

CEO Bride 258

Chapter 258

"Felicity, who were you talking to just now?"

Angelica looked toward Nash and Xeno with curiosity.

There were too many people around, so she could not see their faces.

Thinking about the embarrassing thing she did earlier, Felicity's face turned red. "Let's not mention it. It was so awkward!"

After exchanging a few pleasantries, the two left the airport.

Nash and Xeno continued to wait for Yvonne.

They waited for three full hours, but she did not show up.

"Mr. Nash, should we ask Mr. Skye to check the airline ticket information? Perhaps something came up and Ms. Mare didn't board the plane?"

Xeno suggested as he took out his phone, prepared to make a call.

Nash nodded and reluctantly said, "That seems to be the only option."

Just then, another large wave of passengers emerged.

Among them, a girl in a light pink princess dress was looking around curiously.

Beside her was a middle-aged man with a square face and a goatee. He pulled along a pink suitcase

Xeno gave a rueful smile and then crumpled up the sign with Yvonne's name on it, tossing it into a nearby trash can.

"So, if you're my cousin Hera's husband, should I just call you Nash?" Yvonne turned to Nash and asked.

"That depends on you!" Nash replied with a slight smile.

"Well, I'm in a good mood!"

"How did you meet my cousin?"

"That's a long story. You can ask your cousin when we get home!"

Nash said, unsure how to explain the complicated relationship.

Certainly, he could not just say he had a marriage contract with Helena, who did not agree with the marriage, so Hera was forced to marry him instead, right?

In front of the Mares, he had to protect Hera's reputation.

An hour later, Xeno drove into Royal Bay.

As they passed Kai's villa, Xeno said with a laugh, "Walter really took drastic measures this time, even taking back Kai's villa!"

Xeno knew how much Walter had doted on Kai.

"No matter how tough Walter is, he's still Kai's grandfather. If someone else were to deal with him, Kai would be in danger!"
