Chapter 311

The signal to the surveillance footage was interrupted.

After Melody disconnected the surveillance system's cables in Sweedy's hospital ward, she stated the purpose of their arrival, "We're here to take what Shanty gave you!"

Abruptly, a tremble ran through Sweedy. Her gaze that was fixed on them was filled with fear and anxiety as she asked, "J-Just who are you guys?"

"I'm from the Young Family Village," Nash revealed, as only by claiming to be from the Young Family Village could they get Sweedy to hand over the fragment.

"Y-Young Family... Village? What is that place?" Sweedy was puzzled at first. However, she then exclaimed in surprise, "How do you know my sister's name?"

"My grandmother is also from Young Family Village. I heard about Shanty from her," Melody said with a blank expression as she crossed her arms.

After a long silence, Sweedy glared at Nash and asked, "Whose child are you? Is your family close to my sister?"

"He's the direct descendant of Christopher Young. Sweedy is just someone who married into the branch family," Melody answered on Nash's behalf.

“Walter was unaware of what happened back then and was forced to lend his manpower to Howard. I don’t blame him,” Nash sighed and turned to Melody. “Let’s go look for Sylvan.”

They left the ward, and by coincidence, saw Walter walking toward them.

“Mr. Calcraft, is my wife okay?” Walter looked nervous. He was afraid that she might have revealed some things to Nash.

“She’s fine. She just needs some more rest,” Nash replied expressionlessly before quickly walking away with Melody.

“I’ll walk you out!” Walter called out and hurried after them.

After seeing Nash’s group off, he rushed to Sweedy’s room and asked coldly, “What did you tell them just now?”

Nash’s attitude had changed dramatically from how he was earlier. Walter could not help but assume the worst. Sweedy just shook her head. “I didn’t say anything.”

Since the Young family members had forgiven Walter, the Watsons would not face any retaliation. Walter likely had no idea just who Nash was. Nash had even sent the others out just now, which meant that he did not want anyone else to know his background either. In this case, she would also keep his secret.

In an Audi outside the villa, Xeno had ended a call. With a dark expression, he said, “Sylvan has a significant amount of debt. He used the Map of Splendid Mountains and Rivers as collateral to the creditor, Black Tiger Hall. They, in turn, entrusted it to the Artful Prosperity Auction House for consignment. The auction house has scheduled to auction it this afternoon!”
