Chapter 145

“Go and tell Black Widow that if she fails to take down Bianca, I won’t let her go back to Frelden!”

Duncan laughed and said, “Kai, take it easy. If Bianca wins the Phoenix Crown, we’ll get 46 billion.”

Kai frowned and replied, “What about the Tiger vs Phoenix Championship? How are we going to proceed without the Black Widow?”

“Won’t we still have Bianca?”

“If Bianca wins the final championship, it might cause trouble for the young lady!”

Duncan looked at Helena calmly.

“What are you saying, Mr. Duncan? Do you think I’m stupid?”

Helena shot Duncan a blank look

Of course, she would not let Kai give up so much money for her own feelings.

In the ring, Bianca’s punches were getting harder and harder, and Black Widow was becoming more and more panicked as this fierce style of boxing reminded her of someone.

Just a second ago, the entertainment company from Mandagor had withdrawn 46 billion dollars.

The two authenticated users who withdrew their money were Nash and Theo.

Nash looked at his account information on his phone that indicated more than 12 billion with a happy expression on his face.

Theo, who was far away in Capiton, was overjoyed to have earned more than 40 billion a day, which was equivalent to his family's annual net profit when they were at the peak.

It was a pity that Nash had stipulated that the money must be donated to the poor mountainous regions in the name of charity.

"Miss Yarrow!"

"Mr. Theo."

"Donate 46 billion to the impoverished mountainous area from my personal account in Nash's name immediately. And I mean immediately."

"46 billion, using your account, Sir? In Nash's name?" His secretary's face turned green with fright.

"Is there a problem?"

Theo lit a cigar and took a puff.

The profit of 40 billion this time was to be used for charitable projects. Moreover, he was also personally donating six billion himself. Although he was losing money, it was just a small amount for him.

"Right away, Sir!"
