

CEO Bride 180

Chapter 180

Nash, dressed in his wedding attire, came outside the ICU and got a set of needles from Dr. Yarbrough.

Then, he inserted 13 needles into 13 points on the old man's body.

The flatline began to fluctuate slightly.

Moments later, Herman gasped for air once again.

Ten minutes later, Hera, who was dressed in a red wedding dress and a red veil, arrived outside the ICU with Olivia's help.

In the hall, everyone was silently watching Herman's ward.

"Make way... Make way..."

At that moment, a young man with a crew cut in a white shirt pushed through the crowd.

He was the owner of the wedding company.

He took out two ring boxes and handed them to Olivia. "Ms. Olivia, these are colored diamond wedding rings that I got from Golden Circle's boss by pulling out all the stops. There's only one pair in the world... and the price..."

When the price was mentioned, the young man showed an awkward smile on his face.

The rings were worth 120 million, but he did not know how to bring it up to Olivia.

Olivia casually said, "Do you think the Lees are short of money?"

man hurriedly replied, "No, no, no... The Lees are rich. Of course, your family isn't short of money. We can negotiate the price later. Let's get the night, especially in a hospital, was not something he had never

or one of their elders

said, "You may host..."

Nash's personal information to the young ward, Nash stuck two needles into Herman's temples.

of the needles, causing them to

few seconds later, Herman blank eyes and was surprised to find a blurry light in front of him.

and Nash standing in front of man moved his

say a word

anymore.

the whole wedding ceremony, Nash helped him

crew cut placed steady voice, "Today is a great day for Mr. Nash Calcraft and Ms.

witness...

the bride and groom take their

said this, the young man pointed to the two chairs man on the bed, and seeing his parents of the bride and groom take their seats!"

man called out

Lewis couple came back to their senses and

"Please welcome the bride and groom..."

As the young man's voice sounded, the tailor outside had already started playing the wedding march on the sound system.

Nash slowly walked into the ward, and Hera followed beside Nash with Olivia's help.

Outside, Skadi and her grandfather, Zakariah, rushed over.

Bianca also came with them.

When Zakariah saw Joseph, he hurried over and said with a salute, "Mr. Lee, thank you for informing us in time. Otherwise, I wouldn't have seen old Lewis for the last time!"

He and Herman had been friends for many years.

His granddaughter, Skadi, and Hera were best friends.

They did not know anything about what had happened to the Lewises, but fortunately, Joseph called them half an hour ago.

Joseph sighed. "No need for formalities, Zabel. I'm just doing what I can for old Lewis..."

With tears in her eyes, Skadi said, "Why would such a thing happen to the Lewises? Hera must be so upset!"

They had already heard about what happened to the Lewises.

She knew that Hera and Nash's hurried wedding was because Grandpa Lewis was on his last breath.

Her best friend was in pain, and she felt terrible too.

“Please repeat the vows!”