

CEO Bride 252

Chapter 252

"You are not welcome here!"

Zakariah knew of Nash's alternate identity as the Smiling Grim Reaper. Nash had gone to the Chateau Hotel last night, but the Smiling Grim Reaper had soon turned up at the mansion.

Initially, he had thought it was Justin pretending to be the Smiling Grim Reaper again. He only realized when another Smiling Grim Reaper turned up after the first one left that it had been Nash and that Justin was the second Smiling Grim Reaper.

Nash had probably donned the Smiling Grim Reaper costume because he was going after Howard and the others.

He had deduced that the deaths of Howard and the three juggernauts were Nash's doing.

The fact that the Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut was here to see the Smiling Grim Reaper meant they had been at the mansion last night and that they had not attacked because they knew the Smiling Grim Reaper was here.

Now, they were here to find out the Smiling Grim Reaper's identity.

However, it was only Justin pretending to be the Smiling Grim Reaper now.

Though they could not see Justin's face when he wore the costume, he did not have any of Nash's steadfast mannerisms. There was no doubt Justin would expose himself if he needed to face someone as powerful as the Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut, who was a Profound Reality Realm expert.

They would have attacked the Zabel family last night if the decoy Smiling Grim Reaper had not been here last night.

His grandfather would not have died for nothing either!

The Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut narrowed their eyes, tightening their grip on the combat sword as they did so.

He was still unsure if this Smiling Grim Reaper was the real deal.

If he was, their skills were no match for his.

Nash tightened his grip on the diamond bayonet, a cold glint in his narrowed eyes.

He did not want to kill the Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut inside the Zabel family home.

If he did, there was no doubt the Zabel family would be targeted by the Green Bamboo Association.

“Come on, juggernaut, attack him!”

Simon hurried forth and urged the Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut on when he noticed they had not moved.

He wanted to get his revenge before rigor mortis set in completely on his grandfather's body.

"Shut up!"

The Hidden-Ghost Juggernaut slapped him.

How dare a newly-appointed faction leader boss him around?

Simon's face got beaten to a pulp.

However, Frank did not dare voice his anger.
