

CEO Bride 259

Chapter 259

The 'someone else' Nash referred to was none other than himself.

Had it not been for Olivia's sake, Kai would have suffered.

In the backseat, James looked somewhat startled. "Isn't this the Royal Bay? Do you live here?"

The villas in Royal Bay were among the top-tier luxurious residences in the country.

The price for one was at least 50 million. Even with money, it might not be available for purchase.

How could a small family like the Lewises afford to buy a villa in such a place?

"Who are you looking down on here?"

Xeno muttered quietly.

Mr. Nash was a privileged client of the Skye family.

The platinum membership card he held could purchase ten houses in Royal Bay alone.

Once the car came to a stop, Nash got out and opened the doors for the two of them.

Xeno, on the other hand, took out the luggage from the trunk.

James quickly snatched the suitcase from Xeno, saying flatly, "I can handle it myself!"

a bit frustrated inwardly.

all, he was the second-in-command of Dragon Tiger Gate with hundreds of men under him. Many wealthy family heads had to be courteous in front of him, should head back to the Zabels'. Call me

for an excuse

and quickly said, "Mr. Nash... I..."

might target the Zabels at any moment. I'd feel better

a smile.

"Alright, Mr. Nash!"

sighed in

the car, shifted gears, and pressed the accelerator.

Yvonne had reached the front of the decorated in a simple European style, with top-notch brands for looked elegant yet

more

her Winnie the Pooh plush less than half the size of don't just stand there.

the two guests with expression, as if

"Thank you, Nash!"

thanked him

followed Nash

guests arriving, Maria immediately prepared tea.

Sitting on the spacious sofa, Yvonne removed her shoes and socks before crossing her legs. With a pitiful face, she said to James, "Uncle James, I'm hungry..."

She had not eaten or drunk anything since morning. She was already starving on the plane.

James' stern face softened slightly. "Hold on a bit longer. Your Aunt Lauren will be back soon!"

"You must be both tired and hungry from the journey. I'll ask Maria to prepare something for you to eat!" Nash, who grew up alone without relatives, was a bit nervous hosting his mother-in-law's family.

"No need, Nash. I need to save space for a feast tonight!" Yvonne replied obediently.

In the park outside the villa, there was a tall man in a suit wearing a pair of sunglasses. He touched the Bluetooth earpiece and whispered, "They've arrived at Jonford and have settled in the Royal Bay Villa!"

A chilling voice came from the other end. "Find an opportunity to get the test item, then eliminate them!"

"Yes, Sir!"

The man replied respectfully.

"Who are you? What are you doing here?"

Hera had just parked her car when she noticed a suspicious man in the park outside.

This place was a private park for the villas here. Outsiders were not allowed without permission. Moreover, this man's attire did not resemble that of Royal Bay's security.