

CEO Bride 108

Chapter 108

At Tili Mountain.

Master Calcraft?

Was he not Nash's master?

Stellar narrowed his eyes and said, "Can't it be Master Calcraft's apprentice?"

Cillian opened his eyes and his pupils were black again. "I only saw the Apocalyptic Star and the falling General Star echoing each other. The Apocalyptic Star represents Master Calcraft so he is the only one who can change the Warden's fate!"

Stellar nodded before pulling out his phone to call Nash.

"Nash, can I ask your master to come from his mountain?"

"No!" Nash refused.

"Father Cillian said that Master Calcraft is the only one who can save the Warden!"

"My master... he isn't around anymore!"

Nash hastily hung up.

"Ms. Lewis, this is wrongful imprisonment. I warn you to let me go immediately. If you interfere with my duty, the entire Lewis family won't ever be able to bear the consequences!"

Brian's hands were tied together with zip ties and his feet were tied with nylon rope.

In his fifty years of practicing medicine, this was the first time he encountered a situation like this.

"I don't want to repeat myself. If you don't sign it, I'll keep you here forever..."

With the support of Kai, what could the mere Traditional Medicine Association do to her?

Boom!

At that moment, the office door was kicked open.

Helena trembled with fear.

She could see a bunch of her security guards lying on the floor outside the office.

"Nash..."

Helena stood up from the chair. She was about to shout but swallowed her tongue when she saw a group of inspectors with guns rushing in.

Jupiter and Angelica coldly stared at Helena.

If it was not for Nash, they would have dragged Helena to the station.
