Chapter 1091

The couch and coffee table flew upside down. The chandelier on the ceiling was crumbling, and there were a lot of cracks in the walls.

Roxy spat out a mouthful of blood.

Finally, she broke the spiritual rope around her body.

She left the room in a flash and chased after Nash.

Theo's face turned pale. He quickly took out his cell phone to contact the president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Of all the people that Nash could mess with, he chose to provoke the president of the Levitate Chamber of Commerce.

Did he not know that the president of the Levitate Chamber of Commerce was the proud daughter of a certain sect?

It seemed that Mr. Calcraft was not informed.

At this time, Nash had already arrived outside the building.

As the reporters attempted to take photos of him, Nash covered his face and ran away.

Roxy chased him outside the building's door, but Nash was nowhere to be seen.

She closed her eyes. Her mental power instantly enveloped a five-kilometer radius.

However, Nash was still not found.

"I'm curious about who can make the president of the Levitate.

The girl’s eyes dimmed a little as she said this.

It seemed that she never had a chance to get close to good-looking men.

Nash smiled and said, “You helped me, so now it’s my turn to fulfill my promise!”

The girl was slightly startled. “What promise?”

“I’ll heal you!”

“My condition is congenital hyperandrogenism. Even the best hospital in Munford couldn’t fix me!”

The girl did not take Nash's words to heart.

Her parents spent all their money to treat her to no avail.

She had already given up treatment.

Nash put on the storage ring he snatched from Roxy and took out a set of silver needles with his mind.

"Believe me!" Nash said seriously, "Roll up your sleeves!"

The girl looked into Nash's gaze. She rolled up her sleeves after hesitating for a few seconds.

Nash picked up the silver needles and pricked them into the girl's skin.

The silver needle trembled slightly, and heat flowed through the girl's limbs.

At the same time, seven or eight Rolls-Royces arrived not far away.

Theo, Sienna, and Lana hurried over with their bodyguards.

"Mr. Nash..."

“Nash...”

“Mr. Calcraft...”

A group of bodyguards greeted Nash respectfully.

Nash saved some of these people’s lives. They admired Nash from the bottom of their hearts.

Theo and Sienna arrived in front of Nash.

Sienna blinked her watery eyes, gave a thumbs-up, and said, “Nash, you’re so awesome! You dare to offend even the president of the Levitate Chamber of Commerce!”

Nash rolled his eyes at Sienna. “She provoked me first, okay?”

He had no intention of offending anyone.

However, Roxy took the initiative to provoke him.

Nash was still a little nervous in the car.

If he had solely stolen Roxy's storage ring, she might not have been so angry.

However, he happened to discover her little secret.

She probably wanted to kill and silence him now.

Nash was not completely sure he could defeat a Profound Oriental Realm expert.

Theo seemed to understand Nash's worry and said with a smile, "Nash, don't worry. Among the four major Chambers of Commerce, the Levitate Chamber of Commerce is at the bottom.

"If she dares to take action at the auction house, the other three major Chambers of Commerce definitely won't sit idly by!"

"Do you think I'd be worried?"

Nash glanced at Theo with a cold expression.

Theo chuckled. "No, no, my dear Nash is invincible!"

At 8:00 pm, Nash and others arrived at the Great Eastern Tower.

Sienna and Lana got out of the car and strode into the lobby.

Theo's expression darkened. "These two ladies are so rude. How dare they walk in front of you, Nash?!"

The attendant took out his walkie-talkie and muttered for a while.

About five minutes passed.

Then, Eva came to Nash.

She was not wearing a mask, but she could not recognize Nash either.

After all, Nash was dressed in cheap clothes and was wearing a mask.

Eva took a deep breath and gently held Nash's arm. "Sir, please follow me to the high-end passage!"

Nash felt the softness on his arm and felt a little stunned.

However, this beautiful woman seemed to be in poor health.

There was a tumor in her gland.

Eva took Nash to a single door.

She unlocked it with her fingerprint. There was a long passage bel the door.

There were dozens of beautiful women standing on both sides. All of them had top-tier dazzling looks that could rival a popular celebrity.

Of course, Nash could only see two rows of thermal imaging figures and smell the faint womanly fragrance.

After a while, Nash was taken into a huge private room by Eva.

The two elders looked at each other.

The Great Eastern Tower had never auctioned so many medicinal pills, which were rare. They were considered valuable but had no market. There was no way to set a price for these third-grade medicinal pills.

Eva suggested, “We can put out a pill for auction first. When the final price is determined, we can then take out the same pills and sell them at the same price!”

The two elders frowned slightly and gave Eva a death stare.

Eva's face turned pale. She quickly lowered her head and kept quiet.

She was just an account manager.

Her position was only slightly higher than that of the receptionist.

With her position, she should not interfere in the conversation between the Chambers of Commerce elders and customers-let alone give suggestions to the customers.

Nash smiled and said, "I had the same thought. Just follow this method. How much commission will you take?"

At the same time, all the Mystique Loyalty Realm experts at the auction site restrained their auras.

Those Profound Oriental Realm experts even used talismans to hide themselves.

“Girl, are you bullying my beloved disciple?” Johnathan asked with a smile while stroking his beard.

“I wouldn’t dare, Master Calcraft!” Roxy’s voice was trembling.

She was so scared that she almost cried.

She thought, ‘Why hasn’t this Grim Reaper who swept through all the major sects ascended yet?’

Johnathan laughed. “Girl, your master would’ve told you that before he died, right?”

Roxy’s face turned slightly red. Then, she bit her lip and nodded

With that, Johnathan slowly disappeared.

The huge LCD screen in the private room suddenly lit up.

Displayed on the screen were the auction items outside.

The first item was a fifth-grade Beauty Pill.

This was considered the auction's bombshell opening. It immediately blew up the scene.

"The fifth-grade Beauty Pill has beautifying and nourishing effects, with the ability to delay aging in appearance. Calling this a youth preserver is not an exaggeration! The starting price is 300 million, and each increase in price must not be less than 50 million!"

Immediately after the host finished speaking, the bids for the item started rushing in.

Theo sighed deeply. "Someone from a Heaven box has started bidding. Woman, it's better to give up!"

Sienna bit her lip hard and then entered two billion!

The same Heaven box increased the bid to 2.2 billion.

Sienna no longer had the courage to increase the price.

Although the Elixir of Youth was valuable, two billion was beyond what she could afford.

Jay crossed his legs, swirled the red wine in his hand, and said with a smile, "If you like it, I can buy it for you!"

Sienna snorted coldly. "The condition is to marry you, right?"

Jay smiled slightly and said, "Any beauty and influence is within my fingertips. And my business ability is considered outstanding in Capiton. Together, we'll be a power couple!"

Sienna pursed her lips and said, "Who'd want to marry you?!"

Jay was too lazy to argue, so he picked up the wine glass and took a sip of red wine.

Theo said with a smile, "Mr. Jay, that's very tactless of you. Nurturing romantic feelings takes time. In ancient times, some kings would wage war with another country just to see their beloved smile. Can't you make Miss Sienna smile by winning the pill for her?"

Jay turned his head and glanced at Sienna.

Sienna swallowed the Elixir of Youth. It turned into a clear stream that traveled all over her body and finally gathered on her face.

Her body exuded a hazy luster, like a goddess descending from heaven.

Jay almost drooled as he gazed at her.

After a few minutes, the glow around her dissipated.

Sienna's complexion was rosy, and her skin became more delicate. The blemishes on her face had completely disappeared, and there was a twinkle in her eyes.

Before, Sienna's beauty could already bewitch a nation. Now, she had become even more beautiful.

Jay looked at Sienna in a dreamy manner and asked, "Miss Sienna, can we exchange numbers now?"

"Sure!"

Sienna smiled and took out her mobile phone, ready to exchange numbers.

Jay was so excited that he almost shed tears.

Sienna smiled and said, "As long as you don't mention marriage, we'll be friends forever, Mr. Jay!"

"Okay, I won't mention it... I won't..."
