

CEO Bride 281

Chapter 281

Finn grabbed Winnie's right hand and pressed it against the wall before driving his blade through and cutting off his thumb. The next cut took his index finger.

Winnie was screaming non-stop, and despite the six bodyguards seeing it, they were helpless. They were worried the man would kill Winnie if they were to intervene.

Everyone in the private room did not dare breathe as they were utterly confused.

When had the Green Bamboo Association ever been bullied like this?

Xeno swallowed dryly. This was expected of a target Mr. Nash had set his eyes on. The man was absolutely ruthless!

Nash was drinking his wine as if nothing was happening. He then looked at the other three gentlemen and said with a smile, "Didn't you invite me for a meal? Come, let's toast!"

Taka picked up his wine glass with a trembling hand.

Hugh and Xavier also held theirs tremblingly.

"Cheers!"

Nash tipped his head back and downed the alcohol while the other three sipped theirs absent-mindedly.

Even Olivia lost her composure at that. He was allowed to put on an act, but he was really going overboard...

Finn wiped the blood off his dagger using Winnie’s clothes before returning to stand behind Nash.

“Do you feel better?” Nash asked.

Finn nodded heavily. “I’m so happy. I’ve never been this happy before.”

He had made up his mind that he would follow Nash for the rest of his life.

Laying on the ground, Winnie looked at his ten broken fingers and cried bitterly, “Take... Take me to the hospital quickly... Hurry up...”

At that, the six bodyguards immediately rushed over to him.

Helena also helped Kai up from the ground as she expressed her concern for him. “Kai, a-are you alright?”

“I-I’m fine,” Kai struggled. He had coughed up a lot of blood.

“I’m fine. Let’s go!”
