

CEO Bride 308

Chapter 308

Just as Nash closed his eyes, Lauren called.

"Mom..."

"Nashy... Did you and Hera get into a fight?"

"Uh... A slight misunderstanding," Nash said awkwardly.

"Can you tell me what happened?" Lauren inquired with concern.

"It's nothing... Just a small issue."

Nash did not want to reveal Yvonne's part in the matter. Lauren had recently gotten closer to her niece and the Mares. He was mindful of maintaining the harmony between them.

"Ah... I shouldn't interfere with young people's affairs... But I hope you can be more understanding. Hera might have a temper, but deep down, she truly loves you!"

"This matter isn't really related to Hera. I'll soothe things over with her tomorrow," Nash replied, slightly amused.

Lauren seemed to think Hera was throwing a fit.

"Is the proposal ready?"

"It's been ready for a while. However, be prepared. The other two companies that possess the 7 - nanometer machines also have appointments with them. I expect a bidding war, and our qualifications are far behind theirs..."

"We'll discuss it when I get to the office!"

Hera hurriedly got up after hanging up the phone.

Universal Group, one of the top ten companies globally, was the largest electronics firm known for their high-end smart devices.

Smartphones, new energy vehicles, smart watches, laptops, smart homes, and everything one could imagine, they produced it.

All of these devices required chips, and in this era of ubiquitous smart devices, the 7- nanometer chip processor was in high demand.

A collaboration with Universal Group could catapult Baroque to the top tier of chip suppliers.

After hastily freshening up, Hera sat at her vanity. Noticing the dark circles under her eyes, she meticulously covered them with makeup.

"Hera... Are you heading to work?" Yvonne lazily opened her eyes.

"Yes, I have an important business deal to discuss today!" Hera replied with excitement, seemingly having forgotten about the previous night's events.

"I want to go too!"

"Then hurry up and get dressed..."
