

CEO Bride 211

Chapter 211

She knew how important a sense of security was when it came to love! Nash's lips curled up. He leaned over and gently kissed Hera's soft lips.

Hera wrapped her arms around Nash's neck and slowly closed her eyes.

"Her..."

Suddenly, the office door was pushed open.

Skadi, dressed in a white martial arts uniform, walked in. Upon seeing the scene before her, she was instantly dumbfounded.

She could not believe her eyes...

Hera, who had always been pure and innocent like a little lamb, was actually making out in the office?

Upon hearing Skadi's voice, Hera quickly pushed Nash away. Her face turned so red like a ripe apple.

Skadi was her close friend and had previously worked in the company, so she could freely enter and leave the company. Regardless of whether she had business or not, she never knocked on Hera's office door.

Now that she saw her kissing Nash, Hera felt incredibly embarrassed.

two... keep going!"

the room, closing the door

Come in!"

tone was

into the room without even knocking?

a man, so he was a

they were only kissing. If they were doing something then, they would have probably crossed Nash's

mountain, he

a few times and then re-entered the office, sheepishly saying, "Nash, Hera, I... I didn't mean pinched Nash's waist "It's all your fault... You didn't even he whispered, "Wasn't it you who hugged

“I don’t care. It’s hey, hey, that’s a bit much now! Can you two pretended

the two of

jealous, go find yourself

Skadi glared at Hera. “We had a deal that us besties would stay together, and whoever gets in a relationship first is a cheater!

}}

Hera feigned ignorance. “Really? I don’t remember that.’

Clearly irritated, Skadi playfully tickled her. “Why you little one, you’re asking for it...

Hera was no match for Skadi and soon begged for mercy. “Hahaha... Skade... I was wrong... I won’t do it again... Nash, save me...”

As the two girls were playing around, Nash did not want to intervene and just coughed lightly.

Skadi knew when to stop as well. “Hmph, I’ll let you-off this time, but if you show off again, I’ll tickle you until you cry...

}}

Hera lay on the table, out of breath, and said, “Just you wait... I’ll have Nash teach me some unique martial arts... and then I’ll take revenge on you...”

Looking at Skadi’s martial arts uniform, Nash asked with a smile, “Are you participating in a martial arts event today?”

Skadi adjusted her uniform and nodded. “Yes. Last night, Sagen’s martial arts school challenged Zabel’s martial arts school... I’m on my way to the venue now. I was just passing by Baroque, so I dropped by to see you guys...:

Unable to resist her curious nature, Hera perked up and eagerly asked, “A challenge? Is someone trying to prove themselves against your family’s school?”