Chapter 1131

Moments ago, they were all calling Finch by his name. Now, they were acting like they wanted to stomp him into the dirt.

Melody looked at Finch with a cold stare. "Well? Aren't you leaving?"

Finch slowly got up, holding his red, swollen face. "Melody, I won't forget this. I've never been hit before. You think you're still the untouchable rich woman you once were?"

Melody's laugh was sharp with anger. "I'm still better off than a nobody like you. I've got shares in Universal Group worth 4 billion. What do you have?"

Stone Group was not really bankrupt. Her dad was smart and sold his shares early, keeping nearly 50 billion for himself.

After her dad's car accident, she wanted to use that money to save

Stone Group, but she could not beat her powerful rivals.

In his two years as chairman of Stone Group, he had even sent his own parents to jail.

Looking at Finch, in his cheap clothes, it was clear he had not had a good time in Capiton.

"Alright, alright, just you wait. I'll make you regret this!"

With those fierce words, Finch turned and walked away.

“Just friends?”

The man in the suit asked the question in his deep and magnetic voice.

Nash raised an eyebrow. “What’s this, an interrogation?”

The man in the suit gave a small smile. “No, I’m just curious. I’ve heard Ms. Stone is 28 and still single. A man her age shouldn’t just be a friend, right?”

“You’re overthinking it. We’re just friends, nothing more,” Nash said coolly.

Just then, Sienna’s voice came from his hand. “Nash, are you still playing? It sounds like you have guests?”

Nash responded, “I’m done playing for now.”

Elsabeth’s eyelids fluttered in shock. “That voice just now, it sounded so familiar... Was that the actress, Sjenna?”

The man in the suit chuckled lightly. "You're overthinking it again. Sienna is from a prestigious family. She's very refined. She wouldn't be caught yelling."

With that, he gave Nash a look of disdain. It was as if he thought that someone like Nash could not possibly be gaming with a star like Sienna.

Austin let out a sigh. "My eyes are acting up, and I'm seeing double. Why else would I have asked you to drive earlier?"

Elisabeth immediately felt sorry for him and took the keys. "I'll drive!"

Nash shifted his gaze from Austin and took the keys. "I can drive!"

Austin stayed quiet. From his gaze, he was indeed causing Nash trouble.

Melody and Elisabeth settled into the back seat, while Austin took the front passenger seat.

Nash questioned, “What’s the old place’ you’re talking about?”

“Just type ‘The Old Place’ into your GPS. It’s a bar’s name!” Elisabeth replied.

Nash typed ‘The Old Place’ into the GPS. 40 minutes later, Nash pulled up to a parking lot outside the ancient town of Phoenicia.

Of all the ancient towns in Xanthalos, Phoenicia was the most renowned.

He strolled to a bar named ‘The Old Place’.

The first floor was bustling with patrons enjoying their drinks.

Chapter 1134

Melody turned to Elisabeth with a warm smile. "Elsie, I can't thank you enough!"

Elsabeth giggled. “Come on, we’re like sisters! I owe you big time. If it weren’t for you and the Stone family, I wouldn’t be where I am today. My company’s raking in over half a million each month!”

Elsabeth had just finished college and was starting her own business when she met Melody.

Her parents had sold their house to give her the money to start up.

She was determined to make it big and return home a success.

Luck was not on her side, though. She got a tough reality check when she put all her money into the stock market after trusting her cousin’s advice.

In less than a week, she lost it all.

She hit rock bottom and even thought about jumping off the Xanthalos River Bridge.

That was when she ran into Melody.

They clicked instantly, like they had known each other forever. Melody did not think twice before giving Elsabeth two million to kick-start her business again.

Melody started talking about Austin. "Austin just got back from overseas," Elisabeth said with a big smile.

Chapter 1135

Nash thought to himself approvingly.

Austin had seemed a bit stuck-up before, but he was not pushy like other rich kids.

Actually, he was quite low-key.

He could tell from how Elisabeth had quietly introduced him to Melody that Austin did not usually show off about being a Kennedy.

Tina turned to Nash and asked, "Nash, where do you work?"

Nash replied, "I don't have a job."

Tina's brows were slightly furrowed, 'So, you're a scion?"

Nash shook his head. "Nope, I'm not "

A look of scorn crossed Tina's eyes. "So, you're living off Mel?"

Nash was at a loss for words. "If that's what you think, sure."

Melody had spent a lot of money on him in the past.

Austin's expression darkened. "I'm Austin, from the Kennedys in Capiton!"

He never wanted to reveal his true identity.

However, it was impossible not to expose himself in the current situation.

Perhaps Melody would be impressed with his identity?

"The Kennedys in Capiton?" Dexter looked a little hesitant.

Finch smiled contemptuously and interjected, "Austin Caleb Kennedy, the second-born illegitimate son of the Kennedys in Capiton. What a pity. I think the Kennedys wouldn't even bat an eye if you died outside!

Finch had been living in Capiton for almost ten years. Although he never achieved much, he was quite familiar with how the Ten Families operated.

Dexter immediately laughed after hearing Finch's words. "Ah, so just an illegitimate child. Boy, I advise you to mind your own business. Otherwise, I'll beat you up till your own mom won't recognize you!"

Austin's expression was gloomy. "Dexter, so you won't even extend this courtesy to me anymore?"

He thought he could scare them by revealing his identity as a Kennedy from Capiton.

He never expected them to brush him off completely.

This embarrassed him greatly.

“Damn it, were you always so arrogant?”

When Dexter saw that no one was greeting Spencer Eve, his face was instantly filled with anger.

His ability to control the underground forces in Xanthalos was all thanks to Spencer.

These people could disrespect him, but they should not disrespect Spencer.

“Dexter, don’t be rude!”

Spencer gave Dexter a nonchalant glance and then sat at the head seat of the dinner table.

Nash glanced sideways. He noticed that this guy was around 23 years old and had reached the early stage of the Profound Reality Realm.

The two elders behind him were stage nine masters, only one away from the Profound Reality Realm.

Too weak!

How boring!

Nash continued to chat with Hera.

“Mel... Long time no see!”

Spencer smiled slightly. He had been practicing in Northdale all year round and had a renewed presence about him.

At this time, the door was kicked open.

An old man in a robe walked in.

“Mr. Halder!”

Austin stood up excitedly.

Ivan Halder nodded and glanced at everyone. He frowned instantly.

There were four Profound Reality Realm experts in the room.

Austin said, “Mr. Halder, take us out of here!”

Ivan asked, “Who are your friends?”

“These two, as well as her and him!”

Austin pointed at Elisabeth, Tina, Melody, and Nash.

Ivan looked at Spencer, who was sitting in the main seat, and said, ‘

This is the second son of the Kennedys in Capiton. Please extend your grace to them!”

Spencer saw that the old man was in the late stage of the Profound

The Eves were in danger now.

Nash walked out of the room with his hands behind his back.

Atlas informed Eric that he would be in Xanthalos for a while.

Eric was delighted.

He and Winnie could finally have fun unscrupulously.

Everyone came downstairs. Suddenly, Melody looked at Nash and said, "I want to borrow some money!"

Elsabeth immediately responded, "How much do you need? I can lend it to you!"

Tina also said, "I can spare 50 million!"

Melody smiled. "I want 20 billion!"

Elsabeth and Tina immediately stopped talking.

The way the two looked at Nash changed again.

If Melody could ask Nash to borrow 20 billion, it meant that Nash's net worth was much more than this amount.

“Is 20 billion enough?”

Nash also saw a strange tattoo on Lazarus’ chest and a bronze pendant hanging around his neck.

Nash looked at Lazarus, and Lazarus lowered his head slightly. On the surface, Lazarus appeared calm, but in fact, there was turmoil in his heart.

He felt that he could not hide under Nash's gaze.

Nash closed his Third Eye, smiled slightly, and said, "No need for the formalities. Everyone, please sit down and have breakfast!"
