

CEO Bride 248

Chapter 248

Jonford.

Watson Estate.

Kai and Queenie were summoned by Walter to return to the mansion as quickly as possible.

The two were stunned as soon as they stepped foot into the living room.

All senior members of the Watson family were seated in the living room.

“Mom, Dad, what are you guys doing back in the country?”

Queenie stared at a middle-aged couple in disbelief. Her parents ran a business overseas and had been preparing for a business conference recently. It was only logical to assume they would not have the time to travel home and visit.

Walter spoke from his place on the middle couch, “I summoned them home!”

Queenie smiled and hurried to sit down next to her mother.

Queenie’s father, Kevin Watson, spoke. “Everyone is here now, Father. Please tell us what’s on your mind!”

Walter swept his stern gaze over everyone present.

The Watson family members stiffened. Not one of them dared look him in the eye.

lazily onto the couch

is dead!”

in a solemn

of lighting his cigarette, froze. He looked at Walter disbelievingly.

been in touch with

averted his appeared on

Janson exchanged glances.

been talking to each other

“Bastard...”

was fishing for from the looks on their faces and cursed angrily.

did Howard die,

extremely protective of his dead brother’s son and immediately spoke

Walter upon realizing he was losing and Unibrow Juggernaut from the Green Bamboo Association

Walter spoke slowly.

at Kai as

received another spotted lurking around knew what they were trying to

The Watson family would face imminent disaster if Kai was involved in last night's happenings.

Queenie rarely saw her grandfather this angry. She held her mother's arm as she spoke in a careful, analytical manner, "The Smiling Grim Reaper showed up last night, claiming he had a mission... If that's the case, the mission he referred to must have been the assassination of Howard and the three juggernauts from the Green Bamboo Association!"

Walter took a deep breath before saying slowly, "The Smiling Grim Reaper was at the Zabel house the entire night. The deaths of Howard and the three juggernauts remain a mystery for now!"

If it were the Smiling Grim Reaper's doing, he would not be as angry with Kai as he was now. After all, there were no ill feelings between the Watson family and the Smiling Grim Reaper. Whatever had befallen the Lane family would not happen to him.

He was worried Nash Calcraft had something to do with Howard's death.

Last night, he had gone through everything that had happened recently.

Six of the Green Bamboo Association's juggernauts had first arrived at Jonford because Nash had killed Crow.

The Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut had brought several men with him to gatecrash the Zabel family's martial arts school, while the Grim-Faced Juggernaut accompanied her granddaughter, Wanda York, to challenge the current champion, Bianca Lawson.

Skadi and Bianca were both good friends with Hera Lewis.