

CEO Bride 257

Chapter 257

"I can't contact him. He went abroad ten years ago and hasn't been in touch with us since then. However, he occasionally sends letters to Mom. I think I remember his daughter's name being Yvonne!"

"Okay, I got it. Liam, are you free tonight? How about having dinner at our place?"

"Ah, will... will that be convenient?"

Liam's voice sounded a little nervous. He had probably heard about her family issues.

"Of course, it's convenient. After all, Lincoln's daughter is also here. Don't you want to meet your niece?"

"Alright, I'll call you after work!"

Lauren hung up the landline and texted Yvonne's name to Nash.

Nash was in the arrival area of Jonford Airport.

Xeno was holding a cardboard sign with the name 'Yvonne Mare' written on it in rough, crooked handwriting.

Nash could not help but say, "Your handwriting's pretty good!"

Xeno looked a little embarrassed. "I never went to school..."

Having said that, he held the sign up high.

They were not even sure which flight Yvonne was on.

Every time a large group of passengers came out, both of them would scan the crowd.

Felicity was just too young. Xeno did not believe her title one bit.

Nash leaned in and said, “I’ve seen her in Sagen. She’s indeed the deputy chief of Sagen’s Inspection Office!”

Hearing this, Xeno’s face turned ashen.

Nash showed a wry smile. He looked at Felicity and asked, “Did you come to Jonford for a vacation?”

“Sort of! Actually, it’s mainly to investigate someone! The three Juggernauts of the Green Bamboo Association and the leader of the ninth branch, Howard, are dead. I’m here to find out which outlaw did it!”

Felicity’s gaze, hidden behind her sunglasses, was fixed intently on Nash’s face, as if trying to find the answer on it.

Nash responded with a subtle smile, “Who do you think it was?”

Felicity leaned closer to Nash and slowly said, “I think... it was you.”

A faint fragrance reached Nash's nostrils.

Nash grinned and said, "You can investigate all you want, then!"

Felicity responded disdainfully, "Just you wait and see. I only need half a day to find out!"

"Felicity..."

At that moment, Angelica, who was dressed casually, squeezed through the crowd.

"I have to go now. I'll come by to see you tomorrow!"

Felicity waved, pulling her suitcase toward Angelica.
