

CEO Bride 189

Chapter 189

When the proprietor heard the name 'Wesley,' his face turned pale.

A smile slowly appeared on the corners of Jupiter's mouth. "Wesley, do you still want to argue?"

"I told you, I'm Kale, not Wesley."

Kale's voice was cold. "I'll definitely report you for abusing your power!"

Angelica cursed, "Damn this stubborn fool."

Nash sighed. "Let him go. He's not Wesley."

Jupiter and Angelica were startled when they heard that.

Who was he kidding?

It was obvious from the proprietor's expression as well as Kale's that he was Wesley.

Yet, Nash actually asked them to release Kale?

The Lewis family had no grievances with Wesley, so why would he go to such lengths to get rid of Herman?

There was only one reason.

The Kleins had hired him.

The proprietor staggered back a few steps as he murmured with trembling lips, "How... How did this happen... He... He promised me that he would never do anything harmful again!"

His brother was the governor of Jonford, but his son joined the army entirely by virtue of his own ability.

His son had been the pride of their family. Never did he imagine that his son's failure to execute an explosion according to the standard procedure during one training session would result in a large number of his teammates getting injured or killed.

His son was then expelled from the army and put under strict monitoring by the Inspection Department, causing their family to keep their heads down in their hometown in the countryside.

After that, his son escaped and committed a heinous crime.

In order to calm the turmoil, he sought out his younger brother, Jade, who had taken his mother's surname.

With Jade's help, his son accidentally 'died' after fleeing abroad. He then used his son's death certificate to remove all affiliation to their family.

He thought his son would lead a peaceful life after returning to Somer and did not expect him to commit an unforgivable crime again.
