

CEO Bride 156

Chapter 156

It was dinner time, and everyone who was supposed to be present had arrived.

Now, it was time to give Hera her surprise.

Bianca had a calm look on her face.

In the boxing world, Nash was otherwise known as McNash, the father of all boxers.

It was no surprise he could afford to reserve a private room here.

Harrison's eyes widened, and he stared at Nash in shock. "Nashy... did... Did you really reserve a room at the Chateau Hotel?"

Lauren stayed silent, the corner of her mouth curling upward into a nearly indiscernible smile.

It was as if she had already seemed through everything.

Hera turned to Nash, her elegant eyebrows knitting themselves together as she said, "Nash, you should cancel your reservation!"

Even if Nash had reserved a private room so they could have dinner at the Chateau Hotel...

Helena's family would still mock them.

She did not like comparing herself to others, but was there anyone in the world who could truly refrain from ever doing so? Helena had always bullied her, and she had put all her effort into managing her company, hoping she would one day be more successful than Helena was and get her grandfather's attention.

Would the words "envy" and "jealousy" exist if one did not compare themselves to others?

"Oh my god!"

Skadi let out a cry of surprise, and she nearly fell to the ground because of how surprised she was.

Harrison was also unable to contain his curiosity. "Who did you see, Skadi?"

"It's Sienna Lowe, the current biggest star in the entertainment industry!"

"And... and she's wearing a maid outfit!"

"Holy crap, I'm in love!"

Skadi was so excited she did not know what to do with herself.

"Oh my god... It's Sienna Lowe!"

"I love her too!"

Hera's face had turned red from excitement, and she seemed minutes away from pouncing forth to kiss Sienna.

Harrison gulped. "Do you think the Watson family invited her here?"

The excited look on Hera's face instantly vanished when she heard that. Laura glared at Harrison. "Why are you killing the mood?!"
