

CEO Bride 236

Chapter 236

She skipped down the stairs and came to Walter and the Smiling Grim Reaper with bewilderment.

Although she had not been present at the Lees' birthday banquet the last time, her grandfather had used certain means to bring back footage of what happened.

She had seen a video of the Smiling Grim Reaper and found his miraculous methods to be extraordinarily dashing. She could not be more excited to see him in person this time.

Walter glared at Queenie. "What's the point of making such a fuss?"

The Smiling Grim Reaper was no ordinary person. He had killed 999 ruthless individuals with extraordinary skills and insight.

His status as the richest man was nothing more than a joke to the Smiling Grim Reaper. Queenie blushed and whined, "I was just too excited."

Her tender voice softened Justin's heart.

Smiling, Walter said, "My granddaughter still has much to learn. Please don't take offense, Mr. Reaper."

Walter turned to look at the Smiling Grim Reaper, but the Smiling Grim Reaper himself was watching Queenie intently.

raised his head and looked straight at the Smiling Grim Reaper. He could feel that there was toast to the warden back at the Lees' residence before, the Smiling Grim Reaper from his body at all now. Moreover, he was even looking now.

Justin was becoming more and more flustered now that cold sweat had broken out on his forehead and back.

Kai was known to be the elite among the second-generation circle of wealthy individuals in Jonford. It was rumored that he was a ruthless individual who took lives easily. If he were to see through him, his life would end here.

"Oh, Kai, why are you asking so many questions? Besides, he's the Smiling Grim Reaper. Do you really think that you'd be able to help him?" Queenie glanced at Kai with displeasure.

Kai remained unmoved and just kept staring into Justin's eyes.

The atmosphere was incredibly heavy, and the air felt like it had condensed.

Walter's brows furrowed slightly, but he said nothing.

Justin tried his best to endure the fear he felt inside. He then picked up the teacup and took a sip from it.

He had once bought an account on the dark web using some shady channels and came across a video of the Smiling Grim Reaper on it.

His

eyes had been as cold as ice and sharp as knives.
