

CEO Bride 264

Chapter 264

They were just having a casual dinner, so Nash only reserved a Diamond Private Room.

Even so, the Diamond Private Room at the Chateau Hotel was about 200 square meters.

Holding her Winnie the Pooh, Yvonne exclaimed again, "Such a big room, such a big table! I've never dined in such a luxurious hotel before!"

She then turned to Hera, asking curiously, "Hera, do you often dine here?"

Hera replied with a smile, "I've only dined here once. This time, it's all thanks to you that I get to eat here again."

"Hehe... Hera, you sure have a way with words!"

Yvonne giggled amusedly.

Soon after, the waiter started serving dishes.

In order to avoid waste, Nash instructed Olivia to prepare portions for only eight people.

There were 18 signature dishes plus three soups.

An ordinary banquet would look pretty much like this.

However, these dishes were beyond what one would expect at a regular banquet.

Maria sat on a bench at the entrance of her son.

"Logan... come back!"

Xeno shouted loudly.

He started using guns 20 years ago and had been practicing shooting in recent years.

He could hit any target within a hundred meters with every shot.

However, just now, he actually missed all his shots.

It was as if an invisible barrier around the man had altered the bullet's trajectory.

Logan reached out to grab the man in the suit.

"Found it..."

The suited man picked up a fist-sized box.

At the same time, Logan's hand was on his neck.

The man in the suit suddenly stood up, and a terrifying force sent Logan flying.

Seeing this, Xeno raised his hand and fired three more shots.

With a swift motion, the suited man caught all three bullets in his hand.

Catching bullets with bare hands?

Xeno gasped in disbelief.
