

CEO Bride 234

Chapter 234

Smiling, Brian explained, "Miss Zabel's high fever is caused by the components in the medicine. It won't have any effect on her body."

He had never heard of or seen the prescription his grandmaster had prepared before, but what was certain was that it was absolutely priceless. It was a medicine good enough to bring the dead back to life.

Seeing Hera's haggard face, Bianca said softly, "Hera, why don't you go back to rest too? You can leave Skade to me."

Hera was the president of a company and was much busier than her. It would be more appropriate for her to take care of Skade than Hera.

Hera shook her head and replied, "I'm fine. I'll rest here tonight."

Skadi was her best friend. She feared nothing if it was for her. She had always wanted to do something for Skadi but never found the opportunity to. The only time she managed to help her was by asking the Smiling Grim Reaper for his number, for which she got scolded.

Now that Skadi was injured, she was naturally worried.

"Strange, Justin's been gone for so long. Why isn't he back? He isn't answering his phone either. Could something have happened?" Zakariah muttered worriedly.

The moment he said that, they heard fighting outside.

Everyone in the room immediately went outside, only to see a few of the Hero Martial Arts School students on the ground. Among them stood a man in black with a smiling mask on his face.

Zakariah immediately reprimanded, "Stand down!"

be the Smiling Grim Reaper but had neglected to inform student stood up while clutching his chest and said, of you stand down!" Zakariah said

be the Smiling Grim Reaper, so, of course,

his students

the living room of the villa. He even scratched his butt in an

and gave him a hard look. "Be a little more cold-blooded in front of Skadi later!"

the second floor. He shame, Bianca asked, "This guy is too unreliable.

Skadi?"

feels certain that he might be the Smiling Grim Reaper.”

Bianca asked, “Why do his contact information. I was very close to him at the time. His cold gaze is definitely not something anyone can imitate.” Hera smiled and said

She kept repeating in her mind the scene where Father Cillian had been feeding her the medicine and was almost drooling. “Skade, the Smiling Grim Reaper closed her eyes when she heard her and Zakariah whispered, “Pretend just a bit.”

Reaper walked into the room.

she saw her other idol, her heart beat violently again.

She was so happy! Just so, so happy!

First, it was Father Cillian; now, it was the Smiling Grim Reaper.

The two most exceptional men in her heart had come to visit her. Her accident was so worth it!

The Smiling Grim Reaper came to the front of Skadi’s bed and looked at her.

His gaze was so cold, yet he wore a smiling mask. It almost looked like there was a blade hidden in that smile. He was like a real Grim Reaper that harvested life amidst laughter.

Skadi gulped and asked, “Can... can you hug me?”

The Smiling grim Reaper flicked his wrist, and a scarlet diamond-shaped dagger appeared in his hand.

Skadi quickly shuddered. “I-I was joking...”

The Smiling Grim Reaper shook his head helplessly and then went toward the window. He pushed it open and jumped straight out.

“Hey! Can’t you just stay a little longer?”

Skadi sat up on the bed all of a sudden and immediately felt pain shoot through her head and internal organs before laying back down again.

Anger appeared on Zakariah’s face.