

CEO Bride 302

Chapter 302

In the evening at Jonford Royal Bay, Melody parked the car at the entrance.

As soon as Finn got out of the car, he began to vomit uncontrollably. Despite being a stage-six grandmaster, he still got car-sick.

This was because Melody had driven incredibly fast, maintaining the highest speed for most of the journey. He still felt as if he were walking on cotton.

“Nash... you’re back? Aunt Lauren and Hera went to work, and I was getting...”

Yvonne walked out happily.

Seeing the woman next to Nash, her smile gradually froze. “Who’s this... old lady?”

“Yvonne, don’t be rude!”

Nash glared at Yvonne.

“Boo-hoo... You yelled at me... You yelled at me for another woman!”

Yvonne started crying, rubbing her eyes with both hands.

Concerned about causing real harm, Melody let go. Yvonne fell heavily to the ground, crying loudly.

Maria had gone out to buy groceries, so she was not home. Hence, Nash brewed some tea and handed a cup to Finn. "Take a sip to calm down!"

Finn was touched. Mr. Nash treated him like a brother and a friend. Following Mr. Nash was definitely his wisest choice.

Melody walked in, and her phone rang.

"Melody... I buried your grandparents in Young Gardens!"

"Thank you, Grandpa Eve!" Melody responded, her tone somber.

"Ol' Devil has turned your house upside down. Did you hide those two things well?"

"G-Grandma burned them!"

"What?!"

The person on the other end of the phone reacted strongly.

Melody narrowed her eyes and continued, "Grandma said they can't fall into the hands of the Ol' Devil... so she completely destroyed them!"

"Ah... That's good. It's good that they were burned... Take care in of yourself in Jonford."
