

CEO Bride 225

Chapter 225

The security guard at the entrance was thrown forcefully into the club area. Everyone was startled by this sudden scene.

They looked toward the entrance and saw a large group of sturdy men.

Leading them was a cold beauty with a high ponytail.

She had a pair of black boxing gloves around her neck and was occasionally blowing bubbles with her chewing gum.

The people of Neo Power Club began to murmur amongst themselves.

"That's Wanda. She's quite pretty."

"I heard she was trained by Thorson. After returning to the country, she dominated the Sagen boxing scene in just three months!"

"She has a demeanor similar to our Bianca, both are cold-faced beauties."

"Can Bianca beat her?"

"Who is Bianca?"

Wanda, leading her group, walked into the club, her icy gaze sweeping over everyone present.

Bianca stepped forward. "I'm Bianca."

The old woman showed no emotion but was internally shocked.

Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut had told her Nash was young.

She guessed that Nash was probably in his 30s.

However, seeing him now, he looked only in his early 20s.

Judging by his appearance, he was estimated to be only 23 or 24 years old, a few years younger than her granddaughter.

It was really hard for her to imagine how a young man in his 20s could cultivate to reach the Profound Reality Realm.

Nash had initially come to stop Bianca, but seeing that Wanda displayed no inner energy, he changed his mind.

Bianca was strong, and this was her turf. She had a slight advantage. Even if she were to lose, it would be impossible for Wanda to kill her.

Jonford’s boxing champion VS Sagen’s boxing champion.

He wanted to see how much potential Bianca truly had in boxing.

After putting on her gloves and warming up, Bianca entered the octagon cage.

Wanda followed suit, and the two stood facing each other.

Bianca glanced at Wanda’s impressive physique and asked, “Are we following professional match rules?”

Wanda shook her head and said, “No rules. Today, our goal is to beat the other to their death.”
