Willson family, responsible for the cooperation with Emgrand, can you give us another chance? "

Doris Young chuckled and said, "If you are the director and can take the charge then there is no problem. The cooperation can continue, but if it is someone else, everything stays at the current status."

"Miss Doris thank you so much!"

Claire was always puzzled about this matter in her heart. From beginning to end, the Emgrand Group seemed to be here entirely to help her, which was too abnormal.

Doris Young said with a smile: "This is what our chairman meant. If there is a chance in the future, the chairman will explain it to you personally."

Claire was even more puzzled. Who was the chairman of the other party, and she had never seen him. Why did the other party help him everywhere?

"Then, can you please return to the banquet hall again?" Claire asked nervously.

The other party had left with anger, obviously irritated by the Willson family. At this time, asking the other party to come back is a bit difficult.

But she didn't expect that Doris Young agreed resolutely.

Soon everyone saw that Doris Young's car had returned to the door of the hotel.

At this moment, everyone looked at Claire's gaze, all filled with horror and awe.

Chapter 23

When everyone returned to the banquet hall, the Lady Willson took Claire's hand on the stage.

With an intimate gesture, she said, "I'm really sorry for just now, it was me who made a mistake, in fact, thanks to Claire this time, she is the outstanding descendant of our Willson family. This time the cooperation between the Willson family and the Emgrand resulted from the efforts of Claire. She really made great efforts."

Doris Young stood by her side, glanced at her disdainfully, waved her hand to stop her from speaking further, and said: "I will correct it. In this cooperation, Miss Claire has not only made great efforts, but completely it is made possible by her power, and has nothing to do with other people."

This is extremely rude, but everyone is accustomed to it. With the status of an emperor, even if Doris Young slaps the Lady Willson in public, she dare not say anything.

The Old Mrs. Willson nodded quickly and said: "Vice-chair Doris is right. For everything, the credit goes to Claire. From now on, Claire will be the director of the Willson family's business! Fully responsible for the cooperation between the Willson family and the Emgrand Group!"

Doris Young showed a slight smile and shook hands with Claire and said, "I hope we can cooperate happily in the future."

Claire was still a little at loss, and could only nod her confused head.

The audience burst into thunderous applause, and everyone looked at Claire's eyes, also full of enthusiasm.

This woman, who is on the list! The Emgrand Group treats her so seriously!

Claire herself was also confused. She turned her head to look at Charlie. The situation at this time was exactly the same as what Charlie had just said. Old Mrs. Willson returned the position of director that should belong to her.

Until the banquet was over, Claire was still in a daze after returning home.

Recalling what Charlie had said before, she couldn't help but feel a little puzzled. In the past few days, Charlie seemed to have become a little different.

There seemed to be many things on his body that she didn't understand, like it was covered by layers of mist.

This night, Claire became famous in Aurous Hill!

Everyone knows that there is an outstanding junior from the Willson family, and the Emgrand Group is on her back!

It seems that with her, the revitalization of the Willson family is just around the corner

The next morning, Claire woke up early and hurried to the company refreshed.

Today is her first day as a director. She hopes that she can go all out to do this thing well.

After Charlie got up, he started to do housework as always.

When Charlie finished his housework and was about to go to the vegetable market to buy vegetables for lunch, he suddenly received a call from his mother-in-law Elaine.

After answering the call, the mother-in-law's extremely anxious voice came from over there: "Charlie, within ten minutes, you must rush to the safe road for me, otherwise I won't spare you when I go home!"

After that, she hung up the phone.

Charlie was confused. The mother-in-law didn't say anything early in the morning. At this moment, she called suddenly, as if something urgent had happened.

Although Charlie was very disgusted with his mother-in-law, he did not dare to neglect her orders. After hurriedly cleaning up, he went out to take a taxi and rushed to Safe Road.

When he got out of the car, he saw a group of grandpas and aunts surrounded aggressively at the door of a closed insurance company.

And his mother-in-law stood at the forefront of the team, holding a banner in her hand, shouting angrily: "Rubbish Harley, Fake platform, We Want Our Rights, and pay back my hard-earned money!"

Charlie hurriedly stepped forward and asked: "Mom, you called me over, what's the matter?"

As he was speaking, the condemning slogans sounded in his ear again, the grandfathers and aunts shouted hoarsely that rang the eardrums of the passerby's.

Elaine pulled Charlie over, asked him to take her place, and then ordered: "Come on, shout this slogan for me, I have been yelling it all morning, and my voice has become hoars."

Chapter 24

Charlie didn't know why, but he could only protest with a few uncles and aunts. When shouting slogans, he inquired with an uncle next to him from time to time, and then he understood what was going on.

It turned out that this Harley Insurance Co., Ltd. offered insurance products with extremely high return rates.

And this elderly were attracted by the high rate of return. Everyone bought a lot of insurance products under the company's name and became their customers.

This is the fixed time to pay dividends. Unexpectedly, when these elders and aunts came to withdraw cash, they discovered that the door of the company was closed, and only a few employees were at the door, using botched excuses to prevaricate everyone.

This gang of grandpas and aunts realized that they were deceived by the empty gloved white wolf.

No wonder the mother-in-law wanted to call him over in a hurry and asked him to participate with him.

Thinking of this, Charlie grew big and couldn't help but ask his mother-in-law: "Mom, how much insurance did you buy?"

Elaine said anxiously: "They told me that buying the insurance products will bring me a lot of dividends, my head got dizzy and I bought all of their products with all the money from home."

Charlie was taken aback, "What? All the money from home used to buy insurance?"

After hearing this sentence, Elaine immediately became irritated and cursed: "Just do you have a mouth? Do you think I am not embarrassed enough? Why speak so loudly?!"

As she spoke, she continued her carping and said, "If you had brought me some profit I would not have bought the products of this insurance company. With a wast son in law like you at the house, what else were my options for the money at home?"

This guy, it's okay when he does not support the family. But now he is laughing at her, as if he'd made fortunes with that money.

Immediately, she said to Charlie: "I am telling you, keep chanting slogans here to help me, you can't stop for a moment!"

Charlie couldn't help but nodded and said, "Okay mom."

At this moment, several aunts came over, looked up and down Charlie, then asked Elaine: "Sister Elaine, is this your son-in-law?"

As they spoke, they scanned Charlie's clothes again, shook their head, and laughed: "Why does he look so poor? he does not look like a son-in-law material from any angle."

"Yes, this dress is worn too many times! It can't compare to that of Lady Willson!"

Some people are so good at disparaging, the ridicule in and out of the words is particularly harsh.

Charlie didn't care. They were all old ladies who had fallen into the soil up to half of their bodies. Now they have lost their savings for a lifetime, so he doesn't need to exchange words with them.

Elaine was also very angry at this time, and the more Charlie looked at it, the more unpleasant she was. She blurted out: "Look at him, I'll let my daughter divorce him in a few days! Change her future with a new son-in-law!"

Charlie sneered in his heart. If you add the rich second generations of Aurous Hill in, it can't be compare with his half finger.

Elaine was anxiously worried at this time, Charlie was a waste, and at most he could shout slogans for her.

If she wants to invest back, she still needs someone with real ability to come and help solve it.

It's a pity that Wendell Jones's family who has been pursuing her daughter has gone bankrupt. Otherwise, She could ask them to help!

correct!

Elaine suddenly remembered that Gerald's brother, Fred, whom she met at the family banquet yesterday is her hope.

Judging from his attitude towards her daughter at the time, it is estimated that he had some thoughts about Claire.

Although the White family is not as good as the previous Jones family, it is still a big family. If she calls him over, there should be a way.

It just so happened that Fred White left his Business card yesterday, so she took her phone out and dialed Fred's number.

Chapter 25

The call got connected soon.

Elaine said, "Hey, is it Fred? This is Clair's mother."

Ever since Fred White saw Claire at the banquet, he was shocked as a heavenly man and never forgot about her.

He was worried that he had no chance to get close to Claire, and it happened that Claire's mother called herself.

He speculated that Elaine was in trouble, and of course he would not let go of this opportunity for courtesy.

So, he immediately greeted politely: "Aunt Elaine, is everything Okay?"

"Well, there is something Auntie needs your help for."

Elaine hurriedly said: "Fred, a few old sisters and I bought some wealth management products from an insurance company called Harley, and the wealth of the family has been invested in it, but now this company does not allow withdrawals. Can you find a way to help Auntie get the money back?"

After listening, Fred was overjoyed. He felt that it was time to perform and said confidently: "Auntie, don't worry, I will come to you now and I will definitely help you solve this matter!"

Elaine was immediately excited, and hurriedly said, "Thank you so much!"

Hanging up the phone, she looked at Charlie again and said angrily: "Some people don't have any abilities, just can't count on them. Besides shouting two slogans, what are they for? Utterly useless."

Charlie sneered after listening, this mother-in-law was really snobbish and blind.

She called Fred for help?

This company has defrauded at least tens of millions or more of funds. Those who dare to swindle so much money must have a very strong backing. It is even possible that they are bigwigs in the underground world.. How could Fred White let scammers spit out the money?

The White family's strength is very average. After the Emgrand Group ceased cooperation, its strength has shrunk even more. With the White family's background, it is basically impossible to interfere in such a large financial fraud.

In fact, this little matter can be solved immediately by calling Issac Craven from Shangri-La.

After all, he is the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill, and any Aurous Hill entrepreneur or big figure in black and white must give him enough face.

However, my mother-in-law is really hateful. Since she believes in Fred White, let Fred White help her. Let's see what he can do for her.

When someone saw Elaine made a phone call, they immediately smiled, and immediately surrounded her and asked her if she had found any important figure to help them out?

Elaine proudly said to a group of old ladies and men around her "Don't worry, I asked the eldest master of the White family to come and help. Hey will make some calls, and our hard-earned money will be returned hopefully."

Someone exclaimed, "The eldest young master of the White family? Or sister, you are great, you can find such a great personality."

"Yes, then Young Mr. White must have a lot of contacts. To solve our problem, isn't it just a matter of a few words?"

"Sister, since you have such good contacts, why didn't you marry your daughter to someone like him, instead of giving your daughter to such a sh!t?"

Elaine glanced at Charlie disdainfully, and snorted coldly: "This kind of waste will be swept out by our Willson family sooner or later!"

Charlie didn't say a word, planning to wait for Fred White to come to see how he hit the wall.

Soon, a black Porsche slowly stopped in front of everyone.

A young man in a suit and leather shoes, with seemingly talented looks came out of the car.

Fred White is here.

The old men and women all around were sighing: "Oh, look at people, this is a young talent! Such a good son-in-law, I don't know who's daughter will be lucky in the future to be his wife."

Chapter 26

"Yeah! If my daughter could marry him, I would die of happiness!"

"Bah, stop dreaming! Even if you die, people won't look down on your girl!"

At this moment, Elaine saw Fred White at once, and immediately ran forward, and said eagerly: "Oh, Fred, you are here, your aunt is going to die!"

The person here is Fred White.

Fred White smiled and said, "Auntie, I'm sorry, I have kept you waiting!"

Elaine hurriedly said: "Oh, Fred, you are so polite. Auntie didn't wait for ten minutes. You came so fast!"

Fred White smiled and said, "I heard that you were in trouble, so I drove over and ran through several red lights along the way."

Elaine looked smug, but asked with concern, "Isn't it troublesome to run so many red lights?"

"No." Fred White said calmly: "The traffic team in the city are all acquaintances, and a phone call can eliminate any violation."

After speaking, Fred White said again: "Let's talk about you! How much money have you been cheated off?"

Elaine sighed and said, "A total of more than one million has been invested. It is said that this month's dividends can get 200,000, but the principal cannot be raised."

Fred White nodded and said in a boisterously: "Don't worry, I will handle this matter. If I go out, I will definitely help you get the money back."

After speaking, he suddenly saw Charlie standing behind Elaine, and his face changed slightly.

Unexpectedly, Charlie, an eye-catching waste, was there.

Since seeing Claire, Fred White's thoughts of her moved in his heart. After hearing his younger brother Gerald White said that Claire should still be single, this thought in his heart was even stronger.

Therefore, seeing Claire's rubbish husband, he naturally sneered.

He deliberately smiled and said: "Oh, Brother Wade is here, do you have a way to help Aunt Elaine get back the investment? Or do you give it a try first? You won't turn around and blame me for stealing your limelight."

Elaine hurriedly said, "Let him try a bullsh*t, what can he do to help? He can just open his mouth and help shout some slogans! Fred, leave him alone."

Fred White nodded and said sarcastically: "Since Brother Wade doesn't have this ability, then I will give it a try!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said: "Mr. Fred, come on, you can do it."

Fred White laughed disdainfully. At this time, the gang of grandpas and aunts around Elaine gathered one by one, chanting on Elaine, and said: "Elaine, can you let this little handsome guy also help us! All of us were cheated of hard-earned money!"

Elaine arrogantly said, "Oh, I can't be ask him for that. Fred is giving me a favor, but he doesn't know you."

Others pleaded with Fred White: "Mr. White, you are so great, please help us too!"

Fred White dismissed other people but saw that Elaine loves petty things and cheapness, so he smiled and said, "Since everyone is Aunt's friends, then I can do you a favor."

When everyone was overjoyed, Fred White looked arrogantly and said: "It's just that I am helping you because of Aunt Elaine. Therefore, you must pay Aunt 10% for the money I get for you. Is it acceptable?"

Others hurriedly said, "No problem! It's a lot better to get a return of 90 than nothing!"

As soon as Elaine heard this, she was immediately happy!

The money adds up to tens of millions considering all. If Fred White can really help to get it back, wouldn't she make millions?

Chapter 27

Just when Elaine was very excited, Fred White said loudly: "Uncles and aunts, don't worry, I will go to communicate with them now, just keep waiting for the good news."

Elaine felt that she was backed by Fred White at this moment, and no one dared to provoke her, so she immediately blurted out: "Fred, I'll come with you!"

Charlie hurriedly said to Elaine: "Mom, you'd better not go there and join in the fun. In case Fred White can't solve this matter, you may be in trouble!"

Huh!" Elaine said angrily: "Do you dare to question Mr. Fred's abilities?"

The other aunts and grandpas were all expecting that Fred White could help them get back their hard-earned money, and now Charlie actually sang against everyone, naturally causing everyone dissatisfaction.

In the face of countless people's accusations, Charlie said calmly: "Mom, it's okay for you to wait here. It's best not to join the negotiations."

Elaine couldn't hear it at all, and immediately cursed: "Shut your stinky mouth! this is not the place for you to speak?!"

Fred White's face was also full of arrogance, and he laughed and said, "You're not good at it, but your jealousy is not small. Do you think I'm just like you, a Rubbish who just opens mouth and shouts slogans?"

Seeing that his mother-in-law did not listen to his persuasion, Charlie didn't speak any more at all, and said lightly: "Okay, then I am waiting for the good news from Young Mr. White."

To his mother-in-law Elaine, Charlie is getting on her nerves. She is too snobbish, but often blinded by appearances. To put it plainly, she is the Lady Willson with long hair and short insight.

Today's incident seems to be nothing more than a fraud, but after a little research, you know that the water behind is very deep. The mother-in-law has no vision, and she has to go to the muddy water herself. Then she can't help her elevated sense of importance.

Elaine didn't know that Charlie was kind, so she gave him a fierce look, and said to Fred White apologetically in the next second: "Mr. Fred, don't take it to your heart if he says this rubbish. Auntie absolutely believes in you. "

Fred White smiled triumphantly and said: "It's okay, auntie, I won't be inferior to a wimp."

Having said that, he immediately said vigorously: "Auntie, let's go over!"

"it is good!"

Fred White took Elaine through the crowd and stepped to the door of Harley Insurance Company.

As soon as the two arrived at the door, he immediately said loudly to several employees who were blocking the door: "Go and tell your leader to immediately refund the money of these uncles and aunts, otherwise I will immediately let the lawyer team and the public security organ intervene. At that time, you and your boss will be arrested!"

Elaine also echoed from the side: "Have you heard of these dogs? We are supported now! If your scam company does not refund the money, be careful that Young Mr. White is sending you all to prison!"

The young employee at the head was also a little nervous and hurriedly said, "I'm sorry, I'm just a security guard, and I'm not responsible for the specific business!"

Fred White said coldly: "Then call your boss and tell him that I am Fred White of the Aurous Hill Royal Family! Let him come and deal with it personally, otherwise, he will face the consequences!"

While speaking, Fred White's face was full of arrogance.

Although White family is not top in Aurous Hill, it is at least medium.

The boss of a scam company, after hearing his name, can he still save himself?

The young employee didn't know his depth and was a little scared, so he immediately called his boss.

Chapter 28

At this time, in the office of the chairman of Harley Insurance Company, the boss Harley Zhou was serving a middle-aged man in his forties with a flat face.

He smiled all over his face, took out a bank card from the drawer, handed it over respectfully, and said: "Fifth Lord, there are 30 million in this card. The password is your birthday. It is given to you this time. Please have a look at the dividends."

The middle-aged man is dressed in a Thompson suit, looks a bit mad, but his eyes are not angry but majestic, and his aura is amazing.

If there were other people present, he would definitely recognize the identity of this middle-aged man.

He is Orvel Hong!

In the entire Aurous Hill, everyone knows that Orvel Hong is the underground emperor here, and no one dares to mess with him!

Orvel Hong looked at Harley Zhou, smiled approvingly, and said, "Harley Zhou, I didn't expect you to be a good one, good, good!"

Harley Zhou hurriedly said, "Fifth Lord, what about the troublesome Lady Willson downstairs?"

Orvel Hong said indifferently: "A bunch of old things, don't care about them. If they don't hear your words, I will arrange for the brethren to come over and give them some color to see!"

Harley Zhou breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "Thank you, Lord Orvel!"

Orvel Hong smiled and said: "In the future, just let go of this kind of business. As long as you can make money, I will help you with anything."

Harley Zhou was pleasantly surprised and humbled his face and said: "Thank you, Lord Orvel! With your words, I will continue to work harder and we will make a fortune together!"

Harley Zhou doesn't have a deep background in Aurous Hill, but this personality has one advantage, that is, he has a good mind and can make crooked ways.

He engaged in financial management and defrauded money. Knowing that he could not hold down such a large amount of money, he asked Orvel for help, provided part of the illegal income to Orvel, and sought asylum from Orvel.

Orvel Hong calls the shots in Aurous Hill, so he would naturally be safe and sound, and it was Orvel Hong who was the backer, so he does not have any worries about the future, and the fraudulent business was flourishing.

Just when Harley Zhou was excited about going to the Orvel line, his subordinates called and said in a convenient way: "Boss, something has happened! There is a guy who claims to be the young master of the White family, Fred White, he's demanding money immediately, otherwise, he will send you to prison!"

"d*mn, what about this?"

Harley Zhou frowned, and hurriedly said to Orvel Hong: "Orvel, there is a man who claims to be the Aurous Hill King's family downstairs, who is leading the group of old men and old ladies to make trouble! He said that he only covered the sky in Aurous Hill. Let us spit out all the money we collected, or we will be sent to prison"

Harley Zhou deliberately added fuel and jealousy in order to provoke Orvel Hong.

As he said, he bent down again and begged: "Fifth Lord, the White family has some power in our Aurous Hill. If they hold on to me, I really can't afford to offend him. Please take action to help the little brother tide over this difficulty! "

"The King of Aurous Hill?"

Orvel Hong snorted and said, "The little White family is not even a feather in my eyes! Even if he is in charge of the family, they have to bow down and salute when they see me! Now their junior dare to provoke me. When it comes to my head, I'm so tired and crooked!"

After all, Orvel Hong put Harley Zhou's filial bank card into his pocket, and said coldly: "Let's go, I want to see, what kind of lifeless thing he is? Orvel Hong only eats money. who's asking me to spit it out!"

Fred White stood at the door of Harley Company with a proud face.

He knew that today is a good opportunity for him to show off his strength in front of Claire's mother, and he must do it well.

As long as the mother is dealt with, why worry about the daughter?

When the time comes, he will be able to take Claire, a famous beauty in Aurous Hill, into his bag, and he's excited thinking about it!

So he said loudly: "Uncles and aunts, please rest assured, the boss of this scam company will come over and refund everyone soon!"

When everyone heard this, they immediately applauded, one by one, all excited and intolerably happy.

Only Charlie looked at Fred White with a sneer on his face. This guy took himself too seriously, and he was afraid that he would die later.

When Fred White held his chin up and enjoyed the respect of everyone, the door of Harley Insurance Company was suddenly pushed open from the inside.

Later, they saw the boss Harley Zhou walking out together with a middle-aged man wearing a Thompson suit.

Although the middle-aged man is a bit older, he has an amazing aura, it is Orvel Hong!

Behind Orvel Hong, there were several strong men who followed closely. These were all his personal bodyguards, one by one with extraordinary strength.

Orvel Hong's status is too high, so although many people in Aurous Hill treat his name well, they have no chance to see him, so no one, including Fred White, recognizes him.

Everyone just recognized Harley Zhou, the boss of Harley Insurance.

Then the atmosphere in the crowd exploded instantly!

"Mom, Fred really called Mr. Zhou over! He is really amazing!"

"Yes, thanks to Sister Elaine this time, we have hope for our money!"

"Sister Elaine, such a good young man, he is definitely a good candidate to be a son-in-law by thousand times!"

Elaine listened to the flattery of these old sisters, and was uncomfortable.

This Fred White really helped her to show off in front of a group of old sisters today.

Thinking of this, she smiled even more, looking at Fred White's eyes, she was indescribably satisfied.

At this time, Fred White walked forward triumphantly, with a lofty posture.

He did not know Harley Zhou, nor did he know Orvel Hong, but Harley Zhou seemed to respect Orvel Hong, so he mistook Orvel Hong for his boss.

So, he looked at Orvel Hong and said proudly: "Are you the boss of Harley Insurance Company?"

Orvel Hong said with a faint smile: "The boss is not me. I just help the boss. But if you have anything, you can tell me."

Fred White suddenly realized, and then smiled disdainfully: "A subordinate is a sh!t. You are not worthy of talking to me. Get out of here and let your boss come!"

Charlie shook his head and looked at Fred White like an idiot.

The Thompson suit man in front of him was amazing, and he had his subordinates following him. At first glance, he was the kind of ugly stuff, but Fred White ridiculed him so arrogantly, obviously seeking his own death.

Elaine on the side also sneered and agreed: "Fre!, don't talk nonsense with this kind of shit, the one next to him is the boss of Harley Insurance!"

Harley Zhou was dumbfounded!

This Fred White, and this old woman are so courageous!

They even dared to insult Orvel Hong as a street dog and told him to go away. He really don't know how to write dead words!

In the whole Aurous Hill, who would dare to insult Orvel Hong so boldly? !

Even if there were, after being furious, Orvel Hong thrown into the river to feed the fish!

At the moment when Fred White's voice just fell, a strong subordinate behind Orvel Hong immediately took a step forward, grabbed Fred White's hair, and slapped him from left to right.

"You sh!t! You dare to scold Orvel Hong, are you the god?"

After finishing speaking, he grabbed Elaine again, slapped her with a loud slap, and cursed: "Smelly lady, dare to scold Orvel Hong, believe it or not, I will tear your mouth open!"

boom!

When these words came out, both Fred White and Elaine were struck by lightning!

What?

The man in Thompson suit in front of them is actually the famous Orvel Hong of Aurous Hill? !

And they were insulting him recklessly just now?

Thinking of this, the faces of the two of them became extremely pale in an instant, cold sweat broke out on their bodies, and they were scared to death.

Fred White reacted the fastest. He thumped and knelt directly in front of Orvel Hong. While kowtowing, he cried and pleaded: "Fifth Lord, I was wrong. I apologize to you! I was blind and didn't recognize you. , I opened my mouth to scold you! These d*mn old men and old ladies have nothing to do with me. Please, please spare my life!"

After he finished speaking, he knelt down, slapped himself and apologized again. He broke down and cried.

He really didn't expect that the backing the boss of this scam company was actually the famous Orvel Hong of Aurous Hill!

Such a big man, let alone him, can't afford to offend even with his whole family behind!

He regrets now and wants to die!

He just wanted to take this opportunity to offer Claire's mother a courtesy, so that he has the opportunity to contact Claire.

Unexpectedly, before he got his wish, he would offend Orvel Hong to death!

If his father knew about this, he wouldn't have to kill himself?

At this scene, the group of grandparents around was shocked.

They also expected Fred White to help him get the money back, but who would have thought that in the next second, he would kneel directly on the ground and apologize to the man in Thompson suit before him.

And Elaine, who was quite proud just now, but now she was slapped a few times, embarrassed like a dead dog.

Orvel Hong snorted coldly and said to the people around him: "Since this guy has such a cheap mouth, you will give him 10,000 slaps in turn. When will you slap him ten thousand times?"

Fred White was so frightened hearing the 10,000 slaps in the face, he thought he'd be beaten to death.

At this time, Orvel Hong's men pointed to Elaine, who was beaten up and spread out, and blurted out, "Fifth Lord, what about this Lady Willson?"

Orvel Hong glanced at Elaine in disgust, and said lightly: "Ten thousand too!"

Elaine knelt on the ground with a frightened puff, and her whole body trembled violently. She was almost scared to death. She provokes Mr. Orvel, so can she still live?

At this moment, several of his subordinates stood up, some grabbed Fred White and some grabbed Elaine, and immediately prepared to move their hands.

Charlie has been watching this scene coldly in the crowd.

When he saw his mother-in-law being beaten, he didn't want to intervene, because his mother-in-law has always been so cheap, it should be a lesson to her.

However, if Orvel Hong's men slap her ten thousand times, if they don't beat her to death, they will at least maim her. Then how can he explain to his wife?

It would be very painful for his wife too!

He felt that he had no choice but to manage.

Just when a brawny man stretched his arms and was about to draw a mark on Elaine's old face fiercely, Charlie hurried forward and grabbed his wrist!

Chapter 31

Elaine screamed in fright at this time, closed her eyes and was about to get twitched, but suddenly realized that the fierce slap had fallen.

When she opened her eyes, she was shocked!

Charlie, her Rubbish son-in-law, came out at this time and blocked the other's slap!

This

Her mind was short-circuited at once, but she didn't react. Why is Charlie so daring?

Orvel Hong didn't expect that someone would dare to stand up for this d*mn Lady Willson at this time, and asked coldly: "Who are you? Do you want to die too?"

Charlie smiled lightly: "Mr. Orvel, right? Give me a face. You can beat this dog next to me, but my mother-in-law you can't!"

Orvel Hong said with a sullen face: "This Lady Willson is your mother-in-law? Then what makes you think that you deserve a face?"

When he said this, Orvel Hong was already angry.

He has always been respected by countless people in Aurous Hill, but today he has encountered disrespect one after another.

First, there was a Fred White yelling in front of him, and a disgusting Lady Willson chirping beside him.

Now a young kid jumped out to point to himself. He really is the great Master Orvel. What kind of cats and dogs dare to contradict him at will?

Thinking of this, he immediately became furious and shouted to the people around him: "Kill this guy who doesn't love his life!"

Charlie smiled faintly when he heard the words, and said, "Don't worry, I'll make a call and let the person on the phone tell you."

After all, he took out his cell phone and called Issac Craven, the person in charge of Shangri-La.

Once the phone was connected, he respectfully said to the convenience: "Mr., what do you want?"

Charlie asked indifferently: "There is a man named Orvel Hong in Aurous Hill, do you know him?"

Issac Craven hurriedly smiled and said, "Mr., I know that name you mentioned. The outside world says that he is the underground emperor of Aurous Hill. In fact, he is just a small gangster!"

After speaking, Issac Craven said again: "This grandson knows that I am from the Wade family, and he wants to flatter me. He has begged me several times for a meal. I have never paid attention to him. Why? Mr. Wade, do you know him?"

Charlie said lightly: "Oh, this makes me want to kill him now."

Issac Craven on the other side of the phone immediately exploded: "d*mn, doesn't he want to live? How dare he provoke young master! Where are you now? I'll send someone over immediately and get rid of that filth!"

Charlie said: "Call him, you can tell him."

After speaking, he handed the phone to Hong and said, "Come on, you can pick it up."

Orvel Hong looked suspicious.

what's the situation? It doesn't look like this guy is acting.

Does he really have a terrific background?

It doesn't look like it. The clothes are very common, and the total amount of money may not be five hundred. Even the mobile phone used is a few hundred at maximum. What can he do? Can he find someone to support?

He was very disdainful, but Orvel Hong still subconsciously took the call and asked tentatively: "Hey, I am Orvel Hong, who are you? Want to support this kid?"

On the phone, Issac Craven cursed, "Orvel! Are you so f*cking tired and crooked? Even you dare to provoke my master? Believe it or not, I will let your family die tonight with 25 people without a place for you to be buried!"

Chapter 32

Orvel Hong heard this voice, isn't this Issac Craven, who has been sharpening his head all the time and wants to curry favor?

He said he provoke his young master?

Could it be this kid in front of me?

In addition, as soon as he opened his mouth, he said twenty-five members of his family. Could it be that he had already figured out all his details?

He is the spokesperson of the Wade Family in Aurous Hill! The Wade Family's strength is extraordinary, and killing him is no different from killing an ant!

When he heard this, he was frightened suddenly.

He blurted out and begged for mercy: "Mr. Charlie, don't be angry, Mr. Charlie, I have made a little misunderstanding, I and Mr."

"You shut up!" Issac Craven cursed: "Our young master's identity is highly confidential. If you talk too much, be careful that I kill your family!"

Orvel Hong trembled all over, shaking more severely than Parkinson's, and hurriedly said: "Mr. Charlie, I am damned, I am damned! I must take care of this matter."

A manager Issac is enough for him to kneel and lick, and the Wade family above Mr. Charlie is the ultimate existence that makes him look beyond sight, and he needs to look up all his life.

But now, he didn't know whether he was alive, and directly offended the young master of the Wade family? !

Thinking of this, Orvel Hong focused his gaze on Charlie, his legs softened subconsciously, and he knelt in front of Charlie, and said with trepidation, "Mr. Charlie, I'm sorry, I don't know she is your mother-in-law, I got Confused, I apologize to you! Please forgive me!"

After that, he softened his legs and knelt in front of Charlie.

Everyone present was stunned, watching Orvel Hong actually kneel down to apologize to Charlie, this Rubbish? ? ?

Even Young Mr. White is a dead dog in front of Orvel Hong. This young man can make Orvel Hong kneel on the ground. How sacred is this? !

Orvel Hong's little brothers are also scared stupid!

Master Orvel is the underground emperor of Aurous Hill! What kind of young man can make him kneel? !

Charlie didn't want Orvel Hong's life either, after all, it was his mother-in-law, not himself.

Moreover, speaking to the bottom of his heart, Charlie still felt that watching his mother-in-law getting beaten was so d*mn good!

So he said to Orvel Hong: "I can forgive you this time, but talking about my mother-in-law's money, you must return it with profit!"

Orvel saw it was amnesty. He really didn't expect that Charlie would forgive himself. He squatted his head for the rest of his life and blurted out: "Don't worry, I will do it!"

Having said that, he immediately shouted to Harley Zhou next to him: "Hurry up and handle it! Take care or else I break your leg again!"

Elaine is already stupid, is this still her own waste son-in-law? Even the famous Orvel Hong would kneel down for him?

For a moment, Elaine felt that Charlie's image had grown taller in her own eyes, and how he became unpredictable.

Fred White, who had suffered several big mouths, was also dumbfounded. Isn't this Charlie a famous waste? Why is the fifth master so afraid of him?

At this time, Harley Zhou came over with a pale face carrying a black suitcase, and went to Elaine, and said in horror: "Auntie, your principal is 1.3 million, and the dividends promised, 200,000, total It is 1.5 million, here is 2 million, and the remaining 500,000 is our apology, please accept "

Elaine is stupid!

When did my own useless son-in-law get so much ability?

The principal was returned, the promised dividend of 200,000 was returned, and did they give an extra 500,000?

Chapter 33

One million and three hundred thousand, two million per second, this made Elaine immediately overjoyed, and she couldn't believe it.

Immediately, she asked Harley Zhou with a look of surprise: "The two million are really for me?"

Harley Zhou nodded hurriedly and said, "Of course, it's all yours!"

"Oh, that's great!" Elaine was immediately excited.

Seeing Elaine got two million! Seven hundred thousand more principal! The other old men and women were all excited and crazy. They felt that since all her money was refunded, their own money should be refunded even with the profit?

So a few people took the lead and asked: "Manager Zhou, what about our money?"

Manager Zhou hurriedly looked at Orvel Hong.

Although Orvel Hong was not willing to vomit the money that he ate in his stomach, but the Charlie family who was offended this time, maybe even his life worth, so he couldn't care about the distress, and blurted out: "Retire All back! For the sake of Mr. Charlie's face, everyone's money is returned with all the profits!"

The crowd suddenly cheered with excitement.

Charlie suddenly said coldly at this time: "Mr Orvel, these people have nothing to do with me. What do you mean by looking at my face? Do you want to play moral kidnapping with me?"

Orvel Hong was startled, and blurted out, "Mr. Charlie, what do you mean? Little confused, I don't understand."

Charlie said: "These people's money has nothing to do with me. If you want to refund, you can refund, if you don't want to refund, you won't refund, but if you dare to say that the refund is for the sake of my face, then don't blame me for turning my face now!"

These old men and old ladies have been taunting with Elaine just now. Why is he helping them get debts now?

On the contrary, not only would he not help them demand debts, but he would also give Orvel Hong some eye drops to let him figure it out and refunding the money to these old men and old ladies would offend him!

Orvel Hong understood immediately, and blurted out: "Mr. Charlie, don't worry, I understand!"

After that, he said to Harley Zhou: "Only refund Mr. Charlie's mother-in-law's money, nothing else!"

"Ah?!" The old ladies who were still ecstatic just now went crazy one by one, and some even cried and wailed.

Some people begged Charlie to show mercy, but Charlie turned a deaf ear.

How did a bunch of old and disrespectful things sneer and insult him?

Now that I they saw him dealing with Orvel, they expect him to help?

Go to your mother!

Seeing these old men and old ladies frying the pan, Orvel Hong suddenly shouted: "It's all fcking shut up! Who the fck will say one more thing, if you quarrel with Mr. Charlie, I will kill you!"

These old men and old ladies suddenly didn't dare to say anything

Orvel Hong looked at Fred White who was stunned, and blurted out: "Mr. Charlie, this Prince, is your friend?"

Charlie glanced at Fred White, and Fred White hurriedly begged: "Charlie, Charlie! Charlie, help me! Tell Mr. Orvel, we are good friends! Please!"

Charlie snorted coldly and said to Orvel Hong: "I don't know this person, you continue to fulfill your promise, and let him go after you have done enough."

Orvel Hong immediately understood, and ordered his men: "*dmn, give him a hit, this b*tch*, his presence fill my heart with anger!"

Fred White wailed in horror: "Charlie! It's me who has eyes but not thinking! I beg you to help me, I beg you"

Chapter 34

Charlie looked at him and said coldly: "I have no relatives, no cause, no grievances, no grudges, but you ridiculed me over and over again, asking me to save you again? Wake up, don't dream!"

Fred White suddenly collapsed and cried: "Charlie, I really know I was wrong, please help me."

Seeing that Charlie's expression was not good, Orvel Hong immediately shouted at his opponent: "d*mn, you guys, why don't you do it? Are you looking for death?"

Several of his subordinates were taken aback, and hurriedly grabbed Fred White's neck and hair, crackling and twitching.

Fred White's mouth was full of blood and a few broken teeth, but he still didn't stop. Every slap was drawn extremely hard!

Orvel Hong asked Charlie with a smile, "Mr. Charlie, are you satisfied with this treatment?"

Charlie nodded: "Okay, that's it, I have to go."

Orvel Hong hurriedly handed his business card to Charlie respectfully and complimented: "Mr. Charlie, this is my contact information. If you have anything in the future, please tell me, I will definitely be there on call."

Charlie gave a hum, and put his business card into his pocket.

Then he said to his mother-in-law Elaine, "Mom, it's late, let's go back!"

Although Elaine was slapped a few times, she earned 700,000 Dollar in the end, so she closed her mouth happily at the moment. Charlie was also full of pride when she saw that her son-in-law really gave her a face!

Charlie brought the money and took Elaine to leave. The old men and old ladies gathered in front of Charlie, and said with intent, "Oh, Charlie, it was the aunt who just messed it. We didn't expect you to be like this. Amazing, really young, and promising!"

"Yeah, Charlie, you are a talented person, and you look like a dragon and a phoenix among people. My son-in-law is far behind you."

"See if you can help us and tell the manager, give us back the money, it's all our hard-earned money!"

Charlie frowned and said coldly: "Why should I help you? Don't you all have eyes above your top? If you don't get the money back, you can ask your own son-in-law for help!"

After all, just take a step.

Everyone was very regretful when they heard this.

They blame themselves, there is now no way, now the opportunity to recover hard-earned money is completely gone

Thinking of this, some of them slapped themselves two slaps on the spot, and someone sat on the ground in despair, crying for father and mother, this is my coffin! It's all over if it's gone!

However, they didn't have any choice. To blame, they blame their own mouths and they don't have a good son-in-law like Charlie.

On the way home, Elaine asked Charlie with a flattering and full smile: "Charlie, how do you know the fifth master Hong? Why was he so polite to you?"

Charlie said haha, "How can I know someone like him? I just made a call to a classmate and he has the ability to let Harley refund the money."

When Elaine heard this, she felt disappointed.

She thought that Charlie had something she didn't know, but he still asked for help.

As a result, the eagerness in her heart was wiped out a lot in an instant.

But fortunately, she had to get the money back and made an extra 700,000 Dollar, which made her a little bit better about Charlie.

She opened her mouth and said to Charlie: "Charlie, today, you have to keep a secret for your mother. Don't tell anyone that even though your mother is old, she has to have a face?"

Charlie smiled helplessly, and had no choice but to agree, and said, "I know Mom."

Chapter 35

After taking care of the mother-in-law's troubles, the mother-in-law took the cash and happily went to the bank to make a deposit.

Charlie went home directly.

Upon entering the house, seeing his wife Claire's shoes had been changed at the door, he knew that she had returned, so he went straight to the bedroom.

As soon as he entered the bedroom, he saw his wife Claire just hanging up the phone, with surprise and excitement on her face.

He curiously asked: "Wife, who did you call just now?"

Claire said excitedly: "It's my good girlfriend Elsa Dong! Do you remember her?"

"Remember." Charlie nodded, and said, "I used to be studying in Aurous Hill and I was close to her. She is like the daughter of the Eastcliff family, right?"

"Yes." Claire said, "Elsa's family is pretty good in Eastcliff."

Charlie smiled and asked, "What? She is coming to Aurous Hill to see you?"

Claire said: "It's not just to see me, she is coming to work in Aurous Hill!"

Charlie asked suspiciously: "She is a daughter of the Eastcliff family. If she doesn't manage her own business, what kind of work can make her come to Aurous Hill?"

Claire said: "I don't know much. She said she was going to work at the Emgrand Group, but as for why she came to Emgrand so far, I don't know."

Charlie nodded but secretly thought: Although the Dong family is far behind the Wade family, in Eastcliff there is also some strength, Elsa has no need to give up her family's business and work in the imperial group.

Is there any special purpose for this woman to come to the Emgrand Group?

Charlie was puzzled, but he couldn't be sure for a while.

It seemed that after Elsa joined the Emgrand Group, Doris Young could feel her bottom.

At this moment, Claire seemed to have thought of something, patted her forehead, and said, "By the way, Charlie, I will have a meeting with someone from the Emgrand Group tomorrow. I can't get away. Can you pick me up at the airport? Elsa, arrange a place for her to catch the wind by the way."

Charlie promised: "Then I will make arrangements in advance tomorrow."

Claire said again: "By the way, find a better place, don't be afraid to spend money, take my bank card."

With that, she passed the wallet to him.

Charlie hurriedly said, "No, I have an acquaintance who has opened a restaurant that seems to be pretty good, so I can arrange it."

After all, Charlie took out his cell phone directly, wanting to send a text message to Issac Craven in Shangri La, asking him to arrange a banquet.

But he thought about it carefully, Shangri-La was a surprise for his wife, to entertain Elsa, it would be better to change to another place.

So he sent a text message to that Orvel Hong.

"I want to host a banquet to entertain my friends, you help me arrange a high-end hotel, but not in Shangri-La."

Soon, Orvel Hong replied a text message: "Don't worry, Mr. Charlie, I have a Mansion under my name. It is a top restaurant in Aurous Hill and Shangri-La. I will help you arrange the best diamond box and the best service for your banquet."

Charlie only replied one word: "OK."

The next day, Claire spent the entire day in the Emgrand Group, busy dealing with matters related to cooperation.

Charlie called Doris Young, the vice chairman of Emgrand Group, and asked her about Elsa's appointment.

Doris Young was surprised that Charlie knew about this. She said that Elsa was applying for an administrative director, a middle-level management position. Seeing that her resume was not bad, the group decided to admit her, and she had already been appointed for a few days.

Chapter 36

So Charlie urged her to observe this woman more after Elsa took the job, and always report to him if there was anything unusual.

After arranging for Doris Young, Charlie went out to take a taxi in the afternoon and went to the airport, ready to pick up Claire's best friend Elsa.

After arriving at the airport by taxi, Charlie was about to go to the arrival hall. A Mercedes-Benz suddenly braked and stopped in front of him.

Claire's cousin, Harold, suddenly got his head out of the car window, looked at Charlie with a strange frown, and asked, "Charlie, why are you here?"

"I'm here to pick up a girlfriend of Claire, why are you here?"

Charlie frowned and found that the people sitting on this big G were all acquaintances, besides Harold, there were Gerald and Wendy.

Harold said contemptuously: "You're talking about Miss Dong, right? Miss Dong has us to entertain her, so you are no longer needed, get out!"

Charlie snorted coldly, and said, "If you want to get out, get out by yourself."

After all, Charlie stopped responding to them and walked directly into the arrival hall.

Harold was about to swear, and Wendy next to him hurriedly reminded: "Brother, Miss Dong is coming soon. Grandma reminded you that you must leave a good impression on Miss Dong! If you can turn her into a sister-in-law, you are here. Our family's status is no one can match, so don't interfere with this waste."

Harold suddenly woke up.

Almost forgot the main purpose of coming here today.

In fact, it is the second-best thing to catch Elsa. It is the most important thing to leave a good impression on her and get her hand in his hand.

The Dong family's strength in Eastcliff is extraordinary. If they can come with her, then they will be on the same stage, and the Willson family can also ascend to the sky is worth.

So, he endured his dissatisfaction with Charlie, and they hurriedly got off and rushed to the arrival hall.

At this time, they saw a particularly conspicuous, young and beautiful woman in the crowd.

She wears long chestnut hair and a white skirt, which outlines an exquisite figure.

Although she is wearing sunglasses, her skin is as white as porcelain, her lips are full of flames, and the beauty of and allure cannot be concealed.

Looking closely at her, her appearance is by no means worse than Claire, and the two can be said to have their own merits.

For a moment, the sight of the crowd picking up passage focused on her.

Harold was already dumbfounded.

Even Gerald, who was watching the excitement next to him, was shocked and couldn't help but sigh: "As expected of Eastcliff's ladies, the temperament is really different."

At this time, Elsa also saw the crowd, and hurriedly walked over from the crowd, waved to them, and said, "Gerald, Wendy, and Charlie, long time no see!"

Harold's heart surged with enthusiasm, and he said first: "Long time no see, Elsa, you have become more beautiful."

Charlie smiled, and said: "Long time no see."

Harold hurriedly said at this moment: "Elsa, knowing that you are coming, I specially booked a box at the best hotel in Aurous Hill, waiting to pick you up, let's go there now."

Elsa glanced at Charlie and said sorry to Harold: "Harold, I'm really sorry. I have already made an appointment with Claire and Charlie in advance. Let's make an appointment another day. Anyway, I will stay in Aurous Hill for a long time. , There will be opportunities in the future."

When Harold heard these words, his heart couldn't help but become angry. On such an important day, Charlie, the smelly wire, came to mess with him, it was really horrible.

So, he deliberately said: "Elsa, to welcome you, I ordered the most famous Mansion in Aurous Hill, and it is a gold box with a minimum consumption of 300,000!"

As he said that, he looked at Charlie contemptuously, and said with a grin: "I don't know where my live-in brother-in-law ordered the banquet? If the grade is too low, wouldn't that be equal to neglecting you!"

Chapter 37

Charlie was also a little surprised when he heard that Harold's choice turned out to be Classic Mansion.

What a coincidence, didn't Hong Wu say that he opened Classic Mansion?

It seems that he also prepared a banquet in Classic Mansion, right?

At this time, Gerald on the side was surprised and said: "Harold, you can actually book the golden box of Classic Mansion? This is not something ordinary people can book!"

Harold smiled triumphantly: "To be honest, apart from the top diamond box in Classic Mansion, I really can't book it, the others are really nothing."

Having said that, this is just Harold's bragging.

In fact, in order to book this golden box, Mrs. Willson personally came forward and paid a lot of money, entrusting several talents to successfully book it.

Elsa had heard of the name of Classic Mansion in Eastcliff, and hurriedly said: "Everyone is a friend, there is no need to be so extravagant."

Harold said flatly: "You are a distinguished guest, how can you be treated like ordinary friends."

After that, he asked Charlie again: "Brother-in-law, I don't know where you ordered the banquet?"

Charlie said faintly: "It's a coincidence, I also ordered Classic Mansion." "Hahaha!" Harold laughed presumptuously: "Charlie, you are not afraid of bragging, you're one of a kind. You can't even book the bronze box in Classic Mansion, so you dare to play here."

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said, "If I blow or not, what does it have to do with you? I'm not inviting you to dinner. What are you doing with so much leisure?"

Harold said coldly: "Cut, I see you like this, you can't even enter the door of Classic Mansion!"

Elsa on the side couldn't bear to see Charlie being targeted.

She knew that Charlie was a live-in son-in-law, and had no money and status in the Willson family. It was really unrealistic to say that she could live in a top hotel, paid by him.

It is estimated that Charlie said this deliberately because he wanted to face.

So she didn't want Charlie to be too embarrassed, so she opened up and said to him: "Oh, there is no need to argue about this. Since everyone ordered the same place, then just go together."

Harold sarcastically said to Charlie: "Well, for Elsa's face, let me grab you a meal today, and let you see what high-end hotels look like!"

Charlie snorted and ignored him.

Orvel would kneel when he sees him. What was the hotel he opened in his own eyes?

It's a pity that Harold's cock is nothing more than a blind eye!

Classic Mansion is a quaint Chinese-style hotel, the decoration and style are full of traditional classical charm, extremely luxurious, even the signboard at the door is made of high-quality yellow rosewood.

Charlie looked at the decorations in Classic Mansion and was a little surprised.

Unexpectedly, Orvel's restaurant is really pretty good, and he can bring his wife over to have a taste of food in the future.

Elsa looked around and exclaimed: "I heard the name of Classic Mansion when I was in Eastcliff, and it really deserves its reputation."

Harold smiled and said, "If you come here, Elsa, of course, you have to use the best hotel too."

After finishing speaking, he glanced at Charlie and sneered: "It's not like some people. If it weren't for your light, they would never have the chance to come to such a high-end restaurant in their entire life."

Chapter 38

Wendy asked deliberately at this time: "Charlie, didn't you also book a box in Classic Mansion? Which one is it? Take us to open our eyes?"

Charlie said lightly: "I can't remember which one is specific. I just sent a text message to their boss and asked him to help arrange it, and wait for me to look at the text message record."

Harold sarcastically said, "Do you know who the boss here is? Just save your big talk here. The boss here is the famous Mr. Orvel. You dare to say such big things. Beware that Orvel hears it will you with fingers."

At this time, Charlie turned on the phone and checked the text message Orvel sent to him last night and said lightly: "He said that he left me the Diamond Box."

When Harold heard Charlie's words, he immediately laughed: "Hahaha Diamond Box? Charlie, you are afraid to laugh at me. Do you know who can go to the Diamond Box? Prince of Aurous Hill is eligible to enter the Diamond Box, no more than ten people! You're a sh!t!"

Elsa has not spoken, but she can't help but think to herself that this Charlie also loves face too much, so how could he get the diamond box in his capacity? She used to think that this person had no money and power and was a little bit useless, but she did not expect him to be such a person who admires vanity.

What a disappointment!

Charlie laughed and didn't say anything. In his opinion, these people who ridiculed themselves were with low mental retardation, but he didn't bother to be familiar with them.

Gerald also sarcastically said: "Charlie, even my father is not qualified to eat in the diamond box, you dare to brag!"

Wendy echoed: "Brother Gerald, let alone eating in the Diamond Box, this kind of person is not eligible to eat leftovers in the Diamond Box!"

Charlie looked at Gerald and couldn't help but sneer.

You stupid bird, Mr. Orvel just beat your brother yesterday, do you still dare to come to his restaurant for dinner?

So he deliberately asked: "Brother Gerald, I heard that something happened to your brother yesterday?"

Gerald frowned: "How do you know?"

After that, Gerald said again: "My brother was assaulted yesterday, and he is still unconscious. We are investigating who injured him and stripped him at that time! Do you have any clue?"

Charlie shook his head and deliberately pretended to be stupid: "I don't know. I just heard that something happened to him. I don't know what happened."

"Humph!" Gerald said contemptuously: "You Rubbish, don't talk about my White family with that mouth. Next time, be careful that I'll not polite to you!"

Charlie smiled and ignored him.

Sure enough, it is a family of idiots!

Don't even know that his brother was knocked unconscious by Orvel? It's really interesting.

At this moment, a man in black rushed straight to the crowd and met him.

Seeing him a little familiar, Charlie remembered that he was one of Orvel's bodyguards.

When the man saw Charlie, he recognized him, his face was full of enthusiasm and kindness, and he almost immediately bowed to him.

Charlie shook his head hurriedly towards him.

The black-clothed man hurriedly stopped, thinking that Mr. Charlie does not like being too high-profile, so he directly said: "Guests, please come with me, the box has been prepared for a long time."

Harold was taken aback when he heard the words. When did the golden box service of Classic Pavilion be so attentive, someone came to greet him personally before he reported his name.

What a face!

Gerald on the side sighed: "Harold, your reputation is really big enough. I think he seems to be a person next to Mr. Orvel. It seems that Mr. Orvel attaches great importance to you. Did you know Mr. Orvel? Didn't you hear it? Yes, you are really low-key."

Harold laughed and said with a smug face: "There is no need to show off this kind of thing. It's better to keep a low profile! Hahahaha!"

Chapter 39

Elsa was a little surprised.

Unexpectedly, Harold really had some connections in Aurous Hill, compared to Charlie, that was so much stronger.

It seems that in the future if she walks into Aurous Hill with him, it will be much more convenient for her daily activities.

The black man respectfully led everyone to the door of the diamond box.

Afterward, he took out the list, handed it to Charlie directly, and said softly: "Sir, please sign it."

This diamond box was specially reserved for Charlie, and he needed to sign for confirmation.

Charlie smiled and took the pen and paper, and was about to write his name when Harold's voice suddenly rang.

"d*mn, put the pen down!"

Harold walked over with a calm face, grabbed the pen and paper from Charlie's hand, brushed his name down, and yelled at Charlie: "You want to be shameless? Who ordered the box? Do you even count? What qualifications do you have to sign here!"

The black-clothed man was immediately dumbfounded, looked at Charlie, and gave him a questioning look, which means, do you need me to help you teach this b@stard now.

Charlie said indifferently: "It's okay. If he wants to sign, let him sign."

In front of Elsa, Charlie didn't want to make things too embarrassing, after all, she was his wife's best friend.

Soon, everyone in the box sat down.

Harold arranged for Elsa to sit in the lead, while Charlie sat in the corner alone, only Elsa said a few words to him from time to time.

Soon, exquisite dishes and wine were presented by the waiter.

All the dishes are very particular about the ingredients, the top-quality abalone and ten cattles of Australian lobster can only be used as a foil here.

Even fine wine is a century-old national wine, and a bottle of half a catty alone can sell for more than 100,000.

Elsa is also a well-informed person and was shocked by the extravagance of this meal.

Gerald sighed, "Harold, how much is the standard for your meal?"

Harold said triumphantly: "My meal is 300,000."

Gerald said in surprise, "This is not the standard of 300,000. The bottles of wine alone are more than 300,000."

Harold was secretly frightened, and suddenly felt something was not right. Reminiscing about the attitude of the man in black just now, could it be that Orvel gave him any special treatment?

However, he doesn't even know him!

Elsa's beautiful eyes flickered, she glanced at Harold and said, "Harold, thank you!"

When Harold heard Elsa's words, he smiled and said, "This should be done everywhere."

With that, Harold smiled and asked Charlie: "Charlie, you must have never eaten such a good thing in your life?"

Charlie sneered: "What gives you the confidence?"

Harold said contemptuously: "After eating my food, that broken mouth is so hard! You f*cking had a chance to eat such a good thing before, I twist your head off and kick it for you!"

Charlie smiled indifferently. The days he lived when he was a child were extremely luxurious that ordinary people could not think of. Such a meal at Wade's family is also a meal for the people.

Seeing Charlie's silence, Wendy said angrily: "Charlie, what kind of attitude do you use to talk to my brother? Believe it or not, I will let you get out now! We let you eat the meal and you will act shamelessly. What a f*cking stinky rag!"

However, at this moment!

The door of the box was kicked open vigorously, and a fierce voice rang: "Where did you idiots come from? Who the h*ll let you in this box!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a man wearing an Armani suit, a big gold chain, and a centipede-like scar on his face spread from the corner of his eyes to his chin.

This man holds a bill in one hand and a stick in the other, with a fierce face!

A dozen burly men with scarred tattoos lined up next to them, surrounding everyone.

Everyone was stunned, panicked, what is the situation?

The leader is named Brother Biao, who is Orvel's, right-hand man. He beat the world with him in his early years, and he is also a famous person in Aurous Hill.

This time Orvel told him that it was the extremely noble Mr. Charlie to use the diamond box of Classic Pavilion, so he must arrange it properly.

But he never thought that when inspecting the use of the box, it was discovered that the diamond box was signed by Harold, who was angry and afraid.

Raging with anger, this d*mn Harold occupied the box he prepared for the distinguished guests;

Chapter 40:

I'm afraid that there is only one table for the top banquet in the Diamond Box, and the real guests will be coming. What should I do?

At this moment, Harold stood up and said, "What are you doing? I reserved this box. Why did you break in and make trouble?"

Brother Biao pointed at Harold and asked him, "Are you, Harold?"

Harold nodded and said proudly: "I am!"

Brother Biao said coldly: "Bring him to me!"

Upon hearing this, the two sturdy big men directly pulled Harold up and dragged him over.

"What are you doing? Let go of me!"

"Drafting, what are you talking nonsense!"

A sturdy man directly kicked his knee, and Harold knelt directly in front of Brother Biao.

Brother Biao's cold eyes looked back and forth on Harold, making people chill like a blade.

Snapped!

The signature slip was thrown directly on Harold's head.

Brother Biao scolded, "Who gave you the authority to use this box?"

Harold pretended to be calm and said: "There must be a misunderstanding, I ordered this golden box in advance, and I have paid the 300,000 deposit!"

Gerald also interjected: "What are you doing? This box is set by Harold. Do you have any rules?"

Brother Biao took a spit and slapped Harold and said, "Golden box? This is a d*mn diamond box for distinguished guests! You can also use this rubbish?!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone was stunned.

Diamond box?

No wonder this box is extremely luxurious, and the dishes and wines are among the top ones. It turns out that it is not a golden box at all!

Gerald broke into a cold sweat, and the diamond box was so honorable that he was not qualified to enter on his own with others, let alone use it.

Wendy quickly said: "Brother, you don't know Mr. Orvel, please explain to them quickly."

Harold screamed and hurriedly said, "Shut up, what nonsense, how can I know Orvel in my capacity."

Wendy said, "But didn't you just say"

Elsa saw the performance of the two brothers with her eyes, but she didn't even know what Harold said just now was bragging.

She was a little disappointed suddenly.

Brother Biao sneered at this time and said: "You f*cking dare to talk about the banner of Mr. Orvel, you guys are so filthy and crooked!"

As Biao said, he stood up and told the boys: "Hold down this kid's hand! I will teach him a lesson."

Harold was immediately held down, unable to move!

Next second!

Brother Biao held the stick and smashed it down without hesitation!

"Ah my hand, my hand is useless!"

Harold screamed frantically, sweating all over his body, and anger came from his crotch, and he passed out in a shameful manner.

Seeing this scene, Gerald and Wendy both turned pale and frightened.

Harold, who was still in full swing just now, was beaten back to his prototype in an instant. Who can't be afraid?

Elsa was also scared enough, her whole body was shaking, hiding behind Charlie, and said in horror: "What can we do about this? Are they allowed to kill people?"

Charlie patted Elsa on the shoulder and comforted: "Don't be afraid, no one will touch you if I am here."

Elsa glanced at Charlie gratefully. Although she knew that Charlie could not solve such troubles, she still felt a little relieved by his words.

Here, Brother Biao kicked Harold, like pigs are beaten to death, and cursed: "What a fool!"

Brother Biao turned his head and looked at Gerald again.

"And you, just now you said I had no rules, right? Come on, you f*cking filth

Chapter 41

Gerald was so frightened that he shivered and said, "Brother Biao, I belong to the White family."

"White family?" Brother Biao grinned and said, "What is the White family!"

Brother Biao spat out disdainfully, kicked Gerald to the ground, and said coldly: "The master Orvel just taught a White family stupid yesterday and was given 10,000 slaps in the face. You f*cking dare to follow him. Mention the king's name in his house?"

"Huh?" Gerald was frightened suddenly.

He thought that his brother was robbed by a gangster, but he did not expect that it was actually Orvel who beat him!

Just as he was splitting his guts, Brother Biao directly raised the stick and slammed it down against his head!

Boom!

Gerald only felt the world spin, his head buzzed, his mouth and nose were bleeding, and his consciousness was instantly blurred.

Wendy screamed loudly in horror instantly!

Gerald is her fiancé and her only chance to marry into the White family. If something happens, her life will be over.

"Ambulance, call an ambulance!"

Wendy yelled in a panic, and tremblingly took out the phone, but was too scared to press anymore, she could only keep screaming.

Brother Biao frowned and said cursingly: "You little filth, you dare to call. Gouge her mouth, let me see how she speaks!"

"Yes, Brother Biao!"

When the boys heard this, they all showed cruel smiles.

What they like most is to destroy the flowers with their hands, especially Wendy's savage flowers.

Wendy panicked immediately, madly trying to step back, but there was a wall behind her, and there was nowhere to hide.

"Come here, b*tch!"

A one-eyed man grabbed Wendy's hair viciously and directly pulled her up abruptly.

Then, facing Wendy's face, the one-eyed man shook his arms and violently twitched.

These little brothers are all ruthless people who have been fighting with Brother Biao for many years.

In just two or three strokes, Wendy's face was as swollen as a pig's head, blood mixed with saliva and flowed down.

A woman being beaten like this will leave indelible marks on her face even if treated in time, which is almost equivalent to disfigurement!

Seeing that Brother Biao was so cruel, Elsa shivered again, leaning on Charlie's back, and the two of them were almost close to each other.

At this time, Brother Biao saw Charlie and Elsa in the corner, and gave an order: "And the two of them, beat them to death! Dare to occupy the diamond box that I prepared for the distinguished guests. They are equally guilty!"

That little brother had never felt pity for delicate bodies, so he reached out and grabbed Elsa.

"I see who dares to move her!"

Charlie's eyes became extremely cold, and he kicked the brawny man to the ground.

Seeing this, Brother Biao's face sank, and he directly scolded, "Who the f*ck are you?"

Charlie said lightly: "I am someone you can't afford to offend!"

"Boy, you are looking for death!"

Charlie shook his head and dialed Orvel directly.

"Mr. Orvel, I'm in the diamond box right now, come down and meet me immediately!"

After speaking, Charlie hung up the phone and looked at Brother Biao coldly.

Elsa's face was pale, Harold just boasted to know Mr. Orvel, and the result was so miserable. Charlie dared to say such disrespectful words in front of Brother Biao, and maybe his life too was gone.

Wendy, who was drawn into a pig's head on the side, heard Charlie's words, her eyes were extremely horrified. This grandson is still pretending to be forceful at this time, is he trying to kill everyone?

Brother Biao sneered unceremoniously: "If you dare to offend the master Orvel in front of me, I think you are tired of your life or crooked in the head."

When the voice fell to the ground, Brother Biao waved his hand to the boys and said viciously: "Kill him for me!"

Suddenly, Orvel shouted from outside the box: "*dmn, Biao, you fcking want to die, don't you? Even Mr. Charlie dares to move, I f*cking chopped you to feed the dog, believe it or not!*"

Brother Biao was shocked as if struck by lightning!

Chapter 42

Mr. Orvel is here!

Mr. Charlie? Who is Mr. Charlie?

The next second, Orvel walked in tremblingly, and kicked Brother Biao directly to the ground: "You're f*cking blind, you can't even recognize Mr. Charlie, I'll kill you!"

Orvel scolded while kicking Brother Biao frantically.

Brother Biao, who had just been invincible, now looks like a dog in the water.

Elsa was dumbfounded, what is the situation?

The kids were also panicking, this young man was actually Mr. Charlie? He actually wanted to do something to him just now, so he was looking for death.

Orvel cursed at the others: "And what are you guys doing in a daze? Kneel down and apologize to Mr. Charlie!"

"Mr. Charlie, it's because I have eyes but no pearls that I almost ran into you! I beg you to go around us."

The boys knelt down, kowtow apologizing frantically.

Brother Biao was also so scared that he knelt on the ground, and while pulling his face, he begged for mercy: "I'm sorry Mr. Charlie, please don't forgive me my transgressions, please spare me this time!"

Orvel also slapped himself, his face nervously said: "Mr. Charlie, it was because I did not do well, and let my subordinates deal with you and your friends."

Charlie glanced at Elsa, and said lightly: "I just invited my wife's girlfriend to dinner."

After speaking, he looked at the others and said coldly: "They are not my friends."

Elsa was completely shocked!

It turned out that Charlie was not bragging at all, he did book a box in Classic Mansion, and it was indeed the top diamond box.

More importantly, this box turned out to be reserved for him by Orvel himself!

Reminiscing that she had looked down on Charlie before, Elsa was blushing instantly, not to mention how ashamed she was.

At this moment, Harold trembled all over when he heard the words of several people!

what happened? Charlie, this Rubbish, turned out to be Mr. Orvel's friend?

Wendy was also frightened, Charlie actually knew Mr. Orvel!

The key is that Mr. Orvel was so kind to him!

Look at her fiancé Gerald again, he is already in a coma with blood!

While wiping the cold sweat on his forehead, Mr. Orvel promised: "Mr. Charlie, don't worry, there will never be another thing like this. From now on, you will come to Classic Mansion and have a meal in the Diamond Box at any time. Come, I picked his eyeballs later!."

Charlie gave a hum, turned his head and said to Elsa: "Elsa, I have eaten the meal too, it's so messy here, let's go!"

Elsa was awakened by Charlie, and subconsciously asked, "What about the others?"

Seeing the miserable appearances of Harold, Gerald, and Wendy, she was somewhat worried.

Charlie said lightly: "Let Mr. Orvel solve it."

Orvel immediately said, "Mr. Charlie, don't worry, I will arrange an ambulance to send them to the hospital for treatment!"

"Yeah." Charlie nodded and said, "If this is the case, then the two of us will leave first."

Elsa was a little dazed and followed Charlie out of Classic Mansion in a daze.

Coming out of Classic Mansion, Elsa couldn't calm down for a long time.

Looking at Charlie, who looked like an okay person, she only felt as if he was covered with a layer of fog, mysterious and profound.

"Charlie, what happened today"

Before Elsa finished speaking, Charlie interrupted her and said indifferently: "Elsa, please keep the matter a secret for me today. If Claire knows, she will be angry with underground people like Orvel."

Elsa had to nod her head: "Okay, I see."

After Charlie and Elsa left, Orvel asked to arrange an ambulance and took all the people to the hospital.

Wendy's face was deformed by the jaw bone, which was tantamount to disfigurement.

And one of Harold's hands was almost abolished, at least it will take a long time to recover.

As for Gerald, he was hit by a severe concussion. Although the person has been rescued from life danger, the sequel will be enough for him to suffer for a lifetime!

Chapter 43

Elsa and Doris Young of Emgrand Group's appointment date will be tomorrow.

Leaving Classic Mansion, Charlie drove her to the hotel where she was staying and then left.

Elsa was continuously shocked by the evening meal while thinking about her future development.

This time she came to Aurous Hill. On the surface, she came to work at the Emgrand Group, but in fact, she was still carrying a family responsibility.

Dad told her that there was top-secret news that Wades, the top Eastcliff family, had found their young master who had been missing for many years and also bought the Emgrand Group to give this young master to practice hands.

In other words, the Wade family master is in Aurous Hill, and he is the chairman of the Emgrand Group.

Although the Dong family is a very good family in Eastcliff, they can only reach a second-rate level, which is a thousand miles away from the Wade family.

Therefore, the Dong family hopes that Elsa can take advantage of Wade Family's young master's identity to find opportunities to contact him in advance, if she can get together with him and promote the marriage of the two, that would be great.

Although Elsa was a bit repulsive of such things, she didn't dare to neglect to think that the important task of family revitalization was on her shoulders.

She traveled all the way to Aurous Hill, preparing to work for the Emgrand Group, just to find the opportunity to contact the mysterious chairman of the Emgrand Group, and then find a way to attract his attention.

Elsa is definitely a very top super beauty in the upper class in Eastcliff.

She believes that with her appearance, knowledge, ability, and perfect body, she should be able to attract the attention of the Wade Family's heir apparent.

If she can really marry him, then the Dong family will usher in absolute revitalization! Become a first-class family in Yenching!

As soon as she thought of this, she was full of expectations for tomorrow's entry.

At the same time, she was also full of expectations for the mysterious Wade Family's man.

She couldn't help but wonder, how old is this Wade Family Young Master. and what is his appearance? Is he personable, tall, and handsome?

She couldn't help taking out her phone and opening the video app.

She clicked on the video with tens of millions of clicks in her favorites.

This video is where Charlie used cash to face the sales director at Rare Earth.

She had analyzed this video a long time ago and knew that this video took place in Aurous Hill, which happened to coincide with the time in the news that Charlie was found.

Therefore, she speculated that the god-level rich man in the video should be the youngest of the Wade family, the chairman of the Emgrand Group.

She stared carefully at the back of the god-level rich man in the picture, carefully watching and pondering.

From this vague video, you can probably see that the famous god-level rich man on the Internet is estimated to be in his twenties, tall and thin, but she can't see his face.

However, his figure is still very good, not much worse than those Korean long-legged models.

With such a figure, she believes the face will not be difficult to see!

However, Elsa suddenly felt a strange feeling in her heart. How could this person feel a bit like Charlie?

But after thinking about it, she thought it's impossible.

Charlie is the son-in-law of the Willson family, what is the strength of the Willson family? Even the Wade family's hair can't be compared. If Charlie is really the youngest of the Wade family, how could he live in the henhouse of the Willson family?

It seems that she must be thinking too much!

The next day, Elsa reached the Emgrand Group early in the morning.

Vice-Chairman Doris Young personally handled her entry.

Doris Young took her to the administrative department and introduced her to her job functions, and then said: "Elsa, if you don't understand in the future, you can directly ask me or come to my office to find me. "

Elsa nodded gratefully, and asked tentatively: "Deputy Doris, I don't know if I have a chance to meet the chairman? After all, I will be responsible for the company's administrative affairs in the future. If I don't know the chairman, I'm afraid I won't be careful to neglect him."

Chapter 44:

Doris suddenly became alert.

Charlie had asked her the day before yesterday to pay more attention to this Elsa, and Elsa asked about the chairman as soon as she came. It seemed a bit difficult to ignore.

She doesn't know what the purpose of this beautiful girl is, who has traveled all the way to the Emgrand Group.

She said to Elsa: "Our chairman rarely comes to the company, but if he comes, I will tell him. If he wants to see you, I will notify you."

Elsa was a little disappointed in her heart, but she nodded with a smile and said, "Thank you, Miss Doris!"

When Doris Young returned to her office, she reported the incident to Charlie.

As soon as Charlie heard that Elsa had just reported to the company, she wanted to meet with him, he became more vigilant.

This woman really came for him.

What is her purpose?

Want to get close to me, does she want to harm me or seduce me?

No matter what purpose she was with, Charlie felt a little disgusted.

So he decided to contact Elsa as little as possible, let alone let her know his true identity!

On the night of Elsa's entry, Charlie's wife, Claire, specially reserved a seat in a high-end hotel and was going to treat her to a meal.

As Claire's husband, Charlie naturally wanted to be with him.

This made Charlie a little depressed.

Just about to keep a distance from Elsa, he will have to eat with her again at night.

But depressed, he was still ready to go to the hotel with Claire anyway.

However, when he arrived at the hotel, Charlie realized that Claire's decision turned out to be the Hanging Garden of the Shangri-La Hotel!

The Hanging Garden Ballroom is mainly used to receive high-end guests, so it never provides any kind of private room service. However, Charlie booked the private room here on the wedding anniversary, which is unprecedented for Shangri-La.

Today is only three days away from the wedding anniversary.

A big and eye-catching notice has been placed at the entrance of Shangri-La Hotel: "The Hanging Garden will be reserved for guests in the Sky Garden three days later. All guests are not allowed to use it at that time, we apologize for the inconvenience!"

Everyone who saw this notice was shocked!

Someone has reserved the hanging garden in Shangri-La?

This has never provided charter service!

It is said that the children of several big leaders in the city wanted to hold a wedding banquet here, but they were all rejected without exception.

Who is it that has the face to cover the entire Hanging Garden from Shangri-La?

Claire also saw this eye-catching reminder, and said in surprise: "Oh, the Hanging Garden was actually reserved? This is incredible!"

Charlie smiled on the side and said, "What's incredible? The banquet hall, isn't it possible for people to book it out?"

"You don't understand." Claire said earnestly: "This Shangri-La is not our local enterprise. It is a top hotel chain in the world. Their sky garden is a major feature of its own. It only serves high-end guests. In the private space, today the big man will make a package, and the other high-end guests will not be able to use it normally, so they simply will not open the private space to the outside world."

With that, Claire couldn't help sighing: "I don't know what background of this person is. It's really amazing to be able to cover this place!"

Charlie deliberately smiled and said, "Perhaps someone who loves his wife, may want to hold a wedding for his wife!"

Claire was surprised and said, "Here is the wedding for his wife? Then she should be a wife who loves him very much, and his wife is really so lucky!"

Chapter 45:

Charlie was very happy to hear his wife say so.

It seems that the place he chose will surely satisfy his wife on the day of the wedding anniversary!

The two came to the sky garden and sat down in the reserved seats, and Elsa arrived soon.

"Claire!"

"Elsa!"

The two girlfriends hugged each other, happily.

Afterward, the two held hands and talked about the past for a long time, and then they gradually calmed down.

Elsa said: "Claire, you are too wasteful, you chose to eat in the sky garden!"

Claire smiled and said, "When you are here! Then I must bleed money, I don't care!"

Elsa chuckled: "It's really my good girlfriend!"

Claire said: "It's true that I'm not even qualified to order food here. I asked Emgrand Group Vice Chairman Doris Young to help me decide this seat, using her membership card!"

Elsa sighed: "The sky garden seems to be very demanding. It must be a diamond member or something?"

"Yeah." Claire nodded and said, "To be honest, this is my first time coming here!"

Elsa smiled and said, "Thank you so much, my kind queen!"

After speaking, she said again: "By the way, when I came up just now, I saw a notice outside saying that the sky garden was booked for three days later?"

"Yes." Claire said: "It's strange that Hanging Garden never accepted charter rooms before, and I don't know what happened this time."

Elsa nodded and said in passing: "Some time ago, there was an Aurous Hill god-level rich man. He bought a necklace and brought dozens of Rolls Royces, dozens of men in black, and more than 10 million in cash. Did you watch that video?"

Charlie shook his head, and Claire said, "I saw it, the pomp was quite big."

Elsa said: "Everyone is guessing who he is."

Claire said: "What is there to guess"

Elsa smiled and said: "Gossip! Everyone wants to know who is so domineering. Some people say it should be the new chairman of Emgrand Group."

Charlie's expression on the side was startled for an instant.

But it returned to normal soon.

Elsa went on to say: "Shangri-La's Hanging Garden was wrapped up again today. I feel that the Hanging Garden package is the same person who bought the jade in the video."

Claire sighed helplessly: "It's been so long since I saw you, you are still so gossipy!"

Elsa smiled and said, "Gossip is the driving force for women to survive!"

After that, Elsa said again: "I'm going to come here in three days to have a look, who on earth has such a great face and can reserve the sky garden!"

When Charlie on the side heard this, his head suddenly became heavy.

He just wanted to surprise his wife and give her a wedding that hadn't been honored that year.

But he didn't want to be noticed by everyone at once.

However, he seemed to underestimate the influence of the Hanging Garden.

It is estimated that many people in Aurous Hill now have the same ideas as Elsa, they all want to see who has reserved the sky garden.

Chapter 46:

This is a bit tricky.

I have to say hello to Issac in advance and be fully prepared in advance, in any case, I can't reveal my identity.

During the meal, Elsa said to the two of them: "This time I came to Aurous Hill, I also had an appointment with our former classmates. Everyone said that they would take this opportunity to have a classmate gathering. What do you two think?"

Charlie said immediately: "If you have a classmate gathering, I won't participate."

"Why?" Elsa said, "Although we are not four-year college classmates, we still had a classmate relationship for one year!"

When Charlie was taken in by the Old Master of the Willson family, he sent him to Aurous Hill University in order to let him know Claire in advance, and he went to the same class as Claire for a year of senior year.

After graduating from senior year, the two got married immediately.

However, Charlie had only been classmates with those people for a year, and most of them had always looked down on him, and they had no friends, so he was not interested at all to hear about class reunions.

Claire didn't want to attend the class reunion either, so she said, "I will not go with Charlie. After graduation, I have no contact with most of my classmates."

Elsa hurriedly said: "The main reason for the class reunion this time is that Darren in the class opened a restaurant, which will open tomorrow. He openly asked everyone to chill at his restaurant and have a meal together."

After that, Elsa said again: "You think it's a good business for someone else to go there, isn't it inappropriate?"

As soon as the voice fell, the phones of all three of them beeped due to WeChat notification.

Immediately afterward, a lot of WeChat notifications popped up.

Everyone took out their mobile phones and looked at it. It turned out that Darren pulled a group of classmates, and this group soon reached more than 30 people.

Darren said in the group: "Dear old classmates, the small hotel I invested in will officially open at noon tomorrow. The hotel is in Aurous Hill. Please come and enjoy the experience with Aurous Hill classmates. It will be a class gathering!"

"It just so happens that Elsa, one of the two golden flowers in our class, will also come to work in Aurous Hill. She will also attend the party this time. It is said that Elsa is still single and the bachelors in the group can hurry up!"

Immediately afterward, a large group of people responded.

"Wow! Congratulations!"

"Oh, Elsa has come to Aurous Hill? Why haven't we heard of it! She will be there by then!"

"Where is Claire, another golden flower in our class? Is she coming?"

"I heard that Claire was with Charlie, who came to our class later? I heard that Charlie still lives with the Willson family?"

"I also heard about it. I don't know if it's true or not. I haven't seen them both since I graduated."

"I heard that they are just a couple's cutscene. They are nominal but not real. I don't know if it is true or not?"

Claire saw these contents and said to Charlie, "Don't take it to your heart."

Charlie smiled slightly: "It's okay, what they said is also the actual situation, I have long been used to it."

Elsa hurriedly said in the group: "Don't gossip about others! I am now having dinner with the couple! They are lovely!"

"Oh, it's Elsa!"

A lot of licking dogs quickly gathered around.

At this time, there was someone in the group Charlie, the group leader Darren: "Charlie, although you came to our class for a short time, the relationship between our two brothers was pretty good when we were in school. Tomorrow you and your wife must be there!"

Charlie's impression of Darren was pretty good. This person was really nice. He was very kind to everyone, and he never ridiculed others. He was one of the few classmates he had a good relationship with.

Seeing that he had said so, Charlie immediately replied: "Okay, I will definitely come to join you tomorrow."

Darren said immediately: "That's great! We must get together tomorrow!"

Chapter 47:

Seeing that Charlie had agreed to the classmate gathering, Claire reminded Charlie, "We have to prepare some gifts for the opening of Darren Hotel. We cannot go empty-handed."

Charlie nodded and said, "I'll buy a gift for him tomorrow morning."

"Okay." Claire said: "It just so happens that I have to go to the Emgrand Group tomorrow morning."

Elsa asked in surprise: "Are you coming to Emgrand tomorrow morning? Then come to me when you are finished with your business. It just so happens that I will drive your car to Darren's restaurant at noon."

Claire smiled and said: "Then your wishful thinking is wrong! I don't have a car. I usually take a taxi or take a bus. Sometimes Charlie rides an electric bike to pick me up."

"Huh?" Elsa blurted out: "You are a director, you haven't bought a car yet!"

Claire said: "I haven't worked for a long time, and I haven't made any money. I usually spend money with Charlie and I have to pay for my mother's living expenses. If I get it in one month, I can spare thousands. not enough to buy a car."

After that, Claire said again: "Also, to be honest, I think buses are very convenient. If the weather is good, Charlie's electric bike is also good."

Elsa said seriously: "Sometimes you have to pay attention to ostentation. After all, you are now the director of the Willson Group, and you are the partner that directly cooperates with Emgrand. If you don't even have a car, you will be talked about."

Charlie also felt that Elsa was right.

My wife has always been too frugal, and most of the money she earned has been handed over to his mother-in-law, so she has always treated herself badly.

The mother-in-law is just a brave who just can't eat. She saved more than one million to invest in unreliable financial management, not to mention two or three million to buy a car for her daughter to drive.

Thinking of this, he felt that he will have to buy a car for his wife. In this way, it would be convenient for her to go out and do errands in the future, and it would be better for her to talk about business with others.

After making up his mind, he decided to go to the 4s store early tomorrow morning to have a look

After dinner, the couple and Elsa left and took a taxi home together.

On the radio in the taxi, there are discussions about the Shangri-La Hanging Garden being chartered.

The hosts were all amazed that this was the first time in history that Shangri-La had made an exception to reserve the Sky Garden. He was also very curious about who could have such a great reputation.

The taxi driver also said: "I want to see, this person who packs the sky garden must be the god-level rich man on the YouTube short video!"

Charlie didn't talk, but he was a little surprised in his heart!

It seems that after the news that the Hanging Garden on the top floor of the Shangri-La Hotel was reserved, it really caused a sensation throughout Aurous Hill!

This night, this matter continued to ferment throughout Aurous Hill! Soon the city is full of storms and no one knows it!

Everyone knows that the Shangri-La Hotel adopts a membership service, and only senior members have the opportunity to use the sky garden! As for the reservation, you don't have to think about it at all. Diamond members are not even eligible!

So, who on earth contracted the sky garden has suddenly become a major issue for everyone's curiosity!

There are rumors that the person who undertook the sky garden is the god-level wealthy who has become popular all over the country on YouTube;

Some people say that the person who has contracted the Sky Garden is an overseas rich man;

Some people even say that the person who has reserved the sky garden was a mysterious man. The reason why he did that was to hold a grand and romantic wedding.

Sure enough, the third rumor is more convincing!

For a time, there was another wave of rumors in the market!

Chapter 48:

Chapter 48:

After countless women heard it, they were even more envious and jealous.

Everyone speculated about which woman was so happy that allowed people to smash millions in one night, wrap up the entire sky garden, and show her love!

Many people are looking forward to that day soon, so let's find out!

In order to avoid revealing his identity, Charlie specially ordered Issac to make a special transformation of the entire Hanging Garden. At the same time, he also looked forward to the arrival of the wedding anniversary in his heart!

He wants to give Claire a grand wedding on the day of their anniversary!

.....

Early the next morning, Charlie went out early and went to the 4s shop.

He has a 10 billion bank card in his hand, which he has not used much yet.

This time, he was going to buy Claire a luxury car that could be on the table.

He himself wanted to buy her a Rolls Royce in one step.

But after thinking about it carefully, he was afraid that such an expensive car would not be easy to explain to her. Moreover, Claire's personality has always been low-key. Even if she had such an expensive car, she would not be willing to drive it out.

So he decided to buy a business car for his wife about 500,000 worth, which is worthy of face, not too public, and more practical. She won't be so distressed if it is scratched or bumped.

Thinking of this, he planned to buy an Audi a6 for his wife. Nowadays, all business people drive a6. The car has a lot of reputation. Moreover, a6 is an extended business car, which is very suitable for his wife to drive.

When he came to the Audi 4s shop, he parked his little e-bike at the door and walked in.

Several shopping guides inside saw a customer coming, and two people were immediately ready to greet him.

A woman behind said hurriedly: "Oh, this man came on an electric bike. It seems that he is here to use the air conditioner or the Wi-Fi. Just leave him alone."

When they heard that they came on an electric bike, the others lost interest in an instant.

Recently, the weather is hot, and there are always poor ghosts who rush over to rub the air conditioner early. Sometimes they shamelessly sit in the exhibition car and don't get down. In the end, they can only send security guards to rush them out. The sales are very annoying. .

Charlie rides an electric bike and wears a suit to sell goods. It is really not conspicuous here. He doesn't look like a person who can afford Audi.

No one took care of himself, and Charlie didn't care. He went directly to the exhibition area of the a6 sedan and found that the price of this car ranges from 300,000 to more than 600,000. The model of more than 600,000 is the a6 top model and the extended executive version.

To be honest, this car looks really good!

The price of more than 600,000 is not too expensive, Claire should be able to accept it.

So he opened his mouth and said, "Is there a new car for this top A6? I want to buy it now!"

The shopping guides all looked at him like a fool, and one of them said contemptuously: "Have you seen the price? Is there a small number of zeros?"

Charlie frowned and looked at him: "618,000, I saw it."

The man sneered and said, "you saw it, are you still dreaming? Can you afford it? A bill will come out for you to swipe your card after a while, so many people are watching, you can't take it out, what a shame!"

Charlie asked coldly: "Are you sick? Coming out in the morning without taking medicine? Do you want me to call 120 for an ambulance to take you away?"

The man hummed and said, "Cut, don't be here to seduce me. Believe it or not, I will let the security guard drive you out? A poor guy who has come here to use air-conditioning and Wi-Fi, still pretends to be something?"

Chapter 49:

Charlie didn't get angry and laughed, and asked him, "If you sell this car, how much can you get?"

The other party said contemptuously: "I can raise ten thousand!"

Charlie nodded: "Very well, you lost ten thousand."

After speaking, Charlie turned and went out.

He met the manager of this store coming in, and the name of the sales manager: Whibe was written on the other's badge.

So Charlie asked him: "Are you the person in charge here?"

"Yes." Whibe nodded, "What are your needs?"

Charlie pointed to the sales just now and said to him: "You'd better turn that sale off. As long as he is here, it will only delay the business of your 4s store."

When the man heard this, he rushed over and said, "Manager Whibe, don't listen to his nonsense, this man is sick! He just came to use the air-conditioning wire!"

Charlie smiled and said, "If I am rag, just wait and see."

After speaking, he immediately went out and went directly to the BMW showroom next door.

As soon as he arrived at the BMW store, Charlie saw one of the most luxurious BMW 760. This is the top accessory of the BMW 7 Series. It is the most expensive model of BMW.

The BMW 760 has a 12-cylinder engine, which is extremely powerful, and the interior is a luxurious mess.

He is also a little angry, don't these Audi idiots look down on him? OK, then I will buy a top-fitting BMW for you to see.

Anyway, the Lord has money!

So he directly greeted a BMW salesperson and asked: "This 760, can I just take it away?"

The other girl was stunned: "Brother, this car has just arrived in the showroom today. Are you sure you want to buy it?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded: "I'm sure, take me to swipe the card!"

"Ah? This car is 2.6 million!" The other party was utterly dumbfounded.

She's been selling cars for a long time and has never seen a customer who comes in and asks for a card swipe without saying anything.

Isn't this elder brother here to amuse himself?

Charlie smiled and said: "I know, I see the price, you just say you sell it or not!"

"Sell, sell, of course," the little girl said happily: "Then please!"

Immediately afterward, under the leadership of the other party, Charlie swiped his card, paid, and picked up the car in one go.

When the 2.6 million BMW 760 came out, the people in the Audi store looked stupid.

Charlie drove the BMW 760 directly to the entrance of the Audi store, then opened the trunk and put his electric bike in, and then he drove away in a big way.

The shopping guide who looked down on Charlie was stunned. The Manager White next to him said with a cold face: "Go to the HR and collect your dues, you are fired!"

"manager"

"roll!"

The employees in other Audi stores were also scared silly. d*mn, no one would have thought that the person riding an electric bike was so arrogant, with a car of more than 2.6 million, and he would buy it!

The shopping guide who despised Charlie was even more regretful. Not only did he miss a major customer, missed tens of thousands of commissions, but also lost his job. If he had known this way, he would not look down upon others.

Here, when Charlie drove the BMW 760 out, he felt a little impulsive just now.

He didn't feel sorry for the money, but the car was too expensive. How could he explain it to Claire?

Two million six hundred thousand, it can't fall from the sky?

Chapter 50:

After thinking about it, a great idea suddenly popped into his mind.

Later, he drove to the roadside car repair shop and spent 20 to ask the boss to replace the BMW 760 logo with a BMW 520.

The BMW 5 Series looks very similar to the 7 Series. The difference is mainly internal. It is difficult for most people to distinguish from the outside, mainly by the tail label.

The 520 is the lowest in the 5 series, with average power and control, and average in all aspects.

The 760 is the highest in the 7 Series, with extremely strong power, extremely strong control, and strong in all aspects.

Charlie drove the 760 with the 520 sign and thought to himself that Claire didn't know much about cars and didn't study the car. He told her that it was a BMW 520, and she probably couldn't recognize it.

The owner of the car repair shop slapped his lips, and said to his heart, this guy looked very honest, but he didn't expect to have such a heart, and deliberately changed the top matching 760 to 520, he must be thinking about pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger!

After buying the car, Charlie thought that Darren White's restaurant was opening at noon today, and he had to prepare a gift for him.

Thinking that Darren was the only classmate who treated him well during college, he drove directly to a large consignment shop of art and literature and bought an early painting by Qing Dynasty painter Huang Shen for 200,000.

Huang Shen is not too famous, so most people can't recognize his paintings.

The reason for buying such an ancient painting is that, on the one hand, he felt that he should give Darren a weighty gift, but on the other hand, he did not want to let others know how much the painting was worth.

He thought, if someone asked about it, he would just be fooled by saying that it was a few thousand.

It was almost noon after buying the painting, Charlie called his wife Claire and told her he'll pick her up from the Emgrand Group along with Elsa.

As you can see, Claire discovered that Charlie actually drove a BMW 5 Series!

She looked at Charlie dumbfounded, and asked in surprise: "Where did this car come from?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I bought it for you!"

"You bought it?" Claire was even more surprised: "Where did you get the money?"

"Private money." Charlie said: "Look, I have been in the Willson family for so long, and I didn't spend a penny when I got married. These years, I have eaten at the Willson family, lived in the Willson family, and used the Willson family's resources. What's weird about saving some private money?"

Claire said, "But you save money and keep it for yourself! Why do you buy such an expensive car? It costs 400,000?"

Charlie smiled and said: "You are my wife. If I don't use my personal money for you whom should I use it for? Besides, you are now the director with no car. Everyone will laugh at you."

At this time, Elsa also said: "Claire, you really need a business car, this car is quite suitable for you, Charlie has you in his heart, you should be happy!"

Claire nodded and said very moved: "Charlie, thank you!"

Charlie shook his hand gently, and said with a smile: "Why are you so polite with your husband?"

After speaking, he greeted the two and said: "Let's go directly to Darren's hotel!"

Claire hurriedly asked, "Did you buy him a gift?"

"I bought it." Charlie said, "I bought him a painting."

"Painting?" Claire asked curiously, "What kind of painting?"

Charlie said: "It's the kind of ancient paintings sold on Antique Street. I think the painting is a pomegranate, which means more money, more wealth, and more fortune. It's pretty good, so I bought it."

Claire asked, "How much did you buy it for?"

"Some thousands."

Claire nodded and said with a smile: "Then you might have been cheated! You can't buy any real ancient paintings for a few thousand."

Charlie said with a smile: "It doesn't matter, it's mainly a kind of heart, courtesy is less affectionate."

Claire nodded in agreement, and said, "You are right. The main thing is love. Let's go straight to the hotel now!"

Chapter 51

Darren's newly opened hotel is in the development zone of Aurous Hill City.

The development zone is far away from the urban area, and the land is large and sparsely populated. Charlie was a little wondering why Darren chose to open the hotel here.

However, I heard from Claire that several large manufacturing enterprises have settled in the development zone recently, including large companies such as Foxconn, which will soon become functional.

So Darren is actually very wise to open the restaurant here now.

Darren's restaurant, on the edge of a wide new street, seems to be quite large, with two floors above and below.

The name of the restaurant is Yuelai Restaurant, and it seems to have some artistic conception.

When Charlie drove the car to the door of the hotel, there was already a row of cars parked at the door, and several people were standing in front of a golden BMW car smoking and chatting.

Charlie knew these people, they were all classmates in the previous university, but these people had no friendship with him.

The person headed by Charlie still remembered that his name was Gerald White, who was a relatively famous second-generation rich in his class at the time. He had always thought about Claire, but Claire didn't look at him all.

At this time, Gerald leaned against the golden BMW car and accepted compliments from his classmates. Several male classmates commented on his newly bought BMW sedan and exclaimed: "Brother Gerald, you are really a winner in life. You are driving such an expensive car, nevertheless, you have just graduated. BMW! It seems to be the BMW 540, right? The top 5 series?"

Gerald laughed and said, "Oh, 540, it's nothing more than 700,000 or 800,000 only."

"I wipe it! 540? This is the most expensive imported car in the 5 Series!"

"Hey, I want to buy a 200,000 BMW 1 Series, but I don't even make up the down payment. It's far worse than taking off!"

"Brother Gerald, your car must be very powerful, right?"

Gerald smiled and said, "Fortunately, it's okay. The pick is relatively strong. Generally, you can't meet an opponent on the street."

"It's awesome! If only I could have a BMW car! my girlfriend thinks that I can't afford a car, and this is so annoying!"

At this time, someone with sharp eyes saw another BMW coming and said in surprise: "Oh, is this BMW also of one of our classmates?"

"Oh, my grass! Isn't this Charlie's the smelly rug?"

"It looks like Claire is sitting in the co-pilot! d*mn, this guy who eats leftovers is also driving a BMW. It must be Claire's right!"

Gerald also saw Charlie in the car and said with a gloomy expression: "It turns out to be this rubbish! d*mn, he is really lucky!"

At this time someone asked: "Hey, which series of BMW is he driving?"

At this time, Charlie drove the car nearby, then reversed and parked into the parking space. Gerald glanced at the 520 on the tail label, and suddenly smiled contemptuously: "Cut, 520, the lowest beggar version of the 5 series, only a swollen face. Anyone can afford this model!"

The person next to him immediately nodded and said: "Brother Gerald, you have the top 5 series, he has the cheapest 5 series, is it a lot worse than yours?"

Gerald snorted coldly, "I can buy them both!"

"Brother Gerald is awesome!"

At this time, Charlie stopped the car, and Claire and Elsa walked off first.

A few boys immediately looked straight, and greeted them in a swarm: "Oh, two golden flowers in our class are here together!"

Chapter 52:

Claire and Elsa greeted everyone politely. Gerald looked at Claire, who is now more beautiful and moving, and his heart was extremely unbalanced.

d*mn, why?

When he was in college, he desperately pursued Claire, but she simply ignored him.

Now, she is actually married to a live-in son-in-law and a waste who eats leftovers!

God is really blind!

Thinking of this, he sneered: "Oh, Charlie, your treatment seems to be very good when you join Claire's house! You are all in a BMW! Has Claire bought it? You really got a shortcut in this life. You are a role model!"

Claire's expression was a little unhappy when she heard this, Elsa at the side immediately said, "Gerald, you are mistaken, this car is not bought by Claire, it was bought by Charlie himself!"

"Oh!" Gerald curled his lips: "Awesome, a all in the BMW 5 Series!"

After finishing speaking, he deliberately provokes Charlie: "I say, Charlie, there are no cars in the development zone, and the entrance avenue is wide and straight. How about we two drive-up faster than the other?"

Charlie frowned, looking at Gerald's heart a little sulking.

What can he do to trouble me? I have no friendship with him.

Besides, whose car is faster than me? I am a BMW 760, the most expensive and fastest BMW model. Compared, it seems that I am bullying a child.

Gerald thought he was scared. Immediately sneered: "Oh, I said Charlie, why are you still the same as when you were in college! What are you afraid of? Are you reluctant to bear the petrol charges? It's not a big deal, I'll just add a tank of gas for you."

Elsa protested with some dissatisfaction: "Hey, Gerald, what do you mean? Your car is a BMW 540, and Charlie's is a 520. The power is different from several grades. Does it run faster than anyone else, do you think it's fair?"

Gerald shrugged his shoulders: "The car mainly depends on the technology! A good car does not necessarily mean running fast, but also depends on the technology and courage. I don't know if Charlie has the courage to compete? , Then forget it, anyway, Charlie has never been on the stage, everyone knows."

Several people next to him immediately agreed, "That's right, just say it if you're afraid, not ashamed."

Charlie didn't get angry and laughed and said, "Gerald, there is no comparison, but we can't just compare with the mouth? It's better to just nod, or it's more boring?"

"Okay!" Gerald was worried that Charlie was not fooled. Suddenly he heard that he mentioned it himself. He immediately believed that he was dying, and blurted out: "Well if anyone loses, he will kneel on the ground and kowtow to the other party. What do you think?"

Charlie shook his head: "It's all grown-ups, don't play childishly."

At this time, Darren, wearing a suit, walked out with a large plate of firecrackers, and when he saw Charlie coming, he immediately stepped forward and said excitedly: "Oh, Charlie, you are here!"

Charlie nodded, smiled at him, and said, "Congratulations on the opening of your new store, Darren!"

Darren smiled and said, "Thank you, brother!"

Gerald said coldly at this time: "Charlie, don't change the subject, tell me, what color do you think is appropriate?"

Darren asked curiously: "What's wrong? What are you doing?"

Charlie smiled slightly, looked at the large plate of firecrackers in his arms, and asked him: "Darren, how loud are your firecrackers?"

"Thirty thousand ringing!" Darren smiled: "This cannon is not cheap, it is red all over the floor, more than six hundred!"

Charlie nodded, and said to Gerald, "Let's compare, and whoever loses will put this firecracker in his car to explode, what do you think?"

Chapter 53

When Gerald heard this, he couldn't hold back his excitement.

His own car is 540, Charlie's is 520, even if he is exhausted, he cannot win.

He dared to bet such a big bet with himself!

Thirty thousand-ring firecrackers are set alight in the car, and this car is also terrible. Basically, the interior, seats, and console will be bombed to a mess.

Since Charlie is looking for death on his own, it really gave him a good opportunity to humiliate him!

Therefore, Gerald nodded almost without hesitation, and shouted: "Everyone is a testimony! I and Charlie will compete for the fastest car. If I lose, I put this firecracker in the car and lighted it.!"

After speaking, he said: "If anyone repents and shame, the whole family will die!"

A few male classmates next to him immediately began to make a fuss. The classmates upstairs heard that there was such a thing, and they all rushed out. Twenty or thirty people gathered around the door waiting for a good show.

Does everyone think Charlie is a fool, 520 dares to challenge 540? These are all straight roads. Whose car drives fast has little to do with technology, and depends entirely on the performance of the car.

A 520, even if it is driven by Schumacher, it is impossible to exceed the 540!

It seems that Charlie's brand new BMW 520 will soon be declared scrapped!

Claire also kept advising Charlie, saying: "Charlie, don't be agitated by him, he deliberately do this, don't compete with him."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Don't worry, wife, your husband will never lose."

Gerald laughed loudly: "Oh, Charlie, don't say anything else, I admire your courage! Hahaha, in this case, let's stop talking nonsense and just drive and compare!"

"Okay." Charlie nodded and asked him: "How do you compare?"

Gerald pointed to the intersection at the end of the road and said: "Let's start at the same time, and see who gets to that intersection first and then turns around. Once we go, whoever returns first will win. What do you think?"

Charlie smiled and said, "No problem!"

"Okay!" Gerald said excitedly: "Everyone is a testimony, we will start the game right away!"

With that, he got into his BMW 540 and drove onto the road.

Regardless of Claire's obstruction, Charlie drove the car to Gerald's side, the fronts of the two cars aligned.

At this time, a good guy smiled: "I'll count down to you!"

"Okay!" Gerald smiled: "Start when you are ready!"

Charlie nodded and turned on the sports model of his BMW 760.

The BMW 760 uses a 6.6-liter displacement and 585-horsepower engine.

The next BMW 540 uses a 3.0-liter displacement and 340-horsepower engine.

The displacement is twice as small as the 760, and the power is 245 horsepower. It can be said to be a world of difference!

However, how did Gerald know that Charlie's 520 is actually a top 760? He thought he had a chance to win.

The student in charge of the countdown shouted excitedly: "Prepare! 3, 2, 1!"

As soon as the voice fell, Gerald immediately stepped on the accelerator pedal!

He knew that Charlie was determined to lose, but he wanted to make Charlie's loss even more ugly!

So, try to run faster!

However, what he didn't expect was that on his right hand, a black shadow quickly rushed out, and instantly left him behind and far away!

It's Charlie's BMW 520!

Gerald could hardly believe his eyes!

Oh sh!t!

how can that be!

This is never possible!

Chapter 54:

His BMW 520 has only 184 horsepower, while his own car has 340 horsepower, which is near twice as high! How can he overtake him so easily? !?

The classmates watching the excitement are also dumbfounded!

No one thought that Charlie, who everyone thought was bound to lose, turned out to be like an arrow from the string, instantly surpassing Gerald, and suddenly leaving him far behind!

Before Gerald ran halfway, Charlie had already turned around at the end of the road!

When Gerald was about to turn around, Charlie had already driven the car back to the starting point!

Charlie won!

And won with a crushing advantage!

Gerald just turned around and came back, and saw that Charlie had reached the end, his whole body almost collapsed!

what happened!

What the h*ll is going on!

When did the BMW 520 become double the BMW 540?

wrong! This b@stard must have modified his car!

Oh sh!t! Take a modified car to pit me? d*mn it!

He gritted his teeth and drove the car back in front of everyone, Charlie was already clapping with Claire to celebrate the victory.

The surrounding students were all dumbfounded, and until now they couldn't figure out why Charlie's 520 was so fast!

Gerald stopped the car and walked out angrily and roared: "d*mn, Charlie! You drove a modified car, right? This is not around! The modified car has so much power than mine, how can it be compared?"

Charlie sneered and said, "Hey, Gerald, just now you said that motivation is more important, technology and courage are not. Now if you lose, you will be shameful?"

"I didn't!" Gerald's expression flashed a little panic, and he said arrogantly: "You cheated me!"

Elsa said contemptuously: "Gerald, you are nothing but words, it is really disgusting! Don't forget the poisonous oath you just made, if anyone does not want to bet and lose, the whole family will die!"

"Yes!" Many of the classmates who were waiting to see Charlie's jokes are now dissatisfied with Gerald. They can see that this person really can't afford to lose, such a big person, he is not the one who picked up things by himself. Dare to cash out.

So someone opened his mouth and said: "Gerald, you are boring. Everyone has witnessed it. You have to compare yourself with Charlie. You also said that your motivation matters. If you lose, your whole family is dead. Now you have to cheat yourself. Is it obvious that the whole family would die and you will not honor the gambling contract?"

"Yeah!" A girl said: "Gerald, everyone used to think you are particularly masculine, and you say one thing, but we didn't expect you to be such a backlash!"

Others said: "I can see what Gerald is like! He is a double-standard dog! If Charlie had lost, he will definitely not let Charlie go easily! Now that he loses, he starts to play rascals. It's rubbish!"

Gerald's face was blue and white.

To be honest, he had just bought this car for less than a month and spent more than 700,000 before and after.

If you really throw 30,000-ring firecrackers and light them, then this car will be terrible!

This is his own car! He usually doesn't allow any small scratches or dust to appear, so why would he be willing to throw firecrackers into it?

However, with so many classmates looking at him, now that he has obviously lost the popular support, if he continues to persevere in shamelessness, then the classmates will definitely not get along with him in the future.

They even will say everywhere that he had lost the gambling, and would rather carry the gambling curse that the whole family died, and would never honor the bet.

Thinking of this, his heart was shaken.

If you don't lite the firecrackers, you will ruin your fame!

At this moment, Charlie suddenly said, "Gerald, everyone is a classmate. You can't be joking. Your car is quite expensive. If you don't want to, shouldn't have a bet."

Gerald breathed a sigh of relief instantly.

However, the surrounding students immediately discussed: "Oh! Charlie is still big-bodied. It's really shameful to see Gerald!"

"Yeah! Charlie realized that he couldn't afford to lose, so he gave him a step-down!"

Gerald's self-esteem suddenly burst, and he yelled: "Who the h*ll said I can't afford to lose? What about firecrackers, give them to me! Since I can afford to gamble, naturally I can afford to lose!"

At this moment, Charlie wiped a smile on the corner of his mouth.

Chapter 55

Gerald has lost his mind at this moment.

He didn't want to be crushed by Charlie's Rubbish in front of his classmates.

So he turned his mind, took the firecrackers from Darren's hands, and threw them directly into his car.

After that, he picked up the lighter, grabbed the fuse of the firecrackers, and said coldly: "You look good. Man is not someone who can't afford to lose! Not to mention Charlie's sympathy!"

With that said, he immediately lit the lighter!

The firecrackers ignited in an instant, crackling in the car, and exploded!

At first, you could still see the fire in the car, but soon, the car was full of thick white smoke, and the sound of constantly exploding firecrackers made Gerald's heart dripping with blood, but it made the classmates who watched it, bustling with excitement.

Many students have already started to take out their mobile phones to record videos, and plan to post the whole process to Instagram and Facebook in a while so that netizens will also take a look at this rare show operation.

The 30,000-ring firecrackers exploded, and soon the seats of the BMW 540 were blown up. The seats were filled with a large number of sponges, which were all flammable items. With the help of the firecrackers, an open flame was immediately ignited...

Everyone did not expect that the firecrackers would ignite the car, and the white smoke was filled with it, and it was invisible even if it caught fire.

However, when the firecrackers were almost exploded and the smoke began to disperse, the flames inside suddenly burst open, and the entire compartment suddenly fell into flames!

The classmates at the scene all screamed, and Gerald blurted out in shock: "d*mn, put out the fire! Put out the fire!"

He originally thought that a firecracker would blow up the seats and injure the interior at most, but he would spend tens of thousands, or even hundreds of thousands to repair it.

However, he never expected that firecrackers would set fire to the car!

He shouted for the fire extinguisher, but no one could help him put out the flames in the car empty-handed. He hurriedly dialed 119, and then watched desperately on the spot as the fire of his car grew stronger, and finally fell into a sea of flames.

When the fire truck came, only the burned frame of the BMW 540 was there.

From the frame, you can't even tell that this was once a BMW.

Gerald sat slumped on the ground, desperately watching his beloved BMW turn to ashes, and his heart was painful.

If he knew this would be the case, he'd have killed himself, but wouldn't actively provoke Charlie and want to play against him.

Not only did he lose his face, but he also took the car to ruin.

There was no expression on Darren's face, but he felt quite funny in his heart, and quietly gave Charlie a thumbs up.

Afterward, he said to Gerald, "Gerald, don't be too sad. Time is almost up. Should we go in for dinner?"

Gerald wanted to find a reason to leave directly, but after thinking about it carefully, it would be too cheap, Charlie, the b@stard!

In any case, his car was abandoned because of Charlie, so this place, I must find it back!

So he stood up, pretending to be calm and said: "What is so sad about me? I just wanted to bet."

Several of his classmates also came up to agree with him: "Brother Gerald is so rich, what is a BMW?"

"Yes! For him, it's just an ordinary scooter!"

Everyone knew that Gerald wanted to face, so he stopped mentioning this matter, and followed Darren to prepare for the opening ceremony.

In the store, several banquet tables have been set up in the lobby, and on the small stage in front, banners celebrating the reunion of classmates and the opening of the hotel are hung.

Chapter 56

Many classmates gave gifts one after another. Charlie also took the ancient painting he bought and walked to front closer to Darren and said, "Congratulations Darren, this is a little opening gift from me and Claire."

Claire also smiled and said, "Darren, congratulations, and wish you a lot of money!"

"Thank you, thank you." Darren hurriedly thanked him, and then leaned to Charlie's ear, and said with a smirk: "I think you have a very close relationship with your wife, unlike what the outside world said! When will you have a baby?"

Claire could not help but blush when she heard the two people whispering. Charlie smiled and said: "Don't gossip like that. When the time comes, I will tell you. You can't live without the money!"

"That's true!" Darren nodded repeatedly, and said: "I will wrap my child a big red envelope by then!"

At this time, a woman with heavy makeup and ordinary appearance came to Darren and asked, "Darren, who are these two?"

"This is my college buddy, iron buddy, Charlie! This is our school flower, Claire, and is now Charlie's wife."

After Darren introduced the two, he introduced the woman next to him, and said, "This is my fiancée, Lili Liu."

"Huh? He is the one who eats leftovers?"

Lili blurted out, but soon realized that she was wrong, she quickly changed her words and smiled: "I have been listening to Darren mentioning you, you two are really talented and beautiful!"

Charlie pretended not to hear, and handed the ancient painting to Lili, saying: "This is our little gift."

Lili smiled and said, "You came here that is more than enough, why bothered bringing a gift!"

As she said, she quickly accepted the gift box.

Charlie said, "You couple should be busy. Let's find a place to sit first."

"Okay." Darren said apologetically: "I'm sorry Charlie, there are too many classmates, so I have to say hello."

As soon as Charlie and Claire left, Lili hurriedly opened the gift box given by Charlie and found that there was a scroll inside. She frowned and said, "What did your classmate give?"

Darren said, "Can't you see it? A painting!"

"Cut." Lili curled her lips in disdain, opened the scroll and took a look, and said: "What a tattered thing, old and rotten, I guess it's worth one or two hundreds."

Darren sternly said: "What do you care about how much money it cost, the classmates give it to you, the gift is a symbol of affectionate."

Lili said: "Come on, let me tell you that in the future, such classmates should be kept at arms length, and two people will give such a little bit of tattered. It is not enough to pay for their meals!"

Darren's face was gloomy: "Lili, are you just such a snob?"

Lili suddenly became angry: "Darren how do you talk? I am snobbish? I want to be really snobbish, and I will find you a pauper? Don't forget, my dad invested most of the money in this restaurant!"

Darren's expression was a bit awkward, but he was also a little speechless at once.

At this time, Gerald walked in front of the two of them. He had recovered a lot from the burning of the car just now, and he began to carry a powerful posture again.

When he came to the two of them, he directly handed a thick red envelope and said lightly: "Darren, your restaurant is open, and I don't know what to give you, so I just wrap you a big red envelope."

Lili hurriedly accepted it as she thanked him. She squeezed her hands and knew that there was a 10,000-strong one, and immediately said flatly, "Oh, thank you!"

Gerald waved his hand and asked her, "I think Charlie also came to give gifts just now? What did he give?"

Lili snorted and said, "I don't know from which second-hand market he brought a painting. It's probably worth one or two hundreds!"

Gerald sneered and said, "pauper is after all pauper!"

Chapter 57:

Charlie sat down with Claire and Elsa, and Gerald followed and sat beside Elsa.

As soon as he sat down, he smiled and asked Elsa: "Elsa, I heard that you came to Aurous Hill this time to work in the Emgrand Group?"

Elsa nodded: "I just joined the job."

Gerald smiled and said: "It's a coincidence. My dad is in the Emgrand Group and is the deputy general manager of a department. Then I will let him take care of you."

When these words came out, several people on the table exclaimed: "Brother Gerald, is your dad the deputy general manager of the Emgrand Group?"

"Yes." Gerald nodded and said, "HE was promoted last year."

Someone hurriedly complimented: "The annual salary of the deputy general manager is several million, right? That's amazing! No wonder your family is so rich!"

Gerald smiled and said: "Several millions are just wages. My dad has a lot of power and some other income. Now Emgrand Group is working on a hotel project. After this project, my dad can earn at least 10 to 20 million. "

A male student sitting across from him hurriedly asked: "Brother Gerald, I also want to join the Emgrand Group. I have submitted my resume several times and there is no news. Can you tell uncle and see if you can recommend me internally?"

Gerald nodded and said readily, "Okay, turn around and send your resume to me on WeChat. I'll say hello to him."

Charlie couldn't help frowning. He really didn't know that Gerald's father turned out to be an executive of the Emgrand Group.

This is a bit interesting. Then he should send a text message to Doris Young later and ask her to fire Gerald's father.

So he deliberately asked: "Gerald, since your father is so capable in the Emgrand Group, why didn't he get you in?"

Gerald sneered disdainfully: "You know what a bullsh*t? It doesn't make much sense for me to join the Emgrand Group. The relationship between father and son can't be concealed. People will always stare when I enter."

Gerald said proudly: "So I don't think about Emgrand Group at all. I have now established a building materials company, and then I will directly cooperate with Emgrand Group through my dad to receive orders from Emgrand Group for building materials."

"I see!" Someone sighed: "Then you are making a lot of money?"

Gerald snorted: "It's okay, in a year, I should be able to make a lot of money."

With that said, he deliberately looked at Charlie and asked: "Charlie, what do you do now? Isn't it because you have been washing clothes and cooking after you become a parent?"

Everyone on the table laughed.

Charlie said lightly: "In addition to washing clothes and cooking, I also have to take wife to work and massage her back, so life is busy."

Gerald's lungs are about to explode. This b@stard has a face that is taken for granted, and his face is really thick!

Controlling his anger, he gritted his teeth and said: "Charlie, I didn't expect you to eat leftovers with peace of mind!"

"Otherwise?" Charlie said shamelessly: "I didn't steal it, and I didn't snatch it. Why don't I feel comfortable with whatever I get to eat?"

The students around looked silly.

They have seen shameless, but they have never seen such shameless!

The point is, everyone is still envious!

After all, Claire is so beautiful. It is something that many people dream of to eat the soft rice of such a goddess level woman!

Jealousy, envy, and hate ah!

If there is a chance to serve a beauty like Claire, what is it to be a son-in-law? Being a son-in-law is also a winner in life!

Gerald was choked to death.

At this moment, Darren's wife Lili suddenly stepped onto the stage.

After thanking everyone with a smile on her face, she said: "Thank you for giving us many gifts today. Both Darren and I are very moved. To express our gratitude to everyone, we decided to announce the details of the gifts here. , Thank you all again!"

Since today is the opening ceremony, the link of presenting gifts is naturally indispensable.

Chapter 58:

Originally, Darren didn't want to do this, but in fact he didn't have much right to speak, so he could only let Lili do things.

But many classmates are not surprised by this, because people have a psychology of comparison and show off. Everyone can see who gives what next, and can judge how old classmates have mixed up after entering the society.

Subsequently, Lili began to roll the call.

"Thank you Jones Jie for the one thousand red envelope!"

"Thank you White Bei for the pair of gold ingots!"

"Thank you Xu Oouou for the jade brave!"

"Thank you Gerald for the ten thousand red envelope!"

The first few gifts, whether they were red envelopes or gifts, were mostly around 1,000 in market value. Suddenly, when they arrived at Gerald, he gave 10,000 in red envelopes, and the students were shocked.

The opening ceremony is just a red envelope with 10,000. This is too big!

Many people watched Gerald with amazement and praised his greatness.

Gerald also had a smug look on his face. It seemed that he easily took the lead among these classmates.

At this time, Lili said again: "Thank you Charlie and Claire for the old painting!"

Everyone laughed as soon as this was said!

Old painting? Is it worth a hundreds?

Are these two too picky? Darren's Restaurant opened, Jones Luo's rich banquet cost hundreds of per person for eating alone. You two come to have a meal and give an old painting? Are you two not afraid of being laughed at?

Gerald also sneered: "Charlie, you can afford a BMW 520, and you can also afford to remodel it. Why then at the opening, you only gave such a tattered thing?"

Charlie smiled faintly: "You don't know its origin, so why do you say it is tattered?"

Gerald sneered and said: "Don't think I don't know what your idea is, just want to buy that tattered fake antique to pretend to be a good thing, so that people can't figure out how much it is worth!"

Then, he said aggressively: "To be honest, how much did your old painting cost? One hundred or eighty?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "That painting is more valuable than what everyone present today adds up!"

"Hahahaha!" Gerald took the lead and laughed: "You are really bragging not to write drafts! I gave 10,000 red envelopes, and there are more than 20 classmates, each of whom gave 1,000 which must be around 20,000. What do you say? What does it mean to say that your painting is worth more than 30,000?"

Charlie smiled and said, "You said it is less."

"Ah ha ha!"

Now, the whole class is laughing.

Everyone thinks that this Charlie is really too pretentious!

What is the gift, you dare to come out and provoke me? An old painting worth tens of thousands? Are you fooling someone?

At this time, Lili on the stage was also very contemptuous, and asked curiously: "Mr. Charlie, I don't know whose ancient painting you gave? Is it worth tens of thousands?"

Charlie said lightly: "A painter from the Qing Dynasty, not very famous."

Lili laughed and said, "Oh, it's a coincidence. My dad is a cultural relic appraiser, and he is very authoritative. He is Yuesheng Liu. He knows antiques. He should have heard of his name, right?"

Elsa exclaimed: "Yuesheng? Cultural relic expert Yuesheng? I remember this person, who was on State TV! Is he your father?"

Lili smiled and said, "Yes, it's my father. He is upstairs now. How about I ask him to come down and appreciate this ancient painting given by classmate Charlie?"

Gerald stood up and said loudly: "Then Lili will let uncle come down to help us appreciate it. If the value of Charlie's painting really exceeds all the gifts that everyone has today, Gerald, me Gerald, will eat this table on the spot! "

Chapter 59:

When they heard that Lili's father was a cultural relic appraiser, all the classmates present cast contempt and sympathy at Charlie.

They think Charlie is really unlucky!

He wanted to pretend, but when he meets an expert person on the scene, is this not equal to slapping self in the face?

If Lili's father, Yuesheng, comes in a while, wouldn't he be ashamed?

Claire was also a little embarrassed, and whispered to Charlie: "Charlie, so many students are watching, don't be stubborn, otherwise you will be embarrassed!"

Before coming, Charlie said that he bought a painting, but he said it was not worth a few, and now he said it was worth tens of thousands. Claire was also a little bit bottomless at once, thinking that Charlie might have said that for the sake of face.

But Charlie didn't care at all, and said, "Since you don't believe it, let the professionals appraise it."

After that, he said again: "By the way, everyone, don't forget, classmate Gerald has never repented, and he cursed again. This time he wants to eat the table."

When Gerald thought about the burning of the car just now, he gritted his teeth and cursed: "Charlie, you're so f*cking arrogant! I was shamed by you for the racing thing just now! I'm willing to lose the bet! This time I am Still willing to bet! If the painting you gave is really worth tens of thousands, I will eat the table on the spot! If it's not worth it, can you eat it?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Okay, if it's not worth it, I'll just eat it."

Although the painting is not a famous painting, it is indeed the work of Qing Dynasty painter Huang Shen, and the antique shop is also a national chain, with genuine guarantees, and a penalty for fakes, so the paintings are never fake.

Claire wanted to stop Charlie, but he didn't react at all. Charlie had already agreed. In desperation, she had to sigh secretly.

Elsa was also a little surprised, why is Charlie so sure?

In fact, take a closer look, this person is still very mysterious. In Classic Mansion that day, the famous Orvel nodded and bowed to him. She hadn't figured out why.

But she can also be sure that Charlie must have a secret!

Gerald felt that he finally had a chance to regain the lost reputation, and immediately blurted out: "Okay, everyone is here to witness, let's let Lili invite her father to come down to help us identify!"

Lili directly dialed the phone in front of everyone and said, "Dad, come down for a moment, Darren's classmate has a painting and I want you to appraise it."

One minute later, an Old Master slowly walked down the stairs from the second floor.

This person is Yuesheng, a famous cultural relic appraiser in Aurous Hill.

Today was the opening ceremony of Yuesheng's daughter and future son-in-law's restaurant. He also invited an old friend to gather in the private room upstairs. He heard that there were ancient paintings that needed to be appraised. Soon as his professional habits came up, he hurried down to take a look.

Yuesheng stepped forward and stepped onto the stage. Lili hurriedly handed him the gift box with the painting, and said, "Dad, you can help identify this painting. Some people say it is worth tens of thousands!"

With that said, she looked at Charlie with a look of contempt.

Who believes a rag, leftover eating man can get an ancient painting worth tens of thousands?

No need to guess, the painting must be fake!

Others are just as she thought.

No one believed that Charlie could really give a calligraphy and painting worth tens of thousands.

Yuesheng took the gift box, and under the attention of everyone, he took out the scroll and opened it carefully.

The old paintings are a little yellowish, and they look really inconspicuous. Many of the classmates who like to judge people by appearance one after another said: "Oh, it doesn't look like a good thing!"

"Yes, I think it's worth fiftys."

"It's estimated that the box is not as valuable? That box is probably worth seven or eighty!"

Yuesheng studied the painting carefully, and after watching it for a few minutes, he smiled and asked, "Is this painting a gift from classmate?"

Chapter 60:

"Yes." Lili said: "He is still a good buddy from college!"

When she said this, Lili was thinking that Charlie and Darren are good buddies, still he dared to give away a gift worth few hundred, and immediately wanted her father to expose him in front of everyone!

However, no one expected, Yuesheng sighed: "It seems that he is a good buddy! Not even a good buddy would be willing to give such a valuable thing."

When everyone heard this, they were stunned!

what's it? precious? Is this crap expensive?

Gerald thought to himself, your mother is precious! I can go to Antique Street to buy fake flowers and pee on them to make them look old. It looks more real than this painting!

At this time, Yuesheng said earnestly: "This is the real work of the Qing Dynasty painter Huang Shen. Although Huang Shen is not a very famous painter, he is also one of the outstanding painters. He is one of the Eight Eccentrics of Yangzhou!"

After speaking, Yuesheng said again: "I estimate that the market transaction price of this painting is around 200,000."

"More than two hundred thousand?!" Lili was stupified, she thought this thing was not worth a hundreds, who would have thought that it was worth more than two hundred thousand!

Darren was dumbfounded, and blurted out: "Oh! Charlie, how can you give me such an expensive thing! This is too expensive"

Charlie said calmly: "Darren, it's just a matter of heart, don't care too much about its price."

Darren was so touched, he didn't expect that his good buddie in college would be so interesting!

Gerald looked dazed.

what's the situation? This sh!t is worth more than two hundred thousand?

It's worth more than 200,000. dmn, isn't this dmn cheating?

The students were also shocked.

This time, no one dared to look down upon Charlie again!

After all, he is a person who gives gifts of more than two hundred thousand worth paintings at random!

Everyone is envious of Darren!

Really awesome! I received such an expensive gift at the opening, earning blood!

At this time, Lili was also shocked, and immediately changed her opinion of Charlie.

She knew her father's level very well. Since her father said the painting was worth more than 200,000, it must be worth this number!

God! Darren's classmates actually gave such an expensive gift, this handwriting is not so big!

Thinking of this, she looked at Charlie's eyes with stars.

Claire asked puzzledly: "Charlie, how much did you spend on this painting?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said in a low voice, "In fact, it didn't cost much. The main reason was that the one who sold the painting to me was an acquaintance, and he also collected it from the omission, so he dealt with it at a low price."

Claire couldn't help but said: "A painting of two hundred thousand, a few thousand sold to you, is there such a good thing in the world?"

Charlie said indifferently: "Many people don't take money seriously? Otherwise, I wouldn't give this painting to Darren."

Claire nodded lightly. Charlie was right. If money is important, no one would give such expensive things. It seems that although her husband is not very promising, his courage is still beyond ordinary!

At this moment, Charlie stood up, looked at Gerald with a flustered expression, and asked with a smile: "Mr. Gerald, how do you want to eat at this table? Do you eat directly with your mouth or would like it chopped with a knife into pieces for you?"

Chapter 61

Gerald really wants to die!

Oh sh!t!

What's up!

Did you go out today without reading the almanac?

Why did you get slapped by Charlie one after another?

Even if he killed himself, this painting turned out to be real, and it was worth more than two hundred thousand!

However, he has already said his bold words, what should he do now? Should he really eat the table?

Impossible!

When the car burns you can buy it again, but how can the table be eaten?

If you really eat it, don't people want to die?

Other classmates also ridiculed him at this time: "Oh, Gerald, you said to eat the table yourself, don't you regret it again at this time?"

"Yes, everyone is still waiting for your performance!"

Don't know who slapped the table but a voice came: "Brother Gerald, please start your performance!"

Gerald's expression was extremely ugly, and he blurted out: "Everyone, classmates, don't you need to be so downhearted at this time?"

"Callous?" Charlie said with a smile: "You provoked this matter yourself. Everyone just urged you to fulfill your promises. Why do you get down?"

Gerald knew that he couldn't get over with this crop today, so he could only endure his anger. He said in an annoying voice, "I was impulsive just now. I didn't know it. I apologize to Charlie and everyone. I hope everyone will be able to forgive."

Seeing that he suddenly softened, everyone was very surprised. Is this still Gerald? When did he admit it?

But Gerald had no choice.

What to do?

If he doesn't admit that, he's to eat the table, it's impossible to eat it.

If he acts shamelessly, he must have committed public anger, and everyone still doesn't know how to ridicule him.

Therefore, the only way at the moment is to admit the mistake, and only then can he overcome this hurdle.

Sure enough, as soon as he admitted, some classmates said: "Oh, it is not easy for Gerald to admit his mistake and apologize. Besides, it is impossible for everyone to really force others to eat the table, so let's forget it!"

"That's right, forget it! It's impossible to eat a table, no one has eaten a table, let's start it quickly!"

Charlie also knew that it was impossible for Gerald to eat at the table, but now that he admits it, his goal has been achieved. If you pretend to be forced, you have to clean up.

However, it is not enough for you to pretend to be so coercive and to tidy up like this. It is just the beginning, and there will be more miserable waiting for him later.

So he said, "Since Gerald has admitted his mistake and apologized, forget about eating the table. Today is the day when Darren Hotel opened, so don't steal the limelight!"

Gerald breathed a sigh of relief.

But in his heart, he can't wait to kill Charlie to relieve his only hatred.

Charlie didn't plan to let him go either. He sent a text message to Doris Young: "Which vice president of the company has the surname White, and his son is Gerald, please check for me."

Doris Young quickly replied: "There is a vice president named Younghai White, and his son is named Gerald. What's the matter with the chairman, what is your order?"

Charlie replied: "Knock him off and let him go now."

"OK, sir!"

Gerald didn't know that his father had been expelled from the Emgrand Group and was walking through the expulsion process at the Emgrand Group.

After finally overcoming the gambling spell, he breathed a sigh of relief, but he was secretly thinking that he must find an opportunity to take revenge on Charlie!

Chapter 62:

More importantly, he has to find a way to regain his dignity in front of his classmates. Otherwise, after being beaten by Charlie twice in a row, how can he pretend to be formidable in front of classmates in the future?

When he didn't know how to get his status back, there was a sudden noise at the door of the hotel.

Everyone looked sideways.

They saw a group of wicked young people rushing in, all of them wearing tattoos, holding baseball bats, galvanized water pipes, and the like. They were looking very uncomfortable at first sight.

Seeing such a group of people rushing in, everyone's expressions changed, especially Darren and Lili, their eyes full of fear.

After the head of the scarred face came in, he first glanced around the hall, then pointed at Darren, and said with a grin: "Boss, don't say hello in advance for such a big business, do you look down on us brothers?"

Lili's face was pale, she squeezed out a smile, and said, "What are you guys doing?"

Before the opening, Lili heard that there are people collecting protection fees. The last owner of this restaurant was said to have been destroyed by these gangsters and had to transfer this shop out of necessity.

However, Lili felt that, in a bright world, would those black people still dare to grab money in broad daylight? That's why she won this place at a low price and was ready to manage it.

Unexpectedly, just after opening, these people from the community would come here!

Scarface grinned: "When doing business here, we naturally want to take care of our brother Biao. We don't want too much. Give us 20% of the stock of your restaurant. In the future, if something happens to you here. It will be covered by us."

After that, Scarface said coldly: "If you don't give it, then don't blame me for being polite, you have to close the door today!"

Upon hearing this price, Darren and Lili both took a breath.

Twenty percent of the shares are required for one mouthful!

This is daylight grabbing!

"Give you a minute to think about it."

Suddenly, Gerald felt that he had a chance to come forward!

So he came out immediately and said: "Who are you guys with?"

Scarface asked with a grinning smile: "What are you, do I have to report to you?"

Gerald hummed and said, "Tell you, my father has contacts in both black and white in Aurous Hill! I'll call the leader of the development zone and ask!"

Scarface looked at him with some fear, and tentatively said: "Do you know the leaders of the development zone?"

"Of course!" Gerald said coldly, "Get out if you don't want to die!"

Scarface frowned and said, "Well, if you can find someone who can talk, I won't come to this store in the future, but if you can't find it, then don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Lili said nervously, "Brother Gerald, please contact us, please!"

Gerald smiled faintly and said, "Don't worry, I will call the leaders of the development zone!"

The Emgrand Group also has projects in the development zone, and Gerald's father is in charge, so the development zone leader has a lot of contact with his father, and he also knows Gerald.

Gerald called the first person directly, and he deliberately raised his voice and said: "Uncle Li, why are there a bunch of gangsters in the development zone collecting protection fees? They all came to my classmate's business!"

There was a moment of stunned, and said: "Take off, what's the matter?"

Gerald said: "A friend of mine opened a restaurant and encountered a disturbance and asked for protection fees, so I would like to ask District Mayor Li."

The other end pondered for a moment, and said with a slight embarrassment: "I'm sorry to take off. I don't care about these things you said. I'm in a meeting now, so I'll hang up."

Without waiting for Gerald to speak, he hung up the phone.

Gerald was dumbfounded.

what happened? Wasn't District Mayor Li always cheating on his father, hoping to get more investment from the Emgrand Group?

Why didn't he listen now?

Where did Gerald know that the news that his father was expelled from the Emgrand Group had spread throughout the leadership of Aurous Hill!

Chapter 63

Gerald didn't know the reason, so he was very annoyed. Now that so many classmates are watching, he can only grit his teeth and look for other relationships.

Gerald made another call to the person in charge of the district public security branch.

This person also has a good relationship with his Dad.

As soon as the phone was connected, Gerald immediately said, "Director Issac, it's me, Gerald, I have something to do in the development zone."

Having said that, Gerald said the matter again.

The other party said embarrassingly: "Gerald, the other party is A Biao's person, A Biao is Mr. Orvel's person, you'd better not intervene in this matter."

Gerald asked: "Don't you care?"

The other side said: "You should also know the status of Orvel."

Gerald was also a little flustered, and said, "Then you can always save face and help with the other party, right?"

The other party chuckled and said, "I really can't sell this face, sorry."

Gerald was angry and said, "Issac, I remember that you still want Emgrand Group to donate a batch of police cars to your branch? Don't you want it?"

The other party simply didn't say anything to him, and said coldly: "Gerald, your dad has been expelled from the Emgrand Group, don't you know?"

"Expelled!? When did it happen?"

"Half an hour ago!"

The other party said, and then said: "You can figure it out by yourself before speaking."

After speaking, hung up the phone!

Scarface saw him stunned, and said with a sneer: "Why? Can't find anyone?"

Gerald was about to open his mouth to speak, but unexpectedly, Scarface slapped him in the face, and Gerald staggered, knocking down the table and chairs!

The audience was in an uproar!

Everyone's faces were pale, but no one dared to step forward to stop this scarface.

"Do you dare to hit me?"

Gerald covered his face, his pale face showed deep anger.

"What's wrong with me hitting you?"

Scarface smiled, and kicked Gerald's stomach again, kicking Gerald to the ground, and follow up was a violent beating!

Gerald screamed when he was beaten, but at this moment, no one could help him.

After a while, Gerald was beaten into a pig's head, his face covered in blood looked terrible.

Gerald was afraid of being beaten, crying and begging: "Big Brother, Big Brother, I was wrong! Please stop beating!"

"Wrong?" Scarface snorted coldly: "Well, just do it? You f*cking pretend to be forceful with me. If I don't kill you, how will you get along?"

After speaking, greet the others: "d*mn, give me a hard hit!"

A crowd rushed up immediately, punching and kicking Gerald!

Some people even smashed him with a baseball bat. The scene was terrible.

Seeing that Gerald was beaten to death, Scarface walked in front of Darren at this time, and threatened coldly: "Your friend pretended to be forceful with me. The original 20% has now become 40%! If you don't agree, his fate , is what awaits you too!"

Darren was panicked, but if he wasted 40% of his shares in one go, wouldn't he become a part-time job holder for this gang?

So he plucked up the courage and said: "If you want 40%, then you might as well kill me!"

Scar frowned and said coldly: "Okay! Then I will fulfill your wish!"

After speaking, he immediately took out a bright sharp knife from his pocket.

Everyone was frightened, and the female classmate even screamed.

Charlie saw that the scar was about to act on Darren, and immediately blurted out: "Put the knife down for me!"

The Scarface turned his head and cursed: "Who the f*ck wants to die?"

Chapter 64:

Turning his head, he saw Charlie, his eyes were puzzled at first, and then turned into a deep panic, he knelt on the ground with a plop!

When everyone hadn't recovered, the scar face had already lost the sharp knife, slammed his bow left and right, and confessed: "Mr. Charlie, sorry! I didn't know you were here, I didn't see you here!"

Charlie was taken aback for a moment, looked at Scarface, and said, "Do you know me?"

Scarface nodded vigorously, and said: "Mr. Charlie, I am Brother Biao's subordinate, I have seen you in Classic Mansion."

Charlie suddenly realized.

It turned out to be so.

It was Orvel's younger brother who was troubled by Gerald and Harold in Classic Mansion that day, named Biao. This person was Biao's subordinate.

No wonder he was so scared to see him.

Orvel saw that his legs were weak, let alone Orvel's younger brother

The classmates were shocked! Lili was also surprised as if in a dream.

Everyone did not understand why a fierce Dao brother, a scar face that even Gerald dared to slap, would kneel down for Charlie, the son-in-law! Still showing a look of fear of Charlie?

Claire was also dumbfounded and asked Charlie, "What's the matter? Do you know him?"

Charlie was afraid that she would misunderstand that he had something to do with the underworld, and hurriedly said, "I don't know him!"

When Scarface saw this, he hurriedly said: "I don't know Mr. Charlie, and Mr. Charlie doesn't know me. I just keep hearing about Mr. Charlie's name and I admire it."

This a$shole son in law?

This man is respecting Charlie?

Everyone can't accept this reality, it's really magical!

Scarface hurriedly said to Darren, "You are Mr. Charlie's friend. From now on, your restaurant will be covered by me, and I won't charge you any protection fee! If anything happens, I will help you settle it!"

When this remark came out, everyone was shocked!

Lili cried with surprise in her heart.

On this day, the contrast is too exciting!

Because of Charlie's face, they saved 40 shares. More importantly, this scar face was willing to cover the hotel for free in order to curry favor with Charlie!

Now they can do business with peace of mind!

Charlie is a life-saving grace!

Darren was also grateful, and said sincerely: "Charlie, I am really grateful for this matter."

Charlie smiled and said, "Thanks to me, you are too far-sighted."

Scarface looked at Gerald, who had been beaten unconscious, and said with horror and worry: "I'm sorry, Mr. Charlie, I beat your friend."

Charlie said lightly: "It doesn't matter, he is not my friend, just an acquaintance, and there is no friendship."

After all, he said again: "You send him to the hospital, don't affect the opening ceremony here."

Scarface nodded immediately: "Then we will send him to the hospital! Mr. Charlie, you continue, we won't bother!"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly greeted the brothers, took up the unconscious Gerald, and hurried away.

Everyone looked at Charlie's eyes, from disdain to surprise, from surprise to awe.

No one knows why Charlie has such large energy.

This live-in son-in-law seems to have suddenly become another person!

At the banquet, many people came to curry favor with Charlie, including Lili, who was the first to look down on Charlie.

Lili has now worshipped Charlie as a true god, and she kept expressing her gratitude and even offered a permanent free bill.

Charlie didn't care about it, he just gave Darren a face, and it was a little trouble for Darren.

But in the eyes of others, what he did today has been a bit magical!

Everyone wants to know what happened to this live-in son-in-law who ate soft rice?

Chapter 65:

Claire was also very curious about what happened today.

First, Charlie's BMW 520, why on earth is it twice as fast as Gerald's BMW 540?

Then there was Charlie's ancient painting of hundreds of thousands!

Also, why does Charlie know people in underworld, and the people give him a lot of face.

On the way back, Charlie explained to her. He told Claire that this BMW 520 was a test-driving car modified by a 4s store. In order to make users mistakenly think that this car is very powerful, he made a little modification.

Claire didn't know much about cars, so she believed it silly.

As for the ancient paintings, it has been explained before.

However, the scarface thing is a bit tricky.

After all, what he called Mr. Charlie one by one was called diligence, and Charlie couldn't explain it.

In the end, he can only say that this scar-faced eldest brother is a relative of a friend of his own. He had seen him at a friend's party before, and he also respected him because of his friend's face.

Claire felt that something was wrong, but seeing Charlie's certainty, she knew that it was useless to ask further, so she didn't ask more.

Elsa has been observing Charlie, and she feels that Charlie is not easy, so she decided to observe him in the future to see what secrets he has!

Gerald is said to be miserable. He was in a coma when he was sent to the hospital.

His father was expelled from the Emgrand Group and was found to have used his position for personal gain. He has been sued by the Emgrand Group's legal department and was immediately arrested by the public security organs.

It can be said that Gerald's house is completely finished.

However, Gerald's family is not well-known in Aurous Hill, and no one is not concerned about their life and death.

Those who really get everyone's attention are the god-level tycoons and the mysterious big figures who will be in the Shangri-La Hanging Garden.

Everyone can't wait to know, who he is? Is it the same person?

Soon, the time came to the wedding anniversary.

Because he told Claire a long time ago that he wanted to give her a surprise, Charlie forced Claire to put on a noble and elegant white evening dress before going out.

Claire resignedly agreed, and at the same time he mumbled: "It's just going out for a meal. Why do you have to let me put on such formal clothes? Even if today is our wedding anniversary, it doesn't need to be so grand, right?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Today is our third anniversary. Naturally, it will be more formal. I have already booked the place to eat. The arrangements for tonight are guaranteed to satisfy you."

He has done a good job of keeping secrets these days, and his wife has not made any doubts about it.

Claire smiled lightly, and she was very moved.

In the first two years of their wedding anniversary, the two spent it at home casually. Although it was not unusual, Charlie at that time even had no money, he would prepare some small gifts for her to please her.

However, this year Charlie has been uncharacteristically different and kept mysterious, but instead made her unable to guess what new tricks her live-in husband wants to make.

After a while, the two of them changed their clothes, went out and took a taxi, all the way to the Shangri-La Hotel.

Charlie stepped out of the car, looked at Claire standing next to him, his eyes were indescribably gentle, and said: "Claire, tonight, we are here to celebrate the third wedding anniversary. What do you think?"

Chapter 66

Claire's expression suddenly became weird. Where is the restaurant that Charlie ordered tonight?

She subconsciously asked: "You're not lying to me?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Of course not!"

After speaking, Charlie explained: "A few days ago, I booked a place here. If you don't believe it, let's go in and check the information."

Claire shook her head. After three years of marriage, Charlie never lied to her, let alone on such an important day as today. Then she said, "No, I believe you."

After that, she asked: "You shouldn't have reserved a seat in the sky garden, right? Isn't there a big person chartered there today?"

Charlie hurriedly said, "I decided to be next to the Hanging Garden. It happens to be able to see the inside of the Hanging Garden. Then we can also take a look. Who on earth is it that has reserved it? What do you think?"

Claire smiled and said, "I'm not as gossipy as you!"

Afterward, the two walked into the Shangri-La Hotel.

When they were about to go upstairs, a woman's exclamation suddenly rang in their ears: "Oh, Claire, why are you here?!"

Claire raised her head and saw a pair of young men and women walking towards her.

The man wore a luxurious suite, and he knew it was a wealthy young master from a certain family at a glance, while the woman was covered in famous brands with beautiful makeup, but the brows and eyes were full of arrogant colors, and the dress was a bit kitsch and dancing posture.

This woman, Claire, knew her, Liqing, her roommate when she was in college.

Although Liqing and Claire were in the same dormitory, they are not classmates.

Although they were sleeping together, the relationship between Claire and Liqing was very ordinary.

This is mainly because Liqing Zhao pretends to be high-minded and is very jealous.

She has always felt that Claire is not worthy of the name Colonel's flower, and the real school flower should be her.

But the actual situation is that she is much worse than Claire in terms of appearance, build, momentum or connotation.

However, this woman has an advantage. She is especially good at hooking up with men. It is said that she has hooked up with a lot of rich people before. All the expenses for four years of college were paid by those men.

Claire frowned, but seeing everyone in the class, when the two approached, she could only bite the bullet and said politely: "Liqing, long time no see. My husband and I came here for dinner, you What?"

Liqing said in surprise: "Ah, that's a coincidence. My husband and I are here for dinner too!"

After that, she asked again pretendingly and curiously: "By the way, which position did you book, ordinary box, premium box, or luxury box?"

Claire was confused about Charlie's arrangement, and could only reply truthfully: "I don't know this. My husband ordered the location."

At this time, Liqing noticed the existence of Charlie, covered her mouth and smiled, and said, "Oh, this is your husband Charlie, right? He was a very ordinary man at school back then!"

The sneer hidden between the words is particularly harsh.

Claire looked embarrassed.

Liqing came back to her senses and hurriedly said apologetically: "Oh, sorry, sorry, blame me for being outspoken, you don't mind."

Charlie frowned slightly, this lady, she doesn't seem good!

Chapter 67:

Liqing didn't pay attention to Claire's face, she pulled the man next to her proudly, and said, "I will introduce you to my husband Zheng Hao!"

Then, she praised: "He, he is the eldest master of the Zheng family in Aurous Hill, and he is also the heir of the Zheng family's hundreds of millions of fortune!"

Claire nodded politely.

Charlie's expression was a little gloomy.

I brought my wife to my wedding anniversary, who knew we'd meet such an annoying thing halfway through!

Liqing continued to say: "By the way, my husband is a platinum member here. He has a lot of authority. I guess Charlie has a regular box at most, right? Why don't I ask him to help you upgrade directly to the luxurious box? How is it?"

Claire was about to decline, Charlie laughed, and said, "I booked a good position, so let's forget about it."

You know, the sky garden on the top floor will make up for a grand wedding. She is a platinum member. What's so good about her?

What's more, the entire Shangri-La Hotel is in his own home. If he took his wife to a luxury box with only platinum members, wouldn't it be a surrender?

At this time, Liqing said with some dissatisfaction: "Claire, look at your married husband, you don't know how to promote him, how do you usually discipline him?"

As she said, she took Zheng Hao's arm, nestled her head on his shoulder, and said with a smile: "Charlie's behavior is not suitable for such a noble occasion. I would like him to ask my husband for more advice in the future. Aristocratic etiquette, after all, my husband studied in England."

Zheng Hao glanced at Charlie with disdain, and smiled: "My wife, don't arrange this impossible task for me. Mr. Charlie is so maverick and you want to teach him aristocratic etiquette. I'm afraid it will be difficult. ."

Liqing nodded, sighed, and said to Claire: "If you want me to tell you, you should get divorced quickly, spending a lifetime with a poor man like Charlie you will feel wronged!"

Liqing just spoke without any cover, not caring about Claire's feelings at all.

Claire couldn't bear it, and immediately said coldly, "Liqing, what do you mean? My husband, it's not your right to comment."

Liqing covered her mouth and smiled, and said: "You didn't look down on me when I was in college. How could you be considered a colonel's flower if you had some bad money at the time? Now that you don't marry well, you don't want me to talk about it.?"

Charlie was very unhappy when he heard this.

This Liqing, who was profane when she was in school, relied on having a decent face to hook up with a rich man, and now she is lucky to marry a rich family. Is she really a rich and young lady?

Besides, dare to laugh at his wife?

Really looking for death!

Thinking of this, a burst of anger surged in his heart.

So he took out his cell phone and sent a text message to Shangri-La boss Issac.

"Within three minutes, all the information of Liqing, the daughter-in-law of the Zheng family in Aurous Hill was sent!"

When Liqing saw Charlie looking down at the phone without saying a word, she laughed even more: "Look at your husband, I'm taunting you, he didn't even dare to speak for you. hahaha!"

At this moment, Charlie suddenly received a text message from Issac: "Mr., the information about Liqing has been sent to you."

Charlie looked at the content of the long text message, then looked at Liqing and her husband Zheng Hao, and asked with a smile, "I have some interesting information, do you want to listen to it?"

Liqing frowned and asked, "What information?"

Charlie said loudly: "Liqing, female, 26 years old, graduated from Aurous Hill University."

Chapter 68:

"During the freshman year, according to investigations, there were no less than a hundred records of house openings, and there were eight different men who opened houses, including Li Hu, Ma Fei, and Du Willsonping."

Liqing was dumbfounded, her face pale and blurted out: "What are you talking about! Be careful I will sue you for slander!"

Zheng Hao frowned, he was obviously shocked.

Charlie said again: "Oh, this is amazing. You have opened a house with two men a few times. One of these two men is called Dong Bin and the other is Dong Jie. These two men seem to be brothers. Are you in a threes0me?"

Liqing shouted in horror: "You are talking nonsense! You are talking nonsense!"

Charlie continued: "Also, during your sophomore year, you were taken care of by the vice president of Shenghua Group at a price of 30,000 per month. You were taken care of for a total of three years, during which you had four abortions for him. At the Aurous Hill Women's and Children's Hospital, the last abortion doctor declared you to be infertile for life."

While talking, he asked Zheng Hao curiously: "Mr. Zheng, if I guess right, you should have no children yet?"

Zheng Hao's expression suddenly became ugly. He glared at Liqing and asked: "What's the matter?!"

Liqing sweated profusely and said in a panic: "Ahao, don't listen to his nonsense. I gave it to you the first time! You know!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Don't worry, don't worry, there are more exciting!"

Liqing pulled Zheng Hao in a panic, and while dragging him away, she said, "Stop talking! Husband, let's go! It's too late for dinner!"

Zheng Hao frowned and said to Charlie motionlessly: "What else?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Listen well. After graduating from university, Liqing underwent a thorough plastic surgery in the Plastic Surgery Hospital. A month later, she entered the Zheng family company and deliberately got to know the Zheng family by scratching Zheng Hao's Bentley car. Zheng Hao, a young man."

After speaking, Charlie looked up at Zheng Hao: "Am I right?"

Zheng Hao was dumbfounded.

I know these things and they are all true facts. That is to say, those things before are also true facts?

Liqing was already pale at this time, and her whole body was shaking in panic.

She begged Charlie: "Charlie, I beg you to stop talking, please!"

Charlie sneered and said, "Now you know to beg me? Sorry, it's late!"

After speaking, he said again: "After knowing Zheng Hao for half a month, she took advantage of the opportunity of a business trip to Haicheng to perform a meniscus repair operation at a plastic surgery hospital in Haicheng. After returning, she officially became a girlfriend with Zheng Hao and got married in half a year."

Liqing was already sitting on the ground, she didn't know how Charlie could reveal all her secrets, this was almost shaking her old bottom to her husband!

Zheng Hao was also so angry that his ears smoked, turned his head and glared at Liqing, and yelled: "So you lied to me that it was your first time that night, it was actually yours hundreds of thousands of times, right?"

Liqing hurriedly denied: "No, I didn't, Ahao, you are my first time!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Don't worry, I can find her medical records when doing the membrane repair. You will know when she goes to the hospital to check it."

Zheng Hao grabbed Liqing's collar and slapped her hard in the face: "Don't tell the truth yet, do you? Don't tell the truth yet. After I check it out, I will sweep you out. Your father, your mother, your brother, All moved out of my villa, and your brother should stop working in the Zheng's family! I will let your family down the street!"

Liqing suddenly broke down and cried, and knelt on the ground begging for mercy: "Husband, don't be angry, I was wrong. It was all the mistakes I made before when I was young and ignorant. Later, I changed my mind to righteousness and lived with you!"

Charlie said at this time: "Don't believe her, after she married you, she had a few breakup shots with the man who took care of her. That breakup shot, the other party also took a video as a memorial. If you want, I can find out the video and send it to you to watch!"

Chapter 69:

Zheng Hao's face was very ugly, extremely blue.

At this moment, he finally felt what it was like to have a prairie on his head!

When he couldn't bear it, he smoked Liqing countless big mouths like crazy, and cursed: "You stinky framer, you have been lying to me! Give me a cuckold, and I'll kill you! I'll kill you.!"

Liqing screamed when she was beaten, her hair scattered, and she broke down and cried.

Zheng Hao beat her and cursed: "Divorce! You are free now! Otherwise I will find someone to kill you, your parents, and your brother!"

Liqing completely collapsed!

She tried everything I could to marry into the Zheng family. She wanted to be a wife for a lifetime, but today, her dreams are completely broken!

All this is because of Charlie!

She hated Charlie so much, but Charlie smiled contemptuously at this time and said to Claire: "Wife, let them bite each other like dogs, let's go."

After speaking, he took Claire's hand and walked to the elevator.

Claire's beautiful eyes trembled, and she was shocked and couldn't believe it. Where did Charlie know so much about Liqing's dark history?

Thinking of this, her gaze couldn't help but look at Charlie, and she couldn't believe it and asked, "You made those things checked?"

"How is it possible, where do I have this ability?" Charlie said haha, "A classmate was badly injured by Liqing before. He has been digging for Liqing's black material, but I didn't expect it to come in handy now."

With that said, Charlie has taken her into the elevator.

As soon as he entered the elevator, Charlie pressed the button on the top floor. Claire hurriedly asked: "Charlie, did you press the wrong floor? Isn't the top floor the sky garden?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "My wife, where we are going to now is the sky garden at the top!"

As soon as these words came out, Claire was struck by lightning!

Sky garden? how can that be?

In the entire Aurous Hill, everyone knows that the sky garden tonight has obviously been reserved by a mysterious man?

Even if Charlie has great abilities, it is impossible to book a place in the sky garden to celebrate the third wedding anniversary!

But the next moment, a bold idea suddenly appeared in Claire's heart: Could it be that Charlie was the mysterious man who reserved the entire sky garden? !

Although this is like a fantasy, but at this moment, besides this explanation, are there other possibilities?

Thinking of this, Claire couldn't help asking: "Charlie, did you reserve the Hanging Garden?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Yes, I want to give you the biggest surprise today! I will provide you with a flourishing wedding that no one can copy!"

"what?"

Claire felt that her brain was short-circuited!

If this is really a big surprise Charlie prepared for her.

So, isn't she the happiest woman in Aurous Hill tonight?

Thinking of this, Claire's breathing became hurried, and she almost lost the ability to think.

Chapter 70:

Just as her inner world was turbulent, the elevator had reached the top floor of Shangri-La Hotel.

A service staff at the door bowed slightly and said with a smile: "Miss Claire, on behalf of our Shangglak Hotel, I would like to extend my heartfelt blessings to you and Mr. Charlie for the wedding anniversary tonight."

Charlie waved his hand and said to her, "You all get back!"

Immediately, all the staff left the scene,

In the entire Hanging Garden, only the world of Claire and Charlie remained.

Claire was in a dream.

At this moment, what is greeted is a huge space with luxurious style.

The gorgeous crystal ceiling casts clear light, making the entire sky garden look elegant and quiet.

The soft piano masterpieces fill the sky garden and slowly occupy people's hearts, making it hard to feel tension and anger.

Fresh high-end fresh flowers delivered by air from abroad exude bursts of fragrance, not strong or demon, but if anything is changing people's mood, it is indescribably quiet and beautiful.

At this time, with the change of piano repertoire, the most classic wedding march called a Midsummer Night's Dream suddenly sounded, and the melodious sound was endless.

When Claire was dizzyingly admiring the beautiful scenery, Charlie had put on a decent suit and was walking towards her with a bunch of flowers.

Every time he took a step, a series of beautiful and gorgeous red hearts wafted up on the floor made of crystal glass.

It seems that these love hearts are dancing with the sound of the piano, giving people a very powerful visual impact.

At this moment, outside the sky garden, countless people look forward to everything that happens inside through the crystal glass exterior wall and floor.

The only regret is that all the glass in the sky garden has been blurred to a certain extent. You can see a pair of young men and a women inside, and the flowers in it are so beautiful.

There is also the red love that keeps popping up on the floor. Countless women are looking forward to it and say: "This is so romantic! I have never seen such a romantic scene in my life."

"If I were that woman, I would die of heart attack now!"

"Gosh! That man's figure seems to be a mysterious rich man!"

"It's a pity that I can't see his face! Oh! What torture!"

The scenes in the sky garden completely immersed the people who watched the excitement from the outside world.

Thousands of people are looking at it and admiring it with extreme envy. Everyone's eyes are full of blessings, watching this grand garden that seems to be suspended in the air.

Countless women burst into tears, and felt uncontrollable envy in their hearts. They were even more overwhelmed. They were so jealous that they could not wait to be the heroine of this grand wedding tonight.

Even if people can't see the real faces of the two tonight, they can still feel how happy the heroine is now.

Charlie walked up to her step by step, pointed at the night view of Aurous Hill outside the French window, and said with affection: "Claire, I love you! I couldn't give you a wedding back then, I hope this one is only for us A wedding for two, you can like it!"

Claire came back to her senses, covering her mouth, but crying pear blossoms brought rain, tears falling to the ground like pearls, and her pretty face kept falling.

After hearing this, Claire couldn't help the turbulence in her heart anymore, took a step forward, plunged into Charlie's arms, and said with tears: "I like it! I really like it! Thank you. Thank you Charlie! Thank you!"

Speaking of this, Claire was even more crying. At this moment, she felt that all the grievances she had suffered in the past three years were worth it!

No matter how Charlie did all this, at least for now, she is very happy, and tonight she is the happiest woman in Aurous Hill!

Chapter 71

Through the hazy frosted crystal glass, the whole Aurous Hill saw this extremely grand wedding.

While countless people are extremely envious, they are also guessing in their hearts, who is the couple who got married in the sky garden?

Moreover, these two people are too mysterious. Their wedding was attended by only the two of them, not even a relative or friend, not even a witness!

On the crystal stage, Charlie took Claire's hand and pulled out the jade necklace that was already prepared.

"Claire, this is my wedding anniversary gift for you, I hope you like it!"

Claire looked at the crystal-clear jade necklace and exclaimed: "This one shouldn't be the treasure of Rare Earth Pavilion's shop? Charlie, where did you get it?"

When talking, Claire was shocked.

Could it be that Charlie is the god-level rich man in the video?

Otherwise, how could this jade necklace be in his hand?

but

But this is not, this can't be!

Who is Charlie, he couldn't know better, how could he be a god-level rich man?

He is completely indifferent to the word rich!

Charlie saw Claire's surprise at this time, and he had an urge in his heart to tell her his true identity and tell her that he was the descendant of the great Wade family and the heir of trillions of wealth.

However, the next moment, he suddenly thought of a very serious matter.

What's the situation of the Wade family now, I don't know it!

In my impression, I met my uncle when I was young, that is to say, the previous generation of the entire Wade family was not the only one with Dad.

Since there are more than one sons, those uncles and uncles of my own may also have heirs. These people will inevitably regard him as a thorn in their eyes and flesh.

If he rashly announces his identity before he knows everything and does not have enough ability to protect himself and Claire, then he's afraid that Claire will be killed!

The methods used by the rich to fight for the property are very cruel. He really doesn't want his beloved wife because he takes risks.

Thinking of this, he deliberately lied: "This necklace looks exactly like the treasure of Rare Earth Pavilion's town shop, but it is something I paid to find someone to imitate. Although it also uses good jade materials, it is similar to that one in the Pavilion. Still, it is still far behind, and it cost tens of thousands in total."

With that said, Charlie asked Claire nervously again: "Claire, don't you like it?"

Claire was relieved!

This is much more reasonable.

So she hurriedly smiled and said: "Fool, how can I dislike it! You have done so much, and it is too late for me to be not moved!"

Charlie also breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly put the jade necklace on for Claire himself.

He looked at Claire with sincere eyes, and said emotionally: "Claire, marrying me for the past three years has caused you a lot of wrongs, but starting from today, I can assure you that no one can bully you anymore!"

Claire nodded emotionally. At this moment, she realized that her husband was finally going to raise his head and be a man!

At the end of the wedding, Charlie took Claire away quietly from the exclusive elevator in the sky garden.

Countless people onlookers on the scene felt a sense of loss.

Are the hero and heroine gone?

The two of them ran over and mysteriously fed the world a bit, and then ran away?

Chapter 72

For a while, the whole city was discussing this grand wedding.

But no one knows who the hero and heroine of the wedding are.

Charlie drove the BMW 520 modified from the BMW 760 and returned home with his wife.

On the way, Claire was still immersed in great happiness and couldn't help herself from overthinking about all that happened in the last few hours.

She couldn't help but ask Charlie, "How did you reserve the Sky Garden? It seems that there has never been a private reservation before, right?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "To be honest, a senior executive in Shangri-La is a good friend of mine from the orphanage. We used to have a hard time together. I will share half steamed bun with him, so this time I begged him for help and he was very interesting."

Claire nodded slightly: "It turns out to be like this, why haven't I heard you talk about it."

Charlie said: "There are too many friends in the orphanage, and I can't finish talking for three days and three nights. I thought you didn't like listening to this, so I never mentioned."

Claire said earnestly: "You are my husband. I am naturally very interested in what you have done before, and I really want to know."

Charlie smiled and said, "Then I will tell you more!"

"it is good!"

Back in the community, Charlie drove the car downstairs.

Just parked the car and got off with Claire, just in time to meet the father-in-law and mother-in-law walking back.

The mother-in-law saw them and immediately exclaimed: "Of course, where did this BMW come from?"

When the father-in-law saw this car, his eyes shone!

"Oh! BMW! Of course, you bought it new? A big deal!"

Claire hurriedly said, "Dad, Mom. I didn't buy the car, it was Charlie."

"Charlie?" Father-in-law frowned and asked, "Charlie, where did you get the money to buy this car? Did you use our house money?"

Charlie hurriedly said, "No, Dad, I bought this with my own money."

The mother-in-law on the side took the father-in-law around the car and said, "Huh! Eat and live with us every day, save money to buy a BMW and don't know how to honor us, what a white-eyed wolf!"

Claire hurriedly said, "Mom, don't say that about Charlie"

The father-in-law's voice was jealous: "Huh, you still bought a BMW 520, at Charlie's level, worthy of such a good car? Buying a BMW 3 Series is not enough for him?"

The mother-in-law said coldly: "I'm telling you, your dad doesn't have a car yet! Half of his body is about to fall into the soil. If you don't let him enjoy it, I'm afraid he won't be able to enjoy it in the future either!"

With that, the mother-in-law said angrily: "Well, give this car to your dad!"

Claire looked at Charlie and asked tentatively, "Charlie, do you think it's okay?"

Charlie thought, yes, but this is not the BMW 520, this is the 760!

To be honest, the old husband is just a tight-handed sling, and he is not favored by the Lady Willson. For him, 760 is too wasteful.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly complimented: "Oh, dad, this is the BMW 520, the last model in the BMW 5 series, nicknamed the beggar version. If you drive this car out, you will be laughed at."

Mother-in-law twisted her eyebrows: "What? Are you reluctant to give this away?"

Charlie hurriedly waved his hand: "No, no, how can I be reluctant, I think, I can't let you drive a beggar version, otherwise, this 520 will not be given to you, I will buy you a 530. The 530 is one step higher than the 520, so you have face when you drive out!"

The mother-in-law frowned and asked, "Do you have money to buy 530?"

Charlie said: "I only paid a down payment for this car, and I still have some money in my hand. Don't worry, I will buy you a car early tomorrow morning!"

Chapter 73

As soon as the father-in-law and mother-in-law heard that Charlie would buy them a better one tomorrow, the two immediately laughed.

The father-in-law did not know that what he had missed was a top-notch BMW 760.

Claire was a little worried. After returning to the room and washing up, she quietly asked Charlie, "Do you still have money to buy a car? I still have some private money here, or you can take it and use it for purchase!"

Charlie hurriedly waved his hand: "No, I'm still a little bit more useful."

Claire apologized and said, "I'm really sorry, I didn't expect my parents to be like this"

Charlie smiled and said, "What are you talking about? Your father and your mother are also my father and mother. We are all a family, and it is right to honor them."

With that said, Charlie lay on his small floor and smiled: "Don't worry, I will buy another one tomorrow morning!"

Claire said moved: "Charlie, thank you!"

Charlie laughed: "What are you polite with me about, wife!"

Claire asked him with a blushing face, "Will you not be cold at night when you sleep on the ground?"

Charlie blurted out: "No, it's not cold at all, don't worry, it's alright!"

Claire suddenly groaned: "If it's not cold, just fall asleep! Pig-head!"

Finally, she wanted him to sleep in the bed, but this pig head turned out to be so bad

Charlie suddenly realized at this moment that he seemed to have accidentally missed something

So he hurriedly said: "Oh my wife, it's so cold on the ground, it makes me shiver!"

Claire said angrily: "If it's cold, add a quilt!"

"Hey"

Charlie was immediately depressed.

After a long while, he did not give up and asked: "My wife, it seems to have cooled down, I'm so cold!"

Claire ignored him, kicked off a quilt, and said angrily: "How cold can it be at night in summer? If it's still cold, I'll find you a down jacket to wear!"

Charlie was desperate, and it seemed that his wife would really not let him go to bed tonight!

The next day, Claire prepared to go to work early in the morning.

Charlie made breakfast for her, handed her the key to the BMW car, and said, "Let's drive to the company today."

Claire couldn't help but said, "The car you bought, I drive to work, isn't it appropriate?"

Charlie said, "What's wrong with this? You are my wife, and the car was bought for you, not for me."

Claire nodded lightly and said thankfully, "Thank you!"

After speaking, she took the key of the BMW car from him.

The father-in-law on the side looked envious, and blurted out: "Charlie, you said you will buy me a car, did you forget?"

"I haven't forgotten it!" Charlie said hurriedly: "Wait for me, I'll buy it for you. Just wait for the new car to drive back home!"

The father-in-law suddenly smiled and said happily: "Then I'm just waiting! BMW 530, you said it yourself, don't buy a wrong model!"

Charlie was amused for a while, nodded, and said, "Dad, don't worry, I will buy the BMW 530 for you today!"

After that, he followed his wife downstairs and pulled his little e-bike from the BMW 760 from the trunk of the BMW 760.

Claire drove this BMW 760 to work, and Charlie himself rode his e-bike to the BMW 4s shop again.

When he was approaching the BMW 4s store, he happened to pass by the door of the Audi store.

Chapter 74

People in the Audi store first saw him, and a salesperson blurted out: "f*ck, the man who bought the BMW 760 is here again riding a little e-bike!"

"d*mn, if you kneel down for him today, you still have to stop him and sell him a top-equipped Audi a8!"

"Yes!"

All of a sudden, a large number of Audi salesmen rushed out and surrounded him.

"Sir! Come to our store to see the latest top-match Audi a8!"

"Sir! Our a8 is very powerful, using a w12 engine, which is even better than the BMW 760's v12 engine!"

Charlie asked curiously: "Is it so awesome?"

"Really!" An Audi salesman hurriedly introduced: "Brother, let me tell you that our w12 engine can be turned off left and right. When the 12-cylinder is half off, there are 6 cylinders, which is more fuel-efficient!"

Charlie said contemptuously: "I should buy a 12-cylinder car and turned off the 6-cylinder to save fuel? Isn't it good for me to buy a 6-cylinder car?"

"This...this...this..."

The salesman realized that he had said the wrong thing, his face flushed.

Charlie sneered at them and said, "I know what you think. You were uncomfortable when you saw that I bought a BMW 760 yesterday. So today, you are trying to coax me into becoming your customer, right?"

A group of people nodded hurriedly.

Charlie hummed: "Tell you guys! It's late! Yesterday you ignored me, but today I make you unable to climb high!"

After speaking, Charlie pressed the horn of the little e-bike.

"Didi..."

"Get out of the way! Brother is going to the BMW store to buy a car!"

BMW's sales also ran out at this time, and said angrily: "Audi's grandson, what are you doing? Are you robbing our customers? Didn't you see our customers just ignore you? Then surround you distinguished customers, believe it or not, I'll call the media to expose you guys!"

Audi's guy couldn't hold it, so he could only walk away in despair.

The manager of the BMW 4s shop came to greet Charlie in person and asked respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, do you still want to buy a car today?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Is there a BMW 530? I'll drive away today!"

"Yes!"

The manager was so excited.

He bought a BMW 760 yesterday and a BMW 530 today. This is really a big customer!

So he hurriedly said: "Sir, please come with me, I will show you the show car."

Charlie gave a hum and followed him into the exhibition hall.

There happened to be a BMW 530 in the exhibition hall. Charlie sat in and felt it, and found that although this car looked very similar to the 7 series, it was really a lot worse inside. , Already considered high configuration.

So he was about to swipe his card to buy a car. At this moment, he heard a familiar voice and said: "Oh my dear, I really like the BMW x6! Would you buy me an x6?"

Sitting in the car, Charlie followed the sound, but found out that Lili, the fiancée of his university friend Darren, was holding a strange man at this time, with a look of intimacy and ambiguity.

Charlie frowned and thought to himself, Lili called that man dear, could this woman cuckold Darren?

He couldn't help but get annoyed, because he hated this kind of woman who has no moral bottom line and is unfaithful to feelings in her life.

Moreover, Darren is busy with business, and she unexpectedly came out to cuckold him, this kind of woman is too disgusting!

At this time, he listened to the man with a lustful face and asked: "If I bought you x6 now, how would you explain that to Darren?"

"Darren?" Lili said with a look of disgust: "Don't mention the waste. The family wants money and he has no money and no ability. If it's not for looking at others to be honest and practical, I would not follow him altogether!"

Chapter 75

The man grinned, squeezed Lili's face, and asked, "Now you are my woman, and you are still going to be with him? Zhao Dong's woman, must not allow other men to get involved!"

Lili hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Dong, I haven't let him touch me since we were together. I think he is dirty! My body will always be always Dong's only, and it's only used to serve Dong. Brother, you are alone!"

Then, she explained: "Actually, I wanted to break up with him immediately after the restaurant opened, but I didn't expect that a classmate this guy knew was a bit capable and helped him fix the troubles in the development zone. Scar, I want to wait for the business to stabilize before telling him to break up and kick him out of the restaurant."

Zhao Dong laughed and said, "It's just a scar, what's the deal? If you told me earlier, I can ask his eldest brother to apologize to you with just one call."

Lili smiled and said, "Oh, you're still good at it Dong! At that time, it was urgent, I didn't care to call you, and Darren was also there, I'm afraid you will be unhappy if you meet him!"

Zhao Dong pinched her waist and said with a smile: "You are quite sensible!"

Lili hurriedly rubbed her arm in front of her and said, "Dong, are you willing to buy a BMW x6 for someone else?"

Zhao Dong smiled and said, "So, later, we will go to my house and let you feed several times. Then you will break up with that pauper, and I will buy you a BMW x6 tomorrow!"

Lili asked in surprise: "Dong, is what you said is true? Will you really buy me x6 tomorrow?"

"When did I lie to you?" Zhao Dong grinned and said, "However, you have to serve me well before you can drive it!"

Lili immediately winked and said, "Don't worry, Dong, I will take care of you when I get to your house later!"

The two said, turned around, and left the 4s shop.

Charlie was very annoyed at a couple of dogs, and immediately took out his mobile phone and called Darren.

As soon as Darren answered the phone, he immediately said excitedly: "Charlie, how are you doing? Why do you think of calling me?"

Charlie said lightly: "Call to greet you, what are you up to now?"

Darren said: "I'm helping out at the back kitchen of the restaurant. It's not fast at noon, and it's about to be served, so I'll help."

Charlie asked: "Are you busy in the hotel every day?"

Darren said: "Yes, the restaurant has just opened, and there are many things. Besides, more than half of the money in this restaurant is from Lili's father. If I don't work harder, they will look down upon them."

Charlie asked again: "How much did you pay?"

"I gave out one hundred thousand. This is all my savings since graduating from university."

Charlie continued to ask: "Who is the owner of the restaurant?"

Darren said: "It's me!"

Charlie asked: "Is your name written in the industrial and commercial registration?"

Darren said: "That's not the case. The industrial and commercial registration is in Lili's father's name. Lili and I are not married yet. Since they paid the money, it wasn't appropriate to write my name on the paper."

After speaking, Darren said again: "But her father said that after we get married, he will shift the ownership of the hotel to me."

Charlie shook his head as he listened, this fool, I don't know if he has been used!

Lili treated him like a cow, a horse, and as a slave, and asked him to work in the hotel business in the development zone. She went out to steal people by herself, and got together with rich men, and planned to kick him out.

Now the hotel has nothing to do with Darren in the business registration. Once Lili turns her face, he can only go out of the house!

When the time comes, not only will everything be in vain, but his own 100,000 will also vanish!

Thinking of this, he felt even more disgusted with Lili and asked Darren directly: "Why did Lili go out now?"

Chapter 76

Darren smiled and said, "She, went to the hairdresser, what's wrong?"

Charlie sneered: "Doing hair? Did she say that?"

"Yes indeed!"

"You believe what she said?"

Darren asked in a surprised tone: "Charlie, what do you mean? Just say it, don't go around."

Charlie gave a hum and said: "Then I'll tell you the truth. I saw Lili in a BMW 4s store. She was still hugging a man named Zhaodong, and she kept calling that Zhaodong my dear, She might be cuckolded by him."

"Impossible!" Darren blurted out: "Lili is not that kind of person at all! Could it be you who recognized the wrong person?"

Charlie said confidently: "I can't be mistaken, it was her."

"I don't believe it!" Darren said coldly, "Charlie, we are in a good relationship, but you can't say bad things about my wife just because we are friends!"

Charlie said coldly: "Darren, wake up! Your wife is already with other men, and that Zhaodong also promised to buy her a BMW x6. Now Lili is going home with him, preparing for the evening. She will break up with you when she comes back! As an old classmate, I advise you to prepare early!"

Without waiting for Darren's answer, Charlie continued: "You'd better transfer the painting that I sent you out first, and keep that painting. You still have the capital to make a comeback, but if you don't believe me, then I don't have any method to save you from the trouble coming up ahead."

Darren was also anxious and said, "Charlie! Don't talk nonsense here! Lili is my fiancée, I know her best, she will never betray me! If you frame her again, I will break my relationship with you!"

Charlie frowned and said lightly: "Okay, as a friend, the reminder I should give has been given. If you don't believe me, then I have nothing to do. Good luck!"

After speaking, Charlie hung up the phone directly.

What an idiot who was dazzled by love, He secretly recorded a video and sent him to see it!

At this time, the manager of the BMW store knocked on the window and asked him: "Sir, are you satisfied with this 530?"

Charlie nodded: "It's pretty good. Let's take this one. Get me a new one from the warehouse."

The manager immediately beamed his eyebrows: "Wait a minute, I will arrange for someone to pick up the car!"

Soon, a black BMW 530 drove over by the salesman stop there. Charlie simply swiped the card to pay and picked up the car, then folded the little e-bike, stuffed it into the trunk, and drove away in a big swing.

On the way back, his father-in-law and mother-in-law called, in turn, to ask him if he was back.

When Charlie arrived downstairs, he realized that they were already waiting downstairs.

Seeing Charlie really bought a BMW 530, the old couple smiled excitedly.

The father-in-law went around the BMW several times and exclaimed: "Good car! Good car! I didn't expect that I could still drive a BMW!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Dad, you might be able to drive a Rolls Royce in the future."

The father-in-law laughed and said: "Then it depends on your ability!"

The mother-in-law was also very happy on the sidelines, and her attitude towards Charlie had also changed a lot.

Father-in-law got in the car for a test drive, and after returning, he said, "The car is really good, and it's comfortable to drive, but the car is too long and not easy to handle. Charlie, you will be the driver for me this afternoon. I just made an appointment with someone to see things."

Charlie nodded: "OK dad."

The mother-in-law said with excitement: "When I turn around, I will be a driver and take me to have afternoon tea with my friends! Let them also see that I am also picked up by a BMW when I go out!"

"OK, mom!"

Chapter 77

After lunch, the Old Master, Jacob, was already dressed neatly and urged Charlie to say, "Charlie, hurry up and get ready. Drive in our new car and follow me to Antique Street. There is a new Thompson Dynasty official kiln vase in a store. , I want to see it."

Charlie couldn't help but persuade: "Dad, you're starting to play antiques again now? We don't have much money at home. Is it not a bit too extravagant to buy antiques?"

Jacob has no ability to make money, but he has a lot of dreams of getting rich. He likes to go shopping in the antique street when he has nothing to do. He wants to pick up a leak in his dreams, but in the past few years, he has basically been cheated.

It stopped for a while before, but he didn't expect that not only did it not completely stop, but it was revived.

Seeing that Charlie even dared to point to him, Jacob coldly snorted and said, "Don't talk so much nonsense, just send me over."

Charlie had no choice but to go against him, so he had to drive Jacob to Antique Street.

Aurous Hill is a famous historical city. It is located on the antique street outside the scenic spot. It is also well-known in China. Antique dealers and shoppers from all over the country gather here.

The local tourism department also took advantage of the trend and spent a lot of money to renovate the Antique Street and turn it into a tourist attraction.

When he arrived at Antique Street, Jacob came to the door of an antique shop and explained to the receptionist that he had an appointment. It was convenient to invite two people to the VIP room at the back to see the goods.

Charlie was about to follow in, but Jacob turned back and said, "Don't follow in. You can't understand it even if you come in. Wait for me at the door of the VIP room!"

Charlie nodded: "I know Dad!"

With his hands on his back, Jacob followed the reception staff into the VIP room, and Charlie sat down in the lounge area.

A few minutes later, Charlie suddenly heard a crisp sound coming from the VIP room.

Later, Charlie saw his old father-in-law coming out in a panic.

He still muttered: "It's over, it's over! This is over!"

Charlie hurriedly walked to the front and looked behind Jacob. He saw that a tall and thin ceramic bottle had fallen into two on the ground, and there were still many small ceramic fragments on the ground.

Through the fragments, we can vaguely see that the one that was broken should be a Thompson Dynasty jade pot spring bottle.

He had been in the Wade family since he was a child, and he was also very knowledgeable. You can tell at a glance that this bottle is a genuine antique, and it is not a big problem to sell it up to several million in the market.

It seems that Jacob has caused a major disaster this time.

In the VIP room, a middle-aged man said with a dark face: "Mr. Willson, our jade pot spring bottle at least cost five million. Now you have broken it, you must pay the price!"

This person is Liangyun, the manager of Jiqingtang.

Jacob pulled Charlie over, and said in a panic: "This is my rich son-in-law, do you know how much he has? Don't say just five million, even fifty million is nothing! It's nothing for him to pay at once. Talk to him! I have something to do, let's go now!"

After that, Jacob pushed Charlie in, turned his head, and ran out.

Charlie looked dumbfounded, this Old Master is too shameless, this is a clear plan to let him be a scapegoat!

Liangyun looked at Charlie and asked coldly, "This gentleman, a total of 5.38 million is due, are you swiping your card or transferring money?"

Charlie spread his hands: "I have no money."

He was not unable to afford it but wanted to teach the Old Master a lesson so that he would not be able to come to Antique Street every day.

"No money?" Liangyun gritted his teeth: "You smashed our most precious thing, do you think you can leave without money, just by hiding your assets?"

Charlie said helplessly: "I didn't want to hide anything, but I really don't have any money. Besides, I didn't smash your bottle. Why should you make me pay?"

Chapter 78:

Liangyun was out of luck: "Isn't that your father-in-law?"

Charlie nodded: "There you go, it's my father-in-law, not me. Whoever smashed it, find him to pay for it.?"

Liangyun was annoyed for a while, but what Charlie said also made sense.

He couldn't help but ask him to pay compensation, otherwise, the signboard of JiQingtang would be ruined.

So he hurriedly blurted out to a few people around him: "You guys, hurry up and get me back that old guy!"

Charlie watched them chasing the Old Master in a hurry, and he laughed and said nothing.

In fact, he could just swipe his card to pay the money, but then, wouldn't it be cheaper for his shameless Old Master?

Instead of that, it's better to let this old guy suffer.

Otherwise, if he encounters such a thing again in the future, he will cheat him shamelessly again.

All JiQingtang's people were dispatched and they all went to catch Mr. Jacob. Charlie was fine on his own, so he looked at the broken bottle on the ground.

The bottle is about half a meter high, and now it has broken into two halves and a pile of fragments, which is really a pity.

However, he suddenly noticed that something seemed to be hidden at the bottom of the lower half of the bottle.

He hurriedly reached in and took out a small wooden box!

Unexpectedly, there is such a mystery in this bottle!

The shape of the bottle has a small mouth and a big opening. The wooden box is obviously two or three times larger than the mouth of the bottle. It seems that this was not stuffed in the later stage, but when the bottle was made, the wooden box was used directly. The box is made in!

In this way, this wooden box should have been left by the Thompson Dynasty too!

He took the wooden box in his hand and looked at it carefully, then with a little force, he opened the wooden box with a snap.

As the wooden box opened, an extreme fragrance suddenly escaped, and Charlie took a sip, only feeling refreshed.

Take a closer look, inside the wooden box, lies an ancient book that is not as big as a palm!

Charlie picked up this very pocket-sized ancient book and saw four ancient seal characters written on the title page of the Jiuxuantianjing.

"This name is a bit interesting, I don't know what it is." Charlie opened the book and looked at it.

The first one is the medical technique, which records a large number of cases and treatment methods.

Charlie frowned slightly. He had also been in contact with traditional medicine and knew some basic theories of traditional medicine, but the content recorded in this book was obviously much better than the methods used in traditional medicine today.

Some methods of diagnosis and treatment are unheard of. Even at the end of the medical technique chapter, Charlie also saw alchemy, the effect of some pills, which is simply beyond the real knowledge of society.

Charlie became interested and sat on the ground, constantly flipping.

Unexpectedly, in the Nine Profound Sky Sutras, there are also the contents of Feng Shui fortune-telling, as well as various magical methods such as treasure inspection and restoration, in addition to many other strange things.

Charlie looked at it for a long time, only to feel that every word in the book was digging into his mind, his heart was like boiling water.

This is a peerless treasure!

Chapter 79:

Charlie was overjoyed and immediately prepared to stuff the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures into his arms.

As a result, the book immediately turned into powder and disappeared.

However, every word in the book was clearly printed in Charlie's brain.

At this time, Jacob who ran away was brutally escorted back by several big and three rough men.

Seeing the redness and swelling on both sides of his face, it seems that it was a grab for a gasp!

Looking at his embarrassed appearance, Charlie just wanted to laugh.

This old guy, it is outrageous to want to throw the pot at him after getting into trouble! Letting him take a lesson is a punishment.

The Old Master, Jacob, was particularly embarrassed at this time. He ran desperately just now and was exhausted.

But he didn't have a car key either. He was old and fat, and couldn't run fast. How could he compete with these young people?

So after a few meetings, he was caught, tied back, and slapped several times. It was really miserable to get home.

Several people caught Jacob back, and manager Liangyun gritted his teeth and said: "Old thing, you want to run after you smashed our bottle? You don't want to pay Jiqingtang!"

The Old Master in horror said, "I didn't mean it, it's because this bottle is too slippery."

Liangyun said coldly: "Stop talking nonsense with me! I will give you an afternoon to raise money. If you can't afford it, I will report and warn you of deliberately damaging other people's property. The case value of more than five million is enough for you to sit in prison. Now!"

Jacob trembled in fright. He looked at Charlie as if he saw a life-saving straw: "Charlie, my good son-in-law! I will die if you don't save me!"

Charlie said helplessly: "Dad, I don't have that much money!"

Jacob hurriedly blurted out: "Then you will go to jail instead of me! My family has supported you for so long, and it's time for you to repay you!"

Charlie thought to himself, why do you have the face to say such things?

Just as he was about to refuse, the middle-aged man took the lead and said: "If you are wronged, you have a debtor, our Jiqingtang is the most trustworthy business. You broke the bottle and you have to pay for it!"

After all, he said to Charlie: "You can go, but it's best to help him raise enough money, otherwise, after this afternoon, I will send him to the police station!"

Charlie nodded lightly.

Jacob was frightened and cried and said, "Good son-in-law, you can't go! What should I do if you leave!"

Charlie couldn't help being amused when he saw him so frightened.

But of course, he can't laugh on the face.

He was trying to find an excuse to raise money to leave, and let the Old Master stay here to suffer.

But it suddenly occurred to him that there was an ancient method of repairing porcelain artifacts in the shop just now, so he thought, "Manager if I can repair that jade pot spring bottle, can you let him go?"

Liangyun sneered and said, "Who do you think you are, and you need to restore the antiques. To tell you the truth, I have sent the photos to the Aurous Hill cultural relic appraisal experts."

Charlie shook his head and said: "Your bottle is broken, it's useless to keep it, I will try it without losing anything."

Liangyun sneered disdainfully, and said, "Okay, right? Okay! I want to see what you can do!"

Charlie said, "Prepare me a piece of rice paper, a brush, and five eggs. The eggs will be raw."

Liangyun waited to see what kind of joke Charlie would make, and without hesitation, he quickly found a basket of raw eggs for Charlie.

But he still couldn't help but ridiculed: "Use eggs to repair cultural relics. I have never seen such a method. I warn you, don't play tricks. Either you pay compensation or we take your father-in-law to court. Five million is enough for your father-in-law to sit in prison for a lifetime."

Chapter 80:

Charlie nodded and said, "What if I fix it?"

Liangyun coldly hummed, "If it is verified by professionals and it is repaired and most of the losses can be recovered, then you can go!"

"Okay!" Charlie nodded: "A word is a deal!"

After speaking, he immediately stopped talking to him, picked up the writing brush, and outlined the outline of the Yuhuchun bottle on the rice paper.

Afterward, he knocked the egg in a small mouth, dipped a little egg white with his index finger, wiped it on a fragment of the bottle, pressed it on the paper model, and then picked up a piece and pressed it on. The paper model was gradually being antiqued. The fragments are posted on Everyone kept silent, for fear of interrupting his repair process.

Soon, half an hour passed.

When Charlie straightened up again, what appeared in front of everyone was a Thompson Dynasty jade pot spring bottle that looked like a new.

He smiled at Liangyun and said, "You can see where there are flaws."

Liangyun picked up the bottle and looked up and down a few times before he said disdainfully: "Are you teasing me? You f*cking paste it with egg liquid, even if it's repaired? I will break your leg and paste it with egg liquid. Ok?"

"Don't mess with that bottle!"

At this moment, a clear and urgent voice suddenly came from the door.

Immediately afterward, a glamorous beauty in a small white casual suit stepped in.

She has a beautiful face, a perfect and tall figure, close to a height of 1.7 meters, exuding a luxurious aura, those beautiful eyes look into the room, her eyes are full of cold and arrogance, like a queen of frost.

The moment Liangyun saw this woman, his face changed drastically, and he quickly lowered his head respectfully and said, "Miss, why are you here?"

The visitor is the actual owner of Jiqingtang, Warnia Song, the eldest of the Song family, the top family of Aurous Hill.

Warnia snorted coldly, and said angrily: "I'm afraid I don't come, you will ruin all this shop! What's the matter?"

Liangyun smiled wryly and quickly replied: "A customer accidentally broke the bottle while looking at it. His son-in-law repaired it with an egg. I was about to say that such a repair is worthless, and I want to talk to them about compensation."

Warnia leaned to the edge of the antique bottle and observed for a while, her complexion suddenly changed!

Then, she immediately turned her head and scolded Liangyun and said, "Quickly let go! Whoever makes you don't understand, just touch it!"

Liangyun was immediately stunned: "Miss, what are you?"

Warnia said angrily: "This is a cultural relic that has just been restored. Except for the restoration experts, other people can't touch them with their hands for the time being. Don't you understand this rule?"

Liangyun hesitated and said, "This is just using egg liquid to paste it again, isn't it a repair?"

Warnia's beautiful eyes were angry, and she scolded: "You idiot, after the bottle is repaired, the price will at least double, but because you touch it with your hand, you will lose at least two million! You pack your things and don't come tomorrow! "

She had seen a porcelain plate in the same period at an auction in Hong Kong.

The history of the porcelain plate is very interesting. It is porcelain of the Thompson Dynasty. It was broken in the Song Dynasty and repaired by skilled craftsmen in the Song Dynasty in the same way.

And because this repair method is extremely rare and has long been lost in history, the final transaction price of the porcelain plate was 13 million, which far exceeded the actual value of the porcelain plate.

Now that this bottle was repaired by Charlie with a lost technique, the value of the bottle will rise!

Liangyun's face was pale, and he didn't expect that if he just touched the jade pot spring bottle, he would have caused such a big loss and lost his job.

Warnia then asked, "Where is the man who repaired this jade pot spring bottle? Take me to see him."

Chapter 81

Liangyun was shocked!

He never dreamed that this egg-repaired bottle would become a more precious treasure!

So he hurriedly pointed at Charlie: "Miss, this gentleman repaired it."

Warnia glanced at Charlie, wondering in her heart that he was too young to have such a lost cultural relic restoration technique?

With a faint smile, Warnia asked politely: "I am Warnia from the Song family. Dare to ask which cultural relic master you studied?"

Jacob, the horrified old father-in-law, heard Warnia's name and was immediately speechless!

Song family!

The Song family is the top family in Aurous Hill! Although the strength is not comparable to those of Eastcliff's superfamilies, in Aurous Hill, it is really a giant that no one can match!

He really didn't expect that he could meet the Song family's eldest here!

Here, Charlie doesn't feel much about Warnia's identity. Although the Song family is very powerful, it is still a family of hundreds of billions of assets. Compared with the Wade family's trillions of assets, that's a difference of 100,000. Eight thousand miles.

So he said faintly: "My name is Charlie, but I don't have any masters or expertise."

Immediately afterward, Charlie said again: "My father-in-law broke your jade pot spring bottle. I repaired it. Please also appraise the specific value to see if we still need to pay compensation."

Warnia shook her head and smiled: "After you have repaired it, this bottle has far exceeded its original value. Logically speaking, it should be our Jiqingtang who owes you now."

Charlie smiled faintly: "You don't need to be so polite, since this side has been processed, then my father-in-law and I should leave."

Warnia's big eyes turned slightly, and she smiled and said, "Sir, I don't know what your surname is and how you are called? Can you leave contact information for future communication?"

With that, Warnia took out her business card, handed it over, and said, "Sir, this is my business card. Please accept it."

Charlie nodded, accepted the business card, and said lightly: "My name is Charlie Wade, but I don't have a business card."

"It doesn't matter." Warnia said: "Is it convenient for Mr. Charlie to leave the phone number?"

Charlie felt that it was not a bad thing to know more people, and this Warnia looked very polite and humble, not like an arrogant and domineering person, and looked pleasing to the eye.

So he exchanged mobile phone numbers with Warnia.

Warnia then said, "Mr. Charlie, do you want me to send a car to take you two back?"

Charlie waved his hand and said, "No, we came by car."

Warnia nodded and said: "That's I must see you off!"

Afterward, Warnia sent the two to the BMW 530, watched Charlie drive away, and walked slowly back to Jiqingtang.

Charlie drove back, and the Old Master couldn't help asking him: "Charlie, who did you learn the craft of cultural relics from?"

Naturally, Charlie couldn't say that he found a magical Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets in the bottle he broke. After all, this book is so magical. There are so much content in it that he still needs to digest slowly. Things cannot be told to anyone.

So he said casually: "Learned from a sweeping uncle in the orphanage."

The Old Master nodded and sighed: "It's really fortunate. If you didn't have this ability, I'm afraid I would have to go to jail."

After that, the Old Master hurriedly asked: "That's right! You must not tell your mother about this matter, you know?"

Chapter 82:

Charlie nodded: "I know Dad."

The Old Master breathed a sigh of relief, rubbed his face, and said annoyed: "If I knew you had this craft, then I won't have run. I was tired and half-dead, and I was slapped a few times. d*mn, bad luck!"

After speaking, he asked Charlie: "Can you still see the mark on my face?"

Charlie said: "There is still a little redness."

Jacob hummed and said, "If your mother asks when we get home, you will say that I accidentally hit a telephone pole."

When they got home, Charlie was too busy to go to the vegetable market to buy vegetables and cook.

He called Claire and asked her what she wanted to eat, but she replied that she was going to meet Doris's construction plan in the evening, and Doris was going to entertain her for dinner at the Imperial Group.

Immediately afterward, Doris also sent him a text message, saying: "Mr. Wade, Mrs. Wade is about to start work here, so she may be busy in the near future, please don't mind."

Charlie is not an unreasonable person. Knowing that business matters are important, he replied: "The company's meals must be well. Don't let her eat boxed lunch."

Doris said immediately: "Don't worry, I will arrange the company's executive restaurant to make the best dinner to entertain young lady."

"Well, well done."

Since his wife won't come home for dinner, Charlie didn't pay much attention to it. He bought some ingredients and went home to make a home-cooked meal for the old man and mother-in-law.

After eating, the old couple went out to have some square dance. Charlie was at home by himself, still thinking of some mysterious contents in the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets.

At this moment, he suddenly received a call from Darren.

Charlie didn't want to answer his call. This kid was really a little fascinated, so he kindly reminded him, but he turned his face with anger, which made him feel a little suffocated.

But thinking about him, he was pitiful enough, so Charlie still answered the phone and asked him, "Is there anything wrong?"

On the other end of the phone, Darren sobbed vaguely: "Charlie, good brother, I'm sorry! I blamed you!"

Charlie heard him cry hard, feeling a little intolerable, and asked him, "Do you know the truth now?"

Darren cried and said, "After you finished talking to me, the more I thought about it, the more I felt something was wrong, and then through the positioning of her iPhone, I found a villa, but I knocked on the door and went in to catch them. I was beaten up by that man, his driver, and housekeeper, and then I was dragged to the hospital by emergency service."

Speaking of this, Darren collapsed and cried: "Charlie, it is your brother that was blind and blamed you. You must not be angry with me. You are my only good friend. If you turn your face away, I really don't have anything when I'm in Aurous Hill"

Charlie sighed and said, "I don't blame you, which hospital are you in now?"

"I'm in the People's Hospital." Darren said, "My leg was hit by him with a baseball bat. The doctor said that I could not get out of bed during this period. The painting you gave me was taken by me when I went after them. Can you please help me to mortgage this painting to the pawnshop, all my money has gone into the hotel, and now I have no money and no money for treatment?"

Upon hearing this, Charlie immediately questioned: "Did those who hurt you not pay for the medical bill?"

"No"

"Have you called the police?"

"Reported, it's useless, the police said I broke into the house without permission, and they beat me, which is a legitimate defense."

"Unreasonable!" Charlie furiously said: "You wait, I will come there!"

Chapter 83

People's Hospital.

Darren is lying on the bed in the emergency department.

He was hurt everywhere, and his right leg was also put in a cast, looking very pitiful.

Charlie couldn't help but sympathize, a big man who misunderstood the woman, and as a result, not only his heart was broken, but his body was beaten like this.

When Darren saw him come in, tears burst into his eyes, swollen like eggs.

"Charlie" Darren couldn't help crying as soon as he spoke.

Charlie walked to the front and said lightly: "Okay, it's just a b*tch, it's not worth your sadness."

Darren cried and said: "I chased her for three years. For her, I had no dignity in these years. I completely turned into a licking dog. I thought I would have everything in the end, but I didn't expect it to end like this. Finally, there is nothing for me."

Darren cried out of breath and said, "That b*tch, not only wants to break up with me but also wants me to leave the house! Most of the money I have made in the past few years has been spent on her. The 100,000 deposit was also invested in the hotel, but she doesn't even want to pay it back to me. I was so blind, how could I like such a terrible woman."

Charlie persuaded him: "Darren if a man can afford to put it down, he should fall down and get up again! What about the painting I gave you? That painting can sell for at least 200,000, enough for you to start a little business again."

Darren nodded and said, "The painting is in my arms. Fortunately, you reminded me of that and I brought the painting. Otherwise, she must have taken the painting away!"

Charlie said: "It's fine if the painting is still there. You can lie down and calm down. I'll buy you some fruits and pay the hospitalization fee by the way."

Darren was moved to tears: "Charlie, good brother, thank you so much, don't worry, I will return the money to you in the future!"

Charlie said lightly: "Okay, we're brothers, so talk less nonsense."

After speaking, he left the ward.

He was in a hurry just now and didn't care about shopping. Seeing Darren so pitiful, Charlie couldn't bear it, so he went to buy him some fruit and swiped his card to deposit one hundred thousand for hospitalization.

When returning to the ward, Charlie found that the door of the ward had been pushed open.

When he came to the front, he found that Lili was standing in front of Darren's bed with Zhaodong in her arms.

Seeing the two of them coming in, Darren asked loudly, "What are you doing here? here to make fun of me?"

Lili sneered: "Who doesn't see you as a clown!"

After speaking, she didn't forget to spit on the ground, and then said: "I'm here to ask you for the painting! Where did you hide it? Give it to me quickly!"

Darren said angrily: "Lili, my brother gave me that painting. Why do you need it?"

"Give it to you?" Lili snorted coldly: "Your mother figured out why Charlie gave the painting to me? It was a gift for the opening of the restaurant! Whose restaurant is it? It belongs to my dad!"

Darren didn't expect Lili to be so shameless, and his angry voice trembled: "Lili, don't go too far! Your restaurant still has the 100,000 I invested, and you must return the 100,000 to me. As for the painting, it was given to me by my good brother. Have you heard it? Given it to me!"

Chapter 84:

Lili said contemptuously: "Stop the f*cking bullshit with me. The restaurant has nothing to do with you. I won't give you a penny. The painting belongs to the restaurant. If you don't bring it out, I will call the police immediately. Just say you stole that painting from my restaurant!"

Zhaodong on the side also sneered: "Boy, I advise you to get to know yourself better. My network in Aurous Hill is something you can't afford. If you don't hand over the painting, I just need to say hello to the Public Security Bureau. They Will arrest you immediately! Two hundred thousand case value is enough for you to go to prison for ten years!"

Darren's tears kept streaming, and he asked Lili: "I have done my best to you these years and gave you everything I could give you. Even if you don't appreciate it, you don't have to be like this, right?"

Lili disdainfully said: "Appreciate? What are you? I tell you, I have never liked you. You are not worthy of my liking! Only a man like Zhaodong deserves my liking!"

Zhaodong also smiled and said: "I forgot to tell you, Lili and I are in harmony in bed!"

Lili said shyly: "Oh, Zhaodong, why are you talking about this? Don't make me feel shy."

"Shy?" Zhaodong laughed and said, "Why don't we close the door and show it in front of this Rubbish and show him how you serve me?"

"Oh, no, it's too shameful!"

Darren couldn't stand it anymore. He picked up the pillow and slammed it over, cursing, "Dog man and woman, get out of my face!"

Zhaodong grabbed the pillow and snorted coldly: "I warn you, if you don't hand over the painting, I will break your other leg and throw you into jail!"

After listening to this outside, Charlie suddenly walked into the ward and shouted angrily: "Dare to hurt my brother and seek death!"

Zhaodong turned his head, looked at Charlie, and asked, "Who are you?"

Lili said: "This person is Charlie, the person who sent the painting."

Zhaodong laughed loudly: "Oh, who I thought it was? It turned out to be the rubbish who eats leftovers! His name is unknown to everyone in Aurous Hill!"

After that, Zhaodong looked at Charlie coldly, and said, "I will give you three seconds to get out. I can treat you as if you haven't been here!"

Charlie said disdainfully: "Let me get out? What are you?"

Zhaodong gritted his teeth and said: "Boy, dare to pretend in front of Zhaodong?"

Charlie said coldly: "I don't care if you are Zhaodong, zero, or diarrhea. You make me very upset today. I will give you a chance to kneel on the ground and give my brother three heads and let my brother break your One leg, otherwise, you will die an ugly death!"

Hearing this, Zhaodong seemed to laugh a few times. Then, his expression gradually solidified, and he said coldly: "Boy, what are you talking about? Let me kneel down? Are you tired of living?"

Lili couldn't help but ridicule on the side: "Charlie, are you stupid? Pretending to force Zhaodong, do you think you have a long life?"

Charlie said coldly: "Don't talk to me, smelly brazer!"

"You" Lili suddenly became angry and said to Zhaodong: "Honey! He dares to scold me! Find someone to kill him! I want to tear his mouth!"

Zhaodong gritted his teeth and said: "I don't know anything good or bad! I'll call someone to kill you, you wait!"

Charlie suddenly laughed when he heard this, and said, "Well, if you don't kill me, you and this smelly filth will both die miserably!"

Chapter 85:

Zhaodong immediately made a call and said loudly, "Seven brothers, I am at the People's Hospital now. Bring a few brothers here, I am going to give you a kid to take care of!"

Charlie did not call, but directly sent a text message to Mr. Orvel: "Come to the People's Hospital, someone wants to kill me."

Orvel immediately called back and blurted out, "Mr. Charlie, which dog is not long-eyed and doesn't want to live?"

Charlie said lightly: "Stop talking nonsense, just come over directly."

Orvel immediately said, "Mr. Charlie, don't worry, I'll be here!"

When Zhaodong saw that Charlie was also on the phone, he sneered: "What? Can you call someone too?"

Charlie sneered and said, "I said it will make you die miserably!"

Zhaodong seemed to have heard this joke, and sneered: "Are you out of your mind? In Aurous Hill, someone who can make me die miserably, no mother has given birth to such a man!"

Darren on the hospital bed struggled to sit up and said anxiously: "Charlie, you go quickly, don't mess with this guy, you can't mess with him."

Charlie walked up to him, pushed him back on the bed, and said lightly: "Just lie down."

Darren said eagerly: "You don't know the origin of Zhaodong, his family is very powerful in Aurous Hill"

Charlie peeled an orange, stuffed it into his mouth, and said, "The person I can't afford to offend hasn't been born yet!"

Lili laughed and said, "Oh my god, you can really brag, do you know what Zhaodong does at home?"

Charlie said: "I don't know what his family does, I only know that he will be a disabled person for the rest of his life!"

After finishing speaking, he said: "Oh yes, so you!"

Lili's face turned black immediately: "Well, since you are looking for death, then wait!"

Charlie asked Darren at this time: "Does Lili's father Yuesheng know about you being beaten?"

"He knows." Darren said, "I called him."

Charlie nodded and asked: "What did he say?"

Darren looked angry and said: "He said that it is young people's affairs, he can't control it! That means he doesn't want me to be there!"

Charlie asked again: "Then you invested the 100,000 in the hotel, did you ask him for it?"

"Yes!" Darren's expression became even more annoyed and gritted his teeth: "This Old Master actually said that my 100,000 was not invested in a restaurant and that he was honored as a future son-in-law. He also said that I was not qualified to go back. He will not return it to me!"

"Unreasonable!" Charlie snorted coldly, "No wonder there is such a cheap daughter, so he is a scumbag!"

"Charlie, what are you talking about?" Lili suddenly became angry, and blurted out: "Dare to scold my dad, I think you are tired of life, right?"

After speaking, she shook Zhaodong's arm hurriedly, begging: "Darling, he dare to scold my dad, you beat him to death for me!"

Zhaodong is a playboy, he is not very tall, and his physical fitness is very average. Standing in front of Charlie, he is half short. What's more, Charlie does all kinds of housework at home every day, goes to bed and wakes early, and has excellent physical fitness. If he started with Charlie, it would be impossible to win over Charlie.

What's more, Charlie studied martial arts with his father when he was a child. After his parents passed away, he never failed to practice kung fu in the orphanage. It is precisely by virtue of the one-piece boxing skills he learned since childhood that he could not be bullied in the orphanage.

Therefore, if he really starts, let alone Zhaodong, even if it is five Zhaodongs, they may not stand as Charlie's opponents.

Zhaodong also knew very well in his heart that if he did it now, he would not take advantage at all, and he would probably be beaten again. So he touched Lili's hand and comforted: "Baby, don't worry, Brother has already sent someone here. Just wait here! When they arrive, I will kill him!"

Chapter 86

Charlie then sent a text message to Issac in Shangri-La: "What is the origin of Zhaodong in Aurous Hill?"

Issac quickly replied: "The business at home is mainly engaged in jade shareholders and pawn auctions, so the strength is the same. Did he offend you?"

"Yeah." Charlie replied with a message: "I have asked Mr. Orvel to come over. Besides, you do something for me."

Issac hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, please say!"

Charlie said, "I want you to bring Zhaodong's father to the People's Hospital, as well as an old guy in Aurous Hill who is engaged in cultural relic identification, named Yuesheng, and bring them to me."

Issac immediately said: "OK master, I will escort them to see you personally!"

Charlie said: "You don't need to come forward, just send someone to do it. I don't want people to know that we know each other."

"OK Master! Then should I let people teach those two old things?"

Charlie said, "Catch it first, then give it to you."

"Okay, young master! Everything is up to you, and I will order it!"

Putting away the phone, Charlie looked at Zhaodong and Lili and said coldly: "They say that the son is not a godfather. I will let your Old Master come over later and talk about how they educate the two of you!"

Zhaodong said with a black face: "Boy, I advise you to stop at enough, otherwise when the person I call arrives, you might really be dead!"

Charlie snorted: "Let the person you call come sooner, I can't wait."

Zhaodong wanted to insult Charlie. At this time, the door of the ward was kicked open, and a guy with a face full of flesh rushed in with seven or eight men.

When Zhaodong saw him, he immediately pointed to Charlie and said, "Seven brothers, this kid, help me kill him!"

The Brother Qi frowned and said coldly: "You provoke my brother?"

Charlie smiled lightly, nodded, and said: "What? Are you going to stand up for him?"

Brother Qi looked at him suspiciously. This kid was talking face-to-face. He hadn't seen him before and didn't know the details, but why was he not afraid of himself at all?

So he tentatively asked: "Boy, where do you come from?"

Charlie said, "This city is my home."

Zhaodong hurriedly added: "Seven brothers, this is a live-in son-in-law who eats leftovers."

After speaking, he whispered in his ear again: "Brother Qi, this kid has no background, you can fight to the death without worry, I will carry it if something happens."

"Eating soft rice?" Brother Qi grinned and said: "Okay, I hack his mouth off his face, I see how he can eat soft rice!"

After speaking, before Charlie could answer, he immediately waved to the men behind him: "d*mn, kill him for me!"

Zhaodong looked at Charlie and sneered: "What are the last words, Mr. Charlie?"

Charlie ignored him, looked at the Brother Qi, and said lightly: "Kneel down, I'll spare your life."

Brother Qi was stunned, and drew out his ears, frowned, and asked, "What did you say? Say it again, I promise you will not survive tonight!"

At this moment, a roar suddenly came from outside the door: "Little man, Mr. Charlie asked you to kneel down. Are you deaf?"

Brother Qi's expression stunned, Orvel unexpectedly came!

Chapter 87

As soon as the voice fell, Orvel rushed in with Biao and dozens of other men.

As soon as he entered the door, he immediately greeted Biao: "Seal the door, no other people are allowed to enter!"

Biao nodded immediately: "I know that master Orvel!"

Brother Qi looked at Orvel dumbfounded, his brain was completely cut off.

Orvel!

The underground emperor of Aurous Hill City!

Brother Qi is just one of the local small bosses, but Orvel is the king of the local roads!

All people on the streets must worship Orvel's wharf!

He couldn't even dream that if he came to help Zhaodong deal with a little thing, he would actually alarm Orvel!

Zhaodong didn't know Orvel. Seeing Brother Qi's awkward look, he frowned and asked, "Brother Qi, what's going on? Who is this old guy?"

As soon as these words came out, Brother Qi was trembling in shock.

He grabbed Zhaodong's hair and slammed his face with a fierce punch, directly breaking his nose, and watching his two nostrils bleed, Brother Qi gritted his teeth and cursed: "You filth, don't drag me down if you want to die! This is Mr. Orvel!"

"Ah?!" Zhaodong was frightened suddenly!

Orvel?!

Underground Emperor of Aurous Hill City?!

Why is he here?!

At this time, Orvel walked over with a black face and kicked Brother Qi's crotch. The kick made him feel terribly painful, and he knelt on the ground, his face extremely pale.

Orvel stared at him and said coldly, "You dared to provoke Mr. Charlie, have you lived enough?"

After finishing speaking, Orvel immediately said to Charlie, ashamed: "Mr. Charlie, I am late, please forgive me!"

Orvel's respectful attitude towards Charlie shocked everyone on the scene.

Zhaodong realized what kind of character he had provoked, and he was shaking all over with fright.

Charlie nodded to Mr. Orvel, pointed to Brother Qi, and asked, "Do you know this person?"

Mr. Orvel said: "I know, it's just a junior, who provokes Mr. Charlie with blind eyes. What should Mr. Charlie want to do? In one word, Mr. Orvel will do it right away!" live.

Charlie nodded and said, "He's very horrible, and he will destroy me when he enters the house. It is a hazard for such a person to stay in society. Abolish him and make him inseparable from a wheelchair for the rest of his life. "

Brother Qi was scared suddenly!

He just relied on fighting and fighting to eat. If he really becomes a cripple who can't do without a wheelchair, how can he mess around on the road in the future? Wouldn't it be over for a lifetime!

He knelt on the ground, climbed up to Charlie on his knees, and cried, "Mr. Charlie, I didn't know you. Please forgive me. I will never offend you again!"

Charlie said coldly: "I gave you a chance, but you were not sure."

He still felt that Charlie was looking for death at the time, but now he realized that it was not him who was looking for death, it was himself!

Panicked, he immediately knocked his head to the floor, crying, and said, "Mr. Charlie, please give me another chance and spare my dog's life!"

Charlie ignored him. Instead, he looked at Mr. Orvel and asked: "Don't do it yet, what are you waiting for?"

Mr. Orvel's expression was stunned, and he hurriedly said: "Come here! Break his kneecap to pieces!"

Immediately several younger men rushed up and pressed the big font of Brother Qi to the floor.

Chapter 88

At this time, Biao pulled out an iron rod and strode forward.

Brother Qi wanted to beg for mercy, but Biao gathered the iron rod directly above his head and slammed it down.

Click!

Brother Qi's right kneecap was smashed into powder!

This kind of crushing injury is impossible to cure in this life!

Brother Qi was wailing in pain, but Charlie said at this time: "It's not enough. Only one leg is made worthless. He can still use crutches. I want him to live in a wheelchair!"

Biao nodded immediately, raised the steel rod, and slammed it on Brother Qi's left knee.

Brother Qi rolled all over the floor in pain, and his whole body was in shock.

Orvel said to Biao, "Put something in his mouth so as not to disturb Mr. Charlie!"

"OK Master Orvel!"

Immediately afterward, Biao stuffed a few pieces of gauze into Brother Qi's mouth, and threw him on the ground, curled up like a dead dog.

Zhaodong was already pale with fright, he finally understood what kind of existence he had angered!

Before Charlie took the trouble, he took the initiative to kneel on the ground and kowtowed his head: "Charlie, Mr. Charlie, I was wrong. I shouldn't be rude to you, please have mercy on me!"

Lili was also shocked, seeing Zhaodong kneeling down and begging for mercy, she also knelt down and kept kowtow apologizing.

Charlie said coldly: "You couple of dogs, do you really think that if you ask for mercy, I will let you go? You are really stupid and naive!"

The two shuddered.

At this time, a few people in black walked in with two middle-aged and elderly people who were tied up.

The two middle-aged and elderly people had been beaten, bruised, and bleeding.

They threw the two middle-aged people to the ground and bowed to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, the person you want is here!"

Zhaodong and Lili glanced at them, and almost fainted on the spot in shock!

The two middle-aged and elderly people lying on the ground are Zhaodong's father, Zhao Haifeng, and Lili's father, Yuesheng!

Charlie asked people to pour cold water on the faces of Zhao Haifeng and Yuesheng, pour them sober, and then questioned Yuesheng: "Mr. Yuesheng, your daughter is provocative and casually cuckolding fiance. Do you know this?"

Yuesheng was frightened. He was beaten up before he came in. Knowing that his daughter had caused stubborn stubbornness this time, he kept shaking his head in order to protect himself: "I don't know, I don't know."

Charlie nodded and said, "You don't know, do you? You don't know it's father's oversight and negligence! Biao, break his left knee for me! Just like you did to the dead dog just now!"

"Good!" Biao immediately said to the people around him: "Hold him down for me!"

Yuesheng shouted in fright: "No! Help!"

Lili also shouted in shock: "Dad!"

Biao didn't hesitate, when his subordinates held Yuesheng's leg, he immediately swung the steel rod and slammed it down.

"what"

Yuesheng only felt the pain and wanted to die, his knees had been completely shattered, and she was afraid it would be impossible to recover in this life.

At this time, Charlie asked again: "I'll ask you again, your daughter is sloppy and cuckolds her fiance casually. Do you know this?"

Yuesheng cried and said, "I know, I know, it's because I can't discipline her, I must discipline her well in the future."

Charlie snorted coldly: "Since you know this, why don't you stop it? You know your daughter is making mistakes but don't care about teaching, that's because your father's three views are not correct and you are helping you to abuse!"

After finishing speaking, he shouted angrily at Biao: "Biao, give me his other leg!"

Chapter 89

Yuesheng didn't expect that admitting his mistake would not work, Charlie still didn't plan to let him go!

The whole person frightened, fell into a coma.

However, Biao's steel rod made him awakened by severe pain in an instant!

"What!!!"

Yuesheng has lived for most of her life. Why did he suffer for such a crime?

He was in tears, crying desperately: "Mr. Charlie, I really know that I was wrong. From now on I will strictly discipline this unfilial girl, and I will never let her do this kind of hurtful things."

Charlie said disdainfully: "You are quite shirking of responsibility!"

In a word, Yuesheng trembled instantly!

Charlie sternly asked: "Mr. Yuesheng, I ask you! My brother invested 100,000 in your hotel, why didn't you refund it? Why did you say that my brother did not honor you?"

Yuesheng's face was pale and hurriedly said, "I was wrong, I was wrong! I was greedy and shameless, I really know I was wrong!"

After he finished speaking, he looked at Darren who was angry on the bed, and blurted out and pleaded: "Darren, it's me who s lost the mind. Don't worry, I will pay you back this 100,000 with interest, please follow me. Mr. Charlie said pity, this old bone of mine really can't stand the tossing."

Charlie looked at Darren and asked, "Are you going to intercede for him?"

Darren shook his head resolutely, and blurted out: "No! I won't intercede for any of them!"

"Okay!" Charlie nodded in satisfaction: "You are still a man!"

After finishing speaking, he turned his head to Yuesheng, who was desperate, and said, "Not only do you have no way to teach your son, you are also disrespectful, and you are trying to invade all my brother's savings over the past few years. What is the difference between you and low-life?"

Yuesheng shivered in fright, crying and wailing: "Mr. Charlie, I'm a b@stard! I'm not a human! I'm damned! forgive me, forgive me, I beg you, I'll be a cow and a horse for you in the future. From now on I will call you Grandpa, Grandpa Wade, please forgive me!"

Charlie sneered and said, "Spare you? It seems that although you are ugly, you think beautifully!"

After that, he said to Biao: "Take his right hand for me! I think he will dare not snatch other people's things in the future!"

Yuesheng cried in despair: "No, Mr. Charlie, no."

Biao simply smashed hard

"Ah, my hand, my hand"

Charlie said to Biao, "Get his mouth and pull it aside!"

"It is good!"

Biao immediately blocked his mouth and threw him together with Brother Qi.

Lili was so scared that she was going crazy.

Zhaodong is the same.

The same goes for Zhaodong's father, Zhao Haifeng!

He looked at Zhaodong, slapped angrily, and cursed: "Dog b@stard! Who made you mess around outside! You are going to kill me!"

Charlie looked at Zhao Haifeng with a smile, and asked, "What? Your son got together with my brother's fiancée and gave my brother a cuckold. Don't you know how to be a father?"

Zhao Haifeng cried with fright.

He didn't know how to answer.

Because just now Yuesheng's lessons for the past are there for him to get the idea.

If you say you know, your right leg will be broken;

If you don't know, your left leg will be broken

Chapter 90

Seeing that he didn't dare to answer, Charlie said directly to Biao: "This old guy seems to be very shrewd, he thinks he can escape punishment without speaking, Biao, you just scrap his two legs!"

"Yes, Mr. Charlie!"

Charlie looked at Zhao Haifeng who was extremely flustered, and said coldly: "blame your son for harming you!"

Immediately afterward, with two desperate wailings, Zhao Haifeng's two legs were completely scrapped!

Seeing that his father was smashed into a permanent disability, Zhaodong felt out of control for a while, and immediately afterward, a piece of yellowish smelly liquid leaked out of his crotch.

He was so scared and it was pee!

Charlie smiled coldly: "Okay, it seems that you are really a mess who can't control that stuff. Today, all of this is caused by your inability to control it. I don't think you can keep it anymore."

After finishing speaking, he told Biao: "Let him never be a man!"

Biao's expression flashed with a little bit of amazement.

The same man, he couldn't help but tighten his crotch when he heard this command.

Orvel immediately yelled, "What are you doing in a daze? Don't you hurry up to follow Mr. Charlie's instructions!"

Biao immediately recovered, and said to the people around him: "Split the b@stard's legs!"

Zhaodong was desperate and cried loudly: "Mr. Charlie, Mr. Wade, please forgive me! Even if you abolish my hands and feet, let me be a man!"

Charlie smiled: "Do you think this is a question of abolishing hands and feet and abolishing that stuff? You are wrong, this is a double choice question, you can't escape either!"

Immediately afterward, Biao raised his foot and stepped down suddenly

Zhaodong completely became a eunuch!

However, this is not over yet!

According to Charlie's request, Biao abolished his hands and feet!

The arrogant Zhaodong who cuckold others and even beat others into the hospital has completely become waste in a double sense, but no one sympathizes with him, and everything he has today is just for himself!

Now, only Lili is left intact.

At this time, Lili was almost insane. She knelt and crawled to the hospital bed, took Darren's hand, and cried and said: "Husband, I'm sorry, husband, I should not have betrayed you, in fact, I really love you, but I was assaulted once by the Zhaodong. He took a photo of me. I have no choice but to let him at his mercy!"

Zhaodong scolded angrily: "Lili, you dare to slander me! Obviously, it was the pawn shop where you and your dad came to me. You see that my family has the money to hook me up and take the initiative to sleep with me! Otherwise, it won't have been possible to get together with you!"

As he said, he cried and said to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, don't believe in this frame. I have a chat history. She took the initiative to add me to WeChat to confess to me, saying that she fell in love with me at first sight, and she took the initiative to send me several messages. Private photos and close-ups to seduce me! These pictures are in my photo album, you can take out my phone and have a look!"

Lili suddenly paled and scolded, "The Zhaodong, didn't you promise me to delete the photo after seeing it?"

Zhaodong gritted his teeth and said: "You frame is really snake-hearted! Fortunately, I didn't listen to you and saved the photo, otherwise, I won't be killed by you!"

Lili hurriedly said to Darren again: "My husband, I am confused for a while! For the sake of our relationship for so many years, please forgive me!"

Charlie asked Darren: "What do you think?"

Darren glanced at Lili, reached out and pushed her aside, and said, "I don't know this woman."

Lili suddenly collapsed and cried!

Charlie said: "If this is the case, then break her legs, and then disfigure her so that she can no longer hook up with men for a while!"

Charlie didn't have the slightest sympathy for Lili, a b!tch natured sl*tty woman!

Biao immediately broke Lili's legs and her face according to the instructions, and even cut her hair with medical scissors!

So far, all five people have paid a painful price!

Chapter 91

Charlie asked them to drag all these five people up, and said coldly: "Today, I spared you five dogs, but if any of you dare to disclose everything that happened today, I will kill his whole family and understand?"

The five immediately nodded frantically.

It is a blessing in misfortune to be able to pick up life at this time, how dare to disobey Charlie's meaning!

Seeing that these five people were completely convinced by his own treatment, Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said to Lili's father and Yuesheng: "If you cheat my brother, you will have to pay the price. You will change the restaurant to my brother's name tomorrow, yourself. Get out of the restaurant with your daughter, do you understand?"

Yuesheng nodded like garlic: "I understand, I'll get out of here tomorrow!"

Charlie said to Zhaodong's father, Zhao Haifeng: "Your son cuckolded my brother and severely injured my brother. You will pay my brother two million in damages tomorrow. One point less will not work. Do you understand? "

Zhao Haifeng also hurriedly said: "Mr. Charlie, I will call you to take the money tomorrow!"

Charlie was only satisfied, and said to Orvel's men: "Okay, you throw all the garbage out!"

A group of people immediately took the five people out.

After they were taken away, Charlie said to Biao, "Biao, you did a good job this time."

Biao smiled and hurriedly said, "Mr. Charlie, this is what I should do!"

Charlie said lightly: "I will ask someone to transfer two million to your account as a reward for you."

Biao was immediately ecstatic and bowed: "Thank you, Mr. Charlie!"

Although he has made a lot of money with Orvel, Mr. Orvel is really not so generous, and he can give two million for every shot.

Charlie directly sent a text message to Issac, asking him to help transfer money to Biao. Although he has a lot of money in his card, it is not convenient to operate now.

A minute later, the money went to Biao's account.

Biao was so excited that he kept bowing to Charlie.

Charlie said to Orvel again: "Mr. Orvel, you must not look down on these two million."

Mr. Orvel said hurriedly, "Mr. Charlie, it is my honor to share your worries for you."

Charlie gave a hum, and said, "I will remember this favor, and I will give you a chance to rise above and beyond."

Hearing this, Orvel immediately knelt on the ground, banged his head at Charlie.

For Mr. Orvel, what he wants is not money, but a higher level.

However, for a person like him, it's hard to climb to the next level.

Issac was the object he had always wanted to fawn on, but Issac never looked down on him because his background was too low and dirty.

Now, with a word from Charlie, it is very likely that Issac will lead him so that in the future, he will really be able to take it to the next level!

After discussing the merits, Charlie turned around and said to Darren, "Are you satisfied with today's affairs?"

Darren was extremely shocked.

He really didn't understand why Charlie had become so powerful.

Even the underground emperor of Aurous Hill must kneel in front of him!

He froze for a long time before he came back to his senses, and hurriedly said: "Satisfied! Satisfied!"

Charlie said, "I'm returning you to the restaurant. I will also get you two million for the loss. The rest of the future will depend on you!"

Darren said immediately: "Charlie, I will definitely be a cow and a horse for you in the future, and repay your kindness! No matter what you ask me to do, I will say nothing!"

Chapter 92

Charlie nodded and said, "You should heal your injury first, and if you recover from your injury, run the restaurant well. If there is anything you need to do, I will tell you then.

Darren repeatedly said: "I will listen to your instructions at any time!"

Charlie said again: "Oh, right, about today you must not tell anyone about this matter. I don't want others to know my identity, understand?"

Darren hurriedly nodded and said: "I understand, don't worry, even if I die, I won't say anything!"

Charlie gave a hum and said, "I will arrange two nurses for you to take care of you. Take care of yourself. I will leave now."

Back home, Charlie did not tell his wife Claire what happened today.

He still doesn't want to let his wife know too much. For her, the less she knows, the safer.

The next day, when he was out shopping for groceries, he suddenly received a call. He picked it up and saw that it was actually from Warnia, the boss of Jiqingtang and the daughter of the Song family.

Charlie couldn't help but wonder, what would Warnia have to do with him?

After picking it up, Warnia's voice came, "Mr. Charlie, I'm really sorry, I take the liberty to interrupt, please forgive me."

Charlie asked subconsciously, "Is there something wrong with the Yuhuchun bottle after I repaired it?"

Warnia quickly replied: "That's not the case. I called Mr. Charlie because of other things."

Charlie gave a hum and said, "say it."

Warnia said: "The thing is, I have recently fancied something, but I am a little bit uncertain. You have a lot of knowledge in antiques, so I would like to ask you to come and help me with it?"

Charlie didn't actually have any interest in appreciating antiques, but now he also has some treasures that contain spiritual energy, so he continued to ask: "Can you tell me what it is?"

Warnia replied: "It's an ancient jade. According to the seller, after wearing it, it has the effect of peace of mind and good luck and avoiding evil."

Charlie's mind suddenly turned.

The Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures that he got accidentally seemed to record some spiritual things.

That kind of treasure that contains spiritual energy is of great benefit to people. He wanted to know if such a treasure could really be found in the world, so he agreed and said: "Okay, I can accompany you."

Warnia said, "Thank you, Mr. Charlie, I will pick you up at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning."

"it is good."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie also thought to himself.

Regal feng shui, this kind of antiques that can calm the nerves and seek good fortune and avoid evil is highly praised by the rich. You can contact them more in the future to see if there is any chance.

Early the next morning.

Warnia drove to pick up Charlie on time.

After Charlie got in the car, Warnia said: "Mr. Charlie, I'm going to buy this ancient jade today, as well as a few other people in Aurous Hill are interested. I am afraid the competition will be very fierce."

Charlie nodded and said lightly: "It doesn't matter if there are many people or few people. The main thing is to see how things are. If things are good, you shouldn't be afraid of people. I believe in Miss Song's strength. If you really want to get a treasure, don't stop yourself."

Warnia smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Charlie, as the saying goes, there are mountains outside the mountains, and people outside the mountains. Just in Aurous Hill, this one-third of acres will hide dragons and crouching tigers. I don't know how many people are better than me."

Charlie pretended to be surprised and asked: "No? Isn't the Song family the largest family in Aurous Hill?"

Warnia smiled and said, "That's just the surface, let's not talk about anything else. Take the new chairman of the Emgrand Group as an example. The Emgrand Group will top our entire Song family. The strength of this person is truly unfathomable."

While talking, Warnia sighed again: "I actually want to make friends with this big man, but it's a pity that this person is too mysterious to find any breakthrough."

Chapter 93

Warnia spoke the truth.

She does feel that the new chairman of Emgrand Group is unfathomable.

You can buy a group of hundreds of billions at will without showing up. It can be seen that their industry is by no means just an Emgrand group.

In contrast, the Song family is indeed a little less interesting.

However, she didn't know that the chairman of the Emgrand Group she had always wanted to make friends with was sitting next to her at this time.

Charlie was naturally also very low-key, and casually echoed a few sentences, but never revealed any information.

Warnia's car drove fast and steady.

Soon, the car drove to a small courtyard by the river.

This small courtyard is secluded and elegant, with a simple and unpretentious appearance, but inside it is a huge water town.

Small bridges and flowing water, elegant gardens, pavilions, row upon row.

After parking, someone specially greeted the two to enter the door.

Go through the yard and into the lobby.

In the Chinese-style decorated hall, there is a mahogany round table, beside the table are several grandmaster chairs.

Seeing the two coming in, a white-haired Old Master stood up and said hello to Warnia: "Miss, you are here."

Warnia looked a little embarrassed and nodded and said, "Old Qi, why are you here too."

The Old Master smiled slightly and said, "I heard that you are coming, so I am here to take care of it."

Warnia nodded and introduced to Charlie: "Qi is always the appraiser of our Song family. He is sent by the family, so he should be afraid of making mistakes."

Charlie nodded. She was too young, and the Song family was not worried.

Old Qi glanced at Charlie, his face was a little disdainful, and said, "This is the appraiser invited by the eldest? Is so young, have you learned appraisal?"

Next to him, a middle-aged man with a blue complexion sneered and said, "Looking for such a hairy boy to hold his hands? Is there no one in the Song family? Would you like me to lend you some appraiser? Hahahaha."

Warnia's face became cold, and she said, "Tailai Li, this is Aurous Hill, not your Haicheng. It's not your turn to speak up here."

Tailai shrugged, and said indifferently: "The little girl from the Song family has a big temper."

"Okay," a middle-aged man sitting at the east of the round table frowned. "It's all for business, not for quarrels, all calm down."

"And this young man, let's sit together."

Warnia snorted before sitting down slowly.

Charlie also took a seat, and then Warnia leaned in his ear and whispered: "The one called Tailai before is the richest man in Haicheng. Next to him is Guo Ming, a very powerful Fengshui master. The one who spoke just now is Qin Gang. , The head of the Qin family in Aurous Hill, their family is the closest"

Charlie only noticed that Tailai was sitting next to an Old Master in a turquoise Thompson suit.

The Old Master was full of silver hair and had a sense of immortality. He kept his eyes closed all over his body, exuding an atmosphere that no one should get close to. He hadn't even opened his eyes after the two of them arrived.

Speaking of this, Warnia shut up. Although Charlie was a little curious in his heart, he couldn't ask anymore.

After everyone was seated, sitting on the other side of the table, a fat man dressed in luxurious clothes smiled and said, "Since the quarrel is over, let's hurry up and see the goods. You are all big families. Stuff, there is no need to struggle for too long."

Qin Gang snorted coldly, and said, "As long as this thing is really like what you said, it can adjust Feng Shui, calm and concentrate, I really don't care about the billion self."

Chapter 94

The fat man glanced at him before placing a simple wooden box on the table.

Inside the box was a piece of red jade glowing with blood, with an old style. As soon as it was taken out, everyone felt that the hall was filled with a warm atmosphere.

The eyes of Qin Gang suddenly lit up.

Warnia turned around and asked Elder Qi, "Old Qi, what do you think of this jade?"

Elder Qi stared for a moment and nodded: "It should be no problem. It is a bloody jade from before the Thompson Dynasty, and at first glance, it can be seen that a good monk has cultivated it for a long time."

Warnia nodded, then turned to ask Charlie, "What do you think of it Mr. Charlie?"

Charlie curled his mouth in disdain and said: "Fake"

Old Qi snorted and scolded: "You are so young, who gave you the courage to slander in front of so many people!"

The Old Master Guo Ming beside Tailai also opened his eyes, looked, and asked: "Can I get started?"

The fat man sneered disdainfully and said, "Mr. Guo, are you kidding me? You don't understand jade? Normal jade can't be passed. My piece is bloody jade from the Zhou Dynasty.

Guo Ming was stunned for a moment before he said, "I was abrupt."

After all, he also got to the edge of the ancient jade and watched it carefully. After a while, he closed his eyes again, and after a long time, he nodded and said: "If this jade is from the Zhou Dynasty, I don't know, but it adjusts the Feng Shui and calms the mind. It should be real."

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone's hearts were instantly heated.

For them, it doesn't really matter what history the jade has. The important thing is what role the jade has.

Old Qi smiled and said, "Old Guo is also a discerning person, not like those who are incapable and pretentious."

When Warnia heard this, she couldn't help but feel a little disappointed in Charlie.

It seems that he is still too young. Perhaps he has some accomplishments in the restoration of cultural relics, but he is still far behind these old people in the identification of antiques.

When Charlie saw this, he just shook his head slightly. Since these people are willing to be fooled, there is no need to stop them.

When the fat man saw that everyone had finished the appraisal, he closed the box and said with a smile: "Since the thing has been appraised, guys, is it time to make a price?"

Before he could finish his words, Qin Gang took the lead and said: "I will pay 100 million."

"One hundred and thirty million." Tailai also said.

Seeing that Warnia was silent, the fat man asked, "Where is Ms. Song?"

Seeing Warnia hesitated, Mr. Qi hurriedly whispered in her ear: "Miss, this is definitely a treasure. The estimated value should be around 300 million. If it can be won at 200 million, it will be a steady profit."

Warnia was also a little shaken in her heart. She turned her head and glanced at Charlie, only to see that the other party looked indifferent, not sad or happy, and she couldn't help but hesitate.

Old Qi glanced at Charlie with a cold look. Knowing that Warnia was affected by Charlie, she didn't ask for a price. He said, "Just now, Mr. Charlie said that this ancient jade is fake. I really want to know how he came to the conclusion! Let us also see Mr. Charlie's methods!"

If Charlie talks nonsense later, Warnia will naturally know that Charlie's words are false, and then she will feel relieved to bid.

Others contemptuously said:

"He knows what a little boy, don't be ashamed of coming up"

"Yes, how can it be his turn to speak here?"

"If you don't want to buy it, don't waste everyone's time."

Listening to everyone's ridicule, Charlie just stared at Old Qi with interest, and asked indifferently: "Are you sure you want me to tell?"

Chapter 95

"Of course! Just say it!"

Old Qi sneered and said: "I also want to see how you liars usually deceive people."

Charlie shrugged and said: "I didn't really want to expose your scam, but I can't refuse you repeatedly asking for it."

"A scam? Boy, you mean, did we all miss it?"

Guo Ming, who had been calm, said with a sneer.

Charlie glanced at him and said with a sneer: "You are the most stupid here in particular"

"Boy, you are looking for death!" Guo Ming was furious.

Charlie ignored him and said, "Jade is true jade, you liar have a conscience."

Then he said: "But this jade is not a bloody jade of the Zhou Dynasty, and there is no good monk who has raised it personally. It is nothing more than a piece of fine topaz from Hetian. It has a good texture, but it has some value. The price is at most 500,000."

"bulls*it. Can't you see that the jade is red?" Qi Lao scolded.

Charlie continued: "The red color is due to the erosion of the manganese ore containing submanganate. Don't you really think it was blood-soaked in the corpse of some eminent monk?"

"Then what about the warm atmosphere we feel?" Qin Gang frowned and asked eagerly.

Charlie shook his head and said, "This thing is even less technical. The grass from Africa, the rhizome is ground into a powder and dissolved in water. Soaking this jade in water for about half a year will naturally have this effect. It's not a warm atmosphere. It's a psychedelic effect. It's easy to remove it. Just burn the piece of jade with fire."

"Boy! How dare you say crazy words!" Hearing the words, the fat man patted the table and stood up.

Tailai turned dark, looked at the fat man, and said, "Take the jade out for a while?"

The fat man was sweating profusely and said: "What is too hot, this kid is obviously pretending to be a deceit, don't listen to his nonsense!"

Qin Gang tapped his finger on the desktop and said, "After the fire, if the effect is still there, I will pay for it, but if the effect is gone, the consequences, you know, although our Qin family has recently encountered something, it is not Let others ride on the head!"

Warnia also nodded and said: "If Mr. Charlie is wrong, it doesn't matter if you go too far. Jade will not burn, but if Mr. Charlie is right, you have to give us an explanation today!"

The fat man suddenly sweated profusely.

Of these three, none of them can be offended by him.

The reason why this round was made was entirely because of Qi Lao inside and outside, wanting to cheat Warnia a sum of money, and then share the spoils.

Unexpectedly, a Charlie would kill it halfway, and all the mysteries in it would be revealed in one word!

Actually, Charlie didn't know jade before.

The reason for being able to see through this jade at a glance is entirely because of the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets.

Don't know why. he just saw this piece of jade, and the answers have already appeared in his brain.

It seems that this identification of antique jade is a skill in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures.

Seeing that the fat man didn't speak, Charlie suddenly sneered and said: "Why? Is your heart guilty? Don't care about talking?"

The fat man's face was blue and white, but he didn't say whether he wanted to go too far.

Chapter 96

Charlie said angrily at this time: "Fatty, do you think it's okay not to speak? You have to know, this is Aurous Hill! Which of these people who were deceived by you is not rich?"

Hooking fingers can let you stay in Aurous Hill. There is no place for burial! I advise you to be acquainted and take the time, to tell the truth, otherwise, no one can save you!"

Warnia knew that Charlie was launching a psychological offensive, and immediately cooperated with him, saying with a black face: "Our Song family is a big family with a bit of face in Aurous Hill. If anyone dares to deceive the Song family, our Song family must have it. Give him a profound lesson, if we are soft and spread, the family's face will be affected!"

The fat man was frightened suddenly!

He knows how high your Song family is. If he really angers Warnia, he will probably die in Aurous Hill!

So he was panicked, and hurriedly shouted at Qi Lao desperately: "Qi Lao, save me! This is not my own business!"

Old Qi's face changed suddenly and he roared: "What are you talking nonsense? You lied to the Song family and framed me. I want your life!"

After all, Qi Lao took out a dagger from his pocket, a cold light flashed in his eyes and immediately pounced on the fat man.

The fat man's eyes were cracked, and he cursed: "d*mn, you turn your face faster than a book! You obviously told me that Ms. Warnia relies on your mouth. As long as you say yes, this thing will be sold. You hurt me so much!"

Warnia gave them a cold look, and then said to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie just laughed, thanks to you today, let's leave, these people, our family will send someone to clean up these people."

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Okay, then go back."

After all, the two got up and prepared to leave.

Seeing that Warnia was about to leave, Qi Lao was shocked, and he didn't care about killing the fat man. He knelt on the ground and said, "Miss, please forgive me. For the sake of my hard work and work in the Song family for so many years, forgive me. This time”

Before Warnia spoke, Tailai stood up and sneered: “You old thing is really looking for death. You want to be Master of the game, and you can get two or three billion. Do you think the Song family can spare you? ”

Old Qi was pale and sat slumped on the ground.

Tailai continued: “Even if the Song family forgave you, I, Tailai, will never forgive you!”

Old Qi suddenly collapsed and cried, and the whole person has completely collapsed.

Seeing this, Warnia shook her head slightly, and said to Charlie: “I’m so sorry, Mr. Charlie, my family made a mistake, you read a joke.”

Charlie said calmly: “There are treacherous villains everywhere, Miss Song doesn’t have to say that.”

At this time, Tailai from Haicheng took Guo Ming and Qin Gang from the Aurous Hill Qin family, all came out.

Seeing Charlie, Tailai immediately stepped forward to Charlie and said, “Mr. Wade, thanks to you today, otherwise, Li will be fooled by this thief!”

Guo Ming next to him also said with some shame: “Mr. Wade is really a hero, and the Old Master just didn’t see through the articles they wrote on jade, ashamed!”

Qin Gang also arched his hand and said, “Mr. Charlie, thanks to you today, otherwise the three of us who robbed the head and robbed it was a fake. Let alone the heavy losses, I am afraid that people will laugh out loud!”

Charlie smiled slightly and said faintly: “You are welcome, I was originally invited by Miss Song to come here to verify the authenticity of things, so this is also my business.”

After everyone was done speaking, Charlie got into the car with Warnia.

At this time, there was silence in the courtyard behind him.

But Charlie could see that as soon as everyone left with their front feet, several people in black suits walked in quickly.

It seems that Qi Lao and the fat man are in a disaster!

Chapter 97

In the car, Warnia's expression has always been cold.

For her, she was very annoyed by a s*umbag in the family, and what was even more annoying was that this Uncle Qi wanted to set a situation for him in front of so many outsiders.

If you were fooled in today's affairs, given the money, and Uncle Qi also escaped, if you find yourself cheated in the future, you will lose your face and the entire Song family!

Fortunately, Charlie was present, lighting up the mystery in time and avoiding the loss of himself and his family.

So, she took out a bank card from the glove box in the car, handed it to Charlie, and said: "Mr. Charlie, there are one million in this card, and the code is six 8, which is a little bit of mine. Please accept it with your heart."

As she spoke, she couldn't help sighing, Charlie still seemed to be a little real to learn, she didn't know why she chose to join a small family? If he comes out to engage in the antique appraisal by himself, he can save a lot of family business after a few years.

Charlie looked at the card in her hand and hesitated slightly.

One million is not a small amount, but it just drizzles to the Song family.

Charlie didn't look down on this one million. After all, he still had more than 9.9 billion in his card, and this one million was just a drop in the bucket.

What's the point of accepting it?

But when he thinks about it carefully, he's not a trillionaire. The son-in-law of the Willson family.

For a son-in-law, if he is not interested in seeing one million, it will definitely make Warnia puzzled, so he directly took the card and said, "Thank you, Miss Song."

Warnia smiled slightly: "Mr. Charlie is polite."

After speaking, Warnia asked again: "Where is Mr. Charlie going next?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Send me to the vegetable market. I have to buy vegetables and go home to cook."

Warnia was stunned, and couldn't help saying: "I also heard about Mr. Charlie. To be honest, Mr. Charlie has such a skill. There is no need to let a son-in-law be attached to her. It is better to come to my Jiqingtang. As the chief appraiser, I will give you a basic salary of one million every year, what do you think?"

Charlie waved his hand and said with a smile: "I am a person, my teeth are not good, and I am used to eating leftovers."

Warnia was startled slightly and then sighed.

It seems that the rumors in the market are really good, this Charlie is just a son-in-law who eats soft rice.

I used to think that he was just a Rubbish, and it was a helpless act for Rubbish to eat soft rice, which was understandable.

But now it seems that he is not a waste, but a waste of self-willing depravity.

This really made her unacceptable.

Immediately, her attitude towards Charlie also changed somewhat.

Charlie knew that she would look down on him a little bit, but this was the best way for him so that everyone could guess him wrong, and he would have the last laugh.

Passing by the vegetable market, Charlie got off and said goodbye to Warnia, and then bought some vegetables and went home.

But as soon as he walked in, Charlie heard the Old Master laughing wildly while shouting.

"Hahaha come! Come and see the baby I found!"

Claire also got off work and was sitting on the sofa reading documents. At this moment, she couldn't help standing up and said to Jacob who was laughing, "Dad, you almost scared me to death."

"Look at this." Jacob didn't notice Claire's expression at all. He happily held a pair of palm-sized celadon cups and held them in a show-off manner: "This is the blue and white chicken bowl I found from the antique market. , I heard that it was picked up from the coffin of Emperor Gandi, and it was worth more than 500,000!"

"More than half a million?" Claire stood up suddenly and blurted out: "Dad, where did you get so much money?"

Chapter 98

Charlie was so helpless that he broke the Yuhuchun bottle in the morning. Taking advantage of his time to go out, did this Old Master go to Antique Street again?

This is the typical mindset. The scars forget the pain.

Jacob laughed and said mysteriously: "I mean this cup is worth half a million. Guess, how much did I buy?"

Claire hesitated for a moment, and tentatively said, "Three hundred thousand?"

"No! Guess again!" Jacob waved his hand.

"Two hundred thousand?"

"That's not right!"

Charlie, who was next to him, glanced at the celadon cup and instantly saw that it was a fake, thinking that it would be good if this thing could be worth hundreds.

At this time, Jacob did not sell anymore, and said with a smile: "Hahaha, I bought it for 300! Isn't it amazing?"

Jacob laughed, and the joy in his expression could not be suppressed.

Claire's eyes widened in surprise and couldn't believe it: "No, this cup really only cost three hundred?"

Elaine, the mother-in-law, heard the movement and walked out of the kitchen with joy, "This cup is so invaluable? Isn't it fake?"

Jacob slapped his chest: "Don't worry, the people who sell the cups don't understand the market. I even asked someone to help me read it and said it was true!"

"Really?" Elaine carefully picked up the cup, looked left and right, smiling from ear to ear.

Charlie stood aside, but only smiled in agreement, his expression calm.

He had long seen that these two cups were fakes, but it was rare that the Old Master was so happy that he still did not expose them.

Jacob was so excited that he looked like a cat who stole the fish and said with joy: "This cup is not yet available. The boss said that he will bring the missing part, and I will take a look again tomorrow! Try to buy the whole set! In that case, the value can be doubled several times! With any luck, the six million debts can be paid back!"

Charlie frowned and immediately stopped: "Dad, don't be greedy for playing antiques. Buying these two cups is enough, let's not talk about it."

Jacob glared at him and cursed: "What more, would the kid teach me now?"

Charlie said hurriedly: "No, no, do as you like it."

After talking, I didn't bother to be nosy.

Anyway, even if the Old Master is cheated, it is not his own money.

Claire also said, "Dad, why are you buying so much? These two cups can't be eaten or drunk. Besides, the price difference is such big. Whether the cups are true or not has yet to be identified."

She doesn't believe that the pie is falling in the sky. If you can buy 500,000 for three hundred, wouldn't everyone be rich?

Jacob was on his head when he saw a few people pouring cold water on himself and said contemptuously: "You don't understand! This is an antique, and it depends on a pair of clever eyes to pick it up!"

As he said, he admired the celadon cup and said to Claire: "You don't have to worry about this. There are still several people who want to grab it with me today. I may not be able to buy it tomorrow."

Elaine said hurriedly: "If it is so valuable, you must find a way to sell it!"

Seeing the two elders busy admiring the chicken bowl cup, Claire quietly pulled Charlie aside.

"I don't think this is very reliable. It feels like a scam. Dad will definitely go there tomorrow. Then you and Dad will take a trip to the Antique Street so that he won't be cheated."

Charlie nodded. If Claire didn't say anything, he wouldn't bother to care about it, but since his wife has spoken, he naturally couldn't stand by and watch!

Chapter 99

The next day is the weekend.

Charlie was pulled by the Old Master and drove to the Antique Street early.

The Old Master was refreshed, and he waved to Charlie when he got out of the car, "come, I will show you what it means to pick up a fortune."

After that, strode to Antique Street.

Charlie had to walk quickly to keep up, looking around as he walked.

On weekends, there are a lot more people on Antique Street than usual.

The antique jade shops on both sides are very dense, and the vendors who come out to set up stalls are also densely packed, and the whole street is blocked.

There are also many vendors who just spread a plastic sheet on the ground, filled with various antiques and jade, to welcome guests on the spot.

Charlie glanced casually, and almost didn't see any genuine products. They were all used by black-hearted vendors to trick laymen and foreign tourists.

Many tourists who bought the fakes were completely blindfolded, holding the imitations and grinning, thinking that they were taking a big advantage.

"right here!"

Jacob stopped and stood in front of a simple stall, his expression unable to hide his excitement.

There were a few tourists standing next to the stall, picking antiques, Jacob hurried into the crowd for fear of falling behind.

Charlie glanced, this stall was nothing more than spreading a piece of oiled paper on the ground and placed dozens of antiques stained with mud, such as blue and white horses, five emperors copper coins, copper wine cups, blood jade bracelets, yellowed calligraphy, and paintings.

There was a dazzling array of things, but Charlie just took a casual look and found that these were all fakes.

The stall owner was a thin, dark-skinned man. He was wearing a coarse blue cloth. His hair was greasy and disheveled. He grew a simple and honest appearance. He looked dull and dull.

"Look at this!" Jacob greeted Charlie excitedly. He pointed to a colorful bottle with a big mouth and said in a low voice: "This is the wine bottle set with my two glasses! I bought it back and made one. Set, the price can be doubled!"

Charlie glanced at the wine bottle, held it in his hand, and raised his head to ask the boss.

"how much is it?"

The boss stared and blistered, and said dumbly: "My father said, at least 20,000, less than a cent will not be sold!"

When Jacob heard this, he almost laughed, and said to Charlie quickly: "This boss doesn't know the goods, let's buy them quickly, so as not to be picked up by others."

After speaking, he hurriedly paid for it.

At this moment, Charlie swiftly held his hand and smiled: "Dad, this thing is not worth 20,000, let's not buy it."

"What?" Jacob was taken aback, "Then how much do you think it is worth?"

Charlie stretched out his hand and shook it in front of the boss: "This number."

"Five thousand?" the boss asked, staring.

Charlie shook his head: "No, it's fifty."

The boss stared at Charlie for several seconds like looking at an alien, and suddenly shouted: "Do you know the goods? This is an antique left by my grandfather. It is a genuine treasure. You people in the city are too bullying. ."

Jacob was also anxious and pulled Charlie a hand: "Don't talk nonsense, be careful of messing up the business."

Charlie smiled, picked up the bottle and turned it over, pulled the yellow mud on the bottom of the bottle with his hand, pointed to the middle of a slit, and said, "Dad, look at what this is."

The slit is extremely small. If it weren't for Charlie pointed out, ordinary people would not see it at all. In the slit, a row of very small English letters appeared.

"Made in China."

Jacob was stunned, his mouth opened so that he could lay an egg, and he couldn't react for a long time.

Suddenly, he recovered, his face flushed, pointing to the boss and yelling.

"You, you are cheating!!"

Charlie took the wine bottle, shook it to the boss, and said, "The manufacturer dare not blatantly forge antiques. You have written this sign deliberately. You are quite clever. You know that you can block it with mud. In one sentence, thirty, can you sell it?"

"This"

The boss was stunned for a moment, suddenly all the honesty on his face disappeared, and he slapped his forehead with a smile.

Chapter 100

"Two bosses, I was coming out in a hurry today, and I took the wrong bottle."

"You got it wrong?" Charlie smiled, and picked up a snuff bottle full of mud, digging into the mud on the bottle mouth with his hand, shone it to the sun, and said with a seriousness: "This is not wrong. It is made in Sioux City."

In the snuff bottle, there was a row of small transparent characters.

"Made by Suzhou Crafts Factory."

"I don't know how to read, who knows what's written on it." The boss saw that he didn't even do business. He sneered and wrapped the oiled paper cloth and wanted to grease the soles of his feet.

This time Jacob was completely in his senses, and he was so angry after realizing that he was treated like a monkey for a long time.

He grabbed the boss and roared.

"You liar, return the money to me."

"What kind of money, I have never seen you before." The boss struggled hard, and from the oil paper cloth he was holding in his hand, fake copper coins and fake jade horses kept dropping.

The jade horse fell on the ground without breaking. It seems to be made of hardened plastic.

"If you don't refund the money, I'll call the police!" Jacob screamed, his lungs exploded with anger.

Between the two pullings, a thing suddenly fell from the boss's arms.

At the moment this thing fell, Charlie frowned suddenly and stared at the things on the ground.

This thing is a fist-sized white pebble, just like the pebble on the river beach, gray and matt.

But one difference is that this cobblestone is carved with the words "safe and rich!"

The fonts are crude and shoddy, and at first glance, they are carved up manually.

This kind of engraved stone is everywhere in the scenic area, and it is not worth any money. No wonder the boss didn't put it out just now.

However, Charlie walked up with a stride, picked up the stone, and the blood all over his body suddenly boiled.

Just now, he felt a different kind of breath exuding from this antique!

Said it is breath, in fact, it is more like a kind of energy, a kind of magnetic field, which has produced a strong attraction to him.

Charlie knew that this should be the spiritual energy recorded in the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets!

Reiki is a mysterious energy that has been lost for a long time. It can not only completely transform a person's physical fitness, but can even cultivate and produce many incredible effects for ordinary people!

Charlie was overjoyed, calmly weighed the pebbles in his hand, and asked, "Is this yours?"

The boss froze for a moment, and nodded subconsciously, "Yes."

"How to sell this stone?"

Jacob was also surprised and asked, "Why did you buy this broken stone! Don't you know that this profiteer sells all fakes!"

"It's just a piece of stone. It's okay to buy one and go back to be unlucky." Charlie said with a smile.

The boss took the opportunity to break away from Jacob's hand and sneered at Charlie: "Do you really want to buy?"

Charlie nodded: "I do!"

The boss suddenly became energetic, and said eloquently, "Brother, you are really insightful! Don't look at my pebble, but it is of extraordinary origin. It was placed on the Dragon Case in Lord Qiandi's study. Paperweight"

Charlie didn't have time to listen to his long talk and interrupted impatiently.

"Don't talk to me about these and some, just come to the point!"

The boss laughed and said, "Since you are an expert, then 20,000!"

Charlie said disdainfully: "You want money crazy, right? One price, three hundred! If you don't sell, I will call the police to arrest you."

"Three hundred?" The boss sighed and said with a dry smile: "Brother, you are a person who knows the goods. Three hundred is three hundred."

Charlie smiled slightly and pinched the stone in his hand.

Jacob was puzzled. He didn't know why he bought such a broken stone. Just about to ask a question, there was a screaming voice next to him.

"Yeah, this stone is good, my master wants it!"

Chapter 101

Hearing this voice, Charlie frowned and looked up to look for recognition.

He saw a young man wearing a white linen suit, black shoes, and all kinds of bracelets, walking towards this side.

Although it was daylight, he wore a pair of antique gold-rimmed glasses with two round black glass plates, the kind of "civilization mirror" that the late Qing dynasty wore.

The young man was followed by four or five bodyguards. Compared with his looks, these bodyguards were much more fierce and evil, and every one next to him quickly moved away to avoid causing trouble.

"Yeah, it turned out to be Steven!"

As soon as the boss saw the young man, he immediately opened his eyes and smiled, and the flattering words came out of his mouth like running water: "Mr. Steven, why didn't you say anything in advance when you came here today? I'd have come to the street to welcome you."

"Okay, don't talk nonsense, I will just take a look today." The young man waved his hand impatiently.

He strode forward, took a look at the stone in Charlie's hand, and raised his head to ask the boss: "Ervin Jones, put this stone up for me! There is a paperweight stone on my dad's desk. It is just right to use it.!"

"This" the mung bean eye boss gave a dry smile, looked at Charlie with a grimace, and said to please: "Mr. Steven, this is really unfortunate! The stone has been bought by this brother! Actually, this stone is nothing special. Except for the press paper, it has no use for anything. I have specially reserved better products for you. What is the beauty of the worthless stones? Only the top quality products are worthy of your identity."

Charlie knew that this boss was named Ervin Jones, and he seemed to know this young man.

However, he was also amazed at Ervin Jones's lip service.

He's really talkative to people and nonsense to ghosts.

Ervin Jones quickly took out the hardened plastic jade horse, splashing in his mouth, "Mr. Steven, this is the beloved object of the former imperial concubine. You see, this jade is crystal clear, and the jade is of good quality, so let's not talk too much. For the sake of Mr. Steven, the price you bought the chicken tank cup is the same as yesterday. You can take it for nine thousand!"

Jacob was speechless when he heard that, the same fake chicken tank cup, dare to buy three hundred and still take advantage of it. He didn't expect that Steven actually spent nine thousand!

"Don't talk nonsense!" Mr. Steven was impatient at hearing, kicked Ervin Jones to the side, and said arrogantly: "I just like this stone, you give it to me, I will give you Twenty thousand!"

When Ervin Jones heard 20,000, his heart suddenly became hot, and he turned his head and said to Charlie: "Brother, how about you give it to Steven?"

Charlie frowned and said coldly, "This is something I bought, and I don't want to transfer it to others."

"Who asked you to transfer it? You haven't paid any money, whoever paid for it!" Mr. Steven said impatiently, then took out a wallet from his arms, took a stack of banknotes, and threw them on Ervin Jones's face.

"No need to look for 20,000, I'll take it."

Ervin Jones's eyes lit up, and he quickly took the banknotes in his hand and smiled at Charlie: "Brother, I also have an inkstone paperweight from Emperor Kangxi. It is better to keep it than this."

Charlie smiled and said, "Ervin Jones, you don't need to break those things, right? I bought this paperweight first, and I am not interested in giving it to others."

Seeing Charlie didn't let go, Ervin Jones couldn't help it.

After all, according to the rules of the antique transaction, it is to buy first, and if he breaks the rules, he will not be able to work in this antique street as soon as the news spreads.

Ervin Jones had to turn around, nodded, and said to Mr. Steven: "Mr. Steven, this paperweight is really not a good thing, there is something better in my house."

Before he could finish his words, Mr. Steven kicked his waist and cursed: "You have been courageous? I have bought several things from you. Now you actually turn your elbow away to help a poor man talk?"

Ervin Jones was kicked and sat on the ground, clutching his waist and grunting, complaining: "Mr. Steven, if he doesn't give it to me, I can't help it."

As he said, he winked Charlie vigorously, wanting him to let the stone out.

Just by looking at Charlie's clothes and manners, he knew that he didn't have much money in his family, and he had no power or influence.

Chapter 102:

But Steven is different. He is the famous second-generation in the literary and entertainment world, and he hasn't felt a shortage of money since he was born.

Ervin Jones didn't want to offend Steven or break the rules, so he winked at Charlie.

Charlie had seen Ervin Jones's hint a long time ago, but he ignored it and said faintly, "No."

Ervin Jones was really helpless, so he could only sit on the ground and hum, so as not to be vented by Mr. Steven again.

"Look at you waste!"

Mr. Steven cursed with his eyebrows crossed and had to raise his head and glance at Charlie with a slanted eye. He said with money in his hands, "You bought it for three hundred. I will pay thirty thousand. Give it to me!"

The crowd onlookers made a sound of inhalation, and they all looked at Charlie, their eyes full of jealousy.

The price of things bought for three hundred increased by a hundred times before the heat was covered. This is an obvious profit!

Besides that pebble, anyone who knows the goods can see that it was picked up on the river beach. This kind of broken stone, there are many on the river beach, where is the goddess paperweight!

Jacob was also a little excited. After all, he made more than two thousand when he changed hands. Not to mention making up for what he lost yesterday, he could still make a little profit.

Charlie raised his head, smiled at Mr. Steven, and said: "I say just now, don't sell. Even if you pay 300,000, I still have these words."

"you!"

Mr. Steven's face suddenly became ugly, and a sharp light flashed in his eyes.

There were crowds all around, Charlie flatly refused in public, didn't this make him ashamed?

"Turtle! You want to have trouble with me, right?" Steven sneered fiercely: "Don't ask me, in this antique street, which one of the things that Steven likes can't be bought?"

"Today you have to sell, and if you don't, you still have to sell!"

After Steven finished speaking, he waved his hand behind him.

The bodyguards suddenly "hulled" and surrounded Charlie.

The crowd around him also changed color.

Even Jacob was stunned.

The Qin family in Aurous Hill?

That is a wealthy and distinguished family even more prominent than Gerald's family!

No wonder Mr. Steven spends nine thousand to buy a counterfeit chicken cup. He doesn't feel distressed at all. People don't care about money at all. If it is genuine or not, he just buys it for fun!

Several bodyguards surrounded Charlie, aggressively.

Jacob was afraid of things, so he winked at Charlie and asked him to quickly bring things to Mr. Steven.

Charlie looked faintly, glanced at the surrounding bodyguards, and said: "I'm still saying that, don't sell! If you want to take advantage of the situation, I can only tell you, my things, no one can take away! It won't work for you as well!"

"What's wrong with me?" Steven looked arrogant and raised his chin to scold, "I tell you, I am the king of heaven! You, a turtle who wants to fight with me, are impatient!"

Chapter 103:

Seeing Steven's arrogance, the surrounding crowd held their breath, thinking, this Charlie dared to confront Steven, this is a big loss.

Charlie still had a calm face and smiled: "I think you are also in the antique industry. Have you ever thought about what is most particular about the antique industry?"

Steven asked coldly, "What is the most important thing?"

Charlie laughed and said, "Of course the most peculiar thing is the rules!"

After that, raise the volume a bit and say loudly: "Antiques are first-come, first-served, and I'll be there. Who else will do business with you in this industry tomorrow? When that happens, Mr. Steven, you will become a rat crossing the street, and everyone will scream!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Steven was stunned, a flash of anger flashed across his face.

There is indeed such a rule in the antique world. He claims to play elegant scholar, and he is naturally very clear about this rule.

If today's incident spreads, the store he usually deals with will probably retreat for fear of offending other customers.

Steven didn't expect that Charlie would stop himself from coming to the stage with a few words!

He stared at Charlie fiercely, really wanting to kick that face.

But he still swallowed his anger forcibly, gritted his teeth, and said, "Do you really think that you are worthy of your rock? I just want you to know that antiques are not accessible to everyone. You are a poor ghost, you should go home as soon as possible to plant the land, so as not to tarnish it!"

After speaking, Steven rolled up his sleeves with a dark face, and raised his arms to Charlie's eyes and shook: "Open your dog's eyes and see clearly! This string of chicken blood jade is one hundred and fifty from Lingnan. I got it! Have you seen such a good thing?"

The bracelet on Steven's wrist was crystal clear, red, and shiny in the sun, and it was so beautiful that everyone around him opened his eyes.

Ervin Jones stared at the hand strings, swallowing fiercely, "I'm shocked, what a good thing!"

"Humph! Of course!" Steven was very proud of everyone's reaction.

After that, he glanced at Charlie contemptuously, opened his collar, and pulled out a gourd-shaped jade piece tied around his neck: "Look at this again!"

"This piece of chalcedony is a coming-of-age ceremony gift given to me by the emperor of the Sui Dynasty. Eighty-eight high-ranking monks set up an altar to consecrate the Buddha and recite the Buddha for 108 days! It is worth three million!"

Upon hearing that this piece of gourd chalcedony was so big, the crowd craned their necks to watch.

Ervin Jones flapped his nose with excitement as if being slapped, his eyes were straight at the jade gourd, his eyes were greedy, and he wanted to swallow it into his stomach.

Steven held the jade gourd and sneered at Charlie: "Poor playing watch, rich playing jade, you are a poor man, you can't afford decent clothes, and you want to buy antiques. It makes people laugh out loud."

His tone was ironic, and the surrounding crowd looked at Charlie from time to time.

Indeed, Charlie didn't look like a wealthy family. He wore the most common white T-shirt, jeans, and a pair of sneakers, just like a young working man.

As for Steven's outfit, it seems ordinary, but anyone who knows how to do it knows that this set of clothes is expensive and completely handmade, and it costs at least six figures from head to toe.

Charlie looked at Steven with a smug look and felt that this man was f*cking funny, but in fact, he was not a wicked person, at best he was a silly young master who was short-sighted.

So Charlie looked at him and asked with a smile: "You are rich, aren't you? Look at your bracelet, it looks really good, but it's a fake."

Steven was taken aback for a moment, and suddenly roared, "You are talking nonsense, my bracelet can't be fake."

"If you don't believe me, ask the bosses in the antique shops around you."

Charlie shrugged and said something in the words: "If you have money to play antiques, you also have to look at who is playing antiques. If a blind person has to get in the antique circle, he doesn't know how to pretend to understand, in the eyes of others. He is just a fat sheep, nothing more."

Steven was full of irritation. Hearing that Charlie was mocking his ignorance, he sternly said: "If my bracelet is genuine, you can kneel down and admit it to me on the spot, how about it!"

104.Chapter 104

"Okay." Charlie agreed, with an extremely relaxed attitude, "Thinking of artificial bloodstone as chicken blood jade, I can only say that you are really a talent."

Steven was ridiculed by him, his face flushed, he turned his head fiercely and said to the crowd watching the whole scene.

"Boss Jones and Boss Li, you two will appraise me to see if this bracelet is true or not."

The two people named by him suddenly showed embarrassment and looked at each other.

Appraisal of antiques, whether they are true or false, is offensive, and it might offend colleagues.

"Steven, we both have limited knowledge, we really can't see it."

Steven said angrily: "Don't think I don't know what yours is. You give me a good appraisal, no matter whether it is genuine or not, you will not trouble me! But if you fool around, I will find someone to appraise it afterward. I can't spare you for telling lies."

"Don't be angry, Mr. Steven!"

The two came forward in shock.

No one dared to offend Mr. Steven when doing business in Antique Street.

Therefore, the two antique shop owners had to bite the bullet and take a look at the jade string.

A few minutes later, one of the bosses gave a shuddering dry smile: "Steven, that little brother is right, your bracelets"

"Say!" Steven sneered coldly.

The boss was frightened and said quickly, "Your bracelet is indeed artificial bloodstone, not jade."

As soon as his voice fell, Steven's face turned green, bloodshot, and flushed quickly, as if being slapped in public.

His throat swallowed fiercely as if to be angry.

The two bosses were so frightened that they drew back into the crowd, not daring to appear again.

Charlie smiled and said, "Do you believe it now? Buying a bunch of artificial stones for 1.5 million, Mr. Steven is indeed rich."

"This time I missed you!" Steven gritted his teeth and said, "Isn't it just one and a half millions? Do you think I will pay the money? Even if my bracelets are fake, my jade gourd is always real, absolutely genuine!"

For this jade gourd, Steven is 100% confident!

Because he did find an expert to appraise it, this gourd is indeed a good ancient jade, and it is in the Sui Dynasty!

Charlie snorted coldly: "If you can wear such a big evil thing as a treasure, I'm afraid there will be no second fool like you in the world!"

"What are you talking about! It's just silly!"

Steven roared sharply, and the blue veins on his forehead protruded.

Charlie said faintly: "You have collected such a fierce thing next to your skin. You are lucky if you haven't died yet."

Steven's face was ugly, but with the lessons learned just now, he was not sure whether Charlie's words were true or false. He stared and asked, "Why do you say that?"

"Look at the shape of this jade gourd!"

Charlie said coldly: "Did you not check when you received the jade, what exactly do jade pieces of this shape do?"

Steven yelled with some confidence: "This isn't this Sui Emperor's coming-of-age ceremony! The gourd represents auspiciousness, and everyone who deals in jade knows this. I know this better than you poor guy! You know what a sh!t!"

Chapter 105:

Seeing Steven's hard mouth, Charlie shook his head and sneered disdainfully: "You don't even know the difference between a gourd and a jade plug? The old saying goes, "Jin and jade are in the nine orifices, and the dead are immortal." You should always know the sentence?"

"What kind of golden jade, dead people?" Steven was confused.

Charlie's face was "You can't teach a child", and he shook his head and said, "I don't know this? Have you always heard of Jiuqiaoyu?"

"What Nine Aperture Jade?" Steven was even more confused, looking at Charlie blankly.

Although Steven likes antiques, he doesn't have the mind to study at all, that is, he buys what others say is good, and then goes out and pretends to be right.

"idiot!"

Charlie sneered: "Nine-aperture jade is the jade plug used by the dead to plug the nine-apertures. There are seven orifices in the ears, nose, mouth, and eyes, plus the genital pores and excretory holes.

"Dead!!" Steven opened his mouth wide, his eyes rounded.

He glanced at the jade hanging around his neck in disbelief, and the hair on his back suddenly stood up.

Is this from a dead person?

Charlie said mockingly: "It seems that you really don't understand. This in your hand is used by a dead person to plug the drain hole, which is the cylinder door. You even wear it on your neck, don't you feel smelly?"

Steven couldn't speak anymore, staring at the jade gourd in his hand, suddenly a strong feeling of nausea surged.

This jade gourd was actually stuffed in that place!

And I actually took it as a mascot and hung it around my neck for three years

The most d*mn thing is that because I like this thing so much, I often play with it in my mouth

Doesn't this mean that I indirectly ate the ancients' filth?

"vomit!"

Steven couldn't help it anymore, bending down and retching.

The crowd who were still scrambling to watch, now cast a mocking look at him.

Some even gloated at the misfortune, mocking Steven for being blind, and spending a lot of money to buy such a bad thing.

Charlie said coldly: "Also, this jade piece has been soaked in corpse qi for a long time, and it has sucked enough fierce aura. If you continue to wear it, you will surely die within a year."

As soon as he finished his words, the crowd around Steven immediately "hulled" back, for fear of being contaminated by the ferocity on his body.

Ervin Jones, who was standing beside Steven, also ran to the very edge.

Although he is a half-bucket of water, and he usually does nothing but deceives, but he has also dealt with the thief fighting master, knowing that Charlie's words are not groundless!

Steven was also frightened and looked up at Charlie in a daze.

Charlie's face was cold, and he snorted: "Are you going to have a bad time this year? Have you had a bloody disaster like a car accident or something?"

Steven stared at Charlie blankly, completely stunned.

He did have a bad fortune this year, and he had just had a car accident at the beginning of the year. If it hadn't been for the crash-resistant Hummer that day, he would have given his life a long time ago.

However, the driver who drove was killed on the spot. He broke two ribs and spent half a month in the hospital before returning home.

Steven burst into a cold sweat, pulled the jade piece off his neck, waved, and threw it far away.

The crowd backed away quickly, for fear of causing trouble to the upper body.

Seeing Steven's guilty conscience, Charlie sneered in his heart. If he hadn't reminded him today, if Steven continued to wear it, he would definitely die this year.

"Who are you!" Steven gritted his teeth and glared at Charlie.

This person knows too much, is it someone sent by the enemy?

"I am someone you can't afford."

Chapter 106

Charlie said coldly, turning around and leaving.

When Steven saw that the other party was about to leave, he thought Charlie wanted to escape, and immediately roared: "Catch him for me! Dare to find my fault, there must be someone behind this kid!"

"Can't afford to provoke? Haha, in Aurous Hill City, there is no one I can't afford to provoke!"

"Catch him, break his leg, and ask who it is that dares to trouble my Qin family."

He believed that Charlie was the person sent by his business rival, otherwise, how could he know exactly what happened to him in the car accident?

Several bodyguards acted immediately and rushed to stand in front of Charlie.

The other two bodyguards strode to Jacob's face, and violently reached out their hands and grabbed them.

Jacob was so frightened, he didn't expect to get into this kind of disaster when he went out to buy an antique.

Just when the bodyguard was about to catch Jacob, Charlie's eyes were cold, and he kicked a brawny man in front of him with one foot, rushed to Jacob in three or two steps, and hit the bodyguard in the face with one punch.

"Bang!"

The bodyguard was about to grab Jacob and was hit by a punch in the front. He suddenly spurted his nose and backed away, covering his face.

The other bodyguard saw Charlie start his hand, quickly took out the electric baton, and called Charlie fiercely.

"Ah!" Jacob yelled in fright, "Charlie, get away!"

Before he finished speaking, Charlie shook his body agilely, avoided a stick that flew over, clasped the bodyguard's left wrist with his backhand, and tried hard.

"boom!"

Before the bodyguard with the electric baton could react, he was thrown to the ground by one over his shoulder, grinning in pain, and could not get up for a long time.

Jacob was speechless, almost didn't recognize that the young man standing in front of him was his son-in-law.

Why is his skill so good?

Charlie bent down, picked up the electric baton on the ground, squeezed it in his hand, and said, "Who else? Let's go with the rest."

The crowd watched silently, their eyes all fixed on Charlie.

Ervin Jones was also dumbfounded, staring at Charlie, and murmured: "Brother, amazing!"

He was fortunate that he didn't make Charlie angry just now, otherwise, this one fell off his shoulders and his bones would fall apart.

Jacob returned to his senses and asked in shock behind Charlie: "Charlie, where did you learn this skill?"

"This" Charlie smiled and said, "Dad, when I first went to work, I was bored at home watching TV. Isn't there a show on the ring every morning on TV? I learned all of it from TV."

In fact, Charlie practiced Wing Chun since he was a child, and it is the most authentic Wing Chun. After all, this man is the descendant of the Wade family branch!

However, in order to hide his identity, he naturally cannot tell the Old Master.

Moreover, what surprised Charlie was that his current strength seemed to have improved a lot!

Combat effectiveness has been improved several times than usual.

It seems that this should be due to the Nine Profound Heaven Classics.

And the pebble full of aura just now, a little bit of aura entered the body, and I felt that the physical fitness of the whole person had improved a lot!

The crowd sounded in awe.

Such a powerful skill is stronger than the skill of a martial artist in the Aurous Hill City Martial Arts Hall. He actually taught himself by watching TV!!

This self-taught talent is simply amazing!

"I learned it from TV!" Ervin Jones's eyes widened. Such an amazing skill came from watching TV. He quickly admired Charlie and sneered at him: "Big brother, may I ask which channel you are watching? Want to learn."

Charlie looked at Ervin Jones and said faintly: "CCTV Sports Channel, The Arena!"

Chapter 107

The people present thought that Charlie was telling the truth, all of them were holding back their energy, and they wanted to go home and have a look at the program.

Steven, who was standing silly on the side, finally recovered his senses at this time, his expression extremely ugly.

This is so embarrassing!

The bodyguards that I have paid a lot of money to are all senior martial artists in the martial arts center in the city.

Unexpectedly, they were turned over in the blink of an eye by a hairy boy who watched TV and learned martial arts?

Steven is a layman in martial arts, and he can't see the level of Charlie, but the bodyguards under him are not stupid.

Experts will know if there is any!

They knew at a glance that Charlie didn't speak big words, and the other party didn't even give his full strength.

It is indeed someone they can't afford to provoke!

Therefore, several bodyguards did not dare to step forward and looked at Charlie with awe.

Jacob watched from the side. He didn't know anything about martial arts. He thought that Charlie's tricks were ordinary, that is, pinching his wrists, throwing his shoulders and other things, but it was just a little bit stronger, he didn't know that this was the real skill.

Charlie smiled slightly at Steven at this time: "Are you coming by yourself or I need to come over?"

"You, don't come over."

Steven was so frightened that his head was sweating, and he subconsciously stepped back.

Seeing him so distressed, Charlie snorted coldly and walked towards him.

Steven stared at him in horror, and quickly stepped back.

If I was thrown by him like this, I would definitely have to lie down in the hospital for half a month!

At this moment, a black BMW car drove slowly from the street corner and stopped not far away.

The driver quickly opened the door and asked people to get out of the car.

Steven was overjoyed when he saw this scene and shouted at the other side: "Sister! I was beaten by someone! Come and save me!"

Charlie looked up and saw that the crowd voluntarily gave up the passage, and a woman in black tight-fitting sportswear was walking towards this side.

The tight-fitting sportswear outlines the woman's figure perfectly, and her face is angry, adding a bit of heroism.

"That's Steven's sister, Aoxue Qin!"

Someone in the crowd suddenly shouted in shock, and then the crowd was in an uproar.

Steven exclaimed: "Sister, this kid beat me, you help me beat him fiercely!"

After Aoxue approached, she glanced at the bodyguards lying on the ground, then looked at Charlie coldly: "You beat these people?"

Charlie said flatly: "It's me, what's the matter?"

Aoxue sneered and said, "Nothing much, apologize to my brother immediately!"

"What if I say no?"

"Then I will fight until you apologize!"

Before the words came to an end, Aoxue whips her legs and kicked Charlie's cheek in an instant.

Charlie was a little surprised, this woman's skill was much better than the previous group of bodyguards.

Her whip kick is full of strength and speed, and she seems to be a serious practitioner!

Steven watched this scene and secretly said, "Look at my sister, she can kill you!"

His sister has practiced martial arts for many years and is proficient in ancient martial arts and Sanda skills. Even some serious martial arts masters are not her equal opponents.

But the next moment, Steven's eyes widened suddenly.

Chapter 108

"Too weak!"

Following Charlie's anger, his body flashed to the side in an instant, and then he lifted his leg and kicked Aoxue's a, kicking her whole body out.

Steven's jaw almost fell off, staring at the scene blankly, and whispered, "How is this possible!"

Aoxue was even more embarrassed. Since practicing martial arts, she has never been humiliated so much, and the place where the opponent kicked is too shameful to think of!

She was full of anger, and when she got up, she was about to rush towards Charlie. She decided in her heart that she must make this b@stard pay the price today!

"Aoxue, stop quickly! Don't be rude to Mr. Wade!"

At this moment, suddenly a middle-aged man ran up and grabbed Aoxue.

Aoxue had a pretty face of shame and yelled: "Dad, get out of the way, I want to kill him!"

Can you kick my a? Don't you know Lianxiangxiyu? My butt is still aching now!

"Shut up!"

The middle-aged man glared at Aoxue and scolded.

Afterward, he walked towards Charlie with a humble expression on his face, took a deep breath, and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, you have met my ineffective daughter and nephew. I apologize to you. When I return, I will let them think about it."

Aoxue and Steven froze there, watching this scene in disbelief.

The father is a high-end figure in Aurous City, how could he be so polite to this kid.

Charlie recognized the middle-aged man.

Before, when he went to Appraise with Warnia, he met him. His name is Qin Gang.

So Charlie nodded and said, "Mr. Steven and this lady really should be more disciplined."

Qin Gang nodded repeatedly, glared at the two, and said: "Come here and apologize to Mr. Wade!"

"I won't apologize to the b@stard who kicked my a!" Aoxue curled her lips with an angry expression on her face.

Qin Gang scolded angrily: "Apologies! Immediately! Now!"

Aoxue was instantly discouraged, biting her teeth in injustice, and whispered: "I'm sorry"

Steven was full of irritation and said, "Uncle, this kid humiliated me at will, and beat my sister. If you don't clean him, let me apologize? If you can't clean up, I will find someone. I'll kill him!"

Snapped!

Qin Gang slapped his face heavily, and said angrily: "b*stard! Kneel down to Mr. Wade!"

Steven was slapped with gold stars in his eyes, and blood dripped from the corners of his mouth. He covered his face in horror. He was completely stunned. He didn't know how things would turn out to be and let him kneel in public

This simply caused the Qin family's face to be lost. How can they talk about prestige in Aurous Hill City from now on?

Qin Gang gritted his teeth and shouted, "You b@stard, do you know that if Mr. Wade finds out about your jade, not only will you be killed, but the entire Qin family will be killed!"

After that, he scolded angrily: "I thought why the Qin family has been in bad luck recently, and various things have happened one after another. It turns out that you, the bastard, have caused the evil to descend upon us. If your grandfather knows about it, he'll feed your legs to dogs!"

Seeing that his uncle was so serious, Steven was frightened, his legs softened, and knelt on the ground.

Qin Gang sternly shouted: "You still didn't apologize to Mr. Wade!"

"Yes, I'm sorry" Steven was already scared, and apologized to Charlie trembling, his eyes full of horror.

Qin Gang said respectfully to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, I don't know how to deal with it, are you satisfied?"

Charlie said indifferently: "Forget it since he knelt down, then I won't care about him."

Qin Gang felt relieved, and hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade, I have something else to ask you, after the jade is lost, can my Qin family's fortune be restored to normal?"

Charlie sneered and said: "You think it's pretty beautiful! This jade is so powerful that it's not just on Steven alone. In my opinion, within a year, your Qin family will probably be ruined! "

Chapter 109

Qin Gang was frightened by Charlie's words.

What do you mean?

This price is too painful, right?

Qin Gang's face turned pale suddenly, and it took a long time to sigh: "I have never done anything wrong in my life, and I have done good deeds every day. How can I end up like this."

Charlie smiled and said, "So it seems that you wanted to buy that piece of topaz last time because of this?"

Qin Gang nodded. In the past year, he tried all the methods, but none of them worked until he met Charlie.

Last time, he thought Charlie just knew how to appraise treasures, and didn't pay much attention.

But today, Charlie actually broke his evil spirit with a word, which made him understand that Charlie is not an ordinary person at all, and the hope of saving the Qin family may lie in Charlie.

Immediately, he hurriedly clasped his fists at Charlie and begged: "Mr. Wade, please help me!"

After speaking, he hurriedly whispered a few words to the assistant beside him, who immediately turned and left.

Charlie smiled faintly and said, "Mr. Qin, you should solve your family's affairs by yourself."

He didn't have much friendship with the Qin family and had a relationship with Qin Gang before.

What's more, Steven in front of him also offended himself.

The horrified Aoxue next to her was quite pretty. The little girl had a very good figure, with her front convex and backward, and her pungent personality, quite a little chili.

But what does it have to do with yourself if you are beautiful or not? One is not his wife, and the other is not sleeping with himself.

Therefore, Charlie had no reason to help the Qin family.

However, Qin Gang was not willing to give up this excellent opportunity to save the family, he immediately bowed and said: "I beg Mr. to show the way!"

Qin Gang looked at Charlie almost piously, bowed ninety degrees, and assumed an extremely humble posture.

But Charlie remained unmoved.

Seeing that Charlie was indifferent, Qin Gang's heart slammed and knelt on the ground.

At this moment, Aoxue next to him saw this and knelt down without any hesitation.

She knelt in front of Charlie and pleaded bitterly: "Mr. Wade, I was abrupt and angered you just now. Please don't take it to your heart. The fate of my Qin family is in your hands. , Please also help!"

After that, she turned her head to look at Steven who was stunned. She slapped her face and slapped, "Steven! You caused this! You brought that weird dirty thing home, and so is the family." You are dragged down, and even Mr. Wade is offended by you, so please kowtow to Mr. Wade! Please, Mr. Wade!"

Steven was really frightened!

He really didn't expect that the Qin family's recent fate was unfavorable, and his blood and light disaster was caused by that piece of jade. Now he can't escape the blame and angers the only Mr. Wade who can resolve everything. He is really afraid of returning home. , Was beaten to death by the crowd in the family.

So he immediately knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Charlie, begging: "Mr., I'm wrong Mr.! It's me who has no eyes, I don't know what's good or bad, please forgive me and help us by the way. Qin family, I'll kowtow to you"

After that, Steven knocked his head on the concrete floor, making a bang.

At this time, Qin Gang's assistant ran back and handed him a gift box.

Qin Gang hurriedly gave it to Charlie, respectfully handing it to Charlie, and said humbly: "Mr. Wade, this is the most expensive jade bracelet. The price is more than six million. Please Mr. Wade accept it!"

Charlie glanced indifferently at the gift in Qin Gang's hand. It was a fine jadeite old pit ice seed bracelet with an excellent water head and crystal clear like glass.

Although it is not as good as the jade necklace he gave to his wife Claire before, it is almost top-notch!

The people around looked straight. Everyone knows this bracelet. The most expensive bracelet in Rare Earth has a price of six million.

Qin Gang actually asked his assistant to buy it back and give it to Charlie, and still begged Charlie to accept it.

It can be seen how strong he is to cater to Charlie at this moment!

What is Charlie's identity?

Chapter 110

Charlie's father-in-law was also dumbfounded, and he had never encountered such an incredible thing in his life.

Charlie looked at the jade bracelet but didn't accept it. He just looked at Qin Gang with a faint smile, and said: "Ms. Qin, how do you know that I must have a way to resolve this evil spirit?"

Qin Gang said piously: "If Mr. Wade can't do it, then no one in this world can do it!"

Charlie smiled indifferently, what Qin Gang said was true, he really had a way to resolve it.

The Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures have recorded this kind of evil spirit, and how to break it is also very clearly written there.

Charlie glanced at the jade bracelet and took it casually.

Look at this jade bracelet crystal bracelet, if it is worn on the wrist of his wife Claire, it must be very beautiful.

As for this Qin Gang.

To be honest, not bad guys.

It doesn't hurt to discipline the descendants of the family, and the crime does not lead to death.

Since he begged himself so piously, it wouldn't hurt to help him.

So Charlie said: "Well since you are a humble person, I'll see about it for your sake."

After that, he put the bracelet down.

Seeing Charlie accept the bracelet, Qin Gang was overjoyed and quickly bowed to him: "Mr. Wade, the Qin family can barely speak in Aurous Hill City. If you can break the evil spirit, Mr. Charlie, this Qin family will never forget your kindness and go all out when you need us."

The crowd around was in an uproar, and they were all surprised.

The Qin family is willing to go all out!

Charlie thought for a moment, and said: "If this is the case, then I will help you once, and rest is up to your Qin family's fate."

Qin Gang immediately squashed his head and said excitedly, "Mr. Wade, please!"

Charlie asked for a piece of yellow paper talisman and cinnabar from the antique shop next to him. He drew a few strokes on the yellow paper and gave it to Qin Gang.

"Put this talisman on the jade plug and take it home to burn incense daily. After the seventy-ninth day, the evil spirit will be completely removed."

"During these seven or seventy-nine days, the family should avoid killing and blood, and family members should bathe and burn incense every day. Remember."

"Sir, I'll be mindful of that!"

Qin Gang took the rune with both hands respectfully, and was extremely grateful to Charlie, carefully pasting the rune on the jade plug and wrapping it into a yellow paper bag.

As soon as it was wrapped up, Steven suddenly felt light in his body, the irritability of his whole body seemed to disappear, and his whole person became refreshed.

Qin Gang also felt the changes in his body, and his psyche was clearer and more comfortable than before!

He knew that Charlie's method worked!

This made him suddenly ecstatic!

Fortunately, I found Charlie, otherwise, after today, the Qin family will be in desperation!

Ervin Jones looked beside him in amazement, and when he saw Qin Gang finished, he hurriedly moved up with a shy face and bowed to Charlie with a smile.

"Big brother, can you help me? When do you think I can find a beautiful wife?"

Charlie frowned and shook his head: "If you want to marry a beautiful wife, learned to be a man first."

Aoxue stood by and let out a chuckle.

Chapter 111

Qin Gang smiled respectfully and said, "Mr. Wade, thanks for your great kindness to the Qin family. Today is a bit rushed, and it is too late to prepare. Can I invite Mr. Wade to come to the Qin family tomorrow? Host a banquet at home to entertain you personally, to thank you for your great kindness."

"No, I have something else."

Charlie shook his head coldly, and said, "Today's affairs, I think you did more of good deeds. I don't want to be too public, understand?"

Qin Gang was taken aback, and nodded again and again: "Qin understands! Mr. Wade will be useful to the Qin family in the future, just come to Qin."

After speaking, he quickly handed over a gold-plated business card with his personal mobile phone number on it.

Charlie took it without looking, turned around, and took the Old Master to leave.

And Qin Gang kept watching the two of them disappear before glaring at Steven and said angrily: "From now on in Aurous Hill when you see Mr. Wade, you will bow respectfully and say hello to him, and don't cause me trouble again!"

Steven said aggrieved: "I didn't know that going to the street to buy something can offend a master."

Aoxue on the side gritted her teeth as she watched Charlie's departure.

Although she admired Charlie very much, she obviously still remembered Charlie kicking her a in her heart.

For a proud girl, this kind of thing is simply unforgivable.

Qin Gang sighed and comforted her: "Girl, don't retaliate against Mr. Wade, now our whole family is counting on Mr. Wade"

"Can he really help?" Steven mumbled.

Qin Gang scolded, "If you talk nonsense, I will break your leg!"

Steven shrank his neck, not daring to say more.

Aoxue stomped her feet bitterly, and said, "I know Dad, I will not provoke him."

The thought of her body still aching, she felt angry and uncomfortable.

"It's a pity," Qin Gang sighed, shaking his head.

Aoxue asked in surprise: "What a pity?"

Qin Gang glanced at her and said, "Unfortunately, Mr. Wade is already married. Otherwise, I think you two becoming good friends."

"Dad! What are you talking about!" Aoxue was so embarrassed and annoyed

On the way back, Jacob was still very surprised.

The dignified Qin Patriarch is so respectful to his live-in son-in-law!

"Charlie, are the things you told Qin Gang true?"

Jacob doubted that his son-in-law was becoming more and more like a liar.

Charlie chuckled and said, "It's a half-truth, half-truth, don't all scammers like to play tricks!"

After hearing this, Jacob was shocked and reprimanded in a panic: "f*ck, you dare to lie to the Qin family, and you have received such an expensive bracelet. What if someone finds it turns back and reveals it? Won't they ruin our home!"

Charlie shook his head and said, "It's not a big deal, you can return the bracelet to them, there is a rule of law, can they still kill me?"

Jacob sighed and sighed. Obviously, he was worried, but after thinking about it, there was no other way. He could only take a gamble. Maybe Charlie's quack trick was really effective?

After returning home, Charlie went into the bedroom and took out the "Safety and Wealth" stone he had received from Ervin Jones.

And at this moment, Charlie suddenly felt that surging energy penetrated into his body from the stone.

Charlie suddenly felt warmth, and the entire chest and belly were uncomfortable.

Soon, layers of sweat, mixed with black impurities, were discharged from the body, and the body was extremely relaxed.

Chapter 112

After a while, Charlie felt that there was a burst of energy in his body running through the veins.

This is aura!

When he looked at the stone again, Charlie found that the stone had already contained aura, just like an ordinary stone.

Charlie ran the cultivation method recorded in the Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures, and couldn't draw aura from it.

Charlie could only put the stone back in his pocket. Intuitively, he felt that this thing was extraordinary, but since he couldn't study it at this time, he could only wait until his cultivation level was improved.

Feeling sticky all over, Charlie hurried to take a bath. When he finished the bath, it was already over 5 in the afternoon.

Claire called him.

On the phone, Claire told Charlie that she was discussing project details at Emgrand Group. The BMW 760 modified 520 Charlie bought for her happened to be restricted today. She didn't drive and wanted Charlie to drive her 530. The Emgrand Group picked her up.

Charlie was naturally obliged to call his wife.

So he immediately asked the old man for the car key, went downstairs, and drove to the Emgrand Group.

After arriving downstairs, Charlie took out his mobile phone and dialed Claire.

Claire did not answer but quickly replied to him on WeChat.

"Charlie, I'm still in a meeting with the project team. You can wait for me downstairs for a while. Thank you."

"Okay, then I will wait for you downstairs."

After Charlie responded to Claire, he smoked outside the car while waiting.

At this time, Doris, the vice-chairman of the Emgrand Group, called him and asked: "Mr., have you been to the Emgrand Group?"

Charlie asked curiously: "How do you know?"

Doris said, "I'm in my office, so I can see your car."

Charlie raised his head and glanced, then smiled: "Are you looking for something to do with me?"

Doris said: "The young lady is still in meetings, and it may take a while, so I want to ask if you have time. If you have time, I would like to report to you about recent work."

Charlie thought for a while. He hasn't taken care of the Emgrand Group's affairs recently, so he can't be ignorant of it for too long, so he said: "Hmm, you wait, I will come up."

Doris said: "Then go directly to your office, and I will report to you in your office."

"That is what I am doing."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie stepped into the building, got on the elevator, and went straight to the chairman's office on the top floor.

When he walked out of the elevator door and headed for the office, a door behind him suddenly opened.

Elsa was planning to go to the bathroom at this time, but she didn't expect to see a familiar back when she left the house.

She didn't recognize that this figure was Charlie, but felt that this figure was very similar to the god-level rich on YouTube!

Could it be that the chairman I have always wanted to meet finally came?

Elsa became excited immediately!

After all, the fundamental purpose of coming to Aurous Hill and Emgrand Group is to get close to the mysterious chairman, and then work hard to make herself his woman. In this way, the entire Dong family can be improved.

This is the mission that the entire family entrusted to her, and it is also the sustenance of the entire family in the future.

However, Elsa is also very depressed. She has been here for so many days, and she hasn't even seen the chairman's face. How can she develop a relationship with the chairman in a longer-term direction?

So now seeing the back of the chairman, Elsa is very excited!

She hurriedly walked a few steps, followed Charlie, wanted to catch up to say hello, and then introduce herself!

Chapter 113

Charlie heard the footsteps behind him, and the left light swept across the glass beside him, and suddenly realized that Elsa was behind him!

bad!

If Elsa is allowed to recognize him here, she will definitely think of him as the chairman of the Emgrand Group!

She might even think of him as the Wade Family's Young Master!

This is terribly bad!

So, seeing Elsa want to catch up, he quickly speeded up, stepped into the chairman's office, and locked the door.

Elsa didn't expect that the other party would suddenly speed up, and when the reaction came to chase, the other party had already entered the office.

Seeing Charlie entering the office, Elsa was disappointed and muttered in a low voice: "Weird, why does this chairman seem to be hiding from me on purpose"

Thinking of this, she still didn't give up, went to knock on the door, and said: "Hello, chairman, I am the new administrative director Elsa, I want to report to you."

Charlie deliberately lowered his voice and replied: "Have you reported to Doris? The company does not allow leapfrog reporting, don't you know?"

"Sorry, Chairman, I forgot"

Elsa was frightened and nervous, and thought: "This chairman is so fierce, is he angry at her leapfrog report, or doesn't want to see her at all?"

However, Elsa didn't dare to stay at the door of Charlie's office and had no choice but to leave.

Charlie heard Elsa's footsteps getting farther and farther, and finally heaved a sigh of relief.

She almost recognized him, it was really dangerous!

He will have to think before coming to the Emgrand Group in the future, and Elsa is now the executive director of the Emgrand Group, and the office is on the same floor as herself.

In this way, the chance of being hit by her is too great.

It happened that Doris came over to report to him at this time.

Charlie said to her, "Doris, you can arrange something for me."

Doris nodded: "Master, name it."

Charlie said, "You help me change Elsa's position."

After speaking, he asked: "In our company, what position does not need to stay in the office all the time?"

"Sales, business." Doris replied: "These two positions often have to go out for business, basically not in the company."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and said: "Then transfer her to be the sales director."

"No problem, I'll start arranging when I go back later." Doris agreed.

Subsequently, Doris and Charlie discussed the company's recent situation.

Now, the new six-star hotel project of Emgrand Group has started, the site is located at the foot of Tueten Mountain, with beautiful scenery and an elegant environment.

After this hotel is completed, it will become the first six-star hotel in Aurous Hill, which is extremely luxurious.

The hotel-related business is progressing very smoothly. It is expected to be completed within two years and be put into use in two and a half years' time. By then, the income ability of the Emgrand Group will rise to a new level.

Charlie instructed her: "If my wife does a good job and has the leisure ability, you can allocate more business to her."

Doris immediately said: "You can rest assured, Master, I will definitely!"

Seeing that his wife was about to finish the meeting, Charlie said to Doris: "You go and call Elsa to your office now, I'll take the opportunity to leave."

Doris nodded hurriedly, returned to her office, and called Elsa.

Chapter 114

Hearing that Doris had something to do with her, Elsa went to her office immediately.

At this time, Charlie quickly went downstairs.

As soon as he went downstairs, he saw Claire walking out with a tired expression.

Claire was obviously exhausted from the cooperation, and said helplessly: "There are so many things now, I can't be too busy."

Charlie asked distressedly, "Should I divide the work? Or you just don't do it."

"That won't work." Claire said: "It hasn't been long since I became the director, and my foundation is not stable. I must work hard, otherwise, my cousin will definitely get in."

Thinking of Harold, Claire couldn't help but feel annoyed. This person is particularly annoying, always opposing her, and always likes to do things that hurt others and put them at disadvantage.

On the way back, Claire closed her eyes in the car, and Charlie focused on driving without disturbing her.

At this moment, in Doris's office.

Doris informed Elsa of the new appointment.

Elsa was a little surprised.

It hasn't been long since she accepted the job of Chief Executive Officer, and now getting transferred to sales. Why?

Doris explained to her: "I think you are very capable, and you are too talented to do administrative work in the company, and I looked at your resume. Your university studies are business management and marketing, and sales are the best. Suitable for your position, and sales are more important to the company. If you do this job well, you will have a better future!"

Doris didn't talk nonsense.

Sales positions are much more important than the administration.

Sales is the department where the company really pays.

The administration is a steward of the company, who is in charge of trivial matters.

Elsa didn't think too much, but instead felt that if she could do a good job in sales and bring actual profits to the company, then the chairman of the board should pay more attention to her in the future!

So, this is a good thing for her!

Out of Doris's office happily, the first thing Elsa did was to call her good girlfriend Claire.

As soon as the phone connected, she said excitedly: "Claire, I have been transferred to the sales director!"

"Really?" Claire got excited all of a sudden, and said: "This is really great! You are a sales talent, and you are too talented to be an administrative officer! Now you have more room to play and can make great achievements!"

"Hehe!" Elsa was also very happy, blurting out: "Why don't we have dinner together to celebrate? You call Charlie as well."

Claire said with some embarrassment: "We are both getting home now. To be honest, I am really tired today. Can I get a rain check?"

Elsa knows that Claire has been working hard recently, so she hurriedly said, "Hmm! You have been working too hard lately. You work overtime frequently for meetings, so go back and have a good rest. Let's get together after you finish!"

"Okay." Claire said, "When I finish my work for a while, let's hang out together!"

Elsa smiled and said, "That's a deal!"

Hanging up the phone, Elsa felt a little lost.

She doesn't have any real friends in Aurous Hill, the only good friend is Claire.

Now she moved to the position of sales director, the stage was bigger, it was a good opportunity to prove herself, but she couldn't find a person to celebrate it with.

Just as she sighed and sighed, the phone rang suddenly.

It turned out to be Harold who called!

Chapter 115

Seeing Harold was calling, Elsa didn't want to pick it up.

She didn't have a good impression of Harold, and she could see that Harold's motive was nothing more than to get close to her and achieve the purpose of attracting her.

However, she really didn't have any interest in such people, so she hung up the phone directly.

But Harold persevered. After a few consecutive times, Elsa reluctantly picked it up and asked coldly: "Harold, are you okay?"

Harold hurriedly said, "Elsa, I heard that you were transferred to the sales director?"

Elsa asked in surprise: "Wow you are so well informed?"

Harold smiled and said, "I happen to have a few friends working in your Emgrand Group. They said they had received new appointments from the company, so they told me."

"Yeah." Elsa said: "I am now the sales director."

"Congratulations! Congratulations!" Harold said excitedly: "This position is with real power, and there is a lot to do! You are really lucky this time!"

Elsa said lightly: "Thank you."

Harold said again: "Elsa, you see, you have been in Aurous Hill for some time, the previous time in Classic Mansion, the trouble was quite unpleasant, in order to express my apology, I want to invite you to dinner again, just today You have moved to the post of sales director again. It is a happy day. It should be celebrated. What do you think?"

Elsa said, "But I might have to work overtime tonight"

Harold said: "Elsa, this happy event is to be celebrated in time. Otherwise, you won't feel this joy tomorrow. You don't have many friends in Aurous Hill. I would not as well just find a place for the two of us to celebrate. what do you think?"

Elsa was slightly moved.

To be honest, she really wanted to celebrate.

However, Claire couldn't come, and she didn't know who to celebrate with for a while.

Now that Harold took the initiative to call, he could be regarded as giving himself a choice.

Although Harold is a bit hypocritical, it is better for two people to celebrate than one.

Thinking of this, Elsa said: "Then you can send me the address."

"Okay, I've made a reservation at the Aurous Hill Hotel. After you arrive, just report my name."

Elsa nodded and said: "Okay, then I'll be over in a while."

Elsa left the company and took a taxi to the Aurous Hill Hotel.

Although it is not as good as Classic Mansion, it can be regarded as one of the top restaurants in Aurous Hill.

At this time, Harold was wearing a suit, arranging his oily head, and standing at the door with a gentle manner, waiting for Elsa.

However, the bandage on his hand completely destroyed the atmosphere he deliberately created.

Elsa's upper body casual clothes, lower body jeans, a youthful scene, the moment she got out of the car, she attracted all her eyes.

Harold and You Rongyan hurriedly greeted them and said, "Elsa, you are looking so beautiful today, please come in, you are all ready."

"Thank you." Elsa smiled politely.

The two were seated and soon the food was served.

Harold asked the waiter to bring a bottle of top-notch red wine and complimented him: "Elsa, today is a great day, so you have to drink something to celebrate!"

Elsa hurriedly said: "Don't drink the wine, let's have something else."

"How about that!"

Harold originally wanted to take the opportunity to get Elsa drunk and see if he could find a chance to start, but Elsa refused to drink as soon as he came up with this idea, which made him extremely disappointed.

Elsa waved her hand and said, "I'm sorry Harold, I'm not feeling well, so I really don't drink it anymore. I will drink some when I have a chance next time."

Chapter 116

In fact, Elsa can probably guess Harold's intentions, and her self-protection awareness is relatively strong, so she made up her mind not to drink with Harold tonight.

Harold couldn't help but feel depressed when he saw that he could not persuade her, but he didn't dare to show it.

Elsa nodded: "Thank you for understanding!"

At this moment, sitting at the table next to them, a young man who looked gentle was staring at Elsa forever.

After Elsa came in, he was attracted by Elsa's appearance and temperament.

In his opinion, this woman is really too beautiful, and she has an extraordinary temperament, just like a fairy coming to the world!

After observing for a while and discovering that this woman and the man opposite her were not a couple, the young man decided that he should not miss this opportunity.

After a while, the young man stood up, walked to the table of Elsa and Harold, and said to Elsa: "Hey lady, since you entered the hotel, I fell in love with you at first sight. I don't know if you want to stay. Give me a contact number?"

Elsa was stunned.

She didn't expect that she would meet someone who strikes up directly.

Harold was also very hot.

dmn, where did the silly fork pop up? Didn't you see that I was with this girl? You dare to come up and flirt with her, you fuking want to die?

So, before Elsa could speak, he said coldly: "Who are you? What are you doing here at our table?"

The young man said lightly: "What does it have to do with you when I talk to this lady?"

After that, he said to Elsa again: "Lady, I just stared at you for a long time. I didn't want to take the liberty to disturb you, but I was really moved by you. I came here for fear of missing this opportunity, so please forgive me. "

Harold exploded immediately!

dmn, what kind of dog, dare you fking steal a woman from me?

So he immediately yelled: "I warn you, it's best to stay away if you know! If you dare to talk or peek, I will gouge your dog eyes!"

The young man turned to look at Elsa and asked, "Your boyfriend?"

Elsa shook her head.

The young man turned his head to look at Harold, and said, "Since you are not her boyfriend, then I can confess to this beautiful woman, it has nothing to do with you, right?"

Harold sneered and said, "I don't like you watching her, you can't watch her!"

The young man frowned and said, "You seem to be awesome?"

Harold sneered: "Boy, I'm from the Willson family, stay away from me, don't cause trouble to yourself!"

Elsa felt a little disgusted.

She didn't like this young man's direct confession.

Secondly, she doesn't like Harold's attitude of being the number one in the world.

At this moment, the young man's face changed suddenly, staring at Harold and said coldly, "What the hll is the Willson family? What the hll are you? I warn you, if you pretend to be so f*cking with me, or I will let see!"

Harold gritted his teeth immediately, and his heart was already extremely angry.

Anyone really dares to pretend to be forceful!

The first time he invited Elsa to dinner, he lost his face once. This time, if he doesn't give him some color, and then gets embarrassed again in Elsa's face, it would be even more useless to chase her.

Thinking of this, he said nothing, picked up the wine bottle on the table, and yelled: "What are you talking nonsense here! You are going to die!"

After all, a bottle hit the young man's head!

With a bang, the other party's blood flowed!

Chapter 117

The young man was smashed by him, and he was dizzy and almost untenable.

The people around were also taken aback by this sudden use of wine bottle.

Harold stared at the young man with blood on his face and sneered: "If you don't get out, I will break your leg!"

The young man gritted his teeth, covered his head, and said: "Okay, you have guts, you wait for me!"

After that, the young man clutched his smashed head and ran out in a hurry.

Harold laughed disdainfully, and said, "Fool, dare you to threaten me? I don't even ask, who is Harold afraid of in this city?"

After speaking, he deliberately said to Elsa with a smug look: "Elsa, there are such flies everywhere, don't be affected by him, let's continue to eat and leave him alone."

Elsa was not in a good mood after being so disturbed, she nodded and did not speak.

During the meal, Harold tried to invigorate the atmosphere several times, but Elsa didn't catch it.

In her eyes, Harold was not only incapable but also a little too reckless. Such a man couldn't stay in her eyes.

Harold originally thought that by standing up to that man directly in front of Elsa, should subdue her, but never expected that Elsa seemed to be a little more repulsive and disgusted with him.

This made him feel particularly depressed. He didn't expect that Elsa didn't like men who use violence. Isn't this shooting himself in the foot?

For a meal, Harold was extremely depressed.

He had just finished eating, he originally wanted to chat with Elsa a few more words to increase his relationship.

As a result, Elsa frowned and said: "It's late, I have to go back, thank you for your hospitality."

Harold was depressed and said, "Then I will drop you!"

Elsa shook her head: "No, I will just take a taxi."

At this time Elsa just wanted to quickly draw a line with Harold.

Harold was very angry, and said, "Then I will join you to the car, otherwise."

Elsa did not refuse, nodded, and got up and walked out.

Harold hurriedly followed.

He suffocated his stomach and wanted to make a romantic date. He took the opportunity to confess to Elsa, but he didn't expect that b@stard to ruin everything, there was no chance at all, and he seemed to have left a bad impression on Elsa.

"If I meet him again, I must kill him." Harold cursed bitterly.

At this moment, Charlie had just finished eating and was clearing the dishes.

Claire said anxiously at this time: "Charlie, there is a supplier quotation document in my bag, have you seen it?"

Charlie shook his head: "I haven't touched your bag since I came back."

Claire thought for a while before she patted her forehead and said, "Oh, the documents should have fallen in the meeting room of the Emgrand Group. I have to use them tomorrow morning. Or you can drive me to fetch them!"

Charlie smiled and said: "You are so tired. Take some rest. I'll get it for you."

Claire sighed and said, "I am really exhausted, so please do it for me. The document number is gy20191101."

Charlie waved his hand and said, "It's not a big deal."

After that, Charlie drove to the Willson Group.

Here, Harold and Elsa had just left the hotel and came to the roadside.

Elsa was about to take a taxi, and at this moment, three white vans parked on the side of the road, and a dozen strong men suddenly got off and rushed over aggressively.

The dozen or so people are all black cloth masked, holding steel pipes, and they are here to seek revenge!

"Not good!" When Harold saw so many people running towards him, he was half-dead in shock.

Elsa also saw this scene, and her face paled in shock. She guessed that this group of people must be the young man who had just sought revenge. Looking at this posture, she was afraid that they would kill her!

Sure enough, a young man with gauze on his head stood up and shouted: "d*mn, that is the b@stard!"

As soon as the voice fell, everyone immediately rushed towards Harold with an order.

"I am the young master of the Willson family! You dare to touch me!"

Harold was flustered and yelled pretentiously.

A strong man smiled contemptuously and slammed a steel pipe at him when he came up.

Chapter 118

Harold was so frightened that he almost wet his pants.

At this time, he was shocked and suddenly pushed Elsa out. Elsa uttered an ah, and she pushed him to the other side.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Harold ran to his car, opened the door, and sat in, then started the car and fled the scene without hesitation.

Elsa is about to explode!

This Harold is really a b@stard!

He caused the trouble himself, but at the critical moment, he, a big man, actually pushed her, a woman, to block the gun and ran away?

In this world, can you find a second sc*m like him?

Seeing Harold run away, the young man cursed.

"This b@stard dropped the woman and ran by himself. What a waste!"

After all, he stared at Elsa and said coldly: "Beauty, call that b@stard back to me, otherwise, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Elsa blurted out: "I don't know him well, please don't involve me in your affairs."

The young man pointed to his head holding the gauze and said coldly: "d*mn, I have sixteen stitches on my head. I can't breathe, I can't eat anything! If he doesn't come to save you, you can tell me. Going home and letting Mr. cool off for a whole night is the compensation you have to pay!"

Elsa blurted out: "How can you do this! This is illegal!"

"Illegal?" The young man said coldly, "My words are the rule! After I finish you, you will find out what is legal and what is not!"

Elsa felt cold for a while, and her panic and despair almost obliterated her.

She hurriedly said: "I'll call him now!"

After that, she took out his cell phone and called Harold.

Harold was driving desperately, thinking that the farther he could escape, the better when he suddenly saw Elsa calling him, and his heart shook.

That's it!

d*mn, what bad luck!

He also said to get in touch with her and build a relationship with the Dong family, so that the family can ascend up.

This is all right, Elsa has been severely offended!

However, how dare he answers the phone at this time?

Answering the phone is nothing more than going back, even fools can guess the next step.

But, do you still have a life when you go back? The gang is aggressive and they also carry steel pipes, even if they don't take his life, he is afraid he will be disabled for life.

Women are important, but life is more important!

So he decided to continue to escape, regardless of her call!

Elsa couldn't get through, and she was desperate.

She pleaded to the young man: "I can give you money, please let me go. It's really none of my business."

The young man grinned and said: "I don't want your money! I want your body!"

Elsa was so scared that she knew that if she didn't do anything, this person would not let her go.

So, while the other party was not on guard, she bit her silver teeth and kicked between the young man's legs.

The young man didn't expect that she would dare to resist. He was kicked straight in the crotch, his body moved with a scream of pain, and subconsciously waved his hand, stabbing her with a knife!

Elsa was about to escape, when she felt a sharp pain in her thigh, she screamed and fell to the ground.

A sharp dagger pierced her leg with blood flowing out.

"Smelly lady, you want to run!"

The young man became angry and grabbed her by the hair, and said with a sneer: "Congratulations, your success has angered me. Tonight, my brother and I will take good care of you!"

Elsa shed two lines of tears in despair.

She had declared her death sentence in her heart. She knew that this young man would not let her go, and she was afraid that she would really die in his hands.

In this case, it is impossible for anyone to save her.

She had never noticed that at this time, a black BMW car was gradually approaching. Charlie, who was driving, saw her at a glance, frowning suddenly!

Chapter 119

Elsa suffered severe pain in her leg, desperate in her heart, and tears kept streaming out.

Seeing her beautiful face with rain in pear blossoms, the young man became wicked, swallowed hard, and blurted out: "Get her in the car!"

Someone booed next to him: "Master, when will we come with this beauty again?"

The young man said coldly: "When I'm done, let you come!"

After speaking, he reached out to grab her and get to the car.

At this moment, he suddenly heard several miserable screams from the periphery!

"what!"

Suddenly, several screams violently sounded.

The young man raised his head angrily and shouted sharply: "What's the matter?"

But as soon as he looked up, he suddenly felt a strong wind hit the door!

Before he could dodge, he felt a sharp pain in his face, a hammer splashed all over his eyes, the bridge of his nose snapped off, and nosebleeds burst out suddenly.

Like a sledgehammer hitting his head, the young man screamed in pain, his body swayed and fell backward.

Just when he fell, he saw several accomplices behind him, lying on the ground like a dead dog, all motionless.

Elsa raised her head in horror, her beautiful eyes suddenly enlarged.

She saw a person wearing a black mask standing in front of her, his eyes as cold as a knife.

Elsa was surprised and happy, and exclaimed in her heart, who is he? Is he here to save her? Yes, he must be here to save her!

The youth's face was bloody, and he fell to the ground and couldn't get up.

This person shot too fast, and in a blink of an eye, the four people were released. The remaining masked people reacted for several seconds, rushing to him while roaring, and calling their comrades.

"You, who are you." Elsa sat on the ground, looking up at the person in front of her.

This person didn't answer, but quickly picked her up and ran deep into the alley.

Elsa panted, her heart pounding, she was still in shock.

Behind him came the stern shouts of the brawny men and the roar of motorcycles, clearly pursuing them with all their strength.

The whistling wind blew past her face, Elsa had lost too much blood on her legs, and, coupled with the panic, she could only hug this person weakly.

For some reason, she vaguely felt that the breath of this person seemed a bit familiar.

But she didn't know that this mysterious man hugging her was the husband of her good girlfriend, Charlie.

Charlie drove past here, but he happened to see Elsa being surrounded.

He was afraid that Elsa would have something serious, so he wore a mask and came to rescue her.

After being transformed by that ray of spiritual energy from the white stone, Charlie's skills have become extremely good, and the speed was much faster than before.

In addition, there were so many alleys here, Charlie quickly threw away the chasing soldiers.

He hugged Elsa and ran a long distance before coming to the depths of a park before stopping.

It's getting late and the plants are dense in the depths of the park. Even if the opponent catches up, they can hide their traces.

He put Elsa on the ground and frowned when he saw that her pants had been stained red with blood.

Although Elsa lost too much blood, she managed to stay awake, pale and grateful: "Thank you for saving me. Who are you?"

Chapter 120

Charlie glanced at her but didn't say a word.

He has never looked down upon her, even if he reveals his true colors, what is the point? It's just annoying.

Therefore, it is better to hide to the end.

Moreover, he didn't take special care of Elsa, he only took care of his wife Claire's face before he tried to save her.

Seeing that Charlie didn't say a word, Elsa also understood what the other party meant, and knew that the other party must not want to reveal the identity, so she was embarrassed to ask further.

But she has a strong personality, not the kind of woman who clings to men. Since the other party saved her, but she is not grateful for it, she always feels that she owes something in her heart.

Just as Elsa wanted to ask, she heard a hoarse and cold voice in her ears.

"Take off your pants."

Elsa raised her head in astonishment and saw the masked man's eyes look on her body, and she was suddenly angry.

Thought to escape the tiger's mouth, but fell into the wolf den again.

This is a wilderness, and the opponent is so skilled, even if she shouts to the sky, she can't escape the clutches.

In despair, Elsa gritted her teeth and said sternly: "Don't touch me, I will never be humiliated! If you dare to do anything to me, I would rather die!"

Charlie was taken aback, deliberately suppressing the voice, pointing to her leg, and said: "Your hamstring has been injured, and the wound is close to the aorta. If it is not treated in time, it may become disabled. Now if the bleeding does not stop, it will send you to a coma. If you say the hospital, it's definitely too late to get to the hospital, what do you say?"

Elsa looked at him in amazement, her cheeks suddenly hot.

She thought that the other party wanted to be unruly to her, but she didn't expect

Seeing Elsa staring at him dumbfounded, Charlie sighed in his heart.

Elsa asked him timidly: "Can you help me stop the bleeding?"

Charlie nodded and said, "I have studied traditional medicine and can use acupuncture techniques to stop bleeding and slow down the injury. Then you will have time to go to the hospital for follow-up treatment."

"Thank you." Elsa's face flushed, her voice was as inaudible as a mosquito.

She couldn't help but glance at her wound, her heart was extremely contradictory.

This injury is impartial, just on the upper thigh, and she has to take off your pants.

But if she took it off, wouldn't she be seen by the other side?

The Dong family's upbringing is very strict, and Elsa never interacts with other men, let alone let men touch her body.

Moreover, the Dong family has a family doctor who is a well-known western doctor abroad. She does not believe that only acupuncture can stop bleeding and cure injuries.

Elsa thought for a while, and declined: "Thank you for your kindness, but please send me to the hospital first, I think I can hold it."

Charlie frowned, how could he not know what the other party was thinking.

Elsa must feel that she is not injured to death now, so she wants to go to the hospital first.

But she knew that the reason she didn't feel that serious right now was because he secretly injected a trace of spiritual power into her body when he was holding her.

Otherwise, how could she have survived until now, having lost too much blood and died?

Seeing that Charlie didn't speak, Elsa believed that the injury should not be so serious, so she wanted to stand up.

But as soon as she moved, the wound burst open, and a burst of blood spurted out.

Elsa's body became soft, she sat on the ground dizzy, her face extremely pale.

Charlie frowned and said, "I just said that if you move around, this leg will definitely be broken. Even if you go to the hospital, there is no way to cure it. Not to mention that you have lost too much blood. It is possible to die in shock without waiting for the ambulance to come. You can choose whether to cure it now or die!"

Chapter 121

Elsa clutched her legs and saw blood leaking from her fingers, she knew Charlie hadn't lied to her.

However, asking her to take off her pants in front of a strange man, she struggled incomparably.

In the face of life and death, Elsa hesitated for a while and finally compromised.

She didn't want to die, let alone become disabled.

Elsa's face was flushed, she raised her head and glanced at Charlie, her heart thumped and her whole body was strange.

Finally, she said softly: "I see, thank you."

Charlie nodded, knelt down, and grabbed her trousers with both hands and tore it forcefully.

Elsa suffocated her breath, her pretty face was so hot, her heart beat faster, she didn't dare to look at Charlie when she lowered her head.

Charlie's eyes were calm, he saw the knife wound on her left leg, put his two fingers together, and pointed at the acupuncture points.

A hint of spiritual energy dipped into the injury from his finger.

Charlie's eyes were always staring at the wound, and he didn't even glance at any other place.

He gestured like flying, and after a few fingers went down, the blood in the wound gradually stopped.

According to the medical techniques on the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, he was able to completely heal Elsa's injuries, regenerate her tendons, and even recover the wounds on the spot, but Charlie didn't want to shock her.

He just used fingers as acupuncture to help Elsa stop the bleeding, her muscles and veins healed, and then she stopped. She only needs to bandage the remaining skin wounds in the hospital and she can be discharged from the hospital and heal herself.

Elsa's heart slammed into confusion, feeling that after Charlie tapped a few fingers, the pain was relieved and the blood stopped, she was shocked.

Unexpectedly, the traditional medicine that her family considers useless is more useful than western medicine!

"Okay." Charlie said lightly, stood up without squinting, "You stand up and try."

Elsa tried to stand up, her leg had stopped bleeding, she was surprised and happy.

She blushed and raised her head, and said shyly: "Since you don't want to be named, give me a chance to thank you?"

"No," Charlie said coldly, he didn't want to expose his identity.

"You saved me. If I can't even thank you, I will be ashamed all my life."

Elsa said stubbornly, and then took off a necklace from her neck: "This is my coming-of-age ceremony. Grandpa gave me a gift. You save my life and I want to give it to you."

What she held in her hand was a platinum chain with a crystal clear pink diamond inlaid on the pendant.

Charlie wanted to refuse, but he felt a faint aura on the pink diamond. He took it over with a turn of his mind.

He nodded, took off his jacket, tied it around her waist, and said, "Excuse me, I tore your pants. You can wrap my clothes around. I just used your phone to call I got the emergency number of the nearby hospital. The ambulance will arrive in about a few minutes. You are safe. I have something to do, will leave now."

After speaking, Charlie turned around without looking back and disappeared into the dense sorghum field as soon as his figure shook.

"Hey, wait," Elsa yelled, and Charlie had already been lost in front of her eyes.

Outside the park at this time, the sound of the ambulance was heard.

She looked down at the jacket surrounding her body, and then at the direction in which Charlie disappeared, feeling lost.

In the next second, she suddenly felt that the back when the other party left was so familiar.

Elsa recalled for a while, and suddenly remembered that this back figure is exactly the same as the chairman!

"Is it the chairman of the Emgrand Group?" Elsa was moved.

But she didn't ask the other party's name, nor did she see the other party's appearance, and she doesn't know if the guess is true?

At this moment, Elsa suddenly discovered that a gray pebble had fallen from the place where Charlie had just squatted. The words "peace and wealth" were still written on the stone.

Chapter 122

This stone, accidentally fell out, right?

Elsa immediately grasped it like a treasure.

If she never sees him again, then this stone is the only token he left to her.

After Elsa was taken to the hospital by ambulance, her injuries were not serious after diagnosis.

The doctor who treated didn't know that she had undergone Charlie's initial treatment, and was extremely surprised at her injury.

Judging from the stab wound on her leg, it can be seen that the tendon is ruptured, and damaged.

But for Elsa's skin and flesh injuries, the tendons and veins inside were intact, as if they had been reconnected, the veins and tendons were stronger.

The doctor told her: "You can recover from your injury after a few days of rest. To be honest, this is really incredible. Did you do any special treatment for the wound?"

Elsa thought about the mysterious person, but she said: "I didn't do anything special."

The doctor sighed, "That's amazing!"

Having said that, the doctor said again: "By the way, I have notified the police and they will come soon. You can tell them about the attack."

Elsa nodded gently.

The police came quickly.

It was the senior executives of the Emgrand Group who took a serious injury.

Among the police officers who came, someone knew the Willson family and knew she was a guest of the Willson family, so they notified the family as well.

At the Willson family villa at this time, a large family is discussing what should be done.

Harold told them that something went wrong with Elsa, but did not say that it was because of him. The Old Mrs. Willson still felt that this was a good opportunity for the Willson family to perform. She must find a way to find Elsa, rescue her, and give Harold an extra Add drama to help him capture Elsa's heart.

When she heard that she was in the hospital, Lady Willson was immediately disappointed and exclaimed: "If Harold could seize this hero's chance to save her, it would have been great!"

After speaking, she immediately said to everyone: "Come, let's go to the hospital and see!"

Harold had no bottom in his heart, but he could only bite the bullet and go to the hospital with his family.

On the way, Harold had already thought about excuses, but he didn't know if Elsa would buy it.

Upon arriving at the hospital and seeing Elsa, Harold immediately showed a strong surprise on his face, and hurriedly stepped forward: "Elsa, are you okay? I was about to call my dad and take someone to save you."

"Help me?" A hint of irony flashed across Elsa's cold face, and said lightly: "I was almost killed by you!"

Harold hurriedly explained: "Elsa, don't get me wrong. I was trying to attract their attention. After all, the person they were looking for was me, not you. I thought they wouldn't do anything to you."

Elsa snorted coldly and was too lazy to speak with Harold, because she had already seen the face of this person thoroughly, only thinking about how to go far away from him in the future.

Seeing that Elsa didn't blame him anymore, thinking she believed his statement, Harold looked up and down Elsa and saw that she was surrounded by a men's jacket. He frowned, "Elsa, where are your pants?"

Elsa was full of disgust, didn't want to talk to him at all, and said coldly: "It has nothing to do with you!"

Old Mrs. Willson's shrewd eyes swept over Elsa's body, staring at the men's jacket on her, and stepped forward and asked: "Elsa, if you have anything, you can tell grandma, that group of people didn't do anything to you, right?"

Elsa said blankly: "They stabbed me. Fortunately, a young man who passed by saved me. Because I had a leg injury, he helped me treat it. The pants were torn and he took off his jacket. Give it to me, why, there is a problem?"

"Young man?" Old Mrs. Willson was shocked.

A young man rescued Elsa, which is not so good! In case Elsa feels good about the young man, wouldn't her precious grandson Harold has no chance?

Harold also said jealously at this time: "Elsa, how did the other party treat you? Did he take off your pants and treat you?"

Elsa sneered and said sarcastically, "What does it have to do with you?"

Chapter 123

Harold only felt a “buzz” in his head, and a wave of jealousy hit his forehead.

He didn't even touch Elsa's hand, she was undressed by a strange man, and he was still touching and pressing on her thigh.

How the h*ll can this be accepted!

Harold didn't care at this moment that Elsa was extremely disappointed in him. He gritted his teeth and said, “I don't think this person wants to save you at all, but wants to take advantage of the fire, and try to insult!”

As soon as Harold's voice fell, all the eyes of the Willson family were focused on Elsa.

Everyone thought the same as him.

A beautiful and attractive woman lying in front of a strange man with disheveled clothes, letting the other person rub her, the inner feelings of this make people think about it.

Elsa was swaying with anger, extremely disappointed in Harold!

Not only did he escape first, but now he is maliciously speculating about her accident, and in front of so many people, it is not only unscrupulous but shameless!

Elsa said coldly: “Harold, the person who saved me didn't do anything wrong with me. I took off my own pants! It has nothing to do with you!”

After that, Elsa gritted her teeth and cursed: “It's you, Harold, everything is caused by you tonight. When the other party brought people to seek revenge, you ran so fast and left me where I was. I was stabbed, and you still say this now? Are you not shameless?”

Harold choked, his face flushed and he was speechless.

Elsa didn't look at him at all, she immediately got up out of the ward, stopped a car, and returned to the hotel where she was staying.

The Willson family was also stunned. No one thought that the truth of the matter turned out to be this way!

It turned out that Harold caused the trouble and left Elsa again, which caused Elsa to be stabbed.

As soon as Elsa walked away, the Old Mrs. Willson slapped Harold's face with anger.

Harold was beaten up and Lady Willson scolded: "How do I usually teach you? Let you please treat Elsa, you are good! You leave Elsa to fend for herself, you have done this kind of animal behavior, how could she like it? It is all on you?"

"Grandma, I was wrong." Harold clutched his hot face and suddenly woke up, regretting it greatly.

Only then did he realize that he and Elsa would never be together!

Charlie returned home and did not tell his wife what happened tonight.

And his wife knew nothing about Elsa's experience.

After all, Claire's family has always been rejected by Lady Willson, so they are not qualified to live in Willson's villa, and naturally, there is nowhere to learn about these things.

The next day, as soon as Claire got up, she received a call from the Lady Willson.

The Lady Willson said to her: "Claire, you go to Tianhao Building Materials Group today, find a way to talk with their boss, see if they can you first credit us with 10 million building materials, and wait until we settle the payment from the Emgrand Group."

Claire hurriedly said, "Grandma, Tianhao Building Materials Group has done a lot of business, and they have a high right to speak. They have never used credit."

Lady Willson said: "There is no way. The Willson family has some problems with the capital chain now. We can't afford to advance so many costs and expenses. It is also very difficult to obtain loans. We can only find a solution from Tianhao Building Materials Group."

Then, the Lady Willson said again: "Claire, now that the family is suffering from internal and external troubles, your cousin doesn't give me strength. Now I only rely on you. Think of a way to have a good chat with Zhou Tianhao, the boss of Tianhao Building Materials Group. As long as he nods, we have a chance!"

Claire hesitated for a moment, but reluctantly agreed, and said, "Grandma, let me try."

"Well, good!" The Old Mrs. Willson breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Grandma believes you can do it!"

Chapter 124

After hanging up the phone, Claire was a little melancholic.

Charlie couldn't help asking: "What happened?"

Claire probably told Charlie about the matter again.

Charlie nodded and said, "Why don't you tell the Emgrand Group and let them prepay 20 million for the project?"

Claire hurriedly said: "Well, how can we cooperate with Emgrand Group. We have already climbed high. If we ask someone to pay for the project, we will be looked down upon."

Charlie wants to say, the Emgrand Group is your husband's, what is the 20 million? Who dares to look down on you?

But Claire didn't know.

She said: "Well, let me talk to Mr. Tianhao."

Charlie said: "Then I will go with you."

"Inappropriate." Claire said: "Isn't it too unprofessional to take husband to discuss business."

After that, Claire said in a convenient way: "You just stay at home. If you are really bored, go out. There is nothing wrong anyway."

Seeing her resolute attitude, Charlie didn't say much.

He knew that his wife had always been independent, and wanted to work hard on her own for many things.

Then he might as well ask her to try, if it doesn't work, he will come out to help secretly

After breakfast, Claire made an appointment with Zhou Tianhao, the boss of Tianhao Building Materials Group, and drove there alone.

The Tianhao Building Materials Group is one of the largest building materials groups in Aurous Hill and even in Jiangnan. It is mainly engaged in various aluminum alloy building materials and is an indispensable supplier for large-scale real estate projects.

Zhou Tianhao was born in a not so well-off family, but he was lucky enough to get a wife with a strong family, so he took the help of his wife's house and developed to the present stage.

However, Zhou Tianhao has a strict wife. Although his wife is very ugly, he never dared to mess around outside, so Zhou Tianhao has a good reputation locally, saying that he is a good man who never forgets his wife.

Tianhao Building Materials Group is located on the outskirts of the city, with a large-scale factory with thousands of acres of land alone.

After Claire drove to Tianhao Building Materials Group, she came to the office building.

After stopping the car, Zhou Tianhao had been waiting in the lobby of the office building for a long time.

Seeing her coming, Zhou Tianhao immediately put on an enthusiastic smile, walked to Claire, proactively stretched out his hand, and said, "Oh, Mr. Willson, welcome!"

Claire stretched out her hand, shook it politely, and said with a smile: "Mr. Tianhao, you are too polite."

After speaking, she wanted to withdraw her hand.

But she found that Zhou Tianhao grabbed her hand and didn't let go, and he even tightened his grip.

Claire pulled out her hand hard, and said with a wary expression: "Mr. Tianhao, what are you doing?"

Zhou Tianhao hurriedly scratched his head and smiled: "Oh, I'm so sorry. I always heard of you all around and saw you today. I could not hold back. Please forgive me!"

Seeing him, Claire was also frank and was able to apologize directly, a little relieved.

At this time, Zhou Tianhao hurriedly made a gesture of inviting and said with a smile: "Ms. Willson, please come to my office for a chat!"

Chapter 125

Zhou Tianhao took Claire to his office, and the moment the door closed, there was a burst of heat in his eyes.

He quietly locked the door and then invited Claire to sit down on the sofa.

Claire looked cramped and sat opposite him with her hands folded.

Zhou Tianhao smiled and asked, "Ms. Willson, I don't know if you came to me this time, what cooperation do you want to talk to me about?"

Claire was a little embarrassed and said: "I'm telling you that Mr. Tianhao, our Willson Group's cash flow is a bit tight recently, so I want to ask you, can you first let us credit a batch of building materials?"

"Account on credit?" Zhou Tianhao said with a look of embarrassment: "As for the situation of our Tianhao Building Materials Group, Ms. Willson, you must be aware of it. We never pay for credit or send out materials first. Get Materials but first release the funds.

"I know." Claire said apologetically, "I really can't help it, but you can rest assured that the company we cooperate with is Emgrand Group, which is the largest company in Aurous Hill. They will definitely not default on our projects. As long as the payment is paid back then, we will fill in the material payment for you immediately!"

Zhou Tianhao chuckled and said, "That's what I said, but Ms. Willson, I'm not targeting you. Do you know why I set the rule that no credit is allowed?"

Claire shook her head: "Why?"

Zhou Tianhao said: "I was also very good at talking before. Customers have to get the goods first, and then settle the settlement later. I also agreed to expand the business and maintain the relationship. All customers said that as long as Party A settles it for them, they will settle the settlement immediately. But what happened? I lost more than 300 million in payment and they haven't returned it yet!"

"so much?"

Claire was also stunned by this number.

All the assets of the entire Willson Group add up to just over one billion.

Unexpectedly, Zhou Tianhao couldn't collect more than 300 million in payment for goods alone!

Zhou Tianhao sighed and said: "There is no way. These partners who are reluctant to settle the account using the same rhetoric. They all say that they will give me soon and immediately, but they just don't in reality."

Speaking of this, Zhou Tianhao shook his head and said with emotion: "In the end, there is really no way. I cannot stop all credit cooperation channels. You can get the goods. I have more goods here, but you must pay first."

Claire's expression was particularly disappointed. It seemed that this matter could not be settled the way she wants.

However, she also knows that since others have this principle, it is not good to tell them to give up the principle, so she stood up and said, "I'm really sorry, Mr. Tianhao. I will go back and talk to my grandmother. I should raise funds as soon as possible. Come to work with you then.”

When Zhou Tianhao saw her getting up to leave, he immediately said: “Oh, oh! Don’t worry, Ms. Willson!”

With that said, Zhou Tianhao hurriedly stood up and continued: “What I said just now was for ordinary partners, but with Ms. Willson, naturally I have to count it separately!”

Claire asked with some puzzlement: “Mr. Tianhao, what do you mean?”

Zhou Tianhao squinted his eyes and looked at Claire greedily.

To be honest, Claire is so beautiful!

The beautiful ones make Zhou Tianhao out of breath!

In all these years, Zhou Tianhao faced the yellow-faced woman at home, and that ugly and shriveled woman was a thousand miles worse than Claire.

Claire looks impeccable, and her figure is even more irritating. Such a woman is simply the best!

Why can’t he have such a blessing?

Why should such a superb woman marry a famous waste in the city?

Is her rubbish husband stronger?

Thinking of this, Zhou Tianhao seemed to have countless ants crawling around some parts of his body.

Chapter 126:

He felt that he hadn't had a chance to cheat for so many years, let alone touch the best beauties, seeing that half of his life had passed, he had been paying tribute to the disgusting yellow-faced woman.

Today is the best opportunity to break the shackles of fate!

Correct!

He wants to try this girl in front of him!

Try this super beauty that all men in the city are crazy about!

Thinking of this, he smiled and said: "Oh, Ms. Willson, since you have this need, then we can have a good chat. I am Tianhao, not as bad as you think."

Claire thought there was a play, and hurriedly sat down and asked with joy, "Mr. Tianhao, would you like to give us building materials on credit?"

Tianhao deliberately didn't say everything thoroughly, but rather vaguely said: "If it's someone else, I will definitely reject it directly, but if it's Ms. Willson, then I can consider it."

Claire hurriedly said: "In fact, our cooperation with Emgrand Group is really close. If you give us the building materials on credit, we will be able to give you the money immediately after the first batch of settlement from Emgrand."

Tianhao nodded and said, "Wait for me, I will make a pot of tea and we will talk over it."

With that, he got up and went to take out a teapot from the cupboard.

With his back facing Claire, he put the tea in the pot while taking out a box of sleeping pills from his pocket.

He usually took this box of pills by himself. He had some insomnia recently. The doctor prescribed some powerful sleeping pills for him. One pill will basically give him a good night's sleep.

Tianhao wanted to take the opportunity to handle Claire in the office, so he put six sleeping pills in the water.

In this way, as long as Claire drinks a cup of tea, it is basically equivalent to taking medicine.

When the action of medicine comes up, isn't she at the mercy of him?

You can put her to sleep first, then use your mobile phone to take some exposed videos and photos, and then use this to blackmail her for good!

As long as Claire called the police or told others what she was thinking, he would threaten her and publish these photos and videos, so that she would not be able to lift her head for the rest of her life and be pointed out for the rest of her life!

He believes Claire will never call the police or make public announcements.

At that time, he will have all the initiative!

He can fix her to have a relationship at any time, as long as she disagrees, he will threaten her with videos and photos and force her to submit!

In this way, wouldn't she be equivalent to having a best friend? Hahaha, is that still unhappy ending for him?

The more he thought about it, the more excited he became. After making the tea, his complexion returned to normal, and he returned to the sofa to sit down.

While pouring Claire a cup of tea, he said: "Ms. Willson, don't worry, let's talk slowly with a cup of tea."

Claire didn't think much about it. After speaking so much, she felt a little dry and dry, so he picked up the teacup and took a big sip.

Tianhao is so excited now!

He stared at Claire with fiery eyes, watching her slender and straight legs, slender waist, perfect figure, and pretty face.

This woman really exudes a charming aura everywhere, which makes his heart beat more and more.

Today is a godsend gift day for him!

When he thinks that he can enjoy this perfect woman in a while, Tianhao feels like he will burn all over!

Chapter 127:

Seeing Claire drank his tea, Tianhao was very excited.

Now, just wait for the effect of the drug to take place!

After Claire drank the cup of tea, she soon realized that something was wrong!

It seems that her head is a little dizzy and heavy!

What is going on?

She was shocked.

Did Tianhao mixed medicine in the tea this time?

Thinking of this, Claire trembled in shock!

She wanted to get up, but she felt that her legs were a little weaker.

Looking at it this way, she is afraid it is difficult to escape on her own!

Taking advantage of her own consciousness, she quietly turned on the phone, found Charlie's number on WeChat, and pressed the button to speak.

The voice was sent here, and at the same time, she said to Tianhao: "Mr. Tianhao, I feel a little dizzy. There is nothing wrong with this tea, right?"

Tianhao laughed and said, "No problem! This tea is top-notch. It costs more than 10,000 a catty. It is delicious. Would you have another cup?"

Claire said: "No thank you, Mr. Tianhao, I'm a little uncomfortable. Could you please send me out?"

Tianhao laughed a few times. He was sitting on Claire's side, but at this time, he got up and walked to the side of Claire and sat down next to her.

Looking at the restless Claire, Tianhao smiled and said: "Mr. Willson, everyone says you are the top beauty in Aurous Hill. I saw you today. It really is a well-deserved reputation. I really admire it!"

Seeing that he posted it, Claire moved to the other side, shook her head, and said, "Mr. Tianhao, can you please stay away from me?"

Tianhao smiled and said, "What's wrong with Ms. Willson? We are partners. It doesn't hurt to get close, right?"

With that said, Tianhao's body once again stuck to Claire's side.

Claire wanted to hide again, but he had reached the edge of the sofa and could only shrink her body vigorously to prevent Tianhao from touching it.

Tianhao has been leaning towards her, his eyes are constantly looking at her.

Claire's brain became heavier and heavier, and when her hands were loosened, his voice was sent to Charlie.

Charlie was doing housework at home at this time, and suddenly received a voice from his wife, subconsciously opened it, and suddenly the whole body was violent!

Oh sh!t!

This d*mn Tianhao even dared to think loosely about his wife.

He immediately took out his mobile phone and called Issac directly, and said with a black face: "All the hands you can mobilize must go to the Tianhao Building Materials Group. I will raze it to the ground today!"

Issac asked in surprise: "Mr., what's the matter? This Tianhao's wife still has some strength in the family. It is a small family attached to ours. If we rashly level the Tianhao Building Materials Group, we will not be able to compete with other younger brothers."

Charlie asked in a cold voice, "That Tianhao, who wants to assault my wife, tell me, is it rash to level him?! Huh?!"

Issac suddenly shuddered!

He thought Tianhao got the young master by accident, but he didn't expect that he turned his mind on the young lady!

If you dare to have this kind of rebellious idea, the crime cannot be blamed!

So he immediately said: "Mr. Wade, I will immediately mobilize the staff and rush over!"

"Okay! I'm going there now too!"

Issac immediately said, "Where are you, Mr. Wade? I will let the helicopter pick you up, so it will be faster!"

Chapter 128

"It is good!"

After a while, a top-heavy civilian helicopter roared up.

In the helicopter, sitting Issac and ten masters in black.

His expression is extremely ugly. d*mn, there are still people who dare to do something to the young lady in this one-third of an acre in Aurous Hill. He is really looking for death!

The helicopter was extremely fast, and it was upstairs to Claire's house in a flash.

Charlie rushed to the rooftop, climbed directly into the helicopter, and immediately said to Issac: "Hurry up at the fastest speed!"

At this time, in Tianhao Building Materials Group.

Seeing that Claire was already unable to struggle, Tianhao laughed excitedly, and immediately stretched out his hands, wanting to take off Claire's clothes!

At this moment, the door was suddenly kicked open by a few people!

An ugly, but aggressive woman rushed in with a few men who looked like bodyguards!

Seeing that Tianhao was about to take off Claire's clothes, the woman was extremely angry and blurted out, "Tianhao! You dare to eat without me!"

Tianhao was frightened suddenly!

Why did you find this yellowface woman?

Tianhao didn't know that almost all the people around him were bought by his wife. Every day he went and who came to him, his wife knew exactly where he went what he did, whom he met.

Hearing that Claire came to Tianhao, his wife immediately became vigilant.

Claire was a famous beauty in Aurous Hill. Because his wife was so ugly, she hated the beauty most. Hearing that Claire was here, she immediately set out to the office.

really!

As soon as she arrived, she found out that her husband was going to get together with Claire!

Tianhao was shocked at this time, and hurriedly said: "Wife! Wife, listen to me. Let me explain! It was she who seduced me!"

Claire's face was flushed with redness and her clothes were a little untidy, she was immediately angry and cursed: "d*mn! You dog men and women! None of you can escape today!"

Having said that, she immediately said to the bodyguards around her: "Get me the dog and the b!tch!"

Several bodyguards rushed up immediately, grasped Tianhao firmly, and held Claire with their hands behind their back.

Lianpo first rushed to Tianhao, slapped in the face, and yelled: "You b@stard! Our Feng family treats you very well. Without our family, you still don't know which public toilet to use. Yeah, you still dare to betray me!"

As Lianpo said, she beat him hard, shaking angrily.

Tianhao was screaming and cried, "My wife, don't blame me, you really can't blame me! blame this vixen, she seduced me!"

Lianpo asked coldly: "You tell me clearly what is going on!"

Tianhao hurriedly explained: "This Claire, there is a problem with the cash outflow at home, so she wants to come to me on credit for 10 million building materials. Our factory never credits, you know, and I never give anyone credit opportunity"

Speaking of this, Tianhao pointed at Claire angrily and cursed: "This shameless vixen, seeing that I refused her, she said that he would accompany me to sleep, hoping that I could give her building materials on credit."

Lianpo asked coldly: "Then you go up and get ready to sleep with her?"

"I didn't!" Tianhao said bitterly, "I was just confused for a while, but nothing really happened between me and her!"

Lianpo was so annoyed that she stepped forward to Claire and looked at her, who was already a little confused. She raised her hand and slapped her severely: "Smelly b!tch! Do you dare to seduce my husband and see me today? I won't kill you? I will not only kill you! I will destroy your sorrowful face!"

Chapter 129

Lianpo slapped Claire's face and immediately made Claire a little more sober.

She covered her face, looked at the fierce woman in front of her, and subconsciously asked: "Who are you and what are you going to do?"

Lianpo gritted her teeth and said: "What am I going to do? I'm going to kill you, you stinky frame!"

After all, she shouted to the bodyguard next to her: "Where's the knife? Give it to me! I'm going to cut off the face of this stinky frame!"

"Yes, Miss!"

The bodyguard immediately took out a sharp knife and said respectfully: "Miss, with this kind of person, don't dirty your hands, let me do it!"

Lianpo raised her hand and gave him a slap, grabbed the knife from his hand, and cursed: "Bast@rd, dare to talk to me at this time?"

The bodyguard immediately knelt on the ground and said in horror: "Miss, I was wrong, please forgive me!"

Lianpo kicked him away and said angrily: "Get out of here!"

After that, with a knife, she would come over and scratch Claire's face.

Claire was trembling in fright, trying to break free, but her body was controlled by the bodyguard, and she couldn't move at all, and her body was so soft that she couldn't get her strength.

At this critical moment, someone suddenly shouted: "Give me the knife!"

Lianpo turned her head, and a young man rushed in with ten men in black!

"Who are you, drafting, dare to take care of my business? Do you know who I am?"

Charlie gritted his teeth and said: "I don't f*cking care who you are!"

After speaking, he rushed over and kicked the woman out.

Seeing Charlie, Claire broke down and cried, yelling: "Husband, save me"

With luck, Charlie gathered all the spiritual energy in his body on his fist, and suddenly punched the two bodyguards who were holding his wife.

boom!

The two of them were blasted out in an instant and hit the wall directly, and fell unconscious!

Claire was no longer under control, but when her legs became weak, she immediately fell to the ground.

Charlie immediately rushed up and hugged her in his arms, seeing a slap print on her face, the blood was dripping with distress!

"Claire, don't worry! Husband will give you revenge!"

Claire cried bitterly, hugged Charlie, crying, and said, "Husband, husband, take me home."

Charlie patted her on the back and calmly said: "Don't worry, your husband will take you home, no one can hurt you!"

As he said, a wave came out of his hand, making Claire fall asleep deeply.

Charlie put Claire on the sofa next to him and said to Issac, "Protect my wife for me!"

Issac nodded and said sternly, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, she is in safe hands, I will raise my head to see you!"

Charlie turned to look at the yellow-faced woman who was kicked by him, grabbed her from the ground, and punched her in the face: "You beat my wife?"

Lianpo was full of blood and shouted hoarsely: "Do you dare to beat me! Do you know who I am? I will kill you!"

After that, she shouted to the bodyguard next to her: "Kill him for me! Kill him! Whoever killed him, I will give him one million!"

When several bodyguards got excited, they rushed up immediately.

Charlie said blankly to Issac's men: "Kill me! Kill me!"

Several people in black immediately took out the pitch-black pistols from their pockets and pulled the trigger at the bodyguards!

These bodyguards never dreamed that the group of people in black who came here would have guns!

Moreover, their marksmanship is excellent!

Every shot directly hit the skull of these bodyguards!

In an instant, all the bodyguards of Lianpo died tragically!

Everyone's skull was lifted by bullets!

Lianpo was frightened by this sudden scene: "Who are you?"

Charlie sneered: "I am Claire's husband!"

Tianhao, who was standing silly next to him, trembled with scared legs: "You, you are the live-in son-in-law of Willson family?"

Charlie smiled and asked him: "What? Are you curious, how can a son-in-law have such a strong background?"

Tianhao nodded repeatedly.

Chapter 130

Lianpo beside him calmed down and blurted out: "Tell you! My name is Lianpo! I am the daughter of the Feng family in Haicheng! Have you heard of the Feng family? Our master is the Wade family of Eastcliff! If you provoke me, no matter how strong your background is, our Feng family will never spare you! The Wade family will never spare you!"

"Oh?" Charlie smiled coldly, and said to the yellow-faced woman: "Listen well, I am the son of the Wade family of Eastcliff! I am your master! My name is! Wade! Issac!!!"

"boom!!!"

When these words came out, Lianpo was struck by lightning!

She looked at Charlie with wide eyes like a ghost.

"You, you, you are Wade Family Mr. Wade? How could it be possible! How could Wade Family Mr. Wade be in a small place like Aurous Hill!"

At this time, Issac suddenly came over and yelled: "Lianpo! Do you dare to be tough when you are about to die? This is our young master Charlie!"

Lianpo only saw Issac!

Issac!

This

This is the spokesperson of the Wade Family in Aurous Hill!

He is also the person who her father has been trying his best to curry favor!

Why is he here?

Is it

Is it

Is this young man really the young master of the Wade family? ! ? !

Lianpo suddenly collapsed, kneeling on the ground and kowtow desperately: "Mr.Wade, I was wrong, Mr.Wade! Mr. Wade, please forgive me, Mr. Wade! I really know that Mr. Wade. I am wrong! If I knew it was your wife I would never Dare to touch her with a finger, Mr. Wade!"

Tianhao also peed his pants in fright. He knelt on the ground with a plop and said with tears: "Mr.Wade, please forgive me."

Charlie's expression was sullen: "If you are plotting against my wife, do you still expect me to spare you?"

After all, Charlie shouted to men in black, "Shoot this bast@rd thing in his crotch!"

"boom!"

A man in black raised his hand and fired without hesitation.

In an instant, there was a burst of blood in the crotch of Tianhao

His roots are broken!

Charlie said again: "Break his spine, I want him to be paraplegic in a high position, and he can only move above his neck for a lifetime!"

The two black-clothed men from behind immediately stepped forward and punched Tianhao at the lumbar spine.

Click!

Tianhao felt a sharp pain!

But the pain only lasted for a second!

Next second!

Tianhao felt that he had completely lost consciousness from below his neck!

High paraplegia?

Wouldn't he has to lie down and live in this life? ! He doesn't even have the ability to stand up! He doesn't even have the ability to control his bowels anymore!

Life is better than death, isn't it a living dead? !

Tianhao was extremely desperate, and he wished to kill this man, but at this time he didn't even have the ability to kill himself!

The man in black looked at Charlie and asked, "Mr.Wade, what should I do with this yellow-faced woman?"

Charlie said with a cold face: "Same! Let them be a couple of the living dead!"

Lianpo went crazy, grabbing her hair and screaming, yelling for mercy.

But Charlie would not give her a chance.

There is only a dead-end if you dare to ruffle his feathers!

Do not!

It's so cheap to kill them with one shot!

Life is better than death for a lifetime, it is the best end!

Chapter 131

Lianpo's spine also broke!

again!

Both husband and wife have high paraplegia!

There will never be a chance of recovery!

Issac stepped forward at this time and said respectfully: "Mr.Wade, the three hundred heavy excavators I have mobilized have arrived. As long as you say something, we will immediately flatten the entire Tianhao Building Materials Group!"

"Okay!" Charlie nodded and said coldly: "Notify all the workers that the evacuation will be completed within ten minutes! Ten minutes later, it will be all flattened here!!!"

Tianhao and Lianpo were frightened.

A lifetime of hard work, is this over?

Everything is gone, and they can only be the living dead in the future. Without money, who will take care of them?

Charlie doesn't care about them.

He asked to turn on the fire alarm, and the entire factory immediately began to evacuate.

Later, Charlie picked up Claire, who was already asleep and asked several people in black to carry Tianhao and Lianpo who were unable to move.

When everyone stepped out of the office building, the entire factory was almost evacuated.

The workers thought that there was a fire, and all ran out as if to flee for their lives.

At this time, three hundred excavators have surrounded the factory.

Thousands of people called by Issac are in the periphery, and they are evacuating all the workers.

Standing in the square, Charlie said to Tianhao and Lianpo: "I want you to see with your own eyes how your hard work turns to ashes!"

After that, he immediately said to Issac: "Let the excavator come in! Take it down for me!"

Three hundred excavators came in vigorously.

The buckets and guns on the excavator made huge movements, like three hundred heavy tanks, directly tore apart several workshops of the entire factory, and then flattened them, leaving a piece of rubble.

Tianhao and Lianpo were extremely desperate.

This is all their hard work!

These factories, brick by brick and beam by beam, are the result of their half-life's hard work.

It can be said that the factory is like their child.

Now, someone tore down their factory a little bit, this is simply torturing!

At this moment, the two of them had absolutely no idea of survival.

There is only one idea in the mind.

It's death!

However, it does not exist.

Charlie will not give them a chance to die!

Let them taste the pain for the rest of their lives!

Later, Charlie said to the two of them: "I will spare you a dog's life, but you will remember me, anyone who dares to reveal my identity to the outside world, I must kill his family without a leaving a person! Not even a dog will be left!"

The two of them collapsed in fright and cried: "Mr. Wade, we dare not master! Kill us, we dare not reveal your identity, master"

Charlie nodded.

Looking at the husband and wife who had become useless, and the Tianhao Building Materials Group that had become ruins, the ill feeling in his heart was finally released.

Afterward, he said to Issac: "Let the helicopter come over and take us back!"

Issac nodded immediately, and then respectfully asked: "Mr. Wade, I think the young lady may have been drugged, should I send her to the hospital, or I will arrange a doctor to come home?"

Charlie waved his hand: "No, just send us back!"

When he returned home, Claire still did not wake up.

This is mainly because Charlie did not take back the spiritual energy in her body.

Chapter 132

After returning home and putting her on the bed, he took the spell back from Claire's body.

Immediately afterward, Claire woke up quietly.

"Husband!" Claire opened her eyes, saw Charlie's face, and immediately assured him with ecstasy, and then she couldn't help crying.

Charlie hurriedly comforted her: "It's okay baby, don't be afraid, your husband brought you home."

"home?"

Claire looked around now.

Realizing that it was the bedroom of Charlie and herself, she couldn't help but ask: "Tianhao didn't embarrass you, right?"

"No." Charlie said: "Tianhao and his wife have become paraplegic, and the entire Tianhao Building Materials Group has also been razed to the ground. This means that many injustices will kill themselves."

Claire was shocked: "How come? What is going on?"

Charlie smiled faintly: "I called a few friends to help and snatched you out. As a result, the Tianhao Building Materials Group, the entire office building, and the factory were all tofu projects. After they came out, one of their workshops exploded. The whole factory building was blown up, but unfortunately, you fell asleep at the time, otherwise, you could see the domino-like heroic scene!"

Claire couldn't believe it: "A good factory, a workshop exploded, and it was razed to the ground?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded: "It's so powerful! I think they are condemned by heaven!"

After all, he immediately quietly sent a message to Issac.

"Get the media, let them claim that Tianhao Building Materials Group caused a chain reaction because of the explosion in the workshop, and the factory collapsed!"

Issac immediately replied: "Don't worry, young master, getting on the news right away!"

A few minutes later, Claire was still trying her best to recall the details before the coma, and her mobile phone suddenly received a lot of news notifications.

She glanced at the title, and she was stunned!

The news headline is all about the Aurous Hill Tianhao Building Materials Group's accident. The accident led to the collapse of the engineering workshop of the whole plant. Several people died. The owner Tianhao and his wife were also seriously injured. The doctor said that he was afraid it was paraplegia!

Charlie said at this moment: "Here, I didn't lie to you, did I?"

Only then did Claire believe it, and exclaimed: "He was a really evil and evil is rewarded!"

After speaking, she hurriedly asked Charlie: "When you came in, the bad guy didn't do anything to me, right?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Your clothes were intact when I went. It was Tianhao's wife who rushed to stop him from invading you."

Claire shed two lines of tears: "Charlie, I'm sorry, I didn't mean to do this"

Charlie hurriedly said: "Silly girl, what are you talking about? I won't blame you! It's all me, your husband, who didn't protect you well, and let this kind of bad guy come in and almost hurt you."

Claire was so moved in her heart that she lightly hugged Charlie without saying a word.

At this moment, she realized that Charlie had extremely deep feelings for her, which made her feel a great sense of happiness in her heart.

One afternoon, Tianhao Building Materials Group was razed to the ground.

The entire upper class of Aurous Hill was in an uproar.

Although the news is said to be an accident to the outside world, none of them will believe this kind of rhetoric.

Everyone immediately began to speculate as to which big man did it.

Think about it, almost no one in Aurous Hill can do this.

Who is the one?

Everyone immediately began to think of many clues about Aurous Hill recently.

More than a dozen Rolls Royces, more than 10 million in cash to buy jadeite, became a mysterious god-level rich man who became popular on YouTube;

Acquired the Emgrand Group and threw 2 billion to build a six-star hotel, the Emgrand chairman;

The mysterious person who entrusted the Shangri-La Hanging Garden and held the wedding ceremony for two people in unprecedented history;

And this big man who razed Tianhao Building Materials Group to the ground in one afternoon

All these clues all point to one person!

The only possibility for these clues is the mysterious chairman of the Emgrand Group!

Besides him, who else has this ability?

This time, the identity of the chairman of Emgrand Group in Aurous Hill has become even more unfathomable!

Chapter 133

The saddest person when the Tianhao Building Materials Group is destroyed is Mrs. Willson.

Now the Willson family's economy is a little stagnant, she also hopes that Claire can persuade Tianhao Building Materials Group to first release a batch of building materials on credit, which can be regarded as a disguised solution to the financial pressure.

Unexpectedly, the entire Tianhao Building Materials Group was wiped out in one afternoon!

Now, what Lady Willson worries about most is the issue of funds. How to raise a sum of funds has become her greatest nightmare.

Claire did not tell her grandmother what happened yesterday. With this experience, she secretly decided not to deal with other family matters in the future and concentrate on cooperating with the Emgrand Group. Other things, even if grandma asks, she will never interfere.

The next day, Claire recovered from a lot of mental and physical conditions, and couldn't wait to go to work.

Charlie went out in the morning to go shopping for groceries, and when he returned home, he saw the Old Master, Jacob, sitting on the sofa with a depressed expression and sighed.

He frowned and asked, "Dad, why are you in a bad mood? Who made you unhappy again? Could it be that you were cheated on buying antiques once again?"

Jacob took a sip of jasmine tea and said angrily: "Don't mention antiques, sh!t, I'm angry when you mention it!"

"What?" Charlie couldn't help asking: "Are you really cheated?"

Jacob said: "It's not because of the number of places in the auction of Jumbo Pavilion!"

Charlie asked in surprise, "What is Treasure Pavilion?"

"It is a clubhouse of the Aurous Hill Cultural and Play Association. It often holds high-end auctions of culture and antiques. The auctions are all good things that are not available on the market. Every family has a place to participate."

When Jacob spoke, a trace of fascination appeared on his face.

But then, he said in a frustrated voice: "The Willson family only got an invitation letter, and your grandma actually gave it to Harold. The kid Harold has never been in contact with antiques at all and doesn't understand anything. What are you going to do? Shame on it!"

Charlie knew that his father-in-law was very obsessed with antiques, and it must be very uncomfortable for him to lose this opportunity.

So Charlie smiled and said, "Dad, if you really want to go, just ask the scalper to buy an invitation letter."

Jacob waved his hand: "The organizer of the Treasure Pavilion auction is the Song family. The Song family is the most powerful family in Aurous Hill. I don't know how many people want it, how can it be bought."

Charlie smiled.

It turned out to be an auction organized by the Song family.

Warnia, the eldest of the Song family, didn't she beg him to help identify antiques?

Little things like invitation letters should be solved by saying hello to her.

Thinking of this, Charlie said indifferently: "Some of the friends I know happen to be from this Aurous Hill family. It shouldn't be difficult to get two invitation letters."

Jacob didn't believe it, and shook his head and said, "Forget it, what kind of decent friends can you know? I think it's just some friends of friends. How can they be able to contact the Song family."

Charlie didn't say a word, and went straight downstairs, got through to Warnia's phone, and said, "Miss Song, can you help me get two invitation letters for the Treasure Pavilion auction?"

Warnia said directly, "Mr. Charlie, are two enough? If there are not enough, I will give you a few more."

Charlie took a look at the invitation letter, and said, "Enough, but I will participate with the Old Master."

Jacob is a literary fan, Claire and his mother-in-law are not interested at all. Even if they let them go, it would be a waste of time.

Charlie knew the virtues of his father-in-law after the last Antique Street incident. He had to follow him and monitor him because he is afraid that his head would be dizzy and he would be pitted so that he had no pants left.

By the way, he also wanted to go over and see if there were any rare elixir or treasures at the auction.

Speaking of treasures, Charlie couldn't help but think of the stone that said "Peace and Prosperity".

After saving Elsa, the stone disappeared. He estimated that it was lost in the process of saving her.

Afterward, he went back to search for it via the route of the day but did not find it.

Fortunately, the aura of that stone has been absorbed by him, otherwise, he would really regret it.

Since "Jumbo Pavilion" auctions are all precious treasures in the world, maybe he can gain something.

Chapter 134

Until Claire came home from getting off work, Jacob still looked listless and couldn't even lift his energy after dinner.

Charlie knew that he was sulking because of the auction invitation.

At this time, Warnia just called and said, "Mr. Charlie, I'm sorry, I'm working in Haicheng this afternoon, and I'm downstairs at your house now, so I will hand you the invitation letter."

Charlie hurriedly said, "I'll come down and get it!"

After speaking, he hurried out.

Warnia sat downstairs in her Rolls-Royce, saw Charlie come out, got out of the car, and handed him two invitation letters.

Charlie thanked her and returned home without chatting with her.

Back home, the Old Master was still angry.

Claire persuaded him: "Oh, dad, don't be angry. Grandma gave the invitation letter to Harold, hoping that Harold could take this opportunity to get to know a few people in the upper class and engage in social relationships."

Jacob sighed: "Hey, your grandma has been partial since she was a child. She didn't wait to see me, she loved your uncle and Harold. It's still like this until now. It's really annoying for me!"

Claire nodded helplessly, she also knew that grandma was eccentric.

Grandma felt that her father had nothing to do with her, and he didn't have much ability.

Then she felt that Claire was a girl and couldn't inherit the family business, so she was a little bit more pampering towards Harold.

Later, when she married Charlie, her grandmother had completely abandoned her family.

At this time, Charlie walked to the front and handed two golden invitation letters to the Old Master, and said: "Dad, I have the invitation letter you want."

"What!!"

Jacob jumped up like a spring on his butt!

He snatched the invitation letter in Charlie's hand, and hurriedly opened it and glanced at it. He was so excited that he couldn't speak.

Claire next to him was also particularly surprised. She took the invitation letter in her father's hand and looked at it. It turned out to be an invitation letter from "Jumbo Pavilion".

"Great! Charlie, you are really my good son-in-law." Jacob flushed with excitement and even said nothing.

He stretched out his hand and patted Charlie's shoulder: "My daughter married you, she really married the right person."

"Hey, just an invitation letter, it makes you so happy that your mind is not clear." Elaine cursed badly.

Jacob clutched the invitation letter tightly and said to Elaine dissatisfiedly: "What do you know, this is an invitation letter from Jumbo Pavilion!"

After speaking, he smiled and said to Charlie: "Sit down and eat!"

Then he greeted Claire: "Go, get the bottle of seal wine in my room, and have I will have a couple of glasses with my good son-in-law tonight."

Elaine looked at Jacob's happiness and gave Charlie a look of anger, no longer speaking.

Claire was also very happy, but she had some doubts. After taking out the medicinal liquor, she sat down beside Charlie and bumped her elbow: "Where did you get this invitation letter?"

She also inquired about the company in the afternoon and wanted to get an invitation letter for her dad, but when she asked, she realized that the invitation letter from Jumbo Pavilion was limited to every family!

How did Charlie get it?

Charlie smiled and said: "I asked a friend what I wanted, and he also got two invitation letters, but he didn't want to go, so he gave it to me."

"Is there such a coincidence?" Claire was dubious, "Why haven't I heard you say that there is a friend with such good family conditions? What is his name?"

Charlie said lightly: "His name is Qin. I helped him in Antique Street last time. Dad knows."

Jacob also nodded again and again: "It's true that the Qin also gave a jade bracelet to Charlie, said to be worth five or six million!"

Chapter 135

As soon as Elaine heard that he had given away a bracelet worth five or six million, her eyes flashed!

"Bracelet? Where is it? Show it to me!"

Charlie was wary in his heart and said, "Mom, the bracelet is in the bedroom, but I plan to return this one."

"Return?" Elaine couldn't help frowning: "Is your brain sick? Return a five or six million things?"

Charlie said: "I only did a small favor, and they gave such a valuable thing. It's not appropriate."

"What is appropriate and inappropriate!" Elaine blurted out: "If he dares to give it to us, he dares to ask for it! What about the bracelet? If you don't need it, I want it!"

Charlie knew that the mother-in-law didn't hold back any good thoughts. The bracelet was actually intended to be given to Claire by him, but he had not found a suitable reason to tell her, so he put it on hold.

Unexpectedly, Jacob's mouth was quick enough, and it shook out all at once.

It's not that Charlie is reluctant to bear a bracelet of several million. After all, he has nearly 10 billion in his card. What kind of bracelet he can't afford?

But the key is that he feels that his mother-in-law really doesn't deserve to wear such precious things. With her shrewd temper and petty character, wearing a bracelet of 30,000 to 20,000 is worthy of her.

However, the mother-in-law Elaine was not willing to miss the opportunity at this time.

Five or six million bracelets, how much face is it?

So she urged again and again: "Where is the bracelet? Take it out and let me have a look!"

Claire next to him also knew that if this bracelet was really taken out and got into mother's hand, it would not come back.

So she also said, "Mom, since it's something to be returned to others, let's not take it out to see it. In case it hits and falls, it's not easy to explain it to others."

"Return back?" Elaine was anxious, stood up, and reprimanded: "Did your brain kick the donkey?"

Claire knew that her mother would definitely want to spoil her next time, so she resolutely said: "Mom, don't talk about it, I have already discussed with Charlie, this is the case."

Elaine also knew Claire's temper. If she insisted on giving it back, she couldn't stop it.

Thinking of the millions worth thing to be returned, she immediately shed tears in distress, crying and said: "It's okay to hire a son-in-law, and it's okay to hire a son-in-law. The girl and me are not in the same mind, I am just dead!"

Claire clipped a piece of meat to her mother and said, "Okay mom, I will buy you a bracelet in the future."

"This is what you said!"

The day of the auction.

Charlie had just left the room and came to the living room early in the morning. Jacob was already waiting impatiently and greeted him excitedly when he saw him.

"Charlie, let's go quickly, don't be late."

Knowing that he could go to the auction, Jacob didn't sleep well all night. He had already waited for Charlie here. As soon as he saw Charlie coming out, he lied to him and left.

Treasure Pavilion is a group of cultural and recreational lovers in Aurous Hill City, a cultural and recreational association organized spontaneously. Its base camp is in a manor in a scenic suburb of the city.

The president of the association has a background. It is said that personality is a real estate giant in the province who loves culture and entertainment. He took the lead in investing 100 million and gathered a group of businesspeople who also love cultural and entertainment items to form the "Jumbo Pavilion."

Charlie and Jacob arrived at the gate of Jumbo Manor, parked the car, got out of the car, and looked around.

The surrounding scenery is really chic and quiet, with a sense of extravagance, and all the cars parked outside are luxury cars, and the worst are Porsches.

The 5 Series BMW that Charlie drove was like a pheasant that fell into a phoenix den, especially dazzling.

When the Old Master got out of the car, he had to walk inside.

Chapter 136

Jacob was extremely excited. This was the first time he had come to such a high-end occasion. He kept looking around, but he was still a little afraid and couldn't let go of his hands and feet.

At the entrance of the venue, Jacob showed the invitation letter nervously.

He was a little worried, would the two invitation letters that Charlie has gotten be fake?

However, the security at the door immediately passed the verification, and respectfully said to the two of them: "Please come in!"

Jacob was relieved and walked in with Charlie.

The two of them had just entered the venue, and Harold, who was dressed up like a dog, also walked in swaggeringly.

As soon as he walked in, Harold frowned, his expression flashing in shock.

Charlie and Jacob are here!

This one, one young and rag, what are you doing here? There is only one invitation letter in the entire Willson family, and now it is in his hand, do these two rags want to get in?

Thinking of the losses suffered by Charlie before, Harold strode forward angrily, and shouted: "Charlie, how did you get in? Do you know where this is?"

Charlie suddenly heard Harold's male duck voice, and couldn't help frowning.

When Jacob saw Harold, he smiled triumphantly: "Oh, Harold, you are here too."

Not only did Harold look down on Charlie, but also the second uncle Jacob, so he frowned and asked him, "What are you doing here? Is there an invitation?"

"Of course!" Jacob blurted out.

Harold asked aggressively: "Just because you two can still get the invitation letter? Where did it come from?"

Charlie glanced at him and said indifferently: "Harold, where did our invitation letter come from? What does it matter to you?"

Harold sneered and said, "As for the two of you, how can you get the invitation letter from the Song family? I think you guys stole someone else's invitation letter and got in here, right?"

Charlie didn't bother to pay attention to him, turned his head, and said nothing.

His ignorant attitude made Harold even angrier.

In his eyes, Charlie is mere Rubbish, he has no status at all in the Willson family, he is an inferior person!

And now, Charlie can also come to Treasure Pavilion, which makes Harold feel very humiliated!

An inferior person who eats leftovers, why stand here side by side with him.

Harold stared at Charlie, pointed at his nose, and said, "Say, how did you two get in here?"

Charlie frowned and said to Jacob: "Dad, don't care about this kind of brain damage, let's go, don't care about him."

"stop!"

Harold stepped forward, deliberately blocking him, staring provocatively: "You still want to run, are you guilty? You must have used shameless means to get in! You are not qualified to enter this high-end occasion. ! Show me your invitation letter!"

Charlie was also angry, even though he tolerated step by step, it was impossible for the opponent to provoke again and again.

He said coldly: "Look at my invitation letter? You are not worthy! Get out!"

Harold frowned, and anger rushed to his forehead.

In his eyes, Charlie has always been a mediocre wimp, dare to let him go!

Harold grabbed Charlie's arm, and said coldly, "If you don't speak clearly today, won't let you leave."

Chapter 137

Harold shot quickly, but Charlie easily avoided.

Afterward, he clasped Harold's wrist with his backhand, shook it lightly, and sneered in his mouth: "What? The injury on your hand is healed? When the scar is over, I forgot the pain?"

Harold suddenly felt a huge force coming, and he couldn't help taking two steps backward, feeling angry and shocked in his heart.

This kid's hand strength is not low!

Knowing that it is not Charlie's opponent, Harold cursed coldly: "d*mn, you Rubbish wait for me, I will ask the manager to kick you out now!"

With that, Harold turned his head and shouted at the manager on the side.

Soon, a middle-aged man in a suit and leather shoes walked quickly, with two security guards behind him.

This middle-aged man was very popular and smiled at Harold: "Mr. Willson, what's your order?"

"Manager, check their invitation letter." Harold pointed his finger at Charlie and said disdainfully: "I suspect that their invitation letter is fake."

For the privacy of guests, each invitation letter does not include the guest's name, only a string of passwords.

Enter the password into the software in the phone to find out the names of the participants.

When the manager saw Harold's luxurious clothes, he knew that he was the child of a wealthy family. Looking back at Charlie, he wore ordinary clothes. He smiled contemptuously and said to Charlie: "Please show me the invitation letter and I will check it."

Although he was polite, there was a trace of contempt in his eyes.

Because Charlie wears ordinary clothes, from the outside, he doesn't look like a distinguished guest who can enter the Treasure Pavilion.

Charlie also felt the contemptuous look in the opponent's eyes, and couldn't help but feel angry, and said coldly: "What if I don't?"

The manager gave a dry cough, his eyes fell cold, and continued to ask: "Then dare you to ask which family are you in Aurous Hill City?"

Before Charlie could speak, Harold said first: "He is a member of our Willson family. No, he is a live-in son-in-law of our Willson family. In fact, he is not worthy of being a child of the Willson family. At best, he is a dog of ours!"

The four words "live-in son-in-law" made the manager guess seven or eight points.

How could a person with status in Aurous Hill City become a son-in-law?

The manager's face sank, and he said, "Let's talk about it, how did you get in?"

Faced with the scrutiny of this group of people, Charlie was already impatient in his heart, and he was also disappointed at Treasure Pavillion's behavior of dividing the guests into different classes.

He said coldly: "Of course I walked in."

The manager knew that Charlie's status was humble, and he stopped probing and said coldly: "If you don't follow the rules and hand in the invitation letter to me for inspection, then I have to ask you to go out."

After he finished speaking, he waved his hand, and the two security guards immediately stepped forward and circled Charlie with eyes.

When Jacob saw this posture, he suddenly panicked.

He was afraid that there was a problem with the invitation letter, so he hurriedly said to Charlie: "Charlie, I think we should avoid trouble, and go back quickly."

Charlie frowned, and asked a little unexpectedly, "Dad, are you not going to watch the auction?"

Jacob shook his head and said, "I won't go anymore. We shouldn't have come to this kind of place. If we are kicked out in a while, it won't look good."

Charlie nodded when he saw that the old man had already decided, and he didn't speak anymore. He nodded and took Jacob out.

It was just an auction, and he is not here to attend it. Since the Old Master didn't want to attend, then he didn't need to stay here and pester these people.

As for Warnia, if she asks about it, he will just say, your Song family's place, I'm afraid I can't afford it!

Afterward, he turned and left with the Old Master.

Harold laughed presumptuously behind him: "Hahaha, two rags, are you scared? A guilty conscience? Even dare to enter the auction of the Song family, really looking for death!"

Charlie ignored him and walked out.

At this moment, the crowd suddenly burst into an uproar.

Chapter 138

The crowd voluntarily gave up a passage from the middle, a man and a woman, stepping into the venue.

The woman wore a black evening dress, with a delicate face and a slender figure.

Under the bright light, she has a beautiful appearance and elegant temperament, and her every move, even her walking posture, is exceptionally elegant.

This beauty was the best, and Harold was completely lost in seeing her.

Warnia walked into the venue, scanned with her beautiful eyes, saw two empty seats in the VIP area in the front row, and asked: "The two VIP guests I invited have not arrived yet?"

Fungui Bao glanced at the guest information, frowned, and said: "Miss Song, the entrance shows that the invitation letters of these two distinguished guests have been verified. This proves that they have entered our auction. I don't know where did they go. Where they are."

After that, he immediately ordered the people on the side: "Go and call the manager."

Soon, the manager came over and asked, "Mr. Bao, what do you want?"

Fungui Bao pointed to two vacant seats in the VIP area and asked: "Two distinguished guests have already verified the invitation letter, why are they not in the seats?"

"Two distinguished guests?" The manager suddenly thought of the old and the young who had just been driven out by him.

Is it

Shouldn't

Since they have an invitation letter and they are still VIPs, why not let them check?

Is he angry?

Over

Fungui Bao glanced at the manager's panic, glanced at the security guard on one side, and said, "You do."

The security guard did not dare to hide it, and quickly recounted what had happened.

After listening, Warnia frowned, glanced at Fungui Bao, and said: "Mr. Bao, I will go to Mr. Charlie first, and leave it to you to deal with this matter. I hope you can give me a satisfactory result. ."

Fungui Bao nodded and watched Warnia leave. He looked gloomy and stared at the manager: "Are you tired of life? Even the distinguished guests invited by Miss Song personally dare to offend?"

The manager's legs softened, and he immediately knelt on the ground, pointing at Harold not far away, and cried out: "Mr. Bao, I didn't mean it, it was this b@stard who tricked me!"

Fungui Bao kicked the manager's face fiercely, kicked him to the ground, and cursed: "Let your dog see people down again. Now roll immediately. Don't let me see you again! In addition, today caused According to the terms of the labor contract, you will compensate for all the losses incurred by you. If you lose a penny, I will kill you!"

"Mr. Bao, please spare me"

The manager was very frightened. The loss was not small. It was really necessary to compensate, and it was not enough to pay for the loss of his property.

"The lawyer will inform you how much compensation should be paid," Fungui Bao said coldly.

The manager turned around, knelt on the ground, and kept kowtow apologizing.

Fungui Bao kicked him in disgust, winked at the left and right security guards, and whispered, "Take him out and break his legs! Let him not have eyes!"

He has been in shopping malls for many years, and naturally, he is not a good person. He is inconvenienced in front of everyone, but he will never be merciless in private!

"Lord, I got it wrong, please open the net." The manager was so scared that he begged for mercy.

Two security guards rushed forward and dragged him away with their arms.

Fungui Bao then turned his attention to Harold, and said to the people around him: "Go, bring me that man!"

Harold was still proud at this time, and he was even more pleased when he heard that the treasure pavilion's owner saw him.

Everyone knows that Master of Treasure Pavilion has a very deep background. If this can be flattered and attached, there will naturally be benefits in the future!

When he came to Fungui Bao, Harold flattered and complimented: "Oh, hello Mr. Bao! Your little brother has long admired your name. I see you today. It is indeed a dragon and phoenix among the people and a well-deserved reputation you have!"

Mr. Bao gritted his teeth, kicked Harold far away, and cursed: "d*mn, Harold, right? You dare to offend our Miss Song's guests, I think you are tired and crooked!"

Chapter 139

Harold wanted to take the opportunity to establish a relationship with Fungui Bao, but he never dreamed that Fungui Bao would suddenly kick him off.

He rolled on the ground several times before he could stabilize his figure and sat on the ground at a loss: "Mr. Bao, what is going on, is there any misunderstanding?"

The others in the room also looked silly.

"Is this guy from the Willson family? Why did you offend Mr. Bao?"

"The Willson family doesn't have many abilities. Now that you offend the pavilion master, you won't be able to mix in Aurous Hill in the future?"

For a time, there were a lot of discussions.

Many people even watched Fungui Bao fighting against Harold with the mentality of watching a good show.

At this time, Fungui Bao glared at Harold and snorted coldly: "Misunderstanding? I mistook your mother!"

After that, he came up and kicked him again, and the kick made him cry out for a change.

Fungui Bao still didn't subdue his hatred, so he stepped directly on his chest and said sternly: "b*stard, do you know who you offended?"

Harold's face was dumbfounded: "I haven't offended anyone, Mr. Bao, this is really a great injustice"

Fungui Bao raised his hand and slapped him twice, and scolded angrily: "Dog, the two you offended are distinguished guests of Miss Song, I really kill you and it still would not reduce my hatred!"

After he finished speaking, he immediately instructed the people around him: "Drag this b@stard out of my face and beat him up! In addition, from now on, apart from the two distinguished guests just now, our Treasure Pavilion bans Harold and the entire Willson family. The other people step in, who dares to let them in and break their legs directly!"

Immediately afterward, Harold was beaten by several security guards.

After a fight, these people dragged him directly and threw him out of the Treasure Pavilion!

He had a blue nose and a swollen face, and his whole body was shaking, and he was too scared to speak.

He knew that he had caused a catastrophe and harmed the entire Willson family!

But how could he think that Charlie turned out to be the guest invited by Warnia?

Why can he know the eldest lady of the Song family!

Why can this waste be favored by Warnia!

After Charlie and Jacob came out, they drove home.

Jacob sighed in the car: "Charlie, it's not your dad who told you. If you really can't find the invitation letter, why should you steal someone else's?"

"Dad, there is no problem with the invitation letter, it is the people who look down on others," Charlie explained helplessly.

Jacob said angrily: "If you can be a little better and have some ability, would they dare to treat us like this? After all, you are too incapable and too useless!"

Charlie shook his head, too lazy to explain.

At this moment, a Rolls-Royce from the rear speeded up, and after passing by two people's cars, it slowed down and stopped on the side of the road.

Seeing that the other party was looking for him, Charlie also stopped the car.

Warnia stepped on a pair of elegant long legs, stepped out of the car, and said apologetically to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, I'm really sorry about the accident just now. I didn't arrange it. Please don't worry about it. ."

Charlie shook his head and said, "It has nothing to do with you. It is Mr. Bao who has to take care of his employees."

Warnia hurriedly said, "Mr. Charlie, he has already fired the manager involved. Let's go back and continue participating in the auction now. What do you think?"

Chapter 140

Charlie refused: "Sorry Miss Song, today's good mood has been spoiled by one or two flies, so I won't go back to participate in the auction. Let's talk about it next time."

Warnia felt very sorry: "I'm so sorry, Mr. Charlie."

After finishing speaking, she took out a wooden box from the car, stuffed it into Charlie's hand, and said: "Mr. Charlie, this is a little bit of my heart, as a little apology."

When Charlie got the wooden box, he felt an aura from it, so he didn't refuse.

Seeing Charlie accepting the gift, Warnia went on to say: "Well, today's auction will be suspended. I will ask Fungui Bao to rectify the team of Treasure Pavillion. When he finishes the rectification, we will hold another one, and I will invite Wade Mr. and Uncle Willson."

Jacob was already stunned. Isn't this woman the last lady from the Song family that Jiqingtang smashed the antique bottle last time?

She was so polite to his son-in-law and even willing to suspend the auction for him and start anew. This is too much face, right?

Is it because the bottle was repaired last time?

A good deed, I will really have to look at my son-in-law in the future.

Charlie also noticed Warnia's sincerity, so he nodded faintly, and said: "Then when it reopens, we'll come and join in."

Jacob hurriedly echoed: "Yes, yes, you must go."

"Okay, let's go back to those two first, I'm really embarrassed about today's affairs!"

After Warnia apologized again, she said goodbye to the two and turned to leave.

When Warnia left, the Old Master hurriedly pointed to the wooden box in Charlie's hand and asked, "Charlie, what kind of baby did Miss Song give you? Open it and take a look!"

Charlie nodded and opened the wooden box.

Suddenly, a strong aura poured out, refreshing people.

"Huh, what is this?" Jacob stretched his head and took a look, his face suddenly surprised.

There was a black thing in the box. The fist was thick and thin. At first glance, it looked like a piece of coal, but it was rough and soiled.

When he saw this, Charlie couldn't help but feel shocked, secretly surprised at Warnia's generous shots.

Jacob looked at the "black bump" and looked at it, but couldn't see what it was, and said in wonder: "I thought it was a good baby, but I didn't expect it to be a piece of wood."

Charlie smiled and said, "Dad, it is indeed wood, but it is very rare."

Jacob was even more surprised: "My son-in-law, what the h*ll is this?"

Charlie said: "This is lightning strikes the wood."

"It's formed by the trees that fell during the thunderstorm."

Jacob had heard about it one or two before and said quickly: "But this kind of wood is often seen when thundering in the mountains. How can it be valuable?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Dad, ordinary trees struck by lightning can of course be seen everywhere. But this section of the wood struck by lightning, you see, it has been charred and black jade, only instantaneously charring under extremely high temperature, indicating this. The energy of the sky thunder is extremely strong, I am afraid it is a huge thunder that has been rare in hundreds of years."

"In addition, this section of lightning-struck wood is black and shiny, with faint bloodline patterns, indicating that it is the heart of the blood dragon wood, the king of wood, and it is even rarer."

Hearing this, Jacob said disdainfully: "I don't believe that a piece of wood that has been struck by thunder is worth so much money? It's all a lie. The real value is an antique cultural relic. If your wood was plated by Lord Qianlong, Maybe it's worth two more."

Charlie smiled. This kind of thing is of high value. Not only does it have ample spiritual energy, but it can also even be refined according to the records of the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets.

However, Jacob naturally cannot understand.

So Charlie didn't explain much to him and put the box away.

Chapter 141

When the two returned home, neither of the women was at home.

The mother-in-law Elaine went to the chess and card room to play mahjong before returning, and Claire did not get off work.

So Charlie went back to the bedroom first and took the lightning striker out of the box.

A strong aura came out from the lightning strike.

Charlie sat cross-legged on the ground, placed the lightning strike wood in his palm, closed his eyes slightly, and the "Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets" mental method was running in his body, slowly sucking spiritual energy into his body.

When he opened his eyes, his eyes were exquisite and his aura changed drastically.

The blood dragon thunderbolt wood in his hand is already a little dim.

But even if it loses aura, it still has some strong thunderous breath, which is considered a treasure.

If supported by other treasures, Charlie could now use it to refine some simple magical artifacts.

When he came out of the room, it was already night.

As soon as he arrived in the living room, Charlie heard his mother-in-law snorted coldly and said, "Now that the shelf is big and I don't have any food, wait for me to serve you, right?"

Charlie smiled wryly and explained: "Sorry mom, I was so tired this afternoon and fell asleep."

"Hey, did going to the auction exhaust you? Or did Harold exhaust you?" Elaine said angrily.

Charlie was shocked, then shook his head and said, "I didn't pit Harold, where did you hear the news?"

Elaine snorted coldly, and said, "Of course the Lady Willson called and said, you don't have to be embarrassed, and Harold was kicked out. The Lady Willson called and scolded me! She said you are Rubbish. Can you cause less trouble for the family?"

Claire said from the side: "Mom, I think Harold was kicked out. He must have caused some trouble himself. It has nothing to do with Charlie. Charlie is not like that."

"Why not?" Elaine threw her chopsticks angrily: "Harold filed a complaint after he came back, saying that because Charlie got the invitation letter by improper means, after being found out, Treasure was offended and he was a member of the Willson family. One of them was also kicked out, and the owner of the treasure pavilion was still talking. The Willson family is not allowed to go in the future, they will break their legs if they dare to! The family is embarrassed this time!"

Jacob said at this time: "Huh! The invitation letter is fundamentally problematic. I think, Harold must have caused the trouble himself, and he was afraid that his mother would punish him, so he deliberately dumped the pot on Charlie."

"You're still here to help this wimpy talk, if you didn't want to go to that auction, can these things happen?" Elaine glared at Jacob and cursed.

Jacob hurriedly shut up for dinner, not daring to make a sound.

Elaine said impatiently: "He is a waste, what can he have in getting the invitation letter, and now he has offended Harold, I see how he ends up."

Before she finished speaking, there was a knock on the door, followed by a low voice.

"Excuse me, is Mr. Charlie at home?"

Elaine's face was tense, and she glared at Charlie angrily, "Oops, it must be the Lady Willson who came. It depends on what you did!"

"Let's take a look first." Claire also looked solemn, stood up and walked towards the door.

There was no sound in the living room, Elaine and Jacob both stood up nervously, thinking about how to respond.

Charlie's face was slightly dark, if the Lady Willson turned black and white and brought someone to the door to ask the crime, then he wouldn't have to give the Lady Willson face!

Chapter 142

Claire opened the door carefully, and asked vigilantly: "What's the matter with you?"

Charlie frowned, walked to the door with a stride, pulled Claire behind him calmly, and said coldly to the people outside: "You are looking for me?"

A middle-aged man in a straight suit suddenly smiled respectfully after seeing him: "You are Mr. Charlie, right? I am the new manager of Treasure Pavillion and I just took office this afternoon.

Charlie looked at the people in surprise: "Are you from the Treasures Pavilion?"

"Treasures Pavilion?"

Claire, who was standing behind him, was also stunned.

The man hurriedly said: "Our pavilion master deeply felt self-blame for Mr. Charlie's departure. He drove out Harold who was in the middle of the matter on the spot, and also suspended the auction. Treasure Pavilion was not well received, we came here in hope Mr. Charlie can forgive us regardless of the previous troubles."

After speaking, the middle-aged man waved his hand behind him.

Several strong men in black immediately carried gifts and put them at the door.

Charlie glanced, and saw that there were so many gifts!

A box of limited edition "Yellow Crane Tower" and a box of 30-year-old Moutai Liquor!

There is also a pair of antique vases from the Ming Dynasty and a set of tortoiseshell!

These gifts are worth over a million!

"Mr. Charlie, this is the mistake of Treasures Pavilion. The owner of the pavilion is preparing for a new auction with Ms. Song, so he can't come by himself, so he asked me to apologize, saying that he will apologize to you personally when he has the opportunity. Please forgive us!"

After finishing speaking, the middle-aged man bowed deeply in front of Charlie.

Charlie nodded and said, "Okay, put things down."

The middle-aged man then took out two golden invitation letters from his pocket, handed them to Charlie respectfully, and continued: "This is an invitation letter for the new auction. Please come there with Mr. Willson, this time I promise I won't let you down again, please give us a chance to make up for it!"

After speaking, he explained: "There is also a special Treasures Pavilion Royal VIP Card. We only issued ten of these cards, which are valid for life. You can enjoy the highest courtesy when you come to Treasures Pavilion!"

Charlie glanced at the VIP card. The surface of the card was golden, with gold leaf and diamonds.

He said lightly: "I am not very interested in auctions. Ask my dad if he is interested."

"Okay." The middle-aged man hurriedly held the card to Jacob, and said with a smile: "Old Mr. Willson, I'm really sorry today, please be sure to visit us the day after tomorrow."

"This" Jacob has calmed down from the shock, glanced at the VIP card, and couldn't help swallowing his throat.

He recognized that this is a limited-level VIP card of the Treasures Pavilion, which is only issued to members of the cabinet with status, and not for sale at all!

Those who have this VIP card can enter and exit the treasure pavilion freely, and enjoy the highest treatment. All the antiques in the pavilion can be enjoyed at will, and there are also high discounts for purchase.

Jacob couldn't refuse such a temptation.

Just about to accept it cheeky, a hand suddenly stretched out from the side and snatched both VIP cards.

It was Charlie's mother-in-law, Elaine, grabbing two VIP cards with a smile, and she was so happy that she said: "Since you are here to apologize, I will reluctantly accept these gifts and VIP cards. The auction will be the day after tomorrow. , My husband will come!"

Chapter 143

Elaine was so excited!

These gifts are all money!

She doesn't know how much the antique is worth, but that box of collection-grade Maotai is worth 30,000 or 40,000, and this box of 20 bottles is hundreds of thousands!

There are also collections of Yellow Crane Tower cigarettes, one of five thousand, one box of fifty, more than two hundred thousand, the two together are worth one million!

Don't do it for anything!

And holding these two VIP cards, she still has the capital to show off in front of those old girlfriends!

When Claire saw Elaine's obsessive attitude, she called helplessly: "Mom"

Elaine glared at her: "What's wrong? Can't I accept gifts from others?"

Claire said: "I mean it shouldn't be accepted. You haven't figured out what's going on, how can you accept such a heavy gift from others."

Charlie said lightly at this time: "This is an apologetic gift and should be accepted."

The middle-aged man was relieved.

Before coming out, the pavilion master had personally explained that if Mr. Charlie confiscated these things, then he would not have to go back.

Charlie turned his head and saw that Elaine had moved the tobacco and alcohol into the house with joy, holding a pair of antique vases and touching and looking under the lamp, he could only shake his head in his heart and said to the middle-aged man: "Thank you for this. See you."

"Well, I won't bother you anymore, Mr. Charlie."

Charlie closed the door, turned around, but was taken aback for a moment, and said, "You guys are all watching what I'm doing."

He saw three people in the living room, all six eyes were on him.

The mother-in-law Elaine gave a dry cough and a smirk, and asked: "Charlie, when did you have friendship with Treasure Pavillion? Why did they come to our house to give gifts and apologize?"

Charlie shook his head and said: "Mom, you have misunderstood. I have no friendship with them. The reason why they came to apologize is mainly because the service attitude of Treasures is good. Their employees have made mistakes, and the boss has a better reputation, so they compensate so strongly. "

Elaine was frustrated at once, pulling her face down, and said, "I thought you were a good man, and you could be in favor of big shots. I didn't expect it was because of the good service attitude of others."

Claire was a little confused on the side. The other party gave such an expensive gift, is it just because of the good service attitude and wanted to compensate Charlie?

However, after receiving a lot of gifts, Elaine felt better, and finally stopped targeting Charlie, thinking happily in her heart to quickly sell the tobacco and alcohol first.

After eating, Charlie cleaned up the dishes in the kitchen, and suddenly received a call.

The one who called was Qin Gang, who had a relationship with both sides.

That jade bracelet was given by Qin Gang.

On the phone, Qin Gang respectfully said: "Mr. Wade!"

Charlie said lightly: "Something?"

Qin Gang hurriedly said: "Thanks to Mr. Charlie's last guidance, the Qin family has been doing a lot in the past few days, and I have to thank Mr. Charlie for his guidance, otherwise our Qin family will be in a disaster."

Charlie said indifferently: "I think it's not so smooth, right? If it's so smooth, would you call me now?"

Qin Gang choked and laughed awkwardly: "Mr. Charlie really knows everything like a god. I can't hide anything from you."

Charlie smiled lightly, without saying a word.

Sure enough, Qin Gang trembled and said, "Mr. Charlie, please save my Qin family one more time. We will remember it all our lives."

Chapter 144

His face was pale, and his body trembled slightly, as if in great fear.

Charlie frowned and asked faintly: "Is the jade cracked?"

"Mr. Charlie is worthy of being a master, and you are right again."

Qin Gang's voice was extremely pious, and he sighed: "Originally, I followed your instructions and confessed the jade plug, and ordered the people in the family to be vegetarian for seven days without seeing the blood."

"How can I think that my stupid nephew Steven secretly ate some stewed pigeon soup, and accidentally stained the pigeon blood on the jade plug. The jade plug immediately fell apart. I beat him up and shut it down. At home, strange things still happening!"

Charlie frowned and asked, "What strange thing happened?"

Qin Gang hurriedly said: "Last night was violent and rainy, a thunder struck the courtyard scorching a century-old osmanthus tree."

"Not only that, the tablets of the Qin family's ancestors enshrined in the ancestral hall fell to the ground for no reason and fell in half. This is a horrible omen."

Charlie frowned. From the perspective of Feng Shui, planting osmanthus trees in the courtyard is a symbol of wealth and good fortune.

However, the laurel tree was knocked down by the thunder, which indicates that the Qin family will be broken.

The ancestral tablet was broken, which was a sign that the Qin family would die.

He really didn't expect that the evil spirit of this jade plug was so heavy, it was so serious that it exceeded his estimate, it could reach the sky with pigeon blood.

Hearing no reply from Charlie, Qin Gang beat a drum in his heart and pleaded: "Although my Qin family is in business, but I have always been kind to people and have not done anything to harm the world. I beg Mr. Wade to save my family."

Charlie said, "Qin Gang, it's not that I didn't save you, but the evil spirit was too heavy. After being carried by Steven for many years, the evil spirit had already enveloped the Qin family courtyard. It was impossible to deal with it with ordinary runes. "

"Then, what should we do? The Qin family has suffered such a disaster, it is really unfortunate for the family!"

Qin Gang sighed, his voice trembling.

Charlie groaned: "The evil spirit will be more fierce when it sees blood, and it is still hot pigeon blood. Now to suppress such a heavy evil spirit, I am afraid that we can only borrow the power of the heaven and earth treasure."

"Okay, Mr. Wade needs something, even if I lose my fortune, I will definitely get it."

Charlie said indifferently: "Well, I happen to be participating in the auction of Treasure Pavilion tomorrow. I will go to the auction to see if there are any spiritual objects of heaven and earth. As for whether they can be photographed, it depends on your luck."

"Okay, forgive me for troubling you Mr. Wade." Qin Gang, as if caught the straw, repeatedly thanked Charlie.

After speaking, he hurriedly said: "Mr. Charlie, I will send you a premium card tomorrow. If there is any place where you need money, just swipe the card!"

Charlie snorted. After all, he was helping the Qin family, and he couldn't let himself spend money.

Immediately, Charlie said: "You'd better be mentally prepared. Heaven and Earth Spirit Treasures are not so easy to get, but they can't be found. As for whether there is an auction, it depends on your Qin family's luck."

Qin Gang kept expressing his position: "Yes, I will also inquire more privately, but I still have to trouble you."

After the accident, he also sought out a number of well-known Feng Shui masters, but those people just glanced at the door of Qin's house, and immediately waved their hands and turned aside.

Now Qin Gang's only hope of life-saving lies in Charlie.

Charlie really sighed in his heart.

According to numerology, Qin Gang should have done no harm in his life, and should have died safely.

How can he think of God's will to make Steven, a dead star in the family, makes the family restless, if he does not save him, within a year, his family will be destroyed.

Not only him and that Steven, but also his beautiful little chili beauty Aoxue, they all will die.

Chapter 145

The next day, Qin Gang came to Charlie's downstairs early in the morning.

He waited until Charlie came out to buy vegetables before he greeted him and handed Charlie a premium card.

According to him, there are hundreds of millions in this card. In order to save the Qin family, even Charlie can spend all the money.

Little Chili Aoxue is also there, but this time Aoxue is not as arrogant as last time.

Seeing Charlie, Aoxue looked respectful.

Since Steven got into trouble, the Qin family has encountered a lot of bad things, and the Old Master's body has also deteriorated for no reason, and he is dying. He then understands that the only one who can save them is Mr. Charlie!

After Qin Gang handed the card to Charlie, he knelt in front of Charlie with a puff, and pleaded with tears, "Mr. Wade! Please save my Qin family's life anyway possible. It doesn't matter if I die, but my daughter still young"

Aoxue couldn't help but reddened her eyes, knelt on the ground, crying and said, "Mr. Wade, please save the Qin family. If possible, I am willing to use my own life in exchange for my father's longevity!"

Qin Gang said angrily: "What are you talking nonsense!"

Charlie shook his head helplessly, and stretched out his hand to help the two of them up one by one. When Aoxue touched his hand pleading, the little girl's soft and white hands made Charlie uneasy.

After helping the two of them, Aoxue blushed a little, and seemed very embarrassed.

Charlie said: "Don't worry, I will try my best to make your family survive this catastrophe safely."

The father and daughter were so touched that they wanted to kneel again, but they were stopped by Charlie: "Okay, those who are kneeling here will have a bad influence. Let's go first. I'll let you know if I have news."

"Thank you Mr. Wade!" The father and daughter left with gratitude.

When Charlie returned home after buying vegetables, the Old Master Jacob hurried forward and said nervously: "Charlie, I just saw you and Qin Gang talking outside the community?"

"Yes, he has something to do with me."

Jacob couldn't help but said, "I think he looks ugly, it doesn't seem like something is good. Did you tell his fortune last time and there was a problem?"

This matter, Jacob has been worried, always feel that Charlie is just talking about it.

Charlie smiled and said: "Dad, Qin Gang came to me to help him get rid of the evil spirits at home. He also gave me a bank card and asked me to help him see if it can be used at the auction tomorrow."

Jacob stayed for a while and said quickly: "How much does he give you?"

Charlie said casually: "Several hundred million."

"How many?"

Jacob's eyes widened, and he was so shocked that he was holding his chest and could not speak. He was almost out of breath.

He was anxious to hold Charlie: "Charlie, you must not lie to people! The Qin family gives you so much money, if something goes wrong, wouldn't the Qin family kill our whole family? Give the money back."

"Dad, don't worry, I have a sense of measure and there will be no problems."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Dad, this time the matter is of great importance, you'd better not tell Claire and Mom, otherwise, it will be out of control."

"I know I know."

Jacob knew his prodigal wife too well.

This girl is just a lunatic who wants money and he can't say anything to her.

If she finds that there were hundreds of millions in this card, she wouldn't care about the Qin family and spend the money first.

That's hundreds of millions!

When Jacob thought of this number, his heart jumped suddenly, and he persuaded Charlie for a while. After seeing that the persuasion had no effect, he had to sit on the sofa and sigh.

He didn't believe that Charlie had the ability to help the Qin family solve the problem, and now he was afraid that Charlie would spend the money of the Qin family indiscriminately, and finally be settled by the Qin family.

Now, he can only stare at Charlie at the auction, and don't let him buy things randomly.

If the Qin family was cheated of so much money, wouldn't the other party come after the family?

Chapter 146

Early the next morning, Charlie was going to the auction.

Because of the Qin family's affairs, Jacob was so worried that he hadn't slept well all night, so he repeatedly told him in the living room.

Charlie said a few perfunctory words, and then asked: "Dad, I heard that there is a final treasure at the auction of Treasures Pavilion, right?"

"Yes." Jacob didn't know why, and said: "I heard it is a valuable treasure, unparalleled in the world."

After he finished speaking, he suddenly thought of something, and he hurriedly pulled Charlie and told him: "My son-in-law, don't make the idea of this final treasure. Its starting price is tens of millions. Let's take a look."

Charlie knew that his father-in-law was worried that he would use the Qin family's money, so he smiled and said, "Dad, you are right."

"That's good." Jacob was afraid that he would not give up, and added: "But even if you want to shoot, you don't have your share."

"why?"

"I went out to inquire about it yesterday. I heard that boss Yu from Xuanjitang was also here at this auction, and he was here for this final treasure."

Charlie said in surprise: "Xuanjitang is also here?"

This mysterious hall is unknown to no one.

Its owner, Mr. Jinghai, is a famous Feng Shui master in the country!

Many celebrities in Hong Kong have spent a lot of money in line to ask him for fortune-telling.

If you want to ask this Feng Shui master to look at the photos, the cost of one time is not low, all start at seven figures.

If a celebrity wants to buy a magic weapon from Xuanjitang, it will be even more expensive.

However, although the fees of Xuanjitang are expensive, it is said that there are absolutely real materials.

This is located in the iron mouth and bronze teeth of Mr. Jinghai, fortune telling is particularly accurate.

He once predicted to a reporter from Hong Kong that two well-known celebrities would be divorced in November this year.

At that time, the two big stars had just finished their wedding. They were so affectionate that the whole country booed at his prediction.

And in November, the two celebrities each posted on Instagram and announced the divorce notice.

From then on, the name of Xuanjitang spread throughout the country, making people who want to see Master more like a crucian carp.

When people in the entertainment circle mentioned Mr. Jinghai, they were also in awe.

The head office of XuanJi is in Hong Kong City, and the owner spent a lot of money to buy a floor in Central Plaza, which shows his pockets.

Unexpectedly, Boss Jinghai would also come to participate in the auction. It seems that this treasure is inevitable.

So Charlie asked curiously: "What is this final treasure?"

"Then I don't know, we just can't buy it anyway."

Jacob was still nagging, Charlie's cell phone rang suddenly.

He picked up the phone and heard Warnia's voice.

"Mr. Charlie, my car is parked at your door. Let me pick you up on the way."

Warnia was also afraid that something would happen at this reception, so she planned to follow Charlie and go with him.

Charlie walked out and saw a big red Bentley parked on the side of the road, with a brand-new body gleaming in the sun.

Warnia leaned against the car, wearing a bright red tight dress to set off the exquisite curves, wavy curly hair draped over her shoulders, charming, and wearing a pair of sun-shading sunglasses on her face.

Warnia saw the two come out, took off her sunglasses, and said, "Uncle Willson, Mr. Charlie, I'm going to the auction of Treasures Pavilion, and I am here to pick you up."

"Oh, it's Miss Song." Jacob recognized her too, and said flattered: "Miss Song, you are so polite."

"Yes, you two, please get in the car!" Warnia nodded politely and opened the door.

Who can believe that Warnia, the eldest of the Song family, took the initiative to open the door for a son-in-law? !

Chapter 147

Soon, the car drove to the exhibition center.

The Convention and Exhibition Center is a circular dome building. The outer circle is filled with shops selling flowers and birds, and the auction room is in the middle.

The convention and exhibition center, newly built last year, is magnificent and antique.

Charlie followed Warnia and took the landscape glass elevator to the top of the sixth floor.

As soon as the elevator door opened, an artistic exhibition hall suddenly appeared in front. Antique calligraphy and paintings hung on the surrounding walls. This is the auction house.

The auction table in the front is covered with a red carpet, and there are all sofa decks under the stage. The table is filled with foreign wines and fresh fruits for guests to enjoy.

Compared with the last auction, it can be seen that Treasures Pavilion has made a lot of effort this time. Just leasing and arranging the venue. It has spent nearly one million.

Warnia's box was in the middle of the front row, and a group of people was about to move forward, but suddenly heard a noise behind them.

Charlie only had time to turn his head, and was pushed from behind by a few people and was forced to step aside.

He frowned slightly and watched as a group of people came in through the passage. It was a few bodyguards who opened the way.

"Mr. Jinghai is here too?" Warnia exclaimed softly, looking up at the crowd.

The people who squeezed in were all distinguished guests attending the auction, but at the moment they were all surrounded by a middle-aged man with a cold and arrogant face wearing a blue cloth gown, with an extremely respectful look.

Charlie took a look and said, "It turns out that this is Mr. Jinghai, but this posture is quite good."

Mr. Jinghai was hugged by the crowd and walked forward. He drew out a light yellow triangle rune and handed it to the most complimented boss beside him. He said indifferently: "Today you and I are destined, this peace symbol is free it can keep you safe and prosperous."

"Thank you, Mr. Jinghai."

The boss was full of surprises, flattered, took the peace talisman, carried it into his arms like a treasure, and said to the people around: "Mr. Jinghai's peace talisman is very good. I have been asking for it every year, thanks to the past few years. Mr. Jinghai, my business is getting bigger and bigger.”

The surrounding crowd looked jealous, some cheeky begged Mr. Jinghai, but Mr. Jinghai ignored them.

The assistant next to Mr. Jinghai snorted and said to the crowd: “Do you think that Mr. Jinghai’s peace charms can be obtained if you want? The minimum cost of asking for peace charms in our mysterious hall is 200,000 for each!”

The crowd recovered, and someone shouted immediately.

“It’s rare for Master Jinghai to come to Aurous Hill City. I would like to give out 200,000 for a peace talisman, and Master Jinghai will give it.”

“I want to buy it too! Ask Master Jinghai to give me a charm.”

“Mr. Jinghai’s peace talisman is hard to find. Two hundred thousand is nothing, I will buy five!”

The scene was very lively, and many bosses transferred deposits on the spot to buy Master Wade’s peace symbol.

“Line up, one by one.”

The assistant registered them one by one impatiently, and the scene was very hot.

Charlie couldn’t help but said: “What kind of peace talisman is so expensive, it’s too easy to make money.”

His voice is not loud, but Mr. Jinghai suddenly raised his head and stared at him with frowning brows.

Mr. Jinghai pushed away from the crowd, strode to Charlie, took a look and said: “You friend, listen to your tone, do you have an opinion on my safety charm?”

Charlie said lightly: “I don’t think this is worth so much money.”

Someone in the crowd immediately said: "You know what is bullsh*t! Mr. Jinghai's talisman, 200,000 are considered cheap!"

"That's right! Many people are rushing to buy two million talismans!"

"This kind of rag, it is estimated that you can afford the two-Dollar peace charm in the temple!"

Mr. Jinghai looked at Charlie, snorted, and said, "You can eat rice but you can't talk nonsense. The reason why people grow their brains is to think in their heads before speaking. It's best not to pretend to understand."

After speaking, Mr. Jinghai curled his lips in disdain, and walked into the exhibition hall first.

Charlie's face was indifferent, and he didn't even see Mr. Jinghai in his eyes.

Chapter 148

Warnia on the side said embarrassingly: "Mr. Charlie, don't take it to your heart, Mr. Jinghai has a bigger temper."

Charlie shook his head indifferently, and said to Warnia, "Let's go in."

The guests entered the venue one by one, and the host was Fungui Bao, the owner of the treasure pavilion, and a few words of routine speech on the stage entered the auction.

The auction officially begins!

Due to the temporary cancellation of the last auction, this time there were more lots than last time, and the number of guests doubled.

The first item that the two ladies of etiquette pushed onto the stage with a trolley was an antique copper incense burner, with white mist curling up and smelling fragrant.

The auctioneer introduced: "This is the Songhe Backflow Incense Burner of the Thompson Dynasty. It is one of the treasures given to the painter and calligraphy master Su Dongpo by the Emperor of Thompson Dynasty. The two boxes of ambergris are used by the Thompson Dynasty court and are not allowed to be used by the people. Moreover, the production method has been lost, and it is refreshing to hear, and it has a slight cheering effect!"

After speaking, he motioned to the lady of manners to light incense.

A lady of etiquette carefully dug a handful of incense with a silver spoon to light it.

A white smoke slowly dripping down the incense burner like a waterfall, and the pine cranes on the incense burner were vivid, and faintly flapping their wings.

A faint scent floated up in the auction hall immediately, and the smell was refreshing, and everyone couldn't help but feel refreshed.

Charlie nodded and said: "It is indeed authentic ambergris, refined by sperm whales, and this kind of hand-made incense technology is basically impossible to buy now."

The auctioneer knocked the gavel twice and said: "The starting price of the Songhe Backflow Incense Burner is 800,000, and the price is increased by 100,000."

This incense burner is exquisitely made, has a certain collection value, and the auction price is also moderate, and the audience raised placards.

In a short while, the incense burner was auctioned away by a player for 1.6 million.

Immediately afterwards, seven or eight lots were presented, all of which were high-quality antiques.

The atmosphere of the venue was warm, and guests bidding.

Jacob watched it with gusto, but he was shy in his pocket, otherwise he would be itchy and holding a card.

However, Charlie had no interest in these collections.

Although these lots are precious, they are limited to collections, and they are of little value to him.

At this moment, the hostess brought a white porcelain plate with a string of purple beads shining in the light!

The auctioneer introduced: "The natural purple pearls of the East China Sea can only be picked out from a thousand beads. The beads are round and uniform in size, which is a rare good product."

The auction price of this string of purple pearls is not expensive, as long as four hundred thousand.

Charlie raised his head and immediately bid.

"Five hundred thousand!"

Jacob's eyelids twitched, and he quickly said: "What are you doing with this! The pearl necklace is worth tens of thousands. This 400,000 is a waste! Don't shoot!"

Charlie looked at the string of pearls, thinking of Claire in his heart, and said with a smile: "I think Claire is quite suitable for wearing it. Pearls calm the nerves. She has been under too much pressure recently and has poor sleep cycle.

When he heard that he was buying for his daughter, Jacob closed his mouth knowingly what he wanted to say.

The collection value of this necklace is not high, so no one bids.

Just when the auctioneer was about to make a final decision, a voice suddenly sounded.

"Six hundred thousand!"

Charlie looked to the side looking for the sound.

He saw that Steven, from the Qin family, showed his head from the side, with a sneer on his face, and said to Charlie: "Sorry, I also fell in love with this necklace!"

Charlie couldn't help frowning, why is he here too? Isn't he forbidden by Qin Gang?

Chapter 149

Steven has had a miserable life these few days.

After getting into trouble a few days ago, he was severely beaten by his second uncle and was also banned.

However, with his extreme love for antiques, how can this level of auction be missed.

So, he tried his best to run out to participate in the auction today, but he didn't expect to see Charlie here again.

He had always been disdainful of Charlie, in his opinion, the second uncle was completely deceived by this kid.

But he didn't dare to provoke Charlie head-on. Seeing that Charlie was about to shoot the necklace, he immediately bid the price. Although it was useless, it was good to make Charlie uncomfortable.

Charlie glanced at him, then turned his head indifferently, and continued to bid.

"Seven hundred thousand!"

Steven followed closely: "800,000!"

Jacob couldn't sit still, and said quickly: "Charlie, let's not shoot, forget it, don't fight."

Charlie smiled faintly and said, "Look at how I play with him."

After speaking, he directly raised his hand: "Eight million!"

The scene was dumbfounded.

Others call 800,000, you call 8 million? Are you poisonous?

Steven was also dumbfounded. d*mn, you don't play cards according to the routine! Mine is 800,000. You should be calling 900,000. The maximum is one million. What do you mean by eight million?

Do you have money to burn, or is your brain short-circuited?

Charlie raised his eyebrows towards Steven and smiled, "Mr. Steven, continue!"

Steven sipped: "Am I crazy? Buy this tattered thing for eight million? Forget it, it suits you!"

Although Steven couldn't hold his face, he was really unwilling to bid on the basis of eight million.

The value of this bead is as high as 700,000. If he really spend more than 8 million to buy it, he will be broken when he goes home?

Money is not spent like that!

Charlie stared at Steven at this time, and said disdainfully: "Mr. Steven, you withered so soon? It seems that you can't do it either."

Everyone laughed.

Steven blushed and said, "You're so fcking irritating me. I don't think you can afford it at all. Blind your mother asking for a price and want to lead me to a set? Humph, I have to see how the fck you take it out!"

Charlie curled his lips: "If you can't afford it, just say you can't. What's the point of explaining so much here?"

At this time, the auctioneer also dropped the hammer.

"Eight million, deal, congratulations to Mr. Charlie!"

After that, a lady of manners came to Charlie with a wireless credit card machine and said, "Mr. Charlie, please use your card to pay."

Everyone was staring at Charlie, and Steven sneered: "Charlie, how the h*ll I see you swiping your card! Can you take out 8 million?"

Others were curious as to whether Charlie was so frantic and mad, could he really come up with so much money.

Charlie smiled lightly, took out Qin Gang's premium card, and finished swiping the card with a bang.

The premium card has no password.

Credit card successful!

The lady of etiquette handed the list to Charlie and respectfully said: "Mr. Charlie, the treasures you procured will be delivered to you before the end!"

"Good!" Charlie nodded.

Others were shocked!

It seems that he is really rich!

Buying a necklace of 700,000 at the price of 8 million, this man is really bold!

At this moment, Charlie looked at Steven and asked with a smile, "Mr. Steven, have you taken this order?"

There was a burst of laughter around, and someone ridiculed: "Mr. Steven, isn't he in the middle of his family and can't afford to pay?"

"Haha, I think Young Mr. Steven is too weak to lift the knife!"

"Hahahaha!"

Steven felt hot on his face.

d*mn, this grandson can really come up with so much money!

This time he is really embarrassed!

So he gritted his teeth and said: "Charlie, I will never lose to you in the next item!"

Charlie nodded, and said indifferently: "Okay, let's move to the next one!"

Steven didn't know where Charlie was so emboldened, let alone Charlie still holding a card from his second uncle in his hand.

Soon, a few more collections were sold, followed by a semi-finished Tian Huangyu embryo.

Half of this jade embryo is wrapped in rock to show that it is purely natural, and the price is 800,000.

Chapter 150

The naturally formed jade embryo contains a certain amount of spiritual energy, Charlie thought to himself, this thing was just right for Qin Gang to practice evil spirits, and he immediately raised the card.

"900 thousand!"

But as soon as his voice fell, the familiar voice sounded again.

"1000000!"

Charlie turned his head and met Steven's provocative eyes.

He remained silent and continued to raise his placard.

"1.1 million!"

"120!"

After several times, the price of Tian Huangyu embryos has doubled, and under Steven's deliberate bidding, it has soared to 2 million!

Many people present also saw that Steven had begun to deliberately target Charlie again.

Everyone was waiting to watch another good show, so they stared at Charlie's hand.

Charlie slowly raised his placard and said: "Twenty million!"

d*mn it!

The scene is crazy!

Two million is directly called 20 million? It's the same as before, it's directly increased ten times!

Steven's face was extremely ugly.

Is this Charlie dying? Even if you have money, is that money not money? So corrupt?

He is a famous prodigal in Aurous Hill, but even he is not willing to buy something ten times the price.

He hesitated suddenly.

Follow or not?

Follow, then throw away more than 18 million for nothing.

If he doesn't follow, Charlie is afraid that he will kill him, and these people are afraid that they will laugh at him.

He has lost face just now, and if Charlie takes it this time, it would be really shameless to come out!

Thinking of this, Steven gritted his teeth and blurted out: "I'm out of 20.1 million!"

There was an exclamation at the scene!

Steven added 100,000!

This is a challenge!

Charlie smiled slightly at this time, and raised his hand again: "I give out thirty million!"

"I go!!!"

"This f*cking crazy!!!"

"This buddy is too rigid!!!"

Two million is 20 million, and 20.1 million is 30 million. Charlie's handwriting scared everyone on the scene.

Steven also collapsed!

What is Charlie doing? Is he really so rich? Thirty million! One can buy fifteen pieces of this jade! No matter who pays this price, it will be a big taker!

Charlie asked Steven again at this time: "Mr. Steven, come on, continue!"

Steven panicked.

30 million to buy a piece of jade, if he let the family know, he will die!

Sister Aoxue is afraid that he will be crippled for life.

But, so many people are watching

How to do it?

Steven's face was red and white.

The auctioneer bid: "Thirty million once!"

"Thirty million twice!"

The lively audience at the scene began to shout:

"Mr. Steven bid!"

"Mr. Steven, you have to be hard!"

"Mr. Steven, don't let us look down on you!"

"Mr. Steven, are you really persuaded? You just pretended to be so forceful, and now you are afraid?"

Charlie said with a smile: "Mr. Steven, if you don't bid, you will lose!"

Chapter 151

Steven was eye-catching at this time, and he hesitated for a moment, but his reason still defeated his impulse.

He said angrily: "I give up!"

"cut!"

"Force!"

"What a shame!"

"What a f*cking shame!"

There was a burst of scolding and laughter at the scene, making Steven face lost.

He even regretted coming out today, otherwise, he wouldn't be so embarrassed.

Feeling extremely embarrassed, Steven was very angry for a while, turned his head and saw Charlie's teasing eyes, even more furious.

He couldn't help rushing out of his private room and walked to Charlie to question.

"This rug Wade, did you deliberately fix me?"

Charlie slowly picked up water on the table, took a sip, and said, "No one is forcing you to bid with me. You are the one who insists on doing it against me. If you do, you become angry and pathetic?"

Warnia on the side also said coldly: "Mr. Steven, the auction rules are like this. I would like to accept the bet and don't come if I can't afford it."

Steven gritted his teeth with anger, but he didn't dare to offend Warnia.

"Not done with you!" Steven pointed at Charlie fiercely with his hand, and returned to the box angrily.

Charlie couldn't help but shook his head. With Steven, the prodigal son, the Qin family thought it would be difficult.

Under everyone's gaze, Charlie continued to swipe the premium card to pay.

Anyway, it was Qin Gang's money, and it didn't hurt at all to spend it.

anyway.

If Qin Gang knew that he had spent so much money because of the prodigal Steven of their Qin family, what would he be like?

The man might Steven to relieve the anger?

Really interesting

One hour later, the auction was nearing completion.

During this period of time, Steven didn't bid even once, and he was probably afraid of Charlie.

At this moment, several waiters struggled to push a trolley onto the stage with a huge object on it.

Charlie suddenly held his breath and looked up to the stage.

He felt a strong aura! !

At this moment, Mr. Jinghai in the next box was also refreshed, staring at the lot.

This is the final treasure!

However, when Fungui Bao opened the curtain covering it, the crowd showed disappointment.

Because what was on the cart turned out to be a big, tattered reef with seaweed and dried shells attached to it! !

There was a lot of discussion in the audience, and they didn't understand why Treasures regarded this broken stone as the finale.

At this time, Fungui Bao explained.

"Don't worry, everyone, this is the final product of this show, natural clams!"

"This clam is naturally generated on the seafloor. It has been identified that the shellfish has been 100 years old and has been soaked on the seafloor for thousands of years after death. The shell has shown a natural pattern making it definitely a unique treasure."

After speaking, he ordered the courtesy lady to wipe off a piece for everyone to watch.

Sure enough, the exposed palm-sized area showed a transparent gold-red color like amber which was beautiful.

This time the venue was a complete sensation.

The price of crustaceans in the international arena ranges from 30,000 to 50,000, and the life span of shells is only 20 to 100 years, and this clam has a hundred years of age. It is not easy and it is definitely among the treasures. the best treasures.

It is even more rare than it has slept on the seabed for thousands of years, the color is golden red and transparent, and there is a natural 4D pattern. It can be said that it has an excellent meaning and is the top treasure among the clams.

The starting price of this clam is nine million.

Chapter 152

Crowds bid, and soon the price drove up to 12 million.

Many people retire when they knew the difficulties, but there are still people who know the goods persevering.

At this moment, Mr. Jinghai stood up and said loudly: "I'm out of 15 million!"

After speaking, he turned around and bowed his hands to everyone, smiling: "Dear friends, I am here at this auction today, it is for this clam, please give Jinghai a certain noodle, let Jinghai a certain time, later I will give everyone a peace symbol as a gift of gratitude."

Most of the guests present were the bosses. Knowing the reputation of Mr. Jinghai, they did not dare to offend casually.

If it doesn't work well, people can make a fool of themselves, and it will make you jump around.

Besides, giving away two hundred thousand one peace charms is not in vain, so although many people are unhappy, they still choose to bear it.

Although Fungui Bao's face remained silent, he was really unhappy in his heart.

Originally, the auction was for the higher bidder, but Mr. Jinghai broke the rules.

If the 15 million were taken away by him, it wouldn't be a big deal for him to make less money, but after the reputation spreads, the prestige of Treasure Pavillion in the industry will surely be damaged.

But Fungui Bao also knew that Mr. Jinghai was very strong and very skilled, so he couldn't easily offend him, so he could only give up.

Mr. Jinghai was so proud that he couldn't hold back his excitement.

For this clam, he did not hesitate to fly to Aurous Hill, after several setbacks, he finally got what he wanted!

What is a mere 15 million?

As long as things get into his hands, he can definitely make a fortune!

Moreover, the scene was indeed silent. It seemed that he had made a move with Master stroke, and no one dared to bid with him!

This is face, this is majesty!

All over the country, who wouldn't give a bit of a thin face to Mr. Jinghai?

It seems that this piece of crustacean, he has picked up a big leak of 15 million!

At this moment, a faint voice sounded again.

"I pay 30 million!"

As soon as this sound came out, the venue was quiet.

Everyone looked at the bidder in unison, with surprise in their hearts.

It's him again!

It was the young man in ordinary clothes. At first glance, there was nothing extraordinary, but the two bids with Steven were impressive!

The point is that he bid sky-high prices twice and swiped his card for payment both times. It was so awesome!

However, no one thought that this guy would dare to challenge Mr. Jinghai?

Mr. Jinghai saw him at a glance, and his face suddenly sank.

At this time, Steven stood up in shock and rubbed his eyes vigorously.

Warnia didn't expect that Charlie would suddenly make an offer with Mr. Jinghai.

She only knew that Charlie had the ability to appraise treasures, but did not know how many assets Charlie had.

She couldn't help thinking to herself that she didn't even want to offend Master Jinghai, this Charlie, wouldn't he worry about Mr. Jinghai's revenge?

It was Jacob who recovered first, and hurriedly pulled him: "Charlie, what are you doing, sit down!"

"Dad, I have a sense of measure."

Charlie turned his head and said lightly, then raised his head again, his eyes extremely calm.

"Charlie, what do you mean? Want to grab Master Jinghai's stuff?" Steven took the initiative and asked coldly.

Charlie smiled slightly: "This is an auction. Everyone can shoot. How can you say that you are robbing others? You are so big, don't you understand the rules?"

After speaking, Charlie sneered again: "You, you should just sit there and stop talking. Don't you feel blushing just after losing your face?"

When Steven heard this, he was immediately embarrassed and immediately sat back with a guilty conscience and stopped speaking.

Mr. Jinghai sullenly, staring at Charlie like an awl, coldly said: "It's you again! Do you know where I came from? Do you dare to snatch things from Jinghai?"

Charlie sneered and asked him: "I care not what kind of chicken bully you are, I will snatch it from you today, what I think is mine?!"

Chapter 153

Mr. Jinghai is going crazy!

He enjoys a great reputation both at home and abroad. Everyone present respects him, but this kid is extremely arrogant. He demolished his platform several times, which is really annoying!

What's even more exaggerated is that he dare to scold him!

This is simply looking for death! ! !

The people present were also shocked!

What the h*ll is this grandson? How dare you be so tough? Scold Mr. Jinghai? Tired of life, right? Mr. Jinghai, a feng shui master, has 10,000 ways to kill him without drawing blood!

However, even though Mr. Jinghai was angry in his heart, in order to get the clam at a low price, he still maintained his demeanor on the surface and smiled and said, "This friend, you and I had a little misunderstanding at the door just now, but just a little thing. Just open it. If you bid with me for revenge, it would be too cautious, right?"

Mr. Jinghai himself is preparing 15 million to take this clam, but if he and Charlie are firm, the next bid will exceed 30 million.

He doesn't want to spend so much money!

Therefore, he swallowed his breath and hoped that Charlie could withdraw his bid.

After he gets the 15 million clams, he will slowly settle accounts with him!

Charlie had seen his motives a long time ago, and said contemptuously: "Don't talk nonsense with me, I am also fond of this clam, if you can afford it, you can pay, and you can play with it if you can't afford it, let me take it!"

The scene is crazy again!

d*mn it!

This buddy actually let Mr. Jinghai play eggs.

Is it too kind?

Mr. Jinghai kept a cold face, but in order to save money, he continued to speak: "I really like this clam, can you give me face?"

Charlie glanced at him and said flatly: "Give you face? Do I know you?"

After speaking, Charlie asked again: "Hey, just tell me, can't you afford to pay?"

Mr. Jinghai's face is extremely ugly, so far no one has dared to speak to him like this!

Moreover, the other party looked as young as twenty or so, younger than his own disciples and grandchildren!

Under the annoyance, Mr. Jinghai was too lazy to maintain his demeanor, and said coldly: "Unexpectedly, my face would be so despised by others! Well, since it is fair competition, then the higher price will naturally get! I want to see how much wealth you have, come and grab this clam from me!"

After he finished speaking, he raised his head and shouted: "I'll pay 50 million!!"

The loud voice made the audience noisy again!

The bidding became a big bet, and the atmosphere in the venue quickly became warm!

The rules are simple!

Who has more money!

Who is the king of this battle!

Mr. Jinghai's thinking is very simple. If he fights with him a little bit, he is afraid that he will go on endlessly. Therefore, he must bid a price that can bluff him, and directly ask him 50 million. He must not dare to follow!

However, no one thought that Charlie's face remained unchanged, and two words were spit out in his mouth.

"One hundred million!"

The auction price doubled again!

The atmosphere in the venue is boiling!

In just a few minutes, the price of this lot has even doubled tenfold, which is the focus of auction history!

Steven couldn't help shouting, "Charlie, you don't pretend to be there, do you have the money?"

Charlie couldn't help laughing, and said: "It's true, why do you drop it? You are not convinced? I might as well tell you the truth, this card I use is from your Qin family, and it was given to me by your second uncle. So, is it unexpected? Are you surprised?"

Chapter 154

"You! You!" Steven's face flushed, "You b@stard, dare to waste Qin family's money! Sooner or later, I'm going to smash you, a liar!"

Mr. Jinghai turned his head, looked at Steven, and asked, "Mr. Steven, do you know this person?"

Steven snorted coldly and said, "He is a live-in son-in-law of the Willson family, and he doesn't have a job. He eats his wife's soft rice at home. Recently, he has some money by tricking my second uncle."

"is it?"

Mr. Jinghai raised his eyebrows, as if taking a reassurance pill, and snorted coldly.

"Slap a swollen face to fill a fat man, young people, I advise you not to be too arrogant, otherwise you are the one who suffers, not that I despise you, can you get one hundred million?"

Charlie's face was slightly cold, and he said lightly: "I can't get it, don't worry about it, you can continue to bid if you have seeds, and shut your mouth if you don't have them!"

Mr. Jinghai couldn't stand it any longer and cursed: "Boy! You are looking for death!"

Charlie laughed and said, "I'm looking for death? It's up to you? You can't even afford to buy things, and you want to kill me? What a fool!"

Mr. Jinghai was repeatedly ridiculed by Charlie and could no longer maintain his demeanor. He sullenly shouted, "Young man, you'd better give me enough! Obediently let things out, otherwise you will have your life to buy, and your life will be useless!"

Fungui Bao's expression suddenly changed as soon as these words were spoken. This is a clear rule to smash the treasure pavilion!

His face was sullen, but he didn't dare to refute Master Jinghai, and he was very uncomfortable.

Charlie smiled slightly: "If you want my life, you have to wait for the auction to end, right? Now the auction is not over, I just paid 100 million, please continue to bid!"

Warnia was very surprised, Mr. Jinghai is not an ordinary person, even with the Song family backing, there is no guarantee that she can deal with Mr. Jinghai.

But what did Charlie mean by offending Master Wade so much? Where does the confidence come from?

Jacob fell on the sofa and was shocked to cover his heart, panting, thinking: "It's over, this time is over, my son-in-law is over, and my family will be over."

Mr. Jinghai's face was stiff, Charlie didn't put him in his eyes at all, these words were undoubtedly slapped him in the face!

However, Charlie was right. This was at the auction. If he wanted to get the clam, he had to continue bidding.

But, one hundred million

Who the h*ll can afford it!

Everyone's eyes are on Master Wade, to see how he responds.

Mr. Jinghai's face was green and white, but for that clam, he suppressed his anger and said in a low voice to Charlie:

"My friend, if I offended you just now, it was really unintentional, please forgive me."

"But this clam is really useful to me. Please raise your hand and let me give you a favor. My favor is more valuable than this clam!"

The cold light in his eyes flickered, and this hairy boy dared to make himself so embarrassed. When this matter is over, he must kill him!

Charlie said faintly: "I'm sorry, I can use it to be useful, so I can't let you have it!"

"Moreover, I just said that you are a chicken bully in my eyes, and your favor is worthless to me!"

Mr. Jinghai broke down!

He has only one thought now: When the auction ends, he will kill Charlie by finding a way!

Must kill him! ! !

Seeing that Mr. Jinghai was counseled, the people at the scene couldn't help but sigh. They didn't expect that this young man had just gone all the way to the end, and even Mr. Jinghai had tasted his defeat!

With the final hammer drop of the auctioneer, Charlie finally succeeded in taking the finale of the clam at a price of 100 million.

Mr. Jinghai was so angry that he glanced bitterly at Charlie, his face was green and he left the scene directly.

He wants to kill Charlie right now, but circumstances don't allow it. This matter will be solved slowly!

Looking at the back of Mr. Jinghai leaving, Warnia reminded Charlie: "Mr. Jinghai is not an ordinary person. I don't think he will give up and will make trouble for you. You must be careful these days."

Charlie smiled and said: "I'm afraid he won't come!"

Chapter 155

One hundred million smashed in and replaced it with a clam.

Everyone thought Charlie was crazy, but only Charlie didn't care about it at all.

On the way back, Charlie explained to Jacob about the auction, indicating that the one hundred million was authorized by the Qin family, so that the Old Master could not bear it and frightened him again.

After arriving home, Charlie immediately began to study the clamshell while Claire was not off work.

This clam is as big as a wheel, it has been cleaned up, and after a simple polishing, a golden-red smooth shell surface is revealed.

Charlie broke it into several pieces with a little effort.

He picked up a piece and looked at it.

Sure enough, three white beads were exposed in the thick shell.

This is the essence of clams.

The clam is one of the seven treasures of Buddhism, and the pearl of this clam is even more spiritual.

And only shellfish that have a life span of more than a hundred years and have been psychic will have them, and they are formed by absorbing the essence of the ocean.

This is the best in the refining device, and it can be met but not sought, which is why Charlie must take it at the expense of a large price.

Charlie found three sea spirit orbs from the clams, and he was quite satisfied.

Afterwards, Charlie took the bleeding dragon and thundered the wood, and according to the method in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, he punched a few handprints in with spiritual energy.

As soon as the handprint entered it, it immediately elicited the strongest thunderous breath inside.

As soon as the clam encountered this thunderous breath, it burst out with a slight golden light, and quickly absorbed the escaped breath.

Charlie picked up the Sea clam and began to refine the magical artifact.

Soon, the Sea clam gradually formed in his hands.

He took out the pearl necklace that he had bought at the auction today, took some pearls from it, and refined them with the sea spirit beads, and finally refined them into a bracelet.

The remaining clam shells are also top grade.

He took one of them, refined it into a "scare talisman", and planned to take this to Qin Gang.

The shock talisman made with a clamshell shell blended with the thunderous breath that specializes in breaking the evil spirits, and it was enough for the Qin family to deal with that evil spirit.

After finishing these refining, Charlie saw that there were still a lot of crustacean fragments left, and seeing that it was still early, he held the clamshell fragments to refine his hands and tried to refine a "thunder order".

According to the records in the Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures, this thunder stunner is a low-level magic weapon, mainly used to summon thunder and rain.

However, he added the thunder energy of the blood dragon thunder strikes the woods, and doubled its effect. It can be used to expel ghosts and suppress evil, as well as attack and fight.

As soon as he finished practicing the Thunder Order, he heard movement from downstairs.

The wife is back.

Charlie hurriedly took the remaining shards of clams under the bed, and walked out of the bedroom with the freshly made sea spirit beads.

As soon as he looked up, he saw Claire standing in the living room, talking helplessly to her mother Elaine.

Charlie walked over and saw Elaine shaking her wrist. On her wrist, it was the jade bracelet that Qin Gang gave him.

Elaine said with joy: "Claire, this bracelet is really good, I wear it out, everyone praises it as a good thing, not to mention it's more face-saving!"

Claire said helplessly: "Mom, didn't Charlie leave this bracelet at home a few days ago? Why did you wear it without saying anything? I thought I lost it."

Elaine glared: "I'm your mother, what's wrong with wearing one! Give me a few more days to wear it, go out and show it off!"

Seeing the two mother and daughter arguing, Charlie hurriedly walked over and said roundly, "Claire, let her wear it if she like it. I just made a new bracelet and I plan to give it to you.

"What bracelet?" Elaine grabbed it like a treasure.

But when she saw it was just a string of shell beads, she immediately handed it to Claire out of anger: "It's this kind of worthless thing again."

Chapter 156

Claire took it, put it on her hand naturally, looked at it and said, "You did it yourself, right?"

"Yes."

Charlie nodded and said, "This shell pearl bracelet has the effect of calming the nerves and helping you sleep, and it can also ward off evil and help you in self-defense. Today is a little too late, so it is relatively rough. I will make you better when I have the opportunity in the future. "

Before he could finish speaking, Claire smiled slightly: "Thank you, I like it very much."

"You like it."

Charlie breathed a sigh of relief.

The jade necklace he gave to Claire before was very precious, but Claire didn't wear it much.

She usually likes to be plain and doesn't care about gold and silver jewelry, so she doesn't like to wear too showy things

However, Claire seemed very pleased with this string of clam bracelets.

Seeing Claire, Elaine seemed to like the broken bracelet very much, and muttered angrily: "It's neither gold nor jade, but a bunch of worthless shell pearls. What's the use?"

Charlie smiled, not arguing with her.

It's okay not to let Claire know its value. Otherwise, she knew that if this magic weapon bracelet was sold, the rich would at least be willing to bid more than a billion for it.

After giving the bracelet to Claire, Charlie went downstairs, found a courier in the same city, and mailed Qin Gang the shock charm and the premium card together.

In this way, it can be regarded as a satisfactory explanation to him.

Qin Family

Mr. Jinghai was sitting on the Grand Master's chair in the main hall at this time, his face was gloomy and he didn't say a word.

When he came to Aurous Hill on this trip, he was aimed at this clam. There are sea spirit beads in it, which are used to make magical artifacts. The value is immeasurable!

But he didn't expect Charlie to killed his plans halfway, disrupt his plan and make him gritted his teeth with hatred!

Steven stood by, standing with his hands down.

The prestige of Xuanjitang is outside, and of course the Qin family also recognizes Master Jinghai, and they all stand aside respectfully.

Qin Gang smiled complimentarily: "I didn't expect Mr. Jinghai to come to the humble house. Qin is really fortunate. I don't know what is going on with Jinghai's coming?"

Mr. Jinghai took a sip of tea unhurriedly, put the cup on the table, and said slowly.

"I ran into Mr. Steven at the auction, and he invited me to show your family's fortune."

Qin Gang had been prepared to clean up Steven, and see if he would dare to sneak out next time, but seeing that Steven invited the famous Mr. Jinghai, he put the pressure down.

"Mr. Jinghai, please take your time!"

Mr. Jinghai nodded and said, "If I'm not wrong, the Qin family has been in bad luck over the past two years. I am afraid that someone in the family has an ominous thing. There was a bloody disaster last year. As for this year."

After speaking, he looked around pretending to be mysterious, and sighed: "I think your Qin family's fortune has come to an end. If this continues, the Qin family will be ruined, and the family will be destroyed!"

As soon as Mr. Jinghai finished speaking, Qin Gang paled, and quickly said respectfully: "Mr. Jinghai, you are truly a master of Xuanjitang. My Qin family is indeed in bad luck. Please help!"

Everyone in the Qin family was also surprised!

Mr. Jinghai is really an expert, and he is all right.

Charlie hasn't replied yet, and Qin Gang has already waited impatiently.

But right now, the famous Mr. Jinghai came to the door himself, he seemed to have caught the straw, and asked quickly: "Mr. Jinghai, do you have a solution?"

"Of course there is a way."

Mr. Jinghai said slowly, and suddenly frowned: "But I see your house, I am afraid that there has been a magical trick that confuses the people recently, which has broken the Feng Shui and hastened the demise of the Qin family. If you let it continue to harm you, I am afraid that your Qin will all die within half a year!"

Chapter 157

"What, the stick?"

Qin Gang was stunned for a while.

Charlie was the only one who showed Feng Shui to the Qin family recently.

Qin Gang was extremely convinced by Charlie, and quickly said: "Mr., can you read it wrong? There was indeed a Mr. Charlie who helped me resolve it, but his methods are very useful, and it should not be a magic stick."

Mr. Jinghai snorted coldly and shouted: "A person who pretends to be a ghost is the best at deceiving an ignorant person. If you are willing to believe him, just let me go!"

"Mr. Jinghai stayed." Qin Gang panicked, and quickly stopped: "Please enlighten me, Mr. Jinghai, what is wrong with Mr. Wade's method?"

Without raising his head, Mr. Jinghai reached out and pointed to the central room: "You bring a bowl of water."

Qin Gang quickly ordered someone to bring a bowl of clear water.

Mr. Jinghai took the clear water to read a word, melted a few charms on the water, and then flicked the water on Qin Gang's eyelids.

Qin had just opened his eyes, and suddenly he was terrified and backed away.

"Mr. Jinghai, this, what is this"

He suddenly saw a strange layer of black smoke on his house!

Moreover, on the heads of the Qin family, there were wisps of gray lifeless air, and the faces of the people were pale, just like a group of zombies.

Mr. Jinghai snorted: "I opened the eyes of the sky to you. What you see is Yin Qi, but your family members are all under danger and will die soon."

Qin Gang was so frightened that he fell into a chair and muttered, "What can I do about this?"

"It's okay, if I come here today, it can be regarded as destined for you."

Mr. Jinghai took out a safety talisman and handed it to a member of the Qin clan.

Qin Gang suddenly saw that this peace talisman glowed with a faint golden light, and the golden light immediately diminished the death spirit on the head of the tribe.

Mr. Jinghai flicked his hand in front of Qin Gang, and everything Qin Gang saw suddenly disappeared and returned to its original state.

"This, this" Qin Gang was in a cold sweat, and hurriedly said: "Mr. Jinghai is really a god! Please save my Qin family, I am willing to pay no matter how much money."

"Save a life and win a seventh-level float. I came here today for this."

As Mr. Jinghai said, he took out dozens of safety charms and handed them over: "If you order your people to carry these with them, it will naturally resolve the bad luck."

Qin Gang took it gratefully and hesitated: "I wonder how much Master Jinghai this thing worth?"

Mr. Jinghai waved his hand: "Resolving bad luck is also a merit. I don't accept any money. But if there is a magic stick to coax you and let you spend a lot of money to buy a magical weapon, you must not charge it."

Steven next to him couldn't help saying, "Second Uncle, I've said Charlie is a liar! He took the money from our house and didn't know where he was going to spend it! You must chase the money back, otherwise you will sue him. Fraud! Let him live his life in prison!"

Aoxue frowned, thinking, not knowing why, but she felt that Mr. Jinghai looked more like a liar.

That Charlie, apart from being a bit bad and having no IQ at all, he didn't seem so bad, and in many cases, he could give people a feeling of inscrutable depth, like a deep pool of nowhere. The bottom of the lake or, a deep ocean trench.

Chapter 158

"You shut up." Qin Gang glared at Steven, then turned and respectfully said to Master Jinghai: "Thank you for your advice, I will definitely pay attention to it in the future."

Mr. Jinghai nodded meaningfully, got up and left.

As soon as Master Jinghai left, Steven immediately said: "Second Uncle, Mr. Jinghai is a well-known master of Xuanjitang. How can a liar like Charlie can be compare to him? This time, Mr. Jinghai will solve all the problems in our family. Yes, it doesn't cost a penny!"

"Mr. Jinghai didn't charge any money, but Charlie cheated our family a lot of money. He spent 100 million and took a piece of a broken shell. This is a scam! You are too naive, how can you give him so much money? If this spreads out, people in Aurous Hill won't call us Qin family fools?"

Qin Gang was silent, but his face was already suspicious.

Mr. Jinghai's reputation is indeed very strong, and the things that Mr. Jinghai just let himself see are vivid and have to be believed.

More importantly, Mr. Jinghai did not take a cent, while Charlie spent more than 100 million on the auction.

The more such a comparison, the more he felt that Charlie might be something wrong!

At this moment, a housekeeper of the Qin family knocked on the door, and only stepped in after getting permission from Qin Gang.

"Mr Qin, there is your express."

After speaking, he handed over a paper box.

Qin Gang frowned, and after unpacking the paper box, he found a token lying quietly inside.

Looking closely at this token, it seems that it is only a thin piece, only the size of a matchbox, worn with a cheap red string, and it looks exactly like the stalls in tourist attractions.

Qin Gang looked at the sender and saw that the word Charlie was written on it.

Looking at the remarks, there are only a few words written on it: "Scary talisman, hang in the main hall to break the evil!"

When Steven saw it, he immediately cursed: "d*mn, second uncle, this Charlie treats you as a fool! Just where is this broken shell, maybe it was bought from a stall on the street! How can it be broken?"

"Moreover, he gave us such a thing for more than 100 million? He still sent it to us! He doesn't care about you face! You said, this Charlie is not a liar, what else can he be?"

Steven was so angry, and said sharply, "Second Uncle, let's take someone to Charlie and get the money back! Otherwise, if Charlie runs away, our loss will be too great. !"

"You shut up first, let me think about it." Qin Gang said, rubbing his eyebrows, looking at the startled talisman, he really couldn't see any magic.

After hesitating for a while, Qin Gang summoned the Qin family members and said with a sullen face: "It is a matter of life and death of the Qin family. It is of great importance. I will go to Charlie tomorrow and ask what happened! You must wear Mr. Jinghai's safety talisman. Feel free to take it off!"

"Yes!"

"Second Uncle, I want to go too!" Steven gritted his teeth: "This person named Charlie has done a lot of harm to me. Now that I'm catching his fox tail, I have to break his leg by myself."

"Only you? Can you beat him?"

Qin Gang frowned and said, "But if you really want to go, you should bring a few more bodyguards. First inquire about Charlie's whereabouts tomorrow, just in case."

After speaking, he paused again and shouted: "Remember, I didn't ask you to take people to trouble Charlie, I am afraid that you would act recklessly and be beaten again!"

Steven was overjoyed and immediately said, "I understand."

Qin Gang said coldly: "Although my Qin family is not a top-level family, it can't tolerate others to deceive me. If anyone deceives me, I will respond back! I must check this out. If Charlie really pretends to be what he is not, I will not forgive him!"

Chapter 159

After leaving Qin's house, Mr. Jinghai immediately made up his wishful thinking.

He naturally wanted Charlie to avenge him, and he wanted to take back the clams that Charlie had stolen, but this was not enough!

When he came to Aurous Hill this time, he also wanted to establish a prestige in Aurous Hill, recruit a group of believers, and provide more support to his career.

Therefore, he planned a game that he thought was the best of both worlds.

Think of Charlie as the key to killing the chicken and the monkey and letting the whole Aurous Hill surrender!

Charlie didn't know that the so-called Mr. Jinghai was planning to use himself to sacrifice the flag.

In the evening, he was preparing to buy vegetables and cook when he suddenly received a call from Warnia.

After picking it up, Warnia had a serious tone and said directly to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, that Mr. Jinghai invited some masters in antiques, feng shui, and metaphysics to hold a banquet at White's house. Ask me if you have time to go there?"

"White family? Which type of family is it?"

Warnia said: "A middle-class family. They have two male descendants, Gerald and Fred White."

"Both of them? How could they be elected to his house?" Charlie asked strangely.

Warnia explained: "Recently, the White family has not been going well. The son Fred White and nephew Gerald have had troubles one after another. The White family's career has also plummeted. Therefore, the White family's head begged Mr. Jinghai and wanted him to change the feng shui of the White family."

While speaking, Warnia continued: "But I think Mr. Jinghai has invited a bunch of metaphysical masters. It may not be as simple as trying to earn some money from the White family. There may be other thoughts."

Charlie smiled and said nonchalantly: "I snatched the clam at the auction and choked him. I am sure that he wants to retaliate against me. It is estimated that this time he set up a set for me. Right!"

With a slight smile, Charlie said again: "But I will go this time and see face to face what tricks he wants to play."

Warnia saw that he agreed and said, "That's it, the place is at White's house. Tomorrow morning, let's go together. I will drive to pick you up."

"Done."

Early the next morning, Warnia drove to pick up Charlie and went to White's house.

White's villa is located on the mountainside in the suburbs with beautiful scenery.

The pavilions in this area were all built into antique buildings. The White family spent hundreds of millions to decorate them. They are usually used to receive distinguished guests or entertain friends.

Outside the pavilion by the lake, there are dozens of yellow rosewood chairs. A dozen invited guests have sat down and communicating with each other, and laughter came from time to time.

Sitting in the main seat is a fat middle-aged man. He is Fred White's father, Solmon White.

And sitting beside him was Mr. Jinghai.

In addition to these two people, Charlie also met two acquaintances, Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, and Guo Ming who followed him.

Seeing Charlie coming in, Tailai nodded to Charlie.

Solmon White glanced at him sideways and snorted coldly.

Obviously he also knew that Fred and Gerald had suffered a loss at Charlie's hands, so seeing Charlie, he didn't have a good face.

Fungui Bao quickly stood up to greet him and said, "Mr. Charlie, Miss Song, you are here."

Chapter 160

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Come and see the style of Master Jinghai."

A middle-aged man in a long gown asked in surprise: "This is the buyer who took the finale at the auction with a billions?"

Fungui Bao smiled and introduced: "It is Mr. Wade."

"What? Mr. Wade?" Solmon White glanced at Charlie disdainfully, and then smiled: "Now the name of Master Wade is almost worthless. Any kind of waste can call himself a master, and he is truly capable like Mr. Jinghai. The master, but so low-key."

As soon as he finished speaking, the crowd was embarrassed.

It wasn't that Solmon White deliberately belittled him, it was indeed that Charlie could not be called a "master" regardless of age or style of clothing.

And all Masters present here are almost all defiant people in the metaphysical world. To let them and Charlie, a young man, call out "Master Wade", many people here are unhappy.

Mr. Jinghai stood up and smiled calmly: "It's okay. I want to take advantage of the king's place to host this banquet. I also want to get together with you. As for who is the real master and who is the one who is worthy of fame, I will wait. It's natural to see the difference."

After hearing Mr. Jinghai's words, everyone present couldn't help but sneer at Charlie.

This kind of hairy boy is not just for fame, but what else can it be.

Warnia also frowned slightly. She knew that Mr. Jinghai would target Charlie, but she did not expect that the atmosphere would be so solemn as soon as she entered.

However, Charlie looked cold, walked up to his chair and sat down without squinting, he didn't know everything around him.

When Solmon White saw that everyone was there, he said, "Since everyone is here, then I will tell you that today, Mr. Jinghai took advantage of our White's place to host this banquet. First, I wanted to get to know you, and second, too. I want to learn from everyone."

"How to compare?" someone asked.

"Naturally is based on the level of magic."

At this time, Mr. Jinghai stood up and explained: "The rules are very simple. As we all know, there are five disciplines in our metaphysics. You can choose the category you are good at and choose your opponent to compete!"

"In order to be more formal, the funds are sponsored by the White family. Each contest has a prize of five million. Whoever wins will take away five million, and the loser will also have 50,000 horses."

This rule is reasonable, and money can be made, many people nodded in agreement.

People in the metaphysical circles usually do their own things, and the cards will not be easily revealed. Today, the people who come to the banquet are all capable people in the metaphysical circles. Everyone gathers together to compete. Not only can they find out about each other's details, but also get bonuses and kill two birds with one stone.

"Just to learn from each other?" Charlie sneered slightly. He didn't think that Mr. Jinghai held today's banquet just to prove his prowess.

After Solmon White waited for everyone to discuss it, he continued: "However, setting up a bonus alone may not arouse everyone's enthusiasm. After all, everyone has a wealth and there is no shortage of these millions."

"So in order to make everyone more motivated, there is an additional condition, that is, the winner either chooses to take away the five million bonus, or take away something from the loser!"

"The one who wins in the end is the first sage in the metaphysical circle of Nanguang area. From now on, all the cult people in Nanguang area will respect him. Anything large and small in the area will be respected with the consent of the person!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the whole yard was quiet.

For a moment, there was a commotion again, and many people showed upset expressions and started talking.

“What if the challenger chooses a category that the challenged party is not good at?”

“The metaphysical world in Nanguang area respects the first. Isn’t this looting for territory?”

“Isn’t this funny? In the profound arts world in Nanguang area, we have always been accustomed to our own way. Now it is really nonsense to take orders from others. Besides, there are people who are not from Nanguang, right?”

There was a lot of discussion among the crowd, and they did not expect that this so-called banquet was actually a Hongmen banquet that Mr. Jinghai wanted to dominate the Nanguang Academy!

Chapter 161

At this time, Solmon said: “Everyone, stay calm, Mr. Jinghai is also considering the development of our metaphysical world. Before, everyone was scattered, but now we are organized, formed an alliance, and elected a leader. In the future, it will be more convenient to deal with the enemy, this also a good thing. As for the categories that you are not good at, since you have to choose the leader, it must be a person who is proficient in all aspects of mountain medicine and life in general to be qualified.”

While he was speaking, some people sternly objected, but some people made up their minds.

After all, the winner can win the same thing as the loser. If they get the first place, they can also command the entire Nanguang metaphysics world.

You know, metaphysics is more than just academic research.

Behind the metaphysics is a huge industrial chain, and it can also allow some big people to cling to them!

The temptation of money and power, few people can refuse, some people are moved on the spot.

"Of course." Jinghai stood up and said: "I don't force you, if anyone is afraid, you can withdraw now. But in the future, he will not have the opportunity to join the metaphysics alliance in Nanguang circles, and he will be directly excluded."

Everyone hesitated for a while. Although the risks are high, there are also many opportunities.

Everyone is thinking in their hearts, after all, it is a great temptation to become the leader, and no one feels bad.

Charlie sat in the chair and said nothing.

Jinghai's ambition is too great, this is to pave the way to enter the mainland.

However, Charlie had no interest in this metaphysical alliance either, and planned to sit and watch the show.

Soon, a middle-aged man with short beard stood up

The middle-aged man casually took out a jade slip with a large palm, and swayed in the wind, the jade slip was shining brightly, and he said: "Yang Jones, Yun City, ask Mr. Jinghai for his ability to speak casually."

The Jones family is a metaphysical family, focusing on Bu Yi, which is the inheritance of Shao Yong during the Northern Thompson Dynasty.

Yang Jones is the forty-sixth generation descendant of Meihua who is easy to count. He is very famous in Yun City, and he is naturally proud. The first challenge is Jinghai!

"it is okay!"

There was a burst of applause in the field.

Yang Jones raised his chin arrogantly: "This jade slip was handed down from the Northern Thompson Dynasty and helped many masters of Yi-learning Bu Yi! As for the number one in Nanguang area, I think Jones's family should be ranked first."

Jinghai also walked to the court, nodded slightly to Yang Jones, and smiled: "This jade slip is indeed a good thing, but it won't belong to you soon."

He stretched out his hand and took out a purse from his pocket. After untying it, he took out an inch-long rune paper, but this rune paper also had a shining luster with cinnabar runes engraved on it.

"Arhat Golden Talisman!"

When the crowd saw this golden talisman, they suddenly exclaimed.

Warnia explained to Charlie: "The Arhat Golden Talisman was made by eighteen monks who chanted the sutras for seven or forty-nine days, consecrated and refined, and belonged to the fierce anti-evil talisman."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "It's normal, not a good thing."

Hearing what he said, everyone turned their eyes and cast disgusting eyes at him.

Jinghai also snorted coldly: "I don't have any real skills, but I am not bragging."

Everyone knows that the Arhat Talisman is a rare treasure. It is not easy to find a group of 18 accomplished monks, and when it is made, the time and place are favorable. The failure rate of consecration is as high as 90%!

And this one in Jinghai's hand is full of golden light, it can be said to be hard to find!

"Stop talking nonsense, let's open a hexagram."

Yang Jones let out a cold snort, then pinched several handprints in his hand, chanting the formula in his mouth, and after a while, he said, "The hour begins, and after a quarter of an hour, wind and thunder will come from the west."

Jinghai smiled slightly, and without seeing any movement, he said: "The wind is wrapped in thunder. To be precise, this is not the wind, but the shock caused by the opening of the mountain, and it is man-made. There will be jail."

Yang Jones frowned, shook his head and said, "Impossible! No one is shown in the hexagram."

Chapter 162

Mr. Jinghai just smiled and did not answer.

Everyone was curious and waited secretly.

A quarter of an hour passed quickly, and Yang Jones stared nervously in the air in a daze.

But at this moment, a loud "bang" suddenly came from the west, and then a gust of wind swept across, and the ground vibrated slightly.

Solmon smiled and took out his mobile phone, and said: "The news feed I just got, on the side of Xishan, someone quarried rocks, which caused a 2.4 earthquake. The police have arrested him."

Yang Jones's face was gray and froze on the spot. He only counted the wind and thunder, but Mr. Jinghai even counted that the matter was man-made and that there would be prison.

He raised his head, no longer the arrogance he had just now, and smiled embarrassingly: "Mr. Jinghai is great, it was Jones who lost. I will withdraw from this banquet!"

After speaking, he picked up the jade slip, turned and left.

"Slow!" Solmon shouted, "Mr. Jones, since you are on the court, you should abide by the rules."

"What are the rules?" Yang Jones's face was sullen.

"According to the rules, the winner has the right to take your things! And, you have to admit it in public, and you will respect Mr. Jinghai in the future."

"Nonsense! It's just a banquet. You want to seize my magic weapon, and you want me to respect others, just dreaming."

Yang Jones laughed furiously, his character is hot, how can he tolerate succumbing to others.

Jinghai raised his hand and took out another rune. He used his fingers to draw and call it a few times, and then said "Hurry as a law".

"Crack!"

Under all eyes, Yang Jones's jade slip suddenly broke into two halves and fell to the ground.

"you!!"

Yang Jones's treasure was destroyed, and he was frightened and trembling with anger.

Jinghai proudly said: "If you don't follow the rules, we should destroy it! Don't give me garbage like that!"

Yang Jones's face was as gray as death, and he knew that his way of doing things was not a little bit different from that of Jinghai.

He destroyed his treasure in one blow, but he didn't even have the power to fight back.

Glancing at the jade slips on the ground, Yang Jones gritted his teeth and said, "It's me who is low-minded and inferior humans!"

After speaking, he didn't even pick up the jade slips on the ground, and left with a black face.

And seeing this scene, the expressions of all the people present changed. Jinghai was unfathomable. People who were still confident just now hesitated.

Tailai also frowned and asked Guo Ming in a low voice.

Immediately afterward, Tailai stood up, waved his hand bitterly, and said, "What can I do for such a boring banquet? Goodbye, everyone!"

After that, he took Guo Ming and walked out.

Suddenly four strong men in black jumped out from the left and right, blocking the way.

Tailai angrily said, "What are you doing?"

"Mr. Guo Ming, why bother to leave now that you are here?"

Jinghai stepped forward and smiled slightly: "My banquet is not a place where you want to come or leave at your will. If you want to go now, isn't it a violation of the rules?"

Tailai snorted coldly: "I am not a member of your metaphysics. It is not my business if you choose the leader yourself!"

Jinghai snorted coldly: "If you want to go, you can save things and consider me to be worthy of your respect!"

Chapter 163

Tailai was also a man with a face anyway, and was furious by Jinghai's words and said, "What do you mean?"

"Mr. Tailai, let me see!"

Guo Ming said in a deep voice, stepping forward and reprimanding: "If you dare to stop, it's no wonder that I am ruthless!"

Seeing Guo Ming was about to make a move, everyone present cheered.

"Mr. Guo Ming, let this stinky Taoist priest from Hong Kong city taste the greatness of our Nanguang."

"An outsider wants to unify the Nanguang Academy, and he talks about dreams."

"Fight him back, Nanguang can't tolerate him in the wild."

Jinghai smiled coldly and said, "If you are not convinced, you can try it!"

Guo Ming was furious, and struck Jinghai with a punch. This punch was powerful, and obviously Guo Ming was not an ordinary person.

"Just rely on you?" Everyone only felt that there was a flower in front of them, and Jinghai had already swayed in front of Guo Ming, stretched out his hand and stuck a yellow symbol on his forehead.

"Fast posture." Warnia said in surprise.

And Guo Ming was stiff as if he had been hit by a holding spell, only his eyes could turn around, revealing a panic.

Jinghai calmed down, smiled slightly, and suddenly scolded.

"Get down!"

"thump!"

As if he heard the order, Guo Ming suddenly fell on the ground, on all fours.

"Mr. Guo Ming!" Tailai took a breath and screamed quickly.

The surrounding crowd looked at each other, all in shock.

With just such a trick, Guo Ming didn't even have room to resist. How powerful is this!

Guo Ming lay on the ground, extremely annoyed, but his body didn't listen at all, and his mouth angrily said: "Old dog! What kind of sorcerer are you."

"Just your three-legged cat skills, and still have the face to challenge me?" Mr. Jinghai sneered sarcastically, and suddenly scolded, "Tell me how a dog barks!"

Guo Ming was shocked, and quickly wanted to shut up.

But his mouth did not shut, even his vocal cords could not be controlled, and there was a dry "barking" sound from his mouth.

Tailai was shocked and almost fell over with a shake.

Guo Ming is over sixty years old, but now lies in front of Master Jinghai like a dog, learning how to bark vaguely.

It was originally a funny scene, but there was a dead silence inside.

The crowd was horrified, and there was a burst of fear on their backs.

Jinghai actually defeated two masters in a row in less than ten minutes. How powerful is this?

"Puppet technique, this is the Xiangxi puppet technique that has long since been lost!" Fungui Bao murmured, his expression in shock.

After he finished speaking, a cold breath suddenly sounded in the field.

The puppet technique was passed down from Xiangxi. It was originally a secret technique passed down from the ancestors of the corpse chaser, but it has now been lost.

Unexpectedly, they would be able to witness it with their own eyes. This is enough to show that Jinghai's Taoism is unpredictable, and the people here cannot match it!

Chapter 164

Guo Ming was still lying on the ground, his face flushed with embarrassment, but he couldn't control it at all, and he even wanted to die.

Jinghai waved his hand, and Guo Ming suddenly became soft and collapsed directly on the ground, extremely ashamed.

"What, Mr. Guo Ming, are you convinced?" Solmon laughed.

Guo Ming gritted his teeth, blood oozing between his teeth, and murmured bitterly: "I'm taken."

Seeing Guo Ming bowed his head to admit defeat, the whole yard was silent, and no one dared to say anything again.

And then, Jinghai turned his head to look at Charlie, and said: "Snatched my clams treasure that day, today you see my magical powers, do you dare to be arrogant?"

Charlie shrugged and said: "Just your two strokes, are you counting?"

Warnia hurriedly grabbed Charlie, and said in a low voice, "Now let's be soft here. Jinghai does have some skills. Don't lose your life for indifferent dignity."

Jinghai sneered and said, "You are young and ignorant, I ask you, how dare you compare me with yourself! If you lose, return the clams back to me and apologize to me on your knees!"

Charlie smiled lightly and said, "Competition? What makes you think you worthy of me?"

Everyone's complexion changed suddenly, and this kid dared to speak such a wild world! He doesn't want to live anymore?

In the quiet courtyard, there was a dead silence.

Warnia also stood up in shock. As soon as she said this, it couldn't be done right.

Jinghai was even more angry, and walked in front of Charlie step by step, and said: "I have seen many people in my life, but they are not like you, deliberately begging to die."

Charlie smiled and said, "Who will live and die is not necessarily obvious."

Jinghai had a murderous intent, and when his eyes were cold, he wanted to do it.

At this moment, a group of people suddenly broke into the door, aggressively.

The leader was Steven. He saw Charlie and immediately shouted: "Charlie, your magic stick, pretend to be a devil to deceive my Uncle! You lied to my family, stole money and used it at the auction to replenish your balance. It was at the expense of Master Jinghai to see through your trick! You should surrender your property now, otherwise my Qin family cannot spare you."

As soon as the voice fell, Qin Gang and Aoxue walked in from the door. After hearing Steven's scolding, it was too late to stop, and there was an embarrassment.

Charlie glanced at him lightly, but said nothing.

However, his glance made Qin Gang feel cold all over his body, and he was full of fear. He yelled at Steven and quickly explained to Charlie with a dry smile: "Mr. Wade, this is what happened."

Qin Gang didn't dare to conceal it, and explained what happened.

After Charlie finished listening, he just frowned slightly, and said coldly: "It's more than one billion. If you regret it, the money can be refunded to you at any time."

"Oh, Mr. Wade, don't say that. How dare I ask Mr. Wade for a refund! I came here today. It was Qin who admired the prestige of Master Wades for a long time and wanted to see it."

Qin Gang couldn't figure out whether Charlie was capable or fudged, but he was also considered a smart person, so he wasn't going to turn his face with Charlie right away.

Although he was complimenting him, he hesitated in his heart. He felt that Charlie couldn't test the depth of this person by himself, so he might as well let Jinghai try.

If Charlie showed his feet in front of Jinghai, then he would naturally not be polite to him, and how much money he spent, even the profit would have to be vomited from his mouth.

So he sneered at Charlie himself and the others: "Then I won't disturb Master Wades. I'll talk about this later. You guys should be busy with the important things at hand and leave me alone."

Steven wanted to speak angrily, but Qin Gang glared fiercely, and he not dared to speak any more.

When Jinghai saw this, he smiled at Qin Gang and said, "You just came here. I know your Qin family has been upset recently. Charlie also did the practice in your Qin family. I will try it with him today, by the way. Solve the problems for your Qin family! Charlie, if you dare to compete with me, not only will you undoubtedly die today, but afterwards, I will do everything to destroy you!"

Charlie frowned, and said with a sneer: "Since you want to die, it is your wish."

Chapter 165

Seeing Charlie's determination, Jinghai sneered and said to Solmon: "It seems that some people are really tired and crooked, no matter what, go and prepare me three pillars of sandalwood, a purple gold incense burner, and a peach wood sword. With one hand, I will fulfill him."

Solmon didn't dare to neglect, and he was ready soon.

After a while, sandalwood was inserted into the incense burner, and clear smoke curled up.

Mr. Jinghai raised the peach wood sword, chanting words.

Standing next to him, Qin Gang felt dizzy, as if there were several shots in his head and his temples jumped.

He endured it for a while, really couldn't stand it, and pleaded: "Mr. Jinghai, how long is this Feng Shui going to continue?"

"Your family's aura is very heavy. This is a vision, and the Feng Shui Bureau also needs time. Please bear with it for the time being."

Seeing Master Wade speak, Qin Gang can only bite the bullet and endure it.

But the more patient he was, the more uncomfortable he felt all over, not only was he nauseous, but he also felt severe pain in his head.

But fortunately, a thing on his chest exuded vigorous warmth in an instant, protecting the heart, so that Qin Gang did not collapse on the spot.

Qin Gang was shocked: "Isn't this the charm given by Charlie?"

Not knowing what he was thinking, Jinghai took a sip of water and sprayed it on the mahogany sword with a "poof", swiping the sword to cut off the rising smoke.

Just as the wooden sword swept across the smoke, Qin Gang suddenly felt as if his head had been hit hard, his throat was sweet, and a mouthful of blood spurted out.

"Uncle!"

Steven was shocked and rushed forward, holding him back.

But Qin Gang's face was ashen, and he didn't even have the strength to speak.

"Mr. Jinghai, how could my Uncle be like this?" Steven asked anxiously.

Jinghai's expression remained unchanged, and said, "The Qin family's aura is too heavy. I broke it with a fierce Feng Shui situation, and the Patriarch was naturally the first to bear the brunt."

Qin Gang hurriedly dragged the sick body, struggling to thank: "Thank you, Mr. Jinghai, for setting up the bureau, I am grateful."

After his blood spurted out, he did feel a lot more comfortable in his body.

Not only that, but Steven also felt the changes in his body, and he quickly thanked Jinghai.

Fungui Bao frowned and said, "Jinghai is really capable. The Qin family's evil spirits are so heavy, he can alleviate it, and he really has two brushes."

All of you present here are Feng Shui masters, and I don't need to explain that you know that Jinghai broke the Qin family's evil spirits, and the eyes that looked at him also admired.

"Uncle, let's go sit there." Steven helped Qin Gang to walk aside, then turned to look at Charlie, and provocatively said: "How about it? Quickly return our Qin family's money."

Charlie curled his lips and said, "The money can be paid back to you, but Qin Gang is afraid that it will be spent."

"What!" Qin Gang was suddenly shocked.

Charlie glanced at him coldly and said, "Look at your palm, is there a red line."

Qin Gang's face was ugly, and he quickly turned his palms up, and was stunned.

He saw a faint red line on his palm.

This red line starts from the lifeline of the palm and extends to the arm!

Qin Gang was shocked: "What is this, I didn't have it before."

Chapter 166

Charlie said coldly: "This is your lifeline. The Qin family is so cursed that Jinghai uses your life to resolve it! Three days later, this red line extends to your elbow, and then you will be dead! Use the virtues accumulated in your life's good deeds to change the Qin family's line and continue."

When Qin Gang heard this, he was shocked to stay there.

Steven was also in a panic, and quickly looked at everyone present.

All Masters here nodded slightly when they saw this scene. Qin Gang would not live for three days.

Steven knelt on the ground with a thud, and begged Jinghai: "Mr. Jinghai, please, save my Uncle!"

Jinghai looked arrogant and sneered: "The spell is out, how can it be taken back? I used Qin Gang's life in exchange for your family's life, you should thank me."

Aoxue also turned pale, biting her lower lip and entangled for a long time, then she knelt in front of Charlie with a puff, and said: "Please, save my dad"

Charlie glanced at her and said indifferently: "Since your Qin family chooses to believe in Jinghai, then it has nothing to do with me, so why let me do it?"

Aoxue's eyes were red, and she gritted her teeth and said, "If you can save my dad, I will promise you anything you want."

Charlie smiled and said, "I have no interest."

Qin Gang also ran over, knelt in front of Charlie, and cried out: "Mr. Wade, I am blinded by lard, and it is Steven, the sorrowful star, bewitching me."

While speaking, Qin Gang pulled Steven away, and slapped his face desperately.

Steven dodged again and again.

Aoxue also grabbed Charlie's leg and cried: "Just save my dad, please."

Charlie sighed and said, "Okay, all stand up. I scared you just now. Nothing at all. Fortunately, your dad is wearing a frightening talisman, or there is no time to fight Steven now."

Qin Gang looked suspicious, took out the shocking talisman from his arms, and said, "Is this talisman working?"

Charlie nodded and said, "The red line faded quickly. With Jinghai's two tricks, it is still a long way from trying to break my talisman."

Qin Gang looked down at his arm, and saw that the red line had dimmed a lot and was gradually fading. He couldn't help but be overjoyed and said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, if it wasn't for you, I would be dead today."

Charlie waved his hand and said: "It's because you are lucky, and you came here with a talisman. Otherwise, I don't bother to care about you."

After speaking, Charlie turned his head to look at Jinghai, and said: "Now the result is obvious, don't you admit defeat?"

Steven finally came over at this time, knelt on the ground, and apologized to Charlie without a word.

Jinghai's face turned blue, staring at Charlie fiercely, and said: "With some small means, I dare to say that I have won? I wanted to spare your life, who knows you are stubborn and give you a chance at last, Hand over the clams, kneel down and apologize!"

He didn't want to use the last hole card, but the matter was here, Charlie had already defeated him, making his meditation layout in vain!

Moreover, once he uses his hole cards, even he can't completely control it. Everyone here might die!

Charlie's face gradually turned cold, and said, "What if I say no?"

"You forced me!" Jinghai took out a black porcelain altar from the box beside him as soon as he finished speaking.

A few black mosquitoes flew out of the altar, and instantly pounced on the meat and vegetables on the table, chewing them.

Warnia looked weird and said, "Does Jinghai still raise mosquitoes?"

Everyone watched the black mosquitoes pounce on the flesh, and the picture was very strange. The masters present were all inexplicable. They had no idea what was going on and asked each other.

But in a moment, the meat dishes that were eaten by black mosquitoes turned color quickly, and countless smaller black mosquitoes emerged from the meat!

Chapter 167

In less than five minutes, the fresh dishes on the table just now were all rotten and spoiled, and dense mosquitoes emerged.

There is a rooster on the grass in the courtyard, which was raised by the White family.

A few mosquitoes flew to the rooster at an extremely fast speed. After more than ten seconds, the rooster screamed and flapped its wings, fell to the ground and convulsed to death.

From the feathers of the dead chicken, a large black mosquito drilled out and flew into the air.

The black mosquitoes in the air are densely packed, rushing towards the crowd like a whirlwind.

The yard suddenly exploded, and the crowd was in a mess, dodge desperately.

This black mosquito is extremely poisonous, not only biting people, but also getting into the skin from the wound.

Mosquitoes are very small, only the size of sand grains.

And the bitten person will be swollen and painful.

The masters in the field have used their housekeeping skills, throwing amulets and chanting mantras.

Some people even got under the table, and someone jumped into the pool with a plop, screaming constantly.

"What the h*ll is this!" Warnia was scared to death.

"This is a corpse eater!" Fungui Bao was shocked and angry: "This is made from a baby corpse. It originated from southern Xinjiang. I didn't expect Jinghai to raise this insidious thing."

Jinghai laughed and said cruelly: "This corpse eater is made from a fetus. It is the most poisonous. If you don't respect me, none of you can run away."

Black mosquitoes grew more and more. An Old Master was bitten and swollen all over, vomiting black blood, and fainted to the ground.

The black mosquitoes in the air made the scalp numb, and Warnia was also flustered.

But soon she discovered that there was no mosquito around Charlie!

As soon as those mosquitoes approached Charlie, they turned into black charcoal instantly as if they had encountered something extremely terrifying!

At this moment, Charlie sneered, and walked towards Jinghai slowly without receiving any obstacles, holding a white shell symbol in his hand.

This is the thundering order he refined!

It exudes a faint fluorescent light, with a hint of thunder surrounding it.

Watching this scene, Jinghai muttered: "Why are you doing this? How is this possible?"

Charlie seemed to be bathed in a halo, as if a god came personally, his expression indifferent.

"Impossible! The Corpse spell has been completely destroyed, it is impossible for anyone to deal with it!" Jinghai roared hoarsely.

Charlie looked at Jinghai and sneered, "I dare to call it a waste? Today, I will show you what is real, great supernatural power!"

Immediately afterwards, Charlie yelled: "Here it comes!"

As soon as the voice fell, there was a loud noise!

"Boom!"

In an instant, there was a thunderbolt in the sky, and the sky that was still clear just now suddenly piled up black clouds!

In a blink of an eye, the entire sky is already covered with dark clouds!

"This!" Fungui Bao looked up at the sky, shocked to speak.

Everyone, including Warnia, also had the same expression.

Qin Gang murmured: "A miracle, this is a miracle!"

In the next second, a silver snake lightning shot straight down from the air!

"f*ck!"

An angry lightning hit the mosquitoes, and the mosquitoes immediately turned into coke.

The tables and chairs split, the trees fell, and the air was filled with a strong smell of burnt dryness.

But Charlie stood with his hand held up, staring coldly, and the thunder light around his body flickered!

There was a strong wind in the courtyard, and a torrential rain poured down, washing the whole area clean.

A few seconds later, the crowd recovered and dodged around, fearing being struck by lightning.

Chapter 168

"I'll go, he, he is not a human! He is a god!"

"Don't hack me, I will kneel down and admit my mistake to Mr. Wade."

"Help, I was wrong!"

Several people thumped and knelt down, and kowtow to Charlie.

Qin Gang was also scared to drill down the table, awe in his heart.

However, these few sky thunders, like eyes, only cleaved mosquitoes into dregs, and didn't hurt anyone.

Jinghai's expression was extremely shocked and terrified!

He never dreamed that Charlie's strength would be so terrifying!

Compared with him, he is like an ant!

If the billowing thunder struck him, he wouldn't be able to keep a whole body!

He panicked, and quickly got up, scrambling to flee outside the courtyard. He just wanted to escape now. He escaped from Aurous Hill and never came back again. He didn't even think about being a venerable person in Aurous Hill!

"Want to escape?"

Charlie smiled coldly, stretched out his hand and pointed: "Here, come again!"

"Boom!"

A sky of thunder smashed its head and smashed Jinghai straight to the ground, breaking the pottery jar in his hand.

His hands were severely painful, he was scared and shivered and screamed.

"Wade, Mr. Wade spare my life"

Charlie looked cold, and walked towards him step by step.

"Using a fetus to refine Gu! It is really damaging to the world, and extremely corrupt!"

"The evil devil said crookedly, he was punishable by the heavens! I am punishing you by thunder today! Do you accept it!"

Jinghai opened his mouth wide, but couldn't say anything. He watched the thunder and lightning flash in the dark clouds, and he was crying in grief and indignation. It seems that today is his limit.

why! Why is there such a terrifying existence in Aurous Hill? Why do I have to trouble him blindly

"boom!"

It doesn't mean that Jinghai wants to understand the cause and effect, and several days of thunder are smashed together, and a bunch of smashes are on Jinghai!

Mr. Jinghai, who was also aggressive and arrogant just now, was smashed to the ground before he even screamed.

But the human form is no longer visible, it becomes a piece of burnt "wood", and a burnt smell permeates the courtyard, which is disgusting.

"Rain harvests, wind rises!"

Charlie waved his hand, the torrential rain stopped miraculously, and a gust of wind blew up on the ground, flying sand and rocks, sweeping away the smell of burnt corpses in the courtyard.

In the gust of wind, Charlie's face was calm, as if nothing had happened.

But everyone in the courtyard had their mouths open in shock.

Steven trembled all over and didn't dare to speak. If Charlie struck him with lightning at that time, he would have died long ago. Only then did he understand that Charlie had always put him in his eyes, so he could survive.

"Mr. Wade, you are a god!"

Qin Gang's voice trembled, and he knelt on the ground with a plop, facing Charlie with his hands together.

Solmon was already so scared that he knelt on the ground, walked a few steps in front of Charlie, and kept kowtowing.

"Mr. Wade spares my life. I am obsessed with my heart. I don't follow Mr. Jinghai. I follow the gods and sticks! I beg Mr. Wade for my dog life. I am willing to be a bull and a horse for Mr. Wade.

Charlie glanced at him indifferently, and walked past Solmon.

Fungui Bao said respectfully; "I think that the venerable of Nanguang from now on will be Mr. Wade! From the future of Nanguang metaphysics, please give orders Mr. Wade, and I will follow your orders."

Ordered the entire Nanguang area of the metaphysical community, just now everyone was fighting to death and life, but now no one has any objections, all of them are convinced, and shouted in unison.

"Mr. Wade, please order the Aurous Hill!"

Chapter 169

Everyone was fighting to death just now, but now they are all eager to let Charlie order the entire Aurous Hill, even the entire Nanguang area of metaphysics, and no one has objections to Charlie.

They have never seen a god like Charlie, who can attract heavenly thunder in a word!

This is the realm of metaphysics, a supernatural power that they don't dare not imagine!

Looking at that Jinghai who was scorched by lightning on the ground, he knew that Charlie's strength was unfathomable. Letting such a person order everyone, not only was everyone convinced, but they also hoped to get Charlie's advice.

Charlie frowned slightly, and said to everyone: "I am not a member of metaphysics, and I don't usually study Feng Shui, and I am not interested in metaphysics. In the future, let Fungui Bao act as an agent for you."

As soon as he finished speaking, the people present opened their mouths in shock.

The sky thunder just now has shocked their minds, Mr. Wade still said that he is not interested in Feng Shui metaphysics? And he is not a person in metaphysics?

Is this just a momentary interest of others, just summoning a few sky thunders to play?

clothes!

Capital service!

The crowd is silent, he look at them, others look at him.

Fungui Bao glanced at Charlie hesitantly, and said respectfully: "It is an honor to share the worries for Mr. Wade! From now on, I would like to ask you friends to take care of the matters. I will take care of the minor matters by myself, and then come to ask Mr. Wade for advice."

The dignified atmosphere relaxed a lot. Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, immediately walked over and said in a respectful voice, "I thank Mr. Wade for this move and would like to offer a cheque for 80 million to show my admiration!"

Guo Ming also stepped forward, ashamed, and said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for eliminating the harm! From now on, Guo Ming will listen to any dispatch from Nanguang Supreme leader!"

"Wish to listen!"

When the crowd saw the two men stepping forward to shoot their horses, they were immediately unwilling to be left behind, and they flattered Charlie.

Fungui Bao said: "Today's banquet, the White family sponsored 150 million. It was originally a bonus for each winner. Now Mr. Wade is the first, this bonus will naturally go to him."

Solmon still knelt on the ground and did not dare to get up, his forehead was knocked out, and he hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, a villain with no eyes, almost harmed the heroes of Nanguang, and please forgive me."

Charlie frowned and said coldly: "Solmon, didn't you believe in Jinghai before?"

Solmon hurriedly knocked his head and said: "Mr. Wade, the villain is completely blinded by that Jinghai! Now I know that he is nothing more than a bug in front of Mr. Wade. From now on, the villain will keep his eyes open and worship Mr. Wade throughout his life with respect!"

After that, Solmon said again: "Mr. Wade, in order to express the villain's inner apology, I would like to give Mr. Wade another villa. After I send someone to clean up, I will give you the key and ask Mr. Wade to forgive me my crime!"

villa?

Charlie frowned slightly.

For his worth, a villa is nothing.

However, if he buys it himself, it must be inappropriate. After all, there is no way to explain the source of funds to wife.

But if someone wants to give him a set, then why should he be polite?

After all, nowadays the family still lives in the old house, and it really needs to change to a better environment.

As for this Solmon, it is indeed a bit hateful, but it seems that he has a deep remorse attitude and is not guilty of death.

So Charlie nodded and said, "If you are interested, let's just do this. If it gets into my hands again in the future, I won't be so good at talking!"

Chapter 170

Solmon was overjoyed and quickly knelt and thanked him: "Thank you Mr. Wade for raising your hand! The villain must reflect on it seriously and there will never be another next time!"

"Ok.

Immediately, he looked at Qin Gang, who was full of horror.

Indifferently asked him: "Qin Gang, does your family think that Charlie cheated you of your money?"

Qin Gang suddenly softened his legs and knelt on the ground with a thump, and said in horror: "I dare not! I was just confused for a while and had a little doubt about Mr. Wade. Now that I am completely convinced that Mr. Wade is the real master of metaphysics. I seek forgiveness!"

After finishing talking, he grabbed Steven who was frightened and silly, and shouted angrily: "b*stard thing, kneel down!"

Steven was already trembling with fright, and Qin Gang yelled, knelt down instantly, and said tremblingly: "Mr. Wade, I was wrong Mr. Wade! Please forgive me, I really didn't mean to doubt you!"

Qin Gang shook his hand and gave him a big mouth, and then he slapped another one with the backhand, slapped a dozen times in a row, causing Steven's cheek to swell into a pig's head.

Steven didn't dare to move, he knelt on the ground and cried. At this time, being beaten was nothing to him. He was most afraid that Charlie would directly recruit a sky thunder-like Jinghai and smash him to death.

The handsome face of Aoxue next to him turned pale with fright.

She never dreamed that Charlie would turned out to be such a master with great magical powers.

Originally, she was still a little angry with Charlie in her heart, and felt that she had to find a chance to avenge Charlie, a disciple, but now it seems that the other party is so strong that she can only worship!

She was afraid that Charlie would be angry with her younger brother Steven, so she knelt down and begged: "Mr. Wade, my younger brother is still young and ignorant. Please forgive him this time."

Seeing that the three of the Qin family were kneeling in front of him, Charlie said calmly: "It is good that you have a good attitude to admit your mistakes, so I won't mention this for the time being, but if there are similar things in the future, don't blame me for being cruel!"

As soon as the Qin family heard these words, the family hurriedly bowed their heads and thanked him as if they were getting amnesty.

Warnia stood outside the crowd, watching this scene in her eyes, feeling excited and mixed.

Before today, she had always thought that Charlie was just a little accomplished in antiques, but his background and family background were ordinary, so he was not a big man.

Unexpectedly, he turned out to be hiding his strength!

Today's scene really shocked Warnia to speak. She had never seen such a scene in her entire life.

At this moment, Charlie took a step higher, looked down at the people present, and said coldly: "Listen to me!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone immediately looked up at Charlie, showing full respect, and did not dare to make a sound.

Charlie looked around the crowd and sternly shouted: "Out of this door, no one can mention anything to the outside world about today's matter. Otherwise, I will let him have a taste of Jinghai's fate!"

Everyone's expressions were stunned, and it seemed that Mr. Wade didn't want to pass on his identity and strength!

He really is a very low-key master!

Unlike the famous Jinghai, who has a little three-legged cat technique, he will show off publicly everywhere.

Compared with Mr. Wade, he is simply worthless! More than guilty!

As a result, everyone clasped their fists and bowed: "We will follow Mr. Wade's instructions!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction at this time, and said, "In that case, we will leave now!"

Chapter 171

In the eyes of everyone worshipping, Charlie left calmly.

Warnia couldn't help but look at him on the way to send him back.

At this time, Charlie had returned to the ordinary state of his, and she could not see any powerful cultivation base on his body.

She was surprised and felt a little weird.

Just now, Charlie exuded the aura of a superior, which made people fear and tremble.

But now, this temperament is gone, at first glance, it looks no different from passersby.

Hard to say if it is his intentional restraint, or just an illusion.

Warnia couldn't help asking: "Charlie, did you really call the spirits that time?"

Charlie looked at her and smiled slightly.

"Guess? If I say it's a coincidence, do you believe it?"

In Warnia's mind, the appearance of Charlie summoning Tianlei flashed past unconsciously.

In the flash of thunder, he stood proudly in the world, with outstanding temperament.

If it is such a man, no matter which woman sees it, she will fall in love.

Warnia couldn't help her heart moving, but she shook her head quickly.

What a joke!

Even the world's top physicists cannot control lightning.

If Charlie could summon Tianlei, would he still be a poor son-in-law like he is now?

Could it be that the sky thunder just now was really just a coincidence?

When Charlie returned to the door, he heard the voice of his mother-in-law Elaine coming from the house.

"I told you to find a capable husband, but you just didn't listen! See how capable this son-in-law is, he gave her a big four-bedroom! More than 180 square meters! How bright? Let's look at our house again, it's a total of 120 square meters, so I'm a stubborn person!"

After finishing speaking, the mother-in-law said angrily: "People's son-in-law can count on it. Charlie's marriage is useless. Counting on him, I'm afraid I won't live in a big house in my life!"

Claire's dissatisfied voice came: "Mom, what do you envy other people doing, besides, I have also been promoted to director. If we save a few years, can we still not afford a new house?"

The mother-in-law spoofed and said: "Wait a few more years? Wait a few more years, the day lily will be cold! Since you married Charlie, our family's life has plummeted. We can still live in Willson's villa, now what? This broken house, my friends, all can live better than me!"

Claire said: "Mom, does it make sense for you to always compare like this?"

"It's boring!" The mother-in-law said angrily, "Because I can't beat others, so I'm boring! Especially boring!"

Charlie shook his head helplessly at this time, opened the door and walked in.

Seeing Charlie's return, Elaine snorted coldly, and said, "Do you still know how to come back? Can you cook the meal? We are all hungry!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Mom, I'm going to cook now."

After speaking, he went straight to the kitchen.

Charlie couldn't be more clear about Elaine's character, snobbery and clumsy, he felt uncomfortable when he saw what other people had.

If she knows that Solomon wants to give him a villa in order to make amends, she is afraid that she will come over and kneel and lick him immediately.

Chapter 172

However, as for Elaine's performance, he is not ready to say anything about this house.

Charlie was busy working in the kitchen, Claire walked over and said in a low voice, "Don't take what mom said to your heart, she just admires vanity."

Charlie deliberately said, "What did Mom say? I didn't hear a word."

"Just pretend, it's strange if you didn't hear it." Claire poked Charlie's forehead with her finger.

Charlie took advantage of the opportunity to hold her hand.

Claire blushed, and quickly looked out of the kitchen before she retracted her hands.

But Charlie held on to it, took a closer look, and saw that she was carrying the bracelet he made, and he smiled and asked, "Is this bracelet effective?"

"Huh?" Claire regained her senses, nodded and said, "Don't say it is really effective. Since I put on the bracelet, my body feels like a new look and feels much more comfortable. What exactly is your bracelet made of? Does it work?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It's just a pearl."

The white beads were worn on Claire's wrist, making her wrist like snow, white and tender like a new lotus root.

Charlie's smooth and warm jade hand was held in his hand, like a piece of warm jade, and he didn't want to let it go.

Claire also noticed it, blushing, and immediately retracted her hand and glared at him.

Charlie smiled and said, "Do you want to change the house too?"

"Of course, who doesn't want to live in a new house? Since my mother moved out of the villa, she complained all the time that it was too small and broken."

Claire sighed, then recovered and said: "It's just that the house price is too expensive now, and the family doesn't have that much money, so let's forget it."

With that said, Claire suddenly remembered something and blurted out: "By the way, we can go to see the real estate first, and calculate how much the difference between this house and the new one would be. If the price difference is not so high, then replace this with a better one."

Before Charlie had time to speak, Claire said excitedly: "That's it. It's the weekend tomorrow, let's go out and check out the real estate!"

Seeing that she was very interested in this matter, Charlie nodded and said, "Since you want to see it, I will accompany you."

Claire researched the real estate information on her mobile phone and decided to take a look for houses in New District with a better environment.

It just so happened that someone came and knocked on the door after eating. A courier handed a small package to Charlie and said, "This is for you. Please sign it."

After Charlie signed the receipt, he opened it and found that there was a suite door key and several golden cards with the words "Tomson Villa a05" on it.

At this time, Charlie received a phone call from Solmon, the patriarch of the White family. He respectfully said on the phone: "Mr. Wade, have you received the key and room card? Tomson Villa is developed by Tomson Company in Aurous Hill. The most high-end real estate project. The No. a05 I gave you, is the largest villa, excluding the courtyard, with an area of more than 1,000 square meters, please accept it!"

Charlie has heard of Tomson. They have developed villas and high-rise communities in Aurous Hill, which can be said to be the highest-end real estate project in the city.

The market price of such a villa is at least 100 million.

It seems that Solmon is indeed bleeding heavily.

So Charlie said lightly: "You have a heart."

Solmon said ecstatically: "Where is it! It is an honor for the White family to serve Mr. Wade!"

Back to the room, Charlie deliberately asked Claire: "Wife, do you like the house of Thomps Builders?"

"Thomson First Grade?!" Claire exclaimed, "How can we afford the houses there! The prices of ordinary high-rise residential buildings there are twice as expensive as outside! But the houses are indeed the best in Aurous Hill!" "

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "You can go and see it tomorrow, let's talk about whether you can buy it or not later."

Claire hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Forget it, let's be more pragmatic and take a look at ordinary houses."

Charlie smiled and said, "You tell me, I have a friend at Tomson First Grade. He said he can help get the internal price. We can go and see first."

Chapter 173

Early the next morning, Charlie took the villa key and the companion access card given by Solmon, and drove with his wife to the Tomson sales center.

Soon, the car stopped in front of the Tomson sales center.

At this time, the sales center is almost crowded. It seems that the citizens of Aurous Hill are still very interested in the real estate of Tomson. Even if they can't afford it, they must come to open their eyes.

Seeing this posture, Claire said to Charlie: "Charlie, there are so expensive, we can't afford it, so don't join in the fun!"

Charlie smiled and said, "My wife, you have come here, what are you going to do, besides, I really want to see the world, come with me and have a look?"

Claire said helplessly: "Well, it's just time to see what the top Tomson looks like."

After entering, the people gathered around the huge sand table, listening to the shopping guide explaining the general situation of the Tomson community.

The area of real estate developed by Tomson in Aurous Hill is very large.

On the periphery of the real estate, there are high-rise residential buildings, which are relatively ordinary housing. The area ranges from 120 square meters to 240 square meters. The price is very high, starting at 80,000.

As for the deepest, most comfortable and perfect prime location of the real estate, it is the villa area with single-family houses.

The size of the villa area ranges from 300 square meters to more than 1,000 square meters. Because it has a yard and a basement, the price is very expensive, at 130,000 square meters.

In other words, the villa Solmon gave to Charlie was worth 130 million!

The shopping guide also introduced: "We provide separate property and security services for distinguished villa owners. Don't look at ordinary houses and villas in the same community, but there is a fence around the villa area. Isolated from ordinary houses!"

"The ordinary residential area outside is already very safe. People are not allowed to enter, and the villa area inside is safer. To put it simply, if a thief enters the ordinary residential area outside, it is absolutely impossible. Then enter the villa area through the security of the villa area, so the owner of the villa area is extremely safe, you can rest assured!"

At this time, a woman said angrily: "You are too much, right? This is to let the owners of the ordinary residential area outside help the owners of the villa area to block bullets!"

Many people around nodded one after another, listening to the shopping guide, it really meant that.

Charlie felt that the voice was a bit familiar, and when he looked up, he realized that it was a woman with heavy makeup.

That woman is Claire's cousin, Wendy.

Why is she here?

Charlie and Claire were a little surprised.

Looking next to her, her father Noah Willson, mother Horiyah Qian and her brother Harold were all there!

Could it be that their family came to buy a house?

Claire whispered to Charlie: "Uncle and family are all here, let's go!"

Charlie shook his head: "What are you doing? If they are here, can't we be here?"

Claire said, "I'm afraid they will run on you again."

Chapter 174

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry, your husband has been run on for so many years. There are already more lice and itching!"

"Okay" Claire nodded.

At this time, the shopping guide said with a smile to Wendy who had just protested: "This lady, it's true that we, Tomson, have always regarded the villa owners as the most distinguished owners. Our private swimming pool, high-end Sports clubs, high-end health clubs, golf courses, and Michelin restaurants specially introduced from Italy are all opened in the villa area and only serve the villa owners!"

Wendy said angrily: "What do you mean, the owner of our high-rise living outside are not humans? We also spent money, OK? Why don't we enjoy these supporting facilities?"

The shopping guide said sorry: "I'm sorry, we also have a club in the high-rise area outside. If you buy a house, you can use the high-rise area club."

Wendy asked: "Can't I go there to use high-end health club? Can't I go to play golf?"

"No." The shopping guide said: "The facilities in our house are specially prepared for villa owners. I'm really sorry."

Harold was very annoyed and said, "What the h*ll are you doing? We are still planning to buy your 240-square-meter largest high-rise residential building, 167 million! With so much money, you don't let us use the supporting facilities inside? Mom? Yes, believe it or not, I won't buy it?"

The shopping guide smiled slightly and said, "Sir, let me tell you that when we built this project, we built the outer circle of ordinary residences because of the city's requirement that we were not allowed to develop a pure villa area!"

"That's why we built these attached ordinary residences, and everything in our place is respected by the owners of the villa area!"

"If you can't accept it, you can buy a villa, or you can buy nothing at all. To be honest, our outer flats are also selling very well, and we sold 80 on the opening day!"

Harold's expression suddenly became ugly.

He thought that if he said not to buy, the other party would start to think about their stance.

But he didn't expect that people would be so rigid.

The subtext of the shopping guide is: If you want to buy you can buy, If you don't want to, just f*ck off.

The angered Harold blurted out to his parents, "I'm going, don't buy it, we can buy it wherever when we have money!"

Harold's mother, Horiyah, said, "Where are you going? This is the house I am after, and I can't look at the houses elsewhere."

Harold persuaded, "Mom, isn't it just for the wealthy people in the villa area to whom we will stand guard and block bullets? You have to be treated differently. What's good about this place?"

"You know what a sh!t!" Horiyah said. "Even if the outside high-rise environment and facilities are not as good as the inner villa area, it is the best in the high-rise area of Aurous Hill! The villa your grandma lives in is too old. The decorations were done many years ago, and I've long been bored!"

Noah Willson on the side also nodded and said, "Your grandma's current villa is indeed too old, the surrounding area is also remote, and there are no supporting facilities. If you want to buy a pack of cigarettes at night, you have to drive a long way. How can the facilities be so complete here."

As he said, he said again: "I have the same idea as your mother, just buy it here!"

Harold sighed. He was just pretending to be haughty in front of the shopping guide.

He was irritated, and suddenly saw two familiar figures, which made him immediately interested, and blurted out: "Oh, Claire, Charlie, why are you two here?"

Claire didn't expect to be seen by Harold. Seeing his voice attracted the attention of his family, he laughed twice and said, "I and Charlie came out to take a look."

Harold immediately said contemptuously: "Why? With your family's strength, plus your waste husband, you still want to buy a house in a high-end place like Tomson?"

Chapter 175

Harold naturally looked down upon Charlie by 10,000.

And he was full of resentment towards Claire, then the company director.

Seeing that the couple came to Tomson to see the house, they wanted to seize the opportunity to satirize them.

When Charlie heard that Harold dared to spray on him and his wife, he immediately sneered: "What? People like you can come to Tomson for inspection, why can't we?"

Harold sneered and said, "I can come because our family can afford it. Can you afford to buy a house here?"

Charlie smiled: "How do you know that I can't afford it?"

Harold snorted: "How can you afford to have a ghost! Do you know how much this house is? The smallest one is 120 square meters, more than 80,000 square meters, and it costs 10 million. Ten million you hear?"

Charlie laughed: "I don't bother to buy the smallest house. If I want to buy it, I will also buy the largest."

"You're pooh!" Harold said coldly: "The biggest two hundred and forty flats can you afford?"

Wendy also laughed: "Yeah, Charlie, can you afford a two hundred and forty square meters house? Such a big house, even our family can't buy it. How can you?"

Charlie looked at her, smiled and asked: "Who told you that I want to buy a house of 240 square meters?"

Wendy snorted contemptuously: "What? Didn't you say you want to buy the biggest one? Can't install it now?"

Charlie laughed and said, "Wendy, you are so unpromising. Didn't you see that there is a large villa area on this table? The villa inside is the largest house."

"Bah!" Wendy said disdainfully: "Returning the villa, the smallest villa inside is tens of millions, and the expensive one is even hundreds of millions. You can't afford it for eight lifetimes with your rag life!"

Charlie smiled and said: "What a coincidence, I just have one set, and it's the biggest one!"

"Hahahaha!" Harold's family laughed forward and backwards, pointing to Charlie and said contemptuously: "You still buy the largest villa? My God, are you laughing at us too?"

Many customers who watched the house also heard Charlie's words, and laughed one by one: "It looks like a stinky rag, and he still buying a villa?"

"If he can afford this villa, then I can afford the entire Tomson product!"

"It's really bragging not to write drafts!"

Claire's face was also a little unsustainable, and she whispered in Charlie's ear: "Charlie! What are you talking nonsense? Aren't you ashamed of talking nonsense?"

Charlie smiled and said, "What's the shame to be honest?"

Harold smiled backwards and closed together, and said: "Have you heard, your own wife doesn't believe you, and the eyes of the people are sharp. People like you are not even fit to enter this sales hall!"

After speaking, he said viciously: "Wait, I will tell the sales lady to drive you out!"

Immediately afterwards, Harold immediately greeted a sales lady who came over and pointed to Charlie and said, "Beauty, what's the matter with you, why did you let such rubbish rag in? This kind of person said without embarrassment to buy your best villa."

With such people in the most expensive villa here, those of us who are really capable of buying a house don't want to take it!"

The sales lady glanced at Charlie, and she could also see that Charlie's clothes were ordinary, not what a rich man should have.

Not to mention buying a villa, even the client who buys the smallest three-bedroom apartment is more decent than him.

The surrounding people also started to booze, saying: "Hurry up and get this guy out, it affects our mood too much."

Chapter 176

The sales lady walked up to Charlie and said: "Gentleman, if you are not going to buy a house, please leave, and don't affect our other customers who are interested in the houses."

Claire sighed, pulled Charlie's sleeves, and said, "Let's go, let's go and take a look elsewhere."

Others also started to roar: "Poor ghosts go quickly, don't be embarrassed here."

Charlie didn't move, and said with a smile: "Do you know why you can't afford to live in a villa? Because you are all short-sighted people. With your eyesight, it is impossible for you to live in a villa in this life."

Harold sipped: "Bah! Charlie, you really have a face to say? Look at all of them, which one is not more rich than you?"

Charlie raised his eyebrows and asked with a smile: "Harold, you keep saying that I can't afford a villa, so if I really can afford it, what shall you do?"

Harold laughed a lot, pointed to the tallest high-rise building on the sand table, and said arrogantly: "If you can afford the villa inside, I, Harold, will jump off the top of this building!"

Many people around screamed: "Smelly pauper, if you can afford it, I will dance too!"

"That's it! If you want to jump, you can count me as well! I don't like this kind of stupid who likes to pretend!"

Claire never felt so embarrassed, and complained a bit to Charlie, and reprimanded: "Charlie! What do you have to do with them here? Do you have to be happy not to come to to this place?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "My wife, how do you know if your husband knows nothing?"

With that, Charlie took out the villa key and the villa's access card from his pocket, and said lightly: "Look, this is the key and information card of the a05 villa."

Wendy smiled and said: "Charlie, do you think you can make us believe you by just holding the key? You think we are too mentally retarded?"

Charlie threw the key and the information card to the sales lady, and said lightly: "Come on, tell them if this is true."

The sales lady recognized the key and information card that Charlie had taken out at a glance, and when she saw that they were exclusively for the Tomson Villa, she was shocked.

Could it be that this person is really the owner of the villa area? She just wanted to kick him out. If he is really the owner, if he gets angry, her job will definitely be gone.

Thinking of this, she took Charlie's information card in a panic, scanned the internal reader, and the reader immediately issued a computer voice: "Hi, distinguished owner of Building A05, Mr. Charlie, welcome to your home!"

The sales lady suddenly exclaimed: "Are you Mr. Charlie?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded, it seems that the White family has already transferred this villa to this name.

The sales lady immediately returned the card to Charlie with very respectful hands, and said in a panic: "Mr. Charlie, I'm so sorry, I didn't know you are the distinguished owner of Building A05. Please forgive me for what happened just now."

Everyone present could not help but be stunned to see this scene!

Charlie is really the owner here? Are you kidding me? Can this kind of person afford a Tomson first-class villa?

Harold's expression is extremely ugly, what the h*ll is going on! Charlie buys Tomson's first-class villa? He would rather believe that there are ghosts in the world than that Charlie has this strength!

But, what's the matter with this sales lady? She can never lie, right?

And she just scanned Charlie's card, and even the machine reminded Charlie to be the owner here what happened? !

Chapter 177

Seeing that the sales lady was nervous, fearing that she would lose her job because she offended Charlie, Charlie waved his hand lightly: "Little things, I won't hold grudges."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "By the way, you can tell these short-sighted guys about the a05 villa."

The sales lady hurriedly said to others: "Our Tomson villa area is divided into four types abcd, of which the best is the largest area of type a, which has three floors above ground and two floors underground. There is a private elevator inside, the total usable area is more than 1,000 square meters, and it is equipped with hundreds of square meters of front and rear courtyards. The price is more than 100 million. It is the most expensive villa of our Tomson and even the entire Aurous Hill!"

When these words came out, everyone's jaw dropped!

Charlie, owns a villa that sells for more than one billion, a three-bedroom house with a dozen or so, and who is dressed in ordinary clothes, can actually have such a super luxury house?

Harold's expression is extremely ugly, his sister and parents are going crazy with jealousy!

Wendy asked incredulously: "Charlie! How come you have a villa here?!"

Charlie smiled faintly and said, "Someone gave it to me, can't I have it?"

"Why are you!" Wendy is really angry. Her heart is higher than the sky for her life, and she has no chance to live in the luxurious villa here. Why can Charlie live here?

Charlie was too lazy to respond to her, but looked at her brother Harold, smiled and said, "Harold, didn't you want to jump off the building? When would you jump?"

Harold's face was pale, extremely ugly, and clenched his fists and said: "Charlie, you f*cking talk to me about these useless things, I still don't believe you can afford this villa! Not to mention that someone will give you the villa! Tell me, how did you come to this villa!"

Charlie shook his head and smiled, and said to the people around: "If you see it, it means you can't lose."

After speaking, Charlie said to Harold again: "Harold, with your ability, you are also worthy of buying a set of ordinary high-rises, so that people like us who live in villas can stand guard. You are not worthy of living in the villa, let alone know me. How did the villa come from, it's none of your business? All you need to know is that this is a place you can't afford to live in this whole life!"

"you"

Harold's expression was extremely ugly.

It was the first time for him to be so insulted by Charlie, but the most hateful thing was that he couldn't even talk back!

How to pay it back? He bought a 240-square-meter building for his family, and the pressure was still a little bit heavy. The family was hesitant here, but Charlie actually had the largest villa here. The gap between them was really too big!

It can be said that this time he was sturdy and satirized by Charlie! It really made him angry!

He gritted his teeth and said with a black face: "Charlie, you can stand it. You don't want us to say hello to your home in such a big villa. Is there still the Willson family in your eyes?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Didn't you always say that I am not from the Willson family? So, why do you want to say hello?"

Having said this, Charlie turned to Claire: "Wife, as we are here, let's go to our new villa to see?"

Claire blurted out: "What the h*ll is going on here?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I'll explain to you slowly later."

Just after speaking, he suddenly heard a familiar voice.

"Oh, eldest brother and sister-in-law, are you buying a house in Tomson? It's amazing!"

Chapter 178

It was Charlie's mother-in-law, Elaine!

Coming with Elaine is Charlie's father-in-law Jacob!

Charlie and Claire were a little surprised, why did they both come here?

Claire hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "Parents, why are you here?"

Elaine said: "Your uncle and aunt called us, saying that they want to see the Tomson house, and let us come over and help them come up with ideas."

When Elaine said this, she looked at Charlie, somewhat annoyed in her heart.

In fact, she didn't want to come over at all, because she had just got angry with her daughter yesterday and said she wanted to move out of the old house, but unexpectedly, she received a call from Noah's family today and they asked her and her husband to come and show them the house.

What house to see? Don't they just want to call them over to show them that they want to buy at Tomson?

Elaine was uncomfortable with anger, but because she didn't dare not give face to the Willson family boss, she had to rush over with her husband as a foil.

That's why she was upset with Charlie in every way. If she finds a talented son-in-law, she might be able to live in Tomson first!

At this time, she looked at her sister-in-law Horiyah with a flattering expression, and said with emotion: "Sister-in-law, you are really amazing! You bought a house in Tomson in a blink of an eye! I really envy you! I don't know how long our family can live in that old house. From such a luxurious house like Tomson! What you bought is 240 square meters? I see if our family can't save so much money in 50 years!"

Although she was very upset with the eldest family, Elaine also knew that she had to slap them, so she came up with three horses.

Harold's mother, Horiyah Qian's expression was extremely ugly, she glared at Elaine and said coldly: "Elaine, what do you mean by this? Do you look down on people?"

Horiyah Qian's heart is almost exploded!

She wanted to call Jacob and Elaine over and let them witness the purchase of a first-grade Tomson mansion with their own eyes, so that they had a sense of existence in front of them, and then satirized them again.

But she didn't expect that the son-in-law has the ability! he actually got a Tomson first-class mansion villa!

This is really maddening her, and she is also jealous of death.

Now that Elaine is here, she deliberately complimented her for buying a 240-square-meter building. Isn't this a mockery of her?

Your family has hundreds of millions of worth villa, and you still say you envy me? You also said that you can't live in such a luxurious house. Isn't this a curse?

Elaine didn't know what was going on, she slapped Horiyah Qian's flattery when she came, but Horiyah Qian said that she looked down on people, and she was so wrong in her heart. The Lady Willson licked her when she came, and she disliked her of course. Look down on her? Does look down on her if she kneel?

So Elaine hurriedly bites the bullet and continued flattering: "Oh, sister-in-law, I am compared with you, that is, the candle meets the sun, and it is far behind. How can I look down on you! You see how good your life is, you're going to live in the Tomson first-grade house. Look at me again. I still live in the small broken house. Hey, our little broken house is really broken and rotten. How does it compare with your Tomson first-grade house! So of course I Envy you!"

Horiyah Qian was even more irritated by what she tried to say something, she couldn't even speak her words.

Her husband, Noah Willson next to her, gritted his teeth and cursed: "Elaine, is it interesting for you to blame Horiyah here? Isn't it just a villa? What are you bullish for?"

After that, he looked at his brother Jacob and said coldly: "Jacob, am I still a brother in the eyes of you husband and wife? You have a villa and are calling ours big one."

Jacob was stunned: "Villa? What villa? Brother, are you going to buy a villa? so Rich!"

Chapter 179

When Noah Willson heard this, he suddenly thought that Jacob was deliberately running him with words, blowing his beard and staring angrily, and said: "Jacob is OK, why do you say such things? Don't you just want to live in Tomson first grade villa now? Isn't this just getting up with me?"

Jacob was stunned: "What? I live in Tomson's first-class villa? Big brother, don't you always use me to ridicule me?"

Elaine was also confused: "Brother, are you making a mistake? Is there any misunderstanding in this?"

Noah Willson pointed at Charlie, and said with a displeased expression: "Your son-in-law has made a reservation for first-class villa, let him talk about the specifics!"

Elaine and Jacob were both dumbfounded, they looked at Charlie in astonishment, and asked with unbelievable faces: "Charlie, what your uncle said is true? Did you really get a Tomson first-class villa?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Parents, there is indeed a villa, which is given to me by someone for helping him."

"Who gave it?" Elaine blurted out with a look of ecstasy in her eyes.

Charlie said: "I helped a friend solve some feng shui problems, and he gave me a villa."

Elaine was extremely excited and blurted out: "Take us to visit this villa! d*mn! Tomson's villa, I can't even dream of it!"

Claire pulled Charlie a hand at this time, and asked in a low voice, "Charlie, what is going on?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said in a low voice: "Someone really gave me a villa. If you don't believe it, let's go and see it now."

When Elaine looked at her eldest brother and sister-in-law again, she felt a sense of superiority in her heart!

OK!

If you buy a large apartment, just follow me and let me come to accompany you to see the house. Now it's alright. I'm going to live in the Tomson Villa area soon. I've been pressed by you for such a long time. Turned over to be Mastered!

So she deliberately smiled and said: "Oh, eldest brother and sister, Harold and Wendy, since you are all here, why don't we visit this villa together, what do you think?"

Noah wished to leave immediately, but his wife Horiyah still grabbed him, winked at him, and said to Elaine, "Okay, in that case, let's go and see!"

As she said, she lowered her voice and said in her husband's ear: "I will take some photos and videos later and show them to the Lady Willson. If the Lady Willson sees this villa, she will naturally ask them to come over. Is it not right?"

Noah Willson's eyes suddenly lit up!

It turns out that his wife has a working idea!

It's wonderful!

So Charlie took a group of people and walked into the villa area of Tomson.

As soon as they entered the villa area, everyone kept looking around. The environment in the villa area was several times better than the high-rise residences outside, and it was extremely refined.

"Charlie, where is your villa?" Wendy asked loudly on purpose.

Charlie took the key, walked past Wendy, smiled and walked to the villa in front: "This is the one, a05."

Under the eyes of everyone, Charlie didn't change his face, took the key to open the door of the villa, and gently pushed.

The door squeaked open to both sides, and the exquisite garden scene inside was immediately presented to everyone.

Click!

The door lock opened.

Wendy was stunned!

Harold and his parents were all dumbfounded!

Claire also held her breath, rubbed her eyes vigorously with her hand, and looked forward.

In the garden, there is a magnificent and spacious luxury villa in the middle of the garden with pavilions, flowers and trees.

"This is too luxurious, right?" Noah Willson was the first to recover and exclaimed in shock.

Harold's expression was very ugly, and he said angrily: "Who would give you such a good villa? I don't believe it!!"

"You can't help it if you don't believe it, but this villa is indeed given to me." Charlie was too lazy to explain.

Wendy glared at Charlie fiercely, "hum" with anger, and said sourly, "Charlie, are you worthy of such an expensive villa?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It has nothing to do with you."

The crowd was silent in the open space at the gate of the villa.

No one could think that the owner of the most expensive villa in Aurous Hill was actually Charlie! !

Chapter 180

Wendy and Noah were even more unacceptable of this reality, as if they were slapped, slapped in public, wishing to dig a hole in and bury themselves.

The facts are breaking down!

At this moment, an Old Master walked out of the villa.

The Old Master came directly to Charlie and asked respectfully: "Hello, are you Mr. Charlie Wade?"

Charlie nodded and said, "I am, who are you?"

The Old Master said: "Hello, Mr. Charlie, I am Mr. White's housekeeper, and I am responsible for taking care of this villa. You can call me Libo. I usually take care of the villa and maintain hygiene."

"Libo?" Wendy on the side stared at him dumbfounded, her whole brain short-circuited.

This Uncle Libo, isn't this her fiance Gerald's housekeeper? Why is he here?

Does this villa belong to the White family?

In that case, why give it to Charlie?

Wendy hurriedly asked: "Libo, what is going on? Is this villa owned by the White family?"

Libo said: "It used to be, but now it belongs to Mr. Charlie."

With that, Libo looked at Charlie again and asked, "Mr. Charlie, the decoration in the villa has not been completed yet. When do you plan to move in? I will let the workers do it faster and make preparations in advance."

Charlie said faintly: "We will not move for the time being. You will continue to look after the villa. I will call you before I move."

"Yes! Mr. Charlie!"

After Libo finished speaking, he bowed to Charlie again, then let him aside, waiting for him to enter.

Wendy's eyes almost popped out, and the whole group of Willson family relatives was also surprised.

"The housekeeper of the White family?" Wendy said dumbfounded: "Which White family is Gerald's family?"

Charlie looked at her, smiled slightly, and said, "Yes, it's your fiance Gerald's house. His father gave me this house."

"What?!" Wendy's brain exploded!

This villa belongs to her fiancé's family?

In other words, the original villa could have been hers in the future?

But why would it be given to Charlie!

This is my villa!

Wendy's parents were also very puzzled and angry at the same time.

The White family is the daughter's future husband's family. The White family's villa is naturally for their daughter. Why is it given to Charlie? This is not logical!

Horiyah Qian blurted out and asked Wendy: "Wendy, what's the matter with this? Do you know the White family villa?"

Wendy shook her head repeatedly: "I don't know, I have never heard Gerald talk about it."

Horiyah Qian immediately shouted, "Quickly call Gerald and ask! Ask clearly what's going on!"

"Yes, I must!"

Wendy immediately took out the phone and called Gerald.

As soon as the call connected, she asked Gerald: "Gerald, does your family have a villa in Tomson?"

Gerald said: "There is a set, what's wrong?"

Wendy said with some dissatisfaction: "Why haven't you heard about it! Is it the wedding room for the two of us?"

"No." Gerald said: "My uncle bought that villa for the elderly. He prefers the environment of Tomson, so how could he be willing to use it for us."

After speaking, Gerald asked again: "How do you know about this?"

Wendy's aggrieved tears flowed out: "Do you know, your uncle gave away this villa!"

"Gave it away?" Gerald blurted out, "Who gave it away?"

Wendy broke down and cried and said: "Gave it to Charlie! It's my Rubbish brother-in-law Charlie!"

Chapter 181

Gerald was also stunned.

Tomson's villa is the most valuable property in the hands of the entire White family.

This house is owned by Solmon, the current owner of the White family and the uncle of Gerald.

Solmon, Fred White's father, is currently the head of the White family, while Gerald's father is only the second in command.

This villa, let alone Gerald, even Gerald's dad is greedy, but there is no way, their family simply can't afford such an expensive villa.

Hearing that the uncle even gave this villa to Charlie, Gerald was also extremely shocked and uncomfortable, and immediately said to Wendy: "Wait a moment, I will ask my uncle."

Wendy hung up the phone, gritted her teeth and looked at Charlie, and questioned: "Charlie, what can you do to trick this villa from Uncle?"

Charlie said lightly: "Mr. Solmon chased me to give away this villa to me."

"You nonsense!" Wendy blurted out suddenly, "You have nothing to do with the White family. How could Uncle White give you such an expensive house for no reason! You must have used some shameful means!"

At this time, Gerald called Wendy and said, "Wendy, my uncle seemed to be busy, so he just hung up my phone after saying a word."

Charlie sneered, and directly took out the phone to turn on the speakerphone and dialed Solmon's number.

With a beep, the phone was connected instantly.

Wendy was stunned on the spot.

"Mr. Wade!" Solmon's voice was full of flattery: "Mr. Wade should have visited the villa at Tomson? I wonder if Mr. Wade is satisfied?"

Charlie said directly: "I saw the villa, and it's not bad overall, It is interesting."

Solmon hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, you like it!"

Charlie said calmly: "I just called to tell you that I'm quite satisfied with the villa."

"If you have any needs, please tell me at any time, and I will try my best to solve it! Try to make Mr. Wade satisfied!"

The crowd around was silent and in shock.

Unexpectedly, this villa was actually given to Charlie by Solmon. Why?

Unexpectedly, Solmon, who had to be respectful even after meeting his fiancé, would kneel and lick Charlie's rubbish like a dog! This made Wendy feel hot on her face, and she couldn't help her face.

She finally couldn't help but asked aloud to Charlie's cell phone: "Uncle White, I am Gerald's fiancée Wendy. You will never give the villa to Charlie for no reason. What is the reason?"

"Huh, what are you? You deserve to ask about my personal affairs?"

Solmon said coldly.

Wendy's face was hot.

Charlie said lightly: "Solmon, you should explain to them, otherwise, they will think I lied to you."

"Okay!" Solmon said immediately: "Since Mr. Charlie has said it, let me explain to the public that I owe Mr. Charlie a great favor, so I gifted this villa. I would like to thank the clowns if they do Dare to doubt Mr. Charlie, I will definitely not let it go!"

Wendy was aggrieved for a while. How could she have been scolded so severely, her face flushed, and she almost cried aggrieved.

Seeing that Wendy was so aggrieved and crying, Noah Willson's face couldn't get through, and he coughed to please and said: "Ms. White, Wendy is still a child. She is also curious and has no other meaning."

Solmon ignored him and said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, do you need me to explain anything?"

"That's it." Charlie nodded.

"Then I won't bother Mr. Charlie, please call me whenever you have to."

Charlie let out a "um" and hung up the phone.

Chapter 182

"Charlie, is this really the villa the White family gave you?" Jacob reacted and opened his mouth in surprise.

"Dad, yes." Charlie smiled.

"This you" Jacob stammered, feeling like he was dreaming.

Claire hurriedly supported him, "Dad, go sit over there and take some rest. Now that Mr. White explained the situation, everyone knows about the villa. Charlie got it right."

Claire emphasized the words "just gain", specifically speaking to a group of relatives in the Willson family.

Horiyah clutched her heart in disbelief, and muttered: "This White family is really a big deal. If they want to give a mansion of hundreds of millions, why not give it to us?"

Not only she couldn't figure it out, others also found it incredible, and even Harold was jealous.

They can't afford such a mansion for ten lifetimes!

But why did the pie that fell from the sky hit Charlie, a wasteful body!

What kind of sh!t luck is this!

Noah's face was pale, it didn't matter that he was ignored by Solomon, but he felt that this villa should be his daughter's property in the future, and it was in Charlie's hands in a blink of an eye, making him totally unacceptable!

He looked at his crying daughter and then at Charlie, feeling even more sullen in his heart.

He hadn't looked down on Jacob for a long time, but now he was crushed by a door-in-law, what a shame!

Noah said sternly: "Charlie, tell everyone, what kind of favor does Mr. White owe you? You are not going to help Mr. White under the banner of the Willson family?"

Charlie said lightly: "This is my personal business, so please tell me!"

He turned around and said to Libo: "It's getting late, let's see off the guests."

Noah Willson claims to be an "elder", but in his eyes, he's not even a bullsh*t!

Uncle Libo nodded respectfully and said to the crowd: "I'm sorry, I will send everyone to the door!"

Noah touched a gray nose, "hum" with anger, and walked out with a calm face.

Wendy stared at Charlie bitterly and resentfully, and then walked out.

The family almost broke down in their hearts.

How can they not be so high, how they used to look at the live-in son-in-law, now unexpectedly he hit the big luck!

At this time, Libo closed the door and went back to the guest room without disturbing Charlie's family.

Harold's family is gone, Claire then asked: "Charlie, now you should tell us the truth, White always owes you something."

Charlie hesitated for a while, still not thinking about how to explain it.

A few days ago, the White family pulled Jinghai into the game and wanted to unify the Aurous Hill metaphysics, but Jinghai was struck to death by his own "Thunder Order". The White family was afraid that he would condemn them as well, so the host sent him the gift of villa to admit defeat. They were also afraid that Charlie would be angry and would kill them.

After thinking about it, Charlie said, "I helped White's family see Feng Shui, so they gave me this villa."

"Huh?" Claire and her parents were shocked.

"Charlie, are you helping people with Feng Shui?" Claire's eyes widened.

Charlie nodded: "Yes."

Claire asked puzzledly: "Where did you learn Feng Shui?"

Charlie smiled and said, "On TV, there are many Feng Shui programs on TV."

Claire panicked and blurted out: "You are crazy! Watching TV and dare to show people Feng Shui, and dare to accept such an expensive villa?!"

Chapter 183

Seeing Claire panicked, Charlie smiled and said with relief: "My wife, don't worry about the villa, the king will never come to trouble."

Jacob kept shaking his head: "No, last time you helped the Qin family with Feng Shui and spent hundreds of millions to procure those shells, and now the White family is looking for you again. These two families are both reputable families in Aurous Hill City. Just your little knowledge of Feng Shui. Sooner or later we have to wear clothes! In case they are held accountable, our family will have to follow suit!"

As he said, Jacob said hurriedly: "You should return the villa to the White family soon, otherwise, if someone tries to settle after the fall, we are all over!"

At this moment, Charlie's mother-in-law Elaine blurted out: "What's the return? This big villa was given to Charlie by Mr. White, and it was not stolen by Charlie! Why pay it back? In the future, this is our Home, our villa!"

Elaine had never thought in her life that she would have the opportunity to live in such a luxurious villa. Now that the villa has been acquired, Jacob said that he would go back. Isn't this like killing her?

Claire shouted helplessly: "Mom! We can't collect this kind of stuff, it will be very troublesome in the future!"

"Trouble you a!" Elaine snorted disdainfully, then looked at Charlie and said flatly: "Oh, Charlie, I didn't expect you to have such a great ability to earn a big villa. ."

Elaine smiled all over her face and said excitedly: "You are really a good son-in-law. If you go to show others Feng Shui early, wouldn't our family be rich already!"

Jacob really couldn't stand it, and said, "Wife, this is not about the villa. Even if Charlie shows them Feng Shui, he can accept a villa like this? If the White family regrets it in the future, won't they hate us?"

Elaine jumped three feet high and pointed to Jacob's nose and cursed: "Don't tell me those who have nothing, I have suffered from poverty all my life with you, and now it's hard to live in a big villa, don't you want it? I tell You, if you dare to let your son-in-law return back this villa, I will divorce you!"

"You, you, you are a mouse giving the cat three losses, you don't want to make money!"

Jacob was so angry that he couldn't speak, and sat down on the sofa.

Charlie smiled and said, "Dad, don't worry, this villa will not be taken away."

"Good son-in-law, you are really capable."

Elaine looked around, touching antiques for a while, painting and calligraphy for a while, and was overjoyed: "Let him show off Noah Willson. Now I live in a big villa. They can only buy a flat outside. It's really 30 years. Thirty years in that dilapidated house"

Claire couldn't stand it anymore, so she pulled Charlie to the side and whispered: "You tell me the truth, what is going on?"

Charlie said: "My wife. Don't worry, it's definitely a legitimate income. But now I am inconvenient to say that I will tell you if I have a chance in the future."

"Since you said that there is a reason, then I believe you." Claire thought for a while and said, "But look at Feng Shui, you still don't do it again, lest my dad and I be worried about it."

Charlie took the opportunity to take her hand and said, "Don't worry, I won't do things that worry you. Dad has been urging to have children. What should you do if I have an accident?"

"Don't give me poor mouth."

Claire blushed, and quickly broke free.

At this moment, Elaine happily came down the stairs and shouted while walking.

"When I return from a trip next week, I will call all the people I know and come to see the big villa I bought!"

Claire said, "Mom, the villa was given to Charlie."

"He is our son-in-law, and the villa that is his, is also ours."

Chapter 184

Elaine triumphantly shook the bracelet in her hand: "I have already sent a WeChat Moments, look at this bracelet, there is also the big villa, others will like me!"

Charlie looked at Elaine's bracelet. Qin Gang gave it to him and he intended to give it to his wife. He didn't want to make it cheap to his mother-in-law.

The royal mansion.

Gerald stood in the hall and reported what he had learned on the phone to his father.

After speaking, he hesitated for a while, then raised his head and said: "Dad, isn't the uncle confused? Such an expensive villa, if I haven't lived in a day, I will give it to Charlie that stupid bird! You have to persuade him!"

The Gerald's father was sitting on the grandmaster's chair, his face solemn.

Gerald returned to report, saying that his uncle had given the villa to Charlie.

He didn't believe it, so he went to ask his elder brother Solmon for verification, but he didn't expect this to be true!

Moreover, Solmon also downplayed the reason for giving away the villa, only owing to Charlie a favor.

What kind of favor, let the extremely stingy Solmon give away such an expensive mansion?

The king said with a cold face: "I have already called your uncle. He seems to have a very determined attitude. He wants to return the villa, which is unlikely."

Gerald gritted his teeth and said, "Dad, do you think Charlie has any problems? We have been investigating for so long, but we can't find any real news about him, which is strange."

The prince pondered for a while, and then said slowly: "Your uncle has been shrewd throughout his life, and he will never indulge Charlie for anything, so no matter what problem Charlie has, in short, this person, you must not provoke in the near future. I will check with your uncle in the evening to see what background this person has."

"Yes."

At the same time, Noah Willson and his family are suing the Old Mrs. Willson.

Wendy snorted and cried with tears: "Grandma, Charlie, I don't know what means he used to deceive the White family's villa in Tomson. It is a villa worth more than 100 million! Moreover, he got the villa, and didn't take the initiative to honor you, and drove our family out of the villa. Isn't this too much?"

Old Mrs. Willson sat on the main seat, her expression was majestic, and her expression was also very dissatisfied with a cold snort: "This kid Charlie really doesn't understand the rules!"

"Yeah, Mom! he is so shameless!" Noah said with a calm face, "He, as the son-in-law of the Willson family, naturally should know that any good things in the Willson family must be enjoyed by you first. The location of your villa is remote and the decoration is old. It should have been replaced a long time ago. If he really has you in his heart, he must first give you the Tomson first-class villa! Let you enjoy it first!"

As soon as these words were spoken, Mrs. Willson's eyes suddenly lit up!

Willson's villa has been her living for more than ten years. Although it looks impressive, it is already an old property. Coupled with the relatively poor location, it can sell for 10 to 20 million.

Tomson's villa is a hundred times better than here. The Lady Willson herself is very greedy, but she can't afford it because she has no money.

But when she heard that Charlie had the largest villa of Tomson First-Class, and Noah's fanfare, she also felt that this villa should really be enjoyed by her, the head of the family!

Chapter 185

When the Old Mrs. Willson was dreaming of living in the Tomson Villa, Noah Willson rubbed her hands and said with a long sigh: "Mom, I plan to send someone to Eastcliff in the near future, and invite Elsa's family to come as a guest. Then tell them cryptically, hoping that they will engage Elsa to Harold, what do you think?"

"Dong's family" Mrs. Willson sighed and said, "Last time Harold left Elsa and ran away by himself, I guess Elsa has a big opinion of him now!"

Noah said: "I think this little thing is harmless. This family and that family are themselves a complement to each other. What everyone values is the future development prospects. Although our Willson family is not comparable to the Dong family, we have got the Emgrand Group. The cooperation between the two parties is still promising in the future. Maybe the Dong family will agree to this marriage.

Old Mrs. Willson thought for a while, nodded and said: "In this case, you try to invite them to see if the Dong family are interested in coming to Aurous Hill as a guest."

"Okay!" Noah hurriedly said again: "Mom, the Dong family is a big family. If we don't have a decent villa and we lose face in front of the Dong family, it won't work."

After speaking, he said again: "If you can get the Tomson first-class villa from Charlie's hands, then the Dong family will be a guest. Seeing the Tomson first-class villa, you will also take a high look at our Willson family. You said What?"

Old Mrs. Willson nodded.

People rely on clothing, exuberance of gold, and living standards in a villa of more than 100 million worth. It will naturally greatly improve the family's face.

In addition, she was coveting Charlie's first-class Tomson villa in her heart. This was just a chance to start.

So she said majestically: "Bring your brother's family to the old house tomorrow! I will tell them personally!"

Brother Harold glanced at each other, and was delighted.

Now Jacob's family relies on the company for food, and Jacob's family is under the family. As long as the Lady Willson speaks, how can Jacob's family stand?

The Lady Willson asked them to surrender the villa, dare they say a word?

With the Lady Willson's preference for her own home, as long as this villa comes from Charlie's hands, it will be her own in the future!

Early the next morning, Jacob led his daughter and son-in-law and hurried to the old house of the Willson family.

Claire opened the car door and asked, "Dad, grandma specifically called you to go there. Didn't she say anything important?"

"I'll talk about it if I go." Jacob said: "And your uncle Noah will also come along."

Charlie's brows frowned, and seeing the battle, it seemed that there was nothing good.

Claire said angrily: "What else can happen, I guess it must be the villa."

"About the villa, Charlie will explain it to your grandma in a while."

Jacob didn't think too much, got into the car and urged Charlie to drive.

At 9:30, the car drove to the door of Willson's old house.

The family walked into the hall, Charlie glanced around, frowning slightly.

He saw the Old Mrs. Willson sitting in the middle chair, with Noah standing next to her, and Harold brother and sister standing on the other side.

In addition to them, there are several relatives of the elders of the Willson family sitting on both sides of the main room, and several younger generations of the Willson family standing on both sides, staring at them.

Isn't it just the trivial matter of traveling that has a three-counseling framework?

Jacob is as his name suggests, he is very honest at ordinary times, and he can't beat a bullsh*t with three sticks.

Chapter 186

Now when he saw this pose, he shrank half of his head, called "Mom" tremblingly, and then called "Big Brother" with a smile.

Noah Willson didn't seem to hear him and ignored him.

Old Mrs. Willson nodded lightly.

Jacob asked tentatively, "Mom, you called me today?"

"Let me ask you, what's the matter with Tomson's villa?" Old Mrs. Willson asked coldly.

Jacob said quickly: "That villa was given to Charlie by President White. Charlie helped him see Feng Shui before."

"Telling the Feng Shui?" Harold sneered, and said in a weird manner: "If you look at Feng Shui, you can see a luxurious mansion. All of us in the Willson family should stop working, and we will all deceive to cheat money!"

There was a low laughter in the hall.

Listening to the ridicule of the relatives, Jacob was embarrassed and could only laugh.

On the contrary, Noah laughed twice, and made a rounding up: "Mom, no matter what Charlie is, President White has also explained it. It is indeed a gift for him. This matter is also considered to be clear, young brother There is no need to explain."

Jacob gave his eldest brother a grateful look, somewhat flattered.

The eldest brother usually dismissed himself at all, but it was unprecedented to help him speak today!

Noah smiled slightly and turned to Mrs. Willson and said, "Mom, you don't need to ask how the villa came. Anyway, Mr. White himself said that it was given to Charlie, so we have nothing to worry about."

"Yeah." Mrs. Willson nodded and said to Jacob, "Jac, your eldest brother wants to marry hi boy into Dong family it's Harold marrying Elsa from the Dong family. What do you think of this matter?"

"This is a good thing." Jacob said with a smile: "The Dong family is a well-known family in the capital. If we can get married with the Dong family, it will also help our Willson family."

"A good thing is a good thing," Mrs. Willson sighed with a long sigh, "But, our family, compared with Dong's family, that's really a far cry. Even if your eldest brother has this heart, he doesn't have the face to talk to Dong's family. ."

Jacob nodded seriously and said the truth: "Mom, to tell the truth, I also think Elsa should not look towards this favorably."

Harold's expression was extremely ugly, and he blurted out, "Uncle, what do you mean by this?"

Only then did Jacob realize that he had said something wrong, and hurriedly changed his words: "Oh, I didn't mean that. I meant to say that compared with the Dong family, our Willson family is indeed far behind."

Old Mrs. Willson said indifferently: "People depend on clothes, and Buddha depends on gold. If we live in the best villa in Aurous Hill, after the Dong family comes, we can leave a good impression!"

Jacob asked in surprise: "Mom, are you going to change houses?"

Old Mrs. Willson said lightly: "I want to change to a better one, but unfortunately I don't have that much money."

When Jacob heard this, he hurriedly said: "If Mom needs money, I still have a million."

Old Mrs. Willson coldly snorted: "A villa can be tens of millions or hundreds of millions at every turn. Is a million enough?"

With that, she deliberately changed her conversation and said, "Jac, doesn't your family have a ready-made villa in Tomson?"

"Yes." Jacob didn't know, so he said blankly: "What's wrong?"

"What's the matter?" The Old Mrs. Willson looked upset, and said, "I am your mother. You can bear to see me living in this old house for so many years? Now that you have a Tomson first-class villa, shouldn't you bring it here? Honor and honor me as a mother, let me live in that villa first?"

Chapter 187

Jacob was taken aback for a moment, and hurriedly said, "Mom, the villa was given to Charlie by the White family, not for me."

The Old Mrs. Willson became impatient, and she was too lazy to conceal it, and said directly: "Charlie is the son-in-law of the Willson family, and the villa the White family gave him must also belong to the Willson family! As the head of the Willson family, don't I have the right yet? Do you live in Willson's villa?"

Charlie next to him sneered slightly. He didn't say a word just now, just knowing that there must be nothing good about this family gathering today.

It turned out that the Lady Willson just wanted his villa.

Jacob understood now, sweating even more anxiously, stammering speechless, looking back at Charlie, eyes full of embarrassment.

Noah Willson said triumphantly: "Jac, you are Charlie's father-in-law. If he dares not listen to what you say, isn't he too arrogant at home? What status do you have?"

"That's right!" Mrs. Willson nodded in satisfaction, her eyes full of greed, she couldn't help feeling the excitement deep in her heart when she thought of living in the big villa of Tomson community.

Claire couldn't help it, and said coldly: "Grandma, the villa is not owned by our Willson family. If you want to take the villa, you have to ask Charlie's opinion. If Charlie is unwilling to give it, no one is qualified to ask for it!"

Old Mrs. Willson frowned and looked at Claire, feeling very unhappy in her heart.

"Talking!"

The Old Mrs. Willson looked at Charlie coldly, and said unceremoniously: "This villa was given by the White family. You are just a live-in son-in-law, and you are not qualified to enjoy it. Tomorrow you go to the company's finance department to receive one hundred thousand, your reward for dedicating the villa!"

The Lady Willson's command-like tone gave no room for discussion.

Noah said: "Charlie, 100,000 is a lot, you are a waste of money, I guess you have never seen so much money."

Charlie slowly raised his head and sneered from his nostrils: "For one hundred thousand, you want to forcefully buy a villa worth more than 130 million in Tomson? Old Mrs. Willson, you are too shameless!"

His voice rang loudly and clearly reached the ears of everyone present.

The crowd was shocked, and the entire hall was suddenly silent.

All eyes were fixed on Charlie.

Surprised

Shock

Incredible

Claire was also shocked.

She didn't expect Charlie to be so tough!

Old Mrs. Willson turned blue with anger, she patted the table again, and shouted sharply: "b*stard! Even you dared to stand up! Come here, get this Rubbish Charlie out!!"

"No respect! It is extremely arrogant!" Harold coldly scolded: "Grandma, I think he should respect the family law! He is a live-in son-in-law, dare to be arrogant like this, it is the opposite!"

Jacob looked at Charlie, but did not dare to speak at all.

"Respect and humble?" Charlie sneered from his nostrils, and said coldly: "The distinction between respect and inferiority is to treat people who are worthy of respect! Among you present, except for my father-in-law Jacob, who is worthy of my respect?"

This group of people is extremely greedy, he has long wanted to endure it!

Old Mrs. Willson, as Jacob's mother, screamed at her second son, without paying attention!

Noah Willson, as the eldest brother of Jacob, has never looked down upon him, not only that, but also wants to take everything from his brother.

Chapter 188

As for him, the "live-in son-in-law" of the Willson family, this group of people has never seen it directly!

Even Charlie didn't pay attention to him at all!

It was only Jacob who cared about his family and couldn't bear to give up!

And Claire has always been bullied, and the identity of the cooperators with the Emgrand Group has always been missed by everyone in the Willson family!

The entire Willson family was firmly crushed on their heads!

Any bullying!

Charlie looked at his wife and put it down for the time being, but he didn't expect this group of people to be so shameless that they wanted to take their villa!

"Charlie, how dare you talk to grandma like this!" Harold shouted angrily, "I have to teach you today!"

"Only you?" Charlie sneered and said contemptuously: "Harold, to me Charlie, you are just a poor worm, humble like an ant!"

"Presumptuous." The Old Mrs. Willson stood up suddenly and sternly shouted: "Charlie, you kneel down and apologize, and then give up the villa, I will forgive you this time! Otherwise, I will let Claire and you now divorce. I will drive you out of Willson's house and leave you on the streets. You can't survive!"

Claire, who kept her head down, raised her head abruptly, stood in front of Charlie, and said, "I don't agree! Are you my grandmother? Or are you the Patriarch of the Willson family?! You oppress me so much. Dad, bullying Charlie, do you still treat my family as your own family!"

"I will never divorce Charlie!"

"You" the Old Mrs. Willson almost turned her back in anger, pointed her finger at Claire's nose, and shouted at Jacob sharply: "Look at your good daughter, who turned her elbow out! Let her kneel down together!"

Jacob slowly raised his head, staring directly at the Old Mrs. Willson.

After changing his previous cringe, Jacob's expression was also very dissatisfied.

Noah froze for a moment. His second brother is usually very useless and is led by a strict wife at home. He didn't dare to talk back in front of Mrs. Willson, but now he dares to look directly at Mrs. Willson with contempt?

He shouted sharply: "Second brother, don't you hurry up to tell your daughter-in-law to kneel down and let mother calm down?!"

And Jacob, who is usually the timidest, turned blue at this time, and said, "Brother, someone gave Charlie the villa. What he wants to do with it is his business. Who my daughter married? You can't control things! This villa is worth more than one billion, almost more than the assets of the entire Willson family. Why do you want to occupy it?"

"You shameless son!!" Old Mrs. Willson was trembling with anger, grabbed the teacup on the mahogany table and threw it at Jacob.

Jacob didn't dodge or hide, and was hit by a "bang" on his head with a teacup, leaving a big bruise.

The tea dripped down his face, and the tea dregs splashed all over his body.

He remained motionless.

"Dad!" Claire yelled heartbreakingly, her eyes suddenly red.

She can be humiliated, but she cannot tolerate others to humiliate her father!

Jacob let the tea flow on his face, raised his head coldly, and said, "Mom, if there is nothing else, we will leave now."

After speaking, he said "Let's go" to Charlie and Claire next to him, then turned around and walked outside the door without looking back.

Claire wiped away tears, glanced bitterly at the people in the hall, and turned away without hesitation.

Charlie didn't even look at everyone, and turned around to leave.

Noah Willson was so mad, he was about to run away!

Chapter 189

Noah Willson discussed with Mrs. Willson last night and carefully planned all this.

Today, he also specially invited the respected members of the Willson family, and put on a three-council trial.

Half of it was a temptation and half a threat. He wanted Jacob to voluntarily hand over the villa.

If he doesn't take the initiative to hand in, force him to do it!

According to his thoughts, Jacob was usually the most timid, and his mother would shiver all over his body when she uttered a rebuke. When the time came, he would definitely offer the villa's hands honestly.

As for Claire, he didn't care at all. What right does a married woman have?

What's more, still married to a Rubbish!

As for the waste Charlie, let alone!

The live-in son-in-law has no status in the Willson family, and he doesn't even have the qualifications to speak!

If asked to let him hand over the villa, he must hand it over honestly!

However, Noah did not expect that Jacob was so anxious that he even dared to talk back to the Lady Willson!

Claire, a granddaughter, didn't even listen to the Lady Willson!

Even the Rubbish Charlie dared to point to the Lady Willson's nose and call her shameless!

"Your family is really the opposite!"

Noah Willson gritted his teeth and turned around and said, "Mom, you can't let them go like this! If you let it go today, in the future, our Willson family will not be riding on their heads? What majesty will you have in the Willson family in the future? !"

Mrs. Willson's face is extremely ugly!

She has a strong desire to control their life!

After the father's death, she kept the entire Willson family in her own hands and did not allow anyone to challenge her authority.

However, she did not expect that today she would suffer the disobedience of Claire's family of three, which made her resent!

She roared hysterically: "The Willson family is unfortunately out of this family! You are all from my Willson family! As long as I don't die for a day, you have to listen to me!"

Having said that, the Old Mrs. Willson shouted sharply: "Close the door, family law will take care of you!"

She has absolute authority in the Willson family, and Jacob, who is usually the most submissive to her, dares to disobey her today!

Among them were granddaughter and daughter-in-law, who didn't even look at her!

I don't know how Jacob taught his children to be so unfilial!

If not severely punished today, what is the majesty of the head of the family?

Besides, if they were to leave like this today, how could the Tomson first-class villa be taken over!

She lived half of her life and never expected to live in such a villa. Now this villa is in the hands of her son's family, and she has to grab anything and enjoy it!

Therefore, in any case, they must be asked to surrender the villa!

Even if they want to leave the Willson family, they must leave the villa!

As a result, a group of bodyguards and subordinates immediately surrounded the three people.

Charlie stood in the courtyard of the old mansion, with a vigorous aura. He looked at the bodyguards coldly and shouted angrily: "Who dares to take a step forward, don't blame me for being impolite!"

"You are a Rubbish thing, dare to show off here!"

One of the bodyguards shouted angrily and hit Charlie with a stick.

Charlie's eyes were cold, he directly grabbed the eyebrow stick in his hand and hit the opponent's leg easily.

The bodyguard felt a strong attack from the bend of his leg, and he knelt in front of Charlie uncontrollably, his leg was broken!

Charlie didn't even look at him, and with a harder hand, he broke the eyebrow stick into two with a "pop".

"Dang!"

Charlie directly threw the broken stick to the ground.

Chapter 190

The people in the yard were shocked.

This eyebrow stick is made of the hardest yellow elmwood, which is extremely hard. Even two sturdy men can hardly break with all their strength.

But in Charlie's hands, it turned out to be like crispy noodles, so weak!

After practicing the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, Charlie's strength has become stronger and stronger, and these bodyguards are simply not opponents!

Seeing Charlie's move, Jacob let out a sigh of relief.

He didn't expect that his son-in-law should be so capable! It seems that today he and his daughter can leave the Willson family safely!

The bodyguards in the old house of the Willson family were all arranged by Noah Willson. They were all his confidants. At this moment, seeing that he was very strong, everyone was a little flustered.

Noah Willson gritted his teeth and said: "Charlie, I didn't expect you to have learned some three-legged cat kung fu, but I see you alone, how to deal with so many hands! Give it to me together!"

"Yes! Let's go together and kill him!" Harold also gritted his teeth, showing his face.

He had suffered a loss in Charlie's hands long ago, so he planned to take revenge today!

A group of bodyguards got the order and immediately rushed towards Charlie.

Charlie ignored them, and when several bodyguards rushed over, he suddenly volleyed with a roundabout kick and kicked the two bodyguards out.

Immediately afterwards, he "brushed" a few punches, and instantly knocked down the bodyguard who rushed in front!

Claire, who was standing behind him, was stunned. She had no idea that Charlie, who gets along with her day and night, would be so good.

Seeing his daughter's shocked expression, Jacob quickly explained: "Claire, when you usually go to work, Charlie is at home following the TV to practice martial arts."

"He still practices martial arts?"

Claire was even more incredible.

Jacob said: "He knows a lot! Qin Gang asked him to do things last time!"

With that said, Jacob felt a little guilty when he saw Charlie fought against several bodyguards.

The Willson family had always underestimated Charlie, and let him stay at home to buy vegetables and cook, but Charlie was also a man, and he also had his own dignity.

Which man is willing to wash and cook at home all his life?

It seems that the family is ashamed of Charlie!

At this moment, Charlie defeated several bodyguards in succession, without fear.

There is also a mess in the courtyard!

Wendy and the Lady Willson ran into the house long ago to take shelter, and all men left in the courtyard.

Harold next to him looked extremely annoyed. He didn't expect Charlie to be so good. Seeing Charlie gradually gain the upper hand, Harold gritted his teeth, bent over and picked up an axe, walked quietly over, while Charlie was kicking one of the bodyguards. When he saw the bodyguard, he slammed on head.

"Charlie, be careful!"

Claire screamed when she saw the sharp light of the ax.

"d*mn, Rubbish the silk, I hack you to death!"

Harold's new hatred and old hatred rushed into his heart together and slashed fiercely.

Jacob was so frightened that his legs became weak and he almost collapsed to the ground.

They want Charlie's life!

Axe flashes!

When it was said that it was too late, Charlie suddenly raised his hand, and his two fingers accurately clamped the axe blade, turning his head coldly to look at Harold.

Harold was shocked, trying hard to get the axe back.

But Charlie's two fingers are like a vise, even if he uses the strength of sh!t, the steel axe pinched between the fingers will not move.

Harold sweated coldly on his forehead and roared, "Rubbish, let me go."

Charlie stared at him and sneered: "Harold, you stupid, you can't cut anyone, I think you are a waste!"

Chapter 191

"You watch Harold's murder like this?!"

Seeing Harold wielding an axe to chop Charlie, Jacob recovered and roared angrily.

However, the Old Mrs. Willson sitting on the high hall and Noah Willson standing on the steps were not moved at all!

He didn't even blink his eyelids!

The other relatives of the Willson family also said nothing! As if they had nothing to do with them!

And the Lady Willson, only wants the villa at this time!

Others, of course, eyeing it too.

Sometimes, the older the person, the more greedy!

In ancient times, the older the emperor, the more faint, the more arrogant and extravagant, the older and the bigger he was to build palaces and tombs for himself.

And the older Mrs. Willson is, the older she is, the more she hopes she can live better and enjoy it!

The Lady Willson wanted to live in a better place, die in a better place, and be buried in a better place.

That indicates that in the next life she will have endless glory and wealth!

Therefore, this is why the old people often want to prepare a thick coffin and a gorgeous grave for themselves.

Therefore, for Mrs. Willson, she must grab this $130 million villa!

Even if Harold really killed Charlie, as long as he can get the villa, it doesn't matter!

Jacob and Claire raised their heads to look at these people, and their hearts were completely cold.

This is the so-called "blood" relative!

For money, in order to rob the property, they did not hesitate to set up a situation to take it, and even wanted to kill his family!

The eldest brother Noah said unhurriedly, "Second brother, Harold is still a child. He is playing around, why should you take it seriously? Besides, even if he really cut Charlie down, he is not from the Willson family. Right!"

In his opinion, anyway, Charlie is a live-in son-in-law who has no power and no influence, even if Harold chopped him out of his brain, he would lose more money.

That would happen to get both people and money.

That villa is worth 130 million!

And now housing prices are still soaring!

If they grab it, let the Lady Willson live in first, and when the Lady Willson dies, the villa is estimated to be worth at least 200 million!

Two hundred million! Will they all be their own by then?

With so much money, who can resist this temptation?

"I don't have a big brother like you!!"

Jacob yelled angrily, picked up a mop, and hit Harold fiercely.

Noah Willson frowned, fearing that his son would be beaten, and immediately rushed to stop him.

"It's really against you, don't you want to face?"

Before he finished speaking, Jacob hit him with a stick. Fortunately, Noah dodged fast and only hit a stick on his shoulder, grinning in pain.

Seeing that the father, who is usually honest and easy to deal with, was also so angry, Claire hated the ruthlessness of the Willson family and worried about Charlie's safety.

At this moment, Charlie held the axe blade, looked at Harold, with a hint of ridicule on his face, and whispered: "Harold, I tell you the truth, in fact, in my eyes, you are a waste of money. Not on spot!"

"Charlie, f*ck your mother!"

An anger rushed to Harold's forehead, "You are a waste of money, how dare you speak to me like this"

Before he finished speaking, Charlie grabbed his wrist directly and broke it back.

Hearing the crisp sound of "pop", Harold burst out a heart-piercing scream!

The palm of his right hand was actually broken back by Charlie one hundred and eighty degrees, breaking it abruptly!

Harold howled loudly and slumped on the ground with tears.

Chapter 192

Seeing that his grandson was broken by Charlie, Mrs. Willson, who was leisurely watching "Family Law", was suddenly angry!

She was so angry that she rushed over, slapped Charlie's face with a slap in the face.

When she slapped her hand into the air, Charlie suddenly turned around and said coldly: "Old thing, you f*cking want to die!"

After speaking, he slapped the Lady Willson's face, and slapped the Lady Willson's hind legs a few steps!

At this moment, Charlie's eyes were extremely cold, and his whole body exuded a murderous aura!

Although the Old Mrs. Willson was slapped in the face, she was so painful that she shuddered involuntarily.

She covered her face and backed away in fright.

The Lady Willson who retreated didn't even dare to look at Charlie. This was the first time she saw him with such terrible eyes.

The Willson family looked stupid!

What the hll! What the hll!

This rubbish, even he dared to beat Lady Willson.

However, who can vent their anger for the Lady Willson at this time?

The injured bodyguard has fallen to the ground, and the remaining few, with a look of fear on their faces, do not dare to step forward.

Although the Old Mrs. Willson wanted Charlie's life, she knew at this time that Charlie didn't know where to learn a kung fu, he was so powerful, she couldn't keep him!

Claire could see her heart pounding, her beautiful eyes followed Charlie all the time, her mood was exceptionally strange, and her cheeks couldn't help but feel slightly hot.

It was the first time she discovered that Charlie had such a sturdy and mighty side.

In the past, in Claire's impression, Charlie only felt that he was taciturn, and knew nothing except buying vegetables and cooking.

At this time, Charlie, seeing that no one dared to step forward, he raised his head, glanced at the crowd coldly, and shouted to the two bodyguards who were hiding away: "If you don't open the door now, I will break your neck!"

The two bodyguards frightened their legs and hurriedly opened the door of the house!

Noah said angrily: "Mom, we can't let them go!"

Old Mrs. Willson gritted her teeth, staring at Charlie, and said bitterly: "Let them go!"

"Grandma, how can I let them go like this?" Harold yelled reluctantly, with hatred in his eyes: "He broke my hand, I'm going to chop him!"

Old Mrs. Willson suppressed her anger and said coldly: "Shut up all of you!"

Noah Willson said viciously: "Charlie, you hurt my son and broke my Willson family rules, you will definitely regret it!"

The Old Mrs. Willson said word by word: "From now on, the Jacob family will be removed from the Willson family, and they will no longer be my Willson family's children!"

Jacob raised his head, his head was broken and blood stained on his face.

He said blankly: "Such a Willson family is not rare for me!"

Claire also nodded and said, "Yes! we are not unhappy!"

The Lady Willson gritted her teeth and said: "Claire! You are really the money-losing people of my Willson family! From now on, you have also been removed from the Willson Group! The Willson Group is now cooperating with the Emgrand Group, and it will surely become a big winner in the future! And you are unfilial Granddaughter, you will have nothing to do with the Willson Group in the future! Get away from us as far away as possible!"

Claire said firmly: "I don't care about it anymore. Dad, Charlie, let's go."

Having said that, Claire and Charlie supported Jacob together, gave the Willson family angry look, turned their heads and left.

She walked out of the door without any nostalgia at all.

Today she saw the true colors of these people clearly!

The so-called relative is not as good as an outsider!

If it weren't for her parents' sake, she would have drawn a clear line from the so-called "Willson family"!

Charlie was also extremely cold in his heart.

Old Mrs. Willson, Noah Willson, Harold, three generations are all f*cking idiots!

Do they think, why do they think that you can still cooperate with Emgrand Group?

Chapter 193

As Charlie drove away from Willson's house, Jacob said angrily: "I knew that my mother and eldest brother's family were so cold-blooded, so I shouldn't have helped them so much."

Claire sighed in the co-pilot, and said, "With their style, even if the Willson family has a big foundation, they will be ruined."

The mother-in-law Elaine said indignantly: "The key is that we have helped them so much! Isn't the Emgrand Group's contract awarded for the first time? Now it is cheaper for them."

Charlie said indifferently: "Mom, they will kill themselves if they do many injustices, and they will not end well."

The Willson family's current reliance is nothing more than cooperation with the Emgrand Group, and they don't know that the Emgrand Group belongs to them.

Offending him, still want to make money from Emgrand Group?

Daydreaming!

As long as he gave Doris a phone call, the Willson family would be defeated.

Jacob touched the half-dry blood on his head, and muttered: "Who would have thought that the Willson family was so overwhelming that our family hadn't had a chance to live in the villa sent by the White family. They had to grab it clearly. bully!"

With that said, Jacob's eyes lit up, and he said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, you take us to Tomson. I always remember that villa and want to see it again."

Claire said: "Dad, this is almost home, so what else to see? Isn't that villa not under renovation yet? Libo is still looking at it."

Jacob said: "Oh, I want to go take a good look, otherwise I can't sleep!"

Charlie can naturally understand Jacob's mentality. It's like a person who can't afford a car suddenly has a top-notch luxury car. Even if he doesn't drive, he always wants to take a look at it in the parking lot.

So he said to Claire, "Since Dad wants to see it, let's go and see it, just to see if there are any decoration ideas. You can talk to Libo."

Jacob smiled and said, "Charlie still understands my mind best!"

Claire sighed helplessly and said, "All right, then let's go and have a look."

Charlie immediately turned around at the traffic light and drove to Tomson First Grade

Charlie parked the car in front of Tomson's villa, and when he got out of the car, his brows suddenly frowned.

The fence gate of the villa was actually hidden, and there seemed to be noisy sounds inside.

Seeing that Charlie was silent, Claire asked in confusion, "What's the matter?"

Charlie said: "It doesn't seem to be right, I'll go in and have a look!"

After all, Charlie took the lead to walk a few steps quickly into the yard.

As soon as he entered the yard, he found several bodyguards dressed in black, throwing some furniture out of the villa.

Jacob exclaimed: "It's from the Willson family!"

Charlie's complexion suddenly became gloomy. These people in the Willson family were really lingering. They didn't trouble them yet, but they came to the door first.

"Who allowed you to come in!"

Charlie scolded coldly and rushed up quickly.

When several bodyguards saw Charlie, their faces were panicked.

At this time, Harold's drake voice came from the main hall.

"I let them in!"

Harold walked arrogantly with a crowbar in his left hand and thick gauze in his right hand.

Chapter 194

"Charlie, you Rubbish, now you have been driven out of the Willson family. Of course, this Tomson first-class villa must stay in the Willson family. I am here to collect the villa keys today!"

Claire gritted her teeth and said: "You are too much, forcing Charlie to surrender the villa is not a success, now you have to grab it?"

Jacob also said angrily: "Harold, the villa belongs to my son-in-law, no one can take it away!"

Harold spit, and cursed: "Draft, Claire who do you think you are? You are now a bereaved dog driven out of the house, are you qualified to talk to me?"

As he said, Harold picked up the crowbar again, pointed at Jacob and continued to curse: "You have an old thing, do you think you are still my Uncle? Hurry up and get off, otherwise, I'll break your leg!"

Charlie was so angry that he said coldly, "Where is Uncle Libo?"

Harold stepped forward and laughed: "Isn't there an Old Master who guards the house in the villa? d*mn, I got rid of him. I can't beat him anymore, let him know from now on, Who is the real owner of the villa."

"You hit Libo?" Charlie's eyes were cold.

Although Libo was from the previous White family, he let him be in charge of this villa and he will be his own in the future.

Moreover, Uncle Libo is honest and loyal and respectful to him.

More importantly, he is more than sixty years old this year, and he is in his dying years. This Harold shouldn't even let go of an Old Master, it is really hateful!

Harold sneered at this moment and said: "Why, a dog slave who doesn't recognize his master, doesn't beat him hard, how can he know who Master Wade is? There is a saying that when hitting a dog depends on Master Wade. He must hit a dog now, yes. In order to let his master know who is the one who can't afford it"

After all, Harold laughed arrogantly and his face was full of revenge pleasure.

Charlie was already so angry that he punched him without hesitation.

"boom!"

Harold couldn't dodge, and was hit by an iron fist on the bridge of his nose. He suddenly spurted from his nose and screamed in pain.

"Why are you still stunned? Give me all! I want this waste to die!"

Harold stepped back frantically like a dog, and shouted at the bodyguards.

The bodyguards took out long knives from their waists one after another, and rushed towards Charlie viciously.

"Charlie, I know you can fight, but what if you can't fight again! I want to see if you have a hard skin or a hard knife!"

Seeing this, Claire and Jacob looked pale.

Charlie can fight, but after all, he has a flesh and blood body. The opponent is the Willson family bodyguard with a long knife. How could he win?

Charlie didn't care, his face was cold, without the slightest change.

"You want my life even with these stinky fish and shrimps?!"

After all, Charlie's speed was like a ghost, shuttled among the bodyguards of the Willson family.

Even if the bodyguards of the Willson family held a long knife, they couldn't touch the corner of his clothes at all.

And Charlie, like a butterfly wearing a flower, started to attack while evading.

He just throws a fist casually, he can easily make a sound of breaking through the sky, full of momentum!

Although the bodyguards were all retired special forces and they also had long swords, they were not opponents at all when facing Charlie!

In the blink of an eye, everyone was knocked to the ground by Charlie!

No one knows exactly how he did it, because they couldn't see Charlie's moves at all, and these bodyguards had already been knocked to the ground!

Moreover, Charlie was very angry when he took the shot, so he didn't have any sympathy for these bodyguards, and directly attacked them. All of them had broken hands or feet, all lying in the yard screaming!

Chapter 195

Harold was already stunned by the sight in front of him!

He knew that Charlie was great, but he did not expect that the bodyguards with knives were not Charlie's opponents!

Seeing the murderous Charlie, his frightened legs were shaking.

Coming to grab the villa was instructed by Mrs. Willson. Because he had an enmity with Charlie, he took the initiative to ask Mrs. Willson to take advantage of this opportunity to destroy Charlie.

However, he didn't expect that Charlie actually put down all the bodyguards with knives, and he didn't get hurt at all!

Is this Charlie still a human? !

At this time, Charlie had already walked towards Harold with a cold face.

He must teach this rude man a lesson and make him pay a painful price!

Seeing Charlie walk towards him, Harold's face pales in fright, and he blurted out: "You can't kill me! I am the son of the Willson family. If you dare to touch my hair, the Willson family will definitely not let you go!"

Charlie was indifferent and ruthless. He walked up to Harold step by step, pulled him up directly by the collar, and said coldly: "The Willson family you mentioned is not even rooted hair in my eyes!"

"Claire, Uncle, please let Charlie stop."

In a hurry, Harold pleaded to Claire and Jacob in a panic, completely forgetting the appearance of being defiant before.

Claire said coldly: "You have what you end up with today, you deserve it!"

Jacob looked at Claire and then at Harold, struggling very much.

Ask yourself, Jacob has been completely disappointed with the people of the Willson family. Although Harold is his nephew, he doesn't care about family affection, so why should he care?

But after all, the Willson family still had some power. If Charlie really killed Harold, he would definitely usher in crazy revenge from the Willson family.

Thinking of this, Jacob said helplessly: "Charlie, give him a lesson."

Charlie thought for a moment, then coldly nodded, and pressed Harold to the ground. The gravel plunged directly into his face, and the blood could not stop flowing down.

"I can spare your life, but you have annoyed me, the death penalty is unavoidable, and the living sin cannot escape!"

With that, Charlie punched him in the lower abdomen. This punch was full of force and directly hit Harold's groin.

Although Harold is just an ordinary person, he doesn't have any martial arts cultivation skills, but this punch is enough to destroy his ability in that area. From now on, this kid will become an incompetent man.

Harold only felt the punch coming over at this time, it was the most painful pain in the world! Let him lie on the ground in pain and roll, and he doesn't know what sequelae this punch will bring to him.

Afterwards, Charlie immediately called the community security, arrested all the people and sent them to the bureau, and then looked at Libo's injuries.

Fortunately, Uncle Libo only suffered some skin injuries, but it was not a major problem, and Charlie was relieved.

However, Charlie was extremely angry at the Willson family. Since the Willson family is so disgusting, they must not blame him now!

They arrived home.

Jacob sat on the sofa. The bloodstains on his face had been dealt with, but he still had a blue nose and a swollen face. There was a bruise on his forehead. He was also in a trance and his head was dizzy.

Today, the eldest brother ordered the bodyguard to beat him badly. He felt cold and uncomfortable, and he is still angrily.

Claire rubbed medicine on his forehead and said, "Dad, Charlie has already helped you out, so don't take it too seriously."

Jacob sighed and said, "I'm chilling, my mother, my brother, none of them treat me as their own."

After that, Jacob said again: "Claire, now they have driven you out of the Willson Group, what are your plans next?"

Chapter 196

Claire said, "plan? I'll find a job first."

Seeing this, Charlie didn't speak, but walked to the balcony and called Solmon.

As soon as he spoke, Charlie asked him: "Your nephew Gerald, is there a marriage contract with Wendy?"

"Yes." Solmon hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade have any instructions?"

Charlie said coldly: "I have broken up with the Willson family. If your White family is still intermarried with the Willson family, it will not give me a good impression. If there are any contradictions then, don't blame me for being impolite."

When Solmon heard this, he suddenly became nervous and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, don't get me wrong. Our White family has long wanted to regret the marriage. If it weren't for Mr. Wade as the son-in-law of the Willson family, how could we marry a woman like Wendy? Don't worry, I will arrange someone to go there and notify the Willson family to dissolve the engagement!"

Charlie nodded and said with satisfaction: "It's up to you."

Solmon hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will look forward to everything in the future of my White family!"

"Yeah." Charlie said lightly: "Okay, do it now."

"OK Mr. Wade!"

Didn't the Willson family want to go to the White family? In this case, let their wishful thinking come to nothing!

Subsequently, Charlie called Doris of the Emgrand Group.

The Willson family is now a street dog, and they have to fight harder.

As soon as the call was connected, Charlie said coldly: "Doris, now announce to the public that Emgrand Group has suspended all cooperation with Willson Group! And will always exclude them from the scope of cooperation!"

Doris asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, this is the company of the young grandma's family, did they do so much harm to Ms. Claire?"

Charlie said indifferently: "My wife has broken with them, and they will have nothing to do with me and my wife in the future!"

Only then did Doris understand, and immediately blurted out: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I know! I'll make a statement!"

In this way, the Willson family is completely finished!

Isn't little Lady Willson arrogant? Then she will be left with nothing!

After hanging up the phone, Charlie went back to the living room and looked at Jacob. He saw that Jacob's eye sockets were swollen, and the bruise on his forehead was getting worse and worse. I'm afraid it won't be eliminated in one and a half months.

And he could see that Jacob not only suffered trauma, but also some impacts on his brain. There was slight congestion in his skull. It is best to go to the hospital for craniotomy to remove blood clots.

Otherwise, over time, this intracranial hematoma will be a "time bomb", and maybe one day it will suddenly erupt, and may lead to death.

However, Charlie was afraid that Claire would panic, and temporarily concealed this matter.

He stood up and said, "I'll go out and buy some medicinal materials to treat dad."

Many medical techniques are recorded in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures. There is a prescription that can relieve depression and activate blood circulation, which can cure the situation of the father-in-law.

Claire asked curiously: "What kind of medicinal materials can be bought, will it work? Or should we go to the hospital?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "No need to go to the hospital. Doctors will deliberately scare and make things serious. Dad would be anxious after hearing this. I have a prescription that is very effective for bruises."

Claire nodded then.

When Charlie opened the door of the room, an acquaintance happened to come outside the door.

It turned out to be Qin Gang.

He frowned, looked at Qin Gang and asked, "Why are you here?"

Chapter 197

When Qin Gang saw Charlie, he hurriedly smiled and said, "Mr. Wade, I heard that you encountered something today, so I collected some medicinal materials and brought them over for you to have a look.

After speaking, a bodyguard behind him stepped forward and respectfully presented a red wooden box.

Qin Gang opened the lid and smiled respectfully: "Mr. Wade, please take a look."

In the box there was an old wild ginseng with a thick arm, as well as purplish red and shiny Ganoderma lucidum, as well as several expensive medicinal materials on the market, which are not found in ordinary traditional medicine stores.

Charlie glanced at it. Although these medicinal materials are precious, they don't contain much spiritual energy, but they are better than nothing.

It just so happened that he also had to prepare pills for promoting blood circulation and swimming, and these medicinal materials just happened to come in handy.

Charlie nodded faintly and said: "Give it to me."

Qin Gang hurriedly took the box and said, "Thanks to Mr. Wade's guidance, everything is going well in the Qin family now, and the business has doubled in the past two days, all thanks to Mr. Wade's credit. In the future, if Mr. Wade needs anything from the Qin family, please feel free. Qin must do his best to fulfil it."

Charlie said, "Then you continue to pay attention to me. If you have good medicinal materials, please bring them to me. They are really useful."

"Yes!" After Qin Gang agreed, he immediately said, "Mr. Wade, if nothing is wrong, can you come to the house to enjoy the noodles and have a home-cooked meal?"

Charlie said indifferently: "Someday, there is something wrong at home now."

"Okay." Qin Gang said hurriedly: "Then I won't bother!"

After speaking, he left.

Charlie also turned around and returned home.

Jacob's headache was unbearable, so Claire helped him to a nearby traditional medicine acupuncture center, wanting to massage and promote blood circulation.

Charlie said to him, "Dad, it's not suitable for you walking indiscriminately right now, so let's take a break. A friend just delivered medicinal materials. I will prepare a little pill for you. It should have a good effect."

Jacob asked wonderingly: "Charlie, do you still have the ability to cure diseases and prescribe medicine?"

Charlie said: "I learned a little bit of it before."

He could hardly say that he had read the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures and knew that there was a medicine Pill.

This is a lost traditional medicine prescription. It can not only remove blood congestion in the brain, but also has a miraculous effect on serious brain diseases such as cerebral infarction and stroke.

If a Pill for Dispersing Blood and Heart Relief is formulated, for Jacob, it will naturally cure the disease.

But Jacob was a little worried. He said embarrassingly: "Charlie, it's not that your dad doesn't believe you. You are okay in fighting. You can't learn to treat illness and save people by watching TV."

As he said, he coughed twice and said, "Well, let Claire take me to the hospital!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Okay, if you can't believe me, you can go to the hospital to try it first. If it works, it's a good thing."

Jacob hurriedly said: "It is not that I can't believe you. It is a little bit painful right now. I will go and see a doctor first."

After speaking, he said to Claire, "Claire, let's go."

Claire nodded and helped Jacob to stand up and they went out.

Charlie walked into the kitchen and began to make prescriptions.

According to the records on the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, this medicine is very effective. Jacob only had a slight blood flow in his brain. To get the drug, Charlie subtracted a few medicinal materials before starting to make it.

Chapter 198

The Pill was developed by the famous traditional medicine doctor Simiao in the Thompson Dynasty. His widely circulated works are Qianjin Prescriptions and Thompson Materia Medica, and the Simiao's Medical Classics are his memorials of medical practice in the past dynasties, and many clinical records are recorded. Experience, these classics are also included in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures.

Compared with the previous two medical books, this Simiao's medical classics is more clinically valuable, but not many people know it. Now it has been completely lost, and most traditional medicine practitioners have not even heard of this name.

According to the prescriptions in the medical classics, Charlie quickly prepared a box of walnut-sized honey pills with six pills in total.

As soon as the pills were prepared, Claire helped Jacob back.

Jacob still had pain on his face, and he became increasingly uncomfortable walking.

Claire was also a little worried, and said, "Dad, if it's not possible, let's go to the hospital for a look, what do you think?"

Jacob waved his hand: "Oh, I don't want to go to the hospital anymore. It's too much trouble. I have to take a blood test and a urine test and I have to take a film. Sometimes all is right and something is wrong. Let's help me sit on the sofa for a while."

Jacob went to the traditional medicine Museum just now for an acupuncture massage, but he didn't expect that it wouldn't work at all. His head became more painful. At this time, he just wanted to sit down and rest quickly, otherwise he might faint.

At this moment, Charlie walked out carrying the pill he had just configured.

Claire heard the smell of medicine floating in the air, and she asked in surprise: "Charlie, are you boiling medicine?"

Charlie pointed to the honey pill in his hand and said, "Dad, this pill can invigorate blood and remove blood stasis, and the effect is very good. You can take one and try it."

He picked up the pill and looked at it. A particularly fresh medicinal scent came into his nostrils, making him feel refreshed.

He asked in surprise: "You made this pill?"

"Yes!" Charlie said, "I just made it."

Jacob asked again: "Have you studied medicine?"

Charlie said: "I used to learn from an Old Master sweeping the floor in an orphanage. His ancestor was a traditional medicine doctor."

Jacob said with a look of disbelief, "Really? Can the things taught by the old sweeping man work?"

"It is guaranteed to be effective. You can try it. The medicine will cure the disease."

Jacob felt a little nervous, but when he thought of his current situation, he couldn't bear the pain, so he took the pills in two mouthfuls.

Before Claire asked about the origin of Qing Pills, he saw that Jacob had already taken it, and quickly asked, "Dad, how do you feel?"

"It seems that I just ate it and my head really doesn't hurt so much." Jacob was also surprised.

This pill seemed unremarkable, but after he took it, it seemed as if a breath of fresh air reached his forehead, his nose opened up, his head became clearer, and the pain in the back of his head actually disappeared a lot.

Jacob asked happily, "Charlie, where did you buy this medicine?"

Charlie said, "Qin Gang just sent some medicinal materials over, so I just fiddled with them."

Jacob continued to admire: "This President Qin is such a good person! Knowing that I was injured, he even delivered medicine specially!"

Claire also said: "Everyone in Aurous Hill City said that Qin Gang is kind, and that seemed to be the case. If the uncle Noah was like President Qin with kind thoughts, how could it be like this."

When he mentioned Noah, Jacob looked down, waved his hand and said, "Don't mention him."

Jacob returned to the house to rest after taking the medicine.

Charlie saw that Claire's face was not so good, and asked: "You should rest soon, don't get angry, Willson family, you will definitely pay the price for today's affairs!"

Chapter 199

At this moment, the Willson family compound.

The Old Mrs. Willson and Noah Willson are waiting for news that Harold has successfully seized the villa.

But unexpectedly, they received the news that Harold was seriously injured and arrested and detained by the police on the grounds that he was suspected of breaking into private houses and intentionally hurting others!

This made Old Mrs. Willson particularly angry!

She angrily said: "This must be done by Claire and her family again! It's really unreasonable!"

Noah was very nervous when he heard that his son was injured, and said angrily: "Mom! Jacob is so arrogant! You have to call the shots for Harold! After all, he has always listened to your sayings, what you say, he will look at you! "

"It's natural!" The Lady Willson snorted coldly, and said, "What if their family has that villa? Isn't it an empty shell? No money, no power, how can they fight us! Not only do they want to take the villa It will cost them a painful price if they get it!"

As he was talking, someone came in to pass a message: "Lady Willson, Solmon, the head of the White family, has just arrived!"

"Oh?" the Lady Willson blurted out, "please come in quickly! I was just about to ask you why he should give the villa to that family. White family are also our in-laws, so how can he break his elbow!"

As she was talking, Solmon flew over with his nephew Gerald.

The two of them came over, and they had retired.

In fact, Gerald was a little tired of losing Wendy, the main reason was that Wendy's family really couldn't make it to the table.

So, when the uncle said that he would divorce, he did not object, even let the uncle be Master here.

Seeing the two coming in, Mrs. Willson hurriedly greeted them and said, "Oh, my in-laws are here, why don't you say hello in advance!"

Solmon sneered, and said, "Mrs. Willson is so majestic!"

Old Mrs. Willson didn't know what Solmon's words meant, she squeezed out an awkward smile, and said, "Why are you saying this?"

After that, she said to Noah quickly: "It's rare that President White came to the door in person. Don't you come here quickly and invite President White to sit in? This is your future in-laws!"

"I won't come in." Solmon waved his hand with a cold face, and said, "I came here today, mainly to talk about the marriage between the two families."

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said: "Please rest assured, Mr. White, the courtesy we should have at the wedding banquet, there will be no less, please say it Mr. White if you have any requirements."

Solmon said coldly: "Then I will make a long story short. Our White family has recently thought about it and felt that the different ways are not conspiring for us to get along together. Therefore, this time we are here to cancel the marriage contract between Gerald and your Wendy."

"What, do you want to cancel the marriage contract?" The Old Mrs. Willson and Noah Willson were both shocked.

Wendy behind her was silly, and she blurted out: "Why? Gerald and I have booked the big day!"

After speaking, she asked Gerald: "Gerald, what is going on?"

Gerald stretched out his hands awkwardly, and said, "This is a family arrangement, and I can't help it."

The Willson family is about to collapse!

The relationship between the two families was booked long ago, and even the marriage has been booked. Now all relatives and friends know about it and are waiting for the wedding next month.

At this time, the White family actually wanted to cancel?

The Old Mrs. Willson is looking forward to getting married with the White family, and relying on the White family to fly to the top!

Now the White family is about to cancel it with a single sentence. Doesn't this vanish all her big dreams?

Chapter 200

Moreover, although Wendy and Gerald are not married, they have been together for a long time. Some time ago, the two children were careless and got pregnant unexpectedly. In order not to make gossips, Lady Willson asked Wendy to knock off the child and prepare to wait for marriage.

Unexpectedly, White's family will now come directly to retreat!

This, isn't this playing with the granddaughter for so long?

Moreover, she also made her belly bigger once, so she was going to leave?

She was very angry and tremblingly asked: "Mr. White, why are doing this? My Willson family has not offended you! Moreover, we have always treated Gerald as our own son. He had been with Wendy before. For a child, I also think that the reputation of the two families should be taken into consideration, and we can't get pregnant before unmarried, so I advocated that Wendy had the child knocked out. You can't do this to her, right?"

Speaking of the child, Wendy burst into tears.

Solmon sneered and said: "If this matter is to be blamed, you can't blame Gerald, just blame your Old Mrs. Willson for being too shameless!"

"This" Old Mrs. Willson didn't expect, Solmon cursed directly on her head and couldn't help asking: "What happened to you, Lady Willson?"

Solmon hummed: "The villa I gave to Charlie, you guys were going to grab it too. For people with no character like you, how can I become relatives with you?!"

The Old Mrs. Willson was dumbfounded, and blurted out: "My family, this is a matter between us and Charlie, so why it bothers you?"

Solmon said coldly: "You Lady Willson is really shameless! That villa is my honor to Mr. Charlie, you dare to snatch it? You don't look at it, you're a sh!t!"

Mrs. Willson felt a sharp pain in her chest.

This Solmon doesn't give her respect! If the family is rich, can they insult me like this?

However, she did not dare to refute it at once.

Because she knows that she is at a loss in this matter!

Moreover, she really did not expect that Solmon would respect Charlie Rubbish so much!

This in the end is why? !

At this time, Wendy sat on the ground, watching Gerald crying and said: "Gerald, I was pregnant with your child, you can't leave me!"

Gerald on the side said lightly: "If you are to blame, blame your grandma and your father, oh yes, and your brother!"

As he said, Gerald said again: "Also, you even beat Libo. You know that Libo has been in my White's house for 40 years and saved my father's life. And he was the one who looked after me when I was young. I was saved by Uncle Libo when I stumbled into the water. Otherwise, I would be dead now. Uncle Libo is no different from my grandfather to me. You actually beat him to rob the villa! How outrageous! A shameless family cannot be like my family, I won't be your son-in-law, and don't even want you to be our daughter-in-law!"

Noah Willson stood aside, his face pale.

Old Mrs. Willson also had a frightened expression on her face.

They thought that Uncle Libo was just a subordinate, but they didn't expect it to be so important to the White family.

Old Mrs. Willson regrets that her intestines are all green at this time. If she knew that, what villa would she still rob!

The villa was not snatched and ruined the granddaughter's marriage!

The key is that I still count on relying on the White family to fly and grow up! Now all the chickens have been beaten!

Thinking of this, the Lady Willson almost burst into tears.

Sitting paralyzed on the ground, Wendy yelled at the Old Mrs. Willson angrily: "I blame you for the dead Lady Willson! I blame you for ruining my happiness!"

Chapter 201

Mrs. Willson was struck by lightning at this time!

How did that happen?

Only Charlie could have such a big energy? Even the White family broke with their Willson family?

At the thought of this, her heart throbbed with pain.

She wanted to beg Solomon not to abandon the Willson family at this time, but the other party didn't pay attention to her at all. After saying that they were about to divorce, they swaggered to take Gerald and left.

Wendy broke down and cried!

She accompanied Gerald for several years, and gave everything to the other party, even they were pregnant with child and now, everything has disappeared.

Therefore, she has an unforgettable hatred towards grandma in her heart.

Her father, Noah, was also very depressed. He followed the Lady Willson and ditched his younger brother's family, but he didn't seem to get any benefits.

More importantly, the son was injured and arrested, and the daughter was abandoned by the fiance's family. This really gave him an irreparable loss.

He complained to the Old Mrs. Willson: "Mom, I usually listen to you in everything, but at this point, my family has lost too much!"

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson tried to stabilize their emotions, and said: "Don't panic! Why anxious? Harold just spends money to redeem the people. As for Wendy's marriage, what are we afraid of? Good women don't have to worry about marrying, our Wendy is beautiful, and I don't know how many rich sons will line up to pursue her tomorrow!"

After speaking, the Lady Willson said again: "Don't forget, we still have the Emgrand Group's contract in hand! This is our Willson family's turnaround battle! If we win this battle, our Willson family will still need to rely on in the future. As the kings? Do we still need to depend on the rich? We are the rich ourselves!"

Noah hurriedly asked: "Mom, the emgrand group's project was previously in hands of Claire's dead girl. Now she has been kicked out of the Willson Group. This project, as well as the position of director, should be replaced?"

"Change! Of course you want to change!" The Lady Willson blurted out immediately: "Don't worry, I will give this position to Harold! When Harold comes out, he will be the director of the Willson Group and is fully responsible for the cooperation between the Willson Group and the Emgrand Group! "

Noah Willson gratefully rejoiced, and the whole person finally got some comfort.

The loss is so great that if the Lady Willson doesn't make up for herself a little, it is really impossible. Since this project is given to her son, then her son will still have a chance to stand up in the future.

At this time, Mrs. Willson exhorted: "There must be no gaps in the cooperation of the Emgrand Group. When the time comes, Harold will give me an all-out connection. We must take down this project beautifully, even from the Emgrand Group. Get more projects in your hands!"

Noah Willson said immediately: "Mom, don't worry, I will let Harold go all out!"

While talking, someone knocked on the door.

Immediately afterwards, a man in a suit walked into the courtyard of the Willson family mansion.

"Excuse me, is Mrs. Willson at home?"

Old Mrs. Willson greeted her and asked, "I am, who are you?"

The other party said: "Hello, I am the chief lawyer of Emgrand Group."

When she heard that it was a member of the Emgrand Group, Mrs. Willson hurriedly said enthusiastically: "Oh, oh! It turned out to be a barrister of the Emgrand Group! Come in! Come in!"

"No." The other party said coldly: "I'm here to give you a lawyer's letter in person."

"Lawyer's letter?" Mrs. Willson asked in surprise, "What lawyer's letter?"

The other party said: "The lawyer's letter for the termination of the contract, our Emgrand Group has decided to terminate all cooperation with the Willson family after negotiation, and will never have any form of cooperation with the Willson family in the future, please receive the lawyer's letter Within three days, go to the Emgrand Group to complete the agreement procedures."

"what?!"

Chapter 202

For the Lady Willson and Noah, this was a bolt from the blue!

Just now, they said that the Emgrand Group was the Willson family's turn to rely on. Now the Emgrand Group has come to terminate the contract? And never cooperate with the Willson family?

This

This is to block the Willson family!

The Lady Willson tremblingly asked, "Lawyer, what is going on? Why is this? Isn't our cooperation good?"

The lawyer said coldly: "Our cooperation with Ms. Claire is very good, but I heard that Ms. Claire has left your Willson Group. I am embarrassed. We don't want to cooperate with you people anymore."

Only then did the Old Mrs. Willson understand that it was Claire!

She was suddenly angry!

why!

Why do you have to revolve around that unbelievable granddaughter?

She is a Rubbish! She herself married a Rubbish!

The Willson family is my, I Old Mrs. Willson has the final say, you should give me face! Why give her face? Why only look at her face! ? !

Old Mrs. Willson was a little angry, and she blurted out: "Your Emgrand Group can be considered a big company with a good reputation! Just so casually unilaterally terminate the contract with us, aren't you afraid that we will go to the court to sue you? Are you not afraid of this incident? After going out, will it affect the reputation of your Emgrand Group?!"

The lawyer smiled indifferently and said: "Mrs. Willson, have you not seen the contract before? For all the external cooperation of our Emgrand Group, we have the right to unilaterally stop the cooperation. This is the privilege of Party A. Haven't you heard of it? Yes, does the engineering work, is Party A the father?"

After that, the lawyer said again: "Even if the whole Aurous Hill, and even the whole country, know that we are uncooperative with you? We are reasonable and legal! And, it was not me that scared you, Mrs. Willson, our Emgrand Group is very famous in the country. Big, the company we blocked, other companies generally dare not cooperate, so, for your Willson Group, please ask for more luck in the future!"

"You," Mrs. Willson was indeed shocked by these words!

Blocked by Emgrand Group! How will you mess up from now on? !

Isn't the future of the Willson Group going to end? !

If no one is willing to cooperate with an engineering company, it will have only one end!

Bankruptcy!

Do not! No way!

The Lady Willson is already hysterical at this time!

The Willson Group is mine!

The Willson Group should become a leader and make me an object of respect for everyone! Let me enjoy the endless glory and wealth!

It cannot go bankrupt! It must not go bankrupt! ! !

Thinking of this, the Lady Willson burst into tears, and begged: "Lawyer, I beg you for the sake of my age. Tell you Doris, Doris, I beg for mercy, everything in the Willson Group is on the line. The cooperation with your company is on. At this time, your company can't abandon us!"

The lawyer sneered: "I'm sorry, Lady Willson, the decision not to cooperate with you and block you was made by our CEO. Our CEO also said that you are disrespectful and shameless old things like you are not worthy of cooperation with us.!"

After speaking, he dropped the cancellation letter, turned and left!

Old Mrs. Willson was very angry, spit out a big mouthful of blood, and fell to the ground unconscious!

Chapter 203

The news that the Emgrand Group banned the Willson Group soon came out.

Just when the whole Aurous Hill knew that the Willson family was finished, it came out that the Old Mrs. Willson was in a hurry and was hospitalized.

After Charlie's father-in-law Jacob heard the news, there was surprisingly no disturbance.

He said to his daughter and son-in-law: "With my mother's personality and the need to control the psychology of others throughout her life, it will be a matter of time to lose. There is nothing to be sympathetic to. Let her reflect on it in the hospital. Maybe she can figure out her life. What is wrong with it!"

Charlie felt that Jacob had been confused, and it was rare to see the essence of things this time.

When the family breathed a sigh of relief, his wife, Claire, began to work on the job search quietly.

In the evening, when Charlie had just finished cooking, he suddenly heard the sound of opening the door behind him.

He turned around and saw Jacob coming in from the door with a smile on his face, his footsteps vigorous.

Charlie looked at Jacob's happy look, and couldn't help asking: "Dad, you went for a walk around, what good things have happened?"

"Hahaha, I'm really lucky today." Jacob said with joy, "After I took the pills you gave, not only the pain in my body disappeared, but the spirit also improved. It is a panacea."

"No, I just went to the Antique Street to stroll around. Guess who I met?"

"Who?" Charlie felt a little bit in his heart. Could it be that Jacob was coaxed around by the counterfeit dealers and killed him as a fat sheep once again?

He quickly looked up and down at Jacob, and breathed a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, he held nothing with his hands empty.

Jacob took a sip of tea and said mysteriously: "Sir, do you remember the last time we met Ervin Jones, who was a scammer in Antique Street, right?"

"Remember, what happened?"

"Haha, I met this kid as soon as I went today!"

Charlie was shocked: "Dad, you won't buy his goods again, will you?"

"No." Jacob waved his hand and said happily, "This Ervin Jones, now that he know that I am your Old Master, he dare not be clever at all. Not only did he give me a piece of ancient jade pendant, he also helped me sell the pills up."

Charlie frowned, and the ancient jade pendant Ervin Jones gave to Jacob was probably a fake, but it was strange that he actually helped Jacob sell medicine.

"What pill?"

"It's the medicine you made for me to treat traumatic injuries. It's called the heart-relief pill." Jacob slapped his thigh and said excitedly: "My injuries are all healed. Ervin Jones heard that this pill is so effectivet, he said he had a way to sell the pills for me, so I gave him two pills, but I didn't expect them to be sold!"

Charlie was dumbfounded.

Pills are not a rare thing, and the Old Master can only throw them away if he can't finish eating them, but this Ervin Jones can really take advantage of the loopholes, and he can even sell the leftover medicine.

"Dad, this medicine is not right, how can you sell it."

Jacob said, "I don't know about that. Anyway, Ervin Jones helped me sell the medicine. Guess how much it sold."

"over a thousand?"

"Your point is not even a fraction." Jacob triumphed and slapped: "It's half a million!!"

"puff!"

Charlie was drinking water, and the water in his mouth spurted out suddenly.

He couldn't believe it. The pill that cost less than 100 were sold for half a million by Ervin Jones, a profiteer?

Chapter 204

Who is the hapless person who has a lot of money and is fooled by this profiteer?

Charlie couldn't help asking: "Which wrongdoer did this profiteer sell the medicine to?"

"I don't know, Ervin Jones said that he has professional ethics and must keep his clients secret."

After Jacob finished speaking, he shook his head and sighed: "The 500,000, he hit my card with a lot of money, saying that he was filial to you. I will give him a bit of hard work. He doesn't want it. These two hairs do business. His talent, when he stops making fakes, I advise him to do a decent job and go to work."

Charlie shook his head.

People like Ervin Jones can't change the sh!t!

He has been kidnapped since he was a child, and it has become commonplace. If he really wants to go to work for a day, I am afraid this is like killing him.

It is impossible for him to go to work, he will never go to work in his life.

However, since the pills are sold at a high price by the Old Master, they can be used as subsidies for the family.

Anyway, the Willson family recently left the Willson company, and Claire might have to be unemployed at home for a while, and the Old Master's dividends from the Willson company might not be available, so it was just the money to make the transition.

After earning half a million in vain, Jacob's originally depressed mood was swept away, and he walked all the way into the bedroom humming the red lantern of Peking opera, finally showing a smile on his face.

Charlie went back to the bedroom and told Claire about it.

Claire almost jumped out of bed and asked nervously, "Others spend a lot of money to buy pills, but money matters. If something goes wrong with eating that thing, can we get away with it?"

"Don't worry." Charlie said with a smile: "This 'blood-relief pill' is only for removing blood stasis and invigorating blood. The materials are not valuable. They can't be eaten as a meal, and they will have nosebleeds for two days at most. The blame is to buy medicine Customers, people are stupid and have a lot of money."

Claire was still worried: "Then you say, who on earth is willing to spend half a million to buy these two pills?"

Charlie said casually: "It may be someone who has a cerebral obstruction or a cardiovascular and cerebrovascular disease. This pill is also very effective for these diseases."

Hearing what he said, Claire's hanging mental complexity was relieved a lot.

These types of diseases are serious medical illnesses, and it would cost no less than 500,000 to go to the hospital for treatment.

I hope the medicine will work and don't make people spend so much money in vain.

After eating, Charlie received a call from Orvel when he was washing the dishes.

Although Orvel is known as the underground king of Aurous Hill, he has been low-key and depressed since he met Charlie.

Although Charlie didn't look down on him, he had to say that Orvel was quite sensible. Last time Darren was bullied, and in the hospital ward, he also helped him solve a little problem.

So at that time, Charlie had promised that he would give him a chance to rise to the top, but he did not expect that he would take the initiative to call himself.

After answering the phone, Charlie asked him, "Mr. Orvel, are you looking for me?"

Orvel hurriedly laughed and said, "Oh, Mr. Charlie! I called you this time because I heard about your order to the Aurous Hill Metaphysical Circle. I would like to congratulate you."

Charlie said coldly: "Don't talk to me here, just tell me if you have anything, don't grind!"

Orvel hurriedly said: "Oh, Mr. Charlie, you know everything like a god, and you will see through it when I think about it carefully."

Charlie asked coldly: "Still talking nonsense?"

Orvel hurriedly said: "That's how Mr. Charlie, the Song family has treated me well for many years. Their eldest lady has had some trouble recently. I would like to ask you to come over and take a look."

Charlie said, "Miss of Song Family? Warnia?"

"Yes!" said Orvel, "Miss Warnia is in trouble!"

Chapter 205

The Song family to which Warnia belongs is the top family in Aurous Hill.

However, the Song family was still a thousand miles away from the Eastcliff's Wade family.

But Warnia still doesn't know Charlie's true identity, so Charlie in her eyes is just a young man who has some research on antiques and then dabbled in metaphysics.

The last time Charlie slammed thunder to death in Aurous Hill, it really scared many people and was regarded as a master of metaphysics by many people. However, Charlie deliberately gave Warnia an indication that it was just a coincidence. After all, how could ordinary people Order the sky thunder.

Finally, Warnia was also confused, thinking that Charlie might indeed have more luck.

Since then, Warnia has disappeared from Charlie's world.

Charlie thought she was missing, but he didn't expect to be in trouble.

So, he asked Orvel: "What's the matter? What is wrong with Miss Song?"

Orvel said: "Ms. Song recently committed Tai Sui. Maybe something went wrong with Feng Shui luck, and she was totally unlucky."

After that, Orvel said again: "I found many feng shui masters everywhere, but they can't solve the problem. I would like to ask you to have a look, see if you can break the predicament of Missy."

Charlie said calmly: "You can talk about what problems she has encountered first, so I might as well make a judgment."

Orvel hurriedly said: "The lady was injured recently. She has had several small car accidents. Then she sprained her foot when going down the stairs, burned the back of her hand while drinking coffee, and was bitten by her own dog yesterday. One mouthful, not only that, but several important cooperations of the Song Family Group also had big problems and had a great impact on the income.

After that, Orvel said again: "The thing that saddens the eldest most is that she has somehow lost one of the most precious diamond necklaces she has worn for more than ten years. It is the relic left by her mother before her death. The young lady cried for several days about this."

Charlie chuckled twice, and said: "It seems that Miss Song has really had a bad luck recently."

"Don't tell me!" Orvel looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, you are a master of metaphysics. I believe you must have a solution for this matter?"

Charlie asked him back: "Mr. Orvel, why are you so caring about Miss Song? What is your relationship with the Song family?"

Mr. Orvel hurriedly said: "I tell you Mr. Charlie, Miss Song's grandfather is my benefactor. I was able to stand up in Aurous Hill back then, It was all thanks to the support of Miss Song's grandfather. I originally wanted to repay him. I have always helped the Song family solve some inconvenient things for them to come forward."

After that, Mr. Orvel said again: "To put it bluntly, I just want to repay the favor. The Song family is my benefactor."

"En." Charlie nodded and said, "You are also sincere, and Ms. Song and I have some friendship, so come and pick me from my house tomorrow. Let's go and take a look."

"Okay!" Orvel said excitedly: "Thank you Mr. Charlie! I am grateful!"

Early the next morning, Orvel called Charlie.

Chapter 206

When Charlie went downstairs, Orvel was sitting in the car and beckoned to him, saying, "Mr. Charlie, get in the car!"

Charlie nodded and walked quickly to get into the car. Orvel hurriedly started the car and drove towards the outskirts of the city.

On the way, Orvel said anxiously: "I heard that a Feng Shui master from Hong Kong is coming soon, Mr. Charlie, you can't let him steal your limelight!"

As he said, he added, "Miss Song is the eldest daughter of the Song family and will soon take over the entire family affairs. If we can do this beautifully, you and I will benefit infinitely!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Mr. Orvel, you are not kind, you said yesterday that it was to repay your kindness, but now you show the foxtail, so you want to treat Miss Song for this?"

Mr. Orvel said embarrassingly: "Repaying one's kindness is one aspect, and getting closer to one another is also one aspect! I know that Mr. Charlie has great powers, but to be honest, it is not a bad thing to be able to get closer to Miss Song, Miss Song is young and attractive. Beautiful and with strong family background. If you become friends and join forces in the future, it will be a good thing for you, don't you think?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said lightly: "If the Feng Shui master from Hong Kong is really good, then I can't help it."

Orvel sighed and said, "Let's go and take a look first. You are a master of metaphysics with real abilities. Then you can see if you can find a suitable opportunity. Let's just grab the business from that Hong Kong man!"

Charlie didn't say a word, he was also considering this issue in his heart. If Mr. Lai from Hong Kong is really a descendant of the Lai family, he probably has a few brushes.

He might as well take a look at what Lai's family does, and perhaps what enlightenment it might have for his next comprehension of the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets!

Miss Song's villa is in the most luxurious villa area in the suburbs.

Orvel drove Charlie all the way and stopped in front of a super luxurious villa.

At this time, a man with the appearance of a housekeeper came out. Orvel hurriedly stuck his head out and said, "Boyu, is the eldest lady at home?"

The housekeeper nodded indifferently, and said: "Mr. Orvel, what has brought you here?"

Orvel hurriedly said with a smile: "Boyu, I have invited a master to come over, and I want him to help the young lady, he is a real master of metaphysics!"

The butler glanced at Charlie, who was in the co-driver. He didn't take the young man seriously, and said coldly: "Mr. Orvel, Mr. Lai from Hong Kong has already come and is showing the elder lady Feng Shui. It is inconvenient to bother him. If there is nothing wrong, you can go back."

Orvel quickly said: "Boyu, Mr. Charlie is here, why should not let Mr. Charlie have a try? Besides, Mr. Charlie and Missy have friendship!"

Uncle Boyu asked him: "Many people say that they have friendship with Missy, and I can hear the cocoon. Besides, can the person you invite have abilities as good as Mr. Lai from Hong Kong? Mr. Lai is the originator of Feng Shui, Lai Buyi. He spent a lot of effort and traveled all the way to from Hong Kong, so follow along and join in the fun! Let's go!"

Charlie was a little surprised when he heard that, not at the identity of Mr. Lai, but at the big man who stomped off Aurous Hill's entire road. As a result, there was even a housekeeper at Warnia's door. He can't figure it out.

Not only can't figure it out, he even has to kneel and lick.

Charlie couldn't help but slander, this Orvel, in front of Uncle Boyu, is really begging for nothing! If this matter spreads out, it will be despised by people in the whole city!

Chapter 207

Orvel was despised by the butler, but he was not angry at all. On the contrary, the smile on his face accumulated more deeply. He respectfully said: "Look, Boyu, this lady's problem is so serious. It must be the same for us today. Want to share the worries for her! What if Mr. Lai doesn't care about Missy's problem? He is a Hong Kong master, and he may not be able to eat well when he arrives on our mainland!"

Boyu said coldly: "What can't be eaten, you really think you can find someone to be able to compare to Mr. Lai? Go away, if it interferes with Mr. Lai's formation, the lady will blame it, you can't afford it.

Orvel scratched his head anxiously. Unexpectedly, Boyu wouldn't even let them in the door. How could Charlie show the elder lady Feng Shui?

So he blurted out: "Boyu, have you heard about the fate of that man in Aurous Hill? He was also a master in Hong Kong, that smashing, arrogant, and what was the result? He came to Aurous Hill and pretend to be something in front of Mr. Charlie, Mr. Charlie brought thunder, click it, and hacked him to death!"

After listening to it, Boyu was dumbfounded.

The look in Charlie's eyes was also a little more in awe.

He had heard about Jinghai.

However, he didn't know exactly who killed him in the Aurous Hill.

Unexpectedly, it turned out to be the young man in front of him!

In an instant, he had a sense of respect for Charlie.

So, he arched his hand at Charlie and said: "Mr. Charlie is so capable, I have also heard about it, and I admire it!"

After speaking, he hesitated for a moment, and said: "If this is the case, then please come in and have a look, but Mr. Charlie, you must come first and wait. Since Mr. Lai from Hong Kong is here first, please don't bother him too much before he finishes the Feng Shui. Let's wait until Mr. Lai finishes reading it. If Mr. Lai solves Missy's problem, please don't interfere."

Charlie nodded, and said indifferently, "No problem."

Boyu used the remote control to open the door and said to Orvel: "Get the car in."

Orvel hurriedly drove into the villa and said with a look of exclamation: "Mr. Charlie, you were really awesome just now, except for the Song family, they rarely give outsiders such a face."

Charlie said indifferently: "Look at your unpromising appearance. The housekeeper of the Song family has to kneel and lick the flattery. I really don't know how you got into the position of Big Brother on Aurous Hill Road."

Orvel said with a stern smile: "Mr. Charlie, you don't know anything, no matter how good we are, isn't it still a little girl who can't get on the table? In front of a large family like the Song family, That is, the material for brother!"

After that, he parked the car and said to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, let's go to meet Mr. Lai for a while."

Boyu led the two into the villa, which was decorated extremely luxuriously, almost like the royal family.

When they arrived on the second floor, Boyu directly led them to a room where the door was opened and knocked gently.

Then he took them straight in.

Chapter 208

In the room, a lean middle-aged man in a blue shirt was holding a compass and was looking around, muttering words. Warnia stood with her back to the door and heard three people coming in. She turned around and asked: "Boyu, what's up?"

Boyu hurriedly said: "Miss, Orvel brought Mr. Charlie over, saying that he wanted to help you take a look at Feng Shui."

Warnia turned around and saw Charlie, suddenly surprised: "Charlie, why are you here?"

As soon as Charlie saw Warnia, he found that she was a lot more haggard than he had seen a few days ago, and according to the records in the Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures, her hall was darkened and her fortune was out of luck. It seemed that something really went wrong.

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Orvel said that you are in trouble, so he took me over to see you."

At this time, the middle-aged man holding the compass spoke in Hong Kong accent, and said, "Miss Song, ordinary people shouldn't interfere! Otherwise, it will affect the operation of the Feng Shui Array!"

Warnia knew that Charlie knew something about metaphysics, but Feng Shui fortune was somewhat different from metaphysics. She felt that Charlie's metaphysics was suitable for fighting strong, but Feng Shui was a discipline related to a different realm. Metaphysics is not a number of ways, so in no way Charlie can be compared to Mr. Lai.

So, she said a little apologetically: "I'm sorry Charlie, Mr. Lai is helping me do this. Please sit downstairs for a while, and I will come over to entertain you later, sorry!"

Charlie said: "Miss Song, one more person has one more way. I do see that you have some problems. As a friend, I hope to help you solve the trouble, but you can let the Mr. Lai make a formation first. If he can solve it, then everyone is happy. If he can't solve it, I will try."

At this moment, the middle-aged man holding the compass gave a cold snort, and said: "I am a Lai buyi's 22nd generation successor. How can I be hard to beat by such a trivial matter? I think you are young, Dare to call yourself a Feng Shui Master, I am afraid you are a liar!"

Charlie smiled slightly, seeing a black and red air lingering in the hall of Mr. Lai, with a bloody smell, he said lightly: "Mr. Lai, since you are a Feng Shui master, why didn't you look at yourself today? Isn't there a disaster of blood and light?"

Mr. Lai laughed and said, "Say I have a bloody disaster? Boy, you are crazy!"

Charlie shrugged his shoulders and said, "I'm telling the truth. The blackness of your Yintang remains, your eyes are white and swollen, and your pupils are red and open. This is a sign of your fortune. If you don't pay attention to the remedy, I am afraid The disaster of blood and light cannot be stopped!"

Mr. Lai sneered: "Boy, I'm a descendant of the Lai family from Hong Kong, so don't behave in front of me!"

Charlie curled his lips: "I'm a big talker? You master from Hong Kong, I don't think you are the only one. To be honest, they are all pretty watery!"

Mr. Lai immediately cursed: "You bah! Talk about our Hong Kong master water? You're a sh!t!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Have you heard of someone named Jinghai? Do you know his fate?"

"I don't know anything about Jinghai!" Mr. Lai snorted coldly, looked at the Song family eldest, and said, "Miss, wait for me to do it right away, to help you reverse your fortune, and let this unobstructed kid have insights. My Hong Kong Lai family's true Feng Shui mastery cannot be challenged!"

Warnia nodded slightly, glanced at Charlie, and said to Mr. Lai: "Mr., please do it as soon as possible!"

Mr. Lai immediately took out a few pieces of talisman paper, gestured to the void for a while, and shouted with words in his mouth: "All those who are facing the battle are arrayed in front of them, and they are as fast as the law!"

After that, he threw the pieces of talisman paper into the air, observing the direction and speed of the talisman paper scattered, then pointed to a pot of green plants in front of the window and said, "Miss, the problem is found! This window opens to the east. , It is the direction of the purple gas coming from the east, your fortune should flow in from the east, and this pot of green plants just blocked the eye and blocked your fortune!"

Chapter 209

When Warnia heard that Mr. Lai had found the key to the problem, she immediately asked with excitement, "Mr. Lai, will my fortune be better by removing the green plants?"

"Neither!"

Mr. Lai said with a serious face: "The feng shui formation is an invisible formation. Even if you remove the green plants, you can't remove its influence on the feng shui pattern. Warnia hurriedly asked, "What should I do? ! "

Mr. Lai said: "You should place the exorcism transporter refined by Masters in the place of the green plants! Only in this way can you completely eradicate your troubles, keep your fortune open, and the purple gas coming from the east!"

Warnia asked: "Then what is the thing that drives away evil spirits?"

Mr. Lai immediately took out an egg-sized stone from his pocket and said earnestly: "Miss, this is Taishan chalcedony. It is the essence of the entire Taishan stone that has been eroded and weathered for tens of millions of years. It is a magical product for exorcising evil and transporting! If you place this piece of Taishan chalcedony in the place of a green plant, all the evil aura will immediately dissipate. When the purple qi comes from the east, it will definitely go back!"

Warnia asked with joy, "Mr. Lai, how much does this Taishan Chalcedony cost? I will buy it!"

Upon hearing this, Mr. Lai's eyes flashed with excitement!

Immediately, he said with a serious face: "Miss Taishan, if this piece of Taishan Chalcedony is placed in Hong Kong, it will be worth at least 15 million, but I also have a relationship with the young lady. I will sell you this piece of Taishan Chalcedony for only Ten million."

Warnia nodded and said, "Money is not a problem, as long as it can really help me solve the trouble!"

Mr. Lai said without hesitation: "Miss, don't worry, if you put Taishan Chalcedony up now, your fortune will be completely changed tomorrow!"

Warnia breathed a sigh of relief immediately. She did not hesitate to bring the checkbook, and with a tender wave of her hand, she wrote a cash check for 10 million and handed it to Mr. Lai: "Mr. Lai, give that Taishan stone to me. Please make your formation!"

Warnia now only wants to solve the current trouble as soon as possible!

Recently, she has been tortured crazy by her own bad luck.

Just last month, just after her 24th birthday, she began to be unlucky.

First, there were various car accidents, and all five cars were damaged to varying degrees;

Not long after, she sprained her ankle again, and she is still in pain.

A few days ago, the relic left by her mother, and also her most cherished jewelry, was lost by her!

That jewelry has been with her for more than ten years, and it is almost her half-life. She offered a reward of several million, but there has been no news.

For this reason, she did not know how many times she cried quietly at night;

Yesterday, the Hong Kong Li family, which the Song family was actively cooperating with, added a lot of blockage to the Song family!

The two originally negotiated cooperation and were about to sign a contract, but the Li family in Hong Kong suddenly introduced a partner. Not only did they stop signing the contract with the Song family, but also revealed from all aspects that they wanted to cooperate with another partner.

For Warnia, this is tantamount to that the duck that brought its food to mouth but was suddenly taken away by someone else.

The loss this brought to the Song family was extremely huge, far more than she could bear!

All kinds of unlucky things continued, and Warnia had long been unable to bear it. At this moment, she just wanted to get in touch with this sad life, so as not to suffer more losses.

Therefore, it is very cost-effective for her to spend 10 million to solve the Feng Shui problem.

Mr. Lai got a check of 10 million, and his hands tremble a little with excitement.

Chapter 210

He hid the check in his body, and immediately took the Taishan chalcedony to the window sill, took down the pot of green plants, placed the stone on it, and kept chanting Taoist mantras.

Charlie looked at all this and sneered secretly.

This Mr. Lai not only doesn't understand sh!t, but also unknowingly self-defeated and caused a catastrophe!

In fact, he had already seen the weirdness of this house through the Feng Shui mystery in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures.

He could clearly feel that in this room, a very terrifying formation of trapped dragons in the mystery of Feng Shui was basically formed.

The so-called trapped dragon formation, as the name implies, in this formation, even if it is a dragon, it will be trapped, let alone the fortune of ordinary people.

Therefore, no matter how strong the fortune is, those who live in the trapped dragon will inevitably lose their fortune and continue to have bad luck.

The eldest lady lives in such a room, her own fortune is all trapped, and once a person's fortune is trapped, naturally one after another will be unlucky.

Fortunately, this trapped dragon formation has only begun to take shape and has not yet been perfected.

If it is really allowed to continue to improve, not only human fortune, but also human fate can be trapped in it.

Then it won't be bad luck, it is very likely that you will lose your life!

Coincidentally, the only loophole left by this trapped dragon formation is that pot of green plants!

Green plants are wood, representing life and vitality!

With it, it is tantamount to opening the only remaining life for this Array.

There is a student who can barely fight against the gathering of the trapped dragons, keeping the last bit of luck for the young lady.

However, Mr. Lai accidentally picked this place and put his broken stone here.

You know, stone is hard! Represents unbreakably!

Once this stone replaces the green plants, the dragon formation is almost complete!

At this time, Mr. Lai finished chanting the mantra and took a deep breath, saying: "Miss Lai, someone Lai has finished the formation, you can rest assured!"

Warnia hurriedly asked: "Then my future fortune can be restored? Wouldn't it be so bad?"

"Yes!" Mr. Lai nodded and said, "I rely on someone for his Feng Shui technique, which is famous in Guangdong, Hong Kong and Macau. Even Hong Kong tycoon Li Ka-shing and Macau gambling king Stanley Ho are also the Feng Shui clients of mine. Miss, don't worry!"

Warnia hurriedly asked: "Mr. Lai, I wonder if you can wish me to find the bracelet my mother left me? If possible, I would pay another 10 million!"

Mr. Lai scratched his head: "This eldest lady, I am good at Feng Shui mystery. Finding things is not my area of expertise."

Warnia nodded disappointedly: "It's okay, you reversed the current bad luck, I am very grateful to you, Mr. Lai."

As soon as she finished speaking, her cell phone rang. On the phone, a woman said hurriedly: "Mr. Song, it's not good, something has happened!"

Warnia hurriedly asked, "What's the matter?"

The other party said: "The shipment we exported to the United States was just unloaded in the United States. As a result, the other company said that our product was not up to standard and we had to return it in accordance with the contract and claim triple compensation!"

Warnia suddenly glared, and blurted out in a panic: "The five thousand tons of goods will be returned? This time, I have lost tens of millions of transportation fees and customs declaration fees, plus triple the compensation. Several hundred million!"

Chapter 211

Warnia couldn't understand why Mr. Lai just changed her fortune, and then there was such a big problem?

At the moment on the phone, he said: "There is no way, Miss, now the other party strongly demands triple compensation, we are very passive!"

Warnia hurriedly asked: "Could it be a mistake? Did you ask them to test it again!"

The other party said: "I have already told them, but they said that after monitoring twice, the goods still failed the test!"

Warnia blurted out: "Check the source immediately to see our export records. When was this batch of goods produced and who was responsible? Find out and tell me clearly!"

After that, she said again: "In the U.S., you can drag as long as you can, and then send a few people over to check it out!"

"OK, mam!"

After hanging up the phone, Warnia's expression was cloudy. She looked at Mr. Lai and asked, "Mr. Lai I have encountered another particularly difficult thing. If it can't be solved, the loss may exceed 500 million. Haven't you reversed the fortune?!"

Mr. Lai dodged Warnia's eyes, and said falteringly: "Stopping adversity also takes time, and it cannot be done overnight."

Warnia replied: "Then it will improve slowly, and there shouldn't be new bad luck suddenly!"

At this time, Warnia called again, and it turned out to be the eldest son of the Hong Kong Li family!

She hurriedly connected the phone, smiled and said, "Hello, Gongzi Li!"

"Miss Song." The other party said in a cold voice: "We thought about it and felt that the Song family was not the best partner in our eyes, so we might unilaterally terminate the cooperation."

"Termination of cooperation?!" Warnia suddenly became anxious and blurted out: "Mr. Li, you should be able to see that we are obviously superior in all aspects compared to others! The cooperation between the Li family and our Song family is the best and Good choice"

The other party chuckled and said: "To be honest, a master next to my father is measuring Feng Shui for my father. He said that the aura of the Song family does not seem to match that of the Li family. If we continue to cooperate with you, it may affect the fortune of the Li family, so , I'm sorry Miss Song."

After speaking, he hung up phone.

This!

Warnia originally wanted to take this opportunity to take the Song family to the next level, but she was completely disappointed when she did not expect it to be empty.

Mr. Lai was already a little panicked at this time. He originally wanted to lie to her and leave as soon as possible. He didn't expect that after his own practice, Warnia suddenly became even more unlucky?

He felt that in this place shouldn't stay here for long, so he hurriedly said: "Miss Song, the change of Feng Shui fortune requires a process, so you must calm down. I believe that by tomorrow, everything will disappear! I will leave now!"

After he finished speaking, he was about to walk outside.

Warnia blurted out: "Wait a minute! Mr. Lai, this situation is obviously problematic! Why did I have two such big troubles immediately after you finished the formation!? Give me an explanation for everything you say! "

Just after speaking, Warnia felt a sharp pain in her lower abdomen, which made her sigh, almost unable to stand firm.

She barely stood firm by holding on to the TV on the wall, and the colic made her sweat!

She wondered, what was wrong! When this has not yet come, how can it happen to her.

She hasn't figured it out yet. There was another sharp pain in her lower abdomen. This pain made her legs soft and she could only hold the TV with her hands to keep standing.

At this time, the bracket of the TV on the wall suddenly clicked, and the metal bracket broke!

Chapter 212

Seeing that the sixty-inch big TV slammed into her feet in a daze, Charlie hurriedly stepped forward and took her hand, and violently pulled her into his arms.

With a loud noise, the TV set fell off and hit the ground heavily.

The casing and screen suddenly shattered, and a piece of shattered hard plastic was snapped out, wiping Warnia's slender white calf and flew by.

"Ah!" Warnia felt a sharp pain in her calf, and when she lowered her head, it had already cut a two to three centimeters long opening, and blood poured out in an instant.

Charlie hurriedly took out a tissue from his pocket, squatted down to help her cover the wound, and asked: "Miss, do you have disinfection products such as iodophor at home?"

Warnia was a little angry when Charlie touched her calf, just about to have an attack, but when she thought that Charlie had saved her just now, she suppressed the fire.

She immediately looked at Lai Buyi and asked with obvious anger: "Mr. Lai, if you don't give me a reasonable explanation today, don't go anywhere!"

When Orvel saw this, he grabbed Master Wade Lai by the neck and asked coldly: "d*mn, say! What did you do to our lady?!"

Mr. Lai cried and said, "I didn't do anything! I just set up a battle to help her change her fortune."

"You don't bluff me!" Orvel scolded angrily: "You changed her fortune for the worse, right?"

After that, Orvel gritted his teeth and cursed: "Say, did you collect money from someone and deliberately harm our eldest lady?"

Mr. Lai trembled in shock, and blurted out, "Big Brother, I didn't! I was not instructed by anyone."

Orvel grinned and said, "If you don't tell the truth, then I will chop you up and feed to the dog!"

After that, he immediately said to Warnia: "Miss, hand this b@stard over to me, I will let him evaporate from the world!"

Warnia was also very annoyed, and said coldly, "Mr. Lai, if you don't give me an explanation, then I can only order the people to do things!"

Mr. Lai hurriedly knelt on the ground, crying and said: "Miss, I just lied to you for some money, I really didn't hurt you!"

Warnia asked with a cold face: "What you did just now was all fooling me?"

"Yes." Mr. Lai hurriedly took out the check and begged for mercy: "I will refund you the money, please let me go."

Warnia stared at him for a while, seeing that he didn't seem to be lying, she felt even more desperate.

what happened? Is her fortune worse?

Suddenly, she suffered heavy losses. If this continues, the family business will be ruined in her own hands.

At this moment, Charlie, who had not spoken, suddenly said, "Miss, in fact, Mr. Lai did not do nothing."

Warnia looked at him and asked, "What does this mean?"

Charlie said calmly: "The layout of your room is matched with your own five elements to form a large array of trapped dragons on Feng Shui!"

"The Dragon Array will lock all your fortune into the formation. The reason there is still a little leeway is because the pot of green plants has left a gate for the Dragon Array."

After speaking, Charlie looked at the so-called Mr. Lai and smiled: "Unfortunately, this guy replaced the green plant with a stone. The stone is gold. This time, the gate is sealed. It doesn't matter if you remove it now. Use it, so your fortune will be lost instantly, and it will only get worse and worse."

Warnia was suddenly struck by lightning, and hurriedly put away the contempt for him before, bowed and clasped her fists and said pleadingly, "Mr. Charlie, please help!"

Chapter 213

Mr. Lai knew that he had caused a catastrophe when he heard this, and hurriedly said, "Miss Song, I didn't mean it! Mr. Wade please take that stone away quickly."

Charlie shook his head: "It's useless to take it away. The Dragon Array is closed. It's like throwing a stone into the water. Even if the stone is taken away, the water wave generated by the stone cannot be stopped."

Warnia looked at Charlie dumbfounded, and she couldn't help but respect him a little bit, and asked: "Mr. Wade please help me solve this troubled dragon formation. No matter how much money I have to spend, I will not hesitate!"

When Orvel heard that Charlie saw the doorway, he hurriedly said: "Mr. Charlie, please help our eldest lady."

Charlie nodded and said, "Miss Song, the Feng Shui in your room was not originally a trapped dragon, but this year is your natal year. Your own lifestyle has changed during this life year. It doesn't fit in with the Feng Shui of this room, so it forms a big trapped dragon formation."

After all, Charlie said again: "I want to change the Feng Shui of your room now, it may cause damage to your room, and I hope you don't mind."

Warnia said immediately: "Mr. please, even if you demolish this house, I have no objection!"

Charlie nodded and said to the housekeeper: "Uncle Boyu, please find a crowbar."

Boyu immediately said: "I will get it now!"

After a while, Boyu came in with a metal crowbar and asked: "Mr. Wade is this all right?"

"Give it to me."

Charlie looked around carefully, then pinched his fingers to make the final decision, then took a few steps in the room, pointed to a piece of wooden floor under his feet, and said, "Mr. Orvel, please pry this floor open."

Orvel nodded, did not go to help immediately, but looked at Mr. Lai and punched him in the abdomen.

With this punch down, Mr. Lai immediately spit out a mouthful of blood and wailed on the ground.

Orvel is a gangster like that, who has very practical experience. After this punch, Mr. Lai has no ability to sit up, let alone escape.

After that, Orvel took the crowbar from Boyu and raised the floor according to Charlie's instructions.

The floor was pried open, exposing the concrete floor.

Orvel asked him: "Mr. Charlie, what should I do next?"

Charlie said lightly: "The trapped dragon array must have a central axis, so I just deduced it. Below this should be the central axis of the trapped dragon array. The central axis of the trapped dragon array is driven by water, and the water flows through the eyes. It will produce the effect of locking the fortune, so if I am not wrong, there should be a water pipe line under this cement."

"Really?" Orvel asked in surprise: "Mr. Charlie, can your eyes see through?"

Charlie said indifferently: "It's not a perspective, but a deduction through the five elements and knowledge! For example, if you see the lights on the roof turn on, you can guess that the roof must be buried in telecommunications."

What Charlie said were all Feng Shui mysteries recorded in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures. Most people don't understand Feng Shui formation at all, so they can't guess where there is water or fire.

At this time, Charlie said again: "I think the cement on the water pipe should be very thin. You can see if you hit it hard with a crowbar a few times."

"Good!" Orvel suddenly slammed the concrete floor hard, breaking a thin layer of concrete away in a few strokes.

Everyone held their breath and watched, and as expected, they saw Orvel smash a PVC water pipe as thick as a thumb from the cement!

This kind of water pipe leads from the aisle to the bathroom, but there is only this one, that is, in a huge house, the water pipe can be anywhere.

However, Charlie was able to directly point out the specific location of the water pipe, which was a bit shocking!

Chapter 214

"It's amazing!" Not only Orvel was stunned, but Warnia and Boyu were also dumbfounded.

It's amazing to be able to find out the water pipes hidden in the cement.

Charlie said again: "Break open the water pipe and let the water spill out. Once the water comes out of the formation, it will break down the formation. Once the formation collapses, the it will no longer exist!"

Warnia hurriedly said, "Mr. Orvel, you must smash this water pipe!"

Orvel nodded and smashed the floor several times before smashing the water pipe.

A large swath of water mist spewed out in a flash, and Charlie, Warnia and Boyu all hurriedly backed away to avoid it.

When the water gushed out, Charlie discovered that the Dragon Dragon Formation had also been completely abolished because of the fatal damage.

Afterwards, Charlie said to Boyu: "Turn off the water valve, the dragon formation has been broken."

"This is broken?" Everyone looked incredulous.

Charlie said calmly: "It has been broken, and Miss Song's fortune has been suppressed for so many days, and she should soon flourish."

Just after speaking, Warnia's phone rang.

"Mr. Song, the American side called and said that they made a mistake in the sample. It is not our problem. Our goods are all qualified."

"Great!"

Warnia really took it! As soon as this breaks the formation, it immediately revolves

As soon as she hung up the call, she immediately said to Charlie with a look of gratitude: "Mr. Charlie, you are such a god! Thank you so much!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Miss Song, you are welcome. I have also been entrusted by Mr. Orvel to come and help. All should be done."

Hearing this, Orvel was so moved that he almost cried. He didn't expect that Charlie could still remember to speak for him at this time. In this way, he would definitely be able to remember his work with Missy!

He has always wanted to hug the eldest lady's thigh, but the eldest lady is more repulsive to people of his origin, so he has always been able to wander around the edge of the Song family's industry. With this credit, he will Surely you will be able to enter the Song family's direct line of troops!

Warnia looked at Mr. Orvel and said, "You took interest in this matter, and I will remember it."

Orvel hurriedly said: "Miss, this is my business!"

Warnia nodded. In front of Orvel, she was still the tall lady, but in front of Charlie, she was very respectful.

At this time, Warnia's cell phone rang again.

It's Gongzi Li from Hong Kong Li Family!

"Young Mr. Li?"

Warnia was a little bit dissatisfied with the pigeons being released by Gongzi Li.

Gongzi Li said on the phone, "Miss Song, I'm so sorry! Just a little misunderstanding, my father's Feng Shui master said, Miss Song, your fortune has changed suddenly, and now your wealth is soaring, and you are overwhelmed. I strongly recommend that we cooperate with your Song family. I sincerely hope that we can sign the contract as soon as possible. I want to fly to your city tomorrow. I wonder if I will be able to see you face to face?"

Chapter 215

Gongzi Li's attitude suddenly changed drastically, and Warnia was shocked, and her chin almost fell to the ground!

Although she was a little angry at what Gongzi Li had done before, she was about to shout out excitedly now.

But she restrained it and said, "In this case, let's make an appointment at a time and place for the signing ceremony."

Gongzi Li said immediately: "The sooner the signing is, the better, so let me fly to Aurous Hill tomorrow to meet you in person!"

Warnia hung up the phone, almost admiring Charlie

From the two phone calls made by Gongzi Li just now, she can just see the power of Charlie.

The liar, Mr. Lai, destroyed the only student of the Dragon Array. Gongzi Li immediately called and refused to cooperate. He also said that it was his father's Feng Shui master who saw that her luck was not good, and as soon as Charlie broke the formation, the opponent immediately called and said that her wealth was soaring, this was the best proof of Charlie's strength.

When Warnia was amazed, she received another call from a stranger, and the other party asked, "Is it Miss Song?"

"It's me, who are you?"

The other party said: "Miss Song, I am the manager of the Hermès store. You tried clothes and accessories in our store last week. Do you remember?"

Warnia said: "Well, remember, what's the matter?"

The other party said: "That's right, we just found a string of diamond jewelry in the corner of the fitting room with your name engraved on it. I think you should have left it in the store, so I called to confirm it!"

Warnia suddenly trembled with excitement, and asked: "Where is the bracelet now? Is it with you?"

"Yes, in our shop."

"Then I will fetch it!"

After hanging up the phone, Warnia could not control her tears. She looked at Charlie and choked with gratitude: "Mr. Charlie, the bracelet my mother left for me has been found. Thank you so much."

Charlie smiled and said, "Just find it. If Miss Song is in a hurry, please go and get it!"

Warnia nodded, hurriedly wrote a check for 20 million, handed it to Charlie, and said, "Mr. Charlie, this is a little heart, please accept it!"

Charlie smiled slightly and waved his hand.

20 million?

I really don't lack twenty million

I don't know how to spend nearly tens of billions of cash there. What do you want me to do with 20 million?

So, he said lightly: "Miss Song, you and I are also friends. There is no need to talk about money for this matter."

Warnia still insisted at this time: "Mr. Charlie, the twenty million is a part of my heart, so I hope you can accept it! Otherwise, I will really feel sorry!"

Charlie said indifferently: "Miss Song, there may be intersections in the future, so why bother to calculate the accounts so clearly."

When Warnia heard this, she suddenly realized that she hurriedly put away the check and said apologetically: "I'm sorry, Mr. Charlie, I am a little stupid. If something happens to Mr. Charlie in the future, Warnia dare not follow the instructions!"

Charlie gave a hum and said, "Okay, go get your bracelet back!"

Warnia nodded, she really couldn't wait to get her bracelet back, so after thanking Charlie, she hurriedly asked Boyu to drive her out.

After the two of them left, Orvel was also extremely grateful to Charlie, holding his hand, and excitedly said: "Mr. Charlie, you are so interesting! If you have anything in the future, even if you go up to the sword mountain or down the fire, I am also willing to put my heart on the ground for you!"

Chapter 216

Charlie smiled and said, "Remember your words, maybe I will have something to do for you in the future!"

Orvel hurriedly nodded: "Mr. Charlie, if you have anything, just order!"

At this time, Mr. Lai had been lying on the floor crying and begging for mercy: "Big Brother, please I am a bullsh*t! I will never dare anymore!"

Orvel sneered: "You liar, my people will come right away, and they will arrange it for you!"

Charlie asked in a low voice, "What are you going to do with him?"

Orvel said coldly: "I said how to chop up and feed the dog, how can I say nothing? I have a little brother who opened a dog-fighting kennel, let alone him, ten sc*m he can also eat with those dogs.

Charlie glanced at him without any sympathy.

This kind of deceitful liar is no different from a quack doctor. If a quack doctor is not cured, he will kill people. If you mess with this kind of fake Feng Shui, you may also die.

To put it bluntly, they are all rascal b@stards, and they are indeed dead.

Moreover, today, in order to defraud Warnia's money, he completely completed the trapped dragon formation. Warnia could have run out of life soon.

People like her control hundreds of billions of assets. If her fortune and fate are all exhausted, I don't know how many people below will be implicated. In that case, Warnia will not be the only one killed!

Therefore, there is really no need for such a sc*m to stay in the world.

At this time, Orvel's younger brother came over, set up the deceitful Mr. Lai and took away.

When Mr. Lai left, the ghost cried and howled, crying how miserable, innocent, and regretful he was, but no one sympathized with him.

Charlie shook his head as he watched, and said that he had a bloody disaster today, he didn't believe him, he really deserved it.

After solving all the problems, Orvel thanked Charlie a lot, and only then sent him home.

After returning home, Claire was still looking for work online.

Charlie didn't say much. In fact, Charlie himself wanted to support Claire in starting a company, but it seemed that Claire didn't have this idea, so he didn't say much.

He also didn't want Claire to be too tired. If she were to start a company and start a business, she would have a lot of work in the early stage. With Claire's personal character, she would suffer a lot.

In the evening, Charlie received a call from his good brother Darren in college.

Since the last time helped him teach a lesson to the adulterer and his ex in the hospital, Charlie has never seen him again. The main reason is that there are too many things in the family that he really can't take care of.

Darren told Charlie on the phone that he had almost recovered and was discharged today.

Since Charlie helped him get back to the hotel and paid millions in compensation, the first thing he did when he was discharged from the hospital was to invite a few better classmates to dinner.

Seeing that his good brother was about to be discharged from the hospital, Charlie naturally readily agreed.

At this time, Claire walked out of the bathroom after taking a shower, and casually asked Charlie: "It's so late, who is calling you?"

Charlie said indifferently: "Darren is discharged from the hospital. We are going to have a dinner. Let's go together tomorrow."

Claire nodded and said, "Okay."

Chapter 217

At noon the next day.

Charlie drove his wife Claire to Fenglin Hotel.

Although Fenglin Hotel is not top-notch in Aurous Hill, it can be regarded as a luxury level, enough to show Darren's sincerity.

This time Darren was also considered to be bleeding, and he directly booked a luxurious box in the Fenglin Hotel.

The box is luxuriously decorated, enough to accommodate twenty people, and the initial consumption alone is seven or eight thousand.

After Charlie arrived, many people had already arrived in the box, besides Darren and Elsa, there were also a few classmates.

Elsa has not had a good time recently.

She has come to Aurous Hill from Yenching University for a long time, so as to have the opportunity to get in touch with the chairman of the Emgrand Group. However, after working for so long, she has never had a chance to see the real person of the chairman!

Moreover, she used to be the administrative director inside the company, but now it's better to go straight out to be the sales director. She runs around outside every day.

What made her tortured even more was that she had been obsessed with that man since she was rescued by that mysterious man last time.

Therefore, her desire to meet the chairman of the Emgrand Group is not as great as before. Now she only wants to see her lifesaver, because she feels as if she has fallen in love with the mysterious man at first sight.

But she couldn't think of it. In fact, the chairman of the Emgrand Group and the mysterious lifesaver were actually the same person, Charlie.

Seeing Charlie and Claire entering the box, Darren hurriedly stood up and said: "Charlie, Claire, you are here, sit down have a seat."

Darren greeted Charlie and Claire with a very respectful tone, and he admired and appreciated this good brother.

Elsa looked a little haggard when she saw the two of them. She felt that she had a stomach and no one could say anything. Seeing Claire, she suddenly had the urge to talk.

So she stepped forward and took Claire's wrist and said weakly, "Claire, let's sit together. I have something to tell you."

Claire smiled and said, "What's wrong with you, looking listless?"

Elsa sighed and said, "It's not because of my mysterious lifesaver. I found that I have fallen in love with him completely. Now I close my eyes and I am full of him in my head. It is him who I see in sleeps and dreams, but I can't find him. What should I do with him"

"This, I can't help it." Claire helplessly spread her hands. After Elsa was rescued by a mysterious man, she shouted all day to find that man. But there are so many people, where can I find him? A single mysterious person?

Charlie on the side just sat down and heard Claire and Elsa's words, a cold sweat broke out on his forehead, Elsa actually fell in love with him?

This is too ridiculous, don't let Elsa know that her male god is him, otherwise there will definitely be a mess!

After three rounds of wine and food, Darren began to liven up the atmosphere again: "Everyone, thank you all for coming today. I will toast to everyone."

After speaking, he drank it all.

Several well-connected classmates applauded one after another: "Mr. Darren is great!"

Charlie smiled faintly, took a sip from the wine glass.

"I heard that Mr. Darren is now the big boss, he opened a big hotel, he still has two million cash in his hand, and he knows people on in the influential circles, he must take care of us in the future."

A coquettish woman dressed in enchanting clothes with light makeup on her face smiled charmingly.

Chapter 218

"Juan Thompson, what you said, Darren and us are the best classmates. If something happens, he will definitely give us a hand.

A man with a Chinese character face also picked up a wine glass and drank it in one go.

Charlie glanced over them faintly, vaguely remembering that the two of them were his college classmates, the female was Juan Thompson, and the male was Jianhua Liu.

Darren said embarrassedly: "What it is, It is really a long story, not worth mentioning!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie and sighed with emotion.

When he met a s*umbag, he had almost been deceived for nothing, and was even beaten up.

However, it is precisely because of Charlie's help that he could retake the hotel and receive two million in compensation.

It can be said that this was all given by Charlie, so how embarrassed to take it out.

So, he turned the topic off and said: "Jianhua is doing well now. I heard that you have become an executive of a company, and you have an annual salary of 700,000 to 800,000."

Jianhua sighed and said, "Don't mention it, that company is too bad. I'm about to resign and go to Xinhe Company to try. I heard that our university classmate Qiang Han was a senior manager there. Now it's pretty good! Unexpectedly, this kid could have this ability!"

"Oh, he" Darren smiled awkwardly. His relationship with Qiang Han was not good, so Qiang Han was not invited to this party.

However, Jianhua and Qiang Han are very close. If they go to Xinhe Company and have Qiang Han's support, they must be able to mix in a good position.

Elsa also said thoughtfully: "I heard that Xinhe Company in Aurous Hill is also a good large company, and it is quite strong. I can't expect Qiang Han to mix so well now."

Claire suddenly froze when she heard Xinhe Company.

After breaking with the Willson family, she was expelled from the Willson Group. In order to find a job, she has put in a lot of resumes these days, one of which is Xinhe Company.

Thinking of this, Claire smiled and said, "It just so happens that I have to apply for a job at Xinhe Group. If it passes, we will work in a company in the future."

Juan on the side asked in astonishment: "In the beginning, you have been in the Willson Group well, why should you go to Xinhe Company to submit your resume?"

Claire said helplessly: "I have drawn a clear line from the Willson family now, so I have to go out and find a new job, otherwise I can't support my family."

When Juan heard this, she looked at Charlie's eyes full of contempt: "Charlie, look at how hard it was in the beginning. As a man, you actually let your woman fall to this point, you are too Useless."

The relationship between Jianhua and Charlie is not good, so she laughed unscrupulously: "Charlie, or go to Qiang Han's company to apply, although with your ability, you can only be a cleaner. , But for the face of old classmates, it's okay to let you be a cleaning foreman."

Charlie said lightly: "You should keep this good thing for yourself, I'm not interested."

Seeing him so unappreciative, Jianhua said uncomfortably: "Charlie, I know you have a strong self-esteem, but you see now, everyone is better than you, I advise you to recognize the reality."

Darren frowned and said, "Okay, today is the day of our classmate's reunion. Don't run against Charlie like this."

After that, Darren said apologetically to Charlie: "Charlie, you must not take to your heart, Juan and Jianhua are so straightforward."

Juan snorted coldly and said, "Darren, who made Charlie this Rubbish always look calm and unreliable. He has no ability, and he is quite good at pretending to be compelling."

Jianhua added disdainfully: "He is just a poor d*ck"

Chapter 219

Charlie's eyes were very cold, but looking at Darren's face, he didn't bother to be familiar with these two idiots.

Seeing this, Juan and Jianhua looked down on Charlie even more. They were ridiculed. They didn't even dare to put a bullsh*t. They were a waste!

Jianhua continued sarcastically: "Hey, if you want me to tell you, Claire is really blind. If so many good boys in our class don't look for her, why did she pick a rag like Charlie?"

As he was speaking, at this moment, the door of the box was suddenly pushed open.

"Boom"

Several sturdy men in black broke into the box, and one of them, a young man with a cigarette in his head, said coldly: "Get out of here, I want this box."

Jianhua frowned and said, "What are you doing? Didn't you see us eating?"

After speaking, he patted the table and said, "This is the Fenglin Hotel. Don't you understand the rules of first come first come first?"

"First come first?"

The young man with a cigarette holding a small inch walked up to Jianhua and slapped him directly. Jianhua fell to the ground, his face swollen immediately.

"You *fcking pretend to be forceful with me? I'm the fcking Leopard Lin under Orvel! who the h*ll are you!*"

"Leopard Lin?"

Jianhua held his face, his eyes panicked. Leopard is a famous leader in this area. Although it's not a big deal in Aurous Hill, it is a person who no one can afford to offend.

"Sorry Leopard, let's go now, let's go!"

Leopard sneered and looked at the crowd cursing: "What are you doing in a daze? Don't get out of here!"

Elsa and Claire panicked, and subconsciously hid behind Charlie

Charlie looked at Leopard Lin and said coldly: "For Mr. Orvel's face, you get out now, I can spare your life!"

"fck, Charlie, you're fcking crazy, this is Leopard, Brother Leopard!"

"Sorry Brother Leopard, we are not familiar with this Charlie, just ask him if you have anything, don't hurt us"

Jianhua and Juan criticized Charlie for being bloody. What a f*cking pretense, this is Orvel's Leopard! It's a murderous person who has seen blood. You don't want to look to him like this unless you are looking for death!

However, the man named Leopard hesitated. He looked at Charlie as if he was thinking of something. His expression suddenly changed and he said tentatively: "You are Charlie Wade?"

Leopard has been following Orvel for a long time. He had the privilege of hearing Charlie's name, and then suddenly remembered.

Charlie said coldly: "Could there be two other Charlie Wades in Aurous Hill?!"

Leopard was struck by thunder, and immediately knelt on the ground: "I'm sorry Mr. Wade, I didn't know that it were you Master. I deserve a million deaths!"

Jianhua watched this scene and said blankly: "Brother Leopard, is there any misunderstanding? It's true that this person is called Charlie, but he is just a Rubbish son-in-law, not a master at all!"

Leopard Lin turned pale when he heard this, and kicked Jianhua to the ground: "B@stard, your mother, are you looking for death? Dare to insult Mr. Wade and see if I won't kill you today!"

Although Leopard can be regarded as the number one person in the surrounding area, he knew in his heart that he was a dog of Orvel, and facing Charlie, Orvel had to kneel and lick, and he was even qualified to lick the bottom. Dare not have it!

"And you btch, you fcking dare to insult Mr. Wade!"

While talking, Leopard turned his head and gave Juan a slap, bleeding her mouth.

Chapter 220

"Oh, Leopard Lin, we still have to eat, please get out of here!"

Charlie didn't bother to care about a small character like Leopard, so he directly bowed his hand and let him go.

Leopard nodded and bowed his waist and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I'll get out of here! Get out of here now!"

After finishing speaking, like a pug, he quickly retreated from the box.

In the box, don't mention how uncomfortable Jianhua and Juan were. Charlie, who had just been mocked by them in every possible way, turned into Mr. Wade in the mouth of Brother Leopard. What the h*ll was going on?

There must be some misunderstanding inside, Charlie is just a waste! Also worthy of being called Lord, a master?

Darren said to the two of them: "You two, let's have a snack in the future. You must be low-key when you come out. What should be said and what should not be said, think before you speak, it could bring you big trouble!"

Jianhua and Juan had just been beaten by Leopard, and now they dare not even let go.

Darren then said to Charlie: "Charlie, thanks to you, I toast you on behalf of everyone, thank you!"

Charlie smiled faintly: "It's just a small matter."

The next day, Claire received an interview invitation from Xinhe Company.

The interview was scheduled in the afternoon, and Charlie took advantage of Claire's attention and took out his cell phone to call Solmon White.

After the call was connected, Solmon White's respectful voice rang: "Mr. Wade, what are your instructions?"

Charlie said lightly: "My wife is going to apply for a job at Xinhe Construction Company. I want to ask you about this company."

Solmon White was surprised and said: "Xinhe Construction Company? This company is a wholly-owned enterprise controlled by the White family. Miss Willson is going to apply for this company? This is too bad for Miss Willson, or I will just remove the chairman of the company. How about changing Miss Willson as the next Chairman?"

Charlie was stunned when he heard the words, he was a little surprised that Xinhe Company belonged to the White family.

If Solmon White can help, it would be good, but after thinking about it, his wife wanted to rely on her own ability, so he said lightly: "No, you just arrange it then and let my wife pass the interview."

Solmon White immediately respectfully said: "Okay Mr. Wade, I will arrange it now."

Here, after Solmon White just hung up the phone, he immediately asked his assistant to send a notice to the senior management of Xinhe Company. The thing Mr. Wade ordered, he must do well.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, Claire was about to leave for an interview at Xinhe Company.

Since the car was sent to the 4s shop for maintenance today, Charlie and Claire had no choice but to take a taxi, but this was the peak time. The two waited on the roadside for a long time and did not get a taxi.

Claire was a little anxious, and said helplessly: "If I miss the interview with Xinhe Company a little later, it would definitely give them a bad impression. I would not have sent the car for maintenance if I knew it."

Charlie was also very helpless. Looking at the number of taxis, there are more than fifty people who can turn to him. It's really a mistake.

At this time, a black Rolls-Royce Phantom slowly stopped in front of the two.

The window rolled down and the person inside was Solmon White. He was surprised and said: "Mr. Charlie, are you planning to take a taxi?"

Charlie was stunned for a moment. It's a coincidence that Solmon White just made it?

So he said: I want to take my wife to the Xinhua company for an interview, why are you here?"

Chapter 221

Solmon White said quickly: "Mr. Charlie, it's peak time. It is estimated that it is difficult to get a taxi. If you don't dislike it, I will give you two a ride.

Although Claire felt a little strange that Solmon White had just arrived, she said with embarrassment: "This is too troublesome for Mr. White."

"No trouble, no trouble at all." Solmon White hurriedly got out of the car and opened the door for the two of them, very happy.

Seeing this, Charlie touched his nose and didn't say a word. He knew that Solmon White had seized the opportunity to kneel, and he would definitely not let it go. It happened that he needed to use him too, so there was no reason to refuse.

The driver drove in front, and Solmon White sat in the passenger seat, chatting casually with Charlie.

As soon as she got into the car, Claire was very puzzled as she listened to the conversation between the two.

This Solmon White is also a successful person in Auros Hill. He has a higher status in the business circle than the Old Mrs. Willson. He is usually stable, but Claire clearly feels that Solmon White seems to be playing Charlie's flattery, and he is particularly numb.

She took a peek at Charlie, and saw that his face was natural, neither humble nor overbearing, and even more weird.

Logically speaking, in front of Solmon White and other figures, ordinary people are only stubborn and try their best to please, but Charlie looks indifferent, and he doesn't even pay attention to Solmon White.

What's more amazing is that Solmon White gave Charlie a villa worth more than 100 million, which is really strange!

However, Claire had long heard that Solmon White was particularly superstitious of metaphysics. He would still burn incense and worship God of Wealth at home on the fifth and fifteenth of each month. It just so happened that Charlie seemed to have studied such mysterious things. For this reason Solmon White was so polite to Charlie.

However, these feudal superstitions, anyway, she firmly does not believe.

Ten minutes later, the car had stopped at the door of Xinhe Construction Company.

As soon as the car stopped, Solmon White hurriedly got out of the car and opened the door for the two of them.

Claire hurriedly said "Thank you Mr. White", and then followed Charlie to Xinhe Construction Company.

"Mr. Wade, I'll be here waiting for you to come out." Solmon said.

Charlie nodded to him and said, "Thank you for sending us here, but you don't have to wait here. I don't know when you will come out. You just need to go."

"It's okay, I'm fine today."

Solmon White nodded and bowed his waist and smiled: "The White family hasn't been doing good business recently. He's really worried. I have to take the time to consult with you."

Charlie smiled and said, "Are you from a chicken? This year's fleeting year is Tai Sui, chickens and dogs are incompatible, and the two are incompatible with each other. You can buy some herbs such as Zak Ai, Tribulus Terrestris, Cangzhu, Poria, etc. Take a few more medicated baths to get rid of the eczema, and the fortune should not be so bad. The internal dampness is caused by the evil, and the evil invades, not only affecting the body, but also affecting the air transport.”

Solmon White was stunned when he heard the words, even his eyes were almost staring.

After Charlie finished speaking, he turned and left.

Solmon White was still shocked, and he murmured after a long while: “God, Mr. Wade is really an outsider in the world! Even the eczema on my thigh can be counted, even my wife doesn’t know it!”

With a look of worship, he respectfully bowed to Charlie’s back, and bowed deeply.

It seems that he insisted on holding Charlie’s golden thigh, he was holding it right! !

Solmon White looked complacent and snorted coldly: “Old Sol, don’t think that if you walked up to Mr. Charlie’s big tree, you were lucky! I hold my thighs by my strength, and I am no worse than you!”

Charlie walked into the hall and sent Claire into the interview room.

Claire entered the interview room, there were still a few interviewers, she was queuing.

Charlie was boring and wandered around the hall. He glanced downstairs from the window, and saw that Solmon White was still waiting. He couldn’t help but shook his head.

The White family had no choice but to treat him as an ancestor.

In the office.

Chapter 222

Qiang Han sat behind his desk, with his legs on the table, holding his mobile phone with interest, and flirting with several women on a mobile app. At this moment, the phone buzzed and a text message popped up.

Qiang Han was impatient for a while, reluctantly opened the text message, and saw the interview plan sent by the personnel department.

After that, his brows immediately frowned, and his face was shocked.

After reading the text message, he sneered mockingly, picked up the phone and shook the people around him: "Guess, who has the letter?"

On the sofa in front of Qiang Han, there was a man and a woman sitting on the sofa. It was Juan and Jianhua who came to cheat on Qiang Han.

Juan wore a tight skirt with a low-cut, hot waves, showing an enchanting look all over her body. While picking her nails, she asked: "Who?"

"Charlie and Claire!" After Qiang Han finished speaking, he immediately let out a disdainful cry, and said with a smile: "It's really strange that Claire wants to send us a letter to apply for the job."

Jianhua said dissatisfied: "Why did she come?"

Juan said: "I heard from Claire yesterday that she and Charlie have been kicked out of the Willson family. She must come out to find a job."

Jianhua snorted coldly: "Qiang Han, this rubbish was able to pretend to be coercive yesterday, causing me and Juan to be beaten up. You have to help us out!"

Qiang Han said disdainfully: "I used to think that Charlie was very upset, but now his wife still wants to write a letter to apply for a job? It's a dream!"

With that said, Qiang Han tidied up his clothes and said lightly: "You are waiting here, I will now reject Claire and let her go straight away!"

Upon hearing this, Juan and Jianhua showed smirking smiles. Now, let's see how Claire and Charlie cry!

Qiang Han walked out of the office and went directly to the conference room dedicated to interviews.

In the conference room at this time, there were three interviewers sitting, and it was Claire who was interviewing.

"Hello, Mr. Qiang Han!"

When the three interviewers saw Qiang Han coming in, they quickly stood up and bowed.

Qiang Han deliberately exclaimed at Claire: "Oh! Claire! Why are you here?"

Claire was also surprised and said, "It's been a long time since I saw you Qiang Han."

Qiang Han glanced at Claire faintly, then smiled and nodded: "Long time no see."

Then he said directly to the three interviewers: "You can go out, here I will be interviewing."

"Mr. Qiang Han, is this bad?"

"What's wrong, can't I still decide that a small interview will fail?"

"OK President Qiang Han!"

Qiang Han is an executive of Xinhe. Of course, the interviewer did not dare to offend him, and immediately left the conference room.

Seeing this, Claire was very puzzled. What Qiang Han meant was that they were all old classmates. Is he trying to open a back door for himself?

"Claire, I heard that you are applying for the job this time, I rushed over here specially."

As Qiang Han said, he looked at Claire unceremoniously, and secretly regretted that Claire was so beautiful and of good figure, but she was much stronger than those women on mobile apps.

It's a pity that she turned out to be Charlie's Rubbish woman!

Chapter 223

Claire didn't know that Qiang Han had no good intentions at this time. Seeing him so polite, she quickly said, "Qiang Han, you are so polite."

Qiang Han smiled pretentiously, took out Claire's resume from the table, flipped through it pretendingly, and then said very embarrassed: "Claire, your resume is not very suitable for us. Ability or qualifications are a bit short."

Having said that, Qiang Han sighed and said, "Sorry, Claire, your interview failed, I suggest you to go to another company to try!"

Claire was taken aback, and hurriedly said: "How can you say that. I was in the management in the Willson Group, and there is absolutely no problem with my professional ability."

Qiang Han shook his head and said seriously: "No, no, no, your so-called qualifications and abilities are all because you are from the Willson family. After you leave the Willson family, you are actually nothing!"

"Okay." Claire's face sank, and Qiang Han was clearly targeting her.

Thinking of this, Claire didn't mention how angry she was, knowing that Xinhe's work was already an extravagant hope, and she no longer had a good face, got up and walked out directly.

Qiang Han smiled triumphantly behind her, and muttered: "As long as I stay in the faith for one day, you don't have to come in!"

At this moment, Charlie was waiting in the rest area. After a while, he saw Claire walking out with aggrieved expression.

He hurriedly greeted her and asked in confusion, "What's wrong with my wife? Didn't the application go smoothly?"

Claire's eyes blushed and she directly told the story of the interview.

After listening to Clarie, his heart became angry.

This Qiang Han is really shameless. I didn't bother him and it was enough to give him face. How dare he show my wife a face?

Thinking of this, he directly sent a message to Solmon White: "Qiang Han of Xinhe Group is a little jumpy. Even dared to bully my wife. How is President White going to solve it?"

At this time, Solmon White was waiting for Charlie with his bodyguards in the lobby downstairs. After receiving this text message abruptly, he was frightened!

d*mn, I was deliberately trying to fawn on Charlie, this Qiang Han even dared to offend his wife, isn't this man looking for trouble for himself?

In anger, Solmon White immediately said to the assistant without hesitation: "Call all the members of the Trust and Board of Directors!"

Xinhe Construction Co., Ltd. itself is a subsidiary of White's family, so Solmon White's majesty here is like an emperor.

Solmon White had just arrived, and a large number of executives from the board of directors hurried over.

As the head of the White family, Solmon White, the group of Xinhe people cannot offend him. If he disbands Xinhe in a rage, everyone will have to sleep on the street.

Qiang Han is not a member of the board of directors, so he doesn't know how much trouble he has caused.

After driving away Claire, he returned to his office, sitting on the office chair with a smug face and smoking a cigar.

When Jianhua and Juan heard that he had chased Claire away, they both felt extremely relieved of their hatred. They surrounded him one by one to praise: "Mr. Qiang Han is really awesome, and your one sentence made Claire go."

"That is, President Qiang Han is a senior executive of Xinhe. Among us classmates, the best mix is President Han."

Juan and Jianhua touted Qiang Han, thinking in their hearts that if they can hug Qiang Han's thighs, they will have a bright future, not to mention the development.

Qiang Han said triumphantly: "I used to think Charlie was not pleasing to the eye, but now his wife wants to apply for Xinhe, but there is no door for such people in the company!"

Juan said: "Oh, Mr. Han, you should have taken a video with your phone just now. I really want to see how ugly Claire's expression is after being rejected!"

Qiang Han laughed and said, "It's like fcking crying, so fcking laughing at me!"

Jianhua hurriedly asked, "What about Charlie? Did you follow it?"

"I haven't seen him." Qiang Han snorted coldly, and said, "If Charlie dares to come, I f*cking spray him directly, the smelly wire still dared to write a letter, and I will break his legs!"

Juan complimented: "Mr. Qiang Han, you are really amazing! How could Charlie's stinky rag compare to you!"

Chapter 224

Qiang Han laughed and said, "Wait, when I join the board of directors of Xinhe Company, these people will look up and worship me!"

Jianhua hurriedly asked: "Mr. Han, are you going to join the board of directors?"

"Almost. Qiang Han said with a smile: "It's in operation. If nothing happens, I will go in in a few months! "

"You are really amazing!" Jianhua gave a thumbs up and exclaimed: "Mr. Qiang Han, don't forget me, brother in the future!"

Qiang Han nodded: "Don't worry, I will take care of you."

As he was talking, there was a loud bang, and the door of Qiang Han's office was kicked open.

"Who the h*ll dare to kick my door"

Qiang Han was taken aback and was about to scold him. He turned around and saw all the members of the board of directors arrived, complimenting a middle-aged man in a suit, and quickly and he swallowed the words into his stomach.

Solmon White looked at Qiang Han gloomily and said, "Are you Qiang Han?"

Qiang Han was stunned and nodded and said, "It's me."

Without saying anything, Solmon White slapped him on the face.

"You're going to f*cking die, who gives you the right to refuse Miss Willson's interview!"

Qiang Han's face immediately swelled into a pig's head, and he was stupefied: "Who are you? Dare to beat me!"

"Hit you? I not only hit you, I can kill you!"

Solmon White kicked Qiang Han to the ground, stepped on his head and said, "Do you know that Mr. Wade told me that I must pass Miss Willson's interview, but I was messed up by your rubbish. Don't let you pay, my name Solmon White is written backwards!"

Qiang Han was shocked. Hearing the words Solmon White, he still didn't understand that he had kicked the iron plate.

Solmon White, that is Master of Xinhe, the owner of the White family!

The entire Xinhe belongs to the White family, and he actually provoked such a big man. What is the situation?

"President White, I really didn't know this happened. If I knew it, I wouldn't dare to give such a thing try, Mr. White, please calm down!"

Qiang Han was stepped on the ground by Solmon White, and he dared not move like a dead dog, so he could only plead.

Juan and Jianhua were even more terrified, and they didn't dare to put any nonsense.

Is it because of Charlie again? !

How did Charlie know Solmon White? He was just a waste son-in-law!

Juan and Jianhua didn't know that the big man in their eyes was Charlie's dog at all. They were begging for mercy just to hold Charlie's thigh.

"Qiang Han, from now on, you are fired by Xinhe, and according to the contract, you are a major liability accident, and you have to compensate the company for 5 million!"

Qiang Han was suddenly struck by lightning!

Five million, he didn't have that much money even after selling himself!

Qiang Han knelt on the ground immediately and kept kowtowing: "Mr. White, you give me another chance, I will apologize to Claire, I really know I was wrong!"

Solmon White sneered, "Apologize? Are you worthy of it?"

With that said, Solmon White kicked Qiang Han away and told others: "Pass on, Qiang Han has offended Mr. Wade. The White family now bans him from all aspects. We must let this rubbish live on the streets!"

Chapter 225

Qiang Han collapsed directly, his eyes filled with despair.

The reason why he can be reused is that he became an executive at a young age, and it has a lot to do with him actively signing a contract.

In order to strengthen the control of employees, Xinhe has issued a very demanding management contract, which can be promoted after signing, but after signing, it will be fully bound by Xinhe.

For example, Qiang Han, after he signed this agreement, it was reused, but he had to work hard and be loyal. Once he didn't work hard, or had disagreements, Xinhe Company would file a huge claim against him.

Many people are afraid to take responsibility, so they dare not sign such a contract, but Qiang Han just graduated that year, in order to climb up, he closed his eyes and signed the contract.

Unexpectedly, now it finally turned into bitter wine!

Qiang Han knelt on the ground, his whole body almost collapsed.

All his life bets are placed on Xinhe Company, but now Xinhe has is suing him for a claim of 5 million. At the same time, Solmon White wants to block him.

In this way, how can he still find a job? Without a job, there is no income, and life is in trouble.

And at the same time, he has to face a recovery of 5 million. So besides going to prison, there is no other possibility for him now.

He knelt on the ground like crazy, kowtow to Solmon White desperately, crying with snot and tears: "Mr. White, please forgive me this time and give me another chance, Mr. White! If I am blocked, I don't have the money to pay the company five million. Please give me a chance to stay in the company and act as a donkey for you. I will definitely catch my tail, be an honest man, and make contributions to the company!"

Solmon White kicked him, kicked him all the way, and said coldly, "Now knowing what's the use of admitting a mistake? You thought the world was created by your house. If you got into trouble and said I'm sorry, you will be forgiven? Tell you, if Mr. Wade gets angry with me because of you, then I will kill you!"

Qiang Han trembled in fright and his face was pale as paper. He did not expect that Charlie, the Rubbish in his eyes, had such a large amount of energy that Solmon White could kill a person like himself for him!

If he had known this long time ago, he would rather kneel down for Claire and call her sister as soon as he meet, and would never refuse her.

Now, it's too late to say anything, he's done for his life

At this moment, Solmon White frowned and noticed Juan and Jianhua in the office again, and asked: "Who are you two? Are you friends with Qiang Han? Or are you Xinhe employees?"

Juan and Jianhua were awakened immediately, and quickly denied: "No, no, we have nothing to do with Qiang Han, we don't even know him."

At this time, it was too late to clear up the relationship with Qiang Han, how could they admit that

Solmon White asked suspiciously: "Really? Then why were you talking and laughing with him in his office?"

Seeing this, Qiang Han said angrily: "Mr. White, they are my college classmates. They were the ones who encouraged me to suppress Claire!"

Qiang Han was going crazy, he had such a miserable end, and he couldn't get rid of Juan and Jianhua, and they want to have a good end for themselves.

Solmon White said coldly: "It turns out that the dog bit the dog and blocked the two people together!"

When Jianhua heard this, he became anxious, and went crazy with Qiang Han: "Qiang Han, you drag me into the water? You can't die a simple death!"

At this moment, Charlie had already taken a taxi and went home with Claire.

Charlie looked at Claire, and saw that she hadn't spoken anything along the way, and thoughtfully, he said: "For work, I will look for it in two days. They didn't hire you, but they had no eyes. It seems that this company is not big, and going there will limit your future development.”

Chapter 226

Claire sighed and said, “Now that it’s hard to find a job, I can only continue to look for it and see my luck.

Charlie asked her: “Do you want to go to the Emgrand Group?”

Claire shook her head and said, “How can I enter the Emgrand Group, and the Emgrand Group has strict audits and ratings. It would be embarrassing for me to start from the grassroots level.”

Charlie sighed and said, “My wife, in fact, I think you should start your own business!”

“Start my own business?” Claire asked in surprise: “How to create?”

Charlie said: “You have been in this industry for many years, and you have accumulated a lot of contacts. Doris of the Emgrand Group seems to be very good with you. Solmon White is now counting on me to show him Feng Shui. That can also help.”

Claire laughed at him and said: “You have to start a company with at least two to three million in capital, and there will be more subsequent investments. How can we have so much money to invest in it.”

Charlie said: “I can help you find a solution for the funding problem! I still know a few people!”

Charlie smiled and said, “If you really have this idea, the registered capital is not a problem.”

Claire raised her head and said, “Charlie, I know that you know many business friends like President White. It is not a problem to borrow funds, but to be honest, I am under a lot of psychological pressure and I might as well invest less. One point, I open my own personal studio, and then went to help major construction companies draw design drawings.”

Charlie said immediately: "No matter what decision you make, I will support it!"

Claire nodded gratefully, and said, "I want to build the studio first and then do it well. The people in the Willson family think that I can't leave the Willson company, and I will let them see if I can do it or not."

Charlie thought for a while, nodded and smiled: "I support you, but if you encounter any problems at work, you can tell me and we will solve them together! The big deal, I will be an employee for you, your husband has no other skills. But I can still carry your bag while driving."

"Ok."

Claire nodded, her expression slightly moved.

The decision actually took a great risk.

If she doesn't go to work, the family's biggest source of income will be cut off, and even if she opens a design studio, she still needs to rent an office, buy office equipment, etc.

This also requires a certain amount of capital investment.

What's more, the Willson Company and the major construction companies in Aurous Hill City have business contacts, they will be suppressed secretly.

But Charlie didn't even think about it, and categorically supported her.

Claire's heart couldn't be said to be unmoved.

When she was in a complicated mood, she heard Charlie's sentence again.

"My wife, you can just let it go, if it doesn't work, I will find a job to support you."

At this moment, Claire held her breath, a soreness rushed to her nose, and her eyes were almost red.

It was as if she was running into a wall and lost her soul, she did not expect that her husband, who she felt was “worthless”, still firmly believed in her and supported her!

Chapter 227

Because Charlie urged Claire to start a business, Claire was thinking about it all night by herself, until the next morning, her face was still full of fatigue.

After waking up, Claire hurriedly started to wash. Charlie asked distressedly: “Why don’t you sleep more, my wife, why do you get up in such a hurry?”

Claire said, “I’m going to the Future Company, so I must not be late.”

Charlie asked, “Future Company? Going for an interview again?”

“No.” Claire shook her head, hesitated and said: “I’ll try to pull some projects.”

“Okay.” Charlie said with a smile: “If you start a construction company, I’ll work for you.”

“A construction company started as soon as it was opened. Funds and connections are all problems.” Claire said: “I am going to build an office. Let me start with the studio. I will help the construction company draw design. A certain number of contacts will accumulate some funds before registering the company.”

Charlie smiled and said, “Money and connections are not a problem. If you really want to start a company, I will open one for you.”

“No.” Claire rejected his kindness without thinking, and said seriously: “I want to try it myself first, and then talk about where you get the resources. The construction company can’t just be opened like that.”

Charlie said: “I have the money to start a company, and I also have the contacts you want.”

Now the Emgrand Group’s investment covers almost 70% of Aurous Hill’s industries, and it’s easy to get some design contracts in the construction industry.

Claire thought he was joking and waved her hand angrily; "You don't understand things in the construction industry. I will do it myself for investment matters, so you don't have to worry about it."

To register a construction company, at least 10 million start-up capital is required, and working capital is also needed. Where would he get that money.

Even if he had the money in his hands, he couldn't have the connections in the construction industry.

Charlie was speechless for a while, and his wife left his ready-made resources without using them, and had to start from scratch by herself. He really didn't know what to say.

As soon as Claire left forefoot, Elaine, mother-in-law on the back foot, came back. Her pension also counted on the Willson Group, so she often went to the Willson Group for these two days.

Although Claire's family broke with the Willson family, Elaine thought about reconciliation as before.

"Where did Claire go?"

"It looks like someone is looking for a project."

"What kind of project! Do you really want to leave the Willson family?" Elaine said angrily: "Isn't it just a little misunderstanding, just made a fuss like this, arguing to cut off relations with the Willson family, what will it look like?"

Jacob was taken aback for a while and looked up and down Elaine.

"My wife, you went to Willson's house, and you got confused by the Old Mrs. Willson's scolding?"

"What kind of confusion, I'm not confused at all." Elaine sat down on the sofa angrily: "Tomorrow you will go to Willson's house with me and confess a mistake to the Lady Willson. The Lady Willson is your mother, and the eldest man is your eldest brother. , The blood relationship will be retained as much as possible."

Jacob's expression was not good, and he said angrily: "They want to sell my house and rob Charlie's villa. They didn't regard me as Willson family from beginning to end! If you want to apologize, I won't step in again. One step from the Willson family is the best for me."

Seeing Jacob, who had always been honest, had a tough attitude this time, Elaine was so angry that she turned to Charlie and said.

"Charlie, your father is a dead brain, you come to judge! With three of us, there was no overnight feud. You opened your mouth and said things that sever the relationship, this is too trifling! Besides, my pension also counts on the Willson Group!"

"She is confused? She wants to seize my property, rob Charlie's villa, and said she wants Claire to divorce and marry another man. Is this confusion?"

Jacob became angry all of a sudden, stood up and said, "You go to Willson's house and they will give you a bit of mischievous soup, you believe it!"

Seeing the father-in-law and mother-in-law arguing, they both pulled themselves to judge, Charlie's head grew big.

He quickly found an excuse: "Claire asked me to pick her up, I'm going out."

Chapter 228

After speaking, Charlie hurriedly walked out of the gate, and there was a quarrel between the two behind him.

It is difficult for an upright official to decide on housework, so it is better for him not to blend in.

Charlie casually found a small restaurant, ordered a few dishes, and planned to mix it up at night before going home.

This is a famous food street in Aurous Hill City with many people.

Charlie was eating, his eyes suddenly looked at the two figures across the street, and he was taken aback.

Isn't that his wife Claire?

Across the street is a very high-end restaurant. Across the floor-to-ceiling glass on the second floor, Charlie is seeing Claire sitting by the window, and a middle-aged man in a suit and leather shoes wearing gold glasses is sitting opposite.

Claire was holding the materials and was talking to the man non-stop, as if she was introducing her own studio, probably because she wanted the other party to invest.

But the middle-aged man was absent-minded, his eyes gazed toward her neck, neckline, and chest.

He even wanted to touch Claire's hand by holding the materials.

Fortunately, Claire's eyesight was quick and her hands were quick, and she drew away.

Charlie saw an angry rush toward his forehead!

This sh!t, dare to hit his wife's idea!

The waiter had just walked over with a bowl of wonton noodles, before putting it down, Charlie stood up with a "jerk", took out a red banknote and patted it on the table.

"keep the change."

The second floor lounge of Yunlai Hotel.

Claire was suppressing the disgust in her heart, forcing herself to smile, and said to the man across the table: "Mr. Mei, the company's future plans are written in the information. There will be development in the future. If you are willing to follow I will cooperate, I will definitely give you the best project planning."

"Miss Willson, I know your abilities." The middle-aged man showed an embarrassed expression: "But now the company still has several projects under investment at the same time, so the funds are very tight."

Claire was a little disappointed. She exhausted her tongue and talked with him for a long time, but the other party was still ambiguous, so she couldn't figure out the details.

Seeing Claire's expression, the middle-aged man deliberately rubbed his hands and said, "Actually, it is not impossible. I will discuss with the company's senior management. To be honest, I am very optimistic about your company. Or else at 8 o'clock tonight. Let's talk a little bit, and I'll learn more.

"Mr. Mei, this is not so good, right"

Claire hesitated.

It's late at eight o'clock in the evening, and if we continue to talk, I am afraid that the results will come out late at night. I am a married woman, and it will not sound good to spread it out.

The middle-aged man laughed and said, "It's not too late. Investment is not a trivial matter. We no longer have a deep understanding of each other. How can we have mutual trust? I will invite you to have a supper and discuss plans. Come on, Mr. Willson, for Our future cooperation let's do a handshake."

After speaking, the middle-aged man stretched out his hand and shook it to Claire's small hand, a faint light flashed under his eyes.

This middle-aged man was named Ping Mei, and he had long coveted Claire, the "Aurous Hill No. 1 Beauty".

Just because of the lack of opportunities, there has been no chance to start with this beauty.

Now Claire actually found him personally, saying that she was disconnected from the Willson family and wanted to persuade him to invest in her new studio, which made him irritated in private parts. He planned to take Claire down tonight and play with it!

Chapter 229

Claire didn't want to shake hands with Ping Mei, but when she saw that the other party took the initiative to shake hands, she felt that if she refused, she would appear insincere, so she had to bite the bullet and stretch out her hand.

Just when Ping Mei secretly hid her joy and wanted to hold Claire's little hand.

Suddenly, a big hand was stretched out in the diagonal stab, and it was directly held in her hand.

Ping Mei was stunned for a moment, looked up angrily, looked at the incoming person and shouted, "Who are you, what the h*ll are you doing?"

When Claire raised her head, she was also stunned.

"Charlie, when did you come?"

After speaking, she quickly explained to Ping Mei: "He is my husband."

When he heard the word "husband", Ping Mei's face suddenly became dark.

"I just arrived." Charlie pretended not to see it, smiled at Claire, and said to Ping Mei: "Your name is Ping Mei, isn't it, the boss of Future Company Company?"

Ping Mei's face was sullen and corrected, "Yes, it's me, how about it?"

"Not very good, people are indeed pretty lousy!" Charlie nodded repeatedly, and deliberately lengthened his tone.

Ping Mei was sullen in his heart, and coldly wanted to withdraw his hand.

But Charlie's palms were like iron tongs, which made him unable to move.

"Hiss!" Ping Mei let out an inhalation sound, his palm hurts more and more, and his bones seem to be about to break. "You, let go, my hand will be broken by you."

Claire knew that Charlie was strong, and said quickly; "Charlie, let go of it."

Charlie released his hand and looked at Ping Mei with a smile.

Ping Mei's expression was distorted with pain, and he glanced at Charlie angrily, and then said to Claire: "Tell your husband to go back quickly. I'm not used to talking about cooperation in front of outsiders."

Claire hesitated for a moment and said, "Charlie is my husband. He knows about my company, he's not an outsider."

"Even if he's not an outsider, I'm not used to talking about such an important thing in front of a third party." Ping Mei gave Charlie a bored glance, just wanting to drive him away quickly, and said, "Besides, about cooperation, he doesn't understand either."

Claire raised her head and said softly: "Charlie, I'm here to discuss business matters, you go back first."

"It's okay, I'll wait for you." After Charlie finished speaking, he sat down next to Claire.

Seeing Charlie clinging to Claire's delicate body, Ping Mei frustrated his teeth in anger. He was really unwilling to see the flesh of his mouth and he was about to fly like this.

He snorted coldly and said: "You are the son-in-law of the Willson family. You are well-known in Aurous Hill City. Claire has worked hard to support her family, so please don't delay her work. I will discuss cooperation with Claire. You will only get in the way here."

Ping Mei's tone was very rude, because he didn't put Charlie in his eyes at all and wanted to send him away.

The poor son-in-law of the Willson family, most people in the circle knew, Ping Mei couldn't help but sigh that Claire was married to a "soft rice man" it seemed exactly when a flower grew on the cow dung.

Charlie frowned and stared at Ping Mei coldly.

This flower is called "Claire", calling her like his wife!

Ping Mei looked at Charlie with disdain, and said, "Charlie, if you are a man, don't delay Claire's work! Can you help Claire? Do you have the money to cooperate? Can you help Claire? To the contract for architectural design drawings?"

"If not, I advise you to find a job, deliver food or be a security guard, so as not to panic at home every day and be suspicious of your wife!"

Chapter 230

Claire felt uncomfortable when she heard it, and said, "Mr. Mei, Charlie also did a lot of things at home. Also, I would like to trouble you to call my full name Claire. I am not used to outsiders calling my nickname."

"What does he do at home, buying vegetables? Cooking? Or washing clothes?"

Ping Mei couldn't help laughing, and said, "Clai, if your husband can't find a job, our company happens to be recruiting security, so you can let him try."

After speaking, he said half-jokingly: "Clai, if I were you, I wouldn't marry a man who couldn't even find a job. I would have divorced this kind of Rubbish a long time ago."

Claire frowned and was about to speak, but suddenly felt a chill around her.

She turned her head and saw Charlie stand up with a smile on his face, and said to Ping Mei: "I have heard of the name of Mr. Mei for a long time, and he is indeed as his name suggests. I also have something to say to Mr. Mei."

Ping Mei's face was dark: "What do you want to say."

He forgave Charlie for being useless and not daring to do anything to himself!

Charlie put his hands on the table, leaned forward slightly, and smiled.

"What I want to say is that being a person can be useless or incompetent, but it must not be without character! Because without character, then it is not a human being, but an animal!"

After speaking, he held the hot soup that had just been served in both hands and poured it on Ping Mei's head blankly.

With a scream, Ping Mei jumped up and he was scalded.

Claire was so shocked that her face paled. After a moment of stunned, she quickly called the waiter to bring a napkin.

The piping hot soup was so hot that Ping Mei's face was burnt red. The thick soup ran down his neck and into his clothes. The whole body was sticky and embarrassed. There was still a leaf of vegetable hanging on the glasses.

Ping Mei grinned and screamed constantly.

The manager rushed over with a few waiters and was shocked when he saw the situation, and quickly ordered the waiters to help.

Ping Mei took off his glasses and yelled at Charlie: "You are looking for death!!"

After speaking, he showed a fierce look, reached out his hand and pointed at Charlie, and immediately took out his mobile phone to make a call.

"Hey, bring a few people to the Jiantia Hotel, call more people! There is a poor dog who does not have long eyes, and I need to teach him a lesson!"

Hearing Ping Mei calling someone, Claire quickly apologized to Ping Mei: "Mr. Mei, sorry, my husband was a little excited just now."

"Don't tell me this! He splashed me with soup, I have to let him kneel for me today."
Ping Mei was angry.

Seeing that Ping Mei was getting angry, Claire quickly turned around and said to Charlie: "You go out first, let me explain to Mr. Mei."

"Don't pay attention to him, follow me." Charlie said, reaching out to pull Claire.

Claire frowned, pushed away from him, and said angrily: "Mr. Ping Mei is the boss of the Future Company. He is very influential in the construction industry in Aurous Hill City, and he knows people from three schools and nine schools! I can't get cooperation. It doesn't matter, but there are some things that you can't solve with great strength."

Charlie said: "I haven't paid attention to a small company that is not influential."

"small company?"

Claire was almost groaned by him.

In the construction industry of Aurous Hill City, Future Company ranks in the top five, even larger than Willson Company.

She was afraid that Charlie would offend Mr. Mei again, and said with a cold face: "Charlie, leave this to me to deal with, go out and wait for me outside the door!"

Chapter 231

Charlie wanted to say something, but seeing that Claire was already angry, he could only sullen his face and turned and walked out of the restaurant.

The boss of a small company dared to be so crazy in front of him? Isn't this tired of living? What is it?

Claire was so jealous of him, didn't she know that her husband was the strongest one?

At this moment, Charlie wanted to tell Claire of his true identity so that she would no longer have to worry about the future, and no longer have to be worried and bullied by the small boss of such a small company.

However, when the words came to his lips, he still held back.

Exposing his identity means that he has officially accepted the return to the Wade family, and wants to return to the Wade family to recognize the ancestor and return to the clan.

Charlie didn't want to go back.

Walking to the door of the hotel, Charlie looked up at the upstairs, then took out his mobile phone and made a call to the housekeeper of the Wade family, Stephen Thompson.

"Check for me the details of the Future Company, which customers they have recently worked with, and what projects they have on hand."

Stephen Thompson's respectful voice came from the mobile phone: "Mr. Wade the major clients of Future Company are basically small businesses under the Wade family. They also took a few real estate properties of the Emgrand Group this year."

"Really?" Charlie sneered, and after doing it for a long time, it turned out that this Ping Mei was still a squat who ate food behind his a.

Charlie suddenly wanted to laugh.

If Ping Mei knew that he was offending his business dad, how would he feel?

Thinking of this, he said to Stephen Thompson: "Help me teach Future Company a lesson."

Stephen Thompson asked respectfully, "Mr. Wade what do you want?"

"Oh, you withdrew all the cooperation with the Future Company, I think this stupid company is not pleasing to the eye."

"Who dares to offend you? Do you want me to let their boss do it directly? Let him evaporate!"

Charlie waved his hand and said with a smile: "Don't fight and kill at every turn. If you kill him, how does he feel the pain? Just let him go bankrupt and not get up for the rest of his life."

"Sure young Master, wait a few minutes, I'll make arrangements."

For Stephen Thompson, letting Future Company go bankrupt was as simple as squeezing an ant to death.

Charlie finished his instructions, hung up the phone, looked upstairs, and found that Claire was still apologizing to Ping Mei, but Ping Mei was proud and did not know what he was talking about. , It is probably cursing Charlie.

He simply sat on the side of the road, waiting lazily for his wife to come out.

On the road, Charlie, dressed in ordinary clothes, was just like an ordinary passerby. No one would look at him for more than a second.

However, he can turn the famous Aurous Hill boss into a pauper with nothing.

Claire had been making plea in front of Ping Mei, and Ping Mei's expression seemed to ease.

Later, Claire accompanied Ping Mei out of the gate, and Ping Mei's burned face was still aching.

He saw Charlie sitting on the side of the road, gave him a fierce look, then turned around and said to Claire, "Clai, for your sake, I will forgive your Rubbish husband once, and I will do it tomorrow night. I invite you to dinner and talk about cooperation."

On the surface, if he had nothing to do, it was just to please Claire's favor, but his heart was still burning with anger.

If it hadn't been for Claire's apology just now, he would have wanted someone to come over and destroy Charlie on the spot!

However, Ping Mei didn't plan to punish Charlie, he just wanted to let him go temporarily, and when he got Claire tomorrow, he would find someone to abolish Charlie!

Charlie walked over and said to Claire: "Wife, let's go home, there is nothing to talk about with this kind of b@stard who is about to go bankrupt, let alone give the deals like cooperation."

Ping Mei's face changed slightly, and he said coldly: "Boy, you really f*cking want to die, saying that I am going bankrupt? Believe it or not that I will kill you in minutes? The reason why you are still fine now is entirely that I gave Claire Face!"

Charlie sneered, and slapped his hand over.

"Snapped!"

Chapter 232

Ping Mei was stunned, covering his face, and then shouted angrily.

"Rubbish! How dare you hit me?"

Charlie sneered, "What's wrong with hitting you? If I hit you, you have to bear it!"

After speaking, he raised his hand and slapped him again, and his cheek was swollen high.

Although Claire was also a little disgusted with Ping Mei, seeing Charlie slapped him twice in a row, she was still a little worried, and hurriedly said, "Charlie, what are you doing? I'm telling you, don't you just do it with others?"

What she worries about is not her own cooperation, but whether Charlie will be retaliated by Ping Mei. After all, Ping Mei is also a big boss with a surname. How can he swallow this breath after being beaten?

Sure enough, Ping Mei became irritated and completely exposed. He pointed to Claire and said: "The surname is Willson, your husband's debt will be paid today, I will kill him! Let him disappear completely from the face of Aurous Hill!"

When Claire heard the words, she said angrily: "You are shameless!"

"Shameless?" Ping Mei snorted coldly: "Don't think I don't know, the Willson family has already swept you out. Do you think you are from Willson family? I tell you the truth, I Ping Mei stomped my foot in Aurous Hill City. It can kill your whole family. If you don't want any accidents in your family, you'd better kneel and climb on my bed. If I am happy, I can barely forgive you!"

Claire trembled with anger, and said sharply, "Ping Mei, you are a b@stard!"

"I'm powerful, what's wrong with shamelessness?" Ping Mei said shamelessly.

Charlie stood up and said to Ping Mei: "The Mr Mei, you are already bankrupt, so if you are powerful, you should save the time."

"What did you say!"

Ping Mei was taken aback, completely unresponsive.

He was about to shout when his cell phone rang.

Ping Mei didn't want to answer, but the phone rang like a reminder.

Ping Mei gave Charlie a fierce finger and picked up the phone impatiently.

"Hey, what's the matter"

"Mr. Mei, it's not good! The shareholders of the company that was supposed to cooperate with us suddenly withdrew all our cooperation!"

"What!" Ping Mei's face changed drastically, "I will call Jingcheng immediately."

"Wait a minute, not only the Beijing side withdrew the cooperation, but also the Emgrand Group, which has a long-term cooperation with our company, suddenly canceled all cooperation. In addition, Mr. Zhao, Mr. Li and Mr. Thompson all canceled the contract."

Ping Mei held the phone and was too surprised to speak.

But the voice in the phone continued.

"At present, four companies have called and asked Future Company to pay huge liquidated damages."

"Mr. Jones from the Finance Department called and wanted to recover the 280 million engineering loan and transfer the account within tomorrow, otherwise they would go through legal procedures and seize the real estate under construction."

"Also, the heads of China Bank, China Construction Bank, Industrial and Commercial Bank, and Agricultural Bank of China all called to collect debts. We must settle all previous loans by noon tomorrow, or else they will auction off the company's assets."

Ping Mei was sweating profusely, his face was bloodless, and layers of cold sweat soaked his shirt.

Is this world crazy?

Or is he having nightmares?

How come all the unfortunate things all of a sudden happen to him at once?

All of them are like an appointment!

What's the matter?

what the h*ll is it?

Chapter 233

After being hit one after another, Ping Mei sweated like rain. He couldn't even stand firmly and had to hold on to the wall with his hands.

Claire didn't know who he was calling, but after seeing Ping Mei actually answered a call, her expression suddenly changed, as if he was about to suffer an emergency, she couldn't help but wonder.

"Charlie, is Ping Mei suddenly ill?"

Charlie said with a faint smile, "Maybe, he has a brain disease, and he can't even remember what he is."

The secretary's panic and crying sounded from the phone, but Ping Mei couldn't hear him clearly. There was ringing in his ears, and his mind was full of what Charlie said just now.

"You are already broke!"

Ping Mei was in a cold sweat, raised his head in horror, and stared at Charlie firmly.

Could it be that he didn't know the prophet?

He is really broke!

Ping Mei slumped down the wall, desperate.

Charlie gave him a cold look and said to Claire, "Let's go."

Claire didn't know what was going on with Ping Mei, but she didn't want to look at this person anymore and turned around and left.

At this moment, Ping Mei suddenly woke up, suddenly raised her head to look at Charlie!

Suddenly she climbed up and rushed to Charlie's back.

Just when Charlie was about to get in the car, Ping Mei rushed over, his eyes were blood-red, he was panting hard, his eyes fixed on him.

Ping Mei's crazy appearance made Claire nervous, and she subconsciously took a step back to Charlie.

"You did it, right? You did all of this, didn't you?"

Ping Mei stared at Charlie and asked in a panic.

Charlie glanced at Ping Mei, and said blankly: "Get out!"

The tone is simple and neat, just like berating a dog.

The crowd looked at each other!

Oh God!

Isn't this the famous Mr. Mei?

This young man dressed like a passerby, dare to call Mr. Mei in public?

Doesn't he want to mix in Aurous Hill City?

however

Just in full view, Ping Mei suddenly thumped and knelt in front of Charlie, and said with a weeping face: "Mr. Wade, I was wrong! Please, let me make a living."

There was silence around, and the crowd couldn't believe their eyes.

Ping Mei, the famous construction giant in Aurous Hill City, actually knelt in front of a passerby!

Even Claire was stunned, completely unexpected that Ping Mei would kneel to Charlie.

"Mr. Wade, I should die and shouldn't play Claire's idea! I was wrong, I repent, I will never do it again in the future, please give me a way of life, don't play me to death."

As Ping Mei said, he slapped himself fiercely, making it loud and clear.

Charlie's face was expressionless, watching him slap a dozen slaps, his mouth was bleeding, and he said faintly: "Mr. Mei, I don't know what you are talking about."

"Mr. Wade, once the Future Company goes bankrupt, not only will I not have a penny, but I will still have hundreds of millions of debts that cannot be filled, and I will not be able to pay it off in my next life!"

Ping Mei knelt on the ground and pleaded, without the demeanor of a successful person.

All this happened too suddenly, and it was too coincidental!

Charlie said that he was “bankrupt,” and Future Company will usher in bad luck one after another, and it will definitely go bankrupt tomorrow!

Chapter 234

All this seems to be a coincidence, but how can there be such a coincidence?

Ping Mei vaguely felt that what happened must be related to Charlie, so he didn't care about face and knelt in public.

Claire didn't know the content of the call, and couldn't help but said in surprise: “Ping Mei, isn't your company doing well? Besides, what does your bankruptcy have to do with Charlie?”

Ping Mei knelt on the ground and said, “Sister Claire, I offended you just now, and I confessed to you! Just now the company called to say that the customer was canceled, the cooperation was withdrawn, and the bank was collecting debts. I really have no way to survive.”

Claire was stunned for a moment, and said, “I think you made a mistake, Charlie doesn't have such great power.”

Charlie also said lightly: “Ping Mei, everything in this world has cause and effect. It's useless if you ask me, please reflect on yourself.”

After that, he took Claire into the car.

When Charlie drove the car away, Ping Mei still knelt on the side of the road blankly.

The crowd around him gathered more and more, all of them looked at him with surprise and kept whispering.

But Ping Mei can no longer take care of it.

From tomorrow on, he will become a beggar on the street from a highly successful person!

No, not even a beggar!

Not only would he have no money, he would have to pay hundreds of millions of liquidated damages!

The phone was still ringing, and the assistant's flustered voice came.

"Mr. Mei's phone call from the usury company said that the interest rate will be increased by ten points, and the debt will be collected tomorrow. If you can't pay the money, just chop off your right hand."

"Mr. Mei, the landlord of the office building we rented called and said that the rent will be increased by 20 times. If you don't give it, they will tell you to move out before tomorrow!"

"Mr. Mei"

The phone slipped from Ping Mei's hand to the ground, and he knelt on the ground with a dull expression.

Suddenly, Ping Mei screamed wildly: "Oh my God, who the h*ll am I offending!"

He slammed his hands on the ground frantically, and at the same time knocked his head on the ground with smashing blood out.

Ping Mei couldn't bear the huge blow and suffered a nervous breakdown. He foamed at the mouth, rolled his eyes and fainted.

Charlie drove the car, his face calm.

The more Claire thought about it, the more she realized something was wrong, and couldn't help asking: "What did you do to Ping Mei, he was afraid of you, why?"

Charlie said lightly: "I didn't do anything to him. I have been waiting for you outside. How can I do anything to him? It is estimated that he has offended too many people. Others don't let him go."

Claire thought about it, and dispelled a lot of suspicion. Maybe it was Ping Mei who had offended some powerful person, but he put the account on Charlie.

Thinking of this, Claire felt angrily and said, "This Ping Mei is really shameless. He deserves to be bankrupt."

Charlie smiled calmly.

It was indeed Ping Mei who deserved it. He provoked him, and bankruptcy was the best outcome, otherwise he would lead such people to evaporate.

Claire sighed softly and said: "It seems we still have to find a partner again and see if we can talk to the studio about business."

When Charlie heard this, he prepared to say hello to Doris, and asked Emgrand Group to give his wife more orders.

When the two returned home, Claire was still talking to Charlie about her next development plan for the studio.

But as soon as the two entered the house, Jacob rubbed his hands and walked forward. He glanced at the two with an awkward look and said, "Claire, your mother asks you to return to work in the Willson Group tomorrow."

"What?" Claire was stunned.

Charlie frowned and said, "Didn't you draw a clear line from the Willson family?"

"Oh!" Jacob looked embarrassed, and said helplessly: "Your mother doesn't know what kind of ecstasy soup was poured into her, so she is focused on Willson family, so"

Before Jacob finished speaking, Claire said angrily to Elaine: "Mom, the Willson family bullied my dad and wanted to take Charlie's villa. Why should we go back?"

Chapter 235

At this moment, facing Claire's questioning, mother Elaine said angrily: "After all, you are also blood from the Willson family! Besides, your grandma has already apologized to me and said It was a moment of confusion. Harold instigated the discord and made her angry, and now Harold has been severely punished by her. What else are you dissatisfied with?"

Claire said angrily: "What about an apology? My grandmother, I can't know better. Even if she apologizes, she is definitely not out of sincerity! She just wants me to go back and help her fix the Emgrand's cooperation, there is nothing else.

Elaine hurriedly persuaded: "Don't think your grandma thinks so badly. It's all a family. How can there be overnight hatred?"

"We are not in the same family anymore." Claire said angrily: "I can't go back to work in the Willson Group."

"What are you talking about?" Elaine said dissatisfiedly: "Your grandma has realized her mistake. Do you ask an elder to pull her face down to apologize to you?"

After speaking, Elaine said again: "In order to show sincerity, your grandma gave me a gold necklace and two jade bracelets."

"Mom, just says the jewelry that grandma gave you, you just want it."

Claire finished talking angrily, ignored Elaine, turned around and walked into the bedroom.

Charlie also quickly followed in.

Elaine said angrily in the living room: "Look at your daughter."

Unexpectedly, Jacob ignored her and turned away.

In the bedroom, Claire was still angry and complained to Charlie: "I didn't expect that the Willson family would use jewelry to buy my mother. Didn't you know that my mom saw the money open? So did the Willson family. Some jewelry was given by them, say a few good things, she became confused and forgot how they insulted us back then."

Although Charlie was unhappy, he was inconvenient to say bad things about his mother-in-law. He could only persuade: "When we broke with the Willson family, Mom didn't follow it, so maybe she didn't know the despicable methods of the Willson family."

Claire said, "Then what if she insists on me going back to work?"

Charlie said: "You think about it yourself, and I support any decision you make."

Claire nodded and said firmly: "I still want to start my own business!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I think so too. If you start a business well, you will be able to succeed!"

While talking, Charlie thought to himself that he should take the time to call Qin Gang from the Qin family, Issac from Shangri-La, Orvel from the Taoist family, Warnia from the Song family, and Solmon White from the White family to call out to have a meal and talk with them. Say hello, and let them take care of his wife's career in the future.

Thinking about this, Charlie suddenly received a call from Warnia. On the phone, she respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, it's me, Warnia. I wonder if you are busy?"

Charlie said indifferently: "No, Miss Song, we can speak."

Warnia said: "Mr. Wade, my grandfather has been suffering from a physical illness recently and has not seen what is wrong. I don't know if you have time, can you come to my grandfather's house and see him?"

After that, Warnia said again: "Don't worry, you will not be treated badly in the consultation fee."

Charlie thought, Warnia was the daughter of a top family in Aurous Hill. In the future, his wife would start a business, and she might have to ask her to help, so she readily agreed and said, "Then tonight."

Warnia immediately said gratefully: "Well, I'll pick you up at night!"

"It is good."

After hanging up Warnia's phone, Charlie said to Claire: "If a friend finds me tonight, I won't eat at home."

Claire nodded and didn't ask much, but just told: "When you are outside, don't always make feng shui stuff with others, if they treat you as a liar, it will cause trouble."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry, I know it in my heart."

Chapter 236

In the evening, Warnia drove to the community to pick up Charlie.

Seeing Charlie, she bowed her hands respectfully and said, "Mr. Wade, I'm causing you trouble."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Miss Song doesn't have to be so polite."

After speaking, he saw a diamond bracelet on her wrist and asked curiously, "Is this the bracelet you lost last time?"

Warnia hurriedly nodded and said, "This is the one that my mother left to me before her death. It is as important as life to me. Thanks to Mr. Wade, otherwise, I might never get it back."

Charlie smiled and said, "You are still in love with it, even if I didn't help you, it had returned to your hands after a while."

Warnia knew that Charlie was being modest, and hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, you are rarely seen as a master with real skills, and it is unheard of to be so humble and low-key."

Charlie smiled and said, "Miss Song doesn't have to slap me, let's get to business quickly."

Warnia nodded hurriedly and said, "Mr. Wade, please get in the car!"

Sitting in Warnia's Rolls-Royce, the driver drove the car quickly to the Song's mansion in Aurous Hill.

This is a typical Chinese-style villa with magnificent shapes and seven-layered gardens. It is full of classical beauty and poetry, showing the owner's elegant taste.

Moreover, this manor occupies a very large area, and being able to own such a large piece of land in Aurous Hill is enough to see the wealth of the family.

Under Warnia's leadership, Charlie came to the main courtyard. As soon as he entered the door, he saw a young man in a suit and leather shoes walking here with an old-looking man and a young girl.

"Sister, this is"

The handsome young man looked at Charlie suspiciously.

"This is Mr. Wade." Warnia's expression was slightly uneasy, but she still put up her temper and introduced, "This is my cousin Honor Song."

"Hello." Charlie nodded.

"Mr. Wade?"

The youth scanned Charlie up and down, and then sarcastically said, "Sister, would you invite a so-called master who is younger than me to see Grandpa? It's a little tricky, right?"

Charlie listened, and his heart moved slightly.

On the way here, Warnia mentioned that Grandpa Song is now dying and his life is hanging by a thread.

The younger generations in the family are all eight immortals who cross the sea to show their magical powers. During this time, they have invited countless famous doctors to come over, hoping to cure the Old Master Song, so as to make great contributions, or get more shares in the future when sharing the property.

Especially Warnia and her cousin Honor.

But it is a pity that all of these famous doctors who have been invited have come back unwillingly.

This Honor seems to be a bit hostile to Warnia, so even the look in his eyes is full of discomfort.

Warnia said at this moment: "Brother, Mr. Wade is very powerful. I used to have bad luck. It was Mr. Wade who helped me resolve the reversal. He has a supernatural power."

Honor said with contempt: "Sister, for grandpa's treatment, what you need is a genius doctor, not Mr. Feng Shui who pretends to be a god, you know?"

Chapter 237

Charlie felt a little unhappy at this moment.

Coming here is to give Warnia face, otherwise, as the young master of the Wade family, his status is beyond the Song family. What qualifications do they have to let him come?

Warnia was also a little angry at this time and said, "Brother, you can disbelieve some things, but you can't disrespect them!"

Honor snorted coldly: "Respect? I only respect those masters who have real talents and learning. As for swindlers, they don't deserve Honor's respect!"

After that, he pointed to the Old Master next to him, and proudly introduced: "This is Tianqi Shi and his granddaughter, the most famous doctor in Aurous Hill."

Charlie looked up and was taken aback.

These two people are one old and one young, and they look like grandparents.

But their clothes are obviously different from others.

The Old Master is over sixty years old, wearing a green bamboo cloth robe, a pair of old-fashioned black-framed reading glasses, and a long white beard. His eyes are gleaming.

The girl standing next to him, about eighteen or nineteen years old, was wearing a loose student cheongsam, with short haircut with bangs, bright eyes and white teeth, and she exuded a cold and classical atmosphere.

However, the appearance of this girl made Charlie pay more attention, because in Aurous Hill City, her appearance was comparable to Claire, the "first beauty", and he hadn't seen a few.

Compared to Claire, the girl's eyes were sharper, and she was vaguely arrogant, and she didn't look close.

Seeing Charlie looking over, Tianqi nodded faintly, but the girl was extremely cold and didn't look at all.

Honor again said to Warnia: "Sister, I think the person you're looking for is only in his early twenties. Maybe the yin and yang, the five elements, and the warm and cold may not be memorized, but he claims to be a master. People would laugh at our Song family for being so fainted, not believing in medical skills, but in superstition?"

The spear and stick in Honor's words were pointed at Charlie. Charlie was also shocked. How could he become a liar?

At this time, Honor clasped his fist to the Old Master again and said, "Old Shi, it is my sister who is ignorant and has gone to conclusions in a hurry. Don't care about her in general."

Tianqi said very modestly: "You don't necessarily have no real talents when you are young, and Mr. Song doesn't have to doubt this little friend so much."

Honor sighed and said, "You don't know anything about it Mr. Shi, my younger sister, who is always scammed when she is ill, she is always deceived."

Warnia's expression was a bit ugly at this time, and she blurted out: "Brother, what do you mean by this?"

Honor asked, "Am I wrong? I heard that you were deceived by a so-called Feng Shui master from Hong Kong before, and you still haven't realized it yet?"

"You" Warnia couldn't hold her face.

The "Mr. Lai" incident was indeed a failure of her own. She did not expect that she would be fooled by a liar from Hong Kong. Fortunately, Charlie was present, otherwise she would be in bad luck.

However, Honor obviously didn't know Charlie's ability, so he dared to speak out whatever came to his mouth.

At this time, Honor said to Charlie again: "Boy, I don't know how you lied to Warnia, but I don't want you to trick my Song family. This old Shi, the three generations of court doctors from the ancestors, you are a young man. Little liar, I advise you to leave as soon as possible, so as not to ask for trouble!"

Warnia's face was extremely ugly, but she couldn't find a reason to refute it. After all, Charlie really looked too young. This alone couldn't convince people. If she hadn't seen Charlie's extraordinary things, she would not believe it as well.

However, she didn't expect that Charlie was very calm about this, and said with a smile: "Haha, it's okay, a small person like me, just watching and observing, never disturb this Xinglin Sage Hand to heal and save people."

Chapter 238

"Count you acquaintance.

At this time, a middle-aged man came out of the house and said: "Warnia, Honor, your grandpa is going to die soon!"

Tianqi quickly asked, "Where is the Old Master Song? Let the Old Master come and have a look!"

"In the back house, please follow me." Honor hurriedly led the way and led the grandson to the backyard.

Warnia hurriedly pulled Charlie to follow.

When everyone came to a luxurious and classical room in the back house, they saw a dying Old Master lying on a big bed made of yellow rosewood.

The Old Master's face was haggard, his face was golden paper, and his brows were tightly frowned, as if he was enduring great pain.

Tianqi said immediately: "Mr. Song is in a critical condition. Please allow my granddaughter and me to begin treatment immediately."

Honor hurriedly said: "Old Shi, please do it!"

Tianqi nodded, but did not heal it himself, but stood by the bed and pointed the young woman to take action.

There was a silver needle on the bedside table, and the woman was holding the silver needle and piercing Song Lao's body.

She is very proficient in the needle technique, even better than an old traditional medicine practitioner who has practiced medicine for 20 to 30 years. It is no wonder that although she is young, the people of the Song family are relieved to let her heal.

This young woman is indeed good-looking. Not only is she beautiful and charming, but she also has heroism between her eyebrows. Both her looks and temperament can be called the best.

However, what Charlie looked at was not the beauty of this woman, but her inner body.

Because he had already seen that when this woman was under the needle, she could actually use a little invigorating cooperation, which can be regarded as half a fellow.

According to the records of the classical Chinese Taoism has passed down five branches, namely mountain, medicine, life, Xiang, and Bu.

In the cultivation of these five branches, there is a little real energy, which can be regarded as a little cultivation.

Charlie could tell at a glance that Tianqi and his granddaughter were descendants of the word "mountain".

The Shanzi pulse is mainly based on medical skills, first learning medicine, then martial arts, and then practicing medical martial arts.

However, even if Shi Tianqiye and Sun Yiwu were co-cultivators, they were still fleshy mortals, and all mortals could exert only true energy.

But Charlie had already reborn through the reincarnation of spiritual energy, and his physique had long surpassed that of a mortal.

The "True Qi" cultivated by Taoist Five Vessels was only one word behind the "Spirit Qi" in Charlie's body, but it was actually different from the cloud and mud, which was a complete difference.

In layman's terms, it is the difference between coal and diamonds. Although the two are the same in origin, coal can only be used as raw material, with limited energy and low price, while diamonds are the essence after tempering, drawing a lot of energy and being hard. Incomparable, the price has also increased thousands of times.

Many descendants of the Taoist Five Channels have cultivated hard for a lifetime, hoping to cultivate a trace of "aura".

Because once you have aura, even a little bit can greatly improve your cultivation level and achieve the purpose of prolonging your life.

However, 99 disciples of the Taoist Five Channels, can't cultivate a little spiritual energy until they die.

Chapter 239

"The two genius doctors are working hard." The middle-aged man of the Song family said quickly. When he winked, his nephew Honor hurriedly held a cup of gu tea, and invited them to rest and drink tea.

The young woman quickly put down the silver needle, panted and took the teacup, and drank it.

Although only one-third of the acupuncture process, Song Lao's face has turned ruddy and his breath has become more even.

The Song family around them also showed joy and respect.

The woman was also quite contented. After drinking the tea, she gave Charlie a showy look, meaning: You see how well I cured.

Charlie couldn't speak, and there was no expression on his face.

In fact, if her infuriating qi is mastered well and the heat is in place, wherever it takes to spend so much infuriating qi, she will not be so tired.

But Charlie couldn't make any more instructions, he didn't want to mess with this "chicken chili" again.

Charlie turned around and glanced at Song Lao's injury, his brows frowned.

After the woman gave him acupuncture, Song Lao's condition did improve, but this was only superficial.

Old Song has old wounds in his body, his muscles and veins have long been ruined, and he also has blood deficiency, and several organs are already somewhat exhausted. The woman's diagnosis and treatment just now only treats the symptoms but not the root cause.

On the surface, Song Lao's complexion was ruddy, but in fact he suppressed the deficiency. After two days, he will relapse, and the disease will collapse and the symptoms will be more severe, which will be life-threatening.

The so-called genius doctor means to let him live two or three days longer.

Seeing this, Charlie made a decisive decision, stood by the bed, picked up the silver needle by the table, and said lightly: "The Old Master still has a hidden disease in his body, wait for me to get a needle."

Seeing Charlie applying acupuncture, the middle-aged man of the Song family suddenly looked surprised and wanted to stop it, but when he saw that he was proficient, he couldn't help but frown.

Honor suddenly went into flames on the side, blurting out: "Hey! What are you doing?"

Charlie said indifferently: "Song Lao has an old illness in his body. I will try to restore his muscles and veins, and also reshape his internal organs. Otherwise, he won't live for three days."

"What are you talking about?" he was furious and cursed: "You curse my grandfather, I f*cking kill you!"

Warnia hurriedly stopped in front of him and blurted out: "Brother, let Mr. Wade treat Grandpa, don't make trouble!"

"I'm making trouble?" Honor said angrily: "You can rest assured that you hand over your grandfather's life to him. I don't have the courage of you! Are you trying to kill Grandpa?"

Warnia said coldly: "I believe in Mr. Wade's strength, let Mr. Wade do his work, and I will be responsible if something goes wrong!"

"You are responsible for the bullsh*t!"

At this moment, Charlie didn't lift his head, and the silver needle in his hand was flying like a fly. With a wave of his hand, he pierced several acupuncture points such as Guan, Juque, Shaoyang, and supplemented with a little spiritual energy to enter Song Lao's body with the tip of the needle.

The young woman saw that Charlie really dared to give Song Lao acupuncture directly, and her face suddenly became angry, so she stepped forward to stop it, and blurted out: "Hey, kid, you stop quickly, if something happens, you can be held responsible. "

At this moment, Tianqi next to her suddenly stopped her, and said in a deep voice: "Hold on, don't disturb him!"

The young woman said anxiously: "Grandpa, he will treat the patient indiscriminately, and he will treat the patient with problems!"

Tianqi said in a deep voice, "Zhaovi, look carefully at his injection technique!"

Seeing that grandpa said so, the woman had to look at Charlie's hand.

Chapter 240

At this sight, she was also dumbfounded, it turned out to be the needle technique she had just used!

She immediately said angrily: "It's really shameless to steal from the teacher to learn art! I learned away the Sanyang Needle Method I just applied!"

Tianqi's face was solemn, and he spoke a few seconds later: "Look again and pay attention to his gestures!"

The woman looked at it carefully for a while, but suddenly she was shocked, and muttered: "What is he?"

She recognized that the needle method Charlie used was indeed the "Three Yang Needle Method" handed down by the Shi family's ancestors. It was exactly the same as her acupuncture method just now, but after a closer look, there were some differences.

Compared with the "Sanyang Needle Method" she used just now, Charlie's acupuncture points were different in several points, even more complicated than her acupuncture method.

This

Is this an upgraded version of the Sanyang Needle Method?

She was horrified and said: "Grandpa, how could he be so...?"

Tianqi nodded. He was already watching mesmerized, with a look of admiration on his face, and said: "Unexpectedly, this little friend turned out to be a master of both medical and martial arts! You see that his internal interest is stable. The silver needle is steady when the needle is placed, and the real energy is slowly injected. Only a person with a cultivation base of more than 50 years can have such a stable internal breath! I did not expect that his cultivation base would have surpassed me at a young age."

The woman said unconvincedly: "Grandpa, in time, I will be able to surpass him."

Tianqi sighed, his face full of admiration: "If I read it right, his whole set of acupuncture methods contains the missing part of my Shi family's "Sanyang Needle Method"! I didn't expect to see it in my lifetime. The truly lost "Three Yang Needle Method" is really lucky for me."

After finishing speaking, he glanced at his granddaughter and taught: "Don't talk about you, even if I practice for another 50 years, my cultivation base will be worse than him!"

"It's just that there are a few more acupuncture points, how can it be so magical." The woman muttered.

She was aroused to win, and said with a "hum", "Grandpa, what does he do for a few shots? My family medicine is ranked first in Nanguang. I don't believe it. He is better than our family in everything, and I will try to compete with him later!"

Seeing his granddaughter's aggressive face, Tianqi could only shake his head and said, "You don't touch the south wall and don't look back."

Half a cup of tea time passed, Charlie's acupuncture was over, and he took a deep breath and said lightly: "The Old Master will wake up in half an hour. After I give the injection today, I will guarantee his life extension for at least five years!"

Honor blurted out: "You are just f@rting! Even American experts say that my grandfather can live for a month at most, and you can extend his life by five years if you speak. Why?"

Charlie said coldly: "Just because I am Charlie, Charlie Wade!"

"Bah!" Honor sneered: "You return Mr. Wade, if my grandfather has any shortcomings, I don't want your life!"

Tianqi's granddaughter stepped forward and said unceremoniously, "Hey, which medical clinic are you from? Where do you teach?"

Charlie turned his head and said, "I am not a member of a medical clinic, and I have no teacher."

The woman asked: "That's weird! Where did you learn the needle technique?"

Charlie smiled and said, "This is my personal matter, and I am sorry for the inconvenience."

The woman reluctantly said: "This is my family's ancestral acupuncture method, I naturally have to ask clearly, lest others steal the teacher and learn art."

"Zhovia, don't be rude to Mr. Charlie!" Tianqi said with a deep expression. He immediately stepped forward and said respectfully to Charlie: "Mr. Charlie, my granddaughter has both died since childhood. So, don't mind."

After speaking, he scolded Zhovia again: "Don't you apologize to Mr. Charlie? Don't you see that Mr. Charlie's acupuncture method is better than my family's acupuncture method? His acupuncture method is "Sanyang" The ancestor of Acupuncture! Moreover, Song Laojing has obviously improved a lot after his treatment!"

Chapter 241

Zhovia was aggrieved for a while, gritted her teeth, and said unconvincedly: "I want to compete with him. If he is really capable, I will apologize to him."

"How long are you going to fool around!" Tianqi blew his beard and stared.

The middle-aged man from the Song family next to him was stunned. No one thought that the strength of Charlie was actually higher than that of Tianqi?

Honor was also a little confused at once. Does this kid really have a few brushes?

How is this possible!

Just rely on him?

Can Tianqi be convinced?

At this moment, Charlie glanced at Zhovia, and saw that her face was full of anger, her small face was flushed, and she looked dissatisfied, amused, and asked: "What are you better than?"

"Of course it's medical skills!" Zhovia rolled her eyes and suddenly smiled: "The basis of traditional medicine is to see, hear, and ask, we are better! Tell me, everyone in this room, what kind of disease does everyone have? Where is it?"

It may sound simple to tell the patient's symptoms from the pulse, but it is even more difficult for traditional medicine.

Even Tianqi himself may not be able to see it completely.

However, this is Zhovia's skill. She has been in her grandfather's arms since she was one year old, and she has seen at least tens of thousands of patients.

Her memory is amazing, and she can remember almost everyone's "sickness" and classify them.

Over time, she could see the other party's condition from their face, and she was almost sure of it.

"Zhovia, aren't you Mrs. Difficulties?" Tianqi scolded dissatisfiedly.

However, no one expected, Charlie nodded and smiled: "Then it depends on you."

Seeing Charlie's promise, Tianqi didn't say anything anymore, he also wanted to see his details.

"I'll come first." Zhovia was overjoyed, and she immediately stepped forward, walked slowly in front of the crowd, staring at the other side carefully.

Ten minutes later, Zhovia smiled and said, "I'm all optimistic! Uncle Song has reddening on his body and horizontal stripes on his forehead. He should be suffering from high blood pressure. He usually has a light diet and avoids big fish."

As soon as she finished speaking, the middle-aged man of the Song family exclaimed: "The genius doctor Zhovia is really amazing. I do have high blood pressure."

Zhovia pointed to Honor again and said, "Your eyebrows are red, your eyes are cloudy, you have lung fever, and your condition is almost healed."

Honor smiled bitterly: "I admire it. I was coughed and caught a lung infection last week. I have almost treated it."

Zhovia added: "As for Miss Song, sometimes she has irregular menstruation and menstrual cramps, which should be caused by overwork."

Warnia nodded and said, "You're right."

She pointed out the symptoms of several people one by one, and they were all correct.

Everyone was shocked and praised Tianqi for his teaching, and his granddaughter's young age and her medical skills.

Tianqi also smiled, quite proud.

Finally, Zhovia looked at Charlie again, smiled triumphantly, and said: "Mr. Charlie, your condition is the most serious! You must have a heart attack!"

Charlie smiled and said: "I didn't expect you to be less than twenty, but the medical skills are so amazing. I also admire it. However, there is a little omission, I will add it for you."

Chapter 242

After finishing speaking, he pointed to the middle-aged man of the Song family: "In addition to high blood pressure, this gentleman also suffers from diabetes and heart palpitations, especially the ribs of the left chest must have been broken. It is assumed that it should be an old injury ten years ago.

The middle-aged man from the Song family was shocked and said in astonishment, "Mr. Charlie, your medical skills are too strong. Even my diabetes and broken bones can be seen. I did have a car accident 13 years ago and had a rib fracture. "

Charlie smiled and pointed to Honor again: "His lung infection was caused by the invasion of cold after drinking and his insufficient kidney functioning. In addition to lung heat, his biggest problem should be kidney deficiency. First, eradicate the lung heat will to cure the kidney."

Honor was embarrassed and said, "You're so f*cking pretending to be a fool, I have a very good kidney!"

A man is said to have kidney deficiency, naturally, he is not convinced.

Moreover, even if the kidney is really weak, it must not be admitted.

Charlie looked at him and said lightly: "Kidney deficiency is just a sign of renal function decline. If you continue like that, your kidney function will get worse and worse. This will not only affect your ability in that area but also make you more likely to suffer from uremia. So don't be too conceited and take the time to go to the hospital, maybe there is still a rescue, otherwise, you can only wait for the kidney transplant."

"You" Honor was irritated, and was about to attack, but was stopped by the middle-aged man on the side.

Charlie looked at Warnia again and said lightly: "Miss Song, your body is mainly affected by the effects of the trapped dragon formation before, and there are some sequelae, and you happened to have a menstrual event last midnight, and you were more cloudy. But you can rest assured that when this menstruation passes, all these symptoms will naturally disappear, and future menstruations will be more punctual."

Warnia looked surprised, and she was a little bit ashamed.

She didn't know, how could Charlie figure out that she was here, and figure out that she came last night, is this not amazing?

At this time, Zhovia saw Charlie supplement the condition of these people, she was surprised, but even more unconvinced.

She couldn't see these hidden diseases by looking at the face, but Charlie just glanced at it lightly, but said everything, what is going on? Is he guessing?

Zhovia bit her lip and said, "Mr. Charlie, you have a heart attack, am I right?"

"Really?" Charlie smiled and stretched out his hand in front of Tianqi: "Trouble Tianqi, take my pulse for me."

Tianqi hesitated, stretched out his hand to put Charlie's wrist.

After a while, he put down his hand, turned his head and glared at Zhovia, then yelled: "You are a three-legged cat, and you are still making an ax in front of Mr. Charlie. You still don't apologize to Mr. Charlie!"

Zhovia shouted: "Grandpa, what did I say wrong."

Tianqi shook his head, sighed, and said: "Take a pulse yourself, Mr. Charlie has a heart attack. You are mistaken."

"What!" Zhovia couldn't believe her ears. She had never made any mistakes in her diagnosis for more than ten years, and the characteristics of heart disease were the easiest to see. How could she get it wrong?

She walked in front of Charlie, stretched out her hand to catch his pulse, and was stunned, her face flushed suddenly.

His heart is very good, with no heart disease!

Did he deliberately pretend to have a heart attack just now to make her appear foolish?

If he can do it and easily disguise the characteristics of a certain disease on his own surface, then his body's control of true qi should have been superb, right?

If you say that, you can really be regarded as a man of God.

Moreover, he saw the hidden illnesses of these people just now, and he didn't think about it. His medical skills are far above her!

Don't say you can't compare, even if it is grandpa, it is absolutely incomparable!

However, he is still so young, how can he have such a strong strength?

Chapter 243

Zhovia finally understood what Charlie meant by "almost mean".

People still give her face, she doesn't "almost mean", but "much worse"!

Tianqi was also shocked.

He saw that Charlie was controlling his internal breath, deliberately letting the true energy flow backward in his body, creating the illusion of "heart disease", so his granddaughter was fooled.

However, the reverse flow of true Qi in the body can make people extremely painful.

But Charlie can not only control the true Qi flow in his body, but also retract and unwind freely, and his complexion is as usual, without any pain, this cultivation base is probably more than 50 years, at least more than a hundred years of learning! !

Tianqi knew that he had met an expert in the hidden world.

His granddaughter is still dying, constantly provoking him. Fortunately, Charlie is a gentleman. If she angers him, then he and his granddaughter will have to return to the West with only one move, and they will not even have the strength to fight back.

So, he glared at Zhovia, and said, "Mr. Charlie's cultivation level is extraordinary. You have taken a look at it by yourself and don't apologize."

After finishing speaking, Tianqi quickly clasped his fists and arched his hands to Charlie: "The Old Master has no way to discipline his granddaughter. Please master Wade, you must punish her well when you return."

Zhovia also recovered and understood that the other party's medical skills were several grades higher than her own, and had to be convinced. She bowed her head and said, "I admit that your medical skills are better than mine."

Charlie smiled and waved his hand, and said: "Practicing medicine is to save the world and save people. There is nothing strong or not strong. If I encounter some intractable diseases that I haven't seen, I might have to ask Mr. Tianqi for more advice."

This speech made Tianqi look ashamed, but he was even more admired.

Obviously, the other party's medical skills are much higher than his own, but he deliberately gave himself a step-down. This mind is definitely not owned by ordinary people!

Moreover, his medical skills have reached a superb level, so much so that throughout China, there will be no second person to be found like him!

Tianqi arched his hand to Charlie and said with a serious face: "I didn't expect that in my lifetime, I would meet a master like Mr. Wade, and I will ask Master Wade for advice in the future."

Charlie held his hand and nodded slightly.

Tianqi was surprised and quickly said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade."

Seeing the conversation between the two, everyone in the room was shocked.

He was already the number one genius doctor in Aurous Hill, so he condescended to ask Charlie for advice.

Everyone in the room was shocked.

The No. 1 genius doctor in Aurous Hill is highly respected no matter where he goes, and the major hospitals also treat Tianqi as a guest. He actually looks like a pupil in front of Charlie and asks the "master" for advice. This is incredible!

Zhovia was also stunned, but she didn't dare to ask more.

Charlie glanced at Tianqi and said, "Old Shi, I think you have an internal injury, so you let your granddaughter take care of the illness, right?"

"You actually saw my grandpa's internal injury?"

A look of surprise flashed across Zhovia's face.

However, she quickly regained her composure.

With Charlie's medical skills, it can be seen that it is also normal.

Zhovia said: "My grandfather was in retreat and healed his wounds. This year, he did not treat others anymore. When Honor came to find him, my grandfather also declined. But two days ago, a friend of my grandfather sold him a magical medicine. I heard that magic medicine was obtained in Aurous Hill. My grandfather wanted to come and have a look, so he stopped by to see Mr. Song as well."

Chapter 244

"What magical medicine?" Charlie was also surprised.

There was even a magical medicine that made Tianqi fascinated, and he didn't know what rare treasure it was.

Tianqi quickly took out a jade box from his arms, opened it cautiously, and said, "This magical medicine cost me five million, but it's absolutely worth it! I have taken half of it, and I am refining this half of the medicine. I am carrying it with me, Mr. Wade, please have a look."

Seeing that this "magic medicine" turned Tianqi into a treasure, the crowd gathered around to see what the "magic medicine" was that fascinated the doctor.

As soon as the jade box was opened, a smell of medicine suddenly popped out.

Seeing half a black traditional medicine pill in the box, Tianqi took a jade knife, carefully cut off a large piece the size of a nail, and handed it to the middle-aged man in the Song family and Honor to let them both try.

The two hesitated and put the medicine slag into their mouths.

The medicine slag melted in the mouth, and the expression of the middle-aged man from the Song family became more and more surprised.

"Old Shi, what kind of medicine is this? I often have a dull pain in the fracture of my left chest, but now the pain is gone!"

Honor was also stunned: "My lungs have always been uncomfortable, but after eating this little medicine residue, I feel better immediately!"

Tianqi smiled and said, "Now you know its efficacy."

The middle-aged man from the Song family looked surprised and said to Mr. Shi, "This elixir is really amazing. If Mr. Shi can make it, I'd like to spend a lot of money on it!"

Tianqi smiled bitterly: "I have also studied its prescription, but I can't make it at all. I only know that it is an alchemy that has long been lost. I'm afraid this half-magic medicine is a gem in the world."

Charlie saw the half pill and was stunned on the spot, followed by a wry smile.

"Old Shi, you bought this medicine for five million?"

"Yes."

Tianqi smiled and said, "Five million is not too much. It is worth 10 million to buy such a long-lost elixir."

Mr. Wade, you can also see that this pill comes from a good source. My friend said that the person who made this pill was Grand Mr. Yin Shi, who was more than 150 years old. My friend knelt at the gate of Grand Mr.'s residence for three days. It was only three nights that moved Master and bought it for five million pieces. The day after he bought the medicine, the grandmaster left his home and wandered around, I am afraid it will be hard to see him again in this life. "

The middle-aged man of the Song family sighed: "This old master, I am afraid it is an immortal master! Spend five million to buy an elixir, which is really not much."

Zhovia apologized to Charlie just now, although she was convinced of his medical skills when she thought that his medical skills were better than Grandpa, she was uncomfortable anyway.

Seeing Charlie's face at this moment weird, as if holding back a smile, she immediately became a little angry and couldn't help but said: "Hey, what are you laughing. Don't you even look down on the elixir, you can practice?"

Charlie was stunned for a moment and seeing everyone looking at him, he had to say: "I made this pill, Mr. Shi, you were cheated on by your friend."

As soon as his voice fell, the whole room was silent.

Dozens of eyes stared at him, everyone was stunned.

Tianqi was stunned on the spot, unable to return to God. After a while, he said in astonishment: "Mr. Wade, you really cultivated these peerless magical medicines?"

Zhovia opened her mouth wide as if her body was frozen.

Charlie nodded and said faintly: "This thing is not a magical medicine, but I got it out and treated my father-in-law for the bruises, and I was afraid that his body would not be able to bear it. I also deliberately reduced the potency of these medicines, which are only semi-finished products. ."

As soon as Charlie finished speaking, the crowd was silent again!

Chapter 245

Tianqi was so shocked by Charlie's description that he couldn't even speak.

The whole body, even the white beard, is trembling

He couldn't believe that he thought it was the magic medicine refined by Grand Master Hidden, but it was actually refined by the young Charlie who was standing in front of him.

And, in his words, this can only be regarded as a semi-finished product?!

The semi-finished products are so powerful, then if the pill is refined for 800, wouldn't the effect be at least twice as good as the current one?!

The middle-aged man in the Song family was dumbfounded, and suddenly a burst of ecstasy surged in his heart!

He never dreamed that Warnia could find such a great god!

If the Song family could hold such a thigh, it would be a golden thigh!

But what is it that most rich and powerful people are afraid of? It's death!

No matter how much money, no matter how great the momentum, lifeless enjoyment can only be in vain!

If you know this kind of master who can take out the magic medicine at hand, prolonging your life is not a luxury!

Let Song Lao say, if Song Lao can live for another five years, it will be a blessing to the entire Song family!

Because Song Lao's face, Song Lao's foundation, and Song Lao's contacts are impossible to compare to any descendant in the family!

The Old Master is alive, many people must give face, but if the Old Master is gone, many people will no longer give the Song family any importance.

Therefore, the Song family also hoped that the Old Master could live as many years as possible.

With him protecting the sons of the Song family, they will get twice the result with half the effort!

Honor, who had been looking down upon Charlie, was also shocked at this time.

At the same time, he couldn't help feeling a little panicked.

Just now, he was desperately ridiculing him, but he didn't want to know that he is the real hidden master!

Tianqi couldn't help holding his fists and bowed, begging: "Mr. Wade, the Old Master has been plagued by old injuries. If you can be kind and make a magical medicine, the Old Master would like to give you 10 million in cash!"

The middle-aged man from the Song family couldn't help but stepped forward to salute, and said with a trembling, "Mr. Wade, if you can refine the magic medicine again, please give me a gift to the Song family. The Song family is also willing to give you ten million in cash! "

Charlie said indifferently: "I don't lack money, and I can prepare medicine again. It's not troublesome. Since you are sincere, I will prepare some more in the future. I will give you one at that time."

"Mr. Wade, you are really a distinguished person from my Song family." The middle-aged man from the Song family was so excited that he saw Charlie standing, and quickly moved a stool over and wiped it with his sleeve: "Mr. Wade Sit down."

Honor also hurriedly held a cup of tea and presented it to Charlie respectfully: "Mr. Wade, take a sip of tea."

Warnia watched silently, shocked in her heart with nothing to add!

She didn't expect Charlie to have such strength!

Moreover, he is a superfluous son-in-law, and his 20 million cash is unmoved. Why?

Could it be that his own energy is stronger than what she can currently see?

But why should such a powerful person be willing to be a son-in-law?

Tianqi, known as a genius doctor, also sighed from the bottom of his heart at this time: "Mr. Wade, you are really an immortal master! Your strength, your heart, and atmosphere, I am afraid that if I live for a hundred years, I may not be able to catch up with you."

Chapter 246

In Tianqi's view, even if he lived another fifty years, he would still not be able to touch Charlie's current heel at most.

This man's medical skills are unfathomable, and what's more magical is that he can refine such powerful magical medicine. This is simply a godlike existence!

Tianqi's granddaughter, Zhovia, was already blushing at this time. She was not convinced of Charlie just now, but now she is completely convinced!

Charlie said to Tianqi indifferently at this time: "Old Shi, although the medicine you bought is really effective for your internal injuries, it lacks a few prescriptions after all, and the effect is 20%. Wait for me. I will give you a complete pill, then you just have to take it, and the internal injury will be cured immediately."

"Mr. Wade, thank you next!"

Tianqi was grateful, and the Old Master knelt and clasped his fists in tears.

Zhovia also bowed down with Tianqi, blushing, and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, thank you!"

Tianqi also said: "Mr. Wade, you are not in Nanguang Traditional traditional medical field, but I have been in contact for decades, and I have some connections. With Mr. Wade's kindness, I have no retribution. If you need any medicinal materials in the future, Or if you want to do something, just ask me for it."

Charlie nodded slightly.

Don't think that Tianqi is only a traditional medicine doctor, but the Shi family has practiced medicine for generations and is the number one genius doctor in the south of the Yangtze River. His connections and resources in medicinal materials are probably not as good as the Song family.

With the help of the Shi family, it will be easier to find medicinal materials for cultivation in the future.

At this moment, Song Lao, who had not been moving, suddenly coughed and opened his eyes!

Everyone's eyes were attracted by him. Under this look, he was suddenly surprised!

Old Song, who had been unconscious, sat up from the bed by himself!

This this

The middle-aged man in the Song family didn't even dare to breathe, he was afraid that all this was just his own illusion.

The doctor had already given the Old Master a critical illness notice, thinking that the Old Master would not survive for a few days.

Honor specially invited the genius doctor Tianqi, but after Tianqi's granddaughter gave the injection, it only made the Old Master's complexion slightly restored, but he could do nothing about Song Lao's condition.

He thought that he could even prepare for the Old Master's funeral, and Charlie went up silently and gave the Old Master an injection.

And he did not expect that Charlie said that the Old Master would wake up in half an hour, and the Old Master would actually wake up in half an hour!

Moreover, the Old Master seems to have clear eyes, a strong complexion, and a ruddy complexion that is much better than before he fell ill!

This is really amazing!

Tianqi exclaimed, and said, "Mr. Wade said half an hour, but even a minute is not wasted!"

The Song family members were amazed, as said, a genius doctor! Sure enough, a genius doctor!

The middle-aged man from the Song family hurriedly stepped forward and asked the Old Master: "Dad, how are you feeling?"

Lao Song looked at his beloved son with complicated eyes, and his eyes were full of rejoicing after the disaster, and exclaimed: "I thought I was dead, I really didn't expect to wake up again."

The middle-aged man from the Song family pointed to Charlie and said excitedly, "Dad, thanks to Mr. Wade for saving you this time!"

Old Song turned his head to look at Charlie. Seeing that he was so young, he couldn't help but be startled slightly. Then he recovered and said, "The life-saving grace of the genius doctor is unforgettable!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "It's not enough to raise your hand."

Having said that, Charlie pointed to Tianqi and his granddaughter Zhovia next to him and said: "Mr. Shi and his granddaughter have done a lot to save you. It is not my credit alone."

Chapter 247:

Chapter 247:

Tianqi did not expect that Charlie would still be able to say good things to him and his granddaughter at this time. He was grateful and humbly said: "Song Lao, Mr. Wade is humble. In fact, Song Lao can turn the crisis into safety. It's not him, and we may not wake you up."

Song Lao nodded but said politely: "I've heard of the reputation of being a genius doctor, so please don't belittle yourself. In any case, you are already kind to me if you can come this time."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, my life-saving grace is unforgettable! If there is anything that can be of any use for you in the Song family, it belongs to you!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Song is polite."

After speaking, when it was late, Charlie said: "Song Lao, you have recovered from a serious illness, and it is not suitable to spend more energy. It is better for you to have some rest, and I will too leave now."

Old Song hurriedly said: "Mr. Charlie, I don't know how much consultation fee should be paid for saving Lao Fu's life this time? Lao Fu will definitely pay twice!"

Charlie said indifferently: "There is no need for the consultation fee. This time I came here for Warnia, it is the help between friends."

Warnia was shocked both physically and mentally when she heard this!

Charlie is giving credit to her in front of grandpa! After all, grandpa can decide how many properties each Song family can inherit and what role they can play in the family business in the future!

If she can get his love, she may even become the future leader of the Song family, which is what she has been looking forward to.

Charlie gave her such a big credit this time, and it seems that she is one step closer to this goal!

Elder Song couldn't help but look at his granddaughter Warnia, nodded slightly, and even said: "Okay! Very good! Warnia, even if you save your grandfather, you must not treat Mr. Wade badly!"

Warnia hurriedly bowed, and said seriously: "Grandpa, don't worry, I will repay Mr. Wade well!"

"Good." Song Lao nodded in satisfaction and laughed heartily.

Honor standing not far away, his expression became extremely ugly.

This credit was completely robbed by Warnia, so it seems that he will be very passive in the future

Charlie didn't stay in Song's house for too long. Seeing that Song Lao was almost recovered, he proposed to leave.

So, Song Lao asked the Song family member to see him off to the door in person.

Tianqi also decided to leave with his granddaughter. To Charlie, he said that in the next few days, he would find a hotel to stay in Aurous Hill, and he would contact him when he finished refining the medicine.

Tianqi was naturally thankful, watching Charlie respectfully get into Warnia's car.

Later, Warnia drove Charlie back to the city.

On the way, Warnia said to him: "Mr. Wade, thank you so much today."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Little things, you don't need to be so polite, maybe I will need Miss Song's help in the future!"

Warnia hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade can rest assured, in your need, Warnia will never refuse to go through fire and water!"

After all, Warnia looked at Charlie's profile and asked tentatively: "Mr. Wade, I wonder if you can find a place to sit and have a drink?"

She had ten thousand doubts about Charlie in her heart, waiting for the mystery to be solved, and she also found that Charlie seemed to have a strong magnetic force on his body and began to exude an irresistible attraction to herself, which made her unable to help it. She wants to get in touch with him more and learn more about the secrets in his heart.

Chapter 248

Charlie looked at the time, it wasn't too late, and it was true that he hadn't drunk happily for a long time, so he nodded and said, "Okay, you can choose the place!"

Warnia was overjoyed on her face and hurriedly said: "I know a bar, it's a great place!"

After that, she stepped on the accelerator and drove quickly towards the city center.

In the city center, a bar named sunny.

Warnia parked the car at the door, and directly threw the car key to the little brother standing there, and took Charlie through the steps.

When the waiter saw her, he immediately said respectfully: "Miss Song, good evening! Are you still in your old seat?"

Warnia nodded, and the other party immediately said, "Please follow me."

On the first floor of this bar, there is a dance floor and a DJ, which is quite lively, but the waiter took them directly to the second floor. On the second floor, beside the empty railing, there is a seat with no seats around. Not only can you watch the lively scene below, and there is no influence around, and the music is not so loud, it can be quiet in the noise.

As soon as Warnia sat down, she immediately said to the waiter: "Two bottles of the best 82 Lafite."

"OK, Miss Song!"

The waiter bowed very respectfully, and then quickly brought up two bottles of red wine.

The wine was opened, and part of it was poured into the decanter. The waiter wanted to wait there. Warnia said to him, "Go down and say hello to your boss. Don't bring other guests on the second floor today."

"OK, Miss Song!" The other party bowed respectfully and retreated.

Charlie asked curiously: "Do you have shares here?"

Warnia smiled slightly and said, "This bar was opened by a member of the Song family branch."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "The Song family is really a big family."

Warnia laughed at herself and said, "It's okay. In Aurous Hill, this one-third of acres, there is really no family that can match it, but after leaving Aurous Hill, it is actually nothing. Just Eastcliff has a big Big family with much better votes than the Song family. The Lan family, the Huang family, the Ou family, and the Dong family are the most powerful, and the Su family and the Wade family. Big families like the Wade family can match dozens of us. We can only look up."

Charlie smiled without saying a word.

Wade family? Isn't it his family?

It's just that he hasn't figured out whether he wants to go back yet.

To be honest, life is actually pretty good now. Not only does he have the Emgrand Group and tens of billions of cash, but also have the infinite possibilities that the Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures give me.

In contrast, if he goes back to Wade's house, he will be subject to many constraints. How can he be so free then?

Warnia poured a glass of red wine for Charlie and herself at this time, handed one of them to him, smiled, and said, "Come on, Mr. Wade, I toast you a glass!"

The lights on the second floor were dim, and the waiter placed two candles on the table. Warnia's face looked pink and tender under the candlelight.

Charlie took the wine, looked at Warnia, who was rosy and tender, and said with a smile: "Miss Song, whenever you drink, you must have a reason to drink, such as what we want to celebrate, or what we want to remember or forget, to be upset or happy about something, so before we drink each glass of wine, we have to talk about why this glass of wine was drunk, what do you think?"

Chapter 249

Hearing Charlie's special request, Warnia said with a smile: "Okay, since it's the first drink, let me explain why.

With that, she cleared her throat, smiled sweetly, and said, "Of course the first drink is to thank you! You saved my grandfather today and did me a big favor!"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Okay, then we will do this glass of wine!"

After speaking, he picked up the wine glass, touched the wine glass in Warnia's hand, and drank it in one go.

Warnia also drank all the wine in the wine glass very boldly, and then asked Charlie with a smile: "Mr. Charlie, why did you drink the second glass?"

"Okay." Charlie smiled, and said: "This second cup is just for fate! In this world, people can get to know each other because of the fate gained through thousands of years of cultivation. You and I have a fate. This cup of wine is Respect for fate!"

"Okay!" Warnia said with a smile: "Respect for fate!"

Immediately after the third cup, Warnia blushed pretty and said: "This cup of wine, to Mr. Wade's superb ability, I saw Mr. Charlie's ability to treat illnesses and save people today, and I became more and more certain that your act in Aurous Hill by lightning. It's not accidental, Mr. Charlie, would you like to talk about it yourself?"

Charlie smiled casually, and said unfathomably: "Was it not accidental? God knows it better. As for you and me mortals, you can only say that the secret is not to be revealed."

Warnia nodded and smiled, watching Charlie's beautiful eyes continue to flow, and said seriously: "In order not to reveal the secret, let's have a drink!"

"it is good!"

After a few glasses of wine, Warnia's eyes turned a bit blurred.

Although she has a good amount of alcohol tolerance, she drinks several glasses of red wine in one breath.

At this time, it was time for her to say the toast and the reason for drinking.

Warnia looked at Charlie with a pair of big eyes and a bit drunk, and suddenly said faintly: "Actually, Mr. Charlie, I recently discovered that you are actually quite good."

"Very good?" Charlie chuckled and asked curiously: "What do you mean by this?"

"Many aspects." Warnia said earnestly: "You are more interesting than the people I usually contact. Many people I usually contact, either always flatter me, hold me, follow me, or always treat me. I have some unclear attempts, and it can be said that few are good things."

"What?" Charlie asked curiously: "Do you think I have no intentions against you?"

Warnia nodded and said, "I think you seem to feel a little detached from the world."

Chapter 250

Charlie asked curiously: "Beyond the mundane world? What do you say?"

Warnia said seriously: "Mr. Charlie looks ugly, but he is actually very capable, capable but not arrogant, usually not showing up, but once someone touches your limit, you will not hesitate. The counterattack, and the decisive killing and not leaving any opportunity for the opponent to backhand, these qualities are by no means carried by the ordinary people.

After that, Warnia said again: "More importantly, I don't understand. Why do you want to be a live-in son-in-law in the Willson family because you have such a great ability? The Willson family is just a second-and third-rate ordinary family. You are a great god, stay in it?"

Charlie didn't answer her question, but asked her: "Then you think if I don't stay in the Willson family, where should I stay? Or, do you think, where can I stay in it?"

Warnia said seriously: "I think you should marry a top-notch big family. For an expert like you, countless big families will sharpen their heads and marry their daughters to you."

Charlie said with a smile: "What's the point of that? This kind of combination of interests does not have any love factor in itself. A girl from a big family is willing to marry someone she doesn't like? Or just want to be herself Is your life under the command and control of your family?"

Warnia naturally said: "Of course! Any big family has always been particularly strict with the girls in the family. For example, you must go to a very top aristocratic school, not to learn knowledge, but to learn aristocratic social etiquette. For another example, if we are under a certain age or timing, the family strictly forbids us from contacting the opposite s3x, and never allows us to fall in love on our own.

"Really?" Charlie asked surprised: "This is the 21st century. How come you big families are more feudal than those in the ancient feudal society of our country?"

"This is not feudal." Warnia said earnestly: "This is the survival rule of the upper family."

"Law of survival?" Charlie asked curiously: "How to say?"

Warnia said seriously: "We need to cooperate, bind, and exchange resources with other families. Therefore, one of the family mottos of our Song family is very important: All direct members of the family must obey the family when talking about marriage."

"In the feudal society, the requirement of the Song family to intermarriage was that the marriage must be between the cousins, that is, the previous cousin married the cousin, this cousin married that cousin, this is to prevent wealth dilution or outflow, but now the country prohibits three generations blood relatives to married, but even abroad, many cousins still get married."

"Later, our family motto was gradually relaxed. We did not require marriage with a cousin, but we had to intermarry with other large families. The other side's family power can be higher than our own, but it must not be too much lower than ours."

Speaking of this, Warnia sighed and continued: "The family believes that a family has the value of cooperation, and it will find ways to let the men of the family marry the women of the other family, or marry the women of the family into the other family. All family members must focus on family interests and must not disobey any arrangements made by the family, especially major marriages.”

Charlie sighed, and said, “It seems that this big family also has the distress of the big family. The richer, the more greedy for money.”

When speaking, Charlie also sighed inwardly. It seemed that if he returned to the Wade family, the Wade family would absolutely have to exercise the same control over him, and might even look down on the Willson family and force him to divorce Claire. , And then introduce him to a wealthy daughter from another big family.

It seemed that the Wade family really couldn’t return.

Thinking in his heart, Charlie asked: “By the way, I think Miss Song you are also at the age of marrying. I wonder if your family has arranged a good marriage partner for you?”

Warnia shook her head and said, “It was originally planned. First, my cousin Honor’s marriage was decided. His fiancée was the daughter of a northern family designated by my grandfather. When it was my turn, my grandfather was seriously ill. So I didn’t care about this matter anymore, but now my grandpa is healed from illness, I guess he will start planning my marriage soon.”

Chapter 251

Charlie laughed helplessly when he heard it, and said, “Miss Song doesn’t seem to want to be restrained by the Song family?”

Warnia nodded and said, “I really don’t want to, but I have no other way.

“Why?” Charlie said earnestly: “I think your grandfather should have changed his mind after this critical moment of life and death, plus this time you found me and saved his life. If he is really grateful to you, you ask him for a free body, or a right to freely decide your future husband, I believe he should agree.”

Warnia smiled bitterly and shook her head, and said, “It’s impossible. Even if Grandpa loves me and wants to agree, he dare not agree.”

"Why?" Charlie asked puzzledly: "Isn't your grandpa the head of the family? He controls everything in the Song family, so what else is he afraid of?"

Warnia said seriously: "The Song family has developed many branches for so many years to date. The branches rely on rules to restrain each other so that everyone obeys the family precepts. Otherwise, if you break the rules, others will also imitate, once your children marry freely, children from other families also hope to be able to love freely. In that case, the Song family's losses will inevitably be very heavy. If everyone is so unruly, the Song family may fail in a few decades."

Having said that, Warnia said again: "The Song family has been able to stand tall from the end of the Qing Dynasty. It has grown up to today. The main thing is that everyone abides by the family motto and does not cross the thunder pool for half a step. Even if the family is divided and there are many branches, our various branches are also supervising each other, and no one is allowed to have anything harmful to the interests of the Song family."

Charlie sighed and said seriously: "I always thought that Miss Song was a very powerful woman. I didn't expect you to be a sleeping beast. Everything must be at the mercy of others."

"Right!" Warnia sighed very lowly, and said, "There is no way to fight this kind of thing."

Speaking of this, Warnia shook her head, picked up the glass, and said, "Mr. Charlie, let's not talk about these unhappy things. Come on, drink! I'll toast to you again!"

Charlie smiled slightly, picked up the wine glass, and said: "This glass of wine, to respect for freedom!"

Warnia was slightly startled.

Respect for freedom?

Where does my freedom come from?

Although she was very depressed, she still smiled forcefully, nodded, and said, "Come, let us respect freedom!"

After another glass of wine, Warnia became drunker. She looked at Charlie and said with a sigh: "Many times I would wish if rather be born in an ordinary family. In that case, my life might be a little more difficult, but there would be absolutely not so many constraints, what my family can bring to me, apart from such a high position and the inexhaustible wealth of my life, has not given me any real happiness."

Charlie smiled. Said: "Many ordinary people are actually more envious of you, rich people who never have to worry about money. Isn't there a saying that they would rather cry in a BMW than laugh on a bicycle? In your eyes, an ordinary family is very rare, but in the eyes of ordinary people, this kind of ordinariness is precisely what they most want to get rid of. Everyone has sharpened their heads, isn't it just to make money?"

Warnia looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, you are not trying to make money! You don't seem to care about the amount of money at all. Just like just now, a pill of 10 million, you can make as much as you like. Ten million, but you don't want to ask for it, don't you want to give it away, isn't this just looking at money like dirt?"

Charlie smiled indifferently, thinking to himself, I regard money as dung because I am not short of money.

You didn't know me when I was short of money.

At the time, Aunt Lena was seriously ill. In order to make up for her medical expenses, I begged Mrs. Willson to borrow money at her birthday banquet.

I thought that if she believed in Buddhism, she would have the kind of Buddhist thought of saving one's life than building a seventh-level Buddha, and maybe she would lend me some money.

Chapter 252

"But she didn't expect that she believed in Buddhism on the surface, but inside was actually an extremely greedy shameless person.

At that time, if someone wanted to give me a million, I was even willing to kneel down for him.

People cannot resist the attraction of money when they have no money.

Those who can really do it treat money like dung, people who already have money to spend, it is worthless.

For example, now, ten to twenty million is considered a bullsh*t? I don't know how to spend the tens of billions in my account, and the Emgrand Group has tens of billions of profits a year, and I don't know how to spend it.

In this case, what is the point of asking for 20 million? I would rather not have this money, and let them pay homage to them, calling themselves one by one Mr. Wade and one by one great benefactor.

This is really cool!

But, these words, how can I tell Warnia."

She now thinks he is a saint with money like dung and the ability to reach the sky.

In that case, let her continue to think so!

At this time, Warnia drank a little and said: "Actually, I can tolerate everything else, but in the matter of marriage, I really don't want to be manipulated by them. I don't want to be their pawn. I don't want to marry a man I don't love at all, and I don't want to give my youth and happiness to the Song family. I don't want to repeat the mistakes of my mother."

Charlie asked curiously: "Your mother, was it also an arranged marriage?"

"Yes." Warnia nodded and said, "My mother married my dad. She was never happy in her life. She was depressed for many years and passed away at a young age."

Charlie remembered that Warnia lost her mother's relic left to her last time. According to Orvel, her mother has been away for more than ten years.

Warnia is also twenty-five or so. It is estimated that her mother had already left when she was ten years old. In that case, her mother was really young when she left.

Warnia drank a sip of wine alone, played with the wine glass in her hand, and said apologetically: "I'm sorry, Mr. Charlie, for letting you listen to my so much nonsense."

Charlie hurriedly said: "Miss Song, don't say that you can choose to tell me this, it must be your trust in me."

Warnia nodded lightly, wiped away the tears from the corners of her eyes, and said, "By the way, thank you very much Mr. Charlie today. Not only did you save my grandfather, but you also heard me complain about so much nonsense, thank you!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "You don't need to be so polite, no matter how you can be regarded as friends, when friends are too polite, and they seem to be divided."

"Yeah!" Warnia nodded and said, "It's getting late, Mr. Charlie or I will drop you back."

Charlie waved his hand: "You don't need to send me off, but you can't drive in this situation. It's best to find a substitute."

Warnia nodded and said, "Don't worry, the female manager here can help me drive. I'll take you back first!"

Chapter 253

That night, after Warnia sent Charlie home, she returned to the Song family villa.

The Song family father did not follow Charlie's instructions to take a rest but was sitting in the hall, listening to Warnia's father and her uncles to report the family situation.

Seeing her back, Mr. Song hurriedly waved his hand and said: "Warnia, I have been waiting for you."

"Grandpa!" Warnia screamed respectfully, and asked, "I wonder what grandpa would like to give me?"

Mr. Song said, "You invited Mr. Wade here. What is the situation of Mr. Wade? Please tell me about it. I want a detailed account."

"Yes, grandpa!"

Warnia hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade and I met by chance in Jiqingtang, when Mr. Wade was with his father-in-law."

"Father-in-law?" Old Son Song frowned, "Mr. Wade is already married?"

"Yes." Warnia nodded quickly. "

"It's a pity, it's a pity!" Mr. Song shook his head and sighed, "It's really a pity!"

Honor hurriedly said: "Grandpa, don't worry, I have inquired about this Mr. Wade. He seems to be a live-in son-in-law recruited by a not very influential small family."

"Small family?" Old Son Song was even more puzzled: "Which little family can find such a son-in-law?"

Honor said with a smile: "Willson family, you probably haven't heard of Grandpa."

"I have never heard of it."

Grandpa Song frowned and said, "Since it's a small family, it won't get in the way. We still have hope."

After speaking, he looked at Warnia and said: "Warnia, you go on."

So Warnia continued: "At that time in Jiqingtang, Mr. Wade's father-in-law accidentally overturned one of our antique vases, and then Mr. Wade repaired it with lost craftsmanship. Not only did he repair the vase, but also doubled its value. At that time, I paid more attention to Mr. Wade."

Immediately afterward, Warnia recounted the whole process of knowing Charlie.

When she said that Charlie had smashed Hong Kong metaphysics master in Aurous Hill to death at the White family's metaphysics conference, everyone sitting was stunned!

Old Song murmured: "I have heard of this person a long time ago. It is said that he has an incomparable ability. Even if Li Ka-shing wants to sell him a bit of face, he was killed by Mr. Wade?"

"Yes!" Warnia said with a face full of admiration: "On the same day, that man was arrogant in front of Mr. Wade. Mr. Wade only said a word of thunder to the sky. Then, a thunder exploded out of thin air, killing that fake master instantly."

"My God, what kind of supernatural power is this!" Old Master Song was shocked!

The other Song family members were also shocked.

Leading the sky to smash Master from Hong Kong metaphysics? This is too amazing, right?

Then Warnia said: "Later, another Feng Shui master from Hong Kong tried to deceive me. Thanks to Mr. Wade who saw through the other side, he helped me change the trapped dragon formation in Feng Shui!"

Warnia continued to talk about the magic of Charlie that day. After listening to Mr. Song, combined with the fact that he was rescued by Charlie today, the whole person was struck by lightning!

After sitting in the upper seat for a long time, he sighed and said, "This Willson family, this is a dragon son-in-law! This Charlie is an ordinary mortal, he is a real dragon in the sky!"

Honor said awkwardly: "Grandpa, this Charlie has a little skill, but it's a bit too exaggerated to say what he is a real dragon?"

"Exaggeration?" Mr. Song said coldly: "You think that if you say a word of thunder to the sky, the sky will drop thunder and lightning. Isn't this a great supernatural power? People with great supernatural powers, not to mention a real dragon, even a true god, That's it!"

After speaking, he looked at Warnia and said seriously: "Warnia! Grandpa gives you a task!"

Chapter 254

Warnia hurriedly said, "Grandpa, yes please!"

Mr. Song said, "I want you to recruit Charlie to the Song family to be our son-in-law anyway!"

"Ah?!" The people present, including Warnia, looked shocked.

However, in Warnia's heart, there was a burst of excitement like a little woman.

But she still said very cautiously: "Grandpa, Mr. Wade, he is already married."

"So what?" The Old Master Song said firmly: "Don't say that he is already married, even if he has a lot of wives and concubines and a lot of children, we have to win him over! If we have such a dragon son in the Song family. Sitting in town can ensure that the energy of the Song family has increased exponentially, and even we can rank among the top Chinese families! If there is no such dragon son-in-law, after a hundred, three hundred, and five hundred years, the sons of our Song family may not be able to Realize this magnificent wish and make the Song family one of the top families in the Country!"

Warnia hesitated again and again, but suddenly had a strong expectation.

She looked at her grandpa and said seriously: "Grandpa, I understand!"

Father Song laughed loudly and said, "Good! Good! Good! Great! If this happens, Warnia, you will be the next Patriarch of the Song family!"

When these words came out, the audience was shocked!

When did the Patriarch of the Song family given to a woman?

However, Mr. Song just made such a promise!

To tell all, Mr. Song has never broken his promise in his life!

For a time, everyone in the Song family had their own thoughts

When Charlie went home, it was already ten o'clock in the evening.

However, when he arrived home, he was a little puzzled to see the family sitting in the living room with a solemn atmosphere.

Elaine saw Charlie come back, staring and questioning: "Charlie, where have you been? Haven't come back for so long? Is there still this home in your eyes?"

Charlie was about to speak, his wife Claire suddenly frowned and called out: "Mom!"

Elaine didn't have an attack.

Charlie carried the vegetables to the table and asked casually, "What are you talking about, so solemnly?"

Jacob asked: "Today's big news in Aurous Hill, don't you know?"

"What news?"

"Military companies suddenly announced bankruptcy, and the cooperative companies have terminated their contracts. The creditors came to the door as if they had agreed. Mei's capital chain broke, went bankrupt overnight, and owed several billion in debt. He was forced to jump off the building and fell comma."

Charlie pretended to be ignorant, and said in surprise: "Really? So miserable?"

Jacob shook his head and sighed: "Ping Mei used to be a dominant figure in the real estate industry in Aurous Hill. He was rich and powerful, and he didn't know who he had offended. He actually fell to this point."

"A person like him deserves bankruptcy." Claire's face was cold, and she didn't sympathize with the pervert who intended to invade her.

Elaine sighed: "So Claire, how dangerous is it to start a business on your own? It's possible that if you don't make money, your life will be lost!"

After that, she looked at Claire and said firmly, "So you don't want to do any studio! The risk is too great! If you want me to say, you should honestly return to the Willson Group, your grandma has promised you will be the director, you will have a million annual salary after you go back. Isn't it better than starting a business yourself?"

Chapter 255

Hearing that her mother always persuades her to return to the Willson Group, Claire asked very puzzledly: "Mom, what kind of ecstasy did grandma give you? Why do you have to let me return to the Willson Group?"

Elaine was also anxious, and said, "Isn't it obvious that the Willson Group is paying an annual salary of one million? Isn't it better than your own business? What if you lose money in your business, what should I do with your dad?"

Claire said firmly: "Mom, don't tell me, I will never go back to the Willson Group again. Even if I go to the streets to beg for food, I will not go back! I don't want to fight for steamed buns, but I have to fight for my breath!"

Elaine looked like she hated iron but not steel, and taught Claire: "Keep your breath? What's the use of no money?"

After Elaine finished speaking, with two lines of tears, she said aggrieved: "Now the Willson family company is about to close down. If it really closes, your father and I won't get the pension! You know we all rely on this. A sum of money to provide for the elderly! Moreover, even if your grandma does not wait to see your dad, your dad still has a stake in the Willson Group. If you don't go back, the dividend will be gone! What if our old couple is helpless in the future? "

Claire blurted out: "Mom, this is the Willson family's own mismanagement. If they really go bankrupt one day, they deserve it!"

Elaine suddenly became anxious: "What are you talking about? We have spent so much effort in the Willson family for so many years. Seeing that the bamboo basket is empty and nothing is gone, have you considered it for Mom?"

Claire said seriously: "I have always considered for you. You told me to hand over most of the salary to you. I have always obeyed. You said you want to take care of all the money in our family. Father and I have no objection to managing money. I follow you in so many places, but you also have to give me a little respect. I don't want to go back to the Willson Group. I want to start my own business and do something by myself. Can't you support me?"

Elaine knew that she was wrong, but Claire could only say that she could only sit on the sofa and cried with her face covered, muttering: "Why do I have such a hard life? !! I have worked hard to raise a girl and count on her. Marrying a good husband and being a master, what happened? Your grandfather insisted on recruiting such an inverted son-in-law to come in. Now my daughter doesn't listen to me anymore. This family doesn't care for me anymore. What's the point of being alive? "

When Claire saw that her mother had begun to sell miserably and engage in moral kidnapping, she was anxious, and said, "Mom, don't you want to show Charlie out for everything? Charlie is pretty promising now, then After the villa is renovated for a while, you can live in it. Isn't this dragging Charlie's blessing?"

Elaine cried and said, "What about living in? Isn't it still worrying about living in, for fear that the White family will react and drive our family out again?"

Claire sighed and said, "If you have to cry and worry yourself like this, then I can't help it, or else I rent a house with Charlie outside, let's move out."

"You" Elaine was anxious when she heard this, and stood up and said, "Do you want to separate from us?"

Claire nodded and said, "We have been married for several years, and it is time to move out."

"No!" Elaine blurted out immediately: "Absolutely not!"

Claire said seriously: "Mom, if you force me to go to the Willson Group, then I will move out with Charlie; if you don't mention the Willson Group, then I won't move. Choose one of the two, you see for yourself."

Elaine stared at Claire's eyes, knowing that this girl was not joking with her, and suddenly realized that she had played a little too far.

If she really kept on crying, making troubles like this, she would probably move out with Charlie. At that time, she would break up with her!

Chapter 256

In that case, when the villa Solmon White gave to Charlie is finished, how can one have the chance to live in?

When she thought of this, she suddenly gave in.

So, she could only sigh and say: "Okay, Mom supports you in starting your business, and I won't mention the Willson Group. Is this all right?"

Claire was satisfied then, nodded and said, "Then we won't move out."

Seeing Claire's passiveness into activeness, Charlie couldn't help giving her a thumbs up.

The wife really has some abilities, she can't see it at ordinary times, but she is very effective at critical moments.

The Old Master, Jacob, has not spoken, but seeing his daughter rarely lose her temper, he feels a little frustrated, so he hurriedly came out and said: "Look at your mothers, what was the argument just now? Like now, the family is in harmony. Is it alright?"

Elaine glared at him and said, "I don't hear you bullsh*t just now, and now you are talking about it again! Charlie can live in a villa no matter how wasteful he is, how about you? You know how to play with strange things all day long. It's weird and tattered, the most useless thing in this family is you!"

"Hey!" Jacob became anxious when he heard his wife put the fire on him, and said immediately: "I tell you Elaine, don't despise me, I am amazing now! Last time I dumped medicinal materials and made hundreds of thousands you forgot about it?"

Elaine said disdainfully: "You will be taken away, I think you will be arrested for fraud sooner or later, don't expect me to spend money to rescue you!"

"You b*tch!" Jacob said angrily, "Don't look down on people, okay? I'm dealing with antiques, that's talented!"

As he said, he rushed into the room, took out a pen holder, and said with a arrogant expression: "Look, the good things I collected during the day, I will let you see and know! Just this thing will cost hundreds of thousands!"

Elaine said disdainfully: "It's just you? Why don't you go and live there? You don't have to pee to see your own virtues, it's not enough for people to see."

Jacob stomped angrily: "You girl, don't look down on people if you don't understand! This pen holder is from the Qing Dynasty. I spent five thousand to pick up this thing. I have sent the photo to Ervin Jones, who is a cultural relic, to see. He is willing to pay three hundred thousand."

Charlie glanced at Jacob's pen holder and was surprised.

If it is really a pen holder left over from the Qing Dynasty, it might be worth hundreds of thousands. However, you can tell at a glance that Jacob's pen holder is something from the Qing Dynasty. It is obvious that it is made of modern craftsmanship. It is worth a hundred at most.

Jacob bought this pen holder for five thousand, which clearly makes people foolish.

He couldn't help wondering. The Old Master doesn't understand sh!t, and it's normal to be deceived, but Ervin Jones is a ghostly antique dealer. You sell him a hundred thousand worth of things. He can't wait to spend only one hundred for it. He doesn't. You may not be able to tell that this pen holder is a fake, so why are you willing to spend 300,000 on this?

Chapter 257

Hearing Jacob said this, everyone else looked incredulous.

Elaine asked in surprise: "You said that someone really wants to spend 300,000 on this ragged thing? It's such a ragged thing, I don't think it can sell for fiftys."

Jacob said triumphantly: "Why would I lie to you for? If you don't believe me, read the chat log!"

As he said, he opened the WeChat chat record, and a person named Ervin sent him a voice before.

Jacob clicked on the voice, and Ervin Jones's voice came out: "Uncle Willson, your pen holder is a good thing! I think it is a Qing Dynasty object. Otherwise, I will give you 300,000, and you will sell it to me. Come on!"

Elaine was surprised and said: "Oh my god! It's true! Mr. Willson, you are great, you are good at it! you bought it for 5,000 and sell it for 300,000!"

Jacob hummed, and asked with a sullen face: "Have you taken it? I'll ask you if you have taken it?"

"I've taken it!" Elaine herself is a master who sees money, and money is her father and grandfather. As soon as she heard that it could sell for 300,000, she immediately forgot what she had just said and said with a smile: " My husband has developed his skills too! Very powerful! It seems that Charlie is the worst in our family!"

Charlie's face is green, he said to himself, "What the h*ll it has to do with me? Don't forget to bring me in too at this time? Do you know the money he made by dumping the medicine? I made the medicine?"

It seems that if he finds an opportunity to ask that Ervin Jones, which of the tendons did not fit well? Didn't this make it clear that the father-in-law was spending money?

Jacob handed the pen holder to Charlie with excitement at this time, and said, "Charlie, tomorrow you take the pen holder and go to the Antique Street to find Ervin Jones. He will prepare 300,000 cash for you, and you will bring it back to me. "

Charlie nodded hurriedly: "I know Dad."

Jacob said with satisfaction: "You, you will go to the antique literary circle with me more in the future, maybe someday you will be like me, and you will have a sharp eye. When the time comes, let's pick up the leaks together. Can't you make a fortune?"

Charlie could only agree with his mouth, but what he thought was, if you don't do business all the time, how much trouble has he caused, and still calmly asked him to learn from? Why don't you think about it, in Jiqingtang, you smashed someone's antique vase. If I hadn't helped you repair it, you would have been in jail for the family to sue, and you still have a little memory?

But then Charlie thought about it, father-in-law is just an old naughty boy. He does everything like a real person all day long, but it's useless to say that he doesn't work, let him just feel good about himself.

Early the next morning, Jacob happily called Charlie, and said directly: "Charlie, you quickly take the pen holder to find Ervin Jones, he has the cash ready!"

Charlie nodded and asked, "Dad, aren't you going?"

Jacob said: "I'm going to the Calligraphy and Painting Association in the morning. They invited me to a meeting and let me join! After joining the meeting, there are a lot of good things about internal auctions of paintings and calligraphy, and many omissions can be picked up!"

Charlie said helplessly, "Well, I'll go to the Antique Street to find Ervin Jones."

Now that Jacob had confessed, Charlie was going to go to Antique Street to find Ervin Jones.

Claire just took a break today, and was boring when she was idle, and said: "Charlie, I will also follow you."

Charlie nodded and said, "Just right, drive the car."

Claire said, "Go ahead, I don't want to drive anymore."

Chapter 258

"Okay, let me drive."

The couple drove together to Antique Street.

The antique street on weekends is the time when there are most people.

Ervin Jones is an old senior in Antique Street and has his own fixed booth, so Charlie found him as soon as he went.

At this time, Ervin Jones was holding a fake jade pendant, bragging to a foreign couple, spitting and saying: "I told you that this jade is a treasure worn by Emperor Chongzhen of the Ming Dynasty. Later, he was not in Jingshan, Eastcliff. Then, this jade pendant fell into Li Zicheng's hands. Later, Li Zicheng was defeated. His grandson took the jade and escaped. After many twists and turns, it finally fell to me."

"So powerful?" The middle-aged man asked in surprise, "How much does this jade cost?"

Ervin Jones grinned and said: "I think you have a relationship with this jade, so let's take it away from you 180,000. When you leave this antique street, you can find an auction house and sell it for 1.8 million."

The woman curled her lips: "Except for the antique street, which is tenfold, why don't you go straight? Think we are fools? Really, husband, let's go!"

After speaking, the woman took her husband away.

Ervin Jones cursed his mother in situ angrily: "d*mn, when did foreign tourists become so smart?"

Seeing this, Charlie stepped forward and smiled: "I said Ervin Jones, are you still kidnapped in this pit?"

"Ouch!" When Ervin Jones saw Charlie, his liver trembled with excitement, he hurriedly greeted him, nodded and said, "Mr. Wade, why are you free to come here!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Claire beside him again and exclaimed: "Oh! This is Mr. Wade's wife, right? She is really a talented woman!"

Charlie said, "Stop flattering. I'm here to find you this time. I heard that you want 300,000 to buy my Old Master's pen holder?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Ervin Jones nodded repeatedly and said excitedly: "Your father-in-law is really a god! he can pick up such a big leak. The pen holder is at least worth three or four hundred thousand, which is amazing!"

Charlie pulled Ervin Jones aside, and said in a low voice: "Don't you troll with me here. Everyone on Antique Street can tell that this broken pen holder is fake. The only one who can't tell it is fake is my Old Master, you If you spend three hundred thousand to buy such a thing, you can't pay for it? Come on, why?"

Ervin Jones hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, you have good eyesight. To tell you the truth, the younger one is also trying to honor you. Last time, your Old Master brought two magical medicines and asked me to resell them and earn one or two million. , The more he come back, the more I think about it, the more I feel uneasy. You said that the medicine that Mr. Wade made made me earn a lot of money. How inappropriate, right?"

As he said, Ervin Jones smiled graciously, and said: "That's why we thought about another way to share the profit with Mr. Wade. I know Mr. Wade treats money like dung, so you will return it from your father-in-law. ."

Charlie sneered: "Yes, Ervin Jones, you pitted the magic medicine I gave to my father-in-law and gave him hundreds of thousands. You made millions, thinking that you can atone for his sin by spending 300,000 on a pen holder?"

Ervin Jones shivered in fright: "Mr. Wade, you forgive me! If you are not satisfied, I will return the money to you! Nothing else, just to make your friend!"

Ervin Jones can't offend Charlie. He knows that Charlie is very powerful now. Many great people regard him as a master. Even the metaphysical masters from Hong Kong are said to have been destroyed by him, so he just wants to please Charlie. .

Charlie glanced at Ervin Jones and said faintly: "Forget it, father-in-law doesn't know the value of the pill himself, and thinks that he took advantage of you, and he deserves it. "

After finishing speaking, he looked at Ervin Jones and said, "Just forget about it, but I might be able to use you when I play with antiques in the future. Then you can be smart, do you hear it?"

Ervin Jones immediately said excitedly: "Mr. Wade, don't worry. From now on, I will be Ervin Jones, and your dog. What do you want me to do, I will do it!"

Chapter 259

Seeing Ervin Jones doing this, Charlie nodded in satisfaction.

Ervin Jones is a very clever man, he has a good brain, and he has many ways to do things for himself in the future, which is indeed useful.

So he said to Ervin Jones, "I will definitely not treat you badly for not doing things well in the future."

Ervin Jones hurriedly clasped his fists: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, Ervin will only look forward to your head!"

Seeing his flattering appearance, Charlie shook his head and smiled: "You shamelessly look like you really don't want to be beaten."

Ervin Jones smiled and said: "Mr. Wade, my face is a bit ugly, but money is not ugly!"

As he said, he took out a black box from under the booth seat, handed it to Charlie, and said, "Mr. Wade, this is 300,000 cash, look at it."

Charlie waved his hand and said, "Don't look at it, I'm leaving."

Ervin Jones asked: "Aren't you going around in Antique Street?"

"No more." Charlie said: "10,000 things, 9,999 fakes, what's better, not going."

Ervin Jones nodded and said, "Then you go slowly, and I will close the stall."

Charlie asked curiously: "Why are you going to close the stall?"

Ervin Jones said: "I buy some goods in the commodity market. Nobody buys fake jade now. They all like to buy fake copper coins. The fake Kangxi Tongbao sold in the small commodity market is a dime at the wholesale price. Can sell for one or two thousand."

When Claire heard this, he was surprised and said: "A dime for one or two thousand? Is this not too cruel?"

Ervin Jones scratched his head: "You don't know anything. Antique Street sells this way. If I sell it for a, my counterparts in Antique Street will kill me."

Charlie said helplessly: "Can't you do something that doesn't deceive people?"

Ervin Jones said with a bitter face, "Mr. Wade, if I don't deceive in Antique Street, I will really starve to death!"

Charlie said helplessly: "Forget it, you can control it yourself."

After that, thinking that the small commodity market was on his way home, he said to him: "You follow me, I will give you a ride."

Ervin Jones didn't expect that Mr. Charlie Wade would be willing to pick him up, and immediately said excitedly: "Mr. Wade, you really give the little disciple face, thank you, thank you!"

Charlie waved his hand: "Okay, stop talking nonsense, get in the car!"

When the car left the Antique Street, the sky suddenly became gloomy. After a thunderstorm, there was a sudden heavy rain.

The summer itself is rainy, and it rains at every turn in these two days, and the urban area has even been waterlogged at some places.

The rain was heavy, and the traffic station on the radio reminded the car owner that the underpasses of several arterial roads had serious water accumulation and were closed.

Therefore, Charlie could only choose to detour from the outskirts of the city.

On the way, Ervin Jones was excited and nervous. He sat in the back row and secretly took a picture of Charlie's side face while driving, and posted a circle of friends pretending to be forceful, saying, "Your brother is fortunate to be able to get a ride in Mr. Wade's car. "

A lot of people commented immediately below, and the content is nothing more than your kid! Mr. Wade, you can get in touch with each other, and don't forget to bring brothers when you become more developed.

Ervin Jones suddenly burst into vanity.

Charlie was not driving fast, and when he passed a secluded street, his eyes suddenly caught a car parked on the side of the road.

This car was an old black Mercedes-Benz, parked crookedly on the side of the road, and a woman in the car hurriedly walked down.

Seeing that the two front tires of Mercedes-Benz are flat, it is estimated that the tires had to be replaced.

Charlie didn't intend to be nosy, and drove directly. Unexpectedly, at this moment, Claire accidentally saw the Mercedes Benz outside the window and the woman walking down the Mercedes Benz, she was taken aback for a moment, and then she shouted: " Charlie, isn't that Elsa? Stop now."

Charlie then stopped the car.

Chapter 260

Claire hurriedly took the umbrella and pushed the door to get off.

Seeing this, Charlie hurriedly ran after her.

"Elsa, what happened?"

Claire ran to ask when she got out of the car.

"Claire? Why are you here?" Elsa shivered under the rain, suddenly raised her head, just to see Claire.

She looked surprised and extremely embarrassed, as if she didn't want to be seen by her girlfriends in such embarrassed manner.

Claire held an umbrella for Elsa and said at the same time: "I happened to pass by with Charlie. I saw you. What's wrong with you?"

Elsa said annoyedly: "Don't mention it, the company asked me to run sales and gave me a car. I came out to see the customer today. Before I could meet the customer, the tire got punctured! And I just looked at it and it seems that the other got punctured too, I'm so angry!"

Charlie was a little puzzled.

It is normal to drive with one tire out of function to some distance.

However, under normal circumstances, sharp objects such as nails or iron wires are accidentally pressed, so in general, only one tire must be punctured.

If both tires are punctured at the same time, it feels a bit wrong.

So he said to Elsa: "The rain is getting heavier, and it is not safe for you to stay here alone. It is better to go back to the city with our car first, and leave your car here, wait for the rain to stop and call for help to drag it back."

Elsa nodded, sighed and said, "It can only be this way."

Charlie was taking her back to the car. At this moment, she heard a sound of breaking through the sky very keenly!

She immediately saw a silver light bursting through the air in the heavy rain!

Moreover, this silver light came straight to Elsa!

Charlie didn't even think about it, and instantly stretched out his hand and pulled Elsa into his arms.

At the same time, just hearing the sound of "dang", a sharp flying knife was pierced on the front cover of the Mercedes-Benz!

The blade is as thin as a willow leaf, sharp and shiny, and it is still "buzzing"!

The front cover of the car is made of hard metal, but this extremely thin throwing knife is cut in half like tofu!

There was silence all around, and the eyes of several people were fixed on the flying knife.

Fortunately, Charlie was able to save her in time. The flying knife that came straight to Elsa's temple brushed Elsa's cheeks. The sharp blade cut off a few hairs of her. It was really thrilling!

Even if Elsa came from a famous family and had experienced many storms, she couldn't help screaming when she saw this suddenly.

Immediately afterwards, another cold light attacked by two knives, Charlie frowned, held Elsa and turned around, flashing the two life-threatening knives in an instant.

This flying knife is full of vigor, if it weren't for the protection of the exercises in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, it would be impossible to save Elsa at this time, or to protect himself even!

Elsa was also stunned!

Unexpectedly, in Aurous Hill, someone wanted her life!

What she didn't expect was that it was Charlie who rescued her twice!

At this moment, Charlie hugged Elsa, raised his head coldly, and looked into the rain curtain.

He saw an off-road vehicle parked not far away. A person in the vehicle was looking at him dumbfounded, as if he did not expect to rescue Elsa from his throwing knife.

"Who is the kid, dare to spoil the good things of my brothers!"

In the off-road vehicle, two figures came down.

The two men were full of murderous aura and walked towards Charlie.

Chapter 261

Among the two oncomings, the one walking in front was a man in white.

This man was wearing a white silk cloth practice clothes with a fluttering robe, and even a drop of rain did not hit him.

The other is in black and has a strong body! Powerful muscles!

A barrier seemed to have formed around his body, automatically isolating the rainwater.

Charlie glanced lightly and saw that these two men were beyond normal and their skill was not low.

At this moment, Ervin Jones, who was sitting in the car window and looking out, suddenly seemed to have seen a ghost and wanted to run as soon as he opened the car door.

Charlie's eyes were quick and fast, he grabbed his back collar, and said coldly, "Where are you running!"

"Oliver Vincent, they are Oliver Vincent!" Ervin Jones yelled in a panic while struggling, "Mr. Wade, let me go, I don't want to die"

The sturdy man sneered: "You can recognize the brothers, you are a little bit knowledgeable, but before our brothers are done, none of you should leave!"

"Oliver Vincent?"

Charlie looked at the two of them, frowning for some reflection.

There was a piece of news on the hot search the year before, which was broadcast on several TV stations in a loop, and he accidentally watched it while cooking at home.

The news is a pair of vicious robbers who hijacked the son of the richest man in Haicheng and demanded a huge ransom of 80 million.

In the end, the richest man also had the backbone. Not only did he not give it, he also spent 100 million to invite the elders of the Guwu Association Alliance in Nanguang to ask for his son to be rescued.

The Nanguang Armed Forces League's combat power is the first in the province, with its armed forces spreading across Nanguang, and its power is huge. Once the Armed Forces League issues a wanted order, it is tantamount to setting up a network of men across heaven and earth.

Elder Issac has profound cultivation, ranking fifth in the entire Wu League, and he is famous.

At that time, everyone was waiting and waiting for the robbers to kneel and beg for mercy.

As a result, Elder Issac hunted down for seven days, but he did not even find the shadow of the robbers!

In the end, in order to save face, he had to ask the entire Wu League to dispatch, but they were still hounded away by the robbers.

After the robbers escaped, they cut off one of the ears of the richest man's son as a threat, and the ransom was raised to 300 million.

The richest man had to honestly pay a ransom of 300 million then redeemed his son.

In particular, it can be seen that Oliver Vincent's strength is indeed great, and they flew around to commit crimes, ordinary people were suddenly targeted by them, and they could not escape the clutches!

Oliver Vincent came this time, aiming directly at Elsa, in order to kill Elsa.

Elsa's face changed sharply: "After I came to Aurous Hill, I have always kept a low profile and have never fought with anyone. Why would you kill me?"

The sturdy man sneered at this moment: "We have no grievances with you, let alone know you. It's just that someone is spending money to buy your life!"

Elsa asked, "Who is it? Who wants my life?"

The big man smiled and said, "Why do the dead still have so many problems?"

Charlie guarded both Elsa and his wife Claire at this time, and said coldly: "What? Do you dare to kill in front of me? Have you ever asked me?"

The white-clothed man said coldly: "What are you? We two brothers have killed countless people. A slump like you doesn't even deserve to be killed by us!"

After all, the white-clothed man said again: "However, since you don't have long eyes in my hands today, then the fate of all of you is over!"

Claire and Elsa's faces pale in fright.

These people look like angels of death, and they definitely have seen blood on their hands, so angry and daunting.

Charlie said to Claire, "Claire, take Elsa to the car, don't worry about it, leave it to me!"

Chapter 262

Claire didn't want to: "I don't! I'm with you!"

Charlie said coldly: "Go! Don't stay here to distract me! It will hurt us all by then."

Claire nodded then, pulling Elsa to return to the car.

Elsa was pulled by her and staggered. A white stone slipped out of her pocket and fell to the ground.

At this moment, Charlie sneered and said, "Two ants, dare you to yell in front of me? You two are really tired and crooked!"

The sturdy man smiled contemptuously, and said, "I don't know who is the ant, you can try it."

After finishing speaking, the sturdy man blasted Charlie's head with a punch, and the fist wind was extremely strong, and he seemed to smash Charlie's head directly.

Seeing this, Charlie said lightly: "Things that don't know whether they live or die."

After that, he kicked the big man with his foot, accurately kicking the important part.

Although the figure of the big man is fast, it is far not as fast as Charlie!

In an instant, he could no longer see where Charlie was in front of him, and immediately after that, he felt a sharp pain in his crotch!

"what!"

The big sturdy man suddenly screamed, put his hands in his pants, and collapsed to the ground with his waist bowed.

A piece of blood gradually oozes from his pants.

The sturdy man was about to faint in pain, and howled miserably: "Big brother, big brother, my egg is broken"

The man in white didn't expect Charlie to escape his younger brother's attack. What's even more incredible is that not only did he escape the attack, he even injured his younger brother with one blow!

This made his face suddenly change, and he looked at Charlie in surprise.

He is also a person with a cultivation base, and he is fully aware of what this is.

It is an extremely powerful inner family spell!

At least there are warriors who have been practicing for more than decades!

But the young man in front of him is only in his twenties, and he didn't expect to be an invisible master. If he fights against him, he can only draw a tie at best!

At this moment, Charlie stepped on the face of the sturdy man with the soles of his shoes, stomped his head into the muddy water, and said with a playful smile: "Weren't you arrogant with me just now? I can't be a man right now, interview you, How does it feel to be a eunuch?"

The gravel on the ground made several bloodstains on the sturdy man's cheeks. He endured the pain and humiliation, and screamed wildly: "Big brother, cut this kid! Cut him!!!"

Just now he was kicked and exploded by Charlie. He has been abandoned. If it weren't for his profound cultivation, if he were replaced by an ordinary person, there would be no life left!

Now, he can no longer care about his roots, he just wants Charlie's life!

Seeing Charlie stepping on his younger brother's face, insulting at will, the man in white had a gloomy face as if dripping water.

In anger, he didn't care about Charlie's unfathomable reach out of his hand, just thinking of killing him and avenging his brother!

So he roared in anger: "Boy, I'm going to take your skin off and eat your flesh and blood!"

Charlie said with a playful smile: "Eat my flesh and blood? With all due respect, with your three-legged cat's skill, eating my sh!t is more than enough!"

"you"

The man in white is going crazy!

Oliver Vincent had a prestigious reputation on the road when they will be seen insulted like this!

The man gritted his teeth and shouted hysterically: "I'm fighting you!"

Chapter 263

In the next second, everyone felt that there was a flower in front of them, and the figure of the white-clothed man turned into a phantom and punched Charlie at the door.

As the white-clothed man punched, a wave of air was set off around him, forcing the rain around him to disperse backward involuntarily.

Wherever his fist wind passed, all the rain turned into steam.

"This is killing people!"

Ervin Jones was horrified and turned around to go under the car.

Elsa, who had just been pulled into the car by Claire, was so scared that she held her breath and was extremely nervous, for fear that her savior would die here because of her.

Although Claire was also very nervous, she felt that Charlie would surely be able to turn the bad into the good.

At this moment, Charlie looked at the white-clothed man with a cold face.

He did not see the white-clothed man's offensive in his eyes at all, but when he got close in front of him, he grasped the white-clothed man's fist and twisted it one hundred and eighty degrees!

There was a crackling of joints, accompanied by the violent howl of the white-clothed man, the entire palm was completely dislocated and deformed, the bones and veins were all broken, and the entire wrist was limply drooping.

"Big Brother!"

The big man on the ground screamed suddenly.

Charlie didn't look at it and stepped on him again with one foot.

"Snapped!"

The sturdy man's chest suddenly collapsed deeply, swallowing a few mouthfuls of muddy water, followed by a few mouthfuls of blood, and then, his body shook a few times, and there is no movement.

"Second brother!" The white-clothed man was about to collapse at this time, his eyes were splitting, revealed fierce light, and a burst of energy broke out all over his body.

The white-clothed man squeezed his right hand into an eagle's claw, and an afterimage swayed in the air. There were dozens of hand shadows in the air, and the crowd couldn't distinguish between the real and the false.

Charlie didn't move.

The white-clothed man's eyes showed a glare, and he suddenly pointed to Charlie's eyeball!

This finger condenses his whole body's energy, be sure to kill the enemy with one blow!

Poke in Charlie's eye socket, directly pierced the eyeball, pierced his finger deep into the eye socket, and pierced his brain!

And the inner strength on the fingers can directly shatter Charlie's head like a watermelon!

Charlie stood coldly and suddenly laughed.

"Unbearable!"

He casually slapped it. No one knew, he had an aura in his palm. This slap was more fierce than a car crash!

Boom!

With a movement of his hands, Charlie slapped the white-clothed man to the ground with a slap like a dog!

There was silence all around!

Claire rubbed her eyes vigorously, almost unable to believe it.

Ervin Jones was also stunned.

These two are really "Oliver Vincent"?

This strength is a bit inconsistent with rumors!

In the legend, the most powerful boss was slapped to the ground by Charlie?

How is this possible?

The white-clothed man collapsed to the ground, unable to get up anymore, his heart was terribly shocked.

Chapter 264

This slap seemed to be an understatement, but when the slap fell, a few strong internal breaths penetrated into his head, rushing around the body along the meridians, like a fuse, letting several important veins in his body. All burst.

All the important veins in his body burst and all his skills have been lost!

The white-clothed man was extremely shocked and screamed with great pain.

Being able to possess such a hidden inner strength is simply unfathomable, and he can't see the details of Charlie at all!

Even the first person in the Wu League already dominates the Nanguang area, it is impossible to have such a strong skill!

And Charlie's skill is probably still above it.

Where did this guy come from?!

He and his brother, this time are not here to kill, but to die!

At this moment, Charlie slammed his groin with a punch, and his groin burst in his abdomen with a punch, and his whole person instantly became useless with his hands and feet unconscious, only one step away from death.

With one punch down, Charlie looked down at the man in white condescendingly, his eyes were full of irresistible coldness, and the cold voice asked: "Say, who is going to kill Elsa?"

The white man's face was as gray as death. At this moment, he has been abolished. For the warrior, life is worse than death, and his spirit is completely destroyed. He desperately said: "You kill me, let me die with dignity!"

Charlie said coldly: "Dignity? You're not worthy! If you don't tell Master Wade behind the scenes, I will break all the meridians in your body, so that you can't even blink your eyelids for the rest of your life! Then I will send you to the police station, you seem to be a wanted criminal, and I can exchange a lot of money. Then I will let you lie down and go to prison for the rest of your life!"

The white-clothed man said in amazement: "I am inferior to others in his skills, and I am guilty of death. I just ask you to give me a happy ending here!"

Charlie nodded: "Say it, say it, I'll give you a happy one!"

The white-clothed man hesitated for a moment and blurted out: "The employer is a cousin of Elsa. We must kill Elsa in Aurous Hill to prevent her from living."

Charlie nodded faintly: "If that's the case, then you can taste the death"

With that said, Charlie used the technique to directly stun the white man to death!

Elsa was shocked when she heard the words of the two of them. Is it her cousin who wants to kill her?

Could it be that what happened at home? He didn't want to let her go back to Eastcliff alive. Isn't this too cruel?

At this moment, Ervin Jones got out from under the car and noticed the white stone that Elsa had dropped earlier on the ground.

He quickly picked it up, and when he was about to hand it to her, he was taken aback.

"Miss, isn't this the stone of peace and wealth? Why is it in your hands?"

Elsa was shocked and asked in surprise: "Do you know it?"

Ervin Jones scratched his head and smirked: "I sold this stone to Mr. Wade. Later, he didn't know where he lost it. He ran up and asked me if I have the same stone. Unfortunately, there is only one stone in the world. , Where is the second one, I didn't know it at this moment."

Elsa couldn't believe it, her chest was like something bursting open, and Ervin Jones's words kept echoing in her ears.

She murmured: "Is this stone the only one in the world?"

"Only this one!" Ervin Jones said affirmatively: "There are no two identical leaves in this world, nor can there be two identical stones. I recognize that this stone is definitely this one and only this one!"

Speaking of this, Ervin Jones sighed: "Hey, it's a pity, I have never been able to find a similar stone for Mr. Wade since then."

"Mr. Wade?!"

"He kept it from me for so long"

The savior whom she has longed for, the lover of her dream for a long time, turned out to be him!

She actually fell in love with the good girlfriend's husband, Charlie!!

She was so desperate that she burst into tears.

She couldn't help asking God: Is there anything more ironic than this in the world?!

Chapter 265

At this moment, Elsa was struck by lightning.

She looked at Charlie, who was full of murderous air, and her heart was terrified. At the same time, she immediately pushed him into an extremely contradictory situation.

And where did Charlie know that he had been recognized by Elsa?

After solving Oliver Vincent, the corner of his mouth still sneered.

The Oliver Vincent, the name is like martial arts, but in fact, they are just two dead dogs.

However, in Ervin Jones's eyes, he was already looking terrified.

Oliver Vincent has been rampant on the road for many years, killing countless people with both hands, and had never suffered a defeat.

The whole Aurous Hill was frightened.

However, they so strong that the two actually died under Charlie's two moves, which really made him unable to believe.

That being said, isn't Mr. Wade's strength able to top Aurous Hill?!

At this moment, Charlie glanced at the two corpses that had gradually become cold, then turned her head and saw Elsa's expression in a trance, she seriously reminded: "Elsa, your cousin cannot hire them to kill you this time. Secondly, I suggest you be more careful these days, and it is better to hire a bodyguard to be prepared."

Elsa looked at Charlie with an extremely complicated expression, adjusted her breathing after a while, bit her lip, and whispered: "But I will not find a suitable bodyguard for a while."

Now Elsa is struggling with conflicting thoughts in her heart.

First, the people in her family and her cousin wanted to kill her, and then the mysterious man she fell in love with turned out to be the husband of a good girlfriend.

These two things were tortures for her, making her feel very miserable and helpless.

How did Claire know that a good girlfriend is in love with her husband?

She stepped forward and hugged her gently, patted her shoulder gently, and comforted: "Elsa, don't worry too much. Since Charlie can fight so well, even the famous Oliver Vincent are not his opponent. You can ask him to protect you in the future. Pay attention to it at ordinary times. If you are not at ease when you go out, you can call him at any time and let him protect you!"

What Claire thought was that since her husband has this ability, it is only natural for him to protect her girlfriends.

But what she didn't know was that a good girlfriend fell in love with her husband.

Elsa, who was on the side, was still very disappointed, but when she heard this, she burst into joy and her heart throbbed.

She did not feel depressed because the lover in her dream was Charlie or even lost her feeling for him.

On the contrary, because Charlie rescued her again today, in her mind, Charlie became the superhero who saved her twice. If it weren't for Charlie, she would probably not escape the calamity twice!

This is also the reason why her feelings for Charlie suddenly increased much more than when she had for the mysterious person before.

Although she also knew that to fall in love with a good girlfriend's husband was too immoral.

However, she also knew that the two were not really husband and wife. The two got married because of the insistence of Claire's grandfather, and the two had never had any emotional foundation.

Even when she was chatting with Claire the other day, she heard from her that she and Charlie had never been married to each other, and they still slept separately. Claire slept in bed and Charlie slept on the ground.

Chapter 266

So, does this mean that she can like Charlie and not feel sorry for her good girlfriends?

Maybe if she could get together with Charlie, it would be a relief for her good girlfriend!

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said to Charlie with joy: "Then I will trouble you, Charlie."

Charlie smiled faintly and said, "It's not troublesome at all."

His smile made Elsa's heart tremble again.

Reason tells her that Charlie is a best friend's husband and there is no chance, but Elsa can't help but have strange thoughts because of the emotional impulse.

Charlie didn't know Elsa's thoughts and left his phone number to Elsa.

At this moment, Ervin Jones leaned forward and said with a flattering expression: "Mr. Wade, you are so amazing. The evil stars like Oliver Vincent can't do a single trick in front of you. I Ervin Jones reveres you. Admire you by throwing five-body throwing on the ground, you are like a god among the gods!"

With that said, Ervin Jones knelt directly on the ground without hesitation.

Charlie looked at him in a solitary manner, and deliberately asked him: "I said Ervin Jones, what did you run just now? Are you afraid I can't beat Oliver Vincent?"

"No, no!" Ervin Jones was pale and hurriedly explained: "Mr. Wade, you have misunderstood, how could I doubt your strength? I just got confused just now, so please don't take it to your heart."

After finishing talking, Ervin Jones banged his head and tremblingly said: "Mr. Wade, you are the real dragon on earth! From now on, I will not worship the sky or the earth, I will only worship Mr. Wade. !"

Claire looked at Ervin Jones's dog-licking gesture, shook his head, and said to Charlie, "What do you do now? I killed both Oliver and Vincent, should we call the police?"

Charlie thought for a while, and said lightly: "You get in the car first, I will solve it."

Claire nodded and got into the car with Elsa and Ervin Jones.

When they all got in the car, Charlie took out his mobile phone from his pocket and called Issac, the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill, the owner of Shangri-La Hotel.

Soon the call was connected, and Issac's respectful voice rang: "Mr. Wade?"

Charlie said calmly: "I met Oliver Vincent. These two dogs barked at me. Now they have become two dead dogs. The corpses are on the side of the road. I don't want to leave any trouble. You send someone right now and deal with it."

Hearing this, Issac was shocked and said: "Mr. Wade you solved the Oliver Vincent? God, that's a famous thief duo in Aurous Hill! The methods are cruel and ruthless, and the strength is also number one in Eastcliff!"

Issac couldn't help but said excitedly: "Mr. Wade you are so amazing. If the Wade Family knows your strength, it would definitely cause a huge sensation."

Charlie said calmly: "It's enough for you to know this, don't pass it back to the Wade family, or I will never forgive you!"

Issac respected Charlie's orders, and said respectfully: "It's the young master, I must be tight-lipped, and I will send someone to deal with it right now."

Charlie gave a satisfied hum, then hung up the phone and walked to the car.

Opening the car door, Charlie sat in the driver's seat and started the car calmly, as if what he had killed just now was really just two dogs.

Elsa sat in the back row, her beautiful eyes staring at Charlie's profile.

In her eyes, two shining lusters flickered in them, carefully tasted, there was actually a color of love and admiration!

Chapter 267

After the car arrived in the city, the terrifying storm just now gradually stopped.

Then, as the wind rose and the clouds rose, a rainbow of seven colors hung in the sky, attracting countless people to stop and watch.

Charlie stopped the car at the entrance of the small commodity market and let Ervin Jones get out of the car.

After Ervin got off the car, he respectfully raised his bows at Charlie, and said: "Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Charlie looked at him and said lightly: "Ervin Jones, you must never tell anyone what happened today, do you understand?"

"Mr. Wade, don't worry, Ervin understands!" Ervin Jones's face was full of admiration, and he had treated Charlie like a god.

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and drove away.

And Ervin Jones stood there, watching Charlie drive away, but did not dare to move for a long time.

As for Elsa in the car, Charlie and Claire directly took her to the hotel.

Elsa has always stayed in a hotel in Aurous Hill and lived in Shangri-La. The security here is very good, and it is the property of the Wade family. It would take Elsa's cousin tonnes of courage, and he would never dare to attack Elsa here.

Until she got out of the car, Elsa's eyes looking at Charlie were still very complicated. She was like a big rock in her heart. She had a lot of words. She wanted to say to Charlie, she wanted to thank him, and she wanted to confess to him, regretting that she had no eyes. She read him wrong.

It was just that in front of Claire, what she wanted to say could not be said at all.

Can't help it several times, Elsa hesitated and stopped.

Elsa arrived at the door of the hotel, Claire hugged her and said softly: "Elsa, remember, you must call Charlie when you encounter trouble, and don't let yourself be in danger."

Elsa nodded and said softly: "Don't worry, Claire, I will."

Charlie looked at Claire holding Elsa, and couldn't help feeling sore. His wife had not held him many times, but she often held Elsa, her best friend.

Charlie didn't notice. Elsa looked at Claire's eyes with some envy as well.

Taking into account that Elsa is Claire's best friend, Charlie likes their company. For her safety, he took advantage of the second daughter's goodbye to send a message to Issac: "Please send a message to Eastcliff Dong's family. If they follow the idea of harming Elsa anymore, I will level the Dong family!"

The strength of the Dong family is less than one-tenth of the Wade family, they will not dare to make another mistake

After separating from Elsa, after Charlie and the two returned home, Claire hurried to the bathroom to take a shower and change clothes because of the rain.

Charlie handed all the money he took back from Ervin Jones to Jacob.

Jacob triumphantly took over 300,000 and said excitedly: "These 300,000 are just the beginning. Next time I will earn him 3 million by picking up leaks. From now on, our family's good life will depend on me. Hahahaha."

Charlie smiled awkwardly, and said in his heart, "Jacob, Jacob, you can spare Ervin Jones. This grandson has been cheated for so long, and I don't know how much money he can make, but he lost 300,000 from you all at once.

If you find some rubbish crafts for him, he thinks that he is the Old Master, and he is afraid that you will be angry, and then spend a lot of money to buy it, he will be tortured to bankruptcy sooner or later.

Although Ervin Jones is a profiteer, his human nature is not bad. It is indeed impossible to let him cut meat to the Old Master.

So Charlie persuaded him: "Dad, you should not deal with Ervin Jones less in the future. This person doesn't have a word in his mouth. Sooner or later you will suffer a lot if you get caught with him."

Jacob disdainfully said: "What do you know, you show people feng shui or something outside, that's a lie. We are doing a serious antique business. If you don't understand, don't follow suit. Keep your eyes open and look good. Go ahead."

Chapter 268

Seeing that Jacob had identified this path of no return, Charlie could only shake his head helplessly and returned to the bedroom.

When he walked into the bedroom, Claire had already taken a shower and put on lavender silk suspender pajamas.

The fragrant shoulders were like snow, the jade arms were smooth and tender, and most of her beautiful back was exposed. Charlie couldn't help his throat dry as his eyes focused on her.

The pajamas, thin as cicada wings, neatly outline the graceful curves of her lying on her side. The skirt just covers her thighs. The two curvy legs are slightly close together, and the jade feet are round as jade.

Claire's face was reddened by his fiery eyes, and she quickly groaned: "What are you looking at? It's not that you haven't seen it before, what's so beautiful."

Charlie smiled: "My wife, you look so beautiful, I can't see enough."

Claire rolled her eyes, but her beautiful eyes flashed with strange colors.

Today Charlie's performance surprised her. Previously, she thought that Charlie would only look at Feng Shui and know a little about martial arts, but she didn't expect him to be so brilliant.

At the critical moment, it was really unusual to be able to save the life of her best friend!

She couldn't help asking: "Charlie, tell me why are you so powerful? Even Oliver Vincent are not your opponents."

Charlie grinned and said: "This is a secret unless you let me k!ss, otherwise I won't tell you."

Claire screamed, blushing, and said, "In your dreams."

Charlie looked at Claire's little woman's posture, and his heart was hot. He turned around and opened the closet to find the quilt.

But when he opened the closet, he was stunned.

The closet was empty, and the mattress he usually used to hit the floor was gone.

"Wife, where is my quilt?"

Charlie turned around and asked.

Claire recovered and said, "I just took it and washed it for you."

Charlie was speechless for a while, and even the place to sleep was gone, and said helplessly: "I can't sleep on the floor without a mattress, then I'll go to the sofa."

"Really a pig." Claire curled her lips, took out her personal bedding from the closet, and handed it to Charlie: "You use mine."

On the white bedding, there was still a faint fragrance, Charlie exulted, and said dryly: "Wife, you are so kind to me."

Claire glanced at Charlie and said, "Go to sleep."

Charlie replied, holding Claire's private bedding, smelling the faint fragrance, and couldn't help but feel excited.

If this continues, wouldn't he be able to sleep with his wife soon?

At this time, Claire said to him: "I have to be busy with the studio for these two days. I just got up the matter and I have to hurry up to find some orders. You stay with my dad at home. Don't let him go out and buy things. Those antiques, have you heard of them?"

Charlie hurriedly said: "My wife, I'll go to help your studio? No salary, I'll clean the table, sweep the floor, serve you tea, or something!"

Claire smiled and said: "No, the studio is still out of work. If the work goes alive, I can draw pictures and make design drafts. I don't need your help. You can do housework at home."

Chapter 269

Early the next morning, Claire hurried to the studio.

Charlie rode his electric bike to buy vegetables at the vegetable market.

Claire has been busy working on the work of the studio recently. It has been very hard. He bought some high-nutrition dishes to supplement his wife.

When he finished buying vegetables, Charlie just came out of the vegetable market and saw Elsa in there.

"Charlie!" Elsa called him, her face full of excitement.

Charlie looked at her and said in surprise: "Elsa, what a coincidence, you are here too!"

Elsa looked at Charlie and said falteringly: "Yes, no, no, I am."

Charlie was a little confused, and said, "Speak slowly, have you encountered something?"

Elsa couldn't help her cheeks getting embarrassed. In fact, she had been waiting outside Claire's home early in the morning and had been following Charlie all the way.

Elsa plucked up the courage, but her red lip lightly, and said, "I came here to thank you specially. Thank you for saving me yesterday."

Charlie couldn't laugh or cry and said, "I saved you because you are Claire's best friend. You don't have to be so polite with me for that."

What did he think it was because of this.

Elsa shook her head and summoned the courage to continue: "Charlie, in fact, I still know that not only did you save me yesterday, but you were also the one who saved me last time at the Aurous Hill Hotel."

Charlie snorted, how could Elsa know what happened last time? He masked himself last time, she shouldn't have known it!

He hurriedly denied it and said: "You must have admitted the wrong person? I have never been to an Aurous Hill restaurant. There must be someone else who saved you."

Elsa looked at Charlie with incomparably complex eyes, with unwillingness, admiration, and unspeakable resentment in it.

Why didn't he even have the idea of confessing? Isn't he so worthless in his own eyes? He didn't even admit to saving her?

Thinking of this, she said with tears in her eyes: "When I was in the Aurous Hill Hotel, Harold invited me to dinner. I was accosted by the rich second generation. As a result, Harold provoked others and was surrounded by people at the door of the restaurant. At the critical juncture, Harold left me and escaped. At that time, there was a masked hero, like a world-famous hero, who defeated everyone and saved me, and you also saved me."

Speaking of this, Elsa's complexion instantly turned red, and that day she had a skin-to-skin relationship with Charlie, and her pants were taken off by him.

Of course, she also knew very well that Charlie took off her pants, in fact, to save her, and did not have any unruly intentions.

Charlie's face turned green after hearing this, this lady, who really doesn't open the pot, can she admit this kind of thing?

Of course not!

If he let Claire know that something like this happened to him and her girlfriend, she can't blow up the pot!

"Elsa, you really misunderstood. I can fight very well, but I am really not your savior."

After speaking, he hurriedly changed his words: "Even if it was me, it was only the one time I saved you yesterday!"

Seeing that Charlie didn't admit it at this time, Elsa sighed faintly and took out the safe and wealthy stone from her pocket.

"What about this stone? How do you explain it."

Charlie's eyes widened, isn't this his own stone that has been lost for a long time? He couldn't find it all the time. Why was it in Elsa's hands? Could it be that he rescued her at the Aurous Hill Hotel and it was picked up by her?

Chapter 270

No wonder he couldn't find this stone after that day, it turned out to be lost that day! And it happened to be picked up by Elsa

"I really can't explain it now, let me go", he said in his heart.

Thinking of this, Charlie could only bite the bullet and pretended to be stupid, and said, "What do you mean, isn't this just a broken stone?"

Elsa looked at Charlie's eyes seriously and said, "Don't lie to me, Ervin Jones has already told me that this stone is yours. It is called the Ping An Wealth Stone, and it is unique in the world."

When Charlie heard this, he secretly scolded Ervin Jones bloody, how could this Ervin speak out.

Seeing that Elsa had grasped the conclusive evidence at this time, Charlie could only nod and confessed: "Well, I admit that I was the one who rescued you at the Aurous Hill Hotel at the time, and I saw you by accident that day. Tell Claire!"

As Charlie admitted, the atmosphere between the two became silent for a while.

Charlie was embarrassed that he had concealed his identity for so long, but Elsa directly pierced him, not knowing how to face her.

But Elsa's thoughts are surging like waves, and her mind is extremely complicated.

Elsa looked at Charlie, wanted to speak a few times, but she wanted to stop. Finally, she mustered up the courage and took a step forward, only half a slap away from Charlie's body.

"Charlie, I like you!"

The corner of Charlie's mouth twitched, and he took a step back without a trace, and said: "Elsa, I am your girlfriend's husband"

Elsa gritted her teeth and said: "So what? I know that you and Claire have no relationship basis. You were married at the time because of Mr. Willson. If so, then you not a husband who snatches a girlfriend, you are my girlfriend's fake husband."

With that, Elsa grabbed Charlie's hand and placed it on her heart, and said in a loving tone: "Charlie, I am not an inferior beginning, and I am not inferior to her in any sense. I am still the eldest daughter of the Dong family. And I love you more than her, I am willing to do anything for you."

Charlie felt the plumpness on Elsa's chest, quickly withdrew his hand, and refused: "Elsa, there is absolutely no possibility for the two of us. I cannot betray Claire, and I believe that you are just having a momentary impulse. Don't put your mind on me, it's not worth it."

Elsa was rejected by Charlie, her pretty face said stubbornly: "No, I went back yesterday and thought about it all night, Charlie, since you saved me for the first time, I have fallen in love with you, the second time you saved me, I have fallen in love with you hopelessly!"

As she said, she said loudly and emotionally: "I just like you! I just love you! You believe me, if you are willing to be with me, I will not let anyone look down on you! I can be the silent one next to you forever a woman who supports you!"

Charlie couldn't help smiling wryly.

Elsa only knew that he was her lifesaver, but she didn't know he was also the chairman of the Emgrand Group and the eldest master of the Wade family. If he wanted not to be looked down upon by others, she could immediately disclose his identity and receive worship from countless people from then on.

However, that kind of life is not rare at all.

But Charlie definitely couldn't say that, otherwise it would hurt Elsa too much.

Moreover, it will reveal his true identity.

Elsa looked at Charlie and said stubbornly: "It doesn't matter if you reject me now, but I will definitely not back down. I will use my practical actions to let you know that I love you more and suit you better than ever. I can only be your underground lover in the future, and I am willing to follow you forever!"

Charlie said helplessly: "Elsa, you are just a little impulsive now. I advise you to think about it carefully. Then, I go home to cook, you can think about it yourself."

After finishing speaking, Charlie rode away on the tram like escaping.

Charlie felt that Elsa must have been hot for three minutes, and after two days of hiding, she would definitely have no such thoughts.

However, at this moment, Elsa looked at Charlie's leaving figure, but her eyes were still very firm. She said to herself: "Elsa, don't be discouraged, you can definitely do it!"

Chapter 271

After returning home, Charlie didn't think about Elsa again.

However, after he calmed down, he suddenly thought that the medicine he had promised Tianqi and Song family had not been refined yet.

For them, this medicine is simply the most amazing medicinal material in the world.

But to Charlie, this medicine was just one of the most common medicinal materials in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures.

If the more powerful medicines in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures can be refined, the effects can even bring back the dead, and even make people immortal, right?

However, those high-level medicines require a lot of rare treasures that people have never heard of. What's more, a lot of them also need Reiki as a primer for refining medicine. He has just entered the door, and there is still a long way to go. The road is to go, so I can only do it one step at a time.

The reason why he was willing to refining medicine for them was that Charlie himself wanted to take advantage of the opportunity of refining medicine to accumulate more experience in this skill.

However, he had no medicinal materials in his hand. Since he was refining medicine for the Song family, he naturally wanted the Song family to help solve this problem, so he directly called Warnia.

Recently, Warnia has been thinking about how to have more opportunities to contact Charlie.

Grandpa said that if anyone recruits a son-in-law like Charlie, in the family they will be greatly promoted, and a master like Charlie is simply a violent heavenly thing in an uninfluenced family like the Willson family.

Therefore, the best way is to be able to join forces.

Only a family called a dragon is worthy of having a son-in-law like a dragon.

Dragon son, how can you marry a brood of snakes and rats?

The more she thought about it, the stronger her heart for Charlie became, and she even faintly brought some expectations.

She wanted to call Charlie more, invite him out to meet more, and create more opportunities for contact, but she was also afraid that becoming too obvious would be seen by Charlie.

Warnia is proud of her life. It can be said that she is the most eye-catching princess in Aurous Hill. Compared with her, the daughters of other families are not worth mentioning. Therefore, a woman like her is also beyond the reach of Aurous Hill men.

From birth to now, Warnia hasn't moved any man, but Charlie is the first.

It happened that he was still a married man and a son-in-law.

Warnia also felt that this was somewhat ironic, and she was uncertain how to develop with Charlie in her heart.

Just when Charlie was always in her mind, she received a call from him.

At that moment, her girl's heart was full of excitement.

When she got on the phone, her voice even trembled, and asked, "Mr. Wade, why do you have time to call me?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Miss Song, I am going to start refining medicine tomorrow, but I need some medicinal materials. You can solve it for me and then send it over."

Warnia was suddenly excited when she heard that Charlie was finally going to make medicine.

The Song family has been waiting for Charlie's magical medicine, but they haven't heard anything about it. Everyone is waiting anxiously, but no one is embarrassed to urge Charlie. After all, Charlie wants to send them meds. How dare they rush to save face?

So Warnia hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, you can give me the list of medicinal materials, and I will immediately find the best quality medicinal materials to send to you!"

Chapter 272

"Very good." Charlie smiled slightly and said: "Remember to prepare more weight, I still have other use."

Charlie doesn't need money to buy medicinal materials, but he needs a reliable channel for medicinal materials. Good medicinal materials are like good antique cultural relics. The solution is important.

His roots in Aurous Hill are still relatively shallow, so he's naturally not as good as the Song family. They have cultivated in Aurous Hill for hundreds of years, and they are very strong in various ways.

Warnia hung up the phone and received a list of medicinal materials from Charlie, so she called Qin Gang of the Qin family as soon as possible.

Although the Qin family is not as good as the Song family, the head of the Qin family is in the business of antiques, wenwan, and Chinese herbal medicine.

Even Charlie didn't know that Qin Gang was actually the largest supplier of medicinal materials in the entire Aurous Hill area.

This is mainly because of Qin Gang's medicinal material business is not privately owned. It is a pharmaceutical factory that directly supplies major traditional medicines, as well as chain pharmacies, only wholesale, not retail.

Warnia recounted Charlie's list on the phone and then asked: "Mr. Qin Gang, I don't know if I can get these medicinal materials for me. I want the best quality and a large quantity!"

As soon as Qin Gang heard that Warnia wanted these medicinal materials, he immediately realized what he hurriedly asked: "Miss Song, dare to ask, this medicinal material is prepared for Mr. Charlie Mr. Wade?"

"Yes." Warnia had a good relationship with Qin Gang, so she didn't hide her words, she said: "Mr. Steven should have also heard that Mr. Wade rescued my grandfather. He made a favor a few days ago and wanted to give me some magical medicine. I will prepare medicinal materials for that."

Qin Gang said immediately: "Miss Song, don't worry, I will prepare these medicinal materials, and I will deliver them to Mr. Wade directly."

Warnia said: "Mr. Gin Gang, please send it off to me, if it's appropriate?"

Qin Gang said earnestly: "Miss Song, you and I are friends, so I won't tell you those imaginary ones. I also want to dare to ask Mr. Wade for magical medicine. In the future, in case of emergency, I just borrow this opportunity of delivering medicinal materials to Mr. Wade."

Warnia thought for a while, even if she didn't let Qin Gang send medicinal materials, Qin Gang would look for Charlie for medicinal materials, so she just gave him a favor so that he could take advantage of the opportunity to send medicinal materials to Charlie.

So she smiled and said, "I don't have any opinion on this, but Mr. Gin Gang must prepare for the medicinal materials that Mr. Wade wants. Don't make any mistakes!"

Qin Gang quickly assured: "Miss Song, don't worry, I can't fool Mr. Wade!"

Warnia smiled and said, "That's it, you go and prepare, and send it to Mr. Wade."

After hanging up the phone, Qin Gang was very excited.

His daughter, Aoxue, the beautiful and hot little pepper, saw her father rub his hands in excitement at this time, and couldn't help asking, "Dad, what are you excited about?"

Qin Gang laughed loudly: "There is a great thing!"

Aoxue asked in surprise: "What's the great thing?"

"It's Mr. Wade!" Qin Gang said excitedly.

Aoxue felt a little in her heart, Mr. Wade? ! That amazing master Wade?

She couldn't help but shyly asked, "Dad, what happened to Mr. Wade?"

Qin Gang blurted out, "Mr. Wade is going to make a magic medicine! Miss Song asked me to help Mr. Wade prepare medicinal materials. At that time, I will also be going to ask Mr. Wade to come back for a magic medicine!"

Chapter 273

Since being taught by Charlie to be a human, Aoxue has thoroughly understood what it means to be a person outside the sky and someone outside the person.

Knowing that Charlie has great supernatural powers, she has always admired Charlie in her heart, and she is even more ashamed.

Ashamed, it was natural that she was overwhelmed at the beginning and even had to compete with Mr. Wade.

However, the more beautiful girls with hot personality, the more they like men who are much stronger than them because only such men can convince them.

Therefore, Aoxue always regarded Charlie as her biggest idol.

Hearing that Charlie wanted to make magical medicine, she couldn't help but exclaimed: "She didn't expect Mr. Wade to have this ability to make magical medicine!"

Qin Gang sighed: "How powerful is Mr. Wade? We only saw the tip of the iceberg! I heard that a few days ago, even the genius doctor Tianqi paid homage to Mr. Wade's medical skills! His injury was because he bought Mr. Wade casually. Refining magic medicine is mostly better!"

"Gosh!"

Aoxue was completely shocked!

Her family has been doing medicinal materials business all year round, and in fact, she still knows a lot about traditional medicine.

Tianqi is one of several superb traditional medicine masters in China. In terms of seniority, he is really at the level of Patriarch, even some big people, it is difficult to invite him out of the mountain. Unexpectedly, even he is not as young as a young man like Mr. Wade!

Aoxue couldn't help being full of fascination with Charlie.

Such a man with great ability is the object of women's most admiration!

Especially a strong woman like her would only worship and surrender to such a powerful man. So, all of a sudden, she felt like a deer crashing in her heart, not to mention how excited she was.

Qin Gang suddenly saw his daughter's blushing. He was taken aback for a moment, and then immediately realized that his daughter seemed to be a little girly to Charlie.

He turned slightly in his heart and hurriedly said to Aoxue: "Aoxue, Dad will prepare medicinal materials now. When the medicinal materials are ready, you will take them to Mr. Wade tomorrow morning."

"Me?" Aoxue asked in surprise: "Dad, don't you want to go by yourself? Why do you let me go again?"

Qin Gang smiled and said, "You are a girl, and you are about the same age as Mr. Wade. You are both young people, so naturally, you can talk better."

After speaking, Qin Gang said again: "Actually, Dad is telling you the truth, don't look at Mr. Wade's strength and supernatural powers, in fact, he is a very low-key person and has been a son-in-law in the Willson family for several years."

Aoxue nodded and said, "I seem to have heard about this, but I don't understand why Mr. Wade is so powerful, why does he want to be a son-in-law? Even if he loves that Willson family woman again, he can directly reveal that he is married. Why does he want to be a son-in-law?"

Qin Gang sighed, "This is where Mr. Wade is unpredictable! If you say that it is really because of love, there is nothing wrong with it, but I have heard people say that he and Claire from the Willson family, in fact, It's just nominal. In the past, Claire's mother told people outside that Mr. Wade was at home and couldn't even get to Claire's bed, so he could only sleep on the floor!"

"Ah?!" Aoxue was dumbfounded: "It would be too much to let Mr. Wade sleep on the floor of the Willson family."

Qin Gang said: "They don't understand how great Mr. Wade is! I think it may be one of the ways of cultivation of Mr. Wade. Many people in the world like to practice asceticism, and practice as hard as possible."

"That's it." Aoxue nodded and said, "Mr. Wade is really amazing!"

Chapter 274

Qin Gang said earnestly at this time: "Daughter, it won't take a long time for Mr. Wade to spread the wings and soar into the sky. At that time, all Aurous Hill, and even large families across the country, will be desperate to curry favor with him. The big family will send their most beautiful daughters into his arms. You have to seize this opportunity to deliver medicine to Mr. Wade!"

"what"

Aoxue blushed all of a sudden: "Dad, what are you talking about? I don't understand what opportunity to take."

"Still acting stupid with me?" Qin Gang said sternly, "Dad can see that you have admiration for Mr. Wade, right?"

Aoxue squeezed ashamedly for a while before finally nodding.

Qin Gang said: "I have a hunch that Mr. Wade, this real dragon, will not last long in the little snake den of the Willson family. One day he will definitely leave the Willson family. Mr. Wade builds up a good relationship, even a foundation of affection!"

Speaking of this, Qin Gang looked forward with emotion: "If our Qin family can recruit a son-in-law like Mr. Wade, this will definitely influence our family's fortunes for the next hundred years! At that time, we will realize the aspirations of our ancestors, The Qin family has become the top in the land of China! If that is the case, the ancestor's grave will be smoked! The ancestors will be very pleased!"

Aoxue's heart shuddered when she heard this, and she immediately put away her original shame.

Dad was right. This is not a simple matter of love for children.

This is the key to whether a family can break through the shackles of fate and meet the weathered dragon!

Encountering the weathered dragon is a difficult opportunity for a family to wait for a century!

How many families have flourished and disappeared in less than a hundred years, but there are also many families that can survive a hundred years, but they still cannot go further.

The Qin family is the latter!

If the Qin family can seize the opportunity of Charlie, it is likely to soar into the sky!

This is really an excellent opportunity that may not be encountered in a century!

Now, this opportunity seems to be in her own hands. If she can really recruit Charlie into the Qin family, then the family can at least take a hundred years of detours!

God!

The powerful sense of family mission has already urged her heart to quickly move closer to Charlie.

So, she immediately said to Qin Gang: "Dad, go and prepare medicinal materials! I will take it to Mr. Wade tomorrow morning!"

Qin Gang nodded with satisfaction, and said, "It must be beautiful and shiny. My daughter dare not say that she is all over the country, but here in Aurous Hill, she is definitely a beautiful woman. If you dress well, you will look absolutely gorgeous!"

Aoxue's face was blushing, but she nodded very seriously and said, "Don't worry, Dad, I will definitely pay attention!"

Qin Gang said: "Tomorrow you will see Mr. Wade, remember to tell him that the Qin family respects him very much, and I hope to serve him all the time, and to support him in the future. In addition, tell Mr. Wade that our Qin family has been doing this for nearly a hundred years. In the medicinal material business, what kind of good medicinal materials he needs in the future, just tell us and it will be arranged!"

"After you have said this, please ask Mr. Wade to ask him whether he can give the Qin family a magical medicine. The Qin family will be grateful for everything! I believe that after you say this, Mr. Wade will definitely not refuse! "

Chapter 275

Early the next morning.

Charlie was about to go out to buy vegetables, so he received a call.

It was Aoxue, the little pepper of the Qin family.

Aoxue got on the phone, and asked happily, "Mr. Wade, are you at home now?"

Charlie snorted and said, "At home, why, are you looking for something to do with me?"

Aoxue said: "My dad asked me to send you some medicinal materials, saying that it was Warnia's order. I wonder if it will be convenient for you? If it is convenient, I will bring it to the door."

His wife, Claire, went to work in the studio. The Old Master drove his mother-in-law to Tomson's villa to see the progress of the renovation, so Charlie was at home alone, which was not inconvenient.

So he said: "It's convenient for me. Come here directly."

Aoxue hurriedly said, "OK, Mr. Wade. I will be there soon!"

A few minutes later, Charlie heard a knock on the door.

When he opened the door, he saw Aoxue, who was wearing a beige dress with a black shawl and long hair, was standing in the doorway, with a huge suitcase in her hand, and a shy face.

"Hello Mr. Wade, I am Aoxue, I don't know if you still remember me"

Aoxue was extremely nervous at the moment.

Since her father told her yesterday the importance of Mr. Wade to the future of the family, she tossed and turned all night and did not sleep well.

Charlie was naturally all thinking in her mind.

She is also at the age of a young girl.

Which girl doesn't want to find a handsome, rich, and powerful man who is a good husband too?

And when she looked around, there were no men in the world who could compete with Charlie!

This is the real candidate for a good husband!

Don't say that Dad hopes to make progress with him, even if he doesn't say it, she can't help but be fascinated by him.

Charlie didn't know why Aoxue was so nervous. The last time he saw her, she was very savage and insisted on competing with herself.

Why does she seem today as if he has changed?

The hot little pepper suddenly turned into a fresh and delicious cucumber?

So he asked curiously: "What's wrong with you today? It seems to be a big change from before?"

Aoxue said in embarrassment, "Mr. Wade, I used to be ignorant, and last time I was frivolous in front of Master Wade. Please forgive me."

Charlie smiled and said, "It seems that the changes are really big."

After speaking, he flashed over and said: "Stop talking at the door, come in."

Aoxue nodded hurriedly and walked in carefully holding the box.

Charlie saw that it was exhausting to pull this huge box. Aoxue is also a trainer and has some strength. Normally strong labor may not be her opponent. She is still so hard. It seems that this box must be very difficult.

So he asked curiously: "What's in your box? Why is it so heavy?"

Aoxue hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, these are all medicinal materials my father prepared for you, and they are all top-quality medicinal materials!"

After speaking, she put the suitcase on the floor of the living room and opened the suitcase.

Chapter 276

The most eye-catching medicinal materials are really the best!

Even Charlie himself had no way to buy the best medicinal materials!

Charlie was a little shocked and couldn't help asking: "How can your father get so many such good medicinal materials?"

Aoxue hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade knows something. My Qin family manages a lot of business. One of them is medicinal materials. Our ancestors were medicinal materials dealers from the Qing Dynasty. We had our own mule and horse team to collect the top medicinal materials and transport them. We sold it to princes and nobles in the capital and sold it to rich merchants in Aurous Hill. For so many years, we have not lost this business.

After that, Aoxue hurriedly said: "By the way, my father asked me to tell Mr. Wade that if Mr. Wade has any demand for medicinal materials in the future, tell us directly, the Qin family will do everything possible to meet your needs!"

Charlie was also surprised.

Ever since he accidentally obtained the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets, he was attracted by the mystery in it. There are so many abilities and prescriptions for refining medicine, but many medicinal materials have never even heard of it.

He was still worrying about this, but he didn't expect that the Qin family was a medicinal material merchant with a century-old heritage!

This is really nowhere to be found after breaking through the iron shoes, and it is all effortless!

So he couldn't hide his joy and said, "Okay! Very good! With the help of your Qin family in the future, my medicine refining will be much easier!"

Aoxue heard Charlie talking about refining medicine, hesitated again and again, gathered courage, and knelt on the ground with a thud.

Charlie was startled by her sudden movement, and asked in surprise: "Aoxue, what are you doing?"

Aoxue knelt on her knees, clasped her fists in her hands, and pleaded with a pious expression: "Mr. Wade! My father heard that you are going to make magical medicine, and he yearned for it, so I begged Mr. Wade, can I be here? After refining the magic medicine, it is also too"

Aoxue stayed for a long time and didn't say anything else.

She has always been admired by others since she was a child. How can she beg others? Not to mention begging for something.

Therefore, this thin-skinned girl is now embarrassed to tell her real needs.

Seeing her hesitating, Charlie couldn't help worrying about her.

However, even if Aoxue didn't say it, he knew Aoxue's request in his heart.

So he said lightly: "Does your father also want a magic medicine?"

Aoxue nodded as soon as she heard this!

Immediately, she hurriedly said: "If Mr. Wade is too burdened, we will never force it!"

Charlie smiled.

What kind of magical medicine is the medicine he wants to refine for Tianqi and the others? It's nothing more than the lowest grade medicine in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures.

This kind of thing is easy and trouble-free when refining. As long as there are raw materials, it can be produced in minutes, which is faster than steaming buns with noodles. What the Qin family wants is nothing more than medicine. Of course, he will not refuse.

The most important thing is that in the future, he will rely on the Qin family to prepare medicinal materials for himself.

If this time he can take the Qin family for his own use and let them become his disciples, it will be much easier for medicinal materials in the future.

So, he looked at Aoxue, who was embarrassed and flushed with eyes full of pleading, smiled slightly, reached out to support her, and smiled: "Your father wants my medicine, I can give it."

"Really?" Aoxue was suddenly excited when she heard this.

Charlie smiled and said, "Of course it's true. Even if you don't look at your dad's face, I can't refuse it because of your little beauty."

In fact, Charlie was joking.

But unexpectedly, after Aoxue listened, the deer slammed into her heart!

At this time, Charlie, in order to invite people to buy their hearts, smiled indifferently: "Well, since I have a relationship with your Qin family, this time I will give you two pills when I refine the magical medicine!"

Chapter 277

Whether it was Qin Gang or Aoxue, they only dared to ask for one magic medicine that Charlie had made.

In their opinion, it is already smoke from the ancestral grave to be able to get a magic medicine!

With this magical medicine in hand, in the future, as long as people still have half their breath, they can be rescued from purgatory. It is of great significance to a family like them.

However, no one dares to ask for it, Charlie will give them two!

Aoxue stayed where she was struck by lightning when she heard this.

She looked at Charlie with beautiful eyes, and a layer of mist was cast in a moment. Then, tears that were bigger than mung beans rolled down, and Charlie inevitably felt pity when he saw it.

Aoxue was crying, and choked up and asked, "Mr. Wade, are you speaking the truth?"

Charlie smiled and said, "What? Are you afraid that Mr. Wade lied to you?"

"Don't dare!" Aoxue hurriedly shook her head, the teardrops fluttered, making Charlie feel so cute about her.

Aoxue wiped her tears and smiled, "I just can't believe that, thank you so much! Thank you so much!"

After that, Aoxue bowed.

She believed that even if her father was here and heard Charlie say that he would give two magic pills, she would definitely bow down and thank you!

Seeing her excited look, Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Aoxue, go back and tell your father that I, Charlie, have always been a gentleman who has trouble chasing after a gentleman. After the magical medicine is refined, I will give him two pills. , But if I have any needs for the Qin family in the future, he must not reject me, do you understand?"

Aoxue nodded hurriedly, and said excitedly: "I understand Mr. Wade! Thank you!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Okay, Aoxue, you don't need to kneel, get up."

Aoxue hurriedly said, "Aoxue obeyed!"

After speaking, she stood up cautiously.

Charlie smiled and said: "We are not an ancient martial arts movie, needless to say so politely."

Aoxue hurriedly said: "Dad always teaches me that I must be polite and respectful to seniors. Mr. Wade, you have the ability to reach the sky. Naturally, Aoxue must be respectful and respect you!"

Charlie smiled faintly and said: "I looked at your temper before, and seemed to have been spoiled since childhood. I didn't expect it to be a book and a gift, and I am impressed."

Aoxue was happy, but also a little embarrassed.

How can she know how to deliver gifts?

Before today, she was still that unruly little pepper.

It's her temperament if she doesn't accept anyone she can choke at anyone.

But now, in front of Charlie, she was really convinced by 10,000 people, and her father was eagerly looking forward to her with expectations, so in front of Charlie, she unconsciously wanted to be a well-behaved and loving kitten.

Seeing that it was late, Charlie said to Aoxue: "Aoxue, I will accept the medicinal materials first, but I have to go out to buy vegetables or let's go out together?"

Aoxue realized that she was delaying Mr. Wade's work, and nodded hurriedly, saying, "Mr. Wade, Aoxue won't disturb you."

Charlie shook his head slightly and said, "Don't think about it, go back and tell your dad that I will contact him after the medicine is refined."

"OK, Mr. Wade!" Aoxue immediately bowed and saluted.

Charlie held his arms before stopping her, and then hid the medicine materials in the kitchen, and then went out with her.

At the gate of the community, Aoxue thanked him a lot, and then reluctantly bid farewell to Charlie and drove home.

Charlie, on the other hand, returned to the old wasteful son-in-law's appearance. He dragged a small cart for grocery shopping with a brand of washing powder and walked to the small vegetable market near his home.

Chapter 278

Aoxue returned home with great excitement in her heart.

At this time in the Qin Mansion, Qin Gang was waiting anxiously.

He didn't know whether Charlie could agree to his daughter's visit to ask for medicine.

After all, although he wanted to be a dog for Charlie, he was afraid that Charlie would not look down upon a family like his own.

The Qin family in Aurous Hill is stronger than Solmon White's but much worse than Warnia's.

And Charlie is the target of the Song family. With the Song family in front, how can there be a chance to show his face?

Aoxue came back when she was feeling uneasy.

As soon as her car stopped in the courtyard of the villa, Qin Gang ran out quickly.

Just as she had stopped the car and pushed the door down, Qin Gang hurriedly asked: "Aoxue, how was it? Did Mr. Wade agrees?!"

Aoxue nodded and nodded repeatedly with tears in her eyes.

"Dad, Mr. Wade agreed!"

"Great!" Qin Gang burst into laughter with excitement.

At this time, Aoxue said again: "Dad, Mr. Wade said, he wants to give us two."

"What?!" Qin Gang was dumbfounded!

"Two?! Give us?! Mr. Wade is going to give us two magic pills?! You can't get it wrong?!"

Qin Gang felt that he could not even breathe.

Aoxue nodded at this time and said very seriously: "It is indeed to give us two magical medicines, I heard it right!"

"Oh my God!" Qin Gang burst into tears: "Mr. Wade is trying to pull our Qin family?"

Aoxue said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade said, he will have some demand for medicinal materials in the future, and wants us to cooperate well."

Qin Gang said excitedly: "Great Aoxue! Great! Mr. Wade is going to promote our Qin family! With his great god, our Qin family will be revitalized, so there is hope for us!"

After that, he asked again: "By the way, Mr. Wade saw you, does he show any special expressions?"

Aoxue's face flushed to the base of her neck.

She vaguely said, "Mr. Wade, Mr. Wade, he said he said"

"Oh, what did Mr. Wade say?"

Aoxue lowered her head and said in embarrassment, "Mr. Wade said, for the face of my little beauty, he can't refuse."

"Hahaha!" Qin Gang laughed three times and exulted: "There is a play! There is a play! It seems that one day in the future, Mr. Wade may also become my Qin Gang's son-in-law!"

Aoxue said shyly: "Dad, what are you talking about:

Qin Gang said excitedly: "Anything is possible! Aoxue, you have to keep working hard!"

After finishing speaking, Qin Gang said excitedly: "Mr. Wade has great magical powers, and his style of behavior must be different from ordinary people, and he certainly doesn't care about the worldly gazes and moral constraints. Otherwise, with his power, how could he succumb to the Willson family to be a man? Home son-in-law? So, my daughter, you must continue to work hard and strive to cook mature rice with Mr. Wade. It is best to have a son for Mr. Wade. In that case, my Qin family really has to vacate. Go Up!"

Aoxue was so embarrassed that she couldn't wait to dig a hole and get in, covering her face and saying, "Dad, what are you talking about, it's disrespectful!"

After finishing speaking, she stomped her feet and ran back to her room.

Chapter 279

The matter of Charlie's refining magical medicine spread like wildfire among several upper-class families in Aurous Hill.

Solmon White, the owner of the White family, Fungui Bao, the owner of Treasure Pavillion, and Orvel, the owner of Classic Mansion, all heard the news.

Although the three of them couldn't help but want to ask Charlie for medicine, Solmon White was the only one who really had the face to speak.

Solmon White is confident.

After all, he had already expressed his sincerity to Charlie long ago, and even gave Charlie a Tomson First-Class villa that had been bought for more than 100 million.

Therefore, he also ran to Charlie's house in the afternoon, taking advantage of Charlie's own home, and begged Charlie for a magical medicine.

Charlie did not refuse him.

After all, he's a relatively comfortable person. Although his son and nephew are a bit stupid and a bit bad, they have been taught the lesson. Now he treats himself honestly and docilely. It's just medicine, no need. Stingy.

Solmon White got an affirmative answer and slammed Charlie three heads excitedly.

The richer people are more afraid of death. For them, the miracle medicine is like a miracle medicine for rebirth. Everyone wants to be able to get self-defense.

After agreeing to Solmon White and sending him away, Charlie took out some medicinal materials at home and refined a batch of pills.

In this batch, he used only one-tenth of the medicinal materials to make 30 pills.

Moreover, because the pill this time uses a full set of prescriptions, the medicinal materials are much better than the last one, so the efficacy is more than ten times higher.

If the previous one can treat almost most moderate internal injuries and has some effect on all internal injuries, then this time the pill can almost heal fatal internal injuries.

Even Tianqi's years of old wounds and stubborn illnesses can be cured by swallowing half a capsule.

If you are chased by a master, even if you only have one breath, you can survive by taking this medicine.

After refining the medicine, Charlie kept twenty of them, took out ten of them, and called Warnia, Tianqi, Qin Gang, and Solmon White that he had refined the magic medicine. It will be set up at Orvel's Classic Mansion tonight. Banquet, distribute the magic medicine to them.

When everyone heard it, they were ecstatic.

Unexpectedly, Mr. Wade is really a dragon! The magic medicine was made so quickly! It's almost as fast as making dumplings!

That night, everyone came to Classic Mansion in advance, waiting for Charlie's ride.

Charlie prepared meals for Claire, his father-in-law, and his mother-in-law before telling them that he had an old friend from the orphanage who had come back and wanted to meet for a small gathering and then slipped out of the house.

At the gate of Classic Mansion, Solmon White, Qin Gang, and his daughter, Warnia, the genius doctor Tianqi, his granddaughter Zhovia, Orvel, and others personally greeted them at the door.

Today, Classic Mansion closed doors and thanked guests, only to entertain Charlie alone.

Seeing Charlie, everyone's expressions were stunned, and they clasped their fists and said respectfully: "Welcome Mr. Wade."

Charlie glanced at the crowd and smiled faintly: "You guys came really early, when did you arrive?"

Warnia smiled slightly: "Mr. Wade, it's rare for you to organize the game yourself. We must arrive a little earlier to show respect."

For today's dinner, Warnia deliberately dressed up and put on an elegant and noble black evening dress. The tulle lining outlines her perfect and slim curve, but it does not appear coquettish, but rather different. Charming.

Coupled with Warnia's perfect facial features, she showed her temperament to the fullest.

Chapter 280

Charlie couldn't help but look at it a few more times, and today's Warnia is truly amazing.

If you compare her with Claire, the appearance and build of the two are almost equal to each other, but in terms of temperament, Claire is more than one grade lower than Warnia.

After all, Warnia is a daughter of the Song family, and her temperament is beyond the reach of an ordinary woman.

Aoxue also blushed and walked in front of Charlie, and also bowed.

Unlike Warnia, who is a mature and intellectual beauty, Aoxue's heroic appearance is fused with the appearance of a current little woman, and it has a special flavor.

Aoxue painted light makeup, coupled with her own martial arts practice, the original temperament was like a snow lotus on an iceberg, extremely lingering.

However, after Charlie was in her heart, she became like a flower in full bloom in the spring sunshine, a little more tender.

At this moment, she looked at Charlie, her cheeks couldn't help showing a crimson color, adding a little daughter's gesture.

There was a strange flash in Warnia's eyes on the side, a woman's instinct made her subconsciously dampen Aoxue.

She thought to herself: This Aoxue of the Qin family, doesn't have ideas for Mr. Wade?

Grandfather has instructed her to find a way to recruit Mr. Wade as the son-in-law of the Song family.

And she was really tempted by this proposal.

Could it be that Aoxue from the Qin family had the same thoughts as her own?!

Charlie didn't know the thoughts of Warnia and Aoxue, but just smiled at everyone, and said: "You will remember from now on, get along with me, you don't need too much red tape, I am a person who looks down on everything, you just need to treat me plainly."

When everyone heard this, they waved their hands quickly.

Qin Gang reverently said: "What kind of status is Mr. Wade, we should serve respectfully and not break the rules!"

Solmon White also followed: "Mr. Wade, as the Supreme Master of Nanguang, is kind to me and waits for me. Let alone wait for a while, even if we wait for a day, we won't say anything."

Tianqi couldn't help but put his hand over and said: "Mr. Wade is unparalleled in medical skills, but anyone in Aurous Hill will admire him as long as he knows Mr. Wade's superb skills."

Seeing this, Charlie nodded helplessly and said, "Okay, let's not stand at the door, let's go in first."

Warnia smiled softly: "Mr. Wade, please first."

Charlie didn't refuse and walked in the forefront.

The other big brothers followed Charlie in turn, falling half of their body distance, not dare to increase it.

Entering the diamond box of Classic Mansion, the dishes in the elegant room are ready and the table is full of delicacies.

Charlie didn't invite many people, but they were all important figures in Aurous Hill City. All of them were bigwigs. If they were seen by outsiders, they would definitely be shocked.

As the owner of Classic Mansion, Orvel said in a respectful tone: "Mr. Wade, I heard that you are going to treat guests at Classic Mansion. So, I specially set up this table of dishes. The dishes are higher than the general diamond box specifications. There is more than one grade, and the wine is also a century-old Moutai aged wine that was specially delivered by air from Guizhou overnight. I hope you will be satisfied."

Although Orvel knew Charlie's abilities a long time ago, the many bigwigs who came today completely shocked him.

Warnia, the eldest lady of the Song family, Qin Gang and daughter of the Qin family, Solmon White, the head of the White family, and the genius doctor Tianqi.

There is a single pick from here. They are all important figures in Aurous Hill, but in front of Charlie, they are like harmless little sheep. Therefore, people like Orvel who are mixed with society are even more inferior. Come to the table!

Chapter 281

With so many bigwigs gathered together, Orvel didn't dare to speak loudly at all.

Even in his territory, when he entered the private room, he could only behave like a pug, wagging his tail in front of Charlie, hoping that he could take a look at himself.

Seeing that Orvel was so careful, Charlie smiled at him, nodded, and said, "Mr. Orvel, you are interesting."

Orvel heard Charlie's words and said with excitement: "It is my honor to be able to do things for Mr. Wade, Mr. Wade, please come to your seat."

Charlie nodded slightly and sat down in the position of Master Wade.

Then Orvel said respectfully: "Mr. Wade has any instructions, just call me, I will be at the door!"

After all, he carefully exited the box and guarded the door of the diamond box like a waiter.

Mr. Orvel is also the King of Aurous Hill Underground.

But at this time, he was just a gangster who couldn't get on the stage.

Each of these big men who ate with Charlie was much better than himself. In his capacity, he was not qualified to go directly to the table. It was already three lives fortunate to be able to talk to Charlie.

As soon as Charlie sat down on the main seat, Warnia followed closely and directly sat in Charlie's right seat.

The two were close to each other, only half a distance away, Charlie could even smell the faint fragrance of Warnia's body.

According to the rules at the dinner table, the most distinguished person is the main seat, and the next-level person is on both sides of the VIP guests.

Among them, the Song family is the strongest. As the representative of the Song family, Warnia naturally wants to sit with Charlie.

Therefore, at this time, whoever could sit on the other side of Charlie became the object of other people's intentions to fight.

Qin Gang pushed Aoxue at this time and smiled and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, you are a person with great magical powers. My daughter Aoxue has admired you for a long time and has always regarded you as an idol in her heart. Why not let her sit too? Next to you, serving you tea and pouring wine, what do you think?"

As soon as she said this, Warnia raised her pretty brows, and the expressions in Qin Gang's eyes were quite meaningful.

But Solomon White cursed secretly in his heart, what a f*cking shame that old dog Qin, wanted to use his daughter to get closer to Mr. Wade.

The main reason why Solmon White gritted his teeth in his heart is mainly that he has no daughters.

He secretly thought, if Solmon White, my daughter, will come out frantically when I get you Qin Gang.

At this time, Aoxue was flushed and embarrassed in her heart.

Although she also liked Mr. Wade, her father had already said that she should seize the opportunity, but in front of a group of people, it was too shameful.

However, although she was embarrassed, Aoxue was not the kind of twisted person, and she simply said openly: "Mr. Wade, please give Aoxue a chance to serve."

Charlie was taken aback when he heard the words, and said lightly: "Since you have this heart, just sit next to me."

Aoxue was overjoyed and hurriedly bowed to thank him, and then sat next to Charlie.

Tianqi's eyes were very envious. In fact, he also wanted his granddaughter to sit next to Mr. Wade. However, Aoxue was the first step, and the first step forward without removing this face for a while.

Tianqi did not dare to think about making Zhovia the woman of Mr. Wade.

But if Zhovia could be favored by Mr. Wade and accepted as a maid, that would be the blessing of cultivation in eight lifetimes!

Chapter 282

Because Charlie's medical skills are superb, and even his own ancestral medical skills, he knows better than himself. If Zhovia is fortunate to be able to serve Charlie in the future, she will definitely have the opportunity to learn.

This is also one of his purposes for bringing Zhovia to the dinner.

Of course, another purpose is naturally to seek medicine from Charlie.

He has been tortured by his own injuries for half his life, and now he finally has the opportunity to cure him in one fell swoop!

Thinking of this, Tianqi gave Zhovia a profound look, so she must look for opportunities to get closer to Charlie.

How could Zhovia not know her grandfather's thoughts, and her cheeks suddenly became crimson alluring, embarrassing and hot.

Zhovia hurriedly lowered her head, but waves arose in her heart. From time to time, she raised her head to look at Charlie, her fingers tangled together again.

Mr. Wade is the most powerful genius doctor she has ever seen. Both her character and appearance are superior. It is not an exaggeration to describe it as rare in the world, but she also knows very well in her heart that she can't be worthy of Mr. Charlie's attention and admiration.

Except for Zhovia, Aoxue and Warnia also looked at Charlie's eyes with strange colors, and their beautiful eyes never moved away from him.

Charlie didn't notice the gaze of the three women. He looked at everyone and smiled. He raised the cup and said, "Everyone, Wade is in Aurous Hill. It's so fateful to know you all. I have a banquet today and I want to get in touch with everyone more than I can usually. In the future in Aurous Hill, I will inevitably need every one of you to help me."

As soon as his hand moved, the crowd at the table also picked up the cups, for fear that it was a step slower.

Warnia hurriedly said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade is too polite. If you have anything, please do not hesitate to tell us. This is what we should do."

Tianqi also followed: "Mr. Wade reaches the world, and his medical skills are superb. The Old Master will admire you very much. If Mr. Wade has any dispatch in the future, the Old Master will dare not follow it!"

Charlie smiled faintly, and said: "Okay, everything is in the wine, everyone will do this glass!"

"Mr. Wade, cheers!"

Everyone drank a glass of wine together, and then respectfully raised the glass, seeing Charlie dare not put it down.

Charlie put the wine glass down first and then took out a box from his arms.

Everyone immediately stopped all their movements, and even their breathing became more cautious, their eyes all staring at the box, their excitement could not increase.

They know that in this box is the magic medicine everyone is thinking of!

Charlie looked at everyone at this time, and said lightly: "This is the medicine he is refining this time."

"Really!"

Everyone suddenly became excited.

Everyone came rushing to this magical medicine, and at this time they couldn't wait to see the magical medicine.

Charlie opened the box, revealing the ten pills in it, and said lightly: "Everyone, the medicine I refined this time is at least ten times more effective than the medicine I refined last time!"

"Ten times?!" Everyone was too excited to speak.

They wanted a magic medicine like the last time they were satisfied, but they didn't expect this magic medicine to be ten times better than the last one!

Charlie said at this time: "My medicine, I dare not say that it can save the dead and turn the living into immortals, but it can strengthen the body, prolong life, and cure all diseases. Before dying, as long as you have a breath, you can get a life back after taking my medicine. It is not a problem to live for a few more years. Therefore, after you take it, you must be cautious and cautious and not be s3xually swallowed!"

Everyone was horrified and unbearable. This time, the medicine was so amazing?!

Chapter 283

The pill that Charlie held in his hand was nothing but the medicine he refined according to the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, but it made everyone's heartbeat crazily.

A crowd of people waited to see the crystal clear pill, and everyone's breathing started to rush.

Among these people, Tianqi, the oldest, was the most excited, and even the genius doctor's usual indifferent manner was almost unable to maintain.

He has a serious old injury that has not been cured, which has caused him to suffer from illness for half his life.

Last time, he occasionally got the pills refined by Charlie, and the symptoms relieved a lot, but the cure was not yet possible.

Now, after hearing that the effect of this new medicine was more than ten times that of the last time, Tianqi was so excited that he even felt that he would be able to completely heal the old wounds.

If Mr. Wade's magic medicine can really have this effect, then this is a great kindness!

And Warnia's eyes were extremely excited.

Although Charlie used acupuncture to save her grandfather, his body is still weak. If he wants to live and live a long life, he must rely on Charlie's magical medicine.

Therefore, at this time, her eyes looking at the magic medicine was extremely hot, and the eyes looking at Charlie were even hotter.

As for Qin Gang, he almost shouted with excitement when he thought of getting two magical medicines.

Charlie said lightly at this time: "Some problems that modern medicine cannot overcome, such as diabetes, kidney failure, and other malignant diseases, can be cured by taking this pill."

Everyone was even more shocked by the voice!

Although the diseases Charlie said casually are very common, they are all difficult diseases in modern medicine. Not to mention that they can't be cured by taking medicine, even going abroad can't cure them.

Especially diabetes is also known as undead cancer, there is no cure at all!

But here with the help of Charlie, a magic medicine can be cured.

This is simply a medical miracle!

Everyone present sighed inwardly, Mr. Wade is really the genius doctor of the world, the true dragon of nine days!

Aoxue's beautiful eyes were shining, and her complexion was as if a fire was burning. She couldn't help thinking that Mr. Wade, a figure like this, will surely soar into the nine heavens. She must seize the opportunity and she must not miss it.

Zhovia couldn't help showing her admiring eyes at Charlie.

Charlie's ability was something she could not imagine in her entire life. If she could learn some trivial methods under Mr. Wade, it would be enough for the entire medical world.

At this moment, Charlie saw that everyone was eager to see through, smiled faintly, and said: "Okay, let me divide the medicine!"

Everyone couldn't bear it for a long time, and their faces were full of excitement.

Charlie stood up, took out a pill with one hand, first handed it to the oldest Tianqi, and said lightly: "Mr. Shi, this one is for you."

Tianqi trembled. He knelt on his knees, holding his hands above his head respectfully, and said humbly, "Mr. Wade gave me the medicine! Mr. Wade is very kind, and I am willing to be a cow and a horse for my whole life, and repay Mr. Wade!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Mr. Shi, you and I are also destined, don't be so polite."

After all, put the pill in Tianqi's hands.

Tianqi was full of tears, and when he thought of being tortured for half his life by an old injury, he subconsciously wanted to take it all out and completely free himself from the pain.

Chapter 284

Charlie stopped him and said lightly: "Mr. Shi, this medicine is too strong. You only need to take half a capsule to cure your old disease. Treasure the remaining half capsule, and it will be of great use in the future.

Tianqi's heart was shocked, he could heal himself with only half of it? This is really amazing!

Thinking of this, he took out the blade used to scrape the dregs of medicine, split the pill into two, then opened his mouth and swallowed it.

Everyone looked at him intently, hoping to see a miracle happen.

A few seconds after Tianqi took the pill, his face instantly became flushed, his skin instantly turned red, and he sweated a lot.

Tianqi felt like a magical warm current in his body was running around.

His body like long-dried yellow earth with mottled cracks, and this warm current, like mild clean water, quickly fills up the cracks in the yellow earth and nourishes the entire land.

He felt that his stubborn and old wound had started to repair quickly, and his eyes widened, revealing an expression of disbelief!

"Mr. Wade, this is really amazing! The old disease that has plagued me for decades is completely healed within a few minutes!"

Tianqi's eyes were full of tears that flowed down his cheeks.

Over the years, he was tortured by the old illness and collapsed. Not only was he unable to treat the illness himself, but he was also in danger of losing his life at any time, and his life was extremely painful.

But now, Charlie's half a pill will cure him completely.

This can be said to be amazing, and it is no longer able to describe it in words!

Puff!

Tianqi knelt again, and the old tearfully said: "Mr. Wade, you are my reborn parent. If you don't dislike it, Tianqi is willing to treat you with the courtesy of father, brother, and teacher titles."

Suffering from illness and pain, once he recovered, the ups and downs made him feel excited.

Everyone saw Tianqi recovering like this on the spot, and they admired the magic medicine made by Mr. Wade even more!

This pill alone is worth more than ten thousand gold. After they get it, they won't sell it for any amount of money!

Charlie looked at Tianqi, supported him with one hand, and said, "Mr. Shi, I have taken your mind, but you are an elder, after all, so don't salute me in the future."

Tianqi hurriedly said, "Why then, Mr. Wade is the benefactor in the next step"

Seeing that he had a strong sexual axis, Charlie stopped talking, but looked at Warnia, took out medicine, and said, "Miss Song, this medicine is for Mr. Song."

Warnia hurriedly knelt in front of Charlie as Tianqi did before, and raised her hands above her head: "Thank you, Mr. Charlie, for giving the medicine! Your great kindness, the Song family will never forget!"

Charlie nodded and smiled, and took out two pills without failing, hiding one pill in the sleeve, and putting the other pill into Warnia's hands.

Warnia got the medicine and was excited. She was about to close her palm and carefully put the pill away. At this time, she felt a round object in the center of her palm.

She felt a little in her heart, raised her head to look at Charlie, and saw Charlie looking at her with a smile on his face, and blinked his right eye lightly, and suddenly understood what Charlie meant.

This is Charlie giving her one more, and then told her to keep quiet

Warnia was extremely excited and touched. She didn't dare to hope that Charlie could give her two pills.

Moreover, the second one was given quietly. Does this mean that the second one was not given to Grandpa by him, but given to her?

Chapter 285

For Charlie, giving Warnia one more medicine was nothing.

However, for Warnia, it is of great significance.

At this time, her heart was already touched by Charlie, and she even felt a little girl being protected and cared for by a big boy.

In her silly eyes, Charlie walked to Solmon White and took out a pill: "Mr. White, this one is for you."

Solmon White shivered all over, and immediately knelt on the ground, just like everyone else, waiting respectfully.

Charlie put the medicine in his hand, and Solmon White blurted out: "Thank you Mr. Wade for giving the medicine! Solmon White will listen to your orders in the future!"

Seeing Solmon White's piety kneeling on the ground, he said lightly: "Mr. White, your son, and your nephew both angered me at the beginning. If you hadn't been a human being, they would probably not have been in this world."

Solmon White squatted in his heart and squatted his head hurriedly and said: "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for raising your hand!"

Charlie snorted and said, "Tell the young people in your family that they must learn to behave with tail clipped."

Solmon White nodded in a hurry: "Mr. Wade don't worry, I must warn them!"

"Yeah." Charlie said lightly: "You take the medicine, and it may save your life in the future."

As soon as Solmon White got the magic medicine, his face was flushed with excitement: "Mr. Wade, if you need my family in the future, please let me know!"

After that, it was Qin Gang.

Charlie promised Aoxue to give her two pills, so Charlie gave Qin Gang one, and Aoxue another one.

The father and daughter knelt on the ground together, extremely pious.

Qin Gang immediately expressed his stance, saying: "From now on, my Qin family will also regard Mr. Wade as the dragon head!"

Charlie smiled slightly and nodded in satisfaction.

At this time, all the medicines that should be given have been given out, but he thought about it and said loudly: "Mr. Orvel, come in."

Orvel, who had been guarding the door of the box, hurried in: "Mr. Wade, what's your order?"

With that, Orvel looked at Charlie respectfully and bowed his hands in salute.

Charlie nodded faintly and smiled: "I know you and I are not short anymore. You work hard and work diligently. I will prepare a pill for you today when refining medicine."

When Orvel heard this, his whole body was dumbfounded! The limbs are hot, and the head explodes!

He had been waiting outside the box just now, and of course, he had heard what Charlie said in the box and what happened after Tianqi took the medicine.

However, he knew very well in his heart that a person like himself, who can't get on the stage, after all, could not be eligible for the medicine given by Mr. Wade?

However, at this moment, he heard that Charlie was going to give this magical medicine to him, and he knelt on the ground without hesitation!

"Mr. Wade, I am an illiterate person, Mr. Orvel, I don't know how to say beautiful things. From now on, my life will be yours. Even if you let me go up and down the sea of fire, if I frown, hit me with thunder. boom!"

Orvel was so touched that he couldn't help himself. Kneeling on the ground, he respectfully took the pills from Charlie, excited as if he were treating a peerless treasure.

Chapter 286

Charlie waved his hand and said: "Okay, take care of me in the future, I will not forget your credit!"

Orvel firmly said: "Mr. Orvel will definitely not let you down!"

When everyone saw that Charlie had given a magical medicine to Orvel, the shock in their hearts was beyond words.

Although Orvel was very impressive in Aurous Hill, it was nothing to them, but after such a small character followed Mr. Wade, Mr. Wade did not hesitate to give the magic medicine.

This is how Mr. Wade treats his own people, really is the grace of heaven!

He knelt on the ground at the door of the box, crawling on the ground with his knees in front of Charlie, moved in his heart, tears on his face.

"Mr. Wade, I really didn't expect you to see me as a small person in your eyes. Mr. Orvel was really grateful."

Charlie smiled slightly and said: "Mr. Orvel, I live in the world, and I look at the character of the other party, not the identity of the other party. You remember classmate Darren, in terms of status, he is inferior to you in the case; in terms of strength, . Not as good as your little brother. When he was trapped by a sl*t and was lying in the hospital, he didn't even have the ability to commit suicide, but why should you still help him, save him, and protect him? Because he belongs to me, Charlie's friend, no matter how small he is, I will not let it go."

Orvel's heart trembled, and he couldn't help being moved to tears. He choked his head and said, "Master Wade, Orvel will definitely help you in the future!"

Charlie handed the medicine to him and said, "If you follow me, you must understand a truth. With my strength, you don't need your heart and soul. As long as you do things for me down-to-earth, I will surely protect you for a lifetime!"

In this sentence, Charlie did not say anything.

Regarding wealth, what he has is that tens of billions of cash and hundreds of billions of companies already have inexhaustible wealth;

In terms of strength, he has the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets, and his strength is extraordinary.

Therefore, as long as Mr. Orvel steadfastly follows him, he will naturally not treat Mr. Orvel badly.

And Charlie's words also made everyone present even more strongly admire and respect Charlie.

Let everyone present, deep in their hearts, make up their minds to follow Charlie! Charlie bowed his head all his life.

At this time, Solmon White took out a wearable smart bracelet key and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, this is the smart bracelet key of the Bugatti Veyron Hermes special edition sports car. This car is the one I got from the Aurous Hill International Auto Show in advance. Ordered, the auto show officially starts tomorrow, and you can pick up the car!"

The ordinary Bugatti Veyron is priced at about 26 million, while the Hermes special edition is priced at more than 40 million.

Before Charlie spoke, Qin Gang hurriedly took out a smart bracelet key and hurriedly said: "What a coincidence, Mr. Wade! I also ordered a sports car for you at the auto show, but I ordered an Aston Martin. Limited edition one77."

Aston Martin's limited edition one77 is also priced at 40 million.

Unexpectedly, the two of them thought of going together.

Solmon White looked at Qin Gang annoyed, and blurted out: "Old Qin, why do you give Mr. Wade a sports car like me? Did you deliberately follow me?"

Qin Gang said confidently: "How can I learn from you! I think Mr. Wade should drive the best sports car, so I specifically ordered that Aston Martin!"

Tianqi on the side saw that the two of them were giving gifts one after another, and hurriedly took out a sandalwood gift box from his pocket. After opening it, there was a very shiny, colored porcelain wine glass inside.

He said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, this Chenghua Doucai wine glass was handed down from the Ming Dynasty, and it is also one of my favorite antiques in my life. I give it to Mr. Wade first today. I hope Mr. Wade will like it!"

Seeing that all three of them gave out gifts, Warnia, who had received two magical medicines, didn't dare to fall behind. She turned her back in a hurry, scribbled a cheque, and put her hands in front of Charlie: "Mr. Wade, this one hundred million cheque, expressing a little care, please accept it!"

Chapter 287

Charlie didn't expect that these people would unexpectedly meet and give gifts to him.

Moreover, the gifts they give are more expensive.

Both sports cars are of the 40 million class.

The Chenghua Doucai wine cups of the Ming Dynasty cost at least fifty to six million.

Warnia directly gave a check for 100 million.

However, these are really indifferent things to Charlie.

The first is sports cars, which are too public and he doesn't like them very much;

Secondly, antiques, too much sophistication, he doesn't like it;

As for money, the last thing he lacks is money.

However, seeing that these four people were looking forward to it, eager to accept their filial gift, Charlie thought for a moment, but did not refuse, but said indifferently: "Okay, I will accept things, you have brought me."

Since they want to follow their own saddles and become their own forces, it should be acceptable to accept them.

When everyone saw their gifts accepted, they were relieved and all smiled.

Charlie casually stuffed a 100 million cash check, two smart bracelet keys, and a Chenghua Doucai cup into his pocket, and then said lightly: "Well, everyone, let's eat!"

Everyone hurriedly said: "Eat and feast!"

At this time, Mr. Orvel stood up from the ground and said: "Mr. Wade, I'll go to the door and wait."

Charlie nodded, did not leave him.

For these people sitting here, Mr. Orvel really can't make it to the table.

The gangster on the road, no matter how good the gangsters are, they are still gangsters. They themselves are more than the richest of these big families.

After dinner, Charlie declined Warnia's request to drive him home and walked home alone.

After Warnia thanked him a lot, she drove her limited edition Bentley car and returned to her villa.

While holding the steering wheel in one hand, she was holding two magical medicines on the other hand, wondering whether she should give both to her grandpa, or just keep one for herself?

If she gives it all to Grandpa, then this magic medicine will be missed by herself, and she feels a little bit sad.

However, if she keeps one on her own terms, if grandpa knows about it in the future, wonder if it will cause trouble?

After thinking about it, the desire for magical medicine overcame another thought. She carefully placed the magical medicine in the glove box in the car and decided to hold it first. If she needed it in the future, she would use it. If she doesn't need it, but Grandpa needs it, she can take it out again.

At that time, she will offer grandfather the magic medicine twice to extend his life. She believes that at that time he will treat her differently.

When she returned home, Mr. Song, who was half-lying on the sofa, couldn't wait.

The last time Charlie came to the house, although he rescued him, he did not improve his system. He is still a little old and sick. After several days of resting, his health is slightly better. But he still needs someone to help him stand or walk on crutches.

For an Old Master who was proud and accomplished a lot in his life, the physical inconvenience became the biggest regret in their old age.

And now, he is pinning everything on the magic medicine refined by Mr. Charlie Wade.

Chapter 288

If granddaughter Warnia can get back the magical medicine and give it to him, he will definitely be able to get rid of the current troubles and regain the feeling of being strong and healthy ten or twenty years ago.

When Warnia came in with a pill of magical medicine, Mr. Song struggled to sit up straight, and asked with some trembling, "Warnia, Mr. Wade gave the medicine?"

Warnia nodded repeatedly, offered the pill with both hands, and said, "Grandpa, this is the magic medicine that Mr. Wade has refined this time. Take it!"

"Good, good!" Old Master Song said several times excitedly, and then asked, "Has Tianqi taken it?"

"he has taken it." Warnia said: "Mr. Shi took only half of a capsule according to Mr. Wade's instructions, and all the old injuries and stubborn illnesses were cured. It is amazing!"

As soon as he heard this, Mr. Song became excited and said tremblingly: "It's so amazing and fast. Give me water and I need to take this now!"

The people around him immediately brought a bowl of tea.

The sons and descendants of the Song family stood in front of the Old Master, waiting to see the moment the miracle was born.

The descendants of the Song family now hope that the Old Master can live for a few more years and can protect these offspring more. Therefore, they also hope that the Old Master can improve after taking magic medicine.

The Old Master swallowed the pill tremblingly and took it with warm water. After the pill entered the stomach, it immediately turned into a burst of energy, which swept the whole body through all the meridians of the Old Master.

Immediately afterward, the Old Master felt that his whole body was repeatedly injected with energy, so he tried to stand up without using a cane.

The offspring around him was very nervous, for fear that the father would not be able to get up and fall, so everyone was ready to step forward and rescue.

However, no one thought that the Old Master just stood up easily with a slight effort!

Without any external force, the Old Master stood up easily with his legs alone, without shaking at all.

Elder Song felt the surging power of his legs, and immediately summoned the courage and walked out.

This step is a footprint!

No hurry, no tiredness, no panic, no rush, no shaking, no breath!

Everyone was amazed!

Is this still a dead Old Master? This is not worse than a middle-aged person in his 50s and 60s!

Father Song regained his control over his body and strength. He was so excited that he tried to walk a few steps quickly, it was fast and steady!

This made him extremely excited, and he blurted out with a laugh: "It's great! It's great! Mr. Wade is really a god!"

After that, he turned his head to look at Warnia, and said seriously: "Warnia, if you can get a good son-in-law like Mr. Wade, I can live to at least one hundred years old, your father, your uncle, yourself and your brother. Sisters, it's possible to live a hundred years! Once a family can live a hundred years old for three consecutive generations, this is simply a god-like family, and no one can shake it!"

Warnia had been shocked.

Grandpa was a person who was going to die, and was saved by Charlie, but after he was saved, Grandpa was also very excited.

But now, Charlie's magical medicine made grandfather seem to be twenty years younger in an instant. Now, he believes he will live for another twenty years. By then, he will really become a centenarian!

How many centenarians can there be in the world? Very few!

And if the soul figure of a big family can live beyond a hundred years, it is simply the family's greatest fortune, because the family can only develop and grow in the hands of the soul figure.

Once the soul figure dies, it will immediately fall into the infighting of a group of dragons without a leader, you are fighting for me.

How many families are in decline is caused by the death of soul characters and the renunciation of family descendants? Now Charlie will continue the prosperity of the Song family for at least two decades!

Chapter 289

This night, the family members who got the magic medicine could not sleep all night.

Warnia, who witnessed the miracle happening to grandpa with her own eyes, was also very excited.

Thinking of the magic medicine that Mr. Wade had quietly given to her, a strong warm current surged in her heart.

Mr. Wade treats her so well, this kindness is unforgettable!

Same as her, who fell into insomnia because of thinking about Charlie, and Aoxue, the little pepper of the Qin family.

After her father Qin Gang got the two magical medicines, he immediately gave her one as soon as he returned home and told her to hide it next to her body.

Now, this pill was stored close to her body, with her body temperature and fragrance on it.

The thought that this was given by Charlie to her made her happy and almost drunk.

And Charlie, as the big man behind all this, is still lying on the floor next to his wife's bed and continues to sleep particularly sweetly as his son-in-law.

Early the next morning, Claire went to the studio.

After so many days of preparation, her studio is said to have begun to take shape and is ready to officially open.

Charlie wanted to help her, but she only wanted to build her own business with her own hands.

Charlie understands her feelings. Since leaving the Willson family, she has been thinking about how to prove herself and can't let the Willson family look down upon her.

Well-dressed Charlie was about to go out to buy groceries and found that his pockets were bulging, which reminded him of the gifts everyone gave him yesterday.

Two smart keys for luxury cars, a Mingchao Chenghua Doucai wine glass, and a check for 100 million.

The Doucai cup was placed in a sandalwood box, which was relatively large, so he simply put the box together in his own small closet. As for the car bracelet and check, he originally wanted to put it in the cabinet, but after thinking about it carefully he gives up the idea.

Mother-in-law, she likes to come to the room to churn around when she has nothing to do. Last time Qin Gang gave him a jade bracelet, but his wife didn't wear it before she went along.

If she finds the check of 100 million and the smart keys of two luxury cars, she will definitely take it for herself.

More importantly, if she finds out, he can't explain it at all.

This one hundred million check alone was enough to scare her to death three times.

So Charlie left the smart bracelet and check in his pocket and went out to the vegetable market.

On the way, Qin Gang called him, and after a few greetings, he asked carefully: "Mr. Wade, do you still like the sports car given to you?"

"Oh," Charlie remembered suddenly, and said, "I haven't seen it yet."

Qin Gang said hurriedly and respectfully: "The car is at the Aurous Hill Convention and Exhibition Center. The International Auto Show is now underway. If it is not inconvenient for you to go there, I can send someone to the house in a transporter."

Charlie said, "Forget it, don't send to the house anymore, I'll take the time to check it out."

The community he lives in is very ordinary, and a house is worth two or three million. If two sports cars worth more than 40 million are suddenly parked, the entire community is estimated to be fried.

Therefore, he thought about parking the car first at Tomson's villa, where the villa has a private basement, and parking in the basement is more worry-free.

When he arrived at the vegetable market, Charlie received a call from Darren, a good university brother. On the phone, Darren asked, "Charlie, where are you?"

Charlie said: "I'm shopping at the vegetable market, what's wrong, Darren, are you looking for me?"

Chapter 290

Darren hesitated a little and said: "My dear, I came to the Aurous Hill International Auto Show today"

Charlie knew that he was a car fan, and his favorite thing was cars. When he was in college, he used to save a month of living expenses and went to other cities to watch the auto show.

So he smiled and asked, "Did you go to see the car again?"

"Yes." Darren said: "This time there are several world-class limited-edition sports cars coming to the exhibition, it is very rare to see them.

As he said, Darren hurriedly said: "Oh, I didn't ask you to talk about this."

Charlie asked: "Then what are you looking for?"

Darren hesitated for a moment, and then said: "That's it, I saw it at the auto show."

"My wife?" Charlie asked in surprise: "What did she go to the auto show?"

"I don't know either." Darren said, "She is with a man, so I called to ask if you know this."

Charlie frowned.

Claire went to the auto show with a man?

Why didn't he listen to her?

Although the two of them don't communicate much, they will still tell each other about some things. She went to the auto show with a man. She didn't talk about it to him. Is there anything hidden?

Although Charlie is the Wade Family Young Mr. and Mr. Wade in the eyes of Aurous Hill big men, he still lacks confidence in his relationship with Claire.

He was also worried that Claire might be tempted outside, so he said to Darren, "I know Darren, thank you."

Darren said: "Charlie, my mother called me just now and told me that something happened at home and asked me to go back. You should come and have a look."

"Okay." Charlie said: "I'll go and have a look later, you should be busy first."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie parked the electric bike on the side of the road and took a taxi to Aurous Hill Convention and Exhibition Center.

The Convention and Exhibition Center is a large-scale real estate project that specializes in undertaking various exhibitions. Basically, large-scale exhibitions in Aurous Hill are held here.

Charlie entered the exhibition hall, and when he looked around, he was surrounded by ordinary citizens watching the auto show, and the surrounding platforms were also full of luxury cars.

Here, the starting point is the imported luxury cars such as the Audi a8, including luxury sports cars such as Lamborghini and Ferrari. In the center of the exhibition hall, on the highest platform, there is one red and one black. A top luxury sports car.

These two cars were the ones that Solmon White and Qin Gang gave to Charlie.

An Aston Martin one77, a Bugatti Veyron Hermes special edition.

These two cars are also the two super luxury cars at the finale of the entire auto show. The surroundings of the two cars are almost surrounded by audiences and reporters.

Besides the two cars, there were two strong and mighty security guards. The security guards turned their backs to the two luxury cars and formed a circle facing the crowd so that the crowd could not touch the cars.

The host is introducing, saying: "These two cars have already been ordered away. They are personal items. You can watch and take photos, but you can't touch them. Thank you for your cooperation."

A reporter couldn't help asking loudly: "The auto show has just started, and both cars have been booked? If it is not convenient to reveal, who are these two rich men?"

The host smiled slightly and said: "It's not two rich men, but one rich man."

"One?" The reporter exclaimed, "Could it be that two cars were bought by one person?"

"Yes." The host nodded and said with a smile: "These two cars are indeed owned by the same rich man!"

Chapter 291

The host's words left everyone stunned.

Both of these are the world's top luxury cars. It is rare to see them in normal times. There are not even a few in China, so they were bought by the same person in advance?

You know, this level of a luxury car cannot be bought simply by money!

Aston Martin's one77 is only open to members of the Aston brand, and the buyer must have three or more Aston Martin sports cars worth more than ten million in order to be eligible for purchase.

This is the only way to qualify. This car is limited in the world. There are only 77 cars in more than 200 countries around the world. There is not even one in China!

The Bugatti Veyron Hermès special edition sports car is more difficult to purchase because Bugatti itself serves the world's top rich, coupled with Hermès joint customization, it is simply expensive!

These two cars were actually bought by the same person, which shows that this person's identity and status are astonishingly powerful!

However, Charlie's eyes were not on these two cars.

He was looking for Claire's figure everywhere in the crowd.

When he repeatedly searched for a long time and couldn't find her, he suddenly heard a man next to him say: "Claire, come and take a look at these two cars. These two cars are really the best in the world, even I have never seen them.!"

Charlie turned his head when he heard the sound, and saw Claire, a man, and a woman still following her.

The men's suits and leather shoes looked greasy, while the women's clothes were cool and slim, but they were far worse than Claire's.

At this time, Claire was following the person, smiling slightly, and said: "Manager Gao Junwei Junwei, I don't have much research on cars."

The person called Mr. Gao Junwei laughed and said: "I have a deep research on cars. After all, our convention and exhibition center often undertakes some auto show activities."

Seeing that Claire was keeping a normal distance with the other party, and also called the other party's manager Gao Junwei, he guessed that she might be out to talk about cooperation, and he was suddenly relieved.

Since his wife is here to talk about cooperation, if she finds out at this time, he might be misunderstood by her, so Charlie is ready to take the opportunity to slip away.

Unexpectedly, as soon as Claire raised her head, Claire glanced at him and asked in surprise: "Charlie, why are you here?"

Charlie didn't expect to be discovered by Claire, and hurriedly said, "I have come to see and meet the world, wife, why are you here?"

Claire nodded and didn't think much about it. She explained to Charlie, Mr. Gao Junwei beside her, and said, "Charlie, let me introduce to you. This is Mr. Gao Junwei from the Gao family. Aurous Hill Convention and Exhibition Center is theirs. The home industry, they were one of the partners of the Willson Group before, and now their cooperation with the Willson Group has stopped. It just happens that the exhibition hall of the Convention and Exhibition Center will be renovated in two days, so they invited me to talk about cooperation."

With that, Claire introduced the woman next to Gao Junwei to Charlie again, and said: "By the way, this is Juan Jones, my former high school classmate, now she is the secretary of Mr. Gao."

At this time, Juan glanced at Charlie, with surprise, and said: "Claire, I heard from our high school classmates that you hired a very useless live-in son-in-law, and it turned out to be him. kind of you."

Gao Junwei smiled faintly, watching Charlie's eyes flashed with hostility, but then he hid it well.

Chapter 292

He had always thought about Claire and knew Charlie's existence, but he had never seen it before.

Knowing that the person in front of him is Claire's useless husband, Gao Junwei looked at Charlie and asked curiously: "I don't know where Mr. Charlie is now?"

Charlie said lightly: "I am a vagrant now."

Juan said in disdain: "Isn't that just for soft rice?"

Gao Junwei's eyes also flashed a trace of disdain. When Claire was still in the Willson Group, he had a good impression of Claire. Now he heard that Claire started her own business, so he deliberately found Claire. He threw out an order for the renovation of the exhibition center and invited her over.

Thinking of having to establish an image in front of Claire, he looked at Charlie and smiled slightly: "Charlie, in fact, you shouldn't be here today. Those who came to participate in the auto show today are all famous figures in Aurous Hill City. You just came here to embarrass Claire?"

Claire's face immediately became ugly when she heard this. She didn't expect Gao Junwei to ridicule Charlie, so she was naturally a little unhappy.

However, before Claire could speak, Charlie's eyes became cold, and he said lightly, "Is this kind of exhibition really awesome? I wouldn't come if it wasn't for my car here."

"Your car is here? You don't look at your identity?"

Juan yelled contemptuously from the side, and said, "Don't you know that the luxury cars on display here start at a million? I think you can't even afford a wheel off them!"

Gao Junwei was even more disdainful of Charlie, and said proudly: "Charlie, I know that your kind of live-in son-in-law's mind is to eat soft rice? You want to have a little face, so you want Claire to buy it for you. Right?"

Claire said with a cold face: "Manager Gao Junwei, Charlie doesn't need me to buy a car for him. Charlie bought me the car I drive."

Gao Junwei was taken aback for a moment. He didn't expect that Charlie could still afford a car to give it to Claire.

Juan looked at Charlie and laughed disdainfully, then sneered: "Is it possible that you can get off the car?"

After finishing speaking, she turned to Claire and asked, "Claire, what car did your husband give you? Could it be Chery QQ?"

Claire said: "Charlie bought two cars in total, one is the BMW 520 for me and the other is the BMW 530 for my father."

Juan said in a weird manner: "Yeah, I didn't expect your husband to have money."

Gao Junwei shook his head and smiled contemptuously: "BMW 520? This kind of car is driven by a subordinate in our house. How can it be matched with Claire."

Immediately, he looked at Charlie and said coldly: "Charlie, a BMW 520 is very cheap. If you take a loan, the down payment is only 100,000, but the luxury cars here are all millions. You buy A great luxury car, the BMW 5 Series is not eligible to enter at all. The last time is the BMW 740. Moreover, at this auto show, there are also two top luxury sports cars in the world. You can open your eyes this time."

Charlie smiled indifferently, pointed to the two top luxury cars on the platform, and asked, "You said that these are all luxury cars that I can't afford. Then I ask you, these two top luxury sports cars in the world, you can buy them. Are you up?"

Gao Junwei sneered: "In this exhibition hall, except for these two cars, I can afford every other car. What about you? rag like you, I see you go wherever you want, but you can't afford one!"

Chapter 293

After Gao Junwei disparaged Charlie, he turned around and said to Claire: "Claire, I attach great importance to our cooperation this time. In order to express my sincerity, except for the two in the middle of this auto show, you Pick anyone. It's time to replace your junk BMW 520. How about the Audi rs8? It's equipped with nearly two million tops. It's powerful and it matches you very well!"

Gao Junwei has been coveting Claire for a long time. This time he invited Claire to come over. He wanted to use the money to win Claire in the name of renovating the auto show center.

Juan has always known that Gao Junwei has thoughts about Claire, so she hurriedly said to the side: "Claire, this is what our President Gao thinks of you. You must not refuse."

Claire quickly refused: "Thank you, Mr. Gao Junwei, for your kindness, but the gift is too expensive, I can't ask for it."

Gao Junwei laughed and said: "It is just two million for Audi rs8s. This little money is nothing to me. As long as you like it at first, I will buy it all for you now."

Charlie looked at Gao Junwei coldly and said lightly: "No, we have a car at home, so you don't need to buy it. Besides, it won't be your turn to send it."

"Only you?" Gao Junwei said disdainfully: "It's not that I despise you, which car did you say?"

Charlie looked at him playfully, pointed at the two Aston Martin one77s and the limited-edition Bugatti Veyron on the stage, and said with a smile: "How about the two you can't afford?"

"Grass!" Gao Junwei thought that Charlie deliberately ridiculed that he could not afford such an expensive car, and said coldly: "Boy, don't be too arrogant, I have already said that, except for these two cars in the exhibition hall today, everything I can send all the cars, can you?!"

Charlie said: "I also said, I will give these two cars if I want to give them away!"

"Hahahaha!" Gao Junwei smiled and blurted out: "Do you know what kind of car it is? Open your mouth and blow it? It's not that I look down on you, these two cars are guarded by security guards, you can even not touch the wire, let alone buy them!"

Charlie smiled and said, "I don't think it's you who can't really touch it, right?"

Gao Junwei sneered: "The convention and exhibition center belongs to my family. The managers of these two companies have to give me a face. If I want to touch this car, I won't be able to touch it?"

Charlie shrugged and said, "I think you are no different from me. I can't touch it, and you can't touch it. We are actually the same."

Gao Junwei immediately exploded when he heard this, and gritted his teeth, and said: "Are you worthy of being compared with me?"

Charlie nodded, and said, "Of course I am. I said, there is no difference between us. If you don't believe me, try it?"

"Okay!" Gao Junwei was about to be imminent by Charlie's violent general method at this time, and said coldly: "You wait, I will touch it for you!"

After that, he stepped towards the crowd.

Charlie's expression was a bit chilly at this time.

Qin Gang and Solmon White gave their two cars to him. According to them, they both hired security guards from the cash transport company.

In order to absolutely ensure that no one else is allowed to touch these two cars before Charlie has started.

If Gao Junwei really touched the two cars today, then he would go to the two people to settle the accounts, and at least he would have to punish them for an unfavorable crime!

But what if Gao Junwei touches it? When he touched it and showed himself, he took out his bracelet and sat in to see what his expression would look like when he sees it.

Chapter 294

Gao Junwei stepped away from the crowd in front of the car at this time. Then he went to the security guard and said: "Hey there, I am the deputy general manager of the Aurous Hill Convention and Exhibition Center. I would like to appreciate these two cars?"

"No!" One of the security guards who joined the cash transport company after retiring from the army said very firmly at this time: "Our leader has an order, except for the owner of the car, no one is allowed to approach!"

Gao Junwei's face couldn't hold back.

d*mn, I really can't touch it?

This is too shameless, right? You know this is our showroom!

If I can't touch these two cars, isn't it really the same as Charlie's the stinky rag? !

No, he can't lose the face if he says anything!

Gao Junwei suppressed the irritation in his heart and said to the security guard in a good voice: "Man, I am also a car lover. Give me convenience. I will not treat you badly in the future."

After all, the security guard is a veteran with an upright personality, so he sternly refused: "This sir, I will tell you again, if you are not the owner of the car, you are never allowed to approach this car for half a step!"

Seeing that the other party always doesn't give him face, Gao Junwei immediately became anxious, and gritted his teeth, and threatened: "The entire exhibition center belongs to my house. You, a security guard, dare to confront me, don't you want to get mixed up?"

The other party said lightly: "I'm sorry, I'm the security guard of Ultimate Banknote Company, not the security guard of Aurous Hill Convention and Exhibition Center. Even if you are the boss of Aurous Hill Convention and Exhibition Center, you have no right to control me!"

"You!" Gao Junwei became angry from embarrassment and said: "You are shameless!"

After that, Gao Junwei immediately yelled: "Believe it or not, I will let you get out of my convention and exhibition center now?"

The other side said blankly: "We have signed a contract with your stadium, and we rented this place today, so you have no right to let me out. Moreover, my job is to protect this car. Do you have any other opinions? You can talk to our leader."

Charlie walked up to Gao Junwei at this time and smiled and asked, "Oh, Mr. Gao, what's the matter? Is it because people don't let you touch it like this? Hey, it's a shame!"

Gao Junwei glared at Charlie, then glanced at Claire again, blushing like a monkey butt0cks.

He uttered a rant, but now the other security guard really doesn't give him a bit of face, and he doesn't even give him the opportunity to touch these two cars. It's simply a shame!

Seeing Gao Junwei's frustration, Juan couldn't help but help him return to Charlie and said, "What are you so stinky with us? Believe it or not, I'll let the security guard drive you out?"

At this time, a reporter holding a camera said to Gao Junwei: "Hey friend, if people don't let you touch the cars, please don't mess around here, we are all affected by you when we take pictures."

Others also echoed: "Yes, it is such an expensive car, do you think it is easy to touch? Just look at it!"

"I think he just wants to touch it, take a picture and send it to Moments! I have seen a lot of such vain d*cks!"

Gao Junwei's expression became extremely ugly. If he couldn't go over and touch these two cars, wouldn't he, like Charlie, become a stinky thread in everyone's eyes?

Thinking of this, he darkened his face and said to the security guard: "I'll give you thirty seconds. If you still block my way, I will drive all of your people and cars out, and you won't have to do any car shows anymore at my place. Done!"

Chapter 295

At this time, a manager dressed in a suit heard the quarrel here and hurried over.

Behind him followed a group of sturdy guys dressed up as bodyguards, all with stubborn eyes and stubble.

"What happened? Who is making noise here?"

Gao Junwei saw the manager and said arrogantly: "Are you the person in charge here?"

"Yes." The man nodded and said, "I am the executive manager of the exhibition, Limo, who are you?"

Gao Junwei snorted coldly and said, "I am Gao Junwei from the Convention and Exhibition Center."

Limo said lightly: "It turned out to be Mr. Gao. I don't know if Mr. Gao is noisy here, what's the matter?"

Gao Junwei said coldly: "Your subordinates are too good at doing things. I want to go up and take a closer look at the two cars, but he didn't let me get on, what does this mean? Isn't this like looking down on me?"

Limo smiled slightly and said, "Sorry, Mr. Gao Junwei, these two cars have already been bought by customers, and now we are waiting for them to pick up the cars. We also explained that these two cars are too noble. No one except the owner. Can't touch."

Gao Junwei frowned and asked, "That's not giving me face?"

"I'm sorry." Limo defaulted and said: "It is not about giving a face to anyone, let alone Mr. Gao, even if it is the King of Heaven, he can't touch these two cars as long as he is not the owner of the car!"

Gao Junwei almost deceived, in front of so many people, especially Claire, who is still here, she can say, he has no respect here, right?

it is good!

Then don't blame me for being crazy!

So he immediately shouted angrily: "Okay! Since you are so powerful, then the temple of our convention and exhibition center is too small to accommodate you, so I ask you to clear the place and leave!"

Limo said, "Mr. Gao Junwei, this is too much? We have signed the lease contract after all, and we have already paid the money. How can you break the contract?"

"What about breaking the contract?" Gao Junwei said annoyed: "I would rather pay you liquidated damages and drive you dogs out!"

Juan hurried to persuade him at this time and whispered: "Mr. Gao Junwei, if we breach the contract, the penalty will be three times the total amount. If it gets to the chairman, he will definitely be angry."

At this moment, Gao Junwei was stunned again.

Charlie looked very happy on the side, laughed, and said: "Manager Gao Junwei, in your status, you can't touch these two cars yet. Is it so difficult to touch them? Oh, being the boss of this Convention and Exhibition Center, what a shame for you!"

Gao Junwei said angrily: "Who the h*ll told you I can't touch it?"

After finishing speaking, he turned his face and pushed Limo away directly, and said coldly: "I will touch this car today, don't come over and ask for trouble if you don't want to die, or I will call someone and immediately kill you!"

Seeing Gao Junwei rush to the Aston Martin limited edition one77, Limo was a little anxious, he hurriedly called the security guard to stop him.

Gao Junwei did not expect that a few smelly security guards would really stop him, and immediately shouted: "The security guards in the exhibition center will come over to me!"

These security guards are all from outside, but there are many security guards in the exhibition center itself, and the number of them is not less than the other party. See who is afraid of whom?

Limo saw a few security guards from the convention and exhibition center running over, and there might be a conflict, so he quickly called Qin Gang.

Chapter 296

"Mr. Qin, Mr. Gao Junwei from the Aurous Hill Convention and Exhibition Center has to touch that Aston Martin one77. It is about to embroil into a fight now, what should I do?"

Qin Gang was shocked and blurted out: "That car was given to Mr. Wade! I don't care about the tall and short young sons, except Mr. Wade, whoever dares to touch the car, let the security guard give him his hand!"

Limo hurriedly said: "Mr. Qin, Aurous Hill Convention, and Exhibition Center belongs to the Gao family. Isn't it a bit too much to do this?"

"The Gao family is a bullsht?" Qin Gang shouted violently, "The Gao family is not even a bullsht in my eyes. I tell you, as long as the kid gets his finger on the car I bought, you better get out of Aurous Hill and never let me see you again!"

Qin Gang only got two magical medicines from Charlie yesterday. He didn't fall asleep all night with excitement. Suddenly he heard that someone dared to touch the car he bought for Mr. Wade. Wasn't this his mother looking for death?

The strength of the Gao family was far below that of the Qin family. What's more, behind Qin Gang there was a big god-like Mr. Wade, the little Gao Junwei, he didn't even see him as worthy of his worries.

Hearing this, Limo's heart shuddered, and then looked up and found that Gao Junwei had already taken a few security guards, choking with the security guards hired by him!

Gao Junwei is still so arrogant and coldly said: "If you don't get out of the way, I will let people do it!"

Limo's hands were shaking in anger, d*mn, do you really treat these security guards as decorations? These are usually masters of escorting money transport trucks, how can you compare them to the security guards at the gates?

In addition, he had just received instructions from Qin Gang, and he was afraid that the two cars might have gone wrong, so he pointed to Gao Junwei and ordered the security guard he hired: "d*mn, give me something to face! We will fight! Fight fiercely! If he's killed, President White will cover us!"

The security guard of the banknote transportation company could not bear Gao Junwei's bad attitude for a long time. He was holding back his energy to teach him a lesson. Upon hearing Limo's order, he was immediately beaten up. The headed security guard shouted: "You deserve this!"

After that, he slapped Gao Junwei's face directly and cursed: "I wanted to hit you a long time ago, b@stard!"

Gao Junwei was slapped with a slap in the face and stared to the roof, and shouted sternly, "This is the roof of my Gao family, you dare to hit me?"

"f*ck you uncle!" The veteran security guard immediately raised his foot and kicked Gao Junwei's waist fiercely.

With this strong foot, he kicked Gao Junwei directly, clutching his stomach and rolling him on the ground.

The security guards of several other convention and exhibition centers were not rivals at all in front of the security of the cash transport company. After a while, they were all beaten up and down.

Juan rushed to Gao Junwei, protecting him, and angrily cursed: "You guys are looking for death, right? You are over! Dare to beat our Mr. Gao! The Gao family will not let you go!"

Limo said coldly: "The Gao family? Tell you, this car was bought by the owner of the Qin family! He said since your Gao family dares to ask for something, your mother who dares to fight doesn't even know you!"

"Qin Family" Juan heard this, she was dumbfounded.

Gao Junwei was lying on the ground in pain, panic in his heart.

Qin family? !

The Qin family is in Aurous Hill, but it is a big family second only to the Song family!

Moreover, the relationship between the Qin family and the Song family seems to have always been good!

In contrast, the Gao family is nothing more than operating a convention and exhibition center, which is more than ten thousand miles away, how can it troubled the Qin family!

Gao Junwei ignored the whole body pain, and said apologetically: "I'm sorry, I'm sorry! I really didn't know this is the car Qin bought. I'm sorry, I have no eyes."

Chapter 297

Gao Junwei was frightened at this time, but he almost wanted to kill in his heart.

He was beaten in his home convention and exhibition center, and he had to kneel down and apologize to the person who beat him. More importantly, he was beaten in front of Claire. This was the greatest humiliation he has encountered in life!

However, he couldn't afford to provoke the Qin family, so he could only move his anger to Charlie in his heart.

He felt that it was Charlie the stinky silk that made him have to touch the car. As a result, he was beaten and embarrassed in front of Claire. This hatred must be reported by himself!

At this moment, Limo saw that he was still acquainted, so he said to the people around him: "Okay, don't fight!"

The security guards of a group of cash transport companies gave up, but the security guards of the convention and exhibition center have been beaten and rolled all over the floor.

Charlie stood by, looking at Gao Junwei who was embarrassed on the ground with a scornful face, and asked with a smile: "Mr. Gao, it seems that these two cars, you really can't even touch it!"

Gao Junwei hated the tickle of his teeth, but he didn't expect that he would dare to provoke him, and he suddenly cursed with a gloomy expression: "Charlie, you made me ashamed today, I will definitely not forgive you!"

Charlie smiled and said, "What? Am I wrong?"

After speaking, Charlie asked Claire next to him again: "Wife, am I right?"

Claire was a little embarrassed at this time, just now Gao Junwei constantly ridiculed Charlie, she was indeed a little annoyed in her heart, but she did not expect things to turn into this.

The reason why she didn't get angry with Gao Junwei just now was mainly because she wanted to talk about the cooperation of the exhibition center.

However, seeing Gao Junwei's true appearance revealed, she also felt a little disgust in her heart, so she looked at him and said seriously: "Gao Junwei, this matter itself is your provocation first. It is you that conflicted with others and was beaten. What does it have to do with Charlie? I hope you can tell right from wrong and not trouble him!"

Gao Junwei noticed that Claire looked down on him a little, and was full of resentment. He stared at Charlie and gritted his teeth and said, "Smelly rag, you wait for me!"

Charlie looked at him in surprise: "What do you call me?"

Gao Junwei scolded angrily: "I call you Stinky pauper! Are you deaf?"

Juan, who was next to him, also added fuel and jealousy, and yelled, "Charlie, you son-in-law who eats soft rice, you are praised for asking you to hang silk."

Charlie was not angry, and smiled and said, "You said that I am pauper, but you can't even touch the sides of these two cars, and you were beaten by so many people. Who the h*ll is rag now?"

There was a burst of laughter from the crowd watching.

Gao Junwei's face is extremely ugly, gritted his teeth and said: "It's as if you can touch it. There is a kind of thing you can touch one and show me?"

When he said this, Gao Junwei was thinking of giving Charlie a stimulating method.

If he gets fooled and touches these two cars, he must be beaten violently.

If he is not fooled, just admitting the counsel in front of everyone, then he can save a little bit of face.

However, he didn't expect Charlie to say calmly at this time: "What's the point of a light touch? Would you like me to take a test drive to show you?"

"Hahaha!" Gao Jun sneered in a great voice: "Test drive? Your stinky rag is also worth of test drive of such an expensive car? You can touch the doorknob, I count you as winning today!"

Gao Junwei felt that Limo had so many people guarding here anyway, if Charlie wanted to touch it, he would definitely be beaten like himself!

Charlie smiled slightly, pointed to the Aston Martin one77 in front of him, and asked Claire: "My wife, do you want to take this car for a drive? If you want, I'll take you there!"

Claire hurriedly pulled him and said in a low voice: "Charlie, don't mess around, can't you see Gao Junwei's end?"

At this time, Gao Junwei struggled to stand up and sneered: "Charlie, what are you doing with her? Do you know how awesome this car is? There are only 77 cars in the world, and there is no market! Even my dad Hasn't been in this car before, do you still want to ride in this car?"

Charlie shrugged and said: "It's my own car, can't I sit in it for a ride?"

Chapter 298

Gao Junwei laughed angrily: "Charlie, the more you pretend, the more addicted you are, right? You don't take a piss and take pictures of yourself. You are hairy, what qualifications to ride in this car?"

Juan also said disdainfully: "Claire, it's really hard for you to marry such a boastful and non-draft Rubbish.

Claire's face was very helpless, and the gaze looking at Charlie was also a little disappointed.

Is this guy's brain broken when he says such inconsequential words on this occasion?

Charlie didn't bother to explain, took out two wearable bracelet keys from his pocket, held them in his hand, shook Limo, who was in charge of the auto show, and said lightly: "Do you recognize these two things?"

When Limo saw the smart bracelet key that Charlie took out, he was completely confused.

Thinking of what Qin Gang said on the phone, he suddenly snorted.

d*mn it!

Could this young man be Mr. Charlie, Mr. Wade?

Correct!

It seems to call him Charlie!

So he hurriedly bowed deeply and said humbly: "Hello Mr. Wade! Limo salutes Mr. Wade and has seen Mr. Wade!"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly flashed over, pointed at the two supercars behind, respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, your two cars are ready, you can drive away at any time. If you don't want to drive, we can help you transport them. Home!"

Everyone around was stunned.

Gao Junwei's eyes were about to fall to the ground, but Juan was shocked!

Even Gao Junwei dared to hit someone who saw Charlie bow and salute like a grandson, and called him Mr. Wade?

What is even more incredible is that, according to what he meant, these two supercars belonged to Charlie? !

What exactly is going on?

Claire was also dumbfounded, and for a while, she didn't understand what happened.

However, thinking that Solomon White had given Charlie a big villa, she suddenly guessed the outline in her heart.

This Charlie must have gone to show Feng Shui to the rich again and fool others!

At this time, Gao Junwei hurriedly said to Limo: "Manager Limo, you must be mistaken. This person is Charlie, a well-known poor son-in-law of the Aurous Hill Willson family, not a master Wade at all."

Juan also looked at the manager flatly and blurted out: "Manager, look at Charlie, who is so poor, how can he be like someone who can afford such an expensive sports car?"

Maybe, he brought counterfeit keys and dare to come to the auto show and pretend to be forced, you must not be fooled by him.”

Charlie snorted and took Claire who was silly on the spot and walked towards the Aston Martin one77.

The security guard who wanted to protect the car to the death and prevent it from being touched by other people just now, seeing Limo being so polite to Charlie, naturally gave way.

Charlie took Claire’s hand and walked to the driving position of the Aston Martin one77. The bracelet just approached the door and a beep was heard.

Immediately afterward, the car lights like shark eyes lit up instantly!

The LCD screen and ambient light in the car also light up at the same time.

Aston Martin one77’s iconic pair of scissor doors rose up automatically!

Chapter 299

When Charlie unlocked the Aston Martin one77 with the smart bracelet, everyone at the scene was shocked!

Everyone exclaimed in their hearts: This Aston Martin one77 is really Charlie’s!

Gao Junwei is also dumbfounded, what is the situation?

Isn’t Charlie a pauper son-in-law?

How could he afford such an expensive car? !

Juan was even more stunned: “This is incredible. Can this man who eats leftovers can afford an Aston Martin one77?”

At this time, Charlie led her to the front of the co-pilot, and said with a smile: “My wife, get in the car, I’ll take you around!”

Claire asked with a puzzled face: "Is this car really yours?"

Charlie nodded: "Of course, the key is here, can your husband lie to you?"

After speaking, Charlie hurriedly whispered in her ear: "Wife, Qin Gang actually lent this car to me to check out. He said it was for me to experience it. I deliberately pretended to force Gao Junwei just now!"

Charlie himself is not very interested in these two too much publicity cars. Today, if it weren't for Darren's words to see his wife here, he wouldn't even bother to come and collect these two cars.

Moreover, he also knows his wife's personality. She is absolutely unwilling to drive such a car on a daily basis, which is too public.

So, he made up such a lie, and after taking his wife to experience it, he drove the car back and handed the two cars to that Limo for safekeeping.

Claire suddenly realized it, and at the same time, she was relieved.

She was really afraid that Charlie would continue to lie to the big men, and the more they lied, the more they would get into trouble.

Since someone else lent him the car to experience it, then she doesn't have to worry so much.

Thinking of this, she felt a lot more relaxed, and she was also full of curiosity about this Aston Martin one77.

Although Claire is not a vain woman, she still wants to sit in and experience such a top sports car.

So, she bent down gently and sat in this super luxurious Aston Martin one77!

Charlie didn't sit in anxiously, but looked at the dumbfounded Gao Junwei and Juan, and said with a sneer: "pauper is a pauper. Go back and make more money before you come out to pretend to be embarrassingly rich!"

After speaking, they were too lazy to take care of the sauce-stained expressions of the two, and sat in the luxury sports car and pressed the engine start switch.

In a short time, the super sports car's powerful engine roared throughout the exhibition hall.

Claire had never driven a luxury car of this level. She sat in the driving position, swallowed hard, held the steering wheel excitedly, and started the car.

The top luxury car Aston Martin one77 slowly started in the sight of everyone, drove down the slope on the other side of the booth, and then drove directly out of the exhibition hall.

The powerful aura immediately caused a sensation.

Gao Junwei was completely confused, is this car really such a waste? What is the situation!

Juan also had a pale face. If both cars belonged to Charlie, didn't she offend him a lot just now?

She couldn't help but get it: "This is impossible, isn't he the Rubbish son-in-law of the Willson family? Where did he get the car key?"

Gao Junwei could not accept life and death. Charlie could really afford this Aston Martin one77, so he gritted his teeth and said, "That hanging wire must have a stolen car key!"

When the manager Limo heard this, he was very angry. These two fools, dare to insult Mr. Wade? Just looking for death!

He turned his head to look at Gao Junwei and Juan, and yelled angrily: "You have offended Mr. Wade, and dare to bark here!"

With that said, he directly ordered the bodyguard: "Hit him hard!"

Gao Junwei was knocked to the ground with three punches and two kicks by the bodyguard. He was immediately caught by his hair and beaten desperately on the face. He soon became a pig head.

Chapter 300

Juan was also beaten with disheveled hair, and her mouth was crooked, and Gao Junwei also limped in pain.

After beating the two, Limo directly let them be thrown out of the exhibition hall.

Gao Junwei lay on the concrete floor, shouting angrily: "d*mn, who is this Charlie!"

Juan said angrily: "He is just a son-in-law, I think he is a driver at most, and it is impossible to be Mr. Wade."

Gao Junwei was beaten with blood foam in his mouth, and said: "Smelly rag, I will never let him go!"

After speaking, he had a cold expression, gritted his teeth, and said: "And Claire! Don't even want to escape from my palm!"

Here, Aston Martin one77 has left the convention center.

The super luxurious sports car has aroused the close attention of countless people on the street.

It was the first time to ride an Aston Martin one77, Claire found it very novel.

After all, it is the world's top supercar, and almost all young people hope to have the opportunity to experience it.

However, Claire's curiosity about it was just a taste of it.

Before Charlie drove far, Claire said to him: "Let's drive the car back, don't cause problems for Qin Gang."

Charlie said, "What are you afraid of? Mr. Qin Gang is a good person."

"That's not appropriate." Claire said seriously: "Anyway, we have already experienced it. Let's return the car and go home."

Seeing her persistence, Charlie nodded gently.

Immediately, he drove the car back to the exhibition hall and parked on the booth.

As soon as he got out of the car, Limo respectfully greeted him and asked him: "Mr. Wade, how do you feel? Are you satisfied?"

Charlie nodded and said in a low voice, "First, find a place for me to store these two cars, and I will ask you to get them later when I need them."

Limo didn't dare to ask too much, and nodded hurriedly: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will help you keep them safe!"

Charlie smiled with satisfaction and said, "Then I will leave now."

"Mr. Wade, I'll give it to you!"

"No need!"

On the way back, Claire couldn't help sighing: "I originally said that I would try to negotiate the list of the Convention and Exhibition Center, and by the way, I would have liked to invite them to the opening ceremony tomorrow. Now it's gone again."

Charlie asked curiously: "My wife, is your studio ready to officially announce the opening?"

"Yes." Claire said, "After so many days of preparation, it is almost ready to officially open."

Speaking of this, Claire said sadly: "It's a pity, I can't invite anyone with a reputation to come to join me. I only invite a few classmates, and then you and your parents will come as well."

Charlie nodded, but thought in his heart, can't find anyone with a big face to join her? Husband will help you find one!

Emgrand Group Mrs. Doris, Miss Song Family Warnia, Qin Family Patriarch Qin Gang, White Family Patriarch Solmon White, Underground King Orvel, and Treasure Pavellion's Mr. Bao Fungui.

He knows a lot of big people who are among the best in Aurous Hill, and they all are at the beck and call of Mr. Wade. Then, as long as he gives an order, they will come over and take care of his wife's business by the way. The wife's studio will surely make a sensation in Aurous Hill.

Thinking of this, he immediately edited a message and sent in a group to these people on WeChat:

"My wife's studio will open tomorrow morning. Please take the time to come over and join us. The address is..."

Chapter 301

After WeChat was sent, Charlie kept receiving all kinds of replies.

The first reply was Warnia: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will come to congratulate you tomorrow!"

Then Qin Gang said, "Thank you for the invitation Mr. Wade, and I will definitely come and join tomorrow!"

Solmon White said: "Mr. Wade, I will bring and my nephew to congratulate you tomorrow. By the way, let these two little rascals face you in repentance."

Everyone was excited about Charlie's invitation, thinking it was a good opportunity to get closer to Mr. Wade.

Claire originally had some regrets about the opening ceremony tomorrow, but never thought that her husband had already prepared a grand show for her!

Back home, Claire washed and rested early, preparing for the opening ceremony tomorrow morning.

Charlie also slept very early, and he was thinking about how to make his wife the most concerned woman in Aurous Hill tomorrow.

The next day.

Today is Claire's scheduled opening day.

Because she didn't have much money and was just starting out, Claire rented the company's office address in the slightly remote Wing Star Building.

Although the Wing Star Building is the property of a subsidiary of the Emgrand Group, it is really not worth mentioning. The Emgrand Group generally does not bother to operate it on its own, so it is leased to some intermediary companies.

Originally, Charlie wanted to say something to Doris, asking her to vacate one of the floors of the Wing Star Building directly for his wife as a studio address.

But thinking about it, he was afraid of explaining it to Claire, so she let her spend her own money to rent a small office.

Claire and Charlie stood at the door of the office at this time, waiting for the guests to arrive.

Yesterday, Claire sent invitation letters to some of the partners who were in Willson's house before, and even plucked up the courage to send one to the Emgrand Group, but she was still a little nervous and didn't know these guests will come.

She lacks strength. If even the opening ceremony is deserted, then the circle will look down on her company even more.

Seeing her nervousness, Charlie comforted her: "My wife, it's still early. It is estimated that when the time comes, all the guests will arrive. Don't worry."

The scheduled opening time is ten o'clock in the morning, just after nine o'clock at this time, it is normal for no one.

But not long after, Claire's cell phone rang suddenly.

After she picked it up, she found out that it was the phone from the front desk of the building, saying that it was the Willson family's visit, so let her know in advance.

Charlie also heard the voice on the phone and asked in surprise: "Willson family? What are they doing here? You sent them an invitation letter?"

Claire shook her head and said, "I was like that with them before. Why would I invite them over? Maybe they want to see a joke. The front desk said that grandma came here in person and brought uncle and family. Don't create any conflict."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "As long as they don't look for trouble, I will definitely not go to conflict with them on this happy day."

Chapter 302

Claire nodded worriedly.

Immediately afterwards, she saw Old Mrs. Willson walking over from the outside passage with Noah Willson, Harold, and Wendy on crutches.

Harold, who has beaten up some time ago and caught in the police station, had just been redeemed by the Lady Willson with money, so at this moment Harold saw Charlie and his face was full of resentment towards him.

But Charlie didn't bother to care about him.

Today is a big day for the opening of the business, and he doesn't want to have any conflict with them, so as long as this group of people does not go too far, he will not take the initiative to provoke them.

Wendy walked to the front, sneered, and said: "Claire, you don't even say hello when you see your grandma, are you too unfilial?"

Claire said indifferently: "You have kicked us out of the Willson family. It stands to reason that we have nothing to do now!"

"b@stard!" Old Mrs. Willson jabbed her crutches to the ground and said angrily, "You are the blood of the Willson family, so you are born to be from the Willson family, and when you die, you are also the ghost of the Willson family!"

Charlie said coldly at this time: "Some people speak too much. They said they were kicked out of their homes, and they no longer recognize them as members of the Willson family. Now they say that they belong to the Willson family. Is this not too contradictory?"

Harold gritted his teeth and said: "When grandma speaks, it doesn't suit a waste like you to interrupt!"

Charlie looked at him, and asked, "Did you not get beaten enough last time? Do you want me to loosen your muscles?!"

Harold's neck shrank, and he immediately persuaded.

When he robbed the villa last time, he had already seen Charlie's strength, let alone one himself, even ten of them would not be his opponent, so he should be honest.

At this time, Claire pursed her mouth, turned her head to look at Mrs. Willson, and said, "Sorry, we didn't invite you at today's opening ceremony. Please leave as soon as possible."

"Opening ceremony?" Mrs. Willson said disdainfully: "Claire, you wouldn't think that if your small workshop opens, there will really be customers to join us?"

Noah Willson on the side also chuckled and said, "I heard that you still sent an invitation letter to the Emgrand Group with a shy face? You don't want to think about how it is possible for a small workshop like yours to enter the eyes of the Emgrand Group."

"Yes." The Old Mrs. Willson took the conversation back again, and said with a look of consolation: "Claire, the family doesn't talk about two families, the couple quarreled at the head of the bed, and the end of the bed was reconciled as before, let alone you, it's my granddaughter, you have my blood in your body, why fight with me?"

With that said, the Old Mrs. Willson went further and said: "Look at you, you are working on such a dilapidated studio by yourself. It requires money and resources, and there are no resources. Why not return to the Willson Group, and grandma will let you be the director, and you work with your grandmother. In the future, I will give you an account of the shares of the Willson Group, and even let you take over as the head. What do you think?"

The Willson family is in a very difficult situation recently.

Emgrand broke off their cooperation with them, blocked them, and the White family came to divorce again, and Harold couldn't support the wall with mud.

Mrs. Willson's only hope at this time was to bring Claire back to work within the group to make a breakthrough in business.

Maybe Claire could get the Emgrand Group's contract back, so that other partners would come to cooperate with them one after another, and the situation would be reversed in no time.

However, Mrs. Willson did not expect that Claire will shake her head calmly in rejection. She said, "I am not interested, I just want to do my own thing."

Noah Willson coldly snorted, "Claire, I would advise you to be respectful. Do you see how desolate you are when you opened here today? Does anyone congratulate you? That's what you want to start a business? I think you are 80% still destined to failure. Start a business, then go bankrupt, is this what you want?"

Charlie's expression was full of disdain and sarcasm and said: "Is there anyone here to congratulate, what to do with you? As long as you want to know, the entire Aurous Hill dignitaries will come to congratulate Claire!"

Chapter 303

Hearing what Charlie said, Harold smiled contemptuously, and said sarcastically: "Charlie, just pretend, you just know a few s*umbags, do you really think you are a big man? I really don't believe you. Can the powerful person really come here!"

Wendy on the side could not help but snorted: "Charlie, this waste, is best at bragging. If there is no one to congratulate on the opening ceremony today, tomorrow this studio will become Aurous Hill's laughing stock. I see how you will take orders!"

When Claire heard her, even though she didn't say anything on the surface, she still couldn't help but worry.

The opening ceremony, to put it bluntly, is a ceremony that embodies the network resources.

If there are many customers, it proves that the company has a strong network and strength can be reflected, especially if there are big people, then many people will be very face-off when they hear about this.

But if there is no customer, wouldn't it be telling others that her company has no resources and no connections? How can anyone cooperate with this kind of company?

If Emgrand Group could send someone to participate in the opening today, it would have added a lot of brilliance to his company, but Claire was not sure whether Emgrand Group would take care of her.

Old Mrs. Willson said at this time: "Claire, this is about to be 10 o'clock, and there is no guest. I don't think anyone has any interest in this small workshop. I advise you to return to the Willson Group to work. It's better to help the Willson family steadily in the future than to come out and be cold-eyed."

After knowing that Claire's company was about to open, the Willson family also had exchanges with some of the partners who had good relationships before. After they knew that Claire was from the Willson family, they all said that they would not come to the opening ceremony. I will never cooperate with Claire's studio in the future.

Therefore, Mrs. Willson dared to pack tickets, and there won't be any capable guests here today.

At that time, Claire will naturally feel frustrated when she sees no one in her studio, and she will be able to handle her better in the future!

At this moment, Claire was indeed very anxious, biting her lower lip, worried.

Charlie, who was next to her, shook her hand and said seriously: "Wife, even if there is no guest today, what can be done? It is enough to have me here!"

Claire looked at him moved, and nodded lightly, feeling that he was more at ease.

However, the Old Mrs. Willson sneered: "Charlie, you take yourself too seriously, what use are you here? Can you find a big person to join Claire's studio? Can you give Claire a favor? Is the studio looking for a cooperation order? Without the support of the Willson Group, you will sooner or later drive yourself to a dead end!

Charlie said arrogantly: "Claire's company will definitely get better and better! Let alone a Willson Group that is on the verge of bankruptcy, even the Willson Group in its previous heyday is nothing in front of Claire. What's the matter! Why is it difficult to surpass you at first?"

"What a big tone!"

The Old Mrs. Willson heard that Charlie actually said that the Willson Group was on the verge of bankruptcy, and also said that Claire could easily surpass the Willson Group in its heyday, feeling that the whole person was greatly insulted!

She angrily threw her crutches to the ground, and said: "You are just a rubbish who entered our Willson family, how dare you say anything here?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "You said I'm not ashamed? Ha ha, I'm just telling the truth. If you don't believe me, just wait and see!"

Harold sneered a few times and said, "Okay, Charlie, I'm waiting for you to become a big company."

As time passed by, the time for karma was getting closer and closer.

Claire's heart became more and more flustered, and he kept looking at his watch, staring outside blankly.

Seeing her situation, Charlie comforted a few words, but it had no effect.

Chapter 304

But he was not in a hurry. Since he had sent an invitation letter to the Emgrand, it was impossible for Doris to not come.

The reason why she hasn't arrived yet, is she probably preparing a gift!

Noah Willson put on a posture of leaning on the old and selling the old, and said, "How about it, do you still think you have any connections?"

It's almost ten o'clock. If there were to be any guests, they would have come long ago.

And now the front door is empty, obviously the dust has settled, and no one will appear again.

Wendy also gloated and said: "Dad, this waste said, there is not a guest, it does not matter, it is enough to have him alone. He really doesn't know where his status can go, does he really think he's the most powerful in Aurous Hill?"

At this moment, suddenly a voice from the front desk was deliberately raised from a distance.

"Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, President is visiting"

Tailai?

Charlie was a little puzzled. Since the last time the White family banquet where he brought the lightning strikes on the spot, he has never seen Tailai again. Today, his wife opened the business and did not invite him. Why did she come?

The Willson family was also dumbfounded!

Tailai? The richest man in Haicheng next door is very strong. How could he come here?

After Tailai entered the door, he ran straight to the office where Charlie was standing.

The Willson family was surprised for a while, and glanced at each other. Noah Willson took a step forward and said, "I just met a businessman from Haicheng a few days ago. He said that he has been walking closer to Tailai. He introduced me to Tailai?"

After speaking, Noah Willson sorted his clothes and greeted him forward.

Old Mrs. Willson didn't dare to pretend to be big, and walked out behind.

As soon as the fat-headed and big-eared Tailai approached, he hurriedly moved to Charlie's side. He didn't pay attention to Noah Willson who came up, and said with great surprise: "Mr. Charlie finally caught up."

In the eyes of everyone's incomparable surprise, Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Why are you here?"

Tailai hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie, your wife opened the business today, how can I not come to join you!"

At this time, Noah Willson came to the front and interjected with excitement: "Mr. Li, you are here, let's go and talk inside. As you stand here and talk, it's not appropriate"

Tailai was getting close to Charlie, but was suddenly interrupted. The smiling face suddenly became gloomy, and the air of a long-time high-ranking person exuded. He squinted at Noah Willson and said coldly: "What are you? Did you not see me talking to Mr. Charlie?"

Noah Willson was very embarrassed, dumbfounded, and subconsciously asked: "I am Noah Willson from the Willson family, I was introduced to you by President Ma from Haicheng?"

Tailai frowned slightly and said disdainfully: "I don't know you, let alone Mr. Ma. I came here today to congratulate Mrs. Wade's company!"

Chapter 305

Tailai's words shocked the Willson family.

He actually made a special trip to congratulate Claire? !

This is the richest man in Haichen!

Charlie and Claire, when did they catch such a line? !

Noah Willson was shocked in his heart, and he didn't expect that the other party would be so rude to him, he would swear, and he couldn't hold his face, he hurriedly backed a few steps with interest, and stood aside.

With a face full of doubt, Wendy asked Harold next to her in a low voice, saying, "This fat man is really the richest man in Haicheng? Does it feel like an actor has been invited? How can the richest man treat a Rubbish with respect"

Harold shook his head and replied in a low voice, "I don't think it looks like it."

None of the people present had seen Tailai.

But Tailai, who was kneeling and licking Charlie in front of him, and Tailai, who was rumored to behave badly, were not alone at all.

At this time, Tailai took out an exquisite box from his bag, handed it to Claire, smiled respectfully and said, "Congratulations to Mrs. Wade's company for opening. This is a little bit of my heart, please accept it."

Claire was a little at a loss. She didn't invite Tailai, didn't even know Tailai, and didn't know if she should accept this gift.

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "My wife, this is President Li's heart, accept it."

Claire then took the box, and after thanking him, she put away the present.

But she heard Wendy say: "Claire, President Li gave a gift, would you let us see it?"

"Yes, Li is always a big boss with a fortune of hundreds of billions, and the gifts he gives are definitely not ordinary." Harold also said.

Claire looked at Charlie before opening the gift box under everyone's attention.

Inside the exquisite gift box, there is a crystal-clear jade pendant.

This pendant has no impurities, the whole body is emerald green, and it looks extremely transparent under the light.

Old Mrs. Willson also stared at this pendant closely, her two old eyes were completely sinking into it.

She has already seen that this pendant is exactly the "clear breeze and bright moon" at the Eastcliff auction some time ago!

At that time, it was sold at a high price of 50 million. It is said that it was bought by a huge man in Haicheng, but she did not expect that man to be Tailai.

She looked at the pendant and her eyes were red.

If the Willson family had such a pendant, it would be enough to fight a turnaround!

Wendy also said with some jealousy: "I didn't expect someone to come, I don't know what sh!t luck was, they met President Li"

As soon as she finished speaking, she heard the front desk of the building shout: "Ms. Claire has a congratulatory gift!"

Immediately afterward, a rumbling sound came from outside.

Everyone walked out of the building together, looked up, and saw that the square of the building had been cleared, and a huge helicopter was slowly descending.

Immediately afterwards, the staff of the entire building became busy.

One flower basket after another, one gift after another, were moved from the helicopter to the door of Claire's office.

Chapter 306

The people in the entire building are boiling, but it's just a company opening, so there can be such a big scene, even the helicopter has been dispatched!

The crowd poked their heads and looked at the few people standing in front of the company.

Claire looked at all of it with a sense of loss. Although she invited some people, they didn't have much friendship with her. Besides, she didn't know anyone who was able to fly, in a helicopter.

Someone in the crowd exclaimed: "Isn't that flower basket limited to the legendary Tiffany? It seems that this flower basket is worth more than one million!"

"Wow, look at the flowers in these flower baskets. They seem to have never been seen before! This is too pretty!"

"That's a Dutch tulip! The top Dutch tulip is similar to our domestic bluegrass. It is very expensive. Any one costs thousands or even tens of thousands. There are also blue enchantresses and Juliet roses that are all top in the world. These precious flowers! These flowers cannot be cultivated in our country. They can only be transported by air from abroad!"

"No wonder the helicopter was dispatched! It is estimated that after being transported to the airport from abroad, it was directly transported here by helicopter!"

"Looking at it this way, a flower basket is worth one million for Tiffany's basket alone, and the precious flowers in it may also cost one million."

"There are a total of 20 baskets worth more than 40 million here?"

"Oh my God, this is the real ho! An opening ceremony, more than 40 million gift baskets alone?!"

"Yeah! And these flowers won't survive for long. I'm afraid they will wither after a few days. This is too extravagant."

The Old Mrs. Willson on the side couldn't help swallowing.

She also likes planting flowers, and planted a lot of all kinds of flowers in the courtyard of Willson's villa.

However, she has always been reluctant to buy the world's rare flowers.

Especially the most classic red and white tulips in the Netherlands, one plant costs nearly 10,000.

Wendy's eyes straightened, and she whispered: "Grandma, I remember that you really liked the Dutch tulips, but in the end I was not willing to buy them. I could only buy a few hundred Henan tulips. How do these people give Claire gave such a valuable gift!"

When the Lady Willson thought of her Henan tulips, it was a thousand miles away from others' Dutch tulips!

As a result, she was even more jealous, and she couldn't help but wonder if she could take a few away when she leaves, and plant them in her garden to see if they could survive.

At this moment, someone outside shouted:

"Ms. Doris, Vice Chairman of Emgrand Group, Ms. Warnia, Patriarch Solmon White, Patriarch Qin Gang, and genius Doctor Tianqi, congratulations on the opening of Madame Wade's company, and wish the company a prosperous business!"

Not only the Willson family was shocked, but even the entire staff of the Wing Star Building were shocked!

Although they are an industry under the Emgrand Group, the Emgrand Group seldom intervenes. They didn't expect that the vice chairman of the group and so many Aurous Hill big figures came to this humble building for the opening of Claire's company!

So many big people gathered in the Wing Star Building, which is also a brilliant thing for the Wing Star Building.

This also made many people wonder in their hearts: What is the background of this newly opened company, and how can so many bigwigs congratulate them at the same time.

The members of the Willson family were also dumbfounded. Everyone wondered in their hearts: How much face is this Claire? !

Claire herself was stunned, and just hearing these names made her very panicked.

After all, the entire Willson family is now in despair, and Claire also knows very well that he can only be regarded as a newcomer who has just started a business and is poor, and has no foundation in Aurous Hill.

So, how could these big shots personally join in for the opening ceremony?

Could it be because of her husband Charlie? !

Chapter 307

At this time, the crowd of onlookers quickly gave up a passage.

Two beautiful women, Doris and Warnia, walking side by side from outside, wearing very decent formal attire and smiling.

Behind them, Solmon White took Gerald and Fred White, Qin Gang took Aoxue and Steven, Tianqi took Zhovia, and walked in.

And Mr. Orvel followed all of them.

Wendy looked at this scene with a face full of disbelief.

Among these people, no matter which one is, it is rare to see big people.

Unexpectedly, she would gather here to celebrate Claire, which really made her feel extremely uncomfortable!

Before that, she also had her own pride. She was also a young lady, the rich lady, and one of the most outstanding young people in Aurous Hill City.

She has an outstanding appearance and good figure, and she is also a proper goddess in the upper class of Aurous Hill.

She has been competing with her cousin everywhere for so many years.

She thought that she had found a good husband and could crush her cousin in all aspects, but now, everything she has is compared to Claire.

Her current self is actually different from her!

"Claire, what kind of sh!t luck did you have?!" Wendy looked at Claire with undisguised jealousy.

Claire ignored her, because she herself was in a daze at this time.

She couldn't help looking at Charlie, and asked in a low voice, "You invited these people?"

Charlie nodded, and said, "These people, I have shown them Feng Shui and pointed out their fortunes. It can be regarded as a little friendship."

Claire feels her head is huge

She has told Charlie many times, don't make that kind of thing to deceive people, he didn't listen, on the contrary, he deceived more and more, and he was a little man who couldn't afford to offend.

Wouldn't it be bad luck if it was discovered one day?

She wanted to persuade Charlie, but before she could speak, Doris and Warnia had already walked to the front.

Warnia spoke first.

She glanced at Claire unobtrusively, then smiled, stretched out her hand and said: "Congratulations to Madam Wade's company for opening. If the Song family has design needs in the future, we'll ask for your help!"

Obviously she was here to deliver the business, and he said that she would ask her for help. The Willson family was simply dumbfounded. How can Claire make Miss Song so humble?

Claire stretched out her hand nervously, shook Warnia's, and said flattered: "Thank you Miss Song!"

While talking, Warnia was looking at her, and she was also looking at Warnia.

Warnia was almost the same as Claire in appearance and figure, but the noble temperament that Warnia was born with was incomparable to Claire.

Thinking of this, Claire couldn't help feeling a little inferior.

Warnia said at this time: "Mrs. Wade, you are Mr. Wade's wife, and you are the benefactor of Warnia, so you and I must not be polite!"

Chapter 308

Sure enough, I came here looking at Charlie's face

Hearing this, Claire couldn't help but glance at Charlie, who was greeted by others, feeling a little jealous in his heart.

My husband, who could make Miss Song Family attach so much importance, he really became more and more invisible.

Afterward, Doris also came forward, shook hands with Claire, and smiled: "Mrs. Wade, congratulations on your successful business. Our Emgrand Group has several projects and we are waiting to cooperate with you!"

"Really?!" Claire was shocked!

At the beginning, the Willson family was able to get the Emgrand Group's 60 million contracts, which was enough to make the whole family excited. If she could get the Emgrand Group's 6 million contracts, she would be very popular!

Doris smiled slightly at this time and said, "Of course it is true Mrs. Wade. We now have a total of almost 300 million in renovation projects. If Mrs. Wade can afford it, then we will assign it to you!"

The Willson family next to them are almost jealous!

A three-billion-dollar renovation project? !

All to Claire? !

The Emgrand Group was squeezed by the door, right?

A company like theirs, come to kneel and lick a little Claire? !

In these three hundred million projects, even if it can give the Willson family thirty million, it is enough for the Willson family to stand up!

The Old Mrs. Willson felt extremely uncomfortable. She knew that Claire had such great ability. Even if she kneeled down for her, she would stay in Willson's house!

At this point in her mind, she secretly swears in her heart: I have to get Claire back for anything this time! Get the Emgrand Group's project back!

At this moment, Solmon White also brought his son Fred and nephew Gerald up.

As soon as Solmon White arrived, he respectfully clasped his fists and said: "Mrs. Wade, we also wish you a good business and good fortune! In addition, if the White Group has any decoration business in the future, it will be given to you!"

Claire was flattered and hurriedly said, "Thank you, Mr. White."

Gerald and Fred White also stepped forward, bowing deeply and respectfully saying: "Mrs. Wade, congratulations on your opening!"

The two of them were already honest and submissive, and the liver trembled when they heard Charlie's name. In addition, the family was now blessed by Charlie, so they really felt sincere about Claire. respect.

At this time, Wendy, who was not far away, had an extremely tangled expression as she watched the White family approach.

She saw Gerald, whom she had always loved so much, and felt bitter and unbearable. Originally, she should have been married to him, become his wife, and White's daughter-in-law.

However, now, he is even stranger to her. Not only has he blocked all her contact information, but he doesn't even bother to look at her.

What made her even more unacceptable was that even Gerald, whom she loved so much, had to bow his head and respectfully talk to Claire. In such a comparison, she was simply thrown into outer space by Claire!

Seeing this, Wendy finally couldn't help it, stepped forward, grabbed Gerald's arm, and said with tears: "Gerald! Gerald! Why haven't you been in contact with me lately"

Gerald's face became cold, and he took his arm out of Wendy's hand and said coldly: "Sorry, we have nothing to do with you anymore. I am here to congratulate Mr. Wade and Madam Wade, please respect me a little!"

"Me? Respect?!" When Wendy heard this, her whole body almost collapsed, her tears kept falling, and she shouted: "Gerald! I have been with you for so many years, and I am your fiancée. I have also been pregnant with your child. Now you let me show respect. You played with me, you then dump me. Do you respect me?!"

Chapter 309

Wendy's heart was extremely sad and painful at this time.

The beautiful sustenance of the rest of her life was once placed on Gerald alone.

But unexpectedly, Gerald pushed her into the abyss with his own hands!

What made her even more unacceptable was that Gerald not only played with and abandoned her, but even showed such a strong dislike in front of so many people!

This almost made her run away!

Facing her crying question, Gerald said coldly with a gloomy expression: "Don't mess around here. It's normal to fall in love and break up. Is there any respect or disrespect?"

Seeing that Wendy seemed to be making trouble at this time, Charlie stepped over.

When Gerald saw Charlie, his face paled in fright, for fear that Charlie would be dissatisfied with this scene, and quickly explained: "Mr. Wade, don't be surprised, this shameless b*tch, you must leave her yelling here."

Wendy really did not expect that in the past, Gerald was quite fond of her, but now, his attitude towards her is like a slap in the face.

Moreover, Gerald actually said that she was a shameless b*tch in order to curry favor with Charlie!

This made her feel extremely upset!

All her patience has completely broken the limit at this moment, and she shouted hysterically: "Are you guys blindly admitting to wrong?! What kind of thing is Charlie? But just a wasteful son-in-law! What are you guys? Everyone has to kneel and lick him?! Why?!"

Gerald was shocked, slapped her face, and cursed: "Shut up, b*tch! What kind of a bird are you, and how dare you comment on Mr. Wade? Believe it or not, I will kill you!"

Seeing the humiliation of her precious granddaughter, Mrs. Willson was also very dissatisfied in her heart. She stepped forward and said coldly: "Mr. White, restrain your nephew! Don't deceive too much!"

"Too much deception?!" Solmon White squinted at her and said with a sneer: "To tell you the truth, if it wasn't for Mrs. Wade's company to open today and the day when he was overjoyed, I wouldn't have seen blood. With what she said just now, I would beat her on the leg. broken!"

After finishing talking, Solmon White stared at Mrs. Willson again, and said coldly: "Also, what are you? Let me restrain my nephew? Don't think I don't know, I indulged Harold and snatched the villa that I gave to Mr. Wade. , It's you, old witch! I didn't bother you. I wanted to give Mr. Wade and Madam Wade's face. You can say one more nonsense. Believe it or not, I'll fight with you?"

Old Mrs. Willson had a cold back and her legs suddenly began to tremble.

She is accustomed to being domineering in the Willson family, and when she come out she wants to assume the posture of a patron, but now she has lost power!

What's more, even if she didn't lose his power, in front of Solmon White, she was not qualified to point at him.

If Solmon White is really going to rush to beat her now, she really has no way

The Old Mrs. Willson was flustered, and hurriedly blurted out: "White the Lady Willson who is worried about it for a while. Please don't be familiar with me."

Solmon White looked at her in disgust, and said, "Hurry up and go!"

Old Mrs. Willson walked away immediately.

However, Wendy suffered repeated blows, and at this time had lost her mind.

She suddenly rushed in front of Gerald, hugged Gerald, crying and begging: "Gerald, why are you so indifferent to me?! I have always loved you, I love you very much! The body, my heart, everything about me is yours. Why do you want to divorce me? I beg you, give me another chance, OK, let's start from the beginning, OK?"

Seeing that she suddenly jumped up and hugged him, Gerald hurriedly struggled, tried to break free, couldn't help but feel annoyed.

Chapter 310

He knew very well in his heart that he was deceived by the Willson family's mentally handicapped people and almost offended Mr. Wade. Fortunately, Mr. Wade had a large number of adults, so he didn't continue to target him, otherwise he might have harmed the entire White family.

Now, this Wendy still has the face to find him to get back together?

Isn't this f*cking pulling him into the fire pit?

Thinking of this, Gerald pushed Wendy to the ground and kicked her in the stomach, yelling: "Wendy! From today, you will roll as far as you can go. If you entangle, I swear to God that I will kill you!"

Wendy was struck by lightning immediately, and her whole body was dumbfounded.

Looking at Gerald, there was no way to connect with Gerald who was in love with her before.

Although Claire was always dissatisfied with Wendy, she was still her own cousin. Seeing that she was insulted like this, she couldn't see it. So she said to Gerald: "Mr. White, you and Wendy are either If you love it, even if you can't be a lover, you can't be an enemy, right?"

As soon as these words came out, Gerald immediately bowed in trepidation and fear: "Mrs. Wade, what you taught us! It was improperly handled underneath. Please forgive me!"

Wendy did not expect that Gerald would be so cruel and merciless to her, yet so respectful of Claire

She turned her head to look at Claire, not only did she not feel grateful, but hated her for being a shareholder!

A voice yelled in her heart: It was Claire, this btch! blame this btch for making me into the field where she is today!

Had it not been for this btch, and this btch's waste husband, she would have married Gerald long ago!

She could have lived the happy life of Mrs. White a long time ago, and at the same time, he can help the Willson family to a higher level, and the entire Willson family will not be reduced to the present situation!

Blame you!

Blame you! !

Blame you! ! !

You b*tch! ! !

Thinking of this, Wendy with a disheveled hair jumped up suddenly, and suddenly pinched towards Claire full of hatred.

"b*tch! I strangled you! It was you who killed me! I want to strangle you!!!"

Seeing her suddenly walk towards her, Claire's eyes were full of blood-red, and she was shocked and hurriedly hid back.

Charlie's face was cold, and he was about to shoot Wendy, but saw that Mr. Orvel had already rushed out at this time, slapped Wendy hard on the face, and slapped her to the ground.

Mr. Orvel was very angry, and said, "Who are you? You even dared to beat Madam Wade. I will kill you now!"

While speaking, Mr. Orvel said hello to the back: "Come here, take out this b*tch who has offended Mrs. Wade, and kill her first!"

As soon as Mr. Orvel's words fell, two burly men in black immediately ran out from behind, pulled Wendy up, and dragged her out.

Noah Willson hurriedly rushed over, begging: "The little girl is ignorant, please forgive her."

The killing intent in Mr. Orvel's eyes was vertical and horizontal: "What kind of thing are you! No more chirp, I will kill you too!"

Chapter 311

Noah Willson was frightened by Mr. Orvel.

He had no doubt about Mr. Orvel's words. For such a person who has been in the underground for years and unified the entire Aurous Hill underground world, killing two people could not be hard.

Seeing that these two brawny men were about to take Wendy away, Noah Willson was very anxious, and he asked Claire for help: "Claire, please beg for mercy. After all, it is your sister. How can you look at her taken away?"

Claire felt a little unbearable, and said to the two strong men: "Don't make things difficult for her. Wendy was also confused for a while and didn't mean to hurt me."

Although Claire was a little disgusted with Wendy, she was a cousin after all, so how could she be beaten to death?

Hearing what she said, Mr. Orvel turned to look at Charlie, waiting for Charlie to give orders.

Charlie smiled slightly and said: "Do what my wife says."

Mr. Orvel said, "Since Madam Wade has spoken, let them live!"

Charlie nodded and said to Mrs. Willson: "I said it a long time ago. You are not welcome here. If you are acquainted, just go by yourself. Otherwise, I will let Mr. Orvel's people beat you out!"

Old Mrs. Willson trembled with anger, and the road was unsteady, but she didn't dare to stay here, she could only leave quickly with the help of Noah Willson, for fear of being beaten.

Wendy was still in a state of despair and screamed: "I won't go! I won't go! I'm going to strangle that b*tch Claire! Let go of me and let me strangle her!"

Mr. Orvel kicked her with a black face, and kicked her to the ground directly, yelling: "Cut off your tongue, if you don't stop talking nonsense!"

Seeing that his sister was about to cause a catastrophe, Harold hurriedly stepped forward to help her up and said, "Sister, let's go home!"

The Lady Willson sighed repeatedly. Today, she wanted to mock Claire. By the way, she would give her a little pressure and induce her to return to the Willson family. Unexpectedly, Claire today is no longer in the same language. There are so many big people backing her. The Willson family is completely unable to trick her back

When she left, Mrs. Willson felt extremely uncomfortable. If she knew today, why bother? Now Claire is unwilling to return to the Willson family. The Willson family has lost the last straw, and it seems that only bankruptcy is left for them to have it in their fate.

After the Willson family left in disgrace, Claire was relieved.

However, the lively atmosphere on the scene quickly made her nervous again.

The people here are all big people, but the place here is very small and the reception is not very convenient.

Just thinking about it, many staff from Wing Star Building ran over to entertain them with meals, drinks and drinks.

After all, it is the property of the Emgrand Group. With a call from Doris, the group immediately put aside all their work and gathered around Claire's studio to help.

Doris came to Claire and said, "Mrs. Wade, Wing Star Building is the property of our Emgrand Group. Since you choose to start a business here, we naturally have to show something."

Then, she greeted a middle-aged person and said, "This is Xu Bo, the manager of Wing Star Building. I have already told him that in the future, the office on this floor will gradually be invited to quit and leave it to your company. ."

Claire hurriedly waved her hand, flattered and said, "Doris, you don't need to be so polite. I have a studio now. I can't use such a large place, and the cost of such a large place is too high, I can't afford it."

Xu Bo hurriedly handed over a check for 180,000 and said to Claire, "Mrs. Wade, this is your prepaid one-year office rent. From now on, all the rent, utilities, property fees, Air conditioning and heating costs are all borne by us!"

Chapter 312

Claire nervously said: "Oh, this works so well"

Charlie took her hand at this time and said with a smile: "Wife, since Doris has the heart to help you, why do you refuse on her Doris's face?"

Claire hurriedly said, "I'm not refuting Doris's face, I just think it's too embarrassing."

Charlie took the check from Xu Bo and put it in Claire's hand, saying: "Since Doris and Xu said that it is free, then you should take the money. Emgrand Group is a large group with a market value of hundreds of billions. Why would you care about your rent? Besides, I will work with you in the future. You can't be so dismissive, right?"

Charlie's words made Claire's heart lose.

Indeed, the Emgrand Group is the largest company in Aurous Hill. Just one company is comparable in scale to the entire Song family.

If she had to meet Doris because of the 180,000 rent, it would probably make Doris feel uncomfortable.

So she nodded hurriedly and said gratefully: "Doris, thank you so much!"

Doris smiled slightly: "Everyone is a partner, and it is okay to help each other."

Claire nodded hurriedly, and then handed the check to Charlie, saying: "The dress I wear has no pockets. You can put this check for me."

"Okay!" Charlie slipped the check into his pocket and said to Claire, "Go, I'll take you to say hello to Miss Song. They have several renovation projects in the Song family recently. You can talk to her more."

Claire responded, but she didn't want to chat with Warnia.

Because she is indeed a little inferior in front of Warnia.

More importantly, she always felt that behind Warnia's generous and intellectual smile, there seemed to be some hostility hidden.

It is said that a woman's intuition is the most accurate. Deep down in Warnia's heart, she was thinking that one day she would be able to bring Charlie, the son-in-law, from Willsons to Song's house, so she would faintly be hostile.

And Claire was already aware of Warnia's deeply hidden hostility.

It's just that she hasn't figured out the source of this hostility yet.

At this time, Claire checked the time. It was already past ten o'clock, and her parents hadn't arrived yet.

So she quietly told Charlie: "Charlie, Mom and Dad have not arrived yet, you call them and ask where they are."

Charlie nodded and said, "Maybe there is a traffic jam on the road."

He and Claire got up early because they had to clean up the office and prepare for reception. Before going out, they also agreed with the old wife and mother-in-law to come to the company before ten o'clock and attend the opening ceremony together.

But now more than ten minutes have passed, and they haven't seen the shadow of the two old men.

Charlie took out his cell phone, and just about to make a call, he heard Claire's cell phone ring.

Claire saw that her mother Elaine was calling, and she immediately answered the phone.

As soon as the phone was connected, Elaine's anxious voice came: "Claire, there was a car accident on our way here, and your dad is injured and he is in the People's Hospital. Come here!"

Chapter 313

"What?!" Claire was shocked, and immediately asked, "How is Dad's injury? Which hospital is it in?"

Elaine's voice trembled, hurriedly, still crying, and said: "At Aurous Hill People's Hospital, your dad was knocked into a coma. Come here!"

Claire didn't expect that at the first moment, she was still celebrating the grand opening with joy, but the next second, she suddenly received such a bad news.

She said anxiously: "Okay, I'll come over immediately!"

Charlie heard the call between the two clearly and realized the seriousness of the matter.

Afterwards, without saying anything, he immediately said to everyone present: "Everyone sits by yourself for a while, Claire and I are going out!"

Under normal circumstances, it is a very rude behavior for the host to leave the guests aside, but these people are Charlie's fans, so naturally they have no opinion on Charlie.

So Charlie drove his wife Claire straight to Aurous Hill People's Hospital.

When they arrived at the hospital, Charlie and Claire went all the way to the ICU ward of the hospital.

Pushing the door in, Charlie saw at a glance that Jacob was lying on the hospital bed, his eyes closed tightly, and he was unconscious.

As for the mother-in-law Elaine, she was sitting in front of the hospital bed with bloodstains on her body, her face pale, and she looked lost.

Claire's pretty face turned pale, her eye circles instantly red and swollen, she rushed over and asked anxiously, "Mom, what's wrong with dad?"

Elaine's eyes were red and said, "Your dad took me to attend your opening ceremony and was hit by a muck truck running through a red light. Now his situation is very dangerous."

Claire hurriedly asked the doctor making rounds in the ward: "Doctor, how is my father's condition?"

The doctor said, "Don't worry, he is not in danger for the time being."

Claire and Charlie breathed a sigh of relief when they heard that Jacob was not in danger.

Unexpectedly, the doctor hesitated at this moment and said again: "But"

Claire couldn't help asking: "But what?"

The doctor sighed and said, "However, the patient has injured his spine and will face high paraplegia when he wakes up."

High paraplegia, that is, paralysis from the neck down.

In that case, a human would become a living dead with no abilities, only slightly better than a vegetable.

When she heard that her dad might face high paraplegia,

Claire's eyes were dark, and she only felt that the sky was spinning for a while, if it weren't for Charlie's quick eyes and hands to support her, she would collapse to the ground.

If her father, Jacob, really becomes paraplegic, it means that he can only lie on the bed in the future, can't do anything, and completely lose his ability to live!

This kind of life, for a person, is simply better than death!

She hurriedly asked: "Doctor, can a spinal injury be cured?"

The doctor shook his head and said: "Basically, there is no cure. At least there are no cases of high paraplegia cured in the world. The most common is that the patient has recovered to the point where the patient can sit up by himself, and the rest is basically powerless, so You have to be mentally prepared"

Hearing this, Claire couldn't help crying like rain, and it was pear blossoms with rain.

Then, she choked up and asked Elaine, "Mom, are you okay?"

Chapter 314

Elaine looked pale and said, "Hey, I'm fine, but my head hurts a bit. The doctor said that there was basically no major problem after the examination. It was mainly your dad. The muck truck hit his side at the time."

As she said, she cried all of a sudden.

Her husband may be paraplegic at a high position, which is also a fatal blow to her.

Charlie asked carefully to find out that the muck truck that ran the red light had already escaped after the incident. The mother-in-law and the Old Master both fell into a coma when the accident happened, and could not see the approximate visual characteristics of the license plate number.

Subsequently, the two were sent to the hospital by kind passers-bys.

Elaine's situation was better. Sitting in the passenger seat, she was just unconscious when she was hit at the beginning. At most, she was stippled and suffered some minor injuries. She woke up after arriving at the hospital.

But the Old Master sat in the driving position and took most of the impact, so he was not so lucky, and he was hit by a muck truck.

Charlie couldn't help sighing: god doesn't have long eyes either.

This Old Master, although he usually likes to brag, he doesn't understand and has to pretend to be an expert, but to the bottom of his heart, he is not a bad person, he is just a little useless.

As a result, Jacob is currently paraplegic in a high position. If he does not take action, he will be basically cold for the rest of his life.

On the contrary, mother-in-law is not only a standard snobbery, she is also a half-shrew, a stinky Lady who wants to sell her daughters and begs for glory, and she has no morals or limits in her life.

The results of it? She has nothing to do.

Thinking of this, Charlie sighed, thinking evilly in his heart, why isn't the person who was knocked into a paraplegic, his mother-in-law Elaine?

If she bumped into a high paraplegia, she will save a lot of worry in the future when she is in Willson's family.

At this moment, the door of the ICU ward opened, and two figures walked in from outside.

When Charlie saw the young man walking in the forefront, his face suddenly became cold. The person here was Gao Junwei, who was hit hard by himself at the car show yesterday.

And behind him, there was a middle-aged man carrying a medicine chest with a big red cross on it.

Claire couldn't help asking: "Mom, why did he come?"

Elaine said, "I asked him to come. Junwei knew the dean of this hospital. He was visiting relatives here when we were admitted. He saw that I and your dad were injured, so he arranged for your dad to the ICU ward."

After speaking, she immediately changed her face, greeted him with a smile on her face, and exclaimed affectionately: "Junwei, you have been busy running up and down just now. You have worked hard, come and have a rest!"

Gao Junwei smiled slightly and said, "It's okay, Auntie, I'm not tired."

As he said, he suddenly saw Charlie standing behind Elaine, his face changed slightly.

Unexpectedly, Charlie, an eye-catching waste, was actually there.

Yesterday at the auto show, it was because Charlie was in the middle of it, that made him lose face in front of Claire.

Since then, he hated Charlie deeply.

And he didn't think Charlie Rubbish would be really awesome, so he wanted to find a chance to pierce his disguise.

Now that the enemy meets, he is naturally jealous, and at the same time, he is even thinking about regaining his face before Claire and regain her favor.

At this time, Elaine sighed, wiped away her tears, and said: "Junwei, the doctor said just now that your Uncle Willson may be paralyzed in bed for the rest of his life. How can this make me live?"

Gao Junwei hurriedly pointed to the middle-aged man behind him and introduced to Elaine: "Auntie, don't worry! This is Zhongjing Liu, the famous doctor Zhongjing Liu. He is a famous traditional medicine doctor in the country. I specially invited him to come to see uncle. He is a great healer! Uncle will be able to heal with him!"

Chapter 315

As soon as Elaine heard that the other party was a well-known expert in the country, she was immediately excited and said hurriedly: "Oh, Junwei, thank you so much! Thank you also, Doctor Zhongjing!"

Gao Junwei smiled slightly and said calmly: "Auntie, you are welcome, this is what I should do."

After speaking, he turned around and respectfully said to Zhongjing Liu behind him: "Mr. Zhongjing, Uncle Willson's illness, I'm bothering you."

Hearing this, Zhongjing Liu took a step forward, smiled slightly, and said confidently: "Don't worry, isn't the patient hurting the spine? Although it is difficult to heal, it is still very easy for me."

The doctor in charge of the hospital asked in surprise: "As far as I know, there is no good solution for spinal injuries in the world. Even the richest people in the world can only lie on the bed after they have injured their spine. With cord sclerosis, you can only sit in a wheelchair for the rest of your life, with only three fingers you can move. Why are you so confident?"

Zhongjing Liu smiled and said arrogantly: "Because I have a magical medicine, as long as I give it to the patient, the patient will recover soon."

After speaking, he carefully took out half a crystal clear pill from the medicine cabinet.

Holding the pill, Zhongjing Liu looked arrogantly and said, "Look, this is the magical medicine I developed! After eating it, let alone a spinal injury, it is nothing to say to restore a vegetative person to normal!"

Claire, who has been crying silently, couldn't help but ask: "Does this medicine really work?"

"Of course!" Zhongjing Liu said with a proud face, stroking his beard, "I am the world's number one magic drug maker. It was made with the essence of life and painstaking effort by an expert with great magical powers before driving to the west. , Priceless, if it weren't for Mr. Gao's face, I would never take this medicine out."

Charlie looked at the half-pill in Zhongjing Liu's hand, and he was immediately happy.

Isn't this just the semi-finished products that he prepared to heal Jacob?

This medicinal property is actually one-tenth of the actual finished product. Although it is not bad, it is no problem for general injuries and serious illnesses, but it is a bit less potent.

It was also fortunate that Zhongjing Liu treated it like a treasure, and even took it out carefully, for fear that it would be broken and damaged.

But in Charlie's eyes, this medicine is a gadget he refining at will, as much as he wants!

Thinking of this, he sneered even more.

If it were the magic medicine that he refined for the second time, it could indeed heal the Old Master's spine and make him recover as before.

However, this half-finished product in Zhongjing Liu's hands is definitely not good.

So Charlie couldn't help but shook his head and said, "Forget it, Dr. Zhongjing, you can't cure father-in-law's disease with your medicine."

Gao Junwei next to him immediately sarcastically said: "Charlie, how you dare to question the authority of Doctor Zhongjing here?!"

Zhongjing Liu seemed to hear a big joke, and said: "Boy, what do you know? Even the famous traditional medicine expert Tianqi, his injuries were cured by my magic medicine. This traditional medicine leader is convinced that It's ridiculous that you can't say it's a suspicious magic drug!"

When this word came out, everyone present was shocked!

Who is Tianqi?

He is the undisputed expert of the traditional medicine circle. He has extremely superb medical skills and he has treated countless people throughout his life. Even if you are rich and powerful, it is difficult to invite him out!

But now, he was helpless with his own body, but the magical medicine developed by the magical doctor Zhongjing was directly cured? !

But Charlie said that the medicine was not effective at this moment. Isn't this a joke? !

Chapter 316

After hearing this, Elaine was furious and immediately cursed: "Charlie, you are a useless rubbish, what kind of stuff you are, don't you know it?!"

As she said, the more she looked at Charlie, the more displeased she was, and she said, "Don't be here to delay the treatment by Doctor Zhongjing, hurry up!"

Charlie frowned. At the same time, he couldn't help but slander in his heart: Could it be that Zhongjing Liu was the first to buy the medicine from Ervin Jones?

If this is the case, the one who resold one of the medicines to Tianqi at a high price of five million is probably also him.

It seems that Zhongjing Liu is still a profitable businessman in his bones!

This Gao Junwei invited him out of the mountain for fear that he did not spend less.

At this time, Gao Junwei also thought he had grasped Charlie's handle, and sneered: "Charlie, you are a Rubbish, and you can't help with anything. You are quite nonsense?!"

As he said, he pretended to suddenly realize, and said, "Oh, I can understand it, you question the genius Doctor Zhongjing, you don't want to see Uncle Willson heal!"

"Hehe, am I talking nonsense?"

Charlie can tolerate the unreasonable troubles of his mother-in-law, but it does not mean that he also puts Gao Junwei in his eyes, and immediately sneered: "I know Tianqi, why haven't I heard him say that his illness was cured by this idiot?"

Gao Junwei laughed and said, "Charlie, you are really funny when you talk, and you know Tianqi. Why don't you say that you know the president of the United States?!"

When Zhongjing Liu heard Charlie say that he was a sh!t quack, his face was also very ugly.

Afterwards, he reprimanded with the appearance of an expert: "You young man, you are not very capable, and your tone is not small. It is estimated that you have never read a medical book, and dare you to say that I am a quack?!"

As he said, he pointed at Charlie arrogantly and said: "You, apologize to me now! Otherwise, I won't save this patient!"

Elaine paled with fright, and blurted out: "Charlie, do you want to kill my husband?! What is your intention?! Do you want to kill my husband first, and then kill me, you? To monopolize our property?!"

Charlie's face was green.

I monopolize your property? Does your family have any property?

Your family is now, I'm afraid it won't even be able to take out a few million, just an ordinary three-bedroom apartment, is it worth my exclusive possession?

Charlie doesn't know how to spend tens of billions in the bank, and there are 100 million cheques honored by Warnia in his pocket. She says he wants to monopolize the family's property? !

It's really the biggest joke in the world!

Gao Junwei also added fuel and jealousy to the side: "Auntie, I think this Charlie is indeed plotting wrong, you must take precautions, otherwise, in the future, you will really be trapped by such a white-eyed wolf!"

Claire couldn't help but said, "Charlie, let the genius Doctor Zhongjing try."

Unexpectedly, the genius Doctor Zhongjing was forced by this fashion, and coldly snorted: "Boy, if you don't kneel and kowtow to me today, this patient, he really won't be cured!"

Unexpectedly, as soon as he finished saying this, a cold voice suddenly sounded from outside the door: "Who is it that dared to let Mr. Wade kneel down for him? You are impatient!"

Chapter 317

As the voice came in, they saw a middle-aged man wearing a Tailored suit stepping into the ward.

At the moment when Gao Junwei and Liu Zhongjing saw this middle-aged man, their expressions changed drastically and they were shocked!

The dignified Aurous Hill underground king Orvel!

What's happening here? !

Why did he get here?

Gao Junwei and the two hadn't reacted yet, and the next scene made them dumbfounded, and the whole person was struck by lightning!

At the door of the ward, there were a few more people rushing in. It was Doris, Vice Chairman of Emgrand Group, Solmon White, Patriarch of the White Family, Qin Gang Patriarch of the Qin Family, Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, Tianqi, the dean of traditional medicine, and others!

These bigwigs, who have an important status in Aurous Hill and Haicheng, walked directly to Charlie, bowed together, and cried respectfully: "Mr. Wade!"

Charlie asked, "Why are you here?"

Orvel said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, we heard that your father-in-law was in a car accident, so we hurried over to come and visit. I hope you don't mind."

Charlie smiled slightly, and said, "You are so kind."

He said these words casually, but just these simple words made these big men like treasures, their faces flushed, and their bodies were so excited that they couldn't stop shaking slightly.

Seeing such a scene, Elaine looked ashamed and said to her heart: "It's over, Charlie, a liar, is getting more and more deceived. Now so many big guys treat Charlie respectfully, in case his deception is exposed one day, Isn't this family going to die?"

She doesn't believe that Charlie really has any abilities. She knew Charlie's past was very clear. She became an orphan at the age of eight and went to a welfare home. Wipe the glass, and was later brought back by the Willson family father to marry Claire.

If he is really capable, how can he be so stubborn?

Gao Junwei was dumbfounded, especially when he saw Warnia, it was even more incredible!

This is the famous Song family youngest progeny!

In front of the Song family, his Gao family was not even a bullsh*t, even his father had no right to see Warnia!

But at this moment, Warnia, who is beautiful and moving, is actually respectful of Charlie's Rubbish?

How can that be? !

Gao Junwei couldn't understand why Charlie was a wasteful, what is worthy of such a condescending wealthy lady worth hundreds of billions!

As a result, he couldn't help being surprised anymore and blurted out: "Miss Song, have you admitted the wrong person? Charlie is the Rubbish?!"

Warnia's face became cold, and she shouted: "Who gave you the courage to question Mr. Wade here?!"

Qin Gang on the side also gave a cold smile and shouted to Gao Junwei: "Mr. Wade is the only true dragon in the world, with unimaginable fairy methods. How can you say this?"

Solmon White, Patriarch of the White Family, scolded coldly: "Yes, Mr. Wade is highly respected and famous in Aurous Hill. How could his name be something you can call with such lowly words?!"

Chapter 318

Orvel's eyes were cold, and he said, "I'm all looking at Mr. Wade's horse's head. You dare to be disrespectful to him, that is, if you are our enemy, if you dare to speak wildly, your legs and feet will be interrupted!"

Under the scolding of everyone, Gao Junwei's face turned blue and white, and his whole person was shocked and speechless.

At this moment, Tianqi yelled coldly and said, "Zhongjing Liu, come over here!"

Upon hearing this, Zhongjing Liu was panicked.

Others don't know, but he knows whether his miraculous medicine has cured Tianqi's illness. Now that he sees the righteous master, he has to wear his lies.

But at this moment, he could only bite the bullet and step forward and respectfully said: "Old Shi."

Tianqi angrily rebuked, "I just heard you say that you cured my disease with the medicine in your hand?"

Zhongjing Liu panicked and said: "Old Shi, I am not covering up and bragging, please forgive me."

In fact, Zhongjing Liu knew very well that after he sold the medicine to Tianqi, Tianqi made it clear that the medicine was very powerful and relieved his injuries, but it was still far from a cure.

The reason why he said just now that this medicine cured Tianqi was mainly to pretend to force himself.

However, he never dreamed that Tianqi would appear here.

At this moment, facing Tianqi, he was extremely nervous. Although he is also a well-known traditional medicine doctor, he is still far behind Tianqi. Tianqi is the president of the traditional medicine Association. If he provokes him, he would say something. He can remove him from the TCM circle.

In that way, all the hard work of my life will be lost.

Tianqi was not prepared to forgive Zhongjing Liu so easily. He looked at Zhongjing Liu and said coldly: "You have offended Mr. Wade, don't you hurry up and apologize!"

Zhongjing Liu was so angry, what the h*ll? Want to apologize to a little boy? Why? Even if he brags, it doesn't mean he is worse than Charlie!

Thinking of this, he stubbornly said: "Old Shi, I admit that I brag about you, but this kid with the name Wade speaks wildly and insults my magical medicine. Why should I apologize to him?"

Tianqi had a dark face, and after leading him aside, he whispered: "You idiot! Do you know that the magic medicine in your hand is made by Mr. Wade? How dare you talk like that about him?"

"What?" Zhongjing Liu cried out in disbelief: "This magical medicine was made by Charlie?"

Tianqi said coldly: "To tell you the truth, Mr. Wade has refined a magical medicine with better effects a few days ago. My old wounds are cured by Mr. Wade's magical medicine! You dare to question his level ?!"

Zhongjing Liu panicked and couldn't choose his way. His sweat continued to flow. He hurriedly explained: "Master, I didn't know that the magic medicine was made by Mr. Wade. If I knew it earlier, how could I dare to do this."

Unexpectedly, before he finished speaking, Tianqi said coldly: "It's late! After this incident, I will suggest the health department to permanently revoke your medical qualification certificate!"

As soon as he said this, Zhongjing Liu's face instantly became extremely pale, and his body was suddenly cold and sweaty, and he was scared to death.

Then, he reacted with a plop, kneeling directly in front of Charlie, kowtow, crying and begging: "Mr. Wade, I am wrong, I apologize to you! I lied to everyone, this magic medicine I didn't develop it at all, I bought it. I don't know if it can cure high paraplegia. I just took it out and flicked it out. I have no eye to see it and bumped into you. Please, please spare my life! "

After he finished speaking, he knelt down, slapped himself and apologized again, breaking down and crying.

Chapter 319

At this scene, Gao Junwei was even more stunned to see Claire and Elaine's mother and daughter in shock.

Elaine also expected this magical Doctor Zhongjing to help her husband, but who would have thought that he would kneel down and apologize to Charlie.

Gao Junwei's face was pale, and he clenched his hands tightly, only to feel that Charlie's face was completely stepped under his feet.

But he didn't believe in Charlie's great ability, and he was unwilling to bow his head to this waste.

Unexpectedly, at this moment, Orvel suddenly sneered at him and asked Charlie for instructions: "Mr. Wade, what should I do with this man?"

He was in front of Charlie, but he didn't dare to make claims, otherwise, he would attack Gao Junwei's previous attitude towards Charlie, and he would deal with the opponent to death.

Charlie said calmly: "You can figure it out by yourself."

After Orvel heard this, he was about to say that people would beat him up, but Qin Gang frowned and asked: "The man has a big status, I heard Limo say that you were the one who embarrassed Mr. Wade at the auto show yesterday. Right?"

"Ah, no, that's not me"

Gao Junwei panicked completely.

Although he suffered a big loss yesterday, in the final analysis it was his trouble finding Charlie. Now it seems that people have to settle two accounts together.

When Orvel heard this, he suddenly sneered and said: "Okay, it turns out that you, a dog with no eyesight, felt sorry for Mr. Wade yesterday! Okay, I will let you know the cost of having trouble with Mr. Wade!"

After that, he immediately ordered his opponent: "Come on, throw this unopenable thing down the window!"

Gao Junwei was so scared that he did not dare to hold on anymore. He knelt on the ground and cried out, "Mr. Charlie, I was wrong. I apologize to you. I don't dare anymore. Please forgive me. This time"

Charlie sneered and said, "Aren't you quite capable? What do you want me to do with this waste?"

Gao Junwei cried loudly with his nose and tears: "Charlie, I was really wrong, I am a Rubbish! I am a rag! I am the biggest smelly rag in the world! Please raise your hand let me go once."

Charlie kicked him away and said coldly, "Have you heard a word? You didn't respond to me before, but now I can't afford you."

After that, he shouted to Mr. Orvel: "What are you drowsy at?!"

Mr. Orvel's expression stunned, and he hurriedly ordered his subordinates: "Have you been so f*cking stunned? Even if you are stunned, you also jump down for me!"

Without saying anything, several of Orvel's men immediately lifted Gao Junwei up, and with a scream, they threw him out the window.

Claire suddenly covered her mouth, her heart pounding, and her mind went blank.

This is the third floor. What if Gao Junwei falls down?

Thinking of this, she and Elaine rushed out the window.

However, Gao Junwei's condition was life-threatening, just clutching his legs on the lawn and screaming constantly.

Because he happened to be in the hospital, a doctor arrived soon and sent him to emergency.

Claire also breathed a sigh of relief. Recently, Gao Junwei has been leaning on her, and he has repeatedly insulted Charlie, which made her a little disgusted.

Now that the other party has clearly broken his leg, it seems that he will not come back to pester her for a while.

Charlie took advantage of this moment, quietly walked to Tianqi, took out a pill he refined for the second time from his pocket, and whispered: "Mr. Shi, you will give it to me later. The Old Master treated the illness and then gave him this medicine."

Chapter 320

In fact, on the way to the hospital, Charlie planned to personally treat the Old Master.

With the pills he refined, he could heal a spine injury without any effort.

However, after he arrived at the hospital, he discovered that Gao Junwei had invited the genius Doctor Zhongjing. With these two people disrupting the situation, his mother-in-law Elaine would never let him interfere.

Moreover, he was also worried that if he took out the magic medicine, it would make his wife and mother-in-law confused, and it would be difficult to explain it.

Now that Tianqi is here, it couldn't be more convenient for him to handle this matter.

With the help of Tianqi, a master of traditional medicine, to heal the Old Master, he can definitely explain the past.

After all, Tianqi has a huge reputation, and he can also be convinced that he can perform medical miracles.

Tianqi understood his thoughts, but was surprised to ask: "Mr. Wade, spinal injury is a not a common problem in Chinese and Western medicine. There is no way to overcome it now. Can your magical medicine really cure it?"

After speaking, he said apologetically: "Sorry, Mr. Wade, I didn't mean to doubt your magic drug, but I was a little nervous. This is really beyond my understanding."

Charlie said lightly: "Don't worry, this medicine can repair the damage to the spine."

Tianqi was surprised and said: "Oh, if your father-in-law is cured, this will be a medical miracle. If it spreads out, it will shock the whole world. How can I dare to take such a reputation."

Charlie said indifferently: "You should know that I am not a person who seeks a reputation. Besides, I am not involved in the medical profession. Therefore, it is not appropriate for me to do this kind of thing. It is you. If you can cure the spine with traditional medicine. It spreads out, this is a great miracle of our Chinese TCM, and it will surely make the whole world look at TCM with admiration, so you should stop rejecting it.”

When Tianqi heard this, he nodded immediately, took the pill, and respectfully said: “Mr. Wade, I obey!”

Charlie suddenly remembered something and hurriedly said, “By the way, only half the capsule is needed to treat spinal injuries, and the remaining half will be given to you.”

Tianqi trembled all over

Can half a capsule cure high paraplegia caused by spinal injury? This is amazing, right? !

What made him even more excited was that Charlie was actually willing to give the remaining half to him.

This is simply a great reward!

After all, the medicine that Mr. Wade gave him last time had already been taken by himself.

Although he healed the old wounds that he had never healed in his life, his fate with that magical medicine only lasted a moment.

Now, everyone else still had the magic medicine given by Mr. Wade, but his was gone.

Tianqi himself felt a little regretful, but he knew that Charlie was so kind to him, and before he repaid him, he was really embarrassed to talk to Charlie again.

But now, Charlie actually wants to give him half of the remaining medicine for the treatment!

This made him extremely excited and moved.

If you have this half, you will have one more life-saving support in the future!

Tianqi was so excited that he could not wait to kneel to Charlie immediately.

With two chokes, Tianqi burst into tears and nodded again and again: "Mr. Wade's great kindness, I will never forget!"

Charlie gave him a calm look, and then said: "Okay, go for treatment, don't make my wife anxious."

Chapter 321

At this moment, Claire was very worried about her father's injury.

She had never expected that Zhongjing Liu, whom Gao Junwei had invited, was actually a quack doctor.

Now that Zhongjing Liu has been seen through, who can heal her father's spine throughout Aurous Hill?

Just thinking about it, Charlie walked to her with Tianqi and introduced: "Claire, this is a famous doctor, Tianqi is experienced, he can heal our dad's injury."

When Claire and Elaine heard this, they were overjoyed!

The mother and daughter never dreamed that Tianqi, a top traditional medicine doctor, would be willing to treat Jacob.

Claire hurriedly said, "Mr. Tianqi, my dad's illness, I beg you to cure him for us!"

Tianqi smiled slightly and said: "Mrs. Wade, please rest assured, Mr. Wade has the grace of reinventing me, I will definitely go all out."

After finishing speaking, he stepped up to Jacob who was lying on the hospital bed, took out the pill, cut half of it very carefully, and put half of the medicine into Jacob's mouth with the eyes of everyone expecting.

Everyone held their breath.

Although the original doctor at the hospital did not believe that traditional medicine could cure the spinal injury, after all, he was the famous Tianqi. This made him vaguely feel that a miracle might really happen.

Warnia, Solmon White, Qin Gang, and Mr. Orvel all got Charlie's magical medicine, so they recognized the origin of this medicine at a glance. They also want to know at this moment, how amazing is this magical medicine? Can it deal with high paraplegia?

Afterwards, Jacob's body trembled slightly, and his face that was originally extremely pale began to flush at this moment, and his closed eyes slowly opened at the same time.

When Jacob opened his eyes, he only felt a shock. The whole body was warm, and he was indescribably comfortable.

Moreover, the painful feeling deep into the bone marrow is slowly disappearing!

He subconsciously tried to sit up, and at this moment, a scene that stunned everyone!

Jacob actually relied on his own strength to sit up from the hospital bed!

Everyone present was shocked after seeing such a scene!

Claire covered her small mouth and cried with joy. Tianqi is indeed a master of traditional medicine. He has rejuvenated her father's high paraplegia. He really cured him!

And Orvel and others witnessed Jacob's recovery as before, and they admired Charlie even more!

They knew that half of the pill Jacob ate was the magical medicine refined by Charlie, and they had obtained them all. Now they saw that the pill had such a mighty power! High paraplegia can be cured with only half a capsule, and all of them are excited with no addition!

At the same time, they couldn't help but sigh in their hearts: Mr. Wade is really a god and man!

The pill prepared by his hand can cure even high paraplegia instantly. It is a life-saving medicine!

And Tianqi was shocked and about to faint!

This is really a medical miracle! Even if it is an American, it is impossible to cure high paraplegia. However, it was cured with only half a magic drug!

Thinking of this, he was so excited that he couldn't help but put the remaining half in his clothes inner pocket carefully.

This is an extra half magical medicine that Mr. Wade rewarded himself! Be sure to keep it safe!

Chapter 322

At this time, Jacob felt the astonishing changes in his body, and his expression was incredulous.

He vaguely remembered that he had been hit by a car accident and he couldn't move all his body.

But now, how does it feel as if this incident has never happened before? The feeling of his body turned out to be so good that it couldn't be better, even better than before the injury!

What is going on here?

Thinking of this, Jacob was suddenly confused.

He couldn't help asking Claire, "Claire, what's wrong with me?!"

Claire recovered and hurriedly cried and said, "Dad, you were almost paralyzed in a car accident, thanks to the genius doctor."

After all, she stepped up to Tianqi and said gratefully: "Thank you so much for this, genius doctor. If it weren't for you, my dad would really be helpless."

After that, she had a pretty face and solemnly, and she wanted to bend over to thank Tianqi.

Tianqi hurriedly helped her up. He actually wanted to say: I want to thank Mr. Wade. Without Mr. Wade's medicine, her father can't be cured by himself. Even, her father's recovery depends on Mr. Wade's magical medicine...

However, when he thought that Charlie didn't want to expose his strength, Tianqi had no choice but to bite the bullet and say, "Mrs. Wade, it's just a small matter. You don't need to be so polite."

If it weren't for the magical medicine of Mr. Wade, even a Master of traditional medicine would have no cure for high-level paraplegia.

The doctor in charge of the hospital was also stunned. He looked at Tianqi and said tremblingly: "Mr. Shi, you have created a world-class medical miracle! You can get a Nobel prize in medicine just by using your medicine. This is a great event for the benefit of all mankind!"

Tianqi smiled awkwardly, and said: "If you are serious, the Old Master only got the magic medicine by accident. Otherwise, even if I have great skills, I will not be able to restore the paralyzed person to normal."

The attending doctor sighed: "Your magic medicine is a medical miracle in itself! If mass production is possible, I don't know how many people will benefit!"

Tianqi shook his head and said, "My magical medicine was refined by someone with great magical powers. It is extremely rare in the world. I only have the last half left, let alone mass production."

The attending doctor sighed and said, "That's really a shame."

Claire hurriedly stepped forward at this time and asked the attending doctor: "Doctor, how long will my father be discharged from the hospital in the current situation?"

The attending doctor said: "Well, I just took a look at Mr. Willson's condition. The spinal injury has been repaired, and other injuries to the body have recovered very well."

However, I still recommend that you observe him in the hospital for a few days first. Let Mr. Willson take a good rest."

Tianqi on the side also spoke: "Yes, Mrs. Wade, usually injured, three points depend on treatment, seven points on support, so I suggest that Mr. Willson not be in a hurry to leave the hospital, and take a few days in the hospital before taking leave."

Claire nodded hurriedly and said, "Then lets him be hospitalized for a few days first!"

Upon hearing this, Charlie said to Tianqi, Warnia and the others: "Thank you for running to see my father-in-law, thank you! But my father-in-law has recovered from his illness, let him rest quietly."

Everyone nodded hurriedly.

Now that Mr. Wade has spoken, it is natural to leave as soon as possible so as not to cause chaos.

So Warnia, Tianqi, Qin Gang, Solmon White, Orvel and others respectfully bid farewell to Charlie.

When Charlie sent them out first, Elaine, his mother-in-law, said to Claire very worriedly: "Claire, Charlie is useless rubbish, and now he is more capable of deceiving people! So many big people are Being played around by him, this is the rhythm of death!"

Chapter 323

Hearing this warning from her mother, Claire also felt embarrassed.

She also thinks that Charlie's feng shui style is close to these big figures, in fact, it is equivalent to walking a tightrope in the Grand Canyon, which is very dangerous.

There were some soothsayers masters who deceived many celebrities before, but after the storm, they were united and killed.

If Charlie continues like this, it really doesn't matter what will happen in the future.

Elaine saw that Claire was also worried, and knew that she had succeeded in moving her, and hurried on the railroad while it was hot: "After your dad is discharged from the hospital, you must divorce him quickly! Otherwise, wait someday this group will know they have been fooled by him, but our family still has to suffer as a whole?"

As he said, Elaine added: "You didn't look at that Gao Junwei? He was thrown downstairs without saying a few words. Charlie lied to them so badly, and I didn't know how to die by then!"

Claire said displeasedly: "Mom, Charlie just asked a genius doctor to save dad, how can you say such a thing? Isn't this crossing the river to demolish the bridge?"

"Why can't you say?" Elaine said angrily: "Do you know that his current situation is just like I had invested in financial insurance at the time, and there may be a thunderstorm someday! Once a thunderstorm occurs, it will be nothing here. Nothing, all gone!"

Claire said very seriously: "Mom, no matter what, I will not choose to divorce Charlie."

That's what she said, but Claire couldn't help but feel worried.

She wasn't afraid that Charlie would hurt her and the Willson family in the future, but she was worried that Charlie would be in danger of being retaliated by these big figures of the city.

Thinking of this, she felt that she must persuade Charlie to stop letting him fool others by relying on superstition, lest he would ask for trouble in the future.

When Elaine heard this, she said angrily: "You kid! You really want to piss me off!"

As soon as the voice fell, Charlie returned after sending everyone.

Elaine wanted to say something more, the attending doctor said at this time: "Yes, please go through a hospitalization procedure soon, and we will start follow-up rehabilitation and nursing."

"Okay!" Claire turned her head and said to Charlie, "Is the one hundred and eighty thousand cheque that Doris refunded just now with you?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said, "Then I will pay the money!"

After speaking, Charlie turned around and left the ward again.

Claire's mother, Elaine, when she heard that there were 180,000 checks, hurriedly asked: "Check? What check? Where did the check come from?"

Claire said: "It was Doris of the Emgrand Group who refunded my office rent, and they gave me the office in Wing Star Building for free."

Elaine said excitedly: "Is there such a good thing? Oh! This time you saved 180,000!"

After finishing speaking, she hurriedly asked the doctor: "By the way, how much do we have to pay for hospitalization?"

The attending doctor said: "Because the patient has recovered, all that is left is rehabilitation and nursing care. In fact, it is not much money. Only two thousand a day is enough. You can pay a deposit of 20,000 first."

When Elaine heard that he only needed to pay 20,000, she immediately moved her mind. The check was 180,000! 160,000 can be left!

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said to Claire: "I'll go to Charlie, I'll go for the payment!"

After speaking, she hurried out to catch up.

Charlie was walking to the payment office at this time, and suddenly heard a rush of footsteps behind him, turning his head, mother-in-law Elaine was already there.

Elaine stood still in front of him and ordered out of breath: "Charlie, bring the check, and I'll pay the fee!"

Charlie didn't know that she was greedy for the remaining 160,000, so he said, "Mom, you can go back and accompany Dad. I will pay the fee."

Elaine glared at him and said angrily: "Why are you such a nonsense? I said, I'll go, you take out the check and go back to the ward to help Claire!"

Chapter 324

Charlie shrugged helplessly, took out the check from his pocket and handed it to her, saying, "Mom, here is the check."

Elaine took the check excitedly, and ran to the payment office with joy.

Seeing that she was so anxious, Charlie knew that she was planning to spend money, sighed, and turned back to the ward.

After returning, Claire asked curiously: "Did my mother catch up with you?"

Charlie nodded: "Mom is going to leave the check and said she will pay the money."

"Okay." Claire also looked helpless.

She knows that her mother has always been greedy for money and is absolutely open to money. Knowing that there is a refund of the 180,000 rent, she will definitely make some ideas.

But she is not good to say anything. After all, her mother is such a person. If she disagrees, she will definitely cry and hang herself.

At this time, Elaine rushed to the payment office, slapped the cheque in front of the toll collector, and said: "I'll pay Jacob's hospitalization fee."

The toll collector nodded, opened the file, saw the hospitalization information, and said: "It is enough to pay 20,000, refund more and less makeup."

"Okay." Elaine couldn't hide her excitement and said: "Pay with this check, and send the rest to my personal card."

After finishing speaking, she took out her bank card, handed it over, and said: "Just punch into this card, don't rush."

The toll collector gave a hum, picked up the check and glanced at it, suddenly stunned!

Elaine was stunned when she saw her, thinking that she was deliberately sabotaged, and said angrily: "What's the matter with you? You should deal with it quickly! I still have something to do!"

The toll collector came back to her senses. Seeing Elaine's face was impatient, she was also a little angry, and threw the check directly on Elaine's face, and said angrily: "I think you are a patient from the psychiatric department. Right? Take a check for 100 million to pay the hospital bill?! Didn't take medicine today?"

"What? One hundred million?!" Elaine frowned, lowered her head and picked up the check on the ground, and when she glanced at it, she was shocked by the large number of "0" on the check!

While counting, she muttered to herself: "One, ten, one hundred, one thousand, ten thousand, one hundred thousand, one million, ten million, one hundred million"

Counting here, she was blinded and blurted out: "It's a hundred million! This is a fortune!"

The toll collector could not hide his anger and said: "I said you are sick? Where did you get a mischievous cheque and dare to come to me to lie? Believe it or not, I will call 110 to catch you and go to jail for fraud!"

Only then did Elaine come back to her senses, and suddenly she was frightened in a cold sweat.

Oh my God!

Almost something big happened!

How could this one hundred million check be true!

The daughter clearly said that it was 180,000, and this one hundred million cheque must have belonged to Charlie!

This d*mn stinky silk, it's okay to lie to the big guys and be addicted to it, and he carries a fake 100 million check with him! I almost pit myself!

I really don't know if this guy is intentional or unintentional! But this is all evidence of his deception!

No way! Charlie dared to cheat me, he must take this check, in front of daughter, face him symptomatically!

Whatever she says today, she has to ask her daughter to divorce this big liar!

Chapter 325

Charlie was in the ward, speaking with his wife Claire, and Jacob.

At this time, the door of the ward was kicked open with a bang.

The mother-in-law Elaine rushed in fiercely.

As soon as she came in, Elaine took the one-billion-dollar check in her hand, and while shaking it loudly, she cursed: "Charlie! You b@stard, even you dare to cheat?!"

Charlie was stunned, and asked in surprise: "Mom, which one are you singing? When did I lie to you?"

Elaine ignored him, ran to Claire, and complained: "Daughter! You have to divorce this big liar! This guy is uneasy and unkind! He wants to cheat your mother!"

Claire was also puzzled and asked, "Mom, what's the matter?"

Elaine handed the check to Claire, and said angrily: "Look! Your husband rag actually gave me a fake check worth 100 million! The cashier at the hospital almost called police and got me arrested. Called me a scammer!"

"f*ck..."

Charlie felt a little bit in his heart, this...this one hundred million cheque, Warnia honored him...

d*mn, it must have been put in the pocket and confused with the 180,000 checks!

It's over!

How to explain this?

Claire took a look at the check at this time, his face suddenly hard to look, he blurted out: "Charlie, what is going on with this 100 million fake check? Are you now engaged in fraud?"

Charlie hurriedly explained: "Oh wife, it is a misunderstanding!"

Claire frowned and asked, "What the h*ll is going on? Explain clearly to me!"

Elaine said to the side: "I need to ask? This check must be a prop he brought with him to deceive people! He accidentally gave it to me! Humph! Fortunately, it was given to me! If it is really used to deceive people, The police can't catch him and shoot him?"

After finishing speaking, she looked at Claire again, and said distressedly: "Claire, this Rubbish goes out and dares to defraud 100 million. You dare to believe such a courage? If you don't divorce him, our whole family will be killed by him! "

Claire's face also turned cold, looking at Charlie, and said, "Charlie, if you don't explain this clearly, I'll really consider divorcing you! You are poor, I can accept it. But if you don't follow the right path, steal and kidnap, then I can't get through with you!"

Charlie turned his mind and hurriedly said aggrieved: "My wife, let me be honest with you, this one hundred million cheque, I actually bought it from the funeral store..."

"Funeral store?!" Claire and Elaine were both taken aback and asked: "What's the matter?"

Charlie had no choice but to sigh: "Didn't my Old Master die when I was eight? He asked me to have a dream two days ago, saying that he had no money to spend and was bullied by others, so I had to give him everything. Burn some money..."

Having said that, Charlie continued to sigh and said, "I dare not delay, so I went to the funeral shop and asked. People recommended this kind of check to me, saying that one is worth one hundred million, and one is worth more than a dozen of the previous Ming banknotes. Bundled, energy-saving and environmentally friendly, so I bought one for ten, thinking that I burned it at the intersection at night, but I didn't expect that I just took the wrong one and gave this to mother..."

Claire asked suspiciously: "What you said is true?"

Charlie hurriedly nodded: "It's true! Think about it, how good everyone is these years! Who would be cheated by a check of 100 million? A check of 100 million can't even cheat a hospital cashier... "

Claire thought about it, and what Charlie said was indeed the truth.

No one would believe a one-hundred-million-Dollar cheque, and it is not suitable for use as a fraud tool.

Chapter 326

Thinking of this, she eased her expression a bit, handed him the check, and said, "install it, and burn it for your dad at night. Don't confuse us anymore! In case of an oolong, you may have to Something happened!"

Charlie also hurriedly nodded: "Don't worry, my wife, I know, I must pay attention!"

After speaking, he hurriedly drew out another check for 180,000, handed it to Elaine, and said, "Mom, this check is true, here it is!"

After speaking, he hurriedly flattered and said: "Fortunately, you found out early, or if I really burn this check, we will lose a lot!"

Elaine glared at him, if it weren't for the check, she was unwilling to let him go.

However, who would have trouble with money? Take this check, and the remaining 160,000 can be her own!

Seeing she accepted the check, Charlie sighed with relief. He was not careful and almost had a big deal. Fortunately, his brain reacted faster.

But having said that, mother-in-law is really clever and was mistaken by cleverness. If she knew that this one hundred million cheque was true, she would be annoyed to jump straight from this window!

Just as he breathed a sigh of relief, an old and anxious voice suddenly came from outside the ward door: "Jacob, Jacob! My son, how are you! Mom is here to see you!"

Upon hearing this, Charlie frowned.

After that, he saw the Old Mrs. Willson walking in with a cane, Noah Willson, Harold, and Wendy.

Old Mrs. Willson had an anxious and distressed face, her eyes were red, and she seemed to have just cried.

As soon as she walked in, she couldn't help crying, and hurriedly walked to Jacob who was lying on the hospital bed, and said with tears: "Jacob, mom heard that you were in a car accident and was so scared that I almost died of a heart attack. I rushed to see you, how are you doing now?"

Although Claire was a little disgusted with these people, she felt that she was visiting her father after all, and she couldn't refute the face, so she took a step forward for a hundred years and said, "Grandma, dad is all right. Charlie's injuries have already been treated. He is healed."

The Old Mrs. Willson breathed a sigh of relief and said, "That's good, that's good."

Jacob also said a little embarrassingly: "Mom, don't worry, I will die."

In fact, Jacob also complained to the Lady Willson in his heart.

However, in addition to complaints, there are still family affections.

After all, she is his own mother, how can he really have no feelings at all?

At this moment, seeing his mother caring about him so much and crying like this, he was also moved.

Old Mrs. Willson burst into tears, and she reprimanded herself and said: "I blame Jacob, and I don't care about you so much. After knowing that you have an accident, your mother feels regretful. I am really afraid that you will be injured. Mom's misunderstanding is gone"

With that, the Lady Willson was already crying bitterly, and choked with sobs: "Jacob, for so many years, in fact, mom didn't care about you. Mom just always wanted you to be a good man, so she was deliberately harsh on you and hoped that you could grow up quickly. , It's all hard work for mom to be alone. Don't blame mom."

Jacob suddenly felt his heart tighten, and he burst into tears unconsciously.

He had always complained to the Lady Willson before, why did she love his brother so much but not him?

Why do you always encourage your brother, but to yourself, no matter what you do is wrong?

This matter has become a knot of his heart for so many years.

But today, when Mom said so tearfully, he suddenly felt that the knot in his heart seemed to loosen a lot.

Chapter 327

Charlie frowned.

He is not from the Willson family, and there is no such so-called family bondage, so he can tell at a glance that the Old Mrs. Willson is doing a bitter trick.

The Willson family is now in a desperate situation, and if it can't be relieved, the Willson Group will fall apart, and the Lady Willson will instantly fall to the bottom.

She is a person who loves face all her life and would rather die than accept that she is poor and destitute, so she will definitely rack her brains to find a way to turn around.

She had bullied and lured Claire before, but Claire never gave her any chance.

She also used money to try to find a breakthrough from Elaine, but Elaine failed to convince Claire.

Now, she began to aim at Jacob, and was ready to use a bitter trick to find a breakthrough from Jacob!

This may also be her last resort.

Jacob was already fooled at this time.

He felt his heart knot untied, and the respect and love for his mother appeared in his heart.

So, he shed tears and said: "Mom, I don't actually blame you in my heart. I know that I am not up to date. I am not as capable as my elder brother, nor as strong as my elder brother. I have disappointed you, sorry"

Old Mrs. Willson grabbed his hand, and while holding it tightly, she choked and said, "Good son, you can understand Mom's painstaking efforts. Even if Mom is dead now, it's worth it!"

The old Willson standing by the side hurriedly stepped forward and sobbed: "Mom, don't keep talking about death. Jacob and I have lost our dad, so I can't say anything without mom!"

While wiping her tears, Mrs. Willson said gratifiedly: "You brothers have me in your hearts. Even if I die, I will be smiling on death bed!"

Then she said, "You guys, you must be brothers together! Only brothers can be together! The old saying goes well: Brothers are united, and the benefits are broken! If the two of you can tie together and do it well, what will the Willson family worry about? Can't it be strong?!"

Noah Willson nodded repeatedly: "Mom, you are right, I have been taught! From now on, I will work together with Jacob to make the Willson family bigger and stronger!"

Jacob's expression was also a bit agitated, and he was on the set at first glance.

Charlie couldn't help sighing, the Lady Willson is really a good trickster! The effort of three or two paragraphs has already brought Jacob into the ditch!

really!

Jacob was also instigated by her and his elder brother's words, and was moved and said, "Don't worry, mom, I will definitely work together with elder brother!"

When Mrs. Willson heard this, she became excited and blurted out: "Good! Good! Great!"

At this time, the Lady Willson said to Harold and Wendy, who had been keeping their heads down and silent, "You two, quickly apologize to Claire and Charlie! Although you and Claire are not brothers and sisters, there is a relationship between cousins, everyone's blood is thicker than water, how can you always treat Claire and Charlie so excessively?"

With that said, the Lady Willson looked at Wendy and shouted: "Wendy! Especially you! At the opening ceremony today, do you still want to do something with your cousin? Don't give it to your sister quickly apologize!"

The two brothers and sisters immediately bowed deeply and said in a very pious voice: "Claire, we were wrong before! Please forgive us! We will never do anything against you in the future!"

Claire was also a little caught off guard. She had never seen Harold and Wendy apologize softly. These two brothers and sisters have been stabbing their heads and facing each other life and death for so many years.

However, seeing that both of them had apologized, Claire also kindly said, "Forget the past."

Mrs. Willson was overjoyed and immediately said to Claire: "Claire, your dad's body is still in the recovery stage, so he must be recuperated. Although Willson's villa is a bit older, the environment is better than that of the resident they live in. There are a lot of strong buildings, how about you all move back to live?"

Chapter 328

Noah Willson also hurriedly agreed: "Yes, Claire, your father's health is important, not only to have a good environment, but also to have a good mood! So, you just listen to your grandma's arrangements, come back and live, I will Ask a few nanny to take care of your father 24 hours a day!"

Jacob was lying on the hospital bed. After hearing this, he was immediately moved.

When he was moved, his heart was a little shaken, his brain was hot, and he couldn't help but ask Claire, "Claire, let's move back."

Claire was also a little tangled at once.

For a while, she would not be able to figure out whether grandma was like this out of truth or falsehood.

But seeing grandma, dad, uncle, mother and son holding hands and crying together, I was more or less moved.

Moreover, for the sake of her father's recovery, if he can return to Willson's house with a good environment, a good mood, and proper care, he will definitely be able to recover faster and better.

Elaine also persuaded at this time: "Claire, what a great opportunity! What are you still trying to do? Hurry up and agree!"

Claire was a little hesitant at first, but when she saw that her parents were persuading , on the spur of the moment, she said, "Well then, just move back."

Old Mrs. Willson's expression was immediately happy, and her heart was extremely excited.

It's done!

Hahaha!

Sure enough!

Sure enough, life is still old and spicy, Jacob is just a Rubbish, Elaine is a money addict who sees money, Charlie is a Rubbish who can only deceive people, Claire seems to be a bit capable, but its not impossible tricked her. Has the bitter trick been completely settled?

Thinking of this, Mrs. Willson couldn't be more proud of it!

Noah Willson couldn't help but quietly give the Lady Willson a thumbs up, and his admiration for his mother at this time was like a torrential river.

Mother is indeed an old world. This drama is almost at the textbook level. It starts with younger brother Jacob as a breakthrough, and then curves to save the country and impress Claire. It is perfect!

Seeing that his wife was going to be fooled, Charlie hurriedly said, "Grandma, uncle, it's natural to move back to live in the first place, it's no problem.

Harold frowned, and shouted coldly, "But what? Our Willson family's affairs, what's the matter with you? Don't you talk too much?!"

Old Mrs. Willson raised her hand and slapped Harold, and shouted angrily: "How do you talk to your brother-in-law?! Keep your bullsh*t to yourself?!"

With this slap, Harold was stunned, and immediately understood.

d*mn it! he almost got into trouble because he couldn't help but mock Charlie!

If he really can't help it, and ridicule Charlie, revealing the truth of repentance on the surface but no correction in the heart, then the perfect plan of grandma's use of bitter tricks to trick Claire's family back may be revealed!

Thinking of this, he panicked and immediately said to Charlie: "I'm sorry, brother-in-law, it's my mouth! It's my mouth! Please forgive me!"

As he said, he slapped himself twice, appearing extremely sincere.

Charlie couldn't help but sneered in his heart, okay, the Willson family really gave up everything in order to act in this bitter drama.

Chapter 329

In order to expose the true colors of this group of people, Charlie said: "I just said that it is okay to move back to live. After all, they are all a family, but now Claire's studio is already in operation, so I have to say in advance. She won't go back to work in the Willson Group again!"

"What?!" The Old Mrs. Willson suddenly seemed to have been stepped on her tail, and instantly jumped up and said: "How can it be done! I said, not only do the family need to live together, but the energy must also be used! Back to the Willson family, but not to the Willson Group?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Grandma, you just said that it was for the convenience of taking care of father-in-law, that's why you invited our family back. It doesn't matter if we go back, we also agreed, but going back to the Willson Group is not the same as going home. Right?"

"No!" Mrs. Willson said categorically, "Since she has returned to the Willson family, she must return to work in the Willson Group at first!"

After that, she continued to flicker Claire, saying: "Claire, your company has just opened, and there is no business yet. It is very difficult to run a company by yourself. How can you handle it? It is better to shut down the company. Back to the Willson Group, in that case, your life will definitely be more comfortable and easier!"

Claire also smelled an unusual smell from Mrs. Willson's words.

It seems that Charlie is right. The Lady Willson's desire for her family to return to the Willson family is a fake, but it is true that she wants to return to the Willson Group!

In this case, Mrs. Willson tossed over and over again, in fact, she was trying everything she could to get her back.

Then all her performance just now should be all performances, right?

Thinking of this, her back felt cold!

If Charlie hadn't reacted quickly, she might have been fooled!

So she hurriedly said to Mrs. Willson: "Grandma, I am very grateful that you have invited our family back to live, but Charlie is right. Going back to live, and going back to work are two different things, not to be confused, so I have to solemnly tell you that I can go back to live, but it is impossible to return to the Willson Group. I want to run my own studio."

Seeing Claire so determined, the Old Mrs. Willson hated Charlie in her heart!

She had done so much work and acted in so many plays, but Charlie was not confused by a word!

This is d*mn it!

She hurriedly played the bitter trick again, crying, and said: "Claire, do you hate grandma so much? Go home to live and come back to work. Our family strives to create a new situation and a new height. This is not perfect. Is it the situation? Why do you have to guard your own studio?"

After speaking, she wiped her tears and asked: "Aren't you willing to forgive grandma now?"

Claire said seriously: "Grandma, this matter has nothing to do with forgiveness or not forgiveness. It's just that I understand one thing now. Sending someone under the fence is not the answer. The best way is to have a world of your own, even if it's just an eave that can shelter from the wind and rain, and it's much better than sending someone under a fence. Therefore, I chose to start my own business instead of returning to the Willson Group!

Jacob and Elaine comforted one after another: "Claire, why are you still so stubborn? How nice to go back! Much better than your own business!"

Claire said without hesitation: "Dad and Mom, this is my own personal decision. Don't say it anymore. You can't change my attention."

Mrs. Willson knew that victory or defeat was in one fell swoop!

If Claire was unwilling to go back, it would be useless to talk about Jacob and Elaine as cumbersome and rubbish.

Therefore, she could only grit her teeth secretly and at the same time used her own assassin!

Chapter 330

She walked to Claire tremblingly, and knelt directly in front of her with a plop!

Everyone in the house was stunned!

Who would have thought that the Old Mrs. Willson, who has always been aloof and arrogant, would kneel down for Claire!

This is really subverting their three views too!

Even Noah Willson didn't expect that his mother would be so willing to pay for it to deceive Claire when they went back!

She wants to be strong all her life, and she wants to control others and let others kneel to her. When did she kneel to others?

Claire was also caught off guard, and said hurriedly: "Grandma, what are you doing? Please get up and say something!"

Old Mrs. Willson knelt in front of her and said apologetically: "Claire, it was grandma's fault before, grandma apologizes to you! Just forgive grandma and come back to Willson's house to help. Willson's family can't live without you! If not, You, the Willson family is really over, grandma begs you, come back!"

At this moment, Mrs. Willson's attitude towards Claire has changed drastically. She no longer has the arrogance and reliance on the face to sell her terms. It is just endless regrets and pleadings.

The current Willson family is already in danger. She feels that even if she kneels down and begs, she must beg Claire back to the Willson family.

Otherwise, the huge family business will really be ruined in her own hands.

When Noah Willson saw the Old Mrs. Willson, he knelt down and begged along with her, his expression changed, and he took Harold and Wendy, followed by kneeling to the ground, begging Claire.

Seeing such a scene, Claire suddenly felt a little at a loss.

She never expected that the Old Mrs. Willson, who regarded her face as more important than her own life, could kneel down and apologize to her in front of so many people.

It seems that the Willson family nowadays is really exhausted.

Seeing that Claire was still indifferent, the Lady Willson was still in tears, begging to say: "Claire, you can have pity for your poor grandma, Willson family can't live without you, please come back!"

After she finished speaking, she knelt on the ground and knocked directly at Claire three times, unspeakably miserable, as if she was about to kneel to death on the spot.

"I knew so, why bother?"

At this time, Charlie walked up to the Old Mrs. Willson and said coldly: "Grandma, thank you very much for coming to visit my father-in-law, but it is impossible for us to return to the Willson Group."

With that said, he issued an eviction order and said: "Please leave now!"

The Old Mrs. Willson couldn't stop the tears, and said angrily: "Charlie, when you had nothing to join my Willson family, we gave you food, drink, clothing, and housing, didn't you have it? Can you be a little grateful? At this time, do you still want to split our Willson family?"

Charlie smiled faintly and said, "I'm sorry, grandma, the one who feeds me is Claire and my father-in-law and mother-in-law. You have not given me anything except mocking me and calling me waste. Why should I be grateful?"

After that, Charlie's face turned dark, and he coldly snorted: "Don't think I don't know what your plan is. You want to trick Claire back with bitter tricks, let Claire help the Willson Group to cooperate, and revitalize the Willson Group. Am I wrong?"

Chapter 331

Mrs. Willson's true motive was suddenly exposed by Charlie, and her whole person was a little flustered.

She thought that she would be able to kill Claire's family with four bites, especially Charlie's waste. It was not difficult. Just ask Harold and Wendy to apologize to him and treat him as a special person, he would be grateful.

However, she did not expect that Charlie was the one who was drunk and alone.

Seeing that her motive was seen through, Mrs. Willson hesitated and said: "It's all a family, and it's all in one place. If a family opens two companies, it's also a joke to spread it out?"

Charlie sneered: "Hong Kong's rich man Li Ka-shing, and his son are not in the same company, what's the problem? I think you are ill-intentioned, and the truth is false, survival is true!"

"You, you" Old Mrs. Willson couldn't speak angrily, Noah Willson on the side immediately yelled, "Charlie, pay attention to your words, in this house, you are just an outsider!"

Charlie ignored him and said to his wife Claire instead: "Claire, you must keep your eyes open. Some people just want to use you. When they finish using you, they will kick you away immediately. After you helped the Emgrand Group to win the 60 million contract, how did they treat you? On the surface, they said they wanted to promote you to the director, but in reality? At the banquet, they announced publicly that Harold was promoted to director. Do you still want to experience it a second time?"

Claire's expression instantly became extremely awe-inspiring.

At this moment, she really understood thoroughly.

Thanks to her husband Charlie's reminder, otherwise, she would most likely be fooled by them again.

At this time, Harold saw that the plan went bankrupt, and pointed at Charlie angrily, and said, "Charlie, you stinky silk, is there a place for you to talk about? Are you making trouble with our housework? You don't want to live anymore. Right?"

Charlie looked at him coldly and asked: "Why? Can't pretend to be? I tell you Harold, if you see me in the future, you have to be polite, otherwise I will call Mr. Orvel directly and let him give you a chasing order so that you can't stay in Aurous Hill!"

"I'm going to your mother!" Harold was furious, and shouted: "You bluff me? Don't think I don't know what you are, aren't you something that will be tricked and kidnapped? When they see through your tricks, I don't even know how you die."

Charlie sneered: "At least they haven't seen my tricks yet, at least they still respectfully call me Mr. Wade!"

After speaking, Charlie said contemptuously, "You still have to continue to pretend, right? Okay, I will call Mr. Orvel now!"

Immediately afterwards, Charlie took out his mobile phone, called Mr. Orvel immediately, and turned on the speaker.

Harold's face suddenly paled in shock, and his sweat kept falling.

This guy actually called Orvel? !

If Orvel really wanted to give him a chasing order, wouldn't he be finished? !

When he thought of this, he immediately persuaded himself, and blurted out: "Charlie, Charlie, I just made a joke with you, don't take it seriously, you are my brother-in-law, we are a family."

Charlie smiled and said, "I and you are not a family."

While talking, the phone went through.

Mr. Orvel asked respectfully: "Mr. Wade?"

Charlie glanced at Harold, who was shaking like chaff, and said lightly: "Mr. Orvel, if I ask you to make a chasing order, how many brothers can follow?"

Chapter 332

Mr. Orvel immediately said: "Mr. Wade, I have people in Aurous Hill, and most of the nightclubs, bars, KTV, and construction sites have my people. As long as you tell me who will give me the order to kill. I can guarantee that the number of people who look for him everywhere on the street every day and want his life cannot be counted!"

Harold was almost frightened when he heard that he was complete. He knelt in front of Charlie with a puff, crying, and said: "Charlie, my good brother-in-law, I'm really kidding you, you just treat me as a bullsh*t and let me go. Right"

Charlie asked him coldly: "Why? Don't you pretend to be forced?"

"I don't pretend, don't pretend, don't pretend anymore" Harold was almost scared to death at this time, how dare he pretend to force Charlie.

In Aurous Hill, if Orvel ordered to kill him, then the whole road would not swarm to kill him?

After all, this is a good opportunity to play for Orvel, and please Orvel!

Charlie took the phone at this time and said coldly: "Since you are not pretending, let me see your sincerity. Otherwise, I can only understand that this is a temporary soft service. If I let you go, you can turn and will still pretend to be forceful after the day."

Harold shook his heart, realizing that Charlie might not let him go so easily, so without a word, he immediately knocked his head on the smooth and hard floor of the hospital, banging three times.

"Charlie, I was wrong! I apologize to you! Please forgive me, don't let Orvel chase me down!"

Having said this, Harold was already crying and regretted his death in his heart.

Is there a problem in your mind? Why do you have to force Charlie to pretend to be forced? Isn't this a case of death? When Orvel realized that he was a liar, and hacks him to death is still a matter of course, but if Charlie really let Orvel hack him, he won't survive tomorrow morning

At this moment, Noah Willson saw his son kneeling and kowtow being bullied by Charlie, and said angrily: "Charlie! Don't deceive people too much!"

Charlie asked curiously: "You said I deceived people too much?"

After finishing speaking, he immediately said to Mr. Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, another person is added to the chasing order for the rivers and lakes. This time I want you to chase and kill a pair of father and son!"

Mr. Orvel immediately blurted out: "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, as long as you give an order, I will not be stopped even if they are the kings of heaven! Tell me, what is the name of the father and son!"

Noah Willson uttered an ah, and he was trembling in shock.

Charlie is too ruthless, right

He just said that he was too deceiving, he wanted to chase them down together? !

How can they stand this old bone?

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson had realized that it would be difficult to reap the water, for fear that her son and grandson would be hurt again, she hurriedly said: "Charlie, you let them go, just as if we haven't been here today"

Charlie shook his head: "That won't work, you are here, why should I assume you haven't been here?"

Old Mrs. Willson tremblingly asked: "Then how can you stop?"

Charlie said indifferently: "You are at the face of my father-in-law and my mother-in-law. Tell me the true purpose of your coming this time. If you are sincere enough, I will spare them and let you never come; if you are not enough sincerely, I'm sorry, I have made this order of chasing after death!"

Chapter 333

Upon hearing this, Harold, who was so frightened and knelt on the ground, hurriedly cried and said, "Grandma, tell the truth! You tell Charlie the truth! Otherwise, I might be dead, grandma!"

Noah Willson was also afraid of getting angry, so he hurriedly pleaded: "Mom, just tell the truth.

The Old Mrs. Willson has given up struggling this time, and sighed, like a cock that was defeated in a fight, and said: "Charlie is right. I am here this time. I really want to use a bitter trick to trick you back and take you back to Willson Group."

After finishing speaking, the Old Mrs. Willson wanted to wash white again, and blurted out: "But me"

Charlie interrupted her directly and roughly: "It's nothing but, you are finished, you can go."

The Old Mrs. Willson looked at him bitterly and said: "You always want me to finish speaking, I also have difficulties."

Charlie said coldly: "You have no hardships, some are just bitter fruits! The bitter fruits are grown by yourself, and you can only eat them yourself!"

After speaking, Charlie said again: "If you guys are more acquainted, now close your mouth, pinch your tails, and roll away, this incident will have never happened, otherwise."

At this point, Charlie yelled at Mr. Orvel on the phone and said, "Mr. Orvel, if you hear a Lady Willson pushing me here again, immediately give Noah Willson, Harold his son a chase order! "

Mr. Orvel blurted out, "Mr. Wade can rest assured, I will follow your instructions!"

The Old Mrs. Willson was so depressed, she nodded herself, completely accepted the failure, beckoned to several people, and said weakly, "Let's go."

Noah Willson, Harold, and Wendy, who had been silent for a while, hurriedly helped her and left the ward quickly.

After they left, Jacob let out a long sigh, and said lonely: "I thought my mother finally woke up, but I didn't expect that it would be a calculation in the end."

Elaine lamented: "If the Willson Group goes down, our pensions will not be paid."

Claire looked at Charlie and said softly: "Charlie, thank you, if it weren't for your reminder, I might have been fooled."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I am your husband, what do you do with me so politely?"

After speaking, Charlie said again: "In the next few days, let Dad take a good rest in the hospital for a few days. I will take care of him. You can start and open the company. Don't let the Willson family look down on you!"

Claire nodded quickly and said seriously: "I know! I will definitely go all out!"

When Mrs. Willson returned home, she was in a trance and almost collapsed.

Who would have thought that not long ago, because of the cooperation of the Emgrand Group, she had a big banquet in the hotel, and the scenery was all the same?

However, in a blink of an eye, the Willson family was left alone and almost went bankrupt.

The Emgrand Group stopped cooperating and also blocked the Willson Group. Now, the Willson Group has lost all cooperation and the company has no money.

But at the same time, the company is also facing a large amount of capital expenditure.

For example, the rents of the office buildings of the group, the salaries of all the people above and below the group, the construction costs of the project construction party, and the material costs of the material suppliers.

Chapter 334

Now, the Willson Group is like a bag of rice with a hole in it. There was not much rice in it, but it rushed out, and it couldn't stand it anymore.

What's even more annoying is that Wendy, her most beloved granddaughter, had the opportunity to marry Gerald, the son of the White family, but now, the White family has avoided the Willson family.

The last support of White family also disappeared.

Thinking of this, the Old Mrs. Willson couldn't help tears.

In the past few years, the Old Master has been in charge of housekeeping, but he did not expect that he would manage the family business in this field.

If this continues, the group will not only be completely closed down but will also face huge debts. By then, even this old villa will not be kept.

And all of this stems from selfishness.

If it wasn't for the purpose of seizing the villa that White's family gave to Charlie, how could Jacob and Claire and their daughter break with them?

If Claire hadn't left the Willson Group, how could the Emgrand Group have turned against the Willson Group?

The eldest son Noah Willson was also on the verge of collapse.

The family business is at stake, his daughter loses her happiness, her son has no future, and Charlie has been repeatedly humiliating them.

He now has the heart to do something to restore the decline, but he can't find any light.

Wendy has been crying ever since she came back, crying heartbreakingly, and he felt uncomfortable.

He couldn't help asking the Old Mrs. Willson: "Mom, is there no hope for the Willson family in the future?"

Old Mrs. Willson shed two lines of muddy tears and said painfully: "There is no other way to do it. If the company does not declare bankruptcy, the subsequent debts will crush us."

Noah Willson choked up and said: "Mom, can you find old friends and see who can invest a sum of money in the Willson Group to help us tide over the difficulties?"

"Investment?" Old Mrs. Willson smiled bitterly: "Now that the Emgrand Group has banned us, who would dare to invest their money? Those old friends in the past are now avoiding me one by one and not answering calls. I can see through. How can there be any friends in this world? It is all interactions for benefits!"

Harold said angrily: "Grandma, if you say that there are no friends, only benefits, Charlie's Rubbish, why can he make friends with so many big people, and those big people give him so much face, shouting Wade Mr. Wade? What benefits can he bring to them?"

The Old Mrs. Willson said with emotion: "This Charlie, don't look at it as a poor and vain Rubbish, is really a little capable of talking to people and talking nonsense. I heard that the reason why these big people are so polite to him is that he can make them think that he is capable of doing fortune-telling, it's all fools, no different from the old fortune-telling man under the roadside tree!"

Harold asked puzzledly: "Then why do so many big people believe him?"

Old Mrs. Willson said: "Believe him because he has not been seen by others. This kind of person is like those masters in the past. They are especially good at bluffing people and bluffing everyone. They are stunned for a moment, but turned their head when everyone will come to their senses, didn't these people become liars that everyone shouted and beaten?"

Speaking of this, Lady Willson said with a cold expression: "In my opinion, Charlie will show flaws in a short time. When these big people know that they have been tricked by him, they will definitely strip him alive and feed him to the dog! "

Harold looked expectantly and said, "I can't wait! Can't wait to see Charlie being chopped up and fed the dog!"

Old Mrs. Willson said with a bitter face: "Yes! Don't worry, there will be one day!"

Chapter 335

When the Willson family was crying and cursing Charlie, two Rolls Royce slowly stopped at the door of Willson's villa.

Immediately, six black-clothed bodyguards came down from the two cars. One of them opened the rear door of the car behind and walked out of the car, a middle-aged man in his fifties.

This man was dressed very gorgeously, a top-notch hand-made suit made by Britain, and it looked quite affable.

When the middle-aged man got out of the car, he held a thick copy of the Willson family tree and asked the assistant beside him: "This is the Aurous Hill Willson family?"

The assistant nodded and said, "Back to President Willson, I have confirmed from the civil affairs system that this is the Aurous Hill Willson family."

"Yeah." The middle-aged man nodded and looked at the Willson family and said with emotion: "I didn't expect the Willson family on Aurous Hill to look so down and out. They are really poor relatives."

The assistant hurriedly said: "Mr. Willson, or let's not go, it would be annoying to get these poor ghosts in touch."

The middle-aged man waved his hand slightly and said: "Although the Willson family of Aurous Hill has already had five clothes with our family, according to my father, during the War of Resistance, the Aurous Hill Willson family saved his life. He always wanted to find them before his death and thanked them face to face, but he was paralyzed in bed and didn't have a chance to come over. He said that I had to come over for him for this wish. By the way, he sorted out the genealogy of his ancestors and included them. "

The assistant asked curiously: "Mr. Willson, what is the story of this period of history you are talking about?"

The middle-aged man said: "The Willson family was still very big back then. The whole family lived in a village. Then the devils came and the war broke out. Everyone fled for their lives. My father and the ancestor of this family were distant cousins. During the escape, my father was hit by a stray bullet and almost died. It was their father who carried my father and escaped."

The assistant exclaimed and said: "So there is still such a relationship."

"Yes." The middle-aged man sighed and said, "Okay, go knock on the door!"

In the Willson family house, the large family was sitting together and weeping sadly. When the doorbell rang, Noah Willson hurriedly wiped away the tears and walked to the courtyard to open the door.

Seeing a middle-aged man who was a few years older than him and with an arrogant expression standing outside the door, and seeing him with six bodyguards beside him, and two Les Roys parked behind him, he knew he was a big man, so he couldn't help asking: "Can I help you?"

The middle-aged man smiled slightly and asked him: "Are you a descendant of the Willson family?"

Noah Willson nodded subconsciously: "Yes, my surname is Willson, what's wrong?"

The middle-aged man introduced himself: "Hello, my name is Fredmen Willson, the head of the Eastcliff Willson family,"

"Eastcliff Willson family?" Noah Willson asked in surprise: "What do you mean? Why haven't I heard of it?"

The middle-aged man smiled and said: "Our ancestors are family, and they can be regarded as distant relatives. My father and your father should be distant relatives, so when we are here, they can be regarded as relatives."

Noah Willson asked in surprise, "Are you also from the Willson family?"

"Yes." Fredmen Willson nodded and said: "This time I came to visit, mainly because of my father's entrustment before his death, to come to your house to express my gratitude to your Old Master in person. In addition, I hope to get to know you."

As he said, he took out a business card and handed it to Noah Willson, "This is my business card."

Noah Willson took the business card, glanced at it, and was dumbfounded.

Fredmen Willson, Chairman of Future Company Group?

This Future Company Group is a very famous listed group!

Noah Willson was happy and hurriedly said, "Oh, it turned out to be Fredmen Willson, who has admired his name for a long time!"

After speaking, he hurriedly explained: "Fredmen Willson, what is the relationship between your father and my father? My father, an Old Master, had already driven Hexi more than three years ago."

Fredmen Willson sighed and said, "Oh, that's really unfortunate. My father just left last year. Before leaving, he still wanted to see the savior. I didn't expect the benefactor to go one step ahead of him."

Chapter 336

Speaking of this, Fredmen Willson said with emotion: "It is estimated that these old brothers have been away for decades, and maybe they meet again over there."

Noah Willson nodded repeatedly, and said humbly, "Mr. Fredmen, please come in and sit down!"

Fredmen Willson gave a hum, and laughed: "Then bother!"

"Don't disturb, don't disturb!"

Noah Willson hurriedly welcomed Fredmen Willson in, walked through the yard and into the living room. He hurriedly said to Mrs. Willson: "Mom! Chairman of Eastcliff Future Company Group and Chairman Fredmen Willson is here!"

Old Mrs. Willson was shocked!

Future Company Group?

This is the famous A-share listed group!

How did their chairman find their home?

Although she was very puzzled, she still got up very excited to greet him, and said: "Oh! Welcome Chairman Willson to my house, please forgive me, Lady Willson, I have missed a long way!"

"Where!" Fredmen Willson smiled and arched his hands slightly, and suddenly caught a glimpse of Wendy, who had been crying for a long time, with red eyes, heartbroken, and when he glanced over, he suddenly felt that this girl was beautiful and pitiful. It really made him feel pity, and he couldn't help but move.

Wendy was in a state of collapse at this time and did not notice that the new guest at home was silently looking at her with his greedy eyes.

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson invited Fredmen Willson to sit and said with excitement: "I didn't expect Fredmen Willson to come to our house. It really made us flourish!"

"You are polite." Fredmen Willson said with a smile: "You should be the Lady Willson of the Willson family, right?"

Old Mrs. Willson hurriedly said: "Fredmen can call me Old Mrs. Willson, don't be so polite."

Fredmen Willson nodded and said, "I'm here this time because of the last wish of my dad."

After speaking, he told about his father and the Willson family's Old Master and their past years.

The ancestor of the Willson family was in a small mountain village in Nanguang Province. Almost all in that village were people surnamed Willson. They belonged to a large family that had developed for hundreds of years. Because the branches and leaves were too large, it had grown to thousands of people. At the time of scale, most of them have been out of the five clothes, and the blood relationship is very weak, and it can't even be called a blood relationship.

At that time, Fredmen Willson's father and Old Master Willson were both teenage boys. The seven or eight generations of the two were barely relatives, but the two of them had good personal relationships, and they were considered lifelong friendships.

Later, after being invaded, the Willson family ran for their lives in a hurry and fell apart. Fortunately, Fredmen Willson's father had taken his life fortunately for his Mr. Willson's persistence.

Later, everyone was separated in the flames of war, so they had not been able to find each other.

Fredmen Willson's father was still thinking about this until his death, so he asked Fredmen Willson to find a way to find his benefactor and come over to thank him.

However, Fredmen Willson didn't take it seriously. Although he agreed to his father's wish after his soul left his body, he forgot about the matter.

Until a few days ago, he kept having nightmares repeatedly, dreaming that the Old Master came back to him and complained that his words were not honored. Then he found the fortune-telling master to look at it. The master said that the Old Master's last wish is strong. If he does not fulfill it for him, he will come to find him in the dream.

No way, Fredmen Willson spent money to hire people to look around and found clues to the Aurous Hill Willson family.

After hearing this, Mrs. Willson started to cry with excitement.

This is really nowhere to be found, there is still another light in the dark!

Future Company Group is a listed group with a market value of tens of billions. Fredmen Willson uses his fingers to help the Willson family survive from desperation!

Chapter 337

Thinking of this, the Old Mrs. Willson couldn't help being excited, and said to Fredmen Willson: "Oh, Fredmen, your father was really a good man who knew his gratitude! He remembers all these years of things so clearly!"

Fredmen Willson nodded and sighed, "After all, it is a life-saving grace, and my father has never forgotten it for so many years.

After finishing talking, Fredmen Willson took out a red high-end jewelry box from his pocket and handed it to Mrs. Willson, saying: "My father saved money and told me that I must deliver this item to Mrs. Willson, but Mrs. Willson also drives the crane. Go west, then I will give it to you!"

Old Mrs. Willson thought it was to repay her kindness, so he gave her some rare and precious treasure, she was excited to take it, and she opened it and saw it suddenly.

It turned out to be a rusty bullet? !

What the h*ll is this?

The Old Mrs. Willson looked at Fredmen Willson suspiciously: "Fredmen Willson, this is."

Fredmen Willson hurriedly said: "This is the bullet that the devil hit into my dad's leg back then. Old Master Willson used a red knife to dig it out. My grandfather kept it close to his body. He gave it to me before he left. To keep as a memorial."

Old Mrs. Willson was almost scolding her mother in her heart.

What the h*ll is going on?

My Old Master saved your dad's life, so your dad will give a bullet of decades-old as a souvenir?

Are you too picky? What is the grace of dripping water and retribution to the spring?

This broken bullet is not worth a penny, and it's been in the human body before, so weirdly panicked. You give this thing to me? ! It's better to give eighteen million to let us tide over the difficulties!

Thinking of this, the Old Mrs. Willson said with a sigh of relief: "I really didn't expect your father to be such a kind and righteous person. If he knew that our Willson family was suffering from the disaster, he would definitely help?"

Fredmen Willson's expression was startled, and he said that he was really a poor relative of his mother. Did he want money without saying three words?

However, after all, he was here to help the Old Master repay his wishes, so he was unkind and unreasonable, so he followed the flow of the boat and asked: "Old Mrs. Willson, I don't know what disasters your family is facing now?"

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said: "We have a company that is mainly engaged in decoration projects, called Willson Group. The business was prosperous, but now the capital chain has encountered a problem and is about to go bankrupt. We need a sum of money to save it."

Fredmen Willson nodded and said with a smile: "Mrs. Willson is a blessed person when she looks at her face. Don't worry, I believe that the Willson family will be able to make good luck!"

After listening to the Old Mrs. Willson, he really wanted to scold her.

This is because he wants them to have a grateful heart and take some money to show the meaning of not looking at the face of the monk and looking at the face of the Buddha. If he doesn't look at the face of the Buddha, he will also see the face of a dead father.

In the end, he is better. Tells her that she is blessed, and can he turn bad luck into good luck?

If it weren't for her distinguished status, old woman, he really wants to wedge her face with a bench!

At this moment, Fredmen Willson couldn't help looking at Wendy, who seemed to be desperate, and then smiled and said to the Old Mrs. Willson: "Lady Willson, you haven't introduced the others?"

Old Mrs. Willson took a close look, and when she took a closer look, she saw that Fredmen Willson seemed to have some thoughts about Wendy.

Suddenly, she seemed to have found a life-saving straw.

Chapter 338

Thinking of this, she hurriedly introduced Noah Willson and said: "This is my eldest son Noah Willson.

Fredmen Willson nodded with Noah Willson, but he didn't seem to care about him in his attitude.

The Lady Willson introduced Harold and said, "Fredmen Willson, this is my grandson, Harold."

Harold knelt and licked his face and said hurriedly: "Hello Mr. Fredmen! Please take care of me in the future."

Fredmen Willson responded with um, um, before the Lady Willson introduced Wendy, his eyes had already ran to Wendy.

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson smiled unpredictably before introducing Wendy and saying: "Fredmen Willson, this one is my granddaughter Wendy Willson."

Fredmen Willson breathed a sigh of relief.

He came to the Willson family for the first time, and he was worried about whether Wendy would be Harold's wife. In that case, he didn't seem to have a chance to start.

But when she heard that she was also from the Willson family, Fredmen Willson's heart suddenly became alive.

Although Wendy is not a superb beauty, she can definitely be regarded as an upper-middle or even first-rate. Otherwise, Gerald of the White family would not be able to look down upon her.

It's a pity that Wendy has always been pressed by Claire, a top super first-class beauty, so no matter whether she is in Willson's house or in Aurous Hill, she can't seem to show it.

But now that Claire is not there, Wendy has just cried again, her eyes and nose are red, which really makes a man feel the desire to care for her and protect her in his heart.

The Old Mrs. Willson saw that Fredmen Willson was wrong with Wendy, so she hurriedly said: "Fredmen, Wendy is 24 this year, and she has no boyfriend. If there are suitable young talents around Fredmen Willson, you can introduce them to Wendy."

She didn't really want Fredmen Willson to introduce someone to Wendy, she just told Fredmen Willson in a disguised form that her granddaughter is single now if he wants to have a chance!

Fredmen Willson was indeed tempted.

He is old and his wife is also old, and he has long lost interest in her.

Moreover, when he came to Aurous Hill this time, his wife was not around, so I could play at will. If I could take this opportunity to be happy with Wendy, it would indeed be a good thing in the world.

Thinking of this, he took the initiative to reach out to Wendy, smiled, and said, "Ms. Wendy is so beautiful, why doesn't she have a boyfriend?"

It's okay not to say this. When he said this, Wendy's eyes were red, and two lines of tears flowed out.

She was dying in discomfort.

The Willson family is dying now, and all his good expectations have all gone into vain. Gerald now thinks that he wants to see the plague god, and can't avoid it. Let alone marry that family, even if she asked him to have a breakup, he probably won't take a look at her.

She is so miserable, but her cousin, Claire, is like a fish in the water. So many big people used to celebrate her opening, really wanting face and pomp, such a comparison, how can she not be angry, not annoyed deep in her heart, Not desperate?

Seeing Wendy crying, Fredmen Willson suddenly felt distressed and said hurriedly: "Oh, what is wrong with Miss Wendy? Why are you crying?"

Mrs. Willson hurriedly said, "Isn't there something wrong with our family's company? Wendy has a deep relationship with the company and feels uncomfortable. For these two days, she has been begging me to find a way to save the company. But I Lady Willson, seeing The loess is half-buried, what can I do to save the company? So there is no way, I can only watch my precious granddaughter cry uncomfortably"

Fredmen Willson immediately said to Wendy, "Ms. Wendy, if you have any needs, you can tell me! I am quite capable, maybe I can help you?"

Chapter 339

Fredmen Willson suddenly said that he could help, which made Old Mrs. Willson overjoyed.

However, Wendy was not happy at all in her heart.

Her focus is not on the Willson Group at all.

Even, she doesn't really care about the life and death of the Willson Group.

She just wants to complete her life counterattack, marry a rich son, and then become the envy of everyone, and then she will reach the pinnacle of her life.

In that way, the Willson Group is nothing more than her own family's property. What does it have to do with her?

What makes her most sad now is Gerald's unfeeling towards her and her confusion in the future.

As for the Willson Group, she doesn't care.

Seeing that she was indifferent, the Old Mrs. Willson hurriedly pushed her and said, "Wendy, what are you doing in a daze? Thank Mr. Fredmen Willson quickly!"

Wendy was stunned, raised her head, and said, "Thank him for what?"

Old Mrs. Willson angrily said: "Of course it is Mr. Fredmen Willson who is willing to help the Willson Group! Are you stupid?"

Wendy blurted out: "I care about the life-long events of Gerald and me, not the Willson Group!"

"b*stard thing!" The Old Mrs. Willson was so angry, she raised her hand and slapped Wendy in the face.

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson cursed in her heart: "I'm almost making the Willson Group's future bright. Are you still thinking about Gerald's mischief? It's really annoying to me! Why don't you know to help me share my worries?! What a waste!"

Suddenly Wendy received a slap in the face, looked at the Lady Willson dumbfounded, and immediately cried: "You are sick! What are you doing with me?! What does the Willson Group have to do with me? I don't work in the Willson Group! Yes! Beat me, why don't you go and beat that b*tch Claire!"

Old Mrs. Willson was stunned!

Never dreaming that Wendy would dare to disobey her!

She was about to get angry, but Wendy turned her head and ran out.

This

The Old Mrs. Willson was so embarrassed that she blurted out and shouted at Noah Willson: "Go and chase her back!"

"Okay" Noah Willson nodded awkwardly: "I'll go after her."

The Old Mrs. Willson said to Fredmen Willson with a guilty face: "Fredmen, I'm really embarrassed, let you watch a joke."

Fredmen Willson was also a little embarrassed, he smiled, and asked, "I think Miss Wendy seems to be a little irritated, what is going on?"

"Hey." The Old Mrs. Willson sighed and said: "Don't mention it, it's all the unfortunate misfortune of our Willson family, who hired a mean and dirty son-in-law."

Afterwards, the Lady Willson said all about Charlie and Claire leaving the Willson family, causing the Willson family to fall into trouble, and even causing the White family to remarry with Wendy.

However, Lady Willson cannot say that.

According to the version from the Lady Willson's mouth, all the fault lies in the unfilial son Jacob's family of four, who betrayed the family, betrayed the blood, and even forced the Lady Willson to kneel and beg.

Fredmen Willson was somewhat uncomfortable when he heard this, and sighed: "There are such unscrupulous descendants, it is too much!"

The Old Mrs. Willson wiped away her tears, looked at Fredmen Willson, and pleaded: "Fredmen Willson, you are the chairman of the Future Company Group. If you can help us, our Willson family will definitely be able to make a comeback."

Chapter 340

"Oh," Fredmen Willson smiled awkwardly and said, "Well, to be honest, investing in this kind of thing is very prudent. First of all, I need to know the specific situation of Willson's company and see if there is any investment value, how much investment, and how long it will take to return. So that I can make a decision to invest or not to invest"

Mrs. Willson knew very well in her heart that the Willson Group is now in a mess. If it really depends on the specific situation, no one will invest.

How to vote? It is useless to invest tens of millions in the Willson Group. After Emgrand Group does not cooperate with the Willson Group, everyone does not wait to see the Willson Group going down.

And what the Willson Group does is the decoration project itself. This kind of business requires other people to work for them. If no one wants to work, it can only be idle.

Therefore, normally, no one will invest in the Willson Group, unless there is a fool who has no money to spend.

Fredmen Willson was extremely shrewd at first glance, and he would never be willing to help in vain. Unless there is sufficient return, it is possible for him to payout.

The Old Mrs. Willson thought for a moment and said to Fredmen Willson: "Fredmen, let's do this. You have just come to Aurous Hill. We are a family. Your father and my husband also have connections. We should understand more and communicate more. How long do you think you can stay at our home?"

Fredmen Willson thought, and hurriedly asked, "Well, I'm an outsider, it is not convenient to live at your home? After all, Miss Wendy has not yet left the cabinet."

In fact, an old fox like Fredmen Willson knows his motives very well, so his speech is also very technical.

If he asked directly whether Wendy lived here, he would immediately appear what he really is, this is not what he wants.

If he changes the way and asks her if she live here, will it affect Wendy? That would be very technical.

If Lady Willson said, don't worry, if Wendy doesn't live here, it won't have any impact, then she just politely refused.

If the Lady Willson says, you can rest assured that they are all from your own family and will not have any influence on Wendy, then it proves that Wendy also lives here, and she agrees.

The Old Mrs. Willson is also a good person, how can she not know Fredmen Willson's motive?

The reason she invited him to stay at home for a few days was to persuade Wendy and let her find a chance to get closer to Fredmen Willson.

Her wishful thinking is very good because then, Fredmen Willson will definitely be able to invest in the Willson family.

After all, Fredmen Willson is the chairman of a listed group. If he invests in the Willson family, it will not only solve the money problem but also bring a strong enough background to the Willson family. At that time, the Willson family will be able to come back to life and create glory again!

So she smiled and said, "Don't worry, Fredmen Willson, Wendy is a very sensible girl. She must also welcome Fredmen Willson to live at home. Besides, although our house is a bit old, it's a single-family villa. , You live here, outsiders will not know."

Fredmen Willson immediately relaxed, nodded, and said, "Then I will be more respectful than my fate! I just have some business to talk about in Aurous Hill these days. By the way, I can get to know you more and then consider whether to invest in your business. "

"Okay!" Old Mrs. Willson smiled excitedly: "That's great. I'll let someone go and clean up the guest room."

While talking, Mrs. Willson lowered her voice and said: "Fredmen, to tell you the truth, the guest room is opposite Wendy's room. If you have any needs, you can find her."

Fredmen Willson was extremely excited.

OK!

This Lady Willson really took the road!

Although he has money and no shortage of women, it can easily be known by his wife if he messes around outside.

However, if he lives in Willson's house, if he can get along with Wendy, then he definitely doesn't have to worry that his wife will know.

After all, in her eyes, this is his own family, he is here to fulfill his father's last wish, so she will definitely not doubt it!

This is definitely a great choice for stealing fish!

Chapter 341

Wendy was slapped by the Lady Willson and ran out, but before she ran out of the yard, she was stopped by Noah Willson.

Noah Willson persuaded her to come back, but she couldn't follow her life and death. She always felt that she had fallen into this field. The great responsibility lies with Mrs. Willson. If it weren't for her, how could she be so miserable?

So, she was angry for a while, wishing to run away from home, the farther the better.

But her father's words still let her dispel the idea.

Noah Willson said earnestly: "Wendy, where are you going to run away from home? You don't even have a job, and there is no place to live outside. You are a girl, so you can't go out to rent a house and work at this time, right? Your grandma did something wrong, but what else can we do now besides sticking to your grandma? After all, she is the head of the Willson family!"

Wendy was silent for a moment, thinking about her father's words repeatedly.

If she leaves the Willson family, she really has nowhere to go. She can't wander the streets, right? After all, she is the second young lady of the Willson family in the eyes of others. If she wanders on the street, wouldn't she be laughed at?

So she could only say aggrieved: "Dad, grandma is too domineering and authoritarian, or let's move out."

Noah Willson sighed and said, "Move out? Now, if you move out, there will be nothing left. Your grandma can live for a few years at most? When she passes away, this villa and some other assets of the Willson family will belong to our family. , This is our house. If we move out and your second uncle and his family come back, what should we do? Then there will be nothing?"

Wendy suddenly realized.

Don't look at Claire's family now, the relationship with the Lady Willson is stinky, but if his family moves out, they are likely to take advantage of it.

Thinking of this, Wendy burst into tears aggrieved, and said: "But it's not a way to keep going like this, I can't stand her anymore."

Noah Willson had no choice but to comfort her: "Don't think about it so much. After all, there are guests at home. We can't let the guests read the jokes. When the guests leave, Dad will give you a little money, and you will travel and relax."

Wendy nodded slightly, then agreed, saying: "Okay"

When returning to the villa with her father, Mrs. Willson had just sent Fredmen Willson into the guest room herself and walked downstairs alone.

Seeing Wendy's return, she hurried forward and said apologetically: "Wendy, it was a bad grandma just now. Grandma made an impulse and apologize to you. I hope you can forgive your grandma!"

The Old Mrs. Willson also hoped that Wendy could get Fredmen Willson, so when Wendy came back, the first thing she did was to take the initiative to apologize.

Wendy didn't expect that grandma would take the initiative to apologize. This is extremely rare for a tough grandma for a lifetime, so she felt a lot more comfortable.

Old Mrs. Willson took Wendy's hand, went to sit down on the sofa, and said earnestly: "Wendy, our family is facing very big difficulties now, do you know this?"

Wendy nodded: "Grandma, I know."

"You are now being divorced by the White family, and it has become a joke for Aurous Hill. Although grandma doesn't want to mention this, this is the truth. You should know it in your heart?"

When it came to this, Wendy couldn't help crying again.

The whole Aurous Hill knew that she was a woman who was divorced by the White family, so if she wanted to marry a wealthy family in her life, it would basically be impossible.

At least, it's impossible in Aurous Hill.

Chapter 342

Therefore, her own future immediately became extremely slim.

Old Mrs. Willson helped her wipe away the tears and said seriously: "Wendy, you used to be a little princess in our house. I spoiled you, your parents spoiled you, and your brother spoiled you, so You didn't study well before, and you didn't want to go to work after you graduated. This is all right, but now our family is not what it used to be. You must change. You must mature as soon as possible and share part of the responsibility for this family, which can only get worse and worse."

Wendy nodded repeatedly, and said guiltily: "Grandma, I'm sorry, I was too playful before, and I didn't learn anything. I can't help the family share the worries."

Old Mrs. Willson squeezed her hand and said seriously: "Wendy, the past is over. You are the second granddaughter of grandma's baby. How could grandma blame you and treat you badly?"

Then, the Lady Willson said earnestly: "Now, there is an excellent opportunity to achieve multiple benefits in one fell swoop. Not only will it solve the family crisis, it will also allow you to find a chance to get up again, and even make her become what you want. Do you want to catch it?"

When Wendy heard this, she nodded and said excitedly: "Grandma, I will think!"

When Noah Willson and Harold heard this, they hurriedly surrounded them.

Among them, Noah Willson couldn't hide his excitement and asked, "Mom, what is a good way?"

The Old Mrs. Willson said seriously: "It's Fredmen, Fredmen Willson who lives in the guest room upstairs!"

"He?" Noah Willson asked hurriedly, "he promised to help us?"

"No." The Old Mrs. Willson shook her head and said, "He told us that he was not relatives or reasons, and he came only for his father's last wish, and he has no obligation to help us."

Noah Willson didn't quite understand, and asked, "Then what do you mean?"

Old Mrs. Willson said: "I mean, let Wendy seize this opportunity of Fredmen Willson! I can see that he is interested in Wendy!"

Noah Willson was shocked and blurted out: "Mom, are you asking Wendy to accompany Fredmen Willson? He is older than her!"

"So what?" Mrs. Willson asked back: "Is there anything wrong with being older? Gerald is not very young. After Wendy has been with him for so long, she had an abortion for him. What happened? He only hurt Wendy. What did he give to Wendy?"

Noah Willson said anxiously: "That's normal male and female love, but Fredmen Willson is already an Old Master!"

Mrs. Willson said solemnly: "What's wrong with the Old Master? Old Master, rich and powerful, with connections and resources, don't you need anything if you follow him?"

Noah Willson waved his hands vigorously: "No way, no way! I think Wendy and Gerald are still acceptable, but if we let her and Fredmen Willson, how can I be a father accept it?"

"Can't accept it?" The Old Mrs. Willson snorted and asked in return: "Then you can accept being poor? If the Willson Group goes bankrupt, what inheritance can you inherit from me? This old villa? Don't forget, Willson The group still owes the bank's loan. When the time comes for bankruptcy, the court will take back the villa! I don't care, and I will not survive the next few years. What about you? What will you do then? Just like Jacob, go to live in the villa. Is it a broken tube building?!"

Noah Willson was speechless

He doesn't want to betray his daughter, but he doesn't want to be poor either

Just when he didn't know what to do, Wendy, who had not spoken, suddenly said: "Grandma, if he can help the Willson Group, then I am willing to accompany him! But I have one condition!"

Old Mrs. Willson asked excitedly: "What conditions?!"

Wendy gritted her teeth and said: "I want to be the director of the Willson Group! This is the position before Claire had!"

Chapter 343

That night, after taking a shower, Wendy only put on a bath towel and knocked on the door of Fredmen Willson's room opposite.

This night, she did not come out of Fredmen Willson's guest room again.

The next morning, when the red-faced Fredmen Willson walked downstairs with Wendy, Noah Willson and his wife Horiyah's faces were a little ugly, but more embarrassing.

Fredmen Willson also saw that the couple might not be satisfied with the relationship between him and Wendy, so he said almost without hesitation: "I have decided to invest 80 million in the Willson family to help it rebuild the industry. To show my sincerity, I will pay 10 million to the Willson Group's account today, and the remaining 70 million will be paid within one month!"

As soon as these words came out, the entire Willson family suddenly became excited.

Noah Willson and his wife did not have any embarrassment or discomfort and immediately treated Fredmen Willson respectfully as a guest.

Old Mrs. Willson was naturally too excited and immediately announced that after the 10 million arrived, the Willson Group would re-operate, with Wendy as the director!

For the Willson family, they swept away all the previous haze at this moment, and they almost bought a pair of firecrackers and celebrated presumptuously.

Fredmen Willson took out his own expression while accepting the compliments from the Willson family.

He asked the company's finance company to immediately fund the Willson Group with 10 million so that the Willson Group can temporarily get rid of the financial chain break.

At the same time, personally transferred 5 million to Wendy as pocket money for her.

Wendy went all out to serve him last night, and it really made him so satisfied. Fredmen Willson, who was in his fifties, hadn't experienced this stimulating passion for a long time. It was Wendy that made him feel young again.

So, after one night, he loved Wendy very much and even thought of keeping her as a concubine for a long time.

Therefore, after giving the money, he said to Mrs. Willson and Mr. and Mrs. Noah at the dinner table: "Old Madam, Mr. Noah, younger brothers and sisters, I have a gratuitous request, and please agree to it!"

The Lady Willson was trembling with excitement a long time ago. At this time, she naturally said with joy: "Oh, Fredmen, they are all in the same family. Don't say anything about two families. Just mention what you want. You are the elder of the Willson family. Benefactor, your request, the Willson family dare not follow your request!"

Fredmen Willson glanced at Wendy, and said: "I and Wendy are also in agreement. Although the age gap is a bit big, true love is always regardless of age limit. So I hope that you can agree to let Wendy be my lover. I will definitely help the Willson family with all my strength, and at the same time will do my best to treat Wendy well!"

Although Wendy was somewhat resistant to the Old Master Fredmen Willson in her heart, she did not have any resistance to his money. After receiving five million and hearing this, she was naturally happy. As long as she held Fredmen Willson's thigh tightly, she would be able to do so in the future!

And when the Old Mrs. Willson heard this, she was very excited and agreed on the spot, saying: "Fredmen Willson, since you and Wendy are in agreement, then the Lady Willson, I naturally raised my hands in favor of you being together!"

Although Noah Willson was somewhat unacceptable, he was relieved when he thought that the Willson family would board a big boat in the future, and said, "You can decide these things by yourself. We have no opinion."

Horiyah said with a little dissatisfaction: "Fredmen Willson, I heard that you have a family. Our Wendy is not yet married. If things with you spread out, how can we behave in the future?"

Fredmen Willson said immediately: "Don't worry, younger brothers and sisters, when the time is right in the future, and I will surely marry Wendy!"

Upon hearing this, the whole family was very excited.

Marry Wendy?

Then, isn't the Willson family going to the listed group? !

This is really great!

In order to show his sincerity, Fredmen Willson said: "In fact, everyone does not know that I also have a lot of business in Nanguang Province. Moreover, I am the chairman of Nanguang Chamber of Commerce. In the future, I will definitely be able to help the Willson family in many ways. It will definitely make the Willson family a top family in Aurous Hill!"

As soon as this was said, the Willson family cried with joy!

Wendy held Fredmen Willson's waist and cried constantly in front of her grandparents and parents.

Chapter 344

She felt that she finally had a chance to rise!

Fredmen Willson said at this time: "By the way, there will be a decoration industry summit in Aurous Hill in two days. I also received an invitation. Then you will come with me. I will solemnly introduce the Willson Group to everyone and announce my decision to invest in the Willson Group!"

Wendy asked numbly: "Fredmen, how can you introduce our relationship to others?"

Fredmen Willson smiled and said: "For the time being, I will give you a grievance. I will say that I am your uncle. When the time is right to turn back, I will be married to you after my divorce with Lianpo!"

Wendy was overjoyed and whispered: "Fredmen, that's really great. I want to stay together with you and grow old with you!"

Fredmen Willson touched her smooth hand and said emotionally: "Don't worry, my dear, we will definitely stay together forever!"

There was no rush to announce the resurgence of the Willson family, so Charlie didn't know this variable.

In the past few days, he is running between home and the hospital, taking care of the Old Master who is in the hospital.

The old man is no longer a serious problem, just rest in the hospital for a few days and recover well.

In the past few days, Charlie naturally has to take on the responsibility of delivering meals.

The news that Jacob's high paraplegia was cured has caused a sensation in the whole country after being heard from the hospital.

Few people in the medical field dare to believe that such a medical miracle cannot happen in China.

However, many people were relieved when they heard that this was the handwriting of the genius doctor Tianqi.

The name of the genius doctor Tianqi is really impressive in China, especially in the medical field, almost everyone knows.

This time, the high-level paraplegia was cured, and Tianqi's reputation became even higher. He has become the first person in the field of traditional medicine in China.

Countless reporters want to interview Tianqi, even foreign reporters want to interview him, and many top pharmaceutical companies want to find him to cooperate in the treatment of high-level paraplegia drugs, but Tianqi refused.

He didn't want to take advantage of Mr. Wade's ability to grab the limelight. After all, these abilities to reach the sky are not his own, but Mr. Wade's unique!

In order to express his admiration and gratitude to Mr. Wade, Tianqi made a decision: stay in Aurous Hill!

He felt that only by staying in Aurous Hill could he have a chance to repay Charlie's kindness. Therefore, he wanted to open a medical clinic in Aurous Hill, and he wanted to be a doctor and take medicine in Aurous Hill, and listen to Charlie's dispatch at any time.

His granddaughter Zhovia, when she heard that her grandfather had decided to stay in Aurous Hill, was speechless with excitement.

It is said that girls are the most cherished of spring, and Zhovia is also the age of cherishing spring, and her heart is at the stage of full bloom.

Moreover, no woman can resist the charm of a powerful man.

Therefore, she had long been fascinated by Charlie, closing her eyes every day, and what emerged was the handsome and indifferent face of Mr. Wade.

Although she knew that Charlie was already married, she, like several other girls, felt that Charlie and Claire did not have such a deep relationship, and she still had a chance.

Being able to stay in Aurous Hill would give her a little more possibility.

Charlie delivered meals to the Old Master. On the way back, he received a call from Tianqi. He respectfully said on the phone: "Mr. Wade, I have rented a shop near Mrs. Wade's company and opened It is a traditional medicine clinic, and I will stay in Aurous Hill for a long time. If you have any assignments, please call me at any time, and I will be there on call!"

Charlie gave a hum, and said, "Okay, that's great."

Chapter 345

Early that morning, Claire got up very early and put on makeup.

After putting on makeup, her eyebrows were so beautiful that Charlie was particularly moved.

But he asked strangely: "My wife, you usually go to work without makeup. Why put on makeup today? Is there anything important?"

On weekdays, Claire always has her face upright. That's because her face is already beautiful when she is not covered with pink and white, so she rarely wears makeup.

Claire replied earnestly: "Today is the summit of the Aurous Hill decoration industry. Come with me. Our company has just opened. It is rare that the organizer will invite us. This is a good opportunity to emerge in the industry. We must perform well and strive to gain a foothold in the industry."

Charlie asked a little surprised: "Who sponsored it? We just opened, why would the invite us?"

Claire smiled and said: "It is hosted by the Emgrand Group. Miss Doris sent me an invitation letter."

"No wonder" Charlie usually doesn't care about the group's affairs, so he didn't know that Emgrand was actually the organizer of this summit.

It is estimated that Doris deliberately organized such a summit because his wife's company had just opened and wanted to help his wife's company expand its popularity.

To put it bluntly, it is to set up a stage for his wife to sing.

After Claire put on her makeup, she found Charlie a suit to put on before taking him out.

When they arrived at the meeting place, it was already overcrowded. There were middle-aged men in suits and leather shoes and beautiful beauties with them.

Charlie didn't have much contact with the decoration industry, so he didn't have any acquaintances, but Claire had been in contact with this industry in the Willson Group before, so when she came in, she met many acquaintances to say hello.

Accompanying Claire to send out a circle of business cards, Charlie suddenly found that the crowd seemed to be surrounded by a middle-aged man at once, and a large group of people surrounded them and praised them.

Charlie's eyes were sharp, and he saw at a glance that the strange middle-aged man was carrying Wendy next to him!

He couldn't help but asked Claire curiously: "Wife, isn't the Willson Group bankrupt? What is Wendy doing?"

Claire also took a few glances and shook her head: "I'm not very clear. I heard from my mother that the Willson family has made another investment in the past few days, and some businesses are running normally."

Charlie couldn't help frowning.

Invest in the Willson family? Who is not so long-eyed?

Not to mention their conflicts with the Willson family, Warnia, Solmon White, and Qin Gang all know that, even if they don't, they should have heard that the Willson Group has been blocked by the Emgrand Group. At this time, investing in the Willson family is not a brain disease. ?

At this moment, two people were whispering to each other, one of them said: "Hey, that is Fredmen Willson, the chairman of Future Company Group!"

"He is Fredmen?!" Another person exclaimed, "It seems that the president of the Nanguang Chamber of Commerce is him?"

"Yes, it's him!"

"How can a person from Eastcliff become the chairman of the Nanguang Chamber of Commerce?!"

"Future Company Group also has a lot of business in Nanguang, and the main reason is that the Song family did not compete with them for the position of chairman. Otherwise, the chairman must belong to the Song family."

Charlie couldn't help frowning.

Chapter 346

It turned out that the thigh held by Wendy Willson was the chairman of the Eastcliff listed group!

Moreover, the other party's surname is Willson, is he a relative?

He couldn't help asking Claire: "Wife, do you know the relationship between the Willson family and this Fredmen Willson? Is he a distant relative?"

"do not know."

"Strange..." Charlie murmured: "Normally, the chairman of a listed group with a market value of 10 billion can not be mixed with low-end coffee like the Willson family, let alone Wendy. Showing face, is there any adultery in it?"

Claire hurriedly said: "Don't talk nonsense, that man looks older than my uncle, how could there be any adultery..."

At this time, Wendy, surrounded by the crowd, finally felt that kind of feeling that has attracted much attention!

Fredmen Willson next to her is not only the chairman of the listed group but also the chairman of the Nanguang Chamber of Commerce. All the businessmen present naturally cheered on him and continued to flatter him!

When Fredmen Willson introduced Wendy to them, he used the titles of his niece and future heir to the Willson family, and he also took the initiative to say that he had invested in the Willson Group, and all of a sudden, these people would treat her respectfully!

Even, many people who were too lazy to take care of the Willson family before, in order to curry favor with Fredmen Willson, even offered to cooperate deeply with the Willson family! With a humble face, he handed Wendy's business cards and exchanged phone numbers.

At this moment, Wendy felt the treatment that the upper-class society and the powerful, and she was naturally excited.

Prior to this, the Willson family was in the construction and decoration industry, and everyone hated it, but after embracing Fredmen Willson's thigh, it immediately became the object of the construction and decoration industry who wanted to make cooperation.

Shopping malls are really Vanity Fair, so snobbish and realistic!

She couldn't help thinking of Claire in her heart. Don't you Claire think you are great? Didn't you laugh at me for being divorced by the White family? Now I am not only close to Fredmen Willson, who is more capable, but also the director of the Willson Group! Even grandma treats me respectfully, What are you compare to me!

Thinking of this, she immediately thought that Claire, now that she started her own business and set up a studio, should also participate in this kind of industry summit, right? She wonders if she is here yet? !

So she immediately stood on tiptoe and looked out of the crowd, trying to find Claire's figure.

really! An extremely beautiful figure jumped into her eyes!

It is Claire!

And next to Claire was Charlie's d*mn rubbish and stinky silk presence!

Wendy gritted her teeth bitterly at this moment.

Claire, today I am going to take back all the humiliation you gave me before, included with all the benefits!

Thinking of this, she immediately took a handful of Fredmen Willson by her side and said, "My cousin and her Rubbish husband are also here, let's go and say hello to them!"

Fredmen Willson nodded and said dozingly: "Wendy, the two of them insulted you so much before, today I will make them pay for that with double the price!"

Wendy was so moved, she blurted out: "Fredmen, you are so kind to me..."

Fredmen Willson smiled slightly: "I treat you well, isn't this a matter of course?"

After speaking, he sneered and said, "Where is your cousin and that stinky rag? Take me to meet them. I will teach them how to behave today. By the way, let the entire Nanguang Chamber of Commerce block them. The woman who bullied Fredmen Willson's girl, I think she is living impatiently!"

Chapter 347

Thinking of finally having a chance to avenge Claire and Charlie, Wendy held Fredmen Willson with excitement and walked towards them.

As soon as the person came to the front, Wendy said proudly: "Oh, who is here! It turned out to be a woman who was evicted from the house, and a son-in-law who came to the house, you are even qualified to participate in such a summit?"

After that, she looked at Claire up and down again, and snorted coldly: "Claire, your studio has just opened, and now you don't even have a single employee? Is this kind of silk hanging company eligible to participate in industry summits? I think the Emgrand Group is really blind!"

Seeing that Wendy had come here, Charlie asked in a cold voice, "Wendy, the other day you knelt on your knees and begged for mercy and was slapped by your grandma, did you forget it? I think your scars are all right. Forget the pain! "

When Wendy heard Charlie say the angriest point in her heart, she immediately furious, and shouted: "Charlie, how rarely do you pretend to be here with me! Do you think I am the same Wendy before? I tell you, today if you are with me to speak, you have to kneel and speak!"

Charlie said disdainfully: "Under the world, the person who can make me kneel down hasn't been born yet! Even if the king of heaven comes, I don't want to kneel, are you living enough?"

Wendy yelled contemptuously: "Charlie, do you think it's great for you to fool a few big people? Can you trample our Willson family under your feet? I tell you! The Willson family is not what it used to be!"

Charlie smiled and asked, "What? Did you hold your thighs?"

Wendy pointed to Fredmen Willson, and the villain said with a great ambition: "This is the chairman of the Future Company Group, Fredmen Willson, Fredmen Willson! He is a member of our Willson family! Now he is also an investor in our Willson Group! He will support us, you are a waste, dare to be arrogant here? Believe it or not, Claire's studio will be completely blocked! At the same time, let you have no place to stand in Aurous Hill?!"

After that, she looked at Claire viciously again, and shouted coldly: "Claire, don't you think you are awesome? Don't you think that the Emgrand Group can help you block the Willson Group?"

"I'm telling you, starting today, Fate has taken turns! With Chairman Willson here, the Willson Group will not be blocked, but will fly into the sky!!"

"And you! Claire! You will be completely banned in Aurous Hill! You will have nothing! At that time, I must ask you to kneel in front of my grandma and me and kowtow for mercy!!!"

Faced with a series of arrogant performances by Wendy, Claire said indifferently: "Don't worry, although I am a person who has no abilities, but I am stronger than you, you will kneel down and beg me for money, but I will not kneel down and beg you!"

Wendy did not expect that when she threatened Claire herself, she was not afraid at all!

Claire's tough attitude made her even more angry!

She scolded angrily: "Claire, you are still arrogant when you die! Okay! Wait to see how Chairman Willson let your family fall into the street!"

Charlie looked at Fredmen Willson next to Wendy, and asked with a smile: "Listen to what this means, you want to be the first for the Willson family?"

At this time, Fredmen Willson stared at Claire with straight eyes.

Wendy was originally a great beauty, but he didn't expect that Claire would be much more beautiful than Wendy. For a while, he was so emotional, he was a little temporarily absent.

Moreover, he was also a little unhappy at this moment.

For Wendy, who is far less attractive than Claire, he has already spent 15 million!

Among them, 10 million was invested in the Willson Group and 5 million given for Wendy's spending.

But he didn't expect that Charlie, a waste-to-door son-in-law, would have such a blessing to be together with a woman like Claire, it is simply more than annoying!

Chapter 348

So he also looked at Charlie up and down, sneered, and said, "You're the son-in-law that Rubbish live-in?"

Charlie said indifferently: "It's me, what can you advise?"

Fredmen Willson said coldly: "I heard that you have insulted Wendy before, and I will slowly settle these accounts with you for Wendy!"

Charlie nodded and said disdainfully: "It's better to hit the sun if you choose a day. If you want to count it, just do it now."

Fredmen Willson thought that revealing his identity and saying a few ruthless words would be enough to make Charlie kneel and beg for mercy, but he did not expect that a mere Rubbish would dare to talk to him like this! he was humiliated for a while, so he gritted his teeth and said, "Boy, you seem to be very arrogant? Do you know who I am, Fredmen Willson?"

Charlie smirked and said, "You don't deserve to let me know a Rubbish like you."

Fredmen Willson was furious and said, "Although I am not from Aurous Hill, Fredmen Willson, with my strength, is the dragon crossing the river in Aurous Hill! You are the first to talk to me like this!"

Charlie put away his cynical smile, staring at Fredmen Willson with frosty eyes, and said word by word: "In Aurous Hill, you have to lie down for me if you are a tiger! If you are a dragon, you have to hold it for me! Because of the whole Aurous Hill, only I, Charlie, is a real dragon!"

Fredmen Willson was taken aback by Charlie's sharp eyes, but immediately recovered and forced himself to calm down a bit. Then he sneered, "Wendy is right, you are really stinky silk! Just relying on you, really a dragon? You really laughed off Mr.'s big teeth. In my eyes, you are not as good as a bug!"

After finishing speaking, he deliberately looked at Claire and said with a wretched smile: "Miss Claire, I have long heard of you being beautiful and moving. When I saw you today, you really deserved it. You will never have such a rag in your life. Future prospects, it is better to follow me, I will not treat you badly!"

Then, he pointed to Wendy and said to Claire: "Wendy followed me, and I gave her 5 million pocket money. If you follow me, I will give you 10 million!"

Claire angrily said, "You are shameless!"

Fredmen Willson laughed and said, "Although I'm a little shameless, the kung fu in bed is still very strong. You are sure that you will fall in love with me completely after you try it once!"

Charlie couldn't bear it at this time, and suddenly punched him in the face without mercy!

boom!

Fredmen Willson's entire face collapsed instantly by this punch!

His nose is shattered and broken! The four front teeth were also interrupted by a punch!

All of a sudden, the attention of the entire venue was focused here.

No one thought that someone would dare to beat Fredmen Willson!

This person is not only the chairman of the Future Company Group but also the chairman of the Nanguang Chamber of Commerce. He has an extremely high status and extraordinary strength. Who would dare to beat him? Is it because life is not long enough? !

At this moment, Fredmen Willson slumped on the ground with blood on his face, pointing at Charlie and shouting in pain and anger: "Smelly pauper, how dare you hit me?! I want to kill you!"

Charlie said coldly: "Not only will I beat you, but I will also abolish you!"

After speaking, Charlie stepped his foot in front of his crotch and sneered: "Chairman Willson, don't you like playing with women? From now on, you can completely say goodbye to women!"

Chapter 349

Fredmen Willson thought that Charlie was going to trample on his roots, and his face was pale and frightened!

Even though he still feels that Charlie is a stinky cock who can kill himself by hooking, but right now, if Charlie really stepped on it, he would be completely useless!

Turning his head, even if he cuts Charlie a thousand knives, what's the use? The roots will still become a puddle of mud!

As a man, especially a man who is rich and does not lack women, he must not lose his roots anyway! How is this different from taking your own life? !

So he hurriedly begged for mercy: "Brother Wade! Brother Wade! If you have something to say, you can say it!"

Charlie hung his toes and asked with a smile: "Why? Afraid?"

With a cold sweat on his face, Fredmen Willson nodded and said, "I was wrong! I was really wrong! Please, your lord, ignore the villain's faults, and spare me this time!"

What Fredmen Willson thinks is that a big man can bend and stretch, first admit that he can keep his roots, and then find someone to come and kill Charlie directly in return for today's deep hatred.

Charlie doesn't know what he's thinking. At this time, he is just like a cat playing with a mouse. He smiled and said, "Okay, since you beg me to forgive you, then call me Dad to listen. ."

The people at the scene were scared and stupid!

Is this guy too cruel? !

Let Chairman Fredmen Willsonxiao call him a young father? !

Is he tired of living? What is he? !

Fredmen Willson's face was also a little uncontrollable at this time.

With so many people watching, let him be called father? His age is more than enough to be his father!

If he really called his father today, wouldn't it be laughed at by thousands of people? !

However, right now his life root is controlled by Charlie, no matter how big the background is, it is far from being able to quench his thirst.

Just when he didn't know what choice to make, Charlie smiled and said, "Oh, I didn't expect Chairman Willson to be so kind, okay! In this case, then I will fulfill you! In my heart and your life roots Say goodbye!"

After all, lift his foot and step on it!

Fredmen Willson's frightened soul dissipated, and he wetted his crotch, and a large puddle of yellow liquid leaked under his butt. He cried and said, "Dad! I'm wrong, father! Please spare the roots under your feet!"

After saying this, Fredmen Willson wept bitterly.

What a mistake! Why didn't he bring the bodyguard in?

If the bodyguards followed up, how could he be so humiliated by Charlie! He vomited blood early and let him call himself father!

At this moment, deep in his heart, he already wanted to take Charlie off!

And his dad immediately caused countless people's exclamation at the venue!

The chairman of the Future Company Group, was beaten by a young man and peed his pants. He still called him father? This is simply too shocking!

Seeing this, Wendy shouted at Charlie angrily: "Charlie! Even Fredmen Willson, dare to move, this time you are over! You are dead!"

Fredmen Willson also felt ashamed and indignant. He looked at Charlie and asked, "Are you satisfied now? Can you let me go?"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Okay! Since Fredmen Willson can bend and stretch and call me father obediently, then, of course, I have to fulfill my promise and will never step on your roots!"

Fredmen Willson finally breathed a sigh of relief.

But in the next second, Charlie sneered and said, "But well, your roots will definitely be useless in the future. I think, instead of letting you stare at a mound of rotten meat every day in the future, it is better to let you stare. An intact but unusable root of grief is more interesting!"

Chapter 350

Fredmen Willson didn't understand, and subconsciously asked, "What do you mean!"

Charlie smiled and said: "It's okay, I won't step on your roots, but I will abolish it!"

After speaking, Charlie tapped his toes gently on his lower abdomen, and a breath of real energy flowed out along the toes.

Since having the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, he has grasped the desire to control true qi. This trace of true qi has directly cut off Fredmen Willson's nerves, making it impossible for him to exert any male power.

However, Fredmen Willson didn't know what Charlie meant when he gently tapped on himself.

He also couldn't notice at this time that he had lost the ability of a man. In the future, he could only look at an undamaged root, and then beat his chest against the unusable thing.

Right now, he was just extremely angry and terrified, eager to flee here, and then brought in the bodyguards outside, directly beat Charlie half to death, and then crushed his roots!

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and asked: "Can I go?"

Charlie asked back: "Who are you asking?"

Fredmen Willson said angrily: "Of course I am asking you!"

Charlie asked again: "Then who am I?"

Fredmen Willson's face suddenly became extremely ugly. He was a smart man. He knew what Charlie meant. He wanted to call him father again!

d*mn, this humiliation, I can't bear it!

So he said angrily: "Charlie! Don't go too far! Just now you said that as long as I call you Dad, you will spare me. Why are you turning back?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Because I am shameless"

After speaking, Charlie stared at him and said coldly: "If you don't bark now, then I might have stepped on it accidentally. In that case, don't blame me!"

Fredmen Willson was completely scared, gritted his teeth, and said, "Okay! My name is!"

In his opinion, since he has already yelled once, his face has been lost, and it doesn't matter if he yells again. The key is how to let Charlie temporarily let him go and give himself a chance to go out and call someone!

So he pleaded again: "Dad, please let me go."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction: "My dear son is so good, okay, dad forgives you this time, get out of here!"

Upon hearing this, Fredmen Willson hurriedly rushed out of the distance and ran out with Wendy.

Fredmen Willson's urine dragged a long way on the smooth floor because he had urinated his pants before, looking very disgusting.

When everyone saw his embarrassed appearance, they couldn't help but laugh. Fredmen Willson heard these ridicules and felt like he was repeatedly delayed by a knife. He fell a dog and gnawed sh!t.

There was a burst of laughter at the scene, and Wendy hurriedly tried her best to pull Fredmen Willson up, and the two of them ran out in a hurry.

Claire said with some worry at this time: "Charlie, this Fredmen Willson is very powerful. If you provoke him so much, what will he do if he retaliates against you in the future?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Wife, didn't I just say it? He is lying for me by the tiger, and the dragon is holding it for me. There is no chance for him to be arrogant in this one-third of Aurous Hill!"

Claire said with concern: "I know you have some friendship with some local big people, but that is not stable after all! What if they don't help you, what do you do?"

Charlie patted her shoulder gently and said, "My wife, you can doubt the world, but you must not doubt your husband!"

Claire was suddenly startled when she saw his confident face.

She found that she actually saw the domineering arrogance of the world from the face of this Rubbish husband

Chapter 351

Just as Claire felt that Charlie had undergone tremendous changes, Fredmen Willson, who had escaped from the venue, returned with his four bodyguards aggressively!

These four bodyguards are the four most capable of playing under his hand, and their strength is extraordinary.

In his opinion, with these four people, it was so easy to kill Charlie!

However, he was not prepared to kill Charlie in the crowd.

He thought, first in the crowd, forcing Charlie to call himself grandfather! Get the face he lost just now, and then destroy Charlie's roots!

After that waiting for today, looking for another opportunity to kill Charlie!

The previous is just asking for some interest, and only by killing Charlie, in the end, can he relieve his hatred!

After all, he has lived for more than fifty years and has never been as embarrassed as he is today!

After rushing into the venue with his bodyguards, Fredmen Willson pointed at Charlie and shouted: "Whoever crushed his thing to me, I will give him one million!"

One million is a huge sum of money for the bodyguards, and the four bodyguards rushed towards Charlie at the same time!

Claire saw the four strong men madly rushing towards Charlie, she screamed in fright and wanted to pull Charlie away.

But Charlie stood still, motionless.

escape? move from here!

How could the dignified young master of Wade family be scared away by this kind of battle?

Scared? Not even there!

Not to mention that I am the young master of Wade family, just with the Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets, these three-legged cat Kung Fu bodyguards cannot be his opponents!

The four bodyguards looked at Charlie at this time, completely treating him as a bundle of banknotes! They were afraid that they could not get it, so they rushed to him desperately.

Charlie smiled and locked his eyes on the movements of the four at the same time, just waiting for them to rush to the front, and directly destroy them all!

A bodyguard who had practiced sprinting quickly took the lead. He grinned and said to Charlie: "Smelly boy! Dare to provoke Fredmen Willson, I will kill you!"

As soon as the voice fell, people had already arrived in front of Charlie.

Just when everyone thought that Charlie was bound to face a severe beating, Charlie suddenly jumped on the spot and kicked the man's chest fiercely.

Boom!

The bodyguard with a height of 1.9 meters turned into a human shell and flew out!

His 14 ribs were kicked and broken by Charlie!

There are only twenty-four ribs in total, Charlie kicked most of them with one kick!

When he flew out upside down, there was still a spurt of blood in his mouth, which looked miserable.

And the three people behind were suddenly caught!

Originally, he was following the opponent and rushed forward, for fear that he would not be the first to make a million.

As a result, he didn't expect this person to suddenly become a powerful human cannonball, directly hitting the three of them, and instantly knocking them to the ground!

"Huh!"

The scene exclaimed!

No one thought that Charlie would have such a powerful force with a kick!

A woman next to him exclaimed, "This! This is impossible!"

Charlie glanced at her and sneered: "Impossible? Even if there are tens of them, they don't deserve to be compared with me!"

Charlie is not arrogantly bragging!

Although martial artists are very strong, he has not exceeded the scope of an ordinary person.

And he has the Nine Profound Sky Secrets by his body, and the body has been strengthened by an aura, no matter how strong an ordinary person is, he can never be compared with Charlie!

At this time, of the four bodyguards, the one who was kicked first had passed out.

The remaining three were also smashed to the ground, fractured all over their bodies, lying on the ground wailing.

Chapter 352

The eyes that looked at Charlie were also full of horror!

Why is this guy so scary? ! Before the three of them actually fought him, they were hit by this person and they lost their combat effectiveness? ! This is simply a god!

Charlie stepped up to the three of them, stared at them with two cold lights, and said coldly: "I like being a dog for others so much, then they will all crawl on the ground!"

After speaking, he stepped on the right leg of one of them!

Click!

The kneecap of the right leg was crushed

Immediately afterward, he raised his foot again, and the opponent's left leg was not let go!

Seeing this, the other two trembled in shock!

Immediately, the two cried and begged Charlie for mercy.

Charlie said coldly: "You gangsters are more cruel than anyone when they hurt people, and more cowardly than anyone when they hurt you. I let you go today, and when you face the weak in the future, you will definitely be This vicious face! I abolished you for the sake of the people!"

After all, don't care about the other party's crying and wailing at all, going up is four feet!

Click! Click! Click! Click!

In the world, there have been three more useless people who can no longer stand up!

The scene was frightened by Charlie's brutal methods.

Fredmen Willson and Wendy who followed were also frightened!

Fredmen Willson never dreamed that Charlie would be so ruthless and so strong!

His four bodyguards, one face-to-face effort, were all gone! Completely scrapped!

They are all master fighters! One of them was the national champion of fighting in previous years!

Fredmen Willson's frightened legs swung straight, and the place where he was wet before felt cold.

He turned around silently, stepping to escape.

Whatever you say, you can no longer fall into Charlie's hands

At this time, someone suddenly said: "You old dog, you want to slip if you provoke Mr. Wade?!"

Immediately after the crowd separated, Orvel walked in with a few brawny men in black, with a sneer, directly stopped in front of Fredmen Willson.

Fredmen Willson looked at him in a panic and asked, "Who are you?"

Snapped!

His response was a resounding slap in the face.

Five fingerprints appeared on Fredmen Willson's face, and he furiously said, "Do you dare to hit me? I am the president of the Nanguang Chamber of Commerce!"

Snapped!

Orvel didn't show any mercy and slapped his face again.

"Guild leader? You're fighting the chairman! If you dare to be disrespectful to Mr. Charlie, you will die!"

Fredmen Willson was angry and frightened, and hurriedly said: "Misunderstanding! Misunderstanding! between me and Mr. Charlie, it is just a misunderstanding! I'm leaving now, I'm leaving now!"

"Want to go?!" Orvel smiled contemptuously and said, "Have you asked Mr. Wade?"

Fredmen Willson hurriedly turned his head, looked at Charlie, and pleaded tremblingly: "Charlie, Mr. Charlie, it was a misunderstanding just now. These four guys troubled you, and I can't stop them. They are here now, facing the end they deserved, please let me go"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Okay, I can let you go, after all, I let you go just now."

Having said that, Charlie looked at him and said playfully: "However, what should you do, don't I need to teach you anymore?"

Fredmen Willson was afraid that Charlie would abolish him like a bodyguard, so he knelt on the ground with a plop, crying in tears and begged: "Dad, I beg you, my lord, have a lot, so please spare your son this time!"

Orvel was stunned and blurted out: "f*ck it! You really are so conscious!"

Fredmen Willson smiled bitterly and said, "I'll tell you, I'm already skilled in business."

Chapter 353

There was a sneer around.

This Fredmen Willson is really unseeded!

At this moment, he called Charlie's father three times!

What the h*ll is the famous chairman of Future Company Group?

However, how can Fredmen Willson take care of it now?

He knows that a man must be able to bend and stretch.

To be alive, you must first have fate before you can have a seed, right?

Life is gone, does he want to plant an egg?

Therefore, he hurriedly licked his face and said to Charlie: "Dad, please raise your hand and spare me this time. I will be grateful to Dade and Dad forever!"

Charlie waved his hand and said with a smile: "It's okay to call Dad just now, but it doesn't work now."

Fredmen Willson was startled, thinking that Charlie was going to kill him, and kowtow hurriedly crying: "Dad, I'm really wrong Dad! Please, for the sake of my age, please spare me this time."

Charlie glanced at Wendy, who was already scared next to him, and said lightly: "Wendy, your patrons are already kneeling, why are you still standing?"

Wendy was taken aback, and said in a panic: "What do you mean?"

Fredmen Willson hurriedly stretched out his hand and violently pulled her to the ground, causing her to kneel in front of Charlie, and whispered: "You let the dog eat your brain? Don't you know you want to kneel and talk to father?"

No way, Fredmen Willson's desire to survive at this moment is too strong, face, dignity, face, and so on are completely unimportant.

Wendy knelt on the ground and did not dare to move or talk nonsense. Fredmen Willson then said to Charlie: "Dad, are you satisfied this time?"

Charlie shook his head: "Not satisfied."

Fredmen Willson trembled and asked: "Then how can you be satisfied?!"

Charlie smiled playfully and said, "Call me Grandpa loudly. If the call is good, I can consider letting you go."

Fredmen Willson's heart wants to die.

Today, he has a brain problem. He had to fight against this Charlie, not only did he not take advantage of it, but it was bad luck!

Beaten, knelt, kowtowed, called dad, peed pants

Now, let him call his grandpa.

It's shameful to throw it at grandma's house

Seeing him hesitate, Charlie asked coldly, "What? You don't want to?"

Fredmen Willson trembled and said hurriedly: "Yes, I do!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately knocked his head and cried: "Grandpa! I was really wrong, please forgive me!"

Charlie frowned and asked him: "Who am I?"

Fredmen Willson said with tears: "You are my grandfather!"

Charlie asked again: "Then who are you?"

Fredmen Willson cried and choked, "I am your grandson"

Charlie gave a hum, nodded, and said, "Okay, I am so young, and I am also a grandfather. If this is the case, then I will spare your life."

Fredmen Willson finally breathed a sigh of relief, kowtow again and again, and got up to leave.

"Wait a minute!" Charlie stopped him: "Just leave like that? Without asking?"

Chapter 354

Fredmen Willson endured the humiliation and anger in his heart, and respectfully said to Charlie: "Grandpa, can I go now?"

Charlie patted his face and said lightly: "You can go, my dear grandson!"

Fredmen Willson shed tears of humiliation, then turned around and walked out tremblingly.

Wendy didn't dare to delay and immediately followed out.

When the two of them left, they were afraid that Charlie would stop them trouble them again, but Charlie had no interest in talking to them.

Fredmen Willson's lifeblood has lost his power, and for the rest of his life, he will be trapped in extreme pain and unable to extricate himself!

After the two went out, Mr. Orvel hurriedly stepped forward to salute Charlie and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I was late. It is my fault to let you waste your tongue and hands with this bunch of garbage yourself. Please punish me."

Charlie waved his hand, not caring about these, but asked: "Why are you here? Isn't this a summit of the construction and decoration industry? Are you still in the decoration business?"

"Yes!" Orvel smiled and replied, "Most of the cement yellow sand used in Aurous Hill decoration is controlled by me. Speaking of which, I am also a big middleman in the decoration industry, so they also invited me as well."

Charlie knows that in the decoration industry, there are plenty of dealers, which are all gray industries. Orvel is mixed with society. It is normal to do some gray industries for him.

So he nodded and said, "You, don't do anything harmful to the world and don't bully ordinary people."

Orvel hurriedly said: "I follow Mr. Charlie's teachings, I have already started to cleanse, how can I dare to do those harmful things again"

Charlie grumbled with satisfaction.

Orvel pointed to Fredmen Willson's four deposed bodyguards and asked: "Mr. Wade, what about these four people?"

Charlie said, "Take the legs of the fainted guy and throw them away so that it won't affect my mood!"

Orvel nodded immediately, and instructed the people around him: "Don't you follow Mr. Wade's instructions?"

Everyone hurriedly bowed, "We will follow Mr. Wade's arrangement!"

After finishing speaking, the knee of the person who passed out first was also abolished, and then they dragged four dead dogs and took them straight out.

Fredmen Willson could only drive by himself and drove Wendy to the hospital for treatment of her facial injuries, and then drove back to Willson's villa.

In the car, Fredmen Willson was in pain all over, and his heart was full of extreme indignation.

Wendy gritted her teeth and said in hatred: "My dear! Charlie, this Rubbish, even dared to beat you. He is looking for death! You must not let this beast go!"

Fredmen Willson's face was dark, with cold eyes, gritted his teeth and said angrily: "Don't worry, I will kill him! Not only will I kill him, but I will also take his skin off! I'm so big! No one has dared to do this to me!"

Wendy was overjoyed, her disgust towards Charlie had already reached a peak, and now Fredmen Willson had a murderous intention on him, and he would not live long if she wanted to.

Wendy said coldly: "My dear when you do it, you must remember to take me. I will torture him severely. I will watch this rubbish kneel and beg for mercy with my own eyes!"

Fredmen Willson slammed a fist on the back of the seat, and said angrily: "I will definitely thwart this waste!"

"Great!"

Wendy knew that Fredmen Willson's family had a lot of clout, and it would be so easy to kill Charlie.

The reason why he met this fate today was mainly that the manpower he brought was not enough. If he had brought dozens of people over next time, would Charlie still survive?

By then, Charlie will undoubtedly die!

Thinking of this, she had already experienced a burst of excitement in advance of revenge!

She couldn't help but looked at Fredmen Willson, and said delicately: "My dear, this Charlie will be killed by you sooner or later, so you don't need to be too angry now, lest you hurt your body."

After speaking, she immediately gave a wink and said in a numb voice: "When we go home, I will take care of you."

Chapter 355

Fredmen Willson did hold back the evil fire, and he needed Wendy to help to vent, otherwise, he would have to hold back the sickness!

Therefore, immediately after returning to Willson's house, Fredmen Willson couldn't wait and pulled Wendy to go upstairs.

Noah Willson and Horiyah in the living room were embarrassed on their faces when they saw the two come in and went straight upstairs without saying hello.

Seeing that the two were rushing upstairs, the Old Mrs. Willson coughed and said: "Wendy can keep up with Chairman Willson, that is her blessing, you two should not think about it."

Noah Willson nodded awkwardly, and said, "Mom, I didn't think about it, but I felt a little awkward."

Old Mrs. Willson said disdainfully: "What's so awkward about this? Isn't it enough if you have money? The five million that Chairman Willson gave to Wendy, is it now in your hands?"

Noah Willson nodded and said, "Yes, mom, in my hands."

The Old Mrs. Willson said earnestly: "If Wendy and Chairman Willson have a better relationship, let alone five million, what does it count as fifty million? At that time, will all this money go into your pocket?"

Upon hearing this, Noah Willson felt much better.

The reason why he promised his daughter to be together with Fredmen Willson was simply because of the money.

Fredmen Willson invested 10 million in the Willson Group and gave another 5 million to Wendy. This is a big deal, and this is just the beginning. Over time, he will definitely invest more money in the group.

Thinking of this, Fredmen Willson immediately disappeared from the previous embarrassment and took his wife Horiyah back to his room on the first floor.

As soon as he entered the house, he said anxiously: "My wife, the flat floor that we saw at Tomson last time, the down payment is five or six million, and we can also make up the first payment, but the decoration inside, I can't handle it, but now that Fredmen

Willson has given Wendy the five million, we add the money and there is no pressure to buy the big flat!"

Horiyah was overjoyed at first and soon said with a gloomy expression: "I don't want to live on the first-class floor of Tomson. Jacob's family and the Rubbish Charlie live in the villa area inside. I will live outside of them, stand guard for them, let them laugh at me? I won't go!"

Fredmen Willson said: "In this way, we are now in the early ten million, and we will talk to Wendy tomorrow, let her blow the pillow breeze in the ears of Chairman Willson, and see if we can let Chairman Willson sponsor us millions more At that time, we will buy a villa with a down payment!"

Although Tomson's villas cost hundreds of millions at every turn, the prices of other villas in Aurous Hill are not too high.

A villa with a detached house, normally only 20 to 30 million, with a down payment of 40, the money on hand is enough.

However, decorating the villa is also a huge expense. At least three to five million must be prepared for decoration, so Noah Willson and his wife cannot afford it.

However, if Fredmen Willson can sponsor a little, wouldn't it be easy to solve?

Horiyah couldn't help getting excited and said, "You said, can Fredmen Willson give us some subsidies?"

Noah Willson smiled and said: "With the face of our family Wendy, I have to show him no matter what, I think he still likes our Wendy."

Horiyah nodded, her expression full of joy, and the interface said: "Actually, it's really good for Wendy to follow Fredmen Willson. At least he can't lose money. Chairman Willson is much brighter than Gerald's kid. Wendy has been with Gerald for so many years and even had a baby for him. He didn't say to give Wendy millions of pocket money!"

Noah Willson nodded repeatedly and said seriously: "That's what I said! The family surnamed White is not a good thing!"

Horiyah waved her hand: "Forget it, let's not talk about the one that suffered thousands of swords. They will be thundered and killed every day, so let's talk about the house. There are quite a lot of Aurous Hill villas, let's drive tomorrow. Take a look?"

"Okay! Then first go to our this other place in Aurous Hill. I heard that the villa is not bad!"

The two of them were thinking about the new house when they suddenly heard a violent noise from upstairs at this time.

Chapter 356

Wendy and Fredmen Willson lived upstairs. The couple looked at each other and hurriedly went out to find out.

At this time, Wendy ran down from upstairs with a crying voice.

Noah Willson saw that there were still five fingerprints on her face, and asked quickly: "Wendy, what's the matter? Did Fredmen Willson hit you?"

Wendy cried and said, "Dad and Mom, he suddenly stopped working. I tried all kinds of methods and he still couldn't work. As a result, he became angry and slapped me."

"It doesn't work?" Noah Willson asked in surprise, "What's wrong? What's the matter?"

Wendy couldn't take care of her clothes anymore, and hurriedly explained: "It's just that it's not working, the man's one, there is no reaction at all!"

"Huh?" Horiyah asked in surprise: "Could it be that he's getting older and not so easy to use?"

Wendy shook her head repeatedly: "No! It was alive and well yesterday! It is suddenly totally unusable today."

Only then did Noah Willson understand why his daughter was slapped in the face.

To be honest, a man who suddenly loses that ability will definitely lose his mind.

As he was thinking, Fredmen Willson hurriedly ran down from upstairs wrapped in his nightgown.

Horiyah hurriedly asked, "Fredmen, what's going on? Why is Wendy not doing well? You can tell her that there is no need to do it, right?"

Fredmen Willson's expression was extremely ugly, and he gritted his teeth and said: "Don't you f*cking bullshit, hurry up and drive me to the hospital!"

Noah Willson was slightly dissatisfied with Fredmen Willson's attitude. Just thinking about the theory, the Lady Willson also came over and said with a black face: "Noah! What are you doing in a daze? Fredmen Willson's body is the most important thing! Go and drive!"

Seeing that the Lady Willson had come out to give orders, Noah Willson didn't dare to talk more, let alone delay, so he quickly picked up the car key and took Fredmen Willson to the hospital.

On the way to the hospital, Fredmen Willson's expression was so ugly, and he hated Charlie to death at this time!

He finally understands what Charlie said before!

Stepping on this into a lump of rotten meat, it is better to make himself look at the unusable roots uncomfortable.

Knew it!

This b@stard didn't know what method he used, so quietly, he was deprived of all the ability to be a man!

How did he do it? He obviously didn't do any harm to his roots!

Why suddenly he can't use it? !

He has been paying great attention to this aspect of maintenance for so many years. There are millions spent on kidney and qi every year. It has always been said to be a livelihood, even more than a young man in his twenties. Nothing less!

What did Charlie do to him?

The more Fredmen Willson thought about it, the more panicked he always felt that Charlie seemed strange!

It's okay if this problem can be cured, but if it can't be cured, what's the point of paying it back by yourself? !

Chapter 357

People's Hospital.

Because it was already night, after Noah Willson brought Fredmen Willson to the hospital, he could only hang up an emergency number.

After waiting in line for dozens of minutes, after meeting the doctor, the doctor asked, "Where is it?"

Fredmen Willson sent out Noah Willson, and said to the doctor himself: "Doctor, it seems to be dying all of a sudden, you help me find out what is going on."

"the instrument?!" The doctor was dumbfounded and said: "This is an andrological disease, and it is not in the emergency department. You should come over tomorrow morning and directly call the andrology doctor to check it for you. We at the emergency department are mainly responsible for headaches, brain fever, accidental injuries, or sudden illnesses."

Fredmen Willson said angrily: "Doctor is this a sudden illness! Can't you come to see it?!"

The doctor said embarrassingly: "I have been in the emergency for so many years, and I have never heard of sudden dysfunction. This thing has a process. It works well at first, then gradually becomes less useful, and then it becomes worse and worse. It's not easy to use, and then it won't work."

Fredmen Willson didn't expect that he would describe it to him in such a detailed manner. He suddenly became angry and scolded: "Are you sick? I asked you to arrange an examination for me. How can you tell me this?"

The doctor was also annoyed and blurted out: "What's the matter with you? I told you that your illness is not under our emergency care. If you mess around here, I will let the security guard clear you out!"

"You" Fredmen Willson gritted his teeth angrily. After a while, he pointed to the computer in front of him, and said coldly: "Hey Cortana, look at Future Company Group!"

The doctor frowned, "What?"

Fredmen Willson shouted coldly: "I want you to Google Future Company Group!"

The doctor was stunned by his attitude, and subconsciously opened the browser and searched for the Future Company Group.

After opening the encyclopedia of Future Company Group, he saw the head of the chairman Fredmen Willson.

This, isn't this the Chair of the Commerce committee in front of you?

d*mn it! Turned out to be a big man

The doctor hurriedly said respectfully: "Oh, Chairman Willson, I didn't know if you are coming, don't be angry."

As he said, he hurriedly said: "Well, please describe to me the course of the illness. I will see if I can arrange for a resident to help you go through the back door to check it."

Fredmen Willson's face looked a little better now, and he said, "I didn't have any history of this illness. I was fine yesterday, but I suddenly cannot use it today."

The doctor asked curiously: "Is it useless at all?"

"Yes!" Fredmen Willson said with a black face, "It's useless at all!"

The doctor said: "Then this may have something to do with the nervous system. So, Mr. Willson, I will arrange for a neurologist to do an examination for you. What do you think?"

Fredmen Willson waved his hand: "Hurry up!"

The doctor did not dare to neglect him, so he hurried to call the doctor in the inpatient department to help arrange the test.

After all, it's already night. The outpatient doctors have long since returned home after getting off work. Only the inpatient department has night shift doctors on duty.

Coincidentally, the doctor on duty in the inpatient department happened to be the attending doctor when Charlie's old-in-law Jacob suffered a spinal injury a few days ago.

The attending doctor performed a series of examinations on Fredmen Willson and looked at the results of various examinations with a grim expression.

Fredmen Willson was lying on the examination bed in a panic.

He can't feel that piece at all now, he feels that the place has disappeared, let alone use it again.

He had no choice but to use this mouthful in his life. If he couldn't use it anymore, he might as well die.

Chapter 358

Seeing that the doctor looked serious at this time, Fredmen Willson asked quickly: "Doctor, how is my condition?"

The attending doctor shook his head helplessly and said, "Fredmen Willson, your problem may not be cured, because through our equipment, your nerves have been completely necrotic and there is no cure.

"Is your hospital not good enough?"

Noah Willson on the side answered and asked.

The attending doctor glanced at him contemptuously and said: "With the current medical methods, the damaged nerves can be slowly recovered, but the necrotic nerves cannot be brought back to life. It is like encountering a car accident. Some people can stand up slowly, some people will never stand up for a lifetime."

As he said, he looked at Fredmen Willson again, and said seriously: "This situation is the same no matter where you go, even if it is abroad, it cannot be cured."

"How could this be!!!"

Fredmen Willson's face was pale and desperate, and he blurted out: "What I have is money! Can one hundred million do? Can one hundred million cure my roots?!"

The attending doctor said seriously: "Nerves are like human life. Even if you are dying, you have a chance to be saved. But if you die, you are really dead. No one can get you back to life."

After that, he said again: "Don't say one billion, ten billion won't save a mortal person. Look at Apple's Jobs, how rich he was? Didn't he die when he was in his fifties?"

As soon as he heard this, Fredmen Willson's heart felt like a thunder strike.

Can't heal? !

Is it really bad? !

Isn't it because he has made so much money to be able to live a fairy life in the amusement world?

If the roots are abolished, what is the meaning of his life?

Thinking of this, Fredmen Willson, a well-known business tycoon, even covered his face burst into tears, and wept.

Seeing this scene, Noah Willson beside him felt a fever in his eyes and almost burst into tears.

Being a man, he can understand Fredmen Willson's pain at this moment too much.

At the same time, he couldn't help but tighten his leg roots, thinking that he must protect his roots anyway! A man can't do without roots!

At this moment, the attending doctor suddenly said, "However, Chairman Willson, to be honest with you, someone can cure your disease!"

"What? What you said is true?!" Fredmen Willson suddenly got excited, grabbed the hand of the attending doctor, and tremblingly asked: "Who can cure it? Tell me!"

The attending doctor smiled mysteriously and said, "This person, he is not from our hospital!"

"Then how do you know that he can cure nerve necrosis?! Didn't you just say that nerve necrosis can not be cured?"

The attending doctor said: "It is true that it cannot be cured, but he alone can cure it! For him, he can cure people with high paraplegia and full paralysis from the neck down, not to mention you are just a handful of people. In the case of paralysis, it is estimated that he can easily heal you."

Fredmen Willson was so excited that he blurted out, "Who is he? Where is he? Tell me!"

The attending doctor smiled and said, "Fredmen Willson, it's okay to introduce it to you, but would you also give me some introduction fee?"

Fredmen Willson immediately took out the checkbook, wrote a check for one hundred thousand, and handed it to him, saying: "If the person you introduced can really cure me, I will give you another nine hundred thousand!"

The attending doctor excitedly accepted the check, and then said: "There is a genius doctor in Aurous Hill who cured a patient with high paraplegia a few days ago. This is a miracle in our neurology field! A clinic opened in Aurous Hill. If you ask him to take action, maybe he can really heal you."

When Fredmen Willson heard this, he was shocked for a moment, and asked happily: "The genius doctor you are talking about is Tianqi?"

Chapter 359

"Do you know god doctor Tianqi?" the attending doctor asked strangely.

Fredmen Willson was overjoyed and laughed: "It's more than acquaintance! The genius doctor you said is a family friend with our Willson family! In the beginning the genius doctor, it was thanks to the relief of our family that he could achieve what he is now. In Aurous Hill, this is great!"

Speaking of this, Fredmen Willson jumped up from the hospital bed and said to Noah Willson: "Hurry up with me to visit doctor Tianqi, I am saved!"

Asking for the address of Tianqi Clinic, Noah Willson drove quickly and took Fredmen Willson to Clinic.

As soon as he arrived at the gate of the Clinic, Fredmen Willson got out of the car and ran in impatiently.

Before entering the door, he found a man who drove out a young man on crutches.

The young man limped and pleaded: "Little master, little master, please tell me to the genius doctor Tianqi, and say I beg him to help me heal it. As long as he heals my leg, I will give him five million!"

The pharmacy guy said coldly: "I'm sorry Mr. Gao Junwei, we said that the genius doctor said that you have offended the lifesaver of the genius doctor, so no matter how much money you give, he will not treat you!"

After speaking, he said again: "Mr. Gao Junwei, you have come here every day for the past few days, and it has interfered with our normal business. doctor Tianqi said that if you come back tomorrow, he will call the police!"

The young man on the crutches looked very painful, and begged: "Little master, please have a good word with the genius doctor Tianqi, I am willing to give you a million for the benefit!"

The pharmacy guy pushed him all the way out the door, and said coldly: "Please go, don't come again!"

Noah Willson recognized this young man after going in!

Isn't this Gao Junwei from the Gao family?

It is said that he offended Charlie at the auto show. When Jacob was hospitalized, he was fouled by Charlie, causing Orvel to throw him directly from the ward on the third floor of the hospital and it broke his leg.

So he hurried forward and asked in surprise: "Oh, Mr. Gao Junwei, what's wrong with you?"

"Uncle Willson?" Gao Junwei recognized Noah Willson, sighed, and said, "Don't mention it, didn't I break my leg? I have been suffering from sequelae. The doctor said that I might be lame for the rest of my life, so I hurried to seek help from a genius I was treated, but the genius doctor didn't want to see me at all and drove me out."

Noah Willson was startled, and he blurted out and asked, "Is it because of Charlie that doctor Tianqi is not willing to save you?"

"Yes," Gao Junwei gritted his teeth and cursed: "I didn't expect that even the genius doctor Tianqi would be bewitched by this kind of thief!"

Fredmen Willson asked in surprise: "What's the situation? Uncle Shi also knows that Charlie?"

Noah Willson nodded and said, "It seems that the relationship is pretty good. I don't know what's going on."

Fredmen Willson said coldly: "How can his relationship with Uncle Shi compare to my relationship with Uncle Shi? I know Uncle Shi when I was three years old. This has been more than 50 years!"

After speaking, he walked in with a haughty look.

As soon as he entered the door, he shouted: "Uncle Shi, save me, Uncle Shi!"

The guy inside who just drove Gao Junwei away said: "Sir, we are already closed. If you want to see the doctor, come back tomorrow!"

Fredmen Willson hurriedly said: "I and Uncle Shi are old friends! Our two families are family friends!"

As he was speaking, Tianqi heard the sound and greeted him from inside.

Seeing Fredmen Willson, he asked in surprise: "Fredmen? Why did you come to Aurous Hill?"

Fredmen Willson said: "It's a long story, let alone those, Uncle Shi, I'm sick, you can save me."

Tianqi hurriedly said: "Don't worry, slowly tell me what's going on."

Only then did Fredmen Willson spoke and explained his condition again.

After Tianqi finished listening, he slowly frowned.

Chapter 360

Necrosis?

This is really tricky!

In Chinese and Western medicine, there is no good way to treat it.

If it is really necrotic, basically it can only be scrapped.

So, he hurriedly asked: "How did you do this? It's not easy to see such special nervous necrosis!"

Fredmen Willson didn't want to talk about his embarrassment tonight. He said vaguely: "I don't know what's going on. It's just like that. I went to the People's Hospital just now, where I checked it out and said it was neurological. "

After speaking, he pleaded with a sad face: "Uncle Shi, I was the one you grew up watching. You must help me!"

Tianqi felt very tricky.

This illness is not easy to deal with, even with his medical skills, it can only be said to maintain the status quo so that he will not be necrotic there.

But if you want to cure nerve necrosis and restore function, I'm afraid it's impossible

So he sighed and said, "Fredmen, your problem is very serious. Nervous necrosis is an international medical problem. It can't be cured, and I have no good way."

Fredmen Willson hurriedly asked: "Uncle Shi, I heard from the attending doctor at the People's Hospital that you can cure even the paralysis below the neck. Why can't I be cured with such a slight paralysis?"

Tianqi sighed and said, "To tell you the truth, your disease is either incurable or the cost of treatment is too high."

After speaking, he said again: "I have a magical medicine given by my benefactor in my hand. The effect of this magical medicine is really amazing. You only need to take half a pill and you will get better."

Fredmen Willson was overjoyed and hurriedly pleaded: "Uncle Shi, then you can give me this medicine! You can't just watch me become incompetent!"

Tianqi was also a little embarrassed and said sincerely: "Fredmen, uncle tells you the truth. I originally planned to keep this medicine for my life. As you know, I am old and the doctors will not treat themselves, maybe Someday I am dying and I will rely on this medicine to save my life."

Fredmen Willson hurriedly knelt on the ground and kowtowed his head while begging: "Uncle Shi, you can't die without saving! You can save me this time because of the face of my father and the friendship between our two families for so many years. Right!"

Tianqi hesitated for a moment, struggling inwardly.

After a while, he let out a long sigh and said, "It's fine, I'll give you half of this medicine."

He received the favor of Fredmen Willson's father. Although he has been helping their family members to see a doctor for these years, the kindness has long been reported several times or ten times, but now that Fredmen Willson has suffered this kind of injury, he feels that he can't die. .

Seeing Tianqi finally let go, Fredmen Willson was overjoyed and couldn't help but thank Tianqi.

Tianqi was about to take out half of the magic medicine he had personally cherished but suddenly saw Zhovia rushing in from outside.

Fredmen Willson was in a good mood. He saw the young and beautiful Zhovia running in and said with a smile, "Oh, Zhovia! Do you know Uncle Willson?"

When Zhovia saw him, she was stunned.

Looking at Grandpa Tianqi, he actually took out half of the magic medicine that Mr. Wade gave him.

She felt a little in her heart, and hurriedly walked over, pulled Tianqi aside, and whispered, "Grandpa, what are you doing?"

Tianqi sighed and said: "Your Uncle Willson is injured, I am going to give him this half magical medicine, as it is to pay back the kindness of his Willson family back then."

Zhovia hurriedly said: "You can't help me, grandpa! Let's not say that you have reported the favor of the Willson family thousands of times a long time ago. Just talk about this wretched Fredmen Willson, do you know who he offended today?!"

Tianqi hurriedly asked: "Who did he offend?"

Zhovia blurted out: "Mr. Charlie Wade!"

Chapter 361

After hearing what Zhovia said, Tianqi was dumbfounded in shock!

He was surprised and asked: "You mean, Fredmen offended Mr. Wade?!"

"Yeah!" Zhovia nodded repeatedly, and said, "And the offending seems to be quite terrible. He actually ranted to Mr. Wade's wife and offered Mr. Wade's wife 10 million to sleep with him!"

Tianqi was furious, and this Fredmen Willson was guilty of the bear heart and leopard, dare to provoke Mr. Wade?

Mr. Wade has the kindness to reinvent himself. Compared with him, what is Fredmen Willson worth?

Yes, his father helped him back then, but after so many years of helping this family treat illnesses and saving its people, he has already repaid their favors thousands of times!

What's more, his father is gone, and he doesn't owe him anything.

If he has simply something wrong with himself, he can save him, and of course, it is his duty to save him!

But if he messes with Mr. Wade, then sorry! The enemy of Mr. Wade is his enemy!

Thinking of this, Tianqi darkened his face and stepped to Fredmen Willson's face.

Fredmen Willson couldn't help feeling a little nervous when he saw him coming in with a calm face.

Before he could ask, Tianqi took the lead and asked in a cold tone: "I ask you, did you offend a person named Charlie Wade today?"

Fredmen Willson nodded and said, "Uncle Shi actually knows it too? That smelly rag actually made me embarrassed in public. Sooner or later, I will kill him. He will not be stumbling for a few days. Uncle Shi doesn't have to worry."

Tianqi sneered, pointed outside, and shouted: "Get out of here!"

Fredmen Willson was stunned immediately, and said in surprise: "Uncle Shi, what's the matter?"

Tianqi said in a loud voice: "Don't call me uncle. From now on, I am cutting off from you and your family, and I will have nothing to do with you!"

Fredmen Willson was frightened. With Tianqi here, he and his family could be said to have lost their lives.

After all, making money is easy, but the life extension is difficult!

If he turned his face with Tianqi and returned to the family, it would not be better!

More importantly, if he turns his face with him, wouldn't he give himself the half magic medicine?

What about your own roots?

What about the happiness of the lower body and the second half of life? !

So he asked eagerly: "Uncle Shi, what the h*ll is going on? Did you make a mistake?"

Tianqi snorted coldly, and said, "I tell you! Mr. Wade is not only my savior, but also the only true dragon in the world! If you dare to disrespect Mr. Charlie, it is tantamount to hitting me Tianqi in the face! For your father's face, I won't clean up you today, so let you go! Don't show up in front of me in the future!"

Chapter 362

"Mr. Wade? Real dragon?" Fredmen Willson hurriedly said, "Uncle Shi, you too are you always confused and deceived by that smelly rug? What kind of master or real dragon is he? Isn't he just a son-in-law? a hanging rug? He joined the Willson family, treated me as a guest, and gave me his sister-in-law Wendy to accompany me on the bed. Compared with me, he is a hairy man!"

Speaking of this, Fredmen Willson said again: "Uncle Shi, this kind of smelly rug is worthy of your maintenance, and even the decades of friendship between our two families are ignored?"

"b@stard!" Tianqi was furious when he heard this. He picked up the medicine pestle next to him and slammed Fredmen Willson's head fiercely. He cursed, "You still dare to speak rudely to Mr. Wade! Get out of here! "

Fredmen Willson didn't escape, but Tianqi smashed his forehead with a pill, grinning in pain, and a big bag instantly popped up.

He grinned and stared and cursed: "Mr. Shi, you are so old-eyed! Don't worry about believing that kind of liar, even you dare to beat me! I f*cking kill you!"

After speaking, he raised his chair and was about to smash it towards Tianqi.

Although Tianqi is older, he is also a practitioner. After the old wounds in his body were cured by Charlie's magic medicine, his body was more agile and flexible, which was not comparable to an obese middle-aged person like Fredmen Willson.

As a result, Tianqi dodged dexterously, avoiding the bench that Fredmen Willson smashed over.

Fredmen Willson knocked it down, raised a chair, gritted his teeth, and said: "Surnamed Shi, if you want to survive, you can obediently take out the half of the medicine. Otherwise, I will kill you today!"

"b*stard, do you still want to beat my grandfather? I'll kill you!"

Zhovia was so angry that she rolled up her sleeves and rushed towards him.

The Aurous Hill family who has really studied traditional medicine for many years has also learned martial arts more or less. This is especially true of the Shi family. The Shi family is not only a master of traditional medicine, but also a family of martial arts. Even the granddaughter Zhovia, who is a foreigner, has also practiced good kung fu. It's more than enough.

Before Fredmen Willson recovered, he was kicked to the ground by Zhovia. Then, Zhovia put her cloth shoes against his throat and said coldly: "If you don't roll anymore, don't blame me for being impolite!"

Knowing that he is not Zhovia's opponent, Fredmen Willson hurriedly escaped from Clinic. Before leaving, he would still curse and threaten: "The surname Shi, you will wait for me. Today's hatred, I will definitely find you in the future. Remember me!"

"b@stard thing!" Tianqi angrily scolded: "Get out of here! Never let me see you again!"

Fredmen Willson escaped from the Clinic in embarrassment, his face full of anger.

Seeing Fredmen Willson coming out, Noah Willson hurriedly greeted him and asked, "Fredmen, how is it? Has the genius doctor Tianqi cured you?"

Fredmen Willson gritted his teeth and said bitterly: "This ungrateful old b@stard actually said that Charlie is his benefactor, and he won't heal me for life and death, so he f*cked with me and drove me out!"

Noah Willson didn't expect that Tianqi was also bewitched by Charlie's stinky rag. He couldn't help but sighed: "This Charlie is really lingering!"

Fredmen Willson scolded: "It's all the f*cking waiting for Mr. Wade no matter it is Tianqi or Charlie, there will be no good end! I will definitely make them pay the price of blood!"

Noah Willson also had enough of Charlie's suffering, but he had never had a chance and was unable to seek revenge from Charlie, so he was very depressed and very angry.

Moreover, he was particularly greedy for the Tomson First-Class villa that Solmon White gave to Charlie!

If this Fredmen Willson could really kill Charlie, then the younger brother Jacob's family would have nothing to rely on, and wouldn't he let him kill them then?

In that way, Tomson's villa is his own!

Thinking of this, he resisted the excitement in his heart, and hurriedly echoed: "Fredmen, what you said is very true! That Charlie is an unfamiliar white-eyed wolf! A beast! He who has lived in our Willson family for so many years, Eating from our Willson family, but repeatedly humiliating our family, and now bullying Fredmen, it is simply a heinous sin, and must be paid with death!"

Chapter 363

Fredmen Willson really had a murderous intent on Charlie.

However, he is also very clear in his heart that there are five words that are right: the Raptors are not the same.

In other words, it is difficult for a strong dragon to crush a local snake.

He couldn't kill Charlie at all now.

What's more, this guy's own strength is very strong, and it seems that he should still be a standard trainer.

As the saying goes, the gangster knows martial arts, and no one can control it. If you want to engage with him, you must find a real master, otherwise, it might be useless!

At the moment, the most important thing is to find a way to cure his own disease, otherwise, life will be worse than death in the future!

Thinking of this, Fredmen Willson hated Tianqi's teeth!

This old dog day! He obviously has medicine that can cure him, but he doesn't even use it for on him!

What is even more annoying is that he actually drove him out of his hospital for that Charlie, what a d*mn!

Noah Willson was also worried. If Fredmen Willson's illness cannot be cured, wouldn't his daughter be honorably laid off?

In that way, how can he reach the pinnacle of his life?

The Willson family now only got Fredmen Willson's 10 million investment. Fredmen Willson promised 80 million at the beginning, and 70 million has not been given yet. If he can't find the ability to be a man, then 70 million is definitely not coming their way!

Thinking of this, he was even more anxious than Fredmen Willson, hoping that Fredmen Willson could regain his power.

So he asked with great concern as he drove: "Chairman Willson, this Shi is so ignorant, do you want me to find some people for you, beat him up, and take his medicine?"

Fredmen Willson waved his hand: "This old dog thief is very strong, and his granddaughter is also very unusual. More importantly, the Old Master has seen a lot of big people and really offended him. Maybe it's big trouble."

Tianqi is a master of traditional medicine. In Eastcliff and several other big cities, he has been regarded as a guest by countless big figures and big families. Although Fredmen Willson is also very powerful, he really has to count it. Among the people Tianqi knows, he is even in the top 30. Can't get in.

Therefore, he dared not offend Tianqi rashly.

To cure the disease, they can only find another way.

But at this time, he suddenly remembered something and said to Noah Willson: "I have a friend who owns a pharmaceutical factory in Aurous Hill. It is one of the largest companies in the country. I will contact him tomorrow."

Noah Willson breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "That's really great! I'm really afraid that your body won't recover."

Fredmen Willson said: "Go to the roadside drugstore first and buy me some v!agra to try!"

"Okay!" Noah Willson hurriedly parked his car on the side of the road obediently, got off the car and went to the drugstore on the roadside, and bought Fredmen Willson a large box of imported v!agra.

Fredmen Willson couldn't wait to say: "Go, drive home quickly, let Wendy try it with me!"

Noah Willson was a little embarrassed. He didn't expect that Fredmen Willson would actually ask his daughter to try the medicine in front of him.

However, since this kind of thing has been done, there is no need to care too much about it, so he didn't take it seriously anymore, and drove home quickly.

Chapter 364

Tianqi was still angry.

Two people who asked for their own treatment came tonight, and they all offended Mr. Wade!

That Junwei Gao pretended to be forced with Mr. Wade in the ward that day, and finally failed to pretend to be forced. He was thrown directly out of the window on the third floor by Mr. Orvel and broke his leg. He did not expect that he still had the face to come to seek treatment for himself!

And that Fredmen Willson!

The most hateful is him!

He had offended Mr. Wade before, so he almost gave him the medicine, unaware of the story background!

If he really cured him, wouldn't it mean that he would avenge Mr. Wade En invisible? !

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but sigh with his granddaughter Zhovia: "Zhovia, fortunately, you came in time. If you come late, grandpa would give Fredmen Willson half of the magic medicine!"

Zhovia was also a little scared, and said, "Grandpa, I heard that the reason why Fredmen Willson lost that ability is because of Mr. Wade!"

"That's it!" Tianqi couldn't help exclaiming: "Mr. Wade can destroy his nerves invisibly. This is really a great ability! Even if the best surgeon manually removes the nerves, it can't be so accurate."

Zhovia said: "He deserves it! Who made him offend Mr. Wade!"

After speaking, Zhovia said again: "Grandpa, I think you should make a stand with the entire Willson family. Otherwise, if Mr. Wade knows that we have a relationship with their family and misunderstands you again, that would be bad! "

"Okay!" Tianqi nodded and said, "I will call the sister-in-law of the Willson family and explain the matter to her."

After all, Tianqi took out his mobile phone and called Fredmen Willson's mother, Bihua Willson.

Bihua Willson is eighty-three years old this year. There is a Chinese saying: "Seventy-three, eighty-four, Hades will pick them up." This means that there are two major obstacles for the elderly, which are seven. At the age of thirteen and eighty-four, the elderly are most likely to get sick and die at these two ages.

The reason for such a saying is closely related to the two great saints in ancient China.

Confucius, the sage of Confucius, lived 73 years old

Mencius Meng Yasheng lived eighty-four years old.

The Chinese people have always admired Confucius and Mencius from ancient times to the present. That's why there are two big hurdles of seventy-three and eighty-four.

In Bihua Willson's first hurried year, when he was seventy-three years old, he suffered a serious illness.

At that time, it was Tianqi who rushed all the way to Eastcliff and prescribed nine prescriptions to Bihua Willson before pulling her back from the gate.

Bihua Willson knew in her heart that she was about to reach the second hurdle in her life. This time she was getting older and might be even more dangerous, so she especially hoped that she could invite Tianqi over before her birthday.

So, when she received Tianqi's call, she cordially said: "Tianqi, I was thinking about calling you! Next month is my 84th birthday on the lunar calendar. Will you have time? If so, what do you think of it when you come to the birthday banquet for the Lady Willson?"

Tianqi knew very well that Bihua Willson was going to have a second hurdle year this year. If it weren't for what happened today, the Lady Willson would not need to say that he would go there before her birthday and personally treat her body so that she can be safe. Live to be ninety years old.

But now, Fredmen Willson actually provokes Mr. Wade, so, no matter what, he can't go anymore!

Besides, he has repaid his gratitude for so many years, and that is already repaid enough.

Therefore, he said lightly: "Sister-in-law, I have been treating the Willson family for so many years. The kindness of Brother Willson to me back then can be regarded as the kindness of dripping water and the spring of water, so in the future, we two Don't have any further contact!"

Chapter 365

When Bihua Willson heard this, she immediately asked nervously: "Tianqi, what's the matter with you? Our two families have been in friendship for so many years, so how can you stop it?"

Tianqi said earnestly: "Sister-in-law, Big Brother Willson was kind to me back then. I have repaid the Willson family for so many years without asking for anything in return."

"This is natural!" Bihua Willson hurriedly said, "But, what is the reason for you to break up with our Willson family? If it's an old woman, where I didn't do well, you tell me, I will definitely correct it!"

Tianqi said: "Sister-in-law, it is not your problem, but your son Fredmen who is the problem."

"Fredmen?" Bihua Willson said in surprise: "What's wrong with him? Did he offend you? But he is in Aurous Hill now!"

"I'm also in Aurous Hill." Tianqi said earnestly: "I saw Fredmen Willson, but he didn't offend me much, mainly because he offended my benefactor. This benefactor has the kindness to recreate me, so I am healthy now. The gratitude of the benefactor can only draw a clear line between the Willson family, my sister-in-law forgives me.”

Bihua Willson felt a little in his heart.

His son actually angered Tianqi in Aurous Hill? What a b@stard! Tianqi is a well-known traditional medicine master in China. How many super-big people are ill and demand him to be treated. There is often a saying in the circle of the rich and powerful in Eastcliff, saying: “If the king of Yan made you die for three shifts, and Tianqi can keep you until five shifts!”

The meaning of these words, that is to say, even if the dying person, as long as Tianqi takes the shot, they can live for a while. This is simply a dream for the powerful class!

Macau gambling king Stanley Ho has been using various high-tech methods in the hospital to extend his life in recent years. The money spent in the hospital alone is hundreds of millions each year, but to him, what is the hundreds of millions? No life is more precious!

If life comes to an abrupt end, what if you have billions of wealth? Didn't it burn out and live in a small wooden box?

Therefore, the more powerful, the more fond of Tianqi.

No one of Eastcliff's rich and powerful envy the Willson family. The reason is that they are family acquaintances with Tianqi. Others abandon their wealth, and they may not be able to change Tianqi's treatment once, and because of their friendship with Tianqi, Tianqi goes to Willson almost every year. This makes countless people jealous to death.

Bihua Willson's husband, Fredmen Willson's father, had cancer more than ten years ago.

If Tianqi hadn't done everything possible to sign up for him, how could he live until last year and leave?

When the Old Master left, he was already eighty-six years old, and his life was long enough to make healthy people envy.

Bihua Willson was even more hopeful that Tianqi could live to be over ninety years old, or even over a hundred years old. She did not expect Tianqi to have a break with her family at this time. This made her nervous, and she blurted out and pleaded: "Tianqi, don't follow Fredmen's words, after all, he is your junior, some places offended you, please be more tolerant, I will call him when I turn back, scold him, let him come to you and apologize to you immediately... "

Tianqi said indifferently, "Sister-in-law, no need. If he offends me, I will forgive him, but who he offended is my great benefactor, so you don't need to talk about it anymore, and I won't change my mind. I hope you will live a long and healthy life in the future, goodbye!"

After speaking, Tianqi immediately hung up the phone, then turned off the phone directly, and said to Zhovia: "Close the door and go back to the hotel."

.....

On the other side, Fredmen Willson took Noah Willson's car and returned to the Willson family villa.

Once back to the villa, he poured a glass of water in the living room on the first floor, took out v!agra directly, looked at the instructions above, and said, "Eat one pill at a time?"

Old Mrs. Willson felt ashamed to see him directly taking out this medicine.

Noah Willson's wife, Horiyah, was even embarrassed to see.

Although Wendy did not speak, her expression was expectant.

Since Noah Willson lost that ability, his attitude towards her has become very poor.

Chapter 366

Don't talk about giving her pocket money, even the promised follow-up investment will not be followed.

It now seems that only if Fredmen Willson quickly restores his male power, can she continue to benefit from him.

Otherwise, Fredmen Willson will definitely abandon her, even the entire Willson family.

So far, the 10 million invested by Fredmen Willson is only able to sustain the Willson Group, and it is far from enough to bring the Willson Group back to its peak.

Noah Willson laughed at the side and said, "This one can do it one at a time. It is very effective."

"Yeah." Noah Willson nodded, and then, directly removed three of them from the medicine board and took a bite of it.

He hoped that the imported western medicine would be effective, so he said to Wendy: "Wendy, follow me upstairs."

Wendy nodded hurriedly, came over to grab Fredmen Willson's wrist, and said flatly, "My dear, let's go back to the room and try again."

Fredmen Willson gave a hum, pulled Wendy into the room, and then asked her to use her best efforts to help him find confidence.

But it is a pity that Wendy has been tossing for a long time, but these medicines are of no use!

Fredmen Willson swallowed three more pills, but still couldn't find the slightest feeling.

This moment made him feel down.

Seeing Wendy still showing off on him, he was so angry that he kicked her under the bed and shouted: "I don't need you here, get out!"

Wendy was afraid that Fredmen Willson would be angry with her, so she hurriedly said, "My dear, don't be too anxious. I believe I will find a way to cure you soon!"

"Get out!" Fredmen Willson yelled annoyingly and threw the pillow at Wendy.

Wendy dared not stay to touch him, hurriedly wrapped her clothes, and hurried out.

Fredmen Willson lay on the bed alone, trembling with anger.

A successful man, after reaching the pinnacle of his life, what he most looks forward to is to be able to appreciate the amorous feelings of countless beautiful women.

However, once he lost his ability in that area, wouldn't all that money has nothing to do with him?

He can't accept it!

Just when he was furious, the phone rang suddenly.

It was his mother who called.

Fredmen Willson hurriedly connected the phone and asked respectfully: "Mom, you haven't slept at this late hour?"

Bihua Willson cursed on the other end of the phone: "You b@stard! Are you going to kill me? Do you want me to be eighty-four years old this year or not?"

Fredmen Willson hurriedly asked: "Mom, what kind of thing are you talking about, how can I harm you?"

"bulls*it!" Bihua Willson blurted out: "I ask you, how did you offend Tianqi? He is going to make a clean break with our family. Do you know how much loss this will cost to our family?!"

Chapter 367

Fredmen Willson shivered in shock at what his mother said.

Because he offended that pauper Charlie, not only did he not save him, but he wanted to make a clean break with his family?

This old thing was blinded by Charlie's medicine, right? !

He was full of resentment, but he could only say to Bihua Willson: "Mom, that old dog with the surname Shi is not a good thing!"

Bihua Willson gritted her teeth and cursed: "I don't care what you do. On my eighty-fourth birthday, Tianqi must come to Eastcliff to check my body and diagnose and treat my problems. Otherwise, I will not forgive you!"

Many people are more selfish as they get older.

The older you are, the more you are afraid of death, and the more you want to live longer. Therefore, Bihua Willson doesn't want to know why Fredmen Willson and Tianqi are in conflict. She just wants Tianqi to continue to be a health doctor for herself.

With him as a health doctor, it is no problem to live to be over ninety years old, but without him, she may not even be able to pass this year's hurdle.

Fredmen Willson was also depressed. He wanted to explain and complain, but Bihua Willson didn't give him a chance at all. After giving the order hard, she immediately hung up the phone.

Fredmen Willson smashed the room angrily, and then finally gritted her teeth and picked up the phone to call Tianqi, trying to use repentance and pleading to ask him to continue to see his mother.

But Tianqi's cell phone was turned off.

This made Fredmen Willson even more angry.

But no way, he dared not disobey his mother's orders, so he dressed in embarrassment, went downstairs, and drove to Tianqi's Clinic.

When the car arrived at the gate of the Clinic, it was already closed.

Fredmen Willson gritted his teeth at the door but saw two figures walking out of the darkness not far away.

One of them limped and seemed a bit familiar.

So Fredmen Willson hurriedly hid to the side and observed it secretly. As the two people approached, he saw that it was a middle-aged man in his fifties with a young man in his twenties.

The twenty-something young man was leaning on a cane in one hand and a huge green oil drum in the other.

There are already some defeated middle-aged people next to him, holding the lame young man in one hand and carrying the same green oil drum in the other.

Fredmen Willson recognized the young man. When he came to see Tianqi for treatment today, the young man was being driven out by the pharmacy.

It seems that this guy is seeking no cure and is about to set fire to Tianqi's Clinic!

The two people who came were Junwei Gao who had pretended to be forced by Charlie in the hospital before and was finally thrown down from the third floor by Mr. Orvel.

Junwei Gao left his legs with sequelae and became lame. He hated Charlie in his heart. He wanted to find Tianqi to heal the injury before going to Charlie to settle the account, but he didn't expect Tianqi to directly prevent him from entering the door.

He returned to the hospital and complained to his father Jianjun Gao. The two were too angry, so they bought two barrels of gasoline and wanted to burn Tianqi's Clinic.

The two people's plan was to set the Clinic on fire, teach Tianqi a little lesson, and then find a way to find Charlie for revenge.

Fredmen Willson heard Junwei Gao say to Jianjun Gao at this time: "Dad, you said that the Old Master named Shi can't live in the Clinic?"

"How do I know?" Jianjun Gao said coldly: "Well, he can't live here, he just burned him by a fire! dmn, fcking with me, it's *d*mn*!"

Junwei Gao gritted his teeth angrily, and said: "This surname Shi, he couldn't save him. It would be cheaper to burn him to death with a fire!"

Chapter 368

After that, he opened the gasoline tank and said to Jianjun Gao next to him: "Dad, I think I will pour the gasoline in through the rolling shutter, let the gasoline be fully spread inside, and then make a fire outside to ensure that there are even cockroaches inside can't live!"

Jianjun Gao nodded, snorted coldly, and said, "Okay! Burn them to death!"

Although Jianjun Gao's strength is not top-notch in Aurous Hill, it is not top-notch, but when it comes to doting on his son, he is really the number one in Aurous Hill.

This old grandson's ancestors have been singles for several generations. He has given birth to several daughters in a row, and he has such a baby bump as Junwei Gao. Naturally, he has been spoiled and spoiled since childhood.

When Junwei Gao was in elementary school, he was beaten with a ruler on the palm by his teacher's hand because of his poor study and class trouble. Jianjun Gao took someone to the school and broke the teacher's right arm, leaving him disabled for life

When Junwei Gao was in junior high school, he suffered a lot from fighting with others at school. Jianjun Gao directly hired someone to knock his classmate who beat his son into a vegetable;

Such examples are countless in Junwei Gao's growth process.

In the eyes of Jianjun Gao, anyone who bullies his son will end up dead.

Tianqi wouldn't heal his son's legs, d*mn it!

That Charlie actually harmed his son to look like what he is today, even more d*mn it!

Therefore, he planned to burn Tianqi to death today, and then according to the planned plot tomorrow, he would kill Charlie!

Fredmen Willson saw that the two of them were really going to set fire to Tianqi's Clinic, and might even burn Tianqi to death. Suddenly he became anxious, and he did not hesitate to jump out and say to the two of them: "Two! impulse!"

Gao father and son were shocked!

They had thought that no one would notice them at night, but suddenly a person would come out.

When Junwei Gao was shocked, he also recognized Fredmen Willson, and said in surprise: "Are you the one who came to see Tianqi before? Why, are you going to help him?"

Fredmen Willson hurriedly waved his hand and said: "I don't care about Tianqi's life or death! But his magical medicine is worn close to his body. I believe his magical medicine can not only heal your legs, but also my injuries. If you burn him with such a fire, then his magical medicine must be burned too!"

Junwei Gao suddenly realized!

Yes indeed!

I didn't expect it!

Tianqi really has a magical medicine, and that magical medicine can cure even high-level paraplegia with spinal injury, let alone his lame leg.

If he burned him to death with fire, wouldn't there be no chance to heal the lame leg?

Thinking of this, he suddenly hesitated.

Fredmen Willson said at this time: "Two people, I don't think so, don't burn the old dog's shop first, find a way to tie up the old dog, then grab his medicine, and finally kill him! "

Jianjun Gao frowned and asked, "Why, you also an enemy of Shi?"

"Of course there is a grudge!" Fredmen Willson said coldly: "And it's an unshakable hatred! I also want to kill him quickly, but first I have to get the magic medicine to cure the disease!"

Jianjun Gao said: "In this case, it's better for us to tie Shi together and force him to hand over the magical medicine, and then kill him alive!"

"Okay." Fredmen Willson nodded and said, "In this case, let's leave contact information. Let's find a time tomorrow. Let's meet to discuss the details!"

Chapter 369

Jianjun Gao and his son did not know that Tianqi only had half a magic drug.

But Fredmen Willson was very clear.

After all, he almost got the half pill from Tianqi's hand in the afternoon.

He himself didn't dare to attack Tianqi, but if the two of them dared to attack Tianqi, then he would be able to sit back and enjoy his achievements as long as he did a little trick.

For example, he can imitate a few medicines according to the shape of the half medicine and then take them with himself. After they tie Tianqi, find the half medicine from Tianqi, and give them the fake medicines, and by that time he could not only heal his own lifeblood, but even push Tianqi's death completely on the father and son.

Jianjun Gao didn't expect so many twists and turns.

He just felt that since they have a common enemy, they can be comrades-in-arms.

Many people are powerful, and the risks can be shared equally. Why not do it?

As for the magic drug, he didn't know how much Tianqi had.

However, to him, Tianqi had to die if he had medicine, and he had to die if he didn't because he and his son could not swallow this breath.

So, he and Fredmen Willson exchanged contact information, and the two agreed to make time for a telephone conversation tomorrow, and then left Tianqi's Clinic with his son carrying the gasoline can.

Fredmen Willson was complacent about his plan, and drove back to Willson's villa in a hurry, planning to go back to boil some noodles, get some black paint, and knead out a few doughs like magical medicine.

On the way back from the Gao family, Junwei Gao asked his father Jianjun Gao: "Dad, let's get Charlie out and kill him according to the original plan tomorrow, and then make an appointment with this person to kill Tianqi together?"

Jianjun Gao nodded and said, "Kill Charlie first, and when Charlie dies, let's get Tianqi's magical medicine and heal your legs!"

"Great!" Junwei Gao said excitedly: "I find the magic medicine, I won't have to be lame in the future!"

Jianjun Gao smiled slightly and said, "Son, don't worry, even if Dad is lame, he can't make you lame!"

After speaking, he said again: "Let's go back and rest first. Tomorrow you will call and follow the plan we planned!"

"Okay, dad!"

.....

The next morning, Charlie bought it and came back early. After breakfast, his mother-in-law Elaine went out to make an appointment with a good sister at the Mahjong Hall.

Elaine is a mahjong fan. As long as there is nothing wrong, she will play mahjong in the mahjong hall all day long.

Just out of the house and walking towards the Mahjong Hall, Elaine suddenly received a call.

She took out her mobile phone and took a look, and found that Junwei Gao was calling, so she picked up the phone and asked: "Junwei, how do you think of calling auntie?"

Since Claire married Charlie, Elaine thought about one thing every day: how to get her daughter to divorce Charlie and then marry a wealthy family.

At the earliest, she hoped that her daughter would marry the second generation of rich Wendell Jones, but the Jones family went bankrupt unexpectedly. What's more amazing is that Wendell Jones's family disappeared overnight and never appeared in Aurous Hill;

Later, she hoped that her daughter would marry Fred White of White's family, but when Fred White was helping her to collect debts, he was slapped ten thousand times by Orvel's men, and then he never dared to come out again;

A few days ago, she hoped that her daughter would marry Junwei Gao. As a result, Junwei Gao was directly thrown out of the window of her husband's ward by Orvel. Since then, Junwei Gao has disappeared.

It can be said that at this stage, Junwei Gao is actually the best candidate in her mind.

Although last time he found a deceitful genius Doctor Zhongjing, he could not heal her husband's injury, but he was also a victim of being deceived, so Elaine never blamed him in her heart.

Chapter 370

On the contrary, Elaine often felt responsible for Junwei Gao's broken leg. After all, they were kind at the time.

So when she received a call from Junwei Gao, she was not only happy but also a little guilty.

Junwei Gao said solemnly on the other end of the phone: "Auntie, when Uncle Willson was hospitalized in a car accident last time, I was actually deceived and hired a fake genius to treat uncle. I had no chance to say sorry to you..."

"Oh!" Elaine said flatteringly: "Junwei, what are you talking about! Auntie has always been very grateful and guilty for what happened that day, it is the auntie who should say sorry!"

At this time, Junwei Gao said hurriedly: "Where is it, auntie, this is all my negligence. I haven't checked the details of that Doctor Zhongjing."

As he said, he continued: "So, I want to treat you to a meal so that I can apologize to you. I hope you can agree."

Elaine was immediately happy.

To be honest, she didn't feel that Junwei Gao was at all wrong in this matter.

On the contrary, in her opinion, Junwei Gao was actually one of the victims of this incident, and because of Charlie's Rubbish, he broke a leg, and he was really innocent.

Moreover, Junwei Gao's call made Elaine's impression of him a little better.

Take a look at Junwei Gao. He doesn't say that he has money at home, he is so enthusiastic, he is so polite and respects her! This is a good candidate for a son-in-law!

If he can get in touch with her daughter more, and turn around and drive away Charlie's pauper who pretends and fools all day long, won't her daughter be able to marry a rich family?

More importantly, the Gao family has a convention and exhibition center, and the amount of decoration projects in it are huge. If she and her daughter come together, wouldn't these projects also fall into the daughter's company?

Even if you take the project, turn it over, or subcontract it to others, you can at least make a price difference of several million?

Isn't that 10,000 times stronger than that of Charlie?

Therefore, it is difficult to find a good guy like Junwei Gao with a lantern! Let the daughter seize this opportunity to say anything.

Thinking of this, Elaine hurriedly said politely: "Oh, Junwei, you want to invite Auntie to dinner, how sorry..."

"Auntie, don't be so polite, this is what I should do!"

Junwei Gao heard her tone lose and hurriedly said, "Auntie, to show my sincerity, I also specially prepared a gift worth millions!"

Millions of gifts? !

As soon as Elaine heard this, her heart immediately blossomed!

Mom!

Junwei Gao, this kid is so caring!

A million gifts, isn't this sent?

So she smiled and hurriedly agreed, and asked excitedly: "Junwei, you tell auntie the time and address, auntie must be there on time!"

Junwei Gao smiled and said: "Auntie, the address is set at T & H Hotel on Hex Road. It is the best seafood restaurant in Aurous Hill. It's at 12 o'clock at noon. Then we will meet at the door."

"Good, good!" Elaine happily agreed.

Junwei Gao said again: "Auntie, don't tell Claire now, I also planned an apology ceremony for her, and then you will have to help me secretly!"

Elaine smiled and said, "You young people understand romance! Okay! Auntie promises you not to tell her!"

Chapter 371

Elaine absently soaked in the Mahjong Hall all morning, waiting for the time to be almost up, and hurriedly went to the T & H Hotel to make an appointment with Junwei Gao.

In the morning, she repeatedly thought, what would Junwei Gao's million gifts be?

Jewelry? cash? check? Or something else?

For people like Elaine, who loves to take advantage of the small bargain, Junwei Gao's one million gifts is too attractive.

Last time, Elaine took Claire's check for 180,000, and took away 160,000 from it. She was so happy that she couldn't keep her mouth shut for several days.

So, the thought of getting a million gifts from Junwei Gao immediately made her feel even more excited.

At eleven thirty, Elaine bid farewell to her friends, walked out of the mahjong hall, took a taxi, and went straight to the T & H Hotel.

When she arrived at the place agreed by both parties, she did not rush in as agreed, but stood at the door of the hotel, waiting for Junwei Gao's arrival.

Soon, a brand new black Mercedes Benz car slowly stopped in front of her.

Immediately afterwards, the car door opened, and a young man in a suit and leather shoes stepped out of the car.

The person here is Junwei Gao.

Junwei Gao looked really handsome and decent, but the only regret was that he was limping on foot.

A young girl was attracted by Junwei Gao's cool looks and Mercedes-Benz luxury cars. She was looking at him with glare, but when she saw that he was a lame, she immediately sighed in regret and turned away.

Junwei Gao saw all this in his eyes, and was extremely angry in his heart. He hated Charlie and Tianqi, and he just wanted to get rid of them.

However, at this time Elaine was not far in front of him, so he could not show his inner hatred, so he limped in front of Elaine.

Junwei Gao came to Elaine, smiled slightly, and said, "Auntie, sorry, I have kept you waiting."

Elaine hurriedly said, "Oh, Junwei, you are so polite. I have just arrived..."

With that, she looked at the brand new Mercedes-Benz behind Junwei Gao and asked in surprise: "Oh, this Mercedes-Benz, is this your new car?"

Junwei Gao smiled and said: "Yes, this Mercedes-Benz S500 was just taken out from the 4s store this morning. The price is not too expensive, it's just over 1.6 million."

After speaking, he handed over the key to Elaine's hand and said, "Auntie, please accept the key to this car."

After receiving the key, Elaine was confused and couldn't help asking: "Junwei, what are you doing?"

Junwei Gao smiled slightly and said: "Auntie, this is the gift I told you on the phone! I think Uncle Willson and Claire both have a BMW. You don't have a car yet. This is really unreasonable, and I'm sorry."

Elaine was very excited and said, "Oh, Junwei, this is too expensive, how can Auntie want it!"

Although she said that, the car key in her hand was tightly held by her, and she had no intention of returning it to Junwei Gao.

Junwei Gao naturally took this point of her careful thinking in his eyes, and said with a smile: "Auntie, to be honest, both uncle and Claire drove 5 series BMWs with a ragged class. The total amount is only 900,000. It's not as luxurious as this Mercedes-Benz S500. I think, according to your temperament, Auntie, you should be driving a Mercedes-Benz, so please accept this car!"

Elaine's heart has long been happy!

She is the typical representative of the snobbish mother-in-law often seen in society!

Chapter 372

In her eyes, there is nothing but money!

In her opinion, the most important thing for a son-in-law is to have money and be willing to spend money on her. Otherwise, no matter how good the son-in-law is, he is just stinky sh!t in her eyes.

A man like Junwei Gao is the best candidate for a son-in-law, because he is willing to spend money on his mother-in-law!

Now she hasn't come together with his daughter, he's already so generous. He wants to give her a 1.6 million Mercedes Benz. If Claire really follows him in the future, will he not be able to give her a big villa. Big yacht? !

When she thought of this, she was so excited!

However, the superficial politeness is still necessary. She grabbed Junwei Gao's arm and said seriously: "Oh, Junwei, you are so touched by Auntie, but this car is really too expensive. If I accept it, maybe it's not suitable, right?"

"How could it be inappropriate?" Junwei Gao said earnestly: "Auntie, it is my heart to give you something, you can just accept it with confidence! There is nothing inappropriate!"

Elaine was overjoyed when she saw what he said so firm, and stopped being polite with him, put the key in her pocket, and said with a smile: "The aunt, you can just follow me, just accept it! Thank you so much, Junwei!"

Junwei Gao glanced at her expression of being obsessed with wealth, sneered in his heart, and shot at Claire's mother's snobbery. It seems that his and his father's plan can definitely be realized successfully!

However, he thought so in his heart, but said politely: "Auntie, let's stop pestering at the door, let's go in and eat and talk."

Elaine was very excited and nodded quickly: "Well, go in and chat, go in and chat!"

The two walked into the T & H Hotel, Junwei Gao directly asked the waiter to take them to the reserved position.

After the two were seated, Junwei Gao directly ordered a large table of expensive delicacies.

While eating, Junwei Gao pretended to be guilty and said: "Auntie, the last time Uncle Willson was hospitalized, I actually asked a quack doctor to come over. I didn't do this well. I have to say sorry to you here!"

Elaine looked at Junwei Gao and said with a smile: "You kid doesn't need to be like this. Auntie didn't blame you for what happened last time! You are also a victim!"

Junwei Gao nodded, looked at Elaine, and said earnestly: "Auntie, to tell you something in my heart, I want to chase Claire and marry her as a wife, I don't you know if you will agree?"

When Elaine heard this, she was excited and said: "Agree! Auntie 10,000 agrees! To tell you the truth, in the aunt's heart, I have long considered you my future son-in-law!"

Junwei Gao sighed and said, "You think so, but I'm afraid Claire is there, and still hates me now. If the misunderstanding between the two of us is not resolved, I'm afraid it will be impossible to talk to her in this life."

Elaine immediately said, "If you have any misunderstandings, just let it go? If you are embarrassed to say it, Auntie will help you!"

Upon hearing this, Junwei Gao knew that the fire was almost over, and suggested: "Auntie, I actually wanted to apologize and confess to Claire in person. Or else, our family has a villa by the river. I will be there tonight. Where can I set up a candlelight dinner, make some flowers, and put it in a heart shape? Then you will ask Claire out for me and let me apologize to her. By the way, confess, maybe she will become excited and accept my apology. That's it!"

"Oh, Junwei, you're so caring!" Elaine's eyes lit up and hurriedly said, "That's OK, I'll call Claire!"

After speaking, she took out the phone and prepared to call Claire.

Junwei Gao was overjoyed and hurriedly said: "Auntie, you must not tell Claire, I want to ask her out, otherwise she will definitely not come to see me directly."

After talking, Junwei Gao said again: "You can tell her, just say that you have a friend who is going to decorate a large villa on the riverside, hoping to find her studio to design it. She has such a strong entrepreneurial spirit. The order will definitely be accepted as soon as possible. Then you will come with her. When I confess to her, you can help me say something nice!"

Elaine's eyes lit up and she blurted out, "That's great! Just do what you said!"

Junwei Gao's eyes flashed a sinister look, and he thought to himself: "Tonight, I will engage Claire, who is all-powerful, and then try Elaine, who is still charming, and another call to trick Charlie. One shot break him!"

Chapter 373

At this time, Claire, Charlie and Jacob had just had lunch at home.

When Charlie went to the kitchen to clean up his dishes as usual, he suddenly received a call from Zhovia.

As soon as the call was connected, Zhovia answered shamefully: "Mr. Wade, what are you doing?"

"At home." Charlie said lightly and asked: "What's the matter? What's wrong with?"

Zhovia said, "I want to call and report something to you."

"Say it."

Zhovia hurriedly said: "That's right. Yesterday Junwei Gao and Fredmen both ran to my grandfather's Clinic and asked him for treatment. My grandfather didn't know that Fredmen had offended you, so he almost gave him the half of the medicine you gave him last time!"

Charlie asked curiously: "Why? Does your family have a good relationship with Fredmen? How could your grandfather give him such a precious medicine?"

Charlie knew very well in his heart that in Tianqi's mind, the magic medicine he gave was regarded as a treasure, and it was as important as fate.

No one will give such an important thing to someone who doesn't know or has a normal relationship.

Zhovia hurriedly said: "My grandfather and Fredmen's father were like brothers. The two have a relationship for many years, so the two also have a relationship for many years."

Having said that, Zhovia told Charlie the causes and consequences of his grandfather and the Willson family for so many years.

After Charlie heard it, he realized that the Willson family was actually the benefactor who helped Tianqi back then.

And Tianqi's ability to repay the kindness of Willson's family for so many years because of a little favor back then made him somewhat admired.

What made him more satisfied was that Tianqi was able to distinguish right from wrong, and for his own sake, he did not hesitate to break with the Willson family.

Although Charlie is the young master of Eastcliff's top family, he left the family with his father when he was very young and ran around to survive. After his father died unexpectedly, he could only survive in the orphanage and tasted the warmth of the world.

It was also in the orphanage that Charlie developed the character of knowing and repaying kindness.

Aunt Lena from the orphanage helped him. Even if she suffered all the insults, sarcasm and personal attacks from the Willson family, he asked the Old Mrs. Willson for help and loaned money to Aunt Lena to treat her illness;

Claire helped him, and even if she couldn't look down on the poor Willson family, and his wonderful pair of fathers-in-law, he would not leave Claire.

It is precisely because he is the person who knows the gratitude that he has a better impression of Tianqi.

It seems that Tianqi will surely become his loyal follower in the future.

Since Tianqi is so loyal, he should give him a little advantage.

Thinking of this, Charlie decided to go to Tianqi's Clinic in the afternoon and give him another medicine that he refined last time.

That time, Charlie refined 30 medicines in one go, sent a gave away medicines, and more than 20 medicines are still with him.

For him, this medicine is almost at his fingertips, and it has no practical effect on people who practice the Nine Profound Sky Secrets and have spiritual energy in their bodies, so giving him one is almost zero cost.

Moreover, Charlie also hoped to let people like Aurous Hill know that he was a person with distinct rewards and punishments.

You must be punished if you do bad things!

However, if it is done, it is even more rewarding!

Tianqi did a good job this time, so he will go to reward him in the afternoon with the magic medicine he dreamed of.

So Charlie asked Zhovia: "Is your grandpa in Clinic this afternoon?"

"Yes." Zhovia asked excitedly, "Mr. Wade, are you coming?"

Chapter 374

Charlie gave a hum, and said, "I'll go over and take a look this afternoon."

"Great Mr. Wade!" Zhovia cheered and said, "Then I will tell Grandpa now, he must be very excited!"

After finishing the kitchen, Charlie just came out and saw that Claire was ready to go out, so he asked, "Wife, are you going to the studio?"

Claire shook her head and said, "Mom called me and said that she has a friend who wants to renovate a villa and wants me to pick up this list. I'm going to check it out."

Charlie asked hurriedly, "Which villa area?"

Claire said: "The villa is right by the river."

Charlie smiled and said: "That's right, you can drop me off at Clinic, I'll go to see the genius doctor Tianqi."

Claire asked in surprise: "Are you going to see the genius doctor Tianqi? Or I will be with you too, let's buy something by the way and visit this Old Master!"

Claire was very grateful to Tianqi, because she always felt that it was Tianqi who rejuvenated and cured her father's high paraplegia.

Charlie smiled and said, "You don't have to worry about it. You can take care of your affairs when you take me to the place. I can go to see the genius doctor."

Claire said, "That's not appropriate..."

Charlie smiled and said, "There is nothing inappropriate. Besides, the genius doctor has a weird character. Let's go together. People may not be happy."

As soon as Claire heard this, he nodded and said, "All right, then you go first. If possible, make an appointment with the genius doctor Tianqi, and let us treat him to dinner."

"it is good!"

.....

The couple went out together, Claire drove Charlie to the direction outside the city.

Passing by Clinic, Charlie got out of the car and told Claire to drive carefully, and walked into the gate of Clinic.

Tianqi was in the Clinic to see a doctor at this time, when he saw Charlie coming in, he was suddenly excited, got up to greet him, and said, "Mr. Wade, you are here!"

Charlie smiled slightly, and said, "Be busy first, don't worry about me."

Tianqi nodded, and called Zhovia who was filling the medicine in the back, and said, "Zhovia, Mr. Wade is here! Come out and entertain him!"

Zhovia immediately dropped her work, and walked over with two red clouds on her cheeks.

"Mr. Wade, you are here!"

Zhovia's voice was crisp and sweet, and there was an innocent smile on her face, especially the two shallow dimples, which looked particularly loving.

What surprised Charlie even more was that unlike other women, Zhovia always had a faint fragrance of perfume, and what she carried was a faint fragrance of medicinal materials.

In most drugstores, the medicine inside is very strong, and it doesn't smell good at all, but the smell of Zhovia's body is fragrant, and even has a somewhat soothing effect.

Charlie looked at her and smiled: "Now that your grandfather is recovering, you just retreated behind the scenes and started fighting?"

"Yes." Zhovia smiled sweetly: "But I don't always fight. Grandpa sees five patients in person every day, and I see the rest."

Charlie nodded and said, "Your medical skills are already superb. I believe it won't be long before you will become a famous doctor in Aurous Hill."

"How can it be?" Zhovia couldn't help but shyly said: "My medical skills are far worse than Grandpa, and are even worse than Mr. Wade by a thousand miles..."

At this time, Tianqi escorted the patient away and said to the fellow in the Clinic: "Say hello to the patient waiting to be treated, and say that I have a distinguished guest here. I want to suspend the consultation and entertain first. Please forgive me."

After speaking, he immediately walked to Charlie, held his fist and bowed respectfully, and said, "Hello, Mr. Wade!"

Chapter 375

Seeing Tianqi coming up, Charlie saluted him, smiled slightly, waved his hand and said, "Old Shi, you don't need to be so polite with me, and you don't need to call me Mr. Wade, just call me Charlie."

"How did that make it!" Tianqi hurriedly bowed and said, "Mr. Wade is a true dragon on earth, how can I directly call the name of Master Wade!"

Seeing that he was a little stubborn in etiquette, Charlie didn't continue to persuade him, but said: "I heard that Junwei Gao and Fredmen came to you yesterday?"

Tianqi asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, how do you know this?"

Zhovia stuck out her tongue and said, "Grandpa, I told Mr. Wade..."

Tianqi hurriedly reprimanded: "You child! Mr. Wade is busy with his daily affairs, how can you bother him with this little thing?"

Zhovia was a bit wronged.

The reason why she called Charlie was not to ask Grandpa for credit, but to find a chance to talk to Charlie.

After all, she had already regarded Charlie as an idol in her heart, and even admired him more than her grandpa, so she also wanted to find opportunities to contact him more, even if it was a phone call.

However, you cannot always make a call without a topic, right?

Therefore, she made her own way and reported yesterday's events to Charlie.

Unexpectedly, grandpa said nothing, and immediately scolded her.

Tianqi's heart was mainly worried about Charlie's misunderstanding. After all, Zhovia's call to Charlie meant a bit of asking for her own credit. He didn't want Charlie to misunderstand that she was a person who wanted to take credit for everything.

Seeing Zhovia's grievance, Charlie said with a smile: "Old Shi, it's just a small matter, why bother to blame Zhovia."

Tianqi hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade you make me laugh."

Charlie waved his hand and said lightly: "Old Shi, that Junwei Gao, and that Fredmen have all offended me. If you can refuse to treat them, you can also be regarded as giving face to Charlie. This favor, I have written down. ."

Tianqi hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, you are kind and my savior. This little thing is to share worries and problems for you. You don't have to be polite about it."

After that, Tianqi pointed to his Clinic and said seriously: "My decision to stay in Aurous Hill to open a medical clinic is mainly to be able to listen to Mr. Wade's dispatch at any time, and have the opportunity to repay your kindness!"

Charlie smiled and said, "You are interested."

After speaking, he took out a pill from his pocket and handed it to Tianqi, saying: "Mr. Shi, the medicine I gave you before can cure injuries and strengthen the body. Although I have not specifically demonstrated it, it is based on ancient records. Even if a dying Old Master takes a magical medicine, it can prolong life for five to ten years. So I will give you this medicine and do keep it next to you. It may be useful in the future."

Tianqi looked at the pill, trembled all over, thumped and knelt on the ground, trembling and said, "Mr. Wade, you can't be more... You have already given me a half magical medicine last time. Now, Shi hasn't repaid his favor, how can I receive such a big gift..."

Zhovia, who was next to him, knelt down when she saw her grandfather, and she knelt on the ground with a plop, but she was clever, with her slender hands resting on top of her knees, and Shu muscles's big eyes, shy and bold looking at Charlie.

Charlie's magical medicine was also given to several people. Although these people knew that the magical medicine was extremely precious, the person who knew the value of it most was Tianqi.

First of all, Tianqi has practiced medicine all his life. The more proficient in medicine, the more he knows how powerful this magical medicine is. It is not rare in the world, and even the second one can't be found;

Secondly, Tianqi is getting old, and the older you are, the more you know the fate, even if you are a famous doctor in the world? After more than eighty years of age, it is possible that one day he will quietly pass away in his sleep.

And this magic medicine can make the dying Old Master live longer and prolong his life. How can this be a medicine, this is a life span of several years!

Of course Tianqi wanted this magic medicine, but he dared not ask for it.

Chapter 376

As the saying goes, no merit is not rewarded.

He just rejected Junwei Gao and Fredmen. In his opinion, this little thing was completely unworthy of allowing Charlie to give him such a precious magic medicine.

But Charlie didn't care.

If he want to make this thing himself, he can make thousands of them a day.

The main reason why he doesn't make so many is that things are rare and expensive.

Therefore, giving one to Tianqi is nothing at all.

So he said lightly: "Old Shi, since you want to stay at my side and share the worries for me, you should know that Charlie always rewards his friends, and I think you do well and deserve rewards, then I will naturally reward you. , And you don't have to be polite with me. If I reward you, you will accept it."

Tianqi was excited with tears, and hurriedly lay his hands on the ground, kowtow, and said: "Thank you Mr. Wade! Thank you Mr. Wade!"

Zhovia hurriedly bowed her head respectfully and said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Charlie looked at Zhovia, smiled slightly, and said, "Zhovia, raise your head."

Zhovia hurriedly raised her head, looking at Charlie with a flushed face, her eyes a little shy and dodging.

Charlie looked at her and smiled slightly: "In the future, when the time is right, I will also give you a magic medicine. By then, you may be able to take your medical skills further."

The magic medicine for the elderly is mainly to treat and restore the body function and meridian energy to younger.

After young people take it, it can strengthen the body to a great extent, and even greatly enhance the meridians in the body.

traditional medicine values qi the most. It has higher requirements for the internal qi in the body of the doctor. For example, acupuncture and moxibustion, people with insufficient internal qi, even if they know some acupuncture methods, they can't get it out, and it won't be effective.

So this is also the fundamental reason why many famous doctors have a strong body.

As soon as Zhovia heard this, tears flowed out of excitement. Tianqi next to her was also very excited and hurriedly said: "Zhovia, don't you give thanks to Mr. Wade!"

Zhovia came back to her senses, so she leaned over and kowtows, and choked with excitement in her mouth: "Thank you Mr. Wade!"

.....

When Charlie was in Clinic and gave medicine to Tianqi, Claire just drove to the riverside villa in the suburbs.

After she arrived at the gate of the villa area, she called her mother Elaine and said, "Mom, I have already arrived at the riverside villa, where exactly is your friend?"

Elaine was anxiously waiting for Claire in Junwei Gao's villa at this time. After receiving a call, she hurriedly said excitedly: "This is a high-end villa area. The management is very strict. No cars are allowed to enter. You should park your car. In the parking lot at the door, Mom will come out to pick you up!"

"Okay." Claire said: "Then I will wait for you at the door."

Here, Elaine hung up the phone with excitement, and hurriedly said to Junwei Gao and Junwei Gao's father Jianjun Gao: "Claire is here, I will pick her up!"

Junwei Gao hurriedly pointed to the heart-shaped roses and candles at the entrance of the gate, and said, "Auntie, don't let go of your mouth. I hope Claire should come in without knowing my existence. Let her enter the door and see this romantic scene!"

Elaine smiled from ear to ear, and said, "Oh, Junwei, don't worry, I won't let it go!"

Chapter 377

Junwei Gao's father, Jianjun Gao, has not spoken, but looked at Elaine up and down. He felt that although this woman was a little older, she was still very charming, and she was the kind of person who had a better taste among her peers.

Looking at Elaine at this time, his gaze was a bit greedy, and he thought to himself, when Claire arrived, he will immediately tied up these girls. When the time comes, he will taste the taste of Elaine.

If he has time, he can even try that young and beautiful Claire!

Thinking of this, he smiled and said to Elaine: "Oh, Ms. Elaine, if your family can come together with ours, then we will be married in the future too!"

Elaine looked at Jianjun Gao and nodded repeatedly, and flattered: "Mr. Junwei Gao, it is the first blessing of our family to be able to be with you!"

Jianjun Gao smiled and said, "Ms. Arima is in the middle of the match. I think the two children will be able to come together."

Elaine agreed with him and said: "I have the same views as you! The two children, talented and beautiful, are really perfect match. Don't worry, I will persuade Claire to divorce Charlie waste!"

After finishing speaking, she hurriedly said to Junwei Gao: "Junwei, don't think that Claire was married, and you have an opinion on her because of the second marriage. In our family Claire was long married to Charlie's Rubbish, but she has guarded her body like jade!"

Junwei Gao suddenly became excited.

Guarded her body like jade?

Does Claire still retain her chastity?

God! That's awesome!

Today, Claire, a famous beauty in Aurous Hill, will be captured by him for the first time!

Thinking of this, he couldn't help being excited, and wished he could rectify Claire on the spot immediately.

Elaine was thinking of petty gains. She couldn't understand the viciousness of Junwei Gao's heart. She didn't even know that the catastrophe was imminent. Instead, she smiled and said, "Oh, I'm going to take it for the first time. You can wait a while. "

The father and son sent her out, and when they returned to the house, they both had ghosts.

Junwei Gao couldn't help saying, "Dad, Claire is still a problem. If you kill her at once, it would be too bad, right?"

Jianjun Gao said coldly: "If you kill, you will be a hundred. If she stays alive, problems will happen sooner or later!"

Junwei Gao said: "Let's kill Elaine and Charlie first, and put Claire under house arrest in the basement. Our villa is so soundproofed and the distance from other homes is so large. No one will be able to find."

Jianjun Gao's eyes lit up, and he blurted out: "You mean to keep Claire under house arrest for a long time?"

"That's right!" Junwei Gao said: "Otherwise, isn't such a beautiful big beauty a violent thing?"

Jianjun Gao thought about it, and said to Junwei Gao: "Then, let's bring Charlie to kill first, then put Elaine and Claire on, and then kill Elaine, Claire just as you said. Imprisoned in the basement of the villa, she belongs to you every Monday, three, five and seven, and every week, four and six to me!"

Junwei Gao was stunned. He didn't expect that his father would still want to get a share of Claire's affairs.

But it doesn't matter if you think about it carefully. After all, once he kills Charlie, he must kill Elaine. In that case, Claire must hate him to the bone.

At that time, they have only two choices, either kill her and kill her completely, or imprison her as a plaything.

Since it is a plaything, it doesn't hurt to have one more person to share the game.

So he nodded and said to Jianjun Gao: "Dad, I listen to you."

Jianjun Gao immediately raised his eyebrows and said cheerfully, "That's good!"

Chapter 378

Having said that, he took out a black pistol from his waist, checked it last, and said with a cold face: "After Charlie came, I will just shoot him! I will give you revenge!"

.....

Claire still didn't know everything at this time.

She waited for a while at the entrance of the riverside villa, and saw her mother Elaine trot out to meet her.

Afterwards, Elaine opened the gate of the community and greeted her: "Claire, come in!"

Claire greeted her hurriedly.

When she came to her mother, Claire couldn't help asking: "Mom, why haven't I heard you say that you know friends who live in a riverside villa!"

The Riverside Villa is located on the Yangtze River in Aurous Hill, next to the river view. It is one of the local high-end communities. The people who live here are either rich or expensive, which is obviously beyond Elaine's normal social scope.

Elaine grinned and said: "I have an old classmate. She recently made a fortune in business. Just bought a villa here. Isn't this just thinking about renovation? They said, the renovation budget is 8 million! Is it a big deal?"

Claire smiled and said: "Of course, normal home improvement, more than one million is considered a big order."

Elaine smiled and said: "That's good! Let's go there quickly, you can take a look at the layout of the house and give a rough decoration plan."

"That's great!"

Soon, Elaine took Claire to the door of Villa 8 and rang the doorbell.

The luxurious door opened, and then Junwei Gao appeared at the door with a warm smile on her face.

As soon as the door opened, Junwei Gao said with a smile: "Claire, long time no see."

She was taken aback for a moment, her pretty face instantly turned cold, she ignored him, and directly questioned Elaine behind her: "Mom, this friend you are talking about is it him?!"

Elaine said awkwardly: "Claire, don't worry, Junwei has prepared a surprise for you!"

Junwei Gao nodded hurriedly, flashed around, revealing the rose love on the floor of the entrance hall.

Claire asked Elaine angrily: "Mom, it turns out that you and Junwei Gao joined forces to lie to me?"

Elaine hurriedly said: "Claire, listen to me, Junwei is sincere to you..."

Junwei Gao also hurriedly explained: "Claire, it's not about Auntie, I asked Auntie to help me invite you over."

Claire looked at Elaine with a bit of chill expression, and said, "Mom, you really disappointed me!"

After speaking, she turned around to leave.

Elaine hurriedly blocked Claire's path, and persuaded, "Claire, it's your mother, I didn't lie to you. It's all for your own good. Junwei really has cooperation and wants to talk to you. The villa belongs to him and is about to be decorated."

Claire frowned and said angrily: "I am not the same with him!"

Elaine glared at her and said, "What are you talking about? In order to apologize to you, Junwei's attitude is low enough. Look, how nice this kid is! What are you still doing?"

As she said, she urged: "Oh, we are all here, just listen to what Mom said, and communicate with Junwei, even if the matter between you two fails, it's good to talk about cooperation, isn't it?"

After finishing talking, she didn't wait for Claire to react, she pushed Claire directly into the house!

Chapter 379

Where did Elaine know that this push not only pushed her daughter into the fire pit, but also pushed herself into the fire pit.

Now she is full of hope that Claire can clear up her suspicions with Junwei Gao, and then have a good impression of Junwei Gao, the son-in-law who is in her own mind.

In this way, she could divorce Charlie's Rubbish and then marry Junwei Gao.

As soon as Claire was pushed by her mother, she couldn't help feeling a little angry.

Mom usually has no morals, no bottom line, and even a love for money, which she can't bear.

However, she is still thinking about herself now, which makes her really disappointed!

She was about to turn around and go out, but she did not expect Junwei Gao to lock the door directly at this time.

Claire said with a cold face, "Junwei Gao, please let me out!"

"Claire, it's all here, don't you go so anxiously! How about going into the house and having a chat?"

Junwei Gao stood in front of Claire, staring at the woman in front of him with fiery eyes, watching her slender and straight legs, slender waist, perfect figure, pretty face, and his heart was excited...

This woman really exudes charm everywhere, which makes his heart hotter and hotter.

Claire looked at him in disgust, and said coldly: "I have nothing to chat with you, please let me go!"

Elaine was still on the sidelines and said stupidly: "Oh, Claire, why is your child's attitude so bad? Talk to Junwei!"

Claire said coldly: "I have nothing to say to him!"

After finishing speaking, she pointed at Junwei Gao and warned: "Junwei Gao, please get out of the way, I want to go out!"

Junwei Gao looked at Claire with a cold expression, and suddenly laughed!

At the same time, he also changed another face, with a scornful and sinister smile on his face: "Claire, do you really take yourself seriously?! Tell you, I asked you to come, just because I saw it. You, don't be shameless! Otherwise, you will suffer in the future!"

Claire's expression changed, and she asked, "Junwei Gao, what do you want to do?"

"What do I want to do?"

Junwei Gao laughed and said in a wretched tone: "Of course I want to f*ck you!"

Hearing this, Claire was shocked, and her heart was terrified, and she immediately ran out.

But before she took a step, Junwei Gao held her wrist tightly and she couldn't move.

Claire said angrily: "You! let me go!"

Junwei Gao stared at her pretty face and said with a smile: "Claire, you look more and more beautiful! I really want to f*ck you now!"

At this time, he looked at Claire's beautiful and moving appearance, looked at the face and figure that were so perfect that she was fascinating, his eyes were already terrifyingly hot.

Chapter 380

For him, he dreamed of getting Claire's body.

Claire is the No. 1 beauty in Aurous Hill, and she definitely deserves this title, it can be said to be the best among the best.

And now, such a nearly perfect woman will soon belong to him, how not excited his heart is!

Hearing this, Elaine, who was next to him, couldn't believe it.

Didn't Junwei Gao say to apologize to Claire before confessing to her?

But now, what is going on?

She hurriedly stepped forward and stopped and said, "Junwei, what's the matter with you? That's not what you said to auntie!"

"Say a bullsht!" Junwei Gao's expression changed. He kicked Elaine directly on the ground and sneered: "You really thought I asked you to call your daughter over to confess to her. To be your son-in-law? You are less fcking daydreaming!"

As he said, he continued with an icy expression: "Just like you snob, who is open to money, is also worthy of my future mother-in-law? I tell you, I just want to go inside Claire, not only I want to go to her, My dad wants to go too!"

At this time, Jianjun Gao came over with a pistol and said with a smile: "Son, you are half right. I not only want to be with Claire, I also want to try this Elaine! A charming mature woman of this age, she is my favorite!"

Elaine's face pale in fright, and blurted out: "You can't do this...this is illegal!"

"Follow your mother's law!" Junwei Gao cursed coldly: "Today we not only wanted to f*ck you two, but we also called Charlie over and shot him! A sling waste, dare to fight me, and do it. Broke my leg, I must blow his dog's head with one shot in front of you two!"

Elaine cried in fright and blurted out: "Junwei, this is your personal grievance with Charlie. It has nothing to do with us. How can you settle accounts with Charlie? We don't care, but you have to let us go first. Okay!"

"Let you go?" Junwei Gao said contemptuously: "You are simply dreaming! Today neither you nor Claire can leave!"

Elaine cried and said, "Junwei, Auntie believes that you are not a bad boy. The reason why you took this path is because Charlie broke your leg. Auntie begs you. You let Auntie and Claire go on a horse, okay?"

"I'm not a bad boy?" Junwei Gao laughed, squatting directly on the ground, staring at Elaine's horrified face, and said with a smile: "To tell you the truth, the reason why you and your husband Jacob had a car accident that day was because of me. The arrangement was that I found the driver of a muck truck and gave him 200,000, let him deliberately run a red light, hit Jacob's BMW, and caused him to be paraplegic in a high position!"

As soon as these words came out, Claire's heart was extremely angry!

She blurted out: "Junwei Gao! Why did you do this? When did my parents offend you?"

Junwei Gao laughed and said, "Your parents didn't offend me, but who made me like you? Who made me like you, but you didn't answer me? I like you, you don't give me a chance. Then I will create opportunities!"

As he said, Junwei Gao said again: "You said, if I don't knock your dad into that forceful way, and then let the Doctor Zhongjing treat your dad, how can I win your favor and finally put you to sleep? "

"Hey..." Junwei Gao sighed at this point, gritted his teeth and said: "It's a pity! Who thought that his sh!t magical medicine would not work at all, and halfway through Charlie Rubbish, otherwise. , Maybe you are my woman now!"

"Blame that d*mn Charlie! He ruined the entire plan! He also told Mr. Orvel to throw me out of the window, causing me to become lame at a young age! This hatred, I must take the original It's a good report!"

Claire shouted angrily: "Junwei Gao! Are you not afraid of being punished and struck by lightning?!"

"The sky thunders?" Junwei Gao smiled: "Okay, as long as you can be a super beauty of Aurous Hill, even if God really wants to kill me, then I will recognize it! But before that, you let me be well Let's talk about it again!"

Chapter 381

Claire was frightened by Junwei Gao's vicious look.

Elaine next to her was also panicked to the extreme.

At this moment, Elaine couldn't wait to smoke a few big mouths.

Why are you so obsessed with your heart that you have to match Junwei Gao with your daughter?

It's good this time, I got my daughter and myself in...

She looked at Claire and cried guiltily: "Claire, Mom didn't know that was the case, I'm sorry for you..."

Claire sighed while crying, but couldn't say a word.

Junwei Gao stared at Elaine, gritted his teeth and said: "I didn't need to do this to you. I originally wanted to take a genius doctor to cure him after hitting your husband, so that she would be grateful to me at first and be with me....."

Speaking of this, Junwei Gao cursed fiercely: "Who would have wanted to kill Charlie halfway through this rubbish! Otherwise, maybe she would have been my woman at first! The blame is that you are blind and have found such a son-in-law!"

Elaine immediately sat down and shouted wildly: "I said Charlie was a Rubbish. I didn't expect that after eating soft meals at our house for so many years, now he has led us, mother and daughter, to such an end..."

Claire said indignantly: "Mom! This is not Charlie's fault at all! Don't you understand yet?"

Elaine cried and said, "Why do you keep maintaining that waste! It's all for this reason, do you still maintain him? Do you still have your mother in your eyes?"

Junwei Gao was troubled by her noisy headache, frowned and said: "Okay, don't be here chirping, it doesn't matter who protects whoever, you mother and daughter, neither of you can escape my palm!"

After that, he looked at Elaine with a nasty smile, and said: "Aunt, don't you want me to be your son-in-law? Or just let me be your lover?"

Elaine's face was pale in fright, and the whole person was struck by lightning!

She never dreamed that Junwei Gao, who had previously said that he wanted to marry Claire and be her son-in-law, was an upright gentleman on the surface, but behind the back, he was such a s*umbag!

After the husband Jacob was involved in a car accident, she was very grateful to Junwei Gao for arranging the ICU ward and inviting a genius to treat him.

Moreover, seeing Junwei Gao broke another leg because of this, she felt even more guilty.

But as a result, all of this is just a play he directed and acted on her!

Junwei Gao was the real culprit why she and her husband Jacob had a car accident!

Besides, is he still a person?

At this age, she's estimated to be of same age with his mother, he is not going to let her go?

It's not as good as a pig and a dog!

She felt regretful in her heart!

If she hadn't chosen to believe this s*umbag's deceit and deceived her daughter Claire here, how could the mother and daughter fall into such a dangerous situation? !

This is a big mistake!

Seeing Elaine trembling with fright, Junwei Gao sneered and said to her: "Don't worry, I won't do you right now. I will lead Charlie over and break his legs and feet with a gun. , Let him watch me do you guys! I want him to die! When he finishes watching, I will blow his dog's head again and send him on the road!"

Afterwards, he grabbed Claire's bag, found her mobile phone, and called Charlie.

Charlie had just come out of the Clinic at this time and received a call from his wife. He was about to ask how the business talk was, but he heard Junwei Gao's voice.

Chapter 382

"Oh, Charlie, you didn't expect it to be me. who called you?"

"Junwei Gao?!" Charlie asked coldly: "Why is Claire's mobile phone in your hands?"

Junwei Gao sneered: "Because your wife is in my hands now, I'm ready to strip her naked and enjoy her body!"

After talking, Junwei Gao said again: "Oh, yes! I heard that she is still a stranger? Your stinky silk is a failure. You have been married to her for more than three years and failed to engage her. Today I will Break through this last layer for you, hahahahaha!"

Charlie was furious, and he said in an extremely cold voice: "Junwei Gao, I warn you, if dare to hurt my wife a hair, I will kill you!"

"I'll go to your mother!" Junwei Gao said coldly: "You have 20 minutes to come to the riverside villa. Your wife is not only a virgin." No guarantee, no guarantee! You can do it yourself!"

At this time, Claire blurted out and shouted: "Charlie, you must never come, they have guns!"

Junwei Gao slapped Claire on the face at this time and cursed: "Grass, why the f*ck you are talking here? If he doesn't come, you will be dead today!"

Charlie gritted his teeth and said sternly: "It's me you want to kill, don't hurt my wife, I will come over!"

Junwei Gao said: "You are only allowed to come alone, otherwise, I will just shoot your wife and then your mother-in-law!"

.....

Charlie hung up the phone, stopped a car without saying anything, and headed to the riverside villa.

Now, his murderous heart almost exploded, he just wanted to break Junwei Gao's body into pieces!

At this time, Junwei Gao was also excited and intolerable.

He was very sure that as long as Charlie came, he would definitely die, and he would die miserably!

At that time, he could avenge his broken leg, and by the way, in front of him, he would give Claire to him!

At that time, Charlie's hands and feet will be ridden with bullets, and he could only watch the first time that he takes Claire away like a useless person. At that time Charlie's heart will be extremely desperate!

Hahahaha!

Thinking of this, Junwei Gao screamed in excitement!

At the same time, Jianjun Gao next to him was suddenly uncontrollable.

Both Elaine and Claire are so beautiful, he can't wait to make one first!

For Claire he wants to leave her for his son to get started first, then he might as well take Elaine first!

Thinking of this, he immediately walked up to Elaine and smiled: "Your son-in-law will take another twenty or thirty minutes to come. Why don't we go to the inner room and have a shot? Have some fun!"

Elaine's unspeakable anger, she hurriedly stood up, raised her hand just to slap him, and yelled, "Being an old and disrespectful thing, beat your mother to death as$hole!"

Unexpectedly, Jianjun Gao caught this hand before it fell.

Jianjun Gao looked at Elaine, who was struggling with fiery eyes, laughed, and said, "Ms. Elaine, don't think I have no strength when I am old. Tell you, I am strong, and you will like it!"

Junwei Gao on the side said with a smile: "Dad, I think if I cut Charlie's hands and feet later, it is better to force her to get together with Charlie. Then we will make some videos and send them to Internet. She will be ruined to death!"

Jianjun Gao laughed: "Let them be cast aside by thousands of people after they die! What a great idea!"

Chapter 383

Elaine was so frightened by the vicious plan of the father and son!

She cursed, "You two beasts are not good enough to die, I will kill you!"

Jianjun Gao slapped Elaine directly and sneered: "d*mn, you stinky lady, be honest with me!"

With that, he grabbed Elaine by the hair and dragged her towards the bedroom inside.

Elaine kept resisting, Claire also wanted to come up to rescue her, but Junwei Gao didn't give her a chance at all, grabbing her arm firmly and making her unable to move.

Jianjun Gao didn't expect Elaine to have such a fierce temper. He scolded angrily: "d*mn, you stinky lady, believe me or not I will shot you?"

Junwei Gao said at this time: "Dad, Charlie might come at any time. In case, when he comes, your side is not finished, I can't deal with him alone!"

Jianjun Gao hesitated for a moment, kicked Elaine aside, and said coldly: "Well, in this case, wait until I kill your son-in-law first, and then I will get you!"

Elaine trembled with fright. Now, Charlie's only chance of survival for herself and her daughter lies with Charlie. If Charlie is really capable, there may be a chance to save herself and her daughter. If Charlie is not capable, the probability is Three people are going to die here...

Thinking of this, Elaine couldn't help crying, and she felt regretful in her heart.

It's a pity that if she knew about today, why bother?

.....

Soon, Charlie, who wanted to save Claire, rushed to the riverside villa.

After he got out of the car, he immediately called Claire. After Junwei Gao got on the phone, he asked coldly, "You came alone?"

Charlie said: "Yes, I am by myself!"

Junwei Gao walked to the window, looked at the yard, and said, "The door is unlocked. Come to the yard by yourself, raise your hands to the top of your head and don't play tricks, otherwise, I will shoot Claire immediately!"

"Okay." Charlie agreed and immediately pushed open the courtyard door of Junwei Gao's villa, then raised his hands to the top of his head.

Junwei Gao felt relieved when he saw that he had come by himself.

Then he opened the door, threw out a handcuff, and said to Charlie: "Cuff your hands, don't play tricks!"

Through the window, Claire shouted loudly, "Charlie, don't come in! They want to kill you!"

Charlie gave her a relieved look from a distance, but at this time, his heart was already murderous.

Junwei Gao, I will kill you today!

Immediately, Charlie didn't say anything, and immediately handcuffed his hands with handcuffs, then raised his hands high and said coldly, "Are you satisfied?"

Junwei Gao laughed, Jianjun Gao walked into the yard with a pistol, pointed the gun at Charlie, and said coldly: "Come in!"

Charlie said blankly: "Just enter."

After all, walked into the villa.

Junwei Gao is extremely excited!

He has been looking forward to this moment these days, looking forward to the moment when he can cut his enemies!

Chapter 384

Didn't you Charlie pretend to be forced? Don't you know Mr. Orvel? Didn't you throw me out the window?

Now I want your life!

Charlie stepped into the house and immediately saw Claire, so he said apologetically: "Claire, I'm sorry, I'm late."

Seeing Charlie rushing to save herself, Claire's heart was shocked and happy, worried and afraid.

However, she didn't know why. At this moment, Charlie's figure was so tall and safe to her.

Claire suddenly wept bitterly and said, "My husband..."

Elaine, who was kicked to the ground, woke up suddenly, crawling over to hold Charlie's thigh and crying, saying: "Charlie, my good son-in-law, you are here to save mom! If you come one step later, Mom is not guaranteed for the late festival!"

As she said, she pointed at Junwei Gao and his son, and cried out: "Don't you know, Junwei Gao, this beast, lied to me to confess to Claire and asked me to ask her to come here. In the end, he not only wanted Bullying Claire, but he still has ideas for me! You said that if there is something wrong with you, what will you do in the future!"

Charlie frowned.

He understood that the reason why his wife had such a thing was all the fault of the mother-in-law!

At this moment, he was so angry that he even wanted to slap this snobby mother-in-law to death!

However, he also knew that now is not the time to teach Elaine, the most important thing is to solve the father and son Junwei Gao and Jianjun Gao first.

Thinking of this, Charlie looked at Claire and said softly, "Don't worry, you will leave everything here to my husband!"

Claire looked at Charlie and just cried. After crying for a moment, he choked and said: "Charlie, why are you so stupid! Didn't you come here to die in vain?"

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said, "Do you know? Many people in Aurous Hill say that your husband is a real dragon on earth. How can you die so easily?"

"Hahahaha!" Junwei Gao seemed to hear the big joke and blurted out: "Charlie, you are the real dragon on earth? I think you are a real bug on earth! You are a ridiculous bug in my eyes. I can crush you with my toes!"

Charlie looked at him coldly and said lightly: "The surname is high, the grievances between men should be resolved in private by men. What is the ability to kidnap women? If you are a man, put Claire and my mother-in-law away. You want to kill or slash me, or whatever!"

Junwei Gao sneered and said: "What you think is so beautiful! Do you think I can kill you to relieve my hatred? Tell you, before I kill you, I will sleep with your wife Claire in front of you! , I will also use Claire's cell phone to register you with and post the video online! Let the world know that you Charlie was cocked before death!"

With that, Junwei Gao gritted his teeth and said: "By the way, the video name will be Super Smelly pauper!"

Junwei Gao hates Charlie for his bones, but killing him is really not enough to relieve his hatred, so he plans to register for an online video site with Claire's mobile phone number, and then upload the video to the Internet. Anyway, it is impossible for others to him because the phone will never be traced to him.

That way, even if Charlie died, the green hat video about him would continue to circulate.

Killing him personally, and seeing him die, poked in the backbone, mocked, and mocked by others. This is the coolest thing!

Charlie looked at Junwei Gao at this time, sneered, and said: "If you really want to register a video for me, the name of the post should be called Dragon Son-in-law! Oh, by the way, remember to use a dragon as my avatar. This is in line with my temperament!"

Junwei Gao smiled contemptuously: "I'll just obey you, and you will not forget to pretend when you are about to die!"

Charlie said indifferently: "It is you, not me, who will die!"

Jianjun Gao frowned, pointed his gun at Charlie's forehead, gritted his teeth and said: "Boy, pretend to be forceful? Believe it or not, I will kill you with one shot now!"

Charlie sneered and said word by word: "I! Do not! Believe it!"

Chapter 385

"Oh sh!t!"

Seeing that Charlie didn't pay much attention to him, Jianjun Gao sneered, and said, "You really are so pretending! Good! Since you like to pretend much, I will let you taste the pain in the world today! I will first take away your root!"

Junwei Gao hurriedly said to the side: "Dad, don't rush to hack his roots! I still want to take a picture of his infatuation with his mother-in-law! Or let's interrupt his hands and feet first and play him slowly!"

"Okay!" Jianjun Gao grinned and said: "Interrupt his hands and feet, and then let him show a live broadcast!"

Elaine and Claire were pale in shock, and Jianjun Gao had aimed his gun at Charlie's thigh.

He looked at Charlie and sneered: "This is the price you pay for provoking my son!"

After that, he pulled the trigger.

At this time, Charlie quietly let out two true energy from his hands, causing Claire and Elaine to fall asleep deeply.

When Jianjun Gao saw these two women asleep instantly, he was shocked and blurted out: "What's the matter? These two women are scared?"

"Almost." Junwei Gao said angrily: "What a f*cking disappointment! I want them to watch Charlie being interrupted!"

Jianjun Gao said: "It's easy, go get some water and splash them both up! To abolish such a spectacular drama as Charlie, they must witness it with their own eyes."

Seeing that his wife and mother-in-law were already asleep, Charlie no longer had any scruples. He sneered and said, "Just because of him, you want to destroy me?"

Jianjun Gao pointed his gun at him and said, "Charlie, you dare to pretend to be heard when you die? No matter how awesome you are, can you still have my bullets?!"

Junwei Gao is also full of confidence, yelling: "Charlie, if you kneel down to beg me now, and then put your legs on your own, maybe I can give you a good time later!"

In his opinion, even if Charlie cramped and peeled his skin, he couldn't get rid of his hatred.

He wanted to drink Charlie's blood, eat Charlie's meat, and then cut Charlie into pieces to feed the dog!

Hearing this, Charlie's eyes were extremely cold, and suddenly with his hands, the handcuffs made of stainless steel broke!

Father and son Gao were stunned by this scene!

What kind of monster is this? Who can with both hands break the handcuffs? !

Junwei Gao hurriedly said in fright: "Dad, this guy is not normal, hit him to death!"

At this time, Charlie sneered and said: "Now you still want to kill me? It's too late!"

After that, he raised his hand slightly, and he held a thundering order in his hand.

This is the thunder order that caused the sky thunder's death in Aurous Hill!

Jianjun Gao was a little dumbfounded, he didn't understand what Charlie was holding.

But instinct told him that this thing is weird!

So, he was afraid that things would change in vain, so he immediately pulled the trigger!

At this moment, Charlie gave a soft sigh: "Thunder come!"

With the fall of these words, thunder light flashed all over his body, the light was immense, like a dragon!

The whole hall is instantly bright as day!

The father and son did not react at all, they saw a white glow in front of them, and then, the sound of thunder rumbling in their ears was endless!

The two felt as if they were in the thundering sea above the nine heavens, and their souls were frightened!

Chapter 386

Looking at Charlie again, thunder and lightning lingered all over him, like a heavenly dragon descending into the world!

Junwei Gao yelled in panic: "Dad, what the h*ll is this! Shoot him quickly! Come on!"

Jianjun Gao's legs trembled in fright, and he blurted out: "I...my hand can't work...this Charlie seems to be able to summon supernatural powers..."

Junwei Gao panicked and said: "No one can summon the sky thunder, I think he is pretending to be a ghost, quickly beat him to death!"

Charlie sneered: "Junwei Gao, if you don't believe that I am a true dragon in the sky, then I will let you see it with your own eyes!"

Afterwards, Charlie looked at Jianjun Gao again and said coldly: "Jianjun Gao, don't forget that you were killed by your son!"

After that, he raised his hand to Jianjun Gao and yelled: "Thunder is coming!"

Hearing a loud bang, Jianjun Gao's head flashed with a ten-thousand-square ray of light. The strength of this light made Junwei Gao blind for a short time!

When this light dissipated, he saw Jianjun Gao, who was already alive, had died in an instant, and his whole person had turned into a piece of human-shaped coke, with the dark pistol still in his hand, but he still had the slightest trace of life?

Seeing such a scene, Junwei Gao was struck by lightning!

d*mn it, why did he become like this?

Standing here just now, the alive father was killed by the sky thunder that Charlie attracted? !

This is a big living person!

Why was Charlie not struck to death by lightning?

Junwei Gao's whole person was already trembling violently with fright, and all of this was completely beyond the scope of his understanding.

Is this Charlie really a real dragon in the sky? !

Isn't society always anti-feudal superstition? If people want to believe in science, where does the real dragon come from?

However, his father, who had turned into coke, stood in front of him. The dark corpse had turned into black charcoal, and he even kept dropping charcoal powder. This is a fact that he has seen with his own eyes!

Seeing that Junwei Gao was already scared, Charlie sneered, "Junwei Gao, do you believe this time?"

Junwei Gao stared at Charlie as if he saw a ghost. Suddenly he was weak, his legs softened, he knelt in front of Charlie, his body and heart were cold.

It wasn't until this time that he suddenly realized why Charlie dismissed him from beginning to end, and why the bigwigs like Orvel, Solmon White, Qin Gang and other important positions in Aurous Hill would treat Charlie respectfully.

If you know Charlie's immortal means that can provoke Fenglei by raising his hand, how can you still be not afraid of him?

Let your power be supreme, I will break it by lightning!

Such a human myth can't afford to offend him at all!

Junwei Gao was desperate in his heart. He knelt and crawled in front of Charlie. He kept kowtowing apologizing, saying: "Charlie, Mr. Wade, I know I was wrong, I apologize to you, please, let me go! I didn't do any wrong with Claire, your lord has a lot, let me go, please, spare me, spare my dog's life!"

Charlie looked at him, sneered, pointed at his legs, and said with a arrogant face: "Here it comes!"

Click!

Two sky thunders instantly struck Junwei Gao's legs!

Junwei Gao frightened the ghost crying wolf howling, he only felt his legs numb, as if he had lost consciousness, and then looked down, his legs turned into two coke sticks!

"Ah...Ah..." Junwei Gao couldn't believe that all this was real before him, so scared that he grabbed his thigh with both hands.

But he never thought that his legs were like two charcoals that had been burned to ashes, and they seemed to have their original shape, but when they touched them with his hands, they turned into flying ash!

Chapter 387

Seeing that his legs turned into fly ash and floated in the air, Junwei Gao was so frightened that he broke down and cried, and he was incontinent at the same time.

Only then did he truly understand that Charlie was indeed a real dragon in the sky, and in front of him, he was not even a worm.

With a cold face, he said, "From your idea of beating my wife, you are destined to have only one way to go, and that is death Road!"

As soon as he said this, Junwei Gao was so frightened that he couldn't stop shaking up and down.

Death Road? !

Thinking of this, he broke down even more, weeping bitterly, and begged: "Mr. Wade, I have no legs, and I am a completely disabled person. Please let me go this time, please. !"

Charlie sneered, "Don't you want to be a company with your father on Death Road? Don't forget, he died for you!"

"I don't want it, I don't want it!" Junwei Gao waved and shouted hysterically.

death?

How can he have the courage to face death at this young age!

He just wants to live in the world now.

Charlie looked at him playfully and sneered: "Do you think it's better to live than to die?"

Junwei Gao nodded in horror!

Of course it's better to live than to die!

Who doesn't want to survive? !

Charlie said coldly at this time: "This shows that you are not suffering enough now!"

After that, he waved his hand and faintly shouted: "Here!"

Another thunder went straight to Junwei Gao's crotch.

With a click, Junwei Gao felt his crotch tingling, and then, the crotch was completely ashes!

He took a handful of black ash from his crotch, stared at the black ash, crying loudly!

This is his root!

Now, it turned into a cloud of dust...

However, Charlie was not willing to let him go.

Charlie looked at him and said with a playful smile: "You can still hold up this black ash with your hands, to prove that you are not a disabled person at all!"

After speaking, he stepped forward to Junwei Gao, opened his hands, and sneered: "Here, Here!"

Immediately afterwards, two lightning flashes!

Junwei Gao saw with his own eyes that he was holding a pair of black and gray arms in the air, instantly turning into two charcoal lumps...

He was completely frightened, his body shook, and two black charcoals snapped off his shoulders with a click, and fell to the ground, turning into a ball of dust...

At this moment, Junwei Gao has become a stick without limbs. He looked at Charlie and begged in a panic: "Charlie...you let me go...It's already so miserable, so you can just kill me, okay? I beg you..."

As he spoke, tears and nose flowed.

Charlie shook his head and said coldly: "I said, if you touch my wife, you will die! The reason why I didn't give you a happy one is that I want you to feel it, what despair is!"

Junwei Gao said in a panic: "You...you killed my father, are you not afraid of being caught?! Do you know that our family is very strong! They can chase you at any time and let you die?!"

Charlie waved his sleeves, swept the charcoal powder aside, then sat cross-legged in front of him, looked at his eyes, and said with a smile: "Junwei Gao, do you know what my true identity is? "

Junwei Gao shook his head blankly.

Chapter 388

There is a word, he dare not say.

Aren't you the famous Rubbish pauper Charlie, the live in son-in-law?

Seeing that he didn't dare to speak, Charlie smiled and said, "You must think that I'm just a stinky rag, right?"

Junwei Gao dared not speak up.

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "To tell you the truth, I am the young master of the Wade Family of Eastcliff and the chairman of the Emgrand Group. What do you think is your family in front of me?"

Junwei Gao was immediately terrified...

Wade Family? !

Isn't that the top family in the country? !

why.....

Why did the eldest master of the Wade family come to the Willson family in Aurous Hill to be a live-in son-in-law? !

He couldn't help saying: "I don't understand...I don't understand...If you are really the Wade Family Mr. Wade then why are you willing to stay in the Willson family and be ridiculed by others? You can obviously let the Willson family Kneeling on your knees, you can obviously make the whole Aurous Hill bow to you..."

Charlie patted his face and said calmly: "Mortals are not qualified to see the true face of the dragon, and the true dragon does not bother to let them surrender."

After that, Charlie looked at the time and said lightly: "It's almost time, Junwei Gao, hurry up on the road before your dad is far away! When you get to death Road, you may be able to catch up with him and be a company. ."

Junwei Gao wailed in fear, but Charlie didn't give him a chance. He stood up, looked at Junwei Gao with a grin, and waved with one hand: "Thunder!"

There was a loud bang, and after the frightening thunder light dissipated, Junwei Gao, with endless regret and fear, turned his whole person into powder, leaving no trace in this world at all!

Charlie looked at his wife and mother-in-law who were still in a coma around him, sighed lightly, took out his mobile phone, and called Orvel.

As soon as the phone was connected, Charlie immediately ordered: "I'm at the riverside villa, bring a few people and cars, and bring some gasoline by the way."

Mr. Orvel immediately said, "Mr. Wade don't worry, Mr. Orvel will come here!"

More than ten minutes later, Mr. Orvel led people to arrive.

Charlie asked them to drive the car into the yard, and then said to Mr. Orvel: "Give me your car. I will take my wife and mother-in-law back. Here you help me set a fire and burn this thing to ground."

Orvel hurriedly nodded, and respectfully opened his Mercedes-Benz door.

Charlie put his wife and mother-in-law in the back seat, and said to Mr. Orvel: "Say hello to the media, don't report on this side."

"OK, Mr. Wade." Orvel hurriedly agreed.

.....

Charlie drove away from the riverside villa and returned to his home in the city.

After the car stopped downstairs, he took away the true energy from his wife and mother-in-law, and then the two woke up quietly.

When the two woke up, they were still in the worry and fear before, but suddenly saw that he was sitting in the car, and Charlie looked back at the two, both of them were a little shocked.

Claire couldn't help asking, "Charlie, what's the matter? Why are we here? Where are Junwei Gao and his father?"

Charlie smiled faintly and said, "They have fled because of the crime of kidnapping. The police are hunting them down."

"Ah?" Claire exclaimed and asked: "How did you escape with us?"

Charlie said: "I called the police before, so when they were about to kill me, the police arrived at the scene, and the father and son had to escape! I guess they wouldn't dare to return to Aurous Hill in this life!"

Claire recalled Charlie's single-handedly saving her in the past, her moved eyes were red, and she whispered, "Husband, thank you..."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Why are so polite with your husband? Your husband should do it!"

For Charlie, to hear Claire's husband thank you, it was worth it!

Chapter 389

At this moment, Elaine, who was next to him, breathed a sigh of relief, patted his chest and said, "It's a blessing today! I was almost ruined by that Jianjun Gao..."

Claire looked at her and said helplessly: "Mom, can you have a snack in everything from now on? Don't be sold anymore! I don't know! If it wasn't for Charlie today, we both will be dead by now!"

Elaine knew that she was wrong, but she reluctantly said: "What's the matter? I am also a victim! Besides, this matter itself was caused by Charlie. If he didn't provoke Junwei Gao, we couldn't encounter this kind of danger? After all, it was all his doing!"

Claire angrily said, "Why don't you get some sense!"

After that, she pushed the door and got out of the car, and went upstairs...

Seeing Claire upstairs, Elaine hurriedly pushed the car door to catch up.

Charlie also hurriedly followed. When he got home, the Old Master was not at home, so Elaine said to Claire, "Claire, don't tell your dad what happened today. Do you hear?"

Claire asked back: "Don't you think you are right? What's the guilty conscience?"

Elaine insisted: "Why do I have a guilty conscience? I just don't want your dad to worry too much, aren't we two already all right? What's the point of making him afraid?"

Claire said, "If you don't admit your mistakes in this matter, then I will tell Dad and let Dad judge!"

Elaine hurriedly said: "Oh, okay! I admit that I owe it to consideration, okay? I blame that d*mn Junwei Gao, sh!t, even who dared to fix Lady Willson! He also said to give me a Mercedes-Benz S500, I haven't even opened it yet!"

Claire suddenly heard Elaine talking about the Mercedes-Benz S500, and hurriedly asked: "What Mercedes-Benz S500? Mom, what is going on?!"

Elaine realized that she had said something wrong, and hurriedly explained: "Oh, that Junwei Gao called me and said that he wanted to apologize to you, so he gave me a Mercedes-Benz car first, and I thought about it. , You and your dad both have a car. I haven't driven a car yet, and someone just happened to deliver it to the door. Isn't that good? I can get you a decoration order, so I was confused and agreed."

After speaking, Elaine hurriedly argued: "But I did all that for you and this family!"

Claire said angrily: "Can you just use it for me and this family every time to perfume me and justify yourself? If it wasn't for Charlie today, I might be dead, and you might be dead too, and The night of death is not guaranteed. If we are both gone, how can you let Dad live? Maybe a family of three will get in! Charlie risked his life to save us, you didn't even have a word of thanks, still this sophistry is really disappointing!"

When Elaine heard Claire accusing her, she immediately sat on the ground with anger, and began to cry and scream.

"Oh my goodness, how come I have such a hard life, this one child in my entire life, she actually pointed to my nose and scolded me, my goodness, why I am alive! Just take me away!"

In the past, if Elaine was sloppy, Claire would definitely compromise soon.

But today, Claire didn't mean to compromise at all.

She looked at Elaine in extreme disappointment, and said with red eyes: "Mom, you always do this every time you make a mistake and move on without admitting it, hoping that others will not be held accountable again. If others continue to be held accountable, you will be sloppy. Shameless, do you think others will always accommodate you and forgive you?"

Elaine continued her performance, crying and wailing: "I'm so bitter, God! My biological girl actually talked to me like this. Doesn't she know that her parents are more than heaven? No matter what parents do wrong, they should be treated like children. I don't have the right to blame! God, you said this house, can I stay in the future? I can't stay anymore, then what is the point of being alive..."

Claire shed two lines of tears, and resolutely said: "Mom, if you are always like this, then Charlie and I will move out. I still have some savings. Let us rent a one-bedroom apartment. It doesn't cost much."

Chapter 390

After speaking, she said to Charlie: "Husband, go and pack your things!"

Of course Charlie nodded repeatedly and said, "Okay, then I will go."

Claire took out her cell phone again and said to Elaine, "I call dad and tell him I am moving out. Let the two of you live there. No matter what you do wrong, I won't accuse you again."

Elaine suddenly panicked.

In her life, the only hope she has is Claire.

Otherwise, with Jacob's ability, don't even think about turning over in this life.

However, this time Claire seemed to have a very determined attitude. If she had really called Jacob, there would be no room for turning around.

So she rushed over, hugged Claire's legs, and cried and said, "Claire, don't leave Mom Claire! Isn't it okay if Mom is wrong? Mom really knows it wrong! It's all my fault for being so senseless! Don't worry, Mom will change it in the future, can't Mom change it?"

Claire looked at her and said blankly: "If you really know you are wrong, you should apologize to Charlie first! Not only apologize for what you said, but also thank Charlie for saving us!"

Elaine replied subconsciously: "This waste, did he save us?"

Claire was anxious and stamped her feet: "You still call him Rubbish!"

Elaine hurriedly changed her words: "I was wrong. He is not a waste. You are right. I will apologize to him!"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly got up and went to the room of Claire and Charlie, and said reluctantly to Charlie: "Charlie, I apologize to you. I used to talk badly, so don't take it to your heart."

Then, she hesitated for a moment, and then said: "That's still there, thank you for today."

Charlie was indeed annoyed at Elaine, but it was not her bad attitude towards herself, but her greedy and shameless character, which almost harmed Claire.

For Charlie, as long as Claire is intact, even if Elaine is dead, he will not feel uncomfortable at all.

However, if Elaine caused Claire to be injured, she would die 10,000 times, which would not be enough to forgive herself.

Today's things are very annoying and scary, but fortunately, Claire is intact, and he can't teach her in front of Claire or show her some color.

However, if after today's incident, the stupid mother-in-law could have a little longer memory, then it would be better.

Thinking of this, Charlie thought to himself and gave Elaine one last chance. If she dared to cause such trouble next time, she would have her leg interrupted and let her sit in a wheelchair for the rest of her life.

If she can cause trouble in a wheelchair, then just make her a vegetable!

Chapter 391

Because Elaine confessed her mistake softly and assured him that she would not commit it again in the future, Claire was so soft-hearted that she did not pursue it anymore.

In private, Claire said to Charlie: "Charlie, my mother is like this. Don't blame her too much. As long as she knows her mistakes and can correct herself, she can do her best."

What can Charlie say? After all, she is his mother-in-law and Claire's real mother, so he can only smile and say: "I know Claire. You can think about this kind of thing by yourself. You don't need to think about me. I am Your husband, she is my mother-in-law, and I will definitely not blame her."

Claire nodded moved, gently hugged Charlie, and sighed: "What happened today is really thanks to you. If it weren't for you, mother and I would not be able to leave there alive... "

Charlie smiled and said, "Well, you don't have to say thank you."

"Yeah..." Claire nodded and said, "Just wait and see when you move out, what do you think?"

Although Charlie wanted to move out with Claire, he still had to respect Claire for these matters.

So he smiled and said, "I don't care about moving out. It doesn't matter whether you move or not."

As he said, he remembered something and said: "By the way, Tomson's villa is about to be renovated. When it is done, let's move in together as a family."

Claire was a little overwhelmed and said, "After all, the villa belongs to Solmon White. If he comes back someday and wants to get back, it may be troublesome. Let's move in as a family, isn't it good?"

"Nothing bad." Charlie smiled: "Solmon White transferred the villa to me a long time ago. Now the owner of the villa is me. He can't come back anymore. Besides, you don't want to live a quieter life in the future. If we move to a villa, where the house is large and has several floors, we can live on the third floor and let our parents live on the second floor. In this way, we can meet as little as possible and we can be freer. What do you think?"

Claire thought about it carefully, Charlie's words really moved her.

She doesn't want to escape the troubles of this family, but sometimes she feels that she is their child after all, so how can she move away from home immediately when her wings become hard.

However, this kind of thing is difficult to cushion.

However, if you really move into the villa, it will be much easier to worry about. Everyone's room is not on the first floor, so they can minimize the interference between them.

So she nodded and said to Charlie: "In this case, when the decoration is completed, let's move in!"

.....

Riverside villas, a villa is burning.

When the fire brigade arrived at the scene, it took a long time to put out the fire, but everything in the villa had been reduced to ashes.

However, the fire department also monitored the remains of the fire site and found no human bodies or bones, which proved that the fire did not cause casualties.

A fire with no casualties was naturally not so noticeable, so no one cared about the sudden fire.

The reason why they couldn't find any corpses or remains was because Jianjun Gao and Junwei Gao, father and son, had long been chopped into ashes under Charlie's thunder, and fused with the ashes from other objects in the room. It is thinner and smaller than flour, so no DNA component can be found at all.

The father and son of the Gao family have completely evaporated out of the world.

The Whole Gao family is anxious and on tenterhooks. Although they don't know where the two masters have gone, or their horrible plan to retaliate against Charlie, the villa that burned down belonged to their home. Now that the villa is burnt to ashes and the people are missing, they will naturally feel a bit bad!

Subsequently, the Gao family offered a reward of five million to find someone, and also sent photos of the two to the whole city.

However, no one can find two people who have disappeared out of thin air, and there is no clue about them in this world.

Chapter 392

At the same time, Fredmen, who was ruined by Charlie, was waiting for Jianjun Gao's call at Willson's home.

Since last night at the gate of the Clinic of Tianqi, he saw this pair of father and son who wanted to use gasoline to light up the Clinic, he realized that he had a fool to use.

What he had originally thought was to fool them both, lead them to treat Tianqi, and then use the fake medicine he prepared to exchange for Tianqi's real medicine.

Once he gets Tianqi's real medicine, the roots he can't use can naturally restore to the former glory.

However, after he said that he called today, the guy has never called him, which made him a little anxious.

He didn't know Jianjun Gao's name, so he could only call him according to the phone number he left, but how to call it was not in the service area.

The more unable to make a call, Fredmen became more irritable.

Old Mrs. Willson, Noah Willson, wife Horiyah, daughter Wendy, and son Harold, all of the family of five stood by and watched carefully at Fredmen sitting on the chair.

"d*mn! This dog, let me dove! He's really untrustworthy!"

After dialing Jianjun Gao's phone again, he still couldn't get through. Fredmen's face was gloomy.

He is about to collapse now. Without the ability of a man, he is simply a living eunuch, so now he can't wait to get Tianqi's magical medicine.

However, he knew Tianqi's details, so he didn't dare to provoke Fredmen directly.

Seeing him getting more and more irritable, Wendy hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "My dear, what's wrong with you? Who do you call? Why so irritable."

Fredmen said with a black face, "To a b@stard who doesn't know his name, sh!t."

Everyone looked at each other, wondering why Fredmen would repeatedly call someone who didn't know his name.

At this time, Harold suddenly received a WeChat and opened it. It was a large group of Aurous Hill dudes. All the group owners in the group said: "Junwei Gao and his father Jianjun Gao are missing. The Gao family is offering a reward of five million. Clues, if anyone knows the clues, you can get the money and invite everyone to drink!"

Immediately afterwards, photos of the two were sent.

Harold muttered in surprise: "How could Junwei Gao and Jianjun Gao suddenly disappear?"

Wendy asked in surprise: "Brother, didn't Junwei Gao let Charlie be thrown from the hospital upstairs two days ago and fell into a cripple?"

"Yes." Harold said, "They went missing today..."

As soon as Fredmen heard this, he immediately confronted the father and son carrying gasoline last night, and hurriedly asked, "Who is Junwei Gao you just mentioned? Is there a photo?"

"Yes." Harold hurriedly handed him the phone and said, "Look, Fredmen, they are the two of them who disappeared today."

When Fredmen saw the photo of the father and son, he suddenly exclaimed: "f*ck!"

Oh sh!t!

What happened? !

It was agreed that we would go to engage in Tianqi together today, but the mentally retarded father and son suddenly disappeared? !

Could it be... Could it be that Charlie did it? !

Chapter 393

Thinking that the disappearance of the Gao family man and his son might have something to do with Charlie, Fredmen couldn't help feeling nervous.

If Charlie can really let the father and son evaporate, then can't he do anything to him...

Moreover, in this way, he will have to forget Tianqi's magical medicine.

After all, there is no substitute for the dead ghost and the back pot man available now, and must not venture to provoke Tianqi.

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson looked at Fredmen with a flattering face, humbled like a dog, and said flatly: "Mr. Willson, or else we can think of a way to visit the big hospital in Eastcliff, maybe you can get treatment for the disease."

Now Fredmen is the life-saving straw for the entire Willson family, and the Old Mrs. Willson is even more anxious than him. If Fredmen is unable to recover the ability of a man, the remaining 70 million investment will definitely be in a dream.

"Yes, Mr. Willson, I think Tianqi is a man of fame and reputation. He can mix with Charlie's cock and he has the ability to bullsh*t."

Noah Willson also licked his face and took the conversation, even more flattering than the Old Mrs. Willson.

Their voices fell to the ground, Fredmen's expression was even more ugly, and he gritted his teeth and said: "Shut up, Tianqi's veteran skill, I know, he is unwilling to treat me, and it would be useless to go to Eastcliff."

Wendy also said anxiously: "Mr. Willson, isn't Aurous Hill the only genius doctor named Tianqi? Why don't we find someone else?"

She didn't have feelings for Fredmen, but she had just paid such a high price, but didn't get much benefit. How could she be willing?

Noah Willson remembered something and hurriedly asked: "Fredmen, didn't you say that that night, there was a friend who opened a pharmaceutical factory? Would you like to ask the other person?"

Fredmen's expression was suddenly happy, thinking about Tianqi's magical medicine, but forgot about it.

There is a Wei family in Aurous Hill, which itself is a large company in the Aurous Hill pharmaceutical industry. The man, whose name is named Hetang Wei, is also ranked top in the country.

It just so happened that Fredmen had a good relationship with the eldest master of the Wei family. The two often fool around together. Now it is estimated that he is the last straw in Aurous Hill.

And the eldest young master of the Wei family, just like himself, is also a devil and fellow.

If ask him for help, start from this aspect.

He looked up at Wendy, his eyes full of dissatisfaction and disgust.

After spending 15 million up and down, he played with this woman for two or three days, and then became a eunuch. This is really the most expensive woman he has ever played!

Now, his roots have become a decoration, and he can't continue to engage in Wendy. It's useless to keep this woman. It's better to take her over and go to the young master of the Wei family to play the residual heat.

Thinking of this, Fredmen looked at Wendy, smiled suddenly, and said, "Wendy, you will be better dressed tomorrow. Come with me to see a friend."

It's rare for Wendy to see Fredmen smiling and talking to her these days, she was happy, and nodded hurriedly, not knowing what Fredmen was thinking about.

.....

The next day.

The news of the disappearance of the Gao family old man and his son is still spreading throughout the city.

However, Claire and Elaine didn't take it seriously, because Charlie had already said that these two people absconded in fear of crime.

Since it is a crime to abscond, it is natural to evaporate the world.

Fredmen contacted the eldest young master of the Wei family in advance, and in the evening, took Wendy to the box of the Aurous Hill family club, anxiously awaiting the arrival of the other party.

Chapter 394

Wendy dressed up very beautifully today. She is wearing a black hip skirt worth 100,000. Not only did she show the curves of her body, she also deliberately showed the career line on her chest, and she also painted heavy makeup on her face.

Although she is much worse than Claire, Warnia and other women, after being well-dressed, coupled with revealing clothes, she can still make most men feel impatient.

She was even a little excited when she heard that she was coming to see the young master of the Wei family.

Although the Wei family is not a top family in Aurous Hill, it is still much stronger than the Willson family.

Now that the Willson family is lonely, Wendy also hopes that she can get to know more wealthy people. If she finds a good opportunity, she may be able to bring some improvement to the family.

After the two waited in the box for a while, the door of the box was suddenly pushed open.

A middle-aged man in an Armani suit walked in. The man combed his head and looked wretched. He also carried a Patek Geraldippe watch on his wrist.

Behind him, followed by a man carrying a bag, about one or two years younger than him, looking like an assistant.

Fredmen stood up, smiled and said, "Oh, brother Wei, sit inside."

The middle-aged man smiled and said to Fredmen: "Fredmen, you are a very busy man. You used to come to Aurous Hill for a long time. Why suddenly you have time to ask me? It really flattered me, my little brother!"

As he said, he saw Wendy beside Fredmen, and his eyes lit up suddenly.

So he smiled and said to Fredmen: "I said Mr. Willson, who is this beauty? You don't introduce her to your brother."

Fredmen pulled Wendy over and said with a smile: "Come on, brother Wei, let me introduce to you. This is my niece, Wendy."

"It turns out to be President Willson's niece, no wonder she is so beautiful."

When Wei heard this, he smiled and nodded, a greedy look flashed in his eyes, and he reached out to Wendy and said, "Miss Willson, lucky to to meet you!"

Fredmen said to Wendy: "Wendy, this is Barena Wei, the general manager of Weijia Pharmaceutical. Weijia Pharmaceutical is a well-known pharmaceutical company in Aurous Hill, and it is very powerful."

Wendy also hurriedly shook hands with the other party, and said: "Hello, Mr. Wei!"

Barena Wei greedily touched Wendy's hands twice, then took off his coat and threw it to the man dressed as an assistant behind him.

The assistant missed one, and his jacket fell to the ground.

Barena Wei's eyes flashed with a look of disgust, and he glared at him and cursed: "Rubbish! This little thing can't be done!"

"Sorry, brother, it's all my fault...Don't be angry." The man's face was pale, he quickly picked up his jacket and wiped the dust off.

He didn't say it, but Barena Wei became even more upset when he said this. He walked to the front and slapped him and said coldly, "Liang Wei, how many times have I said that you were born and raised by a mounter? b@stard, there is no right to call me eldest brother, get out and wait for me."

Liang Wei was slapped, but he didn't dare to refute, as if he had been used to it, he nodded humbly and said, "I know that big brother."

After speaking, he hurried out of the box.

"What a disappointment, d*mn it!"

Barena Wei said something cursively, Fredmen on the side said curiously, "Brother Wei, is this your Rubbish brother?"

Barena Wei said coldly: "It's just a wild species, not my brother!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Wendy greedily, smiled and asked, "Ms. Wendy is so beautiful, do you have a boyfriend?"

Chapter 395

When Wendy heard this, she did not answer Barena Wei's question, but looked at Fredmen awkwardly.

She dare not say that she has no boyfriend, because she is Fredmen's lover after all.

But she did not dare to say that she was Fredmen's lover to outsiders. After all, Fredmen had a family and a room, and she would not be able to see it. In case she made her own way and said she was his lover and caused him trouble, it would be finding something for yourself.

However, what she didn't expect was that Fredmen was very generous at this time. He smiled and said to Barena Wei directly: "Brother Wei, let's tell you, Wendy is actually my lover, but you have to be tight-lipped and don't tell others. ."

Barena Wei suddenly felt a little regretful. He thought it was Fredmen's niece, but he didn't expect that the niece was just a cover, but in fact she was a lover.

Although he fell in love with Wendy, he didn't dare to steal a woman from Fredmen, so he could only dispel the thoughts in his heart.

Fredmen naturally saw his performance in his eyes, smiled quietly, and started talking with Barena Wei.

He deliberately asked Barena Wei, "By the way, Brother Wei, how is your Dad's health lately?"

Barena Wei sighed and said, "It's not so good. The Old Master had too many romantic debts when he was young. Now he has been punished, and his body is worse than every day."

Fredmen asked curiously: "Mr. Wei has a lot of romantic debts?"

"Of course there are many." Barena Wei said helplessly: "You don't know that my Old Master, like me, is a humanoid pile driver. He was handsome when he was young, and he would coax women and buy medicinal materials everywhere by doing business. The chance of going to sleep is almost wherever you go in this field. As far as I know, there are no less than 20 old lovers! This is just what I know, more than that could be breathing somewhere!"

"So moving!" Fredmen exclaimed, "Your father was so romantic when he was young?"

Barena Wei nodded, and said depressed, "How else can I find a half-brother who is a wild brother for me? Actually, there are several wild plants outside my dad, and the others are all girls. This species is a man. After my grandfather knew about it, he insisted that the Wei family's species could not be left outside, and forced my dad to take him back from Changbai Mountain."

After speaking, Barena Wei said again: "Not only I don't want to see this wild species, but my dad doesn't want to see him either himself, but there is no way. It is a mess at home."

Fredmen had long heard that the Wei family had two sons, the eldest son was Barena Wei, and the younger son Liang Wei was an illegitimate son. He was a romantic debt left by the Wei family's father in the early years. He was not received until he was a teenager. The Wei family has never been seen by anyone, and even the character of the Wei family is not qualified to use it.

It seems that Liang Wei grew up in this environment, and it is also miserable enough.

Fredmen suddenly asked curiously: "By the way, Brother Wei, your Old Master is so romantic, his ability in that area is definitely not ordinary, is there any good medicine?"

Barena Wei nodded and said with a smile: "Don't say, there is really a recipe that the Old Master accidentally got outside when he was young, it can strengthen the muscles and nourish the kidney, and greatly improve the ability of men in that area."

"Really?!" Fredmen said in surprise, "Brother, is this recipe still there now?"

Barena Wei said: "How do you say this recipe? When I was young, my dad ate it for 20 to 30 years. It was really useful. It is said that when the old guy was collecting medicine in the southwest, he fought a dozen times overnight and he gave him the nickname Wei Jia 14..."

Speaking of this, Barena Wei sighed and said: "But this prescription, I wanted to take it for mass production later, and the pharmacokinetics studied it and found that this thing has the strong liver toxicity and nephrotoxicity, so you Look at my Old Master, in his early sixties, his liver and kidneys are almost exhausted, and the doctor said that if he lives for another two or three years at most, he has to go to the west to report to the Buddha."

Chapter 396

Fredmen's originally delighted face suddenly became heavy.

It is important to regain the abilities of men and reorganize the male power, but life is even more important!

You can't take your life in order to play with women, right?

Barena Wei saw his contrast, and asked curiously: "Fredmen, what wrong...is there anything unspeakable?"

Fredmen showed a helpless expression and said, "Brother Wei, it's true that I am a d*mn living eunuch now, brother, and I can't do anything at all. I went to the hospital and the doctor couldn't do anything. You must help me!"

As he said, he hurriedly asked, "Is the medicine your Old Master used once or twice as toxic? Would you like to get it for me to try?"

Barena Wei hurriedly said, "Brother, don't try that medicine. If you really break your body, the gain is not worth the loss!"

As he said, he said again: "By the way, our Wei family is just studying this prescription, hoping to improve it, so that it not only strengthens the male virility, but also not hurt the body. If done well, it is possible. It has a strong repairing effect on men's abilities!"

"Really?!" Fredmen said in surprise: "That's great! When can I get it out?"

Barena Wei said: "However, this medicine is still short of medicinal materials. If it is to be completed, it will take two days for the traditional medicine Expo to be held before I can buy this medicinal material at the Expo."

Fredmen was overjoyed, let alone two days, as long as he can be cured, he can wait two years!

So he hurriedly said: "Brother Wei, after the medicine, is made, can you sell me a copy? I really need this thing now."

Is it necessary? He is now a living eunuch, if he keeps that way, he might as well cut himself off.

Barena Wei sighed and said, "It's not that the Old Master didn't help you. The materials needed for this medicine are too precious. It is estimated that in the early trials, only one copy can be made..."

After finishing speaking, he glanced at Wendy and said with a smile: "However, it is not impossible to discuss..."

How could Fredmen not know what Barena Wei this old fox meant. He showed a smile that every man understands, and said directly to Wendy: "Wendy, from now on you will be Brother Wei's person. Thank him for me, like serving me. Serve him, you know?"

When Barena Wei heard this, he was immediately excited.

Seeing Wendy's first glance, he longed for something to happen to this beauty.

But when he heard that she was Fredmen's niece, he was very disappointed.

But unexpectedly, she turned out to be Fredmen's lover, and Fredmen directly pushed Wendy into his hands in order to beg for medicine.

This is really no effort at all!

Chapter 397

Wendy's heart was somewhat unhappy.

She even hopes to continue to be Fredmen's lover, and Fredmen can introduce her to more important people.

In this way, with the help of Fredmen's aura, she can manage her contacts and gradually become a lady of Aurous Hill.

At that time, not only will benefit a lot, the Willson Group will also benefit, and she will also become the support of the Willson Group and the leader of the Willson Group.

But what she didn't expect was that Fredmen only used herself as a tool. In order to ask for a medicine, she had to hand over herself to Barena Wei?

I want to be Fredmen's lover and a celebrity in the upper class, but I don't want to be a plaything of the upper class. Once the reputation of the plaything spreads, then I don't want to climb up in my life.

So, she took Fredmen's hand and said, "Fredmen, people love you so much, they want to be by your side and don't want to leave you..."

Fredmen was very upset with Wendy at this time, because Wendy was the one with the least price-performance ratio among the women he had played with.

Therefore, he is now anxious to get rid of Wendy in exchange for the last benefit.

Sending her to Barena Wei naturally became the best choice today.

Now that he has no abilities in that area, he can only watch Wendy and can't eat it, but if Wendy is sent out, if the Wei family can really cure his hidden illness, then he can continue to find other women.

So he said coldly to Wendy: "Stop with me. I ask you to accompany Brother Wei, so you can accompany him. Where is there so much nonsense?"

Wendy's aggrieved tears flowed, crying, "Fredmen, didn't you stay with me because you like me? If you really like me, how can you give me to someone else?"

Barena Wei on the side was a little uncomfortable, and said: "Oh, Fredmen, since Miss Wendy has a deep affection for you, then don't make it difficult!"

Fredmen raised his hand and slapped Wendy, cursing: "You are just a plaything of Mr.. You have to do what Mr. Wei asks you to do, and you dare to disobey? Tell you, if you don't accompany me well today Accompanying Brother Wei, I immediately withdrew from the Willson family and let the Willson family go bankrupt. You must also return the money I gave you. How can Fredmen help the Willson family? Back to the original shape, that is what you want!"

Upon hearing this, Wendy was stunned, and a sense of humiliation instantly surged into her heart.

But what's the use of humiliation?

Can she refuse Fredmen because of humiliation?

Rejecting Fredmen is very simple. If she doesn't agree, she can do it.

But what happens after rejection? After refusing, everything goes back to its original form, the Willson family was waiting for bankruptcy, and her own socialite dream would also be broken.

Therefore, Wendy could only force a smile and said: "I promise, I promise! I will definitely take care of Mr. Wei."

Fredmen sneered and said, "You count as acquaintance!"

As he said, he pushed Wendy into Barena Wei's arms and smiled: "Go with Mr. Wei tonight!"

Barena Wei hugged Wendy, feeling very excited, and said with a smile: "Wendy, let me open a room in the hotel. Let's get to know each other tonight!"

Wendy quietly wiped away her tears, resentful in her heart.

Once upon a time, Wendy was also the daughter of the Willson family, and was also sought after by countless people. She also had a proud heart. Looking for a boyfriend would always be the rich second generation of a big family, and she would not even look at some of them.

However, she never expected that she would end up like this after she had exhausted all the functions.

Chapter 398

Fiance Gerald abandoned her and she became Fredmen's lover, but she was used as a tool by him and he threw her to Barena Wei. If Barena gets tired of her in the future, who will she be thrown to?

At this moment, she couldn't help but think of her cousin Claire.

Claire had never thought so much on her own. She had never been in a relationship before, and she was married directly to Charlie, a Rubbish, but although Charlie was a bit Rubbish, Charlie would never let her be insulted like this... ..

In contrast, she may not be a winner.

Barena Wei hugged her tightly in his arms and said to Fredmen with a wry face: "Don't worry, Mr. Willson, when we gather the prescription, I will send you the medicine immediately! Help you regain your power!"

"Great!" Fredmen finally relieved his heart and said with a smile: "Then I can wait for your good news with peace of mind!"

Barena Wei nodded and looked at the time. He felt a little anxious about doing something with Wendy, so he smiled at Fredmen and said, "Mr. Willson, it's not too early today, or we will be there tonight. Here?"

Fredmen knew that Barena Wei couldn't wait to take Wendy to spend the night together, and his heart couldn't help but feel envy.

But he nodded very generously and smiled: "Okay, that's it for tonight, you two go first!"

After speaking, he said to Wendy: "Serve President Wei well, do you understand?"

Wendy nodded humiliatedly, and could only say honestly: "I understand..."

This night, Wendy became Barena Wei's lover again.

Although Wendy was deeply disgusted with this new title, Barena Wei was amazed at her performance in that respect.

This evening, Barena Wei also found his second spring on Wendy's body.

So, after the harvest, he held Wendy and promised her: "You don't need to accompany the old fellow Fredmen anymore. Follow me steadfastly and I will make you a queen."

Wendy finally felt better when he said this.

If Barena Wei could make her something, it would not be a bad thing to follow him.

After all, although he is not as rich as Fredmen, at least he is much younger than Fredmen, and, it seems, he is not the kind of man who can give her to others casually.

.....

Early the next morning, news of the disappearance of the Gao family and his son continued to ferment.

It is said that the Gao family raised the reward to 10 million, and many small gangsters on the road began to look for the whereabouts of the father and son, hoping to get rich overnight.

It is a pity that the Gao family and his son have been wiped out, and they no longer exist between heaven and earth.

After breakfast, Claire went to the studio, and Jacob went to the Antique Association. It is said that he is learning antique appreciation from Master in the association recently. As for Elaine, she was as scared as a dog yesterday, but she went to play Mahjong again early this morning with heavy makeup.

Charlie was mopping the floor alone at home, and suddenly received a call from Warnia, the eldest of the Song family.

Charlie pressed the answer button while dragging the ground.

Warnia's gentle voice sounded, and she asked respectfully: "Mr. Wade, are you at home now?"

"Yes." Charlie asked curiously: "You have something to do with me?"

Chapter 399

Charlie asked curiously: "Are you looking for me?"

Warnia smiled slightly and said, "That's right. Our Song family invested in a high-end club in Jinka District. We want to send you a supreme membership card. Now I'm downstairs in your house."

Charlie said indifferently: "Come up directly, I'm at home."

Warnia hurriedly said, "That's great, I will come up right now."

Charlie hung up with a hum.

A few minutes later, Warnia rang the doorbell.

Charlie opened the door, and his eyes lit up.

Today Warnia is wearing a long black evening dress, trimmed very close to the body, showing her thin willow-like waist perfectly. Under the skirt with short front and long back, there are a pair of white and flawless long legs. Like a beautiful jade.

Coupled with her glamorous and noble face, as well as the high-ranking temperament she has cultivated for a long time, the whole person is as beautiful as a night elf.

Her dress was so stunning, Charlie couldn't help but look more.

"Mr. Wade."

Warnia owed her body. When she came, she deliberately put on makeup and dressed up. Seeing Charlie's amazing eyes, she couldn't help feeling sweet.

Charlie nodded lightly: "Come in and sit down."

Warnia gave a hum, and cautiously followed Charlie in.

After the two of them sat down, Warnia took out a VIP card made of pure platinum and offered them respectfully with both hands.

"Mr. Wade, this is the supreme VIP card of the Brilliant Club. Only one card has been made. Only you have it. It is a bit of my heart. Anytime you come to the Brilliant Club, you can use this card for free for life."

The glorious club that just opened has been a hot topic in Aurous Hill's upper class these days.

Because it is a club invested by the Song family, the overall investment is extremely high, and it has been built for several years before finally being completed. It can be regarded as the top high-end business club in Aurous Hill.

With the support of the Song family, Aurous Hill and almost all the big figures in the entire Nanguang province gathered here.

The more such big people gather together, the better the best choice for business talks, cooperation, and expansion of contacts. So before it opened, it was sought after by countless people, and everyone wanted to become a member of the brilliant club.

However, in order to ensure the high-end of the club, members here have very strict threshold restrictions.

Brilliant members are divided into four levels: ordinary member, senior member, vip member, and senior vip member. As for the supreme vip card sent by Warnia to Charlie, it is unique, so the outside world simply does not know it.

Among them, just the lowest ordinary member, the membership fee is one million, the premium member is five million, and the VIP member is tens of millions.

To become a senior VIP member, you must be a patriarch with a family asset of tens of billions, otherwise it is impossible.

Therefore, to the outside world, senior VIP is already a top member.

Charlie didn't have much interest in this kind of thing, but it was not easy to refute Warnia's face. After all, she made a special membership for him. If he refused, it would seem a little unreasonable.

So he took the supreme membership card, smiled and thanked her, then put it in his pocket.

At this time, Warnia looked at Charlie, hesitated for a moment, and said somewhat embarrassingly: "Mr. Wade, besides that, I have a gratuitous request. I wonder if Mr. Wade can do it."

Chapter 400

Charlie said lightly: "Talk about it."

Warnia hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, our family invested more than one billion in the brilliant club. It can be regarded as a relatively large project. I am afraid that there will be any mistakes. I hope you can help to take a look at the feng shui and stop the disaster and bring blessing."

Warnia said so, she was a little nervous, she didn't know if Charlie would agree, she looked at Charlie nervously with her big eyes.

Charlie smiled faintly, thinking that the Song family had always been doing well and was loyal to him. In addition, Warnia came to the door in person this time and had a very respectful attitude, so why not just go and take a look.

So, he nodded and said: "If this is the case, then I will come with you."

Warnia hurriedly said: "Thank you Mr. Wade for taking the time out of your busy schedule. My car is downstairs at your house. We can leave at any time. When is it convenient for you?"

Charlie said: "Let's do it now, just to see how your club is doing."

Warnia was overjoyed and hurriedly accompanied Charlie out respectfully.

.....

Soon, Warnia's Rolls-Royce stopped at the door of the brilliant club.

Brilliant Club is located in Jinka District, the most prosperous area in Aurous Hill.

The Song family started this project a few years ago, and it was only recently completed.

This clubhouse is run by the top domestic architects, and the decoration style is also at the forefront of the trend, extremely luxurious.

As soon as the car stopped, a waiter immediately came forward to open the door, and Charlie and Warnia walked off.

After getting off, Warnia respectfully said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, please follow me."

Charlie nodded, and first glanced at the facade of the entire clubhouse.

The exterior shape of the glorious clubhouse looks rich and magnificent, and the luxurious atmosphere reveals a trace of nobility. The two white marble pillars are carved with dragon patterns, which are lifelike and daunting.

From the moment you step into the clubhouse, the floor is covered with a layer of handmade wool carpets.

The size of such a wool carpet is almost tens of thousands of square meter. For a thousand square meters of space in the entire hall, the money spent on the stall alone is tens of millions!

Warnia respectfully followed by her side, pointing to the walls around the hall that were tens of meters high, and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, these murals are world-class cultural treasures, and each mural is worth about tens of millions."

Charlie nodded and said, "There is a country in the Middle East called Abu Dhabi. The grand mosque there is like this as a whole, but what you deal with here is just right, without such a strong religious color."

"Yes." Warnia said cautiously: "After all, most of us in China are atheists and don't promote too much feudal superstition, so we tried to avoid religious and cultural styles when we designed this club from the beginning. ."

After that, Warnia pointed to a ten-meter-high, very huge ceiling crystal lamp at the top of the hall. This crystal lamp is not only huge in size, but also very bright, making the whole room like daylight, with bright lights.

Warnia continued: "Mr. Wade, this crystal chandelier is made of natural crystal and weighs 8.8 tons. It was acquired by the Song family after a lot of connections and effort, and in order to get it from Europe. To bring it here, we specially assemble it by airlift from Austria to Aurous Hill."

Charlie said: "Feng Shui said that in all business places and all serious business, the light should not be too dark. The darker the light, the more it affects Feng Shui, so you can never save money on the lamp."

Warnia nodded and said, "Mr. Wade I will note this down."

After that, Warnia smiled at Charlie and said, "Mr. Wade, the top floor here is not open to the public. Except for the Song family, only you, the only supreme VIP, can go up. Why don't we go to the top floor to take a look?"

Charlie nodded slightly: "Okay."

Chapter 401

The brilliant club has 15 floors.

Except for the lobby on the first floor, the other fourteen floors are used as entertainment venues.

Among them, below the tenth floor are boxes of different sizes and styles. Even the boxes of ordinary members are extremely luxurious, not to mention the high-level VIP boxes, which are simply an emperor's enjoyment.

As for the tenth floor and above, there are swimming pools, sky gardens, fitness and entertainment facilities.

Among them, the top fifteen floors are the most luxurious.

On the fifteenth floor, Charlie just got out of the elevator, and immediately saw the luxury of the surroundings.

It's a palace-like splendor, everything is extremely luxurious and elegant, and basically nothing can be faulted.

Warnia walked beside Charlie and introduced, saying, "Mr. Wade, this floor is the most luxurious floor in the entire glorious club. It is also equipped with a semi-outdoor infinity pool, presidential suite, private dining room, and even if you want to listen to music A small concert can be held here. If you like a singer, you can ask him to come over and sing for you on the 15th floor."

With that, Warnia hurriedly said: "By the way, a very famous girl group is coming to Aurous Hill for a concert recently. One of their members has been very popular recently and is named koi girl. The other's economic company happens to be Our Song family invested, if you are interested in can be arranged,

Charlie smiled lightly, waved his hand and said: "Forget it, I don't like the entertainment industry too much."

Warnia nodded and said, "The entertainment industry is really messed up. If you like more powerful players, I can also help you invite some top singers over and sing for you alone."

Charlie smiled and said, "If I have this need, I will tell you."

"Okay." Warnia smiled and said: "In short, Mr. Wade must not be polite to Warnia. If you have any needs, you can tell me that I will do its best to satisfy you."

When she said this, Warnia's face was reddened. This arrogant and indifferent eldest lady was rarely ashamed in front of a man.

In fact, Warnia has always remembered the teachings of her grandpa.

To find a way, to recruit him as the Song Family's son-in-law.

Moreover, she herself also likes Charlie, a man who has strength and ability, but is very low-key, and she has long been fond of Charlie.

Therefore, these words are not only a heartfelt expression to Charlie, but also a vague expression of love.

It's just that Charlie didn't taste the deeper meaning, but smiled slightly, thanked Warnia's respect, and said: "From a glance, the Feng Shui here is still very good. At that time, I considered the issue of Feng Shui. However, it is required to be careful about it. Therefore, I have to look at each level, otherwise I may not be able to see it."

After speaking, Charlie said calmly: "Let's do it, you go ahead and I will just go around."

Warnia hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, I will stay with you!"

Charlie smiled and said: "No, no, you need to be calm to see Feng Shui more thoroughly. I'll go and watch it alone. Just wait for me here."

Warnia didn't insist on accompanying him anymore, and respectfully said: "Mr. Wade has any needs, just call me directly."

Charlie nodded slightly to Warnia, did not speak, and walked into the elevator.

.....

Charlie went down from the fifteenth floor and took the elevator floor by floor to look over.

Look at it layer by layer, and finally he reach the only second layer that he hasn't seen.

Looking at it all day, Charlie felt that the brilliant clubhouse can be said that the decoration of each floor is very luxurious, and the designer's intentions can be seen.

However, the feng shui here can only be regarded as quite satisfactory.

Chapter 402

Brilliant Feng Shui does have a certain degree of exquisiteness, but in Charlie's view, there is nothing very profound and unique.

Ordinary people may think that Feng Shui here is very good, but in his opinion, the Feng Shui here is like a glass of boiled water. It has no advantages, no harm, dull and unremarkable.

But now that Warnia had promised, Charlie didn't mind making a move, raising the entire glorious Feng Shui to the next level.

He thought to himself that combining the Feng Shui mystery in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, he soon had a whole set of ideas.

At this moment, a woman's voice suddenly came from behind him.

"Charlie, why are you Rubbish here?"

Hearing this, Charlie frowned and turned around, and saw Wendy and a man in a white suit walking over.

The man is no one else but the eldest son of the Wei family, Barena Wei.

Barena Wei has loved Wendy since he got her from Fredmen.

He even promised Wendy that she would be a master.

Wendy was unwilling to be sent around like a plaything at first, but seeing that Barena Wei was really sincere to her, she was willing to be his lover.

From Wendy's point of view, although the Wei family's strength is not as good as Fredmen's Future Company Group, it is at least one billion in assets. Compared with the previous Willson family, that is too much.

Therefore, after she approached Barena Wei, she regained her former pride.

Today the brilliant club opened, Barena Wei specially spent 5 million to buy a senior member qualification, and then brought Wendy over to experience it, and meet the world by the way.

After Wendy entered the glorious clubhouse, she was shocked by the luxury here, and suddenly she had the feeling of high society.

But when she was immersed in this feeling, she suddenly saw Charlie who made her hate him.

It's like when eating the Manchu Feast, suddenly saw a fly.

Disappointment!

It's really disappointing!

She was so disappointed that she just wanted to quickly find a way to get rid of this fly!

Otherwise, the experience of this full-fledged man will instantly fall into the valley!

Of course, it is best to swat this fly to death.

When Barena Wei saw Wendy firing a cannon at a very ordinary guy, he hugged her waist tightly, and asked curiously: "Wendy, this is the smelly live-in son-in-law Charlie you said?"

"It's him!" Wendy gritted her teeth and looked at Charlie, and said, "This grandson has been a notorious waste since he was in college. I didn't expect that he would still come to the brilliant club!"

When Barena Wei was lingering with Wendy, he heard Wendy talk about some of the past of the Willson family, so he was very impressed with Charlie.

When he thought that he had just conquered Wendy, in order to make Wendy give up, he naturally wanted to give her a lot of help, so Barena Wei looked at Charlie and sneered: "Boy, is the glorious club a place where you can come?"

Charlie's face became cold, and he asked, "Why can't I come?"

"Why can't you come?" Barena Wei grinned and said, "Because you are not worthy!"

Chapter 403

Charlie couldn't help laughing when he heard Barena Wei's words.

He was not angry, but looked at him with a good temper, and asked with a smile: "Come on, tell me, why am I not worthy?"

Barena Wei's nostrils turned into the sky, and he coldly snorted, "I need to ask? You naturally don't deserve it! Look at the clothes you wear, sh!t, it's not as good as the doorman at the door!"

Charlie smiled and said: "What I wear is my freedom. Does Brilliant Club still require guests to wear specific clothes?"

Barena Wei sneered: "Of course, the Brilliant Club does not require clothing, but the membership system is implemented here! No member is absolutely not allowed to enter!"

With that, Barena Wei asked sarcastically, "Are you an ordinary member here?"

Charlie shook his head lightly: "No."

Barena Wei asked disdainfully: "Then are you a senior member here?"

Charlie also shook his head: "No."

Barena Wei sneered and said, "Why don't you want to tell me, are you a VIP member here?"

Charlie spread his hand: "It's still not."

Barena Wei couldn't help laughing: "Hahaha, you smelly rug, wouldn't you tell me you are a senior VIP member? As far as I know, no more than ten people can get senior VIP members in Aurous Hill!"

Charlie smiled lightly, showing two rows of small white teeth, and said harmlessly, "Neither."

Barena Wei frowned and snorted coldly: "You or him are not any members. I think you came in while you were unprepared, right?"

Wendy on the side also said sarcastically: "Then I need to ask, how could such a waste son-in-law who was abandoned by our Willson family be a member here? It's definitely a stinky rag who came in to eat and drink!"

After finishing speaking, she glared at Charlie, gritted her teeth and said: "Charlie, you came to the wrong place today! This is the newly opened brilliant high-end club of the Song family. Today, it is open for trial business. The people who come are all decent characters. You dare to get in and make trouble. Are you not afraid of being killed by security?"

Charlie said innocently: "I am a member here, why would the security beat me?"

Barena Wei sneered and said, "Do you f*cking pretend to me? There are four grades of members here, ordinary member, senior member, VIP member, and senior VIP member. You are none of these four. You still say you are a member?"

Charlie said seriously: "Although I am not a member of these four tiers, I am a supreme VIP member and belong to the fifth tier. Don't you know?"

"Bah!" Barena Wei said contemptuously: "I can go to your mother to drop it! I didn't see the hanging introduction in the lobby on the first floor? There are four files in total, and you really know how to edit it. What kind of supreme VIP member? Dan, are you not afraid of offending the Song family?"

Charlie shook his head helplessly and said: "You are so strange, what I told you is the truth, why do you just not believe it?"

"I believe you?" Barena Wei seemed to hear a big joke, and said mockingly: "Just like that, you want to fool me, Barena Wei?"

Charlie asked curiously: "Are you famous? Why haven't I heard of you?"

Barena Wei sneered: "Have you heard of Wei's Pharmaceuticals? I'm the general manager of Wei's Pharmaceuticals."

Charlie shook his head and said, "I'm sorry, I haven't heard of it."

Barena Wei thought that Charlie was deliberately taunting him, and suddenly said with a gloomy face: "Boy, you are having trouble today, and you don't have a membership, and you dare to enter the brilliant club of the Song family. You also blatantly said that you are a supreme VIP member. Which idiot made up this name for you? It's a d*mn bluff!"

Charlie shook his head helplessly, took out his membership card, and said, "Here, look, this is my membership card. Does it say Supreme VIP Member?"

Chapter 404

Barena Wei took a look at the membership card and immediately frowned.

Not to mention, the workmanship of this card is so good!

The workmanship is much better than your ordinary membership card!

However, he has never heard of any supreme VIP members of the Glory Club! There are obviously only four gears!

Thinking of this, Barena Wei had an answer in his heart.

This card must be forged like this!

d*mn, this smelly rag is so bold!

He even dares to forge the membership card of the Song Family Club. What is the difference between this and forged bank checks?

So he immediately snorted and said: "Boy, quickly kneel down and apologize to me, and then get out of here! Otherwise, I'll say hello to Boyu, the housekeeper of the Song family. Do you know that I am talking to Boyu? What's the relationship? Boyu and my dad, that's like brother!"

In fact, Barena Wei's father has nothing to do with Boyu.

The two of them are just fellows, and it coincides that they have known each other for a long time, so they are a bit personal.

Boyu has been in Song family for many years, and his position is detached.

It can be said to be a foreigner with the strongest strength and highest status in addition to the big figures in the Song family.

In terms of status, Boyu is much better than an underground king like Orvel.

Because Orvel couldn't come to the stage after all, unlike Boyu, he was the spokesperson of the Song family on many occasions.

Therefore, Barena Wei often talked about Boyu when he was outside, which could have the effect of a fake tiger.

When Charlie heard that he knew Boyu, he sneered and said, "I forgot to tell you that the Supreme VIP membership card was given to me by Warnia Song, the eldest of the Song family. Didn't you just ask, which idiot made up this name? This name was made up by Miss Song."

"I'm going to your mother!" Barena Wei snorted contemptuously, and said, "Just like you, it's worth Miss Song to make up a name for you? Do you really think that you don't need money, you can just blow it? It's going to kill you if you blow it, you know?"

Charlie asked curiously: "Why is it terrible? Is it toxic?"

"I'm stupid..." Barena Wei exploded and shouted angrily, and said, "Will you f*cking behave with me? Do you know, you are disrespectful to Miss Song, if Miss Song finds out, your dog life can not be saved!"

Charlie smiled and said, "It seems you are disrespectful to Miss Song, right?"

Wendy on the side immediately said to Barena Wei: "Barena, what are you talking about with this kind of rag? Directly call the security guards of the brilliant club to come over and tell them what he just said. Will the security guards let him go? You must say hello to Boyu when that time comes, give this stinky cock a lesson and abolish him so that he can't be a man!"

Fredmen couldn't be a man, it seemed that Charlie had used some shameful means, Wendy had always hated this, so now she especially hope that someone can abolish Charlie.

When Barena Wei heard this, she immediately patted Wendy's hand and said, "Don't worry, Wendy, I will call the security guard to come and kill him!"

After that, he immediately shouted: "Where is the security? Are they dead? Come here! Someone pretends to be a brilliant member and arranges your eldest lady!"

As soon as the voice fell, a vigorous and solemn voice sounded: "Who is making noise? What's the matter?"

Charlie looked up, okay, the housekeeper of the Song family, that bad Old Master is here!

Chapter 405

With Boyu's angry shout, Barena Wei suddenly burst into laughter.

He looked at Charlie with a smile on his face, and mocked: "Haha, man, you are dead this time, and even the gods can't save you!"

After finishing speaking, he turned his head to look at Boyu, pointed at Charlie and complained: "Boyu, here is a force, not only pretending to be a member of our glorious club, but also daring to be disrespectful to Song Family. You can teach him a lesson right!"

Boyu frowned.

He's getting older and my eyes are not so good, so he can't see the face at all from a distance.

But he did recognize Barena Wei who was a little closer to him.

Because he is the son of a fellow villager, he has a lot of contact and is relatively trustworthy, so he sternly said: "Who is so brave? Security, take it for me!"

A few security guards of the top five and three thick will immediately encircle them aggressively.

Wendy was very excited, staring at Charlie with a sneer and sarcastically said: "Charlie, I see how you died today!"

Charlie sneered: "You die eight times, and I can't die either."

Wendy stomped: "It's f*cking hard! Barena, someone will tear his mouth!"

Charlie ignored him, but looked at Boyu, who was approaching, and shouted coldly: "Mr. Boyu, you bad Old Master, you are very powerful! Want to take me down?"

As soon as this sound came out, everyone on the scene was shocked!

d*mn, is this guy not dying fast enough? Calling Boyu a bad Old Master? !

See how Boyu killed him this time!

It is said that Boyu started a fire to death!

However, Boyu hasn't been angry for many years! This time it is estimated to be blown up by this guy!

However, no one thought that Boyu was shocked by this sound, shaking his whole body!

He listened to his voice like Mr. Wade, and when he looked up, he was indeed Master Wade who even the Song family was respected by!

Seeing Charlie, he shuddered, and the aura just disappeared. He immediately clasped his fists and bowed, "Mr. Wade, I didn't know it were you. It is really offensive..."

As soon as these words came out, the audience suddenly froze!

This...

What the h*ll is going on? !

The aloof Boyu unexpectedly apologized to a smelly pauper? !

Before everyone knew what was going on, Charlie said coldly: "I heard that you have a very high status in the Song family. No matter how high you are, you shouldn't be higher than the Song family Old Master?"

Because Barena Wei said that Boyu was his father's brother, Charlie did not intend to spare Boyu easily.

He doesn't want to care if Boyu is innocent. Who made others pretend to be forced by him under your name? Then he will ask you to settle the account!

When Boyu heard that Charlie moved out of the Song family directly, he suddenly knew that he was in trouble!

Chapter 406

Without saying anything, he knelt in front of Charlie with a thud, and said with trepidation and piousness: "Mr. Wade, if there is something wrong with what I did, let me make it clear that I will make all efforts to correct it!"

Charlie nodded, looked down at him, pointed to Barena Wei with a dumb face next to him, and asked, "This man said that you are his father's brother, is it true?"

Boyu glanced at Barena Wei and immediately said, "Mr. Wade, his father and I are fellow villagers, and can barely be regarded as friends, but we are definitely not brothers."

"Good." Charlie nodded. Said: "This kid and his concubine have been using your flag to mock me, threaten me, and kill me. What do you think about this?"

Boyu instantly understood that Charlie's dissatisfaction with him was completely responsible for Barena Wei in the courtyard.

He yelled at Barena Wei angrily: "b*stard! you offended Mr. Wade, and don't kneel down!"

Barena Wei hadn't figured out what was going on.

What is Mr. Wade? Why is it Mr. Wade?

Isn't it just a smelly rug? Is he confused?

So, he subconsciously said: "Uncle Boyu, isn't this just a Rubbish and stinky silk? You are such a high figure, kneel down to him? You are the confidant of the Song family! And he offended Miss Song family, you have to Kill him!"

Boyu shivered in anger.

Let him kill Mr. Wade? Is he f*cking crazy!

Who doesn't know the name of Mr. Wade in the upper class of Aurous Hill?

The Old Master of the Song family relied on Mr. Wade's magic needle and magic medicine to recover from the beginning!

The Song family went up and down, respecting Charlie and treating Charlie as a god!

No matter how much he has a status, it is also compared to his subordinates. Even the people who are in charge of the Song family are regarded as gods. If you see it yourself, you have to be like a god and kneel down!

The man at the helm of the Song family, Mr. Song, now says the most words at home every day:

"You really don't know Song family, in what year and month can you get Charlie, the real dragon in the world, the Old Master can't wait to let him the grandson-in-law..."

Therefore, in Boyu's heart, Charlie's status is even higher than that of the Song Family!

Now Barena Wei, a little b@stard, said that he and his father were brothers, and holding his own flag, annoyed Mr. Wade, he was going to kill this pretender!

Thinking of this, he immediately stood up, raised his hand and slapped Barena Wei's face, and then shouted to the security guard beside him: "Come on, press him down! And the woman next to him!"

Barena Wei didn't expect that Boyu would raise his hand and hit him. Just about to ask what happened, he felt two strong forces pressed down from his shoulders on both sides, causing him to kneel on the ground uncontrollably.

Wendy was so frightened that she hadn't recovered when she was pushed to the ground.

At this moment, Uncle Boyu put his hands on the ground, looked up at Charlie, and said with a panic: "Mr. Wade, I made friends accidentally. I didn't expect my friends to have such a son who doesn't know good or bad. Please rest assured, Mr. Wade. I will teach him a lesson and let him know the price of rebelling against you!"

Charlie said indifferently: "He is a small person, a little talker, it's not a big deal. Besides, people know you Old Master Boyu, even if you reach out and hit me, I can only endure it!"

As soon as Boyu heard this, he knew that Charlie was not going to forgive himself this way, so he slammed three heads in a row, and said, "Mr. Wade, if you have any dissatisfaction, please don't hesitate to say it, even if it's a waste. Boyu is absolutely unambiguous!"

Charlie waved his hand: "You don't need to scrap it, I just want to know, if someone offends your eldest lady, what would you do?"

After speaking, Charlie pointed to the Supreme VIP membership card in Barena Wei's hand, and said to Bo: "This card is given to me by your eldest lady. The title of the Supreme VIP member to show respect. As a result, in this person's mouth, the Supreme VIP member became a stupid name. I ask you, does this not mean calling your eldest lady a stupid?"

Boyu turned his head, gritted his teeth and waited for Barena Wei. He questioned with a gloomy expression and murderous expression: "You bast@rd Wei, are you living enough??"

Chapter 407

Barena Wei was frightened by Boyu trembling.

He was terrified, but still pretending to be aggrieved: "Boyu, in the information displayed in the lobby on the first floor, there is no such thing as a supreme VIP member. This must be made up by the guy himself. You can't be fooled by him!"

"That's it!" Wendy also said life and death, sarcastically: "This kind of person's shamelessness is really the only thing I have seen in my life. I don't care if he pretend to be a member. He also specially fabricated a level and even forged a membership card. It's too bad, you don't put the Song family in my eyes at all!"

Wendy wanted to kill and punish him, and closely linked Charlie's behavior with the rebellious Song family.

In this way, the Song family would naturally not let Charlie go.

However, she completely ignored the relationship between Charlie and the Song family.

Even if she didn't believe in Charlie rag from the beginning to the end, there could be any upper-class resources that could really be respected by the upper-class people, but that was the case.

At this time, Boyu was shivered by these two popular people, and gritted his teeth: "Do you two know that this supreme VIP member is specially set by our eldest lady for Mr. Wade? There is only one person in the world! You! blatantly offended Mr. Wade and offended the eldest lady here. Today I will never forgive you!"

"Ah?!" Barena Wei felt a little bit in her heart, this supreme VIP member turned out to be real? !

Moreover, this level is still set by Miss Song Family?

Didn't you scold Miss Song Family?

My God...Isn't this seeking a dead end? !

At this time, Boyu looked at Charlie respectfully and said: "Mr. Wade, these two rubbish offended you, what price do you want them to pay?"

Charlie said lightly: "These two people are extremely low-quality, their mouths are so bad that they are spraying feces. I think I should let them neutralize the breath in their mouths."

Boyu hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, do you want to pour them a few kilograms of perfume?"

Charlie waved his hand: "Boyu, people must have common sense. Perfume is a high-concentration chemical product. It's okay to spray a little bit. Drinking a few kilograms will kill you. Although these two people's mouth is a little bit cheap and smelly, Sin does not die."

Both Barena Wei and Wendy looked at Charlie in disbelief. They didn't expect that he would let them go. This really surprised them...

Boyu hurriedly asked: "Then I don't know what Mr. Wade has to order?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "If you spray feces on their mouth, just bring some bashful things to neutralize it. Or else, take them to the men's bathroom and let them lick the men's bathroom urinals! If they don't Willing to lick, and then feed them to drink perfume."

Boyu nodded immediately: "Okay! Now that Mr. Wade has ordered, come here! First invite the guests from the men's bathroom, temporarily close them, and then take these two sl*ts to the men's bathroom and let them take everything Licking the urinal clean!"

Barena Wei and Wendy looked at each other, panicking each other to death.

Licking the urinal? How embarrassing and disgusting!

Barena Wei is a man himself, he knows how dirty, bashful and disgusting the urinal is..

Countless people are urinating on it, and their fingers are disgusting to death. Now let himself lick? Isn't this an insult? !

So he hurriedly begged Boyu: "Boyu, for the sake of my dad's face, you can spare me this time... The urinal is a place where people can't lick, it's too disgusting."

Chapter 408

Boyu said coldly: "Okay, you don't need to lick it. I will immediately ask the warehouse to bring ten kilograms of concentrated perfume. You have five kilograms each. You can't leave until you finish drinking it!"

The Glory Club has fifteen floors, with a huge area, and there are very high-class fragrances everywhere, all of which are imported perfumes.

Therefore, the stock of perfume in the brilliant club is extremely large.

When Barena Wei heard that he was going to drink five kilograms of perfume, his liver trembled.

There are at least two and a half kilograms of alcohol in five kilograms of perfume, as well as various chemical additives, musk additives, and antiseptic additives. If he really drinks five kilograms, he will not be able to save it!

In contrast, licking the urinal is a bit disgusting, but at least he can survive...

Seeing him hesitate, Boyu immediately became angry and lost his patience. He said to the security guard beside him: "d*mn, he doesn't want to lick it. Give me a slap in the face first, and charge me some interest! "

"Yes!"

He gave a direct order, and the security guard of the Brilliant Senior Club rushed over and surrounded Barena Wei and Wendy.

The security guards didn't say anything, and didn't procrastinate, immediately raised their fists and punched them together.

Before Barena Wei and Wendy could react, they were beaten with fists and kicks. The beatings blossomed all over their faces, their noses and tears were beaten out, and they were miserable.

Barena Wei, who was in pain all over, struggled and pleaded: "Boyu, how can I say that I am also your senior member. I spent 5 million. Don't say that my dad and you are still friends. Even if they are just ordinary people, since I am Customer here, you shouldn't call me either!"

When Boyu heard this, his face turned green: "Do you think you are a member here, so you can provoke our supreme VIP member? I tell you that the entire Song family respects Mr. Wade, and you dare to disobey Mr. Wade. What are you? I tell you, tomorrow I will refund your membership fee to you. From now on, the Glory Club will permanently ban you from entering!"

Barena Wei is going crazy, his eyes are red. The senior members bought it for real money, so why do you cancel it?

But at this time, how can he dare to talk to Boyu?

A security guard ran over holding a few large bottles and said respectfully: "Boyu, here's the perfume."

Boyu nodded and said: "Okay! Since they don't want to lick the urinal, then pry open their mouths and pour them in with perfume! Each can fill five kilograms, and one drop must be no less!"

Several security guards immediately stepped forward, pinched Barena Wei and Wendy's mouths, and asked them to open their mouths.

Immediately afterwards, the two security guards each took a two-pound perfume bottle and directly unscrewed the lid. The strong aroma instantly overflowed, and the smell was so strong that it was even a little choking.

Boyu looked at Barena Wei and Wendy with pale faces, and said coldly: "Drink so many perfumes. It is estimated that you will be able to ensure that your bodies will not rot when you die. Then find a wasteland to dig a pit and bury. Maybe a few hundred years later there will be an unearthed cultural relic!"

When the two heard this, they were shocked.

No one wants to die!

They thought that drinking perfume was just a threat, but they didn't expect it to be true. In this way, licking the urinal has become the mildest punishment in the world!

So the two said in unison: "Forgive us Boyu! We choose to lick the urinal!"

Chapter 409

Everyone knows that the urinal in the men's bathroom is irritating, but it will not be fatal if it is licked.

But if the five kilograms of perfume were down, their bodies would not be able to cover it.

Although Barena Wei and Wendy are arrogant, neither of them wants to make fun of their lives.

As long as they survive, licking the urinal is nothing.

It's not a big deal to rinse your mouth and brush your teeth a few times!

Seeing that they had chosen to lick the urinal, Boyu said: "Come here, drag this pair of dogs to the men's bathroom, and let them lick the urinal clean. If they dare to leave a stain, they will Hit all the sh!t!"

The security guards dragged Barena Wei and Wendy to the men's bathroom on the second floor like a dead dog. Boyu respectfully said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, would you like to oversee it?"

Charlie nodded, "Of course I can't miss such an interesting thing."

After all, under Boyu's respectful service, he stepped to the bathroom.

The bathroom on the second floor is very large, and there are two rows of sixteen urinals alone.

Several security guards pushed Barena Wei and Wendy to one of the urinals, and said coldly, "What the h*ll are you doing? Hurry up!"

Barena Wei tremblingly stuck out his tongue, but he never dared to move forward.

Although the bathroom of the Brilliant Clubhouse is quite clean, it is a urinal after all. Usually the bathroom has an aromatherapy effect. You can't smell anything too irritating and ask, but when you approach the urinal, you can still smell a strong urine smell. This led Barena Wei feel nauseous.

Wendy was also fainted by the disgusting hair. The smell was so violent that she almost fainted.

Seeing that the two were still rubbing together, Boyu said coldly: "If you're haggling again, I'll let you lick the toilet!"

The two shuddered in fright. Barena Wei mustered up the courage first, leaned forward to the white porcelain urinal, stuck out his tongue, and licked the tip of his tongue until he clicked on it, and then he retched disgustingly.

Wendy, who was on the side, could only learn something, closed her eyes and gently licked on the urinal.

Barena Wei's expression was very ugly, black and green, looking at Boyu, begging: "Boyu, we have already licked it, can you let us go?"

Boyu turned his head and looked at Charlie: "Mr. Wade, what do you think?"

Charlie hugged his arms and sneered: "This is too foolish, right? Just stick your tongue? What a joke!"

Boyu hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, what do you mean?"

Charlie pointed to the sixteen urinals in two rows, and said, "In this way, let them lick eight of them, and distribute them fairly. No one suffers. Each one must be licked from the inside out. It won't work!"

Everyone present was stunned...

Mr. Wade is too cruel!

One person licks eight urinals? !

This urinal is an imported Kohler urinal. It is very large and stylish. It is almost one meter high, not to mention licking eight. Even if they lick one, they will have to smash people to death, licking eight...

When Barena Wei heard this, Wendy broke down. Wendy burst into tears and begged Charlie on her knees: "Charlie, anyway, you are also my brother-in-law. For the sake of my youth and ignorance, let me go this time?"

Barena Wei also folded his hands together and kept begging: "Mr. Wade, you have a lot of ways, please give me a way to survive..."

Charlie nodded and said, "I've given you a way to survive. I will let you go immediately after licking eight."

Chapter 410

Barena Wei's expression was even uglier than his dead father, and he cried and said, "Mr. Wade, eight are too many, and one is so big, no one can stand this stuff..."

"Oh, can't stand it?" Charlie smiled, and said to Uncle: "Call Mr. Orvel and bring these two people to his dogfighting ring. Like the Hong Kong Mr. Lai, chop up and feed them to dogs!"

Boyu nodded immediately and said, "OK, Mr. Wade!"

At the beginning, the liar from Hong Kong, the Feng Shui master named Lai, was exposed because he lied to the eldest, and was directly fed the dog by Mr. Orvel.

Mr. Orvel didn't do this kind of thing once or twice. He was already familiar with it.

When Barena Wei and Wendy heard this, they were frightened.

At this time, how dare the two of them bargain?

Barena Wei, who has the strongest desire for survival, blurted out: "I lick! I lick! I will lick!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately rushed to the urinal in front of him, stuck out his tongue and licked it to resist the nausea.

The pungent smell made him vomit while licking, but he didn't dare to delay any time. For fear of being dragged to feed the dog, he could only bite the bullet and continue to lick.

Wendy was so sad that she cried, holding the urinal and licking it.

Charlie said at this time: "Wendy, this row has been claimed by Barena Wei, you are licking it now to help him, the row you have to lick is behind you."

Wendy cried loudly. It turned out that it was licked in vain just now, so she could only cry while crawling to the back row, holding the urinal and licking it.

This is really the biggest humiliation she has suffered in her life, and the worst torture she has suffered in her life...

Charlie didn't want to stay here to appreciate their performance art, and told Boyu: "Remember, you must let them lick clean before letting them go!"

Boyu quickly said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will look at them personally."

Charlie nodded, turned directly onto the private elevator, and went to the 18th floor.

Boyu personally sent him off, not daring to be disrespectful.

When Charlie was about to get on the elevator, Boyu said nervously: "Mr. Wade, what happened just now is really because of my impropriety. It must have irritated you, and I hope you can forgive me."

Charlie said indifferently: "Give me a good look at those two people, as long as they lick carefully and cleanly, then forget about it."

Boyu hurriedly nodded: "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, even if they dare to miss one spot, I will kill them!"

As he said, he couldn't help but begged: "Mr. Wade, there is another plea from me..."

Charlie said lightly: "Say it."

Boyu hurriedly bowed respectfully: "Mr. Wade, what happened just now, please don't tell Missy, your great kindness, I will remember it for life!"

In the final analysis, Boyu is nothing more than a servant and a courtier of the Song family, and Charlie is a guest of the Song family desperately trying to fudge. If Warnia knows what happened just now, she will definitely punish him and even take his job as a steward. .

Charlie also knew that Boyu himself was not wrong, it was just being used by others. Seeing that his attitude was very correct, he nodded and said: "Okay, I will help you this time for the time being. Anything to do, don't blame me for being rude to you."

Boyu immediately thanked him and said, "Mr. Wade, please rest assured that I will definitely draw a clear line with this kind of person in the future. If there is another time, I will break his legs!"

"Yeah." Charlie nodded faintly, waved his hand, and said: "Okay, you go."

Only then did Boyu worshipped and said: "Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Chapter 411

After reaching the top floor, Charlie found Warnia and probably told her about the Feng Shui situation of the Brilliant Club.

Warnia couldn't help being a little disappointed when she heard that the entire glorious feng shui was unremarkable.

It seems that the feng shui master she was looking for before was not really good, and has no feng shui ability at all.

So she hurriedly asked Charlie: "Mr. Wade, do you have any good ways to improve the brilliant's Feng Shui?"

Charlie smiled faintly, and said: "You have two welcoming pine trees on the first floor, placed in the southeast and northwest corners, facing each other at an angle, and then replace the two stone pillars at the door with stone lions. A male and a female, it is impossible for a lioness to bring a cub. It must be two male lions, and the two male lions must not be parallel. The eyes must be placed at 90 degrees. At the same time, let people make two gold foils and press them on the stone lions. Below you, in this way, it can become a pattern of two lions gathering wealth."

Warnia asked subconsciously: "I don't know what the two lions gather for wealth?"

Charlie said with a smile: "The gathering of wealth with two lions is a feng shui for wealth, with two lions as the mainstay, two welcoming pine as the supplement, and the combination of gold leaf and the brilliant club. As long as it is arranged, it will be brilliant. The wealth of the clubhouse will be taken a step forward."

Warnia was shocked. The method Charlie said was something she had never heard of. At the same time, she sighed for Mr. Wade's ability. Just casually giving pointers can have such an amazing effect. This is simply a magical method.

Mr. Wade is indeed a real dragon on earth, as Grandpa said!

Warnia said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, I will let people do it."

Charlie nodded and checked the time, it was almost time to go back to buy vegetables and cook.

So, he said to Warnia: "You remember what I just said, and quickly arrange for someone to change it. It's getting late, I'll go back first."

Warnia hurriedly said: "Then I will see you off."

"No need." Charlie said: "I went to the second floor and greeted Boyu. I saw him just now."

Warnia said: "Then I can't let you go alone..."

Charlie smiled and said: "Let's go drive, wait for me outside the lobby on the first floor, I'll say hello, and then come down to find you."

Warnia nodded and said, "Okay Mr. Wade, I will wait for you in the car."

The reason why Charlie wanted to see Boyu was not that he really wanted to say hello to him, but because he wanted to see how Wendy and Barena Wei were doing.

When he came to the second floor bathroom, Wendy and Barena Wei had just licked the second urinal.

Both their faces were extremely pale, and the ground next to them was full of filth. Seeing Charlie's arrival, Boyu hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, you are here!"

Charlie frowned and asked, "Did they just lick the second one? Is the efficiency not too slow?"

Boyu hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, these two are almost finished vomiting their bile..."

Charlie said coldly: "Give them an hour. If they can't finish it within an hour, take them to lick the third floor!"

"Yes!" Boyu nodded hurriedly, and then shouted to the two of them: "Have you heard? Don't hurry up, each of you will have eight more urinals to lick!"

The two of them paled in shock, and Wendy even spit out bile, but she could only wipe her mouth and continued to lick the urinal in shame.

At a certain moment, Charlie thought in his heart, is it a bit too much to treat a woman like this?

Chapter 412

But when you think about it, it's not at all!

This Wendy is a snake hearted! How many times has she urged others to rectify him, and even wanted to abandon him, if it wasn't for his own ability, she would have killed him killed.

So, give her a little today, enough to make her remember the lesson of life!

Afterwards, Charlie said to Uncle: "I'm leaving, your eldest lady is waiting for me downstairs. You can supervise things here. If you dare to release the water, I can only ask you!"

Boyu hurriedly bowed: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will supervise with all my strength! I will never release water!"

"Yeah." Charlie nodded, turned and left.

After he left, Wendy and Barena Wei were afraid of being punished because of their slow speed, so they could only lick the disgusting men's urinal harder.

When the two of them finished licking the eight urinals each, their tongues were about to break, and the smell on their tongues was as if they had been marinated in urine for a year, and the smell was unbearable.

The mouths of the two of them were naturally unsmiling, not only that, but the whole body was full of a disgusting smell.

The two of them wanted to borrow some tap water to rinse their mouths, but Boyu didn't agree. For fear that Charlie would turn around and blame him, he hurriedly asked someone to drive them out.

After the two were driven out, they plunged into the fountain pool at the door, rinsed, washed their faces, hands, and tongues. After washing for more than half an hour, the mouths still smelled like a commotion. The two of them had completely collapsed. The tongue was cut off and thrown into the sewer.

Wendy had no effect after washing for a long time. She sat slumped on the edge of the fountain and broke down crying. She had been stimulated by Claire earlier and almost lost her mind. Now because of Charlie, she is almost forced to become mentally ill.

Barena Wei is also crazy!

dmn, when you grow up so big, when have you suffered such a loss? It's so fcking up!

The point is, why does Charlie have such a face? When Boyu saw him, it was like a mouse meeting a cat. dmn, it was the old and majestic housekeeper of the Song family, who was just a fcking old dog!

So he asked Wendy with a dark face: "What is the origin of Charlie, that dog?!"

Wendy said: "This b@stard is really a stinky silk. He had no parents at the age of eight. He grew up in the orphanage, and later entered our house as a live-in son-in-law. He is a waste that's all."

Barena Wei frowned and said, "You speak a little bit away from me, it's too flavorful!"

Wendy said in her heart that she still thinks her words are too savory, so she didn't have the embarrassment to say, but she disliked him?

But she didn't dare to disobey Barena Wei, so she moved back more than half a meter.

Barena Wei questioned her at this time: "Then why both Boyu and Miss Song's family should give this waste face?!"

Wendy said with a bitter face, "I don't know! I also want to know why! I used to scold him in front of me, and he didn't even dare to let his eyes meet with mine. When eating, I poured water on his head. He wanted to say sorry to me; when our family had dinner, he was not given the opportunity to serve the table, and let him serve as a waiter next to him serving tea and changing the plate. During the New Year's Eve dinner, he dropped the plate. I slapped him in the face..."

Speaking of this, Wendy was also extremely distressed and said: "I don't know why. Suddenly, this Rubbish has become a capable person in the eyes of many people. Many people call him Mr. Wade, and many people want to embrace him. , In the end all has become confused and miserable..."

After that, Wendy said again: "That's right! Chairman Fredmen, is still very strong in that respect. It can be said that he is stronger and stronger than the young man, but because after a conflict with him, he returned home. The inexplicable ones can't be used anymore, and he didn't know until now, whether Charlie did anything tricks..."

"d*mn!" Barena Wei gritted his teeth and said, "I can't swallow this breath! I have to go to Fredmen to discuss it later!"

Chapter 413

Warnia drove Charlie to the vegetable market all the way in her Rolls Royce.

Rolls Royce stopped at the door of the vegetable market. Charlie said to Warnia, "Thank you for dropping me back. I'm leaving."

Warnia nodded with a complicated expression, and said, "Mr. Wade, go slowly. If there is nothing wrong, you can relax at the Brilliant Club. I have been there recently and will definitely serve Mr. Wade myself."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Okay, I will go if I have time, so I will leave first."

Warnia nodded her head in a hurry, and said respectfully: "Okay, Mr. Wade go slowly."

Saying goodbye to Charlie respectfully, watching Charlie's back disappear into the entrance of the vegetable market, Warnia couldn't help sighing.

Seeing Charlie, a real dragon with superb strength on earth, had to rush to buy vegetables and cook before his wife got off work, she felt very unbalanced in her heart.

It's not that Claire has never seen her before. She looks really good and is inseparable from him. However, in terms of temperament, academic qualifications, ability, and family background, she has nothing to compare with herself.

She has received a Western aristocratic education since she was a child, even if she communicated with descendants of European royal families, she did not lose to them in terms of temperament and etiquette.

And she graduated from Harvard University in the United States, Claire just graduated from Aurous Hill University, the school level is also very bad;

She is now in charge of half of the Song family's industry, and every business has made steady progress. What about Claire? Even a small Willson family couldn't get a foothold in a small area. Her grandmother and cousin couldn't make it out. She was incapable, incompetent, and had no wrist at all.

As for the family background, she is even less than a fraction of the Song family!

The Willson family is already on the verge of bankruptcy, and Claire's own studio has just opened. The gap is almost a thousand miles.

However, she is only better than her in one sense!

She has a good husband!

This is what makes her heart jealous, to go crazy!

Why is she inferior to her in all aspects, but can have such a good husband by her side, willingly and willingly to guard her?

Why is she so good in all aspects, but can't find a man as good as Charlie as a husband?

Warnia was born proud and never envied anyone, but Claire was the one, who really made her envy her!

She felt that a capable man like Charlie should be with a woman like herself who is very good in every aspect!

In this way, it can be regarded as a talented girl and a strong alliance.

Even, she couldn't help but impulsively a few times and wanted to confess to Charlie and tell him what she thought of him.

But after careful consideration, she gave up.

It is not that she is unwilling to confess, but that she is still not sure of victory.

Without the certainty of victory, she would probably be rejected or even disgusted by Charlie. In that case, the gain would not be worth the loss!

After so many years of experience in the Song family, and in the business world, Warnia has long developed a good ability to judge the situation and act accordingly.

Therefore, she can only temporarily hold back her inner love for Charlie, first accumulate a good feeling in front of Charlie and in Charlie's heart, and wait for the good feeling to reach a certain level, then confess to him!

Chapter 414

Charlie returned home to make a meal, and Jacob, the Old Master who had been out all day, returned first.

Then Claire, who had been busy all day.

After Claire returned, all the food was on the table, and Elaine hurried back happily.

As soon as she entered the door, she started to show off to everyone, saying: "Today I won more than 7,000 at the Mahjong Hall!"

Jacob subconsciously said, "Oh, my wife, that's amazing! Seven thousand a day, two hundred ten thousand a month!"

Claire couldn't help but frowned and said, "Mom, you occasionally play mahjong and relax. I don't have any problems. I can understand playing a little bit of money. But winning or losing 7,000 a day is a bit too big, right? There is a big risk when you get caught!"

Elaine waved her hand and said with a look of disdain: "Oh, don't you come to educate me, I know in my heart that all the rookies playing cards with me are far worse than me. I close my eyes and play cards with them. I always win! Do you know what your mother's nickname is? The God of Haihe Road Sparrow is me!"

Claire sighed helplessly, rubbed her temples, and simply ignored her.

While eating, Claire suddenly received a WeChat message, opened it and checked it, and then asked Charlie, "It's the weekend tomorrow. Do you have any plans?"

Charlie said: "What arrangements can I have, buying vegetables, cooking, washing clothes and sweeping the floor."

Claire said: "Elsa told me on WeChat that she has booked a suite at the hot spring hotel and asked us to go to the hot spring. If you don't have any special arrangements, then I will agree to her."

Charlie asked in surprise, "Soak in the hot springs? Should I go too?"

Claire nodded: "She has reserved a suite, we have a room, and she has a room by herself, just to invite the two of us. She said she has been here for so long and hasn't invited the two of us."

Elaine on the side immediately became vigilant and blurted out: "Claire! You and Elsa go to the hot springs, what do you want Charlie to do? He is not allowed to go! Stay at home and work!"

Claire said, "Mom, Elsa invited him! We must go together if I want to go!"

Elaine glared at Charlie and said, "How can you do that? You two will still sleep in the same room then, what if he does something to you? Aren't you at a loss?"

Charlie realized that it turned out that he was worried about this owed mother-in-law...

Claire was also a little overwhelmed with Elaine's words, and said in a bad tone: "Mom, Charlie and I are husband and wife. We will solve our own affairs, so you don't need to worry about it."

Elaine was also anxious. She threw the chopsticks and said angrily: "What? I'm a mother, I can't care about you?!"

Claire still used colors and said angrily: "You can control what you should manage, you can't control what you don't!"

Elaine patted the table and said: "There is nothing wrong with being a mother! You have to take care of everything!"

Claire's rebellious enthusiasm was aroused, and she blurted out: "You can't care about this! I said, Charlie must go! No one can stop it! If you stop, I will move out!"

"You..." Elaine persuaded all of a sudden.

As long as Claire said to move out, she was holding Elaine's weakness.

Elaine had no choice but to say angrily: "Yes, I don't care, you go, you'd better grasp it yourself, or you will regret it in the future!"

After speaking, she rolled her eyes, looked at Charlie with a smile, and said, "Good son-in-law, if you don't go tomorrow or else, how about going to the mahjong hall with mom to play? Mom won't let you go for nothing, here's your pocket money of two thousand!"

Elaine thought very well. Since Claire didn't make sense, she wanted to find a breakthrough from Charlie. If she could persuade Charlie not to go, then Claire can't blame her?

However, Charlie smiled faintly at this time, and said, "Mom, I don't know how to play mahjong. I will go to the hot spring with Claire!"

Chapter 415

In fact, Charlie really didn't want to go.

If Elaine didn't force him, he would definitely reject Claire.

As for why he didn't want to go, in fact, he was a bit repulsive to Elsa in his heart.

Ever since he rescued Elsa for the second time, and Elsa knew that he was her dream lover, she had been confessing to him.

Now she wants to ask his wife to go out to the hot springs, and she also needs to bring him. The real purpose is to ask his wife to be fake, right?

In this case, it would be a bit embarrassing if he did go.

However, this Elaine insisted on jumping out and chirping, forcing him to talk, which made Charlie annoyed.

Don't you let me go?

OK, then I will go!

Mad at you!

Elaine didn't expect Charlie to disobey her, panting with anger, but because Claire was there, she couldn't say anything.

Seeing Charlie's promise, Claire said: "The place Elsa decided is in the Champs Elysées Hot Spring Hotel in the suburbs. It is said to be an industry under Shangri-La Hotel. It is said to be pretty good. She will drive over to pick us up tomorrow."

Charlie nodded and said: "Okay."

Claire said: "Remember to pack a pair of swimming trunks at night. You must wear swimming trunks in the hot spring."

Charlie smiled and asked, "Wife, don't you also want to wear a swimsuit?"

Claire nodded and said, "Of course! I have to!"

Elaine hurriedly interjected: "Claire! You are never allowed to wear a bikini! Take out your most conservative swimsuit and bring it with you! So as not to let the b@stard Charlie take advantage!"

After speaking, remembering something, she said: "By the way! I have a set of face kini, which is suitable for you! Would you like that? I'll take it out for you!"

Face Gini is a swimsuit worn by some middle-aged aunts at the beach. Not only is it one-piece and very tightly wrapped, but the most terrifying thing is that for sun protection, the entire face is wrapped in, only the glasses, mouth, and nose. A small hole is opened, and the degree of protection is comparable to the mask of a terrorist fan!

If you put on the face Gini, whether you are as beautiful as a god or as ugly as cow dung, you will become a monster without a face and expression...

When Claire heard that her mother let herself wear a jini, she said angrily: "Mom, are you a devil? I'm only in my twenties, you let me wear a jini? Why don't you let me be wrapped in a big cotton jacket and two cotton Go pants to the hot spring?"

Elaine said with a serious look: "Mom is afraid that you will be taken advantage of! Charlie, this kid, your mom knows that he is a pervert in his bones, you must be careful!"

Charlie was furious.

dmn, he knew that Junwei Gao's father Jianjun Gao made her count the ball that day, so why did he save her? What a dmn waste of food!

Claire didn't pay attention to Elaine either. After dinner, she took Charlie back to the house.

After returning to the house, she chose a swimsuit that was not so revealing and conservative, but that looked very casual and comfortable.

As for Charlie, it's simple, a pair of boxer shorts is enough.

.....

The next morning, as soon as the two had packed their clothes, Elsa called again and said that she had driven downstairs.

Chapter 416

Going out is worth the money, Charlie has been hesitant in his heart.

For Elsa, a enthusiastic and bold girl, he really didn't know how to deal with it.

On the one hand, he didn't want to hurt Elsa, but on the other hand, he didn't want to be sorry for Claire.

Therefore, now he is in complete dilemma.

He was also worried about whether Elsa would take the opportunity to confess to him or make bolder moves when he went to the hot springs.

However, since he had agreed to his wife, it was impossible to go back at this time, so he could only go out with her.

After following Claire downstairs, he saw Elsa poking her head out of a Mercedes-Benz and saying, "Charlie, put your luggage in the trunk. You sit in the back seat and let Claire sit in the co-driver to chat with me. !"

"Okay!" Charlie nodded, put the luggage in the trunk, and then got into the back seat.

After Charlie got in the car, Elsa turned her head and blinked at him shyly.

Charlie pretended not to see it, stretched his waist and said, "Oh, I didn't sleep well last night. I was a little tired. I'll squint for a while."

After speaking, he closed his eyes and nodded off in the back seat.

Elsa was also a little bit lost in her heart. She knew the reason for Charlie's attitude, but she couldn't say anything when Claire was here.

Moreover, she also expected that Charlie would be colder to her, but it didn't matter, since she had already liked him, she was also ready to fight a protracted battle with him.

Because she knew that Claire's marriage with Charlie was in name only, so she didn't feel guilty at this time.

Elsa drove the car to the outskirts. After more than an hour, the car drove into the foot of a beautiful mountain. After a few minutes, she reached the entrance of the Champs Elysees Hot Spring.

Champs Elys Spa is the only natural hot spring in Aurous Hill. It is located at the foot of Nanxiang Mountain. There are a few natural geothermal hot springs. Shangri-La Group bought the hot springs and the entire mountain and developed the Champs Elys Spa Hotel.

The Champs Elysées Hot Spring Hotel has a very high compulsion and good consumption, so those who can come here to soak in the hot springs are rich people.

However, even so, the availability of rooms here is in short supply. Not only the wealthy people in Aurous Hill, but also the wealthy people in surrounding cities, will come all the way to enjoy the baptism of the hot springs on weekends.

Today is the weekend, so the business here is exceptionally good. There are almost no vacancies in the parking lot.

Elsa drove the car and ran back and forth in the parking lot several times, only to finally find an empty parking space, so she was happy, looked around, and immediately drove towards the empty space.

When she arrived in front of the parking space, Elsa gave a direction and was about to reverse and park.

And when she was a few meters away from the parking space at the back of her car, suddenly a Maserati sports car rushed over!

Maserati's speed was very fast, and when she turned around, she was about to rush into the parking space where Elsa was about to stop.

Elsa was startled, her hands were so messed up, she didn't react, she forgot to step on the brakes, so her car continued to fall backward.

Hearing only the harsh noise, the side of the other party's car had already been scratched by Elsa's rear.

Elsa came back to her senses and hurriedly stopped the car. She couldn't help but frown and complained: "Where can there be such a parking space? The quality is too bad, right? The basic rules of first-come, first-served parking spaces can't be done. Understand?"

At this time, in the Maserati sports car, a young man wearing an exaggerated leather jacket and combing his greasy hair came out.

After the young man got out of the car, he glanced at the scratches on the side of the car, his face suddenly gloomy!

He gritted his teeth, walked to Elsa's car, slapped the window hard, and cursed: "fck, stupid, you fcking blind? Can't see that I was going to park in this space? He also shaved the new car he bought, and quickly get him off!"

Chapter 417

Elsa was also very upset in her heart.

She is also Miss Dong's family anyway, who is a dumb person, so she pushed the door and got out of the car, and directly reasoned with the young man: "What are you yelling? You have no quality to grab a parking space, and you don't have to count. ?? Still scolding others here!"

The young man did not expect that Elsa would dare to talk back, and yelled, "It is stupid's silly female driver again. Of the ten silly drivers on the road, nine of them are all women! Can you f*cking drive? Go back to your mother's womb when the meeting is held, and then come out again, don't be ashamed of coming out!"

After that, he said again: "I've just bought this car with a size of one hundred and hundreds of thousands. This f*cking made you cut it out, how much am I going to lose?"

Elsa frowned and retorted: "Hey, you figure it out! I saw this parking space first, and I was ready to fall in. You broke out halfway to grab the parking space. It was originally your fault and you still have a face?"

The young man scolded angrily: "What's wrong with Mr. scolding you? Isn't it right to call you? Mr. not only scolds you, but Mr. beats you!"

After all, the young man stretched out his hand and grabbed Elsa's hair.

Elsa was startled, she didn't expect this person to be so rude, and she hurriedly hid back.

Claire hurriedly shouted: "Charlie, something has happened, come down quickly!"

The young man frowned and looked at Claire, then sneered: "Oh, this beauty is very pretty. Come on, stay with me all night, I won't investigate this matter any further!"

After speaking, he had to reach out and pull Claire into his arms.

As soon as the young man's hand reached halfway, he was firmly grasped by a pair of strong hands.

Seeing Charlie got out of the car, the young man dared to grab his hand, raised his eyebrows, and cursed: "Why are you so stupid? Are you looking for death? Let me go!"

Charlie threw his hand aside, his face was sullen, and he said, "Isn't it normal to drive a little bit? Isn't it normal? Is there anything you can say properly? Hands can solve the problem?"

The young man looked at Charlie and said contemptuously: "What can I say to you poor guys?! Three people drove a broken old Mercedes less than a 200,000 second-hand car. How dare you pretend to be something in front of me? "

After finishing speaking, pointing to his Maserati, he said coldly: "The Maserati that I just mentioned was shaved by you. Come on, how can you compensate?"

Charlie frowned and said: "We saw the parking space first, and we prepared to park in first. You have no right, and suddenly came out to grab the parking space. Why should we compensate?"

The youth arrogantly said: "Why? You shouldn't stop here because of your f*cking broken car! You can't offend me!"

Charlie didn't get angry and laughed and said, "We won't compensate for this kind of thing. If it doesn't work, call the traffic police. Even if the traffic police decide the responsibility, it is your full responsibility. You should compensate us, understand?"

The young man grinned, and gritted his teeth and cursed: "What the h*ll is it? Talk to me about the traffic police? Do you know what I said, you have to die here?"

At this moment, a woman with heavy makeup and cosmetic face walked out of the young man's car. She pointed at Charlie and said contemptuously: "You are so poor, you dare to chirp here? Did you know that I have 3 million fans on YouTube? If you don't pay money, believe it or not, take pictures of your gang of beatings and post them on the Internet so that fans can kill you?"

The young man immediately put on a trivial and flattering expression, and said, "Oh, my dear, why are you back down? Hurry back to the car and wait. Your husband can do this!"

Chapter 418

After speaking, the young man put on a vicious expression and cursed at Charlie: "Boy, if you know me, you should pay the money quickly, and then drive off. Don't disturb me and my girlfriend to go to the hot springs."

Charlie asked coldly: "What if I don't pay?"

The young man gave a cold smile before he said: "A bunch of poor people, really f*cking pretends, you wait, I will let you know the consequences of not paying."

After speaking, the young man took out his cell phone and dialed out.

After a while, the phone was connected, and the young man said, "Manager Zeng, I'm here to play with you. The car was scraped by a few poor people as soon as it arrived in the parking lot. They look crooked, you quickly bring a few people over."

After hanging up the phone, the young man looked at Charlie with a sneer, and said, "Poor, I will give you a chance to lose money, and then apologize to me. Otherwise, when Manager Zeng comes, I won't be as fruitful as you!"

Seeing that the other party called for someone, Elsa was afraid that Charlie would be injured, so she hurriedly said: "Okay, if I accept it, you can tell me, how much is the loss?"

The young man sneered: "My car was scratched by you this time, and the original paint will never be returned. This is a lifetime pain. You have to pay half the price of the car if you say anything! I will give you a discount. Even if you are 800,000!"

"What? Eight hundred thousand?!" Elsa said angrily, "You are an errant! Your car, even if you go to Maserati 4s shop, it will cost you two or three thousands for a paint, plus sheet metal. , One or two, I think you can do all that by not paying more than ten thousand!"

"Ten thousand?!" The young man spit out thick sputum on the ground and almost spit on Elsa's feet. he cursed with a mouthful of big yellow teeth: "Are you arguing with me? Do you know what I do? Just ten thousand. Thinking of something? Let me tell you that you cannot get away with one less than 800,000 today. If the money is not enough, it doesn't matter, leave your ID card information, and then give me an IOU. The interest is 80,000 a day!"

"You...this is simply extortion!"

Claire couldn't see it anymore, and said angrily: "No matter how arrogant you are, we will call the police!"

"Report, if you want to!" The young man said contemptuously: "I'm afraid you count me as losing! Play this set with me? Tell you, I'm black and white, and I eat both ways!"

Elsa admitted that she was planted, she didn't care about 800,000, 8 million is a drizzle, but she really didn't want to cause trouble to Charlie

She invited them to come over, in fact, she wanted to meet Charlie and have more opportunities to get in touch and get along with each other.

Therefore, she didn't want Charlie to cause trouble because of herself, and she didn't want Charlie to affect his mood because of this incident.

So she gritted her teeth and said, "Okay, 800,000, give me a card number, and then I will turn it over for you."

"f*ck, what are you saying is true?!" The young man didn't expect that 800,000, she would really give it!

What he originally thought was that the other party counter-offered, made concessions by himself, and eventually extorted one hundred thousand from the other party and made a lot of money.

Unexpectedly, people would give 800,000 if nothing else!

Now it's a f*cking profit!

But at this moment, Charlie suddenly stopped Elsa and said coldly: "Don't give him a penny. I want to see what the consequences can be today!"

Chapter 419

Seeing that Charlie was blocking his financial path, the young man immediately gritted his teeth and said: "Okay, you are forced to find death. If I don't beat you half to death later, I won't be surnamed Liu!"

Charlie said indifferently: "You guys like to pretend so much, I think you can change your surname."

"Stupid!" The youth immediately violent veins, ready to come up and make two gestures with Charlie at any time.

At this moment. A middle-aged fat man with a few strong security guards hurried over.

When he saw him coming, the youth immediately said with a smile: "Manager Zeng, I have not seen you in the past few days, and you have become fat again. It seems that life is really nourishing!"

Manager Zeng laughed and complimented: "Mr. Liu, how can you moisturize my days? I just pass my days, unlike you, who has a big family."

After speaking, he hurriedly asked: "By the way, Mr. Liu, what is going on here?"

The young man pointed Charlie with his hand, and said in a cold voice: "This poor hanger is too fcking pretending. He won't be compensated me for scraping my car. The bones are still so fcking hard. Solve it!"

Manager Zeng nodded and looked at Charlie.

After looking around, he found that Charlie was wearing ordinary clothes, and he didn't have the temperament of a rich second-generation. In addition, he drove an old Mercedes-Benz, and knew that the other party was also a person with no background, so he spoke. : "Boy, when you go out, you don't have any vision? Do you know who you provoke?"

"Who is it?" Charlie asked indifferently.

Manager Zeng glanced at the youth and said, "Mr. Liu Ming of the Liu family, the Liu family has hundreds of millions of assets, you can't afford it!"

After he finished speaking, he immediately said: "If you don't want to cause trouble, just listen to me, honestly lose the money, then move the car away, don't waste Mr. Liu's time."

Charlie frowned and said, "You are also very interesting. You came up and said that it was my problem and wanted me to compensate?"

Manager Zeng sneered: "Sure enough, you are a poor man. Open your dog's eyes and see what car is parked around? What car are you driving? Which car do we have here, which is less than one million What qualifications do you have to park a broken Mercedes here?"

Charlie glanced around and said, "I didn't see a sign prohibiting parking of cars under one million."

"What the f*ck are you talking about!"

Seeing that Charlie was always stuck with oil and salt, Liu Ming kicked the taillights of the Mercedes-Benz, and kicked the taillights with a slap.

Immediately he cursed: "d*mn, I have tolerated you for a long time, you are a poor hanger, what do you pretend to be here? More chirps, believe it or not, I can break your leg? You don't want to lose money. These idiot girls accompany me tonight!"

While speaking, Liu Ming grabbed Claire who was standing next to Charlie.

Charlie frowned, stood in front of Claire and Elsa, grabbed Liu Ming's arm and pushed him out.

Liu Ming was furious and cursed: "You are so poor and want to fight back? I think these two ladies are honored by me. If you dare to fight back, I will kill you! You believe me. Do not believe?"

Charlie squinted his eyes slightly, with a cold expression in his eyes. He looked at Liu Ming and said, "It's better to leave a way for being a man, and don't let yourself go to death."

As soon as Liu Ming stretched out his hand, he pushed Charlie, and said with an annoyed smile: "Oh, you are a poor hanger and you have installed it. I won't stay behind. What can you do for me!"

Manager Zeng also waved from the side, asked the security guard to surround Charlie and the others, and said: "Poor, let go of Mr. Liu, you hurt Mr. Liu, you can't afford to die!"

Why would Charlie take care of his nonsense? He lifted his leg and kicked directly on Liu Ming's stomach and kicked him out.

Liu Ming only felt a sharp pain in his stomach, as if his intestines were broken, and said angrily: "Manager Zeng, kill him! d*mn! Dare to beat me, beat him to death! I am responsible if something goes wrong! "

Manager Zeng was about to order, but suddenly heard a voice from inside.

Chapter 420

"Yeah, what's the matter, so lively?"

When Manager Zeng heard this, his whole body was shocked. It was too late to hit Charlie. He turned to look over there and said eagerly, "Mr. Orvel, are you finished soaking? How do you feel?"

"It's okay." Orvel responded casually and asked curiously: "What are you doing?"

While speaking, Orvel brought a bunch of his little brothers and walked towards him.

Manager Zeng quickly explained: "A poor man hit Mr. Liu. I am about to avenge Mr. Liu. This kid is not very capable, but his bones are a bit hard."

Liu Ming clutched his stomach, and shouted at Mr. Orvel, "Uncle, long time no see."

Orvel glanced at him twice before smiling and said, "It turns out that it's the little b@stard of the Liu family, you are bad enough, can you still be beaten in Aurous Hill? It's too shameful for you!"

Orvel has a good relationship with Liu Ming's father, so Liu Ming is regarded as his half-elder nephew, and he speaks more directly, and he is completely elder.

Liu Ming didn't dare to make a second in front of Orvel, so he had to say embarrassingly: "Uncle, isn't this a poor man who is stunned, and I will let him know the cost of beating me later!"

Orvel snorted and said, "I really want to see, whoever is so courageous, even you dare to fight."

Orvel walked to the neighborhood, and then pushed aside the security guards surrounded by layers and looked at the crowd.

Immediately afterwards, he saw Charlie with an indifferent expression.

Charlie looked at Orvel playfully, and asked, "Mr. Orvel, are you pretty nosy?"

Orvel immediately broke into a cold sweat!

He did not expect that the one surrounded by this group of people turned out to be Mr. Wade!

At this moment, he secretly rejoiced in his heart. Fortunately, he didn't say anything excessive just now. Otherwise, if he accidentally angered Mr. Wade, wouldn't he even have to follow him?

The last time Mr. Wade gave his favor and rewarded himself with a magical medicine, he was already loyal to Mr. Wade. He was his dog when he was born and his dead dog when he died. This time he almost didn't have eyes and bit his master. It's almost a disaster!

Orvel hurriedly bowed deeply and respectfully said, "Mr. Wade, I didn't know it was you who came..."

The people around were suddenly speechless...

The famous Orvel is so respectful to a poor man? !

Isn't this f*cking weird?

Charlie pointed his finger at the young man and asked faintly, "Do you know this kid?"

Mr. Orvel is not a fool, knowing that Liu Ming must have offended Mr. Wade. At this time, he could not care that he was a friend's son. He immediately walked in front of Liu Ming and knocked Liu Ming to the ground with a fierce slap. Grab his hair and slam his head against the concrete floor!

With a boom, Liu Ming was smashed.

Liu Ming resisted the severe pain, and asked: "Uncle...you...what are you hitting me for?!"

Mr. Orvel glared at him, slammed directly on Liu Ming's head again!

"Dare to provoke Mr. Wade, you're so f*cking impatient!"

Chapter 421

Manager Zeng of the Champs Elys Spa saw this scene completely stunned.

He didn't know what was going on, and the security guards didn't dare to move.

Liu Ming even screamed like a pig: "Uncle stop fighting! What the h*ll is going on!?"

Orvel stepped on Liu Ming's face with his foot, and said coldly: "Liu Ming, I usually call you a big nephew and give you a face, don't I? You f*cking act like this outside?"

Liu Ming said anxiously: "Uncle, how did I provoke you? If you tell me, I will change it!"

While kicking him, Orvel cursed: "Mr. Wade is as kind to me as a new parent. You dare to be disrespectful to Mr. Wade. You say it yourself, are you looking for death?!"

Only then did Liu Ming realize that he had provoked someone who shouldn't be provoked, and hurriedly cried and pleaded: "Uncle, I was wrong. I confess my mistake to Mr. Wade. I apologized to him. It was my fault. Blame me, I am willing to compensate him for his loss!"

Orvel glanced at his Maserati sports car and sneered: "You kids are not yourself when you drive a new car, isn't it? Come on, smash his car! It's a mess! I want to listen to it today. Rang! Driving a f*cking broken Maserati and driving you to the sky, anyone dares to offend!"

"OK!" The strong man in black at the back immediately picked up the clubs and smashed the Maserati.

The plastic face woman sitting inside Maserati screamed in terror, opened the door and ran out.

Looking at her appearance, Orvel knew that she was not a good bird, and immediately said to his opponent: "Come on, get me that plastic face kneels down!"

As a result, the plastic face was immediately taken over and knelt on the ground with a splash.

She annoyed and said: "What are you doing? I tell you, I have millions of fans on YouTube! You annoyed me, I will expose you!"

"I'm going to your mother!" Orvel slapped her directly, put her prosthetic nose under his hand, and pointed at her and cursed: "A little Rubbish internet celebrity dare to yell here, know me Who is it?"

"Who knows you, old stuff!" muttered with a plastic face gritted teeth.

Liu Ming next to him was frightened and slapped her face, cursing: "Are you crazy? This is the master Orvel! Great master Orvel!"

The facelifted face was back in the car just now, and was patronizing the car to take a selfie with Maserati's steering wheel. I didn't know that this man was Mr. Orvel. When she heard this, she was frightened and trembling and said, "Great Lord. Yes... I'm sorry, if I know it was you and killed me, I wouldn't dare to offend you..."

Orvel said coldly: "Unlock your phone for me!"

Plastic face didn't know what he was going to do, but she didn't dare to disobey him. After all, this is the king of the Aurous Hill underground world, so she can only do it obediently.

Orvel took her mobile phone, turned on YouTube, and clicked directly to shoot. He patted the face of the other party with a crooked nose, and said loudly, "Come on, say to the camera that you are a stinky frame from the second generation of Pong Fu. Ten times!"

Seeing that Orvel was about to shoot her on the face of the facelift, she hurriedly begged: "No way, Mr. Orvel, I have a lot of fans...If they see me, what should I do... "

"Don't tell me?" Orvel nodded and said: "Tie her up and take her away, and send her to my KTV as a lady for three years. If she dares to run, you will kill her."

"Yes!" The younger brothers hurried forward.

The face was scared and hurriedly crying and begging: "Oh Lord, I said! I said it's not enough..."

Orvel pointed the camera at her and shouted coldly: "Say it!"

Plastic face crying, while saying: "I am the second generation of Pongfu's stinky frame..."

After speaking ten times in a row, Orvel stopped recording and sent it directly to her YouTube. Then he slammed the phone to the ground and broke it into pieces.

Chapter 422

Now, she wanted to delete it but couldn't delete it.

In the ear, the sound of smashing cars was endless, and the brand-new Maserati was quickly smashed into a pile of scrap iron.

Liu Ming trembled all over, no matter how stupid he knew it, he probably kicked on an iron plate this time, and he hugged Orvel's leg and begged for mercy: "I'm wrong, Uncle, please spare me once, I really know it's wrong!"

"Wrong with your mother!" Mr. Orvel kicked Liu Ming fiercely in the chest, turned to look at Charlie, and asked for instructions: "Mr. Wade, what do you think?"

Charlie glanced at Liu Ming coldly and smiled: "This kid is very interesting. He likes to curse and sprays manure with his mouth full. By the way, two days ago I heard that someone also sprayed manure with his mouth full, and was finally pulled to the toilet. Licking the urinal, do you know this?"

Of course Orvel knows!

At the time in the brilliant club, Barena Wei of the Wei family brought a concubine over and offended Mr. Wade. He was forced by Boyu, the head housekeeper of the Song family, to lick eight urinals. This matter spread early in Aurous Hill. A lot of people talked after dinner.

However, Boyu didn't dare to expose Charlie's identity to the outside world, so no one outside knew that Barena Wei and his concubine were punished so badly that they had offended some big people.

Two days ago, Liu Ming laughed at Barena Wei for being embarrassed and being so miserable. He also said that if he was so miserable, he would resist desperately.

Unexpectedly, Charlie suddenly said such words at this time, and his soul was frightened.

He didn't want to follow in Barena Wei's footsteps and lick the urinal in the men's bathroom...

So he hurriedly begged: "Mr. Wade, I don't know. Please forgive me this time. You see that my car was also smashed, and I am out of breath. Please forgive me. One time..."

Charlie smiled lightly and said: "You seemed to like to call me a poor man just now. I think you seem to be particularly interested in the word poor man?"

"No, no!" Liu Ming hurriedly shook his head and waved his hand, and explained in a flustered manner: "I am a poor man! I am a poor man! Mr. Wade!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Okay, since you know you are poor, then I suggest you engrave these two characters on your forehead so that everyone can know, right?"

Liu Ming squatted his head in fright, and cried, "Mr. Wade, please spare me this time. I am willing to pay you five million! Oh no! I will pay you ten million!"

Charlie shook his head: "I am a poor person, so I am not interested in your money. Besides, you scared my wife just now. Do you think you can just lose some money?"

After speaking, he asked Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, do you have a knife?"

Orvel hurriedly winked at his opponent.

His men immediately handed over a sharp folding dagger.

Orvel handed the dagger to Charlie respectfully and said, "Mr. Wade, please."

"Shall I please?" Charlie glared at him and asked him: "Do you think it's worthwhile for me to write an inscription by myself?"

Only then did Mr. Orvel realize how big a mistake he had made!

Yes, a Liu Ming, how can he be qualified to let Mr. Wade personally engrave on his forehead!

So he hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, let me come! I come!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Engrave a little deeper, I'm afraid that if the engraving is shallow, he will not have a long memory in the future!"

Chapter 423

When Orvel listened to Charlie's instructions, his expression stunned, he immediately picked up the dagger, and said to his followers, "Come on, hold his head for me!"

Liu Ming was frightened, struggling desperately, shaking his head desperately, he was unwilling to let people engrave the word "poor hang" on his forehead, these two words, but he said every day when he spoke to others and scolded others. !

In the past few years, Liu Ming's family has made some money, and his life has become more and more nourishing, so his whole person has become more and more ecstatic.

When he goes out and see garbage pickers, he will call them poor;

When he goes to the street and sees that one's car is not as good as his, he will also call them poor.

Some time ago, a high school student wearing Metersbonwe accidentally rubbed milk tea on his r jacket. He directly beat the other party into a concussion. When the other party's parents arrived, he also scolded the other party: "A poor family Hanging, selling your whole family is worth nothing for me!"

After speaking, he left without paying any money for medical expenses.

Last night, he went out to catch a meal and saw a traffic jam on the road. He drove his Maserati retrogradely on the sidewalk, forcing the cyclist to carry the car to the side of the road to give him the way. As a result, an Old Master acted slightly slower. At one point, when he got out of the car, he kicked the Old Master into the green belt on the side of the road, and then spit on the opponent's face, and cursed: "B@stard stupid dare to stand in my way? This time it is just kicked. Next time I will f*cking kill you old thing!"

After that, he just drove away.

Even just now, he didn't have the quality himself, robbed someone else's parking space, and ended up rubbing the car. Instead, he criticized Elsa and Charlie for being poor when he spoke. The degree of arrogance is evident.

If he is now engraved with the word "poor hang" on his forehead, it is really the best punishment for his life, his character, and his actions!

Seeing this kid struggling back and forth, he refused to let himself engrave, and immediately gritted his teeth and cursed: "If you cooperate honestly, I will engrave two characters on your forehead, but if you fight with me here, I'm sorry. , I will not only engrave the word "Poor hang" on your forehead, but I will also engrave the word on your cheeks on the left and right sides!"

After finishing speaking, Orvel felt puzzled, and said: "Right! Don't you just think that your dad has made too much money in the past two years, and it is not you who floated? Then I will let your dad be arrested. Engraved four characters on his face! Then tell him that all this is thanks to you!"

Liu Ming was really frightened!

Although he has a bit of money, it is impossible to really fight against Orvel!

The underworld brother Mr. Orvel, can chop his family into the meat with one knife!

Moreover, above Orvel, there is also the Song family. Who doesn't know that Orvel is a dog of the Song family on the road?

However, even if he is just a dog in the Song family, he is definitely not something others can afford!

If he really engraved the word "poor hang" on his face, how would he see people in the future?

If he really engraved the words "Poor Father" on his father's face, how would his father see people in the future?

When the time comes, Dad will be angry and strip him alive!

So he could only cry while begging: "Uncle, please be merciful, can you make it smaller?"

"f*ck off!" Orvel slapped his face directly, and cursed: "Dare to bargain with me?"

Liu Ming was in tears and was extremely afraid of feeling wronged in his heart, but he dared not say anything to Mr. Orvel.

Mr. Orvel asked people to grab his head tightly, preparing to use a dagger to engrave a poor character on it.

Charlie took out his phone and turned on the video recording.

Although Liu Ming begged him to engrave a bit smaller, how could he dare to neglect Charlie?

Chapter 424

So go as big and deep as possible!

This word occupies half of the forehead.

Moreover, Mr. Orvel, an old thing, is too d*mn ugly writer!

His poor character is not as good as a primary school student.

Mr. Orvel returned to find a supplement for himself, hehe smiled: "Looking at Mr. Wade, I am not used to lettering with a knife, it's ugly..."

Charlie snorted and asked, "You tell the truth, how many years have you read?"

Mr. Orvel laughed and said, "I have been studying for several years. I graduated from elementary school anyway, but it's true that I didn't study hard in six years of elementary school..."

Charlie nodded and said, "Alright, if you engraved him too well, it would be cheaper for him.

When Liu Ming heard this, he cried out of breath.

The pain on the forehead is no longer important at all. The important thing is, doesn't this mean that he's disfigured?

Mr. Orvel looked at the other party's bloody forehead, took out a wrinkled pile of toilet paper from his pocket, sucked the blood-sucking water, and said, "Come on, the other side now!"

Immediately afterward, Mr. Orvel began to carve another character.

He also engraved this character very big, one on each side is really eye-catching!

After the engraving, he looked around for himself, nodded in satisfaction, and then asked Charlie: "Mr. Wade, do you think my craft is okay?"

Charlie stopped the video recording, nodded, and said, "Seems pretty good."

Orvel just smiled and asked, "Mr. Wade, how to deal with this plastic face?"

Charlie said calmly: "You will observe at these two people from now on. If Liu Ming dared to remove his scars and grow long hair to cover his forehead, he would be killed directly by me, and if she had this plastic face if she dared to go. Fix her crooked nose and disfigure her entire face! Besides, if she still dares to play YouTube, break her leg!"

The bodies of the two kneeling on the ground were suddenly startled...

When Liu Ming was thinking about going back, he hurried to find a plastic surgery hospital to remove the scars, and then grow his hair a little longer and covered his forehead with bangs. This should have a little effect...

But what Charlie meant was to let all the people see what was on his forehead with two big characters in the future!

And that plastic face was thinking about it, and when he went back, she will quickly find a mobile phone to log in to YouTube, deleted the video that Orvel sent just now, and then go to the plastic surgery hospital to get her nose back.

But Charlie directly and expressly forbids her to trim her nose, and even refused to let her use YouTube. How can she become an internet celebrity in the future? How to lie to those poor fans? How to hook up the rich second generation? !

The two of them cried and begged for mercy, hoping that Charlie could open up their future and not to kill them all.

Charlie was completely unmoved. He said to Orvel, "You remember what I told you. If something goes wrong, I will ask you only!"

Orvel immediately stood up straight and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will observe these two sl*t in the future!"

After that, he gritted his teeth and looked at the two of them, and said coldly: "You two bird people will remember me. You will check in with me every other week from now on. Let me check in person, and I will go to the chase one day later. At that time, the entire Aurous Hill, and even the entire Nanguang people will hunt you down! If you escape from the province, I will send my little brother across the province to hunt you down! Until I hacked you to death I won't stop, do you understand?!"

Chapter 425

At this moment, Liu Ming and facial plastic surgery are completely desperate for their future life.

Seeing that their punishment was more relieved, Charlie said to Mr. Orvel: "I look at these two people as a headache, so I hurried to get away."

Mr. Orvel nodded, kicked Liu Ming, and cursed: "Don't you hurry up?!"

Liu Ming got up, ignored the dirt on his body, and hurriedly prepared to escape with the plastic face.

Mr. Orvel gave him a violent kick on his a, kicked him all the way, fell a dog to gnaw sh!t, and then shouted: "Listen you two. After a week, come to my Classic Mansion to report to me. Let me check, if you don't come, just wait to be hacked to death!"

"Lord, don't worry, we must be there..."

The two hurriedly agreed, and then they continued to flee in a panic, and they quickly fled without a trace.

Mr. Orvel came to Charlie's side with a stern face and asked flatly, "Mr. Wade, are you satisfied?"

Charlie turned to look at Claire and Elsa. Seeing that they had a strange expression, he asked: "Wife, Elsa, are you satisfied?"

Only then did Claire vaguely said, "Charlie, is it not a bit cruel to treat both of them like this?"

Orvel hurriedly said: "Mrs. Wade, you don't know anything. This Liu Ming is a brutal b@stard. He loves to bully the poor all the time. I don't know how many poor people are bullied. The most annoying thing is that this grandson last year. In winter, drinking too much and in a bad mood saw a homeless tramp who went straight up and killed him. The bad things he did are really exhausted!"

Claire exclaimed, "Is this person really so bad?"

Orvel nodded and said, "This grandson likes to bully the poor the most. The poorer he is, the more he will bully to death."

Elsa on the side said: "Then he really deserves it! What kind of ability to bully the poor? What a b@stard!"

Orvel hurriedly said: "Miss Elsa, you are so right! For a person like this, Mr. Wade is doing this for the heavens!"

Charlie said indifferently: "Okay, don't linger here, you should be busy, my wife and I are going to the hot spring."

Orvel hurriedly pointed to the hot spring hotel manager who was shocked a long time ago, and asked, "Mr. Charlie, what should I do with this person? Can't just let him go? Do you want to engrave him too? "

Charlie said lightly: "A dogleg, let him leave his job immediately, get him out of Aurous Hill, and don't let him show up in Aurous Hill in the future, otherwise let the brothers on the road see once and chop once!"

The manager Zeng has not dared to speak. Hearing this, he hurriedly called out: "Orvel, don't mess around, our Champs Elys Spa Hotel, but Shangri-La's property, Shangri-La's Issac, you should know? If you move me, Mr. Issac will not let you go!"

Manager Zeng thinks that Orvel is awesome, and the Song family is behind him, but his manager Issac is also very good. He is the spokesperson of the Wade family, and the Wade family behind it is much better than the Song family!

Mr. Orvel sneered and said, "Okay, you can call Mr. Issac to see if he can protect you!"

"Call him!" Manager Zeng let out a sigh of relief, took out the phone, and dialed Issac.

Soon, the call was connected.

Manager Zeng hurriedly said: "Mr. Issac, Orvel is making trouble here. He carved the words "Poor Hang" on Liu Ming's forehead with a knife and beat Liu Ming's girlfriend's nose crooked. He wants me out of Aurous Hill and wants to block me, you have to save me!"

Issac asked in surprise: "What's the matter? Give Mr. Orvel the phone and I will tell him."

Chapter 426

Manager Zeng quickly handed the phone to Mr. Orvel and said, "Mr. Orvel, Mr. Issac is looking for you."

Orvel picked up the phone, and Issac reprimanded on the phone: "Mr. Orvel, what's the matter with you? Do you dare to make trouble on my ground? Do you want to hit me? Are you a bit too arrogant?"

Mr. Orvel said seriously: "Ms. Issac, it was not I who made trouble, but Liu Ming, who offended Mr. Wade, and your, Manager Zeng, also helped Liu Ming teach Mr. Wade. What do you think?"

Issac blurted out and asked, "Mr. Wade? Is it Mr. Wade?"

"Of course, besides him, who else is Mr. Wade?" Mr. Orvel smiled.

Issac was shocked!

Unexpectedly, a dog under his hands bit his owner!

This is just asking for f*cking death!

So, he immediately followed by detour: "Mr. Orvel, you turn on the handsfree!"

Orvel immediately turned on the speaker and heard Issac's angry roar: "Zeng, you b@stard! You don't have so long eyes and offend Mr. Wade? Have you lived enough?"

As soon as Zeng heard this, his legs trembled with fright: "Mr. Wade, I don't know this is Mr. Wade..."

Issac scolded: "You do it yourself this time, don't blame me for not showing you mercy."

After speaking, he said again: "Mr. Orvel, what does Mr. Wade mean?"

Orvel said: "Mr. Wade meant to dismiss this kid, then drive out of Aurous Hill, and see him cut once when he comes back!"

Issac said immediately: "Okay! Could you do me a favor!"

Orvel hurriedly said, "Issac, please speak."

Issac said coldly: "Beat him to half death first!"

"Okay." Orvel agreed with a smile and then hung up.

Zeng was already sitting on the ground with fright. Who is that young man! Why even President Issac respects him so much!

He couldn't help but knelt and climbed in front of Charlie, kowtowing his head and begging for mercy: "Mr. Wade, please let me go. I have lived in Aurous Hill since I was a child. My parents, relatives, and friends are in Aurous Hill. If I can't come back for a lifetime, Why am I still alive!"

Charlie said coldly: "As the manager of Champs Elysees, I believe that Issac should not give you less money. Your salary plus bonus for a year is at least one or two million or more. This in itself is enough for you to live a good life in Aurous Hill. , Become a high-paid family man, but you just want to be a sh!t for someone like Liu Ming, and you also bring Champs Elys' security guards to help Liu Ming beat other guests. With this end, you deserve it!"

After speaking, Charlie asked again: "Do you know that, including you and these security guards, all the employees hired by Champs Elysees? Champs Elys hired you with money so that you can help everyone As for customer service, you should treat every customer fairly. Why are you responsive to Liu Ming?! You even helped him beat others. Is this a job duty given to you by Champs Elys?"

Zeng cried and said, "Mr. Wade, to tell you, I think that Liu Ming has a little background, and I want to make friends with him more, so I deliberately please, I was also confused for a while..."

Charlie sneered: "Adults must pay for their own confusion!"

After all, he looked at Orvel and angrily said: "Mr. Orvel, don't do it yet, what are you waiting for?!"

Chapter 427

When Orvel saw that Charlie was a little angry, he hurriedly waved to his opponent and said coldly: "Hit me hard!"

A group of strong guys immediately surrounded Zeng, punched and kicked, until he was dying of breath, which was regarded as a stop.

Zeng lay on the ground and yelled, even worse still to come, Mr. Orvel said coldly: "I'll give you half a day to leave Aurous Hill. If I see you tomorrow after daybreak, I will kill you!"

The dying Zeng choked weakly: "Fifth Lord, can you give me two days of grace and let me heal the injury before leaving..."

"Go to the field for treatment!" Orvel said coldly, "Call your family and directly hire an ambulance to take you away. Just stay away from Aurous Hill! If you die in another place, don't let your ashes brought back to Aurous Hill for burial, otherwise I will take you out of the grave, and lifted your ashes!"

Zeng was frightened as if he had gone mad, convulsing on the ground for a long time.

This is so cruel!

Hurry up and kill!

People are not allowed to come back, and the ashes are not allowed to come back even? !

At this moment, Zeng really wanted to die.

But there is no way, he himself knows that he is to blame.

Issac allowed him to be in charge of the Champs Elysees Hot Springs so that he would serve the customers well. It was good for him. In order to favor individual customers, he took the Champs Elys security to try to beat other customers. This is serious negligence in itself!

What's more, he also provoked a distinguished guest who even Issac was very respectful. It would be considered kindness if he didn't want his life!

So he could only tremble and took out his cell phone, crying and calling his family, asking them to find an ambulance and send him to the next city for treatment.

Once Zeng was settled, Orvel looked at Charlie in kindness and smiled: "Mr. Charlie, do you want me to accompany you in to check-in?"

Charlie shook his head and said, "Forget it, you can handle it here, I can go inside by myself."

Orvel nodded quickly and said, "Then I would leave. If there is anything wrong with Mr. Charlie, please call me at any time."

Charlie nodded, then looked at Claire and Elsa, and said, "Let's go."

Only then did Elsa come back to her senses, looking at Charlie's eyes, full of unconcealed love and admiration.

This man is like this, every gesture can give people an infinite sense of security...

As long as he is by her side, she is particularly at ease in her heart, even if the sky is falling, she won't be afraid.

.....

Champs Elys Spa is a Japanese-style private hot spring.

The customer has a private suite. Behind the suite is a courtyard covering an area of 100 square meters, and the private hot spring is located in this courtyard.

The water in the hot spring pool is drawn from the eyes of the underground hot spring and flows continuously into the hot spring pool 24 hours a day, keeping the temperature very suitable.

Issac knew that Charlie was here, and hurriedly arranged for the hotel people to upgrade their room to the best set of top-notch suites. There are two super-large and luxurious bedrooms. Even the hot springs are much larger than other places. The scenery is much more beautiful.

After entering the room, Claire and Elsa looked at the surroundings and immediately became happy. Elsa hurriedly urged Claire and said, "Claire, change your swimsuit quickly. Let's go to the hot spring to relieve our fatigue!"

"Hmm!" Claire was also very happy, and immediately nodded and agreed.

Charlie originally thought about having a chance to see the beauty of his wife changing her swimsuit, but he didn't expect that the two went to the same room...

Chapter 428

Seeing this scene, he naturally knew that two beautiful women could only appreciate each other, and his hopes were lost.

So Charlie went to another room and changed into the shorts he brought over.

Since Charlie changed shorts relatively quickly, when he came out, the two girls hadn't come out yet.

So Charlie walked to the yard first and slowly entered the huge hot spring pool.

Charlie couldn't help but let out a long sigh of relief as the warm water gradually spread over his body.

After a while, footsteps sounded, Claire and the two changed their clothes and walked into the yard.

Charlie turned his head to look, and his eyes lit up.

The swimsuit Claire wore was conservative, nevertheless, it outlined her perfect figure, slender legs, and fair skin, all of which made Charlie's heart hot.

And Elsa next to her was even bolder. Although Elaine stopped Claire from letting her wear a bikini, Elsa really wore a pink bikini!

This bikini only covers the important parts and shows most of the other parts in the air, which makes the figure unparalleled.

She is not inferior to Claire's body, and her appearance is equally beautiful because her dress is bolder and more irritating, but she overwhelms Claire!

Seeing Charlie's somewhat surprised and stunning gaze, Elsa smiled charmingly, and then quietly threw a loving look at him, which looked bold and shy.

Seeing this as gentle as water, and with a somewhat fiery look in his eyes, Charlie felt a little throbbing unconsciously.

But he could only pretend that he didn't know, and quickly withdrew his gaze, fearing that he couldn't restrain himself and reappeared in the water, and secondly he was afraid that Claire would see the clues.

The two women twisted their waists naturally and walked over like a pair of models. In Charlie's eyes, it was a wonderful underwear show.

Afterwards, the two reached the side of the hot spring pool, stepped on their long white legs, and plunged into the water one after another.

It was also the first time for Claire to wear a swimsuit in front of her husband, so she was a little bit shy, so she took Elsa, sitting two or three meters away from Charlie, whispering, and chatting about some topics between girlfriends.

But Elsa's thoughts were clearly on Charlie.

While chatting with Claire one by one, she secretly glanced at Charlie with her eyes from time to time.

In order to prevent being seen by his wife, Charlie could only turn his back, and then closed his eyes and rested in the hot spring.

The two women chatted for a while because the hot springs made their bodies too relaxed, so they both felt a little sleepy.

Claire has been very tired recently. Not only is there a lot of things happening recently, but the company is newly opened, and she has been busy tossing, and she is already exhausted.

At this time, she was surrounded by the warm spring water, and she felt unprecedented tiredness. After a while, she became sleepy.

So, ten minutes later, she was by the hot spring pool, leaning against the hot spring pool with a towel, and fell asleep slowly.

And Charlie was closing his eyes to rest up his mind at this time, and suddenly he felt the water surging around him. When he opened his eyes, he saw Elsa's white and tender body, who had already swum to his side.

Just as Charlie was about to speak, Elsa stretched out a finger and put it directly in front of his lips, and whispered: "She fell asleep, don't wake her up."

Charlie glanced at Claire and made sure she was really asleep. Then he breathed a sigh of relief and whispered: "We shouldn't be so close, especially in the face of Claire!"

"Claire is already asleep!" Elsa smiled, and said emotionally: "I just want to thank you for what happened just now, you saved me again..."

Chapter 429

Facing Elsa's confession, Charlie said with a calm face: "It just happened to meet a few s*umbags, just clean up, don't take it to heart."

Elsa said seriously: "Then I would like to thank you very much!"

After all, Elsa sat down next to Charlie, and when she stretched out her hand, she hugged Charlie's arm in her arms.

The two of them wore very little, Charlie's arm instantly felt the smooth and tender skin touch.

Charlie squeezed and said quickly: "Elsa, don't do this, you will be seen by Claire."

Elsa smiled and said, "That means I can't see it at first, so I can do it?"

"I didn't mean that..." Charlie said helplessly.

Elsa hugged a little tighter and said: "I want to hug. It's best to let Claire see it, and then you two divorce so that you can be with me."

Charlie asked with a righteous look: "How can you do this? You are Claire's good girlfriend!"

Elsa also said seriously: "I know that you and Claire were not married because of love, but because her grandfather insisted on doing his own way, so she was willing to marry you, and I also know that you two have no substance until now. There's no such thing as a husband and wife!"

Speaking of this, Elsa couldn't help but said emotionally: "Since you don't have any marriage at all, why do you hang around each other? Hurry up and get divorced, and then you can find your true love. Isn't it good? Everyone will not delay anyone!"

Charlie waved his hand: "You don't understand my feelings for Claire."

Elsa asked: "Then my feelings for you, do you understand?"

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "I understand, but I can't promise you anything, sorry."

"Why?!" Elsa said aggrievedly: "Why would you rather want a marriage without any facts than let go of this false marriage and pursue true love?"

Charlie whispered: "I made it clear to you last time. We are not suitable. Even if I divorced Claire, we may not be able to get together. What's more, I won't be with Claire at all. Divorce, it's totally meaningless for you to waste time on me."

Elsa snorted softly: "I am willing to waste time, I just love you!"

Charlie said helplessly: "You are purely stupid. Instead of wasting time on me, it is better to find a single man who is not married and has no girlfriend to have a serious relationship."

Elsa's big eyes were suddenly covered with a layer of mist, and her mouth was pouting, and she choked up: "Charlie, my whole heart is on you. Since you saved me for the first time, I have fallen in love with you. , After so many things in the middle to now, I am hopelessly in love with you..."

As she said, there were two red clouds on her face, and she said seriously: "I dreamed of you last night..."

"Dreaming about me?" Charlie asked in surprise: "What did you dream about me?"

Elsa said: "I dreamed that you and I went back to my house, we got married, and then..."

"Then what?" Charlie asked.

Elsa blushed and said like a mosquito hum: "Then I gave you a big fat boy..."

Charlie curled his lips and said, "Dreams are all opposite..."

Elsa said immediately: "That's fine to have a beautiful daughter, I like it too."

Seeing Elsa's serious look, Charlie really had a headache.

Charlie had to emphasize again: "Elsa, we really can't...you don't understand me..."

Elsa's eyes were a little dim, and she said: "If you don't understand, you can slowly understand. It doesn't matter if you don't divorce Claire. I can love you secretly, even if I secretly love you for a lifetime, I am willing to..."

Chapter 430

Charlie was a little speechless for a while, what did Elsa mean in her words, even she was willing to be an underground lover for him?

But how could he agree to such a thing?

First of all, he was sincere towards Claire. She was arranged to marry him by her grandfather. Even though she was so dissatisfied, she finally agreed, and even the whole family laughed at her and ridiculed her. Old Willson, of course, he never looked down upon him.

Moreover, after Aunt Lena of the welfare institute became ill, she has been living frugally under Elaine's nose, lending money to him, and even paid Aunt Lena's medical expenses. Charlie will never forget this kindness.

So, how could he agree to let Elsa be his lover?

At this moment, Claire, who was asleep, suddenly moved.

Charlie was shocked, and quickly took his arm out of Elsa's arms.

And Elsa glanced at Claire and saw that she was not awake, she immediately pressed her face to Charlie's mouth at this moment and kissed him gently with her lips.

The touch is delicate, and it breaks with one touch.

Charlie hadn't recovered yet, Elsa had already blushed and swam away.

But Charlie saw that Claire was about to wake up, so he couldn't say anything.

Claire stretched out at this time, opened her eyes, and sighed: "Oh! It's really comfortable to take a bath in the hot spring! I was feeling tired during this period of time, it relieved most of it all at once!"

After speaking, she saw Elsa's face flushed, she asked in surprise: "Elsa, the hot spring water is not hot, why is your face so red?"

Elsa rubbed her face embarrassedly and then said with a smile: "The hot spring water is not hot. The key is that there is such a beautiful big beauty lying next to me. It makes me feel hot when I see you..."

While speaking, she stretched out her hand to scratch Claire.

Claire hurriedly avoided, Elsa hurriedly squirted water on her body, Claire also hurriedly held water to fight back, and the two women quarreled.

Elsa's figure is more plump, and Charlie is a little dizzy with such a large movement, and Claire on the side is not much inferior to her, and it is also beautiful scenery.

Charlie felt a rush of heat in his body. In order to calm his mind, he plunged into the water and stopped looking at the two women.

Seeing this, Elsa deliberately teased: "Hey, Charlie, why are you still dipping your head in the water? Are you not afraid of choking water!"

Charlie vomited a bunch of bubbles in the water, raised his head, and said, "Um, I'm done soaking, you two get busy, I'll get you some drinks."

Claire hurriedly said: "It happens that I am thirsty, Charlie, please help me get a bottle of ice-cola!"

Charlie nodded: "Okay."

Elsa said hurriedly: "Then I want Iced Sprite!"

"Okay." Charlie agreed, got up hurriedly, and escaped from the hot spring pool.

There are two big beauties around him, one is his wife, the other is his lover, and they are dressed in such a cool dress. If they stay here, they are afraid that they will really be unable to control them.

Claire still had no intention of marrying him.

Although Elsa has 10,000 loves for herself, since she is already the husband of men, of course, she can't do anything to her.

Therefore, to Charlie, these two women are both types that can see and cannot eat.

This type is seen too much, not only hurts the body but also sad!

Chapter 431

When Charlie and his wife and Elsa were bathing in the hot springs, Liu Ming, who was engraved with the words "Poor Hang" on his forehead, and his girlfriend with a crooked nose, were sitting in a dilapidated van and bumped back to Aurous Hill. In the city.

Sitting in the car, Liu Ming kept covering his bloody forehead for fear of being seen by the van driver.

He stopped the van on the way out of the Champs Elysées. The two sides negotiated the fare to home at a price of 200, so now he just wants to get home as soon as possible, and doesn't want to have trouble.

However, the driver saw the blood on Liu Ming's forehead in the rearview mirror.

He observed for a long time and couldn't help but ask in surprise: "Young man, are you hurt?"

Liu Ming said irritably: "It has nothing to do with you, drive your car well and stop the f*cking nonsense!"

The driver was a little unhappy, and said, "Don't you care about it? Besides, your forehead is always bleeding. Don't stain the interior seats in my car!"

As soon as Liu Ming heard this, he exploded and he blurted out: "dmn poor hanging, you rubbish thing, the new car is worth 40,000 to 50,000, and you are afraid that I will get your car dirty. What a fck!"

Poor hanging has long become Liu Ming's mantra. Even if the word "poor hanging" has been engraved on his forehead, he will not be able to correct his own problems for a while. This is why the ancestors said that the country is easy to change and nature is hard to move!

The driver didn't expect this guy to scold him, and immediately became angry, and he blurted out: "You guys are too uneducated, right? How can you get dirty?"

Liu Ming was annoyed to death. Seeing that he was reluctant, he blurted out: "Grass, you are endlessly poor? Then the f*ck is forced to talk with me, believe it or not, I call someone to kill you. Poor like you, no one can control me when I beat you to death!"

The van driver was also very angry at this time. At this time, he drove through an intersection in the city center. Seeing a traffic police car was leaning on the corner of the intersection on duty, he drove the car directly to the traffic police and stopped, and then immediately pushed the door down. Car: "Comrade traffic police, a customer in my car threatened to kill me. I suspect that he has weapons on his body, which has seriously threatened my personal safety!"

Upon hearing this, several traffic police immediately got out of the car, surrounded the van, and then opened the door, shouting to Liu Ming sitting inside and the plastic face, "Hold your head with your hands and get out of the car!"

Liu Ming realized that he was in trouble.

This is a downtown area!

Let himself hold his head in his hands and get out of the car, isn't it impossible to cover the words "Poor Hanging" on your forehead? !

So, he made up his mind, not going to live or die!

Afterwards, he blurted out to the traffic policeman and said, "What are you doing? I just took a taxi, but did I bother you? Hurry up and ask the driver to come back and drive me home, otherwise I will never finish with him!"

When the traffic police saw his arrogant and domineering appearance, he knew that this person must not be a good stubborn, and seeing his hand covering his forehead, the blood was constantly oozing from it, it was estimated that he had just participated in a weapon fight. Such a person basically has a criminal record. Most of them are still fugitives, so it is time to catch one!

So several traffic policemen winked at each other. One of them took out the chili water used by the traffic police for law enforcement, and said to Liu Ming: "Now I warn you, put your head in your hands and get out of the car for inspection, otherwise, we will treat you according to law. Take coercive measures!"

Liu Ming became annoyed, and he blurted out: "I know the captain of your transportation team. He is a good friend of my dad. If you are not convinced, call and ask if he knows the Liu Group. I am the son Liu Ming!"

The traffic police sneered: "The son of the Liu group? You too dare to brag, you have to take a van when you go out, so you are ashamed to say that you are the son of the Liu group? Does the Liu Group not give their son a car? Is he worth 40,000?!"

Liu Ming hates others for doubting his own strength, and hates others for taunting him. Seeing that a few traffic policemen dare to ridicule him, he immediately blurted out: "Grass, a bunch of poor hanging here and pretending to be something? Believe me or not. Call your team leader?"

Chapter 432

The traffic police said coldly: "Okay, insulting law enforcement officers! You are already blatantly resisting the law! Then don't blame us for being rude!"

After speaking, one immediately took out the chili water and sprayed it against Liu Ming's face.

Liu Ming felt that his eyes were so hot that he was about to sore, and he subconsciously stretched out his hand to rub it. This rubbing didn't matter, the two big bloody characters on his forehead were instantly exposed.

"I'm going..." one of the traffic police sighed, "Look at him, he has a poor hanging on his forehead!"

"What kind of tattoo is this? It's really hardcore!"

"Hahaha, no wonder this kid likes to scold others for being poor, because he has these two words on his forehead!"

When Liu Ming heard this, he hurriedly tried to cover his forehead, but at this moment, his eyes were swollen and painful, and he didn't see a few traffic policemen reaching out!

Immediately afterwards, Liu Ming was dragged out of the car and then pressed to the ground.

The traffic police immediately put his hands behind his back and handcuffed him with hands-on his back. In this way, he would have no way to get to him, let alone cover his forehead with the word "poor hanging".

Afterwards, the traffic police brought him and the plastic face to the side of the road, told them to squat on the side of the road, and then called the team, asked the team to send someone over to take the guy back to investigate.

This is the intersection in the city center with the most traffic!

Almost everyone who has been here can see a young man with red eyes squatting on the side of the road. The most frightening thing is not his eyes sprayed with chili water, but the two huge characters on his forehead: poor hanging.

Many people took out their mobile phones to take pictures. Liu Ming was embarrassed and furious, squatting on the spot and trying to turn around, facing passersby with his buttocks.

However, the traffic police directly pressed him there and said coldly: "Don't move, don't you like to say these two words? It happens to be an exhibition for the citizens here!"

Liu Ming wants to die...

he had known this a long time ago, why to bother to pretend to the driver of the van, if he had to endure a wave, he would be home now.

At this moment, an old BMW car parked on the side of the road, and a young man got out of the car and ran over with some kindness, and asked, "Oh, Mr. Liu, what's the matter with you? Ouch, your forehead. What's going on?! Who carved you a poor hanging on there?"

Liu Ming, who had been desperately bowing his head, suddenly heard someone calling himself Mr. Liu, and he wanted to die. The last thing he wanted at the moment was to be recognized, but he was recognized by others...

At this moment, he wanted to kill someone angrily!

He looked up, the speaker was a little familiar, and couldn't help but ask: "Who the f*ck are you?"

The person hurriedly explained: "I am Harold! Harold of the Willson family, we have eaten together before, and the young master of the White family, Gerald, don't you remember us?"

Liu Ming gritted his teeth and looked at him, suddenly a mouthful of bloody sputum was spit on his face, angrily cursed: "f*ck your mother and make the Willson family hang up, dare to come here to watch me as a joke, believe it or not, you will die?!"

Chapter 433

Harold was also suffocated in his heart.

What the f*ck is this called?

He saw Liu Ming being handcuffed by the traffic police to the side of the road, and wanted to come over to say hello and chat. He didn't expect this guy to come up and curse and spit on his face. This is so f*cking disgusting!

He angrily said: "Mr. Liu, you are too much! I came over to ask the situation out of concern among friends, how can you do this?"

Liu Ming scolded, "You f*cking care? Besides, you poor guy is worthy of being my friend? You are a chicken, you, stinky silk, big poor guy, do you want to be close to me? Get out!"

"I..." Harold was wronged.

But he didn't dare to confront Liu Ming. After all, the ability of the Liu family was countless times stronger than that of the Willson family who was on the verge of bankruptcy. Offending him would definitely not end well.

So, he could only use his sleeves to dry the phlegm on his face, and said angrily: "Mr. Liu, you are so passionate, sorry."

After speaking, he quickly turned into the car and drove away.

At this time, he felt wronged in his heart.

What the h*ll do you think this is...

It's so maddening to pay for life!

Here, Liu Ming is not feeling well.

He was also sighing, what the h*ll is this? he wanted to go home low-key, but he didn't expect to have an exhibition at the intersection of the city center.

Many people took photos of him with their mobile phones, and some even posted them on facebook and Instagram. The good guys even gave him a new nickname, "Aurous Hill No. 1 Poor Hang."

Liu Ming's deeds spread throughout Aurous Hill all at once...

.....

The night at the Champs Elysées hot spring felt very tormenting for Charlie.

Originally, he was going to sleep with his wife Claire directly.

As a result, he didn't know if Elsa was deliberate or unintentional. She insisted on pulling Claire to sleep together, and she also called her girlfriend time.

Therefore, Charlie could only sleep in another room by himself.

The next day, they were going to check out and return to the city after getting up, but the two women were reluctant to partake in the private hot spring here, so they soaked for another morning before they reluctantly checked out with Charlie.

However, after the baptism of the hot springs, both of them looked radiant and extremely beautiful.

When checking out, Issac came in person.

He chased Charlie and Claire to apologize again and again, and warned all Champs Ely's employees on the spot that if there were any more cases of treating customers differently and favoring one another, it would not be tolerated.

The entire Champs Elysian staff finally realized the importance of serving customers well.

Afterwards, Issac took the top of Champs Elys and politely sent Charlie and the others out of the gate.

Issac had originally planned to send Charlie to the parking lot. Charlie gave him a look and said calmly: "We will go directly to the parking lot to pick up the car and return to the city, so you don't have to face things again."

Issac was also very on the road, knowing that Charlie didn't want to let herself always follow, so he hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, go slowly."

Out of the gate, Elsa stretched her waist very enchantingly, and said: "It's really comfortable to take a bath in the hot springs. Claire, if you two are fine, how nice it would be to stay here for a few days and then go back!"

Claire smiled and said, "My company has just opened, and there are so many things. How can I live here for a few days..."

Chapter 434

After that, Claire asked again: "Don't you have to go to work?"

Elsa sticks out her tongue and said: "My job was originally run outside. Moreover, I have never met the chairman of the Emgrand Group since I have been there. He can't control me. I belong to an unsupervised employee. It's okay not to go to work occasionally."

Afterwards, Elsa said again: "But since you have something, I will send you two back first."

When she arrived at the parking lot, Charlie discovered that Orvel was standing next to Elsa's car. The place where the car had been scratched yesterday had also been repaired.

When Orvel saw him coming, he hurriedly greeted him and said respectfully, "Mr. Charlie, are you still having fun?"

"Not bad." Charlie looked at the rear of the car a few times, and when he saw that the repaired one was the same as the new one, he said, "You are good."

Orvel said hurriedly and respectfully: "Mr. Wade, there happens to be an auto repair shop underneath, and workers are asked to come over with tools for the construction. Are you going home? Do you need me to send a few people to escort you back?"

Charlie waved his hand quickly and refused: "You go if you are busy, and we can go back by ourselves."

"That's OK, if Mr. Charlie has something to do, you can find me at any time." Orvel arched his hands, and then left with his men.

Seeing this scene, Claire couldn't help but shook his head and said to Charlie: "I don't know what demon these people are, how can I treat you so respectfully."

Charlie smiled and said, "Can't it be my own ability?"

Claire gave him a blank look and said, "What's the skill of Feng Shui mystery, right? The more they believe in you now, the more they will find that they have been deceived in the future, the more vicious the revenge will be. You'd better be careful."

Charlie smiled and didn't argue.

The three got into the car and drove towards the city.

On the road, Elsa asked as she drove, "Claire, are you two going home or where?"

"Go home." Claire said: "If you go home and take a good rest, you will be resurrected with full blood on Monday!"

Elsa nodded and said: "Then I will send you two home first, and then back to the hotel."

Claire asked in surprise: "Are you still living in hotel?"

Elsa gave a hum and said, "Where else can I live without a hotel? I have always lived in Shangri-La."

Claire asked: "It's very deserted to live in a hotel alone? Why don't you buy a house in Aurous Hill?"

Elsa smiled bitterly: "It's more troublesome to buy a house and live by yourself. It's better to live in a hotel. Every day someone cleans up the room. You can directly call whatever you want to eat. The dining staff will bring you to the room. The clothes will be sent to me after drying and ironing."

For people like Elsa who have a lot of money in her family, she spends money to save herself time and energy.

Claire asked again: "Then what's going on in your family? Has your cousin targeted you lately?"

"Nothing." Elsa said: "I filed a complaint with my family before, but they said that there was insufficient evidence and they could not be sure that everything I said was true, but now my cousin seems to have stopped a lot, and dare not do anything to me. ."

With that, she looked at Charlie in the back row through the rearview mirror in the car, and made a "thank you" gesture.

She knew very well in her heart that it was Charlie who had warned those of the Dong Family who wanted to target her, and they had restrained.

Therefore, Charlie really didn't know how many times he had saved her.

Claire suddenly felt a little distressed for Elsa, a good girlfriend, who came to work in Aurous Hill by herself and could only live in a hotel all the time. She also suffered betrayal and hunted down by her family...

Thinking of this, she said to Elsa: "Elsa, the White family gave Charlie a villa, which is located at Tomson. When the decoration is completed, I will reserve a room for you. You can move in and live with us."

"Really?!" Elsa asked very excitedly.

Claire smiled and said: "Of course it is true! I am your good girlfriend, can I lie to you?"

Chapter 435

Claire and Elsa, two good girlfriends, soon made a reservation about living together in the Tomson Villa.

Both women were very happy, but Charlie was a little depressed.

Claire is really innocent, she doesn't know Elsa has always thought about your husband.

Here she invited her to move to the villa to live with, silly wife, this is to lead a wolf into the room!

However, Charlie couldn't explicitly refuse this kind of thing, and he didn't have a reason to refuse.

Therefore, even if he is unsatisfied, he can only hide it in your stomach.

Elsa was very happy.

Because in this way, she can get along with Charlie day and night, in that case, the possibility of herself and him is much greater.

The car drove downstairs to Claire's house. After Charlie and Claire bid farewell to Elsa, they got out of the car and prepared to go upstairs.

At this moment, an Old Master saw the two get out of the car and hurriedly walked over to meet them.

Charlie saw that it was Tianqi.

When Claire saw Tianqi, she was immediately very excited. He greeted him and said respectfully: "Mr. Shi, why are you here? Last time you saved my father, I haven't had time to thank you."

Tianqi hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Mrs. Wade, you don't have to be polite. Shi did not dare to take credit for what happened last time. I came here this time because I have something to do with Mr. Charlie."

"Then let's go upstairs and talk? There is also a good tea from my father's collection at home. You are here, and he will definitely take it out to entertain you." Claire invited.

Tianqi smiled and declined: "Thank you, I just want to say a few words to Mr. Charlie, so I won't bother Madam Wade and your father."

Seeing that the two were polite, Charlie didn't end there, so he immediately interjected: "Claire, go up first, let me talk to genius doctor Tianqi."

Claire commanded: "Then you have to entertain the genius doctor."

Charlie nodded and agreed, Claire only then went upstairs.

Seeing Claire's departure, Tianqi respectfully bowed to Charlie and said, "Mr. Wade, I am looking for you because I want to report something to you."

Charlie nodded: "Say it."

Tianqi said: "Tomorrow, there will be a traditional medicine expo in Aurous Hill. I heard that there is still a 300-year-old purple ginseng to be auctioned. The whole Chinese medical profession is quite a sensation. I think this magic medicine will not be born for a long time. It's rare, you may be able to use it, so I'll ask you, would you like to have a look tomorrow?"

"Three hundred years old best purple ginseng?"

Charlie couldn't help thinking for a moment.

According to the records in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, purple ginseng is indeed a very rare good thing. The 300-year-old purple ginseng is a rare and precious medicinal material!

If you have this medicinal material, you can refine some more powerful pill, such as the rejuvenating pill that can bring the dead back to life.

Thinking of this, Charlie nodded and promised: "Okay, then go and take a look."

Tianqi hurriedly said: "Then I will arrange the invitation letter and will pick you up tomorrow morning."

"Okay, that's it."

"I will leave now." Tianqi bowed his hands in salute.

Bidding farewell, Charlie nodded, then stepped upstairs.

Chapter 436

Early the next morning, Tianqi came to pick up Charlie and went to the traditional medicine Expo.

What Charlie didn't expect was that the venue of the Expo was also chosen in the Aurous Hill Convention and Exhibition Center.

The last time Junwei Gao came here, Junwei Gao was still very arrogant in front of him, but at this time, Junwei Gao and his old son Jianjun Gao were all turned into ashes, leaving no trace in the world.

The phrase "I don't know where to go, but the peach blossom still smiles in the spring breeze".

Stepping into the convention and exhibition center, Charlie saw at a glance that on the wall of the hall, there were still missing persons notices of Junwei Gao and Jianjun Gao.

The Gao family had increased the bounty to 30 million, but still did not find the whereabouts of the father and son.

However, these efforts are destined to be futile.

When Charlie and Tianqi walked in together, Qin Gang took Aoxue and greeted them together.

The Qin family is in the business of medicinal materials. This kind of traditional medicine expo, they are also the exhibition and sales parties, so they only prepared here early in the morning.

When he saw Charlie, Qin Gang stepped forward with excitement, and said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, you are here!"

Aoxue on the side seemed to be worried, and her face was a little haggard, he didn't know why.

However, seeing Charlie, Aoxue's mood still jumped up, walked to Charlie with a little shame, bowed obediently, smiled lightly, and said softly, "Hello, Mr. Wade."

Charlie nodded slightly and observed at Aoxue for a moment, knowing that she was pretending to be something, but the other party did not say, and he was not easy to ask, so he said to her: "Aoxue, your complexion is not very good, please pay attention to your health."

As soon as Aoxue heard this, her cheeks were blushing, she didn't expect Charlie to care about her for the first time, and she couldn't help making her feel even more happy, nodding her head again and again.

Qin Gang also said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I wonder if you are here for the 300-year-old purple ginseng?"

Charlie nodded and asked, "Any specific news?"

Qin Gang smiled and said: "This 300-year-old super-quality purple ginseng was acquired by accident by a medicinal company near Changbai Mountain in the northeast. It is said that the starting price this time is 5 million. The price alone is not high, but 5 million. A purple ginseng is actually quite high. It is estimated that the final bid will be more than 30 million, and the price/performance ratio is not too high.”

Charlie nodded.

A superb purple ginseng is really of little use to ordinary people or doctors of ordinary traditional medicine.

Whether it is purple ginseng, ganoderma, or cordyceps, these precious Chinese medicinal materials are basically not useful if they are eaten directly. They do have the effect of strengthening the body, but they have no ability to cure all diseases.

Therefore, if good medicinal materials want to exert their maximum effect, one depends on the combination of prescriptions and the other depends on the ability of refining medicine.

The prescription is the most important thing. Use the same ten medicinal materials to make a prescription. Some can cure diseases, and some can kill people. The fundamental reason lies in the different proportions of the ten medicinal materials, just the proportions. Differences can lead to such a big gap, and if there are a few different medicines, it is very different.

As for the ability to refine medicine, it is based on a good prescription to refine good medicinal materials into good medicine.

If the ability is not enough, the medicinal material of 10 points will be refined into 1 point.

If the ability is very strong, 1 point of medicinal materials will finally make 10 points.

If it is strong in all aspects, a medicinal material with 10 points can even make 100 points.

Charlie’s ability is the kind of medicinal materials with 10 points, the kind that can make 100 points of medicine.

In addition, he has a classic recipe that has been lost for a long time, and he can even produce medicines far exceeding 100 points.

Therefore, something like the premium purple ginseng is useful to him, but it really doesn't make much sense to others.

But with his own hands, he can refine a better miraculous medicine, much better than the pill given to everyone last time!

Chapter 437

At this time, Charlie suddenly heard a few familiar voices from behind him.

A man said, "Fredmen, don't worry. As long as we take the 300-year-old purple ginseng this time, all the medicinal materials we need for our new prescription will be available. By then, your disease will definitely be cured. it is good!"

It was Barena Wei from the Wei family who spoke.

That is the one who was forced to lick the urinal a few days ago.

At this time, Fredmen, the native of the Willson family, said: "Oh, I really want to thank Brother Wei in advance. When my illness is cured, I will definitely strengthen the cooperative relationship with the Wei family. Then, my family and I, Will give some resources to help the Wei family, our two strong alliances will last forever!"

Barena Wei was also very excited, and said excitedly: "Then I also want to thank Fredmen in advance, hahahaha."

Charlie turned back and saw that it was Barena Wei and Fredmen who were coming from far and near.

Following the two, there was Wendy.

At this time, Wendy did not have the embarrassment of licking the urinal that day. She held a Hermès limited bag in one hand, and held Barena Wei's arm in the other. She walked with her eyes higher than the top, completely like a lady.

Behind a few people, there was a person who looked somewhat similar to Barena Wei followed. Charlie didn't know this guy. This person was the illegitimate child of Barena Wei's half-brother, Liang Wei, who was always dismissed in the Wei family. .

And just as Charlie saw several people, several people also found Charlie.

Fredmen, Barena Wei, and Wendy, these three people all have blood and deep hatred for Charlie, and they hate him to the bone. When they see him at this time, they are all angry and want to tear him alive.

And when Barena Wei saw him, he was even more angry, as if the urinal smell of disgust came to the extreme.

Wendy couldn't help but retching when thinking about it at the beginning. After so many days, her tongue tastes nothing and feels stinky. All this is thanks to Charlie!

Seeing Charlie, Fredmen, with the strongest background and strength, took the lead to speak. He gritted his teeth and said: "It turns out that it's you stinky silk, let's meet again!"

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said, "Last time you called me father and grandfather, that was so refreshing, but you changed the name in a blink of an eye? My grandson is too unfilial, right?"

Fredmen clenched his fists hatefully when he heard him mention it.

That incident made him lose face and somehow lost his ability to be a man. It was the greatest shame in his life!

But he knew that he couldn't beat Charlie, and he didn't dare to do it. He could only sneer and said: "That is to say that a good man does not suffer from immediate losses, and a big man can bend and stretch. What do you know about this kind of waste? Don't think that you will fight, you are a personal thing! This world It's very dark, so be careful when you walk at night."

Charlie sneered and said: "I think you can only bend now, can't stretch, right? Have you recovered your male prowess during this period of time?"

Chapter 438

Fredmen gritted his teeth angrily when he heard Charlie scold him for being able to bend and not stretch!

"Don't be arrogant!" Fredmen gritted his teeth and cursed, "I will regain my power sooner or later. Don't worry, I will not spare you!"

Tianqi coldly scolded: "Fredmen! I have warned you many times that you must be respectful and polite to Mr. Wade and don't offend. If you target Mr. Wade again, don't blame me for turning my face and denying people!"

When Fredmen saw Tianqi speaking for Charlie, his brain hurt.

His mother has been urging him to repair the relationship with Tianqi as soon as possible and invite Tianqi to go to Eastcliff to attend her 84th birthday party.

However, this Tianqi is really stubborn!

Mixing with Charlie this kind of stinky rag all day long, what exactly is he pictured?

However, Fredmen did not dare to disobey Tianqi in public, and could only say angrily: "Uncle, you must keep your eyes open. There are too many scammers these days, and many elderly people are deceived by those ulterior swindlers in society. Some are just to buy you some fakes, and even follow your a to recognize you as godfather; some just take some fake and shoddy things and sell them to the elderly as a panacea. You are a shrewd man, but don't lose it. Hoof!"

Barena Wei on the side also gave a disdainful smile, and said, "This kind of Rubbish liar, in a small place like Aurous Hill, can only jump for a few days. When he is in a big place, he must not be scared to death? The place this gang has never seen the world before will be deceived by him!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Was the toilet in the Brilliant Clubhouse not big enough last time? Your mouth still smells bad. The toilets in the Convention and Exhibition Center are very powerful. There are only 20 or 30 urinals in the men's toilet. Cool?"

Barena Wei's expression was extremely ugly, but with seven points of dread, he said, "You...don't think that you have fooled Boyu, you can run wild in Aurous Hill!"

Qin Gang had been standing behind. At this moment, when Barena Wei was targeting Charlie, he immediately said with a cold face: "Barena Wei, what kind of thing do you dare to say to Mr. Wade?"

Their Qin family is one of the Wei family's medicinal material suppliers, and they have been in contact before, but he did not expect that Barena Wei would be disrespectful to Charlie!

Barena Wei didn't see him just now. At this time, he glanced at Qin Gang and said with disdain: "Qin Gang, our two families have worked together for more than ten years. Why are you even speaking for this waste?"

Qin Gang snorted and said, "Mr. Wade's ability is not something people like you can know. If you insult Mr. Wade, you insult my Qin family. From now on, our Qin family will cut off all cooperation with your Wei family. All medicinal materials will no longer be supplied to the Wei family!"

Barena Wei's face changed slightly, and they would be in trouble if they lost the Qin family supplier.

But you can't lose face when you lose anything, so he gritted his teeth and said coldly: "Without the supplier of your Qin family, our Wei family is still living and moisturized, but your Qin family has broken off cooperation with us, I am afraid that in the future it's not easy, right?"

Qin Gang's face remained as usual, and he resolutely said: "The Qin family's medicinal materials are well-known throughout the country. Even if you don't cooperate with us, it will not have a big impact on us. It is your Wei family that will suffer. If my Qin family's medicinal materials are gone, I will see your future. How to guarantee the quality of medicines!"

The middle-aged man behind Barena Wei said sorry to Qin Gang at this time: "Don't mind Mr. Steven, my brother was joking just now. Our two companies have been cooperating for so long, so we rashly terminated our cooperation. Neither side is good..."

Before he finished speaking, Barena Wei turned his head, kicked him, and said coldly: "Liang Wei! When do you speak here? What do I want to do with you? Remember you? Your identity, you are a bastard born from a mount, and if you babble with me, you will go back to your Changbai Mountain!"

Chapter 439

Liang Wei was kicked to the ground, covering his stomach with pain, his face flushed.

But he didn't dare to speak any more, just stood up quietly, stood behind Barena Wei again, and said nothing.

Charlie glanced at Liang Wei more.

From his body, Charlie saw a little bit of his previous shadow.

Being despised, or even humiliated by others, but he can only choose to forbear, stay invisible, and quietly wait for a chance to rise.

At this time, Wendy said to Barena Wei: "My dear, you can't be guilty of being angry with a Rubbish and a b@stard. Let's go in."

Barena Wei nodded.

Charlie, this Rubbish, and Liang Wei, a b@stard, were rubbish in his eyes. Even if he suffered a big loss under Charlie's hands, he still didn't think Charlie was a great person.

On the contrary, he was still waiting for an opportunity to retaliate against Charlie to relieve his hatred.

Charlie didn't bother to argue with this group of people. The reason why he came to the Expo was for the 300-year-old purple ginseng.

As for Fredmen and Barena Wei, if they dare to continue to pretend to be forceful, then they have the opportunity to slowly clean up them.

Seeing Fredmen, Barena Wei and others are gone, Tianqi shook his head and sighed: "This Fredmen is really self-inflicted and cannot live!"

Qin Gang said, "Mr. Wade, Mr. Shi, let's go in too, don't let these villains affect our mood."

Charlie said with a smile, "Of course I don't care about a group of clowns."

They walked into the center of the exhibition hall. There are already exhibition counters for various traditional medicine materials, and each of them displays many kinds of medicinal materials.

Qin Gang first invited Charlie to inspect his booth. The Qin family deserves to be a medicinal material dealer with a history of over a hundred years. They have more than a dozen showcases, and various rare medicinal materials filled the counter.

Qin Gang said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, if there are medicinal materials you need in it, just say it and I will bring it out to you."

Charlie nodded and said, "After I get the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng, I may make a new medicine. I will tell you what I need then."

Qin Gang hurriedly said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade has any request, despite the instructions, Qin Gang will do his best to fulfill it for you!"

Charlie looked around at the expo, and found no medicinal materials worthy of his attention, which made him somewhat disappointed.

It seems that most of the medicinal materials can only be regarded as ordinary goods, and there is nothing special about them.

After shopping for a while, it was almost time for the auction, and Charlie went to the auction hall with Qin Gang and Tianqi.

The entire auction hall can accommodate millions of seats and has a large area.

In the front of the auction hall, a transparent booth with four sides of glass was erected. In the center, it is the 300-year-old purple ginseng plant.

After Charlie saw this purple ginseng, he was delighted.

He could perceive that this purple ginseng has a strong medicinal power. According to his eyesight, the purple ginseng is said to be 300 years old, but in fact it is almost 400 years old, and the quality is even better than imagined.

Chapter 440

There are many kinds of ginseng, common ginseng, American ginseng, red ginseng, purple ginseng, and wild ginseng. Among them, purple ginseng is the rarest and the most expensive.

And ginseng itself has a lifespan, and most of them cannot live for a hundred years. Therefore, it is not to say that a ginseng plant has not been picked, it can become a hundred-year-old ginseng or a hundred-year-old ginseng. More than a hundred years will come to an end.

Ginseng that can live more than two to three hundred years is the best ginseng, and ginseng that can live more than five hundred years is almost rare. Some people collect ginseng for a lifetime and have no chance to see it.

As for thousands of years of ginseng, it is even more invaluable. It almost only exists in legends, and it is rare to see anyone take it out.

Therefore, this 300-year-old purple ginseng is extremely precious.

At this time, the auction hall was already overcrowded. Most of the people who came were from all over the country in the world of traditional medicine, allopathic medicine, and medicinal materials. There were also many old Chinese doctors who could be regarded as masters of traditional medicine.

Among them, many people are familiar with Tianqi. After seeing Tianqi coming in, they came forward to congratulate him.

These are to congratulate him on successfully curing high paraplegia and creating a miracle in medical history.

But Tianqi was extremely ashamed.

Everyone thinks that he is responsible for the treatment of high-level paraplegia, but only he himself knows that the credit is entirely Charlie's alone. Mr. Charlie Wade likes to keep a low profile, so he let himself take it for him.

Many people gathered around Tianqi and asked Tianqi how to cure high paraplegia. Tianqi said: "Actually, treating high paraplegia is not my own skill, but a magical medicine I occasionally got has exerted a huge therapeutic effect."

Someone asked: "Old Shi, can you publish the prescription for this magical medicine? If it is published, it will benefit all mankind!"

"That's right!" Someone echoed, saying: "Apply a genius doctor, announce this prescription, you may get the Nobel Prize in medicine!"

Tianqi said embarrassingly: "Let's forget it, it is indeed some inconvenient hidden information."

At this time, a young man in a suit and leather shoes came to Tianqi, bowed slightly, and said in not fluent Chinese: "Hello, doctor Tianqi, my name is Ichiro Kobayashi, and I am the vice chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical."

Tianqi nodded and said, "I know that you Willsonlin Pharmaceutical, I wonder why you are looking for me?"

Ichiro Kobayashi said seriously: "Mr. Shi, our Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is the strongest pharmaceutical company in Asia. There are many popular classic drugs that are developed and produced by our company. With such a strong strength to support, we have the ability to carry forward your prescription for high-level paraplegia and sell it to more than 200 countries around the world. Therefore, I sincerely hope that you can sell this prescription to us!"

When Tianqi heard the other party's words, he couldn't help but frowned and said, "I remember, many of your medicines were not developed by yourself, and those medicines are all our Kampo!"

The so-called Hanfang is actually an ancient prescription of traditional medicine.

Japan and South Korea were deeply influenced by Chinese culture in ancient times. Naturally, their medicine was also taught from this land's traditional medicine. Now the pharmaceutical companies in these two countries are all engaged in Kampo medicines, which, to put it bluntly, is plagiarizing things from the Chinese ancestors.

Because ancient Chinese prescriptions are recorded in some pharmacopeias and there is no clear patent copyright protection, these Japanese and Korean pharmaceutical companies have plagiarized various prescriptions from the traditional Chinese pharmacopeia, and then produced a variety of medicines and sold them all over the world.

It would be fine if they made it clear that these medicines originated from ancient Chinese prescriptions, but they just want to publicize that the prescriptions were developed by themselves.

There are even more shameless people who will describe the traditional medicine as a medicine handed down by the ancestors of their own country, making consumers all over the world think that these medicines are really the historical heritage of Japan and South Korea.

This kind of blatant plagiarism has long made Tianqi and a lot of traditional medicine practitioners indignation!

At this time, Ichiro Kobayashi said with an arrogant expression: "Mr. Shi, I want to correct your mistake. All of our medicines at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, none of them use Kampo, all of which are based on the essence of our Japanese traditional medicine!"

Chapter 441

Hearing Kobayashi Ichiro's open denial, Tianqi said coldly: "I remember that you have three medicines that are marketed globally, namely, a stomach powder, a clear throat powder, and an eczema lotion. The three medicines have one prescription. It comes from Jones Zhongjing's Treatise on Febrile Diseases and Miscellaneous Diseases in the Eastern Han Dynasty of China, a Yellow Emperor's Internal Classic from the Western Han Dynasty, and one from the Compendium of Materia Medica. Am I right?"

Ichiro Kobayashi's expression was a bit ugly, but he insisted on denying it: "Isn't Mr. Shi joking? These ancient Chinese pharmacopeias one or two thousand years ago are basically rubbish without any clinical application and no scientific basis. How can a big company use the backward pharmacopeia one or two thousand years ago? What a joke!"

Hearing that Ichiro Kobayashi publicly insulted the essence of traditional medicine left by his ancestors, other traditional medicine experts in the room scolded him.

Tianqi also said with a righteous look: "It happens that I have been idle for these two days. After the expo, I will personally write three papers, detailing the prescriptions, ins and outs of your three medicines, and detailed records in our ancient pharmacopeia. I sort out all of them, and after the publication, see how you still quibble!"

Kobayashi Ichiro's face suddenly turned black.

He is the vice-chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. This company was founded by his father. He naturally knew the details.

The reason why Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has grown to today's scale is entirely based on the prescriptions recorded in the ancient Chinese Pharmacopoeia.

The Japanese themselves are good at making packaging, so they took ancient Chinese prescriptions and packaged them to a certain extent, and publicized that they had spent a lot of money to research new results. With good curative effects, they immediately opened the market.

However, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical was unwilling to admit that their drug formula had plagiarized the ancient Chinese Pharmacopoeia. For this reason, Tianqi has been very dissatisfied but has never found a chance to protest.

Unexpectedly, he saw Kobayashi Ichiro here today, so he naturally wanted to seek justice for traditional medicine.

Ichiro Kobayashi did not expect Tianqi to accurately state the origin of the prescriptions of his three medicines. For fear that Tianqi would actually publish a paper, he hurriedly said: "Tianqi, thesis or something, is it unnecessary? I just thought. Find you to cooperate with new medicine. If you agree, we will cooperate. If you do not agree, we will not cooperate. Why hurt harmony?"

Tianqi said seriously: "Since you deny that you have plagiarized Hanfang, then I have nothing to do with you, goodbye."

After speaking, Tianqi said again: "By the way, I will definitely write the thesis."

Ichiro Kobayashi gritted his teeth and looked at Tianqi. After a while, he still held back his anger, nodded and said, "Well, since the genius doctor Tianqi is unwilling to cooperate, then I won't force it."

Then, he asked, "I don't need the prescription. Can you sell me a medicine? I'm willing to pay 50 million! My father suffered a car accident the year before and was lying in bed with paraplegia at a high position. I really hope to cure him!"

The price of 50 million frightened Tianqi.

Tianqi glanced at Charlie. After all, this was Charlie's magic medicine. If he was willing to sell one piece to Kobayashi Ichiro for fifty million, then he would be a match for Mr. Wade.

However, Charlie waved his hand quietly at him.

He doesn't care about 50 million, let alone sell the medicine to someone who plagiarizes traditional medicine for 50 million.

Seeing Charlie wave his hand, Tianqi immediately said to Kobayashi Ichiro: "Sorry, Mr. Kobayashi, the medicine has been used up, there will be no more."

Ichiro Kobayashi gritted his teeth, nodded gloomily, and said, "OK genius doctors, I know, I don't want to force everyone to have aspirations, we will have a period later."

Chapter 442

After that, turn around and left.

Charlie said to Tianqi at this time: "This Japanese seems a bit insidious. If he thinks you really have a prescription for high paraplegia, then you must be more careful. After all, once this magical medicine is produced, Can earn huge wealth in the world."

There was a movie before, called I am not a god of medicine. It was about a Chinese leukemia patient. Because he couldn't afford the extremely expensive medicines in the West, he could only go to India to buy imitations.

Through this movie, you can see how black-hearted a large pharmaceutical group is to make money. When a drug is developed, a patient needs to spend at least 20,000 to 30,000 a month to afford it. Isn't this a deadly rhythm?

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical also wanted to get a few special drugs that could be sold at a high price, so they set their sights on Tianqi.

Ichiro Kobayashi felt that if he could treat high paraplegia, it would be equivalent to having a powerful tool for collecting money.

A person with high paraplegia can not get out of bed, walk, or even urinate and defecate voluntarily. This feeling that life is better than death will cause them and their families to be tortured.

If a billionaire has high paraplegia, he will receive 50 million for medicine, and he will take it out willingly.

If a billionaire like Bill Gates had high paraplegia, he would give him 50 billion for a medicine!

As for the poor paraplegics, he doesn't bother to care about their life and death. What does it have to do with him? Want to buy medicine cheaply? impossible!

However, Ichiro Kobayashi did not expect that Tianqi would refuse so simply, which made him feel a little angry.

However, he didn't care, because he had already inquired about before, Tianqi should have the kind of magic medicine to cure high paraplegia.

I just need to find a way to get the magic medicine, and then bring it back to Japan, let the company's pharmacists study the ingredients in the magic medicine, and it should be imitated soon!

Tianqi also knew what Kobayashi Ichiro was thinking. In the face of such a huge benefit, this guy would never give up so easily, and would definitely look for other ways.

So he said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, I will be cautious."

Charlie said earnestly: "It's useless to be cautious. You have to understand the truth that everyone is innocent and guilty."

Tianqi hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, what should I do then? The medicine you gave me later is also carried on my body. If they were snatched away, then..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I will temporarily refine a few pills for you later. You carry them with you. If someone snatches them, give him the pills."

In Charlie's memory. That kind of pill is actually a kind of poison. The patient will get a great recovery in a short time after taking it, but it is only fake. Immediately after that, he would exhaust the last energy of his whole body and die suddenly.

This Kobayashi Ichiro's father doesn't know if he is really paraplegic, but he can set up a set for him. If he really plots against this magical medicine, then he will be out of luck!

Chapter 443

Refining such pills is not difficult. Just some of the more common medicinal materials. Before the auction started immediately before the auction of the ultimate purple ginseng, Charlie found Qin Gang and gave him a dozen medicinal materials. Qin Gang immediately went to help him gather the materials.

Later, Charlie went to the lounge rented by Qin Gang and refined four such pills alone. Since traditional medicines are all ingredients of Chinese herbal medicines, once they are boiled out, no matter what the prescription is for or how different they are, the soup after boiled out is dark brown.

The same goes for pills. This time, the color of this pill was almost the same as the previous magic drug, and Charlie deliberately made the size the same as the previous magic drug, and there was no difference at all. Later, he came to the auction venue, and while everyone was not paying attention, he gave Tianqi the four pills, and then took back half of the magical medicine from Tianqi and took him to keep it.

After doing all this, the auction just entered the stage of bidding for the best purple ginseng. Soon, the host stepped onto the stage and said: "Next, we are going to start bidding for our last finale medicinal material, the 300-year-old purple ginseng! Before we start the bidding, the famous genius doctor Tianqi Shi will come to personally appraise for us this superb purple ginseng!" Before Tianqi came, he promised the organizer that he would appraise this superb purple ginseng on the spot, so he walked to the center and took the superb purple ginseng from the hands of the hostess.

After careful identification, he opened his mouth and said: "Everyone, in Shi's humble opinion, the actual life span of this superb purple ginseng should be around three hundred and fifty years or even higher. It can be said to be the best among the best, please rest assured!" Everyone present exclaimed! They thought it was three hundred years old, but they didn't expect it to be more than three hundred and fifty years old.

This is really amazing! Charlie couldn't help but look at Tianqi with admiration. He didn't expect that he could also see the actual age of this top-quality purple ginseng, and it seemed that he had a strong Chinese medical knowledge. At this time, the host smiled and said: "Mr. Shi studied ancient and modern times and is a well-known Aurous Hill sage. A few days ago, he cured a patient with high paraplegia and created a medical miracle. I think everyone has heard about it, so with Tianqi's appraisal opinion, everyone can rest 10,000 hearts on this superb purple ginseng."

When Tianqi returned to his seat, vicissitudes of voice suddenly came to the mind behind him: "Old Master Shi, high paraplegia is a terminal illness that cannot be cured by Chinese or Western medicine. How did you cure it? Why do I not believe that you can really cure it? Tell me, did the blind cat meet the dead mouse?" Tianqi looked at the place where the sound was made. After he could see who it was, he smiled and said, "Bruce, you are not waiting for the Chinese Medical Clinic. What are you doing here?"

Traditional medicine lord! When they heard this name, the people around couldn't help being shocked. This traditional medicine lord is called a contemporary imperial doctor! he is the representative of the highest level of traditional medicine in China! Bruce laughed at this moment, and said, "I just came to see if you have the ability. The spread is too mysterious, I don't believe it." Tianqi smiled slightly and said,

"It's really just rumored, you don't really need to believe it." Bruce was stunned, did not expect Tianqi to be so humble? He thought he would be more real, but he would deny it directly, which made him suddenly wonder what to say. At this time, the host opened his mouth and said: "Next, we will start bidding for this 300-year-old purple ginseng.

Its starting price is 5 million, and the price increase should not be less than 1 million. Now everyone can show up." The host smiled sweetly, and after speaking, he stood aside. As soon as she finished speaking, she heard Barena Wei in the back row directly shouting: "Ten million." Everyone was speechless, this 300-year-old top-quality purple ginseng had doubled the price in the first bid.

Chapter 444

Barena Wei knew that if the premium purple ginseng was bid all the way, it would probably cost 20 to 30 million, so he simply doubled it and frightened others, so that he might even steal a chicken.

"Eleven million." A middle-aged man in the court also raised a placard and shouted.

Barena Wei glanced at the man with disdain, then raised his placard again: "15 million."

"16 million."

Someone spoke again.

"Twenty-five million." Barena Wei held up his card.

He is helping Fredmen participate in the auction this time, and the bid will also be borne by Fredmen, so he doesn't feel distressed at all.

The price of 25 million made many people have the idea of giving up.

Although the best purple ginseng is good, the effect of one plant is limited. 25 million is already at a very high price.

However, at this moment, someone at the scene suddenly shouted: "I'll pay 30 million!"

Everyone hurriedly looked around, only to find that the bidder turned out to be Charlie sitting next to Tianqi.

Barena Wei and Fredmen did not expect that Charlie would rob them at this time, so the two exchanged glances. Fredmen directly took the sign in Barena Wei's hand, raised it and said, "Forty million!"

Fredmen knows very well that Charlie is very difficult to deal with. Once he consumes him, the price will not be known!

Moreover, this guy couldn't buy it at first glance. He must know that he needed this superb purple ginseng to regain his glory, so he deliberately made trouble with himself and wanted to raise the price to disgust him.

Therefore, he planned to call for 40 million in one step, so that Charlie would not dare to follow!

However, Charlie raised his placard again at this time and said lightly: "50 million!"

In his pocket, there was a check for 100 million from Warnia last time.

Last time he gave this check to his mother-in-law Elaine by mistake, and it almost caused a catastrophe. He was very upset with the check. He was thinking about finding an opportunity to spend it, so he has done it today. Get ready, use this one hundred million check to bid for this superb purple ginseng!

Anyway, besides this one hundred million check, there is money in the card. In his eyes, this check is just a piece of waste paper that he doesn't know how to deal with. It finally came in handy today.

Hearing Charlie's call for fifty million, Fredmen died of anger.

He gritted his teeth and said to Barena Wei: "This horrible waste, deliberately wants to go against me! Fifty million, it's weird he can get it!"

Barena Wei also nodded and cursed, "This kid is really bad sh!t soup, this super-quality purple ginseng is actually about 20 million, and 50 million to buy it is really a waste. It can be said to be a fool! "

Fredmen gritted his teeth and said: "d*mn, I'll call him around to see, I can't wait for this problem with my body!"

After speaking, he held up the sign and shouted in a cold voice: "I will pay 60 million!"

Did he think, Charlie still dare to call 60 million?

Unexpectedly, Charlie directly raised his placard: "I will give out 80 million!"

Fredmen suddenly exploded and stood up and asked loudly, "What do you mean by that? What the h*ll is he? It's 80 million, can you afford that much money?"

Charlie said with a smile: "My dear grandson, don't worry, grandpa can afford it!"

Chapter 445

Many people at the scene knew that Fredmen had knelt down before calling Charlie's father and Charlie's grandfather, so when they heard this, they suddenly laughed.

Fredmen couldn't hold on to his face, gritted his teeth, and said, "Okay! You have a seed! I will give out 90 million!"

Barena Wei pulled his sleeves beside him and said, "Fredmen, ninety million is too expensive. This thing is not worth so much. Don't be impulsive and fall for that b@stard!"

90 million to buy a ginseng? Except for thousands of years of super-premium products, no ginseng is worth so much money!

Although Fredmen is rich, he is not a lavish person. Sleeping Wendy only spent 15 million and asked him to spend 90 million to buy ginseng, which is really a bit superior.

However, what he was thinking at this time was that he had to heal himself!

After so many days, he hasn't felt there, it's almost like nothing. If this continues, he will lose hope in life...

So, he made up his mind in his heart and gave out 90 million, no more!

At this moment, Charlie faintly held up the sign and said: "I will give one hundred million!"

Fredmen immediately shivered with anger, and cursed, "What do you want to do with this rubbish? It is probably a good thing that disturbs me?"

Charlie smiled faintly and said: "I have taken a fancy to this purple ginseng. Of course, I have to bid for it. What's the matter? What if you, Chairman Willson, can't be snatched from you?"

Fredmen cursed: "Do you think I don't know your details? You are just a live-in son-in-law. You don't have 100 million in the entire Willson family! How can you get so much money? Come?"

After that, Fredmen turned his head to look at the host, and said: "I suggest you drive this guy out, this guy is cheating! He can't have that much money at all!"

Tianqi frowned and said, "All the expenses of Mr. Charlie today can be counted under my name."

Qin Gang also said quickly: "My Qin family's funds are also available for use by Mr. Wade at will!"

When the two of them said these words, the scene was shocked!

What is Charlie's background? Tianqi, the genius doctor and Qin Family Patriarch Qin Gang, are willing to pay for him. This is a hundred million!

At this time, Charlie smiled faintly, and said: "It's just a hundred million, I can still afford it. That's right, I have a hundred million in my pocket. It's been a d*mn half a month, and it's almost annoying. I'm dead, just take this opportunity to spend it."

Fredmen said contemptuously: "What are you bragging about? Do you treat everyone as a three-year-old kid? And you have 100 million in your pocket, do you know how much a billion is? A billion in cash weighs more than a ton! Can you? Put it in your pocket?!"

Charlie curled his lips and said with a smile: "You really are a stinky silk that has never seen the world."

With that said, Charlie took out the 100 million check that Warnia gave him from his pocket. The check had been crumpled in his pocket for many days, and it looked like a pile of waste paper.

Charlie raised the check and said to the host: "Beauty, let your financial staff come over and check it."

Fredmen sneered and said, "stupid, just take a wad of waste paper and say it is one hundred million? Then I will use several hundred million to wipe one butt!"

Charlie ignored him, holding the check indifferently.

At this moment, the host brought the financial staff, and Charlie handed over the check. The other party checked it for a while and immediately said: "This check has a face value of 100 million, which is true."

After speaking, everyone present suddenly exploded!

A one-hundred-million cheque, just as waste paper in his pocket?

What the h*ll should he do if he loses it?

What if it accidentally slips out of pocket while squatting in the toilet?

Chapter 446

What if I accidentally put the clothes together and throw them into the washing machine and wash them into pulp?

What a big heart! Big scary!

Fredmen Willson's angry face was twitching faintly at this time. He didn't even understand why this waste could have so much money? Isn't he just a son-in-law?

Charlie asked the hostess at this time: "Since no one is robbing me, I can also get 100 million. This super-quality purple ginseng should belong to me, right?"

The host hurriedly said: "Now I announce that this 300-year-old purple ginseng is back..."

Before he finished speaking, Fredmen Willson hurriedly said: "Don't worry! I have to increase the fare!"

The scene was shocked again!

The auction starts at 5 million, and all the auctions have reached 100 million. Do you need to increase the price? !

This purple ginseng is not worth so much money at all! Are these two crazy?

Barena Wei hurriedly reminded: "Oh, Willson Dong, a billion Dollar is a big loss. With this money, what's wrong with it?"

Fredmen Willson asked: "If you can't get it, what about your new medicine? What about my illness?"

Just as he was talking, a middle-aged man with a little bald head rushed over and said to Barena Wei, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wei. The laboratory was waiting for the results just now, so I came late."

The person who spoke was the chief pharmacist of Wei's Pharmaceuticals. He had just arrived from the pharmaceutical factory to help Barena Wei check the purple ginseng.

Barena Wei hurriedly said: "Professor Ke, you just came here, do you think the superb purple ginseng in the host's hand is worth 100 million?"

"One hundred million?" Professor Ke shook his head and smiled: "It's not worth it. For three hundred years of purple ginseng, the highest market price is only thirty million. It can't be higher. One hundred million will only be bought by fools... .."

"What about Willson Dong's disease?" Barena Wei asked.

Professor Ke said with a confident expression, "In fact, it doesn't have to be 300-year-old purple ginseng. We only need to find a few 100-year-old purple ginseng to purify and replace it. 100-year-old purple ginseng on the market The value of one plant is only about one million, and five is worth five million. The price/performance ratio far exceeds that of 300 years."

At this time, the host asked Fredmen Willson: "Willson Dong, how much do you want to add? Please tell me the specific amount directly, otherwise it will be difficult for us to continue."

After hearing what Professor Ke said, Fredmen Willson felt confident in his heart. He felt that he could not be taken advantage of, so he should give this opportunity to Charlie and let him hurt him.

So he immediately shook his head and said: "I decided not to add it. It is simply mental retardation to spend 100 million to buy this kind of thing. Only people with poor brains can do this kind of thing."

There was a boo in the scene.

If you have no money, you can say you have no money. If you are reluctant, you can say that you don't want to. If someone else is mentally retarded, what kind of sour spirit is this?

Fredmen Willson was booed by so many people, and his heart was a little irritable, but he didn't dare to have an attack, so he had to bite the bullet and endure it.

No one would have trouble with money, and he didn't think it was worth spending tens of millions to buy face.

The host then said: "One hundred million once."

"One hundred million twice."

"One hundred million three times, congratulations to Mr. Charlie, the transaction."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, looked at Fredmen Willson, and said with a smile: "Send you a friendly reminder that you can't cure Yang Wei's disease with any medicine, so I advise you not to waste your efforts!"

Chapter 447

Everyone looked at Fredmen Willson together.

Fredmen Willson was ashamed and annoyed, and cursed: "You are Yang Wei, and your whole family is Yang Wei. I tell you, I am very good!"

Charlie smiled faintly: "Who can't use it, who knows in his heart that the hard place is not hard, what's the use of bare mouth?"

Everyone laughed at Fredmen Willson.

Could it be that this well-known Chairman Willson has really lost his male power?

It seems to be the same, otherwise, why does he have to bid for a premium purple ginseng? And also mixed with Barena Wei of the Wei family.

Those who are here today are all people from the TCM field. Everyone knows that the Wei family is studying a new drug that can strengthen male virility and greatly restore male abilities. It seems that Fredmen Willson and Barena Wei are mixed together, and they want to be the first drug test. People?

Fredmen Willson gritted his teeth angrily, and blurted out: "You named Wade, don't spit people here! Mr. is very capable!"

"My own concubine has given away his hands, and he said he has strong ability? If he is really capable, do he need to give it away?"

Fredmen Willson blushed, and said annoyedly: "You...what are you talking about?!"

Wendy also questioned angrily: "Charlie, why are you ruining people's innocence for no reason!"

Charlie sneered when they saw the two of them looking anxious and depraved. He was too lazy to quarrel with them. He took the best purple ginseng directly from the host, and said to Shi Tianqi and Qin Gang: "Okay, there is nothing I'm interested in here. Let's go. ."

After speaking, Charlie got up and walked out.

Shi Tianqi and Qin Gang hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, we will send you off!"

"No need." Charlie waved his hand and said, "I can go by myself. You can stay and socialize with everyone."

As he said, he glanced not far away and kept staring at Shi Tianqi's Kobayashi Ichiro in secret, and reminded Shi Tianqi, "Old Shi, after today, if someone steals the medicine from you or steals the medicine from you, you Don't resist, just give it to him if he wants, understand?"

Shi Tianqi nodded immediately and smiled: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, Shi understands!"

Qin Aoxue's eyes were always on him. Seeing that he was about to leave, she was a little anxious. He hesitated and asked in a low voice, "Mr. Wade, can I send you off?"

When Qin Aoxue first came, Charlie saw that she had something on her mind, and that she had something to say to herself. Seeing that she finally had the courage to say it, he nodded and said: "Okay, you send me. "

Qin Aoxue looked at Charlie gratefully, and said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, please!"

Qin Aoxue respectfully accompanied Charlie to the door.

Charlie looked at Qin Aoxue who was hesitant to speak, and asked, "Aoxue, honestly, do you have something on your mind?"

Qin Aoxue bit her lower lip and said with some embarrassment: "Mr. Wade, you can see it all..."

Chapter 448

"You are almost writing on your face, can I see it?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "If you encounter any difficulties, you are welcome, just tell me."

Qin Aoxue subconsciously touched her face, feeling her cheeks hot.

Although she was originally a valiant, cheerful and generous woman, she was always shy in front of Charlie.

So she calmed her mind, and then said seriously: "Mr. Wade, I do have something, and I want to ask you for help."

Charlie nodded and said, "Just tell me."

Qin Aoxue said: "Mr. Wade, I have a good friend in college. She used to have a very lively, sunny, and positive personality. But I feel that she has been brainwashed by her boyfriend recently. Doing a lot of extreme things, once when she was scolded by her boyfriend and wanted to jump off the building, I was persuaded. Later, her boyfriend was brainwashed and prepared to swallow sleeping pills to commit suicide. I told the teacher to rescue her... .."

Speaking of this, Qin Aoxue said sadly: "But my best friend has been completely brainwashed now. Not only does she not thank me for saving her, but instead feels that I broke her relationship with her boyfriend and quarreled with me several times. , I even cut off contact with me. I think her condition seems to be wrong these days, so I want to persuade her, but she directly scolded me. I'm really afraid that something will happen to her if she goes on like this... .."

Charlie asked in surprise: "Brainwashing? Was it MLM by her boyfriend?"

Qin Aoxue shook her head and explained: "It's not a pyramid scheme. I collected some information and found that it seems to be a very popular means of chasing girls, conquering girls, and controlling girls!"

Speaking of this, Qin Aoxue said indignantly: "These scumbags seem to pursue girls and fall in love with them, but in fact, they are able to control the girls to be their cows and horses, and even die for them. For pleasure, but many girls are very innocent, sinking into it step by step, and eventually suffer serious injuries and even lose their lives. These scumbags are simply a bunch of unforgivable bastards!"

Charlie frowned and said, "There is still such a bastard?"

"Yes!" Qin Aoxue said: "Before my girlfriend was in trouble, I didn't expect that there would be such a person, but after I carefully understood it, I discovered that there are not a few scumbags like this, and they take pleasure in playing with women. , No conscience at all!"

Charlie said coldly: "Each of them is given their lives by great women, but they still take pleasure in playing with women. Such scum is simply the dregs of society!"

Qin Aoxue said indignantly: "This fellow scumbag is not a day or two. Last year, a girl in our school was pregnant and jumped out of the building. It is said that he instigated him; another girl was repeatedly insulted by him because he didn't give it to him for the first time. Feeling very dirty, I left a suicide note saying that I wanted to wash my own filth. He committed suicide by jumping into the river. It is said that there are also four or five girls who were forced to drop out of school because of his mental disorder. Two of them died..."

Charlie frowned. He had never thought that there would be such a scumbag, so he immediately said firmly: "In this case, I'll take care of this! You take a moment and take me to see you. You girlfriend!"

Qin Aoxue burst into tears with excitement, grabbed Charlie's hand, and said, "Mr. Wade, if you are willing to make a move, then my girlfriend must be saved!"

Charlie said, "As long as this kind of thing comes from constant psychological hints at work, I'm not sure if I can relieve the other party's psychological hints to your girlfriends, but I can give it a try."

Qin Aoxue nodded repeatedly: "I believe you can do it!" The

After all, Qin Aoxue said: "Why don't you come to my school at night, I will take you to find my girlfriend."

"Okay." Charlie said, "If I can, I would like to see the scumbag who plays with your girlfriends. Is he from your school too?"

"Yes!" Qin Aoxue said: "He is the school grass of our school. He has a great reputation in the school. He is handsome, rich in family, and can coax girls, so many girls like him, and because of this, He can keep spoiling the little girl."

Charlie sneered and said: "Okay, a scumbag who likes to give people psychological hints, I would like to meet him for a while, and let him have a taste by the way, what is meant by treating his body by his own way! "

Chapter 449

Charlie made an appointment with Qin Aoxue, and met at the Aurous Hill School of Finance and Economics where she was studying in the evening, and then returned home with the 300-year-old purple ginseng.

On the way, Charlie called Hong Wu and Issac Craven respectively, telling them that someone was worried about Shi Tianqi's medicine, so they asked them to send someone to protect Shi Tianqi secretly while staring at Kobayashi Ichiro secretly.

Issac Craven had been in Aurous Hill for many years and had a great influence, so Charlie asked him to set up a secret sentry directly at the airport and stared at Ichiro Kobayashi, not allowing him to leave Aurous Hill casually.

He knew that Kobayashi Pharmaceutical must be planning to take away the magic medicine from Shi Tianqi and return to Japan to study its ingredients.

Therefore, he was going to dig a big hole for Kobayashi Ichiro.

At this time, Ichiro Kobayashi didn't know that Charlie had already woven an invisible big net, which firmly covered him inside.

In the evening, Charlie came to Aurous Hill College of Finance and Economics as scheduled, and Qin Aoxue was already waiting for him outside the school gate.

Seeing him coming, Qin Aoxue hurriedly stepped forward and said anxiously: "Mr. Wade! My bestie seems to be jumping off the building, please come with me and have a look!"

Charlie hurriedly asked: "What's the situation?"

Qin Aoxue said: "After having dinner in the cafeteria, I watched her secretly. The scumbag scolded her again, slapped her and left. My best friend was crying and wandering by the artificial lake. After a long time, I'm afraid she can't think about it, and a few classmates are staring at her secretly!"

Charlie nodded and said, "It shouldn't be too late. Take me there quickly."

Before coming, Charlie used his mobile phone to check what Qin Aoxue said. It is called the art of hitting up in the scumbag circle, and it has now developed to the point where it is a little deformed and abnormal.

This group of people takes pleasure in playing with and hurting women, and is immersed in it and enjoys it.

Many girls are confused by them, and it is easy to do things that hurt themselves, and some even sacrifice their lives.

So Charlie was also very anxious to get angry, just thinking about seeing that girl first to see what was going on with her.

Aurous Hill University of Finance and Economics is very famous and is ranked among the top three universities of finance and economics in the country. The school covers a large area with beautiful scenery, and there is a very large artificial lake inside.

Qin Aoxue brought Charlie to the artificial lake. A girl hiding in the dark rushed over and said to Qin Aoxue: "Aoxue, you can come back. Liuyue has been wandering by the lake for a long time. I'm really afraid of her. Jump in impulsively!"

Qin Aoxue hurriedly asked, "Where is she now?"

The girl pointed to a dark shadow near the artificial lake and said, "It's there!"

As soon as Charlie looked over, he saw that the dark shadow suddenly jumped and jumped into the lake with a thud.

Several girls screamed in fright, Charlie rushed over without saying a word, plunged into the lake, and picked up the girl who was about to sink.

The girl was begging for death, and suddenly felt that she was picked up by someone and pushed to the surface of the water. She cried and shouted: "Don't save me, let me die, I am not pure, I am not clean, I am sorry Wu Qi, I am sorry for his love for me..."

Chapter 450

Charlie dragged her to the shore while screaming coldly: "Parents whose bodies are affected by hair and skin, are you worthy of your parents for hurting your body for a scumbag?!"

The girl wailed: "Please let me die. A dirty girl like me has no face to see my parents. It is their shame that I am alive. Only by dying can I get them free."

Charlie dragged her to the shore with ease, threw her on the grass on the shore, pointed her nose and said furiously: "d*mn! You live not only for yourself, but also for your parents. They worked so hard. You nurture adults, let you grow up, and provide you with education. You don't make you jump into the lake to commit suicide for a scumbag! They let you grow up, become a pillar of talent, contribute to the country and society!"

Several girls also cried around at this time, and persuaded: "Liu Yue, why are you so stupid! Do you think it is worth hurting yourself for that scumbag?"

The girl called Liuyue broke down and cried and kept saying: "I'm so dirty, I'm sorry, if I don't die, he will be tortured too, I don't want him to be tortured, I want him to be happy... .."

Charlie couldn't help but frown.

It seems that this girl named Liu Yue has been brainwashed by the other party quite seriously!

So he immediately said to the other girls: "You go to one side first, and I will have a private chat with her."

The other girls were a little hesitant, Qin Aoxue looked at him with big eyes full of admiration, and said to the classmates around him: "Let's go to the side and let Brother Wade persuade her."

Seeing that Qin Aoxue had said so, the others nodded, and a few of them retreated far away.

That Liu Yue was sitting wet on the muddy ground on the shore at this moment, muttering: "Let me die, a filthy woman like me doesn't deserve to live, I want to use death to prove that my feelings for him are true. Yes, I want to prove with death that I really love him..."

Charlie could see that Liu Yue's thinking at this time was chaotic.

Someone must have repeatedly instilled this kind of psychological suggestion that she is dirty and that she should die. Over time, she herself will firmly believe that she is dirty and deserves to die.

This kind of psychological suggestion needs at least half a year to deepen, ferment, and breed continuously.

In other words, that scumbag had brainwashed her for at least half a year in order to let her die!

So Charlie immediately thought that there is also a powerful psychological hypnosis technique in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, so he gathered some spiritual energy in his body into his fingertips, lightly nodded Liu Yue's forehead, and said, "Liu Yue, look Follow me."

Liu Yue immediately looked up at him as if being cursed.

Charlie asked, "Tell me, what is going on?"

Liu Yue said dumbly: "I talked to a boyfriend when I was a freshman, and gave him his body on impulse. Then I met Wu Qi. He has been pursuing me. I also like him very much, but he knows me. After the first time, I was very disgusted with me. Every time I had a relationship with me, I would beat me, scold me, call me dirty, say I am sorry for him..."

Charlie nodded, and said in a supremely majestic tone: "Liu Yue, what I will say next, you have to keep in your mind for a lifetime, until you die in the future, you can't forget it, you can do it?"

Liu Yue had been hypnotized by Charlie at this time. Charlie's hypnotism is assisted by spiritual energy, and the hypnosis intensity far exceeds the psychological hint that the scumbag gave her, so she hurriedly nodded respectfully and said: "You can give me your orders, Liu Yue I must go all out!"

Charlie said word by word: "Remember, you just did what most couples in the world would do. This is your own choice. It has nothing to do with filth, and your life is the most precious in the world. Not only belongs to you, but also belongs to your parents, and everyone who truly loves you, who truly loves you, will never persuade you to give up your life, so you must cherish your life in the future, stay away from scumbags, and be filial to your parents, Contribute to society, understand?!"

Chapter 451

If the psychological suggestion of the s*umbag is a stream, then Charlie's hypnosis is the whole sea!

In an instant, he completely defeated the psychological hint that the s*umbag gave to Yuesheng.

But at this moment, in Yuesheng's heart, Charlie's words already stood there like a beacon of life, and they would never disappear in her entire life.

Suddenly she had an epiphany at this time, and realized how stupid she was before.

Thinking that she was almost bewitched by a s*umbag to commit suicide, she was so frightened, she immediately knelt on the ground, bowed her head to Charlie, and said, "Thank you for saving me. I will live well in the future, and will never disappoint my parents and society for their cultivation!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said, "Since you can wake up to your senses, then I wish you a happy and fulfilling life in the future."

With that said, Charlie thought of the s*umbag and asked, "Can you tell me about your boyfriend?"

Yuesheng said bitterly: "From now on, he is not my boyfriend, this kind of person will only make me feel sick!"

After that, she respectfully said to Charlie: "The s*umbag is called Wu Qi, and he is the school grass of our Aurous Hill School of Finance and Economics. He is not a local, but it is said that his family is very good. I was also deceived by lard at the time. I always think he is the perfect object. I didn't expect him to be such a despicable villain."

Charlie nodded and said, "I heard he killed many girls?"

Yuesheng nodded repeatedly: "I don't know how many girls he has played with. I'm just one of them..."

Charlie gave a hum, and said, "In this way, call him and say that before dying, there is a gift you want to give him, so that he can come here now."

Yuesheng asked hurriedly, "What if he doesn't want to come over?"

Charlie said: "If he doesn't want to come, then you tell him, you have to break up with him, and from now on, the well water will not be offended by the river. This kind of rubbish wants to force you to commit suicide and regard your suicide as your greatest achievement. If he hears that you are going to break up with him, it must be a great blow to him."

Such s*umbags take pleasure in being able to control women, but if women get out of control, it will be a huge pain and shock to them.

They regard this kind of thing as a war. There is only one victor in the war. If the victor is not themselves, the label of the loser will be put on their heads.

For these people, failure is beyond their tolerance!

.....

At this moment, in a bar near Aurous Hill University of Finance and Economics, Wu Qi was sitting opposite a beautiful girl, and said with a smile: "Beauty, God is really unfair to me. I come here alone every day. Drinking two drinks at the bar, I saw you for the first time today, and it instantly made me feel that I had lived for nothing in the past twenty years."

The girl smiled a little embarrassedly: "You are pretty good, do you talk to girls less often?"

Wu Qi shook his head repeatedly, and said solemnly: "I am actually quite shy and don't dare to talk to girls, but the feeling you give me is so special. I hesitated and struggled for a long time by myself before finally deciding to come over and say hello to you."

With that said, Wu Qi deliberately exposed the Vacheron Constantin watch on his wrist.

This watch, worth more than seven million, is an extremely rare limited edition.

But to Wu Qi, this kind of watch is nothing at all. There are several more expensive watches in his family, each worth tens of millions.

The girl recognized this piece of Vacheron Constantin at a glance, was surprised for a moment, and hurriedly pretended not to see it, and said with a grin: "Since we are so destined, why not drink two glasses together?"

Wu Qi smiled slightly and said, "I will invite you tonight."

After speaking, he immediately beckoned and said to the waiter: "Here, the two best ace of spades champagne."

Ace of spades sells for more than 20,000 in the bar, which can be said to be the most expensive champagne.

Chapter 452

Seeing that he was so generous, the girl's defense had almost completely collapsed, she just waited to learn more about Wu Qi, and then went further.

At this time, Wu Qi's cell phone rang suddenly. He looked down and found that it was Yuesheng's call, and he couldn't help but frown.

Why isn't this woman going to die? What annoying!

Seeing him with a weird expression, the girl asked curiously: "It's not your girlfriend's phone call, right?"

"No, it's not." Wu Qi hurriedly explained: "Ex-girlfriend, she cheated, but she has been pestering me."

After speaking, he sighed and said: "Hey beauty waits for me, I will be back when I answer the phone."

"It is Okay."

Wu Qi took his cell phone and went out of the bar. Then he got on the phone. As soon as he opened his mouth, he cursed: "Why are you filthy girl calling me? Isn't the insult and humiliation you brought me enough?!"

Yuesheng was turning on the speaker at this time, and Charlie felt annoyed when he heard this.

This b@stard is really giving his own psychological hints all the time! Just want Yuesheng to feel dirty, want her to give up her life!

However, he did not expect that Yuesheng was actually completely free from his psychological hints at this time.

But Yuesheng still obediently followed Charlie's instructions and said: "Wu Qi, I am ready to die. Only if I die can you be free from the humiliation..."

Wu Qi said impatiently: "Then you go quickly, don't f*cking hurt me again!"

Charlie typed a string of words with his mobile phone and handed it to Yuesheng.

Yuesheng read the words on Charlie's phone and said, "Then can you come to meet me by the artificial lake of the school? Before I leave, I still have gifts to give you..."

Wu Qi immediately said: "No! I don't want to see you again, seeing you will make me feel sick! It makes me nauseous, makes me want to vomit, makes me want to draw my own face, and asks how I fall in love with some Dirty woman like you!"

Yuesheng said, Charlie sent another string of words at this time.

She read as she read: "Since you don't want to come, let's break up. From now on you will take your Road and I will cross my single-plank bridge. If we meet at school, I hope you can pretend not to know me. Thank you."

Wu Qi was stunned.

what's the situation? !

Hasn't Yuesheng been brainwashed by him? !

How could she suddenly wake up? Why is she so calm about breaking up with him?

d*mn it, isn't this slap in the face? ! Haven't all his previous efforts been abandoned?

So he hurriedly begged: "Yuesheng, how could you be so cruel and hurt me, and then leave me, are you really going to break my heart?"

Yuesheng looked at Charlie's cell phone and read the lines Charlie wrote to her, and said, "Don't you hurt my heart? I'm ready to die. My only wish is to see you again before I die. On the one hand, if I give you a gift, why can't you promise me? If you don't promise me, then I can only break up with you!"

When Wu Qi heard this, he blurted out immediately: "Don't! Don't break up with me! You want to see me, right? I'll see you now! On the artificial lake, right?"

Yuesheng gave a hum, and said, "Yes!"

Chapter 453

Seeing that Yuesheng might want to get rid of his own control, Wu Qi was extremely nervous, ignoring that there was still a beautiful prey waiting for him in the bar, and hurried back to school.

As soon as he entered the school, Wu Qi hurried to the artificial lake, and finally saw Yuesheng on the edge of the artificial lake.

He hurried to Yuesheng and asked: "Yuesheng, what gift do you want to give me?"

Charlie suddenly stood up at this time and smiled: "She has no gifts for you, but I do!"

"Who are you?" Wu Qi frowned and looked at Yuesheng, and asked: "This person is your relative?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I am not her relative."

Wu Qi asked: "Then who are you?"

Charlie said lightly: "I am the one who walks for the sky!"

After speaking, Charlie patted Yuesheng on the back and said: "Yuesheng, you go to Aoxue and the others, first go back to the dormitory and change to dry clothes. This has nothing to do with you."

Yuesheng nodded gratefully, because of what happened just now, she had 10,000 trust in Charlie, bowed respectfully, and walked to find Aoxue and the others not far away.

Aoxue and a few classmates saw that she had given up committing suicide and immediately held her and wept with joy.

Yuesheng was also grateful to the fellows for their concern.

Later, a few classmates sent her back to the bedroom.

Wu Qi looked at it from a distance, feeling that Yuesheng's current state seemed strange, could it be that she had got rid of his own psychological hints? !

He was very angry, frowned and looked at Charlie in front of him, and said coldly: "You asked Yuesheng to call me and lie to me? What do you mean?"

Charlie sneered and asked, "What do I mean? I just wanted to ask you, did your parents give birth to you and let you poison women? You are such a sc*m, do your parents know?"

Wu Qi's expression also became gloomy. He had realized that he might be exposed, so he cursed: "Whatever, I play with women and it's my ability. What's the matter with you? What are you? Want to take care of me too? Do you know who I am? Do you believe it or not?"

Charlie smiled and said, "What? You have a big background?"

Wu Qi was full of arrogance and said, "Have you heard of the Wu family? If you haven't heard of it, you can go to inquire about it. Our Wu family is the top family in Aurous Hill!"

"Oh." Charlie said with a smile: "The Aurous Hill top family, so amazing, are the men from your Aurous Hill top family like you? Are innocent women like you?"

Wu Qi sneered: "I like it, are you dissatisfied? I just like to see these women being manipulated by me, just like watching them self-harm and commit suicide for me. Can you control it? Also, can I control it? "

Charlie said coldly: "Do you think your family is very powerful, so you have someone to support you? Besides. How did I hear that the real big families are in the north, especially Eastcliff, that's everyone. In places where ethnic groups gather, these families outside are somewhat unable to get up to the table."

Wu Qi said contemptuously: "Although our Wu family is not comparable to the top big families in Eastcliff, we are still one of the best in the Aurous Hill area. Even the Song family in Aurous Hill is not as strong as ours, so you still weigh in. You provoke me, can you hold it?"

Charlie nodded and exaggeratedly said, "Suhang Wu Family, right? That's amazing, I'm so scared!"

Wu Qi sneered: "Get out of the way if you're afraid, don't be nosy, otherwise, I can kill your whole family by just calling!"

Charlie smiled and said, "I'm afraid to return, but I have a problem. The more afraid, the more I have to try!"

After speaking, Charlie observed at him murderously, saying every word: "Do you know who I am?"

"You're the d*mn who cares about you!" Wu Qi gritted his teeth and said, "If you provoke me, even if you're the king of heaven, you have to pay the price!"

Chapter 454

Charlie rounded his arm, slapped it, and directly caused Wu Qi to stagger and fall to the ground.

Wu Qi hasn't been touched with a finger in his entire life, and has been held in the hands. How could he have received such a slap, he immediately got up and roared: "I f*cking kill you!"

"Kill me?" Charlie said coldly: "Bast@rd, you listen to me, my grandfather's surname is Wade, my name is Charlie! Wade family master of Eastcliff, chairman of the Emgrand Group! You are now weighing and weighing, you A filthy Wu family is also worthy of being arrogant in front of me?!"

Wu Qi was struck by lightning immediately!

Wade Family? !

This is the top family in the country!

Although the Wu family is better than the Song family, it is not even one-tenth less than the Wade family.

Although he had also doubted whether Charlie was bluffing himself, but after another thought, this person was not afraid of hearing his own report, and he dared to slap himself. It seemed that he must be full of confidence!

This also means that what he said is 80% true!

At this moment, Wu Qi suddenly became nervous!

He thought he could dominate in Aurous Hill and even the whole Aurous Hill, but he didn't expect that the young master of Wade family would appear in Aurous Hill, and would appear in front of him and make trouble for himself.

After all, he is a high-achieving student and a young master from a large family who has been trained by nobles since childhood. His IQ, EQ, and methods of doing things are by no means comparable to those of Harold's generation. He immediately realized that he might be in trouble, and might even bring the whole family face trouble.

So he knelt on the ground very acquainted with the current affairs, and begged: "Mr. Wade, I have offended you because of my blindness. Please also remember that you are not a villain!"

Charlie was very surprised at the speed of his transformation.

It seems that this guy is indeed very smart!

No wonder he can constantly control and hurt girls with psychological hints. This kind of person has too good brains. Most people can't beat him with IQ. In the end, they can only be at his mercy.

However, Charlie was not merciful to him.

He sneered and said: "You guy, you can really bend and stretch, but you really think that if you kneel down and beg me, I will let you go?!"

Wu Qi trembled and said, "Mr. Wade, I know I was wrong. I will definitely correct my evil in the future. At the same time, I am willing to spend 100 million to compensate Yuesheng! I hope you can forgive me!"

Charlie smiled and said, "You, you don't understand Charlie's behavior too much. If you are in my hands today, it can't be solved by money!"

Wu Qi hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade, how do you want to solve it?!"

Charlie grinned and said, "I want to treat you in my own way!"

Wu Qi was a little surprised.

What do you mean? Do you want to give me psychological hints too?

how is this possible?

He a good hand at psychological suggestion. Psychology is the elective course in college. How could Charlie brainwash me?

Seeing him with a surprised look, Charlie smiled and said, "Don't you like to give girls psychological hints? I'm going to add a psychological hint to you so that you have to eat sh!t every hour. Don't eat until you don't stop!"

Chapter 455

Wu Qi looked at Charlie dumbfounded, and felt that Charlie was talking about a fantasy.

At this moment, Charlie smiled evilly and continued: "Also, after I finish this psychological suggestion, if someone stops you from eating sh!t at that time, you will do everything possible to kill yourself until you eat sh!t. At the same time, if you see sh!t on the road, you must also eat it. If you don't eat it, you will die. Whoever dares to stop you, you will still find a way to kill yourself. The cycle goes back and forth for a lifetime!"

"So, in your future life, apart from eating sh!t, you will have no other pursuits. You will not pursue spending money, pleasure, or women. For the rest of your life, you will only want to eat. feces!"

When Wu Qi heard this, he couldn't help being a little angry, and said, "Mr. Wade, do you treat me as a mentally retarded? Do you think I will listen to you if you say this? Psychological hints are not done this way. You are not professional at all!"

Charlie laughed and said, "I'm not professional? I'm too professional, okay? If you don't believe me, come and try!"

After all, Charlie stretched out his hand and tapped on his forehead...

Wu Qi's whole body seemed to have been fixed, and he paused for about ten seconds. Then, he suddenly opened his eyes and murmured anxiously: "Where is the sh!t? Where is the sh!t? Don't take another bite. I'm dying! I'm dying! How can there be sh!t?!"

After finishing speaking, he also forgot who Charlie was, turned his head and ran to the dormitory, because there was a voice in his mind telling him that there are toilets in the dormitory building, and from some of them he can eat sh!t...

A shocking incident broke out in the dormitory building of Aurous Hill University of Finance and Economics!

The school grass, super rich second-generation Wu Qi suddenly rushed into the bedroom toilet and kicked a male student who was sitting on the toilet defecating.

Listening to the first half, it seems to be a story of a domineering rich second-generation bullying classmates, but this second half is really disgusting.

After kicking the classmate who was defecate, he directly reached out and grabbed the stool that was just pulled out, grabbed it and stuffed it in his mouth...

The scene of his devouring caused the roommates in the bedroom to vomit bile.

The classmates didn't know what he was going crazy suddenly, so they called the teacher quickly. When the teacher came, Wu Qi had just eaten and he didn't even wipe his mouth. When the teacher came, he vomited and vomited to death.

The teacher knew that Wu Qi's family was very strong, so he didn't dare to take it lightly, staring at him in disgust and asking him: "Student Wu Qi, what's wrong with you?"

Wu Qi had just recovered his sanity at this time, and felt an extremely disgusting taste in his mouth, so he wiped it and put it under his nose. The disgusting almost died.

He had completely forgotten that he had seen Charlie, and he had also forgotten that he had just grabbed sh!t and ate it. Now he has no idea why he had a mouthful of sh!t.

He rushed into the bathroom to rinse his mouth and retches constantly. The teacher followed and asked: "Student Wu Qi, are you feeling unwell?"

Wu Qi paled and shook his head: "What the h*ll is going on? Is anyone pitting me?!"

A classmate plucked up the courage and said: "Boss, you just came back from outside, kicked the roommate off the toilet with one foot, and then ate what he pulled..."

Speaking of this, he really couldn't go on. He strongly controlled the thought of vomiting, and said, "Should we go to the hospital for a visit?"

"What the h*ll are you talking about?!" Wu Qi scolded angrily: "You said I ate the roommate..."

Several classmates nodded one after another.

Wu Qi vomited for a while and cursed: "Quick! Quickly take me to the hospital!"

The teacher hurriedly drove his car, where Wu Qi went to the People's Hospital.

Several classmates who had a good relationship with Wu Qi also followed.

As soon as he arrived at the hospital and saw the emergency doctor, Wu Qi couldn't wait to say: "Doctor, come on, give me a gastric lavage! I ate sh!t!"

The doctor was stunned. After more than ten years of experience in medicine, it was the first time he saw such a "patient".

He subconsciously asked: "Why are you eating sh!t?"

Chapter 456

Wu Qi grabbed his collar angrily: "If I f*cking know, I'll come to you?! Give me a stomach lavage!"

Although the doctor was very dissatisfied with his attitude, he was still kind and hurriedly said to the nurse: "Prepare gastric lavage tools!"

The nurse nodded hurriedly and set about preparing.

At this moment, Wu Qi suddenly felt that there was another pain in his mind, and then his whole body lost control from his mind, and all his thoughts were sh!t!

So he blurted out subconsciously: "Where is the toilet? Where is the toilet?!"

The doctor subconsciously pointed to the right hand and said, "Turn left and go to the end."

When Wu Qi heard this, he blurted out and rushed to the toilet.

The teacher and a few classmates hurried to catch up.

As soon as Wu Qi rushed into the toilet, he went straight to open one of the compartments. After opening, instead of going to the toilet, he looked into the toilet. Seeing that the toilet was empty, he immediately exited and opened the second one.

Everyone was frightened by his actions, could it be...is he going to eat again? !

At this moment, Wu Qi opened the second compartment, and there was an Old Master in it. Wu Qi was about to rush up immediately. Everyone held him tightly and blurted out: "No way, Wu Qi, no way! "

Wu Qi yelled frantically: "Let go of me! Let me go! Let me eat, I want to eat!"

Everyone almost collapsed, what happened to this person? Suddenly become neurotic? Otherwise, why is he suddenly crazy, desperate to eat sh!t?

The teacher yelled at this moment: "Quickly, get him up and get out!"

So several people together, just carried him out.

As soon as he exited the toilet door, Wu Qi collapsed and shouted: "Let me down, I want to eat sh!t! Let me down! If I don't eat it, I will die! Please let me down!"

The entire emergency department of the hospital was boiling.

They have seen people with various diseases, but who has seen people who are forced to eat sh!t?

And he's a young and handsome guy. What's the reason?

The doctor was also very embarrassed and asked, "He just said he needs gastric lavage, why is he suddenly saying that he wants to eat something like that...They wonder if this person has something wrong with his nerves? How about you taking him to SanityLab Hospital, right?"

When the teacher thought about it, this kind of thing really didn't look like some kind of organ disease. It was estimated that this was a mental problem, so he hurriedly said, "Let's go to the SanityLab Hospital!"

At this time, Wu Qi was almost crazy!

He is now thinking about eating sh!t, and ready to self-harm if he can't eat it. He keeps slapping himself, seizing the opportunity, kneeling on the ground and hitting the floor with his head. The classmates grabbed him desperately, but he changed. Be even more irritable, and shouted wildly: "You all f*cking let me go! If you don't let me eat sh!t, I will die can't you see!"

After that, he started struggling violently.

Because of his explosive power, a few classmates didn't hold him down. He broke free all at once, rushed to the toilet quickly.

A lot of classmates hurried to catch up, but they were not as fast as him. When everyone rushed to the toilet, he had already pulled out the Old Master just now and threw him to the ground. He threw himself directly into the toilet and started to stuff his mouth with...

Everyone hurriedly stepped forward and dragged him tightly, but he stopped slowly and still didn't stop...

The Old Master didn't even pull up the pants and was scared, and he was shivering on the ground. Someone was frightened by the sight. He immediately took out his phone and took a video, which was posted on Facebook.

"An eye-opener! Aurous Hill People's Hospital has a lunatic who grabs sh!t and eats..."

Chapter 457

Wu Qi's headteacher and roommates in the same dormitory were almost tortured crazy by him.

They resisted the nausea and wanted to send Wu Qi back to the doctor.

The Old Master who was pulled out of the toilet by Wu Qi and thrown to the floor whimpered: "If your brain is sick, don't let him out! Why is he stealing sh!t!"

The headteacher looked embarrassed and took out his wallet, handed him five hundred, and said, "Master this should compensate you for your loss, please forgive me..."

The Old Master didn't expect that he could earn 500 in this way. The grievances just now disappeared in an instant. Then he asked with joy, "Well, do you want to next time?"

The headteacher retched and said, "Uncle, I don't want it next time. If you don't finish it, please continue to go in..."

After finishing speaking, he shouted to everyone quickly: "Quickly, get Wu Qi to the doctor!"

When he arrived at the doctor, the doctor glanced at him, then vomited all the supper, and blurted out: "I beg you, take him to the mental hospital, we really can't cure this kind of disease!"

The headteacher said: "Well, somehow, give him a stomach wash, how dirty it is to eat..."

The doctor was about to cry and said, "I can wash him, but are you not afraid that he will slow down and eat again? No matter how I wash this, I have to put the tube in a little bit, I can't stand it. He eats so fast!"

The headteacher asked some of his classmates: "Is this the second time for him?"

"Yes." The same bed hurriedly nodded and said: "It's almost an hour away!"

The headteacher said: "Then he might have to eat in another hour..."

Thinking of this, he hesitated for a moment, and blurted out: "Wipe him clean, get in the car, let's go to the SanityLab Hospital, otherwise, in case of delay, it will be finished again!"

Everyone had to endure the nausea, wipe Wu Qi's mouth with a tissue, and then walked out with him in a daze.

As soon as he got in the car, Wu Qi came back to his senses, feeling a strange nausea in his mouth, and couldn't help asking: "What happened to me?"

A sleeper sitting next to him asked in surprise: "Don't you remember?"

Wu Qi shook his head and said, "I don't remember, I just remember that I had a headache just now, and my mind was buzzing."

After speaking, Wu Qi put his hand to his mouth, he sighed, and instantly he was almost fainted. He blurted out and asked, "What's the situation?! Did I eat that thing again?!"

Sitting in the dormitory of the front co-pilot, the old third turned around and said, "Boss, we couldn't stop you with all our hard work just now. You rushed into the toilet and took an Old Master..."

The bedmate sitting next to Wu Qi hurriedly said: "Hey, don't talk about it!"

"Oh..." The youngest realized that this fact was a bit disgusting, so he closed his mouth with interest.

Wu Qi hurriedly asked: "What the h*ll is going on?! Tell me clearly!"

"This..." Everyone looked at each other. No one wanted to describe the terrible devil scene just now, and even thinking about it, it felt disgusting.

Wu Qi shouted with a dark face: "d*mn! You guys can't tell me!"

The voice roared out, and the whole car was immediately stinking!

Chapter 458

The three classmates and the head teacher who drove were a little dizzy. The head teacher hurriedly put down all the windows and let the wind continue to pour into the car, which is regarded as blowing away the smell.

Wu Qi exploded. He gritted his teeth and said to the person on his right hand: "Fourth, if you or he doesn't tell me clearly, don't blame me for turning my face with you! The two hundred thousand you took from me last time, hurry up Give it back to me!"

Hearing this, the guy hurriedly said: "Boss, I said! I said it's okay! Just now, you suddenly had to eat that thing like crazy. The three of us pressed you, but you were too strong and broke away. After that, you ran to the toilet of the hospital, but we didn't catch up with you. You broke into a cubicle and pulled out an Old Master who was doing to the toilet, and then..."

Wu Qi's face turned black. He resisted the nausea and murmured, "I...have I eaten?"

The fourth child nodded cautiously, and said, "Yes...you...eat..."

"vomit....."

Wu Qi spit out suddenly.

The thing that he ate twice in a row, all vomited in the car...

At this time, the whole car seemed to have fallen into a septic tank, and it smelled like the gutter, and the windows were hard to use when driving...

The other four people in the car have completely collapsed!

The head teacher wanted to die. He had just bought a car for 200,000 and drove it for two weeks, and it was covered with the vomit. It is estimated that he will not be able to drive in the future.

But he also dared not say anything. After all, the Wu family's strength is too strong. The principal has already told him that he must take care of Wu Qi and must not be negligent...

At this time, Wu Qi's video of eating stool has become popular on Facebook!

This kind of brutal and inhuman devil video has exploded in the moment it goes up!

The Wu family in Suzhou and Hangzhou was shocked when they saw this video! The whole family became nervous about it.

The Wu family is one of the largest families in the south of the Yangtze River. They have always attached great importance to their children. Suddenly, Wu Qi had such an unthinkable thing. The Wu family immediately realized that something must have happened, so they had to come and find out.

At the same time, the Wu family is also trying every means to contact the entire network to delete videos. After all, this kind of thing is too shameful for them. How can a big family like theirs afford this person?

However, the speed of this video spread was so fast, and it spread to platforms such as Youtube, Instagram, and Twitter. It almost instantly reached the hottest state, and it was instantly known.

The head of the Wu family was furious. Wu Qi's father Regnar immediately called Wu Qi and blurted out, "Wu Qi, what's wrong with you?! What is it that stimulates you?! Do you know your video? , After the video exploded, how much black was smeared on the family's face!"

When Wu Qi heard that the video had exploded on YouTube, he couldn't wait to hit himself to death, or just jump out of the car and kill himself.

He cried loudly and said, "Dad! you can't blame me for this! I don't know what's wrong. My brain will have problems every hour, and then I will eat that thing uncontrollably. The whole person is totally unaware. My classmate said that if I can't eat that, I will self-harm and commit suicide...Dad, you have to find a way to save me!"

When Regnar heard this, he immediately said, "Son, wait for me! I will fly over with your brother and the doctor!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately took his brother Roger, too late to pack any luggage, and hurriedly took a private plane from Suzhou to Hangzhou to Aurous Hill. They were accompanied by the entire Wu family's physician team.

The strength of the Wu family even exceeds that of the Song family by a large margin. The family has all aspects of supporting facilities, not only private jets, private yachts, but even a private medical team and security team.

The Wu family's physician team is composed of six top medical experts in various fields, including one of the best psychiatric experts in China.

However, the Wu family did not know that even the best psychiatrists in the world would not be able to cure Wu Qi's disease!

Chapter 459

Charlie was at the gate of Aurous Hill College of Finance and Economics at this time, and Aoxue the arm affectionately.

"Mr. Wade, you are so amazing! So many of us have been useless to persuade Yuesheng for so long, so you just said a few words to her, and she immediately figured it out!"

Charlie said indifferently: "It may be that after jumping into the lake, she realized the preciousness of life. People will only see some of their own problems when they are in desperation."

Aoxue nodded repeatedly, and said gratefully: "Mr. Wade, thank you so much this time. If it weren't for you, Yuesheng might have been short-sighted..."

Charlie said: "Don't worry, she will face life positively and optimistically in the future."

After speaking, Charlie reminded: "You also have to be careful yourself, and when you find a boyfriend in the future, don't be fooled by such a s*umbag!"

Aoxue smiled shyly, and said, "Of course not! I am very smart..."

After speaking, he looked at Charlie with big eyes full of admiration, and whispered: "I have thought about it. If I find a boyfriend in the future, I will find someone like Mr. Wade..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Do you want to hire a son-in-law?"

Aoxue replied with shame: "If I can find Mr. Wade, it doesn't matter if he doesn't come to the door..."

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Okay, you are still young now, study hard, it is not too late to fall in love after graduating from college."

Aoxue mumbled her little mouth, and said, "If you meet the right one, you may talk about it in advance, after all, the true love is the biggest!"

"Yeah." Charlie also said seriously: "If you really meet the right person, of course don't miss the opportunity."

With that, Charlie didn't think deeply, and said to her: "Okay, you can go back to the bedroom, I'm leaving."

Aoxue said, "Mr. Wade, are you leaving now? Would you like to have a cup of coffee together?"

Charlie waved his hand: "Stop drinking, I can't sleep at night after drinking."

At this time, Aoxue suddenly received a WeChat message, she subconsciously opened it, and she was stunned and blurted out: "My mother, it's disgusting!"

Charlie asked curiously: "What's wrong?"

Aoxue retched for a while, and then handed the phone to Charlie. While coughing violently, she said: "The hot video on Facebook...that Wu Qi, actually rushed to eat stool in the hospital bathroom... Oh, it's really disgusting, who would eat that kind of thing! It's sick!"

Charlie glanced at the video, it was really disgusting, but it was d*mn good looking at it.

Isn't he the dog kid who liked to give others psychological hints? This time he's on the cusp, and feels the pleasure brought by psychological hints.

Charlie could already foresee Wu Qi's future.

He must eat stool once an hour, otherwise life will fall into the extreme of self-harm and suicide.

It would be useless to tie him tightly. If they don't feed him, he would try to bite his tongue, attempt a hunger strike, abstain from water, and even keep yelling crazy.

Therefore, the best way to keep him alive is to satisfy his need to eat stool every hour.

Otherwise, this person will suffer torture and die within a month.

But fortunately, the Wu family is also a big family, with a big support base and a lot of people. This will definitely be indispensable in the future...

But Wu Qi will be a bit miserable for the rest of his life. He has to eat every hour. They don't know how long he can last!

.....

When Charlie returned home, Wu Qi was sent to the SanityLab Hospital.

SanityLab Hospital is the only psychiatric hospital in Aurous Hill, but it is too remote.

Chapter 460

Driving this way, twenty or thirty kilometers, the smell in this car is comparable to a septic tank, and for several others, it is simply a torture like a purgatory on earth.

Just got out of the car and was helping Wu Qi to walk into the hospital. At this time, Wu Qi suddenly felt something wrong...

He felt dizzy and headache in his head, so he looked at the people around him desperately, and cried and said: "It's over...that feeling will come again...after a while if I lose again Reason, you must hold me back!"

Several people had lingering fears, but they nodded subconsciously.

What they thought in hearts is that if they pull him, he will definitely try to pull them, but if he succeeds, it's really bad...

Immediately afterwards, Wu Qi suddenly changed his face and shouted hysterically: "Where is the toilet?! Where is the toilet?!"

Everyone looked at each other, desperate in their hearts...

It really started again!

How to do? !

The head teacher yelled: "Push him there! Don't let go this time!"

So everyone hurriedly hugged him, put him down on the ground, and then pressed his limbs tightly. The head teacher said, "You wait, I'll call the doctor to help!"

Three people pressed Wu Qi desperately, but Wu Qi had been struggling desperately. One of them couldn't help but say: "Oh f*ck, I can't hold him anymore, what should I do!"

"If you can't hold it, you have to press it!" Another said, "Wait when I pull off the belt and tie up his legs!"

"It's a good way!"

At this moment, Wu Qi was crushed to the ground, his eyes were red, and he blurted out and shouted: "Let go of me! You guys, let me go!"

People passing by the psychiatric hospital are not used to this. Everyone is too lazy to take a look. After all, there are often such hysterical patients here.

At this time, a retired Old Master living in the back family yard led a huge husky to the front, the husky smelled everywhere, and then squatted down in a circle.

Seeing this, the roommate in Wu Qi's bedroom yelled at the Old Master: "Hurry up and take your dog away! Don't let him pull it here!"

The Old Master glared at him and said, "Can you control it?"

The roommate was anxious, and blurted out: "You dead Old Master, if you don't get rid of your dead dog, something big will happen!"

The Old Master snorted coldly and said, "I have been keeping this dog for six years. Even if it is pulled on my bed, I will let it pull it comfortably. Then I clean it up again, and I am not willing to let it be wronged. Who do you think you are?"

"You..." The roommate was speechless.

At this time, the husky had already worked hard, pulled out a few times, and pulled out a lot of hot sh!t.

Wu Qi was even crazy when he saw this scene!

It seemed that he was given a stimulant in an instant, and his body's strength exploded several times in an instant. He bowed fiercely, and knocked all the three people on his body to the ground!

The three of them fell on all sides, and before they had time to cry out, the fourth child collapsed and shouted: "f*ck, stop the boss!"

As the three of them said, they went crazy to catch up.

But, how can they have such crazy Wu Qi fast!

Wu Qi rushed to the Husky in an instant, toward the big pile of sh!t on the ground, instantly like a vicious dog rushing for food, opened his mouth and rushed up!

The Old Master was shocked by the scene of subverting the three views, jumping half a meter high, and trembling: "You...you...how many days have you been hungry?!"

Chapter 461

Wu Qi has completely lost his mind.

At this time, the psychological hints Charlie gave him were extremely strong, driving him to just "fill his stomach" in his mind!

The three classmates collapsed and went forward desperately to pull him away. He lay on the ground like a mad dog, eating and cursing.

The headteacher just ran out with a few doctors. Seeing this scene, the doctors who were used to seeing mental illness were also frightened.

They have seen all kinds of mental illnesses, but this is really the first time they saw...

This is too cruel, right? !

As a result, a bunch of doctors hurried forward and dragged the person back from the sh!t abruptly, then tied the person to a special bed with a fixed belt, and pushed the person into the mental hospital.

At this moment, the entire Aurous Hill School of Finance and Economics is spreading Wu Qi's video.

Countless people will vomit on the spot after watching it, but everyone is still watching it with strong nausea, watching this video of Wu Qi's destruction.

Many people clapped their hands and cheered excitedly when they saw Wu Qi's end, because they in the school knew that Wu Qi was a super pervert. He liked to control girls psychologically, and then forced them to self-harm and commit suicide. To satisfy his twisted psychology.

Many people with a sense of justice dislike or even hate him, but because no one can provoke him, Wu Qi has never paid any price for his actions.

However, Wu Qi, who likes to give other people psychological hints the most, has turned into a shocking mental retard. This is not only irony, but also a hatred! They are really happy!

The Wu family's private plane has landed at Aurous Hill Airport.

From Suzhou to Hangzhou to Aurous Hill is very close, the high-speed rail only takes about one and a half hours, so there are no flights between the two cities, and it only took half an hour for Wu's private plane to fly here.

After that, Regnar Wu took Wu Qi's brother Roger Wu and several top doctors and quickly got off the plane.

On the side of the plane, several Rolls-Royce had been waiting for a long time, and the group was divided into three cars and went straight to the SanityLab Hospital.

This Mental Hospital was not far from the airport, so the group rushed to the hospital quickly.

When they reached there, Wu Qi was tightly tied to the bed, struggling with all his strength, and a towel was stuffed into his mouth. This was because he couldn't get away and tried to bite his tongue and kill himself. The doctor blocked his mouth quickly.

At this time, Wu Qi seemed to be suffering from rabies, and the whole person was completely mad.

When Regnar saw that his son became like this, he was heartbroken and hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Wu Qi, Dad is here!"

Wu Qi can't recognize his father at all at this time, he just wants to fill his stomach...

So he pulled his feet and arms vigorously, his wrists and ankles were tied with belts, so he quickly got all scars and even faint bleeding.

Regnar hurriedly said to the psychiatric expert he had brought: "Look at what is going on!"

The doctor nodded and said, "I will give the second young master a sedative first!"

After speaking, he immediately took out the syringe and sedative from the medicine box he carried, and gave Wu Qi a shot without hesitation.

However, after the needle went down, Wu Qi didn't feel calm at all. He was still struggling desperately, whimpering and saying something, but he couldn't hear clearly because of the towel.

Seeing that the tranquilizer had no effect, Regnar hurriedly asked: "What's going on?!"

The expert was a bit big, and said, "Mr. Regnar, let alone a person, even if it is a cow, he has no reaction at all..."

Chapter 462

Regnar blurted out: "You don't need to say that I also know that he has no reaction at all. I want to ask you, what to do now?"

The expert thought for a while and said: "I want to increase the dose a little bit. In any case, let the young master calm down first."

Regnar nodded and said, "What are you waiting for?!"

Experts said: "Mr. Regnar, excessive use of sedatives can damage the body, so..."

Regnar blurted out: "He is already damaging his own body, and the most important thing is to calm him down quickly!"

"OK!" The expert nodded hurriedly and immediately prepared to increase the dose.

After another shot, Wu Qi still didn't change much.

"It's really weird..." the expert said: "This kind of tranquilizer has a very strong effect. After two injections, the manic elephant will also stop, but the young master is still so irritable, which is really a bit unreasonable."

At this time, the heart expert on the side said: "No, Mr. Wu Qi's body is shaking, as if his heartbeat is fast!"

After that, he immediately took out a portable ECG monitor and turned it on for a test. At this time, Wu Qi's heart rate was as high as 180 beats per minute!

"This...this is the heartbeat index after violent anaerobic exercise... If the young master keeps this heart rate, the heart may not be able to handle it longer!"

Regnar hurriedly asked: "What happens if it doesn't get down?"

Cardiologists said: "This can lead to a heart failure, palpitations, or myocardial infarction, and it will be life-threatening!"

Regnar asked, "What should we do?!"

The cardiologist said: "The best way is to calm down the young master as soon as possible, otherwise, the heart will be difficult to bear this load for too long..."

The psychiatrist on the side said: "But the second young master can't calm down now. After the two sedatives have been taken, he still doesn't get better at all..."

At this time, Wu Qi was still struggling desperately, so that his heartbeat was getting faster and faster!

The cardiologist was anxious, and blurted out: "No way! The heart rate is still rising. If this continues, it will soon be life-threatening!"

Regnar hurriedly asked some Wu Qi's classmates who were already frightened next to him: "What is going on with him tonight? Is there any way to calm him down?"

The three of them look at him and he look at them. One of them plucked up the courage and said, "Hello, uncle, after Wu Qi returned to the bedroom tonight, he started to eat sh!t. When he wants to eat sh!t, no one can stop him. It's only when he is finished eating that he can regain his sanity...The second and third time the same thing happened..."

Regnar's face was extremely cold, and he asked, "In other words, he can only calm down after eating that thing, right?"

"Yes..." Everyone nodded hurriedly.

Roger on the side could not help saying, "Dad, is someone deliberately pulling a revenge on Wu Qi? After all, Wu Qi has indeed hurt some girls from poor families in the past two years in college. It seems that two have died."

Regnar said blankly, "You said it yourself. Those are girls from poor families. Neither the living girl nor the family member of the dead girl can make any waves. I suspect there is something strange."

At this time, the cardiologist said: "Mr. Orvel, the second young master's heart rate has exceeded 220. If this continues, it is estimated that the young master heart will not work soon!"

Regnar gritted his teeth and spit out three words after a while: "Let him eat!"

Wu Qi's brother Roger blurted out: "Dad, I can't let my brother go to the toilet to eat that thing! This...this is too disgusting!"

Regnar said coldly: "Now there is no other way! The most important thing is to save his life! Let him eat first! Wait for him to stabilize before finding a way!"

Chapter 463

This night is destined to be lively and extraordinary.

On the other side, Wu Qi subverted everyone's views. On the other side, Fredmen followed Barena Wei and hurried back to Wei's house without the three hundred-year-old purple ginseng.

Fredmen felt regretful and grateful for not being able to win the 300-year-old best purple ginseng at the auction. Unfortunately, the century-old purple ginseng is naturally not as good as the 300-year-old best purple ginseng. Fortunately, it is enough. Saved more than 90 million...

Barena Wei took him three hundred-year-old purple ginseng to a friend to buy them, and they spent three million in total, while Charlie spent 100 million on the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng.

In comparison, he felt a lot more comfortable in an instant.

At this time, he only hoped that the Wei family's improved prescription would cure his stubborn disease.

Because this medicine placed the hope of the Wei family on the future, all the children of the Wei family were present. Even the head of the Wei family, Youngzheng Wei, came to the huge living room to supervise the scene, carrying his weak body.

Youngzheng Wei is in his sixties this year. Wearing a tunic suit with all white hair and pleats on his face, he swayed when he walked, and he couldn't even straighten his waist. At first glance, when he was young, women played too much, leading to blood loss.

Professor Ke, the chief pharmacist of the Wei family, instructed several assistants at this time. In the living room of the Wei family, micro-reactors, refining machines and centrifuges were placed in preparation for new prescriptions.

Although the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng was not taken, Professor Ke decided to give it a try.

Because if this medicine really has to use 300-year-old purple ginseng, it will be difficult to mass produce it.

After all, this medicinal material is too expensive and too rare to find.

Therefore, if it can be proved that 100-year-old purple ginseng can be used, even lower purple ginseng can be used, then the production capacity can be greatly enhanced, and the cost can be greatly reduced.

The Wei family was extremely excited up and down.

Because if this medicine can be prepared smoothly and has the expected curative effect, it will be beyond the existence of Western medicine v!agra, and the Wei family may even become a world-class pharmaceutical company with this medicine!

v!agra, a chemical ingredient called sildenafil, has a very good effect on the treatment of weakened male functions. Its previous patent has been in the hands of the well-known American pharmaceutical company Ruihui.

With this drug, Ruihui has increased its market value by tens of billions!

In other words, this medicine has been sold globally, which has earned Ruihui hundreds of billions of dollars!

And if the Wei family's prescription is really done, it will not only improve the abilities of men, but more importantly, it can also regulate and improve the body of men. The effect will be better than that of v!agra!

At that time, once it is sold to the world, it will not make a profit?

Fredmen doesn't know how much profit this medicine will have in the future. What he thinks now is that if this medicine can cure him, he must find a few beautiful women and fight for three days and three nights nonstop!

During this period of time, it really made him want to die!

He looked at Professor Ke nervously. Professor Ke first weighed and distinguished the precious medicinal materials, and then put them into the centrifuge in order.

Professor Ke is a relatively powerful expert in integrated traditional Chinese and Western medicine in China. Traditional medicine uses a method of boiling. The effective ingredients are wasted and the purity is insufficient. Therefore, with the preparation of Western medicine reactors, centrifuges and other equipment, traditional medicine can be made with effective ingredients, the medicinal materials are well retained and purified.

Seeing Fredmen's nervous expression on the side, Youngzheng Wei smiled and said to Fredmen: "Fredmen, this is an improved new generation formula based on the top secret prescriptions of our Wei family. Professor Ke's calculations and speculations have completely eliminated them. All the toxic and side effects are genuine magical medicines at a reasonable price."

When Fredmen heard this, he couldn't help but looked excited, and said, "That's really great. I hope the efficacy of this medicine will not disappoint me."

Youngzheng Wei hurriedly patted his chest and said, "Don't worry, Fredmen, this medicine can definitely cure your stubborn illness. Before the formula was improved, I walked around the world and relied on this magic medicine. The ten women of the Japanese imperial family are not a problem."

Chapter 464

Fredmen was a little moved by the scene he described, and said: "Is it so magical?"

Youngzheng Wei said earnestly: "Fredmen, the magical medicine of our Wei family is three and four times as effective as v!agra. The improved formula is even more effective, even up to ten times!"

Fredmen suddenly felt ecstatic in his heart. There was such a miraculous effect. It seemed that his root disease could be completely cured in all likelihood.

At this time, Barena Wei asked curiously: "Father, if this medicine is mass-produced, wouldn't we be able to be sell it overseas and suppress all the foreign competitors?"

Youngzheng Wei waved his hand and said, "Of course, once mass production can be achieved, men all over the world will use my Wei family's magic drug. There is no such thing as the so-called competitors. There will only be one male magic drug on the market. It is the magic medicine of my Wei family!"

Having said that, Youngzheng Wei said to Fredmen again: "I don't know if Fredmen has the intention to invest in Wei's pharmaceutical factory. If Fredmen is willing, he only needs to invest two or three billion, and can return 10 billion in income within a year! "

Fredmen was also very excited. The merchants valued profits, and he couldn't avoid them.

If the Wei family's magical medicine is really that powerful, it will definitely make money.

Therefore, Fredmen smiled and said: "If the effect of the medicine is real, it is only a billion investment, he can take it out at hand, but he has to see the effect of the medicine first."

Youngzheng Wei was waiting for his words. He immediately laughed and hurriedly said: "Fredmen, the first medicine will let you experience the effect first. If you feel good, let's talk about investment!"

However, Youngzheng Wei didn't know that Fredmen's illness could not be cured by ordinary drugs at all.

Moreover, although the so-called "magic medicine" of the Wei family has been improved, it is still unknown whether it is really effective or not without toxic side effects...

But at this time, Fredmen was thinking about reviving his vigor, and he could not even think about the consequences if the medicine failed.

At this time, he couldn't help but feel a little dry, and he couldn't wait to take Wei's magical medicine immediately.

At this time, Professor Ke has completed the preparation of the magic medicine.

Under the action of the centrifuge, all the medicinal ingredients were separated and finally purified into a bowl of deep purple soup.

"Mr. Youngzheng Wei, the new medicine has been deployed!"

Professor Ke took the medicinal soup and placed it in front of everyone.

A faint medicinal fragrance immediately appeared in the air, which made people feel feverish and dry mouth and tongue.

It seems that this medicine is really strong!

Youngzheng Wei looked at Fredmen and said with a smile: "Fredmen, please take this medicine."

Fredmen was already impatient, he looked at the soup with fiery eyes, and swallowed.

These days, it is too hard to endure the pain of living eunuchs.

Not only the physical pain, but also the psychological shock also made Fredmen tortured.

Fortunately, God pityed himself and let himself catch up with Wei's magical medicine!

It seems that today he can finally regain the power!

Chapter 465

Fredmen held the bowl of deep purple medicinal soup, and couldn't wait to bring it to his mouth, drank it!

Everyone was watching him, even Wendy was watching him.

In fact, Wendy hopes to follow Fredmen more. After all, Fredmen's Future Company Group is larger, and Fredmen is more willing to spend money on her.

At least, she also got 5 million pocket money from Fredmen.

Following Barena Wei, he didn't get any benefits.

If Fredmen regained his masculinity, then maybe he would really take her back from Barena Wei.

The Wei family are also paying attention to Fredmen at this time.

It can be said that Fredmen is the first real test product of this new drug.

Everyone wanted to see him work, so the Wei family sent it out!

After Fredmen drank the medicinal soup, he felt a strong heat flow between his kidneys.

Moreover, it is getting hotter and hotter!

This heat flow keeps accumulating in the lower abdomen, and then converges towards the roots...

Fredmen felt that he seemed to have an urge to raise his head, which made him ecstatic!

He couldn't help but said excitedly: "The magical medicine, this is the magical medicine! I feel feverish and hot now, and there are great signs of recovery."

Hearing this, Barena Wei on the side hurriedly said: "Congratulations to Fredmen for reinvigorating his glory, and his heroism!"

Youngzheng Wei was also very excited. He stood up and smiled up to the sky: "God bless my Wei family from weathering the dragon! From today, my Wei family will become the world's top pharmaceutical company and stand on top of the world!"

After speaking, he immediately said to Professor Ke: "Professor, you have worked hard! After this medicine is on the market, I will give you a villa and give you another 50 million cash reward!"

Professor Ke was very excited and hurriedly bowed, "Thank you Mr. Youngzheng Wei!"

Seeing that Fredmen seemed to be really well, Wendy on the side whispered charmingly, "Fredmen, I am here to congratulate you..."

After speaking, she didn't forget to give him a seductive look.

Fredmen was so unbearable by her voice that he thought that he was about to recover, so he directly said to Barena Wei: "Brother Barena, I know that Wendy has been with you for these two days, but I am recovering from a serious illness and need help from Wendy. I'll try the medicine, so I will take Wendy away tonight?"

When Barena Wei heard this, he felt a little unhappy.

After all, he also has a certain affection for Wendy, and men have a monopoly on the things they like.

But when he thought that Wendy was given to him by Fredmen after all, now he needs a woman to accompany him to try the effects of the medicine. There is nothing wrong with returning Wendy to him for the time being, so he can only agree: "Since Fredmen has spoken. Now, my brother, naturally I won't have anything to say."

Fredmen nodded in satisfaction and immediately said to Wendy: "Wendy, you come back to Willson's house with me!"

Wendy hurriedly said: "Okay Fredmen, or let's go back now? Don't you wait for..."

Fredmen remembered something, and hurriedly turned around and asked Youngzheng Wei: "By the way, I only feel feverish now, how long will it take to fully recover?"

Chapter 466

Youngzheng Wei hurriedly said: "It is estimated that the effect of the medicine has not yet come up. You must first repair the damaged part. Only after the repair, will you regain your glory, but I estimate that after half an hour to an hour, no matter what, you can stand tall!"

Fredmen said excitedly: "If this is the case, then the time is rushed, so Willson will not bother you, and leave first."

After speaking, he immediately left Youngzheng Wei's house with Wendy.

When he was in the car, Fredmen was already a little uncontrollable. While driving, he fidgeted and said: "The heat is getting stronger and stronger, but it seems that it hasn't reached that place yet..."

Wendy hurriedly said, "Didn't the Wei family's Patriarch say that the medicine must be repaired before it can work there!"

"Hahaha!" Fredmen said excitedly: "It's like the game you young people play. The enemy has five seconds to reach the battlefield!"

Wendy smiled and said, "Fredmen, how long will you get to the battlefield?"

Fredmen smiled and said, "I guess it will be another half an hour, how come it should be there? Hahahaha!"

Having said that, Fredmen stretched out his arms around Wendy's waist and said seriously: "Wendy, after I am completely healed, you should follow me. As long as you take care of me, I will protect you for the rest of your life and you will enjoy it. "

Wendy said with a charming expression: "Wendy will definitely take care of you!"

Fredmen nodded, and then said in a vicious voice: "That Charlie, this b@stard made me almost unable to be a man, I definitely can't let him go!"

This time I planted myself in Charlie's hands in Aurous Hill, I don't know how many times, not only the roots were destroyed, but I also had to call him grandpa several times.

It can be said that his Fredmen's face was lost on Charlie.

After you get better, you don't need to be afraid of Charlie, and you don't need to be afraid of Tianqi, just find an opportunity to kill them both!

That Tianqi is also very fcking hate, he didn't give it to him, and threatened him with his mother, dmn it!

.....

Soon, Fredmen drove back to Willson's house.

After the two got off the car, they passed through the living room and went straight to the guest room on the second floor.

The Old Mrs. Willson was drinking tea in the lobby. When Fredmen was pulling Wendy back, the two hurried upstairs and couldn't help asking Noah Willson next to her: "Fredmen has his hidden illness cured?"

"I don't know either." Noah Willson said, "Since the monkey went back to the room so anxiously, it feels like there is improvement."

The Old Mrs. Willson smiled and nodded, and said: "Okay, okay! Fredmen can regain his power, and Wendy can follow him again. Our Willson Group's follow-up investment of 70 million is another show!"

With that said, the Old Mrs. Willson hurriedly said to Noah Willson: "Go, go to their door and listen to see if Fredmen has really recovered. If he has, I will talk to Fredmen tomorrow morning. About the investment thing!"

Noah Willson said embarrassingly: "Mom, Wendy is my daughter. I'll go to her door to eavesdrop. This is not appropriate..."

Old Mrs. Willson glared at him and said, "Can't you tell the most important thing about the useless things? At this time, the most important thing is whether Fredmen has recovered or not!"

Noah Willson's wife Horiyah nodded quickly and said, "Mom is right. At this time Fredmen's situation is the most important thing. If you are embarrassed to eavesdrop, then I will go!"

Mrs. Willson looked at Horiyah approvingly, and said: "Horiyah is still courageous in doing things! In our family, women are always better than your dad. I do things better than your dad, and you do things better than usual. , Claire that unfilial granddaughter who turned her elbow out is also a bit better than Harold in doing things."

Chapter 467

Inside the room. Professor

Fredmen lay on the bed, anxiously waiting for the effect of the medicine to arrive on the battlefield.

Wendy put on a bathrobe and went to the bathroom first.

Don't know why, Fredmen always feels something is wrong. The lower abdomen has been hot and hot since he was in Wei's house, but his key parts have never changed.

Even at this moment, he vaguely felt itchy and aching.

"It is estimated that the medicine is working!"

Fredmen comforted herself. At this time, Wendy also came back from the bathroom.

Wendy, lying in Fredmen's arms like a wild cat, asked softly, "Fredmen, do you feel better now?"

Fredmen shook his head and said with an ugly expression: "Not yet, but it should be soon."

Wendy deliberately served Fredmen well and got more benefits, so she winks, and then lowered her head to untie Fredmen's pants.

Seeing this, Fredmen also showed expectant eyes, and his heart was hot and unbearable.

As a man, he really endured too long, too much pain.

however.....

The next second, Wendy suddenly yelled in horror, her voice harsh.

"Oh my god, Fredmen, what's the matter with you, why are you starting to grow black and purple, and the roots are still a little festered!"

"Huh?!" Fredmen's brain exploded, pushing Wendy away, lowering his head to look there.

After seeing it clearly, his face instantly turned green.

He thought it might just be that the effect of the medicine hadn't arrived yet, but he didn't expect that his key point had become black and purple, and even some of it was corrupted!

What the h*ll is going on!

Fredmen's scalp exploded, and he went crazy in an instant!

If he was expecting much after he had just taken the medicine, he would have collapsed now.

From a good man to a living eunuch, he got hope several times, but he was struggling in desperation.

After finally getting the Wei family's magical medicine, after taking it by himself, it turned out to be ulcerated.

It is not too much to say from heaven to h*ll!

"dmn, there must be something wrong with the Wei family's medicine. I said that Youngzheng Wei, the old and undead man, was so kind to let me take the medicine first. It's clear he was treating me as a fcking mouse."

Wendy was also stunned, and subconsciously said: "Fredmen, what should we do now..."

Fredmen slapped her directly, and said angrily: "It's all d*mn rot, what else can I do, go to the hospital! Let your dad prepare the car!"

.....

Noah Willson almost broke down when he heard that he was going to the hospital again!

He thought that Fredmen was finally effective this time, and that his daughter would be able to regain the favor of Fredmen, but he didn't expect that this time, it was still nothing to do with the bamboo basket!

Moreover, he heard from Fredmen, it seems that the situation this time is much more serious than before!

Chapter 468

In the middle of the night, Noah Willson drove the car, where Fredmen and his two bodyguards rushed to the People's Hospital.

Fredmen didn't even hang up the emergency number, so he broke into the emergency room of the hospital with his bodyguards.

As soon as he entered the emergency room and saw a male doctor sitting in front of the computer, Fredmen untied his belt and took off his pants on the spot.

The male doctor in the emergency room was shocked.

"What are you doing? You are perverted!"

The male doctor was taken aback, and hurriedly shouted, "Hurry up and put your pants on and give me out, or I will call the security guard!"

Suddenly encountering this situation in the middle of the night, no one can stand it.

Fredmen hurriedly explained in tears, "Doctor, you have misunderstood, I am not a pervert, I have a serious problem with my body, I should show it to you! Otherwise, I will be finished!"

At this moment, the festering has become more serious.

The male doctor glanced at it, sucked in a cold breath, and said, "This is your body tissue is completely necrotic..."

"Total necrosis? What do you mean?"

The male doctor said: "There is no room for rescue. Like some people who have been in a car accident and their legs are crushed into fleshy flesh, they cannot recover and are facing serious infections. They have to amputate their limbs. There is no other way."

"Amputation?!" Fredmen's eyes were red, and he said crumbled: "Cut off my roots?"

The doctor nodded and said, "Hurry up and amputate it before it causes your body to fester."

Fredmen cried loudly: "I am a big man, how can I cut it off? I just want to keep my roots. Even if it doesn't work anymore, I want it to grow there for me honestly!"

Now he doesn't want to restore his original function, he can not be bad, even if he is a living eunuch!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly pleaded: "Doctor, as long as you can cure me, I am willing to pay no matter how much money you say. You can think of a way for me!"

The male doctor shook his head and said, "It's not about money. Your condition is very serious. Now it is completely necrotic. I suggest you cut it directly."

With that, the doctor further explained: "If you don't cut it off and wait until the ulceration and infection become more serious, it will cause serious bacterial infections, leading to the collapse of your body's immunity, and it will be life-threatening! You know we have several times every year. This patient dragged himself to death because he refused to amputate! He died of an uncontrollable bacterial infection!"

Fredmen was already scared.

At this time, the male doctor comforted: "Don't worry, although your case is very rare, but I have done several similar operations before, and I will definitely cut you clean without leaving any lesions."

When Fredmen heard this, tears couldn't help but flow down his cheeks: "Doctor, I beg you, please show me a clear path, I really can't cut it off, I am a living eunuch, if it is Really cut, more uncomfortable than a living eunuch! I...I might as well die."

The male doctor said helplessly: "I'm sorry, our hospital really has no way to save. If you are unwilling to undergo amputation, we can't cure you..."

Fredmen almost collapsed, gritted his teeth and said: "You Rubbish, can't you even stop the ulceration?"

The male doctor was also a little annoyed, and said solemnly: "Why can't you listen to what the doctor said? I told you, now this situation can only be amputated, and the possibility of preventing the ulcer is very slim!"

"And don't think that it's just the root matter now. The infected bacteria will soon flow through the bloodstream. By that time, you will have a systemic infection and your life will be in danger!"

Fredmen's heart completely collapsed, and the hatred in his heart for the Wei family was almost overwhelming at this moment!

Oh sh!t! Wei family!

If my roots are gone, you Wei family will wait for the end!

I want to turn your entire Wei family men into living eunuchs!

Thinking of this, he shouted at the two bodyguards beside him: "Follow me to Wei's house!"

Chapter 469

Fredmen left the People's Hospital with great anger and rushed towards Wei's house with his two bodyguards.

As soon as he arrived at the door of Wei's house, a member of the Wei family hurriedly greeted him and asked flatly, "Fredmen, why are you here so late..."

However, Fredmen looked at him gloomily, slapped him over, and roared, "Get out of here!"

The anger and humiliation in his heart at the moment, like a boiling active volcano, may erupt at any time!

Immediately, Fredmen took two bodyguards and walked into the gate of Wei's house. As soon as he entered the yard, he said viciously: "Youngzheng Wei, get out of here! One step later, I will kill you!"

With Fredmen's roar, the entire Wei family suddenly jumped.

Not long after, Youngzheng Wei didn't wear his clothes properly, and he walked out hurriedly, supported by Barena Wei.

When he came out to look at Fredmen, who was full of anger, he also looked surprised and quickly asked: "Mr. Willson, what are you doing? You just took medicine and restored your former glory. Isn't it right that you should be upset at home??"

"Turn the dragon to the phoenix? I turn your mother!"

Fredmen observed at Youngzheng Wei and pointed at Youngzheng Wei and said, "You immortal, dare you to use me as a guinea pig and try your Wei family's broken medicine! Now my roots are rotten, if you don't give me Solve it, I will f*cking destroyed your Wei family!"

Youngzheng Wei's brain buzzed, and he immediately understood Fredmen's words. The co-author had a problem with taking medicine.

So he hurriedly calmed and said: "Mr. Willson, this must be a misunderstanding, a misunderstanding! Listen to my explanation, our Wei family is also very kind, and never think of you as a guinea pig, but you happen to have this need. Thinking that the medicine will be produced and let you take it first is entirely out of concern for you."

Shaking with anger, Fredmen took off his trousers in public, his eyes were cold and scary, and he pointed to the place where he had festered, and said: "It's f*cking so bad that it's going to be amputated. You tell me this is a misunderstanding?"

Youngzheng Wei's eyes didn't work well, so he rubbed his eyes carefully. Under this look, he immediately clamped his legs subconsciously!

His eldest son Barena Wei and illegitimate son Liang Wei were watching them, and their faces were equally scared.

d*mn it!

It really sucks!

How could this be?

He doesn't blame Fredmen for delivering the goods. What will be the replacement?

Barena Wei hurriedly said, "Brother Willson, don't be angry...maybe the effect of the medicine has not been fully developed, you can wait two days to see..."

Wait two more days? I don't need to go to the f*cking hospital anymore, it just sucks!

Fredmen lifted his pants and yelled at Barena Wei furiously: "Wait for your mother, I will blame you as a fool. If you hadn't lied to me, saying that your Wei family medicine could cure me, I wouldn't end up like this! "

After he finished speaking, he said to the two bodyguards around him: "Give me one of his hands first!"

These two bodyguards are both good players.

At first he brought six bodyguards to Aurous Hill, but Charlie abolished four of them, and now only these two remain.

However, even if there are only two bodyguards left, the Wei family dare not fight against him!

After all, Fredmen is the chairman of Future Company Group, and his strength is much stronger than that of the Wei family.

Chapter 470

The Wei family originally hoped that the new medicine would allow them to rise, but now it seems that the new medicine is not as good as the old one!

At least the old medicine will not make people rot, at most, it is a little liver and kidney toxicity for many years.

Therefore, if Fredmen really wants to fight the Wei family, the strength of the Wei family is indeed not enough.

At this time, Fredmen's two bodyguards came forward and directly grabbed Barena Wei. It was useless to let him cry for mercy. He snapped his right hand with a click, and folded it into a strange angle. , People can't help but straighten their hair.

"My hand hurts so much..."

Youngzheng Wei was angry and frightened in his heart. Barena Wei was his eldest son and his most beloved son. However, seeing his son's hand being broken, he dared not speak.

At this time, the pharmacist Professor Ke also rushed over and said: "Mr. Youngzheng Wei, Fredmen, what's the situation?"

Fredmen looked back and couldn't help but sneered: "You b@stard, you just came here, calling me!!"

Professor Ke was dumbfounded and said, "Fredmen, misunderstanding, I cured your illness, didn't you say you want to gift me the villa?"

Fredmen sneered and said, "I will send you to live in a villa in the Hell Temple!"

The bodyguard pushed Professor Ke to the ground, and it crackled like a hammer. One of them hit his temple with a punch. Professor Ke rolled his eyes and passed out.

At this time, the entire Wei family was frightened, and Fredmen was really cruel!

In fact, Fredmen is not to blame. From losing his ability to now beginning to fester, his whole body and mind have suffered a huge blow that ordinary people can't imagine.

If he really needs to be amputated, he will be completely crazy.

Fredmen was still puzzled at this moment. He stepped forward, grabbed Youngzheng Wei by the collar, and threatened: "I will give you two ways now. One, I will destroy your Wei family now, and two, immediately take my illness and cure it, which one do you choose?"

Youngzheng Wei's face was extremely pale, and he begged: "Mr. Willson spared me, I will choose the second one. We, the Wei family, must find a way to cure your illness!"

Fredmen asked in a cold voice: "How long will it take to get it done? If my roots are really not preserved, I will let people kill you! I want you to be buried with the Wei family!"

Youngzheng Wei nodded as if pounding garlic and blurted out: "We also have many very powerful doctors in the Wei family. I will let them come over and give you anti-bacterial and anti-inflammatory treatment first. It should be able to persist for a while!"

Fredmen sat down on the main seat of the sofa in the living room and said coldly, "Hurry up and find the doctor!"

Youngzheng Wei did not dare to delay, and quickly asked Barena Wei to contact the team of doctors from Wei's Pharmaceuticals to come over.

After the doctor came over, they immediately infused Fredmen with antibiotics, and then treated the ulceration part. However, the doctors of the Wei family agreed with the doctors of the People's Hospital that simply antibacterial and anti-inflammatory cannot solve the problem, but can only delay the speed of the ulceration, but, The end result is amputation.

Fortunately, through processing, it can be delayed for a few days.

In a few days, if the Wei family could not find a cure for Fredmen, Fredmen still had to undergo amputation.

After Fredmen infused the liquid, he said to the Wei family: "I will give you one day. If it can't be solved by tomorrow night, the Wei family will not need to exist in the future!"

Youngzheng Wei complied with a full mouth and respectfully said: "Chairman Willson rest assured, we will definitely go all out!"

The eldest son Barena Wei pulled him aside and whispered nervously, "Dad, the doctor said, there is basically no good way to treat it, what should we do?"

Youngzheng Wei gritted his teeth and said: "Then I have to find a way too! Otherwise, would it be possible to watch the Wei family's death?!"

Chapter 471

Barena Wei was worried and said to his father Youngzheng Wei: "Dad, let's change the property and run away with the money. Otherwise, if Fredmen really wants to attack us, we will be in trouble!"

Hearing this, Youngzheng Wei cursed: "Prodigal gadgets have become sellers? So anxious to sell, is the one billion family capacity sold for 200 million? This is all my life's hard work!"

Liang Wei, the illegitimate son on the side, also nodded hurriedly and said, "Brother, Wei's pharmaceuticals were made by our dad's hard work all his life. How can we sell it like that."

Barena Wei raised his hand and slapped him in the face, angrily said, "You wild species, where do you speak?"

Liang Wei, who received a slap in the face, took two steps back and covered his face. Although he felt wronged, he said very firmly: "Brother, even if you hit me, I have to say that Wei's Pharmaceutical is the work of dad. You can't sell it!"

"I f*cking kill you!" Barena Wei was furious and was about to attack Liang Wei.

Youngzheng Wei, who has never looked down upon Liang Wei, stopped Barena Wei, who was about to do it, and said coldly: "Your brother is right! Something went wrong, we must find a way to solve it! Instead of selling the life's hard work and running away.!"

After finishing speaking, Youngzheng Wei snorted and said: "Today, I leave it here, you brothers, who can solve this crisis, who will be the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceuticals in the future, the person who cannot solve the crisis is destined Inability to lead Wei's Pharmaceuticals!"

Barena Wei suddenly panicked and blurted out: "Dad! How can Wei's Pharmaceutical be handed over to this wild species!"

Youngzheng Wei coldly snorted: "Is it a wild species, it's all my species! If you, the eldest son, is not able to bear it, you will abdicate to him!"

When Liang Wei on the side heard this, his heart was suddenly very excited.

I have endured all these years in Wei Jiayin, suffered all the humiliation, and finally waited for a chance to become a leader!

In fact, in Youngzheng Wei's opinion, it is naturally impossible for the family business to be inherited by an illegitimate child. However, his eldest son Barena Wei is really not enough to be competitive, so he must be stimulated and forced to find a solution to the current crisis.

.....

When the Wei family was looking for treatment for Fredmen all over the world, Charlie just returned to the bedroom after taking a shower.

His wife, Claire, was wearing a nightgown, lying on the bed, kicking her two white jade-like legs at will, swiping the phone in a leisurely manner.

Claire is usually too busy at work and under great pressure. Every night, playing on phone and reading novels in bed have become her biggest leisure.

As soon as Charlie lay down on his own floor, Claire suddenly screamed, and the phone in her hand was thrown out and hit his face.

Charlie couldn't care about the pain, and asked her hurriedly: "What's wrong with you, wife?"

Claire's expression was extremely ugly, and said: "The YouTube suddenly pulled out a video, it is disgusting..."

Charlie said curiously: "Let me see how disgusting it is."

With that said, he was going to get Claire's mobile phone that had fallen on the floor.

Claire hurriedly said, "Oh, don't look at it, it's disgusting..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Where can the nausea be no more?"

After speaking, he picked it up and took a look, and was stunned.

Well, it turned out to be Wu Qi who liked to give girls psychological hints...

From the appearance of his hysterics in the video, he can be sure that the hypnotism he gave him worked.

Chapter 472

It's really pleasing to see him being so frustrated.

He has to eat it every hour. This person is basically over for the rest of his life. There is no chance to ruin the little girl.

So Charlie locked the screen of her phone and smiled and said to Claire: "I've heard of this guy."

"Really?" Claire asked in surprise: "How did you hear of him?"

Charlie said: "This guy is very bad, he likes to brainwash the little girl, and then force the little girl to self-harm and commit suicide."

With that said, Charlie recounted the criminal history of this guy.

When Claire heard this, she immediately said angrily: "This guy is too damned! Who is not raised by his parents, why should he hurt others?"

Charlie said earnestly: "In this society, there are always sumbags who like to hurt others for pleasure. Such scm is the dregs of the society. Sooner or later, we will get rid of it."

Claire nodded approvingly, and said, "It seems that he deserves what he has become today!"

After watching this kind of video, Claire felt a little lingering, so she stopped playing with the mobile phone, but stretched out and said, "Oh, I'm sleepy, Charlie, help me charge my mobile phone. I am going to bed."

"Okay," Charlie replied and put the charge to her phone.

In the middle of the night, when Charlie was about to fall asleep, his cell phone suddenly buzzed twice. He turned on the cell phone and saw that it was a WeChat message sent to him by Orvel: "Mr. Wade, there are a few Japanese people who are lying in ambush at Mr. Shi. the Clinic, it seems that he is about to act on the genius doctor Tianqi!"

Charlie said: "Some of them are probably trying to rob the Old Master of medicine."

"d*mn!" Orvel blurted out: "These gangsters dare to get the idea of a magical medicine, Mr. Wade, with your word, I will immediately take the brothers to catch them and take them to my kennel. Chop them up and feed the Tibetan Mastiff!"

"Don't." Charlie said with a smile: "This group of people are not small, they are the eldest son of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical in Japan, I am going to dig a big hole for him, you let your brothers secretly protect Tianqi's safety, as for them If they grab the medicine, let them take it away. I deliberately prepared the medicine for them."

In order to pit Ichiro, Charlie specially refined a few fake Pills and gave them to Tianqi.

This pill is magical, no matter what the other party's disease is, even if he is on the verge of death, and only a breath is left, just take one pill, and he will be able to return to the light and live for an hour or two.

But its consequences are also terrible, that is, after these two hours of vigorous life, the person taking the medicine will die immediately, and there is no cure.

In fact, this pill is not a poison in itself, but a panacea that can ensure that the other party finishes his dying instructions.

The effect of the medicine is to overdraw all vitality to support one or two hours of return to light.

In this way, the person taking the medicine can clearly explain all the funeral matters.

This kind of medicine was specially configured for emperors and generals in ancient times. Generally, when the emperor was dying of illness, he would prepare a Pill of Returning Light, so that at least he could arrange the affairs well before he died.

But in modern times, this thing is actually useless.

Moreover, its final medicinal effect is a bit too hard, even if a healthy person eats it, after two hours of life, he will definitely be cold.

Therefore, in modern times, this medicine is more like a poison.

Charlie had seen this medicine in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures a long time ago, and felt that it was useless, so he didn't take it seriously.

However, this time he felt that this fake med finally came in handy and could be used to pit Ichiro!

Chapter 473

After explaining Orvel, Charlie called Issac again.

As soon as the call was made, he immediately asked him: "After Ichiro succeeds tonight, he will definitely escape from China in the shortest time, so you must set up a net in Aurous Hill. Anyone can run within his group, except He can't run!"

Issac said immediately: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade I have all arranged. If this Ichiro runs away, he will meet you!"

After that, Issac promised: "The medicine that Ichiro robbed, I also promised by the head that they will never be taken out of China!"

"Don't!" Charlie said hurriedly: "All I want is to let them take the medicine away. Remember, medicine can leave China, and doglegs can leave China, but Ichiro must not leave China!"

Issac hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade I understand! Don't worry, Ichiro will not escape!"

"Okay!" Charlie smiled slightly, and said: "After catching Ichiro, just find me a hidden place to take care of him, and I will meet him in person!"

"OK Master!"

.....

Ichiro didn't know, at this time there was already an invisible big net, tightly covering his head.

At this time, he was sitting in a Maybach sedan, which was parked opposite to the Clinic, and several of his men were already hidden around the door of the Clinic, ready to touch in at any time.

His father, Masao Kobayashi, has been bedridden and paralyzed for three years. In the past three years, his father has been investigating him, and his younger brother Jiro, according to his father, whoever made great contributions to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, can inherit his president position.

His younger brother Jiro, himself an expert in pharmaceuticals, has been studying Kampo for many years, so in the past few years, he has created a lot of Kampo medicines for his family. The sales are very good, so he is highly regarded by his father.

In contrast, Ichiro is a bit sad. He is not a student of pharmacy, but of finance. This kind of person is more suitable for real estate and can blow bubbles in various ways, but it is really a bit for medicine. Doesn't match well.

For things like medicine, it is necessary to rely on real good medicines to open the market.

If you have a magic drug, you can make a lot of money just by relying on the word of mouth of consumers.

But if your medicine is ineffective, no amount of advertising will work. Consumers will never use it again after using it once.

Therefore, his brother Jiro has a much greater chance of success in the family than his eldest son.

As a last resort, he came to China to participate in the China traditional medicine Expo, in order to see if he could also discover some good Chinese prescriptions, and bring them back to the family for use. If he could make a remarkable achievement, he would have a chance. Take the initiative.

When he heard at the exposition that the Chinese genius doctor Tianqi had cured a high paraplegia some time ago, his whole body suddenly became excited.

If you can get this prescription, then you will not only restore his father, but also bring huge business opportunities to the family! It is even possible for Kobayashi Pharmaceutical to grow and develop several times, dozens of times!

Chapter 474

Therefore, his future is all pinned on tonight!

Thinking of this, Ichiro, who was so excited, immediately called his father.

The paralyzed dad received his call and asked, "Ichiro, where have you been these days? Why didn't you come to see me?"

Ichiro hurriedly said: "Dad, I am seeking medicine for you in China! I heard that there is a genius doctor in China who actually cured a patient with high paraplegia some time ago!"

"Is this true?!" Masao Kobayashi said in surprise: "Is there a magical doctor in China who can cure high paraplegia?!"

"Yes!" said Ichiro, "I have checked the records of the hospital and confirmed that the patient was really cured, and I have also been inquiring about it. The people in the hospital said that it was the Chinese genius doctor's half a magic medicine that cures the high paraplegia patient!"

"Half a magic drug?!" Masao Kobayashi was a little bit incoherent with excitement!

During the three years he was paralyzed, life felt extremely painful.

He himself is a very famous entrepreneur and has wealth. However, he was suddenly paralyzed in bed and lost the opportunity to enjoy life. This made him feel a little miserable.

In the past few years, he has been looking for a way to heal himself, but in the world, there is no medical method that can restore the paralyzed patient to the original. Even if it is physical therapy, it is difficult for him to stand up, let alone walk and live like ordinary people.

However, he suddenly heard his son say that Chinese genius doctors have such superb medical treatment methods, and he suddenly yearned for it!

So, he couldn't help but exhorted excitedly: "Ichiro, even if you spend 100 million, you have to buy this magical medicine!"

Ichiro hurriedly said: "Dad, that genius doctor doesn't know what is good or bad, and is unwilling to sell me the medicine. I am ready to do it tonight to snatch his medicine and send it to Tokyo overnight for you to take!"

As he said, Ichiro said again: "By the way, I heard that this genius doctor has more than one genius medicine. If you eat the leftovers, you can study and analyze it for our team of pharmacists. If we can crack this prescription, then our Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is about to develop! We will definitely be able to become the world's top pharmaceutical company with this drug! Win glory!"

"Okay! Great!" Masao Kobayashi said excitedly: "You really deserve to be my good son! You must do it beautifully for me, and do it as soon as possible!"

Ichiro hurriedly said: "Dad, don't worry, my private jet is already waiting at Aurous Hill Airport. After the medicine is available, I will leave a few people behind, and then immediately go to Aurous Hill Airport to fly back to Tokyo, as long as my plane can go smoothly. Taking off, then no one can ever stop me!"

Masao Kobayashi said excitedly: "In this case, you will be able to arrive in Tokyo three hours after the plane takes off! I can take this magical medicine for up to four hours! Great! I finally have a chance to stand up again. Up!"

Ichiro burst into tears and said, "Father! With the blessing of Amaterasu, you will definitely enjoy endless glory and wealth in this life, and illnesses will definitely leave you!"

"This is good!" Masao Kobayashi was excited and said: "Ichiro, you must be more careful and don't miss it. I'm in Tokyo, waiting for your good news!"

Ichiro said immediately: "Father, please rest assured, I must come back with the magic medicine and let you stand up again!"

Chapter 475

After hanging up the phone, Ichiro was so excited that he almost went crazy!

If he can get this miraculous medicine, then he will be able to become the successor of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!

This time in China, it is really a bargain!

At this moment, the assistant on the Maybach co-pilot turned around and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, it's already eleven o'clock, shall we?"

Ichiro nodded and sneered: "Do it!"

The assistant took out the walkie-talkie and immediately ordered: "Do it now!"

As soon as the voice fell, six men in black sneaked into Tianqi's Clinic quietly.

Tonight, Tianqi is living in the small bedroom behind the Clinic.

He is here, waiting for the Japanese to come.

However, to be safe, he still let his granddaughter Zhovia go to the hotel.

After the six men in black touched into the Clinic, they immediately came to Tianqi's sleeping room and saw Tianqi lying on the bed. One of them immediately covered his mouth, pointed his gun at his temple, and said coldly: "Don't yell, cooperate with us obediently and spare you for not dying!"

Tianqi "panicked" and asked: "You...what are you going to do!"

"Hand over the magical medicine!" The man in black said coldly: "Otherwise, blow your head!"

Tianqi trembled with fright, and blurted out: "Don't shoot, don't shoot! I'll give it to you!"

After speaking, he reached into the small pocket inside the pajamas and took out a very high-end small wooden box.

The wooden box also carried the temperature of Tianqi's body as he kept it close to the body, showing how precious it is.

The other party took the wooden box, opened it, and found that there were four pills in it. He was so excited that he immediately reported through the walkie-talkie: "Report Mr. Kobayashi, we have found four magical medicines!"

"Four?! Great!" Ichiro said excitedly: "Quickly withdraw! Give me the medicine!"

The man asked: "What about this old thing?"

Ichiro said: "Knock him out! As long as we fight for an hour, we will succeed!"

"Okay!" The other party immediately knocked Tianqi's head with the spear, Tianqi tilted his head and immediately passed out.

At this time, many of the good players Orvel found were staring secretly. If the other party really wants to hurt Tianqi's life, then follow Charlie's instructions and act on them immediately!

But if the other party didn't mean to hurt the Old Master's life, he would have to work hard and bear it first.

Tianqi was indeed knocked out, but fortunately, there was no danger to his life.

After these guys succeeded, they immediately withdrew from Clinic. One of them came to the Maybach car on the opposite side of the road. With the window down, he hurriedly handed the wooden box to Ichiro and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, here is the medicine!"

Ichiro couldn't wait to open his eyes, and he was shaking with excitement when he smelled the strong fragrance of medicine!

"Great!" Ichiro said excitedly: "Your lord, let's go to the airport first and set off for Tokyo immediately!"

After that, he immediately told the driver: "Drive! Go to the airport at the fastest speed!"

Then, he said to his assistant on the first officer: "Notify the crew to prepare for takeoff now. After I arrive, the plane will take off immediately without any delay! In case the Chinese react and stop us from taking off, everything It's all over!"

Chapter 476

The assistant smiled and said, "Mr. Ichiro, don't worry, the Chinese can't respond so quickly. We'll drive to the airport in half an hour at most. It's also very fast to go through the VIP channel and go through the security check. An hour later, we must have taken off. At that time, even the gods will not be able to stop us!"

Ichiro's Maybach immediately drove away and directly boarded the airport expressway, preparing to reach the airport at the fastest speed, and then return to Tokyo by private jet.

Along the way, Ichiro's excitement speeded up. He repeatedly looked at the four magic medicines and muttered to himself: "The Kobayashi family will rely on it to build a global presence! At that time, I will also rely on it to become Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd's president!"

Maybach speeded all the way and soon arrived at Aurous Hill Airport.

As soon as the car stopped, Ichiro was about to get off and enter the airport at the fastest speed.

However, at the moment he just got out of the car, suddenly eight Mercedes-Benz big G off-road vehicles drove over and surrounded him and his Maybach.

Soon, thirty bodyguards in black came down from the eight cars. These people are all masters carefully trained by Issac, with extraordinary strength!

Issac got out of a big G, looked at Ichiro, and said coldly: "Mr. Kobayashi, our master is here, please come over and chat!"

"Your master?!" Ichiro hid the pill in his pocket and asked nervously, "Who is your master? Do you know who I am? I'm the vice chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Issac stretched out his hand and patted his face, and said indifferently: "You Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is a Japanese company. What are you pretending to be in China? There is an old Chinese saying that the dragon is not the river. Japan and China are separated by the sea. What are you pretending to be with me?"

Ichiro suddenly became nervous.

He didn't know what these people were stopping him for, was it because of magical medicine, or something else?

If it was because of the magical medicine, then it was really a bit dangerous this time, not to mention, this group of people is so strong, it is difficult to let go, and it is impossible for him to escape.

However, if they are because of other things, does that mean that he can still send the medicine back to Japan first?

Thinking of this, he pretended to be calm and asked: "Who is your young master?"

Issac said indifferently: "Mr. Kobayashi, your Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has plagiarized so many ancient Chinese prescriptions. Presumably your family must have a good understanding of the situation in China. You should have heard of the Wade family?!"

"Wade Family?!" Ichiro was shocked!

How could he have never heard of Eastcliff Wade's family?

After all, this is China's top family, and its family strength is also ranked top in the world. Even the big super chaebols in Japan are not as good as the Wade family, not to mention that there is only one Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

He panicked all of a sudden, and blurted out: "I don't know what your young master is asking for?"

Issac said indifferently: "If you have anything, you will know if you come with me."

Ichiro asked nervously, "What if I don't go?"

Issac smiled faintly, took out a pistol from his arms, and said lightly: "Since our master has ordered, then I must take you there. If I can't take you alive, then you will die!"

Ichiro was worried, but he was more concerned about whether he could send the magic medicine back first!

This is the key to laying his foundation in the family!

Thinking of this, he asked tentatively: "Can I go with you and let my assistant go back to Japan first? He still has a lot of important things to deal with."

Issac laughed and said generously: "Of course, everyone except you can go."

Ichiro breathed a sigh of relief, and quickly quietly handed the box containing the magic medicine to the assistant, patted his shoulder, and said, "You go back by plane first, tell my father, just say I'm fine, and I will come back soon to meet him!"

Chapter 477

Ichiro gave the stolen magic medicine to the assistant. Seeing the assistant enter the airport, he was relieved and asked Issac, "I don't know where your master is?"

Issac said lightly: "You'll know if you follow me."

After speaking, they winked at the two people around him, and they immediately clamped him to the left and right, and took one of the big gs.

The convoy quickly left the airport and headed to the dog farm opened by Orvel in the suburbs.

On the way to the dog farm, Issac called Charlie and said, "Mr. Wade Ichiro has been controlled by me. I will take him to the dog farm of Orvel. If you want to come over, I'll send someone to pick you up!"

Charlie glanced at Claire, who was asleep, and said, "After arranging the car for five minutes, come downstairs to my house."

After making a bracelet for Claire with a clam that was worth hundreds of millions, Claire was able to rest very securely while wearing it. She would almost never wake up at night, so Charlie didn't worry that she would find out.

Five minutes later, Charlie went downstairs. A Rolls-Royce was already parked downstairs. The driver Charlie had never seen him, but he recognized Charlie, opened the door respectfully, and said, "Mr. Wade please. "

Charlie nodded, got in the car, and the car drove out of the city quickly.

When Charlie arrived at Orvel's kennel, Issac had already arrived.

This is the first time Charlie has come to Orvel's dog farm. Although he has heard about this place for a long time, he has never been to this place.

The location of this kennel is very small and the scale is very large. As soon as he got off the car, he heard countless dogs called a group, and the voices of these dogs were very low and heavy, and they sounded like large dogs.

It is said that Mr. Orvel set up this kennel mainly to raise, breed and train some fighting dogs for underground dogfighting. People in the underground world are obsessed with fighting dogs, and they often organize competitions, betting tens of millions.

In addition to raising dogs, Mr. Orvel also regarded this place as a torture ground. Some people who needed to evaporate from the world were sent here by him to become rations for vicious dogfighting.

In the yard of the kennel, there is a three-story building. This building is usually used by the staff for rest and office. There is also a warehouse for storing dog food underground, and a secret room for Mr. Orvel to use lynching.

At this time, Ichiro was tied with his hands and hung on a frame in the dark.

The underground world of Aurous Hill is no different from the underground worlds of Hong Kong and Taiwan. It is very strict with rules and regulations, and its various habits are the same as those of the youth gang a hundred years ago. Once the interests of the gang are violated, the first thing is to face is lynching.

Also detained here with Ichiro, and the six men in black who robbed Tianqi's "magic medicine".

When Ichiro saw the six of them here, he was frightened.

He realized that this matter might have something to do with the magic drug. He didn't know how the Chinese would deal with him if they knew that the magic drug was taken away by him?

At this time, Charlie stepped in.

Issac greeted him respectfully and bowed: "Mr. Wade Ichiro and his six doglegs are here."

Charlie nodded, looked at Ichiro, and smiled slightly: "Mr. Kobayashi, let's meet again."

"Ah...you...you are..." Ichiro suddenly remembered Charlie!

At the traditional medicine Expo, when he went to ask Tianqi for a prescription, he was right there, and because he was just an assistant or subordinate of Tianqi, he didn't expect that he turned out to be the young master of the Wade family!

Charlie looked at the hanged Ichiro, and said coldly: "Mr. Kobayashi, you are so courageous! You dare to send someone to administer the old magic medicine. Are you tired of your life?"

Hearing this, Ichiro suddenly panicked and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, this is all a misunderstanding!"

"Misunderstanding?" Charlie pointed to the six people in black who were tied on the ground next to him, and asked with a sneer, "Aren't these six people yours?"

Ichiro hurriedly shook his head: "No, I don't even know them!"

Chapter 478

Charlie nodded and asked the six people back: "Do you know him?"

The six people looked blank, as if they could not speak Chinese at all.

At this time, Issac stepped forward and translated a sentence in Japanese. The six people also shook their heads and talked a lot.

Soon, Issac said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade they said they didn't know this Ichiro."

"Oh." Charlie nodded, and said lightly: "Since you don't know him, then pick one from them, chop and feed the dog, and then ask the remaining five people."

"Okay!" Issac immediately translated Charlie's words, and the six of them were shocked and dumbfounded.

They couldn't believe that Charlie only asked one sentence, and he was about to arrest someone and feed to the dog!

Could it be that he really has such courage? !

Charlie said to Mr. Orvel at this time: "Mr. Orvel, your venue is more familiar to you. Take these six people out, weigh them one by one, choose the heaviest one, chop him for dogs, and let the rest Five observe it live! Then bring them back for questioning!"

Mr. Orvel asked respectfully: "Mr. Wade what if they admit in advance?"

Charlie said lightly: "It's too late now, so you have to chop off even if they admit in advance!"

Ichiro's fright is gone! The difference from the six subordinates is that he understands and immediately understands the meaning of Charlie's words!

The living person chopped up to feed the dog, is this Wade family's young master so cruel? !

What if he really wants to chop him? !

The six unknown men in black were taken out by Mr. Orvel's men.

Ten minutes later, They heard the dogs in the entire kennel boil!

Subsequently, the remaining five subordinates were dragged back like dead dogs.

Without exception, all five of them were frightened and convulsed violently.

As soon as they entered, the five people went crazy and yelled at Ichiro in Japanese.

Issac helped Charlie to translate: "Mr. Wade these people are telling Ichiro that they saw their companion was chopped to feed the dog."

Charlie nodded, then looked at Ichiro, he was so scared that he passed out.

So Charlie said coldly: "Ichiro, I'll give you one last chance, to be honest, otherwise, your fate will be exactly the same as the one just now!"

Although Ichiro wanted to contribute to the family, it was not based on the premise that he would die, so when he realized that Charlie might really kill him, he was almost shocked!

So he hurriedly pleaded: "Mr. Wade, I will speak, I will say everything! I let them snatch Tianqi's magical medicine. Please forgive me, or you can say the number, I am willing to pay for it!"

Charlie asked with a black face, "Where is the medicine?"

Ichiro said: "The medicine, I let my assistant take it to the airport..."

Charlie asked again: "Has the plane taken off?"

Ichiro nodded again and again: "It should have taken off, and it should be out of China's airspace now!"

Charlie gritted his teeth and said, "How dare you snatch the magic medicine? Good! Very good, since Chinese magic medicine has been taken to Japan by your people, then I will save your life. In China!"

Chapter 479

Ichiro was so scared that Charlie cried!

He is not a dead man himself, but a rich young master, thinking in his heart to win glory for the family, which is also based on what he can enjoy.

Now that he was caught by Charlie and trapped in a kennel, he might at any time incarnate the delicious food in the mouths of countless evil dogs. At this time, he was naturally afraid and regretful.

So he cried and said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, I beg you, tell me the number, no matter how much money, I am willing to pay you! Otherwise, I will call my father and let him inform the crew, The plane turned around directly back to Aurous Hill and returned the medicine to you intact, do you think it's okay?"

Charlie said, "You're less f*cking bluffing me, you treat me as if I don't know? Many companies now have very advanced component analysis equipment. When you put things in the equipment, you can analyze all the components in a few minutes. Kobayashi Pharmaceutical itself It's a big pharmaceutical company. There must be such an instrument, right?"

Ichiro nodded like pounding garlic, and cried and said, "There are real ones, but I didn't bring them this time when I came to China! So you can rest assured, as long as the magic drug is not sent to our laboratory at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, we can't get into the ingredients."

Charlie sneered and said, "Do you think I will believe it if you say it? Maybe you have this kind of instrument on your plane, maybe you have now got a list of all the ingredients of the magic medicine, maybe you have scraped a little from the magic medicine. Powder, this powder is enough for you to go back and study the ingredients!"

Ichiro cried and said, "Mr. Wade, I will use my personality to vouch for you..."

Charlie slapped him directly, and cursed: "You are a robber and thief, and you f*cking mention your personality with me?"

Ichiro suddenly had nothing to say.

Charlie is right. He is indeed a robber and thief. Talking about personality at this time is really a little black humor...

Ichiro hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade, then you say a solution, as long as it is within my ability, I will definitely follow it!"

Charlie said: "In fact, it is simple. Since you have stolen this magical medicine, then I guess the formula must have been obtained by you, so it is better for you to directly pay for the formula of this medicine."

Ichiro nodded immediately and said, "No problem! Absolutely no problem! Mr. Wade, you can make a price, and I can report to my family immediately!"

Charlie said indifferently: "10 billion, otherwise, I will kill you. By the way, I will expose your Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's theft of formulas internationally, so that your Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's reputation will be discredited all over the world!"

Ichiro was taken aback and blurted out: "Mr. Charlie, ten billion is too much...We...we really don't have so much money..."

"Tell me?" Charlie said coldly: "I have already investigated your Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, and the benefits of your Kobayashi Pharmaceutical are still very good, with a net profit of 2 billion a year, plus some time ago you just borrowed a large sum of money from the bank to invest in the construction of Asia's largest production base in Osaka, Japan. This money should be in your Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's account?!"

Ichiro tremblingly said, "Mr. Wade, let's tell you, this money is the most important thing for us at Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. It is completely controlled by my father. I am not in charge!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Then call your father and tell him! Immediately!"

After speaking, Charlie said to Issac: "People let go of his right hand and give him his mobile phone."

Issac personally let go of his right hand and handed him his mobile phone.

Chapter 480

Ichiro had to pluck up courage and call his father.

At this time, Masao Kobayashi was anxiously waiting for the magic medicine to arrive in Tokyo.

He himself was really impatient, so he had his family put him in an ambulance and sent him directly to the airport to wait.

The Kobayashi family has an eye-catching eye in Tokyo, and their private jet has an independent hangar at Tokyo Airport. There is also a very high-end lounge in this hangar, which is owned by the Kobayashi family. Therefore, Masao Kobayashi took his second son, Jiro, Right here, waiting for the magic medicine to land.

Suddenly received a call from Ichiro, Masao Kobayashi hurriedly asked: "Ichiro, I heard that you didn't board the plane when the plane took off? Where are you now?"

Ichiro hurriedly said: "Father, I was left behind by the Wade Family of Eastcliff. He accused us of stealing magical medicine and prescriptions. Now he wants us to buy out the patents for the prescriptions with 10 billion. Otherwise, I will be required to give my life and he will expose Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's theft of prescriptions..."

"What?!" Masao Kobayashi blurted out loudly: "b*stard! Why are you so careless in your affairs!"

Ichiro cried out: "Father, I'm already very careful, but I still don't know why I was discovered by them, but now you must save me, otherwise, I will die!"

Masao Kobayashi said coldly: "Ten billion is simply a fantasy. I will never agree to it! If they can agree to a billion, I can accept it!"

Charlie has been listening to Issac's translation. Hearing this, he sneered and said, "Mr. Masao Kobayashi, with all due respect, the magic medicine you stole is a magic medicine with strong repairing ability to deal with your own injury, high position. Paraplegia can be cured, not to mention other similar diseases. If this drug is put on the market, it will make at least 10 billion a year. This is are cheap bargain, understand?"

Masao Kobayashi snorted and said, "How do I know if this medicine is as godly as you say?"

Charlie said: "Simple, in more than an hour, our magic medicine will land in Tokyo. I heard that you are also paralyzed in bed. At that time, you can take our magic medicine and you will be able to recover in ten minutes at most. When you personally experience the effects of the medicine, pay the money, otherwise, I will immediately expose your son's drug stealing to the world, so that your Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's reputation will be discredited."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Oh, yes, your son will definitely die by then!"

Masao Kobayashi was also a little nervous at this time.

The evidence that his son was caught and the medicine was taken by others, if he refuses to cooperate, once exposed, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will indeed be spurned by the world.

At that time, the Japanese government will also prohibit its own production of this magic drug in compliance with international law.

In that way, it would have been a waste of water in the bamboo basket, failing to fight a fox, and causing a commotion.

What's more, it is also possible to cost him the life of his son.

However, if this medicine really has such a good effect, then ten billion is really nothing. If he gives this ten billion to Charlie, it is estimated that he will be able to earn it back within one year, and the next year will be blood earning up many times!

Thinking of this, Masao Kobayashi immediately said, "Okay! If your magical medicine really restores me to the same level as before, then I will give you 10 billion and buy out this prescription exclusively!"

Chapter 481

After an hour.

A Global Express private jet landed at Tokyo Narita Airport.

After the plane landed, it taxied all the way to its own hangar.

In the hangar, Kobayashi has been waiting for a long time.

As soon as the plane entered the hangar and stopped and the cabin door opened, Ichiro's assistant jumped down eagerly, holding the medicine box in both hands, and ran to Masao Kobayashi.

At this time, Masao Kobayashi was sitting in a wheelchair looking forward to it, his second son, Jiro Kobayashi, behind him, pushing the wheelchair blankly.

Jiro was very annoyed in his heart. Originally, he was already in the family heir's competition, relying on his strength to hold down his brother, but he did not expect that he would go to China to steal a magic drug.

If this medicine is so magical as it is said, then it can not only cure the father's disease but also bring huge profits to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

At that time, the little advantage that he had accumulated for so many years will be gone!

Ichiro's assistant offered the magic medicine to Masao Kobayashi and blurted out: "Chairman! This is the magic medicine that the vice chairman desperately obtained, and asked me to give it to you!"

Masao Kobayashi nodded, and couldn't wait to say, "Give me the pill!"

The assistant hurriedly opened the box and handed the pill, and the servant next to him hurriedly delivered a glass of warm water.

Masao Kobayashi tremblingly took the pill, put it under his nose and smelled it, and exclaimed, "It's so rich and pure medicine. The smell of this medicine is refreshing!"

After speaking, he opened his mouth without hesitation, swallowed the pill, and took a sip of water to take it.

Everyone is staring at him, wondering if this magical medicine is as magical as it is said.

It is said that even high paraplegia can be cured. Isn't that shocking?

At this time, Masao Kobayashi felt a burst of warmth in his abdomen, and the warmth quickly spread throughout his body. The places it went was hot and comfortable. He couldn't help but sigh: "It's really amazing, I haven't felt my legs for a long time, but the medicine actually made me feel my legs start to get hot!"

A few minutes later, he felt that his whole body was filled with a powerful sense of strength, as if he had suddenly returned to the state he was ten years ago or even twenty years ago!

He was so excited that he tried to control his legs and wanted to stand up. He didn't expect that with a little effort, he would really stand up!

"Oh my God!"

The people around were amazed!

Jiro has been stunned!

He is learning medicine, he naturally knows that there is a problem with the nervous system, and how difficult it is to treat it.

No matter how rich people are, once they are paralyzed, they cannot be cured completely, and it is impossible even to stand up.

However, this magical medicine only took ten minutes to make his father who had been paralyzed for more than three years stand up!

This...is too amazing?

In this way, it can not only cure high paraplegia, hemiplegia, and stroke, but also treat diseases such as Parkinson's, after all, they are all related to the nervous system!

Then this medicine is really an invincible magic medicine!

At this moment, Masao Kobayashi tried to move forward. He thought he would be stumbling, but he didn't expect that he felt flat and relaxed!

Masao Kobayashi is so excited!

He walked faster and faster, and even turned, jumped slightly, and even trot a few steps. The whole person was in an extremely good state. Not only was he cured of his paralysis, but he was also twenty years younger!

The health doctor of the Kobayashi family immediately went forward to check his condition and said shockedly: "President! Your damaged nervous system is really fully restored! This is a medical miracle!"

Chapter 482

"Yeah! A miracle! This is a miracle that Amaterasu may not be able to achieve even when he appears!"

Masao Kobayashi was almost mad with excitement.

Just when he was ecstatic and excited, Charlie called.

"Mr. Masao Kobayashi, how do you feel?"

Masao Kobayashi was completely convinced by the magic drug at this time, and he blurted out excitedly: "Mr. Charlie, I accept your terms! I will purchase the patent for this magic drug for 10 billion!"

Charlie snorted and said, "I will send you the card number, and you will send the money in 20 minutes. Otherwise, I will expose what you did to the whole world."

Masao Kobayashi hurriedly said: "Mr. Charlie, please rest assured, I will arrange for the financial staff to transfer the money!"

For the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, all the funds on the books add up to a little more than 10.2 billion, of which more than 70% are loans. However, for Masao Kobayashi, this tens of billions of spending is worth it!

With this magic drug, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will surely become the world's top pharmaceutical company in the future!

A few minutes later, Charlie received a text message reminder: Japan's Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has transferred 1.427 billion USD into his account, equivalent to 10 billion.

The money has arrived, Charlie smiled slightly and said to Masao Kobayashi: "Mr. Kobayashi, Mr. Ichiro and I wish you good luck together."

After speaking, he immediately hung up.

Ichiro said excitedly: "Mr. Wade, since you have received the money, can you let me go now?"

Charlie smiled mysteriously and said, "You're so anxious to leave?"

Ichiro said excitedly: "I want to go back to Tokyo quickly and prepare to take over Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Charlie laughed and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, don't worry, in half an hour, you may beg me to take you in."

"What do you mean?" Ichiro asked in surprise, "Are you going to regret it?"

Charlie sneered, and said arrogantly: "You always talk with Charlie. If you want to go, you can leave now, but if you run back and ask me to protect you, then I will consider it."

Ichiro frowned, not knowing what Charlie meant, but he just wanted to go back to Japan at this time, so he hurriedly said, "Thank you, Mr. Charlie, for your kindness, but please send me and my hands to the airport. I want to buy the earliest airplane back to Japan!"

Charlie shook his head: "You can go, but the five of them can't."

Ichiro hurriedly asked, "What does this mean?"

Charlie said: "These five people were not included in the deal we just talked about. Moreover, these five people dared to commit armed robbery on our land. This is a heinous crime and a price must be paid!"

Ichiro blurted out: "Mr. Charlie, there is no need to rush to exterminate them, right?!"

Charlie said indifferently: "If you don't kill chickens to show the monkeys, tomorrow there may be Dalin Pharmaceutical, Matsushita Pharmaceutical, and Sony Pharmaceuticals coming to China to behave recklessly. If you push me more, I will have your tongue cut off. "

Ichiro looked horrified. He glanced at the five subordinates who were confused because they couldn't understand the language. He gritted his teeth and said, "Okay! Then please send me to the airport first!"

Charlie said to Mr. Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, you send him personally. If he cries to you later and says that he wants to come back, then you can bring him back again, but before bringing him back, find a place to stop the Car, hit him, let him remember."

"Good!" Mr. Orvel nodded respectfully, and said to Ichiro: "Mr. Kobayashi, please."

Ichiro looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Mr. Charlie, you seem to be too confident. I will never return to this ghost place! Goodbye!"

Charlie smiled without saying a word.

It is estimated that in another twenty minutes or half an hour, your Old Master Masao Kobayashi will be cold, and there is 90% chance of your brother thinking that you deliberately harmed the Old Master.

Even if he doesn't doubt you, in order to eradicate your troubles, he will definitely push the death of the Old Master on you.

At that time, maybe you will be chased by Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, dare to return to Japan, it will be strange not to be chopped into meat!

Chapter 483

Mr. Orvel drove to the airport with Ichiro full of excitement.

Ichiro is very excited now. Although the family has suffered severe bleeding and gave Charlie 10 billion, his father's paralysis is cured! Moreover, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical also got the prescription of the magic medicine.

With this prescription, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will soon be able to usher in rapid development.

When he becomes the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., you will be able to reach the pinnacle of his life!

Therefore, now he can't wait for himself to grow a pair of wings and immediately return to Tokyo to accept his father's parents and family's worship.

At this moment, in Tokyo, Japan, Masao Kobayashi, who has finally recovered to health, is experiencing the beauty of youth with excitement.

His physical condition has improved to an incredible level, so much so that he can't wait to find two young girls quickly to experience the refreshment after a long absence.

On the way out of the airport, Kobayashi had to drive by himself.

Two of his favorite things in his life, one is a woman, the other is a car.

For him, both of these can bring him a strong sense of control.

Women will not be easy to find for a while now, and when it recovers, he will find a woman. It may not be a good reputation for him, let alone the second son is still around.

But, driving is always possible, right?

Of course Jiro did not dare to disobey his father's decision. After all, he is already very passive now. If he waits for his eldest brother to return, then he will become a hero of the Kobayashi family, and he will be more passive then, so he must coax his father well at this time. .

So he hurriedly said: "Father, why don't you drive my Bentley sports car, didn't you like speed the most when you were young? That car is very dynamic, and it happens to be late at night, there are no cars on the road, you can take it for a run!"

"Okay!" Masao Kobayashi laughed and got into Jiro's Bentley sports car.

Jiro hurriedly got into the co-pilot and said respectfully: "Father, I did not expect that you could still ride the car I drove in this life. When I was a child, I liked to ride in the car that my father drove the most. At that time I had a strong sense of security."

Masao Kobayashi nodded, and sighed: "Jiro, this is a person's good fortune. Amaterasu might not have thought that I would have such an opportunity! This is simply the second spring of my life!"

Next to him, Jiro sat up with excitement and said, "Father, start the car. I can't wait to feel the greatness of my father's love again!"

Masao Kobayashi gave a hum, smiled and stretched out his hand to press the button for starting the engine.

However, after he stretched out his hand, he suddenly felt his body instantly stiffened, and the whole person suddenly lost control of his body...

Jiro watched his father's hand hanging in the air, but never pressed the activation button. He couldn't help asking, "Father, are you too excited?"

Masao Kobayashi was speechless, so he could only whimper twice as hard as he could. At this time, he already felt very difficult to breathe and was about to suffocate to death!

When Jiro looked at his father, he was shocked!

His father's face was black and purple, and the blood vessels on his neck and forehead were all violent, and the blue veins looked terrifying!

Jiro panicked, and blurted out: "Father! What's wrong with you?!"

Masao Kobayashi felt a pair of big hands stuck to his neck. He looked at Jiro with an expression of extreme pain, and said with all his strength, "This...this medicine is poisonous... ."

After speaking, the body suddenly lost all strength, tilted his head, foaming at the mouth...

Chapter 484

The medicine finally exerted its ultimate effect and killed Masao Kobayashi!

Masao didn't know when he was dying, the medicine he took was such a devil's medicine!

At this moment, Jiro hurriedly pushed the car door, and shouted at the family members who were about to board other vehicles: "Father is poisoned! The magical medicine my brother brought back is poisonous!"

When everyone heard this, it was like being struck by lightning!

A large group of people swarmed in, and the family doctor hurried to check.

It doesn't matter if they look at it, the Old Master is really dead!

At this time, Masao Kobayashi's expression was extremely distorted and terrifying, his complexion was black and his eyes were bloodshot, his mouth was open, and his death was extremely miserable!

After the doctor stepped forward to check, he tremblingly said: "The president, he really died of poison...Is the magic medicine poison?!"

The members of the entire Kobayashi family felt as if they were up there for a while, and they couldn't stand still!

If this magical medicine is poison, then...that would be a heavy loss!

Not only did the president's life wasted, but almost all of the cash that Kobayashi had now was remitted to the other party, most of which were bank loans! In this way, in the future, if Kobayashi Pharmaceutical repays the loan, it will take at least ten or eight years to repay it. How can there be any chance for rapid development? !

It is conceivable that the future of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will be in a slump!

Jiro looked extremely gloomy on the side.

Although he was also very distressed, but in his heart, he was also faintly excited.

Because he knew that in this way, his brother, Ichiro, would never be able to threaten him.

Not only can he not threaten him, but he will also kill him!

Killing father is a capital crime! As long as he dares to return to Japan, he will be chopped into meat sauce!

wrong!

Even if he does not return to Japan, he will send someone out to hunt him down!

Thinking of this, he immediately coldly said, "Brother Ichiro must have killed father! We can't forgive him for doing such a rebellious thing!"

The folklore of Japan is similar to that of China. In the traditions of these two countries, father killing is the biggest crime in the world!

So, Jiro gritted his teeth and said: "Now, I officially announce that Ichiro must pay the price of his life for killing father and rebelliousness! I have passed my order that I will temporarily take over the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., and at the same time announce to all gangs in Japan. The mission, kill Ichiro, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is willing to give him one billion yen!"

One billion yen, which is almost 50 million Yuan, is a huge sum.

Although Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals has just lost 10 billion and suffered a huge loss, it is a world-renowned pharmaceutical company after all. Lean Camel is bigger than a horse. Even if the future will be very difficult, it is not difficult to spend 1 billion yen.

This billion-yen bonus is enough for all Japanese gangs to hunt down Ichiro!

As long as he dies, he can naturally become the official chairman of the company!

The assistant of Ichiro was frightened by this sight. He hurried away from the airport while everyone was not paying attention to him. At the same time, he called Ichiro. As soon as the call was connected, he cried and said, "Mr. Ichiro! You! Don't come back to Japan! The master is dead, and the second master thinks that your magic drug killed him. Now he has a reward of one billion yen to killing you!"

Chapter 485

When Ichiro heard this, he was frightened suddenly!

Father is dead? And he died after taking his magical medicine? !

This... how is this possible?

Could it be that that magical medicine is poisonous in itself? !

Thinking of this, he was angry and frightened, and he wished to confront Charlie face to face!

It's fine if he lied to own 10 billion, and poisoned the Old Master to death. Isn't this too cruel?

However, if you think about Charlie's opponent again, what is the use of confronting him? Father is dead, it is impossible to resurrect, and it is impossible for Charlie to return the ten billion...

At this time, the assistant hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade you can find a place in China to hide well. Don't show up in a short time. I guess from tomorrow, there will be many Japanese gang members and killers who will come to Aurous Hill to find you. To take you down!"

Upon hearing this, Ichiro was even more panicked.

This is terrible, one billion yen is offered as a reward for his head, maybe he doesn't know how to die.

He suddenly remembered what Charlie said. He said to Mr. Orvel that if he cried and said he wanted to go back, then he would take him back. It seemed that he knew something like this would happen...

This b@stard! It is estimated that he specially set up a set and killed his father with poison!

At this moment, Ichiro couldn't wait to smash Charlie into ten thousand pieces.

However, thinking about it again, he can't go back to Japan now. If the Japanese gang members come to chase him tomorrow, he will have nowhere to hide in Aurous Hill...

It seems that only Charlie is his way of survival. After all, he has a strong background in China. No matter what gang in Japan, he cannot be his opponent.

So, he immediately said to Orvel: "Orvel! Could you please send me back to Mr. Charlie! Please!"

Mr. Orvel nodded faintly, pulled the car over, then walked to the co-pilot, opened the door and dragged Ichiro out, and without a word, he hit him with a punch in the face.

Ichiro yelled when he was beaten, and blurted out: "Mr. Wade what are you doing?"

Orvel said: "This is what our Charlie explained. If you say you want to go back, let me beat you up first, and then take you back!"

After finishing speaking, he kicked him to the ground and rode on him, and the big ears bowed left and right.

Although Orvel was older, he was a gangster, and his physical fitness was different from ordinary people. These few times made Ichiro dizzy, but Ichiro didn't dare to pretend to be forced by him, for fear of being abandoned.

After Orvel beat him up, he dragged him, threw him back into the car, and drove back to the kennel.

When he returned to the kennel, Ichiro's other five men had been fed the dogs. As soon as Ichiro was brought in, he cried and questioned Charlie: "Mr. Wade, why are you using fake drugs to lie to us? You hurt my father, he died, and now I am chased by my own brother. You are so vicious!"

Charlie curled his lips and said contemptuously: "Is your brain broken? When did I lie to you with fake drugs?"

Chapter 486

Ichiro said angrily: "My dad died suddenly after taking your medicine. Do you dare to say that it is not the medicine?"

Charlie shrugged his shoulders and said, "Can you take the medicine yourself? The whole process of this matter is: You took the poison yourself, listen carefully, you took it, understand? I didn't give it to you!"

After speaking, Charlie said again: "You robbed the poison yourself, you sent someone to give the poison to your dad, and then your dad died after eating the poison you sent to him. It's all your own. What does the trouble have to do with me? I f*cking asked you to grab the poison?"

Ichiro was speechless.

Charlie was right. From the very beginning, he took someone to Tianqi to grab the medicine, but he didn't expect that it was not a magic medicine at all, but a poison!

Even if Tianqi and Charlie joined forces to put them down, there was no way for him to sue him. After all, he was a robber and thief, and everything was his responsibility.

Therefore, people in the family, especially their younger brothers, cannot forgive him. They will definitely put the charge of killing dad on him...

Thinking of this, Ichiro knelt down to Charlie with a puff, crying and said, "Mr. Wade, this matter is indeed all my fault. I have a bad heart. I went to the genius doctor to grab the medicine. Please take me. It's also considered indirectly helping you earn 10 billion. Save my life, otherwise, I'll be dead..."

Charlie nodded and said, "I can temporarily take you in a kennel for a period of time. As long as you are still in this kennel, your brother and the Japanese gang will never find you."

Ichiro was relieved, and quickly kowtow to Charlie, saying, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Charlie said: "Accept you, but you can't eat and die here. You have to do whatever you need."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Let's do this, you first help at the kennel, raising the dog, walking the dog, and handling the dog's excrement."

Although Ichiro was 10,000 unhappy in his heart, he dared not say a word at this moment, so he nodded repeatedly and said, "No problem, Mr. Wade, I can do all these things."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, you go to make arrangements and let him help you at the kennel in the future, and then take care of him."

Orvel immediately said respectfully: "Mr. Wade don't worry, I will make arrangements."

Charlie said with a hum, "Okay, Kobayashi, you can follow Mr. Orvel."

Ichiro was thankful for following Orvel out of the dark.

After he left, Issac stepped forward and asked carefully: "Mr. Wade do you really want to keep this little Japanese in the kennel?"

Charlie said with a smile: "Keep him for now, and then wait for his brother to raise the price. For his brother, if his brother does not die, his position as the chairman will be unstable, and the more he can't be found. The more anxious he became, when he raised the price to one or two billion, he would sell him to his brother."

Issac was surprised and said, "In that case, Ichiro must die!"

"He deserves to die." Charlie said this, sneered, and said: "Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has repeatedly plagiarized our herbal medicine. This time I want to grab it directly. Do you think it is decades ago. When they invaded us? Since they dared to grab us, they must pay a price, otherwise, wouldn't they let people laugh at our Chinese children for not being tough enough?"

Issac said embarrassingly: "Mr. Wade, you have ruined them by 10 billion. People also took the life of the father in the family. Is the price of the Kobayashi family not enough?"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Of course it's not enough. I have to make Ichiro pay the price of his life for what he did! Otherwise, he thinks that after coming to China he could go wild, it will be enough to lose some money and his life, dreaming!"

Chapter 487

Ichiro didn't know that the moment Charlie took him in, he was already preparing to sell him.

Charlie didn't have any sympathy for Ichiro, on the contrary, in the depths of Charlie's heart, he still hated him very much.

Fortunately, I was on guard tonight. Otherwise, what if the real medicine on Tianqi is robbed?

Although not sure, whether the Japanese can analyze their own prescriptions, but once they really figure it out, won't they succeed?

Therefore, in his opinion, the actions of these Japanese people should be blamed!

Whether it is the six dead men in black, Masao Kobayashi in Tokyo, or Ichiro who is about to die, it is entirely self-blame.

Before dawn, Issac drove Charlie home.

Along the way, Issac had a new understanding of Charlie's strength.

He originally thought that Charlie was the down-and-out young master who lived outside the Wade Family. Now that he has been found, his biggest support is the Wade Family.

But he didn't expect this young master to have such a powerful strength!

Not only did he let many people from the upper class in Aurous Hill treat him respectfully in a short period of time, and now he even uses tricks to call the Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Pit in Japan a miserable one!

Bai gave Charlie 10 billion, not to mention, but also took in the life of Masao Kobayashi, and it won't be long before Ichiro's life will also come in.

Such a skill made Issac look at Charlie with admiration, and even deep inside, there was a bit more intense fear.

Charlie sat in the back of his car and said nothing.

When he was about to get home, he suddenly said to Issac, "Remember not to report to the Wade family about today's affairs."

Issac nodded hurriedly, and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade don't worry, I will keep my mouth shut!"

Issac is just a spokesperson for the Wade family in Nanguang Province, but for the entire Wade family, there are dozens or hundreds of spokespersons like him in the Wade family, all over the country, and even around the world.

Therefore, it is difficult for Issac to climb up.

But Charlie is in Aurous Hill now, this is his best chance to climb up! If Charlie can be appreciated, then one day Charlie will return to Eastcliff and inherit the family, and he will be able to ascend to heaven.

Therefore, he had already made a decision in his heart to treat Charlie as Master Wade, and as the only master, serve him well and be his dog.

Charlie was very satisfied with his attitude, nodded, and asked: "Yes, Fredmen from the Willson family in Eastcliff, and Wu Qi from the Wu family in Aurous Hill, Suzhou and Hangzhou. Have you heard of the current situation?"

Issac himself has a very powerful force in Aurous Hill. Before Charlie appeared, Mr. Orvel almost wanted to be his dog licking, so his intelligence network in Aurous Hill was very powerful. Charlie believed that many things could not escape him. Eyeliner.

Issac also replied very simply: "Back to the young master, Fredmen ran to the People's Hospital tonight. It is said that it was ulcerated there. The doctor said that 80% of them could not be saved and suggested that he amputate his limbs. went."

Charlie smiled and said, "I guess Fredmen took medicine randomly, right?"

"Almost." Issac said: "It is said that the Wei family has developed a new drug and asked him to try it first, but something went wrong."

Chapter 488

Charlie nodded.

He was very clear about Fredmen's situation. He used his true energy to directly destroy his nerves. In other words, he would not be able to regain his ability in his life. Not to mention that Tianqi did not give him the medicine, even if he did, it would be of no avail.

If Fredmen insisted on taking medicine indiscriminately to try to restore his abilities there, it would only allow the medicine power to accumulate in the roots, which could easily lead to tissue necrosis.

It seems that the Wei family is in trouble this time, and Fredmen is not a difficult kid, but a life-defying evil spirit. If the Wei family is not able to do that, he will never let go.

At this time, Issac said: "The second young master of the Wu family is now tied up in the Aurous Hill SanityLab Hospital. It is said that he has a very strange disease. He has to eat sh!t every hour. If he does not eat, he will die. Father and his brother flew over overnight and brought experts, but they were useless for birds. Now it is said that he is fed sh!t once an hour, which can barely save his life."

Speaking of this, Issac sighed: "I can be considered well-informed, but this is the first time I heard of this kind of thing. If it weren't for seeing the video on YouTube, I wouldn't believe it would not happen. It's really a big world, everything is amazing."

Charlie nodded, and asked curiously: "Where are his father and his brother?"

Issac said: "The current head of the Wu family is Wu Qi's grandfather. However, although the Wu family is run by, Wu Qi's father, Regnar, who is the eldest son, has already begun to take over the family business on a large scale. Not surprisingly, He must be the next generation Wu Patriarch."

After speaking, Issac said again: "As for Wu Qi's brother Roger, he just graduated from Cambridge University the year before, and now he has begun to take over part of the family business under Regnar's guidance. Regnar also regards Roger as a second Nurtured by a generation of heirs."

Charlie nodded. He knew that the Wu family had a relatively strong background and was considered the number one family in Aurous Hill, but in his eyes, the Wu family was really not afraid.

He taught the second son of their family because their second son was a brutal b@stard. If the Wu family refused to accept it and wanted to pursue it, then he wouldn't mind having fun with them.

At this time, Issac's car stopped downstairs at Charlie's house.

Charlie pushed the car door and said lightly: "You have been running around all night, and you have worked hard. Go back and rest early."

Issac nodded hurriedly: "OK Master, thank you for your concern!"

After getting off, the sky in the east was already pale.

When Charlie returned home, his wife Claire and his father-in-law were still asleep.

He returned to the bedroom lightly, seeing Claire lying on the bed sleeping soundly, he was relieved immediately.

Because of the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, his mental state has always been very good. Even if he didn't rest all night, he didn't feel tired. So he took out the 300-year-old purple ginseng that was bought for 100 million at auctions yesterday. Carefully observed for a moment.

This superb purple ginseng has a lot of medicinal strength, and it is more than enough to refine the rejuvenating pills with better medicinal effects.

The medicinal effect of this rejuvenating pill is very magical, it can make dead wood come in spring!

If the dying person takes it, he can rise from the dead and keep his life for several years;

Those who are in their old age can prolong their life by ten years or even longer if they take it;

Even if it is taken by a healthy ordinary person, it can make the body stronger, resistant to all poisons, and no disturbance to all diseases. To ordinary people, it can definitely be regarded as magic medicine in the world of medicine.

Although Charlie's body is already too much stronger than that of ordinary people, for him, if he can make a rejuvenating pill and take it regularly, his body can also be continuously tempered with medicine, and thus go further!

Therefore, Charlie decided to take time today to prepare all the remaining medicinal materials and refine the rejuvenating pills first!

Chapter 489

At seven o'clock in the morning, Claire woke up quietly.

Charlie heard the movement and hurriedly pretended to be asleep, lying motionless on the floor.

After Claire got up, sat on the bed and stretched out, looking at Charlie who was sleeping on the floor, suddenly a little distressed.

Ever since Charlie married her and became a live-in son-in-law, he has been sleeping on the floor for more than three years.

When he first got married, Claire really didn't feel anything about Charlie, and didn't like him at all.

However, after getting along these few years, she didn't know why, she felt more and more that with Charlie by her side, she would feel particularly safe.

Sometimes, even for fear that he would leave her suddenly.

During the recent period of time, so many things have happened at home, and it has made Claire feel more and more that Charlie is actually the person she can rely on most in this world. Apart from him, her dearest relatives are more than one. Not reliable.

Naturally, there is no need to talk about grandma, she didn't regard her as family at all;

As for her mother, it is also difficult for her to say a word. In her mother's eyes, she is the tool for her to reach the pinnacle of life and lead a rich life. Even if she has been married to Charlie for more than three years, she still hopes that she and Charlie get divorced and then married her to a rich man.

But her father was confused all day long, he would burn a lot of scent if he didn't get into trouble outside, let alone give her a little support at critical moments.

Therefore, it seemed that Charlie, who was sleeping on the floor, was the most reassuring.

Just as she looked at Charlie and the warmth in her heart was surging, the door of the room was suddenly pushed open.

As soon as she looked up, she saw her mother Elaine rushing in aggressively in her pajamas.

Claire couldn't help asking: "Mom, what are you doing? Why did you come in without knocking?!"

Elaine quickly ran to the other side of the bed, looked down, and saw Charlie asleep on the ground. Then she breathed a sigh of relief and muttered: "I had a nightmare. I dreamed that you were pregnant with Charlie's child, it almost scared me to death! So I came over to see if Charlie slept in your bed! Fortunately not!"

After speaking, Elaine reminded her while massaging her heart: "I'm telling you, I can't let Charlie get into your bed, do you hear me?"

Claire annoyed and said, "Mom, Charlie and I are husband and wife, it doesn't matter how we sleep!"

"bulls*it!" Elaine pinched her waist and said, "You were born to me, everything has to do with me! I can't allow my daughter's body to be occupied by this stinky silk!"

Claire said angrily: "Mom! Charlie saved your life!"

Elaine, with one hand on her hips and swinging one hand, said earnestly: "Don't talk to me about that useless thing, your mother and I have been walking in the arena for so many years, relying on only four words, heartless!"

After speaking, Elaine added seriously: "You have to be smart, a girl, the most valuable thing is her body, your body, with your looks, will divorce Charlie in the future. Why can't you find a billionaire? By that time, won't our family be in full bloom?"

Claire shook the quilt angrily, got up and said, "I am too lazy to tell you, I'm going to wash."

"Hey, you kid..." Elaine hurriedly chased her out, wanting to continue to educate her.

Charlie opened his eyes only after the mothers left the house, and felt a little bit of fire in his heart. This devil's mother-in-law is really an unfamiliar white-eyed wolf, and he will have to teach her a lesson someday.

Chapter 490

At 7:30, Charlie pretended to have just woke up, and after getting up to wash, he went out to buy something and come back earlier.

Claire hurriedly went to the company after eating. Elaine put down the dishes and she had to drag her old man Jacob to Tomson's villa. The villa has not been renovated yet, and she has lost a bit of patience.

Jacob was unwilling to go and persuaded her: "There are several floors in the villa, which add up to a thousand square meters. The decoration is already very laborious. If you say less, you have to plan according to the time of more than half a year. It is useless if you are anxious."

Elaine said dissatisfied: "I don't care. I have lived enough in this broken house. If the decoration is not good next month, then I would rather go to sleep in a rough villa instead of staying here."

After finishing speaking, Elaine urged: "Don't talk nonsense, go change clothes numbly, drive me over to see, and urge the progress, otherwise, I'll take all the bottles and cans you bought. I will throw it out!"

Jacob has nothing to pursue in life. He just likes to fiddle with antiques. Although he is always scammed and bought a lot of tattered things, he himself always feels that those things are very valuable, even if they are not valuable now, wait a few years. It will be very valuable, so it has always been regarded as a treasure.

Now that Elaine threatened to throw away all his treasures, he immediately relented: "Okay, OK, can't I go with you?"

Elaine pushed him and said, "Then what are you still inking? Change your clothes!"

Jacob said with a sad face, "I haven't finished half of the fried dough sticks yet, you let me finish my meal anyway!"

"Eat, eat, you know how to eat!" Elaine said annoyed: "You will be like Charlie immediately. After eating, sleeping, eating, and nothing else?"

Jacob said with a gloomy look: "Okay, I won't eat anymore."

After speaking, quickly got up and changed clothes.

When he returned after changing his clothes, Elaine urged him to go out.

Seeing that everyone in his family was gone, Charlie took out his mobile phone and called Qin Gang, asking him to send over thirty-odd medicinal materials he asked for according to his request, and he was going to refine a little rejuvenation pill.

Qin Gang naturally agreed and said that he would bring the medicine to him as soon as possible.

As soon as he hung up the phone, Charlie received a call from Tianqi.

As soon as Tianqi came up, he respectfully asked, "Mr. Wade, did you catch the Japanese who grabbed medicine yesterday?"

"Caught him." Charlie smiled and said, "I dug a hole for them, but they jumped in unexpectedly."

Tianqi was surprised and said: "Mr. Wade, I heard from my friends in the medical circle this morning that Masao Kobayashi of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in Japan passed away from a sudden illness early this morning. This, shouldn't you tell me the four pills you gave? Is the pill related to the incident?"

Charlie said faintly: "Masao died because of the four pills I gave you. Those four are not panacea at all, but poison."

Tianqi had long expected that Charlie gave him a problem with the pill. Hearing this, he couldn't help but exclaimed: "Mr. Wade, you really know things like a god. If you didn't plan ahead, the magic medicine you gave me might be lost. The Japanese took it..."

While talking, he suddenly heard Tianqi's granddaughter Zhovia's voice on the phone, saying: "Grandpa, Mr. Barena Wei and Liang Wei from the Wei family are here!"

"Wei Family?" Tianqi frowned, "What are they doing here?"

Charlie heard this and smiled: "I heard that after Fredmen took the Wei family medicine yesterday, the roots began to fester. They came to beg you, maybe they just hope you can help."

Tianqi said immediately: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, that b@stard Fredmen dares to disrespect you, even if he dies in front of me, I will not save him!"

Chapter 491

At this time, Barena and Liang were being stopped by the guys from the Clinic.

"Excuse me, do you have an appointment?"

The guy looked at Barena very vigilantly.

He hadn't met Barena, and there were too many messy people who came to Clinic for genius doctors in the past two days, so he didn't dare to let people in casually.

Barena hurriedly said: "Hello little brother, I am Barena, the eldest master of the Wei family. Please inform the genius doctor Tianqi that there were many offenses at the traditional medicine Expo. I came here today to apologize and ask the genius doctor Tianqi to give him an apology. An opportunity to apologize in person."

The man said coldly: "The genius doctor Tianqi said, those who have not made an appointment will not see him, so please go out quickly!"

"Please be polite to me, I am also the eldest master of the Wei family anyway, I will tell..."

"Sorry, we at the Clinic doesn't know any Wei family, so you should go out quickly, otherwise I will call someone!"

The guy still didn't give up, and didn't give Barena any face, and directly pushed him out.

"Don't, little brother, if you have something to say..." Barena immediately panicked when he saw this.

He came here today to beg Tianqi to take action and save Fredmen.

If Fredmen's roots really festered to the point of amputation, then the Wei family would be really miserable.

In the eyes of the Wei family, Tianqi is probably the only one who can save Fredmen now.

Not to mention the extravagant hope that Tianqi completely cure Fredmen, as long as he can cure his fester, the Wei family can be considered to have escaped the disaster.

Therefore, he placed most of his hopes on Fredmen.

If this were to let his father know that he hadn't even seen Tianqi's face, he would definitely be furious.

Liang, the illegitimate son of the Wei family, stood by just watching, not daring to speak.

This time his father Youngzheng said that whoever can solve this crisis can become the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceutical, so the first thing he thought of was to ask Tianqi for help.

However, he didn't expect his brother Barena to have the same idea, so he could only be a follower and follow Barena.

Barena wanted to see Tianqi as soon as possible, so he shouted into the Clinic: "Mr. Shi, we have a life-saving thing to look for you, please let us in!"

The dude was also angry: "I said that he won't see you without an appointment. Are you not too shameless to shout like this!"

At this time, Tianqi had ended the call with Charlie and stepped out.

Walking to the door, seeing the two brothers of the Wei family, Tianqi said coldly: "Why are you two making trouble in my Clinic?"

Seeing Tianqi coming out, Barena pushed the guy aside and said quickly: "Genius doctor Tianqi, I am Barena from the Wei family. This time I am looking for your help!"

Tianqi's expression was a little bit sullen, and he said, "I remember you. On the day of the traditional medicine Expo, you were disrespectful to Mr. Wade, and now you dare to come to me to make trouble?"

Barena hurriedly begged: "Don't get me wrong. On the day of the traditional medicine Expo, I was also confused and offended Charlie for a while. Please also ask you not to remember the villain and forgive me this time."

"Impossible." Tianqi said coldly: "Mr. Wade is kind to me. You offend him, it is more serious than offending me, so no matter what you ask me to do for you, I will not agree, please go back."

Chapter 492

After Tianqi finished speaking, he drove people away with a wave of his sleeves.

Barena panicked and begged: "I'm really sorry to perform like that genius doctor. My mistakes are all my fault. I have no complaints if you want to beat or scold me. It's just that the Wei family has encountered a huge crisis this time. You can't watch our family. The young and old getting killed?"

Tianqi said coldly: "Sorry, I am not familiar with you, and your family has nothing to do with me. Please leave."

Upon hearing this, Barena hurriedly snatched the brocade box from Liang and handed it to Tianqi. He respectfully said: "Shi the genius doctor, this is a little bit of my heart, a piece of fine Hetian jade seed material, worth five million. Please accept it!"

However, Tianqi didn't even look at the so-called Hetian jade seed material. He didn't even open the brocade box, and said unceremoniously: "Don't say five million, even if it is fifty million, five hundred million, I will not Take it! You go, you are not welcome here."

At this moment, Liang, who had been silent on the side, sighed softly, knelt directly on the ground, and begged Tianqi bitterly, "doctor Tianqi, please be merciful and save our Wei family. I will give it to you. Kowtowed."

Seeing Liang's pious appearance, Tianqi's expression was a little slow.

Compared with Barena, Liang is obviously more educated and polite. Compared with his arrogant and conceited brother, it is two extremes.

Barena glared at Liang with dissatisfaction at this time, and cursed in his heart: This bastard drama is quite good, and he actually kneels and kowtows in front of him. Maybe he wants to grab his own credit and covet the position of the head of the house. Right?

Thinking of this, Barena kicked Liang away and cursed: "You are an illegitimate child, what qualifications do you have to kneel on behalf of the Wei family? If you want to kneel on behalf of the Wei family, it is me who is the heir of the Wei family!"

Liang was kicked to the ground, but he dared not say a word of complaint. He hurriedly got up, patted the dirt on his body, and stood aside humbly.

At this time, Barena knelt on his knees and begged: "Shi the genius doctor, Fredmen, you should know that his illness was not cured by our Wei family, but it was aggravated seriously. Now his place is about to rot. He threatened to destroy our family, and now only you can save our life."

Tianqi had known their purpose for coming to him for a long time, and he refused again without hesitation: "Let me go and save Fredmen? I tell you, it is absolutely impossible! Neither you nor Fredmen have repeatedly disrespected Mr. Wade? So even if you said that the sky is falling into your house, I can't make a move."

After finishing speaking, Tianqi coldly said to his buddy: "Okay, get them out of here!"

Immediately afterwards, Tianqi didn't look back, turned around and walked towards the Clinic, without wavering at all.

Although it is said that the healer's parental heart, the good heart should not be imposed on the wicked.

The guy immediately pushed Barena and Liang out: "If the two of you block the mouth of our the Clinic again, I will have to call the police."

Standing at the gate of the Clinic, Barena looked very ugly.

Apart from Tianqi, Aurous Hill certainly has no more powerful genius doctor who can cure Fredmen's fester.

As a result, as Fredmen's fester became more and more serious, the entire Wei family would also completely lose hope.

At this time, Liang asked in a low voice, "Big Brother, what should we do now?"

Barena glanced at him in disgust, slapped him up, and cursed: "Liang, how many times have I told you, don't call me big brother, you wild species, you are not worthy at all!"

After that, Barena looked at him contemptuously, and said coldly: "I'm going to find someone else to find a way, you can go back by yourself!"

As Barena spoke, he got into his luxury car and walked away.

Liang stood there for a moment, with anger and unwillingness in his eyes.

He stretched his hand into his arms, touched something that had been hidden in his arms for more than ten years, as if he had made some decision, secretly gritted his teeth, turned around and entered Clinic...

Chapter 493

The attendant at the Clinic saw that Liang had walked back again and immediately said with a cold face, "Why are you here again? Go away! You are not welcome here!"

Liang begged: "Little brother, I have something to say to the genius doctor Tianqi in person, I will leave after speaking!"

The guy frowned and said: "The genius doctor Tianqi doesn't want to see you, don't you know anything about yourself?"

Liang knelt on the ground with a puff and shouted loudly into the inside: "Mr. Shi, Liang begs to see you, and speak to you face to face, please be merciful! If you don't want to see Liang, Liang will be with you. Kneel down in front of the store!"

Tianqi had already walked to the room behind the Clinic, and he sighed when he heard Liang's voice.

The illegitimate child of the Wei family has been in contact with him several times, and he feels that he is indeed very educated and knows how the etiquette.

And Tianqi did feel that Liang's situation in the Wei family was worthy of sympathy.

Therefore, hearing Liang's words at this time, he felt a little compassionate in his heart.

So he paced out and saw that Barena had already left, leaving Liang alone at the door, and said to him, "You come in with me."

"Thank you doctor Tianqi!" Liang was overjoyed, got up in a hurry, and followed Tianqi to the back hall.

As soon as he entered the back hall, Liang immediately took out a slender wooden box made of mahogany from his arms, then opened the wooden box, revealing a whole body of white ginseng.

He offered the ginseng in front of Tianqi with both hands, blurting out: "Genius doctor Tianqi, this thousand-year-old snow ginseng is the thousand-year snow ginseng that my mother left to me when she was alive. It is her treasure for a lifetime. I know that you respect that Mr. Wade, so I want to dedicate this thousand-year-old snow ginseng to Mr. Wade, and ask Mr. Wade to take action to save the Wei family!"

Tianqi was stunned when he looked at the small snow ginseng.

It turned out to be a thousand-year snow ginseng!

This thing, he has only seen the description in the classical medical books, when he once thought that this thing did not exist, and the snow ginseng was at most a hundred years old.

Although this snow ginseng is not as long as a folding fan, its whole body is already a little translucent. This is because it has been waxed. Normal ginseng will not wax. It must be so obvious that it is waxed, a sign of its long life!

This also allowed Tianqi to conclude that 80% of this snow ginseng is really a thousand-year snow ginseng!

Unexpectedly, this thing actually exists!

He couldn't help but ask in surprise: "This...this is really yours? How come you have such precious medicinal materials?!"

Liang nodded and said earnestly: "Mr. Shi, to tell you, my mother is a native of Changbai Mountain. Following my grandfather, my ancestors have been collecting medicine in Changbai Mountain for generations. This thousand-year-old snow ginseng was handed down from my mother's family for generations."

After speaking, Liang said again: "My father Youngzheng just started the medicinal material business, and he often went to Changbai Mountain to collect medicinal materials. He lied and deceived my mother. After my mother was pregnant with me, he left. I also grew up at the foot of Changbai Mountain..."

"Until my mother was seriously ill and was about to pass away, she was afraid that I would be alone, so she contacted my grandfather. Grandpa thought I was of Wei family blood after all and could not be left outside, so he ordered my father to pick me up in Changbai Mountain and bring me back to Wei's house."

"When my mother was leaving, she left this snow ginseng plant to me, so that I must keep it close to my body at all times to prepare for emergencies. Now that the Wei family is in disaster, if Mr. Wade is willing to lend a hand, I would like to dedicate this thousand-year snow ginseng to Mr. Wade!"

Tianqi was speechless in shock.

He only knew that Liang was an illegitimate child, but he didn't know that there was such a story behind it.

Chapter 494

For Liang, he had never said these words to anyone in his life, and Tianqi was the first.

Ever since he was brought to Wei's house, Liang has been humiliated and tortured by others.

Since childhood, his father Youngzheng hated him, and his brother Barena hated him even more. He has always been scolded, beaten, and subjected to various humiliations. He himself has long been used to it.

He has been patient, waiting for the day when he can meet a suitable opportunity to get rid of this dark and skyless status quo.

Just as the Wei family is suffering from disaster, Youngzheng also let out a word that whoever can solve this crisis can become the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceuticals. Therefore, he took out this thousand-year-old snow ginseng that has been hidden closely for 20 years. , In exchange for it to exhale.

This thousand-year-old snow ginseng has no market value its preciousness.

The 300-year-old purple ginseng, if not for the last time Charlie and Fredmen competed, the normal price is estimated to be around 30 million.

And this thousand-year-old snow ginseng can be sold for at least 100 million at the normal price.

Liang took it out at this time and gave it to Charlie willingly, so that Charlie could help the Wei family resolve the crisis, so that he could become the chairman of the entire Wei's Pharmaceutical Company. From now on, it will be a shame!

Tianqi was also shocked by this thousand-year-old snow ginseng.

He knew that Charlie had magical medicine refining skills, and this thousand years of snow ginseng would definitely be of great help to Charlie.

So he immediately took out his cell phone and called Charlie.

At this time, Charlie received the medicinal materials sent by Qin Gang, and combined the 300-year-old purple ginseng with other medicinal materials to make 30 rejuvenating pills.

As soon as the Rejuvenation Pill was refined, Charlie suddenly received a call from Tianqi.

On the other end of the phone, Tianqi's respectful voice rang: "Mr. Wade, Liang, the illegitimate son of the Wei family, want to ask you for help. If you can help the Wei family tide over the difficulties, he is willing to give you a thousand-year-old snow ginseng!"

"Thousand-year snow ginseng? Is it true?"

Charlie was very surprised. The 300-year-old purple ginseng is very rare. Snow ginseng is more precious than purple ginseng, so it is even rarer.

What's more, snow ginseng, which is still a thousand years old, is definitely considered the treasure of medicine.

Charlie is a little excited about the Thousand-Year Snow Ginseng. There is a record in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures that the snow ginseng more than 500 years old is a treasure of heaven and earth with aura. If he can get it, he will improve his own strength. It really has strong effect.

Tianqi said at this time: "Mr. Wade, to be honest, it's the first time I have seen 1000-year-old snow ginseng. I'm really not sure if it's a thousand years, but it's at least five hundred years old."

Charlie sighed and praised: "Old Shi, you have done a good job of this matter. I just made a new pill that can make you more than ten years younger. I will give you one back."

When Tianqi heard this, his excited voice trembled a little, and respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, you really praise Shi. In fact, this is what I should do. It's all part of it... "

Charlie smiled indifferently, and said: "Old Shi, Charlie has always distinguished rewards and punishments. If you do things for me, you will forget your merits if you are unnatural. You will bring Liang to see me first, and you will have rewards in the future."

After that, Charlie said again: "You bring Liang over now, let me see if his thousand-year snow ginseng is genuine or not."

Tianqi said excitedly: "OK, Mr. Wade, I will bring him over!"

Chapter 495

Tianqi hung up the phone and said to Liang, "Mr. Wade has already agreed to see you, you can come with me."

Upon hearing this, Liang immediately showed an expression of gratitude, bowed to Tianqi and said, "Thank you for your generous help!"

Tianqi waved his hand and said, "I'm just helping you to connect with Mr. Wade. You don't have to thank me. If Mr. Wade is willing to help you, you can thank Mr. Wade."

Liang nodded hurriedly, and said, "Shi genius doctor, let's go now?"

Tianqi responded and said to Zhovia, his granddaughter, and said, "Zhovia, you drive us to Mr. Wade's house."

When Zhovia heard that she was going to see Mr. Wade, she was immediately excited and said: "Grandpa, let's go now, don't let Mr. Wade wait long!"

Afterwards, Liang collected the Thousand-Year Snow Ginseng, followed Tianqi and Zhovia out of the Clinic, and got into an Audi car that Zhovia bought.

Since Tianqi decided to stay in Aurous Hill, Zhovia bought this car for the convenience of traveling with her grandfather.

Ten minutes later, the group of three came to Charlie's door.

Tianqi looked at Liang and reminded: "Your brother had some conflicts with Mr. Wade before. When you meet with Mr. Wade, you must not be disrespectful."

Liang nodded hurriedly and said, "Please don't worry about it genius doctor! Liang dare not disrespect Mr. Wade!"

"Yeah." Tianqi also knew that Liang and his arrogant brother were not the same, so he nodded and pressed the doorbell of Charlie's house.

Charlie opened the door. When Tianqi and Zhovia saw Charlie, they hurriedly bowed and said respectfully, "Hello Mr. Wade!"

Liang also hurriedly followed to salute and said, "Liang has seen Mr. Wade."

Charlie nodded and said, "You don't need to be so polite, come in and talk."

The three of them entered the house.

As soon as they entered the house, the three of them couldn't help but look at the decorations in the living room. This was the first time for the three of them to come to Charlie's house, so everyone couldn't help but be surprised. Charlie had already been in the upper class of Aurous Hill. With a very detached status, why live in such an ordinary residential building that can no longer be ordinary?

Liang also felt that Mr. Wade was unfathomable, a super-rich who could easily throw a hundred millions at auctions, living in such a simple environment.

Charlie didn't know the thoughts of the three of them. He pointed to the sofa and said to them: "Sit down."

The three of them answered and sat opposite Charlie.

Chapter 496

Charlie looked at Liang and asked curiously: "I heard you have something to ask me?"

Liang nodded hurriedly, took out the wooden box containing Thousand-Year Snow Ginseng from his arms, handed it to Charlie, and said respectfully:

"Mr. Wade, this thousand-year-old snow ginseng is a family heirloom passed down by my mother's family for many years. I have been wearing it close to my body over the years, but this kind of treasure is in my hands and can't produce much effect, so I thought about it. Dedicate it to Mr. Wade!"

Charlie didn't say ha, he took the wooden box, opened it, and when he looked at it, he saw a snow-white ginseng with human-like roots and some waxy snow ginseng lying quietly in it.

With just one glance, Charlie could feel the strong and rich spiritual energy in it, this is really a treasure of heaven and earth! It has survived for thousands of years between heaven and earth, and absorbed all the aura between heaven and earth, and its origin is Changbai Mountain, where even now, it is very well protected and almost primitive ecology, so this snow ginseng is also more pure.

Charlie couldn't help but get excited. If this thousand-year-old snow ginseng is used for his own use, it can make his own strength directly cross a level, which is simply an unforgettable opportunity.

So Charlie asked indifferently: "Liang, what do you want me to do?"

Liang hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, let me tell you that Fredmen, the head of the Eastcliff Willson family and the chairman of the Future Company Group, lost his male ability some time ago. After taking the Wei family's improved prescription, the roots began to fester. Now the doctor They all said that his roots can't be kept, and he needs amputation. If he does amputation, then my Wei family will suffer! So I asked Mr. Wade to take action to help Fredmen solve the ulceration problem and help the Wei family survive the catastrophe... ."

Charlie smiled playfully, instead of replying directly to him, instead he asked with a curious look: "I heard that you suffer and are humiliate in the Wei family, why did you take out such precious snow ginseng at this time and beg me to help the Wei family survive? Difficulty?"

Liang confessed: "I have really suffered humiliation in the Wei family all these years. To be honest, I have no feelings for the Wei family. If my mother was not among the dead and unable to raise me, she would not let the Wei family treat me. I was received by Aurous Hill from Changbai Mountain..."

Speaking of this, Liang suddenly became a little excited, clenched his fists, and said, "The Wei family has given me so much humiliation for so many years. The reason why I am still in the Wei family is to find a chance to avenge the humiliation of these years! Also! My father did great harm to my mother back then. I always hope that one day I can let him lower his head, let him go to Changbai Mountain, go to my mother's grave, and confess to my mother!"

At this point in Liang's words, he was a little excited, and this man in his thirties actually shed two lines of tears.

He choked up and said: "Mr. Wade doesn't know anything. My mother, originally the only daughter of a family of herbal medicine collectors at the foot of Changbai Mountain, not a big family, but because of the craftsmanship of herbal medicine, life still rich. The scm, my father, when he went to Changbai Mountain to collect medicine, saw that my mother was beautiful and young and ignorant, so he deceived her. The mother was played with by him. She thought he would marry her, but she didn't expect this sumbag to be a man of no words. He left, and my mother was pregnant with his child..."

Having said that, Liang told Charlie exactly what happened back then.

Liang's mother was pregnant when she was unmarried. When she was pregnant with Liang, she was slandered in Changbai Mountain. If it weren't for her pregnancy, his mother would have wanted to end her life.

Later, Liang was born, and in the village at the foot of Changbai Mountain, he also became a wild species for everyone to point to. His only warmth and safe haven in his childhood was his mother.

But his mother became ill with overwork and grievances, and died when Liang was not an adult.

Liang came to Wei's house without his mother, and he never had a good day. His father looked down on his mother, so he also looked down on him. The stepmother and half-brother abused him, beat him, and humiliated him everyday in twenty years. He has been holding back, holding back to find a chance for revenge.

Speaking of this, he looked at Charlie and said sincerely: "Mr. Wade, my father promised that whoever can solve this problem for the family will become the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceutical. If you can help me get a direction, then I will be your horse for the rest of my life! Everything is up to you!"

Chapter 497

After hearing what Liang said, Charlie suddenly felt that Liang was a bit similar to himself.

Once upon a time, he was also an orphan and Rubbish who was humiliated and bullied by others.

When Stephen Thompson found him and handed over the Emgrand Group and a tens of billions of premium cards to his hands, it truly ushered in a turning point in his life.

Later, he accidentally got the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures by accident, and made himself soar into the sky.

And once, when he was spurned by everyone, how could he be waiting for an opportunity, waiting for an opportunity to prove myself to everyone, waiting for an opportunity to slap everyone who despised him!

Therefore, he can understand Liang's feelings well.

A child who has been scolded as a wild breed since childhood, his mother died and went to his biological father's house, and suffered even greater torture, and after twenty years, the degree of tolerance in his heart was even higher than his original self.

Thinking of this, Charlie has decided to help him and help him gain control of the entire Wei family.

It just so happened that his b@stard brother was his enemy, and his thousand-year-old snow ginseng was exactly what he needed urgently.

So Charlie said: "Liang, since you want revenge so much, then I can help you."

When Liang heard this, he knelt on the ground with excitement, knocked his head to the ground, and said loudly, "Thank you Mr. Wade for your generous help, Liang will never forget it!"

Charlie gave a hum, helped him up, and asked, "Where is Fredmen now?"

"He's at the Wei's house!" Liang said hurriedly, "The ulcer in his place cannot be treated, so he temporarily received anti-inflammatory and antibacterial treatments at the house."

Charlie nodded and said, "If this is the case, then go and treat him."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "But I'm telling the ugly things first. I only care about his festering things. As for the things he can't use, I don't care."

Liang said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade can rest assured that he can't use it here. It has nothing to do with my Wei family. The Wei family only needs to help him prevent the fester, even if it is cleaned up with him!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "Okay, then let's go now."

Liang nodded in excitement, "OK, Mr. Wade!"

.....

At this time, almost everyone in the living room of the Wei's villa was concentrated here, and their expressions were extremely anxious.

The deadline given by Fredmen was already near. Everyone went out for a long lap, but no one found a solution to Fredmen's troubles.

Fredmen's expression was also very gloomy. At this time, he was still infusing fluids. Antibiotics could only slow down the speed of his festering, but still could not stop the festering footsteps. Right now, his pain was beginning to get worse and the situation was getting worse.

Fredmen saw that the Wei family went out one by one, and came back one by one. Everyone was almost back. He couldn't help but shouted in anger, "What? You haven't found a way to heal me?!"

Everyone looks embarrassed and panicked but dare not to answer him.

Chapter 498

Fredmen looked at the Wei Family Patriarch coldly, and shouted: "Youngzheng, haven't you thought of a way?"

Youngzheng trembled in his heart and quickly said: "Don't worry, Fredmen. I have sent someone to find a famous doctor for you in other places, and I have also mobilized the Wei family's contacts in the pharmaceutical industry to find some broader and more powerful antibiotics will definitely cure you."

Although that was the case, Youngzheng had no idea in his heart.

It was originally hoped that Barena could invite Tianqi, but Tianqi didn't give him any chance at all. After he was driven out of Clinic by Tianqi, he went to find a few famous traditional medicine doctors in Aurous Hill, but when everyone heard it was Fredmen, No one wants to come.

The things that Fredmen couldn't do in Aurous Hill had long been spread, and the things that caused ulceration there by taking medicine indiscriminately were well known.

Moreover, the doctors at the People's Hospital had already said that his condition was the only way to amputate his limbs. Who would dare to be in trouble at this time?

If it is not cured, not only will be ridiculed, but Fredmen may also retaliate. After all, the Wei family was retaliated by him for giving the wrong medicine, so that they would seek doctors for help.

Barena searched a lot, but couldn't find anyone to treat Fredmen. In desperation, he could only return home temporarily.

The experience of other Wei family members is similar to that of Barena. Anyway, as soon as everyone heard that it was treating Fredmen, eleven of the ten doctors were unwilling to come, and they would not come for any amount of money.

Upon seeing this, Youngzheng felt that the future of the Wei family was dim.

The speed of Fredmen's festering was not too slow. At this speed, he estimated that he would be rotten in two days. By that time, the Wei family was afraid that he would not know how to die...

Barena on the side couldn't help pulling Youngzheng aside, and said in a low voice, "Dad...what should we do now? Shall we run away?"

Youngzheng turned sullenly, turned his head to look at him, getting more angry as he watched, and whispered: "You know how to escape, where can you escape? Do you think Fredmen won't bother us if we escape Aurous Hill?"

After that, Youngzheng looked at him annoyed, and blurted out: "I asked you to ask Tianqi to come over anyway, but you came back alone. You're really useless!"

Barena said dissatisfied: "Dad, you can't blame me. Tianqi, the Old Master, heard that he wanted to treat Fredmen, but he immediately refused. It was clear that he and Fredmen had hatred. What can I do?"

Youngzheng raised his hand and slapped him in the face and angrily scolded, "This has always been the case since childhood. If something happens, you will shirk responsibility. If you can't bring Tianqi, do you think you are not to blame? Then have you thought about it? Want to win over Fredmen and give Fredmen a drug that has not been clinically verified?"

Speaking of this, Youngzheng coughed angrily and scolded angrily: "If you didn't make this kind of thing, how could we have fallen to where we are today? My hard work for a lifetime is about to be destroyed. You have done it!"

Barena was spoiled since childhood. His father Youngzheng had hardly beaten him. At this moment, Youngzheng slapped him very hard, and he was full of anger and disappointment.

Barena, who was beaten, had an ugly expression. He also knew that this incident was his own trouble, so it was impossible to clear this responsibility.

He could only cover his face and stammered: "Dad, I'm sorry, I was wrong, but I was also trying to make our Wei family go further. After all, Fredmen is the chairman of Future Company Group. If we can climb with his relationship will definitely develop more smoothly in the future..."

Wei Yong sighed in despair. Barena's words also touched him to some extent. His son didn't intend to harm the Wei family. He did hope that the Wei family could be better...

Could it be that this is the destiny of the Wei family? !

It may also be that he owed too many debts when he was young, and now he is finally going to be punished?

Just as he was depressed, someone in the Wei family suddenly shouted with excitement: "Liang is coming with the genius doctor Tianqi, and a young man, he is back!"

Chapter 499

As soon as he said this, everyone showed excited eyes.

Youngzheng's eyes widened, and he tremblingly asked: "What did you just say? Who did Liang bring back?!"

A person shouted at the door: "Liang brought Tianqi to the genius doctor, and a young man! He has entered the yard!"

As soon as the voice fell, Youngzheng's expression immediately changed from surprise to ecstasy!

Tianqi is here? !

Liang finally asked Tianqi to move? !

God! Is the Wei family finally saved? !

Fredmen stood up even more excited!

He didn't even care about the needle for the infusion on the back of his hand, his eyes were red with excitement!

Since the roots began to fester, he actually felt vaguely in his heart that only Tianqi could keep his roots.

However, he also knew that Tianqi was very dissatisfied with him, and it was impossible to save him.

As for why Tianqi had changed his mind again and followed the Wei family back to treat him, he couldn't understand, and he didn't bother to think about it. He just wanted to get his own roots cured.

Even if it is useless, as long as it stays there neatly, he never wants to lose it...

Youngzheng, who has been in poor health, walked to the door with excitement and exclaimed in excitement, "Quick! Get the genius doctor Tianqi in!"

Barena on the side was incredulous, and blurted, "How could Liang, a wild species, invite Tianqi? He can't do it at all!"

"Shut up! We don't care how he does it. It's a good thing to be able to invite Tianqi."

Youngzheng gave Barena a stern look, and blurted out a warning: "Don't talk nonsense later, you will wait until Fredmen is cured!"

Barena was very upset, but he nodded and said yes.

At this time, Liang, together with Tianqi and Charlie, stepped into Wei's house.

Seeing Tianqi, the rest of the Wei family members were relieved.

Everyone believed that since Tianqi came, the Wei family would be saved!

"Unexpectedly, at the moment of the crisis, it was Liang who turned the tide, which is incredible."

"It seems that Wei's Pharmaceutical will be handed over to Liang now!"

With Liang's sudden eruption, the wind direction of the entire Wei family seemed to change a little.

After all, Youngzheng has said before, whoever can solve this problem, is the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceutical, the owner of the family!

For a moment, everyone's eyes became strange.

Hearing these people's comments, Barena's face turned red and red, and his eyes were full of hatred.

Liang! You wild species, dare to steal my limelight?

And Tianqi, the old immortal thing, when he invited him, he clearly refused, why did Liang invite him, and he came?

At this moment, he saw Charlie.

His face immediately became extremely ugly.

He will never forget the humiliation that Charlie let him face. Forcing him to lick the urinal in the brilliant club!

Chapter 500

Unexpectedly, this guy actually got together with Liang wild species!

Fredmen greeted him happily, but after seeing Charlie, his face immediately became difficult to look.

At the same time, his heart was suddenly upset.

The humiliation he suffered at the hands of Charlie was no less than Barena's!

Originally, he regarded Charlie as a mortal enemy, but now that Charlie and Tianqi came together, he did not dare to pretend to be forced, because he knew that Tianqi, an old thing, seemed to have been poured into Charlie's ambit and treated Charlie respectfully. If he offends Charlie again, he will definitely not care about it anymore.

Thinking of this, without saying anything, he immediately stepped forward and bowed to Tianqi and said: "Uncle, I made you angry before, it was all my fault. I now know I was wrong. Please heal me!"

Tianqi said nonchalantly: "I said that our two families will never have any relationship in the future, please don't call me uncle again, I can't afford it!"

After all, he pointed to Charlie next to him, and said respectfully: "Also, the person who will take care of you today is not me, but Mr. Wade!"

In Tianqi's eyes, Charlie's ability was almost close to God's, and nothing else, his refined magic medicine alone, in Tianqi's eyes, had surpassed all doctors and pharmacists in the world.

Therefore, Tianqi respects Charlie all the time and has a heartfelt respect for him.

When Fredmen heard this, he was immediately stunned, and looked at Charlie in disbelief: "Charlie, can you heal me?"

Charlie looked at Fredmen playfully, and said, "Fredmen, your attitude is not so good, do you still want your roots?"

Tianqi also frowned and said, "Fredmen, Mr. Wade is the only person in this world who can save you. If you still disrespect Mr. Wade, I hope you will not regret it in the future!"

As soon as Fredmen heard this, he immediately snorted in his heart!

The eight achievements of his illness were caused by Charlie, who made the tactics at the renovation summit, but he has not found any direct evidence.

What's more, Charlie has humiliated him more than once! Let him call his father and grandpa!

It can be said that the person he hates most in this world is Charlie.

However, when he heard that Charlie was the only one who could save him, Fredmen immediately squeezed all the hatred in his heart, quickly changed his face, and said to Charlie with a flattering expression: "I was wrong, Mr. Wade, you Don't take it to your heart, please help me and save my life!"

Charlie smiled faintly, looked at him and asked, "Fredmen, have you forgotten what I should be called?"

Fredmen gritted his teeth and thought to himself that if a man can bend and stretch, he will fight for roots!

So, he immediately knelt on the ground and said to Charlie: "Grandpa, what happened before was all my fault. Please don't remember the villain's fault, please help me!"

As he said, he still twitched his mouth for fear that Charlie would be angry and would not give him treatment.

The rest were dumbfounded, this is Fredmen!

The chairman of Future Company Group actually called a young grandfather?

What is the identity of this young man who can make the chairman of a large group bow his head so much? !

Charlie nodded in satisfaction at this time and said, "Not bad, you are getting more and more skilled in your business!"

Youngzheng and Tianqi all admired Charlie so much, but Fredmen even called Charlie grandfather, almost falling off his startled eyes.

He hurriedly stepped forward and complimented: "After hearing the name of Mr. Wade for a long time, I can't think of seeing your true face today. It is really a master indeed! I strongly believe you can deal with Chairman Willson's illness, please help him!"

Barena on the side couldn't help but feel angry when he saw Charlie, so he gritted his teeth and said: "Dad, this grandson is not a master at all! I've asked about it a long time ago. He is just a feng shui god stick! Don't believe him! It must be Liang, a wild species, who colluded with him to lie to you!"

Youngzheng shook his heart. Seeing Charlie frowned, he immediately slapped Barena with his hand.

What he didn't expect was that when Fredmen, who was kneeling on the ground, heard this, he jumped up and slapped Barena too. The two of them, one left and the other on right, gave Barena a bow from left to right!

Chapter 501

Barena didn't expect that he was only proving Charlie's identity, and he was beaten by both his father and Fredmen at the same time.

Fredmen beat him, he could still bear it. After all, he knew in his heart that it was the medicine that Fredmen took by fooling him, and it was normal for Fredmen to hate him.

However, Barena couldn't believe that his father, who had barely touched himself in decades, slapped him twice in this moment of effort!

He covered his face, looked at Youngzheng angrily, and blurted out: "Dad, why did you hit me again? Did I make a mistake?"

"b@stard stuff, shut up!"

Youngzheng glared at him fiercely, and cursed in his heart, why this prodigal son didn't have any eyesight?

Now even Tianqi is Charlie's licking dog, so now Charlie is the only savior of the Wei family. Even if he is really a magic stick, it can never be said in front of him, let alone offend him!

After scolding Barena, Youngzheng said now "Mr. Wade, this dog is unleashed, you must not take it to heart..."

Fredmen also panicked. He hated Barena to death. He kicked Barena and said coldly: "Barena, don't talk too much here. If you annoy Mr. Wade and Grandpa Wade, I'll f*cking chop you! "

Barena sighed, he had already rolled three meters and finished driving.

After Fredmen kicked, he hurriedly laughed at Charlie and said, "Grandpa Wade, don't be angry at this kind of garbage, he is not worthy at all, please hurry up and treat me!"

Barena was completely stunned. Charlie was just a Rubbish live-in son-in-law. He fooled a bunch of big people with feng shui tricks. He was telling the truth. How come he was beaten in the end?

Charlie looked at them coldly and said, "If it weren't for Liang to beg me, I wouldn't be here at all, so you people, you must know in your heart that if the Wei family resolves the crisis today, the credit entirely goes to Liang. "

When Youngzheng heard this, he hurriedly praised Liang: "You did a good job this time, I will remember it."

Liang's heart was excited and intolerable. It seems that as long as Charlie cures Fredmen's fester, he will become the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceuticals!

However, he didn't know that Youngzheng already had his nitric acid U disk in his heart.

In Youngzheng's view, Liang was born as a wild species from a village girl in Changbai Mountain who was played with by himself. Because his mother was born humble, Youngzheng was also a hundred people inferior to Liang.

He originally said that he and his eldest son Barena, whoever can solve the family crisis, can be the chairman. In fact, the main purpose is to stimulate Barena and make him actively think of ways. He really didn't expect Liang to have such a big breakthrough, that he could invite Tianqi and Charlie over.

If he really did what he said, then when Charlie took the initiative to cure Fredmen, he would have to make Liang the chairman.

But how is it possible?

He is a garbage that shouldn't exist at all!

In the beginning, he just happened to be in Changbai Mountain and found a beautiful girl in the home of the medicine farmer he cooperated with. So, with the purpose of having fun, he captured her with rhetoric and had a few shots.

But he didn't expect that the girl will pregnant!

What was even more unexpected was that he clearly refused her request to get married, and then left the village at the foot of Changbai Mountain, and never visited again, but the woman just gritted her teeth and gave birth to the child alone.

When he learned of Liang's existence, the wife of Youngzheng, had been arguing with him for a long time, and made Wei's chickens and dogs restless. At that moment, he had been full of disgust for Liang before he met him.

Youngzheng himself is an extremely selfish person. He has several illegitimate children outside, but he doesn't want to take them back.

Because in his opinion, those illegitimate children were born because their mothers did not know themselves, let alone a little credibility!

Chapter 50

Everyone is just playing on the spot. If you are pregnant, you should get rid of it. What the h*ll is it when it is born?

Therefore, this is also the fundamental reason why he always hates Liang.

If it hadn't been for his father to hear that there was a grandson living out and forced him to take him back, he would never want to see the wild species born by this rural woman!

Now, even if Liang made great contributions, he would not be able to hand the Wei family's business into his hands. Is he not a sh!t?

However, Youngzheng did not reveal the slander and uncomfortableness in his heart. He just wanted to quickly send Fredmen away, the plague god!

So Youngzheng respectfully said to Charlie: "Mr. Wade, please help Fredmen!"

Fredmen also looked at Charlie bitterly. He called him grandfather and apologized, wasn't it just to cure his illness?

Otherwise, how could he endure and not get angry yet.

Charlie smiled playfully and said to Fredmen: "Come on, I'll give you a pulse number."

Fredmen hurriedly stretched out his wrist.

Charlie pretended to signal his pulse, and said: "This is because your body itself is going through blood stasis, the downward movement is not smooth, and you also took the medicine that promotes liver fire and kidney fire, which caused the accumulation of efficacy and caused ulceration, so It's absolutely impossible to cure it simply by anti-inflammatory."

Fredmen felt very reasonable, and hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, how can you treat my disease?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I need to make a bowl of medicinal soup with eighteen traditional medicines for your disease."

As he said, he waved his hand: "Get a pen, I'll give you a prescription!"

Fredmen got excited immediately and blurted out: "Great, great! Thank you Mr. Wade!"

After speaking, he hurriedly asked Youngzheng for paper and pen, and handed them to Charlie respectfully.

Charlie scribbled the most bitter and bitter traditional medicine with eighteen flavors, and prescribed a large dose.

Just this nonsense prescription, if he drinks a sip of the boiled medicine, it is estimated that the tongue will be bitter for three months and no other taste can be tasted.

After the prescription was written, Charlie directly handed it to Youngzheng and said, "Your Wei family is a pharmaceutical company. It should be easy to get this medicine for you?"

Youngzheng took a hurried look and saw that the medicinal materials above are relatively common, so he nodded and said, "All of these are available! I have them at home! I'll let people get them!"

After that, he called a servant, handed him the prescription, and said coldly: "Go grab the medicine!"

"OK, lord!"

The servant hurried to grab the medicine according to the prescription, but Fredmen trembled with excitement, and blurted out, "Mr. Wade, can this medicine be made really, can it be done by boiling it in water and drinking it?"

Charlie nodded, and said unpredictably: "It can be good or it can not be good, but this medicine still lacks a drug primer."

"Medicinal primer?" Fredmen asked hurriedly, "What do I need to use to make medicinal primer? Tell me, I will send someone to prepare!"

Charlie smiled and said, "You have a large amount of blood and qi, you need to use human urine as a medicine!"

Chapter 503

"Using human urine?!" Fredmen immediately said with an embarrassed face: "This...isn't this disgusting? Is it really necessary to use urine?"

Charlie snorted coldly: "Do you think I'm bluffing you?"

After that, he pointed to Youngzheng, and said, "You should have been in the medicinal material business for many years. I ask you, in many ancient recipes, do you want to use urine as a medicine?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Youngzheng nodded immediately, and said, "Many ancient recipes require urine as a medicine. In the south, there is even a tradition of using urine to boil eggs. It does have a certain health effect."

Having said that, Youngzheng said to Fredmen: "Fredmen, don't worry too much. urine in traditional medicine is a very pure thing and it is not dirty."

Hearing that it was a boy peeing, Fredmen's expression eased slightly.

He used to watch costume movies and TV shows. This boy has a high rate of appearance, so now he wants to come, not so disgusting.

However, when he had just accepted boy urine, Charlie suddenly said: "In fact, this drug primer cannot be used with boy pee, because boy pee is produced by the pure body that has never touched a woman, so boy pee energy is extremely strong, and you have blood stasis. If you use boy urine again, it will only aggravate your condition!"

When Fredmen heard this, he asked in amazement, "Mr. Wade, can it be done with a girl's urine?"

"Nor for girls." Charlie waved his hand and said, "To treat your disease, you have to use adult male urine, and this adult man must have slept with many women, the more the better! Because he has slept. The more women there are, the more cloudy the urine will be, and it will have an excellent effect on your blood stasis."

Fredmen was stunned, and couldn't help asking: "Mr. Wade, do you have a grudge against me, so you deliberately play with me? Why do I feel more mysterious as I listen?"

Charlie said calmly: "I, can swear with my life. If you do exactly what I said, your fester will be cured. If it doesn't work, let the thunder hit me."

After all, Charlie glanced at Fredmen disdainfully, and said: "That's the end of the story. If you don't believe me, then I have no other way."

Seeing Charlie's incomparable sincerity, Fredmen believed a little bit in his heart.

At this time, Charlie saw that he was still a little bit unbelieving, and said: "This way, so many people have witnessed that if my medicine is ready, if you drink it and it is not completely cured within ten minutes, I will give you 100 million."

Last time at the auction of the traditional medicine Expo, Charlie spent 100 million on a 300-year-old purple ginseng, so no one doubts that he can bring forth another 100 million.

When Fredmen heard this, he felt that Charlie was probably not cheating him.

Otherwise, at the price of 100 million, he would drink a pee for himself, then he wouldn't lose his life?

If he is really willing to give up, with a grit and a stomping, he can directly drink as the world's first defeat!

So he gritted his teeth, for the sake of his own roots, blurted out: "Okay! Then as you say!"

Having said that, he thought about it for himself, and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, I have not used many women in my life, but there are a hundred smaller ones, so I should just drink my own urine?"

Charlie frowned and looked at him: "What do you think? If your own urine is useful, do you still need to drink it? It has already worked in your bladder!"

"Huh?" Fredmen blurted out: "I can't use my own? Whose one should I use?"

Charlie looked around and said: "Come on, everyone who is present, please report how much experience you have in that area. Please answer honestly. Don't brag, otherwise it will delay Fredmen's treatment. Be responsible here!"

Chapter 504

Everyone didn't speak, but they started to look at each other. In the end, they all looked at the Old Master of the Wei family, Youngzheng.

Who doesn't know that Youngzheng, the elder of the Wei family, was ultra-romantic when he was young?

When he was young, he could eat his poisonous recipe for strong sheep every day, and he was about to die when he was only in his sixties, so he should be the one with the most women.

Seeing that everyone was looking at him, Youngzheng suddenly felt a sense of accomplishment. He said proudly, "Mr. Wade said that he was dissatisfied with that when he was young, Wei was more exposed to the wind, and there were more women who liked me. I roughly calculate Forget it, there are three to five hundred!"

Charlie nodded, pointed at Youngzheng and said to Fredmen: "Okay, it's him."

Fredmen's expression is very ugly.

Let himself drink the urine of Youngzheng? This is too f*cking disgusting, right?

However, Charlie said that the more experience in that area, the better the effect.

Youngzheng is a terrible Old Master who can play better than himself, and really can't find someone more suitable than him...

So he had to gritted his teeth and said: "Then... then so be it..."

Charlie nodded, and said to Youngzheng, "Come on, Mr. Wei, you first take two liters of pure water, hold back your urine, and when you feel like urinating, get a basin and connect it. When you save one liter, and then you will you tell me."

"One liter!?" Fredmen was about to collapse: "Mr. Wade, this is too much..."

Charlie said: "What if the effect is not good? Are you trying to corrupt my one hundred million?"

"No, it's not about that." Fredmen hurriedly waved his hand and said, "I was thinking about it. Almost two mouthfuls are enough. One liter is too scary..."

Charlie said seriously: "If you want to cure the ulcer in one step, you have to drink one liter, otherwise, in case of sequelae, don't blame me."

Fredmen's heart was depressed, and he didn't know if Charlie was playing with him. It can be seen that he was serious, and he was willing to swear by his life. He also attached a promise of 100 million. He always felt that this man should not be playing.

At this time, the person who was sent to grabbed the medicine came back.

According to Charlie's request, the dried and dehydrated medicinal materials alone cost more than 20 kilograms.

Charlie said, "Come on, divide these medicines into four parts, put each part in a casserole, add ten liters of water, and boil it on high heat for one hour, then mix the four parts of the soup together, and cook for another half an hour, and finally 40 liters of water. Boil it to a liter."

After speaking, Charlie said to Fredmen: "When the medicine is ready, and Mr. Wei has enough urine, you will have one liter of medicine and one liter of urine. Drink the urine first, then the medicine, understand?"

Fredmen was really crying.

Two liters in one breath? ! One liter of Chinese herbal medicine that is so bitter to death, and one liter of the Old Master's urine, which is probably too bad, is absolutely terrible!

However, in order to cure his own roots, he did not dare to bargain. Instead, he asked, "Mr. Wade, can you drink the medicine first and then drink the urine? In this case, the medicine will have a strong taste, and you won't be able to taste it after drinking urine. "

"What are you kidding?" Charlie said contemptuously: "Drinking first, of course you have to drink the urine first, and then drink the medicine! You are upside down, is it urine inducement or not?"

Chapter 505

But after only a moment, he wanted to understand the truth in Charlie's words.

Since urine is a drug primer, it must be used to induce drugs, that is, he must drink urine first.

However, one liter is too much...

Fredmen felt his head as big as a fight when he thought of this.

Charlie smiled and said at this time: "This matter can't be delayed. If you really suck it up by yourself, don't blame me for not saving you."

Fredmen shuddered in shock, and blurted out: "Okay! I listen to you!"

Charlie nodded and said to Youngzheng, "Mr. Wei, please drink more water first, and also, quickly arrange for someone to boil the medicine."

How dare Youngzheng nod, he hurriedly nodded and said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I'll go drink more water..."

Fredmen sighed, already admitting his fate.

To him, healing the fester is more important than anything else.

Charlie was particularly happy at this time.

To treat Fredmen's ulcer, what kind of pee and the most bitter thing are important?

As long as a little bit of medicine dregs is removed from the pills he refined before, he can heal his fester.

The reason why he told him that he was asked to use Youngzheng's urine as a medicine was to cheat him.

After a while, the entire Wei family was filled with the extremely bitter taste of traditional medicine, and the bitter throat was dry and mouth astringent after just smelling it. It was hard to imagine how uncomfortable it would be to drink it.

A few large pots of water were boiled on a high fire and boiled into a liter of concentrated black medicinal soup, which looked no different from oil.

Youngzheng hadn't returned yet after the herbal soup was boiled.

Fredmen was waiting anxiously, so he ordered someone to urge him.

Youngzheng has worked hard. He is old and his kidney is not good. It is really painful to drink so much water in one breath and force himself to urinate.

After waiting for another twenty minutes, Youngzheng finally made up one liter and hurried in, clutching his nose.

"Mr. Wade, one liter of urine is enough!"

Charlie was afraid that the smell would suffocate him, so he immediately stayed away, clutching his nose and said to Fredmen: "Come on, drink this first, and then drink the medicine!"

"Ok!" Fredmen nodded hurriedly.

The severe pain there made him realize that this matter was urgent, so he did not dare to delay, and directly took the big bottle of orange liquid from Youngzheng's hands.

Barena on the side looked nauseous, seeing Fredmen want to drink this thing, he immediately involuntarily remembered his licking of the urinal in the brilliant club.

Every time he thinks about it, he will inevitably want to nauseate.

Fredmen also wanted to vomit.

Youngzheng, this bad Old Master, was really willing to give it to him. With a large cup of one liter, the liquid level was even a few millimeters higher than the scale of one liter.

But when he thought that this thing could save his life, he didn't dare to delay a little bit. He hurriedly picked it up, closed his eyes, gritted his teeth, and directly poured it down!

In an instant, the inside of Fredmen's mouth exploded, and the whole mouth and nose were filled with a strong odor. He just wanted to vomit when he was sick.

"Gulp Gulp....."

Fredmen almost couldn't hold back, almost vomiting out, but because of fear of affecting the effect of the medicine, he hurriedly covered his mouth and swallowed again!

The others are almost throwing up.

Chapter 506

The situation of this grandson at this moment, and the rich second generation who grabbed sh!t on YouTube some time ago, is really a match...

Fredmen drank it, wiped his mouth, and hurriedly said, "Where is the medicine? Quick! Give it to me!"

Charlie took a liter of thick black medicinal soup from the hand of his servant, and sprinkled in his fingertips a little bit of scraps that had just been picked from the pill.

Afterwards, he smiled and brought the medicinal soup to Fredmen, and said with a smile: "Come on, Fredmen, please!"

There was a strong smell in Fredmen's mouth. At this moment, he couldn't wait to cover up with a little other smell, so he picked up the soup and took a big sip.

This mouthful of medicinal soup hardly fainted him bitterly.

He had never tasted anything so bitter in his life. It was so d*mn bitter, like 10,000 bottles of licorice slices melted into this bowl of medicinal soup.

And this medicinal soup is not only bitter, but it also burns badly!

The tongue that burned in the mouth became numb, and then the whole mouth was numb.

Drinking into the stomach, the whole stomach feels like drinking sulfuric acid, burning uncomfortable.

However, at the same moment when he drank it, Fredmen immediately felt a different kind of heat spreading from his stomach to the bottom.

The pain there was relieved immediately!

Hey! What a f*cking god!

Fredmen was so excited, he didn't care that the ghost was going to die, so he poured in.

When he drank it, the dregs in the bottom were as thick as black sesame paste, and when he drank it in, it was pasted in mouth. It was uncomfortable.

However, he swallowed all the dregs of medicine into his stomach for the sake of effect.

At this time, his entire mouth was numb to death. He didn't know that at this moment his taste buds were burned out by the ghost medicine soup. What he eats in the next few months will definitely be tasteless. What's more, the mouth his will always be numb, and the burning pain is enough for him.

More importantly, this medicine burns the stomach and intestines. In the next few months, he estimates that he will scavenge several times a day. In short, there will be sins.

However, Fredmen didn't have the energy to experience the discomfort in other places now. He felt more and more that the painful part of the ulcer was refreshed and comfortable, and the whole person seemed to be much easier.

"It's amazing, it feels effective!"

Fredmen was overjoyed and immediately took off his pants in front of everyone.

When he glanced at it, he was almost excited to shed tears, the place where the fester was originally present, healed quickly! This is really amazing!

At this time, Charlie said calmly: "Your ulcer should have been cured, but your nerves have been necrotic. It must be very difficult to regain your strength in the future, and I advise you not to take that medicine indiscriminately, otherwise Maybe there will be the same experience again.

Fredmen nodded repeatedly.

Since the roots began to fester, he no longer hopes to regain his glory, as long as he can let it stay there, he is already satisfied.

I'm fine now, my roots are kept!

Charlie said faintly at this time: "Fredmen, you should be grateful that at the auction that day, I took the 300-year-old premium purple ginseng, not you. Otherwise, with your condition. If you took the 300-year-old premium Purple ginseng, I'm afraid it will just rot away there, instantly. Giving you no time"

Fredmen was scared after a while.

At this moment, in front of Charlie, he didn't dare to pretend to be forced, and he could only say respectfully: "Thank you, Mr. Wade for your rescue!"

Charlie said, "Since you have recovered now, there is no need to embarrass the Wei family, right?"

"Of course, of course!" Fredmen nodded repeatedly.

Although I have suffered a lot of crimes, since the roots have been cured, there is indeed no need to continue to talk to Wei's.

Now he is full of sadness for Aurous Hill, as if he has come to Aurous Hill and his life has not been better.

At this time, his roots were also preserved. Deep down in his heart, he wanted to return to Eastcliff and leave the sad place of Aurous Hill behind forever...

Chapter 507

After suffering so many wrongs, Fredmen really wanted to go home.

Moreover, he knew that he could not find a way to restore his glory in Aurous Hill, so he wanted to return to Eastcliff again to see if he could find an expert.

One more thing is very important. His mother is nearly eighty-four years old. As the eldest son, he must go back to celebrate her birthday.

However, his mother asked him to invite Tianqi over, but now it seems that Tianqi still did not forgive him.

However, he still asked Tianqi tentatively: "Uncle, it will be my mother's birthday banquet in a few days. I wonder if you can come to Eastcliff to enjoy it?"

Tianqi said blankly: "Fredmen, I have already told you that there is no relationship between me and the Willson family, so you don't need to waste your tongue anymore about the birthday party."

Fredmen sighed softly and nodded.

Even though he wanted to put Tianqi this bad Old Master on the ground, he still said very humbly: "Since Uncle has made a decision, Fredmen is not reluctant to force it. If this is the case, then I will return to Eastcliff first. ."

Tianqi nodded.

Fredmen glanced at him, then looked at Charlie, his teeth tickled with hatred, but still did not say a word, took his bodyguard, and left dingy.

Seeing that the plague god finally left, Youngzheng was completely relieved.

Moreover, he discovered that he actually got a good prescription because of a blessing in disguise.

It turns out that the root ulcer can be treated with a dozen traditional medicine soup and combined with his own urine treatment. This is amazing. If anyone has such a thing in the future, then he can completely treat him!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly stepped forward and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade is truly a Aurous Hill genius doctor, and his medical skills are admired. Today, thanks to Mr. Wade's action, my Wei family can survive. The Wei family will remember Mr. Wade's kindness forever. ."

The others also bowed their hands and saluted Charlie: "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for saving the Wei family in the fire and water. We are grateful."

Charlie glanced at them, and said lightly: "I'm not here to hear that you are grateful to me."

With that, Charlie pointed at Liang and said to Youngzheng: "Since Liang has solved your Wei family's troubles, as you said, he should be the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceuticals now, right? When are you going for the official announcement?"

When Youngzheng heard this, a trace of dissatisfaction flashed in his eyes. He was the head of the Wei family. When was it the turn of an outsider to drink?

Besides, how could it be possible to get that wild species as the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceuticals?

Barena on the side was also furious, this outsider was really too much! Helping that wild species to grab the chairmanship? Doesn't he know that he is eldest son of the Wei family?

Liang, who had been insulted for half his life, was extremely excited at this time, and his eyes were full of gratitude when he looked at Charlie.

At this time, he already regarded Charlie as a second-born parent,

however.....

Youngzheng smiled at this moment, and said unhurriedly: "Mr. Wade, to tell you, this is the Wei family's family affair, not to mention the appointment of the chairman of the board, which is of great importance, and we have to consider long-term considerations."

Chapter 508

What he meant was that you, Charlie, are just an outsider, don't interfere with the Wei family!

When Liang heard this, his excitement instantly fell into the ice cellar.

He finally realized that he had been tricked.

And it was miserable.

Dad was not prepared to give him a chance at all.

Even if he took out the precious snow ginseng that his mother left for him, even if he begged Charlie to save the Wei family, his father was still not going to make him the chairman.

At this moment, Charlie frowned, looked at Youngzheng, and asked coldly: "What? Do you want to regret it?"

Youngzheng hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, you don't know anything about this. What I told the two dogs at that time was that if anyone can help the family solve this problem, whoever has the opportunity to be the chairman of the board, Liang contributes to the family today. , Of course, I will make a note for him. When the chairman is elected in the future, he will naturally have a better chance of winning."

Youngzheng's rhetoric is a complete rogue, whoever solves the crisis can become chairman of the board, and he changed his claim that whoever solves the crisis will have the opportunity to become chairman.

This "has a chance", he took the initiative of the whole thing completely in his own hands, which is like putting a coin in the hand, and start with it. The coin is positive, and the coin is reversed. It's the opposite, who can win him?

Barena beside him was also a little angry at this time. Anyway, Fredmen is gone, and the crisis has been resolved. He is not so afraid of Charlie anymore. He just blurted out: "Charlie, the family affairs of our Wei family. It has nothing to do with outsiders. If you are acquainted, get out, the Wei family still has no turn to play wild!"

Youngzheng is also the kind of old dog that employs people forwards instead of backwards. Seeing that his son has come out and tore his face, he simply said directly: "To be honest, I absolutely cannot give Wei's Pharmaceuticals to this wild species from Changbai Mountain. , I have played with countless women in my life. This wild mother is the second one. d*mn, she's just a village girl. If I were not young and hot, I would feel uncomfortable around her."

When Liang heard this, he shouted angrily: "How can you say that to my mother!"

Youngzheng glared his eyebrows and shouted coldly: "Why? Do you still want to bark your teeth with me? It's really a d*mn unfamiliar wild species! In this case, the Wei family has raised you for so many years, and you don't know how to repay us. In a vain attempt at the Wei family's family business? In my opinion, you will get out of the Wei family from now on!"

Liang lowered his head and stood sullenly on the side. Deep down in his heart, he had accepted the failure. He blamed himself for being naive and believing Youngzheng's words!

That being the case, it doesn't make any sense to stay in Wei's house, so it's better to make a clean break with them!

Thinking of this, Liang clenched his fists, gritted his teeth and said, "Okay! From now on, I and your family will be absolutely gracious!"

Barena was overjoyed in his heart, and said with a smirk: "You wild species, you still have to die with us. We wanted to kick you out a long time ago, don't you know? After raising you for so many years, it's d*mn enough to waste food!"

Charlie looked at Youngzheng and asked in a cold voice: "Mr. Wei, are you blatantly asking for revenge?"

Youngzheng said with disdain: "This is the Wei family's business, and it has nothing to do with you. The Wei family doesn't welcome you right now. Get out of here!"

Youngzheng didn't believe in Charlie's background at all, but there was a prescription that could cure Fredmen's illness. Such a person would definitely not be able to treat himself.

Moreover, now Fredmen's illness has been cured, and he has also left the Wei family. Even if he was hit and killed by a car when he went out, it had nothing to do with the Wei family.

That being the case, why bother to put Charlie in his eyes?

Chapter 509

Youngzheng's rebellion did not exceed Charlie's expectations.

As long as there is more than one child in the family, it is difficult for parents to treat everyone fairly. This is human nature.

It's as if the Old Mrs. Willson always felt that Claire didn't want to leave Charlie because she didn't know how to raise her. Wendy, who had always listened to her, naturally pleased her even more.

In Youngzheng's eyes, he didn't regard Liang as his own son at all. For so many years, he was only raised in the Wei family as a servant. How could he be willing to pass on the entire family business to him.

At this moment, Charlie looked at Youngzheng and asked him in a cold voice, "I will give you one last chance to give the chairmanship to the right person. You can speak after you think about it."

Youngzheng sneered and said: "I don't need to think about it. I'll tell you again. I can't give Liang the position of chairman! Let me tell you the truth. I never thought of giving him the position of chairman from the beginning, even if He saved the Wei family today, too. In my eyes, he will always be an illegitimate child who can't make it to the table. A woman from a village in Changbai Mountain carries the waste of his birth!"

With that said, Youngzheng looked at Liang again and yelled: "And you, you are a dog who eats inside and out. I have raised you for so many years. I want you to be a dog in Wei's family. You dare to covet the chairmanship. If I knew you had such wolf ambitions, I shouldn't have brought you back, but after that woman died, I should have thrown you into a ravine of Changbai Mountain!"

Liang showed unwilling eyes and was extremely angry: "Youngzheng, you can insult me, but you can't insult my mother!"

"Your mother?" Youngzheng said contemptuously: "A village girl at the foot of Changbai Mountain, who doesn't measure her strength, still dreams of marrying me, thinking of her will only make me feel sick!"

Liang trembled with anger and violent blue veins, and shouted angrily: "Youngzheng, you have insulted my mother over and over again, I'm fighting with you!"

When he was about to rush up, Charlie suddenly stopped him and said lightly: "Don't do anything with this kind of old crap. You, as the head of the Wei family and the chairman of Wei's pharmaceutical company, will not let someone gossiping."

When Charlie said this, all the people present were stunned.

Youngzheng was surprised at first, then laughed loudly: "You kid is really interesting, do you think you have the final say about the Wei family?"

Charlie nodded and said calmly: "Today I said he is the head of the Wei family, he is the head of the Wei family!"

Youngzheng said contemptuously: "Boy, you have cured Fredmen, I will forgive you once, now get out, I won't care about you, otherwise, I will let you know that the Wei family is not easy to mess with!"

Barena also kept yelling from the side: "Charlie, I haven't accounted for you the last time! If you don't know how to promote today, then I will even count the benefits with you!"

Charlie stepped forward, slapped him in circles!

No one thought that Charlie would do it!

Everyone in the Wei family is going to rush up. Not only is Charlie not afraid at all, but rather arrogantly coldly said: "You will listen to me. From today onwards, I, Charlie will officially chase Youngzheng and Barena and his son. I give killing order! Which of you is not afraid of death, you can stand for them. I don't mind adding a few more names to the killing order!"

The chasing order in the underground world is like the "fantastic" in the Hong Kong movie. Once the chasing order is issued and a reward is added, the entire underground world will be mobilized to hunt down the victims for the high reward.

Now Ichiro, who is raising a dog in Orvel's kennel, was ordered by his brother to kill in Japan. The reward amount is only 50 million. There are already countless people who are ready to move. If the reward is 50 million The heads of the Wei family father and son, then they will not be peaceful in this life.

When Youngzheng heard that Charlie was going to chase down him and his son, he immediately sneered: "Do you think you are great? My Wei family is worth at least one billion. I can take one billion out and give you another chase. A stronger killing order!"

Charlie said disdainfully: "You rubbish, you are not qualified to pursue the killing order."

With that said, Charlie took out his phone and called Mr. Orvel directly!

Immediately, the phone was connected, and Orvel respectfully asked, "Mr. Wade, what are your orders?"

Charlie said: "Mr. Orvel, give me a chasing order. I want to hunt down Youngzheng and Barena his son! A reward of 100 million! It will take effect today at 12 o'clock in the morning!"

Mr. Orvel said immediately: "Mr. Wade don't worry, I will tell the whole city!"

Chapter 510

Immediately afterwards, Barena's mobile phone popped up a WeChat message frantically.

He has a WeChat group with families that have a good relationship with the Wei family. Now the heads of these families are crazy

"Barena, how did you provoke Orvel? Now he is offering a bonus of 100 million, and he wants you and your dad's head! Effective tonight!"

Barena's face turned dark, and his heart was shocked and scared.

Before he could reply, another message was posted in the group.

"f*ck, Solmon White, the Patriarch of the White Family, has added a 100 million bonus to the Wei family and his son's chasing orders for the arena!"

"Qin Gang, the Patriarch of the Qin Family, has also taken action, and the bonus has now increased to 300 million!"

"My God! The Song family has also taken action! They directly added 200 million, and now the bonus is 500 million!"

Barena's face was extremely pale, the phone fell directly to the ground and the screen broke.

Youngzheng on the side hurriedly asked: "Barena, what happened?"

Barena was sweating profusely, and said the matter to Youngzheng in a panic.

When Youngzheng heard these words, he was so frightened!

what happened?

Why is this young man so influential?

Orvel was the only one who looked at him, and the White family and Qin family also showed their courtesy to him.

What is even more frightening is that the Song family, the largest family in Aurous Hill, has to flatter him? ! What is the origin of this guy? !

Five hundred million bonuses, so much money is placed here, he's afraid that the underground world of the country will treat him and his sons as treasures!

He was really scared this time. Looking at Charlie with an indifferent expression, his legs softened and he knelt directly on the ground, his face covered with cold sweat, and his whole body was shaking uncontrollably!

"Mr. Wade, be merciful! Be merciful!"

Youngzheng also knelt on the ground and began to plead, "Mr. Wade, I was wrong. I don't know Your excellency. Please forgive me. I will never dare to do it again. I am willing to be a dog for you. !"

Charlie looked at them coldly, and said lightly: "You want to live now? Were you not arrogant just now?"

Youngzheng slapped himself immediately, crying and said, "Mr. Wade, I am always confused. I didn't turn my mind just now. Please forgive me..."

After speaking, Youngzheng immediately said, "Mr. Wade, from now on Liang will be the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceuticals and the head of the Wei family! Are you satisfied now?"

Charlie said lightly: "If you said that when I asked you first, I would have been satisfied, but if you say it now, I am not so satisfied."

Youngzheng frightened his liver, and hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, how can you be satisfied?"

Charlie looked at him and said coldly with the pale face of Barena: "Aren't you 10,000 people who look down on Changbai Mountain and Liang, the woman who grew up under Changbai Mountain? Well, then you and your eldest son, in this life Just go to Changbai Mountain to dig ginseng, and you can't leave Changbai Mountain forever!"

Speaking of this, Charlie's expression became extremely cold, and he said word by word: "Listen to me for a lifetime, you can't leave Changbai Mountain!"

Chapter 511

Hearing this, Youngzheng was desperate!

He has always been very upset with the bitter cold land of Changbai Mountain!

Had it not been for the fact that he had to collect medicine personally when he started his business, he would not be willing to go to that cold place.

Precisely because he didn't look down on the bitter cold place, he didn't look down on Liang's mother as much as 10,000. He just felt that it was a temporary plaything, just playing with her and forgetting.

However, he never dreamed that Charlie would punish him and prevent him from leaving Changbai Mountain forever!

That's a place that he has always hated!

What's the difference between letting oneself go there and never leaving forever?

He had a problem with his body a long time ago, and he couldn't live for a few years. If he went to a place like Changbai Mountain, he would die faster, right?

Moreover, living in that place is simply better than death for a bad Old Master like him who is greedy for pleasure!

He looked at Charlie desperately, crying and begging: "Mr. Wade, my bad Old Master will not survive for a few years. Please be merciful. I am willing to pass on Wei's Pharmaceutical to Liang, and please let me stay in Aurous Hill, let me spend my old age here..."

Charlie asked coldly: "Have you ever thought that Liang's mother has been dead for twenty years? You s*umbag has lived twenty years longer than her, and you have made a lot of money! So, for the rest of the days in your life you will go to Changbai Mountain to confess! Not only do you go to the mountain every day to dig ginseng, but also have to sweep the grave of Liang's mother every day!"

After that, he looked at Liang and ordered: "Liang, after you accept Wei's Pharmaceuticals, immediately organize some people to go there, supervise them every day, and ask them to sweep your mother's grave every morning and enter the mountains every morning and afternoon. Collect ginseng, do not allow them to use mobile phones, surf the Internet, or watch TV. Let them live a life depending on sunrise and sunset every day! If they dare to be passive, break their legs and throw them into ice pops in the snow. !"

Liang was thrilled with excitement. Unexpectedly, Charlie not only helped himself get Wei's pharmaceuticals, but also helped him to discipline Youngzheng and Barena. More importantly, this punishment method was so hard that he would never even dream of it. The perfect ending!

Let them go to Changbai Mountain and spend the rest of their lives in the place they spurned. It is ironic, blackly humorous, and hate-free!

He was extremely grateful to Charlie, and he immediately knelt on the ground and said respectfully: "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for your perfection! Please rest assured, Mr. Wade, I will do it!"

Charlie gave a hum, glanced at Youngzheng and Barena and his son, and said coldly: "If these two dare to escape from Changbai Mountain, they will automatically activate the 500 million chasing order. As long as they dare to leave Changbai Mountain in this life, they will die! "

When Barena heard this, his eyes burst into tears.

He was already the second-in-chief of Wei's Pharmaceuticals. With a wide network of contacts in Aurous Hill and a well-earned family, his daily life is really a drunken fan.

Suddenly let him go to Changbai Mountain to dig ginseng, and he was not allowed to leave for the rest of his life, which made him more painful than being sentenced to life imprisonment!

After all, if he serves a sentence in a prison, he can at least get a little smoke from modern society.

However, if he goes to Changbai Mountain, that bitter cold land, how can he stand it?

Chapter 512

So he cried out in despair and collapsed: "No! I won't go! I don't want to go digging for ginseng in ghost places like Changbai Mountain!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie and kowtowed his head and said: "Mr. Wade, please forgive me. I am willing to leave China and never come back. Never trouble Liang again. Please don't let me go to Changbai Mountain.

Charlie didn't give them a chance at all, and directly ordered the rest of the Wei family: "You, Wei family, listen to me. From now on, you have only two paths. Either follow Liang and work hard, and Liang will make sure Your own vested interests are met; or, follow these two to Changbai Mountain to dig ginseng!"

After speaking, Charlie's expression was stunned, and he shouted: "I'll give you ten seconds to stand in line. After thinking about whom to follow, you will stand behind whom!"

As soon as Charlie said this, everyone in the Wei family immediately moved.

However, they all stood behind Liang, all scrambling, without exception!

Youngzheng and Barena scolded angrily: "You gang of white-eyed wolves, our Wei family has really raised you for nothing!"

Everyone completely ignored the accusations of their father and son. As the saying goes, the tree fell and the wall fell and everyone pushed. The father and son had obviously lost power. At this time, the fool would not stand with them, and then follow them to Changbai Mountain to dig for a lifetime of ginseng!

Barena cried loudly, and Youngzheng on the side convulsed all over.

Seeing that the situation is over, Barena could only look at Liang, crying and begging: "Liang, my good brother, although we are not born to the same mother, we are the same father's children anyway! Half of the blood on our bodies is the same, I am sorry. Poor brother, help me brother plead with Mr. Wade, and forgive me brother! From now on, the Wei family will be yours. I don't need anything, as long as you don't send me to Changbai Mountain!"

Liang looked at him coldly and said, "I will not disobey Mr. Wade's decision for a sc*m like you! What's more, you have not regarded me as a younger brother for so many years. You have insulted me and insulted my mother for so many years. I have hated you for a long time! Your fate today is entirely on your own account, I am too happy to be too late!"

Youngzheng said shiveringly: "Liang, why am I also your biological father? Would you not be afraid of thunder and lightning if you treat your biological father like this?!"

"Won't be afraid!" Liang asked coldly: "It's you. You have hurt so many women and betrayed so many of your own flesh and blood. Are you not afraid of retribution?"

Speaking of this, Liang said seriously: "Actually, you are already getting retribution! You know in your heart that you have not been alive for a few years. Even if a miracle happens, you may be able to live for a few more years, depending on your physical condition. , The period of living more is equal to suffering more! This is your retribution!"

"You...you..." Wei Yong was speechless, angrily for a while, his whole body coughing violently.

Charlie said indifferently: "Give you two an hour to prepare. After an hour, I will arrange for someone to take you to Changbai Mountain!"

After speaking, he immediately called Orvel and said: "Mr. Orvel, you arrange a few clever brothers, arrange two cars, let them pick up the Wei family father and son, and send them all the way to Changbai Mountain! "

Orvel immediately said: "Okay Mr. Wade, I will make arrangements!"

After speaking, Orvel asked again: "By the way, Mr. Wade, Why sending them to Changbai Mountain?"

Charlie said: "Send them to the village at the foot of Changbai Mountain. After that, you will buy them a small house that barely shelters the wind and rain, let the father and son live in, and buy them some rice, noodles, cereals and oil. They are the people of Changbai Mountain, and death is the ghost of Changbai Mountain. Even if they are cremated, the ashes must be buried at the foot of Changbai Mountain! Understand?"

Orvel blurted out: "Mr. Wade, I understand!"

Chapter 513

The Wei family father and son sat on the ground and cried bitterly. Until now, they were unwilling to accept and were given the fate of Changbai Mountain.

Seeing that they were still there with ink stains, Charlie said lightly: "Although it is only autumn, it is already very cold in Changbai Mountain. If you don't have thick clothes for the winter, and if you go there to freeze to death and frostbite, you will be completely blamed."

When the father and son heard this, they suddenly realized that if the delay continued and the people from Mr. Orvel came, they would really have to go to Changbai Mountain empty-handed.

So the father and son looked at each other, got up in despair, crying, and went to their respective rooms to pack their things.

At this moment, they had completely given up the resistance in their hearts, because the strength that Charlie showed was far beyond their carrying range.

The big families in Aurous Hill are all adding bonuses for Charlie. If they don't leave, they will really die in Aurous Hill!

The rest of the Wei family avoided both father and son. Even if Youngzheng was not well and had limited mobility, other people were unwilling to step forward to help. After all, no one wanted to offend Liang, the new head of the Wei family, let alone no one. Want to offend Charlie, whose hands and eyes are open to the sky.

When the father and son packed their things, Orvel personally brought a few younger brothers over.

This time, Orvel arranged a total of six younger brothers, with three land cruisers with relatively strong overall performance and adaptability, and prepared to drive all the way north and directly to Changbai Mountain.

It takes at least two days to reach the road over two thousand kilometers.

The little brothers Orvel looked for were all excellent players with extraordinary strength under their hands. With six of them, the Wei family father and son have absolutely no chance to escape.

Even Charlie feels that if they let them run, they may not dare to run, because once they run, they will be chased by all walks of life. By then, they will really lose their lives. It is better to go to Changbai Mountain honestly.

Half an hour later, the Wei family head and his son, who had packed two large suitcases of luggage, came to the lobby full of despair.

Seeing this, Charlie opened his mouth and said, "Okay, the people and cars to take you north have arrived. Hurry up and get in the car and set off now."

The father and son can only nod sullenly, and then they are taken away by Orvel's younger brothers.

When they left, the two turned their heads one step at a time, but even if the two of them were very reluctant, they had to get out at this time.

Youngzheng regrets most in his heart.

Knowing this a long time ago, it would be better for Liang to honestly give him the position of chairman he promised after he resolved the crisis. In this case, Liang would certainly not drive him to Changbai Mountain.

Therefore, the reason why there is today is, in the final analysis, made by myself.

Liang watched Youngzheng and Barena get into the car with his own eyes. The three cars left Wei's house and went straight to Changbai Mountain, more than 2,000 kilometers away.

There were tears in his eyes until the team disappeared from sight.

Immediately, he stepped up to Charlie, without a word, he knelt on his knees, and squatted three heads vigorously, then raised his head, choked and said, "Mr. Wade I feel fulfilled! I had two major wishes in this life. They have been realized. From now on, Liang's life belongs to Mr. Wade, Wei's Pharmaceutical, and Mr. Wade. In this life, Liang will always listen to your dispatch! As long as you say a word, Liang dares to blink A glance, the sky must thunder!"

Charlie smiled indifferently and said, "Liang, you have a backbone and are a filial son. What you lacked is an opportunity. I admire you, so I am willing to fulfill your dreams, but you must remember that you must never live the life of the person you hate. If you let me know in the future that you have become another Youngzheng, then I will kill you with my own hands, understand?"

Liang knocked his head down, unable to get up for a while, and said loudly: "I understand! If Liang is half similar to Youngzheng in the future and fails Mr. Wade's entrustment, Liang would like to apologize with death!"

Chapter 514

Charlie nodded and said lightly: "Get up, sort out the Wei family's industry and manage it well. Someday in the future, I may use you."

Liang immediately said: "Mr. Wade has any instructions, Liang dare not disobey!"

For Liang, his life has been completely completed today.

Therefore, for the rest of his life, there are only two thoughts in his mind.

First, repay Charlie's great kindness;

Second, live a different life from Youngzheng!

Charlie patted Liang on the shoulder and said indifferently: "Do a good job so that your mother can be proud of you even under heavens!"

Liang nodded his head heavily, tears couldn't stop screaming.

Charlie said to Tianqi and Zhovia at this time: "The matter is settled, let's go."

Zhovia looked at Charlie at this time as if she looked at the god of heaven.

She had never expected that a man could be so domineering and even so attractive. When Charlie sent out the Wei family father and son just now, that courage was really unprecedented.

Although Tianqi had been known throughout his life, he also admired Charlie more and more, feeling that his decision to stay in Aurous Hill was one of the most correct decisions he had made in these years.

On the way back, Zhovia drove, Charlie and Tianqi were sitting in the back row. Tianqi was still sighing: "Mr. Wade, your handling of the Wei family is really reasonable and well-founded. I admire it!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "The best way to punish a person is to force him to accept what he hates the most. Changbai Mountain is our treasure mountain in China. It is rich in resources. I don't know how many natural materials and treasures there are, but Youngzheng mentioned it. Changbai Mountain is disgusted and spurned. In that case, it is better to let him live in Changbai Mountain for the rest of his life."

After a pause, Charlie went on to say: "If he can realize the beauty of Changbai Mountain for the rest of his life, then he will be considered as not lost; if he persists until death, he will also spend the rest of his life in pain, and Die in pain with his current attitude."

Tianqi sighed, "Mr. Wade, you want Youngzheng to go by himself!"

Charlie said lightly: "I'm not that great. I just want to teach him a deep enough lesson for the rest of his life. As for whether he can survive on his own, it has nothing to do with me. Maybe he couldn't stand the environment there and committ suicide after he arrives in Changbai Mountain. Or he can fully realize that there is a good death in Changbai Mountain, but it all depends on him and has nothing to do with me."

Tianqi arched his hands and said convincingly: "Mr. Wade, you are a man of great wisdom!"

Charlie waved his hand: "Great wisdom dare not be, just a little clever."

As he said, Charlie remembered something, took out a small wooden box from his pocket, and handed it to him: "Old Shi, this is the medicine I saved for you. You keep it."

Tianqi hurriedly took it and said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Wade."

Charlie took out a newly refined rejuvenating pill and handed it to him: "This medicine is newly refined by me. If you take it before going to bed at night, it will make you at least ten years younger. If nothing happens, Life span can also increase by ten years."

Tianqi was shocked and dumbfounded: "Mr. Wade...Mr. Wade...this medicine really has such a magical effect?!"

Chapter 515

Rejuvenation Pill, to ordinary people, can indeed be regarded as an elixir.

After all, this thing can really make people younger and even extend their life.

However, to Charlie, this pill was nothing special. Even if it was a rejuvenating pill, it was just a relatively low-level pill recorded in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures.

This time, he refined a total of 30 pills. He prepared one part for himself to use to strengthen his body, and the other part. If there is someone who is more obedient and sensible, he can reward one with.

Although Tianqi is very old and an old senior in the field of traditional medicine, in Charlie's eyes, he is actually only half of his disciple.

He wholeheartedly hopes to be by his side and repay him for his kindness in rebuilding. In many cases, although he can't help too much, but fortunately, he has a sincere heart. Coupled with his old age, giving him a rejuvenation pill is also a favor.

So he said to Tianqi: "Don't be reluctant to take this medicine, and don't keep it, take it tonight, and then get a good sleep."

Tianqi suppressed the excitement in his heart and said respectfully: "I understand, Master!"

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "I hope you will be healthy and youthful and make more contributions to ordinary people in the Clinic."

Tianqi said immediately: "Mr. Wade can rest assured, I opened the clinic, not to make money, but to treat patients and save people, patients are never charged for medical treatment, and only charge for medicine. If the family has difficulties, medical expenses are often exempted!"

Charlie said with satisfaction: "This is a good thing, keep it up."

.....

When Charlie just returned home, Fredmen, who was finally cured of the root ulcer, left the People's Hospital and returned to Willson's house.

The reason why he came to the People's Hospital was mainly to find a doctor for another diagnosis and see if he was really well.

The doctor also found it very miraculous. This was a serious ulcer that was about to be amputated, but he didn't expect it to be abruptly restored.

After going through a series of inspections and confirming that the ulcer was cured, Fredmen was completely relieved.

After leaving the hospital, Fredmen looked up at Aurous Hill Sky, and shook his head bitterly.

He felt that the aura of Aurous Hill was not compatible with him, so he planned to pack his luggage and return to Eastcliff immediately.

Aurous Hill has become Fredmen's sad place. If it is not necessary, he will never want to come back in his life.

Before coming to Aurous Hill, he was a dragon and phoenix among the people;

After coming, he lost his male prowess.

Not only that, but also suffered all kinds of humiliation, and even almost lost the most precious thing, but what did he get?

Nothing!

Even the young and beautiful Wendy, after only a few days of getting started, he completely lost the ability to get started.

And he spent 15 million to live a happy life in those few days!

Thinking about it now, Fredmen still feels pain.

Where did Wendy know that she was already the woman with the least value for money in Fredmen's eyes.

She has been waiting for Fredmen to come back, waiting for Fredmen to regain his glory.

Chapter 516

After Fredmen returned to the Willson family, they saw Fredmen coming back and hurriedly greeted him and said with joy: "Fredmen, you are finally back. Has the Wei family cured your illness?"

Fredmen said irritably, "The Wei family couldn't cure my disease at all, so I asked Charlie to treat me in the end."

"Charlie?" Wendy hurriedly asked: "Did he heal you?"

Fredmen sighed and said, "He's just cured the fester, but it still can't be used..."

Wendy said indignantly: "Then you shouldn't let the Wei family go easily, especially that Barena. It was he who fooled you when you took their Wei family's inferior medicine and caused you to suffer so much sin and so much suffering. Let them heal you for that too!"

Fredmen said with a cold face: "Charlie was here today, so I won't continue to care about this matter with the Wei family. After I return to Eastcliff, I will ask the Wei family for an explanation!"

When Wendy heard this, she asked in surprise: "Mr...Fredmen, are you going back to Eastcliff?"

Fredmen glanced at Wendy, and said lightly: "Of course I have to go back. Hasn't it been unlucky enough for me in Aurous Hill?"

When Wendy heard that the Great God of Wealth was going to leave, she was a little flustered, and quickly said: "But Fredmen, I don't want to leave you, you take me to Eastcliff, okay."

Wendy knew that the Willson family had no hope of turning over this time.

Fredmen promised to invest 80 million, but only 10 million was actually invested, which is not enough to repay the debt.

She now feels that she has nowhere to go. Aurous Hill already knows about being Fredmen's lover. In the future, she wants to find a good person to marry in Aurous Hill, and the chance is almost zero.

Therefore, she can only hug Fredmen's thigh tightly now, otherwise, she will not be able to turn over in her life.

However, how could Fredmen take her to Eastcliff, after all, he is a person with a family, otherwise his wife would not have a quarrel?

Besides, it is useless for Fredmen to ask Wendy now. He can only see but can't eat. What's the use?

Therefore, Fredmen said rudely to Wendy: "Eastcliff is not something you can go to. Honestly stay in Aurous Hill."

Wendy panicked and blurted out: "Then what should I do?"

Fredmen said coldly: "What else can we do? The fate of the two of us is exhausted. As for whether there will be fate in the future, I will talk about it when I come back from Eastcliff one day."

Fredmen was about to leave suddenly, and the entire Willson family was confused.

The Old Mrs. Willson also counted on Fredmen to make up for the 80 million promised. If Fredmen left at this time, it would be equivalent to kicking the Willson family into the abyss.

At that time, the Willson family had no other way to go except bankrupt.

Moreover, because the company still has a lot of debts that cannot be paid off, even the old villa of Mrs. Willson will not be able to keep it!

Therefore, Fredmen almost became the only life-saving straw for Mr. Willson, if he left, the Willson family would be in desperation again.

So, the Old Mrs. Willson was blushing, begging to Fredmen, "Fredmen, if you leave, our Willson family will be over. We are your own family. Wendy has followed you again. You can't leave her behind!"

Having said that, the Old Mrs. Willson said busy: "Fredmen, why don't you take her back to Eastcliff, she will be by your side in the future, and everything will be yours!"

Noah also begged and said, "Yes, Fredmen, you are in Aurous Hill these days, our Willson family treats you in every possible way. My father saved your father's life, so you should do your best and take her to Eastcliff."

Fredmen looked at the Old Mrs. Willson and Noah, with a look of disgust flashing in his eyes, and said coldly: "Joke, we are not relatives, why are you following me to Eastcliff?"

Speaking of this, Fredmen said again: "Furthermore, although your Old Master did save my father back then, I invested 10 million in your Willson family, and it can be regarded as paying off this favor. So from now on, we will owe each other No debt!"

Chapter 517

Fredmen couldn't look down on the old Mrs. Willson, so it was impossible to manage the life and death of the Willson family.

Now he just wants to return to Eastcliff quickly, and then visit Eastcliff's famous doctor to see if he can heal.

At this time, the Old Mrs. Willson still wanted to come over and beg for a few words, but Fredmen did not give her a chance at all and waved his hand directly: "Okay, I will go up and pack things now, so please do it yourself!"

Old Mrs. Willson's face turned pale, and she continued to plead, "Mr. Willson, you can't leave us behind. You know the current situation of our Willson family. Without your support, it will definitely collapse completely... "

With that, the Old Mrs. Willson winked at Wendy quickly.

Wendy also immediately pleaded: "Fredmen, grandma said yes, and you said before that you want to invest 80 million in the Willson family? Only 10 million has been given until now, which can't solve the Willson family's problems!"

As she said, he was busy and said again: "Why don't you give us the remaining 70 million, so that we can continue to maintain it, and how we can go back to Aurous Hill in the future, we may already be relieved." "

Others also looked expectantly. Fredmen could leave, but the money had to be given, otherwise the Willson family would be gone.

Harold also licked his face to Fredmen and said, "Fredmen, my sister has followed you. Who does not know that Aurous Hill is an upper class person? You also know that she is still an unmarried girl. She is your woman. You can't watch her suffer when you are gone, right?"

What the Willson family didn't expect was that Fredmen's expression became even uglier after hearing this!

He cursed with a dark face: "Money, money, money, you three generations of grandparents, you know you want money every day! Even if I'm worthy of you if I didn't take back your ten million, you still dare to ask me for money? dream!"

The Old Mrs. Willson still didn't give up, she squeezed out a few tears and said, "Fredmen, you can do it well, without your help, our Willson family will be over!"

Others also pleaded, just like a beggar on the side of the road.

Fredmen was upset by the quarrel and directly slapped the Old Mrs. Willson with a slap: "One more nonsense, I will immediately ask the lawyer to seek compensation from you and ask you to refund the previous 10 million investment! You can figure it out!"

Old Mrs. Willson covered her face, and she didn't dare to speak anymore.

What if Fredmen is really anxious and asks for the ten million?

As a result, she could only sigh in her heart, while watching Fredmen finish packing his luggage and leave with the bodyguard.

After Fredmen left, the five members of the Willson family fell into a sad atmosphere.

Old Mrs. Willson was upset, Harold and Wendy were perplexed, while Noah and his wife Horiyah had their own ghosts.

In fact, Noah still had some savings in his hands.

He himself had a deposit of about 10 million. Later, the 5 million that Fredmen gave to Wendy also went into the pockets of the couple. This 15 million was for buying a house.

If he took the money out, he would be able to pay off most of the debts of the Willson family, but how could he be willing?

The current Willson family is a bottomless pit, and money is filled in, and there will be no return. In that case, why invest money?

Anyway, the company belongs to Mrs. Willson, and she is also responsible for the debt relationship. If the court seizes her villa and funds in the future, she will not find her own. If she owns this 15 million, she is considered to have it. A foundation for the elderly.

Thinking of this, Noah deliberately wanted to give the ball to Mrs. Willson, so he took the lead and said anxiously: "Mom, our bank and supplier still are to be paid a lot of debts. If they come to the door, what shall we pay back? Ah! I'm afraid that even this villa will be closed for auction by the bank. We have to prepare in advance..."

Chapter 518

Old Mrs. Willson also looked sad.

How to do it? What can we do?

The Willson family now has no source of income, owes a lot of foreign debt, and the capital chain has long been broken. At this time, the only thing that can be done is to quickly find investment, otherwise it will soon fall apart.

However, Fredmen, who was most likely to help the Willson family, also left. Who else can the Willson family call now?

Old Mrs. Willson sighed and said: "Now that we can only go one step at a time."

As she said, her eyes suddenly lit up, looked at Wendy, and blurted out: "Wendy, didn't Fredmen give you to Barena? Although the strength of the Wei family is not as good as Fredmen, the scale of assets is at least two billion, how about you go to him and find a way to let him invest tens of millions to help us tide over the difficulties?"

Noah also said excitedly: "Yes! Why forgot Barena from the Wei family! Wendy, you have had some stories with him anyway, at this time he can't help but die?"

Wendy was too embarrassed to do her best for her own people at this time. When she thought that Barena could solve the problems of the Willson family, she immediately took out her mobile phone and called Barena.

But how did she know that Barena was sitting in a land cruiser at this time, heading north quickly?

The driver who drove didn't know whether it was intentional or intentional. He played a folk song from mountains all the way from north, and Barena felt cold when he heard the song.

Moreover, his mobile phone was taken away and turned off long ago, because Charlie clearly ordered that he could not use his mobile phone or surf the Internet.

Therefore, he didn't even know that Wendy was looking for him at this time and was anxious.

Wendy was a little surprised after a few phone calls could not be made. She held her mobile phone and muttered, "What's the matter? Barena's phone turned off. Their Wei family just solved Fredmen's troubles. It should be time to breathe! "

Old Mrs. Willson said: "Maybe the phone is out of power, please try again later!"

"Okay!"

Wendy was about to try again later. At this time, the great turmoil that had just occurred in the Wei family had spread throughout Aurous Hill.

Especially the pharmaceutical industry has directly turned up the stormy sea.

Youngzheng, the head of the Wei family, and his eldest son, Barena, the future successor of Wei's Pharmaceuticals, were driven to Changbai Mountain, and there were even multiple families jointly issued a killing order. Everyone realized that Youngzheng and Barena must be someone who has offended someone.

But no one knows who they offended.

The Wei family dare not talk nonsense, let alone naming him.

The news spread more widely and faster, and soon reached Noah.

When he found that Barena and his father Youngzheng had completely lost power and were now on their way to dig ginseng in Changbai Mountain, he suddenly fell into despair.

He told the Willson family about the incident. The Old Mrs. Willson's blood pressure went up on the spot, and she fell back in a daze. If Noah didn't have eyesight and quick hands, the Lady Willson might fall into trouble.

Noah helped the Lady Willson onto the sofa and sat down. The Lady Willson burst into tears, patted her thighs and cried, "God, you are going to kill the Willson family!"

Chapter 519

Mrs. Willson's whole body was completely desperate.

She didn't want all the hard work of a lifetime to be wasted in the end.

Moreover, she has no other real estate in Aurous Hill, only this villa.

If the Willson family really goes bankrupt, this villa will definitely be sealed up. At that time, she and her eldest son's family will all be on the streets.

She suddenly remembered that the eldest son Noah should still have some money in his hands, so she hurriedly asked him: "Noah, how much money do you have now?"

Noah sighed in his heart and blurted out: "Mom, I don't have much money in my hand, just a few million..."

"Few millions? Why are so few?" The Old Mrs. Willson frowned and asked, "Fredmen alone gave Wendy five million. You ate and lived at home all these years, and you also received the salary of the Willson Group. How about your savings?"

Noah cried and said, "Mom, how can I save? Although the expenses in life are low these years, I still have to raise Harold, Wendy and Horiyah, and I spend money on my own. It is also relatively large, so basically no money has been saved."

Old Mrs. Willson said: "In this way, you first put the money out and invest it in the company. It can be delayed for a while, and then I will find a way to find some investment."

Noah hurriedly said, "Mom, I bought all this money for regular financial management...I can't get it out!"

"You don't joke with me!" Old Mrs. Willson snorted coldly and said, "Don't think I don't know your careful thoughts, don't you just have the savings for yourself?"

Noah didn't dare to make a sound.

The Old Mrs. Willson asked: "Have you heard a word? There are finished eggs under the covered nest? If the Willson family falls, do you think you can live well?"

Noah nodded hurriedly and said, "Mom, you are right...but I really save my money regularly."

"How about regular?" Mrs. Willson said coldly, "It's not that I haven't saved money. Regular financial management can be withdrawn in advance. It is nothing more than loss of interest. In this situation, you still think about regular financial management. Interest? I'll give you one day, quickly take the money out, put it in the company account, and then I will communicate with a few creditors to see if I can make an installment repayment, it is best to get us Time to breathe for a year or two!"

These years, it is also very troublesome for creditors to collect debts. Therefore, sometimes if the debtor has a good attitude and can clearly give an instalment repayment method, and can pay a little first, most creditors will agree to installment repayment.

What the Old Mrs. Willson wanted was to use Noah's millions to stabilize the remaining creditors, and then buy herself some time.

Otherwise, the villa may be sealed up next month.

Noah was 10,000 unwilling in his heart.

He knows that the Willson family is now a bottomless pit, and he doesn't want to put money into it. But since his mother asked so strongly, he can only nod his head, pretend to agree, and say, "Don't worry, I'll wait with Horiyah. Go to the bank and withdraw the money from financial management and transfer it to the company's account!"

Old Mrs. Willson was slightly satisfied, and she said, "I guess you have at least 10 million in cash, so let's put 8 million in the company's account first, not more."

Noah cursed secretly in his heart, the Lady Willson's appetite is really big enough, presuming that he has ten million, and she wants eight?

This money, he will not give a cent!

Thinking of this, he promised in face, while quietly winking at Horiyah.

After agreeing to come down, Noah said to the Lady Willson: "Mom, Horiyah and I are going to bank now. You can wait a while at home."

Mrs. Willson nodded in satisfaction: "Go and come back quickly."

Noah took Horiyah out of the house. Horiyah couldn't wait to ask: "Are you crazy?! Why promise the Lady Willson to give her 8 million? We only have 15 millions in total!"

Chapter 520

"I'm not crazy!" Noah said hurriedly, "Promise to my mother is just a slow-down. Let's spend the money quickly so she won't worry about it anymore. It's best to find a good house today and buy it!"

Horiyah asked in surprise: "Buy now?"

"Yes!" Noah said, "Didn't my mother think that I have ten million? Then let's use ten million to buy a house, and then throw the house purchase contract in front of her and tell her that she has the money to buy a house. what?"

Horiyah suddenly smiled, and blurted out: "Okay, always do it, I really have you! Come! Let's go to the real estate now!"

When the Willson family was in trouble again, the Wei family became famous throughout Aurous Hill.

What happened just now in the Wei family made countless people sigh with emotion. They realized that as long as your strength is not top-notch, you are likely to become the fish of the strong at any time!

Wei's Pharmaceuticals can be regarded as a large pharmaceutical company in the south of the Yangtze River, and Youngzheng and Barena have also enjoyed unlimited success.

But now? In a blink of an eye, the two were sent to Changbai Mountain and became ginseng pickers with no identities, difficult survival, and never leaving Changbai Mountain. It couldn't be more miserable!

And the illegitimate son Liang, who is the most unwelcome and has almost no presence in the Wei family, has become the head of the Wei family and the chairman of Wei's Pharmaceutical. This is really shocking.

However, surprise is surprised, but everyone knows that Liang inherits the entire Wei family alone, which is definitely the rhythm of the upcoming rise.

Moreover, it seems that Orvel, White Family, Qin Family and even Song Family are all behind helping Liang to sit as chairman.

This proves that Liang has a certain relationship with these families, and represents that Liang's strength will be improved on the basis of the original Wei family.

Before today, many people in Aurous Hill had bullied Liang.

Before, Liang was only an illegitimate child, and his status in the Wei family was not much better than that of his subordinates.

He came out with Barena, and he was insulted by others. Many people even deliberately insulted Liang in order to please Barena.

They thought that Liang would not be able to turn over in his entire life, but no one expected that he would actually turn over, and even so thoroughly.

So, starting from noon, many people from the Wei family came to him.

They presented Liang with generous gifts and congratulated him on his appointment as chairman of Wei's Pharmaceuticals.

Among them, many people are those who have insulted him, and even those who have beaten and insulted him.

Not only did they prepare generous gifts, they even hoped that Liang would forgive them with sincerity, for fear that after Liang's rise, but he would also seek revenge from them.

And Liang really did not take the opportunity to take revenge at all.

He smiled and treated everyone who had insulted him with a smile.

Because he always followed Charlie's instructions in his heart, he would never be the kind of person he hated the most!

The humiliation and oppression that he has suffered before are all tempered by God. If it weren't for those experiences, how could he have this good fortune and be helped by Mr. Wade to a high position?

Therefore, he did not dare to float, and he did not dare to float at all.

He just wanted to be a human being, act low-key, and do well in Wei's pharmaceuticals, to satisfy Mr. Wade, but also to have more abilities and opportunities to repay his kindness.

Chapter 521

When the Wei family news hit the whole city, Charlie, who threw the Wei family father and son into h*ll and lifted Liang to the sky, was wearing an apron at home and cooking lunch for his wife and father-in-law.

At the dinner table, Jacob and Elaine were actively discussing things about the Wei family. The two liked to discuss such gossip, especially Elaine. If she knew someone had something wrong, she would be happy for three days.

Just when Elaine laughed at Wei family father and son for having blood mold, Claire couldn't help but said, "Mom, don't always look down at people and make jokes."

Elaine snorted and said, "I can ignore other people's jokes, but I can't help but read the jokes of the Wei family!"

After that, Elaine said mysteriously: "By the way, do you know that Wendy seemed to have gotten with Barena a few days ago!"

"Huh?" Claire was surprised, and blurted out: "No? Barena is in his thirties, and Wendy is a round older, right? I think Wendy must look down on him."

Elaine curled his lips: "What do you think Wendy is? I tell you, I also heard that Wendy had been a lover for a period of time for Fredmen, chairman of Eastcliff Future Company Group! Later Fredmen transferred her to Barena!"

Jacob said incredulously: "You said that Fredmen from Eastcliff? Wendy was his lover? Impossible, right? Fredmen is older than my eldest brother!"

Elaine said: "Your mother wanted to curry favor with Fredmen and ask Fredmen to save the Willson family, so she instructed Wendy to get along with Fredmen. Fredmen was also quite interesting, and he also invested 10 million in the Willson family. This matter is known to the outside world."

"My God..." Claire exclaimed, "How could grandma be so excessive?! Let Wendy go with Fredmen for money? How could my uncle and aunt agree?"

"They?" Elaine curled her lips and smiled: "They can't expect it!"

Speaking of this, Elaine said mockingly: "The Lady Willson's wishful thinking is good, but it is of no use. Fredmen only invested 10 million in the Willson family, and he was reluctant to vote if it was too much."

Claire said: "The debts outside the Willson Group are about 30 million. Having this million is a drop in the bucket. Grandma and the others should not have a good time."

"She deserves it!" Elaine said contemptuously, "Your grandma is really not a good thing! What has happened to bully our family for so many years? I am now anxious that the Willson family will soon go bankrupt, watching the Lady Willson sleep on the street. At that time, she will realize how many mistakes she has made in her life! When I think about it, I feel hatred!"

Jacob on the side said embarrassingly: "Okay, it's really wrong for mom to do something, but don't curse her like that! If the Willson family really goes bankrupt and the Lady Willson really sleeps on the street, she will come to us, we can still ignore her?"

Elaine blurted out: "What are you kidding me? Of course it doesn't matter! Don't say that she sleeps on the street and I don't care. Even if she starves to death, I will not care about her! You forgot when she drove our family out, yes What kind of face? I tell you, I will never forgive her in my life!"

Jacob sighed and said nothing more.

He was indeed angry with the Lady Willson, but he was only angry, not to mention the hatred of Elaine.

Elaine said triumphantly at this time: "I'm looking forward to the end of the Willson family. By then, they will be over. Our family will move to the big villa in Tomson. I must let them know what is meant by thirty years in hell and thirty years in Heaven!"

After that, Elaine said to Charlie: "Charlie, have you been in contact with Solmon White of the White family recently? Ask him to arrange for the decoration company to speed up the progress. Let us move in if we say anything next month!"

Chapter 522

Charlie nodded and said: "Solmon White told me that the construction will definitely be completed next month and we will be able to move in then."

Claire said, "Isn't it inappropriate to move in as soon as the renovation is completed? How can the air in it taste like?"

Elaine hurriedly said, "No need, no, I went to see with your dad last time. They used imported non-polluting materials and zero formaldehyde for the decoration of the house. There is really no smell in the room. The fresh air system is installed, and the fresh air is replaced 24 hours a day. You don't know how advanced and healthy it is!"

Claire nodded, and said nothing more.

In fact, she herself didn't feel much about moving to Tomson's villa.

But the last time Charlie was right, at least he could not live on the same floor as his parents when he moved there. In this case, there would be a lot more private space, not as it is now, even in her own room, there is no privacy...

Moreover, she also promised Elsa that after moving to the villa, she would reserve a room for her and invite her to live in. She is a girl and has been living in a hotel alone, but it is actually quite deserted.

Charlie didn't care about the villa. Before he was eight years old, he had been in the orphanage for so many years after that.

At this time, Elaine suddenly received a WeChat message, picked up the phone and glanced at it, and her brows were instantly happy.

She opened the mouth and said to the three of them: "In the afternoon, an old sister asked me to play mahjong at her house. It takes eight laps. I won't come back for dinner."

Jacob said in surprise, "Eight laps? Then ten hours?"

Elaine gave him a white look and said, "What's the matter with ten hours? Two days and two nights, more than forty hours in the big game, I haven't played when I was young!"

Jacob persuaded: "You are old after all now! Sitting for a long time is prone to many diseases, such as lumbar disc herniation, cervical spondylosis, and high blood pressure, all of which are caused by sitting for a long time."

Elaine waved her hand: "I'm in good health, don't curse me!"

Claire frowned, and couldn't help but say with some worry: "Mom, you occasionally play mahjong for fun. I don't have any opinion, but you listen to advice, one is not to play for too long, and the other is not to If you play that one again, you will win or lose thousands of money."

"Oh, playing mahjong is just a fun!"

Elaine said nonchalantly: "Besides, I go out to play mahjong every day. Isn't it for this family? Your dad refuses one. Charlie is not only a Rubbish, but also a big fool who deceives people everywhere. They may come to our house in the future. What a disaster, you are starting a business now, and the company has not seen the money back. How will your father and I support it? I will now point to playing mahjong to earn money and subsidize the family!"

Charlie was very upset.

This mother-in-law, she likes to pull him out to make a mockery if she is okay, and now he feels like a big fool, he really wants to draw a big mouth on his face, and tell her: Since you think I'm a big fool, then I'll fool you Villa, don't live in licking your face!

In the final analysis, mother-in-law still owes a lot to clean up!

Chapter 523

Because there was a card house waiting, Elaine didn't wait for the meal to finish, so he walked out with her bag on her back and immediately took a taxi to an older villa complex.

An old friend of hers lives in this villa area.

XiDollar Villa was regarded as a relatively good villa in Aurous Hill twenty years ago, but after all, it has been a long time since it has gradually lost some ground.

In the past, Elaine felt that XiDollar Villa was already a standard mansion, and her family might not be able to live in such a single-family villa in this life.

But now it's different. As soon as she thought of being able to live in the best Tomson villa in Aurous Hill, Elaine was a little scornful of this XiDollar villa.

The old friend who lives here is named Shehlain, who Elaine has known many years ago.

Shehlain's family was a good family. Her husband made a lot of money in the early years, and then died because of an accident, leaving Shehlain with a lot of money.

After Shehlain pulled the child up and sent the child abroad for higher education, she played mah for fun every day.

Moreover, Shehlain has money and poor card skills. She always loses more and wins less when playing cards. Every time Elaine plays cards with her, she can win points.

So Elaine regards Shehlain as her god of wealth, as long as Shehlain asks her to play cards, she will definitely be there.

Ringing the doorbell of Shehlain's house, the door opened quickly, and a woman about the age of Elaine, with a warm smile on her face, greeted, "Sister Elaine is here, come in!"

This middle-aged woman is Shehlain.

Elaine hurriedly greeted her, stepped through the door, and said with a smile: "Oh, Shehlain, I'm so embarrassed to keep you waiting for a long time."

When they came to the living room, the other two mahjong friends who often played cards with her were already sitting at the mahjong table and waiting.

"Sister Elaine, you can count it!"

Seeing her coming, another middle-aged woman said impatiently: "Sit down, let's make an eight-lap hot hand!"

After Elaine and Shehlain were both on the mahjong table, the card game officially began.

Elaine rubbed the mahjong while saying, "Shehlain, you have lived in this villa for some years, right?"

After touching a card, Shehlain smiled and replied: "This house was bought more than ten years ago, but it was mainly for investment at the time. After my child went abroad, I have been living in a building in the city. The villa is too big. Living alone is discomforting."

"Then have you thought about redecorating it?" Elaine came to be interested and said, "I told you that my girl happened to be running a decoration company, and also cooperated with our Aurous Hill Emgrand Group, and the level is absolutely guaranteed. If you want to redecorate, I can ask her to give you a friendly price. When the time comes, she will definitely make your villa as magnificent as the palace!"

"Sister Elaine, thank you for your kindness." Shehlain smiled slightly, then sighed, and said, "However, I plan to sell this villa."

"Sell it?" Elaine asked puzzledly: "Why do you want to sell it? You are not the one who lacks money. Your husband left you seven or eight sets of the house, and you have invested in so many real estates yourself. , How nice it is to put it here to appreciate!"

Chapter 524

Shehlain shook her head and said with a smile: "In fact, I am going to the United States in a while, and I am not going to come back."

Elaine asked in surprise: "How do you plan to settle in the United States?"

Shehlain nodded and said, "I'm telling you, my son has never come back from the United States since he went to study there. Now he is married there, and the daughter-in-law is also pregnant, so he doesn't plan to come back anymore. , So he wants me to live with him in the future and help them bring their children by the way."

A woman at the poker table blurted out, "Oh, Shehlain, are you ready to take action in so many houses in Aurous Hill?"

Shehlain said: "Leave a set of flats in the urban area. If there is a chance in the future, the family can come back for a few days."

Hearing this, Elaine couldn't help but feel sorry.

She didn't regret that she was about to lose a card friend she got along with, but she felt that Shehlain would leave as soon as she said it. In the future, she estimated that it would be difficult for herself to encounter someone like her, who has poor card skills and still enjoys losing money every day.

.....

At this moment, at the door of XiDollar Villa, Noah and Horiyah parked their car and waited for the real estate agent at the door.

Noah planned to find a suitable house and spend the 10 million, so he contacted the agency and asked the agency to help find a house worth about 10 million.

The average price of house prices in Aurous Hill is a little more than 30,000, but the villa will be more expensive. If you buy a new villa for 10 million, it is basically useless, so you can only buy this old villa.

Horiyah looked at the door of the XiDollar villa and said with some dissatisfaction: "Noah, this villa area is a bit too old? Look at these houses, they look a bit older than the Lady Willson's, or else Let's not look at the room here."

Noah said: "There is no way, the flat floor of Tomson First Grade is good, but you are not willing to buy it."

Horiyah said angrily: "That Rubbish Charlie has a villa in Tomson First-Class. I don't want to stand guard for Jacob and Elaine in the future! I can't buy Tomson First-Class flats for anything!"

Noah said: "So, it is more cost-effective to buy this kind of old villa. The area is large enough, and it is a single-family house. It is also comfortable to live in. It does not matter if the house is old. Just we can renovate it."

With that, Noah said again: "You have to consider our situation. Harold has no object, and Wendy has no object. They are one person and one room, plus the two of us, this is three bedrooms. In case Harold gets married in the future, He must live with us. When he has a child, he has to give the child a room? That's four rooms."

Noah continued: "Mum will definitely have to live with us in the future? At that time, we will have to leave a room for her. This is five rooms, so the villa is more practical."

Horiyah annoyed and said, "Why does your mother live with us? Why not live with Jacob?"

Noah shrugged: "The Lady Willson has severed ties with Jacob's family. Do you think Jacob will let her live?"

Horiyah was very dissatisfied and said: "Then she can't follow us, we are not affected by the Lady Willson! Now the Willson family is almost finished, and it is no good! If I want to say it, I will take her to Jacob's house, whether it is his business or not, we don't care about the Lady Willson anyway!"

Noah said, "You don't know that. My mother has a life insurance that has been bought for more than 20 years. It is a wealth management type. After her death, this life insurance can get more than six million. If you drive the Lady Willson to that Home, after the Lady Willson's death, the six millions will belong to Jacob!"

"More than six million!?" Horiyah's eyes lit up and she asked in surprise: "Really there are so many?"

Chapter 525

"Yeah." Noah said, "This life insurance was bought by my dad when she was alive, so as to leave a way out for future generations."

After that, Noah said again: "You count yourself, how many years my mother can live? It's all three years or five years. Let's take care of her for another three to five years. After
