

CEO Bride 184

Chapter 184

Hera closed her mouth and shook her head vigorously.

"Hey now, be good," Nash said again in a gentle tone.

His deep and absolutely magnetic voice made Hera's heart beat a little faster. Seeing the man's serious expression, she opened her mouth.

Outside the villa, inside the Royal Bay district, Skadi and Bianca looked at the luxurious villas around them with envious expressions on their faces.

"Skadi, your grandfather is the head of the Martial Arts Association. He should be qualified to buy a villa in Royal Bay, right?" Bianca asked curiously.

"He is, but our family doesn't have that much money!" Skadi pouted.

"When I get the Golden Belt, I'll also buy a villa in Royal Bay!" Bianca said with firm eyes.

With the Golden Belt, she would become a well-known presence in boxing.

With that fame, she would be able to live off her commercial endorsements, and at the same time, she would also be eligible to buy a villa in Royal Bay.

Skadi was always in between them whenever they were out on dates before and had not once been embarrassed...

Skadi wrinkled her nose. "That's not true!"

Hera smiled and asked, "Did you guys come looking for me?"

Bianca nodded. "Skadi was worried you might be feeling upset, so we came here to see you."

"I'm fine. Grandpa definitely wants me to be happy where he is, so I'm definitely happy."

"Tsk, you've lost a lot of weight!"

Skadi looked at Nash with displeasure. "You loser of a man, just how are you taking care of Hera? You let her starve till she's so thin."

"Don't blame Nash. I just really don't have much of an appetite these two days," Hera explained.

"Tsk tsk, I knew you'd speak up for this loser! You were like this even before you two were married, let alone now that you have," Skadi said with a sour tone.

"Mr. Calcraft."

At this moment, Angelica and Jupiter came toward them quickly while dressed in casual clothes.
