

CEO Bride 213

Chapter 213

“If you follow me out, won’t Hera be jealous?”

Skadi playfully teased on purpose.

Nash

gave

Skadi a sidelong glance. “Just drive your car.”

Skadi chuckled, started the car, and sped away.

Zabel Martial Arts School was quite remote.

It was located on the outskirts of Jonford, resembling a school in an impoverished mountainous region.

A three-meter-high wall surrounded the area, presumably to prevent outsiders from sneaking in to learn their techniques.

Inside, a few small bungalows circled a martial arts performance ground.

There were 18 kinds of weapons and martial arts racks placed on either side.

arts uniforms were neatly accompanied by several well-known grandmasters from the industry, leads to righteous fists, while an evil heart leads to malevolent

Hero Martial Arts School aims to cultivate character and promote national martial arts and Martial Arts School has accepted no fewer than a hundred challenges, but never once have we been defeated!

the challenge comes from Sagen’s Ihara Martial Arts School, founded

all will give your best today and show them the rich martial arts your all in tall and straight with his hands behind his back.

eyes radiated a powerful sense of authority.

parked outside the martial arts school, where, the parking lot was already full of vehicles.

journalists and media bloggers eagerly even formed human ladders against the surrounding from the martial arts school guarded the

and asked, "Why aren't they being let replied with a wry smile, "There are too many people. If we let them all in, it might affect our fellow brothers'

by several luxury cars, drove of a Lamborghini, with the glammed-up and

Helena immediately spotted Nash and smirked teasingly.

Kai, with Helena on his arm and surrounded by bodyguards, headed toward the martial arts school.

Following closely were the Duersons' heir, Duncan, the Lanes' heir, Simon, the Lees' heiress, Olivia, and a beautiful young lady dressed in a cute schoolgirl uniform.

"Woah... the heirs of Jonford's Five Elites are here. Today's visit is totally worth it!"

"Guys, see that? The girl in the schoolgirl uniform is my wife, Sydney Zell! Send me some good vibes and I'll go kiss her right now!"

"Sydney rarely appears in public. It's surprising to see her in front of so many media outlets today. It seems she's about to take over the family business after graduating from university!"

The onlookers whispered amongst themselves, many of their lecherous gaze fixed on Sydney's long legs that were clad in white stockings.

Skadi raised an eyebrow. "I didn't know so many important people were coming today."

Nash smirked. "They're all here to enjoy the show."

Skadi turned to Nash. "So you're saying they're here to support us?"

With a playful grin, Nash responded, "Yes, Helena and Kai are your fans. They're here to cheer you on."