

CEO Bride 216

Chapter 216

Still in shock, Skadi was brought back to her senses by Justin's voice. She shook her head and replied, "I... I'm not quite sure... It seems... he might be in the Profound Reality Realm too?"

Her last few words were spoken very softly, lacking any confidence.

Previously at the Zells' home, she had witnessed both Father Lloyd and Father Cillian treating this man with the utmost respect.

Father Lloyd had the strength of a stage nine grandmaster.

Anyone who could make him cautious would have to have a level of cultivation surpassing his...

Zakariah stood in the center of the martial arts arena, placing his hand on his heart and facing the surrounding audience. He said, "When friends come from afar, is it not a joy? Today, the Ihara Martial Arts School from Sagen and my Jonford Hero Martial Arts School will have a friendly sparring. I hereby warmly welcome everyone!"

As soon as he was done talking, a long-haired young man from Ihara Martial Arts School, wearing wooden clogs, stepped forward. "We're here to challenge your school today. If you lose, you must close down your martial arts school, as per the rules!"

Upon hearing this, the venue went silent.

Zakariah's face darkened.

He knew they were here to challenge his school.

If he lost, he would naturally close the martial arts school.

However, before this, he intended to give a proper speech.

Respect and morality came before martial arts

Ihara Martial Arts

upset at his

just here to challenge; they were here to cause trouble.

waiting a full minute without any response from Newi, Zakariah slowly left the slightly waved his hand, and five students from his stage five of the Energy were at stage five of the Grandmaster Realm, and the last was at stage one of the

the students from the Hero Martial Arts in the Energy Cultivation Realm. Three were Grandmasters, and two were Great and the Great Grandmaster one.

young students at stage were followed by two men in limping stage one great-grandmaster heavens, your martial arts school is really in a sad state, isn't five grandmasters could easily suppress Hero Martial Arts School's stage three grandmasters, and their only credible sides had practitioners in stage

Martial Arts School to come... and I didn't expect their strength to other in the middle

"Hold on!"

up from his chair,

be fair and

"The difference in the cultivation levels between the students of the Ihara Martial Arts School and the Hero Martial Arts School is too great! There's no fairness at all!

"Either forbid the use of inner energy or replace them with people of equal cultivation realm!"

Nash's voice echoed like it was amplified, reaching everyone's ears.

The long-haired young man scoffed. "Can't the Hero Martial Arts School even produce a single stage five grandmaster?"

Nash glanced at him indifferently. "Who are you? Was I talking to you?"

The young man looked stunned, then clenched his fists, ready to teach this disrespectful guy a lesson.

He was the beloved grandson of the Green Bamboo Association's Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut and possessed strength at stage nine of the Energy Cultivation Realm.

He practically owned the city of Sagen.

Every influential family and rich sons of wealthy families would have to treat him with the utmost respect.

"Step back!"

Newi spoke calmly.

“Grandpa... He...”

“Enough!”

Newi’s gaze turned icy.