

CEO Bride 243

Chapter 243

Now that Howard was dead, there was still the head of the Duerson family.

There was still plenty of time to learn the truth.

In the entire estate, the only sound present was the fire burning.

Nash rushed into the villa and destroyed all the cameras in the room before leaving the scene.

It was two in the morning.

In the garden outside of the Zabel estate.

The Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut scratched the mosquito bites on his face and impatiently said, "If the Smiling Grim Reaper isn't gonna show up tonight, let's just come back tomorrow..."

The Buddha Juggernaut nodded and said, "I agree!"

The Grim-Faced Juggernaut frowned. "Nash went to the Lee household and hasn't returned yet. We have two of us from the Profound Reality Realm and a Stage Nine Great-grandmaster. There's no chance of winning against the Smiling Grim Reaper!"

The Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut responded, "It doesn't matter if we win or not. The problem is that if we can't kill the Smiling Grim Reaper, then we're going to have to live in shame for the rest of our lives..."

At the moment, they bore no ill will towards the Smiling Grim Reaper.

Even if they were to kill him, nothing would change as they would not receive any fame.

If they failed to kill him, then they would never eat or sleep easy for the rest of their lives.

situation, the three of them decided to terminate the

a dozen cars in the forest, and then rushed to an hour later.

Juggernaut stood at the entrance of the out for a few

was a few members of the Green Bamboo Association ran over side of the estate and who did this?

"Who did this?"

Juggernaut said with a trembling voice.

Giant Juggernaut,

was enough to wipe off the entirety of

had died in a mere four hours without a body left not even find any remains of the

“There aren’t any traces of fighting outside. We had more than thirty grandmasters that could not even fight back. This person’s power is at he sneezed. It was difficult for him to imagine what kind of being could quietly get rid of thirty grandmasters under the watch of the Nutcracker Juggernaut.

Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut’s eyes flashed cold. “Didn’t Nash... go to Chateau

Nash, he could not think of anyone else in Jonford who could have out his

sent out, Nash went to Chateau Hotel to visit the head of the Lee family.

Juggernaut lightly said, “That’s hearsay... Based on Nash’s strength, it’s easy to “Then, what should we

If Nash really was the killer of the three Juggernauts, then the rest of them were no match against him either.

The Grim-Faced Juggernaut coldly said, “Let’s go back to Sagen first. Wait for Mr. Lane to break through the Profound Reality Realm then we can take care of that bastard!”

The Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut’s eyes flashed. “Mr. Lane is coming?”

At Zabel’s villa.

Olivia parked the car at the entrance and whispered, “Nash, we’re here!”

Nash had fallen asleep against the window.

Olivia was shocked when she saw Nash’s tired expression and bruised face through the rearview mirror.

Nash needed an excuse to leave the Zabel family so she made up a lie to take Nash away.

She brought him to her grandfather’s Chateau Hotel and got him a suite to stay in.

After Nash entered the room, he immediately called for a bodyguard. He swapped clothes with the bodyguard and asked him to massage Mr. Lee’s legs and muscles before leaving through the window.

From the beginning, Nash never mentioned what his plan was and Olivia did not dare to ask any questions. She did not go home to sleep, instead, she remained on standby at the hotel.

It was only when Nash returned that she realized he was injured.

Olivia was puzzled because what kind of person could hurt Nash?

At that moment, Olivia's phone rang.

It was Theo..