

CEO Bride 237

Chapter 237

In his eyes, his enemies were just corpses.

Fear was not an emotion he possessed.

Putting down the teacup, Justin picked up the napkin from the table and wiped his mask. He then looked at Kai coldly and asserted, "Don't challenge my temper with your ignorance."

Right after he said that, he pulled out the diamond-shaped dagger from inside his boots and spun them around a few times in the palm of his hand.

When Walter saw this, he immediately rebuked Kai, "Enough! How could you ask the Smiling Grim Reaper about his matters?"

He already had a rough guess as to why the Smiling Grim Reaper had appeared. Something must have happened to the Zabels, which was why Zakariah invited him. The night was destined to be a bloodbath.

Queenie had also been frightened by Justin's actions, and her face turned pale. She shot Kai a reproachful look and whispered lowly, "Why aren't you apologizing to him?"

Kai was no longer certain about the situation. He was also worried that the Smiling Grim Reaper might strike him, so he immediately stood up. "My apologies. I overspoke."

Justin stood up and turned around to go outside. "I'll have to trouble your family to take me to the Zabels'."

Kai had actually started suspecting who he was. Fortunately, he was able to subdue him. It was best now that he returned to the Zabel household to go see his senior."

"Y-Yes. I'll send you there myself," said Walter, his voice trembling.

this moment, the Grim-Faced Juggernaut received a call from Simon.

When she heard that the Smiling Grim Reaper was coming to the Zabels’ residence, her brows furrowed.

Ordinary people might not have heard of him, but as one of the 10 Juggernauts of the Green Bamboo Association, she had.

The Buddha Juggernaut narrowed his eyes and said, “Since Nash isn’t here, we’ll be able to do a better job of destroying the Zabels!”

The Grim-Faced Juggernaut replied, “Simon just called. He said that the Smiling Grim Reaper is coming here.’

The Buddha Juggernaut was slightly taken aback. “The Smiling Grim Reaper?”

It was then that a Rolls-Royce stopped outside the Zabel family’s villa.

After getting out of the car, Justin glanced around the darkness before making his way toward the villa.

Hiding in the dark, the Buddha Juggernaut shrank back. “Did he notice us?”

The Grim-Faced Juggernaut shook her head. “If he did, he would’ve come for us directly!”

The Buddha Juggernaut rumbled. “We’d better wait for him to leave before we do anything.”

They knew very well the horror that trailed the Smiling Grim Reaper. There was a saying in the world of martial arts that it was better to provoke the devil himself than to offend the Smiling Grim Reaper.
