

CEO Bride 280

Chapter 280

Nash led Finn and Xeno into the private room. Felicity was slightly taken aback.

Why was he here?

When Helena saw Nash, it was as if she laid eyes on her lifeline. "Nash! Nash, save me!"

She was certain that Kai would not be able to save her anymore. The young ladies and young masters from the other prominent families also did not dare interject in this situation, so only Nash could save both her and Kai now.

When the four young masters of the Green Bamboo Association saw the man of the hour arrive, the smiles on their faces disappeared.

The two bodyguards who had been beating up Kai also stopped.

Nash grinned and said, "Go on. Don't stop!"

Then, he dragged a chair over and squeezed in between Olivia and Sydney.

Grabbing a glass from beside him, he took a sip from it as if he was here to watch a good show.

"That's my glass..." Sydney clenched her fists and gritted her teeth.

Only then did Nash notice the lipstick mark on it. "Sorry." He then hurriedly returned the glass to Sydney.

Felicity took a sip from her own untouched glass. She left a lipstick mark on it as well before pushing it toward Nash. "Drink mine. I don't mind!"

All six stage three grandmaster-level bodyguards rushed forward together.

Finn waved the dagger in his hand lightly, and a faint force emerged from his blade, pushing them back.

Immediately afterward, he grabbed Winnie's left hand and pressed it against the wall before cutting off all five of his fingers without hesitation.

"Ah!"

Fingers were connected to the heart, so the pain was excruciating.

Winnie gasped in pain as all color instantly drained from his face. He turned as pale as a sheet.

Hugh, Xavier, and Taka were startled, the corners of their eyes twitching wildly. This guy actually dared lay a finger on Winnie?

When Taka recalled how Nash had destroyed one of his eyes in front of his grandfather, he could not help gulping out of reflex. Forget cutting off Winnie's fingers, he would not be surprised if Nash were to kill him.

"Winnie, do you know who I am?" Finn smiled softly and asked.

Winnie had never seen Finn. He had only ever contacted him through the phone, so he had no idea who he was before he spoke. Now that he had spoken, Winnie immediately knew that this man was a relative of the man whose finger he had chopped off this morning.

"Y-You dare lay your hands on me? I'll have that old man killed! You... you have an aunt too, don't you? I'll have someone chop them up and feed them to the dogs!!"

Winnie was sweating profusely from the excruciating pain that his words were cutting off intermittently. Despite that, they were still ruthless.
