

CEO Bride 327

Chapter 327

Fabian felt his stomach flip.

He knotted his eyebrows together as he said, "I don't eat this stuff... Take it away..."

The fox seemed to sense that Fabian was upset.

It backed away in disappointment.

After hiding the food under a pile of straw, the fox walked back toward the tiger with its head hanging low. It curled up next to it.

Fabian could not be bothered to pay the animals any more attention.

He closed his eyes, hoping to get some rest.

Then, a deep growl rang out.

That sound did not come from the tiger.

Fabian immediately opened his eyes.

He was met with the sight of a six-foot-tall brown bear standing at the cave's entrance.

"Damn it..."

Fabian grabbed a branch and used it as a torch to stare at the brown bear cautiously.

Thirty minutes later, the helicopter landed where Fabian's last location had been traced.

The trio stood at the edge of the cliff, frowning.

Finn smacked his lips together and asked, "Do you think Fabian fell off the cliff?"

Melody said with worry, "It's possible!"

Nash looked around him, and then pointed at the marks left behind by the branches, "We can find him if we follow the signs!"

His only worry was that Fabian would end up becoming some wild beast's dinner.

It did not take the three long before they were surrounded by wolves.

An intent look appeared in Nash's eyes as a terrifying, murderous aura filled their surroundings.

The wolves escaped with their tails between their legs.

Inside the cave, the fox curled up in Fabian's arms, unable to rest in ease as they listened to the sounds of the tiger and bear fighting outside the cave.

Soon, the sounds gradually subsided. Fabian gulped and walked toward the cave's entrance, torch in hand.

The bear had disappeared, and the injured tiger was lying in a pool of blood.

Whimpers escaped the fox's throat, and tears flowed from its brilliant blue eyes.

It jumped down from Fabian's arms and ran to the tiger, where it began licking its wounds.

"Fabian..."
