

CEO Bride 277

Chapter 277

Nash did not click on any of them. Instead, he just published a post.

[Heavenly Martial Arts Order

[Location: Jonford, Drakonia.

[Time: In eight hours.

[Event: Confidential.

[Contact person: Zakariah Sinclair Zabel.

Minimum strength requirement: Strage one great-grandmaster.]

After typing out the corresponding information, he clicked on a golden token icon on the right, and a three-dimensional token instantly appeared on the computer screen.

The words 'Heavenly Martial Arts Order' were engraved on it as it burned amidst golden flame. He then clicked on 'publish.' The token on the screen spun before finally disappearing.

Nash leaned back against the chair and muttered to himself, "We'll have to use excessive force this time to properly scare the Kleins."

The Kleins had planned the Young family tragedy. The destruction of the Ten Juggernauts would definitely draw their attention, but Nash had no plans on confronting them head-on before he broke through from the Profound Reality Realm.

The Heavenly Martial Arts Order was a token made by the master. His master had traveled around the country for decades and bestowed favors on numerous martial artists. They all owed his master a favor. So, if he were to issue a Heavenly Martial Arts Order, they would definitely gather at the first possible moment.

Zakariah, Nash then went downstairs with his arms

Yvonne to Bianca and Skadi. Yvonne had a cheerful personality and off with them.

Maria, the atmosphere grew especially lively at the a drumstick. "Skade, eat more. You should Aunt Lauren!"

chicken leg without angry as she said, "Mom, why don't I drumstick?"

also hurriedly added, "That's right. I don't get that the two of them a blank look.

stomach and with a smile, "You shouldn't eat so much spicy food if your stomach hurts. This chicken leg much!"

everyone laughed as their grins stretched from ear to ear.

smiling. He father been released?" Nash as his fingers clenched around the cutlery he was holding. A bitter smile came over his face as he said, "The longer had their

It's a blessing that your father is fine!" Yvonne

"Thank you," Finn replied, feeling a warm current pass through his heart.

"Ahem, no worries. Haven't you been punished anyway?" Yvonne blinked and said.

The moment she said that, their laughs erupted. Finn, of course, knew what they were laughing about and immediately flushed with shame.

After lunch, Lauren decided to take Yvonne and Hera out shopping, but Nash interjected, "Things aren't so calm outside today. You guys shouldn't go out."

Yvonne pouted. "You're so powerful, Nash. Besides, Finn is also an expert. What's there for us to be afraid of?"

She knew her aunt was a very busy lady and that she might not have time to go shopping after today.

Lauren just smiled and replied, "Your cousin-in-law doesn't like shopping, so let's just listen to him. There's a study room, a gymnasium, as well as a karaoke room, and an e-sports room in the villa. We can even play golf!"

Hera raised his hand and echoed, "I agree with my mother's suggestion. I want to play golf!"

Nash was indeed powerful. If even he said that it was not safe out today, then the situation was likely dangerous.

Skadi and Bianca also raised their hands in agreement.

Yvonne yielded to the majority but then suggested, "Then let's sing! I'll let you guys hear my singing. I've been practicing for two and a half years!"

Everyone agreed and then went to the karaoke room on the third floor.

Nash then took Finn outside.

Xeno had been waiting for a long time. When he saw Nash coming out, he immediately stepped forward and said, “Mr. Nash, the four young masters of the Green Bamboo Association are hosting a dinner at the Dynasty Grand Hotel for the younger generation of the top five business giants in Jonford. They invited you!”